Home and School Group Can Be of Great Help to All

Many Ways in Which it Can Assist in Operation of School

There has been a great deal of discussion in and out of print about the merits of home and school associations. Moreover, a number of persons in this locality have pressed for the formation of such an organization in Huntingdon. High School and it would seem, therefore, that the time has come for a clear-cut presentation of facts regarding the functions, purposes and aims of these groups and how they fit into the community.

The board of school commissioners have not yet announced their intentions in this matter but it should be stated at the outset that, regardless of whether or not a home and school association is formed in Huntingdon, such an institution is needed, no community with a school can afford to be without a home and school association.

It is unnecessary to stress the importance of training children morally and academically so that they will be able to cope successfully with the demands of life. This task is handled by the home, the school and the church, three social bodies responsible for moulding the thoughts of growing children. The home, the school and the church have the tremendously vital task of producing decent, healthy adults; they have not always succeeded. As any psychiatrist will testify, bad boys, in nine cases out of ten, are made, not born. Almost every criminal, alcoholic or unhappy home represents the failure of some individual to adapt himself to his environment, a failure which too often can be traced to the fact that society itself has failed to equip that individual with the necessary edge of philosophy to measure up to the hardships of ordinary living.

If the home, the school and the church are to achieve their common purpose, the mental, physical and spiritual welfare of mankind, they must work together. All too often, however, they do not. One phase of the problem has already been presented by the Gleaner in an article, "Should There Be Religious Education in Our Schools?" Now we turn to the home and the school: the parents-teachers association.

The National Congress of Parents and Teachers have stated that their purpose is to promote cooperation in planning the activities of individuals in school; to exchange information on students' interests, abilities and problems; to compare notes and share plans so that guidance and discipline will not operate at cross purposes; to produce a united effort to improve the community; to discuss systematically the problems of youth so that both teachers and parents may improve their respective practices and procedures.

The N.C.P.T. states that, although a home and school association is not a board of education and has no authority to decide, it may and should advise. Be that as it may, the organization is not chiefly a sounding board for disgruntled parents. Facts, however unpleasant, should be presented and opinions expressed but the main purpose is not that of a grievance committee but

Evolution of Electric Light Shown Rotarians

Mr. Stanley Currie this week presented the Rotary Club with an interesting, colour movie on the subject of modern lighting.

The movie traced the evolution of the electric light, beginning with the primitive torch used by the cave man, the development of the candle and the gas lamp and finally showing the present-day fluorescent light. It is not generally realized that fluorescent lighting represents a triumph of modern science. The picture explained clear-cut terms the principle upon which this form of illumination is based and presented an understandable account of its operation. The manufacture of fluorescent light was shown in detail and the audience was conducted on an interesting tour of a factory engaged in the intricate task of producing them. The processes and the various operations involved require a high degree of care and accuracy. Each lamp is afterwards put through a series of extremely delicate tests.

Mr. Currie was thanked by Mr. William Wilson. The Rotary Club may in the future present more educational movies of this sort.

C. Oney OHW Publicity Chairman

Final Plans For Celebration to Be Drafted

Mr. C. M. Oney has been appointed chairman in charge of publicity for the Old Home Week celebration. At a recent meeting, it was proposed that Mr. Oney be asked to form a publicity committee in connection with Old Home Week and the Civic Centre-War Memorial. It was announced a few days ago that he had accepted the position. Thus, Mr. Oney will be working closely with Mr. Geo. Dixon and Mr. Noel Pinsky, who are handling the plans for the parade and the programming respectively. Other additions to the "Old Home Week" organization are expected as the main committee will meet on Thursday evening and it is expected the final plans for the Civic Centre will be drafted. The proposed building may be similar to the one erected at Keene, Ont., but, at all events, it will be divided between agriculture and the financial resources of the community.

The meeting will be attended by representatives of the Agricultural Society and the County mayors. It is expected that from now on the project will proceed rapidly. Again the Gleaner urges its readers to send in names for its mailing list and to watch for the Red Cross canvasser, who, besides working for their worthy cause, will distribute convenient forms to ensure that anyone who may be interested in the activities of Huntingdon will receive an invitation to join the Old Home Week festivities.

Has Purchased the Late J. Stark Farm, New Erin Rd.

Mr. Edward E. Brown, son of Mr. B. F. Brown, of Garden City, Huntingdon, has bought the farm of the late J. Stark on the New Erin Road.

Edward Brown is a graduate in Mining Engineering of McGill University and has spent a great deal of time in the mining areas of the Canadian Shield. He has lived in Alberta, Northern Ontario and Quebec and for eight years was a manager of the Pickle Crow Mine. Mr. Brown visited this locality during the summer and as a result decided to take up farming. He has settled here with his wife and family of three children. His interests will be divided between agriculture and those of a consulting engineer.

Problems of Dairy Industry Heard at Annual Meeting of National Dairy Council

Margarine Blamed For Decline in Sale of Butter—Urge Advertising Campaign

The Annual Meeting of the National Dairy Council at the Selwyn Club has brought to the fore a number of opinions on dairy prices, margarine and the general outlook for the industry. Some 200 delegates representing more than 600 dairy plants and 22 dairy associations gathered to attend the three-day conference which will try to solve the problems presented by the effects of margarine and the declining foreign markets for Canadian dairy products.

J. H. Duplan on Monday renewed the dairy industry's fight against margarine with the charge that the "inspired campaign" of some profit-making and subversive groups has resulted in Canada being "literally flooded with foreign margarine."

The president of the National Dairy Council told its annual meeting that unless this "flood" of foreign margarine—required to manufacture margarine—is controlled by tariffs and other means, the butter industry and the Canadian economy as a whole may face "economic chaos."

Mr. Duplan disclosed to the representatives of dairy manufacturers, processors and distributors that this weapon may be found in a high powered $500,000-a-year publicity campaign to spread the merits of Canada's dairy products before the Canadian public.

"Our industry cannot afford to sit back and see its markets undermined," Mr. Duplan said, "and I suggest to you that sales promotion activities on our domestic market should represent the No. 1 project of every dairyman in Canada in the near future."

The welfare of 17 per cent of the Canadian population, which directly and indirectly derived its livelihood from the $600,000,000 dairy industry was at stake.

But industry cannot afford to bring margarine to Canadians "unwittingly played into the hands of those groups who were carrying on an inspired campaign for the introduction of substitutes."

"The program comprised in part of those who stood to gain financially by the sale of a product manufactured from foreign oils, and, in part by that small but extremely vocal section of our population who thrive on destructive agitation of any kind."

If present price differentials between butter and margarine prevail, Mr. Duplan said, "margarine will result in an even greater surplus of butter than last year and

A Good Hobby For the Summer

During the war quite an army of city dwellers developed into wartime vegetable gardeners. Time, and many an aching back has taken its toll, and many a space in the backyard garden is back in grass or is growing perennials—flowers which require the least attention. But some still find vegetable growing a healthy hobby and continue to supplement the dinner table with home-grown supplies.

It is surprising the quantity of vegetables that can be grown on the smallest of backyards, but where space is naturally limited, it is best to keep to those most easily grown. Beans, beets, lettuce, radish, carrots, onions, spinach and tomatoes make a good list.

The best place for the vegetable patch is where it will receive full sunlight. Digging in the fall is best, but it can be done in the spring just as soon as the ground is dry enough to work properly. A common mistake is to dig too deeply. The best part of the soil is generally the top-soil which the bulldozer used when grading, and for this reason, digging should not exceed eight to ten inches, so that the better soil still remains on the top. Well rotted manure is a great help in plant growth, but it is not always possible to obtain it for city gardens.

Where this is so, ready-mixed commercial fertilizer may be used to advantage. Scatter the fertilizer over the surface of the garden after digging, at the rate of 4 pounds per 100 square feet, and work it into the top-soil by direct contact with roots or tops; it will cause burning of the young plants.

Good seed can be obtained from the local seed store; it can be relied upon as it conforms to established Government standards. But it is a good plan to ask your supplier to give you the varieties best suited to your particular locality. Often a crop does not do well because a variety of seed was used not suited to the district.

J-Cs Discuss Medical Problem

Will Sponsor Beauty Contest For Old Home Week

The Junior Chamber of Commerce held its monthly meeting at the Legion Hall, on Tuesday evening. The plans and future activities of the organization were discussed and the evening was brought to a climax with a rehearsal of the musical show which is scheduled to take place in the middle of next month. It is rapidly developing into a show which should provide a fine evening's entertainment.

Much of the evening was devoted to a discussion of the Chamber's plans for Old Home Week. In this respect the J.C.s are laying the ground work for a special beauty contest which will undoubtedly be one of the highlights of the event. Two delegates were appointed to the Old Home Week Programme Committee which will under the direction of Mr. Noel Pinsky.

Other business of the evening dealt with industrial visits and the critical shortage of medical men in Huntingdon. A committee of two was formed to ask the local physicians in what way the J.C.C. might cooperate with them in solving the problem.

Macdonald College Professor Suggests Reduced Milk Price

Considers Idea Would Be of Advantage to Producers

Prof. G. L. Burton of Macdonald College stated at the conference of the National Dairy Council, on Tuesday, that one of the most promising ways of expanding the market for bottled milk is to cut costs and pass part of the cut to the consumer.

