GUESTS RIGHT TO ROOM.
INNKEEPER MAY CHANGE HIM FROM ONE ROOM TO AN-OTHER.
 (Case and Comment.)
 It is surprising that, after some centuries of development of the law in respect to the relations of guests and innkeepers, there is an almost entire absence of precedents as to what are the rights of a guest in a hotel to a continuance of his occupation of a room when the landlord chooses to transfer him to a different room. In the late case of Hervey vs. Hart (Ala.), 9 L.R.A. (N.S.), 213, 42 So. 1013, a guest at a hotel in Mobile during Mardi Gras festivities found, on attempting to return to his room after he had been temporarily absent from it, that he was excluded from its further occupation. He brought an action, alleging that, while temporarily absent from his room, the landlord had caused his baggage to be removed from it and that he refused to furnish him any other proper accommodations, although it was then late in the night, and the city was crowded with people, so that he could not get accommodations in the city, and that he was compelled to wander about the city for the greater portion of the night, seeking a place to sleep. He offered evidence of these facts, but the evidence of the defendant was somewhat in conflict with it. The jury found against the plaintiff, but a motion for a new trial was granted and it was affirmed on appeal. The Supreme Court declared the law on the subject to be that the innkeeper has the right, and the sole right, to select the apartment for a guest, and if he finds it expedient, to change the apartment and assign the guest to another, without becoming a trespasser in making the change; that if he offers proper accommodations in lieu of the room which is to be taken away from the guest he is not liable; but if, having the necessary convenience, he refuses to afford reasonable accommodation, he is liable to an action for damages. The court relied upon the Canadian case of Doyle vs. Walker, 20 U.C.Q.B. 502, which lays down the same doctrine. These seem to be the only decisions that are directly in point, and both deny that a guest to whom a room is assigned acquires any right to occupy it beyond the discretion of the landlord, provided, only, that the landlord gives him other proper accommodations.

UNIONIST VAN CAMPAIGN.
A CURIOUS PROCESSION SETS OUT FROM WESTMINSTER.
 (London Standard.)
 The winter campaign against Radical-Socialism, organized by the National Union of Conservative Associations, was commenced. Large crowds were attracted to the Westminster and the Victoria Embankment by the sight of a procession of 18 caravans, each driven by a coachman in livery, and each decorated with posters setting forth the absurd mistakes committed by the present Government.
 Throughout the line ran the one great war cry:
 "The Radical policy is to PROMISE everything
 The Unionist policy is to DO something."
 The caravans left one by one, each carrying a lecturer, and a lantern operator. At night time the shutters at the back of the vans will be taken down, and a sheet will show lantern slides, while a powerful Gramophone reproduces speeches specially delivered by prominent leaders of the Unionist party. In all of these speeches tariff reform strikes the keynote, and the propaganda of that policy bids fair to be well preached in this novel campaign.
 As the vans left on their five months' journey, wives, mothers, sisters and sweethearts bade affectionate farewells to the drivers and others who were travelling by them, and loud cheers from the crowd greeted the departure of each vehicle.

OCULAR ILLUSION.
 "What town is that a few miles to the north?" shouted the aeronaut, leaning over the edge of the basket.
 "Oskosh!" yelled the agriculturist over whose farm the balloon was passing.
 "What?"
 "Oskosh!"
 "What did he say?" asked the aeronaut's companion.
 "He didn't say anything. He swore at me."—Chicago Tribune.

KNOWLTON.
 Arrivals for Christmas in Knowlton include: Mr. A. Chrysler, at his home, Mr. Harry Williams at Mrs. Williams, Miss Wisdom of Montreal, and Dr.
 John Colby, of Stanstead, guests at the same home. Mr. Geo. MacFarlane, who has been in the Western Hospital for two and a half weeks, returned on Tuesday evening, with his son, Walter, for Xmas.
 Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Knowlton and Miss Dorothy, of Sherbrooke, spent Xmas at Mr. L. L. Knowlton's, as did also Miss Jennie Knowlton, of Montreal.
 Mr. Howard Honeyman, B.A., has received his appointment as School Inspector for the district about Ottawa.
 He is to be congratulated.
 The Methodist S. S. Christmas Supper, held on Monday night, was a success in every way. After the tables were cleared games were indulged in,
 with selections from a phonograph.
 Santa Claus appeared dispensing bags of candy and fruit to all present. Nearly a hundred were present and all enjoyed the evening well. Miss Helen Taylor deserves special credit for her carrying out of the Christmas party, which she seemed to have no end. The young people helped with them and all did their parts in a splendid manner. Mr. A. W. Royea acted Santa's part in a way that quite captivated the children.
 Mrs. M. Greer is not as well as her friends could wish. She has been ill for several days, but was reported slightly improved on Tuesday night.
 Mrs. L. L. Knowlton is gaining from her illness of the past week.

