EGYPT REJECTS SURRENDER

Canada Among Six Countries To Offer Troops

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — (P) — Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld announced today that six countries have offered troops for an international United Nations police force to watch over a cease-fire in Egypt.

The six are Canada, Colombia, Denmark, Pakistan, Norway and Sweden.

In a report this morning to the General Assembly, Hammarskjöld added that other countries were considering participation in the Canadian-proposed force, and he believed "it should be possible to meet quickly at least the most basic need for personnel."

He estimated this at "a few units of battalion strength." Troops of the five "big power" members of the Security Council — the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain, France and Nationalist China — are barred from the force.

Hammarskjöld reported as the Assembly prepared for a new Russian move on the Middle East following Security Council refusal to support Moscow's proposal that the U. S. join the Soviet Union in aiding Egypt against Britain, France and Israel.

The U. S. rejected the Russian proposal as "unthinkable," chief delegate Henry Cabot Lodge telling the council it "would convert Egypt into a still larger battlefield."

Hammarskjöld is rounding up the prospective force under the Canadian resolution the Assembly passed Sunday in emergency session on the crisis touched off by military operations of Israel, Britain, and France against Egypt.

The Assembly asked him to submit a plan in 48 hours for a UN force "to secure and supervise the cessation of hostilities."

Hammarskjöld said the job of the force should be "when a cease-fire is being established, to enter Egyptian territory with the consent of the Egyptian government, in order to help maintain quiet during and after the withdrawal of non-Egyptian troops."

He said the force presumably would range over the area from the Suez Canal to the Egyptian

Israel armistice demarcation line.

Israel, however, has said she considers the armistice no longer in force and has given no indication that she will get out of the Sinai Peninsula which she has occupied.

The Assembly was expected to be called to meet later today to approve Hammarskjöld's report and consider a resolution on the setup of the force.

Hammarskjöld said that in his view the Assembly could not station the force on the territory of any country without the government's consent. But he added that this did not exclude the possibility that the Security Council could use such a force to carry out its decisions.

The international force, first proposed by External Affairs Minister Pearson, would be under the command of Maj.-Gen. E. L. M. Burns of Ottawa.

Pearson and other delegates favoring the force were obviously delighted that Monday night's scheduled General Assembly session was cancelled.

Assembly President Rudecindo Ortega of Chile called off the meeting because the Security Council meeting had gone past 10 p. m. and left little time for debate in the assembly.

Soon after the council session ended, Hammarskjöld and his advisers went to his office high in the UN secretariat building to get to work on drafting the plan.

At the security council meeting a Russian demand for the United States and the Soviet Union to intervene with force in the Middle East was rebuffed. The proposed Russian agenda was voted down 4 to 3, with four abstentions.

Britain, the United States, France and Australia voted against while China, Cuba, Belgium and Peru abstained. Russia, Yugoslavia and Iran favored adoption.

The proposal, Lodge said, would run counter to everything the General Assembly and Hammarskjöld have done to bring peace to the Middle East.

Grand Mufti Of Jordan Cries Battle

AMMAN, Jordan — (P) — The Grand Mufti of Jordan, Sheikh Abdullah Qalqili, issued an appeal today calling on every able-bodied Jordanian to join a holy war against Britain, France and Israel in aid of Egypt.

The mufti said "The legitimate right of self-defence obliges every Arab and Moslem throughout the world to co-operate in repulsing the aggression unleashed on Egypt."

As he spoke, Cairo Radio reported that Saudi Arabian troops have entered Jordan in support of Egypt.

Saudi Arabia, which has a common border with Jordan, is the centre of American oil interests in the Middle East.

Previously troops of Iraq and Syria have been reported in Jordan. But there has been no move as yet to open up an attack on Israel in support of Egypt.

Damascus Radio announced that Saudi Arabia is breaking diplomatic and other relations with Britain and France, and has banned the shipments of oil to Britain and France.

RUSSIA VOTES NO — As Russia's Arkady Sobolev (left) sits silently with arms folded, Britain's Sir Pierson Dixon (center) and the United States representative, Henry Cabot Lodge (right) vote in favor of a U.S. sponsored resolution calling for the immediate withdrawal of Soviet troops from Hungary during an unprecedented pre-dawn meeting of the United Nations Security Council in New York. With Yugoslavia abstaining, the Council voted 9-1 in favor of the resolution, only to have Russia veto the proposal.

Hungarian Resistance Waning Under Crushing Soviet Blows

VIENNA — (P) — Unconquered nationalist holdouts in Hungary hurled new words of defiance today at the Kremlin and said they were still fighting for freedom against heavy odds.

The Soviet command vowed that its troops in the bloodied, rebellious satellite — estimated at 200,000 — would annihilate the holdouts with "all the means at their disposal" unless they laid down their arms immediately.

The Red Army and its puppet Hungarian government used guns, pleas and threats in an attempt to smother the dying embers of rebellion. Most of Hungary appeared under the Kremlin's heel, but rebel pockets fought on today in isolated actions.

A weak, unidentified radio station, transmitting orders to the holdouts, reported continued heavy fighting this morning inside burning Budapest. It said Soviet tanks and artillery were shooting at the freedom fighters' ambulances.

Other rebels armed with hand weapons and home-made grenades were reported fighting against Soviet tanks for the uranium mines of Mecsek, near the Yugoslav border in the south.

Russia's massive assault to crush Hungary's new-found independence, begun three days ago just as the Hungarian people believed they had won a civil war, still provoked varying reaction throughout the world.

In the West, there were demonstrations against Russia and a move by West Germany to speed rearmament. More than 100,000 West Berliners shouted "down with the Russian rapers of Hungary" before the city's Soviet war memorial. West German students burned Communist signs marking the entrance to the east sector.

The World Council of Churches, which represents 165 Protestant and Orthodox denominations in 48 countries, said in a special message that "Christians throughout the world are profoundly shocked and sorrow-stricken at the tragic reversal" of Hungary's freedom bid.

Bulgaria today became the fifth Soviet satellite to warn that any attempt at revolt would be smashed with an iron fist. Its Red regime said that "hostile elements" had become active in that country, but that anyone who attempted to shake Soviet-Bulgarian friendship would be beaten down.

Communist leaders in the satellites exploited the British-French intervention in Egypt to offset anti-Communist ideas spreading in the wake of the Soviet moves against Hungary. Associated Press correspondent Hanns Neuberger was told by professed non-Communists during a 500-mile trip across Red-ruled Czechoslovakia that the Russians probably would not have dared to crush a popular uprising before the eyes of the world had England and France not acted in Egypt.

Poland, however, apparently was keeping up its drive to oust Kremlin influence, begun when national Communists took over the country's leadership three weeks ago. Thirty-two high-ranking Soviet officers were replaced by Poles in the army. Radio Warsaw said Poland soon would put "important people" on trial for Stalin-era purges.

Russia's Premier Bulganin answered President Eisenhower's demand for a withdrawal of Soviet troops from Hungary with a proposal that Russia and the United States join forces under United Nations to end the British-French-Israeli invasion of Egypt. It was taken for granted that the Russians would ignore the UN General Assembly's demand for Russian troops to cease their attacks in Hungary.

Telephone and telegraph communications between Hungary and the West have been cut since shortly after the Russian attack Sunday morning. But an incomplete picture of massive Soviet repression, economic chaos and guerrilla war is being pieced together from Communist radio announcements, reports of refugees and faint radio signals sent by the rebels.

At Pecs, in Southern Hungary, the Communist-controlled radio early today warned people to keep off the streets because rebels were shooting from roofs and windows. After an ultimatum demanding the rebels' surrender by 6 a.m. expired, the Pecs radio warned them to give up by 9 a.m. or face "extermination" by Soviet tanks.

During the night an insurgent station calling itself Radio Roka (the Fox) reported heavy fighting in Budapest's 8th district, a section in the southeast part of the capital that was a centre of fighting in the anti-Communist revolution only a little more than a week ago.

Radio Roka said: "The situation becomes more difficult by the hour. Only military help would save us. The entire Hungarian nation is asking for help... the people are digging trenches and making barricades."

Bulganin's Veiled Threat Fails To Deter Invasion

LONDON — (P) — British commando units swarmed ashore at Egypt's Port Said at dawn today as the two Western powers defied a Soviet demand for a cease-fire in the Middle East.

It was the first seaborne landing in the day-old British-French invasion of Egypt's Suez Canal Zone.

The British-French high command on Cyprus announced that fighting was renewed at the northern end of the Suez Canal after Allied terms for the surrender of Port Said, "accepted early Monday night, were later rejected by the Egyptians on orders from Cairo."

A later communique said the commando troops "are now all ashore and joining up with the allied forces which landed yesterday." It added that the commandos were sent into action "in view of the Egyptian repudiation of the surrender agreement."

An earlier announcement had said "No. 3 commando brigade is landing this morning to exploit British paratrooper operations in Port Said." It added that French paratroopers then had completed the capture of Port Said, across from Port Said on the east bank of the canal.

