War Unlikely Says Spaak

NATO To Hear From Big Four

WASHINGTON (P) — Foreign ministers of the 15-nation North Atlantic Alliance meet here today for the first time in 10 years.

President Eisenhower was scheduled to address the public opening session of the meeting. The first business session will be held in the afternoon to discuss the Soviet threat to Berlin and learn the general lines which Britain, the United States, France and West Germany have developed for meeting it.

Paul-Henri Spaak, secretary-general of the defence organization, at a press conference Wednesday night summed up the theme of the sessions insofar as the Berlin problem is concerned — emphasizing the grave dangers which Berlin holds for the West.

"I don't believe we'll have a war," Spaak said, "but if we don't have a war we cannot suffer a diplomatic defeat in Berlin. It might be the first sign of a disintegration of the alliance and of the West."

BIG QUESTION

How to avoid a military showdown and at the same time prevent the Soviets from scoring a diplomatic victory with their pressures on Berlin has occupied the U. S., British, French and West German foreign ministers here for the last two days.

They concluded their discussions and strategy Wednesday night. Informants reported that they had failed to resolve all their differences over how to deal with the Russians at a foreign ministers conference at Geneva in May but they did reach some agreement.

The talks of the Western Big Four cleared the way for debate on the Berlin issue in the larger NATO group of 15 foreign ministers. The meeting is to commemorate the creation of the alliance 10 years ago.

Defence Minister Pearkes, heading a 13-man Canadian delegation, arrived Wednesday. Pearkes said he is looking forward to a "very interesting meeting."

Military pomp and ceremony, symbolizing the strength NATO has generated during the troubled decade, were arranged to dramatize today's gathering in the same great hall in which the NATO treaty was signed April 4, 1949.

GUARDS AND BAND

Honor guards and a military band were ordered to be on hand an hour in advance of the meeting. The schedule called for each foreign minister, arriving by a precise time schedule, to be greeted by ruffles and flourishes as he entered the auditorium.

Following the morning session the foreign ministers were to lunch with Eisenhower at the White House.

Officials of NATO said that the meeting, which will run through Saturday, would be dominated by discussion of the Berlin situation and the forthcoming foreign ministers meeting with Russia—a meeting expected to clear the way for a summer summit conference. The only other business before the NATO ministers was a review of the achievements of NATO during the last year.

They were expected to reaffirm in a closing communique their unity and support of the basic decision made late last year by the United States, Britain and France that those countries will not permit Soviet threats or pressure to force them to withdraw their troops from West Berlin. A Soviet campaign with that stated objective was launched by Premier Nikita Khrushchev last November.

Campaign Flops

SUBURBY (CP) — Poor response may force an end to Red Feather campaigns in the Sudbury district, J. W. Gillespie, district executive director of the campaign, said Wednesday. Mr. Gillespie said extra money will be needed by local welfare agencies this year as a result of the International Nickel Company strike last year. About $77,000, half of the original objective was debated last year.

EASY DOES IT — Mrs. Ed Welsh sits calmly in a chair as she is carried from a fire that swept through a row of 10 old rooming houses in Toronto this week. She was one of 85 people left homeless.

Red-Sponsored Plot Bared By Mexico

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Informants said today that investigation of the Easter rail strike has uncovered a Communist plot to upset Mexico's social order by a chain of strikes in key industries.

More than 300 confessions from rail strikers are reported to have revealed this goal. The Mexican government has linked two Soviet Embassy officials with the plot and ordered them to get out of the country Friday.

A reliable Mexican source said the Soviet Embassy gave 1,000,000 pesos—about $80,000—to strike agitators, but secret police trailing a leftist union leader seized the cash.

Traffic Pupil Was Too Keen

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP) — Juvenile officer Francis Holley said a teen-ager sentenced to attend traffic school after being convicted of speeding arrived late for class. He explained: "I got another ticket for speeding on my way here."

Avro Team Breaks Up

Foreign Firms Lure Scientists

TORONTO (CP) — It was a $100-a-day advertisement, obviously addressed to aircraft engineers and scientists from the A. V. Roe plants at suburban Malton.

"The Columbus division of North American Aviation Inc. has a team of their engineering management in Toronto to make on-the-spot offers for career positions in its rapidly expanding engineering department."

It got 75 replies in the first three hours.

Thus it appears that while Avro and government officials look for a substitute for the Arrow jet interceptor program cancelled by Ottawa Feb. 20, foreign firms are taking a heavy toll of the elite force of 2,500 engineers and scientists built up by Avro since 1945.

Mistake, Israel Explains

JERUSALEM — (AP) — The Israeli government sought today to calm war jitters caused by a coded broadcast calling up Israeli army reserves.

The army said the announcement Wednesday night should have been a routine notice to three reserve units being called for training manoeuvres. But the army said the government radio had broadcast it in a way "likely to create panic in the country and misunderstanding abroad."

Jordan's higher defence council held a late-night emergency meeting and announced it was taking "all necessary measures to protect the Jordan border and security."

Shortly after the Israeli broadcast, which gave the impression of a large-scale mobilization order, Finance Minister Levi Eshkol interrupted a budget debate in parliament to express the government's regret over the misunderstanding.

Premier David Ben-Gurion, who also is Israel's defence minister, met this morning with heads of the armed services. Afterward a spokesman said the "incorrect version of the army chief of staff's order as broadcast corresponds in no way to the decision or original intention of general headquarters."

Ben-Gurion named a special committee to find out who was responsible for the broadcast. The suddenness of the military manoeuvring came as a shock, for the Arab-Israeli frontiers—though always tense—have been unusually quiet in recent weeks.

There was an air of mystery about the Israeli callup for a time. The orders to the reservists were broadcast Wednesday night in code during a regular station break on the Israeli radio. The orders were something less than urgent, however, since the reservists were told to report at 5 p.m. today, 20 hours after the broadcast.

Damascus radio interrupted a Moslem religious program marking the holy month of Ramadan to call Syrian reservists and regular army men back to duty.

Israeli sources said reservists may be called for spring and fall training periods of a week or two by broadcasts, telegrams or telephone calls in code for signal practice. The reservists carry code books.

Joey Accuses CLC Of 'Illegal Swindle'

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP) — Premier Smallwood told reporters Wednesday serious consideration is being given to a proposal to take action against the Canadian Labor Congress for "illegal swindle."

CLC President Claude Jodoin announced Wednesday that the congress is launching a "strike and defence fund" for Newfoundland loggers. He said the objective of the fund is to raise $1,000,000 a month by asking for a $1 contribution from each of the CLC's 1,000,000 members.

Mr. Smallwood said there is no longer a strike of International Woodworkers of America (IWA) in central Newfoundland and "the IWA's illegal strike in western Newfoundland has been called off."

"Where is the money going? Who is it going to? What is it being used for?" he asked.

He said the fund-raising program may be the biggest swindle in the history of Canada.

TO AMEND ACT
 Meanwhile, in the legislature Wednesday, Mr. Smallwood gave notice he would introduce an amendment to the Labor Relations Act.

The provincial government March 6 passed an amendment to the act which gives the lieutenant-governor-in-council power to dissolve a union if a substantial number of its executives continue to hold office after being "convicted of any heinous crimes."

Mr. Smallwood said outside the legislature the amendment will make it necessary for the attorney-general to prove in the Supreme Court (Newfoundland) that a substantial number of the union's chief officers have been convicted of such crimes.

The legislature will adjourn April 10 for two or three weeks so Finance Minister Spencer may prepare a budget.

Prime Minister Diefenbaker announced last week that the province will receive $6,000,000 a year for a five-year period. The provincial government had hoped for $15,000,000 and objected strongly to the grant being restricted to five years.

Duplessis Answers Charge

By BERT TRUDEL

QUEBEC — Premier Duplessis charged yesterday Liberal leader Jean Lesage had waited until the session was over to make accusations against Minister of Game and Fisheries Camille Pouliot, because the opposition had been afraid to make them before the House.

He said those who knew Dr. Pouliot knew him as an honest man — and this was the reason why the Liberals had waited until after the session was prorogued to wage their campaign of deflection.

This was the first comment made by the Quebec government leader following the sensational charges by Mr. Lesage last week to the effect the Minister had been guilty of making huge gifts of government property to an aviation company headed by his son Michel.

Specifically, Mr. Lesage said Dr. Pouliot had made an outright gift of a Bellanca plane to the Transgaspesien Arien Company, and later had exchanged with the same firm a Super-Widgeon plane, owned by his department, against a Cessna-Crane worth $1,800 two months before the exchange.

The Widgeon had been modernized at a cost of $35,000. The Transgaspesien firm put up the plane for sale two months ago through an Ontario firm. Asking price is $42,000. The Cessna-Crane was so close to the scrap heap, said Mr. Lesage, that it has never been used since and is still kept idle at the Quebec Airport.

Mr. Lesage added these gifts were in addition to more than $25,000 worth of subsidies paid by Dr. Pouliot's department to the Transgaspesien Arien, whose President and manager is Michel Pouliot, the minister's son. The subsidies for trips to the Magdalen Islands and the North Shore were so high, said the Liberal leader, they were enough to meet all operation expenses of the biggest planes of the firm. Fares paid were clear profit.

Premier Duplessis pointed out that none of the charges made by the Opposition had been made during the session, not even during the discussion of the estimates of the department headed by Dr. Pouliot. The credits, he

Fighting Flares Up Again In Tibet; No Word On Lama

KALIMPONG, India (Reuters)

Fighting in Tibet has flared up again between Communist Chinese forces and pockets of anti-Communist Khamba tribesmen about 25 miles south of Lhasa, usually reliable sources said today.

The fighting began at noon

Wednesday as the Communists trained heavy guns on the rebels for the first time since the rebellion began.

Reports of fighting appeared as Nationalist Chinese government sources in Taipei claimed that Khamba tribesmen had rallied 300,000 men and were preparing to retake the capital city of Lhasa, where the revolt began March 10.

ALL-OUT DRIVE

Sources here said the new bombardment apparently was the start of an all-out Chinese attempt to put down the rebellion.

This is the first news of fighting in Tibet to reach this border town in several days. But there have been reports that Communist China was airlifting thousands of troops into Tibet in preparation for further trouble.

Reports from the Tibetan city of Gyantse, about 100 miles southwest of Lhasa, said Wednesday that more trouble was brewing there and that the Chinese garrison was preparing to meet a new uprising.

The sources also said Chinese fighter planes were patrolling rebel-held southeast Tibet in an attempt to locate the Dalai Lama, Tibet's divine ruler, as he attempted to escape with members of his family and cabinet.

A total of 50,000 Chinese troops were reported to be scouring the countryside in search of the Dalai Lama.

Meanwhile, Communist Chinese forces were reported to be rounding up thousands of Tibetans — including 5,000 to 10,000 from Lhasa alone — and taking them off by truck to forced labor camps.

Late Bulletin

LONDON (AP) — Peiping Radio declared today Tibet's Dalai Lama has taken refuge in India. The broadcast, quoting the New China news agency, said the Dalai Lama left Tibet "under duress by the rebellious elements."