He said there are at least three sales boosters which could be used. They are:

1. Distribute less milk to homes and more to stores. This distribution avenue cuts hauling costs and permits cheaper milk to the consumer.
2. Grant the customer a price cut for buying more than one bottle at a time.
3. Reduce the cost of hauling milk from the farmer's gate to the dairy plant.

Elaborating on his cut-costs theme, Prof. Burton said a recent study of distributing costs in New York shows that by distributing milk to stores, rather than to homes, a saving of five cents a quart can be made.

He suggested that the current practice of charging the same price no matter how many bottles a customer buys offers no incentive to sales.

He offered instead the idea of printing a blue ticket for two quarts, an orange one for three quarts and possibly a yellow ticket for four quarts and selling these tickets for proportionately lower prices than the one-quart ticket.

As to trucking costs, "there is some evidence that these trucking charges are too high. Some modification of the way in which trucking charges are determined may be called for."

Powerscourt Bridge Boasts McCallum Truss

At the little hamlet of Powerscourt, Que., stands the only known covered bridge in the world that is constructed on the "McCallum Inflexible Arch Truss" plan patented by Daniel Craig McCallum, of New York City, in 1851.

Since the McCallum Truss was only in vogue for a period of about 15 years (1850-70), it is remarkable that there should be even this one still standing. Furthermore, the truss was primarily for railroad bridges, and no doubt only a very few were ever built on common roadways.

According to research by Mrs. C. E. Ewing, of Powerscourt, the bridge was built in 1861. Since Mr. McCallum and his McCallum Bridge Company advertised their patents "widely," it is thought that either an outside contractor built the bridge, or local carpenter-builders obtained a set of plans for erecting this structure. The unknown builders performed their work well, for the bridge has stood "inflexibly" for 89 years.

Powerscourt Bridge spans the tumbling Chateaugay River between the townships of Elgin and Hinchinbrook. It is 170 feet long in two spans, with 8-foot shelter panels on each end. Each of the four trusses consist of eight panels with braces and counterbraces notched into the adze-heavy posts. The timbers used in the center of the trusses are not as heavy as those towards the ends. The bottom chord consists of four pieces, while the curved upper chord is made up of three pieces, with extra "straining pieces" between posts in the middle four panels. Each span of the bridge is independent, and the trusses do not touch over the center pier. Their abutments are masonry piers built about 10 feet from each bank. Covered shelter panels and beams

Ladies' Curling Club Elects Officers For Next Season

Walsh Tray Trophy Presented to Mrs. W. K. Philips' Rink

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Curling Club was held Monday night in the local club rooms. Preceding the meeting, thirty-six members and guests sat down to a delicious supper given in honor of the rink skipped by Mrs. D. L. Kelso (Mrs. Rivett) (Mrs. Mons Duke leads), Mrs. M. Smith, Mrs. E. C. Martin, which succeeded in bringing home the "Moore Trophy" won in the Chateaugay Valley Bonspiel. The club room and table rick decorations. At the conclusion of the supper, the president, Mrs. W. K. Pope, welcomed the members and guests and tendered the club's congratulations to the winners. Mrs. Kelly replying, Mr. Wm. Walsh presented the Walsh Tray" to Mrs. M. K. Philips, Mrs. F. H. Hunter, Mrs. M. Smith and Mrs. Mons Duke (lead).

The annual meeting was then called to order and minutes and reports given. The match committee's report given by Mrs. Philips, despite evidence of an active season, showed conditions in the early part of the winter. The lead won on the "Pringle Plate" was made by Mrs. Walter Hogg, Mrs. M. Smith, Mrs. S. Robb and Miss J. Tinker (lead). Mrs. M. McLeod reported for the Friday afternoon bridges, which had been quite successful. Election of officers for the coming year resulted in the slate drawn up by the nominating committee and presented by Mrs. Philips, being accepted. It was as follows—

Hon. pres., Mrs. W. K. Pope; pres., Mrs. S. Robb; 1st vice, Mrs. J. W. McGill; 2nd vice, Mrs. Wm. Wilson; sec., Miss Jessie Tinker; treas., Mrs. E. Thomas; Executive: Mrs. E. C. Martin, Mrs. G. Dixon, Mrs. D. L. Kelly, Mrs. M. Duke, Mrs. W. K. Pope.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the retiring officers for their most efficient work.

The new president, Mrs. Robb, took the chair and ably conducted an open discussion on the project of artificial ice, which had been laid before the club by Mr. R. Tinker.

Bridge was then played at seven tables. Prizes were donated by the president, Mrs. Pope, and won by Mrs. Mae O'Connor, Miss Mabel MacMillan and Mrs. G. McLean.

River Chateaugay Forces Farmer to Abandon Farm

Mr. and Mrs. C. Boyce Have to Leave Farm Due to Rising Waters

Mr. and Mrs. George Boyce, of Athelstan, have been forced out of their home and had to remove their cattle so as practically to abandon their farm due to the Chateaugay river flooding their premises. This is no ordinary circumstance, for it has never happened before in all their existence on the farm. Mr. Boyce's mother, who lives with them at the farm, has been there for 62 years and has never seen anything like it before. In the ordinary way when the ice goes out of the river in the spring, some flooding of their land takes place, but never has reached the barns or the house before, usually taking different courses.

It is thought that due to the abnormal weather conditions experienced this winter and then the huge amount of snowfall, with the river ice going out several times, the water was blocked in its usual passage and thus caused the extraordinary flood conditions. It was three weeks ago that the condition first became noticeable, but little water had been there for 62 years and the waters in the river became more swollen and more ice and water was thrown up onto the land farmed by Mr. Boyce. In fact, in two weeks it was right into the barn, but it was considered it would recede. But colder weather froze the water into ice and it stayed in that condition and kept the water there. About a week ago the water reached the house and started to pour into the cellar. The animals were up to their knees in water in the barn and the furnace fire was put out by the water in the cellar. It was then that it was decided to abandon the place and seek other quarters until such times that the water receded and improved. The elder Mrs. Boyce, who is quite sickly, had to be thought of and as there was no heat, it was imperative that she should be moved. She was taken to Mrs. Patterson's nursing home in Huntingdon, and Mrs. Boyce and daughter Betty moved to the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson in Huntingdon. The cattle were taken out of the barn and lodged in the barns of some neighbors.

Before removing the cattle it was necessary to dig a path through the slush ice and snow, and this being covered by a layer of hay A number of the neighbors assisted Mr. Boyce to do this and also to lead the cattle to the barns of the neighbors. Some of the cattle were removed by truck. It was felt that the cattle may suffer from standing in the water, but so far no ill effects have been noticed. During this time a calf was born, but it is apparently none the worse for the experience. When it was decided to remove the cattle, the water had risen as high as the mangers and there seemed no hope of it receding.

The water is now receding, but piles of ice are surrounding the back part of the barn and it will be some time before this can be removed. During the flooding conditions, the water rushed in through the doors at the s.w. end of the barn and swept right through. Considerable damage has been done to both the barn and the cellar of Mr. and Mrs. Boyce's home. Vegetables, wood and other articles stored in the cellar will be rendered useless and possibly except for the wood, will be lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyce have had quite an experience and one they will not forget for some time to come. Fortunately they had kind neighbours who readily came to their assistance and gave them all the help possible. Mr. Boyce is staying at one of the neighbors where some of his cattle have been placed, in order that he may care for them in the usual way.

Mr. Campbell's domestic market survey, while pessimistic in one sense, was optimistic in another. Price cuts for milk, butter and cheese may mean smaller incomes for Canadian farmers, but they may prove to be a bonanza to the industry.

Mr. Campbell's address, read in his absence, by Mr. W. C. Cameron, chairman of the Agriculture Department Dairy Board, indicated further that the Government may have to invoke production controls and marketing problems by itself.

This period will be only that length of time required by an industry to readjust itself, by voluntarily cutting production and other means, to curtailed outlets for the product.

RECEIVES LETTER FROM FORMER GRAND DUCHESS OF RUSSIA

HEMINGFORD—The following is the contents of a letter received from the former Grand Duchess of Russia by Arnold MacNaughton.

Having written to the former Grand Duchess of Russia, Mrs. Olga Kulkovsky, only surviving sister of the late Emperor Nicholas II of Russia, and living with her family on a farm near Campbellville, Ontario, Arnold MacNaughton received a letter in reply a short time ago.

Enclosed in the letter, were two pictures. One, a beautiful coloured picture showing the Empress Alexandra of Russia, her sister-in-law, dressed in a formal richly decorated dress. The picture is over fifty years old and was probably taken at the time of her coronation in 1896. The other picture was of Mrs. Kulkovsky's parents, Emperor Alexander died in 1894 so that picture too is very old. It was certainly a surprise to receive these in her letter, yet with such few pictures of her family, as she said, yet with duplicate copies besides, she sent these two pictures along for Arnold to keep as his own. By now, many will ask why she had so few pictures of her family. Thirty-three years ago, on March 14th, her brother was compelled to abdicate from the Russian Throne and he and his family and relatives were taken as prisoners to a city in Russia, by the name of Tobolsk. On hearing of this event, Olga, her husband and their mother (the latter died in 1926) fled the country for their own safety to Denmark. With them they took whatever valuables they could from their home and among these were a few of the pictures. On reaching Denmark and settling down, a year later, one of the world's most horrid executions was carried out. The Emperor, Empress and their five children with a number of close relatives and friends were ordered shot and buried by the Russian Communists. Any of the few remaining members of the Russian Royal Family who had fled the country are now scattered over the world, living quiet, undisturbed lives.

