IRON WORKER SAYS HE WAS BRIBED FOR DYNAMITING

Alleges National Erectors' Association and Detective Burns Engaged Him to Direct Destruction.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 19.—The International Structural Iron and Bridge Workers made a diversion here last night to offset the effect of the arrest of the McNamaras and McManigal by the alleged confession of James Elliott, of this city. The confession is discredited.

At the Labor Temple Elliott is quoted as making a statement implicating Walter Drew and John Bushey, of the National Erectors' Association, and Detective John J. Burns, saying he was asked as an expert where to place dynamite to wreck eight structures, for which he was to receive $5,000, and of which he only received $150.

He is reported to have said he accompanied them when they bought dynamite, which was handed over to two strange men. Elliott alleged that he showed Bushey and Drew how to blow up the furnace of the Corrigan-McKinnie Company at Cleveland. He also directed them where to place the charge which blew up the Steubenville bridge. Burns, he says, told him how, if he could land the heads of the Structural Iron Workers on the gallows he (Burns) would be worth $100,000.

Governor Pothier, of Rhode Island, has vetoed the appropriation of $19,500 for the purposes of the lobster commissioners, and fishermen declare the result will be disastrous.

ALLEGED SLAYERS OF CUOCCOLOS CONFRONT INFORMER TO-DAY

Ascrittore Tells Why De Angelis and Amedeo Were Charged With the Crime.

Viterbo, Italy, May 19.—The two men denounced by Giacomo Ascrittore as the assassins of Gennaro Cuoccolo and his wife were given a chance to face their accuser and verbally defend themselves at the trial of the Camorrists to-day.

After Enrico Falcano and other alleged leaders of the Camorra had been arrested on suspicion, they were released upon the intercession of the priest, Ciro Vitozzi, who said that he had learned of their innocence through the discovery of the real assassins while performing his office of confessor.

It developed that Giacomo Ascrittore had charged Tomasso De Angelis and Gaetano Amedeo as the murderers. These men, though known criminals, established alibis, and Vitozzi and Ascrittore were arrested, charged with conspiracy against them, and also with an attempt to shield the actual assassins.

Subsequently Alfano and his associates were again arrested and held for the present trial.

All Members of Camorra.

De Angelis and Amedeo are now charged with being active members of the Camorra, and Ascrittore as an accomplice, in the murder of the Cuoccolos, and with conspiracy against the other two.

Nothing of special importance was developed. Ascrittore confirmed his earlier testimony repeating the circumstances which he said had led him to believe that the men he denounced were guilty. He declared that at one time De Angelis had shown him a dagger saying, "With this Cuoccolo will be served." The accused denied the allegations.

President Bianchi instructed De Angelis to bare his leg and show again to the hjurymen and to the medical experts the wound which, according to Ascrittore, was received from Cuoccolo when the latter was fighting for his life. De Angelis reiterated that the scar was from an injury received in prison in 1904, the wound having reopened in 1908.

SANGSTERS FOR A SONG

One day an executor, closing out an estate, offered at public auction the household effects of a wealthy man.

Among those who attended the sale was a woman who always kept in touch with the Want Columns of her favorite paper, where she read of the sale.

Among the effects offered were a lot of water colors by A. L. Sangster, "The Poet Painter of the Niagara."

Securing these pictures for a mere song, the woman was able to dispose of some of them at their real worth, and reserved a number of them to hang on the walls of her own home.

This is but one practical example of the fact that it pays to read the Want Columns.

Caesar's Brother, Royal Jack Will Aid Little Children.

Relative of King Edward's Wire-Haired Terrier Will Be Shown to Help Children's Memorial Hospital Funds.

ROYAL JACK, BROTHER OF KING EDWARD'S CAESAR.

The Boston Terrier Show, which will be held to-morrow at the Victoria Rifles Armory, in aid of the Children's Memorial Hospital, will have a special and unique attraction in Miss Drummond's wire haired terrier Royal Jack.

Royal Jack is a full brother to Caesar, famed the world over as "The King's Dog," and whose grief at the death of his master, His late Majesty Edward VII, filled the hearts of a whole Empire with pity. No other dog ever was the object of such widespread heartfelt sympathy and affection as was Caesar. The loneliness and misery that followed the stilling of the voice he loved to hear was shared by millions of hearts that beat in every corner of the civilized globe. "I am Caesar; I belong to the King," was the inscription on the little fellow's collar. Now that the great King has been laid with his fathers, this might be: "I am Caesar; I belong to those who loved the King."

Caesar's brother, Royal Jack, was the property of Sir George Drummond, and on his master's death was given to Miss Drummond, niece of the late gentleman. He was brought to Canada by Sir George several years ago from England, where he was bred in the Royal kennels of the same father and mother as King Edward's favorite. Photographs of the two brothers, when placed side by side, can hardly be distinguished, so closely do Caesar and Royal Jack resemble each other.

Through the kindness of Miss Drummond, Royal Jack will be exhibited at the Boston Terrier Show to-morrow, not as an entry of course, for Jack is a wire haired fox terrier, but to help the crippled children in the hospital on the mountain side.

Royal Jack Tells Tale.

The little chap arrived in Montreal this morning from Miss Drummond's country home and willingly consented to pose for the Star's photographer.

"I don't care much about this sort of thing," he said, "but if it will be of any assistance to the poor little cripples in the hospital, why it's all right. Just tell me what to do and I'll do it.

"No, I was never in a dog show before and I don't think I'll fancy it very much, but a fellow must do something for others, mustn't he? A dog friend of mine told me once that his boss had put him in a show and that there was so much yelping and noise he didn't sleep a wink for three nights and three days.

"My mistress, when she asked me if I would like to be shown with the Bostons to-morrow, told me about the children who can't run about on account of being crippled in some way or other, and I was glad to be able to do something for them. I know what it is to suffer; I had a sore paw myself once and I had to lick it for days and days before it was well again and I was able to chase cats properly. It's not very nice I can tell you, to see cats come into your yard and not be able to get after them.

Jack in a Musing Mood.

"Yes, Caesar and I are brothers. I haven't seen him for a long time, but I guess we'd know each other again, all right. I've seen pictures of him in the papers and he doesn't seem to have changed much, in spite of all he's gone through. His master's going away was a terrible blow to him; they were so fond of each other that I wonder he ever survived it at all. But his master's Queen was kind and tender to him and I fancy that made up for some of what he had lost, although things could never be the same to him again. Some people think that dogs forget griefs easily, but this isn't true. I lost my master over a year ago, and I haven't forgotten.

What a Dog Likes.

"I'm not going to talk about myself, though, and I don't want to say too much about my brother, because he's a sensitive chap and doesn't like to be talked about. He's very much like I am myself; we both like a nice quiet spot near those who love us and a run out occasionally without a leash and no fuss. Mother and father were like that too, so I suppose it runs in the family. What I would like is to put us dogs right with people on a certain point.

"I heard a man saying the other day that the country was 'going to the dogs.' This is not the first time I've heard the same thing—the country or some person is always 'going to the dogs,' it seems to me, but I object to the expression. Why should people mention dogs when they want to say something dreadful? That's what I want to know. Why don't they say 'going to the cats' or 'the rats' instead. I know there are a lot of dogs who are not quite what they should be; But, on the whole, we are not a bad lot and I wish people would change that saying to something else.

Not a Bit Forward.

"I'm talking an awful lot, am I not? It's not often, though, that I get a chance to express my views to the public at large (I think that's what you call it in the papers, isn't it?) and I wanted to set things right for the rest of the fellows. Don't imagine that I'm forward as a rule or that I am stuck-up on account of being Caesar's brother. I'm not, and I hope that the people I meet at the Boston's show to-morrow will like me, because I want to be liked by everyone.

"I hope, too, that there will be lots of people come and see me, on account of the poor little crippled children. I've come a long way in from the country to be at the show. I think if a little dog is willing to do that much to help the children, people ought to be glad to do their share in helping the Bostons get a lot of money to make things easier for them. Don't you?"

Gustav Mahler Dead in Vienna

Famous Conductor Succumbs to Angina Pectoris and Inflammation of Lungs.

Vienna, May 19. — Gustav Mahler, the eminent composer and conductor, is dead here. He had been under the care of specialists in France for months and returned to Vienna about a week ago. It was announced yesterday that the inflammation of the lungs was spreading and that the condition of the composer was practically hopeless. Mr. Mahler's ailment was angina pectoris, which latterly became complicated by blood poisoning.

Gustav Mahler was for many years director of the Vienna Imperial Opera, being appointed to that position in 1897 in succession to William Jahn. For a brief period in 1908 he occupied the position of musical director in the Metropolitan Opera House, New York, and later directed the concerts of the New York Philharmonic for two seasons.

WESTON, ONT. — Margaret, wife of Thomas Goddard, is dead, aged 40 years.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Chicago, May 19.—R. F. Dudenthal was given credit by the police for the best "hard luck" story of the day.

He was passing an alley in Indiana avenue, near his home, when two men seized him. One choked him so hard that his gold teeth fell out.

"Hey, Jack," said one robber who caught the teeth, "this looks good. Tighten up on him; he may give up more."

They not only took Dudenthal's gold teeth, but $50 and meerschaum pipe.

Chattanooga Physician a Murderer.

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 19. — Dr. John Sherman was sentenced to-day to ten years in the penitentiary, for the murder of Thomas B. Norman, his brother-in-law, whom he killed he contended, in self-defense.

The Canadian Pacific Railway is said to have acquired the Leslie Nurseries in the East End of Toronto.

IMPERIAL CONFERENCE ON MONDAY

Admission of the Press First Problem to be Decided

Imperial Government's Policy and Hopes of Unionists in Regard to Empire.

By Special Cable from our own Correspondent.

London, May 19.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier is expected to arrive in London late to-night with Sir Frederick Borden and Hon. L. P. Brodeur. The Canadian Ministers will find a mass of invitations to luncheons, dinners and receptions awaiting them.

Premier Botha, of South Africa, arrives to-morrow, Sir Joseph Ward, of New Zealand, Premier Fisher, of Australia, and Premier Morris, of Newfoundland, are already here. The list of delegates will then be complete for the opening of the Imperial Conference on Monday.

It is understood that Premier Asquith will be prevented by the pressure of the urgent political situation here from taking any considerable part in the Conference, though he will share in the opening ceremony and will join in the social welcome at the grand Foreign Office reception on Monday evening.

SHALL CONFERENCE BE OPEN TO PRESS?

The first problem to come before the Conference will be the question as to whether the Press is to be admitted. No press-men were allowed at the 1907 Conference, and there was much dissatisfaction with the bald official summary published each day. The result was that more or less fanciful and embarrassing narration of incidents at the Conference were continually appearing.

Several Premiers, of whom, however, Sir Wilfrid Laurier is not expected to be one, desires that the Press be admitted, the Conference, of course, retaining the option of requesting their withdrawal as need arises.

POWER TO NEGOTIATE THROUGH FOREIGN CONSULS

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's announced intention to raise the question of securing greater power of direct negotiation with Foreign Powers, through the German and other Consuls-General in Canada, is expected to lead to a general discussion of the grave treaty complications which have arisen in connection with the reciprocity agreement.

The inference drawn from Viscount Haldane's speech in the House of Lords last night is that the Ministry intend to leave Canada to do just as she pleases.

The Ministers had to admit in the House of Lords yesterday that they had no correspondence or papers of any kind to submit on the Empire or treaty aspects of the reciprocity agreement.

Viscount Haldane said:—

"The Government has a perfectly definite attitude. We do not think it a good thing to attempt to guide or influence the policy of the great Dominion in matters of trade. We are Free-Traders, and we intend to remain Free-Traders. As for the Preference, we regard it as an unsound policy."

HOPE FOR SYSTEM OF JOINT NEGOTIATION.

The Unionist leaders, for whom Lord Selborne spoke in the House of Lords debate, believe, on the other hand, that by her refusal to accept the principle of Empire trade co-operation on a tariff basis England is driving Canada into treaty and other complications which can only end in the success of President Taft's policy and the ultimate dismemberment of the Empire.

They hope that a full and frank discussion at the Conference will show that the Ministers of all the Dominions would be favorable to ex-Premier Deakin's proposal at the 1907 Conference for a system of joint negotiation with foreign countries, in which Canada and the other Dominions would greatly increase their bargaining power, and, as full partners in an Imperial treaty system, raise their status among the nations of the world, while completely safeguarding their autonomy.

Such a system of joint negotiation however, requires the adoption of a tariff and preference by the Mother Country, following the example of Canada, New Zealand, Australia and South Africa.

WINDERMERE.

RIGHTS OF TUTORS.

A tutor has all the privileges of a father, was the conclusion of Judge Demers in the petition for habeas corpus presented by Mr. J. E. A. Bruneau against Dame Cecile Paquette. Plaintiff was seeking the possession of the children born of the first marriage of Dr. A. U. Gravelle, now incapacitated on account of insanity, and husband of the defendant.

The Judge ruled that the family council having appointed the tutor with the especial intention of entrusting him with the care of the children, his will had to be supported by the court. Consequently, the two children who had been produced in the Practice Court, this morning, by their step-mother, left it in charge of their uncle and tutor, Mr. J. E. A. Bruneau.

DO WE WANT THE PAPER INDUSTRY?

Mr. John Norris, Chairman of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association, is a gentleman of engaging frankness. He tells the truth; and he doesn't care who hears it.

He has just made a statement in which he tells his people five things:

(1) That the Canadian Provinces are trying to force the American paper mills to move to the Canadian side of the border.

(2) That the American supplies of pulp wood are "nearly exhausted."

(3) That, in 1891, the American Senate "undertook to bulldoze the Canadian Provinces to let their pulp wood come into the United States without restriction."

(4) That this policy failed, provoking "an ugly complication" instead.

(5) That "the paper clause of the Reciprocity treaty offers the only immediate and promising solution" of this "ugly" situation.

* * * * *

Every one of these statements is true.

We accept the testimony of the American witness on these points without demur. A document submitted by President Taft to the Senate yesterday shows just how true some of them are. There is, for example, the comparative scarcity of pulp wood in the United States. This document shows that the Americans must pay—on an average—$10.23 a cord for pulp wood which is sold in Canada for $5.70. That is, it costs the American about a hundred per cent. more.

The monopoly of pulp wood possessed by Canada is no longer disputed. Mr. Norris himself gave evidence sometime ago before a Congressional Committee on this very point. He said:

"Our complete dependence on outside sources for wood is shown by the fact that we bought last year pulp wood and pulps to the extent of 1,716,000 cords. The supply of pulp wood (in the United States) was so inadequate that we paid over $150,000 in penalties to get wood from Canadian Crown Lands." This was not the price of the wood, be it observed, but only the amount of the penalties paid to our Provincial Governments by these Americans in order to be able to buy our wood.

When it comes to the price of the wood, the figures are positively astonishing. "We paid," said Mr. Norris, "$19,406,074 to foreigners for pulp wood and pulps to keep American mills going."

That is American testimony. That shows how painfully near to depletion they are. We ought surely to have heard the last of our local skepticism, born of ignorance and a general tendency to depreciate things Canadian, touching our real monopoly in pulp wood for this Continent.

* * * * *

The paper-making industry is, by nature, a Canadian industry. We can have it without a vestige of Protection. We have only to bar the robbers out of our natural resources.

As to the value of such an industry to this country, it hardly needs the arguing. Any big industry adds to the Home Market. It keeps our workingmen in the country; it draws skilled labor from abroad; and it builds up communities which eat Canadian farm produce and wear Canadian cloths, buy Canadian house equipment and employ Canadian professional services.

Then there is the difference in the value of the output. Taking the figures given by President Taft, we get $5.70 a cord for pulp wood. The price of news print in the United States is $45 a ton. It takes a cord and a-third of pulp wood to make a ton of paper.

If we sell a cord and a-third of pulp wood, we get $7.60.

If we sell a ton of paper, we get $45.

Even if we count off $5 freight to ship this paper to the American market, we still get $40 instead of $7.60. And it may be remarked that the average price of pulp wood reported by President Taft is a trifle high.

* * * * *

But the most important statement made by Mr. John Norris is that the paper clause in the proposed Reciprocity Agreement "offers the only immediate and promising solution."

Now, be it noted, this clause does not itself solve the question. It does not open to the Americans one acre of Crown forest land; and Crown forest land is in this Province 95 per cent. of the whole. The privately-owned timber will last a very short time under the devouring appetite of the American mills.

Yet Mr. Norris is satisfied with this clause. Why? Mr. Norris—as we have said—is charmingly frank. He told us "why" in his evidence before the Congressional Committee. He then went so far as to say that "the paper clause of the pending Reciprocity Agreement overcomes all the difficulties of the situation."

And he revealed the "modus operandi." He explained that this clause would admit the products of pulp wood from private timber lands in Canada free of duty. So these privately-owned timber lots will immediately begin to earn the profits of admission to the American market on almost monopolistic terms. The result will be that the manufacturers who draw their raw material from Crown lands, will at once begin to agitate for a share in this profit. They will bring pressure to bear on the Provincial Governments to remove their restrictions; and, says Mr. Norris, "this pressure will be irresistible."

It is that "pressure" upon which he is calculating. Possibly he knows something of another form of "pressure" which might be applied. He is not lacking in experience in the manners and methods of the greatest "lobby" in the world—the "lobby" which helps Congress to come to its conclusions.

* * * * *

The results that will flow from our choice are obvious.

If we reject the clause, we will compel the whole paper-making business to come to Canada, establish plants in Canada, invest capital in Canada, pay wages in Canada, buy the necessities of life in Canada, augment the population of Canada, and give us at least five times as much money for our reserves of pulp wood.

If we accept the clause, Mr. John Norris and his friends "will do the rest." They will undertake to make "the pressure irresistible" upon our Provincial Legislatures to throw our forest resources open to American exploitation. Paper mills will stay in the United States. The wages for making our pulp wood into paper will be paid to American workingmen and spent in American shops and with American farmers. We will have helped to build up a rival nation. We will have given away an industry which is ours by nature.

* * * * *

Here is a question which can be considered apart from the political consequences of the 'pact. We have not mentioned Annexation, though this, of course, is one of the strands which will draw us into political union.

The American newspapers, Republican and Democratic, are now enthusiastic for the agreement with a view to getting cheap paper. But, once they get it, they will be quite as eager to keep it. Now, how can they make sure of this? Only in one way—by Annexation. Consequently the success of this plot will intensify the anxiety of the American press for Annexation and the permanent possession of our pulp forests.

SMALLPOX IN HOSPITAL DOCTORS SAY

Girl Patient Taken From Hotel Dieu Declared to be Victim of Disease

Hospital Authorities Assert the Contrary—Cannot Explain Reason of Outbreak.

The case of chicken pox reported at the Hotel Dieu a few days ago has developed into smallpox, and the patient, a girl of ten years, who had been an inmate of the hospital for some months past has been removed to the Civic Hospital on Moreau street.

There are now two smallpox patients in the city's isolation hospital, the first patient being a telegraph operator who came to the city from the United States.

Dr. J. E. Laberge reports the hospital to be in a bad condition. The room in which the girl patient has been placed has a leaky roof, and today the Board of Control voted a sum of $60 to pay for the necessary repairs.

Another report to the Controllers stated that fifty men of the road department had been working in the vicinity of the smallpox hospital, and orders were at once given to Mr. Barlow, the city surveyor, to call the men off the roadwork in question in order to be beyond all possibility of contagion.

The Hotel Dieu authorities maintain that the case of the child was smallpox and that the patient was removed to the isolation hospital for safety. The Hotel Dieu authorities still doubt that it is smallpox.

As to the cause of the disease no explanation is available as the patient was in the institution for nearly a year and did not receive any visitors. She was suffering from eye and ear trouble and the outbreak of smallpox, if it is smallpox, cannot yet be accounted for.

INCENDIARY FIRES CHIEF BELIEVES OF WEST END CALLS

Too Many Calls From Same Box to Be Mere Coincidence Comments District Chief Briere.

"It is impossible that so many fires in this vicinity should occur accidentally, and I have a conviction that there are incendiaries at work," said District Chief Briere, when the fourth alarm in less than a week was sent in today from Box 3526, corner of Notre Dame and St. Ferdinand streets. Of these alarms, three of the fires were in the sheds of the Standard Chemical Co. The last call came last evening when fire was again discovered, not far from where Wednesday's blaze started. As these sheds have been in their present location alongside the tracks for a number of years, it is hard to believe that sparks from engines cause the outbreaks."

This morning, the fourth alarm in a week came from box 3526, for a fire, opposite the Standard Chemical Co.'s premises. It was a two storey wooden building in the rear of 1912 Notre Dame street west, used by Romuald Richardson, wood and grain merchant, as a storage. On the ground floor was kept wood and bales of hay, while upstairs were 30 sleighs. The fire started on the side of the building next to the tracks, and appears to have started from someone putting a match from this side of the buildings. The flames spread rapidly and did $1,500 damages before being extinguished.

CURIOUS ACCIDENT TO ENGLISH AVIATOR.

Scarborough, England, May 19.—Aviator B. C. Hucks, former assistant of Claude Grahame-White, was badly injured at Filey, eight miles southeast of here yesterday, while making a flight.

While in mid-air the propeller came off his aeroplane, and machine and aviator crashed to the earth. The aeroplane was wrecked, and Hucks suffered injuries about the head and a broken leg.

IT REFUSES TO GROW.

Horticulturist Fielding—"I've done everything possible, but the plant keeps on withering up."

METHODIST BODY VOTES FOR UNION OF THE CHURCHES

Warm Attack on Presbyterianism by the Secretary of the North District Conference.

Attacking the Presbyterian Church, and declaring that he would speak out without fear of consequences, Rev. W. B. Bradford started a lively debate at the Montreal Methodist North District meeting yesterday afternoon, while the discussion on church union was in progress.

"What has the Presbyterian Church so extraordinary to offer?" Rev. Mr. Bradford demanded. On the temperance question, especially, he asserted that took years before the Presbyterians adopted a decided attitude, and anything they had learned on that subject had been from the Methodists.

"I decline to allow a vote to be taken at this meeting without registering my protest," he declared. "I am going to speak without fear and will not stand side by side with the Presbyterians."

He had, moreover, he said, been disgusted with articles favoring church union without argument appearing in the Methodist Guardian and a daily newspaper.

Later in the debate, Prof. C. E. Bland of the Wesleyan Theological College, took exception to Mr. Bradford's utterances, declaring that he could stand shoulder to shoulder with the Presbyterians on any question. "Methodists," he declared, "have nothing to boast in the way of standards. Those of the Presbyterians are as high as ours."

Says Calvinism is Dead.

There were other outspoken declarations during he debate. For instance, Rev. Mr. Henderson, of Three Rivers, exclaimed at one point: "You need not be afraid of Calvinism. That is dead. The younger men in the Presbyterian Church are no longer teaching it." After all, he thought, it would not do Methodists much harm to have a little touch along the lines of God's sovereignty and also on the question of Actual Sin.

The result of the debate, as announced in The Star Extra yesterday, was that the resolution favoring church union was passed by a majority of seven votes. There was also a division of opinion on the subject at the meeting of the Montreal Methodist Southern District yesterday, resulting in the whole question of church union being referred to the conference.

At the latter meeting a resolution was also passed asking the conference to take such action as would lead to uniformity of the marriage laws in Quebec province.

Support Church Union.

Professor Bland moved, and Dr. Sparling seconded that the suggested doctrinal basis for the union of the Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregational churches, remitted to them for their consideration by the Conference, be adopted.

Mr. J. H. Carson speaking in support, said he saw nothing in the doctrinal basis he could not as a Methodist support. The system of co-operation, between Methodists and Presbyterians in the North-West had resulted in a great saving of men and money.

Rev. H. A. Young referred to the Church of England as affording a splendid object lesson of how those whose doctrinal differences were greater than those which divided Methodists and Presbyterians, High, Low and Broad churchmen could work together.

Wants a Federation.

Rev. G. I. Campbell moved an amendment that as the basis of union was not clear and precise, but open to misconception with regard to the Trinity, the person of Christ, the doctrine of repentance and holiness, the meeting should favor a federation of the churches rather than organic union.

In the discussion that followed Rev. Mr. Bradford's address, the objection was raised by more than one speaker that the rights of the ministry to the Sustentation Fund would be rendered less secure.

Less Heresy Trials.

Professor Richardson did not like the way the basis of union was worded, but he urged the meeting to have faith in the living church to overcome all obstacles. He did not believe that the Presbyterians had all the education, Congregationalistss all the liberty, and Methodists all the religion. Though the basis of union might be worded too loosely, it had at least this advantage, that under it heresy trials would be infrequent, if not altogether impossible.

Professor Bland having replied to the objections raised to his motion, the amendment was put to the meeting and lost by 19 votes to 12, and the original motion was carried.

At the meeting of the Southern District, the resolution approving of the principle of union, but disapproving of the basis, was finally withdrawn, and one by the Rev. J. Philp carried referring the question to Conference for further discussion.

In addition to the resolution on mixed marriages, a further resolution was carried urging Conference to petition the Government to provide a uniform method of making baptism, marriage and burial returns on the part of Protestant ministers of this province.

HAS POLICE RECORD IN SCOTLAND YARD

Local Hotel Robber Served in English Prisons for Series of Burglaries.

John Thurger is real name of the man known as John Knott.

A letter received by Chief Carpenter, of the Detective Bureau, shows that John Thurgur, alias John Knett, arrested here on April 25th, through the clever work of Detectives Cowan and Beauchemin and sentenced on May 4th to four years in the penitentiary on several charges of breaking into leading hotels in the city, has a long police record.

He was born in England in 1863, but did not start his career of crime until 1890, when he was sentenced in the Central Criminal Court of London to ten months in jail for burglary. From this time to 1907 he was sentenced for burglary to terms ranging from five years in the penitentiary to twelve months. Thirteen years and ten months in all.

He was known to Scotland Yard as a clever climbing burglar, who made a specialty of large houses, preferably near parks which afforded him a ready means of escape. At one time his plunder amounted to so much that he hired a vault in one of the leading banks in London to keep it in until he could well dispose of it.

