Scientists Of 15 Nations Warn Of Radiation Danger

Gromyko Set For Talks

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (CP) — Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko and 75 helpers prepared today for a drive to get the United Nations General Assembly's emergency session to demand withdrawal of U.S. troops from Lebanon and British troops from Jordan.

Gromyko was expected to speak early in the general debate, which starts Wednesday. He said on his arrival from Moscow Sunday that the Soviet government considers the question of the withdrawals "very serious" and his delegation "will do their best... to achieve positive results."

Asian members were reported seeking some means of inducing the Western powers to pull their troops out quickly so the assembly could concentrate on other Middle Eastern problems.

Diplomatic sources said Burma, Ceylon, India and Indonesia are seeking to bring the 28-country Asian-African group to a common policy on the withdrawal question. The group holds the balance of power in the 81-power assembly, where a two-thirds vote is needed for any major decision.

CONDITIONAL PROMISE
The United States and Britain have promised to withdraw their forces when the UN can protect the two countries, whose governments have said the United Arab Republic is working to overthrow them.

Underlining the difficult task facing the assembly, however, was a broadcast by King Hussein of Jordan accusing U.A.R. President Nasser of serving as international communism's "first agent in the Arab world."

At the same time, a Jordan government investigating committee charged that U.A.R. Syrians and Lebanese rebels smuggled explosives into Jordan — some of it aboard UN planes — for terrorists planning to create a state of chaos.

PLAN UNDER FIRE
Asian delegates at the UN picked holes in the Middle East plan proposed by Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld Friday. It calls for (1) A pledge by Arab countries of mutual non-interference, (2) big power agreement not to interfere in the Arab countries, (3) general co-operation for Middle East economic development and (4) UN protection for Jordan, Lebanon and the Israel-U.A.R. frontier.

Asians contended it would hamper expansion of U.A.R. influence while leaving untouched the Baghdad Pact alliance on the southern Soviet border, the British hold on the southern and eastern Arabian coast, and French rule over Algeria, not to mention Israel.

The United States is reported planning to propose a police force to protect threatened countries, a watchdog commission to monitor propaganda broadcasts, an investigating commission to recommend long-range solutions, and an economic plan, all under the UN.

Gromyko said on arrival in New York the big powers must help in economic development of the Middle East "under conditions that will not interfere with the independence of these countries."

WANTS RED CHINA IN
The Soviet foreign minister also called again for Red China's admission to the UN, saying "the sooner this is done the better."

A Soviet move to seat Peking's representatives in the assembly seemed certain, but it was likely to be matched by a Cuban move to reject the credentials of the Hungarian Communist delegation as a protest against the execution last June of former premier Imre Nagy.

Meanwhile Soviet Premier Khrushchev in a speech at Kuibyshev once again accused the United States and Britain of plotting a war against Iraq's new republican government. He said the Soviet Union and "all the other peace-loving nations" would destroy the two Western allies if they launched "a new aggressive war."

Pearson Charges West Bungled Negotiations

GENEVA PARK, Ont. (CP) — Lester B. Pearson, Nobel Peace Prize winner and national leader of the Liberal party, has accused Western diplomats of bungling recent summit conference negotiations.

He spoke Saturday at the opening of the 27th Couchiching Conference, sponsored by the Canadian Institute of Public Affairs and the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation.

Mr. Pearson, delivering the keynote address of the conference which has "crisis '58" as its theme, said Russian Premier Khrushchev, in his original invitation to the West for a five-power summit talk on Middle East problems, presented the West with an opportunity which had been frittered away and lost by a failure of diplomacy.

COULD HAVE ACCEPTED
"Surely the three Western powers could have accepted this invitation without delay. A meeting of the security council at the regular official level could then have been called to formalize this procedure and a small summit meeting could have taken place in the relative peace and quiet of Geneva."

Instead, through a lengthy exchange of tricky communications and public statements, the world was left with the prospects of a confused and sensational propaganda jamboree at the United Nations in New York.

The conference continues until Saturday. At today's session, C. Douglas Dillon, U.S. under-secretary of state of economic affairs, will speak on "The U.S.A. and World Economy."

Posse Get Glimpse Of Prey
PENTICTON, B. C. (CP) — RCMP had a fleeting glimpse during the weekend of the man who has eluded police-led posses in the southern Okanagan Valley for seven days.

The search for Donald Stevens, charged with wounding an RCMP corporal at a roadblock set up following the slaying of a woman fruit picker, was narrowed Sunday to the heavily wooded Green Mountain area near where Stevens was sighted on a dirt road by three policemen.

RCMP Corporal Ralph Brown was shot in the neck while questioning a man after the beating-death of Anita Budie, 38. She was killed Aug. 3 in her shack at the nearby Kaledon Orchard. Brown is recovering.

The seldom-travelled dirt road winds through scrub timber which police say cannot be penetrated by foot for any great distance.

Hitler's Heroes
HANNOVER, Germany (Reuters) — About 130 holders of the Iron Cross knights class—Hitler's highest decoration — met here Saturday night for "an evening of comradeship."

The Nationalist cabinet under Premier Chen Cheng held a conference to discuss dispersal plans for the entire island of Formosa.

Chinese Reds Shell Quemoy
TAIPEI, Formosa (Reuters) — Chinese Communists Sunday night broke the lull in the Quemoy area by firing 41 shells at the Nationalist-defended Tatan and Little Quemoy islands.

A Nationalist Chinese defence ministry spokesman said today the bombardment from Amyo lasted 40 minutes but the Nationalists suffered no losses.

The official military information service reported there was no activity on the water separating Quemoy from the mainland.

Normally, this report said, Communist boats were seen often but in the last few days the channels have been clear.

Rear Admiral Liu Hoh Tu, the defence ministry spokesman, said the ministry has no information about whether the Russians have given atom weapons to Communist China.

UN Committee Report Expected To Increase Pressure For Test Ban

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — (AP) — A 15-nation UN scientific committee report on the dangers of radioactivity was expected today to increase pressures for a world ban on nuclear weapon tests.

The report says that even a slow, slight increase in world radioactivity from nuclear test explosions and other sources endangers mankind's future health.

While approving a report to this effect, the committee nevertheless rejected a Soviet demand that it call for an immediate end to nuclear test explosions.

RELEASED SUNDAY
The report was released Sunday by the United Nations scientific committee on the effects of atomic radiation. More than two years of study went into preparation for the 228-page document.

The committee members agreed unanimously that even the smallest amounts of radiation are liable to cause harmful genetic and perhaps other effects such as cancer, leukemia and shortening of life.

They agreed, too, that "even a slow rise in the environmental radioactivity in the world, whether from weapon tests or any other sources, might eventually cause appreciable damage to large populations before it could be definitely identified as due to radiation."

Unanimous, too, was the conclusion that present attempts to evaluate radiation effects on man can produce only tentative estimates with wide margins of uncertainty.

CONFIRMS U.S. REPORT
The U.S. Atomic Energy Commission said the UN report generally confirms the statements in the June 1956 report of the U.S. National Academy of Sciences with respect to the possible hazards from radiation.

The majority of the committee took the view that the problem of controlling or curbing nuclear tests and other sources of radiation lies outside the group's scope.

The section of the report giving this view won approval by a 9-to-5 vote with one abstention. The breakdown was not given, but the United States voted with the majority.

The other nations in the study were Argentina, Australia, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, Czechoslovakia, United Arab Republic, France, India, Japan, Mexico, Sweden, the Soviet Union and Britain.

REJECT DRAFTS
Two substitute drafts for the disputed section were rejected. One, submitted by the Soviet Union, was supported only by Czechoslovakia and the United States.

Royal Welcome
BRUSSELS (AP) — Soviet President Klement Voroshilov arrived in Brussels Sunday and was greeted by King Baudouin in the first such reception since before the Russian revolution. Voroshilov will stay for five days in connection with Soviet national days at the Brussels world fair.

SAME MOODS
The crowd's moods and hers often seemed the same. When the routine was boring the applause was light or missing altogether. When interesting and exciting things were happening they cheered her.

They laughed with her at the dog. They were quiet or restless at many of the speeches.

About 5,000 clapped but that was all when she reviewed the guard at Halifax. But later Sunday night more than 20,000 cheered loudly when she appeared at an outdoor concert by a massed choir on the slopes of the Halifax Citadel.

Things seemed most in tune when several hundred crowded around her train as it left Digby midnight Saturday. They chanted, "we want the princess! we want the princess!" She finally appeared on the observation platform and stood there waving good-bye until the train passed from sight.

5 Killed As Trains Collide

STERLINGTON, N. Y. (AP) — Five persons were reported killed and at least 22 injured today in the head-on crash of two passenger trains of the Erie Railroad.

One of the trains was bound from Hoboken, N. J., to Port Jervis, N. Y. The other was bound from Monroe, N. Y., to Hoboken.

State police said first-aid crews and ambulances from north Jersey and New York points were converging on the scene.

At the Erie's office in New York City, a spokesman said the wreck resulted in mixed signals while trying to get an eastbound passenger train around a freight train on the eastbound track.

He said one brakeman, not identified, was killed, but he had no other reports of fatalities.

Steel Union Says Stelco Ads Unfair

HAMILTON — Mediation discussion between the United Steel Workers of America (U.S.W.A.) and the Steel Company of Canada open today hard on the heels of union charges of unfair propaganda tactics by the company.

The union Sunday wired Ontario Labor Minister Daley demanding assurances newspaper advertisements by Stelco outlining the company's side of the dispute would not be carried during the discussions.

The ads were published after the union voted last Wednesday to strike if necessary to support demands for wage increases refused by a conciliation board. They appeared again today in some papers.

Union and company representatives meet in Toronto with Mr. Daley and the Ontario Labor Relations Board's chief conciliation officer, Louis Fine.

KEEP STATUS QUO
The 7,500-member union, in a telegram signed by Local 1005 president John Lisson, said it had agreed to mediation on the assumption the status quo would be honored by both sides up to and during mediation attempts.

The wire suggested "if Stelco had this kind of money to spend on advertisements; it should be applied to wage offers designed to effect settlement of the dispute."

The company issued a statement Sunday saying wage increases would be harmful, not only to Stelco employees but to the entire national economy, and that it hoped the union would recognize the necessity of halting inflationary increases in costs and prices.

They Ate Their Clothing

Government To Settle Starving Eskimos In New Communities

OTTAWA (CP) — The government, moved by reports of starvation and death in Canada's north, has initiated action to organize into settlements groups of nomad Eskimos whose way of life has been broken by the disappearance of caribou.

Northern Affairs Minister Alvin Hamilton told the Commons of government plans Saturday after Mervyn Hardie (L — Mackenzie River) recounted the story of 14 Eskimos in the Northwest Territories who died of starvation and exposure last winter.

They had been forced near the end to eat their dogs and even their own caribou-hide clothing in vain efforts to survive.

