Ho possibly near death

PARIS (Reuters) — North Vietnamese President Ho Chi Minh is gravely ill and possibly near death, a North Vietnamese spokesman said here Tuesday night.

The spokesman for the North Vietnamese delegation to the Paris Peace talks said a communique from Hanoi describing the president as "unwell" and under 24-hour medical care meant his condition was extremely serious.

The communique said: "Over the last few weeks President Ho Chi Minh has not been well. Our party and state have been concentrating all capabilities and means to care for him."

"A collective of professors and resident doctors have been attending him day and night. We hereby inform our compatriots of the president's health."

The communique was signed by the North Vietnamese Communist party and the Hanoi council of ministers among other organizations, the delegation said.

Ho, who has led the Vietnamese fight for independence for decades, was rumored to be ill during the last year.

Press reports in the months preceding his 78th birthday said he now was less concerned with day-to-day administration of North Vietnam—but official sources in Hanoi until now never confirmed any of the reports. The Japanese news agency Kyodo reported in May, 1968 that the frail wispy-bearded Communist leader—described as Uncle Ho in his own country—had stopped taking walks through Hanoi streets because of his advancing years.

It quoted the leader of a visiting North Vietnamese delegation as saying in Tokyo that Ho was well, still writing poetry, and going to the theatre.

..group may be leading

PARIS (AP) — Leadership in North Vietnam during Ho Chi Minh's illness is likely to have been assumed by a collective of top North Vietnamese.

Although there was no indication Tuesday night of who was acting as leader, such men as Prime Minister Pham Van Dong and Truong Chinh, president of the National Assembly, were believed to be running the country.

Other top North Vietnamese likely to be in the collective were Gen. Vo Nguyen Giap, deputy prime minister and minister of national defence; Le Duan, a key figure in the party, and Le Duc Tho, also a key party man and special adviser to the Paris talks.

In the event of Ho's death, it was believed a similar collective would run the country until someone reached the top in a jockeying for power.

Best known is Gen. Giap, 57, a master of guerrilla warfare, who crushed the French forces when Vietnam was French Indochina.

Ho Chi Minh, the most celebrated Communist leader in Southeast Asia, adopted the name in 1944. It is variously translated as "the enlightened one" or "he who shines" or "he who sheds light."

He had many other names in his long career, including Ly Thuy, Song Man Tcho, Sinh Cim and Nguyen Ai Quoc, which means "Nguyen the Patriot."

Ho's father was an impoverished minor official of the mandarin class who was fired by the French for an anti-French attitude. Ho studied in Hue and Saigon and went to Europe in 1912 as a cabin boy in a French steamer.

For more than 30 years Ho wandered and plotted in exile from his own country, living in Paris, London and Moscow. He devoted himself to organizing, from a distance, an underground campaign against the French in Indochina, using Thailand as an operations base.

Quebec will finance low cost housing project

SHERBROOKE — (RS) — The Quebec Housing Corporation has announced in a letter to the city it has laid aside the sum of $600,000 to help Sherbrooke set up a low cost housing project.

The announcement came last week following talks between city and government officials.

Henri Dion, Q. C. president of the Housing Corporation said in a letter to the city he was happy to see the interest Sherbrooke had shown in solving its housing problem.

Destined for families in the low income bracket, the proposed housing plan would provide some 50 dwellings for under privileged families.

The letter also stated the Housing Corporation would help Sherbrooke in every possible way in getting the program started and completed within a short time.

Sherbrooke must now prepare plans and submit them to the Corporation for approval before funds can be provided.

Corporation members will be in touch with local authorities to discuss procedure and policy in preparing this important housing brief, the letter said.

..peace might be near

PARIS (Reuters) — Chief Hanoi negotiator Xuan Thuy hinted Tuesday that a rapid and large-scale withdrawal of United States troops from South Vietnam might have an effect on the deadlocked Paris peace talks.

"If President Nixon withdraws his troops rapidly and in considerable numbers, we will examine the situation and take it into account," Xuan Thuy said.

It was the first time the Hanoi delegate has hinted that North Vietnam might consider anything less than the total and unconditional withdrawal of the 500,000 U.S. troops which it has insistently demanded at the Paris conference.

The diplomat, talking to reporters at a reception marking North Vietnamese Independence Day, said his government cannot make a judgment on the present rate of U.S. troop withdrawals.

Schools are all open except in St. Leonard

MONTREAL (CP) — School begins today in most of Quebec province, but opening of classes has been delayed a week in the Montreal suburb of St. Leonard where a school language crisis continues to simmer.

Mayor Leo Ouellet has even warned of the danger of an imminent "racial explosion."

The suburb's minority English-speaking parents insist on the right to choose the language of school instruction for their children. French unilingual forces have adopted a program of eliminating English-language classes in elementary schools.

Both sides agree on one thing — the Quebec government's education department is making no significant headway in clearing up the year-long dispute.

Officially, the delay in opening classes of the St. Leonard Roman Catholic school district is to provide a week of intensive training and instruction for teachers.

However, opposing factions in the language dispute have already started exchanging blows in Round 2 of their battle.

PLEDGES SEGREGATION
Robert Lemieux, president of the Ligue pour l'Integration Scolaire, says the suburb will remain "the symbol of Quebec resistance to English integration."

Last fall, the school board embarked on a policy of gradual elimination of bilingual classes in its schools, starting with Grade 1. Grade 2 is to become all French this year, with the process to continue a grade each year to Grade 7.

Four charged in grass seizure

DERBY LINE — (Special) — Four American youths who were arrested Friday at the port of entry here after one pound of marijuana was seized will appear in court today.

The two men and two women spent Labor Day weekend in the St. Johnsbury Regional Correctional Center after Judge Lewis Springer set bail at $500 each.

