CANADA AND THE UNITED STATES

Said to Have Reached a Settlement on the Tariff Rates—Basis of Alleged Agreement.

Washington, March 26.—General satisfaction is expressed here at the announcement made to-day that an agreement practically has been reached between the officials representing the Canadian Government and President Taft and Secretary of State Knox, respecting the adjustment of the tariff of Canada and the United States. No one in authority is willing to discuss the details, but there is good ground for the belief that material concessions have been granted by Canada and that the United States will receive in return for its minimum intermediate rates given by Canada to France on a considerable number of articles in which exporters from the United States are specially interested. This understanding is said to have been reached after a prolonged conference to-day participated in by W. S. Fielding, the Canadian Minister of Finance, Geo. P. Graham, the Canadian Minister of Railways, President Taft, Secretary of State Knox, and Chas. N. Pepper, of the Bureau of Trade Relations of the State Department. Under the existing treaty between Canada and France the latter country receives the conventional rate on about ninety articles. As to many of these, however, the United States has little or no interest, and there is reason to believe that the United States Government has consented to receive the intermediate rate on much less than half that number. The tariff experts, who have so successfully concluded this work, take particular pride in the fact that for the first time the United States now enjoys the minimum tariff rates of all important nations. Heretofore American goods have generally paid the maximum rates and have had to force their way into foreign markets solely on the basis of their superior merits or because they could not be produced outside of the United States. The possibility of a temporary breach in the relations with Canada, owing to the expiration next Thursday of the period allowed by the Payne-Aldrich act for the making of such arrangement was at one time regarded as very close. But it is now said that it will not be necessary to consume time in the Canadian Parliament in giving the arrangement vitality by legislative enactment, for the reason that it can be put into operation at once by an order-in-council which is likely to be the course followed.

Although details of the arrangement are refused at this moment, it is understood that it was concluded upon the basis of future negotiations between Canada and the United States for a general trade treaty between the two countries. Canada has four rates of tariff which differ materially from one another. The rate which the United States probably will receive is rate No. 3, the treaty rate and, within the limitations as to the number of articles involved, is the same as that allowed to France under the existing treaty. Up to this time about one hundred and two nations and their dependencies have been granted American minimum rates and this leaves only about twelve countries upon which action is still to be taken. These include Canada.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL

Immigration from the United States—A Man's Foolish Act—Young Man Shoots Himself.

Ottawa, March 27.—Mr. White, Inspector of Canadian Immigration Offices in the United States points, says that in the eleven months of the present fiscal year, 86,488 immigrants entered Canada from the United States, an increase of 50,650 over the previous fiscal year. In the last few years each settler from over the border has averaged $1,000 in capital.

Henry Thompson, of Laurier Ave. West, started for the cellar of his house this morning at 3 o'clock with a candle and can. He got turpentine to pour on a stove so as to make his sick wife a cup of tea. When he poured on the turpentine an explosion occurred. Fortunately the man was uninjured and rescued his wife and family but lost the best part of his household effects.

Eugene Bordenale, aged 18, son of the proprietor of the Rialto Hotel, shot himself in the forehead at a lunch counter this evening. He was playing with a revolver, not knowing one shell was in it and jokingly placed it to his head and pulled the trigger. His parents were in Montreal when the fatality was reported to them.

FATAL ASSAULT BY A POLICEMAN

Philadelphia, March 27.—Wm. McGuire, a young automobile tire salesman, died to-night from injuries received early this morning when, according to witnesses, Frank Connolly, a recently appointed policeman, attacked him without provocation and fractured his skull with a club. Connolly is under arrest, having been held without bail at a hearing this morning to await the result of McGuire's injuries.

Philadelphia, March 26.—The general sympathetic strike in support of the trolley men which was in force three weeks, came to an end to-night and to-morrow the Central Labor Union will direct that all sympathetic strikers return to work Monday morning. At the same time the Central Labor Union will ask all union men to give financial support to the street car strikers until their demands are granted by the Rapid Transit Co. Each union man will be asked to contribute one day's pay each week. The Transit Company to-day operated about 1,300 cars out of its normal number of 1,800. Few cars were attacked and the day was exceptionally quiet.

LIEUT. SHACKLETON IN WASHINGTON

Presented with the National Geographical Society's Medal by President Taft.

Washington, March 26.—In the presence of President Taft and an audience which taxed the capacity of Convention Hall, Lieut. Sir Ernest Shackleton to-night gave a graphic description of his dash for the South Pole. The lecture was under the auspices of the National Geographical Society. Lieut. Shackleton paid high tribute to the men who accompanied him on his dash. He said if he had fifty pounds more of solid food he would have reached the pole. The first mention of either of the recent Arctic explorers was made by the President in his speech, presenting the Hubbard medal on behalf of the National Geographical Society. Standing face to face with Lieut. Shackleton the President said the medal was the evidence of the society's high appreciation of the marvellous work that you have done in the cause of science, the endurance, courage and intelligence shown in the pursuit of a definite object. "I am sure," he continued, "that you will more appreciate the medal as it comes from the National Geographic Society that has among its prominent members that distinguished American, Commander Peary, who, while you were working at the South Pole, was himself surrounding the North Pole."

The lieutenant, in making his reply, said he felt sure that the English people would receive Commander Peary as cordially when he lectured in England as he (Shackleton) had been received since he stepped on American shore.

HORRIBLE DEATH OF A YOUNG GIRL

Murdered, Her Body Partially Burned, Placed in a Sack and Thrown Out.

New York, March 26.—The body of Ruth Wheeler, the little girl graduate, who was lured from her widowed mother last Thursday by a decoy offer of employment, was found late this afternoon huddled in a gunny-sack on a fire escape outside the apartment of Albert Wolter, the man charged with her abduction. She had been strangled with a short end of rope, hacked with a knife, burned beyond recognition and thrust carelessly out of doors, like so much rubbish. Identification was possible only by shreds of clothing and fragments of jewellery, but there was abundant evidence of how the murder was done. Around the neck were the charred fibres of manila rope burnt into the flesh. The apartment reeked with kerosene. There were oil stains in front of the newly painted fireboard that hid an open grate. The girl's clothing and hair had been saturated with kerosene, the fireboard had been removed and the body thrust up the chimney standing. When the match was touched to her she burned like a torch. Probably the murderer had hoped for an opportunity to remove the body under cover of the night, but when the girl's disappearance raised such an uproar and he began to suspect he was shadowed, he had packed up and fled.

This afternoon a neighbor living on the same floor of an adjoining house had noticed the lumpy bundle outside his window, and thinking it refuse, had poked it off the fire escape into the backyard with a broom handle. The bundle moved obstinately and fell with a crash. His curiosity aroused, the neighbor hurried downstairs for the janitor to investigate. When the two men cut the strings that bound the sacking there rolled out before them the full horror of an atrocious murder. Both fled for the police.

Ruth Wheeler was 15 years old, the youngest of three sisters, bred by their mother, a dress-maker, to self-support. Both the elder sisters are stenographers and Ruth had just been graduated from a business college. An employment agency for graduates is conducted by the College and Ruth called there often to look for a situation. Thursday morning she left home on her usual errand and never returned. The girl had been carefully brought up. She was never on the street at night and her failure to come home for twenty-four hours without explanation meant more than a caprice. The next morning her sisters, Pear, and Adelaide, in serious concern, went to the College and learned that the following postcard had been turned over to her:

"Dear Madame—Please call in reference to position of stenographer at residence of the secretary." (Signed) A. Wolter, 722 East 75th Street."

Investigation at the address given soon showed that Wolter, whose name his landlady described as a sickly, white-faced youth of about 20, with flashy clothes and elaborately curled hair, had left the apartment where he lived with his wife earlier in the same day. He received many calls from young girls, said the landlady, and she had particularly noticed that one who called was fresher of face and better dressed than the ordinary run of them.

With Wolter fled, the detectives waited for his wife. When she appeared they trailed her to a corner where she met a man answering Wolter's description. He was immediately arrested, taken back to the rooms he had vacated and searched. At first he denied writing postal cards to the schools but when detectives turned up answers from business schools addressed to him at various house numbers, he admitted the correspondence but could not explain it. Before a magistrate he had nothing to say, but to others he admitted that the woman with whom he was living is not his wife. He met her shortly after coming to this country from Germany two years ago, he said; they fell in love and set up housekeeping. Last summer he and she had worked at Irvington-on-the-Hudson, at a boarding house. They came to this city last month and since then the woman had supported him by working in a laundry. She has not been arrested.

