LOAN TOTAL BREAKS RECORDS

Westmount Soars Over Objective Reaching 145%

Organizers of Unit 201 National War Finance Committee extend to the citizens of the Westmount District, warm appreciation of their splendid showing in the 8th Victory Loan Campaign.

Never before have the sales organization of this Unit received such courteous cooperation from investors in the District. The net result has been that all records have been shattered both from a standpoint of total dollar volume and number of applications received.

It is evident from the latter figure that many citizens who have not previously bought Victory Loan Bonds have taken this opportunity of sharing in Canada's future and "Saying Thanks with Bonds".

★ Once again Westmount District has "put it over!"

Opened Bible Lights Church War Memorial

When the minister enters the pulpit and opens the Bible, one part of the opened volume will depress a switch which will result in the church dome being flood lighted by concealed lamps during the time service is being held, and becoming darkened again with the closing of the Book.

Such is the nature of the Memorial Light planned by the Westminster Central United Church to commemorate those church members who took part in the second world war.

The annual Mother and Daughter banquet took place in the Church Hall, organized by Miss Dorothy Weir, who has performed

An informal gathering of the Unit Headquarters staff and sales personnel of Unit 201 was held at the Mount Stephen Club. At this gathering His Worship Mayor Adams expressed, on behalf of the citizens of Westmount, his appreciation of the untiring efforts of every member of the Unit during this most successful Campaign. In addition to the Mayor, guests included Messrs. Ross Clarkson, Andrew Beaubien, A. S. Torrey, Gerald Barry, James Douglas, Lt.-Col. Stewart McTier, Lt.-Col. Gerald Hanson and Representatives from Branch Banks within the District.

Vandals Damage Church Windows

Stone throwing by irresponsible youths has resulted in considerable damage to the leaded window on the port side of Westminster, Central Church on Atwater Avenue.

Dr. Donald R. Morrison states that considerable expense has been caused by this type of vandalism, which appears to have become a regular occurrence, this being the third occasion within a few months that this window has been broken.

Eight panes of the large window must be replaced as a result of last week's maliciousness, and police are now seeking the culprits.

CROIX DE GUERRE

Major A. de Lotbiniere MacDonald, Greene Avenue, received word that his brother-in-law, Lt. Colonel John H. Minton, in civilian life an executive of the Brooklyn Edison Co., at present with the American Army in Europe, has been decorated with the Croix de Guerre with Palm.

PORTRAIT WINS

Tom Hall's portrait in oils of Louis Chicanot won first place in a public poll of the "picture they liked best" in the recent exhibition of paintings held in the Victoria Hall by the Independent Art Association.

Octave Gauthier's "Hay Cart" won second choice as the next best in public opinion, awards will be given to both artists.

Well Attended Special Service Combines Events

Services in Calvary Church on Sunday, combined the Day of Empire Thanksgiving for Victory in Europe and the annual Mother's Day festival.

The morning service was attended by a contingent of the Canadian Women's Army Corps, who with their Officers paraded from the St. Sulpice Barracks.

Boy Scouts and Cubs of Calvary Church also attended service with their Officers. Capt. the Rev. T. W. Jones, the minister, in the course of his address called attention to the mottoes of these two organizations, "Be Prepared" for the Scouts and "Do Your Best" for the Cubs.

An interesting feature of the morning service was the baptism of a little baby girl, Barbara Ann Stewart, brought to the church by her mother, a Scottish war bride of George Russell Stewart, who is still serving overseas with the Canadian Forces. He is known to many of the boys, particularly of Westmount, as Scotty Stewart, who took a large part in the organization and management of the Pee Wee Hockey Club, playing on the Staynor Avenue Rink. Scotty has been overseas throughout almost the entire period of the war. His charming bride, and her little daughter, received a hearty welcome from the congregation.

The evening service was attended by a large number of members of the Quebec Grand Chapter Order of The Eastern Star under the Grand Worthy Matron, Esther B. West, of Quebec, and Grand Worthy Patron, Edgar Eaman, of Montreal. Members of Remembrance Branch, Canadian Legion, together with officers and members of the Westmount Branch, Canadian Legion, and members of the Montreal Gyro Club and the Gyrette organization

Quebec Humour Boundless Says Railway Executive

"Canadian Humour" was the attractive subject of an illuminating address by A. A. Gardner, General Passenger Traffic Manager, Canadian National Railways, to the Rotary members at the Victoria Hall.

In a masterly treatment of his theme, enhanced by the speaker's mastery of mimicry combined with extensive travel and association with many celebrities, Mr. Gardner displayed excellent knowledge of his subject.

Humour, the speaker said, is not confined to any country, creed or class, but is universal, and he drew attention to the fact the culture of any country could be fairly accurately judged by the degree of kindness shown in the national brand of humour.

Mr. Gardner stated that an analysis of humour will reveal the great part played by contrast and repetition and as an illustration gave the example of a child just learning to walk, who, after failing in several attempts finally

AIR CADETS LEARN OCEAN ROUTES

KNOW YOUR WESTMOUNT

Question: "Is it true the Melville Presbyterian Church was founded before 1900?"

Answer: Yes, the beginning of Melville Presbyterian Church was a Sabbath school in the summer of 1869 started under the supervision of the elders of Erskine Church, Montreal. A number of Presbyterians had settled in what was then the Cote St. Antoine district and the distance to the city Sabbath Schools was too far for their children to attend. Wm. Rutherford furnished a room for the school in which to carry on its work, but this was soon found inadequate to accommodate the increasing attendance of children. The Hon. Judge Torrance secured a larger and more suitable building. This, too, was soon inadequate.

The need of proper accommodation not only for Sunday School work, but for purposes of Christian worship for the newcomers to the district, who had little or no connection with the city churches was soon evident and in response to a petition, the Presbytery of Montreal organized the congregation of Melville Church, Cote St. Antoine. The official date was 17th November, 1885. Of the original members, so far as is now known, all have passed on to the Church Invisible, but their children and grandchildren still carry on the work.

The first building erected was on what is now the site of the present St. Andrew's Church hall. The first minister called was the Rev. J. MacGillivray, and it is of interest to know that in the history of the congregation and its vacancies one of those "approached" was the Rev. C. W. Gordon, familiarly known to all Canadians as "Ralph Connor" but for some reason the negotiations fell through.

Owing to a division in the congregation about the end of last century and the growth of population in the district, the Presbytery of Montreal made a separation, gave the name and certain funds to a group who proceeded to build the present edifice on what was then Elgin Avenue, renamed Melville Avenue, in respect for the church, a most unusual honor; as records are few, if any, of a street being named after a church. In the church union scheme of 1925, Melville members lost their property by a very small majority vote. For some time they worshipped in Victoria Hall until they were able to buy back their properties under the provisions of the provincial commission set up to rectify certain injustices created by the act. Under the leadership of able men the church and manse were renovated and Melville proceeded to carry on.

Though the membership has never been a large one, Melville has been and is one of the largest givers per capita to missions and other enterprises of the denomination. Among its members it has counted men who have held high office in church and community. It has always been closely identified with the work of the Presbyterian College through its membership. Its services, past and present, have been in keeping with the highest and best standards of Presbyterian worship, especially those of Baptism, Holy Communion and Burials. The beautiful situation of the church facing Westmount Park as well as its charming interior and the dignity of the service have made the church a popular one for weddings.

Quebec Humour

catches hold of the table-cloth in a final effort to arise.

Dealing with Canadian humour, he paid tribute to the late Stephen Leacock, and expanding his field, related how the geographical divisions and the cosmopolitan population was reflected in Canadian Humour.

West coast humour, he said, was always prefaced with the personal touch, no matter how long ago or how old a story might be, the story teller always started off with the words "I remember." Rocky Mountains and prairie humour usually had nature as the central core and the newcomer to the country as the recipient. Central Canada's humour was about equally divided between the American brand, with the sting at the tail end, and the English futuristic design, which bears fruit in later life, while the Maritime humour has a strong resemblance to the Glengarry highland form in which the subject's complete life is related.

Quebec humour is unbounded, Mr. Gardner said, and expressed the hope that, some day, some one would devote the time necessary for a compilation of the racy Gaelic humour of this province, the humour of the habitant, he said, is a treasure house of valuable material.

Rotarian H. Welham thanked the speaker for his courtesy and Rotarian Ewart Iverson tendered the good wishes of the Vancouver Rotary Club to the members.

Les Williams, from the Young Men's section Board of Trade, asked for the co-operation and support of the Club in the Annual City-Wide Clean-Up, Paint-Up campaign.

Rotarian Iverson drew the members' attention to the program for the Carnival, and emphasized the fact that while time was running short, there still remained thirty-five per cent of advertisement commitments which require attention. Rotarian Medlar led the singing and Rotarian Callard read a letter of commendation for Rotarian's Moxley's work with the boys of the Unity Club. Rotarian A. A. Boire was the chairman.

Miss Wilma Gardner, "Church of all Nations." The speaker was thanked by Joyce Pim. Presentation of a silver coffee set to Miss Weir with an address was the pleasant duty of Miss Donalda Morrison.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Stewards it was decided to undertake the complete re-decoration of the church, services will be held in the church hall during the period of renovation. At the re-opening services the memorial light and a Youth's Chapel which has been planned by the Young People's Union will be dedicated.

U.S. stamp taxes were paid on more than 45,350,000 packs of playing cards during a single year.

Stanley Presbyterian

Every Friday morning at 11 a.m. the ladies of the Church meet for a service of Prayer and Intercession on behalf of those serving in the armed forces of the nation. Although V-E Day has come, these services will be continued, for there are still many most difficult problems to be solved yet, and the statesmen as well as the soldiers still need desperately the prayers of Christian people.

A Communicants' Class for those intending to unite with the Church by profession of faith will be held every Sunday at the close of the evening service of worship.

In aid of the Tyndale Mission for the underprivileged, the ladies of Stanley Church are holding a tea tomorrow in Franklin Hall Memorial from 3.30 p.m. to 5 p.m.

PRISONER FREED

The 1945 boxing team of St. Leo's put on an exhibition boxing show for the benefit of Merchant Navy men in the Merchant Navy Hall.

The profound sympathy of the staff and student body is extended to the family of Lt. John O'Reilly who was killed in action. Johnny was well known as a splendid athlete and a true sportsman and his death has been keenly felt by all who knew him and his brother, James Patrick O'Reilly another former St. Leo's great, who also met his end on active service overseas.

Milton Orr, all round athlete from 1940 to 1944 at the Academy, has a date with H.M.R.C. Navy, and dons Navy rig with the good wishes of his many friends at St. Leo's.

Eddie Lafontaine's Grey are out in front in the Bantam League; nice going Eddie, keep up the good work.

Tiny Hudon has recovered from the effect of his V-E Day celebration, and Stew Daley's sang froid in the matter of an unscheduled shower on the same day is the subject of much admiring comment.

St. Andrew's Church

The Chairman of the Montreal Presbytery, Rev. R. K. Fairbairn, M.A., B.D., will be the guest preacher at St. Andrew's Church Sunday morning. In the evening, Rev. Gerald Fee will take as his subject: "The Power of God in the Lives of Men."

The St. Andrew's pulpit has been occupied by visiting ministers for over a year. Rev. Mr. Fairbairn is the last of the many great preachers who have graciously taken the services while the church was without a senior minister. Commencing the following Sunday, however, St. Andrew's will have its own pastor. Next week the Rev. D. M. Grant will be inducted as minister of St. Andrew's Church, Westmount. He will conduct his first services in the morning and evening of Sunday, May 27th.

Rev. Mr. Grant will be inducted by the officers of Montreal Presbytery at 8 p.m. a week on Friday, in St. Andrew's Church. Among those taking part in the service are Rev. Harvey Campbell, Dr. William Munroe, Dr. Leslie Pidgeon, Rev. George Goth and Rev. R. K. Fairbairn. After the induction there will be a reception in the church hall.

Westmount Joins Clean Up Drive Covering Island

This year, for the first time, the City of Westmount is actively participating in Montreal's annual Clean-Up Campaign, it was stated today at campaign headquarters. Not only is the city supporting the drive, officials said, but Mayor Adams and City Manager P. E. Jarman, set the example by posing for photographs in connection with the campaign.

