New Proposals To Avert Strike

Truckers Threaten Walkout

MONTREAL (CP)—Montreal's trucking industry has submitted new proposals to its drivers, hoping to forestall a strike in the making. Any walkout of the 6,000 drivers would virtually stall intercity runs and some routes within Montreal.

The Trucking Association of Quebec, representing 33 firms in the Montreal area, said Tuesday night it has evolved a plan it feels will avert a strike.

Details of the plan were being withheld until the union had studied them.

The threat erupted Sunday when drivers demanded immediate wage increases and voted to walk out, against the advice of union leaders and lawyers.

The Quebec Labor Relations Board also said any strike would be illegal since all means of arbitration had not been used.

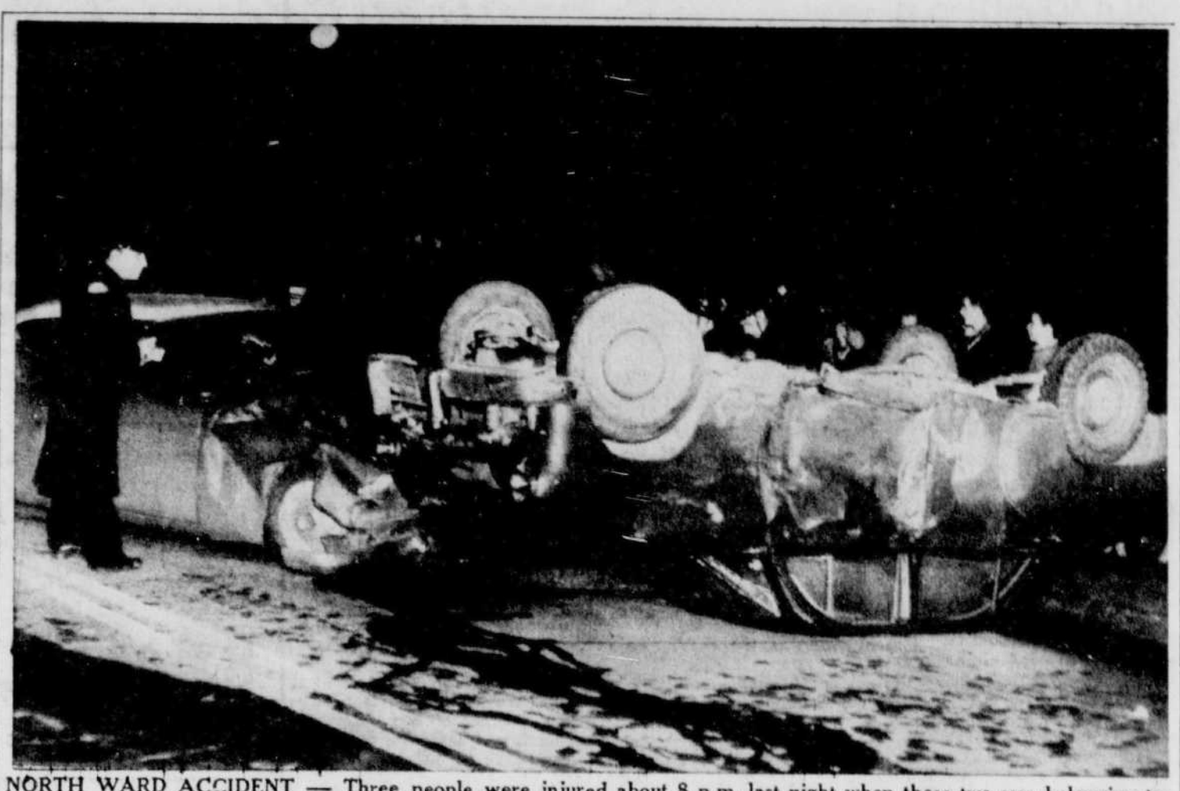
ACCEPT CONDITIONALLY

Earlier Tuesday, the union said it would accept a management offer of a 21-cent-an-hour increase on one condition. It had demanded a 50-cent boost and would agree to keep driving only if the 29-cent difference was submitted to binding arbitration.

Camille Archambault, assistant to the president of the trucking association, said the Teamsters were trying to force the issue by using intimidation and illegal walkouts during conciliation proceedings.

A full-scale strike could tie up 5,000 trucks within city limits and 1,500 trucks and semi-trailers normally operating from Montreal to outside points.

Current wage rates for truck drivers are $1.31 an hour and for truck-trailer drivers, $1.36.



NORTH WARD ACCIDENT — Three people were injured about 8 p.m. last night when these two cars belonging to William Hicks, 48, of 58 Academy Street, Lennoxville, and Jacques Desloges, 25, of 54 St. Joseph Street, Brompton-ville collided at the Ontario and Portland streets intersection. Dief Sees de Gaulle 3 Hours

PARIS (CP)—Canada's Prime Minister Diefenbaker arrived in Paris today for a one-day visit and within 80 minutes of landing at Orly Airport began his first meeting with Premier de Gaulle.

In three hours of talks and luncheon at Hotel Matignon, de Gaulle's official residence, the Canadian leader was expected to discuss the French premier's recent proposals for stronger political consultation among NATO allies, especially France, Britain and the United States.

The Canadian view, it is understood, is that there should be a strengthening of the means of consultation so long as rights of all NATO allies are maintained.

The Canadian leader also sought first-hand information on de Gaulle's views on the situation in North Africa and the Middle East, and the possibilities of an Algerian cease-fire and negotiations with rebel leaders.

MILITARY WELCOME

A guard of honor and a 100-man military band saluted the Canadian prime minister as he stepped from his plane at the airport.

Speaking in French in a statement, Diefenbaker said:

"France was present and active at the very origins of Canada. It is therefore normal that Canada should return periodically to weigh again our friendship with you.

"I am proud today to be the messenger of this friendship . . . I bring the greetings and affectionate sentiments of the Canadian people.

"The French - Canadian alliance, which was forged in the same fires, is necessary for the equilibrium and progress of the free world. France is not a member of our Commonwealth but with her and with our NATO allies we form a Commonwealth of friendship devoted to the service of liberty."

UN Calls For Test Ban

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — (CP) — The UN General Assembly Tuesday night overrode Soviet opposition and called on the three nuclear powers to suspend test explosions while Geneva talks on halting them under a control system go on.

Valerian Zorin, Soviet deputy foreign minister, at once accused Britain and the United States of bringing pressure on other delegations to vote for the resolution which, he said, "flagrantly contradicts the interests of peace."

He described the document, adopted by 49 to 9 with 22 abstentions, as a "paper resolution," adding: "Life will pass this resolution by."

He did not, however, say specifically that the Soviet Union would ignore the 81-member assembly's appeal.

U.S. REBUTTAL

Henry Cabot Lodge of the United States rebutted the charge of pressure. He said the majority had expressed their judgment in the light of the "Soviet threat to world peace."

Lodge said Zorin's assertion showed that a Soviet representative could only think in terms of masters and slaves because that was the way Soviet society was organized.

The assembly endorsed three other resolutions submitted to it by the political committee, which completed its long-drawn-out disarmament debate Tuesday:

1. A draft, sponsored by Austria, Japan and Sweden, expressing hope the Geneva conference will be successful.

2. An Indian-Yugoslav resolution throwing the assembly's support behind the Geneva conference on measures for preventing surprise attack.

3. A resolution to expand the present 25-member disarmament commission into a body made up of all 81 UN members with instructions to produce "constructive proposals and recommendations" for the Security Council and assembly, at a special session if necessary.

Late Bulletin

QUEBEC — (CP) — Dr. Arthur Leclerc of La Malbaie today was sworn in as Quebec health minister, succeeding Hon. Albiny Paquette. Gerard Thibeault, Union Nationale member of the legislative assembly for Montreal Mercier, was sworn in as minister without portfolio.

The appointments were made by Premier Duplessis during a cabinet meeting.

Turkey Growers Protest Imports

QUEBEC (CP) — The 500-member Turkey Growers Association of Quebec province has protested a federal government decision authorizing the importation of 300,000 pounds of roasting turkeys from the United States.

In a letter to Agriculture Minister Harkness, growers said they had been promised that no importation of slaughtered U.S. turkeys would be authorized if Canadian producers could satisfy public consumption at reasonable prices.

As a result of this promise growers had increased production of roasting turkeys by 170 per cent to 6,000,000 pounds for 1958 compared to 4,000,000 in 1957.

In announcing the easing of the turkey import ban Oct. 27, the agriculture department said "the import of lightweight or broiler turkeys should not adversely affect the marketing of Canadian stocks at this season as these are mostly of medium and heavy weights."

Aircraft Firms Ask Help In Planning

QUEBEC (CP)—Canadian aircraft manufacturers want the federal government to help them map out long-range plans for the future—a move they feel is a must if they are to hold their skilled personnel and justify their heavy investments in the industry.

Their feelings on Canadian aircraft manufacturing, sharpened by the recent government decision to buy American Bomarc ground-to-air missile, were shown at a press conference Tuesday during the annual convention of the Air Industries and Transport Association.

The Bomarc decision, delegates felt, is a sign the CF-105 Arrow jet interceptor program, to be reviewed by the government March 31, is to be scrapped.

During the conference, association president R. W. Ryan of Canadian Pacific Airlines, Vancouver, announced that the board of directors of the association has adopted a resolution calling on the government to formulate a long-range plan for Canadian aircraft manufacturers to help them get a better share of the production of components for North America's defence.

Joseph Morley of Avro Aircraft Limited, Toronto, said aircraft manufacturers had agreed to three main points in their sessions:

1. Without a long-range program the industry cannot hope to hold on to the skilled men it now has;

2. It cannot continue to pump money into research and better production facilities without a guarantee that this money will be well spent;

3. It would benefit from joint Canada-United States participation in production of the weapons North America is counting on for defence.

Final Decision In Bribe Case In Hands Of Jury

VANCOUVER (CP)—The final decision in Canada's longest criminal trial is in the hands of the jury and a one-time provincial cabinet minister and others accused of bribery may know their fate today.

The Assize Court jury of nine men and three women is the same one which Saturday convicted 47-year-old Robert E. Sommers, one-time minister of lands and forests, of conspiracy. It also convicted a timber executive from whom he is said to have taken bribes while in office.

Tuesday, Mr. Justice J. O. Wilson completed his charges in the bribery phase of the 78-day trial and asked the jury for a total of 57 verdicts involving eight accused, including Sommers.

The jury deliberated almost two hours behind the locked doors of the jury room, then asked to be taken to their hotel.

In all, the Crown charges $16,000 changed hands.

Mr. Justice Wilson asked the jurors to decide on the guilt or innocence of seven accused facing multiple bribery counts as the alleged donors of bribes and on seven counts against Sommers as the alleged receiver of the bribes.

He told them the bribery case against Sommers "must stand on its own feet." He stood charged alone and his conviction on conspiracy had nothing to do with this phase of the case. The evidence against Sommers on conspiracy was not admissible against him as an alleged receiver of bribes—separate acts to be separately proved.

Sommers was in the Social Credit cabinet from 1952 until he resigned his portfolio in 1956. By the conviction he automatically lost his Rossland-Trail legislature seat. A byelection writ must be issued within six months.

Red Artillery Opens Fire After Lull

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Artillery fire resumed today in the offshore war after a lull of 27 hours. Red Chinese guns opened up on the Quemoys before dawn. Nationalist batteries returned the fire.

Nationalist headquarters reported the Communists had fired nearly 2,000 shells on the islands by late afternoon.

There were reports of the continuing Red buildup of mainland positions opposite both Quemoy and Matsu, 150 miles north.