The parents of Albert Wolter, when found to-night, told in broken English of the difficulty their son had brought upon them.

"He was always crazy about women," said the mother. "From the time he was a little boy it was always dancing pleasure, women, women with him."

The father, a piano tuner from Dresden, Germany, said Albert was two years younger than the wife he had given the police.

New York, March 27.—Albert Wolter, the youth in the fire place of whose rooms were found yesterday portions of the burnt body of Ruth Wheeler, the young stenographer, who had been missing since last Thursday morning, was committed to the Tombs without bail to-day charged with the girl's murder. At a continuation of the police quiz to which he was subjected last night, he persisted to-day in his denial that he had ever seen the girl, ever had written to her, or knew how her body came to be on the fire escape outside his window, or why fragments of human feet, hands and arms, all partly incinerated, were found in the ashes of his fireplace.

Katie Miller, or Kaetchen Mueller, the girl with whom he lived, was arrested to-day as she approached the house where the murder was committed. She was reading the details in a German newspaper as she walked and smiling as she read. During a long examination by the police, she held steadily to a consistent story that she knew nothing of the crime until she read of it in the newspapers. On Thursday night, when she returned from work at the laundry where she earned six dollars—and gave it all to Wolter—she said she noticed that the stove in front of the fireplace had been moved, the fire board newly painted and a colored lithograph pasted over the hole where the stove pipe formerly entered. When she asked Wolter why he had done this, he had answered that summer was coming, and they would not need the stove. She had not even known that Wolter had received a visitor, she says, until Pearl Wheeler, the dead girl's elder sister, had called on Friday morning to ask if Ruth had been there. Wolter had denied it, but the Mueller girl says he was uneasy after the interview and that she became jealous and accused him of harboring another woman in the flat. Again he denied it. Friday morning she went to work again and that afternoon Wolter was arrested. When she was shown the night shirt in which part of the charred body had been wrapped, the girl positively identified the garment as Wolter's. She also identified the gunny sack in which the head and trunk of the victim had been placed as having been used by her and Wolter to hold kindling wood. The girl was committed to the House of Detention as a material witness.

An autopsy to-day showed that Ruth Wheeler had been strangled with a rope and then the bones of the arms and legs were broken to admit the body more readily to the narrow throat of the chimney. Why the cuts on the body were made does not appear.

QUEBEC, MARCH 29, 1910.

THE NATIONAL BATTLEFIELDS COMMISSION.

The above organization, which up to a short time ago was in hiding on Cook street, Quebec, with no definite head to it nor tale either—that is, no visible president or appointed secretary—has found itself at last in company with the Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, Minister of Justice, through whom it has been asking Parliament to remove some of the practical difficulties it has been experiencing in line with the statute under which the said Commission was created two or three years ago. We did not know that the Commission had met with any more of a practical difficulty in its way than its own immobility. The Commission has, we are now told, been without the active services of a secretary from the time Sir George Garneau thought he could dispense, in his summary way, with Mr. H. J. J. B. Chouinard's services. And now that it has a secretary-superintendent—and an able superintendent too, in the person of Mr. C. E. Gauvin—that great main difficulty of self-immobility may be obviated with or without, an additional act of Parliament, since the public are no longer without the secretarial means of finding out what the Commission is doing and what further help the public may reasonably be expected to give it in its operations. The Chronicle has repeatedly asked about the doings of the Commission, in the most respectful tone possible, without knowing where the Commission was located, and without drawing the shadow of the shade of a reply from any of its members—from Sir George Garneau up or down. It is true that we had heard of the demolition of a bran new residence on the St. Foye Road near the Monument which had been sold by the proprietor to a member of the Commission before being finally sold to the Commission to be pulled down. Now the Commissioners have secured the right to expropriate all the property they need, and have secured the services of a secretary-superintendent, the public ought to be able to discover more about its exploitations than there is to be seen in the window of a Buade street store.

PUBLIC UTILITIES AND THE BATTLEFIELDS COMMISSIONS.

In this connection, would the query be out of order, were any one to ask whether the Public Utilities Commission is to have any oversight of the Battlefields Commission. The latter has charge of certain public moneys, of which there ought to be some public accounting, when the time comes. The time came for the placing of the accounts of the Tercentennial Executive before the General Committee. But no meeting of the latter body has ever been called to receive even a pro forma audited statement, far less to examine the various expenditures for themselves. They say that a statement is to be found of the expenditures in the Auditor-General's Report; but how many of those who were connected directly and indirectly with the celebration, have had access to that report? The Auditor-General's Report is a document which reaches our members of Parliament only, and Sir Geo. Garneau ought to have seen to it that the public were provided with a specially printed statement of the disbursements. Even now he is responsible for the issue of such a statement, and the public will not halt in their impertinence to have such until he takes steps even yet towards giving it to them. And as a corollary to this, the public would know now and immediately to whom the Battlefields Commission are responsible for the disbursements of public money—some of it being raised by public subscriptions. Can the Public Utilities Commission step in to inspect or regulate a public utility of this kind? Is the function of the Battlefields Commission a public utility in the eye of the law directly or indirectly? Is there a full complement of members on the Commission at present? Does Sir George Garneau propose to hold a seat on both Commissions? If not which one is he going to resign? Has he made up his mind to treat the public with the disrespect of silence much longer?

MR. CHOUINARD'S LETTER.

Mr. H. J. J. B. Chouinard's letter in our Saturday's issue is an eye-opener as to the courtesy which has been meted out to those who took an administrative share in the late Tercentennial celebration. Mr. Chouinard's statement cannot be overlooked either by the Battlefields Commission collectively or by Sir George Garneau individually. If the latter refuses explanations to the public, the original Executive Committee of the Tercentennial celebration will have to meet in spite of his nonchalant treatment of them, and make explanations of their own to the public. All manner of rumors are abroad about this matter which cannot be handled by the press until some definite explanations are forthcoming. The Chronicle has been accused of unnecessary intermeddling with Sir George Garneau's affairs, and now Mr. Chouinard will no doubt be accused of having a personal interest at stake in his exposure of the treatment he has received at the hands of those who took advantage of his valuable services in the inauguration of affairs so pregnant with historic éclat for our city. But the childishness of such a defence in no way changes the aspect of affairs, as far as the public are concerned. There must now be a clearing up of the whole case, even to the minutest details.

THE MINIMUM TARIFF, THE MAXIMUM TARIFF AND RECIPROCITY.

The contradictory gossip, that has of late been going on on both sides of the line and even in Great Britain over the possibility of a tariff war, arising between Canada and the United States is so pregnant with improbabilities that it has been more or less of a folly to discuss the matter with any hope of reaching a definite conclusion. For the United States to impose the maximum imports on Canadian goods means retaliatory strife. To retain the minimum tariff means the most friendly attitude, while reciprocity means the breaking down of all discrimination. The Hon. Mr. Fielding's present mission to Washington is to maintain the trade relations between the two countries much as they are—at least to neutralize the threats that have been made by the United States to impose the maximum tariff on Canadians. The day on which Parliament adjourned for Easter holidays, Mr. Lewis did his best to get Mr. Fielding to give some kind of a clue as to what passed between President Taft and him on the previous Sunday at Albany, giving him the assurance that the Conservatives of the House were ready and willing to back him up in his attitude, provided he stands by his guns not to give way one iota to any proposed infringement on Canadian rights. "If there are to be any guns used in this connection," said Mr. Fielding, "we will be exceedingly glad to have Mr. Lewis along with us behind the guns. But if we can avoid the use of guns altogether, that will be much better." And, when Mr. Lennox went one better than Mr. Lewis and asked the Finance Minister to assure the House that he would not agree to admit the United States to participate in the intermediate tariff, or otherwise to alter the present tariff conditions between the two countries, without first submitting the proposals to Parliament, Mr. Fielding answered that were he to give such a promise he might be revealing no state secret by giving such a promise, but he would certainly be disclosing a policy that might embarrass the freedom of negotiations which all desire the government to have. In other words, Mr. Fielding has it in his mind to make the matter a party question should he come to any kind of an amicable arrangement with the Washington authorities. When he makes his report to Parliament after the Easter recess, the Liberal phalanx in the House will, as usual, be drawn up to vote for any tariff Mr. Fielding has arranged with the Washington authorities to have put in force. In regard to Reciprocity there has always been a small party in Massachusetts in favor of establishing a system of unimpeded trading between Canada and the United States. For eight years Mr. Eugene U. Foss, of Boston, has been a strong advocate of reciprocity with Canada. A few days ago, he was elected representative of one of the Congressional districts in Massachusetts, and he feels assured that reciprocity is on the way of being accepted by the New Englanders as a means of improving the trade of the United States. Sir Wilfrid Laurier used to be as sanguine an advocate of reciprocity—yes, of "Unrestricted Reciprocity"—as Mr. Foss is; and it may be remembered how his canvass in its favor never got beyond the rhetorical stage. In a word, there is no present solution of the tariff question in reciprocity. All that remains for us is to wait patiently until Mr. Fielding tells his followers in Parliament to stand by their guns or run away from them as he and Sir Wilfrid issue their mandate of instant obedience. There is the maximum tariff, and the intermediate tariff and the minimum tariff. Which is it to be? Which must Canada accept? And the answer comes, whichever Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Fielding, as two personal units in our great Confederation, make up their minds to accept, when the time comes. Be ready with your votes, ye gentlemen of the Liberal guard to stand by "your guns" in the usual way!

