PRICE—TWO CENTS

1,000 PUPILS ABSENT FROM SCHOOLS HERE DUE TO EPIDEMIC OF COLDS

Situation, However, Reported Well Under Control and Schools Will Remain Open — Special Precautions Have Been Taken and Students With Colds Sent Home — 17 Per Cent of Teachers Away

Approximately 1,000 pupils were absent from Westmount Protestant and Catholic public schools this week as a result of the current island-wide epidemic of colds, according to information supplied by S. F. Kneeland, superintendent of Protestant public schools, and Brother Merry Alphonse, principal of St. Leo's Academy.

The school heads asserted, however, that the epidemic was a mild one as far as it affected individual pupils and that it was rapidly being brought under control. Although considerable thought was given to the advisability of closing the schools, it is now felt that this step is unnecessary, as there has been a marked improvement in attendance this week over that of last Friday and Saturday.

Roslyn was the most seriously affected of all Westmount Schools with 300 pupils, out of an average enrolment of 700, absent. Slightly over a third of Queen's 300 students were away. The regular enrolment of 400 at King's was reduced by about 30 per cent. Argyle Junior High, with a regular enrolment of 500, had an absentee list of 175.

St. Leo's Academy, which had seriously considered closing down last week, reported that the situation there has improved greatly during the past few days and while over 30 per cent of its students were absent last Friday, only 20 per cent were away on Wednesday.

When questioned this week Mr. Kneeland stated that while the epidemic is fortunately of a mild type it has caused more pupils to be absent than any he could remember in recent years.

Every precaution has been taken, he said, to prevent its spread. Classrooms in all schools were given a complete airing at every opportunity and plenty of fresh air was kept in circulation.

All pupils who showed the slightest symptoms of a cold were ordered to go home and were given advice as to the best methods to treat it.

The three municipal nurses under Dr. F. M. A. McNaughton, city health officer, were proving a great aid in the curbing of the spread of the epidemic and were visiting sick pupils in their homes as well as examining them in the schools, he stated.

The average pupil affected by the spread of colds has been laid up for four days. In nearly every case they develop a sore throat followed by a severe cough.

So far the percentage of teachers absent has been far less than that of the pupils, but has nevertheless proved a considerable problem in the running of the schools. About 16 per cent of the educational staffs have been away with colds, and due to the fact that a similar situation exists in practically every centre on the Island of Montreal it has been extremely difficult to obtain substitutes. In most schools schedules have been arranged to meet the circumstances.

The number of teachers absent are as follows: Westmount High, 4; Argyle Junior High, 3; Queen's, 3; King's, 3; Roslyn, 6.

Mr. Kneeland was of the opinion that the epidemic is now pretty well in hand and that normal attendance will return shortly. He advised those contracting a cold to remain home until well.

Fire Breaks Out In Snowshoe Club

This Boy Could Hardly Be Doubt
Getting into picture shows in Montreal, under the existing Quebec Laws, has become somewhat of an ordeal for some youngsters, particularly if they are small in stature. Few, however, fall back on the resourcefulness as displayed by one boy at a west end theatre this week.

This youngster approached the box office, looking very much under the required age of sixteen. The ticket seller hesitated.

The boy was not stumped. He drew from his pocket a Bible, raised it aloft in his right hand and said: "I swear before God and on this Bible that I am over sixteen."

Plans Will be Made to Replace Damage — Club One of The Best Known in the Country

The St. George Snowshoe Club, one of Westmount's most historic landmarks, was almost totally destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. The outbreak was first reported at 1.20 p.m. and by the time firemen arrived the blaze had made considerable headway. Below-zero weather hampered the firefighters in their efforts to save the structure.

Firemen of both Westmount stations under Chief Gough and sub-chief Burris responded to the alarm and fought the blaze for over four hours before it was brought under control. Montreal apparatus was also called to the scene.

Firemen Injured
A veteran Westmount firefighter, William Youngston, of 629 Gordon avenue, Verdun, was seriously injured. He fell from the roof while attempting to bring a hose to the top of the building.

He was taken to the Homoeopathic Hospital in an ambulance summoned by Chief Burris. It was believed yesterday that he was suffering from chest wounds.

The fire was first reported by a cook employed by the club. The roof was the first part of the building to go and collapsed some 45 minutes after the outbreak was discovered.

The outbreak was Westmount's first major fire since the Belgian Embassy building on Kensington avenue near Sherbrooke street was destroyed by flames five years ago.

Loss Unknown
It was impossible to estimate the resultant loss yesterday. The building contained a number of paintings, trophies, and fittings of great value, all of which were completely destroyed.

The fire attracted persons from miles around as the flames and smoke could be seen as far east as Cote des Neiges road, and as far west as Claremont avenue. Traffic was diverted off the

Home And School Group Held Meeting On Monday
An interesting meeting was held on Monday evening at King's School when the members of the Home and School Association heard an address by Maxwell Ford, principal of the school. Mr. Ford discussed the topic "Is King's School an Asset to the Community?" Mr. Ford analyzed the situation from the following points: (1) housing during school hours; (2) program; (3) health; (4) personnel.

The first part of the structure was erected about 1897 when the classes averaged 25 pupils. As the classes today are from 25 to 44 the overcrowding is easily understood. This increases the risks of fire and is detrimental to good teaching. The extra activities are also hampered by lack of space and Mr. Ford mentioned in particular the advantages that would be gained if the school could be provided with a music room.

In regard to health, particular care is paid to the prevention of sickness and the minimizing of accidents. Although there have been

St. Leo's Students Pay Tribute To Pope Pius XI
The students and the Scout Troops of St. Leo's School showed their love for the late Holy Father Pope Pius XI by special prayers and reverence. On the morning that his death was announced to the world every class, in the school stood in reverent silence for two minutes and after a few words of eulogy from the teachers, the boys prayed for the soul of their beloved Pontiff. On their own accord they postponed all parties scheduled for the week.

Then a large framed picture of the Holy Father accompanied by a special apostolic benediction granted at the request of the Reverend Brother Merry Alphonse to the faculty and the students body was laid in the altar draped in purple and black. In turn, the class paid a visit to the effigy of the Holy Father while the Scout Troops of the School mounted guard.