The French defence ministry in Paris said Port Said was completely occupied by 5 a.m. today.

The British-French invasion for control of the Suez Canal, launched Monday with the dropping of paratroopers around Port Said, continued despite sharp Soviet demands for an end to hostilities against Egypt.

In a rapid series of moves, Premier Bulganin called on President Eisenhower for joint United States-Russian action under the United Nations to bring a halt to the fighting.

Declaring that the fighting "contains the danger of turning into a third world war," Bulganin urged action "within hours."

The proposal for American-Soviet intervention drew a speedy rejection from the U.S. government as "unthinkable," and later the UN Security Council refused even to debate it.

Bulganin also sent notes to Prime Minister Eden and French Premier Guy Mollet warning grimly against further action against Egypt and saying Russia was determined to re-establish peace "by using force."

His messages included references to "more powerful states" and rocket warfare.

Here are the paragraphs from the message to Eden containing the rocket reference:

"In what position would Britain have found herself if she herself had been attacked by more powerful states possessing every kind of modern destructive weapon?"

"And there are countries now which need not have sent a navy or air force to the coasts of Britain, but could have used other means, such as rocket technique."

"If rocket weapons had been used against Britain and France, they would probably have called this a barbarous action."

"We hope at this critical moment you will display due prudence and draw the corresponding conclusions from this."

A note from Bulganin to Israel's Premier David Ben-Gurion also disclosed that Russia was recalling her ambassador from Tel Aviv.

Mollet met for four hours with his cabinet before dawn today, and a spokesman announced the operations in Egypt would continue. The French premier also planned to meet later today with Eden.

This morning's announcement of commando action came after hours of conflicting reports on the situation in the earlier canal fighting.

British-French paratrooper units who had dropped into the area reported an end to the fighting after little more than half a day's action. Later an allied communique said the Egyptian military and civil governor of Port Said had asked for a cease-fire and was talking over surrender terms with the British paratrooper commander.

Seal Mine With 26 Bodies

SPRINGHILL, N. S. — (CP) — The Cumberland Coal Company reluctantly prepared today to seal its gas-filled No. 4 Colliery as a safety measure and wives wept in anguish when they learned the bodies of 26 miners who perished below will not be brought up for at least two months.

The bodies of 11 other miners, surface workers and draggermen were recovered earlier in the four days of torturous rescue work which brought 88 miners to the surface alive from a mile underground after a violent explosion last Thursday.

Company spokesmen earlier said 13 bodies had been recovered but Monday they said two of these were still within the sealed mine.

Shortly after the names of the 26 men interred in the poisonous pit were released Monday, a woman cried wildly outside a company office, "they won't bring him up!"

A miner said the woman remained at the pithead waiting for her brother to be brought up. She wouldn't accept the news he was dead.

Harold Gordon, Dosco's coal chief, said Monday that air passages to the mine would be sealed. Further attempts to remove the bodies would increase the danger of another explosion and he said lives of other miners could not be jeopardized to recover the bodies. He realized that the feeling of relatives must be "indescribable."

Parliament Will Sit

Cabinet To Decide Type Of U.N. Force

OTTAWA — (P) — A special session of Parliament will be called within 10 days after the cabinet decides what troop contribution Canada will make to a United Nations Middle East police force, Prime Minister St. Laurent indicated Monday night.

He said Canada has not yet had any indication from Maj.-Gen. E. L. M. Burns of Ottawa, appointed by the UN as commander for the Middle East force, as to number and type of troops Canada may be asked to contribute.

Once this was known the cabinet would decide what Canadian troops would be sent. It would pass an order-in-council placing those troops on active service. Parliament then would be called into session.

Parliament, he told reporters following the fourth cabinet meeting in six days, would not be asked to approve the government's decision, but to allow use of the funds necessary to implement that decision.

He referred to the 1950 amendment of the Canadian Forces Act requiring that Parliament be called within 10 days of a cabinet decision to commit Canadian troops for a vote on the required funds.

Mr. St. Laurent said the government would of course resign if the money was not voted.

He said Monday night's cabinet meeting was called to get his colleagues' reaction to a confidential message he was sending to Sir Anthony Eden. The message was being sent, but he declined to disclose what it contained, or whether it was in reply to one received by the Canadian government from the British prime minister.

It was reported later, however, that the Canadian message was in reply to one received earlier from Britain. The report offered no further enlightenment on the contents of the message.

Mr. St. Laurent said he had seen a Moscow dispatch in which Soviet Premier Bulganin threatened Britain and France with force unless they withdrew their troops from Egypt. But "I didn't tremble in my shoes."

He said Canada will decide after it receives a request for troops from Gen. Burns what it will actually provide.

If a special Parliament session is called, he adds, he hopes it will be "very short." He believed the temper of the Canadian people was such that they would want the government to implement its decision as quickly as possible.

Egypt's Nasser Asks For Volunteer Aid

CAIRO — (P) — Egypt today appealed to the world for volunteers, arms and other help to aid her in driving the British, French and Israeli forces out.

A statement from the Egyptian government's public information office said the Egyptians were fighting the British-French forces in a battle of survival and honor, "not only for themselves and their country but equally for the civilized world."

"Egypt appeals for help by volunteers, arms or otherwise to all those who all over the world who care still for the dignity of man and the rule of law in international relations," the statement said.

President Nasser's regime promised a fight to the death, declaring:

"As long as aggression continues against Egypt on her territory and in defiance of the resolutions of the United Nations, Egypt shall go on fighting in all determination and with every shred of its being against the forces of evil and in behalf of decency and a life worth living."

"She needs your help."

Egypt's national news agency in a report from a correspondent in Port Said claimed that about 400 civilians were killed fighting the paratroopers who landed in the first invasion wave Monday. The correspondent said the populace rushed into battle shouting "long live Egypt" and "death to the enemy."

The report also claimed a heavy death toll in a village bombed by British and French planes.

Cairo today came under its seventh consecutive day of air raid alerts. Shortly after the warning sounded, heavy explosions could be heard east and north-east of the capital. An Egyptian military spokesman charged that despite British statements to the UN that air raids had stopped, "Cairo, Bilbeis and cities of the Canal Zone still are being subjected to heavy air attacks."

Dulles' Condition Said "Excellent" After Surgery

WASHINGTON — (P) — State Secretary Dulles was reported in "excellent" condition Monday in his recovery from surgery for the removal of an intestinal cancer. The state department said Dulles may return to his desk sooner than expected.

Early medical bulletins said Dulles, barring complications, could return to his state department duties in about six weeks.

Press officer Lincoln White said Monday:

"If the favorable recovery continues, and barring unforeseen complications, the secretary may be able to leave the hospital and with a normal period of convalescence, return to his duties sooner than previous estimates."

Ayles Dies On Scaffold

SAINT JOHN, N.B. — (P) — Clifford Edward Ayles, 26, was hanged at the St. John County jail late last night for the murder of Allison Graves, 47, a crippled ambulance driver who had been employed by the Saint John Tuberculosis Hospital.

Officials said the condemned man made no statement, maintained his normal composure and did not take a sedative. A priest accompanied him from the death cell and an attendant walked on each side of the young man.

Graves was stabbed repeatedly in an $11,150 holdup of hospital payroll funds and bonds. The hospital business manager, Harold W. Cunningham, 65, suffered a serious bullet wound in the neck.

Judge Dies During Trial

QUEBEC — (P) — Mr. Justice Arthur Gagne, 74, of Quebec City, collapsed and died today while hearing a case in the Quebec Court of Appeals.

The prominent judge, a native of Chicoutimi, and former law associate of Prime Minister St. Laurent, gave no apparent sign of being ill before collapsing.

Threat Of War Faces U.S. Voters In Today's Presidential Election

By GEORGE KITCHEN

WASHINGTON — (P) — The menace of war beyond the seas lay across the United States political scene today as the American people elected a president and a Congress to lead them in the uncertain months and years ahead.

An election-eve tirade from Moscow, raising the startling prospect that the inflammable Middle East might spark a third world war, heightened the drama, the tension and the suspense surrounding this 1956 presidential contest.

Except for wartime years, never has an American election been run off against so dismal an international background, with the two great U.S. allies—Britain and France—accused as aggressors in Egypt and the Soviet Union ruthlessly stamping out an independence movement in satellite Hungary.

Two big political prizes—the presidency and control of Congress—were placed before an estimated 60,000,000 voters today.

The presidential choice is between Dwight D. Eisenhower, the 66-year-old Republican president now seeking his second term, and Adlai E. Stevenson, 56, the Democratic presidential nominee who lost out to the popular Eisenhower in 1952 and now is trying again.

Control of Congress has rested, until this election day, with the Democrats, who hold a 49-to-47 majority in the Senate and a 232-to-203 margin in the House of Representatives. Four years ago Congress went to the Republicans along with the White House. In the off-year 1952 elections, it swung back to the Democrats.