THE BATTLESHIP OF THE FUTURE

In a recent paper on "The Battleship of the Future," Rear-Admiral Bacon, ex-Director of Naval Ordnance, put forward the following views:—

Battleships, unable to defend themselves against any form of torpedo craft, will be built merely to fight battleships.

Size of ships and power of gun will increase.

High speed will become more and more necessary.

Armour protection will be less accentuated than at present.

Heavy armament will be carried, consisting of guns of equal calibre only.

Smaller guns will be carried only for repelling torpedo attack, and will not be protected by armour.

Each battleship will be accompanied by torpedo craft of high sea-going speed, "as defensive and offensive satellites," the whole forming a "battle unit."

The fleet action of the future will be an aggregation of duels between opposing battle units.

The tactics of such units "open up a vista of most exhilarating speculation, and will afford to the naval officer of the future a scope for his tactical skill never dreamed of by us or our predecessors."

In drawing these conclusions, says the Daily Mail, Admiral Bacon evidently took into consideration the growing power of the torpedo, which weapon was as yet in its infancy, and might yet be improved to such an extent as to command a range of 6,000 yards. Regarding a statement to the effect that a Dreadnought could not be manoeuvred satisfactorily with a fleet, he characterized it as a gross libel, arguing and, considering that he was the first to command the Dreadnought, his word should have some weight—that this battleship was more easily handled than the Irresistible, whose tonnage was fifty per cent. less. Nor does he stop here, for he says that no naval officer of experience, unless he be an automaton, could find any difficulty in handling vessels half as large again as a Dreadnought.

On returning to England from his tour in the overseas dominions, Sir Albert Spicer produced his plan for an Imperial Council of Commerce at the jubilee meeting of the Association of Chambers of Commerce. The suggested basis of this scheme, which was approved, is ten members for Britain, four for the Dominions of Australasia, Canada and South Africa, three for India, two for the Crown Colonies, Protectorates and Dependencies, and nine overseas representatives visiting Great Britain from time to time.

As an offset to the information that some twenty thousand persons have recently emigrated from this province, the news comes from Boston that a considerable movement of French-Canadians employed in New England industrial centres to Canada during the next few months is indicated by the reports of transportation agencies and by despatches from Ottawa and Montreal. The Canadian Government officials who have colonization agents at work in New England, say that the bulk of the repatriation movement is directed toward the new provinces in the Northwest, where free lands and other special inducements are offered to responsible settlers. A despatch from Montreal says that nearly six hundred families will leave New England for the Northwest within a month.

One of the most representative business papers in the United States, the New York Commercial, in an editorial on the tariff question, says:—"Canada stands third among the nations of the world as a buyer of United States products. Per capita of population she stands first. We sell to Canada twenty-five dollars' worth of goods a year for every man, woman and child in the country. Canada sells to the United States in return seventy-five cents' worth per capita of our population. So Canada can look with a good deal of equanimity on the course of United States diplomacy during the next few weeks. Our own producers are the ones to do the worrying."

Evidently, Mr. Joseph Martin is not the only politician of Canadian training to occupy the English limelight. It now transpires that Mr. Macmaster is suggested to play the role of William, the Conqueror, in the Empire Pageant, which is to take place this summer. Another of the scenes is called "The Mourning Triumph," and deals with the receipt of the news of the fall of Quebec and the deaths of Wolfe and Montcalm. This will be enacted by the borough of Woodwich and the Canadian Club of London.

100,000 TONS OF COAL ON FIRE

A Most Spectacular Scene—Loss
Over $200,000—Two Hundred
Horses Stamped

New York, March 25.—Fire in the coal pockets of Burns Bros., just west of the Communipaw, N.J., freight terminal of the Lehigh Valley Railroad and the Central Railroad of New Jersey, broke out shortly before ten o'clock to-night and at midnight was burning with a fury that gave little hope it could be controlled. There were 100,000 tons of coal, both hard and soft, in the pockets and many loaded coal cars standing 35 feet above on a trestle 1,400 feet long. Damage to the trestle was estimated by Chief Conway, of Jersey City, at $60,000 and loss on the coal at $150,000 or more. The fire was spectacular in the extreme. As the flames worked beneath the heavy steel coal cars, they heated them first while hot against the sky and then plunged them with a shower of sparks into the furnace below. The firemen were hampered by the panic of 200 horses freed from nearby stables.

BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD
Toronto, March 25.—To memorize during the ensuing year between seven and eight hundred Biblical verse and a score or more of Christian hymns is the project launched to-day for the Baptist Sunday Schools of Ontario and Quebec. In its working out the Church hopes to encourage its young people to get an early grip on the Scriptures and sacred teaching. The plan was submitted and discussed at the semi-annual meeting of the Sunday School Board of the Baptist Convention of Ontario and Quebec, which met in the library of McMaster University to-day. Among those present were Rev. John Pierce, Rev. A. P. McDonald, Aylmer; Rev. H. C. Priest, Strathroy; Rev. J. R. Webb, Peterboro; Rev. J. N. Morton, Huntsville; Rev. C. R. Jones, Goderich; Rev. J. C. McLean, Blenheim; Rev. H. E. Allen, Hamilton; Mr. H. L. Stark, Toronto, was chairman. Teaching training was also discussed. For the first standard teacher training course the Board adopted the text books prepared by the Provincial Association in conference with denominational committees. In Fort William School twenty teachers are taking the course. Rev. B. W. Merrill, was appointed to represent the Board at the Sunday School convention to be held in Washington in May.

SERIOUS FIRE AT WINDSOR
Windsor, Ont., March 25.—Fire believed to have started in the basement of the Ungar-Williamson Laundry on West Sandwich street soon after Thursday midnight destroyed the entire block in which it was located. D. M. Ferry & Co.'s seed house and the laundry were completely destroyed, and the Pinkie Lee Peabody Overall Company suffered a partial loss. The loss is upwards of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars. The total insurance is not yet obtainable. Wm. Girard, a fireman, was badly injured by a fall of forty feet when the building on which he was standing with a pipe line collapsed. Assistance was asked of Detroit and the big fire boat Battle was sent across and did valiant service, but the fire had gained such headway before it was even discovered that nothing more could be done than to confine it to the Ferry building.

TO PREVENT NEGROES VOTING
Annapolis, Md., March 25.—Late to-night in a caucus of the Democratic members of the Legislature looking to the disfranchisement of the negroes of this State, it was decided to adopt the Digges plan. This is based on the fact that the State of Maryland has never ratified the fifteenth amendment to the Federal constitution, which gives negroes the right to vote. It provides that as the constitution of the State gives the ballot to white men only, negroes may be refused registration. It is not intended under this plan to attempt to prevent negroes voting at Congressional or Presidential elections, the restriction applying only to State and municipal elections.

DIED WHILE READING
Toronto, March 25.—Sitting in her chair as if she were reading, Mr. M. J. Land, 58 years of age, died some time during Thursday night in her room at 268 Wellington street West. Having heard or seen nothing of Mrs. Land since the previous night, Mrs. Strong, landlady of the house, became alarmed and with another lodger forced open the door of her room about noon to-day. Coroner J. P. McConnell, who was notified, said that there would not be an inquest. Mrs. Land came from England a number of years ago and has no living relatives in this country.

THE PRIZE RING
Pittsburg, March 25.—Owen H. Zeigler, the last man who fought Jack McAuliffe, has announced his intention to meet the former lightweight champion if he carries out his reported intention to enter the prize ring. Zeigler fought McAuliffe at Coney Island Nov. 19th, 1894, wherein the third round McAuliffe broke his arm and there was no decision. That was the last time McAuliffe appeared in the ring. Zeigler says he is ready to post $5,000. Zeigler, like McAuliffe, has been out of the prize ring for many years. He is physical instructor of the Oakland Athletic Club here.

