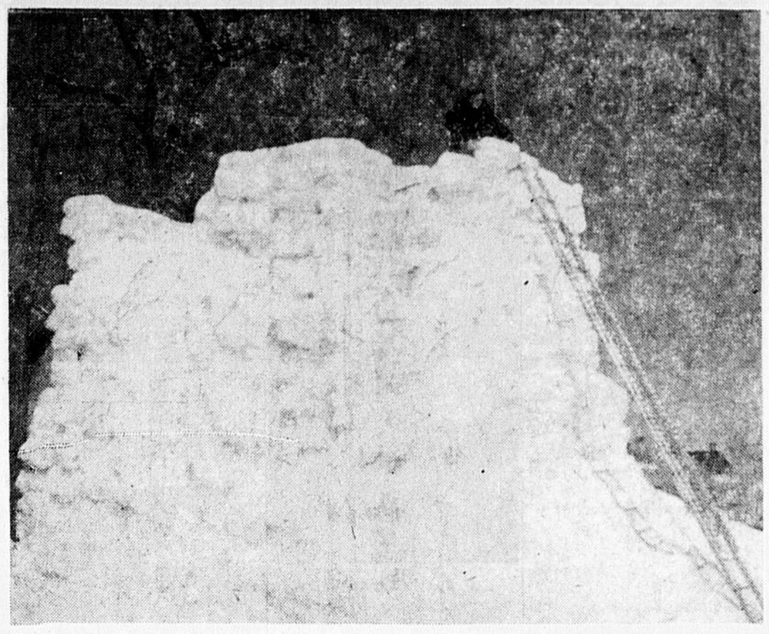
BOYS BUILD A SNOW FORT



This winter with the high banks of snow all around and the long stay of the white stuff, has been an incentive to the kids to build snow forts and these have appeared in many parts of town. This one shown above was built at the the back of the Braithwaite premises by the Stephen boys. As can be seen by the ladder which goes up on the right hand side, it is a high one. At the top, Garth Stephen is shown still in the process of adding more snow blocks. It is probably one of the largest built in this area.

Howick High School Host To C.V.T.A. Career Conference

Howick High School was proud to host the annual C.V.T.A. Career Conference on Friday, March 8, 1963. The schools attending were Huntingdon, Ormstown, Chateauguay, Hemmingford, Gault Institute, and Franklin Center. The conference was open to the pupils of grades ten and eleven, some two hundred and sixty pupils enjoying the program.

A delicious, barbecued chicken dinner was served in two shifts, at 5:15 and 6.00 p.m. The smooth operation of these meals was due to the hard work and efficiency of the grade nine girls under the direction of Mrs. Mattinson and Mrs. Ness.

The evening program was organized by Mr. Petch in such a way that students might attend three sessions; these began at 6:45, 7:30, and 8:15 p.m. The following is a list of the speakers and the fields they represented:

Miss Dorothy McIntosh, Montreal Children's Hospital, Social Work;

Dean D. L. Mordell, McGill University, Engineering;

Miss F. L. Wright, Miss N. C. Howarth, Sun Life Assurance Company;

Mr. W. R. LaRue, Mr. E. L. Dupuis, Trans Canada Airlines;

Mr. S. J. Gowdy, Sun Life Assurance Company;

Miss Joyce Crafford, Stewardess, Trans Canada, Airlines;

Mr. Keith Jobling, Institute of Education, Teaching;

Miss Steen, Teaching Department, Miss Chu, Royal Victoria Hospital;

Mr. T. Partyka, Montreal Institute of Technology;

Mr. R N. Elliot, Director, Sir George Williams School of Business;

Professeur J. Bubar, Dept. of Agriculture, Macdonald College, Agriculture;

Mrs. A. J. Mennie, Bell Telephone Co. of Canada, Employment Representative;

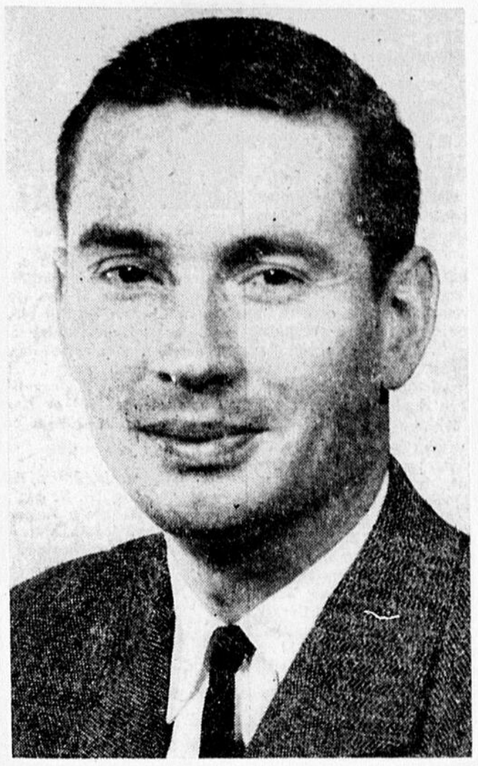
Flt. Llt. J. M. Belec, Public Relations Officer, College Militaire Royal de Saint-Jean, Armed Services.

The sessions were very well attended by students and faculty alike, who found the talks stimulating, informative, and challenging.

Following the career program, the pupils enjoyed a Record Hop from 9:30 to 12:30, at which time the last bus driver drew away from Howick with a tired but happy group of students.

A sincere vote of thanks is extended to the staff and the student workers who helped to organize and complete this very successful Career Conference.

Ian Watson Liberal Candidate



Ian Watson

The official Liberal Candidate in the April 8 Federal Election is Mr. Ian Watson, eldest of the four sons of Dr. and Mrs. Wilfred Watson of Howick, P.Q.

Mr. Watson was born in Howick, attended Howick High School and is a graduate of Bishops University and the McGill Law School. He was admitted to the Bar of the Province of Quebec in 1959. He is a member of the Montreal Law Firm of Cerini & Jamieson and maintains evening offices at Chateauguay, P.Q. and at Howick, where he resides.

Ian Watson is a keen and vocal advocate of the great potenial of our South Western section of Quebec and is a proponent of a planning program which would permit our area to achieve the maximum benefit and greatest development from the 1967 World's Fair. Mr. Watson states that as "our region is the agricultural showpiece of the nation every effort must be made to plan for the exposition of our agricultural achievements to the millions of visitors expected in 1967".

Mr. Watson is the owner of a farm on Covey Hill and has a thorough knowledge of the marketing problems of our dairy farmers and apple growers.

A founding member of The Chateauguay Valley Historical Society, Ian Watson is also Chairman of the committee for the 1963 Commemoration of the 150th Anniversary of the Battle of Chateauguay. He is 28 years old.

Last Week's Storm Cause Of Seven Car Pile-up

Last Wednesday, we had one of the old fashioned storms of the Winter season which was also a miserable one on account of it being so wet. Snow began falling in the morning and it was like sugar snow. At noon the snow was coming down in "flakes" the size of baseballs, and presented a sheet of thickness that was hard for the eye to penetrate. It was no time before the ground was covered in a thick blanket of wet and heavy snow. In some places the wind was drifting the snow, although one would hardly believe it was the type to blow. Toward evening the snow let up and temperatures began to lower and the wet snow began to freeze.

On Thursday morning, many roads were plugged and drifts were everywhere and a high wind blowing. It was still a marvel that this heavy wet snow could be blown around the way it was. At various spots on the highways, the snow was drifting and blowing so bad that vision was completely zero. At one such spot on Highway 4 somewhere between Ste. Martine and Ste. Philomene and on a bend in the road, the view was completely shut out by the snow being driven in the wind across this curve. At this point a very bad accident happened and seven cars were involved in the pile up that followed. It is reported that a car was coming in a westerly direction as from Montreal and travelling in the middle of the road. This was probably due to the poor visibility. A car driven by Mr. Wm. Greig of Ormstown, was travelling in the opposite direction and collided with the oncoming car. This very fact accounted for a pile-up of five other cars which were following and did not see the accident in time. A car owned by Mr. C. Brown of Ormstown, first struck a car in front of it which was in the pile-up and Brown's car in turn was struck by another car which sent him again into the former mentioned car. As a result of this Brown's car was damaged beyond repair. Later this was brought to Riverside Motors in Huntingdon and the Greig car was brought to the Kyle Garage in Huntingdon. Miss Erylon Barrington, who was a passenger in of the two mentioned cars, received minor cuts and bruises and was treated at the Barrie Memorial Hospital. Most of the passenagers in all cars were badly shaken up, but no one was seriously hurt.

As the accident happened fairly early in the morning when people were driving into Montreal and other points to work, it caused considerable delay for many other motorists. It is said that about 300 cars were held up in each direction as they were unable to proceed due to the accident. Even the wreckers which were called to untangle the mess, had a job getting to their victims.

Except for this accident there was nothing more of a serious nature. However, there was quite a lot of inconvenience for a number of people. School buses went out to pick up the children for school, but one did not make it and some of them were turned back. The Dundee bus for Huntingdon High School did not get in; The Connaught Road bus came in, but was sent right back again as the storm was so bad. The Elgin bus returned with its load of pupils at noon. 172 children were absent from Huntingdon High on that day, not all due to the weather, for some of it was because of sickness.

Generally speaking traffic had a hard time on Thursday getting around, some made their trips while others did not. Many employees of the mills in Huntingdon had to call their firms to say that they were stuck or they couldn't proceed further and were turning back, so would not be in to work. Some did manage to arrive later in the day after bucking the elements and that was how it went.

Later in the day on Thursday, the weather became quite mild, but got much colder as night fell. Water was running on the streets on Thursday afternoon and in several parts of town men were busy trying to get the water away into the drains. On Friday it was quite cold again.

Dundee School Board Renews Arrangement With Huntingdon School Board

Huntingdon High School Board of Commissioners met for a regular meeting in the Library at the High School, on Thursday evening. All members were present except Commissioner Wood and Secretary Erle Martin was absent due to sickness. Mr. A. M. Brockman, Principal, filled in for Mr. Martin as secretary for the meeting.

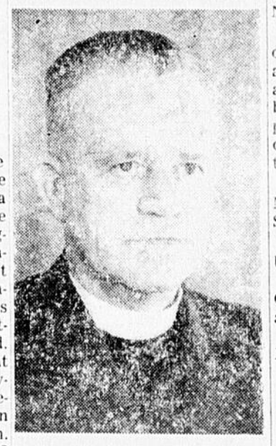
Following the reading of the minutes a number of bills were passed for payment.

A delegation from the Dundee School Board consisting of Messrs. Platt and Cameron, arrived to see the Huntingdon Board. Their quest was with regard to the possibility of all the pupils from the Dundee School being taken in at Huntingdon. Presently there are a number from the higher grades being accommodated here. While this latter decision has not been actually made, the delegation was desirous of knowing the Huntingdon Board's reaction. A suggestion was made that Dundee annex to Huntingdon and the remark was made that possibly in due time that might have to be done. However, the Huntingdon Board assured the delegation it was willing to help in any way possible and probably could accommodate all the pupils. The matter would have to have more thought when and if the Dundee Board arrived at a decision. In any event those pupils now attending Huntingdon High School, will continue to do so in the next school year and the delegation sought a renewal of this arrangement. This was granted by the Huntingdon Board.

Mr. Brockman announced that due to absenteeism for several reasons, the exams scheduled for March 7th had been postponed until March 18th. He said that on Thursday 172 pupils were out of school. Some of this was due to sickness, while the weather had also had an effect. He also said that arrangements had been made with the radio station in Malone and CFCF in Montreal to make announcements should there be no school due to weather conditions.

It was decided to give a contribution of $10 toward the coming Chateauguay Valley Music Festival.

Named Moderator



The Rev. Wm. N. Brown

At the stated meeting of the Montreal Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church in Canada held in Ephriam Scott Church, Montreal, on Tuesday, March 12th, The Reverend William N. Brown, Minister of Georgetown and Riverfield Presbyterian Church, was appointed Moderator of the Presbytery. Our congratulations and best wishes are extended to Mr. Brown and we trust that through God's guidance he will have a very pleasant and successful year in fulfilling the duties of this office.

Schools Closed On Account of 'Flu

Due to the prevalence of flue among teachers and students, Huntingdon High School, Notre Dame School and St. Joseph's School were closed on Monday and will not reopen until Monday, March 18th, at the usual time. The term exams scheduled to begin next Monday at the High School will be written as planned.

It is wise at this time to avoid all public gatherings. The Home and School Meeting planned for this evening (Wednesday) has been postponed until Tuesday, March 19th. As announced in last week's Gleaner the local hospital is restricting visitors to the patients' next-of-kin.

Accident Victim Dies Result Of Injuries

Word was received in Huntingdon on Tuesday morning, that Mrs. Doris Taylor, who was involved in a car accident on the Connaught Road when there was a collision between the car she was driving and a truck, had died early that morning. Mrs. Taylor was injured internally, but apparently was not aware of it immediately and after being treated went to her home. A short time later she was admitted to hospital and it was discovered that she was suffering internally. She was taken to a Montreal hospital and it was here that she passed away.

Further particulars are not available at this time.

As Others See It

The claimed advantages of public ownership of electrical power utilities are being well publicized across Canada at the moment. As example, a highly flattering piece in a Toronto publication has asserted that through their publicly-owned Ontario Hydro the urban householders of the province have North America's lowest electric rates, are the corporation's "shareholders" as well as customers, and benefit from the same tax revenues as would be paid by private ownership. It is interesting that a fully-qualified outside observer — Barron's Weekly — sees Ontario Hydro in quite a different light. The Barron's article is a comparison of the record of Ontario Hydro with that of the privately-owned Shawinigan Power Company, recently expropriated by the Quebec government.

The Ontario utility, says the article, has "demonstrated an uncanny ability to put first things last." An illustration is the matter of the change-over from 25 cycle to 60 cycle power. The Shawinigan company made this conversion, at its own expense and without public subsidy, during the

Special Speakers For Panel Discussion At Annual Board Of Trade Meeting

The Annual Meeting of the Huntingdon Board of Trade will be held on Tuesday evening, March 19th, at the Chateau, Huntingdon, at 8 o'clock. All members are invited to attend this meeting which should prove to be very interesting.

At 8.30 p.m. sharp a panel discussion will be held on the subject, "Teamwork in Industrial Development". The following firms have agreed to send an officer to represent them on this panel: Shawinigan Water & Power Company, Canadian National Railways, Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, Bank of Montreal, Caisse Populaire, Department of Industry and Commerce, Province of Quebec and it is hoped that a local citizen will represent local industry on the panel.

The committee in charge hoppes that as many as possible will attend this meeting and thus make it a most successful one.

Huntingdon Night On TV Broadcast Saturday Evening

On Saturday evening, Huntingdon came in for a great deal of publicity via a TV broadcast from channel 7 Sherbrooke. Incidentally there were a number of Huntingdon people who had their first TV appearance.

Unfortunately due to an engagement toward the end of the broadcast, the writer did not see all the program. However, the program opened up with a dance going on in which a number of Huntingdonians were taking part. Among those seen were Mr. and Mrs. Palma Hart, Mr. George Bougie, Charles Trepanier. On the sidelines were noticed Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson, Mayor Paul Lefebvre Earl Fournier, Mayor Hector St. Onge of Godmanchester and many others. It seemed that each one there had some part in the hour-long program

Mr. Palma Hart did some tap dancing, Mr. George Bougie led in a song as also did Mr. Charles Trepanier and Mr. Earl Fournier. Mayor Paul Lefebvre and Mayor Hector St. Onge were interviewed by the M.C. of the program. Pictures were shown of various parts of the Town of Huntingdon and the manufacturing centres and other points of interest. We understand that Mr. Sanderson spoke on behalf of the Huntingdon Board of Trade. It was a gay time and everyone seemed to be enjoying themselves

The program was organized by Mr. Gerald Duheme and he wishes to thank all those who took part in it. Following is a list of those who attended from Huntingdon: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lefebvre, Mr. and Mrs. Raoul David, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Sanderson, Rev. Marcel Gareau, Mr. and Mrs. Hector St. Onge, Mr. and Mrs. George Bougie, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lebeouf, Mr. and Mrs. Palma Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Taillefer, Mrs. Leo Beauchamp, Mrs. Joseph Duheme, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fournier, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Trepanier, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Fournier, Miss Nicole Fournier, Miss Yvon Taillefer, Mrs. Marcel Richer, Miss Nicole St. Onge, Miss Andree Tessier, Miss Henriette Bolduc, Maurice Picard, Leo Leblanc, Maurice Leboeuf, Miss Irene Taillefer, Mrs. Aurelien Fortier, Mrs. Gaetan Legault, Gerald Duheme, Mr. Louis Biladeau, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Leboeuf.

In the last issue of The Gleaner, it was stated that Chief Joffre L'Heureux took the photographers around for the pictures, etc. This should be credited to Sgt. Provost instead.

It was a very interesting program and no doubt Huntingdon will be better known as a result of this extra publicity.

SUFFER ELM DISEASE

OTTAWA (CP) — Arborist Dennis Gaunt reported to the city council parks committee that there were 81 positive identification of Dutch elm disease among the capital's elm trees in 1962. He said lack of trained staff is preventing the attention the situation demands.

Winner of Rotary Public Speaking

Winner of the preliminary Rotary Public Speaking Contest held at the Huntingdon Rotary Club meeting on Monday, March 4th. Joe will go to another contest to be held in Montreal for a further trial of his ability and the best wishes of the people here will go with him for success.

ROTARIANS VISIT ATCO THERMOSTAT PLANT IN HUNTINGDON

Above are seen members of the Huntingdon Rotary Club as they gathered around at the ATCO plant on Monday and watched while thermostats were assembled and explanation given by Mr. W. E. Travis, manager of the plant (at left). Also seated is Mr. Alister Somerville, M.P.P., who was assembling a thermostat for himself. All had this opportunity and it proved most interesting to everyone.

Following their luncheon meeting on Monday, members of the Huntingdon Rotary Club paid a visit to ATCO Thermostat Company and were shown the making of thermostats. After being shown the various processes, each Rotarian had the opportunity of assembling a thermostat and putting it together on the various machines. Those attending were D. McGerrigle, L. Sanderson, G. Thompson, J. Proudfoot, H. Provost, C. Brown, N. Bourgon, F. Anderson and A. Somerville. The men were very interested in what they saw and with the appearance of this new plant. Mr. Travis, the manager, gave full explanation of the various operations.

News from Ormstown

COVERING THE ACTIVITIES OF THE LITTLE ROYAL" EXHIBITION CENTRE

Home and School Prepare For a Debate

On Monday, March 18, a team of debaters from McGill will tackle an Ormstown team on a question of utmost interest. The Home and School Association of Ormstown will be hosts to Miss Patsy Rowe and Mr. Tom Goodenough of Montreal as they uphold the affirmative against Mr. Gordon Green and Dr. J. A. D Davidson of Ormstown as they battle with the subject — Resolved, The Western Alliance Should Pursue a Policy of force rather than Compromise against the forces of World Communism. Judges for the event will be Mrs. Margaret Campbell, Rev. J. Clark Hood and Rev. A. E. Loree. This promises to be a very enlightening evening and a good attendance is anticipated. A very short business meeting will precede the debate, the only article of business to be discussed is the Student Loan Fund. Notices will be sent from the school the day before the meeting.

Legion Card Party

Another successful venture was undertaken by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Ormstown Legion 196 on Tuesday evening when eleven tables were filled for 500. We never cease to be impressed with the seriousness of the Ormstown card players. At times the room was filled with animated discussion and laughter and then as if by a prearranged signal the room was as quiet as a tomb as each player pondered over the play of his opponent and cannily calculated the safest way to make him lose the next hand. Ladies' first prize was won by Mrs. D. McNicol, second by Mrs. I. Howarth. Men's first Mr. J. Conly, second Mr. Ken MacDonald. Those who were in possession of the lucky key at the end of the evening were Mrs. Katie Smellie, Mrs. Harold Merson, Mr. F. Howarth and Mrs. Jessie Helm. The drawing was won by Mrs. Beryl Elliott and Mrs. Helen French. The door prizes were won by Mrs. Irene Hamilton, Mrs. Beryl English, Mrs. L. Elliott, Mrs. Mildred Nussey and Mr. J. Conly.

Correction

Our apologies to Mrs. Rosemary Hooker for giving the wrong information re the Ormstown Evening Auxiliary. Mrs. Hooker is the President of the Auxiliary and not Mrs. Gruer as was stated in last weeks' Gleaner and the Presbyterial reports were given by Mrs. R. Hooker and Miss Mildred Hay.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Cullen and Miss Myrtle Cullen attended the Derby-Cullen wedding in Montreal on Tuesday, March 5th.

Mrs. Robert Skidmore left on Saturday via C.N.R. for Toronto where she will spend some time with Mr. and Mrs William Montgomery and family.

Dr. and Mrs. Myron Mills and Mark of Napanee, Ont., were week-end guests of Dr Brian Hooker at the Alan Hooker home.

Master Richard Crete of Plattsburg, N.Y., is presently visiting his grandparents and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Cullen and Nancylyn.

Mr. Douglas Glover flew to Toronto on Sunday, being called there by the sudden death of his father, Dr. J. S. Glover.

Miss Molly Dooling spent the week-end at Georgetown, Ont., the guest of her sister and family.

WEDDING
MARKS - BEATTIE

The marriage of Dorothy, youngest daughter of Mr. Dougald Beattie and the late Mrs. Beattie of Ormstown, to Mr. Eugene Marks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Marks of St. Martins, N.B. took place in St. Paul's United Church, Ormstown, on February 23, 1963, with Rev. A. E. Loree officiating. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Percy Osmond and Mr. Ronald Duncan sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Bless This House."

The bride, given away by her father, wore a street length gown of white velvet, with shoulder length veil of tulle illusion held in place by a white velvet band. Her bouquet was a cascade of pink roses and white stephanotis. Mrs. Keith Hodge of Dorval as matron wore a street length blue velvet gown with matching head band and carried pink carnations. The best man was Mr. Wendell MacLean of Longueuil. The ushers were Mr. Gordon Rennie and Mr. Keith Rennie of Rockburn.

Mrs. Marks, mother of the groom wore a navy blue sheath under sheer print with navy and pink accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

The reception was held at MacDougall Hall which was beautifully decorated in pink and white with gladioli and mums gracing the tables.

Following the reception the happy couple left for a skiing week-end in Quebec's Eastern Townships. The bride's travelling attire was a powder blue wool suit with black and white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. They will reside in Chomedy, Que.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Marks of St. Martins, N. B., Mr. Robert Marks, brother of the groom, of New York City and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Thompson of Framington, Mass.