SAD REFLECTION
The tragedy, said Mr. Hardie, was a sad reflection on the Progressive Conservative promise of a "great vision" of human and material northern development.

Two years ago he had warned that the herds of caribou on which the wandering Eskimos depended for food were fast disappearing. Yet little had been done.

"Move these Eskimos to an area where they can live," he said.

Killer Bear Checked For Rabies At Jasper

JASPER, Alta. (CP) — Laboratory workers today checked for rabies the remains of a 400-pound black bear that killed a seven-year-old girl here last week after wrestling the child away from her mother.

However, Jasper National Park wardens said they doubted rabies would be found. They said the bear appeared in good condition — it was just as healthy as the many bears frequenting the tourist camp grounds where the youngster was mauled.

Printing Bureau Fiasco

Architect Says Ottawa Rejected Suggestions

MONTREAL (CP) — Montreal architect Ernest Cormier, who supervised construction of the federal government's printing bureau, says he is "being accused of things done by others" in the construction of the building at 1111 Que.

He said in an interview here Saturday the air conditioning system in the bureau was built under his supervision to comply with a basis of design given him by the government.

He was commenting on statements made before the Commons public accounts committee Friday by Maj.-Gen. H. A. Young, deputy works minister.

Gen. Young testified he had stopped payment of $60,000 to the Montreal architect because of faults discovered in the building's air conditioning system.

CHIEF FAULT?
He said the "chief fault" lay in the fact that construction was started before final plans and specifications were made and that the onus of this rested with Mr. Cormier. The architect has already been paid $548,000 as consultant for the bureau.

The architect said he believed Gen. Young was in good faith but did not possess all the facts. The general was not in on the project from the beginning. Planning for the bureau began in 1945 and Gen. Young was not appointed deputy until 1953, said Mr. Cormier. Construction started in 1949.

Mr. Cormier said the air conditioning system performed adequately and that a recommendation it had not been acted upon. He insisted he had not authority to make changes to any part of the building without official approval.

It was reported in Ottawa Saturday the committee intends to call the architect and others responsible for construction of the bureau as witness. Mr. Cormier said he would be glad to give evidence.

MUST BE OVERHAULED
Gen. Young said the original air conditioning system, which cost $500,000 to $700,000 has to be overhauled at an estimated cost of $700,000.

Mr. Cormier said the conditions for the operation of the air conditioning system had been specified by Mark E. Powers, the printing expert on whose two-volume report the design for the building was based. The criterion was ideal climate for the paper, not for the comfort of the employees.

Gen. Young said the building should have been completed under "ordinary circumstances" in 1952, three years after the start of construction. It still was not finished although it has been in use for almost three years. Total cost now was $16,200,000 against an original estimate of $6,000,000.

Margaret Leaves For Home Tonight

HALIFAX — Princess Margaret leaves Canada for home tonight. Her plane is due to take off here for Britain at 9 p.m. EDT.

She stepped down from the royal train for the last time Sunday after a cross-country tour from Goose Bay, Labrador to Victoria, B. C., and back east to Halifax.

Some people and places she saw obviously excited her; others despite her outward composure, obviously bored her.

Once or twice she balked at what local officials arranged and demanded something more interesting.

She broke the routine several times this weekend in the Maritimes. Sometimes citizens broke it for her.

In Digby, N. S., she left her motorcade on the waterfront and walked the length of a pier to talk with grizzled scallop fishermen and see their boats.

TOO STEEP?
She told Mayor Gordon Turnbull she would like to go aboard one of the boats but decided a steep ramp she would have to descend was not made for high-heeled shoes.

That was the only way to get to the boats, the mayor told her in a worried tone. The princess smiled and said there were three ways:

"I could sit down and slide down the ramp. I could slide down the handrail. Or I could climb down the stairway."

She talked with the grand old man of the fleet, Capt. Rollie Wormell, 82. He slyly reached in his pocket, pulled out a handkerchief, polished two rare blue-colored scallop shells and gave them to her. "they're royal blue," he said.

The princess balked at Camp Gegetown, N.B., when army brass called for her to inspect a guard of honor, a chore she did dutifully dozens of times across Canada.

"Oh, not another guard of honor," she is reported to have said. "Isn't there something more exciting?"

The brass went into action and Margaret saw a mock battle with simulated atomic explosions and tank units firing blank cartridges.

Horses always held her attention. She was vivacious on a night visit to the Fredericton harness races. At Gegetown she left her reviewing stand to stroke the nose of Princess Louise, horse mascot of the Canadian Hussars.

SHE TALKED
At Church Point, N.S., she talked with 16-year-old Clarice Theriault and Emile Melanson, 19. They were chosen as Evangeline and Gabriel, the lovers in Longfellow's poem, "Evangeline," to reign over the annual French Acadian festival.

"Were you chosen at the dance last night?" she asked Clarice, a petite brunette. Clarice said they were.

At Whistler stops in Nova Scotia's Annapolis Valley she left her train to mingle with the crowd on station platforms. She remarked more than once that "time is too short."

But at Halifax she marched briskly in the hot sun through the ranks of one more guard of honor and seemed anxious to get it over.

She chuckled at Yarmouth, N. S., when helicopter motors startled a small dog, who began dancing excitedly six feet from her.

SAME MOODS
The crowd's moods and hers often seemed the same. When the routine was boring the applause was light or missing altogether. When interesting and exciting things were happening they cheered her.

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — No budding delinquents are the children of Yvonne de Carlo, who believes in old-style discipline. Hers is a refreshing attitude in this town where the overprivileged, underloved children of the famous grow up to make the scandal columns—and their parents wonder why.

"I've seen it happen again and again in Hollywood," the Vancouver-born Yvonne observed. "The kids are given everything they want, as long as they stay out of the way. They're brought up by strangers, because the parents are too busy to devote any time to their own children."
A longtime bachelor girl, Yvonne now finds herself with a sizable family—two sons, one two years and the other eight months old, and a stepdaughter, 10, by husband Bob Morgan. And when she's not working, she devotes as much time as she can to them.
WORK MAKES PROBLEMS
"It's difficult if you choose to work," she said. "That means you have to have help in rearing your children. I had 10 nurses before I found one that I thought had the right attitude toward them."

"When I'm not in a picture, I try to make up for my absence by taking them places with me and spending the day with them. But I don't believe in catering to their every whim. I was brought up in Canada, and I've observed how discipline there and in Europe can help in bringing up children."
"Here, we're inclined to give in too easily. I know how it is. My two-year-old is at an age when he yells for candy. I feel like giving some to him to shut him up. But then I realize that if I do, he'll yell even louder for a bigger piece of candy."
HOW MANY SERVANTS?
The pressures of Hollywood life already have shown on her stepdaughter, she said. Recently, the girl was comparing how many servants they had with those of her friends.
"We have no servants," Yvonne snapped. "We have people to help us in the house, but no one was put on this earth to serve us."
Yvonne was preparing to leave for Rome, where she will play the title role in Mary Magdalene for an Italian company. Unlike some stars who haul their children all over the world she is leaving her home.

"It's going to be hard for me to be gone from them for three months," she said. "But I think it's best for them. I'd rather know that they were safe here."

FRELIGHSBURG — The group of Girl Guides now at Krans Camping Grounds attended the Sunday morning service at the Bishop Stewart Memorial Church. Rev. H. J. Isaacs conducted the service.

Friends of Mr. Herb Moynan will be sorry to hear that he is quite ill in the Sherbrooke Hospital, 3rd floor. Cards or letters from his friends would be much appreciated.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Graves are Mrs. Graves' sister, Mrs. Gilbert Allen, and Mr. Allen of Oneida, N.Y., who are spending a week's holiday. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Allen and Mrs. William Graves motored to Waterville to visit Mr. Leon Allen.
Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ashton and sons, John and Charles, of Toronto, have returned home after spending a week with Mrs. E. H. Ashton, Miss Alice Ashton and Miss Grace Ashton. They were accompanied home by Miss Grace Ashton who will spend a week in Toronto before returning home.
Mr. Ian Laurence, of Ottawa, Mrs. H. H. Laurence and Mrs. Ruth Cochrane, of Montreal, were visiting Mrs. S. J. Irwin, Mrs. C. G. Hall and other of their friends in town.
Mrs. L. J. Streeter accompanied her daughter, Mrs. W. T. Fawcett, and Mr. Fawcett on a trip through Vermont, New Hampshire and Maine.
Mr. Sidney Smith, of Weston, Ont., is spending a week with his cousin, Miss Clara Mountford.
Mr. and Mrs. William Greer, of Rock Island, and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Greer, of Toronto, were guests at the tea hour of Mrs. M. Wallace.
Mr. Ralph Wallace, of Co-bourg, spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Mabel Wallace, and was also calling on Mrs. S. J. Irwin, Foster Square.

Clement Weather And New Attractions Up Gate To 10,000

By PAT BOUGIE
BEDFORD — (Special) — Cool, sunny weather favored crowds which streamed through the gates of the exhibition grounds here Saturday to mark a successful second day of the 129th Missisquoi County Fair.
An official's estimate of the gate receipts for the three-day Fair was placed at 10,000.
Saturday evening's activities included the ever-popular horse show which has become something of a classic event at Bedford.
Yesterday the 1958 model car was awarded to Mrs. Oliva Letourneau and Miss Cecile Nadeau, both of Bedford, who jointly held ticket No. 3538.
Other events yesterday included harness races and entertainment by the Cowansville Harmony Band.
Complete results of the cattle judging will be run later this week.
By 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, it was obvious to the Fair officials that the day could be written down in the records as another successful one. The official count was 975 admission tickets. Over 400 memberships in the Missisquoi County Agricultural Society were sold.
The T. Green midway was in full swing with 18 concessions and the usual nerve-wracking rides.
Clowns, cattle judging, horse racing and a grandstand show by the Jimmie Diano troupe kept Fair enjoyment at a high pitch during the day for occupants of the grandstand.
CATTLE SHOW
Judges were high in their praise of the Jersey and Ayrshire cattle that filled before them.
Judges for the cattle exhibit were: Jack McGeorge of St. Valentine, Earl Clark of Clarenceville.
In the Jersey cattle exhibit, bull and reserve champion, grand champion cow and reserve champion and the senior champion bull and reserve were all won by W. F. Hadlock of Frelighsburg.
Senior champion cow was won by Mr. Hadlock and reserve senior champion cow was won by R. B. Goodhue of Frelighsburg.
Winners in the Ayrshire cattle exhibit were: grand champion bull, Laurent Bouquet of Granby; reserve champion Roger Beaudry also of Granby; grand champion cow and reserve, won by Roger Beaudry of Granby.
Senior champion bull was won by Roger Beaudry of Granby. The reserve champion award was won by Lakeside Farms Phillipsburg. Senior Champion Cow and reserve was won by Roger Beaudry of Granby.
Winners in the sheep exhibition were: Leicesters, rams two years and up, Adrien Paquette and J. A. Lataille.
Ram one year, J. A. Lataille; ram lambs, J. A. Lataille; ewe

CATTLE PARADE — One of the main attractions at this year's Missisquoi County Fair, was the cattle parade which featured Jersey and Ayrshire herds. According to the judges, this year's cattle exhibit was one of the best ones seen in years.

