CANADIAN FORCES ATTACK IN APENNINE SECTOR

Allies Near Nazi Army's Main Lines

Canadian Attack Reported Repulsed by German Defenders—Deep Salient Driven into Enemy's Lines.

London, Oct. 28.—(AP Cable)—The German-controlled Paris Radio reported today that Canadian forces operating with the British 8th Army had made a strong attack in the Apennine sector of the Italian front, but claimed that German defenders had "managed to halt it." The report, recorded by Reuters News Agency, was not confirmed by Allied sources which last reported Canadian troops of the 8th Army as in the thick of the fighting and acquitting themselves well.

BY NOLAND NORGAARD, Associated Press War Correspondent
Allied Headquarters, Algiers, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Anglo-American troops, stabbing high up the valley of the Upper Volturno River have driven a deep salient into the enemy's lines Northwest of Ravenna while the 8th Army engineers threw bridges across the Trigno River under heavy shell-fire, Allied headquarters announced today.

Enemy resistance was reported jelling along the entire front as the two Allied armies punched doggedly forward over rough countryside, moving down one strong outpost after another and approaching the new German main lines.

At the Adriatic end of the front, Gen. Sir Bernard Montgomery's Headquarters announced that his British troops had firmly secured a bridgehead over the Trigno River despite sharp and continuous enemy fighting to wipe out his position on the Northwest banks.

Artillery fire also was intense to the Southwest on the 8th Army Front, where 8th Army units in a four-mile drive from the last previously announced positions captured the town of Torrella del Sannio nine miles Northwest of Campobasso, and Mafalda, seven miles Northwest of Montefalcone and near the Southwest bank of the Trigno. It is in this general area that the Canadian 1st Division is reported operating.

The 5th Army, continuing its advance toward the new German mountain line, has captured Riardo, five miles Northwest of Pignataro, as both Allied armies marked up new gains in their slow but steady advances.

On the 5th Army Front, the Germans are using artillery to hold back the Allies who have succeeded, however, in driving a salient into enemy territory in the Ravenna area.

Kittyhawks of the South African Air Force, resuming their attacks to bolster Yugoslav Guerilla opposition to the Germans, attacked four barges off the Yugoslav Coast, the

Carrier-Borne Planes Expected To Nullify Japs' Land-Based Defences

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER, Washington, Oct. 28.—(AP)—The next few months are almost certain to bring some of the greatest battles since the United States entered the war between ship-borne and land-based aircraft over Japanese-held islands in the Central Pacific.

The United States naval authorities, however, are confident that carrier-borne planes in sufficient numbers can completely nullify the enemy's land-based aerial defences.

The battles appear likely to be joined when powerful forces of United States aircraft carriers strike at Japanese outer defences to seize advance bases from which to launch new attacks even nearer the Japanese mainland.

HOPE DIMMING IN SEARCH FOR LOST AIRCRAFT

Many Clues to Possible Whereabouts of Missing Liberator with 24 Aboard Have Been Tracked Down.

Antenne Lorette, Oct. 28. (P)—With hope dimming an intensive search is being pursued over a wide area for the big R.C.A.F. Liberator which disappeared October 19 with 24 passengers on a flight from an Eastern Canadian airbase to Montreal. Many clues as to the possible whereabouts of the missing plane have been tracked down by R.C.A.F. search parties but officials stated today they are still in possession of "nothing tangible."

There has been no direct message from the Liberator since 10 p.m. October 19 when it signalled the base at Mont Joli, Que., that adverse conditions made it impossible for a landing there and that the course would be pursued to Montreal.

On the theory that the aircraft might have gone down in the St. Lawrence, a careful check of the river, by plane and by boat, was made without success. An unconfirmed report had it that persons saw a large passenger plane plunging into the St. Lawrence between St. Simeon and Murray Bay, two north shore towns about a hundred miles below Quebec, the night of the flight, but no definite evidence of this could be established.

For the past week a systematic search by trained crews has been made from this R.C.A.F. base, stretching over a wide region of bush country deep into the Laurentian Mountains from the Lake St. John District to the Ottawa River. Wireless air gunners reported picking up incoherent messages on the emergency wave length from time to time, but R.C.A.F. officials stated there was no proof that any of these signals were from the missing aircraft.

Authorities say it will be a long tough job but they emphasize it is absolutely necessary to carry forward Allied bases in the Central Pacific to positions at least in line with advances already made along the Aleutians chain in the North and the Solomons Archipelago in the Southwest.

Ralph A. Bard, United States Assistant Secretary of the Navy, summed up the situation in a Navy Day speech at Detroit yesterday. "A study of the geography of the Central Pacific," he said, "clearly indicates the task which confronts the Navy. Attacks must be spearheaded from aircraft carriers. Landing operations in some of these islands may draw out the Japanese Navy. We hope and pray for that event."

Says Huns Will Sack Holy City

Philadelphia, Oct. 28.—(P)—The Germans will sack Rome if they are forced to abandon it, is the opinion of United States Navy Secretary Frank Knox. Knox said he saw the ruins of Naples in his recent trip to the Mediterranean war theatre, and added, "They will do the same thing in Rome if they have to abandon it. After all, they are still a bunch of Huns."

In a broadcast message, Knox urged that partisanship "end at the water's edge" by keeping international policies out of the coming United States political campaign.

PRIORITY LIST IS ANNOUNCED BY GOVERNMENT

Manpower Requirements for Different Industries, Long a Closely-Guarded Secret, Now Made Public.

Ottawa, Oct. 28.—A general list of four labor priorities for Canadian industry, long a closely-guarded secret of the Labor Department officials, was made public for the first time last night by Arthur Macnamara, Director of National Selective Service.

The list included these priority ratings: "A"—very high; "B"—high; "C"—low; "D"—no priority. It follows: "A"—industries, activities or establishments engaged in production of fuel, base metals, steel, certain chemicals, aircraft, lumber and selected equipment and machinery; ship-building, aircraft production, manufacture of implements of war and combat materials, including construction and repair of industrial plants and facilities necessary to produce such materials and parts, and including construction, maintenance and repair of them.

"B"—Industries or establishments engaged in such activities as logging, communications, transportation, agriculture, processing or manufacture of basic foods, newspaper publishing, maintenance of civilian health and safety, Government promotion of war production and production essential to the support and supply of (a) the armed forces, (b) the highest priority industries, and (c) essential services; construction and repair of industrial plants and facilities necessary to produce such materials and parts, and including construction, maintenance and repair of them.

"D"—Industries for which no priority is considered to be justified, including non-essential production.

HUNS FAIL TO HALT SOVIETS

Russian Gains Due To Allied War Materials

Soviet First Army to Throw Whole Divisions of Artillery into Battle—Tank Has Given Way to Gun.

Madrid, Oct. 28.—(P)—Continuing Russian successes against the Nazis were attributed today by the Berlin correspondent of Madrid's Informations to Soviet use of great concentrations of artillery and masses of material from the Allies.

The correspondent declared the Russians are "the first army in the world which has thrown whole divisions of artillery into battle."

Asserting that Russian artillery divisions were those which "succeeded in achieving those numerous infiltrations which German communications reported," he added: "On the Western front the tank has 'given way to the gun.'"

In saying that another reason for the Russian successes was the great quantity of material received from the Allies, he disagreed with previous German reports that little British or American material had been seen on the battlefronts.

But the correspondent, who said his information came from "one of the German generals best known to the newspaper world," concluded his article with the assertion the Germans still have many reserves which he said, will make everything all right eventually.

Another Berlin dispatch said a Balkan correspondent had asked "whether he should prepare opinion in his country for loss of the Dnieper line."

A British Hospital somewhere in England, Oct. 28.—(P Cable)—German civilians scrambled madly for food tossed to them from trains by prisoners of war, and Nazi prison guards turned "white with fear" at the mere mention of the Russian Front, some Canadian soldiers who had been wounded at Dieppe Aug. 19, 1943, and repatriated from Germany told newsmen here.

Then came some 5,000 Allied war prisoners who arrived in British ports this week in an exchange with Germans.

The Canadians said their impressions were drawn mostly from contact with camp guards and civilians encountered during the trip from occupied France to a Swedish embarkation port, but said the breakdown in morale was so obvious they had no hesitation in painting a dismal picture.

Reds Push Germans Out Of Crimea

The map above shows how the great Russian breakthrough in the Ukraine threatens to entrap vast numbers of German troops, thousands of whom are already evacuating the Crimea (broken arrow), according to Moscow reports. Encirclement of these armies and others in the Dnieper's big bend area is being threatened by the Red Army's drive to Krivoy Rog and Melitopol. In the North, Russians prepared to drive the last five miles for Kiev, while in the Caucasus area, they continued pincer pressure toward the Kerch peninsula.