A NEWSPAPER'S INFLUENCE.

THE SUGGESTION OF A CANADIAN PAPER ADOPTED BY THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT.

London, May 19.—The articles in the Montreal Star on tuberculosis, giving startling statistics and suggesting Government measures, were read with marked interest in London. Although the Star's articles were intended to influence legislation in Canada, they seem to have had a potential influence with the British Government.

The Star's suggestions are characterized as eminently practical and as displaying a broad grasp of the question.

Today the Chancellor has before the House, a proposal to spend $7,500,000 towards stamping out tuberculosis. Here is an example for Canada.

(The Star is in receipt of assurances that the question will be shortly taken up in a practical way. Editor Star.)

Cote Des Neiges Road.

A report prepared by Chief City Engineer Janin shows that it will cost $53,000 to level and macadamise Cote des Neiges road, and a further sum of $150,000 to remove the "hill" from the road between Westmount avenue and the entrance to the Seminary.

MR. HAYS DEFENDS EARTH EMBANKMENT FOR TRACK RAISE

Grand Trunk President Declares That Way is Most Satisfactory of All Plans.

A strong defence of earthern embankments for the elevated tracks of the Grand Trunk in Montreal was made by Mr. C. M. Hays, the president of the company, in an interview to-day.

"I don't mind admitting," he said, that what I would prefer would be to keep the railway tracks on the present level, and carry the streets over them by means of bridges. But the lengthy approaches which these bridges would necessitate, and the depreciation of property which they would cause, make such a system impracticable. The next most practicable scheme is the one we have proposed of earthen embankments. To build a stone or steel support for the tracks throughout their entire length would mean a prohibitive cost, and would be less satisfactory, because of the noise that trains would cause and the big outlay that would be entailed for maintenance."

Mr. Hays said that in Chicago, which had had more experience probably than any other city on the continent in the elevation of railroad tracks, earthen embankments similiar to the one proposed by the Grand Trunk were used, and were found to be highly satisfactory.

With regard to the city's share of the cost of elevating the tracks, Mr. Hays said the company proposed to pay half, but this would be settled by the Railway Commission, and the city would have to pay whatever the commission ordered whether it was two or five millions.

Mr. Hays said he company was prepared to go right ahead.

"The Commission will say when it has to be carried out, and we will do whatever they say," he added.

Mr. Hays remarked that everybody in London was talking of the Coronation, and of little else. The Coronation procession would pass the office of the Grand Trunk three times. The company was therefore fixing up two hundred seats for the use of Canadians.

Asked whether it was true that the directors were considering the proposal to extend the Grand Trunk into Boston, Mr. Hays remarked that he had been informed the Boston people were petitioning the Grand Trunk to do so, and he had replied that he would be very glad to lay such petition before the directors.

MADERO WILL NOT ACCEPT GEN. REYES

Peace Prospects Not so Rosy, According to Mexico News

Reorganization of Standing Army One of Madero's Pet Schemes.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Mexico City, May 19.—A new factor of startling importance was thrown into the already complicated Mexican situation to-day when the rebel junta here announced that, peace or no peace, Madero would not accept General Reyes in any official position. Three thousand rebels are gathered at Vera Cruz to prevent General Reyes from landing, and if he comes in to the aid of Diaz, for which event Diaz is playing for time, the rebels have orders from Madero to attack the gunboat bringing the old warrior and capture him without injury.

It is now agreed that Diaz will resign, but not until after Reyes arrives to take charge of the war situation. De La Barra is to be provisional president, but the rebels think he will be the tool of Reyes. Diaz, they believe, plans to have Reyes the real ruler of the republic, and as neither Madero nor Ambrosio Figueroa will accept Reyes, this would mean further war.

Diaz to Retire May 24 or 25.

It is said officially that the retirement of Diaz from the presidency will take place May 24 or 25. Vice-President Corral's resignation will be sent by cable and will be attested by the Mexican Minister in Spain.

The prospect of popular elections has already had the effect of bringing three political parties into being, the independent Democratic, the National Catholic and the Progressive. The Progressive is the name by which the Maderists will be known.

It is believed that the greatest danger to the Maderists lies in the Catholic party, which is considered to be the crystalization of the church element.

No Peace Treaty Signed Yet.

Special to The Montreal Star.

El Paso, May 19.—Francisco I. Madero, Jr., will leave for Mexico City as soon as the Governments of Chihuahua, Coahualal, Sinaloa and Zacatecas are formally turned over to the provisional governors whom he has named. Madero expects a telegram this morning, making this concession. Last night, he despatched two of his provisional appointees, Governor Venustiano Carranza to Coahuila and Governor Manuel Bonilla to Sinaloa. At the same time, the unofficial peace envoys, Senors Braniff, Obremol and Hernandez, left for Mexico City, via San Antonio and Laredo. Judge Carbajal will leave today. Dr. Gomez will go to the Capital a few days after Madero.

There has been no formal signing of the treaty of peace, and some concessions are record on between the Government and revolutionists, never will be reduced to writing, particularly the agreement that fourteen governors shall be replaced by Madero's candidates. These appointments—just as was the naming of the present governors—will not be within the Constitution of Mexico, therefore, this part of the peace agreement is not subject to a binding contract.

There may not be any formal signing of the peace agreement, until after Madero arrives in Mexico City. This is acknowledged by both sides, while both declare that peace has been effected. Instead of a formal agreement, there more probably will be arranged this morning an indefinite extension of the armistice which was entered into late Wednesday night.

Madero Talks of the Future.

In an interview today, Madero said: "Lower California probably will be the only part of Mexico which will not be immediately restored to tranquility. Warfare there is apart from ours, but we hope it will soon cease."

"The prompt effect of peace will be the liberation of all political prisoners and prisoners of war. This will, of course, embrace Americans, including those now in the penitentiary at Chihuahua. We will continue to be warm friends of the people of the United States, and will encourage American investments.

"Dr. Gomez undoubtedly will be the next vice-president. In addition, he will be appointed Minister of Public Instruction. Doubtless in an attempt to introduce into Mexico a thoroughly democratic system of free election we will encounter many difficulties, but these will be overcome. Dr. Gomez has studied the political systems in many parts of the world, and as Minister of Public Instruction he will be able to introduce some progressive ideas."

To Reorganise the Army.

A complete reorganization of the Mexican standing army, with the elimination of conscription and the use of convicts, is one of the cherished ideas of General Madero and his advisers. Nothing definite has been planned.

"Privates will receive better pay; commissary and médical departments will be vigorously overhauled; modern field guns will replace antiquated cannon, and in every other way efforts will be made to reform the present disorganized troops into a competent army.

FEDERAL LEADER SHOT AT IGUALA.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Mexico City, May 19.—Details of the battle at Iguala, show that the 300 federals made their last stand at the barracks. Eighteen hundred rebels approached from three directions.

At the first volley nine rebels were killed and then the Federal sharpshooters stationed in the Cathedral tower opened fire, killing many more. The rebels rushed the Cathedral, killed all the thirty Federals posted there, and occupied the tower so that their fire swept the barracks.

The firing continued for five hours. More than 100 dynamite bombs, manufactured by rebel women, were hurled against the barracks with great damage.

After the Federals had raised the white flag, it is said, they fired on Figueroa, who was wounded. In revenge, after the Federals finally surrendered, their commander, Major Ortgea, was taken out and shot.

Racing Season Opens Saturday--Boston Terrier Show for Crippled Children

The Great Soccer Feature To-morrow is Royal Rover and Sons of Scotland Match

The local "tit-bit" in to-morrow's soccer games, is the first clash of the season, between those old rivals, the Sons of Scotland and Royal Rovers. It is only the bare truth to say that these two clubs last season, drew the biggest crowds and put up the best displays of soccer seen in the city. Thus far, the Rovers have not done so well, though they are yet to be defeated, also they are yet to record a victory; being content with two draws. Last Saturday being a blank for them, they should to-morrow turn out in fine trim after their rest and strengthened as they will be, by the inclusion of Tommy Bennett, and possibly of Collins, the old Rover dash should be seen. Last season, they defeated the Scots in both league games, and will, to-morrow turn out with their very best in the attempt to repeat the dose.

Like everything else, there are two sides to a story; and though, much to their regret, the Sons of Scotland will be compelled to take the field without Taylor and Ross, they have not the slightest intention of being the tender victims. In fact, after their splendid victory over Fairmount, the Scots feel reasonably confident of annexing a couple of points. On paper, the Scots will be weak, new men being introduced. Nevertheless, Jimmy Chalmers, pins his faith on the "Old Guard" assisted by the new blood. It should be a great game, with excitement handed out in chunks. Both sides are chary of making definite selections, but the teams will be selected from the following:

Royal Rovers — Ingram, Stacey, French, Collins, Saunders, Galley, Boulton, Willets, Harvey, Shells, Bennett, Reynolds and Menlove.

Sons of Scotland—McKenzie, Smith, Dornan, Lumsden, Crossans, Baldy McKenzie, Inrig, May, Dougall, Navin, Finnigan, Cale and George. Kick-off 3.30 game to be played on the Rovers' ground, Frontenac street.

Another good game at the Point will be seen, between Grand Trunks and Locos. Though the Grand Trunk somewhat disappointed their friends last week, by their inability to take the opportunities offered against C. P. R., it is thought that they have learnt their lesson, and will profit by it. They will face, in the Locos, a team that has scored more goals than any other club in the league. Ritchie and Company can safely be reckoned to watch out for the Locos' sharpshooters. The game should prove a good test as to Locos capabilities, and possibilities to keep their present high position in the league. The following players will represent the Locos:—Simpson, goal; Burn, and Flemings backs; Milne, Lee and Brown, halves; D. Mackay, McFarlane, Laurie, Fairburn and Bald, forwards.

Kick-off 4 o'clock.

Lachine go to Valleyfield, and unfortunately for themselves, are compelled to make the journey without three of their best men. Yet on the authority of Lachine's president, they will face Valleyfield, determined to give the latter a good game and a run.

Dragoons come to Montreal to meet Fairmount, and expect to have a full team out. Fairmount lost last Saturday to the Sons of Scotland, but that in no way implies that they have gone "off." It will be a good game, and no easy thing for the "Drags."

R.R.Y.M.C.A. entertain C.P.R. and in this fixture there should be "something doing." The young men took a point last Saturday, from the Dragoons, and came very near taking two, so C.P.R. will approach the game with great care. This is a match that may produce a surprise.

Jimmy Ross' leg has never recovered since his fall on Grand Trunk's ground, in the first game of the season. Subsequent games have aggravated the injury, so Jimmy has been compelled to undergo an operation, which may keep him out of the game for some time.

To-morrow, Alf. Isehwood, the well-known back has a very important engagement, for he is going to join the noble army of Benedicts, marrying a sister of Alf. Taylor, the Sons of Scotland's goalkeeper. This accounts for the fact that both players will be out of the game, for "this Saturday only," having other fish to fry.

Prizes for the Biggest Trout

The Montreal Star has decided to hold another trout competition for speckled trout this year, which is to be extended over two months, it being argued that as few people get vacations till the month of June, that month and Dominion Day should be taken in, so that the competition will be open this year from May 1st till July 5th, for trout brought to the Star Office with a statement of the conditions under which it was caught.

(a) Name of the fisherman.
(b) Place of capture.
(c) Witnesses of capture, if any—apart from fishermen.
(d) Whether caught with bait or fly.

The prizes will be as follows:

CLASS I.—TROUT OVER 3-LBS

First Prize—Fifteen Dollars.
Second Prize—A first class trout rod.
Third Prize—A first class reel.

CLASS II.—TROUT OF 1-LB. OR OVER AND UNDER 3-LBS.

First Prize—Ten Dollars.
Second Prize—A first class silk line.
Third Prize—A first class fish basket.

CLASS III.—TROUT UNDER 1-LB.

First Prize—Five Dollars.
Second Prize—A first class landing net.
Third Prize—A silver and glass article—generally known as "The Bait Box."

THE COMPETITION.

The latest fish submitted for the competition was sent in by Mr. Henry MacEwan, of this city, residing at 2243 Park avenue. He captured it in the River Esimo at Montfort, with a fly and rod. His son, James Watt MacEwan, was present. It comes in Class II.

$25,000 for Johnson.

New York, May 19.—"Jimmy" Brit, once the lightweight champion of the world arrived from England today with a commission from Hugh McIntosh, the Australian promoter, to offer Jack Johnson a flat $25,000 for a fight next September, with the winner of the McVey-Langford bout.

Tracy Baker, first baseman of the University of Washington baseball team, has accepted an offer to join the Boston American League team.

Montcrief Stand Burned.

Jacksonville, Fla., May 19. — The grand stand and paddock at Moncrief Park were destroyed by a fire believed to have started in the restaurant department. The loss is only $75,000. Owing to recent legislation against racing in this state it is believed the stands will not be rebuilt.

"Baseball is simply going crazy," said a veteran Pirate to-day when he read of New York getting 13 runs in the first inning Saturday off St. Louis.

SPORTING VIEWS AND REVIEWS

It seems odd that while in the big cities of the United States the authorities think so much of golf that public property is set apart for public golf links, in Montreal the controlling city fathers take away the property which for about forty years has been devoted to the game from those who, unable to belong to expensive clubs, are devotes of the sport on account of its health and pleasure-giving qualities. And yet if a vote were taken the controllers would be vowed "good sports" and one of them at least knows a good deal of clubs and balls.

Whatever glory the Baltimore ball team fails to appropriate in Montreal, Baltimore horses expect to pickk up at Blue Bonnets, and so between the two Montreal is to be stripped of everything worth while, except its glorious climate and the view from the Mountain. Horses that kept the sports guessing down in Baltimore are coming up to Blue Bonnets by the carload. Well, the more the merrier, and the faster they are the keener the sport will be.

Just as a tonic, as some people take a drop of this or a dash of that before dinner to sharpen the appetite, the Capital Lacrosse Club propose opening the season with what may be called an open, free for all match—that is, everybody is to be invited to come and see the boys run and shoot, and leave their pocket-books at home. It is proposed to give especial zest to the affair by having the Caughnawaga braves on the field—the team that seeks admittance to the National Lacrosse Union. Now that Parliament is about adjourning, a visit from an Indian team will help to keep Ottawa from being lonesome.

EVERYTHING READY FOR WOODBINE

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, May 19.— Everything is ready for the opening of the Ontario Jockey Club's spring races to-morrow, and a most successful meeting is anticipated. The best horses and riders in the American continent are to be here for the meeting, and it is assured therefore that the racing will be high class in the fullest sense of the term. Most of the stables are already here, and the late comers will get into town to-day.

There is a different air to the racing at Woodbine this spring from that of previous seasons. The horrah order usual where bookmakers congregate is noticeable for its absence. Many prominent turfmen from the other side are here, first time, taking the place of less desirable element which has helped to bring racing into disrepute the country over.

The general impression among the race followers is that the mutuel system installed this spring will be a great success.

Jockey Shilling, who is due here this morning, will have the mount on Powderman in the King's Plate. This is the colt that the Valley Farm stable hopes to win the big race with. It is said an effort will be made to get Jockey Eddie Dugan to ride St. Bass. McCarthy is slated to ride the colt, however, if he gets a license.

The officials for the present meeting will be the same as last year. A. B. Dade will do the starting. Major William Hendrie will be the presiding steward, and Frances Nelson presiding judge. His Excellency Earl Grey will attend in state, and everybody who is anybody in the Province of Ontario will be present.

Lovelace, the crack racer in Mrs. Livingstone's stable, has been taken down with a severe attack of pneumonia since his arrival here, and little hope is entertained for his recovery. This horse, which, it will be remembered, beat Jack Atkin and Olamballa at the Woodbine last year, was in grand shape this spring, and his people hoped to win their share of the stakes with him. Solemia and Picolata in the same stable, are also down with the same disease, but there are hopes of their recovery.

Entries close to-day for the Trial, Juvenile and Carleton purse, to be run to-morrow; the Queen's hotel handicap, to be run Monday, and the Thorncliffe Hunters' handicap, to be run Tuesday.

On account of the daily programme consisting of seven races, and the need of allowing time for the public to adapt themselves to the new system, the first race will be run at 2 o'clock every day.

TO-MORROW'S SOCCER TEAMS

Players Picked to Represent Their Clubs in Various Contests.

The team to represent the Sons of Scotland against Royal Rovers, on Frontenac Park to-morrow, will be chosen from the following:

J. McKenzie, A. McKenzie, Smith, Lumsden, Crossen, Cale, Dornan, May, Dougall, George, Naira, Cornfoot, Inrig and Roberts. The kick off is fixed for 3.30.

The R.R.Y.M.C.A. team to meet C.P.R., at Point St. Charles is as follows.

Goal, Todd; backs, Thyer and Cook; halves, Black, Davey and Burnett; forwards, Jude, Joe Clarke, Meddrie, James Clarke, and Proctor. Reserves, Thompson, Glover, Nelison.

The R.R.Y.M.C.A. Ground Committee for to-morrow is: Birbey, Price, McLean, Wall and Thompson. The kick off is fixed for 3.30.

Goal, Harvey; backs, Sheldon and D. Newton; half-backs, Mimes, G. W. Jones and Wm. Hacking; forwards, Bleazard, S. Bush, Hobson, Amey, Lawrence.

Reserve—Crisp.

BALL OPENING POSTPONED.

Montreal Pro. League Will Not Open at King Edward Park Until May 28.

The opening of King Edward Pork to the teams of the Montreal Professional Baseball League, which was to have taken place on Sunday next, has been postponed for one week, the Park management not being quite ready for the diamond artists yet.

The game scheduled for next Sunday will be played on Delorimier and the opening moved over one week, until Sunday, May the twenty eighth.

STAR'S BASE-RUNNING CONTEST BEGINS ON SATURDAY; SEVEN SPEEDERS WILL COMPETE FOR $25; WE WIN AGAIN

E. Holly was one large portion of the infield yesterday.

Only one gent. crossed the pan yesterday, and as he wore a Montreal costume we won the pastime.

Mr. Carroll floated slow ones over that J. Dunn's athletes could not get safe, while the local experts whaled the cork pill for long distance blows of large denomination.

Before putting over some of the harrowing details for the skilled reader, we would like to announce in a few well chosen words that the first instalment of the Star's base-running contest will take place next Saturday, on or around 3 p. m.

While a flock of runners on the Baltimore and Montreal teams will be sent around the bases on that day, the contest will be open to all the other teams in the League, and each team as it visits our fair city will have a chance to send any of its speeders out to do the round trip.

The athlete who makes the best time after all have competed, will collect $25 in gold of the Star's wealth.

The speeders can make as many trials as they like, providing they give the Star 24 hours' notice of their intention to speed.

Interviewed yesterday at great length, J. Yeager, the demon third baser, and J. Dunn, the lyric soprano, both captains in their own right, announced that the following gents, would take a fall out of the Star's hard earned $25.

| Montreal. | Baltimore. |
|---|---|
| Miller. | Rath |
| Hanford | Maisel |
| Glaze | Corcoran |
| Burke | |

J. Dunn asserts that Mr. Maisel will make the best time and will travel so fast that the friction is liable to set the grass, grandstand and bases on fire. The fire brigade will be called out before Mr. Maisel starts on his long journey.

Local opinion, on the other hand, is that if any conflagration is started, it will be touched off by W. Miller or B. Burke.

E. McCafferty, the gifted leader, said that B. Burke would positively appear, providing he did not pitch on the day of the event. If B. Burke pitches he will need all his wind in order to fling the cork pill.

Competent time-keepers with extensively jewelled stop-watches, will take the time of the fleeting athletes.

Discussing speed work around the bases yesterday some of the athletes said that Phelan, of Providence, and Carroll came safely out of a bad hole in the 7th.

Moren, of Rochester, would have a look in at the money, but they couldn't think of many others who would be likely to beat out the speeders who are now in our midst.

It Was Holly's Busy Day.

One of the outstanding features of the combat was the amount of hard labor put in by E. Holly.

For the first few innings nearly everything that was hit went at our gifted shortstopper who was shortstopping in his happiest vein, believe us.

After a long, weary afternoon's toil, E. Holly collected 10 assists, 4 put outs, no errors, a single, a double, one strike out and an argument with the Ump.

In addition to all this, he scored the only run made during the combat and in sliding to the plate upset both J. Byers, the 37 ton backstop and the Ump., who was standing too close to the pan.

As the sturdy Ump. hit the Dominion of Canada with a bump the vast throng supplied a fine line of applause.

The upset must have joggled the Ump.'s eagle eye a little, as he passed out a few underdone decisions on balls and strikes afterwards, which called for some adverse comment from the experts behind the wire netting.

A few indignant citizens went so far as to call the Ump. a sausage, which is some indignation, take it from us.

Upon one occasion he called Hanford out on strikes when the last pill was at least a foot wide of the plate. The observations made by C. Hanford on this decision cost him $5 in real money. However, it was worth $5 to C. Hanford to get rid of the language which was burning in his bosom.

Another feature of the affair was the fine batting of R. Demmitt, who collided with the cork pill for a single, a double and a triple. Had the latter blow rolled a little instead of stopping in the right field hay crop, he could have cashed in for the round trip, the Star's $5, and the $12 premium smokes.

In trying to field Demmitt's two base blow, C. Seymour, the gifted centre fielder, fell on his neck and slid along the landscape for some distance. This was a big act, which was thrown in for the one price of admission.

The only run in the game came in the fifth, when E. Holly doubled, went to third on a tap by Curtis, and home on French's out to left field.

No small factor in the pastime was the heaving by Carroll. He appeared to put over a slow, flower that from the grandstand looked easy to hit, but J. Dunn's swipers could make nothing of it. Mr. Carroll must have had a corkscrew movement on it which had a meaning all its own.

Only once was the combat in danger and that was in the seventh, when Baltimore filled up the bases with two out. A fly to Miller ended the agony.

Sorrowing J Dunn sang sadly, soulful selections on the coaching line.

M. Corcoran was again third basing and much to his relief no doubt did not have a single chance to test his lame wing. Why the local athletes did not bunt a few at M. Corcoran's lame wing is a mystery to us.

A perfect throw by Curtis caught Corcoran stealing.

The first part of the Star's base-running contest takes place on Saturday.

French opened with a single but died trying to make it look like a two-bagger.

The crowd again numbered about 1,600 paid, which is good going for a week day.

Hanford fanned three times. The fence-breaker was not connecting with 'em yesterday.

yesterday 93 hits were made, in the National 64 hits. 93 hits were made, in the National 64 hits.

Carroll, Burke and Barberich have shown class and if Glaze makes good, the pitching staff will look all right.

The Star's base-running contest will be worth seeing. Both Glaze and Hanford can show speed as well as Burke and Miller.

Maisel, of Baltimore, whom Dunn picks to win the base-running contest, is a fine fielder, but has not been hitting well lately.

News From the Amateur, Semi-Professional, Junior and Advertising Ball Clubs

Although the attraction at the Delorimier Park last week was a good one, the two battles scheduled for the grounds on the 21st are of the high-grade order. All-Montreal and the Voltigeurs of St. Henry will be the main drawing card, as both these teams are battling for the Montreal Professional League pennant, and each has as yet to lose their first game. Both teams are playing classy ball at the present time and when they meet, it should be a battle royal for supremacy.

Delorimier and Cherriers will also battle on the Delorimier grounds, and although these two teams have not showed the form that the leaders have, they are capable of putting up a first-class argument. Both teams have been practicing hard during the past week, and will no doubt show an improvement when they meet on the 21st.

The first game starts at 1.30, while the second encounter is billed for 3.30.

The Stars will be the opening attraction in the baseball line on May 28th, in Farnham, against Manager Choquette's well-known nine. The Stars opened the season in Hull, while St. Laurent College followed, and now comes along Farnham, the third one. Manager Choquette is greatly pleased in having the Stars for his opening game, and, as far as the gate goes, expects to have a record one. By the time of this match on the 28th, the Stars will be in mid-summer form, and, although they expect a hard tussle from Farnham, the team are in hopes of landing on top.

Nothing will please the management of the Stars better than to capture their game on Victoria Day, when they play in Morrisburg, Ont., and, if hard practice will help any, the independent champions should return home with the victory and break the two drawn games of 1909 and 1910. Reports received from Morrisburg say the team is going better than ever.

Since the late Mr. Hobman who was killed at Valois was one of the best known track runners in Montreal, and for some time Captain of the Y.M.C.A. ## Senior and Intermediate Lacrosse Teams are Getting in Shape for May the 24th.

St. Patrick's will have at least 500 supporters on hand when they open their season with St. Thomas Aquinas on the Shamrock grounds, Empire Day. Will they make a noise? Oh! no! just root.

Amongst the many men St. Thomas Aquinas have on their roster are such well known names as Layden, McBrearty, Tracey, Sullivan and Hardigan.

Brophy holds down the same position for Celtic as his father, Tom Brophy, did in the 90's for Shamrock.

Roberts, Frank Hogan, and Brennan, of the Montreal seniors, have played together since boyhood.

It is some years now since Harry Smith and Frankie Nolan were teammates. May 24th will see them lined up once more on St. Pat's, when they cross sticks with St. Thomas Aquinas on the S.A.A.A. oval.

Aspell, Brady and Jarrett, who will likely catch a place on senior Montreal this season, graduated from the Clovers.

Jimmy Muir played first with Shamrocks. In 1900 he and Howard were recruited from the Hibernians, a team that won the junior championship in 1899.

Howard at that time played on the home field, and when the late Tack Hendry and Albert Dade returned to their old love, Johnnie was moved on the defence, and developed into one of the greatest defence men the game ever saw.

When men are forced to do unnecessary running, they tire, and lose their temper, and a trip to the penalty bench is the result.

Gentle reader, how many seniors do you know who shoot as though they were putting the 16-lb. shot? Many, if you put on your thinking cap.

Is it necessary this hop, skip, jump, and shoot? Not at all. Do you remember the Brennans, Hoobin, Dade or Newsy Lalonde (in his one season as a home player here) shoot that way? Guess not, any more than an up-to-date boxer would telegraph his punch.

