QUIET IN MEXICO AFTER NUMEROUS ARRESTS Political Activities Reported From Coast To Coast

Many Arrests Are Made In Mexico City

Charged With Having Plotted Revolution—The Plans of Estrada at San Diego May Not Have Been Connected With Religious Controversy—Entire City Council of One Mexican Town Under Arrest—Religious Situation Remains Unchanged, Though Economic Boycott Is Increasing.

(Associated Press Despatch)
MEXICO CITY, August 17.—Some fifty persons have been taken into custody in the federal district, charged with having participated in a plot of wide ramifications for uprisings last Sunday against the Government's religious regulations.

Additional arrests have been made at other places. These include a general of the Federal army, whose name is withheld. He was made a prisoner in the state of Morelos, secret service officials say, and is charged with complicity in the proposed uprising. His is the only case of alleged disaffection in the army thus far reported. All the members of the city council of the town of Amocameca, in the state of Mexico, were apprehended on telegraphic instructions from the Mexico City secret police.

There are some suggestions in unofficial circles that the concentration of forces of General Enrique Estrada, near the Mexican border in California, with the alleged purpose of crossing the frontier into Mexico may have been connected with the alleged plot and as a part of a general revolutionary movement.

President Calles says he had been informed more than two months ago of the plan of General Estrada and declares that if Estrada and his followers had not been arrested by the California authorities and had crossed the border the rebellion would have been suppressed and the rebels killed.

The Roman Catholic Episcopate when informed of the police reports that Catholics had been taken by the police in connection with the alleged conspiracy, said it was known that a number of Catholic leaders had been arrested, but that it was understood the police were searching their homes for missing church treasures.

It was stated that the Episcopate had no information of any uprising having been planned by Catholics in opposition to the religious regulations. It was pointed out that the church authorities had announced on several occasions that the opposition of the church was a peaceful one, and that no uprising against the state was contemplated. The recent statement of the Episcopate that in the event Mexico was ever attacked by a foreign power the Catholics of the country would show their patriotism by siding with the Government was recalled.

Late last night the police announced that eight of those arrested had been released. No reason was given for setting them free.

Just how widespread the alleged revolutionary movement was has not been made known, but the police assert that uprisings had been planned in the states of Chihuahua, Jalisco, Puebla, Morelos and Michoacan and in Mexico City, and the federal district. What was done in the outlying district by the police to put down the movement has not been revealed here.

Generally the religious situation remains unchanged, but the economic boycott called by the League for the defence of religious liberty in protest against the Government's regulations seems to be increasing. Many Catholics are waiting hopefully for the convening of Congress, September 1st, and the enactment of milder church regulations. The hope seemingly is a forlorn one.

THE ATTEMPT OF GENERAL ESTRADA AT SAN DIEGO

(Associated Press Despatch)
SAN DIEGO, CAL., August 17.—General Enrique Estrada, former secretary of war, for Mexico, was named yesterday as the engineer of the latest plot to overthrow the Mexican Government, foiled near here last night with the arrest of one hundred and seventy-four men and seizure of a large amount of ammunition and equipment.

A. A. Hopkins, Department of Justice agent, said that the General "from all the information they were able to gather," was the sponsor for the movement against the lower California Government.

"I do not think that the Mexican religious troubles had anything to do with the movement or that any one but Estrada was behind it. I believe it was simply an attempt of the outs to get in."

Charges of violating a section of the Criminal Code which prohibits an organized military movement against a friendly foreign country, are to be placed against members of the expedition, Federal officials said.

MISS EDERLE'S CHANNEL SWIM IS DEFENDED

(Associated Press Despatch)
CAP GRIS NEZ, France, Aug. 17.—News of the criticisms and comments in the British press concerning the record-breaking channel swim of Miss Gertrude Ederle has aroused condemnation by the Channel swimming colony here as foundationless and utterly inaccurate.

The Associated Press correspondent, who has been present at 29 Channel starts, can testify that Miss Ederle's feat was accomplished under absolutely the same conditions as previous ones.

GRANBY MAYOR IN AN ACCIDENT IN MONTREAL

Mr. Boivin, Accompanied by Mr. J. G. Fuller, Was Driving Along St. James Street When Heavy Truck Crossed Road in Front of Them—Mr. Fuller Was Slightly Cut About Face.

GRANBY, Aug. 17.—Mayor E. Boivin and Mr. J. G. Fuller, two prominent residents of Granby, were the victims of an automobile accident in Montreal yesterday.

It appears that Mr. Boivin, Mr. Fuller and several others were driving in Mr. Boivin's car and were going along St. James Street in Montreal about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon when a large truck suddenly crossed their path, and before they could stop their car or before the driver of the truck had time to get his machine out of the road, the two had collided.

Mr. Boivin was fortunate in escaping without any injuries, although Mr. Fuller was quite badly, but not seriously, cut about the face, having been thrown against the windshield. The car, which was a Cadillac, was very badly damaged.

Last night Mr. Fuller returned to Granby, and this morning was in his office as usual apparently not much the worse for his experience.

KITCHENER COFFIN STORY IS DISCUSSED

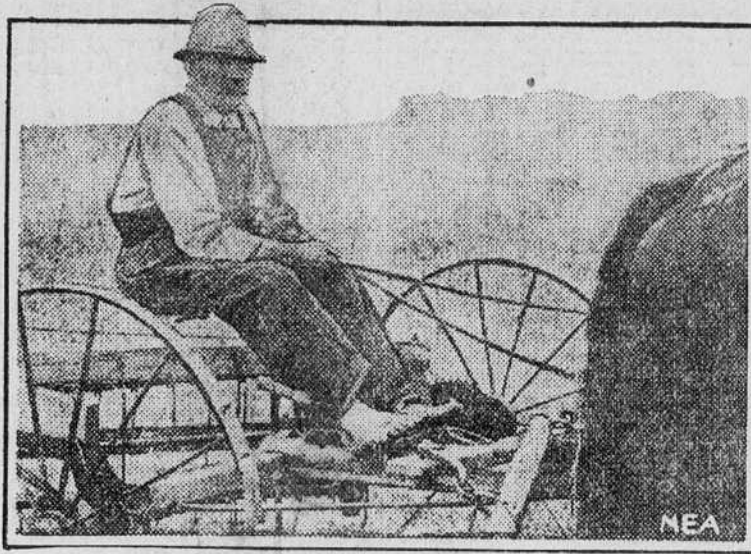

Frank Power, Publisher, Silent—Has Legal Offence Been Committed?