OVER MILLION GERMAN CIVILIANS KILLED OR MISSING FROM RAIDS

London, Oct. 28.—(P)—An Exchange Telegraph Agency dispatch from Zurich today said 1,200,000 German civilians have been killed or reported missing in Allied air raids from the start of the war to October 1. The Agency said the figure was obtained from a member of the Government statistics office in Berlin.

The number bombed out or evacuated because of raid danger was said to be 6,953,000. (In Britain from the beginning of the war to end of September, 1943, there have been 68,282 civilians killed and 61,192 injured in air raids.)

Ottawa, Oct. 28.—(P)—The Prices Board announced today issuance of a new order effective immediately which makes adjustments in export prices ceilings, chiefly in Quebec and Ontario, to approximately the levels of last year.

The Board described certain sections of Quebec and Ontario as deficiency areas and said the adjustments were made "to encourage equitable distribution of supplies during the next few months or reduced seasonal production."

WAR BULLETINS

London.—Declaring that "complete disorder is likely to break out in France at any moment," a spokesman for the Vichy Government said in a broadcast last night that a new wave of resistance was sweeping the country and that the atmosphere was "ripe for complete lawlessness."

Chungking.—The United States Air Force struck again in support of Chinese forces on the Salween front and ranged far to drub the freight yards at Haiphong, Indo-China, and shipping off Hainan, it was disclosed today.

Stockholm.—The correspondent of the Svenska Dagbladet said today that reports reaching Switzerland indicated Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Allied Commander-in-Chief in the Mediterranean Theatre, was planning new amphibious operations against Central Italy.

Allies Landed On Mono Island

New York, Oct. 28.—(P)—A Tokyo broadcast recorded today by the Federal Communications Commission said Allied forces had landed on Mono Island, near Shortland in the Solomons, early Wednesday morning.

In an English-language broadcast Tokyo declared Japanese naval aircraft attacked the Allied convoy, sinking one warship and damaging another.

$643,457,050 SUBSCRIBED TO VICTORY LOAN

Ottawa, Oct. 28.—(P)—Subscriptions to the $1,200,000,000 Fifth Victory Loan up to last night—halfway mark in the three-week campaign—totalled $643,457,050 compared with $564,106,500 in the Fourth Victory Loan last spring when the total objective was $100,000,000 less, National Loan headquarters announced today.

Canadians invested $86,133,550 yesterday but Loan officials said they felt no "undue optimism."

"Although this is the largest daily telegraphic total reported in any one day thus far, it was in large part accounted for by an unusual number of 'special names' subscriptions, including the $22,500,000 investment of Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., which was announced yesterday," today's press statement from headquarters reported.

In the nine days of the current campaign the daily average was approximately $71,490,000, with nine-day average of roughly $62,570,000 in the last loan.

While payroll and armed forces subscriptions showed steady activity yesterday, another list of large collective subscriptions in the special names group was recorded.

The Knights of Columbus subscribed $800,000, Imperial Life Assurance Co. of Canada invested $6,000,000.

FOOD REGARDED AS PARAMOUNT IN NEW ORDER

Seignior Club, Que., Oct. 28.—(P)—Food and agriculture have been given first place in post-war national and international affairs, enjoying recognition to an extent previously unknown, Dr. G. S. H. Barton, Federal Deputy Minister of Agriculture, said in addressing the Canadian Chamber of Commerce annual meeting here today.

Dr. Barton spoke of the United Nations' food conference at Hot Springs, Va., this summer, which he attended, and said it was regarded as a first step in the development of plans for peace in accordance with provisions of the Atlantic Charter.

The basic concept was "a secure, adequate and suitable supply of food for every man in the first requisite of freedom from want has had universal acceptance and has reached a responsive chord in public opinion," said Mr. Barton.

"All the governments of the countries represented have participated in establishing the interim commission for which a Canadian, L. B. Pearson, minister-counsellor,

Fresh Planes And Men Are Of No Avail

Fall of Krivoy Rog Believed to Be but Matter of Hours—120 Towns Captured by Advancing Soviet Forces.

London, Oct. 28.—(P)—Soviet armies blasting Westward along a 150-mile long front today threatened the encirclement of still powerful but disorganized German forces in a slowly closing pocket below Dnepropetrovsk in Southern Russia.

Fall of strongly defended Krivoy Rog, iron ore and rail centre already reported flanked on three sides by Red Army troops, was believed to be but a matter of hours, battlefield dispatches clearing through Moscow indicated.

The Germans were in slow but steady retreat along the entire Southern Front, according to a Moscow communique. The German High Command threw in planes, tanks and men from Italy, France and Germany in a desperate attempt to stem the Russian advance, but to no avail.

The relentless drive carried the Red troops through more than 120 towns on the heels of the retreating enemy. The Moscow war bulletin reported Soviet spearheads at Novorossiysk, 48 miles West of Melitopol in the South, and at Krivichki, 27 miles West of Dnepropetrovsk on the Northern end of the fighting front. A secondary thrust carried other Russian troops into the town of Gorokov on the Sea of Azov, 20 miles from a narrow isthmus joining the Crimea with the mainland.

The Russians cleared the 70-mile-long railroad line from Zaporozhe to Melitopol, taking the important

EXPECT STEADY FOOD PRODUCTION

Seignior Club, Que., Oct. 28.—(P)—Agriculture Minister Gardiner said today the total tonnage of Canadian food production during 1944 is expected to be the same as in 1943 but that there will be some shift from one product to another. "We believe that with the best of co-operation from all there will be a drop in tonnage of pork and possibly dairy products," he said in an address prepared for delivery to the annual meeting of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce.

"We hope for some net increase in beef, poultry and grains," he said.

Japs' Rabaul Fortress Tottering Under Severe Aerial Assaults

Allied Headquarters, the Southwest Pacific, Oct. 28.—(P)—Rabaul, a keystone in the wall of island outposts manned by the Japanese in defence of the Philippines, is staggering under aerial knockout blows which already have destroyed or damaged 525 planes in 13 days.

The hundreds of attacking Allied bombers and fighters have shot down or damaged 175 of the 250 planes the Japanese man-aged to get into the air; and Rabaul's reputed anti-aircraft defences have been unable to halt the devastation.

This certain destruction of 377 enemy planes and probable damaging or destruction of 148 others at the very heart of Japanese air might in the Southwest Pacific has cost the Allies 13 planes.

Foresees Day When Jap Homeland Will Be Dealt Staggering Blows

Honolulu, Oct. 28.—(P)—The Commander-in-Chief of the United States Pacific Fleet confidently foresees the day when the same "round-the-clock air bombardments now tearing at Germany will pound the Japanese homeland."

Declaring Allied victory is certain, Admiral Chester W. Nimitz said in a Navy Day address that Japan's total air strength already has declined and her presently powerful armies inevitably must be pulled in as enemy shipping losses mount.

Once adequate bases have been secured close to the Japanese homeland—"this will be done"—Japan will "know what Germany suffers day after day and night after night in attacks from the air," the Admiral told the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce yesterday.

Two Townships Zones Have Raised $11,036,250 To Date In Campaign

Division Five, 66.1 per cent; Division Six, 61.9 per cent. The aggregate raised in the two zones totals $11,036,250 in general sales and special subscriptions against a combined quota of $13,425,500.

These latest figures released today by Division Headquarters told the complete story of the first nine of the eighteen working days of Canada's Fifth Victory Loan drive in the twelve counties of the Eastern Townships.

At the end of the first half of the campaign, Divisions Five and Six registered $1,865,400 and $1,790,500, respectively, in general sales which amounted to $3,655,900, while special names were listed as $3,269,800 and $4,110,550, respectively, totalling $7,866,350. The goal of Division Five is $4,372,000 and that of Division Six is $9,053,500.

One of the highlights of yesterday's business occurred in Richmond County where a barrage of subscriptions swamped unit headquarters and doubled the percentage of this district, jumping it from 31.9 to 62.6 per cent during a 24-hour period. Pledges in this county are $1,031,150, with $444,640 in general sales and the other $586,500 in special names. Because of this spirited spree, Richmond now is in fourth place, trailing Sherbrooke.

Sherbrooke, with a cumulative total of $3,125,950 against its quota of $3,350,000, remained in third position with 77.6 per cent. Still in second place despite frequent nip-and-tuck battle with Sherbrooke, Shefford County edged ahead to a percentage of 80.1.