THE VERITABLE SOLUTION OF THE HOME PROBLEM

The heart of Quebec City may have its charms and attractions—for those who love close air, noise, unhealthy draughts, the neighborhood of hospitals, the smoke of factories, the heat of asphalt, and even the doctor's visit, the run to the druggist, and the infectious contagion of narrow alleys. But for those who find no attraction in crowded districts, in the smoke-laden atmosphere of great centres, the turmoil of streets encumbered with traffic, the contact of tuberculosis persons, etc., hurrah for the new banlieue, modern accommodations, healthy localities, and they say

BLACK KNIGHT STOVE POLISH
Look how much "Black Knight" Stove Polish you get for 10c.
None of your stinky little tin of fine powder (that must be mixed with water) or a hard cake (that must be scraped)—but a big generous tin of coal black paste, that is easily applied, and bursts into a brilliant, lasting shine after a few rubs.
You certainly do get 10c. worth of the best stove polish, in the big 10c. cans of "Black Knight."
Send us 10c. for a large can postpaid if your dealer does not handle "Black Knight."

EASTER RALLY OF SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Interesting Gathering Held at the Methodist Church Yesterday Afternoon.

The annual Easter rally of the Quebec Sunday School Union took place yesterday afternoon at the Methodist Church, and was attended by a large gathering of scholars as well as adults. The meeting was presided over by the Rev. G. H. Cobbleick. The singing was very hearty, several Easter hymns being sung. The responsive Scripture lesson was led by the Rev. H. A. Ellis, while the Rev. A. T. Love offered prayer. The first speaker was Dr. Oscar Thompson, House Surgeon of Jeffery Hale's Hospital, who delivered a very interesting address on behalf of that institution, dealing more especially on the work done on behalf of children there. The other speaker of the afternoon was Rev. Wylie C. Clark, who gave a brief and very effective address on the first Easter. Both addresses were listened to with rapt attention. Mrs. W. Paxman rendered a solo in her usual pleasing manner, while a quartette, composed of Messrs. Gilchrist, Kinnear and Messrs. Pagenant, sung "Steal Away" with much effect. A good collection was taken in behalf of a child's cot in Jeffery Hale's Hospital.

A BRILLIANT RECEPTION TO MADAME DONALDA.

On her visit to Ottawa, last week, the distinguished Canadian artist, Madame Pauline Donalda, was the object of the Vice-Regal attention. Her Excellency Lady Grey, giving in honor of the brilliant diva a grand reception, with lunch, at Rideau Hall. The official function was a very brilliant one, being attended to by a large gathering of the leading society people of Ottawa, who cordially and unanimously congratulated the great Canadian artist on her phenomenal success. This kind attention on the part of Lady Grey is especially flattering, as Her Excellency left Montreal for Ottawa to attend the performance and hold the reception. Rulers of the world honor themselves when they recognize and honor great talents.

Cured of Aching Weariness

Had Gouty Pain, Flushings,
Palpitations and General
Feeling of Depression

Mr. C. J. Stonewall, who for years has been a most respected citizen of Pemberton, writes interestingly and convincingly of a very serious sickness, extending over almost two years. Through the marvelous curative power of Dr. Hamilton's Pills he made rapid and permanent recovery.

"It was a puzzle to my doctor, because the symptoms seemed almost as numerous as the days of the month. But one thread ran through them all, and that was utter weariness morning, noon and night. I felt flat—pain changed from one part of the body to another—seemed at one time rheumatic, at others it affected the extremities like gout. Little exertion, such as going upstairs, caused breathlessness and palpitation, and at times I had vague numb feelings and prickling. After Dr. Hamilton's Pills cured me, my doctor saw it wasn't the nervous system, but bowel and kidney disorders. I believe there is no pill on earth that can compare with Dr. Hamilton's, and in diseases that have their cause in thin or white blood, cure is inevitable with Dr. Hamilton's Pills."

YOUNG WOMAN'S SAD SUICIDE

Found by Her Husband, After a Temporary Absence, a Mass of Flames.

A young woman, the wife of J. B. Giroux, resident at the Montmorency Falls, committed suicide on Saturday last while laboring under a fit of temporary insanity. The unfortunate victim, who is the mother of four children, had been acting strangely for several days past, and on rising on Saturday morning, informed her husband that she was to be hung that day and that he was to be sent to the penitentiary. The husband, seeing the condition in which his young wife was, told her that he would not go to work at the cotton mills that day, and would ask one of his neighbors, named Mathieu, to inform his employers that he would not work. The wife replied that if he went out he would find the house on fire on his return, but Mr. Giroux, thinking he could leave the house for a few minutes, went to Mathieu's and then to Dr. Dupont to inform the latter of his wife's condition. The husband was absent about seven or eight minutes, and as he returned to the house, saw his wife in a mass of flames in the cellar.

Calling his next door neighbor, both rushed into the house and down into the cellar, where the unfortunate woman, whose clothes were all on fire, was still standing. As soon as the husband placed his hand on his wife's shoulder she fell to the ground, a corpse. Dr. Dupont was immediately called in, but when he arrived on the scene, life was extinct. Coroner Jolicoeur will hold an inquest on the morning.

EASTER SERVICES AND MUSIC

Festival Was Celebrated in the Ancient Capital with Imposing Ceremony.

Easter Day dawned bright and clear, and there was a snap and sparkle to the weather, which made it invigorating if just a trifle cool. The great festival was celebrated in the various churches with all its usual impressiveness and large congregations were in attendance both morning and evening. In the afternoon the principal streets were crowded with promenaders, while not a few people took a stroll on the Terrace.

In the churches the sermons were all appropriate to the day, and in most of them special musical services were rendered. In many cases there were more than usually elaborate and interesting. Most of the sacred edifices were beautifully decorated. At the Anglican Cathedral, under the leadership of Mr. E. A. Bishop, the choir rendered Trimm's Te Deum in D, and in the morning Anthem, "As It Began to Dawn" (Martin) and in the evening Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis in F, by Bennett, and the anthem, "Alleluia, the Lord Liveth" (Harris). The Dean was the preacher and there was the usual Easter church parade of the permanent forces, headed by the R.C.G.A. band. At St. Matthew's Church, where Rev. Canon Scott preached, the Eucharistic music was by King Hall in C, and was well rendered under the direction of Mr. G. H. Harvey. An interesting children's service was held in the afternoon at St. Andrew's Church, the Rev. A. T. Love preached eloquent sermons afternoon and evening, and the music was of a high order. In the morning the anthem was Mr. W. Reed's "The Lord is My Strength," and the quartette "Love Divine" (Stainer) was sung by a quartette composed of Mrs. Reed, Miss Grant, Mr. Suttie, Mr. J. Reed. A very fine musical programme was rendered at Chalmers' Church, where the choir, under the leadership of H. Gordon Perry, a number of Easter Anthems and solos were also given by Mr. W. D. Campbell. In the morning Rev. Wylie C. Clark, the pastor, preached on the subject of "The Fact of Easter," and in the evening "The Inspiration of Easter." The Rev. Geo. H. Cobbleick officiated at the Methodist Church, the sermons being on the themes "The Resurrection" and "The Living Saviour." The choir was directed by Mr. C. H. Thorn, with Mr. R. Burston presiding at the organ, and the music included the anthems, "Awake Thou that Sleepest" (Redhead), "Awake up My Glory" (Barnaby) and the quartette and anthem "As It Began to Dawn." Solos were also sung at the evening service by Mrs. Paxman and Miss Holtby. At Trinity Church, the Rev. I. M. Thompson preached, and at St. Peter's Church, the Rev. E. A. W. King officiated, the choirs of both churches rendering appropriate music. The Rev. Hugh A. Ellis officiated at the Baptist Church, the congregation of which re-assembled for service in their renovated building, and Easter music was rendered by the choir.

The services in the Roman Catholic Churches were most impressive and at the high celebrations, the altars were a blaze of lights. At the Basilica there was a very grand service, and at St. Saver, St. Malo, St. Roch, Jacques Cartier, St. Jean Baptiste and other parish churches the services were most imposing. At St. Patrick's Church the Rev. Father Hanley, rector, was the celebrant, and at the Diamond Harbor Chapel, Rev. Father Wood, chaplain, preached. Rev. Fr. Hickey, a former chaplain, officiated at the 8 o'clock mass.

