A CANADIAN-ENGLISH SHIPPING COMBINE.

Cunard, Allan and Elder-Dempster Line Included in Deal.

MR. HUGH A. ALLAN SPEAKS

Neither He Nor the Elder-Dempster People Have Heard of the Project as Yet.

The announcement that the Cunard Steamship Company, the Allan Line and the Elder, Dempster Company had joined forces in opposition to the Morgan Steamship Syndicate, created a great deal of interest in Montreal to-day among shipping men.

As yet neither the Allan nor the Elder, Dempster Company have received in Montreal any official confirmation of the deal, but the heads of both companies located in the city pronounce that such a combination would be the most natural culmination of existing affairs.

Mr. Hugh A. Allan, when seen to-day, regarding the proposed combination, stated that he had not heard one word concerning it. The organization of such a combination would naturally have its origin on the other side of the Atlantic and if their people were entering into such an arrangement it was being put through by the Glasgow house.

MR. HUGH A. ALLAN'S VIEWS.

Mr. Allan then went on to speak of the immense advantages which might accrue to the Morgan combination of steamships and railways. The feeding of the Morgan steamships by the Morgan railways would be the most natural thing in the world, though as yet there had not been one single antagonistic move on the part of the Trust toward steamships not in the combination.

The London despatch regarding the rumoured combination of the Allans, the Cunard and the Elder, Dempster Company, goes on to state that the objects of the scheme are two-fold, firstly, to meet the Morgan combination on American ground, and secondly, to arrange a new and fast service to Canada, which will be likely subsidized by both the British and Canadian governments, but nothing will be done regarding the subsidy question until the meeting of the colonial premiers on the occasion of the coronation.

BIG FAST LINE SCHEME.

The fast service phase of the question, however, branches out, according to the Westminster Gazette, until it takes in the Canadian Pacific Railway. This paper states that there is to be a fast service of mail and passenger steamers, in conjunction with the Canadian Pacific Railway, and a fleet of fast freight steamers. The mail steamers which it is proposed to build will be of enormous size, capable of steaming 25 knots an hour, and will be fully equipped for use as armed cruisers, carrying eight quick firing six inch guns forward and aft, and broadsides of three 4.7 inch guns. The freight steamers will be sixteen knot vessels, carrying 6,000 to 7,000 tons dead weight. This paper further thinks it probably that Milford Haven will be the port of departure of the fleet. The scheme contemplates a line of steamers running to China, Japan and Australia from Vancouver, B. C. Canada and Australasia are expected to join in paying the subsidies. The draft of the scheme involves the home government guaranteeing a small interest on the capital involved. This would have to be ratified by the House of Commons "where," says the Westminster Gazette, "it will probably meet with opposition."

CANADIAN PACIFIC FAVOURABLE.

The proposition of the Canadian Pacific Railway entering into the proposal so far as a fast service is concerned is by no means unique. It has long been known in Montreal that the management of the C. P. R. has seriously considered the question of a fast steamship service between Canada and a British port, and within the past few weeks Sir Thomas Shaughnessy stated that the railway might offer such a service, but that from the great sum involved in such an undertaking it must be gravely considered.

Sir William Van Horne, chairman of the C.P.R. executive, in an interview some little time ago, stated that only a wealthy corporation such as the Canadian Pacific Railway could afford to take hold of an undertaking such as a fast steamship service.

The Hon. J. I. Tarte, Minister of Public Works, in an interview published in yesterday's Star stated that the Canadian Pacific would be the natural feeder of a fast line, and he further stated: "Not only a fast line for passengers, but a fleet of freight carriers as well. As I remarked before the Morgan syndicate is strong and influential, and we should be prepared to face any such combination at any moment. I would favour such a line, but as a Minister of the Crown, I do not think I can say that I have any definite plan in view. It is for the business men of this country to wake up and do something."

The leaders of the new Cunard, Allan and Elder, Dempster scheme in London say they recognize that the fight for freight will be severe. The British combination will not be hampered so much by Mr. Morgan's control of the American railways, as by the fact that the principal freight steamers are in the hands of its opponents.

It is denied in London that Mr. Morgan offered the Cunards £11,000,000 for the company. The offers did not approach that figure.

The English Admiralty officials went to Liverpool privately yesterday to consult with the officials of the Cunard Steamship Company and other ship owners.

AFRICA AND AUSTRALIA.

A Hamburg correspondent telegraphs that shipping men there believe that the Cunard Company will come to a working arrangement with the Union and Castle lines in order to secure a monopoly for the African trade, and that the result will be the establishment of new lines from the United States to Africa.

ELDER DEMPSTER COMPANY.

The Elder, Dempster office in Montreal, has heard nothing official regarding the projected combination of their own line with the Cunard, the Allans and possibly others. Some weeks ago Mr. David Campbell, Canadian manger of the line, was called to England by Sir Alfred L. Jones, head of the firm, and as yet nothing has been heard from him on the subject by the officials remaining in Montreal. They are of the opinion, however, that such a combination is more than likely.

On the floor of the Board of Trade to-day shipping men discussed this latest phase and one remarked that "the coming together of two old conservative lines like the Allan and the Cunard would be the most natural thing in the world."

A C. P. R. DIRECTOR SPEAKS.

Sir William Van Horne, chairman of the executive of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, is absent in New York, and Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, president, is absent on his tour of inspection.

Mr. C. R. Hosmer, one of the directors of the Canadian Pacific, speaking of the project, to-day, said every Canadian having the interest of his country at heart must desire to see a good Atlantic service established. It was apparent to every one that this was a vital question for Canada, and its solution should not be delayed.

He knew nothing regarding the rumour that the Canadian Pacific would be identified with the project.

KITCHENER'S GRANT WAS VOTED TO-DAY

Irish Nationalists and a Few Radicals Voted Against It.

BALFOUR WAS EULOGISTIC

Three Years Ago To-day General Kitchener's Reward for Services in the Soudan Was Voted.

(See also page twelve.)

LONDON, June 5.—In accordance with King Edward's message to the House of Commons, yesterday, the Government leader, A. J. Balfour, in the House to-day asked for a vote of £50,000 ($250,000), to Lord Kitchener. As a remarkable coincidence, Parliament, June 5, three years ago, voted its thanks and £30,000 ($150,000), to the same General for his services in Egypt.

Mr. Balfour, in supporting the motion, referred to Lord Kitchener's rapid promotion. He said it had been given to few public servants to compass so much work for their country in so short a time as Lord Kitchener, who, besides being commander-in-chief in South Africa, was commander-in-chief designate of India. He found the army in South Africa in a state of disorganization or dislocation, consequent upon the ill-success which attended the British arms at the early stage of the campaign, and he executed his duty with admirable energy and skill. But, it was not till Lord Roberts left that the claims of Lord Kitchener to the gratitude of his countrymen reached their present magnitude.

Lord Kitchener had to meet with unique difficulties. He had erected no fewer than 4,000 miles of block houses, and in the conduct of the campaign had shown the fertile range of his resources, boundless courage, energy and resolution, and to these qualities Great Britain owed the termination of the war. Few English generals had contended with greater difficulties, and few had emerged from them in a more triumphant and brilliant way.

Mr. Balfour concluded with formally moving the vote of £50,000.

LIBERAL LEADERS' PRAISE.

The Liberal leader, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, who seconded the motion, paid a warm tribute to Lord Kitchener, as a soldier and a statesman.

John Dillon (Irish Nationalist), led the opposition in behalf of the Nationlists. Mr. Dillon said that he and his friends absolutely objected to the vote, because they were opposed to the policy of the war in South Africa and the conduct of the campaign, which involved wholesale devastation of the country and the burning of farms and sacrifice of life.

REDMOND'S CHARGE.

During the course of the debate, William Redmond (Irish Nationalist) caused a scene of great disorder by remarking that Lord Kitchener would go down to history as a general who had "made war on women and children."

This remark called forth loud cries of "withdraw" and appeals to the chairman to call Mr. Redmond to order. The chairman said the expression used was not disorderly, but a majority of the House refused to listen any further to Mr. Redmond and interrupted with all kinds of shouts.

After a quarter of an hour spent by Mr. Redmond in fruitless endeavour to get in a hearing, the closure was moved.

The closure was adopted by 273 to 133 votes, and the grant of £50,000 to Lord Kitchener was carried by 330 to 44 votes. The minority consisted of Irish Nationalists and two or three Radicals.

CHIEF KENNATOSSE IS STILL DEFIANT

He Deposes Another Chief Who Held Converse With the Enemy.

INDIAN DEPARTMENT MOVES

Makes Offers to the Oka Indians to Placate Them, But Advances Refused With Scorn.

The Oka Indians are pleased just now. They have deposed one of their chiefs, and they think the Government is weakening.

To-day the Indians are celebrating, because war has been concluded, between the Boers and the English, because as they say, they are glad that the King has won at last and because peace reigns. They have raised their big flag and shot off their big cannon.

The name of the deposed chief is Amable Rossin. His crime was to go to Como on Sunday and hold converse with one of the secretaries of the Department of Indian Affairs at Ottawa, who had come down to see what could be done in the way of settling matters amicably with the Indians.

The matter came to the ears of Chief Joseph Kennatosse Gabriel.

MET THE ENEMY QUIETLY.

He says: "Rossin went over to meet one of the secretaries of the Department of Indian Affairs, and the later asked him what remedy would stop the noise that had been raised. He asked the chief if he thought that fifty acres of land for every family would be enough. The chief replied that it would not be, so he asked, 'How would seventy-five acres do?' The chief's son, Joseph Rossin, who was also present, said that he though it was enough, but that he was not sure, and then the secretary offered a hundred acres. Then the Indian agent, who was also present, said that such a space of land would be enough.

"The next day, that is last Monday, the secretary met Peter Oke, another of our chiefs in the village of Oka, the secretary having crossed the lake. He asked Peter Oke to take him to the House of the Grand Chief, but, unfortunately, I was away from home. On the road the secretary told Chief Oke that the other chief had advised him to give every family seventy-five acres of land. In the meantime, he also said, that we Indians had better sell the place called Doncaster, and buy this reserve, so that we would have a place of our own.

CHIFF OKE ASKS A QUESTION.

"Oke then asked him, if he had ever heard of any one who had two pieces of land, and who gave one away to some one else, keeping only one piece for himself.

"To this the secretary did not answer, but he changed the subject, and talked about horses and the weather.

"The secretary need not think, that we are going to accept seventy-five acres when we have a whole big reserve of our own. We want the whole of our reserve, and we are going to have it, too."

FELL THREE STORIES AND ESCAPED UNHURT.

Andre Raymond, a lad 14 years of age, of 569 Amherst street, while at work today at 10:30 o'clock at the corner of Vitre and Amherst streets fell a distance of three stories and escaped uninjured. It was, however, at first thought that he had been killed or seriously injured and an emergency call was sent in to the Notre Dame Hospital. The boy was removed quickly to the institution and on examination by the physicians it was found that no bones had been broken and that he was only in a dazed condition.

GRAND TRUNK PEOPLE ARE MOVING TO-DAY.

The Grand Trunk people are busily engaged moving into their new offices on McGill street and expect to be housed there by to-day or to-morrow. The Shedden Company's teams are moving the effects.

DECIDED TO CALL MR. JOHN MACKAY

Action of Crescent Street Presbyterian Church Last Evening.

At a meeting of the congregation of Crescent Street Presbyterian Church, last night, a call was moderated, which resulted most cordially in favour of Mr. John Mackay, of Lucknow, Ont.

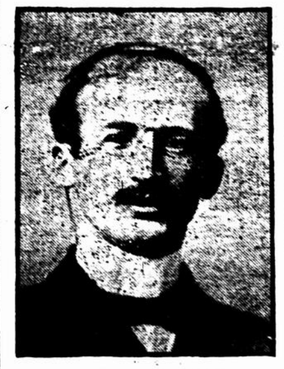
Mr. Mackay was born in Lucknow and received his education in the University of Toronto, of which he was a distinguished student, as the following record shows:

Second year, John Macdonald scholarship; third year, John Macdonald scholarship; fourth year, Governor-General's gold medal; third year, vice-president of the Y.M.C.A. and Inter-collegiate secretary of the College Y.M.C.A., of Toronto; fourth year, president of the Philosophical Society, president of the Y.M.C.A. Bible class, first vice-president of the Literary Society, public debater in the second, third and fourth years.

He graduated from the University with the degree of B.A. in 1898, and then proceeded to Glasgow, where he studied theology in the college of the United Free Church. At Glasgow he took the first two sessions in one year, and won a bursary of $300. Each year since 1898 he headed the class, and last spring won two special bursaries for special work. Besides his collegiate work, he acted as assistant to the minister of Free St. Peter's Church, during his stay in Glasgow. During April and May last he toured the Holy Land with several of the professors and students of that college. He graduated this year as head of his class. Subsequently he passed the Board of Examiners for the United Free Church of Scotland.

His preaching record for a student is a unique one. For two years he was connected with St. Andrew's and the Central Presbyterian churches of Detroit; then coming to London, he did work at St. Andrew's Church there; in Toronto, he assisted the pastor of Emmanuel Presbyterian Church; for six months he was locum tenens in Dr. McLaren's church in Vancouver, B.C.

Mr. Mackay is a young man of great promise and will doubtless do excellent work in the Crescent Street church. In the event of his acceptance of the call, his ordination and induction will take place as soon as the Montreal Presbytery can make arrangements therefor.



MR. JOHN MACKAY.

Zephire Larose, a cabman, who has already served several terms in gaol, including two years in the penitentiary, was to-day sent to St. Vincent de Paul for three years for robbing a man whom he was driving.

MUST HANG ON FRIDAY NEXT

Hansen, Murderer of Eric Marrotte, Will Get No Reprieve.

Thorvald Hansen, the murderer of little Eric Marrotte in Westmount, must expiate his crime upon the scaffold on Friday morning of next week. In spite of all the efforts made by his counsel, Mr. Mathieu, the Department of Justice has decided that the law must take its course and news to this effect was received by the authorities to-day.

The news will be received by Hansen with no surprise, for he has given no evidence that he expected or even hoped for a moment that there was any chance for him. Since his conversion to the Roman Catholic faith he has been faithful in his religious duties and those who have come in contact with him say that he is quite prepared for the end and that he will go to the scaffold without a murmur.

It is expected that word will be received from Radcliffe to-morrow announcing that he will be on hand for the execution. The gallows used will be the same upon which Laplaine met his fate a few months ago.

MARKET COMMITTEE DOES NOT WANT RAILWAY ON COMMISSIONERS ST.

There was a short meeting of the Market Committee to-day, at which the question was brought up of the C.P.R. running trains on Commissioners street. A couple of weeks ago this company sent an application to the Road Committee, asking permission to cross the street in order to reach portions of the new high level wharves. The Road Committee has not given a final decision on the matter. At to-day's meeting it was contended by the Market Committee that if all the railway companies were given permission to put down tracks on this street it would be so congested that there would be no room upon it for vehicles. It was pointed out that the city had paid a very large amount in order to get Commissioners street widened, and the argument was advanced that it would be too bad to put a network of tracks upon it.

After some further discussion the committee adopted a resolution asking the Road Committee to refuse the request of the C.P.R.

The committee awarded contracts for 104 tons of stove coal at the price of $6.25 a ton. As the tenders all quoted the same price, it was decided that the seven members of the committee should have the privilege of awarding one-seventh of the total quantity needed to one or more of the tenderers.

Tenders were opened to complete the new fish market on Commissioners street, near Berri street. The lowest tender asked $357, and this was the one accepted.

CYCLING REVIVAL.

There is a Splendid Demand for Real Good Bicycles.

For pleasure and healthful benefits there is no exercise that can surpass bicycling. It is a bracing, broadening pastime, and no other modern invention has done so much to widen the horizon of the dweller in town, city and country.

A few years ago there was such a demand for bicycles, that the factories could not supply the demand. Wheels were built by all kinds of people, at all kinds of cost. Many were induced to buy cheap wheels with the poorest kind of material and construction. These wheels gave little pleasure to the rider, for they were continually breaking down. As a consequence thousands of riders soon gave up the pastime, which caused them annoyance and discomfort.

A revival of cycling has come, and this year there is a strong demand for good bicycles, fitted with the best equipment, including Dunlop tires. The good names before the cycling public to-day, mark the "survival of the fittest," and everybody insists on the right kind of tire.

With a mount on which one is confident and undisturbed there comes that mental poise and physical ease from which real benefit is derived.

THE TURF

THE GREAT DERBY THING OF THE PAST

The Races That Preceded and Succeeded the Classical One.

GOOD CROWDS AT HAMILTON

Seagram's Horse Won the Toronto Purse—Results of the Racing at Gravesend Track.

LONDON, June 5.—The general holiday-making mood of the people, arising from the announcement of peace in South Africa and the approaching coronation festivities, was exemplified yesterday by the unprecedented muster of the classes and masses at Epsom Downs, for the coronation Derby. Enormous crowds left London (the exodus beginning at daybreak), both by road and rail. Vehicles of every description, stage coaches, automobiles, hansom cabs, costers' donkey carts, all bedlagged, moved along all the roads converging on the racecourse.

King Edward and Queen Alexandra, the Prince and Princess of Wales, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, the Duke of Cambridge, Prince and Princess Charles of Denmark, and the Indian rajahs and their suites, took special trains to the course and received ovations everywhere from the crowds. Inclement, showery weather prevailed. A large contingent of Americans was present.

The programme started with the race for the Epsom Town Plate, and Maher on Russet Brown won. He nearly succeeded in winning the second race, being second. This opened the way for the blue ribbon event of the racing world, and there was a rush for the paddock to see the competitors.

The flag fell during a bright burst of sunshine, and Ard Patrick, beautifully ridden by Martin, pulled up a winner, with a couple more of the supposed "outsiders" ahead of Sceptre, R. S. Siever's £30,000 (.$150,000) hitherto unbeaten filly.

There were cheers outside the jockey club enclosure as Ard Patrick was led in, but the demonstrations at the club and other stands showed how far he had been from being the favourite.

Mr Gubbin's, his owner, is an Irishman who owns a big stud of horses at Limerick. He also owns Galtee More, which won the Derby in 1897.

CATERHAM PLATE.

Martin followed up his Derby success with tieing in the race for the Caterham Plate, in one of the best finishes ever seen at Epsom. Gun Club, ridden by M. Cannon, was a strong favourite; but flushed by his former success, Martin said, on mounting: "I think I will do a double event."

He came near fulfilling the prophecy, for within a stone's throw of home, Gun Club seemed an easy winner. Then, inch by inch, Martin urged the fledging filly on till the public thought she had won.

King Edward watched the race with the keenest interest, and when a dead heat was announced the crowd cried out: "Well done, Martin."

HIS MAJESTY GAVE DINNER.

Ford's cable from London says:

For the second year in succession, and for the second time since the institution of the race, an American jockey has ridden the winner of Derby. The race was run in uncertain weather, and Sceptre, on whom betting men have been plumping for many weeks, was easily beaten by Gubbins' Ard Patrick, with J. H. Martin up. It was not a popular victory, although the winner, far from being a rank outsider, carried a good deal of money, and had been considered safe for third, if not second, place. The race caused more excitement than pleasure, but the crowd, while smaller than usual, was sportsmanlike and good humoured, and cheered the winner.

The King and Queen, and many people of distinction, witnessed the race. The Royal patronage of racing is highly appreciated by horse owners, and book makers, and the King is cheered with much ardor whenever he appears in the Royal enclosure. The King followed up his visit to Epsom with a dinner to the jockey club, at Buckingham Palace, and subsequently attended a dance at Devonshire House, where the Queen had been dining.

JOHN RUSKIN WON THE CANADIAN PURSE.

Two Thousand People Watched the Races at Hamilton.

HAMILTON, Ont., June 5.—The Hamilton Jockey Club had clear, cool weather for its second day's races in connection with the spring meeting. The track was soft in spots as a result of the rain of Tuesday. The attendance was good, fully 2000 people being present. The sport was excellent, and four favourites carried off first money.

In the opening selling race, for 3-year-olds, Zonne won in the stretch over Arcrattus, who made the running. The favourite, Hie Away, was a poor sixth. The Canadian purse, a four-horse event, was won by Seagram's John Ruskin easily at 7 to 10. Price's chestnut gelding, Lithium, surprised the talent by winning the maiden race at 6 furlongs, leading all the way. Medford beat Prince John for the place in a close decision.

For the Wellington handicap, 1⅛ miles, there were only three starters, Colchester leading to the three-quarter pole, when Algie M. came away and won as she pleased. Colchester died away, and Frank McKee won place money. Summary:

First race, selling, 3-year-olds and up, 6½ furlongs—M. Stowe's Zonne, 114, Walker, 4 to 1, won; Carruthers & Shields' Andrattus, 107, A. Jones, 5 to 1, second; G. W. Cooke's Benckardt, 107, E. Thompson, 6 to 1, third. Time, 1.24½. Carrie L., Planeur, Hie Away and Cherry Wild also ran.

Second race, 1 1-16 miles—J. E. Seagram's John Ruskin, 114, Dangman, 7 to 10, won; H. Gidding's Wire In, 103½, McCluskey, 2 to 1, second; R. Davies' Opuntia, 118, Blake, 9 to 1, third. Time, 1.54½. Fernie Tickle also ran.

Third race, maidens, 3-year-olds and up, 6 furlongs—H. Price's Lithium, 115, Hayden, 6 to 1, won; W. Pember's Medford, 115, Blake, 5 to 1, second; G. H. Shearer's Prince John, 115, Lorens, 8 to 1, third. Time, 1.18. Doonside, Joe Brown, Tiffany and Sunny Girl also ran.

Fourth race, Wellington handicap, all ages, 1⅛ miles—T. P. Hayes, Algie M., 100, Ellis, 2 to 3, won; Carruthers & Shields' Frank McKee, 90, M. Johnson, 4 to 1, second; J. E. Seagram's Colchester, 94, J. Thorpe, 3 to 2, third. Time, 2.01¾. Only three starters.

Fifth race, Burlington selling steeplechase, about 2 miles—Lieut.-Colonel Sewell's Tate's Creek, 147, Moxley, 7 to 10, won; G. W. Cook's Mango, 147, C. Johnston, 10 to 1, second; J. R. Beamish's Bromo, 147, Mattocks, 10 to 1, third. Time, 4.36. Faddladeen and Verna K. also ran.

Sixth race, maidens, 3-year-olds and up, 6 furlongs—T. Crooks' Lauderdale, 115, Blake, 6 to 5, won; C. Kean's W. H. Dixon, 115, Flint, 4 to 1, second; J. Fox's Will, 115, McCloskey, 8 to 7, third. Time, 1.18¾. Rhine Wine, Theorgiole, Ten Below Zero, Lady Bets and Nonpareil also ran.

Blue Girl Won Races.

NEW YORK, June 5.—The feature of the racing at Gravesend was the brilliant performance of Wm. G. Whitney's Blue Girl in the Gazette Stakes, at one mile and a sixteenth. She picked up 124 pounds and giving away 11 pounds to the other two starters, galloped home an easy winner by two lengths. The fight for the place was very close, Par Excellence beating Haneyer Queen a neck. Four favourites and two third choices divided the money yesterday. G. F. Dwyer retained his horse by bidding the customary $5. The weather was clear and warm, and the track fast. Summaries:

First race, for all ages, handicap, about 6 furlongs—Smart Set, 128, O'Connor, 4 to 1 and 7 to 10, won; Eddie Rusch, 120, Odom, 18 to 5 and 9 to 10, 2; Grail, 117, Landry, 7 to 1 and 7 to 5, 3. Time, 1.11 1-5. Ballyhoo Bey also ran.

Second race, 1 1-16 miles, selling—Ethelbert, 108, O'Connor, 4 to 5 and 10 to 15, won; Jim Pully, 93, H. Cochran, 4 to 1 and 3 to 5, 2; Caithness, 86, Dart, 60 to 1 and 20 to 1, 3. Time, 1.48 3-5. Five Nations, Swamplands, Cougar and The Referee also ran.

Third race, 2-year-olds, handicap, 5 furlongs—Artvis, 124, Bullman, 8 to 1 and 2 to 1, won; Onatas, 118, J. Woods, 7 to 1 and 3 to 5, 2; Whorler, 115, O'Connor, 7 to 2 and 6 to 5, 3. Time, 1.00 4-5. Bensonhurst, Blue and Orange, Hackensack and Queen Boula also ran.