Miss Hope Aebuck, 20, of Boston, Miss Deborah Bell, 20, of Washington, D.C., Phillip Conkling, 21, of Upper New York, N.Y., and Donn Kemper, 22, of Cambridge, Mass., will face charges of illegal possession of narcotics.

Lawrence Wade, Vermont State Police Criminal Investigation Department chief and U. S. customs officials made the arrests when the quartet entered the United States after a visit to Canada.

Recently, with the hope of cutting down the heavy traffic of narcotics between the two countries, customs officials have been conducting numerous spot checks.

Although U. S. police officials did not specify whether there had been special cooperation in this case, law enforcement groups from both sides of the border often work hand in hand in investigations of this kind.

THE FIRST — Sherbrooke Mayor Armand Nadeau yesterday became the first citizen to buy a tag to help provide funds for the Sherbrooke Library. The official tag day date is set for next Friday throughout the city. Seen are from the left: Mrs. James Donald, chairman, Mayor Armand Nadeau, and Miss Dara Jane Loomis.

...and in Lennoxville and Bedford

LENNOXVILLE — While hundreds of thousands of Quebec children headed off to school this morning future students at the Eastern Townships' two polyvalent regional schools stood on the sidelines and watched.

High schoolers who are to attend the Bedford school will wait at least a month. Those headed for the Alexander Galt High School in Lennoxville will not settle in until Nov. 1. School board officials have yet to announce what the children will be doing while contractors rush to meet new deadlines. Here school administrators are presently meeting to discuss how to squeeze a curriculum into the abbreviated school year time.

Earlier when speculation first arose over whether the multi-million dollar institute would open its doors in September, J. Edward Perry, Eastern Townships Regional School Board director-general said no contingency plans would be made because the contractor had assured officials he would meet the target date.

Meanwhile, parents and young scholars alike are beginning to voice their discontent over the delay and lack of information on the situation. In Sherbrooke, a group of grade 10 and 11 students are preparing a letter demanding authorities to state clearly what action will be taken to make up for last time.

Despite assurances by those responsible that the huge complex will be completely open by Nov. 1 some observers feel that at the present rate of progress work will not be complete until later that month or early in December.

Weather damage and lack of manpower are two reasons being given for the delay here. In Bedford school officials say construction strikes delayed work on that building.

Should look before it leaps

Council lashes out at C of C

SHERBROOKE — (RS) — The Sherbrooke Chamber of Commerce, eager to ensure the city is well administered, should know first what they are talking about before dictating policy to city hall, council said last night.

Recent talks of pocket arenas, a dome over the Claire Fontaine swimming pool and paving projects caused the C of C to run wild with worries about the city's finances, said chamber member and Ald. Gaston Roy.

The C of C reminded council last night of tight financial situations now being experienced by both federal and provincial governments, and said the city should be careful.

"It's about time our governments, starting with the city, stopped spending public funds on non-essential projects and concentrated on an austerity program," the C of C letter said.

"The Chamber of Commerce gets scared every Monday morning," Ald. Gaston Roy said, and "I doubt the validity of its recommendations, since members never query city hall about anything."

Ald. Carl Camirand proposed the Chamber produce the names of the directors who attended meetings leading to open criticism.

"Maybe now we will know who is spreading misleading information and how to set him straight," Ald. Camirand suggested.

Concerning directors, Ald. Roy said "If they were elected democratically, maybe there would not be as many problems within the Chamber of Commerce." He added he used to defend the C of C "but not anymore."

On the pocket arenas, Mayor Nadeau butted in that he was not too optimistic about Quebec's commitment, and added he would not support the venture until figures indicated it would be profitable.

Furthermore, Mr. Nadeau said, the arenas wouldn't cost the taxpayer a penny, since preliminary figures tend to indicate they would be self-supporting.

On the same subject, the mayor added the Chamber of Commerce should drop in at City Hall and see for themselves what the documents have to say.

Lennoxville mayor, council are impressed by new chief

LENNOXVILLE — (SL) — Police Chief Russell Wells is continuing to impress Lennoxville council members with his monthly report of crime, traffic and suggestions.

He has definitely impressed the mayor.

"We never had a police chief show up at council meetings before," said Mayor Cecil Dougherty. "I think he's doing a wonderful job by doing this."

Council members listened attentively last night while Chief Wells gave a concise breakdown of traffic and crime statistics and suggested a few items which, he said, should be taken under consideration by the council.

"What about that guy who left his heap (abandoned car) in front of the building," said the mayor.

"We sent the license plates to Quebec to trace" replied the police chief.

Laughter filled the board room when the mayor said: "It wouldn't have been so bad if he had left the four wheels on the car."

"I want, whoever it is, to be brought before the court," he added in serious tones.

"He will be — if we find him," concluded Wells.

Drain problem to be remedied

SHERBROOKE — (RS) — Council finally agreed last night the water drainage problem in the East Ward could no longer be tolerated, nor the aggravation to residents with flooded basements.

"It's a major problem in that area, pointed out Mayor Armand Nadeau. People living in slums are happy, he continued, but for people living in that area, "it's not even funny."

Gerard Deziel, the East Ward alderman whose constituency has been continuously flooded by drain water, told council every time there were signs of apparent rain, the people would go crazy with worry.

The alderman added residents of 14th Avenue had been flooded most of the summer, "to such a point that they have become desperate," he said.

"People have a right to live," said Mayor Nadeau, but prevailing floods on 14th Avenue and along Chalifoux Street, have been cheating the residents of that sector of their right to comfort.

Cost estimates indicate an investment of $135,000 is needed to settle the East Ward plateau problem, another $80,000 to do the same in a section of the North Ward, and possibly $18,000 for the West Ward.

Asked about the existence of a main drain big enough to handle excessive water, City engineer Charles Langlois said there was such a system underground in the East Ward, "but it hadn't yet been used."