In offering their support to the drive, city officials indicated that the authorities make every effort during clean-up time, and at all times, to keep parks and streets clean and attractive. It was felt, however, that citizens might cooperate in the disposal of their own clean-up refuse. The city's cleaning department have received complaints that citizens rake their trash into the gutter where it may remain for some time if not brought to the attention of the authorities.

This year, also for the first time, the committee is introducing Montreal's Paint-Up Girl and in this role, Miss Ruth Jardine will be the central figure of the campaign. In order to bring the ideals of the campaign to the attention of as wide an audience as possible Miss Jardine will appear in the press, on the screen, and on the radio.

Missing Dog Causes Grief For School Girl

"Please give me back my dog," is the wail of a fretting child for a wire-haired terrier with brown ears which thought almost as much of the little girl, for it was as the affectionate dog was patiently waiting for her to come out of school the separation came.

Picking up the dog in Westmount Park a lady, thinking the dog a stray or lost, carried it away and so there was no joyous bark or friendly greeting from the schoolgirl's canine companion as she came home.

Parents inserted the Advertisement so anxiously worded on behalf of the child who misses her pet and offer a generous reward for its return.

Weredale Winners Receive Awards

The annual distribution of prizes to outstanding students who have won honors in the scholastic and athletic activities during the past school year will take place tonight in the House Hall. Three special prizes, the Dr. W. Grant Stewart Memorial Prize for general proficiency, the A. D. Thornton Memorial Prize for Progress and the A. W. Horsey prize for Mathematics will be awarded.

Members of the House Board and friends will be present and a concert sponsored by the Montreal Rotary Club will follow the prize-giving ceremony.

bomber pilot of the R.C.A.F., is now reported to be liberated and safe in England. His father, E. A. MacNutt, 4308 Montrose Avenue, who is vice-president and treasurer of the Sun Life Assurance Company, said that the telegram bringing the long-awaited news was sent directly from England by his son.

In the wire, W.O. MacNutt also disclosed the fact that he was held with other Canadians in a Nazi camp somewhere between Hanover and Bremen. The son of the late Mrs. MacNutt, he is married to the former Dorothy Ruth Bennett and has a small daughter, Judy.

LIBERATED

Flying Officer John Dalton Harvie, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Harvie of Westmount, reported missing July 4th, 1944, and after five months reported prisoner of war at Stalag Luft 111 in Germany. Was liberated and arrived safely in England, according to official news received from Ottawa.

Born in Ottawa, 21 years of age, he was educated at Argyle and Westmount High Schools, graduated in 1940, with Canadian Car and Foundry for two years before enlisting in 1942. Received navigator's "wing" and commission at Portage La Prairie, Man., in June 1943, and posted immediately overseas to the "Porcupine" Squadron, R.C.A.F. Bomber Command.

Older brother F/O. Robert Harvie, R.C.A.F. lost his life in raid on Berlin, January, 1943, and younger brother, David Harvie is at present training as a paratrooper at Shilo, Man.

RETIREES ON PENSION

Ramsay Gray Gage, 4808 Grosvenor Ave., chief electrical engineer Canadian National Railways, has retired under the pension plan of the Company. He graduated from Queen's University with a B.Sc. degree in 1901.

During his thirty-one years of service with the Canadian National Railways, Mr. Gage has been identified with many important electrical developments. These included Diesel-electric locomotives and cars pioneered in Canada by the Canadian National Railways and the installation of the electrification system for the Montreal Terminal Development.

Mr. Gage was presented with Victory Bonds at a recent gathering of fellow officers in the Head Office Board Room, presided at by N. B. Walton, executive vice-president, who spoke of his efficient railway service. Among those present was R. C. Vaughan, chairman and president, who also paid tribute to Mr. Gage's many years of faithful service to the Canadian National Railways.

Flanagan Says Good Planning Badly Needed

The mistakes of the past must not be repeated after the war, said Dr. J. C. Flanagan, C.C.F. federal candidate for Westmount-St. Antoine, in a broadcast over CFCF.

"Victory in Europe has brought us to a crossroads," asserted Dr. Flanagan. "One branch leads to greater prosperity and a fuller life than the people of Canada have ever known. The other road leads to hopeless depression."

The realistic C.C.F. program, he continued, included planned production to meet our people's needs, and to make full use of the talents and skills of scientists, artists and workers of all kinds. Reminding his listeners that good things can be badly misused, he said that control of production should be in the hands of all the people who suffer in depressions and fight and pay for wars.

Dr. Flanagan said that when war plants have stopped turning out munitions they should all be converted to supplying peacetime needs, thus helping to provide full employment.

No competent employee and no owner of a small business has anything to fear from a C.C.F. government, said Dr. Flanagan. Even in the case of monopolies, which would be nationalized, only the ownership would change, and the only difference to employees was that they would be working for the public welfare, instead of against it.

Henry Morgan Co. Centennial Show A Fashion Event

A hundred years of fashion will be on display for Montrealers during the hundredth birthday celebrations of Henry Morgan and Company, Canada's oldest department store, this month. Authentic costumes going back as far as 1845, the year Henry Morgan of Glasgow, Scotland, first opened his Montreal drygoods shop are now being assembled for the centennial and many of them will be used in historical displays in the store's St. Catherine street windows.

Morgan's was first introduced to Montreal during the days of small crowded shops, concentrated along Notre Dame street, and grand carriages. Madame matched silks and ribbons by lamplight and practically all the materials and goods she bought were imported from the Old Country. If the cloth that was particularly desired was not on the shelves then there was nothing madame could do but wait for the next consignment—due in six or eight weeks.

Montreal women made their own clothes in those days, or had them made by a skilled dress-maker. There was none of today's smart ready-to-wear, none of the brilliant showcases and racks of smart, inexpensive gowns. Shopping was done in a more formal way, too. Clerks behind the counter wore formal attire and were carefully groomed. They bowed politely and treated their fair customers as they would a charming partner at a dance.

The founder of the store, Henry Morgan, took an active part in selling merchandise as well as in buying it. It was by no means unusual to see him slope a roll of carpet over his shoulder and march up the lamp-lit stairs to the storage and reserve rooms above. He was almost always the first to arrive in the morning and the last to leave at night.

Since that brave beginning Morgan's has grown with the community. There is no record of the number of Montreal women who have shopped there over the century but Morgan's point with pride to the fact that many of the family names on their earliest ledgers are still found among their purchase orders today. Grandmothers, mothers and daughters have shopped at Morgan's and the costumes they have worn during the first hundred years will combine to make up Montreal's century of fashion.

Two girls were discussing a favorite topic—man.

The brunette hesitated not a moment. "Appearance," she replied, "and the sooner the better."

John Bracken — The Man

John Bracken, the son of a farmer Ephraim Bracken and his wife, Alberta, was born in a log cabin in Ellisville, Leeds County, Ontario, on the 22nd of June, 1883.

Here, briefly chronicled, are the main events in the life of John Bracken:

- 1898 - Student at Brockville Collegiate, Ontario.
- 1902-5 Student at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph. He won four scholarships, the Governor-General's Medal, was top honours student and class medalist. Here, too, he met Alice Wylie Bruce.
- 1906 - Young Bracken went to Winnipeg as representative of the Seeds Branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture.
- 1907 - In the neighbouring Province of Saskatchewan, John Bracken became Superintendent of Fairs and Farmers' Institutes and Secretary of the Provincial Livestock Association.
- 1910 - John Bracken was appointed Professor of Field Husbandry at the new University of Saskatchewan. He took the first train to Guelph, Ontario, married Alice Wylie Bruce. Four sons were born—three of whom are now on Active Service with the Navy, Army and Air Force.
- 1920 - Already the author of two books on agriculture, John Bracken became President of the Manitoba Agricultural College.
- 1922 - John Bracken accepted the leadership of the Progressive Farmer Government, was sworn in as Prime Minister of Manitoba.

Now began the political life of the most continuously successful political leader the Empire has produced in this century. Since that day—from 1922 to 1942—John Bracken has never been defeated.

- 1932 - The Liberals joined John Bracken's farmer government.
- 1940 - All the other political parties, including the C.C.F. and Social Creditors, threw in their fortunes with a great leader forming a wartime Coalition Manitoba government.
- 1942 - The year of John Bracken's great decision. John Bracken, the Progressive, accepted the national leadership of a great resurgent people's party—The Progressive Conservatives.

An Attic Salt-Shaker

By W. Orton Tewson

THE INABILITY of Professor Einstein to say "No" to anything or anybody, when his sympathies have been aroused, is illustrated by an amusing incident related by Dimitri Marianoff — who is Einstein's stepson-in-law (in his revealing book, "Einstein: An Intimate Study of a Great Man"—written in collaboration with Palma Wayne.) It happened some years ago in Princeton. One day a representative of a well-known elevator company called up Dr. Abraham Flexner, saying they had an order to install an elevator in Professor Albert Einstein's home, and Dr. Flexner had been given as a reference.

FLEXNER answered "Most certainly I can give him a reference and a good one, but please do not go any further with this order until I verify it for you."

As there are only two floors in the Princeton house, with but a short flight of steps between them, Flexner could not possibly see where an elevator could be installed. He rang Einstein on the telephone.

"I THINK THERE must be a grave mistake here, Albert," said Flexner. "Did you give an order to a representative of an elevator company to put one in your house?"

"Yes, I did." The voice that came over the wire was very meek.

"In heaven's name, Albert, what would you do with an elevator?" inquired Flexner.

"I do not know," answered Einstein, "but the man who came to interest me in it—I liked him so much, I could not say no to him."

MEN WHO HAVE been in the front lines of battle know why we must buy so many War Bonds to back the attack. For instance, Joe James Custer, noted foreign correspondent, was talking with a friend on the deck of the cruiser "Astoria"—then a few hours away from Guadalcanal and the opening of the Solomons campaign.

"We talked about the high cost of war," recalls Custer (in "Through the Perilous Night"—his stirring experiences on the Pacific battle fronts.) "Carriers cost something like $25,000,000 to build. Eight-inch shells cost $218 apiece—it cost $1,962 to fire one nine-gun salvo. The five-inch shells were $78 apiece, the one-point shells, $1.50, the 20-millimeter, 30 cents. A special anti-aircraft cruiser carried sixteen five-inch guns, she was a regular 'spendthrift' in action. We were going to spend a lot of the government's money starting at dawn."

HENRY CLAPP, first "King of Bohemia" in the U.S.A., who reigned over his subjects—in Pfaff's beer-cellar on Broadway, New York, "a few doors above Bleecker Street"—from A.D. 1854 to 1875, said more "good things" than any other American journalist of his time, says Albert Parry (in "Garrets and Pretenders: A History of Bohemianism in America.") For example: Once, on hearing from William Dean Howells that he and Nathaniel Hawthorne were shy when meeting each other, Clapp dubbed them a "couple of shysters."

"EINSTEIN was bombarded by petitions of every kind, and he would sign his name merely for the asking because his sympathies were quickly aroused," declares Mr. Marianoff. "On different occasions after he had signed, and when it was discovered it would not be wisdom to permit his name to be used for certain public enterprises, he would have to write, much to his chagrin, a letter recalling his signature."

IN A FOREWORD to his new book, "Woodrow Wilson and the Lost Peace," Thomas A. Bailey, professor of History at Stanford University, tells this against himself:

"Several years ago, after I had delivered what was doubtless too pontifical a lecture on the mistakes of Wilson and others at the Paris Peace Conference, one of the girls in the class came up to the lectern to ask a routine question. When she had gone I noticed that she had inadvertently left behind a copy of the university news sheet, on the margin of which she had scrawled, evidently for the edification of her neighbor, 'Too bad Bailey couldn't have been there to tell them how to do it.'"

AND CUSTER, had he known beforehand, might have added $40,000,000 more to this bill. Within forty-eight hours the Japs were to sneak into Guadalcanal to sink four cruisers, the "Astoria" included — price, $10,000,000 apiece.

AS AN ADMIRER of Ada Clare (first "Queen of Bohemia" in the U.S.A.), and the champion of women's place in the Arts, Clapp wrote about a newly born weekly: "As there appear to be no lady contributors to the 'Nation,' it has been suggested that for this and other reasons its name be changed to the 'Stag-Nation.'"

And here's a hot one: On another occasion he remarked: "The daily papers have taken to boasting that everything they print is stereotyped; we thought that this fact had been patent from the beginning."

