ITALY SUGGESTS ADJOURNMENT OF NAVAL SESSIONS FOR SIX MONTHS

Heads of Delegations to Meet Again This Afternoon to Discuss Whole Situation Surrounding Deadlocked Negotiations—Intimated in British Circles that Italian Suggestion Has Not Yet Had Formal Consideration.

LONDON, March 25.—The heads of the Naval Conference delegations meet again this afternoon to discuss the whole situation surrounding the deadlocked negotiations. They have before them a proposal submitted by Foreign Minister Dino Grandi, of Italy, to Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald, to the effect that the Conference should adjourn for six months. During that time Italy and France would negotiate between themselves on the parity question.

The two countries would agree not to begin within the six months' period any new naval building. Consultations will be held meanwhile between representatives of Great Britain, the United States and Japan with a view to securing a three-power pact which might be enlarged when the Conference resumes.

It is intimated in British circles that the Italian adjournment suggestion has not yet had formal consideration. It is regarded as a suggestion for use in certain contingencies which have not yet arisen.

During the day assurance that the French delegation was ready to proceed with a view to achieving a five-power pact was given by the French at a conference at United States headquarters.

MEETING WAS CONCLUDED BY FREE-FOR-ALL

Real Excitement Resulted When Rival Workers in Montreal Municipal Election Met Last Evening.

MONTREAL, March 25.—Many sore heads were being nursed today after a riotous meeting in St. Joseph's Academy, Desery Street, where partisans in the municipal elections last night staged a Donnybrook. Fists flew and chairs were swung by the audience, which consisted of 2,000 people. Eggs of the overripe variety figured in the contest, in fact started it. The meeting had been called to nominate William Tremblay, the Labor opposition member of the Legislature, who defied the Government members to combat in the House last week, as opponent in the City Council to Alderman A. A. DesRoches, chairman of the Executive Committee.

PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT IS POSSIBLE

No One Can Tell Whether Act Will Be Effective Until It Has Been Given a Trial Under Justice Department.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—Expressing the opinion that prohibition "can be measurably enforced, although human appetite is widespread," Chairman Wickersham, of the law enforcement, has informed the Senate that "no one can say whether the act can be or cannot be effective until it has been given a trial under the Justice Department."

Wickersham was before the Senate Committee on the resolution of Senator Norris proposing a Senate inquiry into dry enforcement. The committee took no action on the resolution yesterday.

He cited that exportations from Canada, to British and French islands in the Atlantic coast, had increased last year over 1926, by more than 600,000 imperial gallons, to a total of 1,250,687 for the year ending March, 1929. He expressed the belief that "in all probability that increase largely came into the United States through some of the ports along the Atlantic coast or the Gulf."

ST. PATRICK'S DAY CONCERT AT WATERVILLE

Large Number Enjoyed Entertainment Presented by Waterville Young People—Newsy Items and Personals from Vicinity.

WATERVILLE, Que., March 25.—The lit of Irish laughter resounded throughout the Jubilee Hall on Monday, March 17th, St. Patrick's Day, when a large audience turned out to honor the patron saint of Ireland. The concert, which was given under the auspices of the St. John's Anglican Club, was well up to the usual high standard and showed careful training. The varied and interesting programme was well received, judging from the hearty applause which greeted each number. The stage was attractively decorated with paper shamrocks and flowers to carry out the color scheme of green and white which was appropriate for the occasion. The opening number of the programme was "Mickey" by the entire chorus. Then followed the song of "Welcome," and a solo "Rose of Picardy" by Miss Lillian Webster; character song, "Sparkling Peggy Jones," by Miss Mildred Smith and Mr. Leslie W. Davies; solo, "My Wild Irish Rose," by Miss Rosie Marshall; song and dance, "Foggy O'Neil," by the entire chorus; character song, by Mrs. Herman Swanson; solo, "Pagan Love Song," by Mr. Wallace Smith. The difficult "Irish Reel" was gracefully executed by Mrs. L. Mitchell, Mrs. F. W. Ayer, Mrs. O. Berry and the Misses Pearl Burton, Irene Parsons, Mildred Smith, Gwyneth McNaughton and Rosie Marshall. "That Rascal Pat," a very pleasing one act comedy, was full of wit and humor. The cast was as follows: "Pat," Mr. James B. McNaughton, who pleased his audience with his Irish brogue and witty remarks; "Major Puffinbaker," Mr. Jack Skelton; "Charles Livingstone," Mr. W. L. Davies; "Laura," Mrs. L. Mitchell; "Nancy," Miss Irene Parsons. All showed they were very much at home on the stage. After the play the closing number, "Don't Forget to Come Again," and the National Anthem by the entire chorus brought a splendid evening to a close. During the intermission, home made candy was sold. The proceeds for the evening's entertainment were most gratifying.

REDUCTION IN ESTIMATES OF BRITISH ARMY

Announcement Made that It Is Not Intention of Government to Make Another Cut Without an International Agreement.

LONDON, March 25.—Reduction of British army estimates by £60,000 and progressive reduction of the military forces to 148,900 were emphasized yesterday by Right Hon. Tom Shaw, Secretary of War, in introducing the army estimates before the House of Commons. Regarding the Government's policy on military armaments, Mr. Shaw recalled that Premier MacDonald had specifically declared that Great Britain stood for reduction of armaments—which was an inclusive term—by agreement. It was not the British Government's intention to make another cut without an international agreement, he added. Mr. Shaw took a gibe at "some theorists" who apparently meant the Labor, left wing members who have introduced a motion to reduce the army by 100,000 men, their arguments being that if Great Britain reduced armaments considerably and consistently without regard to other nations she could help the cause of general disarmament. "Unfortunately," said Mr. Shaw, "the facts confound the theorists." He added that the Government, while not merely willing but anxious to participate in the negotiations for drastic reduction, was not prepared to go further at the moment. Mr. Shaw asked the theorists to consider carefully whether they were not suffering from "a very bad attack of inverted nationalism." It seemed to him that if one thing had become clearer than any other since the war it was that neither Great Britain liked it or whether she was bound to a national system.

