Berlin Claims Gains From British—London Says German Attack Was Repulsed With Heavy Casualties—Russians Lose Ground South-East Of Lemberg—Rumanian Left Wing Is Thrown Back—Serbians Make Progress

In France, in Galicia and in the Dobrudja region of Rumania the armies of the Central Powers have successfully taken the offensive against their opponents. They are also holding the Entente Allies in check in northern Macedonia and are continuing the fighting on the Transylvania-Rumanian frontier.

Crown Prince Rupperecht of Bavaria, assuming the initiative on the Somme front in France, has, according to the Berlin War Office, recaptured from the British the greater part of the positions won from the Germans Oct. 18 between Eaucourt L'Abbaye and Le Barque, between the Pozieres-Bapaume road and Gueudecourt and toward Beaucourt. The Germans also have successfully withstood British attacks near Courcelette and Le Sars and on the Pozieres-Bapaume road. Paris reports only artillery activity on the Somme front, but London chronicles the repulse, with heavy casualties, of a German attack in the Thiepval region.

On the eastern front the Teutonic forces have stormed Russian positions on the left bank of the Narayuvka river, south-east of Lemberg, and held the conquered ground against counter-attacks. Fourteen officers and 2,050 men and 11 machine guns were taken here by Prince Leopold's troops.

In Volhynia the fighting continues with varying results, both the Austro-Germans and the Russians claiming repulses of attacks on various sectors. To the north of Kiselin a stubborn battle is being waged, with no decision yet having been reached.

Field Marshal Von Mackensen again has resumed his drive toward the Constanza-Bucharest railraod in Dobrudja. While Berlin reports the fighting there as "livelier," Bucharest admits that the Rumanian left wing along the Black Sea coast has been thrown back. Petrograd reports that the Teutonic attacks were repelled with heavy losses and that the battle continues.

The Rumanian armies are fighting hard to drive the troops of the Central Powers back through the frontier passes into Transylvania. Bucharest reports the beginning of an offensive in the Oituz valley, north-east of Kronstadt, and the taking of Mount Surul, east of Rothenthurm Pass, south of Hermannstadt. Attacks on the Bran defile and the Trotus, Uzul and Alt valleys were repulsed by the Rumanians.

While Paris says the Serbians have captured the town of Velyeselo, north of Brod, in the region marked by the bend in the Cerna river in southern Serbia, Berlin declares the offensive there has come to a halt before the stand of the forces of the Central Powers.

Violent fighting continues on Monte Pasubio, in the Trentino region, with Rome and Vienna both claiming slight successes.

German submarines operating in the Mediterranean have sunk two British ships, bound for Saloniki with supplies. The sinking of three other vessels, two of them of neutral nationality by German U-boats, is reported from London.

MORE TROOPS IN GREECE.

London, Oct. 20—Additional Entente forces have been sent to Saloniki, according to Reuter's correspondent there, who sends word that a further strong contingent of infantry was landed today, and that several detachments of Greek troops have arrived from Crete to join the Nationalist army.

The provisional government at Saloniki has received a lengthy telegram embodying resolutions passed at a meeting of Greeks in New York and promising men and funds to the Nationalist cause. The provisional government, says the despatch, is sending a committee to New York for the purpose of organizing and transporting recruits.

EARLY WINTER ON THE RISSIAN FRONT.

London, Oct. 21—There is every indication that winter will set in very early on the Russian front, according to news despatches from Petrograd. Snow has been falling thickly in the Russian capital during the last two days and there have been several snowfalls in the Carpathians.

In Rumania, however, the war theatre which is just now attracting most attention, the probability is that there will be some weeks yet of good campaigning weather. Autumn in the Rumanian plains is prolonged and mild and its advantages are felt on the southern slopes of the mountain range which forms the northern frontier. It is likely, therefore, that there will be no serious hindrance to campaigning in either the Transylvanian Alps or the Dobrudja for at least three or four weeks.

FIGHTING IN DOBRUDJA.

London, Oct. 21—While General Von Falkenheyn's troops, who are attempting to invade Rumania through the Carpathians, have made little progress during the past forty-eight hours, Field Marshal Von Mackensen has struck heavily in Dobrudja. His offensive extends along the whole front from the Danube to the Black Sea.

According to advices thus far received his only success has been some slight gains on the Black Sea side, but it is believed here that this battle is only in its early stages. Meanwhile the Gyimes and Oituz Passes in the Transylvania Alps continue the main points in the Austro-German efforts from Transylvania. In the Gyimes Pass the invaders have reached Gosoasa, 18 miles from the frontier in Rumania, but in the Oituz Pass they have been driven back to the frontier.

In the southern passes the situation is unchanged.

SITUATION CALMER IN GREECE.

Athens, Thursday, Oct. 19, via London, Oct. 21—(Delayed)—The demands of Admiral Du Fournet, commander of the Entente Allied fleet in the Mediterranean, upon Greece include the right to transfer, dismiss or appoint any police officer or detective in Greece. Greek police officials are not to appoint, dismiss or transfer any policeman without the Admiral's consent. The marines now in Athens and Piraeus are to remain there, but no more will be landed for the present.

The Greeks are accepting the situation as inavitable. Athens and Piraeus are calm.

SERBIANS ARE CREDITED WITH BRILLIANT SUCCESS

THEIR ADVANCE IS REGARDED AS OF THE GREATEST IMPORTANCE TO THE WHOLE ENTENTE PROGRAMME AGAINST MONASTIR.

London, Oct. 21.—The battle for Monastir, Serbia, takes first place in the news of today in the London newspapers. The Serbians are credited with a brilliant success, having by the capture of Brod and Velyeselo Thursday gained a position behind the main Bulgarian front against which the Entente Allies made an unsuccessful attack in force last Saturday.

The Serbian advance is regarded as of the greatest importance to the whole Entente program against Monastir. The Serbians are still continuing the battle, which also has been taken up by their allies. The latest despatch regarding the situation comes from Reuter's Athens correspondent under date of Friday. It says:

"There is desperate fighting in the Kenali sector, where the Serbians are attacking along the entire line, supported by the French. The struggle went on all day yesterday and has not yet been concluded."

The British press representative with the Serbian army, in a despatch dated Thursday, says:

"The sudden thrust of the Serbians across the Cerna river has driven the Bulgars out of the villages of Brod, Dradilovo and Valyeselo, and the enemy is being chased by cavalry out of sight behind the hills. The Kenali line of entrenchments, which are comparable to the trenches of the western front in strength, and against which a determined frontal attack proved inadequate last week, are now geographically speaking, turned. The Serbians on the Bulgar left flank are well behind the main alignment of the Bulgar front. Today's offensive, in fact, surpassed the expectations even of the Serbians themselves."

FIRE DESTROYS HOUSE AT LEVIS

REFLECTION ILLUMINATED SKY OVER QUEBEC.

Just as the Chronicle is going to press a furious fire is raging at Levis, the blaze being most spectacular and the sky all lit up with the reflection. A houes belonging to the Notre Dame de Levis Convent has been burned down but fortunately no one was in it at the time and as it was fisituated by itself, the flames are not spreading to any other building.

The house, which was tenanted by Mr. Belanger, mail conductor, who was absent at the time, stood at the end of Fraser street.

OUTLOOK WORSE FOR C.P.R. STRIKE

STRIKE ORDERS ARE NOW POSTING OUT TO TAKE EFFECT WEDNESDAY.

Winnipeg, Oct. 20.—Apparently negotiations between the C. P. R. and its conductors and trainmen reached such an impass today that the men's executive pretty well arrived at the conclusion that a strike was inevitable, and it is said that strike orders are now posting out throughout Canada, to take effect Wednesday next, unless in the meantime a way out is found.

On the other hand, Grant Hall, vice-president and general manager, C.P.R., could add nothing to his statement that so far as the company is concerned the door to negotiations is still open.

For the first time the general public today began to take seriously the prospect of a strike, and with the knowledge that at this season the resources of the system are strained to the utmost in marketing, on the one hand, the produce of western farmers, and on the other, bringing in heavy shipments of merchandise from eastern points, influential business agencies are working hard to bring about a settlement.

These say that it is a clear case for the Minister of Labor to intervene and prevent what would be little short of a public catastrophe, as far as the west is concerned. The situation with regard to a board of conciliation clarified somewhat with a very well-defined report, late this evening, that the company would make a formal request of the Department of Labor for such a board. If this proves correct, as there is good reason to believe, it means that the centre of interest shifts from Winnipeg to Ottawa. There is little doubt but that the Minister of Labor will grant this request, notwithstanding the fact that the men have already, through their executive, asserted that in view of the present matters in dispute having been before such a board in 1914, when a majority award was not acceptable to the men, they now feel that they are free from the necessity of first treading the path of mediation before walking out.

The vice-president, Mr. Hall, would neither deny nor confirm the report that the company had applied for a board of conciliation.

AMERICAN AIRMEN CHEERED IN PARIS

LUNCHEON IS GIVEN IN THE HONOR OF DR. PRINCE OF BOSTON.

Paris, Oct. 20—Ten American aviators in the uniform of the French army were cheered by a great gathering of men distinguished in the official and intellectual life of France at a luncheon given today in honor of Dr. Morton Prince, of Boston, who presented to President Poincare last week the "Address to the people of the Allied nation," signed by 500 Americans.

The French cabinet was represented by M. Painleve, Miniser of Public Instruction, M. Metin, Minister of Labor, and several Under Secretaries. Others in attendance were Georges Leygues, chairman of the Foreign Affairs committee of the Chamber of Deputies; General Pedoya, chairman of the Military Committee of the Chamber; Emile Boutroux, of the French Institute; Gabriel Hanotaux, of the French Academy, and many senators, among whom were Stephen Pichon, Baron D'Estournelles De Constant and M. Guerin. Included among the many deputies present was Franklin Bouillon, president of the parliamentary committee to promote the under standing of France abroad, who presided.

Messrs. Pichon, Leygues and Bouillon in toasting Dr. Prince made sympathetic reference to the death, while fighting for France, of Norman Prince, a nephew of Dr. Prince.

Dr. Prince in responding explained the difference between the neutrality of the American government and the ardent sympathies of a majority of the American people. He said he was proud that his faimly had given one son to die as an aviator in the service of the French army.

O'Coats for Autumn

We consider a Top Coat should have all the snug fit and graceful lines that up to now have only usually been found in a Suit Coat.

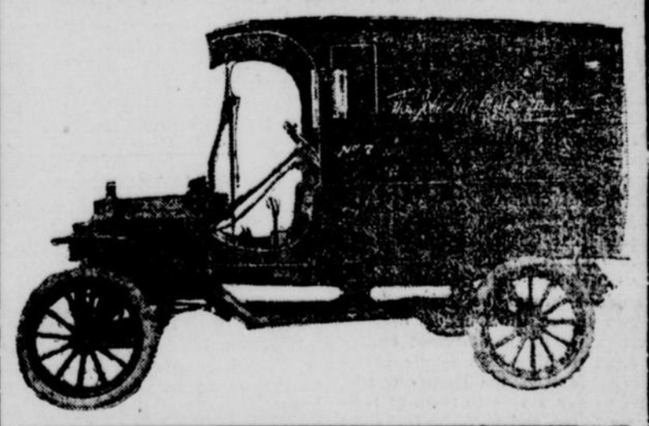

The first crack of cold weather finds us with a number of American models of smart, unusual design. Short enough to give the wearer a well-bred look and of a great enough length to ensure warmth and comfort.

Not the least appealing thing about these garments is the extreme lightness of their knitted fabrics. That, combined with their excellent wearing qualities, are features which altogether make the smartest coat of the year.

In this same department American Collars and Ties by the finest makers in the land.

THE TROUPE BONHEUR OPENS MONDAY WITH CATHERINE AT AUDITORIUM

Lucien L. Bonheur, the director of the Theatre Fransais, who will bring his company to the Auditorium Theatre for a two-weeks' engagement commencing Monday, 23rd, does not believe in sending an inferior company on the road, reserving all the best artists for his New York company. The company which he will present here is the same that has just played a two-weeks' engagement at the Princess Theatre in Montreal to capacity houses every performance. It includes Messrs. Edgar Becman, Claude Benedict, Georges Renavant, George Saulieu, Paul Cerny, Marc Lomon, Andre Bellon, Georges Gouvineu, Bernard Cossin, Edouard Rouleux, Bernhey, Rosselet, St. Marc, and Mmes. Yvonne Mirval, Paulette Noizeux, Mlle. Dione, Jenny Diska, Jeanne Rolle, Georgette Ducellier, Marthe Beaulieu, and others.

Jeanne Rolle, a new member of the company, made her debut at the age of 15 with Coquelin, in Paris, and after two years with Coquelin she was engaged to play leading roles at the Odeon.

Yvonne Mirval, of the Theatre Antoine, also a new member of the company, is a talented artiste. She made her debut at Bordeaux as leading lady with Le Bergy; then played en tour with Rejane and other important artists.

Paulette Noizeux, another member of the Bonheur Troupe, made her debut at the Theatre De La Renaissance, and after two years of success was engaged as leading lady at the Theatre Antoine.

The repertoire for the first week will be as follows: Monday evening, Tuesday matinee and Tuesday evening, the company will present "Catherine," a four-act comedy by Henri Lavedan, with Edgar Becman and Mlle Yvonne Mirval as Catherine, a new comedy for the first time outside of Paris, where it created the biggest hit of the season. Catherine, who is a very young talented pianist, is the main support of her family—her father, an invalid sister and two young brothers. One of Catherine's pupils is Madeline, daughter of the Duchess of Contras. Madeline's brother, the Duke, has fallen in love with Catherine, and wishes to marry her. Catherine has another suitor, George Mantel, who declares his love and obtains her promise to wed him. As soon as George learns, however, that Catherine can make a brilliant marriage he withdraws in favor of his wealthy rival.

Catherine adapts herself easily to her new life as the Duchess of Contras, but her husband cannot endure the sight of his wife's family in his chateau. Helene, the Duke's cousin, comes to pay a visit to them at their country home, and tells the Duke she has loved him for years. Catherine one day surprises the Duke and Helene locked in each other's arms. She threatens to divorce him and sends for her former girlhood friend, George.

The Duke, however, refuses to give up Catherine, whom he really loves, and implores George to intercede in his behalf. George persuades Catherine to forgive her husband and to remain as his wife. The part of Catherine is played by Mlle Yvonne Mirval and the part of the Duke of Contras will be played by Mr. Edgar Becman.

Wednesday evening, Thursday matinee and Thursday evening, the company will present "Le Maitre De Forges," by George Ohnet, with Mr. Claude Benedict and Mlle. Paulette Noiseux in the leading part, supported by the entire company.

Friday evening and Saturday matinee and Saturday evening, "Le Monde Ou L'On Sennuie."

ANTI-AIR CRAFT SHELLS.

Special shells have to be used in anti-air craft guns, for the ordinary shell fired into the air cannot be seen in its flight, and the gunner would have no idea whether he went near his target or not. So "tracer" shells are used in anti-air craft guns.

This shell leaves a trail of smoke by day, and fire by night, so that its flight can clearly be seen, and the gunner is able to observe how far off his target he is.

The "tracer" has in its base an inflammable composition which is fired as the shell leaves the gun. The actual base of the shell has in it a number of holes, through which the smoke streams as the shell makes its way through the air. At night a firework attachment to the base of the shell takes the place of the smoke composition.

The shell itself is a high explosive shrapnel—that is to say, it is a shell with a thick steel high explosive head and a thin steel body filled with bullets. When it bursts the flying fragments of thick steel from the head smash up the aeroplane or Zeppelin, while the flying bullets kill or wound the aviators.—Pearson's

"Oh, but I must speak of it, old man," said Brocklebank. "I can't treat a friend that way, you know, and I—I want to pay you, and I will, Jimp—sure thing. If you'll lend me $2 I'll pay off that dollar right now, and we can start fresh again."

AT THE THEATRES

PAVLOWA, THE WORLD'S GREATEST DANCER, AT THE OLYMPIA MON., TUES. & WED.

SUPPORTED BY FIFTY OF HER ORIGINAL "BALLETRUSSE" IN THE WONDERFUL PHOTOPLAY SPECTACLE "THE DUMB GIRL OF PORTICI"—SPECIAL MUSIC AND FULL ORCHESTRA EVERY EVENING—NO ADVANCE IN THE PRICES — DAILY MATINEES.

This great photoplay is playing at the St. Denis Theatre in Montreal this week to record crowds.

What the producers say: "There is absolutely no question about it, that when you show this picture in Quebec, you are showing the Quebec public the finest photoplay ever seen in that city, possibly with the exception of "The Birth of a Nation," and if this picture were not a costume play, it would possibly equal that.

AT THE VICTORIA THEATRE

ING TODAY OF VIVIAN MARTIN IN "THE STRONGER LOVE."

Scenes of exceptionally beautiful woodlands; views of the vast mountains at their best; a fight between mountaineers appalling in its ferocity; and heart paralyzing leaps are but incidents in the powerful Morosco-Paramount photoplay "The Stronger Love", Monday and Tuesday attraction at the Victoria Theatre, is a truly remarkable production.

"The Parson of Panamint", the story Peter B. Kyne wrote about the young, vigorous parson of a Western mining town forty years ago has been made, as is understandable, into a superlative photoplay by Pallas-Paramount.

