

Patrons Have Much Praise For This Year's Huntingdon Fair

Although the weatherman failed to co-operate for the 1963 Huntingdon Fair, it seems that almost everyone else did, and the overall event was a success from start to finish. Opening with a grand parade on Thursday evening that was comprised of worth-while floats, saddle horses and ponies, decorated bicycles, etc., the parade route was well lined with spectators on every street. Grand finale of the most successful Fair ever held in Huntingdon was the dance Saturday evening when the CPRA Happy Wanderers played to a capacity crowd. Gate receipts each evening far exceeded those of former years. The Friday evening performance in the County War Memorial Arena was marred by an electrical storm that disrupted the show for some time when the lights failed.

The midway was good and well patronized, but the wet, cool weather was not conducive to older people who would otherwise have enjoyed the rides. However, the show in the Arena left little to be desired and the diversity of entertainment kept the audience enthused all evening, each evening. Novel pony and saddle horse competitions interspersed with serious judging in the various classes was good entertainment for young and old, while the clown and trapeze acts provided hearty laughs.

Some of the saddle horse classes had as many as thirty entries in the Arena at one time. There were a few bad moments Friday evening when the lights failed and some wondered if the judges and others on foot would be trampled, but the riders kept their horses under control and all was as it should be when the lights came on again. The sudden storm that disrupted the electricity was accompanied by heavy rain and the attractions outside the Arena and Industrial Building did little until quite late in the evening.

Another unfortunate incident marred events when Mr. L. A. "Les" Sanderson, Manager of the Huntingdon Branch of the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, was stricken with an attack of appendicitis late Friday evening and operated on Saturday morning. Mr. Sanderson, whose operation was serious because of complications, is still suffering considerable discomfort but is on the road to recovery. The drawing for the Dominion of Canada Bond was postponed to a later date, however, as Mr. Sanderson was in charge of this event.

A good sound system with J. J. Boisseau at the mike was a decided asset in the Memorial Arena. Booths in the Industrial Building did a steady business and the fruit and vegetable displays overhead attracted considerable attention. The cut flower and plant displays at each end of the Memorial Arena were magnificent. The cattle exhibits are described by Mr. Frank Napier in another section of this issue.

this year's Huntingdon Fair was the Best Yet.

From the public's point of view, this year's innovation of a printed programme was one of the foremost improvements.

The winner of the Transistor Radio which was awarded to the holder of the Program bearing the lucky number, was Richard Laman, Verdun, Que., with No. 1171.

LAWRENCE MURPHY REPLACES LATE ALDERMAN WALSH

The Rectory, Huntingdon, Que.

Dear Friends,

We are overwhelmed with the love and care of all in the District, and by the great desire of all to help in any way that they can. Frank has ridden on before, with the wind in his hair and shirt. He has left all of us who loved him here to carry on, showing the same kind of love that he did to young and old. He loved to do things for his friends.

We deeply appreciate all the thought, care and prayer.

There is one thing you can all do — Channel your love, care and prayer to the young people of the District. For as much as you do it for one of them, you do it to us and to Christ who inspired Frank and made his love possible.

God bless you all.

Cattle Exhibits At Huntingdon Fair Well Representative Of The Various Local Breeds

Some 130 head of Holsteins paraded before the judge, Alex Sneddon, Almonte, Ont., on Friday, August 30, to constitute the annual Black & White Show of the Huntingdon-Ormslow Holstein Club at the 1963 Huntingdon Fair. On the following day there was also a very good, sizeable show of 4-H Holstein Calves, in the latter instance with a smaller but very good Ayrshire section.

Weatherwise, while surrounding areas, particularly Ormslow and Howick, were deluged with heavy rains on the Friday, the Holstein men were favoured with comparatively mild weather for their Black & White Day which was largely organized by Secretary of the Club Leon Beaudin. In attendance in their official National Association capacities were Armand Pinsonneault, Ormslow, as a Quebec Director of that Association, and Herma Lajoie, Montreal, Secretary of the Quebec Branch of the Association.

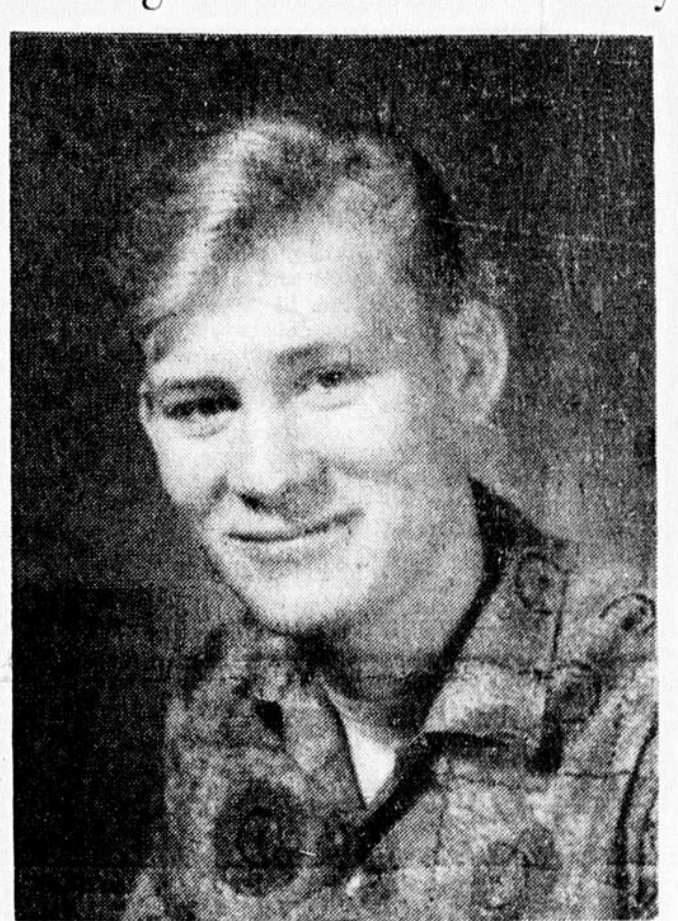

The Holstein men were also lucky in that they were partially housed in the new Aluminum Barn, as were the Holstein 4-H Club Calves on the Saturday. The Fair directors are to be commended on this new innovation, but it is hoped that, if they are "forward looking", so to speak, this will only be the first of several such erections, because on the Saturday the Ayrshire men had to be content with the old outdated barns, were therefore naturally envious of their rival breed. It is also hoped that, when the cattle barns are all together, the Arena will be available for the cattle judging during the daytime.

While the Glen Brae herd of G. M. Henderson, Howick, annexed the largest number of the first and second prizes in the individual and group classes, ten others also figured in that list.

The G. M. Henderson herd won 6 first and 2 second prizes, also the Junior Male Championship on Glen Brae. Magic Hotspur which had won similar honours at this year's Ormslow Exhibition and Maxville Spring Fair, the senior and grand female championship on Wendy Wayne Sovereign, an "Excellent" daughter of A.B.C. 18-Year-Old Youth Loses Life In Tragic Accident Labor Day

Frank Bernard Stote

The community was both shocked and saddened to hear of the tragic death of one of its youths, eighteen-year-old Frank Stote, in a motorcycle accident which occurred shortly before noon on Monday, Labor Day.

Around 11:30 that morning, Frank told his father, The Reverend P. Raymond Stote, that he had left his motorcycle near Sylvester's Point on Route 3, the previous evening as he had run out of gas after driving a friend to Cazaville from St. Anicet. He and his father left the Stote summer home about one mile west of Port Lewis to get some gas and retrieve the motorcycle. The bereaved father says that after filling the motorcycle's gas tank, the machine started immediately and Frank headed back to camp. Mr. Stote stopped en route to visit friends for a few minutes and then he started home. About midway between St. Anicet and Port Lewis he came upon a small group of people standing near the road. He stopped and asked if there had been an accident. The reply he received in the affirmative, he peered over a cement abutment and saw his son lying on the ground.

An eyewitness to the accident said he saw Frank lose control of the motorcycle, but nobody knows the reason for this. Mr. Stote believes his son stayed on the motorcycle after it went into the ditch, but was thrown off when he hit a cement abutment. Death was instantaneous, caused by multiple injuries.

The entire community extends sincere sympathy to Reverend and Mrs. Stote and family in their great bereavement.

Frances Walker, R.N. 1882 - 1963

The Community of Huntingdon, including, of course, The Royal Canadian Legion, have suffered a severe loss in the passing of Miss Frances Walker, R.N., who passed away suddenly on August 31, 1963, at the Barrie Memorial Hospital, to which she had been admitted only on the day before.

Frances ("Fanny") to her original associates) Walker was a third generation member of a family which had contributed to the welfare and furtherance of the Huntingdon area in a very material way, during the past almost 140 years. In that respect Robert Sellar's History of Huntingdon, Chateauguay and Beauharnois records several interesting pages and other items about the Rev. William Montgomery Walker, a native of Ayrshire, Scotland, who came to Huntingdon in the fall of 1834, and there founded the first St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. By and by, however, the Rev. Mr. Walker returned on call from another Kirk in his native land, but later on his son William H. Walker came to Canada, while still below teenage, with his sister, to live with and finally succeed his Uncle Hugh Barn, on the farm which is now owned by Miss Lillian Rankin, R.N., on which is now also located Miss Rankin's well known River View Terrace Rest Centre.

As the years went by William H. Walker became one of the leaders in Municipal and Provincial affairs, including the long time Secretaryship of the very active Dairymen's Association of that day. A longtime Councillor and Mayor of the Township of Godmanchester, therefore also of the Huntingdon County Council, he and the late D. H. Brown, Mayor of Elgin Township, were mainly responsible for the several iron bridges which were erected over the Trout and Chateauguay Rivers in the two townships. As a Member of the Provincial Parliament, which he was for several years, he was influential in getting the "Walker Bridge", which still stands over the Chateauguay River at Lorne Avenue. On his retirement from farming he built that new fine old residence which overlooks the Chateauguay River, on Chateauguay Street, which he named "Ochiltree" after his original Scottish home.

In the meantime, William H. Walker had been united in marriage with the former Miss Janet Wilson, the result of that union being a son, William Montgomery, and three daughters, Margaret, Millicent and Frances. However, following his World War I service, William Montgomery (Monty) went to Australia, where he died a considerable number of years ago; the Misses Margaret and Millicent also died several years ago.

After School and High School and an extended trip to Scotland, Frances Walker entered the Montreal General Hospital for training as a Nurse with final graduation as an R.N. (Registered Nurse), shortly afterwards, in 1916, she enlisted in the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps, as a Nurse, with the rank of Captain, and immediately proceeded overseas to serve in (Continued on page 2)

Mrs. Gonzague Brunet of Ormslow Celebrates 96th Birthday

Ninety-six Year Old Mrs. Gonzague Brunet of Ormslow says, "BE HAPPY — MAKE OTHER PEOPLE HAPPY!"

