

GENERAL SIR ARTHUR CURRIE ARRIVES TODAY

SHERBROOKE WELCOMES THE GREAT CANADIAN SOLDIER HERE TODAY

General Sir Arthur Currie, Commander-in-Chief of Canadian Forces in the Field, was Met at the C.P.R. Station Shortly After Noon Today by a Distinguished Military and Civilian Representation—Was Guest of Exhibition Association at Luncheon, which was Followed by Inspection of Troops—City on Fete for Entertainment of Distinguished Visitor.

WITH the entire city out on fete to honor his arrival, Lieut.-General Sir Arthur Currie, K.C.B., G.C.B., C.M.G., Commander-in-Chief of the Canadian Armies in the field during the Great War, set foot in Sherbrooke a few minutes after noon today, and amid cheers and waving of flags, led a parade of veterans through Sherbrooke streets, out to the grounds of the Great Eastern Exhibition, where he is the guest of honor today.

General Currie's party, including General Sir Frederick Loomis, K.C.M.; General D. C. Draper, C.M.G., D.S.O.; General Smart, General MacDonald, and a number of other officers, was met at the C.P.R. station by Mayor Charles D. White, K.C., Mr. E. Winn Farwell, President of the Exhibition Association, and a large delegation from the Great War Veterans' Association. Mayor White delivered an address, on behalf of the city, welcoming the distinguished visitor to Sherbrooke and touching on the immortal work of the Canadian lads overseas, when they were led by General Currie.

Following the reception at the station, the party, escorted by the G.W.V.A., marched towards the Exhibition Grounds, by way of Queen Street, Melbourne, Dufferin Avenue and King Street, and General Currie, with the other officers was entertained at luncheon by the directors and officials of the Exhibition. A number of addresses were made and responded to, and the luncheon was followed by a general inspection of the war veterans in front of the grand stand, the great soldier taking the salute as the ranks marched by.

This afternoon, General Currie is on a tour of the city and surrounding district, and is paying a visit to Lennoxville, to see the new school there. Throughout the day he is the guest of the Exhibition authorities.

VARIOUS EXHIBITS ON VIEW IN FULL FORCE AS GREAT EASTERN EXHIBITION IS THROWN OPEN

Although the attendance at the Great Eastern Exhibition during yesterday was not unusually large, the fair nevertheless sprung into full being, and all the exhibits were running in full force. At the Grand Stand, the trotting races and the other attractions in the great open-air theatre were witnessed by a large audience which filled the lower section of the grand stand. In the various buildings, a steady stream of lookers-on passed through, or stopped to inspect the exhibits. The War Trophies proved of especial interest, housed in the Machinery Building, while the Flower Exhibit in the Art Building, while not yet fully prepared, was yet one of the most complete that has ever been seen.

Honors, however, go to the dairy exhibit as being the most exhaustive and detailed ever seen either here or at other fairs. One hundred and fifty exhibits, clearly arranged and easily comprehensible, are on display, which number is not only larger than for any other exhibition here, but also larger than those of either the Toronto or Ottawa fairs.

In the Main Building, the various Dominion and local firms have arranged their exhibits along the passage ways, and the interior presents a gay appearance, with pianos, automobiles, groceries, flags and almost every other article imaginable, mixed in complete, though orderly, pandemonium.

The Midway, of course, furnished the usual amusement for those who cherish a taste for this type of entertainment. Various circus freaks, reminiscent of the days when Barnum and Bailey were at the height of their power, were acclimated from great canvas signs, and by the steady talk of the bally-hoo men. Games of skill and of chance alternated with various sorts of "rides," including the unavoidable "merry-go-round," the "ferris-wheel," and all the other kinds of entertainment dear to the hearts of the younger generation, and apparently just as dear to many of their elders.

THE WAR TROPHIES.

An entirely new feature, and one which takes its place as being one of, if not the most interesting exhibit of all those at this year's fair, is that of the War Trophies, in charge of Lieut. Norman Fee, M. C., assistant in the Department of Archives, who has succeeded in bringing from Ottawa an assortment of captured German guns and other equipment, as well as Allied war material, the like of which has never been seen assembled in this section of the country.

The collection is contained in the Machinery Building, with entrance off the Main Building, and the exhibit is watched over by several returned men, well versed in the knowledge of the names and uses of the articles on exhibition. As one enters the building, one is immediately struck by the orderly manner in which the trophies have been arranged, so as to enable the onlooker to see and understand each article. The place of honor, as regards size, is accorded to the captured German aeroplane, brought down by a Canadian airman, which spreads its great wings over a large section of floor space. Broken by the battle which led to its destruction, the plane is yet in sufficiently good condition to give a clear idea of the type of machine used by the Boche.

Along the sides of the walls are various types of German guns, a 5.9 howitzer, several 77 millimetre high power and field guns, and machine guns of various kinds. The walls are hung with war posters and pictures, which alone provide an exhibit of great interest. The recruiting posters—Canadian, British, American, French and Italian, are arranged in orderly sections, so as to enable the looker-on to immediately classify the posters, which are not only remarkable for the actual sentiment, but also for their artistic value, many of (Continued on page 12.)

Serbs Are Reinforcing Their Troops At Banat Because The Rumanians Are Concentrating

Member of Serbian Delegation Says They Made Such a Move Because Rumanians Have Called Up Troops at Other Side of Banat, Causing Great Agitation Among the Population of a Considerable Part of the Territory—Former Premier Says Talk of Mobilization is Exaggerated.

(Associated Press Despatch) PARIS, August 26.—A report received in Paris says that the Serbians are mobilizing their forces in Banat and Tamasvar. Former Premier Pachitch, and head of the Serbian delegation, says that the Serbs are reinforcing their troops on their side line through Banat, established by the Supreme Council, because the Rumanians are concentrating on the other side causing great agitation among the population of a considerable part of the territory, which is preponderantly Serbian for the area attributed to Rumania. The talk of mobilization, however, M. Pachitch declares, is exaggerated.

SERBIA MUST DEFEND HER JUST DEMANDS

BELGRADE, August 26.—Announcing in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday the Government's policy, Premier Davidovitch, said, among other things, that "Serbia in the impending reorganization of the Balkans would not seek special privileges, but would base her claims upon the principles of international justice. "Serbia, nevertheless, must defend to the utmost her just demands. When peace is concluded, Serbia should pursue a policy of reciprocal confidence with her neighbors, and cultivate intimate friendships. Czechoslovakia and Poland seek good relations with us, as do Greece and

DISCUSSED TREATY WITH AUSTRIA

(Associated Press Despatch) PARIS, August 26.—Discussion of the Austrian peace treaty was continued by the Supreme Council of the Peace Conference at a meeting held this morning. The response to the Austrians to be made by the Allied Powers had been lengthily discussed at yesterday's session of the Council, which, however, did not complete the text of the reply at that session, planning to take it up again today.

CANADIAN 'ACE' ARRIVED TODAY AT MINEOLA

MINEOLA, N. Y., August 26.—Colonel William C. Barker, the Canadian "Ace," arrived here from Albany at 9.30 o'clock this morning, completing the first half of the International air race from Toronto to New York and return. His machine, a captured German Fokker model, carried a bag of Canadian mail, which was immediately transferred to another airplane waiting on the field and rushed off to Washington. Five airplanes, which were unable to start from the local field yesterday for various reasons, got away just before Colonel Barker arrived. The first aviator to leave was Lieut. Philip Melville, piloting a Caproni plane, who took off at 8.50 o'clock. He was followed at short intervals by Lieut. Rowlett, Lieut. F. Honsinger, Captain C. H. Reynolds, and Lieut. Ross Kirkpatrick, all piloting De Havilland four machines.

THE WEATHER

PARTLY FAIR AND COOL. The barometer continues high to the westward of the Great Lakes and low over the St. Lawrence Valley and Atlantic coast. Showers have occurred in many parts of Ontario, Quebec and the Maritime Provinces, and in a few localities in the West. Fresh to strong westerly winds, partly fair and cool today and on Wednesday; showers in some localities.

DISTINGUISHED SOLDIER WHO IS GUEST OF SHERBROOKE EXHIBITION AUTHORITIES

GENERAL SIR ARTHUR CURRIE, COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THE CANADIAN FORCES OVERSEAS

President Wilson Will Make No Move Re Wage Demands Until Normal Conditions Restored

President States that it is Neither Wise Nor Possible at this Time, when Most Important Question Before the Country is a Return to a Normal Price Level, to Attempt to Increase Freight Rates to Provide Funds for Higher Wages.