Observers sighted more than 1,500 Communist soldiers working on fortifications in the Quemoy sector and about 120 were noted constructing groundworks opposite Matsu.

The Nationalists said four Red naval vessels moved into coastal waters close to Matsu Tuesday but retired without incident. That Nationalist-held island has not come under any sustained attack in the current shooting.

Rockefeller Scores Upset

WASHINGTON — (CP) — American voters have swept the Democratic party into commanding control of the United States Congress with a wave of popular support unrivalled since Dwight D. Eisenhower led the Republicans to victory in 1952.

The defeat of the president's party in Tuesday's mid-term elections put on record Eisenhower's steady decline in influence since he won personal victory in 1956 for his second term. But he failed then too, to carry his party to power in Congress.

Republicans got a glimmer of hope from one personal victory in this year's voting—the emergence on the national scene of millionaire Nelson Rockefeller, who ousted Democrat Averell Harriman as governor of the key state of New York.

TRADITION UPSET

Rockefeller's down - to - earth campaigning in New York City upset the traditional Democratic pattern of voting in the country's largest metropolis, knocked the Democrats out of control of the most populous state and brought immediate speculation that the Republicans may seize upon him as a popular figure to lead them in the next battle for the presidency in 1960.

Eisenhower himself cannot by law run for a third term, and in view of the near - record Democratic vote, Vice-President Richard Nixon may find rough going for the Republican presidential nomination two years from now.

Adlai Stevenson, twice defeated by Eisenhower as the Democrats' presidential candidate, hailed the result as a mandate for the opposition party "to produce thoughtful, creative leadership in a dangerous time."

He attributed the Democratic victory in the congressional and state governorship contests as reflecting public misgiving about Republican leadership at home and abroad, the high cost of living and "corruption, or at least that some ethical standards were not fulfilled."

THE ADAMS AFFAIR

This last was one of the few references in the campaign and its aftermath to the resignation of Eisenhower's aide, Sherman Adams, after his name was linked with that of Boston industrialist Bernard Goldfine in investigations of government favors sought by the latter.

Generally, the campaign officially was fought largely on local and domestic issues, as is usually the case in these off-year elections when one-third of the 96 Senate seats and all 435 seats in the House come up for re-election.

Eisenhower himself had no election-night comment. He spent the evening in the White House watching returns on television and retired early. But long before midnight the pattern had been set when more and more Democratic victories were chalked up as the poll closings moved westward with the time zones.

Shortly after midnight the Democratic strength in the House of Representatives was illustrated by the fact that Democrats had won more seats than the 235 they had held in the previous House—and at that time no Republican was leading in the more than 100 seats still in doubt.

BIGGEST SINCE F.D.R.

The picture was the same in the upper house, where the Democrats got a working majority early in the evening and well before midnight held more than the 49 seats of their narrow 49-to-47 margin in the previous Senate. By this morning they were headed for their biggest margin since the days of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Thirty-three of the 96 Senate seats were at stake this year, and two more will be decided Nov. 25 when the new state of Alaska holds its first congressional election.

In the 32 state governorships up for voting this time the Democratic trend was generally repeated, with the major exception of New York.

And one small indication of the tide was the victory in sternly Republican Vermont of the first Democratic congressman sent to Washington from that state in 106 years.

The Republican defeat in California which saw the eclipse of Senator William F. Knowland, one of the 1960 presidential aspirants.

Vermont Elects First Democrat Since 1852

MONTPELIER, Vt.— (AP) — The first Democrat since 1852 to be elected to Congress from Vermont Tuesday won the state's lone seat in the House of Representatives.

William H. Meyer, a comparative political unknown, defeated former Republican governor Harold J. Arthur to break the rock-ribbed Republican tradition of more than a century.

Meyer's victory was the only major one in Vermont for the Democrats as the Republicans apparently retained the governorship and won a U.S. Senate seat relinquished by retiring Republican Senator Ralph E. Flanders.

U.S. Representative Winston L. Prouty, Republican, took the Senate race from Democrat Frederick J. Fayette.

Lieutenant-Governor Robert T. Stafford, Republican, apparently defeated Democrat Bernard J. Leddy in the race for governor.

Burlington Goes Heavily Democrat

MONTPELIER, Vt. — (AP) — Burlington, Vermont's largest city, voted for Democrats Tuesday by a wide margin.

Frederick J. Fayette polled 7,487 votes in his race for U.S. Senator, while Republican Winston L. Prouty received 4,302.

Bernard J. Leddy, Democratic candidate for governor, got 7,677 votes to 4,045 for Lt.-Gov. Robert T. Stafford.

Burlington voted Democratic in the 1956 election, but by a margin that was not nearly so wide.

900 Jobless Miners Ponder Their Future

SPRINGHILL, N. S. (CP)—Recovery of nine bodies from the crushed No. 2 coal mine continued slowly and painfully today.

Belly - crawling work crews clawing through rock and debris in cramped tunnels are the only miners working since a gigantic underground upheaval Oct. 23 trapped 174 men.

One hundred men have been saved. The death toll of 74 is the worst in Canadian mining since the 1920s when 88 men died in a Stellarton, N.S. pit.

900 WITHOUT JOBS

The nearly 900 jobless miners left are concerned about the future.

Sir Roy Dobson, chairman of A. V. Roe of Canada Limited, said last week he didn't think the Springhill mine would re-open. Avro is the parent company of Dominion Steel and Coal Corporation which controls the Springhill mine operation.

A Springhill trade board committee was formed Sunday to study the possibility of keeping the town's only industry here.

The town is burying its dead. A solemn, steady procession of hearses goes slowly through the hilly streets each day. Seven funerals were held Tuesday, seven are scheduled today.

The 19 miners who were rescued miraculously last week after long days and nights entombed 13,000 feet underground, were either back home or convalescing in hospital.

BROUGHT NEW HOPE

The first of the 12 miracle miners were found last Wednesday, 6½ days after the bump. Then on Saturday, seven more were found alive bringing townspeople new hope in a dismal hour. But after that the pit yielded only lifeless bodies.

The tragedy is the third this hard-luck town has endured in two years. An explosion in 1956 killed 39 miners in No. 4 colliery. On Boxing Day, 1957, the town's business district was cut in half by a $1,500,000 fire.

Welfare groups moved out Tuesday and there was only a handful of press representatives left in town to write the last chapters of the newest disaster.

$64,000 Junked

NEW YORK (AP)—Another television quiz show, The $64,000 Question, went into the ashcan Tuesday. It was the first of the big money quiz programs. The Columbia Broadcasting System announced that the program had staged its final round last Sunday, and is being replaced by Keep Talking, a comedy panel show. It was the latest of several quiz shows to be abandoned after ratings plunged following investigation into complaints that some contestants were coached on answers.

Campus Paper Closed

Ottawa Students Support Editors

OTTAWA (CP) — A formal request from the student body for the reinstatement of the campus paper La Rotonde's three editors now is before Ottawa University's dean of students.

The university's student federation Tuesday night unanimously approved a resolution asking that a prohibition against the editors be lifted.

The three editors—Louis Cliche, 21, of Sherbrooke, Pierre Trudel, 21, of St. Jerome, Que., and Roger Roy, 22, of Val d'Or, Que.—resigned from the editorial posts after the prohibition was ordered, but the student federation refused to accept the resignations.

The student-editors were prohibited by university authorities from taking any further part in the publication of the semi-monthly French-language paper. The ban was ordered after the paper published Oct. 3 a statement from a former editor accusing the administration of "religious paternalism."

DECLINES COMMENT

Rev. Leonard Ducharme, dean of students, declined to comment on the resolution Tuesday night, but referred a reporter to public relations director Bill Boss for any statement.

Mr. Boss said he had "no doubt Father Ducharme, as the responsible authority, will consider the request as soon as possible." He added this should be today.

Father Ducharme, who issued the prohibition last month, granted members of the federation an interview of more than three hours last Friday to answer questions about the issue.

Mr. Boss, himself, was criticized in a second resolution adopted unanimously by the federation at a meeting attended by the 14 voting council members and 25 non-voting students. The campus has a population of 2,350 students.

The resolution said the federation "strongly deplores Mr. Bill Boss's interference by offering to the press estimates of the opinion of the student body with regard to the current Rotonde issue."

The resolution, which is to be forwarded to university authorities, protested a statement Mr. Boss made last week that the "large majority" of students would agree their rights had been in no way infringed by the prohibition.

Mr. Boss, who took the public relations post this autumn, said he regrets the resolution concerning himself and added:

"My comment was solicited, not offered, and was made on the basis of my understanding that the student body is an integral part of the university. If I erred, I apologize."

Toy Blamed

ROME (AP)—A Roman court Monday ordered a toy manufacturer to pay the equivalent of $12,800 damages to an eight-year-old boy who lost an eye while playing with a cap pistol. The court said the toy maker was responsible for the injury to Luigi de Feo because he "produced such a dangerous instrument."

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Tuesday Weld, who was born on Thursday and says she's 16 although she's really 15, is Hollywood's latest candidate for the elusive mantle of Marilyn Monroe.

The girl might make it. She has Marilyn's vivid imagination. She is also blonde, with fascinating eyes and a figure and manner that allow her to fudge on her age convincingly.

About the name. Her mother, a handsome widow who used to be a model, explained:

"I never really expected to have a girl. We had chosen the name Rodney, after one of my husband's favorite grandfathers. When a daughter arrived, I could not think of a name. I finally chose Susan so I could get her out of the hospital.

CALLED "TOO-TOO"

"When she was very young, I often called her Too-Too because it pretty well described many of her aspects. Somehow the Too-Too and the Susan combined into Tuesday, and that's the way it has been ever since." How does Tuesday like it?

"I like it," she said. "Certainly I come in for a lot of kidding from people who say 'I'll see you Thursday, Tuesday' and so forth. But I don't mind. At least it causes people to notice."

Tuesday has come a long way in 15 years. Born in New York, she started modelling when she was three—she says it was two. After some grammar school in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., she returned to New York for more modelling and TV work. She also understudied in Dark at the Top of the Stairs.

She came west to do a Matinee Theatre on TV, and that's how she got an important role in 20th-Fox's Rally Round the Flag, Boys. That led to her present role as Danny Kaye's daughter in Five Little Pennies. She's now earning $750 a week.

We'll be hearing more from this girl.

STANBRIDGE EAST —

Remembrance Day will be observed at the United Church on Sunday, November 9th, at 9.30 a.m. and the following Sunday will be Laymen's Day and the service will be conducted by the laymen.

The roast pork supper under the auspices of the Woman's Association was successful and financial returns satisfactory.

The Red Cross met twice this week to tie quilts.

Mr. Edison Johnson and family have moved into the tenement of Mr. T. S. Davitt, formerly occupied by the Jehovah Witnesses; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wescott, of Bedford, have moved into the A.O. Wescott home which they recently purchased.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rhicard are living on Main Street having returned from their wedding trip to Niagara Falls and other cities of Ontario.

Mrs. Walter Schoolcraft a former resident here, who had been residing with her daughter in Montreal, was buried here in the Riverview Cemetery at Riceburg. Rev. T. F. Duncan performed the burial service.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. H. J. A. Reynolds for Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Westover, a former resident here, and recently of the Wales Home.

Farm Forum Activities

BROME COUNTY

The Brome County Farm Forums held their annual Fall Rally in the Knowlton High School, with representatives present from Missisquoi, Rouville and Shefford.

Mr. R. Dallenbach, second vice president, presided, and the gathering met in two groups.

