BIG SHOWDOWN BATTLE FOR NORTH AFRICA NEAR

British Ready To Make Stand Before Matruh

British Headquarters Communique Reports that Advanced Units of Invading Axis Forces Have Reached Within Thirty Miles of Important Railroad—Matruh Believed "Last Ditch" Stand Position.

(By The Canadian Press)

A great showdown battle for Western Egypt was believed near on the Mediterranean coastal plains near Matruh today as Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's mechanized armies, climaxing a 100-mile advance in two days, rolled up to assault main British forces.

Matruh, 130 miles inside Egypt, is a key British railroad 160 miles West of Alexandria.

A bulletin from Cairo headquarters said the vanguard of the Axis invaders, advancing in three columns, had reached within thirty miles of Matruh last night.

At their pace of advance, the invaders possibly were now engaging the main British army, which was said to be drawn up about twenty miles West of Matruh.

Other major developments saw Britain hurl another huge-scale aerial assault of more than 1,000 R.A.F.-R.C.A.F. bombers against Bremen, while Russia's Red army fought ground in the new Kharkov battle but held fast in the siege of Sevastopol.

London military experts said the swift Axis drive into Egypt, coupled with the German thrust toward Russia's Caucasus, was likely to make the next week one of the most critical periods of the war.

These quarters said Rommel could throw approximately 100,000 troops into the attack on the main British defence line before Matruh, with the outcome perhaps involving the fate of Egypt and the entire Allied position in the Middle East.

The armada of bombers which thundered over Germany before dawn to smash at Bremen, Hitler's second largest maritime centre, left great fires leaping against the sky.

London dispatches said the force compared in size, if it did not actually surpass, the 1,180-plane assault on May 30 and the 1,036-plane attack on Essen two nights later. Four Canadian squadrons took part.

An R.A.F. communique acknowledged fifty-two planes missing, the heaviest toll of any single night, but below five per cent—less than half of the ten per cent "success" margin.

On the Soviet war front, the Russians announced a dangerous German advance below Kharkov, in the Ukraine, but declared that Red army defenders still held stoutly in the twenty-two-day-old battle of Sevastopol.

A bulletin from Marshal Semyon Timoshenko's headquarters said the Germans had captured Kupyansk, sixty miles Southeast of Kharkov.

PRISONER OF WAR SOON RECAPTURED

Kingston, Ont., June 26.—(C)—Heinz Domnick, eighteen-year-old German prisoner of war, who escaped from Fort Henry prisoner of war camp Wednesday afternoon, has been recaptured and returned to the camp, the Camp Commandant announced today.

The young Nazi had evidently stolen some clothes after he escaped and was wearing them when captured by Constable Robert Nesbitt of the Kingston city police.

Soviets Maintain Unbroken Line Against Nazi Attacks

Red Army Headquarters, Reporting that Forces in Kharkov Area Have Been Forced Back Through Sheer Weight of German Numbers, Say that Lines are Intact—Sevastopol Continues to Resist.

(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Moscow, June 26.—(P)—Against powerful Red Army resistance, the German offensive in the Ukraine developed today into a reinforced, major drive to the East with the Russians being forced back slowly by sheer weight of troops and tanks past Kupyansk and the Oskol river.

Disputes from the front said that after abandoning Kupyansk, sixty miles Southeast of Kharkov, the Russians repulsed a series of assaults in which the Germans tried with tanks and planes to force a wedge into the defence line.

The Russians said that by falling back slowly they had been able to maintain a straight, unbroken front against the fury of the new onslaught.

"The Germans intensified their attacks," Tass reported, "and despite tremendous losses are pressing Eastward."

"Our units slowly retire, offering strong resistance to the enemy," in its account of the withdrawal from Kupyansk, where fighting was described as particularly heavy, the news agency said.

"The Russian command concentrated considerable forces here, including several hundred tanks and a large number of aircraft, and attacked almost incessantly."

"Air combats were in progress continuously. Enemy tanks repeatedly attempted to pierce our defences and to strike at our troops from the rear."

"Our troops repulsed the attacks and checked the enemy onslaught. Then the German command began

GIVES VIEW OF CANADIANS ON PARTICIPATION

Canadians Entered War Because They Felt It Was Impossible to Stay Out and Survive, Says St. Laurent.

Quebec, June 26.—(C)—Canada could have stayed out of the present war, but she came in because Canadians felt that it was impossible to stay out and survive, Justice Minister St. Laurent said yesterday at a closing session of the 57th annual convention of the National Editorial Association.

Speaking before five hundred NEA members from the United States, the Justice Minister said that "Canada is in this war on its own, by its own declarations, and because Canada feels as you no doubt do, that the interests of its own citizens as free men are at stake."

Speaking briefly at the same luncheon—tendered the delegates by the Dominion Government—Hon. J. T. Thorson, Minister of National War Services, said that Canadians "will play their own part in the war and we shall be content to let the results of our contributions speak for themselves."

B. C. SHIPYARD WORKERS URGE SIX-DAY WEEK

Joint Shipyard Trade Conference Declares Pacific Yards Not Prepared for Continuous Operation.

(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Vancouver, June 26.—(C)—The Joint Shipyard Trade Conference, claiming to represent the majority of British Columbia's 20,000 shipyard workers, declared in a brief released here last night that it does not oppose the principle of seven-day production in the yards, but reiterated its stand that Pacific Coast yards are not yet ready for such a scheme.

The brief, outlining reasons for the conference's opposition to the seven-day plan proposed by the Government and proposing its own substitute plan, will be presented to Labor Minister Mitchell at Ottawa today by a conference delegation.

(Blacksmiths and machinists are at present on strike from three British Columbia yards in protest against the Government's institution of a seven-day, continuous production in their yards.)

The conference brief states that the Government's continuous production programme has caused a 55 1/2 per cent increase in man-hours at the yards, and, although production has increased, it has not increased in proportion to increase in man-hours.

Other points against the seven-day production programme, said the brief, is that it does not allow time for repairing machinery breakdowns and feeling of the shipyard workers is that they "have made sacrifices for no useful purpose."

Attached to the brief is the Conference's counter-proposal for a six-day, eighteen-shift week, with a weekly holiday from 4:30 p.m. Saturdays until 4:30 p.m. Sundays.

"This plan is not submitted in the spirit of 'take it or leave it,'" the Conference brief said. "We do not say our plan is the only one... any other plan suggested, of course, will receive our most careful consideration."

DOCTORING WHISKY
London, June 26.—(C)—Warning of the rising risk of whisky being "doctored" because of wartime shortages, the British Medical Journal declares "hooch"—or methyl alcohol—may cause death in one of three days.

War-Time Problems Fail To Halt Washington Political Bickering

By J. F. SANDERSON

(Canadian Press Staff Writer)
Washington, June 26.—(C)—Washington thrives on political bickering even in the midst of war.

The latest man of controversy is Leon Henderson, short, paunchy, cigar-smoking Director of the Office of Price Administration who has never been known to back away from a fight since he arrived in Washington in the wild and woolly days of the N.R.A.

A group of Senators and Congressmen have banded to clip Henderson's wings, or even to get him fired, because he pleads guilty of the most heinous of crimes in the eyes of politicians—he won't play ball with them in appointments or even consult them before putting someone on the public pay roll.

A few days ago a Democratic Senator started to berate Henderson for appointing a Republican as Price Administration Director in his state.

In a race, the Senator retorted that Henderson deserved to be fired from his job.

"If you feel that way," Henderson declared, lifting the telephone to his ear, "I'll call the President right away and make an appointment for you to go and tell him I ought to be fired."

The offer was not accepted. The telephone went back on the hook.

TALK LANDS A JOB
Few men ever have taken a big job in Washington with better advance notice than Elmer Davis, newspaperman and radio commentator, the new Director of the Office of War Information whose job it will be to organize the publicity of the American war effort on the basis of factual news. On all sides Davis is hailed as the right man in the right spot.

It now appears that Davis unwittingly talked himself into the job.

Washington, June 26.—(P)—President Roosevelt announced today that in May the United States turned out nearly 4,000 planes and more than 1,500 tanks.

Releasing official war production figures for the first time since Pearl Harbor, the President, asserted in a statement that the United States also turned out nearly 2,000 artillery and anti-tank guns in May, and these were exclusive of anti-aircraft guns and those to be mounted in tanks.

The May output of machine guns exceeded 50,000 weapons of all types, including infantry, aircraft and anti-aircraft. If submarine guns are added on, the total passes 100,000.

Mr. Roosevelt released these figures because, he said, they are going to give the Axis just the opposite of "aid and comfort."

"We are well on our way," he declared, "towards achieving the rate of production which will bring us to our goals."

The last announced objectives of the war production programme, told of in the President's annual message to Congress last January, were 185,000 planes in 1942 and 1943, 120,000 tanks, 55,000 anti-aircraft guns.

The President, in citing the May figures, warned against overconfidence.

He said: "While these figures give you some idea of our modern accomplishments, this is no time for the American people to get overconfident. We can't rest on our oars. We need more and more, and we will make more and more."

"And we must also remember that there are plenty of serious production problems ahead—particularly some serious shortages in raw materials, which are receiving the closest consideration of the Government and industry."

Announcement of the production figures coincided with continuing Anglo-American war strategy conferences in which the White House said Russian officials and experts had been playing a significant part.

Presidential Secretary Stephen Early said the Russians had figured in the parleys from the beginning and still did.

On one of his regular broadcasts several weeks ago, he lashed out at "the whole Government publicity situation which has everybody in the news business almost in despair, with half-a-dozen different agencies following different lines and sometimes telling different stories."

The broadcast came to White House attention and resulted in Davis becoming a candidate for a job he didn't seek and didn't particularly want but which, when it was offered to him by President Roosevelt, he considered he must accept.

HALL-BEDROOM HEADACHE
In the midst of revelations about the scarcity of housing in Ottawa, as a result of the influx of war workers, Washington is going ahead with a vast programme to provide shelter for thousands of its newest residents, many of whom are doubling up in hall-bedrooms and paying outrageous rents to grasping landlords.

A plan was approved a few days ago for the construction of 12,291 dormitory units in various parts of the District if Congress will come through with the money and if the necessary priorities can be arranged for the building materials. Some will be reserved for negroes.

LADY FROM MOSCOW
If there is one diplomat in Washington who has made tremendous strides in the last six months, it is Maxim Litvinoff, the Russian Ambassador. He has gained a reputation as a shrewd and long-headed statesman. His English-born wife, Ivy, has been of inestimable value to him.

In a race, the most influential woman in the Washington diplomatic set, this woman from London by way of Moscow. She gives a straight answer to a fair question and altogether is winning many friends and influencing many people for her adopted country.

CAPITAL TRIVIA
Many Government employees now ride bicycles to work but none of the higher-ups have started.

British officers stationed in Washington, particularly of the Royal Air Force, have generally adopted the American army custom of dispensing with tunics in summer but Canadian officers, for some strange reason, continue to look uncomfortable, all buttoned up in tight-fitting tunics in Washington's sweltering climate.

She probably is the most influential woman in the Washington diplomatic set, this woman from London by way of Moscow. She gives a straight answer to a fair question and altogether is winning many friends and influencing many people for her adopted country.

There was no loss of life.

The navy's brief statement gave no details of the attack for security reasons. For the same reason, there was no announcement of the place of attack except to say it was "off Canada's West coast."

Date of the attack which caused some damage to the ship also was not given.

Withholding of information of "undoubted importance" to the enemy's intelligence has to be "custodial," navy spokesmen said. This procedure had "particular force" in the case of attacks in which a ship was able to make port.

The submarine attack on this Canadian-built merchantman was the first official report of submarine activity against shipping off the West coast, although several attacks on shipping have occurred in United States Pacific waters.

Indication that submarines were known to be operating off the British Columbia coast was given by Defence Minister Ralston after the shelling of Estevan Point on Vancouver Island. His first announcement of the shelling said a submarine was involved. Later he told the House of Commons possibly two enemy craft were involved. In this subsequent statement he did not expressly say the shells were fired from submarines.

Following is the text of the navy's brief statement: "A Canadian-built merchant ship of United Nations registry has been brought safely to one of Canada's West coast ports following a determined attack by a Japanese submarine."

"Although the vessel was damaged none of her crew was seriously injured."

Use of the phrase "has been brought" to port was taken to mean the ship was towed to safety. There was no indication in the statement, however, as to what ship did the job.

PROMOTED TO GENERAL
London, June 26.—(C)—Sir Ronald F. Adams, who directed the Dunkerque evacuation, has been promoted from Lt.-General to General.

BASIC UNIT OF U.S. GASOLINE RATION ISSUED

Basic Allowance of 2,880 Miles of Driving Provided Under Set-Up for Seventeen States.