"That idea that we can do what we think best without reference to others is, in my opinion, the very worst way to help solve the problem," he said, adding that the best way was to agree with others to make the necessary improvement.

"ANCESTOR JORICO" by WILLIAM J. LOCKE

"Surely, my dear fellow," said I, "a girl of the qualities you attribute to Ruth is capable of looking after herself. If she doesn't want to marry Jones, she most certainly won't. On the other hand, if she has been known to have a womanly pity." Toby sprang up. "Oh, don't talk like that, General. The whole idea's damned unthinkable." I lit a cigar. "At my time of life, my friend, one looks at things with a quiet eye. He gives it to me for a second. You're damn quiet, my friend, if you like. I went on, "but I don't think it would be either kind or respectful." Toby broke into a half laugh. "Sorry, sir. I'm a bit upset by everything." He shambled away into some sort of solitude, leaving me disturbed in mind. Toby had given himself away completely this time as he had done previously in little bits. Whether he knew it or not, he was idiotically in love with Ruth Telfair. All kinds of thoughts crowded into my mind between them. The English barrier between the master-caste and the servant-caste, barbed peculiarly by their respective relations to Lady Jane. The barrier which his disreputable profession, as he called it, had set up between him and woman.

And there was every tincture in his mysterious, afflicted man, Jones, doing exactly the same thing. Between master and man had arisen a ghastly jealousy.

That, in itself, was enough to worry an elderly gentleman who thought he had earned a few years' rest in a backwater of life. But there was also the inchoate picture of this confounded treasure with Jones' declining battle across it.

Now let us see what the things were which made her so important. Now don't those dates convey anything to you?"

Of course they did; we said so; but he went on:

"Jorico with his ship was in Trinidad during the period that covered the disappearance of the William Bence expedition, recorded in the Gazette of April 3, 1808. To me the whole thing is obvious. Well, not the whole but the essential—the conscientious Binkie touch—those two old fellows were in partnership. They were in the same game. Remember, we were at war with France and French privateers were all over the Caribbean waters; so that it was safer to hunt in couples. When they plundered, God knows. But they did.

"I have used yeast for 25 years"

says Head of famous Skin Hospital

DEAN of all Scandinavian skin specialists is Dr. Johan Almkvist of Stockholm, head of the famous St. Goran Hospital for diseases of the skin and blood. "For 25 years," says Dr. Almkvist, "I have used yeast for skin troubles, such as acne and boils. "The effect of yeast against constipation," he adds, "is well-known. By keeping the intestinal tract healthy and clean it prevents a number of poisons from being absorbed into the system. "Indescribably important for the present-day indoor worker is the vitamin D contained in yeast after irradiation. Its effect is equivalent to that of sunshine itself." Why not adopt this simple way to clear-skinned, vigorous health? Every day eat 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast. Each cake is rich in two precious vitamins—B and D. At grocers', restaurants, drug stores, soda fountains. Directions on label.

"Wearing evening dresses with gracefulness is impossible when one is afflicted with a disgusting 'breaking out' of the skin," writes Miss ELMOR WALSH from Ottawa, Ont. "And who can do justice to herself when half-crazed with a dizzy headache? ... Naturally I was alarmed. I resorted to yeast, and in two weeks my health improved. My skin trouble disappeared; I gained back my color, my self-confidence, energy and a smile."

These leading skin specialists recommend yeast.

Spain's foremost skin specialist, DR. JOSÉ SÁNCHEZ-COVISA, says, "Skin eruptions are nearly always accompanied by constipation. Yeast reduces intestinal putrefaction and is of great aid in treating these skin affections."

PROFESSOR DR. PIO PEDICONI, head of important skin hospital in Rome, declares, "Yeast keeps the system 'regular.' For many years it has been used in dermatology to prevent and cure pimples and boils."

"My doctor advised me to try Fleischmann's Yeast cakes," writes R. ROYCE Wilson of Waltham, Mass. "I was troubled with slight stomach disorders and had quite a few blackheads and pimples. The yeast cleared my skin and gave me lots of pep. The girls dance with me now, and that's one thing I like to do, dance. I am still eating yeast."

YOUNGER GENERATION PROBLEM SIMPLIFIED

The ever present problem confronting mothers of raising their children along lines laid down by the modern rules of health has been solved by Mrs. Tracy B. Slack. "A well-balanced diet stipulates a certain amount of milk for every growing child," Mrs. Slack says, "but children often grow weary of 'plain' milk." Describing the solution of her problem, she continues:

"The first two or three years of a child's life, there is no trouble regarding the stipulated amount of milk in the daily diet. About the fourth year the child begins to weary of milk in its colorless form, and, also, in its meagre varieties—junks, custards and white sauce camouflaged by paprika. Then the problem of keeping the child up to standard weight and condition becomes more and more acute. He must have a mixed diet; he must also have his 'quart of milk'."

"When I had reached the above impasse with my fourth child, the eldest was teasing for tea or coffee. In vain did we explain that a growing child must not have such drinks, and in vain did we serve milk iced, with straw like the soda fountain. He countered that the same didn't taste good. "While visiting an aunt this milk boy had a cup of Postum. It looked like a

How about your children?

Perhaps you, too, have a diet problem on your hands. Children who balk at milk and clamors for tea or coffee. Try Mrs. Slack's solution! Give your children Instant Postum made with milk. It's a real grown-up drink—hot and golden-brown in color. It's 100% no trace of tannin, caffeine or any other artificial stimulant in it. And it contains the milk that growing bodies need. You'll find this novel drink one of the easiest in the world to prepare. Just a teaspoonful of Instant Postum in the cup, fill with hot (not boiled) milk, sweeten to taste—the drink is ready. You can make it right at the table! Order Instant Postum from your grocer today—serve it to your children tomorrow. See how quickly they take to it. How eagerly they ask for more! And try it yourself at the same time, made either with hot milk or with boiling water. To test Postum's value thoroughly, make it your mealtime drink for thirty days, in place of caffeine. Then judge!

