HEPBURN REJECTS KING LEADERSHIP

Vacillating Policy Of Federal Cabinet Causes Open Breach

"I Am no Longer a Mackenzie King Liberal," Ontario Prime Minister Declared in Condemning Invasion of C.I.O. Organizers Into Dominion—Demands Quebec and Ontario Have Greater Say in the Affairs of the Dominion.

Toronto, June 4.—No longer a "Mackenzie King Liberal," Premier Mitchell F. Hepburn today looked back on a long association with the Dominion Prime Minister, an association that ended because of the alleged "vacillating" policy of the federal administration over the Committee for Industrial Organization issue.

In a speech last night before the Canadian Life Insurance Officers' Association the Ontario Premier renewed his attack on the John L. Lewis Committee for Industrial Organization against which he has been adamant since the start of the recent Oshawa automobile workers' strike.

Then he raised his voice and said: "I am going to make a serious statement, one that will probably make a headline. I am a reformer, but I am no longer a Mackenzie King Liberal. I'll tell the whole world that and I hope he hears me."

The renunciation came after Mr. Hepburn declared there would be no lawlessness in Ontario begotten by the C. I. O. as long as he was Premier. "I cannot speak for Canada," he declared, "because we have a vacillating government at Ottawa."

Eleven years ago Mr. Hepburn was elected to the House of Commons as a supporter of Mackenzie King. He was re-elected at the general election of 1930 and sat under the present Prime Minister until he took active leadership of the Ontario Liberals and became Premier of the province in 1934.

Was One-Time Champion of Present Premier

At the last general election in 1935 Mr. Hepburn toured Canada in the interests of his old leader. The C.I.O. issue to which he referred had its inception early last April in the Oshawa strike.

Numerous Canadian business leaders heard the Premier's statement of renunciation last night, Premier Maurice Duplessis, head of Quebec's Union Nationale Government, was to have spoken on the same programme, but was unable to attend.

Ontario and Quebec provided the large bulk of revenue for the Dominion Treasury, Mr. Hepburn declared. His own province contributed forty-seven per cent. of the total and Quebec another substantial portion. Therefore, he felt, they should have more say in national affairs.

Of Premier Duplessis, the Ontario Premier declared: "I look forward to the day when he will play an ever more important part in the affairs of this Dominion."

Doubts Present Prosperity Is Really Sound

Mr. Hepburn said he doubted present prosperity in Canada was fundamentally sound. It was promoted, he believed, by Europe's feverish preparation for war. Business revival could not be prejudiced seriously so long as United States maintained the present gold price.

After making his announcement of a break with his former leader, Premier Hepburn said he was willing to "forget partisanship in the interests of my country." As long as he was Premier, he said, "United States organizers won't get their hands in the pay envelopes of Canadian workers."

Substituting for Premier Duplessis, Hon. Bona Dussault, Quebec Minister of Agriculture, declared there was no idea of separation in the policy of the government he represents. Just because it called itself "National" it did not mean it favored separation in the Dominion. The country was greater than its parts, he declared.

HEPBURN OUTLINES OWN POSITION WITH PRESS

Toronto, June 4.—Premier Mitchell Hepburn's views on his position with Toronto newspapers was associated by the Ontario Liberal leader last night with his renewed denunciation of C.I.O. policies and his renunciation of the leadership of federal Prime Minister Mackenzie King.

Mr. Hepburn named all three papers: the Daily Star and the Globe and Mail, both traditionally Liberal, and the Evening Telegram, Conservative.

The Star has taken issue with the Premier's stand against Labor Leader John L. Lewis' Committee for Industrial Organization. The Globe and Mail and the Telegram have supported him.

Mr. Hepburn told his listeners at the Canadian Life Insurance officers' Association dinner that he

DUKE OF WINDSOR MAY DROP THE STYLE OF "ROYAL HIGHNESS"

London, June 4.—British sources considered it possible today that the Duke of Windsor might drop the style of "Royal Highness" which has been denied his wife.

They pointed to omission of the "Royal Highness" from statements on the Duke's behalf after the ceremony. Previously the "H.R.H." had been used in similar announcements from the Chateau de Candé.

ASSASSINATION PLOT EXPOSED IN AUSTRIA

Vienna, June 4.—Nine persons were under arrest today charged with a "fantastic" plot to assassinate Chancellor Kurt Von Schuschnigg and bomb the Chancellery from the air.

A Chancellery official disclosed the immature conspiracy last night and said nine persons of Nazi sentiment had been arrested. The Chancellor was to have been shot, police said their probe disclosed, when he visited the grave of his wife.

OPPONENTS OF COURT REFORM REJECT OFFER

Proposals to Add Lesser Number of Justices to U.S. Supreme Court Not Acceptable to Anti-Administration Senators.

Washington, June 4.—The first public indication of an administrative compromise on the United States Supreme Court bill brought a terse refusal from a leader of the Opposition today to accept any modification.

After Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the Democratic leader, said on the White House steps that amendments would be offered, Senator Burke (Democrat-Nebraska) commented:

"We will be here until the end of time before such a bill will ever pass. There can't be any compromise on the basis of adding a lesser number of justices to the Supreme Court for the purpose of influencing its decisions."

"It is a perfectly clear issue between those who are willing to add some members and those of us who are fighting to maintain an independent court."

Robinson, who conferred with President Roosevelt for two hours last night, gave no hint of the nature of the proposed amendments to the controversial bill. He said he might offer one himself.

"The measure," he said, "will be Please Turn to Page 2, Col. 7."

Insurgent Spain Stunned By Death Of Leading Aide To General Franco

General Emilio Mola, Commander-in-Chief of Fascist Forces in Northern Spain, Instantly Killed when Plane Crashed on Fog-Bound Northern Coast.

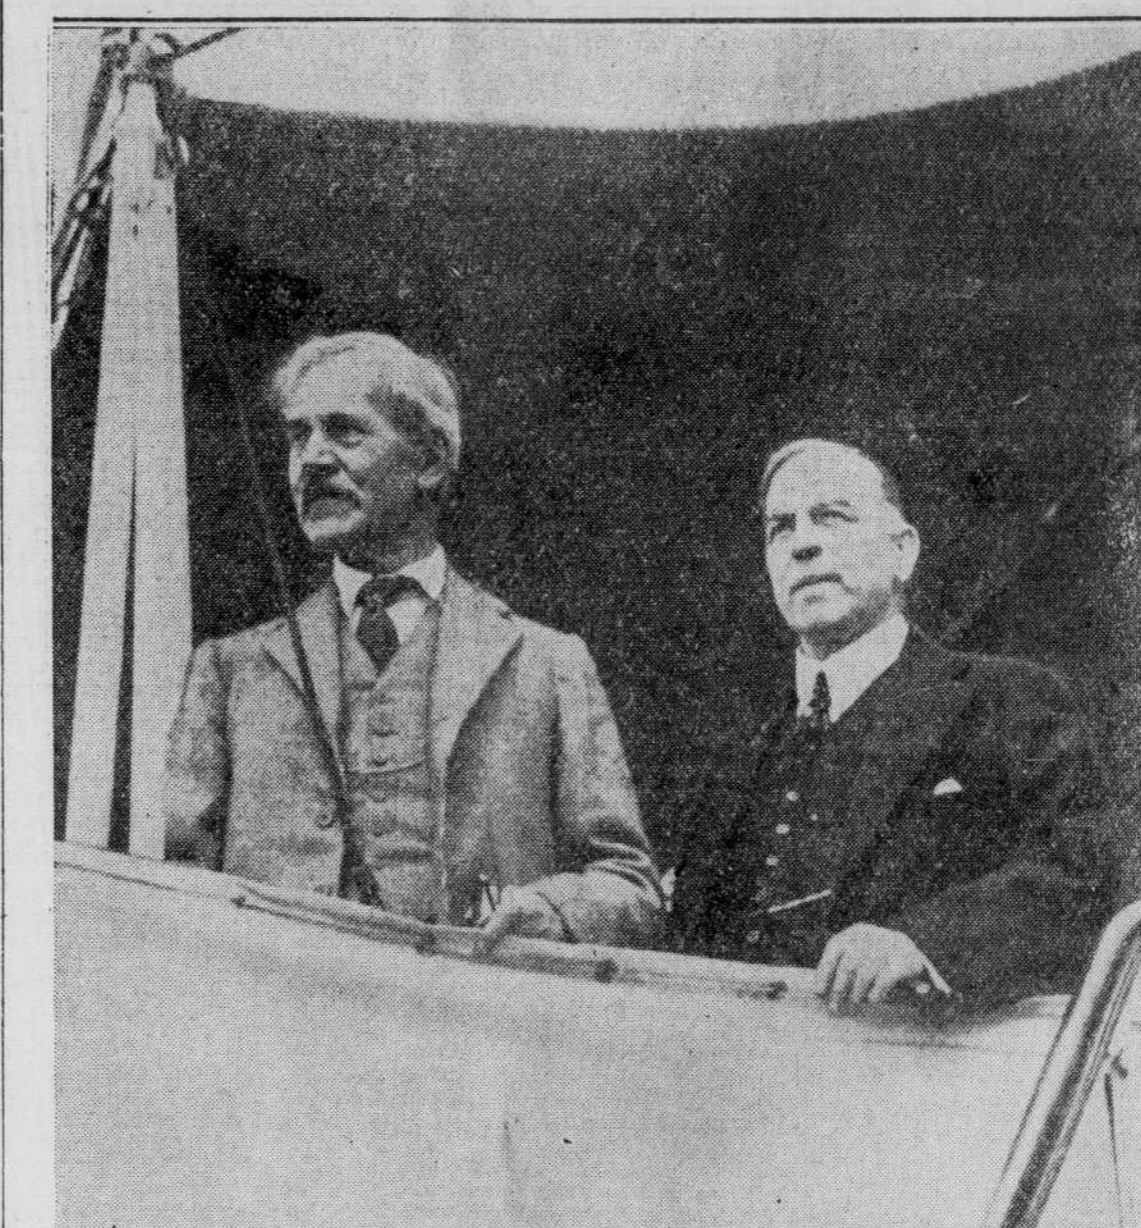

Vitoria, Spain, June 4.—Insurgent Spain was stunned today by the death of General Emilio Mola, Generalissimo Francisco Franco's ablest commander, in the crash of a fog-bound airplane on the Biscayan front where his tactical genius had brought his armies within sight of besieged Bilbao.

Flags were at half-mast throughout insurgent-held territory. Officers in uniform wept openly as the news of his death was broadcast. All public activities were suspended and newspapers called his loss "irreparable for Spain." Franco in a special decree posthumously awarded the command of all the insurgent armies in Northern Spain the Grand Cross of San Fernando, Spain's highest military honor.

Immediately after the death of the forty-six year old "Soldiers' General" was known, Franco split his former command. General Fidel Davila, head of the technical junta of the insurgent regime, was named commander of the forces operating against Bilbao and on the Biscayan front; and the

Urges That Officiant At Windsor-Wallis Union Be Penalized Church Living

Rev. Prebendary Cardew, in Charge of Anglican Affairs in France, Declares Rev. Robert Anderson Jardine Should Be Severely Disciplined for Performing Marriage Ceremony in Direct Contradiction of Orders of Superiors.