Previously an extinguisher was required in this size boat only if it carried an inboard motor. Now outboards with built-in tanks are being covered.

CHANGING SKI RULES

Additions are being made to the safety regulations on water skiing. Boats towing skiers, water sleds or surf boards will require two occupants—one to steer and the other to watch the skier.

Still in effect are requirements that such boats not endanger navigation, life or limb and that this sport stop an hour before sunset and not begin until an hour after dawn.

Maximum penalty for breaking these regulations remains at a $500 fine or six months in jail if the fine isn't paid. The court also may bar the convicted person from operating a small boat for up to a year.

Operators of bigger pleasure craft also are affected by regulation changes. Those with boats over 26 feet will have to carry warning flares and vessels over 65 feet will require two lifebuoys instead of only one.

Boats between 26 and 40 feet in length will have to carry a 50-foot heaving line separate from the required lifebuoy. Previously the heaving line had to be attached to the lifebuoy.

Today's Chuckle

If the do-it-yourself craze continues, it might even extend to thinking.

The provincial government March 6 passed an amendment to the act which gives the lieutenant-governor-in-council power to dissolve a union if a substantial number of its executives continue to hold office after being "convicted of any heinous crimes."

Mr. Smallwood said outside the legislature the amendment will make it necessary for the attorney-general to prove in the Supreme Court (Newfoundland) that a substantial number of the union's chief officers have been convicted of such crimes.

The legislature will adjourn April 10 for two or three weeks so Finance Minister Spencer may prepare a budget.

'Panther' Wolf Shot At Montreal

MONTREAL (CP) — A brush wolf was shot and killed near the western end of Montreal Island Tuesday.

Immediately the animal was branded as the phantom panther that has been roaming mysteriously in the area. Several people, including two policemen, said they saw a panther clearly earlier this week and took a shot at it. They missed.

J. F. Bourque, general superintendent for the Montreal area for the Quebec Game and Fisheries Department, said the shooting of the brush wolf supported his theory that no panthers at all have been sighted.

Eddie And Liz Plan Wedding In Mexico

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (P) — Eddie Fisher said today that he and Elizabeth Taylor will marry in Mexico within the next six weeks.

Wednesday night he said they would wed in Las Vegas if he could get the consent of his former wife, Debbie Reynolds.

But he added later that he had slight hope of getting Miss Reynolds to agree to a Nevada decree. She has obtained a California divorce which will not be final for a year.

Fisher said he could get a divorce in Mexico without his former wife's consent.

He said Miss Taylor is leaving in May for Europe to make a movie. He is going with her.

"We want to travel as man and wife," he said.

Miss Taylor said Wednesday night she hopes Miss Reynolds will consent to a Nevada decree on her return from movie work in Spain in a few days.

"Debbie was very much hurt at first to find out that Eddie and I were in love," said Miss Taylor. "That is very understandable, but I think the hurt has now left and that she may consent to Eddie getting a divorce in Nevada. What has she got to gain by opposing it?"

Fisher said that he tried to get Debbie's consent to a quickie Nevada divorce but was rebuffed. He said that under Nevada law it is necessary to get the consent of both parties in a divorce.

WOULD BE EMBARRASSED
 Debbie had said that she wouldn't consent because it would be embarrassing to explain to her two children how their father could have two wives at the same time.

Under a Nevada decree, Fisher and Miss Taylor could not live as man and wife in California until Debbie's decree is final, under penalty of bigamy charges.

Fisher was favorably received in his singing appearance at the Tropicana Hotel Wednesday night. But earlier, pickets appeared before the hotel with signs, one of which read: "Liz, go home."

Plea For More French Defeated In Ontario

TORONTO (CP) — Some delegates to the annual convention of the Ontario Education Association Wednesday holly debated the teaching of French in Ontario schools.

At a meeting of the Ontario Association of Trustees and Ratepayers held in conjunction with the OEC convention a proposal that French be taught in schools at the earliest possible age was defeated 62-to-35.

While some delegates said Canada was a bilingual country others denied it. Shots of "bigot" were heard.

tooling on three continents. Teagarden says he's a little frightened by some of the trends in American music.

"You hear a lot of noise these days," he said, "but what does it all mean?"

"There's hardly a demand for anything good any more. Everyone used to enjoy music. It was festive. It was gay. It was romantic. You could dance to it. It came from the heart."

"Everything is a fad now. Echo chambers, chimes, howling choruses—anything to get a different sound. Arrangers seem to be taking leaky pens and flipping them at score sheets. Whatever lands on the paper, they play."

Teagarden isn't worried about the quality of today's performers. "Technically, they're better than the musicians of 20 or 30 years ago," he said.

Jack does much of the arranging for his own band. On a recent tour of Asia for the state department, he stopped in New Delhi and before his show asked for the score for the Indian national anthem.

The only one available was for the 99-piece Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, which visited India a few years ago. Teagarden hurriedly re-arranged it for his sextet.

That tour ended, Teagarden entered hospital here for a stay of two months. The effects of ex-

What bothers him is that rock 'n' roll and "cool" jazz are causing Americans to lose touch with real American jazz.

"It's our own art form and we're losing it," he said.

Some of the younger set disagree and say Teagarden is old-fashioned.

At Rock Island

E. J. Struthers Honored On Retirement

ROCK ISLAND — E. J. Struthers was honored guest at a banquet held in the dining room of the Del Monty hotel on the occasion of his retirement as Collector of Customs and Excise at Rock Island port of entry.

Seated at the head table with the guest of honor was his brother, Kenneth Struthers, superintendent of Customs at Lacolle, Carroll Smith, Rock Island Customs office, who was M. C. Gordon Howell, Deputy Minister of National Revenue, and Mrs. Howell, Ottawa, Herbert Rice, retired Deputy of Collector of Customs at Derby Line port, and Mrs. Rice, Wilfred Breault of the Investigation Service, Montreal, Clifford Dean, retired Collector of Customs, Phillipsburg, Henry Routhier, customs officer at Phillipsburg, L. E. Roberge, retired Customs officer by choice, and ex-M. P. for Stanstead County, and Mrs. Roberge, Rock Island, RCMP Cpl. Lucien Belair and Mrs. Belair, Rock Island, Andre Dufresne of the personnel office for the Province of Quebec, from Montreal, Ben Lapiere, Immigration inspector in charge at Rock Island and Mrs. Lapiere, L. K. Shephardson, representative of Inspection, and Mrs. Shephardson of Montreal.

Mr. Smith proposed a toast to The Queen and The President of the United States. He read telegrams from the National Executive Association, Sec-treas of Customs and Excise, Ottawa, from Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lanctot, Ottawa, from the Highwater, Collector of Customs, and letters from Sutton and Blackpool collectors of Customs, expressing regret at not being able to be present at the banquet and extending best wishes to Mr. Struthers.

Short speeches were given by several of the men, all speaking in high tribute to a great man and wishing him health and happiness in the years ahead, each one adding a note of reminiscence of their years of associations with Mr. Struthers.

Mr. Rice said he had known Mr. Struthers for many years before either came to the ports of the Derby Line and Rock Island. He recalled that shortly after Mr. Struthers came to Rock Island they inspected barns along the Boundary line, and in those days there were 13 cross roads from one country to the other and not a customs house on the American side.

Harold Bean, a former Customs officer said he could think of only two words to exemplify Mr. Struthers, Friendliness and Service, shown in public life, municipal affairs and the many clubs of which Mr. Struthers is a member.

Mr. Breault referred to about 30 years ago when he started his Civil Service career at Rock Island customs office. He brought greetings from the Director of Investigations.

Mr. Dean, a life-long friend of Mr. Struthers travelled back to the days of their youth on their home farms at Noyan, of the horse and buggy days, school years when they roomed together at College and later when both become Collectors of Customs.

Mr. Routhier, for 27 years at the Rock Island office, referred to his Associations with Mr. Struthers. Brief remarks were given by Russell Sage and Russell Murphy, both of Stanhope.

Mr. Roberge spoke of the days when Mr. Struthers first came to this Port and of the friendly atmosphere created by Mr. Struthers, he said we realize more each day Border Ports have problems much different than the inland Ports. The boys looked upon Mr. Struthers as a General and he inspired confidence in his men."

Cpl. Belair, on behalf of the RCMP's paid homage to Mr. Struthers whom, he said "has gained esteem through his unselfishness."

Mr. Dufresne paid tribute to Mr. Struthers by quoting a magazine clipping which "fitted". "A head is every inch a gentleman", and said "Mr. Struthers will retire but not stop working." He asked the officers to give the same loyal support to the new Collector of Customs as they gave Mr. Struthers.

Mr. Lapiere, who came here from Montreal in February, said he was greatly impressed by the fellowship of the men here in Civil Service.

Mr. Howell, representing the Minister of National Revenue said "thirty years ago to-night was the eve of Mr. Struthers' appointment to this port of entry as Collector of Customs" and noted the many changes which have occurred since then and of the changes to come about in the next two or three years with the new highway and Customs House in East Rock Island. He presented to Mr. Struthers a certificate from Civil Service for loyalty the past 42 years in service.

Adding a touch of humor, Mr. Smith said they had looked every where to find one black mark against Mr. Struthers, and had been successful, he then read a (fake) telegram stating Mr. Struthers was two months back in payment of dues to the flower fund.

Cecil Miller, retired head officer of Beebe Office, on behalf of Mr. Struthers' friends in the Service, presented him with a fine leather travel case and wished him "Bon Voyage" on his trip to England and other ports.

Mr. Struthers thanked all those whom had contributed to the gift and said "it will be on the plane with me Tuesday night as I soar over the Atlantic on my way to London". He stated he and his brother together has a total of 82 yrs in Customs service. He thanked his friends for their kind words and said he had been blessed and helped through the years by his good wife Molly, (the late Mrs. Struthers).

Mr. Struthers presented to Vic Denney of the Beebe office the gift of six golf balls for his "suggestion award." Mr. Denney responded with appropriate remarks.

Mr. Smith thanked all the officers who had assisted him in making the dinner a success. The remainder of the evening was spent dancing, music was supplied by the Keeley Orchestra.

The event was attended by about 70 persons from here and several points of the Eastern Townships, Ottawa, Montreal.

It is expected announcement will be made in a few days from Montreal of the appointment of a Collector of Customs for this Port, succeeding Mr. Struthers.

Two Projects Discussed At Y's Men's Club
The April 10 and 11 Life Saver Tag Days and the May 23 E. T. Interscholastic Track Meet, forthcoming projects of the Sherbrooke Y's Men's club, were the main items of business at last evening's dinner meeting of the club held at the Magog Hotel, with newly elected club president Don Griffin in the chair.
Tag Day co-chairman Emsey Elkas said all phases of this project would be ready for completion next week. Track meet co-chairman Curt Bishop said preliminary work was completed and that Bob Jarjour would take over the post of meet secretary from George Johnson, who is leaving Sherbrooke in the near future.
Guest at the meeting was Gordon Warner, of Valcartier, formerly the physical education director at Lennoxville High School. Seated at the head table were: President Griffin, Mr. Bishop Vern Wilkin, Gordon Moe and Jim MacKinnon.

