PRICE—TWO CENTS

S. P. CUTHBERT ELECTED PRESIDENT OF WESTMOUNT ROTARY CLUB YESTERDAY

Elections Followed Regular Weekly Luncheon Meeting In Victoria Hall—Ewart Everson is Vice-President—E. C. Grimley, President R.C.A. Addressed Club on Radio and Television

S. P. Cuthbert was elected president of the Westmount Rotary Club for the ensuing term following the regular weekly luncheon meeting of the club in Victoria Hall yesterday. He succeeds J. E. DeLalanne. Other officers named were: Ewart Everson, vice-president; D. Brophy, treasurer; and C. M. McBride, secretary. The new board will take over office the first meeting in July.

"Whether it pays or not, television is here, and at the present time the National Broadcasting Company is on the air for two or three hours daily, serving 2,000 television receivers located within 50 miles of the Empire State Building in New York City," E. C. Grimley, president for Canada of R.C.A.-Victor, stated while addressing the meeting.

BRIGADE UNIT TO ENTER TEAM IN COMPETITION

Special First Aid Training Is Being Given in Preparation for Event

The First Westmount Company of the Boys Brigade will enter a team in the Battalion First Aid Competition expected to take place the first week in May. The unit will be composed of Sergeant William Mulligan, Corp. Walter Goodale and Privates Thomas Hannah, and Jack Goodfellow. Special training is to be given the team this week in the final stages of first aid and in stretcher drill. Swimming tests are to take place Thursday evening. All boys who are desirous of passing their certificate or badge will be required to meet at 6.45 in front of Melville Church. Captain Richardson will accompany them to the pool and record their time. Last year a number of boys successfully passed the Certificate and are now eligible for their badge.

The Life Boys are progressing rapidly under Rodgie B. Stewart, leader in charge, and are looking forward to their first outing which will be held as soon as weather conditions warrant. Classes in model work as well as leathercraft have been conducted.

CITY PROTESTS TAX INCREASE

Westmount City Council voiced a protest at an increase over the municipal assessors' valuation of city property by an additional six per cent by the Montreal Metropolitan Commission, at a regular meeting Monday night. The increase was made for the purpose of assessing the city its share of the costs of operating the commission, but the council considers the increase excessive.

During the meeting advice was given to coupon-holders of City of Westmount bonds. Residents holding interest-coupons on city bonds due next month and payable in United States funds, are asked to present their coupons at the Bank of Montreal where they will receive a premium of 4 1/2 per cent. In this way the citizen will not lose anything; and the municipality will save slightly.

Spring Dance
The Sports Motor Cycle Club is holding its annual spring dance tomorrow evening at half-past eight o'clock at 1243 Mountain Street.

CLOSING MEETINGS
The closing luncheon meeting of the Temple Emanuel-El Sisterhood will be held on Tuesday, May 14. The Brotherhood closing dinner is scheduled to take place on May 21 when new officers will be elected.

AT SYNAGOGUE
Dr. Harry J. Stearn will speak on "The Invasion of Scandinavia," at the regular divine service at Temple Emanuel-El, on Friday evening commencing at 8.15 o'clock.

Tickets Now At Premium For Dance

The committee in charge of the dance being sponsored in Victoria Hall next Wednesday evening, April 24, by the Westmount Police and Fire Departments' Amateur Athletic Association, reported yesterday that all persons wishing to attend should secure their tickets as soon as possible as they are selling so briskly that in a very short time none will be available.

No effort is being spared to make the function, which is in aid of the Canadian Red Cross, an outstanding success and a capacity crowd is anticipated. Music is to be supplied by Al McGowan and his popular orchestra.

The committee points out that the dance merits the support of the public as the proceeds from the sale of tickets is to further Red Cross war work.

Tickets may be obtained from the police station or from any member of the department.

ORATORS FROM WEST END HAVE GREAT SUCCESS

Take Top Honors in Public Speaking Contests—22 Speakers Compete

Twenty-two youthful orators took part last week in the finals of the Junior and Senior High Schools Public Speaking Contests sponsored by the Junior Board of Trade Public Speaking Club in the Windsor Hotel. In each section eleven finalists competed and three medals of equal merit will be presented to the winners at a banquet to be held on April 19.

The schools of the western section of the City took top honors in the Senior Section with the following pupils being declared the winners: Bernard S. Berlin, West Hill High School, Stewart Bross, Westmount High School and Margaret Ellis, Montreal West High School.

The honors to the Junior High Schools were more divided, however, going to the following speakers: Campbell Laing, Montreal West High School, Philip McLean, High School of St. Laurent and Sarah Weintraub, Baron Byng High School.

The subject of all speeches was the Province of Quebec, its history, geography, legend and folklore, scenic beauty, trade and industry.

The judges for the Senior Section were Messrs. Raymond Caron, P. T. R. Pugsley and C. T. Russell and for the Junior Section, Messrs. Neil Houston, D. Lorne Gales and Evan McCormick, all of the Junior Board of Trade.

A. A. Macnaughton, president of the Junior Board occupied the chair and welcomed the audience.

Canada is right in the front rank in radio and Canadians enjoy the best radio programs in the world, Mr. Grimley declared.

The speaker was introduced by Elliot Frost and thanked by Percy Jarmen. John Colton occupied the chair.

"Y" Employment Bureau Places Many Applicants

So successful has been the employment service operated by the local branch of the Y.M.C.A., that it has found positions for practically every qualified boy and young man whose names were on its list during the past winter, Earnie Taylor, boys' work secretary announced yesterday.

For this reason Mr. Taylor suggests that all boys and young men seeking positions register their names with the bureau immediately. This applies particularly to high school students who expect to graduate this term. April and May are among the best months for employment and Mr. Taylor expects to place a large number in jobs during the next few weeks. During a single week, alone this year the bureau received calls from seven firms that it could not fill. Youths who have their high school leaving diploma are particularly in demand and those who have added to their formal education a business course and a knowledge of French have little difficulty finding positions.

The bureau makes a special effort to place applicants in positions for which they are best qualified and to find for them the type of work they are most anxious to secure. In a number of instances it has taken boys from positions in which they were unhappy and placed them in jobs to which they were suited. In this way both employee and employer benefit from the operation of the service.

REV. DR. T. W. JONES "WITH THE BOYS"

Smiling and evidently quite accustomed to his new surroundings, our photograph shows the Rev. Dr. T. W. Jones (second from right) with a group of soldiers of the First Division, Canadian Active Service Corps, in front of a Y.M.C.A. mobile tea wagon at Aldershot. Dr. Jones, pastor of Calvary United Church who is now on leave of absence, is serving with the Y.M.C.A. Overseas Staff. He embarked for England, along with other "Y" workers, on one of the first troop ships to leave Canada.

Mrs. H. Mills Re-Elected President Women's Club

Mrs. Harold Mills was re-elected president of the Westmount Women's Club at the annual meeting held on Friday afternoon in Victoria hall. Other officers elected for the ensuing term were: Mrs. R. E. Parker, first vice-president; Mrs. John Mulcair, second vice-president; Mrs. C. D. French, recording secretary; Mrs. John T. Rowe, corresponding secretary; Mrs. H. C. Holland, membership secretary; Mrs. C. W. Clark, treasurer.

Chairmen of committees: Mrs. Gordon T. Blair, hospitality; president and past presidents; legislative; Mrs. Colin Forrest, music; Mrs. R. M. Macaulay, press; Mrs. John Shearer, welfare and civics; Mrs. Belanne, civics and education; Mrs. J. W. Wright, drama and public speaking; Mrs. R. M. Scott, reception and door; Mrs. C. B. Sewall, chairman of war work committee.

In presenting her report, Mrs. C. W. Clark, the treasurer, stated that after a record year of expenditure for welfare and war work, the club's bank balance amounted to $382.40. Expenditures for the year included: $62.50 to the R.M.R. war veterans; $62.50 to the Red Cross Society; $424.00 for war work; $223.00 for welfare; $25.00 to the School for crippled children; $30.00 for educational tuition was voted for a soldier's daughter; $10.00 was spent on a Government war bond.

Members of the club assisted on four campaigns. The teams were responsible for the collection of the following: $8,000 for the Salvation Army, $1,700 for the Canadian Legion, $1,800 for the Red Cross and $500 for the Children's Memorial Hospital.

As convener of the War Work committee, jointly with Mrs. John Mulcair, Mrs. W. F. Worfolk gave a detailed account of the work since the beginning of the war. This included: 765 articles knitted out of wool purchased by the club; 678 finished articles of clothing sent to Finnish refugees and English evacuees; 60 woollen articles given to the Royal Montreal Regiment; 250 pairs of socks presented to the Lady Tweedsmuir for distribution among her war charities; 200 pieces of sewing and 108 woollen articles sent to the Westmount Branch of the Red Cross. In addition, 119 woollen articles were sent to H.M.S. Coventry, 44 woollen articles to the Black Watch and 340 to the Scottish Regiment. Entertainment was provided for soldiers at the Westmount "Y" and at the Drill Hall.

Mrs. Worfolk told of one Westmount woman who does her "bit" by bringing hot soup, chocolate or cocoa every night to the soldiers when they change guard at the Hillside Armory.

Cars Are Damaged In Collision Here
An automobile driven by Louis Brabant, of 3212 Verdun avenue, and a car operated by Henry Haydon, 7010 Hutchison street, were slightly damaged when they collided opposite 2068 Claremont avenue at 10 p.m. on Sunday.

Brabant told police that he was travelling in a southerly direction on Claremont when Haydon's machine suddenly pulled out from the curb without any warning from its driver.

The front right mudguard on Brabant's car was damaged and the left side of the body and the front left mudguard on the other machine were dented. Neither driver was injured.