Eleven People Injured In Accidents

Eleven people were injured, one seriously, in accidents over the weekend in Sherbrooke and the surrounding district.
L. C. Molson, 43, of Alexander street in St. Lambert, was taken to the Montreal Neurological Institute suffering from a fractured skull as the result of an accident near Knowlton yesterday afternoon. Details of the accident were not immediately available.
Miss Fernande Gaudreau, 20, of 969 10th Ave. S., is in the Hotel Dieu suffering from bruises as a result of an accident in the small hours of Sunday morning when the car in which she and her brother, Real Gaudreau, 24, 322 River Ave., Lakewood, N.J., were passengers went out of control near the Rock Forest road on King st., W.
Gaudreau required only minor treatment.
Exactly 12 hours later, two people suffered light injuries when the car in which they were riding swerved to avoid another motorist and struck a large safety pole at the corner of King st., W. and Jacques Cartier Blvd.
Miss Monique Chausse and Robert Chausse, received minor bruises when their car, driven by Jean Paul Chausse, 2188 King st., W., struck a pole in order to avoid a vehicle backing towards them, driven by Miss Margaret Matthews, 330 High st.
Damages to the vehicles involved are believed to be considerable.
A 31-year-old Montreal man, Polydore Defosses, narrowly escaped serious injury early Saturday morning when the car he was driving plunged over a 65-foot embankment, on route 22, just four miles the other side of Richmond in the direction of Ulverton.

MIRACULOUSLY ESCAPED — Jean Rousseau, 1298 McManamy, Sherbrooke (see inset, right), miraculously escaped almost certain injury early this morning when the truck he was driving down Belvidere St. S., in a south-north direction, experienced a brake failure, careened down the hill and crashed into a parked car belonging to C. Castonguay, 880 Westmount, just in front of the Belvidere St. Armoury. Castonguay was not in the car at the time of the accident. The truck is owned by H. Nadeau of Sherbrooke.

According to Provincial Police information, Defosses, 2640 Frontenac st., Montreal, was on his way home when the accident occurred. Although the car is a total loss, Defosses suffered only minor bruises and was released from the Hotel Dieu in Sherbrooke after receiving first aid treatment.
The violence of the accident apparently threw the man clear of the wreck. He was hurled out of the car with such force that his shoes were found in the wreckage lying at the foot of the embankment in a small creek.
Prior to the accident, Defosses' car grazed the side of a car belonging to Rev. J. L. Dean of Richmond who had been returning home from Ulverton. Considerable damage was done to Rev. Dean's car.
Lucien Boucher, of Bedford suffered minor burns to the face yesterday evening in a two-car collision between Bedford and Stanbridge East.
The driver of the other car, Foster Wightman, also of Bedford did not suffer any serious injury. Both cars were totally wrecked according to provincial Police reports.
More heavy damages were incurred yesterday afternoon in an accident near Dunham, at the intersection of a grave road leading to Farnham Centre.
The accident apparently occurred when a car driven by Raoul Jacques, failed to observe the traffic sign at the intersection and struck a vehicle driven by Fred Southam, 44, R. R. No. 1, Brome. Neither man was injured.
Two accidents marked the traffic toll in Drummondville over the weekend resulting in a broken nose for one man and nervous shock to the other. Hermann Deschesneaux suffered a

Government's Lack Of Aid Criticized
MAGOG — (Special) — Hitting at the lack of support from the provincial and federal government for the new hospital project at Magog, Paul Emile Therrien, president of the hospital committee, appealed for more funds to continue construction.
The hospital project grew out of a dispute between members of the medical profession, the public and the officials of the La Providence Hospital over the dismissal of Dr. Jacques Pettigrew.
In subsequent fund raising campaigns enough money was canvassed to buy a property and erect the foundation of the new hospital. Work stopped after the foundation was built.
According to a financial statement released last night, some $47,605 in real estate is held by the hospital corporation.
Members of the federal and provincial governments were criticized by Mr. Therrien for not showing more interest and for not wishing to "compromise themselves."

The Parking Project Muddle

As Wednesday's referendum on the off-street parking bylaw draws closer, the behind-the-scenes battle over the Wellington Street South part of the project has become heated and bitter. The battle, unfortunately, may well doom the entire off-street parking program. If this happens, the cause of civic progress will have been set back anywhere from two to five years and the resulting accusations and recriminations will dominate civic politics for some time to come.

The basic trouble, as the Record has pointed out several times, is the way in which the parking program has been presented to the public. For this, the City Council, however sincere their motives, must accept the blame.

There are two parking lot proposals. One is to build parking facilities at the Meadow Street lot off Wellington Street North. On this project there is virtually unanimous agreement. The other proposal is for parking space off Wellington Street South. On this project there is general agreement for the necessity of facilities, but bitter division over location.

For reasons which still remain obscure to the general public, City Council has tied these two projects together for the purpose of the referendum Wednesday. They hope that the Wellington Street South project will be approved because of the overwhelming support for the Meadow Street project.

But, as Mayor Nadeau reiterated last Friday, if the referendum is defeated, separate bylaws for the two parking projects will not be presented. This take-it-or-leave-it attitude has not only stiffened the opposition from certain Wellington South interests, but has alienated the goodwill of a substantial proportion of citizens without any personal or financial stake in either project.

The bylaws should have been presented separately in the first place. In that way, those with financial interests in the Wellington South project could have been left to fight it out with city officials without causing harm to the general interest of the community. The average citizen is not the least interested in who makes a profit on the property, so long as the price is fair.

We hope the parking bylaw is approved. Sherbrooke needs the facilities. But we also hope City Council will have profited from the experience of the present unhappy muddle.

The Princess And The People

Princess Margaret's recent visit to Montreal was far from being the "informal" tour it was originally billed as.

But then, little of the Canada-wide jaunt has been "informal", with the exception of a day here, and a day there in "secluded" country spots. Even these brief respites could hardly have been called private.

Vancouver newspapers were among the first to jump on the fuss and fanfare surrounding Margaret's visit.

Only "big-wigs" were getting a decent view of the Princess, they said. The people were being deprived of their rights. The complaints were certainly justified. Many people who had waited patiently for hours to see the Princess caught only a fleeting glimpse as she was whisked in a motorcade from one official function to another.

But one wonders what can be done to correct this. Do the complaints mean that the Princess should be allowed to walk and drive around like an ordinary citizen, without a fixed itinerary, and without an entourage (which inevitably includes numbers of security-minded officials whose job it is to see that "the people" don't get too close)? Surely not.

It is only by arranging formal events, which involve "big-wigs" by the dozens, that the largest numbers of people can get any sort of a look at the Princess at specified times and specified places.

The only strictly informal part of the Princess' visit has been the relatively small number of public speaking engagements scheduled. Everything else has been arranged and organized in minute detail, which is not what ordinary people would call "informal."

But Princess Margaret is not an ordinary person. It is one of the burdens of her position as a member of the Royal Family that she should be "on exhibition", so to speak, when she travels among her people.

Regardless of what the expressed intentions of the tour were — and we were led to understand they involved allowing Margaret to see Canada — the moment she set foot on Canadian soil, her tour was "for us," so that we could see the Princess.

Informality, genuine informality, that is, was impossible.

The rigid and extremely formal schedule allowed Margaret to display the warm personality and vivacious radiance for which she is noted. Next time, however, the arrangers of Royal tours should see to it that a wider and more representative selection of the people participate in the formal functions. How about one city official, chosen by lot, instead of the whole crew? But formal arrangements there must be, if any tour is not to become a shambles.

DUMMY ENTRY SOLVED BY FOE

Here is an interesting hand played by my old partner Sherman Stearns.

His leap to six clubs was not particularly scientific, but Sherman was never one for too much science in the bidding.

Sherman won the opening heart lead and noted that he was going to have considerable trouble getting to the dummy, to discard his losing hearts. He also noted that if West happened to hold the guarded king of diamonds he was going to have no play at all for his contract.

Sherman's next step was to try to figure out a combination of cards that would let him make his contract. He might pick up a singleton king of diamonds, but Sherman found a much better possibility. West ought to have seven hearts for his three-heart bid. Now give East the king of diamonds and long clubs and the hand would make.

Sherman simply played two top clubs and continued with the deuce. East was in the lead and had no way to keep Sherman out of dummy. Actually, he led a spade and Sherman discarded his two hearts and jack of diamonds on the good spades. Now he led dummy's ten of diamonds and when East failed to cover Sherman played his nine and retained the lead in dummy for a second diamond finesse.

Q—The bidding has been:

North	East	South	West
1 Dmd.	Pass	1 Heart	Pass
1 N.T.	Pass	?	?

You, South, hold:
Spades A-Q-6-5, Hearts K-J-7-6, Diamonds Q-2, Clubs 8-7-6.

