STATISTICAL

For the information of those,—and they are numerous,—who think too lightly of the amount of work which we had to perform in order to bring this book to such an early issue as the 20th of May, the compiler respectfully submits the following figures, and requests the consideration and attention of his subscribers and a discriminating public ; but more particularly of those who have thought well and proper to favour an opponent's publication to their own disadvantage as well as to the detriment of the compiler

12961 Names in the City have been Compiled 1739 Removals have been Attented to
2500 Names and over have been Added
368 Names have been Erased
195 HOUSES still remained UNOCCUPIED at the time of going to press

☞ Increase in population of about 2,000 souls. There are, at present, in the city about 57,500 Roman Catholics, and 6,500 Protestants
