Eligible Investment
FOR Agricultural Settlers.
FOR SALE,
THE FIEFS HERTEL and DUBUC, situated in the COUNTY and PARISH of CHAMPLAIN, District of Three Rivers.
These Fiefs extend for nearly one mile along the Shore of the River St. Lawrence—in the Parish and above the Village of Champlain—and for six miles inland. The land is good, has been long settled, and the rentes, which are very low, are regularly paid. The lods et ventes have been estimated and commuted, under the Seigniorial Tenure Act, and, with the rentes, yield a secure income of £30 a year. The unconceded land [now held, under the abovenamed Act, in Free and Common Soccage,] consists of about 500 acres in one block, well watered, covered with valuable timber, and admirably adapted for settlement.
This Property is within a few miles of the ancient, but flourishing, Town of Three Rivers, and, consequently, within a few hours of Montreal, by daily steamers. It offers a most eligible investment to any agricultural settler, with moderate capital.
For further particulars and terms of Sale apply to the undersigned Proprietor, at this Office; or to Mr. A. MARTINEAU, N. P., at the Village of Champlain, District of Three Rivers.
DAVID KINNEAR.

A DESIDERATUM.
M. Jacobs' Anti-corrosive Amalgam Pen.
THESE PENS will be found, on trial, superior to Gold or Steel, possessing more of the action of the Quill than the Gold Pen, they will be preferred.
Each Pen is as durable as eight or ten made from Steel; they will not spatter or cut the thinnest paper, gliding over a rough or smooth surface as freely as the Quill, and will not injure the tint of Red Ink, nor affect the durability of Black; collecting none of that sediment in the ink, which Steel Pens invariably do. Price TWO DOLLARS per Gross.
CAUTION.—Each Pen is stamped, "M. Jacob's Amalgam." Each Box has a fac-simile of the Manufacturer's Signature.
Sold exclusively in Montreal and Three Rivers District, Wholesale and Retail, by

SYSTEM IN TRADE.
SOMETIMES parties thinking of purchasing five or ten pounds worth of Dress Goods, will feel undecided as to which Store they will purchase at, especially if they have only lately arrived in the City. In such cases they frequently take up one of the city papers and glance through the Advertisements. From the over complimentary style of one, and the pitiful soliciting tone of another, they will at once say—"Gentlemen you won't do—there is neither system nor confidence about you." They pass on till they meet with some matter of fact, —broad and independant announcement. The inducement is favorably received, the bell rings, the carriage is ordered to the door in twenty minutes, and within one hour, the whole performance is gone through. Magnificent display of Merchandize; splendid acting of the accomplished Salesman; polite attention of the Storekeeper towards the closing scene, and the honest approbation of the man's conscience who sells, with a few pleasing looks from the Proprietor, the sale is made and the interesting performance is brought to a close.
It is not remarkable, for instance, the stand which the NEW MART has made in this city. Its success has been mainly owing to system. Their advertisements are clear, demonstrative and business-like, and such as would induce any sensible customer to call. They not only announce but strictly adhere to the "one price system."
In a city with a population of nearly Eighty Thousand, not one person can come forward to say they ever have in one instance deviated from this rule. The manager pledged himself to this system and has kept his word to the letter. They import extensively from the best European Markets, so that those who desire the latest Novelties of the Season at the lowest remunerative profit, will do well to visit the New Mart, St. Lawrence Main Street.
The Gentlemen's Department, which they opened lately, has given general satisfaction in this city.

SAFETY FROM FIRE.
A Simple glance at the position of the boiler and fire in Gold's Heater will convince any one of its perfect safety. The fire is on all sides enclosed within a fourteen inch partition, including the water sheet around it, two inches; flue, four inches; and brick wall, eight inches. The heat is so perfectly consumed by traversing the boiler, that the temperature of the smoke-pipe does not exceed that of the steam (212 deg.), which is a degree of safety, as well as economy, hardly to be equalled. The only external openings to the fire are through the feed-spout and ash-mouth, both of which are of iron, substantially built into the brick work, and with a pitch inclining inwards, thus preventing the liability of coals falling out.
According to recent reports of the Fire-Marshal, two-thirds of the fires in New York city are traceable to the use of hot-air furnaces; and the evil is increasing to such an alarming extent that the Fire Insurance Companies of New York city have been compelled to increase the rates of insurance where they are used, and to offer a premium on safer modes of heating. To this end, the authorized agent of the companies have carefully examined this apparatus, and have pronounced it the most free from danger of fire of any method of heating buildings now in use; and have furthermore decided to make a deduction of Ten per Cent. on all risks where this mode of heating is adopted.