LINGERING with Artemus Ward at Pfaff's Bar in the summer of 1863, Clapp saw a telegram from California just handed to the "embryo lecturer"—meaning Artemus: "What will you take for forty nights in California?" Clapp puckered his bushy eyebrows and advised: "Brandy and soda, answer them." Artemus did ● Bowling is a great conditioner, with the big-pin game a perennial favourite. There is nothing complicated about this popular alley pastime; how well you do depending on how seriously you take it. You can readily give your average a big lift by practising regularly and by studying the motions of the experts, as shown in detail in comprehensive, easily read, text books. Here we illustrate a few elementary pointers to help you get started on bowling as a part of your own physical fitness programme.

Harold M. Campbell, outstanding Montreal bowler, who last year averaged 194 in 81 strings and has a high single of 278, as well as pinfall of 684 for three strings, demonstrates his delivery.

FINE DISPLAY OF FLAGS

After the news that V-E Day had arrived, the flags and bunting came out all over this district. Almost every house and business establishment hung out at least one flag. One wondered where they all came from. The community was in carnival spirits and showed it with a fine patriotic display of Union Jacks, Red Ensigns, and flags of various of the United Nations.

A FITTING WAR MEMORIAL

The appeal of the Montreal Sailors Institute for funds to erect a fitting memorial to the men of the merchant navy will meet with a ready response in this district, we are sure. For many years the Institute has done splendid work for sailormen, and no better war memorial could be conceived than a new plant for their use. The proposed new building will cater to the men who sail the seven seas in as complete a manner as possible, and will constitute a lasting memorial to those who braved the perilous wartime seas in order that supplies and equipment from this continent could get to our allies overseas. When you are asked to contribute, give generously.

HOW TO CURE INSOMNIA

Probably there are as many cures for insomnia as for colds, writes William Feather. In our reading we have encountered three advocates of a system that appeals to us, and that we have followed with satisfactory results.

This system was used in the eighteenth century by Samuel Johnson and is currently used by David Grayson and Bob Davis, well-known writers.

Johnson told Boswell, in commenting on the proper method of diverting one's distressing thoughts, "No, Sir. To attempt to think them down is madness. He should have a lamp constantly burning in his bedchamber during the night, and if wakefully disturbed, take a book, and read, and compose himself to rest."

"This recipe I have often tried and know well that it works," says David Grayson.

Bob Davis wrote that one night thirty years ago he was unable to sleep. Rising, he looked in the mirror and noticed that he needed a shave. He shaved leisurely, turned back to bed, and slept soundly. Since then he has not fought wakefulness, but has accepted it. He reads, makes notes, bathes, or goes to the kitchen for a bite to eat. His theory is that the best sleep is that which follows the slump into unconsciousness. Two spells of "fresh" rest are better than one prolonged sleep. Two or three hours of activity in the middle of the night, stolen from eight hours of solid sleep, are net gain.

PHONEY PRESCRIPTIONS

Let's consider the shoe "doctor." In buying a pair of shoes, an associate informed the salesman that size 9C and 9C only, would fit his foot.

After our friend had made his selection and had been fitted, he complained that the new shoes were uncomfortable. He told this to the salesman, and was promptly informed by the "doctor" that the shoes were size 9½A; that he had not a single pair of 9C in that particular line in stock.

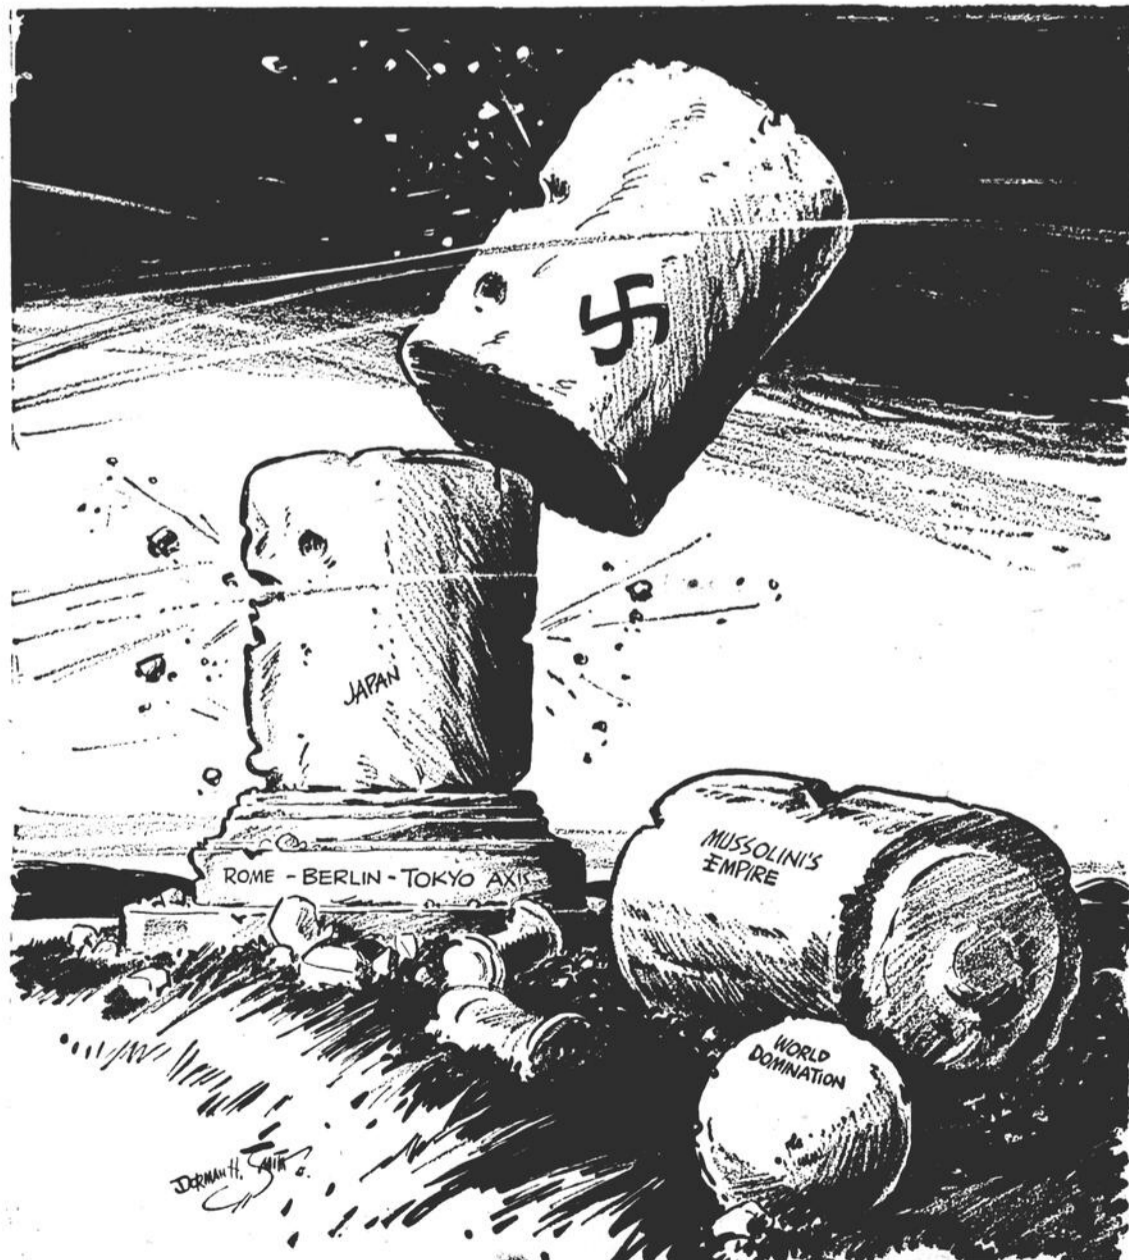

"But that will be all right," the "doctor" assured him. "I've compensated for the loss of width by giving you extra length."

All too many businesses employ "doctors," "experts," and "engineers" to write such phoney prescriptions. Their motto: "If we haven't got what they want, sell 'em what we got." In other words, the "doctors" are simply high-pressure salesmen.

SPEED THE PARTING GUEST

Speed the parting guest. No one can be so welcome a guest that he will not annoy his host after three days. (Plautus) . . . After three days men grow weary of a wench, a guest, and rainy weather. (Benjamin Franklin) . . . Every guest hates the others, and the host hates them all. (Albanian proverb) . . . The guest of the hostess gets better fare than the guest of the host. (Finnish proverb) . . . A man who stays a week with another, makes him a slave for a week. (Samuel Johnson) . . . Visits always give pleasure—if not the coming, then the going. (Portuguese proverb).—From Mencken's A New Dictionary of Quotations.

MONUMENT TO STUPIDITY

THE FORUM

Conducted by HOWARD S. ROSS, K.C., D.C.L.

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

The opinions expressed in this Forum are not necessarily those of this newspaper, and it does not accept responsibility for them.

At the Royal Commission at Vancouver evidence was given pro and con as to whether or not the rebates paid to members of co-operatives should be taxed. 21 briefs were filed, 15 being presented by co-ops.

Among the witnesses, the testimony given by Mrs. Simpson of the Massett Clam Diggers Co-op brought out (so the newspapers reported) most effectively the social and economic significance of the movement. She outlined the economic distress of the clam diggers and how through their society $150,000 was paid in wages during the past three years. Before organizing they had received 1½ cent a pound for clams and when organized they received 4 cents per pound.

Of particular interest is the latest poll taken by the Canadian Institute of Public Opinion, of which Dr. George Gallup is the head, with respect to the trend of political sentiment in the Dominion. The poll is the first taken since the date of the general election was announced and the second this year.

The result of the poll shows that if the election were held today, the Liberals would elect the largest group. Despite the claims of rival parties the strength of public sentiment behind the present government remains unchanged. The percentage of that strength is 36 compared with 29 per cent for the Progressive Conservatives, 20 for the C.C.F. and 15 per cent for other groups.

In this latest sampling of public opinion, people were asked which party they would vote for if an election were held today. Similar polls have been conducted periodically since January, 1942. At that time 55 per cent said they would vote for the Liberals, 31 per cent for the Conservatives and 8 per cent for the C.C.F. This popularity of the Liberal party slumped later that year and through 1943. In September of that year, the Liberals attracted 28 per cent of popular support the Conservatives 28 and the C.C.F. 29 per cent.

Since then, the Liberal barometer steadily rose again to 36 per cent in September, 1944, and has remained there ever since, despite the "crisis" of November, the dismissal of Col. Ralston and the North Grey by-election. What it all portends is uncertain. One reasonable conclusion is that Mr. Bracken's leadership of the Progressive Conservatives has lost some of its force. Another is that the largest group remains of the opinion still that Mackenzie King is without an adequate heir to the prime ministership. But it is too early to base predictions on the latest poll. The end of the war in Europe would shift sentiment considerably.

Scanning the New Year's honors list, The Peterborough Examiner indulges in a bit of good humor. Of course, it singles out Lloyd George, that "great commoner," and finds some irony in the fact that "the radical who did more than anyone else to tumble down the castles and stately homes of England" has now become a belted earl. Lloyd George, it may be mentioned, merely followed the excellent example of another "great commoner," the late Lord Balfour.

In any case, the Peterborough editor finds it worthy of remark that "radicals, if they live long enough and are lucky, usually end up in the seats of the mighty." That, doubtless, is as it should be. The radicalism of today is the conservatism of tomorrow. Apropos of that, The Examiner forecasts that the grandchildren of the fiery Welsh Wizard will eventually become fine, crusted Tories. "We also notice with a broad grin," adds the Examiner, "that the Secretary of the Boiler-makers' Union and the Iron and Steel Shipbuilders' Union is now Sir Mark Hodgson; the children of a knight, naturally, will not be expected to make boilers or build ships."

As to the latter The Examiner may be assuming too much, but the broad lesson is clear. British nobility, including orders of chivalry and all the panoply of that ancient tradition is (and has been for a long time) democratic. The fact does not seem to have been quite realized as yet, by the Governmental Powers That Be at Ottawa, which condone and even welcome certain orders and decorations, while balking at even a lowly baronetcy. But the fact is there just the same.

Questions were recently raised in the House of Commons, London, as to the support of children of Canadian and American soldiers in Britain. It was stated that some members of the forces had refused to "accept any liability" for such children. Some members asked for "representation of several governments abroad." The Dominions' Under-secretary said the question would require legislation both in Britain and abroad.