(Associated Press Despatch)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Postponement of the settlement of wage demands until normal economic conditions are restored was announced yesterday by President Wilson as the policy which the administration will pursue in dealing with such questions, particularly those affecting railroad workers.

The President also announced that it was neither wise nor feasible at this time, when the most important question before the country is a return to a normal price level, to attempt to increase freight rates to provide funds for higher wages. "We ought to postpone questions of this sort until we have opportunity for certain calculation as to the relation between wages and the cost of living."

The President declared in a statement to the public explaining his decision as to wages, "It is the duty of every citizen to insist upon a truce in such contests until intelligent demands can be made, and made by peace and effective common counsel. I appeal to my fellow citizens of every employment to co-operate in insisting upon and maintaining such a truce."

Mr. Wilson's statement was issued in connection with the decision of himself and Director General Hines on demands by railroad shopmen for a twenty-five per cent advance in wages, but the general policy announced, covers also the wage demands of other hundreds of thousands of railway workers which are pending before the Director General or about to be presented. In reply to their demands for a twenty-five per cent increase, the shopmen were asked to accept an adjustment of their pay to the basis of ten hours pay for eight hours work, which they contended was given other employees and denied them when the Adams Law became effective. This means an advance of the basic pay from sixty-eight cents to seventy-two cents an hour.

CRISIS IN SITUATION OF RAILWAY SHOPMEN HERE

(Associated Press Despatch) MONTREAL, Aug. 26.—A crisis has come in the situation of the railway shopmen of Canada. The shopmen of the United States received President Wilson's offer last night, and they are now voting upon its rejection or acceptance. For years the railway authorities of the United States and Canada have worked together on practically the same basis with respect to wages and working conditions. However, in the pronouncement of the President of the United States, it is pointed out by some closely identified with the difficulty, that a Governmental policy is defined. It is not strictly a question of wages and working conditions, for the President says that further increases cannot be granted whilst an effort is being made to reduce prices, and that an increase in freight rates to raise the revenue sufficient to meet the wage demands of the men would be fatal to the effort to reduce prices. The Railway War Board of Canada, it has been pointed out, has not the power in dealing with the situation to announce a Governmental policy or action, and if Canadian shopmen are to be given the same treatment as the American shopmen, then some one in Governmental authority must add the stipulation as to the effort to reduce prices.

THE EARLIEST SNOW FALL ON RECORD

(Associated Press Despatch) HORNET, N. Y., August 26.—Although the sun was shining brightly, Hornet was treated to the odd sight of a snow storm in August this morning. Light snow fell for five minutes, melting as rapidly as it struck the ground. It is the earliest snowfall ever recorded in this section.

TWO KILLED AND MANY INJURED WHEN POLICE AND STRIKERS CLASHED

(Associated Press Despatch) CHARLOTTE, N. C., Aug. 26.—Two men were killed and ten injured, four of them probably fatally, in a battle between police guards and a mob of strike sympathizers at the car barns of the Southern Public Utilities Company soon after last midnight, when at least a hundred shots were fired. The guards had held the mob at bay for several hours, when the police allege a brother of Clem Wilson, who had been knocked down and taken to a hospital earlier in the night, fired at Chief of Police Orr. The shot missed. The guards fired a volley in return. Quiet was restored soon after the shooting.

BOLSHEVIK GOVERNMENT ADMITS THAT ALLIED FORCES HAVE NOW TAKEN POSSESSION OF ODESSA

The Occupation of Chief Russian Port on the Black Sea was Effected after Thirty Warships had Bombarded the City for Two Days—The Bolsheviks Retired in the Direction of Balta, 120 Miles Northwest of Odessa, According to the Statement Issued.

(Associated Press Despatch)

LONDON, Aug. 26.—Occupation at Odessa, chief Russian port on the Black Sea, by Allied forces, is admitted in a Bolshevik Government wireless message from Moscow received here today. The occupation was effected, the despatch states, after thirty vessels had bombarded the city for two days. On the Russian northwestern front, according to the Soviet statement, the Bolshevik troops are advancing in the region of Pskov, having progressed already to within three and one-half miles of that city.

Shortly after the Bolshevik message was received, confirmation was given in official quarters here of the occupation of Odessa. A Russian volunteer army, it was stated, had occupied the city. The Bolsheviks retired in the direction of Balta, 120 miles northwest of Odessa.

An announcement by the Ukrainian mission in London on Friday last stated that Ukrainian troops had captured Odessa, after severe fighting north of the city. Previous reports in the despatches to the British War Office, given out in London on August 18, reported that the Bolsheviks had been driven from Odessa by the populace.

THE REPORTED IMPENDING ATTEMPT TO WREST PETROGRAD FROM BOLSHEVISTS IS NOT LIKELY TO MATERIALIZE FOR SOME TIME AT LEAST

LONDON, Aug. 26.—The reported impending attempt to take Petrograd from Bolsheviks is not likely to materialize, according to the Daily Mail's Helsinki correspondent. Such an operation, he points out, must be by land, and the only available forces consist of Finns, Russians and Estonians. It is very doubtful, however, in the opinion of the correspondent, if Finland's help could be obtained since the Socialist victory in the Presidential election defeated General Mannerheim, who alone was capable of leading an expedition.

The Estonians are unwilling to advance unless the Allies formally recognize her independence, and anti-Bolshevik Russians are probably unable alone to take the capital before winter, notwithstanding supplies furnished by the Allies. Moreover, (Continued on Page 8)

THIRD DOSE RELIEF!
FIFTH DOSE!
DIARRHOEA STOPPED

Diarrhoea does not need to persist for any length of time until the whole system is weakened and debilitated. No other disease so quickly undermines the strength and brings about a condition of prostration and very often total collapse.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is not only prompt and effectual in checking the diarrhoea, but at the same time acts as a stimulant, strengthens the heart and braces up the whole system, and one of its principal points is that it does not leave the bowels in a constipated condition.

Mr. W. H. Arnold, Fort Qu'Appelle, Sask., writes: "A few years ago while out tramping, I had a severe attack of diarrhoea. Nothing I took seemed to do me any good. I was getting worse all the time. Hearing that Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry was good for diarrhoea, I went into town and procured a bottle. After the third dose I felt relief, and after I had taken the fifth dose the diarrhoea had stopped. I always keep it in the house, and I don't think I could do without it."

See that you get the original "Dr. Fowler's." It has been on the market for the past 74 years. Substitutes may endanger your health. Price, 35c. Put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Clear Your Scalp and Skin With Cuticura

"After shaving and before bathing touch and rub and if irritation, if any, with Cuticura Ointment. Wash it off with Cuticura Soap and hot water, using plenty of Soap best applied with the hands. One Soap for all uses, shaving, shampooing, bathing. Finally dust shaved parts with Cuticura Talcum. The Soap, Ointment and Talcum sold everywhere."

GIRLS! USE LEMONS FOR SUNBURN, TAN

Try it! Make this lemon lotion to whiten your tanned or freckled skin.

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion, and complexion whitener, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands and see how quickly the freckles, sunburn, windburn and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! it is harmless.

MANY CASES ARE U.S. STRIKES OUT HEARD BEFORE JUDGE MULVENA JAPAN'S TITLE RE SHANTUNG

Military Service Cases Form Long Roll in Courts Here and in Sweetsburg.

A large number of cases of various types were handled by District Magistrate Mulvena at Sweetsburg recently for the sitting of the court in this locality and heard a number, of which the majority were relative to the Military Service Act. About one hundred refracted or pretended conscripts appeared during the day.

The first case heard was that of Omer Manville, Constable of the C.P.R. at Farnham, against Frank Fadden, of Boston, for vagabondage. The prisoner pleaded guilty and was condemned to one dollar and expenses or eight days in prison, subject to deportation.

Another individual of the same sort, named Thomas O'Meara, who also states that he comes from Boston, pleaded not guilty on the same accusation brought by Constable Manville. The magistrate fixed his trial for August 28.

The cases against alleged defaulters, all taken by P. A. Bourassa, inspector of the provincial police, were then brought up. The following are the names of the conscripts who pleaded guilty, and were condemned to pay a fine of $250 and costs, or spend three months in prison: Jos. D. Guertin, Granby; Albert Paris, Rouxton; Jos. Roy, Canton de Granby; Josephat Guertin, Granby; Enclide Dalphee, Rouxton Falls; Rodolphe Cote, Rouxton East; Albert Cote, Rouxton; Adrien Archambault, Valcourt; Geo. Derome, Ely; Wilfrid Pilette, Bethel; O. Brunelle, Granby; Paul Dufresne, Bethel; Delphus Lamarche, Valcourt; Henri Paradis, Granby; Honorius Bedard, Granby; Philippe Bessette, Granby; Jos. Leduc, Granby.