With a fighting, big-hearted Dustin Farnum in the title role; the setting a real desert mining town, and the types and characters chosen after a lengthy elimination—all are welded together into the finished product of a great picture.

MEAT SUPPLY INSUFFICIENT.

The daily rations of bread and meat all over Germany have just been increased, but some warning voices are heard in the press that the present rations cannot be continued through the winter.

The Munich Neueste Nashrichten tells the German people not to put too much faith in the present official promise in view of the indisputable fact that there are not enough cattle in the country to keep up the present ration, and says it is doubtful wether a meat ration of even one-quarter of a pound of meat weekly can be maintained. It proposes to increase the meat supply by killing off all the game on private and Imperial estates

The Frankfort Gazette hints that the recent mismanagement of the new potato crop cause grave misgivings as to the food supplies during the winter. It seems that the farmers, attracted by the high prices offered, dug up their potatoes too early. Parochial and municipal organizations for the distribution of food were overwhelmed with supplies of unripe potatoes. Many thousands of bushels are said to have rotted on the spot or gone bad in the railroad cars while waiting to be unloaded The glut continued until the communities reduced the maximum price when the supply gradually fell off.

The Frankfurter Zeitung says: "The hopes which were pinned to the new harvest have proved illusive The potato organization has failed and the authorities are to blame. As a consequence of these unhappy experiences people are beginning to doubt very much whether the food organization wil run smoothly during the winter.

RUSSIAN SYMPHONY COMING IN NOVEMBER

FAMOUS ORGANIZATION UNDER THE DIRECTION OF MODEST ALTSCHULER.

One of the most stupendous events in many years past is announced for the middle of November. The Russian Symphony Orchestra; sixty famous Russian musicians under the direction of Modest Altschuler. The Russian Symphony is about to start on a transcontinental tour of North America which will include all the important cities of the United States and Canada. The tour is undertaken with a view of creating additional interest in the great symphonic works of the modern Russian school which is replete with compositions of extreme beauty.

After negotiations that lasted for several months Quebec has finally been included in the tour and the Russian Orchestra will be here about the middle of November next. It can be easily realized that this will mean one of the most gorgeous undertakings done here. The expense will be so considerable that only a crowded house at special prices will enable the management to meet both ends. But the success of such an event leaves no doubt in the mind of anyone.

CROWDS SEE VITAGRAPH FEATURE AND "STRANGE CASE OF MARY PAGE."

"The Footlights of Fate," the six-part drama released under the Vitagraph Blue Ribbon trademark, is the attractio nat the Empire Theatre and it is proving a winner.

The story tells of the life on the stage, a large number of the scenes having a theatrical background. The atmosphere is typical and the story plausible to the minutest degree. This is Marc MacDermott's first Vitagraph release, as he plays the leading male role while Naomi Childers plays the feminine star. The supporting cast is good and placed to excellent advantage. In fact, the picture is all that the trade-mark suggests—a Blue Ribbon Feature.

Besides this "The Strange Case of Mary Page" reaches another phase and is getting more and more interesting.

On Monday don't fail to see Mary Miles Minter.

EXPECTS FOOD TO COST STILL MORE

NEW YORK WHOLESALE GROCER THINKS WORST IS YET TO COME.

New York, Oct. 20.—Has the limit of high prices yet been reached in foodstuffs? Retail grocers who have been interviewed by the Herald recently have shown hesitancy in expressing an opinion on the subject.

As canned goods form an important part of a grocer's stock a reporter sought the opinion of Kemp Day & Co., of Hudson street, one of the oldest wholesale houses in the grocery business. It has been in continuous existence more than a century. Mr. Sidney Thursby, head of the house, known as the dean of the wholesale grocers, said he never had seen anything like the present situation since civil war times.

"I am afraid, however," said Mr. Thursby, "that the consumer has not yet seen the worst of it.

"At present the grocers are selling tomatoes, corn, peas, beans and succotash that they bought at anywhere from, say, 85c. to a dollar a dozen cans. Today we ourselves would have to pay $1.25 for tomatoes, anywhere from $1.25 to $1.50 for corn and certainly not less than a dollar for the cheapest variety of other articles I have mentioned.

"It is a year of short production on one hand and abnormal demand on the other. Not only vegetables, but canned fish, such as salmon, are short. Yet even at present prices salmon is much cheaper than beef.

"The demand has been unprecedented for canned goods for two reasons. The first is heavy purchasing by the Allies. The second is the unusual domestic demand. This is particularly noticeable in the manufacturing districts, where labor is exceptionally well paid and where almost without exception the working classes are living on a higher plane than that to which they were accustomed.

"The spring will see a positive scarcity of some food products. If the war should end that would release huge supplies of Russian wheat, but it would not increase the supplies of other foodstuffs. That is up to the farmers of this country."

NEW ZEALAND'S SHARE.

According to a report to the Canadian Department of Trade and Commerce from Canadian Trade Commissioner Beddoe, of Auckland, New Zealand has now sent 60,000 men to the front out of a total white population of 1,000,000. The Dominion is now providing 2,400 men each month to maintain its army at the front. The total amount raised for war expenditures now exceeds $55,000,000, and more than $15,000,000 of this amount will be met by this year's surplus revenue.

Proportionately to population it will be seen that New Zealand has apparently done better than Canada in its contribution, both of men and money, to the Empires' war forces.

A CHILD DOESN'T LAUGH AND PLAY IF CONSTIPATED

IF PEEVISH, FEVERISH AND SICK, GIVE "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS."

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

COUNCIL DOES NOT WANT COMMISSION

LEADER VERRET FINDS NO ALDERMEN TO SUPPORT MOTION.

A letter from the authorities of the Hotel Dieu refusing the grant of $500 from the City because the money was collected at theatres was read at a meeting of the City Council last night. Another letter expressing thanks for a similar donation was received from Hospice St. Charles.

Grande Allee Traffic.

The Secretary of the Quebec Auto Club sent a letter requesting that repairs be made to the pavement on Grande Allee pointing out that thoroughfare was in a very bad condition. The petition was referred to the Road Committee.

No Commission

Ald. Verret's motion in connection with changing the present mode of aldermanic administration of the City to a commission of five, was defeated by a vote of 23 to 1. Ald. Verret was the only member of the Council in favor of the change, although previous to the vote His Worship the Mayor made a strong plea in support of the Leader of the Council pointing out that three years ago he made a similar suggestion which did not meet with popular favor at the time.

Fire Chief Question.

Ald. Dussault (Belvedere Ward) moved that the resignation of Chief Hamel be accepted and that Deputy Chief Talbot be appointed to succeed the retiring Chief. It was ruled that this was not according to procedure and a change was made in the motion to the effect that the resignation of Chief Hamel be accepted and that a successor be appointed.

Strong objection was made by Ald Lockwell Chairman of the Fire Committee and after considerable arguments were advanced pro and con the Council finally decided to refer the question back to the committee.

Money Owing City.

Discussing the City's present financial state Ald. Verret stated that the sum of $312,288.75 exclusive of personal taxes was due the City in arrears. Arrears in personal taxes amounted, he said, to $52,933.45 making a total of $365,222.21. Of this total Ald. Verret said a portion would not be obtainable.

Ald. Fiset declared that judgments should be prepared so that the City might collect the amount due. Ald. Verret replied that the matter would be considered in committee

Ald. Lockwell asked for a statement showing the amounts due in each ward.

Other matters of lesser importance were also considered. The Council adjourned at midnight.

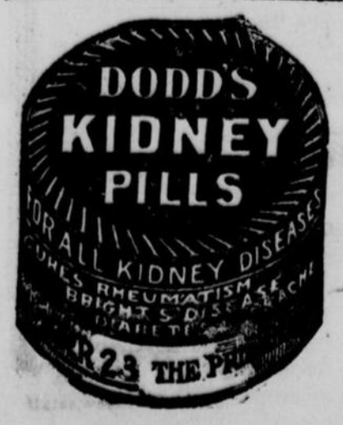

ITALIANS START ECONOMY MOVE

GOVERNMENT HAS ALSO INITIATED A CAMPAIGN AGAINST PROFITEERS.

Rome, Oct. 20, via Paris.—A government decree issued today orders all street lights and also lights in the stores, hotels and cafes dimmed at 10.30 o'clock in the evening. This is another measure in the continuation of the energetic movement to force national economy, the first measure having been the raising of the price of sugar to 25 cents a pound, and also prohibiting its sale for the manufacture of candies or other sweets.

The government is also making a campaign against speculations in food stuffs and wearing apparel. A semi-official warning has been published, saying that peace is yet distant and that any merchant making a big profit from his goods at the present moment is a traitor to his country.

Men's women's and children's shoes are selling at from $6 to $9 per pair, and woolen and other articles have doubled in price. Foods produced in Italy, of which the exportation is prohibited, are in the hands of speculators. Eggs have disappeared from the markets. It is estimated that millions of eggs are stored in Rome. No eggs have been sold in the city during the past week.

GERMANS CLAIM U-BOAT SUCCESS

MORE BRITISH STEAMERS ARE REPORTED SUNK IN THE MEDITERRANEAN.

Berlin, Oct. 20, by wireless to Sayville, N.Y.—The armed British transports Crosshill and Sedek were sunk in the Mediterranean by German submarines last week, says an official statement issued by the German Admiralty. On October 6th, a German submarine, it is added, shelled factories and the railroad near Catanzaro, in Calabria, Italy. The report dated yesterday, says:

"German submarines sank in the Mediterranean the following ships: October 4th the armed British transport steamer Franconia, 13,150 tons; October 11th, the armed British transport steamer Crosshill, 5,000 tons, with horses and Serbian grooms; October 12th, the armed British transport steamer Sedek, 4,600 tons, which was deeply laden. The Crosshill and Sedek were bound for Saloniki.

"On October 16th, a German submarine successfully shelled factories and railroad works near Catanzaro, in Calabria."

The sinking of the transport Franconia, a former Cunard Liner, was reported in an official statement issued by the British Admiralty on October 5th. The Franconia carried no troops and 12 of her crew of 302 were reported missing.

The British steamer Crosshill was 400 feet long and was built in Dumbarton in 1910. She was owned in Glasgow and was last reported as leaving Liverpool for an unnamed destination on September 20th.

The steamer Sedek referred to in the official statement probably is the British steamer Sebek, of 4,611 gross tons; and owned in Liverpool. The Sebek was built in West Hartlepool in 1909, and was 385 feet in length.

HUN PROPAGANDA IN UNITED STATES

MUENSTERBERG, THE ARCHLIAR, TALKS OF SEPERATE PEACE WITH RUSSIA.

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 20.—Hugo Muensterberg, professor of Psychology at Harvard University, in an address tonight before the International Polity Club of the University, asserted that he had been reliably informed that Russia and Germany would sign terms of a separate peace before spring, and that following this peace there would be an alliance between Germany, Russia and Japan.

"I know from reliable sources," he said, "that Russia is out of joint, is half bankrupt, is starving and will be ready for a separate peace before the spring. The result is to be an alliance between Germany, Austria, Russia and Japan. Japan and Russia are pushing towards this combination and an overwhelming majority of the German people would welcome it today.

"It is the old Bismarckian tradition that Germany ought to be the friend of Russia and that such an alliance would be her surest protection.

"If we really want to bring peace for a generation there is no hope but to bring Germany and England to an understanding before Germany and Russia have made peace and formed an alliance. Neither the English nor the German people want this peace today, but they ought to want it, for once the new alliance is formed it will seek to crush the ambition of England for world power.

"Some neutral groups in Europe are seeking to bring about this understanding between Germany and England. Yet real success can be expected only if the government of the United States undertakes this master work."

MORE CANADIANS REACH ENGLAND.

Ottawa, Oct. 20—It is official announced through the Chief Press Censor's Office that the following troops have arrived safely in England:

The 188th. Saskatchewan Battalion; half 166th. Toronto Battalion; the 85th., 185th., 193rd. and 219th. Nova Scotia Battalions. Drafts: Dental Corps; Royal Flying Corps. Total number of troops: Officers, 276; men, 5,529.

BRITISH BOAT SUNK.

London, Oct. 20—Lloyds announces that the British steamer Penylan has been sunk.

The British steamer Penylan was formerly the Okehampton and was built in Newcastle in 1906. She measured 3,875 gross tons and was 340 feet long. The Penylan was owned in London and was last reported arriving at Liverpool on August 14 from Java.

MUSICAL COMEDY GREAT SUCCESS

CROWDED HOUSE WITNESSES "THE MILLION DOLLAR DOLL" LAST NIGHT.

A very large audience witnessed the performance of "The Million Dollar Romance" which was played at the Auditorium last night and fully enjoyed the comedy.

The entire work is original and above the general run of musical comedies.

The plot is a novel one and well suited to musical comedy. The Guardian of a very beautiful young lady has invested her money in a wonderful smoke consumer, which does not prove a great success and they are about to lose all their money when they hit upon the plan of taking the young lady to the Panama Exposition and have her compete for a ten thousand dollar prize which is to be awarded to the most beautiful "Doll" in the world. They go to California by way of the Panama Canal which gives opportunity for the great "boat scene" which has been pronounced as the most elaborate ship scene ever offered the public. The last act of the play takes place on the famous "Joy Zone" at the exposition where Dolly wins the prize and is awarded the ten thousand dollars.

The acting was all that could be desired and the tuneful songs caught the fancy of the audience, as did the dancing, which was encored on several occasions.

Miss Lee Johnstone's singing was very pleasing and enthusiastically applauded. Harvey D. Orr, comedian and Harold Orr, coon, also delighted the audience. The entire company is a strong one, every member displayed marked ability in their respective roles.

The management announces a matinee today at 2.15.

TRIES TO JUMP ON WILSON'S CAR

DID NOT WANT TO HURT PRESIDENT BUT DISLIKED HIS POLICIES.

Pittsburg, Oct. 20—Richard Cullen, aged 22, a machinist, who was taken into custody after attempting to jump on the running board of an automobile in which President Wilson was riding here today was examined by physicians this afternoon and ordered sent to the City Home at Mayview for further observation regarding his sanity. Cullen denied that he intended harming the President, saying he was not satisfied with the administration's foreign policies and just wanted to talk to him. A bottle of liquid in a bag carried by Cullen was found to contain medicine, according to the police. A knife with a blade five inches long and several wood chisels were also in the bag. Cullen had been attending night school at a local technical institute, working during the day for a steel company.

WHAT HE WANTED.

Mr. H. G. Wells, the famous author detests interviews, and will never willingly submit to unburden himself to them.

One day recently, while he was walking in a country lane near his home, he espied a keen-visaged, alert-looking man coming quickly toward him.

The stranger looked every inch a journalist, and firmly convinced that he was about to be interviewed, Wells dodged aside down a convenient bridle-path.

But the stranger wouldn't be shaken off, and doggedly followed his quarry down the path, through a broken hedge, and across a meadow, at last running him to earth behind a haystack.

Resigning himself to his fate, Wells turned and faced his tormentor.

"Glad you've come to anchor at last, old man," said the latter cheerfully. "Please tell me where I can find a 'pub.' I'm dying for a glass of beer."

171ST BATTALION IN GOOD QUARTERS

MEN ARE LODGED COMFORTABLY — STRENGTH NOW SEVEN HUNDRED.

During the last season at Valcartier Camp visitors were agreeably struck with the efficient manner in which the Camp was conducted, the cleanliness of the grounds particularly coming in for much favorable comment.

Any one visiting the quarters of the 171st., Sir William Price's Battalion, at the Immigration Building, will be sure to speak in the same high words of praise, for the barracks, every inch of them, are spotlessly clean and arranged in the most comfortable manner conceivable for the welfare of the troops stationed there.

Just now the strength of the Battalion is 720. At present there are 625 in barracks. They live like one big happy family with nearly all the comforts of life at home. They have a player piano, gramophone, circulating library, writing tables, refreshment booth, etc. etc., all of which comes under the supervision of officers known as the Canteen Committee. The officers in charge are Major W. R. Stevens, Lt. Roberge and Lt. Labrecque. A staff of five men under the supervision of Sgt. Stanley attend to the wants of the men while in the canteen.

The recreation also is very neatly arranged too and harmonizes well with the balance of the well kept barracks.

The 171st. can now boast of three of the best bands of any of the Overseas regiments. The bugle band has 24 members, the pipe band nine pipers and five drummers and brass band, twenty-two musicians.

Yesterday afternoon the Battalion was out for a route march returning to Barracks at 4.30 o'clock. Recruits are coming in at a good clip recently.

BRITISH SCHOONER RUNS AGROUND.

Woodmont, Conn., Oct. 20—Mistaking the lights of this town for New Haven harbor, the British schooner Priscillia, hurrying to shore for medical attention for her captain, Robert Newcombe, of Parrsboro, N.S., grounded on a sand bar in Long Island Sound near here tonight, in a dense fog. Captain Newcombe, who is seriously ill of pleurisy, was removed from his craft by a rescue party sent from shore, given medical attention here and then hurried to a New Haven hospital. The remainder of the chew was also brought ashore. The vessel was hard aground late tonight, with a high sea running.

The Priscillia, loaded with coal, was bound for St. Stephen, N. B., from Elizabethport, N. J. She is owned in St. John, N. B.

FEWER SHIPS LAST YEAR.

