SYSTEM IN TRADE.
SOMETIMES parties thinking of purchasing five or ten pounds worth of Dress Goods, will feel undecided as to which Store they will purchase at, especially if they have only lately arrived in the City. In such cases they frequently take up one of the city papers and glance through the Advertisements. From the over complimentary style of one, and the pitiful soliciting tone of another, they will at once say—"Gentlemen you won't do—there is neither system nor confidence about you." They pass on till they meet with some matter of fact, —broad and independant announcement. The inducement is favorably received, the bell rings, the carriage is ordered to the door in twenty minutes, and within one hour, the whole performance is gone through. Magnificent display of Merchandize; splendid acting of the accomplished Salesman; polite attention of the Storekeeper towards the closing scene, and the honest approbation of the man's conscience who sells, with a few pleasing looks from the Proprietor, the sale is made and the interesting performance is brought to a close.
Is it not remarkable, for instance, the stand which the NEW MART has made in this city. Its success has been mainly owing to system. Their advertisements are clear, demonstrative and business-like, and such as would induce any sensible customer to call. They not only announce but strictly adhere to the "one price system."
In a city with a population of nearly Eighty Thousand, not one person can come forward to say they have ever in one instance deviated from this rule. The manager pledged himself to this system and has kept his word to the letter. They import extensively from the best European Markets, so that those who desire the latest Novelties of the Season at the lowest remunerative profit, will do well to visit the New Mart, St. Lawrence Main Street.
The Gentlemen's Department, which they opened lately, has given general satisfaction in this city.

IS procured from the COAL OIL Manufactured by the Columbian Oil Company.— These facts are admitted by those who have tried it.
Vaneleek Hill, July 20th, 1858.
M. W. R. HIBBARD,
Dear Sir,— Having now fairly tested the Columbian Oil for myself, I can fully endorse your statements concerning it and with you, pronounce the Light which it produces far superior to that obtained from any material I have ever used. The saving of Expense, compared with other Oils is immense, and you may confidently recommend both the OIL and LAMPS, for lighting either Dwellings or Stores, as they speak for themselves.
Yours truly,
Signed, JAMES P. WELLS.

TRUE TIME.
AMERICAN WATCHES.
THESE superior Watches are made by the aid of new and original machinery, expressly designed to secure with a low price, a fine substantial and uniformly reliable timekeeper. The movements are new in construction, have been pronounced by the highest authorities to be faultless in principle and quality, and have been proved by the most exacting tests to be unfailing in action. These watches are made entire from the crude materials, in a single establishment, by connected and uniform processes—the factory being organized upon the same system that has been adopted in the production of the unequalled American fire-arms,—which enables us to produce a movement at one-half the price of a foreign movement of the same quality. Each watch is carefully tested, and is accompanied with the maker's certificate and warranty for ten years.
All foreign watches are made by hand, the American watches being the only ones made by machinery upon a uniform system throughout. Nearly all hand-made watches are defective, and are continually getting out o order. In many parts of the country it is impossible to find good watch repairers, and watch repairing is always uncertain and expensive. The introduction of American watches disposes of this difficulty, and country merchants, as well as watch dealers, can keep watches as a part of their miscellaneous stock, and thus supply their customers with a new staple, which may be used as any other article, without mystery or humbug. Sold by the trade generally.

☞ Every description of BOOK AND JOB PRINTING executed by JAMES POTTS, at the Herald Buildings, Notre Dame Street.

THE MONTREAL HERALD

MONDAY MORNING, NOV. 1, 1858.

CORRECTION.—In Saturday's issue the prices realized for the Thirteen lots on Grand Trunk, Guy and Centre streets were set down by mistake at $58 each instead of $58 or $232 each.

Property to the amount of $19,437 (Nineteen thousand four hundred and thirty-seven Dollars) "changed hands" at the sale.

Mr. Leeming purposes having another sale of Real Estate about the last week in November.

The Kingston Whig has been shown a specimen of Canadian cotton, gathered by Mr. Nettle, which in texture equals silk, and can be procured in the greatest abundance. It trusts that the Press will direct public attention to this matter, which it considers promises to Canada an important staple product.

INSPECTION TOUR.—Lieut. Gen. Sir William Eyre, Commander of the Forces in Canada, accompanied by his Staff, reached Kingston yesterday by the Grand Trunk Railroad. His Excellency's arrival was greeted by a salute from Fort Henry. The Royal Canadian Rifles were to be inspected this morning, at ten o'clock, in the Tete du Pont barracks.

HARBOUR IMPROVEMENTS.—The report of Mr Trantwine, C. E., of Philadelphia, on improving the present harbour of Montreal—addressed to the Hon. John Young, Chairman of the Board of Harbour Commissioners, and Thomas Ryan, Esq., Chairman of the Committee of Citizens, on Harbour improvements,—has, we learn, been received. It is a somewhat voluminous document, but we hope to be able to publish it in our issue of to-morrow, or of Wednesday.