In 1948, Mrs. Olga Kulkovsky, her husband, sons and grandchildren moved to Canada and Campbellville, Ontario. The two sons and their families work in Toronto.

It was through a pen pal who knew the people that Arnold had obtained the address. In her letter the Grand Duchess stated that the Empress of Russia was a granddaughter of Queen Victoria of England, an aunt to Lord Louis Mountbatten, who was India's last Viceroy, and a great-aunt to Prince Philip, now the Duke of Edinburgh, and that both the Emperor and Empress were great, great-aunt and aunt of the little Prince Charles of England.

The bridge is painted a soft gray, both outside and in, with truss timbers painted white. The interior, nearly 20 feet wide, is unusual in covered bridges for its spaciousness. Any covered bridge historian or student of engineering history should not miss the opportunity of seeing Powerscourt Bridge. If it is reached anywhere near the site, it is ever pleased by good paved and gravel roads. The location is approximately five miles due west from the first corner north of the border station on Route 374 north of Chateaugay, N.Y. From the Canadian side, a road along the river, south of Route 4 at Huntingdon, Que., will bring one directly to this unique example of covered bridge architecture.

The Late Mr. Arthur Beaudry Mr. Arthur Beaudry, who has resided on the Wm. Campbell farm in St. Anicet, Que., for the past few years, passed away quite suddenly after a fatal seizure last Tuesday evening shortly after finishing the farm chores. While in the barn Mr. Beaudry complained to Francis Oulmet, who was helping him during the day, that he felt sick and asked Oulmet to go to the house for some soda. Hastily getting it, he and Mrs. Beaudry started back to the barn and, when only part way there, they noticed Mr. Beaudry stagger through the stable door and fall forward in the snow. They offered him the soda but, already dying, his last words were: "I can't take it; you're too late." They tried to help him to the house but he was dead before they could get there to call a doctor. Mr. Beaudry was 49 years of age and leaves a wife and 2 young children. Funeral services were held Friday morning from his home to St. Anicet Parish Church. Burial was in St. Anicet cemetery. His health had not been too good the past two years but he was apparently well up to the time of the seizure.

CORRECTION The Gleaner in its article on the Covey Hill tragedy erroneously reported the name of Mr. Osborne Mannagh as a member of the coroner's jury investigating the death of Mr. Arthur Sutton. The name should have read Mr. Oswald Mannagh, Jr.

COVEY HILL — Over the years, several sons and daughters of farm families in this and nearby districts have entered on religious vocations, whether as clergymen, evangelists, missionaries or members of sisterhoods. It may be that the Presbyterian minister of North Bay, Rev. Stewart B. Cole, was reared on a dairy farm. During a powerful and brilliantly worded sermon on last Sunday's "Church of the Air", he compared the spasmodic religiosity of some people to undulant fever, and pointed out that Lenten restraint could not take the place of a consistent, consecrated life.

Doctor Shortage Considered Serious

THE people of Huntingdon are taking a rather grim view of the sudden shortage of doctors in this county, which has been brought about by the partial retirement of Dr. J. R. McEwen, the illness of Dr. H. R. Clouston and the fact that Dr. F. G. McCrimmon is taking a special course. The only remaining doctor is Dr. George Lefebvre, who is tirelessly looking after all the patients' calls, and the cases at the Huntingdon County Hospital. In a way the situation is much the same as that which Dr. McEwen tackled during the flu epidemic some years ago. While there is at present no epidemic, there are plenty of cases of sickness of one kind and another and it seems too much to expect one doctor to carry the load of four who were at all times quite busy. Dr. Lefebvre is a young man, but it may prove too much for his health if he has to continue along under such a heavy load. True he is tackling it like a yeoman and is quite cheerful about it and doing a good job, but just the same he may break under the stress if he is not careful. That is the reason the people are asked not to call a doctor unless one is actually needed, to spare that doctor trips that could perhaps be avoided.

We understand that everything possible is being done to secure doctors who would be willing to locate in Huntingdon, but there are not too many who want to take up the general practitioner's work. Many of the people are wondering why Huntingdon can't work out a scheme similar to that of Ormstown whereby, a medical centre can be set up to look after the needs of the residents of this county. Those who have attended the clinic in Ormstown claim that it saves them all the waits that have to be made in the local doctors' offices, while they are away on call. In fact the people weary of these long waits in the offices of the various doctors, which runs oftentimes into the early hours of the following morning. The opinion seems to be that if a clinic could be set up that at least one doctor would be available at the clinic at all hours of the day and it could be arranged so that this was the case. Thus there would be no need for the long waits and people would receive better attention generally.

This is a matter that local doctors should take under consideration with a view to providing better medical service for the people and as a means to lightening the burden upon themselves. The clinic idea in Ormstown seems to be working out satisfactory from a layman's point of view and they seem able to secure the necessary doctors to look after the medical needs of the people. The clinic appears to be quite busy all the time, yet the doctors do not seem to be unduly overworked.

Many of the people here fear that if a case of emergency does occur under the present conditions, the one lone doctor may be away on another case and a person may die before medical help can be secured. This may be an extreme view, but certainly one doctor cannot be in two places at once. We understand that Ormstown doctors have promised assistance in such cases, but the people feel that time is required to have a doctor come from out of town and especially when roads are not in the best of condition. Thus the whole thing presents an emergency which should be tackled with speed and dispatch so as to bring Huntingdon back to its former footing as to medical service. The County Hospital has done much in alleviating distress that was formerly felt before it was established, and there is no doubt that its existence at the moment is a great help in more ways than one. But even its capacities can be overtaxed and prove too much strain for all concerned. The population is increasing and more and more calls are being placed for medical assistance, so rather than the situation improving it is liable to grow steadily worse. It is therefore the hope of the population that something will be done to speed the establishment of more permanent doctors in Huntingdon and also to think of the possibility of establishing a medical centre here.

Easter Seals

THE Huntingdon Rotary Club is at present busily engaged in sending out envelopes to the citizens of Huntingdon and Valleyfield which contain Easter Seals. It is intended that these seals be used on envelopes and mail matter going out from now until Easter, similar to those of the Christmas Seals Campaign. Don't try using the seals for postage stamps or you may run foul of the Postal regulations, stamp your mail matter in the legal manner, but place Easter Seals on the back flap. The money which the sale of these Easter Seals is intended to raise will go to help crippled persons in many of the hospitals in the Province and the Rotary Club is quite interested in doing this.

We feel compassion for the person who has not the full use of his or her limbs and many of us have wondered what can be done to help these unfortunates. This is the opportunity you may have wanted, you can buy the seals and so help in a small way to alleviate the sufferings of these people and help to provide them with artificial limbs that they may live a more useful life. It is these public efforts that do so much to make a happier life for someone less fortunate than ourselves and we ought not to begrudge the small amount that is asked of us. Some people may complain that the money so collected will not help anyone locally and will offer this as an excuse for not helping the campaign. It may so happen that someone in our community may need help in this direction at some time and if the association used this argument at such time there would be a terrific outcry. Because the people of your community did not help us when they had the opportunity, we cannot now help you. But this is not said, if a person needs help, no matter where he or she comes from it is provided for them to the best of ability. Only by collecting from every source can the vast work be undertaken and carried through.

You are asked to give your assistance by sending in the price of these Easter Seals after you receive the envelope that is being sent to you. Will you help someone else who is less fortunate than you?

Women's Sixty-Four Dollar Question

WOMEN! What governs your life? The opinion of your husband, boss, or neighbor? The needs of your children, friends or fellow-workers? Your pocketbook? Your fears? Your desires? Or do you ever feel personally responsible for the mess the world is in today?

Let us face the fact that the world is in a mess. There is distrust and insecurity. Never has there been more widespread need for kindness, love, understanding, among peoples and nations. Never more need for right ideas.

As a woman, do you really care enough for your loved ones, your home, your city, your country, to want the biggest idea of all to captivate the minds of other women? This idea may be democracy's inspired ideology. It calls for a revitalized propagating Christianity. It asks for the building of a hate-free, fear-free, greed-free world. The price of world peace for us as women is to face honestly where we have been wrong; where our relationships have been wrong in our homes and communities; and to work constructively to put these wrongs right. It begins in individuals and spreads to nations.

Weapons? Women think of weapons as belonging to a man's world, instruments of offense and defense such as arms. There are other weapons which are instruments for combating another sort of enemy. Love is a weapon against hate. Honesty combats dishonesty. There are many weapons in this "war of ideas". You want your children brought up in freedom, not under a materialistic dictatorship. Therefore sound homes are weapons. Women are the homemakers. Women can have the heartpower - another weapon. Women want peace, but do women want peace enough to fight for it with these weapons always at hand - love, understanding, honesty and discipline?

People Prefer to Read

THE public's preference for getting information from the printed word has been demonstrated by a survey taken among employees of one of Canada's big paper plants.