The first district of the twelve to exceed its quota, Arthabaska was the sole contender in the over-subscription race and yesterday's sales boosted its percentage to 109.5.

There are three counties, two of which are tied, in the fifty per cent lead. Leading is Missisquoi with 52.2 per cent, while Megantic and Brome are in a stalemate, the former having 51.4 and the latter 51.6 per cent.

Only special subscription announced by the local National War Finance Committee today was Rosenbloom's Ltd., for $6,000.

The Superheater Company had an oversubscription within two hours of the opening of their employee drive. Receipts amounted for $21,000 against a required $18,700.

Subscriptions amounting to $155,700 were shown in a final report from the Canadian Johns-Manville Company, Limited, employees, who had a quota of $126,500, and as a result of this splendid showing, the plant qualified for a three-star "V" flag.

F. Baillargeon, Ltee., St. Constant, in Lapierre County, which is a group payroll establishment, won an honor certificate by passing its objective with every employee investing in bonds.

Waterloo, with $164,700 for 431.7 per cent of its objective registered, is now leading Granby which has $447,100, representing 119.2 per cent.

Granby Manufacturing Company purchased $5,100 and the employees of this firm subscribed $1,000 on a $600 goal. The employees of the City of Granby surpassed their objective of $2,350 by purchasing $2,800 in Bonds. Employees of the Ideal Furniture Company reached their objective with all the workers participating.

HALLOWEEN TO BE CELEBRATED ON SATURDAY

Director of Police Percy Donahue warned today that the local force has been ordered not to tolerate any disturbances in Sherbrooke on Sunday night. While Halloween falls on Sunday, plans have been made to hold parties and programmes on Saturday.

Once again this year the Lions Club has undertaken to give the young people of the city a party and plans are now underway to entertain some two thousand children at the Belvidere Street Armory.

Everyone is invited to attend the party to be given by the Lions Club and all children throughout the city are urged to attend this big event and to enter wholeheartedly into the fun.

ACCUSED PLEAD NOT GUILTY ON EXCISE COUNT

J. Emile Perrault and his brother, Paul Henri, both of Sherbrooke, were ordered to stand trial at the next session of the Criminal Assizes on charges of illegally possessing U.S. cigarettes, following their preliminary hearing before Judge J. H. Lemay in Magistrate's Court this morning.

They pleaded not guilty at their arraignment last Wednesday when they were remanded. The brothers were taken into custody in the course of a raid by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police which netted a reported 95,000 American-made smokes in an automobile on a Sherbrooke street.

Both the cigarettes and the car were seized by the Mounties, acting on orders of Inspector F. W. Zanetti, Officer Commanding the R.C.M.P. sub-division.

International business problems and co-operation between the United States and Canadian Chamber of Commerce were discussed further at another meeting.

The secretaries considered what should be done by Chambers of Commerce Boards of Trade to hasten victory through co-operation of business groups in Canada.

The secretarial conference was held prior to the official opening today of the annual parley.

CHARITIES TO SEEK $12,000 IN CAMPAIGN

The eighth annual campaign of the Catholic Federated Charities, with an objective of $12,000, is scheduled to be held from November 7th to 14th inclusively. A gala programme has been arranged for the opening night of the drive when approximately five hundred invited guests will witness a musical festival being put on by the orphans of the Sacred Heart Hospital. In addition to this entertainment, a number of prominent citizens will make brief speeches at the institution in support of the campaign.

The various committees have virtually completed all the details connected with the organization of the drive. A feature, as announced by the publicity committee, will be a daily luncheon at 12:30 to be tendered all the canvassers in the campaign. In addition to these regular guests, the committee is planning to invite various clubs and organizations on different days of the week. The objective of $12,000 is similar to last year's when more than $18,000 was realized. Officials anticipate no difficulty in attaining this year's quota, providing everyone gives the organization full co-operation.

Philip Carey and Superheater Co. Exceed Objectives In Loan Drive

Officials of the Philip Carey Company, Limited, at Lennoxville, reported today that employees purchased $15,000 worth of bonds against a quota of $7,500, an oversubscription of one hundred per cent, at a rally held at the plant yesterday afternoon. The form is being awarded the highest honor of the Fifth Victory Loan campaign, the three-star "V" pennant, as more than ninety per cent of the workers bought bonds.

The rally got underway when Wilfred Olivier, Personnel Manager of the company, introduced W. N. Rook, General Manager. Mr. Rook told the employees that victory depends upon the future battles and those on the home front have an important role to play: these battles by investing in Victory Bonds.

Employees of the Superheater Company may well feel proud of their contribution, and the company may well be proud of its employees. This is another contribution to the war effort of the United Nations and another contribution to the defeat of Hitler and his yellow ally.

front are doing as well as those in khaki, stressing that the workers must continue to stand behind the men in the lines.

In French, Charles de L. Mignault said that the tests we face now are, in their way, infinitely more difficult than others encountered and overcome in the past.

In stressing the necessity for the employee to buy more bonds, to back up the men who are giving their lives, he said, "If it sometimes seems that the shouting about it is a little annoying, a little loud, remember that of the loudest shout can wake the dead who went out with the fighting forces."

Mr. Mignault was introduced by H. G. Loken, Superintendent. Mr. Loken conducted the rally, prior to which a talking motion picture film, entitled "Sicily, Key to Victory," was shown.

Following the picture, refreshments were served. The firm chanced off a bond for fifty dollars and this was won by D. de Fontaine, of Sherbrooke.

Among others sitting on the platform, especially during the Fifth Victory Loan rally, were H. A. Peabody, Joint Chairman of the Public Relations Committee of the local N.W.E.C.; an A. L. Kidd, Permanent Field Representative of Divisions Five and Six of the N.W.E.C.

Postal Santa Claus Is Speeding Parcels Overseas For Yuletide

With the deadline for mailing of Christmas parcels to Canadians in the armed forces overseas only four days away, residents of Sherbrooke are responding well to the plea to do their mailing as soon as possible, it was learned today.

"Our soldier mail is already quite heavy and it is increasing steadily every day. It is much heavier than last year. That was expected with so many more of our men overseas now," said C. E. Soles, local Postmaster.

Parcels for civilians overseas go to the base office in Montreal. The movement of these, however, has not been very heavy so far as the deadline for them has not been announced and will be considerably later for the military parcels. But there are some every day.

The parcels are dispatched from the local post-office the day they are mailed. No time is lost here as the postal authorities wish to take advantage of any space available on ships leaving from Atlantic ports and wish to avoid congestion about deadline time.

Mr. Soles says that so far the post-office staff has been able to handle the parcel mail without delay of any kind. He hopes that the mailing will continue to be rapid and that citizens not to wait until the deadline on Monday, November 1.

"The sooner we can get them the sooner we can send them on their way, and the more certain it will be that they reach the recipients in good time for Christmas," he said.

chatter was claiming $237.62 for back salary under the Fair Wage Act.

Justice White dismissed the plaintiff because the plaintiff could not furnish sufficient proof for his charge.

Lack of evidence in the case of Ernest Adam vs. Adolphe Lehoux and Roland Nadeau brought another dismissal by Justice White. In the case Adam was taking action against Lehoux and Nadeau for a brawl which involved the three parties but because of the fact that there were no witnesses at the fight and since the men involved were all under the influence of liquor no sufficient proof could be given and the case was dismissed with costs against the plaintiff.

Another action in which Gaudias Denis, of Coaticook, asked $399 damages from Leonard Madore who he said was the cause of his arrest on a false and malicious charge was also dismissed by Justice White.

The case of Edmundo Lavarriere, of Eastman, and Delphis Picard, of Fitz Bay, in which Lavarriere was suing for $276.50 damages for a horse which had died while in possession of Picard was also dismissed. The plaintiff said that he had leased a team of horses to Picard for $300 and that shortly after one of the horses died. He claimed malice and negligence on the part of Picard and asked for $150. Other items were also brought up for damages to a harness and other implements which belonged to Lavarriere but which were in the possession of Picard.

The case of Clement Beland vs. J. Stewart in which Beland was asking for damages for an unlawful arrest in connection with some trouble which broke out at the Dominion Lime Company was also dismissed.

CLINIC MOBILE UNIT REGISTERS GREAT SUCCESS

Successfully inaugurating the Sherbrooke Mobile Unit of the Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic the C.J.M. Athletic Club at Asbestos was the scene of action yesterday as 68 donors from the company and citizens of Asbestos gave their blood in response to the ever-increasing demand from overseas for more blood plasma.