At a recent meeting of the Knowlton Village Council several village lots of land were ordered to be sold at auction which will take place at an early date.
 For the next meeting of the Literary Club, the committee promise an especially good programme. This will take place early after the New Year, but the date is not fixed as yet.

GRANBY.
 Mr. Palmer Cox, who is spending the winter in Granby, superintending the finishing touches to his residence, Browne Castle, has had a stained glass window placed in the hall, representing one of the principal figures of his famous Browne Band. This little man has a broad smile and is attured in a fantastic costume peculiar to this creation of the artist's fancy.
 This window was designed by Spence & Sons, Montreal.
 The following are the recently elected officers of the C.M.B.A.: Messrs. H. E.
 Comtois, President; Dennis Morris, 1st
 Vice-President; J. A. Beauchemin, 2nd Vice-President; P. A. L'Ecuyer, Secretary-Treasurer; George P. Brissette, Assistant Recording Secretary; Dr. L.
 A. Lessard, Treasurer; Frs. Dunn, Marshal; Jos. Dusseault, Guard; Euclide Degres, C. E. Tartre, A. E.
 Bourbonnais, M. Monty, B. Monty, Trustees; M. Dunn, Chancellor; Rev. M.
 Gill, Chaplain.
 Among the recent arrivals are: Mr.
 Garnet Cunningham, of Brattleboro, at home; Mr. J. Vittie, of St. Ce-saire; Mr. Mortimer Lyne, of Lennox-ville, at their respective homes; Dr.
 Switt, of Montreal, guest of Mrs. W.
 D. Bradford; Miss Gertrude Flaagan, from Montreal, and Miss Sadie Boyd, Waterloo, visiting friends.

SUTTON.
 An entertainment was given in the Temperance Hall on Friday evening for the S. S. scholars of the Episcopal church. Recitations were given by the Misses Lillian Lafleur, Eva Kemp, Ella Safford, Harry Dyer, Hil-dred Brown, Bob Bell, Cyrenia Bell, Gladys Westover, Cathleen Bell, Merle Lafleur, Irvine Bell, Jessie Niblock, Annesley Bell, Mary Dyer and Gladys Bell. Songs by Miss Mary Dyer, May Bond and Cathleen Bell. Coffee and cake were served by the parish. Great credit is due the children's instructor, Mrs. C. C. Dyer, who was nobly assisted by the other S. S. teachers of the parish, representing the church.
 The programme as given above was a part of the Christmas entertainment of this church, the second part being the Christmas services in the church at 7 p.m. and Christmas tree in the Temperance Hall on Thursday evening before Christmas, when the beautifully laden Christmas tree was placed in admiration to the many happy little folks who assembled to receive the gifts so generously furnished by Santa Claus.
 Rev. W. A. Wells preached in the Advent church on Sunday next at both services.

IRON HILL.
 Recent visitors in town are Mrs. P.
 Gaylor, of West Bolton, visiting her brother, Mr. Ashley Sweet, and other relatives; Miss Sarah Wolahan, of Montreal, at Mr. L. J. Marsh's for Christmas; Mrs. Winslow Shufelt, of Cote St. Paul, the guest of her sons, Messrs. M. W. and C. F. Shufelt during this week; Rev. A. Wallace, of Sutton, attending a business meeting of the Evangelical Adventists of this locality; Mrs. John McCrum, of Covington, and her cousin, Mrs. Genr. and grand-daughter, of Ottawa, at Mr.
 F. D. Shufelt's.
 Mrs. Emma Guillette has returned to her home in Newport, Vt.
 Mrs. Andrew Brunton is on the sick list.
 Mrs. Elizabeth Moffatt who has been very ill at the home of her son, Mr.
 C. Moffatt, at Bromes, is much better.
 School closed Dec. 20th for the holidays and will reopen Jan. 6th.
 Rev. A. Wallace, of Sutton, who has preached for the Evangelical Adventist here for four years, has accepted a unanimous call from the Church to remain another year.