In Sherbrooke the following cases were heard in the Magistrate's Court: P. A. Bissonnet et al against Robert Wetherell, of Tomifolia. The defender was accused of having driven an auto in Stanstead while under the influence of liquor. He pleaded guilty and was fined $100 and costs, and his auto license was confiscated.

P. A. Bissonnet et al against Henri Lafamme, of this city, for non-support. The accused pleaded not guilty of the consent of the parties and his sentence was suspended on condition that he would return to work and

The Senate Committee Voted to Amend the Peace Treaty Clause Regarding Shantung.

WASHINGTON, August 26.—After voting to amend the peace treaty by striking out Japan's title to the German rights in Shantung, the Senate Foreign Relations committee notified President Wilson that it could not intelligently proceed with its work on amendments until he furnished additional information.

The action on the Shantung provision was taken in short order, Chairman Lodge proposing the amendment and the committee adopting it virtually without debate. The vote was nine to eight, with all the Democratic members and Senator McCumber, Republican, North Dakota, voting in the negative. Then the point of inadequate information was raised by Republican members, Chairman Lodge declaring there were in the President's hands important documents which were absolutely essential to the determination of questions involved in the committee's work.

During its entire consideration of the treaty, the chairman said, the committee had been hampered by lack of information that should have been given it weeks ago.

give one-half of his salary per week for the support of his wife and children.

George W. Parks against Achille Robichaud, of Ste. Anne de Stukely, for not having reported for military service. The accused pleaded guilty, but Mr. Rioux produced an affidavit and some correspondence sent to the registrar, testifying that the accused could not get to the barracks owing to the fact that he was then under medical care. Sentence was suspended.

The Best Time to Have Your Eyes Examined

The best time to have your eyes examined is before you really need glasses. If people would learn to conserve their good eyesight by consulting an optometrist frequently, having their eyes examined and following the advice given, they would, in many cases, be able to put off the day when glasses should be worn. In any event, they would know when to start wearing glasses.

EAST FARNHAM

Mr. Joe Jones met with a bad accident on Wednesday afternoon when driving from Waterloo. The horse ran away throwing him out on the ground. Mr. Jones sustained a fracture of his arm, besides several cuts on the head. Mr. Pickel was called in to dress the wound. Mr. Cedric Douglas has been engaged as principle of the Cowansville Academy for the coming scholastic year. Miss McKinnon, of Inverness, has been engaged as teacher for the Protestant School here.

Social and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Webster have been spending the past two weeks on the Maine Coast.

Mrs. W. H. Wright, of Toronto, is the guest for a few days of her sister, Mrs. G. A. Berwick, Elgin Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wiggett and daughter, Dorothy, have returned from a holiday spent at Old Orchard.

Messrs A. A. Gunning, J. Fraser Armstrong and Thomas G. L. Cahoon left yesterday for Toronto and other points in Ontario.

Mr. Samuel Mills, of Lancaster, N. H., is the guest of his brother, Mr. John Mills, King Street, East.

Mrs. Douglas T. Taylor and her daughter, Miss Helen Taylor, of Chaudiere Falls, Que., arrived in town today, and are the guests of Mrs. J. F. Wilson, London Street, during the Exhibition.

Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Edgell, and young son, arrived in town from Montreal last week for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. S. Edgell, Melbourne Street. Mr. Edgell only remained for the week end, leaving Mrs. Edgell and son, for a longer stay.

The Rev. Graham Orchard, Principal of Trinity School, Port Hope, with Mrs. Orchard, are in town today the guests of the Misses Hunt, Prospect House, Melbourne Street, on their way home from St. Andrew's-by-the-Sea, N. B., where they have spent the vacation.

ABERCORN

Mr. T. W. Cowperthwaite, of East Angus, and Mr. and Mrs. F. Newell, of Kansas City, who were spending their holidays with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Ryan, at Waterloo, and others, gave the people of Abercorn a rare surprise on Monday last. Mr. J. J. Ryan was, as usual, the guiding spirit in proposing a motor trip with a concert following, given by the above-mentioned artists, and arranged with Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Fyles, collector of customs at Abercorn, to invite a number of guests at their residence in Abercorn, so as to enable everybody to have a chance of hearing two of the famous singers.

Mr. Cowperthwaite and Mr. Newell both possess voices of excellent merit, and the people of Abercorn are grateful to them both for the enjoyable afternoon; also Mr. and Mrs. Ryan for their favor and generous company of friends, which will be remembered by many of the invited guests.

EXPLAINED.

They are mighty proud of their one skyscraper up in Seattle.

It is a long, skinny building that stands on one leg like a stork and blinks down disdainfully from its thousand windows on ordinary fifteen-story shacks.

A San Francisco man, recently in that city, was incautious enough to express surprise.

"What are those posts sticking out all the way up?" he asked a Seattleite.

"Those are mile posts," said the Seattle man.

Messrs Wilbur McCurdy, Lester Parnell and Myrton Parker, left on Tuesday for a trip to the Canadian West.

Miss Anna Bayne, from Barbadoes, arrived in town last week, and will spend some time with her brother, Dr. Bayne, and Mrs. Bayne, Portland Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bradley, Frontenac Street, have returned home from a five months' stay in California, and Mr. Bradley is much improved in health by the rest and change. During their stay in the Golden State, they spent some time at Los Angeles, Long Beach, San Raphael, Oakland of course San Francisco, and other famous places, and then came up the coast to Vancouver and the Pacific Coast cities on the return trip across the continent, amongst the places visited was the beautiful Okanagan Valley and Kelowna noted for its magnificent apples and cherries, then at their best, Lake Louise, Banff and Winnipeg. From the latter city the travellers went to St. Paul, and Minneapolis, Minn., and thence to Canada and home by way of Niagara Falls, Toronto and Montreal. Mr. and Mrs. Bradley visited relatives at various points and also met old Sherbrooke friends, notably Mr. and Mrs. David Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Bean, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Andrews and others.

REVERSE ENGLISH.
General Pershing was astonished to receive last month from a New York vaudeville manager a five-figure offer to deliver short daily war talks in the vaudeville houses throughout America.

The general did not reply to this telegram, and a fortnight went by. Then the vaudeville man wired again. "Have you entertained my proposition?"

"No," General Pershing wired back. "Your proposition has entertained me."

Save From 15% to 50% by Selecting Your Furs NOW

The unprecedented vogue for furs has sent prices soaring, the demand now greatly exceeding the supply.

Months ago, in selecting the rich fur pieces offered in this important sale, we knew prices would be sure to advance, but no one realized that costs would reach their present high level.

If you contemplate the purchase of a fur coat, scarf or muff, this is your opportunity!

Prices are not only from 15% to 50% below today's market value, but the quality of the furs will be difficult to duplicate for some time to come.

VISIT OUR EXHIBITS AT THE SHERBROOKE EXHIBITION

ALL people coming to the Exhibition grounds should seize the opportunity to make a good inspection of our various exhibits. Beside the great interest they arouse it would be very interesting to pay a visit to our store, 195 Wellington Street, where the warmest reception is assured to all visitors. We feel sure that you will realize that P. T. Legare, Ltd. is always ahead when its customers interests are concerned.

The Favorite Plow With Good Farmers

The Legare Sulky Plow is eminently satisfactory, successful and a leader with Canadian farmers. It is the genuine light draft Sulky Plow, the easiest on the horses—the plow that has proved to be the most efficient in field work. Look over our different models.

SHORTAGE OF CARS IS HOLDING BACK CASE.
(Associated Press Despatch.)
WASHINGTON, August 26.
—Shortage of railroad cars in the eastern coal fields is worse than last year, and is responsible for curtailment in coal production of between thirty and fifty percent, according to a letter from Director Smith, of the geological survey, which was read in the Senate yesterday by Senator Pomerene, of Ohio.

2.27 Trot—Stake $5000.
FRIDAY.
Free-for-All—Stake $500.
Contests which were scheduled. The 2.35 pace and the 2.35 trot both furnished sensations, although the winners of first money in both events rather walked away from the rest of the field.

A large crowd witnessed the race and much enthusiasm was evidenced as interest grew in the result of the finals. In the 2.35 pace American harvester (Chilton), owned by the Newport Stock Farm, of Newport, Vt., took first in the three last heats after running second in the first, and carried off the $500 purse. The best time, however, was in the first heat, when Asbestos Boy (McCabe), a Richmond, Que., horse, who took third money, ran the distance in 2.17 1-4.

In the 2.35 trot event, L. T. F. (Robillard), owned by E. Bissonette, of Montreal, took first honors taking premier place in the last three heats and fourth in the first. The best time made in this event was the same as that of its predecessor, 2.17 1-4.