The pipe referred to is on Chalifoux Street, the engineer pointed out, "and it could handle the water coming from 14th Avenue."

"So let's not waste any more time," Mayor Nadeau suggested, and let's end this nightmare.

City manager Richard Fabi reminded council the work could be done this winter, "and without some of the problems encountered during summer."

The mayor strongly recommended the city stop paying out claim money and get some sort of relief program started aimed at eliminating the drain problem once and for all, "giving the people back a little peace of mind."

FUTURE DOCTORS — Three young medical students are taking their second year of medicine at the Medical Center under the new Medical Officer Training Plan. Following graduation, they will be active as doctors in the Royal

Lennoxville council worries about cleanliness, expenses

LENNOXVILLE — (SL) — Austerity measures governing water supply and sewage costs highlighted the monthly meeting of the Lennoxville city council last night.

The six-member municipal council, including Mayor Cecil Dougherty, also adopted a new by-law in the town's beautification effort to rid private properties of eye-sores.

"But," as the mayor emphasized, "the by-law is only as good as the people who enforce it."

The high cost of maintaining the pressure of adequate water supply; labor difficulties faced by the Lennoxville Regional School; a "tidy-up" situation on Common Street and a planned apartment dwelling on Belvidere Street were other items on the council's agenda.

"Nothing that we can do hasn't already been done," commented the mayor in reply to a motion of servitude accepted by the council for rights to pass over a road to a reservoir owned by the Lennoxville Regional School.

The mayor said it was a "temporary measure" to speed up delayed construction of the reservoir.

Motion was passed to set up a water and roads committee to report back to the council on sewage costs, estimated at $7,000, to accommodate sparsely settled homes on Common Street.

An eight-unit apartment dwelling on Belvidere Street received council permission to apply for technical and legal assistance in water and sewage facilities from the Quebec Water Board.

A one-week study proposal of the town's water needs was suggested by the mayor to guideline the costs and consumption in efforts to lower the power bill.

"We can cut the costs," said the mayor, "if we use auxiliary pumps to maintain the pressure during the night and during the less consumptive periods in the day."

Rock Island evaluation complete

ROCK ISLAND — (Special) — The past several weeks persons of the firm of Morin, Tessier and Associates of Sherbrooke, Professional evaluators, have been inspecting properties and assessing the values at one hundred per cent.

Their job completed, the roll has been posted and starting off on August 26 open to the public for 30 days, until September 26. The evening of September 29 a special meeting of the Rock Island Council will take place in the Town hall at 7:30 p.m. for homologation of the roll.

Also at the September 29 meeting there will be hearings of complaints or requests by the property owners. After these dates the mill rate will be set and the budget presented.

The valuation roll prior to the new one made was about $3,091,000 increased to $5,100,000.

It is anticipated the tax rate will be cut down to 50 per cent on the total valuation.

It is noted some property valuations have been decreased, others raised and many stand the same as before, only at full in place of half value recorded on the roll.

Temporary educational facilities required

Problems arising in the construction of the Alexander Galt Regional School, which may delay the opening of that institution for as much as two months are providing deep concern to the prospective pupils at the school, their parents and probably the educational authorities.

In view of the crowded curriculum now in effect in the average secondary school it will be extremely difficult for the students to catch up on the time they have lost because of the late opening of the school. This means that unless some special concessions are provided by the provincial authorities many or most of the students will probably fail their final examinations.

This possibility places a responsibility upon the school administrators in co-operation with the parents, to evolve without delay some makeshift system whereby the students, especially those in Grades X and XI, can receive at least partial instruction in key subjects.

One suggestion is that public halls be rented on a temporary basis in which such instruction can be given.

Admittedly this is none too satisfactory but at least it is better than nothing.

If the Martinis at the local oasis get any drier, we're going to ask for a whisk broom instead of a napkin with our drink.

Arabs refuse to learn

The last thing the leaders of the Arab world really want is another duel in the desert with Israel. Behind their bombastic threats they know and fear in their bones that it could only mean another costly defeat for them.

Yet they continue to whip up their already volatile populations into a fury of blood lust, seizing as the latest pretext the fire that gutted the revered mosque of El Aqsa in Jerusalem.

That the fire apparently was set by a non-Jewish, non-Israeli religious fanatic from Australia is quite irrelevant. Israel occupies Jerusalem. Israel must perish.

"There will be no third anniversary of the June (1967) war," trumpeted the Egyptian newspaper Al-Ahram recently, predicting a campaign by the Arabs this coming winter to attempt to liberate the terrorists occupied by Israel.

In such an atmosphere of irrationality, there is no hope for a peaceful solution of the Arab-Israeli problem and very great danger that the Middle East will again explode in fullscale war.

Unfortunately, rationality has not characterized Arab behavior in the past two decades. They have been their own worst enemies, and a few of them know it.

"When reality catches up with us, it is always too late," wrote the Arab intellectual, Cecil Hourani, five months after the six-day war. "At every debacle we regret that we did not accept a situation which no longer exists."

"In 1948 we regretted that we had not accepted the 1947 UN plea for partition (of Palestine). In May, 1967, we were trying to go back to pre-Suez. Today, we would be happy — and are actually demanding the UN — to go back to things as they were before June 5. From every defeat we reap a new regret and a new nostalgia, but never seem to learn a new lesson."

Whatever may be the faults of Israel, whatever may be the justice in Arab grievances, Arab intransigence has been as massive and futile as the pyramids, if not yet as enduring.

Yes, Gwendolyn, a bargain basement is what you get with some low-cost homes.

TODAY in history

Britain declared war on Germany 30 years ago today—in 1939—followed by France, Australia and New Zealand on the same day. The German navy was swift to strike, torpedoing the passenger liner Athenia, 200 miles west of northern Scotland, en route from Liverpool to Montreal with 1,400 passengers. There were 125 lives lost, most of these when the torpedo exploded. The liner's passenger list included 435 Canadians and 311 United States citizens.