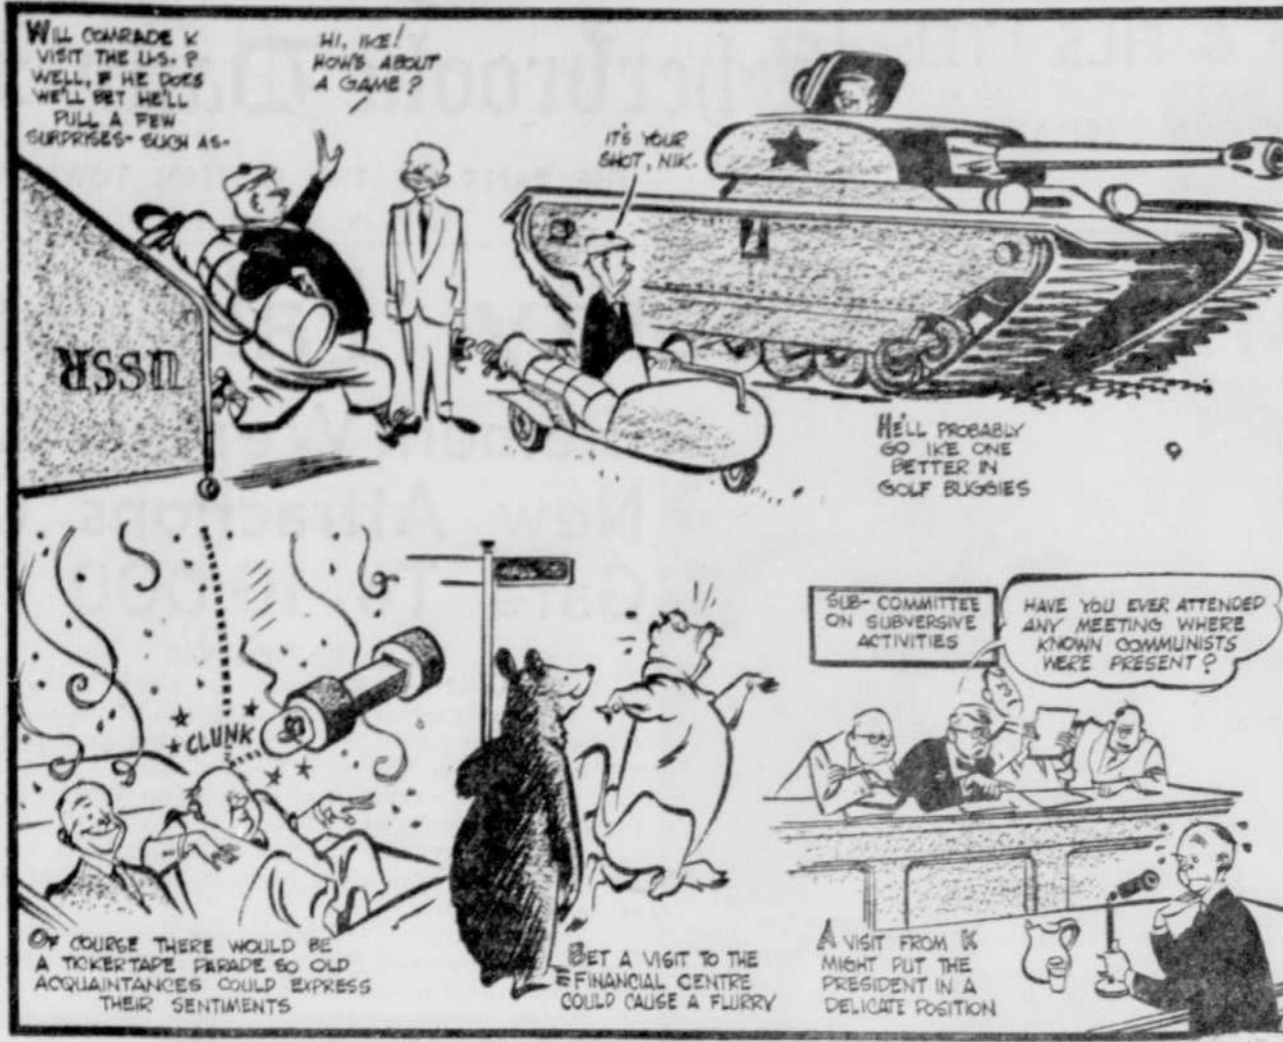

What do you do?
A—Bid a conservative two no-trump or an optimistic three no-trump as you decide.

Canada is vitally concerned with the policies of the Eisenhower government, and especially with the president's recent attempt to forestall a further restriction on American imports. The two practical questions to be answered in the immediate future are whether the United States will attempt to cure its own recession by imaginative fiscal policies and whether it will resist the temptation to export its recession by curbing imports.

Nationalism Dominant Theme

Echoes Of Boer War Linger In South Africa

Nationalism, with ultimate establishment of a republic, is a dominant political trend in the Union of South Africa. In this story a Johannesburg journalist outlines the background and development of this trend in the thinking of the Afrikaners, who represent two-thirds of the 3,000,000 white inhabitants.

By LINDSAY SMITH
JOHANNESBURG (CP) — The echoes of the last sounds of the Boer War have just died.

In this war, Britain defeated the hardy sharp-shooting Boers, a people who trace back to Holland of more than 300 years ago, and in a lesser degree to the French Huguenots who left France to live in South Africa after the revocation of the Edict of Nantes.

Canada, Australia and New Zealand lent assistance to Britain. A force of 449,000 British fought about 87,000 Boers in a war that took three years.

The last signs of the war—50 years after the signing of the Treaty of Vereeniging—have not been rifle shots, but the hammering of workmen removing in every centre of the union the last vestiges of Britain's conquest of South Africa.

In the law courts and in government buildings workmen with hammer and chisel have removed the royal coat of arms or replicas of the British crown.

The crowns on the shoulder insignia of the majors and major-generals in the army, air force and the police have disappeared, to be replaced by South African symbols. "The Queen" is no longer played on ceremonial occasions. The Union Jack no longer flies side by side with the Union flag on public buildings.

These are the signs of the victory achieved by the nationalist government in the general elections, and in the provincial councils that govern the four provinces of the Union of South Africa.

There is not an Afrikaner nationalist from ailing Prime Minister Johannes Strijdom down who does not believe that the last general election was a reversal of the military conquest of the two Boer republics, and an abrogation of the Treaty of Vereeniging that followed the Boers' defeat.

The case for the Afrikaners, who are the true descendants of the Boers who fought at the start of the century, has been well put by W. van Heerden, editor of an Afrikaans newspaper. In citing a hypothetical case on why there should be a republic in South Africa and why South Africa should not hold its present status in the Commonwealth he goes back to the Boer War and the feelings many Afrikaners have had ever since.

He asks his readers to make these suppositions: That Germany had won the First World War, ruled Britain for some years from Berlin then gave back her freedom on condition that the Kaiser remain emperor of Britain, represented in London by a governor-general. That the British after 50 years started feeling that this was no longer in accord with their national dignity and wanted their own head of state. That in the meantime a considerable German-speaking population had made its home in Britain and now said to their English compatriots: "But look we are free, we are a democracy; we are a Christian state; we are prosperous; what is wrong with you that you now want a change?" Applying this to the South African situation, he continues:

"That our population has in the meantime increased with a considerable percentage of English-speaking people who were never republicans, is readily conceded. "Precisely for this reason Afrikaans-speaking republicans do not ask for a republic as it was, but invite their English-speaking compatriots in friendly fashion: "Come and let us start build something new together, in which both will be at home."

Mr. van Heerden has been taken up on this analogy on behalf of the English-speaking South Africans, for whom it has been pointed out that he has taken no account of Commonwealth membership which confers economic and strategic benefits and that there was no German commonwealth.

Where Mr. van Heerden is also off the trail, English writers say, is that he is dealing largely with the days of President Paul Kruger and the Transvaal Republic. He has not taken into account that the two Boer states of the Transvaal and Orange Free State were at daggers drawn and that Natal and the Cape were essentially British colonies that were incorporated into the Union of South Africa together with the former Boer states of the Transvaal and the Orange Free State by the Act of Union in 1910.

South Africa, like all the other Commonwealth countries, acquired full and legal independence by the Statute of Westminster in 1931. This was largely brought about by the activities of Gen. J. B. M. Hertzog, prime minister of the union until the outbreak of the Second World War.

Gen. Hertzog was largely instrumental in drafting the Balfour Declaration at the Imperial Conference in 1926. This defined Britain and the dominions as "autonomous communities within the British Empire, equal in status, in no way subordinate one to another in any aspect of their domestic or external affairs, though united by a common allegiance to the crown, and freely associated as members of the British Commonwealth of nations."

But inherent in this declaration there has been a chafing sore—common allegiance to the crown, which is anathema to many Afrikaners. It is this that results in the chipping away of the crowns and the royal insignia and their going into storage in Pretoria vaults.

While the Afrikaners as represented by the nationalist party have held full sway in the political field and have been able to eliminate all outward signs of the British occupation, and to bring in many laws to bolster their fervent belief in apartheid, the impact of the removal of so many signs of the British conquest has been practically nil on the lives of the European population. The minority English-speaking section of the white population has not felt it keenly and

Bygone Days

Private F. J. Glass shooting for the Sherbrooke Regiment, won the grand aggregate prize at the Province of Quebec Rifle Association Meet.

From the Atlantic to the Pacific Canadians are getting to know each other better as tourist travel throughout the Dominion reaches an all-time peak, a Canadian press survey revealed today.

MOTORPRINT

(Edmonton Journal)
It may not be long before the inspirational message about footprints on the sands of time will puzzle our motorized youth. "What," they may inquire, "is a footprint?"

of course, to the 1,500,000 blacks and coloureds it has meant nothing at all.

The English-speaking section has not felt it because although the Afrikaans nationalists have a virtual monopoly of the political control of the country, British and associated interests control an estimated 89 per cent of the economic life.

So, now, throughout the length and breadth of South Africa the only crowns to be seen are one adorning the statue of Queen Victoria in the predominantly English-speaking town of Durban; and upon the heads of the periodically elected beauty queens.

Historians At Stanstead Hold Meeting

STANSTEAD —(Special)—E. J. Struthers was elected president of the Stanstead Historical Society at its annual meeting Saturday in the Registry Building here.

Mr. Struthers was also speaker. His topic was One Hundred Years of Stanstead's History in commemoration of the 100th anniversary last year of the municipality of Stanstead Plain.

Mr. Struthers gave an interesting background of the village and Rock Island. After Stanstead Plain received its Charter, Matthew Dixon, father of Porter Dixon, who was present at Saturday's meeting, became one of the first Councillors and the second Mayor, when he replaced Silas Dickerson.

Mr. Struthers presided for the business session. Byron Brown, Recording Secretary, submitted the minutes of the last annual meeting and of three executive sessions held since.

Business included announcement that an order is being placed for ten showcases for display of historical documents in the museum.

Articles of historic interest from volumes of the Stanstead Journal are to be microfilmed. A trip is planned in September to Bromo County to view the Indian field stone.

Correspondence included several letters from members expressing regrets at not being able to attend. Mr. Struthers announced that he had been in contact with the President of the Bromo County Historical Society, and that Bromo had decided to have the 1959 meeting on Aug. 8, Stanstead Society set their date for Aug. 15.

Mrs. W. V. Poapst, custodian, reported on activities the past year. A heavy vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Poapst and her committee for the vast amount of work accomplished.

It was decided that Stanstead society should become a member of the Montreal Registered Museum Council.

Miss Norma Holmes, Chronicle reporter gave an account of happenings in and around Stanstead County the past year.

Harold Baldwin, gave the roll of deceased members of pioneer families, many of whom had been members of the historical society. A moment's silence was observed.

Miss Frances V. Remick, of Ayer's Cliff, presented to the society an old and lovely nightgown, which showed beautiful

Brown, Miss Flint, Porter Dixon, Miss Mary Hackett and Miss Hortense Cowles.

Mr. Struthers introduced the speaker, Mr. Struthers, saying this was the society's way of paying tribute to Stanstead Plain Municipality's Centennial.

Mr. Struthers was thanked by Gardan LeBaron, Chairman of Stanstead College Board of trustees.

Porter Dixon spoke briefly, and Mr. Struthers asked for historic papers from other points of the county for the museum. He also thanked Mr. and Mrs. Mansel Gibson and Mrs. J. Turner for the flowers which decorated the hall.

