Low pension bill is possible after provincial talks

OTTAWA (CP) — Lower initial costs and improved fringe benefits in the federal government's Canada Pension Plan may result from discussions at a two-day federal-provincial conference which ended late Tuesday.

Health Minister Judy LaMarsh, who presided, said many ideas were raised and discussed but no quick decisions could be made since she and Citizenship Minister Favreau, the only other federal cabinet minister attending, could not speak for the whole government.

Suggestions to be considered include:
Reducing the initial rate of contributions to the earnings-related portable retirement pensions plan, since they will not now have to bear the cost of a $10 increase in basic old age pensions, which Prime Minister Pearson announced Monday will be paid out of higher taxes.

Raising or modifying the scope of supplementary benefits to be available. The Canada Pension Plan now includes benefits for aged survivors. Miss LaMarsh mentioned that modern welfare thinking tends towards supplements based on living costs for retired persons.

DISCUSS ASSISTANCE
Not directly connected with the Canada Pension Plan was discussion in the conference of increases in the assistance payments, by which the federal treasury contributes to the cost of provincial pensions to the blind, to disabled, and to persons in financial need between age 65 and age 70 when the basic old age pension is paid.

Miss LaMarsh said these assistance payments are under review, but all provincial delegates to the two-day pensions conference did not have instructions from their governments to state definite views.

The $10 increase to $75 monthly in the basic old age pension, to be paid out of taxes and become effective from next month onwards — instead of the original plan to pay it out of contributions to the Canada Pension Plan early next year — means a reduced burden on the funds of the Canada Pension Plan.

LESS NEEDED
Miss LaMarsh said this means that it will require "considerably less" than the one per cent of salaries contributed by employers and employees — and two per cent contributed by the self-employed, if they wish to join the plan.

"The two things which are to be weighed are: Do you leave the two per cent rate to begin with and keep it over a very long period of time, or do you charge a lower rate to begin with and then raise it after a relatively short time?"

For a full program of survivor benefits, including federal help for young widows with growing children — now constitutionally considered a responsibility of provincial governments — an amendment to the British North America Act would be required.

All provinces were not able to give their views on this at this week's conference, but all but Quebec agreed to the change when it was suggested by the former Conservative government. Quebec wanted details of the Diefenbaker government's proposal.

NO OBJECTION
Miss LaMarsh said that while the Quebec delegation to this conference had no power to agree now to the constitutional amendment, it could see no serious reason to object.

Assistance payments to the needy will be studied further.

Minister of Youth expected

Youth Minister Paul Gerin-Lajoie plans to open his extended tour of the Eastern Townships on Wednesday, Oct. 2 with a visit to Sherbrooke according to information received from Quebec City. The visit to this district is part of a province-wide campaign being conducted by the Youth Minister in support of Bill 60 which provides for a reorganization of the Quebec education system.

Accompanied by three E. T. cabinet ministers — Welfare Minister Emilien Lafrance, Roads Minister Bernard Pinard and Labor Minister Carrier Fortin — Mr. Gerin-Lajoie would arrive in Sherbrooke late in the afternoon of Oct. 2 and would remain in Sherbrooke until the following evening when he plans a visit to Magog.

Friday, Oct. 4, will be spent in Richmond County. The highlight of the Richmond County visit will be the dedication of the new trades school at Asbestos.

During his tour of Drummond County Saturday Mr. Gerin-Lajoie will preside at the inauguration of the new trades school at Drummondville.

Sunday he will visit the St. Hyacinthe area.

Among the events on the agenda of the Sherbrooke visit are conferences with representatives of Bishop's University, the University of Sherbrooke, the various school boards and of Home and School and other groups interested in education.

The exact program has not been completed as yet.

Russia won't bite Chinese bait

MOSCOW (AP) — Communist China's current Russian-baiting campaign apparently is aimed at provoking the Kremlin to break state or party ties with Peking. So far Moscow has not risen to the bait.

Seemingly to sense danger, the Russians are displaying a patience that must be galling to Premier Khrushchev.

Aside from propaganda attacks linking Khrushchev with the "imperialist enemy," the Chinese put on a rowdy two-day demonstration on the Soviet-Chinese border in Siberia last week that outraged the Russians.

The government newspaper Izvestia told its readers Tuesday what it said went on at Naushki, a border point, when the Peking-Moscow Express crossed from China Friday.

Chinese passengers openly displayed contempt for the Russians by defying customs officials, roughing up passersby and—in a crowning indignity—by urinating in public in the railway station, Izvestia reported.

Instead of jailing the Chinese, the Russians, on instructions from Moscow, sent the Chinese back to China Saturday. Soviet border guards confiscated anti-Soviet literature.

These and other recent provocative actions indicate a deliberate attempt to infuriate the Russians.

China might want a break in party or even government relations, hoping to force Moscow to take the step or to give the Chinese the pretext for rupturing relations.

But Soviet propaganda organs, in heaping abuse on the Chinese, keep well within guidelines laid down by major party statements.

Delegates looked for a head-on clash when the Russians replied to criticism by the Peking delegation against the limited nuclear test ban treaty.

The Russians are expected to demand that the executive committee support the stand of African and Asian governments which signed the Moscow pact.

Red talks may fail

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — The Moscow-Peking dispute rocked an executive committee session of the African-Asian solidarity conference today, threatening a walkout by the Communist Chinese.

The government newspaper Izvestia told its readers Tuesday what it said went on at Naushki, a border point, when the Peking-Moscow Express crossed from China Friday.

Work starts

MONTREAL (CP) — Some 2,000 longshoremen in Montreal and 500 in Trois-Rivieres, Que., returned to work today after a two-day strike.

Activity in the two ports was quickly returning to normal as cargo handling resumed on more than 50 ships.

Later today a three-man conciliation board was to meet to try to iron out differences between the International Longshoremen's Association (ILA) and the Shipping Federation of Canada which represents the shipowners.

The longshoremen warned, however, that they will strike again Sept. 26 if a contract is not signed by then. The old contract expired last Dec. 31.

The two-day walkout, described by union officials as "unauthorized," began Monday and spread to Trois-Rivieres, Que., where 500 longshoremen staged a sympathy strike.

Efforts to have Quebec City Longshoremen walk off their jobs failed.

TIME RUNNING OUT
The Longshoremen said the walkout resulted from stalling tactics in dealing with their demands. They said time was running out because the Montreal harbor shipping and navigation season will end in about three months.

Mr. Justice Robert Lafleur of Quebec Superior Court heads the conciliation board. Other members are Louis Laberge, president of the Montreal Labor Council, and Jean Massicotte, an industrial relations consultant.

The Longshoremen are asking for a wage increase, retroactive to last Jan. 1, of 35 cents an hour over the present $2.33. They also want an improved retirement fund and four per cent of earnings instead of four cents staged a sympathy strike.

Viet Nam archbishop says he was silenced

ROME (AP) — Archbishop Pierre Martin Ngo Dinh Thuc, brother of President Ngo Dinh Diem of South Viet Nam, abruptly left Rome today and said the Vatican had ordered him to stop talking about the situation in his country.

The archbishop, centre of controversy since he arrived from Saigon five days ago, had said earlier he had no intention of leaving Rome this month. He said he would stay for the resumption of the Vatican ecumenical council Sept. 29.

But at Rome's Fiumicino Airport, he told reporters today he was going to Paris, then boarded a flight for Paris and New York. Pan American Airlines said he had bought a ticket to New York.

He said he was silenced because of his position in a foreign country. To be able to speak out it would be necessary for me to have in hand a permit from the Vatican secretariat of state. Only in my own diocese may I speak.

Police meet

HAMILTON (CP) — A desire for improved public relations was the order of the day at the opening of the 58th annual conference of the Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police here Tuesday.

The question of public image was behind a unanimous vote by the 200 delegates in favor of asking a lawyer who had accused police of psychological and physical third-degree methods to provide specific examples.

Accept pay hike

HALIFAX (CP) — Nova Scotia's coal miners voted Tuesday to accept a $1-a-day pay boost and their union bosses immediately indicated he would seek even a better deal for them.

About 72 per cent of the 7,000 men employed by Dominion Steel and Coal Corporation's three mining subsidiaries voted in favor of a conciliation board's recommended contract. Because of a retroactive clause, the men will receive a lump-sum payment of between $50 and $60 dollars. The agreement will give the miners 30 cents more a day, retroactive to last Jan. 1, plus another 40 cents a day next Jan. 1 and 30 cents a day next July 1.

No opposition

QUEBEC (CP) — The Union Nationale party will not enter a candidate in the Sept. 25 Quebec provincial by-election in Montreal Notre Dame de Grace riding, party leader Daniel Johnson said Tuesday. Revenue Minister Eric Kierans, former president of the Montreal and Canadian stock exchanges, is the Liberal candidate.

Brazil fire 5 days old

CURITIBA, Brazil (AP) — A forest fire ravaged drought-plagued Parana state for the fifth straight day today, leaving 64 townships razed, at least 130 persons dead, 2,000 injured and 4,000 families homeless.

Rainclouds blew across the southern portion of the coffee and timber rich state, promising relief from an eight-month drought. But in western and central Parana fires fanned by strong dry winds added to the devastation.

Most of the victims were peasants who tried to fight the flames with primitive equipment and then found themselves trapped.

UK and USA criticism may endanger alliance South African warns

BLOEMFONTEIN, South Africa (Reuters) — Prospects of more moderate members of the United States grew today following a sharp attack on both of them by Foreign Minister Eric Louw.

Louw warned in a speech Tuesday that the two Western allies might not be able to count on future South African support in their fight against communism, and bitterly attacked the Kennedy administration for criticism of South Africa's racial policies.

He named State Secretary Dean Rusk, Attorney-General Robert Kennedy, Assistant Secretary of State Mennen Williams and United Nations delegate Adlai Stevenson in his attack.

Louw told a ruling National Party Congress here he went out of his way to present South Africa's case to Rusk in 1961, but the American's attitude had hardened when they met again last year.

Rusk, he said, was one of the more moderate members of Kennedy's administration, but was overshadowed by Robert Kennedy, Williams and Stevenson.