Fourth race, the Gazelle Stakes, for fillies, 1 1-16 miles—Blue Girl, 124, T. Burns, 1 to 5 and out, won; Par Excellence, 113, J. Woods, 12 to 1 and even, 2; Hanover Queen, 113, O'Connor, 6 to 1 and 3 to 5, 3. Time, 1.49 3-5. Only three ran.

Fifth race, 2-year-olds, 5 furlongs, selling—Mackey Dwyer, 107, O'Connor, 9 to 5 and 4 to 5, won; Col. Tyler, 105, H. Mitchell, 12 to 1 and 5 to 1, 2; Makeda, 102, H. Cochran, 3 to 1 and 6 to 5, 3. Time, 1.01 4-5. Dark Planet, Mount Hope, Onyx, Blue Delft, Gillie, Squid, Ora Viva, Melbourne and Earl of Norfolk also ran.

Sixth race, maidens, 3-year-olds, 1 mile and 70 yards—Hindred, 112, O'Connor, 9 to 5 and 4 to 5, won; Courtenay, 112, Bullman, 13 to 5 and 4 to 5, 2; Goldsby, 112, Pickering, 15 to 1 and 5 to 1, 3. Time, 1.46 3-5. Bar Le Duc, Edgar Poe, Bella, Condiment, Furlough II., Odds and Ends, Sunshower, Lord Badge, Fire Escape and Silver Trinket also ran.

Hoofbeats.

The Waterbury-Shrewsbury incident, arising from the use of spurs by Lawrence Waterbury while playing polo at Hurlingham on Saturday, against which Lord Shrewsbury protested, has been settled out of court by an exchange of letters from Foxhall Keene, in his capacity as captain of the American team, and Lord Shrewsbury. Mr. Keene expressed regret that there should have been any cause during the game for Lord Shrewsbury's expression of feeling. The latter accepted the explanation in the spirit is was written, attributing the incident to the excitement of the game. The dispute was settled largely through the friendly intervention of the Earl of Lonsdale.

ATHLETICS

SPRING GAMES MENTIONED.

List of Events Just Issued.

The annual spring handicap games of the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association will be held, as announced in yesterday's Star, on the M. A. A. A. grounds on Saturday afternoon, 14th of June, and the programme will consist of the following events:

100 yards run.
220 yards run.
440 yards run.
One mile run.
One mile steeplechase.
120 yards hurdles.
Running high jump.
Running long jump.
Putting 16-lb. shot.
440 yards, boys 16 years and under.

All the above events are open only to members of the M. A. A. A. and its affiliated clubs, except the boys' race, which is open, and for which an entrance fee of 25c will be charged.

A band will be in attendance, and admission will be by complimentary cards only.

This is the third season that the M. A. A. A. will have held games under these conditions, and each year they are becoming more popular and the competitors are becoming more numerous.

Handsome gilted solid silver coronation spoons will be given to the winners, suitably inscribed, and will serve as a souvenir of coronation year, as well as for the events they represent.

These spoons are sure to be particularly prized by the winners, as they are not only expensive, but very much apart from the ordinary style. They will be on exhibition at the M. A. A. A. office in a few days.

up land in the back country, where cattle-raising is the principal occupation. Here the boys grew up, following a half-idle life, but becoming expert horsemen and thoroughly trained in the management of cattle. The father is away from home the greater part of the time, and the knowledge that he is engaged in cattle stealing darkens the lives of his wife and daughter, whose greatest fear is that he will lead his boys into a life of crime. The other characers introduced in the opening chapters are Mrs. Storefield and her two children, George and Gracey; a family of honest, hard-working farmers, neighbours of the Marstons, and living on terms of friendship with them. The action of the story begins with the Marston boys being sent for by their father to assist in driving a herd of cattle. The boys find their father in possession of a large number of cattle bearing the brands of farmers living in that district. The cattle are driven to a stock yard hidden away in the bush, and

ROYALS TRIED NEW CATCHER

But Hawley Made a Vicious Swing on the Ball and Hit Tracey on the Head Retiring Him.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

BUFFALO, N.Y., June 5.—"Pink" Hawley nearly succeeded in shutting out the Montreal team at Olympic Park yesterday afternoon. The well-known Bison pitcher was never in better form. He displayed great speed and bewildering curves, and had the Royal batters up in the air. Only three hits were made off Hawley. Two scratch singles were secured in the first innings and a two-bagger in the ninth, when Stafford popped up a "Texas Leaguer" back of third base; Connaughton tried to coral it, but he failed.

For eight innings the Montreal batters made desperate efforts to locate the ball safely, but Hawley's delivery was so puzzling that they went out on fly balls. In addition to pitching cleverly, Hawley made a long three-base hit to right field.

A NEW CATCHER.

Catcher Tracy came up from St. Bonaventure's College to catch his first for Montreal. Tracy started well, and would undoubtedly have caught a good game. In the second innings Tracy suffered a painful accident. Hawley was at the bat. The big pitcher made a hard swing at a ball, and missed. The momentum of striking caused Hawley to turn clear around. As he turned his bat struck Tracy on the back of the head and opened up a scalp wound. The wound bled profusely, causing Tracy's retirement from the game.

One of the most peculiar accidents ever seen on a ball field occurred in the sixth innings. Raub was batting. Hawley hit him on the arm. The ball carrooned off Raub's arm and struck Shaw's mask. Instead of dropping to the ground the ball lodged itself in the eye-hole of the mask and struck there. Shaw feigned dizziness, and, taking the mask off, he was forced to pry the ball out of its resting place with a bat.

RUN WAS A GIFT.

Montreal's run was a gift. Stafford hunted in the sixth inning. Hawley made a poor throw to first base and Stafford was safe. Shearon struck out, and Hawley hit Raub. Stafford led off second base, and Shaw threw to catch him. No one covered the bag, and the ball went to centre field, allowing Stafford to score. The next two men went out easily.

Buffalo hit Johnson hard throughout the game. At no time was Johnson's curves deceptive. Lynch's hitting was a feature. Shearon and Lynch were fined the preceding day. Shearon was assessed $5 for back talk, and Lynch was charged with cutting a ball. He was fined $25. Both fines were paid before the game, as Powers suspended the men until the fines were paid. Before the game started Umpire Rinn was creating a disturbance. A policeman was summoned and Rinn was ejected from the field. The score follows:

Diamond Dust.

Still another.

It will soon be too late to recover.

The pitching department needs strengthening.

This is the day that Lajoie is expected to report.

Pink Hawley had them guessing all right, all right.

Toronto is the next nut; it will be another hard one to crack.

The cause of Quinlan's retirement from the game has not been made known.

Umpire Rinn got into a mixup at Buffalo, yesterday, and was chased off the grounds.

Pat Powers is seeing the umpires through by seeing that the fines which the players are mulcted are paid.

GOLF

THE ROYAL MONTREAL GOLF CLUB MEMBERS.

Decided to Increase Their Membership Yesterday.

At a meeting of the Royal Montreal Golf Club, held yesterday, it was decided to increase the limitations of the membership roll by twenty-five.

This will make a total membership of two hundred and fifty.

It is understood that there is quite a large waiting list.

AQUATICS

CANADIAN CANOE ASSOCIATION MEETS.

Is in Perfect Harmony With the American Association.

The annual meeting of the Canadian Canoe Association will be held at the Windsor Hotel Saturday, June 7, at 8 p.m. Delegates from the Bohemians, Y. M. C. A. and Brockville R. Club, of Brockville, also Smith's Falls, Carleton Place, Britannia and Ottawa, of Ottawa; Grand Trunk, Lachine and St. Lambert, of Montreal, will be present. Business will consist of the election of officers and decision about annual race meet.

The Ottawa Canoe Club and the Britannias are at loggerheads at present. The Brits are out for the annual regatta of the Canadian Canoe Association, and the Ottawas have refused to support them in their demands. The Grand Trunk team are entitled to the meet on account of winning the war canoe championship last year, and the Ottawa club will support the Montreal club.

This association will not in any way interfere with the big meet at Carleton Place.

TENNIS.

CANADIAN TENNIS CHAMPION A WINNER.

Anderson Beats Hague in Singles at King's County Tennis Club's Tourney.

NEW YORK, June 5.—Bale-line play on the tennis courts of the most approved English type gained a sensational victory for Frederick G. Anderson in the open championship tournament of the King's County Tennis Club. He met F. B. Hague, the crack of the King's County Tennis Club, and won after thirty-one games, in which the point score was close.

Anderson hails from Canada, and has held several of the championship titles in tournaments across the border.

CORONATION PRELIMINARY.

McFadden Beat Bantam Weight Williams.

LONDON, June 5. — The coronation boxing matches began last night, when Jem Williams, the champion bantamweight of Great Britain, was knocked out in five rounds by "Kid" McFadden, a red-headed little boxer from San Francisco, who came across to do battle under the wing of Sam Fitzpatrick.

The club was crowded, every seat around the ring being taken by the most prominent of the city's sporting men in evening dress.

McFadden fought cleverly and ruggedly, and his showing was liked so well that immediately after the bout he was matched with Ben. Jordan for coronation week.

All the American contingent of boxers who have come across to fulfil engagements were present, and, of course, they were delighted to see their countryman win so handily.

The fight was a good one, its brevity being due to the hardest fighting between bantams seen in this country for many years.

The lads were carded to go fifteen rounds at 116 pounds, for a purse of $1,750. Williams was three pounds over weight, and lost his forfeit. McFadden was a pound under the limit.

McFadden rushed matters from the start and punched his opponent savagely. Williams had a good left and struggled hard to keep the Yankee off, but the sturdy little boxer would not be denied.

Williams jarred McFadden at times, but not once did he have him in trouble. In the fifth round McFadden landed both hands repeatedly, and finally scored a clean knockout. He was heartily applauded.

Thomas Sharkey, Gus Ruhlin and Joe Walcott were among those present.

LACROSSE

REFUSE TO RELEASE BLANCHARD NOW

Montrealers Decided to Keep Him to His Signature.

HE LIKES TO STAY WITH THEM

But the Nationals Swear He Will Play With Them Saturday, Contract or No Contract.

The Nationals seem to be in a bad way for players with which to bolster up their Senior Team.

They are trying their very best to get some of the Montreal men, and the latest is that they have been trying to prevail upon Travers to throw in his lot with them.

That they are labouring hard with Blanchard, to try and make him shake the allegiance he has sworn to Montreal, is evident, and there is so much confidence shown on their part in these efforts, that this morning, when it became known that Montreal had refused to release Blanchard, they said:

TO PLAY HIM UNDER PROTEST.

"Never mind. He will play with us, see if he don't. He will play with us, and we will play him, Montreal contract or not. Let them protest him if they want to."

Now as far as can be ascertained at present Mr. Blanchard's desire is to be left alone, and to remain with Montreal, and acting upon that assumption, the executive of the Montreal Club last night decided not to allow the release of Blanchard, which the Nationals demanded.

In the meantime there is no doubt, the Nationals are using all possible arguments to try and make him go with them.

Cornwall Ready for Montreal.

The Cornwall lacrosse team had a rattling good practice last night in preparation for their match with Montreal on Saturday. About half of last year's team were in uniform, along with a dozen or so juniors. The team is only in fair condition, but hopes to be able to defeat the M. A. A. A. twelve. Donald Cameron has at last made up his mind to play and will probably take Heard's place in the flags. About six of the juniors who defeated the Montreal intermediates in Montreal on Saturday will wear the blue and grey on Saturday. The team will be picked to-night.

Percy Quinn, of the Shamrocks, will be referee.

TRAVERS WAS HURT— DID NOT PRACTICE.

It is Hoped He Will be All Right Saturday.

Travers, the new Point man, the former Hochelaga player, was hurt on the shoulder, and it was decided by Mr. Lefebvre the trainer, that it would be better if he did not go out last night, so he would not strain himself unnecessarily. It is hoped and expected that he will be in good trim on Saturday, however.

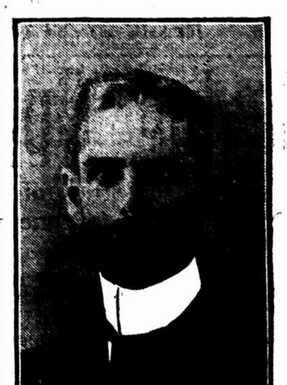
Between the Goal Nets.

The entire Capital team was out for practice last evening, and play was the fastest of the year. Now that the players have settled down to hard work, the executive expect to capture the championship. If Baldwin can be prevailed upon to again don a uniform the club will have the strongest defence in the league. The home and field are improving fast. The line-up Saturday will be as follows: Hutton, goal; Ralph, point; Robertson, cover point; Stewart, Moore, field; Starrs, centre; Westwick, Butterworth, E. Murphy, home field; Donaldson, outside home; Powers, inside home.

A special London cable to Toronto says: A meeting is to be held to-night at Dick Fudger's rooms, Brasenose College, Oxford, for the purpose of organizing a lacrosse club in connection with the college. Dick Fudger is a son of H. H. Fudger, Toronto, and he and several other Canadians attending the university are enthusiastic over lacrosse, and the visit of the Toronto team set these students, as well as a lot of young Englishmen, thinking about getting the game in swing at Oxford. The meeting will undoubtedly result in the organization of a club and the placing of a team in the field.

MEETINGS AND SOCIETIES.

Fraternal Orders.



MR. FRED J. DEVLIN.

The recording secretary of division No. 3 of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, was born in Aylmer, in the county of Ottawa, and educated at Ottawa University and St. Mary's College, of this city. Mr. Devlin removed to Montreal some ten years ago, and has for some years been engaged in the Protonotary office, at the Court House, where he is deservedly popular with the legal fraternity and the public who have business in that department. Mr. Devlin has always been an enthusiastic supporter of fraternal and patriotic associations, finding in the work of the Hibernians and Ancient Order of United Workmen full scope for his faculties of organization. Mr. Devlin is the nephew of the late Barnard Devlin, of Montreal, and brother of Mr. C. B. Devlin, Canadian commissioner in Ireland.

A MOONLIGHT EXCURSION. — The Royal Arcanum will celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the order on June 23rd, by a moonlight excursion. The committee making the arrangements represents all the councils of the city. A first-class steamer has been chartered, and arrangements are being made to secure the services of a good orchestra. Souvenirs of the occasion will be presented to each of the ladies present.

THE ODDFELLOWS.—A social gathering will be held next Monday evening in the Oddfellows' Hall, 253 St. James street, under the aspices of Old Mount Royal Lodge, No. 1, I.O.O.F. A presentation will be made to one of the members who has done a great deal for the good of the order. A first-class musical programme is being prepared for the occasion.

THE CHARITY ORGANIZATION SOCIETY.—A list of professional beggars who are unworthy of help will be sent out this week by the Charity Organization Society. It will be considerably enlarged from last year, and will contain the description, aliases and usual tales told by these individuals.

In the Labour World.

THE IRON MOULDERS.—There will be a meeting of the Iron Moulders' Union to-night at 132 St. James street, when all details in connection with the C.P.R. strike will be laid before the assembly.

AN IMPORTANT CONVENTION.—The Eight-Hour League of America will hold a convention in Minneapolis on September 22 to 26. Employes and employers both have been invited to send delegates. Montreal will be represented.

THE PRINTERS PICNIC.—A meeting of the picnic committee of the Montreal Typographical Union was held last night, when the question of the uniform for the street parade was discussed. The matter was referred to a special committee.

THE RAILWAY TRAINMEN.—At a meeting of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, held last evening, it was stated that the increased wages recently granted by the New York Central Railway amounted to a total of $200,000 a month.

THE TRADES COUNCIL.—At to-night's meeting of the Federated Trades and Labour Council Mr. A. Studholme, of Toronto, Ont., first vice-president of the Stove Mounters, Moulders and Polishers' Union, will deliver an address. The meeting will be held in Blue Label Hall.

UNIONS GAINING MEMBERS.—At last night's meeting of the Workingmen's Educational Association, a letter was read stating that fifty new unions have been organized in Chicago during the past six weeks, and that 10,000 new trade unionists have joined the ranks of labour.

THE BRASS WORKERS.—An enthusiastic meeting of the Brass Workers' Union was held last night in the Oddfellows' Hall, 251 St. James street. The meeting was very largely attended. Mr. A. Studholme, first vice-president of the International Stove Mounters, Moulders and Polishers' Union, of Toronto, delivered an address.

THE STONECUTTERS.—A largely attended meeting of the Stonecutters' Union was held last night in St. Joseph's Hall. On motion of John Gravelle, seconded by M. Major, a committee of three was appointed to study the constitution of the union and to give an interpretation of certain clauses at a general meeting to be held next Wednesday evening. Dissatisfaction was expressed at the action of certain aldermen, who made pre-election promises, and have failed to keep them, by giving contracts for stone for the roads to men in no way connected with the union.

IN AND AROUND THE CITY.

AN OUTING.—Douglas Methodist Church and Sunday School are to have an outing to Otterburn Park next Saturday afternoon. A special train will convey the party.

A FOOT CRUSHED.—Alexander Andrews, 32 years of age, of No. 8 Ste. Agathe street, while at work on the wharf yesterday, had his left foot badly crushed. He was taken to the General Hospital.

A EUCHRE PARTY.—The last of the euchre parties of the Ladies of Charity of St. Patrick's Church will be given on the evening of Thursday, June 5th, at their hall, St. Alexander street, under the presidency of Mrs. Menzies.

AN EXCURSION.—Rev. Father Blais, the veteran missionary in the North-West, has arranged for an excursion from this province to the parishes of St. Jean Baptiste, St. Joseph, and St. Pie, Manitoba, on June 24. The twenty-fifth anniversary of the foundation of the parishes will take place on July 1.

PROTESTANT HOSPITAL FOR INSANE.—Messrs. Harry Young and C. W. Davis, accompanied by a party of their friends, visited the Protestant Hospital for the Insane last evening and treated a large audience of patients to a thoroughly enjoyable variety entertainment. Not the least pleasing feature of the performance was an exhibition of magic lantern slides by Mr. J. W. Davidson.

AN INDIAN INJURED.—James Norton, a Caughnawaga Indian, 13 years of age, employed in the Dominion Wire Works, Lachine, was seriously injured yesterday while at work by an iron plate falling on him. His collar bone was broken, and he received internal injuries. He was taken into the Grand Trunk Railway station on the train and removed from there in the ambulance to the General Hospital.

Coronation Contingent Flag.

Mrs. Clark Murray's Patriotic Society, the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire, whose headquarters are in Toronto, are presenting a flag to the coronation contingent. The president and officers of the National Chapter of Canada passed through the city Tuesday en route for Quebec, where Colonel Pellatt will receive the flag with a pretty ceremony. The party occupied a private car, and will spend a few days in the Chateau Frontenac. Mrs. Nordheimer, of "Glenedyth," Toronto, will make the presentation.

Summer Sack Suits.

Semi-ready's Sack Suits are characteristic of youth and enthusiasm.

Collar has the correct stamp; front and revers are right; stitching and finish bear the imprint of the skillful tailor.

Note the cut, the hang—the "tout ensemble."

Trousers are stylishly correct you'll observe.

Inside is in perfect keeping with the outside.

The ideal Summer Suit is of navy serge, or striped flannel.

"Semi-ready", two piece flannel suits, without lining, $10, $12 and $15. Stylish as well as cool.

Navy blue, English Serge Suits, single or double breasted. $12, $15 and $18. Pure Indigo dye, absolutely fast colors.

CHAMBERLAIN

"The choicest cigar of all"—The Chamberlain Cigar. Sells for 10c and is worth every cent of it in cigar value.

A Longueuil Howl.

To the Editor of the Montreal Star:

Sir,—On the 1st May last the officials of the Richelieu Company promised the residents of Longueuil that the steamer Hosanna would be put on the route between Longueuil and the city on the 15th May. That date has come and gone. Some days since these officials stated that the boat would be running on the 1st June. That date has passed, and yet no Hosanna.

What this company wants is another Capt. Paul, who gave them a lesson a few years ago as to their duties to the public, and this they will get, as it is contemplated, and that seriously, the securing of a steamer to run on this route, and when obtained it will not be bought out. This company has imposed on the residents of Longueuil.

Yours truly,
RESIDENT.

Longueuil, 2nd June, 1902.

ONLY 98 OFFERED FOR THE NEW LOAN

Finance Committee Opened Tenders at Yesterday's Meeting.

OFFER OF A LONDON FIRM

Coates, Son and Co. Want Whole of the $2,000,000 and Will Likely be Awarded Loan.

The highest offer received by the Finance Committee, yesterday afternoon, for the two million loan, was a shade over 98. The bonds are three and a half per cent. and are for a period of forty years. Some of the members of the committee thought better offers than this should have been received, as the city's securities were held to be exceptionally good. The following were the tenders received.

From Coates, Son & Co., London, Eng., through Hanson Bros., Montreal, 98.04 1-6. This tender is for the full amount.

The tender reads £98 1s. 11 for each £100 of the loan. It practically amounts to 98 1-20, but the decimal is as noted.

Ninety-eight cents for $250,000 with option for the whole, from N. W. Harris & Co., Boston.

Ninety-three and three-quarter cents for $10,000, from Catherine Hickson.

Ninety-eight cents for $5,000 from Macintosh & Hyde.

When the loan was advertised the upset price was named as 98. In the discussion of the tenders yesterday certain members thought a higher bid might have been received had the upset price not been mentioned.

Ald. Laporte said that the state of the money market was somewhat uncertain, and that after all the offer of Coates, Son & Co., was in no wise a bad one. He also drew attention to the fact that when the city offered the million and a half loan, a little over a year ago, the highest price received was 95. Taking all things into consideration, he was inclined to report to Council in favour of accepting the offer of Coates, Son & Co. He did not think it would be businesslike not to accept the highest tender.

There was some discussion over the fact that only one firm had tendered for the whole amount. The explanation, however, was that there were many good investments for money at the present time.

After some further discussion it was decided to recommend the offer of Coates, Son & Co., to Council.

This loan will not increase the consolidated debt of twenty seven millions. It is made up of matured and maturing debentures upon which the city, for years past, has been paying a high rate of interest. These are being lumped into the new loan which will not call for a higher rate of interest than three and a half per cent. By this arrangement the city will save a considerable amount every year in interest charges.

THE CARNIVAL OF ROMANCES.

Those Who Will Participate in the "Bohemian Girl" Tableaux.

An adaptation of Balfe's "Bohemian Girl" is one of the numbers in the "Carnival of Musical Romances," to be produced in the Academy on the evenings of June 12th and 13th, with a matinee on Saturday, June 14th, for the benefit of the Protestant Infants' Home. Following is the cast and the names of the gypsy tribe.

Miss Lillian Herron, soprano, "Arline." Miss E. Maud Smith, contralto, "Queen;" Mr. Wm. Currie, bass, "Devilshoof."

Gypsies—Misses J. Wylie, M. L. Campbell, K. Campbell, A. M. Campbell, E. Fielder, Maud L. Jenking, Gertrude McLean, Olive Packard, Lulu Roichling, Ruth O'Connor, Florence Davidson, Emily Eichorn, Lilian Stephens, Mae Gillis, and Messrs. F. A. Lytle, H. E. Logan, J. C. Moore, A. G. Fenwick, E. Fenwick, C. S. Bann, C. L. Holland, C. R. Cranthem, B. E. Chadwick, W. Trenholm, E. D. Murray, A. B. Callaghan, J. H. Burke, L. G. Lynch, Robinson, Miss Maud Jenking and Gertrude McLean will also give solo dances.

Tested An Electric Meter.

Norman McBeth was fined $5 and costs yesterday afternoon, by Judge Desnoyers, on being found guilty of unlawfully testing an electric metre, after the same had been fixed for use. In rendering judgment His Honour said:

"The law may appear unjust; it may seem that the consumer of electric power ought to have the right to get the instrument that brings up his bills for lighting examined by his own agent, but that right is not denied to him. If the consumer thinks that the metre works to his detriment, he has, in virtue of the law, a perfect right to get it tested by the proper officer, the official inspector, and to be present or represented at such inspection or test.

"Article 26 of the said act gives a reason why such verifications should be made by the officers of the department—it is that the fees received for such verification will serve to meet the costs of carrying out the said law. But, be that law good or bad, unjust or equitable, I am not here to judge the law, only to apply it. I believe the law has been intimated, and that my duty is to convict."

