City Officials Attend Meeting Of Municipalities

Mayor Percy Adams, Aldermen A. Greene and J. S. Cameron and Secretary-Treasurer C. W. Macdonald have gone to Ottawa to attend a meeting of the Union of Municipalities of the Province of Quebec, which is being held at Hull, Que., Oct. 28-30.

There they were met by City Manager P. E. Jarman, who has returned from attending the International City Managers' Association's annual convention held at Coronado, California.

The meeting at Hull affords an opportunity for the municipalities of the Province of Quebec to air their views before the Provincial Government and the Minister of Municipal Affairs.

D. C. ABBOTT HOST AT YOUNG LIBERALS BANQUET
Finance Minister D. C. Abbott will be host at a dinner to be given for the Westmount Young Liberals Association at the Regent Club, 82 Sherbrooke street, on Monday, at 7 p.m.

Auto Stolen Tuesday Night

An automobile was reported stolen from in front of the Westmount Grill on St. Catherine St., on Tuesday evening.

According to reports, George Segal, 258 Metcalfe Avenue and proprietor of Heat-Makers Ltd., parked his car in front of the Westmount Grill shortly after 7 p.m., and entered the establishment to make a small purchase. He took the keys with him.

In the few minutes he was in the store, someone rifled the glove compartment of the car, found a set of spare keys kept there, and drove off with the automobile—a black '41 Plymouth sedan, 1947 Que. licence No. 45591. At the time of going to press, the car has not yet been recovered.

Church Of The Ascension Roof Receiving Repairs

The scaffolding now erected at the Church of the Ascension, in Westmount, is for the purpose of renewing the copper eavetroughs and drains of the building, which have withstood the elements for 20 years.

The church authorities have undertaken to have these troughs and drains replaced as a maintenance precautionary measure on the advice of expert opinion, following a survey of their condition, reports Rev. Father W. E. McDonagh. The new work is hoped to withstand the elements for another 20 years or so.

TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS INCREASING

There has been a rise in the number of traffic accidents fortunately of a minor nature, in Westmount recently. People may be getting careless again, so, be careful!

Archdeacon Gower-Rees Refutes Arguments Against Christian Church

A plea for lay support which would enable the Christian Church "to fulfil the needs of the times" was uttered by Ven. Archdeacon Gower-Rees in an address he made before the Dominion-Douglas Men's Association on Monday evening, in which he set forth strong evidence in justification of the existence of the Christian Church.

Speaking at the first meeting of the Association to be held in Tees Hall, the newly renovated and redecorated former gymnasium of the church recently dedicated in memory of the late Dr. Fred J. Tees, the Archdeacon listed on the one hand all the arguments that could be and often are used against the Church, and then refuted them point by point.

In the final analysis, he said, the church was the sole institution that could interpret the real meaning of life and give purpose and meaning to man's life on earth.

W. H. S. Students Graduate At Impressive Ceremony

Graduation—that wonderful and momentous milestone in the life of all ambitious high school students—was realized for this year's graduating class of Westmount High at the Annual Graduation Exercises of the High School for the session of 1946-47 which was held in the Junior High School last Friday evening.

Following the opening prayer by Rev. A. T. Love, and congratulatory remarks by J. C. Nelles, chairman of the Westmount School Board, who presided, Professor George H. T. Kimble, M.A., F.R.G.S., addressed the members of the graduating class, who were reported by principal R. O. Bartlett to have set an unusually high standard.

Dr. H. S. Ross Retires from Journalism

Dr. Howard S. Ross, K.C., who has been a contributor to The Examiner ever since this newspaper was established back in 1930, has announced his intention of relinquishing his journalistic work. Now nearing eighty, Mr. Ross feels that the time has come for him to take things a little easier.

One of Canada's best and most eagerly sought public speakers, Mr. Ross has addressed meetings of community leaders in all parts of the continent. He has been an indefatigable worker for the betterment of his fellow men. For many years his column, The Forum, has been a feature in this company's chain of weeklies, and other papers. Few men are better known or more highly esteemed.

Although realizing that Mr. Ross has richly deserved some relaxation, it will be with great regret that we shall see his column disappear from our editorial page in a few weeks' time.

Evidence of the state to which our world has been brought—through living by guess—is to be seen everywhere, said Professor Kimble. "Our problems are altogether too deep and complex to be solved by educationists, psychologists and psychiatrists alone. Their solution calls more for a change of heart than a change of mind," he said. There is plenty of evidence for believing that the ills of life can be cured when men "leave go" and let God take hold.

School leaving certificates were announced by Miss Dyke and Dr. Patterson, and presented to the graduates by Mr. Bartlett.

This was followed by presentation of girls' award of honour to Emily Anne Nasmith by Miss Phyllis Brewer, president of the Westmount High School Alumnae Association; and of the boys' award of honour to John Draper and John Waterson by J. A. DeLalanne, president of the Westmount High School Old Boys' Association.

Gold medalists of the class were Leila Auerbach, Dux of the girls' school, and John Hastings Dinmore, Dux of the boys' school.

The following scholarships and prizes were also presented:

Scholarships:—McGill University entrance, Leila Auerbach; George Herrick Duggan, Jean Van Patter; Sidney J. Hodgson Memorial, Anthony Shine and Alfred Powis; Robert Andrew Lindsay Scholarship, George S. McLeod; Howard H. Mussells Old Boys' Memorial, John Dinmore; Westmount Rotary Club, James Ross; Arthur Campbell University entrance, Joan Wright and John Fotheringham; Westmount Women's Club, Ruth Lamartine; Westmount High School Alumnae Association, Rei Nishio and Lois Magee and National Council of Jewish Women of Canada, Frances Lawley.

Prizes:—Westmount Teachers' Memorial prizes, Marion Johnson and Duncan Macmillan; prizes presented by Lt.-Col. J. Aird Nesbitt for grade XI English, Leila Auerbach and Alfred Powis; cup presented by the Menorah Club in memory of Howard H. Mussells for grade XI Chemistry, Leila Auerbach; prizes, the Mrs. John McKergow, for proficiency in English, ninth grade, boys, won by Wallace Emo, George Wilkie, Bruce Berridge, Jack Watanabe, Geoffrey Grant; prize, The Angus McCoy Smith Memorial, Gordon Mastine and prize, presented by Reeves and Sons (Canada) Ltd. for art work in grade X, Roslyn Walker.

Following are the names of the graduates:

Memorial Service Rites Held For C. P. Reaper

Memorial service was held at Dominion-Douglas Church on Wednesday for Clarence Paul Reaper, of 531 Grosvenor avenue, former manager of the Hydraulic Machinery Company, who was among the 15 passengers lost with the disappearance of a Trans-Canada Airlines plane somewhere off Vancouver last April.

Search carried on for several months by all armed services as well as by civilian groups has failed to uncover any trace of the plane, which is now believed to have crashed and sunk at sea.

Mr. Reaper was a member of the St. James Club and several other local societies. He joined the Canadian Grenadier Guards in 1928, and in 1936 transferred to the 2nd Reserve Battalion of the Guards. He joined the 2nd Battalion, Canadian Grenadier Guards (R.F.) in 1940, and held the rank of Major until his retirement in 1944. During most of this period he was acting second-in-command.

In addition to his wife, Major Reaper is survived by two sons, Alex and Paul; a daughter, Carol; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Reaper; and three sisters, Mrs. John Cook and the Misses Althea and Sadie Reaper.

Trio Found Guilty Of Housebreaking

"Crime does not pay." These words had real meaning to three youths who were sentenced in Recorder's Court this week.