Mrs. J. Ossington of Granby, who is on the executive of the Quebec Women's Institute, was guest speaker in the ladies' section, assisted by her her son, Mr. Kenneth Ossington. Mrs. N. Creller introduced the guests.

Six ladies were chosen at random to take part in a short skit, "How Not to Run a Meeting". The other ladies were asked to pick out the errors made. This was quite humorous as well as educational as Mrs. Ossington explained just how this meeting should have been conducted.

Twelve ladies were then each handed a slip of paper naming a topic on which to speak. Mr. Kenneth Ossington recorded the speeches on a tape-recorder and played them back.

The prizes, a tie for first, were won by Mrs. L. Marsh, of the Brill Forum, who spoke on Hallowe'en, with reference to the children collecting again this year for UNICEF and Mrs. Guy George, of Mansonville Forum, who spoke on Health or Wealth.

Mrs. Ossington urged the ladies to attend a leadership course if possible since this is one way to help overcome nervousness when facing an audience.

Mrs. Donald Hastings thanked Mrs. Ossington and her son.

The guest speaker for the gentlemen was Professor Steppler of Macdonald College. His subject was "Soil Conservation" which he liked to think of as "Better Soil Management". Professor Steppler stated that three main areas of soil management are:

Plowing at the right time of year, contour plowing or strip plowing; utilization of barnyard manure; and commercial fertilizers.

Professor Steppler showed colored slides on erosion and stressed the fact that better use of the land could be made if one were not too eager to keep adding acreage. He mentioned as an example, one farmer who had 60 acres of rough pasture for twelve cows and now ran twelve cows on twelve acres of improved pasture, leaving forty-eight acres for young stock. A questionnaire period followed the address.

K. Bradley introduced the guest speaker and he was thanked by R. Dallenback.

Lunch was served.

Play Presented By Women's Year Of Bedford Church

BEDFORD—The Church Women's Year of St. James Church met in the church hall for a social evening, the arrangements being in the hands of the program committee, Mrs. R. W. Craighead and Mrs. Harry Jones. A play, The Family Album, was put on by Mrs. John Ewing, as Mrs. Kelley, Mrs. Grisdale Gould as Miss Jane Skinning, Mrs. P. Terril as Mrs. Jemina Goodsense and Mrs. W. J. White, as Mrs. deVere and Mrs. Richard Craighead as Mrs. Barton.

Appearing from the pages of the album, dressed in costumes of a by-gone era were Mr. J. Lloyd, as Grandfather Kelley and Mrs. Stanley Corey, Diane Harland, Grace Lloyd, Jimmie Ewing and Richard McCaw, who represented Poor Lilly and her little children.

The appearance of the four stalwart sons of Mrs. Kelley, J. Davidson, Jack Paton, Gardner Campbell and Richard McCaw, were greeted with hearty applause, as were Mrs. John Pope and Mr. Bruce Kirwin as Mrs. Kelley and "her dear Bruce" on their wedding day.

Mrs. Bruce Kirwin, as Grandmother Higgs, gave a stern and realistic presentation of that lady and Mrs. William Jackson as brother Jake's wife, illustrated by her costume her love of finery. Mrs. Kelley's two sisters, Jane and Poor Caroline, who passed away after a sad love affair, were Mrs. W. H. Baglow and Mrs. Garnet Steele.

Mr. Ronnie McIntosh, represented Mrs. Kelley's rejected suitor, Bert Snubs, who in later years became the prosperous and successful Herbert Elwood Snubs. Mrs. Herbie Vogt and C. Cook appeared as Mary Ann Smithers and her son Joram. Ann Whitcomb was poor Annie who made an unfortunate marriage, and Miss Marjory Steele was Cousin Jerusha, who sat two much at her books and met an early death. Wayne Kemp was poor John, another of Mrs. Kelley's suitors, who marched away to war, where he met an untimely end.

Rev. W. J. White and Mrs. R. Orr, as bride and groom, represented George Hobbs and his wife, the George Hobbs who had been refused by Miss Skinning. Poor Ruth, as president of the Ladies' Guild, was Mrs. T. G. Sheppard and Mrs. Kelley's niece, a pretty girl but not a good housekeeper, Mrs. V. Reiter.

Mrs. Ralph Van Horn was in charge of the stage; Messrs. Jack Paton and Bruce Kerwin, lighting; and Mrs. J. Davidson and Mrs. Stanley Rider, make-up.

Allard Suggests UN Body To Study Production Control

Maurice Allard, M.P. for Shrebrooke, said yesterday at a press conference, that the United Nations should find a new commission to study "production co-ordination" in certain countries to avoid "cut throat competition."

Mr. Allard has just returned from a trip to the United Nations as a member of the Canadian delegation.

He told reporters that the many textile industries in Quebec and Ontario were producing items identical to those of the United States, the United Kingdom, Italy and India. This caused severe competition he said.

"Certain types of textiles that are produced in Canada should not be produced in the same quantity in other countries such as the United Kingdom. The same would apply to Canada in order to have a commercial exchange and to avoid cut-throat competition."

OTHER COMMISSIONS

Mr. Allard said the new commission could be added to the list of seven other commissions set up to study major international questions.

Among the most important of the commissions is one formed to study questions of policy and international security which deals with the problem of world disarmament.

Mr. Allard said this was the "thorniest question."

"We used to have the choice between war and peace. Today it is between peace and annihiliation because of nuclear weapons."

He said the question had been debated over a period of years without any satisfactory results. Of these talks, two methods of ending nuclear tests were laid down.

One calls for the immediate and completed end to nuclear tests. This method is supported by Russia.

The second, supported by the United States, the United Kingdom and Canada, calls for the suspension of nuclear tests for a year provided certain rigorous conditions are adhered to and provided there is an effective international control.

Although neither side agrees on the other's proposals, Mr. Allard pointed out that there were points common to both arguments.

He said both agreed that nuclear tests should stop, that the question of disarmament should be studied first. The countries involved agreed to meet for talks in Geneva (now underway); both agreed to send technicians to the Geneva talks on November 10 in order to discuss the problem of surprise attacks.

The Canadian stand on the question, Mr. Allard said, favored the complete end to nuclear tests except for peaceful purposes and an efficient international control by known techniques.

In 1958, he said an international convention of scientists reported that the best method of control would be the establishment of 180 observation stations, manned by 30 technicians, located at strategic points in countries, islands and ships around the world.

Extensive tests of radioactivity in the air by planes could be made to assure respect for the law. One scientist has pointed out, Mr. Allard noted, that radioactive fallouts after every nuclear explosion causes the miscarriage of 15,000 unborn children.

SERIOUS RESULTS

"Disarmament can cause serious economical consequences", Mr. Allard said the disbanding of military branches would cause a swell of the civilian population while the changeover from war to peace-time production would close many factories.

"A special commission should be formed to study the integration of soldiers in civilian life and the integration of war factories into civilian factories."

He said efforts could then turn to developing natural resources, increasing the output of food and improving underdeveloped areas.

Mr. Allard briefly reviewed the implementation of the bill outlining the universal rights of man adopted by the U. N. several years ago, the matter of a country's sovereignty if international control of nuclear testing is permitted and the role of the United Nations.

Boundary Boy On Broadway

MERLYN DAVIS, age 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merton Davis, of Rock Island, is acting on Broadway. Merlyn is currently appearing with the French repertory company, "Theatre National Populaire", in Alfred de Mussett's "Lorrenzaccio", Victor Hugo's "Marie Tudor" and Moliere's "Don Juan", at the Broadway Theatre.

Merlyn attended Stanstead College and graduated in 1956 from Derby Academy. That summer he was employed at the Grand Union store in Newport as a clerk, and in September went to New York where he worked in an office while attending dramatic school.

For the past two years Merlyn has continued his dramatic studies and this year took part in summer stock.

New Industry To Locate On Frontenac Street

The second major industry to establish in Sherbrooke in less than two months, employing some 130 hands, was announced yesterday by Ald. Paul Gervais, chairman of the industrial promotion and transportation committee.

Called the Prospect Shoes Limited, the firm will begin operations in the Kayser Building on Frontenac St. January 7, 1959.

The company has taken a 10 year lease on the building and received an undisclosed amount of financial assistance from the city.

Now located in Richmond, the company move operations here at the end of the year to begin operations immediately after the Epiphany holiday.

Ald. Gervais said the settlement of the new industry here was realized after several months of negotiations.

BILTRITE

Early this Fall, Ald. Gervais also announced a $1,000,000 plant extension to the American Biltrite Rubber (of Canada) Ltd. on Jenckes St.

Work on the new extension is progressing rapidly. The staff now numbering 300 will be doubled when operations are at peak capacity.

A special vinyl tile is to be produced at the plant.

Canada Paper Has 1,000,000 Hours Without Accidents

Officials of the Canada Paper Company in Windsor Mills announced this morning that the company has just passed the 1,000,000 man hour mark without a lost time accident.

This entitles the company to a membership in the Safety Millionaires Club. Paul Cook, co-manager of the Quebec Industrial Accident Prevention Association will be visiting the company next week to present company officials with a certificate of membership in the Club.

The company has also received congratulations from Douglas S. Abbott, president of the Howard Smith Paper Mills, Ltd.

King Street Lights Ready For Dec. 15

The revamped King St. lighting system, stretching from Bowen St. to the Montcalm Bridge, will be ready by December 15, Ald. Carl Camirand, chairman of the gas and electricity committee, announced this week.

He said there had been a delay in the shipment of steel poles.

The work of installing the underground wires is completed along both sides of the street.

NEW STREET

Ald. Camirand noted also that fluorescent lamps would be used as much as possible on new streets. However, on older streets, lamps would be the same as those in use at present and would be installed for the sake of uniformity.

FRONTENAC ST.

Council, at last Monday's meeting, approved $500 allotment to pave Frontenac St. between Wellington and Dufferin.

The money was approved after Director of Services Charles Langlois recomended that a layer of asphalt be laid over the north side of the street to fill in depressions.

Mr. Langlois said the layer would avoid completely rebuilding the street for a year or two.

The suggestion that improvements be made was introduced by Centre Ward Ald. Marcel Savard.

NICOL PARK

Council approved naming a wooded area reserved for a park on Portland St. between Heneker and Bryant after the late Senator Jacob Nicol.

The park will be a decorative area rather than a playground.

MORE MONEY

The aldermen consented to adding $2,500 to the original amount of $6,800 to be used in laying out a paved, parking lot, equipped with parking meters, behind the Magog Hotel.

Director Langlois said his original estimate was too low. Some 60 cars will be accommodated when the lot is completed.

Mr. Langlois was also asked to contact the CNR about a lot on the west side of the tracks below Depot St. The last correspondence between the company and the city was dated February 12, this year.

The city intends to convert the lot into a parking space.

PERMISSION

Six members of the Hygiene Dept. were given permission to attend the funeral of one of their fellow workers without a loss of salary.

According to the labor agreement with the city, employees are permitted to attend the funerals of their immediate family without a saalry loss.

October Beats '57 Record For Rain, Sun, Cold

The past month, October 1958, was colder, wetter and yet had more sunshine than the same month in 1957 and than the monthly average over the past 44 years, a bulletin from the Dominion Experimental Farm showed today.

Average temperatures for the month hovered at 44.64 degrees with a rainfall of 5.79 inches and 132.6 hours of sunshine. Last year the weather was warmer — 46.06 degree average; there was less rain — 2.77 inches; and there was less sunshine — 118.5 hours.

Including the precipitation figures (both rain and snow) this past month still is higher than in 1957. Last month there were 5.79 inches of precipitation; in 1957, 2.77 inches; the October average for 44 years, only 3.61 inches.