And one of the best ways to get information to the public, the survey showed, is through local weekly newspapers. The survey was made last November among 500 employees in Northern Ontario paper plants, a "sample" cross-section of the whole working force. The poll was to help the company decide how best to give information about its policies and operations to employees and others living in the mill communities.

Some of the results of the survey have been published by the weekly Fort Frances (Ont.) Times.

A company house organ was ranked at the top of the list. Seventy-seven per cent of employees chose this organ as one of the best ways to get information about the company. Local newspapers also ranked high on the list.

Nearly two out of three (63 per cent) chose their local newspaper as one of the best ways to get information about the company.

Nearly four out of five (79 per cent) said they read every issue of the local newspaper.

More than half (54 per cent) said they remembered reading advertisements about the company in the newspaper.

As a result, the company has decided to continue to publish in the local press significant news items and advertisements.

It is a decision which other companies can follow with advantage. The local weekly, which goes into hundreds of homes in a compact area, has always been and will continue to be an excellent media for informing the public.

The Chateaugay River ice came down at intervals during Friday and between 10 and 11 p.m. the ice in the mill pond gave way without doing damage. On Tuesday the Trout River ice passed.

The mid season has favoured work on the milk factory and the three buildings are now nearly out of the hands of the bricklayers, in fact, two are being roofed. The social given at the Epworth League on St. Patrick's night was successful despite the rain. Regardless of the fog and the muddy roads, 97 persons reached the hospitable residence of Mr. Sam Dunsmuir and a programme suitable to the anniversary of Ireland was presented, including an account of a visit to the green isle by Dr. Clouston. The sugar was splendid and the party did not break up until a late hour.

Martineau, the scoundrel who, during his few months incumbency as a clerk in the militia department at Ottawa, managed to steal $75,000 of public money, got off easily. He pled guilty and was sentenced to 7 years in the penitentiary. He has influential friends and we are told that his sojourn at Kingston will be made pleasant by his being installed as book-keeper of the institution.

Howick-The Turner Medicine Co. did business for 5 nights in the hall, giving a performance each night by way of attraction, just as a child is promised candy if it will swallow its medicine. In addition to describing certain diseases and vaunting their medicine as cures, various methods were taken to induce the people to buy the remedies, one being the offering of a prize to the child who could sell the largest quantity.

Dr. McLaren, Alex. Mills and John Maw strongly approved of accepting the offer. A resolution to this effect was drafted. The Crown brick company's yards have been bought by contractors for the C.P.R. shops at Hochelaga, which will be among the largest in the world.

The unexpected happened when a resolution prohibiting the manufacture and importation of cigarettes became the law of the land. It stated, "The smoking of cigarettes has been proved by overwhelming testimony to be injurious to physical and moral health, arresting development, weakening intellectual power thus constituting a social and national evil. This house is of the opinion that the remedy be found in the enactment of a law prohibiting the importation, manufacture and sale of cigarettes. King Edward is now on a visit to Portugal while the Queen is sojourning in her old home in Denmark. Clyde's Corners-One of Patrick O'Connor's horses has a sore leg. On Monday while working around the animal, it kicked, hitting him close to the right ear. Dr. Walker was sent for. Mr. O'Connor was sent to the hospital and it is reported that he is doing as well as can be expected.

Ormstown-On Saturday afternoon the village ice pressed by a high wind shoved between the iron bridge and John Sadler's tearing up 12 lengths of sidewalk. Several families left their houses for higher quarters. On Sunday, the council provided boats on Station Street to ferry passers-by from Dr. McLaren's house to the other side of the creek.

Trout River-The half mile road which was made last fall by the stone crusher is good but, at times, dangerous because of the depth of the ditches and the fact that the road is high and narrow. Last Tuesday night Abraham Thompson was driving on this piece of road and in turning out to allow a buggy to pass, his horse fell into the ditch, dragging Mr. Thompson and his buggy in also. The driver was badly shaken up but is resting comfortably.

Your Editor Tells the Story

A Golden Jubilee
This week West Palm Beach, Fla. is celebrating its 50th year of existence. Within that period of time the Seminole Indians who then inhabited this community were pushed back into the wilds of the now fertile Everglades district. Nevertheless the Seminole Indians are not treated with race prejudice, but are today being honored through the golden jubilee celebration, which derives much of its colour from this worthy race. "Trek to the Sun" is the title given to the mammoth historical Sun Dance Panorama, and that title which certainly sounds Indian.

The historical pageant requires a stage 300 feet wide. It includes 16 episodes requiring a cast of 300 costumed actors. A fleet of vehicles, including a train to depict Henry M. Flagler's first railroad is featured in the panorama.

The selecting of the "Sun Dance Queen" has already taken place. The queen is a girl attending a junior college here and comes from the Columbia South America Athletic Club of the Philadelphia Athletics crowned the queen.

The United States Army Ground Force band of 100 pieces opened the celebration on Sunday evening when they gave a very excellent programme in Flagler Park. The programme included modern hit tunes, martial, waltz, classical and novelty numbers which were interspersed with solos and group arrangements by the 4-voice soldier chorus.

Monday afternoon another band concert was given by the High School Band. No two ways about it, band concerts attract the audiences for at the Sunday evening concert 7,500 people are credited as being present.

The Talk of the Town
Each winter Connie Mack brings his Philadelphia Athletics to the Wright Field in West Palm Beach to train for their heavy summer season of baseball. Naturally the people here have become staunch supporters of the Athletics and to see the Athletics go down to a defeat is about comparable to seeing a home town hockey team in the Ottawa Valley defeated by the visiting team of a neighbouring town. The Athletics got off to a good start, having won their first two games when heavy hitting was displayed. Tomorrow the colored

This Week in Quebec ...

QUEBEC (CP) - With 10 weeks to go before a Liberal convention to choose a provincial Liberal party leader there was little speculation in political circles here this week on possible candidates for the job.

Candidates expected to make their bid for the post at the convention here May 19-20 could be counted on the fingers of one hand with members of the Provincial Legislature or of the Parliament the key figures. The little talk there was seemed to centre on two members of the legislature, George Marler, interim chairman of the eight-member Liberal opposition in the 92-seat legislature was given the most serious consideration.

Mr. Marler, a Montreal notary sitting for Westmont-St. George, was chosen temporary party leader when Senator Adelard Godbout resigned after appointment to the Canadian Senate.

Lionel Ross (L - Montreal-Verdun), one of the chief spokesmen for the party in the legislature, is also reported a possible candidate.

Announcement that all Quebec Liberal members of Parliament would attend the convention led to reports that possibly some of them may seek the Quebec leadership.

The name of G. E. Lapalme (L - Joliette-L'Assomption) has been mentioned repeatedly in connection with the post. More recently the name of Wilfrid Lacroix (L - Quebec-Montmorency) has been mentioned as a dark horse candidate, but his candidacy was considered "highly improbable" locally.

Spencerwood, residence of Quebec's Lieutenant-Governor, will soon change its name to Bois de Coulogne. A bill making the change was approved without opposition in the provincial legislature last week. The bill now awaits sanction of the legislative council and royal assent to become law.

The estate in suburban silly overlooking the St. Lawrence River was named after Spencer Percival, a former Prime Minister of Great Britain. The residence is situated near the centre of the Chateleine de Coulogne, a fief dating back to French colonial days.

In approving the Union Nationale government bill, Liberal opposition Leader Marler said that it was perfectly normal that in a province where the majority is French-speaking that the residence of the Lieutenant-Governor should have a French name.

The Provincial government this week was all but set to wage war on obscene and immoral literature. A bill passed by the Provincial Legislature last week now awaits ratification by the Legislative Council and proclamation by an order-in-council of the provincial cabinet to become law.

The Liberal opposition in the Legislature approved in principle the legislation which provides that the attorney-general of the province may submit any "illustration" to the Quebec board of Cinema censors to be decided whether it is immoral or not.

Premier Duplessis told the legislature the word "illustration" meant anything expressed in words, drawings or photographs.

The Law will apply to all publications except newspapers and religious publications and decisions of the board of cinema censors will be final. Magistrate's orders of seizure will follow decisions of the board whenever necessary.

A clause in the law will allow any police officer to seize with or without warrant all publications banned because they contain immoral illustrations.

EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

by Don Graham

Don't magnify your faults!

If you habitually emphasize your shortcomings rather than your abilities you create a lot of needless unhappiness for yourself. There is a deeprooted desire in all of us to feel adequate. And if we lose this sense of adequacy we impair our mental health.

You feel the lack of education is holding you back. Many of the world's most successful men had little schooling. Many others made up for the lack through wide reading and study. You don't like the shape of your nose? Perhaps not - but possibly you have a well-shaped head or fine eyes. And neat, carefully selected clothes can do wonders for your appearance!

No matter how many shortcomings you may have, you can discover just as many or more assets within yourself. All you have to do is add them up. Looking at this total will give new confidence.