$210 for His Injuries.

Mr. Justice Lavergne rendered judgment yesterday awarding $210 to Mr. Octave Painchaud, as tutor to his seventeen year old son, Emile Painchaud. The young man while at work for H. R. Ives & Co., in their factory, had his right hand badly injured trying to take a belt off a pulley at the request of another employee, and sued for $1999.

Action Was Dismissed.

The action of Mr. Jos. Bacon against Dame A. Daggett et vir was dismissed by Mr. Justice Lavergne yesterday, under reserve of the rights of the plaintiff to take further proceedings. The plaintiff had bought a debt against the defendants, but no notice of the transfer, nor of two previous transfers, had been given to defendant.

Chinaman After the City.

Lee Tong, the Chinaman who was condemned to pay a fine, or to go to gaol for sixty days, for selling opium without a druggist's license, has applied through Messrs. St Pierre, Pelissier and Wilson, for writ of certiorari against the city, and Mr. Recorder Weir. George Walker Moore the purchaser of the drug is called into the case.

Curse of DRINK

Cured by Colonial Remedy

Can be given in Glass of Water, Tea or Coffee Without the Patient's Knowledge.

Colonial Remedy will cure or destroy the diseased appetite for alcoholic stimulants, whether the patient is a confirmed inebriate, a "tippler," social drinker or drunkard. Impossible for any one to have an appetite for alcoholic liquors after using Colonial Remedy.

Indorsed by Members of W. T. C. U. in United States.

Mrs. Moore, Superintendent of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, Ventura, Cal., writes: "I have tested Colonial Remedy on very obstinate drunkards, and the cures have been many. In many cases the Remedy was given secretly. I cheerfully recommend and indorse Colonial Remedy. Members of our Union are delighted to find a practical and economical treatment to aid us in our temperance work." Mrs. A. M. Townsend, 218 Tremont street, Boston, Mass., (for years secretary of the W. C. T. U.), states: "I know of so many people redeemed from the curse of drink by the use of Colonial Remedy that I earnestly request you to give it a trial." Sold by druggists everywhere, and by mail. Price $1. Trial package free by writing or calling on Mrs. M. A. Ward (for years member of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union), 2204 St. Catherine st., Montreal.

The Marston Boys Start for Home With a Dark Secret in Their Hearts.

(By Rolf Boldrewood.)

SYNOPSIS OF PRECEDING CHAPTERS.

"Robbery Under Arms" is the autobiography of Dick Marston, an Australian bushranger, who begins the story while lying in gaol under sentence of death. The condemned man relates the incidents of a career that has brought him within the shadow of the gallows. The Marstons are small farmers in the back country of New South Wales, Australia, and the family consists of the father and mother, the two boys, Dick and Jim, and the daughter, Aileen. The father was sent out from England as a convict, and after serving his term, married an immigrant girl and took up land in the back country, where cattle-raising is the principal occupation. Here the boys grew up, following a half-idle life, but becoming expert horsemen and thoroughly trained in the management of cattle. The father is away from home the greater part of the time, and the knowledge that he is engaged in cattle stealing darkens the lives of his wife and daughter, whose greatest fear is that he will lead his boys into a life of crime. The other characters introduced in the opening chapters are Mrs. Storefield and her two children, George and Gracey, a family of honest, hard-working farmers, neighbours of the Marstons, and living on terms of friendship with them. The action of the story begins with the Marston boys being sent for by their father to assist in driving a herd of cattle. The boys find their father in possession of a large number of cattle bearing the brands of farmers living in that district. The cattle are driven to a stock yard hidden away in the bush, and there the calves are branded, and the brands of the grown cattle are altered so as to make it impossible for the owners of the cattle to identify their stock. They then set out with the herd, driving the cattle farther into the wild back country towards a mountain top, which the father points out to the boys as their guiding landmark. Near it is the headquarters of the cattle thieves. The stolen cattle are driven to Terrible Hollow, a valley hidden away in the mountains, the entrance to which is a secret possessed only by the eldest Marston and his associates. There are Captain Starlight and a half-caste boy called Warrigal. Starlight had been born in England a gentleman, but for years he had led a roving life of adventure and crime. When the Marstons arrive at the Hollow Starlight and Warrigal are away. They return soon afterwards, and with their advent the Marston boys are introduced to the two characters who play leading parts in the checkered career that lays before them. Starlight returns severely wounded, for in his last encounter he has had an encounter with the Mounted Police, and it came very near being his last battle, but once safely back in the Hollow, he begins to mend.

CHAPTER VI—Continued.

We stayed for about ten days, while the stranger's arm got well. With care and rest, it soon healed. He was pleasant enough, too, when the pain went away. He had been on other countries, and told us all kinds of stories about them.

He said nothing, though, about his own former ways, and we often wondered what ever could have made him take to such a life. Unknown to father, too, he gave us good advice, warned us that what we were in was the road to imprisonment or death in due course, and not to flatter ourselves that any other ending was possible.

"I have my own reasons for leading the life I do," he said, 'and must run my own course, of which I foresee the end as plainly as if it was written in a book before me. Your father had a long account to square with society, and he has a right to settle it his own way. That yellow whelp was never intended for anything better. But for you lads—and here he looked kindly in poor old Jim's honest face (and an honest face and heart Jim's was, and that I'll live and die on)—"my advice to you is, to clear off home, when we go, and never come back here again. Tell your father you won't come; cut loose from him, once and for all. You'd better drown yourselves comfortably at once than take to this cursed trade. Now, mind what I tell you, and keep your own counsel."

By and by, the day came when the horses were run in for father and Mr. Starlight and Warrigal, who packed up to be off for some other part.

When they were in the yard we had a good look at his own horse—a good look—and if I'd been a fellow that painted pictures, and that kind of thing, I could draw a middlin' good likeness of him now.

By George! how fond I am of a good horse — a real well-bred clinker. I'd never have been here if it hadn't been for that. I do believe; and many another Currency chap can say the same—a horse or a woman—that's about the size of it, one or t'other generally fetches us. I shall never put foot in stirrup again, but I'll try and scratch out a sort of likeness of Rainbow.

He was a dark bay horse, nearly brown, without a white hair on him. He wasn't above fifteen hands and an inch high, but looked a deal bigger than he was, for the way he held his head up and carried himself. He was deep and thick through behind the shoulders, and girthed over so much more than you'd think. He had a short back, and his ribs went out like a cask, long quarter, great thighs and hocks, wonderful legs, and feet, of course, to do the work he did. His head was plainish, but clean and bony, and his eye was big and well opened, with no white showing. His shoulder was sloped back that much that he couldn't fall no matter what happened his fore legs. All his paces were good, too. I believe he could jump—jump anything he was ridden at, and very few horses could get the better of him for one mile or three.

Where he'd come from, of course, we were not to know then. He had a small private sort of brand, that didn't belong to any of the big studs; but he was never bred by a poor man. I afterwards found out that he was stolen before he was foaled, like many another plum, and his dam killed as soon as she had weaned him. So, of course, no one could swear to him, and Starlight could have ridden past the Supreme Court, at the assizes, and never been stopped, as far as this horse was concerned.

Before we went away father and Starlight had some terrible long talks, and one evening Jim came to me, and says he:

"What do you think they're up to now?"

"How should I know? Sticking up a bank, or boning a flock of maiden ewes to take up a run with? They seem to be game for anything. There'll be a hanging match in the family if us boys don't look out."

"There's no knowing," says Jim, with a roguish look in his eye (I didn't think then how near the truth I was), "but it's about of course this time."

"Oh, a horse; that alters the matter. But what's one horse to make such a shine about?"

"Ah, that's the point," says poor old Jim, "it's a horse worth talking about. Don't you remember the imported entire that they had his picture in the papers—him that Mr. Windhall gave £2,000 for?"

"What! the Marquis of Lorne? Why, you don't mean to say they're going for him?"

"By George, I do!" says Jim, "and they'll have him here, and twenty blood mares, too, before September."

"They're all gone mad—they'll raise the country on us. Every police trooper in the colony'll be after us like a pack of dingoes after an old man kangaroo when the ground's boggy, and they'll run us down, too; they can't be off it. Whatever made 'em think of such a big touch as that?"

"That Starlight's the devil, I think," said Jim, slowly. "Father didn't seem to like it at first, but he brought him round bit by bit—said he knew a squatter in Queensland he could pass him on to; that they'd keep him there for a year and get a crop of foals by him, and when the 'derry

"REMOUNTS" FROM CANADA.

Professor Robertson, our Commissioner of Agriculture, imparted a valuable truth to the British authorities when he told them that if they wished to see a "remount" market in Canada, they should encourage the Canadian farmers to breed the right kind of horses by "steady buying."

Farmers breed horses that will sell, precisely as shoe-makers make boots which will meet the public demand. A particular kind of horse is needed for military purposes; and if there be a steady demand for them, our farmers will meet it with a steady supply. Of course, spasmodic and sudden demands for an article not generally called for, may not always be satisfied, in the horse trade any more than in any other line of business. Though, with Canada's great production of horses, it will be a pretty stiff demand which cannot be filled.

Still "steady buying" is the policy which will establish for Britain a safe and sure supply of military "remounts" from the British stables of this colony.

AN IMPORTANT EVENT.

The meeting of the Board of Trade Conference at Toronto, is one of the most important and representative gatherings ever held in this country. It is composed of delegates from the great commercial bodies of the Dominion, experts in all that tends to promote the commercial, financial and social welfare of Canada. The Star, recognizing the importance of the assemblage, has so far given the only report of the proceedings sent to Montreal. The subjects under discussion, and upon which this body will vote—by way of intimating to the representatives to the Coronation Conference the views of the communities making up the Dominion—are of vital interest.

The members meet without the trammels of party, to discuss business matters, from a business point of view, before business men. They speak with a freedom denied the parliamentary representative, who too often has before his eyes the probable approval or disapproval of his party leaders, or even of some influential constituent. The pronouncements of the present meeting in Toronto will be given to the Premier and the Ministers of the Dominion, in the hearing of the whole people of Canada. Such a gathering was a happy thought, and illustrates a desire of the commercial community to take action along the lines of progress. Aside from the value their deliberations will be to the Government, the meeting of the various business elements of all parts of Canada, for a face to face talk; the acquaintances made, better understandings arrived at, must tend to the public good.

THE CHILDREN'S CHANCES.

With the extraordinarily high death rate Montreal has in comparison with other cities, while we enjoy a natural position which should make this an ideal health resort, it behooves us to look about and see if we cannot lay the finger on some of the causes. While we are about it, it might be as well to do something towards removing some of the discovered causes for ill health which all cities have more or less. We seem to have so many special ones that we cannot afford to let the "regulars" continue.

We should try to make the lives of the children comfortable, healthy and happy. Upon them depends the future of the race. We want to see grow up in Canada a race of manly men and womanly women, no matter from what stock they come. We want to see them with strong and healthy bodies and wholesome minds. We want to see them hopeful, happy, and with noble ambitions. To this end we should try to make our cities places where the children are happy and healthy. We should provide them with ample play grounds, and even where they do romp around and sing and shout and play in the little side streets, where there are no cars and few other vehicles passing, it is not necessary for us to send policemen to warn them off the earth.

In all reason, let us give the little ones opportunities to enjoy themselves. But we must not allow them to be imposed upon. They are entitled to protection at the hands of the authorities. Protection from others and even protection from themselves. We should be extremely careful as to those we allow to carry on business for and with children. We should know exactly what sweetmeats are being vended, and the character of the vendors.

THE CHILDREN'S PEDDLERS.

The season is now at hand when thousands of children are daily buying ice cream from foreign peddlers on the streets. What do we know about the stuff being sold, or the methods of sale or the kind of people carrying it on?

In other cities it has been found to be a very dangerous source of ill health to the youngsters. Medical authorities are beginning to realize that it is an important factor in the spread of disease. A number of cases have recently been observed in which symptoms of irritant poisoning and even death were the result of eating ice cream bought of street peddlers.

How far the above applies here is a matter which might well be looked into, by the police and the sanitary authorities. The most casual observer knows that the methods of carrying on the business are offering a premium to the spreading of all kinds of maladies. Assuming that the ice cream itself is as spotless as the reputation of Caesar's wife should have been, when the vendors start out each day, what are the chances of the average youngster? Half a dozen little crockery cups form the usual furnishing of the perambulating ice creamery. Some of the establishments have a towel; some have not. The juveniles usually lap the delicacy out of the cup without the aid of a spoon, and the returned "empty" is promptly refilled for "next." One cup in its time meets many mouths, but the coolness of the confection covers a multitude of flavours which may have been imparted from many lips.

There is thus room for much trouble among the children from the method of handing out the coveted delight, even where it be made of the purest material. The practice which some of the vendors have of matching pennies with the youngsters is a source of revenue to the conscienceless peddler, and builds up habits of gambling which aid in strengthening the one vice having a stronger hold on this community than any other.

AN AWFUL RESPONSIBILITY.

But what do the health authorities know of the stuff which is being peddled out to thousands of children in this city every day? The British Medical Journal, dealing with an inquest in London, where the death of a six year old child was recently attributed to unwholesome ice cream, gives some startling facts. It recalls a bacteriological investigation of Dr. Klein's, in which some ice cream and water used for rinsing the glasses were found to be swarming with micro-organisms. The article refers also to a recent case of poisoning in Antwerp, where twenty persons were made ill from the use of ice cream, and it goes on to describe the causes of the danger.

Contamination of the cream arises from the habitual filthiness of the vendors. The commonest and stalest materials are used in the manufacture, and at night it is usually stored under the merchant's bed in his dirty tenement lodgings. The next morning, no matter how far gone in decomposition the unsold cream may be, it is rehashed and frozen for the day's business.

The public at large seems to have the impression that bacteria are destroyed by the freezing process. The Medical Journal, however, reminds us that this is not the case. The activity of the bacteria is only temporarily retarded by the cold, and during the nightly respite they thrive vigorously.

How far does this apply to Montreal? At the present moment we cannot say, but we have evidence that into the population of this big city some of the dirtiest and most degraded of the off-scouring of Europe—foul with loathsome skin diseases, filthy in their habits—have been absorbed.

The appearances are that we are allowing the children of Montreal to be at the mercy of irresponsible, often debased and not over-clean foreigners. Are they more careful of the children we so unhesitatingly entrust to them than they are of their own sanitary surroundings? Are we daily allowing the Montreal children to take into their mouths stuff which has been festering overnight in little dirty, evil-smelling, overcrowded tenement rooms? There is a serious responsibility here, for these people are supposed to be licensed by the city.

A great change is stated to have taken place in the political complexion of the State of Colorado. As the great silver producing State, it was violently in favour of bi-metallism, and consequently gave Bryan, in 1896, the enormous majority of over 134,000 votes. Four years later it gave him a majority of 20,000 only. To-day the silver cause is dead in the State, and it is a question whether it is not about to be captured by the Republicans. Facts have not of late favoured the bi-metallists. There has been a great wave of prosperity passing over the world at the very time when, according to all their calculations, one of calamity was due. The Democrats realize this, and are looking out for new issues; but whether they will find any of a particularly helpful kind seems doubtful.

The story that some of the late Boer leaders are to go to Europe to try and raise money towards renewing farms destroyed during the war, is probably not well-founded. In the first place, provision is made for this by a large cash grant from Great Britain, and the promise of loans to any required amount, with easy terms of payment, extending over many years. It would be well for the future satisfaction of the Boers, however, if the visit suggested should be made. It would demonstrate the money value of European sympathy for Boer distress when the burghers are no longer fighting the unloved British.

Mr. Labouchere and his following are opposed to the money grant to Lord Kitchener. Well, during the war they saw no right except on the wrong side; their motto was "never to pardon an act of cruelty unless practised by the foe." Now they see no occasion to reward any but those who opposed the British arms.

Evidence accumulates that the revolver is an excellent weapon to be without. An Illinois man, wakened by his wife and told that a burglar was in the kitchen, hurried out with his ready revolver and shot—his wife. It would be better to suffer burglary than take such risks as that. Then a readily turned-on electric light is a fairly good burglar trap.

Hon. S. H. Blake should take his fellow independents into his confidence, and tell them why he voted Conservative in the late elections. The rumour that Ross had been trying to "build up Ontario" on one of Sam Blake's tenderest corns is unworthy of credence. Blake should "speak now."

The Weather Man must be learning to ride a bicycle — he "wobbles" about so shamefully. Apparently, he tends to run into whatever he is looking at; and one moment Martinique attracts him, and the next Captain Bernier's expedition to the North Pole.

The Macdonald Club, of Kingston, will on Friday decorate the grave of the late Sir John Macdonald.

THE PASSING HOUR.

A Toronto contemporary remarks: "It seems that the Montreal mountain was once a live volcano just as Montreal was once a live city." Does the fact that Toronto never had a mountain explain why Toronto was never a live city.

The only thing left now for Mr. Kruger and Dr. Leyds to do to attract the public attention on a big scale is to publish the accounts showing how they distributed the twenty million dollars in subsidising the pro-Boer press in Europe, England and the United States.

The Boers generally appear to have become enthusiastic Britishers. The Stead-Labouchere-Kruger-Leyds quartette are practising a new part song, entitled — "Where Are We At?"

If our Uncle Samuel finds that little job in the Philippines too much for him to do by day work, how would it do to get the eminent firm of Roberts, Kitchener and Co. to do it by contract?

SCOTT AND SCOTCH.

"The way was long, the wind was cold,
The minstrel was infirm and old."
So reads a tale, such was the lot
Of one immortalized by Scott,
Whose minstrel hard poured forth a lay,
Which echoes to the present day;
Still finds responsive every heart
That joys in the poetic art.

But let me criticise a point:
It seems a little out of joint,
When written by a Scotian bard.
A noble sentiment was marred,
When he who penned "Breathes there a man"—
Did not adopt another plan
Than that the minstrel of his tale
(Whose aged voice began to fail),
Should quaff a goblet crowned with wine,
Of grapes that owned a Spanish vine.

For Caledonia then, I trow,
Produced good whiskey, just as now,
And Wattle Scott, that man o' wit—
No stranger he to drap o' it;
So I maintain that in his face
Forsworn should be all wine or ale!
The ancient minstrel should have quaffed
That cheering and most heartsome draught—
To clear his husky voice and throat—
Scotch whiskey, aye! an' pipin' hot!

GLEN DOCHART.

The returned Boer prisoners ought to be able to tell the little Boer boys, who still think that the "bogey man" is a British soldier, that, at all events, Tommy does not dine off the men he captures.

John Bull will now proceed to sew up the hole in his pocket.

It is now stated that "owing to pressure of business" Premier Parent will not attend the coronation. "Pressure of business be blowed!" If he will go, we will all promise to be good while he is away.

THE NEW VISCOUNT.

'Ere's to ye, Viscount Kitchener—
(I'm as come from the Soudan);
We sees as 'ow's ye're a diplomat,
(Halso a fus-class fightin' man.)

SORRY HE SPOKE.

Cholly (after six hours of it)—Gee! I guess when I asked her to let me be her caddy always she took me literally!

MYSTERIES OF TIME.

Two elderly Irish citizens out for a Sunday stroll, paused before a jeweller's show window, in which were displayed three clocks recording time in various parts of the world, says the Tribune.

"'Tis odd," said one. 'In some parts of the earth 'tis yesterday, and in other parts 'tis to-morrow—while the United States is the only place in all the world where 'tis to-day.'

"'Tis odd.'

"'Tis so.'

"'Now, when would be me birthday if I were in Paris?'

"'Your birthday is to-day?'

"'Tis.'

"'And 'tis to-morrow in France to-day?'

"'Tis.'

"'Thin, yes could never have a birthday if y' were over there, because your birthday comes to-day.'

"'Tis odd.'

"'Tis so.'

"No doubt, that's why the population is so rayduced in France; but it has advantages. A man is always as old as he is if he is born over there, but if he lives abroad he is a year younger on his birthday, counting he be at home.'

"'Tis odd.'

"'Tis so.'"

This definition of a gentleman was provided by a suburban butcher. He was asked for details concerning a man who had just left his shop. "What, 'im, sir?" he replied. "Oh, he's a thorough gentleman. 'E don't go up to London every day."

It is said that the Shah, who is travelling in Italy, has found it necessary to protest against the dangerous speed of his train, which at one time attained the terrific velocity of fifteen miles an hour. He must have found it startling. They move slowly in Persia.

A delicate point in pronunciation is involved in this story. A country cousin once went to spend Sunday with an Edinburgh friend. After a long day spent in sight-seeing, they found themselves a long way from home. "Noo, mon," said the townsman, "we've a long way to gang. Shall we tak' a tram?" "Tak' a tram!" cried the other, in surprise. "Ye dinna mean to tell me that in Edinbro' the public houses are open on the Sawbath!"

A CROW CORN TRUST.

A farmer living near New Bedford planted eighty acres of corn, and the crows dug up so much of it, that he tried soaking kernels in whiskey and scattering them broadcast where the crows bothered the field most, thinking he could thus keep them from digging up the planted, and incidentally have a little fun at the expense of the crows. An hour after scattering the liquor laden kernels he went to the field, where he heard an unearthly jabbering of crows. One big crow was perched on a log, where he had gathered all the whiskey-soaked kernels, and was retailing them out for two good ones, which the other crows were digging out of the field.—Exchange.

"Hi-ee! hi-ee," uttered in a rather harsh voice, is the strange cry with which an aged coloured man in Chestnut st. mails attention to his roses and carnations. Some one asked him the other day why he yelled "Hi-ee! hi-ee!" instead of "Here y' are, fresh flowers!" or something equally sensible and apropos. "Well," the old man replied, "I used to yell good plain common sense when I was young in the business, but I found out by experience that the crazier and foolisher my yell was the more trade came to me. 'Fine roses, 50 cents a dozen!' is, you see, a yell that don't attract much attention. They pass right on by without thinking of it at all. But 'Hoop-la!' or 'Hi-yee!' is odd and silly and when they hear such an idiotic sound the people look at you, and notice that you are selling flowers, and maybe they buy a bunch. I know one man who calls 'Murder!' or 'Green Shirts!' or any silly thing he happens to think of, and you wouldn't believe how the people laugh at him, and how many flowers he sells."—Philadelphia Record.

THIRSTY ONE'S RUSE.

He wasn't a very prosperops appearing person, but the bartender hadn't much to do, and talked to him.

The man stood at the end of the bar and gazed down the length critically. Finally he asked: "Will you give me a drink if I tell you the length of this counter within three inches?"

"Yes," said the barkeeper.

The visitor reached into a back pocket, pulled out a two foot rule and began measurement.

He had laid the rule down but once or twice, when the dispenser of cheer stopped him.

"Here," he said, "never mind any more measuring. I guess it's on me, all right, all right."

PUBLIC OPINION

As Represented by the Political Papers.

HOW ENGLAND WAS "FORCED."

(La Patrie.—Lib.)

England was not free to make peace on her own terms. England desired peace, the King wished for it at any price, while the Boers, who, no doubt, also wished peace, were capable of continuing the war and offering still further stubborn resistance. The convention of Pretoria is a compromise by which the English and the Boers have thought it well to sacrifice something in order to come to an understanding. The journalists (of Halifax) speak and write as if England, after three years of war, had been able to impose an "unconditional surrender" upon the enemy. Facts are facts. Lord Kitchener and Lord Milner have accepted the Boer language in the conditions of peace, because it was impossible to get it otherwise.

A BURDEN LIFTED.

(Kingston Whig—Lib.)

A great burden of anxiety is lifted off the heart, and intense as is the relief in Canada, it is as nothing compared with the feeling which prevails in England.

MORE THAN FAIR.

(Hamilton Spectator.—Con.)

The terms of peace given to the defeated Boers are more than fair. They are generous. A taste of good British government will work wonders in the Boer country; the bitter feelings engendered by the war will soon pass away, and the colony in South Africa for many years will be quite loyal to the old flag.

EXILE THE REBELS.

(St. John Gazette.—Con.)

The Cape rebels should be disfranchised for life; the Transvaal and Orange Colony leaders should be exiled. A permanent peace must follow this surrender of the Boers, and in no other way can it be assured. Further, the world must be thoroughly convinced that Britain will defend her own, wherever her own may be, as long as she has an arm to raise against the invader of her rights.