Louw warned Britain that its Simonstown Naval Base agreement with South Africa could be abrogated. And he criticized the U.S. attorney-general for granting an interview to Patrick Duncan.

He said one reason for the unfriendly and even hostile attitudes displayed by the U.S. and Britain toward South Africa appeared to be their assurance of its continued support in the fight against communism.

"One would have thought that the U.S. and Britain would have been mindful of these valuable and favorable aspects of their relationship with South Africa before they attacked South Africa the way they have done at the United Nations," he declared.

TRANSFER WORKS WITH BAD HAND
The Jacoby Transfer Bid (JTB) works mighty well with a poor hand. Your partner opens a no-trump, you transfer to your long suit, your partner responds and you pass. Naturally, he is disappointed when you pass, but when he sees the dummy he is content to play the part score contract.

With a good hand you transfer then go to game. This keeps the play in the no-trump hand and the advantage of having the lead come up to him will frequently be worth the game making trick.

North's two heart response was the Jacoby Transfer Bid for spades. After South went to two spades as ordered North jumped to game. West opened the queen of hearts and South proceeded to get rid of one of dummy's clubs before starting after the trumps. He had no trouble making his contract. He had to lose one trick in each suit except hearts, but four tricks are needed to set four spades.

Had North played four spades, as he surely would have without the JTB at his disposal, he also might have made the game. There is no telling what East would have opened.

Had East led a club, West would have picked up two

About Television

NEW YORK (AP) — NBC's Huntley-Brinkley evening news program bowed in Monday night in its half-hour form. Like Walter Cronkite's expanded CBS show a week ago, it was launched with a presidential interview.
It is unfair to measure the Huntley-Brinkley program, expanded from 15 minutes, against the week-old Cronkite program by using as a yardstick the number of stories covered. Almost half of the first Huntley-Brinkley program was devoted to the interview with President Kennedy. Some headline items received short shrift.
Both programs are careful, clear and responsible news summaries.

ABC's Whatever Happened to Royalty Monday night was a delightful series of friendly, informal portraits of patient, optimistic regal exiles, all hoping that someday, somehow, their crowns will be restored.

Turkey supper to mark event

Sawyerville church facilities are renovated

SAWYERVILLE — The Sawyerville United Church Women will sponsor a roast turkey supper September 12 to mark the opening of a newly-renovated kitchen and dining area in the Sawyerville United Church.

A building committee was formed for the project from the Sunday School, Sawyerville United Church Women and the Board of Trustees. The dining hall serves as Sunday school rooms throughout the year. There is ample cupboard space and folding tables and chairs for this purpose.

The dining area, which will seat approximately 125 people is very attractively finished in knotty pine, and acoustic tile ceiling. There are two

Anti-polio boosters to be given

Sherbrooke County Protestant schools are giving booster polio vaccinations to pupils this week, and recommending Sabin oral live-virus vaccine as giving "more immediate and greater protection."

At Lennoxville High School, notices went out yesterday asking parents to permit Dr. A. A. Dougan of Sherbrooke Hospital, Protestant schools doctor, to vaccinate their children at a clinic tomorrow.

This afternoon at Mitchell School and Sherbrooke High within the city, Dr. Dougan will be giving the booster to just over half the school populations. Nearly half have already had boosters during the summer.

The Salk dead-virus vaccination by needle is also offered. Authorities point out that a vaccination should not be given to a child in weak health — including recent tonsillectomy or tooth-pulling.

Death in fire said accident

RICHMOND — (Special) — A five-man coroner's jury yesterday rendered a verdict of accidental death by asphyxiation and smoke in the case of Mrs. Gisele Leclair, wife of Leo Leclair, restaurant operator, who died in her apartment when it was damaged by fire last Thursday.

Dr. Marcel Chaput, newly-appointed coroner for this district of Richmond, presided over the inquest held in the Town Hall Tuesday morning. Ten witnesses were heard, including the husband of the victim Mr. Leclair, who testified that he had turned the alarm in after noticing the apartment in smoke. He said flames prevented him from rescuing his wife.

According to Corporal Donat Sevigny of the local detachment, Provincial Police, cause of the fire was not immediately determined but could have been a short-circuit.

Mrs. Leclair, 29, mother of two, was buried Monday in St. Bibiane Cemetery after funeral services were held in Holy Family Church.

George Chailles, presiding judge Mr. Justice William Mitchell, Mr. Justice Gaston Desmarais and Judge Evendy Veilleux. On the other bench (in the same order): Prothonotary Charles Lemieux, Sheriff Donat Jacques, and Magistrate's Court Clerk Jean-Marie Gogroire, Batonnier Jean Louis Pelouquin is addressing the gathering. Promise of fourth judge for area is hailed at St. Francis opening

Official opening of the 1963-64 St. Francis District judicial year yesterday was marked by the warm reception extended to the Federal Government announcement of the appointment of a fourth Justice to the Superior Court for the districts this year.

Mr. Justice William Mitchell, guest Associate Chief Justice Chailles and the St. Francis Bar Association all welcomed the promised appointment.

The judge has yet to be named, but spokesmen at the court house gathering indicated that the matter should be cleared up by the Federal government within the next few days.

Superior Court Justice William Mitchell who presided at the ceremony indicated that the new appointment would help to overcome the backlog (722) of civil cases pending.

Batonnier of the St. Francis District Bar Association, Jean-Louis Pelouquin noted that the additional judge would considerably accelerate the administration of justice in the area.

Associate Chief Justice Chailles said that he was impressed with the "efficient organization" experience of the members in the local court and efforts of his three colleagues "of the local Superior Court bench."

He congratulated the Federal and Provincial governments on their appointment of a new judge. "Generally the summary cases, bankruptcy and practice matters are up to date, but we still must shorten the delay between inscription and hearing in the other civil cases of which there are about 700 ready to be heard," said Judge Mitchell.

"With the aid of the new judge we anticipate with patience and a reasonable length of time to be able to surmount this hurdle," he said.

Dwelling on those who helped bring about the appointment of the new district judge, Batonnier Pelouquin thanked in particular Yves Forest, MP, Provincial Minister of Labor and Sherbrooke M.L.A. Carrier Fortin, and Gerard Chapdelaine, Sherbrooke MP for their efforts and approach to the problem.

Bar bids farewell to a retiring judge

The St. Francis District Bar Association yesterday joined with Superior Court officials at the Sherbrooke courthouse to extend a farewell to Judge Edouard Boisvert whose retirement takes effect next month.

Speaking before the audience of lawyers and judges, federal, provincial, municipal government representatives and church and court officials at the ceremony marking the opening of the St. Francis District judicial year, presiding judge Mr. Justice William Mitchell paid tribute to the "many years of devoted work on the bench" of Judge Boisvert and wished him "a long and happy retirement."

Batonnier Jean Louis Pelouquin expressed similar sentiments on behalf of the district bar association.

Judge Boisvert, who will end his duties on October 13 has been on the Bench for 16 years.

He had previously practised as a lawyer for over 30 years, was chairman of the Sherbrooke Roman Catholic School Commission for five years and was for a long time Batonnier of the St. Francis District Bar Association.

Born in Sherbrooke in 1888 Judge Boisvert received his law training at Quebec's Laval University.

Name street for early settler

Lennoxville town council sanctioned the naming of a new street at council meeting Monday night.

The new street is James Street which leads off Winder Street in the Rodrigue development.

The name was chosen by George-Emile Rodrigue and honors James Mallory, one of the early settlers in Lennoxville.

Mr. Mallory was the original owner of the property on which the new street is situated.

A petition signed in May 1959 by Speid Street residents is to be given top consideration in next year's budget. Lennoxville council promised a five-man delegation of property owners Monday night.

The paving of Speid Street between Meade and Lorne was given definite consideration this year said Mayor Mitchell, but with the building of the reservoir and other major projects there was not enough money for it. "It will be considered very carefully this coming year," said Mayor Mitchell.

Mayor Mitchell officially proclaimed Fire Prevention Week in Lennoxville from October 6 to October 12. The local fire department is arranging a fire prevention campaign said chairman of police and fire Alderman Charles Lewis.

Lennoxville town engineers are to conduct an extensive check on catch basins and drains on Speid Street following a request by a five-man delegation of Speid Street property owners before Town Council Monday night.

Speaking for the delegation, Frank Yeandell of 22 Speid Street told council that of the 13 property owners on the street, 11 of them had flooded basements following a rainstorm August 24.

Council called the rainstorm an abnormal one but said town engineers would be authorized to check the catch basins and drains.

Claim Victoria St. building approved

North Ward businessmen Gustave and Andre Vallee testified at a Superior Court hearing yesterday morning that they had received the assurance of legal and civic authorities that commercial expansion of the type they are undertaking would be permissible.

The City of Sherbrooke is seeking an injunction in this case to have work stopped on the $80,000 commercial extension on Victoria Street.

Co-partner in the firm (Vallee Stores) Andre Vallee said that Building Inspector Aime Gagnon collaborated with him on parts of the plan. He said he was informed that the units he and his brother contemplated building could be erected.

During proceedings Monday, Mr. Gagnon said that he knew that the Vallees intended as part of their expansion plans to include a pharmacy, bank, and barber shop.

Testifying earlier Gustave Vallee noted that "we needed no zoning amendment to expand."

The Vallee premises is located in a residential area according to city officials, but Mr. Vallee claims legal authorities had informed him that he already possessed the rights to extend his business because "we had acquired rights (droits acquis)" he said.

That there had been increased commercial expansion elsewhere in the area in recent years was admitted by Building Inspector Aime Gagnon, however although this might be so, most people involved may already have had specific "acquired rights (droits acquis)" to do so," he said.

Dwelling on those who helped bring about the appointment of the new district judge, Batonnier Pelouquin thanked in particular Yves Forest, MP, Provincial Minister of Labor and Sherbrooke M.L.A. Carrier Fortin, and Gerard Chapdelaine, Sherbrooke MP for their efforts and approach to the problem.

Present at the brief courthouse ceremony were: Sherbrooke MP, Gerard Chapdelaine, Richmond - Wolfe MP, Patrick Asselin, Stanstead M.L.A. Yves Forest, Sherbrooke Mayor Armand Nadeau, Archbishop of Sherbrooke Georges Cabana.