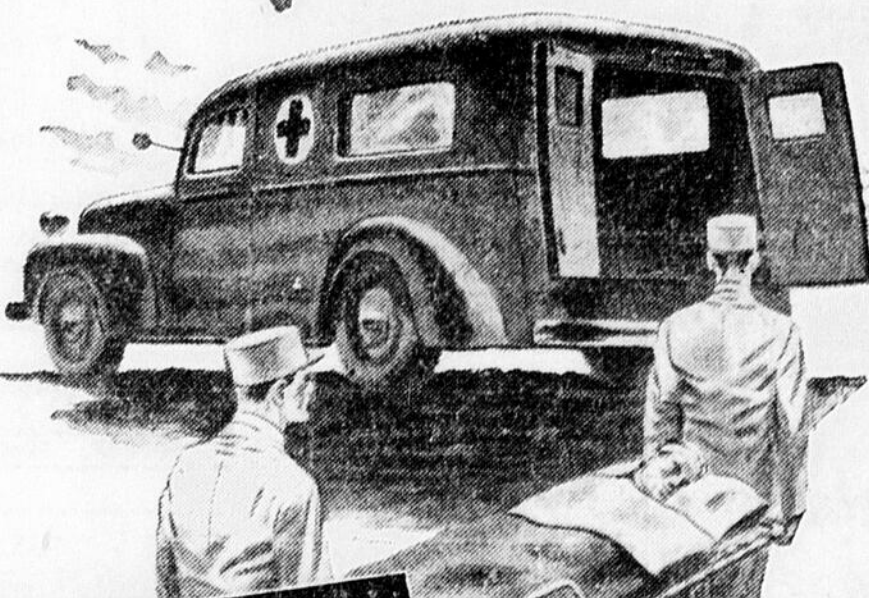

Remember too that many faults can be minimized or eliminated by one's own efforts.

So take heart! Once you change your ideas about yourself from negative to positive you'll find you're harnessed to a power that will take you towards happiness and success!

In their annual statements, life insurance companies emphasize the positive side of their business by pointing out the fact that the larger share of benefits is paid out to living policyholders.

Miss Mary McCaffrey, whose marriage takes place in the near future. Games of bingo were played during the evening, among the winners were Mrs. Earl Sault, Mrs. Gerald Smith, Miss Jeanette Rabideau and Mrs. Ruth Gagnon. The guest of honor was seated on a chair gaily decorated with green and white and was presented with a chest of silver and a number of other gifts. Miss McCaffrey graciously thanked the donors and extended an invitation to them to visit her. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. The refreshment table was tastefully arranged for St. Patrick's and presided over by Mrs. Frank Smith.

Miss Mary McCaffrey Honored Mrs. Ruth Gagnon and Miss Beryl Evans were hostesses at a Bridge presentation, given in honor of a popular bride-elect, Miss Mary McCaffrey. On her arrival, she was surprised to find a group of her close friends already there. Following a buffet supper served by the hostesses, the guest of honor was presented with a bridge table.

The monthly Guild and W.A. meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Vina Gilker on Tuesday, March 14th, 1950.

The president presided, Mrs. McNaughton and Mrs. Davidson led the devotional period. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. H. McComb. Mrs. Wm. Rice gave the treasurer's report. The afternoon was spent in sewing. The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. R. E. Walsh. This meeting will be the United Thanksgiving meeting, also all articles for the girl's outfit are requested to be in for that date. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Mrs. Gilker, assisted by Miss Edith Dawson and a social hour was spent.

The World's Day of Prayer was held this year in the Ormstown Presbyterian Church, when the leaders were - Mrs. C. L. Taylor, Mrs. J. Williams and Mrs. M. MacNaughton. Prayers were given by Mrs. Gilker, Mrs. Hilton Nussey, Miss Mary Baird, Mrs. James Miller, Mrs. D. A. Barrington and Mrs. James Barrington. Mrs. J. Williams rendered a beautiful solo, "Spirit of God, Descend Upon My Heart", accompanied by Mrs. O. Goodall. Mrs. A. Greig read messages from about 100 of the three churches and Mrs. M. MacNaughton gave a short address. Collection amounted to $13.58.

Woman's Association of St. Paul's The March meeting of the W.A. of St. Paul's United Church was held as usual on the second Tuesday of the month, in MacDougall Hall. An ideal winter day brought out a goodly number of members and a few visitors - 39 ladies being present.

The president, Mrs. Frank Martin, presided. Opening with the Scripture reading from Math 6: 1-15, the Worship Service was conducted by Mrs. Wm. Hamilton. In remarks on "Prayer", the leader stressed that prayer is two-way - it is talking to God and then waiting - listening for God to speak through man's own mind and heart. A prayer by the leader and the singing of hymn 500, "Take Time To Be Holy", closed this devotional period. With few reports from committees, less business than usual was transacted.

Sewing and knitting for the Red Cross has been done by the W.A. for the past two years, most of this work being done at home, so it was agreed to devote some of the meetings during the year to taking on supplies for the Barrie Memorial Hospital.

An interesting program was presented by Mrs. Chas. Moe. A medley of Irish selections played by Mrs. Corcoran was very much enjoyed as were a reading by Mrs. A. Marshall, "The pig in the parlour" and a guessing game conducted by Mrs. Lawrence. The answers being names of W.A. members. The meeting closed with singing "Take my life and let it be", and the Mizpah benediction. In keeping with St. Patrick's Day, green and white paper covers, pots of Pan-

GLENELM—Mr. and Mrs. Harford Ashley of Darlington, Man., Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Ashley and Mr. Robertson of Ottawa, were Sunday dinner guests at the home of their cousin, Mrs. H. R. Wilson. This is her first trip east to visit her old home since leaving Huntingdon, Que.

Powerscourt Women's Association met on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Wm. Myatt with an attendance of 25 members, visitors and children. A hot dinner was enjoyed at noon. During the work period work was done on a quilt. Mrs. Myatt conducted the meeting and Mrs. W. McHardy read a passage of Scripture. Some interesting readings were given in response to the roll call. One entitled the "Ladies Aid" written by Mrs. Ewing, caused much merriment. Mrs. Wood reported having received a goodly donation of pieces for quilt making. Each member was given pieces to take home to be made into blocks for the next meeting. A letter of thanks was read and the meeting was closed with all repeating the Mizpah. Proceeds amounted to $495.

Miss Maureen Colligan of Montreal is spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hamilton. Quite a number of people from this community went to Valleyfield to see Barbara Ann Scott and her company. They were thrilled at the exhibition of skating.

Dundee

Mrs. Adrian O'Reilly, Dundee Lines, wishes to advise ladies of the district that many more workers are required for sewing articles for the local Red Cross. She would be glad to have volunteers contact her with regard to helping out in the work. The great need is in connection with children's garments.

A fire was noticed on Monday evening by Mr. C. Bushey, of Fort Covington, in a garage used by Mr. Adrian O'Reilly to store his car. The car was in the garage at the time and Mr. O'Reilly had been burning some rubbish during the afternoon. He had taken a basket back to the garage after using this in connection with carrying the rubbish unknown to him, a live coal was in the basket and it was this that started the fire. Mr. Bushey informed Mr. O'Reilly and he immediately went to the garage and was able to get his car out. One wall of the garage was badly burned by this time, but he was able to subdue the fire before too much damage was caused. Several other persons around at the time assisted Mr. O'Reilly in quenching the fire.

The Huntingdon Alouettes, in a bold attempt to qualify as Provincial Intermediate "B" finalists were defeated 13-3 in a sudden-death game on Sunday at the Verdun Auditorium. Their opponents were Dostaler College, the Intermediate champions of the city of Montreal. Although Huntingdon put up a commendable battle they were hopelessly out-classed by the fast, polished Dostaler team. Rene Senecal was at his hard-fighting best and the Alouettes, on the whole, could have done a great deal worse. Here was a case where artificial ice and a few weeks more practice might have made a tremendous difference.

Another delegate, Mr. E. G. Silverwood of London, Ont., pointed out that the advent of margarine has cost Canadian farmers $70,000,000 in lowered dairy sales. However, not only butter was hit. Consumption of butter in 1949 at 260,000,000 pounds was down nearly 44,000,000 pounds over 1948, but margarine consumption totalled 72,000,000 and it would indicate "that a lot of margarine replaced other types of shortening."

R. Silverwood suggested that Canadian dairy men should not pin their hopes on the Imperial Privy Council upsetting the Supreme Court of Canada decision allowing margarine to be manufactured in Canada. The Council now is studying the case.

"The realistic approach," he said, "is to realize that we have to have better quality butter and that we must do a better selling job."

CHATEAUGAY, N.Y.—On March 9, the parishioners of St. Patrick's Church, Chateaugay, learned with much regret that their beloved pastor, Rev. James R. McClure, had been transferred to St. Bernard's Church, Saranac Lake. The transfer took place March 18. Father McClure is also to become Dean of the Clergy of the Adirondack Diocese which comprises the parishes of Saranac Lake, Tupper Lake, Faust, Long Lake, Newcomb, Tahawus, Lake Clear, Paul Smiths, Bloomingdale, Gabriels, Lake Placid, Black Brook, Wilmington, Ausable Forks, and Keene. He succeeds the late Rev. Mgr. Clarence A. Kitts, who died on Dec. 31, 1949. Father McClure was born at Central Falls, Rhode Island. He graduated from Holy Cross College, Worcester, Massachusetts in 1907, and at once entered in the Philosophy Department of St. Joseph's Seminary, Dimwood, Yonkers, N.Y. He began his theological study in 1908 at the American College, Louvain, Belgium. After two years, he returned to the United States and began his study for the Priesthood at St. Bernard's Seminary, Rochester, where he was ordained on Jan. 6, 1912. Following his ordination, he was given his first assignment as assistant to the pastor of St. Philomena's Church, Chateaugay. Later he served as assistant at the parishes of Harrisville, Hogansburgh, and Canton. He was appointed pastor at St. Andrew's Church, Sackets Harbor, in April, 1917. At that time, St. Cecilia's Church, Adams, was a mission of the Sackets Harbor Church. In 1930 he came to Chateaugay as pastor of St. Patrick's Church, succeeding the late Rev. J. J. Dean.

