DRIVE TO MAKE CYCLISTS OBEY LAW CONTINUES

Over a Dozen Fined and Others Warned for Failure to Heed Traffic Regulations

The Westmount Police Department, on orders from Chief Gough, is continuing its campaign to rid Westmount streets of cyclists who fail to obey traffic laws.

Since inauguration of the drive two weeks ago over a dozen cyclists have been fined and a number of others warned. Particular attention is being made to keep sidewalks clear of bicycle riders and all persons found violating this section of the Traffic By-Law have received tickets.

Up until the present time leniency has been shown first offenders and fines have been as low as 50 cents. Police, however, now feel that bicycle riders have been given sufficient warning that they must obey the law and in future will meet out stiffer penalties.

Traffic laws apply to cyclists exactly as they do to all vehicles using city streets. Bicycle riders must bring their machines to a halt at "stop" intersections and are obliged to heed traffic lights. Furthermore they are obliged, at all times, to keep to the right side of the street.

BRIGADE UNIT INSPECTED BY FRONTIERSMEN

Members of the Reserve of The R.C.M.P. Complimented Company On Its Smart Appearance

Members of the Legion of Frontiersmen, reserve of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, inspected the First Westmount Company of the Boys Brigade on Friday evening and complimented the unit on its smart appearance.

Corporal Bydwell, who himself had served in the Brigade of St. Alban's Church, Montreal, some years gone by, told the boys they should be proud of the tradition behind the organization and at all times seek to further its object. "The advancement of Christ's Kingdom among boys."

Bryan Pearce and Bruce Marshall are the winners of this week's contest and will be awarded penknives on Friday night. The puzzle was a difficult one and their answers were remarkably clever. These puzzles are also now being shared with the boys of the 5th Company who are starting this week to adopt them.

The swimming class has shown marked improvement these past few weeks and is steadily increasing in numbers. Lieut. Falls has held trial examinations, based on the necessary qualifications for the awards and finds the majority of boys will pass the test with ease. Life Saving is also being well advanced and shows favourable results already.

Plans are being made for a "Wener-Feed" to take place in the country as soon as conditions are favourable, possibly during the Easter Holiday.

This week, Captain Richardson will introduce a special class to take care of the boys who have been joining the company during the past few weeks. An interesting half hour will be spent with the microscope.

Club To Hold Final Meeting Of Season

The Young Men's Canadian Club bring the season to a close on Monday evening, with its annual meeting in Queen's Hotel. There will be no set address, but after dinner, reports will be given, following which there will be an entertaining programme on novel lines. George P. Graham, who has been president for the past year, will be in the chair.

Unit Prepares For Royal Visit

Although the official part of the Westmount No. 115 Fighter Squadron of the Royal Canadian Air Force will play in the visit here of the King and Queen has not been announced, the unit is currently preparing for the event.

Technical instruction for the ground members of the squadron has ceased and drill practice is being concentrated upon. No further technical classes are to be held until after the Royal visit.

ROTARY CLUB HEARS ADDRESS ON UNION JACK

History of Flag Outlined in Illustrated Lecture by E. E. Robinson

Taking as his subject, "The Story of the Union Jack," E. E. Robinson, of the Bell Telephone Company of Canada, gave an illustrated lecture at the regular weekly luncheon meeting of the Westmount Rotary Club in Victoria Hall on Wednesday.

The speaker outlined the history of the flag from its inception up until the present day, illustrating the various changes in its design by lantern slides.

Describing the flag, Mr. Robinson stated, "Flag-devising is really a branch of heraldry and should be in accordance with its laws both in the forms and the colours introduced. It is incorrect to have two colours adjacent to each other on account of the fact that when viewed from a distance they will blend one with the other and tend to form the combination of the two. Therefore, the Union Jack is correct inasmuch as the colours are each separated by the white, and any flag with the colours thus separated can easily be distinguished at great distances."

"In this connection with regard to the displaying of flags, there is much to be said. As soon as one becomes flag-conscious, it is surprising how one notes the manner in which flags are displayed. The number of Union Jacks which are flown upside down is surprising, and flags which are displayed in such a manner form a breach of flag etiquette. In displaying a flag, any lack of respect shown, even if unintentional, is a discourtesy to the nation or organization represented and may be offensive."

"A flag should never be allowed to trail or fall on the ground or roof, and should be displayed between the hours of sunrise and sunset when flown from a vertical flagstaff. The correct position of the Union Jack when flown from a staff is to have the broad white of St. Andrew's cross uppermost. If reversed, the flag will be upside down. In this position it is a sign of distress," he told the audience. The speaker was introduced by B. Girard and thanked by C. W. McBride. The president, John Colton, was in the chair.

RETURN HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dupuis have returned home from a short stay in New York City.

Trade Tests Passed By 44 R. C. A. F. Members

Forty-four out of 46 members of the ground crew of the No. 115 R.C.A.F. Fighter Squadron successfully passed Dominion Government trade tests during the past month, it was announced yesterday by Flight-Lieutenant Brise.

The tests were for such ground crew classifications as that of machinist, welder, carpenter, fitter, and engine mechanic. Once non-flying members of the unit successfully pass the examinations they are eligible for promotion to higher ranks.

Work is proceeding on the squadron's new hangar at St. Hubert Airport and completion of the structure is expected to be made within the next month. The frame, walls and roof have now been constructed and work is going ahead on interior partitions and fittings. The local unit will share the building, for flying purposes, with the No. 118 Bomber Squadron.

CITY STREETS HERE ARE FREE OF ACCIDENTS

None Reported to Police During Past Week — Lack of Fires Also Noted

Not a single street accident has been reported to the Westmount Police Department during the past week, records at the station reveal. There has also not been a single fire.

The most recent traffic mishap occurred at 4:35 o'clock last Friday morning when a dairy truck collided with a milk wagon on Cote St. Antoine road at the corner of Arlington avenue.

According to police a Perfection Dairy truck, driven by Lucien H. Gauvin, 1050 Addington avenue, a Brookside Dairy Wagon driven by Allan Gunn, 2457 Courson street. Both vehicles were proceeding in a westerly direction.

The driver of the truck told the constable investigating that he failed to see the wagon until it was too late to avoid the collision.

