Women's Army Train At R.M.R.

Three Youths Fined, Jailed For Loitering

Westmount Police arrested three youths last week for loitering on Westmount Avenue on suspicion of criminal intentions.

They were Jean Guenette, 21; Guy Deslaurier, 21; and Andre Laporte, 19. All three said they had no home address. Remanded until Wednesday, they spent two interim days in jail.

Appearing before Deputy Recorder A. E. Laverty they were sentenced to a $25 fine each or one month in jail. Guenette and Laporte were able to raise the money for their fine but Deslaurier remained in jail.

Friday 13th, Unlucky For Two Elderly Residents

Friday the 13th was a jinxed day for two elderly Westmount residents, Mrs. Margaret Brown, 74, of 361 Greene Avenue; and Peter Jonathan Muir, 90, of 339 Victoria Avenue.

Mrs. Brown was standing at the southwest safety zone at Greene Avenue and Sherbrooke Street when she was struck by an eastbound tram.

Mr. Muir was crossing Victoria Avenue at Western Avenue when he walked into a taxi and was knocked down.

The tram driver, Joseph Petit, of Napierville, told the police that Mrs. Brown stepped off the safety zone into the path of his tram and began waving her arms at him.

He said he was unable to stop in time and knocked her back onto the platform. Mrs. Brown was taken to the Western Hospital in a police car where she was treated for possible fracture of the right wrist and nose and abrasions

CWAC Recruits Being Trained in Westmount

Sergeant Major Hesketh, permanent force instructor attached to the Royal Montreal Regiment and C.S.M. Joe Tetrault of the Reserve are busy men these days or rather nights, as in addition to their regular duties they have been drafted to train recruits of the reserve Canadian Women's Army Corps.

The girls parade twice each week and are given instruction in most things a soldier must know. On Tuesday night it was map reading with of course the usual refresher in barrack square drill. Thursday night will be devoted in part on how to handle a jeep or other army vehicle as many of the recruits will eventually be used as drivers.

Sergt. Major Hesketh says there is one thing you can't take away from the girls and that is their keenness to learn and their desire to get into the regular army as fast as possible. C.S.M. Tetrault is glad he volunteered for the job as the spirit of the girls is marked contrast to that shown by some of the male recruits he has handled which gives him a lift.

The Sergeant-Major, attached to M.D. 4 administrative and training staff, has never before given commands to privates in skirts; and he wasn't sure, at first, how he could keep discipline, since roaring with rage when orders were missed seemed out of the question.

But the girls were keen at their first parade. Afterwards, the Sergeant-Major's only complaint was — they smiled too easily. "At the rate they're going, they're better than the men," he commented with a wry grin.

Lieut. Grace Ford, of Montreal and Portneuf, who brought the girls from No. 104 Manning Depot, explained that the girls were all anxious to do well. With the exception of three, none of the 60 girls at the opening parade had been in the army before.

Enlistment has been excellent since it was announced June 25 that the women's reserve force would be formed. All of the girls have been attested as privates, and the balance of the 114 applicants were in the process of being accepted, she said.

Lieutenant Ford was employed with the training and adminis-

Says Assessments Deliberately Cut To Reduce Taxes

Mayor Camillien Houde of Montreal fired a searing blast at Westmount and Outremont, at a meeting of the Metropolitan Commission held on Friday.

Other suburban municipalities were also apparently included in the Mayor's references but the full force of his remarks were specifically aimed at Westmount and Outremont, with Westmount being singled out for the No. 1 target by His Worship.

He accused Westmount of deliberately reducing rental assessment so as to obtain a reduction in water taxes.

At a press conference held later in the day Mayor Houde told the newspaper men that he will ask the Provincial Legislature at the next session to establish a system whereby adjacent cities and towns will have to pay a greater share of the cost of public services. He said the costs are at present borne almost entirely by the City of Montreal.

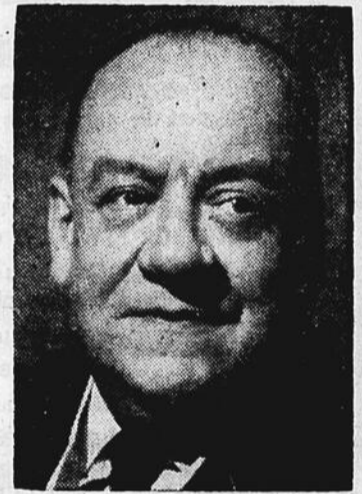

Montreal Must Have Majority

Still apparently smarting from the decision against Montreal recently handed down by Mr. Justice A. Smith, in which the City of Montreal was denied the right to increase the water rates for Westmount and Outremont, Mayor Houde raised his voice in protest over the nomination of a committee to study the taxi situation in the metropolitan area. He objected to the fact that Montreal did not have a majority of representatives on the committee appointed early in June. He demanded that Montreal should have a voting majority on every committee formed in connection with metropolitan affairs.

Mayor Napoleon Courtemanche of Montreal East tried to smooth Mr. Houde's feelings by saying that he thought that member municipalities should help one another. He would have favoured Outremont and Westmount trying to come to an agreement with Montreal instead of going to the courts over the water tax rates.

Mayor Romuald Bourque protested that the matter was "sub

Rotary Members Golfed Wednesday

Westmount Rotary members spent Wednesday afternoon at the Whitlock Golf and Country Club after the dinner meeting. Vice-President Frank Carlin was in the chair. Visiting Rotarians were introduced and welcomed by Douglas MacDonald.