The highest precipitation in 44 years came in October of 1919 when 6.63 inches fell. October proved to be rather white in 1925 when some 15.1 inches of snow fell.

The coldest day on record for the month was on the 14th when the mercury dropped to 19 degrees — still a far cry from the 12 degrees recorded on the 26th, 1941. Four years before that, in 1937, they had the dampest day of the past 44 years, the 20th, when there were 3.32 inches of precipitation — equal to nearly three feet of snow!

Grocery Stores Raided

About 40 grocery stores throughout the city of Sherbrooke were raided yesterday, by a Montreal Squad of Provincial Police for the sale of butter substitute spreads.

According to provincial police, the raid was conducted because some of these spreads were shaped like a pound of butter and others were colored to resemble the dairy product.

Rotary Member Tells Problems Of Road Safety

Rotarian Howard Simms explained a few of the technicalities of automobile insurance and safety legislation at the regular meeting of the Rotary Club last night in the Hotel Sherbrooke.

Sherbrooke, he pointed out, has the dubious distinction of claiming the highest collision insurance rate (with the exception of a few Northern Quebec towns) of any centre in Canada.

The speaker compared the insurance rates in other provinces with those in Quebec, and the safety laws in effect and he suggested that a provincial accident system, similar to that in Manitoba, would be decidedly effective.

He explained the point system under their-safety responsibility legislation, whereby the driver has a permanent license and points are charged against him for each offense. After a certain number of points, the driver is brought in for physical tests, and if he passes them, his license is suspended for a period. He may, however, eventually wipe his record clean if he is not involved in further accidents.

Mr. Simms was wary of the merits of compulsory insurance.

He said in many areas where it had been put into effect, politics was entering into the matter, many car owners couldn't get insurance and it was an unhappy state of affairs all around.

He also said that in this system there was the tendency to increase insurance as time went on and there was also the danger of public carelessness since all drivers would be protected by insurance.

The speaker was introduced by Rotarian Don Johnston and thanked by Rotarian Howard Moffatt. Seated with them at the head table were President Ivan Saunders, Frank Simms, Wyatt Johnson, Walter Sutherland, Richard Brown, a new member inducted into the club last night, and Forest Keene, who presented Mr. Brown.

Rotarian Bert Ross read two letters from the Club's adopted daughter, an eight-year-old Polish girl; acknowledging recent parcels and gifts.

Protestant Board To Seek Provincial Approval Thursday

The Board of Protestant School Commisioners will make application to the provincial government for an increase in the sales tax by one per cent, it was learned today.

The Roman Catholic School Board has already asked Quebec for permission to raise the tax from five to six per cent in Sherbrooke.

If the provincial government approves the two applications, the sales tax will be increased, probably during the session of the Legislature which opens this month.

The Protestant school commissioners plan to go to Quebec City Thursday to meet provincial authorities.

A. C. Ross, chairman of the Protestant board, said it would be up to the provincial authorities to decide whether the tax is increased. But he confirmed that the request would be made.

Both the Roman Catholic and Protestant boards anticipate a deficit in their operations this year. The addition of a one per cent sales tax for education purposes would enable them to meet this, it was learned.

At present, one per cent of the five per cent sales tax in Sherbrooke goes for education purposes, two per cent to the provincial government and two per cent to the municipal government.

Several other school commissions in the area, including those of East Angus and Windsor Mills, have already indicated that they will apply for an increase in sales tax for education.

Last week, Mayor Armand Nadeau of Sherbrooke said he would oppose the school commission's application. He said he was expressing his personal opinion at that time.

Mr. Nadeau said he felt taxes were high enough and the commissions should make up their deficits by applying for grants from the provincial government.

Principal Visits City

Presbyterians Campaign For New Training School

Life for a school principal may be hectic but it's never dull. Especially when a campaign for a new school is underway.

This at least, is the case with Miss Margaret Webster, principal of the Presbyterian Missionary and Deaconess Training School in Toronto. Miss Webster made a brief stop in Sherbrooke this week to confer with Rev. Sidney Garland, new moderator of the Quebec Presbytery, on the proposed campaign for a new $400,000 institution. She was on her way to Fredericton to fulfill a 12-day speaking itinerary in Maritime and Quebec cities.

In addition to outlining plans for the campaign to presbyteries and local Presbyterian committees Miss Webster hopes to bring the school into the public eye.

"Many people don't know that it even exists," she said "or of the urgent need for workers."

Graduates of the school (the only one of its kind in Canada) serve as deaconesses in Canadian parishes, on vans in isolated parts of the Dominion, as receptionists at Canadian ports meeting new Canadians and helping in their adjustment, or on Indian reserves. Overseas, graduates are at work in India, Formosa, Japan, Nigeria and British Guiana.

Of the 24 students now enrolled at the school in the three-year course, two are East Indians from British Guiana and one is from Formosa, the principal said. Seven provinces are also represented.

The two old residences which now serve the school are difficult to administer and quite inadequate she added, explaining that there is no space for classrooms (most lectures are taken at Knox College) or other needed facilities.

The new building will accommodate 60 students and will have classrooms, chapel, library, infirmary, dining room, offices etc. "And we hope it will bring an increase in enrolment," she added.

The campaign will begin in March, 1959 and contributions may be pledged until December, 1960. A national committee, of which Miss Webster is a member, is in charge of its organization and it will be carried on by presbytery and congregational committees in each area. Mrs. K. Denton Taylor of Belleville, Ont., heads the committee.

The job of principal is a comparatively ne one for Miss Webster. A former Girls' Work secretary for the Presbyterian Church, she spent eight months overseas training for her new office which she took over this fall. She studied near Geneva at the World Council of Churches Institute and then visited training schools in France, Germany, Sweden, Holland, England, Scotland and the United States.

Lawrence School Pupils Give To UNICEF

Pupils of the Lawrence School undertook their own UNICEF project this Hallowe'en. Instead of collecting from the various houses in the district, they made their own contributions to the UNICEF Jar placed in the school hallway, saved from pocket money or earned from odd jobs.

A thermometer recorded the contributions daily for two weeks and the final figure amounted to $18.

The 185 pupils, active Junior Red Cross workers, were also busy the last week in October selling 1000 JRC calendars which amounts to $100 for welfare work.

Three Injured In Collision On Portland

Three people were slightly injured about 8.05 p.m. last night when the cars in which they were riding collided at the corner of Portland and Ontario Streets.

Injured are: Laurier Langlois, 54, of 980 Worthington Street, and Jean-Paul Caya, 22, of 1075 Lincoln Street, who were rushed to the Hotel Dieu Hospital suffering from lacerations to the face and arms. Mrs. Ada Hicks, 36, of 58 Academy Street, Lennoxville, was driven to the Sherbrooke Hospital by a passing motorist.

The accident occurred when the car driven by Jacques Desloges, 25, of 54 St. Joseph Street, Bromptonville, collided with the automobile driven by William Fred Hicks of 58 Academy Street, Lennoxville.

The force of the crash, caused Mr. Hicks' car to overturn, injuring his wife and Jean Paul Caya who were passengers.

Mrs. Hicks was released from hospital after receiving treatment for lacerations to the arms and legs.

Hotel Dieu hospital officials report this morning that Laurier Langlois and Jean-Paul Caya are in good condition this morning.

School Crossing Guards

The tragic death on Monday of a youngster on Portland Avenue gives a note of urgency to council deliberations on hiring handicapped people to patrol school crossings.

The present system of school stop signs and 20-mile-an-hour zones has proven to be only partially effective partly because of the failure of some drivers to comply with the regulations and partly because children, despite warnings from parents and teachers alike, are inclined to dart out into the streets unexpectedly. (This does not apply necessarily to Monday's tragedy which is a matter for the authorities to decide). The presence of trained crossing guards would do a great deal to lessen the dangers of children crossing busy streets.

A guard, with a proper uniform or warning sign, would attract the attention of motorists more effectively than any sign. At the same time, children would be ushered from one sidewalk to another in an orderly fashion.

Alderman Everett Nicol, chairman of the protection committee, has pointed out that he must consult a representative of the police officer's union. There should be no difficulty in getting the co-operation of police. No city can afford to hire enough police officers at regular rates of pay to patrol street crossings. The part-time crossing guards would not be taking away regular constables' jobs. The work just wouldn't be done otherwise.

Cost is a minor consideration where the safety of children is concerned. The estimated cost of hiring handicapped people as guards is some $20,000 a year. This would be money well spent.

Penny Press Rate

A United Nations telecommunications conference has proposed that the Commonwealth penny rate for press messages be increased from one British penny (1.17 cents) to eight pence (9.36 cents). This move should be vigorously opposed by not only the Commonwealth Press Union but the governments of Canada and other countries involved.

One of the advantages of membership in the Commonwealth and one of the bonds that has helped to create the unique family spirit of the Commonwealth is the easy flow of information among its members. This flow of information, so necessary to building a proper understanding of one another's problems, has been made possible by the low cost of sending press messages.

Now this exchange of information and news is threatened. Costs of newspaper production are increasing at an alarming rate. The proposal to increase cable press rates would entail an additional burden on newspapers which are the essential medium of communication in democratic countries.

Commonwealth governments should oppose without hesitation this move on the part of some telegraph companies and nations to interfere with the penny rate.

Joan Of Arc Revealed ?

A prominent British physician and his wife have published medical evidence which, they say, leads them to believe Joan of Arc, 15th Century French heroine made a saint by the Roman Catholic church in 1920, was the victim of a brain abscess.

In an article published last week, Prof. and Mrs. John Butterfield said they extracted evidence from documents on Joan's life and her trial for heresey which tend to show the abscess was caused by tuberculosis of the brain.

This, they say, would have accounted for Joan's hearing voices, seeing, visions, and bright lights.

The two surmised: "had she not been burned, she might have died inconspicuously some months later in prison."

While all this makes interesting academic speculation, it will scarcely dull the lustre of one of the most stirring figures of modern history.

Jeanne d'Arc, the illiterate daughter of a farmer, had two tasks; to raise the British siege of Orleans, and to conduct Charles VII to his coronation at Rheims. As every schoolboy and/or movie goer knows, she succeeded in these aims.

St. Joan has been immortalized in Voltaire's "La Pucelle," in a tragedy by the German dramatist Schiller, in a poem by the British poet Robert Southey, in a drama by George Bernard Shaw, and in a host of other more popular forms of entertainment.

If she was not a legend in her own time, she is certainly one now, regardless of what the reasons for her actions might be.

And medicine, for all its wonder, has never been able to "cure" a legend.

Golden Grain

(The Printed Word)

That Political Realist, the Rt. Hon. John G. Diefenbaker, prime minister of Canada, said in his address at the Commonwealth Trade Conference in Montreal the other week:

"In most, if not all countries, it has been deemed imperative to afford special support to safeguarding measures for agriculture. We delude ourselves if we regard this as a passing phase — it is clearly here to stay."

Someone has said with respect to criticism, it is only the truth that rankles. In this case — this matter of agricultural subsidies and supports — it is the truth that frightens.

Agricultural surpluses in Canada and in the United States, if not elsewhere, are the result of subsidies — open, hidden and indirect. The more subsidy, the more surplus. This is the direct contradiction of Bastiat's rule that the cure for low prices is more low prices. A dispassionate look at the Canadian wheat surplus must bring the conclusion that a lower price for a period would adjust the production to the point where higher prices might be possible. This, of course, is all subject to the fact that in the United States the supported price hurts Canadian producers almost as much as it hurts the United States taxpayer.