What has been called by critics a "model plan" for the rehabilitation of former employees now in armed services is the Special Reserve Scheme of the Fraser Companies Limited, and the Restigouche Company Limited of Edmundson, New Brunswick, pulp and paper manufacturers. The plan can provide returning veterans with lifelong security if they add what they have saved with the company to what they will receive in the way of gratuities and re-establishment credit from the Government. American publications have called it "model" and many large firms in the U.S. are studying its possibilities.

American troops moved into the 300-room Rhine Castle of Her Royal Highness Princess Valérie-Marie of Schleswig Holstein wife of Prince Englebert-Charles of Arenburg who said: "I would not put servants in the quarters the Americans asked me to live in. Imagine me getting along in 14 rooms!" The 45 year old Princess is a descendant of Queen Victoria.

The new plan of the education department of Ont. for systematic Bible teaching in the schools is being tried out. The program of studies for both public and separate schools states that "the schools of Ontario exist for the purpose of preparing children to live in a democratic society which bases its way of life upon the Christian Ideal. The school must seek to lead the child to choose and accept as his own those ideals of conduct and endeavor which a Christian and democratic society approves. Teachers are expected to bring home to the pupils as far as their capacity allows the fundamental principles of Christianity and their bearing on human life and thought."

This will be illustrated by the tragic plight of a world-famous country which refused to take sides. The New Testament calls our attention to the dreadful cost of being neither cold or hot when great issues are at stake. The verdict of Jesus is that "He that is not with me is against me". Dr. Johnston will preach.

A stained glass window will be dedicated at morning worship this Sunday in St. Luke's. The beautiful window has for its biblical setting the words of Jesus: "Suffer the little children to come unto Me." The gift is that of Mr. Ben C. Hicks as a loving tribute and memorial to his wife, Mrs. Ben C. Hicks, whose interest in the Sunday School and devotion to the church were well known. The minister, Rev. Ralph E. Spencer, will preach at both morning and evening service, his subject in the evening being "Except the Lord Build the House."

The Congregational and Sunday School Picnic will be held this Saturday at the C.N.R. Recreational Grounds, Lachine. Special cars leave Grouard and Sherbrooke at 10 a.m.

The Woman's Association extend their thanks to all the ladies who responded so generously for the Rummage Sale last month and announce that there will be another sale on Tuesday. Donations may be left at the church at any time.

The Pre-communion and Reception Service is Sunday morning, May 27. Those desiring to join with St. Luke's either on profession of faith or by certificate are asked to communicate with the minister before that time.

Dominion-Douglas

Next Sunday being Whitsunday, Dr. Lloyd Smith will take as the theme for the morning service: "The Promised Helper". Church School will hold its closing session at 10 a.m. when prizes for faithful attendance will be given out. This is an Open Session and parents are invited.

Since this Sunday will be celebrated throughout the Christian World as The Day of Pentecost, the Festival that commemorates the outpouring of the Spirit of God upon the first Christian disciples, the theme of the 11 a.m. service will be in keeping with this momentous event in the life of the Christian community, for Pentecost must be perpetuated in present experience if we are to accomplish God's high purposes in the world. The secret of Victory over the forces of evil is still to be found in the significant words spoken long ago: "Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord." "The Messenger: The Mission: The Power" will be the subject of the sermon to be delivered by Dr. Jones.

Social and Personal

The semi-annual meeting of the Westmount Bowling Club, Ladies' Branch, is being held this afternoon at the club house. Tea will be served after the meeting.

The benefit concert sponsored by the Student Body of Marianopolis College last Friday evening was most successful both from a musical and financial point of view. Miss Mary Hall, president of the Student Body, was convener of tickets, while Miss Patricia Cogan was in charge of publicity. A large sum of money was cleared, much of the credit for the financial success being due to the girls of St. Paul's Academy who sold a gratifying number of tickets.

The Alumnae Association of St. Mary's Hospital School for Nurses will entertain the graduating class of 1945 at a dinner to be held in the Mount Royal Hotel on Tuesday at seven o'clock. Miss T. DeWitt, Mrs. T. Cherry, Miss O. Lewis and Miss D. Sullivan are in charge of arrangements.

Cappnig exercises took place on Monday night for ten new student nurses at the Phillip's Training School for Nurses at the Homoeopathic Hospital. A social hour followed. The Board of Governors of the hospital entertained at a dance on Wednesday evening for the graduating class of this year, in Memorial Hall, at the Nurses' residence.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Richard Hastie, wore a tailored suit of rose wool, with blue flower hat and a corsage of white gardenias. Her only attendant was her sister, Mrs. W. Bessraba, as matron of honor, who was wearing a blue tailored suit, with chartreuse accessories and corsage of gardenias.

Two benefit functions were held during the year, a bridge and food sale under the convenship of Miss Marguerite Choquette, B.M., with Mrs. C. Dionne convener of the food sale, realizing $429.50 and a "silver" tea given by Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Phelon realizing $435. Mrs. W. Keating reported $40.96 from the mite boxes.

Mrs. R. Rolland, convener of surgical dressings, said that 28,700 dressings were made in 900 hours of work. Mrs. J. E. Clement, program convener, reported two general meetings held this year for general membership.

Mrs. Henri Gareau reported that each patient at the hospital received at Christmas an attractive knitted article as a gift.

Mrs. J. Howlett, convener of Christmas cheer, provided the holiday's gifts for the patients who were also entertained by a lively programme of carols.

Reports were also submitted by the following conveners: membership, Mrs. Chas. Dionne; reception, Miss M. Sheridan; press, Miss Marguerite Choquette.

REMEMBER?

Victory in Europe is good news. We couldn't hope for better. Berlin, a mass of rubble, Hitler, Goebbels and Mussolini dead (with none to mourn them). White flags flying from nearly every window in Germany.

But—it was after the troops came home the last time, that inflation really got away on us. Remember?

We mustn't let history repeat itself. The first rise must be stamped out. This is everyone's war. Inflation strikes everywhere from Moncton to Zebollias.

A sound currency is a "must" if we want foreign trade and foreign trade spells success in any language.

Canada is an exporting country . . . we must have trade to survive.

Syrup Stretches Out Jam Sugar

Make strawberry jam with sugar-stretching recipes.

Light corn syrup may be substituted for part of cane sugar in any jam or jelly recipe by following these simple rules: In any recipe using liquid pectin, 2 cups of light corn syrup may be substituted for 2 cups of the sugar required. In recipes using powdered pectin, light corn syrup may be substituted for one-half of the sugar required.

The jellies and jams will be satisfactory in both flavor and set providing the directions for substitution are followed carefully. If too much corn syrup is used jelly or jam will not set.

When light corn syrup is used, the recipe yields from 1 to 2 additional glasses of jam and jelly.

Now you are ready to turn those fresh strawberries into jam for next winter.

Strawberry Jam (Makes about 13 1/2 glasses— 6 fluid ounces each)

Four cups prepared strawberries, 3 1/4 cups light corn syrup, 1 box powdered fruit pectin.

To prepare fruit, thoroughly crush 2 quarts fully ripe strawberries.

Measure sugar and syrup; set aside. Measure prepared fruit into a 5 to 6-quart kettle, filling up last cup with water if necessary; place over hottest fire.

Add powdered fruit pectin, mix well, and stir until mixture comes to a hard boil. At once pour in sugar and syrup, stirring constantly.

Continue stirring, bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute. Remove from fire, skim, pour quickly. Paraffin at once.

Plastics Cannot Compete

Plastic as a raw material for general-purpose bottle is unlikely to supersede glass to any appreciable extent, the third annual conference of the Society of Plastic Industry, was informed at its recent meeting in Montreal.

Glass is made from very cheap materials, it was pointed out. It is substantially immune to the attack of ordinary foods and chemicals; it is air and moisture proof; it does not impart tastes or odours to its contents; and when filled with liquid and dropped it will withstand a shock at least as great, and often greater, than will thin bottle made from many of the plastic materials.

Or Three

Captain: "Private Jones, it gives me great pleasure to give you this stripe."

Private: "Why not give me two, sir, and really enjoy yourself?"

Rows Of Greens For Vitamin C

Hats off to Victory gardeners. Last year's crops topped the previous year's record by 3000 tons. This year, the prospects are even more promising. Gardeners got an earlier start in many places and are tackling their jobs with enthusiasm inspired by former successes.

Greens and more greens are recommended by the Division of Nutrition, Ottawa. Extra rows of greens in the garden give extra vitamin C in summer meals. Oranges, lemons and grapefruit can be supplemented by tender green spinach, asparagus, green onions and other green leafy vegetables, particularly when eaten raw.

No one needs to have scurvy today. This deficiency disease attacked sailors in olden days when their diet lacked foods containing vitamin C. Since this vitamin cannot be stored in the body to any extent, citrus fruit or tomatoes and greens should be eaten every day.

Snow White Presented By Mary Beetles

On Saturday at 10 o'clock Mary Beetles will present Snow White and the Dwarfs and other attractions at Snowdon Theatre, in aid of the Milk for Britain Fund.

The immortal story of Snow White and the Dwarfs with all its colourful humour and pathos will again warm the hearts of a Montreal audience when presented by a cast of those who live in the land of dreams and imagination—children.

The story is woven about Snow White the lovely little princess, who is portrayed by six-year-old Estelle Ross, and the wicked Queen, Shirley Grant, who deeply resents her budding beauty. The woodcutter, who refuses to carry out the Queen's command brought to him by Evalita the scheming maid, played by Myrna Rapaport, is being portrayed by eleven-year-old Walter Warren who made himself known to Montreal audiences in the 7th Victory Loan Campaign. The children of the woodcutter are played by five-year-old Joyce Kogan and Marlene Axelrod. A triple part is being played by Rosalind Kirsch who does the prologue the voice of the mirror and one of the dwarfs, the other six being played by Diana Adeles, Jane Walkington, Marilyn Lippens, Helen Boxerman, Reisha Harvey and Rhona Feldman.

The prince is being played by Charles Abrahams and the Jester by Suzanne Beck—six-year-old acrobatic dancer and the four ladies-in-waiting by Hinda Cohen, Irma Ginsberman, Darlen Timberley and Edith Aberman.

The show will be opened by Maynard Ferguson, Leader of Verdun Pavillon Orchestra, and directed by Ruth Whiting, Director of Dramatics and Elocution at the Mary Beetles Studio of Dancing and Dramatic Art.

The programme will also in-

NOBEL PRIZE PLAY TO BE PRESENTED BY ART THEATRE

The stage version of Gerhart Hauptmann's dream poem, "Hannele" is to be presented by the Canadian Art Theatre on May 28, 29 and 30 in the Church of the Advent parish hall.

As in all his works, the author had more than mere entertainment in view. With a keen insight into humanity, he has woven beauty, pathos and mysticism closely together to tell a strangely beautiful and intensely emotional tale.

It was in response to a rising reaction against naturalism that Hauptmann, an idealist at heart, wrote "The Assumption of Hannele," thereby achieving a brilliant, if over sentimental, synthesis of naturalism and phantasy. His first departure from strict realism, the play was nothing short of a triumph.

Hannele is the chief character, and the play has been described as the history of the child's soul. The patent purpose of the sordid scene that opens the play is to provide variety; by this means contrast between the squalor of the almshouse and the purity and innocence of the child's vision becomes the more striking. This contrast is most dramatic when Hannele first appears on the scene, Gottwaldt protecting her, while Hanke, Hete, and Seidel quarrel among themselves. And at the end of the play there is a contrast, a bold relief to the sordidness of Hannele's entire existence: the triumph of the poetic, the highest ideal of the purity of childhood, summed up in the "Stranger's" song.

The C.A.T. will star Miriam Lunn in the role of "Hannele," with a strong supporting cast, including Dagmar Johnson as Sister Martha, Sheila Coonan as "Hete," Joe Carmen as Gottwaldt and Sydney Litwack as Mattern.

Joy Thomson, director of the C.A.T., will direct the production. Lighting will be by William Springford and costumes by d'Anjou.

She appealed to those who have "kept the home fires burning" to help win the peace by an understanding attitude towards veterans on their return.

HOME EDUCATION

LAURA GRAY

Issued by the National Kindergarten Association.