Harry Lavelle, the Durham player, turned out with the Capitals, as did Eastwood, who is being groomed for the goal, and Herb Goodwin, who will play cover point.

Lavelle is in fair shape, having been practising with the Torontos. He says Toronto will be the team to beat for the N.L.U. title this season.

It was reported that there was a serious hitch in the negotiations between Sam Bilsky and the former officers of the Capitals. Mr. Bilsky was to have paid over the money, but the amount demanded for the franchise is said to have been in excess of that formerly agreed upon. Mr. Bilsky said he had placed things in charge of his lawyer, and was confident that everything would be all right.

The officials for the Toronto-National game Saturday will be Roddy Finlayson and Paddy Brennan.

As Gauthier will not be able to play for Nationals Saturday, on account of his broken thumb, Omer Dupras will be tried in his position.

Lamoureux, of the Nationals, is credited amongst many seniors as having a dead-on shot. When he shoots it's a good stop or a goal.

Many home men shoot, but it requires a fast inside man to get it for some one to have another try. So why work the poor insider off his feet? Consider him, his position calls for that long run to the fence, now with the man who plays point, and again with the goaler.

Straight shooting makes a faster game, less running, better stick handling, and last, but not least, clean play.

MR. JAMES MURPHY TO VISIT MONTREAL

Mr. Peter Murphy, with Mr. Walter Cain of Toronto will be the officials in the opening game of the Lacrosse season here, between Capitals and Montreal, on Wednesday next, which is Victoria Day. The president of the National Lacrosse Union, Mr. James Murphy, will attend the game, and will remain a guest in Montreal for some days afterward.

While here, Mr. Murphy it is understood will call a meeting of all the gentlemen who have applied for positions in the lacrosse organization, and will talk matters appertaining to lacrosse management over with them.

BEVERWYCK STABLE LEAVES FOR CITY

Baltimore, May 19.—Three car loads of horses left here to-day for the track at Blue Bonnets, Montreal. There are about twenty horses in all belonging to the Beverwyck stable, T. W. O'Brien, and one or two other owners. These horses have been raced all winter, and will be given a rest up before the opening of the spring meeting of the Montreal Jockey Club from Saturday, June 3, to Saturday, June 10. There are a number of other horses here which will be shipped direct to Blue Bonnets the first of the week.

The best of the O'Brien lot are the two-year-olds. There are some likely ones in this stable that have not been raced this season. They have all shown good trials and have been well schooled at the barrier. They were wintered in the east this season and have developed wonderfully. There are one or two useful platers in the older division of this stable.

Willie Martin, the trainer of the Beverwyck stable, has two or three horses of his own. The best is probably Rye Straw, which could outfoot any horse in the south last winter for the first three-eighths of a mile. He has been taught to stick it out over a longer distance since changing hands and becoming the property of his present owner.

The Beverwyck string is headed by the horse Sir John Johnson, which was not raced much this spring. This big fellow is a hard horse to train, and will not be hustled along. In previous years he has always been at his best later on in the season. Martin has him close to a race, and by the time Blue Bonnets opens he hopes to have him at himself.

The horsemen which have left for Toronto and will afterwards race at Montreal were well pleased with the new ideas of the Montreal Jockey Club regarding their spring programme. It met with their ideas and will give every horse a chance. The weights allotted in handicaps always give the poorer horses a chance against the best of them.

A very fast and interesting baseball game was played on the Angus Athletic Field yesterday, between the Motive Power Department, and Auditor of Mechanical Department, the former winning by a score of 10 to 7. The feature of the game was the pitching of George Magrane and a home-run by Evans, the bill landing on the Montreal Branch Bank. The score is as follows:

| | R. | H. | E |
|---|---|---|---|
| M. P. Dept. | ..04100131x— | 10 | 12 | 2 |
| A. of M. A. Dept. | 013002100— | 7 | 6 | 4 |

Batteries — Magrane and Wilson. Brunet and Kelly. Umpire, "Dick" Andrews.

M.S.C. SEA LIONS HAD A LOVE FEAST

The M. S. C. Water Polo Club tendered a banquet last night, at Krausman's Cafe to their three polo teams. All of the three teams were well represented and the sea lions with their cubs proved themselves to be champions of wit as well as of polo. It was with regret that the boys listened to the speech of their staunch president, Mr. Chris. H. Goulden, in which he tendered his resignation as their president, as he stated that his business was taking up all of his time. He, however, named both Mr. H. Smyth and Mr. Geo. Moore as men well qualified to be his successor, promising at the same time that he would render at all times whatever aid he could.

Mr. Smyth and Mr. Moore each spoke a few words on behalf of the members during which they touched upon the great work done during the past seven years by Mr. Goulden, whom Mr. Moore termed the "grand young man" of water polo.

Mr. Goulden then thanked the boys for their kind expressions, and also complimented the players for having won the three polo championships. Mr. Goulden expressed the pleasure it gave him to present on behalf of the club to each of the players a pretty coat sweater worked up in the well known colors of the club. He also presented each of the players of the three teams with a handsome scarf pin in the form of a gold dolphin, surmounted with pearls, as a personal souvenir from him.

Mr. Smyth, on behalf of the players, thanked the retiring president for his gift. Mr. Sam Silver, "the silver tongued orator," also thanked Mr. Goulden on behalf of the intermediates and juniors for the valuable tokens. After the lengthy list of toasts were disposed of, the happy event was brought to a close by singing God Save the King.

A well-known water polo man said this morning the resignation of Mr. C. H. Goulden would have far reaching effects, as Mr. Goulden has always been looked upon as the father of the game. In fact, it was Mr. Goulden who laid the solid foundations of the present successful Canadian Aquatic Polo Association, he said, and he also confided to the Star that he felt sure that the other clubs would bring as much pressure to bear as possible on Mr. Goulden to keep him on the active list.

BRITISH POLOISTS DID VERY WELL

Special to The Montreal Star.

New York, May 19.—Riding like the sons of Centaurs, wheeling their ponies in a mallet's length and above all displaying marvellous skill in back hand strokes, the English polo team defeated the Cooperstown four, yesterday, by a score of 14 goals to five, on the field of the Rockaway Hunting Club, at Cedarhurst, Long Island.

As if to refute some of the criticism of his playing that has been talked up and down the side boards of the field, Lieut. A. Noel Edwards was much in the game. No less than nine of the goals scored for his side were credited to him. He was particularly clever in the fourth period. None of the Cooperstown riders could check him, and he scored a goal every other minute. The English players were better mounted than Cooperstown and continually rode the opposing players off from the ball.

P.Q.F.A. DEALS WITH VEXED REFEREE POINT

The question of misdirection of the referees' reports came up before the P. Q. F. A. last night. To prevent further occurrences of this kind referees are requested to note that First Division League reports should be sent to the secretary, R. H. Kertland, at 467 Gilford street, Junior League results to J. C. Thompson, Dominion Bank, and Juvenile League reports to J. Innes, 1192 Parthenais street. The referees for Saturday's matches were appointed as follows: First Division League, G.F.R. vs. Locos, F. Brooks; Fairmount vs. Dragoons, Robert Walker; Valleyfield vs. Lachine, J. Bowden; R. & Y. M. C. A. vs. C. P. R., R. Brands; Royal Rovers vs. Sons of Scotland, J. Clarke. Junior League — Rosemount vs. C. P. R., P. Fitzpatrick; I.O.G.T. vs. Maples, F. Topp; St. Paul vs. Rose and Thistle, G. Matthews; Tetraultville vs. Crusaders, E. W. Clarke. Juvenile League: C.P.R. vs. St. Mary's, J. Bladon; Royal Rovers vs. Thistles, R. McAdam.

Next Wednesday's Juvenile League match between G.T.R. and St. Mary's, will be handled by Dick Walker. The Referees' Association officially take over the appointment of referees on June 1. Arrangements for the booklet to be published by the P. Q. F. A. containing the constitutions of the various leagues under the jurisdiction and affiliated with the P. Q. F. A. schedules, and rules of the game as played in Great Britain, were completed, and the book will probably be issued in the course of the next three weeks. This will form a football guide for Eastern Canada. Mr. F. Barter, president of the P. Q. F. A., was in the chair at last night's meeting, and others present were Messrs. G. M. Millard, G. E. Hayward, J. W. Wells, A. Payne, T. Mitchell and Mr. R. Walker, representing the Referees' Association.

It was decided, with regret, that owing to the fact that the schedule for the first division league practically filled every available playing Saturday, the invitation of the Caledonian Society asking them to take part in the Lyall Cup competition could not be accepted this year.

The Rose and Thistle match, played last Saturday, came up for discussion and was handed over to the Referees' Association to be dealt with.

TOM FLANAGAN HAS AMBITIONS

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, May 19. — Matchmaker Tom Flanagan, of the National Sporting Club, aims to have the most complete private club-house in Canada for that growing organization. Nearly all of the old seats have been taken out of the Island quarters, and 1,800 new ones installed, the seating capacity for the Billy Allen-Joe Brooks and other bouts on the eve of Victoria Day will be 2,000, half of which number will be ringside seats. Allen and his sparring partner, Julian, of Syracuse, who meets Barrich, of Boston, will be here early in the week.

A Hanlan Memorial.

Toronto, May 19. — A proposal that the city give $2,000 towards placing a memorial to the late Edward Hanlan, the famous Toronto oarsman, somewhere about the harbor, or Hanlan's Point, was sent on to the Council by the Board of Control on the recommendation of the committee representing the various aquatic associations and clubs of the city.

The memorial is estimated to cost $5,000, and it is stipulated that Toronto's grant is conditional to liberal grants being made by the Provincial and Dominion Governments and the plan for the memorial being approved by the city.

Nick Altrock, let out by Minneapolis, may sign with Kansas City, as Shay wants him, while Memphis also is going after the former White Sox star.

Delorimier's Entries Promise Greatest Race Ever Held at Half Mile Track Next Week

When "They're Off" is heard on all sides at Delorimier Park to-morrow afternoon, it will be the signal for the greatest race meet ever attempted at a half-mile track. In making preparations for their spring meeting the Montreal Driving Club have spared nothing in order to make it a success, and, if the weather man will be as good to the management for the seven racing days as has been the case with owners and trainers for the past two or three weeks, the meeting will take a place with anything witnessed at more pretentious tracks.

The officials are all in the city, Messrs. John Boden, presiding judge. Starter Milton and Seymour Reutier arriving this morning. With the officials many horsemen and "regulars" are also on the spot, quite a number from Baltimore giving Montreal the preference over Toronto.

Horses are still coming in in spite of the turning down of applications at the end of last week. All the available stable room in the vicinity of the park is being gathered in by horsemen, as it is impossible to take care of any more within the grounds. The last of the Baltimore lot are being unloaded to-day, this making about fifty from there. There were fourteen head from Lexington, being those of Mode Nicoll, W. B. Casey and John F. Bryan. There were several smart lookers in the bunch, notably Mapleton, Lord Leighton, Faversham, Rubiola, Sam Bernard, Rose McGee, Blue Star and Bertis. The most of these will be campaigned on the big circuit after the close at Delorimier.

Judging from the number of entries in the handicap to be run on opening day, there will be entries a plenty in the events all through the week's sport. However, there will be not less than six starters in any race, as the officials will not permit scratches below that number. For the handicap of Saturday, twenty entries have been received, including such well-known ones as John Patterson, Brevite, Peepmore, Treston, Blue Star, Miss Felix, John Marrs, Sanguine, Lord Wells, Allowmaise, Our Nuggett, and the local owned Tender. This will be the feature of the day's card, and should develop into one of the greatest contests of the entire meeting.

Twenty good riders are now here, with still more to come. They are McDonald, Girondo, Forehand, Haines, Culley, Irvin, McCloskey, Garwood, Troxler, Dreyer, Whatley, Matthews, Knight, Johnson, White, Robertson, Bauer, O'Conner and Pickens.

THE RETIRING MONTREAL SWIMMING CLUB POLO TEAM PRESIDENT.

MISS CAMPBELL HAS A GOOD CHANCE

Port Rush, Ireland, May 19.—Miss Dorothy Campbell, of Hamilton, Ont., won her match in the fourth round of the British woman's golf championship yesterday in brilliant style, beating Mrs. G. M. Martin, of the Tavistock Club, 7 up and 5 to play.

Miss Campbell also won her match in the fifth round, and as a result entered the semi-finals. She defeated the holder of the British title, Miss E. Grant Suttie, of the Sunningdale Club, in the fifth round by 2 up and 1 to play.

Miss V. Pooley, of Victoria, B.C., dropped out of the tournament in the fourth round, when she was beaten by Miss Bertha Thompson, of Beverley and West Riding, by 1 up.

MILLIONS LOST BY ANTI-RACING LAWS

Andrew Miller, secretary of the Saratoga Association, has caused to be distributed the following plea for the restoration of racing:

"That law has been hurtful to the business welfare of the city of New York, to its hotels, merchants, shops, art dealers and theatres, and even real estate values have suffered. The great racing stables have been transported to Europe, and in their train have gone countless thousands of citizens in quest of pleasure denied them in their native land by the zeal of those who would reform the world and beget perfect men. The hundreds of thousands of visitors whose custom it was to sojourn in the city in the racing season no longer visit here, unless it be on their way to Europe.

"No one can calculate the millions lost to the State by this unwise derangement of the ancient sport of racing. There is hardly a capital in Europe where our citizens do not flock and from their generous purses feed fat the hotels, shops, merchants, and railroads to the great loss and harm of this State. More than two thousand horses that were fed and accoutered here are now abroad."

OFFICIALS RETIRE FROM CITY SERVICE AT CLOSE OF YEAR

Mr. William Robb and Senator L. O. David Will End Lengthy Careers of Civic Usefulness.

At the end of the present year Montreal will lose the service of two of its most important civic servants in the persons of Mr. William Robb, city treasurer, and Mr. L. O. David, city clerk, both of whom will retire on a pension equivalent to three-fourths of their present salary, an allowance which was authorized by a special charter amendment at the last session of the Legislature.

The vacancies will enable the Board of Control to make a complete reorganization of the two departments. It is an open secret that Mr. Justinien Pelletier, the present city comptroller and one of the most active and efficient men at the head of any department at the City Hall, may have the position of treasurer if he wishes to take it, but as his qualifications so admirably fit him for his actual position of comptroller, it is said that he will stay in that office, which will be advanced to one of independence of that of the city treasurer, who is now chief of the whole financial department.

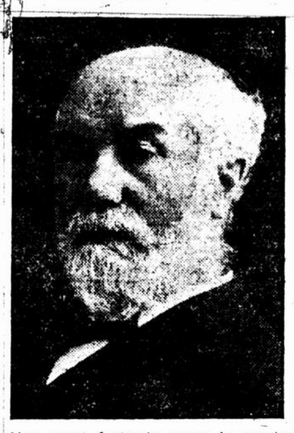
Mr. Charles Arnold is named as possible successor to the treasurership, shorn of direct superintendence of the comptrollers' department, and if any assistant treasurer should be appointed, Mr. Patrick Collins, the present chief accountant, may be given the position. There is to be a complete shaking up of the whole department, and the chief adviser to the Board of Control in this matter will be Mr. Pelletier.

In regard to the city clerkship, it is stated that the rule of promotion will be followed, Mr. Rene Bauset, the present assistant city clerk, being promoted to the head position, while Mr. Jules Crepeau, second assistant city clerk, will become first assistant clerk.

Mr. L. O. David, after an active journalistic and political career, entered the service of the city as city clerk, and in 1903 he was called to the Senate, where he has ever taken a watchful interest in the affairs of the city.

Mr. Robb, who is a native of Aberdeen, in Scotland, entered the service of the city as accountant in 1865, and in 1890 he succeeded to the treasurership upon the death of Mr. James Black.

MR. WILLIAM ROBB.



Has spent forty-six years in service of city.

$117,075 for a British Picture

Record Price Paid by Duveens for Masterpiece by Raeburn.

Special to The Montreal Star.

London, May 19.—Sir H. Raeburn's portrait of Mrs. Robertson Williamson brought £117,075 at an auction sale at Christie's to-day of highly important pictures and portraits by old masters. The Duveens were the purchasers. This is the highest price ever paid for a picture by a British painter.

Mrs. Williamson was the daughter of Mr. Wm. Robertson, of Lawers. In 1814 she married her cousin, David Robertson Williamson, of Balgray, son of Lord Balgray. In the portrait she is in a white dress cut low at the neck and fastened with a satin bow at the waist. She also has on a pale pink satin coat with long sleeves and tassels. She is standing before a tree, resting her left arm upon a branch, and holding her hat.

FIVE HOLIDAYS IN MONTH.

Employes Like it But Employers Do Not.

Five holidays come within a little over a month. They are Victoria Day, next week; Ascension Day, May 25; King's Birthday, June 3; Coronation Day, June 22; and Dominion Day, July 1. All these are Dominion holidays except Ascension Day, which is in this province alone. St. Jean Baptiste Day, June 24, is also kept as a holiday in many places in this province.

Employes throughout the city will naturally welcome these days of rest from labor, but the business men complain that, while glad of the holidays from a patriotic standpoint, they come so close together that it will seriously disorganize business during the month of June, which is usually particularly busy, especially when in many cases they will have to compete with establishments on the other side of the line who do not have any holidays during the period mentioned.

However, after Dominion Day there will be no holiday until Labor Day.

FIRE HORSE FELL INTO STREET HOLE.

A horse of the fire department fell into a hole on St. Antoine street at 7 o'clock last evening. It was one of the pair drawing the hose waggon of No. 12 station, Seigneurs street. Nearing Richmond Square one of its fore legs went in a hole, the animal stumbled, pulling the other horse on top of him. After great difficulty the crew, assisted by onlookers, prevented the horse from trampling the other. Both horses were successfully extricated from the entanglement, the first horse to fall being driven off lame. The hole was about two feet square and about as deep, caused by the earth sinking where a hole had been dug and improperly filled last fall.

The victim of the accident is suffering from loss of speech, and temporary paralysis, and her condition is precarious.

BRITISH PRESS ON RECIPROCITY

Westminster Gazette Thinks Canada Can Be Trusted to Safeguard Her Own Interests.

Canadian Associated Press.

London, May 19.—The Advertiser, dealing with the Government's reply to Lord Selbourne's speech, characterizes it as a lame and impotent defence of one of the greatest national betrayals ever committed, even by the Radicals, who deliberately throw up the sponge and abandon the Imperial position.

The Westminster Gazette says it is a matter for argument whether Canada is so foolish as to pay the United States for doing what benefits the United States, but declares that Canada may safely be trusted to look after her own interests.

Says Lord Selbourne Misses Mark.

Canadian Associated Press.

Directors—F. C. Larrivere, Montreal; T. H. Hebert, Sherbrooke; N. S. Costigny, Valleyfield; Art. Laurent, Fraserville.

Council—R. H. Prefontaine, Montreal; G. A. Vaudry, Quebec; J. B. A. Dubuc, Saguenay; R. H. Catelli, Montreal; Hon. A. Desjardins, Montreal; Wm. A. Marsh, Quebec; F. C. Larriviere, Montreal; J. A. Pelletier, Three Rivers; S. C. Roux, Fraserville; E. N. Cabana, Three Rivers; Napoleon Mercure, Portneuf; A. B. Gendreau.

Before the adjournment, the retiring president, Mr. J. Prefontaine, thanked the members for the support received from them, welcomed Mr. Vaudry as his successor, and thanked him for his hospitality to himself and the other delegates.

On motion Hon. Alph. Desjardins, Montreal, the convention adopted a series of resolutions that warrants issued and judgments rendered in any province should be liable to execution in any other province, and that commercial relations between the different provinces should be facilitated by law and otherwise to the utmost, so far as can be without prejudice to provincial autonomy.

ST. JOHN VALLEY RAILWAY BONDS BILL IN SENATE

Hasty Adoption Deprecated by Senators—Measure Now in Committee Stage.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, May 19.—The Senate held its first morning sitting of the session to-day and after passing without amendments the St. John Valley Railway bill, took up that which guarantees the bonds of the Canadian Northern Railway on the Montreal-Port Arthur section.

Sir Richard Cartwright declared that bill was calculated to be a step towards perfecting Canadian transportation. He explained generally its provisions.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell thought it unfair to ask the Senate to put through such legislation hastily. The arrangement to hand over traffic to the Intercolonial Railway he commended.

Senator Choquette said he did not have enough information to either support or oppose the bill.

It was given second reading and the rest of the morning was spent in the committee stage.

SOREL AT FAULT.

Railway Given Extension of Time to Build Station, Delay Due to Town.

Complaints of Sorel's alleging inadequate station facilities and train service afforded them by the Quebec, Montreal and Southern Railway, were heard at yesterday afternoon's session of the Railway Commissioners.

The Commissioners had ordered the Railway to provide a new station at this point within a certain time, a fine of $50 per day to be paid for every day that the city was kept without the service after the specified time. The time for the completion of the station having long passed and the station not completed, representatives from the Board of Trade of Sorel waited on the Commissioners demanding that the Railway pay the fine.

Representatives from the Quebec, Montreal and Southern said that the company had been unable to go on with the work because they had been unable to secure a deed of property surrounding the station and necessary for their extensions. Judge Mabee extended the time limit for the completion of the station until September 1st. If not completed by that time a fine of $100 per day will be imposed.

In regard to the complaints of trains being late continually on this road, Judge Mabee said that this complaint had already been investigated some two years ago, and on investigation it had been found that conditions on this road were pretty much the same as on larger roads. The quest on was referred to Mr. Nixon for a report and judgment will be rendered later.

Mr. George T. Hartz, of Buffalo, was elected Grand Chief Ranger, of the American Order of Foresters, at Syracuse, N.Y.

STARVATION REPORT MUCH EXAGGERATED

News Received by Sir W. Grenfell Says Distress Confined to Small Section.

Boston, Mass., May 19.—A contradiction of the recent report that five thousand people were starving on the Coast of Labrador, was made to-day by Sir W. T. Grenfell, the medical missionary, whose field of labor embraces northern Newfoundland and Labrador. Sir W. Grenfell says: "Reports just received from trading business houses of Newfoundland, personally known to me, contradict rumors of starvation on the Labrador. My informants are reliable."

Dr. Grenfell explained that there was some starvation but it was limited to a small section of the Labrador Coast. The fact that some distress exists along that coast between Battle Harbor and Cartwright, 125 miles to the north, was made known by a telegram sent to the Newfoundland Government by Dr. John Grieve, one of the physicians attached to the medical mission at Battle Harbor.

LORD SELBORNE'S CRITICISM OF THE RECIPROCITY BILL

Says Its Ratification Will Place England in Position of Extraordinary Difficulty.

London, May 19.—The Government was sharply criticized by the Earl of Selborne in the House of Lords last night, for what he termed their "extraordinary supineness," in failing to safeguard the interests of the United Kingdom in the American-Canadian reciprocity agreement.

The Earl referred to President Taft's "very remarkable speech," and declared that when Mr. Taft said the annexation talk was bosh all accepted the President's word; nevertheless, the agreement formed a precedent capable of very large extensions. It was the first time in the history of the Empire that one part had obtained better terms from a foreign country than had the United Kingdom, and the step between receiving and giving better terms was a short one. If the dominions got accustomed to receiving better terms, the Earl continued, they might come to think that it was natural to give foreign countries better terms than they gave the United Kingdom or the other dominions of the Empire.

Ratification of the agreement, the Earl said in conclusion, would place this country in a position of extraordinary difficulty.

Baron Lucas, Parliamentary Under-Secretary to the War Office, replying on behalf of the Government, declared that the Earl of Selborne greatly overestimated the damage to the trade of the United Kingdom and the difficulties that might arise as a result of the reciprocity agreement. Canada was perfectly within her statutory rights, and the Government could not interfere. The United Kingdom, the Baron said, could never offer Canada the same advantages as could the United States, Canada and the United States were complementary to one another in a degree to which Canada and Great Britain could never be.

If Canada and the United States wanted a reciprocity agreement, this country could not prevent it. Great Britain must give Canada a fair field for promoting her own prosperity in whatever way she thought best, and it was on these lines, Baron Lucas concluded that the Government was watching the reciprocity negotiations now going on.

The total British exports to Canada was $1,000,000,000 annually, of that amount, $4,845,000 was under agreement and $880,000 free. Of all nations, Britain obtains a substantial preference of $2,235,000, leaving $1,580,000 or 11-2 per cent of the total on which the preference is annulled.

War Secretary Haldane, who recently was elevated to the peerage, said that it was the policy of the Government to give the people of Canada every facility to do the best they could do for themselves. The Government held that it was not to the disadvantage of the United Kingdom that Canada should develop trade relations with the United States.

"We hold," he continued, "that Canada with a great trade of this kind cannot fail to be a more prosperous Canada, affording a better market for our goods and able to do more trade with ourselves. Therefore, from every point of view, we look upon the step she is taking as probably a very good step in our interests, as well as in the interests of Canada. It is not for us to intermeddle in her policy. We do not think it a good thing to attempt to guide or influence the policy of our great dominions in matters of trade. We are free traders, as we intend to remain free traders."

No Objection Save Possible Fear of Disloyalty, Declares Mr. Fielding.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, May 19.—The question of appointing commercial agents at Washington and other cities in the United States was brought up by Mr. E. W. Lewis, of Huron, at the opening of the House this morning.

The Finance Minister answered that an agent at Washington would have to have a commercial status. There was no reason why we should not have commercial agents in commercial cities in the United States "unless somebody would fear that we would be disloyal," he remarked.

"You haven't got the treaty yet," called an Opposition member.

Police Head To be Removed

Commissioner Cropsey Will Not Remain in Charge of New York Force.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ned York, May 19.—Police Commissioner James C. Cropsey will be out of the Police Department within forty-eight hours, through resignation or removal, according to information obtained at the City Hall.

A letter from Civil Service Commissioner James Creelman to the Mayor, in which Cropsey was charged with violating the Civil Service law and disobeying the Mayor's explicit instructions, brought out this announcement.