TRUE TIME.
AMERICAN WATCHES.
THESE superior Watches are made by the aid of new and original machinery, expressly designed to secure with a low price, a FINE SUBSTANTIAL AND UNIFORMLY RELIABLE timekeeper. The movements are new in construction, and have been pronounced by the highest authorities to be faultless in principle and quality, and have been proved by the most exacting tests to be unfailing in action. These watches are made entire from the crude materials, in a single establishment, by connected and uniform processes—the factory being organized upon the same system that has been adopted in the production of the unequalled American firearms,—which enables us to produce a movement at one-half the price of a foreign movement of the same quality. Each watch is carefully tested, and is accompanied with the maker's certificate and warranty for TEN years.
ALL FOREIGN WATCHES ARE MADE BY HAND, the American watches being the only ones made by machinery upon a uniform system throughout. Nearly all hand-made watches are defective, and are continually getting out of order. In many parts of the country it is impossible to find good watch repairers, and watch repairing is always uncertain and expensive. The introduction of American watches disposes of this difficulty, and country merchants, as well as watch dealers, can keep watches as a part of their miscellaneous stock, and thus supply their customers with a NEW STAPLE, which may be used as any other article, without mystery or humbug. Sold by the trade generally.

Vaneleek Hill, July 20th, 1858.
M. W. R. HIBBARD,
Dear Sir,— Having now fairly tested the Columbian Oil for myself, I can fully endorse your statements concerning it and with you, pronounce the Light which it produces far superior to that obtained from any material I have ever used. The saving of Expense, compared with other Oils is immense, and you may confidently recommend both the OIL and LAMPS, for lighting either Dwellings or Stores, as they speak for themselves.
Yours truly,
Signed, JAMES P. WELLS.

☞ To the subscribers of the Daily Herald.—We would thank Subscribers who do not receive their paper punctually, to inform us of the omission. We would also caution the public against purchasing papers from our carriers as they are not allowed to sell papers.

FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 1, 1858.

Three Day's Later From England.—The R. M. S. S. Arabia, from Liverpool on the 18th ultimo, reached New York yesterday morning—for her news, which is unimportant, see telegram, under appropriate heading.

St. Lawrence Division.—We learn, by special telegram, last night, that the nomination of Candidates took place at Kemptville yesterday—that some three thousand of the electors were present, and that, on the show of hands, Dr. Brouse had a majority over Mr. Crawford of about three to two.

The Exhibition.—The weather was, yesterday, most propitious and the Exhibition grounds were, consequently, crowded with visitors during the entire day.

The splendid band of the 17th Regiment occupied one orchestra, and the band of the Montreal Volunteer Artillery (we think it was) another. During the day they discoursed sweet music for the entertainment of the company.

In noticing, yesterday, the splendid show of draft horses and the somewhat meagre supply of those for the saddle, we should not have omitted to mention, among the latter, "Coquette," a strikingly beautiful four-year-old mare, of the Bob Logic stock, the property of Euclide Roy, Esq., of this city.

The Horticultural Department is in many respects superior to any former Shows, and additional tables were necessary yesterday, to accommodate the specimens of Fruits and Vegetables. The magnificent collections of Green House plants from Mrs. Holland and J. Ferrier Jr. Esq. add much to the interest and attraction of the Exhibition.

Had several gentlemen, who have usually exhibited, contributed on this occasion, the Show of Fruits, Vegetables and Flowers, would have challenged comparison with any in North America.

The Revd. Mr. Villeneuve, whose thorough knowledge of Horticulture so well fits him for the task, the Revd. Dr. Wheeler, President of the Champlain Valley Horticultural Society, and Craig Baynes Esq. of Montreal, are the judges; and when the awards are completed we will give full particulars of this most successful floral Exhibition yet had in Montreal.