For Easter Holt, Renfrew & Co. are showing ladies' white kid gloves at one dollar, also a washable fabric glove in Suede and Chamois shades. Price seventy-five cents. Ladies' and gentlemen's sizes.

JOCKEY RULED OFF.

Jacksonville, Fla., March 26.—The fourth race, the feature on to-day's programme, was over a distance of one mile, and the winner turned up in the favorite. Jockey Oberer was this afternoon ruled off and his license revoked for having bet on a horse without the consent of his owner, which is a violation of one of the rules of the Southern Jockey Club.

GOLF IN THE SOUTH.

Pinehurst, N.C., March 26.—A 36-hole medal play, four ball, best ball match amateur professional, opened the tenth annual united north and south golf championship tournament to-day. The best cards were Wm. T. West, of Philadelphia, and Alex. Ross, who made 141; J. S. Roberson and G. Nichols and Henry C. Fowkes, of Pittsburgh, and D. J. Ross tied for second place at 144. The field includes national amateur champion Robert A. Gardner, of Chicago, Walter J. Travis, Allan Laird, Jas. Standish, Jr., Geo. Sargent, Fred. McClood, Alex. Ross and Willie Anderson. Mrs. C. H. Vanderbeck, of Philadelphia, was the winner of to-day's final round in the annual united north and south golf championship for women, her victory being over Miss Mary Fowkes, of Pittsburgh, who was defeated one up on the home green.

Family Cough Syrup

Cures Any Cough in Five Hours. NEW PRESCRIPTION HERE.

Here is given the most effective cough prescription known to the medical world. It is a mild laxative, and this is what a body needs when suffering with cough and cold on the lungs. A cough or cold indicates poisons in the system, causing inflammation and congestion. Nearly all cough syrups relieve, but make the trouble worse by their constipating effects. This prescription not only relieves quickly, but it cures any cough that is curable. Get one-half ounce fluid wild cherry bark, one ounce compound essence cardiol and three ounces syrup white pine compound. Mix in a bottle. Take for acute cough or bronchitis twenty drops every half hour for four hours. Then one-half to one teaspoonful three or four times daily. Give children less according to age. A few hours' treatment will cure and heal the throat and lungs of all but consumptive. Cut this out and give it to some friend who may need it to be saved from an early death by consumption.

ACOUSE HAD AN EASY TIME

Longboat Was Not In Saturday Night's Race with His Red-skin Brother.

Toronto, March 27.—Acoose first, Longboat nowhere, practically sums up as pitifully as possible the result of the race on Saturday night for the redskin running championship of the world at twelve miles. Acoose had it all over Longboat at all stages of the contest, and the issue was never in doubt. Longboat ran like a man troubled with gout, in fact there was a decidedly has-been flavor about his style of going from start to finish. His trainer claimed that he was in good condition, but his performance did not in any way lend color to the truth of that assertion. After the first couple of miles he plodded along listlessly, only spasmodically displaying flashes of the speed that once made him the idol of the athletic populace. That he would persevere to the end was not expected by the majority of the large crowd present, and it created very little surprise when he calmly trotted into his dressing room after completing 104 miles of the distance. At that time he was nearly five laps behind his smaller and better trained opponent, who, running a well judged and even pace, continued on the trip alone, finishing with a nice burst of speed in the comparatively slow time of one hour seven minutes and four-tenths seconds. The contest was not in any respects notable in the record breaking line.

RACING IN PARIS.

Paris, March 27.—The formal opening of the racing season in France took place to-day with the running of the Prix du President de la Republique at Auteuil. The beautiful weather drew out an immense crowd. President Fallieres and the members of his cabinet and all fashionable Paris were present. The Easter crown display was a notable one. The Prix du President de la Republique is a steeplechase handicap at two miles, five furlongs, for a purse of $10,000. It was won to-day by Mme. Doublet's Ordurbin III.

THE KENTUCKY FUTURITY.

Lexington, Ky., March 27.—Secretary Wilson to-day announced that the 21st renewal of the $21,000 Kentucky futurity, which closed on March 15th, received the entries of 1,301 mares, a substantial increase over last year. Thirty-eight states and Canada and England are represented. A feature is the numerous entries made by the two nurseries, Walnut Hall remain of L. V. Harkness, Donerail, Ky., and Patchen Wilkes farm of W. E. D. Stokes, Lexington, Ky. The first named 165 mares, bred to Moko, Walnut Hall, the futurity winner; Ozone, etc., while the second named 138 mares, bred to Peter the Great, a futurity winner, Crystalline, Mighty Onward, and other stallions.

FENCING CHAMPIONSHIP.

Montreal, March 27.—The contest for the fencing championship of Canada was concluded at the M.A.A.A. club house on Saturday night. There were 21 entries in all and competition was very keen. The result was that Chas. Watters, of the Toronto Y.M.C.A., who won the championship last year, again proved his right to the title by defeating A. N. Goulding of Toronto Varsity, his only formidable opponent, by one point in the final pool.

BANQUET FOR WANDERERS.

Montreal, March 26.—The Wanderer hockey team, champions of the National Hockey Association, and present holders of the Stanley Cup, may yet be given a banquet. Several prominent hockey followers and several of the old Wanderer executive have been discussing the question of a large banquet, and all agreed that if a subscription list was started it was very likely that enough money could be raised in a short time in order to honor the champions before they disband. If the Wanderers are to be given a dinner it will likely be a large affair, and tickets will be sold to cover the expenses. A large number of the followers of the team, as well as the executive, feel that the champions certainly deserve a banquet, and many stated that they would be willing to help along the idea.

BRUCE STUART TOPPED LIST.

Bruce Stuart headed the bunch on the Ottawa Clubs pay roll, $1,500 being paid. The other salaries were in the vicinity of the following, says the Ottawa Free Press.

Stuart, $1,500; Lake, Walsh and Kerr, $1,200 each; Ridpath and LeSueur, $1,000 each; Small, $75 a game; Shore, $60 a week; Mallen, $50 a week; Roberts, $40 a week.

Certain of the men were to be counted in on a share of a stipend if there was one at the end of the season. Of course the number of men and hospital expenses will preclude to a certain extent much of an overflow of cash after all accounts are paid up. However, the club should not be behind on the season's work.

JOHNSON'S IDEA ON TRAINING

Big Black Man Not Hiring Any One to Tell Him How to Do So.

New York, March 26.—A letter from Jack Johnson, heavyweight champion, to a friend in this city published to-day, gives his ideas of training: "I am not hiring any one to tell me how to train," Johnson wrote. "Of course I will have a large staff of so-called trainers, but they will do what I instruct them to do. In the actual preparations for the Jeffries bout, I will follow my own system. My training is all based on how I feel and perform. If I could hit as hard, be as fast and feel as well, I would not care whether I weighed a ton or 150 lbs., but common sense tells me that 198 or 200 lbs. is enough to be at my best. I do not expect to weigh an ounce more than 198 when I meet Mr. Jeffries. It isn't that I don't need training, but I don't need trainers."

REFORM OF FOOTBALL RULES

Changes in College Game Will Favor Speed and Strategy Against Brute Force.

New York, March 26.—In the interval before the next meeting of the College Committee on football rules, which will be called at the University Club in Philadelphia on April 29th, experiments will be carried on by each member of the committee at his own college and on the result of these experiments will depend the plan which shall prevail.

Briefly stated the changes so far adopted will result in the elimination to a large extent of mass plays and the substitution of open plays. A greater premium will be placed on speed and strategy, and more bulk and strength will be of less avail. The committee adopted such changes by formal votes and, while minor variations may be made later, it is expected that these changes will be incorporated virtually as decided upon to-day. It was felt that the next season will be crucial. Either injuries must be fewer or there will be serious hazard of a widespread movement to abolish football altogether.

LACROSSE PLAYER ARRESTED.

Montreal, March 26.—"Nick" Neville, a member of the Montreal lacrosse team, champions of the world, and one of the cleverest players in the game, was arrested this morning by Sergeant Collins on a charge of stealing $34 from a man named Cahill, on Monday last. It appears that Cahill charges Neville with having relieved him of this sum while they were both together in a saloon, it is alleged.

For many years Nick Neville has been a star in the lacrosse world, as a member of the Montreal lacrosse team. He played first defence on that team in the world championship match, last October, when the Shamrocks went down to defeat. He it was who, giving way to intense excitement and arduous playing, fell in a swoon before the grand stand just as he was about to be carried off the field, with his companions on the shoulders of hundreds of enthusiastic supporters.