Post office inside story shown to Rotary members

The inside story of Canada's postal service was shown to members of the Sherbrooke Rotary Club at their weekly meeting at the New Sherbrooke Hotel last night in a colored film called Postmark Canada.

Speaking briefly before the showing of the 1957 film by the National Film Board on behalf of the post office department was Achille Gauthier of Beloeil, with the public relations office for the Montreal Postal District. Special guests at Tuesday night's meeting were Sherbrooke's assistant postmaster, Henry Grant.

Explaining the need for a public relations man in a non-profit organization that is without any competition, Mr. Gauthier said a public relations man is educator, ambassador and liaison officer between the postoffice department and the public.

Quoting figures from the annual report of the undeliverable mail office Mr. Gauthier urged that care be taken in the mailing of letters and parcels.

"Millions of letters are undeliverable each year because of negligence on the part of the sender," he said.

The colored film showed the picking up, cancelling, sorting, distribution and delivering of mail across Canada and to other countries.

Seated at head table were Bill Lavallee, Henry Grant, Sherbrooke's assistant postmaster, George Morgan, Frank Pearson, club president; Mr. Gauthier, George Lafontaine, Ned Soles, Herb Simons and Frank Sims.

Members of the Sherbrooke Rotary Club have been invited to Lake Megantic September 25 to take part in celebrations marking the 20th anniversary of the founding of the Lake Megantic Rotary Club, it was announced Tuesday. The gathering will be held at the Hotel Queens beginning at 6:30 p.m.

President Frank Pearson has asked for a 100 per cent attendance next Tuesday to welcome a visit from the district governor of Rotary, Russel G. Sholes of the Rotary Club of Middlebury, Vermont.

Mr. Gagnon previously said that he had issued the building permit largely on the basis of this letter, and also that he was the one responsible for applying the zoning and construction bylaws in the city.

The hearing was adjourned to September 16.

The Vallees have given notification that they intend to sue the City of Sherbrooke and the mayor for $10,000 for defamation of character.

Labor-management U of S conference planned this autumn

Quebec Labor Minister Carrier Fortin, Sherbrooke's representative in the provincial legislature and a lecturer in labor law at the University of Sherbrooke, is expected to address a conference on labor-management relations to be attended by some 400 Eastern Townships delegates at the university late this fall.

Dean Rosario Cousineau of the university's commerce faculty said yesterday he "didn't think it would be an indication" to announce Mr. Fortin as one of the speakers for the event, though a planning session for the conference failed to set an exact date for it.

At yesterday's meeting were local labor and management representatives, plus delegates of the two sponsors, the federal labor department and the University of Sherbrooke.

The federal department has been organizing such conferences all over Canada in recent years, explained Gilbert Seguin, in Sherbrooke from Ottawa to plan for the day-long conference.

"When labor and management can get together and meet each other away from the bargaining table, it sometimes iron out difficulties in negotiations," he said. Both sides had recently been calling for "labor-management collaboration," he added.

Dr. Cousineau said the labor and management representatives who would gather for the conference would discuss "not day-to-day questions of wages and grievances, but general problems."

The dean stressed that the university would stand on the sidelines, and leave it to the two participating groups to do the talking. Professors, even labor specialists, tended to speak in "theoretical" terms, he said.

Representing labor at yesterday's sessions were Robert Sauve, regional director of the Confederation of National Trade Unions; Roland Moisan, president of the Sherbrooke Labor Council (CLC); and Laurent St. Cyr, president of the local Civil Service Federation.

Management was represented by Arthur Wright, chairman of the Sherbrooke Chamber of Commerce's national affairs committee; Henri Boudot, secretary to both the Chamber and the Eastern Townships Builders' Association; Forrest Lord, secretary of the E.T. section of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association; and Robert Belsie, assistant city clerk.

The meeting was able to announce that the conference would be held in the auditorium of the U of S commerce building. Planners will meet again Oct. 1.

Services requested were sewers and water mains along the proposed extension of Tarent Street. The same petition also urges the enlargement of the city council from six to seven aldermen, and the holding of a municipal election this year on Sunday, Nov. 3.

Lennoxville town engineers are to conduct an extensive check on catch basins and drains on Speid Street following a request by a five-man delegation of Speid Street property owners before Town Council Monday night.

Speaking for the delegation, Frank Yeandell of 22 Speid Street told council that of the 13 property owners on the street, 11 of them had flooded basements following a rainstorm August 24.

Council called the rainstorm an abnormal one but said town engineers would be authorized to check the catch basins and drains.

Cattle rustling alleged

Cookshire Provincial Police reported this morning that the recent outbreak of cattle rustling in the Compton county area has "pretty well been cleared up" following the arrest yesterday of a Cookshire man.

This brings to four the number of arrests made in the past four weeks of alleged cattle rustling in that area. Provincial Police officer Gilles Dube reported this morning.

Arrested Tuesday and to be charged with stealing from five to eight Holstein cattle valued at $125 apiece is 24-year-old Cookshire resident Germain Fréchette, police said.

Mr. Fréchette will appear in Sherbrooke Court of Sessions tomorrow along with another Compton county resident arrested last week.

The Holsteins stolen were the property of Mr. Boudin of St. Camille, Arnold Giguère of Cookshire and Mr. Fréchette's father, police said.

Two other cattle rustlers are presently serving six months jail terms after being sentenced last month. Officer Dube said.

Zoning changes are unopposed

Failure of any property owners to appear at city hall Monday evening for public meetings on three zoning bylaw changes meant the automatic adoption of the changes, which will:

- allow "health studies" (turkish bath and massage establishments) within city limits;
- allow the Wellington Hotel to expand into a "hotel-motel," although establishments where rooms have access to the outside without passing by a lobby are normally against zoning from King to Aberdeen on Wellington South and Depot Streets;
- allow an apartment house to be built in the zone from Woodward to Galt West on Bowen Street South.

Welfare Courts vital for justice

Suggestions voiced by Mr. Justice Louis P. Cliche at the opening of the Superior Court at Sweetsburg that a Social Welfare Court be established for the District of Bedford should receive the early and sympathetic consideration of the authorities concerned.

The District of Bedford, which includes such major centres as Granby, Cowansville and Bedford, has experienced a remarkable growth of population in recent years. This growth in the urban population has been accompanied by the inevitable growth in the number of cases involving minors and family troubles.

These problems are often far removed from the normal course of legal practise and often involve factors not involved in ordinary court procedure. Too often it is not a case merely of determining right and wrong. Many factors contributing to the situation coming before the court must be determined. Probably justice and the best interests of the community are served by a process of adjustment and conciliation, rather than by some arbitrary decision.

However well-intentioned and devoted he may be the average judge hearing civil and criminal cases has neither the time nor the facilities to give these problems the attention they deserve. Lack of staff prevents proper investigation and the follow-up required to make judgments effective.

The establishment of a Social Welfare Court with trained personnel will not only relieve the regular court systems of much of their burdens but will prove in the interest of the parties directly concerned.

Some kids don't do what they're told and others don't do anything else.

Another university year in the E.T.

From all over the Eastern Townships, from other parts of Canada and even from other countries, university students are flocking to the Sherbrooke area for the start of another academic year.

It won't be long now before college footballers will be out on gridirons, getting in shape for another season. And for every athlete training, there will be hundreds of other students stocking up on textbooks, meeting professors, sizing up courses as they prepare to add another year to their educational development.

In Bishop's University at Lennoxville, the Eastern Townships has, for well over a century, had the home of an academic tradition rich in the heritage of Christian liberal arts.

In the University of Sherbrooke, the Townships now has a young giant thrusting out in many directions to bring a wide variety of educational opportunities to young Canadians.

For the past few years, both of these universities have been carrying out extensive expansion programs, providing both buildings and teachers for the ever increasing numbers of high school students clamoring for entrance to universities.

And for both institutions, the 1963-64 academic year marks the achievement of expansion as great as any that has gone before.

At Bishop's, there is a new administration building and a new students centre. Men's residences are under construction.

At the University of Sherbrooke, there are a host of new buildings open this year, new faculties and new staff. The "cite universitaire" is becoming a small city indeed, and new buildings go up even as completed ones are put into use.

The vigor of thought, the stimulation of learning that both of institutions generate by their very nature have become part of Townships life. And as the two institutions grow, so do the Eastern Townships in influence and stature.

How any kid loves to grasp at a straw if it's stuck into an ice cream soda.

Special characteristics of smokers

Smokers, take comfort! You may or may not be as healthy as non-smokers, but you do look and behave differently from abstainers, according to the findings of a group of researchers who recently conducted a survey in the British Isles.

The researchers declare that the typical smoker gets married more than the non-smoker, or to be precise a greater percentage of them get married. The smoker is more flexible psychologically, takes part in more sports, has a more extroverted personality and moves to more addresses.

This report published in the British Medical Journal says that smokers are also different in appearance. Surprising as it may seem they are reputedly taller, huskier, broader in the chest and slimmer in the face than non-smokers.

The study also notes that the more a person smokes, the more marked his differences become from the abstainers. The greatest divergence exists between the total abstainer and the one-to-two-pack-a-day cigarette smoker.

Other papers say:

Can divided Social Credit survive?

The wonder of it is not that Social Credit national leader Robert Thompson and deputy leader Real Caouette broke away from one another but, instead, how they managed to get along together so badly out of step for so long.

For months, each had been trying to rationalize the other's statements, to explain away the apparent contradictions in their policies. Political correspondents got weary of hearing the excuse from the West that Mr. Caouette, in the reporting of his more flamboyant and extreme statements, must have been misquoted.

But there were clear-cut differences that just could not be denied—for instance, the vehement insistence of the Quebec Creditiste spokesman that Canada should not have nuclear arms.

Without doubt it was an ordeal for a comparatively moderate-natured man like Mr. Thompson, maintaining this hollow pretence that all was well. And it was understandable if a colorful firebrand like Mr. Caouette got more and more impatient over the drift of the party. The federal Secred strength was still largely concentrated in Quebec, even if it had been whittled down in the last election April 8. To Mr. Caouette and his followers, they continued unsatisfactory direction of party affairs from the West seemed like the tail wagging the dog.