We elsewhere publish, this morning, the Prize List of the Industrial Department of the Exhibition.

The Upper Canada Provincial Exhibition.—The Toronto Globe of Wednesday morning contains a handsome Wood-Engraving of the Toronto Crystal Palace. Our contemporary says, in reference to the visitors on the occasion:—

Some eighteen trains arrived yesterday, and all being filled, together with the boats, it is not possible that there could be fewer than four thousand strangers in the city last night. The chief hotels were well filled, but there was no crowding. Tuesday is only the beginning of the fair; it is Wednesday and Thursday which try the resources of the publicans. We believe that Toronto will be equal to the shock, however, heavy as it undoubtedly will be.

Lord Napier, it is definitely announced, will not be here. Lady Napier is ill, and the visit was conditional on her being well.

The Programme of the inauguration, ceremonies, says the Atlas is as follows:—"The approach of the Governor will be heralded by a flourish of trumpets, and on his entering the Palace, the National Anthem will be performed; the Bishop of Toronto will then offer prayer, and will be followed by the Choir giving the chorus 'Gloria in Excelsis.' Speeches will succeed; then the 'Hallelujah Chorus' will be rendered, after which other addresses will be delivered, and the ceremony be concluded by the 'Old Hundredth." The music will be rendered by the Metropolitan Choral Society, numbering 250 performers. In the evening, the Sacred Harmonic Choir will have the Palace lighted with above 500 burners for their concert, and the Metropolitan Choral Society, also, will have a concert at the same time, in the St. Lawrence Hall. The former performance will be patronized by the Exhibition Committee, and the latter by Lady Head,

We omitted, in our Report of the Exhibition, to notice the display of Messrs. Clarke, Bennett & Co., who exhibited a very fine assortment of Canadian Leather Trunks, Railway Companions, and Valises, Hat Compendiums, &c., for which they obtained the First Prize. The Black Patent leather Portmanteau, Railway Companion, and Hat Compendium, are all en suite, and attracted much attention, being very beautifully finished. The Oak-tanned sole Leather Trunk, is also worthy of note, being copper rivited all through, with steel springs without any stitching.

We omitted the following contribution to the Exhibition in our issue of yesterday:—One 15 ton Wrought Iron Lifting Jack, from the Montreal Iron Works, 1st Prize, W. Meikloham.

The case of Toilet Soap belonging to Mr. Hearle, exhibited at the Industrial Exhibition, now being held, is home-made and not imported as stated by us yesterday.

Grand Trunk Railway of Canada—Adjourned Meeting—On Wednesday the adjourned meeting of the Fifth Annual General Meeting of the above Company, was held at the Company' Offices, in the city of Toronto, at twelve o'clock, Thomas G. Ridout, Esq., in the Chair. The notice convening the meeting having been read, the Chairman stated that, in consequence of the absence of the President and Vice-President, who are still in England, he would now declare the Meeting adjourned, and to stand adjourned until Wednesday, the twentieth of October next, at twelve o'clock noon.

Theatre Royal.—Another great attraction is offered to play-goers this evening. The "Courier of Lyons," a capital piece, and the Irish Farce of "The Omnibus." The company should be seen by all visitors, for we are sure they seldom have an opportunity of witnessing so good a performance as may be seen in Coté Street. Full houses nightly reward the Manager for his enterprise and liberality.

Mr. John McConkey, of this city, has received a letter from his father, Mr. Samuel McConkey, Australia. There is no doubt of the authenticiy of the letter, and this puts an end to the story that Mr. McConkey was drowned, and clears up a mystery with many people.

Pic-Nic and Concert.—We would direct attention to the Advertisement of this grand affair which will take place this day.

Quoiting.—The return match between the Chateauguay and Montreal players will come off this day, on the Montreal Cricket ground. The game will commence at one o'clock.

We beg to direct the attention of Furriers, Country Merchants, and Storekeepers and others, to the great Sale of Hudson Bay Buffalo Robes, to take place this morning at Eleven o'clock, at the Stores of Messrs. E. Hudon, Fils & Co., St. Paul Street

The whole lot will be closed without reserve, and presents an opportunity rarely, if ever, offered of securing a supply of those indispensable and most comfortable of all protectors from the cold of our severe winters, at a low figure. The terms are more favorable than those usually accorded to buyers. For particulars see Messrs. John Leeming & Co.'s advertising columns, who are the Auctioneers.