OBITUARY
The late Miss Isabella Jessie Elliott

Miss Elliott passed away in Ormstown Convalescent Home on Feb. 21st, 1963, in her 85th year.

The youngest daughter of the late William Elliott and Margaret Hamilton, she was born July 30th, 1878 on the Second Concession, North Georgetown, Que.

In the early nineties she and her mother moved to Regina, Sask., to be with her brothers, where she spent most of her life. She was an active member of the Sherwood Church, south of Regina. In her quiet manner she contributed to many worthy causes. In 1941 Miss Elliott moved to Howick to live with her sister and in 1949 moved to Ormstown.

The funeral service, from the McGerrigle Funeral Parlour, was conducted by Rev. J. C. Hood.

She leaves to mourn her loss several nephews and nieces, also two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Jas. Elliott. of Regina and Mrs. Hamilton Elliott of Montreal.

The pallbearers were George Elliott, Donald Marshall, Douglas Marshall, Raymond Elliott, Douglas Elliott and Merril Elliott with interment in Georgetown Cemetery.

W. I. Meeting

The Ormstown Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. John McCaffrey on March 5th. A goodly number of members were present as well as one visitor. Three new members joined. The roll call was answered by an old superstition.

This being the annual meeting reports from officers and conveners were given, with the exception of the president who was absent on account of sickness. Mrs. Robert Ovans reported that the quilt, a work project, had been completed and sold.

The election of officers and conveners are as follows: President, Mrs. A. A. McNeil; 1st Vice-Pres., Miss Kate Murphy; 2nd Vice-Pres., Mrs. John McKell; Secretary, Mrs. Wallace Kerr; Treasurer, Mrs. John McCaffrey. Conveners Agriculture, Mrs. John McKee; Home Economics, Mrs. Harold Parkinson, Education, Mrs. Ward Rember; Citizenship, Mrs. Smallman; Welfare and Health, Mrs. Robert Ovans; Publicity, Mrs. James Bruce.

A very interesting programme has been completed for the year. It is hoped that more of the younger women of the community will join and take advantage of the benefits that can be derived from these new ideas following the motto "For Home and Country".

Delegates to the County Convention and Provincial Convention were appointed.

The subject for the April meeting is agriculture. Members are asked to bring seeds and plants for exchange.

The meeting closed with the Mizah benediction after which all enjoyed the delicious refreshments prepared by the hostesses Mrs. McCaffrey, Mrs. H. Ovans and Miss Murphy.

New Pastor For Church Of The Nazarene

Rev. Harley E. Bye

The Rev. Harley E. Bye, of Montreal, has been appointed as supply pastor at the Huntingdon Church of the Nazarene, located on Hunter St., Huntingdon. The appointment was announced recently by the Rev. Bruce Taylor, District Superintendent of Nazarene churches in Quebec and Ontario.

Mr. Bye received the B.A. degree and the Th. B. degree at Eastern Nazarene College, in Wollaston, Mass., and did graduate work in Theology at McGill Divinity School. He was ordained to the ministry in 1958. He has held pastorates in Montreal and in Pittsfield, Maine. At present Mr. Bye is teaching history and English in a Montreal high school, while doing graduate work in education.

Mr. Bye is married and has two daughters, Dorothea and Daphne, and a son, Mark. The Byes reside at 7445 Bloomfield Avenue in Montreal.

The Church of the Nazarene was established in Huntingdon four years ago by the Rev. Heartman Henderson, who was the minister of the Franklin Centre Nazarene Church at the time. Since then the two churches have become a circuit. The Rev. Walter Mullen has been the pastor of the two churches for the past two years.

The Church of the Nazarene is an evangelical Protestant Church, Methodist in doctrine and democratic in Government.

De grand ménage et d'autres!

Le printemps arrive et, avec lui, l'inévitable "grand ménage". Les femmes, envahies de fringale printannière, vont déclencher leur guerre sacrée personnelle du bien contre le mal, de l'ordre vs. le désordre, du propre vs. le malpropre. Elles sont fatiguées d'un long hiver où elles ont dû assister, passives, à la déconfiture du gouvernement fédéral, aux actions électriques... du pouvoir provincial, au clapotis local à propos d'une piscine tombée du ciel (se serait-elle arrêtée à mi-vol ?). Voici maintenant leur chance à l'action. Dressées en cohortes vengeresses, elles vont s'attaquer furieusement à la poussière, aux taches noires, au fouillis des tiroirs. Tripotant dans l'eau de Javel, brossant, essuyant, rinçant, la sueur au front, les cheveux en bataille, la femme se venge, à grands coups de balai, du rôle passif que la société lui impose. Comme dirait l'autre : Ça fait mal, mais ça fait donc du bien !"

Cette énorme dépense d'énergie ne se limite pas au grand ménage du printemps et de l'automne. Dans bien des foyers de chez nous, on n'a guère le temps de dire "ouf" entre ces deux gigantesques entreprises. Il semble exister une compétition inavouée entre les maitresses de maison — c'est à qui aura ses tentures le plus souvent sur la corde à linge, à qui tiendra ses fenêtres les plus reluisantes. Je connais des femmes qui repassent même les chaussettes ; d'autres qui empèsent jusqu'au pyjama de leur mari, à son grand désespoir, d'ailleurs. Propreté équivaut presque à sainteté. Qui n'a pas entendu cette remarque : "Ah ! c'est une bien bonne personne ; ça reluit comme un sou neuf chez elle..." Plus une mère est éreintée à la fin de la journée, plus elle a le sentiment d'avoir accompli son devoir. Elle ne songe pas que ses enfants préféreraient peut-être la voir plus gaie, plus attentive au récit de leurs exploits scolaires et sportifs au lieu d'avoir à retirer leurs chaussures à la porte et de se faire disputer parce qu'ils tachent le plancher.

Toute cette activité n'est donc pas pour le bénéfice des enfants. Ils en souffrent plutôt. Serait-elle pour le mari ? Au contraire, il voit arriver le grand ménage avec de fortes appréhensions ; il sait que ce sera une période terrible où la camaraderie entre sa douce moitié et lui-même sera réduite à sa plus simple expression : "Ah ! que je suis donc fatiguée..." Serait-ce donc pour les amies, les voisines ? Avez-vous déjà entendu une femme dire : "Que j'aime donc ma voisine — sa maison est toujours impeccable ?" Au contraire, plus vos fenêtres reluisent, plus on vous enviera, en essayant de vous découvrir des défauts secrets.

La vie est si courte — même si les statistiques donnent aux femmes quelques années de plus à vivre qu'aux hommes — racourcissons ces interminables heures de nettoyage. Qu'il y ait un peu de poussière sur la table du salon, qu'est-ce que ça peut faire ? Ne soyons pas d'éternelles femmes de ménage, ne laissons pas la vie passer à côté de nous pendant que nous rangeons un obscur placard. Connaissons nos enfants, ces jeunes êtres frétillants d'énergie ; écoutons-les parler, même si l'on doit mettre un travail de côté pour le faire ; vous retrouverez en eux votre jeunesse. Ce ne sera pas chose facile de vous défaire ainsi de vieilles habitudes, de traditions presque (je ne vous donne pas ici de conseils pratiques — les revues et les journaux en sont remplis) mais si vous vous décidez à le faire, vous pourrez aussi accueillir votre mari, le soir, avec un peu moins l'air d'une martyre. Pourvu que la maison ait un minimum de propreté et qu'il ait une chemise propre pour le lendemain, votre mari sera complètement satisfait. Faites-lui donc cette surprise cette année — un grand ménage inaperçu !

Jeanne Clément.

Cours de préparation au mariage

A une demande formulée, je suis très heureuse de donner quelques-unes de mes impressions sur les Cours de Préparation au Mariage.

Disons tout d'abord que ces cours nous indiquent les quatre grands moyens d'être heureux: la connaissance du mariage, de ses lois, de sa psychologie; l'amour vrai et généreux; la grâce sacramentelle; la morale fidèlement respectée. Ils nous donnent aussi une idée plus haute et plus complète de l'amour conjugal, de l'état conjugal, de la sublimité du véritable amour. Ce n'est loin d'être la minimité de l'amour comme dans les films, les romans, ou les magazines. Cette différence est tellement grande qu'elle ne peut même être comparée. Rien ne peut vraiment remplacer ces cours de préparation au mariage. Ils demandent quelquefois du sacrifice, mais là où il y a du sacrifice, il y a aussi du bonheur, un bonheur vraiment incomparable.

Comme il fait bon se connaitre tel ou telle que nous sommes, connaitre notre ami (e) tel qu'il est, telle qu'elle est, avec nos défauts réciproques et nos qualités, avec nos déficiences et aussi nos possibilités.

Quelle étude magnifique et passionnante que celle de deux âmes qui se sondent l'une l'autre avant de s'attacher pour toujours, afin de savoir si elles pourront trouver ensemble le bonheur de leur vie.

Comme l'on est dans le vrai, dans le réel, dans le solide ! Nous considérons que c'est vraiment une très grande nécessité chez les époux que d'avoir cet ensemble de connaissances et de vertus indispensables au succès matériel et spirituel du foyer. Nous n'avons vraiment rien à perdre, mais tout à gagner. En y suivant ces enseignements et ces indications, c'est le bonheur que nous y puisons, le vrai bonheur, la vie et la Vie. Levons les yeux et marchons dans la confiance, la sécurité, l'abandon à notre Père des cieux! Nous y voyons beau et immensément grand!

De graves devoirs et de lourds sacrifices s'enchaineront au fil des jours. Mais ces chaines seront d'or comme l'alliance qui les scelle; elles seront aimées et glorieuses si l'on a le courage de les porter chrétiennement.

Telles sont mes impressions de ces cours que je garde précieusement. Si un jour, il se présente des difficultés, n'importe lequel d'entre nous sera sûrement bien outillé pour y faire face grâce à ces Cours de Préparation au Mariage !

Une Participante,
Pierrette.

Message au producteurs de sucre d'érable

QUEBEC, le 25 février 1963 — Quand la saison des sucres s'ouvrira-t-elle ? Il est difficile de répondre à cette question d'une façon précise ; elle peut être retardée ou nous arriver plus tôt qu'on ne le pense. Il serait opportun, toutefois, que les producteurs songent dès maintenant aux préparatifs de cette première récolte.

Il faut songer à ouvrir les chemins et mettre la cabane en ordre. Cela implique les travaux suivants : réparer et placer l'évaporateur au niveau, si cela est nécessaire, fixer le tuyau à fumée, puis installer le réservoir d'emmagasinage à l'extérieur de la cabane, s'il ne l'est pas déjà.

Les ustensiles doivent être bien lavés. Ce lavage n'est jamais trop bien fait si l'on veut obtenir un produit de belle qualité. Le lavage des chalumeaux qui consiste à les faire tremper dans l'eau bouillante et à les brasser quelque peu, n'est pas suffisant. Il faut les brosser individuellement, à l'intérieur comme à l'extérieur, si nous voulons éviter la contamination de l'entaille et obtenir toute la sève qu'on est en droit d'attendre de l'érable.

Ces travaux préliminaires terminés, le producteur de sucre possédant de bons chalumeaux, pourra profiter d'une période de dégel, même plusieurs jours avant l'arrivée de la première coulée, pour faire l'entaillage.

Cette opération effectuée trop à la hâte, sans attention, est souvent responsable de la perte du rendement, perte qui peut représenter parfois de 20 à 25% des érables entaillés. On devra se rappeler qu'il est important de pratiquer la nouvelle entaille dans un endroit sain, éloigné de cinq ou six pouces des vieilles entailles, et jamais directement au-dessus ou au-dessous de ces dernières.

Soyons prêts à temps, procédons avec diligence et propreté et nous obtiendrons un produit de meilleure qualité et un plus fort rendement.

Ces recommandations sont de la Division de l'Acériculture, du Ministère de l'Agriculture et de la Colonisation, Henri J. Plourde, chef.

ON DEMANDE

UNE ferme avec l'eau courante, au moins 100 acres cultivable et autant de bois, avec batisses et machineries, à proximité d'une école anglaise Ecrire Gleaner B.P. 6580, Huntingdon, Quebec.

ON DEMANDE un homme pour travail de Station de Service pour soir et dimanche, avec experience si possible. S'adresser à Roch Trepanier Automobile, Huntingdon.

Mr. Villeneuve obtained his B.A. from the College de l'Assomption and a M.A. in industrial relations from the University of Montreal in 1949, he is teaching evening courses in Personnel Administration at the Hautes Etudes Commerciales, (School of Commerce, U. of M.). Four years as Personnel Manager with the General Cigar Company, 1952 to 1956 with Canadian General Electric Co. as Specialist in Union Relations and since 1956 in his present position with Johnson & Johnson Limited, Montreal.

His Memberships are Montreal Personnel Association, Graduate Association of Industrial Relations — University of Montreal, Montreal Board of Trade, Chambre de Commerce de Montréal, Canadian Manufacturers Association — Member of the Quebec Division — Industrial Relations Commitee, Personnel Administration, Washington, D.C., University of Montreal Alumni Association.

Mr. Villeneuve's subject matter should be of great interest to all in Management and his topic will be "Let Them Manage".

Thin Plastic Still Kills

Even normally careful parents can make the slip that could cost a child's life. While most have learned by others' sad experiences never to reuse plastic film to cover a crib mattress, or as a diaper bag in the carriage, it's not so obvious that even carrying plastic covered clothing home from the cleaners on the same car seat as a baby can lead to sudden death.

Not only is suffocation from the thin film quick because it is airtight, its very thinness will make it cling to a baby's face despite attempts to free himself. It happens fast — in less than a minute. Most of us would be shocked at the thought of leaving garden shears or a carving knife on a car seat with a baby, but a transparent plastic bag looks so harmless it's hard to realize it is just as lethal.

In the home, car, backyard or anywhere else where children are, plastic should be out of bounds. Never re-use it for any reason, urges the National Safety League of Canada. If you need a mattress cover for the crib, buy a heavy one made for the purpose. For laundry use a cotton laundry bag. Collect the children's toys in a box. Plastic film is not a safe substitute for any of these items. It is not safe in the same house with children.

Burn it or tie it in a tight knot and discard it every time you come across one. Always remember a plastic bag anywhere near a baby could spell instant death.

Observation

Following last Wednesday's heavy snowfall and the high winds on Thursday, which caused considerable drifting and poor visibility the weather on the week-end was quite pleasant with Sunday being sunny and mild. Snow was forecast for Monday evening and Tuesday but by late afternoon had not materialized.

It appears that most people are following the doctors' advice and are staying close to home while the flu germ is in our midst.

Adjourned Meeting Town Council

The Huntingdon Town Council met for an adjourned meeting at the County Building, on Monday night. The only business transacted at this time was the passing of the Financial Statement and re-engagement of the auditor, Mr. W. L. Carr. The financial statement showed a deficit of $1,200 on the year's operations for 1962. It also showed that capital expenses of $23,000 had been paid from current revenue.

As Others...

1930s. At that time a similar progam could have been carried out in Ontario for about $50 million. Finally undertaking the job in 1947, Ontario Hydro estimated it would cost $200 million; total cost is now set at $352 million.

Another criterion of efficiency of operation: "The Commission at last count employed 12,515 regular workers to sell 35,000,000,000 kwh; Shawinigan had 3,288 to sell 13,500,000,000 kwh, or 48.8 per cent less people per kwh."

In the matter of charges to householders the two companies pursued different policies; Shawinigan had a uniform rate, while Hydro's rate apparently included transmission expense and rose with distance from the power source. In urban areas the Shawinigan rate was $6.85 for 500 kwh; Hydro's rate varied from $4.25 to $8.10, and averaged $6.07. For rural service the charge they decide to move elsewhere was $8.15 in Quebec, $9.22 in Ontario.

However, if some rates were lower in Ontario than in Quebec, the difference was not profits, but taxes; 20.9 per cent of Shawinigan's gross went to taxes, compared to 1.3 per cent for Hydro. "Were it subject to the same income tax rates as privately owned Canadian utilities," says the article, " the Ontario commission would have required $53.9 million additional revenue in 1961 — equivalent to an increase in power rates of about 25 per cent." No doubt, though, the public made up in other ways the taxes not paid by Hydro.

Finally, on the suggestion that public ownership makes every customer a shareholder: that is true only in the sense that customers pay the cost of building or buying the utility. They are far removed from its management, and there is no market for their "shares" if

Leslie Robertson, Franklin Centre Imports Sheep For Breeding

We hear much about cattle in this part of the country and that is as it should be when it is considered that this is one of the best dairy farming areas in Canada. But we must also remember that this is an agricultural country and thus there are many other branches which should receive mention.

From time to time we have had stories of sheep in this area and various methods used in sheep raising and the uses for the product produced. Well this time we have another sheep story, just a little bit different, but nevertheless another angle of why sheep raising should be followed.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Robertson of Franklin Centre were in the Gleaner office this week to tell us about some sheep they have imported from Scotland. One thing we have noticed about sheep and that is in many cases the women are very much interested and do a lot of work in connection with this form of animal husbandry. Thus it is that Mrs. Robertson knows quite a lot about sheep and is as interested as her husband, Leslie.

Well it seems that the Robertsons had a holiday in the homeland of Scotland, at least it is Mrs. Robertson's homeland, and while there became interested in sheep. This interest led them to having some of Mrs. Robertson's relatives select a few head with idea of sending them to their farm at Franklin Centre. The breed chosen is the North Country Cheviot and three rams and five ewes — fully mature animals arrived at Franklin in early December. They are all pure bred animals and the certificates for them have now been received.

The plan behind all this is that the Robertsons will breed this type of sheep and then sell the offspring to other farmers requiring this sort of stock to improve their own flocks. These sheep will be crossbred with other breeds in order to produce larger sheep and thus have a greater production of meat per individual carcass. The particular breeds in Canada at the present time have been inbred so much that the consequence is that the offspring tend to be of small variety and less valuable as a meat product. The crossing is expected to change this. These sheep are a much larger type than usually found here.

Mr. Robertson has been encouraged by many prominent officials in the sheep world including Government Dept. officials who have been looking for importations of this kind. The story of the animals has been given prominence in several agricultural magazines both in this country and in Great Britain.

Original importations of this breed were brought in through interest shown by Macdonald College. Mr. Robertson hopes to have some lambs this spring and he invites any interested to visit his farm and see for themselves as well as talk it over with him. We are constantly being told that a new method of farming is coming to Quebec and much more use must be made of the farms now being held. This may be one method of farming that could produce more returns and perhaps one that has been neglected the past few years.

Rotary Clubs To Observe "World Understanding Week"

The Rotary Clubs of Huntingdon, Valleyfield and Beauharnois are organizing a special feature for World Understanding Week which will be celebrated during the week of March 18th to 23rd next.

At their regular meeting, next week, the district Rotary Clubs will invite neo-Canadians to be their guests at the regular weekly luncheons. If time permits, these Canadians from foreign lands, will be asked to address the gathering.

Rotarians and their friends are invited to listen to a special broadcast of World Understanding Week over Station CFLV (1370) Radio Valleyfield Limited, next Sunday, between noon and one o'clock in the afternoon. A special proclamation will be read on this occasion and other pertinent facts will be noted.

Teatime Topics

Remember when bacon was packaged in red cellophane and you could never tell whether it was lean or lard? Or when a skirt was labelled "wool and rayon" when it contained 98 per cent rayon and two per cent wool?

Shopping annoyances such as these are ended frequently through the efforts of a 15-year-old organization, the Consumers' Association of Canada.

Since its formation in 1947 as a follow-up to the consumer section of the Wartime Prices Board, the association has been determined to represent, protect and educate the buying public. And as a result of its constant probing, the shopping baskets, clothes closets and pocket books of nearly all Canadians have been affected.

In 1951, the CAC opposed a proposal for a law for resale price maintenance — a system which would outlaw price-cutting and would allow manufacturers to set the prices on goods. The CAC felt such a law would mean higher prices for the consumer.

In 1952 the CAC, with other groups, was called by the government to formulate the enrichment regulations on bread and flour (vitamins and minerals are lost when flour is milled).

Won Federal Law

The association's bacon packaging fight came in 1953. The CAC first went to the packaging industry with its complaints but when these were ignored, it went to Ottawa to have a rule outlawing red-striped packaging passed.

The CAC also was instrumental in the removal of red netting from fruit baskets, netting which made green fruit look a rosy ripe shade.

The CAC has been waging a long struggle for the standardization of food grading language. At present, meat is graded choice, good and standard, poultry is graded purple, red, blue, yellow and brown, butter is Canada choice one, two and three and canned fruit and vegetables are graded Canada fancy, choice and standard.

In 1956, the association promoted the adoption of the National Trade Mark and True Labelling Act which protects consumers from devious labelling practices in clothing. Now manufacturers may name a fibre only when it makes up at least five per cent of a garment.

After nine years of work the CAC last year saw the results of its efforts to have the sizes of children's clothing standardized. Children's clothes bearing the Canada Standard Size label (a sizing system based on body measurement rather than age) came on the market.

Other current and future projects of the CAC include: an investigation of low grade milk being used in unpasteurized cheddar cheese; the replacement of aluminum foil for zinc on home canning screw tops; investigation of the factors in the recent increase in bread prices; better styling and more variety of color in large-size dresses.

And in the spring of this year, the CAC will publish the first report on one of its most important projects — the testing of consumer goods. Testing will start with household items, drugs, power tools and other small goods and reports on goods tested will be published about four times a year.

The Development Of Golf

If someone asked you to get out the "featheries" and have a game of "paganica", would you (a) call for the straight jacket, (b), wait for Spring or (c) change the subject?

If you're a knowledgeable golfer, you'd keep the conversation going — and wait for Spring! Truth is, some historians believe Paganica was the earliest Roman version of modern golf.

And as for "featheries", these were the standard golf balls used in Merrie England until little more than a century ago. They were made of feathers, packed in leather jackets, painted and then used on early 19th century fairways.

Who invented golf?

In ancient Rome, citizens palyed "paganica" with a leather ball and a bent stick. In England in 1363, during the reign of Edward III, records show "cambuca" was played, with a wooden ball and a crooked stick.

What were early golf balls made of?

Earliest golf balls were known as "featheries". They had stitched leather covers filled with boiled feathers. Old standby was that a top hat full of feathers was the right amount for each ball. A stuffing iron was used, the finished "ball" hammered into shape, then painted white.

From earliest times to about 1845, "featheries" were the standard ball. In that year, the Rev. Dr. Robert Adams Patterson made the all-gutta percha ball, nick-named the "gutty". At first plain, the ball suffered in true flight characteristics by surface marks made by clubs; surface patterns were thereupon introduced, first in small squares, later as a pattern of "pimples".

