2010 HAMPTON AVENUE - MONTREAL, QUE.

Shakespeare makes Polonius in "Hamlet". . . . . give the following advice :

"Costly thy habit as thy purse can buy,
 But not expressed in fancy; rich, not gaudy;
 For the apparel oft proclaims the man."

Letters are proxies for your presence. They should be given appropriate clothing. And how could Superfine Linen Record be better described than in the words of Polonius? "Rich, not gaudy." Exactly! This paper is the acme of good taste, expressing distinction without ostentation. The "apparel" of your correspondence inevitably proclaims the man who sends it as his emissary.

For you in "making letters", as for us in making paper, only the best is good enough. So when ordering letterheads or paper for documents intended for posterity, specify . . . . .