On September 14, the home of N. K. Bordon, 4 St. Sulpice road, had been found broken into when he returned from a week-end away from home.

As a result of the investigation that followed, Sgt. Detective Belec and Detective G. Lines, last Friday arrested Dominic Biello, 20; Mathieu Palmorino, 18, and a juvenile.

Taken before Recorder C. A. Hale on Tuesday, all three pleaded guilty to housebreaking charges. Biello was sentenced to 2 years in the penitentiary, Palmorino and the juvenile were sentenced to time in jail.

Fire Completely Guts Apartment Living Room

The Westmount Fire Department responded to a call from Mr. Carter, 477 Lansdowne avenue, at 3 a.m. on Sunday, and arrived to find the living-room of his apartment a virtual inferno.

The fire was brought under control, using one stream of water, but the contents of the living-room were totally destroyed.

Damage to the living-room and contents of the flat were estimated at approximately $2,000. The apartment below suffered slight water damage.

The building is owned by Westmount Realities Reg'd.

Scouts & Cubs

BY REG GROOME

There will be a Sixers Rally for all sixers of Westmount Area this Saturday afternoon, to be held in Bishop Street Scout Headquarters, starting at 2.30 p.m. The Rally will be under the supervision of District Cubmaster Warren Foote, and we hope every sixer will make a sincere effort to attend. Don't forget, 2.30 Saturday, at 1523 Bishop Street. Refreshments will be served at the end of the programme, and all should be home in ample time for supper.

NOTE TO CUBMASTERS:—For those of the Cubmasters and their assistants who have vainly been looking for copies of the Jungle Stories, there are a few copies of the book "All the Mowgli Stories", by Rudyard Kipling, available at both Eaton's and Burton's. The price is something around three dollars, and is well worth the expenditure. Buy yours now before the supply runs out.

Robert Scout Harry Cauldwell and his brother Geoffrey, aged 21 and 22 respectively, who are cycling round the world, have arrived in Britain after completing the first 7,000 miles of their journey from Capetown in just over six months.

They plan now to get employment in England to raise enough money to continue their journey through the length of North, Central and South America. From there they intend to go to New Zealand and Australia and finally back to Africa, paying their expenses by working en route.

Their British-made bicycles stood up remarkably well through the thousands of miles of rough unmade roads, jungle paths, flooded swamp country, mountain tracks and deserts. They arrived in Britain with the original front tyres, although the rear tyres have been renewed four times.

Despite all difficulties of the journey, they succeeded in maintaining an average distance of 75 miles each cycling day. In some places, such as the mountainous regions of South Tanganyika, where they frequently had to push their cycles most of the way, they considered themselves lucky if they managed to travel 25 miles a day, but they made this up in the Sudan, where the country was level and the wind behind them. Here they made about 100 miles a day.

At night they slept in the open in waterproof sleeping bags unperturbed by wild animals which they often heard prowling around them. At the outbreak of the journey they calculated that it would take them about six years to complete their circuit round the world, but now think they will manage it in three years.

Hallowe'en To Be Observed Friday

Witches, goblins and bats will be out flying in the skies tonight in all their splendour. The reason: It will be Hallowe'en!

Hallowe'en or All Hallows Eve, is the name given to October 31, as the vigil of Hallowmas, or All Saints' Day. Many bonfires will be lit and many parties will be held in order to observe this joyful day in which even ghosts are seen walking the streets. These ghosts will not have their usual slow, dragging steps, nor will they utter strange and eerie sounds, for they will be happy youngsters laughing and begging for charity.

The teen-agers, many of whom will not be out on the streets, will have their fun by attending parties and dances held especially for the occasion.

So when a ghost, a witch, a goblin or a skeleton, comes to your door tomorrow evening, don't be frightened, just remember that this is one of the most happy nights in the lives of many young children.

W. H. SCOOPS

By

Susie Glasco and Ursula Johnston

Students are still talking about the Grad, that wonderful night when gay cavaliers and beautifully begowned belles received long white scrolls proclaiming them fit to meet the world and its terrors; telling them they are ready to bloom from their pampered school-rooms and face the rest of the money-mad human race.

While it is still fresh in our memories, we would like to make a note of a few students who were seen; students notable for their contributions to the school: Ruth Steeves, ex vice-president of the Hi-Y and ace basketball player with Buster Jones (the lad from the Eskimo country); Roslyn Walker, Red Cross president with Stewart Shackle; Don Bardwell, the Vox of '47 editor; Daphne Stethem, une autre basketballer par excellence, and Award of Honour student, Johnny Waterston, and lastly, ex Student's Council Prexy, John Draper accompanied by Phyllida Smith.

Before the dance the Exercises were held at which Professor George Kimble gave an inspiring address, the crux of which was, that the world today attacked problems with only a scientific outlook, forgetting and abandoning the moral and religious sides.

Following the address, Certificates of Merit, Prizes, Scholarships, and Gold Medals were presented. Gold Medalists were: Leila Auerbach and John Dinsmore.

When the ceremonies were over, all students sachayed into the gym, where they danced 'til one a.m. to the music of Johnny Holmes.

Things of moment are impending—The dance which was scheduled to claim the spotlight tonight is definitely cancelled, however, fabulously flustered, fondly fainting female football fans (and fellows too) will appear en masse at the Stadium Molson ce soir to huddle beneath their respective

Roslyn News

By Dick Dunbar and Peter Safford

John Bertram of Room 18 reports that on Thursday, October 23rd, the Roslyn Bulldogs had a soccer game with the Roslyn Vikings. David Angus and Chris Carr wanted to go on John Peachey's team because Bill Draper was too strict, but weren't able to. They had a little argument over it. Bill Draper asked some sixth grade boys to play. They offered to but in the end they changed their minds and didn't play. Then two boys from Room 19 played on Draper's team and when the end came around, the Bulldogs won 5-0.

The Home and School meeting was very successful. A record crowd turned up for it. The gymnasium was filled and the doors were blocked with parents of the boys and girls. A moving picture was shown titled, "The Gray Squirrel" which went with Mr. Penrose's speech.

Down Hobbylane

By FRANCES GAUTHIER

Like to feel you're doing something useful? And constructive? The building and repairing radio sets is a good hobby for you.

First of all, you must have good knowledge of the principles of electricity. Next, find yourself a good radio book and a complete function of every part or circuit. Now try it. You can start by building crystal sets — then come to one and two tube sets. But, you're going to learn, make them yourself — don't buy them.

Have a bit of pity for the family. Try to get a shop for yourself. The basement would be a good place or a corner of your room. The you can work without being disturbed or having to search for everything when you're finally in the mood to work.

While you're learning, try pairing radios on the side. This is all very well, but it's the practice that helps you the most.

You'll be positively astonished too, to find out how many more people call themselves friends yours once they know you can fix their radios.

Radio is a hobby you can get a lot of fun out of learning and when you know all about it. It can also become a very interesting part time occupation. Try it and see if you don't agree.

Social Notes

A very gay-la affair should be held at the Westmount Y. M. C. A. (Hallowe'en nite, natch) Tell us all about it next week. . . . For while it looked as if D'Arcy would walk away with the three football championships, thus duplicating Loyola's record. But no (that's goodness). Better luck next time fellas. (For you ignorant people they've only got two of 'em this year) . . . What next? A certain foursome (whom we'll refrain from naming) playing hide-and-seek, less, around Loyola way, Sunday what next? . . . New style: Girls will wear slacks at the Y's Hallowe'en dance. . . . Betty Shannon and Shirley Taylor's party to be held tomorrow nite. . . . fun for all at Jean Reddon's party. Two held after the Westmount High grad dance, natch. . . . Heather Shaw's party also tonight. . . . And that's all! . . .

blankets and cheer the team on ward (never backward).