Mrs. G. Brunet smilingly told us she firmly believes that her long life is directly due to moderation in all things. "I was always moderate in everything, and I have always been very happy," said this queenly lady. She recalled her arrival in Ormslow as a bride seventy-five years ago. "The Ormslow band met us at the station and escorted us to the Ormslow Hotel, and there we had a fine time with wonderful music. The hotel was run by Mr. Prejant and the band master was Mr. Bryson. I remember when I stepped off the train, Mr. Bryson came to me and my husband and welcomed us and he squeezed my hand so hard and so long it brought tears to my eyes."

Mrs. Brunet bore her husband ten children, five boys and five girls, and although her husband predeceased her thirty-five years ago, Mrs. Brunet has always had her family near her. She believes a loyal family is the greatest blessing a woman can have. This lady of ninety-six years is still very active, she reads without the aid of glasses, her hearing is most keen and her memory is as fresh as it was the day she arrived in Ormslow. She was a school teacher prior to her marriage and taught 50 pupils on the Black River road near St. Chrysostome, for fifteen dollars a month. Her second that first year was five dollars a month, making her total school term salary $100.00. "Life is different today," says Mrs. Brunet, "Books are different and I think better

Col. H. W. Rick Farm, Glenelm, Sold

Word has been received that Col. Howard W. Rick, Glenelm, has sold his farm to Dr. Ivan Lesveque of Ste. Anne de Bellevue. Col. Rick bought this farm, on the Third Concession of Elgin, from Cameron Stewart of Huntingdon, sixteen years ago. Until ill health forced him to give up active farming, Col. Rick maintained a fine herd of Jersey Cattle and several show horses and ponies.

Col. and Mrs. Rick, during their stay in this community have taken an active part in community affairs and have gained many friends. It is with sincere regret that they are moving this week to Danville, Que., where they will be near his two brothers. The best wishes of the community go with them.

Town Flag Pulled Down and Ripped Up — Subversive Act

The Union Jack draped over the Town of Huntingdon (The Anti-Royalist Society) and "Disciples de Chenier" (Disciples de Chenier) were printed hands late Saturday night or early Sunday. It was found among the flowers at the fountain in front of the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce by Alderman McGrigle on Sunday and a two-colored letterhead was in its folds. (Inset) "Le Reveil du Chien d'Or" (The awakening of the Golden Dog); "La So-

Some of the instigators of some of the subversive acts might be more English than French, or of European or "Foreign" descent. We endorse the belief that very few indeed are the French-Canadian who support subversive acts.

Canadians as a whole, French, or of European or like to see a distinctive Canadian flag, the average person of either race is much too intelligent to be impressed by a few radicals.

Alderman Picard's Resignation Creates Another Vacancy Here

A regular meeting of the Huntingdon Town Council was held at the County Building, on Tuesday evening, with all members present except Alderman Picard.

Mr. Lawrence Murphy the newly elected alderman, was welcomed by Mayor Lefebvre and duly took the Oath of Office before taking his seat. Alderman Murphy replaces the late Alderman Walsh and will represent the East Ward.

The minutes of previous meetings were read and passed and a number of bills were passed for payment.

Mrs. Joe Varin applied to the Council for a permit to operate a dance hall and restaurant on West Street. The Council decided to take the matter under consideration.

A party asked if he were to build a house on a certain location on Bouchette Street north of Porrier Street, if he could obtain water and sewer facilities. Presently neither of the facilities are in this area and the council would have to make a study of the matter before being able to reply.

Huntingdon Woolen Mills applied for a permit to extend a part of their premises on Dalhousie St. The plan calls for building out and over the sidewalk for a distance of about 35 feet and which would be supported on iron pillars. The plan is to consolidate the offices in one centre. Mayor Lefebvre said that he felt this was something a little different to ordinary procedure and would require some legal advice before an answer could be given. He therefore felt that the town lawyer should be consulted. This will be done before any decision is reached in the matter.

A letter was read from Alderman Picard, in which he tendered his resignation due to reasons of health. He stated he would have liked to finish out his term of office, but this is impossible and therefore asked that his resignation be accepted. The council felt that there was no other alternative under the circumstances and the resignation was accepted and recorded.

Mayor Lefebvre announced that Nominations would be held on Monday, September 9th, at the usual hour and place.

Beware the radar traps on Highway No. 4 Provincial Police were in the Ormstown area several days past week and more than likely are operating somewhere on Route 4 this week too. Observe the speed laws, especially entering towns, and save your money. This writer was clocked by radar at 41 m.p.h. in a 30 m.p.h. zone near the Barrie Memorial last Wednesday and given a ticket. Also remember that schools opened today, so go slow near schools and keep a wary eye open at intersections... don't forget the younger children can be crossing the streets well before noon and before 3.30... they get out before the higher classes. When you see "30 m.p.h. ahead", start slowing down to that speed and be within it when you see "30 M.P.H." One more word of advice: we have been told that police will take a real dim view of motorists who pass a stopped school bus, from EITHER direction. Observe the law, save time and money... and maybe a life too.

Town men did a good job of clearing streets in town before the Fair and now we're told that road crews are doing a commendable job of cutting brush along Route 52 in preparation for Havelock Fair on Saturday the 14th.

Did you know that Joe Soulier was buried on Monday? The old man was known, by sight at least, by every farmer in the district. For as long as most people can remember, he always looked the same, sort of bent over and stooped, with a beard. He called at homes in town and throughout the countryside, selling axe and hammer handles. Sometimes he would be walking, sometimes riding in an old buggy behind a tired-looking horse... for a time he had a small wagon or sleigh hitched to two dogs. Nobody seems to know the age of "Old Joe Soulier," but some think he was one of the oldest people around.

According to "The Sellar History", the first agricultural show or Fair in Huntingdon, was in 1828 (Page 385). "It was held 'on the green', the open space between Bowron's house and the canal and mill... a place where children played and in summer evenings housewives gathered for social gossip. It was a meagre affair, of course, a few horses and more oxen; a group of cows and an odd sheep or two. $72 was said by Mr. Norval in prizes and then the day was celebrated with a carouse... etc. etc." A far cry from the splendid Fair of 1963.

Geret (George) Westwick worked in spare time for the past part of a year building a speedboat and recently launched it at St. Anicet. Powered by a Ford V-8 motor, the craft cuts its waves at a good clip and handles well. He still experiences trouble with the cooling system, but when this is overcome he will have a fast boat.

Several property changes have taken place in recent days and others are in the process of being completed. Among these is the home of the late Mrs. Fred Bruce at 207 Chateauguay St. which has been purchased by Mr. H. Wendell Valdie, of Athelstan. The Waldies also own a house on King St. and one on Lorne Ave., but expect to reside at the former Bruce residence when extensive renovations now being made, are completed. The transaction on behalf of the Bruce estate was made by Mrs. Elizabeth Hallamore, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Bruce.

At time of writing, 12.30 p.m. Monday, we have just learned of the death of Frank Stote in a motorcycle accident somewhere between Port Lewis and St. Anicet. More facts elsewhere in this issue. Suffice it to say here that Frank was a popular lad whose untimely death will be mourned by a wide circle of friends in the Huntingdon/Ormstown/Herdman area where his father, The Reverend P. Raymond Stote, is Rector of the Anglican congregations.

Interest to Gleaner readers is the fact that Monday, Labor Day, marked the 50th Anniversary of the arrival of our good friend, Frank N. Napier, in Canada, who was en route to Detroit, Mich. Frank arrived on the S. S. Cassandra which docked at Montreal the previous evening, Sunday, and the passengers disembarked on Monday, Labor Day, 1913.

Worthy of note to farmers in the Chateauguay Valley is the fact that members of Eastern Breeders Inc. may call their local headquarters (in our case Ormstown) free of charge by calling ZEnith 74600. Zenith is now installed in each of Eastern Breeders' 10 branch offices including Port Hope, Belleville, Kingston, Smiths Falls, Renfrew, Ottawa, Chesterville, Hawkesbury, Martintown and Ormstown. More about this later.

Some streets, currently Chateauguay St. W., are being given blacktop patching. The Plank Road from Port Lewis to Huntingdon received a layer of crushed stone over hot tar. When this is packed, it will result in a good road for a while but in the meantime driving on the loose stone is treacherous.

Preparations for the Navy League Ball to be held in the Legion Hall, Huntingdon, are progressing. This ball, which promises to be one of the big social events of the season, is to be held on Friday, October 11. The guest of honor will be Commodore M. J. A. T. Jette, C.D., R.C.N., Senior Naval Officer of the St. Lawrence River area. A limited number of tickets for the ball have been printed.

Last week we spoke of mushrooms growing through the asphalt at Huntingdon Dry Cleaners Reg'd. Show here are Mr. Andrew J. McGerrige and son Bob examining the mushrooms. Mr. McGerrige told Messrs. Zabitsky and Brown that the mushrooms are edible and that they can expect to see a lot more in front of their premises. A brother of Douglas J. of Huntingdon and Barry of Ormstown, Andrew McGerrige and family spend their summers at Port Lewis. A high school teacher at Sorel, with special math classes, Mr. McGerrige estimates the mushrooms exert 32 lbs. pressure per sq. inch. Meanwhile, Dave and Eric are still wondering how they are going to keep their front lot black-topped.

The flag-ringing incidents over the week-end at the Fountain in front of the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce and at the Fair Grounds are despicable. No doubt most of us want to see a distinctive Canadian flag, but ripping up a Union Jack is no way to express our views. If the perpetrators of this cloak-and-dagger deed would use their time and money to design a new flag, they would be accomplishing something constructive and not destructive.

A Mr. Bartlett of the Town of Mount Royal who has a summer home at St. Anicet suffered an unfortunate and painful injury Sunday. His 25 hp. outboard motor had just been returned after repairs and he attempted to mount it on his boat alone. Half-way through the job he suffered a stabbing pain in his back and his M.D. advised him he had slipped a disc in his back. Mr. Bartlett, a representative of Clark's Foods, was unable to stand upright or even sit comfortably. He was transferred to Montreal via Kelly Ambulance.

Again, don't forget the schools are open: drive carefully stop before passing a stationary school bus from either direction, and obey the traffic rules. Don't forget the radar traps.

This morning (Wednesday) we learn that technicians connected with the proposed 1967 World's Fair will submit a brief to Ottawa suggesting that the Montreal World's Fair be postponed until 1969... or the site changed. Oh well, we learned from Mrs. Kay Williams this week that according to the Royal Automobile Club our Highway No. 4 from Trout River to Mercer Bridge was not scheduled for a facelift anyway. Neither was there mention of a new highway. A letter from the Royal Automobile Club addressed to Mrs. Williams will appear in The Gleaner next week.

