VOL. XXXVII, No. 1 MONTREAL, FRIDAY, JANUARY 3, 1964 5 CENTS 12 PAGES

Next week's weather

By ERIC NEAL

January 5 to 11

Mainly sunny with blue skies and extremely cold, with some powder snow. Temperature range some nights down to 20 below, days up to 35°F. during the week.

Easing a little in middle of week for morning frosts and wind driven freezing drizzle and snow grains, turning to heavy snow 10 to 15" would be normal.

40 below temperatures in the north and both shores of the St. Lawrence will complete the freeze-up and end all navigation.

DOUBLE DEMOLITION

Demolition work continued this week at two locations in lower Westmount: in the Dorchester widening and redevelopment area and in the Wood-Elm district as two multi-million projects proceed. At left, workmen tear away paneling in an Atwater avenue home near Tupper street. The house at the right is one of many on Wood avenue being demolished by the Westmount Centre developers at the request of the city. The current legal petition against the zoning by-law for the area will not stop demolition, the city reports.

City obtains delay in petition action

"The city of Westmount is embarking on a path of development which would appear to be ill-considered and altogether unwise. The public may wish to see the project proceed, but they must realize they were faced with a 'fait accompli' before they had any opportunity to discuss its merits."

So said Westmount architect, H. I. Martin this week. He is co-signer of a petition to annul the recent zoning by-law amendment which permits construction of the $20,000,000 Westmount Centre project.

He said he wished to emphasize that was taking action against the "methods and principles" involved in establishing the amendment and not against the project itself.

Nevertheless, he said he was sorry to see that Westmount was encouraging "this sort of development." "It is not a healthy sign when a suburb starts to look more and more like its giant neighbor," he said. "Loss of independence may be next."

Meanwhile, Westmount has obtained a fifteen day delay to enable its attorney, Lawrence Poitras, to file a written contestation.

Re-zoning called 'illegal'

The petition signed by Mr. Martin and his wife contends that the re-zoning was carried out illegally under the Cities and Towns Act and the Westmount Charter.

City seeks volunteers for emergency forces

Westmount will soon establish a special emergency force to assist the regular municipal police and firemen in case of local disaster or nuclear attack. Within the next three weeks authorities will seek over 50 volunteers from among city employees and the general public to take part in an intensive three months training program given in the evenings.

The city has already purchased over $7,000 worth of equipment for the volunteer force such as packboards, first aid supplies, auxiliary fire-fighting equipment. A rescue truck has been ordered. The group will have what is called "a semi-radiation proof" command headquarters in the new police station now under construction on Stanton street.

Westmount will pay about 10% of the cost of the equipment and of the training program. The Federal government pays 75% and Quebec the remaining 15% under the Emergency Measures Act.

Several local high-ranking police and fire department officers and two city hall employees have journeyed to Arnprior near Ottawa to attend the govern-

Police report a quiet New Year's holiday

This was one of the quietest New Year's in Westmount in many years declared a Police Officer yesterday when questioned as to arrests, fires, etc. over the holiday weekend. The Fire Department also passed a quiet day answering only one false alarm and dealing with a single kitchen fire in a Mt. Pleasant home. The blaze was extinguished in seconds with little damage.

In past years the fire department has had to contend with many small blazes on New Year's Day.

And almost invariably at this season a few somewhat dazed persons are brought in for driving under the influence of liquor or being involved in accidents due to being intoxicated. This year few offended, the officer said.

Few other municipalities of this size or even smaller could say the same, it was learned.

2 Westmount year-end round-up

1963 — In Westmount it was a year of great build- ing projects, both civic and private, a year scarred by outbreaks of terrorism here and one which, to the relief of many, contained only one election, a federal contest.

Following is the second part (July to December) of a year-end round-up of happenings in Westmount in 1963 taken from the files of The Examiner.

July

ASSESSMENTS UP

It was announced in July the Westmount's tax assessments will be increased throughout the city by an average of 20%. To eliminate what the city calls "inequali- ties" in previous assessments a new valuation roll was prepared for 1963-64.

Mr. Drury said the department "will have the very practical job of giving every public service that a government can to ensure the rapid and continued expansion of the Canadian economy."

POOL IS POPULAR

A record 10,000 Westmounters obtained recreation passes this year, it was announced. Department officials attribute this new interest to the surging popularity of the municipal swimming pool.

August

FIREBUG IS CAUGHT

Westmount Police in August mobilized an all-out search for a "fire-bug" believed responsible for setting a series of fires in the lower section of eastern Westmount. Several fires in rooming houses in the Prospect street district had broken out at the same time.

Two weeks after the search began a fourth blaze was set at 264 Wood avenue and Leonard Lemieux, 42, was found hiding behind a garage in the area by Fire Captain Dan Ryan. The Montreal Police and detectives had been seeking the man for months.

Lemieux admitted setting fires that caused an estimated $250,000 in damages in a reign of terror dating back to April 15 and was sentenced to a total of 21 years and six months in prison.

SLOGAN PAINTERS FINED

Two Montreal youths who went on a slogan-painting spree in Westmount in August were quickly apprehended and charged. They had painted separatist slogans on local mailboxes and on the walls of three buildings including Temple Emanu-El.

DUTCH ELM DISEASE

Dutch Elm disease — that has wiped out the majority of the older elm trees in this part of the country — appeared to be keeping right after Westmount's larger elms. Slated for the axe were at least 24 of them.

SECOND TRAFFIC DEATH

Westmount's second traffic fatality of the year occurred this month when 11-year-old Susan Lindover, 4328 Sherbrooke street west, was struck down as she cycled west on Sherbrooke.

Westmount earned safety awards for no traffic fatalities in 1962, but the record was broken early in January when an elderly woman was killed, also on Sherbrooke street.