A decline in the number of vessels in Canadian registry is shown by the figures for last year, which have been compiled at the Marine and Fisheries Department. The total number of vessels so registered was 8,757, of which 4,132 were steamers. The total net tonnage was 929,312. Although the decline is not so great as would appear from a comparison of the figures with those of the preceding year, owing to the fact that a revision of the list resulted in the elimination of the names of a number of vessels which had been carried, but were no longer in commission, the number of new vessels constructed was less. It was 264 last year of 18,832 tons, as compared with 329 the previous year of 43,000.

Although the number of ships decreased, however, there was an increase in the number of sailors serving on board them. The figures were 45,461 as compared with about 42,-000 the year before.

THE PATRIOTIC FUND.

Efforts now being made to place the Quebec Patriotic Fund in a position where there can be assurance that its coffers shall always be capable of meeting demands upon them are worthy of hearty commendation. The records of the fund in this city and province show that while some men have given most liberally there are many others whose contributions have been pitifully small in comparison with their ability to pay. If all such funds could be assessed for by the municipalities of the province the responsibility for their maintenance would be borne equally by all men on the principle of ability to pay rather than willingness to contribute. It is probably this principle which has animated the Government of Sir Lomer Gouin in donating such a magnificent sum to the fund.

The object of the fund is most deserving. It aims to fill in part the place of the breadwinner who has turned his family dependents over to the tender attentions of his fellow men while he is absent on the Empire's business. When the boys come home it should not be said of any man in this province that he neglected the opportunity which the Patriotic Fund affords him. The men who don the khaki and go to the battle lines of the Empire must surrender many comforts and face many dangers. It should be the aim of every man and woman in Quebec to see to it that those the soldiers leave behind are not called upon to bear hardship as the price of the courage and devotion of their loved ones.

THE DOUGLAS LECTURES.

The generous endowment provided by Dr. James Douglas of New York is to be utilized again this season for a series of popular literary and scientific lectures at Morrin College. A joint committee of the governors of Morrin College and the council of the Quebec Literary and Historical Society is making the arrangements for the course. Although the whole programme for the winter has not yet been decided upon we are pleased to announce that the first lecture, to be given early in November, will be a scientific one. Professor J. Austen Bancroft, of the Department of Geology, McGill University, is to speak on the Dinosaurs and other pre-historic monsters of Mesozoic age found in recent years by Canadian geologists in the rocks of Alberta province. The lecture will be illustrated by lantern slides.

We have too few lectures in this city on scientific subjects. Every community can benefit by coming in touch with the workers in science from time to time. The benefit is not to be measured so much by the amount of abstract knowledge that is afforded by this contact as by the insight it gives into scientific method. The part played by science in modern civilization cannot now be ignored. In "after-the-war" programmes, science must have more emphasis in education and in our industrial organization. This is realized in Great Britain and it can be more widely recognized in Canada. Those who are in a position to know inform us that the most hopeful indication in this direction in the Dominion today is the way in which the farmers of every province are responding to the scientific teaching of the trained agricultural demonstrators. There is scope for more science also in our business and manufacturing organizations.

The lectures at Morrin College are, of course, not directly concerned with such practical ends. They are first of all, and rightly, cultural, but as such they serve to draw attention to science in general. We trust that there will be a good response on the part of the public this season in the matter of attendance. It is the just due of the generous founder, Dr. Douglas, who has also recently added to his benefactions by providing an endowment for the annual purchase of books on science, history and travel, for the library of the Literary and Historical Society. Although Morrin College has ceased for some years from being a teaching institution it is still capable of serving high educational purposes in the community.

THEY HAVE IT WRONG.

"If this war was confined to submarines Germany would have won it long ago."—Detroit Free Press.

The Free Press is wrong. British submarines have performed feats in this war that far surpass anything done by German underseas boats. The difference is that they have confined their activities to legitimate warfare. What the Free Press probably means is that Germany should be declared the winner on points in loss of lives of neutrals and noncombatants.

OUR GRAVES IN FRANCE.

"Those who were anxious for the fate of the graves of the dead are now reassured, not only by the national decision which our parliament has taken," says the Paris Le Temps, "but perhaps even more so by the delicacy of the people of France, for they are well aware that in the fields of Marne and the Aisne, and in the north, the ploughshare is turned away from the English graves with the same piety as from our own. The innumerable small crosses planted side by side, from the Marne to Flanders, will remain, long after the present days, a visible and ever-living symbol of English faithfulness which, at the critical hour, we did not find wanting. They will be, as it were, living warders of a union pledged in blood, and a link which will always bind together the two peoples who side by side made the same sacrifices in the same cause."

PRESS COMMENT.

The British Government has debarred the International News Service from the use of the Official Press Bureau, and all other facilities for the transmission of news. This has been done because messages which purported to be from the London correspondent of this service bore no likeness to the cablegrams actually dispatched. The I.N.S. was warned some time ago and promised to amend its ways, but it broke its promise, and recently absolutely false reports concerning the Zeppelin raids were sent by it to the United States.

This means that the Hearst papers have been issuing lies as the Official Press Bureau's statements. The British Government feels that it has been courteous and forbearing long enough, so it has refused to have anything further to do with a news service which abuses its consideration and confidence to help the enemy by attributing false news to the Official Press Bureau. For many months the press here has been cautioning its readers against believing all the stories emanating from so-called News service. The Huns and the enemies of the Entente Allies have known only too well how to turn them to their own advantage.

This drastic and absolutely warranted action by the British Government draws attention to the demand made largely here that the Hearst papers should be refused the use of the Canadian mails. It is a manifest absurdity that, when the British Government has given such damning proof of what these papers will do in their efforts to help the Huns and to damage the Entente Allies, Canada should actually help them by allowing them to be sent all over the Dominion. We do not think that Mr. Hearst or his opinions count for much in Canada, but at the same time we think that the Dominion Government should add to the punishment of this falsifier and foe by letting all the world know that it has debarred his papers from the Canadian mails. —Kingston Standard.

British and allied experience in this war has proved that Germany either succeeds on the first jump or never succeeds at all.

Rumania, like Verdun, has escaped destruction in the first jump of the German offensive. May Rumania learn, as Verdun learned, that a German offensive has no second jump worth mentioning.—Toronto Telegram.

Those New "Bran Foods"—a new one is born every week—a recognition of the need of food laxatives instead of drug laxatives. The problem of presenting bran to the human stomach in combination with a nutritious, easily digested food was solved twenty years ago by the invention of Shredded Wheat Biscuit, the food that supplies all the body-building material in the whole wheat grain in a digestible form, combined with bran, which is Nature's laxative. A body-building, strength-giving food. Serve with milk or cream or sliced peaches and cream or other fruits.

A SPLENDID WAY TO REDUCE ONE'S WEIGHT.

There is, perhaps, no one thing that shows the passing of our youth so much as the horrible tendency of some of us to put on too much weight after we have reached the age of 25 or 30. However young our face may appear, our figures "give us away."

The cause of this over-stoutness is that our stomachs convert the food we eat into fat because there is not enough oxygen in the blood to produce a proper combustion to destroy the fatty tissue. To reduce your weight go to a good druggist and get oil of orilene in capsule form, and take one after each meal. It is sold only in original sealed packages. Oil of orilene taken at meal-times gives you all the benefit of the food you eat, and at the same time dissolves the fatty tissue from any part of the body where there is excessive fat. In this way many have reduced their weight at the rate of about a lb. a day, and no flabbiness is left.

Any druggist can supply you or a large size box will be sent on receipt of $1.00, postal note or money order. Address D. J. Little Drug Co. Box 1240 Montreal, Can.

BEATING THE FUND.

The Canadian Patriotic Fund, like every other big institution, has had its experiences of attempting to "put something over" on it. Perhaps because it is such a big institution, handling such immense sums of money for patriotic and charitable purposes only, it has appeared the more tempting mark. To it belongs the distinction of dealing almost exclusively with ladies in this connection. Just as the woman was tempted by an apple over in the garden a few summers ago, her sisters have been tempted since by patriotic plums hanging apparently within reach on the biggest tree of its kind in the country. To the credit of the tree be it said that the plums haven't been so easily picked as the apple was, and the picking of them has invariably entailed some very disagreeable consequences to the pickers.

There was, for instance, the case of Mrs. F——. She made application to the fund in July, 1915. In August, this year, the Children's Aid Society reported that F——, her alleged husband, had a wife and three children living in England. It transpired, too, that his new Canadian "wife" had also been married before, and that she had deserted her lawful husband to go and live with F——. The latter had forged his name to the marriage certificate, which was shown to the officers of the fund, and she had been calmly living on the proceeds of their charity. When the fraud was discovered the fund secured a transferance of his Government pay and seperation allowance to his ligitimate wife in England and the Canadian "wife" was left to earn a substitute as best she could.

In another case two marriage certificates figured. A woman who claimed to be the wife of a soldier named H—— had been receiving support from the fund. To prove her right to the same she had produced a marriage certificate duly authenticating her name and the place and date of her marriage. Somehow, information leaked out that she was not this man's legal wife; that he was married to another woman, whom he had deserted, and that his real wife was living in the city. One day this real wife herself came into the offices of the fund. "I don't want anything from you on my own account," she said, "but I don't want another woman to be drawing money in my name." Meanwhile the other woman and her "husband" had removed to Montreal. Discovering that fact, the fund set out to learn what had become of the checks it had been issuing to her. Four startling discoveries were made: 1. That for some time the chacks had been received and cashed by the woman's formed landlady in Toronto, who deducted a commission for her trouble and forwarded the balance on to Montreal, where it was applied to keep the "lord and master" of the household living in the solidest comfort of his life. 2. That the said lord and master was a deserter from his regiment. 3. That he had been previously married to a woman who afterwards died before he met and married again. 4. That it was this dead wife's marriage certificate which the fictitious wife had presented when making her claim. The fund immediately prosecuted and got judgment for the amount of moneys paid her.

Home Conservation

OUR soldiers are fighting abroad to preserve our homes. The enemy, if successful, would occupy this country and crush the citizens with war taxes.

In prosecuting this war, we are literally fighting to conserve our homes, and to keep "Canada for the Canadians."

Next to the soldiers in the field, the greatest conserver of the home life of any state is the modern insurance company.

THE MUTUAL LIFE OF CANADA, for example, has paid to policyholders, or to their relatives, $17,800,000 since its foundation in 1869, and in addition—

There are at least fifty thousand homes in "this Canada of ours" protected by Mutual policies in the event of the death of their owners.

To guarantee the payment of these policies the Company holds $26,894,524, a sum not only sufficient but including a surplus of $4,258,000.

Is there a Mutual Life Conservation Policy in your home?

IN AND ABOUT TOWN

CAPT. CINQ-MARS RETURNS TO FRONT

AGREES WITH CHRONICLE AND L'EVENEMENT ABOUT SLACKNESS IN RECRUITING.

Captain E. E. Cinq Mars, (King's Printer in civil life), of the 2nd Canadian Division, returned last night to the front after five week's sick leave. The Captain has been for over eighteen months in the Overseas Service, and he refused to be interviewed upon his arrival home. This time the Captain gave us this much.

1.—Sorry I was not with the boys on the Somme, but hope to rejoin them in time to be of some further use for my Dear Country.

2.—For over one year, I did my bit at the front, but as I am fit again, I feel it is my duty to return to duty, even if my sick leave has not yet expired.

3.—It is true I have refused my majority here, but I am anxious to get back to my old division to serve in any capacity that Major-General Turner decides for the general benefit of the Canadian Army.

4.—I entirely agree with "The Chronicle" and "L'Evenement" as to the slackness—not to use a more vigorous term—of some prominent members of the Roman Catholic Clergy against recruiting in the present war.

5.—At the front, politics is out of the game, and everyone of my compatriots from Colonel Tremblay down, without seeing any colour but that of the Union Jack, has been doing his utmost on behalf of our Province, and such will be the case until the end.

6.—The Ross Rifle has been an unfortunate victim of politics. It is just as good as, if not better than, the Lee-Enfield, but it is manufactured in Quebec City!

7.—Some "politiqueurs" may throw stones at the Minister of Militia and Defense, but as a soldier, I do not think anyone could replace him advantageously just now.

8.—My last word is: tell my co-citizens not to spend foolishly the easy money they are making, for when we reach the goal of victory, there might be sad disappointment for the spendthrift.

MANAGER PAQUET OF THE AUDITORIUM MAKES GENEROUS OFFER— BUY YOUR TICKETS NOW.

Manager Paquet of the Auditorium has decided to donate the sale of one hundred tickets for this evening's performance of "The Million Dollar Doll" to the British Sailor's Relief Fund. The tickets are one dollar a piece and will be on sale at the offices of the "Chronicle" and "Daily Telegraph" this morning.

No doubt the hundred tickets will be bought up quickly and therefore those who intend going to the show and at the same time help to swell the fund for the Sailor Boys should order their seats early.

Mr. Paquet's offer is a most commendable one and needless to say will be thoroughly appreciated by all loyal citizens.

BOYS' ANNUAL Y.M.C.A. BANQUET

EVENT WAS DECIDED SUCCESS BOTH IN ATTENDANCE AND PROGRAMME.

The boys' annual banquet at the Y.M.C.A. last evening was a decided success, both from point of attendance and program. Mr. Tennant presided very accepthably, and Mr. Wiggs, Mr. Simpson and Mr. McKeracher each came in for a few remarks, both as regards the future of boys' work, and the winter's program this coming season. The program includes sliding, sleigh rides, stereopticon talks, suppers every week for the various groups, Bible classes, gymnasium classes, swimming, camp re-union of old campers, Hallowe'en party, and the conference for Boys' Workers at Ottawa, the first week in November.

Clarence Perry gave a reading which created vociferous applause. Mr. St. Dalmas at the piano truned out splendid music for the two choruses sung by the whole crowd.

The address of the evening was that given by the Rev. Mr. F. C. Elliott, of Toronto. It was a masterpiece, taking in all sides of a boy's nature and showing him how to develop into a four square man.

Clifford Kerr put in some good words for the Rovers Athletic Club, and District Scout Master L. C. Carrier, invited all the fellows for a fishing trip next week.

Leslie Burns moved that the Ladies' Committee in charge of the supper, be given a hearty vote of thanks for their labors in behalf of the boys. It was unanimously given. The boys purpose spending their time most of the following week, and next, in securing new members for the Boys' Department.

CITY ALDERMRN EVADE THE ISSUE

MESSRS. DUSSAULT AND FISET MAKE WEAK REPLY TO THE CHRONICLE ARTICLE.

In connection with the article appearing in yesterday's issue of The Chronicle replying to the resolution passed at the last meeting of the City Council, and censuring The Chronicle for a previous article in these columns in which it was suggested that the Roman Catholic Church should lend a little more help in the matter of recruiting, Ald. Dussault, of Belevedere Ward, at last night's meeting of the City Council, attempted to reply to the latter article.

Referring to The Chronicle's statement that other papers had published similar editorials without bringing a word of objection from the Council, Ald. Dussault contended that the Council had nothing to do with the papers referred to by The Chronicle, but considered that as The Chronicle was the official paper of the City, it consequently by publishing the article referred to left itself open to severe censure.

He quoted figures from the Militia Department to show that French-Canadians, who comprise one-third of the population of Canada, had furnished for overseas service the pro portion that they were expected to contribute.

From a newspaper of New Westminster, Ald. Dussault quoted the statement that out of the 33,000 forming the first contingent, 5,000 were French-Canadians, and that there are about 101,000 Canadian born men at the front now, thirty-five thousand of whom are French-Canadians.

The representative from Belvedere Ward went on to say that if the actual conditions that exist in some parts of the Dominion were taken into consideration the part that French-Canadians are playing in the conflict would be more appreciated.

He declared that competent French-Canadians had been refused commissions and concluded his harangue by stating that the French-Canadian population was tired of being insulted by the publication of such articles as the one complained of.

Ald. Fiset, the edile with pugilistic tendencies, was the only member of the Council to express himself on the subject last night. He concurred in what Ald. Dussault had said and intimated that it was useless to reply to the article appearing in Friday's issue of The Chronicle as little satisfaction could be expected.

PTE. A. W. WATTERS AGAIN WOUNDED

QUEBEC BOY AGAIN IN HOSPITAL THROUGH WOUNDS RECEIVED AT FRONT.

The many friends in this city of Private W. A. Watters, will regret to learn that his mother, Mrs. E. Watters, has been notified from Ottawa that he has been wounded in the legs by Shrapnel.

This is the second time that Pte. Watters, who is a member of the 4th Battalion, C.E.F., has been wounded the latter coming about the latter end of last July and caused him to remain in hospital for a period of five weeks, after which he returned to his regiment with which he remained until the 10th instant when he received the wound which has again necessitated his been sent to hospital.

The following is a copy of the telegram received by Mrs. Watters:

Young McNaughton had been through some of the severest battles of the war and it is sincerely hoped that his wounds will not prove to be of a serious nature.

THE FALL WEATHER HARD ON LITTLE ONES

Canadian fall weather is extremely hard on little ones. One day it is warm and bright and the next wet and cold. These sudden changes bring on colds, cramps and colic, and unless baby's little stomach is kept right the result may be serious. There is nothing to equal Baby's Own Tablets in keeping the little ones well They sweeten the stomach, regulate the bowels, break up colds and make baby thrive. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockvile, Ont.

FIRST IN 900 YEARS.