"No, Patricia-Ann, you may not leave off your coat—even if the sun is shining. You've only just recovered from a bad cold!"

"Please, Mother," begged the eight-year-old. "I can't skip in this coat; please let me go without it. All the other girls are leaving off their coats."

"No!" Mrs. Ellwood gave her daughter a final look, took her purse and stepped out to do the morning's shopping. It was one of those days—hot one moment, cold the next; a blaze of warm sun, a gust of icy wind.

When she returned an hour later, there was Patricia-Ann down the street, gaily skipping—and without a coat! Certainly that young daughter must be taught to obey!

In his study, Mr. Ellwood was busy with plans for a house he was to build for a client. "John, I'm worried," began Mrs. Ellwood; "Patricia-Ann has directly disobeyed me—"

The door opened and the curly-haired child burst in. She hesitated a moment when she saw her mother, then, "Hi Mum!" she ventured smiling roguishly.

"Patricia, why did you leave off your coat, when I said you were to keep it on?" Mrs. Ellwood asked sternly.

"Because Dad said I could—didn't you Daddy?" The child looked from one to the other, an imp of mischief in her shining eyes.

There was an uncomfortable moment of silence; then good sense came to the rescue. "Well, if Daddy said so, then it is all right," Mrs. Ellwood answered. "This is Daddy's house as well as mine. You are his daughter, too. What he says is just as important as what I say."

Later, alone with his wife, Mr. Ellwood said, "Mary, I'm grateful to you for upholding my decision to Patricia-Ann today. The little monkey! She didn't tell me you'd forbidden her to take off her coat. She looked hot, the sun was shining, and you were out. I must have a talk with that young lady. In the future I shall refer her to you when she asks for permission of that sort."

Quietly and without irritation, when Patricia-Ann was going to bed that evening, her father talked the matter over with his little daughter and asked her if she thought it was playing the game fairly to do what she had done.

"No, Daddy, I guess it wasn't, but it's no use anyway—you and Mum are 'hot' on the same side!"

This may seem a small incident. So it is, but it has to do with a fundamental principle with reference to married life that is far from small. Mother and father must stand together. Any differences which may occur should be worked out when the children are not present. For parents to differ is reasonable and desirable—two heads are better than one. Differences should result in broader, better ideas. One opinion can check the other, but when it comes to action, the two must be as one.

This unity gives stability to the family and a sense of security to the children. It makes home a greater force in the lives of each one of them—something they can rely on—and causes ideals to exert a double influence.

When not properly handled, incidents like the above tend to sow seeds of jealousy and strife which may lead even to the breaking up of a family.

There should be no end to the give and take in family life. In some homes the problem of differences of opinion is solved by letting one or the other parent take all the responsibility for home management. This, of course, makes for harmony, but it deprives the children of the benefit of two ways of looking at things. Children need both father and mother and the enrichment of their different points of view.

Loyola College Summer School

"The Catholic in the Postwar World" will be the main theme of this year's Summer School of Catholic Action, it was announced at the sponsoring organization, The Queen's work, Sodality central office of the United States and Canada. The catalogue indicates that the 1945 edition will be the best in the 15-year history of the annual traveling enterprise. Sessions will be held, June 25 to 30, at Loyola College, where the enterprise will be known as the "Montreal Catholic Summer School".

Three organizational programs will be presented by the Rev. J. Roger Lyons, S.J., Miss Dorothy J. Willman, M.A., and the Rev. Aloysius J. Hegg, S.J. and 45 electives will be offered. The electives, the announcement added, will cover a "wide range of interests" and manifest "a careful regard for the problems that are facing the Catholic leaders in the world of tomorrow."

The Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S.J., founder and dean of the S.S.C.A. stressed that the program would feature various recreational, and entertainment highlights.

Park Season Now In Full Swing

"The Californian Sky Thriller," the Free Outdoor Attraction at Belmont Park which is now open for the 1945 season, is undoubtedly one of the most thrilling and death-defying acts yet offered at this popular amusement centre. The act, presented by two young ladies and "Superman," kept patrons of the Park, over the weekend, on edge throughout the performance.

"The Californian Sky Thriller" is replete with thrills as feat after feat of amazing skill and daring is executed by these daredevils who perform on a steel rigging 110 feet in the air without benefit of net or any other safety device whatsoever. The act will be presented twice daily: all week, at 5 and 11 p.m.

Stan Wood's Orchestra received a well-deserved reception and the popular maestro responded with music that kept the dancers in high glee. The orchestra is featured nightly well as every Sunday afternoon. Each and every one of the attractions along the Midway was well patronized and "The Moor Rocket," new to Montreal, became an overnight favourite.

Belmont Park operates daily, rain or shine, except on Mondays when the doors are open to the public at 7 o'clock in the evening. On Saturday picnics will be held by the Universite de Montreal and the Ecole St-Philippe de Benizi with the B'nai B'rith Junior A. Z. A. Council outing taking place on Sunday.

SCORES AGAIN

HILDA GALT RECITAL

"One Night of Rhythm," the ninth annual recital by the Hilda Galt School of Dancing, scored a tremendous success at Victoria Hall. Playing to a capacity audience, enthusiastic in their applause, the show had a professional air and the tiny babies through to the wonderful dance lines of the Hilda Galt Troop Show and the Sun Life Revue set a new high in Dancing School Recitals.

The success of the show was due to Hilda Galt's distinctive skill in training both classes and individuals and to the clever showmanship, originality and sound artistry she displays in production.

Rich costumes, beautiful lighting and elaborate sets formed a delightful background for the program which included all types of dancing and musical comedy numbers.

The younger pupils of the school appeared in "In the Park," which introduced the "Tiniest Tots"—Elaine Nadler, Cora Cohen, Carol Shiller, Beryl Dawes, Frances Cameron, Susan Brooks, Jean Dick, Sheila Feldman, Cynthia Laniel, Doreen Walsh, Rose Silberberg, and Louise Lusignan. The first soloist, Ann Gregory, appeared in a beautiful "Dainty Foe" routine and later kept up her good work in both Tap and a Novelty Acrobatic number.

The bewitching "Beau Catchers" included Dawn Wiltsie, Joan LaBillois, Linda May Snyder, Beverley Major, Beth McEwen, Jolce McEwen, Maureen Thomas, Allen Lamb and Douglas Ross. The "Baby Sweethearts" were Jill Everest, Eleanor Fogul, Marian Bloom, Monique Dufresne, Lila Davidow and Patricia Zbinden. Little Ann Elizabeth Woodcock in "Pert and Pretty" and Marsha Mendleman, Pat Thomas, Lorna Bulford and Joan Michaud all did their solos very well. Truly "Everybody's Little Sweetheart" was Jacklyn Adams, who sang and tap danced and did a roller-skating novelty number.

Barbara Miller won much applause with her toe-tap as did Betty Hendry, Ted and Vivian Smalley, Constance and Beverley Howe in their solo tap routines. "Irish Swing," a very colourful number, included the "Irish Jig," by Ellen Joy Lewis, Sharon Stober, Marilyn Gameraoff, Sheila Brawnlee, Joyce Blumer, Sheila Usher, Shelby Cohen, Jacqueline Grostern, Golda Erlick, Mary Elizabeth Forth, Sandra Duchow, Sandra Cummings, and Andre Dubois, and clever tap dances by tiny Lenore Chesmer, Jacquelyn and Joan Michaud, and Ted and Vivian Smalley.

"Bessie and her Beaus" was a delightful song and tap by Barbara Davidson, Julia Anne Holden and Beryl Light. Audrey Edmundson was very sweet in "Twists and Turns" and two lovely sisters, Shirley and Eunice Porteous, did a smart bit of "Irish Boogie."

"Irish Clog," by Grace Ross, Marilyn Gameraoff, Jacquelyn Grostern, Judith Gold, Carol Mendelsohn, Valerie Brennan, Carol Bedard, Dorothy Goldin and Gordon Harlow as "Johnny Doughboy" concluded the Irish scene.

The excellent solo presentation of young Terry Goodwin was one of the highlights of the evening, his singing, whistling, tap dancing and baton twirling place him in a class with the best professionals. "Broadway Rhythm," a tap number by Hilda Galt and Terry Goodwin, was a real treat and certainly combined taps and personality. In the same professional calibre is the beautiful Dorothy Reed whose marvellous acrobatic routines held the large audience spellbound. The clever work of Barbara Davidson in tap, toe-tap and musical comedy numbers, Ted Smalley, Ann Gregory and the Porteous sisters all deserve special mention.

A line of junior chorines of special note who displayed amazing versatility by appearing in toe-tap, toe and tap routines included Betty Hendry, Barbara Millar, Ann Elizabeth Woodcock, Lenore Chesmer, Miriam Wilkinson, Joan Paperman, Anne-Marie Zbinden, Jacqueline Tafler, and Doreen LaSalle.

The Galt girls and the Sun Life girls are well-trained lines of the two popular troop shows. Hilda Galt, Gladys Lemieux, Jessie Richardson, Patsy Davidson, Frances Whalen, Geraldine Reinblatt, Dorothy Turner, Dorothy Jarvis, Barbara Cornell, Doris McHardy, and Nellie Brumby appeared in South American Rhythms, a lovely "Fan Fantasy" and their popular "Picture Number." The Sun Life girls, Evelyn Bamford, Marguerite Chaillot, Simone Dimitri, Cathy Fullerton, Sheila Galbraith, Olive Kyles, Marie Lucas, Daisy Millar, Eileen Mahoney, Adele Paquin, Myra Walker and Kay Ward performed well in a soft number called "Shade of Blue," and two excellent precision numbers featured in the stirring Finale which was so fitting on the eve of V-E Day as was Dorothy Reed in her toe number "Dove of Peace"; Terry Goodwin in "Buy a Bond," and a stirring climax of a flag presentation and the singing of the "Lord's Prayer" by Jane Lee.

A thoroughly delightful and well presented abstract ballet, "Invitation to the Dance," by the Ballerinas of the school included Miriam Wilkinson, Betty Hendry, Barbara Millar, Anne-Marie Zbinden, Lenore Chesmer, Doreen LaSalle, Joan Paperman, Ann Elizabeth Woodcock, Jacquelyn Tafler, Audrey Edmundson, Ruth Margo, Joyce Pollett, Marilyn Lipsey, Rona Gameraoff, Miriam Goldin, Doreen Jones, Barbara Walker,

At The Monkland

A man's murderous but unfounded jealousy, his wife's terror and the helpless entanglements of a stranger who finds himself in love with his wife, motivate "Experiment Perilous," screen adaptation of Margaret Carpenter's best-seller of the same name. Hedy Lamarr, Paul Lukas and George Brent, share the starring honors. The film is now playing at the Monkland United Theatre until Friday night.

The plot starts moving when Dr. Bailey (Brent) learns of the sudden death of Miss Lamarr's elder sister-in-law whom the doctor had recently met. Curious, he accepts an invitation from a mutual friend, and finds himself inside the strangely menacing Bederiaux house. The doctor is attracted to his hostess, whose mysterious fear is obvious. When her husband (Lukas) suggests that she is partially unbalanced, the doctor is instantly on his guard. Subsequently events reveal the wife's perfect mental normalcy, and her mounting terror of her husband's peculiarities. The doctor, unaware that the husband has discovered his motive and is preparing to kill them all, becomes hopelessly in love with her and knows he must get her out of this highly dangerous situation.

Speirs - Miller Hit

The "Standing Room Only" sign hung out at Victoria Hall when Betty Speirs and Peter Miller staged their annual event enabling the public to see what had been accomplished during the year. It may seem like "gilding the lily" but to us this was the best show that this celebrated aggregation have produced to date. The first feature of the evening was "Nursery Rhymes" in which the baby class of Beverley Wilkins, Claudette Haskett, Patricia Brady, Patsy Cairnduff, Sally MacNeill, Lese and Andrea Larce were given unlimited scope to display their talents. The natural and enjoyable manner in which the children performed was certainly an endorsement of Miss Speirs' reputation as a splendid teacher of very young children.