(Associated Press Despatch)
LONDON, Aug. 17.—British newspapers today were raising the question whether any legal penalty could be imposed in connection with yesterday's discovery that the coffin delivered at Waterloo station and alleged to contain the body of the late Lord Kitchener was empty.

Some of the papers say that the police and home office officials are studying the entire affair with a view to determining whether anything punishable has been done. Frank Power, the British newspaperman, who was responsible for the story that Lord Kitchener's body was picked up off the coast of Norway after the tragic sinking of H. M. S. Hampshire, has given no definite explanation as yet regarding the empty coffin.

FAILED TODAY IN CHANNEL SWIM ATTEMPT

Miss Lillian Cannon, of Baltimore, Md., Will Try Again, However.

(Associated Press Despatch)
CAP GRIS NEZ, France, Aug. 17.—Miss Lillian Cannon, of Baltimore, Md., failed this morning in her first effort to swim the English Channel. A sudden storm, accompanied by lightning and thunder, with the prospects of still worse weather to come, forced her to quit the water after having been swimming for two hours and thirty-five minutes.

When the experts on the boat following the swimmer ordered her out of the water, she demurred, saying she desired to keep at her task. Finally when told that it would be useless for her to go on, she came out of the water. Miss Cannon plans to make another attempt in a few days.

Miss Cannon, who is 23 years old, first gained fame as a swimmer last year when she swam from Tolchester to Bay Shore, in Chesapeake Bay, a distance of 24 miles. She was accompanied by one of her Chesapeake Bay hounds. After that event, she announced that she would come to France and try to conquer the Channel.

BEAVERBROOK BANQUET GUEST AT SAINT JOHN

(Associated Press Despatch)
ST. JOHN, N.B., Aug. 17.—Pledging himself to use New Brunswick newspapers for his English publications and expressing his hope that the proposed installations of newspaper plants in this province opened up an era of prosperity for his homeland, Lord Beaverbrook, at a dinner given in his honor last evening by Dr. F. R. Taylor, K.C., appealed to his auditors to co-operate for the upbuilding of this part in the Canadian Confederation.

His Lordship's many benefactions in the foundation of scholarships and his thoughtfulness in enabling the teachers of this province to get a close-up view of the motherland, were praised by speakers of the evening. He was termed "the most prominent living New Brunswick-er."

The freedom of the city of Saint John will be conferred on Lord Beaverbrook this afternoon.

FORMER GREEK PREMIER IS SENT TO EXILE

(Associated Press Despatch)
ATHENS, Aug. 17.—Former Premier George Kafandaridis, who was arrested yesterday with numerous army officers, because of "persistent and continued anti-government activities," has been sent into exile on an island in the Aegean Sea.

Kafandaridis some time ago issued a proclamation addressed to high army officers with the purpose of inciting the army to revolt against regime. Achilles Kircs, editor of The Hestia, has been fined 2,000 drachmas for carelessness in omitting to give General Pangalos his title of president of the republic when his name was mentioned in the newspaper.

(Associated Press Despatch)
MONTREAL, August, 17th.—J. Antonio Beaudry, 49, well known Montreal business man and publisher of "Le Prix Courant," a Montreal weekly review, was found shot to death in his office yesterday. It was at first thought that he had died a natural death but an examination at the morgue led to the discovery of a bullet in his back. He had been missing from his home since Saturday and the uneasiness of his wife led to the discovery. On her request employees entered his private office and found Beaudry dead sitting in his chair. No clues have been obtained by police. Mr. Beaudry was born in Richelieu, Rouville County, Que.

E. BOIVIN IS LIKELY CHOICE IN SHEFFORD CO.

Mayor of Granby and Cousin of Late Hon. Geo. H. Boivin Expected to Be Choice of Liberal Convention at Waterloo on Thursday.

GRANBY, Aug. 17.—The political situation as far as Shefford County is concerned is fairly quiet at the present time, and all are awaiting the Liberal convention which is to be held at Waterloo on Thursday next, August 19th. At this convention a standard bearer for the Liberal colors will be selected, to replace the late Hon. George H. Boivin, who represented the constituency for several years and who a short time before his death had been nominated candidate for the coming election to oppose L. J. Gauthier, the Conservative candidate.

Following the death of the late Mr. Boivin, the name of his cousin, Mr. E. Boivin, Mayor of Granby, was prominently mentioned as a suitable candidate to replace the ex-Minister of Customs, and from present indications it is almost certain that he will be tendered the Liberal nomination on Thursday next.

CIRCUS LION ATTACKS MAN, CHATHAM, ONT.

CHATHAM, Ont., Aug. 17.—Steve Batty, an animal trainer, was attacked by a lion during the evening performance of a circus here last evening. Batty succeeded in driving the animal away after the first attack, but the second time the man was knocked down and his back was terribly torn as well as his scalp and legs. Attendants drove the beast away and Batty crawled in under one of the pedestals in the cage. Finally another trainer went into the cage and drove the animals out and rescued Batty, who was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital.

MEIGHEN IN BRITISH COLUMBIA, MACKENZIE KING IN CALGARY; BOTH ADDRESS LARGE MEETINGS

Premier Speaks of Australian Treaty—King Talks of Constitutional Issue—Many Reports of Nominations—Meganitic County Has Two Roberges in the Field—Possible Opposition to R. S. White in Montreal—Rouville Slate Is Complete—Stanstead Liberals Meet Today.

(Associated Press Despatch)

ROYSTON, B. C., Aug. 17.—(By Canadian Press)—Premier Meighen last night outlined his policy on the Australian treaty and on old age pensions. He emphatically denied that he had any intention of striking a red ink line through the Australian trade treaty.

"What do we intend to do?" he proceeded, "we will make an effort to reform that treaty along the lines of the agreement that Australia has signed and when we get it reformed, it will be fair to the Canadian farmer, and we will get admission of these goods from Australia just the same."