Doubting denizens who mumble in their beards and predicted failure for the Student Production Committee, if a P & W was not held, are now rebutting themselves all over the place. The jury has decided in favour of "Dear Ruth" and casting will start almost immediately, if not sooner. Mr. Shaw's fleburg was overheard expounding one great theory, "Mary Tellier I can just see you as Miriam — the bratty sister!"

Education Week, starting next Monday, is to be highlighted by the appearance of the Glee Clubs under the direction of Mr. Mitchell over CBM, on Thursday, November 6th, at 4 p.m.

On the same day, Stanstead College will play host to the Westmount Senior "A" football team. The boys and cheerleaders will take the trip by bus staying for dinner and returning the same night.

... the Iceman. Cometh. . . . "Brrrrr!!"

FITNESS AN OBLIGATION

Ill-health, when it is avoidable, is anti-social, declare health authorities. Officials of the Department of National Health and Welfare point out that health isn't a personal matter. Since it influences not only personality, but work and living routine, it is of vital concern to relatives and friends, and thus a community matter. It is, therefore, a public duty to fight sickness.

Motion Pictures Have High Educational Value

"We have one of the finest countries in the world, but the majority of us don't know enough about the other parts of our own country," said Rotarian Dave Kerr, merchandise co-ordinator for the Province of Quebec, Imperial Oil Company, in his address to the members of the Rotary Club of Westmount at their regular weekly luncheon. He was emphasizing the educational value of motion picture films in leading Canadians to gain an understanding and appreciation of the whole of Canada.

Introduced to the Rotarians by Wally Rowat, Mr. Kerr said that the use of films for educational purposes has been recognized by authorities as perhaps the best way of imparting knowledge to widely diversified types of audiences.

We are constantly warned of the threats of Communism, Fascism, or other "isms", he said. These doctrines do not hold much danger among people of our own class. The average Rotarian is well established, and in his relatively happy position, is not fertile ground for the acceptance of subversive ideas.

However, other less fortunate individuals, through poverty and want are more easily apt to be swayed, and the danger is also great among the impressionable youth of the country, he stated.

More Knowledge About Canada
 "We should get out and spread anti-propaganda. I think we should make it a point to spread proper information in the schools, universities and elsewhere to convince those exposed to subversive propaganda that we have one of the greatest countries in the world," he asserted, pointing out that Canadians, especially Canadian youth, are too much inclined to take the blessing of being Canadian for granted."

To illustrate the educational value of motion picture films in the spread of information about our country, Mr. Kerr showed a film in sound and colour, produced for the purpose by the Imperial Oil Company, and entitled "Motoring in the Maritimes." Beautifully produced, it was but one of the series that the company plans to prepare for the education of its own staff. Mr. Kerr said that Imperial Oil plans to release these films which, by the way, contain a minimum of advertising, free of charge, to schools, churches, boys' clubs, and other organizations, saying, "It is important that we understand our own country." The films will also be released in the U. S., he stated, to promote the flow of

Alwyn Coristine Honoured By Literary Memorial

Alwyn Coristine, local poet and author, who is president of Avalon in Canada, growing Canadian jurisdiction of Avalon World Arts Academy, has been elected to honorary membership in the Schroeder Foundation, St. Louis, Mo.

The Foundation is an international literary memorial, purposed to contain one or more books of each standard author, a photograph of the writer, and some of his or her manuscript, duly identified.

As a nucleus toward the project, the Foundation already possesses many holographs of famous writers of the past century. No other collection like this exists anywhere, and several of the great universities have sought to acquire it.

These holographs comprising the work of famous American and English writers will be used as a part only of the intended exhibit of this Memorial, which will include also the work of the outstanding living authors, together with their photographs, autographed. The collection will be a permanent institution, to be housed in an International Shrine. Those authors who die during membership are to be listed among the "Immortals." Of these there are already a growing group.

Recently, Alwyn Coristine was honored by having his name included in the Biographical Encyclopedia of the World (Literary Section) published in New York and having a world-wide distribution as a Standard Reference Book in Universities, newspaper offices and governmental departments. He is the writer of a column for "Differential" magazine and also Canadian Contributing Editor for "Sundial," a magazine of verse, both published in the United States. He is an honorary member of the Midwest Poetry League, member of the Midwest Chaparral Poets, The National Poetry Society of America and Pan-American Poetry League. He has also reviewed books of poetry for "Poet Lore", a leading publication in Boston, Mass. An historical novel, "The Sorry Cavalier," was authored by him, published in London.

MRT Reaching New Production

MRT's next production will be "While the Sun Shines." This play was written by the popular English playwright, Terence Rattigan, and shared with Mr. Rattigan's other well-known farce, "French Without Tears" the distinction of running for over a thousand performances when it was presented in London.

"While the Sun Shines" has a wartime slant to its story. Four of the seven characters appear in uniform.

The action of the play takes place in the living room of the young Earl of Harpenden, on the eve of his marriage to Lady Elizabeth Randall. As the play opens we find the Earl and an American Lieutenant who has slept in the Earl's rooms after they had both had a somewhat strenuous time visiting London's night spots. Harpenden dates up Mulvaney, the American, with Mabel Crum, the Earl's former girl friend, who is still hovering about, even though the Earl is on the verge of matrimony.

Complications set in when the American officer mistakes the Earl's fiancée for the girl friend, and they fall in love with each other before he discovers his mistake. Added to the mix-up is a French Officer whom the fiancée has also found "very amusing". The fiancée's father, an impecunious peer, feels he should establish his position and at the same time, the presence of the girl friend makes matters a bit embarrassing. However, they all make hay - While the Sun Shines.

The play is to be directed by Rosanna Seaborn, the well-known actress, who is also a very successful director and producer. Miss

DUPLESSIS METHODS MAY PROMOTE COMMUNISM

Hon. Maurice Duplessis, Premier of Quebec, is determined to suppress communism and to impress the voters. Communism may be stretched to mean any economic theory which Mr. Duplessis dislikes or which he thinks the majority of the voters may dislike, writes John Atkins in The Scene from Shingwauk Farm.

Mr. Duplessis' methods may defeat his purposes. Films shown in the Province of Quebec are to be censored with regard both to decency and their economic implications. This extended censorship applies to films shown to the general public in theatres, and to those shown by various organizations to their members.

The C.I.O. has been showing some pictures that disturb Mr. Duplessis. He thinks the pictures are apt to impress audiences with ideas contrary to his economic beliefs. He is determined to prevent their showing.

It is probable that the teachings of the films would differ from our economic beliefs as greatly as they differ from Mr. Duplessis'; but our disagreement with the films is not nearly so profound as our disagreement with Mr. Duplessis in his suppression of them.

Not only because his action will promote, by suppression, the causes he abhors; but, more importantly, because Mr. Duplessis in denying Canadians their fundamental, essential, democratic rights, the Government of Canada should take action immediately, under existing legislation, to enjoin Mr. Duplessis against economic censorship. The need for a national bill of rights, to give the dominion clearer and adequate powers to protect the freedom of citizens, has become urgent.

THE THREAT OF COMMUNISM

The average thinking person who wants peace and abhors war, is presently asking himself in these trying days, "whither are we tending?"