Following are the results:
2.35 Pace, Purse of $500.
Joe Kelly (McMahon) Sherbrooke ... 3 2 5 4-4
2.30 Trot—Stake $500.
2.24 Pace—Stake $500.

MANY SPEEDING CASES IN THE COURT TODAY

Judge Mulvena Has Long Roll of Cases in Magistrate's Court.

Motor cases were the order of the day in the Magistrate's Court before Judge Mulvena today, a large number of fines being dealt out to motorists who pleaded guilty to charges of exceeding the speed limit. Herminas Fréchette, of Sherbrooke, pleaded guilty to a charge laid by Bissonnet & Oughtred, collectors of provincial revenue, for driving a car while under the influence of liquor, and was fined $100 and costs or three months, while his license will be cancelled.

Richard Gagne, Sherbrooke; Joseph Gilmour, Coaticook; A. T. Hawkins, Sherbrooke; F. H. Bean, Waterville; Alphonse Gauthier, Montreal; R. B. Spear, Sherbrooke; F. H. Sutton, Barnston; C. F. Jenkins, Tomifobia; Joseph Heneault, Lorne, and W. E. Loomis, Sherbrooke, each pleaded guilty to charges of speeding and were each fined $10 and costs.

Joseph McManus, a juvenile, was sent to the Montreal Reformatory School for two years for general insubordination and incorrigibility.

In Thorndale Mines yesterday, Armeno Bernard was fined $50 and costs for selling liquor without a license, while three other cases were adjourned until September 8th.

RAND DOWNED WINDSOR.
WINDSOR, QUE., Aug. 26.—Ragged support behind Drysdale enabled the Rand of Sherbrooke to defeat the locals by a score of 16 to 7 in an E. T. League fixture played here Saturday. Windsor were leading at the end of the fifth inning but the visiting team took advantage of the local's misplays and in the next two innings put over twelve runs. Perron pitched a strong game and was given good support by his team mates.

The teams batted as follows:
Rand—Savage a.s., Butler 1.f., Perron c., Molyneux 1.b., E. Baker 2.b., McCabe r.f., B. Baker 3.b., Perron p., Robinson c.f.

BRILLIANT PADEREWSKI.

His Hopes For the Future of His Beloved Poland.A very jealous German pianist once remarked, after a friend had said something about Paderewski's versatility and wide knowledge:
"Yes, he knows everything—except music!"It is music, alas, that knows him no more, though there may be hope for the future. For the present his ardent patriotism has overcome his devotion to the divine art. He is in the midst of the terrible Polish and Bohemian massacres, and how can those who know his intense artistic temperament fear a breakdown when they read in the cable despatches of the nervous strain to which he is subjected; as at Warsaw, when shots were fired at his window; and again:
"As he spoke, crowds outside the hotel windows were still cheering, singing the national anthem, and calling for him, although it was three o'clock in the morning and his wife was plaintively insisting that her husband take some rest, saying that he had been speaking continuously for twenty hours." It is the pace that kills.A well-known musical critic says of the Polish musician: "The friendship of Paderewski has been one of the things that have helped to atone for the awful boredom to which a musical critic, obliged to head the bad and mediocre, as well as the good, is inevitably subjected. For a quarter of a century I have known him intimately, and from year to year my admiration of his mind—quite apart from music—has grown. Talk with him on almost any subject you please and he knows more about it than you do—at least than I do.About American politics he knows more in a day than I do in a year,
and the same with European politics.
Ask him about Argentinean agriculture, or about Chinese ethnology, and again you will be surprised to find he knows all about it. The last time I had the pleasure of entertaining him at lunch in my home was more in a day than I do in a year,
and the same with European politics.
Ask him about Argentinean agriculture, or about Chinese ethnology,
and again you will be surprised to find he knows all about it. The last time I had the pleasure of entertaining him at lunch in my home wasFor two years the authorities at Washington protested by his exhaustive knowledge of Slavic conditions.
Then came the news that he and his party were on the way to Europe, travelling on a warship, with special passports issued by the British Ambassador at Washington, and making him, his wife, and two secretaries official guests of every Allied Government whose soil they touched. His plans for a Greater Poland of 40-500,000 souls alone can insure the future peace of Europe. It is doubtful if any other living Pole is so well qualified as Paderewski for the position of President of Poland. But, according to his own words, and the constant assurance of his stepson, Mr. Gorski, he has no political ambitions for himself, but only wishes to get back as soon as possible to his piano and his composer's desk.

Sea-Shell Windows.

As a substitute for glass, sea-shells are used to splendid advantage in the Philippines. The windows in the main entrance of the Philippine General Hospital, Manila, are probably as fine a modern example of the use of sea-shells as can be seen. The sea-shell windows may also be seen at their best in old churches. Manila alone uses about five million kapas shells each year for windows. The largest-sized shells are about three inches square. They cost about one pound a thousand, according to quality. The shells are translucent, and the light comes through them in a soft pearly-gray tone.—Family Herald.Costicook House, popular home for

FORD—MACKINNON.

KIMBERLEY, August 26.—(Special)—On Thursday last at the home of the bride's parents here, Mary Christine, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander MacKinnon was united in marriage to Mr. Joseph E. Ford, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ford, Jr., of Potchefstroom, Quebec. The wedding march was played by Rev. J.
M. Miller, of Inverness.The bride, who was unattended wore a dress of ivory silk, with georgette crepe panels, and pearl trimming. Her only ornament was a pin, set with pearls and enamel forget-me-nots, the gift of the groom. The wedding march was played by her sister, Miss Helen MacKinnon.
The ceremony took place on the lawn, which together with the house, was decorated with golden and blue flowers. Refreshments were served out-of-doors to a number of relatives and near friends. Among those from a distance were: Miss Lillian Mac-Kinnon, of Montreal; Mr. Douglas Mc-Kinley, Lowell, Mass.; cousins of the bride; The aunt of the groom, Miss Dagless; his sisters, Misses Katherine and Mary Ford; Mr. and Mrs.
Thomas B. Ford and little daughter, and Master Graeme Ford all of Portland.

CUSHMAN—PRENTICE.

A pretty summer house wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Prentice, formerly of Sherbrooke, but now residing at Niagara, on August 12th, when their only daughter, Miss Elizabeth, became the bride of Roy Cushman, of Niagara Falls, N. Y. Rev. John Coburn of Midford, Ont., formerly Captain Coburn, chaplain of the 176th, and an old friend of the family, conducted the marriage service under an arch in the drawing room, prettily decorated with ferns, sweet peas and palms. The bridesmaid was Miss Laura Cushman of St. Catharines, a sister of the groom. Mr. Franklin Prentice, brother of the bride, was best man. The bride's dress was of white georgette and silk, and was charmingly enhanced by a Juliette cap and veil with orange blossoms, and a shower bouquet of Killarney roses. The bridesmaid wore a dainty frock of pink voile, and carried La France roses. Mrs. Prentice, the bride's mother, wore black silk, and laid, and a corsage bouquet of deep red roses. After the ceremony, the guests, who consisted of a very few near friends besides the families of bride and groom, sat down to a delightful supper, the bride's table being laid for fourteen.

Historic Buildings In Regina Will Be Destroyed.Extensive new buildings are to be erected on the R.N.W.M.P. square at the headquarters of the famous force in Regina. While Commissioner Perry announced that the buildings would go up in the near future and would entail a large expenditure, he stated that he was not in a position to give many details.The new buildings, he said, would be placed on the south side of the square. Officers' quarters and a large barracks will be erected. This will entail the tearing down and removal of the last of the old wooden buildings, including the historic guardroom where Louis Riel explained his crimes on November 16, 1885. The guardroom was the first frame building erected on the ground. The other original buildings were made in Quebec in 1882, sent to Regina in sections, and then put together by men on the force at the rate of one each day.Senior officers of the Montreal police expressed regret at the passing of the old buildings while delighted with the prospect of the new ones.
There is a possibility that the old guardroom building will be removed to another spot and preserved in its present form. One of the officers stood on the scaffold when Riel with all the Stoicism of his race met his death by hanging. Another has a piece of the rope and a card, written by the rebellion leader just before the hour of execution.From memory one of the officers recalled those on the scaffold. They were: Sheriff Chapleau, Deputy Sheriff Gibson, Inspector J. A. Mc-Gibbon (now assistant commissioner), Hangman Henderson, Father Andre of Duck Lake, Father McWilliams and Riel himself. Telling of the actual hanging, the officer said there were two trap doors, and that Riel stood more on one than the other when the trap was sprung. The result was that when he fell his feet struck Dr. Dukes, the medical officer, who was standing below, in the face.
Standing near Dr. Dukes were Dr.
Gotton, the coroner, and the jurymen.The hangman, Henderson, had been taken prisoner by Riel at the first rebellion in 1870 at Port Garry.
Two years after the hanging Henderson was lost in the dead of winter between Regina and Wood Mountain.
After several unsuccessful attempts by other parties a party led by Inspector McGibbon found him on the prairie badly frozen but still alive.
He was brought to Regina on a flat sledge.