The big issue of this election, its ramifications sharpened and defined by the sudden Middle East fighting and the Soviet onslaught on Hungary, is the Eisenhower administration's conduct of American foreign policy.

The swiftly-moving events in the Mediterranean and Central Europe touched off a brisk Democratic attack on the administration's handling of foreign affairs. The politicians were buttressed, particularly on the Middle East issue, by a spate of newspaper comment blaming the crisis there on the vacillations of U.S. foreign policy.

As the campaign closed down, Russia's Premier Bulganin provided an ominous note by proposing that the U.S. and the Soviet Union jointly put down the Anglo-French invasion of Egypt, warning that the fighting there "contains the danger of turning into a third world war."

And there was an even more ominous note in Bulganin's messages to Britain and France warning them to get out of Egypt. It mentioned rocket weapons—a subject with which Americans as members of a major atomic power have long been all too familiar.

The White House quickly labelled the Bulgarian suggestion for joint military intervention as "unthinkable."

Meanwhile, both Republicans and Democrats found in the developments abroad new arguments for the election of their candidates.

The Republicans offered Eisenhower as a man whose military experience and stature in world councils equips him, they said, to head off the tragedy of another world conflict.

The Democrats, as Stevenson put it, believe the United States needs a new president "because our friends and allies no longer trust our leadership." The president, he said, "seems to be isolated, uninformed and interested only intermittently."

In his final campaign broadcast from Boston Monday night, Stevenson raised afresh the question of the president's health and said a Republican victory would mean that control

from Formosa

Chinese Nationalists have a new twist in their psychological warfare. They are dropping from the air "silver" dollars that turn out to be aluminum discs urging mainland Chinese to join the Formosa forces.

While this money was phoney, the 1 aluminum coins are widely used — in France and Italy, for instance. A fraction the weight of other metals, and perennially bright and shiny, aluminum pays off in small change. It also pays off for Canada, as an industry that converts raw materials and waterpower into purchasing power in the world markets.

"We Performed A Miracle"

Print Shop Disclaims Connection With Baby Picture Magazine

Roberval Martineau, owner of Bel-Air Printing Reg'd., of Windsor Mills, told The Record today that he had no connection with Hollywood Photo Magazine other than having contracted to print it.

"As long as the magazine is not proven illegal, we will continue to print it," he said. "That is the only way we're involved and I would like that made clear."

As for the quality of the printing done for the magazine, Mr. Martineau said that he wished the writer of Saturday's story in The Record had seen the pictures they started with.

"Instead of criticizing the engraving and printing, he would have thought we performed a miracle," he said.

It was learned that Bel-Air Printing dealt with a man who made all payments on behalf of the magazine in cash.

For Hollywood Photo Magazine, the Windsor Mills shop ran off form letters and envelopes, as well as printing the magazine. The Sherbrooke Record job printing department set type for the magazine in job lots, without realizing to what use it was being put.

It was also learned that the engraving for the magazine was done by Audet Photo Engraving of Quebec City.

All material, except the front page of the magazine, was set in French.

Four issues of Hollywood Photo Magazine have come off the press and another is imminent. It began in June and has been published monthly since then.

Meanwhile, there was no indication of what scope the investigation by the Attorney-General's Office would take. An Attorney-General's office spokesman announced last Saturday that an investigation was being carried out at the request of "Sherbrooke authorities."

Sherbrooke Chief of Police, Edouard Moreau, said he had not asked for the investigation, though some weeks ago he had mentioned the publication to Crown Attorney Dugre. He declined to comment on the story.

published in the Record, whose own investigation is believed now to have sparked the probe by the Attorney-General.

The Record carried a full story of the magazine's activities Saturday in the belief that it was operating against the public interest and that it was taking advantage of the natural pride that parents hold in their children.

In its advertising and promotion material, the magazine's editor suggested that great rewards were attainable by the publishing of a child's picture in Hollywood Photo Magazine. A $10 fee was charged to cover "expenses" and it was estimated that the gross revenue from one issue amounted to about $3,700 and net profit in the neighborhood of $3,000.

The magazine listed the Sherbrooke Post Office as its headquarters. There is no evidence that the magazine was ever registered, as required by law. No office, except the Post Office box, can be found and no Ray B. Roberts, who signs himself as the editor, can be located.

Injuries Prove Fatal To Ascot Corner Youngster

Robert Jutras, 10-year-old Ascot Road boy, died last night in Hotel Dieu Hospital, where he was taken yesterday morning after being struck by a truck near his home.

The son of Lionel Jutras, a truck driver for F&B and Fils, Robert was on his way to school around nine o'clock yesterday morning when he was hit by another F&B truck, driven by Philippe Godbout, 263 Oliver Street, Sherbrooke.

The boy was with four or five other youngsters, two of whom were his brothers when the accident happened a few hundred feet from the school yard. The children apparently scattered when they saw the approaching truck but the Jutras boy darted into its path.

He was rushed to Hotel Dieu by Monette Ambulance, where he remained unconscious, suffering from head injuries and possible other broken bones.

Robert was one of six children. He was in the first grade at school.

An inquest will be conducted by Dr. Louis Gagnon tonight at eight o'clock.

Local Tire Shop Suffers Slight Damage In Blaze

Local firemen extinguished a small blaze in the Marquis Tire Shop, Wellington St. So. early today.

Lt. L. P. Harton rushed to the scene with four trucks at 5:20 this morning after a call had been put in by the store watchman. Flames had originated in the boiler room where an overheated pipe set fire to the ceiling.

Within five minutes after arrival of the fire department, the blaze was under control and only minor damage was caused to the building and stock by smoke and water.

Youths Plead Guilty To Car, Household Thefts

Two youths who made a hobby of crime after their regular working hours pleaded guilty to five charges of breaking-in and stealing and another count of stealing a car when they appeared before Judge Redmond Hayes in chambers yesterday morning. They were remanded for sentence next week.

The two were arrested earlier yesterday morning by local police after joy-riding through the city streets in a stolen station wagon.

Robert Bazinet, 20, and Gerard Noel, 19, of 128 King St. West, Apt. 4, pleaded guilty to stealing a station wagon from A. W. Timmouth, as well as to breaking into his house and stealing $90

Plague Of Rats Hits City Dump

East Sherbrooke residents living near the City garbage burial ground are facing an "invasion" of rats according to some city officials. This influx of rats around the dump is nothing new, because a similar situation arose when the dump was located on the Brompton road in the North Ward.

At last night's council meeting, city fathers ordered immediate action to remedy the situation, first by exterminating rats in and around the city dump and then making a house-to-house effort to chase them out.

Mayer Nadeau pointed out that rats at this time of the year were house-hunting, looking for a place to pass the winter months. Several complaints had been received, he stated, and if the city did not take immediate action they would have to suffer the consequences.

The Council also received notice that the Bell Telephone would apply for a rate classification change for Sherbrooke in the near future. The application will be heard before the Board of Transport Commissioners and in all probability the City will oppose the telephone company's application.

The principle of passing loan by-laws without a referendum was opposed by Council at the request of the League of Proprietors, who asked that a resolution to this effect be passed. The aldermen felt that it would be denying a fundamental right to the citizens and taxpayers if loan by-laws were approved only by Council because they were in effect spending the ratepayers' money.

worth of apparel and household articles.

They also faced three other charges of breaking into houses owned by J. G. Lacroix, Florian Desjardins and Alphonse Cote and stealing various items of clothing valued at $125.

Willy Binette of Compton, was fined a total of $150 and costs with a six month interdiction against driving his machine for impaired driving and driving without a current operator's permit.

Saturday, Judge Hayes fined Donald Whitehead, of St. Catharines, Ont., $100 and costs with a possible 15-day imprisonment in default of payment and ordered a three-month suspension of his operator's license for impaired driving.

Anada Roy, of Magog, received the same fine but with a six-month suspension of his driver's permit on a count of criminal negligence while driving.

Parking Ban Now Effective Saturday P.M.

Sherbrooke motorists are reminded that there is no more free parking Saturday afternoon on the city streets or in parking grounds equipped with meters.

Following a resolution by the City Council two weeks ago, Saturday paying hours were extended to six o'clock at night. Previously, motorists were required to pay only until noon.

Other days will remain the same, when payment is required from eight to six on weekdays, and from eight to ten p.m. on Fridays, Sundays and holidays parking is free.

Lions Receive Fine Reports On District Rally

An account of the recent visit to the Lions Club of St. Johns, Que., when the guest of honor was the first vice-president of Lions International, Edward G. Barry, highlighted the weekly meeting of Sherbrooke Lions Club last night.

Jean Louis Gauthier gave a detailed and interesting report in French of the function held in the Clubhouse of the St. Johns' Golf Club. Past president Dr. Georges Saine presented the same report in English. Among the club members who attended the session were President Frank Patafie, Jos. Begin, J. L. Gauthier, Dr. Saine, Dr. O. Noel and G. Villeneuve.

Plans for the forthcoming inter-club meeting were begun as well as for the Sherry Party to be held in the near future. Head table guests at the meeting were President Patafie, G. Villeneuve, Rene Robert, D. Dion and P. Courchesne.

