A Big Naval Battle Said to be in Progress but Details are Lacking

Despatch to Amsterdam Says: Fight is Being Waged Near Anambas Islands—Reminder of Russian Fleet Has Been Located—Russian Admiralty Has Received No News of Reported Engagement.

Dept. of Agriculture Archives Branch
31 Dec 05

Amsterdam, Holland, April 12.—A fight is now in progress near the Anambas Islands (east of the Malay Peninsula), according to a telegram from Batavia, Island of Java, to the Handelsblad (newspaper). The despatch adds that five Dutch warships are near the scene of battle. Details are lacking.

No News at St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, April 12.—The Admiralty has no information in regard to the alleged naval battle in progress off the Anambas Islands (as reported to a newspaper of Amsterdam, Holland, from Batavia), and does not credit the possibility of a general naval battle yet. The officials concede, however, that the Japanese may have attempted a torpedo boat attack on a convoy during the night. It is pointed out that there is no cable connecting the Anambas Islands and Batavia, and that the first news of a fight should come from Singapore, unless the Dutch warships are able to communicate with Batavia by wireless telegraphy.

Nothing Known in London.

London, April 12.—No confirmation has yet been received in London of the report from Batavia, Java, of a naval battle off the Anambas Islands, and as there is no cable connection with these islands it is difficult to see how Batavia could have got such news before Singapore. A despatch to Lloyd's from Singapore to-day practically confirms the Associated Press' first information regarding the composition of the Russian squadron which passed there April 8. Lloyd's agent says it was composed of seven battleships, two armored cruisers, five unarmored cruisers, three converted cruisers, seven torpedo boat destroyers, seventeen steams and hospital ships and a tug.

Activity in China Sea.

Saigon, French Cochin-China, April 12.—The French cruiser Descartes and five torpedo boats are cruising off Cape James near here. The French gunboats Acheron and Styx are about to leave Saigon for the purpose, it is said, of preserving the neutrality of French waters.

The Descartes, which is furnished with wireless telegraph apparatus, has received several despatches in a foreign code which are illegible.

Several Japanese ships are cruising off the coast of Cochin-China for the purpose of preventing the Russians taking coal on board and are making reconnaissances.

A Chinese junk which arrived here recently reported that two Japanese vessels purchased supplies at Pulo Obi (at the southern extremity of Cochin-China).

In case a battle occurs off the coast of Cochin-China, the only incidents anticipated by the French colony here are that the belligerents may send disabled ships to this port.

Russian Fleet United.

New York, April 12.—A St. Petersburg despatch to the Times says that a despatch received there stating that Admiral Rojestvensky's fleet is not disunited evokes the greatest satisfaction at the Admiralty, where the earlier reports that the battleships were separated from the cruisers caused anxiety.

It is thought probable at St. Petersburg that Rojestvensky will coal in the Dutch territorial waters of northern Sumatra, and that he will await Admiral Nebogateff, who is due in about ten days, but who may perhaps be delayed by heavy weather.

The spirit animating Rojestvensky's officers and men is worthy of the greatest admiration. A letter from an officer of the battleship Kniaz Suvaroff, says:

"We are all resolved to sacrifice ourselves for the Fatherland. We are determined to die. There will be no turning back."

Naval Experts on Situation.

New York, April 12.—A London despatch to the World says. "Rear-Admiral Gayles, a distinguished naval strategist and expert, writes in the (London) Daily Telegraph: "We may expect that the whole passage of the Russian fleet to the north through the China Sea, will be marked by continual harassing by torpedo boat destroyers. The supreme object will be to wear [illegible] the Russian fleet, ship by ship. When the supreme moment arrives [illegible] between the battle fleets [illegible] an event ever does take place. Admiral Togo's superiority may be even greater than at present.

"It is probable that there will be little occurring in the way of a naval action while the Russians are so close to territorial waters. At present, they could seek sanctuary at almost any moment if it were desired and this is not what the Japanese wish. So, that if Admiral Rojestvensky does not go into Saigon (French Cochin-China), to carry out essential repairs, I should say the first serious engagement will take place north of this French base. It is certain Rojestvensky will give the Philippine Islands as wide a berth as possible on account of the lack of sympathy which is known to exist in the United States with Russia's Far East policy.

"We may take it for granted that Rojestvensky, after passing Saigon, will keep out in the open sea around the south of Formosa. Then anything may happen."

Admiral Sir John Colomb said: "It would seem to be the Japanese policy to keep the Russians in sight but not to take action until they have got them as near as they may go into Japanese waters.

"The further the Russians are allowed to go the greater will be the force of the naval reverse—of the naval disaster, perhaps—inflicted upon them.

"It would seem reasonable, probable, that the Japanese Admiral has it in his power to elect the time and place for the fight, and then.

"Well, then, I suppose it will be the Spanish Armada over again."

No Russian Ships at Muntok.

Singapore, Straits Settlements, April 12.—The German collier Hindoo, now at this port, loaded with 4,200 tons of Cardiff coal for the Island of Tanjong Pandan (east of Banka Island, and between Borneo and Sumatra) has been refused clearance papers for Saigon, unless her commander gives bonds to deliver her cargo through the British consul there. A guard has been placed on board the steamer.

The Straits Times to-day publishes a despatch from Batavia, Java, confirming on good authority the statement that there are no Russian warships at Muntok, Island of Banka.

Russians are Concentrating.

Tokio, April 12.—Reports received here from Manchuria indicate that the Russians continue concentrating their troops and strengthening the Changchung-Kirin line. General Madridoff's force continues in touch with the extreme Japanese left. Skirmishes are frequent and may possibly develop into an engagement.

It is reported that the Russians have armed the convicts of the Island of Sakhalin, promising money and freedom to those fighting bravely. This, it is added, brings the garrison of Sakhalin up to a total of 3,060 men. It is doubted, however, that Russia will attempt to hold the island.

Court-martial for Prince Ouktomsky.

St. Petersburg, April 12.—The demand of Rear-Admiral Prince Ouktomsky for a court martial has been granted. The court will consist of four admirals, Admiral Dikoff presiding. Prince Ouktomsk succeeded Rear-Admiral Withoeft in command of the Port Arthur squadron when the latter was killed in the naval battle of August 10. It has been claimed that the prince did not carry out the orders previously issued by Admiral Withoeft not to put back to Port Arthur.

RUSSIAN FLEET DEFINITELY LOCATED.

London, April 12.—The Associated Press is able to confirm absolutely the statement that the Russian battleships passed Singapore going eastward April 8, so that all of Vice-Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron are accounted for. This definite news about the battleships was sent to Singapore by wireless telegraph from the China Sea. It is presumed here that the battleships passed further out to sea than the rest of the squadron, hence the divergent reports regarding the number of ships.

Ex-Ald. Paul G. Martineau, member of the Catholic School Board of Montreal, will preside, and the Laval students will be invited to be present in a body.

THE ICE MAN BEGINNING TO GET IN HIS WORK

The ice season has opened. Already the general need for that useful material has begun to make itself felt, and by May 1 the twelve ice companies in the city will be busily engaged supplying the demand.

Notwithstanding the opinion that in a northern climate ice ought to be cheap, it is not particularly so in Montreal. There is a good reason for this, as a leading ice-dealer told a representative of The Herald to-day.

As may be readily seen, the cost of ice lies largely in the labor employed in cutting it. Ice may be cut and stored a great deal cheaper in New York than in Montreal. There the ice is cut on the Hudson river, right beside the icehouses, and as much can be stored in a week as in a whole season here.

In Montreal, conditions are not favorable. The great depth of snow must be cleared off, and often the ice thus left bare is found to be worthless for city purposes. Then cartage is expensive. In New York an endless chain is used for storing, which does away with much of the handling.

Seattle and other American cities are having trouble with their ice supply, but there is no indication of such trouble arising here. In many cities ice is sold by the pound, entirely. Here there are season and monthly rates, which do not vary in the heat of summer when ice becomes scarce. Restaurants and hotels taking over one hundred pounds of ice per day are allowed special rates on this account.

CHAMBERLAIN PLAN IS NOT PROTECTIVE

Tariff Refom Leader Draws Conclusions From Lord Goschen's Speech.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

London, April 12.—Rt. Hon. Joseph Chamberlain addressed a meeting of the Liberal Union Club this afternoon. He sharply criticised the recent speech of the Duke of Devonshire at the free trade banquet.

Mr. Chamberlain referred to Lord Goschen's declaration that a tax of one shilling per quarter on corn was not protective. That being so, he said, he was unable to see how a tax of two shillings per quarter, coupled with a preference to the colonies, could be termed protective.

SEE INSULTS TO COLONIAL STATESMEN.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

London, April 12.—The Globe, referring to the debate in the House of Lords, on the forthcoming Colonial Conference, says the conference when it assembles, "will be composed of business men and politicians, accustomed to give and take in all the affairs of life, and it is nothing short of an insult to the practical ability of the Colonial statesmen to invite them to confer with their hands tied and their eyes shut on a question of the greatest interest and importance to the colonies and to ourselves for fear lest they should prove too unpractical in their demands or too insistent on their acceptance."

The Pall Mall Gazette says that if anything be capable of estranging the colonies, it would be the arrogant intimation that their fiscal views are heretical and that an orthodox free-trade country cannot condescend to discuss them, that the bonds they seek to establish with the headquarters of the Empire are "squalid", and that in aspiring to closer ties with the United Kingdom they are animated by what Lord Balfour calls "the baser motives of commercial gain."

The Evening Standard says the colonies do not love Downing Street and Downing Street even now does not quite understand the colonies. A collection of high-spirited and keenly self-assertive communities cannot be regulated, and much less "bossed," by a bureau of permanent officials.

A BISHOP ON Y.M.C.A. "GOODINESS."

London, April 12.—The Bishop of Carlisle, speaking at a meeting in connection with the Diamond Jubilee of the Y.M.C.A., said he adored goodness, but he loathed "goodliness," an attribute which as applied to the Y.M.C.A., had driven many young men away from it.

B. C. LAWS AND IMPERIALISM.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

London, April 12.—The Western Daily Press, of Bristol, says that "a very curious and not altogether pleasant illustration of the difficulty of getting some of our colonies to think Imperially has been supplied by the Government and Legislature of British Columbia, where without any discussion whatever the Legislature has passed a bill restricting the immigration of Japanese. It is obvious that this action on the part of a British Parliament is quite inconsistent with the relations now existing between the British Government and Japan."

SMALL TELEPHONE SYSTEMS PAY WELL

Dr. Demers of Bellechasse Gave Evidence Before Telephone Committee

Ottawa, April 12.—(Special.)—Dr. Demers of Bellechasse, was examined before the special parliamentary committee on telephones to-day. He said that he was connected with four companies. He was manager of the Bellechasse, Port Neuf and St. Maurice companies, and authorized agent of the Beauce Company. The Bellechasse Company was organized in 1892. This company had 1,200 miles of poles. The trunk line was over 400 miles. It ran from Lotbiniere to Matane. The company had purchased the Bell Company's interests in Rimouski for $2,000. His company charged $15, $20 and $25. The price depended upon the service. Last year a rate of $12 was given to farmers who had no other business than to dispose of the products of the farm.

Dr. Demers expressed the opinion that in three or four years fifty per cent. of the farmers would take phones. His company got connection with the I.C.R. stations from the Government. The capital paid up was $100,000. After paying maintenance and repairs last year the line gave eleven per cent. profits.

This year it was expected to pay fourteen per cent. He gave up his profession to look after the telephone business, which paid him better.

Dr. Demers spoke briefly of the other companies, and said that the Government should buy out the long distance phones.

MUCH ELOQUENCE STILL STORED UP

Conservatives Have Decided to Prolong Autonomy Debate Until Easter.

WILL NOT OPPOSE MR. OLIVER

Government Will Make Change in Patrolling System in Far North New Berth for "Cap." Bernier.

Ottawa, April 12.—(Special.)—A Conservative caucus this morning decided to prolong the debate upon the Autonomy bills until Easter and possibly longer. There was some discussion as to opposing the election of Mr. Frank Oliver as Minister of the Interior. No decision was reached. The extreme Protestant wing demanded opposition, but they were opposed by the ultramontane wing. The result, it is expected, is that Mr. Oliver will have no opposition.

Change in Northern Patrols.

There is to be a change in the system of looking after Canada's interest in the far North. At the present time the Mounted Police have full charge of the work. Major Moody has under his direction the S.S. Arctic and Captain Bernier, as well as the land post at Fullerton and Churchill on the west coast of Hudson's Bay. It is proposed to turn over the Arctic's coast patrol to the Marine Department. Hereafter the foreign whalers and sealers operating in the northern straits will be looked after by an official of that department. The police will retain the jurisdiction of the west coast of Hudson's Bay and will possibly have other stations than the two they now maintain. It is expected that they will be provided with a launch to maintain communication by water between the various posts. When the relief boat goes up this spring with supplies to the S.S. Arctic the patrolling and a number of portable houses will be taken up for the police. It will also take either the commission extending the authority of Captain Bernier, or a man to take the northern patrolling work, which Major Moody is giving up.

In the Banking Committee.

The Banking and Commerce Committee reported the Huron and Erie Loan Company's bill. The company is a federal one. Similar companies incorporated by Ontario since have been given larger powers of receiving deposits. The borrowing powers of this company are increased by the bill to the Ontario level. The Northern Bank Bill was reported. It extends for six months the time for starting business. A year was asked for but the Finance Minister protested.

A bill to incorporate the Western Life Insurance Company was reported.

MR. D. D. MANN PRAISES IMMIGRANTS.

Mr. S. D. Mann, of the firm of McKenzie and Mann, arrived in town this morning on a business trip and is stopping at the Windsor. In conversation with the Herald Mr. Mann said that the work on the extensions of the Canadian Northern were progressing very favorably and that the road was being pushed steadily westward. Mr. Mann added his quota of praise of the class of immigrants which are settling in the Northwest and which she passing through Montreal every day.

LIVELY ROW AMONG KINGSTON CONSERVATIVES

License Inspector Appointed Without Reference to Local Executive Committee.

Kingston, Ont., April 12.—(Special.)—The appointment of W. C. Wright as liquor license inspector, has caused quite a tempest among Conservatives. The appointment was made without reference from the executive body of that political camp. A rule of organization is that all offices should be filled by the executive. It's recommendation going forward to the Government through usual channels. There were over twenty applicants for the inspectorship and the committee expected a lively time in naming the man, when behold his selection was made without reference to the local executive body. Now there "are wigs on the green" for all the committeemen are mad to think they had no share in the selection. They fear that candidates for other jobs will ignore them and seek patronage for services direct from Cabinet Ministers and this will break down their hold upon their followers.

UNIONISTS FAVOR EASTERN POLICY

Mr. Chamberlain Says They Endorse British-Japanese Alliance.

London, April 12.—Mr. Joseph Chamberlain presiding at the annual meeting of the Liberal Unionist Club, held in London to-day, strongly supported the suggestion of an Anglo-Japanese alliance as one of the greatest diplomatic achievements of the last quarter of a century and said the treaty had already justified itself by limiting the area of the terrible conflict which was still going on. The Liberal Unionists, he added, would support Foreign Secretary Lansdowne in his determination to carry out the treaty in its spirit as well as in its letter, and he might say they would be very glad to follow Lord Lansdowne further if the Foreign Secretary thought the policy he had initiated could be extended. Mr. Chamberlain believed that any mutual defensive understanding between Japan and Great Britain would secure for an indefinite time peace in the Far East, and give both Japan and Great Britain security in their possessions.

ALL QUIET IN THE HARBOR.

This morning the river below Victoria Bridge presented a picturesque scene. Great blocks of ice floated down past the head of St. Helen's Island, and the masses lined along the south shore seemed to be breaking up gradually under the sun's heat, and sending their fragments down the current to add to the jam below.

No general movement of the ice has been reported recently. The water stands at 32 feet, 1 inch, and shows no great disposition to rise. The ice at Maisonneuve is still solid, and that in the lake has not yet moved.

MAYOR LAPORTE TO GO TO ST. MALO

City to Send a Deputation to the Jacques Cartier Celebration.

HONOR CANADA'S DISCOVERER

Statue to be Unveiled at St. Malo and an Inscribed Tablet to be Put on the Cartier House at Varime.

It is altogether likely that Mayor Laporte and City Clerk Senator David, with one or two aldermen, to be named later, will accept the invitation of the Jacques Cartier celebration committee of St. Malo, France; to attend the unveiling of a statue to the founder of Canada, on July 30th in that historic seaport. Montreal from many standpoints has a peculiarly romantic and historic interest in this celebration, and can not well be enumerated among the absentees at the festivities.

It was Jacques Cartier who discovered the St. Lawrence and Mount Royal so that no man among the early explorers is closer connected with the Dominion than that rugged French sailor.

The full text of the invitation to the unveiling follows:

Kerazur, Brittany, France.

To His Worship the Mayor of Montreal:

The unveiling of a statue to Jacques Cartier, the discoverer of Canada will be held at St. Malo, on July 30, 1905; and upon the day following a commemorative tablet will be placed upon the manor of Cartier, in Varime.

The committee have instructed me to inform you of this ceremony and will be highly pleased if you could honor the festivities with your presence and as the event will be certain to awaken associations common to Canada as well as France, the relations between these two countries will become even closer.

Be good enough to kindly inform your countrymen, that their welcome here would be indeed a warm one; and as for yourself, believe me to be,

Your most obedient servant,
Louis Tiercelaim,
President of Committee.

In this occasion, Montrealers will recollect that last year a French patriotic singer journeyed through Canada and New England, the proceeds of the concerts being devoted to the erection of this splendid monument.

Mayor Laporte and Mrs. Laporte are in Atlantic City, where they will remain for a week or ten days.

UNKNOWN WOMAN DIED AT HOSPITAL

Refused to Give any Account of Herself to the Attendant Physician.

A mysterious old lady died at the Notre Dame Hospital Saturday from heart failure brought on by an epileptic fit. The Coroner received a report of the case this morning and by his orders the body was removed to the morgue.

The old lady was found wandering around near the corner of Craig and Bleury streets in an apparently intoxicated condition by one of the constables of No. 7 station on Friday evening. The police summoned the patrol in which she was placed and driven off to the station. On the way, however, she was seized by a sudden attack of epilepsy and became unconscious. The driver of the patrol hurried the prisoner to the Notre Dame Hospital where she soon regained consciousness under the care of the doctors. She called for water several times in English, but would say nothing about herself when questioned by the doctors and attendants. All efforts to find out her name and address were in vain and when she died Saturday morning no information about her had been obtained.