The United States has proved, in every respect except political, that acreage control is not the answer, for a reduction in acreage has merely resulted in an increase in production per acre.

In Canada the same sad situation has been created by subsidies, of which there are almost fifty-seven varieties. The subsidies keep the marginal land in production. There are millions of acres in production that never should have been put to the growing of wheat. The more the subsidy, the more marginal land is used for a purpose to which it never should have been put. A few more subsidies and they will be growing wheat in the Arctic Circle under glass.

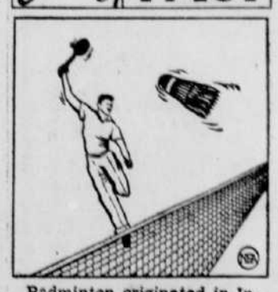
The First Subsidy in Canada was probably the freezing of freight rates on grain over certain railway lines. The politicians for once were not to be blamed for that. Subsequently, politicians extended the privilege to all the railway lines on the Prairies. Between that original sin and numerous other acts of legislatures and parliament, the growing of grain has become not an agriculture pursuit but a political vocation.

A year or so back someone suggested that a solution of the wheat problem would be to double the amount of elevator storage space. But the problem is too much wheat. The only deterrent to increasing the growing of wheat is the physical impossibility of storage and transportation.

The wheat pools probably will try to solve that problem by more storage and more transportation. The food-bank idea is not likely to work because there would be constant demand for increasing the bank. Possibly the wheat could be given away to the hungry people of Asia. That is better than sinking it in the ocean.

Bastiat, who has been dead a long time, at least would approve of getting the surplus product consumed.

Matter of FACT



Badminton originated in India several hundred years ago, was introduced in England about 1873 and came to America about the turn of the century. In England the sport was popularized on the estate of the Duke of Beaufort, located at Badminton—thus the name.

5,000 Dead Cattle

Australian "Outback" Drought

By PETER SMARK

BRISBANE, Australia (Reuters) — Five thousand cattle are estimated to have died and thousands more wait in agony for death as a merciless sun beats down day after day in drought-stricken areas of Australia's "outback."

The drought, the worst in more than 50 years according to old-time residents, has turned into a giant dust bowl huge tracts of land stretching from western Queensland through the Northern Territory into South Australia.

No worthwhile rain has fallen for two years.

Thousands of cattle lie spent on the parched earth, or wallow knee - deep in the mud of the waterholes as death from thirst and hunger daily draws closer.

Ranch-owners estimate that another 150,000 head of cattle valued at the equivalent of $8,400,000 will die by December, unless the "wet" season now due brings tropical rains.

Last year the rains did not come.

Ranch - owners and stockmen are working round the clock putting down bores in an effort to stop the death toll.

Hunger - maddened kangaroos are invading ranch houses and airports.

One ranch reported killing 20,000 kangaroos in two weeks. The frenzied animals are scouring the stark land for patches of green.

The rush to move stock out of the drought - stricken areas has jammed railway services, and ranch owners report a four-month delay between booking a freight car and getting it.

Capt. Bluey Young, chief pilot of the Trans - Australia Airlines' run over the drought districts, painted a grim picture of the area.

"The waterholes are drying up," he said. "Cattle get bogged up to their knees in the mud and many of them are too weak to get out.

"The top cover of the land has lifted and terrible dust storms are starting. In places, the country is just like a desert.

"Many homesteads have to have their supplies flown in. But so far no one has given up because of the drought. They are magnificent people in the outback and they will stick it out."

Capt. Young said the ranch-owners are gambling everything on this year's summer (southern hemisphere) rains.

The worst hit areas are a section of the Barkly Tablelands — once the richest grazing country in north-central Australia — and the Channel country in western Queensland, a wide expanse of flat land cut by inland waterways.

In a normal "wet" season, these broad, rolling waterways spill over, rejuvenating the parched soil. Growth is almost unbelievable. Days after the rains come, the arid countryside is replaced by a green expanse and soon cattle are living in luxury on lush green grass.

But even the rains, if they come, will bring their troubles. Many cattle will become bogged as the rains turn riverbeds of hard clay and the countryside into mud. Many cattle will not have the strength to clamber out of the mud and will be drowned.

Despite this, the ranch-owners are still hopeful. Droughts are no new experience to them.

They know the good years bring rich rewards and that inevitably, in this harsh area, the bad years follow.

FREEDOM BY VOTE

(Buffalo Evening News)

Nikita Khrushchev has sent his congratulations to Guinea on gaining status as the world's newest sovereign state after what he termed "a long struggle." As a matter of fact, the citizens of Guinea voted their own independence one day recently under provisions of the new French Constitution created by Charles de Gaulle — the only one of 18 dependencies to take advantage of the chance to cut loose all ties with France. It was that simple. Mr. Khrushchev has several times referred to the de Gaulle constitution as "fascist" but we haven't heard of any of the slave states of the Soviet empire being invited to vote themselves to freedom.

TCA MONOPOLY

(Winnipeg Free Press)

The worst thing for everyone, for TCA as well as the public, would be to sustain the monopoly to the last bitter moment and then let competition in with a rush. The far healthier approach is to start promptly with a fair dose of competition on the route of existing heavy traffic, from Winnipeg to Toronto and Montreal, and a little competition on the western services across the prairies to Vancouver. The burden of evidence is that these first steps could be taken next year; and it is greatly to be hoped that the Air Transport Board will come to that expansionist view rather than to an overtimed prolonging of monopoly.

BEST DEFENSE IS OVERLOOKED

North and South have a cheap save at four spades against West's heart game, but not one pair at the summer Nationals chose to take it.

The normal opening lead was a trump and West would lead a spade to dummy. North usually played the ace and led back the queen, whereupon declarer would take dummy's king, ruff the last spade, draw the last trump and lead a diamond. North would take his king and play a second diamond to his partner's ace.

At this point, South would see that he could not afford a third diamond lead and would play the deuce of clubs. West's eight would force North's jack and West would proceed to finesse against South's queen and make his contract.

If North plays the king of diamonds right after winning his ace of spades he can beat the hand, since declarer will have to play the clubs himself, but no North player found that defense.

However, a couple of Souths did find a defense. Instead of playing the deuce of clubs they led the queen. This fooled West and he won in dummy and played South for having the club jack also. Curtains for West! Top for South!

GIRLS ON CAMPUS

(Ottawa Journal)

Although the matter has not reached the hair-pulling stage, there's been a lively skirmish between Miss Marie Moreau, fashion editor of the Vancouver Sun and co-eds of the University of British Columbia. Miss Moreau charges that the girls on the campus are sloppy and careless in their dress; the girls resent this criticism.

The defence put up by the students is far from impressive. They say that they go to university not as fashion plates but to work and add that they "dress for comfort". No one would expect a girl student to wear her smartest outfit for a period in a chemical laboratory, but such periods are scheduled for definite times and provision for them can be made well in advance. What sort of "work" the girls do at university with the exception of listening to lectures, is hard to say, unless of course, UBC has set up courses in janiting.

If the girls are sloppy and careless well-advised to heed Miss Moreau's criticism and mend their ways. Employers dislike untidiness in applicants for jobs. Moreover, drooping coats and stocks, sagging skirts and sweaters have never been known to attract matrimonial prospects.

Pull up your socks, girls!

PRESENT TENSE SAME

Ralph Cordiner, president of General Electric, submitted a report to the Business Advisory Council's meeting at Hot Springs, Va., in which he said that while business men sat on their hands, labor became a powerful political force. Our chats with candidates strongly suggest that Cordiner could have written in the present tense without hurting his accuracy.

Waterloo High School News

This year for the first time an Athletic Association has been formed in Waterloo High School. The president, a member of Senior boys basketball and many other sports, is Bruce Racicot, Grade 10. The vice-president, from Grade 11, is Sandra Perkins, a member of Senior girls basketball. The secretary-treasurer is also from Grade 10 and a member of the senior girls basketball. She is Ann Fisher.

This Athletic Association has been formed to encourage participation in school sports. Plans have been made to have a Christmas concert to raise money for the Association and there will be members from Grades 1 to 11 taking part. We wish to thank Mr. Wayne and all the other teachers who helped us to get organized and who made this all possible.

Congratulations are in order to the boys Senior and Intermediate basketball teams, who have won all their games this year. Their last game was a double header against Granby. The cheer leaders, Kay Bailey, Louise Graves, Louise Baird and Susan Flood — Grade 11 — did a fine job in cheering the boys on to victory. These girls are selling chocolate milk every recess at school to raise money to help them buy new outfits.

A magazine campaign for the Curtis School Plan is being held in the High school for one more week. This campaign is not doing so well as was expected and the teachers and members of the Students Council are urging the pupils to go out and push their sales. The Students Council has chosen some very nice prizes which will be given to the top salesmen. The profit from these sales will be used to buy new hockey and other sports equipment.

Progress is being made on the new edition of the "Waterlute" the school annual. The editor is Susan Flood, Grade 11, assistant-editor is Sharon McCullough, Grade 10, with Susan Martin and Thomas Busing in charge of advertisements, Grade 11. They are doing a fine job of organizing the annual and I am sure it will be a success.

Many students from Grade 10 and 11 are planning a trip to Montreal on November 13 to see the stage play "Macbeth" at the Montreal Repertory Theatre. It has been arranged for the students to travel by school bus.

ROCKEFELLER SCORES

(Pat) Brown defeated Knowland for the state governorship by more than 1,000,000 votes. Brown becomes California's second Democratic governor of the century in handing Knowland his first defeat in 25 years.

The labor issue was a voting affair in six states where "right to work" referenda were on the ballots, and also in Michigan, where Democratic Governor C. Mennen Williams campaigned on the Republicans' recession record in the automobile industry's centre.

Williams won a record sixth consecutive term, even though the worst of the American industrial slump appears over now.

The "right to work" proposals, so labelled by their supporters because they would make illegal compulsory union membership in order to hold jobs under labor contracts, were turned down by the voters in four of the six states voting. Heavily industrialized Ohio swamped the measure, and the ban against union shops was trailing this morning in California, Washington and Colorado. In Kansas and Idaho the "yes" votes were leading by a slim margin.

BRICKER LOSES

Republican stalwart John W. Bricker lost his U.S. Senate seat in a Democratic landslide in Ohio, but his fellow old - guard right-winger, Senator Barry Goldwater, rode roughshod over his Democratic opponent in Arizona.

On the Democratic side, prominent winners were senators John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts and Stuart Symington of Missouri, both being talked up as hopefuls for the next presidential campaign.

Sectionally the Republicans fared best in the more conservative eastern states despite their shocking congressional defeat in Vermont. They gained the Rhode Island governorship besides that of New York and preserved Senate seats in Vermont, Delaware, Maryland and Pennsylvania. But in the western farm belt they lost influence, with only Nebraska and North Dakota remaining Republican.

They held out locally in Arizona, Idaho, Oregon and Wyoming against the Democratic landslide.

Youngster Hit Crossing Street

France Castonguay, age 8, received cuts to the knees following an accident about 12.05 p.m. yesterday at the Galt West and St. Esprit intersection.

France Castonguay, daughter of Rosaire Castonguay of 1451 Joliette Street Sherbrooke was struck by a car driven by Laurent Levesque, 31, of 2499 Maisonneuve Street, when she attempted to cross St. Esprit Street on her way to school.

Not seriously injured the youngster continued on her way to school.

Students' Council Conducts Meeting Before H. And S.

An interesting departure from the usual meeting took place Monday evening when the members of the Sherbrooke Home and School Association were given the privilege of witnessing the conducting of a regular business meeting by the Students' Council of the Sherbrooke High School.