London, June 4.—A suggestion that Rev. Robert Anderson Jardine, vicar of Darlington, who performed the Anglican marriage ceremony for the Duke and Duchess of Windsor, should be deprived of his Church of England living was advanced today by Rev. Prebendary F. Anstruther Cardew, Rural Dean of France, in an interview by telephone from Paris with the London News-Chronicle.

"Any clergyman under my jurisdiction here in France who performed such a breach would almost certainly be deprived of his living," said Prebendary Cardew. "We must wait now and see what steps are to be taken in England by those responsible."

"Some time ago, after the Duke had left England for Austria, the Bishop of Fulham (Rt. Rev. Basil Batty, who was in charge of Anglican affairs on the continent) issued an order to all English clergy abroad reminding them of conditions which had to be fulfilled before they could perform marriage ceremonies."

Reference was intended to the Duke. While he was still in Austria, the problem of their probable marriage was outside my control as Rural Dean of France, but as soon as the Duke arrived at the Chateau de Candé it became my responsibility.

"The Duke must have known of this prohibition from England, for so far as I know he made no attempt to secure a church ceremony through me. No doubt he wished to spare my feelings, for I would have had to refuse and this would have been painful to me, for he is an old friend of mine and I have known him since he was a boy."

"It was, therefore a great surprise and a great shock when I learned that Rev. R. A. Jardine had arrived from England to perform the marriage ceremony."

Matter For Bishop of Durham.

"What penalties, if any, will follow Mr. Jardine's behavior I do not know. It is of course a matter for the Bishop of Durham, in whose diocese Darlington lies, and others to decide. I might say, though, that any clergyman under my jurisdiction here in France who performed such a breach would almost certainly be deprived of his living."

"But there again is another complication, for Mr. Jardine has performed the ceremony outside his own diocese. How he will register the marriage is a puzzle to me. He cannot, obviously, use my register here in Paris nor my representatives here at Tours. Nor can he use his own, for it cannot be moved without permission from the Archbishop of Canterbury. He must then have merely registered the service on a piece of his own notepaper."

"We must wait now and see what steps are to be taken in England by those responsible."

"One thing is clear and should be carefully remembered, Mr. Jardine, when he married Mrs. Warfield, did not represent the Church of England at all. He had no authority whatsoever."

The Church Times, an Anglo-Catholic (High Church) publication, said that "pretended solemnization" of the wedding at the Chateau de Candé was an "irresponsible action" on the part of Jardine.

Picture of Duke Appears in British Press.

Meanwhile, for the first time in months, pictures of the Duke smiled from the pages of the country's newspapers.

Only The Times, which has not published a picture of Edward since he ceased to be King last December and has never printed a picture of his bride, ignored the flood of wedding photographs and printed less than a column.

The British Broadcasting Corporation, likewise, took but little. Please Turn to Page 2, Col. 5.

It has become much cooler in Manitoba and continues cool farther west.

FRANCE PLACES ANTI-AIRCRAFT GUNS ON BORDER

Action Taken to Protect French Towns from Possible Attack by Spanish Insurgent Planes.

Perpignan, Franco-Spanish Frontier, June 4.—France armed her side of the Spanish border with anti-aircraft guns today to repel any attack by Spanish planes.

The step was taken after protests from the French city of Colerbec when it was machine-gunned recently by Spanish insurgent planes in a raid on Government-held border positions.

GERMANS AND IRISHMEN RETURNING HOME

Lisbon, Portugal, June 4.—Two hundred and ninety Germans who arrived last night from Seville, southern Spanish insurgent base, made ready for departure today for their homeland.

They were under the Portuguese steamer, Mozambique, had also been chartered to transport 650 Irishmen home from Spain.

Chrysler Motor Plants Again Closed By Sit-Down Strikes

Refusal of Two Unionists to Work with Non-Union Employees Forced Closing of Two Detroit Plants Affecting 11,000 Men—Deadlock Between C.I.O. and Independent Steel Producers Continues.

Detroit, June 4.—The Chrysler Corp. announced today that its Jefferson and Kercheval plants had been closed following a sit-down strike in the Jefferson avenue plant. Approximately 11,000 men were affected.

"The sit-down was on the motor line at the Jefferson plant," a company official said. "It came when two members of the United Automobile Workers refused to work alongside two non-union men. The sit-down spread to other departments and before long we had to close both plants because of a shortage of cars and bodies."

He said no conferences have been scheduled with the union.

UNION RENEWS DEMAND FOR STEEL CONTRACT

Youngstown, O., June 4.—Philip Murray, chief of John L. Lewis' steel forces, uncompromisingly declared a union contract must be signed as he scheduled his first peace conference today in a bloody seven-state strike against three major producers of the United States.

As the C.I.O. Steel Workers Organizing Committee added a wide organizing campaign to its widespread Great Lakes battlefront in an effort to choke off ore supplies to one-sixth of the steel industry, Murray said he would confer at Columbus with Ohio's Governor and asserted:

"I'm not going to settle this strike until Tom Girdler signs an agreement."

Girdler, chairman of Republic Steel Corp., the only one of three concerns attempting to operate in the face of militant picket lines, was Murray's target at a strikers' mass meeting last night in Warren, O.

A few hours before, he had announced in conjunction with a meeting of key leaders along the Buffalo-Chicago strike front which has made at least 72,000 men idle, that a campaign would be started for members in Minnesota and Michigan ore fields of the three concerns.

It is in these states that Republic's northern mines are centered, the Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co. and Inland Steel Corp., other major independents who have constantly refused to sign union contracts, are making no attempt to operate their sprawling mills in the nine-day-old strike.

Decision of Gov. Martin L. Davey to confer with Murray, director of strike activities in the greatest test of the S.W.O.C.'s year-old organization drive, was disclosed in Columbus by John Owens, Ohio director of the C.I.O.

While Davey declined comment on a two-hour discussion with Owens, close advisors to the Governor said he had taken a firm neutral stand in the matter. Please Turn to Page 2, Col. 4.

A MISLEADING STORY PRINTED BY LOCAL PAPER

No Implication Was Intended to Have Been Made that Diamond Ring Transaction Was Illegal.

The Sherbrooke Daily Record regrets that it has published misleading statements in its issues of May 28th and 29th with reference to the seizure of a diamond ring made by Mrs. B. Cohen, of this city. No implication was intended to have been made that the transaction in which Mrs. Cohen was concerned was illegal or reprehensible in any manner, shape or form. Further, the reference that interest of twenty-four per cent. was charged on the note is untrue, in that seven per cent. was the rate charged.

This newspaper withdraws any and all wrong implications which the publication of the articles complained of may have created in the minds of its readers and apologizes to Mrs. Cohen for any harm it may have done.

Large Armament Orders Allotted As Dominion Speeds Defence Programme

Contracts for More than $14,000,000 in Military, Naval and Air Equipment Awarded within Recent Weeks, of which Over $10,000,000 Will Be Spent in Canada.

Ottawa, June 4.—Placing of Canada defence forces on an "efficient basis" is going ahead and the Department of National Defence has awarded within recent weeks contracts for more than $14,000,000 for military, naval and air equipment.

In making the announcement last night, Hon. Norman Rogers, acting Minister of National Defence, did not disclose details but said $10,000,000 of the contracts will be spent in Canada.

"In some instances," he said, "where the requirements of the Department could not be supplied by Canadian manufacturers orders have been placed in Great Britain through the office of the High Commissioner for Canada."

The largest share of the contracts is for the Air Force, $6,557,352, of which it is estimated $4,246,000 will be spent in Canada. Of $6,060,699 for military equipment and stores, $4,816,899 will go to Canadian industries, as will $672,760 of $1,130,760 for the naval services.

Contracts for the four mine sweepers authorized by Parliament will be announced in the near future, said Mr. Rogers. In allocation of this work done consideration was to be given to the unemployment existing in centres where ship-building plants are established.

An expanded defence programme was announced at the past session of Parliament. National Defence Department main estimates for the present fiscal year were increased by $14,368,434 to $33,730,873. The total was composed of $17,850,428 for militia services, $4,486,810 for naval service and $11,391,650 for the Royal Canadian Air Force.

In addition Parliament voted $2,201,000 which purchased the destroyers Fraser and St. Laurent, now in commission.

CANADA URGES LEAGUE REFORM AT CONFERENCE

Desirability of Bringing United States, Germany and Japan into League Membership Discussed by Imperial Conference Delegates.

London, June 4.—Reform of the League of Nations was before principal delegates to the Imperial Conference this morning. Amid the varying views expressed there was general agreement, it is understood, along two lines:

That despite its failures in regard to Ethiopia and Manchuria, the League should be continued as an influence for world peace;

That measures for League reform should be directed towards its universality; in other words the adherence of the United States and the return of Germany and Japan.

No concrete scheme for League reform, it is stated, has been considered. But discussion of universality brought under review the whole question of sanctions as provided by Article XVI of the League Covenant.

It was argued that the League without the United States, Japan and Germany was a very different organization from that originally contemplated and that the effectiveness of the League would be increased as its membership approached universality.

Foreign Secretary Eden also informed the delegates of proposals made by the British Government to secure the return of Germany and Italy to the Spanish naval patrol.

Urges World Socialists Combine To End Fascist Intervention In Spain

Third Communist International Calls on Parent Organization and International League of Labor Unions to Support Spanish Workers Against Germany and Italy.

Moscow, June 4.—The Komintern of the Third Communist International, today ended its long-standing quarrel with its parent body, the Second Socialist International, and proposed a united front for "action against German and Italian intervention in Spain."

The move to bury the hatchet and unify the Communists, Socialists and International League of Labor Unions, George Dimitroff, Secretary General of the Komintern announced, was the result of the bombardment of the Spanish city of Almeria by German warships.

"A United Workers' front for material as well as moral support of the Spanish workers must—and will be established as the answer to Almeria," Dimitroff declared.

Dimitroff, as spokesman for the Komintern—the International organization of the Communist Parties of all nations—proposed the formation of a joint commission from his own group, the Second International, and with the National League of Labor Unions.

The proposal was prompted, he said, by an appeal from the Communist and Socialist labor union parties of Spain "for a united front

UNITED CHURCH DIVIDED OVER UNION ISSUES

Resolution Urging Rights of Labor to Organize for Collective Bargaining Delayed at United Church Conference.

Montreal, June 4.—Clerical and lay delegates to annual sessions of Montreal and Ottawa Conference of the United Church of Canada pondered today the rights of labor to organize for collective bargaining.

A resolution brought in yesterday by the Committee on Evangelism and Social Service expressing "sympathy with efforts of workers to secure by organization, a more equitable share in the fruits of modern industry" was held for further consideration and the conference prepared for its return to the agenda.