Wild Flower Protection Is Urged By Speaker

Stressing the need for the conservation of wild flowers, Rev. F. E. Banin, professor of biology at St. Patrick's College, Ottawa, addressed a meeting sponsored by the Junior League Garden Club, the Laurentian Garden Club and the Diggers and Weeders Garden Club in Victoria Hall on Monday.

Close study is necessary to discover this need, he said. Conservation follows appreciation, because people will preserve flowers so that they may admire them, the speaker held. While to a botanist the flower is nature's assurance that the plant will continue to flourish, to a naturalist it's the plant's principal point of beauty.

Flowers assure an eternal possession of beauty for each spring they renew the beauty of the fields, but there are certain species of Canadian wild flowers that are even now facing extinction and steps should be taken to rectify this situation, he stated.

BUSINESS ASSOCIATION TO NAME NEW PRESIDENT AND EXECUTIVE TONIGHT

Annual Meeting Will be Held in Victoria Hall—Nominating Committee Has Prepared Slate of Officers With Eric Ohman Suggested as President—Large Turnout of Members Anticipated

A new president, the third to hold office since formation of the organization, and a new executive committee, will be elected by the Business Association of Westmount at its annual meeting in Victoria Hall this evening.

Eric Ohman, well-known local jeweler, will be recommended by the nominating committee to head the association for the new term, succeeding W. Gordon Kenwood. Mr. Ohman has been prominently connected with the business body since its inception.

Others whose names appear on the slate prepared by the nominating committee are: for vice-president, Charles Watson;

2nd vice-pres., Lorne A. Parker, G. Labrosse; treas., R. B. Ward; Committee chairmen: attendance, Mr. Hill and N. S. Mitchell; business improvement, T. G. McParland; civic improvement, Lewis Sherwin; Finance, W. K. Newcomb; entertainment, Don Ross; ladies, Miss Lafrance, and Miss Hebert; membership, A. Smithers; F. Griffiths and Warren Demers; publicity, W. Boyd Robson; educational, Miss Sacoranski; at large Miss Hansen and Mr. Sorenson, Jr., A. Goodman.

Nominations From Floor
Nominations, however, will be received from the floor, and it is considered highly probable that elections will be necessary for the presidential seat and a number of committee posts.

The meeting will mark another milestone in the progress of the association, founded some years ago with the objective of improving business conditions in this city through cooperative effort on the part of local merchants. Its success in achieving this aim has exceeded expectations, it is generally felt by the members.

Improved Business
The association has fostered numerous proven methods to induce residents to patronize local merchants by bringing to their attention the mutual advantage that each will derive. This has been accomplished by means of joint member-association advertising in this newspaper; the distribution to members of window streamers bearing slogans that have eye-arresting appeal at certain seasons of the year; and the creation of a crest that readily tells shoppers which firms are members of the association and which is a pledge that the firm bearing it lives up to the high ethical standard established by the association.

Among the most successful of the ventures undertaken by the body to better business conditions here have been the meetings in Victoria Hall open to the general public. Increasing in popularity with each event, they have attracted hundreds of residents and have resulted in a much closer understanding between buyer and dealer. The final meeting of this type was so well attended that even by augmenting the seating capacity of the hall it was impossible to accommodate the many who sought admittance.

Further plans to maintain this improved state of trade in Westmount will be discussed at tonight's meeting and the association requests the attendance of all local business men who are able to be present.

Reverend Father Thoms, Director of the Sodality, announced a World Sodality Day demonstration to be held on May 19th in Assumption Church. This will be the first demonstration of its kind to be held in Montreal and all the Sodalities in Montreal will participate.

At this point the meeting was turned over to the publicity committee who had as their guest Murray Ballantyne, editor of the Montreal Beacon. Miss Carroll McDonald introduced the speaker whose topic of discussion was the Catholic Press. Mr. Ballantyne gave four main reasons for a Catholic Press: to integrate, to inform, to stimulate and to criticize. He then developed these four points briefly, stressing the need of Catholics to know what is going on in the world and their capacity to assimilate and digest facts. An interesting discussion then followed in which questions were asked from the floor. Mr. Ballantyne wound up his talk by requesting that the sodality take a keener interest in the Beacon and stating that he would welcome any constructive criticism. A vote of thanks was rendered by Miss Marion O'Toole on behalf of the Sodality.

Westmount Group Annual Church Service
Westmount Chapter Number 9, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold their annual church service at Kensington Presbyterian Church on Sunday at seven o'clock. Members of the order will meet in the church hall at 6.30 p.m.

MEETING HELD AT ST. LEO'S BY SODALITY

Reports Read at Regular Monthly Session of Ascension Parish Group

The Young Ladies' Sodality of Ascension Parish held their regular monthly meeting in St. Leo's School Hall on Monday, at 7.30 p.m. when the prefect, Miss Alma Tremblay, presided over the meeting. Reports were given by the chairmen of the various committees.

Miss Josephine Mullen, chairman of the Apostolic Committee, reported that a very successful evening's entertainment had been provided at the Sisters of Service Home on Dorchester St. West, on Thursday, when some two hundred young ladies were present. The Sodalists entertained the assembly with songs and skits and afterwards supper was served.

Miss Phyllis McKenna, Chairman of the Social Life Committee and Convenor for the "Springtime Social" to be held on Friday evening, April 26th, at the Notre Dame de Grace Community Hall, reported that all the necessary arrangements were being made in order to ensure a successful and enjoyable time.

Miss Helen Shaw, Secretary of the Ladies' Committee, reported that the annual pilgrimage to Notre Dame de Bonsecours would take place on Saturday, May 11th at 7.30 p.m. and that the particular intention of the pilgrimage this year is for "World Peace". She also requested Sodalists to attend the May devotions in honour of the Blessed Virgin.

Reverend Father Thoms, Director of the Sodality, announced a World Sodality Day demonstration to be held on May 19th in Assumption Church. This will be the first demonstration of its kind to be held in Montreal and all the Sodalities in Montreal will participate.

At this point the meeting was turned over to the publicity committee who had as their guest Murray Ballantyne, editor of the Montreal Beacon. WESTMOUNT, THURSDAY, APRIL 18, 1940

TELL THE TRUTH

In order to achieve the record tourist business which is being forecast for this year, Canada must concentrate on one specific form of advertising. It must do everything in its power to tell the American people the truth about what kind of a country this is in wartime.

It is a good thing, of course, to advertise the physical advantages and the scenic beauties which the Dominion offers the traveler. But, the United States pretty generally know by now that Canada has many things to make a holiday or a motor trip pleasant. The fame of our scenery, of our hunting and fishing grounds and of our good roads has gone abroad. They still need to be stressed, but at the moment, this is not the most important point to be advertised.

What the Americans have to be told is that they will be properly treated when they come here. This knowledge has to be disseminated to combat a very definite campaign of adverse propaganda which is flooding the United States. There are well-authenticated reports that it is maliciously inspired by Nazi sources. But whatever its inspiration, it has to be fought.

The Americans have been told that there are serious wartime restrictions on food in Canada. They have been told that anyone coming into the country is in danger of being drafted for war service. Worst of all, they are being told that their money will be heavily discounted here.

Canadians, of course, find it hard to realize that such bosh can be circulated and believed in a neighbor country. The tragedy is that it is being believed in many quarters.

The job now is to convince the American people that there is plenty of food and clothing and shelter in Canada, that Canada is not even drafting her own people into the army, much less visitors; and, above all, that American money is actually at a premium of 10 per cent, over here, that thus the people of the United States can holiday more cheaply in Canada than in their own country.

Tourist agencies throughout the Dominion from the Canadian Travel Bureau down, must concentrate on these points. Let them continue, by all means, to tell prospective visitors about our scenery and other attractions, but above all, let them sell the Americans on the fact that they can come to Canada without enduring the hardships of a war zone, that Canada, physically, is far removed from the war and is still a happy, prosperous and hospitable country.

PERSONAL EFFICIENCY

Whether you have a place in Canada's war organization or not, you owe one essential duty to your country. This is the duty of keeping fit, of maintaining your physical efficiency at its highest peak. This is no time for a nation or its people to be weak.

Invaluable assistance towards maintaining this efficiency will be given by a pamphlet which has been prepared by the Canadian Medical Association and will be distributed shortly through the Dominion Department of National Health and the Red Cross. It is a publication containing valuable rules as to the choice of diet, one of the prime essentials for the maintenance of physical fitness.

The country owes a debt of gratitude to the organizations which have produced and will distribute the pamphlet, and also to the Canadian Life Insurance Officers' Association, which has largely borne the cost of publication.

CASHING IN ON MOTHER

There is grave doubt that a movement started in Boston, to substitute a "Festival of the Home" for Mother's Day, would accomplish the results hoped for. The good church people who make the proposal do so because of the way in which Mother's Day has been commercialized.

Of course, this commercialization has taken place, human nature being what it is. But, does anyone suppose that the same people who have cashed in on one such observance would not do the same on a substitute?

After all, what matter if a few florists, confectioners and greeting card manufacturers make a profit out of the day? The genuine joy which it has brought to the mothers of the world, and the strengthening of family ties which it has inspired, more than compensate for any commercial stigma.

A CAPABLE OFFICIAL

General satisfaction will unquestionably be felt over the fact that the Earl of Athlone has decided to retain Sir Shuldham Redfern as his private secretary when he comes to Canada as Governor-General. It is well-earned recognition of the services which this gentleman rendered in the same capacity to the late Lord Tweedsmuir for five years.

Accompanying the former Governor-General on all his travels about the Dominion Sir Shuldham formed a wide acquaintanceship and made many friends in Canada. The knighthood conferred on him by His Majesty during the Royal Visit last summer was generally regarded as an honor well merited.

BOOK REVIEW

BY HOWARD S. ROSS

"The Gospel of Emerson"
Newton Dillaway Books
Reading, Massachusetts.

$1.25 for Canada.