OLIVER.
 Mrs. O. L. Cass is very ill at time of writing.
 Miss Annie Rexford is at home from Ste. Anne's to spend the holidays with her parents.
 The Christmas tree and entertainment given by Miss Wadleigh and her pupils at the Oliver school house, last Saturday evening, was well attended.
 There was a number from Magog, Crystal Lake and Georgeville. Much credit is due to Miss Wadleigh and her pupils in getting up so fine an entertainment. It was enjoyed by all present.
 Mr. Eugene Ives, from Stanstead, was a guest of Mr. F. Rexford recently.
 Mr. W. H. Bachelder was at Rock Island on Friday.

A GOOD EXAMPLE.
 The Saturday Evening Post, of Philadelphia, is setting a good example to the business community of America. All through the recent financial flurry it preached confidence and hope. Now its publisher, Cyrus Curtis, has followed up preaching by practice and to show that he believes in the solidarity of conditions in general he has spent fifty thousand dollars in advancing the Christmas number of the Post. This is a splendid example and one that might with advantage be followed by other publishers and other business houses. Instead of accepting the words of the blue-ruin shouters, and believing that calamity awaits the business world, show people that this idea is wrong and set an example of courage and hope.

GLEN MURRAY.
 Mr. Legge, of New York, arrived on Friday to spend the holidays with his family at Campbell's Corner.
 Mr. F. Wark, who has been on the sick list, is now able to be out again.
 The school closed on Monday, Dec.
 23rd, for the Christmas holidays.
 "The people of Lyndford intend having an entertainment New Year's evening in the Methodist Church.
 Mr. William Edwards, of Barre, Vt., is spending a few days with Mr. W.D.
 Lowry.

WEST SHEFFORD.
 Miss G. Harris and Miss C. Smith, of Burlington, Vt., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Harris at the Shefford House.
 Messrs. W. L. Lang and H. J. Allen arrived home on Friday from West Ely, bringing two fine deer with them.
 Miss Kate Blackwood, who is teaching at Hudson Heights, is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Blackwood.
 Mr. Peter E. D. Hayes is quite seriously ill, having suffered a partial shock on Friday last.
 Mr. B. M. Saunders, of the E. T.
 Bank staff, is spending Christmas w.
 his parents in Bedford.
 Mr. Harry Larkum, who has been running Mr. S. Beard's farm for the last two years, left for Worcester, Mass., last Friday.
 Mr. L. Allen, of the E. T. Bank, North Hatley, is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Allen, for Christmas.
 Mr. M. Grace, of New York, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. W. R. Savage, over the holidays, who has been at St. Hyacinthe for the last three weeks, returned home on Saturday evening.
 Mr. Harry Hayes, who is attending the Macdonald College at Ste. Anne, is spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hayes.
 Rev. E. M. Taylor was here and inspected the village school on Friday, and gave it a very good report.

BONDVILLE.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Inglis and Miss F. Inglis, of Danforth, Me., and Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Inglis, of Cranbrook, B.C., are spending the holidays with relatives here.
 The Anglican Church Guild had a most enjoyable evening at "Rustic Lodge," the residence of Mrs. Bun-tony, on Tuesday evening, Dec. 21st.
 A high tea was followed by a charming programme, to which the following persons contributed: Mrs. (Rev.) Martin, Miss Bell McCloy, Mrs. L. McCloy, Mr. Scott, Miss Emma Hunter, Mr.
 George McCloy, Rev. J. W. Martin,
 Mrs. A. P. Hillhouse and Mr. Chas.
 McCloy.
 The Christmas tree entertainment came off in the school room on Friday evening, Dec. 20th. The room was simply packed with the children and their friends, old and young. Rev.
 J. W. Martin, incumbent of the parish, presided. A lengthy programme, consisting of twenty-eight different pieces, was gone through with in which all who took part excelled themselves, especially the children, who reflected great credit on their teacher, Mrs. A.
 P. Hillhouse. By a singular coincidence, just as the programme closed, Santa Claus arrived in person and distributed the presents from a beautiful and heavily laden tree to the delighted children present. The old gentleman seemed to be in a most happy mood and kept both children and adults laughing heartily at his witticisms. Altogether the entertainment was the most successful of its kind held in this vicinity for many years past. The McCloy orchestra contributed in no small degree to the success and pleasure of the evening.