The resolution urged communities to recognize "the principle that employers should be free to bargain collectively with their employees through representatives of their own selection."

Urged also was enactment by Ontario and Quebec Governments of legislation similar to the "Trade Union Act" of Nova Scotia and the "Freedom of Trade Union Association Act" of Alberta, providing protection to employees seeking to exercise such rights.

Movers of the resolution struck a snag when it was pointed out to the Board of Publication that the resolution might be taken as criticism of the Board. Adoption of the resolution was deferred to permit revision of the wording.

Faith in sufficiency of Christian spiritual resources to meet human needs was affirmed in another resolution along with one noting "a new stirring of spiritual life in the Conference."

Employment and relief must remain obligations of the Government, it also was resolved, until ample measures are provided to abolish unemployment and while relief needs are beyond resources of private charity.

Other resolutions prepared for consideration were postponed until return of the one respecting collective bargaining.

CLAIMS WORLD PROTESTANTISM ENDANGERED

Windsor, Ont., June 4.—Not only the United Church but every Protestant church throughout the world is more imperiled today than at any time in the last four hundred years.

Very Rev. Dr. James Endicott, Toronto, said here last night at a lay association banquet in connection with the London Conference of the United Church of Canada.

CHARGES "CASTE" SYSTEM IN CHURCH AFFAIRS

Begina, June 4.—Charges a "caste" system in the United Church of Canada, particularly in Eastern Canada, prevented fair advancement of pastors and kept salaries unequal were made last night by Rev. H. E. D. Ashford of Brandon, Man., in addressing a meeting here of the thirteenth annual Saskatchewan Conference of the Church.

Mr. Ashford claimed an attempt was being made among the "churches" to arrange "swaps" between churches as a means of maintaining the "caste."

ST. JEROME WOMAN DIES IN 104TH YEAR

Over Two Hundred Survivors of Woman Who Claimed She Reached Century Mark Only Because of Hard Work.

St. Jerome, Que., June 4.—A little white-haired woman who claimed she reached the century mark only because of hard work, Mrs. Felix Beausjour died yesterday near this Laurentian Mountain town in her 104th year.

It was nearly ninety years ago that seventeen-year-old Adeline Charlier became the bride of Felix Beausjour, at Pointe aux Trembles, on the eastern limits of Montreal, and came into the mountain region to create a little farm home.

Four years ago when friends and neighbors presented her with flowers and a purse of gold on her one hundredth birthday anniversary, Mrs. Beausjour said it was hard work that had kept her alive. Through all the years she had helped her husband around the farm, tilling the fields, building a home and raising a family of nine children, of whom only four survive.

Her husband died twenty years ago. Survivors include 150 grandchildren, seventy-eight great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

URGES CAUTION UPON WORKERS AND EMPLOYERS

Calm Judgment Needed in Dealing with Industrial Questions if Prosperity Is to Be Maintained, Trade Minister Declares.

Toronto, June 4.—Nearly four hundred delegates to the sixty-sixth annual convention of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association today were en route to their homes in all parts of the Dominion after completing a heavy three-day business schedule.

Members at the annual dinner, the closing function of the convention, last night heard Hon. W. D. Euler, Minister of Trade and Commerce, appeal for tolerance and restraint on the part of all citizens in dealing with industrial problems confronting the Dominion. He urged employers and employees to exercise calm judgment in their industrial relations and at the same time to "sit steady in the boat."

The dinner was presided over by F. C. Brown, of Vancouver, the newly-elected president of the Association, who in his address advocated increased immigration and a fuller measure of co-operation between agriculturalists and manufacturers.

Mr. Euler said "I hope that the lessons of the past will not be forgotten and that we put our human order so that we may avoid depression, the recurrence of which, to my mind should not be regarded as inevitable. Much of the world's prosperity is due to rearmament—what will be the condition when the enormous expenditures come to an end, as end they must?"

B.C. ELECTORS SUPPORT STATE HEALTH SCHEME

Only Six of Thirty-Nine Ridings Reported Voted Against Plan—Final Election Returns Increase Government Majority to Fourteen.

Vancouver, June 4.—Premier T. D. Pattullo, his British Columbia Government returned to power for another five years and his proposal for comprehensive state health insurance endorsed by plebiscite, today planned a holiday before deciding on his new cabinet.

Liberal majority in the nineteenth Legislature was raised to fourteen last night with election of J. M. Bryan, veteran newspaperman, in the northern riding of Macenzie. About the same time the people's decision favoring a contributory state medicine scheme became definite.

Ballot counts from thirty-seven of the forty-five polls in the vast Mackenzie riding on the northern coast gave Bryan an small but safe margin over his Conservative opponent, E. M. MacIntyre, Mackenzie, represented by a Conservative in the last house, was the last of the forty-eight seats decided.

Bryan's victory gave the Liberals thirty-one of the Legislature seats, four less than they won in the 1933 election and two less than they held at dissolution. It also eliminated the possibility of the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation going into a tie with Conservatives as official opposition.

The plebiscite, held at the same time as the election, brought a total of 97,566 votes favoring "a comprehensive health insurance plan progressively applied" of the 170,000 ballots counted. Only six of the thirty-nine ridings heard from voted against the plan and all the larger urban constituencies except Victoria City and adjacent Esquimalt favored it.

BETTER GIVING ANNOUNCED IN CHURCH REPORT

Increased Receipts Noted for First Time in Years in Report to General Assembly of Presbyterian Church in Canada.

Ottawa, June 4.—Commissioners to the sixty-third General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, with their home missions situation clearly laid before them, today delved into the financial problems of the church.

Prepared for presentation were reports of the Board of Administration, the budget and the treasurer's statement, all fraught with interest for those responsible for conducting affairs of the church.

The Assembly yesterday heard a review of home missionary work for the past year and hopeful estimations of the future in this endeavor.

An optimistic note was sounded by Dr. Robert Johnston, of Ottawa, convener of the sub-executive on home missions, who declared the financial tide of the church had turned upwards for the first time in years. He urged continued giving and more attention to "foreign" missionary work which is to be done in Canada among non-Anglo-Saxons.

The Assembly referred to its legal committee a request from the Synod of Alberta that the church make a determined effort to recover from the United Church "all Presbyterian requests secured by the United Church since 1925" and ask "complete acceptance of the court decision." The Presbyterian Church is currently outside the United Church.

The averture also sought to obtain a pledge of discontinuance of "propaganda in the press and before the church courts of the Empire and the United States declaring the Presbyterian Church in Canada went into union."

POSITION OF MISSIONS REVIEWED

Ottawa, June 4.—Seventy-five cents of every dollar contributed to the Presbyterian Church in Canada is expended in the Dominion and only twenty-five cents overseas, the Budget and Stewardship Committee reported on the sixty-third General Assembly which opened its third day here this morning.

The report reported that a public misunderstanding of the disposition of the funds abroad proved a hindrance in some quarters to the generous giving and Rev. William Barclay, chairman, urged ministers to put their congregations right on that point.

However, he urged the Presbyterian church must not be uncharitable and shirk its duties on the fighting line in foreign fields.

Commenting on the Women's Missionary Society report given yesterday by Mrs. John Dreyer, B.D., of Toronto, said in his territory there were thirty-three different nationalities and Communist literature was freely distributed among them. He suggested Christian literature be printed in as many tongues as possible to counteract the growing subversive and atheistic influences.

ONE DEAD, TWO DYING IN SHOOTING AFFRAY

Hamilton Argument Climaxed by Tragedy—Little Hope Held Out for Two Wounded Men.

Hamilton, Ont., June 4.—John Anderson was killed today in a shooting affray and Anthony Anderson, his brother, and George H. Jackson were believed dying. Police held Joseph C. Lee.

The shooting climaxed an argument, police said they were told. All of those involved lived in Hamilton, Jackson was formerly of Guelph, Ont.

John Anderson was shot through the heart. Head injuries indicated he also was slugged. Jackson was shot in the abdomen and legs.

Dr. Miles Brown, assistant superintendent of the General Hospital, reported the death of Jackson and Anthony Anderson was expected momentarily. Anthony Anderson was shot in the spine. Medical attendants said his body was paralyzed.

Police said the shooting started after Lee went to the premises of the Atlas Horseshoe Company, armed with a revolver.

URGES SENATE BACK PRESS REFORM BILL

Premier Blum Takes Conservative Senators to Task for Amending Bill as Previously Passed by Chamber of Deputies.

Paris, June 4.—Premier Blum, aristocratic, scholarly leader of the masses, returned to the parliament today on the first anniversary of his regime today after personally calling on the Senate to approve the Government's press reform bill.

Taking Conservative Senators to task for amending the bill as previously passed by the Chamber of Deputies, the Premier declared "Legislators must not shackle reforms by inertia and resistance."

Blum, in his Senate appearance last night, demanded that press defamations be tried in police courts without juries instead of in assizes where he said the difficulty of obtaining convictions from juries made for the loose enforcement of laws.

CANADA'S OLDEST MAN IS CRITICALLY ILL

John Birch, Crimean War Veteran, Today Observed His 114th Birthday at Nipissing Junction, Ont.

North Bay, Ont., June 4.—Believed Canada's oldest man, John Birch, lies precariously ill at his Nipissing Junction home near here today, his 114th birthday. The Crimean War veteran, whose explanation for his longevity is "I guess they have no room for me in heaven," is gradually becoming weaker.

For the first time since he gained distinction for his age, Mr. Birch was unable to greet newspaper reporters on his birthday. Only other serious illness of his life was an influenza attack in 1922 when he was attended by Dr. A. R. Dafeo, physician to the Dionne quintuplets.

The fullness left him deaf but he is in possession of his other faculties. Two years ago he asstounded an interviewer by casually threading a needle on his 112th birthday. Mr. Birch always looked forward to being photographed on his birthday but relatives doubt if he will ever face a camera again.

Birch is one of the Nipissing district pioneers noted for longevity. Simon Commanda, 110-year-old former chief of the Nipissing Indian reserve, is the other. The old Indian is also ill at his home and for a time it was feared he would die but he is now reported "holding his own."

A pipe smoker since a boy of nine, Birch has never worn glasses and his eyesight has remained keen throughout the years. In 1935 he rode on a float with other old-timers in a parade in celebration of North Bay's old home week.

Always appreciating a joke, the old man recalls the first day he landed in Canada and mistook mustard for brown sugar. He drank his tea with mustard flavoring. When the Dionne quintuplets were born a few miles from his home, he doubted they would survive. He has watched their progress with interest.

By mobilization of the masses of workers, Dimitroff said, "the British and French Governments would be compelled to take energetic steps against the intervention of German and Italian Fascism."

He added, "Germany and Italy would be compelled to withdraw troops as well as ships from Spain and the action would accomplish the victory for the Spanish people."

Dimitroff, in a telegram to the secretaries of the Communist, Socialist and Labor Union parties in Valencia declared:

"We are doing everything in our power to bring the international proletariat together in the necessary uniformity for the defence of the Spanish people from Fascist barbarians and for the protection of international peace."