The rig was badly damaged and the horse sustained cuts on its feet. The fenders and headlights of the truck were dented.

Slight damage resulted when an automobile driven by William E. Bailay, 5328 Mountain Sights, collided with one operated by Ian Stewart, 4853 Melrose avenue, at the corner of Westmount boulevard and Victoria avenue at 5:30 p.m. last Thursday.

RCAF UNIT GETS NEW FLAG POLE

A new flag pole, 40 feet in height, will be in position in front of the No. 118 Fighter Squadron of the Royal Canadian Air Force by the end of the week, it was announced by Flight-Lieut. Brise.

The new pole, almost double the height of the staff which has flown the Squadron's traditional R.C.A.F. flag since its inauguration, is hinged at the base and the top of the mast can be lowered to the ground.

The pole is supported by a cement base extending some three feet into the ground.

Arrange Plans For Royal Visit

City officials are currently arranging for the visit of the King and Queen here on April 16th and a special board composed of Aldermen C. K. McLeod, Douglas Lorimer and City Engineer Percy Jarman, has been appointed to study plans.

Thus far no definite arrangements have been formulated and the local board is awaiting further word from Montreal authorities before drawing up an official program.

All public buildings will, of course be suitably decorated, as will stores and private dwellings. Local school children will view the visit of the Royal Family from a point of vantage in Westmount yet to be selected. It will however, most likely be Murray Park.

IN TIME OF PEACE PARIS PREPARES

Even as refugees on the Spanish border to the south bring war's ghastliness close to home, Paris goes through war preparedness paces. Pictured are gas-masked members of a "decontamination" squad giving first aid to gas "victims" during shan bombardment of "gay Paree."

Horticultural Society Wakes From Hibernation

With Spring officially here and the shelves of seed merchants filled with attractive looking seed packets, thoughts of amateur gardeners everywhere turn once again to the time when they will be able to take the spade and hoe from the basement and commence the season's activities. During recent weeks officers and directors of the West End Horticultural Society have been busy preparing their new garden contest and flower show programme, which is now available for distribution.

The Garden Contests present many attractive features, many of them entirely new. The Monitor Cup will again be awarded for the best amateur front garden in Notre Dame de Grace, vines and porch boxes will be included in the judging, the most pleasing appearance as viewed from the sidewalk will be deciding feature of this contest.

Amateur Flower Garden contests will also be held in Cote St. Luc and Cote des Neiges, for which cash prizes are being offered. The Dent Harrison Memorial Trophy is again offered for the best amateur flower garden in Westmount. Second prizes will also be given in all these contests.

Back, side, or vacant lot flower gardens will be divided into three sections. Those under 250 square feet in area; those over 250 square feet but under 500 square feet in area; those over 500 square feet in area. First and second prizes will be awarded in the contests. A competition will be held for combination flower and vegetable garden, any size. First and second prizes awarded.

New "Royal Bank" Cup One of the special features is the Royal Bank Cup, which is being offered for competition this year for the first time. This is a beautiful trophy which the winner will hold for one year, a good sized replica suitably engraved becoming the property of the winner each year. The large cup must be won three times, not necessarily consecutively, to become the property of the winner.

This cup is being offered for the home surroundings which show the greatest improvement during the year. A photograph of the grounds (a clear snapshot will do) taken early in the Spring must be produced for the judges' inspection at the time of judging. This competition should prove very popular, as it not only includes new gardens, but also improvement in those already established. This contest is open only to amateurs, and includes the whole district.

COUNCIL APPROVES POLICE PROMOTIONS

The Westmount City Council, at a regular meeting on Monday night, promoted Sergeant R. Edmonstone to the rank of Lieutenant and Constable C. A. Baker, to the rank of Sergeant. The appointments come into effect on April 5. Council also decided that the special tax for local improvements would remain at four mills, the same as it was last year.

END TRIP Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Jassby, Fortden Crescent, have returned home from Florida.

RED CROSS PLAN HOSPITAL CAR

A hospital car, like the one shown above operated by the Canadian Red Cross Society in Ontario, is planned for the Quebec Red Cross following the membership drive in May.

MEETING TAKING PLACE IN VICTORIA HALL; TWO SEEK PRESIDENTIAL SEAT

W. Gordon Kenwood and C. A. James Nominated to Head Organization for New Term — W. Boyd Robson is Retiring as Leader of Body — Large Turnout of Westmount Merchants Expected to Attend

The Business Association of Westmount will elect a new president and Executive Committee at its annual meeting to be held in Victoria Hall on Monday evening, commencing at 8.30 o'clock.

Gordon Kenwood and C. A. James have both announced their intention of running for the presidential seat, making elections necessary for this office, at least.

A suggested slate of officers was drawn up at the last general meeting of the organization and further names were added to the list by the Nominating Committee at an executive session held in the offices of A. Ross Grafton on Tuesday night.

The complete list of nominees is as follows: president, W. Gordon Kenwood, C. A. James; vice-president, R. E. Parker and P. A. Sears; recording secretary, Lorrie Parkey; treasurer, Chas. Watson, corresponding secretary, A. Ross Grafton. Committee chairman: financial, R. V. Griffiths; entertainment, N. Eric Ohman; educational, Dayton Grubill; membership, Mr. Labrosse, A. Smithers, and Yervants Pasterdamjian. Ladies committee: Madam R. Lafrance, Madam St. Onge and Miss A. Brown.

Nominations will be accepted from the floor during the course of Monday night's meeting.

W. Boyd Robson, who has headed the association since its inception last year, has turned in his resignation. It is healthier for the association to have a new president each year, he believes.

A large turnout of Westmount businessmen is predicted on Monday as the meeting will be one of the most important yet held by the organization. Aside from the election of officers, plans are to be drawn up for the future activities and there is a likelihood of the adoption of a new slogan. The last, "Shop in Westmount and let us all have a Merry Christmas," was of a temporary nature only. Reports of the president and committee chairmen will be read.

Arrangements are also to be made for the next general meeting, tentatively planned to take place on Monday night next.

