

Swim pool construction will begin immediately; tender finally accepted

Within a few weeks residents of Westmount will be splashing and diving to their heart's content in their new civic swimming pool.

Work is to be started immediately on the $150,000 municipal project which was temporarily held up largely due to a misunderstanding, and the interested construction firms were requested to re-tender.

2 reasons explain delay

Reasons for the delay in starting construction on the new civic pool was not explained by city officials, although one of the main ones was the approval of the project by the Provincial Health Department following the acceptance of plans and granting of the tender.

Another delay was caused through misunderstandings in submitting tenders.

Interested construction firms were requested to re-tender.

The tender accepted was for $63,760 with a five-week completion schedule. The other tender was for $63,980 with a four-week completion schedule.

The "misunderstandings" were not revealed by city officials.

The tenders were opened last Tuesday and the one accepted was given to the firm of Canada Gunito Co. Ltd., for the amount of $63,760 on the understanding that work will be completed within a period of five weeks.

The price, however, does not include the cost of the bath houses to be erected. The location of the pool which will be olympic proportions will be located on Western avenue between Academy road and Lansdowne avenue.

TEMPORARY FACILITIES AVAILABLE

Alderman M. L. Tucker, chairman of the Pool Committee stated that facilities for patrons will be provided in the skating rink premises adjacent to the pool until permanent bath houses and storage facilities are completed.

The new pool will measure 72 feet long by 42 feet wide with sloping base providing varying depths for non-swimmers and divers. It will be equipped with three diving boards and a water heating system allowing an extension of the swimming season.

Architect of the project is Grantan D. Thompson.

CAMMAC to sponsor second competition

CAMMAC (Canadian Amateur Musicians) is sponsoring a second competition intended to broaden the repertory of contemporary music for amateur musical groups.

Submission is invited of compositions for recorder ensemble or mixed choir, not to exceed five minutes' duration.

Candidates are requested to keep in mind the purpose of the contest, and to submit works capable of performance by musicians of moderate skills, or even by beginners.

Entries should be sent, together with $1 for each work, before December 31, 1962, to CAMMAC Contest, Fraser-Hickson Institute, 4855 Kensington avenue, N.D.G.

Tag day prizes presented

Easter Seal Tag day prizes were awarded to pupils of St. Paul's Girls' Academy and St. Leo's Boys School for their high collections during the 1962 Easter Seal Campaign Tag Day.

Among those who were presented with prizes by Margaret Archambault, Quebec Easter Seal Society secretary and Sister St. Hugh Maureen, were Beverly Jones, Clare

McManus, Margaret Thompson, Veronica Phelan Janet Carey, Mary McCaffrey and Katy Pogatsas.

Miss Pogatsas won first prize for the highest individual amount collected in Greater Montreal.

Among the boys of St. Leo's School awarded prizes by Easter Seal secretary Miss Archambault were: Tim Mollyneux, Remi Morin, Pierre Pare, John Selye, Patrick McMullon, David Byron and Michele Selye.

The prizes were in the form of gift certificates.

Both St. Paul's and St. Leo's are well-known for their high academic standards and participation by students in worthy public endeavors.

Several of their students have won Rotary scholarships from the Rotary Club of Westmount.

'Sidewalk engineers' busy at Sherbrooke and Clarke

"Sidewalk engineers" are getting an eyeful as they pause and watch the progress of construction going on at the southeast corner of Sherbrooke and Clarke avenue.

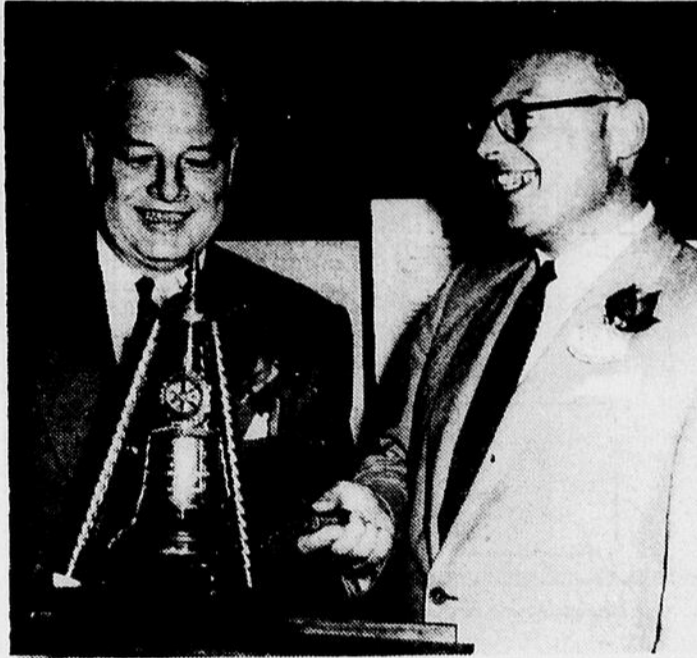

For the past two weeks huge excavating and pile driving machines have been at work on the foundations of a new apartment house now being erected on the site.

The foundation has now been completed and the cement pouring and upper structure will soon rise. The location has been fenced off giving the "engineers" an opportunity of looking on in safety.

The meeting was held without benefit of a guest speaker, for it was the swansong of Mr. Burrows on relinquishing the post of president and he reviewed the work of the year done by Westmount Rotarians while he was in command.

Mr. Burrows in his review congratulated the membership on the co-operation they had given him in the various projects undertaken, stating that it would be unfair to mention one name more than another.

He reviewed the work done on Ladies Night, Family Day, golf at Shawbridge and other feature events of the year — also alluding to the wonderful work done by the various committees, such as the Program, Golden Age, Scholarship, Safety, Membership, Classification, House Committee, etc. He compli-

Jack Hutton's teens

Don't downgrade the bicycle

I have just bought a machine dreamed up more than 100 years ago by a Scottish blacksmith — and I think I now know why teenagers find the twist so easy. The machine, which cost all of $6, is a bicycle.