One hundred and three people were at the meeting, from Westmount, Montreal, Sherbrooke, Cookshire, Magog, Wellsley, Mass., Ayer's Cliff, Baldwin's Mills, Three Rivers, St. Lambert, Way's Mills, Brookline, N.Y., New York City, Coaticook, Convent, N.J., Waterloo, West Hartford, Conn., Toronto, Lennoxville, Manchester, N.H., Springfield, Mass., North Andover, Mass., Boston, Tijuana, Calif., and the Boundary villages.

broken nose when his car struck a parked truck, loaded with gravel and stones. The driver of the truck, P. E. Genevieve, had just parked it outside his home prior to going in for lunch.

Maurice Goulet, driving a tractor from Montreal to Drummondville suffered nervous shock following a crash near St. Eugene on route No. 9. He was released after first aid treatment. It is believed that poor visibility was the cause of the accident.

A Sherbrooke man, Jean Rousseau, 1208 McManamy miraculously escaped injury this morning when the brakes failed on his truck as he was coming down Belvidere in the direction of the King St. W. intersection, and crashed into a car parked beside the Belvidere st., Armoury, completely demolishing it.

The car belonged to Charles Castonguay, 880 Westmount and the truck belonged to H. Nadeau of Sherbrooke. Castonguay was not in the car at the moment of the crash.

Firemen were called to prevent a fire which might have resulted from the gas tanks of the vehicles pouring their contents all over the road. The car had been pushed almost 60 feet from the point of impact.

A 17-year-old Bury boy is resting comfortably in the Hotel Dieu today, following a hunting accident yesterday.

Roy McNehey suffered a gunshot wound in the leg while out hunting Sunday with a friend. According to the hospital report, the friend's gun fired the shot.

said, "Do something, do something about that vision."

Mr. Hamilton, speaking during discussion of his department's estimates, said Mr. Hardie's "harrowing" story "moved our hearts." There could be no assurance that starvation among these northern natives would not recur, but the government was taking action.

SOME BEING MOVED

Some Eskimo family groups, particularly those in the Garry Lake area west of Hudson Bay where starvation was reported, were being moved into settlements where the government could look after them.

Northern patrols by the RCMP would be co-ordinated with those of northern affairs officers to provide better Eskimo supervision. An aircraft would be designated to sweep over the area as a kind of troubleshooter. Food caches would be supervised. But where possible, Eskimos would still be encouraged to hunt and maintain their traditional independence.

The northern affairs debate was initiated toward the end of a day which saw Commons attend once dwindle at some points to 36 members in the 265-seat chamber. The one roll-call vote ratified 91 members.

Today, the House begins marathon sittings with the government driving to terminate the session by Aug. 23. Meeting three times daily, the House will step up its weekly sittings to 41 hours from 33.

ANNOUNCES BYELECTIONS

Other developments Saturday: 1. Prime Minister Diefenbaker announced federal byelections will be held Monday, Sept. 29, in the Ontario riding of Grenville-Dundas and the Quebec riding of Montmagny. 2. Quiet Conservative A. Calvi Casselman told Grenville-Dundas until his death May 11; Liberal Jean Lesage held Montmagny. 3. It is yet to be signed on his election as Quebec Liberal leader last June.

2. External Affairs Minister Smith said he will leave for the United Nations today to prepare for the extraordinary session of the General Assembly Wednesday. He hoped the meeting would provide a way of getting down to the roots of Middle East tensions.

There was one vote during the day, called after the Liberals joined the CCF in attempting to block a vote of $56,000 to cover pay for parliamentary assistants.

Mr. Dennis was born in London and came to Canada five years ago to establish a Canadian branch of his firm. Surviving are his wife and a daughter, Mrs. Moyna Sanders of London.

Cards of Thanks

TODD — We wish to extend our most sincere thanks to all the people who helped in any way during and after the recent fire which destroyed our home. We wish especially to thank those who removed all that was possible from the house, and helped save the other buildings, and those who sent clothing for the children and ourselves; also the Red Cross and all those who provided for our immediate needs after the fire. Such kindness will never be forgotten and we regret that we do not have the opportunity to thank each one of you personally.

Sincerely,
VERA AND OLIVER TODD

Joint Concert In Cowansville Tuesday Evening

COWANSVILLE — An important event will take place here Tuesday evening when the Richard High School Band and the Cowansville Harmony Band will give a joint concert.

The group will comprise 60 musicians, 15 majorettes, a flag party of four and a drum major. The massed bands will parade from the Town Hall at 7.30 p.m. to the municipal park where it will present a program of marches, overtures and popular music.

Because the band stand is too small for the massed band, the concert will be presented in the area between the bather's pavilion and the children's wading pool.

A similar concert took place in Richford recently where there was a large turnout. In case of rain, Tuesday's concert will be performed the following night.

Arab Republic, with Belgium and India abstaining.

The Soviet draft said data presented in the report "make it plain that efforts should be made to eliminate the uncontrolled source of radiation, and to end experimental nuclear and thermo-nuclear explosions, and enable the committee to draw the conclusions that there should be an immediate cessation of test explosions of nuclear weapons."

India also submitted a draft to have the committee conclude that any rise in contamination is harmful and should be avoided, and that "nuclear tests are the main source at present which produce such a rise."

This is called desensitization, and often brings full or partial relief.

When a person is susceptible to severe ragweed hay fever and has not taken the shots, or does not get sufficient relief from them, the season is looked forward to as a time of misery. Many seek some area where ragweed is absent, or present only in small quantities. In North America there are many such regions.

However, for those people who have to stay put in an area where ragweed pollen is plentiful, there are improved measures of relief.

One of these is air conditioning, particularly if cooling is combined with washing or filtering the air.

Modern drugs are helpful. Those which have the most dramatic effects are the antihistamines. These are taken by mouth. They often bring striking improvement of symptoms for several hours at a time.

But it is hard to choose which one to use since there are so many. Some work best for some people, while other persons do better with a different preparation. Furthermore, some people are made sleepy by these drugs, and this can be dangerous.

Many sufferers are considerably helped by taking weak doses of pollen extract every day or so during the season, even if they have not had injections before. By one means or another, it is possible for most victims of ragweed hay fever today to get a good deal of relief.

DREW — BISHOP

St. Peter's Anglican Church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, August 2, when at three o'clock, Elizabeth Louise (Betty-Lou) Bishop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bishop, became the bride of John Russell (Jack) Drew, of Montreal, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Drew of this city. Rev. J. F. D. Anido, of Bishop's University, officiated. The wedding music was played by Mr. Morris Austin. The altar was adorned with gladioli and the guest pews were marked with white satin bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was in a gown of white Swiss embroidered organdy, having a sleeveless bodice with matching bolero finished with a mandarin collar and long sleeves. The full ballerina length skirt was fashioned in tiers of embroidered organdy. Her fingertip veil of tulle illusion was held by an Empress crown of lace and pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of deep red roses, white gladioli and baby's-breath.

The bride's attendants, Mrs. Ronald Knapp, as matron of honor for her sister, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Garth Bishop, her sister-in-law, Miss Beverley Bazinet, of Lachute and Miss Marilyn MacDonald, her cousin, of Scotstown, were gowned alike in light blue nylon chiffon over taffeta fashioned with fitted shirred bodices having cowl necklines and floating panels at the backs, and full ballerina length skirts. They wore matching pleated bandeaux and carried colonial bouquets of white baby mums and gladioli.

Little Miss Carol Drew, niece of the groom as flower girl, wore a white nylon frock with lace inserts in the skirt and a flowered cap in her hair. Her nosegay was of white mums and baby's-breath.

Mr. Harold Drew acted as best man for his brother, and the ushers were Mr. Jerry Conger, of Irroquois, Ont., Mr. Garth Bishop and Mr. George Spice, of Montreal.

Mrs. Drew, the bride's mother, chose a gown of navy blue embroidered nylon over taffeta, with which she wore a pink straw hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was of pink Sweetheart roses.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Drew, wore a turquoise shantung dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Rockcliffe, where the bride's table was attractively arranged with low bowls of white Shasta daisies and red roses, and centered with a three-tier wedding cake.

Leaving by car for a wedding trip to the New England States, the bride travelled in a powder blue linen sheath dress under a matching three-quarter length coat, a white straw hat and matching accessories. She wore a corsage of red roses. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Drew will take up residence at 3854 Northcliff Ave., Notre Dame de Grace.

Among the out of town guests present were: Mr. and Mrs.

Gerald Conger, of Irroquois, Ont.; Mr. Karl Conger, M.B.E. and Mrs. Conger, Ottawa; Miss J. M. Kavanagh, Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kavanagh, Farnham, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Westman, Port Credit, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. George MacDonald, Scotstown; Mr. and Mrs. M. Bunting and family, Ormstown, Que.; Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Bishop, of Marbleton, and others from Scotstown, Calumet, St. Eustache-sur-le-Lac, East Angus, Montreal and Lennoxville.

Fashion

For cool summer evenings or air-conditioned places, it's convenient to slip on a neat, attractive coverup. Easy to care for is one in washable eyelet batiste fashioned into a cocoon jacket with roll-up sleeves. Choose one in either black or white to set off summer fashions dramatically.

Mid-Summer Meeting Held By W.M.S. Executive

The mid-summer meeting of the executive of the Quebec-Sherbrooke Presbyterial of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church of Canada, was held recently in the Gertrude Scott Hall, Lennoxville. Mrs. W. H. Boomhour, of Ayer's Cliff, was in the chair.

The morning session opened with Mrs. F. A. Johnston, of Ayer's Cliff, conducting the devotional, making an appeal to move forward in missionary work. Mrs. J. Gaudet, of Quebec City, played the piano for the singing of the hymns.

Mrs. A. E. Abercrombie, in the absence of Mrs. J. H. Lane, read the minutes of the Presbyterial held in Sherbrooke in May. A satisfactory financial report was given by the treasurer, Mrs. Don MacLean.

It was reported that a new Auxiliary had been formed in Inverness, and a generous gift was received from them, the results of a recently held tea.

Arrangements were made for delegates to the school for leaders, also for the sectional meeting to be held in September. Delegates to attend these meetings will be the Presbyterial president, Mrs. Boomhour; literature secretary, Mrs. F. Ross, and Miss C. Wilson will attend the school for leaders.

Following dinner, served by the Philathea Group, the afternoon session opened with a devotional period conducted by Mrs. Boomhour.

Departmental reports followed, and Mrs. M. Fuller and Mrs. Blackburn were appointed to the nominating committee.

The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction.

Beauty Tips

Now that a free and casual life is here for a few months, don't let yourself go completely. If you neglect skin and hair now, it will take several months this fall to return them to their natural beauty. Constant use of lotions and sprays to resist drying are worthwhile, even when you're playing.

Wives See Visitors To Commons

In this, the last installment of the letter from Mrs. G. M. Stearns, she tells of "visitors to the House of Commons."

By HELEN M. STEARNS.
As wives of the members of the House of Commons, it is our privilege to occupy the seats reserved for us in the Gallery when the House is honored by a visit from representatives of countries other than our own, such as Prime Ministers, Presidents etc. Our regular passes to the Gallery do not count on these days and we are provided with special cards for these occasions.