OTTAWA.—The towers of the Roman Catholic Cathedral in this city, just complated, are very beautiful. They were designed by the Rev. Mr. Dandurand, and constructed under his immediate direction. We understand it is designed to place a clock and a chime of bells in the steeples. The clock is in course of construction, and the bells have already arrived.

THE PACIFIC.—An arrival at New York rom San Francisco brought $1,472,979 in specie. There had been some Indian disturbances caused, say respectable people, by outrages of the whites on squaws. A battle had occurred between five hundred Indians and four hundred and fifty soldiers of Col. Steptoe's command. Seventeen Indians were killed and several more wounded by the Minie rifles of the Americans, who did not lose a man. The tide of emigration which lately flowed from California towards British Oregon had turned the other way, and three thousand people have returned. Those who remain are, however, reported to be doing well, though the water has still to fall several feet to be at its lowest. Accounts are, however, contradictory. The Indians peaceable, and Governor Douglass had promised to have plenty of provisions, at reasonable rates. One hundred and fifty pounds of gold had reached San Francisco.

THE OPERA.—We have frequently, during their late engagement, had occasion to speak in terms of unqualified praise of the merits of Mr. Cooper's operatic company. This evening they give their farewell performance at the Theatre Royal, and with so highly attractive a programme as, we are satisfied, cannot fail to fill the house in every part—more especially on the reduced prices of admission adopted on the occasion. When we mention that the evening's entertainments will consist of the fourth act of Il Trovatore, the second of the Bohemian Girl, and the third of La Somnambula, surely all who have listened to Miss Annie Milner's delicious soprano warblings, to Mr. Miranda's clear and powerful tenor and Mr. Guilmetti's rich and swelling baritone, will avail themselves of the opportunity of once mere enjoying a musical feast, so rarely attainable in Montreal, while to those who have not yet heard these gifted and accomplished vocalists, we should say, let no ordinary engagement deprive you of a pleasure so seldom within your reach.

With this evening's entertainments, as we have said, will close the operatic performances of Mr. Cooper's company, and we cannot bid them adieu without awarding our mede of well-merited praise to Mr. Cooper himself. To his admirable leadership in the orchestra and masterly accompaniments, may justly be ascribed no small share of the complete success of his artistic friends on the stage. Sans phrase, Mr. Cooper is himself a most accomplished musician; and in his company are operatic vocalists, if not of the highest, of very high merit, capable of doing thorough justice to the most difficult and beautiful compositions of the great masters in the divine art. We hope he and his friends will, ere long, be induced to revisit Montreal.

REVELATIONS OF INDIA.—As the war in the East still continues to be the imperial question of the day, the revelations of a member of the Indian Press who formed one of the illustrious garrison of Lucknow, and who arrived at Boston from Calcutta by the Granite State on the 19th of October, will doubtless prove interesting to a portion of the community. Mr. Geralde, the late editor of the Delhi Gazette and the Lahore Chronicle, will deliver an address upon the war in the East, and the prospects of India, in the lecture hall of the Mechanics' Institute, on Wednesday evening, the 3rd of November. Mr. Geralde has enjoyed facilities of information on the Indian question accessible to few, and we entertain the hope that, in the exposition of his views at Montreal, he will be listened to by a large audience.

POLICE COURT, SATURDAY.—At the Police Court, on Saturday, a labourer, named Denis Shelly prosecuted a farmer, named William Flaherty, for assault. The offence was committed at the residence of the defendant, Petit Cote. Judging by the evidence of the complainant, he was subjected, during the course of the assault, to as many dangers as a hero in one of the "yellow covered" romances. The defendant, in the first place struck at him with the handle of a farming implement, but this broke; he renewed the assault with the shattered handle, but missed the prosecutor. Then the defendant made another attempt, but not until he struck at the prosecutor a fourth time was he successful in dealing a severe blow over the right arm. When the prosecutor attempted to escape the repetition of the assault, the defendant hurled a pitchfork after him; but this time his good luck also favoured him, and he evaded further injury. Mr. Coursol, considering the assault was proven, sentenced the defendant to pay a fine of £1 17s. 6d., or in default fifteen days' imprisonment. The fine was paid.

THE CHURCH OF THE MESSIAH.—We are indebted to Mr. N. A. Little, of 255 Notre Dame Street, for an extremely beautiful lithographic engraving of this fine building, as it will appear when its tower is completed. It is from a drawing by Mr. F. Lawford and does infinite credit to the artistic skill and taste of both gentlemen.