Washington, June 26.—(P)—Instructions for the new gasoline rationing programme in the Eastern United States, disclosing officially that the basic unit would be four gallons, were issued by the Office of Price Administration today.

The unit is subject to change "in accordance with any change in the East's petroleum supply situation," the O.P.A. said in releasing a 13-page booklet on the coupon plan which starts July 22 in 17 states and the District of Columbia.

To eliminate delays and congestion such as marked registration for the emergency ration plan in some cities, O.P.A. laid down detailed instructions to expedite registration at public schools July 9-11 inclusive.

Only the basic, minimum-value "A" cards will be issued at first. Each card will contain 48 coupons.

Hint Compulsion To Ensure Labor Supply For Industry

Although Evasive of Actual Views on Question of Military Conscription, Labor Minister Humphrey Mitchell Warns that Heavy Armament Programme May Force Further Registration of Human Resources.

(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Ottawa, June 26.—(C)—Labor Minister Mitchell foresees the possibility of new measures of "compulsion" to maintain the supply of labor for war industries and early provision for compulsory registration of women for war work.

He said this in the House of Commons yesterday and added some of the heavy industries were seeking "frantically" for men.

Mr. Mitchell said he sometimes wondered "if we have not tried to do too much for a country the size of ours" and warned that Canada had only "touched the fringe" of sacrifices necessary to win the war.

Mr. Mitchell was the eleventh minister to speak in the conscription debate which began two weeks ago. Ten members in all spoke yesterday.

Prime Minister Mackenzie's Bill 80 which would remove the last barrier to unlimited conscription by Order-in-Council received support from the majority of Thursday's speakers but for varying reasons.

Mr. Mitchell did not reply when, at the conclusion of his speech he was asked by Conservative House Leader Hanson just how he stood on conscription. He said he would state his stand when the need for conscription arose.

Dr. H. A. Bruce (Conservative, Toronto-Parkdale), and Morgan Lockhart (Conservative, Lincoln), said they would vote for the bill but would continue to press for immediate conscription.

Mr. (Liberal, Parry Sound), supported the bill and opposed conscription.

British Deliver Fresh Smashing Blow At Nazi U-Boat Plant District

Don Morrison, of Sherbrooke, a Member of "Moose" Squadron, R.C.A.F., Credited with Downing German ME-110 During Thousand Plane Raid Over Bremen—Important City Reportedly Left a Mass of Flames.

(Associated Press Staff Writer)

London, June 26.—(C.P. Cable)

—More than 1,000 R.A.F. bombers furiously attacked Northern Germany last night, it was authoritatively announced today—and with them rode four Canadian squadrons. The raid centered on the port city of Bremen.

It was the third four-figure attack on Germany by the R.A.F., the others being the 1,130-plane raid May 30 on Cologne and the 1,036-plane attack on Essen two nights later.

Fifty-two aircraft are missing from last night's operations.

Although the fifty-two plane loss was the highest experienced by the R.A.F. in a single night it was less than five per cent of those participating, informed sources said.

This would indicate that more than 1,040 planes were involved.

In addition to the Bremen raid, hundreds of fighter planes and fighter-bombers were believed to have participated in intensive harassing attacks on German air fields.

In addition to the R.A.F. squadrons engaged, headquarters said there were many Canadians in the R.A.F. crews over Bremen.

In spite of heavy anti-aircraft defence two Canadian bomber squadrons returned without a single scar on their aircraft while a Canadian intruder squadron flying speedy Mustangs reported "no incident" for its part in the big raid.

Planes from all branches of the service roared out in the sky-filling armada, a statement said.

The Air Ministry in its communique declared Bremen was strewn with burning incendiary bombs.

Like the massive blows aimed at Cologne and Essen, the Bremen raid was aimed at a vital arsenal supplying war tools to Hitler.

By centering on Bremen, the R.A.F. was adhering to a policy of making "priority targets" of U-boats, especially U-boats under construction. In the period since the Essen-Cologne raids, smaller squadrons—presumably of several hundred planes—four times have smashed at Emden, a U-boat base seventy miles Northwest of Bremen.

It was the second time this month that Bremen was singled out for the R.A.F.'s fire bath.

Besides being Germany's second largest port, with a population of almost 500,000, Bremen offered targets in abundance—along with shipbuilding yards and one of Germany's biggest submarine construction works, it has docks, railways, steel works, oil refineries and the Focke-Wulf factory and airframe where the Nazis get fighters and great, long-range bombers made.

The Air Ministry communique said:

Another Contingent of Canadian Troops Settling Down In Britain

By DOUGLAS AMARON, (Canadian Press Staff Writer)
Somewhere in England, June 26.—(C) Cable—Army camps in Southern England already bulging with Canadian soldiers made room for thousands more today as another contingent of troops landed from the Dominion unloaded kitbags for a temporary stay in this island.

"How long will we be here?" was the first question "almost every soldier asked new acquaintances. For all are confident it will be only a matter of months now before they will be packing their kits again for another trip—to the Continent."

Artillerymen and members of the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps comprised the bulk of the army contingent which made a speedy, uneventful Atlantic crossing under the escort of United States warships. But the camps made room, too, for soldiers of the Ordnance Corps, infantrymen and reinforcements for the armored, medical and forestry formations.

Airmen and Canadian civilian firemen arrived with the troops, the former group going to reception centres cheered by the promise they would not have long to wait before going into action. The firemen, here to help fires in Britain's "target towns," stopped off in London where they will be sent to training centres before being posted to the blitzed cities they will help guard.

This contingent of troops landed in a more serious frame of mind than most of its predecessors, but its members were keen for action, hoping for the day when the Canadian army will form part of a continental invasion force.

With the Canadians came British Honduras technicians and members of the Royal Netherlands Army.

Independent Swamps Government Candidate In British Election

London, June 26.—(CP Cable)—Tom Driberg, Independent, today won the Maldon Parliamentary by-election with a plurality of nearly 6,000 votes over R. J. Hunt, the Government candidate.

Mr. Driberg is a widely-known columnist in the Daily Express who writes under the name of William Hickey. He received 12,219 votes to 6,226 for Mr. Hunt, who ran as a Conservative, Borsale Matthews, Independent, polled 1,476.

The vacancy was caused by the death of Col. Sir Edward Buggles-Brise, Conservative. The total vote was small in comparison with that cast in the last general election, in 1935, when Sir Edward polled 17,072 votes to 9,264 for W. F. Toynbee, Labor, and 5,680 for Miss H. Buckmaster, Liberal.

Maldon represented the fourth defeat for a Government candidate in a recent group of seven bye-elections. The others were at Grantham, Walsley and Rugby.

CHURCHILL STILL HOLDS APPEAL
London, June 26.—(P)—Prime Minister Churchill's mastery of oratory and political strategy, backed by the powerful parties making up his Government, will be thrown into the forthcoming House of Commons battle over an insurgent motion for a vote of "no confidence" in his direction of the war.

And political observers expect him to win an overwhelming vote of confidence—with perhaps twenty votes cast against him and a number abstaining from voting.

Supporters of Mr. Churchill predict that in facing the third and most serious political crisis of his Premiership, he will dwell in his opening speech on two basic themes:

1—His oft-expressed belief the tide of victory has turned so strongly in the Allies that disasters like Tobruk can not check it.

2—His close connection with the United States, whose entry into the war made victory certain in the minds of the British people.

These supporters expect the Prime Minister to disclose the inner workings—up to the limits of military secrecy—of the war effort.

Canadians Preparing To Honor Work Of Armed Forces During Next Week

Canada's first Army Week in history may also be the last in which the army will appear to the citizens in just the same way.

Should the celebration be repeated next year it may be an army of veterans as well as an army in training. After nearly three years of war Canada holds an Army Week with an army still untouched by battle, except for the small but gallant force which fought at Hong Kong. None of this force will be home for the show.

At Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, Commander of the Army Overseas, in an Army Week message to Canada yesterday said "The army of Canada in Britain bides its time and waits with confidence and steady purpose, knowing that, for a while yet, patience is required."

Army Week opens Monday, June 29, extends to Sunday, July 5, winding up with a day of prayer.

The week is officially designed to enable civilians to pay their respects to the army, to show their appreciation of its qualities and sacrifices and to learn more about their fighting men in khaki.

As the opening of the week approaches arrangements for the events of the week are in progress all across the country, with civilian committees in charge.

In every town and town across Canada and in many smaller places, streets and shops are being decorated for the occasion, local leaders are preparing speeches for public meetings, citizens are arranging entertainments for the troops.

As for the army itself it is going about its business, training, recruiting, mounting guard on the coasts and at key internal points. The army will hold open house to citizens during the week but there will be no cessation of regular activities.

Military displays will be put on in various places. Tanks and guns will rumble through towns and cities but that is all part of training. The boys have to get so much driving in to become proficient and the driving they do in Army Week shows will count.

From the front line position of the Canadian Army in Britain, Gen. McNaughton will deliver a radio speech Sunday night as curtain-raiser on Army Week at home.

The speech will follow a message received from him yesterday in which he urged Canadians to take full advantage of the week as the army, directly and indirectly, has come to represent a major portion of the activities of Canada's national life.

"The war-scarred fortress (Britain) has become an advanced base against the continent of Europe," he added.

With the war widening in scope and growing in intensity on existing fronts by the time another year rolls around Canadian troops may have passed through battles on the continent of Europe or other fronts.

DEATH REMOVES T. McMAHON IN HIS 75TH YEAR

Life-Long Resident of Brompton and Sherbrooke Passed Away Yesterday Afternoon—Funeral Tomorrow Morning.

A lifelong resident of Brompton and Sherbrooke passed away suddenly at his home in Bromptonville yesterday afternoon in the person of Thomas McMahon, who was in his 75th year.

The deceased, a former employee of Jencks' Machine Company and the Canadian Pacific Railway, was well known in this district and his death, resulting from a heart attack, came as a shock to his many friends and acquaintances.

He was born in Brompton, the son of Denis McMahon and his wife, Helen O'Halloran, both of whom came from Ireland, and came to Sherbrooke at about eighteen years to enter the employ of Jencks. He remained with that firm for some thirty years and then worked in the local shops of the Canadian Pacific Railway for some ten years.

He married Lillian Macours, who predeceased him some eighteen years ago, and leaves a son, Stanley, and two sisters, Mrs. John Wolstenholme, of Moncton, N.B., and Mrs. J. Pye, of Windsor Mills, and a number of nephews, nieces and other relatives.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in St. Michael's Cemetery in Sherbrooke, beside his wife.

a security—of strategic planning which failed in Libya.

In the past, Mr. Churchill has taken on himself the full burden for decisions, placing the issue on his own capabilities.

Many informed sources consider it likely he will disarm his opponents by ordering a shake-up of the Middle Eastern command, perhaps summoning Gen. Sir Archibald Wavell, who is highly esteemed by the press and public, from India to defend Egypt.

One point on which the Opposition undoubtedly will dwell is the phrasing of communications which they say gave an erroneous impression of the course of the Libyan battle. The Prime Minister's supporters consider the best reply would be a parliamentary reading of the actual dispatches from commanders in the field which in the first two weeks of the campaign were almost uniformly optimistic.

The strength of the Conservative party, which holds a majority of the Commons seats, is an impressive factor in any consideration of Mr. Churchill's defence. Some Conservatives may join the political rebellion, but most observers say the Labor vote, shepherded by Dominion Secretary Atlee, is certain to make up for any Conservative losses.

Opposition votes have been tried in two previous votes of confidence in the Government. Last January 29 the Government majority was 461-to-1, with twenty-seven abstentions.

This vote was the outcome of heated debate following loss of the battleship Prince of Wales and the Battle Cruiser Repulse and the defeats in Malaya.

URGENT NEED FOR SALVAGE IS STRESSED

Rumors concerning the monthly Sherbrooke salvage drive today were spiced by officials of the local committee. "It has been said that we do not want the salvage, now that it has been collected. This is, of course, another of those false rumors which are constantly cropping up in wartime," said an official.

"We want salvage, and we want it badly. And the members of the committee want salvage not for any personal gratification, but for the Canadian Government's war effort."

"With these facts in mind, we again ask the indulgence of the people of Sherbrooke whose co-operation made the first monthly collection this month such a success. We are doing the best we can. Knowing how desperately we need help, it might be a good idea if some of those who are complaining were to drop overalls and come and help us in the next drive."

The next local salvage collection will be made on July 8 by the city garbage collection department. Until then it is up to all patriotic householders to put out everything salvageable they can.