The Creelman letter was a complete surprise to those at the City Hall, although a change in the Police Department has been looked for. First Deputy Clement K. Driscoll is also slated to go, probably within a week.

John McCullagh, former chief of the department, is likely to be appointed to succeed Cropsey.

DANGERS IN SOCIAL DRINKING.

Those Who Think That They "Know When They Have Enough," Cannot Quit of Their Own Accord.

ROMAN CATHOLIC PRIEST ON DRINKING.

Touching on the drink habit, so often superinduced by social drinking, a Roman Catholic priest of this city, in addressing his audience recently, said:

"Just a word or two to you social drinkers. I am not talking to drunkards now. This is not a sermon to the down and out. It is merely a confidential talk to the moderate drinker that self-confident class that knows when it has had enough, and is never, never, never seen under the influence of drink. What I want to point out to you nibblers at the devil's bait is that too many of you ultimately reach sanitariums, insane asylums, aye, even jails."

The moderate drinker, the social drinker, periodical or habitual drinker, or the down-and-out-drunkard—all have found that the Neal Three-Day Drink Habit Cure is the easiest, quickest and most positive method of becoming freed of the enticing and dangerous vice of alcoholism. No hypodermic injections, powerful drugs or narcotics are used; the complete and perfect cure is effected in three days and at the end of that time the periodical, habitual or social drinker will find that all craving, appetite or desire for liquor has gone and that even the sight or thought of whiskey is repulsive to him.

If you have a relative, or one who is near and dear to you, or a friend, or even an acquaintance, who is drinking, persuade him to go to the Montreal Neal Institute, 226 Sherbrooke street east, call on, write, phone East 459, or wire Mr. G. F. Hepburn, manager, and arrange for room in advance, as the rooms and beds are taken nearly all the time. Everything strictly private.

A good many men have the notion that because a suit is made to order it must necessarily be good. They never seem to take into account the variations in quality that price makes. Gold is gold, yet we know that gold can be had in any degree of quality varying from the commercial 10k to the pure 24k. It's the same with made-to-order clothing. A suit that's worth the name will stand you, in custom tailoring, about twice as much as you'd pay for the same fine fabrics, rich patterns, exact fit and expert tailoring of Sovereign Brand Clothes. The reason we are able to offer the same sound value for less money is due solely to our modern and efficient clothes-making organization.

BOY SHOOTS HIS FATHER AT THE LATTER'S REQUEST

Twelve Year Old Blows Parent's Head Off—Dramatic Tragedy at Greenwich, Conn.

Greenwich, Conn., May 19.—Lester Husted, 12 years old, told the authorities yesterday, that at his father's request, he pulled the trigger of a shotgun, which blew the right side of the elder man's head off.

Frederick Husted, a wealthy farmer of North Greenwich, was found lying in the kitchen of his home, late Wednesday with his head partly blown off and a shotgun lying on a table.

The boy said that his father sent his mother away on an errand, called him into the house and, laying the gun on a table, knelt on the floor, placed his left eye at the muzzle of the gun, and said:

"Pull the trigger; it is not loaded. I want to hear how it sounds."

The boy said he did not pull the trigger, but let it down with his thumb. Then his father got up and cocked the gun and again told him to pull the trigger, which he did.

Fire damaged the Lucas building and a livery stable adjoining, at Norwich, Conn., today, causing a loss estimated at $50,000.

DRAFT TREATY IS CONSIDERED NOT EXPLICIT ENOUGH

Believed British Government Will Suggest Amplifications of Peace Pact.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Washington, May 19.—The draft outlined by the State Department for the new Anglo-American arbitration treaty was sent to the British Foreign Office without comment or recommendation, by Ambassador Bryce. It is believed that the British Government will suggest an amplification of the American terms on the ground that a too brief treaty might be dangerous because not sufficiently explicit.

The fact that Mr. Bryce has refrained from comment on the draft is accepted as indicating that he is not thoroughly satisfied with it. It is not denied that the commission of inquiry "with power to make recommendations" for the settlement of differences is not clearly set forth, in that nothing is said as to who shall appoint the commission and what scope its recommendations shall have.

Two sections that have been eliminated in the American draft, but which may be inserted in conference between the two governments, are those prohibiting alliances and agreements by either Great Britain or the United States with a third party without the consent of the other, and specifically providing for pecuniary damages.

One objection to the American draft, as stated by a diplomat directly concerned in the negotiations, is that it does not specify immediate arbitration. It would mean at least one year given to preliminary routine. To this must be added one year provided for diplomatic settlement. Thus it permits two years of delay before actual arbitration.

London Papers Critical.

London, May 19.—The majority of the morning newspapers, while they criticise many points in which the draft of the Anglo-American arbitration treaty falls short of what was expected, welcome it as a great and valuable step in advance, its very shortcomings having the advantage of recommending it, first to the American Congress, which manifestly would not ratify an unrestricted treaty, and, second, to the other Powers, there being, as some of the papers point out, no reason why Germany should not join in such a treaty as now proposed.

STOMACH DISTRESS IS ENDED FOREVER

Indigestion, Stomach Gas, Sourness, Heartburn or Dyspepsia Will Be Relieved in Five Minutes.

Take your sour, out-of-order stomach—or maybe you call it Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gastritis, or Catarrh of Stomach; it doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your Pharmacist and ask him to open a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin, and let you eat one 22-grain Triangle and see if within five minutes there is left any trace of your former misery.

The correct name for your trouble is Food Fermentation—food souring. The Digestive organs become weak, there is lack of gastric juice, your food is only half digested and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fulness after eating, vomiting nausea, heartburn, griping in bowels, tenderness in the pit of stomach, bad taste in mouth, constipation, pain in limbs, sleeplessness, belching of gas, biliousness, sick headache, nervousness, dizziness or many other similar symptoms.

If your appetite is fickle and nothing tempts you, or you belch gas or if you feel bloated after eating, or your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause—fermentation of undigested food.

Prove to yourself in five minutes that your stomach is as good as any; that there is nothing really wrong. Stop this fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery.

Almost instant relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of how soon you take a little Diapepsin.

SKEENA CLAIMS TWO VICTIMS

W. H. Tully and William Grant Lost Lives in Boating Accident.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Prince Rupert, B. C., May 19.—As the result of a rowboat overturning in a canyon on the Skeena river, W. H. Tully, port engineer for Foley, Welch and Stewart, and William Grant, fireman of the steamer Skeena, were drowned.

The upturned boat was found by the steamer Port Simpson.

Economy in Buying

Occasionally a dealer places on sale articles he is willing to turn into money at almost any price. Now and then the householder finds among these things what she wishes but the best way to save cents is not via the bargain counter, but by patronizing those who will sell the best goods for the least money. It requires patience and study to find the real bargains. One store makes a specialty of certain articles and sells at a bottom price. Other things can be purchased at other stores at a discount for similar reasons. These are called advertising specialties, and while they change from week to week, there are always many to choose from.

The housekeeper who buys everything possible at one store does not save in the end. She can shop around through the newspapers, and will find that it pays. Other cent-saving methods are found in the regulation of the use of butter, eggs and lard. These commodities, if used extravagantly, push the household bills to high figures. Their reasonable use is legitimate, but if one follows some of the cook-book recipes the egg and butter producers would be the tyrants of the day. Avoidance of purchasing unnecessary and apparently useless novelties is another road to cent saving. Ten cents here and there counts.

There is a tendency among the ill-informed to make sport of persons who try to save cents. Cent saving by housekeepers is one of the most praiseworthy deeds they perform. Not much to save a single cent, it is true, but let that saving continue day after day, and the saving percentage for the year will amaze. Good shoppers know this, and act accordingly.

A FASHION HINT

A DASHING MARQUISE HAT.

This hat is all in black and white, the hat itself being of white Panama straw, though little of it is visible, for the dashing brim, which turns up sharply at back and front, is faced with Irish lace, laid over black velvet, the black velvet appearing around the edge of the lace disc as well as making an effective background for the handsome pattern. The aigrettes are black and white. With this smart hat is shown part of the restaurant frock it is to accompany—a frock of emerald green chiffon sewn with rhinestones and jet, the chiffon of the bodice being laid over white, and flesh pink chiffon crossing the opening of the decolletage. The hoop earrings of diamonds and emeralds are a feature of this stunning costume.

Shopping does not consist in spending a dollar's worth of time to save a cent. It matters not who the person may be, every one's time is worth something. Where it pays to shop is through the advertisements, or in instances where one is obliged to visit the shops to make purchases, and takes pains to note where the bargains lie.

Gifts for the Bride

In seeking a gift for the bride this spring, one finds among the silver and silver-plated articles many things that are quite new or so vast an improvement on similar articles in use for a time that the choice of a gift is really difficult.

And, after all, there are articles in silver plate which are decidedly worth while—articles which, in the sterling silver, would be quite beyond the purse of ordinary mortals. Indeed, if one had vegetable dishes, platters and similar articles in solid silver, it is true that most housewives would put them in the bank for safe keeping, and so have no use of them at all.

There is true economy in the silver platter and vegetable dish. The initial expense of china articles of this sort is not small, and the dishes require most careful handling, for once chipped their beauty, if not their usefulness, is practically destroyed.

The reversible vegetable dishes—that is, the oval vegetable dish in plated silver, with a cover from which the handle may be removed to make a second open dish—are indeed useful and attractive. Some of these dishes come provided with a screen or rack, changing the vegetable dish into a pea dish.

Another dish designed for a special purpose is one for asparagus. This consists of an oblong tray, to which is fitted a rack two-thirds the size of the dish, the other third of the dish being taken up with a small gravy boat for the sauce served with the asparagus. The rack and boat removed, one has an ideal ice cream dish.

Quite English are the coffee servers for after dinner coffee. A tray with a handle is fitted with six china cups, each set in a silver holder—there are no saucers. In the centre of each tray is a small creamer and sugar bowl. After dinner coffee spoons complete the service, a unique feature of the spoons being the tiny ebony balls at the tip of each one to prevent the heated spoon burning the fingers.

Screens in silver, usually three-ply and of the Sheffield pattern, are most helpful in protecting the flame of the alcohol lamp under the chafing dish, percolator or teapot.

The hot plate rests are increasing in variety. They come in many shapes. Some stand on tiny legs several inches from the table, so as to permit a tiny alcohol lamp beneath.

A jar which at first glance suggests marmalade is in reality a caviar jar. It is somewhat smaller than the marmalade jar, and the spoon which comes with it is of different shape.

A grape holder for table use is another novelty this spring. This is a plate, from the centre of which rises a standard provided with several hooks—quite suggestive of a ring tray on a giant scale. From these hooks the bunches of grapes are suspended. One may cut off with grape scissors as few or many as desired.

The individual custard cups of porcelain fitted to the silver holders are most attractive and can be used for a variety of deserts. Another similar article is the individual bean pot, each one fitted to its own holder.

Au gratin dishes come in different sizes, so that a family of any number may be suited.

Sandwich forks, with a patent device to slip the sandwich from the tines of the fork, is quite similar to the cold meat fork, only larger. Bird carvers are to be had mounted in plate or solid silver.

A silver-plated rack, fitted with a half dozen small plates, one above the other, is for serving sherbet easily. Spoons complete this service.

In tea strainers there is, seemingly, an endless variety, each with its own claims to popularity.

A berry set consists of a rack fitted with a muffineer for the sugar and pitcher for the cream, as well as a bowl for the berries themselves. Salad sets are similar, the cruets for the oil and vinegar and the peppers and salts being, after all, but a modified caster of the days of our grandmothers.

So the list might be extended; but here are some of the many new table appointments to be found in the shops to-day.

NOVEL BREAKFAST CAP.

The new nets, flowered in colors, are being turned into fetching breakfast caps for the girl who loves the picturesque. One of the new models has a deep Tam O'Shanter crown fitted into a crinoline band an inch and a half wide, covered with folds of gold tissue ribbon.

Over each ear is draped a pointed jabot effect of lace to match the net that fell to the soulders and framed the face on each side like a sixteenth century headrear. Over each of these points was a single pink rose of a bunch of pink apple blossoms.

FOR CHINA.

"China Day," is an important occasion in a household. A wooden tub should be lined with a soft cloth, pearl ash dissolved in warm water, and the best antique cups and saucers, vases and plates washed carefully in it. A pastry brush always should be kept with which to work out dust which has collected in the crevices of china figures, while, after draining the china on a wooden board, it is dried with a soft cloth and then polished with a silk handkerchief.

Putty to clean antique glass and wet whiting for pewter are two other secrets of a successful cleaning day.

For the insides of decanters and bottles nothing is better than to soap small pieces of blotting paper, and fill the bottle with them, adding water to reach half way up, and then shaking energetically until the contents froth.

MODISH PARASOLS.

The fashionable parasol of the spring season is adorned with all sorts of beasts and reptiles. In fact, the uglier and more ferocious the animals look the more modish they are, according to the accepted standard.

These queer animals are wrought in tinted ivory or in carved woods, stained to match the color of the covering. Birds and beasts seem to be the favorites, although many of the exclusive models show fruits and flowers, butterflies and all manner of insects with jewelled eyes. The handle must always match either the covering or the lining of the parasol. One bright green sunshade had a sinuous looking lizard twisted to form a curved handle. The reptile had a most disconcerting appearance of being alive, and so natural were the eyes that it needed no very vivid stretch of the imagination to imagine them blinking in the sunlight.

One of the latest parasols seen in the shops was of Parisian silk with strongly marked designs and colorings. The shape was rather odd and interesting; it was gathered between the ribs to an elastic band. It was untrimmed and had an extra long handle of imitation ivory.

STEEL HOLDERS CHEERED AT GOOD NEWS

Over 80 Present to Hear Mr. Plummer's Dividend News

One Shareholder Wanted to See the Books, But Could Not Do So.

Cheering and prolonged applause marked an unusual demonstration at the annual meeting of the Dominion Steel Corporation at noon today, when Mr. J. H. Plummer, speaking of the corporation's dividends declared that, having regard to the earnings of the two companies, and the strong confidence they had in the justice of their claim for a rod bounty, the Board saw no reason to discontinue the payment of dividends at present.

It was several minutes before the applause and cheers had subsided, and Mr. Plummer remarked that the announcement seemed to be a popular one. The meeting, in fact, was an enthusiastic one throughout.

One conspicuous figure at former meetings being absent at the gathering yesterday, caused Mr. Plummer to express profound regret that the late Senator Forget was no longer present at the meetings. He also referred to the death of Mr. H. F. Dimock, of New York, who had been a wise counsellor to the Board. He believed that Senator Dandurand, who had been appointed to the Board, was one of the most prominent representatives of the French-Canadian; and that another wise appointment was that of Sir William Mackenzie, who was such an outstanding figure in the railway world. Mr. James Crathern had also passed away last June, but the vacancy caused by his death was not refilled.

There was little discussion after Mr. Plummer's announcement concerning the dividend. Mr. Strathy wanted to know if the Board was considering the payment of preferred stock on a quarterly basis, and Mr. Plummer replied that that matter was under favorable consideration and that a decision might be reached shortly.

Statement on Dividends.

Mr. Plummer's statement regarding dividends was:

"Our position in the matter of dividends is briefly this, that if we are not paying what is practically a dividend we should probably not begin its payment for six months yet, but having regard to the accumulation of earnings of the two companies with the very strong confidnece we have that the government will recognize the justice of our claim to the rod bounty, the board see no reason to discontinue at present the payment of the dividend."

When the cheering and applause had ended, Mr. Plummer remarked: "That seems to be pretty well received."

Mr. Strathy asked: "I would like to know if the board has ever taken into consideration the paying of preferred stock on a quarterly basis. It might have a great effect on the stock which is steadily going into the hands of investors and it is very much against the investor to get the dividends only once in six months."

Mr Plummer—The matter has been considered and the Board is rather favorable to it, speaking generally. We have been pressed to consider amalgamating the preferred stocks of the two companies and it seemed to us wise, if we are going to issue the preferred stock of the Dominion Steel Corporation so as to absorb the preferred stock of the two subsidiary companies, I think we can arrange before long to pay the dividends quarterly. Of course, if we do it with the Steel, we will also have to pay it with the coal. But some of our shareholders desire one larger issue to be created, 6 per cent. stock, instead of 7 per cent. The whole matter is entirely in the air, but it is under consideration and will be taken up before long."

"I wish to explain," Mr. Plummer continued, "that when we issued our joint circular in April, 1910, we put in a promise that partial issues of stock would not be made without the sanction of shareholders. This was intended to remove that idea that there might be stock issued as a bonus in connection with the acquisition of the Coal-Steel Company. We wished to quiet any misapprehension in respect to that matter. The limitation is inconvenient and is no longer necessary from the legal aspect. It was a sort of moral incubus, and we think it should no longer stand. It put us to a lot of inconvenience. We had to borrow a lot of stock from some of our friends.

"I would ask Sir Montague Allan to move a resolution on the subject.

Sir Montague Allan moved that the issue of the board of directors of 6,000 shares of stock made in exchange for 20,000 of the Cumberland Railway and Coal Company be hereby approved. This was seconded by Mr George Caverhill.

Senator McSweeney asked how many orders were ahead in Steel.

"So far as orders are concerned," said Mr. Plummer, "we are in as satisfactory a condition as we could hope to be. The rod business is limited by the matter of the rod bounty. So far as rails are concerned we are practically sold out. Regarding coal, as I explained, we expect to have an additional output of 300,000 tons."

Mr. Gault asked if the question of the sale of the surplus ore of the Dominion Steel Company had been considered by the directors.

"It has received a great deal of consideration, but the trouble is that we have been providing for an increased output of pig iron. We shall mine 7,000 tons of ore and we will need it all for our own operations. As soon as we increase the equipment that will be our policy. I would like the shareholders to understand that it is easy to talk of selling ore, but that you have to spend a lot of money before you are in a position to mine the additional ore. We have plenty of ore, but we have never yet been able to follow up the increased consumption of the plant."

Protest Small Shareholder.

When it came to the point of casting one ballot for the re-election of the board, Mr. J. A. Renaud, K. C., of Joliette, said: "I do not want to object to this meeting casting one ballot, but I think it is the proper time now to say that the small shareholder has a right to be protected just as well as the big one. Perhaps for the small shareholder, $10,000 in this company is worth more to him than $100,000 to others. I do not think it is right of the National Trust Co., to refuse access to the books. It is to my personal knowledge that the directors refused communication with the books. I think in justice that within office hours every shareholder should have access to them. I was one of three shareholders that went there last week. I explained to the representative of the National Trust Company that I was a shareholder and that I thought it was my right. He told us that he would communicate by telegram with the president of this company. In the afternoon he told us that he had a telegram from the president of the company refusing to give communication to the books."

Mr. Plummer: "I entirely agree with the speaker. This company is bound by law to keep at its office in Sidney a full list of shareholders to exhibit it to any shareholder free, to any outsider on the payment of a fee and to furnish to any applicant on payment of a fee a list of shareholders. On Friday morning I received a telegram from the National Trust Company to se if theyt would allow tha here.

"I wired them that as it is against the law, I would not authorize it before I consulted with my colleagues. I called a meeting of the members of the committee within my reach. I submitted my conclusions by telephone to the one member of the committee in Montreal and as we were all of one mind that we should not stand in the way, we communicated to the National Trust Company Friday afternoon authorizing them to show the books to any shareholder. I do not know what I could do more. You could not expect me to act in a matter of that kind, which has certain unpleasant aspects, without consulting my colleagues. I would not like to do it. Within six hours after I got the telegram, they had permission to show the books. If the gentleman who spoke did not return to the office, I am very sorry."

Mr. Renaud explained that he lived 80 miles from the city, but that he was satisfied with the explanation.

The meeting closed with a vote of thanks to the president of the corporation and the directors.

The directors present were: Messrs.

TO SET CITY AFIRE WITH RELIGIOUS PASSION IS AIM

Men and Religion Forward Movement Conference to Be Held Here.

To set Montreal on fire with religious passion is the avowed object of "The Men and Religion Forward Movement" conference, which is to open in the city on Saturday evening in the American Presbyterian Church, when Hon. W. J. Bryan will be the chief speaker.

The movement itself has not yet been inaugurated, and the conference here is but preliminary to a larger scheme which is designed to be of continental proportions.

Mr. Roy B. Guild, of New York, who is the executive secretary of the movement, said to-day that it does not supersede, but rather includes, the Lay Missionary Movement.

"It is wider in its scope than that movement," said Mr. Guild, "because it seeks to promote not only foreign missions, but home missions and social service as well. The objective of the movement may be summed up as follows:—

"To leave with every Church, Brotherhood, Sunday School, and Young Men's Christian Association a worthy and workable plan of specialized effort for men and boys.

"To assemble and publish a statement of the most approved methods of religious work for men and boys.

"To win to Christ and the Church the largest possible number of men and boys by May 1, 1912.

"To greatly increase the enrollment in Bible classes.

"To continue and increase the emphasis of the Christian religion as the one and only hope of the world and to make abiding the missionary enterprises of the Church at home and abroad.

"To reveal the programme of Jesus Christ in the world in such a manner that the strongest men will volunteer for life service in the Church. This service to include a Christian investment of time, personal talents and money.

"To make a permanent contribution to the best life of the continent, social, political, commercial and physical.

"To exalt the spiritual power of the public worship of God."

The real campaign, Mr. Guild added, will start on September 26 next, and will close on April 26. Four teams each, consisting of six experts, will visit ninety cities in North America, and conduct in each one an eight-day campaign that will challenge the attention and interest of all.

Some of the richest men in the United States, including Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan, are attending to the financing of the movement.

The committee for Montreal consists of the following: William H. Goodwin, chairman; Prof. C. E. Bland, R. L. Charlton, Lemuel Cushing, Arthur O. Dawson, Owen Dawson, Hamilton H. Hall, Rev. Robert Johnston, D.D.; Fred. G. White, secretary; Judge S. P. Leet, Rev. N. H. McGillivray, T. B. Macaulay, Rev. Hugh Pedley, John W. Ross, Rev. Jos. Sullivan, Rev. Herbert Symonds, D. D.; Geo. E. Williams.

HIS "IRISH WIT" WAS INSANITY, SAY RELATIVES.

Maurice Dineen, who was brought before the Recorder a couple of weeks ago, and discharged from the accusation of striking his mother, whom he said "was his best friend on earth," and who caused much mirth in court by addressing the Judge as "My Honor," appeared again before Mr. Recorder Dupuis, yesterday, charged with being a habitual drunkard. He was remanded eight days for medical examination. What Dineen chooses to call "Irish wit" his relatives believe to be the manifestations of his insanity.

ENGINEERS' CLUB ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Engineers' Club, Beaver Hall Square, was held Wednesday, when it was reported that the club had experienced a very successful year.

The retiring members of the committee were Messrs. Thompson, Kelsh and Archibald, of whom the last named did not offer himself for re-election, owing to pressure of private business. Messrs. Thompson and Kelsh were re-elected, and Mr. George Ross was elected in the place of Mr. Archibald.

Contractors Go to Law.

A claim for $21,512 damages is being made by the Bishop Construction Co. against the Canadian General Development Co. for not accepting the delivery of 18,000 tons of stone and 9,000 cubic yards of sand for the widening of the Lachine canal, and that the delivery was not accepted in accordance with the contract.

Death of ex-Ald. F. Martineau.

Ex-Ald. Francois Martineau died yesterday at his residence, St. Hubert street, aged seventy years. Mr. Martineau leaves four children, one of whom is Mr. Victor Martineau, K.C., general secretary of the Province of Quebec Bar. His funeral will take place on Monday.

HAD LONG CHASE FOR MINING PLANS AND RECOVERED THEM

Mr. Powell's Public Training Stood Him Well in Hunt for Lost Sketches.

For over an hour Wednesday Mr. W. P. Powell, former chief of police of Ottawa, chased a St. Lawrence street car and a St. Lawrence street car conductor, and all the time that the chase was in progress an important mining meeting was being held up.

With a roll of mining plans tucked under his arm, Mr. Powell, who is now connected with mining work in the Haileybury and Porcupine districts, left the Windsor Hotel shortly before noon, boarding a Windsor street car in order to present the plans before a meeting down town.

On leaving the car at St. Francois Xavier street, he evidently dropped his plans on the car platform. Just as the car was speeding out of sight along Notre Dame street, Mr. Powell realized that he had dropped his plans, and knowing that he could not attend the meeting before he recovered the plans, he boarded the next St. Lawrence street car and urged the conductor to give chase to the car in front. Mile End station was reached before he got within running distance of the car, however, and by that time the conductor had left the car in front, deposited his box in the branch office and left for lunch.

Mr. Powell resolutely tramped further north, much further than the cars go, before he located the conductor's house and there discovered that the conductor had picked up the plans on the car platform, and not realizing their importance, had taken them home with him.

Meanwhile the spirits of the men awaiting the plans at the important mining meeting were somewhat ruffled but they eagerly greeted Mr. Powell when he turned up, and congratulated themselves on Mr. Powell's former police training.

GOES TO CHINA.

Mr. J. B. Hattie, McGill Graduate, Will Supervise Missionary Building.

Mr. James Blake Hattie, who was yesterday appointed by the executive of the Presbyterian Foreign Mission Board at Toronto, to go to Honan, China, has been a student at McGill University since 1904 and graduated there in Science (Civil) 1910. Mr. Hattie was a very popular member of the McGill Y.M.C.A., and while there took a great interest in all that pertained to work in the mission field.

Two new hospitals and a new middle school are to be built in northern Honan, and Mr. Hattie, being a civil engineer, will be entrusted with the superintendence of the building operations, subsequently undertaking missionary work.

In addition to that of Mr. Hattie, the following appointments were also made: Rev. D. A. MacDonald, of Fort William, to go to Korea, as a missionary, and Miss Ethel Cameron, a graduate of the Toronto Deaconess Home, to go to Central India.

TRAITORS IN PARTY.

Mr. Lafortune Discusses Attacks From the Inside.