The Gullfoss, said to be the first Icelandic ship to visit the shores of the western hemisphere since the days of Leif the Lucky, tied up in New York Harbor recently with a cargo of herring. Aboard the Gullfoss, a little steamer of 886 tons, is a crew of Icelandic sailors, officered by Icelandic navigators, and speaking virtually the same language that Leif, son of Eric the Red, spoke when he landed at Cape Cod about the year 1000. The ship is in command of Captain Sigurdur Jjetursson, who Captain Sigurdur Pjetursson, who has come upon Iceland since the European war started.

Amazing high prices for the products of the island have brought prosperity in the last two years. The war created the first millionaires in Iceland, he declared, and also gave the island its first experience with labor troubles and other disorders of modern civilization. A strike of the fishermen's union on the island lasted throughout last summer, the captain said.

ALLEN-FIELDS
RED ALLEN WINS

DOPING OUT CHANCES OF LAVAL AND INDIANS FOR CITY CHAMPIONSHIP

Indians Have a Shade in Nearly Every Department But Battery Positions—Pepin's Hitting May Offset Wingo's Lead in Fielding—Crevier and Desjardins a Good Match—Game Scheduled for 2.30 Sunday—If Its Fine.

Everything is in readiness for the play-off for the local baseball title tomorrow on the Exhibition Grounds and it is now up to the weather man to serve up a satisfactory brand of sunshine in order that the affair will not have to be played off on snowshoes.

Both Laval and St. Romuald have numerous supporters and there is every reason to except that the game will be a cose one as despite the fact, that, the Indians with their complete line-up apparently outclass the Students on paper, there can be no doubt that Laval's playing this season has been so surprising that they can be counted upon to pull the unexpected. And they are by no means a weak team. They have shown fighting spirit and have fought every game out till the bitter end, their rallies against St. Patricks and Emmets proving that.

Pitchers Pretty Even.

Man for man, the Indians look the better aggregation. In the pitching department, however, Crevier of Laval is not inferior to Leo Desiardins. In fact in the matter of experience and use of gray matter we are inclined to give the shade to Camille whose work would be much more effective if he had a catcher of Wingo's ability to hold his slants. Both pitchers are amongst the best of the league and in case either cracks, Laval will be the best off for Masse looks better than any the Indians may have in reserve.

Wingo Better Catcher.

In the catching end, Wingo has a wide margin on Pepin in the fielding end. Pepin is inclined to be excitable and can be made throw the ball all around wildly if he is worked up properly. Wingo on the other hand is cool and his pegging is fast, accurate and timely. In hitting, however, Pepin almost evens up for his loss in fielding. Pepin has won many games for Laval by his ability to come across at the crucial moment while his base-running is also equally as good if not better than Wingo's. Wingo's hitting is not as consistent as Pepin's and the Laval catcher's margin in this respect is not to be scoffed at.

Regis Gets Shade.

At first base Regis outfields Gailloux but at bat both are somewhat similar in certain respects. Both have shown singular ability in drawing walks to first and when they do hit it is generally a wallop for extra sacks.

Pretty Even at Second.

N. Desjardins and Art. Racine are pretty evenly matched at second. Racine has played brilliantly all summer but the other boy is a sure fielder. It is about even up in the fielding and Desjardins' batting earns him the shade, though Racine's ability to get on must also be considered.

Emile Racine's Speed.

At third Emile Racine and big Canadian are about even Stephen every way. Racine is the fastest and a most accurate fielder and in this department outshines Canadian, who, however, is a pretty solid baseman. In batting Racine is weaker, though neither can be said to be a reliable hitter. In the last game against Laval, however, Canadian was a big factor and therefore his effectiveness against Crevier may give him the right to overshadow his rival with the stick in the crucial game.

Jocks and Hennessy.

At short Jocks looks to be the classiest performer to the casual observer but really in fielding he has nothing on Hennessy who has really played a fine game in the short field all summer. Jocks is not a natural shortstop but he is a good ground coverer and pegs accurately, his weakness being in fumbling ground balls. At bat both men are dangerous. Hennessy is the trickiest and is likely to lay down a bunt when a long distance clout is expected. On the other hand Jocks is a terrific hitter and if a pitcher grows careless with him he may break up a game at any time.

Indians Fine Outfield.

In the outfield the Indians look the classiest. Rogers is on top of Bastien, though the latter is a fast, clever fielder and at bat Rogers has a wide margin also. In fact Rogers is the pick of the Indians line-up and if he does not play, the Indians will resemble Detroit without Ty Cobb. Hebert is another first-class player who has it on Robitaille by a good margin, though the latter is a hard-working outfielder and a good batter. Either Fortier or Jackson in rightfield shape up better than Lachance as a fielder but so far as hitting is concerned the Laval boy should get the edge though he has not been holding up the reputation he established last year as a slugger. Then Laval have their "mascot" pinch-hitter Drolet. Drolet is a good fielder but unless he works the pitcher for a pass his usefulness on the offensive is neutralized.

That's the way the two teams look to us. Form your own opinion now and go to see the game tomorrow and probably you'll change your opinion afterwards. The contest is scheduled to start at 2.30 and will start unless George D. Acquin's prediction comes true.

THE HIGH COST OF PRO-HOCKEY

TORONTO AND OTTAWA PRESS ARE CONVINCED PLAYERS MUST ACCEPT REDUCTIONS.

The Montreal Daily Mail reproduces the following:—

Commenting yesterday on the Toronto despatch, stating that Eddie Livingstone had signed the majority of his Blue Shirts for this coming hockey season an officer of the Ottawa Hockey Club said:

"'Livvy' was quite right; salaries must be reduced. Why, in ordinary times, the crowd at last Saturday's football game would have been at least three thousand. As it was there were fewer than five hundred people present. This was an indication of what the hockey clubs may look for. There will certainly be a slump, not only in the general interest, but in the attendance. Even reduced prices would not overcome the handicap. Most of our patrons were young men. They paid the money and took their best girls along. Well, these are the boys who are 'somewhere in France.' Manager Dey is taking a big chance and it is to be hoped that the players prove reasonable in their dealings with him. Otherwise there will not be any professional hockey until the close of the war, for the agreement to resume was virtually a conditional one, and if the clubs find that things are not running well enough to meet expenses they will suspend after the first few games. It would be suicidal to think of attempting to pay the salaries which were handed out last year. They must be reduced by at least fifty per cent."—Ottawa Citizen.

"RED" ALLEN IS GREAT FINISHER

FIELDS MADE FOOL OF RED AT THE START BUT ALLEN'S SUPERIOR CONDITION WON

"Danny Fields" of New York, certainly showed the Quebec public that he is one of the cleverest welterweight boxers who has visited here and for four rounds before the Irish-Canadian Athletic Club at the Grande Allee Rink he made "Red" Allen look very foolish at times but Allen's superior condition told and Fields faded badly as the bout progressed, there being scarcely any doubt that Red earned a shade over his opponent by virtue of his fast, gritty aggressive fighting during the last few rounds when he peppered Fields hard without receiving anything worth while in return.

Had Fields kept up his effective work all the way, Red would have had little show as he could not penetrate the lanky boy's defence to any appreciable degree while he took a lot of punishment while trying, but Fields seemed slow on his feet, failed to pursue the advantages which he gained during the opening rounds and Allen's come-back started towards the close of the sixth round when he broke through Danny's stonewall defence and landed cleanly to the body and head.

In the seventh Allen had such a wide lead that even Peppy Fields' manager shouted "Well we have to give him one round anyway." But Red wasn't through, while Fields had apparently shown his best wares during the first five rounds. The eighth opened very fast and Allen, knowing that his opponent had piled up a lead during the early rounds pressed matters hard to lessen the advantage. He tore right into his man, ducked the long menacing left which had worked such havoc at the outset and his savage blows finally had their effect and Fields began to tire perseptibly. The ninth round was Allen's by a wide margin and Fields looked as if he was in for a knockout at one stage but he came out of it with a smile through his crimson-seared teeth. The tenth was not sensational, Danny having no spurt left, being content to endeavor to block the energetic attack of the irrepressible Red whose game finish earned him the unanimous approval of the crowd who had mentally pictured his defeat after his poor showing during the opening stanzas.

"Billy" Peppy, Field's manager kept up a running fire of sarcastic comment on the bout as it progressed and for a while he seemed to have "Red's" nanny. As in the case of the Rivet bout, Allen again proved that he fights better without the proverbial "goat" and when he lost it he found both Fields' and Peppey's, though both the latter were sporty enough to give Allen credit at the close of the bout.

Preliminaries Good.

The opening events on the card with one exception proved rattling bouts and were thoroughly enjoyed? "Kid" Palmer though showing more cleverness that Young Mack after outpointing his man during the first two rounds grew careless in the third and fourth and allowed his opponent by dint of gritty work and clean hitting to even up matters. Mack was disappointing during the opening rounds but he is a game fighter and if he had possessed as much knowledge of the game as the other boy might have done much damage. It was a good hard bout and Mack's finish enabled him to gain a draw.

White's Whirlwind Win.

Young Charlie White evidently has benefitted by the criticism of his wrestling tactics and last night he fought a boy much bigger than he is to a standstill. Kid Demers his opponent made a brave showing but against the whirlwind attack of the little Cap Blanc battler he was absolutely helpless and Referee Montminy stopped the fight towards the close of the sixth and last round to prevent him from taking further punishment though he was strong enough to finish out. White's gameness and his willingness to fight every inch of the way is commendable and if he continues to show the same stuff he will beat the best boys in his class. He is capable of taking any amount of punishment and he is also able to more than give it back. White did no wrestling last night any hugging being done by the other boy who was glad to hang on at times.

One Round Enough.

One round was enough for Kid Gagnon to prove his superiority over Lapointe and he floored his man for the count six seconds before the end of the first frame. Lapointe showed little knowledge of the game and never had a chance.

The bouts were well run off and Referee Montminy performed his task well. Romeo Lepine was announcer and Sam Murphy, as usual, handled the watch and gong.

Sporting Notes

No matter where Romeo Lepine is he never forgets baseball. Even when he is announcing boxing bouts he never omits his reference to a coming baseball encounter.

* * *

Tomorrow afternoon on the Exhibition Grounds, the Laval and St. Romuald teams will lock horns in the big struggle for the championship of the Quebec and District Baseball League, while St. Patricks, last year's champs look hopelessly at the fight for the Cups which they now hold.

* * *

The weather outlook, we must say, looks pretty moist.

* * *

Harolde Walsh is carrying this baseball business too far. We don't mind getting hit by a pitched ball by a real pitcher in a real ball game but at a boxing match we object. The next time Mr. Walsh seeks admission to the club we intend asking the management to have him searched for concealed weapons.

* * *

Yesterday's temperature was just right for baseball but Oh! those muddy grounds.

* * *

It will be probably the last chance we will have to see a play-off and if Sunday is fine desperate attempts should be made in the way of adopting expert measures to put the grounds in order for this game. Spare no expense the clubs are all rich.

* * *

The Montreal league teams have been obliged to put questions up to Tener and Johnson. The Stars evidently are on the right side of the argument and it looks like a play-off. Eddie Cline the Emmet slugger is a member of the Stars and is known as "Home Run" Cline on the Montreal circuit.

* * *

Leon St. Pierre the manager of the Laval team stated last night that he has unbounded confidence in his players. "I feel sure they will win if the game is played. We have fought hard for this chance and we feel that we cannot fail now that the opportunity is at hand. Now or never is our motto."

* * *

The name of Roach McNaughton, a brother of Geo. McNaughton, the Sons of Ireland Hockey player appears amongst the wounded on this morning's casualty list.

* * *

Tancrede Boucher has not committed himself on the question. The stolid leader of the Injuns keeps his own counsel and he is only sure of one thing and that is that his team will win.

* * *

Of course that wasn't committing himself very much.

* * *

The Ottawa and Toronto players are accepting cut prices for their services in N. H. A. hockey this year. There will be quite a number of the old faces missing and it may mean renewed interest in the professional game which received a bad wallop almost everywhere last year.

* * *

Harry Bowen will open the play-off game on Sunday by shouting in his own inimitable style that well-known phrase "Play Ball." And Harry generally keeps them playing once they've started?

* * *

The more we want to write about that game the more we are convinced that it is going to rain anyway and it is only waste of time and paper so we've decided to end right here.

FAKED VENTRILOQUISM.

The Deception Made Possible by the Loud Speaking Telephone.

A great deal of ventriloquism is not ventriloquism at all. In fact, the modern wonder in this line of pleasant and deceptive art need to have none of the old time ventriloquists' ability at all. He may—and often does—stand on the opposite side of the stage from his manikin and puff a cigar quite contentedly, to the amazement of the audience. The dummy answers with a ready line of repartee, delivered in stentorian tones. Nor is that all, for he turns and twists his head, waves his arms, kicks up his feet and otherwise acts in a very life-like manner.

The secret of the dummy's voice is the loud speaking telephone and of his actions various electro magnets. As may be guessed, both are operated by some one off the stage. In order to produce all the desired effects the dummy figure is fitted inside with a loud speaking telephone receiver, with the horn or large mouthpiece pointing toward the audience. The receiver is connected with a special transmitter in an anteroom some distance away. An ordinary operator's breast transmitter is also concealed in the body of the dummy, so that whatever is said by the ventriloquist on the stage is transmitted to the operator in the anteroom, enabling him to speak for the dummy at the proper time.—Argonaut.

Irate Father—it's astonishing, Richard, how much money you need. Son—I don't need it, father; it's the hotel keepers, the tailors and the taxicab men.

CLOSE FINISHES AT GRAND CIRCUIT

MABEL TRASK ADDS TO WINS OVER HARNESS RIVAL, ST. FRISCO.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 20.—Mabel Trask, owned and driven by Walter R. Cox, added to her wins over her harness rival, St. Frisco, when in straight heats in the Grand Circuit races today she won the Georgia Railway and Power Company Cup and the big end of a $2,500 purse. Her best time was 2:07 1-4 in the third heat.

The two favorites trotted consistently, St. Frisco with his owner, Geers, driving, finished each heat in second place, and in neither more than a neck behind. The race was for the 2:08 class trotting, with a field of five.

The Real Lady, driven by Murphy, and Mary Coburn were the only starters in the two year old class trotting event, and Mary Coburn won.

The 2:11 class pacing was won by Little Frank D., in straight heats.

Three heats of the 2:07 class trot were staged but at least one more will be necessary to decide teh event.

Lee Axworthy, the world's champion trotting stallion, with B. F. White at the reins, broke the Georgia Track record of 2:05. He reeled off the mile in 1:59 3-4.

Peter Mac piloted by M. McDevitt, trotted an exhibition mile in 2:04 1-2.

KING GOSSIP.

You've got to hand it to "Red" Allen. He looked like a rank outsider during the first three rounds but he finished like the Laval baseball team.

* * *

"Danny" Fields was evidently a little too soft. Those New York boxers need a little of Quebec's fresh air to harden them up in their training. Red is like a rock since he made his headquarters here.

* * *

"Billy" Peppey, Fields manager, had the crowd laughing during the opening rounds with his witty sayings. But "Red" certainly had the laugh towards the close when he had his boy pretty well all in.

* * *

The bout was not as fast as the Rivet-Allen clash.

* * *

Allen is satisfied that he will give Freddie Welsh a good go here on the 27th.

* * *

Young Charlie White fought one of the gamest and fastest battles we have yet seen. He has taken the tip about the wrestling and it has done him all the good in the world.

* * *

Young Mack was good in the exchanges with Palmer and he uncorked a dangerous right. But he will have to be more aggressive to succeed.

* * *

How'd you like Joe Montminy's new sweater. Joe looked as if he was off to play golf.

* * *

"Billy" Fields was pleased at Danny Fields' showing during the opening rounds. But he seemed rather disappointed at his namesake later on. What's in a name anyway.

* * *

Those doctors who said Quebec's water was bad would have been tickled to death to see the way Demers' seconds wasted it. Our confrere, Joe Bussieres, believes in preparedness and brought his rain coat this time.

* * *

Allen showed that he could fight an uphill battle and deserves much credit for his fine work last night.

For Fall Housecleaning

O-Cedar Polish is absolutely necessary if you want to get through your Fall Housecleaning work quickly and with best results. Your neighbor uses it and is enthusiastic about it. Ask her, and then buy a 25c. bottle of

O-Cedar Polish

(Made in Canada)

and try it yourself. Try it on some old piece of woodwork or furniture and watch the dirt and scum come off, the original beauty of the wood show up, and the high, hard, lasting O-Cedar lustre go on. Use it on all furniture, floors and woodwork—all woods and all finishes—painted, stained, varnished, fumed or enameled. If you are not delighted, your dealer will refund your money.

AUSTRALIAN BOXER DEFIES WORLD

LES DARCY WILLING TO MEET ANY BOXER IN RING.

On behalf of Les Darcy, the Australian middleweight, a challenge has been issued to the world for a match to take place in Sydney some time within three months.

Sid Baker, member of a Sydney firm, has guaranteed to back Darcy to the extent of a $5,000 side bet, while Snowy Baker—no relation, but well-known promoter—has expressed a willingness to put up a purse of $10,000 for such a bout and furnish two round-trip tickets from America.

While the challenge is in the nature of an open one, as would naturally be the case, Snowy Baker and the Australian fight experts agree there is but one man to whom such a challenge can mean anything. That fellow, of course, is Mike Gibbons, the St. Paul scrapper. He is the one boxer the Australians believe is entitled to a bout with Darcy.