Meanwhile, we know that Route 4 is an important link between Montreal and New York State... We know that remain as is for years to come. Maybe if the proposed 1967 new highway is needed... Now we know it will probably remain as is for years to come. Maybe if the proposed 1967 Fair is postponed, the extra two years will be sufficient for the powers that be to realize that a new highway is a necessity in what is regarded as Canada's best dairy farming belt.

Trade Mark, the Junior Female Championship on Terrace Bank Polly, Minn.

Davies Bros., Colonial Acres, Huntingdon, won 7 first and 4 second prizes, also the Senior and Grand Male Championship, as they did last year, on Hammonds Top Grade. They also won the Reserve Junior Female Championship on Colonial Acres Model and the Reserve Senior and Reserve Grand Female Championships on Vether Brae Cupie.

Oscar Vaillancourt, St. Chrysostome won four first and four second prizes, plus the Senior and Grand Female Championship on Marydale Daisy's Belle. Allan H. Wilson, Franklin Centre, won one first and three second prizes, and the Reserve Junior Male Championship on Clear Brook Corporal.

Other prize winners were George Dickenson, Franklin Centre; Linda McMillan, Franklin Centre, and Ross Irving, St. Anicet.

The special Herd Competition, already referred to in connection with the Holsteins, brought out a very striking array from 7 different herds, with the J. Earle Ness & Sons Exhibit as the winner of the Gilbert Macmillan Challenge Trophy for the second year in succession. The other winners were: 2. Davies Bros.; 3. Oscar Vaillancourt; 4. Allan H. Wilson; 5. J. B. Cairncross & Sons; 6. George Dickenson; 7. Ross Irving; 8. Linda McMillan.

Once again, we might suggest that considerable credit should be given, perhaps recorded year by year in the prize list, to the late Adam L. Sellar for having organized the Ayrshire and Holstein Special Herd Competitions which have undoubtedly helped build up these two sections of Huntingdon Fair. Also that the contributors should be specially thanked for their past and current generous donations. Viz: Cleyn & Tinker Ltd.; Huntingdon Chateau; Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce; Bank of Montreal; Fry Cadbury Co.; Borens, Montreal; Shawinigan Water and Power Company; Belle Vallee Dairy, Valleyfield; De Laval Co.; Johnson & Johnson Ltd.; Elmhurst Dairy. This year also J. Gemmill, Wilson, St. Valentin, and George M. Henderson, Howick. Also J. M. Smellie and Gilbert Macmillan for their Holstein and Ayrshire, respectively, Challenge Trophies.

According to Clarence McGe, Secretary of the district Jersey Cattle Club, there was a small but select display of that herd of cattle with the prizes being pretty evenly divided between Ton C. Quinell, J. Edmond Sproule and Rose Mary Sproule.

A new innovation, at least in a great many years was a Beef Cattle Section in which John Dagg showed a number of animals that were worthy representatives of the Hereford breed of cattle.

Finally a few words of commendation to the new Fair Secretary, T. W. Brooks, and his assistants. The Ring Clerks were equipped with an up-to-date list of the entries class by class, while Mr. Brooks made a new innovation by way of a catalogue of the entries in every class in both the Horse Show and Cattle Divisions. It is true that in several of the cattle classes there were dilatory added entries not recorded therein, nevertheless the catalogue served a very useful purpose that has hitherto been lacking.

Havelock — Labor Day week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. Laurin were Mr. and Mrs. C. Labelle and family of Greenfield Park. Sunday guests at the same home were Mr. and Mrs. George Laurin and Gordon of Huntingdon, Mr. and Mrs. E. Allen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Laurin and family and Mr. and Mrs. John Laurin and family.

Mrs. J. Elvidge and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Collins and Lois were Saturday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Laurin and family.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Baskin of Ormstown and Mrs. Fay Kerr of Calgary, Alta. were Saturday callers on Mr. and Mrs. Ossie Mannagh.

Birthday wishes go out to Miss Rena Buchanan who celebrates on Sept. 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbie Pilon and Wendy were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Allen. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Pilon and family of Ormstown were Monday guests at the same home.

Wayne Sovereign. The other first and second prize winners were: Willie J. Todd & Sons with 1 first and the senior and Grand Male Championship. (In that respect it may be noted that, unfortunately, the Huntingdon prize list does not provide for reserve championship placings); Spencer Gavin - 1 first and 2 second prizes and the Junior Female Championship; W. R. Tannahill - 4 firsts and 2 seconds; Mervyn Graham - 2 firsts and 3 seconds; Cecil Murphy - 1 first and 6 seconds. Harold Dineen, Donald Hamilton, and Rene Leduc & fils, with 1 first each; Tinnie de Vries and M. Sauve with one second each.

The first three winners in the regular group classes were: Senior Get of Sire: 1. W. R. Tannahill; 2 and 3. Cecil Murphy.

Junior Get of Sire: 1. W. R. Tannahill; 2. Mervyn Graham; 3. Donald Hamilton.

Produce of Dam: 1. Mervyn Graham; 2. Cecil Murphy; 3. W. R. Tannahill.

Senior Herd: 1. G. M. Henderson; 2. Cecil Murphy; 3. Donald Hamilton.

The seven entries in the Special Herd Class made a most imposing display, and, if a personal reference in that respect is pardonable, it was most gratifying to this writer, because with Gilbert Macmillan we acted as advisor to the late Adam L. Sellar when, several years ago, he organized that competition for both Holsteins and Ayrshires, in an effort to boost the entries from both breeds. That is, Gilbert Macmillan and this writer evolved the number and qualifications to govern such entries, but the idea was originally Adam Sellar's and he personally solicited the prize moneys, which donations by individuals and firms have mostly been continued year by year since then.

The Holstein winners this year were: 1. and J. "Mac Smellie Challenge Trophy — G. M. Henderson; 2. Spencer Gavin; 3. W. R. Tannahill; 4. Mervyn Graham; 5. Donald Hamilton; 6. Cecil Murphy; 7. Roger Leduc.

The Ayrshire Show While the regular Howick Huntingdon Ayrshire Club Red and White Show will be held at Havelock Fair on September 14, the Ayrshire Show at Huntingdon was nevertheless good and large enough to rank with the best shows of that kind. The Ayrshire Club was worthily represented by very select groups of animals from 8 different herds. The only drawback was the cold, dreary weather and the distance from the barns to the open air ring. Once again we venture to hope that, by and by, the Cattle barns will be all grouped together within easy access of the Arena with the Cattle being judged therein during the daytime. The Ayrshire Show was managed by Henry Wallace with the assistance of Louis Plante and Clifford McGe. Considerable credit should also be given Gilbert Macmillan for his "labour of love", so to speak, to soliciting the entries for the Special Herd Class, therefore for the Ayrshire Show in general.

The Ayrshire classes were judged by James Houston, Manager of Macdonald College's Farm and Livestock.

Largest winner of first and second prizes in the individual and group classes was the firm of J. Earle Ness & Sons with 12 first and 11 second prizes, also with the Junior Male Championship, also spent several years in Canada.

We would also extend our sincere condolences to Miss Idella Ingraham, R.N., who has shared "Ochiltree" with Miss Walker for a great many years. Together they were fellow students and graduate Nurses of Montreal General Hospital, while Miss Ingraham was also a Nursing Sister of the R.C.A.M.C. in Canadian Hospitals in England and France during W.W.I. Like Miss Walker she again re-joined the R.C.A.M.C. on the outbreak of W.W. II and with Miss Walker was on the staff of St. Anne de Bellevue Military Hospital throughout W.W. II.

Following the service by the Rev. J. M. Grant, Miss Walker's remains were interred in the family plot Huntingdon Protestant Cemetery, on Tuesday, September 3rd, 1963.

EDNIE-DUNN

On Saturday, August 17th, Mr. Donald Ednie was best man for his brother. The bride, Norma, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Ross Dunn, brother of the bride, Eric Peter Ednie, and Mr. Alexander Ednie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eric A. Ednie of Franklin Centre, Quebec, took place at the Franklin Centre United Church at 3 P.M. The Rev. David Lochhead officiated. Miss Shirley Dunn played the wedding music and Rev. Wm. Brown of Howick sang The Wedding Prayer and Because White ribbon bows marked the pews while baskets of yellow and white chrysanthemums and gladioli decorated the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was in a floor length gown of white nylon chiffon over poult de soie having a square scalloped neckline and short sleeves with lace appliques and sequins. A large peplum at the back complimented the skirt which fell into a slight train. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a circlet of pearls and sequins, assisted by Mrs. cascade bouquet of American Archibald St. Onge, Miss Margaret Dunn and Mrs. Charles Kyle. Mrs. Charles Wattie, Huntingdon, assisted by Mrs. George Atkinson, Mrs. James Manning, Mrs. Norris Rowe and Mrs. Clarence Dunn in the Franklin Church Hall. The Franklin Badminton Club and C.G.I.T. presented Norma and Peter with a piece of Wedgwood. The Accounting Department of Canadian Industries Ltd., Montreal presented Norma with a set of Corning Ware with their best wishes for future happiness. Mr. and Mrs. E. Ednie entertained following the wedding rehearsal on Friday, August 16. Norma and Peter were then pleasantly surprised by a pantry shower given by Mrs. Robert Lawrence.

took a very active helpful interest in same. Although now in her eighties the last year of her life was a most active year indeed. During the month of May she and Miss Idella Ingraham flew to Bermuda and back for a two weeks so visit with Mrs. Marjorie Dale (the former Marjorie Clouston) and her husband. Early in June she embarked on a Canadian Pacific Airline plane for Australia to attend the wedding of her nephew Hugh Walker, returning from there by a Cargo Passenger Steamer, via Hong Kong, Japan, Hawaii, etc. to Vancouver, from thence by C.P.R. to Montreal, all in a period of some two months. Incidentally, that was her third trip to Australia.

She is survived by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Montgomery (Monty) Walker, and her son (Hugh) and daughters (Mrs. Marie Millicent Bruce and Janet W. Walker, all of whom reside in Ryde near Sydney N.S.W., Australia, and to whom we extend our sincere condolences. It will be recalled that Bobby and Janet Walker, spent a year or so visiting their Aunt Frances, in Huntingdon, several years ago. In a community way, as apart from her nursing services and advice, she played a very active, but unostentatious part in a great many ways, including the Red Cross, the Ladies' Aid of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church of which Church, as a granddaughter of same, so to speak, she was one of its most dedicated adherents. In a Charity way she gave a great deal of assistance about which no one else was aware. In Memoriam
JOHNSON — In loving memory of our dear son, brother, Cecil James, who passed away September 5th, 1962.
The month of September is here again
To us the saddest of the year
Your death was sudden; the shock severe
To part with one we love so dear,
They say time heals all sorrows
And helps us to forget
But time so far has only proved
How much we miss you yet.
A silent thought, a secret tear
Keeps your memory ever near
Although your smiles are gone for ever
And your hand we can not touch
We will never lose the memory
Of the one we loved so much
Dear God take a message to our son above,
Tell him how much we miss him,
And give him our love,
Sadly missed by,
Mom and Dad

The Grist Mill

by

DOROTHY DAVIDSON

The battle of Chateaugay's one hundred and fiftieth anniversary celebration is seven weeks around the corner, and the Gleaner's first hundred years is almost un fait accompli. Add to this the fact that Confederation's centennial party is four years away and we believe the moment is ripe to share with our readers certain entries, pertaining to the Fenian Raids of 1866, extracted from the Private Journal of one Alexander Gowdey.