It was the fond hope, following the meetings of Churchill, Roosevelt, and Stalin, that an agreement would be reached between the world's principal powers, that would bring about an understanding and the establishing of some agency whereby differences would be arbitrated rather than made an issue for battle, writes Mr. Bernard Rose.

There was considerable rejoicing when the United Nations' Organization was formed. Those who initiated it were in high hope that it would serve humanity's purpose.

Scarcely had the ink dried upon the paper bringing it into existence, before differences arose, creating not only distrust and suspicion, but positive antagonism.

It seems that the Russian hierarchy are so minded that they are determined upon extending their influence throughout the world. They have made all sorts of fantastic charges against the United States — without whose aid Russia would be in a very sorry plight indeed — in order to induce the Russian millions to support them in their campaign to destroy capitalism, and undermine the democracies.

The extent to which the Russian propaganda machine is prepared to go was disclosed at the espionage trials, and also in the article published in a recent issue of a well-known Canadian magazine. These disclosures prove beyond doubt that we have in our midst traitors to not only all that is democratic, but everything Canadian. These men work insidiously to undermine our political, industrial, and commercial institutions. They secure prominent positions in the trade union movement in order that they may more effectively carry out the orders of their Moscow superiors.

The average Canadian and the ordinary citizen of the United States is quite content to look after his own affairs, without bothering very much what Russia does within its own confines. But he takes the strongest exception to any interference with his right to think and act as he sees best. Even the socialistic labour party in Britain will not permit itself to be influenced in its policies by the fractionally small and aggressive communist group in England.

We must meet the immediate challenge in our midst with no holds barred. The Communists are out to destroy Democracy, as our way of life. If it is necessary that protective legislation be adopted, the quicker the better. We cannot afford to have among us men or women who are opposed to the Canadian way of life and who think and work in terms laid down by a foreign power. In the press, on the platform, over the radio, in Parliament, in the Legislature, through every available educational and publicity agency, we must fight Communism by emphasizing the blessings of Democracy, as compared with the curse of Communism. It is a curse since where it exists, the citizen, in spite of any advantages he may enjoy, is not a free man or woman, as we understand freedom.

The attitude of the Russian representatives at the United Nations' Assembly should convince any fair-minded person that Russia, far from seeking to co-operate with the Western powers, is doing all it can to create division by arousing suspicion and suggesting motives that have no foundation in fact. Once again, the world is faced with a group in absolute control of millions who have no real voice in their government and who seek as Hitler did, to dominate the world. Democracy and domination are incompatible terms. Canadians have fought on two occasions to preserve democracy and they will undoubtedly meet this new menace with the same courage and success.

a total of 838,458 and their share in the 2,700,000 new houses called for in the next two years by the National Housing Administration is 29,000.

New Zealand is worried about the slow rate of increase of its population which is now 1,702,319. They are also disturbed by the pronounced drift from rural areas to the larger towns, a serious trend in a country which depends for its prosperity on primary production. They feel that the prospects of securing desirable immigration from abroad is too uncertain. They believe the best additions they can secure are those locally born.

What Does Canadian Labor Want? A very readable article in answer to this important question appeared in a recent issue of Liberty. The writer of the article was Murray Cotterill, a staff representative of the United Steelworkers of America and a well known figure in the Ontario labor movement. He wrote: "Peacetime security for its unions; jobs for all; no Canadian wage earner receiving less than $1500 a year. These, in a nutshell, are the peacetime objectives of Canada's powerful, war-matured, organized labor movement." From there the article proceeded to develop the answers in greater detail.

The article concluded: "Whatever happens, politically or economically, Canada will be dealing from now on with a strong, aggressive labor union movement that is here to stay and that has definite ideas about the kind of Canada it wants to help create, and that must be given consideration at every level of government and society."—From Canadian Railway Employees Monthly, Ottawa.

Seats in the British House of Lords number 842 of which 568 are hereditary—but the average attendance is about 80. Reforms are being advocated including (1) that women should be eligible for membership on the same terms as men and (2) that a number of life peers be created.

A man once wrote a book entitled "Age of Reason". The period in which we have the privilege of existing is undoubtedly not the one with which the book deals. This is the age of fun. A funny fellow can make more money than a fashionable preacher, a smart lawyer, a hold-up man or a lucky gambler. If this age had to have an appropriate symbol to represent it, it would not be a beaver, or a suit of overalls, a golf stick, an atomic bomb, or a typewriter, but a funny-bone."—Harris Turner in The Western Producer, Saskatoon.

In an attempt to make Eire as independent as possible of coal imports, the Government has launched a 10-year-plan to develop peat production by mechanical means—at a cost of $17,415,000. Two electricity generating plants to be established on the bogs, will consume 280,000 tons of peat and produce about 210,000,000 units of elec-time allowed for the flight was exactly 17 hours. When Charles A. Lindbergh, flying solo, flew to Paris in 1927 his non-stop time was almost exactly twice that—33 hours and 30 minutes. The TWA liner made one stop in Ireland, where passengers re-embarked for London in another plane.

A great educator said: "It is the business of science to ask 'how', and of the humanities to ask 'why'. The modern mind—and this means the minds of our most alert college students—has become so preoccupied with answering the question 'how' that it tends to dodge or at least to defer the question 'why'.—W.L. Sperry, Dean of the Divinity School in Harvard University.

Tomorrow a stranger will say with masterly good sense precisely what we have thought and felt all the time, and we shall be forced to take with shame our own opinion from another.—Emerson.

Efforts to permit residents in the District of Columbia (U.S.A.) to vote have not been successful, as such bills are held up in the Judiciary Committee in the Senate. The population thus deprived of their vote has reached

Book Review

By H. S. Ross

ADVENTURE IN THRIFT By Harry C. McKown, Illustrated by Margaret Whittemore, School Activities Publishing Co., Topeka, Kansas.

This is an adventurous book for young people. The author (with many valuable volumes to his credit) offers a timely education in thrift. His characters bring out the fact that thrift is more than saving money—that it includes intelligent earning, spending, giving and investing money, time and energy. The material has been skillfully organized around situations natural to the school life of the average boy and girl. Technical discussion has been cut to a minimum.

Some of the chapters are: The Cow, the Squirrel, and the Student; Racketeering, Earning and Un-earning Suckers — Dumb, Stupid Suckers; Our Picture Album; End of a Notorious Gang; Six Unusual Student Committees; An Odd Examination; True Confessions; Modern Robinson Crusoes; Beautiful Love Letters; Beggars and Apple Peddlers; Tag Days, Rummage Sales, and Senseless Gifts and Playlet and A Mystic.

tricity a year. Before the war Eire imported 2,000,000 tons of coal yearly from Britain.

Mr. M. Lund, Bowsman River, Manitoba, writing in The Western Producer, Saskatoon, on the gift of prophecy, detailed a number of things which Bellamy prophesied, among others of course, the radio. He closes his letter as follows:

"I have mentioned these things that Bellamy forecast that have come to pass so that you will listen to the truly great things that are set to come, the things that will constitute the new world that we are supposed to build. All the movements that we are to make in its building are outlined in the books and I am just a big enough fool to believe that Bellamy was inspired. I have been led into that belief by nothing what has already come to pass and it, coupled up with the predictions that Jesus of Nazareth made concerning latter day events has made me perhaps the happiest old man now living. A world language, a new currency, a new individual freedom, everyone standing in his or her own shoes independent of anybody without worry or care for tomorrow, freedom of religion, no buying and selling in religious service or material service, all service being rendered free for all; all these new freedoms will be flowing through society and finding their level as naturally as water flows through the rivers and finds ocean level, but this leveling process will be the subject of another letter."