For more than a week I've been spending at least 30 minutes a day on my creaking, smaller-than-ordinary-size "mechanic's delight", waving at teenage friends who pass me.

I'd like to report that I've discovered muscles in my calves and the small of my back that I haven't used since I was 15. A blister formed on the inside of my right thumb and sitting down hasn't been easy.

But by gosh I feel good.

As a 29-year-old reporter who decided at 17 that bicycle riding was part of a childhood past, I wonder what took me so long to get back to it? Why in the world are more teenagers driving to school when they could get this exercise?

Bicycle manufacturers in Canada report a rather strange trend: more teenagers — particularly in the cities — use Dad's car to go even one block, while more adults find cycling a good way to stay healthy.

This doesn't apply, of course, to all teenagers. Thousands of young Canadians have already planned bicycle tours this summer through Europe or Canada under the auspices of the Canadian Youth Hostels Association.

They are the ones who have learned that it is possible to explore fascinating parts of this country — the Rockies, the Maritimes, Quebec — with a group of friends, spending less than one-third of what a trip usually costs.

Teen status symbol

We might assume that the perennial bicycle, part of everyone's youth, has been with us always. But the truth is that this teen status symbol dates back no earlier than 1790 when a Frenchman, Chevalier de Sivrac, developed a wooden beam with a wheel under each end.

The driver sat on a cushion and propelled the machine by alternately peddling his feet on the ground to right and left. The machine, by the way, had the head and horns of a ferocious beast on the front.

A Scottish blacksmith, Kirkpatrick Macmillan, is credited with building the first real bicycle in 1839. His pedal bicycle was made of wood, the driving mechanism of which consisted of short cranks fixed to the rear hub and connected by rods to long levers hinged to the frame close to the head.

We are celebrating this year the 100th anniversary of the first bicycle which had cranks and pedals attached to the front wheel. The front wheel was larger than the rear one, and because both were made of iron it was known around Paris as the "bone-shaker."

Everyone apparently wanted to get into the act after that because 7,000 patents to improve the bicycle were applied for in England alone in 1896. The most important developments, however, were the

Some new and interesting stereo recordings on the London label, all featuring the well-known L'Orchestre de la Suisse Romande under the distinguished conductor Ernest Ansermet.

On CS 6224 there's some Spanish castanet-clicking atmosphere in Manuel de Falla's rhythmic the Three-Cornered Hat ballet music, set to the familiar story of the miller and his wife, and the amorous Corregidor. This is very listenable music, reaching exciting and melodic climaxes in Falla's darkly staccato style.

An interesting encore is the interlude and dance to La Vida Breve by the same composer, with its familiar terrifically-paced finale. Appropriately enough, Mr. Ansermet conducted the world premiere of the 'Hat' at London's Alhambra Theatre in 1919.

Some extremely lush Ravel on CS 6210 calling for the rich softness of the strings and refined performance for which this orchestra is noted. First we hear the richly orchestrated ballet music to Daphnis et Chloe (Suite No. 2), and the Spanish-accented Alborado Del Gracioso abounding in castanets, guitars, and spirited tempi.

Next, four movements from

Goltman recital

Talented pupils perform

The annual recital is the finale of the music teaching season. Very few concerts are presented with the professional polish displayed on Tuesday evening in Victoria Hall. The pupils of the well-known teacher, Frances Goltman displayed much talent, excellent training and style in a program that was heartily applauded after each number.

An abundance of budding talent could be heard even in the beginner class which included: Kenny Berger, Susan Granofsky, Derek Rogers, Carol Wakaluk, Charles Abelson, Anne Goldie, Brian Black, Rhonda Gorelik and Bronie Abelson.

Susan de Stein played a Tarantella with splendid speed, and a Mozart Rondo was well done by Claire Lowry. Lonny Yankowsky was heard in Scouts March, Ann Goldenberg played well in Petite Waltz by Littoff, and Mary Kelsey made an Indian Pow-Wow by Kennedy sound like Indians. A Country Dance was played in good time by Gloria Bromberg.

Two clever sisters, Belle Levine and Fay Levine, won the audience in their respective solos as well as a catchy duet, Flying Doves by Heins. Both were recalled for encores, Bella for The Waterfall by Capp and McLaghlan's Russian Dance and Fay Levine for her musical performance of an attractive Rhapsodie by Eckstein.

Susan Gillick showed good fingerwork in Heller's L'Avallance, Lynne Moodie fine timing and tone in a Waltz by London. A duet March by Engelman earned an extra bow for Cheryl Rockman and Gillian Coupland who were both well received in their solos. Cheryl in a Shadow March by Cramm, added an encore and much applause was accorded Gilliam for Gypsy Camp Fires.

Amina and Berg Balantzyan, two musical young pianists played their solos and a duet, Black Hawk Waltz in perfect rhythm. A clementi Sonatina

'Painting picnics' scheduled

A series of painting picnics for the summer weeks is planned for artists who wish to "pick up a palette and brushes and go" for the day. Early tomorrow a chartered bus will convey the first group of this season from the corner of Melville avenue and Academy road to Lake Cayford. Other trips will take in nearby Laurentians, Eastern Townships, Elizabethtown Art Center, and other picturesque places during July, August and September. For information please phone Artist Bea Alan at HU. 1-7019.

The opening performance of "A Thurber Carnival" took place at La Poudrière, St. Helen's Island, yesterday, with Actors Walter Massey and Scott Savage playing lead parts... Dr. Robins, Metcalfe avenue, celebrated his 90th birthday recently. Last year he was the oldest doctor at a medical conference held in Montreal.