Roads Close Sunday

Highways in the District of Montreal and the divisions of Waterloo, Sherbrooke, Cookshire, Richmond and Nicolet will be closed to heavy traffic Sunday for the spring thaw period, Louis Lambert, assistant chief of the Sherbrooke division, announced last night.

Roads are divided into three classifications, with the weight limits varying in accordance with the highway class and the type of the vehicle.
On Class A roads, which include route no. 1, Montreal - Sherbrooke, route no. 5, Sherbrooke - Rock Island, route 32 St. Hyacinthe - St. Dominique and the Boulevard Bernard from Drummondville to route no. 9, the weight limits are as follows:
Trucks, two axles, 23,000 pounds; truck, three axles, 27,000 pounds; trucks and semi-trailers, three axles, 32,000 pounds; trucks and semi-trailers, four axles, 38,000 pounds; autobuses, 26,000 pounds.

Class B roads include: Route no. 1, Sherbrooke - Thetford Mines; no. 5, Richmond - Sherbrooke; no. 22, Drummondville - Richmond and Sherbrooke - Stanhope; no. 39, Knowlton - Vermont border; no. 49, Blake Lake - Plessisville; no. 50, Magog - Burrough's Falls - Coaticook and no. 52, Knowlton - Cowansville - Huntingdon.
On Class B highways the weight limits are: Truck, two axles, 20,000 pounds; truck, three axles, 23,000 pounds; truck and semi-trailer, three axles, 27,000 pounds; truck and semi-trailer, four axles, 33,000 pounds; autobuses, 24,000 pounds.

Class C comprises all highways and municipal roads not included in Classes A and B. On these roads, the weight limits are: Truck, two axles, 14,000 pounds; trucks, three axles, 16,000 pounds; trucks and semi-trailers, three axles, 20,000 pounds; trucks and semi-trailers, four axles, and autobuses, 20,000 pounds.

Public Speaking Contest Held At Mont Notre Dame

Eight members from the graduating class of Mont Notre Dame Convent took part in a public speaking contest last night sponsored by the MND Alumnae. The event, held in the convent auditorium, was attended by a large number of parents and friends of the pupils.
Mrs. Octavien Leveque, president of the Alumnae, welcomed the guests, and Miss Geraldine Hebert, chairman of the contest, explained briefly the purpose and origin of the event. The two $25 scholarships awarded to the winners, one French speaking and the other English speaking, were established from funds from former Convent Jubilees, she said.
Known as the Margaret Bourgeois and the Ste. Anne d'Auray scholarships, they were awarded last night to Celine Gingras and Mary Portelance.

Miss Gingras, French student, spoke clearly and intelligently on Racial Segregation in the United States. English winner, Mary Portelance outlined the Advantages of a University Education, stressing the need for trained men and women in every field of endeavour and the duty incumbent upon each to use his talents to best advantage in the service of mankind.
Other English contestants were Francine Halle who chose the humorous subject, Bachelors Should Wed; Carol McCone, who spoke on Parents; Sarah Pearson, whose topic was Training Our Minds to Give Us Better Service.
The French speaking contestants also included Claudette Champagne - Reading; Michele Gingues - True Characteristics of a Great Leader; and Louise Roy - Tribulations and pleasures of a Musical Artist.
Judges for the English speakers were Miss Helen Slattery, Miss Barbara Wark and Richard Hoyer and for the French, Msgr. Maurice O'Bready, Mrs. Lasalle Laberge and Mrs. Pauline Bach and Lafond.
Msgr. O'Bready, at the close of the session, spoke briefly, to the girls particularly, on the art of speaking in public and congratulated all who had taken part in the contest and had acquitted themselves so admirably.
Refreshments were served by members of the Alumnae to guests and members of the graduating class.

5 Reels Answer Downtown Alarm

Five fire trucks and equipment raced downtown this morning as a fire alarm was given in the old Page-Sangster building on Albert st., just off Wellington st. N.
Minutes after the alarm was given three of the trucks returned to the No. 1 station. Cause of the alarm was a small fire in an elevator shaft pit.

Winners Of Prizes Are Announced

QUEBEC — Provincial Secretary Yves Prevost yesterday announced the winners of three 1958 contests sponsored by the provincial government in fields of literature and science.
Two Montrealers shared first prize in the section open to French - language novels and other works of fiction. Winning $600 each were Anne Hebert for Les Chambres de Bois, and Yves Theriault for Agaguk.
Third prize of $200 went to Leo-Paul Desrosiers of St. Sauveur-des-Monts for Vous Qui Passez.
French - language papers dealing with physics and mathematics were considered in the science section and first prize of $800 went to Georges Hall of Quebec for his work on ionisation in aragon by heavy electrons in cosmic radiation.
Second prize of $400 went to Gerard Letendre and Charles Arthur Dube of Quebec on a joint paper dealing with boron, while $200 went to Guy Talbot of Robertsonville, Que., for his paper dealing with acids.
Montreal and Ottawa men shared first prize in the section for English - language works on social and political science.
Marius Barneau of Ottawa won $600 for Pathfinders in the North Pacific, and Edgar Andrew Colard of Montreal won the same amount for Canadian Yesterdays. Third - prize winner was M. A. Stenger of Montreal for his study on the regional impact of wage determination in Quebec and Ontario.

Arrest Two In Assault

Two young men have been arrested by Provincial Police in connection with the brutal beating Saturday night of a 47-year-old Deauville man, Henri Benoit, now recovering in the Hotel Dieu from serious cuts and bruises to the face and hands.
Det. Guy Dupont, investigating officer, stated that one of the men was picked up late last night and the other shortly after.
Both men furnished details of the savage affair to police but refused to sign the statements after they had been copied. Dupont said that names would not be released until Crown Prosecutor Roland Dugre arrived and had a chance to talk to the two. He indicated complaints would be filed later today.
Benoit told police he had joined the men for a drink in a Sherbrooke hotel before he accepted a ride in the direction of Deauville. The beating took place at about 11:30 p.m. that evening, somewhere on the Deauville - Omerville road.
Tuesday morning, Sgt. Eugene Morin, head of the Sherbrooke detachment, stated that arrests of the men involved in the case were forthcoming. Both are now in the cells.

Temporary Cutback At Textile Co.
Raymond Charlebois, superintendent of the Sherbrooke Branch of the Dominion Textile Company and Eugene Charette, manager of the local branch of the unemployment insurance agency have announced that a group of 200 Dominion Textile employees were laid off work yesterday, for a period of one week.
According to Mr. Charlebois, this layoff has been caused by a surplus amount of stock which has accumulated in the textile plant's store rooms.
He added that although 200 employees have been laid off for a one week period, there is nothing alarming in the situation. There are still about 700 employees working.
The superintendent added that this was the year's first layoff compared to several the previous year.
To meet the situation, the local unemployment insurance office was open from 7 to 9 last night. It will be open again tonight.

Plan Formation In District Of Senior 4-H Club

Former members of the various Eastern Townships 4-H Clubs will meet here May 7 to study the formation of a senior counterpart, it was announced yesterday.
Purpose of the new body will be to continue the work of the forest protection started by the juvenile branches. It is expected that some 1,800 will attend the meeting.
The Senior 4-H Club would be the first of its kind in the province and would draw its membership from among the ex-juniors of 60 4-H Clubs in the area.
Its job would be to visit and supervise junior work in the area and to encourage landscaping of the provincial highways as well as act as judge at the competition initiated by the Southern Canada Power this year.
The 4-H Club whose work is judged the best will be awarded $250.
Only men will be permitted to join the Senior 4-H. The meeting will be held at the Technical School, Sherbrooke, at 1:30 p.m., May 7.

An Educated Man

Delegates to the Ontario Education Conference are expressing concern over the failure of Canadian education to measure up to standards being set in the Soviet Union. The stir over education here, and in other Western countries, started when the Russians stunned us by the success of their Sputniks.

Broad differences exist not only among statesmen and civic figures but among professional educators as to what sort of direction our education should take. The amateurs can hardly be expected to resolve these if the experts cannot.

Whatever the methods and programs that can best serve our aims, we can all agree that what we want is a nation of educated individuals.

As generally thought of, that means people who are well informed, capable of making wisely the choices they must make as the final source of authority in a democracy.

It means, too, being equipped to develop one's own capacities to the fullest, and to take all the rewards life offers.

Yet the word "educated" can take on a meaning beyond these things. Many have tried their hand at defining an educated man, and this is an effort that probably will never cease so long as men can think.

Perhaps one of the best tries was made a generation ago by an educator who asked himself: "what is the test of an educated man?"

His conclusion was simple. An educated man is one who allows himself to be guided by proven facts, wherever they lead.

It sounds easy, but actually, it's the toughest test imaginable.

It means that false notions, preconceptions, prejudices, fragmentary information, even ideas celebrated and treasured, must be cast out firmly the moment they clash with facts.

If you have believed for 30 years that rain "cools off the air," will you accept another idea if scientists demonstrate with ample evidence that it is actually the movement of cool air into a warmed area that produces rain?

By this definition, the man who will accept it, and likewise accept a thousand and one new notions destructive of his old ideas, is truly educated.

You may or may not agree with this definition. But there's not much question that the man who can pass such a test regularly is a pretty open-minded fellow. We could use a lot like him.

Modernization Pays Off

The outstanding feature of the annual report of the Canadian Pacific Railway for the year 1958 is the remarkable manner in which operating expenses have been reduced in face of rising labor and materials cost.

Despite wage increases amounting to approximately $10,000,000 in wages granted during the year, through its policy of equipment modernization the company was able to cut its operating costs by about $18,000,000. The result was that the decline in expenses during the year almost balanced the decline in revenues.

The increased use of diesel power in train service has played an important part in this achievement, as these modern locomotives not only cost less to operate but also require less maintenance.

In an effort to offset declining freight revenues, the company extended its piggy-back service, resulting in an estimated addition of $4,500,000 to its freight revenues.

But the unsatisfactory feature of the report is the indication that despite a hike in freight rates, the average earnings per ton mile decreased from 1.50 cents in 1957 to 1.47 cents in 1958, indicating that the railway is carrying an increasing portion of low-revenue bulk freight. This emphasizes the need of a complete review of the Canadian transportation system to assure its proper functioning in the future.

This And That

The 21 women teachers who squeezed into a small car in an effort to discredit "silly" college students who cram into telephone booths also demonstrated that there are no fools like old fools.

It's a great relief when you finally finish filling out your income tax blankety-blank.

Spanish dictator Franco has inaugurated a $200 million civil war monument which will serve as a mausoleum for his body. Spain must be a lot richer country than we had been led to believe.

The Communists have warned United States planes to fly low in the air corridor to Berlin. The next step will be to warn them to stay on the ground in the first place.

Four rounds of clubs came next and since West had to follow to the first three leads Harry was able to get rid of both his losing diamonds. West made his ace and jack of trumps but Harry made his contract.

TEN YEARS AGO
Joseph Smallwood, provisional Premier of Newfoundland, today was busily lining up his cabinet which will run the new province until a provincial general election can be held—probably some time in May.