Local Delegates To Conservative Congress Named

Maurice Allard, Tony Pinard and Arthur Lawson last night were chosen as Sherbrooke delegates to the National Convention of the Progressive Conservative Party to be held in Ottawa in mid-December.

Chosen as alternate delegates were Adolphe Besre, Camille Messara and Amedee Roy.

The meeting was chaired by Guy Crepeau, with Claude Badau, secretary. Henri Crepeau represented provincial organizer, Leon Balcer.

Mrs. Cora Austin, Maple Leaf, Recalls Active Life

By BETTY BRADSHAW

Maple Leaf— "The last" old settler in the neighborhood, as she describes herself, celebrated her 91st birthday here yesterday with a special word for the "younger generation."

Busily occupied with her knitting, Mrs. Cora Austin took time out to explain why she felt she had lived so well and so long.

"If I had sat back and folded my hands, I certainly wouldn't have lived this long," she said. "For it's my idea that a lot of hard work can keep you going for a good many years."

And Mrs. Austin ought to know, for even though she's going into her 92nd year, she looks after a 16-room farmhouse, does all the cooking and sewing for herself and her hired man and manages to take part in a great deal of the community life.

For a woman who has never had a broken bone in her body, and has never needed a doctor, she claims she has never felt better in her life. Her senses are remarkably keen and although she has worn glasses for 30 years, "I can still see to thread a needle without their help."

Mrs. Austin loves to knit, quilt and hook rugs. In the past year she has made over 100 pairs of men's socks, which have gone all over the world. An excellent cook, she still does a lot of cooking for her neighbors.

She sleeps in the room where she was born, having lived in the same house her entire life. The home, a large, rambling white farm house, a mile from Maple Leaf cemetery, was built by her father, Russel Sunbury in 1864.

Mr. Sunbury and his wife, Sally Fallon, were some of the first settlers in the district and came there over a century ago. They had three daughters, Kate, Ella and Cora, the "baby of the family." Kate later married Charles Planché, while Ella married Gerry Young. Both moved to the States where they have since died.

Cora remained in Maple Leaf later returned to work on the farm. She attended school and farm. Seventy-one years ago last

Ninety-One Yesterday — Mrs. Cora Austin of Maple Leaf reads some of the many congratulatory cards received yesterday on the occasion of her 91st birthday. The last old settler in the neighborhood, Mrs. Austin is the wife of the late Byron Austin and the daughter of Russel Sunbury, who moved to Maple Leaf over a century ago. (Photo by Gerry Lemay)

April she was married to Byron Austin, who had come to Maple Leaf as a boy at the time of the Fenian Raids.

Mrs. Austin had no children and her husband died 22 years ago. The sole direct surviving relatives is one nephew, Russel Planché, of Delmar, California.

Mrs. Austin's father died 41 years ago. At that time Cora and her husband took over the farm and upon her husband's death, Mrs. Austin carried on the farm until last spring, when she sold all the stock.

Eighty-two years ago, Mr. Sunbury took a five-year-old boy to live with his family. Now 87 years old, Frank King still lives in the old homestead where he has acted as hired man from the time he was a youngster.

Both Mrs. Austin and Mr. King agree that they hated to grow old, but that it was "a wonderful thing when you can live to be old and still have all your faculties."

"I hope I never get to the stage where I have to stop working," said Mrs. Austin, "but like everything else, I'm afraid that's not in my hands."

But when we left her yesterday and wished her many more birthdays, the grand old lady cheerfully said, "Who knows, you may have to come at here for birthdays for several years yet to come." And judging from Mrs. Austin's health and actions on her 91st birthday, we wouldn't be at all surprised.

Drinking And Driving Bring Jail Sentence

As a second offender, Oscar Jean, Weedon, was sentenced to 14 days in jail for impaired driving by Judge Richard Crepeau in Municipal Court yesterday morning. The offense occurred within the city limits on Oct. 27 last. Jean was also ordered to pay the costs or spend an additional week in jail. His licence was cancelled for six months.

A Sherbrooke resident, Robert Thibault, was fined $75 and costs for driving while his faculties were impaired. In default he will face a one month jail term. His licence was also suspended for six months.

Further Gain In Collections For Customs, Excise

Collections at the Customs and Excise port of Sherbrooke, Department of National Revenue, resumed their upward surge in October, according to figures released today by L. W. Greenland, collector in charge.

Total revenues for the past month amounted to $392,981.49, a jump of $79,778.61 over the receipts of $313,202.88 in October 1955. This brings the cumulative collections for the first seven months of the fiscal year to $2,127,411.10, an increase of $185,064.66 over the revenues for the same period of 1955 when the income totalled $1,942,345.44. All classes of collections showed an increase last month when compared with a year ago. Customs import duties rose from $100,358.15 to $117,910.24; excise taxes, from $212,535.78 to $274,670.62; excise duties from $222.75 to $284.63 and sundry collections from $86.20 to $116.

Fine Recital Presented By Washington Quartet

The rhythmic, spirited Negro folk songs highlighted last evening's concert given by the House of Harmony Quartet in Trinity Church under the auspices of Trinity Church Choir.

Since its last appearance here a few years ago, the Quartet has changed all but one member, its leader and manager, Emanuel Mansfield. It now includes five men: Mr. Mansfield, his son, Charles Mansfield, William Ayers, J. Hamilton Payne and Kenneth Rich, who also acts as accompanist.

While three of the group displayed their talents in individual numbers, it was evident that group work was their strongest feature and particularly their unaccompanied traditional melodies.

The familiar Negro Spirituals, Ezekiel Saw De Wheel, Swing Low Sweet Chariot, Little David, Were You There, and ones not so familiar, Climbin' Up De Mountain Children, Peter On The Sea and Let Us Break Bread Together, were a joy to hear. They were sung with the sureness that comes from a natural feeling for the music and a love of inherited tradition.

The same could be said for their rendition of the Negro work song, Po' Ole Laz'rus (J. Work), Deep River, the harmonious Good-Bye (Tosti-Parks) and a sprightly little number called The Shadow March (R. Prothro).

Emanuel Mansfield, the group's director, gave a varied selection of songs in four different languages which allowed full scope for his clear tenor voice. His choice included Alma Del Core (Antonis Caldera), La Reve de Des Gueux from Manon (Massenet), Wohin (Fraz Schubert), and Dancers Come Up, a South African song, (Wendt).

The bass singer, J. Hamilton Payne rendered the old familiar Asleep In The Deep as a solo number, while the versatile Kenneth Rich gave two piano selections, Canadian Sunset (Heywood), and the First Movement from Beethoven's Moonlight Sonata as well as an interesting reading of J. Weldon Johnson's, The Creation.

Mr. Robitaille is survived by his wife, the former Annie Bois-lard, a son, Michel, and daughter, Claudette, his mother, Mrs. Elie Robitaille, of North Hatley; two brothers, Eugene, of Oshawa, Ont., and Normand, Montreal, and three sisters, Mrs. William Young, (Esther) of Beebe, Mrs. Bernard Enright (Isabelle) North Hatley and Mrs. Wilfrid Bonnevillie, (Aileen) of Granby.

A Grandstand Play

When bigger and better international grandstand plays are made, the Russians will no doubt make them.

In the midst of Russia's smashing the Hungarian revolt for freedom, Mr. Bulganin has the audacity to suggest that Russia and the United States send a combined force to bring peace to the Middle East.

This is, indeed, Audacity with a capital A.

There seems to be no question that the Russians, even without United States aid, are capable of crushing the entire Middle East, if this can be interpreted as "bringing peace." The Soviets have already shown themselves quite capable of "bringing peace" to Hungary.

While there is still considerable doubt of the propriety of British and French intervention in the Egyptian-Israeli struggle, its comparison with Russia's smash into Hungary seemed very well put by a news commentator during the weekend.

"The British and French attack was against a country, the Russian attack was against people," was the way he summed the difference.

If the British and French action in Suez lies heavily in the international stomach, how much harder it is to swallow the Soviet explanation of their aggression in Hungary!

That the United States would join Russia in any combined military action seems impossible. That the U.S. would join the Soviet Union in an attack on British and French forces is absolutely inconceivable and the Soviet Union is as fully aware of this as is anybody else.

At first glance, the willingness of Russia to take positive action in the Middle East might come as a severe shock to Western observers. But, the bravado is easy for one who is certain that his bluff won't be called.

Every Citizen's Duty

The annual Poppy campaign being carried out by Canadian Legion branches across Canada this week gives every Canadian an opportunity to show in a very small way his appreciation for the sacrifices made by thousands upon thousands of his fellow citizens during two world wars.

By wearing a poppy on Remembrance Day, you not only honor the 100,000 Canadians who died in these two mighty struggles to preserve liberty and decency in the world, but you help the living by fighting human misery among the disabled veterans and their dependents. The money you donate to the Legion's poppy fund brings the necessities of life to these people.