The whole school plans to attend the solemn Requiem High Mass today. Before their regular weekly meeting on Tuesday the Scouts, who also enjoyed the rare privilege of the Papal Blessing, paid the Holy Father their last homage by pressing the colors and keeping their Scout silence.

WESTMOUNT TO REDUCE RATES ON ELECTRICITY COMMENCING MARCH 1ST

Council Decides On New Rate Following Lowering of Costs by M.L.H. & P. Cons. — Savings Will Vary From Eight Per Cent to Low Users to Ten Per Cent For Heavy Consumers

As a result of the recent lowering of rates by the Montreal Light, Heat and Power Cons., new electric rates will go into effect in Westmount on March 1, it was announced at a regular meeting of the City Council on Monday evening.

The new schedule will bring about a saving that will vary from eight per cent to low consumers, to ten per cent for heavy users of electricity in non-residential buildings. A large number of consumers will be effected by the change.

The new rates are: First 12 kilowatts, a minimum of 5.6 cents; next 38 kilowatts, 3.3 cents per kilowatt; next 150 kilowatts, 3 cents; next 1,800 kilowatts, 2.5 cents; next 3,000 kilowatts, 2.3 cents; subsequent kilowatts, 1.67 cent.

The former rate was 3 cents per kilowatt for the first 2,000 and 2.25 cents per kilowatt for additional consumption.

During the meeting a resolution of condolence in connection with the death of Pope Pius XI was adopted.

The meeting was presided over by Mayor Walter Merrill, K.C.

SCHOOL REPORT BY HEPBURN IS GIVEN PRAISE

Dr. F. W. Kerr Points Out That Document Gives Religion Larger Place In Education
The Rev. Dr. F. W. Kerr praised highly the Hepburn report on Protestant education in the Province of Quebec in his sermon in St. Andrew's Church on Sunday night, describing it as a most enlightening document.

The report refuted a great many of the criticisms aimed at the Protestant Education Committee, the minister declared. It stressed the importance of Canadian citizenship and character building and condemned the materialistic trend in education, he said.

The report, compiled by a committee formed almost entirely of laymen, gave religion an even larger place in education than ever before, he pointed out. It recommended that the teaching of the Bible, hymns and prayers be continued, as in the past, and further suggested that these teachings be extended to high school grades and to teacher-training institutions.

The Province of Quebec will give more prominence to the creation of Christian ideals than any place on the continent if the recommendations of the report are carried out, the minister averred.

Dr. Kerr agreed with Mr. Hepburn in his contention that physical educational programs should be designed to benefit all pupils. He believed that sports in which but a few students could take part were of little value.

Club Girls' Conference Group to Attend Service

On Sunday morning in Calvary Church, the members of the Club Girls' Conference of the Y.M.C.A., will attend the service and share in a special Communion Service. The Minister of Calvary, the Rev. T. W. Jones, a former Chaplain of the Y.M.C.A., will conduct the service and preach the sermon on the theme "Notable Women in Early Bible History."

At the evening service, Dr. Jones will preach on the theme, "Keeping Men on Their Feet," a message of inspiration and challenge for men and women sharing the struggle of life today.

The Sunday Schools will meet at 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. in regular class session. The teacher training class, under the leadership of Miss Gladys Watson, will continue its session at 3 o'clock.

The Pastor's Training class in preparation for reception into Church Membership on Easter Sunday, will be held at 4.15 p.m. in the S.S. Hall. Young people 14 years of age and upwards should make application to the Minister as early as possible.

On Monday, the Y.P.U. will meet at 8.15 p.m.

The Midweek Prayer and Bible Study service will be held on Ash Wednesday at 8.15 p.m. Special studies for the Lenten period will commence on this date.

On Friday, Feb. 24th, at 8.15 p.m. in the Church Hall, the Junior Square Circle will give a three act dramatic presentation entitled "Love, Inc." This is the first major performance of this dramatic group.

Citizens throughout the community of Calvary Church, are most cordially invited by the Minister to worship in Calvary during the Lenten season. The Pastor will gladly meet individuals for discussion of religious problems or matter relating to church life and work, or church membership, he says.

LEAVE ON TRIP
Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Harvey are leaving next week-end for New York, from whence they will sail aboard the George for an eight day cruise to the West Indies and South America.

CHURCH GROUPS TO HAVE NEW UNIFORMS
The Westmount Park United Church Taxis and Trail Range groups, will make a radical change of dress in the near future.

The new dress will consist of dark breeches and a shirt of field service gray. The hat which must be both serviceable and smart will be selected later.

It is expected by the leaders of the group, the Rev. Smith and Mr. Coupland, that the new dress will greatly improve the efficiency of the unit, as well as the general esprit de corps of the boys.

Outstanding Amateurs Secured for Annual Winter Show on March 3-4
Outstanding amateur skaters from some of Canada's leading figure skating clubs will appear in this year's annual Ice Carnival sponsored by the Rotary Club of Westmount at the Forum, in aid of the Montreal Children's Hospital.

Plans are rapidly taking shape and it is now certain that leading singles, fours, sextettes, eights and choruses from The Min-tos Skating Club of Ottawa, The Toronto Skating Club, the Quebec Figure Skating Club and the Winter Club of Montreal will appear to lend their support.

In addition to the talented amateurs to be seen this year, arrangements have been made for the premier appearance in Canada of Miss Hazel Franklin, the 14 year old wonder child from England who has been acclaimed by New York critics and by her trainer, Howard Nicholson, as already the equal of Sonja Henie and potentially a greater performer.

Comedy turns will again be a feature of this year's Carnival. One of the funniest men on the ice today has already been booked in the person of Alfred Trenkler.

Because of the popularity of last year's Carnival, the Rotary Club has again decided to present the 1939 show two nights, March 3 and 4. The producers of this year's Carnival is the Montreal Figure Skating Club, Inc.

