

To A CANADIAN MELODY.

The prow is cutting its eager way,
And the oar is lost in the silvery spray;
And the sun-tint'd woods, on either side,
Gleam Emerald Isles in the glassy tide.

And see! from the boat the sparkling foam
All swelling, as anxious to bear us home;
Home be the word—a Voyager's boon—
His soul-felt thought in night's calm noon.

St. Clare, we've track'd thy Lake's wide bounds,
And heard thy wider echoed sounds,
Where e'en the dash'd spray of the measur'd oar,
Reverberates sweet o'er each water'd shore.

And how the wild swan loves to live
Her breast in thy cerulean wave;
T'would seem each heaving billow brim,
Woo'd to kiss her plumage trim.

Sweet scenes—yet, oh! where'er we roam,
Through summer glade or ocean foam,
The spirit, like the magnet's found
To point to hallow'd native ground.

VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE.

THE Undersigned Curator to the vacant Estate of the late Doctor COCHRAN, will receive proposals till the 24th of April next, for the purchase of the Farm at Cap Rouge, belonging to the Estate. This farm is only between four and five miles from town, and contains two hundred arpents and upwards in superficie, on a front of six upon the River St. Lawrence, which forms a most spacious and convenient Cove for Lumber, as well as for loading thereat, the Cap Rouge Grey Stone, of which there are some excellent quarries, well opened, close to the water's edge. There are on the premises a handsome Dwelling House, Dairy and Farm House, large Barn, Stables, and other offices, all newly finished in the best stile; with an abundance of the best fire wood and building timber, also a plentiful supply of soft spring water, that is conveyed to the several buildings by pipes, and may be to the garden, from the reservoir close in its rear; the garden is spacious and well fenced, and produces an abundance of fruit and all sorts of vegetables, which were sufficient for the use of a numerous family, and afforded a large supply for the Quebec market. The farm is in the highest state of cultivation, and its proximity to Quebec renders it an eligible residence for either a gentleman or a farmer. There is an excellent carriage road from the house to the beach, through the grounds, by which manure may be drawn from boats from town, as well as stone, plank, boards, &c. &c. Easy terms of payment, with a warranted title, will be given.

The premises may be viewed by application to the Farmer thereon.

THOS. STOTT.
Quebec, 18th Jany. 1820.

AND

At Auction, by the under-signed, at the UNION HOTEL, on THURSDAY the 23rd. of March next.

THE remainder of the moveable effects belonging to the above-mentioned Estate; amongst which is a valuable Library, consisting of several excellent works, and in particular some of the first rate, or Medical Standard, such as Pott's, Monro's, Bell's, Bloomfield's, Bailey's, &c. &c. and Agricultural Treatises of eminence.—There are several capital cases of Surgical Instruments and a variety of the best Medicines, well worth the attention of town and country Practitioners. A Catalogue of the Books, and a List of the Medicines and other things, may be had at Mr. Carv's Printing Office. Also a large and superb cherry tree Book-case, glazed; Carpets, Looking Glasses, an elegant four-post Bedstead and rich furniture complete, with Feather Bed, Mattress and Bolster; a valuable alarm Time Piece, set in mahogany; Plate, Glass and Earthenware, and various other articles.