Guests at the head table included Norman Millington, A. M. Murray, Dr. Frank McNaughton, P. T. Golden, J. S. Miller, and W. H. Giles.

Worker Dies From Fire Station Explosion Here

Coroner A. B. Clement told The Examiner the verdict of the death of Jean Paul Desroches, 22, of 2059 Prefontaine Street, was accidental.

Mr. Desroches died at the Homoeopathic Hospital last week from third degree burns inflicted on his body when an explosion occurred in the storage tank at the Westmount Fire Department on Stanton Street.

The Coroner said Mr. Desroches was inside the tank at the time of the accident. He was working with an electric welding torch which exploded the fumes.

Prior to the mishap he had been working in the tank and noticing smoke and fumes from the welding he came out. He and his helper, Henri Paul, of 2219 Dezery Street tried to remove the fumes by flooding the tank with oxygen.

Fifteen minutes later he went into the tank to continue welding. When the torch was lit it ignited the fumes. Mr. Desroches' scream brought his helper, Mr. Paul,

Reg. Groome To Cover 7th World Scout Jamboree

Reg. Groome, scout columnist for The Monitor, The Guardian and The Examiner, will leave tomorrow for the seventh world Boy Scout Jamboree, to be held from Aug. 3 to 13 at Bad Ischl, Austria.

Mr. Groome will cover the Jamboree for this paper.

Sailing on the Empress of Canada, he will tour Europe following the Jamboree, visiting England, France, Belgium, Holland, Switzerland, Sweden, Denmark and Austria. With Mr. Groome will be Alan Stone, of Bessborough Avenue, photographer and also scoutmaster of St. Matthew's troop.

Among his other duties, "Reg." has been scout columnist for The Monitor for 10 years and broadcasts a scout program weekly over radio station CJAD. He will return Aug. 28 from Liverpool to Quebec City on the Empress of Scotland.

and they went into the showers the best of pals.

Fights were quite a common occurrence before they changed the rule banishing players concerned for the balance of the game. I had a new boy who came to the school and every school that he had previously attended took the trouble to call me and give me his reputation. It has never been my practise to judge by hearsay. In the first game we played against M.H.S. he was only on the field about five minutes when he took a crack at one of the opposing players and was sent off for the game. Instead of bawling him out as he expected I put my knee in the seat of his pants as he went by and said in a friendly manner: "Forget it, Eric, you won't have another penalty this season," and, as the records will show, he didn't. After that he was the peacemaker and a good friend of mine. Later he played on the big City teams and on the Dominion Champion Argonauts. Eric is still a good friend of mine who I am always glad to meet.

scrambling into the tank to his aid.

Mr. Desroches clothes were aflame and within a few minutes Mr. Paul had been rendered unconscious by the fumes. Capt. Emile Durocher and Fireman Leo Fitzgerald went into the tank to rescue the two men.

Fireman Fitzgerald went in first and had to be pulled back out when he lost consciousness. Capt. Durocher went in with a gas mask and completed the rescue.

Before the rescue had been completed, which took five minutes, the ambulance from the Homoeopathic Hospital was on hand waiting to take the mortally injured man away.

When brought out of the tank Mr. Desrocher was still alive but in a state of semi-consciousness. Six hours later, not responding to the treatment administered, he died in the Homoeopathic.

Mr. Paul suffered burns on his hands, and arms. The three members of the Westmount Fire Department suffered superficial burns.

Coroner Clement's verdict of accidental death laid the blame on the error of the two men for using oxygen to dispel the fumes from the tank.

tration staff of the C.W.A.C. during the last war. Then she took a supervisory job with a lithograph company, remaining with the Reserve of Officers.

When the Minister of Defence announced women would be recruited for the reserve C.W.A.C., Miss Ford was asked to serve as officer in charge of training for Montreal. Nine ex-C.W.A.C.'s are looking after the recruiting.

Most of the girls applying for enlistment are anxious to go active, she said. So far all of them have had trades, which has meant that placing them is not difficult. According to army regulations, if the girls do not have a trade, they may choose the one they prefer.

Miss Ford admits she is addicted to army life. It's an education in itself, she said. The girls learn self-discipline and how to get along with others.

The new recruits are looking forward to the day when they get their new khaki uniforms. They've all been measured, Lieut. Ford said, and the uniforms will be arriving shortly.

An athletic coach in retirement has an advantage over many others among the retired. He can look back over many thrilling moments in sport and relive them in his memory. He can meet many of those who were outstanding in athletics in their younger days and feel gratified to find so many of them who have succeeded in later life and feel the lessons they learned in sports might have helped them to advance in their chosen field whether it was in the business world or the professions.

The training necessary to be a good athlete, the ability to make quick decisions and act on them, is often reflected in the actions of an ex-athlete in later life, his ability to stand reverses is the result of the doggedness that was brought out in many contests particularly football where first you are down in payoff territory and one misplay puts you back on your line and you dig in again.

When I first went to Westmount

High for some reason unknown to me, the boys there were classed as being of the sissy type, it did not take long for me to find the reverse was the case.

Before my teaching days started the school had Art Ross, Sprague and Oddie Cleghorn and others. Many times I competed against the Snowdons, the Baillies, the Duckets and Walter Smaill. I never noticed any tendency on their part to be timid.