WESTMOUNT, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1939

HONOUR FOR MRS. CASGRAIN

The Canadian financial and business world, not to mention the public at large, were pleasantly surprised to read in the press last week of the appointment of Mrs. Pierre Casgrain to the Board of Directors of Dominion Stores, Limited. It is the first time, it is believed, in the history of Canadian business that a woman has been elected to the Board of a large Canadian Company. Both Mrs. Casgrain and Dominion Stores are to be heartily congratulated upon what is obviously a very felicitous appointment.

Mrs. Casgrain, who is the wife of the Speaker of the House of Commons, is a resident of Westmount and well known throughout the west end. She is principally known for her work as President of the League for Women's Rights which, for twenty years, has been campaigning for the franchise for women in Quebec. It is extremely incongruous, incidentally, that an organization of successful and practical business people like Dominion Stores should place sufficient confidence in Mrs. Casgrain's counsel to elect her a member of their Board. The great mass of the public will heartily applaud the fair and far-seeing action of Dominion Stores in this practical endorsement of the right and the ability of women in business and at the same time learn their weakness or strength in merchandising for the housewife.

CANADA-NFLD. PHONE SERVICE

Telephone service between Canada and Newfoundland was inaugurated January 10th when His Excellency, Lord Tweedsmuir, telephoned the Governor of Newfoundland, Sir Humphrey Walwyn.

This new service is made possible through the co-operation of the Canadian Marconi Company, whose transmitting and receiving stations provide the facilities for sending the voice currents through space.

Thus Newfoundland, our nearest Empire neighbour, is included in the more than 70 countries whose telephones can be interconnected with telephones in Canada.

THEIR MAJESTIES' VISIT

Canada will do more than cordially welcome the news that the King and Queen will visit Canada next summer, they will enthuse over it. The visit will break a tradition for which there has never been any purpose. Never yet has a King or Queen of England stood upon Canadian soil, nor has any reigning monarch visited Australia, New Zealand or South Africa. Thanks to the improvement in communications, a visit to any of the Dominions does not now involve prolonged absence between the King and his advisers in London. It is to be hoped that the visit to Canada will be one of many.

NECESSITY FOR UNITY

Unity among Canadian provinces and maintenance of a solid Canadian credit structure were stressed as the prime needs of the Dominion at this stage of her development by T. A. Bradshaw, of Toronto, president of the North American Life Assurance Company and one of the outstanding authorities on municipal financing, in an address here Saturday night at the Cercle Universitaire.

Unity in Canada, Mr. Bradshaw said, is probably the most important need facing this Dominion today. "Our strength within the Dominion, within the Empire and in the world can be no greater than the degree of unity which we attain in our own country. It is important that we as individuals take an interest not only in our own businesses but in the business of our localities, our municipalities, our provinces and our Dominion. The statement that in unity there is strength is just as true today as it ever was and democratic unity is essential at this period in our history," he said.

A social worker with more enthusiasm than tact went to call upon Terence Shea, night watchman, at his home.

"I hope, Mr. Shea," he said, "that you do not squander your money in liquor and riotous living. I'm trying to interest the people of the neighborhood in the new savings bank, which has just been started. May I ask where you deposit your wages?"

"I'd just as soon tell ye as not," replied Mr. Shea. "Tis $15 a week I make. When I've paid the rent, the provisions and the grocery bill, and the milkman, and bought what's needed for Maggie an' me five children, I deposit the rest of me money in barrels. I use sugar barrels. They're bigger an' hold more. But when I can't get them, I make shift with plain flour barrels."—Montreal Star.

THE FORUM

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

Conducted by HOWARD S. ROSS, K.C.

NOTE:—The opinions expressed in these columns are not necessarily those of this newspaper and it does not accept responsibility for them. They are published for their general interest, variety and originality of treatment.

The British House of Commons has included the principle of proportional representation for different elected bodies in a number of important Acts of Parliament, the latest being the Government of India Act. The reasons have always been the same—the desire that representation should be fair, and confidence that P. R. would give a fair result. The single transferable vote is the method recommended. Each elector expresses his vote by marking the figures 1, 2, 3, and so on, opposite the names of candidates in the order of his choice. Each ballot paper counts for one vote. It stands in the place of the elector. If in a ward electing six members one candidate polls one sixth of the votes, say, 1000 out of 6000, that candidate becomes under P. R. one of the successful six. A minority of substantial size is sure of representation. The vote is counted in the first instance for the candidate who is the elector's first choice. If this candidate can use the vote for his election, no later choice comes into force. But the free expression of choices is against the wastage of the elector's vote. If a first choice candidate obtains more votes than are desirable in order to guard sufficient for election, or if he is clearly defeated, the vote, instead of being wasted, is transferred in accordance with the further choices expressed by the elector on his ballot. The official regulations governing the counting of the votes, sanctioned by the House of Commons have been put to the test in many elections and the results show beyond question that the single transferable vote is workable and effective. "Simple to understand and easy to carry out" is the verdict of the people of Ireland.

The Rambler

By FREDERICK P. FAILES

One day last week we rambled to the other side of town to catch a movie, a revival of a production we had seen a couple of years or so ago. The picture was not one of the outstanding offerings, nor did it boast "big" stars, but it did have two or three particularly well done scenes, and it was this that proved the magnet to induce the writer to take passage on a street car and journey for an hour to the otherwise insignificant theatre. The scenes in question lived vividly enough in the memory, but there was a thrill in seeing them done over again. Some of the lesser players in the picture have since attained fame, and there was the added satisfaction in realizing that it was perhaps these scenes which had aided in the step up the ladder.

Long contact with the theatre, both in the publicity end and in the actual operation, have led this writer to take screen fare quite seriously. There is more to a picture than just the story, the work of a star or a brilliant director. It is a combination of factors which makes or breaks a production. We can recall many occasions of sitting through a picture, knowing that it was terrible, or knowing that it was a box-office "flop" (and all box-office "flops" are not terrible, or vice-versa) for the express purpose of finding out just what made them that way. One picture in particular which we remember, which had odor not unlike a fish market on a Friday morning, we saw three times, all because in one section it introduced scenes which reflected the genius in the producer, but which for some reason he had been able to inject into only one small part of the picture. We realize, of course, that to the average moviegoer, a film is either good or bad, and on that judgment is created his desire to see it. We realize, also, that a picture which is a "wow" in New York can come close to the "flop" rating here. This is one of the things about the business of moviemaking that provide plenty of headaches to the celluloid moguls.