It was pointed out that since there is a lapse of thirty days between collections, a substantial number of householders who have been away when the first drive was conducted, will go on. Her shortage in rubber, second monthly collection.

Said an official of the local committee: "But Canada's war needs will go on. Her shortage in rubber, especially, metal, water, sugar and glass will continue to increase while our people are away unless everyone does his utmost to get out every bit of scrap, not garbage, on July 8th."

"The controller of Supplies, Department of Munitions and Supplies, has announced that the rubber shortage is very, very serious."

COMPULSION ON FRENCH LABOR IS ADVOCATED

Leader of Axis-Dominated Labor Front Suggests Conscription to Aid German War Industries.

Vichy, June 26.—(AP)—A proposal that French workers be conscripted for labor in Germany should enlistments not fill German needs was made today by Francis des Philippon, leader of the French Labor Front.

"We make the proposal in favor of requisitioning certain classes of special assignments should that become necessary," des Philippon said in an interview published in the Paris Press.

Special assignments are workmen who were sent to industrial work instead of the army during the war. He did not say which classes he thought should be called but it was presumed he meant younger age groups.

Paris newspapers headlined a demand made over the Paris radio by a German representative who said: "Germany sacrifices the flower of her youth every day; and what is France doing all the time?"

In the unoccupied zone the newspaper Maitre announced that "an increased number of workmen freed of scruples and prejudices is answering the appeal of Chief of Government Laval." He declared it urgently necessary that French workmen take jobs in the Reich.

"Last night very large forces of our aircraft drawn from all the home operational commands of the R.A.F. were in operation."

"The bombing force consisted of more than 1,000 aircraft and its main objective was Bremen, the enemy's second largest port and one of the principal centres of his submarine production."

"Large fires were seen but a considerable amount of heavy cloud made accurate observation of results very difficult."

"To disorganize the enemy defence, many aircraft in the Low Countries were subjected to intensive harassing attacks by a second force of bombers and fighters."

"In the course of these intruder operations and in the many combats which took place between our bombers and enemy fighters some enemy aircraft were damaged or destroyed."

"From the night's operations a total of fifty-two aircraft of all commands is missing."

Bremen was said to have been defended fiercely by night fighters, planes and anti-aircraft fire against this, the ninety-fifth and heaviest, air bombardment of the city as the R.A.F. went back with a vengeance to its big-scale offensive after bad weather had kept its huge bombers at home two nights.

The Canadian share in the latest smash was given to newspapermen from intelligence reports, the R.C.A.F. Stations themselves being closed to reporters to give the boys a "break" after the big raid.

In addition to the successful bombing the targets, members of the anti-aircraft "moose" squadron under Wing-Commander John (Moose) Fulton of Kamloops, B.C., bagged a Nazi fighter which attempted to intercept the Canadians on their return journey.

This is the second such "kill" in two weeks for a gunner of this squadron which has a moose head as its insignia. It was credited to Sgt. Don Morrison, twenty-year-old Sherbrooke, Quebec, rear-gunner return-

SOVIETS BLAME JAPANESE FOR SINKING SHIP

Moscow Radio Claims that Japanese Version of Attack Does Not Coincide with the Facts.

Moscow, June 26.—(AP)—Soviet Russia pinned responsibility today for the sinking of the Soviet merchantman Angarstroi on a Japanese submarine, puncturing Tokyo's claim the act was a provocation by the United States.

Since the 4,761-ton merchantman was torpedoed May 1, only 32 miles off the Japanese coast, Japan has blamed a United States submarine, contending the United States evidently hoped to fan the ancient enmity between Russia and Japan.

"This version does not coincide with the facts," declared the Soviet radio.

It said survivors, who have reached Harbin on the way home, reported that two Japanese submarines came to the surface immediately after the vessel went down and stayed with its crewmen until another Soviet ship landed them at Dairen, a Japanese-leased territory in Manchuria.

"It appears that the Angarstroi was sunk by a Japanese submarine," the Russian announcer said after relating the circumstances, including the fact the ship previously had been halted by Japanese warships and escorted to a Japanese port for inspection.

B.N.A. ACT IS UNDER ATTACK BY DEFENDENT

Montreal, June 26.—(AP)—Russell Smith, Montreal engineer, told Mr. Justice Gustave Perrault in Court yesterday that he considered the British North America Act a "fraud" because it does not conform to one of the resolutions of the Fathers of Confederation at a conference in Quebec in 1864.

Smith was testifying in his own defence during his trial on charges of infringing Defence of Canada Regulations by publishing a pamphlet entitled "Must I Be Shot?" which the Crown holds to be against the interest of recruiting.

Defence seeks to prove good faith on the part of Smith, and counsel J. J. Penner, K.C. quoted provisions in the Regulations that proof of good faith should be considered a defence. Crown Prosecutor Gerald Fautoux, K.C., objected to production of evidence relating to Canadian constitutional authority in the trial.

Two Killed As Train Plunges Through Break

Railway Officials Declare that Bridge Over Which Train Jumped Had Been Burned Earlier.

Los Angeles, June 26.—(AP)—A passenger train wrecked to be heard from a bridge over the Santa Fe railroad near Parker, Ariz., on the California state line last night and preliminary reports were that the bridge had been wrecked by fire.

Preliminary reports said the engineer and fireman were killed, and an undetermined number of passengers injured. The dead were announced here as Engineer E. J. Murray of Parker, and Fireman D. L. Bentz of Needles, Calif., although later reports from Parker made it doubtful whether Bentz had been killed or badly injured.

The Santa Fe fire here said the locomotive and first two cars of the three car train went through the low bridge and into a wash. The bridge is on the desert 350 miles Southeast of here and communications were difficult, but a Santa Fe spokesman said preliminary reports were that the bridge had been set on fire.

The train was westbound between Phoenix, Ariz., and Los Angeles, and connects with the Westbound Santa Fe Scout at Parker for the run into Los Angeles.

ing from his twenty-sixth operational flight in a Wellington bomber skippered by Sqdn. Ldr. Wolfe of Regina.

It was Morrison's first chance to use his guns on an enemy plane and the entire crew saw the flaming ME-110 dive into the sea.

"I saw it when it was about 150 yards from our rear," related Morrison. "As it came in our our port side it fired a burst and turned away. Then the skipper swerved and the fighter was a beautiful target as it went over my turret. I let him have it right in the belly. His port engine caught fire, then his wing."

Fulton reported several large fires burning but visibility was not good enough to distinguish clearly. His crew included Gunners Flt. Sgt. J. O'Brien of Quebec and Flt. Lt. Bob O'Callaghan of Calgary.

Squad. Ldr. Joseph St. Pierre of Montreal, soon to command a new French-Canadian squadron, carried a huge bomb to his target and saw a large explosion flash.

Flying in St. Pierre's formation were Flt. Sgt. Guy Rainville, Quebec, completing his 34th operational flight; M. B. Steeves, Adguts Landing, N.B., and Sgt. P. S. Murphy, Halifax.

RIVER CRUISES PROVIDE BREAK FROM WAR CARE

Six-Day Trips on St. Lawrence and Saguenay Rivers in Canada Steam Ship Lines Vessels Start Monday.

Sheer relaxation from wartime stress, an essential to renewed and greater war effort, becomes available through six-day week cruises by the S.S. Richelieu amid beauties of the St. Lawrence and Saguenay Rivers. First of these cruises out of Montreal begins Monday morning, June 29, G. C. Bonter, Passenger Traffic Manager of Canada Steamship Lines, announces.

The floating home party pulls into the stream at mid-morning, and most of the first day is passed in the lush scenery of Normandy in America. At dusk, the Richelieu passes between the heights that knew Montcalm and Wolfe, to moor beneath The Rock of walled Quebec, cradle of history in North America, next morning the vessel is in the heart of the lush scenery of the mid-St. Lawrence. Dinnertime finds vacationists rounding historic Tadoussac to enter the gateway to the deep-flowing Saguenay, one of the world's distinctive rivers, carved out of solid rock by Titanic forces of the Glacial Age.

Up through the forested escarpments, in the lee of capes that tower high 2,000 feet, the Richelieu continues to Chicoutimi, "Queen of the Saguenay," this year one hundred years old.

Sightseeing next day, then a cruise down the river, and a turn into picturesque Ha Ha Bay. Out again, and down the Tadoussac for the privileges of the new Hotel Tadoussac, for a bonfire and barbecue. Plenty of time to visit this oldest of summer resorts—for such it was even in Indian days centuries ago—then, the following day, up the St. Lawrence again for an overnight halt at Murray Bay, where the golf, swimming, tennis and fishing of the smart Manoir Richelieu are available. Back to Quebec, this time for a good look at this ancient fortress and a trip to Ste. Anne de Beaupre, shrine of the world-revered Wonder Worker. Then back to Montreal, end of six days of glorious rest and fun.

to rush up reserves. Fresh infantry units, tanks and air units were hurried into action. This enabled the enemy further to increase his numerical superiority.

"Our units were compelled to retreat. A pitched battle developed at the approaches to Kuybyshev and then in the town itself. Fighting was prolonged and exceptionally heavy. Despite the enemy's considerable superiority, our troops selflessly defended the town and the approaches to it and clung for a long time to every defence line."

Fighting flamed overnight in both the Kharkov and Sevastopol regions. The push upon the inner defences of Sevastopol was pictured here as still unavailing, despite sacrifice of Axis manpower at a rate of five-for-one, aerial raiders losing 1,000 bombs a day and a steady shelling by the heaviest artillery.

"Our troops beat off many enemy attacks," it was said. The Soviet Information Bureau announced the fall of Kuybyshev, a railway junction of 18,000 population on the banks of the Oskol river, saying that "after fierce fighting, our troops withdrew."

The Oskol is an Eastern tributary of the Donets, which flows through a war-torn region rich in iron and coal deposits to the Don.

Heavy combat yesterday throughout the area before the Germans' Southern front headquarters was indicated by a communique which said that four troops in the Kharkov direction continued fighting against advancing German fascist troops.

Russian fliers parried Nazi aerial thrusts and hammered at armored formations. The Information Bureau said fifty-one planes of squadrons seeking to blast a path for Von Bock's ground forces were shot down or damaged in a single sector.

CITY and SUBURBAN

City Council, Which Refused Aid To Chamber Of Commerce, Ready To Grant Proprietors' League $500

Request for a $500 grant for the Sherbrooke Branch of the Union of Proprietors League of the Province of Quebec will be accorded by City Council if the provincial convention is held in this city, City Clerk Antonin Deslauriers said today.

He said that S. Boisvert, Vice-President, Andre Veilleux, Secretary, and Cosaire Gervais, legal adviser, of the local organization of the League, appeared before a special Council meeting earlier this week and asked for the grant. They informed members of the City Council that approximately five hundred delegates of the League from throughout Quebec will attend the two-day convention, scheduled for the last week of September.

City Clerk Deslauriers said that Council will make the grant "only on the condition that the provincial parley of the League is held in Sherbrooke."

"The grant will be a beneficial one, since every one of the five hundred delegates will spend at least ten dollars a day during their two-day stay in Sherbrooke," he added.

He stated that there is a strong possibility that the Quebec Union of Proprietors' League will hold its annual convention in the city and local officials of the organization are awaiting confirmation of the dates from Montreal headquarters of the League.

Another request for a grant of $100 from the Young Catholic Workers was refused by Council at the same time.

Citizens of Sherbrooke, industrialists, business concerns, professional men and Chamber of Commerce officials are at a loss to understand why the $500 grant will be made to the Proprietors' League when a request made by the Chamber of Commerce was refused early last month.

It will be recalled that a Chamber of Commerce petition, signed by a hundred prominent industrialists and business officials, in which the grant was sought by the Chamber to enable it to carry on its work in the interest of all citizens, was refused by Council, meeting in caucus.

In turning down the grant, members of the City Council at that time pointed out that the City of Sherbrooke would be setting a precedent if the request were allowed, and other organizations also would seek similar financial aid.

MAYOR WIRES PROTEST OVER PARADE PLANS

Local Military Officials Instructed 1,000 from Sherbrooke Camp Take Part in Montreal Demonstration Dominion Day.

Mayor A. C. Ross today wired National Defense Minister, J. L. Ralston, Ottawa, protesting the order of the department received by military officials here that one thousand soldiers from Sherbrooke participate in the Dominion Day parade in Montreal, held in connection with Army Week, for King George of Greece.

Those who have been ordered to participate in the Montreal demonstration are eight hundred soldiers of Les Fusiliers de Sherbrooke and two hundred others from the Lord Sherbrooke Training Centre, all of whom will leave the city early Wednesday morning, July 1, and will return that night by special train.