I will cite a few cases that came under my personal notice. Wilf Wallace and Gordy Fullerton, weighing less than 150 lbs and not 18 years old, played regular on the Big Four M.A.A.A., team as well as school. Les Gnaedinger played on the half line with a broken arm. It was only when I noticed his awkwardness in tackling that I went out and took him off. Big Selby Cope, after diving into Flin Flanagan's heels and receiving a severe head injury, had to be picked up, subdued and carried off the field. Donnie Campbell suffered the same type of injury in stopping a two man buck head on. Gordy Murphy, now harbour master here, played with a fractured ankle and wondered why I took him off. Peter Kertland was kicked in the back of the neck in the first period of a football game and played through the game without letting anyone know he was hurt until after the game. He spent 5 months wearing a chin rest and brace. Likewise, Sandy Steel received the same type of injury in hockey from a collision. The famous Pat Christy lay on a rubbing board and kidding the doctor while he sewed up an inch and a half cut in his eye brow. Young Art Nancekeville wanted to go back into the game, while I was taking him off the field after a pile up in football in which his arm was completely dislocated. His forearm was facing backwards.

Is it any wonder I look back with pride at having had the chance to train boys of their type. These are only a few examples of many that came under my observation. My biggest trouble was to know when they were hurt as it was their habit to duck me if they were hurt to avoid being taken out of the game.

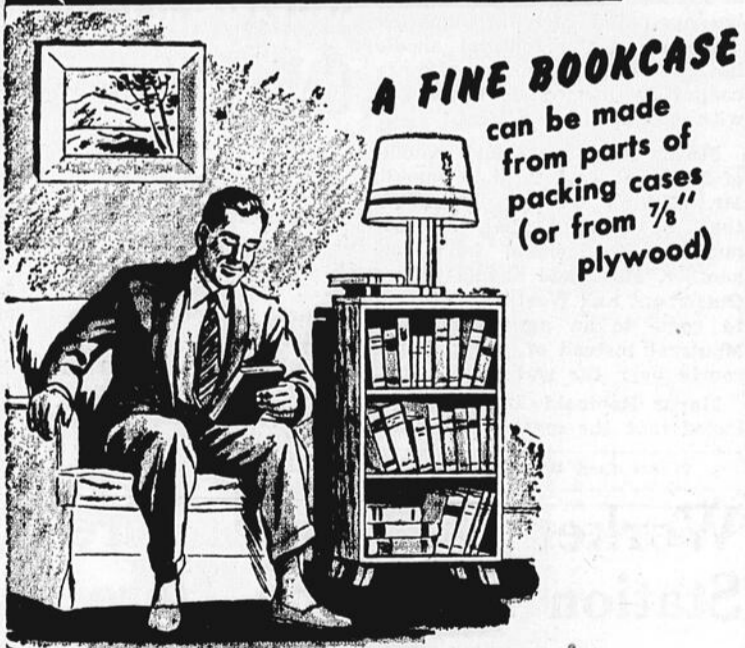

In the earlier days it was necessary for a player to be hurt before you could replace him. One of the worst insults after this rule was changed to allow subs was to send in a player to replace one of the regulars. I remember in one particular game where two of my top men were not delivering and after the first half I pulled them out. They were so sore at me they were ready to take me apart. I kept them sitting on the bench getting angrier every minute and with M.H.S. leading by a few points, only minutes left to play. We got a break and were in pay off territory, so I sent them in with orders to give them the ball. They went over in three plays and won the game and championship.

Another advantage this rule had is it helped to cure bad tempers, by pulling boys out of the game and keeping them until they were willing to go back and control themselves.

I remember an unusual incident that occurred in one of our games on the park with Strathcona. They had a player on their team with a reputation as a fighter and I had one on mine. All through the game they were at it so the late Dr. Howe, our principal, suggested they settle it with the gloves in the gym after the game. This was agreeable to both, so following the game both teams went into the gym and I refereed it. At the finish both boys were satisfied

Woman Attacked Here Youth Faces Charges

Standing stoney-faced in the prisoners' dock, flanked by two policemen, a 16-year-old boy had theft and attempted rape charges read to him Friday and refused to say whether he understood them or what form of trial he wanted.

The youth, deferred from Social Welfare Court and arraigned in Criminal Court in accordance with terms of the Juvenile Delinquents Act, was identified as Trevor Kool. No address was listed.

He was accused of having attacked a woman in Westmount with intent to commit rape and of having stolen $144 worth of goods from a rooming house at 4 Brooke ave., near St. Antoine st., Westmount.

No Plea Asked

Kool refused to answer when asked by the clerk if he understood the attempted rape accusation. He was not asked to plead to it and Judge Rene Theberge ordered him held until preliminary inquiry July 19.

The youth then was asked if he wanted trial by jury or by judge alone on the theft charge. He didn't answer and was ordered to face a preliminary hearing July 19 on that charge as well.

The alleged victim of the attempted rape was not publicly identified.

The attack, according to the complaint, occurred June 27 and the theft on June 28.

No Rental Administrator Appointed For Westmount

Residents in Westmount are still awaiting word on the possibility of setting up a rental control board office here.

The nearest office to Westmount is the one located in Jacques Viger School, 281 Philippe street, in St. Henri. Other three offices have been opened at Victor Dore School, 1685 Lafontaine street, at Papi-neau avenue, De La Mennais School, St. Denis and Beaubien, and at Baril School, Chambly and Adam street, in Maisonneuve.

The four rental offices are open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays and from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturdays.