Law may only prohibit; it does not prevent. Law cannot make the individual efficient, thrifty, sensible and unselfish. We have every public right we should have, and no law is lacking which will give the People greater opportunity for things spiritual and material.

WHO OWNS THE RECORD?

Coming to Sherbrooke at the beginning of the year to take the editor's chair on the Daily Record, and coming unheralded, I have been subject to vicious attack by some vitriolic pens because my lifelong convictions disagree with the opinions of a few.

Street gossip credited my purchase of the controlling interest of this great paper to many and various sources, vide:

- The Southern Canada Power Co. Lord Atholstan. The Conservative party. The Liberal party. C. B. Howard, M.P.

and to others ad lib. So that I feel that I owe it to our many subscribers who fondly call the Record "our dear old paper," a plain and lucid statement of what might be my own personal affairs.

I know Lord Atholstan, of the Montreal Star. I have worked for him, all the while we had together the understanding that I was only taking a post-graduate course in journalism of today that I might be competently equipped to return to my first love, that of editor and publisher. Some years ago I was moved to invest money in, and to direct the affairs of three manufacturing companies in Canada, all three of which are known from Coast to Coast. So that my absence from practical newspaper work for over ten years was the cause of my one year of intensive work with Lord Atholstan on the Montreal Star. I thought that such a post-experience was desirable, and it was concurrent with my negotiations with the former President of this Company. I did not make any noise in my negotiations, and the chagrin of those who were taken by surprise at my sudden advent is no excuse for villainous remarks. A kindly old gentleman, and a forty-year friend, His Lordship has not invested one single dollar in the Record.

I do not know a single member of the Board of Directors of the Southern Canada Power Company, nor have I ever met any one of them. I do know their advertising manager, a former fellow-journalist, who kindly makes good use of our advertising columns, and a gentleman whom I have known for thirty years. The Southern Canada Power Company does not own a single dollar's worth of stock in the Sherbrooke Record Company.

During the year of my negotiations with the directors of the Record Company, I approached prominent members of both the Conservative and the Liberal parties, and asked them to kindly cease negotiations for the purchase of the Record. I do not know either the Hon. Mackenzie King nor the Hon. R. B. Bennett, but there were well authenticated stories that both these gentlemen had been approached by local promoters who were keen to get together sufficient moneys for their own selfish purposes. My object was to stop these men so that their plans of buying the Record should not interfere with my own personal desire to own a daily newspaper in a city I should soon learn to love, as I now do adore our City of Sherbrooke.

"Where did he get the money?"

Naturally few men carry about their person large sums of money, nor is it gentlemanly to boast about their money and their investments. But my bankers considered that I had sufficient assets and character to advance a part of the sum required. The question of where I got the money has irritated the men who were chagrined at a loss through their own procrastination. Several men have gone as far afield as Ottawa and Montreal to try and find out the source of quick money advanced in an emergency where they might have learned more quickly from myself or from my bankers.

Any man with good assets and an unblemished reputation, be he farmer or professional man, can avail himself of our Canadian banking system if he but show assets which can be converted, and the debt liquidated.

Not one dollar of my money came from any of the sources indicated by those who would wish to traduce and to vilify by mischievous insinuations.

I trust this recital does not bore our readers. But I feel that I owe them an outspoken refutation of stories which have appeared in print, stories written first in English and then translated into French. I know the sources of these dastardly attacks, but have not yet in my possession the legal proof of the libel.

Nor have I thought to egotistically recite any biography of a long and varied experience in journalism, a verbal journey which touches many of the principal cities in Canada. But at any time that our subscribers may ask for it they would be entitled to the full story of "thirty years in journalism," which story I have often been urged to write.

I will surely be forgiven for a natural resentment towards the men responsible for these cowardly whisperings when the authors grow bolder. They are men whom I do not know and whom I do not wish to know.

With my fellow-directors, who own and conduct the Daily Record, I have dedicated my life's work to the furtherance of the best interests of the City of Sherbrooke and the Eastern Townships.

Who owns the Record? I do— ALFRED WOOD.

PASS THIS ONE ALONG.

Manager Couture says that the Sherbrooke Street Railway has been a losing venture, but that there would be a change in the red figures of a deficit if the city's population increased to 50,000. So Mr. Couture should surely be in favor of increasing the city's size as are all the business men.

Why not be more optimistic? All the steam railways in Canada that were operating at deficits have succeeded in selling out to Sir Henry Thornton, joining up with the Canadian National Railway System. A railroad such as that along the Gaspé Coast, which had not paid a profit to buy axle grease in twenty-five years, found a good buyer in the Government, so that all the people of Canada could bear their share in the yearly loss.

Mr. Couture should cultivate Ald. Forest, who unreservedly believes in municipalization of dams, and he might be able to dispose of his losing venture to the city. It would be a mighty fine thing—for the Street Railway Company.

Toronto's street railway is piling up a bonded debt that is higher than the new twenty-two storey edifice of the Bank of Commerce. Even though the city increased fares by sixty per cent., what had been paying property is now a political plaything for municipal bad management.

Let us by all means buy the street railway or bludgeon it with some new tax so they will gladly unload it on our overburdened shoulders. Capital idea!

"THE MAN NOBODY KNEW."

Recently there passed away in Toronto one of the heads of a great merchandising house, the late Harris H. Fudger. A man shy of personal publicity, persistent in quiet and effective philanthropy, he had come to Toronto about thirty years before as a young man, and had successfully conducted every enterprise he had entered after his novitiate as a young clerk.