Resident in the area around

Park Place and St. Catherine are occasionally treated to bits of Italian operatic arias sung lustily by one of the excavation crew members... Emilville Art Center, the summer art school where artists may spend their holidays, or weekends, reports a successful opening and enrollment for courses. Congratulations to Principal Georges Severe Masse on his recent wedding... West End artists whose work is on view for the summer weeks at Dominion Square are: Bea Alan, Betty Galbraith Cornell, Dorothy MacLarren, Sara Dickinson, Lois Ditchburn, Freda Pemberton Smith, Kurt Maurer, Edith Jackson Smith, Salme Utsal. Pictures were chosen from about 700 entries delivered to the N.D.G. Community Hall at Decarie and Cote St. Antoine, where Artist Romeo Vincellietto received them on behalf of the City of Montreal Parks and Playgrounds Department which sponsors the show every year.

"The addiction to the nicotine in smoking is similar to addiction to opium," declared Dr. John Lockheed, Sherbrooke street west physician, on a television panel dealing with the effects of smoking.

"Both are dangerous to humans..."

"Up to now tobacco has neither been classified as food nor drugs, and in this way the issue has been ignored. The connection between cigarettes and cancer is no longer a conjecture. It is a fact that in autopsies made on more than 200 people recently in the United States in an effort to determine the harm done by smoking—there were definite signs of lung cancer in various stages found in most of those who smoked cigarettes that were not present at all in non-smokers."

So claims the good doctor.

Permit wanted for new school

Application has been made to the City of Westmount to obtain a permit to establish a private school for girls in the residential zone at 525 Mount Pleasant avenue by Miss Edgar's and Miss Cramp's School, Inc., 1761 Cedar avenue.

The application was signed by Mrs. John Corbett, president.

WE SAY YOU SAY

Stay alive this summer

SUMMER is here. This is a time when we are all supposed to relax to some extent, especially on weekends, and really enjoy life at its best.

Some of us never make it very far, however.

Death and destruction on our highways and waterways see to that.

There was a time not many years ago when editors, glancing over weekend accident reports, would jump on a news item and play it up if five or six people were killed.

Now the reverse is the case.

Death tolls reaching 20 or more in Quebec province are commonplace — and what really makes news now is something happily negative: Lack of fatal accidents.

And how can we stop this slaughter?

Motorists, no doubt, are sick and tired of reading editorials and news pieces plugging safety on our roads and on the water.

"It can't happen to me," often is the answer given — but it does again and again, and will continually do so unless some drivers, on land and water, and swimmers start acting like intelligent human beings.

Some people think safety precautions are for sissies.

If so, let's all be live sissies by the time our next edition rolls off the press.

See you next week — we hope!

Don't abandon your pets

ONCE again the SPCA has made its appeal to citizens not to abandon pets in urban areas when moving to the country for the summer.

We heartily endorse this appeal.

Animal pets are not toys; they have feelings like humans and suffer like them, too, from lack of food and shelter.

Patriotism 'lacking'

Sir: What is wrong with Canada?

I can sum this up with one sentence: Lack of patriotism!

People live in pockets of ethnic groups, mostly, and don't give a hoot for the next fellow. In other words, we are made up of little groups of selfish people.

We have been asked to tighten our belts to some extent to get our import-export dollar back on the tracks—and now watch for the beefs!

We want high wages, low prices on everything and to hang with tomorrow.

I am not an economist but, as I see it, we have been living beyond our means for years and the time has come for an accounting.

Another thing, we seem scared to invest our money in our own country to develop it.

Perhaps other readers may have some thoughts on this subject.

Patriot

Visitor likes Westmount

Sir: I don't know how many Westmounters really appreciate their city... but as a visitor I can say they are very fortunate indeed.

The many parks and trees and clean streets, to say nothing of lovely homes, have impressed me very much.

The city must have a good administration and equally good residents.

Prevent thefts now

Home burglaries represent a large portion of the $1,500,000 theft loss in Canada each year, according to officials of the All Canada Insurance Federation. Thefts increase sharply during the vacation months when owners are away.

The Federation which represents more than 220 Canadian fire, casualty and automobile insurance companies, offers these recommendations to guard against home burglary while on vacation.

1) Have milk and newspaper deliveries cancelled. Old newspapers are a sure indication that the resident is away.

2) Arrange to have your lawn cared for regularly.

3) Inform the local police that you will be away. They will check your home periodically.

4) Have a friend or neighbor visit the house occasionally to see that all is in order.

5) Remove valuable silver or jewelry for storage in a bank safety deposit box.

6) Do not leave light burning in the house.

7) Ask the local newspaper not to mention that you will be away. Professional burglars read the social columns.

8) If a theft or break-in is discovered, inform police immediately. Even if nothing of value has been taken, the information will be of value to police.

SAYING OF THE WEEK:

The force, the mass of character, mind, heart or soul that a man can put into any work, is the most important factor in that work. Andrew Preston Peabody. 1811-1893.

I SAY

A patient in the infirmary awoke after an operation and found the blinds of the room drawn. "Why are those blinds down, doctor?" he asked. "Well," said the physician, "there's a fire burning across the alley and I didn't want you to wake up and think the operation had been a failure."

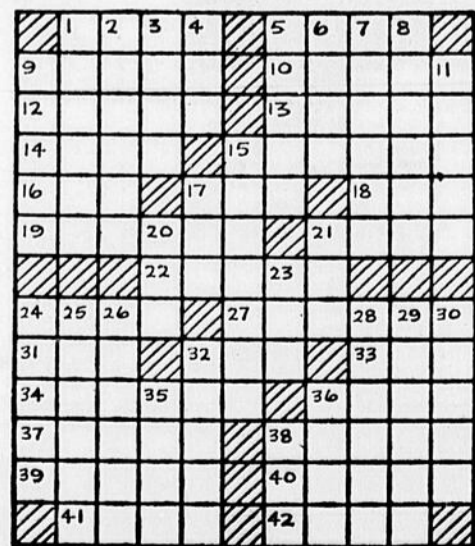

THEY SAY

"Yes, father," replied the daughter sweetly. "Mother says men haven't altered a bit."