Many of them may have pensions, but no pension covers such emergencies as family illness, medical bills or a fire. Your donations mean that help will be available quickly when disaster strikes and the greater your generosity, the more effectively can this work be carried out.

Poppy day honors the men who fought and died, the men who fought and lived in order that captives might be freed and the world know the joy of peace and our own land grow in strength of heart and mind and hand and purpose for the sake of all children of men.

We in our day cannot put the final value upon what other men have done to make the land in which we live. But, undoubtedly, the years will prove that the men whom we honor are in the great succession of martyrs who died for their faith and ours. Certainly by agonies heroically endured they did more than any others to build this nation.

If our country like other countries, did not quickly become a land fit for heroes to live in, it was not the fault of the heroes. If greed and hate continued to flourish in the world, if eyes grew dim or would not see, if hands grew weak and hearts hard, it is because we were not worthy of the dead men whom we salute, of the crippled men whose handiwork we shall wear, of the brave men who survive and ask us to help them to help their comrades. They never doubted the cause for which they fought, they do not doubt the cause for which their sons fought.

Therefore, when you pin a poppy on your coat or when you place a wreath at your cenotaph, think of the men whom these things commemorate. Think of the magnitude of their deeds, and, as your look around this community, think of those who are left behind.

The Canadian Legion is dedicated to helping these people. It does so through the poppy fund. The heart of the Legion is in the poppy. Where is your heart?

THE MARSHAL WHO FAILED

(Ottawa Journal)
Marshal Konstantin Rokossovsky, target of Polish anger, must feel it was all for love and nothing for reward. Defence minister of Poland he has been for seven years and a faithful servant of the Kremlin. Now the Poles hate him for being a Pole who served Russia and betrayed them; the Kremlin suspects him because he did not keep order in Poland.

Look at his life: Born at Warsaw, he went to Russia, fought in the revolution and claimed Soviet citizenship, not the sort of claim patriotic Poles admire. He took Polish citizenship back, conveniently, when Russia installed him as defence chief in Poland in 1949.

Between the revolution and his return to Poland he had an up-and-down career. He did well in the Russian army but from 1937 to 1940 he was a political prisoner in Siberia, having caught the baleful eye of Stalin. But the old dictator remembered this handy Pole when Hitler marched into Poland, and Rokossovsky emerged from prison camp to be made a major general. Later he did well in fighting the Nazi invaders in Russia.

When the Polish underground rose against the Nazis in Warsaw, Rokossovsky held back the Russian forces at the edge of the city and saw the patriots who had expected his help wiped out. All this Rokossovsky did and more, and now, if his Moscow masters please, he will be the sacrificial lamb.

POSSIBLE BENEFIT

(Ft. William Times-Journal)
One valuable benefit that could be derived from the present unpleasant mess in the Middle East is a revamping of United Nations power to enforce the will of the majority of United Nations members. Only in this way will the by-passing of United Nations be halted.

STRANGE BEDFELLOWS

GYPSIES AND POLICE

(Milwaukee Journal)

—The life of a gypsy has much to commend it—but, as is true of so many things, not in Russia.

The Russian Communist Government has ordered all gypsies to give up their nomadic life and go to work. They'll be given jobs by the police. We don't like doing the Communists any favors, but they'd be wise to keep the police and gypsies apart. The last policeman we knew who had anything to do with gypsies was a police chief in a small Wisconsin town. He looked up some gypsies to recover $10 his wife had given them for telling her fortune. He got the money all right, and drove the gypsies from town.

It wasn't until that night that he found his pocket had been picked of the $10 and his wallet.

VARIATIONS IN FINES

(Edmonton Journal)

—The Edmonton Safety Council has performed a useful service by checking on fines imposed for "impaired" and careless driving in Edmonton and in Calgary. Its survey was based on news reports and covered the past three months. Large differences appear. In Edmonton, the average fine for "impaired" driving was $9; in Calgary, $144.

SIMPLE PLAY SETS

CONTRACT

West can defeat the contract in today's hand by a very simple play. An expert would make this play in his sleep, which shows how easy it is once the situation is recognized.

West opened the three of trick with his ace of spades! South must go after the clubs, and East will win a trick with his king. When East returns his remaining spade, West can take the ace of spades and then continue with two more established spades. The contract is thus defeated with four spade tricks and the king of clubs.

How does West know that he should refuse the second spade trick? His partner, East, is supposed to lead back his highest spade in this situation. East has led back the nine of spades, thus indicating that South must still hold the queen and jack. This gives West the whole picture, and he can play the hand as though all the cards were face up on the table.

Confederation Life Offers Increased Protection on Expanded Plan

To give greater protection against the results of Canada's alarming accident rate, Confederation Life has now greatly expanded its Accidental Death and Dismemberment benefit.

FOR EXAMPLE:

A man aged 30 pays only an extra $2 per $1,000 of his regular life policy and receives this protection from his policy:

- 1 Double face value in case of accidental death.
- 2 Triple face value in the case of accidental death while a fare-paying passenger in a licensed bus or taxi, streetcar, train, ship or commercial aircraft, or due to a fire in a hotel, theatre, school or government building.
- 3 Generous payments for accidents resulting in the loss of limbs, eyes, fingers and thumbs.

You are thinking of protection for your family when you buy life insurance. But because you can only afford so much, they may be in hardship if you die accidentally at an early age. Be sure to protect them completely by including this inexpensive clause in your next Confederation Life Policy.

This move of increasing the protection against accidental death and dismemberment is another leading step pioneered by Confederation Life.

Rotary Party At Haskell Opera House

Hallowe'en At The Border

On the night of nights at the Border towns, soon after dusk funny little miniatures appeared on the streets and were seen rushing from house to house asking for "Charity please."

These little folk were cowboys, skeletons, witches (without the brooms), dainty but shy little fairies, Red Riding Hood, Cinderella and many others. They were each and all welcomed at the homes they visited and all received treats of apples, nuts, candies and pennies.

In Derby Line the little folk thought of other children who would not be receiving Hallowe'en treats as they asked for contributions for U. N. I. C. E. F. which will be used to buy milk and other necessary foods for children in far off lands.

About seven o'clock, all the little people from every direction headed for the Haskell Opera House, where they were guests of the Boundary Rotary Club, who had prepared a fine program and treats. Later they returned to their homes, tired but happy for this was their night, and it had been a good one for all.

The police had a quiet night.

Medical Mission Going To India

OTTAWA. — A Canadian medical mission headed by Dr. Wilder Penfield, director of the Montreal Neurological Institute, will make a three-month visit to India about the end of this year as part of Canada's Colombo Plan contribution.

A joint announcement Monday by the departments of health and external affairs said the mission will give lectures and clinical demonstrations and discuss professional training in the Indian medical colleges.

As there seemed to be no one out bent on mischief. But store windows came in for soaping and on Thursday morning everyone was out in the mild weather giving their windows a cleaning. It is also understood one West Park resident will have to replant part of a cedar hedge destroyed during the night.

New Telephone Numbering For Bromptonville

As of early next summer, the word "Victor" will have an entirely new meaning in Bromptonville and will become one of the most frequently used in the vocabulary to local residents.

J. L. Beauchemin, Bell Telephone manager for this region, announced today that the name "Victor 6" has been selected to identify the dial telephone exchange which will serve this community and that all telephone numbers will be changed to incorporate the prefix "Victor 6" and four figures.

Adoption of this new numbering plan will fit Bromptonville telephone numbers into a uniform numbering system which is becoming standard throughout Canada and the United States. It is part of a continent-wide plan designed to enable long distance operators, using a new type of equipment, to dial straight through to telephones in distant centres without the aid of other operators.

Mr. Beauchemin also urged businessmen to keep the coming number change in mind when ordering new supplies of stationery or other articles bearing their telephone number.

The destroyer escort is senior ship of the Canadian First Escort Squadron, currently on a training cruise to England, Ireland, France, Portugal and the Azores. The squadron will return to Halifax late this month. (National Defence Photo)

St. Jean Baptiste Society To Aid Civic Library

The Sherbrooke St. Jean Baptiste Society has agreed to become "actively interested" in the municipal library project, it was announced by the society's president, Gerard Turcotte.

Mr. Turcotte made the statement following Mayor Armand Nadeau's remarks at the closing banquet of a book exhibition held in the University of Sherbrooke that the Society was in a good position to work from the sidelines of this project because of its present role in the social and cultural spheres.

The mayor said that the City of Sherbrooke was devoted to the library cause but that the city council was already busy with a number of other problems.

Further, he said that the St. Jean Baptiste Society would have a fine ground to cover when working for the development of the Sherbrooke library. The city, he added, has already bought the real estate.

"If we see the St. Jean Baptiste Society giving us a hand with the founding of our library," the mayor said, "it is not because the Council is occupied by administering a budget for the third largest city in the province of Quebec, although it is one reason, but because the St. Jean Baptiste Society has shown a willingness to help us in this way. Why should the city council ignore so precious an initiative and so precious a willingness?"