Dimitroff made his proposal for a united front in a telegram to Chairman Debuter, of the Socialist International.

The Third International was founded by Nicolai Lenin, leader of the Russian revolution, after the Bolshevik section had broken with the Socialist International in 1914.

The Komintern both claim to be the successor to the First International formed by Karl Marx.

Major Senac, Air-Captain Cahorro and Sergeant-Mechanico Barreiro. The bodies were taken to Burgos, former seat of the insurgent regime, about twenty-five miles southwest of the scene of the tragedy, for a full military funeral today.

At midnight a minute of silence was observed throughout insurgent territory, after the death, broadcasted by the Marcha Real, the national anthem of the Franco troops. It was the first broadcast since all radios were closed down after announcing Mola's death with a brief eulogy.

General Gonzalo Queipo de Llano, commander of the southern armies and considered the only other commander of rank equal to Mola, declared over the Sevilla radio: "Mola is dead but his spirit will remain. His death can change nothing. On the other hand, the enthusiasm to complete the work into which he put all his energy will be the greater."

An official announcement said troops on the Biscayan front, learning of the death, demanded that the offensive against the Government should be resumed with the greatest energy."

The commander shared with Franco himself the role of chief hero of insurgent Spain. With the first insurgent militiamen, organized the night the war began, July 18, 1936, he led the march from Pamplona down to the Guadarrama mountains where he captured the strategic passes to Madrid which his troops still hold.

He was in personal command of the offensive that reduced Irun and San Sebastian early in the war and was commander of the siege of Madrid except when Franco took personal command for a brief period.

URGES THAT OFFICIAN AT WINDSOR-WALLIS UNION BE PENALIZED FOR CHURCH LIVING

time in its programme for the news from Windsor. The announcement of fifty-five words told its millions of listeners:

"His Royal Highness the Duke of Windsor was married today to Mrs. Wallis Warfield at the Chateau de Candé, Tours. The French civil ceremony was followed by the marriage ceremony of the Church of England. This evening the Duke and Duchess left the Chateau in their car on their way, it is understood, to Austria."

The popular dailies with huge circulations, however, provided full pages of pictures and columns of descriptive matter, with every detail of the ceremony and the subsequent departure for the honeymoon.

Editorial comment echoed the Duke's own wish that he and the Duchess might enjoy a "happy and useful private life" and "not a public life." The Daily Express declared they had the good wishes of a multitude of Britons who "have no intention—and perhaps no great prospect—of learning their Christian charity from Bishops."

EXTENDED HONEYMOON IN AUSTRIA PLANNED

Aboard the Windsor Honeymoon Express, June 4.—A steaming tray of China tea, toast, rolls, butter, jam and lemon curd, the Duke and Duchess of Windsor today, breakfasting for their first time as man and wife. They sped across Europe in a private railway car for their honeymoon in an Austrian castle.

They ate while the panorama of beautiful Italian Lake Maggiore, dotted with islands and willows glittered in a brilliant morning sun, faded past the window of their compartment.

At Milan, a throng of tourists—mostly American women—shouted a refrain of "Wally! Wally!" until the Duke came to the window, waved, and then brought his bride to his side.

They arrived at Milan at noon and continued on the route which railroad officials said, would take them to Venice, then north to the storied Wasserleuburg castle on another train.

The Windsors were to stop over at Venice for two hours, their car was hitched to a northbound train. It was expected they would arrive at the castle near Noetsch late in the evening to begin at least a three months' stay.

The Duchess was dressed in a summery blue polka dot travelling dress and a close-fitting hat. She looked brightly toward her husband to the crowd of cheering women in the Milan station. The Duke, wearing a brown tweed suit, seemed to be in bounding spirits and showed keen delight at the reception.

Copies of Italian newspapers brought aboard the train gave extensive space to reports and elaborate accounts of the wedding and honeymoon. Italy's press had given only one line to the Coronation of George VI on May 12.

Wasserleuburg, leased from Windsor's friend, Count Paul Muenster, for three months, lies amid Alpine lakes and peaks near the Yugoslav border.

Two hundred and twenty-six pieces of luggage, including 185 trunks, had been sent on ahead by truck and train to the "fairlyland" castle from Chateau de Candé where yesterday the former British king took Wallis Warfield to be his Duchess "until death do them part."

Windsor, wearing a gray, striped suit with a white carnation gaily blooming in his lapel, hurried into the shiny green, yellow and blue Pullman at the heels of Her Grace, the Duchess, and then suddenly reappeared and, like a dutiful husband, heeded the Duchess's luggage board.

The Duchess' travelling costume was a suit of navy blue wool, with blouse of flowered print in blue and white, quickly substituted for, her wedding gown of "Wallis blue" silk. Just before the train pulled away, Windsor bore farewell to his chauffeur, George Ladbrook: "See you in Austria."

Then he turned to the French officials and thanked them for holding up the train for him and assisting his boarding.

Re-entering the car where he and his bride occupied a room and bath, Windsor was heard to remark to the Duchess in the vein of any so-called, reassuring bridegroom: "Yes, I have the tickets."

The train then pulled out to the south.

The couple had been delayed on their motor trip because their chauffeur lost the way from Monts.

The other passengers on the waiting train were required to stay aboard while the Duke and Duchess entrained. Their view of the proceedings were further veiled by another train which pulled up, shutting off their view of the platform.

The excited Duchess forgot her hat. The maid, ordered to recover it from the automobile left slip one of two leashed dogs she was holding. This brought still more excitement among the knot of spectators. The combined efforts of the station masters and police finally restored order to the scene.

Before the train started, the doors between the special car and the other coaches were locked by French officials to prevent any intrusion. At the outskirts of Dijon, shortly after 2 a.m., two policemen and two detectives boarded the train and rode to the city's station to satisfy themselves that all arrangements for the newlyweds' comfort were complete. They left the train without seeing the Duke and Duchess.

The express continued to Lyons, turned east toward Milan then toward Trieste.

LITTLE CHANGE REGISTERED IN DULL TRADING

With Overnight News Lacking Stimulating Qualities, Leading New York Stocks Showed Little Change Either Way.

New York, June 4.—With overnight news apparently lacking stimulating qualities, leading stocks today showed little change either way. Dealings were usually slow from the start and, near the second hour, the ticker tape frequently was at a standstill.

Fractionally on the upside were U.S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, Yellow Truck, U.S. Rubber, Sears Roebuck, Consolidated Edison, Continental Oil, Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, Baltimore and Ohio and Chesapeake and Ohio.

Unchanged to off a point or so were Republic Steel, General Motors, Goodyear, Goodrich, Montgomery Ward, Deere, Western Union, Anaconda, Kennecott, American Can, General Electric and Brooklyn-Manhattan Transit.

Briggs Efg pushed up more than a point following declaration of a dollar dividend.

Bonds and commodities were mixed.

Gold was again in the limelight as London reduced the price of the yellow metal about eight cents an ounce when it was necessary to absorb offerings amounting to around $21,000,000, heaviest in some time.

I.O.D.E. URGES GAIN BE TAKEN FROM MUNITIONS

Educational Campaign Against Cancer, Empire Defence and Munitions Chief Topics Discussed at Closing Session of Conference in Quebec.

Quebec, June 4.—Ended today was the week-long Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire annual conference, with delegates headed to their homes across Canada after decision to hold the 1938 convention at Vancouver.

Delegates touched yesterday, at closing sessions of the Order, on an educational campaign against cancer, Empire defence and munitions making. They also elected ten additional councillors and conveners of the national sub-committees.

They voiced complete approval of a proposal that the Order co-operate with the Health League of Canada in a national campaign against cancer and vested in Mrs. C. H. Wilson, of Toronto, authority to take charge of necessary organization work.

Dealing with Empire defence and munitions making, a resolution was adopted requesting the Federal Government to allow manufacture of armaments for Empire defence with private gain to be taken from such manufacture.

The newly-elected national executive was given charge of arrangements for representation of the Order in the International Peace Garden on the North Dakota-Manitoba border.

Appointment was announced yesterday, after elections Wednesday, of W. G. Lumbers, of Toronto, to the presidency of the Order for another year.

manoeuvred the ship of state between the newspapers.

He said he was "not welcome" at the Star, and added:

"I feel like the Deutschland (German ship bombed by Spanish Government aviators)—likely to be bombed from above and torpedoed below. There is a safe haven in the Telegram. But in the 'Old Lady of Melinda Street' (The Globe and Mail) whose president is on my right, I'm among kindred souls. When in difficulty I see fit to turn to my friend, George McCullagh."

URGES CONFERENCE TO OPEN ITS DOORS TO PUBLIC.

London, June 4.—In an editorial today Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express declared "the Imperial Conference should drop its secret sessions and open the door to the public."

"We want to popularize the Empire," urged the newspaper. "We want to know all about it and understand it. Let us have a press gallery in this Parliament of Empire."

"It may be argued that the Imperial Conference cannot be treated as an Empire House of Commons but resembles rather an Empire cabinet, and therefore should deliberate privately. The answer to that is if we do not have any kind of popular assembly in our much-boasted Imperial democracy, then it is about time we created one."

Envy thou not the oppressor, and choose none of his ways.—Proverbs 8:31.

Marked Increase Shown In Construction.

Prospects for building and engineering work in Canada are most encouraging. The total value of contracts awarded for the first five months of 1937, as compiled by MacLean Building Reports, Limited, amounts to $80,006,200, as compared with $36,903,400 for the same period of 1936, or an increase of 40.3 per cent.

The Province of Quebec showed a most pronounced advance during the month of May with $6,175,500, as compared with $4,544,800 for April, while Ontario accounted for $9,982,800 of the total. The contribution by the other provinces was as follows: Nova Scotia, $2,822,800; New Brunswick, $1,998,000; British Columbia, $1,423,300; Manitoba, $766,400; Alberta, $643,200; Saskatchewan, $290,600, and Prince Edward Island, $68,200.

Despite the fact that construction is still far below what is generally regarded as normal value, it is steadily advancing to higher levels of activity. Considerable activity has been evident throughout Canada during recent months in home building and improvements. This has helped to reduce unemployment and to add its contribution to improvement in conditions generally.

There is every reason to believe that the present encouraging situation will continue.

Support The Salvation Army Tag-Day.

Tomorrow the local Salvation Army will make its annual appeal. From early in the morning until late at night representatives of this worthy organization will sell tags.

Too much cannot be said in favor of the Salvation Army and the fine work which it is performing. The annual tag day is an appeal which no right-thinking person can overlook.

Everyone knows what a great asset to any community the Salvation Army is, but many people are not aware of the vast amount of work which the Army performs.

Much of the work of the Salvation Army is carried on behind the scenes. No thought is given to race or creed, and everyone seeking help by the Army is given careful and wise individual advice and help.

Aged destitute persons, homeless transients, young girls needing guidance and help, unemployed heads of families and boys and young men seeking work are but a portion of the cases which come under the jurisdiction of the Salvation Army.

The Army's annual tag day appeal is a worthy one. Citizens should feel proud and privileged to give it their generous support.