That there were certain Liberals who were continually searching for occasions to betray their party and their leaders, was the declaration made by Mr. D. A. Lafortune, M.P., at a meeting of St. Mary's Liberal Club Wednesday. They were traitors, he said, who were trying to drive out the Government.

Messrs. Severin Letourneau and Mederic Martin also addressed the meeting, after which a resolution supporting the Government's policy was adopted.

FAINTED IN COURT.

Woman Swooned When Recorder Announced Fine.

"Surely not that! Surely not that!" wailed Elizabeth Scott and fainted in the Recorder's Court yesterday. She was brought before Mr. Recorder Dupuis, in company with another woman, charged with loitering on the street between 12 and 1 o'clock at night, and with haccosting men.

The Recorder sentenced her to pay a fine of $40 or two months in jail.

AN HONORABLE MAN.

That Being Declared Court Case Ends.

Mr. Justice Greenshields dismissed the case, with divided costs, of Phillas Garbe against Mrs. Lacos, of St. Rose, for slander. Counsel for the defendant declared that his client was ready to state that she knew the plaintiff was a perfectly honorable man and that what she had said in the past to the contrary was without foundation.

Toronto to Get Order for Car.

THE DUKE INTERVENES.

As she spoke she moved towards the door. M. Charmerace, pale and his sons rose and made way for her. The father and the two eldest sons made haste to follow her out of the room. But Bernard lingered behind, apparently to admire the bric-a-brac on the cabinets. With infinite quickness he grabbed two objects off the nearest and followed his brothers. The Duke sprang across the hall in three strides, caught him by the arm on the very threshold, jerked him back into the hall, and shut the door.

"No, you don't, my young friend," he said sharply.

"Don't what?" said Bernard, trying to shake off his grip.

"You've taken a cigarette-case," said the Duke.

"No, no, I haven't—nothing of the kind," stammered Bernard.

The Duke grasped the young man's left wrist, plunged his hand into the motor-cap which he was carrying, drew out of it a silver cigarette-case, and held it before his eyes.

Bernard turned pale to the lips. His frightened eyes seemed about to leap from their sockets.

"It—it—was a m-m-m-mistake," he stammered.

The Duke shifted his grip to his collar, and thrust his hand into the breast-pocket of his coat. Bernard, helpless in his grip, and utterly taken aback by his quickness, made no resistance.

The Duke drew out a morocco case, and said: "Is this a mistake, too?"

"Heavens! The pendant!" cried Sonia, who was watching the scene with parted lips and amazed eyes.

Bernard dropped on his knees and clasped his hands.

"Forgive me," he cried, in a choking voice on me! If my father knew! Oh, let me off!" cried Bernard.

The Duke hesitated, and looked down on him, frowning and pulling at his moustache. Then, more quickly than one would have expected from so careless a trifler, his mind was made up.

"All right," he said slowly. "Just for this once . . . be off with you." And he jerked him to his feet and almost threw him into the outer hall.

"Thanks! . . . Oh, thanks!" said Bernard.

The Duke shut the door and looked at Sonia, breathing quickly.

"Well? Did you ever see anything like that? That young fellow will go a long way. The cheek of the thing! Right under our very eyes! And this pendant, too: it would have been a pity to lose it. Upon my word, I ought to have handed him over to the police."

"No, no!" cried Sonia. "You did quite right to let him off—quite right!"

The Duke set the pendant on the ledge of the bureau, and came down the hall to Sonia.

"What's the matter?" he said gently. "You're quite pale."

"It has upset me . . . that unfortunate boy," said Sonia; and her eyes were swimming with tears.

"Do you pity the young rogue?" said the Duke.

"Yes; it's dreadful. His eyes were so terrified, and so boyish. And, to be caught like that . . . stealing . . . in the act. Oh, it's hateful!"

"Come, come, how sensitive you are!" said the Duke, in a soothing, almost caressing tone. His eyes, resting on her charming, troubled face, were glowing with warm admiration.

"Yes; it's silly," said Sonia; "but you noticed his eyes—the hunted look in them? You pitied him, didn't you? For you are kind at bottom."

"Why at bottom?" said the Duke.

"Oh, I said at bottom because you look sarcastic, and at first sight you're so cold. But often that's only the mask of those who have suffered the most. . . . They are the most indulgent," said Sonia slowly, hesitating, picking her words.

"Yes, I suppose they are," said the Duke thoughtfully.

"It's because when one has suffered one understands. . . . Yes: one understands," said Sonia.

There was a pause. The Duke's eyes still rested on her face. The admiration in them was mingled with compassion.

"You're very unhappy here, aren't you?" he said gently.

"Me? Why?" said Sonia quickly.

"Your smile is so sad, and your eyes so timid," said the Duke slowly. "You're just like a little child one longs to protect. Are you quite alone in the world?"

His eyes and tones were full of pity; and a faint flush mantled Sonia's cheeks.

"Yes, I'm alone," she said.

"But have you no relations—no friends?" said the Duke.

"No," said Sonia.

"I don't mean here in France, but in your own country. . . . Surely you have some in Russia?"

"No, not a soul. You see, my father was a Revolutionist. He died in Siberia when I was a baby. And my mother, she died too—in Paris. She had fled from Russia. I was two years old when she died."

"It must be hard to be alone like that," said the Duke.

"No," said Sonia, with a faint smile. "I don't mind having no relations. I grew used to that so young . . . so very young. But what is hard—but you'll laugh at me—"

"Heaven forbid!" said the Duke gravely.

"Well, what is hard is, never to get a letter. . . an envelope that one opens . . . from some one who thinks about one——"

She paused, and then added gravely: "But I tell myself that it's nonsense. I have a certain amount of philosophy."

She smiled at him—an adorable child's smile.

The Duke smiled too. "A certain amount of philosophy," he said softly. "You look like a philosopher!"

As they stood looking at one another with serious eyes, almost with eyes that probed one another's souls, the drawing-room door flung open, and Germaine's harsh voice broke on their ears.

"You're getting quite impossible, Sonia!" she cried. "It's absolutely useless telling you anything. I told you particularly to pack my leather writing-case in my bag with your own hand. I happen to open a drawer, and what do I see? My leather writing-case."

"I'm sorry," said Sonia. "I was going——"

"Oh, there's no need to bother about it. I'll see after it myself," said Germaine. "But upon my word, you might be one of the guests, seeing how easily you take things. You're negligence personified."

"Come, Germaine. . . . a mere oversight," said the Duke, in a coaxing tone.

"Now, excuse me, Jacques; but you've got an unfortunate habit of interfering in household matters. You did it only the other day. I can no longer say a word to a servant——"

"Germaine!" said the Duke, in sharp protest.

Germaine turned from him to Sonia, and pointed to a packet of envelopes and some letters, which Bernard Charolais had knocked off the table, and said, "Pick up those envelopes and letters, and bring everything to my room, and be quick about it!"

She flung out of the room, and slammed the door behind her.

Sonia seemed entirely unmoved by the outburst; no flush of mortification stained her cheeks, her lips did not quiver. She stooped to pick up the fallen papers.

"No, no; let me, I beg you," said the Duke, in a tone of distress. And, dropping on one knee, he began to gather together the fallen papers. He set them on the table, and then he said: "You mustn't mind what Germaine says. She's—she's—she's all right at heart. It's her manner. She's always been happy, and had everything she wanted. She's been spoiled, don't you know. Those kind of people never have any consideration for any one else. You mustn't let her gaitburst hurt you."

"Oh, but I don't. I don't really," protested Sonia.

"I'm glad of that," said the Duke. "It isn't really worth noticing."

He drew the envelopes and unused cards into a packet, and handed them to her.

"There!" he said, with a smile. "That won't be too heavy for you."

"Thank you," said Sonia, taking it from him.

"Shall I carry them for you?" said the Duke.

"No, thank you, your Grace," said Sonia.

With a quick, careless, almost irresponsible movement, he caught her hand, bent down, and kissed it. A great wave of rosy color flowed over her face, flooding its whiteness to her hair and throat. She stood for a moment turned to stone; she got her hand to her heart. Then on hasty, faltering feet she went to the door, opened it, paused on the threshold, turned and looked back at him, and vanished.

J. H. PLUMMER'S REPORT TO THE STEEL HOLDERS

Optimistic Regarding the Future of the Steel Plant

Speaks of the Rod Bounty and Other Matters of Great Interest.

The Steel Corporation meeting today, Mr. J. H. Plummer, after referring to the death of Senator Forget and Mr. Henry Dimock, and the election of Sir William Mackkenzie, Mr. E. R. Wood, Mr. M. Workman and Senator Dandurand, said in part:

"I would like to take up the affairs of our companies, and first those of the Dominion Steel Corporation, Ltd.

"We have no statement of earnings to submit to you this year, as, in accordance with the understanding set out in our joint circular last year, our constituent companies have not paid any dividends. They have, however, added substantially to the value of their respective properties. Taking the Coal and Steel Companies together this increase amounts to $1,500,169.28, that being their net gains to 31st March after payment of all charges prior to ours, and making full provision for depreciation. Our proportion of that addition is in round figures $1,480,000, which has, in effect, been left in the companies' hands to pay for additions to the plant and property or to increase their working capital.

Dominion Iron and Steel.

"I regret that the forecast last year of the progress we might look for in our business has not come true. We have been so accustomed to get our work done and our machinery in motion expditiously that we counted on having results from our new plant before new; we believed it would be finished in time to offset the loss of bounties and the extra cost of coal, etc. We are, however, from nine to twelve months behind in our programme, the causes of which it is perhaps useless to discuss, since we have done everything that is necessary or possible to remove them. The report refers to the delay in the new coke ovens. The contractors for these, who are strong and able peopit, weer to have given us the first of them in May, 1910, but as a matter of fact we got the first lot of ovens, 30 out of 120, in February, 1911. Difficulty in obtaining labor was one of their chief troubles. Some delays in construction have been due to our own organization, some to other causes, but I am glad to say that matters are now moving smoothly and with reasonable speed.

Bounty On Wire Rods.

"In regard to the bounty on wire rods, I can scarcely add anything to the few words in the direstors' report, but in justification of the policy and the statements of my predecessors, as well as what I have myself in the past said, I must again state that we had every reason to expect that the bounty would be continued until a duty was imposed. I was not on the board when the bounty was granted, but I have the positive assurances on this point of those who were interested in arranging the matter, which are supported by the statements in 'Hansard,' although the discussion ended up with the usual reservation. It was expressly stated in Parliament that there was difficulty about a duty, that it would involve changes in the tariff which it was not in the interests of the country to make a that time; that bounties wert granted insead of dealing with the tariff; and that by so doing the House would be left entirely free to deal with matters when any revision of the tariff might be made. No inference can reasonably be drawn from these statements except that the bounty was a temporary substitute for a duty.

"In a very able speech during the debate the Hon. Mr. Oliver—not then a mtmber of the oGvernment — frankly faces the whole issue and in effect declares that Parliament must expect to adjust duties when the bounties should lapse.

"It may be said at once that we cannot sell wire rods in Canada at a living price without a duty. It is no reflection on us that this is so. On the one hand we have to compete with the cheapest producers of rods in the world, the Belgian makers, whose wages average 85 cents a day, where ours average $2.07, and who have cheap water transportation to our shores.

"On the other hand, if we are to credit the testimony given by the United States manufacturers at Washington, and the reported prices at which they offer rods in Canada, they are willing to take our trade at a margin where we could not live, an dwheer they could not live either if ie applied to any large portion of their output. But as 2,000,000 tons of rods are made annually in the United States, against 80,000 tons in Canada, it is easy to see where we are left by free wire rods.

Earnings.

"The delay has kept our output stationary, but we maintained our earnings last year notwithstanding the fact that our bounties on iron and steel were $225,000 less. This year the bounties on wire rods, unless extended, run out also; but, leaving them aside, we hope by the increase of 50,000 tons in our output to offset the entire cessation of the bounties on pig iron and steel ingots, from which $316,000 was received last year. We may do better, but that will depend on our getting more of our new plant into operation, as to which we cannot yet definitely say; the 50,000 tons will be derived from the plant already completed.

"I have been frequently asked what we shall do if the rod bounties are not renewed. Well, we shall not make wire rods if we can sell other things that pay better. It will undoubtedly lead to the partial shutting down of our rod mill, and the disuse to some extent of a very costly investment, but we would expect to turn part of the steel into billets and rails, and also to sell more pig iron. The effect of this change on our earnings is hard to estimate, but we hope that we shall not lose anything like the amount of the bounty.

"It is no use shirking the fact that it will hurt us in many ways to have our rod business disorganized, but, as say in our report, we have every confidence that the effect will be overcome when the plant is completed. By this we mean the completion of the wire and nail mills, which the changed conditions make it necessary for us to erect. These will take time, and even when complete will not for some time give full employment to our rod mill, but we have no doubt of our ability to finish in marketable form all the material we can turn out.

"It is not without great regret that we find ourselves forced into competition with mills which have hitherto been our good customers, and seeking entrance to a market which they are already well equipped to supply.

"I might explain the provisions we make for depreciation, etc. Each year we charge against our net earnings from operations a sum which we consider sufficient to provide for the depreciation of the plant. In 1909 it was $408,000, an amount which, taken in conjunction with our other provisions, was satisfactory to Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co., the auditors. In 1910 we wrote off $498,000, and in the ten months ending March 31, 1911, $419,000, which would be equal to about $500,000 for a full year's operations.

"These appropriations are computed very carefully, and in our opinion make full provision for depreciation. The special additional transfer of $500,000 from profit and loss account need not be regarded as having anything to do with the year's earnings; our surplus profits having to some extent been invested in betterments, it seemed wise to write off the half million from earnings and to strengthen our reserves to that extent.

"We have had to exercise patience in the past, and we must wait the completion of the new work before we can get large results, but your directors have the most implicit confidence in the outcome, of your steel business; that there will before long be earnings sufficient to satisfy your reasonable expectations. It has taken longer to reach our goal than we expected, but the getting of a largely increased tonnage is now purely a question of time, the market for it is assured, and with these together we cannot fail to secure prosperity for the plant.

The Tariff.

"Looking back for a moment on the ordinary bounties, I think it may be said that they have cost us something in the way of tariff protection. It was doubtless due to their existence that our effective protection—the preference tariff—was reduced, so that we now have only about ten per cent. on pig iron, seven per cent. on billets, and about seventeen per cent. on rails. These duties can scarcely be regarded as protective; they can hardly be considered a revenue tariff. It may interest you to know that we pay customs duties on the imported materials that are used in the making of steel rails, which represent three or four per cent. on the dutiable value of the rails, to say nothing of the heavy duties we paid on much of our machinery. Three or four per cent. on our raw material for rails and seventeen per cent. on the finished product does not give a wide margin when the difference in wages is considered.

Additions to the Plant.

"The main changes in our plans since our last meeting have been the decision to erect a sixth blast furnace, which will go forward at once, and the arrangements for the erection of wire and nail mills, already mentioned.

"With six blast furnaces we can count on five in operation, and while we may not need for conversion into steel all the pig iron that five furnaces will make, we should be glad to become sellers of pig iron more freely than we now are.

"The programme we have arranged will give us before long a very well proportioned and economical plant, making over 400,000 tons of finished steel yearly, at a considerably decreased cost of manufacture."

"I will speak now of our other great property, the Dominion Coal Company.

"The report indicates briefly what is going on there, and there is not much need to amplify.

"The output, of which the figures are given in the report, shows a gratifying increase, and we are glad to be able to report such steady operations in the recent winter months, which have this direct effect, that we shall have a larger tonnage to send up the St. Lawrence this season, to our great advantage.

"There are some points in the statement of earnings which call for comment. The report indicates the conditions under which they were attained; the strike, the recovery from the strike, and the extra winter months.

"We do not make money in our winter coal operations, and although our output was large in this past winter season, its advantage will not be felt until summer, for we banked a good deal of coal for summer shipment and provided coal for some of our less profitable contracts. In the result we made no headway to speak of between 31st December and 31st March, and if we had made our figures up to the end of December, 1910, that is for a period of twelve months only, the earnings would have been quite as large as for the fifteen months which the report covers.

"The provision for depreciation in the Coal Company's assets is a matter about which there may be some difference of opinion, but what we set aside is the full sum which in our opinion is required and justified by the various conditions which exist. In this case, as in the Steel Company's case, the extra half million written off from profit and loss account need not be regarded as affecting the earnings of the year. Having spent our earnings in betterments which were charged to capital account,it seemed desirable to write off a round amount and strengthen our property account to that extent.

"Our relations with our employees are satisfactory, and we have during the year assisted in the reorganization of the Benefit or Relief Society to which practically all of them belong, on very broad and sound lines, which should work for the good of the company and the men alike. We are arranging for the issue of debentures to be paid over the instalments, with a provision equivalent to insurance in case of death. We hope these will encourage thrift among our employees.

Collieries.

"The new mines in the Lingan District are being steadily developed, under very advantageous conditions, and we shall soon have two collieries in full work there, while two more are under way. A new colliery in the Cow Bay Basin, on the areas leased from the Cumberland Company, is well started, and promises very good results.

"On the other hand, some of our old collieries, notably Nos. 3, 5 and 8, are drawing near to the point where the coal tributary to them will be exhausted. The new colleries will take care of the loss of the tonnage of those which lapse, but in view of the growing demand for coal it is our intention to continue for the present our policy of opening new collieries.

Springhill Collieries.

"We have added to our cares this year the two mines of the Cumberland Railway & Coal Company at Springhill,which we are operating under lease. We have not yet fairly started there, so I will only point out that the Cumberland Company's property covers a large part of the best areas in the well-known Cumberland coal field, which is next in importance to the coal field in eastern Cape Breton. The Cumberland Company's area lies on the neck of land which divides the Bay of Fundy from the Gulf of St. Lawrence, so that it can readily reach both. At present it is equipped for the shipment of coal to the Bay of Fundy, which gives it access on favorable conditions to many places in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Maine. Its railways connect with the Intercolonial at Springhill Junction, and it is thereby in easy reach of the markets in the inland cities and towns of New Brunswick and the western part of Nova Scotia, and can besides supply important inland railway requirements. As a property, it fits in very well with our Cape Breton collieries; the districts and markets which each can economically reach are entirely different, unless we begin to ship from Springhill to Montreal via the St. Lawrence, when they will be more or less equal."

CURED OF CONSTIPATON

Mr. Andrews praises Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills.

Mr. George Andrews of Halifax, N.S., writes:

"For many years I have been troubled with chronic Constipation. This ailment never comes single-handed, and I have been a victim to the many illnesses that constipation brings in its train. Medicine after medicine I have taken in order to find relief, but one and all left me in the same hopeless condition. It seemed that nothing would expel from me the one ailment that caused so much trouble, yet at last I read about these Indian Root Pills.

That was indeed a lucky day for me, for I was so impressed with the statements made that I determined to give them a fair trial.

They have regulated my stomach and bowels. I am cured of constipation, and I claim they have no equal as a medicine."

For over half a century Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills have been curing constipation and clogged, inactive kidneys, with all the ailments which result from them. They cleanse the whole system and purify the blood. Sold everywhere at 25c. a box. 9

ROYALIST PLOT WITH MILLIONS TO BACK PLOTTERS

Portugal Facing Serious Campaign Says Brussels Paper—Demonstrations Against Clergy.

London, May 19.—The Brussels paper The Peuple, today states it has learned from an authoritative source that a serious Royalist plot against the Portuguese republic is now being organized.

The plotters are anxious not to move without a reasonable chance of success, and are seeking to raise funds to cover the cost of a military expedtion, which will start from Vigo, Spain, and enter Portugal at Oporto, where the conspirators have sympathizers in the garrison.

The journal adds that a representative of a financial group, which has already collected £200,000 ($1,000,000) for the purpose, is now in Brussels, where he is interviewing various financial personages, to whom he is offering mining and railway concessions in Portugal, should the expedition be successful.

Anti-Clerical Riots in Braga.

According to a Lisbon despatch to the Daily Mail, a religious riot occurred at Braga in Northern Portugal, where the clergy held commemoration service in the churches of the diocese, and many private houses were illuminated at night. Despite the prohibition of outdoor religious demonstrations, a large number of anti-clericals marched through the streets, smashing lamps and Chinese lanterns, and breaking the windows of seminaries, schools, and private houses.

Two clubs were entered, and the crowd demolished the furniture, books, and everything else they could find. They then proceeded to the printing office where the newspaper, The Combate, is published, and destroped the printing machines.

The Mundo, addressing the nation, today says that, if the priests abandon their churches, they should be forcibly compelled to return to their homes. The people are warned that priests are in league with Jesuits abroad, in order to provoke fratricidal tumults among the Portuguese, and thus bring about a pretext for foreign nations to intervene.

Indian Rajah Gives Hospital Site.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, May 19.—The foreign mission committee of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, at a meeting here, received word from India that the Rajah of Rutlam had made a generous grant of land for the erection of a hospital there.

The committee resolved as soon as possible to arrange for the erection of a suitable hospital, which will be the only hospital for men in that section of India.

Summer Suits of Pure Wool

WE ARE THE ORIGINAL
Scotland Woollen Mills Company,
REMEMBER THE ADDRESS,
261 WEST ST. CATHERINE STREET

The Suitings sold by The Scotland Woollen Mills Company are all wool. We could tell you the particular history of every inch of cloth as far as the looms are concerned. The wool is all carefully inspected before it is turned over to the superintendent. Scotland wool is used as far as it will go, but the entire output of native-grown wool would not last a week on the combined Mills of Scotland. Botany Bay, Australia, supplies the balance, and there is nothing we know of to touch this colonial product.

CHOICE OF ANY SUITING OR OVERCOAT

Just now it is Suits for late Spring and Summer. The goods we have on sale are the very last word in fashion and fabric, from the mills that have always been considered exclusive in the making of all wool goods.

We desire to call your attention to our very high-class line of Blue Serge. There is nothing better for a Summer suit than a good serge, and the line we handle is made from Botany Bay yarn dyed in the wool. Comes in three weights, and several finishes.

THE "GLOBE" DODGES.

THE other day, the Toronto Globe undertook to prove Canada's possession of commercial autonomy by showing how "free" it was to enter into the Reciprocity agreement with the Taft Government. Its text was, indeed, the "Commercial Freedom of Canada"; and it met the objection it saw coming that this step toward "freedom" would tie our hands so that we could not accept a preference in the British market, if it were offered us, by declaring dogmatically that it would never be offered. That was so Globe-like a way of dealing with the question that we ventured to regret that our contemporary had been denied a sense of humor. To argue that a man is perfectly "free" to do a thing, which he is notoriously prohibited from doing, because he may never want to do it, is certainly a very free interpretation of the term freedom.

At the same time, we pointed out that Reciprocity would limit our freedom on another side. To-day we can change every item in our tariff as we please. But if Reciprocity comes into force, we can only change such items as are included in the Taft-Fielding agreement at the risk of a quarrel with the United States. Most people would regard this as at least a limitation of our freedom. It seemed to us, in short, that, whatever else might be said for Reciprocity, it could hardly be commended as a stride toward fiscal liberty. So we put it mildly by asking—"In what way will we be freer after we have adopted Reciprocity than we are to-day?"

On Wednesday, the Globe replied. It said that we would be "freer" because we could buy certain articles without "taxing ourselves"—which is the Globe's way of referring to the present protective policy which it supports just so much, and only so much, as is necessary to keep its friends in office. "We will be free," it says, "to buy type-setting and casting machines from the United States and some dozen other countries instead of taxing ourselves 20 per cent." And so on through the items in the agreement. This is what the Globe calls "enlightening" us. It even mentions the date upon which it published the agreement so that we may refer to it and learn all the articles on which we will be "freer." Thus it not only assists "the spread of enlightenment" but demonstrates that it really possesses what it mistakes for a sense of humor.

It will be noticed how neatly the answer fits into the question. The Globe began by citing Reciprocity as a proof of our commercial autonomy. We enquired how Reciprocity could possibly improve our commercial autonomy. The Globe replies that it improves our ability to buy type-setting machines. This has not been beaten since a mistress sent a new maid to the door with instructions to give a caller, who might ask if she were at home, a "non-committal answer." When the maid returned, she reported that she had done so. "He asked if you were in," said the maid; "and I asked him if his grand-mother wore lace caps.'" But giving "non-committal answers" may be the Globe's idea of humor.

Everybody knows that we will be "freer" to buy and sell certain things under Reciprocity than we are now. Whether it will pay us to exercise this freedom, is another question. Whether it will pay us to buy this doubtful trade freedom at the price of risking our political freedom, is hardly a question at all. But we would dearly like to see the Globe continue its facetious series of instructions on the effects of the removal of duties. It says that, under Reciprocity, "in buying meats, fresh and refrigerated, from all the included countries, we will tax ourselves only one and a quarter cents instead of three cents." Now, surely it is very stupid to "tax ourselves" on food-stuffs at all. If the imposition of these duties is to be regarded in every case as "taxing ourselves," why do we ever impose them? Why does the Globe stand by, while its own Government "taxes" us even that one and a quarter cents?

Does the Globe argue that we always "tax ourselves" when we impose a duty to keep out foreign competition? Has it no kinder phrase for the tariff policy which it helps to fasten upon Canada? Why does it assist in chloroforming the people while they are being "taxed" by the Government it supports, when it ought to be ringing the alarm bell? There was a time when it was good at sounding the alarm. That was when its friends were out of office, and it paid it politically to prate about "Protection taxes." But now it supports the "taxers"; and the "taxers" smile on it.

THE READINESS IS ALL.