1930—The first non-stop Paris-New York airplane flight.

1940—President Roosevelt turned over to Britain 50 over-age destroyers in exchange for leases on British naval and air bases in the Western Hemisphere.

Twenty-five years ago today—in 1944—Americans captured Mons, Belgium; Allies sank or damaged 28 enemy ships in Celebes and Halmahera Islands; Allies entered Lyons; British 8th Army took Pesaro; Russians took 40 Romanian towns; Gen. de Gaulle's provisional government moved to Paris from Algiers.

The PRAYER FOR TODAY FROM The Upper Room

When he, the Spirit of Truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth. (John 16:13)

PRAYER: Father, as I pray help me to push aside the myriad voices of my little world and concentrate on listening to Thy voice. May Thy spirit uphold me and be my guide this day. In the name of the Master. Amen.

Canada's reputation abroad improved since Second War

CHESTER BASIN, N. S. — (CP) — Canada's reputation and image abroad have improved and expanded markedly since the end of the Second World War, says a senior member of this country's foreign service.

Arthur Andrew, most recently ambassador to Sweden where he organized the Canadian Chinese talks, remembers how little was known about Canada in post-war Europe.

On vacation here between assignments, the 53-year-old Pictou County, N. S., native talked during an interview about some of the responsibilities and attitudes faced by a diplomat.

His first overseas posting, after joining the external affairs department in 1947, was to Bonn, where he discovered no one seemed really to know what Canada was all about.

Giving lectures about Canada's system of government became a standard practice during his first years in Germany and Austria.

"This doesn't happen any more. Canadians travelling abroad have done a lot to change the attitudes — we Canadians probably have a better reputation overseas than we realize."

"I think today we're thought of very much as a 'comer' — a land of the future — to the point where you wish sometimes people would acknowledge our present."

BREAK DOWN CLICHES
He speaks modestly of the efforts of men like himself whose prime task is to develop understanding between the host country and Canada — without losing any personal integrity in the process.

He calls it a role of lubrication, of keeping relationships flexible, of breaking down the clichés. He rejects any suggestion that ambassadors are image-makers for their countries or that they can become embroiled in the spying business.

"We're not in the intelligence game in any organized way." But, he says, embassies are listening posts.

Political reports compiled in embassies for the Canadian department of external affairs include information about the economic development and political stability of the host country.

Swedish disarmament policies have been a key interest to the Canadian embassy in Stockholm, although "most of my work in Sweden was concerned with third-party problems."

A change in government at home means a change in emphasis in foreign affairs "here and there," says Mr. Andrew. He believes the foreign service should be a sensitive instrument that responds to whatever policy nuance the government wants to apply.

Under Prime Minister Trudeau's leadership, Canadian foreign policy is undergoing some fundamental re-examination, he says, but an independent foreign policy could only be independent within certain imposed limits all countries, even the great powers, must put up with.

ENJOYED CYPRUS TERM
He will say he enjoyed his term as Canadian high commissioner to Cyprus, which involved his taking up residence in Nicosia in 1964 when bullets began to fly between Greek and Turkish Cypriots. He was ambassador to Israel at the time and had to leave Tel Aviv as a post of secondary importance.

Talking carefully about the Cyprus situation, Mr. Andrew says outsiders first coming on the scene can always see an almost immediate solution.

"After I'd been there a week, I knew the answer. After two years, I wasn't so sure."

The great frustration in modern diplomacy, he says, is having to watch trouble

TIMELY QUOTES
The precepts of man would have you believe that by limiting the population of the world we can have peace and plenty. That is the doctrine of the devil!
—Ezra Taft Benson, member of board of governors of the Mormon church, denouncing birth control.

The first solution is to get fear out of the minds of people. The people of both sides are crazy with fear.
—Harold Sloan, Northern Ireland Methodist leader, on the country's religious strife.

OTTAWA OFFBEAT

Despite austerity, ex-MP's rewarded

BY RICHARD JACKSON

OTTAWA — The operative word is "restraint."

And Prime Minister Trudeau says he's backing it up with such strong supporting words as "cut-back," "hold-down," "phase-out" and other such bureaucratic phrases peculiar to the federal government's own tribal dialect.

It means they'll be saving money like mad.

Or at least trying to.

Your money.

So, as the prime minister says, they won't have to raise taxes in the next budget — which they're committed to balance for the first time in 13 years — and hit you for even more money.

You have it then, on the prime minister's own word, they'll be spending less money on a lot of things so as to be able to spend more on a few others — but always doing it with agonizing dollarpinching care and only where absolutely and unavoidably necessary.

Sounds good, doesn't it?

And then what happens?

Even while the prime minister is making like the greatest economy-minded political leader to come down Ottawa's free-spending pike since Mackenzie King was wringing the government dollar for every last nickel's worth under the pressure of wartime emergency, some pretty odd announcements keep coming out.

One is the appointment of J. Watson MacNaught, through as chairman of the Dominion Coal Board, as "special adviser" to Deputy Energy Mines and Resources Minister C. M. Isbister.

At $22,000 a year.

Not a big salary as the Ottawa payroll merrily rolls along, but not a small one, either.

But it's an entirely new job.

And the well-founded suspicion is that it was created for Mr. MacNaught's comfort and convenience.

He is finished as Coal Board chairman.

The board itself is being dissolved.

And Watson MacNaught is 65, when, normally, any civil servant goes out to well-pensioned pasture.

But while he has been a provincial and federal civil servant for a good part of his working life, he by no means has just been "any" government employee.

What makes him different is that he is a former Liberal member of Parliament — 10 years in the Commons, three of them in former Prime Minister Pearson's cabinet — and so, is "special."