The game was duplicate and Harry writes that while the result was more than satisfactory his partner was rather critical of both his bidding and play.
North contended that Harry should have doubled five hearts and taken a sure profit and that Harry should have played the nine of spades from dummy at trick two.
Harry also points out that West could have beaten the hand either by opening diamonds or by going up with the ace of spades at trick two and then shifting to diamonds.
I rather agree with North about the bidding. Harry made a most enterprising four-spade bid and should have been afraid of a belated raise by North.
As for the play I like the way he handled it. East might have held a singleton jack of spades and Harry's play guarded against that possibility.

On The March Across Africa

By RUSSELL ELMAN
ACCRA, Ghana (CP) — Prime Minister Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana says the liberation of his country from colonial rule is "meaningless unless it is linked with the liberation of the rest of Africa."
In the two years since Ghana became the first "black" colonial territory in Africa south of the Sahara to gain independence, Nkrumah's words have achieved an almost prophetic significance. Today nationalism is on the march across Africa.
Other colonies have won independence, some are on the threshold of it, while in nearly every dependent territory progress is being made towards eventual political maturity. Only in Portuguese Africa and independent South Africa has there been no real political advance for the African.

With Accra holding the spotlight following two recent conferences of independent African states and African political leaders, Ghana has tended to mould the pattern for the emergent nationalism elsewhere on the continent, with Nkrumah himself the human symbol of the new spirit of independence. As far away as Tanganyika on the other side of Africa, Nkrumah's photograph decorates walls in African homes.

Africans, particularly in British territories, are watching developments in Ghana. Many consider their future may be shaped by the success or failure of Ghana to stand on its own feet.

In Africa today the speed with which colonies move toward self-government may hinge largely on whether there is leadership and effective party organization to create political and national consciousness among peoples whose outlook in the past has been tribal. Other factors are the willingness of the colonial powers to encourage political advancement among Africans, the extent of education and economic opportunity. The problem is complicated where there are large European (white) or Asian minorities as in Kenya, Rhodesia and Belgian Congo.

Britain took the lead in guiding colonies toward self-government, but in the last year there have been significant developments in French Africa, with the establishment of black republics within the French community. For the first time the population of the Belgian Congo has been given some political rights with a promise of ultimate independence.

Ghana gained its independence March 6, 1957, after only a comparatively short transitional period on internal responsible government. The same pattern is being followed in neighboring Sierra Leone and Nigeria on the West Coast, Uganda, Zanzibar and Tanganyika on the East Coast.

Sierra Leone, rich in diamonds and with long-standing ties with Britain, is almost completely self-governing internally. Some African politicians predict it will be independent within three to five years.

Nigeria is due to be independent next year but national unity is lacking. With a population of 35,000,000 Nigeria has more people than Ghana, South Africa, Belgian Congo and Sierra Leone combined, and if united, is bound to have an extremely influential position in the new Africa.

The chief problem is whether its federal system of government will work out. The east and west regions are already self-governing internally, the inhabitants are industrious, have a higher standard of education and generally control the economic life of the entire country. The north, which has more than half the country's population, is still largely under the influence of Muslim emirs, is politically less advanced, and the poorest part of Nigeria.

On the east coast, Zanzibar is a sultanate under British protection. Britain has pledged to lead Zanzibar toward self-government and the island was the first territory in East Africa to hold common roll elections to the legislative council.

Another British protectorate, Uganda, is also assured of eventual self-government. Already there are a majority of African representatives in the legislative council and Africans are being trained in the civil service but the timing of independence may depend on the settlement of internal differences among the Africans themselves.

Tanganyika, a United Nations trust territory, held its first elections to the legislative council last year and although Britain has said Africans ultimately will have the largest share in government, no timetable has been set for self-government. Tanganyika probably has the best organized African political movement outside Ghana in the Tanganyika African National Union, under the leadership of Julius K. Nyerere.

In Kenya where conditions are returning to normal following the Mau Mau uprising, Africans today have a much larger role in government. The minister of housing, Musa Amalemba, is an African and there are as many Africans as Europeans in the legislative council. However, there is little immediate prospect of Africans taking over from Europeans altogether.

In some respects a like situation exists in the Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland. The federal government is committed to a policy of "partnership" between European and African and partly on this platform won an election victory last year. There are African MPs in the federal

Gerald Waring REPORTING

OTTAWA — One of the least sought after and most infrequently bestowed honors in the gift of a prime minister is a state funeral.

The lack of enthusiasm for such reward compared, say, with a senatorship is at least understandable. People prefer their honors, recognition, reward or what have you when they can enjoy them, not later.

Yet a state funeral is a genuine honor, and carries with it a not inconsiderable financial benefit for the honored individual's family. The government pays all the expenses - casket, undertaker, minister and transportation. This can run up to $10,000 as in the case of Mackenzie King's elaborate funeral, and the $9,700 paid for the funeral of the great French-Canadian Liberal leader and justice minister, Ernest Lapointe.

Technically, I suppose, the tax collectors could come on the estate of a deceased cabinet minister for tax due on the amount the government as his employer chose to spend on his funeral. I do not know that the collectors have ever been so assiduous.

While cabinet ministers who die in office are entitled by custom to state funerals, it is a decision for the family as to whether the honor shall be accepted. The wishes of the family are paramount. For example, the offer may be accepted with a condition that the ultimate informality be omitted: the lying in state in the marble-colonnaded Hall of Fame in the Parliament Building where have rested, in my time, the biers of Mackenzie King and former Labor Minister Humphrey Mitchell.

Privy councillors other than cabinet ministers also have had state funerals - at least two former ministers having been so honored in full knowledge of their financial difficulties. Presumably that was the reason.

Governors-general too rank state funerals - as Lord Tweedsmuir. No doubt the honor will be extended to former governors-general resident in Canada when the occasion arises.

Despite general appreciation of what is flippantly called the high cost of dying, up to $10,000 for a state funeral may seem a trifle exorbitant. But for a customer with wallet as well stuffed as the government's, the undertaker trots out his best solid walnut and bronze, not his economy birch veneer and aluminum. And often a special train is required, or, as in a recent funeral, two special aircraft.

Ordinary members of Parliament do not rate state funerals. Their recognition is in eulogies at the next sitting of the House of which they are members, and the flying of the flag on the Peace Tower at half staff from the day of death through the day of the funeral.

There being 367 members of the Commons and the Senate, it has happened that the flag has been at half staff for as long as a fortnight at a time. For one senator who died in Florida it flew a full week, while he was being brought home for burial.

This situation has given rise to criticism that we might be more appreciative of our parliamentarians during their lifetimes, and limit the flag-dropping to the day of burial, as is the custom in Britain.

In order to give better service to its clientele and the general public,

Proxy Director At Philip Carey

CINCINNATI (AP) — John W. Humphrey, president of the Philip Carey Mfg. Co., announced Wednesday that only one man from the "independent proxy committee" has been elected to the board of directors.

Three of them, who disagreed with the management's refusal to increase production at its large asbestos mine near East Broughton, Que., sought places on the board.

James J. Harris was the independent proxy committee member board. He succeeds C. C. Merrifield of New York. The defeated contestants are Lendall P. Warriner and Robert D. Hoffman.

Humphrey issued a statement saying: "The management of Carey stated that 82 per cent of the votes cast at the annual shareholders' meeting overwhelmingly supported the present management."

NATO Stamp

WASHINGTON (AP) — Postmaster-General Arthur E. Summerfield Wednesday unveiled a four-cent commemorative NATO stamp. The 10th anniversary meeting of North Atlantic Treaty signers formally opens here today. The new stamp, in varying shades of blue, will go on general sale throughout the United States today.

Mink For Bride

OTTAWA (CP) — A mink stole will be Canada's wedding gift to Japan's Crown Prince Akihito and his bride, commoner Michiko Shoda. The wedding date is April 10. The stole will be presented through the Canadian Embassy at Tokyo.

Rains Ease

CHILLIWACK, B.C. (CP) — Heavy rains which threatened to cause serious flooding in the Fraser Valley and disrupted road and rail traffic appeared to be easing late Wednesday. Floodwaters were still rising in the low-lying sections of the valley, however. Five persons were taken to hospital and 22 teenagers escaped serious injury in a three-way crash on the Trans-Canada Highway after a mud and rock slide blocked traffic.

Operation Grace

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (AP) — Princess Grace of Monaco will undergo an appendectomy within the next two weeks, Dr. James B. Lehman of Philadelphia announced Wednesday night. Lehman said he will perform the operation with the assistance of Lausanne surgeon, Dr. Jean-David Buffat, in the local Cecil Clinic.

Beef Breeders Planning Annual Sale April 23

The ninth annual spring sale of purebred beef cattle, organized by the Quebec Beef Cattle Association, is scheduled to take place at the Sherbrooke Exhibition Grounds Thursday, April 23, starting at 12:30 p.m. sharp. An expected 80 head of cattle will be on sale.

Included in this will be Aberdeen Angus, Hereford and Shorthorn bulls and females. Auctioneer will be Art Bennett and chairman of the sales committee is Howard Nichol of Lennoxville. All cattle for sale must be on the Exhibition Grounds by 12:00 noon, of Wednesday, April 22. That afternoon, at 2:30 p.m. there will be a show parade of bulls. All bulls will be weighed Thursday morning at 10:00 a.m. Purchase premiums available will be announced the day of the sale.

Since the sale originated nine years ago, the number of beef cattle breeders in the province has more than doubled. The sale has now come to be an annual event for old breeders wishing to improve their stock and for new breeders getting started.

This sale is supported by both the Provincial and Federal Departments of Agriculture.

Cancer Fund Richmond Topic

RICHMOND — Dr. J. Sylvestre, of St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, Sherbrooke, will be guest speaker at a public meeting at the Danville Town Hall at 8 p.m. to night. Dr. Sylvestre is head of the E. T. Cancer Clinic and discussions will take place on the cancer fund.

Sponsors of the event are the Community Welfare, Shipton W. L. and La Cerle des Fermiers.

(Greenshields & Co. Ltd.)

Canadian labour income for January estimated by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics was $1,351 billion, down slightly from $1,359 billion in December but 6.5% higher than for the same month of last year.

Alberta Demerits

EDMONTON (AP) — The Alberta government is adopting the better qualities of the demerit system and discarding the poorer qualities in an effort to weed out dangerous drivers, Highway Minister Gordon Taylor said Wednesday.

"Our system is not to put drivers off the road but to find their faults and try to help them," Mr. Taylor said.

First Prize Ale

LEO MARCOTTE, taxi driver, Sherbrooke, says: "Yes, I've changed to Brading's. Why? Any ale good enough to win First Prize is good enough for me."

CLAUDE BOILARD, Sherbrooke painter, says: "My friends told me about Brading's. I decided to try it too. What an ale! Now Brading's is my favourite."

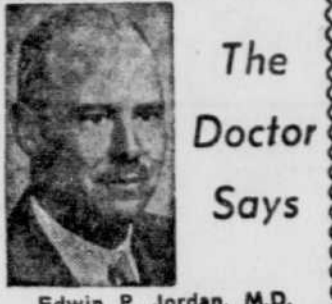

RICHARD BLAIS, technician, Sherbrooke, says: "I agree with the judges who gave Brading's First Prize. It has everything we Quebecers want in our ale."