In Calvary Church, Passiontide services will be conducted on Sunday next and on Monday, Wednesday and Good Friday evenings. The Minister of Calvary Church, the Rev. T. W. Jones, will conduct the services and deliver the sermon and addresses. On Sunday at 11 a.m. the theme, "Behold Thy King Cometh" will be in keeping with the Festival of Palm Sunday. At 7.30 p.m. Dr. Jones will present a Protestant Minister's point of view on the important question to be submitted to the Quebec Legislature "Shall Canon Law of Civil Law determine the Status of Marriage in the Province of Quebec?"

Passiontide services will be conducted in Calvary church on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings at 8.15. Dr. Jones will preach the sermons at these services as follows: On Monday, The First Four Words of Jesus spoken from the Cross; on Wednesday, The Last Three Words of Jesus spoken from the Cross.

On Good Friday Dr. Jones will present and tell the wonderful story of the Passion Play at Oberammergau, with outstandingly coloured slides of the world-famous incidents in that dramatic presentation of the Passion of Our Lord. The Passion Play story will be preceded by a choral service taken from the Lenten Cantata "The Red of the Dawn," rendered by the choir under the direction of Mr. George W. Cornish.

This coming Sunday, April 2nd, marks the 27th anniversary of the actual association of the Minister the Rev. T. W. Jones with the work of Calvary Church. On April 2nd, 1912 he commenced his work as Student Assistant to Dr. J. J. Martin, the minister of the church.

W. G. Kenwood

W. Gordon Kenwood, managing director of one of Westmount's largest and most successful business firms, the Westmount Transfer and Storage Limited, will run for the presidency of the Business Association of Westmount at its annual meeting on Monday night.

Born and educated in this city, Mr. Kenwood is well-known throughout Westmount. He was born on Christmas Day, 1894. He attended the old Westmount Academy, situated where the Argyle Junior High School is presently located.

When he was thirteen years of age Mr. Kenwood entered the firm founded by his father, the late William Henry Kenwood, and received a thorough knowledge of the trucking business under his guidance. Fourteen years ago he took over the leadership of the company.

Mr. Kenwood decided to run for the presidency of the business association only after careful study. His long experience in business here has given him a clear understanding of the problems confronting local merchants.

He has been a member of the Executive Committee of the association since its inauguration and has a thorough knowledge of its operation and the important part it can play in improving business here.

C. A. James

A man of many years experience in the retail business world of Westmount, C. A. James, proprietor of the Westmount Goldfish and Bird Supply Store, will run for the presidency of the Business Association of Westmount at its annual meeting on Monday night.

Mr. James is known to his friends as a man who prefers action to words. He is quick to acknowledge an error in judgment, but having taken a definite stand, will defend it to the last.

He believes that the problems of big and small business firms are fundamentally the same; that running any business, big or small, is a man size job.

He believes that personality is the greatest asset in business and wins out over price every time. He also contends that any business should insist on a fair margin of profit on all merchandise.

If elected as president of the association he pledges himself to furthering the interests of the buying public of Westmount in the Westmount merchants, at the same time endeavouring to create a greater understanding among the merchants themselves, particularly among those selling competitive lines.

He asks the merchants as a whole to support him in his campaign and prevails upon the citizens to support the association in their efforts to better business in this community.

Stricter Sanitation Inspection Arranged

In future the Municipal Inspector of Sanitation will be attached to the office of the City Health Officer Dr. F. M. A. McNaughton. It was announced yesterday by City Manager Percy Jarman. The inspector was formerly under the Police Department.

CONSCRIPT EVERYTHING?

Last week the Ontario Legislature unanimously passed a resolution asking the Federal government to "mobilize" all man power, business, and other resources in the event of war. The resolution originally read "conscript" instead of "mobilize", but was changed before being forwarded to Ottawa. The resolution is a high-sounding one, but means little. Both Mr. Hepburn and Mr. Drew have been in politics too long to really believe that big business is going to allow itself to be "mobilized." It is comparatively easy to "conscript" the common people, but when a government goes after the "big shots" it is looking for trouble and courting disaster. Ask Mr. King himself. In the early twenties Mr. King went after the North Atlantic combine, and the combine that was operating on the Great Lakes. Both were milking the country at an appalling rate. Mr. King had the support of Sir William Peterson, one of the greatest British shipping men of his day. But when the enquiry got real hot, it was seen that some of the men the Premier had been counting on, including the chairman of the committee of investigation, turned coat. The shock killed Sir William, who died suddenly in the Chateau Laurier Hotel. The Great Lakes combine was broken, if we remember correctly, but the other enquiry was dropped, after the Progressives (who of all people should have benefited by the dissolution of the Atlantic combine) stupidly turned against the government. The ways of politics are devious, particularly when business takes a hand in the game. Thundering resolutions calling for "conscripting" of the country's economic life sound patriotic and inspiring, but they serve no practical purpose unless it is to make the poor bloke who has to plod along in the mud of the trenches happier with his lot.

A FAMOUS UMBRELLA

The silk umbrella, an inseparable appendage to Prime Minister Chamberlain of Great Britain, seems to be the subject for more newspaper comment these days than was the famous cherrywood pipe which Lord Balfour sported when he was the head of the government. It is said that the umbrella cost Mr. Chamberlain the sum of $12.50 a fairly good price, but its publicity value has been incalculable, adding as it did a homely, British touch to his efforts to bring about appeasement in Europe. For a time Mr. Chamberlain was a bird watcher; next he tried fishing in Scotland's streams, but President Roosevelt outclassed him as an angler. Finally the Premier fell back on an umbrella, without which no Englishman can claim to be completely dressed. It made a hit and now he would be lonesome without it. His umbrella has been described as a sort of Rolls-Royce, natty but quiet, solid but light; the sort of an umbrella which becomes part of the man.—The Observer, Harland, N.B.

THAT ICELAND AIR BASE

The news that Germany is angling for an air base in Iceland caused somewhat of a flutter at Ottawa, and throughout the country, for it appeared obvious that the move was deliberately directed at Canada. The story was authentic, for the matter was placed before the Icelandic Parliament last week.

What does Hitler want an air base in Iceland for? To raid Canada and the Eastern United States — a round flight of anywhere from two to five thousand miles. To raid the British Isles? To patrol the Atlantic shipping lanes? Air authorities have labelled all these objectives as impracticable, and have stated that such a base's principal value will lie in its moral effect.