The following from the FOREWORD gives a good idea of this unique tribute to a Prophet of the New World:

"This volume may be seen as a digest of Emerson's gospel of the Real. It is not easy to defect this gospel, for it is hidden in a hundred essays, letters, poems, notes, and in many cases entries of the journals. After years of study and thought and consultation with other students of Emerson, the gospel herein presented has gradually emerged from some twenty-five volumes of the seer's writings. It is presented not as a finished product but as an edifice under construction. Criticisms and suggestions for improvement will be welcomed. Until such time as the gospel is polished we may say that it is the gospel of Emerson under advisement. But as it stands, it is not just a series of quotations thrown together at random. The main objectives were to bring out the cardinal points of the subject under consideration and to arrange the quotations in some semblance of order and progression. But even these objectives were subordinated to the aspiration to give something that would really open up the inner life of the sensitive reader."

The sketch of the strong handsome face of Emerson which appears on the cover is by Miss McCloskey and his picture opposite the title page is from an unfinished crayon sketch by Rowse.

HAPLESS HENRY

The story of Henry Aldrich's new adventures in Paramount's as-yet-untitled successor-film to "What a Life" concerns the hapless lad's misadventures in trying to earn $100 in order to qualify for a trip to Alaska. He turns his home town topsy-turvy in the process.

For his role in Paramount's "Hidden Gold," Hopalong Cassidy picture, William Boyd, the star, carried a shot gun for the first time in his career in the western series.

THE FORUM

Conducted by HOWARD S. ROSS, K.C., D.C.L.

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

The opinions expressed in this Forum are not necessarily those of this newspaper and it does not accept responsibility for them.

When the people of the world know enough to base their monetary systems on a unit which represents a definite duration of adult, non-gift, human service, the incentive to obtain the work of others without working in return will vanish. The price of every item priced would represent the exact duration of the adult human service embodied in its production. Natural resources not being produced by humans would have no price. Exchange of human services hour for hour, would eliminate all privileges. Thus no one would have to work for another except for an equal duration of work in return.

That would be the end of armaments. No matter what arrangements nations make, as long as the incentive inherent in our pricing system remains, there will always be the temptation to take advantage of it, and fear and strife will result. As long as the people are ignorant of the root of human inhumanity, they will continue to struggle blindly. The trouble is not with human nature, as many suppose, but with the artificial environment humans have made for themselves, through ignorance. Human association is now based on error. Patrick Edward Dove was right when he said, "Knowledge is the antidote of error."—Warren Edward Brokaw.

No. 10 Downing Street which was given to Sir Robert Walpole by King George II, is one of the block of three rather aged houses—numbers 10, 11 and 12—which, with part of the Treasury Buildings, make up the northern side of Downing Street. Like all contemporary buildings, these houses were all originally heated solely by open fires. From time to time the open fires were supplemented here and there by hot water radiators, to meet the requirements of the different occupants, until these installations which are attached to no less than three separate boilers, include the majority of the rooms in these houses. A scheme for the unification of the system for the three buildings has been under consideration for some time, but there is little hope that any progress to this end can be made until the cessation of hostilities.—R. M. Hunter, of H. M. Office of Works, Storey's Gate, London, G.B.

Amendments to the Social Security Act of the U.S.A., represent a change in the fundamental theory of social security and a shift from an actuarial basis, under which the wage credits accumulated in the reserve fund determined the size of the annuity, to a basis of presumptive need.

Then three is weaving, also rugs, made of chenille, rags, etc., and more advanced weaving, such as material, linen luncheon sets, and woolen rugs.

Training for some men is in metal work, tooling and soldering. These men are beating copper and pewter into many shapes, and are making the bulky jewelry that is so much in vogue.

All these people are so interested in their work that they are bound to succeed, and all occupations mentioned can fit into the pattern of the industrial world. There must be a place for each of our workers somewhere in this city where they can make themselves useful and can earn an adequate living.

What if they are crippled or handicapped in some way? They are human beings with ordinary human impulses and capabilities, and the same need of earning their independence. Why should an intelligent girl with crutches not be able to run a switch-board as well as a girl who has the use of her two legs?

Miss Jeanne de Crevecoeur is supervisor of the workshop. Frank Berry is in charge of the employment committee, and requests that residents in need of help phone the Centre at F.I. 9609 and ask for Miss Lambert.

CAMPUS OF YESTERYEAR

The title of "Those Were the Days" refers to the 1905 period of its story of campus pranks and puppy loves at the mythical college of Old Swah. Principals include William Holden, Bonita Granville, Ezra Stone and Judith Barrett.

Dance Revue Received Well by Large Audience

"One Night of Rhythm", Hilda Galt's fourth annual dance revue, was presented at Victoria Hall. The proceeds were in aid of the Lions Boys Club in lower N.D.G. The Revue was presented to a capacity audience.

Alec Grigg, president of the Lions Club spoke during the intermission and thanked Miss Galt and her pupils for presenting the revue in behalf of the work that is being done by the Lions Boys' Club in a district where such an endeavor was badly needed and where the work has been highly successful.

Of the senior pupils, Moira Cumming, was outstanding in a remarkable acrobatic routine on a ladder which held the audience spell-bound. Miss Cumming was good in her toe and musical comedy work as well. The tap dancing of Shirley Elkin was excellent while Marilyn Cumming in "Half of Me" took everyone by surprise in a most novel song and tap routine. Dorothy Reed performed admirably in toe, tap and a mazing acrobatic routines. Peggy Jane Rubado executed her tap and toe solo well. Selma Morantz, Helen Rae Miller, Shirley Leibman, Natalie Raginsky, Taira Hoffman, Frances Lax, Geraldine Reinblatt, Suzanne Cohen and Roslyn Wolfe all performed remarkably well. Among the younger pupils Gloria Fine was outstanding in her tap work as well as her monologue, while tiny June Levine won much applause in her acrobatic solos and baby Maureen Gallagher did very well.

The program was divided into five parts and was interspersed by specialty and variety numbers. Gloria Fine opened the show with a snappy song and tap number. In the first scene the curtain opened on a pretty garden setting called "Springtime." Natalie Raginsky, Eliza Webber, Maureen Gallagher and Suzanne Cohen did solo numbers with June Levine and Julia Anne Holden in a duet, Suzanne Lella Gilmour, Thelma Bogante, Sheila Roslyn Moskovich, Carol Madeleine Delisle, Jacqueline Grostern were "Baby Rosebuds." Shirley Weiss, Shirley Norton, Irma Ballington, Lola Shymar, Farla Blum, Norma Isabel Marks, Mildred Schwartz and Sureka Wasserman were "Jolly Gardeners." Joy Schwartz was a "Charming Blossom." Joan Streen a lovely "Orchid" and Roslyn Raginsky and Lily Kroll appeared as "Bluebells."

"Waltztime", the second setting, featured Shirley Leibman in a graceful Taira Hoffman on her toes and June Levine did beautiful acrobatic work. Supporting them in a well executed group number were Roslyn Wolfe, Nana Rubado truly was a "Fairly Marilyn" Lapedus, Joywartz Decker, Elsa Pesner, Joy Schwartz and Suzanne L. Gilmour. Sheila R. Moskovich, Carol Madeleine Delisle, Jacqueline Grostern, Thelma Bogante.

The most effective of the group presentations was the "Fairly Jewel Box." The scene in its entirety was of professional calibre. It was marked by most effective lighting and costumes. Peggy Jane Ruodotshy was a "Fairly Queen"; Shirley Elkin in a wonderful tap number represented a "Sapphire"; Dorothy Reed in an acrobatic number as a "Diamond"; Moira Cumming did a most outstandingly beautiful toe dance as "Ruby"; Marilyn Cumming did a very difficult tap number on her toes as "Topaz"; Frances Lax and Geraldine Reinblatt a Hungarian duet as "Emeralds"; Little graceful "Gems" were Joy Schwartz, Marilyn Lapedus, Elsa Pesner, Joan Streen, Joyce Decker, Roslyn Wolfe, and Natalie Raginsky.

"Night Life" introduced the tiny soloists of the school in a cabaret setting. Barbara and Dorothy Kastner, were very good in their song and tap number, Julia Anne Holden in "The Little Fox" drew a tremendous ovation while Gloria Fine, Marilyn Lapedus, Elsa Webber, Frank Seidel with Louise Singer, Miriam Wilkinson, June Levine, Roslyn Raginsky, Lily Kroll, Joan Pesner, Roslyn Wolfe, Ina Finklestein, Audrey Dalton and Elaine Betts also did solos which brought forth much applause.

The finale will long be remembered by all who attended the performance. The back of the stage was completely covered with a large Union Jack, then from the wings came the strong bass voice of Ed Hanrahan, member of the Lions Club, in "There Will Always Be An England." Irma Ballington, Judith Hiltz, Ruth Laing, Elaine Betts, Lola Shymar, Mildred Schwartz, Helen Friedman, Farla Blumer, Sureka Carol Wasserman, Norma Isabel Marks Shirley Weiss and Shirley Norton appeared in most appropriate military costumes and did a well executed drill and tap dance. A group of six "Red Cross Nurses" did a fine tap number while Shirley Elkin, Peggy Jane Rubado and Marilyn Cumming, also dressed in red, white and blue did "Military Steps" a wonderful tap routine on three sets of stairs.

Just prior to the finale Joyce Weiner, Judy Garbe, Leanne Briskin, Taira Hoffman, Florence Cohen, Shirley Levitt, Halina Weinthal, Vivian Fine, Elaine Gottlieb, Reva Leibovitch, Helen Miller, and Selma Morantz did a good ballroom interpretation of "La Coonga."

Hilda Galt appeared in a smooth rhythmic number with the "Galt Girls." Accompanists were E. H. Rosenblatt and Harold Morris.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Doctrine of Atonement" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist throughout the world on Sunday April 21.