Sheila Edwards and a wee Scotch lassie, Sandra Armstrong, were outstanding and in support of the performances were given by Beverley Bronfman, Suzanne Moseley, Patsy Lord, Barbara Mazon, and an adorable bunch who sang about a Birthday Party. Martha Anderson, Janes Boyes, Anne Brossard, Frances Lynch, Andrea Leigh, Suzan Poe, Shirley Parker, Judith Bowen, Carol Ann McLurg and Vera Hoener. The honour of the male sex was upheld when the Siple brothers, Gordon, Graham and Wallace, trotted on in precision manner and intimated in song and dance that "We do like to be beside the seaside" in real vaudeville style.

In Pot-Pourri which followed, the senior class was seen to advantage. These included Judith Patton, Sally McKeown, Rosalie Goodfriend, Elizabeth O'Toole, Valerie Davies, Bluebell Barclay, Joan Whiteside, Florence Clarke and Naomi Hill. Patsy Cunningham, in Tulip-time and Alice Blue down showed smart style, and Patsy and Billy Lord were well received in a Dutch number and "Me and My Gal"; Maureen Donohue shone in "Cap and Bells," and St. Louis Blues, and Jeannie Deners and Joyce Bolduc were to the fore in some smart tapping. A dainty quartette of ballet dancers were much in evidence during the evening and comprised Connie Joe, Helen Holbrooke, Emily Ann Robertson, and Janet Fleming.

Then we had the Maestro himself, Peter Miller. First he appeared with Therese Daly and Ann Macauley in one of his fast tap routines which had the audience applauding while it was yet in progress, and later he was on with three young "Men About Town," Billy Madigan, Peter Clouffe, and Joe Carmen. A smooth soft shoe trio of Maureen Donohue, Shirley Ann Moser and Patsy Cunningham was seen to advantage, while the character work of Frances Samuels in "Gone with the Wind," and Rayetta Schachter was much admired.

Spectacular Harvest Moon
This scene was both spectacular and jovial, as everyone seemed to be having a whale of a time. Shirley Ann Moser opened with the theme dance "Shine On," after which Nancy Telfer took over in her Cowboy Number "I Got Spurs," followed by Canteena the horse, which had the place in an uproar with its antics. Jack Vincent later took a bow with his conspirator, Peter Miller. Just as the audience was wondering "What Next?" the Royal Air Force Band, under Flt.-Sgt. Dunmall, swung into Virginia Reel and the senior class got into action and showed us how a barn dance should really be done. This was undoubtedly one of the highlights. Then we had a sweet ensemble of juniors who sang and danced "I " They were Mary Reid, Gall Barfoot, Paula McParland, Diana Johnson, Dorothy Leggett, Monique Lafontaine, Joan McCarthy, Diana Robb, Barbara Renteln and Helen Smith.

A dainty duo were Claudia Lattin and Beverley Houghton, while the polished work of Miss Speirs' assistant, Therese Daly, received an ovation in a Mexican routine. Owen Larkin and the Siple boys contributed readings which were much enjoyed. Others who contributed with snappy tap solos were Judith Greenblatt, Sonia Weintraub, Janet Fleming and the Johnson Sisters, and the senior class in a smart Military Number. A definite hit was scored by the Ottawa "Blonde Bomshell," Joy Dunning who appeared in a snappy boogie tap and a rumba routine. In the Cabaret Scene the Business Girls were smoothness itself in "Pretty Girl is Like a Melody" number, and Peter Miller once again demonstrated the smooth sophisticated style for which he is so well known in two Exhibition Ballroom Routines. In the Tango Miss "Bobbie" Perrins was his partner and in the Exhibition Waltz, Ann Macauley completed the duo.

Shirlee MacDonald, a personable young lady, sang two songs with very much charm, and the Day Sisters were perfection itself in a sensational acrobatic routine, while Emily Ann Robertson as Minnie from Trinidad showed a decided flair for comedy. Peter Miller's famous "Tea for Two" soft shoe routine was again on display with Ronald Gillespie, Therese Daly, Joe Carmen, Ann Macauley, and Peter Miller between two of his junior starlets, Nancy Telfer and Jeannine Demers.

In "Ballet of Spring," Therese Daly had the lead and was beautifully supported by Joy Dunning, Connie Boe and Helen Holbrooke. The Ballet dancers were Barbara Rinteln, Judith Patton, Paula McParland, Joan McCarthy, Anne Stewart, Patsy Lord, Margaret Motton, Suzanne Moseley, Sally McKeown, Anne Trenholme, Barbara McNaughton, Florence Clarke, Joan Whiteside, Helen Smith, Monique Lafontaine, Joan Parsons, Dorothy Leggett, Diana Johnson, Tony Powell, Diana Robb, Annabelle and Jasmine Keane, Beverley Houghton, Claudia Lattin, Vivien Wrong, Merle Wrong, Elizabeth Cross and Janet Cross.

The finale of the Recital was the most impressive of its kind that we have seen in a long time. The Second Minuet brought Emily Ann Robertson and Janet Fleming down from the picture frame to dance, where they were joined by the stylish Connie Boe and Helen Holbrooke and the irresistible little Sheila Edwards in beautiful cotillion work with the ensemble. The entire group eventually forming a setting for Peter Miller and Therese Daly in "Song of Love" duet. This they first sang beautifully and then continued into a lovely old-world waltz.

Altogether an evening of delightful entertainment and one which the audience will fondly remember for some time. Betty Speirs presided throughout as Mistress of Ceremonies with grace and ease. Special mention must be made of the work of Mrs. Grace Forrest and Lennie Rubin at the concert grand pianos, and of Arthur Davison's violin contributions, especially during Mr. Miller's Exhibition Ballroom work. A definite hit was scored by the Air Force Band under Flight-Sergeant Dunmall. The Strathmore Ladies' Club, who sponsored the "Show of Shows" in this occasion, announced through Mrs. Watt that they would be able to give the new Building Fund of the Sailors' Institute approximately one thousand dollars, and presented Betty Speirs with a lovely bouquet of flowers from the ladies of the club.

AT THE WESTMOUNT THEATRE

Paramount's "Ministry of Fear" which opened last night at the Westmount United Theatre adds another feather to Ray Milland's cap. The dynamic screen drama, adapted from Graham Greene's stirring novel, offers Milland a role which fits him like a glove.

Under the delicate direction of Fritz Lang, "Ministry of Fear" creates a heavy mood of suspense at the very start with each additional scene developing a sense of intrigue and mystery. A psychological drama describing a man's fear of unseen enemies, this fine motion picture features Marjorie Reynolds, Carl Esmond, Hillary Brooke and Percy Waram in supporting parts. Seton I. Miller's screenplay is both sensitive and sympathetic and gives the cast a wide range for a display of their versatility.

The crux of the plot concerns a harmless looking cake, offered as a prize at a charity fair, which really contains a map German agents are after. The map falls into Ray hands quite by accident and he becomes a target for attack by subversive organizations, Scotland Yard and others, all of the action taking place in England. Ray finds he cannot trust a single one of his acquaintances and plays a lone hand in a game of trickery, master-minding and romance since two lovely ladies, the Misses Brooke and Reynolds, claim his attention.

In a dramatic windup, Ray aids Scotland Yard to recover the important map, the enemy agents are rounded up and the odd circumstances and events are unraveled. Not until the final moment, however, is the audience aware of what will take place next. "Ministry of Fear" is being regarded already as the finest film in which Milland's appeared and his long string of successes is a notable one.

Especially notable performances are turned in by Marjorie, Esmond and Waram. Miss Reynolds plays the part of an innocent tool of a spy ring who befriends Ray in his hour of need. Esmond is the suave but vicious leader of a subversive organization and Waram impresses audiences with his silent and menacing role of a tireless Scotland Yard inspector. All three are typed to perfection.

At the expense of being a little trite, perhaps, it still this reviewer's conviction that audiences needn't fear attending "Ministry of Fear." It's one of those pictures loaded with dynamite and the kind that's right up the movie-goer's alley.

NOW THERE'S A FUTURE IN FARMING

Liberal Action for Agriculture

Here are some of the practical steps which your Liberal government has taken for your benefit:

- 1 Guarantees of minimum prices for farm products.
- 2 Trade agreements with 20 countries.
- 3 Debt cancellation took $225 millions debt off farmers' shoulders.
- 4 Took import duty and war exchange tax off farm equipment.
- 5 Saved apple industry by special marketing agreements.
- 6 Premiums paid on high grade cheese and grade A and B1 hogs.
- 7 Wheat Acreage Reduction and Prairie Farm Income payments made in 1941 to tide farmers over until market for wheat found.
- 8 Export contracts, operative until 1947, act as floor prices under farm products.
- 9 The above, with the Export Credits Insurance Act, will maintain farm incomes throughout post-war period.
- 10 Appointed (August 1944) Agricultural Prices Support Board to guarantee for post-war security to farmers' incomes.
- 11 To enable farmers to improve their working and living conditions, your Liberal Government has provided for intermediate and short term credits by amending the Bank Act and passing the Farm Improvement Loans Act, and further, has arranged that those wishing to build new homes or repair, extend or renovate their present homes can borrow the money under the National Housing Act.
- 12 Inaugurated annual farm production programmes through co-operation between the Department of Agriculture and farmers' organizations in every part of Canada.

Under Liberal Government, Farm Incomes Rose Steadily

ONE out of every three men working in Canada is on the farm. Agriculture is the nation's most important industry. Since 1935, your Liberal Government has kept farming at the top of its list for action. Look at the panel (left).

Although 23% fewer men have been available for farm work, production has increased more than 40%—a splendid record of achievement for victory!

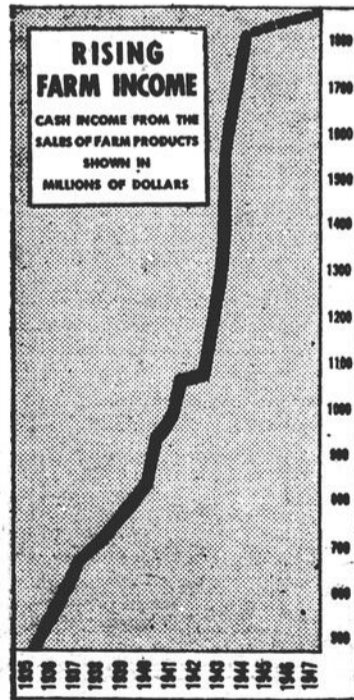

Even before the war, by securing foreign markets, taking off surpluses and stimulating home consumption, your Liberal Government assisted in raising total farm income by 45%.

During the war, the farmer for the first time was put in the sound position of knowing exactly how he stood financially. He was protected against increases in his costs of production and guaranteed a market at fixed prices for a specified volume of produce. In 1939 farm income was $772,000,000; in 1944 it was $1,817,000,000, an increase of over a billion!

After the war, your Liberal Government has arranged to keep farm incomes up by floor prices on farm and fish products, and by foreign trade... to improve farm living conditions by Family Allowances, National Housing Plan, Farm Improvement Loans Act, and other social measures... and to secure agriculture's future by conservation of soil and other natural resources together with farsighted projects for irrigation, road and other improvements as soon as manpower and materials are available.

When you vote Liberal you act for your own and your family's continued welfare.

Thirty Seconds Over Tokyo Based on Best-Seller Book

"Thirty Seconds Over Tokyo," which Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer is presenting at the Seville United Theatre, is a film of epic proportions. Vividly adapted for the screen by that expert scenarist, Dalton Trumbo, from the best-seller by Captain (now Major) Ted Lawson and Robert Considine, the film emerges as one of the most human stories to come out of the present war.

Climaxed by the famous American bombing of Tokyo, it relates the glorious personal romance of Ted and Ellen Lawson, the man who takes part in adventure so daring, and the woman who waits for his return. Their story is the story of human beings during wartime.

Mervyn LeRoy has combined this romance with gripping suspense and thrilling characterizations by an expert cast. A star no less than Spencer Tracy was chosen to portray the celebrated Lieutenant-Colonel (now Lieutenant-General) James H. Doolittle, leader of the historic raid—and that is as it should be. Lawson himself is portrayed by Van Johnson; Corporal (now Staff Sergeant) Thatcher by Robert ("Private Hargrove") Walker, and Ellen Lawson by Phyllis Thaxter, a face and name new to movie-dom but destined for early stardom if her present performance is any criterion.

"Thirty Seconds Over Tokyo" tells of the Doolittle mission, what preceded it and what followed it, in deeply human terms. Ted Lawson's training for the great task and his fleeting moments with his Ellen form the basis for what is certainly one of the most stirring pictures in many, many months.