FIRE.—About eight o'clock, on Saturday evening, a fire broke out in the establishment of Jacobs & Co., Craig street, near Queen's Square. The Brigade were promptly on the tpot, but, before any damage had been caused, he fire was extinguished by those on the premises.

CARAQUET OYSTERS.—The lovers of good oysters will perceive, that Mr. Shipway will sell some choice Caraquet on Tuesday morning next, at 9 o'clock, at Quebec Steamboat Basin.

TORONTO ASSIZES. — On Thursday, John O'Leary was indicted, at these assizes, for the murder of Hugh Kelly, in the township of Georgina, on the 20th July last. It will be remembered that O'Leary is the prisoner whose desperate attempt to escape from Toronto Jail we noticed a few days ago.—From the evidence adduced on the part of the prosecution it appeared, that on the day on which the murder was committed, the deceased had given evidence against the prisoner, in a case in which the latter had sued another for wages, and the consequence was that the suit was postponed till the next term of the Court, at which it was tried. It also appeared, from the evidence that the prisoner and deceased, on the same evening, were walking together to a tavern kept in Georgina, when the prisoner suddenly turned upon the deceased and stabbed him, and pushed him into a ditch. About ten feet from the place where the deceased lay was a piece of a vest corresponding with that worn by the prisoner. The road on which the murder was committed ran through a swamp about half a mile long. The prisoner was seen struggling with the deceased. When arrested, his trowsers and shirt were bloody, and blood was also observed on his face. On the body of the deceased there were discovered, by the medical men, no fewer than six desperate wounds, three of them sufficient to produce death. The jury could not agree upon their verdict when the Court rose, and, consequently were locked up for the night.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor of the MONTREAL HERALD.

SIR,—I have read with considerable pleasure your article upon Government Patronage, and the would-be smart reply thereto in the Transcript of this morning. In the reply, the editor attempts to be witty at your expense; and is quite oracular upon his knowledge of the life of Wharton, whom he describes as "the most unprincipled politician and ribald liar of his age." He then proceeds to advise the editor of the Herald either to go to school again, or to use a library of reference. After this, he gravely informs his readers that "the conduct of Sir James Graham towards Sir Charles Napier, did a great deal towards making him Member for Westminster!"

Westminster returns two members, who since 1852, have been General De Lacy Evans and Sir John V. Shelley. Sir Charles Napier is not, never was, nor ever likely to be member for Westminster. In 1852, the gallant Admiral was returned for the Borough of Southwark, which he has continued to represent to the present time. I do not think myself bound to supply brains, or become a Biographical Dictionary for every numskull," &c., &c., [to quote the Transcript,] but I cannot help supplying the Editor with the above piece of information, in the hope that for the future he will use his "books of reference" more for the correct study of modern politics than for biographical references to his "abandoned rascal, Wharton."

I am, Sir,
Yours, &c.,
POLITICIAN.

COUNTY OF DRUMMOND.

PUBLIC MEETING.

THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL CONDEMNED.

Pursuant to notice, signed by the Warden of the County, calling a public meeting of the electors of the County of Drummond, a meeting took place on Monday, 25th October instant, in the Township of Wickham.

Joseph Atkinson, Esq., Warden of the County, having read the requisition, and explained the object of the meeting, which was to take the political affairs of the country into consideration,

The Warden was called to the chair, and C. Lame, Esq., merchant, of L'Avenir, appointed secretary.

Mr. H. S. Griffing, farmer, of L'Avenir Village, moved the following resolution, seconded by Mr. P. Boisvest, farmer, of Wickham,

1. That the political affairs of Canada have arrived at such a crisis that it becomes the duty of every man true to its interest to take a firm stand, to extricate the country from the inevitable moral and political ruin which await it, should its affairs be administered any longer as they have been of late."

Mr. Griffing addressed the meeting, and the motion being put, was carried unanimously.

Moved by Mr. J. B. E. Dorion, farmer, of L'Avenir, seconded by Mr. James Mountain, farmer, of Durham.

2. That the people of Canada have cause to be alarmed at the mal-administration of its public affairs, by the several ministers that have succeeded each other for some time past—their want of principle—their disgraceful mismanagement of the public funds—their upholding, in every shape, bribery, corruption and fraud, for themselves, friends and partizans, have caused general dissatisfaction—greatly added to the public debt—increased the taxation in a manner that threatens to ruin the credit of the country, and the hopes that its inhabitants had in its future prosperity, and rendered a change of the administration and measures, and a radical reform in legislation, a matter of absolute necessity; therefore this meeting hailed with great satisfaction the downfall of the McDonald-Cartier Administration.

Mr. Dorion addressed the meeting and the motion was carried unanimously.

Moved by Mr. Edward Connolly, farmer, &c., mayor of Wickham, seconded by Mr. Charles Charpentier, farmer, of Durham.