When the gallery doors are first opened five minutes time is allowed for the seating of the members' wives and then the gallery is filled with other guests. So we must be there on time if we are to take advantage of these special privileges. I have been fortunate in being able to assist at all of these special sittings of the House. The first was for Professor Dr. Heuss, of the Federal German Republic, then Prime Minister MacMillan, the President of the United States, and finally the Prime Minister of Ghana.

They are received in the House of Commons by the members of the House and the Senate. The Senators are seated in the centre aisle of the House in chairs provided for the occasion. The heads of the different Federal Departments, Deputy Ministers etc. are seated in the House also in chairs against the walls. The Diplomat's Gallery is usually full on such occasions as are all the other galleries. It is a case of first come first served and often many guests have to stand during the ceremonies.

The guest of honor is introduced by the Prime Minister, then he or she addresses the members of both Houses, after which they are made welcome by the Speaker of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Commons.

On the four occasions when I was present, the Speaker of the Senate spoke in French and the Speaker of the House of Commons in English. Dr. Heuss spoke a few words in French after which he continued in German. It was very easy for us to follow him for we had been provided with a copy of his speech. Mr. Macmillan spoke first in English, then in excellent French. Both Mr. Eisenhower and the Prime Minister of Ghana spoke in English. The Prime Minister of Ghana and the visiting members of his cabinet wore their colorful robes of State.

My next letter will tell you of Princess Margaret's visit to our Capital city.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Adam, of Rock Island announce the engagement of their daughter, Doreen (Dodie), to RCMP Constable Marcel Simard, of Montreal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arm and Simard, St. Brigid, Quebec. The marriage has been arranged to take place on September 13.

HEAT TIP

In hot weather do not take pies with creamy fillings on picnics, since if not properly chilled they may cause food poisoning.

Social and Personal

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Heath of Lennoxville, when their daughter, Miss Beverley Heath and Miss Ann Tucker entertained at a kitchen shower in honor of Miss Beverly Bessant, a September bride-to-be.

On her arrival, Miss Bessant was greeted by several friends and relatives gathered to extend their best wishes. She was presented with a corsage of pink sweet-peas and escorted to a decorated chair, beside which stood a gift, wrapped to represent a bride. An attractively decorated basket containing numerous other gaily wrapped gifts was also presented to the bride-to-be, who was assisted in opening them by her mother, Mrs. Leslie Bessant. She graciously thanked her friends for their kindness.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Miss Gail Tucker.

Friends of Mrs. Stanley Reed of North Hatley, will be sorry to learn that she is a patient in the Sherbrooke Hospital.

The many friends of Mr. Charles Simons of Huntingville will regret to hear that he is a patient in the Sherbrooke Hospital where he is undergoing observation and treatment.

Over the years I have received a lot of letters from wives discussing their mothers-in-law, some praising them and some blaming them for most of their troubles.

The interesting thing about the letters is that, almost always, the wife who has "other-in-law trouble" refers to her husband's mother as "my mother-in-law."

But the women who write to praise a mother-in-law nearly always refer to her as "my husband's mother."

Isn't there a possibility that a wife determines, to some extent, what her relationship to her mother-in-law is going to be like by the way she starts out thinking about her?

If the moment she marries, a bride starts thinking of her husband's mother as "my mother-in-law," the relationship may have a strike against it just from the start. For she is thinking of this other woman in relationship to herself, rather than in relationship to her husband.

Possibly the wife who always thinks of her mother-in-law as "Jim's mother" gets off to a better start. Because she never forgets for a moment that the older woman isn't just a mother-in-law, but a very important person—the mother of the man she married.

This is just a theory and I can't prove it. But it certainly wouldn't hurt for a bride to give the theory a try by refusing to speak or think of her husband's mother as her mother-in-law.

Anything is worth a try if it might help to make a relationship that is so often strained a pleasant and happy and mutually rewarding one.

Presentations To Mrs. K. Hodgins On Leaving Bury

BURY — Mrs. Kit Hodgins was pleasantly surprised one afternoon when invited to the home of Mrs. Don Hopkins, to find several of her friends waiting to wish her well in her new home in Hamilton vicinity, where her husband, Kit Hodgins, has been transferred from the Canada Reels here.

A pleasant time was spent although all regret the departure of the family, as they will be much missed in the church and community activities.

Mrs. Hopkins assisted by Mrs. Hunt served a salad tea, following which Mrs. Hodgins presented Mrs. Hodgins with a matched pyjama set in case from her friends. Mrs. R. MacLeod voiced the regrets of the Woman's Association and presented her with a set of costume jewellery. Mrs. MacRae expressed the appreciation and best wishes of the choir, of which Mrs. Hodgins was assistant organist, and presented her with a token of their love. Mrs. Hodgins thanked all and expressed her regrets at leaving.

AT THE UNITED CHURCH

There was a small attendance at the song services in the United Church on Sunday evening, but those present enjoyed singing their favorite hymns and listening to the choir singing its special anthems. Gordon Boynton read the Scriptures and offered prayers. Mrs. MacRae presided at the organ and Donald Parsons received the offering.

The service on Sunday evening, August 10, was in charge of the Sunday School.

At a brief business meeting following a Sunday morning service the question of enlarging the Sunday School room was brought before the congregation, as it was felt that the regular school was no longer adequate to accommodate the growing number in the Sunday School or the activities of the church. After due consideration a unanimous vote was given to the motion of Mrs. L. D. MacLeod that the church in Gould Station, no longer in use there, be moved and added to the present Sunday School room.

Rev. and Mrs. E. Breen are now on holiday and the services are in charge of R. MacLeod, head of the committee for supply.

Braves Blast Phillies With 33-Hit Barrage, Only Two Homers Clouted; Giants Win As Cubs-Cards Divide

It will be a long time before the season's largest crowd at Philadelphia's Connie Mack Stadium will forget the Sunday fireworks display staged by the Milwaukee Braves.

Those 33 Milwaukee hits in the Braves 8-7 and 14-3 doubleheader sweep over the Phillies must still be ringing in the ears of the 32,117 spectators, as well as the six Philadelphia pitchers who tried in vain to halt the National League leaders.

Oddly enough, there were only two Milwaukee home runs, both by catcher Del Crandall. But Fred Haney's crew produced five triples and ten doubles.

In Chicago's Wrigley Field, the Cubs split a doubleheader with St. Louis Cardinals in a comedy of errors. St. Louis scored five unearned runs on as many Chicago errors to win the second game 6-2.

A Los Angeles crowd of 20,831 watched seven home runs sail over the chummy Coliseum screen, five by San Francisco batters, as the Giants outslugged the Dodgers 12-8. The attendance swelled the three-game series total to 112,107.

PIRATES SWEEP FOUR

Pittsburgh's fast moving Pirates completed a four-game sweep off Cincinnati, winning both ends of a doubleheader 3-2 and 4-3.

Saturday games: San Francisco 6 Los Angeles 3, Milwaukee 4 Philadelphia 5, St. Louis 1 Chicago 0, Cincinnati 2 Pittsburgh 5.

Relief pitcher Humberto Robinson got Milwaukee's first game victory by hurling two-hit ball through the last 6 2/3 innings after relieving reliever Gene Conley in the third frame. Torre, who batted in four runs, drove

AL Balding Fights Off Illness And Gallant Opponent To Break Record And Win Miller Open Over Tucker

TORONTO (CP)—Al Balding fought off a recurring chest ailment and a gallant opponent Saturday to win the Canadian professional match play golf championship — and $1,000 — for the third time.

And the Toronto pro did it with the largest margin in the history of the tournament, coming out ahead 8 and 6 over Kitchener's Lloyd Tucker in the final. The 22-sided triumph broke the record of Toronto's Lex Robson, who defeated Dave Sittal, also of Toronto, 7 and 6 in 1931.

It was the 32-year-old Balding's third win. He picked up the trophy in 1952 and 1954 and was runner-up to Stan Leonard in 1956 and Bill Mahwinney in 1957.

IT WASN'T EASY

But it didn't come easily.

Balding was playing Joe Noble of Toronto Thornhill in the morning semi-final when he was gripped by chest pains and a sudden surge of nausea on the seventh green, forcing him to ask for a respite.

Noble, who could have claimed the match by default, immediately offered to wait until Balding felt he could continue.

An hour later Balding went back to the course still shaking, and beat Noble 3 and 2.

Although bothered by the condition periodically since 1946, Saturday's attack was the first since 1955 when he was playing in Oklahoma. Electrocardiograms have failed to disclose the cause.

Tucker's runner-up position gave him the $650 second prize. Noble took third money of $475.

Canadians Stand Out In AL Games; Red Sox Dump Yanks; Indians And As Split; Senators Stop Orioles

Bowfield, Woodeshick, Hyde and Tomanek are not partners in a law firm. Each is an American League pitcher.

Among them they have a total of six complete games this year. But Sunday they reminded you of Lefty Grove, Carl Hubbell, Hal Newhouser and some of the other mound greats.

Ted Bowfield, a rookie from Penticton, B.C., making only his second major league start, held New York Yankees hitless until one out in the seventh inning as Boston rebounded from a 7-5 defeat to whip the American League champions 9-3.

Hal Woodeshick, Cleveland rookie, lost a 10-inning 4-2 decision to Kansas City after the Indians had walked off with an 11-2 triumph in the opener. But for six innings he held the Athletics without a hit. It wasn't until the ninth that he gave up his first run.

SAVES 16TH

Washington relief expert Dick Hyde achieved his 16th save in the Senators' first game 6-2 triumph over Baltimore.

Hyde made his 40th appearance with two runners on base in the ninth and secured Pedro Ramos' 11th victory by retiring three straight batters. Baltimore took the second game 6-1.

Dick Tomanek, a non-distinguished lefthander, turned in a spectacular two-inning relief chore for Kansas City.

Tomanek relieved Tom Gorman with the bases full, nobody out and the score tied 2-2 in the bottom of the ninth, and struck out Larry Doby, Rocky Colavito and Dick Brown. The ex-Indian fanned two more Cleveland batters in the tenth after Kansas City had broken the tie in the top of the inning.

In another doubleheader split, Detroit edged Chicago 4-3 in 12 innings after the White Sox had won the opener 5-2.

NO-HITTER SPOILED

Bowfield, 22, lost his bid for a no-hitter when Norm Siebern singled with one out in the seventh. The Yankees chased him with four straight hits in the eighth but 14 Red Sox hits insured the young lefthander's first major league triumph.

Reno Bertoia's perfect squeeze bunt scored Frank Bolling with Detroit's winning run in the 12th inning of the nightcap. Jim Rivera drove in four runs with a homer, single and sacrifice fly in the White Sox' first game 5-2 victory.