A statement emanating from the Ministry of National Defence, to the effect that such a base would definitely be a serious threat to shipping from this continent to England, seems, however, to explain the German objective. Radio in the hands of an extensive international espionage system has made such projects as the Icelandic air base entirely practical today, where a few short years ago it would have no military value. Iceland, being only a few hundred miles north of the North Atlantic shipping lanes, is within easy reach of any large liner on that route. It is true that it would be impractical for bombing planes to maintain a patrol on the shipping routes from a base several hundred miles away; but were such a base to be advised of the time of departure and the destination of all ships leaving eastern American and Canadian seaports, great havoc could be wrought.

It is difficult to draw definite conclusions, but the desire for a base in Iceland might be part of the German plan to starve out England in the event of another war. Linked with the German efforts to get control of Anticosti Island a few months ago, the Iceland plan is ominous.

Where Is God?

As I passed along a narrow street
Where the Cathedral shadows fall,
There sat a little lass upon a doorstep tall.
Unkempt, unwashed, in rags was she,
No shoes upon her feet,
Adoringly her eyes were fixed on a ponderous door-knob of glass
Relic of ancient grandeur of bygone days, alas,
When Montreal's elite
Lived their prim Victorian lives
In this now shabby street;
She called to me, "Oh! come and see!
So quickly does He pass!
'Tis The Good God, on sunny days He comes at noon,
I know He'll come today!
But oh, He goes so soon, I clasp my hands and pray."
And as she spoke the rainbow, encircled that knob of glass,
And rays burst forth, violet and orange, and the azure of the skies,
The last pink tints of setting sun,
The glory of sunrise;
Like Moses on Mount Sinai
I faint must veil my eyes.
As with clasped hands, bowed head devout—
Kneel that poor little maid,
And for food and raiment prayed.
Shelter from the biting cold,
Succor for sickly babes at home,
And Grandpa, bent and old;
And as she prayed did the beauty fade
And all was drab again.
To tell her 'twas not God, were vain,
Indeed I did not dare,
For to the eyes of Faith is God not everywhere?
And for one fleeting moment His glory did He declare,
In old Lagacheiere!

'DUMBELLS' TO PROVIDE SHOW AT VIMY EVENT

Old Favorites of Overseas Days to be Heard Again At Soldiers' Banquet

Nine members of the Canadian Expeditionary Force Concert Party, "The Dumbbells," will provide the entertainment at the Vimy Ridge banquet of ex-servicemen to be held at the Windsor hotel on Saturday, April 8th. It is anticipated that at least 1,600 veterans will attend.

The "Dumbbells" will be headed by Al Plunkett, singing "Oh the Wild, Wild Women," Red Newman who will sing his "Oh, It's a Love-Ly War," Alan Murray who will offer one of his inimitable dance routines, and several "over there" sketches. Ben Allen will be master of ceremonies.

Pat Rafferty will give his "Oh Charley," Jack McLaren will bring back memories with his "Kit Inspection," but the "piece of resistance" will be the time-honored "Estaminet Scene," bringing back Bill Tennant, Tom Lilly, Jim Mattinson and the rest of the troupe. There will, of course, be the famous "bathing beauty chorus," as of yore.

33,000-MILE FLIGHT SHOWN IN PICTURES

Norman Holland, Noted Photographer, Gave Illustrated Lecture at Westmount High School

A 33,000-mile flight which took him across the continent and through South America, was described in an illustrated lecture by Norman Holland, Westmount resident and noted Canadian amateur photographer, at Westmount High School on Friday evening. The speaker was introduced by Principal H. B. Parker.

Mr. Holland told his listeners that he first touched South America when his plane landed at Georgetown, British Guiana. At the conclusion of a brief stay there, he continued south along the east coast of South America stopping briefly at Ceara, Recife, Bahia, Rio de Janeiro and reached Buenos Aires a little air-sick after such an adventure.

Thence, leaving Argentina, he crossed the Chilean Andes by air, being forced during the 45-minute flight over these towering ranges to make use of oxygen mask and tank. Regretfully leaving the far south, he travelled to Panama and advanced steadily northward through the Central America and Mexico to Los Angeles and San Francisco. From the Golden Gate City he concluded his travels with a trans-continental hop back to Montreal—and Westmount. The leading purpose of the voyage was of course to take pictures—and he did! Hundreds upon hundreds of feet of film charged with the rich warmth of colour, tradition and history of a southern people blessed with a super-abundance of sun and rain which, through the course of centuries has turned their home into a tropical wonder and magnificence unequalled anywhere in the western hemisphere.

Mr. Holland told of the trouble and expense he had to overcome in preparation for such a voyage. He spent weeks studying a means of transportation which would speedily and efficiently carry him to those places he had in mind and which he carefully had mapped out for photographing.

He told his listeners of the problem which arose when he first contemplated air travel for the great distance. He said he had spent nights endeavouring to devise a plan whereby the problem of weight for air transportation could be reduced. He finally arrived at a solution which involved considerable expense but which proved highly successful. He used two specially designed light-weight trunks of a particularly small size and into these he had fitted compartments for shoes, appropriate clothing and all the necessary camera equipment.

He noted that while in these not countries the sensitive colours in the delicate films were menaced by the ever-present sticky humidity of the atmosphere and that he was compelled to ship his films by special Air Express almost immediately after exposure.

The first sight—through the camera—which the onlookers caught, was a glimpse of the great New Overseas Highway which goes to sea down over the Florida Keys to Key West the southernmost part of the United States. These tiny islands are seeped in early American history. One of them is the location of the never-completed East Martello Tower and another the Dry Tortugas. Here also rise the stern and forbidding battlements of Fort Jefferson.

Almost forgotten a few years ago, Key West is now taking its place in the forefront of American sea resorts by virtue of that marvelous engineering feat, the New Overseas Highway which stretches as though a white ribbon had been laid on dead-calm waters. It is the site of the former bed of the Overseas Railroad partially destroyed by a hurricane in 1935.

The air pictures of Brazil were rather limited because of the strict ban of tourists from the airways in this Republic.