Maurice Julien, Montreal rent administrator informed The Examiner that tenants in Westmount do not come under the Montreal district administrator. He stressed that Administrators will be named in the near future for Westmount, also for Verdun, Outremont, Montreal West, Hampstead and the Town of Mount Royal, which are separate municipalities.

Many complaints have been registered by N.D.G. tenants regarding the inaccessibility of the Montreal rental offices and strong representations are being made by citizen's associations in the area.

Meanwhile the first day of August draws near and Westmount has no rental administrator.

OTTAWA'S EAGER BEAVERS

Tax Collectors Getting a Little Too Ambitious — Old System Was O.K.

The staff of the Department of Finance in Ottawa appear to be just a little over eager beaverish. They are eager to get every last penny in taxes, judging from the new table of Income Tax Deductions at Source, but are not so eager to pay interest on overpayments.

Deductions provided by the table which came into effect on July 1st have been increased to 100% of the tax and are, of course, some 25% higher than those in the previous table as was announced by the Minister of Finance last spring.

The catch is that mostly everyone these days makes charitable donations or has medical expenses high enough to reduce taxable income.

As a result most tax payers will have too much taxes deducted from their pay. Inevitably a tremendous number of tax refund cheques will have to be sent out eventually and in all likelihood many more civil servants will have to be hired to look after the job.

There was not much wrong with the old system whereby 95% of the tax was deducted at the source. This meant that for a great many people at the end of the fiscal year taxes due and taxes paid evened out because of charitable donations, medical expenses and other deductible items.

We feel that many Canadians, realizing that their money overpaid in tax deductions does not bear interest, are resentful of the eager beaver attitude of the Department of Finance. Mr. Abbott might well reconsider his department's policy on payroll tax deductions and revert to the former, more equitable system.

Nursing Aides Offered Course In Care of Mother and Infant

Two extension courses will be available to the graduate of the Montreal School for Nursing Aides after September 1.

The course in the Care of the Convalescent and Non-Critically Ill Child given at the Children's Memorial Hospital was inaugurated last May, and proved to be interesting and well worth while to the Aides who availed themselves of the opportunity of this added experience. A new course which will start September 1 will be given at St. Mary's Hospital, and will provide training and experience in the Post-Partum Care of Mother and Baby.

Each of these courses has been made possible through the cooperation of the Director of Nursing and the teaching staff of the respective hospitals both of which are associated with the M.S.N.A., and they are being given with the purpose of widening the scope of interest and experience available to the Aide and of equipping her for a broader field of usefulness to the community.

Applications are now being considered for entrance to the fall class of the Montreal School for Nursing Aides. This class which will start September 5, will be the seventh to receive their training at the institution.

The course given at the School is of six months duration, approximately three months of which are spent in the class room and the remainder of the time in the wards of the Montreal Convalescent Hospital, where the school is situated. The class room and ward experiences are closely correlated throughout the course. This is followed by a further six months experience as salaried employees in the wards of one of the general hospitals, to which the Aide is assigned.

After receiving her certificate and pin the Aide may continue to work in the hospital if she so desires or she may turn to one or other of the many openings which are within the scope of her experience. There is no question but what an interesting career and future are assured for the Nursing Aide, and requests for her services are many, and come from inside and outside the city and province.

The courses are each of two months duration. They have been specially arranged so that the teaching and practical experience are on a level with the instruction

Men's Rayon Suitings Promise Cool Comfort In Hot Summer Weather

When the world seems to be at sixes and sevens, women get out their needles and quietly knit themselves into their own little private sense of peace. This seems to have been going on for a good many centuries now, yet the click of the knitting needles still makes its pleasant music in many lands.

New York recently enjoyed a special view of very smart knitted fashions — for men, women, and babies — from Britain. But Britain, in this instance, seems to have taken on the warmth of individuality, for the garments shown are the products of individual women who make up the Women's Home Industries.

They are stalwart knitters all of them. Indeed they have to be, to pass the rigid tests which enable them to find their niche in this extraordinary knitting venture founded in October, 1947, by the Dowager Marchioness of Reading.

today. To contribute to the economic recovery of Britain by exporting handknits to hard currency areas comes first.

Yet the company's second purpose may prove of even greater value to courageous Britain. It is developing original skills among the thousands of eager women knitters who work quietly in their own homes, at the same time affording them conscious satisfaction in feeling part of the national effort to increase production.

And if by any chance you think interest in this project is lagging, simply because the payment amounts to little more than pin-money for the most exacting knitting, you might note that in a recent appeal to the public for first-class knitters, 30,000 replies were received. Christian Science

"Life" is the subject of the lesson-sermon to be read in churches of Christ Scientist, Sunday, July 22, 1951. The golden text is from Romans 6:23—"The wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible:—"And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die. And when he heard of Jesus he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant. And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick." (Luke 7.)

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:—"Resist evil — error of every sort — and it will flee from you. Error is opposed to Life. We can, and ultimately shall, so rise as to avail ourselves in every direction of the supremacy of Truth over error, Life over death, and good over evil and this growth go on until we arrive at the fullness of God's idea and no more fear that we shall be sick and die. Not death but the understanding of Life, makes man immortal." (Pages 406 and 485.)

seldom heard Diligence, Perseverance, Felicity, Veracity, etc. Gloria does not seem to have been used before the 19th century. Its great vogue in the 1920s may have been due partly to the fact that there were Glorias in the news and on the screen.