Father McClure has endeared himself to his parishioners by his leadership, his kindly, gracious manner, and by his extraordinary executive ability. During the 19 years of his administration St. Patrick's Church property has been materially improved. The church is a handsome building standing in well-landscaped grounds, and flanked on the east side by a well-appointed rectory. The interior of the church shows many additions, including the marble altar, pipe organ, chimes, and numerous articles that were given to the church by parishioners and other friends. The beautiful stained glass windows, donated by parishioners, were chosen by Father McClure. During the past few years, the church basement has been refurnished and furnished so as to offer a hall suitable for parish affairs. During the past year new stoves and other facilities have been added. Probably the change that stands out most as a testimonial to Father McClure's interest in his parish was his campaign to improve and landscape the cemetery. Here a great amount of work had to be done and it was accomplished by a minimum of expense, due to the cooperation given by the men of the town, who donated time, supplies and equipment so that it was possible to clear away unsightly growth, level the ground, build new roads, reset the markers, and open a badly needed area for future use.

The highlight of Father McClure's administrative efforts however, was the paying off of the church debt. During the 19 years of his administration, in addition to carrying on the normal work of the parish, he was able to cancel a debt of $65,000, and add $125,000, in improvements.

Rev. Edgar A. Gallagher, appointed Pastor of St. Patrick's Church, Chateaugay

Rev. Edgar A. Gallagher, who succeeds Father McClure at St. Patrick's Church, has been pastor of St. John's Church, Lake Clear since 1927. He was born in Ogdensburg and attended St. Mary's Academy. After his graduation, he began his studies for the priesthood in 1913 at St. Thomas' Seminary, Denver, Colorado. In the Fall of 1914, he transferred to Niagara University where he completed his philosophical studies. He then enrolled in Holy Angels Seminary at Niagara University. Mr. Gallagher was ordained to the priesthood at St. Mary's Cathedral in Ogdensburg on September 8, 1918 by the late Bishop Joseph H. Conroy.

Father Gallagher's first appointment was as an assistant to the late Father Waters at St. Bernard's Church, Saranac Lake. Following the death of Father Waters in 1921, he served as an administrator of the parish for a few months until the appointment of Monsignor Creeden as pastor early in 1922. He remained at St. Bernard's until April 1927 when he was named pastor of St. John's Church, Lake Clear. James Dwyer, pastor of St. Gabriel's parish, Lake Clear, is a mission of the Lake Clear parish; also Saranac Inn is a summer mission of Lake Clear.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY HOLDS AMERICANIZATION PROGRAM

On Tuesday, March 7, the Chateaugay American Legion Auxiliary had a social hour following its regular meeting. The committee in charge of the program included: Mrs. Leona McCormick, chairman; Mrs. Agnes Clark; Miss Abbie Ives; Alice Stevenson; Miss Marilyn Higgins. Highlights of the program were the presentation of awards to the local winners of the national essay contest, and the reading of the winning essays by their authors. The title of the contest was "Our Civilization — Is it increasing or decreasing in Democracy?" First prize, $200, went to James Dwyer, and second prize, $1, went to Joan Quinlin. The winning essay will be entered in the Franklin County contest. James Dwyer, chosen as Grand Marshal of the parade, said that Democracy meant "government of the people, by the people, and for the people." He described how Socialism could be beneficial but was not government wholly by the people since government had taken over too much of the responsibility. He defined Communism as the rule of the people by a non-representative minority. As defense of our Democracy, he advocated: use of the ballot by an intelligent, informed electorate, and a return to religious principles, where in public and private life, each accepted the Golden Rule and sought to establish Brotherhood of Man.

Miss Quinlin presented a spirited plea for us to awake to the forces that are seeking to delude us as to the easier way out of our present difficulties. She pleaded for us to be firm against forces at home and abroad that would undermine the Democracy so painfully built up through the years by our forefathers. She also saw a possible solution by man's willingness to seek the guidance of a Higher Power whose Law can never be opposed without ultimate loss.

Mrs. Leona McCormick gave a splendid talk on how the Auxiliary members should interpret the Constitution of the American Legion. She reminded them that the Preamble to this Constitution made it obligatory upon them to rally at all times to the defence of their country. She said that she interpreted that to mean that each member should at all times engage in any and all activities that aimed to promote the welfare of the community and the welfare of the individual. This constant vigilance would make it possible to have united action and on such unity Democracy depends. Thus again the plea was for Brotherhood of Man.

Following the close of the program, tea and cakes were served. The Auxiliary held a birthday party and dance in the Legion rooms on March 17, at which time the Auxiliary entered the American Legion in honor of its thirty-first birthday.

CHATEAUGAY GRANGE ACTIVITIES

Chateaugay Grange held a box social and dance on March 17, and nine candidates will be initiated into the first and second degrees on March 22. Following the regular meeting on Wednesday, March 8, members heard a very interesting talk by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moore who described the trip which they took last spring through the southern states. They told of the journey from New York State south to Florida and through Florida visiting points of interest as far as Miami. They then returned to central Florida and headed west to Phoenix, Arizona. This was their headquarters and from there they went to points in California. They also visited Boulder Dam. One of the unusual things in this area was the rigidly hand with its magnificent Side-by-side with the irrigated land would be other irrigation projects just being developed, and also arid land where irrigation had not been begun. One of the most memorable sights of the trip was the water bubbling from this spring is enough each day to supply the needs of the city of New York. One portion of the spring, known as the Bridal Spring, is 80 feet deep yet so clear that it is possible to see the water bubbling from the earth at the base of the spring. Mr. and Mrs. Moore displayed various souvenirs that they had gathered during their trip. Following the talk the assembled members and guests enjoyed refreshments.

MARCH BRINGS VARIETY IN WEATHER

The week of March 12 saw a continuation of the weather conditions that have so far given Chateaugay a fine example of the variety usually associated with the March season. Sunday, Monday and Tuesday brought cold, snappy days, with sunny skies blurred at times by light snow fall, but Wednesday saw the temperature so high as to remind us of the balmy spring days that (we hope) may come soon. The snow melted, and walks and roads were ankle deep in slush with hidden pools of water under a light snow crust. By sundown the western sky had turned to a sable coloured sheet and within a few hours came a downpour of rain accompanied by sharp flashes of lightning and rolling thunder. The combination of falling rain and pools of water mixed with snow made travel difficult for motorists and pedestrians. As the evening wore on the rain turned to snow, with violent gusts of wind and visibility down to zero. The motorists who had ventured out found travel extremely hazardous, with such abnormal conditions as: icy road surface, swirling snow, erratic gusts of wind and narrow roads with piled up slushy banks that made it very difficult for drivers to pass one another even on the main highways. Several late travelers found themselves marooned — some accepting the hospitality of friends for what they thought was an over-night stay. However, Thursday and Friday saw a continuation of the storm, which developed into a real blizzard with biting westerly winds and highways recently

Talk Given on New Chemical Compounds

VALLEYFIELD — Mr. Stan McCreedy, Manager of the Glyptol Products Division of Canadian General Electric Company, Toronto, was guest speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Valleyfield-Beauharnois Section of the Canadian Institute of Chemistry, held on March 13th in the Chateau Salaberry.

Mr. McCreedy's topic was "Silicones" in which he described the amazing properties and uses of this completely new class of chemical compounds.

The "Dry-film" method of waterproofing fabrics was dramatically demonstrated by immersing a treated blotter in water, from which it emerged bone-dry.

A silicone preparation for eliminating foam was shown to be a good preparation to keep out of beer, but is very useful in fermenting tanks in wineries, where only a few drops of liquid will prevent foaming in a thousand-gallon fermenting tank.

Oils and greases of the silicone type were shown and described. These compounds are not affected by temperature as are petroleum products, and this makes them particularly useful in aircraft which are subjected to frequent large changes in temperature.

Paints, resins, varnishes and enamels also have this heat-resisting property. Enamels for stoves will stand temperatures up to 500 degrees F. without any trace of brown.

Synthetic rubber made of silicones is finding wide application in high-temperature gaskets, and a "bouncing putty" is used in automatic levelling devices for tables.

Mr. McCreedy's talk was fully illustrated with practical demonstrations and lantern slides, and the humor injected into the address was thoroughly enjoyed.

The speaker was introduced by Mr. J. J. Haffey and thanked on behalf of the members by Mr. J. L. McIntosh.

BEAUHARNOIS—Mr. and Mrs. J. Marchand spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kokko.

Miss Louella Anderson visited her aunt, Mrs. D. B. Mackay in Sherbrooke this week-end.