The Doctor Says

inflammation of the outer part of the eye. The eye appears inflamed and thickened. Little blisterlike bodies appear around the edges within a few days.

In three or four weeks the thickening and other signs become typical of trachoma and are easy to distinguish from other inflammations of the eye.

The cause of this condition is a virus, which unlike ordinary germs, is too small to see under the microscope. Among the other symptoms, pain and sensitiveness to light may be severe.

In the late stages of this dangerous disease the eyelid tends to drop down and the lids may become deformed. The disease causes scarring of some of the tender tissues of the eye. This is what causes the blindness.

A correct and early diagnosis is of vital importance. Many treatments which are useful in other eye diseases, however, are not satisfactory for trachoma.

Some years ago the treatment consisted in painful and lengthy scraping off of the diseased tissues. Even today, however, if the condition has lasted for a long time, surgery may be necessary. But the improved outlook for the sufferer from trachoma comes from the use of the sulfa drugs or antibiotics. This is one of the few virus diseases which respond to such preparations. Several of them, whether used locally, by injection, or by mouth, are highly effective in the early stages of the disease.

By the use of these preparations, and by recognizing trachoma as an infectious disease spread from person to person, it is becoming a constantly less important cause of blindness and should soon be eliminated entirely.

DIXVILLE —

Mr. and Mrs. W. Miller, of Montreal, visited the latter's father, Mr. Walker Carlisle, at the Dixville Home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Robinson, Ayer's Cliff, spent several days with Mrs. W. F. Wiggett, called here by the sudden death of Mrs. Wiggett's sister, Mrs. A. W. Cushing. Among others who attended the funeral from out of town were, Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd, North Stratford, N.H.; Mrs. James Hinton, Island Pond, Vt.; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Robinson, St. Johns; Mrs. Archie Grady, Rock Island; Mrs. Frank Humphrey, Massawippi; and Mrs. Helen Clouston, Mrs. Wm. Robinson, Mrs. L. Thompson and Mrs. Rose Thompson, Ayer's Cliff.

Mr. Murray Woodman is a patient in the Sherbrooke Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid Lepitre and family were guests of Mrs. Lepitre's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Gill, in Cookshire.

Mr. Merton Wiggett, Montreal, is spending a week with his mother, Mrs. W. Wiggett.

TRACHOMA IS ONE MORE DREAD DISEASE ON THE WAY OUT

Written for NEA Service

It is easy to forget how much progress has been made in the conquest of disease, since we still have many unsolved problems and what appear to be new ones are constantly arising.

However, once in a while I should like to devote a discussion to a disorder which is on its way out. One such is what was once a tragic cause of suffering and blindness, known as trachoma.

This eye disease formerly caused a great deal of trouble among American Indians and was common among the residents of the mountains of Tennessee and Kentucky and the farmers of Nebraska, Iowa and South Dakota. At last reports it is still the chief cause of blindness in some parts of the Middle East.

The first signs of trachoma are similar to those of any other acute

Shapely Sheaths Glorify The Figure

Fashions from Dallas indicate that designers in the South-west have in mind the creation of clothes that glorify the figure. The costume (left) as done by Ike Clark combines a form-fitting imported linen dress with a brief, slightly shaped jacket. Dress is beige while jacket is beige and geranium. The afternoon sheath (center) by Herman Marcus is cotton lace molded to the figure. Three rows of bias banding are finished with flat bows. White cotton georgette is used by Charles Dickey for an afternoon dress (right) with obi sash in dotted brocade. Skirt is soft and full.

DALLAS — (NEA) — The way of thinking in this southwestern city is that women should be shapely. So Dallas designers are giving them a whole series of rounded sheath dresses done in princess, belted or jacketed styles.

The shirtwaist dress is back, too, better than ever and prettier because it's taken on a new look through widened collars and

Fashion

A large brooch, pinned to a hip pocket or the shoulder, offers a new look in costume jewelry.
This is the way pins are worn in the current Paris collections.

Many bibs of beads were shown with the new fashions in Paris. Some were done in mother-of-pearl and colored beads or discs.

Waistline emphasis is achieved through obi sashes, cummerbunds, midriff insets and seaming. All of these aid in creating a tiny-waisted, fragile look.

Dallas is a sophisticated city filled with hospitable and active people. They entertain on the slightest pretext and in the grand manner. Their clothes reflect their own way of life even though their designers create for the whole country. Their play clothes show the influence of Mexican colors and their patio dresses borrow the colors of the Kabuki theater in Japan.
African primitive earth colors and the subtle desert colorings of the great Southwest.

In Dallas, the patio dress is worn in simple versions for morning coffee and in luxurious, glittering fabrics for cocktails, dinner and dancing. Visitors to Dallas are so intrigued by these dresses that they invariably bring home one or two. Some are done in a very fine pleated white cotton georgette and heavily banded in silver or gold embroidery.

But by and large, Dallas is known for young, sophisticated, dashing clothes for around-the-clock wear.

Beauty Tips

If you have been sitting before the television set all winter, get out the tape measure for a surprise. Unless you also took daily exercises, chances are there are some extra inches here and there calling for attention. Bulky wools have been hiding these from your friends. But lighter fashions point out those lazy pounds. And it's time to trim them off.

DASHING DANCE

The sprightly Polish dance known as the mazurka originated in the 16th century.

held its regular meeting in the
I.O.O.F. Hall with Sister Beulah
Thomas in the chair.

Routine business was discussed
during which, Sister Donna Young agreed to convene the Past Noble Grand's supper on April 23.

Sister Olive Kinkadee was appointed alternate representative to the Rebekah Assembly to be held at the Hotel Sherbrooke in May.

The final report of the proceedings of the annual session Rebekah Assembly of Quebec was read by Sister Rita Burczyk.
These reports have been read at the meetings throughout the past term.

Refreshments were served in the banquet hall at the close of the meeting, when members enjoyed a birthday cake in honor of Sister Ruby Johnston, who was observing her birthday.

Winnipeg Woman Surveys Methods Of Teaching Reading

WINNIPEG (CP) — Mrs. Mary Johnson of the neighboring city of St. James plans to make a world-wide survey of methods of teaching children how to read, to back up her contention that Canadian methods are failing with a "dangerous minority" of pupils.

Mrs. Johnson and her husband Ernest, a lawyer, have been campaigning to get changes made in the system Manitoba schools use for teaching children to read.

"I got the idea for a world survey while arguing with a local school official," she said in an interview. "He told me that the reading system taught in Manitoba is the same as is used throughout the world.

"He said there was no use arguing against the system — I would have to change the whole world."

TOOK CHALLENGE
Mrs. Johnson accepted the challenge. With about a dozen volunteer assistants—all of them parents of school-age children—she set out to write letters to English-language newspapers all over the world.

The letters ask parents to say whether they are satisfied with their children's reading ability, especially when they are confronted with unfamiliar words.

Mrs. Johnson contends that under the present system children in primary reading classes are being taught to memorize words mainly by sight. They do not learn to use the alphabet or to use reason in reading.

The remedy, she says, is to drill the children thoroughly on the alphabet and on the sounds for letters. After they have mastered this, they should be taught to blend the letters into short words.

The housewife, who has three school-age children, and her volunteer helpers so far have written to some 60 newspapers, including the Yorkshire Post in England. The over-all project, she says, "probably will take months."

CLAIMS AGREEMENT
Results have been light so far.

Advice for Newcomers-- Simply Be Neighborly

If you want to get along in your new neighborhood —
Be nice to the kids. Get a reputation for being a "crank" with the children — and there won't be much of a welcome for you from their parents.

Don't encourage a gossip neighbor to tell you all about the other neighbors. If you do, you'll have preconceived notions that may influence your own judgment.

Be considerate of your neighbors in small ways, such as keeping your yard neat, not letting your children become a nuisance, seeing that your dog doesn't bother anyone, not being a habitual "borrower."

Be friendly and neighborly without making a nuisance of yourself. Your neighbors may not have as much time to kill as you do — so don't waste theirs.

Take advantage of opportunities to be helpful. These arise in every neighborhood from time to time and taking advantage of them requires only a little imagination and a readiness to be of help.

Never run down one neighbor to another. If you don't especially care for a particular person, at least stay on speaking terms and do nothing to influence others to feel as you do.

Don't take up your children's squabbles. Left alone, fighting children will soon be friends again, but let the parents get into the fight and there will be real and lasting bitterness in the neighborhood.

Following these few rules ought to enable you to get along happily in any neighborhood you choose to live in.

Homemaking

Keep children from locking themselves in the bathroom or other rooms with a cleverly designed rubber shield made out of an old inner tube. Cut a strip of rubber from the tube long enough to stretch from knob to knob. It will cover the latch and keep the door from clicking shut. Cut a hole in each end of the strip so that it can be fitted over both knobs.

MANNERS MAKE FRIENDS

If you dia la wrong number don't just hang up without saying anything.
The least you can do for the person you have called to the phone unnecessarily is to say,
"I'm very sorry but I have the wrong number."

Lions Club Hears Talk On Seaway At Cowansville

COWANSVILLE — The feature of the Lions Club dinner meeting at the Hotel Maurice was an address on the Harbour of Montreal and the St. Lawrence Seaway, with an accompanying film. The Eighth Sea, which depicted the physical aspects of the Seaway from Montreal to Lake Ontario.

The guest speaker, P. R. Vaillancourt, assistant director of St. Lawrence Municipal Bureau of the City of Montreal, was introduced by Lion Ben Phelps.

Mr. Vaillancourt, announcing that the St. Lawrence Seaway will become a reality this Spring, considered some effects of the improved waterway on the harbour of Montreal, 1000 statute miles from the Atlantic seaboard. The project is divided into two distinct sections, he pointed out, and should therefore be referred to as the St. Lawrence Seaway Navigation and Power Development. It extends from Montreal Harbour to Lake Erie and eliminates the 14-foot canal bottleneck between Montreal and Prescott, a distance of 125 miles. It is entirely in Canada except for 35 miles in the International Rapids section from Cornwall to Iroquois, and includes the deepening of the Welland Ship Canal and the construction of a power house in the International section.

The speaker stressed the belief that Montreal will become more and more a trans-shipment point between lake and ocean traffic. Upper lakes, 700 feet long, roughly 3 times as long as canals, will come down to Montreal, but ocean vessels will probably move up the river beyond the metropolis only rarely, and then if cargo warrants the journey.

In a word, said he, it seems quite obvious that lakers will remain Kings of the Lakes and ocean liners Queens of the Sea.

With encouraging comments Mr. Vaillancourt spoke of the reconstruction program of the harbour, and concluded by referring to the bright future for the region.

The meeting replaced the zone public speaking contest which was to have taken place in the high school. The Club changed the plans about four days before the date, notifying contestants, but President Garth Dean hoping that no one would come in took the precaution of having a member at the school to explain just in case.

Two Honored At Bridal Showers In Rock Island

ROCK ISLAND — Miss Jeanette Simoneau, R.N., of Sherbrooke and Rock Island, was a guest of honor at a bridal shower at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Simoneau.