GREAT BRITAIN is not the only nation which is slow to learn by experience, either its own or that of other peoples. The Moroccan crisis (for it is a crisis) finds the French army in the same state of unpreparedness that the German crisis found it in 1870. In theory it is all right, it has colonial troops which are always available for just such an emergency as has arisen at Fez. The experience of the last fornight has shown that these troops are absolutely lacking in equipment. Moreover, as these troops are included in the north-east army which would be indispensable in a war with Germany, a much more dangerous enemy than Morocco, France can only depend upon a scratch team gathered here and there for operations which are an immediate necessity, and which the whole nation awaits with anxiety and natural impatience. This kind of thing is becoming an old story both in the United Kingdom and in France. In 1854 the opening of the Crimean war found Great Britain with an army composed of good material, but with defective organization, medical and transport departments so inefficient as to be practically non-exisitent. The outbreak of the Indian Mutiny in 1857 was attributed to the reduction of the British troops in India to a dangerous minimum, while the native forces were increased to a dangerous numerical preponderance. In May, 1884, the British Government was being implored to send an expedition to the relief of General Gordon at Khartoum. The government spent three months in making up its mind and the expedition arrived at Khartoum just two days too late.

One of the lessons which that careful observer Sir Conan Doyle drew from the Boer war, was as natural as it was erroneous, because it was based upon the natural assumption that the British people could not fail to learn something from such an experience as the South African campaign. He wrote: "One of the most certain lessons of the war, as regards ourselves, is once for all to reduce the bugbear of an invasion of Great Britain to an absurdity. With a moderate efficiency with the rifle, the able-bodied population of this country could without its fleet and without its professional soldiers defy the united forces of Europe. A country of hedgerows would with modern weapns be the most terrible entanglement into which an enemy could wander."

The able-bodied population of the United Kingdom is about as moderately efficient with the rifle as it was in 1896 and like Hastings it must be astonished at its own moderation, when it thinks of its opportunities. In this respect the Territorial Army has scored the most distinguished of its magnificent failures. In 1909, 30,979 Territorials never had a chance to fire so much as a single shot for want of ranges; of 172,400 who were subjected to a much less severe test of marksmanship than the regulars, only 106,125 qualified. On January 1st, 1910, 67,087 had not fired so much as a recruit's course. Under the circumstances, we might as well leave the hedges to be defended by the hedge sparrows and chaffinches. The latest reports are to the effect that recruiting for the Territorial Army has broken down in London notwithstanding the fact that this is the best time of the year and the further fact that so many thousands of men who might be manning the hedgerows, are only manning the Thames Embankment and the casual wards. The London division is liable to lose 21,848 men whose terms expire between now and 1913 and a similar falling off is reported from the provinces, where there is a force of 316,000 on paper and an actual force of 267,000 which shows signs of falling to 200,000.

It is easy to blame the War Office for this state of affairs; but the same criticisms would have been equally applicable to the War Office at any time during the last sixty years at least. The real difficulty lies in the overconfidence of the nation, for which it has had to pay dearly in blood and treasure again and again, and its unwillingness to learn by experience, or to accept the teachings and warnings of great soldiers of proven ability like Lord Roberts. The indications are that Great Britain will soon have to choose between universal compulsory military service and conscription, the former of which is almost universal in Europe, and the latter of which has been tried almost everywhere and almost everywhere abandoned. Universal compulsory service is not like conscription invidious, because there is no balloting and no purchase of substitutes possible. Either every man must be trained to take his place behind the hedgerows and to fire a gun, or the United Kingdom must vastly increase its expenditure for professional soldiers. In either case it must attach greater importance than it has done hitherto to the subject of preparedness for active service. The next great European war promises to be short, sharp and decisive. There is one army in Europe which is always ready. It has been said of the German Army that at the outbreak of the Franco-German war, "the men were perfect in drill, and so accustomed to combined action that they seemed to form parts of one vast machine capable of being directed with the greatest facility and effect to any object that might be contemplated by the commanders, yet at the same time, the intelligence and self-reliance of the individual soldier were not sacrificed to the completeness of the whole body. Arming, equipment, commissariat, transport, medical, and surgical attendance were all arranged in the best possible manner; and the rough test of war showed that what had previously held good in theory was equally excellent in practice." Von Moltke had only to put his hand to the right pigeon-hole of his desk to find his whole plan of campaign and the private soldier had not even to learn to fire a rifle, or to take cover behind a hedgerow.

FRANCE AND ARBITRATION.

THE willingness of France to join in the arbitration negotiations between Britain and the United States, widens the scope of the proposed treaty very considerably. France is a Continental power with far greater entanglements than either of the other two nations; and, while nothing save disputes between the three will be directly affected, the subsidiary consequences of such a treaty may be very considerable. The treaty, as the news from Washington now defines it, will be by no means as important an instrument as promised at first; but it will still put the nations accepting it in a relation toward each other which will approach an "entente."

So far as mere arbitration goes, France is not at all likely to have any disputes with either of the two other powers. Britain and France settled all their difficulties long ago; and France and the United States come in contact at so few points as to make danger of difference negligible. Switzerland might as well be included in the company of pacific arbitrators. But if France joins the party of peace, it will mean more in the eyes of Europe than an arrangement to arbitrate unlikely disputes.

The proposal to bring in Japan and Germany is either facetious or betrays that the treaty means much less even than this first draft seems to indicate. Full arbitration between Britain and Germany, and Japan and the United States, would bring the banishment of war, except for police operations on the outskirts of civilization. The recent statements of the German Chancellor did not indicate, however, that so revolutionary a step was contemplated. The truth is that the only important fact involved in the last news regarding the treaty, is that the Americans have refused to go the whole distance suggested by President Taft, and that the treaty will fall far below the actual condition of things as they exist between the two Governments. Neither dare go to war to-day with the other on any subject whatever; and the new treaty does not appear to be as comprehensive as this admitted fact.

THE present year seems likely to be an important one in the progress of the movement for union among the Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational churches. The subject, it appears, is to come up for discussion and report at all the annual conferences of the Methodist church, and their decisions are to be reported to the General Conference Special Committee for action. During the year, the basis of union has been before the Presbyteries under arrangement, and the coming General Assembly will receive their reports. The Congregational Union, unless we are mistaken, has already advanced the matter further than either of the other negotiating bodies. Consequently, the taking of action by the Presbyterian General Assembly and by the General Conference Special Committee—the highest court in the interval between General Conferences—of the Methodist church will mark a distinct step in advance in the negotiations. It would be too much to expect union within the year, but the stage is being reached when a decision one way or the other is a possibility of the near future.

The war against the fly is just beginning. The fly will never know about it, however. He will continue to walk in the butter without wiping his feet in the good old way; and there will be lots of people who had rather take a day off for a funeral occasionally than bother with window screens all through the sweltering summer.

WHAT THE IRISH OMEN ARE DOING FOR IRELAND

A few days ago The Star printed a cable dispatch from Dublin which called attention to some astonishing facts relating to Irish land development brought to light in connection with the poultry conference held in Dublin this month. Figures have been compiled showing that the country possesses more than 24,000,000 hens, and 250,000 goats. It is exporting nearly £4,000,000 ($20,000,000) worth of poultry produce, while England imports £7,000,000 ($35,000,000) worth of eggs last year.

Ireland, according to these figures, remarked the sender of the dispatch, is becoming a second Denmark. The increase in poultry is due principally to the establishment of co-operative depots, which have steadily multiplied. One recently established society called United Irish Women, is rapidly becoming a force in the development of agriculture, and it is believed that the efforts of the organization will result in a greatly reduced emigration.

Commenting upon the facts contained in the cable dispatch alluded to, Mrs. H. Bottemley, a well-known Irish lady, personally interested in the work of the United Irish Women and at present living in Montreal, writes The Star as follows:—

* * *

So many people are expressing surprise at the facts and figures which the Poultry Conference in Dublin, has just brought to light, that a little history of the movement which has done so much to increase and multiply the Irish Hen, and to constrain her to take this patriotic part in the economic revival in her country should not be uninteresting, at this stage of its successful development. Everybody has heard more or less about the wonders Sir Horace Plunkett has been slowly and patiently achieving with Co-operation in rural Ireland during the past twenty years, though not perhaps knowing against what currents of natural and unnatural difficulties he was piloting his great scheme in the history of Irish agricultural reform.

Very few people, however, seem as yet to know, that at the last annual meeting of the Irish Agricultural Organization Society, of which Sir Horace Plunkett is president, and the Rev. T. A. Finlay, S. J., vice-president, Sir Horace made the announcement that co-operation had gone as far as it could go in Ireland without the assistance of Irishwomen; and that he then and there formally introduced and approved of an association of energetic Irish ladies who, recognising the need and the appeal of the hour, had offered themselves for the domestic and social ends of the great vital problem co-operation was solving on the farm, in the creameries, and in the competitive markets outside, for the organized Irish farmers.

Co-operation however sound in theory, and effectual in practice, could hope for little success in a rural community that was being steadily sapped by the emigration of its youth of both sexes. And to check emigration had always been one of Ireland's forlorn hopes. There was everything to induce ambitious young men and women to forsake the dull unprofitable drudgery of the Irish farm, and nothing to hold them back from the call of the West. This, the awakened mind of the new association of zealous Irishwomen quickly saw, and set itself, with an alacrity that had no precedent in Irish history, to remedy.

The formalities of organization were no sooner gone through than intrepid volunteers started out to enroll all the women of Ireland in the new campaign. Foremost in the valiant undertaking was Mrs. Pilkington, who is the clever and worthy sister of Sir Thomas Gratton Esmonde—and who brought not only great gifts but a most contagious enthusiasm to the work. She set out fearlessly, in mid-winter, to organize branches of United Irish women throughout the torpid country districts, and had a success which no one, who knew the apathy of the Irish house wife could have dared to expect. Week by week her harvest grew, and the Hon. Sec. of the Central Union in Dublin, Miss Constance Pim, was soon reporting "five branches in Co. Wexford; one in Donegal, one in Kilkee"—and so on, to everyone's amazement and delight.

The appeal was simply "to better the conditions of rural life, and to make the homes of the farmers a powerful antidote to the disease of emigration," but specific efforts in very definite directions were proposed, as well, and immediately undertaken. Village halls were opened, entertainments planned, classes started, and to-day the organization, and all its branches are pledged to the following splendid objects;—

To brighten home life in rural districts.

To encourage the use of sound Irish manufactured materials, and articles for clothing and use in the home.

To strive wherever it is possible and desirable that Irishwomen should have full rights of membership in all rural associations, co-operative and agricultural societies, with the view of aiding in the work of such associations, and of ensuring that their operations shall be helpful to countrywomen as well as to men.

To co-operate with the county committees and other local bodies where domestic economy, horticulture, bee-keeping, nursing and hygiene are taught, so as to ensure that the instruction given shall be practical and suitable for rural districts; and wherever there are no agencies working to promote such objects to endeavor to supply the lack in the district where the branch is situated.

To take a personal interest in the growing girls, and by improving their social condition and by imparting knowledge of work which could be done in Ireland, to prevent them emigrating to other countries.

To organize country amusements, dances, flower shows, concerts, rural libraries, village halls, and such other enterprises as are likely to quicken and increase the interests in rural life.

To undertake all kinds of charitable work among the sick and poor, and to brighten the lives of children and the aged.

To promote co-operation among women in the sale of eggs, poultry, etc., and in the purchase of household requirements.

To ensure that women are properly represented on local boards, to bring pressure on local authorities to redress existing evils in the administration of the poor-law system; to see that sanitary administration is efficiently carried out, as sanitation affects women and children to a far greater degree than it does men, their occupations keeping them so much more within doors.

* * *

Unfortunately, there is the old weary obstacle of lack of funds to be overcome; and lack of sympathy in some quarters where the new movement is not yet fully understood. But time, and the indomitable Irish spirit, will cope with these very successfully, we may be sure. Such an organization, eventually, is bound, too, to overflow into the Irelands beyond the seas, and to enlist the co-operation of the Irish women of the world who, somehow, have always been singularly slack in their duty to the Old Land. While Irishmen have been splendidly generous, and relentlessly active in their nation's service, Irishwomen have held themselves strangely aloof, and but for the heroic work of religious communities of women in Ireland, they have borne no part to speak of, and suffered no share in the long national struggle of their country. So there is everything to hope for from their present awakening; and certainly this twenty-four million hens, that have strutted into the public eye this month, with £7,000,000 worth of exported eggs to English breakfast tables to their credit, do look as if the sex, all the way down, were bent upon making substantial amends, and some very arduous efforts at retrieval!

Letters to the Editor.

"John Bull's" Libel On Montreal.

To the Editor of The Montreal Star:

Sir,—"Special Commissioner" is either green on investigations or is biased against Canada in general. In every big city in the world one may meet with the shark seeking for whom he may devour.

I arrived in Montreal as recently as last October, and have never received anything but courteous treatment, especially from the French-Canadians. I made one application for a situation, and was immediately well placed (for the winter). In the early part of this month I was laid off, when I applied to a large firm in this city, and had the choice of two departments. On making my application I was not insulted, but was treated as though I had been their best customer. I am an Englishman (fro' Lancashire) and if this contradiction finds space in your valuable paper your readers may judge how indignant I feel on the subject, inasmuch as this is the first letter I ever wrote to any editor.

I am not by any means an exception, seeing that every man I have met with who came over on the same boat as myself are doing well, and quite a number of them have since got their wives over, and not a grumble have I heard from any one of them.

We all know the sort of men who fall into the hands of sharks, and, to say the least, they are of no use to any one. Such rabble come over here to have a good time, in other words, to "guzzle beer." As regards obscene language, I have frequently heard a certain type preface their remarks with blasphemy, but I heard the same thing before I came over here, and "Special Commissioner" can hear far more of this in the East End of London.

Canadian Railway and the Block System.

To the Editor of the Montreal Star:

Sir,—A few days ago it was reported from Ottawa that the Railway Commission proposed that the block system be established on the Canadian railways, but that the C.P.R. and G.T.R. both demurred on the grounds that the proposed system was only necessary where the traffic was dense, so that trains could be run closer together, and that it was safer to run them far apart without any block system. This explanation of the railways may look reasonable to most of your readers, but to those who truly understand the slip-shod way trains are frequently run in this country, the companies' statements must appear ridiculous.

I believe the statistics show that there are more serious accidents—fatal and otherwise—for the number of trains and passengers carried on the railways in Canada than in any other country in the world. The cause of a very large percentage of these accidents is lack of a proper lock and block system, such as is in use in Great Britain and throughout Continental Europe.

In other countries the Governments insist on the railways using every possible precaution for the protection of the travelling public. They do not depend on a series of rules which may not be practicable, or may be overlooked by a busy man. They simply require a complete installation of the "absolute block system." Every switch and crossing is governed by a properly placed signal, and these signals are worked by a man in each section of the road who, if he is inclined to make a mistake, will have to try hard before he succeeds. Nothing is left to chance. Everything is mechanically "locked and blocked."

I notice that one responsible railway man before the Railway Commission said "10 per cent. of the accidents were due to disregard of signals." To any one accustomed to Old Country methods of railroading this would mean that the engineers on the trains must be very careless or incompetent, or that their vision must be impaired in some way. But to one who has travelled some in Canada—as I have—it is easy to understand that the cause of the trouble is lack of uniformity, and the extraordinary position of the very few signals that exist. An engineer running from Glasgow to London—night or day—is guided by suitably placed signals, and it is almost an unheard-of thing for an accident to be due to disregard of the semaphore.

The same elaborate interlocking system is not yet required in Canada, but a system suitable to the urgent needs of the country is wanted at once.

The question will naturally arise, "Why are the railways against the block system?" Just because it costs money to instal and maintain. They figure that it is cheaper to pay damages for fatalities and minor hurts and to replace the rolling stock which is so often smashed up.

SUE COMMISSIONERS.

Contend That Vote for European Trip is Illegal.

That the Catholic School Commission has no right to send delegates to Europe at the expense of the tax-payers is the contention of ex-alderman S. D. Vallieres and he has entered an action against Commissioners D. Gallery and N. Giroux, to prevent their using the thousand dollars voted to them by the Board for a trip to the Old Country.

Three Years for Port Hope Man.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Hamilton, Ont., May 19. — David Henry Ryan, of Port Hope, was sentenced to a term of three years in Kingston Penitentiary, by Magistrate Jelfs after he had been found guilty of house breaking.

Private S. Poochin, of the R. C. R., Halifax, N.S., was drowned in a boating accident near Camperdown yesterday.

Municipalities Consider Installation of Water and Sewer Services.

Delegates representing Dorval, Pointe Claire, Beaconsfield and Summerlea met last night in the office of Mr. A. Decary, K.C., and discussed the advisability of installing a joint system of sewers and waterworks.

It was decided to hold a big meeting at Valois, on May 26, when the proposed improvements will be discussed by all interested parties.

Killed by Quebec Express.

Struck by the Quebec express on the Canadian Pacific Railway at Bordeaux last night, Theodule Forest, of 793 Marie Ann street, was killed. He was a widower, 59 years old, and two sons and one daughter survive him.

Guelph stonemasons are protesting to the Ontario Government against the teaching of that trade to short term prisoners at the prison farm.

FRANCE is about to put on its Fez.

GLORY is in a man's head and a woman's heart.

IDA TARBELL has not said "I told you so" to Standard Oil yet.

NEW YORK has a cat on the city payrolls, and most of the other employees also have nine lives.

A PHILOSOPHER is a man who is always too busy to work.

IF A MAN got paid a salary for lying in a hammock, he'd hate the job.

"He always was a bad egg, but nobody seemed to notice it while he was rich."

"Yes, he was all right until he was broke."

Customer—"Will you guarantee this veal good?"

Sentimental Butch.—"Well, ma'am, little Hazel was the best behaved calf I ever raised!"

THE Kansas City Journal has discovered that a hen thinks. Yes, and when she makes up her mind she is mighty set in her ways.

ONE of the cleverest tricks a girl has is to catch a man by running away from him.

IT HAS been discovered that no man named McGregor has ever gone to the United States to congress. They all probably balked when they learned that new members couldn't sit at the head of committee tables.

A WOMAN knows her husband is a good Christian if he doesn't make suggestions about the cook.

"All this moral advice gives me a pain," groaned the elephant on the Ark. "Here I'm seasick and homesick and scared, and old Noah comes around and says 'Keep a stiff upper lip.' What kind of advice is that to hand to an elephant?"

A MAN thinks he understands gardening because he knows the difference between a furnace poker and a spade.

A little girl went into a dry goods store and asked for a half yard of cheese cloth to make a doll's dress. When the merchant handed it to her, she asked:

"How much is it, sir?"

"Just two kisses," replied the merchant.

"All right; grandma will pay that tomorrow."—C. D. S.

THE timid Young Thing will now hie her to the country and astonish the men folk by her audacity.

THE VERY IDEA!

She—"I feel that I ought to tell you, Jack, that I've been engaged before."

He—"Don't mention it. I've been jilted too."

GIVE a dog a bad name and hang him: and Smith may suffer all his life for the single occasion upon which he tried to open the door with the latch-key in the wrong hole.

A WOMAN can tell a man by his necktie; but the Man is always mistaken when he takes the hat or the frock for the Woman.

A CORONATION ODE.

(Dedicated to June 3.)

"Oh, what's so rare as a day in June?"
The poet sings in soulful tune;
Fair month of roses, leafy trees,
Of humming birds and buzzing bees,
And kissing bugs, and buds and flowers,
And drenching matrimonial showers.
The softly soughing summer breeze
Melts down the snowball bearing trees
While each fair day to market brings,
Green blades and sundry shooting things.
But of the dawning third of June,
Whose son shall shine on Britain's throne,
What epithet can there be found—
What witching word shall yet be coined
To fittingly describe the fairness,
The rattling, raw, red-letter rareness
Of that rare, royal day in June
Which bore a son to bear a crown?

FROM THE STAR FILES THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The Late Jefferson Davis

"At the unveiling of the monument to Stonewall Jackson at New Orleans yesterday, Mr. Jefferson Davis said: 'Jackson stands today, in the opinion of Europe, as far as I know it, the mightiest chieftain of the Confederate cause. He lived for his country, never doubting the justice of his cause, believing it was righteous and trusting in it. He died, as I live to-day, feeling that the Confederacy ought to have succeeded, because it was founded on truth and justice.'"—From the Montreal Star, May 19, 1881.

MR. DAVIS, President of the Southern Confederacy, was born in Kentucky, that wonderful colony of old Virginia, in the year 1808. He was a graduate of West Point in 1828, and saw service on the western frontier from that time until 1835, when he became a cotton planter. He was chosen for what is known in the United States as a Presidential elector for Mississippi in 1844; was a member of the United States House of Representatives in 1845-46; became colonel of the first Mississippi Rifle Volunteers in 1846 and 1847. He was severely wounded in the skirmish of Buena Vista. He was a member of the United States Senate in 1847 and 1851; Secretary of War in 1857; chairman of the Committee on Military Affairs from 1857 to 1861. He was elected president of the Confederacy February 18, 1861. The memory of no great man can never be effaced from the tablets of those who had the honor of social intercourse with him. The writer was one amongst the favored few still living, one of them Canon Ellegood, of the church he attended, and were nearly brought together through his descent as a U. E. Loyalist of Virginian extraction. The other is Mrs. John Lovell, who, although entering her 82nd year, can look back upon an unostentatious life of beautiful self-sacrifice, which in part she shared with her grand old helpmeet, who did so much for love of his country. It was at their house that Jefferson Davis' mother-in-law Mrs. Howell, closed an eventful career. It was by their noble friendship that Major W. B. Howell, Lieut. Beckett Howell, of the Alabama, and Mr. Jeff. Howell were enabled to make a fresh start in life. There are few possibly to-day who remember that, besides Mrs. Davis, there were her two sisters, Mrs. Waller and Miss Howell, who made their home in Mountain street, [illegible] rented from the late Dr. Wilkes, both beautiful and attractive.

"The switchmen's strike in Chicago has come to an end. The freight blockade is said to be enormous, and will have disastrous consequences for some of the perishable goods, and now the locomotive engineers threaten to strike."—From the Montreal Star, May 19, 1881.

"THIS was by no means the first strike in the United States. That it had no serious influence in Canada was fortunate.

BARGAIN DAY —IN— Real Estate —AT— C. C. Cottrell's Office

In accordance with my recent announcement, FRIDAY next, May 19th, inaugurates a new feature in the Real Estate World in Real Bargain Day Prices in Real Estate, and hereafter Every Friday special prices for Friday only, will be made and maintained.

This week I offer ten choice KINGSDALE Lots at the ridiculously low price of

$99 Each

and ten others in KINGSDALE Park for

$125 Each

List Price now - - $139

Realizing the impossibility of a large number of my clients being able to visit the property except on Saturday afternoon and Sunday, all that is necessary to secure one or more of these lots is to visit my office No. 517 St. Catherine Street West during the day or evening of Friday, and sign for and make a deposit on the purchase. If, after seeing the property Saturday or Sunday following, the Lots are not exactly what has been guaranteed, and purchaser is not satisfied, money will be refunded without question.

Remember, these prices are an exceptional bargain, and I am losing much money thereby, but my object is to draw attention to my respective properties in this manner and to show the real merits of the different sub-divisions—in the West End—I am offering the public.

In addition to Kingsdale Park Lots, I have some very choice lots in Westmount Plateau, Melrose Lawn, Montclair, New Westmount, Parkdale, close to Sherbrooke Boulevard, Princedale, Stanley Park, Pine Beach, Lignite, Porcupine City Townsite, Calgary and Vancouver, at most reasonable prices and easy terms.

My new illustrated Catalogue and map tell you about it. Free for the asking.

Westbury VILLA LOTS

"A BEAUTIFUL ORCHARD CONVERTED INTO LOTS"

Offering Exceptional Home and Investment Opportunities

WESTBURY is situated one block east of Snowden Junction, on the north side of Queen Mary's Road (formerly Cote St. Luc Road), opposite the Monkland property, was formerly the Fortier Farm, well known as one of the finest orchards on the Island, recently in Cote des Neiges, now part of the City of Montreal. "Round the Mountain" cars pass the property.

WESTBURY LOTS, which are beautifully situated, front on Queen Mary's Road (over 975 ft.), Westbury Ave. and Dornal Avenue, all of which are 66 ft. wide, have dimensions of 40 x 119, 35 x 100, and 35 x 90. Each lot has its complement of apple trees, which add much to the other attractive features.

RESTRICTIONS: — Suitable building restrictions have been placed which protect the purchaser and ensure WESTBURY being a permanently high class residential neighborhood, only detached and semi-detached dwellings being permitted. Consider the advantages, and make a point of looking over the property.

If you contemplate building, and you want your home in delightful surroundings, where you are protected by good restrictions, and where you will reap enhanced values, should you wish to sell, do not fail to see WESTBURY, which offers great profit possibilities. Plan, prices and full particulars on application.

FRENCH FORCE MAKES HEADWAY

Expedition Nearing Fez is Under Personal Command of General Menier

Tangier, Morocco, May 19.—Wireless telegraph messages received here today from the French column en route to Fez for the purpose of relieving the besieged capital, indicate that Col. Brulard, in command of the troops, bivouacked last night within about sixty miles of Fez.

Additional French forces form an intermittent chain behind Col. Brulard and within easy reach of El Knitra.

Gen. Meinier, commander-in-chief of the French forces in Morocco, has joined the expedition and is personally directing the advance. It is understood that he alone knows the wishes of the French Cabinet ministers as to what shall be done when the column reaches Fez.

FOREIGN COMPANY OPERATING HERE MUST OBEY ORDERS

This is Decision of Railway Commission on Point Raised by Counsel.

The question of whether or not the Railway Commission had the power to dictate to a provincial railway operated by a foreign company was brought up at this morning's session of the Commissioners in connection with the complaint laid by Mr. W. A. Stewart, Napierville, P. Q., and the Village of St. Cyprien, P.Q., re inadequate accommodation and unsatisfactory train service furnished by the Napierville Junction Railway.

Senator Beique, on behalf of the Napierville Junction Railway, claimed that inasmuch as this road was operated by the Deleware and Hudson, that the Canadian Railway Commission held no jurisdiction over it.

Judge Mabee, chairman of the Board after hearing both sides of the question decided that the road was constructed under a charter of the Quebec Legislature, and although it had been merged into another company, the new owners, according to the decision of the Commissioners, must take over the responsibilities of the original holders.

Judge Mabee said that no formal decision would be given until the companies concerned were given an opportunity to appeal to the Superior Court.