There are several other newcomers in the cast who bear watching. As members of the Lawson crew, Tim Murdock, Scott McKay, Gordon McDonald and Don DeFore turning in excellent performances to rival those of the leading players.

"Thirty Seconds Over Tokyo" is altogether a "must" picture. By all means go to see it.

At The Snowdon

Marcel Varnel, producer and director of the new George Formby starring vehicle for Columbia, "Bell-Bottom George," is now playing at the Snowdon United Theatre until Friday night, has included a number of outstanding interior scenes in the film.

The first of these is a portion of Broadcasting House, including a studio, in which Formby, as a member of a naval concert party, "The Spick and Span," is brought to the microphone with his uke. Cinema audiences will see in these scenes not only the whole procedure of a broadcast, with its technical details and actual entertainment, but also George's discovery of a transmitter which gives him the clue he needs to the activities of a gang of Nazi agents.

The number which George broadcasts in the studio is the title song of the film "Bell-Bottom George," a rollicking ditty which puts syncopation into the sea shanty.

Four outstanding song hits have been specially written for the new Columbia picture "Bell-Bottom George," starring George Formby a rollicking number with a strong nautical flavour, which offers George plenty of opportunities for his inimitable style of putting a number over.

The romantic element is catered for by a lilting number, "If I Had A Girl Like You," which George

"The Fighting Lady" Is Thrill-Roaring Hit

With the opening yesterday at the York United Theatre of 20th Century-Fox's brilliant Technicolor film, "The Fighting Lady," local movie-goers were introduced to a revolutionary and exciting concept of motion picture entertainment, one that daringly establishes a challenging new standard by which all future pictures striving to capture the courage, high adventure and thrills of our fighting men must be judged.

There has never been another film quite like it. It is by far one of the most unusual, completely absorbing and breath-taking exciting motion picture experiences to come out of these times.

Briefly, "The Fighting Lady," which has a commentary delivered by Robert Taylor who is now a lieutenant with the Navy Air Forces, is the story of one of our aircraft carriers during its battle against the Japs in the South Pacific. But more specifically, it is the story of its officers, pilots and crew members in the fighting at Marcus, Kwajalein, Truk, Guam, Saipan, Tinian and in the smashing victory over the Japs in the Philippine Sea. For security reasons, the actual name of the carrier is not used.

Not a single scene of this thrill-packed film was taken inside a studio; none of its exciting episodes were staged or especially re-enacted for the cameras. Every foot of film was actually shot, under the supervision of Commander Edward J. Steichen, USNR, from cam-sings to his Wren sweetheart (Anne Firth). An unusual character in the film is Egbert, Formby's pet goldfish, and for his benefit "Swim Little Fish" has been written. This is, without doubt, one of the song hits of the film, for not only is the lyric intriguing, but it has a catchy and swingy melody that is going to capture the public and set it whistling the country over.

eras placed aboard bombers and fighters from the carrier, and at strategic points on its flight deck.

And it is through this means that the picture achieves its overwhelming, terrifically hard-hitting impact on the audience. What happens is that you, yourself, are made to feel that you are actually sharing a pilot's seat (and his emotions) as he sends the plane hurtling against a Zero . . . or zooming down at an enemy vessel loaded with TNT, or on an oil ammunition dump in the jungle; or that you are up there with him as he zig-zags through ack-ack, to strafe Jap planes caught flat-footed on an airfield, or when forced to crash land on the deck of "The Fighting Lady." At times you are manning a 20 mm cannon along with the other gunners aboard the carrier, shooting the attacking enemy out of the sky.

The film had no script or director. It is a thrill-packed chunk of drama carved out of real life, with its tremendous suspense, surprise and action plotted by the unrelenting forces of warfare. Producer Louis de Rochemont, one of the founders of March of Time, conceived of "The Fighting Lady" as a newsdrama, an adventure

BASKETBALL SEASON CLOSES WITH AWARDS Y'S CHAMPION TEAMS

Basketball season will officially close next Tuesday night with the awarding of crests to the champion teams of the Inter "Y" Basketball League. That night the Seniors and Intermediates are putting on exhibition games at the gym.

The local "Y" Intermediate Basketball team won the league championship by defeating Southwestern 27-22 at N.D.G. "Y", after losing the second game of the best of three series on the Verdun floor, 42-34. This was the first loss in two years of league play by the Westmount team. Trailing 16-6 the Verdunites put on the pressure and were leading 24-23 at half time. From then on Southwestern gradually extended their lead to win out 42-34. Slater and McFarlane were the big guns for the winners, scoring 16 and 14 points respectively, while Fee, 13, and Dudley, 12, were the high scorers for Westmount.

Southwestern (42): Slater 16, Lamb 6, McFarlane 14, Whiteford 4, Brooks, Howe, Cooke 2, Hughes, Stewart.

Westmount (34): Greenbaum 2, Young, Dudley 12, Putnam 5, Fee 13, Seimers 2, MacLeod.

The final game of the series was played on the spacious N.D.G. "Y" floor. It was another close tilt with Westmount emerging on the top end of a 27-22 score. Greenbaum and Young who played the full game at guard for Westmount have both played stand-out ball in the series. Slater, of Southwestern, was top scorer of the tilt with 11 points. Fee and Dudley scored 10 and 8 for the winners while Putnam also played a brilliant steady game, scoring the clincher on a foul shot, and two other baskets. Whiteford with 4 and Cooke 3, were two great factors in the Verdun cause. Southwestern (23): McFarlane 2, Whiteford 4, Lamb 2, Stewart, Cooke 3, Howe, Slater 11, Brooks, Hughes.

Westmount (27): Young 2, Greenbaum, Dudley 8, Fee 10, Putnam 5, MacLeod 2, Biamore.

Smart Pee Wee Pace Finds Two Teams Unbeaten

Bob Bunten's Rinkydinks and Phil Martin's Reds continued their unbeaten pace in the pee wee section of the Westmount Municipal Softball League. Each club racked up wins in the week just past, the Rinkydinks won a pair of close decisions, beating Don Macnamara's Dodgers, 13-10 and Ed Kallil's Giants 7-4. The Reds swamped the Wildcats 26-1 in their only encounter. The two leaders are scheduled to meet in a league fixture this afternoon at Westmount Park.

In other games played during the week, the Giants eked out an 11-9 win over the Dwarfs; the Wildcats scored 13 times in the last inning of their game with Jimmie Craig's Maple Leafs, but lost out, 18-13. The Maple Leafs won their second victory of the week when they took a close 4-1 decision from the Dodgers.

The following games will be played this week:

Fri. May 18: Reds vs. Rinkydinks.

Sat. May 19: Dodgers vs. Dwarfs (postponed game).

Wed. May 23: Maple Leafs vs. Reds; Dwarfs vs. Rinkydinks.

If a room is well-proportioned and the windows and doors cut into its walls are well-placed, it is sound practice to paint the trim a different color from the walls to give it emphasis. If the windows and doors are badly placed, the trim should be merged into the wall by painting it the same color as the wall.

SOFTBALL SEASON OPENS WHEN DEPOT DOWNS NAVY IN WESTMOUNT PARK TUG

The senior section of the Westmount Municipal Softball League opened its 96-game season at Westmount Park on Monday evening when the Longue Pointe Ordnance Depot downed the Navy Shore Patrol 11-9 in a hard slug-ging game. The Tars, a new club to the circuit, failed to overcome an early five run lead and left the winning men on the bases in the last inning.

The LPOD team, one of last year's finalists, had six of last year's squad back including Dick Bell, a hurler. The soldiers crossed the plate five times in the opening frame when everybody on the team came to bat, and added three more in the second inning, but from then on had their hands full to keep ahead of the sailors.

Kitchen led the winners at bat with three hits in four times at the plate, while Hendricks had a perfect day at the plate for the Navy, banging out four hits in as many times at bat. Meston, right-fielder for the Longue Pointe team, crashed out a home-run in the fourth inning, and Soucie, shortstop for the sailors, banged one out in the sixth inning with two mates on board.

OLMO SPARKS EARLY-SEASON DODGERS

The biggest surprise of the current baseball season at this writing is the fine early-season performance of the Brooklyn Dodgers who were picked by most of the experts as a second division entry all the way. The Bums might prove the truth, in reverse, of the old adage "the champions of April are the bums of October." Led by Luis Olmo, former Montreal Royal outfielder who was hitting around .400 at this writing, the Dodgers were in second place.

Olmo had a poor year with the Dodgers last season after a brilliant showing in 1943 when he hit .303 in 89 games. He seemed on his way to another indifferent season early this year, but snapped out of it with eight hits in one double-header, and kept right on until he had won leadership in the National League batting standings.

Other ex-Roya also are starring for the Dodgers. Hal Gregg on the mound has now won four games, while Eddie Basinski, the noted fiddler, and Clyde Sukeforth, who managed R-yals a couple of years back, are also performing far above expectations. Sukeforth, regular catcher for the usually wild Gregg, seems to have calmed the youngster down and now Gregg is one of the most effective fast-ballers in either league.

Meanwhile, the Royals are also doing pretty well. The wet weather has been tough on the club's coffers, but has enabled the pitching staff to get plenty of rest. Comes a long string of good weather with a few double-headers and it might be a different story, but right now the Royals look good.

Jean Pierre Roy's two-hitter a few days ago, and Red Durrett's debut in a Royal uniform lend further optimism to the Royal cause. Durrett is expected to put that extra punch in there—the punch that makes the difference between just a good ball club and a pennant contender.

Officer: "You were a long time coming up here. Didn't you hear me calling?"

Private: "No sir, not until you shouted the third time."

Westmount "Y" elected three new members to the Board of Management. D. O. Bremner, Chairman of the Board of Management, presented the Annual report. He pointed out that membership in the Association had been maintained during the past twelve months. The total enrollment was 705.

A surplus of $855.00 was reported on the year's work although it was pointed out by Mr. Bremner that this surplus was only made possible on account of the shortage in staff, there being no full time Physical Director attached to our staff this year.

It was pointed out in the report of War Services activities that there had been 61,182 participants in Gymnasium and Swimming by members of the forces and 10,604 in attendance at the Saturday evening dances.

Mr. Bremner made special reference to the splendid work done by the Voluntary workers through the year. L. W. Townsend presented flowers to Mrs. Brodie and Mrs. Henderson on behalf of the Board of Management in recognition of their loyal service.

One hundred and eighty members and friends of the Association sat down to supper and the following groups were represented: Voluntary workers, Business Men and Seniors, Business Girls, Badminton Club, Hi-Y Club (Boys), Hi-Y Club (Girls), World Service, R.C.N.V.R., Can. ## Grosvenor Wins Double Header

Bob Thornton's Upper Grosvenor garnered eight points in two games with Bob Lunny's Bombers in a schedule Inter-City Hardball League game at St. Leo's Academy. An epidemic of base stealing resulted in seven Bombers going out. A powerful drive by Pete Lovell of the Bombers which hit two feet below the school was called out by Umpire McVey for the reason that Lovell took third automatically. The old rule, that the batter took third has been changed. Bombers lead in the first inning but went out of control in the fourth and the score stood Grosvenor 10, Bombers 6, at the end of the first game. Dinty O'Shaughnessy pitched the winning game for Grosvenor.

Bombers failed again to come through in the second game, when Doug McGillis struck out with the bases loaded, Hugh Allen pitched this one for Grosvenor.

John Rogers and Pete Lovell were outstanding for the losers. Hugh Robertson had a wordy battle with Thornton of Grosvenor; when Thornton was out on third resulting from a trick play by Earl MacDonald of the Bombers. Umpire McVey upheld Robertson's verdict. Yves Hudon called them behind the plate.

WESTMOUNT HIGH LIGHTS

By GEORGE COCHRANE

Letters from the Westmount High old boys on active service who received the newsletters mailed to them by the Hi-Y and Men-of-Ah clubs are still pouring in and one of the most interesting to arrive for some time came this week. It's from Private First Class Malcolm Greaves, who's serving in the Pacific with an Engineers Maintenance Company of the United States Army. Greaves enclosed some Japanese currency which the men of the Rising Sun had printed for use in the Philippines. His letter:

"Somewhere in the Philippines, April 23, 1945.

Boys' Hi-Y Club,
Westmount High School,
Westmount, P.Q.