"We don't believe you, that's the trouble," came a voice far back in the hall.

"If you don't, perhaps you would be better in another place than here," Mr. Meighen retorted.

"We favor old age pensions legislation," Mr. Meighen declared. "We intend to pass old age pension legislation, but we are going to get the provinces together first. We are going to see that we get something that will go into effect. It is the operation that must be looked after and we will make sure that ours will operate before we put it on the statute books. We will get the concurrence of the provinces. We will get something practicable, something which will be acceptable to the provinces and to this whole dominion."

"How soon?" the heckler questioned.

"Just as soon as you give us a mandate to do it," swiftly replied the premier.

The meeting in Royston closed a hectic day of speech making and travelling for the premier. From the moment he landed by boat at Vancouver from Prince Rupert, he was almost constantly on the move. An automobile parade through Vancouver was followed by a hurried meeting at New Westminster. From New Westminster Mr. Meighen sped to Nanaimo and from Nanaimo to Royston in the constituency of Comox-Alberni represented in the last parliament by A. W. Neil, Independent.

(Associated Press Despatch)

Mr. Shean did not accept the nomination immediately, but promised to give a decision at the end of the week. But if he is not the candidate it was intimated, there will be another in the field. Dr. Margaret J. Currie, of Westmont, contended that a woman would stand much better chance of election than a man.

MACKENZIE KING AT CALGARY ON CONSTITUTION

(Associated Press Despatch)

CALGARY, Alta., Aug. 17.—(By Canadian Press)—"England expected Canada to take its full measure of self-government within the Empire, but unless the relationship of Governor-General to Prime Minister in Canada was the same as King to Prime Minister in Great Britain, Canada's position was no better than a crown colony," Mr. Mackenzie King told his audience here last night.

"Suppose the King of England began to choose between parties, how long do you think the throne would remain as strong as it is today?" he asked. It was the action of the Commons which determined the ministry that would advise the crown.

"That is British constitutional practice, the minute you begin to depart from those rules, the British Empire will begin to suffer a shock. The Empire will last as long as constitutional practice is carried on throughout the Dominions," said Mr. King.

An abrupt attack was made on Hon. R. B. Bennett in the course of Mr. King's address. A press report from Woodstock, Ontario, quoting a speech made there by Mr. Bennett was read. The Minister of Finance had described Mr. King as "the greatest coward who ever held the office of prime minister of Canada."

"That means that others—Mr. Meighen and Sir Robert Borden—have been cowards, but I happen to be the greatest of the lot," said Mr. King.

"I think you know the type of man Mr. Bennett is. Any person who speaks like that on a public platform of a fellow member of the House of Commons—there is one name you cannot apply to him and that is the name of gentleman."

"When you want to test a coin, you rub the surface and see whether it is pure or alloy; it is the same with a gentleman. All you have to do is to rub Mr. Bennett to get him irritated and annoyed. Then wait and see what language he uses," said Mr. King, who continued to say that public demanded of its public men that they attempt to act like gentlemen before they go before the people of Canada.

The smuggling situation had grown out of proportion in the United States but there was no record of Mr. Meighen's government making any attempt to grapple with the border conditions, Mr. King declared. The Liberal government early in its life negotiated a treaty with the United States to combat the traffic in narcotics and the smuggling of liquor. Later, the government had co-operated with the commercial protective association for the suppression of smuggling generally. As for the dismissal of Bisailon—who had been a forty appointee—that was done by the Liberal government long before Mr. Stevens did anything in the matter of Customs.

Of the charge of avoiding a vote of censure on the Customs matter, Mr. King said that there was no vote of censure. The advice to His Excellency was defended.

Not since Confederation had a Governor-General refused dissolution to a Prime Minister. "You're not running away from a situation when you are presenting your whole case before the public at large," said Mr. King.

It hurt so that I couldn't lie down with it. I heard some of the girls talking about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and they told me to try it. I have taken about a dozen bottles of it and it has done me a lot of good. I never have any pains or sore back now, and have not been off from work a day since I have taken it. I recommend the Vegetable Compound when I have the opportunity." —Miss ROLLO, 21 Howie Avenue, Toronto, Ontario.

"The Advice of a Friend" Hanover, Ontario. — "I was terribly pained and a few odd times I almost fainted. I used to do housework until a few months ago and sometimes had to leave my work and go to bed. I am now a member in the knitting mill. I suffered five or six years from painful periods before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by the advice of a friend. I got relief almost immediately, and I tell my friends what a good medicine it is. You may use this testimonial if you like, if it will help others." —Miss J. BURGESS BEDTIME STORIES

THE COLLAR MADE OF SAND
More often than you ever dream Things really are not what they seem.

—Jimmy Skunk.

Jimmy Skunk was wandering along the beach, pulling over this and poking his nose into that. Never had Peter Rabbit any more curiosity than Jimmy Skunk possessed. There were so many curious things on the beach that Jimmy was finding something new and unexpected and queer every other thing.

Farther along the beach Reddy Fox was doing the same thing. It was curious how many queer things were washed up with every full tide. Then when the tide went out, ebbed as they say, these queer things were left behind. Jimmy looked over toward Reddy. Reddy was looking very intently at something. "I wonder what he's found," thought Jimmy. "I wonder if it's anything new; anything I haven't found. I believe I'll go over there to see."

So Jimmy Skunk shuffled along over toward Reddy Fox. "Reddy," said he, "you look puzzled. 'What have you found?'"

"I wish you'd tell me," replied Reddy promptly. "It seems to be made of sand, but I've never seen anything like it before. Anyway, I don't see how sand can hold together this way."

Jimmy came over and looked down at the thing Reddy was staring at. It looked a whole lot like a collar, the shape of one of the big white collars that little boys sometimes wear. It was just about that size. But it was made of sand. At least, it looked so. When Jimmy touched it, it felt so. He turned it over and still it didn't break. That was as puzzling as was the shape of the thing. How could anything so thin as that be made of sand and not break when it was turned over? Jimmy looked at it very closely; it certainly was made of sand; he could see the grains.

Just then Graywing the Gull came flying over. He saw Jimmy and Reddy. Of course, nothing escapes those sharp eyes of Graywing's. He swung in a circle and then flew low. "What are you fellows looking at?" he inquired.