THE FORUM

Conducted by Howard S. Ross, K.C., D.C.L.

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

The opinions expressed in this Forum are not necessarily those of this newspaper, and it does not accept responsibility for them.

Aircraft designers can foresee inside of ten years planes with speeds at one thousand miles an hour. Sqd.-Ldr. Baddoux, D.S.O., D.F.C., of Stellarton, N.S., Officer Commanding the Flying Section of the Winter Experiment Unit, Northwest Air Command, said recently in an address at the Military Institute at Edmonton: "Within that time a great number of commercial airlines will be equipped with propulsion aircraft—that jet aircraft use kerosene as fuel instead of gasoline."

The U. S. Treasury stated recently that liquor consumption in the U. S. in 1945 was 165,000,000 gallons, the highest figure ever reached. The national capital consumes more than its quota of that amount. The advisory board of the American Automobile Association has endorsed legislation to provide for scientific tests of persons apprehended as drunken drivers.

There is no such thing as "thirty knots an hour". A knot is "a unit of speed equivalent to one nautical mile an hour; as when a ship goes eight nautical miles an hour, her speed is eight knots."

Commencing Feb. 15 the Trans World airline of the United States commenced regular schedules of air liner service between New York and Paris. The

Quebec Handicrafts At Their Best

Have you ever thought of using a hand hooked rug in a hall or bedroom? There's an atmosphere of friendliness achieved when our Quebec handicrafts are combined with maple, or with some good old French-Canadian pine furniture, if you are fortunate in having any that has been mellowed with age. Those of you who have had the pleasure of visiting the Tadoussac Hotel, at Tadoussac, Quebec, will agree with me that the charm and distinction of this haven of rest is due to the exquisite combination of handicraft rugs with pine furniture. Here is a craft that has been handed down to us from our forefathers, centuries old, but is still beautiful, and also practical, because a well hooked rug will give endless wear. Yes, I know there are hooked rugs, and some very good hooked rugs. After visiting these artistes working on these, as I did in September, I feel we should encourage and be very proud of our native craftsmen. By visiting the C.S.L. Gift Shop, 1480 Sherbrooke St. W., east of Guy St., you will find rugs that rival many imported ones, the latter but three times the price. One in particular that would be ideal for a square hall, is 6'9" by 5', all wool with blue border and burgundy centre, having an old Cape Breton pattern of flowers, worked in pastel shades. There are also some lovely scatter rugs 27½" by 42", all wool. I was very interested in the unusual mural subject wall rugs by R. Drolet, these are worth seeing. When visiting Murray Bay I saw a very smart treatment of the Murray Bay bedspreads, you know they have the star pattern and the little Marys done in tufting. This lady had cut one of the spreads in half and used it for the window drapes so as to match the spread. The spreads come in several pastel shades and are ideal for a child's room. Have you seen the hand braided children's and adult's slippers? They are just too sweet for words, and very reasonable, and as I constantly reiterate, do not let the luxurious entrance of this shop frighten you, as there are many wonderful buys in here.

A Bride's Best Friend

Last week I attended a trousseau tea, and, as is usually the custom at these affairs, all attention is focused on the bride-to-be and her presents. But, here was one tea where the admiration was for one of her presents: her family's. No, it wasn't a Sevre vase, or an antique chair, but a more practical item, A BENDIX automatic WASHER. This young girl was as thrilled as Punch, because, like all brides, she was most anxious to be a first class housekeeper, and able to greet "darling" when returning from the office, with that fresh, carefree look that he so admired before they were married. However, one need not be a bride to be interested in this washer. Have you seen a demonstration of this wonder time saver? If not, do so, and I'm sure you will never be satisfied with anything else. When a BENDIX comes into your home, wash day blues go out, and you will wonder how you ever put up with the old-fashioned way of washing. A very important feature of this washer is the kind treatment your clothes undergo. Unlike any other make it gently tumbles your clothes around, which you can watch through the large port hole on the front door. After having tossed in all your washing, set the dial, adding about half of the amount of soap flakes that you would normally use, plus a little water softener, and away you may go to tidy up the house, bake a cake, or even go shopping without further thought about the washing, because while you are away, the Meticulous Mechanical Washer Woman will wash, rinse your clothes, not once, but three times, and empty the water, leaving the fresh clean clothes to be hung up to dry. If your day schedule will not allow you to continue the washing, just forget it until you have the time, because this washer is absolutely air-tight and will not allow mildew. In the old type machine after the clothes have been put through the ringer, there are wrinkles to be shaken out before drying, but with the BENDIX the clothes emerge from the door, soft and fluffy.

Look For The Label Inside Your New Fur Coat

This week-end brings more exciting football games. On Saturday is the return battle between McGill and Toronto, while on Sunday, the Alouettes tangle with the Hamilton Tigers, and if the show is a repeat performance of last Sunday, the fans are in for plenty of thrills. Speaking of thrills, have you ever noticed the sophisticated swagger of a 'teen ager after she is presented with her first fur coat? I'm sure this week-end we will see many of our glamorous young debs wearing a new L. P. Lazare creation. This season's furs provide Mademoiselle with the very quintessence of youth, the longer lengths, and full flowing backs that give such charm and grace to the wearer. This year your "Castle of Dreams" can come true by making sure that the label inside your coat bears the well known name of L. P. Lazare & Co. On such a big investment is it not worthwhile to know that the dividends to be collected on the coat are assured by a money back guarantee. MUSKRAT is the fur of youth. This year's muskrat coat is longer, fuller, and more beautiful, and prices are reasonable. Its new mutation shades range from smoky tones to breath-taking silvery hues. The girl who buys her coat now will be sure of keeping within her budget. THE REASON, Lazare & Co. are determined to hold the price line, in spite of the fact that the prices of pelts have skyrocketed this fall, but, obviously, values like these won't last. Some of the new muskrat coats are let-out in the grand manner of mink, with flared backs that trail down to the new longer length. They have warm collars and trim cuffs. It's almost like buying mink for a midget price. Maybe this is your twenty-first birthday, how about asking dear old DAD to go a-shopping with you, and incidentally ask him to stop at 1454 Peel St., just opposite the Mount Royal Hotel.

De Musset Gowns

Do you know that we have in Montreal a descendant of the great French novelist, Alfred de Musset? Yes, his name is Drummond Musset, who married the well known English skating star, Jano McDonald, an air warden during the war, and later came to the United States where she made films and worked in the Hollywood Canteen. While making films her natural flare for fashions was recognized. She was chosen to school starlets on how to be as glamorous off the stage as on. Her husband, Drummond, was a squadron leader pilot until 1945. He was shot down over France, and after having received "a new face" quoting him, these courageous people decided to open up a dress salon for the average housewife who wants something smart and yet in keeping with her budget. With Jano's ability to choose style, and with many copies of New York models, one may buy something very different for as low as $25.00 to $40.00. At this salon are to be found some excellent buys in imported suits of English worsteds and French tricelines. Recently a young Montreal girl left to be a Powers model, having had her complete wardrobe from the de Musset salon. Mr. Powers was so impressed by the clothes that his new model was wearing, that many of the other models are sending for gowns from the de Musset salon. This I think is a recommendation that speaks for itself. Another point of interest is that this business was designed and decorated by this couple on the veterans' credit plan. It indeed was a pleasure to meet this charming pair, and to see their stock of wonderful clothes. They also have a designer creating original gowns. The salon is situated at 1486 Bishop street. LANcaster 1722.