The old lady was clothed in a shabby black dress and had the appearance of being very poor. She was apparently about sixty-five or seventy years of age. The hospital authorities kept the body until to-day, thinking that some of the woman's relatives might go to the institution and make inquiries about her.

The body will be held at the morgue for two days. If it is not then identified it will be handed over to Dr. Roy, inspector of anatomy to be disposed of.

ST. JOHN RIVER MAY BE INCLUDED IN INQUIRY

British Government Has Made Representations to Washington With That Object in View.

Washington, April 12.—Among the several questions now pending between London and Washington regarding Canada, one of the most important affects the interpretation of the river and harbor Act of 1902, providing for an American-Canadian commission to investigate and report on the problems of water level, water supply and navigation of the waters adjacent to the boundary line, including all lakes and rivers whose natural outlet is by the St. Lawrence river. Some question has arisen as to the scope of the commission of six, which already has been appointed, the Washington Government having taken the tentative position that its jurisdiction did not include the St. John River where certain obstructions have been placed to the annoyance of Canadians. It is the wish of the Canadians that this river be included in the investigation and they hold that such was the intention of the Act. A similar interpretation was placed on the law by Mr. Choate, the American ambassador at London, when he presented the invitation for the appointment of the commission. In view of this fact, the representations of the London Government on the subject will again be taken up at Washington and given careful consideration.

A Dollar's Worth Free To Any Rheumatic Sufferer

I ask no deposit—no reference—no security. There is nothing to risk—nothing to promise—nothing to pay, either now or later. Any Rheumatic sufferer who does not know my remedy may have a full dollar's worth free to try.

I willingly make this liberal offer because I know that Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy may be relied upon ALWAYS to bring the utmost relief that medicine can. Years before I discovered this remedy, I studied the nature of Rheumatism. For Rheumatism is really

Crystalized Poison

Your blood is always full of poison—the poison you eat and drink and breathe into your system. It is the purpose of the blood to absorb and carry off this very poison. And the kidneys, which are the blood filters, are expected to cleanse the blood and send it back through the system clean, to gather more poison which, they, in turn, will eliminate.

But sometimes the kidneys fail. And sometimes, from some other cause, the blood gets so full of poison that they cannot absorb it all. This is the start of Rheumatism. The poison accumulates and crystalizes. The crystals look like little grains of sugar or of fine white sand. The blood carries them and they increase in size. Then, when it can carry them no longer, it deposits them in a joint—on a bone—anywhere.

The twinge in your leg—the dull ache in your arm on a rainy day—these are the outward signs of the unseen crystals. And the twisted limbs and unspeakable anguish of the sufferer who has allowed his symptoms to go unheeded and unattended for years—these are the evidences of what Rheumatism, neglected, can do.

Rheumatism includes lumbago, sciatica, neuralgia, gout—for all these are the results of rheumatic poison in the blood.

Plainly, the first thing to do is to remove the poison. But this is not enough. The formation of the poison must be stopped, so that nature may have a chance to dissolve and eliminate the crystals which have already formed. Unless this is done there can be no cure—no permanent relief.

I searched the whole earth for a specific for Rheumatism—something that I or any physician could feel safe in prescribing—something that we could count on not only occasionally, but always. For the ravages of Rheumatism are everywhere and genuine relief is rare.

I spent twenty years in experimenting before I felt satisfied that I had a certain remedy for this dread disease—a remedy which would not only clean out the poison, but one which would stop its formation.

Certain Relief

The secret lay in a wonderful chemical I found in Germany. When I found this chemical, I knew that I could make a Rheumatic cure that would be practically certain. But even then, before I made an announcement—before I was willing to put my name on it—I made more than 2,000 tests! And my failures were but 2 per cent.

This German chemical is not the only ingredient I use in Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure—but it made the remedy possible—made possible an achievement which, I doubt not, could have been made in no other way.

This chemical was very expensive. The duty, too, was high. In all it cost me $4.90 per pound. But what is $4.90 per pound for a real remedy for the world's most painful disease?—for a real relief from the greatest torture human beings know?

I don't mean that Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure can turn bony joints into flesh again—that is impossible. But it will drive from the blood the poison that causes pain and swelling, and then that is the end of the pain and swelling—the end of the suffering—the end of Rheumatism. That is why I can afford to make this liberal offer—that is why I can afford to spend the FIRST dollar that Rheumatic sufferers, the world over, may learn of my remedy.

Simply Write Me

The offer is open to everyone, everywhere, who has not tried my remedy. But you must write ME for the free dollar package order. I will send you an order on your druggist which he will accept as gladly as he would accept a dollar. He will hand you from his shelves a standard sized package and he will send the bill to me. There are no conditions—no requirements. All that I ask you to do is to write—write to-day. I will send you my book on Rheumatism beside. It is free. It will help you to understand your case. CASTRO DEFIES U.S. ARMY AND NAVY

Will Stand by His Present Position Though the Heavens Fall.

Caracas, April 12.—President Castro will not withdraw the New York & Bermudese Asphalt Company case from the Venezuelan court, and will not resubmit the Olcott case for arbitration, if the whole American army and navy come to Venezuela."

This statement of General Alexandro Ybarra, the Venezuelan secretary of foreign affairs, reflects the spirit of the reply which President Castro made to the recent proposal of the American State Departmen for the arbitration of the Berumdese and Olcott cases.

It was generally rumored throughout Venezuela that the demand of the United States was little more than an ultimatum to President Castro, and the reply of the Venezuelan president was awaited with interest. Predictions of intervention following the refusal of Castro to yield were freely made and there was much uneasiness, when it was announced that the Venezuelan Government had not only refused the demand to arbitrate the case, but had supplemented its refusal with a request that the United States declare whether it has any respect for the sovereignty and the courts of Venezuela.

It is denied, in the reply of President Castro, that there are any claims pending between the United States and Venezuela. He again reiterates that the New York & Bermudese Asphalt case, now in the Venezuela courts, is a national and not an international one. President Castro and the members of the Cabinet, declare that while the Cabinet stands for general principles of arbitration it will not have a case wrested from its courts to be carried before a court of arbitration.

CASTRO ON HOLIDAY.

Caracas, Venezuela, April 12.—President Castro leaves Caracas to-day for a month's trip to Ciudad Bolivar, and other interior cities, which he has not formally visited as yet.

FEELING IN WASHINGTON.

Washington, D.C., April 12—Throughout the diplomatic corps keen interest exists regarding the sensational answer which President Castro is said to have made to United States Minister Bowen's latest request for the arbitration of the pending questions between the United States and Venezuela, although Venezuela legation officials say the text of the despatch was not included in the mail reaching the legation today, and which left Caracas after the answer was delivered to Mr. Bowen; it has become noised among diplomats that the answer was undiplomatic and almost threatening in wording. There is reason to believe that several foreign Governments have already been advised of its text.

While diplomats who have enquired at the State Department have been informed that practically no action will be taken regarding Venezuela until President Roosevelt returns from his western trip, they also have received the intimation that if the exact text of Castro's answer comprises an insult to the American Minister, it will not pass unnoticed.

HOUSE RESUMES DISCUSSION OF THE AUTONOMY BILLS

Mr. Robert Pringle, Conservative M.P., Supports Educational Clauses—Mr. Bickerdike Made Strong Plea for Toleration in Creed and Race.

(Staff Correspondence of the Herald.)

Ottawa, April 12.—Six speakers had their say on the Autonomy Bills yesterday. Two of them opposed the bills. Four, and one a Conservative, endorsed the educational and all the other provisions. Mr. Robert Pringle is the latest of the Opposition to break away from the Opposition and endorse the mild provision for separate schools contained in the legislation under discussion.

At the opening of the session the leader of the Opposition complained on behalf of the Auditor-General that that official has not received the usual number of copies of his report.

The Finance Minister replied that the Auditor-General formerly got 500 copies for personal distribution. This Government had conceded him 2,000. He had received 300 this year. The King's printer would furnish him the remainder when the wants of Parliament had been supplied.

The debate on the Autonomy Bills was continued by Mr. R. A. Pringle, of Cornwall and Stormont, who is one of the stalwarts of the Opposition. His associates on the Opposition side of the House hailed his rising with faint applause for it had been hinted that he was not going to be a follower of the Opposition on this occasion.

Mr. Pringle said he was not in Parliament to represent the sentiments of Protestants or of Catholics. He felt it his duty to reach a conclusion on this matter on grounds which appealed to conscience irrespective of their faiths.

The speaker commended the views of Mr. Talbot of Strathcona to the House. Mr. Talbot said the present educational system of the Territories was the best in Canada and the present bill proposed to continue that system. Mr. Pringle said Mr. Talbot could speak as an expert for he had for some years been in charge of the largest educational institution in Cornwall.

Mr. Pringle made an exhaustive historical review of the educational legislation respecting the Territories. He pointed out there has been separate schools under the Hudson Bay Company's regime. It had been understood they would be continued when Canada acquired Rupert's Land. That was the understanding of Donald Smith, and John A Macdonald. The separate system had been continued. In early days the minority of Manitoba had been Protesaant. Separate schools were guaranteed to them as shown by correspondence between the colonial minister and Governor-General and Archbishop Tache in 1870. Sir John A. Macdonald had guaranteed to all minorities separate educational privileges. He proposed to support the Macdonald traditional policy.

"I am fully sensible," Mr. Pringle said, after several interruptions from Dr. Sproule and other members of the Opposition, "that my remarks may not meet with the approval of some members of this House. But I cannot help that. I am here representing neither Protestants nor Roman Catholics. I am here to do what I think honestly right. (Government cheers). I respect the feelings of my honorable friends who differ from me with respect to this matter and I ask them to respect my convictions."

Mr. Pringle said his constituency contained a large majority of Protestant voters. When he went to the constituency he found most of the objection to the separate school provisions of the present bills came from Protestant Liberals. There was very little from Protestant Conservatives. The reason for this was the Liberals had been educated against separate schools. They had been in Manitoba particularly arrayed against them in 1896. If there was feeling over the educational provisions of the Autonomy Bills it was due not to what had been done by the Conservatives but by the Liberals in the past.

Still, whatever had been taught or done in the past, there was no reason why the question could not now be settled without arousing religious feeling or race passion.

The toleration of the French Canadian had been contrasted with the intolerance of English people of Ontario. Mr. Pringle protested against this and insisted the Ontario English were generous, tolerant, and fair. "I believe when this educational question comes up before our Ontario people and is thoroughly discussed by them, as it will be, they will be found just as reasonable as any in Canada."

MEMBERS SUPPORT BILLS.

Mr. H. H. Miller Liberal of South Grey, speaking in support of the bill said he appealed for the discussion of the bills without passion. He charged the Opposition with trying to arouse religious prejudice. The Conservative side of the House demurred at this and Mr. Miller said that he would have the House to judge whether the speeches of Mr. Geo. E. Foster and Mr. W. F. Maclean were not of this character. A good deal had been made of the condemnation of the bills by Mr. J. S. Willison of the Toronto News. Mr. Miller said that a few years ago Mr. Willison was Sir Wilfrid Laurier's biographer and had then described him as a sincere, and moderate man who was not moved by extremists but by a sense of right. Recently Mr. Willison had been condemning Sir Wilfrid as favoring a faction. This was a change but had the charge taken place in Sir Wilfrid or his biographer, Sir Wilfrid was the same man, with the same views. His biographer had gone over to the Conservative camp and was now blaming the man he had praised.

Mr. Lamont, Liberal of Saskatchewan, followed and as a western man expressed approval of the decision of the Government to preserve to the west the educational system which it had so carefully and so thoroughly built up. The educational attitude, of the Government was justified by constitutional precedents and was endorsed by the people of the Northwest from whom the legislation was formed.

Mr. Staples, Conservative, of Macdonald, asked that the educational legislation should not be proceeded with. The shackles should not be put on the new provinces by restricting their opportunities to pass educational legislation for themselves.

Mr. Wright, Conservative, of Muskoka briefly declared himself in opposition to the bill.

MR BICKERDIKE FOR TOLERATION.

Mr. Robert Bickerdike, Liberal of St. Lawrence division, said he was not a great lawyer nor a great speaker. However there was hope for him as it had been said that a flow of language was not as great as a flood of love and sunshine works as great marvels as thunderstorms. He was not an Orangeman a Ribbon man or a Catholic. He was a Protestant representing a constituency which contained a majority of Roman Catholic electors who were content to place their mandate in the hands of himself, an English Protestant. Ontario extremists would do well to go down to Montreal and see how the two races and the two religions got along there. He had been chairman of a Protestant school board and across the street was one consisting of Roman Catholics with a priest at its head. Never had two bodies gotten along with more courtesy or less friction. When Rev. Father David of St. Patrick's Church died there were many mourners, but no bells in the city were tolled with more sincere sympathy than those of the Anglican Churches. When Bishop Bond, head of the Anglican Church in Canada was sick and it was feared he would die, prayers for his restoration to health arose from every Roman Catholic altar in Montreal. When the predecessor of Archbishop Bond landed at Quebec, the first man to welcome him, to grasp both his hands and kiss him on both cheeks was the Roman Catholic bishop of that diocese.

Mr. Bickerdike recalled the fact that a Presbyterian Church had been opened to a Roman Catholic community to hold its services in after it had been burned out. A Recollet church had been opened to a Presbyterian community for its services and when the Presbyterians had rebuilt their church the Recollets refused to accept any compensation. However they did accept some gifts and among them were wax tapers for use in Roman Catholic worship. While the Presbyterians worshipped in that building they had several flings at Papish worship and enjoyed them very much. That was the sort of toleration that existed in Quebec and he advised the House to take an example from it. Mr. Bickerdike pleaded for toleration on the educational clauses. No man could object to the use of the school houses for religious instruction after the school work of the day had been finished. Mr. Bickerdike said there could not be better use made of them. He approved of the bill.

The adjournment of the debate was moved by Mr. Alcorn, Conservative.

HIGHLAND CADETS IN NEW YORK ON DOMINION DAY

Will Probably Help Canadian Residents of American Metropolis Hold Their First Celebration.

Arrangements are being made for the annual excursion of the members of the Highland Cadet Battalion. It is likely that the boys will visit New York on July 1. The various Canadian clubs of that city in conjunction with the Caledonian and British-American societies, intend to celebrate Dominion Day in a fitting manner, and the Cadets will travel to the American Metropolis in order to take part in the celebration. This will be the first occasion on which Canada's national holiday will have been publicly recognized by the British residents of the State of New York. The Canadian societies of New York are strong numerically, and it is expected that the event will be a notable one. A "Day of Sports" is to be held at some park in the vicinity of the city of New York, at which the drilling of the Cadets will be one of the chief features. The boys will probably leave the city on the night of June 30th, and will return on July 5th. This will enable them to be present at the Fourth of July celebration in New York. The Cadets are drilling hard in preparation for the trip.

It is possible that several of the other local regiments may go away for short trips this summer. The members of the Montreal Field Battery hope to be able to visit Quebec next month, and there is some talk of an excursion by the members of the 65th Regiment, but nothing definite has as yet been decided on.

SENATE ADOPTED THE RESOLUTION

Of Senator Edwards Dealing With the Question of Tuberculosis.

(Staff Correspondence of The Herald.)

Ottawa, April 12.—In the Senate yesterday afternoon Hon. Mr. Scott informed Hon. Mr. Landry that Dr. John C. Howe was appointed medical inspector in Quebec in 1903, at a salary of $100 per month. There had been three complaints of his improperly demanding fees, and steamers had not passed Quebec because of this. An investigation would be held.

On the motion of Hon. Mr. Landry a return of all the papers connected with the sale of land at Quebec to the Government by Hon. Mr. Choquette was ordered.

On the motion of Hon. Mr. McMullen the formal resolution providing for the forwarding of the cattle embargo resolution to the Imperial Premier and the president of the Board of Agriculture of England was carried.

Hon. Mr. Scott moved that when the House adjourn to-morrow it do stand adjourned till May 3rd.

Hon. Mr. Casgrain, of Windsor, resumed the debate on Hon. Mr. Edwards' resolution on tuberculosis. He congratulated Mr. Edwards on moving the resolution, and feared that after the exhaustive debate his remarks would be to a certain extent a repetition. Hereditary consumption was a bugbear. The mother might convey the disease in nursing by kissing her child, or the father by careless expectoration. Milk was a frequent vehicle of the disease. Milk from tuberculous cattle had been fed to pigs and produced the disease. Dealing with the marriage of consumptives he said in the case of men it wasn't so dangerous, but as regarded women the question was complicated. Where the chest development was poor marriage should not take place. Where the disease existed marriage should be forbidden. There was no cure for consumption except fresh air and cleanliness. He recommended special wards for consumptives in city hospitals. The poor were at present prevented from receiving the benefits of the sanitaria, and he thought the Government should come to the assistance of that class of patient.

Hon. Mr. De Boucherville suggested that Mr. Edwards move for his committee, leaving the personnel to be named afterwards. Unless he did this now he would have to begin again de novo.

Hon. Mr. Edwards was not quite in a position to do this.

Hon. Mr. Scott desired to join with his colleagues in thanking Mr. Edwards for bringing forward this matter. The views expressed by Hon. Dr. Wilson and Hon. Dr. Casgrain most nearly coincided with his. It would be necessary to change the conditions of life very largely before they could hope to stamp out the disease. In Canada even there was a very great opening for the benefactor to point out what should be done. Whilst fully sympathizing with the resolution yet there was the feeling of the Government that the matter was beyond their control, as far as Mr. Edwards wished them to go. The constitution placed hospitals entirely under the Provincial Government. He would be glad if he could enlist his colleagues sympathy in the matter. The Provinces had charge of education. Children should be taught to sit up straight. He was sure Sir Richard Cartwright would join him in placing the views expressed in the Senate before the Government.

Hon. Mr. Edwards pointed out that education was relegated to the Provinces. The Government took part in education. They taught the people to make chains.

The resolution was then adopted.

FAVORED ALD. WALSH.

At a convention of the County Board of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, representing the various divisions of the order in Hochelaga county, a resolution was unanimously adopted favoring the appointment of Ald. M. J. Walsh, M. L.A., to a seat in the Provincial Cabinet, claiming this honor as a right by precedent and the fact that Ald. Walsh has the confidence of and represents in the City Council and the Legislature one of the most influential constituencies in the province.

HARPELL ISSUES LONG STATEMENT

He Protests Against the Partisan Use of Queen's Quarterly.