JUST AND GENEROUS.

(Hamilton Times.—Lib.)

Britain will be just, and even generous, to the Dutch population of South Africa, during the reconstruction period. Any independence movements will be, of course, sternly repressed, but the Boers who accept British citizenship will find themselves as well off as they ever could have been under the Kruger autocracy, and the resources of the new British Africa will be speedily developed under the new regime.

THE NET RESULT.

(Toronto World.—Con.)

The war in South Africa is at an end. It was a little war, it was a great war—as you'll have it. It was a war of a great empire against a little republic. But it was a war for a continent. The great empire is master of a great continent as a result. There is unification in British Africa from the mouth of the Nile through all Egypt, through the Soudan, through Central Africa, across the equator, clear down to the Cape of Good Hope. This war has settled that. The error of the Gladstone administration has been rectified, but at an enormous cost.

A BARGAIN A PITY.

(Toronto Mail and Empire—Con.)

The incident that has with perfect confidence but with some anxiety been long awaited in every country where the good old flag flies has at last been recorded. The statement from Lord Kitchener that terms have been agreed upon that are acceptable to all who are engaged in the conflict comes as a matter of genuine satisfaction, but it is a pity that a bargain had to be struck. The Empire placed itself in a position of irrefragable strength, but the advantage was impaired when discussion took the place of dictation, and argument was substituted for direct and uncompromising statement.

THE GREAT TRIUMPH.

(Ottawa Journal—Ind.)

The greatest British triumph of the war which has ended in South Africa is the record of her treatment of the foe. Let every Briton around the seven seas look back with pride on the forbearance, the humanity, the generosity which has marked the course of the Imperial Government and army in the long and trying struggle which has happily ended. From top to bottom is that true. From the Imperial Cabinet in London to the Tommies and the colonial rank and file in Africa, is it true. A humane convention in London, a humane practice in the area of the strife, marked every phase of the struggle.

"DELIVERING THE GOODS."

(Halifax Herald.—Con.)

Any one disposed to be as cautious, not to say pessimistic, as Boer "slimness" has made merely prudent, might be disposed to note that though Boer representatives may have agreed on terms of surrender, there is no guarantee of their being able "to deliver the goods." On this very point the future may have a disagreeable story to tell. But the surest ground for hoping the brightest and best from the present news is that it comes from Lord Kitchener, who is most careful in the writing of despatches, and who is the least likely of men to lose his head for a moment, or to send news calculated to raise false hopes.

CONCILIATION, NOT COERCION.

(London Advertiser.—Lib.)

The work of reconstruction must now begin in South Africa. British statesmanship has faced no graver problem in modern times; but that its patient wisdom will triumph, who can doubt? To the great pro-consul, Lord Milner, will be assigned this duty for the present. It will be a work of conciliation, not coercion. The end will be gained not by crushing the spirit of a brave people, but by seeking to enlist it in the Empire's service, by admitting them to equal privileges and opportunities with the conquering race. The process will be a long and troubled one, for the wound will not quickly heal.

AN OPPORTUNE PEACE.

(Toronto Globe—Lib.)

It is easy to speculate as to whether the war could have been avoided and to discuss who was at fault, but once entered on, there was no possible course for Britain but to fight for unequivocal success. At what period of the war could she have brought it to a close and yet convinced the enemy that she was the dominant power in South Africa, and the world that she was as capable as ever of enormous efforts in pursuance of any national object? We do not think there was any time that peace could have been concluded without the loss of practically everything for which the war became necessary.

LOYALIST ANXIETY.

(St. John Sun.—Con.)

It will be necessary to reorganize the political system of the Cape Colony, either by administration as a crown colony or the temporary disfranchisement of the disaffected districts. The United States Government did not for a good many years after the war allow to the Southern States the right of self-government. The Colony will probably afford greater difficulties than the former republics, for it contains two elements now hostile to each other. Loyal people who have suffered in person and property at the hands of their traitor neighbours will not be satisfied if they are left to bear the loss while the rebels who inflicted it are invited to govern the country. There is a feeling of anxiety already lest treason shall be made more profitable in Cape Colony than loyalty.

SUSPICIONS OF BOER CUNNING.

(St. John Telegraph—Lib.)

That danger of further hostilities is not yet absolutely over has been within a day or two intimated in a despatch stating that Cape Colony itself is so honeycombed with disloyalty that it may be advisable to continue its existence under the form of government which characterizes British crown colonies, instead of restoring it to the full self-governing status which it enjoyed prior to being placed under military law after the war broke out. The cause of this disaffection is naturally attributed to the Cape Dutch, among whom the seeds of revolt had been sown before the Boers of the Transvaal and Orange Free State openly took up arms. Under these circumstances it is conceivable that the present surrender may have been agreed to by the Boers, who have more than once proved themselves so unscrupulous as to admit of such suspicion of them, only in order to give time and opportunity for the stirring up of a revolution on a grander scale than ever.

POLICE SEARCH FOR MISSING TEN YEAR OLD MALCOLM FAY.

The police are looking for ten-year-old Malcolm Fay, who has been missing from his home, 535 Wellington street, since Monday afternoon. His mother says that she fears that he has been kidnapped, and she has a suspicion as to who may have carried off the boy.

He was playing near his home with some little friends and suddenly he disappeared as though the earth had swallowed him.

MALCOLM FAY,

Missing From His Home Since Monday Last.

Enquiries were sent out in all directions, but absolutely no trace of any kind could be found as to his whereabouts.

Mrs. Fay, whose husband died but a few months ago, is prostrated over the absence of this, her only son, and is willing to forgive any one who may have taken him away if they will only return him unharmed.

He is of fair complexion and has blue eyes. When he was last seen he wore black knickerbockers, brown checked coat, black laced boots and stockings. Though dressed in kilts in the picture here given, the likeness is characteristic and Mrs. Fay says that he might be recognized by it.

WONDERFUL VARIETY OF CANADIAN SCENERY WELL ILLUSTRATED.
A Selection of Views in the Star Window of Beauty Spots in the Dominion Attracting Attention.
The beginning of the warm season gives Canadians reason to be thankful that they possess such a beautiful country.
Without leaving the confines of the vast Dominion, the summer holiday-maker can visit scenery of all descriptions from the towering mountains of the Rocky Mountain division of the C. P. R. to the Bras d'Or Lakes in Cape Breton, reached by the Intercolonial.
The Grand Trunk Railway reaches the Muskoka Lake district, where some of the most charming scenery visible in the world can be found, while if a trip by water is desired, nothing better than a run down the lordly St. Lawrence to the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company's palatial hotels at Tadousac and Murray Bay could be desired for a holiday outing.
In direct opposition to the policy of the Minister of the Interior, the railways of Canada and those railways which run from Canada to the United States, have issued a series of views showing the most pleasant spots along the lines of their respective railways for summer travel. A selection of the series may be seen in the windows of the Star Office, where they are admired daily by thousands of people as they pass along St. James street. The views shown include Rocky Mountain scenery, along the line of the Canadian Pacific, scenes in the Lake Muskoka region and on the coast of Maine, reached by the Grand Trunk; pictures of places along the shores of Lake Champlain, reached by the Rutland Railway; New Hampshire views, taken along the line of the Boston and Maine, with a couple of views each of the charming scenery at the mouth of the Saguenay reached by the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company, and in the Bras d'Or Lakes, near the Cape Breton terminus of the Intercolonial Railway. As a setting for these views in the Star window are evidences of the interest taken in summer sports in this country, in the shape of a number of valuable trophies and prizes offered for the competition of the American Canoe Association which will take place at Carleton Place, June 26, 27 and 28.

VALOIS BOAT CLUB PLANS.

Ping-Pong Tournaments for Ladies and Gentlemen to be Held.

The formal opening of the Valois Boating Club will take place on Saturday evening, when Mrs. McIntyre, formerly Miss Riley, will preside at the piano.

It has also been decided to hold a sort of a double-headed ping-pong tournament this summer, for ladies and gentlemen, the competitions being separate. Members of sister clubs are eligible to enter this, and while a nominal fee will be charged for gentlemen the ladies will be allowed to enter free. The competitions will take place on every Tuesday evening. The first will be held on the 17th of June, and each one will finish with a dance.

The full list of new officers elected is as follows:

President—J. T. McBride.
First Vice-President—Jos. Sutherland.
Second Vice-President—W. Morson.
Hon. Secretary—F. D. Rogers.
Hon. Treasurer—G. W. Slaughter.
Committee—A. McLean, C. Forlong, B. Strachan, J. Thibault, jr., E. Copland, J. McKenzie and Mr. Dodds.

Meeting of Morin Club.

A meeting of the Morin Club will be held on Friday evening, at Barry's Hall, corner of St. Dominique and Rachel streets. Among the speakers who will be present on that occasion are Mr. F. D. Monk, M.P.; Hon. P. E. Leblanc; Mr. J. G. H. Bergeron, ex-M.P., and Mr. J. E. E. Leonard, M.P., and others.

Did you ever inquire at a store for certain articles and get for a reply "We have something just as good"? Did it ever occur to you that "Something just as good" is something the dealer has been able to buy much cheaper than the articles you inquire for? This is true in drugs, fabrics, groceries, hardware, and in fact every line, including silver-plated ware. If you inquire for 1847 Rogers Bros.' FOUND DEAD NEAR RAILWAY TRACK

Body of Alfred T. Martin Discovered at Fernie, British Columbia

WELL KNOWN IN MONTREAL

Deceased Who Was Highly Connected, Had Been Subject to Fits of Hallucination.

The body of Alfred T. Martin, a Welshman, who had been living for some time at Fernie, B. C., was found alongside the Canadian Pacific Railway track at that place last week. His death was at first supposed to have been due to foul play, but later the police reached the conclusion that he came to his death through a fall from a moving train. The body is being brought to Toronto for interment, by orders of his sister who lives in Wales.

Martin was known in Montreal, where he spent some months last year, most of his time here having been spent in the Protestant Hospital for the Insane at Verdun. He evidently came of a good family, and was a gentleman in his conduct and language. He came to this city about eighteen months ago, and told Chief Detective Carpenter a long story of oppression and robbery, which had, he alleged, been committed at Buckingham. He told how certain parties who had been watching him for some time, had attacked him, struck him on the head with some blunt instrument and stolen all the money and papers he had in his possession, including some important documents relating to an estate at home. He was very anxious to have the papers returned. The chief made enquiries but found nothing to justify the assertions. Dr. Anglin, who was in attendance on Martin at the Verdun Hospital, expresses the opinion that the Buckingham story was only one of a series of hallucinations with which the poor fellow was affected. He wrote to the chiefs of police of several cities to complain of the treatment meted out to him by the people who had robbed him at Buckingham, and he also wrote a very pathetic account of his troubles to some of the New York papers, seeking their assistance to have his wrongs righted. He was keenly disappointed when his troubles did not meet with the response which he had expected.

About a year ago, he was considered well enough to be liberated from the Insane Hospital. He still laboured under the delusion that he had enemies who were trying to compass his ruin, and that they were responsible for his incarceration in the wards of Verdun. He went from here to Toronto, and later went out to British Columbia. He obtained an engagement with the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Company, but never turned up at any of their offices, but went to work for the Anglo-Canadian Iron and Steel Company, whose head offices are at Toronto.

His disappearance from his usual haunts at Fernie gave the impression that he had been right in his stories of people following him with the object of persecuting him. The finding of his body beside the track, and the fact that he was very deaf for the last year, accounts, to some extent, for the mystery of his death.

Deceased was a little over thirty years of age, and had no relatives in this country. His sister in England was communicated with and ordered that his remains be interred at Toronto.

SPECIAL FORM OF THANKSGIVING SERVICE.

The following is the special form of service sanctioned by Archbishop Bond for use in the churches of his archdiocese on Sunday next in connection with the day of thanksgiving for the restoration of peace in South Africa:

At the beginning of the service the minister shall read the following sentences:

"Peace, peace, to him that is afar off, and I will heal him saith the Lord God."—Isaiah, 57; 19.

"Put on, therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long suffering, forbearing one another and forgiving one another if any man have a quarrel against any."—Col. 3; 12, 13.

Then shall follow the ordinary services for the day with the following changes:

Proper psalms at morning prayer, 46 and 103.

Proper psalms at evening prayer, 121 and 150.

First lesson at morning prayer, Isaiah 11; 1-11.

Second lesson at morning prayer, St. Matthew, 5; 38-48.

First lesson at evening prayer, Joshua 24 to v. 26.

Second lesson at evening prayer, Romans 12, v. 19 and 13th chap.

After the collect for the day, the "prayer for peace and deliverance from our enemies" to be said as follows:

"O Almighty God, who art a strong tower of defence unto thy servants against the face of their enemies; we yield Thee praise and thanksgiving for our deliverance from those great and apparent dangers wherewith we were compassed; we acknowledge it Thy goodness that we were not delivered ever as a prey unto them; beseeching Thee still to continue such Thy mercies towards us, that all the world may know that Thou art our Saviour and Mighty Deliverer. Through Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen."

Before the prayers following to be said:

"Almighty Father, who hast made of one blood all nations that dwell upon the whole earth, we praise Thy holy Name for the gift of peace with which Thou hast at this time gladdened our hearts. As Thou hast given us victory in battle, so, we pray Thee, give us grace to use the opportunity now vouchsafed us through the cessation of hostilities to Thy honour and glory, and to the good of mankind. Through Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen."

"O God of all mercy and pity, we pray Thee at this time to comfort all who have been bereaved through the late war, and so visit them with Thy holy consolations, and sustain them with Thy tender compassion, that they may have the oil of joy for mourning, and the argument of praise for the spirit of heaviness. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

The following are suggested as suitable hymns: 165 A. and M.; 196, A. and M.; 379, A. and M. The service may be closed with the National Anthem.

Francais Summer Stock Season.

This week's attraction, "Dangerous Women," closes the regular season at the Theatre Francais, which has been a most successful one. The management have decided to make some important changes for the summer engagement, which begins on next Monday matinee, when Montreal will be given an opportunity to judge of the merits of "The Corse Payton Stock Co." There will be matinees daily. Mr. Payton has always had a company of experienced actors of acknowledged reputations, amongst whom are such sterling artists as Miss Florence Hamilton and Mr. J. Frank Burke in the chief roles. The opening play will be the typical English race track drama, "The Prodigal Daughter," which enjoyed a popular run in London and New York. The story of the play itself is of vital and enduring strength, and when to this is added a representative cast of players, and a scenic and costume equipment that is superb, it can be readily seen what a treat is in store on the opening week of the stock season.

THE MILITIA WANTS CONTINUITY OF COMMAND

Major-General O'Grady-Haly Says Farewell to His Many Friends in Montreal.

Major-General O'Grady Haly, in speaking of the present day needs of the Canadian Militia, said to a reporter yesterday: "Continuity of command is what the Militia really wants. There is plenty of good stuff in the men and officers, as the war has convincingly shown, but it would be a great thing for the force, as well as for the country in general, if a general officer commanding could be found who would remain in Canada for five or six years."

The General paid the highest tribute to the Militia, and stated that he had thoroughly enjoyed his two years' sojourn in Canada. No disagreeable incidents had happened during his tenure of command, and he hoped he was leaving behind him a number of friends.

He had been here in a trying time for the Militia, and they had acquitted themselves admirably. He had actually despatched to South Africa more men than General Hutton, and if the work of the later contingents had nothing that would stand out quite so brilliantly as Paardeberg, they had lots of hard things to accomplish, while Haart's River, at any rate, seemed as hot a fight as any one need wish to be in.

Speaking of his successor, the General said he had never met Lord Dundonald, but he was sure he was a good man. England had always picked soldiers with excellent records for the position, as its importance was great and increasing. Lord Dundonald had made a great reputation as a cavalry leader, and had everything in his favour; moreover, he was still young and could adapt himself to the conditions of the country. He had a great opportunity here. The Militia had the right stuff in them, and might be trained into excellent soldiers.

The General will sail on the Tunisian June 14, but will be still in command till July 19, soon after which date his successor will arrive. He does not intend to take another post, as he considers that after forty-four years of military life he is entitled to a rest.

SHAREHOLDERS WILL BE ASKED TO CONFIRM AGREEMENT.

At three o'clock on the afternoon of June 12 will be held the annual meeting of the Dominion Coal Company, and at noon on the same day the shareholders of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company will meet in annual session.

The shareholders of both companies will be asked to confirm the agreement pertaining to the leasing of the coal mines by the Iron and Steel Company. The notice to the Steel shareholders goes on to state that under the new lease the Steel Company has obtained a most important concession in that they will be obliged to pay to the Coal Company a royalty of only 7 1-2 cents per ton instead of, as under the former arrangement, 15 cents per ton on the annual output of the mines in excess of 3,500,000 tons; and while apparently the annual payment to the Coal Company's shareholders is greater than in the previous option, your directors consider that the modifications they have secured in the way of not being obliged to furnish money for a deposit securing the rental, and not being obliged to pay the Coal Company for the assets in cash (both of which conditions were imposed in the original option), together with certain other concessions, will more than make up for the increased rental, and greatly simplify an arrangement, which if it had been carried out under the original plan, would have proved almost impracticable.

The circular to the Coal Company's shareholders says:

"As you are no doubt aware, an agreement was entered into between the Dominion Iron and Steel Company and the Dominion Coal Company, on June 30, 1899, respecting the supply of coal to the Steel Company, and giving the latter an option to lease the greater portion of the Coal Company's properties in terms set out therein. Owing to the increasing earnings of the company's properties the directors felt it expedient, in the shareholders' interest, to carefully consider the situation in view of the option held by the Steel Company, with the result that after full deliberation, and acting in consultation with the Steel Company's directors, your directors have adjusted and concluded a new lease.

"The rental paid to the Dominion Coal Company in this agreement is higher than that specified under the option of lease, but the apparent increase has been made up to the Steel Company by certain modifications which your directors have made in this contract, and they consider that they are justified in recommending it for ratification by the shareholders."

M. JULES CAMBON VISITED THE CITY.

M. Jules Martin Cambon, Ambassador of France to the United States, accompanied by Madame Cambon, arrived in the city last evening on their way to Quebec. The Ambassador has been in Boston attending the unveiling ceremonies of the Rochambeau monument. While in Quebec, M. and Mme. Cambon will be the guest of Sir Louis Jette.

Were Tendered An Outing.

Over five hundred of the children of St Anthony's parish were yesterday tendered an outing at the Shamrock grounds by Rev. Father Heffernan. The event was the first of the kind ever held in the parish, and proved a distinct success. A committee composed of a number of the members of the congregation looked after the children during the day. Among the guests present were Rev. Father Donnelly, the parish priest; Father Shea, St. Anthony's; Father Callaghan, St. Mary's; Father P. Heffernan, acting parish priest of St. Mary's; Father McGuire, curate of St. Michael's; Father Riley, chaplain of the Hotel Dieu; Father O'Meara, St. Gabriel's, and Father Casey, St. Jean Baptiste.

A Report Praised.

To the Editor of the Star:

Sir,—The excellent report of the Toronto convention of the Canadian Boards of Trade in Wednesday's Star was a feature that receives general comment and commendation in the mercantile community to-day. The matter was handled in a way worthy of the occasion, and worthy of the Star's past record.

A MERCHANT.

(Montreal.)

Dr. Fleury Re-appointed.

A meeting of the governors of Notre Dame Hospital was held yesterday afternoon. Dr. Ferdinand Fleury was reappointed medical superintendent for two years. The following appointments to the staff were also made: Drs. St. Pierre, Ouimet and Grenier, resident staff for one year. Dr. St. Denis, second assistant ophthalmologist; Dr. Brosseau, anesthetist; Dr. Alphonse Mercier in charge of the dispensary.

ANNEXATION NOT A BURNING TOPIC

Sir Robert Bond Speaks on Various Newfoundland Matters.

THE COMING CONFERENCE

Premier Will Sail for London by the Parisian on Saturday Next.

"There is no doubt that the question of the annexation of Newfoundland is being discussed, but hardly to the extent that some reports would lead one to think."

Such was the opinion offered a Star representative by Sir Robert Bond, Prime Minister of Newfoundland, who was at the Windsor to-day. Premier Bond will represent the colony at the coronation festivities, and, in company with Sir Wilfrid Laurier, will sail on Saturday on the Allan Line SS. Parisian. It is understood that he has been given full power to act in any manner with regard to the question of annexation that he may consider to be to the best advantage of the island.

"There have been reports, for instance," the Premier went on to say, "that what was to be known as an annexation party was being organized, and that it was with the intention of becoming its leader that Judge Morrison had decided to resign from the bench. I do not think that there is any reason to believe that such has been the case."

"What about the reported general exodus from the island owing to the little money that can be made in fishing?"

"As far as I know, there has not been any general exodus whatsoever, and had there been one I would very likely have known about it. Of course, a good many have left the island this year, but the number has not been any greater than in the past. I hardly think that the number will be large enough to injure the commerce of the fisheries."

"Is there anything new in the French shore situation?"

"Nothing very new. Despatches in Canadian papers have announced that there had been some difficulty concerning the sale of fish to the people of St. George's Bay by French fishermen of St. Pierre and Miquelon. This may be true, but I have not been told of it, and had the difficulty been of a serious nature I likely would have been notified."

In referring to the declaration of peace, the Premier stated that, like every other British subject, it had caused him much joy, and thought that it would enable the Empire to continue its course to a glorious destiny.

It was intended that before proceeding to the coronation Premier Bond should visit Washington with reference to the Bond-Blaine reciprocity convention. Owing to the death of Lord Pauncefote, he has decided not to go until on his way back from London. He expects that as a result of the conference of colonial Prime Ministers, Canada will withdraw her protest against the ratification of the Bond-Blaine treaty, and that this action will enable him to resume independent negotiations concerning reciprocity in the fishery matter with the United States.

The C. W. Lindsay Piano Co.

The business strides made by the C. W. Lindsay Piano Company during the last few years is an evidence of the claim of the firm that their instruments are gaining a continental reputation. The company opened a branch in Ottawa about two years ago and the volume of business done now warrants them in opening one of the finest stores in the Capital. The premises, 141 Sparks street, have been rented and elaborately fitted up so that they will be among the pretty and interesting sights for both residents and visitors. In this city the firm has no less than three stores, all of which are doing a business in keeping with the reputation of the high class instruments which it sells.

Maisonneuve Council Meeting.

The Maisonneuve Council held a meeting last night, Mayor Bleau presiding. A letter was read from Messrs. Laniel & Co., boot and shoe manufacturers, claiming the amount of the bonus due the firm on June 1st, amounting to $39.30, and enclosing a statement showing that of 169 employes working in the factory, 138 were residents of Maisonneuve.

A letter was received from Messrs. Dubois, Duval and Paquette, proprietors of Lepine Park, stating that it was proposed to extend the street car service to the gates of the park under an arrangement with the company, and requesting the Council to have the streets put in proper condition to lay the tracks. These communications were referred to the proper committees.

The Late Mr. Cornelius F. Cox.

News has been received of the death in Boston of Mr. Cornelius F. Cox, father of Mrs. A. A. Abbott, of this city. Mr. Cox was in his seventy-eighth year. He was foreman of the composing room of the Boston Commercial Bulletin, and one of the best known printers in America.

Mission Work in Brazil.

Rev. J. D. McEwen, a missionary from Orobo, Brazil, gave an address in the lecture hall of Emmanuel Church last night, on his work in that distant and little-known field. He alluded to the paucity of Protestant missions in Brazil, even on the coast, remarking that in the vast interior of the country there was little or no Protestant mission work carried on. The great Protestant missionary societies did not possess any interest at all in the interior. His own work was established at the foot of Orobo Mountain, from whence he went out in every direction, preaching the gospel wherever he found ears to hear.

In conclusion, he related some stirring experiences in connection with his work, of which he spoke hopefully. At the present time he was building a school at Orobo for the training of converts' children, so that the native might learn to be an evangelist, and colporteur and teacher.

FOOD AND GIRLS.

Study Don't Hurt if They are Fed Right.

Some time ago one of the ladies' papers published a long list of extracts from letters from mothers, speaking of broken down school girls. True, over work and too much confinement is largely responsible, but, on the other hand, if the girl is fed on the right kind of food to rebuild the daily waste she can stand more work and the matter of food is the real foundation of the subject.