The bride-elect went to the Simoneau home on an errand and on arriving was much surprised to find 35 relatives and friends awaiting her.

Amid greetings she was escorted to a chair decorated in pink and white, while before her was a decorated table laden with the prettily wrapped and ribboned packages.

Miss Simoneau was assisted in opening the parcels by her mother, Mrs. Lawrence Simoneau, and her little cousin, Monique Pepin. Gifts included linens, pyrex, china and other gifts for her new home. The guest of honor voiced her appreciation.

Games were played, and refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Walter Simoneau, Mrs. Andre Pepin, Miss Therese Simoneau, and included a shower cake, made and decorated by Mrs. Walter Simoneau in white and pink and blue.

Among the guests were friends from Sherbrooke, Magog, Derby Line and Rock Island.

MISS JOYCE WHITEMAN

Miss Joyce Whiteman was a supper guest of Miss Patricia Eryou, and on returning to her parental home, accompanied by Miss Eryou, was surprised to find 25 relatives and friends waiting to shower her in honor of her marriage.

Amid salutations, the bride-elect was escorted to a chair prettily decorated in green and white, where she was presented with a corsage of kitchen gadgets and ribbons, by Miss Eryou.

On a table before her was arranged the wrapped and ribboned packages, which she was assisted in opening by her mother, Mrs. Cecil Whiteman, and by Mrs. Susan Thayer, aunt of the groom-elect.

The gifts included china, linens, pyrex, pieces of her chosen dinner set, and other useful articles for her home. Miss Whiteman expressed her thanks.

Games were played and refreshments were served by the hostesses, Miss Eryou and her mother, Mrs. Hattie Eryou, assisted by Mrs. M. Provencher. Miss Whiteman made the initial cut in a shower cake made and decorated by Mrs. Clifford Rediker. It had a tall candle in the centre topped with an umbrella from which flowed tiny ribbons in a color scheme of white green and yellow.

Among the guests were Mrs. Susan Thayer and Mrs. Black, both of Fitch Bay.

CONFIDENTIALLY YOURS

—by Byrne Hope Sanders

MONTREAL, Apr. 2nd — Wake up to a breakfast treat that's delicious, nutritious and wonderfully healthy, too. Do start these beautiful days with a nourishing, piping hot breakfast of RED RIVER CEREAL! I feel so sure you'll enjoy the nutty, wholesome flavor of the Red River blend of cracked wheat, rye and flax — that I'm urging you to get some this very week. Look for the cheery red package on the grocery shelves — and serve your family a breakfast which supplies the energy requirements for little ones and active workers. Older people, and sedentary workers, find it guards regularly. Do serve Red River Cereal tomorrow!

MADE EXCLUSIVELY FOR BABIES! Yes, two new INSTANT PREPARED FORMULAS, with the essential Vitamins C and D, and the baby sugar already added, have been perfected by FARMER'S WIFE. . . . One with Whole Milk, Farmer's Wife Prepared Formula Red Band, and the other made from Partly Skimmed Milk, called Farmer's Wife Prepared Formula Blue Band. So now your doctor can choose between the two new Instant Prepared Formulas or from the original three Farmer's Wife Infant Formula Milks . . . just exactly the right formula for your dear one. Yes, Farmer's Wife Milks are best for your baby because they are Canada's Finest!

PERFECT EVERY TIME! Does that seem an extravagant claim? Well . . . try MINUTE RICE and prove for yourself that this amazing rice really does live up to its reputation . . . every time! For Minute Rice is always light and fluffy . . . each separate kernel always plump and tender. There's no simmering or fussy preparation with Minute Rice . . . it's already cooked . . . just five minutes from package to plate! Serve Minute Rice with butter as a vegetable; in new and tastier casseroles; in stuffings; as an extender in meat loaves; and to thicken soups and stews. You'll find Minute Rice an invaluable aid in preparing more delicious, more attractive meals!

HAVE YOU USED SPIC AND SPAN IN YOUR WASH YET? 268 housewives in Brandon, Manitoba, did — and the results were exciting. In a special test, Brandon women reported that by adding SPIC AND SPAN to their wash, they get whiter clothes by adding SPIC AND SPAN to their wash. You use your regular detergent and 1/4 cup of pine-scented Spic and Span. Spic and Span is a fine, safe cleaning agent and a natural water softener. Working with the detergent, it adds EXTRA CLEANING POWER to give you the whitest, freshest wash you ever hung on your line. You'll be delighted — as I was — at how wonderful your wash will look after adding Spic and Span.

I HOPE IT DOESN'T HAPPEN TO YOU! . . . I mean the tragedy of losing precious jewellery and valuable papers through carelessness, fire or theft. You can eliminate this ever-present danger in your own home by renting a Safety Deposit Box at the BANK OF MONTREAL. Your new sense of security will mean so much to you — and the cost of renting a safety deposit box is so small — less than two cents a day! Why not rent your Safety Deposit Box today at your local branch of "My Bank"? A mere two cents a day buys a priceless amount of peace of mind.

THE CAR HAD CRASHED INTO A DEEP DITCH. . . . Fortunately no one was seriously injured, but the driver later suffered a great deal from sciatica in his right hip and leg — for seven long years. He writes, "I found in TEMPLETON'S TRC's very satisfactory relief from the sharp pain that stabbed through my thigh whenever I put my foot to the ground — indeed TRC's have given me the only relief I have been able to get." Men and women everywhere are eager to recommend TRC's to everyone who has suffered, as they have, from rheumatic, arthritic or sciatic pain. Do try TRC's yourself, if you are in pain of this kind — and tell your friends about them.

Church Groups Meet Jointly At Danville

DANVILLE — The St. Andrew's Presbyterian Guild, St. Augustine's Evening Guild, and the Evening Association of Trinity United Church held a joint pot luck supper in the St. Andrew's Church Hall.

The variety and excellence of supper dishes, breads, and desserts made the dieting members forget calorie counting for one more evening.

After supper a social hour under the direction of Mrs. Malcolm McGinnis, Mrs. John Andrews and Mrs. Gordon Millar, was enjoyed.

Those in charge of the refreshments were, Mrs. Graydon Heath, Mrs. Jack Lunan, Mrs. Bob Thompson, Mrs. Gordon Brown, Mrs. Ray McMorine, and Mrs. V. C. Lindsay.

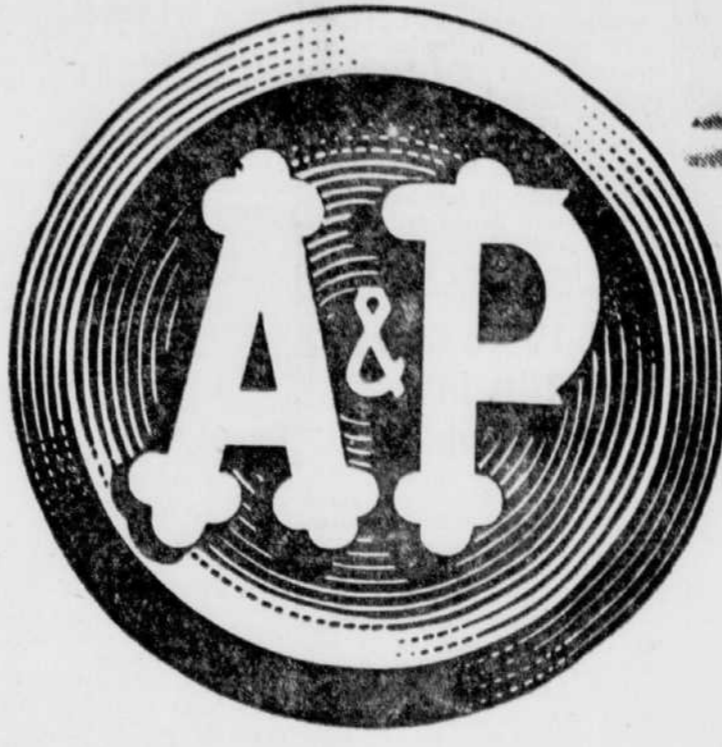

FARNHAM — Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Decker visited relatives in Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Lavalliere spent several days in Newport, Vt.

Miss Mary Hinchcliff visited friends in Montreal.

Black Hawks Storm Out Of Hills Today To Tangle With Canadiens

Gerry Desaulniers' Overtime Tally Gives Lions Win

TROIS-RIVIERES, Que. (CP)—Playing coach Gerry Desaulniers scored an overtime goal Wednesday night to allow his Trois-Rivieres Lions to square up their Quebec Hockey League final series with Montreal Royals.

Desaulniers' goal, at 3:49 of the extra period, gave the Lions a 3-2 win over the Royals and tied up the best-of-nine series at two games each. The teams meet again in Montreal Sunday.

Lions Matt Ravlich scored at 4:02 of the first period but the lead was wiped out in the second by two goals by Montreal rookie Bill Sutherland. Gilles Thibault's goal, scored at 44 seconds of the third period, stood up throughout the frame and forced the overtime.

Montreal's John Annable, recently brought up from the junior Hull-Ottawa Canadiens, was

Breaks Are Due Us After Those Two Overtime Losses, Says Coach Schmidt; Flaman And Mohs Out; Leafs Ready

BOSTON — (AP)—The Boston Bruins and the Toronto Maple Leafs, all even after four rugged games, resume their best-of-seven National Hockey League semi-final playoff tonight at the Boston Garden.

"It's now a two-out-of-three situation and we have the advantage because two of those games are here in Boston," said Bruins coach Milt Schmidt. "And the breaks are due us after those two overtime losses in Toronto."

"We're coming and they're going," said Toronto coach Punch Imlach. "We spotted them two games here and then went home to take the two there. Now we're out to get this one."

DEFENCE HANDICAPPED

The Bruins are handicapped by the probable loss of two stand-out defencemen—Fern Flaman and Doug Mohs.

Flaman, 31-year-old team captain, suffered a pulled groin muscle in the third period in Toronto Tuesday and was in the dressing room when the Leafs won 3-2 on Frank Mahovlich's goal at 11:21 of overtime.

Mohs suffered torn knee ligaments against the Leafs last Saturday and missed the fourth game. He is a key man in the ### Bruins' power play.

Both Flaman and Mohs planned workouts in the afternoon to determine their fitness. Flaman was hopeful of overnight improvement, but doctors doubted Mohs will be able to skate well enough to face the Leafs.

CALL UP BIONDA

In the event Flaman and Mohs are sidelined, Schmidt said his defence tandems will be Bob Armstrong and Jim Morrison and Leo Bolvin and Larry Hillman. Jack Bionda, who spent the season in the American Hockey League, has been summoned for reserve use.

The Leafs will be without Larry Regan, the clever stickhandler who has a badly swollen hand. Imlach has called up veteran Rudy Migay of Rochester in the American League.

After the game, the two teams will head back to Toronto for the sixth game Saturday. A seventh game will be played in Boston next Tuesday if necessary.

BAUN INJURED

Toronto rearguard Bobby Baun, who picked up a twisted ankle in Tuesday's game, made the trip here. He is expected to play tonight, but not at peak efficiency.