3. That the inhabitants of this county heard with sincere delight of the formation of the Brown-Dorion Administration, which they hoped, with their well known political ability and integrity, would have adopted the means of restoring to the country a sounder state of legislation by annihilating everything tending to corruption, and, by practising economy in the expenditure of public funds, instead of the extravagance practised by their predecessors. Carried unanimously.

Mr. B. Smith, farmer, of Durham, addressed the meeting, and moved, seconded by Mr. Joseph Boisvert, farmer, of Wickham.

4. That it was with surprise and indignation that this meeting heard of the unexampled action of both branches of the Legislature towards the Brown-Dorion Ministry, in voting non-confidence in them, in their absence and without giving them an opportunity of explaining their policy, being a course without precedent under constitutional government. — Carried unanimously.

Mr. P. McCabe, senior, farmer, of Wickham, seconded by Mr. Louis Blanchet, of Drummondville, moved the following :—

That this meeting cannot find language too strong to express its disapprobation at the disgraceful shuffle resorted to, to reinstate the defeated Ministry into power under the name of the Cartier-Macdonald administration, being, in the opinion of this meeting, in direct violation of moral law and Constitutional principles.—Carried unanimously.

Mr. George Atkinson, of L'Avenir, then addressed the meeting and moved, seconded by Mr. F. X. Janelle, farmer, of Grantham.

6. That Sir Edmund W. Head, from the time of his arrival in Canada, has shown himself incompetent to fill the high post of representative to her Majesty, and that the countenance given by him to the conniving intrigues of the Macdonald Cartier and Cartier—Macdonald ministries, has established beyond a doubt his unfitness to govern any longer so important a colony as Canada.—Carried unanimously.

Proposed by Mr. Leon Paradis, merchant, of L'Avenir Village, seconded by Mr. S. Torrance, farmer of Wickham.

7. That an humble address to her Majesty, based on the foregoing resolutions and praying for the recall of Sir Edmund Head, be drafted by the movers and seconders of the same, and signed by the Warden of the county in the name of the meeting.—Carried unanimously.

Mr. P. N. Dorion, surveyor of Drummondville, seconded by Mr. John McCabe, farmer, of Wickham, moved the following resolution :—

8. That this meeting is of opinion, that nothing short of a written constitution, with proper checks as to public expenditure and the limitation of the public debt, can prevent the people of this Province from getting into serious difficulties.—Carried unanimously.

Moved by Mr. Thomas Beatie, farmer of Durham, seconded by Mr. Joseph Boisvert, of L'Avenir.

9. That this meeting rejoices at the re-election of all the members of the late administration of Brown-Dorion, in spite of the opposition of the present unscrupulous administration. —Carried unanimously.

Moved by Mr. Richard Pickin, farmer, of Durham, seconded by Mr. X. P. Eusse, of Drummondville.

10" That the members representing the counties of Stanstead, Compton, Sherbrooke, Brome, Missisqui, Richmond, Wolfe, Drummond and Arthabaska, have failed to fulfil their duty to the townships of Lower Canada, in allowing the 36th section of the Municipal Amendment act of 1858 to pass, which will have the effect of throwing the whole burden of making roads on the shoulders of the settlers." Carried unanimously, after being explained by Mr. Pickin.

Mr. W. Lacy, farmer of Durham, then addressed the meeting and moved, seconded by Mr. Moise, Gagnon, farmer, of Durham :—

11. That the conduct of the party usurping the seat of the county of Drummond and Arthabaska in the House of Assembly, during last session, has been such as to raise a general cry of indignation in this county, by the support he gave to every electoral fraud, from that of the county of Russell down to that of Quebec, and by his unremitting adhesion to the unprincipled Administrations of Macdonald-Cartier and Cartier-Macdonald.—Carried unanimously.

12. Moved by Mr. C. Charpentier, farmer, of Durham, seconded by Mr. J. O'Brien, farmer, of Wickham, and resolved.

That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the different newspapers.

After great cheering the meeting broke up.

Although the roads were in a bad state from the heavy rain that fell on Saturday and Sunday, the attendance was pretty good, there being from 250 to 300 present.

CONVENTION OF TELEGRAPH PRESIDENTS.

NEW-YORK, Oct. 24.—The North American Telegraph Association, composed of the leading companies now owning or working the main telegraph lines from Newfoundland to New Orleans, and from Quebec to the western border of Missouri, closed a three days' session in this city on Saturday. The association was organized by the appointment of Peter Cooper, Esq., of New York, president, Charles A. Mann, of Utica, vice president, and A. A. Lovett, of New York, secretary. A large delegation of the several companies interested was present, and the practical, business-like manner in which the matters for advisement were disposed of, gives promise that the business of telegraphing has at last fallen into hands competent to systematize and make it, as it should be, a means of reliable and rapid communication through the whole extent of this country.