Kingston, Ont., April 12.—J. J. Harpell, business manager of the Queen's Quarterly, had a three-column letter in the Whig detailing his side of the troubles with the editorial committee, who seek to make it a partisan magazine. He took the management at Principal Grant's request, whose desire was to make the Quarterly a high-class publication, with the aim of meeting the Canadian universities on educational issues. The earliest numbers had this purpose in view, and Mr. Harpell secured contracts and subscriptions on the ground of its non-sectarian and non-political standing. Trouble arose over Prof. Cappon's departure from the purpose of the magazine. He became political, and his article on corruption in Ontario was a severe attack.

"We lost many more subscribers," writes Mr. Harpell, "during the following two months than we lost during the previous years, and I have found it very much more difficult to get new ones. I brought this to the attention of the committee, and, as I understood, received the assurance that it would not occur again. But now in the very next number the same offender attempts to publish an article that has not only been branded by the press as partisan, but which is sectarian of a very dangerous type. I again protested that the second partisan article would brand the magazine in a manner that would require much time and effort to redeem."

But as the committee insisted on the article appearing, Mr. Harpell, who bore the financial part of the burdens, ordered the printer to stop publication. He solemnly protests against the base accusations that his opposition was due to his being a Catholic and a Liberal. The partisan spirit among a few of Queen's men has driven out those whose works and lives give expression to the best spirit of the university, and, as evidence, the names of Profs. Shortt and Dyde are quoted, who did good work through the magazine in early days, but were set aside.

DR. OSLER TO HOLD RECEPTION ON FRIDAY

The visit to Montreal of Dr. Osler, the gentleman who has recently attracted much of the world's attention, and drawn on his head much sarcasm, by reason of his humorous proposal to work off by poison, the men of sixty years and upwards, is one of the interesting events of the week.

The doctor reaches town on Friday morning, and at the reception to be held in the Windsor Hotel corridor, from 7 to 7.30 evening, he may be assured of many visitors, all of whom, it is to be hoped, will be strictly friendly mission.

Immediately following this interesting function, Dr. Osler will be the guest at dinner of the graduates, undergraduates and teaching staff of McGill College, to whose invitation the city is indebted for the present visit of this interesting gentleman, who has shared so much of the attention of writers, preachers, and lecturers, during the past few months.

WHY DON'T THE MEN PROPOSE?

The Real Reason Why There Are so Many Who Remain Bachelors Now-a-Days

MISS ANDREL,
1046 Cadieux Street.

The number of confirmed bachelors grows alarmingly, and it is time that enquiry should be made into the reason why so many men decide in favor of single blessedness.

They cannot be driven into matrimony by fear of a tax, such as was recently advocated. It is to the girls themselves that we must look for an explanation of the men's attitude.

Marriage is the natural destiny of woman, and although some girls may disclaim any desire for such a state, they have really in their hearts a longing for a home of their own, and know that if the right man came to ask them they would answer "yes."

The fact is, men are getting to be more particular. Time was when they found the pale, languid girl interesting. But she has ceased to be so now, and in this practical age it is the strong, healthy girl who has admirers. A man expects the girl he wants to marry to have abundant vitality which reveals itself in the clear skin, the ruddy cheek, the insensibility to fatigue and the gaiety of disposition which only good health can ensure.

To the girl who dreads the prospect of spinsterhood, then, health is all important. "O health!" says an old author, "health! the blessing of the rich! the riches of the poor! who can buy thee at too dear a rate since there are no enjoying of this world without thee!"

There would be fewer old maids if the truth of this were realized. Anaemia or weakness of blood is a complaint which is only too common among young girls, and unless attended to, it has often disastrous effects in their future in every way.

The remedy is, however, easy to obtain. A medical specialist who has studied female weakness has recently discovered a preparation which has a wonderful tonic effect. It is St. James Wafers, which are curing thousands of the girls and women of Canada by supplying to every organ of the body the needed strength. A regular course of St. James Wafers brings color to the cheeks and a sparkle to the eye. Brightness and cheerfulness come to stay; dullness and despair are banished by this great remedy.

"I have been terribly afflicted with anaemia and wish all to know how I have been cured. One year ago I got so bad I had to call in a doctor. He came a few times and said he could do nothing for me. As I was much discouraged, I called in a second, then a third doctor, who told me the same thing. I grew worse, until I was perfectly helpless. My sufferings were great. Warm weather came and I got a little benefit from it. I commenced taking St. James Wafers, and in six months I could go upstairs and down as spry as any one. I had taken a new lease of life. St. James Wafers had cured me. I had almost died with headaches, backache, weakness, nervousness and stomach trouble, but now I am perfectly well and strong. I can enjoy life now and walk between two and three miles, sit down to work and go out alone, and feel perfectly free from anaemia. I thank God and St. James Wafers for restoring me to health."

"MISS ANDREL,
"1046 Cadieux street."

St. James Wafers are of a pretty lemon color, have neither taste nor smell, are convenient to carry and can be swallowed without attracting attention. They are sold at all druggists at 50c a box, or six boxes for $2.50, or will be sent, post free, upon receipt of cash remittance by the sole Canadian agents, LYMAN SONS & CO., wholesale druggists, 380 St. Paul street, Montreal.

TWO FIRE STATIONS WERE AGREED UPON

With a New Public Bath and an Incinerator for the East End.

At a special meeting of the Finance Committee yesterday, a sum of $212,165 was voted to the different committees, for which, in addition to the regular permanent works to be completed during the summer, the city will have, as future assets, two new fire stations, one public bath, and an incinerator for the eastern portion of the city.

The fire stations will be situated, one in St. Denis ward, and the other off St. Catherine Street in the upper section of the city, while the bath goes to Hochelaga ward. The amount approved of was divided as follows: Markets, $2,000; incineration, $10,000; parks, $3,200; fire, $48,965; health, $7,500, and roads, $140,500.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

As is to be expected, when the amount asked for is greatly in excess of the money to be divided, the requisitions were cut down unmercifully. The Fire Committee asked for $146,821, but the sum granted was just under $49,000, the items omitted being mostly those relative to the fire alarm service. This department had requisitioned for $52,000 for the construction of a fire-proof building for the alarm apparatus and the purchase of new batteries, switchboards, etc., which would be needed for the new building.

For the present it was deemed advisable to vote money for a new fire station to replace No. 5, and to install the alarm service in this structure.

Chairman Robertson put in a strong plea for the fire department, and urged the erection of a new station in the uptown section near St. Catherine Street, as that portion of the city was fast becoming the centre of the retail business of Montreal. Ald. Vallieres wished to know if it was the intention to do away with the fire station on Craig Street, to which Ald. Robertson replied that such was impossible. Ald. Ekers and Ald. Sadler were also of this impression.

A NEW INCINERATOR.

Ald. Lavallee presented a request for an incinerator for the East End such as the West End has at present, and after a brief discussion, the sum of $10,000 was voted.

PARK'S NEEDS.

On the Parks Committee's requisition the chief sum was $20,000 for the new Lookout on the mountain—but the Finance Committee was not impressed. Ald. Ekers told them to go on with the $15,0000 already voted and to get the balance next year. The ground could be prepared, and a platform put up this year.

This was also the opinion of the committee, which then voted $1,000 for improvements on Fletcher's Field, $1,500 for Lafontaine Park, and a couple of other smaller amounts.

THE ROADS COMMITTEE.

The Roads Committee wanted — and needed— $562,900, but this sum was nearly three times what the Finance committee had to give to all together. While only the most pressing items were attended to, more money will be forthcoming at the next meeting.

The following are the items approved of:—Outlet for Delorimier sewer, $13,000; extension of sewage farm sewer, $20,000; safety valves, $1,000; permanent sidewalks, city's share, $50,000; macadam, $40,000; electric pump for Wellington street subway, $1,500; Mount Royal avenue sewer, $10,000; small sewers, $5,000; making a total of $140,500.

The street widenings are again a heavy drag on the city as will be seen by the $198,000 sum for this alone.

THE FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

The following financial statement of the supplementary estimates, amounting to three-quarters of a million, was laid before the committee. The $300,000 mentioned in the report is a revenue account collected from arrears, which will be voted in a few days, for the ordinary purposes of revenue. The statement showed, available.

Annual loan	$300,000
Abattoir money	103,334
Sales of city property, premium on loan, etc.	23,521
	$426,855

These sums had previously been voted:—

Mountain Lookout	$15,000
St. Lambert Hill expropriation	46,200
Fire apparatus	8,248
Road sewers	900
Road sewer outlet, Back River	6,500
Longueuil ferry	9,000
Bonsecours Market	1,600
	$87,448

What was already voted, or $87,448, out of the available amount of $426,855, left a balance of $339,407.

The report declared the following expropriation amounts must be provided for:

St. Antoine street	$55,000
St. Lawrence street	112,000
McKay street	11,000
Amos property	3,000
Lafontaine Park	17,000
	$198,000

A deduction of $38,000 for what was available on completed expropriations was made from this total, leaving a balance of $160,000, which taken out of the amount to be spent of $339,407 left the amount of $179,407 at the disposal of the committee yesterday afternoon.

The report concluded with the remark that on May 1 a further sum of $300,000 from arrears of taxes will be available.

MR. AND MRS. GEO. PHILLIPS SAIL.

Mr. George Phillips, of the Windsor Hotel, accompanied by Mrs. Phillips, the Misses Gertrude and Marjorie Phillips and Master Leslie Phillips, left Montreal last week for Halifax, where they embarked on the Allan line turbiner "Victorian" for England. Over a hundred friends gathered at the Windsor Station to see them off and bid them "bon voyage." Mr. Phillips intends spending a two months' holiday in the Old Country before returning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Forget, of the Windsor also left for England on the same boat and, while there, they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Phillips at their home, "Westmount," at Buxton, Derbyshire.

BENEFIT CONCERT.

St. Mary's Catholic Young Men's Society will hold a concert for the benefit of St. Mary's Church, in St. Mary's Hall, corner of Craig and Panet Streets, Easter Monday evening. A programme of much interest has been prepared, a feature of which will be the trial scene from "Robert Emmett," in which Mr. M. J. Power will recite Emmett's speech from the dock. This number alone is one well worth while going a long way to hear.

SUNDAY SCHOOL MEETING POSTPONED.

The meeting of the three Protestant Sunday Schools in St. Lambert, arranged for to-morrow, Thursday, night, has been unavoidably postponed.

ATWATER AVENUE MAIN BURST OUT

Sidewalk Flew in the Air and Considerable Damage was Done by Flood.

At five minutes to one o'clock this afternoon the big twenty-six inch water main on Atwater Avenue burst, near Albert Street, and passing spectators were treated to an impromptu geyser. The rush of water lifted the sidewalk over the break several feet in the air.

The break fortunately occurred at a time when many persons were on the street, and the alarm was sent in to the City Hall in a very few minutes, when men were at once despatched to the scene to turn the turbulent element off.

For the space of fifteen minutes, however, the sight presented as the water leaped in its new-found freedom, was a striking one. The soft earth gravel and street debris was tossed into the air to a height of ten or twelve feet, some of it being thrown twenty-five feet away.

A miniature river formed, and gathering force as the water rose from the break in the big main, hurried cheerfully down the street gutters.

The damage done was about $200, but had the break occurred at a less opportune time, great loss might easily have resulted.

HON. LOMER GOUIN HAD BUSY DAY YESTERDAY

First Minister of Quebec Province Received Two Delegations and Many Friends.

Yesterday was a busy day for Hon. Mr. Gouin, the newly-elected Prime Minister of Quebec. Two delegations were received by him at his office on St. Gabriel street and during the day numerous personal friends dropped in to congratulate him on his election.

The first delegation was composed of a number of prominent business men of the city, among whom were Messrs. J. O. Garneau, O. Lemire, A. Fleury, and G. Marsolais. These merchants waited on the Prime Minister for the purpose of asking him to interest himself in the fight against trading stamps which is now in progress. Hon. Mr. Gouin promised to have the matter investigated and see that justice was done to both parties. The members of the delegation were well pleased with the reception they received from the Prime Minister.

A number of gentlemen representing the directors of the Goat Farm at Cote Visitation also waited on Mr. Gouin and asked for his assistance in obtaining Government aid for the enlargement of the enterprise. There are at present 125 goats on the farm and it is the intention of the proprietors to endeavour to bring the number up to 500. The milk, which is recommended by many physicians, is sold in the different cities of the province, and the money obtained in this way has so far been sufficient to support the institution. Hon. Mr. Gouin, who has already visited the farm, expressed the hope that it would prove successful. He thought that the farm was of great service to the community and said he would do what he could to aid its development.

Hon. Mr. Gouin left yesterday evening for Quebec.

NEEDLEWORK GUILD DOING EXCELLENT WORK

An important meeting of the Montreal Branch of the Needlework Guild for the purpose of discussing the affiliation of branches and national organization was held yesterday morning at the Y.W.C.A., Dorchester street.

The President, Mrs. J. B. Learmont, was in the chair, and there were also present the Honorary President, Lady Drummond, Mrs. J. R. Thibaudeau, and Mrs. W. S. Paterson, Vice-Presidents, the Secretary, Mrs. Paul Hamill; the Treasurer, Mrs. E. B. Black; the Assistant Treasurer, Mrs. W. S. Louson, and a number of other interested friends.

A committee to look into the matter of affiliation was appointed consisting of Mrs. F. H. Waycott and Miss Lorne Macdougall, in conjunction with all the officers of the Club.

A communication was read from Toronto, where a needlework guild has been in operation for thirteen years, along similar lines to the work begun by Lady Wolverton in England. Letters were read regarding the opening of branches in Waterloo, and Moncton, N.B. And expressions of appreciation were sent in from several hospitals for the generous help given by the Guild.

The disposition of any other money received by the directors for the work was also discussed. The scope of work being considerably broadened. Each director makes herself responsible for ten other members, each of whom contributes two new garments, and also one member who gives a money fee.

Sheets, pillowcases, wrappers, for women and children, bed-socks and children's nightdresses are among the articles always welcome.

HEALTH IN SPRING

Nature Needs Assistance in Making New Health-giving Blood.

Spring is the season when your system needs toning up. In the spring you must have new blood just as the trees must have new sap. Nature demands it. Without new blood you will feel weak and languid; you may have twinges of rheumatism or neuralgia, occasional headaches, a variable appetite, pimples or eruptions of the skin, or a pale, pasty complexion. These are certain signs that the blood is out of order. The only sure way to get new blood and fresh energy is to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They actually make new, rich blood—they are the greatest spring tonic in the world. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills clear the skin, drive out disease and make tired, depressed men and women bright, active and strong. Mr. Neil H. McDonald, Estmere, N.B., says: "It gives me great satisfaction to state that I have found Dr. Williams' Pink Pills all that is claimed for them. I was completely run down, my appetite was poor, and I suffered much from severe headaches. Doctors' medicine did not give me the needed relief, so I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I used only a few boxes when my former health returned, and now I feel like a new man."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are not only the best spring tonic, but are a cure for all troubles due to poor blood or shattered nerves. That is why they cure headaches and backaches, rheumatism, anaemia, kidney and liver troubles, and the special secret ailments of women and growing girls. But you must get the genuine, with the full name, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," printed on the wrapper around each box. Sold by all medicine dealers or sent by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by writing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

POLICE CRUSADE AGAINST LOAFERS

Half a Dozen Taken in Who Could Not Account for Actions.

Not only have the police set themselves to rid the streets of the city of female pests, but to further render things more safe for the law-abiding it seems as if an earnest effort were on foot to remove as many as possible of the habitual male loafers who spend their nights out of doors.

There are too many of these gentry in the town, said an official this morning. It takes up too much of the time of the patrolmen to keep an eye on their movements, for while a constable may consider it good business to keep them under notice while they hold up one corner, something of a really law-breaking nature may be going on a few blocks away. It is the case that such men persistently pose as harmless out-of-works, simply waiting for the coming of daylight to go on again in their search for employment. In most instances this has been found to be mere bluff, put up to mislead the young and sympathetic policeman, and in future those who cannot give some better account of themselves, added the officer, are to be wakened up a bit. We are convinced they are too often out for the purpose of drawing away the attention of the police from movements of some of the active "crooks."

Last night some half-dozen husky-looking young fellows failed to satisfy the interrogating policemen, and were locked up. This morning they had no satisfactory explanation to give to the court as to why they were hanging round during the hours of darkness and the terms of discouragement ranged from $20 or two months down to $5 or one month.

Of girls of the town, too, there were again a representation on the charge sheet to-day, and Mr. Recorder Poirier sentenced these to pay $50 with the alternative of a couple of months.

Alice Labelle, arrested on a charge of keeping a disreputable house on Lagauchtiere Street, was condemned in $100 fine or three months in jail, and the girl inmates were called on to pay $20 fine each or go down for a couple of months.

TALK OF ARREST FOR MAKER OF CHARGES

Hearing is going on to-day at the Court House on an application for an injunction to restrain the Police Committee from proceeding further in its investigation of the conduct of Captain Loye. The injunction is sought by Mr. Pare, the hotelkeeper upon whose charges the investigation was instituted.

As a matter of fact, the investigation is regarded by the Police Committee as being over. Ald St. Denis stated this afternoon that he would consult with the Mayor with a view to having Mr. Pare arrested on the charge of failing to answer to his subpoena.

ONTARIO HOUSE TO DISCUSS BILLS

Toronto, April 12.—(Special.)—Dr. Beattie Nesbitt announced at the Centre Toronto nomination meeting yesterday that he would introduce in the Legislature a resolution against the separate school clauses in the Autonomy Bills.

THE QUEBEC BOGEY MAN.

Toronto, April 12.—(Special.)—Mr. E. T. D. Chambers, Quebec, has a long letter in the Globe this morning on the Western school question, under the heading, "Let Us Have Peace!" The letter is treated editorially as follows: 'Mr. Chambers says, "Let us have peace." We may have peace at too great a price. The price for the guaranteeing of Protestant separate schools in Quebec, was the guaranteeing of Catholic separate schools in Ontario. That price has been and is being paid. There is no constitutional obligation resting upon the Dominion to perpetuate separate schools in the Northwest. The whole matter is one not of constitutional guarantees, but of the right of the provinces to control their own educational systems. If the Northwest wants separate schools, let the Northwest say so. Quebec has no more right to meddle with the schools of the Northwest than the Western provinces would have to meddle, through their representatives in Parliament, with Quebec's schools."

THE BOUNDARY QUESTION.

Toronto, April 12.—(Special.) — The Globe this morning, discussing the boundary question, says:—"If Mr. Roblin will take with him to the conference his colleague, Attorney-General Campbell, and if Attorney-General Whitney will take with him Mr. Foy, Commissioner of Crown Lands, these four gentlemen might in a very short time decide the question, so far as their provinces are concerned, by consultation with Sir Wilfrid Laurier and say, Sir William Mulock. Any line of division agreed to unanimously by these six representative Ministers would be accepted without hesitation by the people of both provinces. There may be other difficulties not at present in sight. The above suggestion has to do only with the division of Southern Keewatin between Manitoba and Ontario."