September

217 PROTEST

TAX ASSESSMENT

Westmount Property owners turned out in force in September to protest increases in Westmount's valuation rolls. Of the City's 4,800 property owners a near-record 217 filed appeals.

This year's raise marked the first intensive property tax assessment in many years. Most property owners based their pleas on the fact that their neighbours in similar homes had received a lower rate.

PARK SCHOOL OPENS

After a year of silence and still another when hammering and pounding noises predominated, the corridors of the old Westmount Junior High School again echoed with the voices of students. The voices were somewhat shriller and more excited in tone than those heard previously for they belonged, not to the high school set, but to youngsters age five to eleven — pupils in the renamed Westmount Park School, replacing Kings and Queens.

The building was completely renovated to accommodate over 400 pupils as workmen knocked down walls to create larger and brighter classrooms and new kindergartens.

HOUSEWIFE BOUND, ROBBED

A thief, posing as a deliveryman, gained admittance into a Roslyn avenue home late in September and pulled a gun. With the aid of another man who had slipped in through the front door he bound and gagged the housewife and calmly proceeded to rob the house. Victim of the robbery was Mrs. B. Berenbaum, 719 Roslyn avenue.

STATION TENDERS AWARDED

City Council in September awarded tenders of $770,000 to the Rhoderigo Construction Company for building a new police and fire station and City Hall annex.

CHURCH OPENS

One of the most talked-about buildings in Westmount opened in September. One year and four months after ground breaking the congregation of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer occupied its new church at Western and Clarke avenues. Hundreds of passers-by stopped to admire the bright building and dozens more asked for admittance to gain a closer look.

October

SECOND SWIMMING POOL

The question of a second swimming pool for Westmount arose again in October. After much discussion the Westmount Municipal Association announced that it does not favor the building of another "at the present time." Members declared that the City could well find a better use for the $120,000 set aside by the city in June, out of a loan by-law, to provide for a second pool.

The Association's Recreation Committee reported that while attendance at the municipal pool was good in spite of much bad weather "the pool was sufficient for all and there does not appear to be an immediate need for another."

It was also reported that surveys conducted throughout the summer showed that the majority of users come from below Cote St. Antoine road and the "the present location is ideal."

PARKING LOT PLANS ARE PROTESTED

Westmount's plan to build a municipal parking lot on Greene avenue near Sherbrooke encountered heavy opposition from householders in the vicinity. Thirteen proprietors, representing almost entirely the owners of homes on the eastern side of Oliver avenue between Sherbrooke and Western signed a petition protesting the expropriation of land and buildings on Green for the purpose of building a parking lot.

They said that it would greatly reduce their privacy, lower their property values and endanger the lives of their children. A City Hall spokesman, however, said that the parking lot could only be an improvement on "the present half-destroyed buildings." It is believed that the lot will be opened this winter.

November

WESTMOUNT CENTRE DATA REVEALED

In an exclusive Examiner story late in November plans for a $20,000,000 development project for the Wood-Elm Greene area were revealed. It includes a 19-storey office building and three 16-storey apartment towers and an underground shopping mall and plazas.

The Architectural firm of Bland, Lemoyne and Edwards and Shine submitted plans which called for a 1,200 car underground parking garage with entrances on Elm avenue connected directly with the buildings and shopping areas; an indoor shopping mall with a portion built right over Elm avenue, a 19-storey office building fronting on St. Catherine between Elm and Wood; 3 apartment towers of 16-stories each containing about 150 apartments; a two storey arcade entrance to the complex from Greene avenue. An art gallery was also planned for this location.

BALANCED BUDGET

It was also announced that Westmount will try for a balanced budget in 1964, one which is an estimated $311,000 higher than 1963.

To raise much of the needed $3,926,700 council approved a tax increase of about nine per cent. The rate will be set at 15.75 mills.

KINGS TO GO

Real Estate developments were much in the news in November. The proposed Westmount Centre complex was not the only development planned for lower Westmount. It was learned that Kings School, a landmark for generations will soon be torn down and replaced with an apartment building. New owners of the property, The New Rochelle Development Corporation said they would appeal to City Council to re-zone the property for 12-storey buildings. Six is the present limit.

MAYOR OF WESTMOUNT

I am happy to take this occasion to extend greetings to the Citizens of Westmount and to wish them Health and Happiness in the New Year.

In our changing times there is much that is changing in Westmount. An impressive commercial and residential development now scheduled will bring growth and new vitality to an older section of our City. It is our wish, however, that the fundamental characteristics of our Municipal Government do not change. Local Government is closest to the people. The good administration of that Government will continue to be the primary objective of Westmount in 1964.

Friendship Club gains more friends

Enrollment in the Westmount Friendship Club — open to all local senior citizens — in on the upsurge, it is reported. Seventy-two residents attended the Club's last meeting just before Christmas in Victoria Hall.

The hall was decorated with flowering plants and greenery, while candles glowed on the dinner tables, enhancing many other decorations, including a Christmas tree surrounded by gifts, which was decorated by the members themselves.

While the guests assembled, Christmas carols were sung, led by Mrs. W. Morrow with Mrs. F. Thompson at the piano.

SPECIAL GUESTS

Special guests included Harry Segal, representing Westmount Rotary, Dennis White, Chairman of the Golden Age Committee of Westmount Rotary, and Mrs. White, the Reverend and Mrs. Callum Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Howard from the St. John Ambulance. Many interested Rotarians also attended and gave the members much pleasure as they met and conversed with them.

After dinner a performance was given by the Unity Boys' Club Talent Parade under the direction of Maurice Mariasine, Danny Smith, Choreographer and Fred Johnston, Musical Director.