As we pen these paragraphs, the memory of many important scenes come to mind. The ability of a picture to be remembered, in our way of thinking, is the standard of a truly great picture. Who can forget, for instance, that scene in "Beau Geste" where the younger Geste, stands trumpeting over his dead brother, fulfilling a lifelong promise of a "Viking funeral?" A great scene. Our memory goes a long way back, even to our early teens, for some scenes. We have always been partial to David Wark Griffith, and still consider him one of the greatest directors of all time. Thus it is easy to recall such scenes as that one in "Birth of a Nation" where the Klansmen arrive in time to rescue the very much besieged veterans and their refugee guests. The tumbling of the mighty towers in "Intolerance" (enhanced with very well done sound effects in the silent days) will always be heard in memory. Best of all of Griffith's scenes, however, were the opening and closing "shots" of "Abraham Lincoln" as the camera carries the audience through the storm swept fortress to the little log cabin where Lincoln was born, and, at the end, to the Lincoln memorial.

Here, briefly, are a few of the scenes which we remember most: The mother in "Cavalcade" wending her way through the Armistice Day crowds, immediately after receiving word of the death of her son; Dolores Del Rio clinging frantically to the back of the truck as the troops go up the line in "Big Parade"; The girl tearing the mask from the phantom in "Phantom of the Opera"; The boyish frankness of the younger sister in "Only Yesterday" as he attempts to "kid" his mother into a proposal; The scene in "The Informer" where the rebel drops from the window; The death scene in "Smiling Through."

T. Taggart Smyth, general manager of the City and District Savings Bank, who reported a progressive year at the annual meeting of the company.

In a democracy, all qualified citizens are invited and urged to take part in the all-important work of self-government—national, provincial and local. Existing methods, in Canada, diminish or destroy this right of citizenship for large bodies of citizens.

The population of the U.S.A. was four million when the Constitution was adopted. Now there are that number of finger-printed criminals and there are of course many other criminals who have not had their finger prints taken. This is a statement made by Professor Walter Pitkin, Columbia University.

Of course, Ottawa does not boast of the big business of Montreal or of the exclusiveness of Westmount and Outremont. But it does have unnecessary noises; and though this is not one of the major problems of civilization, the City Fathers might well give them some attention. Blaring motor horns and racing engines and radios shrieking through open windows out into the darkness are inflictions, the absence of which would be a blessing to many.—Ottawa Citizen.

Cardinal Copello, cardinal for Spanish speaking South America with headquarters in Buenos Aires in a pastoral letter to the churches made an appeal for peace in which he wrote in part: "We implore peace for all the world, social and universal peace; that which is founded on the recognition of human rights, that has its origin in God, the source of all being, of all righteousness and of all justice."

"Life is not a succession of water-tight compartments. There is a mutual relationship and dependence between all its varied functions. Dean Inge once described happiness as 'a by-product of intelligent and useful occupation.'"

In 1907 our Government bought 672 buffaloes in Montana and placed them in our Northwest. Since then 12,000 have been killed and their meat and hides sold. Recently 20 buffaloes were sent to Europe to make a start at restocking Europe with this useful animal.

44 electric trains cover every day the 225 miles between Washington and New York in 225 minutes. The time to Los Angeles has been cut by 25 hours. 7000 passenger cars have been air-conditioned. In 14 years the average speed of freight trains in the U.S.A. increased from 10.3 miles per hour to 15.9; gross mileage increased from 14,877 to 28,041. New and faster trains are being put in service every month. During 1935 but one life was lost by the explosion of a heater.

"If I Were King" Is Romance on Regal Scale

Moviemakers who have come to look for something out of the run of usual screen fare from Frank Lloyd found what they expected in the magnificent production which is now showing at the Westmount United Theatre until Saturday. With Ronald Colman portraying the beloved and colorful Francois Villon, "If I Were King" paints history with lively and waggish, but always stirring, strokes.

The new Francois Villon is a warm-blooded mixture of history, Lloyd and Colman. History created the swashbuckling poet of the Paris backstreets who rose from the gutters to become the ruler of France. Lloyd added his good-natured interpretation of historical events and his skillful use of mob action; and Colman, in his great role, did the rest by presenting a rollicking and peppery Villon never before seen on stage or screen.

The Villon story revolves about the roistering poet who first wins widespread notoriety, not by his verses, but by looting the king's storehouses so that the people of Paris will not starve to death while Burgundy blockades the city. Made ruler of France for a week after meeting the king in a street brawl, Colman devotes himself to two great conquests: a princess at the court, played by Frances Dee, and the Burgundian armies.

A rollicking picture of medieval France is revealed in the tricky plotting of the old general against the spirited newcomer and in the unpredictable actions of crafty Louis XI, who manages to keep them all at each other's throats. When the generals, comfortable behind the stout walls, refuse to go out and battle for their king, Colman saves the day for France by forming his vagabond friends into a people's army to meet Burgundy.

Every Boy's Life Is Tense Drama in Itself

"There are 212 dramas at Boys Town," Spencer Tracy was dead-serious as he made the statement.

"There are 212 boys at the juvenile community which was founded by Father Flanagan, and every one of them has a story that would tear your heart out. I know. I talked to most of the boys while we were making exteriors at Omaha.

Tracy, who is reproducing a living character on the screen for the first time in "Boys Town." This film is now showing at the Monkland United Theatre until Saturday was intense as he talked about the "City of Little Men."

"One of these youngsters killed his own father. His father was a beast who beat his mother, starved his family and spent any money he could lay his hands on for drink. The six-year-old boy was brought up in the worst kind of ugly poverty. One day, when his father was hurting his mother cruelly, the boy grabbed a shotgun and shot him. Father Flanagan interceded for the youth and accepted responsibility for his conduct. Today he is one of the most docile, happiest youths in the community.

"A year ago a lad arrived at the gates of the town, limping on a wooden leg. He had hitch-hiked 2000 miles from Seattle. Leaving a few rags and his white cat, which he had carried all the way, at the gate, he sought the priest.