The dispute reached its inevitable climax last weekend. Taking a stand at long last Mr. Thompson suggested Mr. Caouette should quit the party. And Le Ralliement des Creditistes—the Quebec wing of Social Credit—rejected Mr. Thompson's authority as national leader and called for a convention to pick a new chief.

So the public careers of both men have come to a crucial moment. Which faction will win out?

It would not be surprising if Mr. Caouette feels less confident about the outlook than his words indicate. Political correspondents who have followed his fortunes say he is not today quite the same headlong, cocksure personality he was early last year. At that time he virtually had "nothing to lose"—he had nowhere to go but up. He soared, and then came the harsh descent of April 8, when Quebec Secred strength was reduced from 26 to 19. He is still a dynamic force, still a spellbinder on the platform. But he is no longer certain that growing numbers of people will flock to his banner. He has come face to face with the grim realities of politics.

Now he has been publicly called "irresponsible" by his leader for his statements on separatism and his gratuitous criticism of other Social Credit figures. He has reacted angrily. But his anti-Thompson fight has so far been endorsed by only nine of the 19 Quebec Secred MPs.

In his hope of re-establishing the national party on a new basis, Mr. Caouette may find he exerts little influence outside his home domain.

There are no doubt many bitter political opponents of Social Credit who hope that last weekend's explosion will shatter the national organization beyond repair.

But on the other hand it could prove to be a healthful thing for the party—a necessary prelude to a fresh start. Other political parties have survived crisis as serious in the past.

Salvation through Christ, not Marx

Dear Sir: Pardon me if I should weary you a bit won't you. I trust that this letter will appear in print, because I wish to say a few words regarding Christ and Marx.

Mr. Fred Pattemore, whose letter was printed in your paper, said that if Marx was a leech, then Christ also was a leech, while Mr. Cotton, put up some show for his wonder boy Marx.

In his book, The Pictorial History of the Great War (1914-18) on page 116, he says that associated with Trotsky was a man named Lenin, "a fanatic whose only aim in life was to overthrow the capitalist systems of the world. Lenin received help from Germany in money or men. It was traitorous to Russia, and freedom, but it was loyal enough to his own lunatic dream."

Since most Bolsheviks pay homage to Lenin I have chosen to write about this man, to let you see that in a tomb, in the red capital lies the body of a lunatic, who was a traitor to Russia and freedom.

Mr. Duncan Clark was a war analyst and special correspondent, a man that was in the know.

The two writers who wrote to the Record and defended Marx, and their knowledge of the Holy Scriptures are a bit hazy.

Secondly, The Lord Jesus Christ was not a leech as Mr. Pattemore imagines.

You may read in the New Testament where the lovely Savior healed the sick, opened blind eyes, made the lame to walk, and not once did the Son of God ever send in His bill to people He had helped.

He said that He had no where to lay His head. He was rich when He was in heaven, but when He came to this sin cursed world, to give His life an offering for sin He became poor, when people come to Him now, He gives them eternal life, with no strings attached.

Lastly, The Lord told Pilate, His kingdom was not of this world. God isn't working through Marx, or through the Chinese Reds. God is working saving souls.

This dispensation is the dispensation of Grace—the Grace of God, where Salvation may be had freely, simply by receiving His Son as Savior in simple faith, and believing upon Him to forgive you your sins, says the Bible. The day is coming when the Son of God will set up His glorious kingdom which will endure forever, when He will sit upon His glorious throne and rule in righteousness. The Bible says so.

The kingdom of Christ has not been set up. So you see, how mistaken Mr. Cotton, you are. I thank you Mr. Editor. FRED DIX Lennoxville

TODAY IN HISTORY

By THE CANADIAN PRESS Sept. 11, 1963 . . .

Field-Marshal Jan Christian Smuts, soldier and statesman, died 13 years ago today—in 1950—two years after he was defeated in South Africa's parliamentary elections and lost the premiership. During the Boer War Smuts fought brilliantly against the British but after the Boers' defeat joined with them in helping build the Union of South Africa. In the First World War he commanded the troops in British East Africa. Following his defeat in 1948 by the Nationalist party of Dr. D. F. Malan, Smuts in opposition strongly protested the apartheid policies of the government.

1922—The British mandate was proclaimed in Palestine.

1909—Halley's Comet was first observed at Heidelberg.

Disagreed with the boss

Sunken admiral is a noisy diplomat

WASHINGTON — (TNS) — Of all the great spectacles of military pageantry, perhaps none is as thought-provoking as the sinking of an admiral.

They staged this in the White House rose garden last month. The flower of chivalry stood, long-stemmed on the lawn as the President pinned the distinguished service medal on the much-decorated chest of Admiral George Anderson, retiring chief of naval operations.

The Secretary of the Navy went on about his "superb qualities of leadership consummate knowledge and understanding . . . in the highest traditions . . ."

Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara looked on benignly.

In that leafy, sun-dappled setting it was hard to remember that the sea-warrior, despite his superb qualities was being fired because he disagreed with McNamara.

He was to be transported to Portugal as U.S. ambassador. It was a sound scheme. The U.S. has enough mouthy ex-generals and admirals kicking around at home—addressing John Birch Society meetings and being thoroughly objectionable.

Once a diplomat, the admiral's lips would be sealed to all but platitudes and dry marins. But it didn't work.

Last week the Portuguese man-of-war came out stinging. In a speech not previously vetoed by anybody, he revealed a split between the civilian and military bosses of the Defense Department. He said he was gravely concerned about the lack of confidence and trust.

He accused McNamara and his team of "whiz kids" of overruling or ignoring the men in uniform, of making decisions on the basis of pre-conceived ideas or computers.

He accused them of buying weapons without listening to the military experience which showed that a narrow edge in performance meant maximum safety and success. Naval aircraft were an example. He added: "I have two nephews who have been lost in peacetime in naval aircraft."

Admiral Anderson was pushed out—to be exact, his appointment was not renewed after two years—mainly because he fought McNamara over the TFX (Tactical Fighter Experimental), a 1,700 mph pencil-shaped machine which should be able to spread its folding wings and land on a short runway—but which may never be built.

The row over McNamara's award of the six and a half billion dollar contract has raged in Congress all year and started with hints in the corridors of the Pentagon.

McNamara awarded the contract to General Dynamics which promised a two-in-one plane that would suit both the Navy and the Air Force, rather than to Boeing, the lower bidder, whose design was less versatile.

Most of the rows between McNamara and his generals have followed the same pattern. The tough young president of Ford—the man with the computer brain and chromium-plated heart—demands economy and efficiency. He is the first secretary of defense to bang the general's heads together and stop inter-service wars.

He killed nine out of 15 weapons systems designed to deliver nuclear warheads at long range. He killed the Skybolt missile, held up the Nike Zeus anti-missile rocket and cut down the RS 70 super-bomber project.

He had little good to say for the Bomarc anti-aircraft missile that caused so much trouble in Canada. He said he would have scrapped it if any real money were to be saved, but the big sums have already been spent.

He plans to cut down on the Navy's pride—its force of 15 enormous aircraft carriers. One carrier plus escort vessels costs more than one billion dollars—a lot just to support 100 airplanes.

Bygone days

TWENTY YEARS AGO

(From the Record of Saturday, September 11, 1943) One year away from a full century of educational leadership in Canada, Bishop's University will reopen for the 1943-44 session on Tuesday. The first lectures at Bishop's College, Lennoxville, were given in the autumn of 1845. The College was created a University by a Royal Charter, granted by Her Majesty Queen Victoria, in 1853. On Tuesday next at 9:30 a.m., when the freshman class will be welcomed by the Vice-Chancellor and Principal, Rev. Dr. A. H. McGree, the 99th session of the University will begin.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

(From the Record of Saturday, September 11, 1948) Officials of the Fifth Sherbrooke Troop Boy Scouts have announced that reports indicate another camp record was held at Lake Lovering this year. Badges passed at camp are as follows: First class badge to Sea Scout Arden Sears and Patrol Leader Sonny Philip; boatman to Troop leader Bob Chapman; healthman to Sonny Philip and John Brady; friend to animals to Bob Nielson, John Brady, Sonny Philip; fireman Bob Nielson, Sonny Philip and John Brady; interpreter to Sonny Philip; missionary to John Brady, Sonny Philip and Bob Nielson; swimmer to Hugh Wright, Don Sangster, David Sims.

TEN YEARS AGO

(From the Record of Friday, September 11, 1953) Members of the Coaticook Branch No. 26 of the Canadian Legion held the annual Tomboia in the armories. Seven-teen booths, including several new types of games were built under the supervision of chairman Chas. Leadbeater. The following chairmen were responsible for the operation of the various booths: Hubert Clowery, Russell Sage, R. Stinchman, R. Cote, B. Mosher, Jas. Smith, Mastai Bouchard, Mark Vaughan, R. Olivier, Paul Bruhmuller, Gilbert Aulis, Guelph Parker, Milton Woodman, Winfred Lepitre.

President-elect of Kiwanis

Waterloo man makes trains his hobby

By ALICE BUCKLAND (Record correspondent)

WATERLOO — The president-elect of the Waterloo Kiwanis Club has many hobbies and interests. Eugene Alfred Sheppard, known always as Shep, is a fine sportsman. His great love in his youth was trains.

His father, Fred Sheppard, was an employee of the Canadian National Railway all his life and Shep had trains in his blood. Before his family filled the house, his trains did. Many evenings and weekends were spent on this fascinating if rather expensive hobby. Shep has several hundreds of dollars in his fine set of electric trains. Facts and figures on any subject, especially this one come easily to him. "My set," he told us, "includes 175 feet of track in operation, five pairs of switches, three engines, 30 cars, signals, tunnels, villages and mountains."

Following the pattern of the old Canadian National round-house at Foster Square, the president of this private railway built a turn table out of an old Edison phonograph. The round disk is bolted to a larger disk to form the turn table. When the machine is wound up, the section of tracks with the engine turns in exact pattern of the real turn table which fascinated youngsters years back at the terminal on Foster Square, when they could watch the train come in from Granby and Montreal. The steam engine went into the round house, was manually turned around and made ready for its return trip. The toy engine can do the same.