The performers included the Junior Rockettes — Wilma Richardson, Karen Hogan, Pattie Ann Fernandes, Christine Hensen, Lois Moore and Sharon Syvret, Mario Velli, Matthew Velli, Betty Walker, Judy Matthews, Lindsay Johnston, Lynne Mayotte, Luana Amirault (Instructor) gave additional numbers.

The Westmount Friendship Club is open to all Westmount Senior Citizens — men and women — who would enjoy an afternoon of cards or some other activity on the basis of friendship.

The Club will re-open on January 8, 1964 at 12.30 p.m. Anyone interested in joining may simply bring a sandwich and come!

City Council meets Monday

Westmount City Council meets Monday, January 6, for its first general session of the New Year.

Agenda for the meeting has not been announced although it is expected that Council will vote on tenders for the second phase of demolition in the Dorchester area, involving some 25 properties expropriated by the City.

'Y' Underwater group to show silent world

The Westmount YMCA Skin and Scuba Diving Club will present the movie "The Silent World," a full length feature in color and sound, on January 11, 1964. Tickets can be obtained at the YMCA's Front Office. Shows will be held at 1:30, 3:30 and 8:00 p.m.

Under the direction of Dave Rennie, the Westmount YMCA's chief diving instructor and examiner, we are forming a Scuba Club. The aim of the group is the promotion of safety and many different mediums and programs are used to give as much attention to this aim as possible. One such medium is the use of movies. Through the use of pictures, different diving techniques and wonders of the deep can be seen and enjoyed.

Puppet show

Like Topsy, it just grew, but it grew into something really worthwhile. The Obratsov Company last night opened its puppet show at the St. Denis Theatre, and its run to January 10 promises to be all too short.

It is rare these days in this city where entertainment of all types is so easy to come by to see a fully appreciative audience, and one which did not, obviously, expect the high standards presented to them.

To many, puppet shows mean a lot of crude little figures manipulated by people holding strings. But puppets to Obratsov means a lot of people manipulating figures, but without strings. And there's nothing crude about any of it.

Scouting members are sought

The Shaar Hashomayim Scouting Committee announces that there is still room for boys of eight to 10 in their Wolf Cub Pack; girls from eight to 10 in the Brownie Pack and Boys from 11 to 14 in the Boy Scout Troop.

The program of activities promises to be a rewarding experience for the children involved. Parents who are interested in enrolling their children are asked to contact Mrs. Alan Finestone at RE. 7-7354.

TO GO

This street scene, familiar to most Westmounters may soon be radically changed. Shown is Elm avenue, looking south from Western. Homes along this street are slated for demolition later this month. Also to go, as the Westmount Centre work advances, are many of the ancient Elm trees which gave the street its name. A few nearby residents and others have joined in an effort to preserve them.

Westmount Masons elect B.C. Johnson

Local masons gathered Friday to elect Grand Lodge officials for 1964. New officers of the Westmount Lodge, No. 76 are: WESTMOUNT LODGE NO. 76 W. Bro Basil C. Johnson W.M.; W. Bro. Allan K. Durrell, I.P.M.; Bro. C. Alex Duff, S.W.; Bro. A. J. Tonkin, J.W.; Bro. Ivor T. C. Larnder, Chaplain; Bro. E. M. Roberts, Treasurer; Bro. A. E. Stevens, Secretary.

The more than 21,000 Masons in the Province of Quebec celebrated St. John's Day today with banquets, traditional ceremonies and exchange visits among lodges.

Most Worshipful Brother Stuart L. Hodge, of Greenfield Park, was elected Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Quebec Ancient Free and Accepted Masons at the Grand Lodge's 93rd annual communications. He succeeds M. Wor. Bro. Bernard V. Atkinson, of Westmount.

R.W. Bro. H. A. Vallieres, of Montreal, was elected Deputy Grand Master.

WHS plans carnival

Westmount High School will hold a Winter Carnival in February, it has been announced. The program includes a football game (no snowshoes allowed) skiing, hockey, and basketball. Tom Christie and John Ono will captain the football teams.

Student entertainment and a dance are also planned.

Thief hits dress store

A lone bandit dipped into the cash register Friday at the Patty Page store, at 4901 Sherbrooke west in Westmount, and escaped with $200.00.

The man entered the store shortly after noon and said a parcel had been left for him. While the woman at the counter searched for it, he pulled a gun and reached across to open the money drawer.

ATTRACT TEACHERS

If the teacher shortage is ever to be overcome, some sort of both selling and incentive program will have to be adopted to bring more people into the field. — Quesnel (B.C.) Cariboo Observer.

French and English courses are offered

French and English courses for immigrants will reopen in Westmount January 3 at 8 p.m. at Notre Dame de Bon Conseil, 4281 Western avenue.

The free courses are sponsored by the Department of Youth and arranged by the Catholic School Commission.

CHILDREN AND CARS

It's a common sight to see a dozen cars idling while the drivers are in business places. Youngsters are often seen playing with the gearshift. A motor vehicle is a lethal weapon in the hands of a adult — what about children? — Whitehorse (Y.T.) Star.

WE SAY

Civil protection needs volunteers

THE civil protection organization, as civil defence has come to be known is now established in Westmount and will in the next three weeks seek volunteers to undergo extensive training.

Authorities have stated that due to a current "easing of cold war tensions" they expect to have a difficult time recruiting sufficient volunteers. But precautions must be taken, and preparations made.

During more troubled times, such as the Cuban crisis, many municipalities had to turn away volunteers, they noted. But civil protection is, at any time, an important facet of our way of life and one which cannot be ignored.

Like health insurance it might never be used, but it is important to have.

After all, people who take first aid courses hope their training will never be used, really, but it is a wonderful thing to know — just in case.

And so with civil protection.