T. G. Wells Dead; Was President Of Beverage Firm

A funeral service was held Tuesday afternoon for Thomas Gavin Wells, of 42 Chesterfield avenue, Westmount, president for 50 years of the Laurentian Spring Water and Beverages Co. Ltd., who died Monday morning in the Montreal General Hospital. He was 83.

Born in Ingersoll, Ont., Mr. Wells was the son of Thomas Wells, K.C., and the former Mary White. He attended Trinity College School, Port Hope, where he was a member of the track team. Came Here in 1890

Mr. Wells received his early business training in the banking profession and came to Montreal in 1890. He entered the firm of Robert White Co. which later became the beverage company.

He was a former president of the Rotary Club of Montreal and a district governor of Rotary International, a member of the Montreal Board of Trade and the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, a member of the Royal Montreal Curling Club of which he was a past president, a member of the St. George's Club and the Kanawaki Golf and Country Club.

Mr. Wells was a life governor of the Montreal General Hospital.

He is survived by his wife, the former May Fair, of Warrentown, Va., two sons, Edward Francis Wells, of Toronto and Thomas D. Wells, Jr., of Montreal; three daughters, Miss Kathleen Wells, of Quebec, Mrs. Virginia Melbourne, of Falls Church, Va., and Mrs. Verne Turley, of Montreal; and seven grandchildren.

The service was held in the chapel of Jos. C. Wray and Bro., Mountain street. Burial was in Mount Royal cemetery.

Scrutinize Seams When Buying Dress

Both the stitching and finish of seams are important clues to what is or is not a good buy in dresses and suits. If one looks for straight, smooth, even seams, with stitches not too long to hold securely, the purchase should be a good one. It is wise to avoid garments that have puckered or wandering stitching, or loose, unfastened dangling threads.

Make sure, advise the specialists, that seams are wide enough for possible alteration. Wide seam allowances—from 1/2 to 3/4 inches on plain seams—are less likely to fray than those which are cut too loose.

How seam edges are finished is important, too. French seams, in which all raw edges are turned under and stitched and about 1/4 inch wide when finished, are recommended for sheer cottons or rayons which fray easily. Firm, medium-weight fabric, like gingham or percale, will hold securely with double-stitched seams about 3/8 inch when finished.

On heavy material however such finishes may be too thick for best appearance and difficult to press flat. On firmly woven heavy fabric, edges can simply be "pinked" with the shears provided for this purpose. Fabric that is inclined to ravel, however, should have raw edges bound with tape, held with overcasting stitches, or turned in and machine-stitched.

There is another consideration, also. How seams hold depends also on how a garment fits. Comfortable-fitting clothes put less strain on seams. Those that are too tight may pull out any seam, however good the finish.

Mtl. General Hospital Stresses Need for More Volunteer Staff

"Seldom has so much been done for so many by so few", to paraphrase a very famous saying — but that is what comes to mind when one hears Miss Flora Baptist, superintendent of volunteers at the Montreal General Hospital, speak of the volunteer work being done at the Hospital by members of the Women's Auxiliary.

New to hospital ways until very recently and viewed initially with a certain alarm by the hospital's professional staff, the volunteers now have no firmer supporters than the doctors and nurses whom they assist. In fact, according to Miss Baptist, some of the jobs being done by the volunteers are now classed as essential in the smooth running of the hospital.

With summer here, the need for dependable volunteers is greater than it ever was, for while the work of the hospital never ceases, the staff must have holidays and capable volunteers can do much to help those who continue on duty. In addition to the year-round work being done by volunteers in the clinics — work that ranges from the clinical field to hearing tests — many of the doctors have asked for volunteers to fill in as secretaries which their regular assistants are on vacation.

"The secretarial field is one that has great possibilities for the volunteer worker," states Miss Baptist. It has been suggested that a new opening for volunteers at the Central Division would be as floor secretaries. A floor secretary would be on duty from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. and her duties would include record keeping, answering the telephone, arranging patients' flowers and distributing juices.

"This would be a wonderful opportunity for volunteer service", Miss Baptist said. "We would like to start them on the two private floors first — but before we can do anything definite we must have

Mr. Franklin Kitchen and His Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin William Edward Kitchen, photographed following their wedding on Monday, July 2, at St. Aloysius Church. The bride is the former Miss Kathleen Ellen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Boland of Montreal, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kitchen of Westmount. The couple will reside in Westmount.

KITCHEN-BOLAND

The marriage of Kathleen Ellen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Boland, of Montreal, to Mr. Franklin William Edward Kitchen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kitchen of Westmount, took place on Monday, July 2, at St. Aloysius Church, the Rev. Father Griffin officiating. The bride given away by her father, wore a gown of white faille taffeta with buttons, down the front from neck to waist, stand-up collar, and lily point sleeves. Her finger-tip veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a semi-cascade bouquet of American Beauty roses set in tulle.

Mrs. Allen Read, matron-of-honor for her sister, wore seafoam green. Her dress was on similar lines to the bride's, but with short sleeves, matching mitts, and a bandeaux of flowers in her hair. She carried a Colonial bouquet of sweet peas in tones of mauve and yellow.

Mr. James Bunclark was best man for Mr. Kitchen.

The mother of the bride was dressed in navy silk with polka dot trim, and she wore a flowered hat and a corsage of red carnations. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in a suit of aqua linen with white accessories, her corsage bouquet being of pale pink Sweetheart roses. The reception was held at the Buffet Scarabee, where the bride's table was decorated with red roses and baby's breath, and centred with the wedding cake.