BURY, Aug. 26.—Mr. Frank Prangley, an old resident of Bury, passed away at the age of sixty-four years. Mr. Prangley had been ailing for over three years. The late Mr.
Prangley was born in Warrimoor, England, on November 12th, 1855 and came to this country forty-eight years ago, and with the exception of a short time had lived in Bury ever since. For several years he was in the employ of the late Jas. Hunt, as blacksmith, but sixteen or seventeen years ago he went into business for himself and built an up-to-date shop on the flat. In 1876 he was married to Miss Emma Batt, who survives him. The funeral service was conducted in St. Paul's Church by Rev.
Mr. Love, of Marbleton. The bearers were Messrs. Adolphus Pehlman, Alex. Dougherty, Duncan McLean and George Cathcart. Interment took place in St. Paul's Cemetery.Sawyer House, popular home

ESCAPED FROM RUSSIA

YOUNG SLAV WILL BECOME CITIZEN OF ENGLAND.

Remarkable Story Illustrates the Condition of the Country Now Ruled by the Bolsheviks — Girl Had Fantastic Adventures and Hardships in Escaping From Her Native Land.

THE thrilling tale of a heroic Russian girl who, after a series of almost fantastic adventures and hardships, managed to escape from the scenes of Bolshevik terrorism, and is now safe in England, is told by a correspondent in the Manchester Guardian. The correspondent writes:—

"I had just crossed Finland, travelling on my way home from the Estonian front near the Pelpus Lake; and as I sat in the cabin of a ship that was threading her difficult way through the ice-bound channels of the Aland Islands, a girl, apparently in the early twenties, wrapped in a long coat of wildcat skin—white with black markings—came and sat down opposite me.

"Her curly hair was cut short about her head, and she was pale with the pallor which you may see this year in most of the town-dwelling women and children of Eastern Europe.

"But none of her fellow passengers would overlook her beauty; and I, at least, could not resist the charm of the Russian speech in which from time to time she addressed her companion.

"Both of us were writing, and it was more than an hour before, upon some chance question of hers, we came into conversation together. I found that she and her mother were freshly escaped from Petrograd, having driven forty miles and walked six through the snows of the Finnish frontier. Now she was coming to England to join a sister there, and probably to marry an Englishman.

"I helped the two of them, as best I could, through the difficulties of Scandinavian travel, and several times, when her mother had gone to rest between stages of her journey, the girl and I explored the streets of foreign cities, and I listened to her stories of the life from which she had so lately escaped.

"So the three of us travelled as companions till the night came on which we were to strike the English coast. Then it was that she spoke most vividly of the life she had left behind her. Little more than a year before she had gone by herself apart to live in a mountain cottage in the south of Russia. A very old peasant and his wife had looked after her, setting out for her each morning baskets of fruit for her daily bread; and she had given herself up to wandering in the mountains, attended only by a great dog that was half a wolf, which she had called upon once only to protect her from a band of wild symples.

"But with him she strayed about the hillsides alone, climbing after flowers, lying and watching small animals at work among the rocks and leaves, collecting snails and tortoises and bringing them home into her room, to the dismay of her aged hostess, who disowned with her whether she was not really a witch.

"She had made her room, she said, into a garden of changing wild flowers; and there between her wanderings she had read a multitude of books. From time to time she had gone to stay with her sister in a neighboring town; and once, for several weeks, she had danced each night a solitary dance before the Bolsheviks in the local theatre, black-robed but for her red shoes, and won their applause and earned money to help pay for her journey back to Petrograd, for by now she had decided that her happy lonely life in the mountains must end and that she must go back to arrange her mother's escape to England.

"Her friends told her that Petrograd was full of dangers and violence, and that in any case it was impossible for her to travel so far through Russia alone. But she had been determined to go, and so, in a long, delaying journey, had crossed the full length of Russia and joined her mother again. She told me much of that journey.

"One night her carriage had been so crowded that there was no room for any one to climb unaided to the upper berth to sleep. A huge Russian peasant, without speaking a word, had lifted her up in his arms and set her down above the heads of them all to rest; and she, before she slept, had struck a match that lighted up a crowd of ghastly, watching faces, all round the carriage below her, where she lay.

"On another day she had been almost the only passenger in the train and a crowd of threatening Bolsheviks had approached her. But she, clutching her revolver, had talked to them for more than an hour of life and death and politics, till they, astounded at her strange speech, had gone away and left her unmolested.

"Once again, at an unlit railway junction, the porters had come into her carriage by night and taken away her luggage.

"But she had pursued them and joined her fellow travellers with her; and so, jumping under railway trucks in the dark, she and her company had caught up with the robbers and carried her belongings triumphantly back.

"Three times in the course of her journey she had been formally asked in marriage—once by a doctor travelling homeward from an Austrian prison, who, on her refusal, had wept bitterly. But at length, after many days' journey, she had come, protected, like Tina, by her own single heart, safely to her mother's house.

"In Petrograd she had set herself to secure their escape, realizing that their money could not last them for many months longer. She had been stricken with typhus, and while still weak had walked the long, trampled streets of Petrograd in search of permits that would allow her to cross the frontier.

"All her family had told her that she would kill her mother if she took her away. Once again she had danced before the Bolsheviks—great lovers, she said, of the theatre—in a parody, this time, of the ballet.

"But at length she had got into touch with one of the secret committees.

ations which, for a price, will convey refugees across the frontier; and so, after six months' waiting, we saw her mother, leaving Petrograd itself with only a small basket, by virtue of some permit to go and seek food, had escaped across the frontier and came safely to Helsingfors."

TEMPERAMENTAL MAIDS.

Cooks and Housemaids Are a Mystery to Everybody.

An opera-singer who gets $50,000 a year goes up in the air—and we call it temperament. The idea is that if we're going to have grand opera then we've got to have a high-strung woman who gets cranky and hurls out the service, the kitchen, the laundry, the dry cleaners, the florist and the new gown that—hang it all, Oh, everybody's against me—came with a spot on it.

But housemaids and cooks are different, as a general rule. They are a mystery. Usually when they quit, nobody knows why. It's a secret they keep to themselves. They explain, but they know, the explanation is only half the story, if it's that much.

Sphinxes—that's what the cooks and housemaids are these days. Our best medicine man and psychologists and high-ups in learning try to read these sphinxes and write magazine articles on how to keep a good cook or house girl. And it's no go. They can't tell us.

A good classy girl who knows how to keep a kitchen straight, and wash babies and dress babies right, is a mystery to herself. She quits when she wants to quit and not before then nor till then. And, of course, when she wants to quit then it's up to her to find another place, to go somewhere else. And when she goes she is a mystery to herself like the tribes of Israel starting for the Promised Land or Columbus on his way to undiscovered America.

A sphinx, a mystery, to herself as well as others, she demands the right to be as temperamental as a $150,000 opera singer, retreating instinctively behind the impenetrable fact that while opera singers have temperament, they never have housemaid's knee.

The London Times recently had an interview with a titled Englishwoman who said that a housemaid should be called "Miss" and referred to as a "home bird." This would be democracy in the home.

Home bird—that sounds poetic. And a real home bird, the real thing, fits and wings her way hither and yon from cellar to garret, keeping the place clean. She is a helper and builder, the human wren.

They Do It In France, Too.

When it comes to the matter of political trickery, modern nations one and all seem to be pretty well tarred with the same brush. The following incident, retold with a flavor of Gallic irony by the Cri de Toulouse, is said to have taken place at Toulouse.

On election day a young man came to a booth to vote.

"But, monsieur," said one of the overseers, "you have already voted."

"If allons donc! I am certain that I have not."

A search being made of the records, it is discovered that there has been an error in the recording of the Christian name. It is not Marius Tartarin that has voted but Gonzague Tartarin.

"Gonzague!" cried the young man, "you are quite sure that he has voted?"

"Yes, indeed! Look, here is the register."

"Ah, how I regret not having been here," said the young man. "I would have embraced him with such pleasure. He is my father."

"Your father?"

"Yes, and I have not seen him since he died, four years ago."

An Added Grace.

