CHANGE OF GOVERNMENT RAIL-

$1,500,000 TOWARDS A NEW LINE.

The following intelligence was received on Saturday night. The Citizens' Committee will no doubt soon meet to consider this important change in the policy of the Government:—

OTTAWA, May 2.—The Government have decided to depart from their original intention approving of the joint ownership, and unless the Grand Trunk Railway agree to absolute control by the Canadian Pacific Railway within sixty days after the passage of the resolutions, the subsidy for an independent line from St. Martin's Junction to Quebec will be increased to one million five hundred thousand dollars.

One day, when the great white with snow, M. Dorian, a grand whip among the Parisian "sportswomen," invited "Victor Hugo to drive out and see the skaters in the Bois de Boulogne. As he got up beside her on the box of her turn-out she remarked, "You have forgotten your overcoat, mon cher amateur." "My overcoat? I haven't any, and I never had one; and I dress just the same way in winter as I do in summer. My overcoat is my youth."

QUEBEC, MONDAY, MAY 4, 1885.

THE C. P. R. RESOLUTIONS.

On Friday last, SIR JOHN MACDONALD brought down to the House of Commons, the long-expected scheme for the relief of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company from its embarrassments. Various plans have been prepared since Parliament was opened last January, but the Government has finally settled on the one introduced by the Premier. As our readers are aware, the C. P. R. Company owes the Government thirty millions of dollars, security for this debt being a lien upon the road and all its property moveable and immovable. Last year this loan was granted by the Government to get the Company out of trouble and to enable it to complete the vast undertaking in a satisfactory way. The fresh assistance, which the authorities now propose, is to be given for the purpose of equipping the road. The Company will issue bonds of the face value of $35,000,000. The Government will acquire $25,000,000 of these bonds as security for $20,000,000 of last year's loan, and a lien on all the lands remaining to the Company from the first land subsidy for the remaining $10,000,000 of that loan. Five million dollars will be advanced to the Company, by the Government, as a temporary loan to enable it to meet its pressing needs. Security will be given in the shape of $8,000,000 in bonds of the issue of $35,000,000, the remaining $2-000,000 of bonds with the $8,000,000 to be retained by the Government and paid over to the company from time to time as necessary. This plan will release the road from the lien or mortgage which now en-cumber it, and the Company, thus freed, will be in a position to realize fair returns for the new bonds in the financial markets. The scheme will also have the effect of enabling the Company to operate the entire line efficiently, and at the same time will involve a change of security for the country remains fully protected. The measure will be discussed to-day in the House. As the country is committed to the building of this road, and as the need for its completion is more urgent now than ever, we have no doubt but that the scheme will be adopted as it stands, but before division arrives, we may look for an animated discussion.

COMMON MISTAKES.

In true provincial spirit, the average

Canadian editor resumes his usual spring fling at the lamentable ignorance of the English journalists, who undertake to discuss, in their papers, Canadian affairs. The eminent in the North-West affords excellent opportunity for the editors of the great metropolitan dailies, to show how very much at sea they are in their geographical knowledge of the physical aspects of this country. Of course they get things wo-fully mixed up, but it is that any reason why Canadian journalists should stigmatize them as a hopeless lot of imbeciles. The fact is we look at the matter in an altogether too capricious and provincial light. How much do Canadian editors know about the geography of Great Britain in detail? Very little, we fancy. English editors have a good excuse for knowing little about us. Our country is vast, and the names given to our rivers, mountains, lakes and towns are all new and novel to strangers, three thousand miles away from the scene. We should remember, that we are only great as regards territory. Politically and numerically we are very small indeed in the eyes of anybody but ourselves, English editors, accustomed to deal with great events, may be pardon-ed for thinking that there is war in Manitoba just now. They are unable to draw the fine distinction which exists between Manitoba and Saskatchewan. We believe the English people are doing their best to learn all they can about this Dominion of ours, but let us give them time.

WESTERN JOURNALISM.

An Ontario subscriber, in renewing his subscription to the CHRONICLE, writes:

"Such is the downward tendency of the daily press in this region, that I don't care to read, except for the news, any of our Toronto or Ottawa papers." We do not wonder at the stand taken by our friend.

The language used by such papers as the Toronto Globe and Mail, and the Ottawa

Citizen and Free Press is positively low and disgusting. In one day's issue of these journals, we find such references to their contemporaries as "A lying

Slanderer," Ottawa Citizen; "Paid

Liars," Toronto Globe; "Miserable falsehoods," Toronto Mail; &c., &c. Fancy a community fed on such dishes day in and day out, and yet these amenities go on forever, and all for the glory of party.

One would imagine that Mistress DOL-LY, TEARSHED had assumed control of these wild Western newspapers, judging from the character of the dictation to be found in them. This persistent course of low vituperation is having the effect of driving respectable men out of a profession which, in most civilized countries, has a recognized and an honorable standing. The days of the Estimable Gazette are being revived with a vengeance. But what a commentary this ruffianly journalism is on the manners and morals of the time in which we live, when culture and honestly-formed opinion must give way to coarse assertion and brutal personality. In a little while, only the bravos of the press will be left in the editorial chair, and the reader will be forced to look for refinement elsewhere than in his morning or evening paper.

THE RECEPTION ON SATURDAY

EVENING.

MR. SPEAKER AND MRS. WURTELE

RECEIVE THEIR FRIENDS.

A DELIGHTFUL SOCIAL REUNION.

The social event of the season was the very charming reception which the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly and Mrs. Wurtele held in the Speaker's Chamber of the House of Assembly on Saturday evening last, between the hours of 8.30 and 12 o'clock. There were over two hundred and fifty ladies and gentlemen present, and the guests were received at the entrance of the hall and brilliantly lighted room by the Speaker and his wife.

Mrs. Wurtele, by her grace and amiability, soon made everyone feel at ease. The room was suitably and simply decorated with flags and silken banners, which were hung with exquisite taste and skill. Music was furnished by the Band of the 8th Royal Rifles, under the leadership of Mr. Vezina. Refreshments were served in an adjoining apartment, and after ten o'clock there were several dances.

Those who were so minded sought the card room, and indulged in a little pastime.

Mr. Napoleon Leduc recited a beautiful Present Disposition of Troops in the Sudan.

SAILING DOWN THE NILE.

THE DREADED KHAMSEEN WINDS.

On Crocodiles, Birds, etc.

(From Our Special Correspondent.)
ON THE NILE, HOWEARTH, I have received orders to leave the 22nd March for Cairo. I am sure you, for it was fast becoming a "city of desolation." Where, a week before, everything had been bustle and activity, with bands playing and bugles sounding, and Tommy Atkins of the desert column, comparing notes with Tommy Atkins of the river force, it was now a few straggling rows of tents, more than half of which were empty.

The Nile had also become extremely desolate. As was but a trifle, for the fall of the river leaving its muddy banks to increase in width by day, instead of being carried off by the rapid water. Let the sanitary arrangements be made, and the camp, with troops constantly moving to and fro, be never so perfect, it is bound to become unhealthy in time, especially when situated on the banks of a river so full of miasma, as near as I can learn, the following is the distribution of the British and Egyptian troops in the Sudan: Abu Dum, composed of the 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st, 32nd, 33rd, 34th, 35th, 36th, 37th, 38th, 39th, 40th, 41st, 42nd, 43rd, 44th, 45th, 46th, 47th, 48th, 49th, 50th, 51st, 52nd, 53rd, 54th, 55th, 56th, 57th, 58th, 59th, 60th, 61st,