TECHNICOLOR HITS AT THE AVENUE SATURDAY

Mickey Rooney and Elizabeth Taylor have the leading roles in M-G-M's thrill-packed, heartwarming story, "National Velvet," which opens Saturday at the Avenue Theatre. Based on the best-seller novel of the same title, the film was directed and produced by Clarence Brown, who made "The Human Comedy." Added feature attraction 'Carmen Miranda, Don Ameche and William Bendix in the all Technicolor hit "Greenwich Village".

Children's Theatre Scores Still Another Triumph

Dorothy Davis and Violet Walters, directors of Montreal's talented juveniles, the Children's Theatre, may feel proud of their achievement. The first production of the season "Anne of Green Gables" took place last Saturday afternoon before a packed and enthusiastic audience. Old and young alike showed their appreciation of these youthful thespians.

Julie Oiring was a delightful and charming Anne, and endeared herself to the hearts of her audience. Muriel Haltrecht played the difficult role of Marilla with professional ease, and it was difficult to realize that this young player was only fourteen, so finished was her performance as the spinster aunt. Eleanor Borenstein, another young actress who gave a fine characterization of the role of Rachel Lynde, was most convincing. Annette Heller as head of the orphanage was equally good, as well as Barbara Campbell and Rene Dolman in the first scene. Lola Kipnis, Francyl Bendon, Helen Tager, Ruth Heller, Harvey Corn, Chas. Miller and Howard Klein all turned in good performances, and Walter Wakefield, as the indecisive Matthew delighted the audience and was most amusing.

The orphanage scene at the outset gave the little ones an opportunity and proved to be quite a human little scene.

The play itself adhered faithfully to the well known Montgomery characters, and it must be said that all the players did a thoroughly good job, working with a smoothness and ease that would have done justice to adult players.

All of the children participating were pupils of the Children's Theatre who were getting their initial "break" into big parts, and the whole performance reflects great credit on the directors of the school. "Cinderella" (in place of Rumpelstiltskin) follows on Jan. 17th. "Little Women" on March 20th. "Snow-White" on May 15th. You can secure good seats now for the three shows by applying to the Children's Theatre, 3835 Girouard Avenue.

"The Egg And I" Scores—Held At The Snowdon

Packed with chuckles, guffaws and downright howls of delight, "The Egg and I," Universal-International's picturization of Betty MacDonald's beloved best-seller which opened at the Snowdon Theatre last Saturday will be held over for another hilarious week, with Claudette Colbert and Fred MacMurray in the starring roles of Betty and Bob.

Some 25 million persons are reputed to have read this hilarious account of a honeymooning couple's struggle to make a living on a mountain-wilderness chicken ranch. Only the most captious could quarrel with the way it has been transferred to the screen. The earthy flavor, the high humor, the weird characters of the book have all been skillfully retained and there has been added ingeniously a story line to give plot and suspense.

Happily Cast

Miss Colbert, as the farmer's wife who literally works her fingers to the bone attempting to "hew a living out of solid rock," was never more happily cast. The same may be said of Fred MacMurray as the obtuse husband who is blandly unaware that his wife is working herself to death.

The Kettle Family, one of the highlights of the book, is headed in the picture by Marjorie Main, a salty matriarch, and Percy Kilbride, a garrulous sponger. They are priceless, and in scene after scene garner riotous laughter without saying a word.

Even tyrannical Stove, the personalized iron monster of the farmhouse kitchen, has been plausibly activated by the genius of Hollywood technicians.

HELD OVER AT THE SNOWDON

Fred MacMurray, playing Bob in Universal-International's hilarious filming of Betty MacDonald's best selling "The Egg and I," tells slightly amazed Betty, enacted by Claudette Colbert, all about the Egg. This outstanding hilarious rural film scores as the big hit of the season. It's on the screen of the Snowdon Theatre for another hilarious week. Don't miss it!

Ann Sheridan Triumphs In Drama "The Unfaithful"

An up-to-the-minute story, packed with suspense, of a woman who is unfaithful to her absent husband, is the exciting theme of "The Unfaithful," new Warner Bros. film drama which opens at the Westmount Theatre on Sunday.

Ann Sheridan, Lew Ayres and Zachary Scott have co-starring roles in the romantic production, with Eve Arden, Jerome Cowan, Steven Geray and John Hoyt in other important characterizations.

"The Unfaithful" begins with a cry in the night and a dead body on the floor of Chris Hunter's home. Chris (Ann Sheridan) tells police that the intruder had demanded her jewelry and in the struggle she had stabbed him with a knife which her husband, Bob (Zachary Scott), had brought home from Tokyo. The body is identified as that or stamps him as a craftsman worth watching from now on. Cameraman Milton Krasner photographed superbly.

Even in the technical phases—the art direction and music scoring departments in particular—the film has been shaped with the greatest of care, which adds to the general enjoyment. Bob and Betty's ranch is exactly as one would visualize it from the book. The music score points up the comedy throughout. It is a credit to Frank Skinner.

The supporting members of the cast discharge their duties with distinction. They include Louise Albritton, a predatory divorcee; Richard Long as the only "unteched" Kettle; Billy House, the ubiquitous peddler; Johnny Berkes and Vic Potel as Geoduck and Crowbar, the Indians, and Donald MacBride, Samuel S. Hinds, Elizabeth Risdon, Esther Dale, Fuzzy Knight and Isabelle O'Madigan.

HOLLYWOOD—Mickey Rooney passed up a celebration on his birthday after returning the night before from a week of personal appearances in St. Louis. Instead, the young star, who recently completed his most mature film role in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Killer McCoy," held a double celebration on the night of September 30.

That is the date of his third wedding anniversary.

of Michael Tanner, a sculptor, who, it develops, had been an ardent suitor of Chris' during her husband's service overseas. When Bob learns the truth, Chris pleads for his forgiveness, but he asks for a divorce.

In court, the prosecuting attorney (Jerome Cowan) strives to impress the jury with the belief that Chris clung to the husband she had deceived, merely to preserve the comfortable life he had provided for her. Her defence rests on the established physical evidence as proof that Chris killed in self-defence. The jury's decision and its effect on Bob's plans creates a sweeping climax which wrings from the story the last full measure of emotion.

Added Feature

"The Corpse Came C.O.D." is topnotch fun fare. A thumpingly good comedy-mystery, starring George Brent and Joan Blondell, has been turned out by Columbia in "The Corpse Came C.O.D."

Moving at a fast gait, liberally sprinkled with laughs and snappy dialogue and containing plenty of thrilling moments as well, the film easily achieves the top rank for its type.

Seville Stars Gene Kelly—Marie McDonald

AT THE SEVILLE SATURDAY

Gene Kelly finds himself in the odd predicament of wooing his own wife in "Living in a Big Way." M-G-M's dancing, romancing comedy opens its engagement Saturday at the Seville Theatre. Van Johnson and the loveable feminine sweetheart of the screen, June Allyson, in "High Barbaree," is the added feature attraction.

It's a treat to have fleet-footed Gene Kelly back on the screen, and M-G-M has given this popular star an auspicious return-from-the-service vehicle in the delightful romance comedy, "Living in a Big Way," at the Seville Theatre starting Saturday.

Highlighting a mirthful tale of a guy who has married in haste and has a hatful of complications trying to reconvert at leisure, the story gives Kelly ample opportunity to strut his dancing stuff. Lovely Marie McDonald is his romantic partner as well as his partner in a scintillating dance routine, but she is given plenty of competition by sixty-two-year old Jean Adair, who not only plays a standout part as a fun-loving matchmaker but also claims Kelly for a highly diverting waltz routine.