RUITER'S CORNER.
 A Christmas tree and entertainment of more than ordinary interest was held at Ruiters' Corner school house, on Saturday evening, Dec. 21st, and was a decided success every way.
 The school room was beautifully decorated for the occasion and the tree was laden with presents to gladden the hearts of both old and young. The programme consisted of vocal and instrumental music, dialogues, recitations and tableaux and showed careful training. Among the numbers which deserve special mention were the songs by Mr. Frank Brown and the recitations by Miss Marjorie Baldwin of Stanstead. The popular young teacher, Mr. Walter Holden, deserves much credit for the success of the entertainment. Mr. Jas. McNally made a good chairman.

GILMAN.
 Arrivals in town are Miss Georgie Pettes, of Newport, also, Masters G. and W. Flint, of the same place, guests of Mr. Geo. Pettes; Miss L. A. Ingalls, of West Bromes, visiting friends; Mr. and Mrs. H. Vail, of Bromes, at Mr. H. C. Ingersoll's.
 Mr. M. Guillette has taken the contract to deliver forty cords of wood at the Creamery here.
 Several of the young people attending the oyster supper held at the home of Mr. N. Miller, of Bromes Centre, and all report a fine time.

RICEBURG.
 Mr. C. Chrysler, of Lowell, Mass., is home on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Chrysler. His friend, Mr.
 J. Brown, accompanied him.
 Mr. N. Hunt is indisposed.
 Mr. I. L. Moore has secured a position on the Montreal and Ottawa Railway.
 The young son of Mr. T. Cormick is ill.
 Mr. and Mrs. Irish are expecting their son home from British Columbia where he has been employed by the Hudson Bay Co., exploring.

EAST FARNHAM.
 Mrs. Morry is very ill at present with sciatica.
 Recent arrivals include: Miss Ethel Hubbard, from college in Montreal;
 Miss S. Morey from Lachine Academy;
 Mr. Guy Morey, of Ormstown Academy.
 Miss Phelps, teacher in the village school, has gone home to Mystic for the holidays.

COUGHING
 is bad enough at any time, but spells of coughing at night are doubly to be dreaded. Night coughs break up your sleep and rob it of its restfulness. They cannot help but run down your health through thus depriving you of the recuperating benefits

ONE WAY IT WORKS.

A correspondent of the Toronto Star points out one interesting result of the postal increase in the case of himself and his family. He writes:

"Last October came time to renew our subscription to our New York papers. It had been coming to me for over thirty years, and of course such a thing as dropping it for $1.56 postage was out of the question, so we sent the postage with the subscription, and the paper continued, and to relieve the postage charge just dropped our Toronto morning daily. Last July was time for me to renew the subscription to my trade journal published in the United States. There was no hesitation in doing that, as I had to have it, so away went the 50 cents postage, and the paper was continued. Today I am renewing my subscription to a Canadian trade journal. It is a nice little paper, and I would like to continue it, but since I have to pay postage on the one I must have, I have to drop the Canadian. It will soon be time for my girls to renew their subscriptions to the magazines. They get two from the United States and the same number from Canada. I understand they intend to continue those from the United States and drop the Canadian."

"Now then, if this postage on American publications was put on to make us read English publications more than we do, as I understand it was, it isn't working out just as was expected. It is true that we, as a people, belong to the British, but it is equally true that we were born and brought up on this American continent, and naturally we are Americans in our likes and dislikes. I must say that I hope some move will soon be made to get a free exchange of publications again between Canada and the United States. We don't get any money out of it, and if we did we don't need it."

DIAMOND CUTTERS ARE AMSTERDAM CONCERN CAUSE OF AMERICAN STRINGENCY.

Paris, Dec. 26.-According to reports sent out by the French couturier diamond cutters of Amsterdam are undergoing a severe crisis as a direct result of financial stringency in the States.

Amsterdam, which formerly monopolized the diamond cutters, is still the most important that business in the world employs ordinarily 9,500 expert women in this trade alone, including the apprentices. The make a total of $8,500,000.

America, which had in the past come to Amsterdam's help, disappeared from the book of diamond merchants this year completely. Three of the establishments which worked for the American trade shut week, throwing over 800 work. Other establishments during their losses.