Among the important subjects of consideration, we understand, were the early construction of reliable lines to California and Oregon. A committee was appointed to take this matter in hand and adopt prompt and efficient measures for the prosecution of the important work. A long desired reform was adopted in the uniform mode of counting the words constituting a message. Another subject was a better union for the improvement and protection of telegraph interests, aiming at increased facilities, with an ultimate reduction in tolls. Another feature of the objects of the association was the better regulation of the connections of the various lines, with a view of enforcing a more prompt correction of errors.

These and many other kindred subjects, tending to systematize this important business, occupied the deliberations of the association, and if carried out in good faith, as we have no doubt they will be, will greatly improve this branch of the public convenience in the communication of its vast wants, both of a social and mercantile character.

The association is composed of the New York London and Newfoundland Telegraph Co., the American Telegraph Co., the New York and Buffalo Co., the Western Union Co., the Atlantic and Ohio Co., the Illinois, Missouri, Iowa and Wisconsin Co., the New Orleans and Ohio Co., and the Montreal Co., having an aggregate capital invested of between five and six millions of dollars, and operating between 30,000 and 40,000 miles of wire. We also learn that arrangements are in progress, if not already consummated, by which the House Printing Line between New York and Washington is to be consolidated with the lines of the American Telegraph Co., thus placing the latter company in immediate communication with Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, removing the last obstacle in the way of a speedy extension of the printing telegraph lines along the seaboard to New Orleans.

SPAIN vs ENGLAND.

(From the London "Times.")

There is no vice of which a man can be guilty, no meanness, no shabbiness, no unkindness, which excites so much indignation among his contemporaries, friends, and neighbours, as his success. This is the one unpardonable crime which reason cannot defend nor humility mitigate.

"When HEAVEN with such parts has blest him,
"Have I not reason to detest him?"

is a genuine and natural expression of the vulgar human mind. The man who writes as we cannot write, who speaks as we cannot speak, who labours as we cannot labour, and thrives as we cannot thrive, has accumulated in his own person all the offences of which a man can be guilty. Down with him!—why cumbereth he the ground?

We cordially concede that if all the nations of the earth none has so good a right and so strong a reason to envy, to hate, and to speak evil of England as Spain. In the earlier days of their histories both countries were remarkable for possessing a Constitutional Government, for checking the inroads of Royal prerogative, and for asserting at least as much independence of the See of Rome as was consistent with sound Catholicism. If England could boast of her Charter extorted from the Crown by her warlike Barons, Spain has her tale to tell of the resolution of the Cortes at Burgos, who tied the five maravedis which King Alonzo VIII had asked from them to the end of their lances, and, in the language of Leonidas, bade him come and take them. The career of the two nations has, however, diverged, never, it should seem, to meet again. England has developed her free institutions, Spain has suffered them to be destroyed; England has embraced Protestantism, Spain has flung herself at the feet of the Roman Pontiff. England has a large debt, the interest on which she pays with punctuality; the old traditions of Castilian honour have not saved Spain from the disgrace of a gross and palpable repudiation; and, worse than all this, twice the present century has England saved Spain—once from the yoke of a foreign conqueror, and again from that of a domestic Pretender. Who can doubt that such a contrast of destiny and such enormous benefits, the consciousness of which no amount of boasting, no wilful perversion of history, can hide,—Spain being indebted to us for a large amount of blood, and a still larger amount of money, neither of which she has the slightest intention of repaying,—give Spain every right, and must justify her, not only in her own sight, but in that of Europo, for losing no opportunity of showing her hatred and venting her abuse on this country? But, though the sentiment is one at which we have no right to be surprised, the statements into which it has led one of our Spanish contemporaries are rather wide of the mark,—remarkably so, indeed, when it is considered that the journal in question is said to be under the inspiration of the French Embassy, a quarter whence better information might be expected. The first object of abuse in this production is the selfishness of England. The taunt is a vague one, but Spain will better appreciate the selfishness of England if she compares the conduct of a nation which at an enormous loss abolished slavery in her own colonies with that of the last European Power which clings to this execrable traffic, and if she will further contrast the subsidies, the arms, and the loans she has received from this country with the conduct of her gallant army, which plundered the baggage of her English alliea while they were engaged in fighting, on her behalf, the bloody battle of Talavera.