"But those are only a few of the real-life dramas which are represented in the 212 citizens of Boys Town. Hearing them makes a man mad at a world that can injure helpless children.

"I'm proud to have been able to bring the dramatic story of Father Flanagan has given me. My only hope is that my performance will in some slight way approximate the man whom I am representing. It's tough to play the part of a living man but Father Flanagan has given me sound advice and has helped me with little personalities which made the role much simpler."

Handsomeness Sabu Heads Cast Of Korda's Drums

Sabu, the handsome East Indian youngster who made a sensational screen debut in "Elephant Boy," makes his second film appearance heading the cast of "Drums," Alexander Korda's thrilling technicolor drama of intrigue and romance on India's Northwest frontier, which is now playing at the Snowdon United Theatre until Saturday.

Featured with Sabu are Raymond Massey, Roger Livesey, Desmond Tester and Valerie Hobson.

"Drums" casts Sabu as little Prince Azim, who is menaced by a power-crazed uncle, Prince Ghul, (Raymond Massey), who has murdered Azim's father and plots to flitch the boy's throne and rid his country of British rule.

Sabu strikes up a friendship with a little Scottish drummer boy (Desmond Tester), whose regiment has been sent to India, under the courageous Captain Carruthers (Roger Livesey), to put down the

Outside Entries For Festival On Increase

With a greater number of entrants than ever before in its history, the Quebec Musical Festival Competition will be held here from March 6 to 16, inclusive. Competitions will be held morning, afternoon and evening according to a pre-arranged schedule due for release next week.

Of special interest to followers of the Festival is the increase in entries from outside Montreal. Last year's total of over 10,000 entrants has been surpassed this year, and many towns heretofore unrepresented have entered choirs or individual artists in the 1939 Festival.

Of the group of seven distinguished judges who will adjudicate various classes of the competition, three will arrive in Canada next week.

Vallee Takes a Ride

Greeted with decidedly poor showings in all recent major popularity polls, Rudy Vallee's Thursday night show will drop from the networks within the next few weeks, leaving Kay Smith's consistently refreshing program as the midweek variety highlight.

Vallee's sudden rise to fame a decade back was undoubtedly due to his ability to excite the hearts of lonely maidens, and his fall can probably be traced to the love of the dramatic instead of the romantic. Possessor of a keen mind, Vallee is a hard-hearted business man, and away from the microphone he bears little resemblance to the Vagabond Lover of Thursday nights at 8.

Those of us who have been associated with him in news coverage and exploitation work will vouch for his thoughtfulness, keenness and at times, almost totalitarian authority, but it was these very attributes of the man that undoubtedly kept him at the top of the heap for so many years.

Vallee's sense of showmanship has apparently not yet deserted him, and notes from Manhattan to this desk hint that he will succeed Kay Kyser on the Luck Strike program in the near future. When you hear him plugging cigarettes instead of yeast, remember where you first read the news.

BREATHLESS BULLETINS

Canada will play host to the largest delegation of foreign broadcasters in her history this spring when King George and Queen Elizabeth cross the country from Atlantic to Pacific.

Though C.B.C. will cover the scene for Canadian, American and British listeners, networks throughout the world are sending special crews of commentators and technicians to assure full coverage of the royal visit.

Columbia's likeable Bob Trout will join the royal entourage at Montreal, and NBC and MBS will probably supplement C.B.C. broadcasts with special commentaries of their own.

Lord Tweedmuir addresses the nation from Montreal Saturday at 8 p.m., speaking at the banquet of the Boy Scout Association of Montreal celebrating the 82nd birthday of Chief Scout Baden-Powell.

Charles Boyer is due to succeed Tyrone Power as star of N.B.C.'s Hollywood Playhouse. Though Power was removed by Dictator Zanuck, the change will likely prove a popular one.

CUFF NOTES

Slowly discovering that radio is important news, daily newspapers across the country are restoring broadcast columns to their former spots of prominence.

The 1937 purge has flopped! Death of "Good News of 1937" and Tyrone Power as radio headlines are only opening shots in a well-planned though friendly war on radio by film moguls on the Coast.

Mischa Elton prefaces his approaching Montreal engagement with a performance of the Saint-Saens Violin Concerto No. 3 Sunday afternoon through CKAC as guest of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra.

Archbishop John Mitty, Rabbi Irving Reichart, Secretary of Commerce Hopkins and Governor Olsen of California will speak during the official opening of San Francisco's Golden Gate Exposition Saturday at 3 through CKAC.

President Roosevelt follows from Washington at 3.30. The President speaks again March 4, observing the 150th anniversary of the first

COMEDY SMASH HIT OF THE SCREEN

Wayne Morris and Priscilla Lane in a scene from the film "Brother Rat" which opens Sunday at Snowdon United Theatre.

GAY ROMANTIC STORY

Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. and Janet Gaynor in a scene from the film "The Young In Heart" now playing at the Seville United Theatre and opening Sunday at the Monkland United Theatre.

Young In Heart Stars Ride In Car Of Future

Deluxe rides in the "automobile of tomorrow" are taken by Janet Gaynor, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Paulette Goddard, Roland Young, Billie Burke and Richard Carlson in David O. Selznick's production, "The Young In Heart," which is now playing at the Seville United Theatre and will open Sunday at the Monkland United Theatre.

The car is a sleek, racy model held to be the most perfect job of practical streamlining ever devised, and studded with every convenience imaginable. The script called for such a machine, which is named, in the picture, the "Flying Wombat."

An advanced experimental car, that even surpassed the almost fantastic description given by I. A. R. Wylie in her Saturday Evening Post serial "The Gay Banditti," was discovered by the Selznick property department. The vehicle, developed after several years' experimentation in wind tunnels and on test roads at a tremendous cost, is capable of 150 miles an hour in its fourth forward speed, powered by an eight-cylinder, V-type engine. The front seat holds five persons. The gearshift is either positive or automatic, as driver wishes. The dashboard is padded in case of crash.

Skiing Conditions For This Weekend

Skiing conditions throughout the promised snowfall into a brief but nicely from the set-back suffered last Friday and Saturday, when rising temperatures turned a promised snowfall into a brief but very unwelcome rainstorm.