"He said that he did not want to belittle the work of the library committee but that he thought that the St. Jean Baptiste Society is in a good position to lend ideas and create a beneficial atmosphere. The municipal library committee must do its part but it will need the support of an organization such as the Society, not only to carry out its ideas but also its work."

"So your Society," he said, "is in a good position to understand the spirit which prevails in the work of the municipal committee and this is what we ask of you: 'To have you, and this committee, as the propagandists of this great project of a municipal library and its complete realization.'"

Beebe Lady Feted By Friends On 76th Birthday

BEEBE—Mrs. Aime Carbonneau was pleasantly surprised when upon the occasion of her 76th birthday, twenty five friends, neighbours and relatives visited her at her home to wish her many happy returns of the day.

Although having suffered the loss of her legs, this remarkable lady is always smiling and cheery and continues to do her own cooking and most of her housework. Her hands are seldom idle and many lovely pieces of her fancywork are seen at bridal showers, pink and blue showers and on the sale tables of her church, Wesley United.

Mrs. Carbonneau received many lovely gifts and cards and Mrs. Roland Sheldon and Mrs. Arthur Henderson each presented her with a decorated birthday cake.

The delightful occasion was arranged by Mrs. Roland Sheldon and Mrs. G. W. Buckland. Mrs. Elmore Moss and Mrs. Albert Wilson assisted with the refreshments.

BABY SHOWER

Mrs. William Rollins Jr. and Mrs. Henry Rollins were hostesses at a "Pink and Blue" shower at the former's home in honor of Mrs. Winifred Rollins.

Committees Named At Busy Session Of Thetford Mines Home And School

THETFORD MINES — The Home and School Association held its first meeting of the fall season with a good attendance of interested parents. W. W. Oughtred chaired the meeting and Mrs. Ian Campbell read the minutes of the June meeting.

Following the minutes, the executive then proceeded to put before the general membership the seven-point program previously suggested by J. G. M. Mooney and passed by the executive.

Mrs. G. S. A. Brink made a report on the School Requirements Study Committee which she headed and was pleased to announce that all of those she had contacted for work on the various sub-committees had expressed their willingness to do so.

The following committees were set up: Building, G. H. Gibbs and S. P. Ogryzlo; lunchroom facilities, Mrs. D. McCann and Mrs. F. Kuyt; teacher recruitment, Mrs. G. W. Moad and Mrs. S. P. Ogryzlo; library, Mrs. G. W. Riley and Mrs. Lorne Taylor; kindergarten committee, Mrs. A.

W. G. Gibb and Mrs. C. G. Bourne; sports committee, Mrs. F. C. Cunningham and Jack McCammon; transportation, Mrs. W. Hoogendyk; safety committee, John Smith; vocational guidance, Ian Campbell.

Principal S. L. Hodge was called upon in a number of cases to acquaint the parents with what already was being done along some of the committee lines and Inspector G. R. Lessard, who was also present, was similarly helpful on questions directly concerning the Quebec school system in general. Mr. Hodge was given a vote of confidence for the steps he has already taken to safeguard the school children not only to and from school but during class hours. It is noted that safety measures are of particular importance to parents in Thetford Mines due to the fact that the school is so close to the mine and blasting occurs at noon and 4 p.m. each day.

It was made more and more evident during the meeting that all the reports of the new committees will hinge, either directly or indirectly on whether or not a new school can be built. The need for a new school is evident both from the standpoint of space (if the school population increases as it is expected to in the next few years — chiefly due to the new mines — accommodation for classrooms will have to be found outside of the present school) and from the standpoint of safety, which with the mine operations steadily widening in scope becomes increasingly vital. The other problems, lunch room facilities, kindergarten, sports and so forth, can only properly be taken care of with more room and the more modern facilities that a new school would naturally provide.

Date for the next Home and School meeting was set for November 27th at which meeting reports from each of the committees will be brought before the general membership.

Lunch was served by Mrs. R. W. Little, Mrs. A. Hollett and Mrs. D. Hodapp.

TEA AND SALE

The United Church W. A. — W. M. S. held their bazaar and chicken patty tea in a ghost and goblin atmosphere in keeping with the Hallowe'en season. Regardless of their Hallowe'en motif however, there was no

"trick" to the "treats" displayed at the well attended chicken patty tea. Both children and adults attested to their enjoyment of the food provided and well over 200 guests were served by the busy waitresses, Mrs. W. Petrie and Mrs. F. Little poured tea and Dorothy Daigneau and Mrs. W. Haddow acted as hostesses. Mrs. W. Hoogendyk, president of the W. A. — W. M. S. welcomed the guests at the door.

Proceeds from the bazaar came to well over $600 and there remained little unsold on any of the tables. Those in charge of the various tables were: Food table, Phyllis Hacker, Mrs. Kennedy, Rita Nakash, Mrs. Hall and Rose Antio; handicraft table, Mrs. P. L. Daigneau; knitting table, Mrs. C. Hacker; surprise table, Mrs. Miles; jellies and jams, Mrs. Houle and fish pond, Mrs. B. Mathers and Mrs. K. McAllister.

Food convener for the tea was Mrs. E. W. Reid, assisted by Mrs. A. Kinnear, Mrs. J. Kinnear and Mrs. H. McIlarg.

The president of the W. A. — W. M. S. thanked the ladies who helped and in particular those, who although not at present actual members of the Church, were kind enough to offer their services in helping to make the bazaar a success.

Telephone Round-up

Every parent knows how easily a two-gun cowboy can lose track of time — especially around mealtime.

But she also knows it's a simple matter to round him up by telephone. And any vague feeling of anxiety about where he is or what he is doing is quickly dispelled by that eager voice at the other end of the line.

Yes, the telephone is a convenience and a comfort, all day long. It means fewer meals grown cold because youngsters or husband are late getting home. It means more security when you're alone at night. It means more things done with less time and effort... Yet this endlessly useful servant works for you for just a few cents a day.

MANNERS MAKE FRIENDS

The easiest and safest way for a housewife to keep up with social engagements and all other activities of the whole family is to keep a desk-type calendar, writing down time and place as soon as she makes an appointment or accepts an invitation.

Why try to remember a lot of details that you can so easily jot down on a calendar?

Use bought fruitcake till you have some of your own on hand... and heat slices in the top part of the double boiler over hot water. Hard Sauce is a natural to serve... so is a Rum-Butter Sauce, made by creaming a half cup of butter until light and fluffy and gradually adding a cup of sifted icing sugar, beating constantly. Parents Must Help Child Combat Weight Problem

By RUTH MILLETT

It is a grave injustice to a child for parents to let him turn into a "fat" child.

Fortunately the writer of this letter recognizes that and wants to do something about it.

She asks, "How can I help my 12-year-old daughter, who is overweight, attain a normal figure so that she can wear clothes suitable for her age?"

"This year she started junior high school and for the first time is interested in how she looks. In fact, she has developed an inferiority complex about her size."

The thing to do, of course, is to take your daughter to a doctor and let him give her a physical checkup and prescribe a diet for her.

Then see that she gets all the encouragement she needs for sticking to it.

If you let the matter go, she will continue to gain. And as she grows fatter she will feel more and more left out. Then she'll eat more and more to compensate for her loneliness. It's a vicious circle, so the sooner you break it, the better.

OUT OUR WAY

By J. R. Williams

Greater Love Hath No Man . . . Than That He Lay Down His Life!

Remembrance Day is a time set aside to pay tribute to those who have fallen in battle and to the civilian dead. Yet the celebration of Remembrance Day is empty if it does not prompt us to remember the causes for which men have given their lives and to rededicate our own lives for the welfare of humanity. Let us, each and every one, resolve to keep faith with those who have gone before us and to give substance to that faith in our daily thought and action.

1:45 p.m. — Parade leaves Town Hall, Nov. 11th.

Elevated Trains Collide, Five Dead, 100 Injured

CHICAGO — (AP) — A rush-hour elevated train drilled into another train Monday night with a shattering force that split the lead car in two, killing at least five and injuring more than 100.

The eight-car Chicago Transit Authority train, crammed to the doors with homebound commuters crashed into the rear of a standing Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee Train.

Reports from the rescuers plying loose the screaming injured and from six scattered hospitals and from six scattered hospitals indicated at first that eight or nine may have lost their lives. Eliminations of possible duplications showed at least five persons died.

Most, if not all of the dead and injured were riding the speeding CTA train which telescoped its front end into the northbound North Shore's rear coach. The six car north shore train, two minutes behind schedule, was just about to pull out of the station.

Doctors called to the scene administered emergency treatment to scores trapped in the twisted and smashed wreckage, while firemen and CTA employees used acetylene torches, crowbars, jacksaws and jacks to free the victims.

An effort to pull the trains apart with winches had to be abandoned when the stress on the cars drew shrieks of pain from those still imprisoned. Doctors administered sedatives to all they could reach.