Mrs. J. Scott of Sherbrooke was guest of Mrs. G. H. Wooten the past week.

Mrs. Andrew Ferguson, of St. Catharines, Ont., has been visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Spencer.

Miss Wales spent the past week-end with Mrs. J. W. Kilgour.

Odds and Ends

All hope this week will see the end of the stormy weather which caused such a tie-up in traffic around Beauharnois and district. With no buses for a couple of days and at times, no taxis, even locally, the people who had to travel from Montreal here, and on to Valleyfield were almost stranded. The Montreal laundrymen and bakers were a very exciting one. They helped quite a few people to get home last Thursday evening when the storm was at its worst.

Mrs. Andrew Kokko skipped her team to a three game win for the President's Trophy last Friday. The game was a very exciting one. Congratulations to Mrs. Kokko, Mrs. J. Turnbull, Mrs. A. Turcot, Mrs. W. Keat.

There were some happy young ladies in this community on Monday, when as guests of Valleyfield Skating Club, they were entertained at a Tea given in honour of Miss Barbara Ann Scott, Mrs. H. Lietzhen, Miss Marcia Lietzhen, Miss Elizabeth Jones, Miss Susan Kilgour, the Misses Lois and Joan Telfair, Miss Maureen Good, Mr. Marcel Ray and Master John Kilgour were the lucky guests from Beauharnois.

St. Edward's Ladies' Aid Society
The members of the Ladies' Aid Society held a very successful St. Patrick's Day Tea, on Saturday afternoon, in the Kirk Hall. The Hall was bedecked in the traditional manner, dear to the heart of the land of the Shamrock and the effect was very pleasing to the eye. A touch of ingenuity was revealed on each tablecloth with notes of music transcribed thereon and the fitting words to the music of the song interpreted. The credit for this artistic gesture is due to Mrs. Harold De Wolfe. Solos were ably sung by Miss Margaret Page who chose the much loved "Endearing Young Charms." Mr. Robert Page's choice, the beautiful song, "I'll Take You Home Again, Kathleen," followed by "Rose of Tralee." Mr. Harold De Wolfe rendered "Little Bit of Heaven" which is always a favourite. Mrs. Harold Taylor and Mrs. C. Reed were gifted accompanists. The Entertainment Committee and donors should be complimented on their afternoon's achievement.

Miss Kay Graham and Miss Pauline Hamelin were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hamelin, St. Stanislas.

The organization of the new branch was undertaken by Mrs. Bruce Clark, deputized by the President of Branch No. 1, who was unable to be there. Mrs. Clark was accompanied by Mrs. Joan Smith, Secretary for No. 1, who took notes for that branch.

The first business of the new branch was to make plans for a school fair, and it had already been ascertained from the Principal there were 80 families in the group. Conveners for the different departments had already accepted the duties, at a previous gathering of interested would-be members, and are hoping to meet every second

Community Bids Farewell To Rev. James R. McClure

(By MRS. JULIA HARRICA)

CHATEAUGAY, N.Y.—On Thursday, March 17, Rev. James R. McClure was honored at a farewell party in St. Patrick's Church Hall. Parishioners, fellow clergymen, and other friends were present to express their goodwill for one whom McClure had learned to love and respect. Father McClure, after serving for twenty years as pastor at St. Patrick's Church, left on Friday, March 17, for his new position as pastor of St. Bernard's Church, Saranac Lake, and Dean of the Adirondack Diocese of the Ogdensburg Diocese. On Thursday, therefore, a united effort was made to stage a demonstration that would fittingly bid him farewell and express good wishes for his success and happiness in his new work.

The evening opened with a musical program, arranged by William Cullen. The first number was a group of songs by the Mixed Chorus, a group of young people from Chateaugay High School, under the direction of Mrs. Julia Hammond. Mrs. Hedwiga Ivanenok, accompanied by Miss Catherine Deige, then sang two songs. John Hyland gave two harmonica selections. William Welch, accompanied by Mrs. Welch at the piano, sang a humorous song. An especially happy feature was the presence of four priests, all of whom had served at St. Patrick's as assistants under Father McClure. Each spoke at some length of his experiences at Chateaugay. These clergymen were: Rev. Floyd Brown, assistant pastor at St. Mary's Church, Ogdensburg; Rev. Edward Rivette, pastor of St. John Bosco Church, Malone; Rev. Joseph L. Stuckelmyer, St. Mary's Church, West Leyden; and Rev. John M. Kennedy, St. Andrew's Church, Sackett Harbor.

Rev. Earl L. Taylor, pastor of St. John the Baptist Church, Madrid, spoke eloquently of his association with Father McClure at the time of his Ordination to the Priesthood. Father Taylor is a native of Chateaugay, and spent his youth here, being a graduate of Chateaugay High School. Other speakers included the Very Rev. Msgr. Walter Funke, pastor of St. Bernard's Church, Hogansburg; Rev. Donald Gallagher, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, Lyon Mt.; Rev. Vernon C. Nichols, pastor of the Chateaugay Methodist Church; and Judge Ellsworth N. Lawrence, of Chateaugay.

SON SAVES FATHER IN STORMY BAY OF FUNDY

Charles Ferguson, of Lorneville, N.B., gets dad to shore despite sleet storm and five-foot waves

1. The two men had set out in a tender to reach their fishing motorboat, anchored about 75 yards off the rocky Bay of Fundy coast. It was a wild winter night and both men wore heavy clothing and hip-length rubber boots to protect them from the sleet and high wind.

2. About 100 feet out the boat was swamped by the giant waves and both men were thrown into the icy water. The elder Ferguson could not swim and Charles, 24, had to swim with one arm, holding his father with the other. The young man was able to kick off his boots, but the heavy clothing and 5-foot waves made progress slow.

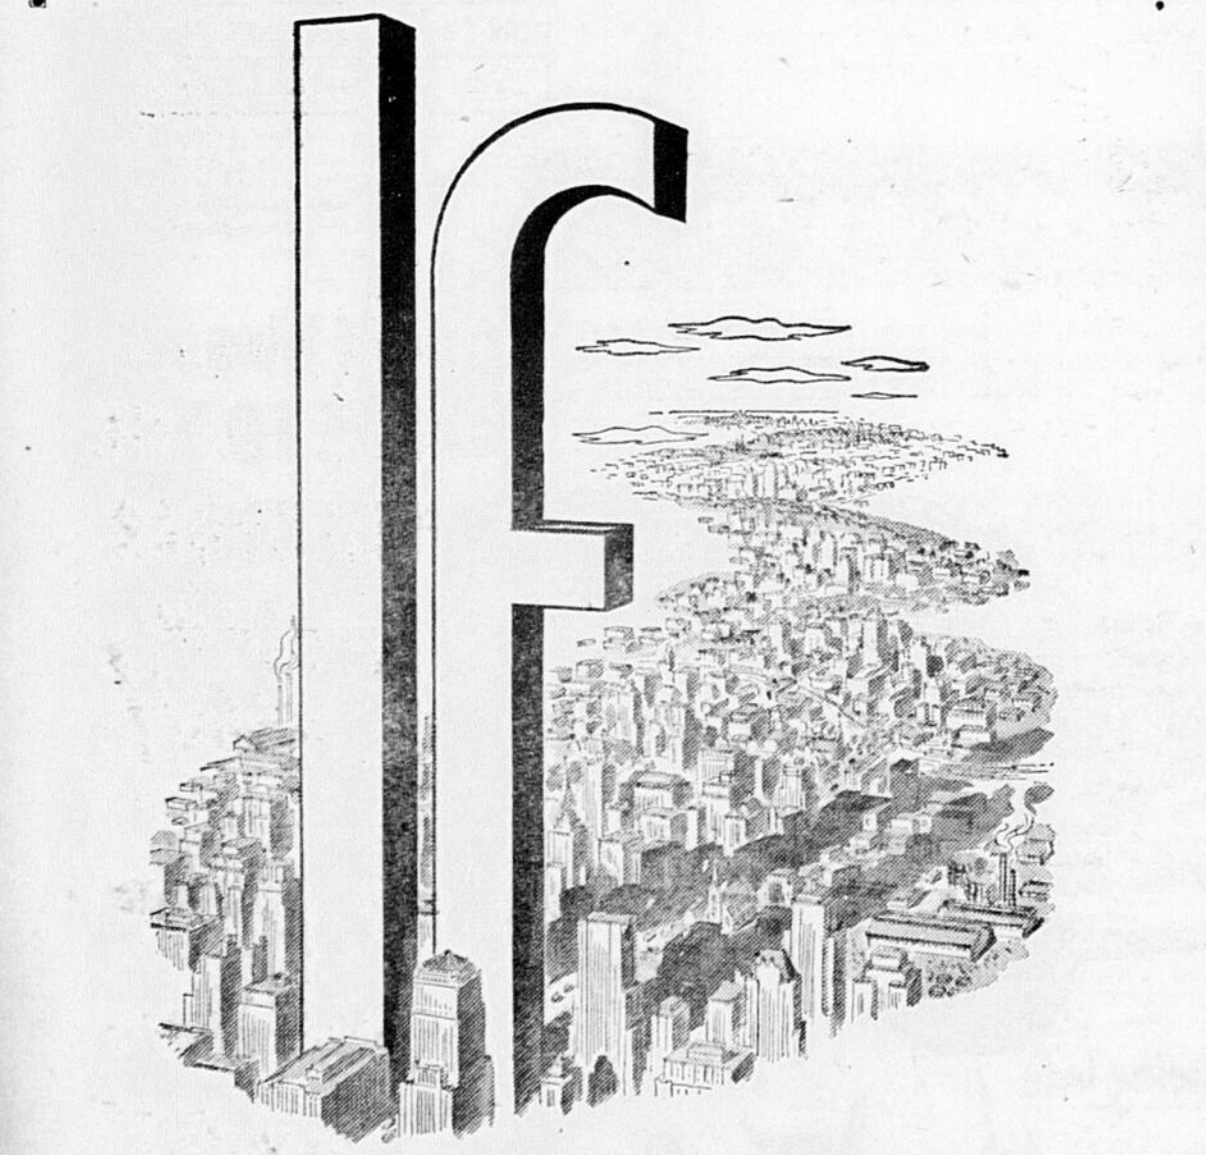

3. Numb and exhausted, Charles finally got his father to shallow water . . . rolled him over to remove the water-soaked coat and dragged him out of danger. For his courageous, almost super-human effort, we are indeed proud to present Charles Ferguson with THE DOW AWARD.