Two teams of really dependable volunteers — volunteer workers who will appreciate thoroughly the responsibility involved.

Members of the Women's Auxiliary who would like to do this type of work should get in touch with the volunteer chairman of their branch or with Miss Baptist, at the Central Division of the M. G. H. Anyone who has had previous business experience would be good at this job and if they long to do something that would make them an integral part of the Hospital, this would be the ideal spot for them.

ated with red roses and baby's breath, and centred with the wedding cake.

Later the couple left for Lake Placid, N.Y., the bride travelling in a two-piece white linen suit with Kelly Green accessories, and a corsage of talisman roses. They will reside in Westmount.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. A. Read of Castlegar, B.C.; Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Wilson of Toronto; and Mr. and Mrs. S. Phipers and Mr. and Mrs. J. Lyons, of Long Island, N.Y.

FERNANDEZ-LAROCQUE

The marriage of Mary Lorraine, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Leslie Larocque, of Verdun, to Mr. Peter J. Fernandez, Jr., only son of Mr. P. J. and the late Mrs. Fernandez, of Westmount, was solemnized recently in St. Thomas More Church, Verdun, Father Edward J. Lapointe officiating at a double ring ceremony.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white Chantilly lace and nylon net over taffeta, with sweetheart neckline and a bouffant skirt. Her fingertip length veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls and orange blossoms. She also wore a gold cross gift of the bridegroom, and carried an arm bouquet of Briarcliffe roses.

Miss Eileen McGivern, cousin of the bride, was in a gown of daffodil yellow nylon net over taffeta with matching bolero and mittens, and a large picture hat. She carried an arm bouquet of blue carnations.

Mrs. Emmett McGivern as the other attendant was in a gown of twilight blue nylon net over taffeta with matching bolero and mittens. She also wore a large picture hat and carried an arm bouquet of yellow carnations.

Mr. Emmett McGivern, cousin of the bride, acted as best man, and the ushers were Messrs. Edward Starnes and MacKenzie McCready.

If Color Is Fast

If you have any doubt as to whether a fabric is color fast, test it before using. An easy and sure way of doing this is to stitch a sample of the material on a piece of white cloth, then wash and iron it. If the color is not fast, the white cloth will be tinted and streaked.

tural tracteries from French palaces, usually dark tracteries on a deeply colored ground. Some of the newest 36-inch squares are large enough for a summer wrap, and often rich enough to dominate a costume. In silk crepe or chiffon, rather than the usual silk twill, these huge squares often show purely decorative motifs, and, quite delightfully, lace patterns. Three yards long and 40 inches wide, one giant stole is printed in wide contrasting burnoose stripes that harmonize with either light or dark costumes. Gold-leaf printing on silk net is a new technique which sends forth into the fashion field fabulous ideas to be developed as accessories.

At the moment, a single item is being shown — a gold-printed net designed as an apron tunic, lavishly sashed with ribbon. This transforms a plain sheath into an evening dress with the swiftness only an accessory would dare attempt.

Screen Comedy, "The Mating Season", at Westmount Sunday

A new screen comedy with a topflight cast and a refreshingly original story will open Sunday at the Westmount Theatre with Paramount's "The Mating Season." Starring Gene Tierney, John Lund and Thelma Ritter in her richest comedy role to date, the film deals with the merry and tumultuous consequences of a marriage between a sumptuous socialite and a boy from the other end of town.

Miss Ritter, who had previously been cited for her fine comedy portrayals in "All About Eve" and "A Letter To Three Wives," reportedly establishes herself as filmland's funniest and most lovable comedienne in "The Mating Season." Cast as a hamburger stand operator, she closes shop and hitch hikes out to her son's love nest to work her hilarious brand of magic on a wild marital mix up.

Glamorous Gene Tierney, who usually plays a femme fatale—or at least a girl with serious problems—gets a welcome change of pace in this romantic comedy. She appears as a diplomat's daughter who marries a low-salaried draftsman and enters into a round of domestic high jinx. John Lund, an old and accomplished hand at comedy, portrays a harried groom who tries to cope with a love rival, a luscious blonde schemer, and a malicious mother-in-law.

A war film through which is woven tender strands of romance born amid the dangers of battle, "Breakthrough," the new Warner Bros. picture, is the added attraction.

Co-starred are David Brian, John Agar and Frank Lovejoy, with lovely Suzanne Dalbert playing the leading feminine role.

A salute to the foot-slogging infantry that fights sometimes with tank and bazooka, but mostly with the Garand rifle, "Breakthrough," takes a gallant platoon,

Double Feature at the Monkland

The above scene is from the new technicolor production "Little Women," starting Saturday until Tuesday at the Monkland Theatre with your loveable stars June Allyson, Peter Lawford, Margaret O'Brien, Elizabeth Taylor, Janet Leigh, Rossano Brazzi, Mary Astor, Lucile Watson, Sir C. Aubrey Smith, Harry Davenport. For your complete enjoyment we have, by popular demand, selected "Edward My Son," starring Spencer Tracy and Deborah Kerr, to make this program one of the outstanding treats of the season.

"Little Women" and "Edward My Son" At The Monkland

"Little Women," which opens Saturday at the Monkland Theatre, is M-G-M's star-studded Technicolor filmization of the celebrated novel by Louisa May Olcott, one of the most widely-read stories in the world.