There was no immediate explanation why the CTA train failed to stop. The motorman, Michael O'Driscoll, 52, was still trapped in the ruins of his cab four hours after the crash. Rescuers said O'Driscoll was alive.

ROCK ISLAND — At the regular monthly meeting of the Stanstead Frontier branch of the Canadian Legion, held in the armoury, plans were made for the annual poppy campaign for the Armistice anniversary.

This year the objective is $1,000. Funds from the sales of poppies are urgently needed to carry on the work of the veterans' aid and relief in this area. Under the convenship of Miss Ruby Labree of the Women's Auxiliary, a house to house canvass will be made by Girl Guides and everyone is urged to wear a poppy in remembrance of those who gave their lives in the two great wars and Korea and to aid the boys who are living and in need of assistance.

On the eve of Remembrance Day, November 10, the Auxiliary women will serve a dinner at the Rock Island United church hall, which is open to all veterans and the invitation also goes to veterans across the Border, as has been the usual custom for many years. Rev. A. L. Salt, rector of Christ Anglican church, will be guest speaker.

Power-Packed Alouettes Dominate Big Four All-Stars, Place Five On

Sam "The Rifle" Etcheverry And Hal Patterson Are Unanimous Choices; Joey Pal And Bobby Simpson Named

TORONTO — (CP) — The peerless combination of quarterback Sam Etcheverry and end Hal Patterson, the one-two punch of Montreal Alouettes' quick-striking attack, tonight head the list of players named to the 1956 Canadian Press Big Four all-star football teams.

Offensive team selections include two Canadians, the first time in four years that more than one homebrew has gained All-Star rating. End — Jim Miller, Montreal.

The Canadians named to the offensive team were flying wing Joey Pal of the Alouettes and end Bobby Simpson of the Riders.

The Alouettes' aerial offence, and Patterson, labelled "Mr. Wonderful" for his superb pass-catching and running, were the only unanimous choices for the offensive team and Patterson came closest to being picked by all selectors for the defensive squad.

They were two of the five Montreal players picked for the offensive team. Patterson also joined two other Alouettes on the defensive outfit.

Ottawa Rough Riders and Toronto Argonauts each landed three men and Hamilton Tiger-Cats one on the offensive team. The Riders nabbed three places on the defensive lineup, the Tiger-Cats four and the Argonauts two.

The Als, who have placed at least five players on the offensive team four straight years, have made a runaway of the regular campaign the last three seasons and again are heavily favored to represent the East in the Grey Cup final Nov. 24.

Offensive team selections include two Canadians, the first time in four years that more than one homebrew has gained All-Star rating. The Canadians grabbed four berths in the defensive lineup for the third successive season and as was the case last year, another spot went to a former American now ranked as a non-import.

Racing Season Ends; Demand Is Turned Down

The local racing season has officially ended. The Provincial Racing body of Quebec turned down the request of the Sherbrooke Racing Club for a special extension.

The executive of the local club had applied for permission to continue their programs until the end of November and the chairman of the Provincial board, who was here last week-end seemed in favor. However on his return to the Capital City yesterday it was decided to turn down Sherbrooke's request.

The racing fans who are still interested will be obliged to travel to Montreal where races are still in progress at the Richelieu track. This is the only track in the Province where racing is in progress at present.

Gorman Kennedy May Become New GM For Alouettes

MONTREAL — (CP) — The Gazette says Gorman Kennedy, well-known local sportsman, will be named general manager of the Montreal Alouettes of the Big Four Football League.

The story says Kennedy, who resigned recently as sales manager for a Montreal brewery, will be named to the post after the Grey Cup game Nov. 24. He will also be made a vice-president of the club.

The Gazette says Michel Normandin, French-language radio and television announcer, will resign as an executive-director of the club because of the pressure of his regular work.

Rangers Suspend Ron Murphy For Not Reporting

NEW YORK — (CP) — Left-winger Ron Murphy was suspended indefinitely by New York Rangers of the National Hockey League Monday for failing to report to the team's American League farm club at Providence.

Murphy was one of three Rangers sent down to Providence last week. But instead of going to the minor league club, he went home to Hamilton, Ont.

General manager Muzz Patrick said Murphy had been scheduled to report at Providence Saturday. "When he didn't report on time, Murphy's pay automatically stopped," Patrick said.

"Today I made the suspension official, and sent him a telegram to that effect. When he reports to Providence and shows he is in shape to play the suspension will be lifted."

The 23-year-old forward, who ordinarily is a fast starter each season, sprained an ankle in training. He missed the first two games and played the next five before being sent to Providence.

Don Newcombe's Arm Still Hurts Tossing Curve

OSAKA, Japan. — (AP) — Don Newcombe, the Brooklyn Dodgers' 27-game winning pitcher, said his throwing arm is better than a week ago but still hurts when he throws a curve ball.

Newcombe, knocked off the mound in the first appearance of his only start in Japan, said a decision on whether he will pitch again depends on the condition of his arm.

The pitcher said he injured his arm in Brooklyn's last game of the National League season against Pittsburgh but told no one about it until after his arrival in Japan.

Renald Beaudoin And Lionel Robidas To Perform With Beavers; Workout Slated For This Evening At 6:30

Coach Bob Bedard of the Sherbrooke Beavers announced the signing of two players, right-winger Renald Beaudoin and defenseman Lionel Robidas, last night. The local pilot also stated that he hopes to gather several more into the fold when the team practices this evening at the Arena.

The workout is booked for 6:30 in preparation for the Beavers' debut in Asbestos Sunday afternoon when the locals will tangle with the Meteors in the Massawippi Valley Hockey opener.

Renald Beaudoin, who is still of junior age, is very well known in intermediate hockey circles as he performed with the Beavers two years ago. Last year he was with the Junior Beavers but was called up during the season and took part in the finals against the Meteors of Asbestos. He tallied a very important goal in the lone victory posted by the locals.

Lionel Robidas is a young defenseman of promise and was one of the star rearguards in the E.T. Junior loop last season. He also played in the local Commercial Hockey League as well. He played with the Sherbrooke Juniors two years ago and last season joined the Junior Beavers.

This will be his first attempt in intermediate circles. He took part in Sunday's exhibition tilt and gave a very good account of himself. He is a very fast skater and is a good checker despite his size. His addition should help to form a solid rearguard for the Beavers along with some of the other veterans being counted on by Coach Bob Bedard.

Saskatchewan Roughriders Finally Break 20-Year-Old Jinx To Enter Western Finals; Drop Blue Bombers

WINNIPEG — (CP) — Saskatchewan Roughriders threw off a 20-year-old jinx to enter the Western Interprovincial Football Union final against Edmonton Eskimos.

Riders took a 19-8 beating from Winnipeg Blue Bombers Monday night in the second game of their two-game, total-point semifinal but won the round 50-26; their first playoff triumph over Winnipeg since 1936 on the strength of their 42-7 victory in the first game at Regina Saturday.

The best-of-three final gets under way at Regina at 2 p. m. MST 5 p. m. AST Saturday. Second and third games are scheduled at Edmonton, Nov. 12 and 17.

"We played it as we had to close to the vest," said Coach Frank Filchock between handshakes.

Going into the contest with a 35-point cushion from the first game, Riders played just as coach Frankie Filchock forecast conservatively.

End Bud Grant, quarterback Eagle Day and halfback Buddy Leake scored Bombers' touchdowns. Leake converted one.

Riders points came on kicks and a safety touch. Reg Whitehouse booted a field goal and kicked for a single. Larry Isbell kicked two singles. Defensive end Doug Kiloh caught Day behind the Winnipeg line for the other two points.

Princess Elizabeth High Of Magog Drops Two Tilts To Lennoxville; Juniors Win 48-1, Seniors 46-45

Lennoxville High School Junior and Senior Boys won both ends of a cage twinbill from Princess Elizabeth High School of Magog in Lennoxville.

The Juniors dished out a 48-1 shellacking to the visitors. It was a different story in the Senior division, as the Lennoxville boys staged a terrific fourth quarter comeback to squeeze out a 46-45 victory over the Magog squad.

The first game was a runaway for the L.H.S. quintet as they picked up 29 points in the first half holding their opponents scoreless. The passing for Lennoxville was superb and frequently cracked through the Magog defence.

In the last half Magog picked up their first point while the gold and black bucketed 19. This set the final score at 48-1 for the Lennoxville boys.

W. Wingate of L.H.S. led the scoring race with 18 points for the victors. S. Trew of P.E.H.S. picked up their lone point.

The Senior game was filled with as much action and suspense that one could ask for. The L.H.S. squad led at quarter time 14-8. In the second quarter the play saw-sawed from one end of the floor to the other. Lennoxville was still on top though. When the half time horn blew it was L.H.S. on top of a 23-20 count.

It was in the third quarter that things started happening. Lennoxville had started with only six players. Late in the first half W. Nugent was fouled off and now it was R. Allen who got the gate for the remainder of

Olympic Torch Crosses Equator For First Time

SINGAPORE. — (AP) — The Olympic torch, symbol of peace in a smoldering world, crossed the Equator Monday for the first time in history.