Neville was slated for the Montreal team which anticipated travelling to New Westminster this coming June, to play a match with the lacrosse club there, which has challenged for the Minto Cup.

PRIZE FIGHT FORBIDDEN.

Columbus, Ohio, March 16.—Governor Harmon to-day ordered that the prize fight scheduled for Akron next Tuesday night between "Big" Mackay, of Findlay, and Jack White, a light-weight boxer, be cancelled. General Secretary P. G. Ames, of the Akron Y.M.C.A., presented a petition to the Governor to-day against the fight.

NEW BASEBALL LEAGUE.

It looks as if baseball will have a bit of a boom in Quebec this summer. In addition to the leagues already in existence, a manufacturers' league is now proposed, and a meeting will likely be held shortly to consider the matter. There are a number of big factories in town which should be able to turn out good ball teams, and the series would undoubtedly prove a very interesting one.

CHAMPION SHORTHAND WRITER.

New York, March 26.—Fred H. Gurtler, of Chicago, to-day won the short-hand contest for the Miner medal under the auspices of the Eastern College Teachers Association. Chas. Lee Swom, of Newark, N.J., was second and Miss Salome L. Tarr, of Jersey, was a minute was Mr. Gurtler's record. The contest was open to short-hand writers of the world of less than ten years experience. There were 15 contestants.

JOHNSON AS A POLITICIAN.

Chicago, Ill., March 27.—Jack Johnson jumped into local politics last night and made a political speech. Surrounded by a crowd of colored people, he exhorted his hearers to vote for Edward H. Wright, a colored independent candidate for alderman in the second ward. "I was told not to come here," said Johnson. "I was told I was a man before the public. I replied I was a man fighting against the world. I'll be surrounded by 35,000 or 40,000 people on July 4th, and some will holler 'good' and some will holler 'bad,' but the most will holler 'bad' and the more they holler 'bad' the braver I'll be. That's Johnson's motto. That's what this man Wright is going to do in local politics. I'll am. You can put down, Johnson and Wright will win."

A Combined Treatment That Really Cures Catarrh.

Canadian weather, with its extreme cold and sudden changes, gives almost every one Catarrh, and makes it hard to cure. Some recommend internal remedies—some external applications.

Father Morrissey used both—tablets to be taken three or four times a day to invigorate the system, purify the blood, and help it throw off the disease, and a soothing, healing, antiseptic salve to be applied inside the nostrils. This combined treatment known as attacking the disease from within and without, soon cures.

"Father Morrissey's No. 26"

Mr. A. C. Thibodeau, General Merchant in Rogersville, N.B., writes on Jan. 22nd last:

"A few weeks ago to the merits of your Catarrh Cure. For the last 10 years I have been troubled with Catarrh of the head and stomach and during that time have tried all kinds of other Remedies with no result, until I tried your Catarrh Cure which I am glad to say has cured me. I highly recommend it to those who are suffering with this disease."

Don't trifle with Catarrh—cure it with Father Morrissey's No. 26. 50c for the combined treatment at your dealer's.

DANGEROUS CRISIS IN THE BALKANS

Narrowly, But Perhaps Only Temporarily Averted--Bulgaria Wished to Attack Turkey.

Paris, March 18.—Another dangerous crisis in the Balkans has been narrowly but perhaps only temporarily averted, according to the belief in well-informed diplomatic circles here, where for months it has been an open secret that Bulgaria was determined to try conclusions with Turkey over the question of Macedonia, either to win the province outright at least to secure autonomy for the rest of European Turkey. Bulgaria for years has made tremendous sacrifices to equip and train the model army which she now possesses, always with the idea of the inevitable war with Turkey ahead of her. The Bulgarian people have gradually become imbued with the belief that their army is invincible and the acquisition of their own independence has left them dissatisfied that their Christian brothers in Macedonia remain under the domination of Turkey. They also realize that they cannot long sustain the burden of the army on its present footing. For the king a successful war would mean the consolidation of the position of a dynasty imposed upon the Bulgarian people by the powers.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE

Hamilton, Ont., March 26.—Wm. Nash, the bigamist, who was given seven years, made two attempts to commit suicide yesterday. While being taken across the bridge which connects the cells and police court he nearly succeeded in throwing himself over the railing. Guards seized him and after a struggle led him forward to some stairs. They had no sooner released him than Nash flung himself forward and dropped half way down the stairs. He was badly bruised.

RAILWAY STATION BURNED

Campbellville, Ont., March 26.—The C. P. R. station here was entirely destroyed by fire at 3 o'clock this morning and the five occupants, Station Agent Turner and his family, narrowly escaped in their night clothes. Their furniture was destroyed and a quantity of goods at the station, including 3,000 bushels of wheat was consumed. The fire is supposed to have originated from a green house at the rear of the station.

TWO GIRLS' SAD PLIGHT

Hamilton, Ont., March 26.—Ruth and Stella Smith, the Grimsby girls arrested in Los Angeles, Cal., and deported by the United States Government after a relative who suddenly fell heir to a fortune spent nearly $10,000 with them in champagne suppers and joy rides, reached the village yesterday and were heart-broken when they learned of their father's death during their absence. They were not aware that their home had been broken up. Neighbors cared for them until enough money was raised to send them to their mother at Fenwick.

RAILWAY STATION FOR HAMILTON

Hamilton, Ont., March 26.—The extensive scale on which the Canadian Pacific and New York Central are planning a union station and hotel here is evident from the fact that agents were busy to-day getting options on the property north of Hunter street, from MacNab to Catherine street, a distance of three blocks. The land on the south side has already been secured at a cost of about $750,000. With the news of the activity of these rival roads came the announcement to-day that the G. T. R. has decided to build an up-town station and that an official statement will be made shortly.

THE DEATH RECORD

Kingston, Ont., March 26.—Cutting his hand on some wild hay, John Peppervell, of Bathurst, paid no attention to the wound and later blood poisoning developed and death ensued in a few days. Deceased was aged 63 years and a prosperous farmer.

Edmonton, Alta., March 26.—Col. Genge, M.P.P. for McLeod, is dead from acute kidney trouble.

Toronto, Ont., March 27.—Mr. John Akers, K.C., for 31 years a practicing barrister in Toronto, died to-day at his home 417 Jarvis street, after a lingering illness. He was born in Smirton Wells, England.

Baltimore, Md., March 27.—Professor J. Raynor Edmond, of the University staff of Harvard University, died of paralysis last night at the Johns Hopkins hospital.

Philadelphia, March 27.—Dr. David D. Wood, the blind organist of St. Stephen's Protestant Episcopal Church of this city, who had an international reputation as a composer, and performer, died to-day after a brief illness. He was born in Pittsburgh, 1838, and had been totally blind ever since he was three years old. He has been organist and choir master in St. Stephen's Church for 46 years. Dr. Wood was a student in the Pennsylvania institution for the instruction of the blind, located at Overbrook, a suburb, and was a pupil in mathematics of the late James G. Blaine.

New York, March 27.—Jos. W. Woods, a veteran telegraph operator, said to be the first man in New York to get the news of the wire that Fort Sumter had been fired upon, succumbed to an attack of pneumonia in an hospital here to-day at the age of 72 years. Woods was in the service of the W. U. Telegraph Co. for more than half a century retiring in 1905.

Kingston, Ont., March 27.—Hold-up men were busy last night. They drove about in a rig. They stopped several ladies and from one, Miss Blakley, took her purse, but gave it back. She can identify them. Within the past month a half dozen hold-ups have been reported.

Readville, Mass., March 27.—John A. Welch, owner of the Readville Trotting Park, announced to-night the list of early closing events for Boston's grand circuit meeting August 30th to September 3. Entries close May 2nd.

Trenton, N.J., March 26.—Mrs. Henry Page of this city brought suit for $20,000 damages to-day against Professors Howard McClenahan and Edward Plimton Adams of Princeton University, alleging that they burned her husband so severely with X-Rays that he died. The complaint charges that her husband was "burned, roasted and baked" so badly that his limbs became decayed, and grew gradually worse and died last November. Mr. Page suffered from hip disease and the defendants took X-Ray photographs to determine the extent of the malady. His wife says that he was fifteen minutes under the rays.