Mr. Holland's short stops in many of the cities afforded his audience an opportunity of viewing with surprise the contrasts in architecture. Especially in the cap-

WOMEN'S CLUB ADDRESSED BY MRS. SLATTERY

Changed in Application of National Scholarship Explained By Speaker

Mrs. T. F. Slattery, Montreal diocesan scholarship convener of the Catholic Women's League of Canada, addressed the Westmount Sub-division of the League on Friday afternoon in St. Leo's School Hall. A change in the application of the national scholarship offered by the League was explained by the speaker. The scholarship formerly applied to the four years college course leading to the Bachelor of Arts degree. At a convention held in Kingston two years ago, this was changed to a two years course in social service. The scholarship, which is of the value of $1,000 to cover the two year period, is open to Catholic young women holding a B. A. degree or having a similar educational background.

Mrs. E. P. Lennon, president of the Westmount Sub-division, was in the chair. The musical program was arranged by Mrs. A. Piche. Included on the program were Jean Charuk and Hubert Seguin, violinists, who were accompanied by Miss S. Charuk, Miss C. Phaneuf, soprano and Robert Remington, tenor, were accompanied by Mrs. Payot, at the piano. Mrs. M. A. Phelan, thanked the musicians, on behalf of the group.

ATHABASKA M.P. WILL ADDRESS C.C.F. MEETING

Elected Social Credit Member, Transferred Allegiance to C.C.F. Party

P. J. Rowe, C.C.F. Member of Parliament for Athabaska, is coming to Montreal this week end to speak before a meeting in the Windsor Hotel tomorrow, Friday at 8.15 p.m.

Mr. Rowe was elected to Parliament in the last election as a Social Credit member, and last September transferred his allegiance to the C.C.F. group. He has travelled, since joining the C.C.F., around the farming constituencies of Alberta with Mr. William Irvine, provincial organizer in Alberta, and was greeted by large audiences who were sympathetic to the change of attitude that he has taken.

Mr. Rowe has a pleasing personality and is an accomplished speaker. The subject of his address in Montreal will be "Why I Joined the C.C.F." He will include in this address the progress that the C.C.F. is making in Western Canada, and particularly in Alberta.

The meeting is being arranged by the Mount Royal, C.C.F. Constituency organization in conjunction with the Montreal Central C.C.F. Association. The meeting will begin at 8.15 p.m. sharp as Mr. Rowe is returning to Ottawa immediately after the meeting.

Women's Association To Stage Choral Concert

A concert will be given by the Royal Bank Men's choir in Victoria Hall on Wednesday, April 12th, under the auspices of the Woman's Association of St. Andrew's church, at half-past eight o'clock. Miss Mulvaney Gray will assist the choir. Organ solos will be rendered by Mr. Hibbert Troop.

Mrs. Harold K. Gorham, president of the Woman's Association, is in charge of arrangements.

itals: Montevideo, Rio de Janeiro, Santiago, Georgetown and Lima. After miles and miles of travel by land air and sea Mr. Holland was finally rewarded when, just prior to leaving South America, he reached one of the seven wonders of the Western World, the powerful Kaiteur Falls.

These falls—five times higher than our own Canadian Niagara drop—plunge over a sharp ledge 821 feet into the gorge below and rush madly and furiously through successive stony ravines and canyons to the nearby Pacific Ocean. The falls were the real goal of Mr. Holland's itinerary. He had patiently waited for the day when he could charter a plane and fly over this magnificent sight.

Blind Students Will Participate in Program

An interesting radio program will be presented by "Voice of Youth"—the Canada Starch Company's Radio Journal for boys and girls tonight at 7.15 over CBM.

This program should not only be of significant interest and importance to the residents of N.D.G. but to the rest of the province, also, for it will present a dramatized version of the activities of the boys and girls in the school of the Montreal Association for the Blind, on Sherbrooke street west, showing just what blind boys and girls do, and how they are prepared to take their place in the world.

The program given by these blind boys and girls will not only be educational but also entertaining, for two of their accomplished pianists—Mabel and Edgar Assels, and a group of young girls, will offer the musical part of the program.

The program will strive to tell the interesting stories behind the lives of these young people, and how they have come to be a part of the school.

Many people know that blind people use Braille but just how, is a question mark to the majority of us. This system of reading will be explained and it is interesting to note that the program parts in which the boys and girls participate will be written in Braille script and presented over the air while the fingers of these youngsters follow the program sequence.

This is still the age of miracles, and when the listeners hear tonight's program their eyes should open wide with wonder.

Last Tuesday the Voice of Youth presented three gymnasts for the Westmount Y.M.C.A. in the persons of Gordon Beall, Dave Sproule, and Paul Redwood, who, in an interview with Ted Moorehouse, explained many of the fine points in the training of "Y" gymnasts under their director, Hugh Noble.

Mr. Harvey, who is conversant with the legal aspects of the Trade Union movement, is also associated with the Canadian Civil Liberties Union.

ALMOST A MASS ELECTROCUTION

When this school bus smashed into a pole near Coweta, Okla., as shown above, bringing down a 13,000-volt power line, 32 children narrowly escaped electrocution. Bus driver Cornell Krupp was electrocuted in an attempt to climb through a window.

Businessmen IN THE Public Eye

FRED GRIFFITHS

Frederick T. A. Griffiths was born thirty-one years ago in Toronto Ontario, Canada, and has been a resident of the City of Westmount for twenty-four years. He was educated at Queen's School of the Westmount Elementary Schools, and Westmount High School under the principalship of the late R. E. Howe. He is a member of the W.H.S. 'Old Boy's Association. While attending the high school he played senior basketball and was active in dramatics.

Mr. Griffiths is the owner of Acme Radio and Sports located at 344 Victoria Ave. He has been in the radio business for nine years and has now taken on the Sporting Goods trade, handling Slaters of Canada Ltd., tennis rackets, badminton supplies and skis.

He graduated from the School of Electrical Engineers, Milwaukee, having obtained a practical radio and electrical course. The Radio Manufacturers Service, a Philco plan for better radio service, has been subscribed to for some time, by his firm. He is a member of the Westmount Businessmen's Association. The official Radio Service men's association has been given his support.

He was stage manager of The Westmount Theatians for several years, when their female impersonation plays were the highlights of the Westmount legitimate stage. The Theatians are still in existence but not actively.

He is a member of the Church of the Messiah, Montreal, where he has taken part in several productions of the religious drama group known as the Everyman Players of that Church. The 16-30 Club, also of that Church, which won the Quebec Drama festival this year, produced a three act play under the direction of Mr. Griffiths. That was in the first year of the 16-30 Club's existence.