COURT OF QUEEN'S BENCH.

CRIMINAL TERM.

Presiding—Chief Justice LAFONTAINE and Justice AYLWIN.

(Reported for the Montreal Herald.)

Wednesday, Sept. 29.

The Court opened this morning at ten o'clock.

THE WEBSTER CASE.

Mr. Devlin said—In the case of Dr. Webster, there is another bill pending for felony. No particular time has been fixed for the trial, and I would beg leave to ask that a certain day be set apart for this trial, that is, if the Crown intends to prosecute. In reference to the verdict yesterday evening, I will take movement in the matter to-morrow morning.

Mr. Monk—You ought to give notice in a formal manner—in the manner usually adopted in cases of this nature.

Mr. Devlin—I can do that, but, in the meantime, I would wish to know if a day has been set apart for the trial for felony, which is only a charge arising out of the alleged offence for which my client was tried yesterday.

Mr. Monk—I will give the learned counsel two or three days notice before the trial is brought on.

PERJURY.

A Jury was sworn in the case of a man named Narcisse Bellehumeur, who was indicted for perjury, of which crime he proved himself guilty, when, at the last October term of the Court of Queen's Bench he was called upon on the part of the defence to give evidence on behalf of Bathilde Allard and Felix Cassavant, accused of stealing a certain sum of money from the person of a man named Stephen May.

At the trial above mentioned, Bellehumeur swore that May, who was then prosecuting, had not, as he alleged in his complaint, requested him as a cabman to drive him to the nearest police station to prefer a charge of robbery against Bathilde Allard and Felix Cassavant, but had, on the contrary, desired to be driven, and was in fact conveyed along with a companion to a house of ill fame. This assertion on the part of Bellehumeur was proved, before the trial in which he appeared terminated, to be unfounded, and he was, before the Court rose, placed under arrest for perjury, and his case held over till Wednesday.

Stephen May and others were Wednesday called upon to substantiate the charge of perjury.

Mr. Bondy, who represented the prisoner, called witnesses to depose to the prisoner's good character.

Justice Aylwin then charged the Jury, who returned a verdict of "Guilty." After a severe reprimand, Justice Aylwin reserved sentence, the defendant being bound over to appear when called upon.

ROBBERY ATTENDED WITH VIOLENCE.

A Jury was sworn in the case of Thomas Radcliffe, Jean Touilliere, John Fay, and Ferguson Neilson, all of whom were charged with having, on the 15th of August last, robbed William Salthouse of the sum of £4, and for having effected that object by means of violence.

Mr. Edward Carter appeared on behalf of all the defendants.

Mr. Monk, Q.C., stated the case on the part of the Crown.

William Salthouse examined by Mr. Monk—I resided at St. Lambert on the day named in the indictment. I came from St. Lambert that evening in company with the complainant, my object being to secure boarding for a friend. He told me I might stay at his tavern all day on Sunday and pay nothing. He resides at Wellington Bridge and has another tavern at St. Lambert. When I arrived at his house, on Saturday evening I had twenty-five dollars in my possession. I went to bed; my money was in a belt. I had a sleeping companion in the same bed, being afraid of my money I put the money in my trousers pocket and put them under the mattress, I did not sleep well. On Sunday morning I rose and accompanied by Souilliere went out and treated him In a tavern kept by a Canadian woman. Here he attempted to steal a pipe, but I told him I would disclose the fact and he then seemed to grow angry and went back to Ratcliffes. I shortly after followed him to take breakfast. Ratcliffe showed me into a room where I saw all the prisoners seated. The door was then closed by Ratcliffe, who stood with his back to the door. He asked me how much money I had about me. I said I didn't know. He said all in the room should be searched for money had been stolen during the night I said nobody but a policeman should search me. Three of the prisoners threw me down while Ratcliff was holding the door. They placed their knees on my breast; tore open my vest and my trousers and Ratcliffe took my money; and going to another part of the room began to laugh. Ferguson Neilson said if ever I came across the river he would have my life. I never saw the money after Ratcliffe took it. This occurred in the morning; they put me out of the room and kicked me. In the afternoon I went back to the tavern and asked my money. Ratcliffe would not consent to give it. Two of the prisoners threatened me and I had to leave. Having no money I was compelled that night to sleep on some boards outside the city.