Born on a farm at New Glasgow, in 1836, Alexander Gowdey was forced by a series of misfortunes to abandon, at an early age, the life of a farmer and to seek his fortune in Montreal, where he lived with his grandmother and went to work, as an accountant, for a hardware company. He attended church three times on Sundays and diligently records Chapter and verse of every sermon delivered. He liked meeting people and seeing new places. He thought nothing of driving his horse and buggy in all kinds of weather throughout the province visiting friends, and went as far afield as Ottawa, Buckingham, Fort Covington and Malone. Not yet married, he was as fond of the "young ladies" as they were of him, but he dismisses the idea of marriage on numerous occasions with "I cannot afford to fall in love yet". A canny man was twenty-eight-year-old Alexander Gowdey when he joined the Victoria Volunteer Rifles, No. 5 Company at Montreal, March 1866.

The company drilled every night for a month, then it was sent to Cornwall for reasons he does not make clear. There is, however, mention of "an escape by some of the prisoners." Apart from fourteen-hour sentry duty and having to wear his winter uniform in hot, dusty Cornwall, he seems to have enjoyed the tour of duty there. He attended band concerts, was invited to many "pleasant Pick Nicks" in the company of "some very nice Young Ladies", and was swept into the giddy whirl of church socials.

The Vicks returned to Montreal on May 1st after a three-hour ride "on the cars" (train). They were disappointed when the band failed to meet them at the station. It did join them, however, at Victoria square, and led the parade to the Trade Grounds, where the company was inspected by General Lindsay who complimented the men on their "soldierly appearance". A month later, Alexander Gowdey along with his countrymen was hurried into the excitement created by the Fenian Raids. Not a man to use two words where one would do he sketches in the outline of events which took him to Hemmingford and to Huntingdon and which century-later imaginations must colour, in order to appreciate the whole picture. But, there the account is best told in his own terse, pregnant-with-meaning sentences.

"June 12, 1866. The Fenians made an attack on Canada. Battle of Ridgeway fought Friday 1st. One company of the Victorias went to St. Johns. The Regiment ordered off next day. Great excitement. I do not go till Monday.

"June 3. Sunday was a dreadful day. The Printing press going all day and night. The streets as crowded at midnight as in the daytime.

"June 4. Monday. Got my picture taken as I do not think I will be back. Left for Hemmingford at 2 p.m. — arrived at 6 p.m. Comrades glad to see us. Said they were just going to start for Huntingdon. Tents all down. As there were not enough wagons had to wait till 5 a.m. sitting around the camp fires in the rain. All the boys jolly.

"June 5. Left at 5 a.m. without breakfast. No meal since Monday. Feeling tired and hungry. Got into the Waggon at the Village and drove eight miles to Havlock. Had some bread and coffee. Officers told us we would have to march eight more miles. Agreeably disappointed to find the Waggon waiting for us. Drove to Franklin where we had dinner—plenty of good beef and coffee. We were joined by the Franklin Company. Pouring rain. We had about a hundred wagons. We were sure we would meet the Fenians. Arrived safe in Huntingdon at 7 p.m., wet and tired. People very glad to see us. Out in Crowds in the rain. Sister Catherine glad to see me. Six of us slept at Allister's. All glad to get near the stove."

(A word of explanation. "Sister Catherine" was a school teacher who eventually married a Mr. Chalmers, baker and confectioner from Huntingdon. There is, today, a window in the chancel of St. John's Anglican Church placed there by A.G. in memory of Catherine and his mother.)

"June 6. Fine morning. Hard work cleaning off the mud. Had two parades each day. I had to sleep in the Court House as no one is allowed to sleep out. Took my meals at Allister's and called to see some of the Young Ladies."

The Volunteers were very glad to see the Band arrive on the 10th. For nearly two weeks of foul weather the company was billeted in Huntingdon. They never saw hair nor hair of the Fenians and were ordered back to Montreal on June 18th.

"Left at 8 a.m. on the baggage guard. Roads very bad. Arrived in Montreal about 6 p.m. Had a good trip down on the Bar Room Guard. (Gowdey must have been put in charge of the booze wagon because he was known to have been a good teetotaler!) Got a good reception. Glad to be home."

"Glad to be home" wraps up the Fenian Raid as far as the young Volunteer is concerned. There is, however, a postscript to be added. A postscript that ties up the diarist's account in a neat tidy bundle as it were, with no loose ends attached. Alexander Gowdey was our Senior Partner's grandfather.

His wife (formerly Miss M. Ouimet from Ormstown) and family Doreen, Sheila and Brian enjoy their new location, but miss their many friends in Fort Nelson.

A special message to all parents of boys and girls now in high school

You can guarantee your youngster's College Education in partnership with MY BANK of M

BANK OF MONTREAL UNIVERSITY EDUCATION PROGRAMME

A comprehensive, life-insured plan for financing a college education for boys and girls now in high school

If you are like most parents with children in high school, you are probably wondering how you are going to meet the costs of financing your youngster's college education. To help parents solve this problem, the Bank of Montreal has introduced its University Education Programme—the first life-insured plan of its kind in Canada.

Under this comprehensive programme, parents, guardians and sponsors of high-school students can spread the cost of a university education over periods of up to nine years, thus keeping monthly payments to amounts they can afford without hardship. And the cost to the parent is only a fraction of the interest paid on a straight loan programme.

HOW THE PROGRAMME WORKS
Under the basic plan, the parent agrees to make monthly payments to the Bank starting, say, two years before the student enters university, and terminating one year after graduation. In return, the parent receives an annual sum from the Bank at the start of each of the four university years.

VARIANTS OF THE PLAN

Several optional plans are available under the programme, and these vary as to the number of years in which the parent wishes to make monthly payments, as well as to the amount required annually for university expenses. Plans are based on objectives ranging from $1,000 to $8,000 payable to the parent in four annual instalments.

Here is an example of how one of the basic plans can be varied to suit your needs:

OBJECTIVE: $4,000
To be paid to the parent in four annual amounts of $1,000 each

OPTIONS	YOU PAY MONTHLY	PERIODS OF PAYMENT	YOUR PAYMENTS BEGIN
Plan A	$49.55	7 years	2 years before university
Plan B	42.78	8 years	3 years before university
Plan C	37.56	9 years	4 years before university

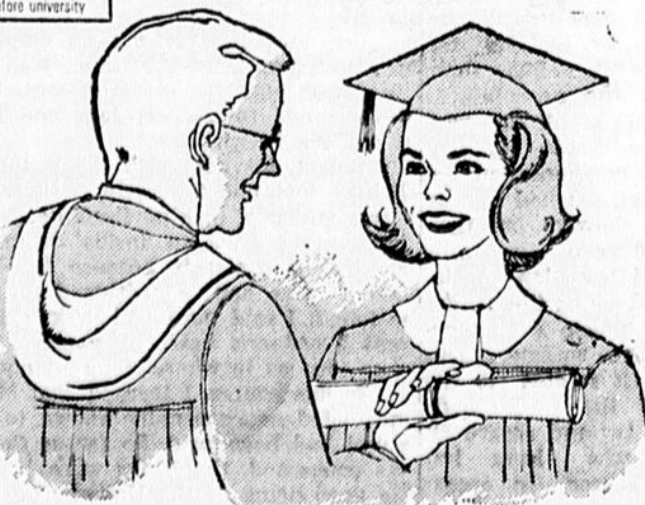

HOW TO JOIN THE PROGRAMME

See the people at your neighbourhood B of M branch. You will receive a warm welcome from a staff who will be pleased to give you further details and to help you select a plan suited to your needs. Ask for your copy of the Bank of Montreal University Education Programme folder.

P.S. If you need help in financing a student already in University—or planning to register this year—talk to your B of M Manager. Chances are he can arrange a tuition loan with extended payments adapted to your circumstances.

LIFE-INSURANCE FEATURE

If the parent concerned should die after the start of the programme, the funds for education specified in the agreement will be advanced by the Bank each year without any further payments being made by the family or the estate.

BURNER SERVICE:
Can save you as much as 2¢ on every gallon of oil you use

An efficiently-operating heating system can save you as much as 2¢ on every gallon of oil you use. We offer you burner service protection to keep your heating system working at peak efficiency.

Even the busiest family car does not put in as many hours of work in a year as the average heating system. Like a car engine, your heating system must be checked regularly, and adjusted when necessary. Otherwise it will waste fuel. Parts will also wear out more quickly.

Our 24 hour burner service guarantees you top performance all winter long. And it saves you money these three important ways:

1. By making sure your burner is cleaned and adjusted for peak efficiency - to give you maximum heat from every gallon of fuel.
2. By catching little troubles before they become big ones. (A small adjustment or repair now may save you many dollars later.)
3. By insuring you against unexpected repair bills - and by keeping your furnace in working order.

Now, with Shell Heating Oil and 24 hour burner service working together, you can take care of all your heating problems.

JEAN XXIII UN DES NOTRES

Jean XXIII est mort à la fin de ce monde. Son oeuvre cependant restera gravée dans le coeur de tous ceux qu'il a approchés avec cette humilité propre aux véritables porteurs du message du Christ.

Jean XXIII est une leçon permanente pour tous les chrétiens et pour tous les hommes de bonne volonté. Une leçon dont tous nous devons profiter. Il nous enseigne non pas tant par ce qu'il a dit ou écrit, mais par la façon dont il l'a dit ou écrit et surtout, par sa manière de vivre.

Nous pourrions remplir des pages entières avec tout ce qu'il a laissé d'intéressant mais les journaux et revues en ont parlé suffisamment. Notre intention est simplement de lui rendre l'hommage qu'il mérite de la part de la jeunesse travailleuse du monde, pour avoir su lui parler avec des mots qu'elle comprend, pour avoir su défendre la dignité de tous les hommes, pour avoir su travailler pour la Paix, la Justice, la Charité et la Liberté.