The Use Of Leisure.

Grenville Kleiser.

Everyone, whatever his job, has a certain amount of time at his own disposal. When his day's work is done, and time has been allotted to sleep, eating and other small routine tasks, he still has a few hours over to spend as his inclination and energy dictate. How will he use it? Will he spend it wisely or foolishly? And what is "wise" and what is "foolish" in the expenditure of time?

"Killing time" is one of the expressions that stamp the user. Any one who wishes to "kill time" is a person with no sense of values. Even times spent waiting at a railway junction may be profitably used, and entertainingly, too, though few people seem to realize this.

Leisure time that is spent well must be spent entertainingly; that is, in a way that relaxes, soothes and amuses. It does not follow that it need be idly spent; indeed, few people now are entertained by being idle.

The value of leisure is that it may be used for self-development. One's daily work only exercises part of one's faculties; the rest often fall into disuse, so that, when work ceases, one does not know where to turn for self-amusement, and so gets into the way of "killing time" in unprofitable ways.

Wisely spent leisure depends, of course, on one's daily work. If one spends one's day in doing small routine tasks as quickly and efficiently as possible, one is apt to let imagination fade.

Let the leisure hours repair that waste. If one is constantly being called on to make decisions, to handle important matters, one's brain gets overstrained. Let leisure be a time of relaxation and quiet thought.

If one's work is sedentary, let some of the leisure hours be spent in physical exercise. Few people can express themselves fully in their daily work. They necessarily exercise only a small part of their full, complex personality. In their free time, they can really "be themselves." They can develop those sides of their personality which daily routine tends to crush.

They can become more alive, more receptive, more human.

Many opportunities are open for entertaining and using one's leisure hours. The head-worker is tired, but he cannot entirely forego intellectual pleasure, even in his free time. For him there are intelligent plays, good music from the radio, imaginative or intellectual books not concerned with his daily job.

The mechanic is dulled by hours of routine work; for him there are sports, popular lectures, dancing.

The librarian is weary of the sight of books; for him the open country calls. The man whose daily work keeps him segregated behind the door marked "Private" should mingle freely with his fellows. The man who is in daily, hourly contact with thousands should try to get acquainted with himself by solitary walks, or by discussion of problems that interest him with a few chosen friends.

Don't be afraid of "idleness." Fields that are made to bear heavy crops need their fallow years, and the man who is apparently "idling" may be recruiting his mental powers more than the observer understands.

Hours are not ill spent that are spent in quiet, solitary thought.

Some United States newspapers take exception to the fact that Col. and Mrs. Lindbergh did not announce the birth of their son. Col. Lindbergh knows what publicity means in the United States. Now he is quite happy to enjoy English courtesy and seclusion.

Poverty is dramatic in its appeal to the humanitarian-minded man. But "underprivileged" is not a matter of bread and butter and bath tubs alone. So-called "normal" boys, too, often need adult aid-counsel, direction, friendship.—From an editorial in the Rotarian Magazine.

What Editors Say

LONDON'S FRESH.

During the hearing of the case an expert, who said that he supervised the grading of three million eggs annually, stated: "I consider an egg new-laid up to seven days. After that it becomes a fresh egg. It may be in a new-laid condition some time after. It depends on the condition of the egg when it is laid."

One egg dealer described a new-laid egg as one "which is fit for boiling, poaching or frying," and added: "I've known eggs to remain fresh for five or six weeks in cool weather. A fresh egg is fresh until it goes west."

"TIPPERARY" AN OLD SONG.

By far the most popular song during the Great War was "It's a Long Way to Tipperary." A Guards' battalion started to sing it on the march after landing at Havre in August, 1914, and it immediately became famous. It was soon the marching song of every regiment, it swept Great Britain and the Empire, it was translated into French for the poilus. It captured even the American troops. Everybody sang "Tipperary." It is still sung whenever veterans meet, and it is sung at service club meetings.

Strange to say it was not a wartime song at all. Mr. J. Judge, of Oldbury, Worcestershire, who composed the words and music, reveals that he wrote it twenty-five years ago—two or three years before the war. He had been talking to a man who challenged him to write and compose a song in one day. He accepted the bet, went to a quiet inn and over a solitary glass there and then produced—"It's a Long Way to Tipperary." He sang it that very night in the Stalybridge Theatre. So catchy was it that the whole audience was singing it in a few minutes. But until the World War it was practically unknown. Since then Mr. Judge has made thousands of pounds out of it, and is still drawing $25 a week in royalties.
And "Tipperary" will probably be sung during the next war and in the war after that.

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS

L'Action Catholique, Quebec.

The Safety League of the Province of Quebec reveals, on the opening of the roads, that the automobiles have to their credit a death a day on our public highways. That is a figure that should recall people to prudence, all the more because death, which is the most irreparable of disasters, does not respect anything; there are also the injured, of whom a number are so gravely hurt as to be helpless for the rest of their lives. There are families broken up, with all the social problems which arise with the sudden disappearance of their heads. And the cause? A number of them are indicated, of which imprudence, speed madness, bad roads, mechanical breakdowns, etc. are included. Not very often is the principal one mentioned which is alcoholism in its various degrees. It is seldom mentioned that the authorities, under the pressure of the alcohol profiteers, are multiplying along our roads the opportunities for drink, as they are multiplied in cities and towns, taverns, cafes, dining rooms, where whoever wishes may, by means of a sandwich, or without it, buy about all that he desires in the way of alcoholic drinks. One death a day is the result of that state of affairs.

"The Old Order Changeth"

It is very seldom a municipal secretary is found ready to dig down in his own pocket and pay arrears bills of delinquent ratepayers.

Yet that is precisely what happened in Cowansville just thirty years ago this time. It was on June 5, 1907, that the Cowansville Village Council met for its semi-monthly session. The gathering was presided over by Mayor William Brown, with Councillors W. H. Fuller, J. Smyth, William Oliver, C. E. Lavery and A. L. Gilman present.

The session of the evening was sprung by Mayor Brown, who read a letter from Secretary from W. U. Cotton stating that, as at the May session, it had been decided to sue four of the ratepayers who were delinquent in payment of taxes, on account of alleged irregularities in the valuation roll and other differences and difficulties too numerous to mention. He, the secretary, paid the taxes himself in order to promote peace, harmony, good-will and good citizenship.

The tax bill amounted to over $97, and Mr. Cotton had only a moral claim to re-embursement, having not been authorized by the Council to make such a payment.

This is certainly one of the rare instances on record when arrears tax bills were paid and liquidated by a kind-hearted secretary-treasurer.

The amusing fact about the whole affair was that it removed the opportunity to prove the valuation roll null and void. The only persons, however, in this matter who had any real grievance were the lawyers who would have been employed on the defence and prosecution if the case had ever been tried or action taken.

The inexplicable part is how Mr. Cotton, who was a lawyer, would have so disregarded the tenets of his profession as to make his fellow-lawyers lose opportunities for litigation.

LIKE A TALE THAT IS TOLD

Seated beside the hearth, I watched the fire
Shedding its cosy warmth on all around
And giving forth a friendly, crackling sound,
As if to boast to men, "I'll never tire
Of spreading heat and giving light to all!"
And so I dreamed, and so forgot the fuel
Without which even fires must die
—its dust
With cold is done; its dancing flame
Must fall.

I saw how like this fire was to my life,
A life begun with youth's ambition flushed,
A life to end with hopes and struggles crushed;
Such is our prize for toil, for pain, for strife—
For as the fire with youthful radiance shone,
Then faded, so life flickers and is gone.

Consumption of silver by the arts and industries in the United States and Canada during 1936 totaled 26,500,000 ounces, an increase of 3,000,000 ounces or nearly 15 per cent. over the 1935 figure.

REUNION HELD BY INSTITUTES OF STANSTEAD

Practically All Officers Re-elected at Annual Meeting of Stanstead County Women's Institute at Way's Mills—Many Interesting Papers and Reports Given.

Way's Mills, June 4.—With all branches represented by officers and delegates; a varied programme and important matters of business before them, the members of the Stanstead County Women's Institute held their annual meeting at Way's Mills early in May. The morning session opened with the Institute song and prayer, with Mrs. Beane, county president, presiding, after which a cordial welcome was extended to the visitors from Mrs. Sutton on behalf of the Way's Mills branch. Mrs. Beerworth responded to the welcome, and the entire morning was devoted to presentation and acceptance of reports. Mrs. H. B. Whitcomb, county secretary-treasurer, gave a comprehensive report, no details being overlooked, and all showing that a year of increased activity had brought good results.

The seven branches in Stanstead County, with a membership of 177; total receipts were given as $468.88, with a total expenditure of $183.34, leaving a balance of $285.54. After all liabilities have been wiped out there will be a balance of $204.28, while the branch reports showed good work done in general, beautifying of home grounds, improving unsightly places. Girl Guide work in North Hatley in which folk dancing had been a popular feature; loan library and adult education; singing classes and public speaking, with community social activities combined in a year's work, of which the county Institutes may well feel proud.

Attention was brought to the fact that this year had provided a wider scope for the national events committee; that home economics had increased interest, especially in cooking and other homely arts. Coronation embroidery, quilting, sewing classes and other kinds of household work were reported upon and the president offered this advice to the delegates: "Take this home to your branches." Referring to immigration, the meeting was reminded of the important duty of the Institute connected with the welcome to newcomers. "We must have talent, tact, friendliness and education if we are to meet, accept and help them," stated the chairman, who also spoke in high praise of the reports and the work behind them. We have splendid workers."

It was decided that the county programmes had proved quite satisfactory and that this year's would be printed in the same way and paid for by a check-book at the County Fair had proved a worthy undertaking; prizes for children who compete at the County Fair were favored and the members were glad to learn that help given by the Experimental Farm was greatly appreciated by the Minister of Agriculture, the Ottawa. Among business items recorded was the decision to omit the February quarterly meeting because of difficulty in winter travel, a meeting of the executive if necessary to be held.

At the noon hour an appetizing dinner was served in the town hall by the entertaining branch and the afternoon session opened with the presiding officers, Miss McCain, of Macdonald College, and Miss LeBlanc, representative of the Canadian Fisheries, also Dr. Barrett representing the Government and the health unit project, on the platform.

Miss McCain, whose interest in the Women's Institute never wanes, greeted the assembly in her usual businesslike manner, and as everyone rose to their feet she read a personal message to the Canadian Women's Institutes from Queen Mary. A number of members of the organization the Queen Mother is a regular attendant at the Sandringham Institute and takes personal interest in all the work. It is the sincere wish of Queen Mary that Canadian women should continue to uphold the reputation already won, and to further the cause of peace. Miss McCain reminded the assembly that if the Queen Mother could find time to attend Institute meetings every member should make special efforts to be a regular attendant.