No one has to be an alarmist to take the courses. The knowledge gained might be useful in any civil disaster, such as the sleet storms of 1961, as well as in wartime. Earlier this month volunteer Civil Protection forces from Verdun and St. Laurent helped out at the scene of the St. Therese air disaster.

Naturally, the bulk of our efforts must be directed to seeing that disasters or wars do not occur.

But we must be prepared, for any eventuality.

BY THE WAY

Saying of the week

WHY should a man with business sense pay an enormous sum for a picture he could get for a hundred quid if he had the right contacts? It is sure to be stolen before the experts announce that it is a forgery, and, if he knows the ropes, he can get it back fairly cheaply, and pass it on at a profit.

(Captain Foulenough)

YOU SAY

Will fight to keep independence

Sir: I should like to thank your writer Austin Carr for his penetrating analysis of the problems facing Mayor Drapeau and the City of Montreal in their bid to plan and effect "more orderly development."

Mr. Carr suggests that by means of a borough system on the island a strong effective central administration of common services might be established while still preserving the characteristics of the various boroughs.

It is a most reasonable idea and would probably work in many Montreal suburbs. This, however, would not necessarily be the case in Westmount. Perhaps Hampstead and Mt. Royal would also falter.

Among the valued characteristics of this municipality are in the superb police and fire protection offered, and the high level of local government.

By all means let us have more co-operation between Westmount and Montreal forces. But don't turn the Stanton street headquarters into another district substation of Montreal. Anyone who has had dealings with both forces can tell you the vast difference between the local "quality" and the Montreal "quantity."

Local or island-wide government? Certainly the latter would appear more efficient. But anyone who has had to suffer the red tape, the bureaucracy of Montreal government the district answers given by Westmount officials as refreshing as a mountain brook.

These are some of the standard (and valid) arguments which must be given. A further argument which will always prevail and this is the one Drapeau and Saulnier are almost powerless to fight.

It is no doubt selfish to insist on the personal municipal services at the expense of others. Nevertheless we have them. This is why many of us are living here. They are a cherished possession.

And when someone tries to take away a valued possession, we fight to retain it.

Highly valued is our independence, and almost all of us will fight to keep that.

F.R.H.

YOU SAY

Zoning changes not 'merely routine'

Sir: Mr. C. P. Beaubien, WMA Candidate for alderman is reported to have said (your issue December 20, 1963) that generally speaking, most zoning-by changes are "merely routine" and of "no particular interest."

In the Westmount letter sent out in February 1963, the Council said and I quote "The City of Westmount has proceeded with its project which has involved a great deal of time and study, involving members of the City Council, city officials, professional town planners and architects, lawyers and engineers, and numerous other persons in related fields. In consequence, it is obvious that this new by-law has been finalized after much study of the city's areas as they exist today and how they might function in the years ahead."

And the Mayor said in his letter mailed only recently in December:

"During the period between the completion of the Bland Report in November 1960, and March 1963, extensive work was done on a new zoning By-law by the Architectural Commission, a special Sub-Committee of the General Committee of Council, and by Professor John Bland, the Dean of Architecture at McGill University, and City officials."

How can one reconcile the

Annexation bid 'same old stuff'

Sir: I have heard a lot of comment lately about Mayor Drapeau's current crusade to eventually annex every town and city on the Island, making it one big City of Montreal, or Ville de Montreal.

There's nothing new in this. He talked it up big after he got elected in 1960, but met with so much opposition that he dropped the subject until recently. The only difference now is he calls it amalgamation instead of annexation, but both seem to mean the same thing.

Now, there might be a lot to be said for one big city. Right now Montreal seems to have an honest government, probably one of the few in its history. But what guarantee is there that such will always be the case? My experience is that good government in this city runs in cycles, but it takes the good cycle a long, long time to clear up the corruption of the bad cycle.

A total of 32 (I imagine) police forces on the island seems a little much, and no doubt a metropolitan police force would be the thing. This would apply, too, to the fire departments.

But then there is the special case of Westmount. I don't live there, I can't afford it. But, I think, it would be a shame to see such an efficient city, from which many others can learn a lot, to go down to being just another Montreal ward. But where do you draw the line? If some towns and cities go, they might just as well all go.

Oh, well, when all is said and done, probably nothing more will come of all the annexation talk now than it did in 1960-61.

Waiting and watching above official statement issued by the Council and the Mayor of the City of Westmount with Mr. C. P. Beaubien's off-hand remarks that most zoning by-law changes are and I quote "merely routine" and of "no particular interest."

CONFUSED CITIZEN

Rabbi's objection to Christianity not valid

Sir, I am sure that we all appreciate the greater degree of brotherhood being expressed everywhere and as evidenced by Rabbi Stern's message, printed in last week's Examiner.

But his objection to the Christian religion is the very thing Jesus-Christ never taught!

All his teachings were directed to awakening all men to their divine status as the perfect image and likeness of God. He healed others by awakening them in this way.

Through the practicality of his teachings, many today are experiencing this awakening and are being healed in the same way. And proof is something that cannot be denied.

It is possible that some do not understand that the words "only begotten Son" mean only begotten of God. They do not mean that Christ Jesus is the only one who has a spiritual status.

Referring again to brotherhood, I would like to recommend that everyone read (or re-read) Henry Drummond's famous tiny book, "The Greatest Thing in the World". This book is also the answer to the question of language.

ROVING REPORTER

By Oliver Towne

Several Grosvenor avenue residents have phoned to complain that motorists now apparently regard Grosvenor avenue as some sort of an expressway, particularly between Westmount avenue and The Boulevard with cars racing the light at 40 mph. The actual limit is 20 but few, particularly in winter, go below 30 on the ascent. One resident said he had appealed to the police four times for his own safety and for Roslyn pupils. He said that the radar unit had been out more frequently than usual, but the street was still a raceway...