"You tell us," retorted Reddy. "Graywing alighted a few feet away. 'Oh, that?' said he. 'Why, that is nothing but a lot of eggs.'"

"Eggs!" retorted Jimmy scornfully. "Eggs! Say, what is the matter with your eyes, Graywing? Can't you see that this is all sand?" Graywing chuckled. "I see the sand all right," said he, "but with that sand a lot of eggs are mixed."

meeting will be at the home of Mrs. E. P. Leonard on September 15th, in the afternoon. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Saunders served tea. Receipts were $100.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Jenkinson and son, Cedric, were in Stoke on Sunday at Mr. A. J. Jenkinson's.

STYLE OR NOTHING Mrs. Upson—John, didn't I hear the architect say our new garage was to have a hip roof? Husband—Yes; what of it? Mrs. Upson—I wish you'd make him change it. Everybody knows hips are out of style now.

"What are you fellows looking at?" he inquired

Reddy and Jimmy bent over the Sand Collar and looked at it more closely. But for all their looking they couldn't see any eggs. "Where are the eggs?" demanded Jimmy.

"Under the sand," replied Graywing. "Do you see that big, round snail over there? Well those eggs belong to her."

Reddy and Jimmy looked. Sure enough, right close by was a great big snail, one of the round kind. It was bluish white and at the time they looked was moving slowly along away from that Sand Collar.

"You see," explained Graywing, "those eggs are very tiny, and there are a great number of them. When they were laid by Mrs. Snail, they were covered with something sticky and the sand right away stuck to this on both sides, so that the whole thing looks as if it were made of sand. But it isn't. If nothing happens to that, there will be a whole lot of baby snails come out of that some day. So now you know what a Sand Collar is."

"Of course, Mr. Gull, if you say so, it must be so," replied Jimmy most politely. Then he sighed. "But it is hard to believe," he added.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—Rudolph Valentino, film star, was rushed to the Polytechnic Hospital here Sunday following a collapse. His condition was reported very satisfactorily Sunday night.

Stricken suddenly in his apartment at the hotel Ambassador, Valentino was removed to the hospital, where he underwent an operation for the removal of gastric ulcer and the appendix.

Mr. Valentino is still unconscious and it will be three or four days before it is known definitely how he is going to come out of it, his physician said late Sunday night.

With only his valet in his apartment with him at the time, the motion picture actor collapsed shortly before noon. George Ullman, Valentino's manager and a friend, were called in. They summoned a doctor and had Mr. Valentino removed to the hospital at 4.30 o'clock. The double operation was performed about an hour later.

YOUNG WOMAN LOST FOR FIVE DAYS IN WOODS

CACETCAIN, N. B., Aug. 17.—After being lost in the dense woods near here for practically five days while she lived on berries and slept under trees, fearing each night she would be dead before morning, having seen a wild cat and a bear, Miss Eva Coy, of Upper Gagetown, the twenty-three-year-old daughter of Mrs. Joseph Coy, who has been missing since 5.30 p.m. Tuesday was found in the woods about six miles from her home at 1 p.m. Sunday.

The young woman was greatly weakened and had apparently not risen from the spot where she lay down to sleep Saturday night. Her first request to her rescuers was for a drink of water. Joseph Owens, George Allingham and Will Johnson found her.

The girl was driven to the home of her mother. Dr. W. M. Jenkins and Miss Annie Graham, R.N., were summoned and last night the patient was much better.

Miss Coy said she had gone for a walk in the woods and had lost her way.

Between 300 and 400 persons, among them the most expert couriers in the province, were scouring the woods Sunday for the girl.

TRAFFIC COP IS BOSS AT KING STREET SQUARE

Local Man and Huntingville Resident Are Impressed With Fine that Laws and Regulations Were Made to Be Observed.

That the traffic laws and regulations must be observed was impressed upon Emile Lavature, a local butcher, this morning, when he appeared in the Recorder's Court and was found guilty of violating the traffic laws and was fined five dollars and costs or fifteen days in jail.

Lavature had been taken in hand by the police after he had refused to observe the traffic law which demands that the traffic officer stationed at the corner of King and Wellington Streets must be given the direction in which motorists wish to go. It is understood that on several past occasions Lavature had gone by this spot and had failed to observe this rule.

Nelson Mitchell, of Huntingville, also appeared before the authorities, and was fined ten dollars for the same offence.

Speaking to the Recorder this morning in this connection, Chief Camirand stated that the authorities have been given very little trouble at the corner of King and Wellington Streets, and as a rule the law, which states that motorists must indicate to the traffic officer which direction they are going, is well observed. Referring to the Lavature and Mitchell cases, the Chief remarked that both of these persons have repeatedly passed this corner without giving any signals and have both been warned. Lavature was only fined five dollars as his costs are very heavy, while Mitchell was fined ten dollars but the costs involved were much less.

SUMMER SCHOOL PAYS TRIBUTE TO PRINCIPAL

Appreciative Address Tendered to Dr. F. C. Harrison at Macdonald College by Rural Clergymen.

At a social gathering of the rural ministers attending the Summer School at Macdonald College, the sessions of which have just closed, the members of the school presented Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Harrison with an address signed on behalf of the whole body by Rev. F. W. K. Harris, their president for the year. The address read in part as follows: "F. C. Harrison, D.Sc., F.R.S.C.: Dear Dr. Harrison,—We, the members of the Summer School of Rural Clergy, recognize that the inception of this school owes very much to you. We desire to bear our testimony that it has been a great boon to us."

We know that in this matter we speak not only for ourselves, but for many who are not present with us this year, to whom the school has been a benefit. "You have won our deepest gratitude for the valuable tuition you have given us yourself, and also for the opportunity of listening to the highly trained instructors you have secured for us."

"You have had a lengthy and honorable connection with this college, and many will express their appreciation of what you have done during the years you have held your position in it; you will yourself have your own estimate of the value of what you have attempted; but we think that nothing you have done will prove of greater worth to the community and the country than the institution and continued care of this Summer School."

Thanks were tendered Mrs. Brown for her effective services and she was presented with the sum of fourteen dollars as a token of appreciation.