Operating under the direction of R. S. Gardner, Factory Manager of the Canadian Johns-Manville Co. Ltd., Co-Chairman with Dr. A. R. Gregoire, one of the most efficient clinics yet held by the Sherbrooke district Blood Clinic gave every indication that the success of similar clinics throughout the Sherbrooke district would materially boost the Canadian Blood Bank. Four beds were in constant use yesterday morning.

Response from local firms and kind-hearted citizens was most generous and aided the efficiency and smooth operation of the clinic to an incalculable extent. Nine Asbestos nurses aided the Sherbrooke Clinic staff, composed of Mrs. J. A. C. Thomson, Technician, Mrs. A. Hunting, in charge of Mobile Unit, and Mrs. Ross Bishop, station wagon driver, while eleven Asbestos ladies assisted in the serving, as receptionists, etc. Four Asbestos doctors, Dr. A. R. Gregoire, Dr. R. H. Stevenson, Dr. G. N. Letendre and Dr. G. A. Letendre were in attendance throughout the day.

The officials of the clinic were most grateful for the contribution of Coca-Cola from an Asbestos firm, while others donated a five-gallon coffee urn, and a supply of coffee. Biscuits, cake, ice cream, linen supplies and hospital necessities such as nurses' masks, etc., were donated by several Asbestos women.

First donor yesterday was Rev. Father Noel, Chaplain of the National Catholic Syndicate, while the predominance of Johns-Manville workers was another indication of the splendid job being done by that firm.

The next clinic will be held in Asbestos in two weeks' time.

Manufacturers' War Effort Praised By G. W. Murphy At Hardware Parley

Praise for the splendid efforts of the Canadian manufacturer in producing the tools of war and at the same time supplying a limited amount of essential goods for civilian use, was expressed yesterday by George W. Murphy, Sherbrooke, Vice-President of J. S. Mitchell and Company, Ltd., who attended a two-day conference of wholesale hardware companies, held in the Mount Royal Hotel in Montreal. Wholesale from the Maritimes to Western Canada were represented.

Mr. Murphy also emphasized the necessity of the hardware industry continuing to observe the ceiling prices set for its products as the only means of avoiding inflation. Ceiling prices had been fixed about the time the last conference was held in December, 1941, at which time it was resolved to obey price regulations, he said.

At luncheon over which he presided, Mr. Murphy spoke strongly of the necessity of supporting the Victory Loan campaign, and urged representatives in attendance to use their influence to make the drive a success in their respective communities.

The conference made a recommendation that usable supplies in the hands of the Government or Government contractors after the war, which supplies would normally pass through hardware stores and which might be distributed for consumer use, be distributed in orderly fashion through hardware stores at prevailing prices.

Special speaker at the conference luncheon, also attended by many representatives of hardware manufacturers, was John C. Newman, Montreal, President General Steel Works Ltd., who said that his company and others were doing all possible to produce at least a minimum supply of essential civilian goods, but that the war effort came first.

Other speakers included H. T. Diston, President of Henry Diston & Son, Philadelphia and Toronto; D. B. McCoy, Hamilton, General Sales Manager of the Steel Company of Canada; T. H. McEvoy, Montreal, of the Dominion Iron and Steel Co. Ltd.; E. H. Wright, St. Catharines, Vice-President of Welland Vale Manufacturing Company, all of whom saw conditions more hopeful than they were for a minimum supply of essential goods, and the following War-time Prices and Trade Board officials: E. W. Smart, Wholesale Trade Administrator; R. F. Chisholm, Co-ordinator of Wholesale Trade, and J. T. E. Alkenhead, Retail Director of Hardware Trade. The latter thanked the jobbers on behalf of the retail trade for their efforts to secure and distribute equitable goods for civilian use.

H. H. Foreman, administrator of non-ferrous metals, at a business session, explained to the wholesalers the necessity of various restrictions, and assured them that these would be lifted at the earliest moment the direct war effort would allow.

Manufacturers' representatives in attendance explained problems of production confronting them and said they were doing all possible to produce essential civilian goods and that wholesalers would have to have patience, as well as the retailers and consumers.

H. J. ENRIGHT NAMED AGENT AT MONTREAL

Officials of the Canadian National Railways announced today that Harold J. Enright, who has been local ticket agent for the past three years, has been appointed Passenger Agent at the New Central Terminal in Montreal.

Mr. Enright was born in West Sheffield, and received part of his education in Sherbrooke. On completion of his education, he joined the Canadian National, working for many years in Sherbrooke. Mr. Enright succeeded A. M. Stevens as local ticket agent, and was subsequently promoted to be Assistant Passenger Agent at the old Bonaventure Station in Montreal. In August 1940 he returned here to the position which he is now relinquishing.

Succeeding Mr. Enright as local ticket agent on November 1 will be D. Fraser who is now stationed in Montreal.

A NEW BURMA ROAD

The key to the military operations which are at present being waged in that primeval zone of China's Yunnan Province which abuts in Northeastern Burma is a visionary road which, in the hopeful minds of the British-American-Chinese Allies, cuts across the wilds of Northernmost Burma to form a new life-line for China to the outside world. The Allies are trying to make their vision an actuality, and the Japanese are doing their worst to prevent it.

The story goes back to the occupation of Burma by Japan, which gave Nippon possession of the lower reach of the Burma Road, which was China's only feasible route to her allies. After the road crosses from Burma into Yunnan it runs along the Upper Salween River and on to Kuming and Chungking. That portion of the road East of the Salween is in the hands of the Chinese.

The only way to re-open the old Burma Road is to recapture Burma—a terrific and perhaps long operation. And paradoxically, before Burma can be recaptured, the Allies must re-open the Burma Road—or its equivalent. The point is that military supplies of all kinds must be moved to the impoverished Chinese so that they can strike against Burma from the North at the same time that the amphibious invasion takes place on the South from the Bay of Bengal.

So the Allies have been developing an alternative route that runs through Inian Assam, Northwest of Burma, until it is close to the Burmese border in the far North. From the terminus engineers have hewed an extension Southeastward right into the enemy-held territory of Burma. Now the Allies want to link the road with the Burma road on the other side of Northern Burma, a tall order. They also aim to connect with the Town of Myittha, which is the railroad for Mandalay to the South and is the main Japanese base in the North. The only way to do that is to clean the Japanese out of that neck of the primeval world. And that brings us up to the present fighting in Yunnan. The Chinese hold the Western side of the Salween River near where the Burma Road passes over it by a suspension bridge. The Salween at this point lies at the bottom of a gorge some five thousand feet deep.

The middle of this month the Japanese suddenly started an offensive against the Chinese on the Salween, and there was much speculation as to the exact meaning of the attack. It now seems that the Nipponese were striking defensively, to prevent the Chinese from making a drive of their own into Northern Burma and clearing a route for the extension of the alternative road.

ANSWERING THE SENATORS' CRITICISM

One of the best replies yet offered to the rather wild charges of certain United States Senators against the war efforts of Great Britain is contained in a recent article by James Reston, New York Times correspondent in London. In an effort to remove some of the misunderstanding, Reston outlines the work being done by the British people, rightly holding the view that the only method by which a comparison of the respective efforts of any country can be made is through determining just what the individuals are doing toward the common cause.

In a review that is essentially sketchy, the writer points out that the British were the first nation in the world to go against the Axis without first being attacked themselves. The accomplishments of the Royal Air Force and the Royal Navy need not be stressed. They have been at war for four years or more and played the main part in the conquest of East and North Africa, during which the Axis suffered 975,000 casualties; in the Battle of El Alamein which started just twelve months ago, and in the subsequent rout of the enemy in Egypt and Libya, before the United States troops entered the African fighting on a large scale, they inflicted 860,000 casualties on the enemy, captured 200 tanks and 1,000 guns of all types. Meanwhile, they sustained about 250,000 casualties themselves in the African campaign alone, to say nothing of 48,000 people killed and 86,000 injured in air raids on Britain during the past four years.

At the same time, Reston continues, they have been mobilized at home to a degree unequalled by any other of the United Nations except Russia. Of 33,000,000 people in the island between the ages of fourteen and sixty-five, 22,750,000 or two out of every three are engaged in the armed forces or essential work. In the munitions factory they are averaging fifty hours a week, and over and above these fifty hours, workers are obliged to spend part of their time in firewatching.

In addition to a more vigorous tax structure than the Americans and more severe rationing, there is scarcely a single one of the 13,000,000 families in the United Kingdom that has not at least one member doing war work, either in the Army or in factories. And on top of that, the whole structure of their lives has been affected by the invasion of the American army.