Si nous avons intitulé ces lignes "Jean XXIII: Un des nôtres", ce n'est pas parce que nous trouvons qu'il nous appartient plus spécialement ou qu'il n'a pas su s'adresser à d'autres. Ce serait injuste, car Jean XXIII était vraiment tout à tous, il était un véritable père qui a su toucher le coeur de tous ses fils.

A la J.O.C. cependant nous insistons sur la nécessité de répondre à la réalité des problèmes concrets en se situant à l'époque où l'on vit. C'est aussi ce qu'a fait Jean XXIII. Avec toute la délicatesse voulue il a fait face aux problèmes posés à l'Eglise; il a cherché des solutions et s'est mis en route pour y aboutir, non d'une façon théorique, mais à travers des faits concrets qui rempliraient beaucoup de pages si on voulait les écrire.

Il nous a laissé "Mater et Magistra", document extraordinaire, d'une portée sociale immense; il a ouvert des horizons nouveaux, il a aplani le chemin pour le rapprochement des hommes quels qu'ils soient leurs idées, leur race ou leur pays; il nous a laissé les lignes essentielles de ce que doit être la lutte pour la paix, dans cet autre document qu'on peut considérer comme son testament; et surtout il nous a laissé le témoignage de sa vie personnelle, nous montrant comment il faut agir, quelles doivent être nos relations avec les autres, comment on établit le dialogue même avec ceux qui se disent nos ennemis; comment la compréhension est possible lorsqu'elle est basée sur un amour sincère et sur le respect des droits de l'homme.

Il nous a montré aussi comment on peut utiliser son temps; en moins de cinq années il a su imprimer à l'Eglise un rythme nouveau, plus positif, plus joyeux, plus cordial, plus jeune.

C'est pour cela que nous disons qu'il est un des nôtres, parce qu'il a su se situer dans son temps, voir la réalité, l'étudier et se lancer à l'action avec la Vérité comme arme et la Paix comme objectif, en vivant la Charité et en usant de la Liberté des fils de Dieu.

Pour finir, nous disons: MERCI Jean XXIII; que votre mort nous fasse penser à nos responsabilités et nous aide à les assumer comme vous-même avez assumé les vôtres.

Extrait du J.O.C. Internationale.

N.E.S. AND APPLE PICKING

Mr. J. DeSerres, manager of the National Employment Office in Valleyfield, is announcing that, for the third consecutive year, the NES will recruit the necessary workers for apple picking in the Franklin Centre to Hemmingford area of Huntingdon county.

Last year, the NES recruited 500 apple pickers who gathered in 500,000 bushels. This year, it is expected that the crop will reach 600,000 bushels and that over 600 pickers will be employed.

Mr. DeSerres advised also that his service will run a temporary recruiting office at the Franklin Centre Cooperative, beginning September 16, during the whole harvest time. Last year, apple pickers were paid $0.20 a bushel and the conditions should be the same this year.

Anyone is invited to contact the NES, 63a Champlain St., Valleyfield, 35 St. Laurent St., Beauharnois or 23 King St., Huntingdon.

Letter to the Editor

Seignior Park welcomes Mr. and Mrs. Allan Swann who were due to move into their new home at 351 Montmorency over the Labour Day weekend.

At the executive meeting of Seignior Park Home Owners' Association held at Acting President John McKay's home last week, it was decided that September 4th, the previously planned date for the next General Meeting, was too early, and arrangements have been made to hold this meeting at the Clubhouse on September 11th, at 8:30 p.m. In the meantime we are all asked to give some thought as to whom we are going to elect as our office-bearers for the coming year.

There are still several openings in the Nursery School which will open on September 16th. Last year's principal teacher, Melvina Chart, will be back again this year. Anyone requiring further information should inquire from Joyce Land, 367 St. Francis; 691-0989. An open house for parents will be held and details will be announced next week.

Warning — Anyone who has expensive garden equipment, don't leave it outside. We had a saw stolen over the weekend-end. I always thought Seignior Park was safe from pilferers, but apparently this is not the case.

Obviously, it is all a question of semantics, and my understanding of the word "imminent" is all wrong. Two weeks after its "imminent departure" that monstrosity of a shack and old car dump at the edge of the park is still as permanent a fixture as ever. I believe I remember hearing somewhere that the Coliseum in Rome was originally built as a temporary measure, though mercifully I don't think our shack will stand up that long! I fail to see how this shack is an asset to Bailords, trying to sell houses to prospective homeowners, all of whom now surely, having seen the model houses on St. Francis, must pass along Woodbine to get to any unsold lots.

It was moved by Councillor Colpron, seconded by Councillor Reid, that the Town of Chateauguay Centre build the bottom of Montée Ste-Marguerite, corner Boul. Ste-Marguerite and Route No. 4, as long as the Dept. of Roads and Highways make the necessary paving.

Notice of motion was given by Councillor Colpron that he will, at a next regular meeting, bring in a By-law regarding the paving on Laramée St.

It was moved by Councillor Colpron, seconded by Councillor Sutterlin, that the Town of Chateauguay Centre make the paving at the end of Bernard St. on the Town's land.

ERIC WESSELOW

The necessity to educate children through art and, consequently, to include art as a subject in the curricula of our grade schools, will no longer be seriously contested. In not too distant a future we should be privileged to find this principle generally applied all over Canada.

The reasons for introducing art in the school are numerous. Every child anywhere is born to possess the thrilling phenomenon of original creative power. Children's art finds early expression even with the youngest. They develop picture making from the stages of scribble, named scribble, and symbols. Later, children involve ideas in symbolic form to depict what they think and feel. Eventually, when growing up, the child tends to eliminate symbols, fluctuating in his expression between things seen or imagined.

It is a depressing state that the period of years during which children feel the urge to let off steam by making pictures gets shorter from one decade to the next. The earlier and the more children are exposed to ready made or predigested pictures (television, movies, comics, colouring books, number paint sets, and the like), the faster their original creativity seems to dry out.

At the time when entering high school there are a few students left who are able to depict impressions or visions that are entirely original.

The young child as well as the older student should receive every help to cultivate his original creativity during as long a period as possible. This means simply to provide time and physical means for proper art education, as well as some art material and a minimum of guidance. Students may be given subjects to depict. They should be introduced to media in which they themselves show interest. But, for the rest, they must not be disturbed. No adult conception, no expression, or "style" must be imposed on them. In later years, the student should also be guided to develop and refine the taste for an enjoyment of cultural values past and present that are likely to last. Equally he should learn to appreciate what is good (quality) and what is simple and beautiful. He should learn to detect and to reject junk and trash.

Education today is too much directed toward the interest in purely intellectual knowledge at the cost of esthetic or intuitive knowledge. Science has advanced in favour of the arts. Man has reached into outer space while abandoning wide areas within himself. Students are being led into a life of exclusive specialization for the sake of past success in their professional "careers". What suffers is not only their general knowledge but also their creativity and their taste.

There is hope now that a new trend has set in. I understand, for instance, that a leading institute of technology in the United States has introduced art sessions for scientists as a means to re-activate creativity and inventiveness.

Art has a tremendous influence on keeping young minds alert and training hands to be active. This alone must be hailed as a blessing at a time when everyone is continuously being invited to be a spectator, to sit back, to be entertained, to relax, to take it easy. Children who are given the opportunity in school and at home to grow up with art work and appreciating it, will be better equipped to live the fuller and richer life of which so many of us dream. Richer is the man who amongst other things, has conserved a high degree of original creativity and who has learned to apply it to whatever his mission in life might be. He will enjoy doing things in the same manner as he enjoyed scribbling when a youngster.

To deny a child the expressions of his natural creative talents (which no IQ test can measure) could make him frustrated for the rest of his life, and unfit even "to bear the insolence of office".

Artistic creativity moves in the field of man's deepest sensations both of conscious and subconscious nature. It is the one sublime activity which empowers man to come closest to becoming divine.

Addressing the recent Montreal Congress of the International Society for Education through "Art, Sir Herbert Read concluded: Art is the name that we give to the only human activity that can establish a universal order in all we do and make, in thought and imagination. Education through art is education for peace."

Lightning Strikes Clothes Line Pole At Chateauguay

On Friday evening at about 7:15 p.m. at the height of the storm there was a terrible burst of thunder and it sounded as though something had been hit, but because of the darkness we were unable to see what it was. Mrs. Alf Lever visiting at the home of her daughter Mrs. F. Lortie at 104 Ethier Street, Crown Homes, said she was just about to pull out the plug from the toaster when what appeared to be a flame burst forth from the outlet above the toaster. She had her hand on the wire and some damage to her home. This is a flash of lightning and re-marked that something must have been hit but they could not see just what it was. In the morning when Mrs. Lortie looked out her kitchen window she discovered she was minus her clothes line and upon investigating found that the lightning had hit her clothes line pole and had left only about 4 feet of it standing. There were bits of wood shattered all around the yard and the earth had been loosened where the lightning had gone into the ground. Perhaps had her clothes line been metal instead of plastic the current might have carried through the wire and done some damage to her home. This is a storm Mrs. Lortie and Mrs. Lever will remember have been hit but they could

World-Wide Art Project Proposed By Eric Wesselow

Eric Wesselow, the noted Canadian Artist, a resident of Chateauguay Heights, has appealed to children all over the world — that they should make a picture dedicated to the subject "Peace on Earth".

The occasion was the Montreal Congress of the International Society of Education. At the end of its week-long sessions, the Assembly heard Mr. Wesselow's proposal. The idea had already received unanimous and enthusiastic consent when it was tabled by the artist in one of the seminars organized as part of the meeting.

According to the project, the best works should be selected (without competition) nationally or regionally. INSEA would then choose the most original pictures for colour reproduction in book form. They should also be used for calendars, cards, large-size exhibition sets, slides etc.

Profits made from sales should go to underdeveloped countries and areas toward providing art material for children.

The artist told us that the idea came to him during the dying minutes of the last session of the seminar which he attended. He had been prompted by a number of facts. He was distressed to hear again that the price of art material in under developed areas has risen by as much as 1000%. Many children thus cannot receive even the most elementary tools for artistic expression. Furthermore, delegates from all around the globe confirmed that young people are deeply concerned with the dangers of modern warfare. In this connection he recalled the particular message contained in the opening address to the Congress, delivered by Sir Herbert Read, the celebrated British Art Critic and Honorary President of this organization. Sir Herbert referred to the visual arts as a language, perhaps the only language that is common to all races and peoples.

Mr. Wesselow mentioned that he had spent a most exciting week attending all the sessions. He had long private conversations with Sir Herbert Read and with a good number of leading art educators from all over the world, on the subject of "Education and Art".

The reader will find a guest editorial by Mr. Wesselow in another column of this issue.

Scouts vs Cattle Smugglers

(By M. McCutcheon)

On Labor Day, four Scouts from the Chateauguay St. Andrew's Group had what they describe as the "keenest" experience of their short lives, when they assisted in the capture of four cattle smugglers.