Musical Sharps, Flats & Naturals

By FRANCES GOLTMAN

27th CONSECUTIVE SEASON
(First of Two Instalments)

The Montreal Festivals Society has chosen a very enticing program for its 1962 season which will begin August 2, and end on the 31st of the month. Having attended most of their events (missing only when I have been out of town) for 27 years, I can say that the items on this year's program offer such varied fare that there is a choice for every taste.

Just recently (about three weeks ago) a very strong letter was written by an erudite Canadian expressing displeasure over the fact that Canadian musicians are not given opportunities here. Both morning and evening English papers received the letter, one printed the letter in full — the other was replied to in a long article by Eric McLean, who quoted portions in his fine response.

FAULT

If people think that CANADIAN artists do not receive opportunities here, I would say it is not because they do not have the chance, but because audiences do not attend in large enough numbers to realize their worth.

Just notice how many CANADIANS have been engaged in the program of The Montreal Festivals. True, there are some other outstanding artists engaged — and why not? When CANADIANS are engaged elsewhere, perhaps the musicians of those particular centres might say the same as localities who are against non-residents being hired.

Judge for yourself — OPERA, Mozart's opera buffa, Così fan tutte, August 16, 18, 19, 21, 22, 23, at The Comedie Canadienne (given here by the Opera Guild some 15 years ago) will have an ALL-CANADIAN cast.

Honor

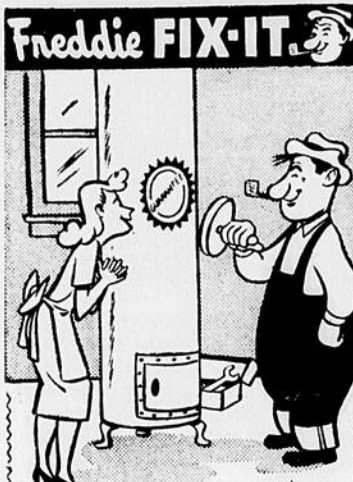

Incidentally, the featured singers are all CANADIAN vocalists who have distinguished themselves elsewhere as well as in this country. This brings honor to Canada.

Marguerite Lavergne (soprano, Salzburg Opera), Rejane Cardinal (mezzo-soprano, recently concluded a recital tour of France), Marguerite Gignac (soprano of Central City and San Francisco Opera), three members of The Royal Opera House, Covent Garden, tenor Andre Turp, baritone Robert Savoie (an N.D.G. boy) and bass Joseph Rouleau.

The comic opera will be staged by Florent Forget and sets designed by Jean Claude Rinfret, both CANADIAN. The only non-Canadian will be conductor Wilhelm Loibner from the Vienna State Opera.

CANADIAN opera—a triple bill of three short operas by CANADIANS Harry Somers, Maurice Blackburn and Jean Vallerand will be given on August 29, 30, 31. Cast for all three will be CANADIANS, Claire Gagnier soprano, Fernande Chiochio, and tenor Jean-Louis Pellerin. Jean Vallerand will be stage director, and conductor is CANADIAN Jean Beaudet. Sets are by Jean Claude Rinfret.

Next week: 27th consecutive season Part II.

Many summer events planned

By MAURICE MARIASINE

The Unity Boys' Club 1962 summer program officially got underway when over 120 club members and parents made their annual trek to the Zoological Gardens of Granby. Unity Club headquarters, at 1090 Greene avenue, also is the departure point for some 500 youngsters who leave for Camp Lewis and Camp Amy Molson for periods of from two weeks to two months. Medical examinations for the entire group were carried out at the Club last Friday.

Word has been received from the Canadian Pacific Steamships that the Unity Boys' Club members will be permitted to tour the Empress of Canada on Wednesday, August 1. The youngsters are looking forward to this exciting tour.

Club members also are excited about returning to the Seignoury Park and Beach Club at Chateaugay. The weekly visits start next Tuesday.

Throughout the summer, club members will have the opportunity of going to St. Helen's Island for a picnic-swim. The group will leave by chartered bus every Friday morning at 9:30 a.m.

Another popular place for the small fry of the Club is beautiful Beaver Lake atop Mount Royal. Club members under 10 years of age will picnic at the Lake every Wednesday during July and August.

A special feature of the summer program is the "Learn to Swim" project conducted by the Montreal Parks and Playgrounds Association. Medicals for this purpose will be conducted at the club next Tuesday at 8:30 a.m. The course will take place at the YWCA under expert instruction.

The summer schedule will also include softball games, bicycle outings, a broomball league, football movies, amateur contests, penny carnival and closing day ceremonies at Camp Lewis.

Two club members, Patricia Ann Fernandes and Kevin Mills, were the reciving the twist contest.

The 1962 summer program will be directed by Chuck Tyler. He will be assisted by Michael Dwyer, Linda Vaux and Victoria Schrammel. Arts and Crafts Supervisor Jacques McCormack has been transferred to Cree Camp of Camp Lewis for the two summer months.

Le Tombeau de Couperin showing the composer in light and delicate mood, and finally Valses Nobles et Sentimentales, seven short and dainty waltz sequences, again beautifully orchestrated.

The broad, sweeping style of Gabriel Faure is glowingly performed on CS 6227 in his incidental music to Pelleas et Melisande, the prelude to his opera Penelope, and in gayer vein the four movements of his Masques et Bergamasques (Op. 112).

The final section of the disc presents some delightful Debussy, namely the four pieces of his Petit Suite — "En Bateau", "Cortège", "Menuet", and "Ballet". All recommended discs in lighter classical vein.