Motorists on the descent on Victoria appear somewhat better behaved. The limit is also 20 MPH so most travel at 30 MPH.

Four pupils of the Children's Theatre will be taking part in the movie, "Jamie," to be filmed soon by the National Film Board. They are: Ilana Abramovitch who takes the part of The Princess in "The Magic Apple" playing at Victoria Hall tomorrow afternoon; Paula McKeown who is the "First Lady in Waiting" and Irwin Kreisman, "The Little Magic Man" in the same play. The fourth pupil is Michael Morein who was seen in plays staged by the Children's Theatre last season.

Snow removal is becoming a problem in the area surrounding Westmount Station.

"Many people park their cars on the side streets as they believe they will get a ticket parked on the station lot. They then commute by train downtown." Then, at night, the residents return and park their cars, so they don't have any time to get the snow hauled away.

New publicity secretary for the popular Potters Club on Victoria avenue is Mrs. Lovell Carroll... Westmount garbage collectors will again take away your Christmas tree if you leave it by the pails or on the front lawn. None of this Montreal preliminary branch trimming business for them...

Police study advanced communication methods

Closer cooperation through instantaneous communication between Westmount, Montreal and all surrounding municipalities is under close study by the local authorities it was learned recently. The new system put forward by the experts will improve the present telephone and telex set up of the alarm system in use by the police and fire department. The police radio link-up study was agreed upon at the recent meeting of police chiefs of Montreal's various suburbs. It is understood that the nerve centre of the new link-up will be Montreal and all municipalities will receive the calls simultaneously as well as patrolling police cars throughout the area.

1964

We live in a world of progress. And the phrase itself has become trite with repetition. An encyclopaedia published in 1910, the year Westmount Realities Company was founded has no mention of aviation, of radio, of television, of electronics. We progress at breakneck speed. Let us continue Man's wonderful march towards a better, fuller life through science and technology. Let us look back, every now and then, to check our present course against the guideposts of the past. May 1964 bring more and better living to people the world over.

D. G. Macpherson

Long-time Westmount resident Douglas Gordon Macpherson, former president of Watson-Jack and Co. Ltd., died suddenly Sunday at the Montreal General Hospital.

Mr. Macpherson was an elder of the Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul and served on the board of directors of the Mount Royal Cemetery Co. and the Montreal Protestant Homes.

He was also a governor of the Montreal General and Queen Elizabeth Hospitals.

Year-end roundup

page letter early in December just before the Westmount Municipal Association Open Meeting. It was sent to all homes in Westmount.

The Mayor stated that Westmount urgently needs the project. "The area between Wood-Elm-Greene avenues bounded by Western and St. Catherine has deteriorated in many instances and had shown no signs of redevelopment in the past several years."

"Westmount must go ahead or fall behind. Failure to redevelop will mean the continuing decay of the old buildings with the resulting adverse effect on the City's tax revenues and operations and with detrimental effect on the entire community."

BY-LAW AMENDMENT IS PASSED

To allow the developers to construct 19 21-storey buildings in areas where only six storeys had been permitted City Council passed an amendment to a February zoning by-law covering this time the development area. Opposition to this was immediate. Residents claimed hotly that Council was attempting to "railroad through this important amendment." They said that the city had not given residents sufficient advance notice of intentions.

At the statutory meeting of elector-proprietors, only five registered a protest, half the required number to force a referendum. Other property owners declared that the proposed development would "restore the dignity and prestige of eastern Westmount. The amendment was passed.

WESTERN TO CLOSE

The Examiner learned in December that Western avenue would close during the winter of 1964 for construction of the west-end subway terminus.

For as long as ten months an entire section of the street, from Atwater almost to Green will be blocked to all traffic.

Plans received for study at City Hall show that the main subway platforms will be located astride the Westmount-Montreal boarder a few rods west of Atwater.

ious public works which includes a possible ski run in Summit Park was passed Monday October 4. Largest expenditures will be for new buildings and improvement to the municipal Corporation Yards in the Glen.

Over 500 citizens packed Victoria Hall to debate the merits of the project. Dr. G. A. Copping proposed a motion which was subsequently approved that City Council should give a month instead of eight days between first and second readings of zoning by-laws to provide more time for objectors. It was forwarded to Council for consideration.

Feelings ran high throughout the evening, but after the discussions most citizens voted council a "strong vote of confidence". At the same time they asked that they be kept more fully informed of future developments.

C. P. BEAUBIEN FOR ALDERMAN

The WMA this month chose for alderman C. P. Beaubien, a vice-president of the Aluminum Company of Canada and a former member of the Royal Commission on Publications. He is to replace Ald. Paul A. Ouimet, Commissioner of Public Works who will not seek re-election this month.

Ald. Donald N. Byers was also selected to run for a third term.

Mr. Beaubien later told The Examiner that he would vote against the Association motion to provide more time for objectors to zoning by-laws.

"I firmly believe that it would not be in the best interests of the city to change the law here," said the candidate. "There is no sense in placing a handicap on the work of council as this would be."

TRAFFIC HEADACHE

It was also learned that City Hall traffic experts are currently working feverishly to prevent a possible major traffic headache here later this winter. Both Western avenue and Dorchester boulevard are expected to be totally or partially closed to all motor traffic, leaving only St. Catherine and Sherbrooke to handle the heavy flow of rush hour traffic.

Western will close for construction of the west-end subway terminus while Dorchester will be blocked off for long periods while the roadway is widened.

VOTES $1,523,450

Meanwhile City Council voted $1,523,450 to provide partial payment for 98 properties in the Dorchester area, soon to be redeveloped. It will be paid to the previous owners of the acquired properties in an amount not exceeding the total valuation of land and buildings in each case.