Congratulations were extended to the County Institutes for the year's work and an earnest appeal made to carry on, also to try to attend the annual meeting at Macdonald College in June. Miss McCain gave a graphic description of happenings at the Conference of the Countrywomen of the World; of the fact that the efforts of the Women's Institutes were to be used in the work on nutrition by the League of Nations, and made mention of the linking of this organization with many notable organizations throughout the civilized world, placing em-

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

DEVELOPS SETTING TRICK

Opponent Figures Cards Partner May Have for His Overall, and Plays Own Hand Accordingly

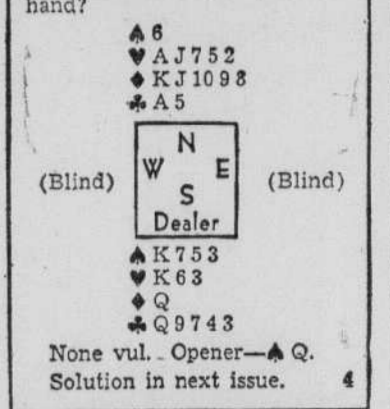

By Wm. E. McKenney, Secretary, American Bridge League.

Finding the essential trick to defeat a close contract is a task that daily confronts those who play bridge. Sometimes the search, even though conducted with all diligence, is bound to fail, but there are many hands in which that needed trick can develop, if only the defenders will look just a little below the surface.

Graham Miller, of New York, who sat East with today's hand, is a player who likes to get down to the root of things. South's contract appeared fairly secure, but East's partner had made an overall, and therefore should have some honor strength.

The defense was built upon the assumption that it was necessary to develop the setting trick immediately. When East won the first trick with the ace of spades, he saw that the one chance of beating the hand was to develop two diamond tricks. This would be possible if West held either the ace of clubs, or a quick entry in hearts, plus the queen of diamonds.

Playing for this chance, East returned a small diamond. West forced the king with the queen, and when South led a trump to trick three he went up with the ace and returned a diamond.

East then cashed both the ten and ace of diamonds, and the contract was down one. The setting trick was there, but it had to be developed.

phasis upon the fact that English, French and Jews in Canada were working together for the development of talent. In closing her address Miss McCain advised all "to sing more" and advocated the use of the Canadian singing books.

Dr. Barrett whose visit had been anticipated for some time, gave information regarding the health unit, a topic of considerable interest to the Women's Institutes of this Province, as several counties have already undertaken the work. The cost has been a vital part of the project and the visiting doctor went into this matter in detail, explaining that it would be covered by a fifteen per cent. valuation, that if rural populations take it the towns must pay the same tax, whether they "come in or not."

The health unit is comprised of a doctor, a sanitary inspector and two or three nurses who must be graduates in public hygiene and speak the two languages, French and English. School hygiene, clinics, educational lectures and demonstrations, regular visits to rural homes, and all work relative to prevention of disease is undertaken in this new form of health and child welfare.

Dr. Barrett stressed the point that the visits by nurses to rural homes, reporting of contagious diseases, and educational measures would reduce the T.B. rate, while the distribution of serum and vaccine would reduce death rate, as would pre-natal and post-natal care of mothers.

At the conclusion of his practical talk, questions were asked and answered, then the matter was left in the hands of the Institutes to be studied and decided upon.

Miss LeBlanc, representing the Canadian Fisheries, was a welcome visitor for she has interesting things to say about the food value of fish and gets her information across in an attractive way. Miss LeBlanc, during last year visited about half the Quebec Institutes and plans on completing her work by visiting the remainder during the coming year. She drew attention to the fact that instead of having Friday the fish day, there should be at least two fish days a week. Serving fish should not be a penance, rather a joy, and it is well for the women who cater to the family board to know the value of fish. A good suggestion was made by the speaker who asked that a roll call should be arranged for receipts from members to attractive fish menus.

At the conclusion of addresses, the election of officers was completed—re-election for all, except publicity convenor, for which office Mrs. John Bailey was duly appointed. It was decided to have the next quarterly meeting at Dixville, this in response to a cordial invitation from that branch.

Selecting Your Family Lot

It is unfortunate that the selection of a family lot is so generally ignored until the hour of grief, for then the relatively simple task becomes a distressing burden.

Every family should be spared this ordeal, by selecting the lot with the same care and foresight which prompts us to make provision for coming events in the way of insurance and making our wills.

In the confusion and emotion which comes with sorrow it is impossible to consider carefully the most desirable locations, and particularly so if the choice has to be made in the winter.

That this is true is borne out by those in charge of our own beautiful Elmwood who know that many who are forced to purchase a lot under the above circumstances, find that it is not the one they would have chosen under normal conditions.

In Elmwood Cemetery, Sherbrooke possesses a resting place of unrivalled beauty, and with the opening of a new section recently, citizens who may not have provided themselves with a lot, have an excellent opportunity of securing a very desirable location, at a moderate cost.

FINE CONCERT WAS PRESENTED LAST EVENING

A Hundred and Fifty Persons Attired in Picturesque Centenary Costumes Attractive Feature at Entertainment Staged at City Hall by Miss Marie-Anne Couture's Pupils.

A hundred and fifty persons attired in picturesque centenary costumes recalling the fashions of many decades ago proved an attractive feature of the entertaining concert presented under the patronage of Rev. A. O. Gagnon, Lord Bishop of Sherbrooke, by the pupils of Miss Marie-Anne Couture at the City Hall last night.

This concert, which won the unstinted applause of the several hundred people in attendance, was presented under the auspices of L'Association Notre-Dame des Anges, with the assistance of Prof. A. S. Bourgeois, Off. d'Ac., and other local artists.

The wearing of the old-period costumes was highly appropriate in view of the approaching centenary celebration of Sherbrooke. They lent a colorful touch to the evening's entertainment and elicited many favorable comments.

The hall was filled to capacity, and about two hundred people were turned away at the door. This fact, as pointed out by Mayor Emile Rioux today, emphasized the pressing need for an adequate municipal building in Sherbrooke.

The programme contained varied selections that indicated the versatility of Miss Couture's pupils, each of whom deserves praise for his or her contribution to the entertainment. Two operettas were particularly enjoyable. These were "C'est le Renard," in which Miss Blanche Lavergne and Paul Fournier took part, and "Ca C'est le Bouquet," presented by Miss Cecile Dutil and Marcel Dufresne.

Other numbers included "Rigoletto's Quartette" (Verdi) by the Misses Alice Potvin and Laurette Bousquet, Napoleon Roussel and Lionel Gosselin; "Romeo and Juliette" (Gounod), with Miss Therese Gervais as Juliette, Miss Aurora Gervais as Gertrude, Robert Larmer as Romeo and Marcel Dufresne as Frere Laurent; a recitation by Miss Jacqueline Deslauriers; a mixed choir, with solo parts taken by Miss Laurence Houde and Napoleon Roussel; a mixed choir, with piano duo by Miss Blanche Couture and Miss Florette Landry.

Sopranos were the Misses Therese Gervais, Cecile Dutil, Anna Dostie, B. Lavergne, Lucienne Gagnon, Jeanne-D'Arc Drapreau, Alice Potvin, Therese Lafleur, Jeanne-D'Arc Dubuc, Lucille Cote, Cecile Maril, B. Desrochers and Y. Descoetes; tenors, Messrs. Napoleon Fournier, Paul Fournier, Robert Larmer, Honorius Marceau, Antoine Gosselin and Elphege Arguin; baritones, Messrs. Marcel Dufresne, J. O. Fortier, Patrice Gauthier, Lionel Gosselin, Eugene Roy, Jean Roy and Jean Roussseau; basses, Messrs. Gerard Belisle, Arthur Roy, Godfrey Cote and Hertz Belisle; mezzo and contralto, Misses Aline Fleury, Laurence Houde, F. Landry, L. Bousquet, Aldea Poulin, Therese Roy, L. Descoetes, Aurora Gervais, Jeanne Dubois, Gisele Drapreau, S. Laliberte and M. Gailllette.

The Misses Marie-Anne and Blanche Couture accompanied at the piano.

TWO ACT COMEDY WELL STAGED AT LENNOXVILLE

Presentation Made to A. T. Speid, Who Last Evening Scored Another Success as Play Director.

"Mr. Bob," an amusing and entertaining two-act comedy-romance, was presented in excellent style last evening by members of the Girls' Auxiliary of St. George's Church and three of the boys of the Anglican Young Men's Association to a large and appreciative audience in St. George's Church Hall. A. T. Speid, whose directing ability is well known, again proved his talent, for his weeks of coaching was apparent in last evening's presentation. Each part was cleverly and convincingly portrayed, and although it seemed difficult to choose anyone for special mention, Lorne Tapp's enactment of Mr. Brown and Miss Ruth Burt's portrayal of Patty, Miss Rebecca's maid, were exceptionally well handled, and several times the audience burst into applause in the middle of an act following their humorous repartee. Mr. Fred Byrne as Jenkins, Miss Rebecca's butler, was also a great favourite, and deserves much credit for a sincere performance.

Miss Marjorie Benton, who played Miss Rebecca Luke, a maiden lady; Miss Vivian Cann as Katherine, Miss Rebecca's niece, Miss Ruth Povey as Marion Bryant, Katherine's friend, and Douglas Glass as Philip Royson, nephew of Miss Rebecca, also gave sterling performances.

The makeup, which was most effective, was handled by Fred Cooper, and Miss Elea Burt and Miss Bernice Glass acted as prompters. The tickets were taken by the Misses Audrey Bellam and Marjorie McGee, and Miss Frances Darby distributed the programmes.

George Dwyer, a favourite local pianist, delighted the audience with

STRESSES NEED FOR MUNICIPAL BUILDING HERE

Mayor Rioux Declared this Morning that Since Inaugurating His Term of Office He Has Been Obligated to Turn Away Six Big Conventions Because Sherbrooke Has No Adequate Auditorium.

Mayor Emile Rioux this morning stressed the need of a municipal building for Sherbrooke. Last night a concert was given in the City Hall. It was a fine concert. Many people wished to attend. Several hundred did. But about two hundred were turned away at the door for the simple reason that the hall could not accommodate them.

"This concert, which has no hall in which a concert of that kind may be held," the Mayor declared this morning to newspapermen, "and it is a shame. It is pitiful to think that a city of 31,000 population should be without a spacious auditorium in which concerts and plays could be given and conventions held."

He stated that since inaugurating his term of office he had been obliged to turn away six big conventions from Sherbrooke.

"They came to me and asked me if Sherbrooke could accommodate nine hundred, fifteen hundred delegates," he continued. "I had to tell them that we had no hall that could hold such a number. We lost those conventions, and local citizens lost the benefits, monetary and otherwise, that would have resulted from these gatherings."

His warning added that it was time Sherbrooke citizens realized the imperative necessity of a municipal building, and that something be done about the matter.

Selections between the first and second acts. Candy was sold by members of the Girls' Auxiliary, under the direction of Mrs. Bruce Clarke, of Sherbrooke.

Following the completion of the play and the singing of "God Save the King," with Mr. Dwyer at the piano, the members of the cast and those assisting were pleasantly entertained at "The Rectory," during which Rev. Albert Jones, on behalf of the church, presented Mr. Speid with a pipe in recognition of his valuable assistance. He also thanked the cast and all who had assisted in any way towards the success of the evening.