DIAMOND CUTTERS ARE NOW IDLE

AMSTERDAM CONCERN CLOSE BECAUSE OF AMERICAN MONEY STRINGENCY.

Paris, Dec. 26.—According to reports sent out by the French consul in Amsterdam diamond cutters of that city are undergoing a severe crisis of their own as a direct result of the recent financial stringency in the United States. Amsterdam, which formerly had a monopoly of the diamond cutting trade, is still the most important centre of that business in the world. It employs ordinarily 9,500 expert men and women in this trade alone, not including the apprentices. Their salaries make a total of $5,000,000 a year. America, which had in recent years come to be Amsterdam's best market, disappeared from the books of the diamond merchants this year almost completely. Three of the largest establishments which worked exclusively for the American trade shut down last week, throwing over 800 men out of work. Other establishments are reducing their forces.

WHERE WOMEN VOTE.

WHAT THE NEW SUFFRAGE MOVEMENT HAS DONE IN AUSTRALIA.

London, December 26.—Apostrophe of the suffragette movement, several papers have been at pains to point out that the grant of woman's suffrage in certain States in Australia has been followed with disastrous results—the demoralization of political life no less than the demoralization of male voters themselves.

The papers voicing these sentiments have received communication from the Rev. W. A. Hobson, a Congregational minister, who has just returned from a journey through Australia. He declares that the women who vote there are not partisans, "but always make for a clear moral issue, and refuse to support any party which refuses to make pre-eminently not financial considerations, but national and civic morality."

"During the five years I resided in Queensland," the writer continues, "the women's vote decided the question of shop closing, and eight hours per day labor, with the result that the people do just as much shopping before 6 p.m.—as they do in England before 9 or 10 p.m., and the people, young and old, are free for healthy amusement and recreation. A further result is a minimum of crime and immorality."

Again, the Australian women recently supported a bill, which was carried, forbidding betting on the race course and everywhere else, also excluding betting tips from all newspapers.

Before this last measure Sydney and Melbourne who, with their tipsters and bookmakers, children received a holiday from school on race days, and the Government encouraging bettors through a Government-owned race track, the newspapers cleansed, and war to the knife is being pursued by the women against this evil, intemperance, and all social evils.

"I am a radical," the writer says in closing, "but I am astounded at the shortsightedness and folly which checks a true democratic movement. I say emphatically, give the women the vote."

CITY NEWS

Mr. Howard Riddle, of the E. T. Bank spent the holiday at his home in Danville.

Mrs. F. J. Campbell, of Windsor Mills, is visiting friends in town for the Xmas season.

Mrs. Clive Dobell from Toronto, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Bradford, Moore Street.

Mr. A. Worthington who is attending school at Port Hope, is spending his vacation, with Mrs. Worthington, and his grandfather, Mr. H. Cooks in Toronto.

Miss Ethel Kemper of the Sherbrooke High School, whose home is in New Carlisle, is spending the Xmas holidays, with Miss Jennie Moore, Moore Street.

The Christmas Club of St. Peter's Church, which receives contributions at the holiday season, and distributes to those in need, was very successful this year. Quantities of provisions and money to buy more were sent to the Church Hall, and many baskets, containing generous materials for a Christmas dinner brought comfort and hope to many a poor home. The charity is one much to be commended.

On Christmas eve the members of the Dorcas Branch of the W. A. of St. Peter's church, called on Rev. Canon and Mrs. Shreve, at the Rectory and were cordially received. Miss Mary Twose, the secretary of the Dorcas, then read a few words, expressive of the sincere regard of the members for Dr. and Mrs. Shreve and wishing them much happiness and prosperity in the future. Mrs. Bailey on behalf of the members, presented Mrs. Shreve with a handsome silver dish, which was suitably acknowledged by Dr. Shreve for his wife.

On Tuesday the Reformatory boys were treated to a grand Christmas dinner the wherefor which had been generously contributed by a number of interested friends. Mrs. Dalby Morkill who was largely instrumental in arranging the affair, was in charge and was assisted by Mrs. R. I. Dean, Miss Louise Morey and Miss Edna Harrington.