Louisa May Olcott was born on November 29, 1832, in Philadelphia. Her birth coincided with the 33rd birthday of her father, Amos Bronson Olcott, a teacher, philosopher and social reformer. His views regarding education (for example, that girls were as deserving of higher education as boys) were so ahead of his time that he had difficulty keeping a position.

Louisa, to augment the family income, worked as governess, seamstress and companion to invalids. In the Civil War she put this practical nursing experience to good use and tended wounded in army hospitals until her health broke down under the strain. When she found it necessary to find less strenuous work, she became a writer.

She wrote about persons she knew best, the members of her family, with such understanding that the whole world recognized them as kin. For the result was "Little Women," which became an immediate best-seller and a monumental portrait of life in the 1860's.

In M-G-M's film version June Allyson is cast as Jo, Peter Lawford as Laurie, Margaret O'Brien as Beth, Elizabeth Taylor as Amy and Janet Leigh as Meg. The Italian film star, Rossano Brazzi, makes his American screen debut in the role of Professor Bhaer, Mary Astor is seen as Marmee, Lucile Watson as Aunt March, Sir C. Aubrey Smith as Mr. Laurence, Elizabeth Patterson as Hannah, Leon Ames as Mr. March, Harry Davenport as Dr. Barnes, and Richard Stapley as John Brooke. The picture was produced and directed by Mervyn LeRoy.

typical of the thousands in the American army which smashed its way to victory in the recent strife through the vicissitudes of one of the most bitter campaigns of the war. Shot on location at Fort Ord, California, with some actual war footage worked in to lend the proper authenticity, the picture has already been heralded to take its place alongside the great war pictures, like "What Price Glory" and "All Quiet on the Western Front," of yesteryear.

David Brian plays Capt. Tom Hale, big, rugged infantry officer, tougher on the outside than within, while John Agar is Lieut. Joe Mallory fresh from OCS, with whom he locks horns on issues, rubbed raw under the constant bombardment and pressure of day-and-night warfare. Frank Lovejoy, the sports reporter of "Three Secrets," is the quiet, tough and efficient top sergeant the backbone of the platoon.

He added that Outremont had taken the case to court only after failing to come to an agreement with Montreal.

Accuses Westmount

Mayor Houde in replying to Mayor Bourque said that he had in mind the "other" municipality — meaning Westmount — which he accused of having deliberately reduced the rental assessment so as to obtain a reduction in water taxes.

"This thing will have to be

Westmount Share Of Trunk Sewer Set At $137,303

The new trunk sewer to be constructed by the City of Montreal will cost Westmount $137,303, it was disclosed Monday.

The Meilleur-Atlantic sewer collector designed to prevent backflows into cellars in the northwest section of Montreal has advanced one step nearer realization with the decision handed down on Monday by the Quebec Public Service Commission which fixed the share each contributing municipality would have to pay.

However, it was learned at Montreal City Hall the start of work is still months away, as plans and specifications must be approved by each municipality — Outremont, Town of Mount Royal, Westmount and Ville St. Laurent.

To Cost $10,517,810

The estimated cost, according to briefs submitted to the commission by Montreal, is $10,517,810.

Of this amount, Montreal's share is $6,449,957 or 61.32 per cent.

Outremont's share will be $1,694,156 or 16.11 per cent; Town of Mount Royal, $2,078,547; Westmount, $137,303, or 1.31 per cent; and St. Laurent, $157,845, or 1.50 per cent.

In its ruling, the commission emphasized that the share of each municipality is based on the acreage drained by the collector in each.

Work on the collector must be completed within three years after it is started. The commission ordered Montreal to undertake the work in five sections and emphasized that construction costs may be revised.

settled one way or the other. If we don't do it, the Quebec Legislature will," he said. "It's getting awfully tiresome for Montreal to go out 100 miles to inspect meats and milk and have the surrounding municipalities benefit by it without paying a cent."

With the state of mind at present existing in Montreal municipal government circles it would seem that an attempt will be made to bring suburban municipalities more under the control of Montreal than they are at present.

Future developments in the fight for and against annexation should prove interesting. Westmount will undoubtedly fight any such move.

Alderman R. Panet-Raymond told The Examiner that speaking quite personally he could see no advantage accruing to Westmount in linking up with Montreal, further than that he preferred not to enlarge at the moment.

Hon. D. C. Abbott To Attend Bank Conference In U.S.

Finance Minister Abbott, member for Westmount-St. Antoine, will represent Canada at meetings of the International Monetary Fund and the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development in Washington in September.

A Finance Department official said it is not unlikely that Mr. Abbott and representatives of other Commonwealth countries will confer during the Washington discussions on problems of mutual interest.

All Commonwealth countries except New Zealand are members of the International Monetary Fund and the International Bank.

The official said that during the annual meetings of the fund and the bank the representatives of the Commonwealth countries usually meet privately for discussions on mutual problems.

Inter-Service League Race Continues Close

Four games were played in the Westmount Inter-Service league during the last week, but none of the results changed the closeness of the leading teams, as all of the leaders won their games.

On Friday night the league leading R.C.M.P. swamped the City of Westmount by the score of 21 to 9 in what was a free hitting game with the Mounties having all the best of things. Robitaille was the winning pitcher.

In the other game, the first shutout of the league was registered, as R.M.R. blanked R.C.E. 6 to 0.

Van Ryswyk the R.M.R. pitcher was complete master of things, just missing a no hitter, allowing a scratch single in the 5th inning, while striking out 10 men and only walking 1.