Later the singing of old favourite songs brought a delightful and successful evening to a close.

General Notes.

Mrs. Donald Ross, directress of the very successful play, "The Scarecrow Creeps," presented by members of the Young People's Union of the United Church recently here and in several other nearby towns, was pleasantly surprised when the entire cast and assistants arrived at her home on High Street to present her with a check for the money presented and plates in recognition of her untiring efforts in this venture. The presentation was made by Miss Mina Pergau, and responded to most graciously by Mrs. Ross. A pleasant evening was spent after which delicious refreshments were served by the cast.

Mrs. D. C. Wilmut, of Barre, Vt., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Margaret Work.

Mrs. William Sutor, of Lacombe, Alta., and her two daughters, Mrs. H. Sharpe and baby, of Meadow Brook, Alta., and Miss Betty Sutor, of Lacombe, Alta., are spending some time as guests of Mrs. Sutor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wark.

A strawberry festival was planned by the Women's Association of the Lennoxville United Church at their regular monthly business meeting held yesterday afternoon in Douglas Hall. Mrs. Ethel L. Seale, the president, was in the chair, and the devotional period was conducted by Mrs. F. R. Matthews.

TWENTY-FIVE MOTORISTS SUMMONED

Continuing his determined drive against violators of traffic laws, Chief of Police H. O. Camirand today summoned twenty-five motorists under the direction of Mrs. Bruce Clarke, of Sherbrooke.

Following the completion of the play and the singing of "God Save the King," with Mr. Dwyer at the piano, the members of the cast and those assisting were pleasantly entertained at "The Rectory," during which Rev. Albert Jones, on behalf of the church, presented Mr. Speid with a pipe in recognition of his valuable assistance. He also thanked the cast and all who had assisted in any way towards the success of the evening.

Later the singing of old favourite songs brought a delightful and successful evening to a close.

General Notes.

Mrs. Donald Ross, directress of the very successful play, "The Scarecrow Creeps," presented by members of the Young People's Union of the United Church recently here and in several other nearby towns, was pleasantly surprised when the entire cast and assistants arrived at her home on High Street to present her with a check for the money presented and plates in recognition of her untiring efforts in this venture. The presentation was made by Miss Mina Pergau, and responded to most graciously by Mrs. Ross. A pleasant evening was spent after which delicious refreshments were served by the cast.

Mrs. D. C. Wilmut, of Barre, Vt., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Margaret Work.

Mrs. William Sutor, of Lacombe, Alta., and her two daughters, Mrs. H. Sharpe and baby, of Meadow Brook, Alta., and Miss Betty Sutor, of Lacombe, Alta., are spending some time as guests of Mrs. Sutor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wark.

A strawberry festival was planned by the Women's Association of the Lennoxville United Church at their regular monthly business meeting held yesterday afternoon in Douglas Hall. Mrs. Ethel L. Seale, the president, was in the chair, and the devotional period was conducted by Mrs. F. R. Matthews.

BUSINESSMEN IN CONVENTION AT COATICOOK

Delegates from Nineteen Chambers of Commerce Attending Summer Meeting of Eastern Townships' Associated Boards of Trade and Eastern Townships' Settlement Society.

Coaticook, June 4. — Prominent Eastern Townships businessmen, representing nineteen Chambers of Commerce, gathered here today for the summer convention of the Eastern Townships' Associated Boards of Trade and the Eastern Townships' Settlement Society.

One of the chief topics on the afternoon's agenda was the matter of the development of Mount Orford into a national park—a project that has occupied the attention of the Associated Boards for several years past and which is apparently upon the eve of being realized.

Dr. G. A. Bowen, of Magog, is slated to present a detailed report upon the Orford Park question and enlighten the delegates as to just what has been accomplished in this regard since the last session of the Associated Boards.

Delegates were welcomed this afternoon by Mayor Charles E. Akhurst and W. W. Pierce, president of the Coaticook Board of Trade.

The meeting was presided over jointly by D. J. Salls, president of the Associated Boards, and George W. Murphy, president of the E. T. Settlement Society.

Hon. N. McL. Rogers, Federal Minister of Labor, is scheduled to address tonight's session.

In comparison with human eyes, the eyes of most birds are telescopic. A small grain particle, hardly distinguishable by a person standing a yard away from it, is seen 100 yards by some birds.

Members of the 53rd Chapter of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire were hospitably entertained last evening by Mrs. T. Loughheed at her home on Wellington street south. Mrs. F. Cathcart, the regent, presided during the brief business period which followed the customary opening ceremonies. The financial statement was given by Mrs. H. Maskell, treasurer, and Mrs. F. Baker, educational secretary, gave her report. Mrs. R. M. Loughheed, delegate to the Provincial Chapter meeting in Montreal, gave an interesting review of the session, and later plans were completed for a rummage sale and a card party. A pleasant social hour ensued, during which the hostess served dainty refreshments, assisted by Mrs. A. W. Griggs and Mrs. R. M. Loughheed.

R.W. Bro. Bromley on the splendid district meeting he had organized and then gave an interesting account of his visit last summer to the Grand Lodge of Scotland at which King George VI, who was then the Duke of York, was installed as Grand Master. There were delegates there who had come over 12,000 miles just for that gathering. He mentioned that the Scottish Masons held their reputation by raising in a few days a fund of $50,000 for entertainment at this Grand Lodge when they had only been asked to contribute $40,000. There was a balance remaining from the $50,000 which has been set aside as an endowment for future entertainment of overseas visitors. He also told of his trip to Maryland, from which he had just returned after attending the 150th annual Grand Lodge of Maryland. M.W. Bro. Williamson congratulated those lodges usually referred to as the "country lodges" on the splendid contribution which they were making to Masonry. V.W. Bro. McClelland referred feelingly to the recent Coronation activities. The toast to the Grand Lodge of Vermont was proposed by R.W.

Brooklyn "Youngster" Is One of Three Top Elbowers in National League — White-Washed Pirates Yesterday in Revenge for Only Defeat He Has Suffered.

The boys along the baseball front were picking a nice, quiet second division berth for the Dean-less St. Louis Cardinals today.

At the same time, the talk that wasn't given over to the Dean doing was directed at the work of another pitcher, Lou Fette, surprise package of the Boston Bees and the 1937 National League Rookie crop.

Without their great "popper-of-fer," whether he's right or wrong in his row with Ford Frick, the Cards are anywhere up to twenty games weaker, depending on how long he's going to be on the outside looking in. As a result, if his suspension lasts for any length of time, the "Gas House Gang" figures to wind up out of a piece of the series melon.

If they do, two clubs, the Bees and the Dodgers, may fight it out for the fourth spot in the final National League line-up—the Dodgers because Burleigh Grimes has given them a shot of dynamite, and the Bees largely because of Fette.

This "youngster" is thirty years old, and for the last few years has been doing a workhorse act with considerable success for St. Paul of the American Association.

Today Fette is one of the three top elbowers in the National League. He has beaten every club he has faced, and faced all except the Giants and Phillies.

The only club to top him so far is Pittsburgh, beating him four to one early in the season. Yesterday was revenge day for Fette in a big way, as he handed the league-leading Bees their first shutout of the year. He blanked them with seven hits for a six to nothing win and his sixth victory against one defeat.

With Dean, Fette and the weather man all getting their licks in, the other major league action yesterday didn't create as much stir as a leaf in a breeze. Only four games got by the rain altogether.

Cleveland's Indians opened their series with the New York Yankees by taking a free-swinging six to two decision from "Lefty" Gomez.

The Tigers kicked away enough chances to win three games and lost to the Senators by five to four. The White Sox took over third place from the Tigers in the American League by winning the Boston Red Sox by eleven to four.

TORONTO LEAFS TURNED ON THEIR CANADIAN RIVALS

With their ace hurler, big Bob Kline, back in action again, Buffalo's champion Bisons were set today for their drive toward the International League lead.

The husky right-hander who injured his arm a week ago came back last night to take his turn on the mound and celebrated with a neat six-hit, four to nothing shutout over the Rochester Red Wings.

It was big Bob's fifth victory of the season and the Bisons' fourth triumph in their last five games. It moved the Herd within two and a half games of the second place Montreal Royals who lost by thirteen to three to Toronto Leafs in another all-night contest.

Kline's performance belied his layoff. He kept the Wings under control throughout the game and pitched perfect ball in five of the nine innings. Kline didn't pass a batter and permitted but one Bird to get to third base.

The Leafs, defeated in four previous games by the Royals, hung up their first victory over their Canadian rivals with a smashing attack. They splattered fourteen hits over the Toronto landscape, including three doubles and a triple.

HARRY COOPER FAVORED FOR U.S. OPEN TITLE

Teledo, O., June 4.—Who will win the United States open golf championship at Oakland Hills, Birmingham, Mich., next week?

The boys who should know—the top-notch golfing brigade of sixteen professionals now entangled in the third Inverness international meet—say it will be Harry "Big Boy" Cooper, second to Tony Manero at Baltusrol last year or Henry Picard, the tall lad from Hershey, Pa.

The sixteen professionals made their selections today, each picking his three favorites. Cooper was on twelve of the sixteen lists and Picard on ten. Manero didn't get even one of the forty-eight votes.

Five of Cooper's ballots were first placers, five were seconds and two were thirds. Picard got seven first places, two seconds and a third.

Leafs sold to Montreal two days ago, was nominated by Rabbit Maranville to start against his former teammates. He lasted just one inning; Hod Lisenbee, who relieved him with the sacks full in the second, was greeted by a base-clearing three-bagger off the bat of Frank Madureira.

Joe Mulligan, ex-Holy Cross athlete, limited the Royals to seven hits, striking out eleven batters for his fourth triumph of the year. The Jersey City-Baltimore game was rained out. Newark and Syracuse were not scheduled.

'DIZZY' DEAN AND FRICK STILL AT SWORDS POINT

Standing Pat on His Refusal to Sign an Apology, Cardinals' Ace Hurler Threatens to Carry Case to Commissioner Landis and Possibly to Courts.

New York, June 4.—"Old Diz" and Ford Frick were still at swords point today with the St. Louis Cardinals' ace right-hander threatening all kinds of action against the National League in general and its youthful president in particular.

Standing pat on his refusal to sign an apology for a series of alleged statements against Frick, Umpire George Barr and the League's Jerome Herman declared he would carry his case to Commissioner K.M. Landis and then, if necessary, "sue Frick and the National League for plenty—at least $250,000—for depriving me of my job."

Mearwhile the heads of the other clubs in the League refused to be drawn into the controversy. For the most part they declined to comment on the deadlock with their president and one of the circuit's leading hurlers.

Outside of appealing to Landis for hearing, after a ten-day interval, Dean had only one other recourse. That was to change his mind and sign a formal disavowal of his alleged statements, which included, among other things, the calling of Frick and Barr "the big, fat crooks in the National League."