To Ross Grant, Robert McNamara, Ross Murdoch and Bruce Oliver, Monday morning started just like any other day when they left Chateauguay with their Scoutmaster to do some work at the Dunn Memorial Camp at Powerscourt, near Huntingdon. However, things soon livened up when they arrived at the campsite which is located near the International Boundary: two men drove up and asked them permission to bring a truck on the camp grounds to make an exchange of cattle. The boys became suspicious, especially since the men were driving an American car. After noting the license number, they alerted their Scoutmaster. A few minutes later two men were observed emerging from the bush with a cow in tow and the scouts immediately recognized the driver of the American car!

Then things began to happen fast! A truck arrived on the scene carrying yet another cow which was quickly exchanged for the one the two Americans had brought with them from the United States, through the bush. At this point the Scoutmaster stepped into the picture — since he is an R.C.M.P. officer he had quickly recognized a familiar pattern of cattle smuggling and he placed the four men under arrest; while two of the Scouts were dispatched to the nearest phone the other two assisted in guarding the prisoners.

The case was handed over to the Huntingdon Detachment of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police for further investigation. Needless to say, the Scouts had some difficulty reusing their work on the campsite, for after all, breaking a cattle smuggling ring does not happen every day in the life of a Scout!

Heights Playground Closing Makes Happy Event Here

(by Mildred McCutcheon)

The summer activities at the Heights Recreation Club playground on Carlyle Ave. came to a close on Saturday, after a successful season. All the summer projects were on display for the parents to see — macaroni necklaces, woolen dolls, felt purses, paper bag masks, toothpick lapel pins — to name a few. Prizes for the best coloring books, paper rabbits and dolls were awarded.

The program was expertly handled by the teenagers. The Misses Claudia and Claire Moore, the Park Supervisors, were ably assisted by Douglas George, Brian Alberts, Ian Emberley and Ron Way. It was heart-warming to see how much enthusiasm the girls and boys put into the "hard work" end of organizing — including decorating the park and the final clean-up. Hooray for the teenagers, they certainly are to be congratulated.

Opening the day — the boys assisted the younger ones in breaking balloons with darts for free lollipops. This event was followed by races, a horse-shoe pitching contest for the older boys and the highlight of the day, the bicycle decorating contest which was followed by a parade through the Heights led by Chief Judge Alderman Alex Kinna, Chairman of Parks and Playgrounds — much to the delight of all the children.

The day drew to a close with a cornboil and free soft drinks. Prizes were then presented by Mr. David Currie, the ever popular Mayor of Chateauguay Heights. The winners are listed below:

Many thanks for your time and generosity, George, it was much appreciated by both the parents and children. Altogether it was a delightful day, one not soon to be forgotten by the children.

Seignior Park Residents Protest Lack Of School Bus Service In Area

Some 25 Seignior Park parents recently attended a meeting in Mrs. Nash's home to protest the action of the Protestant School Board in withdrawing the School Bus service. A committee was formed to look into the problem, and John McKay, Margaret Nash and June McInnis were asked to represent the group.

The School Board announced that transportation for school children was no longer their responsibility as the grant from Quebec was not forthcoming to cover this expense, as this area was now classed as an urban area with public transportation.

A petition was signed by every Protestant parent affected by this decision which was taken to the School Board asking that some reconsideration be given to this matter. We do not have sidewalks for safe travelling by our children, nor do we have a public transportation system. We do have a company which is trying to assure a certain profit by urging parents to take a contract for the whole year, or pay 10c a trip and be classed as a second-class citizens who will get on the bus only after all those who have passes are a board, if there is room. The feelings of the representatives of this area are that the service should be used but we should boycott the yearly contract.

Children will pay 10c a trip until a system of tickets is instituted. Tickets will be available for the noon hour trips so there is no reason why this system should not cover all trips. For those with several children it will be easier to budget for this added expense by doing so on a weekly or monthly basis.

I can well imagine the excitement in the homes this week! Little ones off to school for the first time, their eyes full of wonder and excitement. How proud each one is with their little school bag carrying all their precious belongings. The mothers of these youngsters no doubt will feel a little twinge in their hearts, especially if this is your first time. Many of us, like myself who have enrolled youngsters other years still get that little twinge tagging at our hearts. Believe me I know, I have enrolled four in the past 8-9 years and it is always the same. I still get that lump in my throat, butterflies in my tummy and can't wait until they arrive home with all the wonderful news of that most important first day.

May I make a suggestion to all youngsters regardless of what school they may attend or what grade they are in, this is the beginning of a new school year. This being the first day why not make a resolution to yourself to do your utmost to uphold the standards of your school, to listen attentively to what is being taught, do your home work assignments properly, not half heartedly, to take a keen interest in all you do, do it with sincerity, make up your mind that you will be a credit to your class and school, not a liability. So I say to each opened to some of you, surely you have enough time to help out occasionally! The meeting is once a month, and a couple of times a year help would be needed for a bottle drive etc. I realize many of you are working for other associations and your time is limited but do you mean to tell me that everyone else, man or woman, is working shift work or is two busy. Come on folks, where is that community spirit I thought we had here? It's not too late get, but get those calls in to Mrs. P. Mason 691-1027 between 7-9 p.m. and show your true colors. Deadline is September 7th.

How very pleased we are to hear that Diane Newman of Viau St., has returned home from hospital. Tell me, Diane, did you finally see that silver lining? I'm sure you did. Keep it shining will you? You know there are many things in life we have to face and believe me not all are pleasant but if you will remember you are never alone with your problems, no matter how lonely you may feel, with a silent prayer, put your hand in His. In return the road of life will be much easier to travel. So Diane, keep your chin up and when I see you I want to see that same smile I saw when you came on stage to receive your prize at the closing assembly at the school. That is one smile I will never forget!

What a wonderful surprise when I answered the phone the other day to hear Jim Green's voice. He has also returned from hospital, recently! He sounds great, full of enthusiasm, he is his jolly old self again, but take it easy will you, Jim?

The Chateauguy Centre Police force are to be commended for the fine job they have done in checking the homes of those on vacation.

By the way, things are looking up regarding the Keep Fit Class — only a few vacancies left to start one class. Keep the calls coming 691-580.

School Is "In" - - - A Note Of Warning

To the Moms and Dads — Make sure the children know how to act on the road and the bus.

To the Children — Listen to Mom and Dad and pay close attention to what they say. No running in front of the school bus as you don't know what may come along even though drivers are not to pass a parked school bus. We want you to come home safely everyday. You see we love you.

To Every Motorist on the road — you have a responsibility not only to yourself but to your fellowman. Not only to your own children, but to your fellowman's children. How you drive and how you act maybe the difference between an injured child or a child who gets home safely. If all the children, all the parents, all the motorists thought ahead, and obeyed laws we could send our children off to school and not have a worry. But as long as there are those who do not care for others — We will warn. We will continue to warn. So please everyone — Be Careful — Prenez Gar-

Wedding

OLIVER-PATTERSON

A pretty wedding of interest to friends in New Brunswick and Quebec was solemnized in Wilmot United Church, Fredericton, N.B., when Rev. Dr. G. J. Minniely united in marriage Mary Eleanor Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Patterson, Mitchell Street, to Ian David Oliver, son of Mrs. Herbert Oliver of Chateauguy, Quebec, and the late Mr. Oliver.

A profusion of gladioli and white phlox adorned the front of the church and the guest pews were marked with satin bows and lily of the valley. The church organist, Thomas Morrison presided at the organ and the guest soloist was Miss Linda Babbitt of Gagetown.

The bride was attended by Miss Donna Saunders as maid of honor and by her sister, Miss Gwen Patterson, as bridesmaid. Mr. William Clayton of Montreal acted as groomsmen and the brides' cousins, Mr. Ted Bird, Fredericton and Mr. Keith Brooks, Arthurette were the ushers.

Later the couple left on a honeymoon to Hyannisport, Cape Cod. The bride travelled in a pink sheath and coat ensemble with chalk white accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver will reside at 25A Principal Street.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of brocaded silk taffeta, having a full sweeping skirt, worn over a hoop, and extending into a brush train. The moulded bodice was styled with a deep oval neckline and long lily point sleeves. Her elbow length veil of tiered illusion was arranged to a small tiara and she carried a cascade bouquet of red roses and stephanotis.

The maid of honor and bridesmaid were attired alike in pink brocaded tissue taffeta with pink hats and slippers tinted to match. They carried nosegays of shell pink carnations.

Mrs. Patterson chose for her daughter's wedding a silk jersey dress, printed in tones of brown and beige with accessories of beige. Her corsage was a spray of bronze mums. The mother of the bridegroom Mrs. Oliver, was wearing pale blue figured silk jersey with white accessories and as corsage of deep pink carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Nashwaaksis United Church Hall. The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Eldon Haines of Nashwaaksis, family friend and responded to by the groom, who in turn proposed a toast to the bride's mother and father on their 30th wedding anniversary and Mr. Patterson replied.

Tiny roses in bud vases flanked the three-tiered wedding cake on the bride's table. Miss Marilyn Brooks of Arthurette, cousin of the bride served the bridal party. The guest book was circulated by Miss Jane Speer of Upper Woodstock and Miss Janet Brooks of Arthurette, cousins of the bride.

Later the couple left on a honeymoon to Hyannisport, Cape Cod. The bride travelled in a pink sheath and coat ensemble with chalk white accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver will reside at 25A Principal Street.

GUELPH, Ont. (CP) — An unusual friendship has developed between a Hereford heifer and a Virginia white tail doe at the Ontario Agricultural College here. But it has a strictly clinical interest for disease researchers, trying to determine what diseases wildlife have in common with domestic animals. Meantime the nine-month-old animals live happily together.

Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic To Be Held in Delson.

Next Tuesday, September 3rd, the Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic will be held in Delson Town Hall, St. Therese Street, from 3 to 5.30 p.m. and 7 to 9.30. Among the services of the Red Cross, one in particular is worthy of special note — that of the Blood Banks. In certain types of severe illness, in many accident cases, the care of the most skillful doctor would be of no use if blood plasma was not available to keep the patient alive until treatment can be given. Blood banks must therefore accumulate large quantities of blood plasma to be in a position to fill the needs of modern medical care.

Please be a donor, invest in the Red Cross Blood Bank and help to save a life. The whole process takes not more than half an hour, and is under the constant supervision of a trained staff, who work as a team going from one place to another in the central part of Quebec.