Personal Mention

Hon. Lomer Gouin left for Quebec by last night's train.

Mr. Joseph Morin, M.L.A., for St. Hyacinthe, was introduced on 'Change and at the Board of Trade yesterday by Mr. Thomas H. Ryan.

Mr. J. F. McCall, of Drummond, McCall & Co., has left for New York, from where he sails for Liverpool by the Oceanic.

Mr. John Hyde, accountant, of Montreal, has been elected a fellow of the Society of Accountants and Auditors of England.

Dr. James Stewart, of 285 Mountain street, who has been confined to the house for some time is reported to be in a somewhat improved condition today.

The condition of Dr. F. W. Campbell, who has been ill for the past two weeks is still unchanged to-day.

The Hon. Mr. Parent, ex-premier of the province passed through the city this morning on his way to Quebec.

Mr. Norman S. Lusher, manager of Battersby's ticket agency, St. James street, who has just undergone a difficult operation for appendicitis at the Mount Royal Sanatorium, was reported to be doing as well as could be expected this afternoon.

"NO BILL" RETURNED.

Quebec, April 12.—(Special.)—The Grand Jury yesterday returned "No Bill" in the case against Bagnall and Telesphore Dubeau, in the Court of King's Bench. The accused were held on circumstantial evidence for the death of an old man named Cunningham, alias Morel, whose body was picked up in the St. Charles river in November last.

RHEUMATISM

The Real Cause of This Joint-Twisting, Muscle Binding, Nerve Inflaming Disease and How It Is Prevented and Cured by

WARNER'S SAFE CURE

Like the sewage of cities it is contaminating.

It is the work of the kidneys to eliminate this poison from the system as rapidly as formed. When, however, the kidneys have become weakened or diseased there is an accumulation of uric acid that poisons the blood. In coursing through the body the uric acid settles in the joints and causes articular—joint—rheumatism; it attacks the lower part of the back and produces lumbago; it affects the delicate membrane covering the sciatic nerve and the result is sciatica—they are all rheumatism. Uric acid is the father of all rheumatism no matter where located or by what name it may be called.

JOHN S. WILSON, 43 Schuyler St., Albany, N.Y., writes:—"About six years ago I was a martyr to frequent attacks of inflammatory rheumatism in my feet and hip joints. Often had to give up work for five or six weeks at a time. I tried prescriptions by the dozen, one after another, and some would-be sure cures from different friends. None seemed to do me any good. At last fortune caused me to visit an old friend of mine who I knew at one time suffered as I did. He told me what Warner's Safe Cure had done for him. He had about half a bottle left over and I took it home and began to take it as directed. By the time I had finished I found a little relief. I got a bottle and continued taking the remedy until I had used up three bottles. I was so encouraged that I kept on taking it for two months after, when I was entirely cured and have had absolutely no rheumatism since. I always keep a bottle in the house and recommend it to all I hear complaining as I did."

WARNER'S SAFE CURE is purely vegetable and contains no harmful drugs. It is free from sediment and pleasant to take. It is prescribed and used by doctors themselves in the leading hospitals as the only absolute cure for all forms of disease of the kidneys, bladder and blood.

Warner's Safe Cure is what you need. At any drug store, $1.00 a bottle. Write Warner's Safe Cure Co., 44 Lombard St., Toronto, Ont., for free medical book.

TRIAL BOTTLE FREE.

All you have to do is to write Warner's Safe Cure Co., 44 Lombard St., Toronto, Ont., and mention name of this paper. The genuineness of this offer is guaranteed by the publisher.

HISTORIC SIEGE IN WORD AND PICTURE

"No matter how many men and what supplies the Russians send to the Far East now, no matter the number of engagements fought, the result will be the same, defeat such as has already been their lot in the past. They are hopelessly beaten and might as well admit it."

With this personal estimate of the final ending of the Russo-Japanese war, Mr. Ashmead Bartlett, who was special correspondent with the Japs at the Port Arthur siege, concluded his most interesting lecture in the Windsor Hall last night, and the large and fashionable gathering, which had just been treated to lantern views of the awful havoc of modern warfare in the shape of fields and fields of dead soldiers of the Mikado lying under shadow of 203 Metre Hill, was ready and frank with its applause.

As a speaker, Mr. Bartlett is not quite the success one naturally looks for in a world's lecturer on such a big subject. With nothing of the robust about him, his voice is, at the present moment at any rate, scarcely suited for a hall like the Windsor and there must have been more than a few in last night's audience who had some difficulty in following the wordy narrative, although all were doubtless able to carry along the story intelligently from the many interesting views thrown on the screen. Nor is the stage appearance of the war writer of the most impressive. He gets off what he has to say in a style that suggests there is to be a rush to catch the last train for somewhere, the while he swings in rythmic fashion from the one foot to the other, at a corner of the platform. But of course it was at the feet of a great war correspondent that the majority of the crowd had come to worship, and there was no inclination to criticise too readily any platform mannerisms.

A TERRIBLE "TERRAIN."

Starting out with the early operations of Togo's squadron directed against Port Arthur, the "Times" man took his audience from the fleet, to the positions occupied on shore around the doomed fortress, from battery to battery, from point to point among the mountains from and over which the Japanese conducted their protracted operations. The views, which are from photos taken by the lecturer himself, show as no extent of letterpress could, the terrible nature of the country over which the attacking army had to advance. Rough and rocky mountains, cut and sectioned by deep and difficult defiles, were there at every hand to help the Russian defence. Uphill and down, through brooks, and across miles of boulder strewn country hed the plucky little men of Japan to carry their provender and munitions of war, until at the end of it all, the audience were left with nothing but an overflowing measure of admiration and praise for those men who dared and did.

To get More Strength from Your Food.

LOTS of People are starving with a full stomach.

You know, it's not how much we Eat but how much we Digest that makes us Strong, or Brainy, or Successful.

When the Bowels are filled with undigested food we may be a great deal worse off than if we were half starved for want of Food.

Because, food that stays too long in the Bowels decays there, just as if it stayed too long in the open air.

And, you know that a poisonous Gas rises from Decayed food, even in the open air.

That Gas would start a pestilence in a whole neighborhood if the Health Authorities did not compel removal of its Cause.

* * *

Well, when Food decays in the Bowels, through delayed and over-due action, what happens?

This is what happens:

The millions of little Suction Pumps that line the Bowels and Intestines then draw Poison from the decayed Food, instead of the Nourishment they were intended to draw.

This Poison gets into the blood and, in time, spreads all over the body, unless the Cause of Constipation is promptly removed.

That Cause of Constipation is Weak, or Lazy, Bowel Muscles.

You know, there are about thirty feet of Intestines — Bowels — in every human body.

These Intestines are lined with a muscular tissue that tightens when Food touches it.

This tightening, after Food-friction, is what drives that Food on, through its thirty-foot journey, to Digestion, Nutrition, and Elimination.

* * *

When these Bowel-Muscles grow flabby, weak, or lazy from want of Exercise, the Food does not tickle them enough to act.

That's Constipation!

Castor Oil, or "Physic," will help to slide out one load of trouble, but they can't help the Cause.—

In fact, they weaken the Bowel-Muscles more than ever by slackening them, and by doing work for them which they should do for themselves.

When your Arm-Muscles grow flabby they need exercise, to strengthen them—not a sling to support them.

When your Bowel-Muscles grow flabby they need Exercise to strengthen them—not "Physic" to pamper them.

* * *

Its name is "CASCARETS," and its price is Ten Cents a box.

Cascarets act like Exercise on the Muscles of the Bowels, and make them stronger every time they force these Muscles to act naturally.

The stronger these Muscles propel the food, the stronger does the friction of the food act on the flow of Digestive Juices.

The more of these Juices that act on Food, the more Nutriment does that Food turn into, and the richer nourishment do the little Suction Pumps of the Intestines draw out of it.

This richer nourishment, in turn, gives back more strength to the Bowel-Muscles, so that they need a smaller dose of Cascarets from time to time than the doses preceding it.

This reduction of dose continues till the worst case of Constipation is comfortably, naturally, and nutritiously cured.

But, one big dose won't take the place of ten small doses of Cascarets.

Because, it needs only one Cascaret at a time to stimulate all the Bowel-Muscles enough, without purging, discomfort or loss of nutrition.

Six Cascarets, at a time, would act like the Whirlwind Cathartic you are used to, but six would do less good than one Cascaret at a time.

Because, Six would drive the food through so fast you would get little nutrition from it, and would waste Digestive Juices needed for the next four meals.

If you want a "purge" with all the "gripes," burnings, inside irritation, weak feeling, and stomach upsetting, of common Cathartics, don't use enough Cascarets at a dose to produce that.

But, if you want the same natural action that a six-mile walk in the country would give you, (without the weariness) take one Cascaret at a time, with intervals between, till you reach the exact condition you desire.

* * *

Then, carry the little ten cent "Vest Pocket" box constantly with you, and take a Cascaret whenever you suspect you need it.

One Cascaret at a time will promptly cleanse a foul Breath, or Coated Tongue, thus proving clearly its ready, steady, sure, but mild and effective action.

A coming Headache can be warded off, in short order, by a single Cascaret, and the cause removed.

Heartburn, Gas-belching, Acid-risings in the throat, and Colicky feeling are sure signs of Bowel trouble from food poisons, and should be dealt with promptly.

One Cascaret will stop the coming trouble, move on the Bowel load, and free the Digestive Juices, if that one Cascaret is taken from the Vest Pocket box as soon as the first signs are noticed.

* * *

Don't fail to carry the Vest Pocket Cascaret Box with you constantly.

Form the habit!

Because, you know you won't walk to a Drug Store, nor back to your room, every time your Bowels ought to have a Cascaret.

Therefore, "Wear" them with you, like your watch, or your lead-pencil, and note the splendid effect on your Health and Spirits.

All Druggists sell them—over ten million boxes a year, for six years past.

You can try Cascarets FREE before you buy. Write for Free Sample and booklet, "The Curse of Constipation," best ever printed on the subject. Address Sterling Remedy Company, 374 St. Paul Street, Montreal. 663

MR. CHAMBERLAIN'S AMBITION.

London, April 12.—Members who dined with the tariff reformists two nights ago say Mr. Joseph Chamberlain made a remarkable speech, saying, amongst other things, that he hoped for two things, to live to be a hundred, and to become Prime Minister some day.

ROCKEFELLER'S IS A SAD CASE

Dr. Hillis Says the Young Millionaire's Speech Was Heart-Breaking.

New York, April 12.—In his sermon in Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, Sunday, the Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, referred to the gift of $100,000 made by John D. Rockefeller to the American Board of Foreign Missions and to Rockefeller's son. He said:

"The saddest words in this generation were spoken before Brown University by a young man who is to inherit one of the greatest fortunes in this country. They were spoken in defense of the trusts. Listen to them:

"The American Beauty rose can be produced in all its splendor only by sacrificing the early buds that grow up around it. The rose has 1,000 buds, and to produce the American Beauty the gardener goes around it with a knife and snips 999 that all the strength and beauty may be forced into one bloom."

"In his economic argument this young man tells the working classes brutally that 999 small business men must be snuffed out of existence that his American beauty, the trust, may be produced. Listen to Christ, 'Let the strong bear the burdens of the weak,' and again, 'Give and it shall be given unto you.'

"These words in defense of the trusts are the most heartbreaking things in literature to those who know what is going to come in the future. Can you wonder that after that, when a man gives gifts, we have no gratitude to return."

CALLED UNSPEAKABLY VILLAINOUS.

Pittsburg, April 11.—"What would a good Christian do with Rockefeller's wealth?" was the theme of a sermon delivered in the Second Presbyterian Church, of Pittsburg, Sunday night by the Rev. S. Edward Young. In part Mr. Young said:

"I suppose no clear-headed, unbiased reader of a half dozen histories, favorable and unfavorable, describing the rise of the Standard Oil Company, would doubt that the process of crushing rival concerns, by which it came to affluence, was unspeakably villainous. For myself I would rather go before God to-night in the person of a manslayer, who has deliberately killed his man, than in the person of the head of that company, which, if I understand the facts, has been instrumental in taking almost all the earthly possessions of multitudes of men."

Mr. Young then went on to say that he was in favor of taking the money which had been offered the churches. He said it could not longer, now be returned to its rightful owners, and that it would probably do some good in Church work.

KNIGHTS OF LABOR IN FAVOR OF BILLS

Passed a Resolution Favoring Autonomy Bills as They Stand at Present.

At a meeting held last night Dominion Assembly, 2463, Knights of Labor, adopted a resolution dealing with the Northwest Autonomy Bills, in which it was declared that the autonomy bills should be left as they are, it being unjust to impose upon a minority anything undesirable to them. It was also embodied in the resolution that 75 per cent. of the members of the assembly were in favor of non-sectarian schools and compulsory education.

The resolution read as follows:

Whereas, in the opinion of this body, all Canadians are justified in giving expression to their views through their respective organizations or otherwise, either for or against certain clauses of the Northwest Territories' autonomy bills discussed by the representatives of the people in the House of Commons:

And, whereas, the remarks of some of the members and the criticisms on the part of a section of the Canadian press, have become so violent, intolerable, narrow and illiberal, that they have a tendency to create, to say the least, a feeling of animosity and discord, amongst a hitherto united, prosperous and contented people; And, whereas, many organizations from the Atlantic to the Pacific, have given vent to their feelings, indicating how their neighbor's children should be educated. And, whereas, 75 per cent. of the members of this organization are favorable to a system of free, non-sectarian schools, and compulsory education, yet we consider it intolerable, unjust, tyrannical and unmanly to impose upon any portion of the community anything they do not desire; be it, therefore,

Resolved, that this organization is unanimously in favor of the autonomy bills as they now stand, or in accordance with the wishes of the minority of our fellow-citizens.

SPECKS BEFORE THE EYES.

Seeing Things In The Day Time.

There are Thousands of Persons Afflicted This Way. Ninety-Nine Times Out of One Hundred It Is Caused by Either the Liver, Stomach, Bowels or Digestive Organs.

In no part of the body are the effects of constipation more quickly noticed than in the condition of the eyes. They quickly respond to the poisonous elements which are absorbed into the blood in chronic cases of liver torpidity and sluggish bowel action. When you see a yellowish tinge in the whites of the eyes it shows quickly the biliousness which pervades the whole system; but it is the specks and flitting objects in the vision itself that are even more quickly apparent. Thousands of people see things in the daytime; their vision is blurred, spots come between them and other objects which seem quite intangible, almost imaginary, and as they turn their heads they vanish as with a flash. Such conditions can always be traced to a torpid liver and a congested condition of the bowels, yet can always be cured by the well-advised use of Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills, which cure constipation as if by magic. They regulate the functions of the liver, cleanse the poisons from the blood, remove the bilious elements from the circulation and strengthen the nerves. If your eyes are clouded without an appreciable cause, if you have specks and floating objects before your vision, use Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills and get the poisonous elements out of your blood. Remember they always cure sick headache, constipation and biliousness in one night. 25 cents, all dealers.

LORD CECIL AND MR. CHAMBERLAIN

A Speech Which Shows How Widely the Unionist Party is Divided.

The strongest opponent of Mr. Chamberlain in the House of Commons is Lord Hugh Cecil, that younger son of the late Marquis of Salisbury, who seems likely to attain high rank in the political arena. The radical nature of his difference with the ex-Colonial Secretary regarding fiscal policy is well brough out in a speech delivered to his constituents at Greenwich on March 25, from which we quote the Times' report as follows:—

Lord Hugh Cecil said he had taken an active part in many parts of the country in the fiscal controversy, and had found himself in opposition to some excellent members of the party to which he belonged. How far was he justified? The controversy had been invoked by Mr. Chamberlain and the Tariff Reform League, and since the whole country was invited to express an opinion it was unavoidable that those who differed from Mr. Chamberlain should ut forward their side of the question. Of al the criticisms of himself probably none was more widely regarded than that in respect of the Duke of Denvonshire's letter addressed to an elector of Lewisham some eighteen months ago. He approved of the issue of the Duke of Devonshire's letter, considering the circumstances. Incidentally he and those who thought with him were concerned in preventing the Conservative and Unionist party from becoming wholly protectionist. At the time to which he was alluding it appeared that Mr. Chamberlain was sweeping all before him. Lord Hugh Cecil continued—Even in official quarters there was none of the light that shines now. I might on two occasions have exercised an influence which might have been injurous to the Conservative candidate, with whom I was not in agreement on the fiscal question. Lord Hugh Cecil went on to explain that one of these occasions was the reappointment of Mr. Lyttelton as Colonial Secretary—a critical moment—what he now complained of was that an independent candidate was to be brought in opposition to him, though he was fortunate enough to be supported by the local political organization and by the official representatives of the party in the House of Commons. Continuing, he said;—I am told that my views are open to criticism; but that can only be determined if you have regard to the general question of what members of Parliament ought to do. Members are not sent to Parliament to exercise a merely mechanical function. It is evident that if they were so sent it would be better to have in form, as well as in reality, machines. (Renewed laughtr.) There would be no difficulty in arranging a method by which some sort of proxy might be given to the Government Whips which they might use for the whole Parliament in the name of such and such a borough. (Great laughter.) But no one maintains that members of Parliament should act so. There are circumstances in which you must exercise your own judgment. The mechanism must always be subordinated to the appeal to the individual conscience and judgment whenever the issue is of sufficient magnitude to make such an appeal reasonable. I am not, therefore, careful to defend the detailed votes I have given in this Parliament. I would ask, rather, to be judged by a general view of the purpose I have tried to pursue. The general purpose I had in view was to maintain, first of all, the righteousness, and wisdom of adhering in its main lines to the fiscal policy which we call free trade; and, secondly, the right of every Conservative member and every person belonging to the Conservative party, whether he be in Parliament or out of Parliament, to maintain free trade principles without derogating from his character as a Conservative. Loud cheers.)

OPINION OF LATE PREMIER.