"When I say I will furnish a purse of $10,000 for such a match," explained Baker, "it is with the understanding, naturally, that an opponent be selected who is considered a logical contender."

Gibbons will probably want more than a $10,000 purse, even if he agrees to take the long journey.

"Billy" Peppey praises Allen's work but states that Fields will show the Quebec fans something the next time he appears here. The long journey and rest-up took the springiness out of his boy he claims.

MAKING BILLIARD-BALLS.

The experience of the workers who turn ivory for billiard-balls has shown that as it dries ivory shrinks. The tusks of the cow elephant have been found best adapted to the making of billiard-balls. The tusk of the female is not so curved as that of the male, and the fine nerve passage is not so clearly seen. Billiard-balls are turned in the rough and kept in a warm room for a long time, sometimes as long as two years. Then after shrinking they are turned again.

TO RETAIN SCHOONER BURLEIGH.

The Government schooner Burleigh will remain for the present a Government schooner. She is a trim little vessel and in view of the shortage of tonnage on the Atlantic it was urged by marine interests in Halifax that the Naval Service Department should sell her. The department agreed and a number of bids were received, none of them corresponding with the value of the ship, and the tenders have been notified that there will be no sale

FATHER'S BABY, WILLIE'S LADY.

But my daughter's too young to marry, young man. She's just barely a miss."

"She may seem that way to you, sir, but she is a hit with me."

The Willys-Overland Limited are making repairs and preparing for extensions at their West Toronto Plant as rapidly as their immense volume of business will permit. At the present time their yard is torn up by changes that are being made in the general drainage of the plant. In order to take care of the present requirements as well as to anticipate future extensions and additions to the works a new 500 foot section of drain is being added to that already installed. This drain is of twelve inch vitrified tile and is laid twenty-four feet below the surface so that it will be at an ample depth to take car of the draining of the deepest cellars that may be excavated in the new addition.

In order not to hamper the operation of the plant while installing his drainage unit, it was necessary to tunnel beneath the railway sidings in the yard and also beneath one of the shops. The work was done with the assistance of elevators for hoisting the sand and clay and all the latest machinery for such work.

An elevator for hoisting automobiles to the second and third floor of one of the buildings is being built as an extension to the building. This will be of the latest steel construction with a platform nine feet wide by twenty feet long, requiring an elevator housing of considerable size. The elevator will have a carrying capacity of five thousand pounds and a lifting speed of ninety feet a minute.

The prosperity boom which has effected almost every industry during the past year has done more for the automobile industry, perhaps, than any other.

The phenominal rise in certain automobile stocks has been the talk of Wall Street, and with the number of cars in use constantly increasing, it is not surprising that the remand for competent chauffeurs is far ahead of the supply.

Commenting on the wages that the paid automobile driver receives, "Motor Print", a magazine devoted to automobiling, says in part, "A good chauffeur gets on the average $120 a month for his work. There are men who get as low as $15. or $18 a week, and others who are paid anywhere from $40 to $50 a week, but the average wage in cities is nearer $30 a week."

While city boys have been quick to see and grasp this opportunity, it is regrettable that young men from the country have not responded also, from the automobile owners' standpoint. What the automobile owner is demanding more and more is "character" in his chauffeur. It is not enough now to be "just a good driver".

"Some of the best chauffeurs we have are recruited from the smaller towns," said Allen Grant, a mechanical engineer of Tarrytown, N. Y., formerly of the testing and experimental departments of the Maxwell-Briscoe Motor Company.

Automobile owners are learning that such young men make better drivers than the usual "hangers on" around some garage or repair shop.

During a tour of the Western States, Mr. Grant was so impressed with the opportunities afforded to young men that he prepared, for free distribution, a leaflet describing how any ambitious man can enter the automobile business By addressing him at Tarrytown, N.Y., a copy can be had for the asking.

It is only as far back as 1894 that Elwood Haines drove the first "norseless carriage" down the streets of Hokomo, Ind., and it was not until 1900 that the automobile business was fairly launched.

What other industry can boast of such a phenominal growth in sixteen short years?

No one thing has been such a factor in popularizing the Automobile as newspaper advertising. It has been the one great force that has made of the automobile business what it is today. It has spread the story of the automobile to the most remote corner. From an unknown factor of a few years back, advertising has proved to the farmer that he can't afford to be without one. It has shown the tired business man that his car is a pleasant bridge between home and office, and the doctor's "buggy" is now almost a curiosity.

Where Europe numbers the output of its automobile factories by hundreds, we count them by tens of thousands. Newspaper advertising has made this possible, and the entire country has benefited. Good roads and fine Inns have followed the auto. The great Lincoln Highway, now under construction, is perhaps the greatest testimonal of what the motor car has done for this country. It is only a matter of time when we will have a splendid highway linking Maine and California, with thousands of cars making the trip each month.

The adoption of the automobile for business purposes opens new fields for young men. Even the truck driver of today must keep up with the times, because the sturdy horse is fast giving way to the motor, and his driver must hustle for some knowledge of automobiles if he would keep his job.

H. A. Grant of Tarrytown, N.Y., formerly of the Maxwell-Briscoe Motor Company, believes that the great future of the automobile business is in the commercial car, and that young men would do well to enter this part of the industry while it is yet new and uncrowded. Mr. Grant is a mechanical engineer of long experience in automobile work, and has written a leaflet which he will forward to any young men wishing to take up this new work, or to qualitfy as a chauffeur.

HINDENBURG MAY RETIRE TO RHINE.

There has been a good deal of discussion as to von Hindenburg's new strategic plans. It is said he attaches for the present more importance to the eastern than to the western front, and that he is even prepared to retire to the Rhine, if necessary, rather than permit a farther Russian advance and defeat in the Balkans, which would mean the loss to the German alliance of Bulgaria and Turkey. Thes may or may not be true, but so far as the Russian front is concerned the exact nature of von Hindenburg's plan can only be gradually pieced together from those new facts in the disposition of the armies of the Central Powers which have now begun to emerge with greater distinctness. It is obvious von Hindenburg is making an intense and deliberate effort to stay Brusiloff's advance. His new power enables him to take direct advantage of his own personal and intimate experience of the Russian front, and his strong hand is seen in the measures now being taken to brace up the tottering Austrian army.

Generally speaking, these measures mean the final destruction of Austrian military independence, and consist in forcible injection into the Austrian organization of German methods and staying powers. This operation is being carried out mercilessly. Captive Austrian officers say their people writhe under it, but the military effect certainly is to increase Brusiloff's temporary difficulties, though the net results for the Central Powers will simply be to prolong the agony without any prospect of averting final defeat. German reinforcements have been brought up in part apparently from the western front to the number, it is sometimes said, of twenty divisions. They have been distributed with great discrimination along the whole of the front, which has been extended and made more menacing by the entry of Roumania. Fortifications have been strengthener at points chiefly threatened, and here and there where the available number of sternly drilled German soldiers was insufficient to stop the gap they were supplemented by brave, docile Turks.

When the Russian storm approached the Carpathians the enemy hastily reorganized his defences amid the threatening heights and defiles of the mountain barrier. After two months of the Russian advance had shown the multifarious possibilities of Brusiloff's strategy, the German generals made herculean efforts to discount beforehand the fertility of Russian invention, and above all to prevent any further possibility of those fatal outflanking movements. All this meant the hardening of the front against Brusiloff's armies, and consequently delay in their advance.

The Germans made incessant counter-attacks in force, particularly in the Vladimir-Volynski direction and at Halicz, and with the greatest energy in the region west of Luczk. These attacks were repulsed, and today I have news of an Austrian counter-attack on the Upper Sereth, near Zloczov, south-east of Lemberg, which resulted in a Russian regiment piercing the enemy's line, capturing a village, and taking 1,500 prisoners. The only part of the front making steady progress is in the wooded Carpathians, where General Letchizky's troops are engaged in the laborious process of dislodging the enemy from one height after another. That process is complicated by the fact that snow has begun to fall in the mountains.

Meanwhile Brusiloff's stubborn onset prevents the detachment of a large number of enemy troops to the Roumanian front, and immensely strengthens the hands of our allies in Dobrudja and Transylvania. The important announcement is made that Minister of Ways and Communications Trpoff is shortly to arrive on a visit to the Murman coast or the Kola region of the Arctic Ocean, northwest of Archangel, and will be accompanied not only by a large staff of officers, but by M. Shingareff and M. Dobrovolsky, members of the Duma. It is stated this visit is to be of a final and decisive character.

Your HUDSON SUPER-SIX Will Advance $250.00

You who now own a Super-Six will gain in the increase—no change in models

Your Super-Six will be worth more next year. And those who buy then must pay $250.00 more. When cars under way are completed, we must add to the price the added cost of materials. Price advances December 1st.

This is another unexpected attraction in the Hudson Super-Six.

The usual car, the first season, depreciates some 30 per cent. In addition to that, on later models makers often reduced the price. So the one-year drop in value averaged 40 per cent or more.

The Super Six motor—almost without friction—hardly depreciates at all. And that's the chief part of a car.

The Super-Six price will advance with materials, for we never shall lessen our standards. So December 1st, when materials on hand are exhausted, the price will advance $250. And you who own the Super-Six will share that added value

NO PRETENSIONS

That very announcement will reveal the strength of the Hudson position. Most weaker cars, we believe, will not dare to advance. Some way will be found to avoid it.

But the Hudson Company, on its Super-Six, will never make pretensions.

Hudson profits, considering our size and output, are very small indeed. They have always been so, and all insiders know it. Our very balance-sheet proves that our margins are minimum.

On December 1st, we start using materials bought under this year's contracts. Prices on all of them have advanced enormously.

On a Hudson-grade car makers can lessen the quality without making the difference apparent at once. But that woul be treason to Hudson standards.

NO ADVANCE ON SOLD CARS.

You who have already ordered—either open or enclosed Super-Sixes—will get delivery at the price agreed—up to December 1st.

And many Hudson dealers, probably, have some cars yet to sell of our present production. We have 3,500 cars under way, all of which will be sold at present prices.

If you can get one, get it. Buying now will save you $250.00. And the present model will not be changed, unless in some minor refinements.

ANOTHER WORLD RECORD.

The Super-Six, as you know, now holds all worthwhile records. We made these tests to prove stability and endurance. It was to show that the Super-Six would meet any road burden regardless of its severity, without failure. And in no test entered has it failed to beat every previous record. These include all the world's stock touring car records up to 100 miles. They include the 24-hour record of 1,819 miles, where we broke the stock car record by 52 per cent.

They include the Pike's Peak hill-clim—the world's greatest event of its kind. The Super-Six won over 20 competitors.

Now we add the ocean-to-ocean record—from San Francisco to New York. The most sought-for record in America. That trip was made by a Super-Six in 5 days, 3 hours and 31 minutes—beating the record by 15 hours.

And that same car turned around at New York and went back to San Francisco in faster time than any other car ever made the ocean-to-ocean trip. It was the first car ever to make a round trip across the continent against time . The time for the round trip was 10 days, 21 hours, 3 minutes. That was only 2½ days longer than the best one-way time made by a famous eight.

So the Hudson Super-Six today stands supreme. And there is no probability that a rival can match it, because we own the patents that make such endurance posible.

These are all-important facts.

ESCAPES FROM GERMAN PRISONS.

One of the three Canadian soldiers who are reported as having escaped from German war prisons is a well-known Torontonian and another son of a prominent citizen of Port Arthur. It was a happy day for Mrs. Edward Edwards of 70 Standish avenue when she heard that her husband, Lance-Corporal Edwards, had thus secured his freedom "I cannot believe it until I hear from him," she said, "but I do hope it is true. I am glad I never told him not to go. He is a soldier to the backbone." Edwards was formerly in the Gordon Highlanders, was through the South African war and was employed by the Consumers' Gas Co.

A special despatch from Port Arthur says: Private Gerry Burke, whom the Canadian Pay and Record Office reports as having escaped from a German prison camp to Holland and then gone to England, is the son of D. F. Burke, of Port Arthur. Gerry Burke has a brother Thomas, who is also a prisoner in Germany. His mother is in England, having gone a year ago to be with her daughter, Mrs. Simons, whose husband is a civilian prisoner in Berlin. Burke was at St. Andrew's College, Toronto, in 1906 and 1907.

Maxwell $850 F.O.B. WINDSOR

The Maxwell is Built for Canadian Roads

You may have an idea that perhaps the road conditions which your car must face are more trying than in other sections of the country.

But the fact is that the Maxwell is built especially for your roads—no matter how bad they may be. Before even a single car is passed out by our shops it must stand tests that are many times more stringent than any difficulties you will encounter in your vicinity.

Our tests for reliability and general serviceability are much more efficient than any road test could possibly be. We know—that word is used literally—actually know what the Maxwell is going to do before it leaves our shops.

If you could see the large number of drop forgings, the splendid method of heat treating steels, and other features of construction that enter into the building of the Maxwell you would not have any fear regarding its sturdiness.

You may have hills. We know that the Maxwell will climb any hill you may have occasion to go over. You may have mud. The Maxwell is built to stand any possible strain it could be asked to stand in legitimate driving.

The Maxwell is built WITHOUT GUESSWORK—TO SUIT ALL ROADS—to suit your roads. In every part of the world it is giving perfect satisfaction.

EMPIRE TRADE AFTER THE WAR.

A great deal is being said (and written about inter-imperial trade after the war and the need as far as possible to create within the Empire a supply of all the products, manufactures and arts that a perfectly self contained country can require.

One imperial parliament, fiscal union tariff reform and a dozen other things more or less useful have been broached. In one thing however, all the empire builders seem to have a failing in common—they do not recognize the fact that uniformity is not unity, that instead, if pushed to the extreme, it may produce disruption.

An inter-imperial parliament in which every unit should have equal representation may some day be necessary. At present the needs of the several units are to diversified and too local to excite a common desire strong enough to induce common action. Interests vital, real or imaginary, to one unit may not be of sufficient importance to induce any interest or consideration by the others and would therefore be thrust aside as of no moment. Ane One inter-imperial parliament can serve no useful purpose till the needs shall become more generally the same—and then it can only be of service on those things in which all have a continous common interest.

Tariff reform may be a good thing for both Australia and the Cape—but the change would not be necessarily on the same lines—and both might be widely different to that necessary in New Zealand or Canada. To be of any benefit it must be on the goods each desire to exchange So Autsralia and the West Indies would require a set of changes different from those required for the Cape and Canada.

If the various units are to be brought more closely together and mutual interchange of commodities facilitated and cheapened, tariff reform and commercial treaties must be left to the units, each free to do what is good in its own eyes, save only in this one respect as far as possible, other things being equal, there should always be a preference in favor of the Empire. Anything beyond this would be productive of mischief

Preference, however, is wider than the tariff and may be given in many ways more valuable than by a rebate on the custom duties A bonus to shipping, a postal service, a diverting of a line of communification from a foreign port so as to put a dominion or a crown colony in a more favorable position may all or each be of greater advantage than a rebate or tariff change The thing to be done is to make arrangements and conditions such as to bring about a greater community of intterest irrespective of the method Each unit must be free to adopt its own method, to adopt or refuse that of the others. Each pair of units must be free to adjust its own relations—Australia with the Cape, the Cape with Canada—careless as to whether the two agreements or preferences be alike or not, provided that each agreement is of benefit to both in the way that each finds most useful to itself.

For the United Kingdom probably free trade, with or without duties against the foreigner, will be found more beneficial to the Empire than any changes in the tariff. She can give a preference in many ways—more beneficial and of equal advantage to all the other units—such as omitting the income tax on all profits derived from investments "over-the-seas," by imposing a tax on foreign investment, but not on those within the Empire, by limiting subsidies to cables, wireless and shipping to points within the Empire, and, better still, by cheapening inter-imperial communications and arranging them in such a way that if either be broken anywhere every unit shall suffer loss in convenience and in pocket.

To this end we would suggest that the postal and cable services—the trunk lines of all railway and terminal ocean docks should be held in common by the whole, the cost met by the whole on the credit of the whole, and the charges thereon limited to the maintenance, insurance and sinking fund.

The operation of the works might be done by the various units where they occur or might be left to the individuals and corporations now working them and such others as may be needed but always on leases controlled by the states.

Every one engaged in all works involved should be trained as experts each in its own line, as soldier, enginer, sailor or otherwise, and at all times be in a fit state, as a reserve, for active service in defence of the Empire. The equipment and cost of this training to be borne pro-rata by the various units.

Communicatoin and transportation being thus fred from the burden of the cost of construction would be so cheapened as to attract all Britinsh trade over the all-British routes, cheaper production and the cost of goods, quicken investment and do more to develop the resources of the changes of any kind could possibly Empire and make it self-contained than any direct bonusing or tariff do. And, being owned equally by every unit in the Empire, every part thereof from the smallest to the greatest would be united in a common bond which would form a working basis for other mutual relations.

Further, the great improvements and cheapening of the cost in transportation over the Empire routes would draw the trade of the foreigner over the same routes and indirectly compel him to help in paying the cost of developing and defending the Empire and be personally interested in its maintenance.

COL. CRAIG, M.P. AND FIGHTER.

Irishman is a Veteran of the South African War.