Latest reports received before press time showed that temperatures have dropped again to more wintry levels and that fresh snow has fallen to cover the crust left by Friday's rain. Although conditions are by no means perfect as yet, they are considerably improved and if more snow does fall, as has been promised by the Weatherman, there will be excellent sport again this weekend.

There is plenty of snow now — more than three feet on the average — at points between Shaw-

LUCY MONROE TO SING WITH MASONIC CHOIR

Well Known for Radio, Concert, Stage and Opera Work

There was organized in Montreal last year, a new male voice choir consisting entirely of members of the Masonic order. Masonic choirs are, of course, not a new departure, but it is seldom that a new organization of this type leaps so quickly into public favour. At their very first public appearance this choir earned the enthusiastic acclaim and unstinted praise.

Since then, the choir has made several public appearances, on each occasion being enthusiastically received. The Musical Director, Walter Clapperton, Hon. A.R.C.M. of the McGill Conservatorium of Music, and the Deputy Director, Herbert Simmonds, are both residents of Notre Dame de Grace, as also are a large number of the choir.

For their concert to be given in St. James United Church, on Wednesday, February 22nd, the choir have secured the services of Lucy Monroe, soprano, of New York, a brilliant young singer of whom much will be heard in the future. Known principally in Montreal for her radio work, Miss Monroe is equally at home in concert, on the stage and in opera.

On the stage, Miss Monroe has played leading roles in such operettas as "Rio Rita" and "Three Wives."

The members of the choir give their services voluntarily and devote their net earnings to various charitable objects.

bridge and Mont Tremblant in the Laurentians, at the Seignior Club near Montebello, at Lac Beauport near Quebec City, at St. Gabriel de Brandon, and a Sutton and Abercorn in the Eastern Townships. Another nice snowfall to bring the return of perfect surface conditions is all that is needed.

PLANNING IMPROVES KITCHEN

Although the idea of planning "the model home" is not new—in fact there have been "model home exhibitions" for years — yet the development of improved home equipment has made such rapid advances that the ideal home of only a few years ago is considerably outmoded by that of today.

This is probably truer of the kitchen than any other part of the house, says the Institute. With its paramount importance to the housewife, the kitchen has been the subject of constant thought for providing added convenience and economy of labour. Through the progressiveness of plumbing manufacturers generally, the planned kitchen of today represents a new peak in clever arrangement as well as functional beauty of design which affords pride and pleasure to its mistress. Though the kitchen cabinet and improved sinks of a few years ago were a decided improvement over any equipment previously available, a kitchen was still very much of a patchwork job. Utensils hung in odd places and there were corners and "underneath" difficult to keep clean. By contrast, the planned kitchen of today is lined with dust free, closed cabinets for stores, dishes and kitchen linens. The cabinet sink, obtainable in a wide range of colours and sizes, is an essential feature. These improved units provide such features as double drain boards, chromium-plated double swing faucet, and special type drain which permits them to be used for washing dishes. Drawers and cupboards underneath take care of garbage receptacle, pots, pans and other kitchen utensils. Convenient toe space is left under all cabinets. Of course, special attention should be given to the correct size and type of sink best suited to the owner's requirements. Moreover, its location — under a window — is an item of major importance in planning the kitchen. As the wall cabinet and range may be obtained to match the cabinet sink in height, design and colour, the planned kitchen presents a beautiful, harmonious, stream-lined appearance. The up-to-date plumbing contractor is equipped to give expert assistance and suggestions for a planned kitchen, and arrangements for easy financing are still available under the terms of the Home Improvement Plan, through local branch banks.

Although the new sink of a few years ago was a great improvement to the kitchen shown above, the room is scarcely recognizable in its streamlined remodelling of today. The gadgets which hung round the walls or were tucked under sink and table are now kept in the dust free cabinets. The new planned kitchen is easy to keep clean and a joy in which to live and work.

Johnson-Vorontzoff-Dachkoff
The marriage of the Countess Tatiana Vorontzoff-Dachkoff, daughter of the late Count Vorontzoff-Dachkoff, a Russian exile, who died recently in Germany, to Mr. Gordon Hewlett Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Johnson, Western avenue, took place in St. Margaret's church, Altrincham, England, on January 28th.

G. S. Addison, vicar of St. Margaret's officiated. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's uncle, Mr. Alfred Johnson, at Earlecliffe, Bowdon, Cheshire. Mrs. Johnson, mother of the bridegroom, who went to England to attend the wedding received with the bride couple. She wore a gown of teal blue crepe with matching hat and a corsage bouquet of orchids. The couple left later on their wedding trip to Italy, the bride travelling in a Burgundy colored outfit under a grey squirrel coat. They will reside in the Mayfair Mansions, Fielden Park, Didsbury, England. Mr. Johnson is a graduate of McGill University and of Oxford. He played hockey for England in the Olympic games in Switzerland and was awarded his half-blue for the sport at Oxford. He is at present Captain of the Manchester hockey team. The bride was born in St. Petersburg, (now Leningrad) and fled from Russia with her parents during the revolution. She received her early education in France and then studied at Oxford, where she received her degree in literature. To save an old cross at Eccles, England, a traffic island has been created for it by highway builders.

The Way To A Man's Heart

No Neutral, This Swiss Steak Takes Sides With Your Budget.

You can look right into the secret of this Savory Swiss Steak. Those white onions and hunks of tender round steak are having a grand time with mustard, herbs and ginger.

A savory Swiss steak is just what a skiing appetite yodels for. And the family budget gives it's blessing.

Savory Swiss Steak
(Serves 6)
Two pounds round steak, 2 table-spoons flour, 1-2 teaspoon ginger, 1-2 teaspoon mixed herbs, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, 1 cup boiling water, 8 to 10 small onions.

Cut steak in serving pieces. Mix flour, ginger, herbs and salt. Roll meat in mixture. Brown the pieces of meat very quickly, a few at a time, and place them in a 1-2 quart heat resistant glass saucepan. Add the Worcestershire sauce, mustard and hot water. Arrange onions over the top, cover the dish and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 1-2 hours or until meat is tender. Serve in the same dish.