Then two years before the close of the last century, Coburn Haskell introduced the rubber-cored ball in the U.S. In England, this proved the making of the game and it became widely popular. In 1912 Dunlop rubber scientists refined the rubber-cored ball, adding an average 31 yards of drive; in 1922, the "Maxfli" (for "maximum flight") and in 1934 the "Dunlop 65" (after Henry Cotton's historic 1934 Open Championship round of 65) added even more yardage.

CANDIAC – DELSON – LAPRAIRIE

Delson News

Following the controversy stemming from the decision of the Protestant School Board of Greater Laprairie to purchase a site in Candiac for the erection of a Secondary School, the majority of ratepayers opposing, when alternate sites more central and less costly are available, an injunction was granted by Judge Andre Sabourin of the Superior Court, at a hearin which took place on Thursday, March 7th, restraining the School Board from purchasing the Candiac site. The injunction will remain in force until a final judgement has been rendered to determine the legallity of resolutions formerly passed by the Board for said purpose. Citizens of Delson, St. Constant and Cote Ste. Catherine are requested to attend a Citizens Commitee meeting which will be held in Delson Town Hall on Wednesday, March 13th at 8 p.m.

First Delson Cub Pack

At the March 1st meeting held in St. Therese School, Delson, two cubs went up to Scouts namely, Brian Epps with 8 Proficiency Badges plus Leaping Wolf and Thomas LeGros with 4 Proficiency Badges plus Leaping Wolf. Mrs. M. Brown and Mrs. Linkutis were invested as leaders. Twenty-eight cubs attended the meeting and were taken to St. Constant where they had a wonderful time bowling. Tom LeGros gained highest mark with 104 points and Danny Linkutis the lowest with 14 points. Better luck next time Danny. Last Friday evening, March 8th, two boys were invested, Robin Courchesne and Eric Hanson. This was a most important event in the lives of these cubs and their parents were in attendance supporting the boys interest.

House Orderly Badges have been won by Emmett Mahoney, Lloyd Wall, Allan LeGros and Thomas LeGros. Mrs. W. Leo Neville was the examiner. The Pack were very happy to have Akela T. Sheepwash back again following his recent indisposition.

Delson Scout Committee Will Promote "Sugaring Party"

On March 30th, the Delson Scouts Commitee will sponsor a "Sugaring Party" which it is hoped will be a gala event. Door prizes, skits and dancing will form part of the programme. A scrumptuous hot dinner will be served and there will be an interesting visit to the Sugaring House. For further information please call Mr. T. Sheepwash, NE2-0578 after 6 p.m.

H. and S.A. Will Hold Meeting

The regular meeting of the Protestant Home and School Association of Greater Laprairie will be held in School No. 1, St. Constant, on Tuesday March 19th, at 8 p.m. Mrs. Harold Jacob presiding. Following the business session a general discussion will take place concerning Ways and Means of providing a School Library. The guest speaker will outline a series of various measures by which this objective may be attained. Parents should be concerned regarding the proposed Library which will be most beneficial to the children, so please plan to attend the meeting with this interest in mind.

Get Well Wishes

Our best wishes for a speedy recovery go out to Captain Buttle, leader of the Girl Guides, who underwent a major operation last week. The various groups send along their good wishes and a special big wish from Lt. Simpson and Mrs. H. Ball Sr.

Congratulations

Hearty congratulations are in order for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clarke on the birth of a daughter at Lachine General Hospital, last week. Sister for Michael, Deborah, Stephen and Karen.

PRESENTATION OF DOW TROPHY TO HUNTINGDON CLYDES

Following the final game in the playdowns of the Chateauguay Valley Hockey League, on Wednesday night, March 6th, at the Huntingdon County War Memorial Arena, the presentation of the trophy was made to Huntingdon Clydes team. The Clydes took the best four out of seven games to become the 1963 champions and win the trophy, which was presented to them by the President of the League, Mr. George Laurin. Shown in the above photo from left to right are: Robt. Marshall, Howard Duheme of Huntingdon Clydes; President C.V.H.L., George Laurin; Robert Primeau and Robert Cote of the Ormstown team which was the runner-up.

Chateauguay Valley Students Enjoy Career Conference

(By W. Fountain)

The second annual C.V.T.A. Career Conference for students of Grades 10 and 11 in the Chateauuay Valley was held last Friday at Howick High School.

Students from every High School in the Chateauguay Valley arrived and after registering in the gymnasium proceeded to the cafeteria where they were served a dinner of Bar-B-Q chicken. After a short period of relaxation the students went to the different classrooms to hear their choice of speakers offered.

Among some of the careers represented were Sun Life Insurance, Trans-Canada Airlines for boys and girls, Armed Services, Bell Telephone, Sir George Williams School of Business, Montreal Institute o Technology, Agriculture, Social Work and Teaching. These talks were divided up into three sections in order to give the students a chance to hear as many as possible. All the speakers were very interesting and informative and everyone who attended came away more informed than when they had arrived.

It was a very interesting and profitable evening and the students, teachers and all others concerned with the organizing of this evening are to be commended on their excellent job.

Chateauguay's New Telephone Exchange A $1,400,000. Investment

Construction of Chateauguay's new "691" exchange — at $1,400,000 investment in the region's future — —is now in its final stages, R. C. B. Love, Bell Telephone manager for the area, announced this week

Some ten truckloads of intricate switching equipment, costing over $700,000 and virtually all manufactured in Canada, is now being installed in the two-storey exchange by skilled Northern Electric craftsmen. The complex task will be completed by midsummer, when 2,500 area residents will be transferred to the new exchange from the existing "692" office.

Five reels of large size cable containing from 900 to 2700 pairs of wire have already been "pulled in" to the new exchange, Mr. Love said, and 6,000 feet of additional cable have been placed in conduits. These facilities are being spliced into the existing cable network in preparation for the transfer of customers to the new exchange.

"All customers being transferred were notified by letter" Mr. Love said, "and each will be assigned a new number — beginning with 691- before the exchange is opened next July. Business customers will receive their new numbers well in advance of the transfer so they can have them included when ordering new station cry."

A directory supplement containing all the new numbers will be mailed to customers just prior to the opening of the new exchange, the manager said.

Commenting on the cost of the project, Mr. Love said that the largest expense item was for the equipment being installed inside the exchange, followed by the cost of the building itself. The amounts spent for the sophisticated electronic equipment linking the new exchange to the existing exchange network, for underground conduits, for land and for cable, followed in descending order.

"All this money was spent in Canada," Mr. Love said. "We are proud of being a Canadian company and we see to it that money paid by Canadians for telephone service is returned to the Canadian economy."

The new Chateauguay exchange is being equipped to serve some 4,000 customers initially, but, in anticipation of continuing growth in the region, it has been designed to ultimately handle 17,000 telephone subscribers.

Ormstown Curlers Win Calidonia Trophy

Ormstown Curling Club has another trophy to put on its victory shelf.

The Ormstown Club won the Calendonia Curling Club's Centenary Bonspiel on Saturday, March 9th, as skip Gilles Brunet led his crew to an 11-6 triumph over Ham Guthrie of Thistle.

Playing with the winning crew were Archie Hughes, Bernier Poirier and Bernie Brunte.

Culture For Everybody

SCIENCE is not the be-all and end-all of life. You may know all about the sun and all about the atmosphere and all about the rotation of the earth, and yet miss the radiance of the sunset.

Culture has to do with the less material aspects of life, like intellectual proficiency and the love of beautiful things. It includes knowledge, belief, art, morals, and other attributes acquired by man in the shared existence we call society.

It is false to think of culture as something we seek merely as a distraction from the workaday world. Neither is it a craving for sensation, a fastidious search for strange refinement, or a jealous cultivation of art as a thing preserved for the elite.

Walter Herbert, Director of the Canada Foundation, wrote in his essay on "The Cultural Pattern" which he contributed to the United Nations Series book Canada (University of Toronto Press 1950): "The cultural pattern of a nation is a mosaic of many intricately adjusted parts, touching almost every aspect of the national life." It is, collectively, the sum of special knowledge that accumulates in any large united family and is the common property of all its members.

Culture is also an individual thing. Man does not live by bread alone. He turns from abour to look inward, examining himself, and outward, speculating on life and what is beyond life. These thoughts he expresses through speech and drama, music and ballet, painting and sculpture, poetry and literature. These are the things which give us our status as human beings.

As has been said before in these Letters, Canada is a country in which no one need live meanly except by choice

We had a stock-taking in 1949 to 1951, when the Royal Commission on National Development in the Arts, Letters and Sciences (the Massey Commission) examined us in depth from coast to coast. Its report went a long way toward convincing us that culture is worth-while in both national and individual life. Its sequel the setting up of a Canada Council for the Encouragement of the Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences in 1957 gave practical form to the Commission's recommendations.

Culture, as interpreted by these media, is a means to help people to appreciate the first rate and seek it instinctively.

Not all things culturally good in other parts of the world are acceptable in Canada. Lapis lazuli, the deep blue stone which is so beautiful against the sun and the sand of Egypt, may be a dull, darkish bead under our northern sky.

But we have assembled the vivid and adventurous spirits of many races in an environment favourable to the creation of a great Canadian culture. There is, as the Massey Commission said: "an earnest and wide-spread will of our people to enrich and quicken the cultural and intellectual life of Canada.

SOME FORMS OF CULTURE

MUSIC

Darwin claimed that the power of producing and appreciating music existed among the human race long before the power of speech was arrived at. Shakespeare, when he had to express the inexpressible laid down his pen and called for music. And Friedrich Nietzsche, author of the creed of the superman, wrote in 1910: "Without music, life would be a mistake."

During one season alone, eight Canadian singers sang leading roles at Covent Garden, one of the great opera houses of the world. Canadian composers are receiving the attention they deserve at home and abroad. Young men and women participate in the National Youth Orchestra of Canada, which made its debut at the end of 1960. There were seventeen summer festivals of opera productions and musicals scheduled in 1962.

Many organizations are helping in the development of music in Canada. The Canadian Music Centre was formed in 1959 to make Canadian music better known. It acts as a library and promoting agency, and distributes scores by Canadian composers to conductors, performers and programme builders. It listed 318 composers in 1962, of whom ninety were active.

Music is not alone an instrument of entertainment but also one of personal development. The Canadian Bureau for the Advancement of Music stated its purpose in 1919: "to develop the study and appreciation of music for its educational and stimulating value in life."

DRAMA

There is in this country a large and until recent years unsuspected audience for good theatre. This is evidenced by the success of the Dominion Drama Festival, which saw sixty-three groups entered in the fourteen Regional Festivals held across Canada. Since it was formed in 1933, the Dominion Drama Festival has come to mean "the stage" for most Canadians.

It is significant that the Departments of Education of the provinces are providing the majority of the halls for performance of the theatrical arts. In this way they are providing a good opportunity for cultural enrichment to young people.

The freshly imaginative work, the thoughtful drama of a new playwright, need such help if they are to reach the large number of people who are interested in ideas as well as in entertainment.

BALLET

Ballet is a going concern in Canada. It might be argued that a country like this, with a population of eighteen million dispersed over an enormous area, would be lucky to have and support one ballet company adequately. But in Canada we have three: the National Ballet, the Royal Winnipeg Ballet, and Les Grands Ballets Canadiens. Their combined budget tops a million dollars a year.

Ballet is one of the most demanding of all the performing arts. They say that behind every little ballerina there is a dedicated mother. She has to be, what with practices and the making of costumes. There is also a devoted father, who must foot the bill and attend performances. There are also enthusiastic performers: to see the eagerness with which students at the Banff School of Fine Arts hurry to classes every day for six weeks and linger at practice late into the night is an experience not soon forgotten.

The difficulties multiply when one gets into the highly exacting professional arena. A ballet company cannot be put together for a limited season and then disbanded. It is not only a group of artists performing together, but also a team of athletes which must practise and work together for the greater part of the year. No city in Canada is big enough to support a fairly long season of the kind possible in London and New York, and so our ballet companies must take to the road, spreading their art across the country to reach their potential audience. The National Ballet of Canada attracts up to 14,000 persons a night on its United States tours.

OPERA

Opera has made strides in recent years. In its third annual report the Canada Council drew attention to the Opera Festival Association of Toronto (later named the Canadian Opera Company because of its extended work) which had drawn audiences totalling 65,000 in a single season.

The Canadian Opera Guild, with membership in every province, was formed in 1959 to support and sponsor the Canadian Opera Company. The length of the season is second only to the Metropolitan in this hemisphere. Beginning at Toronto, the company travels throughout Canada, presenting opera in more than 85 centres. It is handicapped in that the expense compels it to travel without an orchestra, making use of only a single piano and thus limiting its possible repertoire, except in one two centres where a local orchestra permits a full performance.

SEWAGE DISPOSAL

If the sewage tank fails chances are it has not been cleaned out for some time. When raw sewage builds up and runs into the disposal bed the tiles clog very rapidly. A tank that is built for family needs should be cleaned every 4 - 5 years, and only sewage should go in. Soap and detergents used in normal amounts should not cause any trouble.

Clydes Win Dow Trophy

For the fourth consecutive year the Huntingdon Clydes team has won the C.V.H.L. Championship. They defeated Ormstown last Wednesday night thus winning the series 4 games to none.

Following the game the Dow Trophy was presented to Clydes' Captain, Howard Duheme, by the president of the league, George Laurin.

It was a big night for Clydes, marking the fourth championship in as many years.

Special thanks must be given to our spectators who supported the team all year.

We mustn't forget either the coach, Bob Marshall and manager Jimmy Smythe, who both did a splendid job.

The teams were all good sports and a pleasure to play against and we hope to meet them again next year.

A final thanks to all the players of the team for their co-operation and good spirit all season.

Last year Clydes won the Molson Trophy, which has to be defended yearly. A team from Toronto will be at the Huntingdon War Memorial this Saturday, March 16th. You will remember this team was here last year and defeated Huntingdon Clydes.

We hope to see a large number of specators on hand, because this will be the last game of the year.

In the Junior final play-off game at the Huntingdon County War Memorial Arena, Monday night, a fast, smooth passing Port Lewis squad proved to be of real championship calibre by downing the power-packed Junior Clyde's by the score of 5 to 4 in overtime. They did it the hard way, coming from behind no less than 4 times. At the end of the regulation time with the score at 4 goals apiece the game was forced into sudden death overtime, 1st goal to win. From the moment the puck dropped to start the do or die effort, pressure and excitement built up to the explosion point as both teams went in for an all out effort. The Port Lewis coach added fuel to the fire by pulling off his defencemen and throwing 5 forwards into a sustained attack. This almost backfired as Clyde's broke in the clear on a couple of occasions and went in to test Carl Kirby in the Port Lewis nets but each time he came up with big saves. He was extra good when he picked off Marc Lefebvre's point blank shot that was tagged goal all the way.

Finally coach Les Kirby's faith in his speedy forwards paid off. They pinned the hard fighting Clyde's in their own zone and peppered Goalie McIntyre with shot after shot but he was equal to the task and brought off some great game saving saves. The precision passing Port Lewis squad clicked on a smooth play and Marshall made no mistake as he went in close and gave McIntyre no chance. The red light went on and the game was over. This was exciting hockey, a good game to win, a heartbreaker to lose. There were cheers for one side and perhaps a tear on the other but the Clydes went down fighting all the way and took the loss in real sportsmanlike manner. Scores for the Clyde's were McConville, Bergevin and Andre Monique with 2.

Marksmen for Port Lewis were Egan with 2 goals, Warren and Les Haworth, one apiece and Marshal with the big one.

The season's high scorers for the Port Lewis Champs was the Razzle Dazzle Haworth line of Dennis, Les and Warren Haworth, Maurice Egan and Brian Marshal. Smooth skating, sharp shooting forwards, well drilled defencemen, strength on the bench, plus top notch goal tending blend these boys together to make up a well balanced Hockey Club.

Junior hockey has now come to a close with Port Lewis proving to be the class of local Junior Hockey, having won the championship three consecutive years, no mean feat in any league. All teams, players and officials deserve a lot of credit for having done a tremendous job in encouraging Jr. hockey. A special vote of thanks to the teams coaches who gave their time and no doubt their money to help the boys to be better citizens by being good sportsmen. By their efforts teaching these boys hockey, they are assuring us of good Senior Hockey in the near future — who knows maybe an N.H.L. player or two. Mighty oaks from acorns grow. These boys have hockey sticks, will travel.

HUNTINGDON

par PIERRE MENARD

La semaine dernière, j'ai bien ri. A deux reprises, des personnes de la place m'ont avoué que lorsque nous avons décidé la construction du terrain de golf dans la région d'Huntingdon, elles avaient émis la réflexion suivante: "Mais, ces gens sont dans les patates; comment peut-on avoir des idées aussi baroques?" Mais, à mesure que les discussions progressent, et sont énoncées que les statistiques, sur lesquelles était basée la décision, on convient de la sagesse qui a entouré l'organisation.

Nous sommes tous libres de participer ou de ne pas participer pécunièrement à une entreprise; mais nous ne sommes pas libres d'en parler à tort et à travers. Il y a toujours des gens qui nous écoutent, qui pourraient être intéressés à souscrire d'une manière ou d'une autre dans une nouvelle industrie. Les opinions sans fondement émises par des gens de bonne formation peuvent facilement réduire ou détourner totalement une souscription logique, ou encore, augmenter une souscription illogique. Si une nouvelle esquisse nous intéresse suffisamment pour en porter un jugement, elle doit nous intéresser suffisamment pour l'étudier au moins aussi profondément que nous voulons que nos paroles soient catégoriques. Les bonnes sociétés qui désirent la participation publique n'hésitent pas à donner les renseignements voulus, les motifs de leur venue, et les preuves de leur marché. Ces renseignements, personne autre que les organisateurs peuvent les donner.

Si nous voulons que nos enfants puissent gagner leur vie dans notre localité et ne soient pas obligés de s'expatrier dès qu'ils sont prêts à travailler, il faut savoir offrir un bon accueil aux entreprises qui proposent de s'y établir.

Les corps publics et les associations prennent forme et adoptent des attitudes bien inspirées. On sait que dernièrement, le conseil municipal a adopté une mesure présentée par la Chambre de Commerce locale; par l'application du bill "65", un fonds industriel de $100,000.00 a été créé. C'est un grand pas accompli, mais ce n'est qu'un début.

Quelques soient les efforts de nos associations, si le public ne supporte pas le travail d'organisation, ce sera vraiment peine perdue. La collaboration de toutes les sphères de la société est essentielle pour le progrès industriel. Tout comme les associations planifient et invitent, les institutions financières règlent les problèmes pécuniers; les ouvriers doivent fournir leur compréhension et la main-d'oeuvre.

Une excellente initiative a animé notre Chambre de Commerce locale. Mardi, le 19 mars 1963, à 8 heures p.m., au "Château" sera tenu un forum ayant comme sujet: "Collaboration pour le développement industriel". Seront représentés par des officiers de leur bureau-chef, le Ministère de l'Industrie et du Commerce, la Shawinigan Water and Power, les Chemins de Fer Nationaux, la Banque Canadienne Impériale de Commerce, la Banque de Montréal et les Caisses Populaires Desjardins.

Le public est invité à assister à ces causeries, et à participer au forum qui suivra.

C'est une occasion rare qui est fournie au public d'Huntingdon de parfaire leur formation sur l'organisation industrielle qui leur permet de gagner leur vie. Je suis assuré que la population répondra généreusement à l'invitation de manière à ce que les experts ne soient pas plus nombreux que les auditeurs.

Ainsi l'accueil réservé aux prochaines entreprises en sera d'autant plus chaleureux et plus cordial.

Le 8 mars 1963.

Votre Ami Pierrot.

L'Amour et le bonheur

(Dimanche, le 13 février 1963)
S. P. M.

Il faut avoir un peu d'audace pour traiter de ce grand sujet: L'Amour. C'était le sujet du dernier cours de préparation au mariage.

Pourquoi parler d'amour à des jeunes qui s'aiment... Dans le monde actuel, ça se ressent, ça se vit, les uns en sont contents, les autres mécontents. Aujourd'hui, à cause de la publicité tapageuse faite à la radio, T.V., au cinéma, dans certains journaux et surtout de l'influence des milieux de travail, etc., on est porté à concevoir l'amour uniquement sur son aspect physique et charnel. Pourquoi essayer de le définir. Ça se voit, ça se sent... oui ou non?

Avant de parler d'amour, il faut souligner qu'il est la seule passion. Les dix autres: la haine, le désir, et l'aversion, la joie et la souffrance, l'espérance et le désespoir, le courage et la peur, ainsi que la colère ne sont que des compléments, même si on les nomme passions. Et dans tout cela, il y a un atout important qui entre en jeu: "La liberté" qui se définit "Le choix de moyens bons pour arriver à une fin bonne.

Après cette introduction, les jeunes se sont demandé comment reconnaitre l'amour vrai de l'amour faux. Trois éléments aident à le découvrir: l'élément physique: la passion, l'élément spirituel: l'amitié, l'élément surnaturel: la charité, l'amour vrai est un don de Dieu. Il rend une vie pleine. Il est le ressort du dévouement et il procure le bonheur. Enfin, il est don de soi. C'est celui qui unit le jeune homme à la jeune fille pour les rendre capables de se donner l'un à l'autre pour une vie.

L'amour faux manque d'un ou plusieurs éléments nommés précédemment. Il est simplement sexuel ou animal. La vie moderne et la sexualisation de l'amour devient toupie. On doit multiplier les trills, les sensations, les aventures sentimentales pour essayer de tenir debout. Pin-up girl, concours de jambes, French-kiss, "parkings", sexualité et brutalité sont des signes évidents: d'égoïsme, qui recherche des plaisirs seulement sensibles, d'orgueil, qui ne veut pas céder à l'autre, d'influence du milieu de vie, où il faut savoir se prémunir contre les mauvaises influences, poser des actes positifs pour rendre son milieu plus favorable à l'amour chrétien.

Ceci entraine des attitudes chrétiennes en face du prochain. On agira souvent avec le conjoint de la même façon qu'on le fait présentement avec ses proches. Vient le respect mutuel: "Votre bonheur conjugal ne dépend pas d'une jouissance maximum, mais du respect que vous aurez l'un pour l'autre". L'estime réciproque basée sur des qualités physiques et des valeurs de personnalités chrétiennes, permet de dire "je n'aime que ce que j'admire". L'attrait mutuel, physique, moral, personnel, se vérifie par la joie d'être ensemble: par la difficulté de vivre sans l'autre; par une inclination fréquente de sa pensée vers l'autre; par le souci des problèmes et des préoccupations de l'autre. L'entière confiance sur l'idéal pour deux êtres qui s'aiment, entraine l'accord sur les problèmes essentiels de leur amour.