They are grateful—it is hard to be grateful for four years—for weapons America sent them, but they do not think a gun or an airplane or even a wonderful new tank is equal to a man's life and they are hopeful that maybe somebody on the Senate Committee which is going to investigate Lend-Lease will be able to figure out the equivalent of the 48,000 people who were killed in the blitz.

LET HIM SERVE DER FUEHRER

Andrew Wilhelm Gunesch, a twenty-three-year-old Rumanian textile worker appearing before a London, Ont., court on a charge of draft evasion, is reported to have declared before his arrest that he would rather serve in the German army than in the Canadian forces. While the judge found the man guilty of breach of the mobilization regulations, sentenced him to jail and then to report at a military centre, a much more suitable penalty might have been for the Canadian authorities to see that he was returned to his native land where he would find an opportunity to enter the service of his beloved Fuehrer, although from all reports his fellow-countrymen are none too well-pleased with being given a similar "privilege."

Of course, the matter of returning him to Rumania—now an enemy country—would offer a certain amount of difficulty, but it could be solved with the co-operation of the Canadian civil authorities and the officials in charge of the Allied air forces on the Italian front. With the increasing Allied air raids against the Rumanian oil fields and industrial centres, surely room could be found in one of these planes for a man of Gunesch's mental stature while the loss of a parachute in dropping him behind the enemy lines would be amply repaid by ridding the country of a man of this calibre.

In any case, if he is compelled to remain with Canadians for the duration of the war, his views should be placed in record so that he can be repatriated after the war, with definite arrangements made to see that he keeps out of this country.

THE CANADIAN VOLUNTEER SERVICE MEDAL

The creation of the "Canadian Volunteer Service Medal" to be awarded to most volunteer members of the Canadian army, navy and air force, which has just been announced by the three Defence Ministers, should answer a long-felt want in Canadian military circles, that of a suitable award for those men and women who have answered the call of their country and signified their willingness to serve in any service area which the service heads deem it advisable to send them but who, through the force of circumstances, have not engaged in some particular battle or campaign.

The condition has been unusually prevalent among the land forces of the Dominion in the war to date. Ever since the fall of 1939, Canadian troops have been stationed at overseas points and took an important part in the defence of the British Isles during the dark days following Dunkerque. But few of them have taken part in any active campaign. A detachment went to Spitzbergen, others made a glorious name for themselves on the beaches of Dieppe and now units of the First Division are serving in Italy. But for thousands of others, the only rewards of war have been long hours of monotonous guard duties on inhospitable shores and perhaps the personal satisfaction of knowing an unpleasant job well done. To them there has been no glory and no honor to date.

It is for these men and women and their counterparts on the scattered service fronts of the world that the new medal is intended. Admittedly the creation of this award will have little if any immediate effect upon the average service personnel, but the announcement removes a discrepancy which has long existed between the Canadian forces and those of other countries and is an indication that the Government is showing a growing awareness of the importance of providing suitable honors for those who are carrying the active front line burdens.

FROM THE RECORD FILES

A group of citizens have undertaken a movement for the appointment of an independent expert to negotiate the difference between the City Council and the Sherbrooke Street Railway in an effort to maintain the service in operation.

Sir Richard McBride, Premier of British Columbia, has come out strongly in support of the proposal that Canada make a grant of $35,000,000 toward the support of the Royal Navy. In the meantime New Zealand has announced its intention of building a fleet of its own rather than make a direct contribution.

The British Government has announced that it will do nothing in the Mexican Government dispute without first consulting with the United States President, Woodrow Wilson.

The hostesses for the opening session of the newly-organized East Angus Whist Club were Mrs. W. Tugman, Mrs. E. A. Montgomery and Mrs. S. A. Banfill.

The work of constructing the new drill hall at Bury has now been virtually completed.

Two railway stations and a number of private homes have been destroyed as the result of the intensified activities of the British suffragette arson squad.

PRESS COMMENTS

A QUEBEC VIEW OF THE NAVY

St. Thomas Times-Journal.
Taking a fling at the Quebec newspaper, Le Soleil, the Montreal paper La Devoir takes a lot of space to ridicule a statement that at the beginning of the war the British fleet alone prevented the enemy from menacing Canada directly. Le Devoir says this is the old thesis of the British fleet protecting Canada, a thesis which history does not justify. The truth was, says the Montreal paper, that Canada counted less on the Royal Navy than on the naval, military and aerial forces of the United States.

If Le Devoir challenges history we would cite the historical fact that ever since the Monroe Doctrine, which dates back to 1823, a period at which Canada had no naval or military defence of her own, the United States as well as Canada relied upon the British navy to defend its Atlantic coast, and continued to do so right up until the present war. The policy of the United States has been to build a navy capable of defending only the Pacific coast against aggression from the Far East, the obvious enemy being Japan, but not until right now, and probably not very strongly at that, has the United States had sufficient warships to defend its territory on the Atlantic as well as the Pacific at the same time. That somewhat remarkable condition of affairs is not sufficiently realized by the people of the United States, and President Roosevelt gave them timely reminder of the fact in one of his broadcasts after the United States entered the war. Other prominent statesmen have brought it to the notice of the public and it was emphasized in the recent book by Walter Lippman who advocated the United States having a definite foreign policy.

The United States government has traditionally relied upon the British navy to protect its eastern shores from aggression by any European power. The government has only built one ocean navy ever since the United States began to build a navy at all. If Germany and Japan had declared war together against the United States in 1939, the United States navy would have been helpless to cope with enemy warships on both shores at the same time. They would have been just as dependant on the British navy as Canada was for their protection.

It was of course, only the British navy that kept the German fleet from attacking Canada in 1939, and still is today. Take away the Royal Navy and what is left between Canada and the German fleet? By keeping watch on the exits from Germany the Royal Navy is keeping the enemy from British shores, and, of course, from our shores at the same time. If as Le Devoir contends, the United States Navy would have come to our aid in 1939 in accordance with President Roosevelt's promise at Ivy Lea, that would have been Japan's glorious chance to spring an undelayed war against the States, and if the United States had to fight the German fleet in the Atlantic and the Japanese fleet in the Pacific, it would have been a bad job for the United States and for Canada as well.

There is a lot of other tail-twisting matter in the Devoir's article. Le Devoir should be sufficiently conversant with history to realize the extent of Canada's debt to the British Navy. Our reliance on the Royal Navy has been admitted by all parties in the Canadian Parliament ever since Confederation, and it was for that very reason that we had a navy consisting of only four destroyers before the war. It would be an astonishing and humiliating thing if Canada admitted that it relied for its self defence upon a foreign country and expected American boys to die for our protection.

A TEACHER'S PLAINT
Fort William Times-Journal.
The letter which appears today in another column from a teacher who is "fed up" as a result of the great volume of supererogatory responsibilities that have been placed upon the shoulders of the members of the profession is likely to cause some heart-searching on the part of many.

If the facts, as stated by the respondent, are of a general nature it is a situation that is not in the best interests of the schools as educational institutions and, therefore, not in the best interests of the children. The schools have a great and essential mission to perform and that is the education of the young. That mission never was more important and vital to the nation than today, for the children who are attending our schools will be the citizens of a very crucial era when there will be difficult problems to solve and exceedingly important and delicate adjustment to be made.

At the same time war effort-helping activities all are of the most laudable kind and demand loyal public support. The question is just to what extent the schools should be made use of as collection agencies for various funds to be devoted to laudable objectives. The proper and legitimate work of the schools cannot be carried on if the teachers are saddled with too many responsibilities that are additional to their legitimate and highly essential activities.

If the work of the teachers in their legitimate sphere is being hampered by such additional responsibilities a real effort should be made to set up some other agency to handle the details of the various funds that are collected from the citizens.

PERIL OF BEING A BRIDGEHEAD

Halifax Chronicle.

Britain has often, in recent months, been referred to as the natural bridgehead between these two powers (the United States and Russia). Hence the vital importance of the coming tripartite conference, where the part that Britain will have to play is that of the "horsetrainer." But the danger feared in Britain is that she may be forced into a dilemma at Moscow, and either be caught between the upper and the nether millstone, or be put into awkward position of having to avoid taking a partisan attitude. At that meeting both Russia and the United States are likely to propound difficult questions. Russia, the realist, will be able—though she may be unwilling—to say exactly what she wants. Britain will be in practically the same position. But until the United States Senate can make up its mind to give a categorical answer to the question as to what the attitude of the Republic is going to be in respect to post-war Europe, nothing definite appears likely to be achieved. Russia, certainly, will not be satisfied with fair words. She will want a specific declaration of policy, and it is possible that she will go so far as to demand a free hand in Central Europe. Unless Britain and the United States first come to a common understanding on some at least of the fundamental point at issue, both countries may find themselves at a definite disadvantage when the long-expected meeting takes place—the meeting which has aptly been described as "the first political crisis of the peace."