The celebration of Igor Stravinsky's 80th birthday is marked by the same performers with recording CS 6219, his ballet-cantata Les Noces for four solo voices, mixed chorus, four pianos, and extensive percussion.

Christian Science

Active throughout July and August

There is no suspension of classes during the summer months in the Sunday Schools maintained by the churches of the Christian Science denomination.

The children of tourists and vacation travellers are always welcome as visitors provided they have not reached the age of 20.

The Christian Science church in Montreal maintains a nursery for the care of infants whose parents wish to attend church service.

Evening services dropped

It is an established custom of the Christian Science denomination to hold only one service each Sunday during July and August.

Accordingly, the Christian Science churches in Montreal, Westmount, Pointe Claire and Sherbrooke will hold Sunday morning services only.

Salvation Army's 'War Cry' published without gimmicks

A paper that is unique in that it does not carry a single non-Salvationist advertisement, and numbers among its readers the inmates of prisons and hospitals factory and office workers and home lovers, is The Canadian War Cry, one of some 40 similar official Salvation Army gazettes throughout the Army world.

First published in Canada in 1884, it has never ceased publication, and has steadily increased in circulation. Without the aid of comic strips or other gimmicks or paid contributors, it is eagerly purchased by Canadians ranging from the beverage room frequenters to members of Parliament.

A useful feature of The War Cry is the "missing persons column," by which means thousands of missing relatives have been reunited with loved ones in all parts of the world. As copies of The War Cry go to all the eighty-six countries and colonies in which the Army flag flies it has become a valuable medium for reaching long-lost people in those lands.

Thousands of free copies of The War Cry are distributed in hospitals, nursing homes and prisons throughout the Dominion, thus bringing a refreshing breeze of hope and light into discouraged minds. Many are the letters that have been received by the editor from those who have been thus blessed, and perhaps who "got religion" as the result of reading the War Cry in a mood of penitence or loneliness.

The present circulation of the weekly issue is 70,000, but the special Easter and Christmas editions run into 450,000 or more. During "War Cry Week" officers in the 400 evangelical centres throughout Canada will endeavor to interest new people in The War Cry, hoping that its wholesome reading will prove an antidote to the flood of salacious literature that has created such harm among the adolescents.

The War Cry publishes frank editorials on a variety of subjects, particularly those that it believes are vital to the spiritual well-being of the people. It has pages for musicians, for women, for young people, for those interested in the current scene, and usually a stirring serial story of an outstanding hero of the faith.

Striking testimonies of converted alcoholics are often published, and reports of Army activities from Newfoundland to Vancouver Island (and faraway Bermuda) are printed. Strengthening the international link, The War Cry includes each week items of overseas interest, and an occasional message from the world leader, General Wilfred Kitching.

Its sixteen pages are crammed with relevant material, and it is well worth the ten cents it costs, a price that has not been raised for many years, in spite of rising costs of paper, ink, wages, etc.

Companion papers are The Young Soldier, The Crest (for youth) and The Home Leaguer (for women).

Goltman recital held received much applause for Amina and Berg played an encore after Edelweiss Glide Waltz. Chris Meyer in a Russian Dance by Aubert, Susan Lechler in a Tschaiowsky number, Mark McLearn in a pirate piece, Cynthia Scott in The Three Trolls and Barbara Yankowsky in a Ketterer number all showed ability and fine training.

A little girl, Lois Liverman revealed talent in Toccatina by Kabalevsky and Cotton Pickers by Martin and was encored. A catchy Rustic Dance was well played by Carol Kanturek. Stephanie Hall earned an extra bow for a Diabelli Rondo and Linda Rottenberg was heard in a melodious Spanish Dance by Friml.

A well matched pair of clever pianists, Mary Shepherd and Maida de Stein received heavy applause for the famous Grieg, "In The Hall of The Mountain King" and both were recalled for extra bows for fine solos performances of Grieg's March of the Dwarfs and a Durand Valse, op. 83.

Lorna Rogers drew tremendous clapping and an encore for a Bach Prelude and Introduction and Fugata by Harris. This gifted student has a splendid technique and strong fingers. She is worth watching. Stella Meyer was recalled for musical playing in Bach's Sol-feggietto and Darryl Smith received much applause for Rachmaninoff's difficult Polichinelle.

Two talented pianists, Lorraine Cosgrove and Bonny Gourlay showed marked rhythmic sense in two duets, Parade Review by Engelmann and a Venetienne Valse and each showed a surprising fluency in their solos. Bonny Gourlay in a Fink number and Lorraine Cosgrove in the well known Fire Dance by de Falla, to which she added an encore.

That there are still many musical children was shown in this concert. The recital ended with the students assembling on the stage with their teacher following amidst great applause.

Miss Goltman was presented with many floral tributes from the students and in a short address thanked the large audience for their enthusiastic response. Also the students for their good work during the year. The successful concert ended with the audience joining in singing the National Anthem.

Loyola students will be obliged to specialize

Commencing next year students at Loyola University will be obliged to specialize in one of the 27 full university courses offered here, Dean H. J. MacPhee, said this week.

The new program, part of a revision of curriculum being undertaken by the university, obliges all students on completion of their first year, to choose a field of concentration and work towards a bachelor's degree with a major in that field.

Increasing demands

Although Loyola has offered an honors program to students who met the qualifying academic standards with the exception of commerce students, sophomores could follow a general course.

The majors program, said the Dean, "is a necessity in view of increasing demands for specialization."

The announcement made by the Dean follows closely a recent distinction made by the president of 'La Federation des Collèges Classiques,' M s g r. Pierre Descary.

Anglo Canadian tradition

Msgr. Descary said that Loyola had a curriculum resembling that of other English Canadian Colleges whereas . . . "our classical colleges have a curriculum resembling the BA gen-

Cyril Groome

Cyril T. Groome, 61, of 4387 Coronation avenue, Notre Dame de Grace, died Wednesday in the Montreal Neurological Institute following an illness of several weeks.