Avec tout cela, on franchira les étapes et on trouvera opportun les moyens pour construire l'amour qui sont: se comprendre, s'adapter, se faire mutuellement plaisir, s'oublier, tendre à une réciprocité de plus en plus grande, enfin donner à Dieu la première place. C'est ainsi la vraie définition de l'amour: qui est don de soi. C'est faire une place au vrai bonheur, qui est à l'intérieur de soi. Il naît du consentement du devoir accompli même s'il faut s'imposer des sacrifices.

Abbé Marcel.

SAINT-ANICET

La première paroisse, érigée canoniquement dans nos cantons du sud, a été celle de Saint-Anicet. On sait que nos deux cantons furent organisés après la révolution américaine, pour récompenser les soldats canadiens licenciés ou les loyalistes américains qui avaient servi l'Angleterre pendant la guerre. Ils furent divisés en lots. Ceux de Godmanchester furent immédiatement occupés, surtout près du lac St-François, par des Canadiens, des Ecossais, des Américains. Parmi eux, les catholiques étaient nombreux. Ils ne furent pas lents à solliciter de Mgr Hubert, le secours d'un missionnaire: celui de St-Régis. Le 12 octobre 1789, Mgr de Québec écrivait à ce dernier que les habitants du lac demandaient que lui, curé, aille dire la messe une fois ou deux par mois, dans une chapelle qu'ils construisaient, et leur assure le secours de son ministère; que non seulement il le lui permet, mais le prie de rendre ce service, lui donne juridiction, l'autorise à dédier et bénir leur chapelle sous le vocable de Notre-Dame-de-Bonsecours, comme ils l'ont demandé, à condition que ce surcroit de travail s'accomode avec ses fonctions à St-Régis. L'évêque, le 9 mars 1790, écrit aux fidèles du lac qu'il admire leur esprit de foi et qu'il charge M. McDonell de leur rendre tous les services dont il sera capable.

La nouvelle besogne du curé, ajoutée aux autres qu'il poursuivait à St-Régis et auprès de ses Ecossais de St-Andrew, ne l'accommodait pas, puisque, le 6 octobre 1791, Mgr la confiait à M. Brunet, curé des Cèdres. Il lui permettait de construire une chapelle à ce poste; il lui conseillait d'y aller trois ou quatre jours de suite par mois, de procéder à l'élection d'un syndic pour les finances, de célébrer le dimanche, trois ou quatre fois l'an; il terminait en l'assurant que M. Decoigne, qui avait offert sa maison à M. McDonell, renouvellerait son offre. M. Brunet ne toucha pas le succès. A son départ des Cèdres, il fut remplacé par M. Archambault qui reçut la mission de rétablir la paix, au lac. Incapable de suffire à sa propre paroisse, M. Archambault quitta sa cure qui fut mise aux mains de M. Aubry avec aussi la mission du lac. Après quelques années, accablé de travail, M. Aubry, outre sa paroisse et sa mission du lac, la plus difficile et la plus éloignée, portant le poids de trois autres desservtes: Rivière-à-Delisle, Coteau-du-Lac et Beauharnois, cria à l'aide d'un vicaire qui ne venait pas. Mgr remit la desserte du sud à M. Marcoux en 1813. Le 6 mars 1815, Mgr s'adresse à M. Aubry: il doit exciter les habitants du lac à bâtir une chapelle et à la finir l'année suivante; en attendant il pourra dire la messe dans une maison décente. Mais çà ne marche pas, et les gens du sud sollicitent d'être rattachés à St-Régis. M. Marcoux reprend la tâche le 16 mars 1816. Il n'aura pas, lui mande Mgr, l'obligation aux offices du dimanche avant la construction d'une chapelle; il pourra visiter son poste une fois par semaine avec messe dans une maison de son choix; les fidèles seront tenus à la dîme ou en bois, ou en grain, ou les deux à la fois, selon leurs occupations.

Voyage A Sherbrooke

Samedi dernier, Huntingdon avait la joie de se faire connaître à la province par l'entremise du Poste CHLT de Sherbrooke.

La soirée a été admirablement organisée par un de nos concitoyens Gérald Duhême. Se trouvaient au nombre du groupe, M. l'Abbé Marcel Gareau, remplaçant Mgr J.-A. David, p.d., M. le Maire et Madame Paul Lefebvre, M. le Maire de Godmanchester et Madame Joseph St-Onge, M. L.-A. Sanderson, représentant la Chambre de Commerce et Madame Sanderson, M. Raoul David, représentant la Commission Scolaire et Madame Raoul David.

Chanteurs, danseurs, jigueurs et joueurs de musique ont semé la joie non seulement pendant l'émission, mais aussi durant le voyage.

A notre arrivée, M. Louis Bilodeau et M. Garry Longchamps nous ont accueillis chaleureusement. Un souper froid des plus appétissants nous fut servi avant l'émission.

Un petit incident que vous n'avez pu remarquer à la Télévision est que le feu a failli prendre au studio pendant l'émission! En effet, un réflecteur touchait à un décor et ça fumait assez lorsque nous nous en sommes aperçus pendant un commenditaire.

Nous désirons remercier le poste CHLT et M. Bilodeau d'avoir bien voulu nous accepter à leur programme. De même, M. Gérald Duhême et tous ceux qui sont venus à Sherbrooke et qui ont ainsi coopéré à la réussite de cette soirée.

Ian Watson, Howick, Candidat Liberal

Le candidat libéral officiel pour l'élection du 8 avril est M. Ian Watson, aîné des quatre fils du Dr. et Mme Wilfred Watson, Howick, P.Q.

Né à Howick, M. Watson fit ses études à l'école supérieure de sa ville et il est aussi un gradué de l'Université Bishops et de l'école de Droit McGill. Il fut admis au Barreau de la province de Québec en 1959. Il est membre de Cérini & Jamieson, Maison de Droit de Montreal, et exerce sa profession à Chateauguay, P.Q. et Howick, sa ville natale.

Ian Watson est un excellent avocat de la grande virtualité de notre section Sud et Ouest de Québec et il promet un programme qui permettra à notre région d'obtenir le plus grand bénéfice et développement à l'Exposition Mondiale de 1967. M. Watson déclare que "notre région est un site agricole et nous devrions nous efforcer d'obtenir un succès sans précédent à cette Exposition.

M. Watson est le propriétaire d'une ferme à Covey Hill et par ce fait, il a une idée claire et précise des problèmes d'agriculture et de pomiculture.

Un des premiers membres de la Société Historique de Chateauguay, Ian Watson est aussi président du comité pour la commémoration 1963 du 150e anniversaire de la Bataille de Chateauguay. Il est âgé de 28 ans.

Chat-A-Way Sewing Circle

Mrs. Banville of Dupont St., the Basin was hostess to the Chat-A-Way Sewing Circle on Tuesday, March 5th, and was pleased to receive so many members.

Mrs. Leonard Booth read an interesting article entitled "An Exile Returned". This endearing and engrossing story about a White Cherry Tree was written by a Naturalist and was contributed by Miss Rhoda McFarlane.

Hostess for the next meeting which to be held on Tuesday, March 19th, will be Mrs. James Webster of Gilmour Avenue the Heights.

News Round-Up

Sorry to report that Mrs. Richard Allen, Salaberry Blvd., is a patient in the Lachine General Hospital. Mrs. Allen underwent surgery on Monday and all good wishes are extended to her for a speedy recovery.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Romeo Morin of St. John Blvd., the Station, on the birth of their third child, a son at the LaSalle General Hospital on Saturday, March 9th.

David, son of Eddie and Freda Moore of Carlyle Avenue, the Heights, arrived home by plane from Halifax on Friday, following a three year stint in the Navy. Mom and Dad picked him up and report that David has four months in which to decide on either a civilian job or a return stint in the navy. Whichever you do David, our best wishes to you and welcome home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim O'Dell of St. John Blvd., the Station, and Mrs. Beatrice O'Dell of Blvd. D'Youville left by bus on Friday, for Florida, where they will spend the next three weeks.

Miss Joyce Stafford of Desrochers, St., the Station, will leave for England, by jet on Friday, April 5th. Joyce expects to spend her holiday visiting friends and relatives and we hope she enjoys her stay overseas.

Miss Irene Kelly of Desrochers St., the Station, is presently a patient in St. Mary's Hospital following a fall which resulted in a back injury.

Mrs. Thomas Yarnell of Desrochers St., has returned home from Eastview, Ont., where she stayed with her daughter, Mrs. Jack Renaud following the recent death of Mr. Renaud.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Maratta, Gordon Avenue, the Heights, over the week-end, were Mr. Jerry Kingston and Mr. Russell Lawless of Kingston, Ont., and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Newton and their children of Ville St. Pierre.

Welcome home to Mrs. Edna Phillips of Mountain Avenue, who has returned to her home following an extended visit with her nephew Cpl. Don Magee and his wife Lucille in Quebec City.

I am very happy to say that Mrs. Ernest Smith has returned to her home on Dupont Terrace, following her recent hospitalization and convalescence. Mrs. Smith, very glad to be home, told me that she was thankful to friends for the many cards, gifts and flowers received during her stay in hospital and at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ivor Jones later in Lakeside.

I was delighted to hear from Arabelle Enright this past week. Arabelle a resident of the Station, has been spending the Winter at Daytona Beach but has evidently taken a side trip to Silver Springs and from her note is enjoying a wonderful holiday. She won a prize at the Peabody Shuffleboard Dance for a Spot Light Dance and says she has met many Canadians during her stay. Hope we can arrange some nice weather for her when she returns home in April.

Felicitations to Mr. George Bruneau of Duranceau St., the Station, on his recent birthday. Mr. Bruneau was the Custodian at the Julius Richardson School for many years

3rd Chateauguay Brownies Celebrate 2nd Birthday

On Monday, March 11th, the 3rd Chateauguay Pack celebrated their 2nd birthday with an enrolment ceremony and birthday party to which parents and younger brothers and sisters were invited. The party commenced at 3.30 with games in which everyone took part. The enrolment ceremony was at 4 o'clock when twelve young "tweenies" made their promise, and so became Brownies. They were Marleen Kelly, Joan Rourke, Anne Brady and Pamela Warren, all "Leprechauns". The "Pixies" are Judy Swanton, Nancy Jackson, Darlene Jackson and Irene Grant and the "Gnomes" are Dorothy Scarlet, Susan Lepoidevin, Nancy McClenaghan and Marilyn Rourke. The following girls were appointed sixers. Karren Scott sixer for the Gnomes, Pamela McElroy sixer for the Pixies and Claudia Paquette sixer for the Leprechauns. Unfortunately, Cherida Price was unable to be present, she will be appointed seconder of the Gnomes when she returns. One two-year service star was awarded to Claudia Paquette and one-year service stars were awarded to Gail Millett, Rubo Griffiths, Leslie Leclare and Joan Voyanne. The Pack was very unhappy because we also had to give Joan her transfer as the family is moving to Toronto. We will miss you Joan but we wish you lots of luck. One Golden Bar was awarded to Claudia Paquette. Following the ceremony the cake was carried in by Claudia who blew out the candles. This happy duty fell to this little girl because she is the only Brownie still in the Pack who was in the pack when it was just formed two years ago. Another original Brownie who is now a Guide, was present to help, thank you. Susan. I would like, on behalf of the pack, to thank everyone who helped especially Mrs. Willis and Mrs. Rourke who baby sat our Tawny Owl's young daughter, age nine months. Thanks are also due to Elmhurst Dairy, the Splicer Dairy "Mike" shoe repair, the Richelieu Market, and Mrs. C. Mayes who all donated towards the "eats."

St. Georges Anglican Church

The Young Mothers extend an invitation to all for Thursday, March 14th, (this includes Dads) to attend their meeting at which time the guest speaker will be Rev. Canon W. Dunn. Canon Dunn is now retired, but from what I am told it is a very "active retirement" this work, at the moment, is with the fellowship of the West. This movement assists in the field work of the widely scattered territory of the North West and they maintain one clergyman in that area. They also send field workers, both clergy and layman in the summer months to relieve the permanent ministers there. Canon Dunn himself spent the whole of last summer in the North West. He will be using slides to demonstrate his talk.

An invitation is extended to all to attend the Wednesday evening Lenten Services at 8 p.m.

On Sunday, the 17th, the 9.30 service will be taped, and broadcast on CFOX at 8 p.m Sunday evening. The Guest Preacher at this service will be Rev. Roff. Prendergast, who is head of St. Andrew's Home a social service Unit in Montreal.

On Monday, March 18th, the newly formed Men's Club are holding a Ladies' night in the Church Hall, at 8 p.m. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Chateauguay Centre United Church

The first meeting of the Men's Club was held last Tuesday, March 5th, at 6.45 p.m. This was a supper meeting and representatives from the Lakeshore and from Montreal Presbytery were on hand to advise. Unfortunately, the guest speaker, Rev. Norman Rawson was unable to be present.

A thought for your week

He that cannot forgive others breaks the bridge over which he must pass himself; for every man has need to be forgiven. 'Herbert'.

Residents of Circle Park in Prudential sent a petition to the Town Council of Chateauguay Centre concerning a ruling made with regard to traffic on this particular road. The petition asked that two-way traffic be allowed on this road. It was signed by 13 of the 14 residents on the road and there are actually 15 houses but one is vacant.

The petition was placed on the agenda of the council meeting of March 5th and some of the residents were present and further explained their views on the matter. The Council promised that this matter would be further considered.

Teen Type

Old man winter has decided to hold on longer as the cold weather has returned as well as more snow.

C.H.S. News

Both the Senior Boys' and Senior Girls' Basketball teams won the semi-finals in the Provincial playoffs thus moving on to the finals being played this week.

The Girls' Team played Hudson High School on Monday evening and were defeated by a score of 22-19.

The Boys' Team played their first game on Tuesday night against Lemoyne School at Chateauguay.

Dances

This week-end saw only one dance held at the Heights Recreation Club. Although the attendance was small everyone had a good time dancing to the latest hits and to the music of the Lightning Rods. Before the next dance at the H.R.C. it is hoped to have a bus service available for those wishing to attend.

A semi-formal St. Patrick's dance is being held this week-end at St. Willibrord School.

Well, exam time is upon us again and everyone is studying hard. Till next week remember this 'Don't say the world owes you a living. It owes you nothing. It was here first." (Mark Twain).

Chateauguay High News

Wednesday afternoon the teachers of the High School attended an interesting and informative lecture on the use of an overhead projector. This is an invaluable teaching aid in connection with team teaching.

The flu bug has now hit the high school staff. After a most unusual record of no absences, two teachers were out during the week of the 25th of February - 1st of March. Miss Watson made a quick recovery, Mr. Mohan, however, has been severely ill and was out for most of the week.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Bickerstaff, the high school secretary, has been in the hospital for a few days. During her absence Mrs. Joyce Williams has been kind enough to fill in at the office.

The organizational meeting of a High School Home and School Association held Wednesday, February 27, was a miserable failure. Only six parents were in attendance.

High School students are competing in an essay sponsored by the St. Lawrence Sun. Entries are due March 8th. The winner will be announced at a later date.

The Student Council reports that the school sweaters have finally arrived and are now being sold. Thanks to Mr. Patterson who helped to get the sweaters transported to the school. The Council is also planning to have school rings made since the idea of having them seems to be popular among the students.

The Boy's Senior Basketball team played Huntingdon on Wednesday, Feb. 27th in the first of the series of provincial play downs. Chateauguay defeated Huntingdon by a score of 43-38.

The Senior Girl's Team played Ormstown and were defeated 29 to 27 on Thursday, Feb. 28th.

On Friday, March 1st the boys team played Huntingdon again and won 69-14. There was a big dance at the High School afterwards which was a tremendous success thanks to the Lightning Rods who played for it.

Staff and pupils extend sincere get well wishes to Mr. Russell Mosher, Supervisor Principal, who is a victime of the flu bug.

Chateauguay Police News

Town of Chateauguay

Mrs. Leonard Foster of 247 Duquette, Chateauguay fell at the entrance to her home on Tuesday, March 5th. Csts. Kreklo and F. Pregent investigated and later called the Reid Ambulance in which Mrs. Foster was conveyed to the Lasalle Hospital, where it was ascertained she had broken her ankle.

A house under construction at 103 McKee, Colonia, Chateauguay, caught fire on March 7th, at 5.20 p.m. The roof collapsed and the building was a total loss, leaving nothing but the foundation. The Fire Department of Chateauguay was able to save the next house, which for some time was in considerable danger.

Sympathy

The police of Chateauguay offer sympathy to their confreres of the Greenfield Park force in the loss of their Chief of Police, Roger Geoffrion, who died of a heart attack. Chief Geoffrion was 47 years old.

Chateauguay Centre

It is with regret that we hear of the illness of Mayor Armand Brisebois. The Mayor has been suffering for same time with stomach ulcers and he is expecting to enter hospital as soon as space is available.

Fire in Car

On March 2nd, Doug Young of 80 Cortland Ave., Chateauguay, reported that his car was on fire. Investigation was carried out by Sgt. Cayer. The fire was caused by a short circuit and damage was considerable.

Hi! Are you happy? Then you must be a Spring Skier. This is their weather, isn't it? The rest of us just grit our teeth and say "Oh, No! not again." Cheer up, better days ahead!

We have a new resident in our midst by the name of Mrs. Louise Boissonneault who lives at No. 4 Boissonneault Street, one street north of St. Francis Blvd., and off Salaberry Blvd. Most of us are unaware that this street even exists as there are no signs or even numbers on the doors of the houses. This has caused a lot of confusion for those wishing to visit Mrs. Boissonneault. Since December 1st, when residence was taken up at this locale, the Town Fathers have been approached regarding this inconvenience, but to no avail. Perhaps this spring when the frost has left the ground, a sign post will be erected and this situation remedied.

Mrs. Boissonneault lived on Papineau Avenue in Montreal for twenty years and then briefly on Lake St. Louis Road before moving to Chateauguay. Much of her time is taken up by her own millinery supplies shop on Bleury Street in Montreal. (Armand's Millinery Supplies). Here, she conducts classes in the art of hat-making and members include air-hostesses and greek diplomats.

During the past few days, Mrs. Boissonneault has entertained many welcome guests. They are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ward and Mr. Don Connolly, all of St. John, New Brunswick. Mr. Ward, who is a nephew, is attending a C.P.R. convention in Montreal.

To our new friend, Louise, we wish every happiness in her new home.

On the matter of signs it is quite evident as one drives, just in our own vicinity, how many intersections there are without necessary stop signs. Take for instance, corner of Lang at Langlois; Langlois, corner of Vanier; and several streets coming from Chateauguay Terrace into St. Francis Blvd. The Town has a new machine for making such signs and it could certainly be put to good use, as soon as possible.

There's something else, too. This matter of huge concrete pillars, such as we have at the intersections of Beauchamp and St. Paul Streets and Salaberry Blvd. These posts constitute a danger in that they prevent a driver from clearly seeing the traffic approaching Beauchamp, or St. Paul along Salaberry Blvd. If there are no by-laws regarding heights of hedges on corner lots, there should be. Little safety precautions such as these lead to safer driving conditions.

I haven't seen any sand at intersections or stop signs this winter, either. Why is it that these preventive measures have not been taken by the Town's Public Works Department? Is it lack of foresight, or money or is it lack of public notice? All of us at one time or another have been vexed by a certain situation in our midst; a situation that can be talked over with the proper authorities, then remedied by the latter. But it would appear that action on any matter will only be taken if a larger segment of the public will take an interest, not just one or two people. I'm sure the Civic Action Committee of the Chateauguay Home Owners' Association would be willing to air your complaints and suggestions with the Town Council. That is part of their function-striving for local improvements. If you're too shy about attending Town Council meetings and speaking up, turn to any executive of C.H.O.A. They'd be only too pleased to see your interest in the community and would be glad to help.

Several members of the Executive of C.H.O.A., among them, Roy Vetland, Pat D'Arcy and Jean-Guy Charbonneau, attended a special Vigilantia (Chateauguay Civic Group) meeting last Wednesday evening, March 6th, held at Pie XII School. The purpose of this meeting was to pick a suitable location for a Civic Stadium. (I'm sure there is or will be, a complete account of this meeting elsewhere in this paper). No definite decision was reached.

The idea of a civic stadium or auditorium is an excellent one but only up to a certain point. What kind of a civic center is planned? Will it mean an auditorium with indoor hockey in winter and roller skating in summer? This way, such a project would be directed only towards the very young and physically able. But, let's face it — a civic center should cater to as many needs as possible. There are people living in Chateauguay with all sorts of interests and hobbies. To name a few; reading, handicrafts, basketball, swimming, dancing, badminton, ping-pong, gymnastics or physical fitness, sewing, etc. Isn't it obvious that only this proposed center should try to fill the needs of all residents of all ages? In my humble opinion, a Y.M.C.A. program is the only answer, as it provides year round recreational and educational facilities for everyone, regardless of race, colour or creed. Many of us remember how much our local "Y" meant to us, especially as teenagers. I understand that a Town Council must appeal to the Y.M.C.A. authorities to have such a project undertaken. Why don't the various groups approach the Council to do just this; at least to look into the cost of financing it.

As the population of Chateauguay grows, such a civic center will become more and more of a necessity. Even now, facilities are sadly lacking. Many people are doing a wonderful job providing sports activities. But what about those who are not interested in sports, or are physically unable to participate? Why not start an all-embracing program now, one that will grow with the population and its needs? I'll have more on this subject next week.

We had a frightening moment at our house late Saturday afternoon. Our 3 year-old, Johnny, was helping his Daddy work in the basement when he fell and hit his forehead on a nail. Of course we took him to the very pleasant and able Dr. Boyer of the Chateauguay Medical Center, who recommended one stitch to better heal the open wound. This brings the grand total to seven external stitch marks on Johnny's forehead. Over a year ago, he required two internal and six external stitches to close a much more serious wound. I guess this is just part of child raising, though!

Question Of Increase For Town Manager, Chateauguay Centre, Discussed At Meeting

A special meeting of the Town of Chateauguay Centre council was held on March 5th, 1963, at the usual time and place with Mayor Armand Brisebois presiding. Councillors Jean A. Gauthier, Richard Sutterlin, Rolland Colpron, Yvan Gilbert, Edouard Reid were present.