"Resolved, that the Conservatives of Moose Jaw hereby express their confidence in the able leadership of Mr. R. L. Borden in the House of Commons. They endorse his general policy and while favoring a reduction in the duties on agricultural implements and on all products on which combines exist, commend him for his opposition to the reciprocity agreement and particularly thank him for his efforts on behalf of Saskatchewan, having particular reference to the restoration of the domain to the province."

A strong committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements to give Mr. Borden a fitting reception on June 21.

WEST FEARS BIG TIE-UP.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Winnipeg, May 19.—The structural steel workers' strike is going to tie up a lot of work in the west this year. Not only will railway work be affected, but steel work on many buildings as well. The Canadian Pacific Railway is not so seriously affected as others.

The Grand Trunk Pacific and the Canadian Northern companies appear to be hardest hit. "There are many big bridges along their transcontinental lines in course of construction, under contract with firms whose men are out on strike, and in many cases further road bed making cannot be done until the structures are completed.

FIFTEEN DEAD AND MANY OVERCOME BY GREAT HEAT

Eleven Victims in Chicago Alone — Dogs Bite Women and Children.

Chicago, May 19.—When the temperature reached 92 degrees at 4.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, achieving a top notch precedent for the first twenty days in May, eleven persons were dead, many prostrations had occurred, and the whole of Chicago was wilted and steaming with heat. It was said at the hospitals that the unseasonable weaher had caused great suffering among the patients, unless the heat moderates many fatalities are expected.

Four Dead in Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, May 19.—Four deaths and as many prostrations were reported yesterday from the intense heat. The mills shut down because the men were unable to work.

The highest temperature was 87, but the humidity was so high that the condition of the atmosphere made breathing difficult.

Thought Mexicans Pursued Him.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Baltimore, May 19.—Yesterday was the hottest May 18 in Baltimore since 1871. The thermometer registered 95 degrees. A young woman and several children were bitten by dogs, affected by the heat, and supposed to be mad.

George Carper, a waiter, crazed by the heat, ran amuck. Imagining he was attacked by Mexicans, he ran wildly down West Baltimore street, striking pedestrians and declaring that the "Greasers" should never capture him.

Last night and early to-day there was much suffering owing to the high humidity.

Dogs Go Mad in New York.

Special to The Montreal Star.

New York, May 19.—The warm, muggy weather of the past thirty-six hours seemed to have had its effect on the dogs of this city, for in Brooklyn between yesterday evening and sunrise this morning four persons were attacked and bitten so badly that they had to be given medical attendance.

Three of the victims were small boys and the one who fared the worst was a young woman of 18. She was removed to the hospital.

ALSACE-LORRAINE GETS CONSTITUTION

Socialistic Support Secured by Elimination of Plural Voting Proposal

Berlin, May 19—After prolonged bargaining, the committee of the Reichstag to-day adopted the Government's bill providing a constitution for Alsace-Lorraine.

The support of the Socialists was secured by abolishing the proposed plural voting. The original measure provided that the Lower Chamber should be made up of members elected by universal suffrage of those twenty-five years old or over, and that voters over thirty-five years old should have two votes and those more than forty-five years old, three votes.

The clericals were won over by concessions in the matter of religious freedom and an arrangement by which the French language will be used officially and in the schools of those districts of Alsace-Lorraine, where there is a French-speaking population.

ARTILLERY HONOR OF CANDAA IS IN BEST OF HANDS

Lt.-Col. Renouf, of Montreal, Taking Fifty Men for Competitions in England.

Montreal is well represented on the artillery team which goes to England in August to compete with the best that the National Artillery Association can produce. The Canadian Artillery Association readily accepted the invitation when it came and will send fifty officers and men to compete in field and heavy artillery and in coast defence work.

The officers are:

Lt.-Col. Renouf, commanding 2nd Montreal Heavy Brigade, C.G.A., president of the C.A.A., representing the association.

Lt.-Col. N. F. McNachtion, 10th Brigade C.F.A. commanding the team.

Major A. H. Maclaren, 2nd Ottawa Field Battery, commanding the field artillery.

Major J. W. Odell, of the Cobourg Battery commanding the heavy artillery.

Capt. H. E. Gates, 1st Halifax Regt., commanding the coast defence.

Field artillery—Capt. F. L. Armstrong, 21st Westmount Battery; Lt. N. D. MacLean, 16th Guelph Battery.

Heavy—Capt. D. A. McKinnon, 4th P.E.I.

Coast defence Capt. P. T. Stern, 5th B.C. Regt.

The non-commissioned officers and men number forty. They must put in their annual training this year and also receive special training and instruction for this competition at Petawawa and Halifax.

Former Competitions.

The first interchange of teams between the Canadian Artillery Association and the National Artillery Association was in 1881, when a Canadian team went to Great Britain under command of the late Lt.-Col. W. R. Oswald. Since this date three other Canadian teams have competed in Shoeburyness in 1885, 1886 and 1896 and two teams of the British Artillery came to Canada, one in 1884 and one in 1909.

In the latter years five officers and thirty-five non-commissioned officers and men accepted an invitation from the Canadian Artillery Association and contested for Artillery honors at Petawawa for field and heavy artillery and at Halifax with the heavy coast defence guns in the forts. The Right Honorable the Earl of Stradbroke, C.B., C.V.O., A.D.C., the president of the British Artillery Association, accompanied the team to Canada. Colonel Sidney Wishart, V.D., of the city of London Artillery, was in command.

The Canadians Won.

The result of the competitions at Petawawa showed that the British Artillery team had beaten our composite field artillery team by 26 marks, thereby winning the Canadian artillery challenge cup for field artillery.

In the heavy artillery competitions, with the 4.7 guns, the Canadians were ahead with a majority of 91 marks, thus winning the Londonderry challenge cup.

This gave a lead of 65 marks on the aggregate of the two competitions, making the Canadian Artillery teams winners of the Prince of Wales cup.

The coast defence competition at Halifax took place at Sandwich battery with 6 inch and 12 inch quick fire guns over a sea range at moving targets, at the rate of 9 miles and 19 miles an hour. These contests were very close and the Canadians won by .087.

HERE ARE FOUR PEOPLE WHO TESTIFY

That GIN PILLS Positively Cure Rheumatism

Rheumatism is a dreadful disease. Only those who have had it can appreciate the agonizing pain—the excruciating torture—that racks the body when Rheumatism sets in. No wonder those who have been cured of Rheumatism by GIN PILLS are so grateful and so enthusiastic.

They gladly testify that GIN PILLS cured them and want all the world to try GIN PILLS.

MANY KINDS OF MEDICINE

Alex. Moore, Esq., is one of many hundreds who know that GIN PILLS will cure Rheumatism. He writes from Newburgh, Ont.:

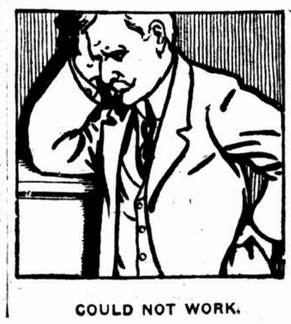
"My father had been troubled with Rheumatism for a number of years. He tried two doctors but got no relief, when my uncle insisted on him trying GIN PILLS. He purchased a box and after taking GIN PILLS for a week, found that they were giving him much relief. He then bought three more boxes, which were the means of curing him. He is now a strong man in good health—and able to attend to his daily work—and all the credit is due to GIN PILLS."

HIS FATHER WAS TROUBLED

They know about GIN PILLS down in Nova Scotia, too. In fact, GIN PILLS are the old standby all over the Maritime Provinces, because GIN PILLS really cure Rheumatism. An old gentleman in Yarmouth, N.S., says:

"I have been bothered with Rheumatism for the past year and have taken a good many kinds of medicine, but found no relief. One day, a friend advised me to try GIN PILLS, and after a few boxes, I felt like a new man. I want you to know how thankful I am for the relief they gave me, and would advise all sufferers to take GIN PILLS."

In New Brunswick GIN PILLS have cured hundreds of men and women of Rheumatism. Mr. Wilson, of Hartfield, N.B., is one of the many who owes his good health and strength to GIN PILLS. He writes: "It affords me great pleasure to convey not only to you, but to all sufferers from Back Ache and Rheumatism, the great relief I obtained from the use of GIN PILLS. I am sounding the praises of GIN PILLS to everyone suffering as I did." Robert M. Wilson.



COULD NOT WORK.

Back to Nova Scotia for the fourth letter, from D. J. Lawler, of Ogden.

"'I have been troubled with Rheumatism so bad that I could not work. A doctor tended me and told me to go to the hospital, but all to no good, until a cousin told me to try GIN PILLS. I did so, and after taking a few boxes, I am perfectly well.'"

SOUNDING THE PRAISES.

These written words and signed statements from well-known people are the best possible guarantee of the value of GIN PILLS. They prove that GIN PILLS will give prompt relief—and will completely cure—every trace of Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago, Pain in the Back, Kidney Trouble or any weakness of the kidneys or bladder. You may try GIN PILLS before you buy them. Write us for free sample box. If you can't get the regular size boxes in your neighborhood, send to us, enclosing the regular retail price of 50c. a box, or 6 for $2.50. National Drug and Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited, Dept. C., Toronto.

COUPLE FLEE TO MONTREAL, WIRELESS BUSY

Are on Lake Manitoba Under an Assumed Name

Girl's Two Brothers Surprised at Her Non-Arrival, Pace Dock Awaiting Ship.

The St. Lawrence route is to have another romance of international importance, although possibly not so famous a one as the Crippen-LeNeve affair of last year.

Miss Helena Benoit, a prepossessing Frenchwoman of twenty-three, up to last November was a governess in the employ of a wealthy family named D'Abbadie, of Evreux, France. The young woman, however, was attracted to Canada by the favorable stories she read of the Dominion and applied for a position here through friends who had previously emigrated to this country. After some effort she succeeded in obtaining the appointment of French teacher in the parish school of Ronne Madone, Saskatchewan, where there has been established a considerable colony of French-Canadians.

Miss Benoit was to have sailed from France on April 27th last and notified the cure of the Western Canadian parish to expect her about the 15th of this month. The young lady has a cousin sub-rector of a college near Montreal, who has been on the look out for her for some days, but so far she has failed to put in an appearance.

Enquiries from France instituted a search for the young woman and also for the whereabouts of her late employer, D'Abbadie, who disappeared from his estate in Evreux almost simultaneously, with the supposed date of the young lady's departure for Canada. Investigation by English and French detectives has traced the two to England and to the gangway of the Lake Manitoba, which sailed for the Dominion on the 15th of this month. The eloping couple are said to have adopted a fictitious name.

The Lake Manitoba is due in Quebec on Monday evening, but at the request of D'Abbadie's relatives in France, Captain Evans, of the C. P. R. liner has been communicated with by wireless to corroborate the theory of the continental detectives and to establish the identity of the fleeing couple.

Miss Benoit's two brothers arrived to-day in Montreal from France, whence they had sailed via England on the Allan Line SS. Pretorian. Both thought that their sister was in Saskatchewan teaching school by this time and were much perturbed at finding that she had not reached there. They had expected visiting her in her new home in the Canadian West, where they are going to take up homesteads.

CITIZENS PROTEST AGAINST NUISANCE OF QUARRY DUMP.

Citizens of the north end are up in arms against the nuisance existing and threatening contigion from the garbage in the quarry pits near Laurier Avenue, in St. Denis ward.

Ald. Tetreau told the Controllers to-day that the remedy of pumping the polluted water from the refuse into the sewers is worse than the disease, for he declares that the smell which rises from all the gulleys all the way down as far as Rachel street is unbearable, and residents are suffering in consequence. They are obliged to close all the windows of their houses.

"As a matter of fact," he said to the Controllers, "if there is no improvement the parish priests are prepared to denounce the city from the pulpits on Sunday next."

The Commissioners stated that active measures had already been taken to remedy the nuisance. These would be redoubled and disinfectants would be thrown upon the dumps and into the sewers.

TROUBLE IN SIGHT.

Rodolphe Giroux Receives Sharp Rap From Recorder.

"We will teach you to respect the Court and not try to thwart the ends of justice," Mr. Recorder Dupuis said to Rodolphe Giroux, this morning, after refusing to grant him bail and ordering him to remain in jail until next Tuesday for sentence.

Giroux sometime ago was found guilty of not supporting his wife and two children, and sentenced to pay them so much per week to have them properly cared for. No money, however, was paid, and three times he was arrested by Detective Demers and let out on bail and each time failed to put in an appearance and offered some excuse for his default.

MUCH GRAIN THROUGH PORT THIS SEASON

Ocean Craft Take Out Record Cargoes and Book Heavy Shipping Orders

Big Flow of Wheat Towards Montreal Promises Greatest Season of Harbor.

Business is booming at the port of Montreal where, according to the statement of Mr. L. E. Geoffrion, the steamship companies are getting better returns than from any other port in the world, and no phase of harbor business bulks larger at the present time than the carriage of grain.

"We have handled four million bushels of grain at the elevator since May 1," said Mr. Geoffrion, "and although men on the day and night shifts work unceasingly, the grain is coming down the lakes from Fort William and Port Arthur in such quantities that just at present we are unable to cope with it, notwithstanding the fact that we have all our floating elevators engaged loading the grain into the ocean steamers, which are booked to their full grain capacity for May, June and already part of July. The trouble is that the western people are just now rushing their grain upon us in overwhelming quantities. Our big elevator is full to capacity, and in the absence of more ocean steamers sailing from this port it is inevitable that some of the lake steamers must wait to unload. In time next week, however, the conditions will be normal again.

Much Grain Booked.

In corroboration of Mr. Geoffrion's statement that ocean-going ships have all their grain capacity booked, it was learned to-day that one line alone shipped no less than 100,000 bushels in two steamers, and since May 1st, 1,132,206 bushels of wheat have been exported from Montreal by different steamship lines; 323,188 bushels of oats and 264,689 bushels of corn. This is far in excess of the amount shipped for the corresponding period last year.

Big Flow this Way.

Mr. H. L. Henderson, of the Montreal Transportation Company, states that grain is being moved very rapidly in the port, but for the time being the incoming quantities from the west are greater than the capacity cargoes which the east-bound ocean ships are carrying. That explains why the vessels of the transportation companies are waiting their turn to unload. Mr. Henderson admitted that the Harbor authorities were doing all that could be done to handle the grain under existing conditions. There has not been any advance in the freight rates.

While freight rates show no advance, however, shipping men are complaining because they are being charged increased tolls by the harbor commissioners for grain handling. Last year the grain rates ex the floating elevators were three-tenths of a cent per bushel, and one-quarter of a cent per bushel for all that was loaded by the conveyor system, but this year the shipping men allege a grievance because, they say, the rate has been advanced to three-tenths of a cent all round. The difference is equivalent to five cents on the dollar as regards the loadings by conveyor and the increase becomes obviously considerable when it is considered that the amount of grain handled runs to hundreds of thousands of bushels.

Tire Burst and Two Were Killed.

Woburn, Mass., May 19.—One man was killed, two perhaps fatally injured, and four others less seriously hurt, when a big touring car turned turtle going down Cutters Hill, in Winchester Centre, last night. The dead man is Andrew Warren, and the two whose injuries may prove fatal are Patrick McGeary and Michael Simpson, all residents of Boston. The accident was caused by the bursting of a tire.

A Whirlwind Sale
ON-THE-LAKE
STRATHMORE ACRES
MINIATURE FARMS

The opening days of the ADVANCE SALE of these two wonderful properties have amply demonstrated that the investing public has a ready eye for an honest proposition which shows a liberal departure from the backwood style sub-division with small building lots and hideous narrow streets.

The response to our opening announcement on these properties has been stupendous, and it is not difficult to see that many people are waiting and EAGER to get in on the ground floor of a Marcil enterprise, especially when the ground floor means an ADVANCE DISCOUNT of 25 per cent. off list prices for all purchasers of five or more lots.

YOU are invited to participate in this extremely generous privilege of a 25 per cent. discount. Only Geo. Marcil & Co. give such a big discount off opening prices, and only Geo. Marcil & Co.'s clients are able to profit to the extent of thirty-three per cent as soon as the advance sale is over.

STRATHMORE GARDENS - ON - THE-LAKE is a truly beautiful proposition. It embraces all the finest ideals of a superb residential locality, with all the attractions and opportunities of a splendid investment.

A property laid out on entirely novel lines that is STRATHMORE GARDENS-ON-THE-LAKE. Wide avenues, pleasant crescents, beautiful driveways and glorious boulevards, are the features of this property; and when we tell you that there are wise and suitable building restrictions, you can easily understand that there is no danger of the prettiest spot on Montreal's Island becoming spoiled or marred.

The size of the building plots is from 6,000 square feet up, and the price from 4½ cents per square foot.

STRATHMORE ACRES is an enterprise of another calibre. It is a collection of miniature farms ranging in size from one-quarter acre to one acre.

Each quarter acre contains four city building lots—each in itself large enough for flower culture, fowl raising, or bee keeping.

These miniature farms are the first things of their kind that have ever been offered for sale, and this is positively the first time in the history of Montreal real estate that YOU have a chance to acquire small farm holdings at three cents a foot, free of restrictions.

Easy terms for either or both of these properties. Write and ask us to send you full particulars.

ON SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Our Special Representatives will be on hand for the following trains from G.T.R. Bonaventure Station 1.30, 2.15 and 3.57 p. m. We invite everybody to take one of these three trains and see for himself just how good these properties are.

INVITE MONTREAL TO MOBILE DISPLAY

Montrealers Founded Alabama City, Hence the Invitation.

The town of Mobile, Ala., which was founded by Bienville and Iberville, of Montreal, will celebrate the bicentenary of its foundation on May 26 inst., and to-day the Mayor has received a cordial invitation to attend the celebration in person or appoint someone to represent the city in his stead. The matter will be referred to the City Council. Mobile says there would be a special appropriateness in Montreal being represented at the fetes.

Roberval Lumbermen Drowned.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Quebec, May 19.—Joseph Lepage and Joseph Harvey, aged respectively 35 and 40 years, and both fathers of families, have been accidentally drowned in the Moise River near Lake Edward, by the upsetting of a boat in the rapids. Both were engaged in driving lumber. Both lived at Roberval.

WILL RISK LIVES OVER FALLS AGAIN

Leach to Make Second Barrel Attempt at Niagara While Williams Will Essay Wire Stunt.

St. Catharines, Ont., May 19.—Bobby Leach, the Niagara Falls restaurant keeper, who has performed several daring exploits around Niagara Falls, is preparing to make another trip through the Whirlpool Rapids in his steel barrel.

He will make the trip on the Fourth of July, he says. Oscar Williams, a man who last year tried to cross the Niagara river on a steel wire hanging by his teeth, but who hung for hours over the cataract, watched by thousands of people, because his wire was not properly strung, will make another attempt at the same perilous enterprise next month.

"I'll win out this time," he said, "because I'll see that my wire is right."

FIRE AT PARK.

But it is in Play and is Promptly Subdued.

A meeting of the City Council could have been called in the grand stand at Dominion Park last night, where "Fighting the Flames" was produced for the first time in Montreal, for the special benefit of Mayor Guerin, Chiefs Campeau and Tremblay, and the aldermen.

The scene is supposed to be laid in one of the tenement districts of the lower East Side in the City of New York, and everything is represented, from a saloon to a police station. The lawless element is seen to be running wild and the police patrol waggon has to make several hurried trips.

After a few minutes had been occupied by antics of more or less comical representatives, in settling personal difficulties, the street is suddenly thrown into a panic by a cry of "Fire!"—and fire is seen to break out in the saloon, and the fire station immediately becomes the scene of earnest activity.

The fire is soon under control and after the excitement is subdued, it was said that Chief Riley had got together a very likely crowd of fire fighters. Chief Tremblay was heard to remark that he felt secure about any fire outbreaks occurring in Dominion Park this year.

MR W. MARSHALL WINS STERLING MINE PROPERTY

By decision of the Privy Council, the Sterling Mines will remain the property of Mr. William Marshall, of Toronto, and the Greys Siding Development Company. The decision was rendered yesterday, after a litigation of three years in which the ownership of the mines was also claimed by the Drummond Mines, Ltd., and the Montreal Trust Company. The action of the Privy Council confirmed the findings of the Canadian Courts which had dismissed the claim of the Drummond Mines and of the Montreal Trust Company.

The Sterling Mines covered three or four hundred acres in Cobalt and are valued at seven million dollars.

In May, 1908, Mr. Robert Gilmour, of Sudbury, sold the leases of the property to William Marshall, of Toronto, the price being payable by instalments, the title not to pass to the purchaser until all the instalments were paid. The transaction was described in the deed as an option, and the seller, alleging that this option should have been exercised inside of twelve months, resold the property to the Montreal Trust Company, in trust for the Drummond Mines, Limited, which sale was immediately registered. Action was entered by the Montreal Trust Company to oust Marshall's assigns from the property.

The Young Men's Christian Association campaign in Galt, Ont., has resulted in the raising of $69,500 in three days.

London, May 19.—In the course of a statement in the House of Commons to-day concerning the post office appropriations, Postmaster-General Herbert L. Samuel announced that he had arranged to obtain some control over cablegram rates from now on, by the insertion of a clause in the license of cablegram companies, giving the Government power to protest against excessive rates, and in cases of dispute to refer the matter to an impartial tribunal.

The cable companies had agreed, the Postmaster-General said, to reduce by 50 per cent. the rates on telegrams written in plain language, which are liable to a delay not exceeding 24 hours.

ST. JOHN VALLEY BILL OPPOSED

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, May 19.—The St. John Valley Railway Bill was passed in committee in the Senate, and stands for third reading. More criticism was directed at the measure, and Sir Geo. Ross gave notice that on the third reading he would move to make it clear that the road shall be leased from a company and not from the province. He said he desired to prevent any possibility of the two governments figuring in an entangling alliance.

Senator Casgrain favored the bill for the purpose of seeing if the province would fulfill its proposal to have a company construct the line.

Senator Choquette characterized the bill as an infamous proposition, as it proposed to have the Government lease from the province.

Another large party who arrived on the Allan Line SS. "Scotian," will leave Montreal to-day by special train west as far as Toronto, the bulk of this party likewise being destined to Ontario points.

Nature as a Pipe-Filler Can't be Beaten

Man May Doctor Tobacco Mixtures —But of These Beware!

Why is the average pipe-tobacco doctored?

Why does most of it contain Licorice, Molasses, Sugar, Gum, etc.

The manufacturer will say "the smoker likes flavouring."

Perhaps true! But only because the average pipe-tobacco is so poor it needs flavouring.

No man could prefer an unclean, unhealthy smoke to that of pure tobacco, properly cured and blended—and no man will, once he knows.

JETTY MIXTURE

Natural Tobacco—1 oz., Ten Cents

Here is a tobacco as sweet and pure as the day it came from the field—without artificial flavour or adulterant of any kind.

Thoroughly cured and mellowed, and skillfully blended, it gives a cool, sweet, clean smoke,—different from any tobacco you've ever tried.

One of the reasons for this is that it is a product of Carreras Limited—made under the same conditions as the famous Carreras brands in London, England.

Loud Cheers at Steel Meeting Over Dividend--Stock Jumped Early in Day

SUNSHINE IS SEEN BY ALL IN WALL ST.

Wall Street had its first setback since the Standard Oil decision to-day, and all the leaders, except C.P.R., were lower.

C.P.R. has paved out a course all its own. It was weak yesterday when the others were strong, and strong to-day when the others were weak.

The Wall Street brokers continue uniformly bullish in their market literature, and from magnate to office boy everybody in New York sees nothing but sunshine ahead.

"Scotia" and Power were firm features in the local list to-day, while Steel rallied a little from its low level of yesterday.

Porto Rico was strong at 64, and Mexican Power was also up.

In Wall Street

A wire said: "Trading in stocks was on a smaller scale, and the buoyant tone of the previous three days was missing. The market showed the effects of a lessened demand, particularly from the outside, and prices wavered. The higher quotations established by the previous advance decreased the demand, and there was also a falling off in the bidding from the short interest, which has covered large lines. Some minor specialties, including Iowa Central, were brought forward and scored handsome gains. Bonds were firm."

NEW POWER CO. DIRECTOR.

Hon. Narcisse Perodeau has been elected a director of Montreal Power, to take the place of the late Senator Forget.

NEW DIRECTORS FOR THE R. & O. ARE LIKELY

Now that the steamboat merger has been finally effected, through the signing of the final papers yesterday afternoon, it is understood that the Richelieu & Ontario board will be enlarged numerically to allow for the representation of the English capitalists, the Furness interests, and the prominent men now connected with the Inland and Northern Companies.

There are at present ten Richelieu directors, but the company is authorized by Act of Parliament to elect fifteen. The names of the new directors have not yet been definitely settled, but it is likely that they will be chosen at a date in the near future.

A Suggestion to Increase Tax On the Banks

Special to the Montreal Star.

Ottawa, May 19.—The bills to extend the charters of the chartered banks and of the Quebec savings banks for another year were passed by the House of Commons. In connection with the former Major Sharpe suggested the appointment of a Royal Commission as a preliminary to the revision of the Bank Act. The Finance Minister replied that he did not reject the proposal, but he doubted whether it would serve the object in view. It would be difficult to obtain members of the Commission who had the necessary experience.

A suggestion that the banks should be subjected to larger taxation, Mr. Fielding described as "worthy of consideration." He doubted the wisdom of such a step in view of the need of the country for banking capital, but would discuss both suggestions.

The Minister of Railways introduced an amendment to the Railway Act to require railways to give thirty instead of ten days notice of change of tariff.

LOUD CHEERS AT DIVIDEND ANNOUNCEMENT

Steel Holders Cheered a Statement by Mr. Plummer To-day

Cheers that were heard out on St. James street came from the Dominion Steel shareholders to-day when Mr. Plummer read a carefully prepared statement to the effect that the directors saw no reason why the dividend should not be continued.