Protesting on behalf of the city, Mayor Ross in his telegraphic communication, which was sent by City Clerk Antonin Deslauriers, explained that plans already have been arranged here for an Army Week rally and a Dominion Day parade for July 1. He pointed out that military orders from Ottawa, if the thousand soldiers should leave Sherbrooke on Dominion Day, will disrupt the all-day celebration for that day, on which more than four hundred dollars already have been spent.

J. W. McKee and Alphonse Dion, Joint Chairmen of the Dominion Day Committee, and Lucien Robichaud, a member of the Sports Committee, were in conference with Mayor Ross this morning concerning the July 1 demonstration.

TWO STANDARDS ARE BROKEN IN LOCAL MISHAPS

Police reported today that two lamp standards were damaged, one considerably, in separate accidents investigated yesterday.

A truck operated by Leon Ducloux, 405 St. Francis Street, struck a lamp post in front of 27 Wellington Street South. The vehicle was Southbound on the thoroughfare when the accident occurred, police said. The standard was damaged slightly.

Considerable damage resulted to another light standard at the intersection of Dufferin Avenue and Court Streets when an autobus backed into it. According to police, A. Deslauriers, who resides in a local hotel, was the operator of the bus, owned by the City Transit Company.

Police investigating the accident said that the autobus was being backed from West to East on Court Street, after turning West onto the thoroughfare from Dufferin Avenue.

Mayor Warns Citizens To Boil Water Before Drinking

Sherbrooke citizens were cautioned today by Mayor A. C. Ross against drinking local water unless it has first been boiled following analysis reports received from the Provincial Government.

For many years the condition of the city's drinking water has been condemned by citizens generally and medical authorities in particular, and on more than one occasion has been considered a real menace to public health.

Construction of a filtration plant or installation of some adequate water purification system has been strongly advocated but City Council has always neglected to act in the matter. The present water, taken from the Magog River, is put through a chlorination process but this, at best, is considered far from satisfactory.

In a survey conducted by the Record a few summers ago local medical authorities were unanimous in condemning the local supply of drinking water but their opinion and the subsequent demands of citizens that some steps be taken to remedy the situation were not heeded by the City Fathers.

Mayor Ross said today that in view of the fact that reports received today by the city indicate that the water is unfit for drinking, because of the recent floods, citizens should first boil it before drinking it. The reports, he said, revealed that the water is "very poor" at the present time and steps should be taken to safeguard against any possible epidemic.

Explanation Of War Economy Given By Bank President At Social Club

Beaudry Leman, of Montreal, President of Banque Canadienne Nationale, Speaker at Largely-Attended Dinner Meeting of Local Social Organization—Outlines Government Policy Required for Effective War Effort.

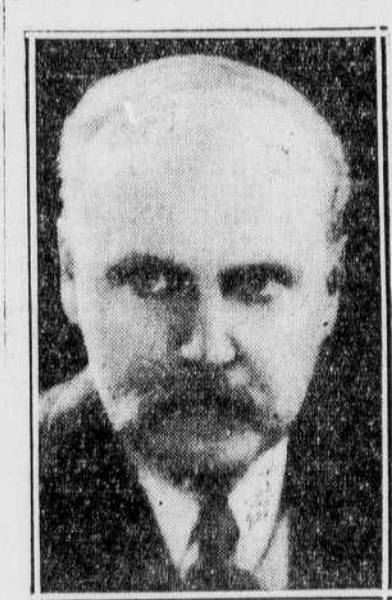

To be effective, a country's general policy during wartime must be based on four principal points, the greatest possible encouragement of the production of arms, munitions and merchandise, the prevention, by regulation of prices and salaries and rationing, of a general rise in prices, the promotion of national unity and the prevention of clashes between classes and interests, and the arrangement of policies so that the transition from war to peace will not result in intolerable economic upheavals.

This contention was made last night by Beaudry Leman, of Montreal, President of the Banque Canadienne Nationale, in an address delivered at a largely-attended dinner meeting of the Social Club, and was the gist of the speaker's commentary on war economy.

The dinner was presided over by J. A. Rouleau, Club President, who spoke briefly of the organization and aims of the club and welcomed the speaker, the guests and the large number of members. Hon. Jacob Nicol, M.L.C., introduced Mr. Leman, and the vote of thanks was extended to Armand Laberge.

Among the many attending were Mayor A. C. Ross, Aldermen R. W. Reid, Eugene Thibault, J. Deslauriers, J. W. Gervais and J. A. Savard, Senator Charles B. Howard, J. S. Bourcier, M.L.A., Lieutenant-Colonel Eugene Nantel, Officers Commanding Lord Sherbrooke Training Centre, Lieutenant-Colonel Aime Biron, Officer Commanding Les Fusiliers de Sherbrooke, Col. Leopold Chevalier, Officer Commanding 10th Infantry Brigade, (R), C.A., G. La Tour, Secretary-Treasurer of the Province of Quebec Federation of Chambers of Commerce, Rev. Canon Napoleon Codere, Rev. Father Mathys, O.S.A., and Albert Julien, Secretary of the local Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Leman said it was interesting to note that whereas a few years ago the chief occupation of those concerned with economic questions was to find ways to put more money in the hands of the masses, now the problem is to reduce the consumption of the ordinary citizens and to deprive them, at least temporarily, of the use of the money which they ment, clothing, accommodating and equipping of soldiers and the assistance of the armies and civilian population of the United Nations.

Declaring that the costs of war must be paid by those by whom the war is waged, Mr. Leman said that war loans are designed to divide among all citizens the payments made to producers of vital materials and the merchandise necessary for the carrying on of Canada's war effort.

Pointing out that the present restrictions and regulations on all activities restrain individual initiative, and that inevitably the sacrifices imposed produce certain inequalities, Mr. Leman expressed the hope that the directed economy and the control of prices prevent a much greater evil, excessive increases in prices and general inflation.

RESERVE ARMY BOOTH OPENED TO AID DRIVE

Office Secured Opposite Court House—Field Day to Be Held Tomorrow at Parade Grounds by Sherbrooke Regiment.

To facilitate enlistment in Sherbrooke's Reserve Army units, the Sherbrooke Regiment, Les Fusiliers de Sherbrooke and the 35th Battery, a recruiting station has been opened in an office on Wellington Street just below the corner of Wellington and Marquette Streets, and men wishing to join the forces and receive training for home defence will be welcomed.

A busy schedule has been planned for the Reserve Army in Sherbrooke during the next few days, with the first event being a Sherbrooke Regiment field day tomorrow afternoon at the Parade Grounds.

The battalion will parade from the Armory to the Parade Grounds and will hold the brass and bugle bands shortly before two o'clock, after which the men will take part in a number of races and athletic events. Special attractions will include a demonstration drill by a picked squad, and a tag-of-war contest between the Officers and the Non-Commissioned Officers of the unit. The general public is cordially invited to attend this event.

On Monday night the Reserve units will participate in the parade and flag lowering ceremony marking the opening of Army Week, and on Wednesday morning they will be out again for the mammoth Dominion Day parade.

Eighteen hundred men are needed to bring the three units up to strength, and it is expected that local men of the required age and medical categories will enlist in large numbers, in order to be prepared for any emergency which might arise.

DEATH REMOVES MRS. MESSENGER AT AGE OF 44

An active worker in matters pertaining to St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, particularly the Ladies' Aid Society, Mrs. Edward Messenger passed away at 8:30 o'clock this morning at the age of 44 years, following an illness of almost two years.

Mrs. Messenger, whose passing is the cause of widespread sorrow among her many friends here, was born in Richmond, the daughter of Mrs. Alexander Stewart and the late Mr. Stewart, and had been a resident of Sherbrooke for some twenty years. She had been employed as Secretary for the firm of Wells and Lynch before her marriage in 1924. She was Worthy Matron of the O.E.S., and was also actively interested in all matters concerning war work.

Mrs. Messenger is survived by her husband; her mother; a twin sister, Ethel, of Toronto, and a brother, Donald, also of Toronto, as well as a half-sister, Jean Abercrombie, also of Lennoxville. Two brothers, Stanley and Walter, and a sister, Florence, predeceased her.

The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon.

HOLIDAY WITH PAY IS GIVEN SILK WORKERS

Four hundred and sixty-five employees of the Canadian Silk Products, Ltd., with two years of service with the company, collected a full week's pay today and left the plant to enjoy their annual holiday until Monday, July 6th.

Again this year the company has put into effect the policy adopted when operations were started here in 1924 and carried out every year but one since that time.

A. A. Munster, President and General Manager of the Company, pointed out that $11,000 is being divided today among the employees receiving their holiday and bonus 240 girls receiving $4,000 and 225 men being given $7,000. Two years ago, before the purchase of War Savings Certificates had been made so general by the Dominion-wide campaign, the company gave the employees their bonuses in Certificates and stamps. Since that time, however, the employees have subscribed one hundred per cent in certificates and stamps, and last year as well as this they received their bonuses in cash.

It was pointed out that these employees—who do not include the office staff and department heads—purchase annually Certificates and Stamps to the value of $16,000, and Victory Bonds to the amount of $18,000, the purchases being made by the deduction plan.

TWO BLAZES EXTINGUISHED
Before any damage resulted, the Municipal Fire Department extinguished two minor blazes yesterday. Firemen put out chimney and stove-pipe blazes at the homes of J. A. Marsault, 16 Wolfe Street, and Joseph Blouin, 202 Eleventh Avenue, respectively.

INVITATION TO ATTEND FIELD DAY EXTENDED

An invitation to attend a field day to be held at the Parade Grounds tomorrow afternoon by the Sherbrooke Regiment (R), C.A., was today extended the general public by Lieutenant-Colonel T. R. MacKenzie, O.B.E., V.D., Commanding Officer of the Regiment.

The Regiment will parade from the William Street Armory to the Parade Grounds shortly before two o'clock, with the brass and bugle bands leading, and a full programme of sports will be carried out under the direction of the Sports Committee, Capt. the Rev. Fred Williams, Lieutenant Grattan Sheely, Company Quartermaster-Sergeant Ambrose Aston and Sergeant Wells.

Among the many features which should prove of interest to the spectators will be a demonstration drill by a picked squad and a tug-of-war between the Officers and Non-Commissioned Officers. Selections will also be rendered by the band throughout the afternoon.

ABUMPER CROP OF RASPBERRIES SEEMS ASSURED

Farmers at the Lansdowne Market today told a Record reporter that while strawberries have been comparatively scarce this season, a bumper crop of raspberries seems assured, judging from present indications.

Strawberry picking will continue until early next week, the farmers reported. They all said that their raspberry plantings are very promising, with heavy growth of cane. One of the farmers stated that he has one of the best raspberry crop prospects in years.

Many of the farmers agreed that the apple crop in the Eastern Townships will be very light this year due to the cold, wet weather and the blossoms not setting. Plums, on the other hand, will be a fairly good crop, although not as heavy as in recent years.

The cherry crop is reported to be average with the harvest of the early varieties of sour cherries rapidly approaching.

ORDER LIGHTER UNIFORMS FOR CONSTABULARY

Federal Wool Controller will not permit Sherbrooke to keep its police and firemen clothed in the manner to which they are accustomed, it was learned at City Hall today.

If police and firemen find themselves shivering next winter it will be because the Controller has banned the use of the usual twenty-six ounce worsted cloth for overcoats and suggested that twenty-two ounce cloth for uniforms be reduced to eighteen-ounce weight.

It was indicated today that Council may protect its servants by instructing its tailoring firm to back the garments with "as heavy a lining as possible."

Ottawa's latest order also quashed the city's plan to give police and firemen an overcoat once every three years in lieu of the customary uniform for that year.

Material on hand in all probability will be reserved for uniforms for members of the department, the majority of whom will be compelled to wear their old overcoats for another year, judging from the present order.

THE WAR EFFORT OF QUEBEC

Apologists for the overwhelming no vote in the recent manpower plebiscite are wont to refer in glowing, but vague, terms to the excellence of the enlistment of Quebec residents in the armed forces of the Dominion as proof that the people of this Province fully appreciate the issues involved in the present struggle. However, an earlier analysis of the actual enlistment figures showed that the enlistments in this Province were 22.3 per thousand of population, as compared with 42.3 per thousand in Ontario, 54.5 in Manitoba, and a Dominion-wide average of 39.6 per thousand including Quebec and a rate of 47 per thousand excluding Quebec.

Now some more highly enlightening figures have been issued by Defence Ministers in reply to a House of Commons question. According to these returns, total enlistments in the armed forces in the Province up to the present month were 74,053 in the three armed services, of which number 36,140 were of French-Canadian origin and 37,913 of other racial origin. This despite the fact the 1931 census showed 2,270,059 of French racial origin in the Province to 604,196 of other racial stocks.