A long time resident of N.D.G., Mr. Goome was one of the original wartime Victory gardeners, and carried on for many years as an active member of the Community Garden Association. At the time of his death, he was a member of the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club.

Born and educated in England, Mr. Groome came to Montreal some 40-years ago, and spent his entire business life with the group department of the Sun Life Insurance Company.

He is survived by his wife, the former Muriel Forbes-Toby, and two sons: Lionel H., an engineer associated with the Wheelabrator Corp. of Canada; Reginald K., resident manager of the Queen Elizabeth Hotel; and three grandsons, Reginald Jr., Roderick and Richard.

The funeral service will be held today at 3 p.m. from the Chapel of Tees and Co., 1459 Towers street. Burial will be in Mount Royal Cemetery.

A radical change is contemplated for the typewriter. It consists of simplification of the keyboard, which has not been changed in more than 80 years. The new keyboard rearranges the most frequently used letters so they are closest to the fingers which normally do the most work.

eral program of these institutions."

Dean MacPhee noted that . . . changes reflected in the evolution of curriculum, set Loyola more and more in the Anglo-Canadian tradition."

Also included in the revisions announced by the Dean are the introduction of a major in business administration for commerce students, and the establishment of a department of Geo-Technical Sciences to include such fields as soil mechanics, an area in which research has been carried on at Loyola for some time under government sponsorship.

Heading the new department will be Dr. David McDougall, chairman of the engineering dept., and recipient of Canada Council research grants for his work here.

Retiring Rotary president . . .

mented Hal Giles on his work done in the interests of public information.

President Burrows, in referring to the recent Rotary Carnival, stated that an attendance of 12,511 was recorded — an increase of 4.6 per cent over last year. The final figures however, will not be known for a few days.

The winner of the car, he stated was a 12-year-old lad Marcel Lefebvre — a member of the Unity Boys' Club who had sold himself the winning ticket. Credit for much of the success of the carnival was due to the hard work of Charles W. Wright, chairman of the carnival committee and all the members who turned out in greater numbers than ever to support the cause.

The members were taken to task, however, for their poor showing over the year in attendance at meetings.

"I'd prefer a 60 per cent member in attendance rather than a 100 per cent one who just lifted his knife and fork at meetings," he said in reference to their spirit of co-operation.

The work of the golden age and scholarships committees was praised, as well as those who worked with the Unity Boys' Club and the public speaking course.

The retiring president in his final talk remembered all who had worked in the interests of Rotary. He then called upon incoming President W. T. H. Clark to take over proceedings.

Following his report, the retiring president was then presented with a Past President's button and a set of Rotary cuff links. The meeting wound up hilariously with the "passing out" ceremony and the presentation of the rocking chair.

Francois Jobin of Quebec City, who was last seen in Montreal chess circles when he competed in the First Canadian Open in 1956, has now gained honors in another field. He is one of the 11 chosen few selected by Canada to be awarded a Rhodes scholarship.

Jobin graduated last year from Laval University in the Faculty of Medicine. He is now completing a senior internship at Saint-Sacrement Hospital in Quebec, and is busy on his thesis for a Ph.D degree in basic medical science. He will be going to St. John's College in Oxford and will specialize in haematology at the Blood Coagulation Research Unit at Churchill Hospital.

In medicine, he is following a family tradition. His father, Dr. Joachim Jobin, also a strong chess player, is a general practitioner.

CANDIDATES' TOURNAMENT, 1962

Due to continued illness, Tal has had to withdraw from the tournament. Undoubtedly, his poor showing throughout the event was due to the fact that he had not fully recovered from a kidney operation undergone a few weeks prior to the start of the tournament.

The committee has decided to consider his last seven scheduled games as lost by default and has awarded one point to each of the other players whom Tal would have had to face. In fact, their relative standings would not have changed at all had the committee decided to ignore the last seven games completely.

Up to the time of writing, the results of the final round have not been received. Following are the standings as at the end of Round 27:

	W	D	L	A	Pts.
Petrosian	9	18	0	0	18
Keres	10	15	2	0	17½
Geller	8	18	1	0	17
Fischer	9	11	7	0	14½
Korchnoi (a)	7	13	7	1	13½
Benko	7	12	8	0	13
Filip	3	8	14	1	7½
Tal (b)	3	8	17	0	7

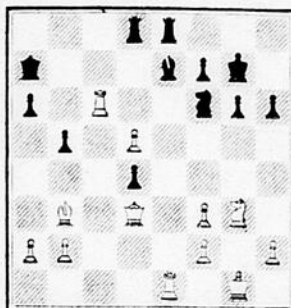

(a) In the above table, Korchnoi has already been credited with one point for his 28th Round game against Tal. His adjourned game is from Round 27, against Filip.

(b) Tal's results showing "Lost, 17" includes seven games lost by default through illness.

Pairings for Round 28: Petrosian-Filip; Keres-Fischer; Gel-

Filip; and (b) Keres draws with Fischer; and (c) Geller wins against Benko. Unlikely? Yes! Possible — also yes!

The above position came about in the tournament at Marienbad, 1925. White played P-B4, deliberately inviting Black to play NxP. Black, after studying the position for several minutes, came to the conclusion that White had somehow overlooked the QP and took it, whereupon there followed:

1. N-R5 ch! K-R2
2. BxN RxB
3. RxB QxR
4. N-B6 ch K-N2
5. NxQR Q-Q2
6. QxQP ch, winning.

If Black had tried PxN on the first move, White would have replied Q-N3 ch, starting an overwhelming attack against the exposed K.

Here is a diagram to illustrate how one can fall into a trap of his own making. It was Black's turn to move and he deliberately played R-Q3, inviting White to attack the pinned Knight with P-R4.