From the Ryks Museum of Amsterdam they have pilfered Rembrandt's "The Night Watch" and his "St. Peter and the Keys" and the "Mona Lisa" and the masterpieces of Raphael and Rubens, Titian, Vermeer and Delacroix.

Here and elsewhere the plundering Nazi have gathered up the "Venus de Milo" and the priceless treasures of Murillo and Goya, Van Dyck and Holbein, El Greco, Gainsborough and Velasquez. But it is only now, after four years of war, that they are reaping their richest harvest. The treasure trove that is Rome, the goal of every vandal from the dawn of civilization, is opened to them and, in Saint Peter's and other places, they come upon the product of the towering genius of Michelangelo.

Berlin will, indeed, be enriched after a fashion. If they were something better than thieves, the Nazis would glean a measure of satisfaction from their possessions, ill-gotten though they may be. But being essential marauders, they are devoid of those finer senses to which such art has an irresistible appeal. This is unfortunate in so far as the Nazis are concerned because they will derive no compensation for the punishment which some day they will have to endure for having given free rein to their predatory instincts.

HIGH COSTS MAY END WAR
Kiwiana Magazine.
A hundred years ago it did not cost much to kill a man in a war. In those old days, most soldiers carried their own squirrel rifles and moulded their own bullets. They didn't waste many of them. They waited until they were close enough to make every bullet find a billet. At the same time, an army was supposed to live off the country through which it marched, killing the cattle and chickens of the enemy as it advanced. Perhaps there is hope for the future in the statement of statisticians who claim that it costs fifty thousand dollars to land a soldier in our modern type war. We may be appalled by the bloodthirstiness of

BIDS, PLAYS SKILLFUL NO TRUMP CONTRACT

Some people are particularly keen in recognizing interesting hands. Such a one is Earl Bryan of Lakewood, O. Several years ago I published many of Bryan's hands, but today's hand is the first I have had from him in a long time, as he is pretty busy with war work.

In regard to the bidding, Bryan said he was afraid that if he bid two clubs, his partner would respond with two no trump. So he bid one no trump himself, then promptly went to three no trump when his partner bid two.

Bryan (North) let the opening lead hold and won the second diamond trick with dummy's ace, then led a small club and played the nine from his own hand. If East had won this trick, cashed his diamonds and exited with a club, it might have been more difficult for Bryan to club dummy discarded the heart, his diamonds, however, East led a spade. West put up the jack and declarer's ten was good; while if Bryan won with the king. Seeing the he let go the spade, dummy's ace squeeze possibilities, he led the ten and ten of spades would win the queen of hearts, East covered and last two tricks.

GLEN SUTTON HONORS COUPLE ON DEPARTURE

Many Friends Present at Party Given in Honor of Rev. and Mrs. N. H. Brock Who Are Leaving for Their New Home Near Toronto.

Mansenville, Oct. 28.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Clark was the scene of a farewell party in honor of Rev. and Mrs. N. H. Brock, of Glen Sutton. Between sixty and seventy-five guests were present to bid them farewell and wish them much happiness in their new home near Toronto, Ont.

There was piano and guitar music and singing and a general good time was enjoyed. Delicious refreshments were served.

During the evening Arthur Aiken, Sr., in a few well-chosen words presented Mr. and Mrs. Brock with a purse of money as a token of the appreciation and esteem of the Baptist people of Mansenville. They both voiced their thanks, after which all joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

Rev. and Mrs. Brock have faithfully served in the Baptist Church, Mansenville, and at Dunkin for seventeen years, coming from their home in Glen Sutton through all kinds of weather, often building their own fires and sometimes ministering to a very small congregation. Not only have they been faithful to the church but have helped in every worthy cause and have been true friends to everyone in need.

They are leaving this district perhaps for only a time but all can still keep in touch with them.

All deeply regret their leaving and wish them God's richest blessings in their new home. The greatest tribute possible to pay them is to say "They were true Christians," and to hope they will return here again.

The history of Methodism in the United States was traced from that time till the Union of the Methodists in 1939. After some questions and brief discussion the group retired to the Parsonage, where the supper was served by the Women's Missionary Society. Appreciation of the meal was voiced for the gathering by Mr. Crichton, who humorously referred to changes they had experienced in their home in regard to the menu, when the Society was entertained there. On one occasion there were canned goods from a fire sale. As there were no labels, a supposed can of apricots proved to be a can of black paint. this to say: "My little girl was so feverish

It's a problem for Red Skelton to choose one from this bevy of beauties in M-G-M's musical extravaganza, "Du Barry Was a Lady," now showing at the Granada Theatre. Don't let the turban on Skelton fool you. It's part of his makeup in the dream he has after accidentally taking a Mickey. But it's all part of the fun in this hit production based on the successful Broadway show of the same name. Lucille Ball and Gene Kelly are co-starred with Skelton.

OBITUARIES

MRS. JOSEPHINE KENDRICK, OF ROCK ISLAND

Rock Island, Oct. 28.—Mrs. Josephine Kendrick died at St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, Sherbrooke, after an illness of about a year.

She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Garceau, Sr., old time residents of Rock Island.

In her younger days Mrs. Kendrick resided in Lynn, Mass., for some time and then returned to Rock Island to live with her sister, the late Miss Ellen Garceau.

The funeral was held at the Church of Our Lady of Mercy, Rock Island, with burial in Mount St. Mary's Cemetery.

MR. JAMES MACKINNON, OF INVERNESS

Inverness, Oct. 28.—At his home in Inverness, there occurred the death of one of the oldest members of the English-speaking community, James MacKinnon.

The son of Donald MacKinnon and his wife, Mary Sillers, Mr. MacKinnon was born on their farm on September 22, 1854, and had just passed his eighty-ninth birthday.

Many friends and neighbors, both English and French, were present at the funeral. Prayers were held at the house, where Psalm XXIII, a great favorite of Mr. MacKinnon's, was sung, and the funeral service was conducted by his pastor, the Rev. C. A. Adey, of the Inverness United Church.

Mr. Adey read from Psalm CIII and Revelations VII 9 to 17 and speaking from I Thessalonians IV: 13-14 under the heading, "Enter Into Rest." The hymns "Asleep in Jesus," "Forever With the Lord" and "O God Our Help in Ages Past" were sung.

All the selections had been sung at the funeral of Mr. MacKinnon's mother at her request.

The pall bearers were Messrs. Donald Macmillan, Howard Kerr, Kenneth Kelso and Cayler MacGillivray, nephews, Murdo MacKinnon and Alex Watson.

Mr. MacKinnon was married in 1886 to Mary Victoria MacGillivray and is survived by her, and eight

DIXVILLE

Another shower of National Films was given in the Town Hall one evening, and was in charge of Principal Lewis, of the Coaticook High School. Mr. W. R. Jackson presided as Chairman for the evening. The first two films were to have been on Malta, but these were not available. The third was on Persia. This gives a vivid picture of the highways and railroads in Iran, now the modern Persia, and how they are being used to transport heavy war materials to our Russian Allies. The fourth film is a tribute to farmers' wives and their essential part in the war effort. A commentator says, "It seems strange, a farm going to war, but that is what happens, and every farm mother on this continent is doing war work. They have no fancy uniforms, no bands playing but a good farm is worth more than a gun, airplane or tank and you can't run a farm without 'Mom', and her home made bread and pie. The fifth film stresses the need for food planning and gives suggestions on making the most of the meat rations, selecting the economical cuts and cooking them so as to provide the most nutrition. A comic cartoon, drove home the appeal for continued war savings. A news reel of interest to an audience from the countryside followed. Then the Vitamin comic, the "Vitamins" represented by the alphabetical letters and dancing to the strains of old-time barn music, community sing-song concluded the programme.

Mr. W. George Mayhew, of Coaticook, called on friends here.

Mr. Willard Byron, of Sherbrooke, spent a week-end with his family here.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Cutler, of Vars, Ont., are spending a few days here with Mr. Cutler's mother, Mrs. Selma Cutler, and other relatives, in the vicinity.

Mr. M. C. Mayhew was a visitor in Montreal one Saturday.