In fact, "special" enough that like a dozen other former — and unemployed — Liberal members, a federal job must be provided for him.

The wildly ironic thing about it is that he got the job the very day the prime minister, in the name of nailing every nickel to the floor, was saying that 25,000 other government jobs had to go down the drain.

But perhaps the weird timing of the two announcements, coming in tantalizing tandem, is the government's idea of public relations.

The MacNaught appointment maybe was supposed to be the clincher, the convincer that Prime Minister Trudeau wasn't kidding about holding down, cutting back and phasing out? Hah!

Except for its terrible timing, this feather-bedding of a tired old politician might have been just a nail slip in the cogs of the enormously complicated machine of the federal administration.

But it wasn't. For it has happened so often before as to be almost accepted practice.

Not just with the Trudeau government, but the Pearson, the Diefenbaker, the St. Laurent and the Mackenzie King regimes.

What made it different this time though, was that while the prime minister was saying one thing, his government was doing exactly the opposite.

Among the better jobs that have gone this past year to former — by way of defeat — Liberal parliamentarians:

Ex-Hamilton MP Joe Macaluso with a $24,000-a-year appointment as director of Chairman Jack Pickersgill's federal Transport Commission. Ex-Nova Scotia MP John Stewart (only recently resigned) as Privy Council legislative adviser at $24,000.

Ex-BC MP Jimmy Byrne at $19,000 on the federal immigration appeal board.

And there are others — nine of them — with more, very likely, still to be given their secure, well-paid reward, austerity or no austerity.

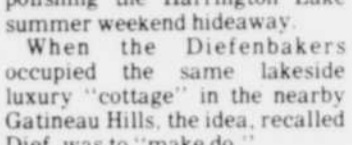

Former Prime Minister Diefenbaker has added his own distinctive touch to the prime minister's solemn commitment to "cut-back," "hold-down," and "phase-out."

The prime minister, grumped Dief, was spending $50,000 priming, manicuring and polishing the Harrington Lake summer weekend hideaway.

When the Diefenbakers occupied the same lakeside luxury "cottage" in the nearby Gatineau Hills, the idea, recalled Dief, was to "make do."

"We were so careful about spending the taxpayers' money on the place," he related, "my wife Olive even ran up her own curtains on the sewing machine."

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The British, renowned for their austere tranquility, celebrate at least one "explosive" occasion on their historical calendar. The World Almanac notes that Nov. 4 is set aside as Guy Fawkes Day. On that date in 1605, Fawkes' plot to blow up King James I and the entire Parliament was foiled when 36 barrels of gunpowder were discovered in the cellar of the Houses of Parliament.

Bridal Shower

RUBY ANN MACE

ULVERTON — Miss Ruby Ann Mace, Montreal, formerly of Ulverton, was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower held in the Church hall, August 23. The hall was decorated with streamers, white bells and several bouquets of summer flowers.

Corsages were presented to Miss Mace, her mother, Mrs. A. Mace and her future mother-in-law, Mrs. C. Burton.

After the gifts had been opened and passed around Miss Mace thanked the hostesses and everyone for their gifts.

A buffet lunch was served after which the shower cake, made and decorated by Mrs. Potts, was passed to the guests.

The hostesses for the shower were Mrs. A. Dunn, Mrs. U. Massey, Mrs. W. Potts and Mrs. J. Graham. Guests were present from Ottawa, Montreal, Richmond, Melbourne, L'Avenir, Lisgar, Drummondville, Kirkdale and Ulverton.

Brides-to-be honored

EDNA STEWART

Miss Edna Stewart, St. Pierre de Broughton, was the guest of honor at a pleasantly arranged miscellaneous shower on August 20. It was held in the Gertrude Scott Hall, Lennoxville, prior to her approaching marriage on September 13.

The hostesses were Mrs. Roy Sutor, Mrs. Lorne Butler and Mrs. Dufferin Annesley, assisted by Mrs. Jacques Codere and members of the bride-to-be's family.

The hall was decorated with summer flowers, yellow and turquoise garlands and wedding bells. The background was centered with an inverted parasol, over the seat of honor.

On her arrival, Miss Stewart was met by Mrs. Arthur Stewart and Miss Doris Clouston and presented with a corsage of white and pink gladioli tips. She was escorted by her sister, Mrs. Edward Marlin, to join her other sisters, Alice Stewart, and Mrs. Ralph Kinghorn, Mrs. Urban Beattie, mother of the prospective groom and Mrs. George Kingsley, cousin of the groom-to-be were nearby. Each of these ladies wore corsages of various shades of gladioli tips.

The many attractively wrapped gifts were brought in by the Misses Sylvia Marlin and Ethel-May Kinghorn, assisted by Marlene Kinghorn, Gloria, Linda and Angela Stewart, Daphne Codere, Linda Annesley and Faye Rayercraft.

They made several trips with their gaily trimmed tea wagon. Mrs. Roy Sutor extended the best wishes of all for future happiness.

After the many lovely gifts had been unwrapped and duly admired, Miss Stewart graciously thanked the donors and the hostesses for their kindness and spoke personally to each guest gathered in her honor.

Refreshments were served in the dining hall. The head table was arranged with flowers and confetti candles in crystal holders as well as two beautifully decorated shower cakes. They were made and decorated by Mrs. Dufferin Annesley. Seated at the head table were Mrs. Urban Beattie, Miss Ruth Morrison, Miss Alice Stewart, Mrs. Albert Smith aunt of the bride to be, Miss Doris Clouston and Mrs. George Kingsley.

The prospective groom, Mr. Desmond Beattie, and other members of the family joined the party. The delectable refreshments were served by the hostesses assisted by several friends, climaxing a very pleasant evening.