Only after his demise did his fellow-citizens learn of the silent of his practical philanthropies. On one occasion he built a new residence for himself in order that his former residence quite near the center of the city could be donated to a trust and conducted as a business girls' home and club. Other and many such gifts he had made during the last quarter century.

Mr. Fudger began his modest life work of philanthropy in the days, some twenty years ago, when the most popular literature was an unfair abuse of the successful; when the greatest phrase-maker was the most popular man in the country, whilst our successful men were thoroughly despised and were dubbed malefactors of great wealth.

EDITOR'S NOTE BOOK.

Without any local knowledge to enlighten the editor it would appear that Alderman Forest expresses the Weedon dam by just dam.

A charming lady of Sherbrooke reproves the editor for being adverse to temperance, and ergo, in favor of red-eye. The letter would be published had it not been marked "personal." There's a vast difference between an unwise zealot and a sensible pilot. The Record rests on its record, and judges not.

Canadians last year smoked about 4,000,000,000 cigarettes, counting those slyly smuggled in by those who go across the line. The taxes gathered by the Federal Government for the smokes totalled $33,000,000, which was about the total budget for all government expenditure in the days of Hon. Alexander MacKenzie, the only political economist who ever ruled in Ottawa.

Scorned by every civilized country in the world the Russian Socialists who repudiated all their debts and divided every holding into political or public ownership are now crazed by hatred. They are demolishing every Catholic and other Christian church, are persecuting those who enter them for devotion. What depths to men descend to when they allow prejudice to overcome reason.

A few weeks from now and the birdies will be singing, when some land surveyor will take the capitalists out for a walk and show them the spring freshets and the swollen streams where electric power can be generated at service-forced prices. When the riverlet becomes a roaring river, the political power expert will try to do his best, and possibly wind up by trying to sell the City Hall to some stranger.

EVENING CHIRPINGS

Colleges aren't so dumb. They ship about twenty-five per cent. of those who matriculate.

A barbed-wire fence along the border would at least develop some really efficient wire cutter for the next war.

Things even up. In some houses the vacuum cleaner whines at the sweeping, and in others daughter does it.

For that matter, as any alteration department will agree, you can't keep a good skirt down.

If you care for screen comedies, keep a hopeful eye on your fat neighbor as he mounts a step-ladder to put them up.

Speeches were made by Mr. Marmaduke Smudges, (Mr. Lyman Tomkins) candidate, who mentioned as improvements a "home for incurable old maids" and "homes for crippled cats." Owing to the absence of the other candidate, Mr. Samuel Smokes, (Mr. Wallace Barrie) Mr. Smokesputer, (Mr. Lennon) spoke in his stead, voicing his opinion that the electric light system should be extended and that more "young life" was needed in the city. The next speaker was Mr. Samuel Rallopper, (Mr. Ashley Wheeler) who was a backer of Mr. Smudges. The last address was made by Mr. Jean-Baptiste Beaufineuf (Mr. Maitland Soles) who backed Mr. Smokes. The various speeches were much enjoyed, and it was decided to hold the "election" on April 20th. Games were played and delicious sugar on snow was served at the close of a very successful evening for the Y.P.S.

A very delightful entertainment was held yesterday afternoon for the benefit of the W. G. T. U., at the residence of Mrs. B. C. Howard, "Howardens." The numerous guests, including many members of the Lennoxville W. G. T. U., were cordially received by Mrs. S. A. Jones, the president of the society, and Mrs. B. C. Howard. A very attractive musical programme was arranged under the direction of Mrs. J. Rosenbloom, presented the following musicians taking part: Mrs. R. E. Stevenson, Mrs. J. Schwartz, Miss B. Lawrence, Mr. Francis Roy, Mr. Perron, Professor Howard, and Mr. Robert Watson, while Mrs. Rosenbloom acted as accompanist in her usual efficient manner. At the conclusion of the musical numbers a very hearty vote of thanks was extended to all who contributed so much to the enjoyment of the guests; to the speaker and to Mrs. B. C. Howard, who so generously placed her home at the disposal of the union. A very pleasing feature of the afternoon was the presentation to Mrs. Rosenbloom of a box of

E. T. BOARDS OF TRADE MEETING IN CITY TODAY

Joint Annual Meeting of Eastern Townships Associated Boards of Trade and Eastern Townships Immigration Society Opened in City Hall at Two O'Clock This Afternoon.

A large number of members of the Eastern Townships Associated Boards of Trade and Eastern Townships Immigration Society are in the City this afternoon attending the annual joint meeting of the two organizations, which opened this afternoon in the City Hall.

The afternoon session is a business one, when the minutes of the two organizations will be read and reports of the presidents given. Mr. J. K. Robinson, president of the Eastern Townships Immigration Society, will speak on his recent trip to Great Britain, where he spent some weeks in the interests of immigration. Reports will be given on the proposed Provincial National Park at Orford, the widening of the subway under the Canadian Pacific Railway tracks between Sherbrooke and Lennoxville and electric power for farmers. Third reading was given to an important agricultural bill standing in the name of Lucien Dugas, Liberal, M.L.A., for Joliette. It provides there is a brook to be regulated it requires the consent of all persons interested before anything can be done. Mr. Dugas in his bill changes this to provide that the consent of at least two-thirds of those interested may be sufficient. It is found at present when drainage projects are under way that one or two farmers may hold up an excellent project merely because the brook passes through their property, and they are consequently interested. The clause changed are articles 502, and 503 of the municipal code.

A widespread measure for the protection of sheep from dogs is one brought down by Gustave Delisle, Liberal, M.L.A., for Chicoutimi. There is already an act in the matter, but this is improved by the law. It is provided that "every rural village or town municipality shall be responsible to its ratepayers, who are owners of sheep, for damages caused by their sheep by dogs within the territory of the municipality, to the extent of a sum not exceeding two-thirds of the damages."