The Golden Text is from Matthew 20:28. "The Son of Man came not to be ministered unto but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many."

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;" (II Cor. 5: 18).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Every pang of repentance and suffering, every effort for reform, every good thought and deed, will help us to understand Jesus' atonement for sin and aid its efficacy; but if the sinner continues to pray and repent, sin and be sorry, he has little part in the atonement, in the at-one-ment with God,—for he lacks the practical repentance, which reforms the heart and enables man to do the will of wisdom. (Page 19).

Students Give Fine Recital At Studio

Three young piano students, June Denison, Suzanne Cohen and Gordon Edlestone gave an interesting recital at the studio of Miss Frances Goltman Lic. Mus., before a number of pupils and their friends this week.

June Denison was heard in four successful solos and a duet, Suzanne Cohen played well in eight solos and a melodious duet with Sylvia Marks, and Gordon Edlestone rendered nine numbers which drew well-earned applause. Those three clever young pupils, who played all their pieces from memory were the winners of progress prizes awarded by Miss Goltman.

FINAL TRIBUTE PAID TO LATE WM. P. McVEY

President and General Manager of Range Company Died Monday Aged 81

Friends and relatives paid final tribute to William P. McVey, of 468 Mount Stephen avenue, at the Church of the Ascension of Our Lord this morning at 9 o'clock. Interment was in Cote des Neiges Cemetery. Mr. McVey, president and general manager of the George R. Prowse Range Company, died in St. Mary's Hospital on Monday following an illness of about six months. He was 81 years of age.

A native of Montreal and a life-long resident here, Mr. McVey was born on June 18, 1859, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John McVey. He received his early education here and 66 years ago secured a position as clerk with the Prowse firm.

Mr. McVey was known as a particularly hard worker but he found time to take an active part in curling, snowshoeing and lacrosse. He was a member of the St. Lawrence and the Andrew Curling Clubs and the St. George Snowshoe Club. At one time he was president of the old Shamrock Lacrosse Club. Mr. McVey also belonged to the Canadian Railway Club, the Montreal Board of Trade and the Knights of Columbus, Mountain Council No. 284.

Mr. McVey's wife, the former Nora Kinsella of this city to whom he was married in 1898, predeceased him eight years ago. Surviving are four sons, William P., John A., and George A. McVey; two daughters, Miss Anna V. McVey and Mrs. William J. George; two sisters, one brother and eight grandchildren. All are residents of Westmount, except Mrs. George, who lives at Aldermac, Que.

SCOUT TROOP PREPARING FOR 'SPRING FEVER'

St. Leo's To Give Performance on April 29 - Fine Program

St. Leo's Scout Group, under the leadership of Evan McCormick and John O'Reilly, is sponsoring an elaborate variety show, "Spring Fever" on Monday, April 29 in St. Leo's Hall.

Entertainment of all types is promised those attending. One of the headline acts of the show is a skit entitled "Arabian Nights in Swingtime," showing the trials and tribulations of a modern sultan. It alone boasts a cast of more than twenty. Another bit is the presentation of an old fashioned "Meller," a throwback to the Nickleodeon days. These are but two of the eleven different acts.

WAR AT SEA: PLANES FLY INTO THE PICTURE

A new—and perhaps vital—element is present in today's sea battles that naval strategists of other wars did not have to contend with. The new factor is the fighting plane, dropping bombs which may prove more deadly to battleships than the foe's gunfire. The artist's conception, above, where squadrons of bombers have been superimposed upon a painting of the World War Battle of Jutland, gives you a preview of a modern major naval engagement.

BERTRAM E. RANDALL

Popular and prominent Canadian Resident Representative of the Knott Hotels Corporation of the United States, the foremost and largest hotel chain on this continent, operating 35 hotels throughout the United States, including the world famous "McAlpin" and the "Wellington" in New York City, has just returned from a preview of the "1940 New York World's Fair."

LIBRARY MARKS ANNIVERSARY

The one hundredth anniversary of the Mechanics' Institute, located here for the past 20 years, was celebrated last Thursday when Ald. W. B. Scott extended the congratulations of Westmount and stated that "it is appropriate to celebrate your 100th anniversary tonight when the Royal Navy is writing another chapter in its own glorious history."

Hundreds of persons filled all parts of the building in celebration of the event. Thomas Blaikie, who resided, stated that the institute was still trying to follow its original objective, that of making a mechanic a better man and a man a better mechanic.

It is the duty of libraries to see that there are proper books available to deal with Communism, A. D. Thornton, chairman of the Westmount Library Board, declared.

The congratulations of the Board of Trade, which will celebrate its centenary in 1942, were conveyed by the secretary, J. Stanley Cook. Brief remarks were also made by E. McG. Quirk, and Charles Booth, both former presidents of the institute, who both have been members of it for 40 years and more.

Public lectures are given by the institute each winter. Its backbone is a library of 45,000 volumes. The present building at Tupper street and Atwater avenue was built in 1920. Previously the headquarters were in Mechanics' Hall on the site of the Royal Bank Building, St. James street.

Touch System Sweeps Will Be Staged Again

Fear that the war was to deprive Canadian typists of the chance to bring back north of the border the International Typewriting Marathon trophy which 100,000 persons saw the United States win at last year's Canadian National Exhibition has been dispelled by the Exhibition's announcement that it would again stage the day-and-night touch-system sweepstakes here from August 23 to September 7.

Every typist in Canada is to be given opportunity to gain a place on the 12-member Canadian National Typing Team which will seek the trophy's recapture. And every typist in the United States, except members of last year's winning Marathon team, will have similar opportunity to join the 12-man United States National Typing Team which will defend it.

Members of both teams will be chosen in open competition in twelve elimination contests conducted before August 1st in as many cities in each country. To the elimination winners will go various local prizes and perquisites, an honor berth on the national typing teams and two-week all-expense trips to Toronto to compete in the Marathon.

Canadian eliminations are to be held, on dates soon to be announced, in Calgary, Edmonton, Halifax, Hamilton, London, Montreal, Ottawa, Regina, St. John, N.B.; Toronto, Vancouver and Winnipeg. Where the United States eliminations are to be staged is also to be made known shortly. The list of cities probably paralleling last year's, which included Birmingham, Ala., Cleveland, O., Columbus, O., Denver, Colo., Evansville, Ind., Fort Worth, Tex., Houston, Tex., Knoxville, Tenn., Memphis, Tenn., San Diego, Calif., San Francisco, Calif., and Washington, D.C.

As a dramatic, sporting test of the relative speed, accuracy and endurance of "average" Canadian and United States typists, the Marathon consists of continuous day-and-night typing for 324 hours from the Exhibition's opening until its close. Each twelve types in turns on a single machine and the winner is that team which writes the more words with the fewer errors.

Last year, Shakespeare's complete works was the copy the teams competitively transcribed. The Americans pounded out 1,664,998 words on 7,531 sheets of paper and the Canadians 1,624,964 words on 7,291 sheets, each team re-writing one and two-thirds times the 945,843 words in a 1,052-page volume containing the Bard of Avon's 37 plays, five poems and 154 sonnets. Although less accurate than their Canadian opponents, the Yankees were ahead at the end by the narrow margin of less than two words for each of the 19,440 minutes of writing.

What this year's copy is to be the Exhibition will not announce until completion of all the elimination contests. It is promised that it will be not as difficult to type as Shakespeare's life's writings, however, and it is accordingly expected that the 1940 Marathon will produce even better speeds and even more words than the 3,289,962 turned out last year.

THIS BUSINESS OF BEING IN BUSINESS

By Harold Harris

"Why did you choose the electrical line for your career?" In answering this question, N. G. Mitchell, of Mitchell's Electric Appliances, 5918 Sherbrooke St., stated that his previous experience plus the fact that he visualized a good opportunity in the district for a store such as he pictured, were the two main reasons for his choice. In speaking of his first years in business, Mr. Mitchell said: "The first year was a real struggle, the years following were hard enough too." Considering the fact that he started business in 1931, one may well understand that many difficult problems must have existed during those troublesome years of the depression.

If a pet saying had to be chosen to represent Mr. Mitchell's philosophy, perhaps the most appropriate one to select would be: "Look for the silver lining," for on many different occasions, in his first years, his finances were on the verge of giving way to the strain being placed upon them, and he felt that he would have to give up, but each time, through some seeming act of Providence, his business was sustained.

Owing to the fact that his original capital investment was so small, his purchasing became quite a problem. Suppliers of electrical equipment were chary of new dealers, feeling that the instability of the times involved considerable risks. However, with confident tactics, Mr. Mitchell managed to overcome most of these difficulties.

In commenting upon various phases of being in business for himself, Mr. Mitchell noted, that perhaps the most interesting angle to him, is that of meeting the public. Although, as a whole people are easy to please, they are just as easy to displease, and it is this factor that calls for care in the handling of customers, clients, etc. By and large, personal attention and supervision, play the most important part in the operation of a business where daily contact with the public is involved.

Asked his opinion of the qualities he thought it was necessary for a young man to possess who was contemplating entering business for himself, Mr. Mitchell offered these observations: "He must be a plunger, not an ordinary plugger, but one with confidence and stick-to-itiveness," for it is the ability to hold on, when everything says to let go, that marks out for success, all those possessing it."

ARCHER

Basil Rathbone, now that he has completed his role in Paramount's "A Date with Destiny," plans to resume his "hunting" of wild game with bow and arrow. He hunts with Howard Hill, noted archer, but both use blunt arrows, which startle but do not wound the game.

EQUIPPING OF HOSPITAL NOW CARRIED OUT

Near the village of Taplow, about twenty-five miles from London, Eng., is Canadian Red Cross Hospital No. 1, now being fully equipped to accommodate 600 wounded officers and men. For the construction $695,000 have been budgeted by the national organization of Red Cross in the Dominion, to which the Quebec provincial division has already transferred, for various purposes, $250,000 of the monies subscribed in this province during the membership campaign last fall.