M. Anatole France delivered all the instalments of a story at once to a newspaper before going on a holiday, relates the Liverpool Post. Returning to Paris and looking up the files of the journal, he was amazed to find that by some inadvertence the instalments had been reversed and the story printed backwards! "Well, it made no difference," said the editor; "nobody noticed anything wrong, and it made the story no less charming."

"One Man In His Time."

Reinforced of strange adventures was the life of James W. Ruerdick, 49, of King Edward's Horse, as it was described, when he was charged at Lancaster, England, with breaking into a shop at Morecambe and stealing jewellery valued at £779. He said that he had:—

Served in the South African War. Been a gold miner and prospector in Klondike and Alaska.

Traded as a copra merchant in the South Sea Islands.

Been a beachcomber in British Guiana.

Worked on the Panama Canal.

Fought under President Castro in Mexico.

Was in the Boxer riots in China.

In Jamaica at the time of the great earthquake in 1907.

Worked on the Trans-Siberian Railway.

Assisted to quell the Sinn Fein rising in Ireland.

Fought in France and was severely wounded.

Following the shop-breaking which was done while he was on a sick leave, he sent valuable presents to his sister, gave rings to nurses at Colchester Hospital and other people in the town.

When arrested he had still £200 worth in his possession, and he helped the police to recover an additional £190 worth.

Sentence of twelve months' hard labor was passed upon him.

PLAUDITS FOR THE PUNJABS.

"Do you ever applaud a play?"

"Invariably when I'm at home."

"What's the sense in doing that?"

The actors who appear on the screen may be thousands of miles away."

"I live in Los Angeles. One never knows when the star is going to drop in to see how the film is being received."

Good-bye to Mary Pickford.

After nine more pictures Mary Pickford, the Canadian morning picture actress, says she is going to take her sunshine and curls into retirement. If the report of her newest price per picture—$250,000—may be assumed to be authentic, Miss Pickford, or "Little Mary," as she is known by millions, will take $2,500,000 into more or less retirement with her, not counting those dollars which already have been salted.

Yet the Pickfordian sunshine and the Pickfordian curls have contributed so much to contemporary life that Canadians in general and young Canada in particular would gladly bequeath to "Little Mary" all the dollars in the land, something that under present conditions would take her still several more years to get.

The latest move of Miss Pickford is a pictorial amalgamation with Douglas Fairbanks, Charles Chaplin and D. W. Griffith. This "Big Four" is to produce and distribute under their own auspices, having become tired of splitting their profits with erstwhile glove salesmen and cornet makers.

Speaking of the plans of her daughter the other day, Mrs. Charlotte Pickford said:

"It will take months to complete the pictures contracted for on the part of Mary, and then she is going to settle down to enjoy life, as I have entreated her for a long time to do."

Once upon a time there was another lady who said she was going to retire. Her name was Mme. Patti.

Swift Made Proverbs.

George Birkbeck Hill in his studies of Johnson and Boswell touched the insoluble mystery of Dean Swift. Here is one of his notes upon a saying attributed to Swift's grandmother. Whether the saying that Swift attributes to his grandmother was really hers may well be doubted. He used to coin proverbs and pass them off for old. One day when walking in a garden, he saw some fine fruit, none of which was offered to him by its stingy owner.

"It was an old saying of my grandmother," he said, "always pull a peach when it lies in your reach." He accordingly plucked one, and his example was immediately followed by all the rest of the company, under the sanction of that good old saying.

Another day, seeing a farmer thrown from his horse into a slough, he asked him whether he was hurt. "No," he replied, "but I am wounded by the proverb," said Swift, "the more dirt the less hurt." The man seemed much comforted with the old saying, but said he had never heard it before; and no wonder.

"Tipperary."

The music and words of "Tipperary" are attributed to Jack Judge and Harry Williams, who sang the song with indifferent success in British music halls, beginning in 1912. When the first British contingent left for France the song was found to suit the demands of the occasion for a good marching song, and for some time it was popular.

THE BURDEN OF RICHES.

"Did I understand you to say Mr. Graboin enjoys a large income?"

"He used to."

"But isn't he still rich?"

"Yes. He quit enjoying his large income about the time he received his first income tax blank."

War-time Husbands.

Some curious facts are revealed in the British Registrar-General's report of births, marriages and deaths in 1917.

Whereas most of the marriages used to take place in July, August and September, the favorite months now are October, November and December. Widowers remarried in great numbers. Although young war-widows affected the figures, it is clear that the war was not wholly responsible for the total began to increase in 1912. Widowers, too, show an increasing tendency to take second wives.

The youngest bachelor to marry was fifteen, and the youngest spinster fourteen. No fewer than twenty-nine males married at the age of sixteen, and 323 at the age of seventeen, two of the latter marrying widows. Twenty-six spinsters married at the age of fifteen, one of them to a widower; 187 women were sixteen when they married, and of 1,200 marrying at seventeen years, fifteen married widowers.

The earliest second marriage of males was at the age of nineteen, and three widows remarried at the age of eighteen. Of thirty-nine men marrying when they were turned eighty only one, aged eighty-one, had never tasted the joys of matrimonial bliss previously, the rest being widowers; but out of nine women marrying beyond that age two were spinsters. The oldest man to be married was a widower of ninety-two, and the two oldest women were aged eighty-five, one a widow and one a spinster.—TR-Bits.

The Village Oracle—"You mark my words—these 'ere Germans 'll do us to a finish. They'll pay the bloomin' six thousand millions, or whatever it is, in threepenny bits; and then 'oc the 'ell's going to count it?"

THE NEEDFUL.

"Money isn't everything."

"Maybe not, but right now it's the only thing I can think of that I really want."

The Only High Flyers.

An organization which will stand in the same relation to aircraft as Lloyd's does to sea-going craft is about to be established.

It will be practically worldwide in its scope, although its headquarters will be in London. All airships and airplanes, including, of course, sea-planes and similar aerial hybrids, will be registered, and classified according to their build and carrying capacity.

The qualifications of aerial chauffeurs also will come under its sphere and a standard set by the establishment of an Aircraft Pilots' Register. A professional pilot whose name does not figure in the register will stand a poor chance of getting a job worth having.

Another branch of the organization's activities will relate to the insurance of aircraft and their passengers and luggage, and in this connection rules will be drawn up regulating air traffic of every description. These are now being arranged and they will be enforced by international agreement.

This part of the scheme is still in the air—both literally and figuratively—but it is probable that the atmosphere will be divided into zones for different classes of aircraft.

Thus it is proposed that up to 2,000 feet all flying shall be prohibited, except of course for landing and starting off. Between 2,000 feet and 4,000 feet will be a zone reserved for commercial planes of a heavy and comparatively slow-flying type.

Above this, up to 6,000 feet, will be the level for general air traffic; while any some higher than this will be used only by official planes.—TR-Bits.

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE. At a special meeting of the Board of Directors of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, held at the Head Office at Montreal, on Thursday, August 21st, 1919, the following vote of condolence was passed unanimously:

Moved by Director C. H. Remick and seconded by Director I. W. Brishin:

That, whereas, in the providence of Almighty God it has pleased Him to remove from this earth and earth and earth the person of one honored and highly esteemed President, the late Elijah H. Spencer, and while bowing in humble submission to His inscrutable will, it is

Resolved: That this Board of Directors in assembled dole to make known their deep grief at the removal by death of the late Mr. Spencer, and to spread upon the minutes of the records of this Office their great appreciation and recognition of his value in the past forty years or more over which he was the president of this company, as well as in other public and political affairs of this Province in which he for many years played an active and leading part.

The steady growth of this Company from a small beginning to the position of one of the leading Mutual Life Insurance Companies of the Province of Quebec is largely due to the wisdom, keen foresight, constructive ability and fairness of the man whose loss we now mourn.

Between him and his associate directors was ever a strong bond of personal friendship, and while at times differing in opinion upon matters of business, yet this fact never persuaded him from his true course as a gentleman and a leader.

LATEST LOCAL AND FOREIGN NEWSU. S. SENATE ADOPTS AMENDMENTS TO THE PEACE TREATY.

(Associated Press Despatch.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—In quick succession, the Senate adopted today a series of amendments to the peace treaty eliminating the United States as one of the powers reported on international commissions created to supervise reconstruction in Europe. The vote on the successive amendments was nine to seven, the committee dividing on party lines.

FATAL REVOLVER FIGHT IN CHICAGO LAST NIGHT

Policeman Killed, One Man Fatally Wounded and Two Others Seriously Injured.

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—A policeman was killed, one man was fatally wounded and two seriously injured in a revolver fight in a saloon last night. An argument over activities of Government officials against prohibitionists is said to have precipitated the fight.