The meeting was under the chairmanship of the president, Ray Batrie, with the secretary, Sandra Quinn, and treasurer, Peter Math, forming part of the executive.

The knowledge of how a meeting should be carried on, as displayed by the students, was exceptional and the parents saw the smoothness with which the business before the council was disposed of, and the diversity of the activities considered.

A panel discussion on the dress of high school students was conducted by Paul Lesser, vice-president of the Association. According to the distaff side of the Council, tunics were much favored by the students, while the boys appeared to prefer sport-shirts and trousers.

Refreshments were prepared and served by the Home Economics Department under the supervision of Miss A. Archibald.

During the business meeting of the Home and School Association, which had been held earlier in the evening, president Howard Baugh explained how the collection for UNICEF had been carried on in the North Ward and the success it had been. He stated that $111.18 had been collected and would be forwarded to UNICEF Headquarters in Toronto.

A report on the recent card party showed that it had been a social and financial success.

It was announced that a skate bureau had been formed under the direction of Mrs. M. Porritt, 487 London St. Parents having skates or sporting equipment for sale or desiring sam should register with Mrs. Porritt, and she will endeavor to match requests.

The question of the safety of school children proceeding to or from school was discussed, and a committee under John Bryant was formed to study safety problems and make recommendations to the Association.

Paul Lesser, membership chairman, advised that a committee of class mothers had been organized to telephone parents before meetings.

Censors Mangle Movie

MONTREAL (CP) — The Montreal theatre world is still buzzing over the scissor - snipping of Quebec censors which forced cancellation of the scheduled world premiere of the French movie Maxime.

The motion picture was to have been shown at the St. Denis Theatre Monday night, launching the Montreal Film Festival.

It was cancelled, the disappointed audience was told, because the censors had snipped 4,000 feet from the film, representing about 40 minutes of projection time.

The audience, which booed the action of the censors, saw instead Montparnasse 19, one of the most successful of the 1958 films from France.

Prior to the showing of that movie, Andre Roche, a member of the festival's organization committee, assured the audience that the censors had cut nothing from Montparnasse 19.

"Instead they added something," he said — a minute-long footnote shown on the screen indicating that a couple who had gone off to live in sin had got married.

The plot of Maxime was described by Mr. Roche as an unintelligible intrigue after it had been censored.

The starring roles of Michele Morgan, Art Letty and Charles Boyer had been trimmed to bit parts.

Canada's School System 'Disgrace'

HALIFAX (CP)—Dr. Marcus Long of the University of Toronto said Tuesday Canada's educational system is a disgrace.

"The future of Canada," Dr. Long told the Atlantic Provinces Economic Council, "depends on what is done in our classrooms. Largely because of our archaic way of financing them our classrooms engender little hope."

He said inadequate teachers have been placed in "far too many" Canadian schools by education ministers "hiding behind the plausible excuse of the contrast between the birth-rate of the depression and post - war periods."

LONDON — (Reuters) — The British Dental Journal has condemned as "anti-social" a BBC television film on the psychological effects that can be produced by the dentist's drill.

The Journal declared that the film, shown last month, frightened many adults into cancelling appointments the next day and caused children to arrive at dental surgeries in tears.

A BBC official said the film was intended as a comedy.

Fashion

Legs are in for more of a build-up since skirts are shorter. More color in stockings will be seen with a move to dark hues. If Parisians have any influence, black will be the chic shade, with delicate embroidery along the ankle.

Women who plan a wardrobe with several dresses with high waists will be interested in ways to accent them. One is to use double belts, perhaps one in black and one in white.

Stores are viewing a new home gadget to see how the gals will take to it. It is an electric manicure kit with an emery wheel on a motor-driven shaft. It is run by batteries.

Male Models Bonnets

QUEBEC (CP) — Modelling women's hats before a mirror is part of Ray Davis' job.

He's a buyer for the millinery department of a large Quebec City department store.

A buyer gets a better idea of a hat's style and value by trying it on rather than having it modelled by "a cute girl," said Mr. Davis.

"Get a pretty face and everything looks good, whether the hat is a good one or not. The same can't be said when I try them on, though," he quipped.

He said there's "nothing unusual" about his job and he thinks men make better buyers of women's hats than women.

"Mind you there are exceptions. But a woman will buy hats with herself in mind. And that's sometimes not good."

French-Canadian women, said Mr. Davis, are unusually style conscious.

"They want fashion. Price comes second. And they're not afraid of wearing something new."

Mr. Davis travels to Montreal, Toronto and New York to make his purchases.

Gives Gala Touch To Party Meal

Here's a melt-in-your-mouth dessert to add a gala touch to any party or family meal. This pretty and festive taste treat is made by baking a delecate, lemon- flavored chiffon cake in an 8-inch tubular cake pan, cutting the cold cake into four layers and putting the layers together with a scrumptious filling of whipping cream, coconut and icing sugar. This Luscious Lemon Dessert lends itself to party meals for the cake may be made the day before, assembled the morning of the party and refrigerated until serving time.

LUSCIOUS LEMON DESSERT

Yield—10 Servings.

⅞ cup once-sifted all-purpose flour, or 1 cup once-sifted pastry flour, 1½ teaspoons baking powder, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 cup granulated sugar, 1/3 cup cooking (salad) oil, 1 tablespoon grated lemon rind, 3 egg yolks, 1/3 cup water, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 4 egg whites, ¼ teaspoon cream of tartar, ½ pint (1¼ cups) whipping cream, ½ cup cut-up shredded coconut, 3 tablespoons icing sugar, ¼ teaspoon vanilla.

Preheat oven to 325 F. (rather slow).

Sift the all-purpose or pastry flour, baking powder, salt and sugar into a mixing bowl; make a well in the dry ingredients and add, without combining, the cooking (salad) oil, lemon rind, egg yolks, water and the 1 teaspoon vanilla. Using a wooden spoon, stir the liquids to combine, then beat until batter is smooth.

Sprinkle egg whites with cream of tartar and beat until very, very stiff. Add batter to beaten egg whites, ¼ at a time, folding gently to combine. Turn into an ungreased tubular cake pan (8 inches, top inside measure). Bake in preheated oven ,until cake will spring back when lightly touched with a finger tip—about 1 hour. Immediately cake is baked, invert and allow to hang suspended until cold.

Meantime, beat whipping cream until stiff; fold in coconut, icing sugar and the ¼ teaspoon vanilla.

Remove cold cake from pan cut into 4 layers. Spread half the whipped cream mixture between layers and frost outside of cake with the remaining cream. Top of cake may be decorated with a sprinkle of shredded coconut.

ST. PATRICK MISSION CIRCLE

St. Patrick Mission Circle met Monday night in the Library, after members had attended the Forty Hour devotions.

The rosary was offered for the response of the soul of our late Pope, and for blessings on Pope John XXIII, and for a sister of one of the members.

Miss Hebert, the President, read a most interesting letter from Rev. Justin Diraviam, who enclosed pictures of a church which had been built in South India. One picture inside the church showed a plaque with the ineription—St. Patrick's Church, donated by St. Patrick Mission Circle, Sherbrooke.

It was also reported that 120 pounds of good used clothing had been shipped in October to the Sisters of the Atonement.

Tickets for the Christmas Salad Tea and sale to be held on November 29th., were given out to the members.

Miss Roberta Tobin as food convener reported on different items, and Miss Lucille Crochetiere in charge of surprise boxes requested members to bring in boxes at the next meeting.

The meeting closed and refreshments were served by Mrs. L. Coogan and Miss G. O'Boyle.

FRIENDS MANNERS MAKE

If you telephone a person who happens not to be at home at the time and you are anxious to talk to him as soon as possible, don't ask, "Do you know where he is?" Instead say, "Do you know where I can reach him by telephone?" Perhaps he can't be reached by telephone or the person answering doesn't want to tell where he is.

Then all he needs to say is, "I'm sorry but I don't know where to reach him, but I expect him back at such and such a time."

FAST WASH

Nylon fabrics are easily washed because they have a low moisture absorption.

Ruth Millett

Voice of the People Is Mighty (Quiet) Sometimes

It was a rainy, disagreeable night. The family settled down for an evening of TV viewing, wanting to be entertained for a couple of hours before bedtime.

The dial was turned and the show which came on happened to be a mystery. Before it had been on for a full minute all members of the family agreed that they'd seen the play not once but twice before.

So the TV was cut off. Why the TV industry thinks it can keep feeding the public the same old programs over and over is a mystery to the viewing public.

Presumably the powers that be in TV get gray-haired and shaky-kneed at the thought of TV sets suddenly going dead all over the country. But that's what happens when, with great ballyhoo, an announcer offers the viewing public a second or third or fourth helping of the same show.

If newspapers kept reprinting the same columns and editorials and funnies, if magazines kept reprinting the same articles and fiction, the reading public would scream to high heaven.

But because they don't pay for TV programs, TV viewers are a docile lot.

The only way we can get rid of the repeats is by jamming the telephone lines every time we are offered a rerun instead of something new. If we'd call our local stations and say, "Look I've seen this play twice before. And I don't intend to watch it a third time," TV fare might possibly improve.

But nothing is going to happen so long as we click off our sets in disgust and complain only to other members of the family.

Homemaking

A glowing fireplace is nice during fall months. But keeping the bricks free of smoke stains is a problem. Try scrubbing them with a scouring powder moistened only enough to make a soft paste. Rinse thoroughly. Brush on linseed oil to bring out the color of the dry bricks.

Frankfurters can take on new zest with a little experimenting. Barbecue them by wrapping them in foil. Wrap each one with two tablespoons of sauce. Cooking outdoors it taken 10 minutes on hot coals for them to be at their best.

Beavers Management Delivers Ultimatum To Intermediate League

Litzenberger And Sloan Break Hab Control Of NHL Scoring Race; Litz Moves Into Top Spot With 16 Points

Ed Litzenberger and Tod Sloan of Chicago Black Hawks went on a scoring splurge Tuesday night that cracked Montreal Canadiens' mastery of the National Hockey League scoring race.

The tall 194-pound Litzenberger vaulted to the top of the heap with two goals and an assist as Hawks defeated New York Rangers 4-2 and moved into a third-place tie with Detroit Red Wings.

Sloan, who centres a line with Litzenberger and Ted Lindsay, also picked up three points on a goal and two assists to tie Maurice and Henri Richard of Montreal for fourth - place scoring honors.

HAS MOST ASSISTS

Litzenberger now has 16 points, one up on Jean Beliveau and Bernie Geoffrion of Canadiens, and leads the league in assists with 12.

Hawks outshot Rangers 39 to 21 and had a 3-0 lead going midway through the third period before Camille Henry put away his fifth goal of the season for the New Yorkers.

Lindsay scored the only goal of the first period when he picked up his own rebound and hammered a shot past Gump Worsley in the Ranger nets. Sloan and Litzenberger connected in the second period and Litzenberger picked another in the third.

Dean Prentice scored New York's final goal on a power play when Hawks' Ron Murphy was sitting out a minor penalty.

Three clubs now are within four points of Canadiens, rated runaway favorites for the league title this season. Chicago and Detroit have 12 points, three back of the second-place Boston Bruins.

It's a quiet week for the teams with no new action scheduled until Saturday when Hawks play an afternoon game in Detroit and night action pits Rangers against Canadiens and Bruins against Leafs.

Sherbrooke Beavers Directors Back Manager In Threat To Withdraw From League Pending Decision On Players

The executive of the Sherbrooke Beavers Hockey Club last night reaffirmed their threat to withdraw from the Eastern Townships Intermediate A league. The first note of warning came following the league meeting Monday night.