Moved by councillor Gauthier and seconded by Councillor Sutterlin that the regular meeting held on February 5th, 1963, the postponements of February 12th, 19th, 20th and 21st, 1963, be accepted and presented to the secretary.

A portion of land with trapezoidal figures, part of lot No. 223, known as Discharge Book of official register of lands of St. Joachim Parish of Chateauguay Centre.

Bounded to the north by a part of lot No. 223, to the east by a part of lot No. 223 (Wilbrod), to the south by a part of lot No. 223, to the west by a part of lot No. 223 (street) and measuring 273.1 ft. to the north, 50.0 ft. to the east, 273.7 ft. to the south, 50.0 ft. to the west and a surface of 13,670.0 square feet.

These portions of land are more fully described and indicated on a plan dated February 7th, 1963, prepared by Mr. Maurice Gaudreault, A. G. and under No. S-1594-1.

That Mayor A. Brisebois and Secretary-Treasurer C. Hurtubise be authorized to sign for the Town of Chateauguay Centre the documents of sale and to stipulate all necessary conditions.

Moved by Councillor Sutterlin and seconded by Councillor Gilbert that the following account be paid: Capital Account: Mrs. Claire Primeau, purchase of Wilbrod, Andre and Dollard Streets, $7,614.15.

Moved by Councillor Gauthier and seconded by Councillor Sutterlin that a contract be signed between the Town of Chateauguay Centre and J. Maurice Laberge for the purchase of the land necessary for the widening of Blvd. Salaberry regarding the condition included in Mr. Laberge's letter dated February 27th, 1963 and that Mr. Armand Brisebois and Claude Hurtubise be authorized to sign for the Town of Chateauguay Centre the documents of sale and to stipulate all necessary conditions.

Notice of motion was given by Councillor Gauthier that he will at a next regular Council meeting bring in a bylaw ordering the appraisers of the Town of Chateauguay not to estimate the machinery.

Moved by Councillor Colpron and seconded by Councillor Reid that Mayor Armand Brisebois and Secretary-Treasurer Claude Hurtubise, be authorized to sign for the Town of Chateauguay Centre, the contract dated March 5th, 1963, between Texaco Canada Limited and the Town of Chateauguay Centre. All to be presented to the Municipal Commission of Quebec for its approval.

Moved by Councillor Gauthier and seconded by Councillor Gilbert that Mr. Arthur Chartrand be hired as assistant-foreman for public works and at a salary of $100.00 per week, for a three months term.

Notice of motion was given by Councillor Reid that he will at a next regular Council meeting bring in a By-law regarding the zoning permitting the construction of houses or apartment houses on lots No. 104-26, 104-29, 104-30, 104-31, 104-32, 104-75 104-76, 104-77, 104-78, 104-109, 104-110, 104-111, 104-112, 104-113, 104-114 and 104-115.

Notice of motion was given by Councillor Sutterlin that he will at a next regular Council meeting bring in a by-law regarding a draining system for parts of lots Nos. 111, 108, 104, 97, 65 and 60.

Mayor Armand Brisebois left the meeting and Pro-Mayor J. A. Gauthier presided in his stead.

Moved by Councillor Gauthier and seconded by Councillor Gilbert that the zoning plan for section No. 1, prepared by Mr. Lucien Colle be ratified approved.

Moved by Councillor Sutterlin and seconded by Councillor Gilbert that an increase of $500.00 be granted immediately to Mr. Claude Mongeau, manager of the Town of Chateauguay Centre, and that another increase of $500.00 be granted to him six months from now, if the Council judges this appropriate.

Mr. Claude Mongeau asked for a vote, explaining to the members of the Council that he could not accept the condition "if the Council judges the increase appropriate".

Councillor Sutterlin maintained the proposition, Councillor Gilbert seconded Councillor Sutterlin's proposition and Councillor Reid seconded Councillor Sutterlin's proposition.

Councillor Gauthier disapproved of the increase of $1,000.00 a year, explaining that such was a very considerable increase.

Councillor Colpron seconded Councillor Sutterlin's proposition as long as the words "if the Council judges the increase appropriate" are excluded, for he considers that the increase is justified by the many services rendered in the past and those which could be rendered in the future by Mr. Mongeau. Thus, he added that an improvement could be made in this matter and he gave Mr. Mongeau a year for this improvement or he would be discharged of his duties.

Mr. Claude Mongeau put the letter on the table. It was left there for study.

Moved by Councillor Gilbert and seconded by Councillor Colpron that the meeting be adjourned to Tuesday, March 12th, at 8 p.m.

CHATEAUGUAY SPORTS ROUND UP

(by JOHN McDONALD)

Phone No. OX. 2-2647

The hockey season is rapidly coming to a close. The Juniors closed out their regular schedule this past Saturday and the semi-finals will get underway this Saturday. In minor sport the regular season as well as the semi-finals are over and in the Mosquito and Bantam Clubs the finals are over.

In the Mosquito section, West End were the league champs in Section (A) and Chateauguay Park (A) in the (B) section with Chateauguay Park defeating West End in the play-off to become champions. In the Pee Wee league the boys from Chateauguay Park (A) were League Champs in (A) Section while the boys from Pie XII took the honours in the (B) section. The play-offs between these two teams were not completed. At time of writing in the Bantam League, Chateauguay Park defeated Parkview in the finals to become Champions. The 4-H Club took the honours as League Champs in the Midget League but were defeated by Parkview in the semi-finals when they withdrew from competition with each team having won one game. The finals between Parkview and Pie XII are as yet not completed.

Minor Sports Father and Son Banquet will be held April 6th this year in the basement hall of St. Jean de Baptiste de Marie Vianney Church. A number of local dignitaties will be on hand and negotiations are presently underway to try end secure the services of Maurice (The Rocket) Richard.

In Junior action the Chateauguay Centre Castors captured the League Title. The Mohawks placed second, the Warriors third and the Lions fourth. The semi-finals get underway this Saturday with the Castors taking on the Warriors in the first game and the Mohawks meeting the Lions in the second game. In the prediction department, this reporter has not picked a winner so far this year so will leave the predicting to fellow sports-writer, Bill Soles.

In the first game of last week's double action, the Mohawks came up with a convincing 8 to 1 victory over the Lions. Young George Norton, who went into the game four points behind Castors' Gerry Aucoin for top scoring honours, came through with a brilliant performance scoring 3 goals and picking up three assists to go two points up on Aucoin. Clifford Ryce also picked up three goals and an assist. Other Mohawk scorers were J. Alfred and Walter Deere. For the Lions, Dennis Brabant was the lone marksman.

In the second game the Warriors took their first win of the season over the Castors in a penalty filled game, referees King and Crawley handing out a total of 15 penalties, 8 to the Warriors and 7 to the Castors. The Castors took a 1 to 0 first period lead when Ron Laberge scored at the 10.55 mark with the assist going to Gerry Aucoin. The Warriors tied it up at the 2 min. mark of the second period with Denis Bolduc scoring unassisted. M. Bouthillier put the Warriors ahead at the 10:50 mark with assists going to brother John and Jeff McDonald. At the 15 min. mark, Michile Dettmers made it 3 to 1 with the assist going to Jeff McDonald. The third period was scoreless.

The Chateauguay Bantam team that was refused entry into Montreal's Bantam Tournament have been accepted in the Ville Lasalle Tournament to be held the weekends of March 16-17 and the 23-24. Sixteen teams have been entered in this tournament. The Chateauguay boys will get their first taste of action Sunday at 7 p.m. A lot of hard work has gone into forming this team and it is hoped that a good number of citizens will get down to see the young lads play. Don't forget one loss and a team is out. So come on, take your wife and young ones for a drive this Sunday evening and drop in at the Ville LaSalle Arena and root for the Chateauguay lads.

Chateauguay Area Boy Scouts Financial Drive

(By M. McCUTCHEON)

During the week of March 16th to 23rd the Boy Scouts of Canada, Chateauguay Area will be holding their annual financial campaign. As the Chateauguay Area does not come under the Boy Scout Financial drive held in Montreal in conjunction with the Red Feather Campagin, it is necessary for the Chateauguay St. Andrew's and St. George's Group Committees to hold a door to door canvass to obtain the necessary funds in order to meet their commitments.

There are over 250 Clubs, Scouts and Rovers in our area and many men and women who give generously of their time to lead these boys. So please be generous when the adult canvasser calls on you for a donation.

Remember — Scouting Develops Citizens.

Chateauguay Branch L.G.H.A. Doing An Excellent Job

The annual meeting of Lachine General Hospital Women's Auxiliary will be held on Thursday, March 21, at Summerlea Church Hall, Acadie Road, Lachine. (Entrance on 50th Ave.)

Dessert and coffee will be served preceding the meeting at 1.30 p.m. Guest soloist will be Mrs. Robert Sweet. A cordial welcome goes out to all members and friends to attend.

Chateauguay Ladies had quite an eventful week, attending the Lachine meeting on Monday evening, at the hospital. We handed in some beautiful knitting which we believe will be displayed at the annual meeting Tuesday evening. Members held a cosy meeting in the basement of Mrs. Norman Leroux, who had the good old Quebec stove, "stoked up" these may be old fashioned but "Oh Boy" are they ever warm.

Well down to business we got final arrangements made regarding our dance and everyone seemed encouraged by the number of tickets sold. If any one still needs some we shall welcome hearing from them.

On display were some lovely gifts for spot prizes, etc., we feel the evening will be a great success.

On Thursday, Mrs. Franklin braved the storm and delivered our latest effort of swabs to the hospital. Making a grand total of 4,249 since starting two months ago. We are proud of the effort our work is showing in all projects.

Then a pleasant afternoon was spent by eight of our members last Saturday when they attended a Sherry party given by Lachine Ladies at the Lachine Lawn Bowling Club. We feel they should be complimented on their generous hospitaly also on the arrangements of the centre table, with the beautiful floral display and candles. They were admired by all.

We would like to thank all our volunteer drivers who courageously drove us to our many appointments despite the bad weather we had last week.

A hearty welcome goes out to all Ladies who would like to hear more about our activities to join us at our next monthly meeting which will be held at our Parish Hall on Tuesday, March 19th at 10.30 a.m. Children welcomed. Coffee and cookies will be served.

Mohawk Troop

Mr. Conde Crepeault, Assistant District Commissioner invested Mr. E. Liberty as Assistant Sea Scout Master of the Mohawk Troop last Friday, March 8th. District Sea Scout Master Mr. B. Yarnell was also present. Daryl Rutherford, Larry Gee and Jim Fair were awarded their Artist's badges. Bob Jupp was presented with his Public Healthman's badge. Philip Limoge of the Wild Goose Patrol was awarded his Second Class badge.

Broomball Game

I understand that tomorrow night (Thursday), March 14th will see the Iroquois and Pathfinder Troops beat it out at a broomball game at the Heights Recreation Club.

The Boy Scout Movement merits the unstinted support of everyone who wants to make his country and his world a better place in which to live. Its emphasis on community service, tolerance and world friendship promotes a speedier attainment of the enduring peace among men for which we all strive.

"By developing among its members a spirit of sturdiness and self-reliance; and a realization of the need of co-operative effort in every major enterprise, the Movement is a major force in preparing tomorrow's men for their duty to themselves, their country and their world".

(Dwight D. Eisenhower)

Winter Camping Anyone?

Camp Anderson was the site last weekend where the Pathfinder and Vanguard Troops spent Saturday and Sunday in the great outdoors. Under the leadership of Mr. Conde Crepeault, Mr. Jack Jupp, Mr. John Carr, Mr. Sid Edwards and Mr. Manhertz, 28 boys arrived at Camp Anderson Choisy, Que., on the Lake of the Two Mountains.

We arrived at about 11 a.m. and started making fires to prepare the lunch. Each patrol ate separately. After lunch the Vanguard Troop which slept outside, started to transport the luggage and tents on toboggans for about ¼ of a mile where we set up camp. When the tents and kitchen were set up, a fire was started. The snowshoes we used to cross the field to and from Headquarters made a nice hard path in the snow.

The Pathfinder Troop slept that night in the heated cabin provided. A Campfire was held in the Lodge around which each patrol enacted a skit. Scout Danny Manhertz of the Wolverine Patrol gave us some entertainment on his accordion. We all enjoyed the 'twist', Autumn Leaves', and 'Clementine' and a few others. Thanks to Danny for playing to us.

Before the campfire we all had a project. The Cougar Patrol had to make a survey of the camp including a map. Two Scouts of the Vanguard Troop, Ross Grant and Brian Walsh had the same project. Kevin Barret and John McLean had to find out the history of Camp Anderson and Robert McNamara and John Edwards had to do a good deed for a household close to the camp. Every group fulfilled their task.

6.30 a.m. and up we got. The Catholic Scouts attending Mass in Hudson and the Protestant Scouts held a Scout's Own. Breakfast was welcome and when things had been cleaned up, Mr. Yarnell brought some Pathfinder Scouts to our campsite to see how winter Scouting was done. A lunch of chicken cooked in aluminium foil was enjoyed by all. It took a short two hours to break camp and get ready to leave. The weekend was enjoyed by one and all and we thank the men who drove us to camp.

No nutshell summary is possible of our last general monthly meeting. Watch for your next newsletter.

Items covered included minutes of both regular and executive meetings mostly concernnig the building. Membership progress was noted but renewals must be pushed

An eventful month lies ahead. The St. Patrick's Dance on March 16th; The Verdun Darts Tournament on March 30th and a reminder about. The South African Veterans Assoc. ceremony on March 23rd.

Newspaper clipping collectors are asked to refer to The Montreal Star of Sat. March 9th. where a fine picture and article about their activities is to be found on page 5. We hope for equally good coverage of the Colour Ceremony. Members are asked to wear Legion dress, with medals but many don't possess full dress so you will feel right at home in civies.

The proposal to buy a section of land 144,000 sq. ft. located at the juncture of Maple Blvd. and Taragon St. passed by a large majority. However needless to say our present premises will continue to function at an acceierated pace at least until we are firmly installed in new surroundings better equipped to meet both Legion and community needs.

Air Force veterans of the 425th Squadron are asked to note a grand reunion planned for April 19th and 20th.

Branch 108 voted to send two delegates in suitable style to the Legion Provincial Convention in Arvida. Comrades Robinson and McGlasham will go on our behalf.

If you are interested in the Cdn. Legion Insurance now is the time to contact your branch secretary for details.

Remember to send in your building pledge to Comrade George Willsmore, 113 Manor Drive, Chateauguay Centre. The public is invited to participate for the facilities to be provided will greatly improve the community.

And remember,
We Serve, in Peace as in War.

Head-on Collision On Route 3A

Our Lady Of Perpetual Help Parish Elects Trustees

At a special business meeting of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish Freeholders which was held Sunday afternoon, February 24th, in St. Willibrord's School Hall, 300 McLeod Avenue, the Freeholders elected the following trustees: Phillip S. Hutchison, Percy A. Lanigan and Vince Moreau. The moderator, Rev. Fr. Desire Beaulieu, O.F.M. Pastor at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, congratulated the newly elected trustees upon their accession to office. Father Beaulieu also expressed his appreciation to the Parishioners because of their cooperation and enthusiasm during the past year which would greatly contribute to the successful fulfillment of the bullding of our Parish Church.

Dow Bonspiel At Beauchateau Next Week

The Dow Bonspiel will be held at Beauchateau Curling Club Rink, from March 18th to 23rd.

Clubs from all parts of the region will participate in this event and it promises to be a very enjoyable time for all curlers.

Last year the DOW trophy was won by the Howick rink of Elmer Black. The trophy will again be awarded the winner of this year's event. Sixteen other prizes will also be distributed.

Messrs. Eudore Pilon and Tod Campeau will be on hand for the prize distribution on the day of the finals, Saturday March 23rd.

START SEWERS

REGINA (CP) — Sixty-one Saskatchewan communities started construction last year on water and sewage systems. One reason for the increase was development of the lagoon sewage system which brought the cost within the scope of smaller centres.

CHAPTER XXII
Franklin and the Contest With the Seignior.

The era of immigration affected Franklin less than any other part of the district. The northern section had, as already described, been taken up by Americans; the southern was held by non-residents; the crown had no lots to grant. Compared with the western part of the country it was an old settlement, and therefore, does not present the same material for narration. In 1826 Amos J. Fassett, an American, opened store on the upper road, on the gore lot, and did business for about 6 years. He was backed by Keyes & Hotchkiss, for whom he bought ashes. At Stacey's corners, in 1830, George Smith, who had moved from the Hill began a blacksmith shop. It may be here remarked, that stores and taverns were more numerous along the frontier in those early days than they are now. At one time or another every cross-road has had its store or tavern, and much business was done at corners which are now deserted. The decline of the drinking-habit reduced the number of taverns, and as roads were opened and improved, business centred more in the villages. On the Moe place (lot 4, 9th range) stood the first school, built probably about 1822, which had a succession of teachers, mostly from the States and none of them competent, until a son of Wm. Easton took charge. This old schoolhouse remained in use until the stone-schoolhouse, long the place for council and public meetings, was erected at Stacey's corners, or Manningville as it was then called. That name passed with the post-office to the hamlet at the point where the road crosses the Outarde, which, 40 years ago, was a busy place, sawmills being built on either side of the bridge, and eventually a tannery was opened and a store by Ames & Fargo. About 1830 Cantwell & Nichols opened a branch store at Franklin Centre which did a large business. While on his deathbed in 1834 Nichols bequeathed half an acre of his farm, 13, as a graveyard, and he was the first to be buried in it. William Cantwell said: "I came from Troy, N.Y., in 1835, when I bought the Franklin store from my brother. This section, even then, was pretty much under bush, and there was not a French Canadian at St. Antoine, on the Black river, or in St. Jean Chrysostome. It was not until 1840 that the French began to move into the Back river country. Potash was the great commodity and I have sent away 85 barrels at once. They were sent on sleds, dragged by two yoke of oxen, to St. Remi, and sometimes they took 2 barrels when the road was good, but generally one was a load. There was not a buggy then in the country." The opening of a store at the corners added to its importance. Job Douell, an American, opened tavern, and after keeping it some time sold to a brother countryman, Abram Samson, who was succeeded in 1837 by an Irish Protestant, Thomas Wilson. Willis Pelton, before that, opened a whisky-shop, a class of places numerous all over the country. After 1835 the whiskey was nearly all smuggled. It could be had at Malone for 20 cents the gallon, was worth 80 cents at Franklin, and $1 at St. Remi. The business of smuggling was followed systematically and immense quantities of liquor brought in. About 1830 a schoolhouse was built on the site of the existing one, large enough for meetings on week days and Sundays, and within its walls, eventually destroyed by fire, the Rev. Mr. Townsend and others held service. Some time after the war an American physician, Dr. Walbridge, took up his abode on lot 18, 2nd range. He was found dead in his bush, having been killed while dragging a tree home for firewood. He was succeeded by Dr. Austin, who lived near or on 16. Walbridge's lot was bought by Robert Dunn in 1821, and who became a prominent settler. On 14 was Jacob Abbott, a native of Maine, who kept travellers from an early date. He was the first to introduce a wheeled vehicle, getting an ox-cart made in Montreal, which he used in going round to collect ashes, for he had an ashery. In 1825 he sold to Frederick Border, an Irish Protestant, who, until his death at an advanced age, occupied a prominent position in the township. He was the cause of others of his countrymen coming to Franklin, among them being Jas. Tate on 13, range 3, and his brother William.

Hello Folks

This is to acquaint you with me. I'm Mrs. Audrey Foster of Crown Homes. I am going to fill in for Mary Fabio, your regular correspondent, who will be absent for awhile.

All those who know Mary are sorry that she cannot continue her good work for the Gleaner, and her kindly friendship to all those who move into the community, often going out of her way to make you feel part of it.

Any news would be gratefully appreciated. My phone number is 692-4502.

Birthday

Mark Stafford celebrated his 9th birthday on Sunday. He had some of his friends in for a party, they were: Denholm Fleeming, Kim Legassin, Jimmy Eagles, David Zemel, Jimmy Reid, Rickey Jones, Rainer Paduch, Gilbert Germaine, Barry Skelborne and his brother John and sister Anne. A good time was had by all.

Mrs. Jean Butt of Lacolle St., celebrated her birthday on Sunday, March 16th.

Carol Randal of Maissonneuve St., celebrated her 3rd birthday on March 11th. Mummy had a few other friends in, Stephanie, Frank Foster, Rickey Lange, Heather Murray, Donny Butt. Carol is quite a lucky girl she got over the mumps just in time for her birthday party.

LEGION NEWS in CHATEAUGUAY

ROYAL CANADIAN LEGION
We Serve in Peace as in War

To this solgan we might add "and between". Recently we learned from the U.S. subcommittee that a certain dictator, Castro is training 1,200 professional terrorists per year to foster civil disorder throughout Latin America.

Locally the largest separatist group has declared itself a political party and has instructed supporters to smear subversive slogans wherever possible.

Is there any relationship between the two? If not in organizational structure there certainly is in spirit.

So, Legion activities take on an even greater importance. Perhaps no more fitting occasion to express our solidarity not only with those who still survive the South African campaign, but also with our living traditions will take place this year than the ceremonial presentation to our Branch 108 of the Colours of the South African Veterans Association to be held Saturday on the 23rd of March at 7.30 p.m. in their Club Rooms 1419 Drummond St., just south of Sir George Williams University.

Those possessing Legion berets, ties and blazers with medals are asked to wear them, but I only have a beret, so comrades don't be kept away because of dress. You won't be the only civvy.

Let us remember St. Patrick by dancing to his honour on March 16th. This calls for the annual fortification.

Marion McGregor played lead, Bryce McGregor second Pat Campbell third with Ken Camp as champ K.O. Excuse the liberties. And they proved a point too for they were the only team fielding two females, I guess the opposition couldn't concentrate.

Our thanks to Jacques Marchand and O'Keefe's for sponsoring the event held in the Beau Chateau Curling Club in Maple Grove.

IN MEMORIAM

L. Stanley Reany, late member of Branch 108, died Monday morning, February 25th, soon after arriving at work. The body was resting at the Collins Funeral Home Sherbrooke St., Montreal and at the request of Mrs. Reany a Legion Tribute was held Wednesday evening at 8.15 p.m.

1st Chateauguay Company Girl Guides News

Following the regular meeting of the 1st Chateauguay Company on Tuesday evening, March 5th, Captain Joan Turriff introduced Division Commissioner, Mrs. Joan Cooper who presented Diane Morrison with her All Round Cords. This, we believe, is a first in Chateauguay Guiding. Diane also received her writer's and reporter's badges. Mrs. Cooper then presented Louise Boulay with her second class badge.