A 17 year old girl writes from Caro, Mich., about how a change in food helped her. "I am only a school girl, 17 years old, but I am old enough to appreciate what the wonderful brain food Grape-Nuts has done for me. About two years ago my health became very poor and I was unable to study, and finally obliged to leave school.

I was put on Grape-Nuts Breakfast Food. In about three months I recovered my strength, my mind became much more clear and acute and I was able to resume school work.

I continued to use Grape-Nuts until I discovered that I was getting too fat. I gained so much in weight that I had to discontinue it. It is the best food I ever heard of for building up a broken down system.

I have an aunt who went to India as a missionery and while there she was ill four times with Indian fever and became a mere skeleton. When she returned here her muscles were as flabby as could be. She was put on Grape-Nuts Breakfast Food and quickly recovered. Her muscles grew hard and firm and she entirely regained her health, has greatly increased in weight and never knows a sick day now. She is still eating Grape-Nuts and says she would not do without the food for anything.

I can never say enough in praise of your wonderful food." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Ask the cook to show you the recipe book in the package of Grape-Nuts. 132 1

IRON MOULDERS AND FOUNDERS IN CONFERENCE.

The first conference of the representatives of the Iron Founders' Association and those of the Iron Molders' Union of North America, was opened at the Windsor Hotel today to decide on a new scale of wages. Three representatives from each association were present, the Founders' Association's representatives being W. L. Herendeen, of Geneva, N.Y.; S. F. Bagg, of Watertown, N.Y., and F. Birmingham, of Kingston. Messrs J. P. Frey, of Worcester, Mass.; T. Johns, of Boston, and W. Laverty, of Toronto, are looking after the interests of the Iron Molders. Recently when the Iron Molders went on strike, they presented a new schedule of wages, calling for a minimum wage of $2.50 a day, instead of $2.15, as they had been receiving up to the present time. The chief reason advanced for the increase was the increased cost of living. At to-day's conference the representatives took up the different clauses of the schedule presented by the men. Morning and afternoon sessions will be held in the hope of reaching an amicable settlement before the close of the present week.

Officers Were Elected.

At the annual general meeting of the shareholders of the Watson-Foster Company, Limited, the following officers were elected: President, Hugh Watson; vice-president and managing director, S? S. Boxer; secretary-treasurer, W. A. Sutherland; auditor, Geo. Creak, C.A.

Mr. H. E. Noles was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Robert R. White and Mr. C. A. Richardson. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's father, St. Hubert street, at which only relatives were present. This evening Mr. and Mrs. Townsend will leave on a trip to Boston, New York and the Southern States. On their return they will reside at 46 Tupper street, where the bride will receive in October.

ILLUMINATED ADDRESSES FOR KING EDWARD ARE NOW READY.

The illuminated coronation addresses that are to be sent by the city to King Edward has been exhibited in the City Council Chamber. One address is in French and the other in English. The illuminations of both are most artistic. The English one was executed by Mr. E. Cox. The King's title is done in an original way on a blue ground. Above the title is the Royal coat-of-arms: on the other side are the arms of England, Scotland and Ireland, while at the base are the arms of the Province of Quebec, and the city of Montreal. Around the whole is a magnificent blue border, in which are entwined the thistle, shamrock, rose and maple leaf.

The French address was illuminated by Mr. J. Charlebois and was equally artistic and finely executed. In the address proper, reference is made to the visit of the King to Canada, when he was Prince of Wales. The expressions of loyalty then aroused, His Majesty is assured, have not waned. A touching reference is then made to the death of Queen Victoria, whose virtues were respected not only in the British Empire, but throughout the world.

Farewell Organ Recital.

Mr. J. Angus Winter, who has just finished his engagement as organist at St. James Methodist Church, and will shortly leave for Ottawa, gave a farewell organ recital Tuesday night. It was thoroughly enjoyable, and brought out Mr. Winter's powers as a musician. His programme was well selected, including as it did Mendelssohn's Sonata No. 2, J. S. Bach's Fugue in E flat major, and Foote's Pastorale. The church choir of twenty-four, under the conductorship of Mr. E. F. Waterhouse, sang Buck's setting of "Jesu, How Sweet the Very Thought," and Gounod's motet, "Gallia." The former was unaccompanied, and was well rendered. The choir is well trained and well balanced.

DISMISSED RECUSATION PETITION AGAINST MR. JUSTICE TELLIER.

Mr. Justice Robidoux to-day dismissed the petition in recusation presented some days ago by the publishers of "L'Union" of St. Hyacinthe against Mr. Justice Tellier, on the ground of irreconcilable enmity. The learned judge held that it was necessary to submit written proof of the charges made at the time the petition in recusation was filed, in order that the judge might have an opportunity to file his answer in full to all the charges brought against him. This had not been done in the present case.

NEW STYLE OF CARS FOR PARK AND ISLAND.

The Montreal Street Railway is placing a new build of car on the Park & Island system. The cars, of which there will be one out next week and four building, are constructed much on the same plan as the present very large new cars, one of which is running on the Lachine line. The difference in the latest ones being that the smoker is provided for by having the car divided in two parts, and an entrance for the lover of the weed on the side, but near the rear end.

MONTREAL HEARD CORONATION MUSIC

Band of Queen's Own Rifles, Toronto Arrived in Town To-day

50 IN THE ORGANIZATION

While Waiting for Maritime Express Men Had a Car Ride and Were Photographed.

Montrealers heard Coronation music today from a band that is to parade the streets of London on Coronation Day at the head of the Canadian Coronation contingent.

The band was the bugle corps of the Queen's Own Rifles, Toronto—probably the finest organization of its kind in the world.

The members of the band reached the city on the Toronto G. T. R. express this morning in command of genial Charlie Swift, the capable bugle-major of the organization, and a man who has done much to create and enhance the reputation which the band enjoys throughout not only Canada but the United States, for on a recent visit to the Republic its playing created a tremendous furore.

It was at first intended that the special car in which the boys made the trip from Toronto to Montreal should be attached to the Intercolonial 7.40 express, but through some misunderstanding this intention was not carried out. Accordingly the band was obliged to remain in town until twelve o'clock.

During the wait, the boys had breakfast in a St. Catherine street cafe, and enjoyed a car ride through the city. At eleven o'clock the boys paraded Windsor, St. Catherine, Metcalfe, Dorchester streets, and gave the public some idea of the unique musical treat that is in store for the people of London. On their return to the station they were photographed, and were later entrained in a special Intercolonial colonist car, in which they will make the journey to Levis.

The band includes fifty musicians, nineteen of whom are drummers, while 30 are buglars. The bugles are pitched to the keys of F and B flat, and this arrangement makes it possible for the men to render music of a very high order of excellence. The bugles, moreover, are clear and brilliant in tone, and carry the notes a long distance. The small drums are fifteen in number, the bass drums two, and the tenor drums two.

The band will remain in England for a period of two weeks, during which time it will meet several of the bugle corps of the British army in competition.

LOCK GATES REPLACED.

Damage Done by Ocean Being Repaired and Algerian Proceeds.

The upper gates of No. 2 lock of the Lachine canal, which were broken by the propeller Ocean, were replaced yesterday afternoon, and it was thus possible for the Richelieu and Ontario Company's steamer Algerian to pass up the locks about eight o'clock in the evening. The owners of the Ocean put up a cheque for $2,000 as a guarantee for the damage done, to the locks. It was at first feared that the gates of the lock were damaged so much as to render them useless, but upon investigation this was found not to be the case, and the old gates can be utilized. The Ocean was not damaged to the extent at first anticipated.

THE COMMERCIAL CONFERENCE

Resolution in Favour of a Fast Line Was Adopted To-day.

A BUSINESS-LIKE GATHERING

Motion Dealing With Increased Australian and African Steamship Service Adopted.

(See also page seven.)

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

TORONTO, June 5.—It was anticipated that the Dominion conference of Boards of Trade would this morning reach the important question of Imperial defence, which is likely to arouse the most exciting debate of the conference. But other less controversial matters were quite sufficient to occupy the commercial parliament during the whole of its morning session. The questions of commercial agents and steamship lines were the subjects of discussion. In the latter connection the judicious spirit in which the Montreal Board of Trade resolutions have been drafted was recognized by the conference adopting its resolution dealing with the general question. A specific resolution in favour of a fast Atlantic line was adopted. A resolution in reference to the conditions on which subsidies should be granted caused considerable discussion, and was defeated, several members urging that they had not had sufficient time to consider it. A motion dealing with increased Australian and African steamship service was adopted.

MINISTERS WERE PRESENT.

The discussions of the conference are conducted in a practical and businesslike fashion, and incidentally to the main subjects of debate much important commercial information is given to the conference by experts in various lines. There is no doubt that the congress will have a broadening effect upon those engaged in it. The members have had the advantage of meeting leading men in all departments of commerce from all parts of the Dominion, and have been enabled to better realize, than before, the resources and local commercial and industrial conditions of portions of the Dominion with which they are not personally acquainted. This morning the conference was visited by Hon. J. Israel Tarte and Hon. Mr. Paterson, and both ministers were received with applause on entering the Chamber. The conference resolved to hold a third day's sitting if necessary. On its adjournment at 1.15, it was entertained at luncheon by the Toronto Board of Trade.

CONSULAR AGENCIES.

After the conference had been called to order at 10 o'clock, the question of Canadian consular agencies was considered. The following resolution, which had been suggested by La Chambre de Commerce du District de Montreal, and the Valleyfield Chamber of Commerce, was moved by Mr. E. V. Roy, of Montreal, and Mr. S. T. Dudes, of St. Hyacinthe: Whereas, with a wish of extending the trade relations of Canada with foreign countries, it is urgent that the Federal Government should appoint commercial agents residing in the principal cities of the Old and New World, and whereas such commercial agents will be a help to our business men, either by introducing them to the leading commercial firms of their locality, or by furnishing most valuable information to the honourable the Minister of Trade and Commerce, be it resolved that the Imperial Government be requested to recognize and accredit to foreign governments the agents appointed by the Canadian Government, and to grant them the sufficient attributions and necessary powers to protect our rights.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED.

The matter was discussed by Mr. J. X. Perreault, Montreal, Mr. J. D. Allen, Toronto, and Mr. Munroe, Montreal, Saunders, of Goderich, and Bell, of Winnipeg. The manner in which the American Government is pushing its trade by means of commercial agents was referred to. It was explained that it was not desired to interfere with the British consular system, but to enhance the status of Canadian commercial agents.

The appointment of more commercial agents was urged, and by some it was suggested that if paid agents could not be afforded, men who would act voluntarily should be appointed. The resolution was adopted.

FAST ATLANTIC STEAMERS.

The Fast Atlantic Steamship service was introduced by Mr. G. S. Campbell, president of the Halifax Board of Trade. He contended that Canada had the shortest ocean route to Europe, and referred to the advantages which would accrue to Canada from a fast Atlantic line in connection with the quicker despatch of mails and perishable products. A fast line would cause the stream of Canadian travel which goes through Boston and New York to go to Canadian ports. He also referred to the Imperial advantages of a Canadian fast line and considered that in view of the Morgan Atlantic combine the present was a particularly favourable time for moving in the matter.

Mr. DeWolfe, Halifax, supported these views and declared Canada should have the best line of steamships possible.

THE GENERAL QUESTION.

It was decided by the conference to first take up the general question of Imperial steam communication, and Mr. James Thom moved the following resolution submitted by the Montreal Board of Trade:

"That this conference of Canadian Boards of Trade urges upon the representatives of Canada at the conference to be held in London in June next between British and Colonial statesmen to impress upon that gathering the importance of the Mother Country and the Colonies adopting a policy under which fast lines of steamships will be secured and retained for the development and control of trade between the United Kingdom and her possessions, and between the Colonies themselves, and for the provision of good mail services."

Mr. Thom dealt particularly with the importance of a steamship line to develop trade between Canada and South Africa, in view of the supplies which will be needed in the latter country now the war is over.

Mr. W. M. Jarvis, of St. John, N.B., seconded the motion. During the last three years he said the Empire had been greatly linked together in sentiment. These sentimental links should be supplemented by commercial links.

After some general discussion the resolution was unanimously adopted.

THE SPECIFIC QUESTION.

The specific question of a fast Atlantic line was then taken up, and Messrs. Campbell and DeWolfe, Halifax, moved and seconded the following, which is a composite of the resolution of the Toronto and Halifax Boards on the subject.

Resolved, that the establishment of a fast Atlantic steamship line from a Canadian port, to a port in Great Britain, would assist trade in the Dominion, would increase our export trade, especially in perishable products, would add greatly to the volume of passenger travel through Canadian channels, would give an impetus to ship-building in Canada, and would, with the aid of our transcontinental railway, bind the different portions of the Empire more closely together.

And it is further resolved, that speed should be the first consideration in the selection of ports of call and terminal ports, and that the conduct of the enterprise should be under the control of the Dominion Government.

And, furthermore, that this conference of Boards of Trade of the Dominion urges upon the Federal Government the importance of taking immediate action on this question, by providing adequate subsidies to secure the establishment of the service without further delay, and further that our representatives at the London conference be respectfully asked to seek financial support and co-operation from the Imperial Government, towards an undertaking of such importance to Canada and the Empire.

A REFORM URGED.

Mr. Watts, Toronto, urged a reform in the system of granting subsidies so as to provide for Government control of freight rates. He moved an amendment to the effect that the Government should make it a standing condition in all grants or subsidies that the rates charged from Canadian points shall be as low as the minimum rates through United States ports for similar distances on like products.

Mr. Thom, Montreal, believed it would be practically impossible to arrive at the minimum rate charged from American ports.

Mr. Drummond, Montreal, thought it was not wise to complicate the fast Atlantic resolution by inserting a condition of this kind in it.

Mr. Thomson, of Mitchell, referred to the provisions in the German Government's steamer subsidy contracts, which prevented the German lines being controlled by Mr. Morgan.

Captain Donnelly, Kingston, and Mr. Christopher Eaton, Owen Sound, supported the amendment. Mr. Wisham, Bobcaygeon, thought the amendment should apply not only to the fast Atlantic line, but to all lines. It was subsequently decided to drop the amendment and move it as a substantive motion. The resolution was then put and unanimously adopted.

Mr. Watts' subsidy motion was then further discussed. It was finally defeated by a vote of 32 to 42, the Montreal delegates voting against it.

MAY SIT TO-MORROW.

It was resolved that the conference shall sit to-morrow, if necessary, in order to conclude its business.

Mr. Allan, of Toronto, seconded by Mr. Coates, Ottawa, moved the following resolution, which after some discussion, chiefly of a favourable character, was adopted:

In view of the sentiment of the South African trouble and the consequent opening up of the country, as well as the impossibility of shipping heavy goods across this continent to Vancouver at a rate of freight too excessive to enable to ensure for Canada the Australian market for many lines of heavy goods,

Resolved, that this conference of Boards of Trade of the Dominion of Canada request the Government to consider the establishment of a cargo steam service from Montreal in summer and Maritime Province ports in winter, to be subsidized at so much per outward voyage, calling at Cape Town and proceeding to ports in Australia considered most desirable by the Government of Canada, thus enabling the development of business in heavier articles than is possible under the present conditions, the subsidy to be sufficiently large to enable rates to be made as low as prevailing rates from New York.

Further resolved, that the Government be requested to provide a faster service from Vancouver in order to provide a triweekly service instead of a monthly as at present.

The conference then adjourned for luncheon.

DRACONIAN LAWS

Are to be Enacted Against the Lacrosse Emigrants Who are Playing Havoc With C.A.L.U. Teams.

Lacrosse emigrants have been so numerous of late, and the teams of the Canadian Amateur Lacrosse Union are being so crippled thereby, that a movement is quietly on foot to frame and enact new lacrosse laws, which will have a salutary effect on the unstable players, or if not this to compel the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union to take some serious action. Cornwall has been the latest sufferer in this respect, and every Club has more or less suffered from the depredations of Ontario organizations this year.

If any move is made, it will not be a weak one, and it is more than likely that the lightest penalty asked for, will be a year's suspension.

THINKS OFFER FOR $2,000,000 CIVIC BONDS A VERY FAIR ONE.

The difference of the appreciation of the value of the bonds of the City of Montreal on the American and English markets was shown by the tenders submitted yesterday for the $2,000,000 to be sold by the Finance Committee. Last year when it was decided to sell bonds no upset price was placed and numerous tenders from American and Canadian firms were offered at prices varying from 95 to 96. Owing to the unsatisfactory condition of the English market at that time, caused by the South African war, no English firm was in a position to tender. This year, however, the Finance Committee decided to place an upset price of 98, considering that the bonds were worth at least this amount and might be sold even much nearer to par. Canadian and American firms were asked to tender but all replied that they could not do so with an upset price placed at 98. Ald. Laporte, chairman of the Finance Committee, conferred with Mr. Meredith, the manager of the Bank of Montreal, but the latter stated that his bank could not do anything at so high a price.

With the cessation of hostilities in South Africa, the English market showed an instant recovery, with the result that English firms have, during the past few days, found it possible to obtain very large sums of money. On this account the London firm of Coates, Son and Company, yesterday, cabled their Canadian agents, Messrs. Hanson Bros., volunteering to take the entire $2,000,000 at a shade over the upset price of 98. A prominent broker when seen today stated that had there been any competition the English firm would even have made a higher bid. In explaining the difference in the offers made by Canadian or American firms and the English firms, he stated that the market had become so brisk in the States and Canada that bankers could place their money to better advantage than in city bonds once the price went up so high. In his opinion the city had been very lucky to secure such an offer.

To Celebrate Corpus Christi Day.

On Sunday St. Ann's parish will hold a procession in honour of Corpus Christi Day. Among the societies which will join in the procession are St. Ann's Young Men's Temperance Society, Hibernian Society, Foresters, etc. The procession will leave St. Ann's Church at three o'clock. The following is the route which will be taken: Down McCord to William, William to Seigneurs, Seigneurs to Notre Dame, Notre Dame to Murray, Muray to Smith street, and thence back to the church. The route will be decorated.

General Manager's Inspection.

Mr. D. McNicoll, 2nd vice-president and general manager, and Mr. McHenry, chief engineer, have left for an inspection of the Quebec division of the Canadian Pacific. Mr. W. Spencer, general superintendent of the Eastern division, and Mr. Elliott, mechanical superintendent, returned to the city to-day after an inspection of the division as far as Chalk River.

Charged With Intimidation.

The trial of Hildge Blondin, charged with intimidation, is taking place in the Court of King's Bench to-day. It is claimed that while the electrical workers' strike was on a few weeks ago Blondin advised some men not to return to work. A verdict is expected to-night.

Counterfeit Notes in Circulation.

Five-dollar counterfeit Molsons Bank notes are in circulation just now. They have the number, "214,258 B" in the upper right-hand corner.

TO CHECKMATE SHIP COMBINE

Said Negotiations Far Advanced For Fast Anglo-Canadian Line.

FURNESS HEADS SYNDICATE

Lord Strathcona Denies An Allegation That He is Interested in the Project.

(See also Page 1.)

(Special by Cable from the Special Correspondent of the Montreal Star in London.)

LONDON, June 5.—This evening's papers publish elaborate statements to the effect that negotiations are very far advanced between the British and Canadian Governments and a great syndicate of capitalists headed by Sir Christopher Furness for a fleet of 25 knot steamers, magnificently equipped and running between Milford Haven and Canada, in conjunction with the Great Western Railway of England and the Canadian Pacific Railway under heavy British and Canadian mail and Admiralty subsidies and also allied with a fleet of fast cargo steamers, the whole forming an effectual checkmate to the shipping trust.

It is said that the plans are sufficiently far advanced to enable the company to be floated in a couple of weeks.

STRATHCONA NOT INTERESTED.

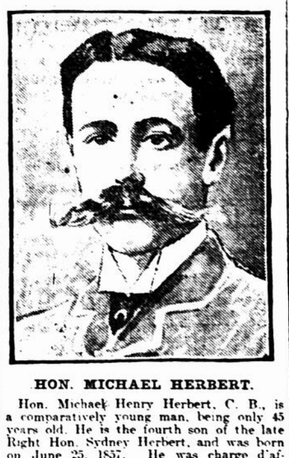
Lord Strathcona the Canadian High Commissioner, was interviewed to-day by the Montreal Star correspondent and denied the allegation that he is actively associated with any such project though he would not say that the negotiations were not on foot with Furness. There is certainly nothing definite arranged and whatever is afoot will await the arrival of the Colonial Premiers in London for possible co-operative action between the British, Canadian and Australasian ministers.

WINDERMERE.

NEW AMBASSADOR AT WASHINGTON.

Hon. Henry Michael Herbert is a Comparatively Young Man With Much Experience.

LONDON, June 5—The report that the Hon. Michael Henry Herbert, secretary of the British embassy at Paris, has been appointed ambassador of Great Britain to the United States to succeed the late Lord Pauncefote, is confirmed.



HON. MICHAEL HERBERT.

Hon. Michael Henry Herbert, C. B., is a comparatively young man, being only 45 years old. He is the fourth son of the late Right Hon. Sydney Herbert, and was born on June 25, 1857. He was charge d'affaires at Washington 1888-1889, secretary to the legation, 1892-93, secretary to the embassy at The Hague, 1893-94; Constantinople, 1894-97; Rome, 1897-98. In 1898 he was appointed secretary to the British embassy at Paris.

LONDON, June 5—The universality of the approval of the appointment of the Hon. Michael H. Herbert as Ambassador to the United States, in succession to the late Lord Pauncefote, is quite unusual. No dissent is heard anywhere. The afternoon newspapers, to-day, equally congratulate the Foreign Secretary, Lord Lansdowne, on his good choice, and to Mr. Herbert, on his good fortune.

PERCY QUINN NOT REFEREE.

Will Not be Able Even to Go to Toronto.

Mr. Percy Quinn, this afternoon, was compelled to notify President Bramley, of the Montreal Lacrosse Club, that he would be unable, through pressure of business, to act as referee at the Montreal-Cornwall match. The Shamrocks also would have liked him to have gone with them to Toronto.

Rev. Jas. Allan is President.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

TORONTO, Ont., June 5.—The Methodist Conference to-day elected Rev. Jas. Allan, M.A., of Sault Ste. Marie, formerly connected with the Montreal Conference, to the office of president. Rev. W. E. Hassard, was chosen secretary.

The Coronation Cup.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

LONDON, June 5. — The race for the Coronation cup of 1,000 sovereigns, run at Epsom to-day, was won by Lord Wolverton's Osboch (4 to 1), with "Danny" Maher up. William C. Whitney's Volodyorski was second. Six horses ran.

Kruger in Good Health.

THE HAGUE, June 5.—There is no foundation for the report that Mr. Kruger is ill. On the contrary, he is enjoying good health.

Will Form French Cabinet.

PARIS, June 5.—Senator Combes (Progressive Republican and ex-vice president of the Senate) has accepted the task of forming a new cabinet.

Distinguished American Visitors.

Governor Odell, of New York, and Congressman Sherman passed through the city last evening from Western Ontario in the Governor's private car Convoy. They had been enjoying some trout fishing and had good sport.

HAD ARM LACERATED.—James Conners, 35 years of age, of 65 Frontenac street, had his arm badly lacerated while at work to-day in the Montreal Gas Works. He was removed in the ambulance to the General Hospital.

HAD A NARROW ESCAPE.—While crossing Inspector street yesterday afternoon Mr. T. J. Potter had a narrow escape from being seriously injured by the reckless driving of a cabby. The vehicle passed Mr. Potter scarcely a foot away from where he stood. He had not noticed its approach, as his back was turned and the cab was provided with rubber tires.

HONG KONG TROOPS FOR THE CORONATION

Contingent will Arrive Here On Monday Night or Tuesday Morning

NATIVE INDIAN SOLDIERS

London-Bound Delegation Consists of Four Officers and Eighty-five Men.

The Coronation contingent from Hong Kong left Vancouver to-day at one o'clock by special train and will reach Montreal on Monday night or early Tuesday morning. The contingent consists of four officers and eighty-five men, of which forty-three are white volunteers and twenty-two are native Indian troops. Major Chapman is in command and Inspector Bell, of the C. P. R., is in charge of the train. The Indian troops have a special commissariat car set aside for them, where they do their killing and cooking, and the white troops are accommodated in a colonist car. They left Hong Kong, China, on May 14th, and arrived at Vancouver on the 3rd, a day ahead of time. They sail for Liverpool by the Tunisian on June 14th.