Acme Radio are dealers in the following radios: De Forest Crosley, Marconi, Philco and Sparton Radios and Norge Refrigerators and electrical appliances. For radio service or electrical repairs why not try calling WALnut 8200. His slogan is "Shop in Westmount First!"

Fossils Revue Again Proves Great Success

The Fossils Frolies of 1939, staged March 17th and 18th in Victoria Hall by the Fossils Club of Westmount, proved again that this organization knows exactly what west end audiences want—and how to give it them.

John Rice in his characterization of Hitler was magnificent; his speech in "German"—with just enough English words thrown in to make it understandable—was the highlight of the production. He also played the part of Mayor Camilien Houde, which role was so popular last year.

Cam Grant shone as usual, first in the part of an unsuspecting tourist who spends his life in a Montreal jail for spitting on the floor of a street car, and later as Robinson Crusoe, who with his man Friday, played by Bob Goodier, gets stranded on Montreal island and has considerable difficulty in seeing the King, since he cannot make himself understood by French-speaking policemen.

Bob Goodier gave several of his well known impersonations and got rounds of applause. Blake Sewell's orchestra participated in the program and played for a dance following the Friday night's performance.

Others who took part in the program included Carl Miskin, Art Brown, Lyle McMaster, Stew Hamilton, Art Mann, George Evans, Ronnie Jamieson, George Downs, Russ Anderson, Ed Hughes, Art Prevost, Ed. Hearns, John McMaster, Bert Goodier, John Crowley, Gordon Jamieson, Joe Brennan, Jim Barrett, A. Tester Jack Mowatt, Harry Stevenson, Mel Hearn, Ingraham Rice, Bill McDonald.

The meeting will be open to the public.

place early in May and views of the members regarding the next open session will be tabled for further study by the newly-elected executive.

The May meeting, if suggestions expected to be recommended by the retiring board are accepted, will probably be another of the successful "ladies nights" when door prizes will be distributed and a prominent guest speaker invited to the platform.

Due to the necessity of getting a representative group of businessmen present during the election of the new board, W. Boyd Robson, on behalf of the retiring executive, has requested that all members of the body be present in Victoria Hall on Monday night.

A great deal of effort has been spent by the present officers to guide the association during the first year of its existence and they feel that a strong board of directors is necessary if it is to continue to function successfully.

Horticultural Society...

This year is one which is termed semi-professional. This contest, which also is open to entire district, is designed to meet the needs of those who through ill health or lack of time are unable to perform all the necessary work in their gardens, and are forced to employ part time help. This competition should prove very popular as there are a large number of garden enthusiasts who come under this category. Persons employing full time gardeners are not eligible for this competition.

A Rock Garden contest open to the entire district, professional or amateur, has been arranged, this also is a new departure and should prove very popular.

Madame Joel Is Renowned As Corsetiere

Madame Joel, of 4888 Sherbrooke Street West, is renowned as a corsetiere who has made her shop more of an institution than a store where goods are merely bought and sold. Her highly skilled fitters are tactful and kind as well as efficient and the atmosphere created by carefully selected personalities for this specialized work is one to make a fitting a pleasure instead of a trial.

Appreciation of the satisfactory service rendered in the fitting of all foundation garments from the simplest brassiere or plainest girdle to the more luxurious garments and A'Laure bras, brings to Madame Joel the grandmother, mother and daughter of many a family that has been taught by this store to understand perfection in comfort and line no matter what the requirements of the season are.

Camp surgical corsets, which many women wear out of choice as well as from necessity, are adapted to the individual figure by Madame Joel, with emphasis on posture that ensures grace. Sta-Up-Top girdles are available here, too, among an assortment of fine under-things that suits every type of figure and individual taste.

Three Old Influences Affect New Jackets

Three influences have dictated the outlines of smart new jackets: the bolero, the basque and the Louis XV waistcoat. The bolero gives brevity, the basque fosters hip emphasis, the Louis XV a wasp-waisted fit. Here again, the three types often mix. Jacket revers are apt to be high and rounded, to sweep forward rather than turn back.

Successful Fashion Revue Staged At Victoria Hall

The beauty of spring fashions and colors were displayed to a large and enthusiastic audience last night in Victoria Hall, when Mrs. Hazel Warnecke, of the Hazeldine shoppe, presented a panorama of styles at a show given in conjunction with the League and Health and Beauty.

The show was opened with a series of health exercises by the junior girls of the League. Included in their demonstration were movements to aid deportment, poise, relaxation and enjoyment. The intermediate and senior girls gave an interesting display of exercises to improve circulation, leg muscles and to stream line the hips and waist.

Honor Davey and Chattie Dwight, instructresses at the league, gave speciality dance demonstrations including a Hungarian Gypsy dance and also an English exercise set to music entitled, "Movement is Joy." Accompanying music was played by Gertrude McKenzie Page, pianist.

In the realm of style, among the many suits modelled, the most popular were those featuring contrasting cardigan jackets of various dual colored tweed with a monotone flared skirt. In this particular group was a suit with a cranberry and white plaid jacket of misty tweed with a cranberry skirt. While manish suits are still very popular, this type of outfit takes second place to the smartly styled checks and plaids designed particularly for this season.

Colorful plaids and soft pastel predominated in the afternoon frocks. Most popular shades for this type of dress were lime, cy-topped with a suez bodice, was worn with a navy blue eyelet bolero jacket, tending to flatter the figure of the most fastidious woman.

Colors for evening dress run riotous into gypsy striped of all shades and contrasts. These colors have been worked out in a series of Romany stripes and feature blouse and skirt effect. The shirt-maker top in plain shades are accompanied with smartly striped skirts of truly gypsy colors. It was noted with interest that the hood idea, seen so much for winter sports, has also made a place for itself in evening clothes. One very chic evening dress of two tones of blue, with a cyclamen sash, featured this all important new item, which added a great deal of charm to the frock.