The directors of the team last night backed up the Beavers' manager, Bob Beaudry in his statement after the Monday night meeting when he commented that the Sherbrooke Club would not be the laughing stock of the league and that under the present conditions being enforced by league officials, it would be better to withdraw.

The original disagreement arose concerning the signing by the Sherbrooke team of Normie Dussault and Adjutor Cote.

At last night's meeting the directors felt that the representatives of the other clubs at the Monday meeting deliberately tried to prevent the two from playing with Sherbrooke. Dussault, who lives in Sherbrooke, has not had another offer from any of the other teams in the league.

Dussault and Cote, it was contended by other team representatives at Monday's meeting, were of too high a calibre to be with Sherbrooke.

Following the meeting, the directors unanimously adopted the resolution that, if Dussault and Cote were not considered eligible for the Sherbrooke team, the Beavers would withdraw from the League.

Death Of Old Time Phillie Shortstop Recalls Baseball Scandal Of 1924

NEW YORK (AP)—The death of Heinie Sand in San Francisco Monday recalls the Jimmy O'Connell scandal that rocked baseball in 1924.

Oldtimers may remember the banishment from baseball of the prized rookie outfielder for New York Giants.

It happened on a Saturday in Philadelphia in September of 1924 when the Giants, engaged in a hot fight for the National League pennant with Brooklyn Dodgers, opened a series with the second-division Phillies.

During infield Practice O'Connell is said to have approached Sand, then playing shortstop for the Phils, and offered him $500 "not to bear down too hard." At the time the Giants needed to win a game or two to clinch the pennant.

Sand laughed off the incident but that night told his manager, Art Fletcher. John A. Heydler, then president of the National League, was informed. He notified Kenesaw M. Landis, commissioner of baseball.

Landis held a secret hearing after which he announced he had banished O'Connell and Giant coach Cozy Dolan on charges of bribery.

Sand, who broke into baseball with Salt Lake City of the Pacific Coast League before moving up to the majors, died after a short illness. Funeral services will be held Thursday.

Argonauts Out To Vindicate Loss

TORONTO (CP)—Toronto Argonauts will be out to vindicate themselves in eyes of the public in Montreal Saturday, Lew Hayman, the Big Four football club's manager, said Tuesday.

"If they can do that, they'll vindicate themselves with me, too," Hayman said.

Argos, who lost 44-7 to Montreal Alouettes here last Saturday, can only improve their record Saturday—they're out of playoff contention. Jobs on the 1959 team will probably be at stake, however, possibly including that of coach Hamp Pool.

Coach Pool said he will use Phil Muntz and Jim Rountree on more offensive running plays and put Dave Mann on defence.

Foreign Entries In The Washington International Raise Many Eyebrows

LAUREL, Md. (AP) — Venezuela's late entry in the $100,000 Washington International was a surprise but two Russian colts raised some eyebrows, too.

Garnir and Zaryad, the Soviet Union's entries in the Nov. 11 turf race, trotted on to the track unannounced Tuesday after the fourth race. They walked and jogged around the mile track while racing fans gaped. There was light applause.

Both jockeys wore full riding silks. On Garnir and wearing light blue was Nikolia Nasimo, 29, one of Russia's top jockeys. Viktor Kovalev, a 23-year-old in his second year of riding, was astride Zaryad in royal blue.

The three - year - old colts are both bays and finished one-two in the Russian Derby.

The entry from Venezuela, which swelled the field to 10 for the 1½-mile event on grass, is Escribeno, winner of $50,000 top money in South America's Simon Bolivar Stakes.

Owned by Juan Vidal of Caracas, the dark brown colt will be trying to duplicate the feat of another Venezuelan horse, El Chama, which won the International three years ago.

Big Eddie Litzenberger of Chicago Black Hawks took over the National Hockey League's individual scoring leadership Tuesday night with a three-point effort.

Litzenberger boosted his production to 16 points as the Hawks beat New York Rangers 4-2 in the night's only game.

Lee Macphail To Take Over Work Of Paul Richards For Baltimore Orioles

BALTIMORE (AP)—Lee Macphail will take over the general manager's job of Baltimore Orioles from Paul Richards, it was announced today. Richards will devote full time to managing the baseball team on the field.

The announcement by James Keelty Jr., Oriole president, confirmed recent reports that the 41-year-old Macphail will give up the position of director of player personnel for New York Yankees to come to Baltimore.

Lee, son of Larry Macphail, formerly an owner of the Yankees and Brooklyn Dodgers, will take over the end of this month.

Richards has been designated both general and field manager since he was hired by the Orioles from Chicago White Sox in 1955.

Macphail started his baseball career as business manager at Reading, Pa., in the Interstate League in 1941. He was general manager of Toronto Maple Leafs in the International League in 1942. He later worked in the front office of Brooklyn Dodgers with his father.

He joined the Yankee organization, again with his father, in 1946 as business manager of Kansas City. Three years later he was named co-farm director of the Yankees, held the job alone for the next six years and last year was named director of player personnel.

Avatus Stone Cut By Baltimore Colts

BALTIMORE (AP) — Avatus Stone, backfield star with Ottawa and Montreal of the Big Four until this year, has been released by the Baltimore Colts of the National Football League.

Stone, who has been placed on waivers, was signed by Colts only last Friday as a punting specialist. In his only appearance in Sunday's game against Green Bay Packers in Baltimore, he kicked the ball 28 yards.

The Ottawa Rough Riders picked up Stone when he graduated from Syracuse University in 1953. He stayed with Ottawa until 1957, when he joined Alouettes.

Denies That Montreal Mentor Has Been Asked To Coach British Columbia

VANCOUVER (CP) — Harry Spring, president of British Columbia Lions of the Western Interprovincial Football Union, said Tuesday Montreal Alouettes coach Peahead Walker has not been asked to coach Lions next season.

He also denied that Carl Voyles, former coach of Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Big Four union, has been asked to become Lions' general manager.

Speculation about Walker and Voyles cropped up in Montreal Tuesday.

Spring said it would be "improper to approach Walker without first receiving permission from Alouettes to do so. We have not sought that permission or talked to Walker."

Spring said "nobody representing the Lions has approached Mr. Voyles. Nobody with authority has even talked to him about any possible job here. We were informed some time ago that Voyles was going to make an application for the job with us but up to and as of now we have not heard from him."

What Will Happen To Coach Walker?

MONTREAL (CP)—Any decision on whether coach Peahead Walker of the Montreal Alouettes football club will be with the team next season will have to wait until this one is finished, says general manager Gorman Kennedy.

Kennedy was commenting Tuesday on a story by the Montreal Star that Walker may be in his last year with the Als.

The Star said Walker's three-year contract with the team runs out after this season and "the word is that it may not be renewed — unless at Walker's terms."

"The same word has it that other clubs are bidding for his services, notably Vancouver Lions of the Western league, in an indirect sort of way."

Kennedy termed the Star report "highly interesting and speculative." He said Walker's contract has not been discussed and won't be until after the Big Four playoffs.

K-W Dutchmen Coach Claims Odds Help Him

SARNIA, Ont. (CP)—Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen coach Royall Bailey says the law of averages, if not the odds-makers, favors his club tonight in the opening of a best-of-three final series for the Ontario Rugby Football Union senior title.

Dutchmen are given little chance of regaining the title from the defending champion Sarnia Golden Bears. They lost all four league games against Sarnia by lopsided scores.

Bailey said Tuesday night, however, that Dutchmen held a sizeable statistical edge in two of the games and his team has a better chance than most observers give them.

Both clubs will be at full strength for tonight's game.

Columbus Returns To Sally League

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP) — Columbus returned to the Class A South Atlantic League Tuesday night when it was announced by club president Hugh McMath that the team would work next season with Pittsburgh Pirates.

"The only thing that stands in the way of becoming a member of the Sally League is the formal acceptance of Columbus by the South Atlantic League directors," McMath said.

End Of Season Panic Prompts Scribe To Blast Late Autumn Football Games

By JACK SULLIVAN

The annual end-of-season panic for playoff spots in the Big Four and Western Interprovincial Football Unions has moved Ted Reeve to observe that the clubs really are moving into the third season of the current campaign. Don't go, the knowledgeable Toronto Telegram sports columnist explains it this way:

1. Exhibition Season: the balmy summer evenings when the touring football troupes, East and West, play social matches with about "40 imports on each and every side, and the customers paying regular prices for a look at the pickup matches."

2. The Legit Season: "When well-organized and hard - hitting squads such as Winnipeg Blue Bombers and Hamilton Tiger-Cats or Edmonton Eskimos make their drive through the docket of late August and September and early October and battle into first place, or into a solid situation for playoff room.

"PANIC SEASON"

"Then comes cutting time in the National Football League and the local bush leagues suddenly come to life again." Reeve doesn't name No. 3 but it could be the "Panic Season."

He says: "Season Number Three is upon us and a good thing for the so-called Big Nine sponsors but a bit of a bilk, owing to this three-out-of-four playoff gimmick (in the Big Four) for the consistent contenders.

"But . . . ah, well, the customers approve and what would we do with no football at all?"

Goalkeepers appear to be the whipping boys in the National Hockey League.

A few years ago, Conn Smythe of Toronto Maple Leafs hit the sports pages when he told Turk Broda, his netminder, to slim down—or else. The papers carried daily stories of Broda's battle of the bulge.

This probably gave Coach Phil Watson of New York Rangers an idea. Last season he conducted a public running feud with goalie Gump Worsley. Watson thought that Worsley was overweight and told him so at every opportunity.

This year, Watson has come to Worsley's defence at the expense of Johnny Bower, former Ranger and now goalkeeper with Toronto Maple Leafs. Watson says that Bower is "full of baloney."

Watson made his remarks after Bower said the Ranger coach didn't give him a fair chance to remain in the NHL. This, said Bower, happened three years ago.

Worsley probably couldn't believe his eyes when he read this Watson quote: "I thought Gump Worsley was a better goalie three years ago and I still think so now."

Just last spring, when Rangers clinched second place with a victory in Toronto, the New York coach told reporters:

"Even Gump was hustling—the fat slob."

Mohns Gets Flu Double Whopper

BOSTON (AP) — Defenceman Doug Mohns of Boston Bruins, already suffering from a broken jaw, was in hospital today with the flu.

Dr. Ronald Adams, physician with the National Hockey League team, said the flu attack is not serious but could aggravate the jaw injury, which Mohns suffered two weeks ago in a game against Toronto Maple Leafs.

Kelowna Plasters Chilliwack 11-0

Three Provincial Champions Are Declared; Vancouver Blue Bombers Take BC Title To Meet Edmonton

Three provincial champions were declared this weekend in junior football playoffs across Canada.

In the West, Vancouver Blue Bombers won the British Columbia title with a 34-6 victory over Victoria Navy Rams at Victoria Saturday. Unbeaten in eight previous games, the Blue Bombers will meet Edmonton Wildcats next weekend in the first round of the interprovincial finals.

Wildcats earned their playoff spot Sunday in whipping last year's Alberta champions, Edmonton Huskies, 30-0, for a 2-1 finish in the best-of-three provincial final.

Saskatoon Hilltops took a 31-point lead in the first game of the home-and-home, total-points playoff for the Manitoba Saskatchewan title with a 50-19 victory over Regina Rams Sunday. Final game is in Saskatoon next Saturday.

In the East, Montreal's Notre Dame de Grace Maple Leafs won the Quebec Rugby Football Union junior title, thumping Rosemount Bombers 41-0. Leafs will meet the Nova Scotia champions to determine who has the right to play the Ontario champions in the Eastern finals.