Two other outstanding Kelly dances are the "Fido and Me" number, in which he prances with a mongrel pup, and the "Pied Piper" dance, a typically arresting and novel Kelly rendition.

The plot, in brief, centres on Kelly returning from the war to claim Miss McDonald, who has married him in an impetuous "before sailing" moment. She has now changed her mind and wants a divorce. It is up to Kelly to show his fickle bride what she will miss by giving him up, and he does so in a series of sparkling comedy situations which enlist the aid of Miss Adair, playing Marie's grandmother.

Added Attraction

Sensitive portrayals on the part of Van Johnson, June Allyson and Claude Jarman, Jr., the perceptive direction of Jack Conway, and a poignantly moving story of a great love combine to make "High Barbaree", new M-G-M's offering one of those rare motion pictures that strike an understanding chord on the part of every moviegoer.

Van Johnson deserts his recent light comedy roles in "High Barbaree" to play the part of the impressionable young Navy flier, Alec Brooke. The story opens with a starkly tense sequence in which Brooke's plane is forced down on the desolate South Pacific. Continuing in a series of arresting flashbacks, the narrative then unfolds Alec's childhood romance with Nancy Fraser in a small midwestern town and his ambition to become a doctor, a plan that is frustrated in the ensuing years when he becomes separated from Nancy and falls under the persuasion of attractive and wealthy Diana Case, who tries to turn him into a high-powered business executive.

Scottish Schools Will Hold St. Andrew's Dance

Plans have been well advanced by The Scottish Schools Club of Montreal for the annual St. Andrew's Dance of the organization which will be held in the Cardy Hall, Mount Royal Hotel on Friday, November 28th next.

The dance, a prominent and popular feature of the club's activities prior to the war, but which has not been held for some years because of war conditions, is under the convenorship of Craig Nairn who has the following committees working with him: — dance arrangements, T. M. Gavin; tickets, H. G. Davidson; table arrangements, W. P. Montgomery; publicity, A.R.W. Young.

Dance committee is expecting this, the first post-war Supper Dance of the Club to attract subscribers far ahead, in numbers, of any of the pre-war functions. Interested parties may contact H. G. Davidson (LA.0910 or DE.4467) or the club secretary, D.C. Kidd (EL.6995).

Westmount Meet McGee Tonight

Hope To Enter Win Column

By GEORGE COCHRANE

Westmount High's cellar-dwelling Senior A pigskin chasers, who have this season amassed a meagre total of six points, will likely go down to another defeat at Molson Stadium tonight. For this evening, in the night-cap of a school double bill which will see West Hill meet Catholic High in the opener, the Purple and White go against the strong D'Arcy McGee team which last Sunday clinched the Catholic section title.

McGee will meet West Hill for the City Championship. While a time and place have not yet been definitely decided, Jack Lang, secretary-treasurer of the Montreal Secondary Schools Athletic Association, has announced that the afternoon of Tuesday, November 11, a school holiday, will likely be the time and Molson Stadium the place. McGee suggested this arrangement, West Hill said they were agreeable and all that remains is for a meeting to be held to give official sanction and for McGill to permit the use of their grid.

CHS Blanks Westmount

The locals went down to a 23-0 defeat at the hands of Catholic High up at Molson last Thursday evening. The Black and White, who bring up the tail-end of the Catholic section standings, evinced superiority in every department over Jim Patrick's spirited crew and had an easy time chalking up the victory.

Danny Caduc, who is also the star of the Eastward Junior team which hobbled Westmount 6-5 at Westmount Park last Saturday, spark-plugged the Durocher street gang with a pair of touchdowns and a smashing two-way game.

The winners wasted little time in displaying their class. Westmount kicked off and the Catholic lads, after long runs by Ken Hamilton and Mike Maruska, hit paydirt when Ken Kavanagh lugged the leather across the goal line from two yards out. Bill Magyar's kick was good for the extra point.

Mike Maruska went over for the second Catholic High major when he streaked for 20 yards. That made the score 11-5.

Locals Take to Air

A determined Westmount aerial attack sent them marching downfield but Caduc brought an abrupt end to their scoring hopes when he intercepted a Richard Lord forward toss to give the CHS'ers possession once again.

Caduc crashed into the scoring column in the second quarter

The other pair of Catholic High points came when the Purple and White fumbled behind their own goal line and Lupovitch was nailed by Paul Doyle.

Experiment

At 10.00 o'clock tomorrow morning the seven-down game will be given a trial at Loyola campus when Montreal High and Loyola meet in a regular contest. There will be no admission charge. For further details of this game see this week's Shorts on Sports column.

McGill Sailors Will Compete At Cambridge

A team of four sailors will be representing McGill this weekend in the intercollegiate Yacht Racing Association regatta at Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Making the trip will be skipper Ed Ballon and Bruce Ramsey, while acting as crews will be Andy Hugessen and another man yet to be chosen. Ballon and Ramsey formed part of the McGill team which took part in the Boston Dinghy Cup regatta last May coming eighth out of twelve entries in the unfamiliar waters.

A dozen colleges from all over the eastern United States will be represented with McGill the only Canadian entry in the event which is being run off in the tricky Charles River Basin with the Schell trophy at stake.

A total of twelve races, starting Saturday afternoon and continuing over Sunday, will be held with competitors being divided in two divisions, each college racing one crew in a division. M.I.T. host of the meet will be supplying their own Frostbite dinghies for the races, which will be run under the new right of way rules commonly known as the Vanderbilt rules.

Debut for McGill

This regatta will mark the first time that McGill competes as a full associate member of the Intercollegiate Yacht Racing Association. In previous years they attended the meets only if invited, but this season, due to the mounting interest in inter-university competition, the McGill Sailing Club has joined the association.

On the McGill team, Ed Ballon has a good sailing record around the Lake Simcoe district, while Bruce Ramsey and Andy Hugessen are well known in Lake St. Louis competition.

The Redmen leave for Boston by car on Friday and return Sunday night.

Rosemount Defeats Westmount 6 to 5

By BRIAN TIFFIN

A hard driving Rosemount team left Westmount Park triumphantly last Saturday after edging out an erratic Westmount aggregation to the tune of 6-5.

Rosemount received the opening kick-off and marched up to the locals' 45 where Ron Morrow recovered a fumble. John Kay then threw to Morrow for a 15-yard gain. Clark made a beautiful run to bring the ball to the eastenders' five and on the next play he plunged over for a touchdown. Kay's attempted convert pass was incomplete.

When Al Clark tried to return McClure's kick on his own 10, the punt was partially blocked, and Rosemount's Danny Caduc took it and ran 20 yards for a touchdown.

Starting the second half, Rosemount's plunging by Caduc and the Lehman brothers brought the ball to the Purple and White 10. Lorne Lehman's attempted field goal was good for a single point.

Westmount Apply Pressure

Trailing 6-5 in the last three minutes of play Westmount, spearheaded by John Kay, applied the pressure. He made successive runs of 20 and seven yards to bring the ball to his 40-yard line. His pass to Morrow was good for 25 yards and he plunged another 15. But it wasn't quite enough and so on the last play Clark kicked to the Rosemount 10.

For the winners Danny Caduc and the Lehman brothers starred while Kay, Clark and Morrow stood out for the losers.

We better win this one as we are now tied with Rosemount for second place

Deeper Lip Colors

The autumn's richer clothes colors—they've never been so rich—will force you to switch lipstick shades any day now.