THE DOW AWARD is a citation presented for acts of outstanding heroism and includes, as a tangible expression of appreciation, a $100 Canada Savings Bond. The Dow Award Committee, a group of editors of leading Canadian daily newspapers, selects Award winners from recommendations made by a nationally known news organization.

HOCKEY

The Valleyfield Braves have been eliminated from the playoffs of the Quebec Senior Hockey League. Although they brought the Quebec Aces to a humiliating defeat on Tuesday, March 14, the Braves took a heavy, 8-2 trouncing the next night and so were the losers of the hard-fought, best-of-five series. Tuesday's game saw Bissailon, the fast-playing left-winger come forward with no less than three markers. The other Valleyfield goals were handled by Corriveau, Cyr and Schmidt. In the first period, Cyr connected on a pass from Toe Blake at 13:22 but this was tied by Quebec early in the second. Nevertheless, the Valleyfielders came back with two more in this frame and solidified their victory even more by outscoring the Aces 3-2 in the final. A summary follows.

First Period

1 Valleyfield, Cyr (Blake) 13:25

Penalties: Gaudreault, Irvine, Ziedel, Carnegie, Franklin.

Second Period

2 Quebec, (Renaud, Rossignol) 1:07

3 Valleyfield, Bissailon (Ernst, Joannette) 8:29

4 Valleyfield, Schmidt (Kwong, Irvine) 16:16

Penalties: Joannette, Scholes, McBride, Tooby.

Third Period

5 Valleyfield, Corriveau (Joannette) 4:39

6 Quebec, Mundrick (Riopelle) 5:38

7 Quebec, Riopelle (Ziedel, Mundrick) 7:06

8 Valleyfield, Bissailon (Orlando) 19:18

9 Valleyfield, Bissailon (Joannette, Corriveau) 19:59

Penalties: Tooby, Scholes, Dutchak 2, Renaud.

The next game, on Wednesday, March 15, was a clear-cut victory for the Aces. It was a steady succession of markers for the Quebec players who tallied once in the first frame and four times in the second before the down-trodden Braves managed to reply. The sole Valleyfield marker in the middle period was accounted for by Kwong, assisted by Irvine and Schmidt. The Aces countered again for the fifth time in this frame and outscored the Valleyfielders 2-1 in the third. The final count, 8-2. Thus the Braves were eliminated from the quarter-finals and the Quebec Aces will now move on to tackle the Ottawa Senators.

Reviewing the season we see that, despite their overwhelming defeat on Wednesday, the Valleyfield Braves did very well in the playoffs and equally well during the season. Getting off to a bad start with a series of injuries and setbacks, which would have meant the end of many a team, the Braves came back towards the end of the season and, to the surprise of everyone, managed to squeeze into the quarter-finals. One thing is certain: if the Braves play as well next year as they did in the last few games, they will be among the top teams of the league with every chance of making the finals.

The Gore

W.M.S. THE GORE—The monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Society was held at the home of Mrs. Sam Herdman, on Wednesday afternoon, March 15th. As there was no meeting in February, the February theme in the Missionary Monthly was used, "The Church the Household of Faith." The devotional meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Nelson Anderson.

Franklin Centre

FRANKLIN CENTRE — Spring may have arrived officially but the weather does not seem very spring-like to date. Farmers are getting ready for the sugar season which may commence any time now.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Currie and family attended the wedding ceremony of her brother, Mr. Ross Walker, and Miss Joyce Moran, of Montreal, on Saturday, March 11th, at Calvary United Church. Rev. Dr. Jones officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Webster, the groom's brother-in-law and sister, were the only attendants of the bride and groom. A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Webster at Lachine for the members of the young couple's families. Mr. Ross Walker is well-known in this community, having spent several years here. Mr. and Mrs. Walker are residing at Cote de Neiges.

Mrs. Joe Mailloux spent a few days recently with Mrs. Murray Blas.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Tedstone, of Huntingdon, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stevenson.

Five of the C.G.I.T. Group met at the home of Mrs. James Manning on Friday afternoon and continued their sewing lesson. A number of articles were practically finished.

Mr. Lloyd Bruce and sister, Miss Hazel Bruce of Montreal, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Bruce.

The Community School Association held its usual monthly social evening on Wednesday at the Consolidated School, with a good attendance considering weather and roads. Mrs. John Goldie was the Convener on this occasion. "500" was played at 11 tables. Lady's first prize was won by Mrs. Howard Patenaude; Consolation prize, Mrs. Clarence Blair. Mrs. Keith Dunn, taking the place of a guest, received gent's first and Bobby Barr, the Consolation. Chinese Checkers were played at one table and the winners were Mr. Norman Towns and Mrs. Roy Stevenson, consolation. The door prize went to Miss Patsy Leuty. The two lucky chair prizes were won by Mrs. Inez Brooks and Mrs. Roy Stevenson. The prizes were donated by Rowe's Garage, Sharpe's Store, Mrs. Charles Walker, Mrs. Floyd Stevenson, and Mrs. John Goldie. Refreshments were served by the ladies. Receipts for the evening amount to $19.00.

Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Bruce, Mrs. E. M. Sharpe and daughter Dorothy were last Sunday guests of Mr. John Waddell and sister, Miss Libbie Waddell, Covey Hill.

Mr. Dan Leahy spent a few days in Montreal the past week with son, and the programme was in responsive reading. The business meeting closed by singing a hymn, followed by prayer. At the close of the meeting Mrs. N. Pennell and Mrs. N. Anderson gave very interesting reports on the W.M.S. Convention which was held in Dominion-Douglas United Church, Westmount, on Feb. 22 and 23. Supper was served by Mrs. Herdman, assisted by Mrs. W. Tobin and Mrs. N. Herdman.

The weekly farm forum meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McCartney. The questions on the Forum programme were discussed. Plans were made for the next meeting which is to be held in the Huntingdon High School, it being the fourth and joint in playing "500". Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Josie Monopenny, assisted by other members.

THE McCALLUM TRUSS INCORPORATED IN POWERSCOURT BRIDGE

The McCallum truss was patented by D. C. McCallum on July 15, 1881. In some ways it is a modification of the old Burr Truss of 1806. The Encyclopedia Britannica (1894 edition) describes it as: "A bridge in which the upper chord is made curved, so as to increase the depth of the truss at the centre and in which there are introduced arch braces starting from the masonry, passing through the lower chord, and abutting against the heads of the posts of the end panels. This bridge was exceedingly stiff, and for a time very popular, but it was so complicated that it was customary to make a full-sized drawing on a smooth floor from which to obtain patterns for framing."

The McCallum truss was used mainly on railroads, during the period of 1851-68. The Erie, the Ohio and Mississippi (B & O), the Grand Trunk (Montreal to Portland, Me.), and the Albany & Susquehanna (D & H) used many of them. "An example of the inflexibility of the McCallum bridge is cited concerning one at Vincennes, Ind. There the Ohio & Mississippi Railroad used an "Inflexible" over the anniversary of the founding of the American Legion. A birthday cake was presented to the Legion. Judge Ellsworth N. Lawrence, veteran of World War II, was speaker. He chose as his "St. Patrick Warrior". He described the difficulties met by St. Patrick and compared him to Irish-Americans, who have done much for Democracy. Following the address, round and square dances were enjoyed. Refreshments of sandwiches, coffee and cake were served. Mrs. Leona McCormick and her March committee, were in charge of the party.

CHATEAUGAY YOUTH WINS PRIZE

Arthur Rankin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Rankin, of Chateaugay, was recently awarded one hundred high quality chicks for his work in the New York State 4-H Club Poultry Achievement Contest. Arthur submitted a story and complete records of the chicks which he reared for his 4-H Club Project in 1949. His score of 84 brought him top honors in Franklin County. Arthur is a graduate of Chateaugay High School, class of 1949, in square dances. The company completed 32 diamond drill holes and 28 cable rig holes during the year.