There is a story going the rounds in certain British political circles to the effect that during the Home Rule crisis, when Sir Edward Carson and Lieut. Col. J. Craig, member for the Eastern division of Co. Down, were prominent figures in Irish affairs, a certain Londoner said to an Irishman:

"Craig! Whose Graig, anyway? Never 'eard of 'im before. I suppose he's one of them ornamented soldiers who waves a sword when there ain't going to be any fightin'."

"Let me tell you this," he said, shaking his finger under the nose of the Londoner. "Captain Graig's the very divil when it comes to a fight—the very divil, sir."

The Irishman's tribute to his fighting qualities was well deserved. Lieut.-Colonel Craig like his brother, Captain Charles Craig, the member for South Antrim, who has just been wounded and taken prisoner in the fighting on the French front, is a fighter—"a last ditcher, and a blood-and-thunder resister," as someone once described him. He is no carpet soldier. He was in business as a stock broker in Belfast when the South African war broke out. He at once volunteered for the front, accepting a commission in the North of Ireland Imperial Yeomanry, and figured in some of the hard fighting on the vedlt, for which he received two medals and five clasps.

Lieut.-Colonel Craig is a most racy and popular raconteur, and it was during his military career that he collected a wonderful stock of stories with which he is wont to regale his personal friends.

A practical agriculturist and successful stock raiser, the member for Down, which he has represented since 1906, has always displayed the greatest interest in politics. A strong debater, he quickly became a leader in the agitation against Home Rule, his vigorous speeches arousing the greatest enthusiasm among his supporters.

A NEW WAY TO KILL RATS.

A new way to kill the rats which infest the trenches is reported by a South African officer writing from France. He says: "We found one of our men putting a bit of cheese on his bayonet and firing a rifle every time a rat started to eat it."

CREAM FOR CATARRH OPENS UP NOSTRILS

Tells How To Get Quick Relief from Head-Colds. It's Splendid!

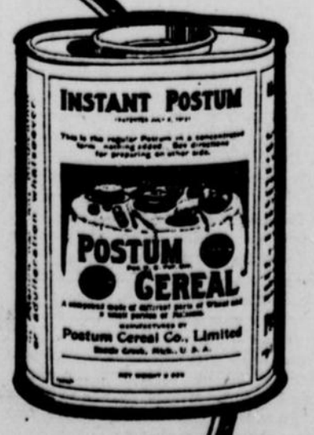

In one minute your clogged nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, blowing, headache, dryness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or catarrh will be gone.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swoollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly.

It's just fine. Don't stay stuffed-up with a cold or nasty catarrh—Relief comes so quickly.

How to Easily Shed That Bad Complexion

We cannot restore degenerated facial tissue any more than we can restore a lost limb. It is useless to attempt to convert a worn-out complexion into a new one. The rational procedure is to remove the complexion instead—remove the devitalised cuticle. Not by surgical means, however, as the underlying cutis is too thin, too tender, to withstand immediate exposure. Applying ordinary mercolized wax will gradually absorb the offending cuticle. By degrees, a new, youthful skin appears; soft and delicately tinted as a rose petal.

No lady need hesitate to try this. Procure an ounce of mercolized wax of the druggist. Spread on a thin layer before retiring, removing this in the morning with soap and water. In ten days to two weeks the complexion is completely transformed.

An approved treatment for wrinkles is provided by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint of witch hazel. Bathing the face in the solution brings prompt and remarkable results.—Popular Medicine.

PORT ARTHUR HAS GREAT FUTURE

RANKS HIGH AS A SHIPPING CENTRE AND AS HUB OF RICH MINING AREA.

Compared to the actual business transacted in visible and tangible wealth, the land along the front of Port Arthur is perhaps more valuable than any other land in Canada. To get an idea of the value of such land based on the handling of commodities in cash value, one might take for a parallel the amount of business transacted in the New York Stock Exchange. But the wealth that changes hands on Wall Street is often very largely in the imagination. The business done in a year along the waterfront of Port Arthur is a colossal aggregate cash value represented by hundreds of millions of dollars in the great staples of existence, wheat, oats, and barley.

Taking the length of the modern lake freighter for a gauge: in three boats' lengths of Port Arthur's waterfront all the coal imports of the Twin Ports could be handled, with storage for over 3,000,000 tons; in seven boats' lengths all the grain exported from the Twin Ports of Port Arthur and Fort Willian for crop year of 1915, approximately 350,000,000 bushels, could be handled, with storage space for at least 100,000,000 bushels possible; and in three boats' lengths all the package freight and all the rails imported could be handled, with a total space of at least fifty vessels, each vessel having individual dock room. Thus, what is possible on a mile and a half of lake front would take at least six miles of river frontage, just placing the vessels stem to stern.

Port Arthur has an industrial area of 1,300 acres through which pass three transcontinental railways of Canada, making possible to industrial enterprises there the direct access of these railways to their sites.

The pulp-wood areas adjacent to and tributary to Port Arthur are immense, and are computed by competent authorities to contain at least 20,000,000 cords. At present there is more than one corporation developing plans for the erection of pulp and paper mills at Port Arthur, for this city has all the requisites, besides the raw material, for the successful development of this class of industry—splendid dock sites, electric power, cheap transportation by water, excellent rail connections, and unlimited quantities of clear, uncolored and unmineralized waters.

But it is the mineral deposits that lie in close proximity to Port Arthur that give the greatest promise in their development, and which will be of the greatest benefit in developing one of the largest industrial centres in Canada at the head of the 1,200-mile stretch of her magnificent deep waterways.

In dealing with the mineral prospects of the territory adjacent to Port Arthur, it might be just as well to treat of the mineral resources of the entire district of Northern Ontario, in order to show the tremendous mining possibilities of that section of Canada of which Port Arthur is part, for in that section of Ontario there are more attractive mineral districts, rich in either gold, silver, nickel, copper, iron, iron pyrites, than in any other province or state in North America. Northern Ontario, including the district of Patricia, has an area of over 330,000 square miles, of which over 250,000 square miles are, from a geological point of view, more or less favorable for occurrence of mineral deposits.

In the mining of gold, silver, copper, nickel, and iron ore. Northern Ontario, in 1914, produced 45 per cent. of the total output of all Canada. Northern Ontario possesses at Sudbury the greatest nickel deposits in the world, which are producing in 1916 at the rate of $48,000,000 worth per year. The silver mines of Northern Ontario have paid out in dividends over $66,000,000, and this province now possesses the richest silver camp in the world.

About 120 miles east of Port Arthus, in the vicinity of Schriber, a range of pyrrhotite contains more or less nickel, while in the new gold district at Kow Kash, which is about 120 miles north-east of Port Arthur, very heavy deposits of pyrrhotite were discovered some years ago, and the assays obtained showed that some of the samples ran high in nickel.

Many years ago a number of gold mines were slightly developed in the various gold districts west of Port Arthur, and it is believed that some of these mines can now be operated at a profit. In the Sturgeon Lake district, about 180 miles northwest of Port Arthur, on the National Transcontinental Railway, large sums of money are being spent in thoroughly developing the St. Anthony gold mine. Last fall some 600 claims were staked out in the Kow Kash and Tashota districts. Tashota is immediately west of Kow Kash. It is said by explorers that from the Sturgeon Lake region north through Savant Lake to Lake St. Joseph in the Albany River, there are exceptionally attractive gold districts, as more or less gold can be panned out of the sand on the shores of the lakes and rivers. It is claimed that while there is not much visible gold in the quartz in these new districts, yet most of the veins appear to be consistent and strong, and that the assays of gold frequently are surprisingly high. Considerable development work will be carried on this year in the Kow Kash and Tashota districts.

Many years ago the silver mines of Port Arthur district produced millions of dollars' worth of silver, and with the present high price, cheap railway transportation, and the hydro electrical power in this district, it is probable that a number of the silver prospects would justify careful investigation. About 200 miles east of Port Arthur, on the new Canadian Northern transcontinental line, a short distance east of Long Lake, a very promising silver district with geological formation similar to the Cobalt and Thunder Bay districts has been discovered.

But it is the iron resources of the district surrounding Port Arthur that will give the greatest results in developing. Competent authorities claim that the exploration work carried on in the Atikokan district, west of Port Arthur, and also in the Michipicoten and Moose Mountains districts, have proven that there are over 175,000,000 tons of iron ore in these districts, and most of the ore a short distance from the lake ports. There are promising iron ranges at Steep Rock, Loon Lake, and Nipigon, short distances east and west of Port Arthur. At Loon Lake there is said to be proven up a very large tonnage of hematite ore. Competent experts consider the iron ranges at Nipigon and Steep Rock very favorable for the location of hematite ore.

There is every reason to believe, also, that the district has non-metallic products of great commercial value. Very pure sand-stones occur in abundance, such as might be used for the manufacture of glass silica, brick, etc. Barytes also occur in large quantities, that could be used in the manufacture of glass, paints, and chemicals. Large beds of shale underlie Thunder Cape, unexcelled for the manufacture of brick; while a great part, or practically all, the clays have never been tested for common brick. The dolomites in the vicinity of Thunder Cape and probably those at Nipigon contain a high percentage of potash, that valuable salt that is in such demand at present, and might well be used as a source of this material.

Is it Fair?

BELGIUM entered this war because she would not sell her honor to an overwhelmingly powerful neighbor. Britain and Canada took up arms in defense of treaty obligations and simple justice. The Belgian motive is as noble and unselfish as our own.

Belgian troops are holding the line side by side with our own gallant lads, braving equal dangers—bearing equal hardships—straffing the common enemy.

But there the equality ends! We non-combatant Canadians are living in a land of plenty—well-fed, lacking no necessity, and indulging in many luxuries.

The Belgian mothers and children in millions are eking out a pitiable existence on the daily ration of three slices of bread and a pint of soup supplied by the Belgian Relief Commission.

Is it fair?

Are we justified, before the bar of common humanity, in callously feasting ourselves while they endure near-starvation?

What have YOU done to relieve them?

$2.50 will feed a Belgian family a month! The average Canadian family would scarcely miss this sum. You yourself could probably spare several times this much monthly—feed several Belgian families—and be none the worse off!

HAD TO KILL MAN OR DIE HIMSELF

SAYS HE WAS SLASHED WHEN HE SHOWED SIGNS OF FALTERING.

New York, Oct. 20.—How a young man, the "tool" in a political assassination in the Second Asesmbly district, was lured by money and promises into agreement to commit the crime, and, wher he grew faint hearted at the thought of murder of a man he did not know and sought to escape the toils was forced by threats of death to kill was told recently in the Supreme Court.

It was at the trial of Michel F. Rofrano, formerly deputy Street Cleaning Commission, for instigating the murder of "Mike" Gaimari, the lieutenant of Thomas Foley, "Tommy" Montimagno, the slayer, told his story of the alleged conspiracy. It was retailed in such simple and direct language, though interpreted into English, which the witness does not speak, that the court room was absolutely quiet and the jurors leaned forward in their chairs not to lose a word of the tragic tale.

Montimagno had never before been on the stand in court. Yet he was never at a loss for words in which to impress the jury with the ordeal to which he had been subjected for weeks. As he drew to the close of his direct testimony, with the details of the day of the crime when he performed his promised part and killed Gaiamri, for which a dress rehearsal had provided the scheme, while two of the conspirators stood near enough to shoot him if he faltered, he kept his eye directed upon Rofrano, whom he declared had forced him into the crime.

A Specially Prepared Coat.

As he told it, not a thing was left to chance. He had been rehearsed with the revolver and with a coat, a pocket of which had a hole in it, through which he could hold the revolver and then fire by simply lifting the skirt of the garment. The spot for the killing had been studied and selected and his method of "getaway" determined upon. The sordid story of murder took on new meaning as it was unfolded in his clear words.

The witness is sallow faced and undersized, but his eyes glistened with earnestness at points in his story, and he squirmed in his chair and waved his hands with expressive gestures while rattling off his Sicilian dialect.

If Rofrano, who appeared in the strange tale as the arch conspirator, was disturbed by Montimagno's testimony, he showed it only by a very diligent taking of notes for his counsel, Martin W. Littleton. He kept one eye, however, on the witness most of the day, and was an eager listener. George N. Brothers, Assistant District Attorney, conducted the direct examination.

Montimagno told of being posted at the proper spot for the murder on a certain night, when all the conspirators came over from Brooklyn.

"But there was no chance that night," he said. "Some one was with him when the 'horse' came out of his club."

Taught to Smoke Opium.

The same men, he said, made more than a dozen trips to this side of the river, sometimes twice a day, with Montimagno finding some excuse for not firing the fatal shot, until a final conference with Rofrano was held in "Joe" Brundini's house.

"Rofrano said to me," he testified, "'Tommy,' for several days now you've following him and you don't do the job. When you see him shoot him: I'll see you through; leave it to me. Do what I tell you and think of nothing.'"

Then, in the week of March 8, when the victim was shot, it developed "Rox" Cornell and "Chock" had taught Montimagno to smoke opium in a Chinatown resort and he said he had smoked the drug the night before the crime.

"The next morning," he testified, "I heard a whistle. I got up and brushed my teeth and dressed. Outside was 'Joe' and John Brundini, and 'Rox.' We stopped in a saloon and 'Rox' telephoned to the boss. We came to New York and under the bridge I saw Rofrano and Fennimore. Rofrano said, 'Now, Tommy, it's a week and a half you've been fooling us. You have not done the work. Many times John has given the signal and you haven't shot.'"

"I said, 'Many times policemen are there and I'm afraid.'

"He said, "You know if there is danger I would not do it.' Then he said, 'You know, 'Tommy', when a man is taken into a confidence like this and then he refuses he shall die.'

"I said, 'I haven't the courage to kill a man.'

"Rofrano said, 'If you do not commit the murder this morning you will die today.'

"Then "Rox' took out a razor from his pocket and said to me, 'Now, I'll slash your face.' I turned my head in time and the razor cut my coat."

"So I Went," He Says.

He was wearing the prepared "murder coat" at the time. With the cut plainly showing on the right shoulder, it was examined by the jurors.

"Frank Fennimore," he testified, "interfered and said, 'Don't do that; he'll go.'

"'Rox' said, 'He's got to go or he'll be killed.'"

Then Montimore said, simply "So I went."

After walking to Madison street Rofrano left them, saying to the slayer, "Go ahead, do a good job. If you don't kill the man you are after some one will kill you."

The crime was committed in a short time. John Brundini was posted to give the signal by removing his hat. "Chock," thirty feet away, was ready to kill Montimagno if he failed in his work. Gaimari came from his home, passed the slayer and was shot. A crowd gathered so quickly that the slayer was cornered in the saloon into which he dodged, according to the dress rehearsal, to drop his revolver and leave the coat. His trial and conviction followed. As he finished telling of these details the direct examination ended.

At the close of court, after a cross-examination of two hours, Montibagno's story had not been shaken.

NOT A PARTICLE OF DANDRUFF OR A FALLING HAIR

SAVE YOUR HAIR! DOUBLE ITS BEAUTY IN JUST A FEW MOMENTS.

25-cent "Danderine" makes hair thick, glossy, wavy and beautiful.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.

The kilt is a style of dress that is immensely old. The soldiers of Assyrian kings are said to have worn a sort of kilt, while the mountaineers of the Balkans regard it as indispesable. It seems to have been worn in Scotland from prehistoric times, and, according to some authorities, was at one time only the plaid worn across the shoulders. In cold weather part of it was twisted round the waist. Kilted regiments are comparatively modern, as the first Highland troops, the Black Watch, were recruited in 1725, and were called by their own historic name owing to the sombre color of their tartans—black, blue, and green. When they were originally raised each company wore the tartan of its commanding officer, and when banded together in one regiment a special one was designed to prevent jealousy. The Seaforths wear the Mackenzie tartan, the Argyll and Sutherland the Campbell, and the Gordons and Camerons tartan known by the names of those clans.

ALSACE-LORRAINE HATES GERMANY

HUNS FROM TIME TO TIME DENY THERE IS ANY TROUBLE WITH SUBJECTS.

Through her agents in the United States and other neutral countries, Germany denies from time to time that there is any Alsace-Lorraine problem, and insists that the German subjects in these provinces are well content with their present condition. France, they say, in endeavoring to free the people, is undertaking a thankles task. These assertions are put forward in advance with a view of influencing neutral opinion when the new frontiers are established after the war. Germany is particularly anxious that she shall not be deprived of Alsace-Lorraine, and some of her more subtle publicists are suggesting that if France should insist upon seizing the territory in question she would be sowing the seeds of future war, and in the meantime would have to contend with the hostility of the Alsatians themselves. A favorite German argument relies on the fact that for many years the province has been electing German candidates to the Reichstag. An explanation of this is given by Jonas Lippmann, formerly of the Journal d'Alsace, who reviews some phases of his country's history in the New York Times.

A Love For France.

As is the case with many states, provinces or districts bordering on great nations, the popualtion of Alsace is a mixed one; it has both French and German elements. It became a part of the French Empire under Louis XIV., and remained French for more than 200 years, or until the reign of Napoleon III. In all those years the people of Alsace-Lorraine were very generously treated. They had all the prerogatives of other French subjects and some special rights. For instance, both the French and the German languages were officially recognized, the object of the benevolent French Governments being to assist the Alsatians to carry on trade across the Rhine. It is no wonder therefore that Alsatians as a whole became thoroughly French in sentiment in the course of time, and were proud of their citizenship. This was the situation until the War of 1870, when the provinces were seized by Germany.

The German Tyranny.