Mr. Chamberlain's letter raises several points of controversy, with some of which I will deal very briefly. He made a reference to opinions which he believed were entertained by the late Lord Salisbury, my father. That is a matter which it is not necessary for me to deal with. But I may say that the complexion of the late Lord Salisbury's opinions of Mr. Chamberlain's policy has always been perfectly well known—a matter absolutely well known, and quite unquestionable to all those who saw Lord Salisbury and conversed with him on political topics during the last three months of his life. Every member of his family knew them; every gentleman who had occasion to meet him knew them quite well. There was no doubt about them at all. Mr. Chamberlain has used some very interesting quotations from Lord Salisbury's earlier speeches, it is, perhaps, right to point out that the salient feature of Mr. Chamberlain's policy as developed in May and June, 1903—the salient feature which was new and aroused and engaged public attention from one end of the country to the other—was the taxation of food, and upon the taxation of food—upon the exciting controversy which followed — Lord Salisbury's opinion was never in doubt. It may be taken as absolutely certain and unquestionable that on the taxation of food he differed from Mr. Chamberlain. (Loud cheers.) There are other matters which well deserve attention. Mr. Chamberlain has not been all his life a member of the Conservative party. He entered it rather late in life (laughter), and he is not, perhaps, so well acquainted with the rules that govern it as those who have been fortunate enough to be born within its ranks. Certainly it has never been the custom of the Conservative party to take its policy from what we are accustomed to call the caucus. Singularly enough, Mr. Chamberlain makes no appeal to the authority of Mr. Balfour; he appeals to the caucus, as though he were still dealing with some question of Radical municipal life in Birmingham in the seventies. (Laughter, cries and a voice, "Just like Joey.")

CONSERVATISM NEW AND OLD.

Having paid a personal tribute to Mr. Chamberlain for his lofty conceptions and his loyal friendship for Mr. Balfour, the speaker could not claim for Mr. Chamberlain that he had always been, strictly speaking, a follower of the tactics which Mr. Balfour laid down in his speeech at Shemfeld. The main feature of the Prime Minister's policy was called "fiscal retaliation." He had never opposed fiscal retaliation in principle. Nor had he ever criticized it at any length in detail. His position was a perfectly simple one. Retaliation was perfectly sound in principle. If we could gain an advantage by threatening or imposing a particular duty against a foreign country which would induce that country to give us better terms in negotiations, we were perfectly entitled to take that course. The only question was whether it would give us an advantage or a disadvantage. He accepted Mr. Balfour's policy of a Colonial Conference as Mr. Balfour put it forward. He did not want to set any limits on the subjects the Colonial Conference should discuss. He claimed, therefore, on these matters a complete acquittal on all party grounds. He could not help thinking that there was something behind the political position at Greenwich. Why did Mr. Chamberlain write a letter to the borough? Greenwich was not a suburb of Birmingham. (Loud laughter and cheers.) It was plainly now the intention to get rid of the old Conservative party and substitute one bound together by protection. He would resist such a project to the utmost of his power (loud cheers), not only in the interests of free trade, to which he so strongly adhered, but in the interests of Conservatism, in the interests of union between Great Britain and Ireland, the Established Church, the defence of property, and the just regulations of the relation of capital and labor. If Conservatism was once subordinated to a protectionist policy, there would be a great and increasing Radical movement. Therefore he was opposed to the new party and all it stood for. Its methods were repulsive, they were the methods of dragooning. But the rest of England was not like Birmingham; people did not like to be ordered about or bullied into a policy. Englishmen had learned to value independence, and when the time came for obtaining the decision of the electorate on the controversy he would not fear the ordeal in Greenwich, because he knew that the people of that borough and of the whole country loved liberty and justice, and in the name of liberty and justice he appealed for their support. (Loud cheers).

Fruit is Nature's Laxative.
Fruit contains certain principles which act like a charm on the liver—and keep the whole system well and strong. But these principles in the fruit juices are too weak to have any marked effect on the internal organs. The value of Fruit-a-tives
or Fruit Liver Tablets
lies in the secret process by which they are made. The fruit juices are so combined that they have an entirely different effect from fresh fruit. Their action is the action of fruit greatly intensified. They have a marked effect on the liver—toning it up—making it active. "Fruit-a-tives" are, without doubt, the only complete cure for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney Troubles.

SCOTSMEN PIPED STRATHCONA AWAY

"Auld Lang Syne" and "Will Ye No Come Back Again" were sung by a crowd of Montreal citizens last night as Lord Strathcona left the city for New York, from whence he sailed for England to-day. Among those who were at the station to say "au revoir" to His Lordship were many prominent Montrealers representing both business and social life as well as a number of the members of the Scottish societies of the city.

Fifteen minutes before the time of departure of the train His Lordship arrived at the station in a cab. Escorted by Mr. William McNab, vice-president of the Caledonian Society, and Mr. W. Ramsay, president of the St. Andrew's Society, and led by Piper Matheson playing "The Cock o' the North," His Lordship walked from his cab to the private car Metapedia, which was attached to the Rutland train. A general handshaking followed while the pipes skirled out "Will ye no Come Back Again," and when His Lordship at last stepped into the car those on the platform joined hands and sang "Auld Lang Syne" like true hearted Scots. A few minutes later the train pulled out amidst rousing cheers.

Before his departure Lord Strathcona stated that he would likely return to Canada in about six months. His Lordship told Mr. McNab that the next time he came over he would stay a little longer and would probably advise the Scottish societies of his coming in order that they might have an opportunity of extending any form of reception which they had hoped to give on the occasion of this visit.

Among those at the station were: Sir William Macdonald, Sir George Drummond, Senator Mackay, Senator Forget, Col. Gardner, Messrs. C. C. Chipman, W. McNab, Wm. Ramsay, Major Cantlie, Hugh Paton, Robert Meighen, Mr. Whyte, second vice-president of the C.P.R., Dr. Adami, Dr. Birkett, Dr. Craik, F. B. McNamee, A. F. Riddle, J. M. Campbell, D. Guthrie, F. S. Maclennan, W. Baker, assistant to the first vice-president of the C.P.R.; David Seath, Wm. Seath, H. Carmichael, W. C. McAllister, E. H. Copeland, James Wright, R. J. Duguid, J. C. McDiarmid, J. A. CAPT. LOYE WAS RE-INSTATED

Enquiry at the City Hall Fell Through—Was No Prosecution.

The proposed investigation into the indirect charges of bribery preferred against Police Captain Loye, by J. B. Pare, restaurant keeper, St. Catherine street, fell through in rather startling fashion last night, when the Police Committee met to proceed with the case. None of those connected with the prosecution put in an appearance. Mr. Pare was absent, Mr. J. A. Drouin, the prosecuting lawyer did not appear, and four witnesses, Leo Pare, A. Dupont, 28a St. Justin street; Joseph Robert, 249a St. Lawrence street, and Joseph Roberge, 393 Cadieux street, were also among the absentees. As a result, Captain Loye was reinstated in his position, as police officer—which position he has held for thirty years—and after the Committee had expresssed satisfaction at the turn affairs had taken, the inquiry broke up. The case, however, is still in the Superior Court, and will come up in due time.

Ald St. Denis is authority for the statement that the witnesses who failed to put in an appearance last night, will, if the Mayor gives the word, be arrested for contempt

A GOOD IDEA.

"In future," said Ald. St. Denis, "when a charge like this is brought up, or a case of this kind is before the public, both the alleged giver of the bribe and the alleged taker of the same will be prosecuted. Both are guilty. Captain Loye has cleared himself of the insinuation and is fully reinstated. He has borne a good reputation and has, through no fault of .... own, been subjected to a great deal of worry and trouble."

The facts of the case will be still fresh in the public memory. Mr. Pare, a saloon keeper, 1992 St. Catherine street, was summoned about five weeks ago, on a charge of keeping his restaurant open after hours, the complaint coming, not from Capt. Loye, but from the Central Office, at the City Hall.

When the case came up in the Recorder's Court, Mr. Drouin, Pare's lawyer, in examining the police officer, asked if it were true that he (the captain) had ever received money or other inducements from Mr. Pare for "protection." Capt. Loye denied, and upon Mr. Drouin's pressing the question, the case in hand was adjourned for further investigation into the alleged shortcoming of Capt. Loye. He was suspended—but until last night nothing was done in the matter. Public feeling, on both sides of the matter, reached a high pitch, and developments were expected at the Committee's enquiry.

Nearly all the members of the Police Committee were present, and at eight o'clock, the hour set for the hearing, Ald. St. Denis, Ald. Walsh, Ald. Wilson and Ald. Paquin were in their places, with the Chief of Police.

Upon the appearance of Capt. Loye, Ald. St. Denis called the names of those interested in the prosecution, and following their non-appearance, made a short resume of the facts of the case.

He explained that the witnesses had not seen fit, for some reason, to push the charge, if such it could be called, against Capt. Loye; and in view of the latter's suspension it would be but fair to hear his version of the story. Afterwards, the Committee could do as it seemed right.

"What action has been taken in the matter so far?" asked Ald. Walsh.

"None," was the reply. "It is up in the Superior Court, I believe, but so far no direct charge has been laid. They are afraid to do, apparently."

Captain Loye, with a worried look upon his face, at the request of Ald. Walsh, made a statement. He said that he was not quite sure of the charges laid against him, as they seemed to be mere insinuations; but his hands were absolutely clean.

"We should reinstate him," was Ald. Walsh's opinion. "He has seen thirty years of unblemished service, and we must do the right thing."

"Gentlemen," continued Captain Loye, "there is not a man in Canada with a better reputation than I bear. I have been in the force for thirty years—a long time—and in all that period, though I have handled thousands of prisoners, not one charge has ever been put at my door. I have been in charge of a station for twenty-three years—with the same reputation."

"You are reinstated"—said Ald. St. Denis.

"Thank you," was the answer, "I would——"

"Go on and do your duty," laughed the chairman.

"The Chief won't call this a black mark?" queried the police officer as he turned to go.

"Oh, that's all right, Capt. Loye," remarked the Chief, and the inquiry was over. The next step in the case is the proposed charge of contempt to be brought against the non-appearing witnesses.

THE HERALD

Established 1808.

MONTREAL, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12

MR. PRINGLE TOO.

The go-as-you-please on the Conservative side of the House continues. Mr. Pringle, of Cornwall and Stormont, has thrown over Mr. Borden's leadership and fallen back upon that of Sir John Macdonald, of happy memory. Mr. Pringle, undeterred by anything that may have happened, clings to the belief that Sir John Macdonald knew a great deal about the intentions of those who framed the constitution of this Dominion. Sir John wrote a letter to a political friend in Manitoba in which he expressed the opinion that the act passed under his own supervision in 1871 was intended to secure separate schools to the minority in that Province, and Mr. Pringle sees nothing to make him believe the intention in 1875 was the opposite, or that the underlying conditions which dictated such provisions have materially altered since. And he is ready to take his chances with his Ontario constituency in supporting the Government in its present attitude, which he finds conformable to Sir John Macdonald's conceptions of statesmanship.

The Montreal correspondent of the Toronto News announces that Mr. Ames, Conservative member for St. Antoine division of Montreal, will speak in support of the bill, probably to-day. The Herald expected Mr. Ames would give his voice and vote for the principle of toleration, so that his announcement comes as no great surprise. It is quite impossible to see how a man with his experience could do otherwise. As Judge Robidoux so well said in his charming little address at the Monument National last night, the contact of the races in Montreal tends to free us from the evil effects of appeals to prejudice, of which in other places we hear so much. Meantime, while the go-as-you-please is interesting, it is becoming farcical to talk of an Opposition.

MASKS OFF!

If it is true that Mr. Chamberlain used any such language as that attributed to him by some who were at the recent meeting of Tariff Reform members, he not only gave the broadest kind of a hint that an election is imminent, but also made a dangerous admission as to the motive underlying his actions of the past two years. If Mr. Chamberlain gives the word, Mr. Balfour must go to the country. Everybody knew that long ago. But everyone suspected long ago that Mr. Chamberlain wanted, a weak Liberal Government to come in so that he might soon come back as Prime Minister. Captain Lee, one of his staunchest friends, frankly stated this view to The Herald's representative two years ago. The only explanation of Mr. Balfour's extraordinary behavior that fits all the facts is that he did not assent to the proposals for his own side-tracking, the ruin of his reputation as a public man, and abdication in favor of Mr. Chamberlain. If, as is reported, Mr. Chamberlain has now said he wants to be Prime Minister—and to live to be a hundred, then the mask that has been worn more or less straight for two years may be said to have fallen at last. If it has, the trouble is only beginning.

A WORD ABOUT LAURIER.

Several times, during the progress of this controversy over the educational clauses of the Autonomy Bills, Sir Wilfrid Laurier has been reminded by his critics that while he, a Roman Catholic, is Prime Minister of Canada, there never has been a Catholic Prime Minister of Great Britain, or a Catholic President of the United States. In so far as it can properly be said that his election represents a display of toleration on the part of the Protestant community, there can be no harm, there can be nothing indeed but good, in drawing attention to the circumstance. It is, undoubtedly, a splendid thing that in Canada a province like Nova Scotia should be found returning an absolutely solid delegation to support a party leader, notwithstanding that he is French by origin and Catholic in religion. The outlook for the Dominion was never so good as on the day when Laurier became Prime Minister, for on that day the people of Quebec came to believe, for the first time since they entered Confederation, that one of their kind could aspire with confidence to the highest office in the gift of the Canadian people, and on that day, and since that day, the people of the other Provinces received indisputable proof that where the name and fame of Canada are concerned there is no essential difference between those of us who speak English and those of us who speak French, between those of us who are Protestants and those of us who are Catholics.

But let us not too readily follow some of Sir Wilfrid's critics where they are guilty of self-deception. Let us not join in the implied insult to Laurier when he is told that his acceptability to the rest of the Dominion is due to his having been false to himself. If we go upon the assumption that he, French and Catholic, is Prime Minister only because he does not represent French or Catholic in any essential, what has been gained for national good feeling by his election? Say to the resident of Quebec "See what we have done for you, choosing for Prime Minister one of yourselves who is hostile to all your aspirations," and what have you gained? Either he resents it, or he has so little of manliness in him that resentment would be the better part. Say to the Catholic, "See what we have done for you, choosing for Prime Minister one of yourselves who in no wise represents you on matters on which you and we differ," and what have you accomplished? People who would thank you for such compliments would be serfs in spirit, serfs therefore in fact, and unworthy of citizenship in a community of free men. Better far, for the manhood of Canada, there should never be a French or Catholic Prime Minister, better two-fifths of the population should be forever unrepresented in that great office, than that it should be obtained once by the forfeiture of self-respect.

And besides, let us not be blind to the truth. Laurier is Prime Minister because he does represent Quebec. He has gone through situations of great difficulty in the past, just because Quebec trusted him, knew him to be bone of its bone and flesh of its flesh, and would not betray its aspirations. Does anyone suppose Laurier won in Quebec in 1896 because he fought the bishops, or was it not because the people trusted his declaration that he could, by conciliation, get the essentials of justice for the Catholics of Manitoba? Does anybody suppose Quebec voted for Laurier in 1900 because he sent troops to Africa, or was it not because that had been done by Laurier in a way to respect the feelings of Quebec, when his enemies were overwhelming Quebec with insult?

And it comes with rather bad grace from Ontario, which gave Laurier forty-four followers out of ninety-two in 1896, and which greatly increased the majority against him in 1900, to tell him the Premiership is his reward for misrepresenting his own. Laurier is Prime Minister, the Liberals are in power, because his own people believe in him, and because Liberals of the other race, and the other religion, know that, true to himself, he cannot be, has not been, false to them or to their common country. They have been true to Laurier, be it said to their honor, as Sir John Thompson's political friends were not true to him. Liberalism, respect for the conscientious opinions of others, that spirit which will not brook oppression for conscience sake and which in its turn will not oppress, lives in the Liberal party, as it did not live in the surroundings where Sir John Thompson drank of the cup of bitterness. That is why Laurier, Catholic and French, can be Prime Minister of Canada and undisputed leader of his party. And the party and the country owe more to him than he owes to them, when the accounts are audited and a balance brought down.

The Man in the Iron Mask

Montrealers will pray that whatever may happen to Mr. Hyde in the Equitable Life controversy, nothing will occur to interfere with those yearly visits of French writers in which he has taken so keen an interest. A lecture like that delivered by Mr. Funck-Brentano last night will be remembered as the distinguishing event of the year by hundreds of people in whose lives the literary graces count for something. Such a lecture would be a rare treat anywhere, and in Montreal, for the size of it, literary people have fewer opportunities for such enjoyment than the more fortunate ones in other places.

A good many of us, no doubt, knew before that the Man in the Iron Mask had been identified, and that he was not the person who had been introduced to us by that Dumas who is called by Andrew Lang Alexander the Great. But it was a real pleasure to listen while the discoverer built up the legend from Voltaire's younger brother of Louis XIV., through the familiar stages of twin brother and elder brother until the man in the mask became the Grand Monarch himself, and then no monarch at all but only a tricky Italian Minister of State, who, having sold his master's possessions to Louis in secret bargain, promptly sold the secret to the enemy of Louis, and was arrested, carried off, and kept in jail till he died, for his pains. He little thought how much he helped an imaginative people to topple over the throne on which sat the decendants of the monarch who took this revenge for his deception.

M. Funck-Brentano—quite a giant, by the way—is altogether a charming lecturer. He speaks rapidly, even nervously, but he has a journalist's way of telling all that should be told, and leaving out the rest. The address was scholarly, as we had the right to expect, and the pictures of documents, keeps, and battlements, were such as a schoiar might have been expected to employ.

Judge Robidoux's speech of introduction was so graceful as to be "alone worth the price of admission."

Stick and Smile.

Leigh Mitchell Hodges,
If you've got a job that tires you,
And the heartless cuss that hires you
Swears and kicks, but never fires you—
Wait awhile!
He will some day die of fuming,
And while funeral bells are booming
Your good-luck star will be looming.
Stick and smile!

If the world tastes sour and bitter,
And you sicken of the litter,
Think some other world is fitter
For your style—
Lay aside the little powder;
Life is short enough—don't crowd 'er;
Step up prouder, speak up louder—
Stick and smile!

If the folks that live around you
Choose to scandalise and pound you
With false tales and daily hound you—
Let 'em bile.
Let 'em waste their steam in lyin';
You just save up yours for tryin'
Better things—they'll do the cryin'!
Stick and smile!

When you're busted—when your blue;
When your worn out through and through;
When you don't know what to do,
Think a while,
This world has to bear with pouters,
Whiners, croakers, groaners, doubters—
But in heaven they want glad shouters!
Stick and smile!

Fate of the Chess Player.

(Charles Kinsley.)

So Pillsbury succumbs to the bane of great chess playing—overstrain of brain force. He follows Steinitz, the marvelous analyzer and strategist and Paul Morphy, who was probably the greatest genius of the three, having an unexplainable instinct toward success. In power of instantaneously photographing on his brain and retaining there the pictures of many games as they simultaneously developed, Pillsbury, no doubt, excelled his great predecessors and this gave him pre-eminence where other and greater masters could not follow. It is a brain and nerve destroying game when over indulged.