It was one of the fastest games played on the local grounds, taking only 55 minutes to complete the game.

R.M.R. WON AGAIN

In games played on Tuesday, R.M.R. were again victorious, defeating the R.C.A.S.C. 9 to 2, while Navy were swamping R.C.E. by the score of 20 to 10.

In the Navy vs Engineers game, it was apparent from the start, who the victors would be, as the Navy ran up a commanding lead of 15 to 1 allowing pitcher Jack Bates to relax and coast through the remainder of the game.

In the other game R.M.R. continued their winning ways behind the steady 3 hit pitching of their pitching ace Van Ryswyk. Although very tight with his hits, he was very generous with his walks giving out 9 free passes, putting himself in some tight spots, as the Service Corps boys loaded the bases in each of the last two innings, only to leave them stranded. A hit in either spot could have changed defeat into victory.

The highlight of the coming week is the game between Reg't. de Chateauguay and the league leading Mounties, and it could be that the league leaders are in for a surprise.

Chuck Casey and Fred Rowley won the table tennis tournament held at the Westmount Y.M.C.A. at the Father-and-Son Night on Friday, July 13. Other highlights of the Camp Westmount program this week were the trip on the Island King around Lake St. Louis and a trip to St. Helen's Island.

The Inter-Y.M.C.A. Track Meet will be held this coming Tuesday, July 24, at the N.D.G. Y.M.C.A.

Failure To Stop On Red Causes Two Car Collision

Two cars were involved in a collision at the corner of Mount Pleasant and Cedar Avenues last week. They were driven by Clement Moor, 22, of 4437 St. Denis Street, and William Wollner, of Longueuil. Mr. Moor told the police he failed to stop at a red light on Mount Pleasant.

Ave. Stars Drub RYPS Latter Beats Aladdins

By ALLAN SANDZELIUS

The holidays hit hard at the Westmount Corporation Yards team of the Westmount Intermediate Softball League this week as for the third time in two weeks they were forced to forfeit their scheduled games due to being unable to field a minimum of seven men. Teams thus benefitting became the Aladdins, (twice) and Ave. Stars.

Because of the abovementioned, only single games were played this Monday and Wednesday with Avenue Stars blasting the hapless R.Y.P.S. 15-5 and the Aladdins practically scared into winning the Wednesday offering over the same losers, 15-9.

Diminutive Doug "Bud" Selby and his opposite, lanky Mike Barnard were the big guns in Monday's Stars' attack as they each brought home the bacon to the tune of three runs, Selby on three hits and a walk, the latter on two walks and a fielder's choice. Dougie Brambell had 3 for 5 and two runs, Martin, Tailon and Manolson getting two apiece and Pat Lomasney, one. Ryps' runs were again evenly scattered as Dormer, Don Badke, Gill, Voss and Locke. MacDougall was the losing hurler, Barnard the winner.

In the day before yesterday's dull affair, the lowly Redeemer men almost pulled up a surprise as they had the wise-cracking Lunny-led Aladdins down 7-6 going into the fifth stanza then slumping for three innings to start the top of the eighth behind the home team, 13-7. At that moment things began to look up for the Blue and Gold as pitcher Fred MacDougall drove up, replaced the first RYP batter in the 8th, slammed out a home run followed by Don Badke's fielder's choice and eventual run all to no avail, however, as the final tally stood at 15-9 for Aladdins.

Attention! . . . Sometime in the near future there will be an All-Star versus Avenue Stars game and here is the tentative first team line-up with more details and probable changes by next week:

1. Pitcher — Fred MacDougall, RYPS. 2. Catcher — Ray Paradis, Yards, or Al Dormer, RYPS. 3. 1st base — Taylor or O'Meara, Aladdins. 4. 2nd base — Don Macdonald, Aladdins. 5. 3rd base — Cliff Gill, RYPS, or Guy Bonnier, Yards. 6. S.S. — Ron Brambell, Yards. 7. Left F. — Don Badke, RYPS. 8. Center F. — Guy Morin, Yards. 9. Right F. — Jim McCarthy, Aladdins.

U.S. Casualties In Korea 78,726; Canada Lists 209

The United States Defence Department announced last week that U.S. battle casualties in Korea had reached 78,726. Based on notifications of families through last Friday, killed in action totalled 11,728, wounded 54,750 and missing 12,248.

The last U.N. casualty breakdown, released June 22, placed Australian casualties at 137, Belgium-Luxembourg at 124, French at 30, Greek 139, Dutch 162, New Zealand 14, Philippine 161, Turkish 1613, Siamese 135, South African six, and Republic of Korea, 126, 171.

Defence Minister Emanuel Shinwell told the House of Commons that total British casualties in Korea up to midnight, July 7, were 260 killed or died of wounds, 819 wounded and 1,101 missing.

Canada has suffered 209 casualties: two navy men dead and the Army with 52 dead, 140 wounded and 15 injured in battle accidents.

Station Of Cross Will Be Placed On City Property

On the request of officials of St. Joseph's Oratory the City of Westmount will move their lamp standard at the end of Surrey Gardens to make room for one of the Stations of the Cross.

The property of the Shrine borders on the City of Westmount and in order to complete "The Way of the Cross," a garden depicting Christ's Passion, city officials are allowing the religious institution to establish one of the stations in Westmount.

This is being done on the understanding that the Shrine authorities will discourage people visiting the Oratory from using Surrey Gardens as an entrance.