Athletics Romp To 13-5 Win Over Yankees

A barrage of eight hits which produced nine runs helped Athletics romp to an 13-5 win over the Yankees in a Little League game played at the Parade Grounds Saturday. This win for the A's leave them in a first place tie with the White Sox. These two teams meet Friday night in what could be a league decider. Tonight the Red Sox and Indians meet in a postponed tilt from August 2nd game time 6:15.

Yankees opened the scoring in the top of the second inning. Mike Mooney hitting a double and romping home on two Athletic infield errors. Athletics getting to Doherty, the Yankees pitcher, in the bottom of the second camp up with eight hits. Montgomery was rushed on to the mound to replace Doherty during this uprising but the inning ended with the A's accounting for nine runs.

One run was pushed across the plate in the top of the fourth by the Yanks. Taylor and Gerard hitting. The A's, in their half of the same stanza, got three runs on four singles one each by Gingles, Duplin, Laplame and Hebert doing the damage.

Three hits, an error and a hit by pitcher gave the Yanks three runs in the fifth. Athletics added one more to their total in the last of the fifth taking the game on the long end of a 13-5 count.

Miami Dumps Leafs 8-2 In First Game

TORONTO (CP)—Miami Marlins defeated Toronto Maple Leafs 8-2 Sunday in the first game of an International Baseball League doubleheader.

The scheduled seven-inning nightcap was halted by the Sunday curfew in the bottom of the fourth inning with the teams tied 2-2. It will go into the books as no-contest because the teams do not meet again this season.

The Marlins, led by second baseman Gerry Snyder, combed three Toronto pitchers for 13 hits in the opener. Snyder collected four hits, including a double and a triple, and scored two runs.

Hollywood—Jose Luis Cotero, 127½, Los Angeles, outpointed Irish Tommy Bain, 127½, Los Angeles, 10.

A four man team from Granby won the Southern Canada Power Trophy in the annual 36-hole competition at East Angus Saturday. The defending champions for the past four years, East Angus, were the runners-up.

The individual champion for the day was Larry Perry, Granby, who won a playoff with teammate Howard Laurie. Both finished the 18 holes of medal play with 71, one over par.

Granby had a total of 453, nine strokes better than East Angus with 462.

East Angus had a two-stroke lead after the first 18 holes. In the two-ball Frank Reid and Bert Trepanier had 72 and G. Bernier and Y. Tanguay had 79 for a 151 total while Doe and Gordon Miller had 76 and Perry Laurie 77 for 153.

In the singles in the afternoon Reid had 80, Trepanier 76, Bernier 76 and Tanguay 79 while Perry and Laurie had a pair of 71's for Granby and Doe with 75 and Miller with 83 gave the new title-holders a nine-stroke lead.

Thetford Mines placed third with 486. Their team consisted of the three Setlakwes, Ray, Henry and Steve, and Walter Smith.

Nine teams competed and some good scores were carded.

The top 10 scorers in the singles were:

1. Larry Perry, Granby—71.
2. Howard Laurie, Granby—71.
3. Don Doe, Granby—75.
4. Bill Doe, Granby—75.
5. D. Bell, East Angus—76.
6. B. Trepanier, East Angus—76.
7. G. Bernier, East Angus—76.
8. Clarkie Smith-Lenn—77.
9. Gordon Harmer, Lennox—77.
10. Ray Setlakwe, Thetford—78.

Doug Davies, Lennox—87. Gerry Millimore, district manager of Southern Canada Power Company, E. A. Jeanfavre, president of the East Angus club and Tom Bagley, mgr. of the SCP in East Angus, acted as officials for the tourney.

Valleyfield All-Stars Edge St. Jerome 3-2

MONTREAL — (Special to the Record) — A home run by catcher Lubon of the Valleyfield Little League All Stars gave his team a close 3-2 over the St. Jerome Little League all Stars Saturday afternoon in Montreal.

Valleyfield now meets the Ontario Little League Champions in Ottawa on Friday night.

Marc Cloutier's Troup Turns In Fine Performance Before 2,500 Saturday; Regatta Draws Large Entry Slate

By NEV HAMILTON

Skis smacked and water churned in the Little Lake water lanes over the weekend as Sherbrooke and vicinity residents witnessed the Dow Aqua Ski Revue on Saturday and turned out to either participate in or watch the 1958 edition of the Little Lake Nautical Club Regatta on Sunday.

A sun-bathed crowd of over 2,500 was present Saturday to see Marc Cloutier and his talented young group of Aqua Skiers go through their paces despite the choppy water which hampered their acts and in one case cancelled one altogether. The high flying kite stunt performed by Remi Cloutier had to be called off because of the high winds.

The program opened with a parade of flags carried by the female members of the show. This was followed by an outstanding demonstration of various types of skiing including doubles, crisscross, and a water ballet.

Bob Lessard, a skier of two years experience, gave an artful and comical demonstration on his flying saucer. He then joined Tris Coffin and Jerry Gilmour as they stood the attendance on their ears with difficult and equally humorous antics.

Jumps by Maureen Boyle and Marc Cloutier followed by a barefoot skiing exhibition brought resounding applause from the crowd. Marc's aquaplane stunt also brought a hushed murmur of wonder from the attendance as his boat smacked the water after climbing the thirty foot jump.

The show wound up with a pyramid of five and a Swan solo. Other members of the cast included Marion Lessard, the youngest member of the troupe, Penny Barrat, Barbara Safford, Kay Shultis, Don Woodward and boat driver Jack Isch.

The skiers and guests were feted at a reception given by Ivan Dugre, local distributor for Dow Breweries, following the show. The Revue was brought to Deauville through the courtesy of Ivan Dugre.

THE REGATTA

Boats powered by motors ranging in horsepower from 10 to 70 rocketed around the Regatta site in front of Auberge des Pins thrilling boat enthusiasts who turned out to the extent of about 2,000 under near-perfect weather conditions.

The activities were by no means limited to motor boat races as canoe and verchere competitors displayed fine form in all their events. There were two water skiing competitions, single and team, and a tilting meet which probably created more interest than any other.

In all there were seventeen classes in which some forty contestants participated.

There were twenty trophies awarded, one for each event plus three high aggregate winners. The winner of the senior high aggregate was George Emond, the women's Anne Giroux and Madeleine Lanctot, and the junior Michel Rivard.

The results in the remainder of the classes will be published in tomorrow's Record.

Marlene Stewart Streit Comes Up Sub-Par Play To Win Women's Open Golf Championship For Fifth Time

SASKATOON (CP)—Good golf won't beat Mrs. Marlene Stewart Streit when she is at her best.

The 24-year-old Toronto golfer was at her best Saturday as she scoured the Saskatoon Golf and Country Club course with sub-par play to win the Canadian women's open golf title for a fifth time.

Mary Gay of Calgary, who had lost in the open final four times previously, became a five-time loser Saturday, falling 8 and 6 in the 36-hole final despite playing a fine round in near-par figures.

In the championship consolation Saturday, Rita Lohnes of Lunenburg, N.S., won the final by defeating Jo-Ann Percy of Winnipeg 2 and 1.

Abilio Couto First To Swim Channel In '58

DOVER, England (Reuters) — Abilio Couto, 34-year-old Brazilian, Sunday became this season's first man to swim the English Channel.

He crossed from France to England in 12 hours, 45 minutes from Cap Gris Nez to east of Dover.

He had previously made four unsuccessful attempts.

Apinesville, Ohio—Willie Pep, Hartford, Conn., outpointed Jesse Rodriguez, Warren, Ohio, 10.

Raymonde Laporte And Marcel Fortier Win E. T. Mixed Golf Crown

Upset Alice Fuller And Don Doe In Three-Hole Playoff, Both Carded 83's; Mrs. McGinty-D. Davies Win Net

Miss Raymond Laporte and Marcel Fortier, playing on their home course, won the Eastern Townships mixed title at the Sherbrooke Country Club Sunday in a three-hole medal score playoff with Miss Alice Fuller and Don Doe, Granby.

Both teams fired 83 and a birdie 3 on the 10th hole, the first of the three playoff holes, just about clinched the victory for the Sherbrooke Country Club pair. 65 couples competed.

Miss Laporte and Fortier had 42-41 for 83 while Miss Fuller and Doe had 39-44-83. In the playoff the winners got a birdie while their opponents picked up a 6. The 11th hole was tied with 4's and after missing a birdie putt on the 18th hole Doe conceded the match as the new E.T. champions were putting for bogie-five from a short distance.

There was a tie for third prize between Mrs. Sandford Carter and Andre Hamel, S.C.C., and John Lindell and Claire Lindell, Asbestos, both had 85. The Lindell's won the flip. Mrs. Carter and Hamel took fourth prize. Mrs. E. McGinty and Doug Davies, Lennoxville, won the low net with 93-21½-71½. Amedee Roy and his sister, Constance, won the flip over Mrs. G. Ethier and Albert Cotterell, Mt. Orford, both teams had 72½. Mr. and Mrs. Duke Doucet, Windsor Mills, had 73 for fourth net.

Franz Stampfl Predicts Mile To Drop To 3:50

CHARLOTTETOWN (CP) — Coach Franz Stampfl of Melbourne, Australia, predicted here Sunday that the world record for the mile run would be reduced to 3:50 within the next three years. Stampfl was coach of Dr. Roger Bannister, the first man to break the four-minute mile. He and his wife are here on a three-day visit.

Now coach at the University of Melbourne, Mr. Stampfl is making a trans-Canada tour under the auspices of the Canadian Legion. He came here from St. John's, Nfld., and expects to leave Wednesday for Halifax.

The coach said, "I most emphatically believe that a 3:50 mile will be seen within the next three years." Eventually it will be lowered "into the low 40's, perhaps in 10 or 15 years time."

"Of course there is a limit, but right now it is difficult to say just what it is."

Murray Rose Better His World Record

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Australian Murray Rose Sunday bettered his accepted world swimming record in the 400-metre freestyle with a time of 4:24.5 in winning the U.S. AAU outdoor championship. He topped his world mark of 4:25.9 set in 1957.

However, Jon Konrads posted a mark of 4:21.8 in Australia last January which is up for world recognition.

Earlier, another Australian, Olympic champion Jon Henricks, cracked the AAU outdoor record in the 100-metre freestyle with a time of 55.8 seconds.

Dr. Taylor's Marshall Tass Sweeps Handicap Pace; Two Drivers Fined; Sunday's Double Of $196.80 Is Tops

Dr. C. E. Taylor's Marshall Tass, with Buster Huckins at the reins, had just too much drive last night when he copped both ends of the "D" Handicap Pace. The fast-stepping brown gelding was clocked in 2:10 3/5 on the first trip and 2:11 3/5 the second time.

In both heats driver Huckins sat behind the field, in or around fourth spot, and pulled out at the opportune time to finish ahead of the class field. In the first heat the leaders set a torrid pace going to the half in 1:05 4/5 while the second time they were picked up in 1:06. It was the best race of the evening.