Cross-examined by Mr. Carter.—I know Ratcliffe and Neilson by name; not the other two. The person who slept with me at Ratcliffe's tavern was a little man—a blacksmith. I was not drunk that night. I was a little the worse of liquor before I went to bed. Neilson may have slept in the house that night; but I don't know if he had any money in his possession. I did not object to sending for a policeman. There was no person searched but myself; I did not see the other three prisoners exhibit any money to Ratcliffe. They pretended to show money; but did not. I wished to get out of the room before they began to search me, for I was afraid of my money. There was no person in the room besides the four prisoners. I told them I had three five dollar bills, and one four dollar bill just changed; I got this bill changed at the Canadian tavern; but I will not swear that I had more than four pounds. I was robbed on the Sunday, and put my case in the hands of Mr. Bedwell, who came with me to the Court on the Monday; but, before the matter was served, I had to attend the Court six or seven days. On the Saturday evening, I received from my employer, Mr. Samuel Ratcliffe, Victoria Bridge, £4 6s 7d; the rest of the money I received from a lady tor whom I did some gardening work. When I refused to be searched, none of the party said they would send for a policeman. I never took the money from my pocket, nor said when they were about to send for a policeman,—"Here, Neilson, is your money." Ratcliffe was the person who took the money from my person. I did'nt take that money from my pocket and hand it to the prisoner Fay. I will swear that I did not see Ratcliffe hand the money to Neilson. When I had been robbed, one of the prisoners came to me, as if in taunt, and showing a dollar bill, asked me where I got it. I said I knew nothing about that bill. I do not know that Neilson claimed that five dollar bill as his money. When I was robbed, I went out of the front of the house; I was not sent out by the back of the house, that I might escape the anger of persons who were indignant at my having robbed Neilson of his money. I did not hear Neilson say, when at breakfast, on Sunday morning, that he had been robbed; I took no breakfast that morning, neither did I pay a quarter dollar for breakfast to Mr. Ratcliffe.

James Richardson was examined for the defence by Mr. Carter.—On the Sunday morning alluded to by the prosecutor, he was in the room in Ratcliffe's house, previously mentioned by the complainant. Neilson complained of having lost his money, and it was proposed to search all the room; the prosecutor was in the apartment at the time. When the complainant heard this, he handed out to Fay, two five dollar bills, a four dollar bill, and a two dollar bill. All the men in the room had previously been searched, and had shown their money. When Fay received the money from the complainant, he handed it to Neilson, who had been robbed of it; and the latter recognized a five dollar bill, with some peculiar marks about it. The complainant was not searched, but gave out the money when we threatened to send for the police. The complainant, Salthouse, was sent out by a back way, in order that he might not be assaulted by those who were in the tavern, and were angry at his conduct. There were more than four in the room; there were seven or eight. Salthouse was paid on Friday, and shortly after said he could not pay for a treat. I swear that the complainant took the money from his breast and gave it to Fay, who gave it to Neilson.

The witness was subjected to a severe cross-examination by Mr. Monk; but nothing material to the issue was evolved.

Court—Do you know Ratcliffe?

Witness—I board with him.

Court—How long has Ratcliffe been in jail?

Witness—Since the 20th August.

Court—Did you go, when he was brought up at the Police Court, and give evidence in his favor; or why did you allow him to remain so long in jail?

Witness—Because I was not summoned.

The witness was here ordered to stand aside, and not leave the Court.

Alexander M'Clure examined by Mr. Carter.—On the Saturday evening, I saw Salthouse at Ratcliffe's tavern, He was drunk. Next morning, when I rose, I heard that Neilson had lost his money; he slept in the same room with Salthouse; the latter took his breakfast there that morning; he was at the same table with me. I saw him pay Mrs. Ratcliffe a quarter of a dollar for his breakfast. I heard Neilson say to Salthouse that he had lost his money. He said he had the money when he went to bed that night. It was agreed that all should be searched, and it was proposed to send for police; but Salthouse refused, saying, they themselves were policemen good enough; I was the first searched, and turned out what money I had, so did Souiliere; Salthouse went to go out, but was not permitted; the prisoner, Fay, said to Salthouse, "you are the man who has shown guilt." He then gave out the money, and it was returned to Neilson. I saw him identify the peculiar five-dollar bill.