SWADDLED IN DIAMONDS — big as her hand and loud as a bagpipe band is this layered look designed by Golden Crown of Toronto. In combos of red-brown-beige, lilac-green-red and grey-green-yellow, it is

gift to the Silver celebrants from his mother, Mrs. Melissa Chamberlain, made and decorated by Mrs. Horace Doyon in white with roses, touches of silver and topped with the numeral 25.

Gary, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Chamberlain, with appropriate words of tribute to his parents presented them with a money tree and with congratulatory cards, many having currency gifts enclosed.

Québec Knows How

Once upon a time, in a great Québec city, there lived a conservative zebra who never wore anything but the black and white striped suit Nature gives all zebras. Deep in his heart he yearned for brilliant colours and exciting patterns, but he could not bring himself to shatter the classic zebra image and he grew more and more unhappy. "How silly!" cried his wife when at last she understood the zebra's increasing moodiness. She bought a yellow flowered bathrobe made in Québec City, red tartan shirts made in Chicoutimi and a pair of bright blue polka dot pajamas made in Montréal. For the first time in a long time the zebra smiled. His wife, seeing him in the pajamas wisely hid her smile and they lived happily ever after.

Royals swamp Alouettes 17-0 to enter final

The Drummondville Royals swept into the Quebec Provincial League final last night by crushing the hapless Alouettes 17-0 behind a 15-hit attack in Drummondville.

Dan Vossler, the Royals' hurler, was credited with the victory. Larry Butts relieved him in the seventh inning to allow Vossler to rest himself for the league final. Up to the seventh, Vossler had given up but three hits. The Alouettes managed only five hits in the whole game, while committing four errors.

The Drummondville squad opened the scoring parade in the second inning when 10 hitters marched up to the plate to produce six runs on three hits, two base-on-balls, a wild throw by pitcher Gutteriez, a balk, and an error. The Royals added two more in the fourth on a throwing error by shortstop Joa, and tallied for six other runs in the fifth inning. In the fifth, Ruben Rodriguez replaced Gutteriez on the mound, and promptly five consecutive hits, including a two-run blast by Chuck Hughes — his third of the series. Eleven batters went to the plate in this inning.

In the seventh, the Royals completed their scoring by bringing across three runs.

For Drummondville, Leroy Gregory connected for two doubles and two singles; Jim Magnuson hit a two-bagger and three singles; Chuck Hughes added a homer and a single and Rich Emard dealt out a double and two singles.

The Royals are losing the services of slugger Leroy Gregory for the final since he is returning to California to coach a football team.

For the final, Gregory will be replaced by Jim Hauser, the regular right fielder. Bob Gear, a pinch-hitter, will in turn take up Hauser's position.

In other league action last night, the Quebec Indians displayed their share of power as they rolled over the Plessisville Braves 12-0 to grab a 2-0 lead in their semi-final square-off. The Braves face elimination tonight when they play at home.

Newcombe over Riessen advances quarter-finals

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — Second-seeded John Newcombe of Australia huffed and puffed his way to a five-hour victory Tuesday over Marty Riessen of the United States 4-6, 6-3, 6-4, 25-23 in a rain-interrupted match that sent him into the quarter-finals of the $137,000 U.S. Open Championship.

For a while, it appeared it would never end. Riessen blew five set points in the 48-game fourth set, the longest ever in these championships.

The match was halted one hour 15 minutes by a downpour with Newcombe within a game of victory. It then settled down to an exchange of services and service breaks.

The elapsed time of the back-breaking battle was five hours 30 minutes.

Before the rains came, Fred Stolle of Australia, seeded 10th, advanced to the men's quarter-finals with a 6-4, 6-2, 2-6, 6-3, victory over left-handed Roger Taylor of Britain.

Pancho Gonzales, the 41-year-old battler from Los Angeles, never got on the court with his foe, third-seeded Tony Roche of Australia, and this match will be played today along with the two quarter-final matches in the upper bracket.

starting in the second game of the third set and continuing to the 27th of the fourth.

Then Newcombe finally broke and needed only to hold for the match.

It was at this point that the shower came and the centre court at the West Side Club had to be covered.

Returning to action from the layoff, Newcombe was stiff and cold. He lost his service and the set was knotted again. Then he broke Riessen. Riessen broke back. It went on for five games before they settled down to holding services.

New York built up its five-run lead when Donn Clendenon hit his 10th and 11th homers. Ron Swoboda cracked a two-run double and Clendenon singled, stole second and scored on Ken Boswell's eighth-inning single.

St. Louis built up a 6-1 lead before Houston came back on Joe Morgan's three-run homer, Doug Rader's solo shot and Jesus Alou's seventh-inning RBI double.

The Astros then won it in the 11th when John Edwards raced home from third on Alou's infield hit. The victory left Houston five games back of San Francisco.

ookie Billy Champion pitched a three-hitter and was backed by Richie Allen's runcoring single and Cookie Rojas' sacrifice fly in Philadelphia's victory over San Diego.

Baltimore Orioles have made a mockery of the American League Eastern race for the last two months with their big lead and fans looked to the west for excitement.

That has changed, however, as Minnesota Twins now are turning the Western battle into a runaway too.

The Twins clubbed Cleveland Indians and hard-luck Luis Tiant 5-2 Tuesday night for their third straight victory, their sixth in seven games and ninth in 11 games.

That triumph, combined with Oakland Athletics' routout at Boston, widened the Twins' lead to six games over the Athletics with just a month left in the season.

Northern Dancer colt sold $140,000

TORONTO (CP) — Charles Englehard, American mining millionaire from New Jersey, paid $140,000 Tuesday night for a Northern Dancer colt at the Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society summer yearling sales.

The colt, consigned by E. P. Taylor's Windfields Farms of Toronto, is by the 1964 Kentucky Derby winner out of Queen's Plate winner Flaming Page.

The purchase price far exceeded the Canadian record of $84,000 for a yearling sold at auction. The old mark was set by Englehard last year when he purchased Nijinsky, a full brother to the chestnut colt he bought Thursday night.

