QUEBEC, SATURDAY, AUGUST 8, 1891

HERE AND THERE.

We print to-day, the details of another Whitechapel horror. Jack the Ripper is evidently abroad again, and his victim, this time seventy years of age, belongs to that class of London unfortunates, which have so often proved the prey of this brutal asassin. It seems a marvellous thing that the Metropolitan police are powerless, and that the perpetrator of the Whitechapel murders cannot be apprehended. The only murder of the kind, on this continent, was committed a few weeks ago, in New York, and in the course of a very few days, the butcher was behind the bolts and bars of a jail. He is now undergoing a life sentence in Sing Sing. It does not speak well for the ability and intelligence of the Scottish Yard Detectives, that Jack the Ripper should still be loose. Not long ago, he sent a letter to the police, announcing a fresh crime that he had in view. We believe, on the strength of that communication, extra precautions were, at once, ordered. The villain, however, continues to remain at large.

The Quebec Board of Trade, we hear, is not altogether satisfied with one feature of the resolutions which Mr. MACKENZIE

BOWELL has brought down to the House of Commons, re the cancellation of the Canadian Pacific Railway bonds. The Board thinks that the "rolling stock" clause ought not to find a place in the measure.

The expenditure it asks for, it thinks, should be made entirely on fixed improvements, such as elevators, &c. We hear that the Board of Trade, intends immediately communicating its views, in this respect, to the Government, with the hope of getting the clause altered.

Are we to witness a repetition of the stupid tactics pursued last March in Argentine, when OWENS resigned his seat in the Legislature, and against the wishes of the Conservative party, imposed himself on the electors, and ran for the House of Commons. Pomposity and vanity lost us the seat, and Mr. OWENS has rightly been relegated to obscurity. But now we are face to face with another bit of foolishness.

Mr. W. J. STANFORD has been chosen to run for the Legislature at a recent convention of the party. He has no sooner begun his canvass, when Mr. CONWAY, of Stone-field, steps upon the scene, and announces that, on election day, he, too, will carry the cause of good Government, for Mr.

MACKENZIE will very easily push in a candidate, and elect him. There seems to be a good deal of local jealousy in Argenteuil, and of it, the Liberal leader makes a good bit of capital.

The Toronto Mail says:—"The vagaries of Customs authorities are a never ending source of annoyance to those who suffer by Dominion Parliament.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

OTTAWA, Aug. 7.—In the House this afternoon, the Speaker took the chair at three o'clock.

Sir Hector Langevin moved that Government orders be passed on Mondays directing the attention of the House to the motion passing, provided private members have from three o'clock till six every Monday, a set question.

On that understanding the motion passed.

The report of the Committee of the Whole on the resolution passed authorizing the Government to sell to the city of St. John for the sum of $40,000 the Carleton branch way, was read a third time and the bill passed on the resolution read a first time.

The report of the Committee of the Whole on the resolution respecting the granting of homesteads or scrip in certain cases to members of the enrolled militia force and others engaged in the suppression of the Indian half-breed outbreak in 1885 was passed.

The bill to further amend the Indian Revenue Act was passed through Committee and read a third time.

The bill to amend the Act relating to an Act respecting the Supreme and Exchequer Courts was read a second time.

The bill to further amend the Indian Act was read a second time.

The bill to amend the Act to encourage the development of the sea fisheries, and the building of fishing vessels, was read a second time.

It being six o'clock, the Speaker left the chair.

AFTER RECESS.

The House went into Committee on the Act respecting the inspection of ships. The bill gives all harbour masters in Canada the power to inspect seagoing vessels, and if found unseaworthy to detain them to make necessary repairs.

Objection was taken by Maritime members to this provision of the bill applying to sea-going vessels. The provisions of the Maritime Shipping Act, made it necessary for all seagoing vessels to be inspected every two years by Lloyd's Inspector.

The bill was finally read a second time.

The House adjourned at 10.30 o'clock.

THE SENATE.

OTTAWA, August 7.—A lively scene occurred in the Senate this afternoon over the report from the Railway Committee respecting the Baie des Chaleurs Railway Bill. Considerable feeling was displayed on both sides.

The report stated that Mr. C. N. Armstrong, contractor, had failed to observe the summons to attend the Committee and asked the Senate to issue an order for his appearance before the Committee on Monday.

Hon. Mr. Tasse moved the adoption of the report.

Hon. Mr. Scott, leader of the Opposition, objected. He said the proceeding was a violent one, and as the name of the bill had not been mentioned in the summons, Mr. Armstrong had a perfect right not to attend.

Mr. Scott thought there should be full freedom of discussion.

Hon. Messrs. Miller and Ross contended that the Senate had no right to consider the scope of the discussion in the Committee.

Hon. gentlemen should confine their remarks to the report.

Speaker Lacoste ruled that the point of order was well taken.

dian precedents were in favor of allowing a private bill to be withdrawn if asked.

Hon. Mr. Miller would agree with the hon.

gentleman if he could find a single precedent in which a bill similar to this one, where strong suspicion existed that large sums of public money had been used for improper purposes and an application to withdraw was made to him.

There had been certain monies sent apart to pay debts and these monies had been misused. If these allegations were not investigated there, they would be in the hon.

House, which seemed to have entirely given up to investigating scandals. He moved that they hear Mr. Cockburn.

Hon. Mr. Tasse moved in amendment that they go on hearing evidence.

Hon. Mr. Power was there to report that the whole object of the Committee was to endeavor to show that there were scandals on both sides.

They had no right to investigate into the alleged misuse of money, as it was not pretended