At the appointed hour, sixteen boys, then brightly with anticipation, sat down to the huge white-covered table, the two eldest lads being at the head and foot. The table was prettily decorated and at each place was a spray of holly and a bag of candy. The menu embraced roast turkey, ham, vegetables, bread, plum pudding, mince pie, fruit, and coffee, and was quite as well cooked and served as in many a free and happy home. The dinner was greatly enjoyed by the recipients and at its close there was literally nothing left. The Band of Hope of Westmont had sent a hamper containing presents, etc., for the Sherbrooke Reformatory boys, and others had been contributed, so after dinner, Mrs. Morkill presented each one with one or two gifts of books, pencils, etc., much to their happiness. Mr. and Mrs. Read looked in to admire the table and were very pleased to see the lads so happy at Christmas.

POLICE MAKE MISTAKE.

MAN EVIDENTLY STRUCK BY CAR. TAKEN TO POLICE STATION.

Toronto, December 26.—The death of J. A. Napp, at St. Michael's Hospital, at 7 o'clock yesterday morning will be the subject of an inquest. Napp was found on the corner of Church and Shuter streets Tuesday night, apparently struck by a street car. He was taken to St. Michael's Hospital, where it was reported merely as a case of drunk, so he was discharged from the hospital and taken to No. 2 police station. Early yesterday morning the sergeant on duty went to Napp's cell and found him bleeding at the ears and mouth. He was immediately hurried to the hospital again, where he died at 7 o'clock yesterday morning.

AN XMAS WINDFALL!

3,000 COMES TO NIAGARA FALLS MAN.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Dec. 26.—(Special)—A windfall of $12,000 is the Christmas luck which has befallen William Anderson, who runs a dime delivery business on First street.

In 1874 his mother, Margaret Anderson, died, leaving Anderson an orphan. She left $7,000 deposited in the bank to her son's credit, but the lad was too young to know anything about it, and his father, Harry C. Anderson, knew nothing of it either. For thirty-one years this money has been lying in the bank drawing interest, and it was only a few days ago that knowledge of it came to the elder Anderson. Anderson and his second wife at once hastened to the Falls to tell William the good news.

UNITED STATES IN DANGER.

THAT IS, COLONEL WOODBURY SAYS A FOREIGN FORCE COULD LAND ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

Seattle, Wn., December 26.—Colonel C. T. Woodbury, acting commander of the Department of the Columbia, U. S. A., in a statement yesterday, said that the whole Pacific Coast would be helpless in case the navy should prove unable to prevent the landing of a force of twenty thousand Japanese or other foreign army at any of the numerous unprotected bays along the coast. He said there are not two thousand regulars on the coast to resist an attack by land, while 15,000 infantrymen are needed.

DENVER'S NEW BOOM.

(From the Hartford Courant, Rep.) Denver will have the time of its life with the Democratic convention. The town has been bubbling over with hope and anxiety ever since its pulse was raised to secure the great attraction; and now that the preliminary difficulties have been overcome, and the goods secured, so to speak, Denver will not only comprehend its chance to make an impression, as against all towns not exhilarated by the Rocky Mountain air, but it will also apply all its Western energy and determination to making this chance good. If the Democratic hosts will only flock to the convention, Denver will do the rest, and do it brilliantly—there is not a doubt about it.

SPORTING NEWS.

FIRST HOCKEY MATCH OF SEASON.

Wanderer Intermediates Meet Sherbrooke at Minto Bank.

HOME TEAM WON BY HANDSOME SCORE OF 9 TO 4.

The exhibition match between Wanderer Intermediate and Sherbrooke came off yesterday afternoon, at Minto Bank, Lennoxville.

There was some confusion about the starting time, it being advertised both for three o'clock and 3.30.

From first to last the game was brimful of excitement. Indeed, it might have been a match for the championship so keenly did the players enter into the game.

The boys in blue had the measure of their opponents from the first, scoring in the first two minutes.

There were some penalized for slight infringements of the rules, but the play was very clean all through.

The final result was 9 to 4, in favor of Sherbrooke.

In the Montreal team, Newton, Russell and Witley were the most prominent. Newton, in particular, showed great speed and resource, and came away time and again when things looked bad for his side.

The Sherbrookes were a well balanced lot. H. Hyndman at cover point, played a dashing game, and had a big say in the result.

Sherbrookes were far more dangerous about goal than the Montrealers and snapped up every chance.

The line-up was as follows: Montreal. Sherbrooke. Wood, goal; Arguin, point; Wiggitt, Newton, c. point; F. Hyndman, Wood, forwards; Povey, Russell, Witley, backs; Atto, Baker, Ritchie, L. Hyndman, Referee—Mr. Claude Spafford.