PETITION PREPARED

While Westmount was outwardly quiet during the Christmas season, behind the scenes lawyers were preparing a petition to quash the city's re-zoning amendment. If the petition is passed by Magistrate's Court it will annul the amendment that permits construction of a 19-storey complex at a cost of $20,000,000.

City seeks volunteers

ment's week-long civil protection seminars

Rescue and firefighting

On their return, members of the local forces were trained as instructors. Classes will be held two nights a week for volunteers in two groups: rescue and auxiliary firefighting. At the end of the three months instruction period the groups plan to hold a mass demonstration exercise open to the public.

The authorities noted that, in the case of nuclear attack, the Westmount group would take orders from district one headquarters in Montreal. "Montreal would certainly be one of the target areas and in the case of a direct hit by nuclear bombs, it would be over for us," said a spokesman. "However, a trained Civil Protection force would be of immense value if we should lie further outside the inner ring of destruction."

Quickly mobilized

He said that the force could also be quickly mobilized in the event of a local disaster such as an earthquake or far-spreading fire through a call-back system. Preliminary exercises have begun, he said, and officials recently occupied themselves with a simulated plane crash on Westmount Mountain that would have taken over 100 lives and set ablaze dozens of homes on Summit Circle. "While it was all on paper it was still a most educational experience," the spokesman said. "We're still arguing over proper procedures for maximum efficiency."

By coincidence, several weeks ago, Civil Protection forces from Verdun and St. Laurent rushed to assist at the scene of the St. Therese TCA plane disaster.

"We're starting out the New Year having laid good foundations for an efficient organization here, far in contrast to the civil defence programs of previous years," said Westmount City Manager N. T. Dawe who is co-ordinator for the Civil Protection Group. "There has been excellent cooperation between Federal, Provincial and Municipal authorities all around."

Christian Science

Dependance on God to be emphasized

Man's dependance on God will be emphasized at the service in all Christian Science churches this Sunday, in the reading of the week's Lesson-Sermon on the subject "God." This theme will be developed in the Bible selections, including this from I Chronicles: "Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name;" and in the correlative passages from "Science and Health with key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, including: "No wisdom is wise but His Wisdom; no truth is true no love is lovely, no life is Life but the divine; no good is, but the good God bestows."

Students learn job at police college

AYLMER, Ont. (CP) — The students cry a lot at college here. But they're forgiven for breaking into tears because they spend part of their training at the Ontario Police College in the tear-gas chamber learning how to react at the first whiff of gas.

It's undoubtedly one of the more uncomfortable classes at the college, which has received recruits and police officers since January, 1963.

The college teaches policemen a single standard of law enforcement and creates a more efficient and confident breed of officer.

The recruits go through 12 weeks of classroom work, as well as drill-hall, playing-field and firing-range courses designed to prepare them for almost any emergency.

A 10-week general police training program for officers past the recruit stage — they're usually distinguished by tighter uniforms and heavier breathing during physical training — is more specialized.

The college, housed on the 550-acre site of a former RCAF training base, had put policemen from 113 Ontario municipalities through the various courses by the end of December.

J. L. Mennill, director of the college and its $314,000 annual budget, reported 180 provincial police officers and 184 municipal officers took the courses in 1963.

Besides learning the best way to handle a .38 calibre revolver or a Thompson sub-machine gun on the firing range, the students also pick up tips on public relations from deputy director A. Earl Knight, former London, Ont., police chief.

Jail inmates seek return visit of Unity Boys' Talent Parade

The inmate population of the Federal Training Centre of the St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary have requested a return engagement of the Unity Boys' Club Talent Parade and the date set is January 12.

The Internationally-known Variety Revue which is sponsored by the Unity Boys' Club of Westmount have been entertaining at the Training Centre since June 1956, so this performance marks the eighth consecutive appearance at that Institution.

currently attending McGill University as a student in the Conservatory of Music and is planning a musical career. He has been featured in both radio and television, his latest T.V. appearance has been with the 'Like Young' Show.

Centre with the following other well-known stage and T.V. personalities: The Junior Rockettes, Sharon Syvret, Lois Moore, Wilma Richardson, Karen Hagan, Christine Henson and Patti Ann Fernandes Mario and Matthew Velli, Lindsay and Ricky Johnston, Jimmy and George Luker and Tex Lane and the Westerners, Judy Matthews and Luana Amirault, Lynne Mayotte, Gerald Febrille, the Rythms Eagles.

All About Babies

Once the excitement of a new first baby wears off, father often feels relegated to a back seat. Mother is so busy trying to adjust to her new responsibilities and unaccustomed routines that she finds it difficult to find the time to share her love and affection.

Father finds himself ignored. He often feels neglected, even unwanted. He misses the attention he once received. And he resents it.

If you are running into this problem in your household, here are a few suggestions that will help in making the readjustments:

1. Ask Dad if assume specific responsibilities like giving baby his evening bottle, changing diapers, taking baby out for a stroll on weekends and so on.
2. Discuss problems of raising children with him. Ask him to read the latest information published by child care authorities. Respect his advice.
3. Encourage father to take an active interest in your baby's day to day development. He can keep a photograph album or a diary of baby's growth.
4. Assure Dad that he is still most important to the family. Pay attention to his needs and reassure him frequently of your continued affection.
5. Organize your work schedule so that there is time each evening to spend with your husband — even if it means that the

The marriage of Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurent Turcotte, to Mr. Jean Merrill, son of the late Henri Merrill, took place quietly yesterday in the chapel of St. Leo's Church, Westmount, the Most Rev. Leo Blais officiating.

A New Year's resolution

Would you like to make a New Year's resolution that will improve the general health of your family?