Court—Where is that bill?

Witness—I suppose it is gone.

Examination continued.—There was no violence used. The complainant, Salthouse, went out by the back way.

Court—Yon heard of Ratcliffe being taken into custody?

Witness—Yes:

Court—Did you come to Court to give evidence on his behalf?

Witness—I was not called up.

John Flynn, father-in-law of Ratcliffe, was examined; and proved in the main what had been already adduced.

Court—Why did you allow your son-in-law to remain so long in jail?

Witness—Oh! I don't know.

Court—You left him to his fate?

Witness—Yes.

J. P. Coursol Esq., was here examined, and stated he had a recollection that witnesses for the defence were about to be called before him. He admitted the prisoners to bail with the exception of Ratcliffe, against whom another case was pending.

The case for the defence here closed, and Justice Aylwin charged the jury—The learned Judge remarked on the strange conduct of the three witnesses examined, who, if their story were true ought have deposed in favour of the prisoners at first, and so, perhaps saved them from the present prosecution. On the other hand, if Salthouse were the thief why had the prisoners not prosecuted him and plead him in the dock, and make him the defendant instead of themselves. Here was also the note. Why had that note not been produced? had it been in court it must at once have decided the case, far better than the prisoners who, in a tavern, constituted themselves, if their story be true, into a law tribunal. The case however should be left to the Jury, that they had sufficient knowledge of the world to tell who gave the testimony which was really honest and reliable. In conclusion, there was one fact which ought not to escape their observation the prisoner, Ratcliffe had been in jail since the 20th August, and it was most extraordinary that he had remained there up till this time without having made an effort to rescue himself from the position and place the charge of theft, if there were such in reality, on the shoulders of Salthouse. There was a difference between a case of highway robbery and this one. In the first instance a person assailed might have an opportunity to cry for help; in a case like this four or five men, under cover of a roof could easily manage to rob a man and then frame a story by which they might even contrive to rob him of his personal liberty. However the jury could satisfy their consciences and themselves, and return a corresponding verdict, for they, in reality, were Judges of the facts of the case.

Mr. Carter—Concerning the statement made by your Honour, that it was extraordinary that the prisoner Ratcliffe remained in jail so long without attempting to clear himself, I have only to remind your Honor that Mr. Coursol stated that one of the witnesses examined was ready when the case was brought up to depose to the facts.

Judge Aylwin—The case has now gone before the Jury, and I cannot permit you, Mr. Carter, to make any further observations; they will no doubt decide as the facts adduced and their own consciences may direct. Gentlemen, you may retire.

The Jury, after an hour's deliberation, returned into Court with a verdict of acquittal.

The Queen vs. Henry Mendle and Emily Phila.—An Indictment from the shop of the Messrs. Benjamin, merchants.—The parties were called upon their recognizances, and having made default, they were forfeited. Thereupon Mr. Justice Aylwin enquired whether this was the same case in which he had peremptorily declined to take bail, and remanded the prisoners to gaol?

Mr. Monk, Q.C., answered that it was, and that he regretted extremely the existing anomally in the law, which enabled parties accused, after being refused bail by the Judges of this Court, to apply to Judges of inferior jurisdiction in the form of an appeal from the higher tribunal. In this case the evils of this anomally were singularly illustrated—the fact was that he, Mr. Justice Aylwin, upon the clearest principles of the law, refused to bail these parties; thereupon application was made to Mr. Justice Mondelet, who at once refused admitting the parties to bail, for two reasons—1st. Because they had already been refused admission to bail by a superior Judge; and 2nd. because the evidence was so conclusive and the law so plain. Immediately after such refusal application was made to another Judge of an inferior tribunal, who, notwithstanding the most strenuous opposition, on his, Mr. Monk's, part admitted the parties to bail in a very small amount with rather questionable security. Mr. Monk added that it was discouraging to know that after so much expense and trouble had been employed to bring offenders to justice they were allowed to escape with impunity and under sanction of judicial authority.