THE LONEY TRIAL.

Editor Herald:

Sir,—In your issue of 30th ult., under a Cornwall date, an article states that Allan Loney had the reputation of being "one of the roughest players in Eastern Ontario." The evidence did not warrant any such statement. It was proven that young Loney was never ruled off a hockey match. During the match of the unfortunate occurrence, when seven players were ruled off Mr. Loney was not so treated.

As a relative of the young lad Loney, I consider it only fair to him and his friends that the wrong impression conveyed by the item of news in Herald referred to, be corrected.

Respectfully yours,
D. MONROE.

Cornwall, April 12.

"Shall I invite Mr. Alltalk? I think he is out of town."
"No; he might have returned."

A False Issue

(Montreal Witness.)

There is something curious about the duality of the school issue. Every one knows that all the feeling over it is due to abhorrence of the separate school principle, and of the sacrifice which its adoption involves of the mightiest engineery at the disposal of a country for nationalizing its people. The people of the United States have everywhere acted despotically on this question, and are very proud of the results in melting a thousand peoples into one. Canada, on the contrary, started with the recognition of two peoples. It was recognized that what maintained Canada as a separate nationality on this continent, and as an appanage of the British crown, was the fact that it had a large French Roman Catholic population, who were, or rather whose leaders were, out of sympathy with the American revolution. It was at first thought to develop the country as a French Catholic country. This idea had later to be modified on the increase of British settlement. But, throughout, the free exercise by the Frency of their language, customs and religion was understood to be a basal principle of our constitution. This recognition has made them loyal as a people to the British crown. Unfortunately, we must say, as a people; for it has also had the effect of keeping them a separate people, while in the United States similar populations have been merged into the mass. As between the two countris, however, there is no question as to which has shown the largest tolerance. The Roman Catholic has a conscience about his schools. We deny the rightness or the wisdom of that conscience. It originates, we are convinced, with religious guides who have not sufficient confidence in the faith which they teach not to fear that the mixing of their children with others would make shipwreck of that faith. But whatever its source, it has to be recognized as a fact, and if so, it is in the same category with other claims based on liberty of conscience.

What is curious is that, while every one feels that repugnance to the very principle of separate schools is the real source of the feeling against the education clauses of the constitutions of the new provinces, all those who have expressed themselves strongly on the subject, whether public bodies, passing resolutions, or orators, or newspapers, have had an instinctive unwillingness to allege this. In every case the fight is made upon provincial rights. Even the Globe has set interference with provincial rights as the danger which threatens the country. This mode of arguing has its weak side. The strength of Canada does not lie in provincial separateness, but in national solidarity; and this universal shouting for provincial rights as paramount, and this speaking of the national government as an outside power which has no business with local affairs, is, nationally speaking, a very bad sign. It is not hard to understand the strength of provincialism in Ontario, whose whole history has been an effort to get free from the adjoining province, which at one time had too powerful a sway over her. But it always seems strange to us when this cry is echoed among the minority in Quebec, which has everything to lose by it. The declaration that education is absolutely a matter for the individual province, and that any national stipulation with regard to it is an outrage, sounds very strange coming from people who would not submit for a moment to such a system of schools as the majority in their own province would consider ideal. When asked if they would so submit, they say with surprise, "Why, that is a totally different thing, the Quebec system would be sectarian, while the common school system should be so carried on as to offend no religion." They do not see that this is begging the question. Of course the two ideals are very different. If it were not so, there would be none of this trouble. But just as strong as is our objection to the clerical school for our children, so strong is the objection of the Roman Catholic for the non-clerical school. People may say they do not believe this; that many Roman Catholics in their hearts prefer the non-sectarian school. This is not to the purpose; they say they do hold these conscientious objections, and who but themselves can say what they believe? When they cease to prefer separate schools they will presumably have none. We may say it is only the priests who want the separate schools, but our system of government is based on persuasion, and, if they can persuade the people more than we can, we have to accept the declarations of our fellow citizens as to what they really do want.

But as to parliament, which represents the ration, having nothing to say in the matter, it is against all the analogies of our history. Not one province has yet entered into confederation without some stipulation as to the educational provisions which should prevail in it. Education was to be a matter of exclusive provincial control under the initial limitations agreed upon. To make stipulations in the present case is held by a multitude of writers to be beyond the competency of parliament. There are those on the other hand who hold that the country as a whole has a right to determine the terms on which any region shall obtain provincial rights, and that new provinces cannot claim immunity from limitations in the supposed interest of the whole which the older ones have to submit to. If this be so the determination whether there shall be any educational stipulations, and if so what, rests obviously with parliament. If this latter view is correct, the whole claim on the basis of provincial rights falls to the ground. In any case it is given prominence to cover what the objectors do not seem to want to dwell on, namely, that their real objection is to the separate schools. It is curious to find the Conservative party in this matter coming out as the champion of provincial rights, and the Liberals, who have in the past always been the champions of provincial rights, now declaring for national responsibility. This, however, is easily understood. Nine years ago the positions were reversed, and at that time the Conservative party went so far as to propose remedial legislation to force separate schools on Manitoba. It cannot very well now come out as opposed to that principle, but it hopes to crystallize the strong sentiment which exists in the whole of the Protestant majority against separate schools, and possibly to hold some followers who are in favor of them, by a resolution declaring simply for provincial rights.

Cooking Without Fire.

(World Work, Eng.)

At various recent food exhibitions there has been on show an invention for heating food without a fire and without the usual troublesome accessories of pots and pans. An innocent looking tomato soup tin has four holes punched at one end, and immediately that is done the whole thing begins to fizz and boil. It is left for five minutes, until the heating materials evaporate, turned upside down, and left for another five minutes; then it is opened in the ordinary way, when thoroughly cooked soup can be poured out. The food, which is prepared by some well known firms, is of the first quality. About a dozen varieties of soup can be had, and the same number of entrees, besides coffee, cocoa and chocolate.

It is a great find for the motorist on a tour for business or camping for pleasure. Room has to be found in the car for the required number of tins of the usual tinned food size, and after a meal, of course, the used tins can be thrown away. A hundred other instances immediately suggest themselves, in which such an invention would be invaluable—as an emergency ration for the soldier on the field, while reconnoitering, on outpost duty, or in bivouac; as a means of provision for the aeronaut, the sportsman, the yachtsman, the sailor and the explorer, for a solitary occupant of a city flat who has grown weary of restaurant meals, as an ally of the housewife when cook is ill or non-existent. It might even be adopted by the patient members of a "first night" theatre queue, or the adventurous loyalist who waits long hours in the hope of viewing some imperial procession. And the wonder of it is that no one has forestalled the ingenious American discoverer, for the secret of the process is that cold water poured on lime brings it to boiling point.

Humor Crept In.

(Toronto Star.)

In a controversy so heated it is refreshing to dwell on a couple of humorous interludes. One of these occurred when Mr. Staples of Macdonald, Man., pitted his squeaky little voice against the tremendous speaking organ of the Minister of Customs in an exchange of courtesies across the floor of the house. Mr. Paterson, as everybody knows, has the largest volume of sound of any rhetorician in Canada, if not in North America, and when he is in good vein, he can make more uproar than Jove's thunderbolts. So when Mr. Staples' shrill pipe bucked up against the Minister's magnificent diapason, the sense of contrast was tickled at once. It was indeed, very much like Niagara Falls talking to a tin whistle.

Tables No Money Could Buy.

(Westminster Gazette)

"No doubt," writes a correspondent, "the writing-table made from the beams of the old Bluecoat School, which as you record, was sold a few days ago for £17, was worth the money; but it can scarcely be considered cheap in comparison with that oak table certified to be the property of John Bunyan, on which he wrote "Pilgrim's Progress," for which the highest offer at an auction sale at Richmond not long ago was two shillings. What price, we wonder, would that table fetch which Pitt and Fox spoke from, and which is preserved in the members' tea-room at the House of Commons or that dark, highly polished mahogany table which is treasured at Highclere Castle and on which Napoleon signed his abdication. Among the Addington heirlooms is a priceless table on which Nelson sketched the plan of his operations for Pitt before going to death and immortal fame at Trafalgar; and what money would buy that other table which bears this inscription: 'Charles, Prince of Wales, breakfasted at this table in the low dining-room at Gask, September 11, 1745'?"

FOR YOUR STOMACH

When you eat your dinner to-night, take a thought about your little stomach.

First you fill it with soups, then fish, meats, salads, a dozen and one other things, and wind up with ice cream, coffee, and perhaps wine. You see you are pretty hard on your stomach, to make it bear all these cultivated tastes of your's eating and drinking, morning, noon and night. Is it any wonder it is sore, tired, painful and sour? How can it help burning, paining, giving off fermented gasses. Why don't you try Hutch tablets? Get them at any drug store, and give your stomach some assistance. Take it a day or two and you will have to confess that Hutch is the greatest stuff for a paining stomach you ever came across in your life.

Don't forget! Take one after each meal. This makes Hutch do the most good. A big bottle, 200 for $1.00.

FISCAL QUESTION WAS DISCUSSED

Lord Balfour Introduced Motion on Proposed Colonial Conference.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

London, April 12.—A debate of considerable importance took place yesterday in the House of Lords on the proposed colonial conference, when Lord Balfour of Burleigh moved that before the constituencies were asked to determine upon the desirability of such a conference they should be informed under what conditions the conference will be summoned, what colonies and dependencies will be invited to send representatives, and how far any decision arrived at will be held binding upon the Government of the United Kingdom. Lord Balfour reminded the House that Mr. Chamberlain in 1903, said nothing could be a greater misfortune than that any decision come to by the conference should be afterwards rejected on a submission to the country. As he understood it the Government barred the possibility of any preference on raw materials. Lord Balfour wished to ask another question as to what guarantee this country would have that the colonies would come to a free unfettered conference. The colonies were protectionist. They would come to the conference with the idea that their general system of protection should not be interfered with. He saw no reason why Great Britain should not enter into a conference with the same understanding regarding her system of free trade. In conclusion he regarded the taxation of food in preference to the colonies as the road to certain disaster.

The Duke of Marlborough, colonial under secretary, said the conditions under which that conference was to be held had been thoroughly explained by the Prime Minister. The time had now come when the Government meant to refrain from an abstract discussion of the ideal, and attempt to ascertain proposals, and under what terms and considerations these proposals would be deemed binding on the Government of the day. If returned to power the Government would summon a conference with the colonies, unhampered by any precise instructions. The unfettered, uncontrolled representatives attending it would be asked to discuss the idea of close union on a commercial or any other basis that commended itself to them, but no scheme would be considered binding until submitted to the electors of this country. As an argument in favor of preference, he said since Canada granted preference, the imports from Canada to England had increased from six and a half to twelve millions sterling in seven years.

Earl Beauchamp said the Government apparently had given it upon the idea that the colonies had not made any offer to the Mother Country. The colonies had been used as pawns in a political game. In time the Government should openly declare their views.

Lord Spencer said every delegate from the colonies would have instructions, so why not the representatives of the Mother Country? The best method would be to submit the question of protection and free trade to the electorate and have a conference afterwards.

Lord Lansdowne thought it would be unfair to ask the colonies to send most representative statesmen to this country and then tell them they might not discuss the questions which had been discussed at previous conferences. At the same time it was well understood that there were certain limitations beyond which neither side can make concessions to the other. It was idle to expect the colonies will agree to any change in their fiscal system which would wipe out of existence those industries they had built up. On our side it was perfectly well known we were unlikely to listen to any changes that would have the effect of food or restricting the supply of raw material, but any attempt to hamper the conference by minute instructions could only lead to very undignified and unfruitful discussion.

Lord Rosebery twitted Lord Lansdowne upon the fact that the conference was an afterthought of the Unionists. It was called not to unite the Empire, but their own party.

Lord Balfour's motion, opposed by the Government, was negatived without division.

Maj. for Hon. Lomer Gouin 2916

MINER HEIR TO $200,000.

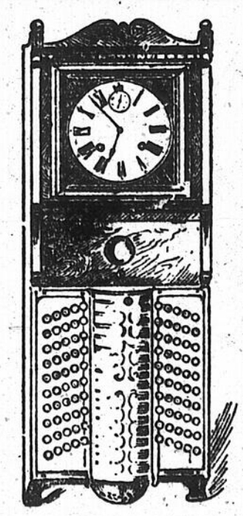

Halifax, April 12.—Robert H. O'Callaghan, a helper at No. 2 colliery, Glace Bay, has been left $200,000 by an uncle, who died some time ago in England. O'Callaghan was born in Malta, and was brought to Halifax by his father, who was in the Royal Engineers. The father dying, the child was put in the Protestant Orphanage, whence, he was taken to Sydney. Two years ago he began work at one of the collieries. Diligent enquiries were made from England concerning the young man, but at first he disregarded them, but recent investigations have shown that he is the man indicated as heir to a large fortune. He will take immediate steps to prove his claim.

"I was helpless and bedridden for years from a bad rupture. No truss could hold. Doctors said I would die if not operated upon. I fooled them all and cured myself by the Rice Method. TO GET INSTRUCTOR ACROSS ATLANTIC

Catholic School Board Will Endeavor to Secure Manual Training Instructor in France.

At a meeting of the Roman Catholic School Commissioners last night, it was decided to write Mr. Hector Fabre, the Canadian Commissioner in Paris, and Vice-Consul of Belgium, to secure a competent instructor for the department of manual training that is to be inaugurated in the city schools. The necessity of eachers speaking two languages debars applicants from the United States.

A letter was sent to Mgr. Racicot, expressing the regret of the board at his resignation, and its appreciation of his services while school commissioner. Mr. J. C. Franchere was re-engaged as teacher of drawing in the schools under the supervision of the board.

The question of making Saturday a holiday in the schools was discussed, but no action was taken, pending an investigation into existing conditions. The board granted the request of the central board of examiners for the use of the Catholic Commercial Academy and the Montcalm School during the four days of examinations, beginning June 27.

Those present at the meeting were:—Ald. D. Gallery, M.P.; Mr. C. Piche, M.P.; Ald. Vallieres, Rev. Abbe Trole, Rev. M. Callaghan, Rev. T. Perrier, and Mr. P. G. Martineau.

PAN-RUSSIAN CONGRESS ADOPTED RESOLUTIONS

St. Petersburg, April 12.—Another meeting of the Pan-Russian Congress of Attorneys was held here yesterday and a resolution was adopted favoring the removal of the autocratic regime and the proclamation of a democratic constitution on the basis of universal suffrage and a secret ballot.

It is announced that the attorneys intend to conduct a propaganda throughout Russia, to educate the people politically and, if necessary, to arm them for physical resistance to arbitrary action by the authorities. No arrests have followed these meetings, at which words were not minced, and open defiance of the authorities was evident.

At another meeting held last night the barristers decided to cancel a clause of the resolutions in which it was proposed to furnish the people with arms to resist arbitrary acts. The meeting last night decided that such extreme action would defeat the entire object of the association.

TO EXPEL BARRISTERS.

St. Petersburg, April 12.—Governor-General Trepoff has asked for a list of the barristers who attended yesterday's pan-Russian congress of barristers, at which liberal resolutions were passed, and which was dispersed by the police. It is believed that Trepoff wants the names with a view of expelling the offending barristers from the city.

FORBIDDEN TO MEET.

London, April 12.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times says he believes that the representatives of the Zemtovs, who are expected to shortly assemble at St. Petersburg, will be forbedden to meet, owing to the revolutionary character of the barristers' gatherings. Many arrests of barristers are rumored to be impending.

A NEW SUBURB ON A NEW SCHEME

"Northmount" Offers Many Features of Interest to the Crowded Montrealer.

The general encroachment of business establishments on the residential sections of the city and the ever increasing cost of living within the city limits is forcing many Montrealers to seek out homes in the suburban districts, where though somewhat inconvenienced by being farther removed from their places of business, they are able to obtain houses at reasonable rents and have the advantage of the pure air of the country. "Northmount" is the proposed name of what promises to be in the near future, one of the prettiest of these outlying residential districts. It is situated at the back of the mountain between the towns of Outremont and Cote des Neiges and at present consists of a group of pretty cottages which have been erected on Maplewood Avenue by the Estate Dame N. M. Lemaviéer. These houses are to be sold on a novel plan that presents many features of interest to those who are desirous of acquiring homes of their own. Twenty cottages, ten on each side of the avenue, are almost completed and will be ready for occupation on May 1, while about twenty-five more are to be erected during the summer.

The site on which these cottages have been built, is considered to be one of the best on the island of Montreal, situated on high ground on the northern slope of the mountain, it is free from dampness and other qualities likely to foster disease. Maplewood avenue is a wide street with a double car track. Wide sidewalks have been laid and shade trees are to be planted on each side. The Bell Telephone Company has connections on the avenue and a telephone can be installed in any of the houses. Twenty minutes on the cars takes you from the City Post Office to Maplewood avenue.

There are churches of all denominations and both Protestant and Catholic schools in Cote des Neiges and Outremont. Both places are only a few minutes walk from the avenue.

The cottages are constructed of wood and are all painted white but no two are alike in finish or in style of architecture. Each is about twenty-five feet from the road and is placed on a plot of ground with 100 feet frontage and a depth of 110 feet. They are of different sizes, the smallest containing seven rooms and the largest fifteen. The interior arrangements are most modern and include electric light, gas and water connections, open plumbing, and everything that will contribute to the comfort of the occupants.

OCCUPY WHILE YOU BUY.

The system by which these houses are to be sold will enable the buyer to live in his house during the time that he is paying for it. Ten per cent. of the value of the house is to be paid in cash on occupation and ten per cent. is to be paid each year for nine years in monthly instalments. At the expiration of that time the house becomes the property of the tenant. The prices range from $2,000 to $4,000. It is expected that no difficulty will be experienced in finding occupants of a good class for the houses, and, indeed, several have been sold already. Mr. Gohier, the manager of the estate and agent for the houses is willing to take anyone who is respectable, and is willing even to provide a home for that person much abused by landlords—the man with a large family of children. "Children?" said Mr. Gohier to the Herald this morning, "No we will have no objection to children provided their parents are respectable. I have youngsters of my own and I know that Maplewood avenue is just the place for children. They have plenty of room to play there and will benefit by the fresh air."

ONTARIO BUDGET BROUGHT DOWN

Lt.-Col. Matheson Figures Out a Deficit of $480,351.