Shep's trains make a trip along a winding country road, with a back wall of mountain, through a miniature town on the side of the mountain, through tunnels, over bridges and along flat country. No wonder this hobby interests "boys" of all ages!

In Shep's school days he was an enthusiastic hockey player. He is also an ardent golfer and can be found on the golf links any spare time, or on the list of prize winners at Field Days. His wife, Joyce is another golf enthusiast.

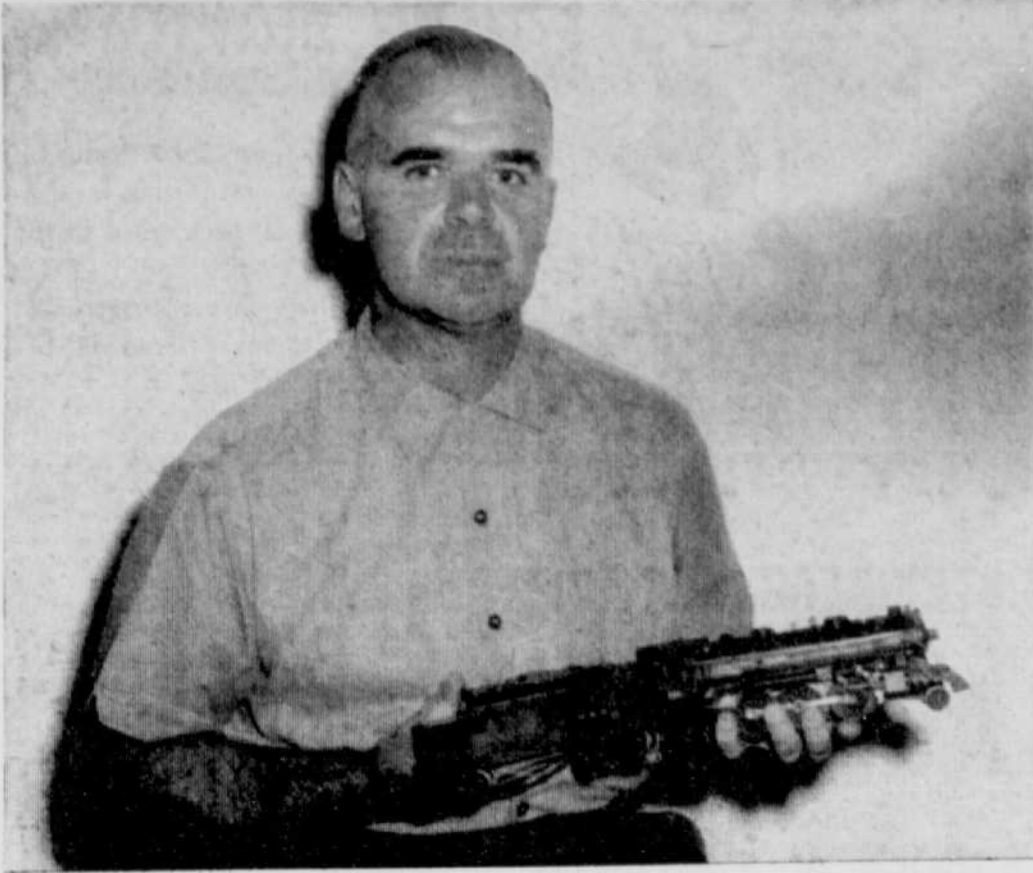

Gene Sheppard was born in East Farnham in 1915. The family moved to Waterloo a year later. He started work for the Atlas Plywood Corporation in 1935, advanced to plant manager of the Waterloo Plywood Limited in 1954. When Waterloo Plywood ceased operations, D. Y. Dalton and E. A. Sheppard bought a portion of the plant and equipment. They started their own business of manufacturing plywood boxes under the name of Waterloo Box and Packaging, Limited in 1960.

Married in 1941, the Sheppards have three children, Wayne, Carol and Fred.

Shep is a veteran of World War II, having joined the Seaforth Highlanders and served in England and Italy four years. He was wounded twice.

A date to remember in this man's life could be October 9. Many events worth remembering occurred on this date. Some on record are his first day at work, which was October 9, 1935, the day he became plant manager, October 9, 1954, the day he landed in England after his long siege in Italy was again October 9, 1944.

Shep is a loyal supporter of the Waterloo Kiwanis Club and has been their treasurer for nine years. In January, 1964 he will take on the duties as president of this active club.

TRAIN COLLECTOR — E. A. Sheppard of Waterloo looks at the engine belonging to his treasured set of electric trains. Shep has little or no time to run them now but he has never lost interest in them. (Record photo by W. Bessette).

Activities at Town of Knowlton

Mrs. Fabiola M. Shaw left on Sept. 5, for England and the Continent, where she will spend the next few months. While away, she will also visit her son, Mr. Neil Shaw, and his family in London, England.

Friends here of Miss Maureen Macdonald, who spent the past two years in the Congo, will be interested to learn that she has arrived safely in Montreal, where she has been engaged as a teacher in a Montreal school. Miss Macdonald was on the staff of Knowlton High School prior to her departure for the Congo.

WEEKEND LEGION STREET FAIR REPORTED GREAT SUCCESS

WATERLOO — (Special) — The annual Legion Street Fair here was a great success this year.

Postponed from August 16 and August 17, because of bad weather, it was held September 6 and September 7 on the property of the Legion, Lewis Street.

The weather man was kind this time and the first fine weekend since July brought out a happy crowd. Bingo was in full swing in the hall with many good prizes being taken. Other games of chance were well-patronized. Walter Hughes was in charge of these activities.

The Ladies' Auxiliary did very well with their refreshments and food table. Mrs. Marie Girouard looked after the hamburgers, hot dogs and coffee. Her committee included Mrs. Lillian Hamilton, Mrs. Jackie Soles, Mrs. Lois Campbell, Mrs. Rachel Cody, Mrs. Grace McGovern, Miss Rita McGovern, Mrs. Crystal Singfield and Mrs. Louise Perkins. The food table was run by Mrs. Edna Irwin and Mrs. Hilda Aiken. Tickets were in charge of Mrs. Bobby Cochrane and Mrs. Audrey Blampin.

As always, the drawings for the raffles were of top interest. The colonial chair was won by Miss Johanne Messier; the Schinck from Windsor Mills.

ent by Jimmy Vintinner; the chair by John Robinson of Lennoxville; the electric fry pan by M. McCullough; the barbecue by Ray Stretch; the children's wading pool by Joe Marois and the tapestry from Egypt, given by Ross Hooper, went to Jean Schinck from Windsor Mills.

Give the 1964 Volkswagens a good going over.

VW 1500-TS. Our newest arrival has been improved so much we've given it a special name, Touring Sport. We chose Sport because it has 25% more power than our regular 1500 model. (And larger brakes to handle the extra power.) With higher compression and twin carburetors, the 1500-TS has amazing performance. From a standing start it will hit 50 mph in twelve seconds. (You see, it really does have the performance of a sports car.) And we added the name Touring because you can travel across country in complete comfort. (That goes for the station wagon too.) In front there are two deep, roomy bucket seats that adjust to 49 different positions. Other new features for '64 include an instant heater, whitewall tires, new colours, (two-tone finish optional) and a few discreet touches of chrome. (NOTE: You can save a few dollars by buying a regular 1500 sedan or station wagon. They both have all the 1964 improvements except the TS engine.)

For and about Women

Côté-Gemmell

HATLEY — In Hatley United Church, on August 24, 1963, at 2:30 o'clock Thelma Ann Gemmell, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Gemmell, of Hatley, became the bride of Homer Edmond Cote, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cote, of Vale Perkins. Rev. K. Feltham officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mr. Bruce Patton played the wedding music. Large baskets of white gladioli, a gift of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James Gemmell, Canada, Vermont, decorated the church.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white tulle and lace over satin, having a fitted bodice encrusted with seed pearls and iridescent sequins, and long sleeves ending in point over the hands. The floor-length skirt was fashioned with lace panels front and back and lace appliques with sequins. Her short veil of lace applied tulle illusion was held in place by a tiara of pearls and sequins. She carried a white bible with a cascade of red Sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Ralph George, as matron of honor, wore a frock of yellow chiffon over taffeta, with lace bolero and carried a cascade bouquet of blue carnations.

Miss Arlene Cote, sister of the groom, and Miss Agnes Gemmell, cousin of the bride, as bridesmaids, were gowned alike in blue chiffon over taffeta dresses with lace boleros. They carried cascades of yellow carnations.

Mr. Ralph George, of Mansonville, acted as best man and the ushers were Ian Gemmell, of Compton, cousin of the bride, and Eugene Cote, of Vale Perkins, brother of the groom.

Mrs. Gemmell, the bride's mother, chose a dress of royal blue and white accessories. She wore a corsage of yellow roses.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Cote, wore a medium blue dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church vestry, where a pink and white theme was carried out with sweet peas, streamers, and wedding bells. The three-tier wedding cake was made by the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Ashley Gemmell, and decorated by Mrs. Gaston Mongeau. The groom's sister, Miss Clara Cote, attended the guest book.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. Cote left for a wedding trip to points of interest in Ontario, the bride travelling in a deep blue crepe Suzette dress with pleated skirt and three quarter length sleeves. She wore a beige hat and red accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

The couple will reside in Mansonville.

Out of town guests were from Connecticut, Vermont, Mansonville, Sherbrooke, Coaticook, Compton, and Richmond districts.

MacLeod-Ticehurst wedding

MAGOG — The marriage of Gwendolyn Elizabeth Aveyette, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin B. Ticehurst, of "The Pines," Magog, to Mr. Roderick Murdoch MacLeod, son of Mrs. Blanche MacLeod, of Orleans, Vermont and the late Malcolm MacLeod, took place recently in the Evangelical Free Church, Magog. Rev. Melvin Lundeen officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mr. George Brier was the organist and Miss A. Thompson of Lincoln, Minn., U.S.A., was the soloist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of imported silk organza, over white taffeta, the skirt having a front panel of Alencon lace, and chapel train of silk organza, edged with Alencon lace, the fitted bodice was fashioned with finger-tip sleeves. Her veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a circlet of seed pearls. She carried a semi-cascade bouquet of red roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Miss Marleen Lundeen, as flower girl, wore a blue nylon dress, with a head band of pink roses. She carried a basket of roses and pansies.