Amongst the other passengers for the Coronation are: Right Rev. Bishop Audry, D.D.; Hon. J. J. Irving Bell, Col. Sir Wm. Blair, Sir Francis Lovell, Lady Pearson, Mr. Gaspono Lemoine.

HOW SHALL MONTREAL ENTERTAIN HER VISITORS ON CORONATION DAY?

The Mayor, Ald. Ekers and Sadler, had an informal talk to-day with Lt.-Col. Roy, and a few other officers at the City Hall, in regard to entertaining the officers and men who will come to the city to take part in the big military demonstration on coronation day.

The opinion was unanimous that something should be done by the city, and the officers of the various regiments, to entertain the visitors. Ald. Ekers was of the opinion that there might be a reception at the City Hall, to the officers, etc. The chief difficulty encountered was the question of funds. Only a very small amount has been set aside by the city for social purposes, and it was shown the difficulty would have to be submitted to the Finance Committee which meets to-morrow. The whole question of entertaining the visitors will then be gone into. The Mayor said that he would proclaim June 26 a civic holiday. This will enable the people to witness the military demonstrations which are to take place.

WAS RUN DOWN BY A FURIOUS DRIVER.

Francis Nelson Gariepy, 37 years of age, of 283 Mountain street, was run down by a furious driver this afternoon in St. Paul street and had a very narrow escape from being trampled to death by the horse. He was seriously injured by the wheels of the vehicle, being dragged and rolled a considerable distance. His arm was torn and body badly bruised.

The victim was removed in the ambulance to the General Hospital. The officials of the institution are of the opinion he will recover.

PERSONALS.

(See also page five.)

Mr. E. S. Clouston sailed on the Majestic from New York yesterday.

Dr. T. G. Roddick, 80 Union avenue, leaves on a short visit to England in July.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Macdougall Paterson are sailing for Canada this week via New York.

Mrs. W. E. Paton has arrived in town from Sherbrooke, and is the guest of Mrs. H. S. Holt, Stanley street.

Captain J. R. Wynne of Winnipeg, Man., arrived from New York this morning accompanied by his son-in-law, Mr. A. L. O'Sullivan, and Mrs. O'Sullivan. They sail by the Parisian on Saturday to attend the coronation festivities, and will visit the continent and the Holy Land before they return.

The marriage of Miss Lily Hoerner to Mr. James Butler took place yesterday afternoon, the rector, Rev. C. G. Rollit, officiating. Miss Hoerner, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Mr. W. Cooper acted as best man. The bride was gowned in white. The ceremony was followed by a reception, and later Mr. and Mrs. Butler left on their wedding trip.

The marriage of Miss Louisa Maud Mitchell, second daughter of Mr. James Mitchell, of Park avenue, to Dr. Mackenzie, of Winnipeg, took place last evening at Trinity Church. The service was fully choral. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. G. Rollit, rector. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore her travelling gown. Miss Boyd was bridesmaid, and Dr. Fuller, of Sweetsburg, was best man. Dr. and Mrs. Mackenzie left immediately after the ceremony for the West.

The marriage took place in Toronto yesterday of Miss Emilie Frances Paterson, youngest daughter of the late Mr. Frederick I. Paterson, to Mr. George Edgar Gooderham. The ceremony was performed at St. Thomas' Church by the Rev. T. W. Paterson, uncle of the bride, assisted by the Rev. J. M. Davenport and the the Rev. J. O. Millar. The bride, who was gowned in white satin, chiffon and lace, and embroidered tulle veil, was given away by her brother, Mr. Percival Paterson. The bridesmaids were Miss Leah Walker and Miss Kate Cross, and the maid-of-honour, Miss Florence Paterson. Mr. Harry Gooderham was best man. A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother, and later Mr. and Mrs. Gooderham left on a tour through the Eastern States.

The marriage took place in Belleville yesterday at St. Michael's Church of Miss Regis M. Warrington, of Belleville, niece of Mr. James McShane, of Montreal, to Captain W. P. Murray, of the 9th Field Battery, Toronto, who served in South Africa in the second Canadian contingent. The ceremony, which was witnessed by a large number of guests, was performed by Rev. Dr. Tracy, of the Cathedral, Toronto, assisted by Rev. Mgr. Fanelly, of Belleville. The maid-of-honour was Miss Bertha Murray, of Toronto, sister of the groom. Mr. Charles Jansen, of New York, was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Charles Murray (Toronto), Mr. Z. H. Jarman (New York), Mr. Hughes (Toronto), and Mr. E. J. Butler. The bride, who was given away by her uncle, Mr. Duncan Warrington, of London, Eng., wore white Duchesse satin trimmed with old point lace and pearls, veil and orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley. The maid-of-honour was gowned in white Liberty satin, trimmed with lace and pearls, and wore a hat trimmed with lilies of the valley. The guests came from many points in Canada, England and the United States, and included the following from Montreal: Mr. and Mrs. James McShane, Miss Kathleen McShane, Mrs. Fred. H. Warrington, Miss Warrington, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm. The wedding breakfast was served at the residence of the bride's mother, and during the afternoon Mrs. Murray received in the drawing room under a magnificent bell of white roses and carnations. Later Captain and Mrs. Murray left for the Adirondacks to spend their honeymoon. The groom's gift to the maid-of-honour was a brooch of pearls and diamonds: to the best man, a diamond pin, and to the ushers, pearl pins. On their return from the honeymoon Captain and Mrs. Murray will reside on St. George street, Toronto.

THE MAN FROM GLENGARRY.

TROUBLE WAS OVER VALLEYFIELD RIOTS

Suit of Lt.-Col. Cooke Against Lt.-Col. F. Minden Cole.

MILITARY USAGE—CIVIL LAW

Major-General O'Grady-Haly Present But His Evidence Was Not Admitted.

The hearing in the suit of Lieut.-Col. J. P. Cooke, commanding officer of the First Prince of Wales Regiment of Fusiliers, against Lieut.-Col. F. Minden Cole, began yesterday before Mr. Justice Langelier. The first witness was the plaintiff himself, who was examined by Mr. R. C. Smith, K.C., for the plaintiff, and cross-examined by defendant's counsel, Mr. V. E. Mitchell, of the firm of McGibbon, Casgrain, Ryan and Mitchell. The history of the case was gone over, but nothing new was adduced. The matter is largely one in which the military regulations are supposed to conflict with the civil law, according to the pretensions of one of the parties. The trouble arose over the Valleyfield riots. Lieut.-Col. Cole, as the senior officer of the district, was in command, while Lieut.-Col. Roy was at Valleyfield with the troops. He ordered Lieut.-Col. Cooke to parade his men for service at Valleyfield, but the latter replied that his men were at the Drill Shed in uniform without orders, and that he would not order a parade of the regiment unless it was arranged that the men should be paid. Lieut.-Col. Cole thereupon ordered him under arrest. The matter was referred to the General Officer Commanding, Major-General O'Grady-Haly, who, while liberating Lieut.-Col. Cooke, justified the conduct of officer under arrest had not given sufficient explanation at the time.

The cross-examination of Lieut.-Col. Cooke was interrupted yesterday to allow of the examination of Major-General O'Grady-Haly as a witness for the defence. Several questions regarding military regulations were put to the general, but they were objected to by Mr. R. C. Smith, K.C., for plaintiff, on the ground that the civil rights of the parties and not the military standing of either was at issue in the case. Mr. Justice Langelier maintained the objection. Mr. Smith insisted strongly on the fact that Lieut.-Col. Cooke was not in uniform at the time of the arrest, and was, therefore, present not as an officer, but as a private citizen. Besides the claim for damages for false arrest, the plaintiff seeks damages on the ground that the defendant gave to the newspapers information which caused them to publish accounts of the affair that were of a nature to hurt the plaintiff.

LIEUT.-COL. ROY ON THE STAND.

Lieut.-Col. Roy was called into the box and examined by Mr. R. C. Smith, K.C. He told of the interview with Lieut.-Col. Cooke at which it had been agreed that the latter should not turn out his men that night. When the decision of the General Officer Commanding was received he had communicated it to Lieut.-Col. Cooke, who protested so strongly against the decision that the witness took it upon himself to return the document to Ottawa. At first Lieut.-Col. Roy was under the impression that he had given communication of the document to Lieut.-Col. Cole a day or so after Lieut.-Col. Cooke had seen it.

The defendant called Lt.-Col. Vidal, who was present with the official record of the case, to produce a letter from headquarters' staff in reply to the letter of Lt.-Col. Roy, giving dates at which he had communicated the decision to the officers interested. Mr. Smith objected to the production of this letter as an attempt to introduce proof already ruled out. It was agreed, however, that the letter could be shown the witness to refresh his memory. The witness, after reading, declared that he had read the decision to Lt.-Col. Cooke on November 8 and to Lt.-Col. Cole only about December 19.

"Why did you not show the decision to Lt.-Col. Cole earlier?" asked Mr. Mitchell.

"From the action of Col. Cooke and his apparent great dissatisfaction at the reprimand, I felt justified in placing the affair before the General before communicating it to any other officer," was the reply.

Lt.-Col. Roy declared that he had not communicated the decision to the other officers who had been present at the time of the arrest, because Lt.-Col. Cooke had made such strenuous objections that he had returned the document to Ottawa, and considered the circumstances changed when the decision came back, so he did not communicate the document to the other officers who had assisted at the arrest.

Witness said he gave Col. Cole an extract of the paragraph which regarded him, and likewise gave Col. Cooke an extract of the same nature with regard to his portion of the decision. He did not remember that he had told Col. Cole to communicate the decision to no one but Captains Motherwell and Cole, but he knew that he had mentioned to the officers that this was confidential. He did not remember that either officer had promised not to communicate it to any one else.

In cross-examination, Lieut.-Col. Roy said that he did not remember whether the Major-General's decision had been marked "confidential," but he had considered it so. A certified copy of the decision was produced to speak for itself. He said Lieut.-Col. Cole had called a second time to see the decision. He had given him an extract of the paragraph concerning himself, and read to him the decision of the General Officer Commanding. Lieut.-Col. Cole had taken no extract, and, in fact, the witness emphatically declared that he would not have allowed anybody to make an extract. On the evening of the departure of witness for Valleyfield he had a conversation over the telephone with Lieut.-Col. Cole, in which it had been agreed that the latter should take the command during the absence of the D.O.C. The witness stated, however, that he had forgotten to tell Lieut.-Col. Cole that he had had an interview with Lieut.-Col. Cooke and that it had been decided that the Fusiliers should not be called out on parade.

On re-examination witness said Lt.-Cols. Starke, Massey, and Prevost, and other officers, were seniors to Lieut.-Col. Cole, but none of them could be placed in charge of the district, as they were not commanding officers.

Mr. B. A. Macnab, managing editor of the Star, was called and examined by Mr. Smith (who endeavoured to elicit information as to the source of information upon which were based two items, one headed "Cooke as a Home Guard," published October 28th, 1900, and another "Lieut.-Col. Cooke Sharply Reproved," published December 31st. The witness refused to answer the questions, unless compelled to do so, and asked that the court grant him time to take legal advice on the advisability of replying. This was granted.

Major Finlayson, second in command to Lieut.-Col. Cooke, stated that he had been present when the order came for a parade of the regiment, and he corroborated the evidence of his commanding officer as to what occurred then.

The officers were sitting in their private room discussing the holding of a dinner on the birthday of the present King, when the order came. There were some of the men present, and Lieut.-Col. Cole had asked the witness, as senior officer of the regiment on the ground, to keep them in order, as it would be better than letting them out on the street, where they might get drunk, and into trouble. A short time after the message came, Lieut.-Col. Cole told the witness about the arrest, but he had received no orders to parade the regiment. Witness knew earlier in the day that the regiment was not to be paraded that night, because on receiving a telephone message from Adjutant Ferguson asking him to call out the regiment he had communicated with the District Officer Commanding, and Lieut.-Col. Roy said that Col. Cooke had told him earlier in the day that he did not feel disposed to order a voluntary parade that night.

REFUSED TO GIVE INFORMATION.

At this afternoon's session, Mr. B. A. Macnab absolutely refused to give the source of information upon which the article in the Star, of issue December 31, and headed "Lieut.-Col. Cooke Severely Reproved," was based, on the ground that it might incriminate himself. The judge upheld him in this. Lieut.-Col. Vidal was called, and produced some of the official documents in the case.

THE MINERS WENT OUT.

A Strike at Springhill Which Was of Short Duration.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

SPRINGHILL, June 4. — All the miners in the Springhill collieries went out on a strike last night. Some time ago the men agitated for an increase of pay to four cents a box. The demand was granted, but yesterday the miners were notified of a reduction in pay to two cents a box. The result was that the men quit work last night.

The mines to-day are idle. The reduction only affected some of the men, but all hands have gone out. The miners are collected in large numbers about the town. They are making no demonstration, but are loud in their denunciation and condemnation of the action of the management.

The bosses have communicated with Manager Cowans, who is in Montreal, and it is understood that a compromise will be effected and the men will return to work shortly.

THE COMPANY'S SIDE.

A Settlement Has Been Reached, Says the Secretary.

Mr. H. R. Drummond, the Secretary of the Cumberland, Coal and Railway Company, when seen to-day regarding the difficulty remarked that incipient strikes or stampedes occur very frequently at the mines but are usually easily settled. He said he was not in possession of all the details in reference to the present dispute, but it had been amicably settled and the mines are all running as usual.

LOOKING TO WASHINGTON.

President Roosevelt Will Try and Solve the Strike Problem.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., June 5.—The eyes of the striking coal miners were turned today toward the White House, at Washington. There is a strong belief here that, as suggested by the New York Board of Trade, President Roosevelt will try to work out a solution of the problem.

Reports come into Wilkesbarre almost hourly of men being attacked going to or from the mines. The attacking parties are mainly boys and young men, who throw stones.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., June 5. — Owing to the scarcity of non-union men here, the Union and Mineral Coal Companies were forced to-day to put main office clerks to work in the boiler rooms of their collieries. The strikers made no demonstration against them. The Ninth District United Mine Workers' headquarters to-day reports all collieries in the local district free of union men.

CANADA'S GIFT TO MARTINIQUE.

The Donation by This Country Has Produced Many Favourable Comments in France.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

OTTAWA, June 5.—The Hon. Mr. Fielding has received a communication from Mr. Hector Fabre, agent of the Dominion Government at Paris, France, stating that he had conveyed to Mr. Decrais, Minister for the Colonies of France, the message of Mr. Fielding, expressing the deep sympathy of the people of Canada with the sufferers by the appalling disaster in Martinique, and had told him that the Canadian Government desired to contribute $25,000 to the relief funds. Mr. Fabre states that the Minister was deeply touched by the sympathy expressed on behalf of the Government and people of Canada and he wished to have conveyed to the Canadian Government and people grateful acknowledgment of the very generous contribution to the Martinique fund. He also added that such a mark of sympathy coming from a country like Canada would go to the heart of every Frenchman. Mr. Fabre adds that since the announcement in the press of France of the message and contribution, he has received from many quarters, words of thanks and proofs that public sentiment in France has been deeply moved by an act so spontaneous and so generous on the part of Canada.

CHICAGO TEAMSTERS' STRIKE SETTLED.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

CHICAGO, June 5. — The packing house teamsters' strike, which has disturbed the peace of the city for nearly two weeks, and which yesterday caused the most serious rioting that has occurred since the American Railway Union strike of 1894, came to an end at 4.15 o'clock this morning, as the result of a secret conference between representatives of the packers and the teamsters at the Grand Pacific Hotel, which had been in session since eight o'clock last evening. The agreement reached at the conference is a partial victory for the teamsters, in that the packers have declared that they will not discriminate against members of the union. The scale agreed upon is two cents lower than that demanded by the men.

ERUPTION IN RUSSIA.

A Mud Volcano Does Damage — No Lives are Lost.

BAKU, Russia, June 5.—The Gusygran, a mud volcano, near the village of Kobi, Caucasia, has erupted, accompanied by cannon-like reports. The country around the volcano, for some distance, was enveloped in flames; but no fatalities have been reported. A few shepherds were injured and some flocks of sheep destroyed.

BRISSON ALSO DECLINES.

Ex-Premier of France Not Willing to Form a Ministry.

PARIS, June 5.—M. Henri Brisson, (the ex Premier, who is a Radical Republican in politics), went to the Elysee Palace, to-day, as a result of President Loubet's summons, and was asked to form a new cabinet. He declined.

Wheat Market Unsettled.

(From the special correspondent of the Montreal Star on the Chicago Board of Trade.)

CHICAGO, June 5.—Wheat was irregular and unsettled. July sold at 71 7-8c up to 72 3-8c, and off to 71 3-4c; Sept. at 70 1-4c to 70 7-8c to 70 5-8c. They closed last night at 72 and 70 1-4c respectively. Trade was mainly professional, but the volume of business large and the feeling unsettled and irregular. Rains in South-West caused that section to cover short contracts freely. More rain is predicted. Armour was again taking on July, and the buying of December was especially strong.

Declines in Wall Street.

NEW YORK, June 5.—The few stocks traded in at the opening showed very narrow changes, but the selling orders slightly outweighed the buying. Texas and Pacific lost a point, and Canadian Pacific and Reading declined sharp fractions. Prices worked lower under the influence of heaviness in Amalgamated and a decline to the lowest again in Canadian Pacific. Reading made a momentary spurt to yesterday's closing level, and the St. Louis and San Francisco stocks were bid up, but all relapsed later. International Power opened 10 points off at 60.

THE MONTREAL BOARD OF TRADE IDEAS ENDORSED

The Preferential Trade Resolution Recommended by That Body Adopted at Toronto Conference With Additional Clause Declaring in Favour of a Royal Commission to Consider the Question.

(Special Staff Correspondence of the Montreal Star.)

TORONTO, Ont., June 5.—The conference of Dominion Boards of Trade showed yesterday that it is composed of business men, for it worked steadily along until 11 p. m., instead of adjourning at 6 o'clock as had been originally intended. It disposed of several of the 20 subjects on the programme, including the heavy question of Imperial trade relations. The Montreal Board of Trade's resolution, declaring in general terms in favour of a British preference to colonial products, had the honour of being adopted. The conference by degrees came to see that it was better not to go into details, and the various amendments which had been proposed during the morning were rejected, the only change made to the original motion being the addition to it by the Montreal Board of a clause from the Toronto Board's resolution, requesting the Premier to urge at the coronation conference the appointment of a Royal commission to consider how the preference can be best accorded.

This was followed by the passage of a resolution adopted at the instance of the Winnipeg delegates, asking for a specific preference for Canadian grain in connection with the recently imposed British corn duties.

In connection with trade matters, there was a general feeling that German discrimination against Canada should be met by countervailing duties, and a resolution in this connection was adopted. Quite a lengthy discussion arose over a proposal that the preferential tariff should not apply to British goods imported through United States ports, and ultimately a compromise resolution suggested by Mr. Munro, of Montreal, was adopted, by which it is recommended that British goods imported through American ports should get a preference of only 25 per cent., instead of 33 1-3 per cent. Resolutions dealing with the cattle embargo, a State owned Canadian-Australian cable, and a Canadian commercial depot in London, were also passed.

The visiting delegates will be lunched today by the Toronto Board of Trade, at the Provincial Government buildings, and will be given a banquet at the Pavilion, this evening.

MR. PERRAULT'S VIEWS.

At the opening of the afternoon session of the conference, the chairman ruled that the proposed amendment by Mr. Wilkie, Toronto, to the Montreal preferential trade resolution, in which defence was referred to committee with the trade question was not in order. Mr. Wilkie then withdrew both of his amendments.

Mr. J. X. Perrault, of Montreal, delegate from the Gaspe board of trade, said the question of preferential trade was not a new one. He had supported Sir Chas. Tupper at the congress of chambers of commerce in London in 1892, in asking for a preference in the British market. Then it might have been said that Canada was going hat in hand for a perference. But now conditions were entirely changed. The people of Quebec believed we should get some return for the 33 1-3 per cent. preference we had given Great Britain. We should ask for it as business men, not hat in hand. We should say, we have given you a certain preference, you give us our preference. If we are liable to be attacked as a portion of the Empire, and consequently to have to bear arms in the Empire's cause, the least Great Britain can do is to give us a preference on our goods. "That," said Mr. Perrault "is our opinion in Quebec, there are no two words about that." This sentiment was loudly applauded by Mr. Perrault's French speaking colleagues. Mr. Perrault said that the day had come when Britain could not keep her position as a European power unless she makes her colonies nations. The Montreal Board's resolution had been carefully prepared and he supported it.

Mr. D. Masson, president of the Montreal Chamber of Commerce, joined with Mr. Perrault in supporting the Montreal Board's resolution. It involved all responsibility as to details, leaving them to be thrashed out by the premiers at the conference.

Mr. Thos. Conlon, of Thorold, was opposed to the whole principle of the resolution. Sir Wilfrid Laurier should do the same at the coronation, as he did at the jubilee. To mutually impose taxes for each other's benefit would leave the Englishmen cursing Canada or Canadians cursing Englishmen.

Here Messrs. C. N. Bell, and C. Young, of Winnipeg, raised a kick because they were not permitted under the chairman's ruling to bring up as a substantive motion the following resolution:

"Whereas Great Britain has placed an import duty on agricultural products from her colonies as well as from other countries; and whereas the building up of the colonies is the surest and best means of strengthening the Empire and providing for its defence, and whereas the volume of immigration to and development of the colonies, and of Canada especially, largely depends on the encouragement given to develop their agricultural resources; be it resolved that this conference requests the Hon. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Premier of Canada, to urge most strongly upon the Government of Great Britain the extreme advisability of arranging the import duty on agricultural produce into Great Britain so that a preference be given to the said products imported from Canada and other colonies, as against the importations from foreign countries.

They contended that this was a specific matter, and apart from the question of a general preference.

It was ultimately decided to allow this resolution to be brought up at a later stage as a substantive motion.

The discussion on the general question of preference then continued, most of the members supporting in the main the Montreal Board's resolution, although Mr. Jacques Bureau, M.P., thought it a little too broad.

Ultimately the various amendments which had been moved to the Montreal Board's resolution were put and lost, and the resolution, including the clause from the Toronto Board's resolution, which Mr. Drummond had accepted, was carried by a considerable majority.

CANADA AND GERMANY.

Capt. Donnelly, president of the Kingston Board, seconded by Mr. Ellis, of Toronto, moved a resolution urging the imposition of countervailing duties against Germany, for her discrimination against Canada. There was general agreement that the discrimination should be so met, but some members urged that it would injure certain Canadian trades if Germany were specifically mentioned.

Mr. McKee, Montreal, seconded by Mr. J. D. Allan, of Toronto, moved an amendment in favour of retaliatory treatment against all countries discriminating against Canada, and the amendment was carried.

BRITISH GRAIN DUTIES.

The Manitoba delegates then moved their resolution urging amendment of the British grain duties in favour of Canadian grain, striking out from it the words "providing for the Empire's defence" in deference to the chairman's ruling that defence and trade must be kept separate.

Mr. C. H. Bell, Winnipeg, said that the Western delegates, when they got back, were going to Minneapolis to a conference to consider reciprocity with the United States. They wanted to go to that conference, saying they had hopes of preferential treatment from Great Britain, and in a position to ask the Americans what better they had to offer. He also referred to the fact that Manitoba wheat was being ground in Minneapolis and carried to England under a preferential freight rate, which meant a discrimination of 4 cents a barrel against Canadian ground flour.

After some little discussion the resolution was adopted.

PREFERENTIAL TARIFF.

Mr. Hatheway, St. John, N. B., moved his resolution to the effect that the 33 1-3 British preference tariff should be only allowed on goods shipped through Canadian ports. It was seconded by Hon. J. D. Rolland, of Montreal, who spoke of the duty of Canadians to build up Canadian ports.

Mr. Kemp, M. P., Toronto, sympathized with the motive of the resolution, but believed there were practically difficulties against it, in connection with shipping goods and in connection with bonding privileges. It would nullify the advantages of the preference without securing the object desired.

Mr. Geo. Robertson, St. John, N. B., made a strong speech for the building up of the Maritime provinces ports.

Mr. J. E. Dewolf, Halifax, also strongly supported the resolution.