The hospital is of the hut type, built with the approval of the Canadian Army Medical Corps which will bear all operating and maintenance expenses. It is of the latest army design, and includes sun rooms for the benefit of the convalescents.

Supervision of the work has been under the Overseas Advisory Committee of the Canadian Red Cross Society, a body of Canadians headed by Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett. All technical equipment for operating rooms, X-ray departments, laboratories, etc., has been purchased in Canada through the national purchasing committee of Red Cross, with the collaboration of a strong committee of Canadian medical experts.

A special research laboratory is being constructed and equipped as an annex to the hospital, and will be manned by Canadian medical men and technicians headed by Sir Frederick Banting, of Toronto, co-discoverer of insulin.

WESTERN TABOOS

Not only is love-making taboo in Paramount's Hopalong Cassidy pictures, produced by Harry Sherman, but neither the star, William Boyd, nor Russell Hayden has ever smoked in one of these westerns. They demand higher morals than any type of picture made in Hollywood.

New Spring Frocks Feature Of Display Held Last Evening

Under the convenership of Mrs. F. C. McCracken, the Women's Association of Montreal West United Church presented an interesting and successful fashion show in the church hall last night. The show was staged in conjunction with Mrs. E. C. Colson of Charlotte Gowns.

All frocks, imported from New York by Charlotte, gave evidence of the modern trend for smart dressy clothes. Silk jersey, which lends itself to the modern type of draping and flowing lines, was among the more popular fabrics to be displayed.

Frocks for the matron, with slenderizing lines received the approval of the entire audience. Printed afternoon crepe dresses were a feature of the display. Among the smart gowns for evening wear, Miss Mary Mackay was seen wearing a chic white and navy printed organdy. The very full skirt was trimmed with two rows of navy blue ribbon, the short puffed sleeves finished with clusters of navy blue flowers.

Following the display of modern frocks, gowns, popular in the gay '90's, were exhibited. Models taking part in the show included, Miss Mary Mackay, Miss Eileen Turner, Mrs. Alastair Fraser, Miss Evelyn Higginson, Miss Caroline Granger, Miss Laurette Donnelly, Mrs. A. R. Peletier, Mrs. R. FEMININE FACTS AND FANCIES

MARGARET BARDEN

Ranking among the foremost Canadian writers, Estelle Jean Worfolk has added new leaves to her laurels with the publication of her latest book, "Wayside Reveries." This new book contains many of her poems which have appeared in magazines or anthologies.

A resident of this district for many years, Mrs. Worfolk is a member of Stanley Presbyterian church. She served on the board of the Maritime Women's Club for three years and was corresponding secretary for a year and chairman of the Arts and Letters for two years. Actively connected with the Royal Empire Society, she was general secretary of the Society for a year and secretary of committees for five years. A member of Westmount Women's Club, Mrs. Worfolk was co-chairman of the Club's Red Cross Unit during the past season.

A member of the Canadian Authors' Association, she acted as convener of the short story and served on the executive committee of the Association until last fall. She is also a member of the Order of the Eastern Star. Mrs. Worfolk recently received a letter from the Honorable A. S. MacMillan, Minister of Highways, informing her that she has been elected a member of the "Order of Good Times," in the Maritime Provinces. This order founded by Champlain, gives the freedom of any town in Nova Scotia, to its members.

Born in Virden, Man., Mrs. Worfolk received her education at the High School Sydney, Shetwin Cody School of English and the Insurance Institute of New York. She is the daughter of the late James E. Macdonald, son of Donald Macdonald, pioneer Presbyterian minister of Cape Breton, and Harriet Margaret Burt, daughter of Reverend Fredrick Burt, who was the founder of a number of Anglican churches in Eastern Ontario and brother of the Venerable Archdeacon W. A. J. Burt, of Port Sydney and Toronto.

Mrs. Worfolk was president and founder of the Youths' Forum, a class of 50 boys of various denominations and creeds. Meetings were held in the Livingstone Presbyterian church. After 25 years of active service in boys' work, she resigned in 1939.

In 1915 she founded the St. Denis Soldiers' Wives' League, a large branch of the Red Cross Society, which turned out 50,000 articles and comforts for men overseas; she also founded the Greenfield Park branch and was co-founder of the first Junior Red Cross Society, which had its being in the Greenfield Park branch. In connection with her work for soldiers' wives and dependents, Mrs. Worfolk was for the duration of the war, District Visitor for the Canadian Patriotic Fund for St. Denis Ward, Montreal, visiting the wives and families of some 1,000 Canadian soldiers.

At the close of the war, she founded and was first president of Flanders Branch Canadian Legion B.E.S.L. She also founded the Queen Alexander Chapter Number 24, O.E.S., and was presiding officers for two years.

In co-operation with Alderman J. N. Drummond, Mrs. Worfolk founded the Mount Royal Baby Health Centre, more than 5,000 babies passed through her hands during the three years she acted as convener of the Clinic; she was also on the executive of the first Child Welfare Association in the Province of Quebec.

While social and cultural organizations take a great deal of her time, Mrs. Worfolk devotes every spare minute to her writing.

She has justly acquired the reputation of being one of the finest contemporary writers.

She commenced writing at a very early age and during the last war, penned many well known patriotic verses, one of which, "Tis What is in the Blood That Tells," was awarded a prize.

Her articles, accompanied with illustrations, on the beauties of Canada, have appeared from time to time, in "Great Thoughts," an outstanding English Publication, along with compositions by some of the world's foremost journalists. She has written biographies of famous men, including Rt. Honorable R. B. Bennett, K.C., P.C., Honorable Arthur Meighen, K.C., P.C., and Sir Gerald Campbell. Mrs. Worfolk commenced writing for "Great Thoughts" in 1935, and has been among the regular contributors ever since.

In her latest book, she paints word pictures of unsurpassed beauty, of the country where she spent her childhood. These poems have been written with great simplicity and feeling for true art. She has been the recipient of congratulatory letters from the Honorable Angus L. Macdonald, Major General Sir Fredrick Sykes, of London, England, Reverend Dr. W. Dyer, of Birmingham, Alberta, and editor R. Duchemin, president of the Canadian Press Club. Without exception, all have congratulated Mrs. Worfolk on her achievement as a writer of verse and educational articles.

She has also written scripts on "Old Montreal" and "The Maritimes" for CBC broadcasts. Tribute was paid to Estelle Jean Worfolk, poetess, by "The Note Book," a magazine composed of verses from the pens of leading American poets, when her poem, "April" was chosen to be placed on the front cover of the Spring issue of this well known publication. In the Forethought of "Wayside Reveries," Gordon LeClair says, "No sympathetic reader can fail to be strongly impressed by the largeness of thought, beauty and of literary excellence contained within these pages."

On January 16, 1907, Estelle Jean Macdonald became the bride of W. F. Worfolk, who served four years and nine months with the Medical Services overseas. Mr. Worfolk is superintendent of Maintenance of the Canadian Steamship Lines.

THEATRE WILL PRESENT MANY FINE PLAYERS

Children's Theatre Plans Excellent Performance for Saturday Afternoon

The Children's Theatre, directed by Dorothy Davis and Violet Walters, will present for the first time four one-act plays at Victoria Hall on Saturday afternoon, April 27. "The Child's Gateway," a delightful morality play, shows that the easiest way is not always the best. "The Witches Cave" gives an opportunity for some excellent character work. "The Selfish Princess" is a delightful fantasy, and "Actress Wanted" which has been specially written for the senior group by Miriam Stein, is full of humour which will doubtless please both the tiny tots and grown-ups.

A feature of this production of the Children's Theatre is that each group of the school is responsible for their own particular play, and every individual number of the school, is given a fair showing, even the younger groups carrying their own show without the aid of seniors.

This being the final production of the season, distribution of prizes will take place at the conclusion of the performance for outstanding work accomplished by pupils during the past season.

TIBBETT THINKS ENGLISH OPERA IS DESIRABLE

Lawrence Tibbett, famous baritone of the Metropolitan Opera Association, who will sing on Tuesday, May 14th, at the Municipal Auditorium, Verdun, has the courage of his convictions. He believes opera should be sung in English for Americans, and he says so.

"In France, the French hear opera in their own tongue. In Italy, operas are given in Italian. This is true in Germany, and even in the Scandinavian countries.

"Our greatest operas are still those of the great masters: Wagner, Verdi, Puccini, Rossini, Mozart, Bizet, Gounod and Massenet; but it does not lessen the fact that, while music needs no translation, the libretto will bring the opera closer to us if it is in our own language.

Mr. Tibbett has great hopes for the growth of an American opera tradition, and is convinced that American composers have an important contribution to make. He himself had much to do with the success of "The Emperor Jones," "The King's Henchman," "Peter Ibbetson," and "Merry Mount"—all operas by American composers, and feels that the American public is demanding more and more to hear operas in its own tongue.

"Not only am I proud of being an American singer, but I am happy to be an American singer at this particular time. No longer is the American opera singer a worker in a completely alien art. It is his job to let his fellow countrymen know something of the great classical works, as well as the good music which is being written by American composers today. I am proud to be one of those who has the chance to bring opera closer to the American public."

Ribbon Streamers On Agnes Bonnets

Paris.—Agnes has an individual technique for securing her bonnets; she provides them with ribbon streamers that come from under the sides of the brim and then pass under the chin, where they are tied in a fetching bow. This for the young and pretty face; for the smartly sophisticated there are drapes or chin straps.

Miss B. Philip Spoke At King's Home-School Group

At the April Tea of the King's Westmount Home and School Association, Miss B. M. Philip, formerly of McDonald College, spoke on "Cheaper Cuts of Meat and their Value." Miss Philip pointed out that the meat is graded by the government and women should take advantage of this fact and buy by grades, the red label being the best. The cheaper cuts require longer cooking at a lower temperature but they repay for the extra trouble because they add greater variety to the menus and the meat itself has more flavour. Some of the methods described were pot roasts, braising, stewing, and the uses of minced meat.