Boston general manager Lynn Patrick said Bruins will be in tough shape if Flaman isn't fit for tonight's engagement.

"Apart from goaltender Harry Lumley, he has been our best player in this series. And next to him I would rate Mohs."

Poor Showing Cost Us The Game, Says Frank Selke, Players Were Trying To Blast It; Chicago Are Confident

MONTREAL — (CP)—Chicago Black Hawks storm out of the hills today to take up their historical task — impeding the progress of the hardy French pioneers.

The original Black Hawk, after whom Chicago's National Hockey League team is named, was a Sac Indian whose raids on French and English settlers helped slow down the timing of the wilderness.

The current Hawks are succeeding remarkably well in impeding the progress of Montreal's flying Frenchman — the Montreal Canadiens — toward the Stanley Cup. The NHL champions have won the cup three times running.

SERIES TIED

But the Hawks, when they come down from their Laurentian Mountain retreat tonight for the fifth game of the best-of-seven semi-final, represent a major threat this year. The series is tied 2-2.

Canadiens have vowed to shoot accurately.

Frank Selke, Canadiens general manager, repeated bitterly Wednesday that what cost the Canadiens their Tuesday game in Chicago was shooting — not

"If we had shot the puck instead of trying to blast a way right in on goal perhaps victory would have been ours. I cannot repeat too often that it is by shooting and shooting that games are won," he said.

The Hawks believe a win here is absolutely essential—and not only that, they believe they can do it.

"We're about due to win one in Montreal. We've only won one game there all season, and our time has to come," said Chicago general manager Tommy Ivan.

ALL HOME VICTORIES

A Chicago win would put the Hawks in a position to wrap up the series when it shifts to Chicago Saturday. Home ice has been important in the four games to date—each team won at home and lost away.

The Canadiens, walkaway winners of the NHL championship, were expected to breeze through the Stanley Cup playoffs the same way but they suddenly find most of their big guns silenced.

Big Jean Beliveau, who scored 45 goals in regular season play, is on the sidelines with a spine injury suffered Tuesday in Chicago. Maurice (Rocket) Richard, hockey's all-time great scorer, has been missing since Jan. 18 when he suffered an ankle fracture.

Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion, who periodically led the NHL point-getting race this season, only recently recovered from strained stomach muscles and hasn't been impressive in the series to date.

Surprises of the series have been the checkers, Chicago's Glen Skov, Earl Balfour and Lorne Ferguson — billed as a light-scoring unit used mainly to hold down Montreal's key scorers — wound up getting the big goals in the two games at Chicago.

Sam Snead Favored In Annual Masters Which Opens Today; Three Canadians In; Hot Art Wall To Try For Crown

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Arnold Palmer, a muscular young man from Latrobe, Pa., sets out today with hopes of accomplishing something no other golfer has ever done—successfully defending his Masters' title.

Since grand-slam king Bob Jones and Cliff Roberts launched this classic event 25 years ago, some of the biggest names in the game have won it. A few have won it more than once.

But none has been able to tame this demanding, 6,980-yard Augusta National course and the talent-rich field two years running.

And Palmer isn't favored to shatter precedent.

NO REAL FAVORITE

In fact, when today's first round got under way there was no outstanding favorite in the field. Among those claiming most of the attention were Sam Snead, Ken Venturi and Jack Burke, Jr.

The top threats in the 10-man foreign field appeared to be Australia's Peter Thomson, who has won four of the last five British Opens; South Africa's Gary Player, who fired a 64 in his final tuneup round, and Spain's Angel Miguel, individual champion of the 1958 Canada Cup matches in Mexico City. Player, making his third Masters appearance, missed a grand opportunity to set a course record when he three-putted the final green Wednesday.

Par for the plush, rolling layout with its mammoth greens is 36-36-72. Lloyd Mangrum set the record at 64 in the opening round of the 1940 Masters. Hogan holds the 72-hole record of 274.

THREE CANADIANS PLAY

Three Canadians were among the 90 players in today's first round. They were Bruce Castator of Toronto, 1958 Canadian amateur champion; Henry Martell of Edmonton, 1958 Canadian Professional Golfers' Association champion, and Stan Leonard of Vancouver, 1958 winner of the $40,000 Tournament of Champions at Las Vegas.

Snead is one of the two men who own three Masters titles. The other is Jimmy Demaret. Snead hasn't played the circuit this winter but has been unbeatable in a series of head-to-head televised matches with a dozen top pros.

Hottest golfer among the touring pros is slender Art Wall, who captured the Azalea Open at Wilmington, N.C., Monday and leads in money winnings with more than $18,000 this year.

Chuck Comiskey Goes To Higher Court In Fight With His Sister Over Stock

CHICAGO (AP)—Vice president Chuck Comiskey Wednesday carried his fight for control of Chicago White Sox to a higher court.

Comiskey filed in circuit court an appeal of a probate court ruling which permitted his sister, Mrs. Dorothy Comiskey Rigney, to sell her 54 per cent of the club to Bill Veck.

Comiskey's petition asks that circuit court order sale of "not less than 300 shares" of Mrs. Rigney's stock to him. Chuck and Dorothy were left 1,041 and 1,541 shares respectively by their mother, Mrs. Grace Comiskey, former Sox president, who died in 1956.

At present, Chuck controls 46 per cent of club stock.

Comiskey's petition also asked the court to appoint an independent special administrators for Mrs. Comiskey's estate. Mrs. Rigney now is serving as executor of the estate.

Mrs. Rigney's estate-held stock has been assigned to Veck as part of a $2,700,000 deal completed last month.

Hull-Ottawa Junior Canadiens Break Out In Third Period With Six Goals To Blank Quebec Baronets In Opener

QUEBEC (CP)—Held down for two periods, Hull-Ottawa Junior Canadiens broke out for six goals in the third period Wednesday night to whitewash Quebec Baronets 6-0 in a Memorial Cup quarter-final game.

Next game of the best-of-three series is to be played Sunday in Hull.

The Canadiens fired all their goals in little more than 10 minutes of the final period.

Jean Claude Tremblay and Andre Sarrazin fired two goals each and Andre Drolet and Gilles Tremblay one.

TOP POINT MAN

Gilles Tremblay was the night's leading point-getter, adding two assists to his one goal.

The winner of this series goes against the winner of the Ontario

REMEMBER WHEN . . .

Chicago Black Hawks, who had edged out Detroit in the NHL stretch drive, eliminated New York Americans in the Stanley Cup semi-final in the deciding game of a best-of-three series 21 years ago tonight. Hawks then went on to win their second Stanley Cup by beating Toronto's Maple Leafs three games to one.

CBC-TV To Carry Both Tilts In Stanley Cup

TORONTO — The CBC-TV English network will carry the Toronto Maple Leafs at Boston Stanley Cup hockey game tonight starting at 9 p.m. EST, a CBC spokesman said.

The decision to carry the game was made following Leafs two overtime victories over Bruins and the tremendous national interest this has sparked, he said.

The French network will carry the Chicago at Montreal game. Both best-of-seven semi-finals are tied 2-2.