His Honor Mr. Justice Aylwin then remarked that the attention of the Legislature should be called to such mischievous anomaly. He considered it a course highly improper, under the circumstances that the parties in this instance should have been liberated upon bail in the face of such clear and conclusive evidence against them.

TRUE BILLS.

The Grand Jury returned "true bills" against Dominick O'Connell, larceny in a dwelling-house; John Dickson, stealing from the person; Louis Prudent, larceny in a church; Lydia Francis, larceny from her mother's shop; Theophile Lucas, larceny; Theophile Lucas, stealing a gelding; Sarah Jane Hardy, murder; Lydia Martinelli, Francois Landuci, and Mathew Besos, feloniously stabbing; and Emily Phila and Henry Mendle, larceny from a shop; and no bill against Denis Graham, for sodomy.

After handing in the above bills, the Foreman of the Grand Jury, Mr. Mott, complained of the absence of William Lunan, one of the Grand Jurors, without leave.

The Atlantic Cable.

New York, Sept. 30.

The following despatch was received this morning by the Directors:—

Trinity Bay, Sept. 30.

There has been no change whatever in the condition of the Cable.

C. V. DeSANTY.

Arrival of the "ARABIA."

New York, September 30.

The "Arabia," from Liverpool on the 18th, arrived at 5 o'clock.

The "Alps," from New York, arrived at Liverpool on the 17th.

The "Ariel," from New York, arrived at Southampton on the 17th.

The "Canada" was off Liverpool on the 18th and would arrive at 5 p.m.

The "Harmonia," which left Hamburg on the 15th for Southampton and New York, exploded her magazine on the 1st day and put back to Hamburg. Five passengers were wounded.—She had 293 passengers on board. She would sail again on the 19th.

The Times publishes a long letter from a correspondent at Valentia in regard to the Cable. His view is rather discouraging, but it is stated that Mr. Henley, who has been for some days experimenting on the Cable, is sanguine of making the line again serviceable by the use of his powerful Magnetic Electric Machines, which are now on their way from London.

Mr. Lundy, one of the Assistants at Valentia, has gone to Newfoundland to ascertain the condition of the wire at Trinity Bay, and to arrange a day on which a certain known code of signals is to be sent down at concerted times from both ends, and to endeavor thus to establish intelligible communication.

Shares have declined to £420@£460.

Recent experiments induce belief that a fracture, or fractures (for it is thought there may be two), will be found to exist between 200 and 300 miles from shore; for about 230 or 240 miles the depth is only 410 fathoms, and within that length mischief could be easily repaired, but a sudden descent then occurs of 1518 fathoms, where it is extremely doubtful if anything could be done. The probability seems to be that at this abrupt point the damage has been sustained.

Mr. Whitehouse writes another letter to the Times on the subject of his dismissal, in which he charges the managers with incompetency, and demands a full investigation by the shareholders of the grounds on which he was dismissed.

FRANCE.

A treaty is said to have been made with the King of Korea, a vassal of China, for the establishment of a French commercial settlement there.

LONGWORTHY'S PURE OHIO CATAWBA BRANDY.

THIS BRANDY has been manufactured for several years from the PURE JUICE of the CATAWBA GRAPE, thus affording additional evidence of the progress of American enterprise and industry, and of our ability to produce articles at home equal to those made by any other nation.

OHIO CATAWBA BRANDY not only equals but excels the best imported Brandies in purity and flavor. It is, in fact, the best Brandy known. This statement is fully corroborated by the certificates of our most distinguished analytical Chemists.

The want of PURE BRANDY has long been felt in this country, and the introduction of an article of such quality as to surpersede the sale and use of those vile compounds hitherto sold under the name of Brandy, can only be regarded as a great public good. The CATAWBA BRANDY possesses all the good qualities claimed for the best imported Liquors, and is of perfect purity and superior flavor, and a sovereign and sure remedy for Dyspepsia, Flatulency, Cramp, Colic, Langour, Low Spirits, General Debility, Cholera Morbus, &c. No Family should be without it. Retail price $1,25 per bottle.