Total enlistments for the Army for service anywhere were from the beginning of the war up to June 6 last 29,651 of French-Canadian origin and 27,071 of other origins; for the Navy 1,474 and 3,706; and for the Air Force 5,025 and 7,136.

It was explained in the return of military figures that the whole of Quebec, excepting the counties of Gatineau, Pontiac and Temiskaming, was included in Military Districts 4 and 5, and that the three excepted counties were included in M.D. No. 3, whose headquarters is Kingston.

Col. Ralston's return pointed out that records of enlistments by racial origin were not kept, but the rather arbitrary method of simply regarding those bearing names generally considered to indicate French origin and those bearing names indicating other than French origin was adopted. It was also explained in the military figures that all those shown in the figures were enlisted for active service anywhere, but there was no provision for voluntary enlistment in active units and formations of the Canadian Army for service in Canada only.

Naval enlistments in Quebec were divided as follows: Royal Canadian Navy, 133; Royal Canadian Reserve, 521; R.C.N.V.R., 4,306. Of the total of 5,160 there were 1,474 of French origin and 3,786 others.

Total Air Force enlistments up to June 3 this year in Quebec were 12,513, including 352 in the women's division, and of this total 3,110 were of French origin and 7,403 of other origin, including 867 United States citizens.

Air Force enlistments were classified as follows: Air crew, 1,041 of French origin and 3,231 others, including the 867 U.S. citizens; ground crews 2,402 French and 3,305 others; general duties, 1,582 French and 600 others.

THE REAL FIGHTING STARTS

The shadow boxing and practice work-outs for the great Axis-democracy battle of all history have apparently come to an end, for the weight and ferocity of the new Nazi attack against the Russians in the Kharkov sector indicate that Hitler is finally settling down in earnest to the bloody business of trying to crack the Red line in this gateway to the Caucasus. The master gangster's previous assault in this zone more than a fortnight ago apparently was to improve his positions in preparation for a major offensive. Just how much he achieved has not yet been made clear, although he did force the Russian line back in places. This fresh drive, now in its fifth day, may be the real thing.

Judging from reports the battle thus far has in effect been a triumph for Red Marshal Timoshenko's troops. The Germans have dented the Soviet line in the Donets Basin, but appear to have done so at a terrible cost in life and materiel. Naturally the attackers' losses are heavier than those of the defence—something like three to one under normal circumstances. Thus so long as the Bolsheviks can prevent a break-through they are making long strides towards victory even though they remain on the defensive. This is because Hitler is suffering damage which he no longer can repair. He has under arms about all the physically fit men he can call, without bringing out the very young or those beyond their prime. Further, and this is important, he has passed the peak of his war production and cannot increase his output. He is facing the down grade.

Can the Russians continue to hold the Nazis and keep them from breaking through to the resources of the Caucasus and the Middle East? That is on the knees of the gods, but the indications are that while Hitler still possesses vast power he is not as strong as he was a year ago when he recklessly assaulted the Reds.

If the sacrifice of German youth could turn the trick the Axis would succeed. The only regard a German commander has for the lives of his soldiers relates to the number he can afford to throw away. Life in itself means nothing; the objective is everything. That is militarism, the result of a brutal training which starts with babyhood.

Down in the Crimea there is perhaps even more sanguinary fighting as the Nazis press their siege of the great Red naval base of Sevastopol. Berlin reported that Axis troops had penetrated deeper into the Russian defences and that street fighting was proceeding and the position of Sevastopol does appear critical.

Over on the Egyptian desert one would expect the British to make their real stand at Matruh on the coast. This is about ninety miles East of Sidi Barrani and is an important point. Matruh was head of the railroad to the great naval base of Alexandria until the line recently was extended into Libya by British engineers. The new British withdrawal thus far is strategic and was expected in view of the circumstances of the defeat in Libya.

MOTOR RESERVE ON WEST COAST

A civilian automobile reserve of nearly 500 vehicles and power boat squadrons of some 400 craft stand ready for any emergency on Vancouver Island, whether it be a sudden troop movement or the evacuation of civilians.

Harold Husband of Victoria, recently appointed by Transit Controller George S. Gray to survey and organize all emergency transport facilities on the Island has indexed every Island motor vehicle on the records of Provincial Police. His staff has arranged to fit drivers into an emergency plan and organized a civilian sea force of ferries, tugs, barges and smaller power boats.

The Island has been zoned and district controllers for the emergency service appointed in some cases. Car owners have equipped their vans and trucks with removable seats so the vehicles could be transformed into troops of evacuee carriers at a moment's notice.

Special purpose vehicles also were listed including bulldozers and tractors which could act as artillery tractors. Bulldozer units include bridge crews from Island logging camps, men who are veterans at ramming transport lines through the wilderness and keeping roads and bridges in repair.

Sea craft have been similarly organized, every available vessel registered at Island ports being considered, including large ferry boats, tugs and barges and various types of small craft, 380 in all. The Sea Cadets have been approached with a view to providing boy signallers to be attached to each squadron of this civilian "navy" and possibly supply lads to serve as crewmen aboard the larger vessels in an emergency.

VETERANS STUDY LAND SETTLEMENT

Realizing the many problems which will result from the demobilization of the Canadian forces at the conclusion of the present hostilities, the Saskatchewan Veterans Rehabilitation committee, appointed by Premier W. J. Patterson, has begun a study of the post-war re-establishment of these men.

Brig-Gen. Alex Ross of Yorkton, former President of The Canadian Legion, British Empire Service League, heads the land settlement section that will advise the director of the Dominion Land Settlement Plan in Saskatchewan and prepare a memorandum of practical advice to prospective settlers. (The new War Veterans' Land Settlement Act, now before Parliament, is designed to settle 25,000 men on the land at a cost of $80,000,000.)

Col. G. L. Dempster of Prince Albert, in charge of Veterans' Preference, will urge all public bodies to make regulations ensuring veterans' preference in employment. An Industrial section, represented by Dennis Mahoney, Saskatoon, James Berry, Regina, and E. Dillon, Moose Jaw, will make a list of employers and ask each to give preference to veterans.

A study also will be made of vocational and educational facilities available for rehabilitation work and a work project group will urge the Provincial Government and other public bodies to delay projects not immediately needed until post-war years. A survey also will be made to ascertain what work projects might be developed as part of the rehabilitation programme.

M. P.'s DO WORK

Progres de Hull

Among certain Members there is impatience at the fact that the work of Parliament does not advance more rapidly. That is, we believe, because enough account has not been taken of the fact that the present parliamentary session is perhaps one of the most important in our parliamentary history. The Government and Parliament have to take urgent measures to save our country, which is in danger. It is not exaggeration to say that perhaps never in the past has our future been more uncertain. Therefore, it is proper that our people should take great care in passing judgment on the measures which are taken by the authorities. It is worth remarking that a Member declared recently that the House did not really work for twenty-four hours a week, which is true only to a very small degree. Since the beginning of the war our Members have had to confine themselves to an unusual daily task. In addition to working at their personal affairs they have every day had to attend meetings of the various committees in the mornings and for the rest of the day follow the debate in the House. In wartime the responsibilities of a representative of the people is very heavy and certainly entails many consequences. It is too easy to forget that.

Shorty: "Well, I got three shirts like this one out of one yard last night."

"So you married that plump little girl who used to giggle so much?"

"Yes, I always did believe in a short wife and a merry one."

A man dashed into the fire station. He was very excited and burst out with: "I'm sorry to interrupt, but my wife has disappeared again."

Ont of the firemen looked up. "That's too bad," he sympathized, "but why tell us? Why not notify the police?"

The intruder shook his head. "I don't dare tell the police," he explained, "I told them the last time she disappeared—and they went out and found her!"

"My word," he blurted to his caddy, "the worms will think there's been an earthquake."

"I don't know," replied the caddy. "The worms around here are crafty. I'll bet most of them are hiding under the ball for safety."

PRESS COMMENTS

PREPARING FOR PEACE

The New Statesman and Nation, London

Unless the problems of post-war reconstruction are taken seriously during the war, we are on the way to losing the peace. Nor is it enough that plans should be made by each Government separately, or even by Governments communing together behind closed doors. An indispensable factor in getting ready for a decent and durable settlement in Europe is the education of public opinion on both sides of the Atlantic; and this education cannot be brought about by outpourings of generalities, but only by the public announcement and discussion of concrete plans for dealing with specific difficulties. It is a misfortune that the "hush-hush" policy which has been applied to so many wartime questions about which public opinion would help morale in the enemy and would help morale in this country has been extended to post-war problems as well.

HATE IS NOT DETERMINATION

Wall Street Journal

A paragraph in this newspaper's column "Washington Wire" recently says that with Washington approval we are to have moving pictures based on the propaganda appeal of hating the enemy.

In our opinion a propaganda of this nature furthered by the movies or by other means is both unnecessary and unwise.

The American people are firmly determined to administer a chastisement to those nations which they regard as wanton disturbers of the world peace. They are not going about the job in any "love and kisses" spirit either. We cannot see that the job will be rendered one whit more efficient or speedy by fostering hate and determination are not the same.

The difficulty about this hate business is that once the emotion is let loose, it is at that time out of control. Hate can be engendered. It cannot be channeled.

THE REAL LAVAL

St. Catharines Standard

"I desire Germany's victory because of the Red peril." So spoke Laval to the French people. But there are other more personal reasons why he desires Germany to win. France will never be big enough to hold Laval in the event of German defeat; the wealth Laval has accumulated will evaporate and his name will go down in French history as one of opprobrium.

In his appeal, Laval said that Hitler might ease up and let French prisoners out. He did not announce a sure thing. He only thought that Hitler would do so. Some generosity if French workers to the number of 350,000 trekked into Germany and took employment in Nazi war industries. The money is big but the value of the money is not.

Laval, having unmasked himself, is it not reasonable to suppose that the vast build-up of the Rommel army in North Africa was contributed to by Vichy through Tunisia?

Laval desires Germany to win and demands that French workers assist in the process, although it will mean enslavement for France for generations to come. And in what status does that leave the Vichy Minister at Ottawa? He is there to obey orders from Laval. Why should he be allowed to remain? Is there such a thing as national self-respect in Canada?

Laval, be it noted, did not promise French families that their men would return home. They would be released from camp to go into German factories and by toil and sweat, for a few Reichsmarks per week, produce the implements of war. This is the depth of humiliation to which Laval would bring the French nation, heads of which still prate of French honor and valor. Still there remains a hope that all French people are not decadent and will prefer to suffer rather than yield to tyranny.

GRAVE DECISIONS

Auckland News, New Zealand

With the fall of Singapore it seems that the Allies reconciled themselves to the loss of the Indies. The choice had perhaps to be made between the preservation of India, Java and Australia and New Zealand. India must be held, for if she falls the way is open for Japan to conquer the Middle East and join hands with Hitler. If Australia falls New Zealand goes with her, then starting point for the reconquest of the Dutch East Indies is overcome and the defeat of Japan, invigorated by her victories and replete with raw materials, would be postponed perhaps for years. Grievous as the decision would be, the Allies may have decided to concentrate America's help in India, Australia and New Zealand to the exclusion of Java. Even so, our preservation for some time to come may rest on ourselves and our perils may be great. We shall meet them manfully.

Today's Favorite Poem

MY NEIGHBOR

Her dainty web house fully spun
Before I knew she had begun,
She fastened it outside my screen
High up within an evergreen.

And I was glad that she had found
Such safe retreat on days that frowned,
For when it showered she could crawl
Beneath a snug leaf parasol.

Now some may smile to think I grew
Quite fond of her, or that she knew—
A little spider in a tree—
That she could keep me company!

But on the days when I would sit Down in my room with thread to knit,
As though my company to win
She, too, would get out thread to spin.

ALL RIGHT, PUT IT BACK IN THE BOX

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By Wm. E. McKenney, America's Card Authority.

NO TRUMP HAND WINS EXTRA TRICK

Today's hand is No. 1 of the 18 hands used in the intercollegiate championship tournament. The point in play is to keep a dangerous hand out of the lead. North is expected to make his contract of three no trumps. He ducks the first two rounds of spades and wins the third. Now he must not take a finesse in diamonds. He can afford to lose a diamond trick to West, if West has the king, but he cannot afford to lose the lead to East. He should lay down the ace of diamonds; if East has the king, the only chance is that it is singleton. As the king does drop, North makes at least four odd.