Mr. Malcom Sager was best man and the ushers were Messrs. Rupert Alden and Wayne Ticehurst. Charles Patterson and Philip Tetreault.

The bride's mother was attired in a street length gown of aqua marine lace over taffeta, with white accessories and a corsage bouquet of miniature white carnations.

The groom's mother wore a blue gown of Arnel Jersey, with white accessories and a corsage bouquet of white carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at "The Pines," the home of the bride's parents, where summer greenery was used as decorations.

Later the couple left for Northern Ontario, the bride wearing for travelling, a pale blue linen ensemble, matching hat and a corsage of pink roses.

Guests were from Montreal, Sherbrooke, Lennoxville, Roxton Pond, Chambly, Coaticook, Toronto and Brantford, Ont., Vermont, Conn., and Minn., U.S.A.

Polly's pointers

DEAR POLLY—For years I have been doing a special washing of black and red shorts, slacks and so on because I was afraid they might run and ruin something else in the wash. Today it occurred to me that I could easily find out which things did run. I keep my husband's old undershirts for cleaning rags. Today I pinned one of these white undershirts inside each questionable garment and put them in the washing machine. After going through the washing, rinsing and drying cycles, it was quite obvious which were safe to wash with other colored things. I know this is going to save me lots of separate batches of wash. It also will relieve my mind about having others do my laundry now. I know which garments NOT to send out with the other things.—LIVIE.

DEAR POLLY — Friends have been telling me I should send you "Mary's Happy Birthday Hint" as it can make so many people happy. For 15 years or more, I have been spelling out my daughter's name and giving her a gift for each letter. I print each letter on a small white card and scotch tape it to each package. I sometimes add one to grow on as she receives so much pleasure from so many packages and so do I. Through the years I have done this for some close friends and relatives. Everyone gets a big thrill out of it even though the gifts are very inexpensive. Just try it and you will be rewarded with many smiles. MRS. M. B.

GIRLS — This is not nearly so extravagant as it sounds on first thought. One could take the amount of money to be spent on the special occasion and divide it by the number of letters in the recipient's name. Just the first name or a nickname could be used to cut down on the number of gifts if the name is too long. — POLLY

Share your favorite home-making ideas . . . send them to Polly in care of Sherbrooke Daily Record. You'll receive a bright, new silver dollar if Polly uses your ideas in Polly's Pointers.

Here's a money saver

"Give us back the old-fashioned walk-in pantry" was one of the suggestions made by housewives who attended a recent clinic on "Home Design and the American Family" at the National Housing Center in Washington.

How did women ever happen to let men take the pantry away from them, anyhow — considering how convenient it was for the family purchasing agent?

• Into a spacious pantry a woman could store all kinds of items to make her work easier. She could buy canned goods by the case, instead of the can.

• She could get by without going to market for days at a time, thanks to the well-stocked pantry that was like her own little grocery store.

• The unexpected guest didn't bother the woman who kept one shelf in her storage pantry for the makings of a variety of company meals — with the wherewithal to feed one unexpected guest or a carload of company.

Sure, the modern kitchen in most respects has it all over the kitchens of a bygone day. But with all their streamlining and labor-saving gadgets, the truth is that most of today's kitchens just don't have the storage place a family needs.

Bringing back that old-fashioned walk-in pantry, where stored food was together and easy to get to, would do a lot for the modern kitchen. It would do a lot, too, for the housewife. Today, she often has to buy in such limited quantities that she is forever running out of something she needs. Why? She hasn't room to keep a bountiful or even adequate supply of food and household items on hand.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Winslow wish to announce the engagement of the latter's younger daughter, Helen Harriet Westgate, of Toronto, Ont., formerly of Sherbrooke, to Mr. John Boyd Nayler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nayler of Toronto, Ont. The wedding is planned for October 12 at the Church of the Comforter, Toronto, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. Everette Martin, of Montreal, announce their engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth Everette to Mr. Warren Angus Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Robinson of Lennoxville. The marriage will take place on Saturday, October 12, at 2 o'clock in Beulah United Church, Ayer's Cliff.

Yes Folks, it's true. We now have all our Furniture, Appliances, etc., under one roof and the walls are bulging! So in order to re-organize our stock and our business, we MUST SELL at least $50,000.00 worth of stock in a hurry, regardless of cost or profit. This is a store-wide sale, and everything in the store bears a low-low sale tag. There are hundreds of bargains besides these listed here, that will save you many dollars.

So get on your horse and be here when the door opens, for the furniture bargains of a lifetime. The store has been closed all day yesterday and today, TO MARK DOWN PRICES! If you haven't been a customer of AUBAINES BRETON LTEE. before, come now and see the beautiful merchandise at bargain prices.

Those who prefer to shop at night can phone 569-8947, after tonight, for appointment. Sorry, no appointments tonight - - too busy getting ready for the greatest furniture and appliance sale that Sherbrooke and vicinity has ever seen.

To celebrate having been in business for forty-one years, we've decided to collect a quantity of 1941 pennies, or as they should be called, 1c pieces. So each day, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, the 12th, 13th and 14th of September, at 11.00 a.m., we will pay someone $10.00 cash for their 1c piece. It could be you.

To enter this contest you merely have to find a 1941 1c piece, put it in an envelope with your name and address on it and bring it to this store either Thursday, Friday or Saturday, or all of these days. The winner will be paid $10.00, in cash, at once.

Silver wedding is celebrated at the Border

BEEBE — Mr. and Mrs. Alton Wing, who were evening dinner guests of their immediate family in Sherbrooke on Aug. 17, were, upon returning to Beebe, invited on an errand to the town hall. On entering they were surprised to find a reception had been arranged for them, which was largely attended by relatives and friends.

Mrs. Wing was presented with a corsage of mauve mums and her bridesmaid of 25 years ago, Mrs. W. B. Dustin, the former Thelma Wing, with a corsage of pink mums, while Mr. Wing and his best man, Mr. Dustin each received a white boutonniere.

The couple received congratulations and best wishes and the evening was spent dancing to the music of Langevin's orchestra.

Seated at the table with the honored couple were their four sons, Allen Wing and Mrs. Wing, Richard Wing and Miss Bonnie Mayhew, Douglas Wing and Miss Doreen Kennison, Michael Wing and Mr. and Mrs. Dustin. The table was centered with the four tier anniversary cake, made by Mrs. Dustin and decorated by Mrs. Ruby Sheldon in white and silver and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Buffet refreshments were served to the guests.

Decorations were attractively carried out with white bows, wedding bells, silver 25 numerals and seasonal flowers.

Salvatore Galazzo, on behalf of the assembled guests, presented the celebrant, with a gift of money and best wishes in the years ahead. The toast was given by Allen Wing to his parents, this was responded to by Alton Wing. In addition to the gift of money, there was also a gift of silver from the Welcome Club and other individual gifts.

The reception arrangements were made by Mrs. Charles Aulis, assisted by Mrs. Velmore Lepitre and others.

Guests attended from Tomiobia, Derby Line, Newport, Toronto, Ont., Beebe, Rock Island, Ayer's Cliff, Sherbrooke, Lennoxville, and Alstead, N.H.

Alton Wing and Rita Stratton were married on Aug. 20, 1938, they have four sons, Allen, Richard, Douglas and Michael and one grandson.

L.A. meets at Lake Megantic

LAKE MEGANTIC — A meeting of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Ladies' Aid was held at the home of Mrs. John MacDermid on Aug. 27.

In the absence of the president, the meeting was conducted by the secretary, Mrs. Neil Stewart.

It was decided to have a service to dedicate hymn books, recently purchased by the Ladies' Aid.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Rebecca Morrison, Mrs. Dora Rider and Miss Margaret MacIver.

GENERAL NOTES

Recent guests and visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Stewart, were: Mrs. Emma Gilbert, of Bury; Mr. and Mrs. Barney Weir, Websterville, Vt.; Mr. and Mrs. Walter MacDonald and son Jimmy, Perry, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Hilland Stewart and son Gerald, Hartford, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. Allan MacKenzie, Lebanon, N.H.; Mr. and Mrs. Alex Stewart, and Mrs. Dora Stewart, Coburn Gore, Me.

DUDSWELL JUNCTION

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Thomson, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jackson, all of Bristol, Conn., were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Knight George, over the holiday.

65 assemble at Brookbury to fete bride-elect

BROOKBURY — Some 65 relatives and friends assembled to honor a bride of the month, Miss Eileen Thompson at The Hut, when a miscellaneous shower was given.

The hall was prettily decorated with pink and white streamers, vases and baskets of flowers.

Upon the arrival of the bride-to-be, she was greeted and presented with a corsage of roses and escorted to her seat of honor by Mrs. Douglas Harrison. There she was presented with a table laden with useful and beautiful gifts.

Mrs. A. Lowe seated the guest of honor's mother, Mrs. Reginald Thompson; Mrs. E. Herring seated Mrs. Bilodeau, mother of the prospective groom, and Mrs. K. Smith seated Miss Nancy Thompson. Mrs. Louise seated Mrs. Claude Martel sister of the future groom.

Mrs. W. B. Lowe, maternal grandmother of the bride-elect and her other sister, Mrs. Rejean Lapointe, were also seated at the front of the hall.

The honored guest was assisted in opening her gifts by Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Bilodeau. At the close of a happy afternoon, refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Douglas Harrison, Mrs. E. Herring, Mrs. Keith Smith, Mrs. Clifford Lowe, and Mrs. Arthur Lowe. Assisting in serving were the Misses Deanna Harrison, Anne Wright and Linda Lasenba.

GENERAL NOTES
The little Misses Muriel and Vickie Strapps of Bury spent the weekend at Welcome Inn, the summer camp of Mr. and Mrs. N. McLeod, on St. Francis Hill.

Mrs. H. Brown, of Hereford, who spent a week with Mrs. W. Nourse has returned to her home. Little Miss Brenda Winget and Master Dale Winget, of Sherbrooke, are guests of Miss Mary Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lowe.