HON. ROBERT ROGERS MAKES A NEW MOVE

Announces Formation of Committee Representative of Liberal-Conservatives Throughout the Dominion.

WINNIPEG, MAN., Aug. 26.—At the annual meeting last evening of the South Winnipeg Liberal Conservative Association, Hon. Robert Rogers made a forceful address on the present political situation in Canada as he sees it, and announced the formation of a national committee representative of Liberal Conservatives throughout the Dominion, for organization purposes.

China Clay Used In Paper.

The fact that an amalgamation with a capital of $2,000,000 has been formed to control the richest and best clay-fields in Devon and Cornwall, where alone china-clay exists in Great Britain, recalls the story of one of the most interesting and historic industries in the country.

China-clay, the expensive clay used in making the porcelain industry, is a great virtue lies in the fact that it is of a pure, or nearly pure, white, both before and after being fired, making it of great value in the manufacture of porcelain. It is also used to a great extent by papermakers, and in less quantity in the making of some chemical products.

Technically, china-clay is known as kaolin, derived from Kaoling—"high ridge"—the name of hills in China where the clay was first discovered and used in the manufacture of porcelain. Jesuit missionaries introduced it to Europe, and in the middle of the eighteenth century the clay was discovered in Cornwall and later in Devonshire. The total output represents nearly half a million tons per annum.—Tit-Bits.

Abyssinians' Gifts.

A delegation from Abyssinia bearing rich gifts of ivory and silks for the announced purpose of congratulating France on her recent victory, appeared at the Peace Conference in Paris. This is in strict accordance with the ancient Oriental procedure. The real purpose of a visit is not disclosed until preliminary ceremonies are concluded. These native Africans—claiming descent from Solomon and the ancient Sheba—wished to be on the carving up of the world, for they have interests which seem vital to them, although little known to the rest of the world. Seated in that natural bastion of Africa, the Abyssinians have lived in greater or less security for unknown centuries. They are not negroes, but a mixture of Hamitic and Semitic races, with a culture of their own and professing the Christian religion, being a branch of the Coptic Church of Egypt. Until recently they have been unnoticed save by native tribes.

Not a Referee.

On board of His Majesty's ships two seamen were hotly engaged in an argument as to the class of animal a hog belonged to, one of them asserting it was a sheep, and the other equally certain it was a pig.

Not being able to agree, one of them turned to an old salt who was standing close by, saying:

"Here, Bill, you've knocked about a bit. What is a hog? Is it a pig or is it a sheep?"

Whereupon Bill, after due consideration, replied:

"Well, to tell you the truth, chum, I don't know much about poultry."—London Tit-Bits.

Insects In Block of Amber.

The proverbial "fly in amber" is strikingly exemplified in a collection of red amber from Burma recently presented to the British Museum by Mr. R. C. J. Swinhoe, of Mandalay. The amber is unusually rich in insects, including, according to Prof. T. D. A. Cockerell, who has examined the material, 31 new species, of which five are types of new genera. Most of these are found in a block of amber rather larger than a man's fist. This has been cut into slices about half an inch thick. Nearly every large order of insect is represented with the exception of ants.

"De" Fibre.

Authorities of West Africa have been giving special attention to the raising of "de" fibre. While de can not take the place of jute in the manufacture of various fabrics, it is equally good for rope making.

BACKWARD, TURN BACKWARD. Germany "agreed" to the treaty in about the way one agrees with the barber that the awful haircut is satisfactory when he presents it to one's view in the rear-head mirror.

SHOT DOWN MAN WHO ANNOYED HIS YOUNG WIFE

John Quinn Killed Roch Samson in Broad Daylight Yesterday at Montreal.

(Associated Press Despatch.) MONTREAL, Aug. 26.—In broad daylight and in the centre of the city a man was shot dead yesterday afternoon, and as a result John Quinn, fifty years of age, of Verdun, is under arrest for the murder of Roch Samson, of St. Margaret street, St. Henry. Mrs. Quinn, wife of the man under arrest, had appealed to her husband for protection against the dead man, Samson, who had annoyed her for some time past by his attentions.

Mrs. Quinn, a young woman of twenty years, was taken by her husband yesterday afternoon to a boarding house kept by Mrs. Donnelly at 25 St. Alexander street. As the couple came out of the house at a quarter past five, Samson drove up in his automobile, and is alleged to have cried out: "You can't hide here; I know where she is," at the same time making as though he would alight from the car.

"Don't you get out of your car," was the answer of John Quinn, but as this warning was disregarded, Quinn covered him with a revolver, fired point blank, and the bullet, after passing through the wind shield of the automobile, entered Samson's chest just above the heart. The ambulance was summoned from Montreal General Hospital, but Samson was dead when it arrived.

At police headquarters Quinn made a full confession, after being warned, according to law.

STABBING HERE LAST NIGHT IS MYSTERIOUS ONE

Victor Dusseault Found with Knife Wound in House on Wellington Street.

Considerable mystery surrounds the details of a stabbing affray, which took place on Wellington Street last night, as a result of which, Victor Dusseault, of Sherbrooke, now lies in the St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, suffering from a knife wound in the body.

Between ten and eleven o'clock, Dr. G. A. Codere and Lord's ambulance were called to a house at 278 1-2 Wellington Street, where they found Dusseault under the influence of liquor and suffering from a knife wound. The man was immediately taken to the St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, where it was found that the wound was not serious, and he is progressing favorably.

According to the man's story, told to Dr. Codere, he had been in a fight with another man, whose name he did not give, and had received the wound when his opponent drew his knife and stabbed him. The police, who have been notified, are working on the possibility of the wound being the result of an attempted suicide, while Dusseault was the cause of the stabbing, result was intoxicated. So far, they have been unable to ascertain just what was the cause of the stabbing.

THE ESTIMATED CROP OF PRAIRIE PROVINCES

(Associated Press Despatch)
WINNIPEG, Man., Aug. 26.—In its annual estimate of the crop of the three Prairie Provinces, the Manitoba Free Press yesterday morning published the following figures:

Wheat 168,225,000 bushels; oats, 268,885,000 bushels; barley, 40,961,095 bushels; rye, 8,470,000 bushels.

ANOTHER NOTE SENT TO RUMANIA BY THE COUNCIL

Council is Impatiently Awaiting a Reply to the Note Concerning Reparations.

(Associated Press Despatch)

PARIS, August 26.—The Supreme Council at yesterday afternoon's meeting discussed Rumania's attitude in the Hungarian situation and sent Rumania another note, saying that the Council impatiently awaited a reply to the note sent on Saturday concerning reparations.

The Supreme Council approved the report of the inter-Allied Military commission relative to recent incidents at Fiume. It is understood, the document fixes responsibility for clashes between Italians and Allied soldiers and recommends methods for preventing a repetition of the trouble.

GERMAN VOLUNTEER CORPS TO FIGHT BOLSHIEVISTS.

(Associated Press Despatch)

COBLENZ, August 26.—Details of the organization of a large German volunteer corps in the Baltic provinces to support the Russian reactionary movement against the Bolsheviks are in the hands of the American military authorities. It appears that General von Keller, who is believed to be a Russian nobleman of German descent, is at the head of the movement, and it is charged that the German occupation troops under General von Der Goltz, who recently was recalled from the Baltic on the demand of the Allies are working with von Keller.

RUMANIANS MAKE A DIS- COVERY.

(Associated Press Despatch)

BASLE, August 26.—Rumanian military authorities have discovered in the Archives of the Hungarian Foreign Ministry a telegram from Otto Bauer, former Austrian State Secretary, entrusted with the management of the State Bureau of Foreign Affairs, to Bela Kun former head of the Hungarian Communist Government, asking him to destroy all documents relative to the delivery of arms by Austria to Hungary, according to a Budapest despatch received here.

A WRONG GUESS.

Physician—You need more exercise.

Patient—You're crazy! Why, I am the hero of a moving picture serial.

A large stock of heavy and light draft, general purpose, driving and saddle horses. The grand Percheron stallion Rosso and a pair of registered Percheron mares, 3,500 lbs., with foals by their sides, to be seen at No. 17 Barn, Exhibition Grounds.

SHERBROOKE WELCOMES THE GREAT CANADIAN SOLDIER

The French and Italian posters especially, being the works of some of the foremost artists of the day.

Further towards the central aisle are show cases, with a collection of more personal articles, such as German helmets and revolvers, shoulder straps and parts of uniforms, maps and small articles of warfare of all kinds. Several parts of destroyed cathedrals, shelled to pieces by the guns of the enemy are to be seen, while the complete figure of a child, moulded in iron and shot down in the shelling of some village, is set up in one corner.