It is easy too. Simply resolve to teach your children the essential facts about nutrition while they are young.

This education will give them a strong foundation for the development of proper eating habits for the rest of their lives, not just the New Year.

As Jeannine Champoux, nutrition consultant for the Province of Quebec, said at a recent bread enrichment conference sponsored by the Montreal Bakers Association: "It is harder to contract poor nutrition habits in older people than it is to teach proper habits to the young."

The essential nutrients are important when one is growing old, of course, but the appreciation of the merits of a sound diet must be gained in the early years. Sensible meal planning will help toward that end.

So if you want your family to look forward to the prospect of good health all their lives, make it a practice now to provide a balanced daily diet.

Remember that variety in meal planning will whet your family's appetite and provide you with an opportunity to include all the wholesome foods with their full quotas of vitamins, proteins and other essentials.

The wise planner knows, too, that enriched white bread which contains significant quantities of the B vitamins, protein and iron, can be used effectively at every meal and in a great many ways.

Here is a list of other foods which should be included in your regular menus to ensure good health:

Animal protein foods such as milk, cheese, eggs, meat, fish and poultry.

Yellow and green vegetables, raw and cooked.

Citrus and other fruits and fruit juices.

Well-cooked cereals.

By serving a variety of these basic foods everyday, you will be contributing to a sound diet which should be reflected in a happier, healthier family . . . this year and every year.

dirty dishes must stay in the sink.

6. Take advantage of all the modern labor saving devices that your budget will allow — like prepared baby foods and diaper service — to give you more valuable spare time.

The important thing is to make Dad know that he is still important to his family. There is no reason why he should feel rejected. He is needed more now than ever before.

Shop the newspaper ads . . . before you buy . . . and keep the savings.

Fashions

A TWO-PIECE affair in crepe turns out to be an over-blouse and skirt with camisole top, which means that the skirt and top can double as a dress.

Slits in the blouse make for an easy fit over the slim skirt, the seams of which are released at about the hip line.

Excellent in black or in colors, this one has a casual chic that lends itself to dressing up or down and so is most useful in a limited wardrobe.

How to cut heating costs

Want to lower heating costs this winter?

Here are some useful hints to help eliminate waste if using oil or other heating forms.

- Maintain inside house temperature at 70 degrees. A higher temperature is wasteful and may be unhealthy. For example, if your thermostat is at 75 degrees and you use 1,500 gallons of oil a year, more than 200 gallons are wasted.

- Be sure to have adequate humidification. Proper relative humidity, about 40 percent, will permit you to maintain lower temperatures and still have adequate comfort.

- Lower the thermostat to 65 degrees during the night. While still maintaining a healthy and suitable temperature, you can realize a savings of five percent in oil consumption during that period.

- Close bedroom doors at night to avoid chilling the rest of the house if bedroom windows are open.

- Close radiators or registers in rooms temporarily or permanently not in use.

- Close damper securely when fireplace is not in use.

- Good weather stripping is effective and inexpensive. It will help keep cold air out of the house and reduce fuel bills.

- To reduce heat loss through windows at night, pull shades over the windows.

- Consideration should be given to installation of storm windows and doors, which, although costing more than regular windows and doors, should soon repay themselves in comfort and heat savings.

University sailors to form Montreal intercollegiate sailing association

Members of three recently formed university sailing clubs (McGill, Sir George Williams and Loyola) met at H.M.C.S. Donnacona recently to take steps to encourage sailing by university students in this area. Brian Moorhouse of S.K.W.U. acted as chairman, pro tem.

Other speakers were W. G. Thomas of R. St.L.Y.C. (chairman of the C.Y.A. Olympic Committee) who outlined the organization of sailing in Canada, mentioning the need for qualified junior instructors, a type of summer work that should appeal to university students. G. Sicotte Hamilton also of R. St.L.V.Y.C. (1st Vice President of the St. Lawrence Valley Yacht Racing Association) spoke of the activities of this Association stating that it might be advantageous to consider affiliation of some sort with S.L.V.Y.R.A.

The meeting passed the following resolutions:

To establish an association for the promotion of inter collegiate sailing in the Montreal area, to be known as the "Montreal Inter Collegiate Sailing Association."

That this Association should be responsible for the organization and co-ordination of Inter Collegiate Racing in the Montreal area.

An interim Executive Committee be established for the new M.I.C.S.A. consisting of two representatives for each of the three clubs now organized, this committee to set up the framework of rules with which the Association will operate.

It was stressed that the purpose of the new Association is mainly to organize and co-ordinate, not to control such sailing and social activities as may be planned in the Montreal area.

It is planned to hold monthly meetings in 1964, the first to take place on Jan. 23.

Player's sponsor bowling festival

CANADA's most improved bowling titles will again be decided in the Player's Bowling Festival.

The country's biggest participant sports event, entered by 125,650 bowlers from coast to coast in 1963, commences registration January 6th at bowling establishments across Canada.

And when the national finals roll around May 23rd, 150 Canadian bowlers will win holidays of a lifetime—trips for two to New York World's Fair and an ocean cruise to Bermuda.

In addition to the trips, four bowlers will be honored by Player's Cigarettes as the country's most improved bowlers in the four categories — duck pins, candlepin, 10 pin and five pin.

The Festival, open to all league bowlers, is a beat-your-average competition in three steps.

Grand champions listed

The 1963 grand champions were: Candlepins — Roger L. Nickerson, Overton, N.S.; Duck Pins — Léopold Gignac, Chicoutimi, Que.; 10 Pins — Gordon Brown, Essex, Ont.; Five Pins — Mrs. Alice Stitt, Port Coquitlam, B.C.