Two drivers were fined over the weekend for failing to drive to win. On Saturday night Amedee Beaudoin was tagged for his poor show in the third after he had won the second half of the class three seconds faster than the first. Sunday evening it was C. Foulon who was fined for his show on Lemay's Its Me.

Dr. Taylor's double win was the only one on last night's card while Saturday A. Reynolds drove his chestnut gelding, Belle Abbedale, to top spot in both ends of the "D" Trot and Pace. They also set the top time for the evening 2:11 3/5.

The double Saturday paid $127.10 and was formed of Connelly B and Miss Ruth Gratton B. The quinellas were $39.00, $11.50 and $11.10. Last night the double of Mountain Gal and My Majesty paid $196.80 while the quinellas were $57.90, $118.90

Pitching: Dick Tomanek, Kansas City Athletics—The southpaw took over with the score tied 2-2 and the bases full of Cleveland Indians in the bottom of the ninth and fanned Larry Doby, Doby, Rocky Colavito and Dick Brown to end the threat. He struck out two more in the 10th after Roger Maris' two-run homer in the top of the inning had given the Athletics a 4-2 lead. Cleveland had won the opener 11-2.

Andre Toupin of Montreal, closed junior men's singles champion, Yvon Leblanc of Marieville, Que., and Keith Carpenter of Montreal scored the singles triumphs for Quebec.

Claude Savaria, 15, of Boucherville, Que., winner of the boys' closed final Saturday, beat Joel Glynn of Windsor, Ont., 3-6, 6-4, 6-0 in the second round open men's play.

Bobby Piers of Truro, N.S., winner by a 5-2, 6-4 score over Ricky Borland of Winnipeg in the closed juvenile boys final, defeated him again Sunday 6-4, 6-3 in first round open action. Other results Sunday involving Maritime players included a loss M. Crosby of Rothesay, N.B. to D. Raymond, Toronto in the first round of the junior women's singles. P. Dewis of Halifax defeated H. Black of Montreal in the second round of the junior women's singles and D. Woodworth of Halifax beat M. Redden of Montreal in the first round of the junior men's singles.

Vicki Berner, 13, of Vancouver, captured both the juvenile girls' and girls' singles titles in Friday and Saturday play.

Ed Warner Wins King Trophy And Sporting Rifle Championship In Annual Canada Rifle Ass'n Matches

CONNAUGHT RANGES, Ont. (CP) — The colorful Queen's match was the main event today as week-long Dominion of Canada Rifle Association matches got into full swing at these ranges near Ottawa.

Edson L. Warner of Lennoxville, Que., was top man in preliminary events fired Sunday, winning the King trophy for a perfect 105, highest total score in Cornwallis, Gagetown and Uplands matches.

Warner is a member of the five-man Canadian team that left Monday for the world shooting championship at Moscow.

As the three-day national pistol matches here wound up Sunday, Gary McMahon, 26, of Dartmouth, N.S., ended a long United States domination of the Canadian handgun championship.

He shot 1,674 points of a possible 1,800 to win the Canadian Open title. Officials of the Canadian Civilian Rifle Association of Marksmen, sponsors of the handgun meet, said it was the first time a Canadian has won the open title.

McMahon is a slight, bespectacled underwater research physicist at the Dartmouth Naval Research Establishment.

He began shooting handguns competitively only in September, 1957, but he says he shot gophers and crows on the prairies with a .22-calibre rifle as a youngster.

He suffered stomach trouble throughout the meet here.

Runner-up was C. R. Atkinson of Schenectady, N.Y., with 1,661 points.

Another Canadian team member, Gilmour S. Boa of Toronto, retained his Canadian closed smallbore rifle championship, shooting 3,162 points of a possible 3,200.

WARNER HIGHEST
 Warner was highest scorer in this meet's first national competition for sporting rifles.

Warner, 28, in this event scored 1,164 points of a possible 1,200 in 100-yard matches, and 593 of a possible 600 in matches at 50 yards.

Mrs. W. V. (Esther) Thompson of Toronto won the Canadian closed smallbore rifle championship for ladies. The event was open only to Canadians and she was the only eligible entry. Her score was a creditable 3,087 of a possible 3,200.

Loren W. Samsel of Dallas, Pa., shot 3,170 points to win the open Canadian smallbore rifle title usually taken by a U.S. shot.

Fuller And Windsor Win As Down To The Wire Battle Looms In Junior Loop; Fight For Honors Resumes Tuesday

Neither of the top two teams in the Junior Baseball League gave any ground over the weekend as both Windsor and Fuller scored wins in Sunday's play. The Cards held onto first place by downing the Athletics 8-2 in Windsor while Fuller remained one half a game out of the top spot by handing the Coaticook Canadiens an 11-1 pasting in Coaticook.

The Windsor game went only five innings because of a fifth-inning blowup by Francoise Lemire of the A's. St. Jean were carrying only nine players and when Lemire was ejected from the game the club could not continue. Roger Couture collected the win for Windsor and Brodeur was charged with the loss.

In Coaticook the Pepin club took revenge for the 9-8 upset inflicted by the Canucks last week. Led by Gregoire and Jacques they hammered out hits to collect 11 runs against Coupal and Dube on the Canadiens mound.

The Fuller win kept the Indians in the race for the last playoff position. The Tribe must win their two remaining games and the Canucks have to cooperate with four consecutive losses to give Dorey's club a tie for fourth position.

The first place battle resumes Tuesday night when Fuller will be out to jeopardize the Indians and Windsor visit the Canadiens. Thursday night should see the highlight of the season when the Cards are in Sherbrooke for a game against Fuller.

A meeting of the Junior League executive has been called for St. Jean Baptiste Hall tonight at 8:00.

REMEMBER WHEN

Lionel Conacher, the Big Train of football and hockey, said his retirement from sport was definite 21 years ago today. Conacher sat six years in the Ontario legislature and served in the House of Commons from 1949 until 1954, when he died of a heart attack playing softball. In 1950 he was voted the greatest Canadian athlete of the half-century.

Orleans County Fair Opens Wednesday At Barton, Vt.

Variety Of Entertainment Scheduled For 5-Day Exhibition

BARTON, Vt. — The Orleans County Fair, Vermont's oldest opens here Wednesday, Aug. 13, for five fun-filled days. This will be the 91st annual exhibition in the heart of Vermont's dairy land.

As in past years, a full program has been prepared with a variety of stage shows, racing attractions, farm exhibitions and contests, midway thrills and many other events for both young and old.

The gates will open at 9 a.m. Wednesday and the judging of exhibits will start shortly after. A horse show sponsored by the Lyndonville Riding and Driving Club, will take place Wednesday and Thursday mornings at 10:30. Harry Frick and C. A. Briggs will act as judges and Earl Davidson will be ring master. Paul Rexford, announcer at the shows, is also one of the chairmen with C. D. Urie and F. P. Davis.

Returning to the Fair this year with several new thrillers is Joie Chitwood and his World Champion Auto Daredevils. One act will feature Bobbie Collier, 24-year-old Hollywood stunt girl performing hazardous stunts on speeding autos, and there will be a spectacular 85 foot ramp-to-ramp leap of a new 1958 Chevrolet. This act will be an opening day attraction only, with performances in the afternoon and evening.

On Thursday a Tractor Rodeo will test the skill of both junior and senior farmers in the handling of farm tractors. The rodeo will get underway at 10 a.m. and will continue after lunch.

A jungle racing and wild animal exhibit on Thursday afternoon and evening will include a grand parade of all the animals and audience participation in many of the racing events. There will be racing grayhounds, elephants and ponies, llama and goat teams and an Arabian camel race. Vidbel's Military Elephants, a Shetland pony race for children, a Circus riding school, a barnyard race and Dime Wilson's comedy mule.

Thursday night is political night for county and state offices and candidates will be introduced from the stage and will also be invited to participate in the animal racing events.

That favorite of all county fairs, harness racing, will occupy a large part of the program. A full card of races is scheduled for Friday and Saturday afternoons, Aug. 15 and 16, plus a grand cavalcade of premium stock.

On Friday, the racing card is as follows: C Pace, D Pace, 2-year-old Trot and 28 Trot. On Saturday the following card will be presented: 28 Pace, Free-For-All, C Trot, 2-Year-Old Pace and D Trot. All races will be for purses of $400, and a trophy will be presented to the winner in each class.

A special trophy will go to the driver winning the most dashes and in the event of a tie, it will go to the winner with the fastest time.

Two horse-pulling contests will be staged on Friday and Saturday mornings. The first, on Friday, Aug. 15, will be for teams weighing under 3000 pounds and another for teams weighing under 3500 pounds. Purses in each case will be $100.

Fair Officers

President of the Orleans County Fair this year is Howard Conley of Glover, Vt.; vice-president is Delbert Smith, Barton, Vt., and secretary is Phyllis Griffin, Orleans, Vt.

Hester Webster, Glover, Vt., is treasurer and Betty Putney, Glover, is assistant treasurer.

On Saturday, Aug. 16, two contests, "open to the world", will be held. The first, with a purse of $100 will be for teams weighing under 3200 pounds. The second will be a free-for-all, with a purse of $150.

The feature grandstand attraction on both Friday and Saturday evenings will be the Shorty and Smokey Warren Show. This top Country and Western show will feature guest stars from the Ozark Jubilee, Jimmie Dean Show, Grand Ole Opry and other country shows. Included will be such personalities as Justin Tubb, Ray Lunsford, Gordon Terry, Billy Willow and Jimmie Skinner.

The gates will open at 2 p.m. Sunday, the closing day of the fair, and on stage in the afternoon and evening will be Havana Holiday Revue, a show the whole family will enjoy.

This lavishly staged production will feature the beautiful precision dancers, the Manhattan Rockets; Tuffy, the performing bear; Matt Tuck, foot juggler; Lona and her pet dog act; The Kelroys, trapeze artists; Joe Phillips with Smokey, the wonder horse, and Shep, the wonder dog; the Staneks, teeterboard acrobats and The Hoffman jugglers.

ENTERTAINMENT SPECTACULAR AT ORLEANS COUNTY FAIR — BARTON, VT. AUGUST 13 - 14 - 15 - 16 - 17 COME ONE! COME ALL! BRING THE WHOLE FAMILY!

OPENING DAY — WEDNESDAY

Automotive "crash" events, exhibitions of precision driving on two wheels over elevated rampways and a daredevil's ride in the amazing ramp-to-ramp thriller.

A number of new motorized thrillers, including a cycle leap over several parked cars to a receiving rampway, will also be featured in the 90 minute card of death-defying events.

Jimmy Johnson, of Santa Monica, Cal., former short track cycle champion on the Pacific Coast, will attempt the amazing cycle leap over three parked cars directly in his path, hurdling his machine 40 ft. through space before landing on a 28 inch wide rampway.

Other events scheduled include the deliberate crash roll over of a speeding stock sedan end-over-end, thrilling exhibitions of precision driving, the terrifying "Dive Bomber" crash, and the first appearance of Hollywood stunt girl, Bobbie Collier.