Dresses were set off by the smart millinery creations of Juliette. Favored for the Easter parade, are flower hats of all styles and colors. Plain sailors topped with multi-colored flowers, were also trimmed with gay veils. Tailored wets were trimmed with dashing quills, while the dressy tricornees were enhanced with a bouquet of flowers. Navy blue and white and black and white still claim the first place in fashionable hats. For the younger girls, all over flower hats are the very newest mode. Spring millinery is also seen the new dress shades. A note of contrast is added to the spring outfit by having an outfit of one shade and brightly contrasting hat.

The climax of the display was reached, when to the tune of the wedding march, the bridal party made its triumphant entry. The three bridesmaids were in gown of diagonal narrow shirred valance of orchid mauve, tea rose and aquamarine. They wore small doll's hats of matching shades, made by Juliette for the occasion.

Looking as lovely as any real bride, the gown worn by the model was of ivory Elizabeth tafeta and fashioned on princess lines. The entire skirt of the gown was embroidered in a lover's knot design of seed pearls. The headpiece of tulle illusion was also made by Juliette for the occasion.

Splendid Cast Featured In "Young Dr. Kildare"

Lew Ayres and Lionel Barrymore, the youngest and oldest veteran stars of the screen, are teamed in "Young Dr. Kildare," which is now playing at the York United Theatre until Friday.

Aside from the interest in the Kildare stories, "Young Dr. Kildare" is significant as Lew Ayres' third picture since his return to the screen spotlight. Since his performances in "Holiday" and "Rich Man, Poor Girl," which were praised by the press and public alike, Ayres has zoomed to the center of attention with motion picture fans.

"Young Dr. Kildare" also provides Lynne Carver with her first leading feminine role.

Others in the supporting cast are Nat Pendleton, Samuel S. Hinds, Emma Dunn, Walter Kingsford, Truman Bradley, Monty Woolley, Pierre Watkin and Nella Walker.

"Young Dr. Kildare" is the story of a young medical graduate who forsakes a career by the side of his country doctor father and even foregoes the love of a girl in his ambition to achieve something great in medicine for humanity. As an interne in a big city hospital, his independent thinking attracts the attention of a noted diagnostician and at the same time gets him thrown out of the institution. Almost defeated, he returns to his country town to find love waiting for him and there is a surprise denouement involving Dr. Gillespie.

Children's Theatre Will Offer "Pollyanna" Soon

The Children's Theatre, directed by Dorothy Davis and Violet Walters, have secured permission to present "Pollyanna" at Victoria Hall on Saturday, April 15, through special arrangements with the publishers. Those who are familiar with this delightful story, will remember that "Pollyanna" is the "glad girl" who goes through life bringing joy, happiness and gladness to everyone with whom she comes in contact.

Miss Dorothy Davis and Miss Violet Walters, directors of the Children's Theatre tried out several of their pupils for the title role, and after a good deal of speculation, decided to entrust the same to Patricia Joudry, convinced that this youthful aspirant had the right attitude towards the part, and has the naturally happy and gracious disposition that will be an asset to her portrayal of this delightful character of "Pollyanna. Patricia Joudry was seen earlier in the season in "Anne of Green Gables."

Great care has also been given in selecting the other parts in this delightful play, as there are some very fine characterizations in "Pollyanna" which are being portrayed by Lillian Wilkinson, Thelma Vautour, Laura Mitchell, Pat

"MADE FOR EACH OTHER"

"LYS BLANC" IS SPECTACULAR BALL

Betty Speirs Show of Shows This Saturday

Interest is at fever heat among the youthful artistes of the Betty Speirs' School of Dancing for the closing recital, which takes place on Saturday evening at Victoria Hall. The final rehearsals have been tackled with tremendous enthusiasm, much to the delight and satisfaction of Peter Miller, who is very confident that this entertainment will reach an "all high" for the school.

Variety will be the keynote of adagio, acrobatic and comedy routine program with ballet, tap, tines featuring the proceedings. The kiddies' presentation has aroused considerable interest. For this we think Mr. Miller deserves a great deal of credit, as he demonstrates fine showmanship on an occasion such as this by surrounding the little ones with elaborate scenic and lighting effects.

For "Goldilocks and the Three Bears" use is made of an elaborate set. Here will be seen a huge and colorful book, almost the size of the entire stage. The pages will turn and the various artistes will emerge in their order as they say the time honored old lines. The stellar roles will be taken by Nancy Telfer as "Goldilocks," Enid Pascoe and Alister Mont as Mamma and Papa Bear and Deltry Beacom as Baby Bear.

In the senior ballet "Lys Blanc," a huge set has been built to present this spectacular effort. Jean Barnes, as the White Lily, will be seen posing as the statue on a large pedestal. The other soloists include Gene Duffy, Doris Jackson, Peggy Jean Ross, Isobel McLellan, Mary Ledoux, Dorothy Fitzgerald, Joan Melvin, Isobel Ann Rubenstein, Joan Layton, Barbara Nuttall and Joyce Lozinski.

A special number will be presented by the business girls who will contribute a snappy tap routine. This group comprises Nessie MacLean, Kay Middleton, Dorothy Gormley, Marjorie Searight, Dorothy and Margaret Gray. Another presentation which is sure to be enjoyed is a "North West Mountie" scene in which the boys will be joined by Deltry Beacom as Rose Marie.

Three Adventurers Head Cast of "Dawn Patrol"

Back in the type of role that brought him to the forefront of the Hollywood acting ranks, Errol Flynn has the leading role in "The Dawn Patrol," now showing at the Westmount United Theatre. With him are Basil Rathbone and David Niven, making up the dashing trio of war aces, about whom the story centers.

A wartime drama of hell-for-leather British flying dare-devils, "The Dawn Patrol" gives Flynn the type of role he made popular when he first came to the attention of the American movie-going public as the pirate chief in "Captain Blood."

His amazing pace through such brilliant action films as "The Charge of the Light Brigade" and "The Adventures of Robin Hood" left him without equal as a swash buckler in the film colony.

Rathbone is no novice at adventuresome roles, and it was he as Sir Guy of Gisbourne who gave Flynn a run for his money in the final duelling scenes of "Robin Hood."

Niven, a young Englishman whose growing popularity has placed him in great demand at the Hollywood studios, has played in several pictures with a wartime locale, and makes a perfect third for the trio, who in "The Dawn Patrol" harass the enemy at every turn with their devil-may-care flying.