Dear Fellows: I'll be home while you are having your finals in June. It was wonderful for my morale when at long last your very welcome Xmas letter caught up to me in this remote corner of the world. I was pleasantly surprised to find so many familiar names on the teaching staff and share your sorrow at the loss of Mr. Parker who was a prominent figure at W.H.S. when I went there 20 years ago. I was trying to remember the name of the old athletic director who coached us at Roslyn Avenue School and also at W.H.S. He was a veteran of the last war and a fine specimen of a man. I met him in Boston one year when I chanced to look in at a hockey game between Westmount High and the Boston All Stars which was a team made up of all the best players picked from all the suburbs of Boston and Boston proper. To make a long story short, Westmount won and was I thrilled! I enclose some Jap occupation money and must warn you not to try to buy cigarettes at the little store on St. Catherine street opposite the school which I used to frequent. They might not accept this as the Japs made it themselves.

Good luck,
Malcolm Greaves."

Math teacher Mr. D. E. MacLean taught P.F.C. Greaves and when shown the letter he remarked, "His writing has improved."

DIME A CHANCE

Bulletin from Red Cross President Bernard Keefler:

Wednesday, May 23, will be a big day for every Westmount High. Not only will this be the last day before our four-day holiday, but on that afternoon, the drawing for Mr. J. D. Lawley's famous painting will take place. This painting is a winter scene of the corner of Argyle avenue and Cote St. Antoine road as seen from the girls' entrance of W.H.S. If you have not already gazed upon this picture, it is hanging up in the school library for all to view.

S.H. DANCE TONIGHT

The curtain will rise on the much publicised Eaton's Junior Council Sadie Hawkins dance at Victoria Hall tonight when Eddy Blair will raise his baton.

ITEMS

Being editor of the boys' Hi-Y Club's The Monthly seems to be a very precarious position. We edited the first issue, which appeared in December. Bill Macdonald took over for issues two, three and four, and Chuck Kennedy and Wolf Siemers collaborated on issue five, which appeared last month. Now, Chuck Kennedy has resigned and Wolf is in sole charge of the sixth and last issue, due next week. . . Sallor Brian Gregor Pierce, known to his pals as Gaz, is in town on a 28-day leave. . . Sailors Don Hawker and Buddy Beck, both former WHS'ers, were among a group of navy men shipped to Cornwallis last week-end. . . Sallor Johnny Ford, after spending six weeks in Winnipeg, is now stationed at Quebec. Mama Ford sends him this column every week. . . Quite a Westmount delegation were out at West Hill's spring Hi-Y dance last Friday night. Among them: Jack Dudley, Bobby Robb, Kyle Prescott, Ann Price, Chuck McCrea, Di Harrower, John Turner Bone.

Girls' Hi-Y president Audrey Campbell is going to work for the Bell Telephone Company. . . Sheila Taylor, Sue Haire, Inger Jorgensen and a couple of other gals hope to work as waitresses in a Muskoka Lakes district inn during the month of July. . . Patricia G. McGoun is contemplating a third summer, or half summer, as a counsellor at Camp Chapleau. . . Classmates thought that Robert Duke Lord was wearing his Winged Wheeler sweater the other day but when they looked closer they saw, embroidered on the front of the garment, "Restaurant Chez Jeanine de St. Henri." . . Irv Koven's cousin, Jack Campbell, is having a hard time getting his Melody House, on Sherbrooke, just west of Claremont avenue, open. It was scheduled to throw open its sole portal to the public last Thursday. With V-E Day the carpenters disappeared. . . Peter Harling will be working on a lake steamer this summer. . . And next fall commercial student Connie Dibblee hopes to take up the study of commercial art. . . Pretty commercial.

Return Trip

"Why is it so difficult to keep time on this ship?" "What makes you ask?" "I just heard the captain say"

BANTAM RED SOX LEAGUE LEADERS WITH NO LOSSES

Ernie Meyers' Red Sox have taken over a commanding lead in the standing of the teams in the Bantam section of the Westmount Municipal Softball League. The Red Sox won two games during the week to run their unbeaten streak to five games, their victims were the Panthers by a score of 16-3 and the Greys by a 24-4 count. Neither of these clubs had tasted defeat until the Red Sox downed them.

In other games played, the Hoods eked out a one run decision over the Royals, taking the tilt by a count of 17-16 while the Greys had little trouble downing the Flying Tigers 18-1.

Fri. May 18: Greys vs. Panthers.
Sat. May 19: Royals vs. Greys (postponed game, 10 a.m.); Panthers vs. Corvettes (postponed game), 10 a.m.

Mon. May 21: Panthers vs. Hoods (postponed game).

Tue. May 22: Corvettes vs. Hoods (K. George); Red Sox vs. Flying Tigers (K. George).

Bracken's Charge To His Quebec Supporters

Honourable John Bracken's parting message to the Quebec candidates of the Progressive Conservative Party who met him at the Canadian National station as he passed through Montreal this morning.

"Tell your people back home that we mean all to be Canadians after June 11th; tell them each of us will be equal in Canada—equal in the rights we enjoy and equal in the responsibilities we share.

"Tell them their constitutional rights of religion and language and civil code will be scrupulously respected; tell them they will be denied no rights enjoyed by other Canadians.

"Tell them the nation will expect from them no more, either in peace or war, than it asks from others—but that it will expect as much.

"Tell them we mean to preserve Confederation; tell them it can be preserved on a basis of equal rights and equal service, and in no other way.

"Tell them we'll not deceive them.

"Tell them we mean to build a confederation that will last, that it must be built on sound foundations, and that the only sound foundation is that of equal rights for all and equal responsibilities for all, in time of war as well as in time of peace.

"Tell them that on the basis of such a policy they can face the world and the future and their children's future with confidence and without fear; and that there is no other just way by which the objective of orderly progress for us all in Canada can be achieved."

The Doctor's Column

By Dr. J. B. Warren

Nerves Need Treatment After Accident or Illness

A severe accident or an illness usually affects the nervous system long after any physical effect of the accident or illness has disappeared. Thus real care must be given if these cases are to become normal.

The best treatment is to explain to the patient the need for regular hours of sleep, good meals, some outdoors daily, and every day have him do something for himself.

The point is that the nerves have been "damaged" and need rest and care as do other organs. (Copyright)

THIEVES APPRECIATIVE.

Bob Lowery, star of Paramount picture, "High Powered," thought it was tough two weeks ago when thieves broke into his car and stole the radio. But last week, they took the entire car from the front of his apartment. The other day it was found abandoned in Gollita, the gas tank empty. On the steering wheel was a note which read: "Thanks, Bob—very much."

ANSWERS for Victory Gardeners

Should I Use Fertilizer On My Garden?

Seldom do soils have available to the garden plants enough of material for their growth. If we look upon the soil as a store house of raw materials for the garden, then we will realize that when there is a shortage, our crop will suffer. However, there are several angles to the plant food question in the garden, as we will see further along in this article.

How Will I Know When My Garden Needs Fertilizer?

The vegetables you plant will soon tell you whether or not they are getting the right amount of plant food. If they are puny and weak, they are being starved. If they have a sickly yellow color, it is likely because they need feeding. If your garden vegetables have a bright, clean, healthy color and develop rapidly, you can know there is plenty of plant food in the soil for them. When spreading fertilizer, however, keep it away from the seeds and plant roots, at least a half inch. Put your fertilizer within reaching distance, but still make the plants reach for it by sending out their roots. Otherwise you will "burn" the young sprouts.

Does Fertilizing Your Garden Help Fight Weeds and Insects?

The answer we might say is "yes" and "no." When we fertilize the garden, it makes it possible for us to raise a good crop of vegetables with doubtless some weeds mingled, because there is plenty of plant food for both. However, there is no use wasting fertilizer on weeds. Keep them down. The same is true of insect damage. If there is heavy growth of leaves and stems on your plants, the insects can rob you of a little material, and you will still have a crop left; however, we don't believe in growing "garden sass" for bugs.

How Soon Should I Buy My Fertilizer and Spray Material?

We hope you have already bought it. A good share of your fertilizer should have been worked into the soil at planting time, although an application of fertilizer along side the row during the growing season is also a good thing. However, the principal job of fertilizing should have been done before seeding. Spray materials may be scarce before the season is over and you should have on hand a package of lead arsenate to spread on the vegetables for the benefit of worms and other chewing marauders, and you should have a bottle or two of Black Leaf 40 to use on the aphids and other sucking insects. If you have these two insecticides on the shelf, you are ready for any insect attack that comes along. You will find full directions on the label of almost any package of insecticide.

When Should I Start Spraying?

If you really want to get maximum results from your work this year, you should spray the minute you see the first bug in the garden. Unless you are experienced, you will find that aphids will sneak up on you before you know it. They sit on the underside of plant leaves without moving. Being of the same green color as the vegetables, they are hard to see, and when you do see them, they look so small and harmless that you will almost think they are hardly worth bothering about. However, they are doing plenty of damage, and a dose of Black Leaf 40 is needed right away. Be sure to spray on the undersides of garden plants, as well as on top of the leaves. Most of the insects will be out of sight.

RECORDED MUSIC

The Hampstead Music Appreciation Group will hold another record concert in the Town Hall tomorrow night at 8.30 p.m.

The programme will include the Overture to the Magic Flute, Mendelssohn's Italian Symphony, and the Emperor Concerto, by Beethoven. A short talk will be given on the development of keyboard instruments, illustrated with examples. The public is cordially invited.

CAPE VERDE ISLANDS

There are 14 islands in the Cape Verde group, the largest of which is the size of the city of Los Angeles, while the smallest is measured in square yards rather than square miles.

PARASITE CAUSES HORNS

A skin parasite causes the horns so frequently found on rabbits. As many as 16 horns have been found on one rabbit and these were not confined solely to the head.

FOR LABOUR— A NEW FEDERAL CODE

"The accomplishment of Labour's purpose will not be found in the regimentation of State Socialism. Canadian workers will do far better for themselves . . . to create a dynamic enterprise wherein, through their collective bargaining agencies, Labour may receive fair wages and an improved standard of living . . . Profits can be taxed, but a monopoly of power in the hands of a political group is impossible to control . . . Any government of which I am leader will see to it that Labour becomes a partner in enterprise and enjoys its rights . . ."

John Bracken

John Bracken believes that the rights of Labour can best be secured under a system of private competitive enterprise. He accepts and endorses the opinion expressed on this point by William Green, President of the A.F. of L., and Phillip Murray, President of the C.I.O., who stated on March 28th, 1945:

"The rights of private property and free choice of action, under a system of private competitive capitalism, must continue to be the function of our nation's peaceful and prosperous expanding economy. Free competition and free men are the strength of our free society."

To make these rights real and effective the Progressive Conservative Party will establish a National Development Board to include labour, agriculture, business and government.

The Board will have the responsibility of working out terms for full production and employment as well as the preservation of our natural resources and the construction of projects in the public interest.

The National Development Board will have power to encourage the establishment for each industry of an Industry Council, composed of representatives of labour, management and agriculture, as the case requires, to assist in the formulation and application of plans for full production and full employment in such industry.

John Bracken will establish a Federal Labour Code setting national standards and covering particularly—

- ✓ Genuine compulsory collective bargaining legislation.
- ✓ Effective machinery for certification of collective bargaining agent.
- ✓ Penalties against discrimination and unfair Labour practices.

✓ Outlawing of unions financed or dominated by employers.

✓ Minimum Wages.

✓ Maximum Hours of Work.

✓ Equal pay for equal work and equality of opportunity and treatment in other respects for men and women workers.

✓ Minimum age of employment.

✓ Holidays with pay.

✓ Extension of Labour-Management Committees.

We shall provide a uniform and comprehensive security plan for all Canadians including—

✓ Extended unemployment insurance coverage.

✓ Accident and sickness benefits.

✓ Children's allowances.

✓ Maternity benefits.

✓ Widows' benefits.

✓ Retirement pensions.

✓ Increased old age pensions at age 65.

Where social services are administered provincially, we shall provide grants large enough to ensure adequate standards of social security to all Canadians.

We shall ensure representation for Labour on Government Boards and Commissions. Important wartime wage orders and Labour relations codes shall be enacted by Parliament, not by Order-in-Council.

By these and many other progressive measures, the Progressive Conservative Party will ensure to Labour, as a partner in progressive enterprise, its full rights and responsibilities in achieving prosperity for all Canadians.