It was reported that an exhibit from Quebec Province would be sent to the C.N.E. in Toronto in September and decided that the exhibits at the annual short course in January should be cooking, sewing, knitting, crocheting and girls' classes, and would be open not only to the Institute as heretofore, but to anyone paying a small fee.

Refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Clarke and their daughter, Doreen, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clarke.

Miss Mary Layhew, of Montreal, was the guest of friends in town over the week-end.

AUTO THEFTS IN NEARBY TOWNS ARE REPORTED

Local Police Have Been Informed of Thefts at Rock Island and Scotstown—Scotstown Affair, However, Did Not Prove Successful and Car Was Abandoned.

Reports have reached the local police department of a series of auto thefts which have occurred during the past few days in several different nearby towns, and which have caused considerable alarm to the public generally in these places.

Word was received here this morning that last night auto thieves were active at Rock Island, with the result that an Overland car, the property of Mr. J. Brault, of Rock Island, was stolen. Later this morning the police were informed that an unsuccessful attempt had been made to steal a practically new McLaughlin car, 1925 model, bearing license 86818, Que. The car, which was the property of Mr. Robert Scott, of Scotstown, was taken from his garage, but abandoned a short distance outside the town. It is believed that the same party was responsible for the two thefts.

CHANGE NAME OF DOMINION EXPRESS CO.

On and After September 1 This Company Will Be Known as the "Canadian Pacific Express Company."

The Dominion Express Company will be known as The Canadian Pacific Express Company beginning September 1.

The change, made after 44 years' operation by the C.P.R., is being marked by the Canadian Pacific with an attractive booklet giving a short history of its career and a synopsis of its wide-spread activities. The Dominion Express Company was incorporated in 1875, but it was in 1882 that Mr. Van Horne, then president of the C.P.R., took it over as an operating part of the Canadian Pacific Railway. G. A. Kirkpatrick, later Sir George Kirkpatrick, Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, was its president, and W. S. Stout, a young but thoroughly experienced express man, became its superintendent. Mr. Stout is today president and has for many years guided its fortunes in that capacity.

For some years he and his associates had a hard and uphill fight. They not only moved traffic, but helped create by finding Canadian and foreign markets for Canadian products and by scientific rate making encouraging the farmer, fruit grower and others whose markets were far away. The growth of the company over these many years is an interesting story, and has an important chapter in the commercial history of this country. The booklet is handsomely illustrated and is being widely distributed wherever the company operates.

CAR STRUCK BY FREIGHT NEAR WATERVILLE

Prouty Crossing Scene of Another Accident—James Reid, of Waterville, Escaped Injury by Jumping from Car—Car a Total Wreck.

Mr. James Reid, of Waterville, had a narrow escape from serious injury when the Ford car which he was driving was struck by a south-bound C.N.R. freight at a level crossing, known as the Prouty crossing, three miles this side of Waterville on the Sherbrooke-Stanstead highway, at about 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

According to reports, Mr. Reid was driving home from Sherbrooke, and on approaching the crossing he failed to hear the bell which is placed at that crossing to warn motorists of the approach of a train. To his great surprise, a train suddenly came into sight, and being unable to stop, he jumped from the car. The engine crashed into the vehicle and carried it about twenty-five feet the other side of the crossing, damaging it beyond repair. Mr. Reid was not injured by his

ARRANGEMENTS ARE NOT FINAL FOR FUNERAL

His Grace Archbishop Gauthier, of Montreal, Will Officiate at Final Rites for Late Lord Bishop of Sherbrooke—Expected His Grace Archbishop Emerd, of Ottawa, Will Preach, Although Arrangements Have Not Been Completed—Body Lying in State.

During the entire day yesterday, priests from all sections of the diocese were pouring into the city called by the death of their late distinguished bishop, the Right Rev. Paul Laroque, Lord Bishop of Sherbrooke, which occurred Sunday morning, and whose remains are lying in state in the Bishop's Palace. As yet, none of the dignitaries of the church or clergy from outside the diocese have arrived, although a very large number are expected to attend the funeral on Friday morning.

The details regarding the funeral have not been finally completed yet. Apart from the fact that the service will be held at ten o'clock Friday morning at the Cathedral, with His Grace Archbishop Gauthier, of Montreal, officiating, the other arrangements are still being attended to. It is expected that His Grace Archbishop Emerd, of Ottawa, will deliver the sermon. Those assisting His Grace the Archbishop of Montreal and the other clergy who will officiate at the service are as yet unknown. The funeral service will comprise five different services and will be carried out with all the pomp and ceremony which characterizes such an event.

Among the dignitaries of the church who are expected to be present are His Grace Archbishop Gauthier, His Grace Archbishop Emerd, of Ottawa; and Their Lordships Bishop Ryan, of Pembroke, and Bishop Deschamps, of Montreal. The body of the late Bishop will lie in state at the Bishop's Palace until eight o'clock Thursday evening when it will be removed to the Cathedral where it will remain until the funeral Friday morning.

Many Viewing Remains.
A very large number of people, including men and women from all walks in life, as well as children of all ages, have visited the Palace to pay their respects to the venerable prelate.

The body is resting in the spacious reception hall on the ground floor of the Palace, where huge windows over look the business section of the city and from which a most attractive view of the country side for miles around can be secured. It is also in this same room that His Lordship had on many occasions during his life time received the numerous callers who visited the Palace on different occasions.

The huge room presents a very solemn and impressive appearance. On all sides is given the sign of mourning into which the church has been plunged. The body is resting on a couch covered in purple and gold while heavy black drapings are hung from the paintings on the walls. Among these pictures is one of His Lordship which also is covered in black and above which hangs a black crucifix. In the far end of the room a temporary altar has been erected and upon this rests a tall silver cross surrounded by six candles in silver candlesticks. The windows likewise are draped in purple, while similar coverings are placed on the floor.

Surrounding the body are six tall candles in gold candlesticks, while many beautiful ferns on marble pedestals are placed between the candles.

The body of the late Bishop is clothed in rich purple vestments with white mitre and black kid gloves. A perpetual watch is kept over the body by the Rev. Sisters. Those viewing the body enter the room by a side door pass through an ante room and then into the room where the body rests. Here all kneel for a few minutes to offer to Almighty God a silent prayer for the repose of the soul of the aged Bishop, who in life was so dearly loved by all.