Mrs. Russell, acting Lieutenant presented Penny Leverette, Patrol Leader of the Daffodils, with the Shield for most points in February. Congratulations to Diane, Louise and the Daffodils.

The next hour was taken up with entertainment features including games, a sing-a-long presented by Diane Morrison, Penny Leverette, Joanne Grimes, Linda Bartram, Lynn Hetherington and Heather Wilson. A camp-fire highlighted charades with a Guide Theme presented by each patrol and Anne Russell read a camp-fire story. The evening was enjoyable. Captain Turriff wishes to thank Mr. and Mrs. Morrison and Mr. and Mrs. Boulay for attending.

St. Andrew's Notes

The 130th Anniversary Supper of St. Andrew's United Church will be held in the Memorial Hall on Friday, March 22nd, at 6.30 p.m. This year it is hoped to make it a truly congregational event and every family in the congregation is cordially invited. No charge will be made for the Supper and each family will be contacted by the ladies who are planning the meal. An interesting program is being prepared to follow the Church Family Supper.

Parents are asked to note that the C.G.I.T. will not meet this week.

A film entitled 'Jerusalem' was shown in the Memorial Hall on Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m. This timely 70 minute documentary on the Holy City with Evangelist Billy Graham as narrator was an enlightening and spiritually helpful experience to all who saw it.

Things are really buzzing around the High School and you would like one see your Student's Council Rep.

Last Saturday night a dance was held at the Chateauguay Heights Recreation Club for the benefit of the Chateauguay Aquatic Club. A large crowd showed up and everyone enjoyed themselves dancing to the music of the lightning Rods.

Bob Bernard was the M.C. and seeing it was his last time as M.C. the teenagers presented him with a suit-case as a going away present and as a token of their appreciation for all that Bob had done for the teens in Chateauguay.

The dances at the C.H.R.C. will continue under the supervision of Cheryl Hall, Bill L'Ecuyer, Jim Trickey, Derek Pearce and Glenn Fair.

Mr. Leo Auger, owner of the Auger Bus Service, has consented to run a bus through the various developments before and after the dance to help the teens to get to and from the dance. A nominal fee will be charged. It is possible that there will be more particulars in this paper next week. It is hoped that this service will allow more teens to attend these dances.

That's it for the week folks I have to get studying for the exams, that are coming up on the 14th What about you?

The Senior Boys' Basketball team showed their best preformance in two games this week as they eliminated Huntingdon High in the Provincial Playdowns. On Wednesday afternoon the boys travelled to Huntingdon and defeated them by a score of 42-38. On the return match, Friday night at Chateauguay, High Chateauguay walloped Huntingdon 69-14. This game gave Chateauguay a total of 111 points while Huntingdon had 52. Both teams played exceptionally well and should be commended on their fine sportsmanship. Credit should also go to the coaches of the two teams.

After the game, a large crowd in attendance had a good time dancing to the music of the Lightning Rods.

The Senior Girls' team played one game last week and even though they played fine basketball they lost to Ormstown High by a score of 29-27.

This Thursday the girls will play the second game of this series and let's wish them good luck.

Several of the Grade 11 students travelled to McGill last Saturday to write Scholastic Apptitude tests.

LETTER FROM SEIGNIORY PARK
(by FERGUS HORSBURGH)

No, Letter from Seigniory Park is not going out of business. To the contrary, business is bigger and better than ever, and future Letters will place more emphasis on news of events actually within Seigniory Park. And of course, lots and lots of nonsense as well.

Sorry to disappoint those in Seignory Park whose houses sport shamrocks in the windows these days, but I have it from an almost always reliable source that the final blizzard of the winter is due to strike our area on St. Patrick's Day. But there is bound to be lots of hot air around, too. Would St. Patrick accept a challenge from St. Andrew to a game of broomball

We Must Remember

In a Montreal paper this week-end there was a picture of four servicemen. Two were navy men of the present day. Two were veterans of a war fought many years ago, Boer War Veterans. I'm sure all war veterans must realize that each year now the roll call for these statwart lads, has less names on it. To say we will remember, is saying we must bring to mind many things. The condition under which they fought; their rations; their clothing; the many hours without sleep; cavalry and infantry suffering great losses; the terrain of the country and the weather conditions. We know all wars are fought under different conditions, but if any of you have ever had the privilege of talking or listening to these grand old soldiers of the Boer War you will know what morale really is.

Although the Boer War Veterans' Association is giving up the meeting place where so many wonderful hours have been spent, many memories will go with them as they close the door. I for one will remember Murray and Edna Black singing, by request of the boys, "Whispering Hope", the honor of helping at one of their picnics, of standing at attention while they marched to the pipe band with heads high on their parade to their monument on Dominion Square, where each year they paid their deep respects to their fallen comrades.

This short tribute is just my own way of saying how much I treasure the friendship of a fine soldier and a grand old man. By name Mr. John Ross, and through him I met Mr. Hill, Col. James, Mr. Holly and all the other boys.

When the war flag is donated to the Chateauguay Valley Branch of the Legion I'm sure that all true legionaires will feel the real meaning of 'remembering' as they take into keeping the flag of this famous group. So, as the strains of "Soldiers of the Queen" fade in the distance, may God's blessing rest on all those who remain and on us who must remember.

Scrapbooks

Donna Smeall makes beautiful scrapbooks. These are made very carefully, with special designs in mind. She buys a large scrapbook to mount them in. Cards of every description, color or design are used and the very deft way Donna has of putting these together tells a story in each of her books. She has just presented her cousin, Miss Jean Kemp of the staff of the Belleville Deaf and Dumb School, with five of her lovely scrapbooks. I'm sure the children, ages 8 and 9 years, will derive much pleasure from them as they will be able to see the stories themselves.

Now, if anyone reading this column has cards they are finished with and would like to donate them to Donna for this very kind work and to her a rewarding effort, you can call her at 692-6190. She would be glad to pick them up or you can drop them at 20 St. Louis Square, West End, anytime.

It is wonderful to see a teenager today with an interest in doing something for the handicapped. As Donna says when you see and know the pleasure which one of these books create, it is so worthwhile. Hope you are overwhelmed with offers of cards, Donna.

Meeting Held

A lively if not overcrowded meeting took place at the home of Mrs. Rankin at the Ladies' Committee of the W.E.H.O.A. All plans were completed for the Bingo Social. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Rankin, the chairman. Tea cup reading by one of our members, kept everyone on the edge of their chairs wondering what-well what was in the tea leaves. It was a very enjoyable evening. Perhaps more of you will turn out for the next meeting.

Hospitalized

Mrs. Harold Lowe entered LaSalle General Hospital on Tuesday for tests and underwent surgery on Monday, March 11th. Olive's morale is very high and we are all pulling for a good friend and neighbour. Her room is Pavillon No. 2, Room 205.

Little Lorraine Larocque will enter hospital this week for a tonsilectomy. Get well soon, Lorraine, and come see the kittens.

Ill at Home

The flu or grippe bug has been bothering some of our local children — David and Martin Lowe, Jimmy Smeall, Norman Roy, Karen, Roy and perhaps more I have not heard of. However to all of you, get well soon.

Belated Birthday

Belated greetings to Mrs. R. Smith who celebrated her birthday on March 8th. It's nice to have little birds around, Lois, so happy birthday.

Birthday Supper

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Poupart with Paul, David and Great Granny Griffin drove to Montreal for a birthday supper for Mrs. Poupart at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Morrice Sr. Also there for the event was her brother Mr. T. Morrice Jr.

Maplewood

Presbyterian Church News

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Veltenaar, of St. Joseph Blvd., was baptized on Sunday, March 10th. Rev. John Allan officiated. The baby was given the names of Clifford John. Congratulations to this happy family.

On Friday there will be a Preparatory Service and Reception of new members at 8 p.m. at Vetville Hall.

Fire

There was a fire on St. Charles St. Colonia, last Thursday, in a house under construction. It was said to have been started by some youngsters. This could have been very serious as fire spreads so rapidly and many homes could have been destroyed. Do not leave matches or lighters around where children can reach them, as they don't seem to realize that so much harm can be done.

Trip

Young Grant Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Robinson, of McLeod Ave., travelled to Ottawa, by train last Saturday. He was accompanied by his aunt, Miss Betty Shearer of Verdun. While in Ottawa they visited Mr. and Mrs. K. Wendelboe and their three young children. Needless to say young Grant arrived home eager to tell Mom and Dad all about his wonderful day and his first train trip.

Home and School News

The very bad storm we had last Wednesday, must have been the reason that only a very few turned out for the activities held at Maple Elementary and the High School.

The children went through all their paces and it's too bad that more parents weren't out to see them. The film strip at the High School was most interesting and the principal, Mr. Mosher and the three teachers on the panel answered questions from the floor. Coffee and cookies were served in the cafeteria.

On Thursday, grades 1 to 3 put on a very interesting hour of entertainment, with songs and choral speaking. The teachers and children must have worked hard for this event and are to be congratulated for their efforts. A nursery class was held for the pre-schoolers and proved to be a huge success.

Get Well Wishes

Well that old flu bug is certainly getting around here. This week get well wishes go out to Mrs. F. Robinson, Mr. F. Bate and Miss Lynda Young all of whom have been feeling miserable due to this bug. Mrs. Gilpin, mother of Mrs. E. Neal of McLeod Ave., is feeling a lot better after being so ill. Hope you'll soon be up and around again, Mrs. Gilpin.

Not much news this week so in closing I would like to wish all the Irish and all those who would like to be a very happy St. Patrick's Day.

Chateauguay High School Notes

By Ricki Stafford

Another big event at our School took place last week, most of you have heard that the Senior Boys Basketball Team won the right to play-off in the Provincial Finals a week ago. The same happened to the Senior Girls' Basketball Tream. On Thursday, March 7th, they played the second of a two game total point series against Ormstown and won. Our Council was asked to organize the game and we did. We charged 10 cents admission and supplied cokes and doughnuts for the teams following the game. Entertainment could not be arranged for after the game because of it being a week night, but the students enjoyed the game fully spurring the team on to victory. Total profit was approximately $7.00 which wasn't too bad considering the nominal admission. I am not sure of the score, but the girls won and everyone enjoyed the game.

On Monday, March 4th, Bob Brown represented out school at the Inter-High School Council. The meeting was quite good and Bob brought back many new ideas from the discussions, movies, and guest speakers.

Owing to the resignation of Jim Ross, we now have a new Committee Chairman, Jim Smith completing a full ambitious and most powerful executive body.

You might be interested in knowing that the total profits of the Red Cross Calendar Sale in Quebec amounted to $9,074.49, thirty-two dollars of which came from Chateauguay High.

A new idea taken from the last newsletter — used stamps are being donated to the Junior Red Cross Council and are sold to dealers and collectors for 60 cents a pound. In 1962 this netted almost $500. If any of you have used stamps we would be pleased to have them. We will send them to the Junior Red Cross Headquarters who will sell them. Remember used stamps of any description are acceptable. You may leave them at the school, with Bob Brown of Colonia or with myself at the Gardens.

That seems to be all for this week. Good luck to our two basketball teams in the Provincial Finals and don't forget those stamps!

Seigniory Park

at the ice rink on March 17th? Winners and losers to be rewarded by a portion of Irish coffee!

I was blissfully planning the garden the other night — morning glories up the carport, snapdragons here, petunias there, tomatoes everywhere. Suddenly I was aware of a monologue (though it wasn't meant that way!) from Mrs. Letter about painting the basement floor, a partition here, a bookshelf there, carpentry everywhere. Oh dear! I'm going to apply my time-honoured recipe and not even think about all those indoor chores. Just like a toothache — if you don't think about them, maybe they will go away.

Seigniory Park's stretch of St. Francis Blvd., is now officially an 8 m.p.h. zone. No vehicles have as yet been reported as decelerating to that speed, except where potholes reduce traffic to a crawl regardless of speed zones. This looks like a regulation that in practice will be impossible to enforce, and it will be interesting to watch the speed of those whose unenviable task it will be to control Seigniory Park's traffic.

A group of Nursery School Mothers, including Mesdames Fletcher, Strike, Chart, Gulkin, McConnel, McIlroy, Chappel and Nash spent many hours last week-end painting furniture and toys, and generally brightening up the Nursery School. Twenty-two children, aged three to six, are now enrolled in the bilingual school, and the gratitude of their parents goes to the devoted work of Chairman Mrs. Nash, her slate of officers, and teacher-in-chief Mrs. Malvina Chart. In its first year's operation, this Group has successfully met the challenge of finding the money and equipment to get the school going. Further funds, games, tables and chairs are still required, and money-raising activities are scheduled for the spring. Also in the planning stage, — a summer playschool, on which more details will be made public in the near future.

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Ken Perry, some two dozen parents, — mostly mothers, although fathers are also invited, — have been meeting in a child's study group. Under the direction of Mr. Howie Bartram, of Family Education, the group has been meeting every Tuesday night, to watch films and discuss parent/children problems.

I'm sure you'll all be glad to know that our route-boy Alan Lussier's cat returned home of its own free will after being lost for two days. Mrs. Lussiers thinks the cat did not like having eye-drops applied, and left home in protest. To complete the happy ending, the cat returned home with the infected eye cured.

During one of the last year's Stanley Cup playoff games, the Budget was being brought down in the House of Commons. National release of the details over radio and television had to wait until 11 p.m., i.e. until after the hockey game had finished. It is reassuring to know that CBC have again placed things in their proper perspective in announcing that interviews with the four Federal Party Leaders, to wind up their respecitve campaigns, will not be allowed to interfere with this year's hockey playoffs.

WINNIPEG (CP) — One of Manitoba's most historic landmarks, Lower Fort Garry near Selkirk, was one of the province's major tourist attractions in 1962. The guest book was signed by 59,544 persons last year compared with 50,234 in 1961.

School Library To Again Appeal For Help

PREPARATIONS are going ahead right now for an appeal for financial assistance for the Huntingdon High School Library. The drive will be under the auspices of the Huntingdon Home and School Association, which first founded the new library several years ago. That it was a worth-while project need never be questioned, for the use to which this library has been put, is proof enough of the need. There is no doubt but what the availability of good books to the children of the school, has enhanced the age-old interest in reading. As we all know, to read, is to increase our knowledge and thus our learning. Therefore this is an important part of the education of our children. With radio and now television, there was a fear that children were losing interest in reading for themselves and were fast becoming listeners and watchers. It has now been established that while listening aids and visual aids have their place, they cannot supplant reading.

The appeal for the library does not go out annually, for there is a period of no appeal, therefore it is not one of those things that can become annoying. However, when it does come, we believe it is one that should receive the utmost support of everyone. This is indeed even more so now as the Library has recently been made available to parents of the children and others, who may obtain books from this library for a small fee. This is gradually working well and more and more adults are making use of these facilities. With such a move, interest in reading is on the increase and of course there is a need for more books and replacements for the library.

Thus the appeal is being made for contributions to the library to build up a fund from which to purchase new books. Not only do new books have to be bought, but replacements have to be made for those which have become too old by use, etc. There are certain expenses in connection with the operation of the library which also have to be met. It is most fortunate that members of the Home and School volunteer their services as to keeping the books tabulated, records of lenders, repairing and covering and many other duties.

In due time a large number of citizens will be receiving pamphlets announcing the appeal and asking for a contribution. It is hoped that there will be a ready response by the return of your contributions to the fund headquarters. One hundred dollars, while it may seem like a large sum, does not buy very many books today. It is thus necessary that everybody gives as generously as possible in order that a large sum can be collected in the time allowed for the campaign. Such will mean that a greater number of books can be purchased and thus the library will benefit to the utmost. Only by keeping the library well stocked with new books can the proper interest be maintained at all levels. Your assistance will do much toward attaining this important goal.

The Cuban Situation is Still Hot

FROM time to time despite the fact that the situation is supposed to have been settled, the Cuban set-up is brought to vivid attention. The most recent is the request by the States for the withdrawel of Russian Troops from Cuba. Russia is said ready to comply and these troops are to be pulled out by March 15th.

Although assurances have been given that Russian missiles have been dismantled and taken out and that the launching pads have been destroyed, there still remainds some doubt. The United States demanded the right to go in and check or have somebody do this on their behalf. This has been denied. However, flights made over Cuba have said that the installations have disappeared as far as could be seen by this method. The United States became satisfied with this and dropped their request.

Now some doubt is being aroused as to whether these launching pads have actually been destroyed, or whether they have just been covered up. Under such conditions they would not be visible from the air. However, it would not take too long to put them into operation if they have simply been covered. Of course this cannot be determined only by much closer inspection.

Cuba of itself does not constitute a real threat, for the United States could no doubt subdue it in a matter of a few days at the most. However, as a base for the launching of missiles, or of nuclear armament of any kind, it could become a very dangerous threat. Then again with Russia to back it up, the danger is increased. There seems to be a continual invoking of incidents which could lead to trouble, we do not believe that Cuba alone would dare to take chances.

This weekend a very detailed report was given by the TV of how Cuba acts and thinks. There is no doubt that it is getting more and more communistic. There was every indication that it is very militant. Both men and women are being trained as soldiers and such. There is a tremendous amount of armed vehicles and equipment and all has stemmed from Russia, even to training the people to be soldiers. There is fear also that this ferment is spreading to other countries in the area. While the States has a considerable force and equipment on the island, it is said it would not take long to annihilate it if nuclear weapons are available. In days gone by, it would be a laugh for Cuba to think of attacking the United States, for it could be crushed in a matter of hours. Today it is not so and if things in Cuba are not as we hope they are, Cuba could give plenty of trouble. No doubt Russia would soon step into the picture as she has threatened to do in such an event. It is such complications that actually spell the danger. It is a hot spot and far from being off the danger list.

One thing which makes for suspicion is the fact that Russia was so quick to agree to the removal of first the missiles and now the troops and has practically agreed on all matters of controversy. This is totally unlike Russia and it could mean that some wool pulling over the eyes is being done somewhere.

Covering Up

WHEN Jacqueline Kennedy changes her hair style or appears in a new dress by Oleg Cassini, the echoes are heard across the United States and even in other parts of the Western world.

The reason is simple. The president's wife is attractive and widely admired for her good taste. Women regard her as a style-setter and when she tries something different there are millions of others ready to copy.

This being the case, it becomes evident to almost anyone with a cause that if Mrs. Kennedy will co-operate there's a good chance the rest of the people will follow.

That was the thinking behind the group of people who picketed the White House. They represent the Society for Indecency to Naked Animals. Actually, they're not in favor of indecency, as the name would suggest. What they want is reflected in their motto: "Clothe all animals".

Their idea is that if they can get Mrs. Kennedy to put clothes on her horses and outfit her daughter Caroline's pony with trousers or shorts, other animal-owners might follow suit.

The stated purpose of the organization, set up with $400,000 from the estate of a St. Louis real estate man, is "to protect our children from the sight of naked horses, cows, dogs and cats."

The founder of the organization, G. Clifford Prout Jr., of New York, insists he's dead serious. And the society offers to supply free patterns for animal clothes, although it has no intention of going so far as to try to get duds on sheep and other field animals.

If it should succeed, the result would be interesting. You can see poodles marching down the street in plaid jackets now. And in the old days a milk wagon driver would often toss a blanket over his horse in winter.

But the thought of every neighborhood pet being out-fitted with pants (or presumably skirts for the females) staggers the imagination.

And just think of what a visit to the zoo would be like. They could put a dress on a lady hippopotamus but she'd need a girdle. Giraffes would require a wide collar over their tuxedos. And since bears like to play in water they presumably would require bathing suits.

About the only inhabitants of the zoo who might escape the clothing edict would be the penguins. After all, they come already dressed in cutaway and tails.

MEMBER AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

SUGAR and SPICE

By Bill Smiley

Not without regret, and with a few secret misgivings I made a big change a couple of years ago. Frazzled scrambled, and slightly addled, I took myself aside, and we had a serious talk. Just the two of us.

"Smiler ,old boy," I said to me, "how much longer do you intend to keep up this nonsense? Is this what you fought in the war for? Is this what you really want out of life, to be a seller of four-dollar ads, a chronicler of endless meetings about nothings, a pacifier of old ladies of both sexes who have a beef, a lugger of papers to the post office, a member of 40 organizations, a payer of mortgages, a fighter of lost causes and a lousy husband and father?

"I d'no," said me in my straightforward, Canadian way. "Wutcha gotten mind?"

Well, what do you do when you talk to a moron? You humor him, that's what you do. So I explained carefully aand clearly about ulcers, and pensions, and security, and family togetherness, and the fact that I was 40 and ready for pasture. Me listened openmouthed. This was all new.

As a result, soon after, I dog-paddled my way out of the turbulent stream of life as a weekly editor into the quiet back water of life as a school teacher. I figured I would lie back and float there for a while, resting up before I sank quietly out of sight among the bullfrogs and the pollywogs and the tepidity and the mud of the academic pond.

But I must have fallen asleep in that pond and been washed out to sea, with a force-eight gale blowing, breakers everywhere, my collapsible life-belt doing just that, and my emergency rocket flares in my other pants.

It's just not that simple. You can't just turn your back on Life, that aging but still lively mistress you've kept in style for years, had so much fun with, done so many crazy things with, and expect her to let you walk quietly into the arms of the Other Woman—dear old dim, dull Peace.

She won't do it. She'll hurl abuse at you in public. She'll throw gravel at your window on moonlit nights. She'll trip you as you march heavily toward respectability. She'll put black squirrels in your attic and black thoughts in your head. She'll just plain raise hell until you take her back.

I've tried I've looked the other way when she flaunted herself. I've held her at arms' length until I ran out of arms. I've put my head in the sand when she approached (and received a kick in the rump for my pains).

But she's given me the works. I determined I would never act on another committee, join another organization, donate any of my free time to anything, or do anything for anybody, unless it were life or death.

What happened? Life cackled with glee, and I find myself on numerous committees, a member of several organizations, lurching out of bed to teach Sunday School, collecting for the Red Cross, putting out the school yearbook, and giving help to backward students after hours.

I determined I would be a better husband. Life sneered. Every time I tried to bust a bad habit, she was right there, tantalizing. So I still lug home the box of suds, light one fag from the end of another, stay up till 4 a.m. reading, occasionally try to tell my wife she's wrong, and avoid any discussion of repairs, renovation or renewals.

I decided to be a better father. Life chortled. When I took up skiing, the kids were embarrassed. When I come home ready for a fatherly chat, everybody disappears. When I ask them if they'd like to go for a nice family drive, they look at each other significantly and roll their eyes. Only this morning, Kim said, "Dad, you don't seem happy any more. You're acting kinda strange lately."