Mr. W. H. King, St. Thomas, said that half of the Grand Trunk traffic came through American ports. The resolution would strike the Canadian railways and he therefore opposed it. Mr. Hugh Blain, Toronto, said he imported goods from many British possessions, with which Canada had no direct lines of communication. Canadian trade conditions were yet too crude for the passage of such a resolution as this.

Mr. John Russell, Winnipeg, said the western delegates were unanimously of the opinion that this resolution should not be adopted at the present time. It would deprive the west of one half of the benefits of the preference.

The conference here adjourned for dinner.

Upon reassembling at 8 o'clock, Mr. Hatheway's motion was further discussed pro and con. Among those speaking to it was Mr. Robert Munro, of Montreal; who while sympathetically inclined to the motion, said he considered the remedy proposed was much too drastic.

Capt. Gaskin, of Kingston, considered in view of the manner in which the United States treated Canadian shipping it was a great mistake to allow the preference to apply to British goods imported via the United States.

Mr. Amyot, Quebec, also supported the motion.

Mr. Munro, Montreal, subsequently moved as an amendment that the preference upon British goods shipped by United States ports should be 25 per cent. instead of 33 1-3 per cent. Mr. C. S. Campbell, Halifax, seconded this, and Mr. Drummond, Montreal, supported it. This led to considerable argument.

Ultimately, Mr. Hatheway accepted Mr. Munro's amendment, which was carried by a considerable majority.

EMBARGO ON CATTLE.

The following resolution submitted by the Brantford Board of Trade, was moved by Mr. Cockshutt:

"Resolved—that the members of this conference of boards of trade of the Dominion of Canada are of the opinion that the coming imperial conference in June, will afford an opportunity to negotiate for the removal of the embargo into Great Britain, inasmuch as the present prohibition prejudicially affects Canadian stock raisers, and no contagious disease is known to exist in our herds."

It was carried after a protest from Mr. Ransford, of Clinton, who claimed as a farmer and shipper that it was better that things should remain as they are. It was for the Canadian farmer to ship cattle in a fatted condition than as stockers.

STATE OWNED CABLE.

The conference then took up Sir Sanford Fleming's scheme for a state owned cable system, and the following resolution moved by Mr. Geo. Y. Chown, of Kingston, and seconded by Mr. John Coates, of Ottawa, was carried unanimously, with but little discussion: "That, it is of first importance to have the best means of maintaining the freest and cheapest intercourse between all parts of the empire and that therefore the policy adopted in establishing a state owned cable from Canada to Australia should be as soon as practicable be extended, in order that there may be a complete line of British cables round the globe."

CANADA IN LONDON.

Upon motion of Mr. J. D. Allan, of Toronto, the following resolution, after some little discussion, was adopted: "Resolved—that this conference holds the opinion that provision should not be made at the earliest possible time for a practical trade representation of the Dominion of Canada in London, by the establishment in that city of a depot of exhibition, presided over by business experts, having at their head a man of comprehensive knowledge of Canadian products, the whole purpose and scope of the enterprise being the increase of Canadian trade throughout the empire and Europe and the direction of the attention of the people of the British Isles to the products and capacities of Canada, both as to emigration and investment."

The conference then adjourned till 10 o'clock to-day.

EASTERN TOWNSHIPS BANK.

Mr. William Farwell Elected to the Presidency.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

SHERBROOKE, June 5.—At the annual meeting of the Eastern Townships Bank, held in this city yesterday, the important business aside from the usual routine matters was the election of president to succeed R. W. Heneker, Esq., who has resigned and will retire to England. The choice fell upon Mr. Wm. Farwell, since 1861 general manager of the institution.

His election to the presidency is considered a fitting recognition of the valuable services Mr. Farwell has rendered the Bank during the past 42 years. Under his management the Eastern Townships Bank has taken a leading position among institutions of its kind in the country.

THE GAYNOR-GREENE CASE UP ONCE MORE

Gaynor Makes Deposition and Counsel Files a Reply

NO OFFENCE WAS COMMITTED

This is the Argument Used by Mr. Taschereau—Affidavits Submitted.

QUEBEC, June 5.—Colonel Gaynor and Captain Greene were brought from gaol to the Court House, yesterday afternoon, where, in the presence of the clerk of the Crown, they swore to the following affidavit, in answer to the petition of the U. S. Government, to quash the writ of habeas corpus:

1. I am the petitioner for a writ of habeas corpus in the present case.

2. On the 5th day of March last I arrived at the city of Quebec and have taken up my domicile in said city and intend to retain it therein.

3. On the 15th of May last I was arrested under the following circumstances:

On the morning of the 15th of May last I was in the Hotel Chateau Frontenac, at Quebec, when one McLaughlin, of Montreal, who represented himself to be a peace officer, came to me and arrested me, under the supposed authority of the warrant produced in this case. Upon my enquiring before what judge I was to be brought, he told me that it was Judge Chauveau. I then asked him to allow me to take my overcoat, which he refused, and he pushed me into a cab, where two other constables were sitting. The cab then started for the lower town, and I then screamed to a friend of mine, whom I saw on the street, telling him that I was being kidnapped. McLaughlin then put his hand on my mouth to prevent me from calling. In a few minutes we reached the Richelieu wharf, and I was violently pushed into the boat, where I found Captain Greene. Steam was up and we left immediately. We reached Batiscan at about half-past six in the afternoon. On my way up to Montreal Carpenter told me that he had resorted to these means so as to prevent a writ of habeas corpus being served upon him, and that he did not want a repetition of what had been done in the Eno case.

PROTESTED STRONGLY.

5. I was placed on board of the said tug against my will and I strongly protested against the treatment to which I was subjected.

6. We reached Montreal about three o'clock in the morning of the 16th and we immediately were driven to the Windsor Hotel. At half-past six we were brought before Ulric Lafontaine, Esq., at his house.

7. Mr. Lafontaine had evidently been notified that we would appear before him early in the morning, as he was then ready to receive us. We were immediately remanded by him, and Mr. Erwin then gave a deposition identifying us.

8. From there we were sent back to the Windsor Hotel, and on the Sunday following, when my counsels tried to speak to me, access was refused them.

9. I am credibly informed that the writ of habeas corpus, addressed to said S. H. Carpenter, was issued at Quebec, at about half-past three o'clock in the afternoon, of the said 15th of May, and we were then within the limits of the district of Quebec.

10. I positively swear that a plan has been concocted to get me away from the district of Quebec, in which jurisdiction I have taken up my domicile.

11. I verily believe that the said Ulric Lafontaine, Esq., has been a party to the said plot, and that he arranged matters, so as to remand me at an early hour after my arrival in Montreal, so as to assume jurisdiction over me and remove me completely from the jurisdiction of the city of Quebec, to which I belong.

REPLY OF COUNSEL.

Mr. Taschereau, on behalf of the accused, also filed his reply to the petition of the United States Government to quash the writs of habeas corpus. By his reply counsel for accused alleges that the writ of habeas corpus was issued by Judge Andrews, who had full jurisdiction in the matter; that accused were violently carried away from their domicile at Quebec, on 15th May last, in virtue of a warrant illegally issued by U. Lafontaine, of Montreal; that immediately after their arrest they were illegally imprisoned and detained by Carpenter on board the Spray, and conveyed to Montreal; that Carpenter having refused to submit to the first writ issued and then decided that the accused were no longer in his charge; the accused then found themselves in the hands of the Montreal municipal police, without knowing who detained them; that the detention commenced in Quebec, was continued throughout the different districts through which they passed before arriving in Montreal in virtue of the same warrant; that petitioners were deceived when arrested at Quebec, being led to believe that they were going to be brought before a Quebec judge, while in reality immediately after their arrest they were placed on board the tug Spray, without granting them leave to see their counsel, and conveyed to Montreal; that when the writs of habeas corpus were issued the petitioners were still in the limits of the district of Quebec; that the writs of habeas corpus, firstly, issued were not served, because Carpenter and the men accompanying him refused to stop the Spray, opposite Three Rivers, although so required to do by High Constable Gale; that Carpenter himself admitted that all the proceedings were taken to prevent the petitioners from having recourse to habeas corpus proceedings; that in Montreal the accused were only allowed to communicate with their counsel at midnight, on the intervention of Ald. Lebeuf; that the only object in taking the proceedings at the time and since the arrest of the accused were to take them away from the jurisdiction of their domicile; that the motions made to set aside the writs of habeas corpus were illegal and null, and were not made by any party authorized so to do; that the present writs of habeas corpus were only alias writs of the first or continuation of the same and which could not be executed owing to the illegal proceedings of Carpenter, and in which the representatives of the pretended intervenants took part.

The petition concludes by stating that the petitioners did not commit any offence against the treaty between Great Britain and the United States and that all proceedings against them are illegal, null and void.

A number of affidavits signed by High Constable Gale, Mr. Cannon, and others, in support of the above were also filed on record.

MEDICAL EXAMINER

Of the United States Treasury Recommends Pe-ru-na.

The Women Also Recommend Pe-ru-na.

Miss Blanch Grey, 174 Alabama street, Memphis, Tenn., a society woman of Memphis, writes:

"To a society woman whose nervous force is often taxed to the utmost from lack of rest and irregular meals, I know of nothing which is of so much benefit as Peruna. I took it a few months ago when I felt my strength giving away, and it soon made itself manifest in giving me new strength and health."—Miss Blanch Grey.

Mrs. X. Schneider, 2409 Thirty-seventh Place, Chicago, Ill., writes:

"After taking several remedies without result, I began last year to take your valuable remedy, Peruna. I was a complete wreck. Had palpitation of the heart, cold hands and feet, female weakness, no appetite, trembling, sinking feeling nearly all the time. You said I was suffering from systemic catarrh, and I believe that I received your help in the nick of time. I followed your directions carefully, and can say to-day that I am well again. I cannot thank you enough for my cure."

Peruna cures catarrh wherever located. Peruna is not a guess nor an experiment—it is an absolute scientific certainty. Peruna has no substitutes—no rivals. Insist upon having Peruna.

A free book written by Dr. Hartman, on the subject of Catarrh in its different phases and stages, will be sent free to any address by The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.

Catarrh is a systemic disease curable only by systemic treatment. A remedy that cures catarrh must aim directly at the depressed nerve centres. This is what Peruna does.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

Dr. Llewellyn Jordan.

DR. LLEWELLYN JORDAN, Medical Examiner of the U.S. Treasury Department, graduate of Columbia College, and who served three years at West Point, has the following to say of Peruna:

"Allow me to express my gratitude to you for the benefit derived from your wonderful remedy. One short month has brought forth a vast change and I now consider myself a well man after months of suffering. Fellow sufferers, Peruna will cure you."

Peruna immediately invigorates the nerve-centres which give vitality to the mucous membranes. Then catarrh disappears. Then catarrh is permanently cured. 132 1

Miss Mary Morton, is dead in Wareham, aged twenty-nine.

HAMILTON, Ont.—Harry Kuntz, a well known brewer, died on Wednesday from a complication of diseases, after a somewhat prolonged illness. He was 48 years of age.

TORONTO.—Thomas E. Howard, one of the oldest commercial travellers in Toronto, is dead.

Solomon Gage, farmer, of Beach Road, is dead, aged 67.

TORONTO. — George W. Anderson, for 18 years, the Trombonist in the Grand Opera House and Hanlan's Point orchestras, is dead.

Deaths by Accidents.

ST. CATHARINES, Ont.—On Thursday afternoon, Thomas Cashin, an employe of the Water Works Department, was almost instantly killed. A new main is being laid on Chestnut street, and Cashin was at work in the trench when the gravel bank caved in, crushing him beneath it.

QUEBEC.—Geo. A. Tardif, formerly a Quebec merchant, was killed at Broughton Station, by falling under the wheels of a train, which he attempted to board, while it was in motion.

Domestic and Foreign Missions.

BELLEVILLE, June 5. — The sixteenth annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Church of England in Canada, for the diocese of Ontario, began last night in St. Thomas Church, Belleville. A large number of delegates are in attendance. His Lordship Archbishop Bond yesterday addressed the Auxiliary. Miss Carter, of the Mission House, New York, delivered an address last night.

Mgr. Falconio and Washington.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

OTTAWA, June 5. — Although reports cabled from London states that Mgr. Falconio is to be translated to Washington, to replace Cardinal Martinelli, the former has had no information of any such change. Mgr. Falconio will take part in the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of Laval University on the 18th inst.

THE FRENCH CABINET.

Mr. Bourgeois Has Declined to Form a Ministry.

PARIS, June 5. — President Loubet asked M. Bourgeois to form a Cabinet to replace that of M. Waldeck-Rousseau, which resigned, but he declined on the ground that his health was not good. M. Brisson has been requested to call at the palace of the Elysee to-day.

It is understood that M. Loubet will offer M. Brisson the task of forming a new Cabinet, but in view of M. Brisson's expressed determination not to form a Cabinet, nor to enter the new Ministry, the general expectation that M. Combes, member of the Senate from Charente-Inferieure, would be asked to accept this mission. M. Combes' Ministry will probably include the retention of M. Delcasse, Gen. Andree and M. Legues, formerly Ministers of Foreign Affairs, War and Public Instruction respectively, the appointment of M. Crappi (Radical), member of Chamber of Deputies, and a well known lawyer, to the post of Minister of Justice, and that of Deputy Camille Pelletan, Radical Socialist, as Minister of Marine.

English Catholics Will Celebrate.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

LONDON, June 5. — The Times announces that Cardinal Vaughan and the Roman Catholic Bishops of England have arranged for a general celebration here of the Pope's silver jubilee. For the purpose of presenting His Holiness with a tiara embellished with precious stones they are raising a substantial sum of money. They are also organizing pilgrimages on an extensive scale, and preparing to hold special ceremonies in all the Roman Catholic churches early next year.

Dr. Chase in the Lumber Camp.

The Exposure and Hardships of Camp Life Bring on Kidney Disease, Backache and Rheumatism —The Lumberman's Favourite Remedy is

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS

It is to the teamsters, farmers, railroaders, lumbermen, above all others, that Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills prove their marvellous control over kidney disease, backache and accompanying ills. Exposure to cold, dampness, sudden change of temperature and the strain and jar of active, vigorous life, frequently bring on derangements of the kidneys, bowels and bladder, and consequent pains and aches in back and limbs.

Mr. John Orr, lumberman, Trenton, Ont., states: "Through exposure to all sorts of weather in the lumber camp, and as a result of the strain of my work, I became a sufferer from kidney disease, which in my case took the form of very severe pains across the back, over the kidneys and down the hips. When in the woods cutting down trees these pains would come on me with such force that I would have to give up work and return to camp, entirely used up.

"Finding that a number of the boys in camp used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, I decided to try them, and did so with splendid results, as they thoroughly cured me. I feel like my old self again, and can work just as good as the next one. I am grateful for this cure, and honestly believe that Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are the greatest medicine there is for kidney disease."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have by far the largest sale in Canada of any similar preparation. They have proven their right to a place in every home as the most thoroughly reliable medicine that science has devised. They are prompt and natural in action, and regulate and invigorate the kidneys, liver and bowels as no other medicine was ever known to do. You can scarcely meet a person but can tell you of remarkable cures brought about by this treatment. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. 24 1

ONTARIO AND QUEBEC CONGREGATIONAL UNION.

Annual Session Was Convened in Ottawa Yesterday—The Quebec Delegates.

OTTAWA, June 5. — The 49th annual meeting of the Congregational Union of Ontario and Quebec opened yesterday morning in the First Congregational church, with upwards of 100 lay and ministerial delegates in attendance.

The principle business of the morning was the election of union secretaries and committees, which resulted as follows: General secretary, Rev. James T. Daly, Maxville; minute secretary, Rev. H. T. Thomas, Toronto, and Rev. J. Alexander, Middleville.

The secretary's report of the Canada Congregational Missionary Society was presented by Rev. W. McIntosh, of Ottawa, showing a satisfactory state of work.

The discussion was principally on home mission work, which is being extensively and successfully taken up in the North-West Territories and British Columbia. The treasurer's report showed the receipts to have been $11,440.12, with an expenditure about the same. The Quebec delegates in attendance are: Rev. R. K. Black, Granby; Wm. A. Burnett, Brigham; Mr. C. B. Black, Montreal; Mrs. Bousler, Granby; Rev. Wm. Collins, Franklin Centre; Rev. G. Craik, Waterville; Dr. Creelman, Montreal; C. Cushing, Montreal; Mr. Cross, Melbourne; Rev. B. W. Day, St. Andrews; Jas. Miller, Granby; Charles Gurd, Mr. Gates, St. Andrews; Mr. Gale, Waterville; George McGarry, Montreal; Rev. Wm. and Mrs. Harvey, Montreal; Dr. Hill, Montreal; Mr. Hibbert, St. Andrews; Thomas Moodie, Montreal; S. H. C. Miner, Granby; T. B. Macaulay, Montreal; Rev. Jno. McKillican, Montreal; Mr. MacFarlane, Cowansville; Mr. George McGarry, Montreal; Rev. Hugh Pedley, Montreal; Rev. A. Pollock, Danville; Rev. Mr. Pritchard, Granby; Mr. J. D. Richardson, Montreal; Rev. H. G. Rice, Mr. Jno Richards, Rev. A. Tippett, C. T. Williams, Mr. Woodley, Dr. Warriner, Montreal.

The Victoria Fortifications.

VICTORIA, B. C., June 5. — General Parsons, commander of the permanent forces in Canada, completed the inspection of the fortifications and troops here yesterday, and in an interview declared the station the finest he had ever seen for its size, the only drawback being the higher cost of living and maintenance.

One Thousand Men Idle.

CHICAGA, Ill., June 5—The Illinois Car Equipment Company's plant, at Heigeisch, a southern suburb of Chicago, was burned last night. The company was engaged in the building of railway freight cars, and employed 1,100 men, practically the entire population of the town. The loss is estimated at $1,000,000.

The Guards are Coming.

OTTAWA, June 5. — Lieutenant-Colonel Jarvis, of the G. G. F. G., has received a letter from the militia authorities in Montreal extending an invitation to that corps to participate in the coronation celebration. The invitation will be accepted and the regiment will probably leave Ottawa on June 25.

Life Is Not Safe When Disease is Allowed To Run Unchecked In Summer

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

Gives Marvellous Results When Used in June.

The majority of people, young and old, too often allow sickness and disease to follow them into the opening of summer. Some have foul and stagnant blood; some recognize the fact that kidney disease or liver complaint have commenced their quiet but deadly work; some are tormented with the agonies of rheumatism and neuralgia; others are made miserable by dyspepsia, constipation, headache, sleeplessness and nervousness.

Life is not safe when such troubles are permitted to run unchecked. The hot days of summer will aggravate all conditions of weakness and sickness.

The ailing and suffering should take advantage of these June days and the life-giving virtues of Paine's Celery Compound to rid themselves of dangers. The work of purifying the blood, bracing the weak and flabby nerves and fortifying the system is happily done for all who use Paine's Celery Compound. It has made life joyous and happy for tens of thousands in June; it will do the same good work for you, dear reader. Test its virtues to-day and be convinced. 132 1

STREET GOSSIP AND STOCK EXCHANGE ECHOES.

Star Office, Thursday, June 5.

Now that the first pangs of regret over the inability of the stock markets to respond to the news of peace in South Africa have passed away, the conviction is becoming a settled one that sooner or later the immense benefits which will accrue from the end of the war must in time be reflected on the markets. Although peace had been gradually discounted, as was natural, it is pointed out that a great deal of money which had been diverted from stocks will eventually seek employment in that direction again. The process may be a little slow, but the situation is likely to be all the better for that. London would be likely the first to fell the improved conditions, but in time it must, in the natural course of events, extend to other markets. A great strain has been lifted from Great Britain's shoulders and the return of the inflow of gold from the African mines ensure a more secure monetary position.

The dealings in this market yesterday in the shares of the Detroit United Railway, amounting to 1,780 shares, constituted, so it is hinted, the inauguration of a bull movement of some note in the stock. Some Montrealers have been interested in the stock for some time, but heretofore no special effort was made to get the public interested in the property. Evidences have not been lacking for some time past that something was doing in that connection, letters having been widely published claiming that for a 4 per cent. dividend paying stock selling around 75 it was very cheap. A good sized block of the stock has been brought here from New York, and already a fair number of local speculators have taken a throw at it.

The corporation is a combination of a dozen or more electric roads in and around Detroit and is capitalized at $12,500,000, all common stock. The total bonded indebtedness of the company is $15,780,000, about half of which falls due for payment in 1905. In February, 1902, the company authorized a 4 1-2 per cent. gold mortgage, due 1952, for $25,000,000, of which $5,880,000 were to be reserved to retire underlying bonds, and $3,000,000 to be available for the company's purposes. It is understood that the liabilities of the Everett-Moore syndicate, which controlled the property, blocked the completion of that arrangement. In 1901 the gross earnings were $2,319,171, and net earnings $1,322,446. The fixed charges were $852,277, and the surplus $470,128. The earnings show continued increases, the surplus in 1900 having been $318,731.

The dealings in Detroit United in Wall Street yesterday reached a total of 6,700 shares, and the highest price was 80 1-4, the lowest 78 1-2, and the closing 79. The New York Post accounts for the rise by the following: "The sharp rise in Detroit United Railway was due to the absorption of the small floating supply by inside interests."

Yesterday's reaction in Canadian Pacific to 137, constituted a reaction of 5 1-2 points from the highest, but notwithstanding the heaviness of the stock it assures the public that the conditions are only temporary, and better things are still in store for the stock. One of the latest efforts of the syndicate's publicity department is contained in the following despatch from Toronto to a New York news agency: "It is believed in good quarters here that the dividend on Canadian Pacific for the half-year now drawing to a close will be 3 per cent., and that a bonus of 1 per cent will be paid out of land sales fund, thus placing the stock on a 7 per cent. basis. There will be a clear surplus in the land fund of the company of between $7,000,000 and $8,000,000 by June 30. To pay a 1 per cent. bonus it would require $650,000. The land sales fund is growing at an extraordinary rate. Sales will continue until the whole of the land holdings, estimated to be worth $25,000,000, is converted into cash. It is computed that should this fund be allowed to grow until the lands are disposed of there would be sufficient to retire the entire bonded debt of the Canadian Pacific Railway."

For a full day in Wall street dealings in 94,300 shares of Canadian Pacific constituted a strictly cold shoulder. They were in fact the largest in any one stock for the day. The price was heavy towards the close and sold down to 136¾, closing at 136¾.

Speaking of yesterday's market in London, a cable says: "There was continued and disappointing depression. The speculative account has shown itself to be weak, and no purchasing is in evidence from the general public. In the case of Kaffirs, the situation was further weakened by the fact that a number of options are due to mature at the end of the month. There was some bear selling."

Speculative activity on the Toronto Stock Exchange yesterday was on a smaller scale than the average, following the dulness of foreign exchanges. Price changes were narrow and unimportant, with investment issues showing a strong undertone. General opinion favours an upward movement on the removal of factors which are restricting activity in foreign markets. C. P. R. followed the fractional declines in foreign markets, though with no abatement of activity. The stock was traded in to the extent of over 800 shares, selling down from 136¾ to 137. New stock was firm at 131¾ to 132, with about 300 shares changing hands. Lake Superior showed rather more than usual activity, with sales of 320 shares at between 29¼ and 29¾. Street rumour has it there will shortly be developments in this issue. Toronto Electric was firm at 135, and Cable at 170. Bell Telephone sold at 167¼, and rights at 7¼. Nova Scotia Steel declined ½ to 108¾.

There was a sharp difference between the month of May in the New York stock market, and the corresponding month of last year as to dealings in stocks. In May of 1901 the greatest panic in the history of the Stock Exchange occurred, and resulted in tremendous speculation. The number of shares dealt in during that month was nearly 35,500,000, while last month, when more or less normal conditions prevailed, the number dealt in was only about 13,500,000.

Figures compiled by the New York Journal of Commerce regarding capital issued in new organizations in the Eastern States during May show a decrease of $5,075,000 from April and a decrease of $35,100,000 from May, 1901. For the five completed months the enormous decrease of $323,000,000 is shown. Distribution of last month's capital issues, according to place of incorporation, was as follows: New Jersey, $121,-000,000; Delaware, $44,100,000; New York, $38,-700,000; Maine, $25,250,000; Pennsylvania, $8,-000,000; Massachusetts, $1,600,000.