The municipalities will have the right to create a special fund by imposing a tax on dogs, but any damages over and above the amount of the special fund will have to come from the general funds of the village. The municipality will have discretion as to the annual tax on dogs, and the same by-law must oblige the breeder of thoroughbred registered dogs, and the owner or possessor of any dog kept within the municipality, to declare to the secretary-treasurer the number of dogs kept by him, under penalty of a fine of $10 per dog, recoverable by the municipality.

"Any person, whether an officer or not of the municipality, shall be entitled to take possession of any dog not having its licence number on its neck, and bring it to the kennels which the municipality may keep for such purposes. If the animal is not claimed within eight days, it may be destroyed or sold by auction, and the proceeds, over and above expenses, shall be deposited in the special fund."

Fines collected will go into the special fund, if one is established by the municipality, if not to the general funds. Likewise drastic in tone are the following two clauses: "Any judge or magistrate having jurisdiction may, upon petition, order the owner or possessor of a dog, which has killed or injured a sheep to destroy such dog within a delay of three days, and may further, in his judgment, condemn the delinquent, for his failure to comply with the order in the above delay, to the payment of a fine of not more than twenty-five dollars and costs, and, upon failure to pay such fine and costs, to imprisonment for not more than forty days."

"No claim may be made against the sheep-owner or any of his dependents who, within the limits of the farm, kills or wounds a dog running after the sheep."

MONTREAL FIRM BEING SUED BY DANVILLE MAN

Wilfrid Boulanger Claims Sum of $168.87 as Result of Motor Accident Near Danville on June 7 Last.

Wilfrid Boulanger, of Danville, is suing the Elmhurst Dairy, Limited, of Montreal, for $168.87 as the result of a motor accident that occurred near Danville on June 7 last, in an action in the Superior Court, presided over by Mr. Justice Joseph Archambault, this morning. The case was opened and the evidence was on the point of being proceeded with when the attorney for the plaintiff made a motion to amend the declaration. The motion being granted, the case was adjourned to allow the necessary amendments to be made.

According to the declaration of Boulanger, a truck owned by the Elmhurst Dairy, was parked on the left side of the Danville road on June 7 last in such a manner that he struck it with his car. Boulanger claims that the accident was wholly due to the negligence of the driver of the truck and, as a result, asks the Court to allow him $168.87 as compensation for damages to his car and the inconvenience caused him while it was being repaired.

The defendant company disclaims all responsibility and alleges that the truck does not belong to them, nor was the man driving the truck at the time of the accident an employee of the company. In all events, the company claims, Boulanger was driving at an excessive speed at the time of the accident, and did not take the necessary precautions to avoid a crash.

Narrow Escape

The truck was badly smashed, the contents being scattered for some distance up and down the line. The passenger car, which was proceeding to the station to take on passengers at the time, was considerably damaged, the transformer and underframe being torn off. Service on the line was delayed for about an hour.

The main thing in selling is the price, and any experienced salesman will say that quoted prices bring better results in the Want ad column. If you seek a maid, say what you'll pay. If you have a house to lease, state the rent. If you want a school teacher, tell the salary. Whatever you have to sell, tell the price. One good want ad, well written, with price quoted, is as good as two without the price. ANNUNCIATION DAY. March twenty-fifth is an important date in church history, especially so far as the Catholic and Anglican Churches are concerned. For it recalls the annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary. It was on this occasion that the Angel of the Lord appeared to Mary, while in prayer, and with the salutation, "Hail, Mary, full of grace the Lord is with thee," announced to her that she should become the Mother of God. It is from this great event that the Magnificat resulted, the Blessed Virgin replying to the angel's salutation by saying, "My soul doth magnify the Lord and my spirit hath rejoiced in God, my Savior". THE BOY WHO DID NOT FAIL YOU TONIGHT. The man who put "pep" into pepper could not sneeze upon the proud carrier boy who brought in four new Record subscribers for his route the other evening. SALVATION ARMY BAND GAVE CONCERT LAST NIGHT

Presided over by Adjutant Larman, the Salvation Army band concert at the Citadel last night was a decided success. Included on the programme were marches and selections by the band, selections by the male voice party and several individual items. Bandmaster Norman Moulard, to whom credit is due for the band's present state of efficiency, was heard in a well rendered cornet solo entitled "Silver Threads," accompanied by Miss Gertrude Anderson at the piano. One of the items was a lifeboat song by the male voice party. A lifeboat was erected on the platform and the members of the singing party rendered their selection from the lifeboat. The instrumental sextet, "Sword and Shield," was smartly rendered by the six bandmen comprising that brigade. The best items by the band were "Cheerful Service" and the meditation, "Nothingham," the latter being the closing number of the programme. Another concert in the near future will be given, at which two new instruments will be presented to the band. The officials of the band would like to take this opportunity of thanking all who contributed to making this concert so successful.