The next charge which is brought against us is that our boasted Habeas Corpus is a mere sham, being of advantage only to those who are rich enough to pay for bail,—a happy confusion of ideas which we will endeavour to unravel for the benefit of those, if any such there be, who think that it is just as well for a people to be without the Habeas Corpus as with it. Our Spanish contemporary will be surprised to learn that the writ of Habeas Corpus has nothing to do with the question of bail, whether paid for or gratuitous, and that by those two magical words is meant a right which would occasionally be highly appreciated by Spain—the right of every prisoner to obtain the opinion of a judge of the land, who is perfectly independent of the Crown, on the legality of his detention. If that detention be legal, he is remanded to his former custody; if illegal, he is at once discharged. In neither case has bail anything to do with the matter. Then, we are accused, from the land of the Inquisition, with which we have been so long negotiating to obtain for our fellow-countrymen the privilege of Christian burial in its soil, of intolerance to our own Catholic fellow-subjects; and the land of the Jesuits reproaches us with employing the missionaries of religion as the emissaries of commerce. The countrymen of Cortes, Almagro, and Pizarro are much scandalized with the rapine and tyranny of England in India,—which actually left the Sepoys without a single true excuse for their rebellion,—and the whole affair is treated as an unprovoked outbreak of our tyranny and thirst of blood. We are then told that the aristocracy of England send to the depths of Australia many millions of starving Englishmen whose shouts and whose miseries make them tremble. It will, no doubt, be gratifying to our veracious contemporary to learn that the whole population of the Australian colonies is yet considerably under a million, and that labourers are sent out thither, not by the funds of our barbarous Government or trembling aristocracy, but either at their own expense or that of the colonies themselves. Neither do the privileged men of Parliament drive their electors like sheep to the balloting urn, and command them to vote with their voting tickets open, first because privileges of Parliament ceases before the election, and next, because we have neither ballotting urns nor voting tickets wherewith to perpetrate these enormities. It is not among the English, says the French editor of the Spanish newspaper, that we must look for the model of disinterested and democratic government. What follows shows that he has another Power in his eye:—"While England maintains such monstrous institutions as the pressgang and primogeniture, it has no right to that superiority which the enemies of the latin nations give it." Even on these points we think we may enter the lists with the great latin nation thus modestly alluded to. In the Revolutionary War England had her pressgang, as France had her conscription. The difference is, that impressment has been discontinued, never to revive, while the conscription is as much as in the most glorious times of the First Napoleon.

Last comes the monstrous institution of primogeniture. The law of England is, that a man may dispose of his landed property as he pleases; the law of France insists on disposing of it for him, thus diminishing the motives for the accumulation of capital, lowering the authority of a father over his children, and interfering, as we in this country think most unfairly, with the natural right of every man to do with his own property as he pleases. It is only in case of intestacy that the law interferes at all in England, and then it gives the property to the eldest son. It will, however, be satisfactory to our contemporary to learn that this monstrous institution has little or no practical effect, except regulating the devolution of trust estates, a purpose for which it is found extremely convenient. The property of our nobility and landed gentry passes by virtue of the limitation in their marriage settlements, and, if this is not the case, the succession is almost uniformly regulated by will. Such are the enormities of which we are accused, and such the answer we have to make to the accusation. We leave it to our allies across the Channel to say whether they have reason to be proud of the literary champion who undertakes, under the auspices of their new Ambassador, to enlighten the people of Madrid as to England, her character, and her institutions.

THAT DESPATCH.—The "Canadian News"—a London weekly paper, devoid of influence, because notoriously subsidized by the Provincial Government and the Grand Trunk Company—in a late issue refers prominently to the despatch which the organs here dilated upon with great apparent satisfaction. "It has been officially announced," says the News, "that the "Imperial Government have signified to Sir "E. Head their approval of his conduct in not "dissolving the legislature during the late par-"liamentary crisis." The statement is repeated by another writer in the same paper, coupling with it the remark that the approval "comes just at the time when the attempt to "censure His Excellency in the Province has "failed." Evidence of this sort is not required to show the political animus of a journal which pretends to be neutral; for it has before attempted to help stock-jobbers by a perversion of facts relating to the Brown-Dorion Cabinet. What we have now to deal with is that despatch. We have again and again expressed an opinion that no despatch of the kind indicated is in existence; and we have challenged the apologists of Sir E. Head to prove by its publication that the statement about the approval of the Imperial Government was not coined purposely to mislead. Where is that despatch? Had it an existence the Ministerialists would lose no time in producing it. Such a thing would be a godsend to them. We stake our conviction against their assertion, and declare that the alleged despatch is a fiction. Sir E. Bulwer Lytton could not signify his approval of the Canadian Executive, in detail, or on essential points, without sultifying the policy he is so successfully applying to Colonial affairs. It were scarcely reasonable to expect that the Imperial Government will declare its opinions on the crisis as freely as an untrammelled press has done; but we predict that neither Sir Bulwer Lytton nor any other English statesman of mark, will peril his reputation by applauding the conduct of the Governor General.