Mr. H. H. Holmes, of Montreal, was a week-end guest of his sister, Mrs. E. W. Damon, and daughter,

Mrs. Harold M. Cutler, and family, at "Maplewood Farm."

Mrs. Mabel Holmes, who has been ill for two weeks, is now slightly improved.

Mrs. Henry Mailhot left for Granby, where Mr. Mailhot and son, Aubert, were employed for sometime and where they will reside for the present.

BISHOP'S AND L.H.S. FIGHT TO 5-5 DRAW

Fuller And Sutherland Make Touchdowns In Grid Fixture

Bishop's College School and Lennoxville High School Intermediate football teams battled to a 5-5 tie on a soft, muddy gridiron at B.C.S. Play was somewhat slow because of the condition of the field after the heavy downpour yesterday, but there was no lack of team spirit and both squads put plenty of fight into the game, making it an exciting match.

Both relied heavily on passes for their yardage gains. Halward tossing the ball for B.C.S. and Hamilton doing the throwing for Lennoxville. These two boys did excellent work, each completing several passes for his team. Bishop scored its major when Halward completed a pass to Fuller who had sneaked over the Lennoxville high goal line. The Lennoxville boys chalked their five-point lead after Hamilton, his passes clicking, had helped bring L.H.S. into the College School's 15 yard line before losing their down; they recovered the ball on a Bishop's fumble. Then on a pass play, Hamilton nearly zipped the ball to Sutherland who snared it behind the B.C.S. goal-post.

Sutherland ably filled the quarter-back position for Lennoxville and Bright also playing at quarter stood out for Bishop's. Foss, B.C.S. half, led the Bishop bucking brigade while B. Johnston played an all-round game for Lennoxville.

B.C.S. fought hard to avenge the 17-0 pasting they suffered at the hands of the L.H.S. Intermediates two weeks ago, and a powerful, last-minute spurt almost took them through the tired, mud-spattered Lennoxville boys who did not use one replacement during the whole game.

Coach Ken Jackson's boys had the advantage of playing on their own field and also had sufficient subs to change men often enough to keep the first line fresh. However, L.H.S. had a slight advantage in weight and seemed to be able to get around better on the sloppy field.

The boys were bogged down in the mud during the first quarter and play wasn't very fast. Both teams went all out to score the all-important first touch but play was tight and no great gains were made by either side. The first ended with the Lennoxville boys on the Bishop's twenty-yard line.

At the outset of the second quarter Lennoxville lost the ball on three successive downs. Bishop's immediately tried a pass to pull them out of danger but Johnston intercepted it for Lennoxville first down. B.C. held their opponents by tightening up their line and recovered possession of the ball on Sutherland's kick. Repeating the pass play, Halward successfully spearheaded a throw to Foss for a gain of fifteen yards, bringing the play up to the Bishop's forty-five. B.C.S. lost the ball after unsuccessful fumble and Hamilton, for Lennoxville, carrying the ball on an end-run, brought it back to the B.C.S. thirty-five before Sewell stopped him with a neat tackle.

Lennoxville opened the second half with Hamilton kicking off. Sutherland received the ball and ran it up twenty yards to the centre of the field. Both teams struggled for substantial gains and finally Bishop's displayed a surge of power to carry the pigskin up to the Lennoxville twelve. Gault, attempting a buck through the middle, was nailed by McNaughton. B.C.S. kicked and Campbell took the ball behind his goal line and ran it up to his own eight before he was stopped. Lennoxville failed to make yards on their drives. With Bishop's in possession of the leather, Bright narrowly missed going over for a major on an end-run when Hamilton stopped him with a solid buck. Bishop's, feinting a kick, used a pass play, Halward to Fuller, to score the only Bishop's touchdown of the game. The convert failed.

Lennoxville came back strong to try to overcome the Bishop's lead. On a series of passes and bucks they managed to bring the ball up to Bishop's twenty. Another buck and a long pass from Hamilton to Sutherland resulted in a Lennoxville major to make the score 5-5. The try for the winning point didn't succeed. Lennoxville pressed home the attack in a desperate effort to win the game but B.C.S. dug in and even turned the tide in the last few seconds before the final whistle.

ASBESTOS

The fifth Thursday night session, October 21, was extremely interesting. Instead of the usual speaker a film was shown on "Blood Transfusion." This film takes one back to the early history of transfusion experiments and comes up-to-date by showing how blood, serum and plasma is processed, packed and now used to save the lives of our troops in action. The showing was particularly timely as Asbestos was to hold its first Blood Donation Clinic on Wednesday, October 27. Plans have been made whereby each class of the school will present a talk, skit or play on the closing night, November 18. These demonstrations will show what each class has accomplished during the school term. The public will be invited to attend the last session. G. H. Penrose, Principal of Roslyn High School, Westmount, has been secured to speak on Thursday, October 28, on the subject of "The Home and School Association's place in the Post-War World." All members of the Asbestos Parent-Teachers' Association and the School Board have been invited to attend.

Mr. H. K. Sherry has returned home from New York, where he has been for a week on business.

Mrs. G. M. Boyd has returned from Sherbrooke, where she spent a few days the guest of her brother, Mr. F. Oates and Mrs. Oates, Montreal Street.

Mrs. R. S. Gardner, Mrs. Eric Morrison, Mrs. F. G. Atwood, Mrs. M. J. Dunsmore and Mrs. R. H. Stevenson motored to Montreal for a few days. On their return they were accompanied by Mr. Gardner, who was a business visitor to Toronto, Ont.

Mr. M. J. Dunsmore was in Sherbrooke for two days on business. The Handicraft Christmas Club was entertained one afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clifford Mastine. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent and at the tea hour refreshments were served by the hostess, Miss Laurel Mastine, and Miss Phyllis Dean assisting the hostess in serving. Mrs. H. K. Sherry was a guest of the club for the afternoon.

Miss Blanche Teed, of Ottawa, is the guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Tector, Coulston Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. McCaw motored to Montreal and were guests for a week-end at the home of the latter's parents.

QUEBEC ACES TAKE MEASURE OVER BOSTON

Quebec, Oct. 28.—(C)—Quebec Aces of the Quebec Senior Hockey League defeated Boston Bruins of the National Hockey League 3-4 in an exhibition game here tonight. The entire gate receipts go to army charities.

The local Aces, planning a big season in the senior group, ran up an early lead which they managed to hold for the rest of the game. Bruins' spirited attempt to even the score in the third period roughed up the game somewhat, but Bouvrette held his ground in the Quebec nets to maintain a safe 2-point margin.

In the absence of Art Ross, confined to his room with a touch of laryngitis, Dit Clapper handled the newton boys. He played most of the game with the Bruins. It is understood that most of these young players, the majority of whom are 17 and 18 years of age, will be farmed out to the Boston Olympics for the coming season.

For Quebec, Capt. Bill Reay scored two goals, while Roland Rossignol accounted for one goal and two assists.

Canadian Sport Snapshots

By CHARLES EDWARDS, Canadian Press Staff Writer.

Toronto, Oct. 28.—(C)—The army's policy statement that participation in sports events will not be allowed to interfere with normal training of individual soldiers lacked teeth—on the surface. An indication it was not altogether innocuous was given, however, by the announcement Regina Army was withdrawing from the Saskatchewan Senior Hockey League "due to restrictions imposed by National Defence headquarters."

Reasons were not given but it's a good guess that Ottawa refused to transfer sufficient hockey players to Regina to make a team because the players would not be moving to Regina in the course of normal training. That's tough on Regina; not so tough on some cities where sufficient players already are located. Service hockey is generally approved and there'll be no objections as long as players go about their army training the same as non-athletic men. Non-committal though it appears, the army hockey policy may cover such situations as that raised by Fred (Peterborough Examiner) Craig who writes: "It still does not go far enough... it gets nowhere if an athlete has been shoved into the shelter of a staff job where he is immune from training and apparently from overseas drafts as well."

No doubt the army aims to stop such practices, if they exist. It is probably probing other charges of abuse such as this item culled from the Vancouver province: "Here is another recent instance the authorities might consider: A hockey player who entered the army to fight overseas won his commission. He was notified he had been selected for a reinforcement draft going overseas and was given embarkation leave. When he returned from leave he was notified he had been taken off the draft and would stay in Canada. Not until he went to his C.O. and protested vigorously, and announced his determination not to play hockey even if kept in Canada, was he allowed to proceed overseas."

CANADIENS IN 7-3 WIN OVER CORNWALL TEAM

Cornwall, Ont., Oct. 28.—(C)—Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League had little trouble piling up a 7-3 victory over Cornwall Flyers of the Quebec Senior Hockey League in a hard-hitting exhibition game here last night. The Habits were seizing as they knocked off the highly-rated Cornwall service club.