On the outside of the building, over the main entrance, is draped the flag bearing the Pope's colors and emblem, and this, draped in black, tells the outside world that within this building is resting the body of Sherbrooke's Lord Bishop.

Jump and soon got a lift from a passing car and was driven to the Riverside Garage, Waterville, where help was immediately dispatched and the car towed in to the garage.

Corns removed—root and all

The business end of the corn is the root. When this root presses down on one of the sensitive nerves beneath the skin, the pain begins. The only way to get the pain to stop is to get the corn out root and all with Radox. When you dip your foot into a foot bath containing Radox, the dead skin (of the corn) combines with the Radox Bath Salts to form a protein salt of the actual corn itself. This protein salt dissolves in the water like ordinary salt and so loosens the corn that it can be removed bodily. Radox Bath Salts does not affect the living skin; it is only the dead skin—the corn—which it dissolves.

ROCK ISLAND NOW FIGURES IN THE MOVIES

Rock Island, recently so much in the limelight, continues to the fore and has stepped into the movies. Pathe's weekly scenes now appearing at theatres throughout the country, include three views of Rock Island, illustrating how the line runs through the sister villages of Rock Island and Derby Line. One scene shows the Haskell Library, the cornerstone of which is divided by the international boundary. Another pictures the jewelry store, one half in Canada and the other in the States. The third picture is of a resident, the front door in Quebec and the back door in Vermont.

FIRST OF THE FALL FAIRS.

Cookshire is the scene today of the first of the Fall Fairs, and the eastern part of Compton County will present its best in the line of products of the farm.

Compton County has long been a leader in agriculture. This applies particularly to the townships of Eaton and Compton. The pioneers who settled here were good judges of soil and made excellent choice of location. There was a time when the Compton herds of thoroughbred stock were famous. Conditions may have changed somewhat with the passing of the years, but many fine and well cultivated farms are to be found in the eastern part of Compton, represented by the exhibition that opens today.

This inauguration of the fall fair season is earlier than usual, but the display of products will be none the less striking on that account.

HONORING THE PIONEERS.

One section of the townships has taken definite steps to honor its pioneer settlers, namely, the eastern part of Stanstead township.

The men and women who first settled in these Southern Quebec regions were a sturdy lot of people. Courage was required and they had it in abundance. They did not lack in perseverance or they would never have won their battle with the wilderness. Integrity of character marked these pioneer settlers. They were serious minded people. For six days they labored hard and on the seventh they rested. They reared large families and accomplished almost incredible tasks, in converting the primeval forests into smiling farm lands.

The pioneer settlers of the Eastern Townships should not be forgotten for their example was of the sort that makes for good citizenship. A memorial on Dufferin Heights, overlooking the scenes of pioneer labor in that region, will be a worthy tribute from descendants, and will help to keep alive the memory of the old days.

JACK MINER DRAWS THE LINE.

Jack Miner, lover of birds, has decided to bar the public from his bird sanctuary on Sundays and declares that no exceptions will be made and that even Lloyd George and Calvin Coolidge need not apply. Mr. Miner states that he has been forced to take this step much against his will, but the lack of consideration for his grounds, property and home by the thousands of visitors who call upon him each year has necessitated his taking this drastic action.

"There will be general sympathy and agreement with the Canadian naturalist in the action he has taken to ensure some measure of privacy in his life, particularly on Sunday," says the Toronto Globe. "Mr. Miner believes that Sunday was given to man as a day of rest, and we agree with him. He is old-fashioned enough to want to go to church and Sunday school on the Sabbath Day, and we commend him, but the demands that were being made on him by thousands of non-churchgoers coming to see his home on Sundays broke even his long-suffering and patience, and resulted in a drastic protest. As an editorial in The Stratford Beacon-Herald points out, it can never be said that Jack Miner was stingy with his property."

erty. "It is no light thing to throw your private property open to the curious gaze of the public seven days a week, to have your best tulips torn up like grass, your home entered and made free with in your absence, and your barns endangered by careless smokers, and take it all with equanimity. The sage of Kingsville endured it for years, but the day came when he said, 'Enough! Who can blame him?'"

PUBLIC AND OIL PRICES. (Financial Post) The public will continue to kick about the price of gasoline because the public does not know what the profits of the gasoline producers in Canada are.

The refining industry in Canada has, on the whole, been singularly reticent in regard to revealing facts and figures to indicate the price the public is paying for the service it gets. Where there is lack of information there is always suspicion.

Without a broader policy of public education, the oil companies will continue to be under continual public suspicion in Canada, and if that suspicion breaks into antagonism, they will have themselves to blame.

VALENTINO'S CONDITION IS VERY SERIOUS

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—While no official bulletins will be issued on Rudolph Valentino's condition until late today, it was said at the hospital this morning that he had slept soundly throughout the night. The film actor has developed local peritonitis following an operation for appendicitis and gastric ulcer on Sunday night.

The peritonical poison, doctors said, usually becomes general and when it does, the patient dies. The strong resistance of Valentino's splendid physique was said to be his only hope.

The actor asked several times yesterday about Pola Negri to whom he is engaged on trial, and had a telegram sent to her at Los Angeles, where she is working on a picture, saying he was recovering from his operation.

The screen sheik's life is insured for $1,000,000 in favor of his producer, Joseph M. Shenck.

Valentino has the most expensive and one of the largest suites in the hospital, but there is not enough room in it for all the flowers sent him by admirers and many are sent to the rooms of other patients. The hospital telephone switchboard is swamped with inquiries about him. A special waiting room has been set aside for callers.

THE FAULT-FINDERS

A fable runs that the gods gave three fault-finders each a piece of glass. One of them, a fool, made his piece into a lens whereby he magnified every little error into something huge. The second was a just man; he used his as a window pane so that he saw things more as they were. The third man, though a fault-finder, had wisdom; of his piece he made a mirror wherein he could see that many of the faults he deplored were in himself.

WESTERN HIGHWAYMAN ADMITS GUILT

Tom Johnson Identifies His Victims Without Waiting for Them to Recognize Him.

(Associated Press Despatch) MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Aug. 17.—Tom Johnson, confessed murderer and stick-up man, does not believe in letting his victims identify him, he identifies the victims.