Englehard was not present Tuesday night, but bidding for him was George Scott, president of Englehard Industries of Canada Ltd.

The Northern Dancer-Flaming Page colt was one of three pre-priced at $100,000 on the opening night of the three-day sale.

Of the other two, one was sold for $100,000. The other, a filly by Northern Dancer out of Victoria, did not receive a bid and returned to Windfields Farm.

The $100,000 yearling went to a New York syndicate represented at the sale by trainer W. C. Stephens. He made the only bid on the Nearctic-Natalma bay colt, a full brother to Northern Dancer.

which were subject to reserve bids—only 25 were sold. Total price was $680,900 or an average of about $27,236 a horse.

Of the 25 sold, 19 came from Windfields, which consigned 40 on the opening night. Taylor's stock drew bids of $602,400.

One of the most active bidders Tuesday was George E. Creber, president of George Weston Ltd. Reported to be acting as agent for supermarket owner Garfield Weston, he paid $60,000 for a bay colt by Northern Dancer out of Lachine and $45,000 for another Northern Dancer colt, this one out of Butter Ball.

Another high price of the night was paid by Charles Rathgeb of Toronto who spent $50,000 for a chestnut colt by Restless Wind out of Speediness. It was consigned by Windfields and was pre-priced at the selling amount.

Saul Wagnan of Toronto, who acquired 1968 Queen's Plate winner Pine Point at these sales in 1965, paid $23,000 Tuesday night for a New Providence bay colt out of Nashua Wake for $13,000.

J. Louis Levesque of Montreal paid a total of $26,000 for a chestnut filly by Nentego and a Victoria Park filly.

Frank Sherman of Hamilton shelled out $19,000 for a bay colt by Canadian champ out of Lady Victoria.

Lake Massawippi water protection hosts meeting

NORTH HATLEY — A meeting of the Lake Massawippi Water Protection Inc. was held on Monday evening, August 25 in the Community hall. President, Edward Detchon presided and voiced a welcome to the large number of persons attending, he said "we are always glad to see so many at these meetings and to know we have your support".

He introduced Tony LeSauter, Department of Health, from Montreal and Jean Louis Scott, Stanstead County Health Unit, Magog, also Professor Derek Booth from Bishop's University, Lennoxville.

Mr. Detchon held a short business meeting. A change of the by-law was approved as made by notice of motion at a previous meeting, this is to increase the number of Directors to attend the Executive meetings where previously it was the president, a vice-president, the secretary and — or treasurer.

Mr. Detchon announced that Roger LeBaron has accepted the duties of treasurer which was previously done by the secretary, this will lighten her heavy duties for being secretary means many hours of hard work.

Mr. Detchon says he hopes that through the medium of newspapers and radio that the public will become interested in the work and aims of the Association, contact the Association or attend the meeting. The dates and place of meetings are usually made public over radio and in the papers. He said "we need to fight pollution in Lake Massawippi before it gets out of control and needs to be an all out effort. He mentioned that Mrs. H. E.

Worrall, 385 Lansdowne Ave., Montreal, 215, Que., the membership chairman and her area chairmen are doing a tremendous job and urged all to contact her.

Professor Booth showed some slides he had taken in an hour's ride on the lake and showed potentials of contribution to pollution, "but we can't say they are contributors until after the results of tests still in progress." He noted that it requires a great deal of research to find what causes pollution and one can't clean a lake without looking at the watersheds.

It was noted there are 80 streams flowing into the lake from the largest, the Tomifobia river to streams that dry up in the seasons. The matter of raw sewage dumped into the Tomifobia from Derby Line to some extent, was mentioned.

Mr. LeSauter said that there are many contributors to pollution through the watersheds such as nutrients coming from farms, detergents with phosphates, many of which in rivers flows and clears itself out is trapped in a lake.

Mr. Detchon said that the slides viewed are the first of what he hopes will be many in a slide file, he invited persons who take such slides to allow the Association to make a copy.

Mr. LeSauter spoke in reference to the Government by-law to legislate sewerage installations. He illustrated with chalk on the black board effective drainage, various types of sewerage, and what the legislation can do to help.

He mentioned that after a Municipality adopts the by-law, a Municipal inspector is trained, visits are made to all the cottages and a study made, then comes the classification, with Class C, the fourth definitely contribution pollution to the lake which will have to be corrected.

Mr. LeSauter said that at St. Donat in Quebec Province they have recently installed a collective system at a cost of $21,000 and they are very happy with it, he added, this is the first such system in Quebec.