I swore I'd never have anything to do with politics again, on any level. Life snickered. I'll swear it was she who put the skids under Dief, just to make a fool of me. At any rate, not one, but two of the local candidates have asked me to give them a hand, and I've promised both.

These are only the major obstacles she has thrown between me and my courtship of that cool but complacent lady known as Peace. She has also: Bashed in the rear end of my car; loaded my eavestroughs with ice to the pendulous point; arranged for my cat to get in the family way again; tricked me into getting five weeks behind in my work; broken the zipper on my snowboot, and put my hot water system on the blink.

I give up. Come back, you old trollop, and I'll embrace you as of yore, and forget about Peace, who never did appeal to me much anyway.

WANDERING WITH WADLEY

At the risk of being accused of flogging a subject to death I now revert, breathing defiance to all objectors, to the subject of the black pooch which has invaded and taken possession of us and our home. I have deliberately refrained from showing any particular enthusiasm but I must, in a very confidential manner, admit to you, that I am just as fond of the little tyke as the rest of the family. For the present at any rate. I feel that it would be beneath my dignity to retreat from my declaration that I wanted nothing to do with the hairy little monster, that I would not walk it, that I would not feed it, that I would not brush it or demonstrate in any other way any interest in it. So I would appreciate it if you would be good enough not to tell them, should you chance to meet the rest of my family, of my real feelings. Of course, in due time, I will be forced to retreat because when they go away I will have to walk it, feed it, brush it and in other ways demonstrate an interest in it but I will do it with a simulated surliness which I will not actually feel.

The only member of the household which really has his nose out of joint is our big white cat. He often and violently demonstrates his resentment at the thought of any other animal usurping his role as chief pet of the family and all the friendly and playful approaches of the pup are met by deep rumblings of disgust and quick slaps from his paws. But the pup will win out because he completely disregards all rebuffs and tears up and down the stairs almost begging the cat to come out and play. But her enthusiasm actually scares the daylights out of his lordship and he has no recourse but to take refuge under the bed where he stays until the next feeding time.

Here endeth my dissertation on a dog and a cat and I do not know why they came to plague my declining years.

I have a canary.

—H—

The news of the weather in Europe these past several weeks has been very depressing and it must cause worry to the many New Canadians whose families and friends are still in the old homeland and who must be enduring many hardships and shortages of one thing or another. For myself, I, of course, think immediately of my three sisters and one brother who are in England and wonder how they are faring. Although not affluent like most of you Huntingdon people, the money aspect would not bother them too much but the very thought of their houses makes a shiver run down my back. I doubt very much if any of them has installed anything resembling central heating since my last visit. If so, they have never told me and, as you can well imagine, they are a gabby lot, I can see all the pokey little fireplaces with room in them for about one shovel of coal and feel the dreadful damp chill of the whole house. I doubt if I, and many more like me, would have the fortitude to go back and resume the kind of life which they still endure over there. But the most wonderful thing about it is the marvellous manner in which they put up with such discomforts. I feel quite sure that I am looked upon as the softie of the family with all the modern comforts which we have and which we now feel are our just due. Like myself, all four of them are either tottering towards, or have tottered past the three score and ten mark and things cannot be too easy for them. As for Scotland, I do not know much about them but, no doubt, they are experiencing the same discomforts. However, only the most rugged or stubborn still live there. The rest beat it just as quickly as possible so that they could get the best jobs all around the world.

Milk Route Sold

Mr. Oliver Derochie, who for the past number of years has been operating a milk route trucking business from Dundee and vicinity to Montreal, has sold out his interest to Mr. William Smythe of Lee's Corners. The buyer purchased both the milk truck, a 1938 GMC, and the rights. He took immediate milk and cream pick up possession and started Tuesday morning as the new owner of the route.

Goat Team

Nanny and Billy, two goats belonging to Allan McDermid of Huntingdon, have been providing him with speedy transportation this winter. Allan purchased Nanny in Montreal about three years ago. Since then Nanny has given birth to Billy and now the two form a team for Allan's sled. Allan has experienced little difficulty in training them.

Fire

A barn belonging to Samuel Leblanc on Lorne Ave., was completely destroyed by fire early Sunday morning. After battling the blaze for over two hours the fire brigade under the direction of G.C. Stark, returned to the station about 7 a.m. Damages amounted to approximately $800

Novel Ferry

A suspension ferry over Trout River provides transportation across the river between the Merson farm in Elgin and the Rennie farm in Godmanchester. People in the district find it a real time saver.

Curling Trophy

The International Trophy competed for annually by the Saranac Lake Club and the Huntingdon Curling Club was won by Huntingdon here on Saturday. The local team won both matches with a combined score of 33-13. The two Huntingdon teams were composed of I. Heath, F. Montle, E. C. Martin with J. A. Ross as skip and C. Newman, A. McLean, C. Stark and E. Goodfellow, skip.

Provincial Capital Report

QUEBEC (CP) Showing a sense of timing, the Government picked Education Week to give approval of a proposal that will lower the voting age in Quebec to 18.

The proposal must pass Three Readings in the Legislative Assembly and gain approval from the Legislative Council — Quebec's equivalent to the Federal Senate — before it becomes law.

But judging from the reception it had during a special study by a special committee of the Assembly, it should pass easily.

Opposition Leader Daniel Johnson said the Union National was "happy to cooperate" with the Liberal Government in allowing the younger generation to contribute to "an improvement in political morals."

The proposed law will make Quebec the fourth province with voters under 21, and Municipal Affairs Minister Pierre Laporte estimates it will add at least 250,000 names to the electoral rolls.

Mr. Laporte said modern communications and education allow youths to mature more quickly and increase their interest in politics.

There was a general tendency throughout the western world to a lower voting age, he said.

The proposal was part of a 447-article Bill reworking the whole complex Electoral Law.

The Government said it intends to extend the provincial vote to all servicemen, whether or not they live on a base.

At present, only servicemen living off base and meeting residence qualifications may vote. Mr. Laporte said this rule caused an uproar at R.C.A.F. St. Hubert base in 1960. When airmen living there found they could not vote.

Opposition Leader Johnson objected to the proposal saying in effect that a Federal Government could "Load" a base with servicemen to influence a provincial election.

"Doesn't that appear ridiculous to you?" asked Mr. Laporte.

Meanwhile, another Committee wrapped up study of a Bill making broad changes to the Quebec Agricultural Marketing Act by bending a bit to produce buyers and processors.

Premier Lesage accepted in principle an amendment suggested by the Carnation Milk Company to an article affecting joint plans by which farmers may band together to market products.

Carnation asked that when the validity of a joint plan is contested, the plan must be ratified by a majority of farmers involved.

Premier Lesage agreed to accept the amendment in principle but would not write it into the bill until he could give it closer study.

Carnation said a joint plan already had hurt the company, forcing it to pay higher prices and hurting its ability to compete outside Quebec. As a result, Carnation's production in the Sherbrooke region dropped 30 per cent in the last two years.

A farm spokesman said that if the Article is deleted from the New Act, 50 joint plans will be threatened, each of which cost an average $5,000 to set up.

PARK IN STREET

MONTREAL (CP) — A police survey indicates that a total of 73,975 cars are parked regularly on the city streets at night — occupying space equivalent to 308 miles. This is an increase of more than 10 per cent over last winter.

Report From Ottawa

OTTAWA (CP) The national capital was like the eye of a tornado last week.

Ottawa was strangly quiet while political leaders roamed the country and began in earnest their bitter struggle for victory at the polls Monday, April 8.

While campaign oratory filled the land, Ottawa was the scene of the intensive inquiry into marine strife and labor violence on the Great Lakes and the St. Lawrence Seaway, conducted by Mr. Justice T. G. Norris of the British Columbia Appeal Court.

Mr. Justice Norris accused the Seafarers' International Union of Canada of "deliberately trying to avoid" his rulings and deliberately "falsifying" the nature of the inquiry to the SIU membership.

The jurist took particular exception to an article in the SIU's official newspaper, The Canadian Sailor, which described the inquiry of a "kangaroo court."

Signed by SIU port agent Rod Heinekey of Vancouver, the article said Mr. Justice Norris was biased against the SIU and in favor of the Canadian Labor Congress and Upper Lakes Shipping Limited, Toronto.

Accused Judge

Mr. Heinekey accused the jurist of doing "everything in his power to impede, hinder and embarrass" the SIU.

At the 100th sitting of the inquiry Monday, the jurist told SIU lawyer Joseph Nuss of Montreal to ensure that in the future the union publications do not misreprent the inquiry.

Lawyers for the CLC and Upper Lakes Shipping have sought to prove that the SIU was mainly responsible for waterfront violence last year all along the Seaway-Lakes system.

SIU lawyers and witnesses have denied the charge.

Evidence indicated that Hal C. Banks, American-born president of the seamen's union, earns $20,000 a year in salary and has drawn an additional $80,000 in expenses over the last five years.

There was another flare-up Tuesday when Mr. Justice Norris threatened to cite a lawyer and a witness for contempt for failing to return minute books that had been filed earlier as exhibits.

Montreal lawyer Georges Lachance said he had borrowed minute books of the Canadian Seafarers' Welfare Plan board of directors from the inquiry on his undertaking as a lawyer to return them.

Refused to Comply

Mr. Lachance said he turned the book over to his client, Bernard Boulanger, $15,000-a-year administrator of the Welfare plan.

Mr. Boulanger at first refused to return the minute books to the inquiry, saying the plan directors had ordered him to keep the books. The plan is administered by three SIU officials and three representatives of shipping companies holding SIU contracts.

Mr. Justice Norris threatened both Mr. Lachance and Mr. Boulanger with contempt and called a recess to give them time to produce the books. The documents were handed dramatically to jurist later Tuesday after being rushed from Montreal.

The hearings entered the final stages and Mr. Justice Norris is anxious to submit his report and recommendations to the government before the 1963 shipping season opens. Union officials fear that last year's violence will resume this spring unless the government takes strong action.

Fund Heavily Drained

Another pressing problem facing the government is the drain from the unemployment insurance fund, made up of contributions from employers ,employees and the government.

The fund fell by $27,200,000 in January to $71,800,000 and government officials forecast that it will go bankrupt early in April unless the government comes through with an infusion of cash.

The Unemployment Insuranace Commission announced Thursday that arrangements have been made to provide financial support for the fund. The commission said a $25,000,000 loan has been authorized by Parliament to beef up the fund and further financing would be provided if and when required.

The UIC said that all unemployed workers entitled to insurance benefits can rest assured that there will be no delay or inconvenience in regard to their payments.

In another development last week, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported that the consumer price index rose to 132.1 per cent Feb. 1 from 132 a month earlier. Price levels of 1949 equal 100.

Slight Price increases were recorded for food, clothing, health care, tobacco and alcohol and personal care. Transportation costs declined.

It was learned reliably that Communist China paid about $31,000,000 in advance on wheat purchases for the first six weeks of 1963. This was the first time the Chinese made an advance payment since they signed a five-year agreement with the Wheat Board

Campaigning Continues

The federal election campaign continued with party leaders roaming from the Atlantic provinces to the prairies to debate issues ranging from nuclear armament to railway subsidies.

Prime Minister Diefenbaker and Liberal Leader Pearson had a long-range argument over whether Mr. Diefenbaker had revealed classified information in a campaign speech at Prince Albert, Sask., where he was reported to have said the United States has 1,200 Voodoo and similar aircraft, half of which are equipped with nuclear armaments.

The U.S. Air Force said such information is classified.

Mr. Pearson, in the west, said Mr. Diefenbaker had harmed relations with the United States by giving out such information. The Prime Minister, in the east, denied he had given out any classified information.

Hemmingford W.I. Holds Annual Meeting

Old Man Winter was responsible for the postponement of the W.I. meeting from Wednesday evening, March 6th, to Friday evening, March 8th, in the High School. Owing to this change, sickness and previous engagements, only fourteen members and one visitor attended the meeting.

In the absence of Mrs. H. McAdam, President, the meeting was chaired by Mrs. F. Greer.

Mrs. J. Robertson announced that a donation of $10.00 had been given to the Masonic Order for the use of their hall for our card party.

The date for the Public Speaking Contest is Friday, March 15th — the Finals taking place on March 29th.

Mrs. Robertson stated she had received a letter from Miss Holmes, Provincial Secretary and the word from Mrs. Lewis regarding Christmas stockings for Canadian Save the Children Fund is most disappointing. Many of the stockings received from the branches are not made of suitable material and contents will not stand up to thousands of miles of travel and tropical heat, so stockings had to be discarded. She mentioned that a depot has now been set up in Montreal.

Mrs. R. Petch, Home Economics Convener reported she had pamphlets from the QWI library on leathercraft, blue printing of wild flowers and block printing which she passed around to interested members. She also stated that at the C.A.C. annual meeting a warning had been issued against adding substances to chlorine bleaches, vinegar and other acids will liberate chorine gas.

Two cases had been reported of such a practice, the one resulting in death and the second a long hospitalization period.

Mrs. C. Harris, Publicity Convener read from The Federated News that Mrs. Jas. Haggerty had received a Certificate of Merit from The Canadian Historical Assoc. President for the work of the W.I. in preserving local history.

It was agreed that membership of the Verdun Protestant Hospital be renewed.

Mrs. Robertson was instructed to write a letter of thanks to Miss True for her most generous donation to the W.I.

The Secretary reminded the members of the rules for the Salada Competition, the closing date May 15th.

The Roll Call was "Pay your dues and tell an Irish joke" which brought forth chuckles from the members.

The Annual Meeting then took place. The minutes of the 1962 meeting were read and approved. The secretary's report showed a roll-call of 39 members with an average attendance of twenty members. Three members had perfect attendance and three missed only one meeting.

The Treasurer, Mrs. E. Merlin showed a very good balance.

During the year the members toured T.V. Station CFCF Channel 12 in Montreal; Upper Canada Village, and Avon Cosmetics plant. The Salvation Army came to pick up twice. The group membership of Verdun Protestant Hospital was renewed. Members helped at the Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic. A talk was given by a nurse from Ste. Anne's Military Hospital. Cotton was collected for Canadian Cancer Society and thirty-two Christmas Cheer boxes were sent to shut-ins in the community. Money for UNICEF was again collected by C.G.I.T. and high school students. A public Speaking Contest was held and a very successful School Fair. One member has a pen pal in Taipei China and approximately 1500 Used Christmas cards were sent to missionaries in Taiwan, China. Ceramic tile work and Nutrition courses were taken by some of the members. Articles on excessive use of red food colouring, salmonella poisoning in cake mixes, butterfat content of milk were read and discussed at meetings.

The Treasurer's fund was enlarged by a plant sale, catering for a wedding reception, food sale at W.I. card party and Roll Coll.

A Bursary of $50.00 and two shields were presented at the High School.

The Conveners who were present moved the adoption of their reports and this was seconded by Mrs. C. Edgerton.

Mrs. R. Petch then took the chair for the election of officers. Mrs. D. Woolley, Chairman of the Nominating Committee submitted the slate of officers, and as there were no further nominations from the floor, they were declared by Mrs. Petch.

As the School Fair has grown to such tremendous proportions, a recommendation was put forward by the Nominating Committee that the past method of handling School Fairs be revised. It is with the approval of the immediate past Convener of Agriculture, Mrs. J. L'Esperance that School Fair details be managed by a committee of three, rather than one individual, the committee to be chosen by the elected Convener of Agriculture, each committee member to have specific duties. Finally, because seeds for the Fair must be ordered in advance of the Annual Meeting, the ordering should be done by the outgoing committee for the forthcoming Fair. Mrs. H. Palmer put this in the form of a motion which was carried.

Mrs. Palmer thanked the retiring officers for their faithfulness and good work, and wished the new ones luck in their endeavours.

The slate of officers reads as follows:—

President: Mrs. F. Greer;
1st Vice-Pres.: Mrs. R. Curry;
2nd Vice-Pres.: Mrs. J. Robertson;
Secretary: Mrs. E. Keddy;
Treasurer: Mrs. E. Merlin.
Conveners:—
Agriculture: Mrs. J. Robertson;
Citizenship: Mrs. G. Gaese;
Education: Mrs. W. Beattie;
Health & Wel.: Mrs. D. Orr;
Home Economics: Mrs. R. Petch;
Publicity: Mrs. C. Harris.
Finance Committee: Mrs. H. McAdam, Mrs. G. M. Brown, Mrs. W. Keddy, Mrs. F. Matheson, Mrs. L. Simpson.
Sick: Mrs. G. Ellerton.
Visiting: Mrs. D. Woolley

The delegates were nominated for County and Provincial Conventions. Mrs. F. Greer, Mrs. J. Robertson and Mrs. C. Harris will attend the County Convention in Dewittville on Friday, May 3rd, Mrs. F. Greer and Mrs. C. Harris will attend the Provincial Convention in June.

Mrs. Greer reminded the members to bring aprons, etc. to the April meeting for sale at County Convention.

The Treasurer was instructed to pay the following:—Provincial and County fees, ACWW and FWIC, Pooling of Fares $10.00, Quebec Service Fund, Pennies for Friendship and subscription to Gleaner for Mrs. C. Harris, Publicity Convener.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. F. Greer and Mrs. Gaese.

Hemmingford Village Council Ponders Question Of Fire Services

The regular meeting of the Village Council was held on Tuesday evening, March 5th, Mayor Leo Fortin presiding. Also present were Councillors W. Smith, W. Keddy, L. Simpson, R. McNaughton and R. Latreille.

The Secretary read two resolutions which had been passed by the Hemmingford Chamber of Commerce and forwarded to Council for their consideration. The first suggested that, in order to facilitate the clearing of snow off the streets, Council adopt a By-law prohibiting owners from leaving their cars parked on the street overnight, outside their homes. The second asked that the 'No Parking Zone' in front of the Parish Hall where the Bowling Alley is situated, be patrolled by members of the volunteer Fire Brigade in order that the rule be observed and those in the habit of parking on either side of the street in front of the Hall be encouraged to use the large parking lot at the side of the Church. Mr. Leif Jacobson appeared before Council on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce to request that nine 'STOP - ARRETEZ' signs be installed at various intersections in the town, namely, Barr, Keddy, Bouchard, Margaret Streets, Lachapelle and Goyette Avenue, Somerville Place on Champlain, the intersection of Barr and Champlain and Goyette and Frontiere. After some deliberation these resolutions were tabled until the next meeting.

Tenders, for the collection of garbage in the village, were opened. Two had been received, from Mr. Maurice Lacasse and Mr. Henri Giroux. After consideration, in view of the fact that both tenders were for the same amount, it was decided to leave the matter in abeyance until the next meeting when all Councillors would be present.

Chief Harry Warner and Asst./Chief Norman Fortin attended the meeting in order to lay before Council details of a plan for an adequately equipped Fire Brigade to serve both the Town and the Township. The details he gave were the same as given at the Township meeting the night before and again both men were kept busy answering questions put by Council. As one Councillor remarked, the matter had been raised several times before, and, while all agreed that fire protection was essential for everyone, this was the nearest they had ever come to doing anything concrete about it. It was decided that, in order to go more thoroughly into details concerning equipment and costs, Councillors and Firemen should meet, for this purpose only, after which, if agreement is reached, a meeting of both Councils might be called for further discussions.

At the request of the Fire Brigade, Council requested the Bell Telephone to install an additional telephone extension, for fire emergency calls, at the Fire Station in the new City Hall.

The Secretary informed Council that By-law No. 108, regarding the Winter Works programme, had been accepted to the amount of $4,300 of which $2,556 will be reimbursed to the municipality by the Federal and Provincial Governments.

The quotation received from the Railway Power Corporation for a deep-well pump for the new well was accepted as presented.

While ploughing Champlain Avenue, the snow-plough broke a fire hydrant. The Secretary was instructed to forward the bill amouting to $88.02 to Mr. Frappier of Franklin Centre.

The resolution was unanimously adopted that Council purchase a Conference Table and eight chairs for use in the Assembly Room in the new City Hall.

The Secretary was authorized to pay the bills presented.

Aubrey-Riverfield

AUBREY - RIVERFIELD — The annual meeting of Aubrey-Riverfield, W.I., was held on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Everett Orr, with the President, Mrs. Janet Reddick in the chair. After the usual opening with the Ode and Creed the minutes were read by Mrs. Finlay Milne, in the absence of the Secretary, Mrs. Harold Robertson. Twelve members answered the roll call with a joke and payment of fees. Get well cards were sent to two members who are shut-ins, a sunshine box to one member and a card to another member who has been away from home all winter. A very full report was read by the Secretary, which showed that a great many things had been accomplished during the year.

The Treasurer reported a balance on hand of about ninety-five dollars after all commitments had been met.

The six conveners all gave excellent reports of the work in their departments. The President in her remarks spoke of the "Collect" written by Mary Stewart. She said anyone who could compose such a collection of lovely thoughts must have been a noble woman. If each of us could live up to those sentiments we would be little short of being perfect human beings.

Mrs. Gordon Easton read the slate of officers for the year 1963-64 which is as follows: President, Mrs. Robert Templeton; 1st Vice-President, Mrs. Harold Robertson; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. Math McKell; Secretary, Mrs. Finlay Milne; Treasurer, Mrs. Math McKell; Conveners — Agriculture, Mrs. Janet Reddick; Citizenship, Mrs. Gordon Easton; Education, Mrs. Harold Robertson and Mrs. Everett Orr; Home Economics, Mrs. Osborne Orr; Publicity, Mrs. Ewart Orr; Welfare and Health, Mrs. Wm. Allen; Finance Committee, Mrs. Hiram Reddick, Mrs. George Kees, Mrs. T. Walsh, Mrs. John Hamilton, Mrs. Andrew Allen; Social Committee, Mrs. H. G. Stairs, Mrs. J. W. Wolodarsky; Pianist, Mrs. Everett Orr.

A social hour followed when a lighted birthday cake was carried in for the retiring President, who will soon be celebrating her 80th birthday. The hostesses were Mrs. Everett Orr, Mrs. Ewart Orr and Mrs. Robert Templton. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Andrew Allen, on April 4th.

A mixed club bonspiel sponsored by Una and Floyd Gruer and Beatrice and Bob McCaig was played on Friday evening and Saturday. Sixteen rinks participated with the four high percentage teams playing off on Saturday night. Murray Templeton's team of Una Gruer, Geo. Kees and Helen Drown were the winners. Runners-up were Andrew Allen (skip), Mildred Reddick, Isabel Angell and Milton Sharpe. Consolation was won by Robert Templeton's team of Vernice Angell, Ken Younie and Alan Stewart. Lloyd Allan's team of Jean Templeton and Clifford Brown were runners up.