TRIAL OF HARDEN.

RUMORS OF A POSSIBLE COMPROMISE—FRAU VON ELBE TESTIFIES. Berlin, Dec. 26—The trial of Maximilian Harden still continues, with the probability that it will last until after Christmas, owing to the large number of witnesses yet to be heard.

Several witnesses underwent cross-examination Saturday and Frau Von Elbe, the divorced wife of Count Kuno Von Moltke, occupied the stand for several hours, but the nature of her evidence was not divulged.

After adjournment Herr Harden suffered a severe attack of weakness and was hurried to his residence. He is now under the care of physicians.

The military court, which Emperor William, ordered, to try Counts Von Hohenhausen and Linar, will assemble at Potsdam about the middle of January.

The court will be presided over by the Emperor's adjutant, General Von Loewenfeld.

FROM DR. DAWSON'S DIARY. We passed, in the course of an hour, two dead cows and more than fifty dead chickens. A strong smell of casoleine pervaded the atmosphere and there were wheel tracks in the dust.

NOTICE. We are getting out at present, with our new machine, a good grade of Hardwood Flooring, backed with rubber. GUARANTEED TO FIT. Red and Mixed, as required. A. H. CUMMINGS & SON, LTD., Coaticook, Que.

MANY NEWCOMERS DEPORTED.

NEW IMMIGRATION POLICY IS MIGHTY STEAMSHIP COMPANIES HARB. Montreal, Dec. 26—That the recent decision of the Government to restrict immigration from Great Britain and European countries is putting Canadian steamship companies to considerable inconvenience is the complaint of local shipping men.

Mr. George Hannah, of Messrs. H. & A. Allan, stated on Saturday that over a hundred men had to be sent back to the old country recently for the reason that they had not the necessary fifty dollars in their pockets, or were not coming out to friends who could provide them with work.

Mr. Hannah said it seemed a shame to have to deport strong, able-bodied men who were of the very class desired in the past by the immigration authorities.

RAILWAY COLLISION AT CAMDEN

Three Persons Killed and Two Injured.

WRECKAGE TAKES FIRE BUT VICTIMS OF SMASH WERE RESCUED.

Camden, N. J., Dec. 27.—(Special.)—Three persons were killed and two injured in a rear end collision of Pennsylvania railway to-day. The accident was due to a thick fog.

The fire department of Pemberton was called into service. The fact that collision occurred on an elevated structure made the work of rescue difficult.

The fire was extinguished before it reached any of the victims pinned under the wreckage.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 27.—(Special.)—Dr. Joseph P. Penzen, who fell down stairs at his laboratory at Chicago striking his nose, the wound of which became infested with tetanus germs and who, on Christmas eve, diagnosed his own case after being stricken with lockjaw, died last night.

MURDER MYSTERY IN NEW JERSEY

Woman, Apparently Refined Found Dead in a Pond.

WATCHMAN SAW HER AFTER MIDNIGHT WITH A MAN, WHO, LATER RETURNED ALONE.

Newark, N.J., December 27.—A murder, combining the elements of mystery and deliberate cruelty that took it out of the ordinary, was committed on the Hackensack Meadow, in the town of Harrison, early yesterday and the nude body of the victim, a comely woman of perhaps 30 years nearly submerged in the icy waters of a little pond.

The dead woman was finely featured, her nails and hair gave evidence of a recent and scrupulous toilet, and such of her clothing as was found suggested in texture and style an owner of refinement rather than one whose habits might lead her to frequent the vicinity of the crime.

The body had not been identified last night, and it was pretty well established that it was not that of a resident of this city or Harrison. Its description does not correspond with that of any woman reported to the police as missing.

Two men who occupied a yacht moored near where the body was found are detained by the police, but the most important clue obtained was furnished last night by Peter Coogan, a watchman employed by the Marine Engine Company, who recognized the body as that of a woman whom he had seen crossing the Meadows in company with a man early yesterday.

Life had been extinct, the coroner said, about twelve hours, when the body was found. A mark of the neck indicated that strangulation was the manner of death. "Scratches" on the leg and trunk, and pieces of clothing forced into the flesh showed that the body had been dragged along a slender path which skirts the pond.

Following the path the police picked up a white silk waist, slashed up the back with a pair of silk garters.