The Ontario finalists will be selected next Saturday when North York Knights meet Sarnia Knights. Sarnia took the Ontario Rugby Football Union junior championship Sunday while losing 29-6 to Windsor AKO. Sarnia ended up with 51 points to Windsor's 30 in the two-game total-points series. North York won the Big Four junior championship with a 13-9 win over Lakeshore Bears.

Beebe Home And School Association May Join Smaller Regional Group

BEEBE — The Beebe Home and School Association met in the Intermediate School. The meeting was chaired by the president, Alden Peacock, who asked R. Gibson, principal, to introduce the members of the staff.

The treasurer reported a bank balance of $272.61, including a trust fund of $218.50 given to the Home and School Association by the former board of the Beebe Protestant School.

Rev. Frank Stanton made the motion that the trust fund be accepted and be kept for some worthwhile project in the school.

Mr. Gibson noted that 90 pupils are receiving vitamin capsules this being a 10 per cent increase over last year.

Insurance for the hockey teams was discussed and Valmore Lepitre was appointed to confer with Sunnyside School and the Beebe Athletic Association and report at the next meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Millar are representatives for the Teen Town Committee and one more couple is needed to act with them in this capacity.

Mr. Peacock and Richard Reynolds attended a regional council meeting and gave a report. It was suggested that the group representing 13 schools be broken into two smaller groups of approximately six schools each and that a Stanstead County representation be formed with headquarters in Magog. It was moved that the Beebe Association join this proposed group.

Two members from the association will attend the school board meetings held on the last Monday of the month, alternating between Beebe and Sunnyside schools.

The attendance banner was won by parents of Grade 5. Mrs. Alfred Little, program committee convener, presented a skit on everyday problems and family home life. Taking part were Mrs. Raymond Wheelock as the mother, Rev. Frank Stanton as the father and Donnie, the four-year-old boy was portrayed by Roland Drew, while Mrs. Don Soutiere took the part of the 8-year-old daughter Judy. Small groups were formed and the members discussed the questions asked them concerning family troubles. The skit proved very humerous and the discussion period of much interest.

The articles were admired by the guests and Mrs. Rollins expressed her appreciation. Seated with Mrs. Rollins and Nancy were Mrs. Dora Davis and Mrs. William Rollins, Sr., mother and mother-in-law respectively, of the guest of honor.

MRS. LESLIE McCALLUM, OF RANDBORO

RANDBORO — The communities of Randboro, Sawyerville and Bulwer were saddened by the sudden death of Mrs. Leslie McCallum on October 16th, which came as a shock to all.

Joyce Elizabeth was the daughter of the late Edwin Richardson, of Bulwer, and his wife, now Mrs. John Robinson, of Cookshire. Joyce was born at Moe's River on September 25, 1918, and attended school at Draper's Corner, Bulwer and Lennoxville High School. After school she took a business course at O'Sullivan's Business College in Sherbrooke and then worked in the office of the Canadian Ingersoll-Rand Company Limited in Sherbrooke until 1941.

She was active in the Young People's Society at her home church in Bulwer and also at Lennoxville United during the two years she lived there. After moving to Sherbrooke, she joined the Young People's Society at Plymouth United Church and took a keen interest in various church activities. She took part in several plays sponsored by the "Plymouth Players" and it was while practising for one of these plays that she met the man whom she afterwards married.

Leslie McCallum and Joyce Richardson were married on September 16, 1939, at Plymouth United Church and resided in Sherbrooke until 1947. During this time, Leslie served four years in the R.C.A.F. Two children were born to the McCallum home during this period, Audrey Lois in 1942 and Diana Ruth in 1944.

After his discharge from the R.C.A.F., Mr. McCallum worked for two years at the Sherbrooke Post Office and then, for reasons of health, the family moved to Randboro, where they have since lived.

During the years they spent in Sherbrooke, Mrs. McCallum was an active member of the Plymouth United Church Ladies Guild and when the family moved to Randboro she continued to take an active interest in the work of her local church. She was instrumental in starting a Sunday School for the boys and girls of the Randboro community and served for several years as superintendent and Sunday School teacher.

At the time of her death, Mrs. McCallum was vice president of the Randboro United Church Women's Association, in which she had served faithfully. She was also an active member of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Sawyerville Branch of the Canadian Legion and was for two years its secretary.

Mrs. McCallum will be remembered for her work which she never shirked, but even more for her kindliness, her friendly smile, and winsome sense of humor and for her ardent Christian faith. She will be remembered more for what she was than what she did.

The cerebral hemorrhage which rendered Mrs. McCallum unconscious occurred while she was visiting her mother in Cookshire on the morning of October 15th. She was taken to the Sherbrooke Hospital and died the next day.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Howard C. Fraser at the Randboro United Church on Saturday afternoon, October 18. The minister took as the text of his message John 4:14, and the Sawyerville United Church choir led the congregation in singing, "All The Way My Saviour Leads Me". Mrs. McCallum always loved music and her favorite hymn, "Saved by Grace" was sung by the choir at the close of the service. OSBORNE DOUGHERTY, Mayor.

"THEY DID NOT DIE IN VAIN"

As the flag dips in tribute to those who died, and the bugle blows its mournful "Last Post", we pause to honour once again the sacrifice of those who fought so gallantly to prepare the freedom we hold dear. Let us pay tribute to them on this Remembrance Day.

"WE WILL REMEMBER THEM"

And what better way of honoring the memory of those who gave their lives for us than by enlisting in the armed forces of the country for which they died.

In strength lies our defence . . . the continued defence of the principles for which our comrade soldiers fought and died.

You can add to that strength by joining the 7/XI HUSSARS R.C.A.C.

C. Hoyle, Commanding Officer.

Distinctive Styles And Exciting Colors Feature Fashion Show At Waterville

WATERVILLE — An exclusive collection of Fall Fashions by Chez Jeanne, Enrg., Magog, was shown in the United Church Hall.

Chrysanthemums, roses and multicolored maple leaves enhanced the setting, and background music was furnished through the amplifying system arranged by Mr. S. Hopper, with the records and record player supplied by Miss Pouliot, of Chez Jeanne, Enrg. Mrs. Pettigrew and Miss Beaudry were English and French commentators respectively.

A number of Norman Hartnell originals were shown, also many other distinctive styles.

Coats featured the bulky look in fabrics of Mohair, Angora and the very sleek Seal Skin finish. Borgannas are still very much in the lime-light with interesting full backs, graceful lines and narrow hemlines.

Many exciting colors in the dress selections were noted such as ginger, sizzling red, desert gold, brilliant green and Dior blue. One feature of the 'new look' is flowered print on wool with short skirt and narrow hemline. A stunning Italian import was a woven tweed jumper with black, red and yellow flowers and a black jersey top.

Several ski outfits were shown with neat well-fitted (some elasticised) slacks and colorful jackets, many of which were reversible.

Chic cocktail dresses were featured in chiffon, chiffon boucle, and silk jersey. These were beautifully styled with shirring or draping.

Mrs. R. L. Gale thanked Miss Pouliot for bringing the collection also all who had helped to make the evening a success, expecially those who had contributed prizes.

Winners were Mrs. J. P. Rouillard, Mrs. C. W. Smith, Mrs. W. Crowley, Mrs. H. Bureau, Mrs. E. Fiddler, Lennoxville, Simonne Masse, Mrs. C. Griswald, Mrs. Rose Fortin, Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. T. Ball.

AFTER EFFCTS OF SHINGLES HITS OLDER PERSON HARDEST

The Doctor Says
Edwin P. Jordan, M.D.

Shingles—or as it should be known, herpes zoster—is an extremely troublesome and painful disorder about which people inquire every year.

Herpes is caused by a virus, one of the peculiar features of which is that it cannot be distinguished from the virus which causes chickenpox. Furthermore, there is a close relationship between these two disorders.

A number of epidemics of chickenpox have arisen in people after contact with patients with herpes zoster. The reverse is much less common. The British Medical Research Council has reported 20 outbreaks of chickenpox originating from herpes zoster in boarding schools for boys during a five-year period.

Herpes shows itself by a painful, acute inflammation of the skin accompanied by characteristic blisters. It involves only that part of the skin which is reached by certain nerves. It occurs on one side of the body only and is particularly frequent around the chest, just over and parallel to the ribs, and on the forehead, face and lower back and abdomen.

The blisters (which appear several days after the pain starts) begin to open and dry up in a few days and finally disappear altogether.

In the young and middle-aged this usually ends the matter, but in older people severe neuralgic pains often last for months. In elderly people shingles may be a long-lasting affair, causing a great deal of suffering, taxing the patience of the victim and presenting a truly difficult problem.

Many kinds of treatment have been used for shingles with varying success.

External treatment involves the use of soothing preparations. X-ray treatments have value in some. When herpes appears on the forehead it can move down into the eye and this can be a most serious and painful complication.

The antibiotics (or some of them) may turn out to be of real value in treatment — especially if given early in the course of the disease. Other methods, including injections, have their advocates. But in the majority recovery occurs anyway, regardless of treatment.

It has been suggested that more medical attention be given to trying to prevent neuralgia in the elderly by perfecting measures to reduce the severity of the acute attack.

Once this kind of pain has become established, the vicious cycle can sometimes be broken by relatively simple measures. One of these is blocking the pain-carrying nerves by injection. The earlier this is started the better the chances of obtaining relief.

In some cases surgical procedures are necessary. Even here more than one method may have to be tried before the desired relief is obtained.

Greater Love Hath No Man... Than That He Lay Down His Life!

Remembrance Day is a time set aside to pay tribute to those who have fallen in battle and to the civilian dead. Yet the celebration of Remembrance Day is empty if it does not prompt us to remember the causes for which men have given their lives and to rededicate our own lives for the welfare of humanity. Let us, each and every one, resolve to keep faith with those who have gone before us and to give substance to that faith in our daily thoughts and action.

REMEMBRANCE DAY

'Twas forty years ago this day, when Armistice was proclaimed.
When the fighting world lay down its arms,
to count the dead, the maimed.
For none had won, as all had lost the cream of their young men.
Around the Peace Table the Nations pledged,
they would never war again.

One and twenty years rolled by, They came to grips once more.
With five more years of blood and tears, death . . .
agony . . . and gore.
Each time both sides prayed to God to help them kill one another.
And so it's been since time began, when Cain slew his Brother.

In Europe, Far East, Middle East, also in South America.
What is wrong with the human race? What really is the matter?
The lust for Power, the Greed for Gold. Pride, Jealousy, Conceit.
Without GOD, mankind is nothing more than the dirtt upon the street.

The flowers that bloom in field and garden, none are exactly alike.
Yet, they beautify the earth, and make it a delight.
What a wonderful variety in size, shape and colour.
It pleased God too, when He made men different from one another.

On this fortieth anniversary of that first great Armistice.
Let every nation pray, and promise to work for universal peace
Form a World-wide Government, each Country be a Province or State.

Destroy all thoughts of war . . . before it is too late.

Have done with spending billions . . . 'cause we're afraid of one another.
With material so saved, make fire-proof homes for Children, Father, Mother.
Create ONE new language, to be taught from Grades one up in every school.
And in one generation, millions more would keep the Golden Rule.

May Communism and Democracy bury the hatchet, deep.
Join hearts and hands, and be true friends,
this sacred promise keep . . .
To make all mankind equal, may their efforts never cease . . .
Until they give unto this world . . .
Ten Thousand Years Of Peace.

Lake Megantic — Tom Gordon.