What was Black's plan? And what was wrong with it?

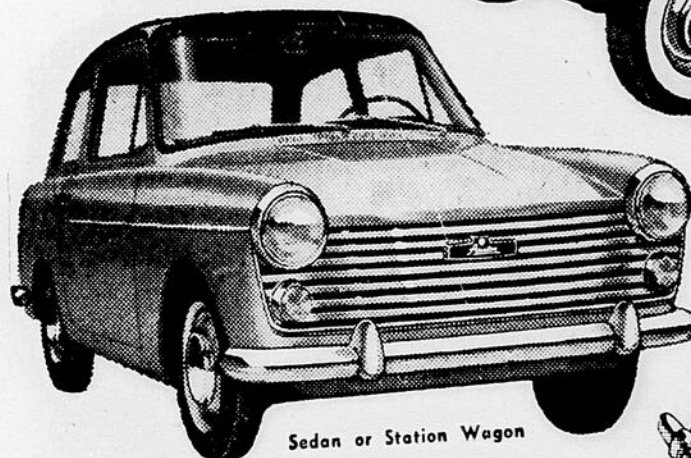

The diagram will be discussed in next week's column.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashby sailed later for a tour of the Scandinavian countries. Later they will take up residence for one year in London, England.

Forward House a project of The Pythian Sisters

Forward House is a club, where one can get understanding help, so difficult to receive elsewhere. This wonderful rehabilitation centre was founded in March 1957, after a careful enquiry, into the need for such a club.

It began, as an informal group, meeting Friday evenings in a small room at the YWCA only from four to twelve attended. The membership to-day is one hundred and twenty five and growing steadily. Mrs. Fowle, an English woman, founded the club.

Contributions were at first voluntary, from private donors, and members. As the club grew, a bigger meeting place became the number one problem. At this time, an invitation to meet at the YMCA on Dorchester street was gratefully accepted. However, eventually, these quarters became too limited also, so when The Pythian Sisters, became The Club sponsors, accepting financial support, the comfortable house, where they now meet, was rented in 1958. The house has six rooms, and a spacious hall, and is located on 4881 Sherbrooke street, Westmount.

The pioneer members were referred then, as now also, by their doctors and social workers. People who had learned of the club through interested workers, in the field of psychiatry, supported the club. On the basis of this support, the club gradually took shape. After some debating, the name Forward Club was chosen by the members themselves, as the most suitable.

Mrs. Fowle, organizer and director, encouraged members to run their own club, elect their own executive etc. Mrs. Fowle, who worked at the Verdun Protestant Hospital, as head of The personal Dept., was director, from March 1957 when she founded the club, until March 1961, when she retired. In April, Mrs. Klein (psychologist) became director.

At the beginning, the executive included two psychiatrists and a social worker. Mrs. MacDonald was the first leader. (A specialized social worker with a BA) who worked tirelessly beside Mrs. Fowle, to make the club what it is today. Miss Alexander Occupational Therapist at the Montreal General Hospital, is now ably assisting Mrs. Klein, and is also a very understanding person.

The Pythian Sisters are a long established lodge consisting of twelve Temples, the feminine counterpart of the Knights of Pythias. They tirelessly work to help the handicapped. They were the first to work as volunteers, in the Verdun Protestant Hospital and St. Anne de Bellevue, giving freely of their time, energy, understanding, and many talents. They help make Forward House what it is today.

Funds are raised through a weekly collection, on Friday evenings, and a spring festival. Donations are gratefully accepted from various sources. There is an annual tag day, which helps tremendously.

The club is always open, on holidays such as Christmas day, New Years day, and so on. Mrs. Klein, Director, feels that the club is especially needed on these days, when members might feel very lonely, away from their loved ones.

Members are encouraged to talk about themselves, and their problems, to exchange ideas and opinions. There is always a good listener. Members take an active part in entertaining. Good piano playing, and singing. Some members, have given interesting talks, on world situations, architecture, and so on. In short, members, run their own home on Sherbrooke street prepare (Continued on page 16)

Beyond the Clouds

It's raining, the clouds are dreary and grey,
No sunshine, to nourish the flowers you say,
But the roots deep down, in the soil hard and dry,
Welcome each drop, falling far from the sky.

So in life, though the clouds, may shadow the sun,
Tomorrow, it will shine, as it always has done,
But keep up your song, the clouds soon will be gone,
"Because it's always the darkest just before the dawn."

Celtic lose unbeaten tag as St. Paul fight back

by LAWRENCE FALCON

As was expected, the Metropolitan Soccer League 'A' Division Championship game between St. Paul Rovers and Verdun Celtic proved to be close and hard fought.

The Scots were one up in record time, for St. Paul's pivot Hugh Walker put through his own net after only 50 seconds of play, after Tony Fitzharris had been worrying him for some 20 yds.

The young centre half passed back to his keeper only to find that Bell was not in position to receive the pass.

After some 15 minutes of play John Shepherd, from Quebec displayed the touches of experience, when he drew out the St. Paul keeper and deftly placed the ball past the advancing Bell for number two.

St. Paul fought back and Dudley Hill of the RCAF, seized onto a Jim Shepherd miskick, raced through and picked his spot past Carroll.

Half Time Score: St. Paul Rovers 1, Verdun Celtic 2.

This half turned into something of a scrappy affair, with Celtic departing from their usual polished football, trying to out kick their younger opponents and though there were thrills galore, there was little good soccer.

It was in the 70th. minute that the Rovers took command, when Hugh Lennon received a pass from Alex Hume and belted it past Jack Carroll from the 18 yd. line.

A few minutes from the end Arthur Johnson's long lob completely deceived all the Celtic defenders and bounced over the outstretched hands of Carroll.

Final Score: St. Paul Rovers 3, Verdun Celtic 2.