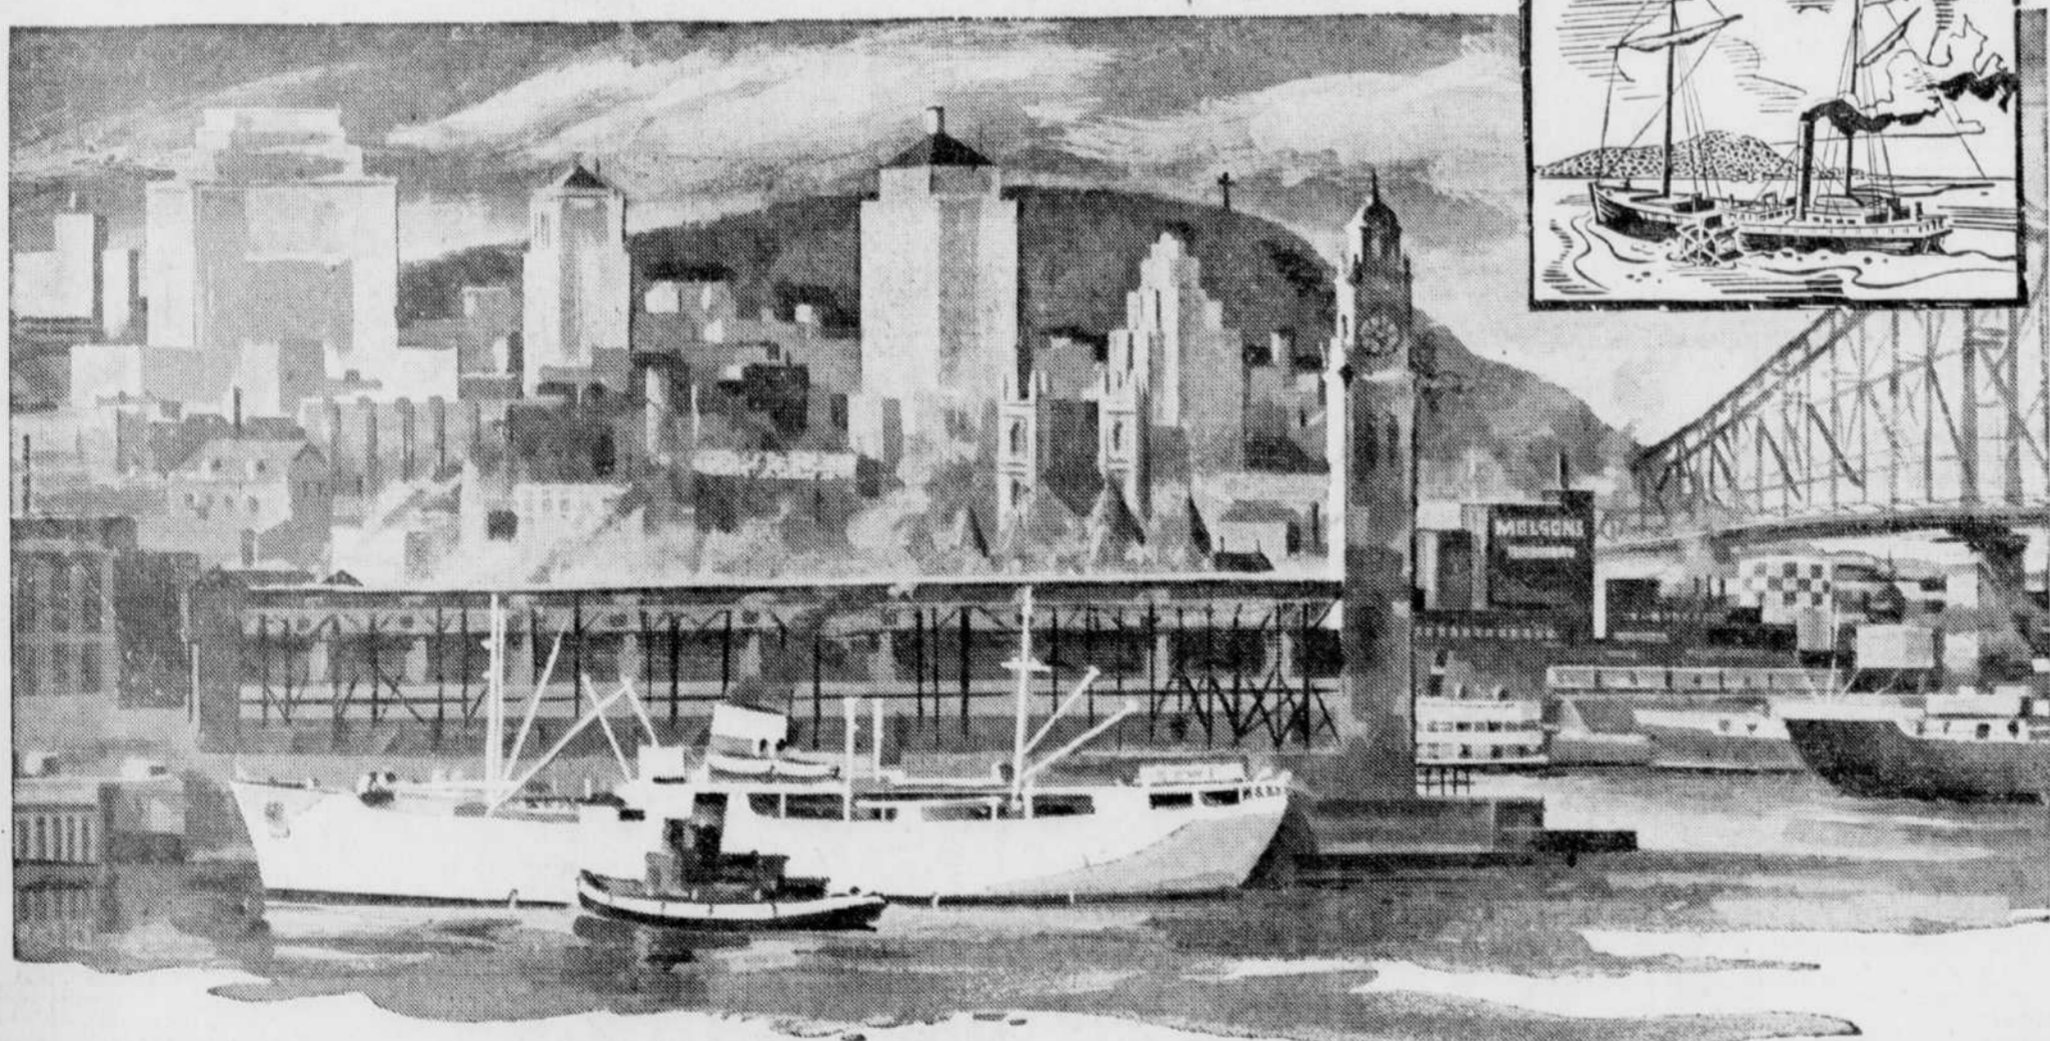

On Saturday both networks will carry the Montreal at Chicago game in Quebec and the Maritimes.

A NEW ERA BEGINS

as the St. Lawrence Seaway unfolds a future of continuing Canadian development

The Accommodation—Canada's first steamboat—built by John Molson.

This year a new era in Canadian navigation — and Canadian development — begins. As it opens the full extent of the St. Lawrence and the Great Lakes to the sea-borne commerce of the world, the giant Seaway unfolds a future of increased Canadian expansion. It is the fulfillment of an old Canadian dream. It represents the latest great achievement in the continuing development of navigation on Canada's historic waterway — a development to which the founder of Molson's Brewery made a contribution of enduring significance 150 years ago.

In 1809 — 25 years after he had established his brewery — John Molson inaugurated steam navigation in Canada when he launched his Accommodation on the St. Lawrence. A new era began in Canadian history. The little Accommodation was the forerunner of the thousands of steamships that have made the St. Lawrence system one of the world's busiest waterways — soon to be busier still because of this year's crowning achievement.

Molson's today is proud to be as closely associated with Canada's progress as it was 150 years ago. The enterprise founded by John Molson has continued to grow with Canada. His Brewery, still on the original site where the Accommodation was launched, has expanded steadily.

The quality of its products has been consistently maintained. They have won a wide and appreciative acceptance, so that today Molson's is Canada's largest selling Ale.

Manager Devine Seems To Have Done OK In Jones-White Trade; Dodgers Win As White Sox Dumble Braves 8-5

The first returns are in on last week's Sam Jones-Bill White trade between St. Louis Cardinals and San Francisco Giants. It seems that Card general manager Bing Devine didn't get the bad end after all.

Devine was criticized for giving Jones, his pitching mainstay last season with a 14-13 record, to the Giants for White, an infielder with only limited major league experience.

Although the only basis for comparison is spring training, the results do not bear out the critics.

Jones, in his first start for Giants' manager Bill Rigney, was blasted for nine hits and nine runs in four innings Wednesday by Chicago Cubs, who beat the Giants 10-5. Included among the hits were three-run homers by rookie George Altman and Moose Maryn. GOOD IMPRESSION While he has made a favorable impression on Cards' manager Solly Hemus—although his error Wednesday paved the way for a five-run New York Yankee ninth inning that gave the world champions a 5-1 victory.

Hemus decided before the game to give White the first base job and move Joe Cunningham to right field. White has hit three home runs and batted over .300 since joining the Cards.

In other exhibition games, Cleveland Indians edged Boston Red Sox 5-4, Los Angeles Dodgers shut out Philadelphia Phillies 8-0, Cincinnati Reds edged Washington Senators 6-4, Chicago White Sox humbled Milwaukee Braves 8-5, Kansas City Athletics won over Detroit Tigers 4-3 and Baltimore Orioles edged Pittsburgh Pirates 4-3 in 12 innings.

M. Jones Elected Head Of E.T.S.A., Five Teams In

Five teams, including a new entry from Quebec City, will be taking part in the second year of the Eastern Townships Soccer Association. It was announced today by Publicity manager Fred Willem.

The opening game of the season will take place in Drummondville between Quebec City and Sherbrooke. Other teams competing in the Association are Magog, Drummondville and Bishop's University.

The first league meeting of the E.T.S.A. was held last Saturday at which time the new members of the executive were named:

President, M. Jones; chairman, A. Aston; secretary-treasurers, C. Simmons and Hans van der Werf; and publicity, Fred Willem.

Jack Adams Picks Leafs To Go All The Way For Cup

DETROIT (AP)—Jack Adams, general manager of the Detroit Red Wings, is picking the Toronto Maple Leafs to go all the way in the Stanley Cup playoffs.

Adams, whose Red Wings finished in the National Hockey League basement after a promising start, explained his selection:

"The Maple Leafs have five or six 20-goal scorers. They are young, fast and aggressive and they're not afraid to check someone. Most of all, they believe in themselves. They think they can go all the way."

Adams says the loss of big Jean Beliveau has hurt Montreal Canadiens' chances of running away with the honors.

Moore get all the credit," said Adams, "but for my money, Beliveau is the heart of that team. He makes the plays and sets up Moore and the others."

British Columbia Lions To Have About 55 Players On Hand For Training Camp, Site Not Fixed Yet

VANCOUVER (CP)—British Columbia Lions expect to have about 55 players on hand when they open their 1959 football training camp, possibly in Vancouver.

Head coach Wayne Robinson said Wednesday he will inspect facilities in Kelowna, where Lions have trained since entering the Western Inter-Provincial Football Union five years ago. If they are not satisfactory, the club will work out in Vancouver.

Robinson talked with reporters at a press luncheon where one of his two assistants was introduced.

Dave Skrien, 28, a former Minnesota player and assistant coach arrived in Vancouver Tuesday for his first visit since signing as back-field coach under Robinson, 28, who came here at the end of last season from Winnipeg.

NEW LINE COACH

Lum Snyder, line coach who comes to Lions from Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League where he has been a tackle, is scheduled to arrive here during the weekend.

Asked about reports that it cost Lions $47,000-$12,000 to Ottawa of the Big Four who had the player on their negotiation list and $35,000 in salary for two years—to land quarterback Randy Duncan of Iowa, Robinson said this was not true.

He didn't give figures, but he said Green Bay Packers of the NFL had bid higher in cash than Lions in their attempts to get him to sign.

"After their flag-waving and all the rest," Robinson said, "the Packers tried to tell Randy he'd be throwing a wet ball all the time if he came to Vancouver—because it rained so much."

SUMMER LABORS

CAIRO (Reuters)—Plans are being made for students of universities in the United Arab Republic to take part in construction of the Aswan high dam and in the dredging of the Suez Canal during their summer holidays.

Bayer Belts Ball 321-Yards To Win Driving

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Gigantic George Bayer of Glencoe, Ill., Wednesday won the long driving contest preceding the Masters golf tournament for the second straight year.

Bayer whacked out a clinching drive of 304 yards on the first attempt then drove the spectators back with a 321-yard belt. His third drive hit a tree on the fly some 250 yards from the tee.

The contest was held on a hole where the ground drops into a gully in front of the tee, then rises so that the target area is slightly higher than the tee.

Frank Stranahan of Toledo came closest to Bayer's drives with one poke of 293 yards.

Round Table To Resume Racing

ARCADIA, Calif. (AP)—The all-time money-winning champion of the turf, Round Table, has recovered from a foot injury and will resume his racing career in Chicago.

His trainer, Willie Molter, said he will leave for Chicago April 10 with Round Table.

Molter and Round Table's owner, Travis M. Kerr, Oklahoma oil millionaire, have mapped out a six-race grass course campaign in Chicago for their ace, starting with the $50,000-added Balmoral May 30.

Chris Doscher Dies Suddenly

MONTREAL (CP)—C. J. (Chris) Doscher, called the father of Little League Baseball in Montreal, died suddenly Tuesday in hospital. He was 67.

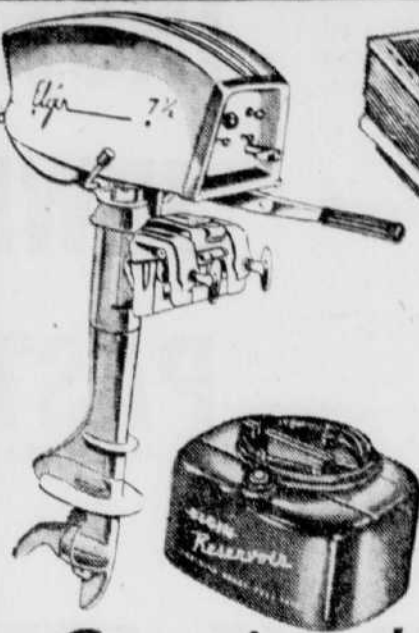

Born in New York City, Mr. Doscher came to Montreal 20 years ago and in 1950 launched a kids' baseball program through the sponsorship of the Kiwanis Club of Montreal.

Mr. Doscher is survived by his wife, a daughter and a son.

TRYING AGAIN — Don Newcombe entered the Baseball Players Golf Tournament at Miami, but the minute he hit the Southland he went to work at Miami Stadium. The Cincinnati right-hander still is trying to get back the live one that made him the National League's best.