Social Event Hugh Success
Hearty congratulations are in order for Le Club Social des Dames de St. Constant, on the huge success of their social event which took place last Saturday, August 24th. This special effort comprised a sale of home-baking, white elephant table, booth of hand-made articles and a refreshment corner, where the ladies were kept busy serving hot dogs, hamburgers, home-baked beans, delicious corn on the cob, tea and coffee and soft drinks for the young folk. There was a colossal display of various kinds of pies, cakes and cookies which looked really delicious. The proceeds amounted to $320, a most gratifying result, rewarding the ladies for their arduous efforts. The President, Mrs. D. St. James would welcome new members and extends a cordial invitation to women of the community wishing to join the Club. Grateful thanks was expressed to all, for help and cooperation towards this endeavour. They will really enjoy one that isn't too hard to make. It was passed along to us by Mrs. Kavannah who finds it a fast and easy treat to make for her five children.

Handy hints for the home-maker
Thanks to Mrs. Oliver of St. Maurice for today's handy hints. Her scrapbook is just full of wonderful hints and recipes.

To remove odours from bottles, half fill with cold water, add a little mustard. Shake well and leave for half-an-hour before rinsing in cold water. Piano keys lose the yellow tint when rubbed with a soft cloth dipped in peroxide of hydrogen. When cutting fresh bread, dip the knife in boiling water. The bread will cut without any trouble. When frying fish sprinkle a little salt into the boiling fat, this prevents the fish breaking when turned over.

Here are a few ancient Chinese proverbs that speak for themselves:
Better be hungry and pure than well filled and corrupt. The mouth is an unlimited measure. Intoxication is not the wine's fault but the man's. In ordinary life you must be economical; when you invite guests, you must be lavish in hospitality.
Note Re-Brownies
Sorry to say I have not had too many calls and so this week would like to appeal to you Mothers again. Also if there are any young girls in West End who would like to join the Brownies they would be most welcome. Please give me a call at OX 2-9272.

As the summer season is almost finished as far as talking about softball, our Sports Chairman is giving us the report that our own boys and girls have shown a beautiful "Play Ball" spirit, by winning two League Championships, Trophies, with Bantams and Mosquitoes doing the honors, with another trophy for the Bantams for winning the finals. We also hope our juvenile team will come home with the final trophy. Mr. Gauthier asks you, "Please give them all your support," by finding out when and where they play and what happiness go to Mr. and Mrs. Jacques Guillemette whose marriage took place in the church of St. Therese of the Infant Jesus, recently. The bride, formerly Miss Jocelyne Boardman, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Boardman, the Mayor and Mayoress of Delson.

Get Well Wishes
A speedy recovery is wished for Mrs. Frank Turpin who is now recuperating in Lachine General Hospital, following an operation. Hope you are feeling better, Audrey.

Obituary
Friends and neighbours were indeed saddened to learn of the sudden death of Mr. Noel Beausoleil of Laprairie. The late Mr. Beausoleil was well-known in Laprairie and surrounding districts, being the proprietor of the butcher store on St. Elizabeth St. for a number of years. The deceased had been keenly interested in the young folk and was the coach of the Little League Baseball Team. His sudden death occurred on the sports field last Wednesday evening. The funeral took place in Laprairie on Saturday morning with a large number of friends and neighbours paying their last respects and the Little Leaguers forming a Guard of Honour. Our deepest sympathy goes out to the bereaved family.

Mr. W. Pettis and his sister, Mrs. J. Keen attended the Ottawa Festival last week accompanied by their twin nieces, Misses Dianne and Danielle Patenaud of Laprairie, who greatly enjoyed the festival and its splendor. Mr. and Mrs. E. Sutton attended the marriage of their nephew, Mr. Donald McDonald which took place in Ottawa last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Read of Pointe Claire were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ball Sr. Mrs. R. Siders of Toronto has been visiting with her brother and sister, Mr. Bert Berville and Mrs. P. Blyth in Delson.

Notes and Jottings
FROM Robert Sellar's Historical Writings

It will be recollected that when the Canadians surrounded the house of John McDonald, he told his servant to hide himself and to take the first opportunity of fleeing to Beauharnois to give the alarm to Colonel Brown. This young man, Bean, did, for he slipped out to the stable, saddled a horse and struck out for Beauharnois. By riding hard, he entered that town by midnight, and drew rein at the door of John Ross, the leading store-keeper, to enquire where he would find Brown. He was told, and was turning his horse's head, when curiosity caused Mr. Ross to ask the object of his errand at so late an hour, when he told him of the events at Chateaugay — of the Canadians having risen in arms and of McDonald's being taken prisoner, and then hastened on, once dressed and proceeded to warn his men to get under arms. On Bean's rousing Col. Brown, he received his story with incredulity, until, on cross-questioning, he found that it was too true, when he hastened to the mansion-house to warn Mr. Ellice, and then went to Mr. Ross's to get out the volunteers, and was gratified to find that already a dozen had assembled. The astonishment of the group in Ross's store is not to be described. Of all events, a second rebellion was the most unlooked for by them. Living in the heart of a French population they had not detected a sign of preparation, and even yet thought that Bean must have mis-apprehended what had passed at McDonald's house. Only one of them, John Bryson, had no doubts on the subject. He told how, that evening, he had gone to pay an account to a French Canadian, when a dispute arose, during which the man exclaimed to him, "In two or three hours see what will happen to you damned English." He did not understand then what he meant, but he did now. Others had remarked that while the Canadians had gone early to bed and no lights were to be seen in their houses, they had noticed in passing men peering out at store met on the way Robert Finney, whom they took prisoner. They had scarcely done so, when several volunteers appeared, whereon the rebels fled, except one who fell on his knees and begged for mercy. In another part of the village, a volunteer, Robt. Johnson, stopped a man on horseback, and made him prisoner. He proved to be Louis Dumouchel, a travern-keeper of Ste. Martine. While detaining him until assistance should come, Dumouchel took advantage of his captor's attention being momentarily distracted, to put spurs to his horse and gallop yelling up the hill, when he was answered by a chorus of shouts, which was the first intimation the volunteers had of the force at the Catholic Church, and Brown and Ross at once decided that it was necessary they should advance with the few men they had and cover the entrance to the seigniory house. This was done, and the men formed in line at the gateway. Hardly had they done so, when, through the darkness of that stormy night, the Canadians, with a tremendous yell, came rushing down the hill and across the open field at the foot of it, the voice of their leader, Joseph Dumouchel, shouting "Ho, my comrades: forward!" and firing their guns. Colonel Brown was shot in the thumb, but no one else was hurt, the Canadians having aimed too

Always look left and right before crossing an intersection. 6. Never play w/h matches or carry them in your pocket. 7. Wait for the traffic officer's signal before crossing the street. 8. Don't be rough in the school yard; you might injure one of your friends. 9. Never run down stairs or slide down banisters. 10. Never carry a pen or pencil, or any other sharp instrument, in your mouth.

Welcome home to Mr. and Mrs. Ken Moody and daughters, Debbie and Robin, after a week's holiday in Southern Ontario. The Moodys visited relatives and friends in Toronto. They also spent a most enjoyable time at the Canadian National Exhibition and took time out to visit Niagara Falls.

Farewell party
On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lortie of Ethier Street held an informal farewell party for Mrs. Alf Lever who left on Sunday evening for her home in Winnipeg. Special guest was Rev. Father Timothy Murphy of St. Anne's Parish in Montreal and Mrs. Eileen Lortie and her two daughters, Jeanette and Louise, from Quebec City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Watts of St. Maurice were happy to have old friends visiting them over the long holiday weekend. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. Manual and daughters, Sally and Deborah, from Toronto, who came to Canada only three months ago from England.

The Ellis home on St. Leon was the scene of a happy family reunion on Labor Day. The gathering of the clan included Mrs. Walter Galinski, (sister of Jean) and her daughter Mary Lou from North Bay. Her son ABLM2 Peter Galinski of the H.M.C. S. Newwaterford joined the party also. It just happened that his ship is now docked in Montreal Harbour thus he was able to attend, and his fiancée Miss Ruth Bale from North Bay journeyed to Montreal with Mrs. Galinski. One of Peter's close friends, LAC Emile Mongrain stationed at Puntzi Mountain, British Columbia, and at present on leave in Montreal also attended the reunion.

The day before the family party all journeyed to St. Antoine on the Richelieu to at-

Hello, again! As most of our must know by now, our little daughter, Lisa Anne, arrived on Sunday, August 4th. At 9:30 Saturday evening we realized that our refrigerator was defrosting and things are slowly settling to a somewhat topsy-turvy routine. Added to the excitement of homecoming was the fact that two of our appliances broke down. not behaving itself. This past week-end certainly was not dull around our house!

There is something so wonderful about suburban living — you are never really without help close by. Our neighbours have been wonderful to us — especially during the past two week-ends.

There are four very wonderful gals from Chateauguy who were on duty at the hospital the night our daughter was born. Perhaps you know one or all of them — Mrs. R. Skillen, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Mayberry of the Terrace and Mrs. Hazel Young of West End.

Belated birthday greetings go out to Freddy Rockwell of St. Francis Blvd. who celebrated his 11th birthday on August 21st.

Now that school has started perhaps you and your children may have some unusual experiences, especially regarding school transportation. Why not call and tell me about it? Any news from around your home would be welcome. The number is 692-2659.

Hi! hope everyone enjoyed a safe and happy holiday week-end. We spent the week-end at Mr. and Mrs. A. Young's at Val David and had a lovely time. On the way up we noticed all the leaves turning colour and doesn't it make you feel that winter is just around the corner. The Youngs of Val David have just recently returned from Miami Beach, a large party with friends and relatives. Isn't it interesting!

a lot of interesting things to tell us about and better still for Lynda, there were lots of presents, from Nannie and Grandpa. On the way home we stopped off at Mr. and Mrs. P. Youngs at Greenfield Park and had a pleasant visit with Pete, Grace and David.

Welcome Home
Welcome home to Mr. and Mrs. T. Long, Patti-Ann and Ricky. These folks spent their holidays in Ontario and had a lovely time.

Birthday Greetings
A very happy birthday to Miss Beverly Allen of McLeod Ave. Bev., will celebrate her sixth birthday on Sept. 9th, and is a happy little girl because she will be going to school along with brother and sister, Johnny and Barbara this year.

Visitors
Visiting with the Robinsons of McLeod Ave., on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. J. Shearer of Verdun and Mr. and Mrs. H. Robinson of Greenfield Park and their two little girls, Sheila and Kathy.

Anniversary Greetings
A very happy anniversary to brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. K. Power of Macoun Ave., who will be celebrating their fifth on the sixth.

On Sept. 5th, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bezenar of McLeod Ave., will celebrate twelve and a half years of marriage. This is a tradition with the Dutch people, since 12 and 1/2 is half of twenty-five for the silver giving copper gifts, at this time. If this couple were in Holland, they would be given a large party by friends and relatives. Isn't it interesting!

to hear the customs of other lands, Happy Anniversary to the Bezenars.