LENNOXVILLE

FUNERAL OF MRS. ROLAND E. CARTER. The funeral of Mrs. Roland E. Carter, a highly esteemed resident of this town, whose death occurred at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Veilleux, Prospect Street, Sherbrooke, on Friday, March 14th, was held at Sherbrooke on Monday morning, March 17th. Solemn requiem mass was sung in the chapel of the Redemptorist Monastery, Beckett Road, with Rev. Father Guillet officiating, assisted by deacon and sub-deacon. Following the service the remains were laid to rest in St. Michael's Cemetery. The bearers were all old friends of the family, including Messrs. J. E. Jamieson, D. W. O'Keefe, J. E. Lalumiere, G. Bolduc, W. Guihan and E. Breton. The deceased, who was in her eighty-sixth year, had been in her usual health until a short time before her death, when she was stricken with intestinal gripe, which developed into pneumonia. The death of her sister, eight days previously, also had an effect upon her. The late Mrs. Carter, nee Elizabeth Johnson, was the last member of a family of eight children, whose parents, Jacob Johnson and Mary Warren Johnson, came from England and Ireland, respectively, in their childhood, and settled with their parents near Cornwall, Ontario, where a number of relatives still reside. The deceased lady came to reside in Sherbrooke about 1863, and after her marriage, some fifty-five years ago, went to Lennoxville, where she resided for the rest of her life, with the exception of eight years spent in Stanstead. She was always a very active member of St. Anthony's Church, Lennoxville, where she was greatly missed, and was also a valued member of the Catholic Women's League, in whose work she was always interested. She retained all her faculties, up to the last, except that her eyesight was failing and she enjoyed her bed and rest. She was in touch with old friends and local activities. It was always a pleasure for her to recall events of her younger days and friends of whom she carried a fond remembrance. She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, Mr. Roland E. Carter, who is also advanced in years; two children, a daughter, Mrs. H. Veilleux, Sherbrooke, and a son, Mr. Warren E. Carter, of St. Johnsbury, Vt.; four grandchildren, Joseph Desjarlais, Lennoxville, Allan Carter, of St. Johnsbury, Vt.; and the Misses Evelyn and Louise Veilleux, of Sherbrooke; one son-in-law, Henry Veilleux, Sherbrooke; one daughter-in-law, Mrs. W. E. Carter, of St. Johnsbury, Vt.; three nieces, who spent much time with her since the death of their parents; Mrs. Fred Dundin, Lennoxville; Miss Grace Packenham and Mrs. W. A. Lamont, of Montreal; besides a number of nieces and nephews in Ontario, Saskatchewan and Minnesota. A son, Allan, and a daughter, Mamie, predeceased her about twenty-five years ago. Those from out-of-town who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Carter and son, of

St. Johnsbury, Vt.; Miss Grace Packenham, of Montreal and Mr. Ernest Johnson, of Lindsay, Ont. The many floral tributes and spiritual bouquets which were received by the family testified to the high esteem in which the deceased was held by friends in Lennoxville and Sherbrooke. General Notes. Mr. and Mrs. Avila Perrault have returned from a trip to the Southern States and overseas, covering over twelve thousand miles. The meeting of the Young People's Society of the United Church held last evening in Douglas Hall was in charge of Miss Elizabeth Downs, and was missionary in character. The services in the United Church on Sunday were of special interest and were well attended. At the morning service Miss Frederica Bradley, of Sherbrooke, rendered a beautifully executed violin solo in the place of the usual anthem. The subject for the sermon at the evening service was "Religion in Art," and each person present was given a print of Millet's great painting "The Angelus," which served admirably to illustrate the topic. These pictures are to be given at each evening service during the remainder of the Lenten season. Plochhurst's "Good Shepherd" will be next Sunday's picture. Among those from Lennoxville who attended the musical and tea given yesterday at the home of Mrs. B. C. Howard, Howardene, were Mrs. C. E. White, Mrs. J. G. Watson, Miss Patricia Watson, Mrs. C. S. White, Mrs. J. A. Seale, Mrs. G. A. Hadlock, Mrs. McCurdy, Mrs. W. Mitchell, Miss Clarice McCurdy, R.N., Miss M. O. Vaudry, Mrs. H. L. M. Vaudry, Mrs. W. J. Abbott, Mrs. F. R. Matthews and Mrs. R. J. Dean. Mrs. W. J. Marlin has returned from Waterville, where she was called by the death of her aunt, Mrs. Robert Smith.

HEIRS OF $30,000 LEGACY BELIEVE MONEY IS CURSED

Refuse to Touch Legacy Left by Wealthy Uncle—Has Been Placed in Chancery and Will Eventually Revert to State.

PRAGUE, March 25.—Because they believe a curse lies upon it, the heirs of a legacy of $30,000 refuse to touch the money.

A month ago Johann Jungman, the village baker of Rakus, received a lawyer's letter informing him he was the heir of a wealthy uncle who had always disliked him. Soon after he received the money Jungman was taken ill and died the next day. His eldest son, who like his father had always been exceptionally healthy inherited his father's fortune, including the legacy of the uncle, and within a week he also fell ill and died.

The property has now been inherited by the younger son, but neither the latter nor any other member of the family will touch the uncle's legacy. It has accordingly been placed in chancery and will eventually revert to the state.

PROPERTIES ARE LEASED TO HOUSE GOVERNMENT STAFFS

More Space Needed for Quebec Government Departments—Two Storeys of Large Apartment House and Three Houses Taken Over.

QUEBEC, Mach 25.—Lack of space to accommodate the various provincial services in the present buildings has brought the Department of Public Works to lease properties, where employees will be located. Two storeys of a large apartment house near the Parliament Buildings have been leased for that purpose, and three houses have also been taken over for that purpose.

The two departments which are especially in need of accommodation are the Departments of Roads and Agriculture, due to the constant growth of their activities. It is understood that the buildings referred to have been leased for a period of several years, so that for the present it is not planned to erect another addition to the Parliamentary Buildings.

ANGERS MUST WEAR THEIR BADGES ON BACKS IN NEW BRUNSWICK, SAYS RICHARDS

Minister of Lands and Mines Points Out that New Ruling Will Obligate Non-Resident Sportsmen Wading Ashore to Satisfy Warden.

FREDERICTON, N.B., March 25.—Chas. D. Richards, Minister of Lands and Mines, has decided to inaugurate this year the use of badges to be worn by non-resident anglers who are licensed while fishing on the Atlantic silver salmon rivers, the trout streams and lakes and the various waters of New Brunswick where game fish abound.

The badge it is stated, must be displayed between the shoulders on the outer clothing worn by non-resident anglers when fishing. The use of these badges is expected to prove a great convenience for visiting fishermen as well as wardens and other officials in New Brunswick, as it will mean that visiting fishermen will not be disturbed while whipping a pool or a stream to show their licence and identification to the wardens patrolling the territory in which they are.