The London and Paris Exchange, Limited Parker & Co.'s circular, cable yesterday quotes South African stocks:

WHEAT IS STEADY

Prices Showed Very Little Change To-day—U. S. Pacific Coast Flour Mills May Consolidate.

The Liverpool wheat market was firmer to-day, the closing being 1-8d up at 5s 10 3-4d for July, and 1-8d for Sept. Antwerp was steady at 17 3-8 for No. 2 red winter. The Paris market was 10 stronger, June closing at 22.30, and Sept. and Dec. 20.60.

London reported Australian wheat, arrived, 29s paid; No. 1 northern spring, July, 27s 10 1-2d paid; June, 27s 6d paid; Man inspection; Walla Walla, arrived, 29s paid, 28s 9d sellers.

Cloudy weather in England and France. Chicago quoted July options at noon as follows: Wheat, 1-8c down at 71 3-4c; corn, 3-8c up at 42 1-8c; oats, 1-2c up at 35 7-8c.

Steps toward integrating the flouring mill business of the Pacific, which were taken a few weeks ago, are believed to be making progress, though those actively in the movement for a new combination will not give out any news of the matter, says the Modern Miller, of St. Louis. The small country mills are impressed with the significance of the enterprise, and many of them are seeking to sell out. The larger concerns before the consolidation shall be fully organized, fearing that the competition will be too strong after that. A few of the smaller ones look upon the consolidation as one likely to improve the entire milling situation. They say that the combination will be able to put prices at a figure that will leave more profit for the millers, both big and little, and this will be beneficial to all. The effect upon consumption is not considered in this calculation, however.

LOCAL MARKETS.—Sales of No. 2 oats were made to-day at 48 1-2 to 48 3-4c and 49c in store. Demand for them is pretty fair. Manitoba No. 1 northern wheat, in store at Fort William is quoted at 73c; No. 2, 71c; No. 3 oats, 48 1-2 to 49c in store for local use. Peas are reported at 68 1-2c afloat. Buckwheat was 63c basis afloat. No. 2 rye, 63c afloat. No. 2 barley, 60c afloat.

FEED—Quotations in car lots on track: Manitoba bran, in bags, $19 to $20; shorts, bags, $22; Ontario bran, in bulk, $18.50 to $19; shorts are scarce at $21 to $22 in bulk; middlings, $22 to $23; moullie, $23 to $30, according to quality.

ROLLED OATS.—The market was quoted higher to-day. Quotations to-day were $4.70 to $4.85 in wood, and $2.30 to $2.35 in bags, in car lots.

BALED HAY—Business is being done at about $9 to $9.50 for No. 1 timothy, and $8 to $8.50 for No. 2; clover, $7.50 on track.

TORONTO.—Wheat—Dull and easier at 72c bid, and 73c asked for red and white, middle freights; goose, 69c east, and spring, 73c to 75c east. Manitoba wheat steady; No. 1 hard, 80¼c; No. 1 northern, 84c, and No. 2 northern, 83c, grinding in transit.

Flour—Easier; 90 per cent. patents, $3.90 in buyers' bags, middle freights; choice brands are held at 15 to 20c higher. Manitoba flour steady; cars of Hungarian patents, $3.90 to $4.35, and strong bakers, $3.60 to $3.80, bags included, on track at Toronto.

Millfeed—Firm; cars of shorts, $20, and bran, $18.50, in bulk, middle freights. Manitoba millfeed firm; cars of shorts, $23, and bran, $20, sacks included, Toronto freights.

Barley—Quiet; malting grades dull and nominal; No. 3, 51½c to 52c, middle freights.

Rye—Nominal at 61c to 61½c, middle freights.

Corn—Steady; Canada No. 2 mixed, 63c, and No. 2 yellow, 63c west.

Oats—Firmer; No. 2 white sold east at 46¼c and quoted at 46c middle freights.

Oatmeal—Steady; cars of bags, $4.70, and barrels, $4.25 on track at Toronto, and 25c more for broken lots.

Peas—Quiet; 75 to 76c bid middle freights.

Montreal Mining Exchange.

Following were the sales at this morning's session of the Mining Exchange:

Centre Star, 500 at 40 1-2.

No Ice Water for Royalty.

A well known Fifth ave. hotel man says: "We Americans have not yet fully overcome the pernicious ice water habit, for many people here still expect that a glass with ordinary water almost filled with ice be served to them at once. Ordinary water to be palatable must be served too cold to be healthful, while a wholesome effervescent table water, on account of its carbonic acid gas, is refreshing, even if served without ice, so long as it be cool. It is, however, already noticeable that Americans, particularly those who have travelled much, are more and more acquiring the preferable Apollinaris habit, although they have not yet fully reached the same stage as our British friends.

"It is known that a mild stimulant, well diluted with Apollinaris, was drunk by Queen Victoria, under the advice of her physician, Sir William Jenner, and now we even find 'The London Times' ceremoniously stating in its column of news about royalty that the Apollinaris Company has been appointed purveyors of natural mineral water to the King and to the Prince of Wales. Between this association with royalty and the worth of the water it is easy to understand why on nearly every table in London hotels a bottle of Apollinaris can be seed as an accompaniment to the meal, but the special point is that the glass of ordinary water with ice is not asked for or served."

Special Notice.

Piano Played by Electricity.

One of the evening attractions of St. Catherine street, is a piano in the show window of Leach's Piano Rooms, that is played by electricity.

The death loss due to the Fernie mine disaster is definitely placed at 136. So far 117 bodies have been recovered.

POTATOES ARE EASIER

Heavy Deliveries Have Weakened the Market — Butter and Cheese Markets are Fairly Firm— Eggs Steady.

BUTTER.—Receipts reported on the Board of Trade to-day amounted to 1522 packages.

There is a division of opinion concerning this market, some claiming for it activity and strength, and others the opposite. One thing is sure, choice salted makes are bringing 19½c, though it may be that occasionally a little less and a little more may be paid. Redford is reported to have sold at 19¼c for choice salted, and 19½c for salteas.

CHEESE.—Receipts reported on the Board of Trade to-day amounted to 11,133 boxes.

Some say they can readily obtain 10c for their finest western, others that they cannot obtain 9¾c for their finest. It appears likely that 9¾c will be paid for western to-day, but it is generally expected that there will be higher prices paid at Brockville this week, so that local figures may advance also. Townships are quoted at 9¾c and Quebec at 9¼ to 9¾c.

EGGS.—Receipts reported on the Board of Trade to-day amounted to 1239 cases.

The market is fairly steady, and so long as the cool weather continues very little change is apt to take place. But the arrival of hot weather will at once reduce consumption and depreciate the quality, so that the undertone is easy in anticipation. The local market is quoted at 14 to 14½c.

POTATOES.—The heavy offerings of the past few days have had the effect of putting down prices. Quotations on track to-day are 80 to 85c. Dealers are re-selling on track in lots at 90c to 95c, and 5c more is being paid delivered.

BEANS.—The market is steady and 5 to 25-bag lots of finest primes are now quoted at $1.25 to $1.30 a bushel, according to quantity, in store.

POTASH.—The market is easier in England and dull here at $4.15 for firsts and $3.90 for seconds. First pearls are firm at $6.05 to $6.10.

THREE LIVES LOST IN A RAILWAY SMASH-UP.

Train Runs Into a Washed Out Culvert East of Calgary, N.W.T.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

CALGARY, June 5. — A westbound freight, in charge of Conductor Reid, ran into a washed-out culvert, about five miles east of Calgary, at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning. Engineer Doran, Brakeman Dunne, and Car Inspector Coursely were instantly killed. The train was telescoped, and the bodies of the unfortunate men are still under the wreck, but there is no doubt whatever that they are dead. A wrecking train was immediately despatched. Engineer Doran resided in Winnipeg, Inspector Coursely in Calgary, and Brakeman Dunne in Medicine Hat. The first news received of the wreck was from Conductor Reid, who walked in from the scene of the disaster. He was in the caboose with the other brakeman and was not injured.

CORONATION FORCE WAS REVIEWED

By Major General O'Grady Haly at St. Joseph de Levis

SOME SECTIONS SENT HOME

The Heavy Rains and the Cold Weather Has Made it Unpleasant in Camp.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

QUEBEC, June 5.—This morning the Coronation contingent was reviewed by Major-General O'Grady-Haly at St. Joseph de Levis, and to-morrow afternoon a flag will be presented the men by Mrs. S. Nordheimer, Mrs. J. J. Davidson, Mrs. Bruce and Mrs. Van Koughnet representing the Daughters of the Empire.

The men of the Coronation Contingent are daily drilling at their camp, St. Joseph de Levis, and will embark on the Parisian on Saturday night, being inspected to-day by the General and by His Excellency the Governor General. New uniforms are being served out to some of the men and two or three of the detachment who were quite unfit to accompany the contingent have been sent home.

Major Cockburn, V. C., who was one of the officers selected for the contingent, is understood to be down with nervous prostration and consequently unable to go. He is replaced by Major Forrester.

The men of the contingent have been suffering very severely for some days past from the heavy rain and cold. When Surgeon Fiset arrived he quickly objected to the further camping out of the men and they have been removed into the huts at St. Joseph.

The men are now being drilled before Colonel Pellatt in the march past. The different detachments are ranged as follows: The Dragoons on the right of the line, followed by the Hussars, then the Canadian Mounted Rifles, the Strathcona Horse, and the North-West Mounted Police. The Field Artillery, Garrison Artillery, Infantry, Rifles, and Army and Medical Corps. The Mounted Rifles, Strathconas and N. W., M. P., appear in Kahki.

SUSPECT STILL AT LARGE.

Man Gosselin, Wanted for Murder, Said to be in Hiding.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

QUEBEC, June 5. — The man Gosselin, suspected of the murder of Mrs. Trehan, has not yet been arrested. It is reported that he is in hiding in the woods in the rear of Bellechasse, and that he visited his home on Sunday last, and threatened suicide. His early capture is looked for. He is a small sized man, and the father of five children.

The Tuberculosis Congress.

NEW YORK, June 5. — The American Congress of Tuberculosis yesterday elected the following officers:

Honorary President, Dr. H. D. Holton, Vermont; President, Dr. Daniel Lewis, New York city; First Vice-President, J. E. Egan, of Ills.; Second Vice-President, Frank Paschal, of Texas; Third Vice-President, E. J. Barwick, Toronto; Fourth Vice-President, I. A. Watson, New Hampshire; Fifth Vice-President, Senor Romola, Guatemala; Secretary, Dr. Geo. Brawn, Georgia; Treasurer, Dr. P. H. Bryce, Toronto.

A resolution was passed, setting forth tuberculosis is an infectious disease, ordinarily communicated from person to person by means of the dried sputum of a consumptive patient, and that the spread of tuberculosis could be largely controlled by proper care of such sputum and the enforcement of comparatively simple measures, if these could be brought before the people through the public press.

Ontario Medical Association.

TORONTO, June 5.—At the meeting of the Ontario Medical Association yesterday the president, Dr. N. A. Powell, referred to the Roddick Act for the establishment of a Dominion medical council. He held that Ontario is in advance of all the provinces or States on the continent with regard to regulation by legislation of the study and practice of medicine, and urged the guarding of the present standard. "There must be no levelling down to meet the needs of schools in any other parts of the Dominion. Pledges will not suffice. We must have the power to prevent its being done; and if we have such power and use it I am exceedingly doubtful if we shall ever see the act in operation."

He favoured the dropping from the Ontario Medical Council of representatives of schools in abeyance and universities not directly interested in medical education.

The Ottawa Railway Dispute.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

OTTAWA, June 5.—The Canada Atlantic Railway and its troubles still continue to be the chief themes of local interest, and are being largely discussed. Mr. J. R. Booth takes umbrage at the resolution adopted by the City Council, and states that if the C.P.R. are allowed to use the Central station as a roadside station the city has little use for him or his railway. He contends that the lease of the Government lands on which the station and its approaches stand was made for a terminal station only, and that they cannot be used for roadside station purposes. That is a point that the Railway Committee of the Privy Council will decide.

Statue of Col. Howard.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

PARIS, June 5.—M. Fromiet, the sculptor, has completed the model of an equestrien statue of Colonel Howard, of revolutionary fame, for Baltimore. Colonel Howard is attired in the custom of the period, which resembles that of the French Guards. The statue will be completed in bronze and exhibited at the salon next year.

WANTED SOME OF MORGAN'S NECESSARY.

John Barclay, Caught Redhanded, Pleads Guilty in London and is Held for Identification.

LONDON, June 5.—John Barkley, who was remanded at the Bow Street Police Court, May 9, on the charge of attempting to burglarize the house of J. Pierpont Morgan, Jr., pleaded guilty in the Old Bailey yesterday. Sentence was postponed, upon application of the police, who said they believed Barkley was a notorious criminal and that they were awaiting identification of the prisoner from the American police. A policeman found Barkley trying to open a window of J. Pierpont Morgan, Jr.'s house, in London, with a jimmy. Barkley was captured after a sharp struggle. An American revolver, Yale keys and lock picks were found in his pockets.

Constable M. Sweet, of the Brockville police force, has been appointed chief of police at Smith's Falls.

LOYAL BURGHERS.

Lovers quarrels are said to be occasionally justified by the rapture of "making it up." The war in South Africa seems to have had the extraordinary effect of making the belligerents the best of friends. There does not appear to be a trace of malice or sulkiness on either side. General Botha, in thanking the burghers for their obedience to him during the campaign, exhorts them to be equally loyal to their new government. A toast at the Bloemfontein Club, to Joe Chamberlain, of all people, is received with uproarious cheering. Botha declares that the termination of the war makes the happiest day of his life since he left school. Yet the Boers could have made much better terms before the war than they have made since! The explanation is that before the late unpleasantness the Boers and the British had a supreme contempt for each other and each has put up such a good fight as to command the respect of the other. The burghers fought for what they regarded as their political independence, and lost. In a few years time they will be enjoying an independence and freedom as British subjects that will be a revelation to them. The generosity of the treatment accorded to the vanquished by the victors is being abundantly justified by the results.

PERIODICAL COLONIAL CONFERENCES.

The proposal of Lord Onslow, the under-secretary for the colonies, at a Primrose League demonstration that there be "regular, periodical and recurring meetings of the leading statesmen of the colonies" to consider inter-Imperial questions, is one that has been in the minds of many.

Such conferences would not deprive us in the colonies of a shred of our independence; and yet would possess all the consultative and advisory powers of a formal Imperial Congress. Our representatives would go to them fully informed as to the wishes and aspirations of our people; and they would be in a position to say how far and in what directions the colony would move to meet the wishes and aspirations of its sisters.

These gatherings would have, of course, no executive power. But it will be some time before the most ambitious Imperialist will be ready with a practicable scheme for giving the colonies any real executive power in an Imperial body. We would be, under the most generous treatment, altogether outweighed by the representatives of the United Kingdom.

However, it is looked at, Lord Onslow's notion is a good one. To the Imperial Federationist, it may be the egg in which his great idea lies dormant. To the Imperial Evolutionist, it is the natural beginning of a natural growth. To the friend of existing conditions, it is device by which they may smoothly carry the vast new responsibilities which the march of events has thrust upon us.

A REPLY TO CANADA'S MESSAGE.

OTTAWA, June 5.—Lord Minto has received the following answer to the message of congratulation sent by the Canadian Government to the King on the happy conclusion of war:

London, June 4, 1902.

To Lord Minto, Ottawa:

I have received His Majesty's commands to convey to your Government and to the people of Canada his sincere thanks for loyal congratulations and good wishes expressed in your telegram of June 2nd.

(Signed) CHAMBERLAIN.

"Te Deum" of Thanksgiving.

His Grace Archbishop Bruchesi, who is at present on his pastoral visit in the northern part of the diocese, has written Mgr. Racicot ordering that on Sunday next after High Mass a "Te Deum" of thanksgiving should be chanted in all parish churches, owing to the declaration of peace. In his letter His Grace refers to the occasion as being one on which there should be much joy and thanksgiving rendered to God.

BOERS ACKNOWLEDGE COMPLETE DEFEAT

The Burghers Before Authorizing Their Delegates to Sign Peace Terms Issued a Document Setting Forth the Impossibility of Securing Independence.

(See also page one.)

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

LONDON, June 5.—The Times Pretoria correspondent says the Boers at Vereeniging recorded an acknowledgment of complete defeat in a resolution which was prefixed to the authorization of their delegates to sign the document of surrender. In this resolution it was declared that only in view of the absolute refusal of the British Government to negotiate further, and in consideration of their own reduction in numbers and impossibility of ever getting back their prisoners of war, and in order to save the existence of their own race they had brought themselves to consent to relinquish their cherished independence.

The correspondent says the chief concession regarding language only amounts to granting such reasonable facilities as would be granted anyhow, and does not interfere with the status of English as the sole official language.

The concession allowing the use of arms with a permit is not unreasonable in a country where there is a large native population and farms are scattered.

The generous grant of three million pounds, which is equal to £100 for each farmer is not only to the Boers who fought, but generally to all the local inhabitants. All such will be represented on the repatriation and restocking committees.

The only clause which is not sufficiently clear is that regarding the recognition of Boers' notes and requisitions if they are to be held to be bona fide evidences of proper losses.

It is intimated by the correspondent that there is a possibility that a small element of irreconcilables with their commandoes will refuse to accept the decision of the delegates and will begin brigandage. Such action at the worst will only cause annoyance to the Constabulary.

THE GRANT TO GENERAL KITCHENER.

LONDON, June 5.—The amount of the grant that it is proposed to make to General Kitchener has aroused controversy.

Mr. Henry Labouchere, the well known Radical member of the House of Commons, has given notice that he will move its rejection as being unnecessary.

Mr. Lloyd George, a Welsh Nationalist, declared that if Earl Roberts was entitled to £100,000, then Lord Kitchener had earned £250,000. He had done hard work, and had brought peace.

It is stated that during the continuance of the war, the question of granting Lord Kitchener £100,000 was seriously discussed by the authorities, but the smaller amount was decided upon, on the ground of Lord Kitchener's lesser rank, coupled with the fact that he received £30,000 ($150,000), at the close of the Soudan campaign, and is still a comparatively young, unmarried man, and at the height of his military career, while Lord Roberts is old, has a family and is not likely to have a further chance to distinguish himself.

The Standard says there is a general feeling in the House of Commons that the Government erred on the side of parsimony in the matter of the grant to General Kitchener. Even the Radicals think that General Kitchener's proposals, tact, and humanity in the closing stages of the war did much to render it easier for the Boers to acknowledge defeat. The Radicals are much more favourable to General Kitchener than to Lord Milner.

Lord Salisbury telegraphed to Lord Kitchener as follows:

"Accept my hearty congratulations for your brilliant achievement which has brought the war to so satisfactory a conclusion."

The report that Lord Kitchener will come home for the coronation of King Edward is incorrect. He still has much to do in South Africa, and it is not likely that he will leave there before the middle of July. The South African commands will then be divided, General Lyttelton taking charge of the Transvaal and the Orange River Colony, and General Ian Hamilton relieving General French in command of the forces in the Cape Colony.

In spite of opinion expressed by Sir Michael Hicks-Beach in the House of Commons there is a general idea that it would be dangerous to leave too small garrisons in the new colonies for some time.

KITCHENER PRAISES BOERS.

Fuller reports from Pretoria of the speech made by Gen. Kitchener at Vereeniging states that he said he was pleased to meet so many brave men. They had fought admirably. None could have fought better, and he doubted whether others could have fought as well. The struggle had been a long one, but it had been marked by good conduct. He felt sure that as soldiers the British and Boers respected each other.

Now the strife was ended they should unite as fellow-subjects and heal all wounds.

General Botha and General De Wet responded, endorsing what General Kitchener had said, and adding that his conduct had been honourable and generous. They offered a toast to good comradeship.

REJOICING AT BLOEMFONTEIN.

BLOEMFONTEIN, June 5.—The Orange River delegates, who attended the peace conference at Vereeniging, arrived here Tuesday. A great crowd met them at the station, but there was no cheering or other demonstration. The delegates rode to the refugee camp, where they received an extravagant welcome, men and women weeping and laughing simultaneously. Crowds surrounded the horsemen, all talking together, asking news of relatives and friends. Commandant Pretorius told the Dutch pastor that all might be satisfied with the terms of surrender. He expressed pleasure at finding the burghers' families so well looked after. The delegates left yesterday to bring in their respective commandoes.

LONDON, June 5.—It is expected that a special invitation will be sent to Dr. Kuyper, the prime minister of the Netherlands, to take part in the coronation festivities, in view of the good offices of his Government in connection with peace.

PEACE CAUSES CHANGE IN BUDGET.

LONDON, June 5.—In the House of Commons last evening, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, Chancellor of the Exchequer, explained that alterations in the budget were made possible by the conclusion of peace. The reduction in the South African force would effect a saving in the direct war expenditure of £28,000,000. This saving would be applied to restoring the sinking fund and otherwise to reducing the national debt. The Chancellor announced that it had been decided by the Government to retain the corn tax and also the additional income tax.

The statement of Sir Michael Hicks-Beach consisted of a lengthy review of the financial situation. The Chancellor of the Exchequer said that the whole £40,000,000 ($200,000,000) provided by the budget for the prosecution of the war would be needed to effect the demobilization and the transportation of the British troops in South Africa, to move the Boer prisoners from the various concentration camps and to furnish garrisons for South Africa.

Sir Wm. Vernon Harcourt (Liberal) asked Sir Michael Hicks-Beach the number of these garrisons.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer said it would be premature to answer this question now, but that he had grounds for hoping that in the course of a few months large garrisons in South Africa would prove unnecessary. The Chancellor said he was glad to say he could dispense with the additional £15,750,000 ($78,750,000), which he had asked for when the new loan was authorized by the House. He said he proposed to continue the new taxes for the present, but he asked the House to resume the sinking fund as the best step toward re-establishing the credit of the country.

In conclusion the Chancellor of the Exchequer said one of the first matters to be considered was to determine how the revenues derived from the mineral wealth of the Transvaal could be allocated so as to provide for a portion of the war debt.

KITCHENER'S MILITARY TITLE.

King Has Raised Him to the Rank of General.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

NEW YORK, June 5. — The correspondent of the Tribune in London cables:

Lord Kitchener has not had long to wait for recognition of his services in South Africa. The King has conferred upon him the dignity of a Viscount, raised him to the rank of General, and Parliament has been asked to grant him the sum of £50,000. Lord Roberts, it will be remembered, was made an Earl and was given £100,000. The work of Lord Kitchener in South Africa is admitted to be at least on par with that of Lord Roberts, but consideration had to be taken of the fact that the latter is a field marshal, whereas the former was only a lieutenant-general. As indicated a few days ago would be the case, Lord Kitchener has been promoted from the rank of lieutenant-general to general. The money grant proposed in the Commons yesterday met with no opposition, except from Irish members.

To-day's newspapers pay glowing tributes to Lord Kitchener's skill as a soldier and diplomatist. It is admitted on all hands that he has emerged from the trying ordeal with immense enhancement of reputation, and that he has splendidly deserved his honours and rewards.

Shipment of Remounts.

TORONTO, June 5. — The shipments of remounts for the British army to the depot at the exhibition buildings from the Western States, continues in large volume. Several hundred horses have been received to-day.

KANSAS CITY, June 5.—The British Remount Commission that had been purchasing and shipping mules for use in the British Army in South Africa and India will be disbanded within a few days and most of the officers who are now on duty here and at Lathrop, Mo., will be given long leaves of absence.

A Happy Day for Botha.

PRETORIA, June 4. — General Botha remarked, relative to the termination of the war:

"It is the happiest day of my life since I left school."

OUR DELIVERY WAGGON.

The above illustration represents our first delivery waggon and is not the one we are using at present. But we have two of the finest Horses and Delivery Waggons in the city to send home your parcels in and we are always pleased to receive your order and deliver your goods. However, we would like our customers to give us a little extra time to do so, as we cannot possibly get to all parts of the city at one time, and particularly would we claim their indulgence on Saturdays, if they do not wish their parcels delivered late at night, to buy early in the day and in many cases where the parcels are very small it would be a great relief to our drivers and save a lot of running for our horses, if customers would take those small parcels with them on Saturdays. We hope our customers will see the reasonableness of this and take no offence, as we assure you we are always willing to do all in our power and anything in reason to oblige our customers.