The palely-tinted lipstick which served your summer pastels so well will have trouble holding its own with dress colors like slate gray, coffee bean brown, aspen leaf green, Antwerp blue and Tintian red. The inevitable black dress for fall also needs the sharp ening effect of a deeper lipstick color.

New lipstick shades, designed to hold their own against color pirates of the fabric field, have comparable intensity with new clothes colors. Rich, clear reds and deep blue-toned reds are apt to become favorite lipstick shades.

What some new lipstick colors offer besides high intensity, is the ability to hold their dark brilliance under artificial light, a point in their favor which is apt to win over many a party-going girl.

MRT Reading

Seaborn was responsible for the Open Air Playhouse's production of Midsummer Night's Dream which gained widespread popularity last summer when it presented Shakespeare's immortal comedy at Beaver Lake. She has assembled a cast of MRT's most popular players to act in "While the Sun Shines." The play will be presented at MRT Playhouse, Guy Street, from November 20th to 29th.

THE NEW LOOK

The new look, as it has been christened, is still very much a topic of conversation around these environs. All faithful readers of this column, and even some who aren't so faithful, are now aware that Miss Margo Murray, our tittian-topped Miss Aadtaker, is all in favour of dropping skirts, dark stockings, padded hips and everything else which the new look entails.

Last week-end, just to find out what a typical western gal thinks of the new look, I interviewed Miss Ann Robertson, a young brunette who hails from Victoria, B. C. I did not, however, have to portage all the way to the west coast for the conversation because, in this case, the mountain (Miss Robertson) came to Mohammed (my nickname). By this statement I do not wish to infer that the lady is of mountainous proportions. Far from it. In fact, one might go so far, were one in a rhapsodizing mood, to describe the girl as a slender stalk of loveliness.

The interview took place at Macdonald College, cultural home of hundreds, and Miss Robertson, now a third-year student in the Household Science course out there, spoke out quite frankly. She made it quite clear that the new look was not for her.

"What do you think of long skirts?" the lady was asked.

"I don't like them," Miss Robertson replied. "I think they look horrible and when I wear them I'm always afraid that my skirt is falling down. I think the only girls who really like them are those with thick legs."

"And what," was question number two, "is your opinion of these dark stockings?"

Miss Robertson glanced at the sepian tinted hosiery she was wearing and replied, "They're all right."

And so, there you have it. Miss Margo Murray, a Montrealer, approves of the new look. Miss Ann Robertson, a native of far-off Victoria, disapproves.

There, so far as this pillar compiler is concerned, the matter rests.

ANOTHER EXPERIMENT

Montreal's seemingly ever-experimenting high school rule makers have dipped down into the recesses of their brains and come up with one of the most revolutionary pigskin ideas ever heard of around these parts. Out at Loyola this Saturday morning at 10.00 o'clock, Montreal High and Loyola will clash in a regular Senior A tilt.

It's a regular tilt so far as the schedule goes. However there'll be nothing regular, and everything

C. A. T. Contest Offers Valuable Cash Prizes

Intention to visit the Theatre for Young Folk's version of "Treasure Island", opening Saturday at Victoria Hall, will not only provide an afternoon of thrilling entertainment, but will also give to Montreal school-children chance to earn cash prizes. Prizes of $15, $10 and $5 will be given to the writers of the best essays on "The Character That I Like Best in The C.A.T. Version of 'Treasure Island'."

The contest is being sponsored by the Canadian Art Theatre in the hope of attracting teachers and parents to the work of the "Theatre for Young Folk", which aims to present to local children the type of theatre entertainment that has been sadly lacking here for many years.

The settings for "Treasure Island" have been designed by Joy Thompson, who also directed the play. Six beautiful scenes will transport the audience from the Admiral Benbow Inn in Bristol to the site of the treasure itself on Treasure Island.

Lighting will be designed by William Springford, technical director of the C.A.T., and costumes and props will be under the supervision of Mary Sheppard.

The cast will include Whitfield and Maude Aston, Edward Wilson, Hugh Taschereau, Neil Madden, Silvio Narizzano, John Wiseman, Alexander Kerby, Bruce Raymond, Harold Whitehead, William Springford, John Asselin, Peter Thomson, Jr., Cyril Reitman, Leo Liebson and Sam Lemarquand.

The curtain will rise at 2.30 sharp and program leaflets will give further information on the contest.

MENTAL HEALTH

True happiness, say Ottawa health authorities, calls for more than mere brawn. Brain, too, must be employed. The Department of National Health and Welfare, in a statement, comments on the interrelation of physical and mental health. No matter how muscular or strong a person, such attributes of mind as self-control and intelligent direction into acceptable activity are required to ensure true well-being.

irregular, about the rules the boys will be playing. For Saturday will see seven-down rugby played for what is to be believed will be the first time in the province.

And here are the rules, as supplied by Jack Lang, secretary-treasurer of the Montreal and District Protestant Secondary Schools Athletic Association:

No yard stick or down stick required — instead, cards showing the number of the down, 1-7 inclusive, are required.

All rules shall be observed except the position of the kick-off at the start of the game and kick-offs after points have been scored. (This will necessitate a kick play at least every seven downs.)

Prior to the start of the game the captains shall toss for the choice of kicking or receiving. The team kicking shall kick from the 55-yard line. The team receiving shall have the opportunity of making a score of from 1 - 6 points during a maximum of seven downs unless possession of the ball is lost through a fumble, interception, or kicking. If no score is made in seven downs the defending team shall take over for seven downs as is now done under our present four-down rules, i.e., the team in possession takes six downs to try to score but if unable to do so it kicks for a rouge, a placement, or to give the opponents the ball as far away from its goal as possible.

After a score of one or two points the team scoring shall kick from the 55-yard line.

After a score of three points the team scoring shall kick from its own 40-yard line.

After a score of five or six points the team scoring shall kick from its own 25-yard line.

And there you have it. Certainly these rules should overcome the two chief faults which exists in the schools' present four-down code. Those are, first, the tendency to buck through the line on every play, thereby making a first down by gaining a mere two and a half yards per play, and second, the paucity of kicking and occasionally, passing.

It's an experiment well worth a trial and Loyola and Montreal High both deserve a lot of credit for volunteering to act as guinea pigs. And, incidentally, Senior B and Junior team coaches desirous of playing their last game under these rules have been asked to contact Mr. Lang.

"Look, Daddy . . . it nearly fits!"

"You bet it does, son. You'll soon be racing down the old college gridiron."

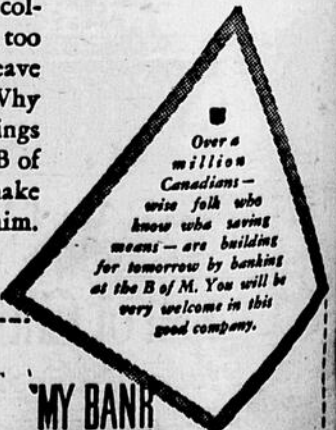

"Will I really go to college, Daddy?"

"You certainly will . . . I'm making sure of that, now. Mummy and I've got a Savings Account at the Bank of Montreal that's growing just like you."

Many Canadian fathers—whether they had the chance to go to college themselves or not—are now saving at the B of M . . . making sure their sons will have that opportunity. They've learned from experience how helpful a sound education is to real success in life . . . and they know that a Savings Account at the B of M is a sound way to provide for it.

Your son's college education is too important to leave till tomorrow. Why not start a Savings Account at the B of M today and make it grow with him.