The St. Louis president, who was in Belleville, Ill., on May 25th, refused to do yesterday after a two-hour conference with Frick, manager Frankie Frisch, of the Cards, and the club's secretary, Clarence Lloyd. During the conference Sam Brandon, the St. Louis president, was reached by telephone, twice urged Dean to sign, but "Dizzy" remained adamant.

"The next move is up to Dean," said Frick. "This whole thing could have been quickly and satisfactorily cleared up if Dean had signed the last statement submitted to him. I feel I went more than halfway in an effort to find a solution. His club feels likewise."

The last statement, referred to by the League president, lacked much of the sting incorporated in the first apology presented Dean on Wednesday before the Cards took the field against the Dodgers. It dealt only with two items.

One concerned incidents connected with "Dizzy's" extemporaneous speech at Belleville and the other with the calling of a balk on the pitcher by Umpire Barr in the game that Dean and the Cards lost to the Giants on May 19th.

At Belleville, Murray H. Parres, reporter for the Daily Advocate, stuck by his story that Dean called Frick and Barr the two biggest crooks in baseball and also referred to the League president as "Our great little president—but a pain in the neck to me."

YESTERDAY'S STARS

Outstanding players in yesterday's major league games were:

Lea Fette and Walt Berger, Bees; Former blanked the Pirates with seven hits as Berger hit two homers, driving in four runs in six to nothing win.

Billy Sullivan, Indians: His pinch-single with the bases loaded drove in two runs in six to two win over the Yankees.

Vernon Kennedy, White Sox: Held the Red Sox to six hits and fanned seven for eleven to four victory.

Buddy Myer, Senators: Drove in two runs in five to four victory over the Tigers.

SPORTS FLASHES

New York, June 4.—Time of game two hours, winning pitcher, Dean; losing pitcher, Frick. . . . Wow! What with the Dean hearing, the Schmeling thing and the heat wave almost everybody here is whipped down. The Dean show drew the most newspapermen, but Schmeling and the phantom had the mounted cops. Your agent went to the Madison Square Garden bowl in the rain at 8:30 last night, but couldn't stir up even a phantom. The big joint was just as deserted as it was night before last.

Maybe he was kidding, but Bill Terry is quoted here as saying "Dizzy" Dean will be his first choice for the National League-all-star team. That is, if Diz is out of the doghouse by that time.

Col. E. R. Bradley's Brooklyn may raise Cain with War Admiral and Pompoon in the Belmont Stakes tomorrow, and don't say we didn't warn you.

Max Schmeling positively will not see Braddock and Louis in Chicago. Max expects to watch his next fight in the courts.

The golf exploits of Tony Manero, Denny Shute and Harold "Jug" McSpaden are giving Boston gallerists something to cheer about. All three pro in the Hub district.

Don Budize, U.S. number one Dav's Cup hope, likes tennis, basketball and popular music in that order. He totes a portable phonograph and a trunk filled with swing records all around the country.

Whoever could Max Machon (Max Schmeling's trainer) been talking about when he yelled to reporters: "Commission or no, one man controls boxing in this town and you know who he is." We'll bite, Butch.

What a liberal guy Jack Doyle is, quoting such fellows as Henry Picard, Harry Cooper and Ralph Guldahl at ten to one in the open. If Jack doesn't watch out he'll wind up on the Supreme Court bench.

MAX SCHMELING GIVEN GO-BY BY JIM BRADDOCK

Champion Fined $1,000 and Suspended by New York Boxing Commission, but Word from Chicago Is that Suspension Will Not Be Recognized.

New York, June 4.—Stalemated by destiny, in the form of a minor contract error, Max Schmeling was just another heavyweight looking for a fight today, when, had the fates been kind, he might have been the newly-crowned champion of the world.

Rain, and nothing else, filled the Madison Square Garden bowl last night. A few hours before Jim Braddock, who under the terms of the contract was to fight Schmeling there, had been suspended indefinitely. He had also been fined $1,000 for not putting in an appearance at the New York Boxing Commission offices to weigh in for the bout by the Commission.

Schmeling, browned and hard after training at Speculator, N.Y., was on hand, a somewhat pathetic figure.

John J. Phelan, Commission chairman, after handing down the decision which not only suspended and fined Braddock but did the same to his manager, Joe Gould, took a crack at the Chicago bout between Braddock and Louis. Phelan said he was advising boxing commissions with which New York is affiliated that any boxer who meets Braddock before the champ fights Schmeling will be suspended.

From Chicago came word the suspension of Braddock would not be recognized and that the Commission's case would not interfere with the Comiskey Park bout scheduled for June 22.

CLAIMS U.S. SPORTS RUN BY GANGSTER METHODS

Berlin, June 4.—Max Schmeling now believes sports in the United States are run by "gangster methods," according to an interview published here today.

The contender, for the heavyweight boxing title, who had a contract to fight Jim Braddock, the champion, at Madison Square Garden last night, expressed irritation over the suspension of the New York Boxing Commission merely suspended and fined Braddock for refusing to meet Schmeling as scheduled.

Schmeling criticized the American press, which he said was ignoring his "rights."

"It is up to the sporting authorities of Europe," said the disgruntled contender. "They will have to prove that they know how to protect Europeans against the gangster policies practiced in American sports."

Dr. Metzner, head of the German Boxing Association, said that the violation of the Braddock-Schmeling contract "signifies the end of the sporting idea."

NO MORE REAL CONTENDERS FOR LEWIS' CROWN

St. Louis, June 4.—John Henry Lewis, a champion who has outclassed his class, today cast a speculative eye over the heavyweight field, where a good lawyer is the best sparring partner and a right in the court the most punishing blow.

The Phoenix phantom practically exhausted the raw material in the light-heavy division last night when he stopped Bob Olin in the eighth round of a scheduled fifteen round title bout.

For again demonstrating he is the best at his weight, Lewis received $15,000 of a $23,572 gross gate. Olin, from whom Lewis won the crown in 1935, received twelve and a half per cent, and a cracked rib.

The cracked rib was the result of a crushing right in the fourth round which sent Olin down for a seven count. He went down again early in the eighth, and on the third down Referee Walter Heisner decided it was time to punt. He rushed over to the nonchalant Lewis and raised his hand in token of victory, by technical knockout.

EDMONTON GRADS HOLD BIG MARGIN OVER CHALLENGERS

Edmonton, June 4.—Rookie Jean Williamson offset poor shooting of veterans with a great display of firing to give the Edmonton Grads a thirty-eight to twenty-nine victory over the Tulsa Stenos here last night in the second game of a best of five basketball series for the Underwood Women's Challenge Trophy. She netted twelve points.

The Grads won the first game by thirty-one to twenty-three. The third encounter will be played tomorrow.

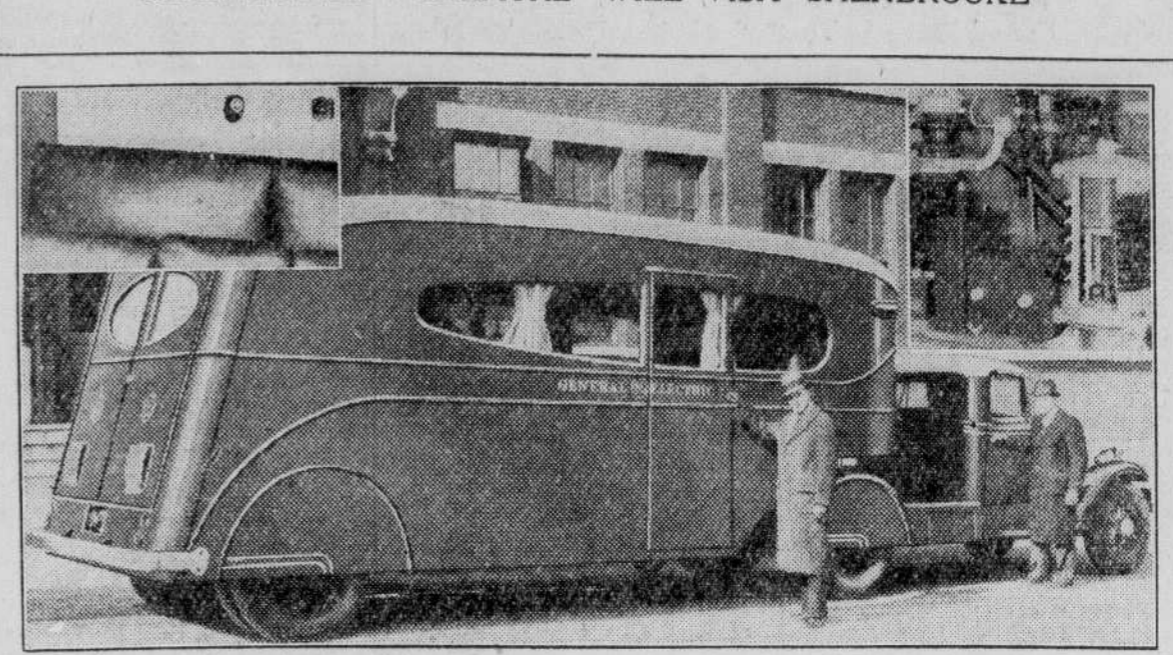

LEADING THREE YEAR OLDS RENEW RIVALRY TOMORROW

New York, June 4.—Samuel Riddle's War Admiral and J. H. Louchheim's Pompoon, the outstanding three year olds of the year, renew their rivalry tomorrow in the sixty-ninth running of the $50,000 Belmont Stakes at Belmont Park.

The names of at least four and possibly five other colts were expected to be dropped in the entry box today. There was little to indicate, however, that the final event in America's "triple crown" will not be just another two-horse affair—just as in the Derby when the Admiral beat Pompoon by two lengths and in the Preakness when the result was the same but the margin of difference only a head.

"STREAMLINED" THEATRE WILL VISIT SHERBROOKE

Illustrated above is the Canadian General Electric Exhibit of Distribution Equipment, a miniature theatre on wheels, that will be in this city on Saturday, Sunday and Monday and in Lennoxville the following day.

The trailer alone is twenty-four feet long, with a maximum height of nine feet six inches. Insets show a section of the seating accommodation and electrical equipment inside the completely-equipped coach where lectures and demonstrations are given. Motion picture and film slide projectors are under push-button control of the lecturer.

During the course of the 4,000-mile trip of this attractive trailer-tractor combination, demonstrations are being given before representatives of electric utilities and power companies in approximately thirty cities in Quebec and Ontario. The purpose of these demonstrations is to show that during the past five years of low production, development in distribution equipment accelerated.

MAYBE HITLER SHOULD LAUNCH ANOTHER PROTEST

Chicago, June 4.—There is no "Aryan Race," the University of Chicago anthropologist, Dr. Day Cooper Cole, contended today.

And, he held, there is no "Jewish race" either.

"Race is purely a biological differentiation which means a group of people who have certain physical characteristics in common, so definite that they mark this group off from all other groups of mankind," he told an alumni gathering in stressing the discrepancy in the use of the term by scientists on one side and propagandists on the other.