Nickerson, bowling at the YMCA in Yarmouth, topped his registered average by 34 pins, rolling 129.6 in the finals. The duck pin champ, Léopold Gignac, rolled 145 to go 59 pins over his registered average. Gignac is a league bowler at Salon de Quilles in Chicoutimi.

The 10 pin champ, Gordon Brown, exceeded his registered average by 71.6 pins while the grand champ of them all was Mrs. Stitt. She entered the Festival with a registered average of 90 and came up with an amazing 221.3 average in the finals.

In support of this view the petition contends that:

1. Notice to the eligible elector proprietors was given seven days before the enactment instead in the statutory eight day delay. The Charter states that in all cases the day the notice is published shall not be one of the eight days.

2. Because the zoning amendment affected two separate zones two notices should have been set out for two separate meetings. The city held one statutory meeting.

3. All of the elector-proprietors in zones R4 and C4 should have been called to the meeting. Only a fraction of those in both zones were actually notified.

island. The present system is considered too slow to fight the upsurge in crime.

One of her games topped 300 to give her a record 131.3 pins over her average in the five-pin competition.

This season's Festival will again award prizes to the four categories based on registration. Last year, 89,957 entered in five pins, 12,056 in 10 pins, 19,058 in ducks and 4,579 in candlepins.

Under the new system road blocks will be able to be set up immediately following any crime. Rather than converging on the area of the crime the pre-arranged pattern hems in the culprits before they can get too far and it has worked successfully in recent weeks in Montreal. Immediate news on the capture could be flashed in detail to the other suburbs informing them if they are wanted elsewhere.

Westmount Municipal Association
(Founded 1908)

Mr. John J. Segquier
504 Mountain Avenue
Westmount 6, Que.

Dear Mr. Segquier:

Your registered letter in date of November 29, 1963, has unaccountably reached our secretary only on December 13, 1963, but at any rate I had read it in the Westmount Examiner prior to our December 10, 1963 meeting.

The numerous points raised in your letter were all the subject of considerable discussion at the meeting of December 10, and I believe that no useful purpose would be served by my review of the various expressions of opinion that were given then.

Besides affording everybody present at the meeting an opportunity to air his views with respect to the high rise development over the area of Greene Avenue, Elm Avenue, Wood Avenue, St. Catherine Street and Western Avenue, and to express his approval or disapproval over the handling by the Council of this issue, two positive, concrete resolutions were passed by the Association:

The first resolution recommended to the Westmount City Council that it give consideration to amend the City Charter so that the delay between first and second reading of zoning by-laws amendments be extended from its present eight days minimum to a 30-day minimum. After considerable discussion pro and con, the resolution carried by a small majority.

The second resolution was in the form of a motion of confidence in the Council of the City of Westmount and this motion carried almost unanimously. There were approximately a dozen who voted against this motion of confidence out of a total of some 500. You ask in the last paragraph of your letter "Is it too much to ask our Association to take the trouble to declare publicly its stand in this matter?" I believe that the WMA has answered this question adequately at the meeting of December 10, 1963.

Yours truly,

JEAN H. RICHER,
President

An OPEN LETTER

To The

Westmount Municipal Association!

December 31st, 1963

Mr. J. H. Richer,
President,
Westmount Municipal Association

Dear Mr. Richer,

It was with some surprise that I learned from your letter dated 24th December that my letter of November 29th reached your Secretary "unaccountably" only on the 13th December (i.e. after the meeting of the Westmount Municipal Association) although it was properly addressed and mailed registered. WHAT A CONVENIENT COINCIDENCE!

You say at the end of your letter that you believe that the WMA answered my question adequately at its meeting on December 10th 1963. Far from it, I say.

1. You omitted to answer my question, why was the WMA never consulted nor informed of the proposed amendment to by-law 655 (concerning re-zoning). The WMA was left in such darkness that although they sent out two communications to their members (November 15th and 28th 1963), not one word was uttered about this proposed amendment. The outstanding obligation of the WMA is to keep their members well informed all the time. YOU AND THE WMA failed completely on this account.

Not one, I repeat not one of the Executives of the WMA (they are 45 in number) stood up and said: "You, Mayor, and you, Members of the City Council did not consult us, did not inform us. It is your fault that we (WMA) could not inform our members and the citizens of Westmount at large. You went even further by pushing this amendment through with all available speed. If this re-zoning is so beneficial to the citizens of Westmount, why was it necessary to be so secretive about it and why was this by-law not discussed here before enacting it?"

SHALL I INFER THAT ALL 45 MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE CONCURRED WITH THE ACTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL AND ABANDONED ALL INDIVIDUAL OPINION AND SUSPENDED ALL CRITICAL JUDGMENT ALTOGETHER.

2. As President of the WMA, you allowed to Professor Spence-Sales (who is employed by the promoters) a very considerable length of time to let him explain the project in question. WHY DID YOU NOT CONSIDER TO GIVE THE SAME OPPORTUNITY FOR THE SAME LENGTH OF TIME TO THE OPPOSITION, enabling them to explain coherently their stand in the matter?

3. You say that the first resolution recommending a 30-day delay between readings was carried by a small majority. Well, it may have looked small from your point of view, to others it appeared at least two-thirds majority, if not more. (It would be advisable to have a secret ballot next time and so avoid individual guess work.)

One can feel how reluctant you are and those who share your opinion on the Executive, to have even this 30-day delay between readings incorporated; although the resolution was motioned by a former Executive of the WMA, a very highly esteemed and public spirited citizen and who was not even a member of the opposition.

ARE YOU NOT AWARE THAT BY DISREGARDING SO FLAGRANTLY THE DESIRE OF THE MAJORITY, YOU ARE DESTROYING THE USEFULNESS OF THE WESTMOUNT MUNICIPAL ASSOCIATION?

Yours truly,

JOHN J. SEQUIER