H. M. Schoolman and S. H. Ellman of the University of Illinois, who were fourth in a field of 216 pairs, nearly lost the par by playing five diamonds instead of three no trump. At a diamond contract the adverse spades are no menace, so it seems natural to take finesesses in both minor suits, and this course will lose game. But the Illinois player conceived the daring notion of stripping the hand for a throw-in before tackling trumps. He eliminated the spades and hearts from the North and South hands, then laid down the ace of diamonds, no doubt planning to throw a defender in with the king. He must have been gratified to see the singleton king drop!

SPINACH-CHEESE SOUFFLE

- puffs up high
- puffs up light
- tastes wonderful

If you have always been afraid to tackle a souffle, here's the point to change to happy confidence. There's just nothing to the making of this souffle. Follow directions exactly and it will puff up proudly.

The flavor is delicious — a combination of cheese, spinach and mushrooms. (We get the mushroom flavor by using condensed cream of mushroom soup).

With it serve a salad and crusty rolls. Follow with dessert and coffee.

- 2 cups seasoned cooked spinach (about 2 pounds fresh)
- 1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
- 4 ounces pimiento cheese
- 4 eggs, separated

Empty the cream of mushroom soup into a saucepan and mix well. Heat and add the pimiento cheese, then stir until the cheese has melted. Add the egg yolks one at a time and stir after each one is added. Continue heating until mixture is slightly thickened, then cool and add the seasoned cooked spinach. Beat the egg whites until stiff and fold into the mixture. Pour into a casserole dish, place casserole in a pan of hot water and bake in a moderate (350°) oven for one hour or until firm. Serves 6.

Mr. Gilbert S. Thomson was host yesterday afternoon at his residence on Victoria Street, where he gave one of the season's most brilliantly successful garden parties for the benefit of the War Service Work of the Duke of Wellington Chapter I.O.D.E., of which the late Mrs. Thompson was for many years Regent.

Strikingly beautiful was the vista of the lovely garden on the hillside, while on the lawn below Mr. Thompson used his own large Union Jack on his flag staff, with smaller Union Jacks suspended on ropes forming a protective flying canopy over the huge throng of guests, while above white fleecy clouds were wafted by soft winds across the clear blue sky.

Mrs. Matthew Graham, Regent, Miss Bessie Thomson and Mrs. N. T. McKee, her house guest, received at the top of the stone steps leading to the entrance over which hung a Union Jack, while Mrs. R. L. Bishop, Treasurer, and Mrs. Dean R. Bishop, her Assistant, were seated at a table close by distributing to each guest in exchange for a ticket its cash value, a dainty refreshment of I.O.D.E. badge, Tea, delicious sandwiches, cookies, small cakes and ice cream were served from a large marquee erected on the drive way, the following young ladies acting most efficiently as waitresses, the Misses Sylvia Rose, Edith Edgar, Helen Wiggett, Frankie Watts, Peggy Graham, Joan Milne, Charlotte Olivier, Jean Northridge, Gloria Wiggett, Louise Olivier and Corrine Wiggett.

There were also several additional attractions, a very special feature being a canvas portrait snap shot, taken by N. T. McKee, a house guest of Mr. Thompson's, in charge, this intriguing spot tempted many of the guests and perhaps more particularly the children, of whom there were a large number including adorable "infants in arms," who were not in the least afraid of Mr. "Camera Man."

While the party was given by Mr. Thompson, members of the Chapter arranged a sale of home cooking with Mrs. S. Liver, Mrs. Arthur Edwards and Mrs. M. L. McFadden acting as Conveners, also a fish pond at which Mrs. R. N. Ogilvy and Mrs. V. G. Southern acted as "wardens." Mrs. S. A. Belmont and Mrs. J. Corfield sold ice cream cones, these being quite apart from the ice cream served on the tea menu. "White Elephants" were convened by Mrs. H. Brown and Mrs. Leslie Arter, and the box of candy which was sold by Mrs. V. G. Southern and Mrs. Ogilvy was later won by Mrs. E. A. Landerville.

Tea was served from four until six o'clock and a constant stream of guests kept coming and going during the entire interim, all of whom voiced their thanks and appreciation to Mr. Thompson whose generous hospitality they had so much enjoyed while his loyal support of the I. O. D. E., which was such a gracious tribute to his wife's memory, was unanimously acclaimed.

The reception was held in the Rose Room at the Chateau Frontenac where a profusion of pink and white garden flowers were used to decorate the bride's table being centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a tiny arch of natural pink carnations.

Later the bride and groom left to spend their honeymoon in Montreal and its environs, the bride wearing for travelling a smart beige dress, the groom in a red overcoat, a red hat and accessories.

The out-of-town guests included Mrs. A. Dougherty, Bury; Mrs. E. M. Sargent, Worcester, Mass.; Miss Harriett MacCammon, Miss Jessie Kerr, and Miss Elizabeth Kerr, Montreal; Miss Laura MacKinnon, Miss Florence MacKinnon, Mr. Donald MacMillan, Mr. Cameron MacMillan, Inverness.

Exercise Ends Bulges That Give an Old Look

Middle Age Starts at Middle
That discouraging matronly bulge at the waist! You push it in, girdle it in, but out it pops—unless you exercise it away!

Middle age begins at the middle. Abdominal muscles may get slack as early as 25, and when they do, it means a thickening waist, drooping shoulders, a forward head and then—a "dowager's hump." You'll be looking old while still young.

So harden your abdominal muscles, be slim-waisted, erect, young! This exercise gets happy results if you do it faithfully every day.

1. Lie on back, arms at sides, knees bent, feet flat on mat.

2. Lift hips upward and pull in abdominal muscles hard, at the same time raising arms overhead.

3. Return to position. Repeat five times and rest; another five times and rest.

Or is your special problem fatty hips or heavy legs or a drooping bust?

Our 32-page booklet has exercises to remedy these five faults too. Tells how to correct poor posture, faults of shoulders, bust, arms, waistline. Gives exercises to relieve foot troubles, constipation, nervous tension, also a daily routine for the entire body.

Send 1¢ in coins for your copy of "Best Exercises For Health and Beauty" to Daily Record, Home Service, Sherbrooke, Quebec. Be sure to write plainly your name, address, and the name of booklet.

SH! MEN ARE REALLY SOFTIES WHEN IT COMES TO BEING VAIN

BY ALICIA HART

The husband who seems so tickled at the beauty things you put on your face may be, in fact, amused—or he may even be a little tempted to try them himself. He's much more interested about his appearance than you think.

Wise wives know this—and that his look will change to one of appreciation when he receives a gadget or some balm of his own, for instance, a present which really catches his eye and his interest in being as well groomed as you are.

Of course — no violet-scented pretty for a man who takes his steak rare!

He is a meticulous man who likes good things, but quiet! Then choose a brisk brazer, after shaving lotion and talc, in a leather-covered flask and container — or three stirrup-shaped bottles in a distinguished white and green box adorned by a race track scene.

Or a gift set from the groom which active and spectator sportsmen received with such warmth last Christmas that it's offered now in more sizes and designs.

There is a new travel-sized container of shaving lotion, cologne and hair dressing. Larger amounts come in sets adorned by new sporting scenes, including three-dimensional representations in full color of the ducks, fishes or horses that he fancies.

He'll Like Shaving Accessories
The older-father or any man who tends to choose sturdy, practical things will enjoy a spicy shaving soap, after-shave lotion, and talc, all done up in red-lined, wood-venered gift chests.

If he's a man of action, often travelling or even often off from the office to a dinner appointment, he will enjoy a kit containing lotion, powder and cologne. Woodgrain paper packets with snap-button fastenings hold the articles compactly, in overnight and trip-sized amounts.

GIRLS' SCHOOL CLOSING HELD AT SWEETSBURG

Many Present from Out of Town for Annual Closing Exercises of Industrial School.

Sweetsburg, June 26.—The annual closing exercises of the Girls' Industrial School were held on the front lawn under the direction of Miss Florence Findlay, day school teacher of the girls, who did their parts very acceptably.

Each province of the Dominion was represented in costume and the recitations told of the resources and advantages of each province. A great many of the pieces of poetry were composed by the girls themselves and proved both interesting and instructive.

A large number of local citizens were in attendance and out-of-town guests of the afternoon included Mrs. S. J. Small, of Dunham, Mrs. C. F. Ritchie, President of the Montreal committee, who presided over the prize-giving; Mrs. Quentin C. Bovey, Past President, Mrs. Michael Garber, Miss Kathleen Moore, Mrs. J. G. R. Shuter, Mrs. D. R. MacMaster, Miss Diana Drury, Mrs. H. G. Thornton and Mrs. Ross Hutchinson, all of Montreal.

One of the girls arranged a victory march around the green, which concluded the programme with the National Anthem, preceded by some military songs.

After the prizes had been given out, the Past President, Mrs. Bovey, addressed the girls of the school very interestingly.

One girl received a prize for being courteous in helping all the other girls with the work of the Red Cross, of which they accomplished a good lot. Mrs. Bovey presented all the prizes, while Miss Margaret Thurnham, Superintendent of the school, read the names.

Mrs. Ritchie then gave a resume of the "old girls" of the school, who are engaged at different jobs in the city. One other has joined the Air Force and was applauded by the girls here. Some others are married.

The sale of work made by the girls was held and sandwiches and tea were served at the close of a pleasant afternoon.

GARDEN TEA

A garden tea and sale of food was held on the beautiful lawn of Christ Church, under the auspices of the Parish Guild, with the President, Mrs. C. B. Jameson, in charge.

Among the out of town people in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Edwards and Mrs. Keith Edwards and party of Sherbrooke, who had been to St. Helen's School, at Dunham, also many Cowansville ladies.

Many compliments were given Mr. W. O. Shufelt, who takes charge of the flowers and supervises the entire grounds surrounding the church, which always are very attractively arranged.

The proceeds of the afternoon were satisfactory and amounted to a little over $23.

In July a tea and card party is to be held at the home of Miss Mabel MacMillan, the Parish Guild having decided to hold an event each month instead of a garden party this year.

ROCK ISLAND BRIDE-TO-BE GIVEN SHOWER

Miss Sybil Standish Guest of Honor at Enjoyable Party at Home of Mrs. Raymond Wheelock.

A very delightful pre-nuptial shower was tendered Miss Sybil Standish on June 17 at the home of Mrs. Raymond Wheelock, Rock Island, with Mrs. Byron Ellis as assisting hostess.

Miss Standish, on returning from an auto ride to Ayer's Cliff, having occasion to call at the Wheelock home on an errand, was exceedingly surprised to find about thirty of her friends assembled to greet her.

On being led to the seat of honor, which was tastefully decorated in orchid and yellow with a "V" of orchid and yellow crepe paper extending from the ceiling to the opposite wall, a gaily decorated cart in the same colors, drawn by Owen Wheelock, and laden with many handsome and useful gifts was placed in front of her.

Miss Standish opened and admired the gifts, passing them around for the guests to see, and expressed her sincere thanks for the lovely gifts and the kind thought which prompted them.

A very interesting game was then played, the guest of honor winning the first prize and Mrs. H. A. Carson the second.

60th Anniversary Of Scotstown Church To Be Observed Sunday

Scotstown, June 26.—Special services, a supper and concert will mark the sixtieth anniversary of the first service to be held in St. Andrew's United Church.

Although the anniversary marks sixty years of existence of the church building, the congregation was formed some years before. In the summer of 1873 a number of Scottish immigrants settled in Scotstown and vicinity on lands belonging to the Glasgow and Canadian Land and Trust Company.

These settlers were served for a few years by ministers from neighboring localities. In the fall of 1870 the claims of the community were laid before the Quebec Presbytery of the to the service of God, may be as a light set upon a hill, and that it may hereafter be said of it, "This one and that one was born there."

The main body of the church is practically the same in appearance as when it was built. The most striking change was made by the addition of a church hall in 1940. At that time members of the former Christian Adventist congregation donated their church building, which had stood unused for a number of years; this was remodelled and enlarged to form the present hall. Other recent additions include the installation of a Hammond electric organ; also an oak Communion table and pulpit lamp given in memory of the late John MacLennan, an elder of St. Andrew's United Church at Scotstown, which is observing its 60th anniversary on Sunday.

Presbyterian Church and Scotstown along with Hampden was formed into a pastoral charge.

John MacKenzie, a student of the Montreal Presbyterian College, was the first regular laborer in the field.

In the autumn of 1876 the union between Scotstown and Hampden was by mutual consent dissolved. St. Andrew's Church in the same year formed its first Session. The members were: Aeneas McMaster, Antoine Boy, William Coleman and Alexander Gilray. The congregation called its first ordained minister Rev. John Macdonald, of Winslow, Que., who was inducted on March 1st, 1877. A son and daughter of the first minister still reside in the community, namely, John Macdonald, who is at present an elder in the church, and Mrs. Robert Scott.