Dick Bunbury of Knowlton, was caller on Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Templeton, when Cindy returned home with him.

Rockburn

ROCKBURN — Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Murdoth Rosevear, were Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Taylor, Laurrie and Malcom of St. Dorthee, Que. Mrs. Chas. Disotelle, Chas. Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis and Maureen of Malone, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Maither.

Glad to report that Mrs. C. Minchinton has returned from the Barrie Memorial Hospital, and is improving after her recent operation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Maither attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Matilda Peck, nee Cowan, at Chateaugay, Friday afternoon.

Franklin Centre

FRANKLIN CENTRE — The Franklin Centre Intermediate School held Parents' Day on Wednesday. Parents were invited to visit the classrooms and see the school in operation before 10:45, when Mr. H. Gordon Green spoke on his trips to Russia.

The Chateauguay Valley Teachers' Association sponsored a "Career" Concert at Howick on Friday. Some of the Grade 10 pupils accompanied Mr. Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barr to see a concert put on by the Howick pupils.

Mrs. James Manning attended the Executive meeting of the Frontier Branch of the Council of Christian Education on Tuesday in Montreal. The time was principally spent in planning the Spring Convention, to be held in Georgetown Presbyterian Church on April 27.

The United Church Montreal Presbytery Meeting which was held on Tuesday, March 5th, in St. Andrew's Church, Lachine, was well attended. The Franklin Centre Charge (four churches) was represented by Mr. Thomas Greenway.

40th Wedding Anniversary Observed

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Dickenson were pleasantly surprised on Thursday evening, March 7th, when all the members of their immediate family gathered at their home to help them celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary. A "Buffet Supper", provided by the guests in general, was enjoyed and the "Guests of Honour", were presented with a Ruby Bread Tray, Ruby Bon Bon Dish and other gifts. A very happy evening was enjoyed by all. We also extend our very best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Dickenson and hope they may enjoy many more such happy occasions.

Mr. Carl Jackson, principal of the Intermediate School and Mrs. Jackson and three children are all sick with the flu. Mrs. Bruce McCracken, teacher of Grade 8, is also on the sick list. A speedy recovery is wished them all.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Parkinson and Joan, Mrs. John Allen and daughter from Chateauguay and Mrs. Woodward Jackson from Rockburn, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Brooks and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Brooks.

Mrs. Wm. Hope left Sunday morning for Sudbury, Ont., to spend a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hope.

Mr. Fred Stevenson received word last week of the death of Mr. Charles Hardy, his brother-in-law of Springfield, Mass., on Wednesday, March 6th. Sympathy is extended to the bereaved family and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Larrie Mayville of Fort Covington Centre, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Arthur and three children, Miss Bernice Lamb of Huntingdon and Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Lamb and Jackie of Ormstown, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Archie Lamb.

Friends of Mrs. Geo. McCutcheon of Cornwall will be pleased to hear of her satisfactory progress since undergoing major surgery in Cornwall General Hospital. Best wishes for a speedy and complete recovery.

Valleyfield

VALLEYFIELD — The Valleyfield United Church Women held their Annual Spring Hat Fashion Show, on Thursday evening, March 7th, in the Valleyfield United Church Hall. The Hat Fashions were presented by Mrs. Richmond Veau of Nicholson St., and Jewellery by Marcel Hebert of Victoria Street.

The Hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion and the tea tables were centred with miniature hats, designed and made by Mrs. Wm. Fleming and Mrs. R. Findlay.

The United Church Women wish to thank all who helped to make this evening a success.

Miss Janet Robinson and Miss Gail Cordell of Montreal were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. J. W. Stewart.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. W. Griffin on the sudden death of her father, Mr. C. N. Smith, on Friday, March 8th.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. McEachern, during the past week-end were Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Robson, Rickey and Gordie, of Beaconsfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mitchell of Montreal, were week-end guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. Seagers.

Curling

Two teams from the Moco Curling Club attended the Invitational Mixed Bonspiel at Bedford, Que. They were skipped by Mr. F. Soucy and Mr. J. R. Bell.

Howick

HOWICK — The Men's Curling Club, with assistance from the ladies, served their second roast beef dinner on Saturday night. It was a successful event, with 111 diners and the net proceeds $98. It is hoped to make this an annual dinner.

The Spring Mixed Bonspiel opens on Friday night of this week.

Red Cross Meeting

The March meeting of the Howick Red Cross was held on Monday, March 4th at the Rink Club Room. Sixteen members were present. Two quilts we tacked and one was quilted. The next meeting will be held April 1st, which will also be a quilting meeting. The members were guests of the Senior Citizens group to a delicious afternoon tea.

Howick W.I.

The annual meeting of the Howick W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. H. Brady, on Tuesday, March 5. The vice-pres., Mrs. R. B. Ness presided and 21 were present which included two visitors and 2 new members, Mrs. N. Mair and Mrs. J. Scoble. The roll call was — name a member and country in A.C.W.W.

There was discussion re public speaking, which was held in Howick High School, Thursday afternoon, March 7, with the usual prizes; and a Millinery Course to be held in the School Cafeteria from March 11 - 15, afternoons and evenings. Both of these events are sponsored by W.I. and promise to be of interest to many.

Attractive prizes are offered by Salada Foods in 5 classes of handicraft, same to arrive at Macdonald College by May 22.

Miss Jean Ritchie gave many good ideas for using lemon juice; also some amusing comments on "The Years After Fifty", such as, You are old when you buy your clothes with only the weather in mind.

Annual reports were read which showed an interesting and profitable year. Mrs. D. Chisholm presided during the election of officers, after which the new president, Mrs. R. B. Ness, took the chair and asked for the cooperation and assistance of the members during the coming year.

Winners in a game of jumbled letters, which gave the names of 12 countries in United Nations, were Mrs. Frank Hope and Mrs. J. Scoble.

Delicious breads and cookies were served by the (host) Howick Group.

Friendly Bonspiel Howick

On March 6 and 7, the Howick Ladies Curling Club entertained rinks from Outremont, T.M.R., St. Lambert, Huntingdon, Ormstown, Riverfield and Baie D'Urfé at a friendly bonspiel.

Everyone received a warm welcome from President, Agnes Brown, and the Match Committee and the ice was in good shape for the two rounds of 10-end games played on Wednesday but the weather was terrible. It rained, snowed, sleeted and snowed some more.

A delicious buffet luncheon was enjoyed in the club room which was gay with St. Patrick decorations. Tea was served after the games.

Town of Mount Royal, skipped by Mrs. Mathewson won the morning prizes; Riverfield, skipped by Mildred Reddick, won the afternoon prizes — curler salt and pepper sets. A door prize donated by Mrs. Douglas Ness, went to Mrs. Jette, Outremont.

Thursday morning the weather was wonderful but Montreal and local sideroads were impassable, so the bonspiel was cancelled. However Baie D'Urfé foursome left bright and early before the call arrived.

Alerted to what had happened Pres. Agnes Brown hurried to the curling rink and had a cup of coffee ready. Vera Stewart obligingly waded through the drifts, and with Millie Birchmore and Brenda Baskin made up a rink to challenge the visitors.

A luncheon was prepared by the four Howick curlers the same in every detail as that served the previous day and the eight curlers who participated in this unusual friendly sat down together to enjoy a good visit. The Baie D'Urfé ladies were happy to receive curler brooches as prizes.

The white chrysanthemums which were the focal point of the decorative scheme, were sent to Miss Etta Stewart, for many years an outstanding skip of the club who lives at the Preston Home.

Hemmingford Councils Trying To Establish Ownership of Old Town Hall

The regular meeting of the Hemmingford Township Council was held on Monday evening, March 4th, at the Town Hall. Mayor Alister Somerville presided, also present were Councillors A. Hadley, W.J. Brown, M. Bouchard, H. Poissant and H. Whyte.

The Secretary read the reply he had received from the Parity Committee, Valleyfield, concerning the hours of business of the local barbers. It was to the effect that, as the decision regarding hours and prices had been taken by a majority vote of all barbers in the area attending a recent meeting, there was nothing the Committee could do and the Hemmingford barbers would be expected to abide by their decision.

Referring to the resolution passed at the previous Council meeting that steps should be taken to determine the ownership of Lot 39 in the village of Hemmingford and buildings erected thereon, namely the Town Hall and the Lot on which it stands, Councillor W.J. Brown reported he and Councillor M. Bouchard had gone to Mr. J.P. Cossette in Valleyfield, they had left with him the opinions of the two Notaries, (J.B.A. Bouchard, Hemmingford and R. Fortier, Huntingdon), and had asked him what steps should now be taken. Mr. Cossette had promised to give Council an answer in 15 days. The Secretary stated he had received a resolution from the Village Council which had a bearing on this matter. The resolution, which was passed at an adjourned meeting of the Village Council held on February 19th, stated that, whereas in an effort to establish ownership of the Town Hall the opinion of two Notaries had been sought, their opinions being opposed to one another, all documents had been forwarded to two firms of legal advisors in Montreal and another in Valleyfield, in reply, all three legal advisors said, in effect, that in their considered opinion the Lot and Hall belonged to the Village in which it was situated, therefore, the Municipal Council of the Village of Hemmingford were claiming the Lot and Hall and expected the Township Council to vacate the premises by April 1st, 1963. The Secretary read the three copies of the letters which had been received from the firms whose opinions had been sought. Each opinion noted the fact that when the Village of Hemmingford was incorporated on 27th December, 1877, it would appear that no formal agreement concerning the Town Hall was reached. Nothing had been found in the records which indicated that the Township would retain ownership of the Hall and it was logical to suppose that the lot and building was included with the surrounding land, roads and buildings which were covered by the incorporation.

Each firm quoted a previous case, recorded in the Civil Code, where a like situation had arisen and which had been taken to the Court for a decision. After some discussion it was unanimously agreed that a copy of the resolution received from the Village Council, together with all attached documents, shouid be forwarded to Mr. J. P. Cossette for his consideration together with the documents already in his possession.

Fire-Chief Harry Warner, Asst. Chief Norman Fortin and Captain C. Priest attended this meeting on behalf of the Fire Brigade to discuss the question of providing more efficient fire protection for the Township. Mr. Priest outlined the steps which had been taken in the past on this matter. Four years ago the Township Council had considered purchasing a Fire Truck but it had then been discovered that no Government grant could be obtained on a second-hand vehicle. The subject had again been brought up in 1962 but with no results. Now, with the vivid recollection of the last serious fire still fresh in their minds, when, because the nearest source of water was just a little too far away and the firemen had had to stand by and watch a barn burn down, it had been decided to make another effort to obtain the equipment necessary to furnish adequate fire protection for the Township as well as the village. Mr. N. Fortin then gave Council details of fire protection and its cost in the various municipalities around Hemmingford, both in Quebec and New York State. These costs ranged between $1,000 and $2,000 per year. He then itemized the present yearly costs of the Fire Brigade and gave details of the equipment which would need to be purchased in order that the Brigade might more efficiently fight the fires out in the country. The subject was of interest to all present and the three firemen were kept busy answering questions. Mr. Fortin then said that if Council was interested he and Mr. Warner would attend the Village Council meeting the following evening and would place their suggestions before the Councillors. In the event of their proving acceptable, then, no doubt, a joint meeting could be held to discuss the next steps to be taken. All Councillors signified their interest and unanimously passed a resolution moved by Councillor Whyte, seconded by Councillor Hadley, that the Township Council meet with the Village Council, if necessary, to discuss mutual fire-protection.

The Chamber of Commerce, Valleyfield, invited Council to assist at a general meeting when a special speaker would deal with the subject of the re-canalization of the Champlain-Richelieu canal to link the St. Lawrence Seaway with the Richelieu River.

With reference to the bills received from the Social Welfare Department for the upkeep of children whose parents did not reside within the boundaries of the Township, the Mayor said he had straightened out one case and a credit note would be received for the monies which had already been paid. In respect of the other case, a court order had been made and it would be necessary for Council to go to Court and have the judgement reversed before anything could be done.

With regard to the Valuation Roll, the Secretary read a letter which had been received from the Department of Municipal Affairs in reply to a request for information as to the next steps which Council could take in this matter. The Secretary was instructed to consult a lawyer on this matter.

In the event of a new valuation roll being necessary, Councillor Poissant gave notice of motion that at the next regular meeting he would introduce a By-law, ordering the Assessors to make a new roll.

This being the year for the appointment of assessors, the Mayor asked Council to appoint three, plus one as substitute, also a Rural Inspector. During the discussion which followed, the question was asked as to how much it would cost if a team of experts were brought in to do the job. No exact figures could be given but between $8,000 and $10,000 was considered a minimum amount. This idea was then ruled out and the names of Mr. Henri Philion, Mr. Rupert Enderle and Mr. Boyd Campbell, with Mr. Guy Perras as substitute, were submitted, these men being considered, as were their three predecessors, as representative of the three main groups of taxpayers in the Township, namely, farmers, orchardists and small-holders. Mr. Vernon Ellerton was appointed Rural Inspector. The resolution confirming the appointment of the above-mentioned assessors was moved by Councillor Bouchard, seconded by Councillor W.J. Brown and carried unanimously.

The Secretary was authorized to pay the following bills:—

Shawinigan Water and Power Co., $12.06; Bell Telephone, $4.78; Caretaker, $15.00; Border Insurance (Secretary's Bond) $10.00; to the Secretary for Salary, long-distance calls, stamps, fuel oil, Code Books and travelling expenses, $162.45.

Ormstown High School Notes

On Tuesday, March 5th, Nancy Winter and Bogdan Krawchenko competed against Huntingdon in the Lions' Club Public Speaking Competition. Having both won their divisions, they shall go on to speak again. Nancy's speech, entitled, "To Be Or Not To Be", dealt with the many careers Nancy has at one time decided upon. Natural humour and a charming personality held the audience captive. Bogdan chose to speak on a more serious topic, "Russian Colonialism." The sincerity with which he spoke shone through his speech, impressing his audience.

Wednesday at O.H.S. was Parents' Day, last week having been Education Week. Grade Seven led the Assembly. We were very fortunate and priviledged to have Mr. B. L. McGerrigle speak to us. In his charming manner, Mr. McGerrigle encouraged us to remain in school and complete our education. In the afternoon the parents witnessed an average school session. Coffee was served after school and the Fashion Show was held.

The Senior Girls' Basketball team went to Chateauguay on Thursday night to play the second game in the Provincial Playoffs. The action was fast and the competition strong, while two evenly matched teams struggled for victory. Chateauguay won however, by a close margin. High scorers for Ormstown were Janet Cavers, Carol Hughes, Darlene Burton.

On Friday Grades 10 and 11 went to Howick to the Career Conference. The talks given were extremely helpful, clearing many problems for us. Dancing was held afterwards in the gymnasium.

Maple Leaf Grange

The regular meeting of Maple Leaf Grange No. 11 was held on Tuesday evening, March 5th, with a fair attendance. Worthy Master David Rankin presided over the meeting.

The routine business was taken care of and other plans considered. A card party was discussed and the date will be announced later.

We, the Grange members, extend our sincere sympathy to Sis. Kay Williams, in the passing of a brother-in-law in recent weeks.

At the same time we would congratulate Sis. Williams on the honour bestowed on her by being appointed first Vice-President of the Province of Quebec Association of Hospital Auxiliaries. In knowing Sis Williams, we feel she is very capable to fulfill the duties of the office and her fellow members in the Grange say, "Sincere Congratulations, Kay".

School Poster Contest

The Quebec Forestry Association announces for 1963 again the opening of a School forest fire prevention Poster Contest to all pupils in grades 7th, 8th, 9th; the theme of the contest is: "Good Outdoor Manners" and the posters should tell a story of good manners when working or playing in a forest area, with special reference to forest protection.

Posters should be on suitable paper art work of this type. The preferred size would be 14 x 22 inches. Posters larger than 22 x 28 inches will be automatically disqualified. To win a prize a poster must be original and not a copy of a professional poster. Posters should not have more than three colors.

Not more than two posters shall be submitted from any class in any one school. The teacher will select the best poster in a class and forward it to:

THE QUEBEC FORESTRY ASSOCIATION INC.,
915, St-Cyrille St. West
suite 210 - Quebec 6, P.Q.

The name, school and address should appear on the lower right hand corner on the back of the poster. All entries must be post-marked not later than April 1st, 1963

The Association does not undertake to acknowledge the receipt of posters, the winners only being notified. All posters become the property of the Association and the decision of the Judges is final.

The winner of the Province will enter in a nation-wide contest with winners from other Provinces and the Provincial Winners' Posters will be displayed at the National Art Gallery, in Ottawa, for weeks during the month of May.

Here is the list of prizes: First prize: $50.00 - Second: $25.00 - Third: $15.00 - Fourth: $10.00 - Fifth: $5.00 - 25 consolation prizes will also be distributed; all prizes are offered by The Quebec Forest Industries Association Ltd.

The Grand Prize will consist of an all-expense trip to Ottawa during Forest Conservation Week and of an engraved trophy presented at ceremonies in Ottawa.

New Red Cross Record In Blood Collections

The Canadian Red Cross Blood Transfusion Service has reported that it collected 744,006 bottles of blood in 1962, an increase of 64,687 bottles over the previous year.

Vernon C. Hale, of Hamilton, national blood donor chairman, said that the figure was a new high for blood donations in Canada and represented an increase of 9.52 per cent over 1961. Mr. Hale was enthusiastic about the support of voluntary donors and stated that due to their generosity throughout the year the Canadian Red Cross was able to meet the demands of Canadian hospitals for whole blood and blood products. He estimated almost 300,000 patients received free transfusion therapy during the year.

Based on the price of blood prior to the introduction of the free blood service, usually $25 per bottle, Red Cross authorities estimate that the blood transfusion service saved Canadian patients more than 18 million dollars in 1962.

The Red Cross blood transfusion service provides free supplies of whole blood and blood products such as serum albumin, gamma globulin, fresh frozen plasma, anti-hemophilic globulin and fibrinogen to all hospitals and medical practitioners in Canada.

Blood collections according to provinces: British Columbia, 66,313; Alberta, 69,937; Saskatchewan, 38,873; Manitoba, 49,098; Ontario, 248,165; Quebec, 192,357; New Brunswick, 25,385; Nova Scotia, 35,358; Prince Edward Island, 5,244; Newfoundland, 13,276.

Since the inauguration of the blood transfusion service in 1947, Canadians have voluntarily donated 5,929,360 bottles of their blood to the Red Cross.

The Canadian and the American Red Cross also have a mutual agreement and, in most cases, are able to provide free blood for citizens who may require transfusion therapy while visiting our respective countries.

LEVEL CROSSING

No matter whether level crossings are equipped with visual or electric warnings, the Highway Code obliges motorists to take certain precautions: stop, look and listen to make sure no trains are coming. Prudentia points out that traffic accidents occur when this elementary rule is not observed. Statistics show that less than 15 per cent of all traffic accidents are due to simple bad luck.

THAW

In March, the days are longer causing periods of temporary thaw. On this matter, Prudentia wishes to remind motorists of a point which often escapes them. Roads are more slippery when ice or snow is at the point of thaw following a sudden rise in temperature. When the sun shines, motorists are tempted to accelerate their speed though the distance required to make a complete stop is greater than during periods of extreme cold or dryness.

New Erin

NEW ERIN — Mr. Robert Sherry of Dixie, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Sherry.

Mrs. Ben Douglass visited for a few days in Montreal with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Curtis.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Florette Taillefer and family on the sudden passing of her brother-in-law, the late Wilfred Taillefer, in Athelstan on Monday, March 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Sherry, Miss Dorothy Sherry and Mrs. David Johnston of Dixie, enjoyed a trip to Kansas City, Mo., where Dorothy is attending the School of Aeronautics. They passed through Sarnia, Ont., Detroit, Mich., Toledo, Ohio, and through the States of Illnois, Indiana and Missouri. The temperature in Kansas City was a warm 66 degrees.

En route they visited with Mrs. Sherry's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. MacLean in Port Edward, Ont., where Mrs. Johnston stayed for a week's visit with her sister. They also were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bremner in Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Clark and Mrs. Mina Cunningham in Peterborough, Ont.

They had fine weather going to Kansas City, but encountered heavy rains, thunderstorms and floods coming home. Nevertheless they enjoyed their trip of over 2800 miles. Best of luck Dorothy in your new venture away from home and friends.

Dundee

DUNDEE — Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fraser, Sheila, Kathy, Linda and Marion left last Thursday morning for a two week's stay in Florida. They telephoned home from Jacksonville, Saturday evening, to say they had had a good trip down. Their sister, Doris, is also there visiting friends. The Fraser family plan to spend most of their time sight seeing. Their youngest daughter, Margaret, is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fraser.

Mr. Barry Fraser attended the Career Conference in the Howick High School, last Friday evening, and remained for the dance afterward.

Miss Martha Armstrong and Mr. Donald Ferguson with forty-nine other Salmon River Central Yorkers members of the N.Y.S. Junior Historical Association, left February 24th for a two-day trip to Albany, N.Y., State Capital. They stayed at the Thruway Motel Inn in Albany. The next day they were breakfast guests of Assemblyman Hayward Plumadore and Senator Robert McEwen. Later the group toured the State Museum and among other things, they saw the skeleton of a 65 foot long blue whale. Another tour took them through the State Capital building where they saw the flag room, the million dollar staircase, the military museum and the governor's office. At night they saw the N.Y.S. legislature in session. On Tuesday, they visited with the Governor of New York State, Nelson A. Rockefeller and then boarded the bus for their homeward trip.

Obituary

The Late Mr. Louis Haineault

Mr. Louis Haineault, 89, of Valleyfield, Quebec, father of Mrs. James Henderson, Fort Covington, died on Tuesday, February 26th, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Emanuel Haineault, Valleyfield. For many years he resided at Aubrey's Corners, Dundee moving to Valleyfield about 20 years ago.

Last rites were conducted in Valleyfield Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock and burial was made there.

Mr. Haineault's wife, the former Miss Delima Latour, predeceased him about 16 years ago.

He is survived by four daughters: Mrs. James (Aldea) Henderson, Fort Covington; Mrs. Joseph (Rose) Hart, Cornwall, Ontario; Mrs. Abraham (Mary) Haineault and Mrs. Emanuel (Rose Alma) Haineault, both of Valleyfield; a foster daughter, Mrs. Eloi (Cecil) Haineault, Dundee; a foster son, Alcide Latour, St. Timothy, Quebec; one brother, Frank Haineault, Cazaville, Quebec; two sisters, Mrs. Joseph Saumier of Huntingdon, Quebec and Mrs. Joseph Saucier of Churubusco, and several grandchildren.