Dummy machine guns, snipers' shelters and shields, a large assortment of trench signs, pointing the way to various places in the trenches or retreating off repeated warnings, are only a few of the articles too numerous to mention, which go to make up this exhibit.

GRAND STAND ATTRACTIONS.

The afternoon's entertainment at the Exhibition yesterday was quite up to the mark, for the first day, the acts presented being evidence of a high class performance during the week. Although the troupe's had not all arrived, the numbers given between the races kept everybody in good humor.

The Robins family, in a tumbling and balancing act, were the first to appear, and were exceptionally good. This troupe is composed of a man and woman and three children, and the work of the kiddies is especially fine.

The Williams Duo, in feats of strength, and acrobatic work, is one of the best acts ever seen from the grand stand. Miss Williams is the personification of strength, and if she represents the new physical woman, then men should adopt a policy of "Safety First" for their motto. These two actors will undoubtedly be very popular during the week's entertainment.

The Italian Serenaders gave a musical number that won hearty applause, their selections varying from snatches of opera to the catchy roundelays sung by Italian street singers. Their accompaniment of mandolins and guitars, and the gay costumes made the act a most pleasing one.

The Hursfalls, in a clever acrobatic and trapeze act, in which a little comedy was blended, did some good work, their double handstands being a feature, as was a backward tumble.

The Six Musical Nosses gave an attractive number, these girls being expert players of both cornets and saxophones. A novel feature of this act was the dancing while playing, and their costumes of purple with silver trimmings, added to the attractive appearance of this musical sextette.

Dunkins Animal Pantomime was a novel act, the "monkey orchestra," making a decided hit. These little players kept perfect time with Turcotte's band with their drums, cymbals and bells, while others performed feats of strength, trapeze work, and tight rope walking.

THE ROUGH RIDERS.

A special feature was the exhibition of Wild West riding given by a company of Westerners who knew how to stay in the saddle, or get out on short notice. Throwing the lariat, picking up the handkerchief, and similar stunts kept everyone on the qui vive, while the "bucking broncho" gave one of the men a busy five minutes, keeping his place in the saddle. The company included one girl, who also did clever work with her pony. An Indian family, in "war paint and feathers," were also present, and appeared deeply interested in the display of horsemanship. Several more troupes arrived last night and will perform daily.

The judging of ladies' and gentlemen's drivers gave the audience a chance to see some fine turnouts, and the lady riders present, were also much admired.

WOMEN'S DEPARTMENT ACTIVE.

During the four years it was a matter of surprise to many that the contributions of women to the various departments of the exhibitions and county fairs held every autumn showed little falling off. It has been suggested and is probable that minds strained with apprehension, dread, sympathy and sorrow, needed the slight relaxation afforded by fancy work, and turned with relief now and then to something bright and cheerful. Certain it is that now that Canadian women are no longer face to face with the horrors of war when the daily papers contain ordinary news instead of long lists of casualties, and the bandages, socks and sheets and dressing gowns, with their grim and familiar images, are not needed, they are turning again to the graceful arts in which they excel. This exhibition of 1919 is a record in countless ways, for great improvements and progress are manifest everywhere, and the women's work department in the art hall is worthy of any country, or any period. The rotunda is admirably lighted with floods of sunshine. Spacious, daintily clean and well-arranged glass cases along the walls contain the more fragile and delicate articles of cob-webby lace and exquisite needlework, while the broad shelves above are positively loaded with everything that can be produced along the lines of the classes in the prize list.

Of white embroidery there is no end. Tea cloths, tray cloths, doilies, centre pieces and so forth, so lovely in design and perfect in execution, that human minds seem scarcely to have touched them, and work in colors is no less conspicuous and excellent. Crochet and filet lace, brilliant lace, cushions for the house, beautiful tea cosies—reminding of the "cous that cheers"—while on the railing around the open space are displayed drawn and braided mats, old-time work once again come into its own. In short, nothing is wanting to make this department more than usually successful and truly interesting.

WOUNDED SOLDIERS' WORK.

A small section is given up to the work of invalided soldiers, and well executed as it is, tells its sad tale of wear and weary hands, sojourn long hours with the unaccustomed arts of the needle. There are a few specimens of wood carving—too few, it should be said—also a small exhibit of china painting, both artistic and quaint in form and coloring, and articles in raffia, of which there should be more. Improvement is seen from year to year in the fine arts section, the oil paintings, especially the landscapes, show taste and talent beyond the average.

Flower pieces, marine drawings and sketches arrest the attention, and are examined with interest, for one of these may have been executed by the great Canadian artist of the future.

One of the most striking exhibits is that of the Canadian Handicraft Guild of Montreal, which is not only beautiful in itself, but is attested by the success of the efforts made for years by this organization to develop and encourage home work. The exhibit at the Sherbrooke Fair alone is valued at nearly $700, and Mrs. Stephenson, who is in charge, distributes literature in regard to the work of the Guild, and takes pleasure in showing the great rolls of homespun for gowns, almost indestructible as to quality and fast in color, as only vegetable dyes are used. It is a far cry from the indigoddyed linsey of the woman of 100 years ago to these creations, and progress has been slow, but certain.

In addition to the dress goods there are lumber rugs, bed covers, curtains, thick soft rugs, which call forth many expressions of admiration from the visitors to the fair, and no doubt numerous purchases will be made, the articles being for sale.

The Handicraft Guild offers a special prize for home weaving, including blazets, coverlets, etc., of which the display is creditable and quite extensive.

To turn to another branch of woman's work, the housekeeper's department, there is much to be said if space and time permitted. The brown and white bread, sweet and fragrant; the cakes, rolls, pies, for Canada is too near the United States not to be devoted to the delicious pie, of which other less favored nations are in ignorance: the jams, marmalade, jellies—translucent and tempting—and above all, the candied fruit and vegetables, for which the war and the necessity of conserving food, came the knowledge of canning, and the Canadian housewife has now no competitor.

The judges, Miss Chute and Miss Buzzell, from Macdonald College, Ste. Anne de Bellevue, began their work yesterday, and many red and blue ribbons showed prizes awarded.

Mrs. Reginald Smith is in charge of the woman's work department, assisted by Mrs. Denoyers. The judge in the fancy work is Mrs. Stephenson, of Montreal, and in the art section Mr. Valentine Molina, the well-known artist from New York, who is spending the summer at Ayer's Cliff, and the directors are Mr. A. F. Franer, Mr. J. O. Darche and Mr. John McKechnie.

WAR TROPHIES EXHIBIT.

Never before have the Canadian public had such an opportunity to see war trophies as during the present Great Eastern Exhibition. A large addition to the Main Building formerly known as the Machinery Hall, has been set aside for the purpose of war trophies exhibit and there can be seen some thing of what our boys captured from the Germans during the great struggle. No one visiting the Fair should fail to see this wonderful display of articles of war, so greatly treasured by our people. A German aeroplane is seen, which was shot down by the Third Squadron, instructions printed on the aero tail "No stunting to be done on this machine, steep spirals, sharp turns, and etc., men's drivers gave the audience a chance to see some fine turnouts, and the lady riders present, were also much admired.

FOUR FIREMEN HURT FIGHTING BLAZE TODAY

Early Morning Fire in Lumber Yard at Montreal Caused Damage Estimated at $25,000.

(Associated Press Despatch)

MONTREAL, August 26.—Four firemen were injured, and one of them, A. Chamadeau, 27 years of age, is in a critical condition from several internal injuries, in a fire which occurred early this morning in the lumber yards of J. P. Belladeau at the corner of Ontario and Parthenais Streets.

A ladder was placed on one of the piles of lumber and as the four men mounted with their hose, the wood began to slip and fell with a crash. The ladder fell on top of the lumber and the firemen were thrown in all directions.

The yards were partially destroyed, causing damage roughly estimated at $25,000.

main spars have been shot through C. C. No 3 Squadron," also portion of 1st Zeppelin shot down in England, by Lieut. Robinson, V.C., and a large size of German trench mortars, trench mortars bombs. You will also see British trench and German steel helmets, gas masks, revolvers and various kinds of equipments including, captured German machine guns, the famous British Lewis machine gun, and the wonderful French mitrailleuse.

Among the captured guns are the 77 millimeter field gun to the 5.9 inch Howitzer, also numerous rifles of various types, snipers shelters and breast plates, observation post shelters and etc. The exhibits are too numerous to, but no one should fail to spend at least a short time at this interesting and wonderful exhibit which is in charge of Lieut. Norman Fee, of Ottawa, and Sergt. W. S. Jones, of the 13th Battalion who spent five years in France.