Toronto, April 12.—(Special.) — Hon. Col. Matheson, who for so many years was the Opposition's only financial critic in the Legislature, in his capacity as Treasurer of a Conservative Administration, delivered his first budget address yesterday afternoon. He spoke for two hours and twenty minutes, and a great deal of his time was taken up in explanation of the various funds, and other matters connected with finances, for the benefit of the new members of the House. His address, therefore, was somewhat discursive and less specific on many points than would otherwise have been the case. He was frequently heartily applauded by the Government side, and figured that the deficit for the year ending 1904, including accounts of $181,262, which had not been paid by the former Government, was $480,351. Liabilities, including Temiskaming loan, totalled $11,709,500; indirect liabilities, being loan guarantee and Niagara Falls bonds, $2,600,000.

In this connection he contended that the Dominion Government should grant a subsidy to the Temiskaming road. The trust funds of the province held by the Dominion, which he claimed could not be properly counted as assets, totalled $3,375,024. Cash and debenture assets totalled $3,011,360, and there was a balance of cash on the Temiskaming Railway account of $1,354,686. Question of whether there was surplus of assets over liabilities was a matter for discussion. The Treasurer's estimated expenditures totalled $5,079,789 and his receipts $5,515,219, including the cash balance on Dec. 31, 1904, of $2,855,584.

THE CLASS DAY DANCE.

Attendance Will be Limited at the Great Annual Function at McGill.

Arrangements have been practically completed for the holding of the McGill class day dance on April 27. This will be the final appearance of the year of 1905 as undergraduates. Considerable importance attaches to the annual closing-day dance and this year efforts are being made to make the function more successful than ever before.

The tickets will be limited to 375. This is to avoid the possibility of overcrowding, such as has marred similar functions in the past. The dance will be held in the Royal Victoria College, in the large assembly hall, which is particularly well adapted to such affairs.

The following committee is in charge of the dance:

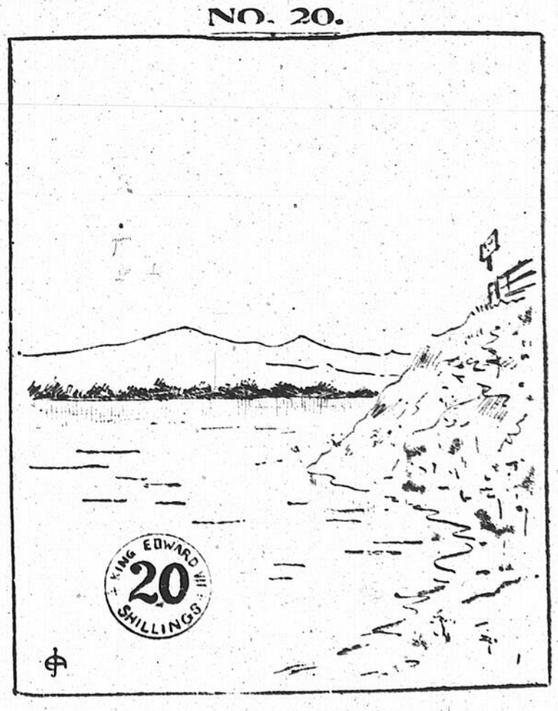

R. V. C.—Misses Pearson, Taber, Moule and Idler. Science—Messrs. A. Dale Harris and Fyshe. Art.—Messrs. Robinson, McMurty, Stewart and Owen. Law—Messrs. Mathieu and S. Dale-Harris.

Galt, Ont.—Galt's tax rate has been fixed at 22 mills.

ANNUAL MEETING OF ROYAL ARCANUM

Fourth Annual of Grand Council of Quebec Opened Yesterday.

The fourth annual meeting of the Grand Council of Quebec, Royal Arcanum, opened in the Masonic Temple at ten o'clock yesterday. The Grand Regent, Mr. Will H. Whyte, occupied the chair, and there was a good attendance of members. The Supreme Council is represented by Mr. E. M. Searing, of New Jersey, Deputy Supreme Regent, and Mr. A. T. Bowne, of the Grand Council of New Jersey, who will act as Supreme Guide at the installation of officers this evening.

In presenting his annual report, Mr. Will H. Whyte, Grand Regent, congratulated the members upon another very successful and prosperous year, and although the membership had not quite reached the mark set for it, it attained an increase of twenty per cent., sufficiently large to be gratifying. The roll this time last year stood at 1,663, it is now to date 1,925, an increase of 262. Three new councils have been added to the roll.

During the first years of the Grand Council it had been deemed advisable for the Grand Regent and his officers to pay two official visits during the year to each council, but as the roll of councils increased this was found to be getting irksome, and one yearly official visit was suggested, and the province had been divided into six districts, with the following deputies: E. C. Fletcher and Charles W. Batho, Montreal; Jas. Ellis, Quebec; A. H. Anderson, Sherbrooke; Charles J. Brown, St. John's, and T. W. P. Patterson, Lachute. A list of official visitations was also given. The premier council, Montreal No. 1154, appears to have taken a new lease of life, and stands at the head of the list for the greatest gain made during the year. Reference was also made to the good work done by Prince Albert Ladies' Auxiliary; to the visit of Supreme Regent Robinson to Montreal and Quebec during the year. The report of the deputy grand regent, Mr. A. I. Morison, reported all the councils in good shape. The Grand Council was to be congratulated upon having such an energetic and competent deputy. His report stated that he has secured 275 applications, covering $352,000 of protection, and has instituted three new councils. Mr. Whyte also suggested the advisability of the Royal Arcanum owning a home of their own, where the members of the order could meet and fraternize. In concluding, the Grand Regent urged the membership to give the order their loyal assistance, and it was worthy of their best endeavors, and was doing a glorious work not only in protecting the home, but in bringing together many men of all creeds and thought, thus uniting them in a common bond of brotherhood productive of lasting good to the community and state. The report of the Grand Secretary, Mr. H. Walker, showed that 386 new members had been admitted during the year, and the approximate membership on March 31 was 1,925. Seven members died during the year.

The report of the treasurer, Mr. F. W. Wadsworth, showed the finances to be in a highly satisfactory condition. Dr. W. Grieve Nichol, provincial medical examiner, reported that 403 applications had been accepted during the year, and the total amount of new protection was $587,000. The death rate for the Province of Quebec had been 4.20 per thousand, and for the whole order 10.75 per thousand.

Reports were also presented by the Deputy Grand Regent, the supervising deputies, and from the executive committee, committee on laws, finance committee, and the Grand Trustees.

Severe Chest Colds And Painful Coughs

Demand Prompt and Active Treatment.

The great danger in troubles of this class is "delay." Don't neglect a Cough or Cold, it can have but one result. It leaves the throat or lungs, or both, affected—Bronchitis, Pneumonia, Asthma, Catarrh and Consumption will surely follow the neglect to cure.

The first dose of

will ease the cough, soothe the inflamed throat and loosen the phlegm.

Mrs. Joseph Paradis, Blackwell, Ont., writes:—I had such a bad cold I could hardly breathe. I noticed Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup advertised, so had my husband get me two bottles—I had only used one before I was cured. I recommended it to a friend, and two bottles cured her after other remedies had failed—we both keep it in the house now and would not be without it. It is the best cough medicine I have ever taken."

Price 25 cents per bottle.

MAKE UP OF BISLEY TEAM.

Winter, secretary of the D.R.A., in response to a request for an early decision by the eligibles whether they will go with the team. He has received three negative answers from members of the first twenty-five. They are from Corp. McInnes, 90th Winnipeg; Corp. A. A. Smith, 59th; and Pte. P. Armstrong, of the 10th Royal Grenadiers. Corp. McInnes is now in Scotland and will shoot at Bisley with a Scotch regiment. The withdrawal of these three men will bring Corp. J. H. Simpson, 10th R.G.; O.R. Staff Sergt. H. Kerr, 48th Highlanders, into the list of eligibles.

"HERALD SERIALS ARE GOOD SERIALS."

THE PILLAR OF LIGHT

By LOUIS TRACEY, Author of "The Wings of the Morning."

CHAPTER XVI.—(Continued.)

"You, young dog you have seen it, too. Mrs. Vansittart avoids me. Something has happened. She has changed her mind. Do you think she has heard about Edith?"

"Edith! Oh, of course—Enid must be christened afresh. No; that isn't it. It would not be fair to you to say that I think you are mistaken. But, from what I know of the lady, I feel sure she will meet you fairly when the time comes."

"Ah, you agree with me, then?"

"In admitting a doubt—in advising the delay you have already suggested—yes."

"She told you what I had written?"

"More than that, she asked me if I was aware of its explanation."

"And you said?"

"Exactly what I said to you. You are both sensible people. I can hardly imagine that any misunderstanding can exist after an hour's talk."

Mr. Traill looked at his watch. A carriage stopped at the hotel.

Lady Margaret was a well-preserved woman of aristocratic pose. But her serenity was disturbed. Although the land was ringing with the fame of her son's exploit, and her mother's heart was throbbing with pride, there had been tearful hours of vigil for her. Not without a struggle had she abandoned her hope that he would make a well-endowed match.

When Constance and Enid arrived she was very stately and dignified, scrutinizing, with all a mother's incredulity, the girl who had caused her to capitulate.

But Enid scored a prompt success. She swept aside the almost unconscious reserve with which Jack's mother greeted her.

"You knew," she murmured wistfully. "We did not. They would not tell us. How you must have suffered until the news came that he had escaped."

Lady Margaret drew the timid girl nearer and kissed her.

"My dear," she whispered, "I am beginning to understand why Jack loves you. He is my only son, but you are worthy of him."

Mrs. Vansittart's appearance created a timely diversion. She had obtained a black lace dress. It accentuated the settled pallor of her face, but she was perfectly self-possessed, and uttered a nice womanly compliment to the two girls, who wore white demi-toilette costumes.

"You look delightful," she said. "When all is said and done, we women, should never despise our ward-robe. That marvelous lighthouse had one grave defect in my eyes. It was dreadfully callous to feminine requirements."

Here was a woman rejuvenated, restored to her natural surroundings. They accounted for the subtle change in her by the fact that they had seen her hitherto under unfavorable conditions. Even Pyne, not wholly pleased with her in the past, found his critical judgment yielding when she apologized sweetly to Lady Margaret for her tardiness.

"There were two children saved from the wreck. Poor little mites, how they revelled in a hot bath! I could not leave them until they were asleep."

"I needed two hot baths," said Pyne. "No. 1 dug me out of the shell, and No. 2 helped me to recognize myself."

During dinner there was much to tell and to hear. Mrs. Vansittart said little, save to interpose a word now and then when Constance or Enid would have skimmed too lightly the record of their own services.

They did not hurry over the meal. All were in the best possible spirits, and the miseries of the Gulf Rock might never have existed for this lively company were it not that four among them bore clear tokens of the deprivations they had endured.

A waiter interrupted their joyous chatter at its highest. He bent over Mr. Traill and discreetly conveyed some communication.

"I am delighted," cried the millionaire heartily. "Show him in at once."

He rose from his chair to do honor to an unexpected guest.

"You will all be pleased to hear," he explained, "that Mr. Brand is ashore, and has come to see us."

Mrs. Vansittart stifled the cry on her lips. The slight color which had crept into her pale cheeks yielded to a deathly hue. It chanced that the others were looking expectantly towards the door and did not notice her.

Brand entered. In acknowledging Mr. Traill's cordial welcome he smilingly explained his presence.

"My superiors sent me emphatic orders to clear out," he said. "So I had no option but to obey. I conveyed Mr. Emmett to suitable quarters and hastened home, but found that the girls were playing truant. My housekeeper insisted that I should eat, else she would not be satisfied that I still lived, but I came here as quickly as possible."

At that instant his glance, travelling from one to another of those present, fell on Mrs. Vansittart.

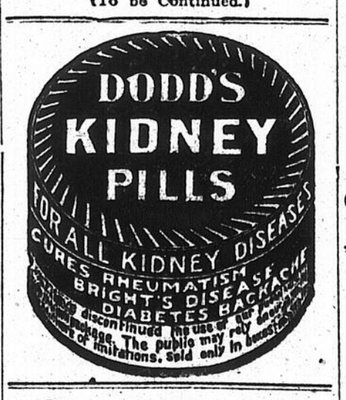

He stood as one petrified. The kindly words of his host, the outspoken glee of the girls at his appearance, died away in his ears in hollow echoes. His eyes, frowning beneath wrinkled brows, seemed to ask if he were not the victim of some unnerving hallucination. They were fixed on Mrs. Vansittart's face with an all-absorbing intensity, and his set lips and clenched hands showed how utterly irresistible was the knowledge that, indeed, he was not deceived—that he was gazing at a living, breathing personality, and not at some phantom product of a surcharged brain.

She, too, yielding before the suddenness of an ordeal she had striven to avoid, betrayed by her laboring bosom that she was under the spell of some excitement of overwhelming power.

She managed to gain her feet. The consciousness that Constance, Enid, Lady Margaret even, were looking at her and at Brand with amazed anxiety, served to strengthen her for a supreme effort.

"Mr. Stephen Brand—and I—are old aquaintances," she gasped. "He may misunderstand—my presence here—tonight. Indeed—in this instance—I am not to blame. I could not—help myself. I am always—trying to explain—but somehow—I never succeed. Oh!"

SPORTING COMMENT

That was a colossal bluff that Secretary Jamieson, of Hamilton Tigers, flung at Montreal football players. 'Nay nay," he said, "we would but make monkeys of you and y'know, we weally could not do that. Y'see, it's like this. If we come down here with the Tagurs and play a Montreal team, we would simply run away from you—simply run away." This is a bored tone of voice. "We'll bring down a Toronto team and then the public will see how the game should be played."

If you ask us, we think Mr. Jamieson is talking through his chiffon trimmings. The Tigers walloped the Toronto teams last season by about 75 points a game and how any Toronto team, after making such a wretched showing, could be considered capable of giving an instructive exhibition, has us guessing. It looks as if Mr. Jamieson wanted to bring down here, a Toronto outfit that would act as a foil for the Tigers. The latter would make the Torontonians look like deuces in a greasy deck and would be looked upon by the spectators as a whirlwind team. However, it would be but a clever trick of the Tigers to delude Montrealers. Sort of "quickness of the hand deceives the eye" business.

* * *

Though Mr. Jamieson is so free with his boasts and his phoney wagers, it strikes us that he is afraid to match his Tigers against a Montreal team. A local team could be coached sufficiently in a fortnight to give the Tigers a battle they would have cause to remember.

* * *

Back McDonald.

Halves, Jimmie Craig, Billy Christmas and Arthur Ross.

Snap, Clifford Jack, Hammy Gordon or Baillie.

Forwards, picked from Walter Molson, Stuart Rayside, Eddie O'Brien, Billy Murphy, Kelly, Edwards, Shearer, Locke, Brown, Burton and Percy Molson.

* * *

When Mr. Jamieson says that the Tigers would play rings around a team like the above, he may not know it but he is quite liable to be disbelieved.

* * *

Mr. Blake Crawford, a genial gentleman from Port Hope, who was in the city yesterday, was enthusiastic as to the prospects of the Midland Baseball League this season. He was president of the league last year, and will probably be again elected to the office, as he fulfilled his duties with ability and faithfulness. The league will hold its annual meeting at Port Hope, Good Friday, and its make-up will likely be the same as last year, viz., Peterboro, Lindsay, Oshawa, Bowmanville, Cobourg and Port Hope. It is a good league, in which fast ball is played, and in the towns mentioned baseball is rather more popular than lacrosse.

Mr. Crawford stated that Port Hope would have a Manufacturers' League this year that would be a hummer. It would consist of the Globe File Works, Radiator Company, Ideal Company, Port Hope Brewing Company and a picked team from the town. The amount of interest that is being manifested in this league may be estimated from the fact that the Ideal Company has imported a battery, Hooper, who pitched for Bowmanville last summer, and Andrews, who caught for Oshawa. The Midland League team to represent the town will be chosen from the players in the Manufacturers' League.

* * *

With Mr. Crawford was Jack Henderson and Harry Trawin. The former is one of the best known lacrosse players in Ontario, and was a member of the twelve that represented Port Hope in the senior C. L. A. in 1903. When asked if the town had any desire to enter a team in the senior C. L. A. this season, he promptly responded:

"Not on your life. We have all the experience of senior C. L. A. that year that we require. Any time you hear of Port Hope entering a team in the senior C. L. A. again, you will know that some new people have settled in the town. Baseball will hold us for a while."

* * *

The meeting of the senior Canadian Lacrosse Association clubs that was to have been held at Brantford to settle affairs without regard to the association has apparently been called off. It may have occurred to President Frank

STOCKS AND MONEY.

Local Market Gets Setback; Shawinigan to Make Big Issue

Though little business was done on the local market to-day, there was a good deal in the trend of prices to arouse interest. Following the announcement that Dominion Iron would issue additional bonds, there was some disposition to sell the preferred and common stocks, because the public realized that with the necessity of providing interest on more bonds the chances of getting a dividend on the stock became more remote. Steel preferred, which had been holding around 69, sold around 66, while Steel common, which had climbed as high as 24 1-2, sold as low as 21 1-4 in Boston.

A local director stated that the Board had been given to understand that by spending a comparatively small amount of additional capital the company would be able to largely increase its earning power.

Dominion Coal common also saw a sharp decline, and while a small lot sold 80 1-4 at the close, 79 1-2 was the highest bid. The general feeling regarding the stock now seems to be that while the company's earnings will show good increase, the directors will hardly decide to renew the dividend on common during the current year. Even around 80 quite a few holders could sell out at a good profit.

Canadian Pacific was less active in Wall Street and sold down to 153 3-8.

The greatest activity prevailed in Toledo Railway, in which a pool has been at work for some days past. It was one of the very few stocks to see a higher level, and after opening at 36 1-2, sold up to 37. Owing to the small amount of capital required, quite a few investors have been induced to take small lots of the stock.

Montreal Street was lower at 224 1-2, and Toronto Rails steady at 109 3-4 to 110.

The official announcement was made that the Shawinigan Water and Power Company would issue $2,000,000. The entire amount has been underwritten by the Bank of Scotland, and it is understood that arrangements will be made to have a portion of the issue sold in New York and Boston, where quite a portion of the company's present stock is held.

Power continues to be in fair demand around 90. When any of the stock is offered it seems to be taken up very quickly.

There seemed to be ver ylittle effort made to put prices down to any extent, and most of the reports stated that higher prices might be looked for.

CURB MARKET.

The local curb market continues to attract a fair amount of attention, and some good business is being done. The most important transaction among the unlisted issue was the sale of $400,000 Rio bonds with bonus. This was a private sale.

100 shares of Mexican stocks changed hands at 71 1-2, while $15,000 bonds sold at 83 3-4. 55 was bid for the stock of Electrical Development.