FROST VILLAGE
On Aug. 28, Miss Norma Martin and Mrs. Maurice Ledoux were hostesses at the former's home for a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Georgette Tetreault, of Waterlool, whose marriage to Mr. Keith Sanschagrin took place Aug. 31. About 15 business associates of the bride elect were present and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Miss Claire Turcotte, of Manonville, spent a week with Mr. and Mrs. George Williams and family.

Mr. George Chapman spent most of a week at Sherbrooke where he exhibited his Ayrshire cattle at the Sherbrooke Fair. Miss Joan McClelland, of Ottawa, has returned home after visiting Miss Carol Jones for two weeks. Miss Jones accompanied her to Montreal where they visited Mr. A. C. Bailie at the Montreal General Hospital.

Melbourne Ridge
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stainthorpe and sons Ricky and Kevin, of Brampton, Ont., have returned home having spent their holidays with Mr. Stainthorpe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Stainthorpe, and Mr. Garnet Dawson.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fleming and family, of Belvedere Heights were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Woods and family.

Mrs. Miriam Turner and Miss Janet Rose, of Waterville, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Taber.

On August 28, the Ulverton Circuit Young Adults met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Fowler. Films were shown and plans completed for the card party to be held in the W.I. hall in Kingsbury on Sept. 7.

Birchton U.C.W. to buy screens, blinds for hall

BIRCHTON — The U.C.W. held its regular meeting in the Birchton Hall on Aug. 24.

The devotional period was in charge of Mrs. George Latewood. Committee reports all showed progress.

A request to have the group cater to a wedding reception in September was accepted, as was a decision to forward the sum of $25 to the Over-and-Above Fund of the Presbytery.

Plans were made to purchase blinds and screens for the hall.

Members were reminded that a box for relief was to be packed, and that donations to this cause should be brought in.

Mrs. Arthur Graham invited the group to their new home in Wesleyville for the September meeting, with Mrs. Charles Lefebvre as co-hostess.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Charles Spalding and Mrs. Howard Picard.

National Football League teams cut, Sam Etcheverry signs with '49ers, Colts cut star fullback Joe Perry

Joe Perry, 200-pound fullback who gouged almost five miles out of opposing National Football League lines, is looking for a job.

He was placed on waivers Tuesday as Baltimore Colts cut back to a mandatory 37-man roster limit for this weekend's opening games.

Perry broke into pro football when he was signed as a free agent in 1948 by San Francisco '49ers, then of the old All-America Conference. He was still with the '49ers when the club went into the NFL two years later.

Perry, who holds the league's all-time rushing record of 1,719 carries for 8,280 yards, went to Baltimore in 1961 and was made expendable this year by the outstanding showing of fullback J. W. Lockett, acquired by the Colts from Dallas.

Green Bay — Asked waivers on tackle-end Tony Liscio and linebacker Ed Holler.

Chicago — Traded tackle Art Anderson to Pittsburgh for future draft choice.

Pittsburgh — Asked waivers on guard Pete Perreaut, released guard Bob Rowley, halfback Joe Womack and defensive back Jackie Simpson.

Dallas — Released safetyman Jerry Norton, fullback Mal Hammack, offensive tackle John Houser and defensive end Lynn Gregory; placed defensive end George Andrie on injured waiver list.

Detroit — Traded place-kicker Jim Martin to Baltimore for future draft choice; asked waivers on fullback Nick Ryder, guard John Gamble and end Albert Greer; reactivated veteran tackle Bob Scholtz.

Minnesota — Asked waivers on quarterback John McCormick, end Charley Ferguson and linebacker Jim O'Mahoney.

San Francisco — Signed quarterback Sam Etcheverry; placed guard Mike Magac and defensive halfback Jerry Mertens on injured waiver list; asked waivers on end Hugh Campbell and linebacker Carl Kammerer.

New York — Reached limit earlier.

Cleveland — Cut one player, but withholding name until he is notified.

St. Louis — Placed three players on waivers, but withheld names.

SAM IS INSURANCE

Coach Red Hickey said the '49ers signed Etcheverry, 33, "as a quarterback insurance. John Brodie is still our No. 1 man." Etcheverry played 11 seasons with Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League before going to St. Louis in 1961. He was cut by the Cardinals last month.

Washington Redskins released three players, including quarterback Glen Hall who was in his second season in the league and was the Redskins' No. 2 quarterback most of last season. He lost his job to George Izo in pre-season games.

Most of the other players involved in the final cuts were rookies or second-year men. Defending champion Green Bay Packers asked waivers on rookie linebacker Tony Liscio and linebacker Ed Holler, while Eastern Division champion New York had reached the limit earlier.

Here is the team-by-team break-down:

Baltimore — Cut fullback Joe Perry, kicker Grady Wade and tackle Chuck Hinton.

Washington — Released quarterback Glen Hall, fullback Ron Hatcher and defensive back Ted Rzemopoluch.

Los Angeles — Asked waivers on defensive back Carver Shannon, formerly with Winnipeg and Hamilton of the CFL, and end Gary Henson.

Philadelphia — Cut tackle Jim McCusker and halfback Tom Woodeschick and placed linebacker Mike Wouffe on injured reserve list.

Oddsmakers say Cards will fold

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — The oddsmakers in Las Vegas are betting St. Louis Cardinals will fold before they catch Los Angeles Dodgers.

The bookmakers have made the Dodgers a heavy 1-5 favorite to capture the National League pennant. It's 3-1 they don't.

Ticats pick up three new men

HAMILTON (CP) — Hamilton Tiger-Cats added three new players to their roster Tuesday, including Gene Grossage, 27, a cut from New York Giants of the National Football League.

The Eastern Football Conference team also added Bob Jarus, who played for Ticats two years ago before he was drafted for stint in the United States Army, and Tom Gates, a castoff from Toronto Argonauts.

Ticat coach Ralph Szabo said Tuesday Grossage, who can play offensive guard, offensive end and defensive tackle, and Jarus, a defensive guard and defensive end, will probably be used on offense.

Pro hockey out of Ottawa for good, Sam Pollock insists move is only temporary but fans don't think so OTTAWA (CP) — Pro hockey has pulled out of Ottawa and many feel it will be years before it returns. It may even be gone for good.

After three seasons here with thin crowds, Sammy Pollock closed out operation of Hull-Ottawa Canadiens of the Eastern Professional Hockey League after the 1962-63 season.

This would have been a civic catastrophe in the hey-day of the Ottawa Senators of the NHL or the famed old Silver Seven who satisfied Ottawa's insatiable appetite for pro hockey for many years.

A's blank Yanks, Bo Bo back, Twins second

Aloha Nui Kakou, Bo. A great big welcome to you, Bo.

Bo, of course, is Bo Belinsky, baseball's akamai kane—bad boy—who was shipped off to Hawaii Islanders when Los Angeles Angels became disenchanted with his services.

But Bo's back.

They didn't carry him off the field at Los Angeles with leis dripping from his shoulders Tuesday night, but then he wasn't around when Angels finally defeated Boston Red Sox 6-5 in 10 innings.

Belinsky left in the ninth inning when Red Sox started to connect. He allowed eight hits, struck out four and walked none before he left to read the reviews of his return engagement on the mainland. He should get 2 1/2 stars.

Belinsky, who pitched a no-hitter for Los Angeles last year, was farmed out after compiling a 1.7 record, a 6.39 earned run average and a remarkable record for getting into trouble. He won four of five decisions with Hawaii while drawing large crowds.

SCREWBALL BEST

Notified that he was starting against Red Sox, the 26-year-old left hander who insists the screwball is his best pitch, proved he hasn't changed much when he said:

"If I don't draw at least 13,000, I'll slash my wrists."

He fortunately changed his mind when he learned the game would be televised locally.

Attendance was 4,649.

While Belinsky was holding the centre of the American League stage, Kansas City Athletics knocked off the first-place New York Yankees for the second night in a row, 2-0.

Minnesota Twins regained second place as Bob Allison hit two homers in a 5-4 decision over Cleveland Indians, Baltimore Orioles knocked Chicago White Sox into third by beating White Sox 2-1 and Detroit Tigers and Washington Senators split. Senators won 9-8 before Tigers took the nightcap 4-1.

Belinsky went into the ninth with a 5-1 lead, having allowed only six hits—one Dick Stuart's homer that gave him the league lead in that department. Bo for singles, he was relieved.

Red Sox then pushed across four runs to tie it. Angels won in the 10th when Lee Thomas cracked a bases-loaded single.

Yankees' Ralph Terry, 16-14, and Diego Segui of Athletics were locked in a scoreless battle until the eighth when Charley Lau rapped a two-run double. Segui, who had allowed only a fifth inning single by Elston Howard until the eighth, needed relief help from Ted Bowsfield and John Wyatt before he won it.

Twins came from behind as Allison slammed a pair of two-run homers, his 34th and 35th of the season. Gerry Arrigo, recently recalled from the minors, shut out Indians over the final five innings for his first major league victory.

Catcher John Orsino collected a single, double and triple as Orioles edged White Sox. Milt Pappas pitched the first six innings but left when his arm stiffened and Dick Hall and Stu Miller finished up.

Minnie Minoso batted in three runs for Senators in the opener, including the winning run in the eighth inning. Bubba Phillips homered for Tigers in the nightcap. Phillips and Norm Cash who homered for Detroit in the opener, each had five hits for the doubleheader.

11,000 watch Sonny Liston workout

LONDON (AP) — Sonny Liston, his world crown in two years' time, heavyweight boxing champion, gave an exhibition bout before a sellout crowd of 11,000 Tuesday night and then raced back to the ringside to watch Billy Walker gain a technical knockout in the last round over Johnny Prescott.

The Walker-Prescott affair, over 10 rounds, at Wembley Indoor Stadium, was an all-British clash — but one in which Liston had a personal interest.

Liston watched Walker training last week and afterwards said that the 22-year-old Londoner could be challenging for you'll come out to see me fight."

Liston did one round of shadow boxing, three rounds of sparring against Feoneda Fox of Denver, Colo., and then did his rope skipping act to "night train."

After the Walker-Prescott fight, Liston said:

"Those boys have both got a whole lot to learn. I wouldn't consider fighting either of them — not if I wanted to sleep at night."