Ministers called to the church since its formation have been: Rev. John Macdonald, 1877-1885; Rev. D. F. Dewar, 1885-1890; Rev. Thomas Mair, 1892-1894; Rev. Alexander King, 1896-1898; Rev. E. G. Walker, 1899-1900; Rev. John MacKenzie, 1900-1905; Rev. W. T. MacKenzie, 1908-1911; Rev. J. R. MacLeod, 1911-1921; Rev. J. W. MacLean, 1922-1929; Rev. D. Robertson, 1929-1932; Rev. G. Watt Smith, 1932-1934; Rev. H. E. Parsons, 1935-1937; Rev. C. J. Gustafson, 1937.

The church building was first opened for worship with a Communion service on February 12th, 1882. A note inscribed in the session records following the service states, "The Session further hopes and prays that this new temple, dedicated the church.

Following the Scottish custom of having preparatory services for Communion worship services are being held this week. Rev. C. Belbin, of Birchton, preached last night. Rev. A. E. Hagar, of Sawyerville, will preach this evening, and Rev. C. J. Gustafson will preach tomorrow evening.

On Sunday the pastor will administer the Sacrament at the morning service, and in the evening will preach the anniversary sermon, "Sixty Years of Service." A feature of this service will be the dedication of the Honor Roll of those serving in the armed forces. The following names are inscribed on the roll: Kathleen Scott, R.N., Willy Fredericksen, Torry Helgesen, Walter MacKenzie, Colin Henderson, Walter Henderson, James Henderson, Andrew Henderson, Lorne Macdonald, Harold Stratton, Rodrick MacAulay, John MacAulay, Grant MacLennan, Leslie Scott, Dr. Alan Scott, William Taylor, Leonard MacVey, Harold Pinkham, Alton Waldron, and Benjamin Waldron.

The celebration will be concluded with a supper served by the Women's Association on Monday evening in the hall, and a musical program arranged by A. A. MacKenzie, Mrs. J. B. Scott, Mrs. P. A. Sherman and John Cox.

Rev. Sidney Woolfrey, B.A., S.T.M., of Richmond, will be the guest speaker.

You'll never be satisfied with anything else
once you see RINSO WHITENESS

WHEN you see clothes which have been washed with Rinso you quickly appreciate the difference: Rinso not only washes whiter, it gives the whitest wash! In fact you'll say the only real standard of whiteness is Rinso whiteness.

Colors wash best in Rinso, too. Week after week you'll see that they come up bright and fresh as daisies. Rinso actually helps all the clothes to wear longer. Its rich suds float away dirt, make it unnecessary to rub or scrub.

Whatever your previous washing experience has been you have only to use Rinso once and you will never again be satisfied with anything else for your wash.

Order some Rinso for this coming washday. Get the GIANT package at your store for extra economy.

RINSO CERTAINLY MAKES CLOTHES LAST LONGER AND KEEPS COLORS BRIGHT TOO!

YOUR FEEDING ADVISOR

By LARRY MERRIGAN

Last week I had the pleasure of attending the national feeding advisory council, that has as its aim, the training of young men to service the farmers. Now this might seem out of place to some but it simply means that your feed dealer will have to have in the future a man to service you, the farmer, and help you in the various things that are today forgotten about. For instance, how many farmers know how much feeding space their need for 100 chicks. Very few farmers know this. But the advisors are trained to know. They can tell you at a glance what is wrong with the barn or other things on the farm. They know what to recommend for the different diseases. In other words they are the young men who are willing to help you if you will help them. The cost is nothing. Where would you be today if, when something went wrong with your car, the man you bought the car from said: "The salesman will be passing this way in a month. I'll ask him to look at it." You would be pretty well fed up with the dealer and the car. Ten chances to one you would never buy another car. It's the same in feed. If you are not told how to use the feed, and what not to do in different cases, how can you get results? If you don't keep the necessary records to show where the faults lie, you can't expect anyone to help. Now when I make up this column, I don't make it up because I love to see my name in the paper. No, it takes me nearly a day to get all the material tied together, so that I may pass on to you, the farmer, facts. I don't lie. I don't exaggerate. If you get something out of this column, I'm well paid for it. My pay is not in money but in pleasure, knowing that if it does some good, I'm doing good for my country.

Today we have on one side evil, and on the other side good. The good must triumph over the evil. To help the good win we as the people have to adhere to certain restrictions, which are placed on us not to make us feel the hand of war, but to help the good and freedom-loving peoples the world over. Supplies are needed, and we as the people are bound in the interest of the good to get these supplies to them. The farmers have the job of producing the food. This is the most important item on the supply list. Some might say we need guns and tanks, etc. To this I say yes. But consider this: How are the guns and tanks made? Who uses these articles? First of all, the workers are not properly fed, how are they to produce the articles? When they are made how can a soldier fight on an empty stomach? Feed and more feed must be produced, and in the least time possible. Many of us are unfortunate enough to be rejected from war duty. I have seen men lie about their age to get in the army. If they are willing to help this much surely we can produce the necessary supply for them. The soldier gets $13.30 a day for his life. He is fighting because he believes that it is the best thing he can do to save his country, the hardships that have to be endured on other countries. In other words he is fighting for you. Are you helping him the proper and just way? Think about this and think hard.

Two weeks ago I attended a poultry meeting in Island Brook. The people who attended the meeting saw something that they never had hoped to see. They saw how easy it is to be a good friend of that mad dog Adolf Hitler. I hope that they will do everything they can to produce for their own men rather than help that devil. Yet all over the country we see the farmers helping that dog unconsciously. It's a crime against your own children that will cost your country. It's a crime against yourselves. Your home, property, stock, money and family rely on you. Don't do anything that will help Hitler or you won't have any of these things. What you do for the stock on the farm is your job. Do it well, and feel that in your own heart that you are one of the fighting men who will do right no matter what the cost.

I said that farmers are unconscious tools of Hitler I meant that. Here is how they become the tools: They allow diseases to come into the barns. They allow the disease to spread to the stock. When they know something is wrong they do nothing to prevent it. Disease is the enemy agent in our country. Most farms have bugs, lice, worms, milk diseases, etc. Most farmers don't see the lice, bugs, worms, etc., because they are used to seeing their barn every day, and seeing it so, they cannot spot the causes. A feeding advisor can do this for you. He doesn't see the barn every day. He knows at a glance what is wrong. When he tells you, don't get mad. Look at it and try to correct it. Many of you will have a good farmer friend with the best intentions, who will tell you of a sure cure for this or that. He means well and wants to help, but sometimes he misses. In fact one time it will work, and then nine times it won't. Doctors are trained to help you when you are sick. We have doctors for cattle, too. Don't wait until your animals die before calling one in.

Most farmers are good, law-abiding people. They go to church on Sunday, or listen to the services over the radio. They are kind people and are willing to help their neighbor. They visit the sick, and help bury the dead. The good wives knit for the Red Cross. I know all this for I see the farmers. They are the people. War has changed some of us, and on the farm a seat at the table is empty. One of our boys is on the firing line or in training. Please help this boy, Mr. and Mrs. Farmer. He needs food and plenty of it. Your countrymen and women need food too. Produce to the very best of your ability, and then when you have done that, look around and see if there is something that can be improved. Today you have the chance to make a little money, and at the same time do good for your country. Watch the stock for disease. Watch it closely. If I can help you as I have helped others, call me. I'll come. Look around the barn and say this: Have I got some stuff here that will kill disease should it come? Have I got a disinfectant all the time to wash the floors and walls with? Have I got the proper fly spray to kill flies so that they won't bother the cows? Ask yourself a lot of questions. They will blossom forth into ideas to make you a bigger and better producer for the good of all.

If you have a disease that seems to crop up every once in a while let me know what it is, and I will get you everything on this disease, the causes and cures. It won't cost you anything, it's free. If you will watch your stock your country will be grateful. If you don't, Hitler will. I know you are having trouble getting help but so are the soldiers in battle. Let's all say once a day thank God I am a Canadian who will produce. And when rumors fly around don't repeat them. I heard a very good talk one night by Mr. Lesh, the director of information. Ending his talk he said we should all say our prayers at night, and end them with these words, "God bless all our family, and help me keep my big mouth shut." Produce with the help of God. Don't produce and you help Hitler.

Weekly Letter to Farmers

PAUL GERVAIS, Assistant to Superintendent, Dominion Experimental Station, Lennoxville, Que.

The month of May is generally considered in the town, as well as in the country, as the proper time for a campaign of cleaning up and improvement. Nature is awakening. Everything returns to life and everyone should do his part towards beautifying his home and surroundings. A well-kept lawn, a proper distribution of trees and ornamental shrubs, flower beds placed here and there improve very much the appearance of the house. A well-cleaned yard, buildings in good repair and whitewashed, etc., are some of the points which give a tidy and well-kept appearance.

It often happens that such work cannot be done in the month of May, because of seeding operations. There is, however, a time between seeding and haying that may be used for cleaning up the surroundings and whitewashing the buildings.

In order to obtain good results, it is necessary to use a well-prepared whitewash mixture. The Dominion Experimental Farm Service recommends two formulae which were developed by the Experimental Station at Scott, Sask. The first is for the preparation of a whitewash that is rain proof, to be applied to the outside of buildings. Slake sixty-two pounds of quick lime in twelve gallons of hot water and then add two pounds of salt and one pound sulphur of zinc which had been previously dissolved in two gallons of water. Two gallons of skim-milk are also added to this mixture. The addition of one ounce of alum improves the whitewash, but is not necessary. The salt should be left out of the mixture for whitening pieces of metal, to prevent rusting. The formula suggested to make a whitewash disinfectant is as follows: Dissolve fifty pounds of lime in eight gallons of boiling water; then add six gallons of hot water, in which has been dissolved ten pounds of salt and one pound of alum. Add also one box of lye to twenty-five gallons of the mixture and one pound of cement to three gallons of the mixture. The cement is only added gradually with vigorous stirring. The alum prevents the lime from rubbing off, the cement makes a creamy mixture easy to apply and the lye acts as the disinfectant. A coal tar disinfectant may be used to replace the lye at one quart to eight gallons of the mixture. The lye, however, leaves the whitewash whiter.

Let us improve and beautify our farms, not only to amaze the traveler who crosses the country, but above all to make them attractive for those who live there.

MAIL YOUR APPLICATION CARD FOR COUPON RATIONING AT ONCE!

After July 1st no one will be able to purchase sugar for regular domestic use without turning in a ration coupon.

Application cards for coupon rationing for sugar have now been mailed to every household in Canada. In cities where there is a letter carrier service, these cards should have been picked up yesterday by a volunteer representative of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. But, in an undertaking so vast, some homes may have been missed, or some cards may have gone astray. So, no matter where you live, whether it is in areas served by letter carrier or not, if your application card is not already on its way to Rationing Headquarters, you should wait no longer.

After filling in the card, according to the instructions on the pamphlet which was delivered with it, just drop the card in the nearest mail box or post office. It needs no forwarding address.

IF YOU HAVE NOT RECEIVED AN APPLICATION CARD you should get one at the nearest Post Office at once.

The ration cards being issued for use July 1st are for sugar only, and good for 10 weeks. At the end of that period a coupon ration book good for 6 months will be issued. Under the new system of coupon rationing, you are allowed the same amount of sugar as at present— $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. per person per week. The same provision as at present for additional quantities for preserving and jam and jelly making will be continued. Special voucher forms for this purpose are being supplied all retailers.

SEVEN DODGERS NAMED TO ALL-STAR SQUAD

Strong National Loop Cast For July 6 Game

Manager Leo Durocher to Have Use of All His Own Regulars Except First Baseman Dolph Camilli and Outfielder Dixie Walker—Next Most Numerous Among Selections Are Cards, with Five Men.

New York, June 26.—(P)—The National League announced a strong All-Star squad today with seven of the Brooklyn Dodgers in the cast that will face the American League's best at the Polo Grounds July 6.

The selections of the eight Managers of the senior circuit included some surprises—such as the choice of Catcher Walker Cooper, of the St. Louis Cardinals, and Rookie Outfielder Marshall, of the New York Giants while passing up infielders Stan Hack, of the Chicago Cubs, and Billy Jurges, of the Giants—but the strength of the squad could not be questioned.

Manager Leo Durocher, of the Dodgers, who will lead this year's National League array by virtue of winning last year's pennant, will have all of his own regulars in the fold except First Baseman Dolph Camilli and Outfielder Dixie Walker. Camilli, last year's most valuable player and leading home-run slugger, has been far below par in batting this season although still among the home-run leaders. The first basemen chosen were big John Mize, of the Giants, and Frank McCormick, of the Cincinnati Reds.