The glanular organs are often ignored by Canadians but they have value and special mention was made of the pluck (liver, heart, and kidney) oxtail, heart, tongue, brains, sweetbreads, tripe and calf's head. Charts were used to show the various cuts of meat.

Mrs. H. A. Rowlands thanked the speaker on behalf of the Association.

Military Buttons Seen On New Spring Suits

Military buttons are all over the spring suits and look pretty smart at that. Some round gilt ones look like exact copies of those on naval officers' uniforms, with anchors and everything, and there are also some plain gold disks in different sizes. Another smart button consists of a large stud with an accompanying gold hook that clasps around it. Among the flower buttons there is a series of scarlet pimpernels, in sprays with two flowers and leaves, and links of single blossoms joined together with a chain. These would look very cheerful on a soft gray dress, or a print with red somewhere in the design.

THEATRICAL

Film EntertainmentImmortal Melodies, Superb Cast
in Romantic Drama

The beloved and famous melodies that are America's only real folk music, and the thrilling story of the man who wrote them, came to the Monkland United Theatre yesterday playing until Saturday. In a magnificent Technicolor motion picture, 20th Century-Fox's "Swanee River," the story of Stephen C. Foster, the great American troubadour.

With the nation already dotted with monuments to Stephen Foster, here is a fitting memorial in splendid entertainment worthy of the greatness of the unforgettable music he wrote.

One leaves the theatre with ears ringing with the melodies that seem to express the very heart of America — "The Old Folks at Home" (Swanee River), "Old Black Joe," "My Old Kentucky Home," "De Campdown Races," "Jeanie with the Light Brown Hair," "Ring, Ring the Banjo" and "Oh! Susanna!"

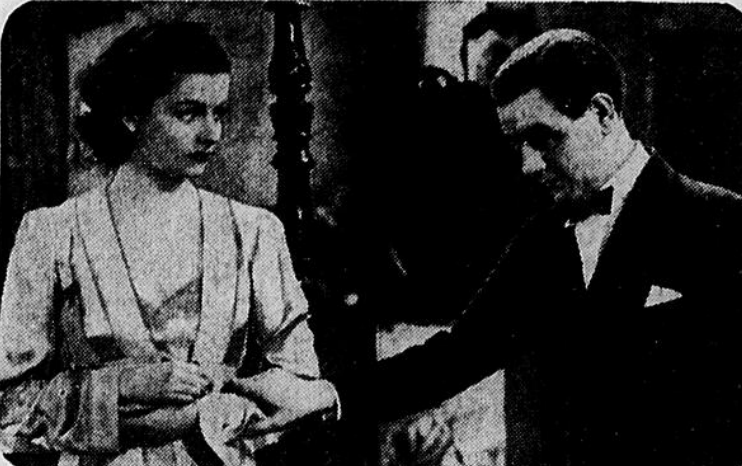

One leaves, too, with a sensation of having been thoroughly stirred and thrilled by the romantic drama of Foster's story-like life. From his early struggles, the introduction of his songs by Christy's Minstrels, his meeting and romance with Jane McDowell ("Jeanie with the Light Brown Hair"), and his success, to his disillusionment and disappointment, his gradual disintegration and death in a shabby Bowery rooming house, the life of Stephen

'Thin Man' Hit

William Powell and Myrna Loy, long hailed as the screen's most popular "Mr. and Mrs." team, are now playing at the Westmount United Theatre until Saturday. "Another Thin Man," third of the scintillating detective series which have swept the nation with a shower of laughs.

Like its famous predecessors, "The Thin Man" and "After the Thin Man," the story of "Another Thin Man" combines a puzzling and intriguing murder mystery which the happy, gay and sometimes hectic married life of Nick and Nora Charles, the detective pair whom Powell and Miss Loy created so delightfully in the first picture of the series.

Asta Is Back Too
The picture takes Nick and Nora to New York for a holiday trip and with them comes Asta, the wags-wire-haired terrier, who contributed so much mirth to the first two pictures. Also with them is a Thin Man, Jr., the new and very small son of the "Thin Man" pair, played by the baby screen find of the year, eight-months-old William Poulson.

Others in the carefully selected supporting cast include Virginia Grey, who recently scored in the feminine lead of "Thunder

Tibbett Will Sing At
Fine New Auditorium

Verdun is proud indeed of its new concert hall, and there is no doubt that it is a worthy setting for the glorious voice of Lawrence Tibbett, world's greatest baritone, who will give a recital there on Tuesday, May 14.

Modern and attractive, air-conditioned and with perfect acoustics, the building seats about 5000 people and every one of the extremely comfortable seats, which are divided into two with ample room and no fear of crowding, has an unobstructed view of the stage. The inner rink, which is used for skating and hockey during the winter months, has been fitted with a hardwood floor with room for an additional 2000 seats. A restaurant and smoking lounge add to the convenience of patrons.

Special parking space is available for more than 1000 cars. The route from Montreal to this new hall, which stands in the middle of Verdun, is clearly marked and can be reached by car in 10 minutes via Wellington Street, Mountain Street and Atwater, or by bus and tram service from Atwater and St. Catherine.

Laughs, Excitement In Picture Coming To York

"The Fighting 69th," a new Warner Bros. film starring James Cagney, George Brent and Pat O'Brien, will be the next feature attraction at the York United Theatre starting Saturday, playing until Tuesday. The hilarious, excitement-packed film will open there Saturday.

Headed by the three stars, the cast includes a long roster of well-known players such as Alan Hale, Jeffrey Lynn, Frank McHugh, Dennis Morgan, Dick Foran, William Lundigan, and Guinn "Big Boy" Williams. The original story by Norman Reilly Raine, Fred Niblo, Jr., and Dean Franklin is based partly on the exploits of the famous 165th New York infantry, better known as the Fighting 69th, the Irish Brigade, of which the late Father Francis Patrick Duffy was regimental chaplain. This is the role played by Pat O'Brien, whose priest role in "Angels with Dirty Faces" will long be remembered. Cagney is cast as a rebellious buck private, and George Brent as "Wild Bill" Donovan, colonel of the 69th. Alan Hale is the crusty top sergeant, and Jeffrey Lynn portrays the wartime poet, Joyce Kilmer.

The ups and downs of training camp life are vividly depicted in the film—the human interest drama of the adjustment of raw recruits from every walk of life to the discipline of life in the army. Cagney, as the tough guy who stubbornly resists falling into line with the military rules and regulations, provides the main thread of the story. In spite of the efforts of O'Brien, as the kindly and humane priest, and Brent, as the hard-bitten, but understanding colonel, he refuses to conform un-

Joan Blondell spent five years as a featured actress in Australia before attracting any notice on the American stage or screen. She started her Australian footlights career at 12 years of age, and was featured on Broadway at 19. WIDE RECREATIONAL PROGRAM PLANNED BY MUNICIPALITY

LOSS OF ATHLETIC GROUNDS WILL TRANSFER SITE OF MANY SPORTS TO WESTMOUNT PARK

Senior and Junior Cricket Teams to be Formed—Track and Field Club Will Carry on as Usual—Softball Teams Will Again Operate Although Star Players Have Joined Army

Despite the fact that its principal sports centre, the Athletic Grounds, has been turned over for military use, Westmount plans to conduct a recreational program this summer that will be but slightly less comprehensive than those of previous years.

The Westmount Cricket Club, which held its annual meeting on Saturday in Victoria Hall, will operate as usual but practices and matches will be played on Westmount Park. A senior and junior team will be formed.

The Westmount Track and Field Club will also go into action as soon as weather permits although the weekly track and field handicaps which have been among the most popular of the municipal sporting events will have to be cancelled. It will enter competitions as a group.

Notwithstanding the fact that many star players have enlisted with the R.C.S.C., municipal softball leagues will again be formed this year, with Westmount Park as their home base. Harold Maher, the city's leading pitcher for the past four or five years, is among those who have signed up with the Royal Montreal Regiment.

It has been definitely announced that senior, intermediate and junior squads will be formed. Any new teams wishing to enter the leagues should communicate with Norman Smyth, director of recreation, as early as possible.

In the meanwhile players are eagerly awaiting opportunities to practice. The park is still pretty wet but the hockey but boards are new, being taken down and conditions for pre-schedule activity are not far off.

While municipal tennis will be somewhat curtailed as a result of the loss of the Athletic Grounds

Swim Lessons Start At Y April 29

Boys and girls semi-private learn-to-swim classes will commence at the local Y.M.C.A. on April 29 and 30. Boys classes will be held on Mondays and Wednesdays at 4 p.m. with advanced instruction the same days at 4:30 p.m. Girls classes will be conducted on Tuesdays and Fridays at 4 p.m. with advanced instruction at 4:30 p.m.

H. MITCHELL RE-ELECTED CRICKET HEAD

Annual Meeting Held by Westmount Club—Two Teams Will be Formed

Arrangements for the coming season were drawn up at the annual meeting of the Westmount Cricket Club held in Victoria Hall on Saturday. Although there were a number of changes in the executive, Harry Mitchell, who had planned to retire from the office of president, agreed to continue in that post for another season following appeals from the membership.

A. R. W. Robinson was prevented from continuing as secretary due to military duties and he has been replaced by Geoffrey Pike, a member of the McGill Club prior to the outbreak of the last Great War. He kept wickets to Burns, the famous fast bowler who had played in England for the Gentlemen against the Players. S. G. Norrish continues as treasurer.

As the result of a thorough canvass of all the members of the club, it has been decided to run two teams, but at present the intention is to enter only one eleven in the league. This matter will, however, be finally settled before April 24, by which date all clubs are expected to inform the league secretary of their intentions.