DEATHS REPORTED

MISS NELLIE BARBER, EAST FARNHAM, QUE.

March 25.—Early Thursday morning, March 20th, Miss Nellie Barber passed away at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Galbraith, of East Farnham, at the age of thirty-eight years and eleven months.

The funeral service took place on Friday afternoon, at two o'clock in the First Church (Anglican), at Sweetsburg, where the deceased spent the greater part of her lifetime.

Rev. H. G. Hatcher, of Iron Hill, officiated, and the choir sang softly the hymns, "Peace, Perfect Peace" and "Nearer My God to Thee", closing with the "Nunc Dimittis" as the funeral cortege left the church.

The bearers were Messrs. William Brown, Stanley Peron, Lawrence Lee and Burgess Cadz. Interment was in the Union Cemetery.

LONDON TYPISTS SWEEP TYPEWRITING CONTESTS

Ontario City Stenographers Capture Three Out of Five Firsts in Canadian Typewriting Championships—Quebec City Man Takes Amateur and Bilingual Titles.

TORONTO, March 25.—The ninth annual contest for Canadian typewriting championships was held with over 2,000 stenographers competing. The open Canadian championship was won by Lucky Harding, of London, Ont., writing for half an hour at 106 net words a minute. Miss Louise Marchese, of Vancouver, was second, with Miss Anne Kreutzer, of Winnipeg.

The amateur championship was won by Ubald Lamontagne, of Quebec City. Mr. Lamontagne already holds the Canadian bilingual championship. The winning rate of ninety-six net words per minute was the highest ever made in this class in Canada. The amateur accuracy was won by William Branson, of Toronto, who made but two mistakes in the half-hour's writing.

The intermediate championship was won by Hattie Knowles, of London, Ont., and the intermediate accuracy was won by Kathleen Burs-ton, also of London, Ont.

WOMEN DRESSED IMMODESTLY ARE TO BE BANNED FROM HOLY COMMUNION AND FROM ACTING AS GODMOTHERS IN SACRAMENTS OF BAPTISM AND CONFIRMATION.

SAINT JOHN, N.B., March 25.—Immodesty of women's dress was condemned by His Lordship Bishop Cabbage of the Roman Catholic diocese of Saint John in a letter read in all the churches of the diocese in "In spite of advice, cautions and warnings," he said, "too great a number of women, moved by sheer vanity, have adopted an indecency in dress which is very sinful and a source of temptation to others." Considering the present-day fashions what can we expect of future generations?"

The letter quoted instructions issued by the Sacred Congregation of the Council, stating in part that "maiden and women dressed immodestly are to be banned from Holy Communion and from acting as godmothers in the Sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation, and if it be an extreme case, may be even forbidden to enter the church."

that important short covering is in progress and we believe the stock can be purchased for a trading turn. Consolidated Gas has yet to swing out of its trading zone. Present buying levels should be utilized for picking up this stock, with the added suggestion that holdings be increased on its crossing 125. Houston Oil, although up substantially in recent sessions, appears to have further important advance to make. We would not reach for it, however, but would be inclined to pick up a little of it on dips below par level. International Cement has moved up handsily since last given here, and we believe it can still be followed for additional advance. American International has been a laggard in recent phase of advance. Nevertheless, we believe purchases are now in order, especially while available below 50.

DECISION FOR RISKI DID NOT PROVE POPULAR

Campolo, to Vast Majority of Experts, as Well as Spectators, Appeared to Have Substantial Margin on Points.

NEW YORK, March 25.—Johnny Riski, whether or not he ever climbs very high on the heavyweight championship ladder, still is the giant killer of the prize ring. Nevertheless, in the main event of a benefit card at Madison Square Garden last night, the pudgy Cleveland baker boy needed some assistance from the charitable spirit of the occasion to take a close decision from his big Argentine rival, Victorio Campolo.

Riski, in a somewhat riotous finish to the job, began less than a month ago under the mellow moon at Miami, was given an unpopular verdict over Campolo after ten bruising rounds. The Argentine, to a vast majority of experts, appeared to have a substantial margin on points, but the chunky Cleveland cloutier gained the official verdict on a two to one ballot.

Referee Arthur Donovan decided the issue by voting for Riski. The two judges were split, Charles F. Mathieson voting for Campolo and George Patrick for Riski.

A crowd of eleven thousand boomed the verdict lustily. A ringside census showed Campolo credited with five rounds, Riski with three and two rated as even. Newspaper men were divided in opinion as to whether the Miami of the New York decision in the Riski-Campolo feud was the worst, but they agreed that both were bad.

VETERAN SCRAPPER DROPPED DEAD IN RING

TACOMA, Wn., March 25.—Frank Farmer, veteran pugilist, dropped dead during the fifth round of a boxing match with Spark Plug Boyd, of Aberdeen, here last night. Physicians pronounced him the victim of a heart attack.

RESULTS OF LAST NIGHT'S BOUTS

New York—Johnny Riski, Cleveland, outpointed Victorio Campolo, Argentine, ten rounds. Harry Smith, New York, and Charley Belanger, Winnipeg, draw, ten rounds; Vincent Forgione, Philadelphia, knocked out Doc Conrad, Newark, N.J., four rounds.

BISHOP'S BEAT CANADIENS IN OVERTIME TILT

Blinco Scored Odd Goal in Three to Give Bishop's Unofficial Championship of Intermediate League.

Climaxing a brilliant career of hockey at Bishop's University, Joe Blinco, flashy centre of the college squad, gave his team a two to one verdict over Canadiens last night in an overtime struggle at the Exhibition Arena. Playing perhaps his last game under the purple and white colors, Blinco was the outstanding performer on his team and certainly deserved the credit for giving his aggregation the unofficial championship of the Sherbrooke City and County League.