Johnson's initiative astonished police officials who have been treated to one sensation after another since Johnson was brought back from Seattle where he had given himself up.

Johnson has confessed to numerous hold-ups here. He not only has led police to spots where he worked, but described the robberies in detail and has specified the amount of loot in each case.

But the police decided to have some of the victims formally identify Johnson. A "show up" was arranged late yesterday and among those called was Mrs. Charles Tatum, of Aberdeen, S.D., who was robbed at her home there July 9th.

The victims were against the wall facing their robber. Suddenly Johnson stepped down and sauntered over to Mrs. Tatum.

"How do you do, Mrs. Tatum, how are you?" said Johnson, and then shook hands with her.

"I am fine," she answered. "It seems strange to see you here."

Although Mrs. Tatum's husband was tied to a tree after the robbery, Johnson told Mrs. Tatum that he had taken pains to see that no harm would come to Mr. Tatum for their daughter's sake.

"When I saw your little girl, that night," he told Mrs. Tatum, "I decided I wouldn't harm him. I knew that if I killed anybody it would be the little girl that would suffer."

Then Johnson stepped over to J. F. Nilsson, of Minneapolis.

"Remember when I showed my gun at you, and you tried to get it away from me and I told you to beat it?" Nilsson laughed and they shook hands.

To the manager of a shoe store, which had been robbed, Johnson said: "Did you get your feet wet that night?"

Both laughed as they recalled the incident. Johnson had tied the manager to a large tub of water before proceeding with the looting of the place.

Johnson has confessed that he shot and fatally wounded Leonard Erdall, an attorney and former University of Minnesota football star during a hold-up here. The county grand jury met today to hear evidence in the case.

Johnson pleaded to be sent to Iowa.

NEW YORK
YANKS HAVE
WORK CUT OUT

In Spite of Lead Must Win Half of Coming Games to Be Sure of Pennant.

(Associated Press Despatch)
NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—Miller Huggins, little manager of the New York Yanks, feels that he has a big job in front of him despite his team's long lead in the American League.

"We must win half of our remaining thirty-six games to be safe," he argues, "and the way we went last week, even that is going to be hard. Cleveland can't take many beatings, that's true, but we'll have to fight every team all the way to be sure of the flag."

Sam Jones, the sad server, has come into his own during the last month, while other Yank moundsmen faltered. For four weeks he has gone without defeat in games that he started. He had one setback in a contest he finished at Washington last week when Ben Tate hit for the circuit.

Chicago and Detroit held up somewhat of a record for the season yesterday when they went ten innings without a score and then had to run for trains. The previous day they played five scoreless innings.

Tripled by Haney and Gaston gave the Red Sox a 7 to 1 victory over St. Louis in the second game of a double header after the Bostonians had been outslugged for a six to one beating in the first.

The St. Louis Cardinals gained half a game on Pittsburgh by beating Chicago by 5 to 4, in a ninth inning rally.

(Associated Press Despatch)

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—State license committee yesterday denied Jack Dempsey's application for license to fight Gene Tunney until he complies with state athletic commission's order to meet Harry Wills.

Yesterday when Dempsey was presented with a civil action by Jack Kearns, his former manager, to recover $333,333.33, Kearns thinks is due him, Dempsey accepted service without a word, but indicated his feeling when he took it out on his sparring partners.

LADIES

A team consisting of A. and B. players representing the ladies of the St. Francis Golf Club motored to Dufferin Heights on Saturday to play the first half of their interclub match. Nine holes only were played resulting in a win for the St. Francis ladies of eight to nothing.

The following is the score: St. Francis—Mrs. McKee 0, Miss M. Tomlinson 0, Miss A. Bradford 0, Mrs. Costley 0, Mrs. Channell 0, Mrs. Beaton 0, Miss Haight 0, Mrs. Webster 0, Mrs. Salls 0. LACROSSE

The St. Pats lacrosse team are definitely in the Munro Cup play-off with the winners of the East Sherbrooke-Scouts contest, the Irishmen emerging on the long end of a 3 to 0 score last evening in their game with the Nationals. The Irish boys scored one in the first period, McGinty putting his team in the lead after about five minutes of fast play, and two in the second, when Whitcomb and Slattery each tallied. The wood was laid on pretty heavily, but there were no serious mishaps. One or two fistic encounters were commenced, but these were quickly squelched. The most serious accident of the evening occurred when Lorenzo Couture, with the Nationals, was checked by Proulx, the former receiving a rather bad cut on his lip, which necessitated his being taken to a doctor and having a couple of stitches taken to close the wound.

The best lacrosse of the evening was seen in the first period, when both teams started off with a rush, keeping the play pretty even. In the second frame the Irishmen outplayed the French boys and scored twice. It was really too dark for play in the third period, and the boys had a rather difficult job sometimes in judging the ball. No scoring was done in the last frame.

There was quite a large crowd of fans present, and both teams were well supported.

There was only one referee last evening, evidently through some misunderstanding, but Mr. Louis Rouleau, although kept very busy throughout the game, handled the contest in a splendid manner.

EAST SHERBROOKE TEAM WILL

HOLD WORKOUT TONIGHT

The members of the East Sherbrooke team will hold a workout this evening at 6.30 o'clock on the old lacrosse grounds. The official's request that all players be present, not only for the practice, but for some very important business, which must be settled tonight. The boys are asked to make a special effort to be present this evening.

THE ATHABASKA ELECTION INQUIRY

(Associated Press Despatch)
EDMONTON, Alta., Aug. 17.—Justice Clarke's judicial inquiry into irregularities in the Federal election in Athabaska last October continued yesterday. A session being held at Frog Lake, where the Cushing, Prairie Lake and Parenteau polls were investigated.

Although 82 votes were cast at one poll no witnesses could be found yesterday who had voted there or who knew of anyone who had. The district returning officer, Peter Peterson had left the country, the Alberta provincial police reported, and Elmer Ford, down as poll clerk, had not been in the district for two years, according to witnesses.

Two of the polls were in forest reserves, said witnesses, and they did not think there were half a dozen residents entitled to vote in the whole reserve.

HEAD OFFICE

HALIFAX, N. S.