At once another regime was inaugurated. By a stroke of the pen the French language was abolished. French inscriptions on tombstones, even, were forbidden. Merchants were obliged to keep their accounts in German. There was naturally a great exodus from Alsace on the part of those who could afford to get away. Their places in the community were filled by German immigrants, many of them were adventurers, who were appointed to office by the German Government. In the course of time two political parties were formed in Alsace, the "protestaires," who refused to accept the clause in the Treaty of Frankfort which tore them from France; and the "antonomists," who accepted the fact but insisted upon a purely Alsatian Administration. The protestaires were greatly in the majority, and elected practically all the members of the Reichstag from Alsace. With such success German repressive measures increased, it being the Bismarck policy to intimidate the Alsatians and prove to them that by electing protestaires they were making their lot even harder.

The Religious Wedge.

The policy of political "frightfulness" was a failure, and eventually Bismarck abandoned it. Instead, he secretly encouraged the Socialist movement in Alsace which had developed as a result of the German immigration, and presently had a considerable anti-clerical party in the field. Now Alsace at that time had about 850,000 Roman Catholics and 350,000 Protestants. The Socialists by assailing the Catholic party eventually succeeded in dividing Alsace upon religious lines. After that is was a simple matter for the Germans to elect their own members to the Reichstag, and since then Germany has been able to point to the fact as an evidence of the general approval which Alsace gives to the German Imperial policy. The same game, it is worth noting, has been tried by von Bissing in Belgium, where he has sought to divide the Belgians into Flemings and Walloons, but without success.

Want Restoration to France.

Mr. Lipmann says that the intense desire of the people of Alsace-Lorraine is to be reunited with France; but if for any reason this should not be possible, they pray that they may be set up as an independent Government. They revolt at the idea of being perpetually chained to Germany. He concludes:

"Alsatians are republicans and independent. They loce their customs as much as their country. They are jealous of their rights. Both General Joffre and President Poincare had that in mind when, speaking in the new French Alsatian city of Thann in August, 1914, and February, 1915, they solemnly said: 'France is happy to open her arms to you, dear Alsatians, who have been so long and so cruelly separated from her. She will respect your traditions, your religious beliefs and your liberties.' What a contrast with the Prussian arrogance which for 45 years has trampled upon everything that was dear to Alsace. Neither traditions nor liberties were respected. Why, then, should Alsace not hope and pray and wish for a crushing defeat of its oppressors?"

DRINK WATER TO AVOID SICKNESS SAYS AUTHORITY

GLASS OF HOT WATER BEFORE BREAKFAST DAILY KEEPS THE DOCTOR AWAY.

Sanitary science has of late made rapid strides with results that are of untold blessing to humanity. The latest application of its untiring research is the recommendation that it is as necessary to attend to internal sanitation of the drainage system of the human body as it is to the drains of the house.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomcah, liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the phosphate hot water is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious specls stomach trouble, rheumatic stiffness; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phospate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

NOTED MUSICIAN OF MONTREAL

Advises The Use Of "FRUIT-A-TIVES", The Famous Fruit Medicine.

MR. ROSENBURG
589 Casgrain St., Montreal.
April 20th, 1915.

"In my opinion, no other medicine in the world is so curative for Constipation and Indigestion as "Fruit-a-tives". I was a sufferer from these complaints for five years, and my sedentary occupation, Music, brought about a kind of Intestinal Paralysis—with nasty Headaches, belching gas, drowsiness after eating, and Pain in the Back. I tried pills and medicines of physicians, but nothing helped me. Then I was induced to try "Fruit-a-tives", and now for six months I have been entirely well.

I advise any one who suffers from that horrible trouble—Chronic Constipation with the resultant indigestion, to try "Fruit-a-tives", and you will be agreeably surprised at the great benefit you will receive". A. ROSENBURG.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

SOME SIDELIGHTS FROM GERMANY

(London Chronicle)

It may sound incredible, but some serious-minded people in Germany are canvassing the adoption of polygamy as a remedy for depopulation. At all events, several Herren Professoren are quite keen on the idea, and articles are devoted to the subject by, among others, Dr. Wecken, in the "Familien geschichtliche Blaetter," Dr. Grahovsky in "Das neue Deutschland," and Professor Christian Ehrenfels, of Prague University, in the "Archiv fuer Rassen und Gesellchafsbiologie."

Dr. Wecken confines himself to the historical aspect of the question. He points out that similar proposals were heard in Germany in 1650, when the Franconian Diet adopted a resolution in favour of bigamy, the marriage of priests, and the limitation of the number of monastic inmates as a means of making good the awful human losses of the Thirty Years' War.

Dr. Grahovsky, for his part, hesitates to plunge. His general attitude is summed up in a quotation from a pamphlet, "War and the Increase of Population," in which it is said:—

"It is a common knowledge that polygamy is an established institution in Eastern countries and among the Mormons. It is, unfortunately, not so well known in Germany that this has not led to any immoral state of things. But the introduction of polygamy into Germany would meet with extraordinary obstacles. Monogamy has taken too strong roots. Moreover, in consequence of the expense that would be incurred in the support of the family, polygamy could be practised only by the few." In short, the Herr Professor regretfully finds the panacea impossible on practical grounds.

But Professor Christian Ehrenfels would apparently go "whole hog." The polygamist solution is apparently not a new idea with him, for he refers back to articles of his that he published years ago in the same review. If only in the interest of the preservation of the national vigour and the restoration of the population strength, so heavily reduced by the war, would it not, he asks, be advisable—nay, even imperative—to lay aside after the war the severe moral code which restricts civilised peoples to monogamy, and to make a start by giving some permission to the courageous fighters returning from battle" to practise polygamy under certain conditions. He, too, recognises the difficulties in the way even of a partial or temporary suspension, which would break with the monogamistic ideas that at the present time prevail in all classes of society; nevertheless, Professor Ehrenfels expresses the belief that in the long run monogamy will be found incompatible with the maintenance of the nation's vigour, and will therefore have to be abandoned—"in the far future."

A Princely Appeal for Peace.

Prince Alexander of Hohenlohe appeals in the "Neue Zuercher Zeitung" to the Pope and President Wilson to step in and stop the butchery in Europe. Let them combine in "a common work of rescue," to save, even at the eleventh hour, European civilisation from "utter ruin."

Like many other Germans, the Prince has come to a belated sense of the horror of it all. 'To speak now," he confesses, "of peace, mediation, or intervention between the belligerents might seem almost childish. To seek to put a stop to the murder of nations, which is developing more and more into a frenzy, is almost to act like a man who throws himself across the rails to stop an express train in full speed." Nevertheless he means to dare ridicule. "Anyone who can look on at this deliberate bringing about of the suicide of Europe in silence and indifference can have neither heart nor conscience."

Not a moment should be lost in seeking a way out. "Is the life of these hundreds of thousands not worth the breach or abandonment of the old etiquette which requires that one of the adversaries shall be brought to the ground before the fight can be proclaimed at an end by the diplomats?" That etiquette applied to the old wars between Governments and hired armies, but it does not hold good of a war in which whole nations are in arms. Any sensible man can see that there is going to be neither victor nor vanquished in this war. The only exception in Germany is the group "who prattle of a future Germany extending from the Elbe to the Equator, and of the necessity of crushing England first to attain that end." "Such fantastic hopes and decisions," he says bluntly "will never be fulfilled."

What is the alternative? "All the armies are fighting with an unprecedented courage, a perseverance, and firmness unknown in history. Will their glory be greater and will peace be more honourable if some millions more of men are sacrificed, more villages and towns razed to the ground, more territory turned to desert upon which no grass grows, and the burden of debt that already will weigh upon Europe for generations to come, increased by further milliards until it ends in the universal bankruptcy of Europe? That is what the continuation of the war means."

* * *

"The Truth is Not in Them"

Prominence is given by the "Hamburger Fremdenblatt" to an article from its Hague correspondent, headed "Who is responsible?" The correspondent has just received "a mountain of English newspapers"—"all the fantastic nonsense that the gentlemen of Fleet street could concoct in a week's work." He describes it as "a mountain of conceit, disparagement of the enemy and above all, of lies, thick, gross lies and little fine lies."

And he asks himself, how does this come about, who is responsible for it—"the Government, the Press, or the public?" On the whole he is most inclined to the view that it is the public that is to blame. "There is no public in the world that is so uncritical or whose willingness to see what it is told to see, is greater than the English public." He attributes this national blindness to the reality of things to the universal practice of "make-believe," using the English word but mistranslating it as "self-deception." Consequently the Press is to blame, only in a secondary degree. Thus, having satisfied himself of the English race that "the truth is not in them," he proceeds to read his London mail with a patriotic complacency that is proof against all shocks or misgivings.

To Cure Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness and head noises will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can be successfully treated at home by an internal remedy that in many instances has effected a complete cure after all else has failed. Sufferers who could scarcely hear a watch tick have had their hearing restored to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from either ear.

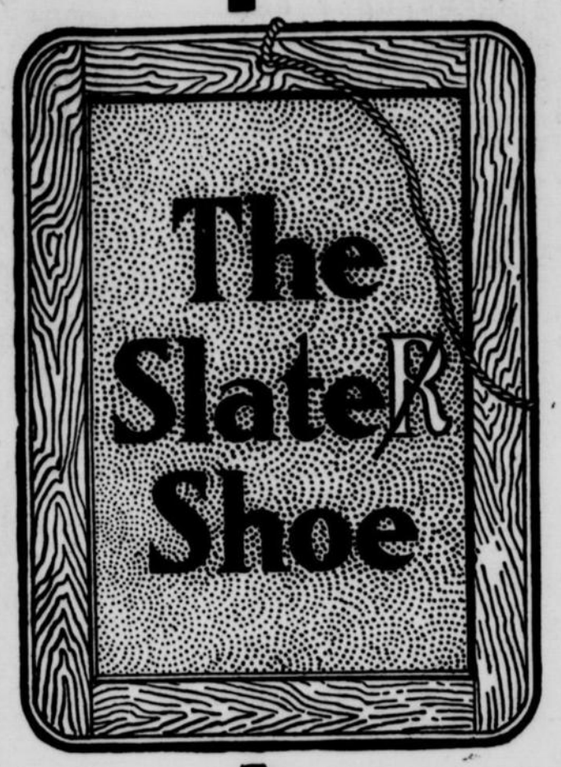

Therefore, if you know someone who is troubled with head noises or catarrh, or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula and hand to them, and you will have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be prepared at home, and is made as follows:

Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Parmint (Double Strength), about 75c worth. Take this home, and add to it 1-4 pint of hot water and 4 oz. of granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

The first dose should begin to relieve the distressing head noises, headache, dullness, cloudy thinking, etc., while the hearing rapidly returns as the system is invigorated by the tonic action of the treatment. Loss of smell and mucus dropping in the back of the throat, are other symptoms that show the presence of catarrhal poison, and which are often entirely overcome by this efficacious treatment. Nearly ninety per cent. of all ear troubles are said to be directly caused by catarrh, therefore, there must be many people whose hearing can be restored by this simple home treatment.

Every person who is troubled with head noises, catarrhal deafness or catarrh in any form, should give this prescription a trial.

Important Note: In ordering Parmint always specify that you want double strength. Your druggist has it or he can easily get it for you. If not send 75c. postal note or money order to the International Laboratories, 74 St. Antoine St., Montreal, Que., Can., and they will supply you.

WONDERS OF THE ALPS.

Changes Nature Wrought to Uplift Their Towering Peaks.

Nothing in the world's history is more impressive than the story of the Alps. Ten or twelve million years ago, possibly far more, a long unseen line of weakness, a crack of fissure in the earth's crust, stretched away from France eastward hundreds of miles. On this line followed huge volcanic outbursts.

Next ensued a vast slow subsidence, which went on through geologic epochs until where Mont Blanc now rears its summit 15,780 feet was a sea fringing an old continent. Large rivers emptied into it. Deposits of mud, sand, gravel were laid one on another as the sinking went on until the layers became 500,000 feet, nearly ten miles, thick.

Then at last commenced a great uplifting; the struggling subterranean forces raised a huge load. For ages this went on until the rocks, crumbled crushed, contorted, rose above the waters and continued to rise, forming lines of mountain chains and making Switzerland a tableland.

Every hour since then rain and snow, river, glacier and avalanche have been sculpturing into peaks and carving into lakes and valleys that vast platform with its recent sedimentary covering and primeval granite core.

The result is a land of unequaled grandeur.—London Telegraph.

RESINOL PROVED WONDERFUL FOR ITCHING ECZEMA

Feb. 23.—"I had a chronic case of eczema on my hands for about three years. It got red in places, especially between my fingers, and when I'd rub them a little, pimples or blisters would form which filled with water. The longer I had this trouble, the larger these pimples got. I can't express in words what a terrible thing it was. I couldn't find anything to help me—everything seemed to make it worse. I had about given up all hope of ever being cured. They were terribly sore, and I could not sleep for the terrible itching and burning. I learned of Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap and decided to try them. Well, Resinol really proved to be a wonderful thing in my case. It relieved at the first application. I used about a Cake of Resinol Soap and half a jar of Resinol Ointment and the eczema was all gone. It hasn't returned since. It am so glad I tried Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap, as I do not know how I could have stood that eczema much longer. It is a cheap and sure cure." (Signed) Mrs. H. H. Denbow, Sioux Falls, S.D.

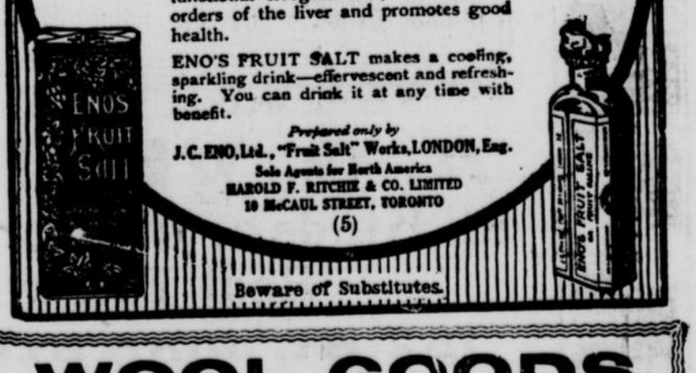

All druggists sell Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap. For samples free, write to Dept. 7-S, Resinol, Baltimore.

Shipping News

EXPORTS FROM N.Y. GREATER THIS YEAR

GREATER IN SEPT. BY FAR THAN SAME MONTH LAST YEAR.

New York, Oct. 20—Domestic exports from New York during September were greater by more than $100,000,000 than shipments in the corresponding month of 1915, according to a statement issued today by Collector of the Port Dudley Field Malone.

The domestic exports last month had a vlue of $262,373,951 against $160,785,066 in September a year ago. Foreign merchandise shipped out of this port in September, most Canadian wheat foodstuffs, and other products aggregate $3,013,786 compared with $2,322,259 in the corresponding period last year.

Imports of merchandise, raw and manufactured, showed a falling off last month compared with a year ago.

SHIPPING NOTES.

The SS. Bengore Head, SS. Aurocan, and steam barge Georgetown passed up yesterday.

Steam barge Fairfax after discharging coal in the inner basin left yesterday on her return to the lakes.

The steam barge Dalton purchased by the French government from owners along the lakes arrived down yesterday and anchored in the stream. She will proceed to France after some alterations are made.

New York, Oct. 20—Bananas are rotting on the piers of ports of Colombia, because of a lack of vessels to transport the fruit, according to Antonio Borda, a planter who was a passenger on the steamship Santa Maria, which arrived here today.

FREIGHTS AND CHARTERS.

New York, Oct. 20—There was a limited demend for steam and sail tonnage for prompt and forward loading, but with tonnage sparingly tendered very little was done in chartering. Rates were unchanged and nominal. Quotations nominal on grain, with cotton quoted at $2 per 100 lbs. to Liverpool.

GERMANS USING NETS.

Swedish Steamer Captured When Propeller Caught.

Washington, October, 21—A despatch to the State Department received today from American Consul-General Skinner at London and based on information obtained by him from a Lloyds report, stated that the Germans are following the British practice of using nets in the North Sea to trap submarines. The report said that the Germans had in this way captured the Swedish steamer Norma, whose propeller blades had become hopelessly entagled in a German steel net south of the Dogen lightship.

ANOTHER SWEDISH VESSEL TORPEDOED.

Copenhagen, via London, Oct. 20—The crew of the Swedish steamship Normandie landed today at Frederikshaven, the most northerly seaport of Denmark. Their vessel was torpedoed and sunk by a Germna submarine.

The Normandie was of 1,342 tons gross. She was 232 ft. long, 35 feet beam and built in 1905.

"CASCARETS" SET YOUR LIVER AND BOWELS RIGHT

THEY'RE FINE! DON'T REMAIN -BILIOUS, SICK, HEADACHY AND CONSTIPATED.

Best for colds, bad breath, sour stomach—Children love them.

Get a 10-cent box now.

Be cheerful! Clean up inside tonight and feel fine. Take Cascarets to liven your liver and clean the bowels and stop headaches, a bad cold, biliousness, offensive breath, coated tongue, sallowness, sour stomach and gases. Tonight take Cascarets and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. Wake up feeling grand—Everybody's doing it. Cascarets best laxative for children also.

GAS, HEARTBURN, INDIGESTION OR A SICK STOMACH

"PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN" ENDS ALL STOMACH DISTRESS IN FIVE MINUTES.