"The people here gave me a much better reception than I ever got in America," he said.

Liston, who got a big reception from the crowd in his exhibition, told the London fans:

"I appreciate you people coming out tonight. I hope one night ever got in America."

The remarkable Stan Musial set another major league record: Most home runs by a new grandfather, 1.

And the St. Louis Cardinals kept charging on.

Sandy Koufax broke his own National League strikeout mark as Los Angeles Dodgers stayed three games in front of Cardinals in the National League pennant race.

Musial was up most of the night waiting for the birth of his first grandchild, then smacked a two-run homer as Cardinals defeated Chicago Cubs 8-0 Tuesday night, for their 13th victory in 14 games.

Koufax won his 23rd game against only five losses, and struck out nine Pittsburgh Pirates in a 4-2 victory. That gave him 276 strikeouts for the season. His old record was 269 in 1961.

Third-place Milwaukee Braves fell eight games off the pace, losing 4-3 to Cincinnati Reds. In other action, New York Mets whipped San Francisco Giants 4-2 and Philadelphia Phillies slugged Houston Cubs 16-0.

Musial's first inning homer was all Bob Gibson needed to record his 17th victory. It followed a single by Dick Groat just restored to the line-up after an injury, and was Musial's 11th of the year and 47th of his career. Musial also produced a run-scoring single.

GIBSON HOMERS

Gibson added a three-run homer in the second, with Groat on base again, this time with a double.

Wally Moon hit a two-run homer in the seventh for Dodgers to run the score to 4-0. Pinch-hitter Willie Mays, who had bottom of the seventh with the help of an error, Bob Clemente hit a solo homer in the eighth for Pirates.

Hank Aaron hit his 40th and 41st home runs—tops in the majors—for Braves, but it was not enough. Johnny Edwards homered for Reds and Gordy Cole, man, who also drove in a run with a double, broke a 2-2 tie with a homer in the fourth inning. The loss snapped a seven-game Milwaukee winning streak.

Cary Willey won his ninth game for Mets and his third of the year over Giants. He was working on his fifth shutout in the ninth, but Willie McCovey and Orlando Cepeda ruined it for two runs in the first inning of four consecutive hits off Billy O'Dell. Jim Hickman homered in the fifth, his 16th for the run that turned out to be the winner.

ALOUS DOWN 1-2-3

Giants set a major league mark of their own when they used three Alous in the eighth inning. The Alou brothers, Jesus, Maitty and Felipe, went down 1-2-3, the first two to pinch hitters. Felipe was the right fielder in the lineup.

Don Notbart had pitched a no-hitter when he met Phils in Houston last May 17, but he only got three men out Tuesday night.

Johnny Callison collected a homer, double and two singles to pace the 17-hit attack for Phils and Colts contributed six with a double, broke a 2-2 tie with a homer in the fourth in-

Players consider Warren Spahn as one of greatest pitchers of our time, concentration main asset

NEW YORK (AP) — There smarter, by being more observant of the pitcher's movements, by being more alert, other ball players talk. Babe Ruth was one. Ted Williams was another. Among the active players they talk about are Stan Musial, Willie Mays, Mickey Mantle and Warren Spahn.

They talk about Spahn's endurance, his coolness under fire, his contempt for hitters. They talk about his pinpoint control, his variety of pitches, his perfect timing, balance and faultless delivery.

All have combined to make the Milwaukee Braves sputter one of the greatest pitchers of our time. But there are other reasons for his greatness.

"It's his concentration," said Musial who probably has engaged in more hand-to-hand duels with the 42-year-old Spahn than with any other pitcher. "He never gives you the pitch you are looking for. It's useless to try to outguess him."

"I've been hitting against him nearly 18 years and I haven't been able to figure him out yet."

"I always try to get the hitter to hit my pitch, not his," said Spahn. "And I never pitch to the hitters the same way from season to season. That's because there is always the possibility that the hitter gave considerable thought over the winter to the way in which I pitched and he might be looking for those pitches the next."

"It's his confidence," said Fred Harey, general manager of Los Angeles Angels who was Spahn's skipper during Braves' pennant winning years.

"He walks out there with the sort of snap that shouts confidence. You can tell he means business—that he's the boss—just by the way he stands on the mound and breathes defiance down the batter's throat."

"I live on competition," said Spahn. "As long as I'm on the mound, I won't be afraid of the hitter. I may respect him but I won't fear him. The pitcher must always remember that no matter how good the hitter is, he's only human. So it comes down to this: It's one human being against another."

"I'm not as fast as I used to be," conceded Spahn. "I've got to compensate. How? By being

Lee Grosscup joins Roughies for tryout

REGINA (CP) — Quarterback Lee Grosscup has decided to give Canadian football a try after all.

The former All-American from Utah State checked into the camp of Saskatchewan Roughriders Tuesday to squelch reports he had turned down a tryout offer from the Western Football Conference club in favor of a job with Oakland Raiders of the American Football League.

Grosscup said the confusion probably resulted because he failed to report to Saskatchewan as scheduled. He said he notified Roughriders general manager Ken Preston that he had received an offer from Oakland and wished to think matters over for a few days. He then had a talk with Roughrider coach Bob Shaw and decided in Saskatchewan's favor.

Indians rally edge Crackers

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Indianapolis Indians came from five runs behind and edged Atlanta Crackers 7-6 Tuesday night to take a 2-0 lead in their best-of-seven International League Governor's Cup final.

Jim Koranda doubled to drive in two runs in the eighth inning and put Indians in front for the first time.

Atlanta bunched six of its 10 hits in the second and third innings and took advantage of two Indianapolis errors to build up a 6-1 lead. Indians' only run in the early innings was a home run by Charlie Smith in the second.

Drowning is ruled accidental

RICHMOND—(Special)—Inquest into the drowning of Denis Lacroix, 20, Sept. 1 was held here yesterday. Lacroix drowned after a boat he was in capsized in the St. Francis River about two or three miles down river towards Kirkdale and Ulverton.

He was in the boat with his younger brother, Claude 16 and brother-in-law Real Noel 15 when the mishap occurred. After hearing testimony from the two survivors and rescuers, the jury rendered a verdict of accidental drowning.

Donat Sevigny of the Provincial Police said rescue attempts and recovery of the body in that spot were difficult as the river is deep. The boys said their companion was caught in the rapids, a whirlpool pulled him under and he disappeared from their view. Their efforts to find him failed.

Paul Menard and a group of volunteers searched the river for six days in hopes of finding the body but attempts failed. Finally, last Saturday, Menard and his group aided by Provincial Police, discovered the body some three miles further down river.

Local C of C active in roads group

The Sherbrooke Chamber of Commerce reports that its main activity at the recent provincial C of C convention was in the highways committee, and the Sherbrooke Chamber's delegates came back with the intention of urging directors to study actively regional road communications.

The Chamber's post-convention press release does not specifically mention the Eastern Townships Autoroute, but the Chamber has frequently taken stands on the building of this road link, and Quebec auto-routees chief Guy Pelquin announced the beginning of the project in a speech to the Chamber.

The Sherbrooke branch was represented at the convention last week at Pointe-au-Pic, Que., by President Gontran Guillemette, ex-vice-president Paul Beaulieu, vice-president Ernest Grigsby, and secretary-manager Henri Baudot.

Mr. Grigsby, as program chairman, was able to engage two members of the Lesage cabinet as speakers at coming chamber meetings, the Chamber reports. Labor Minister Fortin is expected to confirm his availability for next month's meeting "within a few days," and Revenue Minister Kierans is expected in November.

The new Quebec Chamber president, Maurice Labelle of Rosemere, will also be a Sherbrooke speaker this season. An Asbestos engineer, Roland Dugre, chaired the roads committee at the convention.

NESBITT, THOMSON APPOINTMENT

Mr. A. Deane Nesbitt, President of Nesbitt, Thomson and Company, Limited, members of the Investment Dealers Association of Canada, announces the appointment of Mr. Guy Desmarais as sales representative in the Sherbrooke area.

Mr. Desmarais is a native of Sherbrooke. He attended the University of Ottawa, receiving a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1960, and graduated from the University of Sherbrooke in 1962, with a Bachelor of Commerce degree.

Prior to this appointment, Mr. Desmarais had been employed with Nesbitt, Thomson and Company, Limited, on their Montreal sales staff.

Combustion-Engineering on vigorous export expansion

A vigorous expansion in the export field by Combustion Engineering-Superheater Ltd. produced, during 1962 alone, shipments of steam generating equipment which collectively represented a capacity of approximately 1 1/2 million lbs. steam/hr. These export shipments went to various types of industries all over the world.

Concurrent with the increase in foreign contracts, the company organized a separate export sales section to administer specifically the many aspects of international trade. Company officials have lauded as invaluable the assistance given them by the several branches of the Department of Trade and Commerce, notably the Export Credit Insurance Corporation which provides insurance against the risks of non-payment involved in export sales.

In particular, they cite the availability of on-the-spot market, credit and exchange controls information provided by Canadian trade commissioners in 47 countries.

Recent contracts completed, or currently being fulfilled, for steam generating equipment by Combustion Engineering's Sherbrooke, Quebec, plants for shipment to Mexico, the British West Indies and South America include package boilers of specialized design, and medium-sized coal, oil or gas fired equipment. A large unit was ordered by Cia Italo Argentina de Electricidad, an electric utilities company in Buenos Aires.

Units for industrial use have also been supplied to an oil refinery in Australia, and a pulp mill in Sicily.

At the moment, the company has under quotation steam generating equipment and complete power plants for purchasers in Mexico, New Zealand, the Near East and South America.

Combustion Engineering-Superheater Ltd., whose head offices are in Montreal, have facilities for the complete design, manufacture and installation of steam generating units and auxiliary equipment, including chemical recovery units.

Mr. Desmarais is a native of Sherbrooke. He attended the University of Ottawa, receiving a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1960, and graduated from the University of Sherbrooke in 1962, with a Bachelor of Commerce degree.

Prior to this appointment, Mr. Desmarais had been employed with Nesbitt, Thomson and Company, Limited, on their Montreal sales staff.
