The course of studies, in which religious instruction holds the first rank, is divided into two sections—the classical and the commercial.

The classical course, principally taught in French, is designed to impart a thorough knowledge of the Greek, Latin, French and English languages and literature, pure and mixed mathematics, history and geography, philosophy and natural sciences, and whatever is necessary as a preparation for a professional career.

It comprises eight classes—Latin Elements, Syntax, Method, Versification, Belles-lettres, Rhetoric, 1st and 2nd year of Philosophy.

The commercial course, principally taught in English, embraces the English and French languages and literature, mathematics and the other branches named above, moreover book-keeping, and whatever else may fit a young man for commercial and industrial pursuits.

There are, moreover, elementary and preparatory classes for younger students.

The system of education is paternal. The teachers endeavor to unite kindness with firmness, and make use of the means of persuasion in preference to those of severity.

To be admitted into the college, applicants must present a certificate of good character.

Monthly reports of behavior, application and progress are sent to parents or guardians.

None but relatives, or those who represent them, are allowed to visit the boarders.

Half-boarders and day scholars must not absent themselves without previous leave from the College authorities.

The collegiate year is of ten months, beginning in the first week of September, and ending in the first week of July.

Terms per year.—Board and tuition, $150.00; washing, $20.00; bed and bedding, $10.00; music lessons, $25.00; use of the piano, $5.00; drawing lessons, $20.00. Half boarders, $80; day scholars, $30.00.

Payments, which are required in gold or its equivalent, and strictly in advance, are made in two instalments, 1st in the beginning of September, 2nd on the 1st of February.

The college will not take charge of providing a student with clothing or other necessities unless a sufficient sum be deposited in the hands of the treasurer.

No reduction in the above-mentioned terms will be granted for absence of less than one month.