Durocher could start Whitlow Wyatt on the mound, Mickey Owen catching, Billy Herman at short, Peeewe Reese at short, Arky Vaughan on third and Joe Medwick and Pete Reiser in the outfield—all Dodgers.

Next most numerous among the selections were the Cardinals with five men, headed by the brothers Cooper—Pitcher Morton and Catcher Walker—plus Infielder Jimmy Brown and Outfielders Terry Moore and Euse Slaughter.

The mound staff will be dominated by Cincinnati with Paul Derringer, Buckey Walters and Johnny Vander Meer all named. Completing the corps of seven pitchers are Claude Passeau, Chicago Cubs, and Lefty Cliff Melton, of the New York Giants. Manager Mel Ott, of the Giants also was named, giving New York four places on the squad.

Boston Braves will be represented by Catcher Ernie Lombardi and Shortstop Eddie Miller; Pittsburgh with Third Baseman Bob Elliott, and Philadelphia with Outfielder Danny Litwhiler.

SOLDIERS DROP 5TH STRAIGHT BASEBALL GAME

Windsor Mills, Playing at Home, Defeats Training Centre 9-7 in Intermediate League Encounter.

Windsor Mills, June 26.—The local entry in the Sherbrooke District Intermediate "A" Baseball League scored its second victory of the season here last evening, registering a 9-7 win at the expense of the soldiers from the Lord Sherbrooke Training Centre, who have yet to gain a decision in five starts.

For four innings the soldiers were right on the ball, getting away to a two-run start in the opening frame and holding Windsor to two runs in the last of the third. The roof fell down in the last of the fifth, however, when the Paper Makers chalked up no less than five markers to go in front 7-2.

The soldiers' not a run in the first of the sixth, but the homers added two more in the last of the frame. A desperate rally in the seventh saw the Training Centre crew push over four runs before Harry Trotter's boys could stop the drive.

Actually the soldiers cuthit Windsor Mills 10-6, but committed eight errors which proved disastrous to their cause. Couture, who pitched and played second base for the soldiers, collected three hits in four trips, with Roux, au and Suprenant getting two each, while Letarte led the homers with a single and double.

ROYALS' FANS TRAIN SIGHTS ON TOP PLACE

Montreal Have Good Number of Home Games Coming up, with Jersey City and Newark on Road.

Montreal, June 26.—Followers of the Royals figure they have a great chance of reaching first place during the next two or three weeks. Despite the fact Jack Graham will be out of the lineup several days more, Clyde Sukeforth's club will play a majority of their games at home during the next couple of weeks, while Jersey-City and Newark, the other two teams battling for top rung, will play most of their games on the road.

The Rochester Red Wings, led by their new manager, Ray Hayworth, provide the opposition for the Royals at the Stadium Sunday, in a double-header. The Red Wings and Royals then play night games Monday and Tuesday, and an afternoon double-header on Wednesday, July 1, Dominion Day.

Hayworth is Rochester's third manager of the season. He is the veteran catcher who spent most of his career in the American League with the Detroit Tigers. Besides Hayworth, Jean Pierre Roy, French-Canadian pitcher of rare promise, is back with the Red Wings, and is likely to start one of the games of the series. Roy started the season with Mobile, compiled a fine record, and earned his promotion to Rochester.

Jimmy Ripple and Frank Pearce, ex-Royals, are with the Wings, as is Ira Hutchinson, a Montreal player, of 1940, who is likely to receive an all-star assignment in the game to be played at Buffalo July 8. Other favorites with the Wings include Bill Lullane, Erwin Duvak, George Fallon, Harry Davis, Max Surkont and Clem Dreisewerd.

Interest in the North-South all star game to be played July 8 is growing. Indications are that more than half the personnel of the National League club may be from the Royals. Burger, Tatum, Dapper, Rowell and Knuts are all receiving consideration of the sports writers and radio broadcasters, while it is a foregone conclusion that Gene Moore, Stan Rojek, Jack Graham and Max Macon will be named.

Clyde Sukeforth, as manager of the team highest in standing among the Northern clubs, will pilot the Northern club. Bill Mayer, Manager of the Newark Bears, will direct the Southern aggregation.

may give a clue as to what can happen to baseball in the United States.

The 88 football or soccer clubs which played in three divisions before the war are now reduced by 25 per cent. They played two matches each in the annual race to enter the cup championships, England's world series.

From middle August to May, professionals averaged $40 per week, with expenses, but when star players were sold, club owners averaged $48,000 per transaction.

Arsenal Club, England's New York Yankees, played to 70,000 on Saturdays.

Most of the 2,540 professional football players are in the armed forces. Club owners depend on commanding officers to grant stars leave in order to play important matches.

American promoters, notably those in the figa game, face the same situation.

British have met the personnel crisis by loaning players to each other and agreeing not to sell any player's contract until the war is concluded.

With expenses low, owners are making a profit. The Arsenal Club makes money on a crowd of 6,000.

Where are the British athletic stars today?

Stanley Wooderson, world record-holder in the mile with a 4:04 stint, holds an army clerical job in the pay corps. He was recently defeated in the mile by a high school boy in 4:25.

Henry Cotton, golf internationalist, plays an occasional exhibition match for war funds.

Tommy Farr, ruled medically unfit for the R.A.F., runs a Brighton Beach pub.

Jack Doyle, the horizontal ringster, does a variety act.

Kay Stammers is married to an officer in the Welsh Guards. She plays an occasional tennis match for the Red Cross.

British sports found a constructive place in the war effort.

London, Eng., June 26.—British sports, particularly the professional variety, carry on at a merry clip following three years of war.

Greyhound and horse racing, English football and boxing show the way.

Hardest hit have been golf, cricket and tennis.

More than 100,000 pack the six greyhound courses of London each Saturday.

At Tottenham Hotspur Fight Grounds, 30,000 watched Sgt. Freddie Mills win the British lightweight championship with a right cross that sent the ancient Pilot Officer Len Harvey looping into the press row.

Sergeant Mills is a rare article in that he is a sizeable Englishman with a wallop.

At Newmarket, Salisbury, Stockton and Pontefract, horse racing carries on and will continue for the duration of the war in order to keep Britain's fine and extensive thoroughbred blood stock industry alive.

War, of course, has tightened the belt of British sports.

Competitive golf is a peace-time memory.

Semi-professional cricket is no more.

At Wimbledon Stadium pigs and chickens munch grass along side courts where the world's greatest battlers for international tennis championships.

Horse Races More Interesting Than Budget To One Member

Toronto, June 26.—(P)—There's at least one Parliamentarian who takes his horse racing pretty seriously, as indicated by something that happened the other night in our capital. It was the night that Finance Minister Isley brought down his budget, to be exact. But let Bill (Ottawa Journal) Westwick tell it.

Says Westwick: "Budget highlight for this department was a phone call last night from a gent who said he was at the House of Commons and was speaking for a Member of Parliament. The call was around the time Mr. Isley was reading what in sport parlance might be termed the 'riot act'."

The information requested was the winner of the fourth at Dufferin and the eighth at Aqueduct. Judging from the grunt at the other end of the line when the information was given both horses lost.

Vancouver's Ken Lindsay plans to enlist in the Navy this summer. The Const. better, who'll be 21 in August and who would likely get his Army call sometime in September, figures on returning to Vancouver after the war. Lindsay socked away enough of the old do-re-mi to buy himself a waterfront summer home at Deep Cove, near Vancouver.

The expert says:

Walter (Hamilton Spectator) McMullen: "Race followers who are air minded will have an opportunity to play a hunch at the coming meeting of the Hamilton Jockey Club, for two of the best horses quartered here are Air Sure, belonging to Major Connie Smythe, and Air Current, the property of the Madison Stable. Neither has been seen in action on the Canadian circuit this season."

Incidentally:

The rasslers go big for hearts as a card game to pass away their idle hours. Rassling Promoter Eddie Quinn in Montreal is one of the better hearts players. His office nook in the Montreal Forum is crowded with hearts players many a day.

And speaking of the mat squirmers, the Const. better, who'll be 21 in August and who would likely get his Army call sometime in September, figures on returning to Vancouver after the war. Lindsay socked

LEAFS DEFEAT RED WINGS 5-4 IN 10 INNINGS

Ed Fernandez' Tenth-Inning Triple Gives Toronto Decision—Bears Gain as Royals Loaf.

George Staller of Baltimore Orioles is staging a successful comeback after most observers had believed his short but brilliant career was at an end when he suffered a broken leg in September, 1940.

He was voted the International League's outstanding rookie while performing for Montreal Royals in 1940. Brooklyn Dodgers brought Staller up for a trial but his leg injury prevented him from giving a good account of himself and he was sent back to the Royals.

Baltimore acquired Staller and a few other players for Catcher Dixie Howell and has not regretted the transaction. His batting average is not impressive but he has a dozen home runs to his credit with many of them coming at important moments such as his 12th last night.

Bobby Coombs of Jersey City Giants had a 1-0 lead going into the ninth when, with two out, Staller hit a home run to tie the score. A moment later Sherry Robertson won the ball game for Baltimore, 2-1 with another four-master.

The Toronto Maple Leafs defeated the Rochester Red Wings, 5-4, in ten innings. The Wings had a 4-2 lead, when with two out in the ninth inning, Eddie Leip hit his first to send the game into extra innings. Jim Russell opened the 10th for Toronto by walking, Frank Colman forced Russell but Ed Fernandez blasted a triple to score Coleman with the winning run. Jimmy Ripple put the Little Cardinals in front with a circuit smash in the sixth.

Dick Conger, who pitched the 10th for Toronto, was the winning pitcher.

The league-leading Newark Bears noted out Syracuse Chiefs 4-3 in the only other game played. Tommy Byrne was wild, walking seven and hitting one batter, but he allowed only five hits in turning in his ninth conquest of the season for the Bears.

The Bears won the game in the ninth when with the bases loaded, Gene Corbett belted a long fly which scored Byrne from third who began the frame with a single.

Big Bill Lee also pitched five-hit

Mort Cooper Achieves 10th Win, 6th Shutout

Cardinals' Big Righthander Blanks Boston Braves 4-0 with Stunning Two-Hit Performance in Army-Navy Relief Game—Dodgers Bash Reds by Same Score—Jim Bloodworth's Two-Run Homer Helps Detroit Down Red Sox 7-3.

The success story of the year in baseball concerns Morton Cecil Cooper of St. Louis Cardinals who is most likely to be the National League's starting pitcher in the all-star game in New York July 6.

Cooper won his 10th victory and sixth shutout yesterday 4-0 with a stunning two-hit performance against Boston Braves in an Army-Navy Relief game that raised more than $28,500 from 25,000 fans at Boston.

It was only the third victory in the last nine games for St. Louis and Cooper won all three with shutouts—stretching a skein of 32 consecutive scoreless innings.

One of the most remarkable aspects of the big righthander's success is that in four previous seasons in the National League he obtained just five shutouts and did not administer a single whitewashing last year when he won thirteen games and lost nine.

Apparently the arm operation he had early last season changed him from a good pitcher to a great one. He had several bone chips removed from his right elbow and most pitchers who have had similar operations have taken a year or more to regain their old form, but Cooper was out of action only about a month.

Yesterday he retired the first 16 batters in order and afterward permitted just two singles and one walk. His team-mates gave him one more in the first inning and three more in the third—three hits and three walks.

Brooklyn Dodgers bashed Cincinnati Reds 4-0 in a twilight game by rallying for five successive hits after two were out in the third inning. Peg Wee Reese, Lew Riggs, Pete Reiser and Joe Medwick hit singles for two runs, with Medwick's blow extending his hitting streak to 27 games. Then Dolph Camilli doubled two more tallies across and routed 36-year-old Ray Starr, who had won ten games and lost only two previously.

Gene Thompson pitched one-hit ball in relief, but the Reds could make only five hits off the veteran Johnny Allen.

Big Bill Lee also pitched five-hit

In the American League Chicago White Sox shut out Washington Senators for the second straight game 2-0 in a spectacular hurling duel between Lee (Buck) Ross and Sid Hudson. The Washington righthander allowed just five hits, one less than his team-mates made off Ross, but Chicago wasted only one hit.

Ross himself doubled with two out in the third and scored on a single by Wally Moses and two singles and a fly added the other marker in the fourth.

Lefty Al Smith of Cleveland Indians achieved his fourth straight triumph with a five-hit pitching job that stopped Philadelphia Athletics 4-1. The Tribe made good use of seven hits off Roger Wolff, one a homer by Oris Hockett.

Detroit downed Boston Red Sox 7-3 with a six-run rally in the eighth inning sparked by Jim Bloodworth's two-run homer.