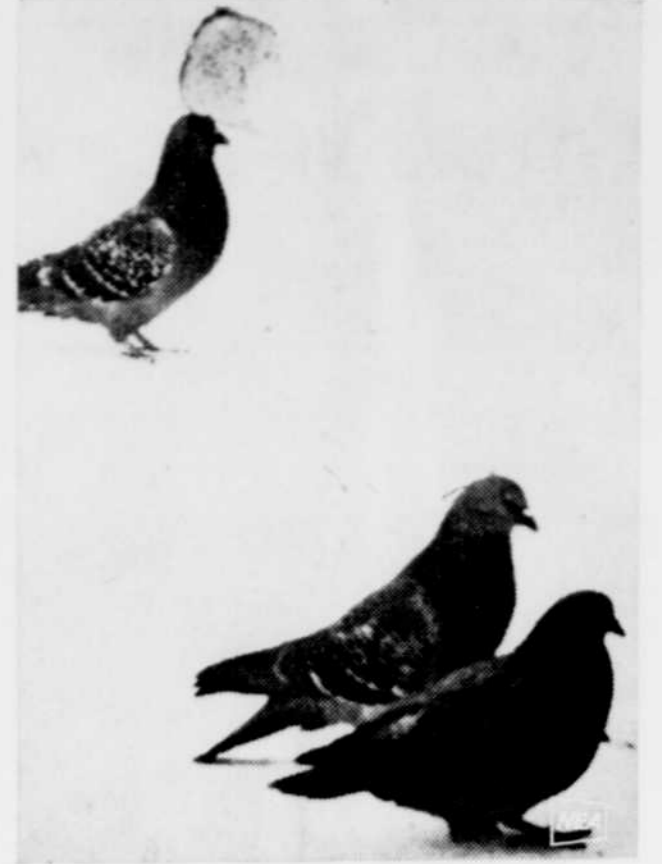

He complimented the Association having Bishop's University doing the present survey underway. It is expected a report will be completed by September 15 and later made known to the public. He said that the Association is indeed fortunate to have Bishop's University take over this work as a minimum cost and when completed "you are going to be in a good position to go to the Hon. Jean Paul Cloutier, Minister of Health, Quebec Government and you will be heard," he said. He noted that as individuals "you can do nothing".

He further said that bacteria can be controlled by waste plant and organic removal but not the nutrient problem. This can be done only by a stripping plant which eliminates about 85 per cent.

He said the main objective is correct installation of sewerage, and nutrient stripping. He suggested the power of women is effective and they should go after the manufacturers to take the phosphates out of detergents. Some companies are making sulfidless detergents but the phosphates are there just the same and these are contributing heavily to algae.

The time was set for 1:30 p.m. when guests began to arrive to be greeted by a reception committee with Miss Dorothy Shattuck and Mrs. Herbert Rowell taking their names and giving out identification badges in various colors denoting their particular branch.

Those present were not only from the local area and nearby places throughout the Eastern Townships, but from Ontario, Northern Quebec, Vermont, New Hampshire, New York, Maine, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Connecticut and other states.

At 5 p.m. everyone adjourned to the Town Hall where tables were laid for pot luck refreshments with each family contributing.

SURE FOOTED as a WILDCAT

PREMIUM QUALITY NYLON TURNPIKE SAFETY '4'

Safety '4' Wildcat has a lot going for it. Much more than you'd expect to find in medium-priced nylons. Where else would you get the tenacious grip of a great cat, the racy look of a Grand Prix tire? Yet that continental look runs more than skin-deep. Built to set your car closer to the road, Safety '4' has the high-speed stability and easy handling that take highway problems in stride. Like a Wildcat, it has the instinct for swifter stops, faster take-offs. Its inner strength and stamina spring from a Dupont Nylon 4-ply cord body that measures up to the toughest road tests. A great tire—a great value! And it's not alone. If long mileage is on your mind, take a look at its running-mate—Turnpike '78' Nylon. This one has the low, wide proportions of tires you'll soon be seeing on the new 1970 high-performance cars. And it's a Whitewall at only $2.50 more than the regular Safety '4' Blackwall.

Manufacturers' List Price—If you're confused about this term, here's the gen: Each manufacturer publishes a list of prices. Generally speaking, for similar grades, these prices are pretty much the same. Newspaper advertised sale prices may cut these list prices 15% to 25%. By contrast, Canadian Tire cuts list prices by more than 50%. Come in—compare—and see for yourself!

Inverness WI welcomes visit of former member

INVERNESS — A social afternoon was spent in the I.O.O.F. hall, when the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Church were joined by their friends of other denominations to welcome back Mrs. John Stokoe of Bear River, N.S.

Mrs. Stokoe spent the years 1957-61 in Inverness, when Mr. Stokoe, in his initial charge, was in charge of the services in St. Andrew's, and in the outlying churches in Lower Ireland and Adderley.

Mrs. Stokoe, who is on a Goodwill Tour, brought messages of comradeship from the ladies of Bear River and gave an interesting talk on current conditions and problems of the people of that area, pointing out that industries are badly needed in order that Nova Scotians may enjoy the standard of living enjoyed by the people of Quebec and Ontario.

Mrs. Stokoe voiced the thanks of her husband and herself for the many acts of kindness they enjoyed while here. Later on when they moved to Ulverton the same hospitality and kindness were extended to them. She also spoke of the wonderful friends they had made in Toronto where they first came in contact with the Canadian people after migrating here from England.

Mr. Stokoe deserves praise for his devotion to the call of duty by studying and attending university during his vacation time. As a result of his efforts, his ambition to become an ordained minister will be realized in the early autumn.

Mrs. Stokoe will address a meeting of the Inverness W.I. in the near future to convey greetings from the members of the same organization in Bear River.

Later on, Mrs. Stokoe and her husband plan to return for a short visit with their many friends here.

Refreshments, provided by the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary, brought a pleasant afternoon to a close.

Miss Judy Muncaster entertained at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Linda MacArthur, whose marriage to Mr. John Lake, Burlington, Vt., takes place in September. Miss MacArthur on her arrival was seated in a gaily decorated chair, before the many gifts placed on a table. Miss MacArthur expressed her appreciation for the gifts. The evening was spent in playing a variety of games, concluding with the serving of refreshments.

Recently Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gilman and Mr. and Mrs. John Soles entertained at the summer home of the former on Lake Champlain in honor of the Misses Ileen and Dorothy Ewing who are leaving shortly to take up residence in Toronto, after a residence of six years here. Their departure is greatly regretted, as during their stay they took an active part in the life of the community. On behalf of the guests, Mr. Gilman presented the Misses Ewing with a handsome Quebec woodcarving, for which thanks were expressed by the recipients, who extended a hearty invitation to visit them in their new home. About 100 guests attended the party.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. McIntosh left recently by motor for Red Lake, Ont., where Mrs. McIntosh will be principal of the high school in that town, which has an enrolment of 900 pupils. Mrs. McIntosh, B.A., has been on the staff of the former Bedford High School for 20 years, and is a most able teacher.