With the athletic ground on St. Catherine street having been taken over by the military authorities, all practices and matches of the club will take place on Westmount Park and, having two teams operating, Westmount club will occupy that ground for the entire season.

Great regret was expressed at the retirement of W. I. Brebner from the executive of the club. During the many years he has played cricket in Montreal, his services to the game have been invaluable.

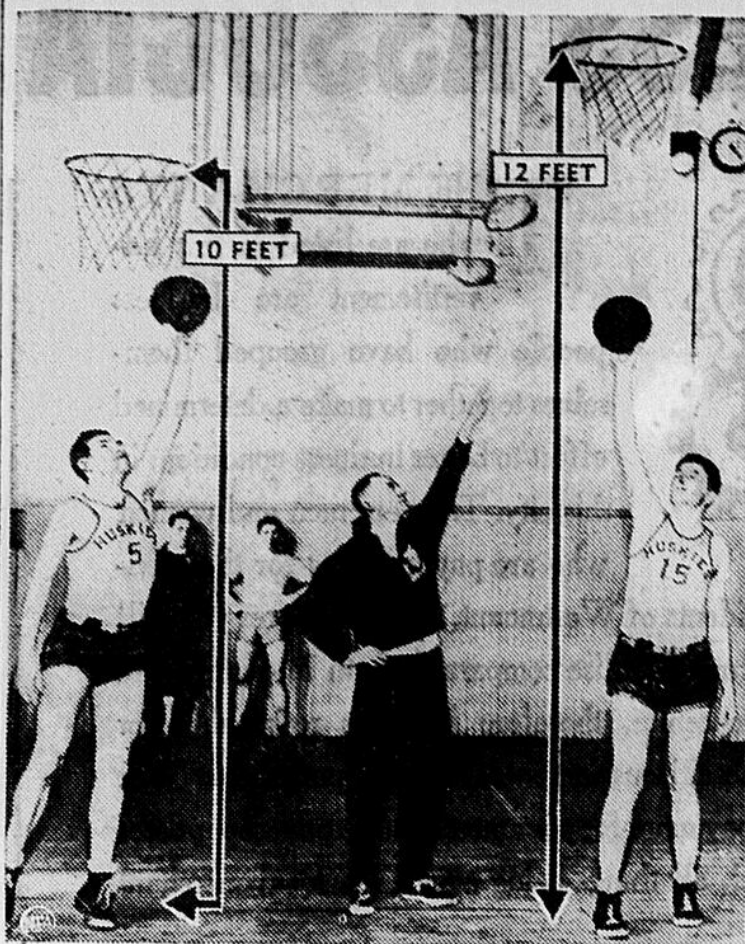

Cordial votes of thanks were awarded to him and all the past officers, as well as to P. J. Richards and T. Kearney for their unwearied services. The support to the game given by the press was also acknowledged.

Those present at the meeting were: Harry Mitchell who presided; A. R. W. Robinson, W. I. Brebner, Norman Smyth, Superintendent of Recreation for the City of Westmount; W. C. Chappell, W. Edge, Geoffrey Pike, L. C. Elvidge, E. A. Jemmett, J. Kearney, P. J. Lane, A. V. Ward, and G. L. Ingram.

JUST AMATEURS

EXPERIMENT WITH CAGE RULES

Following complaint that 10-foot baskets make it too easy for skyscraper players, 12-foot goals are being tested by National Basketball Rules Committee. Difference between two is demonstrated by University of Washington players at Seattle—Bill McDonald, right, 6 feet 5 inches, and Hal Schlichting, 6 feet 4. Coach Hec Edmundson, centre, indicated higher goal would reduce chances for rebound shots for giants.

Loss Of An Eye Fails To Halt Baseball Star

Providence College has announced a 16-game baseball schedule for next Spring, but stealing the spotlight from that announcement was word that Co-Capt. Donat Brochu, who lost the sight of one eye in a baseball accident last Spring, would once more be a candidate for a varsity berth.

Brochu was struck on the eye by a line drive during the game with Boston College at Newton, the ball tearing through the strip of leather between the thumb and first finger. He was a third baseman, but this Spring will seek an outfield position.

TURF ACES IN TRAINING FOR SUBURBAN

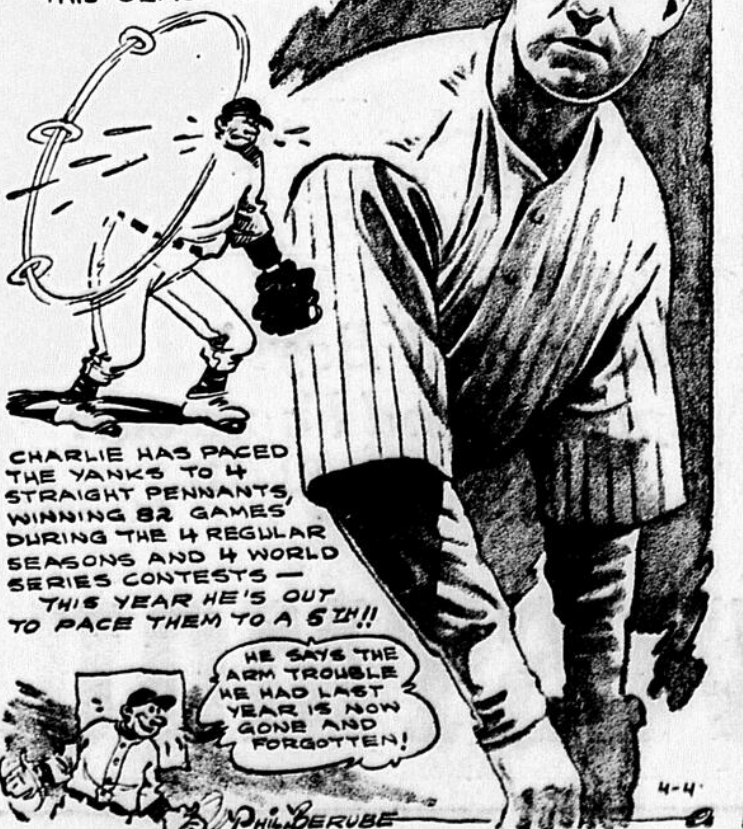

The Suburban Handicap scheduled for Belmont Park in late May contains the candidacies of all the leading older horses in training. It is truly a star studded stakes in perfect keeping with its importance in racing and its roster of famous winners.

Challenger, 1939 champion, and Charles S. Howard's Kayak II, second to Seabiscuit in this year's Santa Anita Handicap, rate first mention. But the one mile and a quarter Suburban has no appearance of being restricted to those two, as a glance at the other candidates will prove.

Cravat, Townsend B. Martin's 1939 winner of the race, was named for the new edition of the Suburban. This son of Penant has a strong partiality for the wide, sweeping turns at Belmont Park. Belair Stud has fond hopes of the hopes of Marshall Field for his stakes winner, Sir Damien, are establishing their Isolator as a first flight handicap horse, while being placed in the Suburban.

OVER 600 PERSONS WITNESS ANNUAL PHYSICAL EDUCATION HELD AT LOCAL YMCA BRANCH

Record Turnout Jammed Gymnasium on Friday and Saturday Nights—100 Participants Took Part in Annual Event—Varied Program Included Mat and Box Work and Display by Mackaye Institute Boys

A record of over six hundred persons jammed the gymnasium at Westmount Y.M.C.A. last Friday and Saturday nights, to witness the Annual Exhibition of the Physical Department. This yearly event has become a featured attraction in Westmount and its great success is a tribute to the ability of the physical director, Hugh A. Noble, and his hard-working assistants, Miss Joyce Lewis, Walter Harris and Miss Margaret Davidson, pianist.

More than one hundred persons participated in the event, eighteen separate numbers being presented. These included tricky marching and counter-marching, mat and box work by the preps and Junior leaders, colorful folk-dances by the Ladies' Class, Danish calisthenics by the Business Girls' Class, a calisthenic drill by the boys of the Mackaye Institute and various drills and presentations by the Senior Leaders.

Particularly noteworthy was the diving through hoops by the Preps and Junior Leaders. Some of the hoops were decorated with slogans about the "Y's" current financial campaign. One carried a friendly caricature of Mr. Noble, and two others carried the portraits of Satan and Hitler. Curiously enough, the latter drew louder "boos" than the former.

Individual numbers by Mrs. Norris, (tap-dancing), and by Bill Reay, (lighted Indian Clubs), drew loud applause from the crowd. Local candid camera addicts were on deck to take shots of both.

The Australian Axe drill and

Silk Wrapped Rod Best For Fishing

Time and patience are the most important elements in wrapping a fishing rod with silk. In the opinion of J. A. "Pop" McCarthy, Jr., of Philadelphia, who has made it his hobby.

McCarthy said to do the job properly he needs about 150 yds. of silk. Next comes six coats of lacquer, followed by six applications of varnish brushed on a week apart.

Inventor of the game, and another entitled "Cooperation" was dedicated to the armed forces. Perhaps the most moving exhibit was "Poetry in Motion", a brief fencing routine.

The act with the greatest interest to the children, and the "Y" was swarming with them, was that put on by the clowns, Mac Shippe, Len Schryer and Eddie Dewitt.

GUARD YOUTH WHILE YOUTH GUARDS YOU

The Boy He Left at Home

THE Troop train has gone... the transport sailed... and on it... his Dad and grown-up brother.

Why couldn't HE go... he's fourteen now... played hockey with his brother... they went hiking and skiing together with Dad. But Dad just said "You stay and look after Mother, Son" and his brother smiled rather funny and said "We'll be back soon, Buddy".

Fine for them in their smart new uniforms... but what was HE going to do... no Dad to talk to... no brother to help in his battles... and Mother?... well, she seems so quiet and tired since THEY went away. He wouldn't admit it, but with all his rebellious spirit he's feeling rather lonely, bewildered and puzzled... all this talk about War... Democracy... Freedom. What's it all mean?