Maurice Richard, apparently headed for a good year in the big time, paced Dick Irvin's team with three goals in a sparkling effort. Jerry Heffernan got a pair and the others went to Mike McMahon and Ray Gettiffe. Jimmy Conacher, Johnny Dennison and Bud Poile got the Cornwall markers.

It was a rough battle and an expensive one for Cornwall. They started the game minus Jack Church, out with injuries and lost Jack Riley and Jake Shewchuck during the struggle. Lack of manpower had a lot to do with Cornwall's late collapse.

Canadiens started off in impressive style when they scored three times in the opening frame. Cornwall came back to life in the second and by the half way mark had the three goals back and the score tied. A late goal by Heffernan gave Canadiens a lead they never lost.

Two easy tallies early in the third made the Canuck victory secure and they picked up another to make the final tally 7-3. Cornwall played well in the final frame but spectacular netminding by Bill Durnan held them off.

The teams:
Canadiens: Goal, Durnan; defence, McMahon, Harmon; centre, O'Connor; wings, Heffernan and Majeau; subs, Bouchard, Lamoureux, Lach, Blake, Richard, Chamberlain, Gettiffe, Reardon, Perron, Lauzon, Campeau.

Cornwall: Goal, Bastien; defence, Knott, Shewchuck; centre, Imlach; wings, Riley and Brown; subs, Lauzon, Mario, O'Flaherty, Conacher, Poile, Woodward, Fasano, Dennison. Referee: Pit Leane; Linesmen: Contant and Ivan.

Circuit To Be Directed By New President, Ernie Taylor.

Ernie Taylor, popular Sherbrooke sportsman, was elected President of the Sherbrooke Junior "B" Hockey League at a meeting held at the Continental Hotel last night under the supervision of Emmett Kenalty, Vice-President and district representative of the Q.A.H.A. Dick Nutter was elected to the post of Secretary-Treasurer of the league.

Mr. Emerson had not been long dead when a candid and possibly somewhat inquisitive friend called on the widow.

After a chat on affairs in general, the caller remarked:

"As your husband died intestate, you will, of course, get a third."

"Oh, indeed, I hope to get a fourth," was the prompt reply. "He was my third, you know."

A young woman, travelling alone and unused to the ways of the world had left her home on an early morning train to visit a friend in Fife-shire. It had been a tiring journey and just before reaching Dunfermline she had fallen asleep. Waking up, she turned to an old gentleman on the seat behind her and said:

"Will you please tell me if we are on this side of Dunfermline or the other side?"

"We are on this side," he said.

And she settled down again, entirely satisfied.

get in touch with Ernie Taylor or Emmett Kenalty.

Mr. Kenalty said that it had been decided recently at a Q.A.H.A. meeting that the J.A.H.A. was too strong for the rest of the junior teams in the Province. Therefore, a junior "B" league is being formed and the winners of the local loop will not meet Montreal in the Provincial play-downs, but will meet either Quebec or Mount-Royal.

A charge that the Rand was offering jobs to junior players so that they might play with the Rand, was refused when Bill Siveright, of the Rand, told the meeting that the Rand would use no player who has not been working at the plant to October 27.

The new rule that is in effect in the N.H.L.—a puck may be passed out from the defending zone as far as centre-ice and not only to the blue-line as it has been in the past years—will be adopted by all leagues in Canada.

President Taylor, taking the chair, asked for complete authority so that there would be no wrangling between the teams and also decided that the league would be run in an orderly fashion, with rough "stuff" absolutely out. He also said that referees would be appointed by the league and there would be no such thing as the visiting team bringing a referee with them. Birth certificates would be closely investigated so that there will be no over-age players in the league.

The play-offs are to be held early this year so it is expected that the league will get under way quite soon. Bishop's will not be able to start playing until January 7, so the schedule will be drawn up, having all the other teams play their games first and leave all games with the University until after Christmas.

A delegation will approach the City Council, asking for free use of the ice at the Arena for the Junior team.

Representatives of Bishop's, Restaurant Pariseau and the Rand were Clem Brodeur, Andre Renaud and Bill Siveright, respectively. Others present at the meeting were Nor-up, the turned to an old gentleman on the seat behind her and said:

"Will you please tell me if we are on this side of Dunfermline or the other side?"

"We are on this side," he said.

And she settled down again, entirely satisfied.

Meeting of W.M.S. Held in Parsonage Under Presidency of Mrs. R. Stafford, Mrs. F. A. Johnson Speaks on "Ships of W.M.S."

Coatcook, Oct. 28.—The Thanksgiving meeting of the W.M.S. was held one afternoon at the Parsonage, with the President, Mrs. Stafford, in the chair. The Secretary's and Treasurer's reports were read and approved.

Mrs. Stafford then gave a few minutes' talk on "Thanksgiving," mentioning some of the things for which we should be thankful such as: Allied victories; Canada's achievements; religious freedom; secure homes; plentiful food and clothing; work for all; personal blessings and Christian religion, and ended by saying: "We can truly say, 'Praise God from Whom all blessings flow.'"

Following a hymn the devotional exercises were turned over to Mrs.

C. Ferrell, who led in the reading of Psalm XLV followed by prayer. Mrs. McHarg, of Ayer's Cliff, rendered a beautiful solo, "The Holy Hour."

The speaker, Mrs. F. A. Johnson, of Ayer's Cliff, gave a most inspiring address taking as her subject, "A Fleet of Ships of the W.M.S." First was the flagship of "Friendship," then followed the sister ships, "Comradeship" and "Companionship" and the little but very important one, "Memberships." "Workmanship" was the next in line and is comprised of so many kinds of work, and then came "Leadership." This work she mentioned is only half done unless we train leaders. Other ships she mentioned were "Partnership," stressing the importance of remembering our Missionary Prayer Partners and what our prayers mean to them, and asked the question, "What Kind of partners are we to them?" "Relationship" and then the big ship, "Worship," followed. She also spoke of the ships, "Love" and "Service" and referred to many of the difficulties that will arise in post-war days. "War is a sickness and Christianity has a cure," said the speaker.

The last of the fleet was "Stewardship" and she said, "God so loved the world that He gave His only-begotten Son." "Stewardship is not the giving of our money alone, it is our time, talent and everything given back to God. China is calling for medical help. India is calling for campaigns against illiteracy. Let us look on our gifts as blessings to others. Keeping step with yesterday is not enough. We must advance. Let us each do a little more. As our fleet sails on into the unknown let us, as the crew, face the wind with high courage and renewed consecration."

The Thanksgiving was then received and dedicated by Mrs. White, Sr.

Mrs. McHarg in her pleasing manner again sang a beautiful solo, "Where Heaven Is." Mrs. McHarg thanked Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. McHarg for coming, and the meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

Victory Comes First ...Luxuries Later

No one who purchases alcoholic beverages as a luxury can afford to do so if the purchase interferes in any way with the buying of Victory Bonds.

The customers of the Quebec Liquor Commission, as indeed of similar commissions across the Dominion, represent a section of the community which obviously has more than sufficient money for the essentials of life. The success of previous Victory Loans indicates that they have responded generously to the calls their country has made on them.

The progress of the war has shown the necessity for an ever-increasing amount of personal sacrifice, some of it of a nature which can never be compensated. Merely to curtail expenditures on the ordinary pleasures of life is not nearly sufficient to meet the requirements of Canada at the present time. Much more than that must be done.

It is not suggested that life and living should be reduced to the level of merely subsisting. Let us be grateful that the danger of this has been removed, but at the same time let us remember that this has been accomplished by the heavy burdens of bereavement, pain and deprivation which others have had to bear.

We must also remember that a long and arduous path has still to be travelled. The one desire of all Canadians is to bring the war to a successful conclusion as speedily as possible, and then to return to a fuller enjoyment and appreciation of our system of democratic life. This can only be done by the fullest co-operation of all of us in providing the means to carry on the war in a manner befitting the Dominion. Canada requires not only man-power, but money power to an unlimited extent.

The extent to which each citizen should buy Victory Bonds depends on his financial resources, and on his conscience. Let us be careful to see that no undue personal gratification is allowed to stand in the way of the accomplishment of Victory and Peace.

The Quebec Liquor Commission appeals to every one of its customers to reduce their purchases to a minimum and add the money thus saved to their purchases of Victory Bonds.

Our customers can afford to buy more Bonds. Victory depends on Bond purchases. Our liberties depend on Victory.