Both teams ended the regular season tied for first position, but Canadiens continued into the Allan Cup play-downs by consent of the league's officials owing to the fact that the university boys were engaged in the conquest of the Dominion Intermediate Interscholastic crown and reached the finals only to be ousted by Toronto Varsity. The game last night was to decide the unofficial winners of the league title.

The fans, who numbered about four hundred, were treated to a game which was spectacular in spots, the dazzling stickhandling of Lepage, Vigor and Blinco and the goalkeeping of the two net-minders being high spots of the contest.

Boisvert, replacing Workman in the local nets, stamped himself as a worthy substitute to the regular goalie, and the two shots that evaded him were hard to handle. Glass in the college net also put up a stellar display, but spoiled his effectiveness by his constant attempts to harass the opposing forwards.

Matters came to a head in the second period when Langis took exception to Glass' nagging and received a major penalty for upsetting the goalie with a high cross check. A mild melee ensued in which the players of both sides took part, but Langis was the only one to go to the "cooler."

Shortly after the whistle started the game Vigor rushed and shot from centre. The shot bulged the twine before Glass saw it. It was a bad break for the final winners. Langis and Cann were penalized for tampering to rough it up. Both sides gave and took, and the game threatened to become rough. Referee Molynaux, however, meted out penalties impartially. Langis returned, but shortly after again was forced to take a rest for rushing Glass. Blinco got through, but was tripped by Wolfe, who received a penalty for his efforts. Langis did some clever puck ragging and Lepage broke away alone and gave a brilliant display of stickhandling which brought him through the opposing defence, only to be heavily bodied and lose control of the disc.

Johnston and Blinco did some effective combining for the College forwards, but were forced to a defensive style when Denison was penalized for tripping. The period ended with Canadiens one up.

As the second period got under way Blinco got right in, but his shots missed the nets by inches, and Johnston's lone rushes bore no fruit as his shots missed the net. Blinco was unfortunate around the Canadian goal, missing an open net for a sure counter. Canadiens' second line of Roy, Meek and Thibault came on and their poke-checking stopped Bishop's rushes at centre. Boisvert distinguished himself by his clever manner of handling the forwards' bullet-like drives. The period ended with both goalies keeping their nets intact and Canadiens still on the long end of a 1 to 0 score.

Mathieu replaced Wolfe at the beginning of the final session and signaled his appearance by a lone rush and a hard shot which made Glass step lively to clear. Proceedings lived up and Denison and Lepage greeted the penalty bench. Shortly after Langis got his major and there were only three men in front of Boisvert. No damage resulted, however, as the Canadiens resorted to puck ragging. The spectators' excitement was intense and when some of the players took exception to several of the fans' remarks a slight disturbance took place. With but four minutes to go Boisvert was stopping a shower of rubber as his defence let up and finally Johnston coasted in and scored the equalizer on a pass from

CURLING CLUB 'LADIES' NIGHT' WELL ATTENDED

Interesting Programme Presented at Curling Club Last Evening.

Following a few words of welcome by the chairman, Mr. D. J. Salls, which were replied to by Mrs. W. Kinkead, president of the Ladies' Curling Club, a short musical programme consisting of violin solos by Miss Frederica Bradley and vocal numbers by Messrs. E. M. Armitage and D. T. Diplock was presented. Mrs. F. H. Bradley and Mr. Gault Pariser acted as accompanists. Following the supper a number of friendly matches were played.

Blinco. Canadiens then sent five men up to attack and the puck remained within the Bishop blue line. However, no scoring resulted and the teams went into overtime. Both teams started the overtime determined to put in the winning counter, and Blinco was successful when Boisvert allowed his shot to trickle over the line. Bishop's resorted to the three-man defense after this and the whole team had their hands full to stem the locals' sallies. The defense held and the game ended with Bishop's holding the odd goal in three.

For the winners Blinco was the best performer, while his wings gave him good support. The defense proved a stumbling block to the Canadian forwards and formed a strong barrier before Glass. Lepage was perhaps the best on the ice, his tricky stickhandling being a great watch. Vigor was not far behind in effectiveness, his lone rushes always menacing Glass. The substitute forward line and the defense showed up well, and perhaps two more evenly matched teams would be hard to find. The game was satisfactorily handled by Mr. Tommy Molynaux.

The line-up was:

M.A.A.A. TO MEET PORT ARTHUR IN FINAL SERIES

Montrealers Won Return Game from Hamilton to Capture Eastern Canada Amateur Hockey Championship Title.

TORONTO, March 25.—Once again the Ontario Hockey Association champions felled utterly before the Quebec champions. Last night at Toronto the Hamilton Tigers, conquerors of six of the best senior teams in the province during their play-downs series, went down before a brilliant Montreal Amateur Athletic Association sextette by a four to one count.

In the first game of the Eastern Canada final at Montreal the Quebec champions trounced the Tigers by seven to two. Their second triumph gave them the round, the Eastern Canada championship and the right to meet Port Arthur in the Allan Cup final, by eleven goals to three.

As in the first game, the newly-crowned kings of the east showed marked superiority over their Ontario opponents from the outset. A goal from the stick of Glen Brydson, smooth right winger, gave them the lead early in the opening period. He notched another late in the middle frame and then gave his team a three to nothing lead with his third goal in the last twenty minutes before the Tigers entered the summary.

"Gonic" McGowan, flashy Hamilton centre player, saved his team from a shutout by scoring a pretty marker, which was nullified when Ahearn tallied Montreal's fourth and last goal a few minutes later.

Tigers, worn from the long and tedious campaign, were unable to control their frayed nerves in the last few minutes and precipitated a free-for-all. Before it had been quelled by Referee Harry Watson and a policeman every player on both teams had participated to some extent.

Port Arthur and Montreal will meet in Toronto in the first game of the Dominion championship series on Thursday night. Gene Fraser, of Niagara Falls, and Ted Blondel, of Winnipeg, will handle the game, as well as the second, also scheduled for Toronto ice on Saturday night.