For the twentieth time, we challenge the organs to produce that despatch. If it exist, so precious a thing should not be consigned to the moths in the old Hospital. If it does not exist, the fair presumption is, that it never did; and in that case the country will treat the whole story as a paltry trick, intended to weaken the force of the current of public opinion with regard to recent events. Let us have the despatch, or let the trick be confessed without more ado.—Toronto Globe.

LIVERPOOL TO CANADA via NEW ORLEANS.—Sometime in January last, a schoolmaster named Gill, from Ireland, arrived in Toronto, leaving behind him a wife and five children, who were to follow him as soon as he was in a position to send them sufficient means to bring them out. Being unable to obtain a situation, through the interposition of the Rev. Dr. Lett he received permission to open a private school in the St. George's Church school house, as the parochial committee were not in a position to engage him at a salary. He opened the school in April, and wrought hard and denied himself many of the necessaries of life to raise £16 sterling, which was represented to him as sufficient to bring out his family. Having succeeded in obtaining the money, he forwarded to his family a draft for that amount about the middle of July, at the same time directing his wife to come by way of Liverpool and Quebec. Mrs. Gill, obeying her husband's directions, went to Liverpool, where she learnt that £8 more would be required, and wrote to her husband to that effect. Through the assistance of Dr. Lett and another friend, Gill was enabled to send his wife an additional £10 sterling, which she duly received through an agent at Liverpool named Costello. Gill heard nothing further about his family until Friday last, when he received a letter from Costello, informing him that his family had been sent to New Orleans, and that on her arrival there she would have no money! At this most unexpected turn in the affair, the husband was well-nigh thunderstruck; and all the money he possessed, amounting to $10, he sent to New Orleans to relieve the more pressing wants of his family on the arrival of the ship. He has not yet heard from the latter city, and it is likely his family are still at sea. No reason has been furnished for Costello's sending them to New Orleans; but the facts here set forth may act as a caution to other poor emigrants similarly situated.

TORONTO POLICE.—The Police Commissioners of Toronto have closed their investigation into the charges brought against the Chief of Police in connection with the Bank robbery, by reporting that he had not acted contrary to instructions. It will be remembered that a few weeks ago a Custom House messenger went to deposit a large sum of money in the Bank of Upper Canada. This money was stolen off the counter, whilst the messenger was waiting to deposit it. The doors were fastened and Mr. Sherwood the Chief of Police sent for. Among the persons in the Bank were three strangers, who were searched by the Chief on his arrival, but the missing money was not found; he however took the parties to the Station-house. In the course of the afternoon the package of money less about $10 was left at Mr. Sherwood's. He at once delivered it at the Bank, and Mr. Ridout, the Casbier, stated that he had nothing against the arrested parties; Mr. Sherwood therefore discharged them, and he states that throughout the transaction he acted in accordance with instructions from Mr. Gurnet and the Mayor. The Mayor has dissented from the decision of the Police Commissioners, on the ground that the Chief of Police disobeyed orders in discharging persons arrested for robbery; that he also acted in opposition to the Magistrates who had issued a warrant to commit the prisoners to jail, and further, that he knew the prisoners lodged in a house where there were thieves, that he did not search the trunks of the suspected parties, nor make any attempt to arrest them, although he knew that a warrant had been issued. It appears to us from the evidence that although the Chief acted contrary to orders, he did so with a view of securing the stolen money and having succeeded, he discharged the prisoners as advised by Mr. Ridout.—Witness.

SINGULAR CIRCUMSTANCE.

A correspondent writing from Portage du Forte, C.E., furnishes the Perth Courier with the following account of a singular circumstance that occurred lately in the township of Litchfield, C.E.:—

"A man by the name of John McIntosh, who has been farmer for Wm. Cobb for some twelve or thirteen years, went out upon Wednesday to look after a bull that had been gone in the woods for some time. On his way he called into a neighbor's house and told them that he felt very chilly and not well at all. He had left without breakfast. That night he did not come home—the people became alarmed, and as there was no word of him next day, a search was set on foot. The whole neighborhood was up, and day after day the search was renewed. The surrounding bush was not large enough to wander in over half a day and be lost. Some thought he was eat by the bears—some that he was murdered—others that he had drowned himself, and the adjoining waters were dragged. All to no purpose. For two weeks this state of things continued and no traces of the missing man could be found. The people gave up the search as useless. On the seventeenth day, a boy belonging to the last house he had called at came running into his mother saying "Here is John McIntosh." The woman, (a Mrs. Robert Gilchrist) not believing the boy, disregarded him; but as the lad continued to assert that it was him, she went to the door, and there he was, sure enough, and so weak and emaciated that he could not speak, and he begged by signs for the boy to give him a stick to help him to the house. After some trouble the woman got him to bed, and then sent word to Mr. Cobb. His feet were swollen so much that his boots had to be cut from them. Every one was anxious to hear his history as soon as he got strength to tell it. He stated that he lay the whole time under the cleft of a rock, near a spring of cold water—how he got there he knew not, but his strength left him and he could not leave the spot. He saw one of the men who was on the search, and the dog quite close to him twice, when he made all the efforts possible to draw the man's attention, but could not, as he had not the least power to speak or move. He thinks that he tried to leave the place three or four times, but could not. When he awoke (for he had been asleep) on the seventeenth day, he says he heard a voice which said "Rise, rise, and go home," when he made his way to the house as above stated. He says he knew his feet were swelling, and would have cut his boots open if he had had a knife, but he had none. Strange that a man could live so long without food, and be sensible, as he must have been, the greater portion of the time. The case is truly wonderful."