Over 80 shareholders crowded the board room of the Bank of Commerce, and when the welcome announcement came the crowd cheered for a minute or more, some waving their hats, others stamping on the floor, and one enthusiast in particular keeping up a war cry long after the others had quieted down.

It was an unusual demonstration.

The widely heralded opposition movement faded away to the vanishing point and failed to put in an appearance.

In answer to Mr. H. Gordon Strathy, who asked for a quarterly dividend on the preferred stock, Mr. Plummer stated that a proposition was being considered to merge the Coal and Steel preferreds into one corporation issue, possibly increasing the issue and making the dividend 6 per cent., but the project was still in the air. If the plan did not materialize, most likely the quarterly dividends would.

Steel Report

Mr. Plummer's statement, read to-day, will be found on page 10. An additional report of the meeting appears on page 7.

SAID TO HOLD OVER 20,000 SHARES POWER

While there are 12,050 shares of Montreal Power stock in the name of the Shawinigan Water & Power Co., it is stated that the Shawinigan interests control close to 20,000 shares of the stock, some of which are in other names.

The list of Power shareholders printed in The Star last night has just been compiled and created an unusual amount of interest.

It is one of the strongest list of which any industrial concern can boast; in fact, it looked more like a bank list than an array of corporation shareholders.

PULLMAN HEAD RESIGNS.

Mr. Robert T. Lincoln has resigned as president of the Pullman Car Co.

OPINIONS ON THE MARKET.

H. L. Horton & Co.—The increased activity in the bond list proved quite conclusively that a substantial volume of investment buying to the better class of stocks was in progress.

E. & C. Randolph.—Bull tips are beginning to circulate freely, and the entire temper of the Street has changed from one of extreme pessimism to one of extreme bullishness.

Charles Head & Co.—We suggest taking the bull side on all reactions.

Messrs. Hosmer and Holt in New Scheme.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Fort William, Ont., May 19.—Telegrams were sent to Messrs. H. S. Holt, C. R. Hosmer and other Montreal capitalists, declaring the success of the by-law authorizing the bonusing of the Superior Rolling Mills Co., in which they are interested. Work on the plant will start immediately.

CROP CONDITIONS.

Ideal in West is Opinion of Mr. F. T. Griffin.

Crop conditions in Western Canada this year have been ideal, according to Mr. F. T. Griffin, of Winnipeg, land commissioner of the C. P. R., who was at the C.P.R. headquarters to-day. Mr. Griffin stated that grain crops of all kinds all over the West had had a splendid start, and conditions generally never looked so promising. In the sale of farm land and town lots the greatest activity is being shown, and there seems little doubt that this year will be a record-breaker in regard to the prosperity of the West.

MUNSEY A BIG BULL ON OUTLOOK.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Wall Street, May 19.—Frank Munsey, the magazine man, who is one of the largest shareholders of U. S. Steel is a big bull on the market and outlook in general.

"I think we are on the eve of a first-class prosperity," he declared in an interview. "The basic conditions are so sound that you can't keep the industries of this country silenced longer."

TOPICS OF THE STREET

When the rest of the market was going down, C.P.R. was the only stock to go up. Yesterday C.P.R. went down, while the others were going up. This is usually the way. C.P.R. had a long innings, and it is not to be expected that it should soar all the time. It has, in the past six months, made a record few railroad stocks will ever equal.

A newspaper, after referring to J. P. Morgan as—

Nature lover,
Humanitarian,
Educator,
Religionist,
Scientist,
Art lover,
Book lover,
Sportsman,

regrets that, "at a young and impressionable age, he was allowed to drift into Wall Street."

The Dominion Steel shareholders who have been yearning, or some papers say they were yearning, for information, must have got all they wanted to-day.

Henry H. Rogers, the famous Standard Oil magnate, died two years ago to-day.

Thirty-one years ago Reading went into the hands of a receiver.

Official organs of the Dominion Steel kickers assert that there is no rebellion. There isn't. The movement collapsed like a house of cards.

But Mr. Plummer knows one thing, and that is that no mercy would have been shown him had the opposition been strong enough to beat him.

UP NEAR THE 500 MARK.

American Tobacco stock was strong again at $496.

STEEL IS 59 DID THE NEWS LEAK OUT?

Early this afternoon Steel sold as high as 59.

Dominion Steel opened at 53¼ this morning, but just before noon it was bought heavily and rushed up to 56⅜.

As Mr. Plummer did not make his dividend announcement until nearly 10 o'clock, or long after the market had closed, it was thought by some that there may have been a leak in the news.

Several Steel directors when asked about it, however, said that they did not see how the news could possibly get to the market, as the announcement in regard to the dividend was only framed up a few minutes before the meeting took place.

Who Cares?

(N. Y. Journal of Commerce.)

Nobody seems to care what the court will decide in the case of the Tobacco Trust.

MR. TRENHOLME ON STOCKS AND ELECTIONS

Mr. Thomas A. Trenholme, who is one of the shrewdest investors on the local "Street," sailed for England to-day.

"I am going away," he said, "feeling safe in the selections I have made. I pin my faith on Power and Twin City in our market and Union Pacific in New York."

"How long will you be away?"

"September, unless there is an election before then. If there is, I'll take the first boat home even if it is a cattle steamer. I wouldn't miss putting in my vote against that reciprocity gang for all the money that was ever coined."

Hetty Green Opens Office Near Wall St.

Special to The Montreal Star.

New York, May 19.—Mrs. Hetty Green has made arrangements to open an office in the financial district. It will be the first place of business she has had all her own. Heretofore the direction of her millions has been from the offices of the National Park Bank, Chemical Bank, and other institutions in which she is a depositor.

The new method in her business life comes at a time when she is rounding out her 76th year, and not only will she have an office, but all her uninvested surplus cash will be under the direction of her son, Col. E. H. R. Green. A long lease has been taken by Mrs. Green of sixth floor rooms in Trinity Building, No. 115 Broadway, next to the suite recently rented by William E. Corey, ex-president of United States Steel.

The new Green offices will house the Westminster Co., incorporated with a capital of $125,000. The capitalization gives but a faint idea of the assets of the company, which are conservatively estimated to be worth more than $100,000,000. All the property of Mrs. Green is to be turned over to the Westminster Company, which will do all the investing and manipulation of the cash.

MERGER COMPLETED

Articles Signed by R. and O. and Furness-Withy Interests.

Articles making the big steamboat merger an accomplished fact were signed yesterday afternoon by representatives of the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company and the Furness-Withy interests.

All that is now required is the transferring of the shares held by the English syndicate in the Northern and Inland companies for those of the new R. & O. issue. As the valuation of the properties of the Inland concern has not yet been commenced, this final exchange of securities may not take place for some time.

In the meantime, a working arrangement between the three companies comprising the merger will be established, the first step being the election of Mr. C. J. Smith, general manager of the Richelieu & Ontario, to the boards of both companies to represent the interests of the local concern.

COARSE GRAIN PRICES.

Coarse grain quotations: Corn, American No. 3 yellow, 60 to 61c; oats, No. 2 Canadian western, 41½ to 42c; oats, extra No. 1 feed, 41 to 41½c; oats, No. 3 Canadian western, 40½ to 41c; oats, No. 2 local white, 40 to 40½c; oats, No. 3 local white, 39½ to 40c; oats, No. 4 local white 38½ to 39c.

Hollinger 12.50

Hollinger sold up to $12.50 to-day, and that figure was bid at the morning close. Northern Ontario was firmer at $6.40, and Rea was $6.00.

CHATS ON CHANCE.

During the navigation season of 1910, 79,000,000 bushels of grain left Fort William for the East. Of this amount 13,000,000 was sent direct to Montreal, and a further 52,000,000 bushels indirectly to Montreal via Georgian Bay ports.

The fact that Canada practically handled three-quarters of her grain crop through Canadian ports speaks for the excellence of facilities provided over the Dominion's water highway, with Fort William at the despatching end, and Montreal receiving and turning over to the ocean carriers for distribution throughout the European markets.

Calgary is to have a million-dollar packing plant. It is to be built by the large packing concern known as Morris & Company, of Chicago, of which the Dominion Meat Company, of Calgary, is a branch, and Nose Creek, where the company owns 134 acres of land, will be the location.

LOCAL DEMAND FOR EGGS.

Receipts of eggs were 2655 cases compared with 2650 a year ago. The demand continues good for local consumption, and the market is fairly active and steady. Sales of straight gathered stock in round lots were made at 18½ to 19c; single cases 19½ to 20c, and selected stock 22½ to 23c per dozen.

25 P. C. FOR THOUSANDS OF LOAN HOLDERS

Toronto, May 19. — Instead of the shareholders of the York Loan receiving 25 to 30 per cent., as they had anticipated when the company went into liquidation in December, 1905, they will realize considerably over fifty per cent., according to a statement made to-day by the National Trust Company.

"Practically all the real estate holdings of the company have been disposed of," he said, "and what little land that is still unsold will be acquired by the city to widen existing streets. We are preparing now to pay another dividend of 25 per cent. at the end of the year, which will make a total payment of 50 per cent., and there will possibly be a small dividend granted after that."

Foreign Fruit Sale Brought High Prices

Lively bidding and high prices marked the auction sale of the fruit cargo of the steamship Fremona at the Montreal Fruit Auction warehouse yesterday afternoon, when over 600 lots were disposed of in less than four hours. The prices obtained by the auctioneer were regarded as eminently satisfactory, and the knowledge that this was the only sale which the Thomson line will hold this spring, coupled with the fact that the fruit was of exceptionally good quality, was no doubt responsible for the good showing made.

Buyers from every portion of the eastern provinces were present, though there was only a single representative from Toronto.

The prices realized were as follows:

Messina lemons, $1.25 to $2.55 box; Palermo lemons, $1.50 to $2.65; Sorrento lemons, $2 to $4.65; Malori lemons, $2 to $4.75; Sorrento oranges, $1.75 to $3.10 per box, while half boxes of the same fruit brought from $1 to $1.45; Catania oranges, which were sold in half boxes only, realized from 75c to $2.

Among the out-of-town buyers who attended were representatives of the firms of Dixon Bros., Hamilton; Ryerson Bros., Brantford; the Quebec Fruit Exchange; M. McDonald, Chesterfield; the Sherbrooke Fruit Exchange, Sherbrooke; Mineola Bros., Peterboro'; the Dominion Fruit Exchange of Ottawa; Messrs. Austin, of Ottawa; T. Falon & Co., of Toronto; Gallagher Bros., of Ottawa; Zakoor Bros., of Chatham; A. Malouf, of Ottawa, and Mr. Dumant, of the Peterson Fruit Co.

Local buyers were represented amongst others by Messrs. Hart & Tuckwell, John Barry & Son, George Vipond & Co., and many of the smaller firms, who were buying for retail purposes only.

LATEST METAL PRICES.

New York, May 19.—Copper, electrolytic, 12 to 12.10; tin, 43.15; silver, 53⅜. London.—Lead, rather weak, 13.

CHICAGO WHEAT PRICES ARE LOWER

From the Special Correspondent of The Montreal Star on the Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, May 19. — May wheat sold lower at 94⅞ to 94½, July at 88⅞ to 88¼ to 88½, and September at 87¾ to 87¼.

The bulls in wheat lacked nerve, and the increased offerings got poor buying, and those wanting wheat were mainly in quest of profits. Reports of rain in many sections of the United States and Canada, together with rains in Russia, were the controlling influences. There were good selling orders, not only on north-western account, but the south-west was a seller in a liberal manner. Canada sold wheat here, too. The investigation now under way by a committee of the Board of Trade directors doubtless caused the bull longs in May wheat to call their brokers off for the time being. The trade is divided on the matter of sentiment.

Answers To Questions

"Investor." — Carriage Factories, Ltd., from all accounts is showing vastly better earnings than last year, and may show 6 per cent. or better earned on the common stock. This will, of course, be a very satisfactory exhibit.

The questions asked The Star are piling up so fast that readers will confer a favor in not asking for a private reply by letter. Any questions will, if possible, be answered in these columns instead.

"Company." — No.

"M." — There are now about 90 men at work on the Pearl Lake property. Some fairly satisfactory free gold showings have been made.

"X. Y. Z." — Expect to have information shortly in regard to Asbestos.

"J. B. L." — The automobile market is pretty well crowded, and new companies will have pretty hard going. The proposition is not especially attractive, and is too far away for you to watch closely. Better not subscribe.

ONE MAN KILLED IN TRAIN WRECK NEAR OUTREMONT

Two Others Badly Hurt and Two ocomotives Completely Smashed.

Two men are in the Royal Victoria Hospital, and another is lying dead as a result of a collision between freight trains to the north of the city about midnight. The casualties are:

Brakeman Miller, of Motnreal, dead.

Engineer Crawford, of Ottawa, severe scalds and bruises about head and body.

Fireman Hughes, of Ottawa, slight concussion of the brain and severe bruises.

The collision took place at Bresley, the station at the intersection of the Outremont and Jacques Cartier lines, just at the end of the Outremont terminals. The regular fast freight train for Ottawa left Mile End station at 11.50, and ran into the rear four cars of an extra freight coming in from Quebec loaded with hay. The engine and fore-part of this extra train had rounded the switch, when the Ottawa train hit the rear cars. The accident is stated to have been the fault of the trainmen on the Quebec extra, who failed to flag the train in, as they should have done.

On the Ottawa train were two engines. Both were derailed, and completely smashed.

Engineer Crawford, who was on the leader, was severely scalded over head and body by escaping steam. He was pinned under his engine.

Fireman Arthur Hughes was considerably bruised and shaken. Immediately after the accident he started to the rescue of the engineer, but fell unconscious, and did not regain his senses till some time after he had been taken to the Royal Victoria Hospital. He then stated that the Ottawa train had the right of way, the signals being set for "line clear."

When Brakeman Miller was last seen he was standing at the switch and it was not until this afternoon that his body was found under an overturned box car.

This is the second narrow escape that Robert Crawford has had. Two years ago, when he was a fireman, he was in a freight wreck at Pembroke. He saved his life on that occasion by jumping just before the collision, but Engineer Roe, who was in the cab with him, was killed. He is a married man, whose home is at Anderson Avenue, Ottawa.

Arthur Hughes is also a married man, living at 83 Pine street, Ottawa.

F. T. Miller, the dead trainman, was married two years ago, and had a baby seven months old. He lived at 2703a Mance street, and took up house but two weeks ago. He came from Newport, Vt., but his parents now live at Kingsbury, P.Q.

While the body of Brakeman Miller has not yet been found, his lamp, cap and mit were found within a few yards of the wreck.

Big Fruit Crop Is Promised.

Beamsville, Ont., May 19.—The first authentic information gathered this year in the Niagara fruit belt shows that there will be a record breaking fruit crop. The danger of severe frost is over now and the insect pest is the only thing the growers have to combat to assure a tremendous crop. Experts say that if only every tenth blossom bears fruit the crop will be unusually larg so thick are the blossoms.

1. The Company began business on October 1st 1910, consolidating the business of the King Radiator Company, Limited, and the Expanded Metal & Fireproofing Company, Limited, both of Toronto.

2. The Company owns and operates a new and thoroughly modern plant on St. Helen's avenue, Toronto, which covers about three acres of land, and is equipped for the manufacture of Hot Water Boilers and Radiators; also a new plant on Fraser avenue, Toronto, of Concrete Fireproof Construction, equipped with modern machinery and tools for the manufacture of Expanded Metal, Metal Lath, Reinforcement Rods and Fenestra Sash. The Company owns exclusive rights for Canada for the manufacture of "FENESTRA STEEL SASH" and "CASEMENTS," which goods are now being installed throughout the world in fireproof construction.

3 The earnings for the three months ending December 31st, 1910, as certified to by Messrs. George A. Touche & Company, Chartered Accountants, of London, England, New York, and Toronto, would average, for the year almost three times the interest on the entire amount of Bonds now offered for sale, without making any allowance whatever for the increase in business for the remaining nine months of the year. The consolidated business will show largely increased earnings, following the introduction of new and modern methods whereby great economies are to be secured.

The issue of 750,000 of bonds is for the purpose of the extension of the business, the erection of a new plant at St. Catharines, Ont., and the purchase of other plants in kindred lines of business which the company is now arranging to acquire.

5. The St. Catharines plant will have a capacity for a daily output of 150 tons of iron for the manufacture of Boiler,s Radiators, Soil Pipe, Cast Iron Fittings, and heavy commercial castings. This latter plant is made necessary by reason of the demand for the Company's products having asumed such proportions as to tax to the utmost the Company's present capacity.

6. The above issue of bonds forms a first charge upon the Real Estate, Works, Plants and ssets of the Company, and the Trust Deed provides that all further issues of Bonds are Limited to 75% of actual expenditures to be made on capital account for the acquisition of further properties.

7. All legal matters pertaining to the issue of these securities have been passed upon by Messrs. Brown, Montgomery & McMichael, of Montreal, and Messrs. Dunbar & Dunbar, of Guelph.

TWO SETS OF LAWS GOVERN BUILDINGS MR. CHAUSSE SAYS

Town of St. Louis Did Not Make Change When Montreal Did, Hence Curious Position.

The report of Chief Tremblay respecting fire protection and lack of protection in apartment houses in the city, is to receive careful study by the Board of Control, upon whom work is accumulating in an embarrassing degree, and recommendations will be made to Council to secure the adoption of amendments to by-laws as will meet such requirements as are considered necessary in the interest of public security.

Building Inspector Chausse to-day acknowledged that there are apartment houses in the city constructed to a height of over four storeys, which are not fire proof, notwithstanding the law which says buildings of such height must be constructed of fire-proof material.

"In 1901," explained Mr. Chausse, "a law was adopted without restricting non-fireproof buildings to four storeys. The necessity for such restriction was seen, and in 1904 the law was amended in its present sense. In the meantime, however, several apartment houses were built of what we call second-class character, where all the materials are not fireproof.

"Our original by-law was copied by the town of St. Louis, but the municipality did not amend it as we did, and that is the reason why non-fire-proof buildings may be built to a greater height than four storeys in Laurier ward until such time as the City Council amends the by-law in question in relation to this annexed ward."

Asked if the actual city by-law afforded sufficient fire protection in the case of apartment houses, Mr. Chausse replied that this question would have to be considered by the committee now engaged on recodifying the building by-laws.

"We have made big progress with the work, but we have not yet reached apartment houses," said Mr. Chausse.

CINDERELLA PERFORMANCE

Some Changes Arranged for the Final Production.

There will be a change in the cast at the final performance of Cinderella, in Stanley Hall, to-morrow afternoon, when Mr. Bully, having recovered from his illness, will appear, as originally intended in the role of the prince. There will also be a change of programme in the dances and songs. The Trepanier children, who have won a reputation for dainty dancing, will appear in new acts, and Dolly Grace will sing several of Harry Lauder's selections.

Death of Mrs. L. J. Boivin.

Mrs. L. J. Boivin, nee Helene Brewer, died yesterday at the Deaf and Dumb Institute, on St. Denis street, at the age of 70.

Niagara district farmers are dissatisfied with the awards of the Niagara Boulevard Commissioners, and will appeal to the Ontario Railway Commission.

Washing Dishes Without Drudgery

Place dishes in pan of warm water, sprinkle a little Old Dutch Cleanser on dish-cloth (don't put the cleanser in water) and wash, each piece, put in second pan to drain, rinse in clean water and wipe dry. Easier, quicker and hygienic; no caustic or acids (not a soap powder). Old Dutch Cleanser will remove the hardest "burnt in" crust from pots and pans, without the old time scalding and scraping.

MR. BORDEN WANTS UNDERSTANDING RE IMMIGRATION

Says Continuance of Present Status is Not Conductive to Good Relations.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Press Gallery, House of Commons, Ottawa, May 19.—The Government proposal for a temporary trade arrangement with Japan, pending the negotiation of a new treaty, all but passed last evening. The resolution was approved and the bill carrying out the principle was put through all its stages except committee and third reading.

The Finance Minister explained that the present treaty, which was made by Great Britain in 1894, and to which Canada adhered in 1906, would expire in July next. A new treaty had been negotiated by Great Britain with Japan, but this was not suitable to Canada's economic conditions.

Mr. Fielding admitted that trade had not grown as was expected. Still Canada did not want to be placed at a disadvantage in Japan. Therefore, the Government had 'arranged for a continuance of favored nation relations with Japan for two years.

Free as to Immigration.

This agreement was confined to trade and did not touch immigration at all. On that point Canada's hands would be free. Mr. Fielding, however, said it was intended to maintain the same friendly arrangement with Japan on this subject, in regard to which he was glad to state the Japanese Government had lived up to its agreements.

The Opposition leader said he could not agree with Mr. Fielding that Canada was now unhampered on the question of immigration. Mr. Fielding, in his letter to the Japanese Consul-General in reference to the proposed temporary treaty, had spoken of continuing "the friendly understanding" on immigration. Now, how could that "friendly understanding" be continued, without carrying with it the immigration clause of the old treaty which was a necessary part of it.

Mr. Fielding replied that the Japanese Government had always held that the "friendly understanding" was quite distinct from the treaty. As a matter of law, Canada would be absolutely free on July 17. Still he did not think that Canada should exercise her rights in this connection, so long as Japan lived up to the understanding. It was desirable that Canada should maintain friendly relations with Japan.

Mr. Borden Fears For Future.

Mr. Borden still was not convinced. He recognized that Japan had acted in a fair manner, under this arrangement, and he did not suggest that Canada should now exercise her rights. But, he feared that unless there was a clearer understanding between the two Governments on this point it would not be conducive to good relations.

Says Treaty of No Benefit.

The immigration question was the subject of vigorous criticism of the Government, on the part of the British Columbia Conservatives, who held that Canada was still bound to allow Japan to control her immigration policy.

Mr. Martin Burrell further presented a careful analysis of our trade with Japan, to show the treaty had been of no benefit. In fact, he said, trade had grown more rapidly in the last three years before the treaty, than in the first three years since.

All afternoon was taken up with Mr. Graham's railway bill. Finally, the Minister dropped the proposed clause regarding the killing of cattle on railways, and the rest of the bill, except for changes already reported, was passed.

Automobilists' Lives Endangered.

Toronto, May 19.—While Remy Berger, Swiss Consul in Toronto, was coming from Cooksville last night with a party of friends, his seven passenger automobile collided with several large fence rails placed across the road.

An investigation disclosed about eight rails, 18 feet in length, placed across the road at a distance of about three yards apart in a particularly dark spot. Some distance beyond the rails were a number of inch boards, into which sharp nails had been driven.

If Mr. Berger's car had been going at a high rate of speed the whole party would probably have been killed.

Ottawa Methodists Protest.

Ottawa, May 19.—The district meeting of the Methodist Church passed a unanimous resolution declaring the Ne Temere decree "contrary alike to the moral interests of the community and to the spirit of British institutions." They sympathised strongly with the Roman Catholic Church in her insistence upon the sacredness of marriage, and agreed many mixed marriages had tended to irreligion, but the Papal degree "does violence to the sanctity of family life in the interest of sectarianism and is, therefore, quite inconsistent with the character of the Christian Church."

Spain Hears of French Defeat.

Madrid, May 19.—The Tangier Correspondent of the Heraldos telegraphs that tribes, with the connivance of Raisuli, have captured the French arsenal at Acazar. The British Consul, Carleton, is said to have been killed. The Government has no information confirming the report.

Writing from St. John, N. B., Mr James Patton, of the Ogilvie Flour Mills Co., Ltd., who recently returned from a trip abroad, expresses his appreciation of The Star's London Headquarters, in the following terms:—"I take pleasure in saying that your London office was most attentive to the forwarding of my letters and mail matter, your staff being most courteous and obliging, and it was indeed a pleasure to visit your office. The attention which I received from them leaves no suggestions that I could make for improvement, and I can only express my appreciation for the great help it was to me."

MR. PAGET, M. P. TOURING CANADA

British Visitor Says He Finds General Trend of Canadian Opinion Strongly Imperial.

Toronto, Ont., May 19.—Mr. T. Guy Paget, Unionist candidate for the riding of Mid Northhants, England, interviewed here to-day, said the Unionists, while not presuming to pass judgment on the benefits of the pact to Canada herself, were yet strongly opposed to reciprocity upon Imperial grounds in that they believe its passage would mean the death-blow to any complete scheme of preferential tariff in the Empire. He is anxious to ascertain whether Canadians really desire the Imperial preference or whether the economic advantages of an alliance wth the United States are so great as to outweigh the sentimental grounds for uniting more closely with the Motherland.

From what he has seen to date he is inclined to be optimistic, as he says the general trend of opinion he has run across in Canada has been strongly Imperial ,even among the Liberals who support the pact.

Mr. Paget is making a lengthy tour of Canada to study political and Imperial questions.

TO DISCUSS NE TEMERE DECREE

Mass Meeting of Toronto's Protestant Organization To-night—Evangelical Alliance Acting.

Toronto, May 19.—A meeting to arrange for a mass meeting of Protestant organizations in Massey Hall to discuss the Ne Temere decree will be held at the First Avenue Baptist Church this evening to arrange the details.

This afternoon the Toronto members of the Evangelical Alliance, the most powerful and representative Protestant Society in the British Empire, will meet to consider a more advanced and unified attitude against what they consider a Roman Catholic aggression.

It is only on the critical issues of protestantism that the Alliance employs its strength. The "Ne Temere" is considered such an issue.

Mr. E. R. Brown, a farmer living near Alma, Ont., was found dead on the roadside near Goldstone, Ont., yesterday. There were no signs of violence.

Mr. Fielding Notifies Commons of Proposed Change in Line to Coal Areas.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Ottawa, May 19.—Last session an Act was passed authorizing the Government to aid in the construction of the line of the Canadian Northern Railway from Edmonton to the coal areas near the Brazeau river and the headquarters of the McLeod river.

Mr. Fielding gives notice that on the 20th of July he will move to amend this by providing instead that the aid shall be for a line from Edmonton or St. Albert to the coal fields at or near Brule Lake in Jasper Park.

The Government guarantees the securities to the extent of $13,000 per mile for the first fifty miles, and $25,000 per mile for the remaining 100 miles.