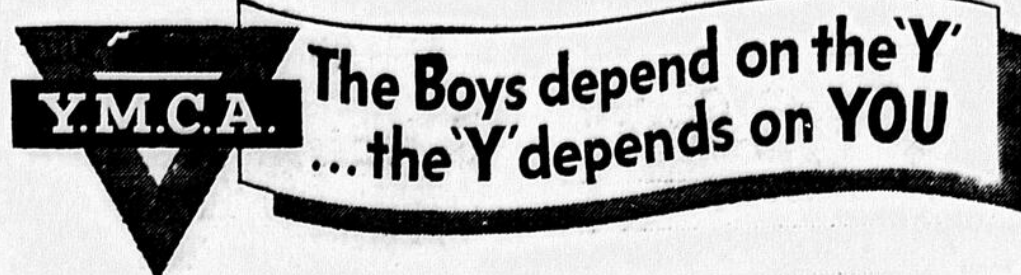

In his camp tonight the Soldier-Father thinks of that boy and his Mother... it was tough to leave them... but all his will for Victory is intensified in the thought that he is fighting for THEM. To preserve for that boy the freedom and ideals which he himself has cherished, he will gladly pay what sacrifice is needed. But what will happen to his boy... what is he doing now? He was so strong-willed he needs a man to guide him, especially in these difficult days... who will give him the council and leadership he needs?

We cannot all serve on the battle front but here is a responsibility we can and must face—the problem of the youth of Montreal now too young to serve or engaged in work on the industrial front.

Today, more than ever, youth needs direction, training, inspiration, leadership—some anchor amid all the fervour and excitement of these war days—some protection from undesirable influences—something to keep them strong and healthy in body, mind and spirit.

This is a task which the Montreal Y.M.C.A. is so well qualified to perform through its nine building branches, its camps and community work programmes throughout the city where supervised games, recreation, hobbies, discussion groups, educational work, are helping to train youth for better citizenship.

This work is vital but it can only be continued with your help. This week the Montreal Y.M.C.A. is launching its Annual Maintenance campaign and again the "Y" looks to the citizens of Montreal with confidence that the need will be appreciated and generous support given. $115,000 is needed for work among the youth of Montreal in addition to the special fund for war services. When the voluntary worker calls on you this year make your contribution adequate for both needs.

This Year... more than ever... support MONTREAL Y.M.C.A. ANNUAL MAINTENANCE CAMPAIGN

YMCA COURTS TO OPEN SOON

Westmount Y.M.C.A. tennis courts are expected to open within the next two or three weeks and plans are being arranged for a banner season, it was announced at the branch yesterday.

Until suitable weather permits opening of the courts indoor conditioning will be available at the branch. Ladies' classes are held Monday and Thursday at 7:30 p.m. and classes for men are held the same days commencing one hour later.

MIZE HITTER WHEN THE HEAT IS TURNED ON

Big, red-faced Johnny Mize was sitting in the dugout grinding a plug of tobacco between his molars and gossiping with the other Cardinals before one of the exhibition games with Cincinnati. Jimmy Wilson, the Reds' coach, looked into the dugout and spied Mize. "Hi-ya, Johnny," he called. Mize grinned back at him.

"Why don't you stay down here in this hot sunshine and play golf until June?" Wilson jibed. "You ain't going to hit nothing 'til then anyhow."

Hot-Wave Hitter Wilson was only kidding Mize, but his statement was true. Johnny just doesn't hit in the Spring. He's a hot-weather hitter.

The burly first-sacker usually waddles along for the first six weeks, hardly hitting his weight. Then, all of a sudden, he catches fire. From there on the pitchers just can't get him out.

If Mize could make April and May match his hitting for the rest of the season he'd probably set an all-time high. No one can explain why it takes him several weeks to get under way.

BASEBALL'S CHAIN GANG COUNTERPART

Baseball's chain gang farm system now has a counterpart of the college campus.

St. Michael's College varsity baseball team boasts a student "farm"—the Bushwicks—to supply the varsity with material that may have "overlooked."

Organized three seasons ago by two Brooklyn boys indignant over fourteen consecutive losses by the varsity, the Bushwicks whipped all the local amateur competition in the nearby towns and it was not long before some of them attracted the attention of the school's baseball coach.

The varsity coaching staff is contemplating a deal for the entire Bushwick infield.

A TOAST

Hollywood, April 17—With the advent of Spring, those ladies and gentlemen who manufacture celluloid entertainment may well grant themselves a brief recess from work to glance in retrospect at the half-century of film production just concluded. Shadowy characters first moved on the screen some fifty years ago—and, if progress has been rather wobbly at times, it has nonetheless been definite and continued.

Chronic crabs who speak of pictures in terms of contempt will doubtless be interested to find that during the past decade Shakespeare first spoke from the screen, symphony and grand opera were brought to millions at a price within the reach of all, great classics of literature and fantasy were transformed into lights and shadows, and visual education revolutionized systems of teaching in the more progressive parts of the world.

This department would be the last to deny that Hollywood has turned out some horrible trips, but a glance at the roster of recent feature films should reassure those in search of entertainment, the studios are also capable of grinding out their full quota of cinematic masterpieces.

"The Old Maid," "The Light That Failed," "Gone With the Wind," "Young Mr. Lincoln," "Goodbye, Mr. Chips" and "Gulliver's Travels" illustrate what films have done for history, literature, drama, legend and fine art.

Compare these pictures with the top items of 1930—"The Wolf of Wall Street," "The Lady Lies," "The Cockeyed World," or "Charming Sinners"—and you have proof of the speed with which the industry has passed from adolescence to maturity after four decades of growing pains.

The Movies—God bless 'em! Without them this world would be a dreary place, indeed!

MOVIE MUSINGS

Dave Gould, who earned his first pennies coaching chorus lines in Montreal cabarets, contracted this week to direct dance routines for Universal's "The Boys From Syracuse," which co-stars Allan Jones and Martha Raye. . . . The same studio has just signed W. C. Fields for two pictures, the first of which is tentatively titled "Bank Dick." . . . Hollywood's method of firing veteran studio executives is deeply touching! The dismissed executive voluntarily resigns two days after he is fired, and a week later he is tendered a testimonial banquet by studio associates with tear-jerking tributes by solons who have conspired for months to oust him! . . . Just such an incident took place at Paramount this week. . . . Warners will make a film biography of Alvin York, the American soldier who single-handedly captured 132 German prisoners during the Argonne offensive of the World War. . . .

FILM FACTS

Norma Shearer, whose high-priced press agent is the least cooperative in Hollywood, will star next with Robert Taylor at Metro in "Escape." . . . Proceeds from the world premiere of Eddie Cantor's latest film, "Forty Little Mothers," will go to aid destitute children of New York's

East Side. Previewed here this week, the film proved entertaining but not sentimental. Rita Johnson steals the picture from Cantor, with a gurgling baby taking second honors. . . . The Nazi march into Norway and Denmark will cost American film producers $4,000,000 annually in lost receipts. Shirley Temple's parents and 20th Century-Fox have reached a parting of the ways, and Shirley will probably leave the screen when her next picture winds up. . . .

TICKETAPE

Despite all reports to the contrary, Orson Welles will definitely make three pictures for RKO release within the year. He told me so, himself. . . . Welles doesn't draw a cent from RKO until he starts actual production. . . . Bing Crosby will sever connections with Paramount within the next few months. . . . NBC has announced plans to televise the National Baseball League opener in New York between Brooklyn and the Giants. . . . Hollywood studios spend more than $80,000,000 annually on press exploitation, according to an estimate released recently. A good percentage of this goes for so-called "free" publicity—plugs by columnists and critics in return for the odd cocktail or highball. . . . England's Binnie Barnes, who usually wears her phone number on her right thumbnail, has had it removed and replaced by the Union Jack! . . .

FINALE

Local Hearst sheets front-paged a report yesterday that secret Canadian envoys are in Hollywood offering experienced pilots $10,000 to fly American-built war planes to Canada, and thence to England. . . . Hollywood's newest star is an Italian pickpocket, Giovanni, who hit the headlines last week by stealing G-Man J. Edgar Hoover's suspenders without Hoover knowing it! Such is genuine talent! . . . Raymond Massey is in town and starts work soon on a film for RKO. . . . One midtown film house is showing pictures made in 1918—22 years ago—with Norma Shearer as star. It is understood that Miss Shearer has protested vigorously, but without effect! . . . Basil Rathbone, who has long expressed a desire to appear in a film-biography of composer Franz Liszt, was cast yesterday as a lazy writer of jitterbug tunes in "Ghost Music" with Bing Crosby. . . . And so goes the news from Hollywood. Adios, amigos! . . .

THE BUSINESS ASSOCIATION of WESTMOUNT

THE MERCHANTS who are listed in this advertisement are business people who have grouped themselves together to make a determined effort to better business conditions in this city. They are men and women who are paying taxes for the privilege of serving the residents of Westmount. In their stores you will find an assortment of merchandise comparable both in quality and price with any larger centre, therefore it seems reasonable for them to expect that the citizens in general will support them. We are not asking you to pay more for your merchandise or accept poorer service but we do feel, all things being equal, the local merchant deserves your support. Won't you kindly think this over and when ordering, try the local merchant first.

During the month of May, a "Citizens' Night" meeting will be held to which the residents of Westmount will be invited. In opening these meetings to the citizens we feel that it will give them a clearer understanding of the aims and objects of our Association and at the same time give the citizens an opportunity to meet the merchants who, in joining this Association, have pledged themselves to conduct their businesses in such a manner that the buying public of Westmount will see the many advantages of supporting the local stores. The exact date and further details of this important meeting will be announced in the near future.