Trade and Commerce.

HERALD OFFICE, }
Oct. 30, 1858. }

Business has not been so active this week as last, still there has been considerable done.

The auction sales were well attended, but if we except the trade sale on Tuesday last, there was but little spirited bidding.

Goods for the West are being pushed forward before the winter rates for freight go into force.

Sea-going vessels are filling up slowly, and at unusually low rates.

Several of our Banks have declared a semi-annual dividend of four per cent.

Importers complain—and not without cause—that the increase of duties under the new tariff has to be borne almost exclusively by them, as prices have ruled generally so low as not more than to cover the old rate of duty.

The markets continue as last quoted, except Salt, which has been sold at 70 @ 71 cents per bag for Liverpool from the wharf, and at 78c from store.

For Produce Stocks, &c. see Broker's Circular.

We do not publish our Wholesale Prices Current this morning, as we have no alteration to note from that of last week, with the exception of "Hennessy's" and "Martell's" Brandies, which are quoted at $3,00 @ $3,20.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

For the information of the public, we will publish some notes of eminent Physicians on the Plantagenet Water, which will be followed, from time to time, by the certificates of its merit in many cases of disease.

"With regard to RHEUMATISM, there appears to be a very general concurrence, as regards the value of the Plantagenet Water, among medical men in this Province."

"GOUTY AFFECTIONS.—The allied nature of this disease to the former, points to an analagous mode of management; and there can be no question, that Gouty as well as Rheumatic affections have derived great benefit from the use of the Plantagenet Water."

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement, in another part of this paper, for N. H. Down's Elixir, that great medicine for coughs, colds and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs. Be sure and get that signed with pen, N. H. Downs, and numbered, for all others are counterfeit. Price 50 cents, and one dollar per bottle. They also have a nice trial bottle for 25 cents. OXYGENATED BITTERS.

Letter from Rev. C. W. Denison.

Boston, June 6, 1854.

Gentlemen,—Having suffered considerably from Dyspepsia, in consequence of close confinement to my duties on ship-board, during a recent voyage to and from the Pacific coast, I was induced, by the advice of a friend, to try a bottle of your Oxygenated Bitters.

I must frankly say, that the effect thus far has been highly favorable. Mrs. Denison has also been an invalid from a Chronic Pleurisy, arising from Dyspepsia, and has experienced great relief from the use of the Bitters. I feel a real pleasure in recommending them to the public.

The stooping frame may be straightened, the trembling nerves quieted, and the whole muscular system braced, by a course of the Pills. They seem not only to purge the internal organs of all impurities, but to infuse into every fibre a new principle of vitality. Let not the sick say that their constitutions are broken down, until they have tested the renovating properties of Holloway's wonderful restorative. Nov. 1. r-DC 259

Many kinds of tonic are advertised that we are assured will strengthen the hair and prevent its falling out, but none that we have seen used does all that it promises, save that of Prof. O. J. Wood. This we know is good from having tried it, and witnessed in several cases its truly beneficial effects. Dr. Wood was kind enough to send us a couple of bottles, and after finding that it prevented our hair from falling out, we presented a bottle to a friend who had been bald for at least thirty years; it has restored his hair entirely, and it is now as thick and glossy as when he was twenty-five. This we say in all sincerity, and we shall be glad to have our friends try it, for themselves, as we believe it is just what it professes to be. For real worth, Wood's Hair Restorative is undoubtedly the best preparation now in use for restoring hair on bald heads changing grey hairs to their original color, and for a cosmetic or cure for pimples, it is fast taking the place of other preparations. No toilet now a days is complete without it.

If any one should ask us what in our opinion, arrived at by an impartial test; was the best and most honest compound remedy for preserving and beautifying the hair, and restoring grey hair to its original color, and the locks to the bald-headed, we should without hesitation say Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative. See advertisement in another column.—Louisville Journal.—Sold by all Druggists.