Spiced Meat Balls
(Serves 6. About 16 balls)
When the night is cold, spiced meat balls keep both the heart and budget warm.

One pound ground beef steak, 1-2 pound ground pork sausage, 1-2 cup mashed potatoes, 1 egg beaten, 1-2 cup milk, 1-2 cup fine bread crumbs, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon paprika, 1-4 teaspoon nutmeg, 1-4 teaspoon allspice, 1-4 teaspoon cloves, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, 3 table-spoons flour, 1 cup tomato puree.

Mix meat, potato, egg and milk together. Combine bread crumbs, salt, pepper and spices, then blend with the meat mixture. Form into about 16 small balls and roll them in flour. Brown on all sides in a small amount of hot fat in a 1-2 quart saucepan. Pour tomato puree over the meat balls. Cover and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for about 45 minutes.

WHEN THE Quebec Musical Festival Competition found that a special organizer was needed to conduct their current campaign for supporting memberships, Miss Alice Lighthall was chosen to fill that important post. This campaign entails a great deal of hard work on the part of the organizer. Miss Lighthall has introduced the idea of corporate membership which entitles them to attend festival sessions. She has working under her a group of regional captains or secretaries, who have charge of their own locality.

The idea of working a campaign under such a system, is the novel idea of Miss Lighthall's and has been with considerable success. Miss Lighthall is one of the few women campaign organizers in Canada, which is quite a feat for any woman, considering that the campaign reaches from Prince Edward Island to Western Ontario.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Mind" is the subject of the lesson-sermon to be read in churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world on Sunday. The Golden Text is from Peter 3:8, "Be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous."

Among the citations which comprise the lesson sermon is the following from the Bible: "If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, of any bowels and mercies,—Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus." Philippians 2:1, 5).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "One infinite God, good, unifies men and nations; constitutes the brotherhood of man; ends wars; fulfills the Scripture, 'Love thy neighbor as thyself;' annihilates pagan and Christian idolatry,—whatever is wrong in social, civil, criminal, political, and religious codes; equalizes the sexes; annuls the curse on man, and leaves nothing that can sin, suffer, be punished or destroyed." page 340).

BOYS BRIGADE COMPANIES TIE 1-1 IN HOCKEY GAME PLAYED AT MURRAY PARK ON SATURDAY

First Westmount and Eighth N.D.G. Units Played First Round of Exhibition Tournament — Local Team Lighter Than Visiting Squad — Lamb Starred for Westmount — Both Teams Played Good Hockey

The first and the eighth companies of the Boy's Brigade played a one-all draw in the first round of the First Co. Invitation hockey tournament, at Murray Park last Saturday night.

The Snowdon squad, city champions last year, turned out a team that was composed of members slightly lighter than the boys of the First, but owing to the fact that both centers of the local team, D. Patterson and A. Baxter were absent, as well as J. Patterson, the boys of N.D.G. had a great advantage in combination play, and it was only skillful playing by Phil Lamb in the Brigade nets that kept the game on even terms.

The teams fought evenly for the first two stanzas, and the great play by Lamb, back in the Brigade nets after a two week layoff was the outstanding feature of the game, as several times from one to three Snowdon players got in alone on the Westmount nets, only to have the puck smothered by Lamb.

With twenty minutes of the game to go some poor clearing on the part of the Melville defence allowed Bramson to open the scoring.

After this the Snowdon team played cautiously in order to protect their nets, and it was only by a hard and consistent power play that Ross Way managed to pierce the stout defence of the Eighth Co. and whip the disc past Symington from a scramble to even up the score, with seven minutes to play.

During the last seven minutes the play was fast and furious, but consistent back checking by both teams kept the score down.

Westmount Y.M.C.A. Senior Leaders' Corps nosed out McGill by a score of 972.5-951.3 at an interesting gymnasium meet held last Saturday afternoon at the Westmount 'Y'. McGill had a well balanced team but lacked enough variation in movements to give them sufficient score to overcome their less experienced opponents.

Westmount were not as finished as the college boys, but their movements were more difficult and executed with more decision.

The result of the meet is as follows: (McG.) 3. Beal (Y.), 4. Henderson, (McG.) 5. Wright, (Y.), 5. Sproule, (McG.) 7. Lantes, (Y.), 8. Morrison, (McG.) 9. Holland, (McG.) 10. Huntingdon, (Y.).

Parallels, 1. Holst, (Y.), 2. Beal, (Y.), 3. Sproule, (McG.), 4. Henderson, (McG.) 5. Webber, (McG.) 6. Lantes, (McG.), 7. Huntingdon, (McG.) 8. Novinger, (Y.) 9. Webber, (McG.) 10. Holland, (McG.).

City & District Savings Bank Annual Report Here Shows Progressive Year

Another progressive year was reflected in the ninety-second annual financial statement of the Montreal City and District Savings Bank, presented to shareholders at the annual general meeting held Monday. Net profits for 1938 were slightly higher at the new peak level of $890,382, a figure that was over $110,000 in excess of the year's dividend-bonus requirements. This net was equal to $19.52 a share on the capital stock, against $387,052, or $19.35 a share, earned in 1937. After bringing forward previous balance at $294,388, setting aside $250,000 for reserve fund, and after appropriating $8,700 for charitable donations, an amount of $146,170 was carried forward into the current fiscal year.

The balance sheet shows several constructive changes. Increases are shown in holdings of cash, Dominion and Provincial bonds, and utility bonds, while call loans etc., show a moderate decrease. Deposits aggregate some $66.4 millions, against $61.5 a year ago. Savings deposits stand at $64,487,956, up about $3,400,000 and a new high record, and total assets are at a new high record at $72,901,081. Liquid assets are equal to 106.08 per cent. of current liabilities, against 106.38 per cent a year ago.