Chicago, March 27.—Julia Gleeson, a shop girl earning $22 a week, served an Easter dinner to sixty prisoners at the Harrison police station, paying for the food out of her savings. Miss Gleeson regularly sets aside 50 cents a week for such work and she has become known among women prisoners as the "Angel of the Station House." For two weeks Miss Gleeson, helped by Miss Helen Anderson, another working girl, had worked after office hours preparing the details of the dinner. A dozen policemen were placed at her disposal when the dinner was ready. After the dinner Miss Gleeson made a speech to the prisoners.

Hillsboro, N.H., March 27.—A motor boat, rendered unmanageable by the sudden stopping of the engine, was dragged into a swift current and swept over the dam of the upper mill pond here to-day, hurling two young women, Mrs. Nellie Dares and Miss Mildred Craig, to their death. W. H. Parker, who was in charge of the boat, was thrown into shallow water from which he was able to crawl ashore. The boat had scarcely left the mooring when trouble was experienced with the engine and the craft drifted rapidly towards the dam. With no oars in the boat, Parker was powerless to prevent the catastrophe.

Toronto, March 27.—Mr. and Mrs. John R. MacDonald, with their fifteen-month-old baby girl, had a narrow escape from suffocation in their bedroom by the smoke of a fire which broke out in their house at 140 Springhurst Avenue early this morning. Being awakened by the smell of smoke at about 2 o'clock, Mr. MacDonald opened the door of the bedroom and found the hall ablaze. He was driven back into the room by the smoke and heat and closed the door. Mrs. MacDonald ran to the window with the baby, saw Police Constable Moffat and called to him to catch the child, offering to throw her to him. The constable, however, restrained her and forced in the front door. He was, however, unable to enter on account of the flames. In the meantime a still alarm had been sent in and firemen arrived in a few minutes. They placed a ladder against the window and rescued the family. Mr. MacDonald was so much overcome by the smoke that he became unconscious. He was taken in the police ambulance to St. Michael's Hospital, while the mother and baby were taken to the home of a neighbor. All are now making good progress towards recovery. The flames were brought under control by the firemen, after damage to the extent of about $2,000 had been done.

THE TARIFF QUESTION.

American Views.

Chicago Record-Herald:—"A tariff war with Canada would be a misfortune and a colossal blunder from every point of view, and it is to be hoped that it will be averted, and that we shall not have to thank our Bourbon 'revisers' for another unforeseen and undesired result of their clumsy handiwork."

New York Sun:—"The menace of broken relations and of a trade war which could only prove costly and harmful to both, in any event, served a useful purpose. It has placed in new light and before a greater number of people the value and perhaps the necessity of commercial concord between Canada and the United States. The present experience may even serve as a prelude to a community of economic interests of incalculable profit to both countries. In effort to establish closer relations with our northern neighbor there is a splendid opportunity for the administration. The argument of injury and ruin to domestic interests is entirely fallacious, and the argument of immeasurable benefit to both countries is unquestionably sound."

St. Louis Republic:—"Now, while the spirit of New England is so much akin to the Americanized spirit, and the country is entering as a purchasing country on a period of development strikingly paralleling that of our own generation ago, it is more important that we maintain friendly and cordial relations with her than that we maintain like relations with any other country in the world."

Boston Herald:—"There is nothing to be gained by a tariff war and much to be lost. President Taft is anxiously seeking to find a way by which he can establish peace. There is no question that if he is able to find it within his power under the tariff law to absolve the Dominion from the charge of undue discrimination he will do so. But if he will not assume the responsibility for such action there still is recourse to Congress for legislation making a truce possible. The protest of the commercial and industrial interests involved in trade with the Dominion should be so unanimous and emphatic at this moment as to compel recognition and action."

Detroit Free Press:—"The indications are strong that Canada has allowed her jealousy of her neighbor to get the better of her good sense, and that she is just waking up to the fact when it is almost too late. Fortunately some days yet remain of March and a way may be found to prevent the disastrous conflict into which false pride has led the Canadians."

Philadelphia Press:—"Some adjustment is necessary to protect our trade to Canada and increase our imports from Canada. Germany promptly accepted our tariff because of Germany's need both of our raw materials and of our market for German manufactures. Canada has not the same motives, but the United States, under Treasury regulation, gives Canadian trade great advantages in the transshipment of Canadian cars duty free across our frontier. It may be necessary to require duty to be imposed on Canadian cars as we proposed in negotiations twenty years ago. This would make little difference to the United States. It would dislocate Canadian trade. But negotiations will probably prevent a resort to extreme measures."

Canadian Views.

Halifax Herald:—"Canadians, per head, buy $27 worth a year from the republic; the people of the United States, per head, buy only $1 worth from the Dominion. Our sales are comparatively small, and it would be better for us if they were smaller. Our purchases are large, and to reduce them would be an advantage to us. Under these circumstances Canada has nothing to fear and the United States have nothing to gain from a restricted trade intercourse, and it is, therefore, not easy to believe that our neighbors will be so narrow and shortsighted as to declare for such a policy."

Montreal Herald:—"We cannot very well afford to shut out a trade which brings in a customs revenue of twenty-five millions a year, nor yet to place unneeded burdens upon those who participate in an import trade that runs to two hundred millions a year."

ST. LAWRENCE HALL

Victoria Colonist:—"Our view of the case is that Canada ought to be content to see her neighbors do just what suits them best, and to go along steadily on her own lines without regard to legislation passed at Washington. The United States will get tired of trying to coerce us commercially if we only stand pat."

Toronto Globe:—"If it be a fact, then, that the United States is moving toward the gospel of free trade it should have an influential bearing on whatever may be done to meet the situation that has now arisen. It may be doubted if there are the same arguments for a reciprocity treaty that there once were. If the two countries are of one mind that free intercourse would be better for both, would it not be as well to trust to the independent action of the legislatures of both countries?"

Ottawa Journal:—"National pride is likely to force the tariff war. The United States would probably like to gracefully get out of the present difficulty, but to make a complete back-down to little Canada would make it look so foolish that it would probably decide to cut off its nose even at the cost of spitting its face, rather than look foolish."

IMMIGRATION AND DISCRIMINATION.

Mr. Currie said in the House during the week that it is rumored and understood all over this country, that if an immigrant comes here from a foreign country, a Doukhobor or a Galician, he is immediately taken hold of by the Government and treated in the most royal manner. But if the unfortunate immigrant happens to come from England, Scotland or Ireland, the case is quite different, and in his opinion these men are soon disillusioned, and, in his opinion, badly treated. Nor does this discrimination appear to end here, according to the views of several other members, who assert that settlers from the Eastern provinces are scarcely met with the favor accorded to these aliens, of whom Mr. Bruce Walker, the Canadian Commissioner of Immigration, is reported to have said as follows:—"Once a newcomer enters the immigration area, that is Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, we care for him in sickness or distress, pay his house if it burns, and are responsible for his welfare. Why do we do it? Because it pays. We have found that the nearer the Government comes to the immigrant, the nearer the immigrant comes to the Government. He feels that he has something more to depend on than even neighbors and friends."

The question of the way in which the Doukhobors had been generally treated was brought up in the discussion of this article of Mr. Walker, and Mr. Oliver disclaimed all responsibility for such treatment, which he said had been accorded them by the Provincial and the Federal Government.

This admission, said Mr. Reid, carried out Mr. Walker's statement that the Government brought these Doukhobors here, that they were looked after, clothed, fed, and physicians provided to attend them. The only difference was that the Provincial Government was looking after them, and the Minister shunted the expense on to the local governments. Was it that the Government wanted to keep close to the immigrants coming into this country, that the immigrants had no politics, and the government wanted them to start out right? Young men from the eastern provinces had their politics fixed before they went there. He supposed that when the Government wanted votes they took the Doukhobors out of the asylum as they did in his country when they wanted a few votes. They brought out the lunatics, and voted them. Just in the same way, he said, they could bring these fellows out, and vote them, it saving the Government to keep them in these asylums for that purpose.

It was also pointed out by Mr. Currie that considering the fact that the whole of the Northwest had been purchased and paid for by our fathers and grandfathers, the first people who should have a privilege were the sons of Eastern Canada, and if there was any other favor to offer, it should be offered to people of the same flesh and blood.

THE DOVE OF PEACE.