A Quairns Empire Airways plane carried the torch into the Southern Hemisphere 30 minutes after it left Singapore.

The torch, which has circulated in the Northern Hemisphere since the beginning of the ancient Greek Olympic Games in 776 B.C., will be carried into Melbourne to open the 1956 Olympics Nov. 22.

The historic torch, which is being carried in two miner's lamps, is cradled in a baby's cot. It will arrive in Darwin tonight.

A Royal Australian Air Force Canberra jet will take the torch to Cairns. Runners will carry it the remaining 2,732 miles to Melbourne.

Attendances At Big Four Games Show Increase

MONTREAL — (CP) — With every team showing an increase, average attendance at Big Four Football League games rose by 2,831 during the 1956 season.

Total attendance for the 28 games was 536,166, an average of 19,149 per game, compared with last year's total of 391,647 for 24 games, an average of 16,318.

Montreal Alouettes, who finished in first place, drew the most fans—153,230. They were followed by Toronto with 143,945; Hamilton with 127,904 and Ottawa with 111,087.

Larry MacPhail Sells His Hafiz For $384,000

LAUREL, Md. (F) — Larry MacPhail announced Monday he had sold his French colt Hafiz to a syndicate for $384,000.

The sale was timed with the arrival of Hafiz from London, aboard a plane carrying four other horses entered in Laurel's $100,000 race next Monday.

Hafiz, a four-year-old son of Nearco, finished second in last Wednesday's Cambridgehire with the overwhelming weight of 133 pounds.

MacPhail bought half a share in Hafiz from the Aga Khan in December of 1954 and the other half in January of this year. He paid a reported $290,000 in all.

The colt raced in Europe under the name of Hafiz 2nd but the suffix will be dropped as unnecessary under registration rules of the United States.

Reviving Habs Sweep All Points For Last Week; Big Jean Beliveau Moves To Fore In Race For Scoring Honors

MONTREAL — (CP) — Montreal Canadiens were the only National Hockey League team to make a clean sweep of points up for grab last week and along with the upsurging Canadiens went big Jean Beliveau to the top of the scoring parade.

The Montrealers, 1955-56 champions who got away to a shaky start this season, won all three games they played last week. The six points collected move them from fifth place in the NHL standing to a tie for third with Boston Bruins.

Beliveau scored two goals and four assists, and his six individual points boosted his total to 14, two more than Ted Lindsay of Detroit Red Wings.

The Wings had an even split in two games—their one loss to Montreal—and remained as league leaders with 14 points. Toronto Leafs also split two, losing a hotly disputed tussle to the Wings, and held on to second place. The Leafs now have 12 points, one more than Boston Bruins and Canadiens. The Bruins had the next best record to Canadiens for their week's work, winning two and losing one.

New York Rangers dropped two starts and fell to fifth place, with nine points. Chicago Black Hawks scored the first win of the season, but lost two other games and are still in the cellar with three points.

Beliveau's six scoring points were the high for the week, sending him into the lead from a third-place tie a week ago. Lindsay scored one goal and no assists in two games.

Gordie Howe of the Red Wings counted two assists and, along with Lindsay, dropped a notch.

Howe now has 11 points, one more than Ted Sloan of Toronto Maple Leafs and Doug Harvey of Montreal.

Sloan picked up two assists while Harvey, whose 43 assists two seasons ago set a record for defenseman, collected four. His 10 points are all assists.

In sixth place with nine points is Montreal's Maurice (Rocket) Richard, who picked up two goals and two assists in his three games. Tied at eight points are George Armstrong of the Leafs and Bert Olmstead of Montreal. Each scored two goals and one assist last week.

The top ten:

Argos' Coach Bill Swiacki Quits Club; Sends Note To Lew Hyaman From Montreal; No Replacement Yet

TORONTO — (CP) — Bill Swiacki will not return as Toronto Argonauts' head coach in 1957, general manager Lew Hyaman of the Big Four Football Union club said Monday.

"There was a note for me when I arrived at the office this morning," he said.

"It was from Swiacki saying that he wouldn't be coming back to Toronto because he had other plans for 1957."

Hyaman said Swiacki didn't return from Montreal, where the team played the Alouettes Saturday, and apparently has returned to his home in the United States. The regular Big Four season ended Saturday.

Swiacki has been Argonauts coach for two seasons. He is a former end with Columbia University and Detroit Lions of the National Football League and a former end coach with the Lions and New York Giants.

Asked if there was any chance that Bill Earley, former assistant coach, would be considered for the job, Hyaman replied: "He was fired. I don't know any more than that, right now."

Earley, from Notre Dame, was fired last month in what club directors said was "the best interests of the club."

At that time there had been rumors that Swiacki would be dropped by the last-place Argos.

NHL Receives Protest From Maple Leafs

MONTREAL — (CP) — President Clarence Campbell of the National Hockey League said Monday Toronto Maple Leafs have advised him they are protesting disallowance of a Toronto goal which would have given Leafs a 2-2 tie Saturday night with Detroit Red Wings.

The goal came just as the game ended. Referee Frank Udvari and linesmen George Hayes and Bill Morrison ruled the goal came after the game-end light flashed and bell sounded.

Toronto officials claimed the goal was scored in time and that movies bear out their claim.

Campbell said normal procedure is for the Leafs management to follow the protest, required within 24 hours after the game, with evidence. He has notified Detroit but has not yet heard from the Red Wing club. Campbell has also asked the game officials to send a report.

Compton County W. I. Semi-Annual Convention Held At East Clifton

EAST CLIFTON — Compton County Women's Institute semi-annual convention was held at East Clifton when members from eight W. I. branches filled the little country church where the meeting was held with Mrs. Rupert Joyce, county president, presiding.

The meeting opened with the collect for club women, and the Lord's Prayer. A two minute silence was observed in memory of departed members.

The minutes of the annual convention were read and the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Wells Coates, reported receipts were $263.83 expenditures $138 leaving a balance of $125.83.

Mrs. G. Halliday in the Bursary report stated there were eight applications and the Hon. C. D. French Memorial Bursary had been awarded to Miss Ina Cummings of Sawyerville, who led the county in the Grade XI June examinations and has entered Bishop's University.

A lengthy discussion followed, re starting a second bursary to be known as The Compton County Women's Institute Bursary Fund. The delegates were asked to take this back to the branches for discussion, their decision to be brought in at the annual meeting next May when final plans will be made. In the meantime the branches will pay 45 cents per member, this to be paid as usual in January.

Mrs. R. Elliot reporting on the calendar project asked if this could be held over until 1957. To date not enough pictures had been handed in. She felt it was too late in the season to have the calendars made. They should be ready in time to start selling them at Cookshire Fair. A motion to this effect was made.

Plans for the 1957 W.I. exhibit at Cookshire Fair were discussed. Mrs. F. G. Bennett announced this would be the 60th anniversary of Women's Institutes and a special effort should be put forth to make this exhibit outstanding. A committee of the conveners of Home Economics with Mrs. Bennett as chairman was appointed to look after this exhibit. At this point the president Mrs. Bennett with a framed picture of the antique exhibit which was held this year at Cookshire Fair.

Remarks by Mrs. G. Parsons, Provincial convener of Home Economics, were on Historical Research. This convener, Historical Research was established by Mrs. Morton in 1952. To date Bury is the only W. I. in this province with a convener. She mentioned many historical places, buildings, folk songs etc. These are part of our heritage and should be cherished. She stated that the Branch histories seem to present a difficulty, keep working on them. Mrs. Parsons was thanked by Mrs. F. Mayhew.

Mrs. F. Robinson was asked to take charge of the Book of Memory. Branches having articles for this are asked to send them to the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Wells Coates, East Angus.

A pleasing part in the program was the presentation of a Life members pin by Mrs. Jas Parkin to Mrs. E. Towers, of East Clifton, which was pinned on by Mrs. L. Waldron, president of East Clifton W. I.

Mr. Neil Tracy, fieldman, Canadian National Institute of the blind, was guest speaker and gave an address on his work among the blind in the Eastern Townships. He thanked the W. I. for their help in canvassing for this worthy cause. Mr. Tracy was thanked by Mrs. R. Larned.

There was some discussion re radio broadcasts. So many miss hearing these broadcasts, so much work goes into preparing the scripts it was felt these should be printed in the Sherbrooke Record and exchanged with other W. I.'s who broadcast over other radio stations in other parts of the province.

Scotstown will do the December broadcast and Cookshire the one in April.

East Angus invited the county to meet there for the annual meeting next May.

Courtesy convener, Mrs. R. Larned, thanked the East Clifton W.I., the speakers, Mrs. Parsons and Mr. Tracy, and Mrs. F. G. Bennett for the keen interest she takes in the W.I. exhibit at Cookshire and mentioned the exhibit this year which was especially interesting.

The meeting closed with "The Queen and all went over to the Community Hall where afternoon tea was served by the East Clifton ladies.