Time it! Pape's Diapepsin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely within five minutes.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach was not there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapepsin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.

THE BEST PROSPECT

The voyage from Canada to the West Indies and return by the ships of the Royal Mail is the most attractive prospect for the winter traveller that is within the reach of the Canadian people at the present time. This is our opinion, and it is supported by hundreds of Canadians who made the trip last season.

New York, Oct. 20—Trading in today's broad, strong and active market was completely overshadowed by the prominence of United States Steel, that stock contributing over 25 per cent to the total turnover, which approximated 1,350,000 shares.

Steel's extreme advance of 4 points to 119 3-8 places the stock within 1 1-4 points of its record quotation made the later part of September and represents a gain of more than 11 points for the week, having fallen to 108 last Saturday.

Other active, though less strong features included Republic and Crucible Steels, Anaconda and Inspiration Coppers, American Smelting, such equipments as American and Baldwin Locomotives, General Electric and Westinghouse, Central Leather and numerous low priced rails.

Foremost among the latter were Wabash issues, Rock Island, Missouri Pacific Pfd. Chicago, Great Western Pfd. and Minneapolis and St. Louis, the last named being distinguished for its advance of almost seven points. Interest in these shares has grown appreciably by reason of the better earnings submitted from month to month.

Motors were also restored to speculative favor, Studebaker and Maxwell recording substantial gains with some subsidiaries, and sugars were in renewed request, with new records for Cuban American and Cuba Cane at 218 and 69 1-2 respectively.

Dealings embraced the fertilizers, Harvester issues, United States Industrial Alcohol, American Woolen, Leathers and Petroleums, all at variable advances. Paper issues reacted 3 to 5 points from top levels on realizing sales.

Investment rails were under moderate pressure, but regained their losses in the general improvement of the last half hour.

Bonds of minor railroads were responsive to the advance in shares, but international issues suffered from further offerings. Total sales, par value, $7,260,000.

Closing Letters By Local Brokers

(By Breen & Gourdeau)

New York, Oct. 20—The fluctuation of prices in the stock market during the current week was decidedly irregular, especially up to the turn of mid-week; pre-election influences, with professional activity in a certain few stocks, being largely responsible for the cross movements. Owing to the uncertainty of outlook engendered by both the political and submarine situations, public participation was at first somewhat curtailed, while pool interests and otherwise professional operators were active, but toward the close of the week the market's week buying power took on a more confident air. The class of securities actively traded in toward the close were also vastly superior to those issues identified with that of the earlier dealings. In this respect, a marked contrast was offered. Despite the lack of uniformity disclosed by its surface appearance, the action of the general market was considered wholly unfavorably. Quiet absorption of the better class of stocks on the easy spots by substantial interests was reported, which fact, was partially borne out by the strength of undertone pretty generally indicated.

Viewing the situation broadly, the course of quotations is characteristic of the times, the market, generally speaking, being a typical ante-election affair.

It is to be expected, therefore, that price changes are likely to continue more or less irregular pending the development of a definite outlook in matters of doubtful outcome now engaging the attention of the speculative world.

Sales, stocks, 1,293,710; bonds, $6,832,000.

(By L. G. Beaubien & Co)

October 20., 1916—Today's transactions were marked by a maintenance of yesterdays good tone in the general market and some strength in the specialties. The paper stocks continued the features in the latter respect especially Riordon Paper which had a sensational advance of 6 points to 106 being a new high mark, against previous record of 99. Just what dividend news may be ahead of this spectacular movement in Riordon common is becoming more and more difficult to guess. The old rumors of two weeks ago were again circulating, that a bonus of 1 per cent. might be coming together with the next two quarterly dividends and that next year the stock would definitely put on a 6 per cent. basis. When the high mark of 99 was discounting some such development, but with the price of this stock at 105 it would seem that the news is either over discounted to a considerable extent or else something better is anticipated.

Other features in the paper groups were Wayagamack which also made a new high record selling as high as 86 being an advance of 2 points for the day. Laurentide Power was also at its new high record for the year selling at 198 3-4 against 197 3-4 at opening, while Spanish River issues weer both active and strong with the common after opening at 16 touched 16 3-4 which is a new high record for the year, the same may be said of the preferred which was at its new high mark of 48 1-2.

The Steel stocks were also very prominent today, especially Dominion Steel which was up 3-4 to 67 1-4 which is but 1-4 of a point lower than its recent high mark, Nova Scotia Steel was up to 138, and Steel Co. of Canada was strong around 64 1-4. Ames Holden had a little spurt of activity this afternoon selling up to 26 but later closed at 25 1-2, this stock appears to be scarce around these prices and the least demand for it should put it up.

The demand for stocks at the close was very good, especially for the paper stocks, which seem to be getting more scarce, the supply for Riordon is said to be extremely scarce. Spanish River continues to be accumulated by strong people who predict much higher prices for it. Dominion War Loan issues were quite but very strong. New Loan sold at 99 and the old at 99 1-2.

(By Bruneau & Dupuis)

New York, Oct. 20—Again steel has been the leader which has led up out of our dullness. The market recently has had wonderful fluctuations. Take this steel stock as an example. Two weeks ago Monday it sold at virtually 121 and a week ago tomorrow at 108, while today we find it very close to 120.

It begins to look like Mr. Hughes' election and if this is a correct forecast we see no reason why prices should not be strong. However, there will probably be sufficient number of doubting Thomases and people who feel uncertain as to the outcome to keep the market from running into a big bull speculation at the moment.

We still hear predictions of Mr. Wilsons success from a number of sources but the market does not reflect any such belief, and after all, surmise is one thing, but money talks and this market certainly shows no trepidation. Total Sales, stocks, 1,293,710; Bonds $6,832,000.

Chicago, Oct. 20—Wheat—The prospective shortage of wheat has evidently disturbed the foreign consumer to such an extent that Governments are taking steps to get possession of everything available. Argentine weather is as bullish as ever and is doubtless a factor in the anxiety of the foreigner. Prices here made new high levels early today, but by mid-day had lost a large portion of the advance, due to heavy realizing and the report that the bulge had limited export business.

Corn—Corn has been most active and covered the widest range in years. An enormous short interest of long standing was disclosed and, when weather and cash conditions started the market higher, stop loss orders were uncovered in such volume that it was impossible to find sellers at anywhere near buying limits. Prices for December were the highest since 1892. Today's setback, following the closing out of short contracts, is not surprising, but so long as the scarcity of cash corn is apparent, there is nothing to indicate a substantial and permanent break.

Oats—Were higher early with other grains, but the volume of profit-taking was very large and caused a fair setback. On account of the price speculative trade is coming more and more into the Oats market and probably will be of sufficient volume to prevent a serious decline.

(By McDougall & Cowans)

Montreal, Oct. 20—The market was strong and stocks were in good demand all day. People are buying the steel and paper stocks expecting higher prices. The steel companies are booked up almost a year ahead at very high prices. The paper companies having worked off most of their old contracts are today getting almost any price they like to ask. U. S. Steel closed at the high price and very strong.

Synopsis of Canadian Northwest Land Regulations.

The sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years old, may homestead a quarter-section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. Applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-Agency for the District. Entry by proxy may be made at any Dominion Lands Agency (but not Sub-Agency), on certain conditions.

Duties—Six months residence upon and cultivation of the land in each of three years. A homesteader may live within nine miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 80 acres, on certain conditions. A habitable house is required except where residence is performed in the vicinity.

In certain districts a homesteader in good standing may pre-empt a quarter-section alongside his homestead. Price $3.00 per acre.

Duties—Six months residence in each of three years after earning homestead patent; also 50 acres extra cultivation. Pre-emption patent may be obtained as soon as homestead patent, on certain conditions.

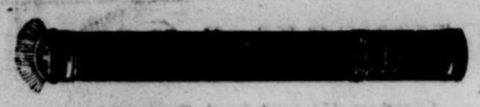

A settler who has exhausted his homestead right may take a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate 50 acres and erect a house worth $300.

The area of cultivation is subject to reduction in case of rough, scrubby or stony land. Live stock may be substituted for cultivation under certain conditions.

BRITISH SAILORS' RELIEF FUND

OLYMPIA THEATRE DONATING PROCEEDS OF EVENING PERFORMANCES ON 26TH INST., TO FUND.

His Worship Mayor Lavigueur presided over the meeting of the local committee of the British Sailors' Relief Fund, which was held yesterday afternoon in the Council Chamber of the City Hall. In addition to the Mayor, the following members of the committee were present, Alderman J. A. Collier, secretary; Mr. J. T. Ross, Mr. G. B. Ramsay, Mr. J. C. Sutherland, Mr. Herman Young, and the Hon. Judge McCorkill.

The Mayor read a letter he had received from the Hon. Cyrille Delage, superintendent of Public Instruction, enclosing subscription, and wishing the Fund every success.

Alderman Lockwell, also wrote apologising for his absence and enclosed subscription received by him from Mr. J. Boisvert. In his letter, Alderman Lockwell mentioned that in soliciting subscriptions for the Fund he met with considerable difficulty, as those he had called upon stated they were subscribing to other patriotic organizations. If, however, he received any further donations he would forward them at once to the treasurer.

The committee appointed to interview the proprietors of the theatres in the city with the object of having performances put on in aid of the Fund, reported that they expected satisfactory replies in the course of a day or so. In this connection, the secretary read a letter received from Messrs. H. Quart and J. Metivier, of the Olympia Theatre, stating that they would donate the proceeds of the evening performance on next Thursday, 26th instant, to the Sailors' Relief Fund. On this occasion a splendid and most interesting film would be shown, and as this would only be presented for a day, many people would take advantage of seeing it. The kind offer of Messrs. Quart and Metivier was accepted by the committee.

The Hon. Judge McCorkill reported that he had interviewed the Judges in the Court House, who had agreed to send a subscription of $100 between them.

Mr. A. E. Scott, who was unavoidably absent, reported through Mr. J. T. Ross that he had collected from Insurance Agents the sum of $193, this, in addition to the amount previously collected, made a total of $263.00.

Mr. Herman Young in his report announced that he had been successful in collecting about $450, but had hopes of increasing this amount to $1,000. From his experience in soliciting subscriptions to this Fund, he felt that the people of Quebec were now becoming interested in the Fund. Mr. Young also reported in regard to the announcement he made at the previous meeting of the committee, with reference to obtaining subscriptions from the Greek colony in the city that he had since been informed owing to the calls made by other patriotic funds upon the citizens of this nationality they found themselves unable to assist the British Sailors' Relief Fund.

A suggestion was made that the City should be asked to help the Fund and steps will likely be taken to obtain a subscription from the City Council.

The meeting adjourned for a fortnight.

ST. VITUS DANCE CAN BE EASILY CURED

A Tonic for the Blood and Nerves With Rest All That is Needed.

Many a child has been called awkward, has been punished in school for not keeping still or for dropping things, when the trouble was really St. Vitus dance. This trouble may appear at any age but it most often met between the ages of six and fourteen. The most frequent cause of the disease is poor blood, aggravated by indoor confinement, or mental strain at school. Under these conditions the blood fails to carry nourishment to the nerves and the child begins to show listlessness and inattention. Then it becomes restless and twitching of the muscles and jerking of the limbs and body follow. A remedy that cures St. Vitus dance and cures it so thoroughly that no trace of the disease remains is Dr. Williams Pink Pills which renew the blood thus feeding and strengthening the starved nerves. This is the only way to cure the trouble, and parents should lose no time in giving this treatment if their child seems nervous or irritable. Mrs. Wm. A. Squires, Cannington, Ont., says: "My only daughter, now fourteen years of age was troubled for several years with St. Vitus dance. She was so bad that at times she would lose control of her limbs and her face and eyes would be contorted. We had medical advice and medicine, but it did not help her. In fact we thought the trouble growing worse, and, finally we had to take her from school. About a year ago we began giving her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and by the time she had taken five boxes she was completely cured, and is now a fine, healthy girl. I firmly believe we owe this to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and are very grateful for her restoration to perfect health."

You can get these pills from any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

LT.-COL. DELANEY BACK ON LEAVE

POPULAR QUEBEC MEDICO WILL BE HERE FOR A WEEK OR SO.

About four hundred and thirty Canadians of all ranks arrived in Levis at 9.30 o'clock last night from England via Halifax. Among the officers was Lt.-Col. Wm. Delaney, of this city, who has for many months been in charge of the medical station at Bath, Eng. Lt.-Col. Delaney, who was accompnaied by his wife, is home on short leave.

That the Colonel is extremely well liked by the Canadian heroes on their way home was on many occasions shown by the high words of praise in his behalf expressed by soldiers from all parts of Canada arriving here.

The passage across was marred to a great extent, Dr. Delaney said, by inclement weather. Touching briefly on the war Col. Delaney stated that the general impression was that it would last for a long time yet, but the people in England are firm and are confident of the result.

Among the N. C. O.'s and men were a few Quebec boys. One of them, Cpl. Jules Godin, of the 14th Battalion, First Contingent, was wounded Dec. 30th last by shrapnel in both arms. He is the son of Mr. Rodger Godin, 15 Ferland street.

Pte. E. Auger, Victoriaville, of the original 5th Battalion, is back suffering from a wound in the right shoulder received in the severe fighting three months ago.

Following officers were in the party:—

Capt. E. W. Hume, D. of R. & O., officer in charge; Capt. H. S Harrison, Headquarters, paymaster; Lt.-Col. Wm. H. Delaney, Medical Officer; Lt. W. A. R. Angus, C.F.A., leave Lt. S. W. "HIGH TEA AND FANCY SALE MADE A HIT"

The beautiful, novel and interesting social affair "The High Tea and Fancy Sale" held by the ladies of St. Patrick's Church, has proved to be a most delightful and successful affair, so much so that the people have asked to have it continued till next Thursday night, October 26th.

All the articles will then be raffled and disposed of, among them being several gold watches, diamond stickpins, diamond rings, a gold necklace, beautiful pillows, and many other valuable and useful articles.

The ladies and all workers feel very grateful to all their friends for their kind assistance. The people of the parish and all visitors have been profuse in their praise of the beautiful decorations, the grand supper, and the arduous labors of the ladies in charge. The ladies are not only hard workers, but display great ingenuity and ability in arranging and carrying out all the affairs they undertake. That they have an eye for the artistic no one can deny, who has been present at any of the affairs they have managed. A grand and exceptional feature of this novel entertainment, that cannot be enough recommended to managers of similar affairs, was that everything was ready on the opening evening. There were no half-finished decorations, bare posts and boards; everything was absolutely ready for the reception of the large crowds that were present every night.

The Oyster Supper served last evening was a treat to the large number that partook of it.

The first "High Tea and Fancy Sale" is, therefore, well worthy of patronage on its merits, as shown by the fact that the parishioners have asked that it be continued another week.

The object also for which it is given should insure a large attendance every evening till the end.

You are not expected to spend money every night you come, but we want your presence as many nights as possible to show that you are interested in its success. Let everyone give even but a little assistance and it cannot fail to be a greater success than ever expected.

The only people who are likely to be dissatisfied and displeased will be those who will fail to attend and who will learn when too late, how much they have missed.

DOMESTIC TRAGEDIES.

France Has a Multitude of "Enoch Arden" Stories.

There is a notable multiplication of domestic dramas of the tpye familiar through Tennyson's "Enoch Arden" and Balzac's "Colonel Chabert," who, lost on a Napoleonic battlefield, returned home to find his wife remarried to a nobleman of the Restoration.

Thus, a Madame D—— of Arras was informed at the beginning of the war that her husband had been killed. Removing to Paris she waited some months, and then married her brother-in-law. The first husband is now on his way back from Germany, where he was a prisoner.

Charles le Goffic cites other cases in La Liberte. He says: "In a small commune near the Channel two soldiers' wives remarried in this way. The death of their first husbands was registered, and all the papers were in order. But these husbands reappeared one fine morning, both of them with amputated limbs."

"More curious is the tale of the Breton soldier, whose arm, cut off by a shell, was found on the battlefield, while the rest of him had disappeared. As the arm carried the identification plate its owner was reported dead. The wife received a certificate to this effect, and was permitted to remarry. The first husband proves to be alive and inclined to insist on his rights.'"

The most unfortunate of these tragic misadventures was found in Switzerland recently in one of the parties of seriously wounded soldiers returned from Germany. A French visitor stopped before a man whose face was so disfigured as to seem no longer human. He asked is he could do anything for the sufferer, if he could seek his family and tell them.

"Useless," was the reply. "He is dead."

The soldier had risen to the heroic delicacy of deciding that, rather than horrify those he loved, he would leave them to believe him dead.

There is a ray of light in this case, for the surgeons hold out hope of a great improvement, and if this is accomplished their patient will give up his name and come to life again. "But perhaps," adds M le Goffic, "it may then be too late."

It is said there are 70,000 French prisoners in Germany who have not been able to communicate with their families. The French law requires ten months of widowhood before remarriage. The question is being asked whether this delay should not be extended, and Henri Robert, the eminent pleader, is one of those who think that soldiers' wives should not remarry before the end of the war.

DUFFY TRIMS WHITNEY.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 20—Jimmy Duffy, of Lockport, N.Y., was given the referee's decision on points at the end of a ten round bout with Frank Whitney, of Atlanta, here tonight. Nearly every round went to Duffy. The men fought as lightweights.