From Ottawa come rumors of possible concessions to be made to the Americans on the tariff controversy. It cannot be doubted that the desire for peace is general, but for Canada it must be an honorable peace. We are not responsible for the situation which has been thrust upon us. If America applies the maximum she is likely to find in it a two-edged sword which may cut both ways, that she would probably be the greater sufferer is evident from the different attitudes of the two neighbors. Canada, while she is in no way desirous of plunging into a commercial warfare, awaits the issue calmly. But over the border the agitation to avert hostilities is almost feverish. The whole dispute centres around the interpretation of the word "undue," and until President Taft signs a proclamation that Canada is not guilty of "undue discrimination against the States," the war cannot be said to be diverted. If the issues lay with Taft alone, there would be little doubt as to the result, judging from the following message which he sends Canada:—"I am profoundly convinced that these two countries, touching each other for more than three thousand miles, have common interests in trade and require special arrangements in legislation and administration which are not involved in the relations of the United States with countries beyond the seas. We may not always have recognized that in the past, but that must be our viewpoint in the future." We want a better understanding with our neighbors, but consider Canada's position is so strong, that Mr. Fielding should exercise the greatest care, lest he should sacrifice her interests by way of giving concessions.

BIG GATHERING OF RAILWAY MEN

From Canada and United States to Take Place in Worcester, Mass.

Worcester, Mass., March 27.—Train service men of Worcester have completed arrangements for entertaining 10,000 or more railroad men from all parts of Canada, the United States and Mexico on April 2nd, 3rd and 4th, when President Taft and the executive officers of the big systems of the east, with delegations of train service men from distant points, will come together for a good time. The assembly will be the first of its kind known in railroading in America and it has been arranged purely for social purposes. Saturday, April 2nd, will be given up to receiving the visitors. Sunday there will be two big mass meetings. President Taft, after passing the early part of the day in Millbury as the guest of his aunt, Miss Delia J. Torrey, will be escorted to Worcester by a parade of automobilists at one o'clock in the afternoon. He will give a brief reception in Washington Hall and go to Mechanics Hall to deliver his address, which is expected to be a special message to the railroad men of the country. There will be speeches also by Governor Eben S. Draper, of Massachusetts; Mayor Jas. Logan, of Worcester; President Wm. C. Brown, of the New York Central; President Chas. S. Melon, of the New York, New Haven and Hartford; President Lucius Tuttle, of the Boston and Maine; and Edgar E. Clark, of Washington, representing the Inter-State Commerce Commission. In the evening the speakers will be high officers of the railwaymen's organizations. On Monday the visitors will be taken on sight-seeing trips around Worcester, a ball closing the festivities in the evening.

TWO KILLED BY ELECTRIC CARS

Lima, Ohio, March 27.—To men were killed, one was fatally injured and a house was burned to the ground as the result of a collision between two inter-urban electric trains near here to-day. Both trains were destroyed. The dead are Pearl H. McPherson, Lima, motorman; Paul Lockroth, Rockington, expressman; James Riak, baggage-man, Lima, was fatally injured and several of the passengers on both cars were seriously hurt. The collision occurred at a place where the tracks curved around an untenanted house. Both cars were going at full speed and crashed into each other with terrific force. An exploding fuse set the wreckage into a blaze which communicated with the house and completely destroyed it.

TO GET BACK AT THE BREWERS
Philadelphia, Pa., March 27.—Declaring that the passage of a local option law would hasten the settlement of the trouble between the Rapid Transit Company and its employees, the Central Labor Union adopted resolutions to-day calling upon the members of the trades unions of this city to agitate and vote for local option at every opportunity. The failure of the brewers' workers to join in the sympathetic strike, it was alleged, was responsible for the passage of this resolution. The vote against a motion to table the resolution was 34 to 33.

Correspondence.

Quebec, March 26, 1908.
Dear Mr. Editor.—Good Friday evening I had occasion to pass through the building occupied by the Marine Agency on Champlain street. I was very much surprised to notice all the officials at work, in spite of the fact that it was the anniversary of our Lord's crucifixion and observed the world over as a legal holiday, practically all the various business houses were closed in honor of the day. Surely a Government office could have been closed likewise, and the officials' attendance dispensed with for that day at least if no other, out of respect for the day.

Yours truly,
ONLOOKER.

DAY BY DAY

Easter hats had the right of way yesterday. Some of them were large enough to enforce it too.

The Ides of March, says a contemporary, are as scarce as ideas of March.

Here's to the man whose hand is firm when it grasps your own; Like a grip of steel It makes you feel You are not in the world alone.

The Easter bells have rung out. The Easter bells will now be rung in.

Is marriage a failure? Treat your real husband as you find him when he was only a prospective one, says the Champlain street philosopher, and you will solve the problem.

But it was worth the money to see how "dear" the dear ones looked yesterday.

March is rapidly marching to its end.

An English lady who visited the Woodbine race meet last spring is reported in the London Daily Mail to have immediately sent back a cable: "Send frocks; they dress here." Did she anticipate that we lived in a Garden of Eden?—Ottawa Free Press.

Andrew Carnegie was on board a ferry boat at Norfolk on the day the President visited that port, says an American journal. Something went wrong with the compass. The captain appealed to the mate. The mate examined the compass, and said: "I guess it must be attracted by that steel magnet over there."

Physician:—Have you any aches or pains this morning? Patient:—Yes, doctor; it hurts me to breathe; in fact, the only trouble now seems to be with my breath. Physician:—All right. I'll give you something that will soon stop that.

A Brantford church was found to be filled with natural gas, the sexton having carelessly neglected to open the windows after the sermon.—Toronto Star.

George:—Do you think that I'm good enough for you, darling? Darling:—No, George; but you're too good for any other girl.

Mrs. Brown: We're so glad to see you give all the scraps to the cat, Susan! The New Treasure:—Wot I see, mum, is—be good to the cat, and you may save 'half your washing up.

LUNATIC COMMITTS SUICIDE.

It is reported that a few days ago a young male arrival at the Beaufort Asylum disappeared during the dinner hour to go to the lavatory, where he was found hanging shortly after by one of the attendants. The unfortunate man had hung himself with a table napkin and when found life was extinct.

MOVING PICTURES PRACTICALLY CLOSED.

All the moving picture shows, with the exception of Les Varietes, closed down yesterday, in accordance with the order from the civic authorities. However, the latter theatre did a very large business both afternoon and evening, but the police were on hand and took the names of over forty spectators who will probably have to appear before the Recorder.

THE BOYS DID GOOD SHOOTING

Close of the Winter Season's Practice of the Miniature Rifle Club.

With the shooting Saturday evening, the winter's programme of the Quebec Miniature Rifle Club was brought to a close. The second-class shots were out in force for the deciding of the Wm. Price Cup match, and Mr. F. G. Millar, who has shown most satisfactory progress throughout the season, won the handsome cup, beating Mr. J. Aubin by the small margin of five points. The next four in order are boys of the Victoria School, who have brought credit on themselves and the painstaking instructor, Q.M.-Sgt. J. Good, R.C.R., by the splendid scores they have made. It is too bad that the authorities of this school do not take steps to have these cadets recognized by the Militia Department, as unless gazetted, the boys will be ineligible for the outdoor matches for cadets, inaugurated by the Canadian Rifle League, and for which very handsome trophies are donated. According to the result of this series, boys from all parts of Canada are selected to assemble at Ottawa during the D. R. A. meet and take part in the cadet matches there. The eight boys making the highest scores in this form the team to represent Canada for the Lord Roberts' Trophy, and from the good work of the Quebec boys there is little doubt that some of them would have this honor.

The top scores of the month in the Wm. Price match follows:—
F. G. Millar..... 42 45 45 43 175
J. Aubin..... 42 44 44 40 170
C. Poullet..... 44 41 34 40 159
C. Young..... 29 36 42 34 141
S. Paxman..... 30 35 40 33 138
F. Phillips..... 31 26 25 40 122

STREET CARS COLLIDE

Kansas City, Mo., March 27.—Eight persons were injured, one severely, in a rear-end collision between two crowded street cars on the Swopes Parkway line to-day. One car had just started after making a stop at the bottom of a hill. The second car, which was beyond control, crashed into the first car.

MORE FISSIONS IN ETNA

Catania, March 27.—While the quantity of lava from the craters of Mount Etna continues to decrease, the internal activity of the volcano was stronger to-day than yesterday. Frank A. Perret, the volcanologist, believes the decrease in the flow of lava is due to obstructions in the new craters in which they prevent it from flowing freely, and the latter in a few days or perhaps in a week, the molten mass either will force a passage or an earthquake will result. Mr. Perret went to-day from Nicolosi to the Alpine Club refuge which is situated near the craters, and later telegraphed: "The activity of Etna to-day is stronger, but the lava is slower. Terrific explosions in the interior of the mountain continue." Naples, March 27.—Five large new fissures have opened near the central crater of Mount Vesuvius, but the volcano shows no great activity.