Indians race to win no. 14

Crouch, Bamoff two-way stars

Westmount's Unity Indians, red hot pace setters in the Kiwanis West Little League loop, raced to their 13th and 14th straight wins this week.

The Indians, unbeaten to date in their attempt this season to defend their pennant championship success of last year, are being sparked from some fine play on the mound and from the plate by stars Dalton Barnoff, leading the home run parade and the pitching statistics with a 6-0 record, and Lawrence Crouch, also a big gun and mound hero, with a 5-0 count.

Going into their 13th game of the season at Clifford park on Monday evening, the Indians proved that they don't worry about superstition over much, beating Red Sox 9-6.

The Westmounters were sparked in this game by Lawrence Crouch, who pitched the win, and clouted a homer.

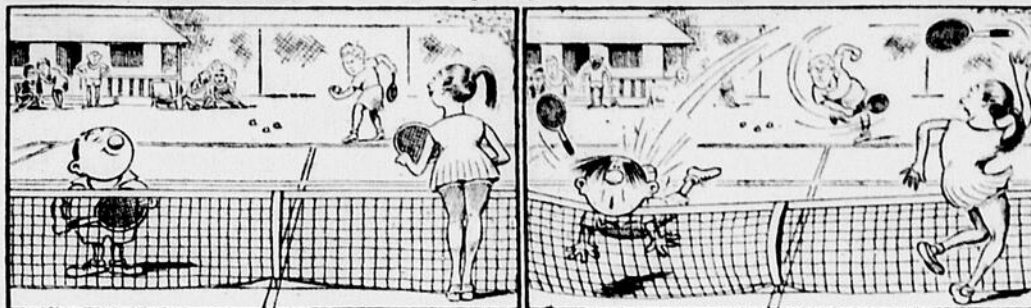

Norm Plant bagged a homer for the losers, who dropped the hits booked by 8-6.

Dalton Barnoff, with three for four and Roger Hart, two for three, were the plate stars. On Wednesday night, at the Westmount Athletic Ground, the Indians scalped their 14th straight opponent, as White Sox bit the dust 5-1.

Dalton Barnoff pitched a two hit game for the win, while Chuck Merilees booked the loss.

The local stars will take on a U.S. Little League outfit from Ogdensburg on Saturday, at the Westmount Athletic Ground, starting at 2.30 p.m.

Assistant director appointed

Appointment of Edward P. Lawson, 35, assistant director of the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts has been announced today by Director Evan H. Turner.

Mr. Lawson is now assistant curator of the Medieval Department and The Cloisters of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York. He holds an M.A. from the Institute of Fine Arts, New York University.

He is to take up his post here early in September, Dr. Turner said.

Mr. Lawson succeeds the late Edward (Ned) Cleghorn, who held the post of associate director.

Born September 12, 1927, in Newton, Massachusetts, Mr. Lawson's maternal grandparents were Canadians. Descendants of William Pitt, Earl of Chatham, they fled from the U.S. to the Maritime provinces at the time of the Revolution.

Mr. Lawson attended Foxboro High School, Pomfret School, Pomfret, Conn., Berkeley Preparatory School, Boston, Mass., Cambridge Junior College, Cambridge, Mass., and Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Me., where he received his B.A. in February, 1951. He majored in English literature and minored in history and art history.

Upon graduation from Bowdoin, he was accepted for advance study at the Institute of Fine Arts, New York University, where he took courses covering all phases of the history of art.

His thesis for his M.A. degree dealt with medieval painting and was entitled "The Importance of Form and Content in the Inscribed Scroll in Northern European Painting 1350-1500."

In 1952, he joined the staff of the Toledo Museum of Art, Toledo, Ohio, as instructor in the School of Design. He also lectured on the permanent collections and on special exhibitions to children and adults and gave art history courses (European painting from the French Revolution to the Present Day, the Arts in America) for the University of Toledo.

In September, 1956, he accepted the position of curatorial assistant with the Toledo Museum itself. He was later named supervisor of the School of Design.

He became assistant curator of the Medieval Department and The Cloisters of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, July 1, 1959.

He has written numerous articles for various publications.

In the summer of 1956, he studied in Belgium as the result of a Summer Fellowship awarded by the Belgian American Foundation, travelling also in Holland, Germany, France and Switzerland.

Last summer, on a Metropolitan Museum of Art Travel Grant, he spent two months in France and Spain where he studied extensively the medieval art of the two countries.

Mr. Lawson speaks, reads and writes French as well as some German, Spanish and Italian.

In 1952, he married the former Lee Vail. A painter, Mrs. Lawson is a graduate of the Parsons School of Design, New York, and was formerly associated, like her husband, with the Toledo Museum.

They have two children.

Forward House . . .

The club is open Monday, Wednesday, and Friday evenings from 8 till 11. Also on Sundays from 2 till 5. When supervisor, Dr. Papathomopoulos is in attendance. Usually about twenty-five find their way to the club on these Sunday afternoons to relax, listen to good music, talk etc. On Monday night, some of the members enjoy the lively discussion period.

Sponsors recently purchased a movie projector and screen. Some very interesting films have been shown to a most enthusiastic audience.

April 23, The Seder which is the Jewish Passover, supper was served. It was a most delightful evening and thoroughly enjoyed by the large number who attended, about 50 members alone. The energetic Sisters were ably assisted by the Knights (in shining armour).

Many outings are enjoyed. Sleigh rides in winter etc. Summer programming is now under way. Last Sunday, 22 members went on a bus drive, to Oka.

A splash party (swimming party) will be held in the good old summer time.

Larger quarters are needed and the sponsors are desirous of purchasing a large house, which could remain open all the time. The Sisters want expansion of the programming, to include art classes, opportunities to practice typing and so on.

The Club, is to help members gain a firm foothold on the first steps forward to find self-confidence, faith and self understanding.