Present at the meeting were the following: Hon. Raoul Dandurand, Dr. D. A. Hingston, H. H. Judah, Zephirin Hebert, Lt.-Col. H. J. Trihey, K.C., M. A. Phelan, K. SAINTS DOWN HIGH SCHOOL BY 1-0 SCORE

Junior Squad Completed Inter-Scholastic Schedule On Monday

St. Leo's Junior pucksters completed their Inter-Scholastic schedule Monday at the Forum, when they defeated Catholic High 1-0 in a hard fought game. As Catholic High are the leading contenders for the Junior crown this set back enhanced St. Leo's chances in finishing at the top of the league. Catholic High have yet one game to play — against McGee Juniors, tomorrow morning — and the outcome of that game will definitely decide the issue. At present, St. Leo's lead their division with the total of 10 points for 8 games.

Provost was the playmaker for the winning goal. Carrying the puck the full length of the ice, he passed to O'Connell who, in turn relayed it to Raymond who was parked right in front of the net. Raymond gave the Catholic High goalie no chance on the play. The game was replete with thrills, the greater part of them being supplied by Kevin Kennedy's sensational saves in St. Leo's net. Only for his outstanding display the score might very well have favored Catholic High. To-date with St. Leo's schedule complete, he has had only 5 goals scored against him in 10 games.

The St. Leo's Bantams are practising assiduously for the Bantam competition in Doc Clement's Xavier meet. On Saturday afternoon last they played a one-all draw against the Loyola Bantams on the Loyola rink.

Donor's Association Has Done Much Valiant Work

Within recent months almost 12 gallons of blood have been given to indigent patients at St. Mary's Hospital by members of the Blood Donor's Association of the Montreal Council of the Knights of Columbus. More than 85 transfusions have been made, the amount given in some cases, being over 700 cc's or more than a pint.

And in every case where a member's blood has been given the doctor's verdict has been "very beneficial to the patient." Who the patient is the donor does not know. He or she is only a case number in the hospital books.

Not only has the Montreal Council done such good work here but since the formation of this group, the idea has been taken up in many other centres and associations of donors are located in many of the cities on the Continent.

The formation of such a group was first suggested in 1935 when it was pointed out to members of the Council that blood transfusions were necessary at St. Mary's for many of the poorer patients who were unable to pay the recognized fee. Immediately steps were taken to form the association and since that time no appeal has gone unanswered.

Certain regulations govern the association, in that those offering must be members of the Knights of Columbus, over 21 years of age and under 50, pass a severe medical examination and may not give more than ten transfusions. The medical advisor to the group is Dr. B. Cuddihy who acts as liaison officers between the members and the hospital. There are about 35 members in the association.

DEATH STRIKES FROM MOUNTAIN SIDE

SPEAKER FINDS SCOTS HIGHLY VALUABLE RACE

W. R. Bulloch, M.L.A., Spoke on Influence of the Scot in Canada

The Scots have always proven valuable citizens in any community, W. R. Bulloch, M.L.A., for Westmount, declared when addressing a meeting of the Outremont and North End Women's Club in Fairmont-St. Giles Church hall last Friday afternoon. The title of his talk was "The Influence of the Scot in Canada."

The speaker stated that thrift in connection with this race was a much abused word. While the Scot has always been thrifty, he has been so for a reason. It was necessary for the people of early Scotland, when it was hard going to wrest a living from the land, to develop a plan of thrift.

Mr. Bulloch said Scots had a mind of their own and were never afraid to express it. A determined race, once they started something, even though from small beginnings, they followed their idea through to the end, providing the way was honest and true, the speaker asserted.

Finally, Mr. Bulloch stressed, the Scots were adaptable. They had the ability to meet all kinds of situations and circumstances where they were found. They had made themselves part of any community or races where they had settled. They had also strengthened and enriched it.

After having referred to certain outstanding Scotchmen, the speaker thought that their example should be followed. "It is the more reason for you and me, who believe in good government and in the building up of our country to emulate certain of these leaders and follow in their footsteps," he declared.

In concluding, Mr. Bulloch stressed that Canadians can benefit from the experience of the past. Canada is a country of the future but it will succeed in its effort if Canadians are always law-abiding citizens, honest and sincere.

Mrs. Ernest Bieffer presided, and introduced Mr. Bulloch, who was thanked by Mrs. W. E. Wesley.

"Now, boys," said the school-master, "the word novelette means 'a short tale.' You may now write in your copybooks a sentence containing the word."

A few minutes later he picked up Johnny Brown's effort, and read aloud: "Yesterday I saw a fox terrier running down our street with a tin can tied to his novelette."—Kablegram.

Toy soldiers, some cotton batting—and you have a war picture in winter. Making table-top pictures is easy, and fun.

IF YOU want to give your imagination free rein on something—just try taking table-top pictures during a few of the long winter evenings.

With a few simple materials that can be picked up around almost any house, you can create all sorts of picture situations—in either comic or serious vein. Spread out a piece of plain, dark carpet, and you have an attractive grassy lawn. Put a doll house on it, add a few toy trees and a driveway made out of sand or salt—and you have a handsome country estate. Slip a few wads of crumpled paper under the carpet, smoothing it down neatly—and you have hills and valleys. A toy automobile on the drive, a few toy cows or horses scattered about—and you have a complete rural scene.

It's as simple as that. For table-top pictures, any kind of camera can be used. If yours is a fixed-focus camera, or one that focuses only to five or six feet, slip a portrait attachment on the lens—this enables you to take close-ups. The camera should be placed on a firm support, and the lens closed down to a small opening. This makes both near and far objects sharper. Time exposures should be made, using either ordinary electric bulbs or, preferably, regular amateur photo bulbs.

Table-top pictures offer a wide choice of subject matter. You can take a couple of model airplanes, hang them on dark threads, and picture an aerial combat. Or, you can use toy soldiers and cannon from the dime store, and stage a war on the living-room floor. A woolly white blanket, or cotton batting, provides snow for a winter scene. A sheet of black cardboard is a fine background for a night scene. A mirror, laid out flat, makes a sheet of ice. Brown sugar or salt can be used for a sandy beach. Tiny twigs suggest bare trees. Transparent wrapping material, properly crumpled, resembles stormy water. Place a ship model on a sheet of this—and you have a storm at sea. Clearly, in "table-tops" there are marvelous chances for pictures. The sky is the limit—and there's no end to the fun you can have. Try a few now, and you'll see.