The Company's Properties

The Company was incorporated on the Twentieth day of March, 1922, by Messrs. Henry, Rogers, Harris and Stewart, Barristers and Solicitors, with objects, among others, as below set forth.

1st. To take over the Patent Rights of Mr. O. H. Parsons on a machine or motor for generating Electrical Energy from the motions of tides, waves and ocean swell and known as Canadian Patent Number 212480, British Patent Number 168,636, and all other Foreign Patent Rights either granted or that may at this time be pending on this motor.

2nd. To acquire sufficient funds for the purpose of building a demonstration plant of convenient size in order to have a final test made by Government Engineers and to prove to all that this machine, known as the "Parsons Wave Motor" is practical and will produce Electrical Energy, owing to estimated low cost of construction, cheaper than any other known agency.

3rd. To promote and encourage and aid in the promotion of Corporations for the purpose of generating Electrical Energy for Commercial Purposes.

The Assets of the Company consist of the Patents granted or pending on this Wave Motor in Canada, Great Britain, United States of America, Germany Spain, Belgium and the principal manufacturing countries of the world, and which have been transferred by Mr. O. H. Parsons to the Company.

Also a block of land purchased at Herring Cove on the Western side of Halifax Harbor and comprising about fifteen acres.

Soundings have been taken for the site of our Piers, a road has been built on our property to the place where operations will be carried on, a storehouse, blacksmith shop and other buildings necessary for the work have been erected.

The Company has erected a temporary demonstration plant, which has already been in operation and does convince Engineers that Electrical Energy can be supplied by means of this "Wave Motor," not only for a fraction LESS than the present cost, but, it is believed, for a fraction of the present cost.

The World Is Our Market—Tremendous Possibilities

Today the world is looking for power. Nations are seeking Coal and Oil concessions to insure power for the future and the country that today has an abundance of cheap power holds the key to success. It is bound to become a great manufacturing country and the bright spots in any country today are those spots where power is cheap.

As pointed out in an article in the MORNING STANDARD, July 4th, 1925, GREAT BRITAIN'S LACK OF WATER POWER will compel her to resort to Power generated from the ocean.

According to careful estimates the United Kingdom may generate something like 1,000,000 hydro-electrical horse-power from its rivers. The Power thus generated would be exceedingly expensive, because their mountain streams are small and many of them occur in far-away Scotland not in the industrial districts.

A RECENT BRITISH WRITER STATED: "Without delay the Government should offer a prize of a million pounds or more for the production of cheap tidal power. Such a prize would cause every inventive brain throughout the world to give thought to the question. The great inland countries, even the United States, would lose much of the natural advantages over Great Britain which they possess at present. The Ocean can furnish Great Britain with unlimited power for manufacturing and transport, with power which, unlike coal and oil, can never be exhausted."

Description of Wave Motor

The Wave Motor consists of a machine "The Motor" driven by means of a driving rack connected to a pontoon moving up and down.

The power to operate this motor is obtained by having the rack attached to a pontoon loaded to one half its capacity. As the wave or swell strikes this pontoon, it lifts it, pushing the rack up and as the swell passes the weighted pontoon brings it down thus giving a continuous up and down motion with power on both strokes.

In construction the machine is very simple, there being absolutely nothing of a complicated or delicate nature about it. It consists of a train of gears which by means of clutches transforms the up and down strokes of the rack into one continuous rotary motion of the main shaft fly wheel and driving pulley.

Construction of Plants

Piers are built into the sea, the pontoon resting buoyant in the water between the piers, on which are the Power Houses in which the motors and other machinery are installed.

Storm conditions are taken care of by the use of several other methods of protection which today are a proved means of combating storms and which Engineers advise us will give absolute protection.

Estimated Cost of Construction

From estimates received the cost of installation is only seven-tenths of a cent per K.W.H., while the cost of generating Electrical Energy after all estimated allowances have been made, for cost of upkeep, depreciation, Royalties, Interest to Bondholders, Sinking Fund, etc., is only three-tenths of a cent per K.W.H., compared with the cost of from 1-2 to 4 cents per K.W.H. for power from coal.

The fact is that the larger the generating plant to be erected the lower the cost of construction. The average cost of erecting generating plants in Canada up to 1919 (Canadian Government Report) was 5 cents per K.W.H.

Demonstration of Wave Motor

A number of extremely satisfactory demonstrations have been made. At one such trial held at the experimental plant at Herring Cove, N. S., of the Parsons Ocean Wave Motor in the presence of a number of gentlemen, including scientists, very satisfactory results followed.

Notwithstanding the fact that the sea outside was almost like a mill pond, the heavy swells were running into the Cove, so that when the small pontoon or boat which produces the power was hooked up to the machine, the latter easily generated brilliant electric light from several 60 watt lamps and several other smaller.

This test proved to the satisfaction of the Directors and Shareholders that the production of electrical energy had taken another stride forward and that history was again in the making. Again at a later test on December 11th, 1925, the newly built pontoon was connected up to the same machine and showed wonderful improvement over the previous demonstrations. Those who witnessed were positively satisfied with the results. No effort was noticeable on the part of the pontoon.

Increased power is obtained by increasing the size of the pontoon. Engineers have devoted considerable time in checking all computations on the possibilities of the Motor, and declare it to be not only workable, but practical, and it is known to all that the power is there and only awaits the installation of a mechanical device to convert this hitherto unharnessed source of wealth to the will of man.

Source of Revenue

It is the intention of the Company to charge 1-5 of a cent per K.W.H. capacity of plant for the rights to use, such charge to be paid to our Company upon the completion of each plant. In addition a Royalty of 1-50 of one cent per K.W.H. will be charged on all power developed by operating Royalties to be paid to our Company monthly, quarterly or yearly as may be decided upon by the Directors.

Distribution

It is not the desire of the Company to enter into competition with power plants already established, as it is not expected this will be necessary, but instead to form a Company to generate and sell to existing plants or to amalgamate existing Companies when the right to install this device will be sold to the operating Company, and also a Royalty will be derived and paid to the shareholders of the Parent Company.

(When the Present Financial Programme Is Completed, the Company Will Make Application to List the Stock on Some Prominent Stock Exchange.)