Coffee Party
Another very successful coffee party sponsored by the Women of Maplewood Presbyterian Church, was held at the home of Mrs. Daisy McVeigh of Massey Drive last Wednesday. The weatherman was kind and we had a lovely day and a very good turnout was noted.

Church News
The first service in the new Maplewood Church building will be this Sunday, Sept. 8th. This service is being held in order to try out the acoustics for the Dedication Service on Thursday, Sept. 12th. There is a new group forming for girls, a new group for boys, and a new group for the "Explorers". This group will be headed up by Mrs. Black and should prove a very interesting experience for any girl that has not belonged to any other group of this kind.

Slow Down
A notice for all drivers. Please slow down on McLeod Ave. Now that the children are all back in school, please drive with care. Some of the little ones will be going for the first time and in their excitement may not be walking on the right side of the road, so please watch out for the youngsters and give them a chance to be adults one day.

Household Hint
Ladies, if the heels of your best shoes are scuffed or peeling, use a crayon of the same colour to repair damaged areas. Here is another trick you may not have heard of. If your bedroom is small, use a bedspread that is the same colour as your walls and the room will appear larger. That's it. See you next week.

Bible School was held the last two weeks in August, at the Ormstown Fair Grounds, the theme being "Travelling God's Highway." It seems there are so many ways of traveling in this day and age. One can almost travel by television and practically everyone loves to travel from the youngster to the oldest. It is an adventure.

Travelling God's highway is an adventure too, leaving behind our selfish ways and going ahead by God's Crossroad to His Highway, having Christ as Guide. There are perils all along the way, but our Saviour knows the way and he strengthens faith, bolsters courage and inspires "to press toward the mark." The theme was an inspiring one.

The closing program was held on the evening of the 29th, when parents and friends attended. The Beginners recited verses and sang action songs they had learned, having studied God's care of Moses, Peter, Joseph and others on the journey of life. Rhythm Band was enjoyed by all.

The Primaries studied Bible Stories from the exciting adventures of Noah's Ark, Jonah to Paul's Shipwreck, culminating in Jesus for Miracles in and on the Sea of Galilee with their thoughts being steered from sailing to travelling God's way with Christ as Captain and Saviour. The children wore the sailor caps they had made and sang "Sailing" "Can It Be," "Oh, the Wonder of My Saviour" with Wendy and Wanda Gamble singing a duet. Gary Eastwood showed a lighthouse and how God is our lighthouse, burying our sins and taking us safely to the shores of Heaven.

The Juniors learned how to walk and talk on God's highway. Bible stories revolved around the life of St. Paul, who was especially used of God to set forth the Christian's walk. They sang songs and had a Bible Questionnaire, showing at random, who could remember the specific verse at the right time and where found in the Bible.

Young teens listened to the parables Jesus told, earthly pictures of heavenly truths. This course showed the importance of following Christ, studying the Bible — the Road map He has given and of really praying and seeking to bring others to journey with Jesus. Sandra Anderson told the Flannelgraph Story of the Prodigal Son.

The whole school joined in the singing of choruses. Mr. Hurtubise was the chairman of the evening. Certificates and prizes were distributed at the close.

Ne sommes-nous pas tous les jours les privilégiés? Au Vatican, en Allemagne et en bien d'autres pays, ce sont -- y avons-nous jamais pensé? -- de véritables patriarches qui sont à la tête de l'Etat et président aux destinées du pays. Des sages, au seuil de l'éternité, qui nous ont déjà épargné bien des maladrotes. Ce sont des esprits rassis, alors que la jeune génération se laisse emporter par un activisme endiable. Vivant déjà dans l'autre monde, ce sont eux qui nous y préparent.

L'heure des grand-mères n'est-elles pas venue, maintenant?

petits-enfants. Amenez 2 ou 3 fillettes; conduisez-les, quelques fleurs en main, chez les vieux. Vous verrez combien changera le regard de ces bonnes gens. Il faut si peu de chose pour le bonheur de ces solitaires.

Un jour j'en avais invité douze. Des grands-pères qui vivent tout seuls parce qu'ils n'ont pas d'enfants ou que leurs enfants ont cessé d'être bons pour eux, et qui maintenant s'éteignent tout doucement dans une mansarde. Il leur reste si peu d'argent, parce qu'ils ont toujours besoin des autres.

Nous les avons accueillis comme les douze Apôtres. Nous les avons servis, ré-gates, gâtes. Ils en pleuraient de joie. Maintenant ils reviennent tous les mois chercher leur petite rente. Dix marks qu'un brave homme, lui-même pas bien cossu sans doute, nous fait parvenir. Une rente fraternelle pour la courte vie qui leur reste. Plusieurs ne cherchent plus cette rente que quelques mois. Il y en a déjà deux que nous ne reverrons plus: ils sont morts. Tous, ils s'émerveillaient de voir quelqu'un s'intéresser à eux, de s'entendre inviter à revenir.

Monde misérable que celui où la bonté pour les vieux est si rare que la moindre gentillesse leur fait hocher la tête, qu'ils en pleurent et osent à peine y croire.

Mais pourquoi parler des vieux impotents qui attendent la mort? "Trop vieux" vous l'êtes dès 45 ans aujourd'hui. Passé cet âge, on ne veut plus de vous dans la plupart des professions. "Trop vieux", mot laconique qui prive des milliers de gens du courage de vivre et qui les fait douter de Dieu et des hommes.

que cela veut dire? Il y a des gens robustes, valides, en pleine force à 60 ans! C'est une cruauté de les mettre à la retraite.

En Amérique quelqu'un eut un jour l'heureuse idée de fonder des "Over-Sixty-Clubs". Des clubs pour les "plus de soixante ans", ou de vieilles gens se rassemblent par dix ou quinze pour se remonter humainement, fraternellement le moral.

Pourquoi certains de ces "Over-Sixty-Clubs" ne s'emploieraient-ils pas à quelque apostolat? Ces "vieux" sont plus jeunes de cœur que nos "blousons noirs" défranchis! Pourquoi ne leur confierait-on pas une oeuvre et des responsabilités? Pourquoi ne leur expliquerait-on pas qu'on a besoin d'eux, de leurs longs loisirs et de leur expérience? Rien n'est pire que de s'entendre déclarer: "Tu n'es plus bon à rien!" Demandez seulement à grand-père de prendre un petit ophelin par la main, tu verras tout de suite ses yeux s'illuminer parce que sa vie retrouve un sens.

Pourquoi ne fonderions-nous pas dans toutes les villes un club des "plus de soixante ans"? Pourquoi ne nous adresserions-nous pas aux vieilles gens, dont la maturité, la bonté et la sagesse pourraient nous être profitables?

Lorsque, le Jeudi saint, l'évêque lave les pieds à des vieillards en mémoire des douze Apôtres, que ce ne soit pas seulement une cérémonie liturgique! Ce geste nous devrions le répéter tous les jours. Comme nous devrions avoir à cœur de réparer l'ingratitude de ceux qui piétient l'âme de nos vieillards.

Me permettrais-je de vous rappeler ici une historiette sentimentale qui figure dans tous nos premiers livres de lecture? En réalité, c'est aux adultes qu'elle s'adresse bien plus qu'aux enfants.

Eglise catholique et le communisme

Communisme:

- Mise en Commun de tous les biens matériels;
- Philosophie voulant expliquer l'existence de l'univers sans le concours de Dieu.

Réalité suprême: La matière

Les communistes affirment que la matière est auto-dynamique et auto-créatrice. En partant de ce principe, ils tentent d'expliquer l'évolution du monde par cette dernière tout ce qui existe -- plante, animal, homme -- serait le résultat de cette évolution-là. Mais ils ne peuvent pas expliquer le mystère de la création de la nature et sont incapables de réfuter l'argument de saint Thomas, à savoir que "l'existence du mouvement dans la matière prouve l'existence de Dieu Tout-Puissant". Ainsi, ne pouvant pas prouver que la matière est née d'elle-même, ils expriment l'espoir qu'avec le temps la science y parviendra.

Doctrines:

La doctrine communiste consiste en un pseudo-idéal de justice, d'égalité et de fraternité dans le travail. Cette doctrine, imprégnée d'un faux mysticisme, se communique très facilement aux foules, qui, séduites par des promesses fallacieuses, sont enthousiasmées, et ceci à cause de la mauvaise répartition des biens dans le monde. Elle part d'un faux idéal et, sous le masque de l'hyprocrisie, elle réussit à se répandre et à hypnotiser les peuples trop crédules et trop naïfs. Pour l'appliquer, les communistes n'ont pas peur de prendre la force, la terreur et l'emploi de méthodes brutales. Malheur aux gens qui tombent dans leurs griffes!

Société:

- Personne humaine et famille
- Le communisme enlève à la personne humaine toute sa dignité, tous ses droits naturels. On soutient le principe d'égalité absolue entre les hommes, on rejette toute autorité, hiérarchie, quelle qu'elle soit. On n'admet pas le droit de propriété sur la production ou sur les ressources naturelles.

La famille et le mariage deviennent des institutions purement conventionnelles et civiles. On émancipe la femme, mais on l'enlève à son foyer et à ses enfants; on la traite sur un pied d'égalité avec l'homme quant au travail manuel. Les parents ne peuvent pas éduquer leurs enfants.

2) Société

La société communiste est un groupement d'individus dont la marche est basée sur l'économie. Le but consiste en la production de biens et l'unique fin, c'est la construction de ce qu'on appelle "le paradis communiste". Cette ère nouvelle fera disparaître toute notion d'état, famille et moralité; elle déiera aussi l'homme de l'insécurité et de la maladie. En attendant l'homme doit souffrir: il n'a pas la foi.

L'attitude que le communisme a pris en face de l'Eglise -- et de la religion en général -- est profondément hostile: elle consiste à la détruire, soit en l'écrasant par la violence, soit en semant la discorde pour l'affaiblir. Le communisme considère la religion comme "l'opium du peuple". Si nous voulons une preuve de cette hostilité implacable, nous n'avons qu'à nous remémorer le massacre de milliers de catholiques chinois -- prêtres, laïcs, missionnaires -- lors du schisme imposé à la Chine, celui de Honrie (1956) et même ceux plus éloignés d'Espagne (guerre civile), du Mexique (1917) et de la Russie.

Eglise

Société fondée par le Christ dont le but est de répandre le message de Dieu -- message d'amour et de charité -- et de sauver tous les hommes.

Réalité suprême: Dieu

Au-dessus de toute la création -- êtres, végétaux, minéraux et animaux -- il y a l'Être Suprême, Unique, Créateur omnipotent de toutes choses, Maître absolu de l'univers, Premier Moteur: DIEU. Dieu existe, et cette "réalité suprême" de Dieu est la condamnation la plus absolue des impudents mensonges des communistes (Pie X).