E. and C. Randolph wire Louis Caldwell their local manager:

New York.—The support from London during first hour was disappointing, and this, taken in connection with continued liquidation by western houses caused irregularity with resulting changes in the direction of price movements. Added to this were messages from western houses cautioning regarding grain accounts, thus indicating that the May wheat situation still is a disturbing factor. There are innumerable bull points on U. P. and the strength was fair in this stock. Toledo, St. L. & Western issues were strong on buying apparently from Hawley sources and the story of the Big Four deal was again revived. In Amal. Copper Halsted and Hodges bought 3,000 and Rogers' brokers were said to be buying quietly. The general impression seems to be that the buying in the market during the early session was of the best character.

NOON LETTER.

Charles Head & Co. wire their local office:

The market this morning has continued to exhibit much confusion in sentiment with very irregular price movements. There was a show of strength at the opening under the influence of the better tone in London and a rumor from Washington to the effect that the Japanese had sunk 3 Russian ships, but the reappearance of liquidation by western houses turned the traders to the short side. In the second hour a sharp bear raid was made which broke prices about one per cent. but there was a quick recovery and the buying on the decline was of excellent character. There have been some strong features throughout notably American Smelters, Toledo, and Toledo, St. Louis and Western issues, the latter on buying supposed to come from the Hawley crowd. There is no news of importance and discussion runs chiefly to the wheat situation in Chicago, which is still considered to be a weak spot.

New York.—The stock market was irregular during the morning session. London was no factor and the traders were the principal dealers. Outside orders were few. Large room operators like McDonald bought and sold, in fact traded in large amounts within fractions. Can. Pac. Copper Loco. Smelters, M. K., & T. Bo, N, Y. C. were the most active. There was nothing new to influence prices and there seems to be little outside interest in to-day's market. Bear raids may occur and prices may suffer small losses, but market seems to rally very easy after such bear attacks.

MONTREAL EXCHANGE.

Montreal exchange quotations to-day are reported as follows by Marler & Hodgson:

New York funds, 1-64 to 3-64 prem., 1-16 to 1-4 prem.; Sterling, 60 days, 8 31-32, 9 1-32, 9 1-8, 9 1-4; Sterling demand, 9 13-32, 9 7-16, 9 1-2, 9 5-8; Sterling cables, 9 15-32, 9 1-2; 9 5-8, 9 3-4; Paris, francs short, 517 1-2, 1-64.

115½ was bid for the new preferred stocks of the Dominion Coal Company when and as issued on the local 'curb market to-day.

FORGET'S CABLE.

L. J. Forget & Co.'s London cable quoted Grand Trunk first at 114, second at 104, third at 50½, Canadian Pacific at 158¾, Anaconda at 6⅝, Hudson's Bay at 69½.

Norris P. Brayn't Ne wYork special says:—London firm this morning. The report that Ill. Central is bought by Union Pacific interests is credited in good quarters. Steel Co. is trying to buy 50,000 tons of steel plate in open market, as own mills cannot fill the orders. Advance in wirep roducts expected within a few days. Southern Pacific first week April, increase $93,000. Japanese and Russian bonds higher in London. It is said now that U.P., N.Y.C., Northwestern deal will include Ill. Central at 200 in exchange for 3½ per cent. bonds, that Northwestern will get 300 in same bonds, and N.Y.C. wants 4 per cent bonds, has been offered 3½ per cent. bonds at 200. Banks have gained $2,733,000 from sub-treasury since Friday. Traders report that few stop loss orders were found on reaction yesterday.

NOON LETTER TO MARLER & HODGSON FROM NEW YORK.

The tone of the market is still very uncertain, fluctuations are erratic and sentiment very much mixed. U. P. has been active but a large proportion of the transactions have been for professional account. The strength of Ill. Central continues owing to rumors that the issue of Union Pacific pfd. new stock is for the purpose of acquiring control of Ill. Central, with a view to using that property as an outlet to the Gulf. An active pool is thought to be operating in Olo. common and pfd. Liquidation is noticeable in the Steel stocks, both of which seem to lack support. London houses have been moderate buyers. The general opinion seems to be nervous and erratic until some definite news is brought to light in regard to the various much talked of railroad deals. General Electric declined on sales, due to a story that the relations between the General Electric and the Westinghouse were strained.

'Street' Gossip.

Mr. C. R. Hosmer, director of the Canadian Pacific Railway, who has been wintering at Cairo, reached London to-day, and will spend a couple of weeks there. Mr. Hosmer joins Sir Thomas Shaughnessy in London.

Mr. C. F. Sise, president of the Bell Telephone Co., who has been visiting in Italy, has wired that he would reach Montreal April 20.

Mr. Jas. Ross, president of the Dominion Coal Co., is spending a few days at Lakewood. He will return for the special meeting of the shareholders called for Monday next to ratify the plan for the reorganization of the company's finances.

Mr. H. H. Melville, of the Shawinigan Water & Power Co., leaves for New York to-night in connection with the issue of $2,000,000 bonds by the company.

New Street Ry. Stock to Rank for Dividend

When the books of the Montreal Street Railway are re-opened on April 15 the new stock, which totals $1,000,000, will rank for dividend the same as the old stock. For some days past the new stock has been selling only fractionally lower than the old stock. Very little of it has been offered for sale.

Big Addition to C.P.R. Inventory

This year and next something over $25,000,000 will be added to the inventory value of Canadian Pacific. The second track from Fort William to Winnipeg, a great many new side tracks in the Northwest, several thousand cars and some dozens of engines are included in this figure. At its own Angus shops there are to be built 1,677 60,000-lb. cars and 1,323 80,000-lb. cars.

Harriman Taken From Securities Board

The Evening Post says: "E. H. Harriman, president of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific railroads, was displaced from the directorate of the Northern Securities Co., at a meeting of the stockholders in Jersey City to-day, this action marking what Wall Street looked on as a culmination in the long-standing enmity between the Hill and Harriman parties in the Northern Securities Company. By vote of strictly the Hill shares and proxies, representing in combination 2,648,000 shares, Mr. Hill elected Amos T. French, a son-in-law of John S. Kennedy (also of the Northern Securities Co., and one of Mr. Hill's staunchest supporters), to Mr. Harriman's place on the board.

"There was no contest over Mr. Harriman's displacement at to-day's meeting of the stockholders. The stock held by the Harriman interests, including the $2,000,000 of Northern Securities shares in the Oregon Short Line treasury, was not voted at the meeting at all, nor has it been voted at any Northern Securities meeting since Mr. Schiff made his proposition to the board for a settlement of the whole disturbance a year ago, and its absolute rejection by the Hill interests."

Allotment Made of Jap Bonds

The Japanese bond allotment was made with a view to avoiding the contingency narrowly escaped in the case of the Southern Pacific allotment, in that allotment a very large percentage of the bonds went into the hands of traders, speculators and buyers for the rise. In the case of the Japanese bonds the underwriters used all possible means to obtain information as to the character of the subscriptions and exercised an arbitrary discretion in alloting the bonds. Insurance companies, private investors and buyers for income only were given most decided preference over traders, banks and those who buy with both eyes fixed upon the tape. The exact terms of the allotment will, therefore, never be known. Only by the publication of the full list could this be determined, and to publish the full list would be practically to give to the world the estimate in which the underwriters hold every subscriber to the bonds.

Remarkable Increase in U.S. Steel Values

The preferred stock of the United States Steel Corporation, which made a new high record on the present movement, is still one of the lowest-priced industrial preferred issues paying 7 per cent.

At 103 the preferred broke the heretofore high record of 101⅞ made in April, 1901, while the common stock at 38 was only 17 points below its high record when it was paying 4 per cent. dividends at par and nearly 8 per cent., based on the market value.

The three active securities of the United States Steel Corporation—the common and preferred stocks and the second 5s—at the highest prices of the movement, sold at a total market value of $730,308,233, representing an appreciation from the lowest market prices on record for these securities of no less than $297,318,000, or over 118 per cent.

The greatest percentage of gain has been in the common stock, which has appreciated in value 353 per cent. since it sold at 8⅜. The preferred has gained more than 105 per cent. from the lowest prices, while the second 5s have gained 49 per cent.

The present selling value of these three securities is shown in the following table:

360,281,100 preferred at 103	397,318,060
171,000,000 second 5s at 97⅛	166,083,750
Total market value	$730,308,233

This selling value compares with the lowest on record, when the common sold at 8⅜, the preferred at 49 3-4, and the bonds at 65, as follows:—

	To-day's high.	Lowest.	Inc.
Com. stock	$193,134,950	$42,600,324	$150,534,616

MARKET REPORTS.

Crop Conditions Very Favorable; Seeding Earlier Than Last Year

Winnipeg, April 11. — The first Canadian Pacific Railway crop report of the season was issued this morning. The matter contained in it relates chiefly to the existing weather conditions, the percentage of the seeding which has been completed, and the percentage increase in the area under crop. Taken generally, the crop conditions are considered as most favorable. Seeding has begun about two weeks earlier than last season, and rapid progress is being made. In some places there is need of more rain, while at others the ground is still too damp to be worked successfully.

Wheat Inspections

The following wire from Winnipeg gives the inspection of wheat to-day as follows: No. 1 hard, nil; No. 1 northern, 12 cars; No. 2 northern, 2 cars; No. 3 northern, 27 cars; rejected, nil; no grade, 3 cars; other grades, 56 cars. Total, 118 cars; last year, 261 cars.

Wheat in Winnipeg.

May wheat opened in Winnipeg at 92⅝ and later sold at 93, while at 11 a.m. there was 93⅛ bid. Bids on July opened at 94⅝ and reached 95⅛.

Chicago Wheat

May wheat opened 115¼ and subsequently touched 116. July opened 87¼ and went to 87⅜, at which price it was held at noon.

Grain, Flour, Hay

Grain.—There was some enquiry from over the cable for Manitoba spring wheat for May shipment, but bids were 3d lower than yesterday, and prices on this side about one cent per bushel higher. There was no demand for coarse grains, and the market on the whole is dull. The local and country demand for oats continues slow, but prices are unchanged at 46c for No. 2 white, and at 45c for No. 3 do. per bushel, ex store, with Peterboro No. 3 inspected offering at 42½c per bushel, ex track.

Flour.—Although there has been nothing in the wheat situation of late to warrant any cutting in prices for spring wheat grades of flour, yet it is reported that this has been done by some in the trade; in fact, we know of sales of spring wheat patents being made within the past week for shipment to outside points at prices equivalent to $5.40, and strong bakers' at $5.10 here, but this is by no means general, as sales were made to-day at country points by others at full outside figures quoted. There is no improvement in the demand, and business is generally quiet. Manitoba spring wheat patents, $5.50 to $5.60; strong bakers, $5.20 to $5.30; winter wheat patents, $5.60 to $5.75; straight rollers, $5.25 to $5.35; and in bags, $2.45 to $2.55.

Feed.—There continues to be a good demand for millfeed, of which supplies are still limited, and prices rule firm. Manitoba bran, in bags, $18 to $19; shorts, $20 to $21 per ton; Ontario winter wheat bran, in bulk, $18.50 to $19; shorts, $20 to $21; mouillie, $24 to $28 per ton, as to quality.

Oats.—The demand for rolled oats continues slow, and the market is quiet, with prices unchanged at $2.20 to $2.22½ per bag. Cornmeal is also quiet at $1.35 to $1.45 per bag.

Hay.—There was no change in baled hay, but the tone of the market remains easy, with only a fair trade passing on local account. No. 1, $9 to $9.50; No. 2, $8 to $8.50; clover mixed, $7 to $7.50; and pure clover, $6.50 to $6.75 per ton, in car lots.

Country Produce

Eggs.—The tone of the market remains steady under a good local consumptive demand, and sales were made freely at 16½c to 15c per dozen.

Beans.—There was no change in beans, for which the demand in small lots continues fair and sales of choice primes were made at $1.75 per bushel.

Honey.—Business in honey continues quiet, there being little demand at this season. Extracted white clover honey, 7c to 7½c per 10-lb. tin, and 6½c to 7c in 60-lb. tins; buckwheat honey, 6c to 6½c, and white clover comb, 13c to 13½c.

Maple Produce.—A fair business continues to be done in new maple product at steady prices. Syrup, in 15-gal. kegs, 5c to 5½c per lb.; in tins, 50c to 60c per wine measure, and 70c to 75c for imperial, and Beauce sugar, 8c to 8½c per lb.; Townships do., 6½c to 7c.

Potatoes.—There was no change in the market for potatoes, for which the demand is slow. Car lots of choice stock are offering at 55c to 60c, and common at 50c per bag, ex track. Sales in a jobbing way were made at 70c to 75c per bag, ex store.

Hops.—Business in hops continues quiet, and there is no actual change in prices to note. Choice Canadians, 30c to 33c, and fair to good at 25c to 28c per lb.

Ashes.—The receipts of potash continue light and the market is quiet with a steady undertone. First sorts, $5.45; seconds, $4.90 to $4.95, and first pearls, $7.50 per 100 lb.

To-Day's Receipts

To-day's receipts in Montreal by railroad were as follows:—

	C.P.R.	G.T.R.
Wheat, bushels	...	3,358
Flour, barrels	650	...
Eggs, cases	311	1,391
Buter, packatges	33	215
Cheese, boxes	...	19
Leather, rolls	23	16
Tobacco, packages	60	7
Corn, bushels	720	5,317
Oats, bushels	...	1,100
Raw hides	23	...
Beef, barrels	3	...

Cheese and Butter

Cheese.—No change. Supply good, but immediately taken up for export demand. Very little unsold at 12c and 12½c.

Butter.—No change, and none likely until supply is sharply increased. Demand steady in small lots, at 24c for choice new milk creamery.

Hog Market Steady

The feeling in dressed hogs was easy, but prices show no actual change as yet. The demand was limited and only for small lots to fill actual requirements, as the impression among butchers is that prices will be lower in the near future. Sales of freshkilled abattoir hogs were made at $9 to $9.25 per 100 lb. The demand for hams and bacon for the Easter trade is increasing and orders from both local and country buyers are coming in more freely.

Cattle Markets

Toronto, April 12.—The demand for cattle to-day was brisk, and despite a fairly large run the whole market had a firm tone and prices were generally about 25c per cwt. higher. The run amount to 96 cars, and included 1,750 cattle, 250 sheep and lambs, 400 hogs and 300 calves.

Local Cattle Market

Business was very slow at the East End cattle market to-day, supply being small and prices high. Only five carloads came in from the city yards, and but little more by rail. Fine animals uniformly brought 5 cents, and most of the trading was in extra fine, at 5½c. Supplies have been held back so much now that an exceptionally heavy market is expected next week.

Calves to-day were pretty much unchanged at $2 to $3 for smallest, and $4 to $9.50 for the best. Sheep are 4c to 5½c, and spring lambs $8 for the best.

TOLEDO
Railways and Light.

Toledo Railways & Light is earning 3 per cent., has just been placed upon a 2 per cent. dividend basis, and quoted at 34.

Whoever buys Toledo Railways & Light at present quotations is bound to make money. If he buys it as an investment he will receive about 6 per cent. returns, and eventually realize from 100 to 200 per cent. profit. In no other city of the United States can be found as exceptional an opportunity for investing in a low priced traction stock with as favorable surrounding conditions and future outlook as Toledo.

A SECOND DETROIT UNITED.

It is the policy of the management to make Toledo Railways & Light a second Detroit United, both properties being controlled and managed by the same interests. At the time Detroit United was taken over in 1900 the net earnings showed barely 4 per cent. for the stock. It was placed on a 4 per cent. dividend basis, which has continued uninterruptedly ever since, during which time the growth in earnings has shown remarkable increases.

In an article published six months ago, when Detroit United was quoted at 67, the writer publicly predicted that it would sell at 80, and later at par, the latter statement being based upon a probable increase in the dividend rate.

A remarkable feature connected with the Toledo property is the lighting department, which for 1904 earned a net surplus of $268,000. Officials of the company are authority for the statement that within three years the light earnings will be sufficient to pay interest charges on the entire bonded debt of the Toledo Railways & Light Co.

HERE ARE THE FACTS.

The company owns and controls all of the underground conduits of Toledo (population 165,000) and supplies the entire electric lighting and power business, both public and private, besides comprising all the street railways (106 miles). Seven interurban electric roads enter the city over the tracks of the Toledo Railways & Light Co. The lighting franchises are perpetual. The major portion of the mileage of the street railway franchises run until 1915, and one franchise, covering minor mileage, expires in 1909.

1904 EARNINGS.

The earnings have doubled in the past seven years, gross receipts in 1897 being $897,000. The following is the annual statement for year ended December 31, 1904:

Gross receipts	$1,762,833.67
Expenses	923,208.79
Net earnings	$329,624.88
Interest charges	499,874.90
Surplus after charges	$329,749.98

The net surplus of the company after all fixed charges for January and February, 1905, was more than $10,000 per month greater than last year. This rate of increase in net, applicable to stock, will, if continued throughout the present year, show a surplus of 4 per cent. erned on the entire capital stock. Treasury bonds have recently been sold in an amount sufficient to entirely pay off the company's floating debt. Surplus earnings after all fixed charges for the past four years aggregating $1,200,000 have been applied to betterments and improvements.

LISTED ON NEW YORK EXCHANGE.

Toledo Railways & Light is listed on the New York Stock Exchange, and any regular broker or any banker can verify statistics furnished in this article.

I know that inside interests have been the heaviest purchasers of the stock during its recent activity. The publication of this article is intended to make known the actual facts in connection with a low priced stock of unusual merit which is clearly entitled to higher prices.

With these facts more widely circulated, an increased demand for the stock will inevitably result, which will be followed by higher prices: hence I feel warranted in advising my readers to buy Toledo Railways & Light on its merits, and am quite certain that those who act upon this advice will have cause to congratulate themselves later on.

DIVIDEND DECLARED.

Toledo Railways & Light Directors on March 30 declared the first semi-annual dividend of 1 per cent., payable May 1st, thus placing the stock on a 2 per cent. basis—at existing quotations netting returns of about 6 per cent.

QUEBEC BUSINESS MEN WANT A FREE PORT

Board of Trade Registered Up Several Vigorous Complaints at Yesterday's Meeting.

Quebec, April 12.—(Special)—At a general meeting of the Board of Trade yesterday afternoon, it was unanimously decided to petition the Federal Government to make the port of Quebec free to shipping, and to work for that end as much as possible. The meeting also condemned the dilapidated Grand Trunk Railway terminus at Quebec, and instructed the Secretary to write to the management to have the same replaced with proper buildings and more desirable accommodation. The passenger train service on the Quebec station of the Canadian Pacific was also complained of, especially of the Sunday train arriving late.