In Technicolor Black Is Taboo To Extra Girls

The growing popularity of films in Technicolor has doubled the problems of the extra girls.

The smart color for fall is black, and most of the several hundred girls on Central Casting's list bought their fall outfits, particularly street dresses, in that color, which is a total loss so far as Technicolor is concerned.

A call went out for 300 extras to work with Jeanette MacDonald, symphony orchestra and chorus, in a broadcast sequence of "Sweethearts" which is now playing at the Monkland United Theatre. The extras were to represent the audience at the National Broadcast Company's studio in Radio City, which had been recreated on a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer sound stage.

Unusual
Once while appearing in a breakfast scene, Nora Bayes, the famous actress, saw a child in a near-by box manifesting a deep and obviously hungry interest in the food. Placing an egg upon a dish, Miss Bayes walked to the box and tendered it to the youngster. But the child's mother haughtily refused to allow him to accept the gift.

Miss Bayes laughed good naturedly. "You should let the man take it," she said. "It is not often that eggs pass across the footlights from this side."

Life requires of us vision, patience, and passion.

Technicolor. The others showed up in their smart new blacks. The studio wardrobe department had to come to the rescue.

It isn't only the dress that must now be watched. If hair has been blonded, the part mustn't be allowed to grow dark. It shows.

SPRING EXHIBITION TAKES PLACE AT Y.M.C.A. ON SATURDAY

CANADIAN TRIO DESCRIBED BY BOSTON SCRIBE

But Notre Dame de Grace Runner Still Seeks Backing

"Canada's chances for another Boston A.A. Marathon has skyrocketed," writes Nemo Fucile in the Boston Advertiser, referring to the North Medford win of Gerald Cote, and following up with emphasis on the constant threat of Walter Young and Lloyd Evans of Montreal.

But what Fucile does not know is that there is a chance that Evans will not be carrying Canada's colors in the race, unless Montreal sportsmen come to the rescue. Evans has been training for the race for some weeks but now, with the race only a few weeks away, April 19th, has yet to find the necessary financing.

Fucile writes: "When Canada goes to the post in the annual 26 mile grind, she will have champions shooting for victory." Gerard Cote was mentioned as one. Another is Walter Young, Quebec policeman, of whom Fucile continues: "Won the B.A.A. event in 1937. If the axiom 'the early bird catches the worm' rings true, Canada should truck away another contest, for at this early date, the policeman is already plodding over the 26 mile route in preparation for the annual classic."

Fucile continues: "Another Canadian who will enter is Lloyd Evans, 22 year old junior member of the Marathon A.C., who ranks highly among distance runners. This trio won the team trophies in the Yonkers, Quebec Provincial and Canadian championship races last year."

It is estimated that between 200 and 250 runners will participate in the race, from Hopkinton to Boston.

McGill Track Meet Plans Laid

The 19th annual McGill Inter-scholastic Track Meet is being held at the Molson Stadium on Saturday, May 27th. Last year, 400 boys, representing 62 schools, took part in this outstanding school boy classic. Because of the interest being aroused locally by the formation of the British Empire Games Club and the big indoor meet being held in the Forum on April 14th, the meet management not only anticipate a record entry but expect the local boys to make a better showing than for many years past.

There has been a growing interest lately in track among the French school and, as a result of the success of Morchillon and others during the past season, it is expected that the French boys will take a prominent part in school boys' meets this spring.

'Fire Swatters' Prove Efficient In South Carolina

A new method of combatting woods fires in South Carolina has been adopted by an organized force of more than 1,600 fire fighters, who are wielding or have ready to wield, a peculiarly designed fire swatter which is demonstrating its efficiency in extinguishing blazes in forest areas most effectively, according to State Forester Smith.

"However, the balance of our population has not become acquainted with this very ingenious fire-fighting tool and still rely on pine tops for whipping out blazes in grass or pine straw which destroy small trees and injure or kill merchantable trees," he added.

Fire Warden Milligan of the Jackson Lumber Company first used the fire swatter on their Alabama lands during 1925; and later on its timber lands in Horry County, South Carolina. The Alabama forestry department adopted it as a standard equipment for its state forces and publicized its merits widely. Soon it was put into use by other states. Thus far all have reported it a most efficient and economical weapon for the important task of putting out fires in forests and woodlands.

A fire swatter is not a complicated or costly affair, but can easily be made from a piece of new or old four to six ply fabric belting from 10 to 14 inches in length, inserted in a handle for a distance of from six to eight inches and then fastened.

Many Exciting Bouts Are Staged Between Boys of All Weights

Annual boxing competitions at Lower Canada College for prep, junior and senior schools, were held yesterday afternoon with many exciting bouts being staged. Preliminaries started last week.

With The Boys At The Westmount "Y"

To-night will mark the first appearance of the Westmount "Y" team in the Sammett-Blair trophy play for the basketball championship of the City of Westmount. The "Y" squad who are the present holders of the cup and winners of their section of the M. B. L. hook up with the strong "All-Stars" team in the first game of a double-header at Queens School. In the second game of the evening St. Matts meets Gordie Peacock's Mohawks.

On Friday night, Westmount "Y" again face tough opposition, when they will be opposed by Howie Eakin's Queen's Grads. In the night cap the Mohawks take on the strengthened Yannigans, who have lined up Joey Richman. Last Thursday's double-header resulted as follows:
Queens Grads 42; All-Stars 39.
St. Matts 68; Yannigans 28.

Plebiscite Urged For Puerto Rico

A convention of 73 business, professional and civic organizations March 12 adopted a resolution calling for a definition of Puerto Rico's political status and recommended a plebiscite to determine the Island's future.

The carefully worded resolution was adopted unanimously after a two-hour discussion at which all mention of independence or statehood for the Island was avoided.

The convention, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and representing many of the Island's leading business organizations, directed the Puerto Rican Legislature to forward its recommendations to Washington.

Other resolutions called upon Washington to grant unrestricted domestic sugar production, approval of birth control, and amendments to the Island's wage and hour law.

Georgia Upholds Architects' Fees

The Georgia House upheld the State Hospital Authority in a test vote March 13, apparently removing possibility of direct legislative action in the controversy stirred by fees paid to a firm headed by L. W. Robert, Jr., secretary of the National Democratic Committee.

Representative John Parker of Colquitt County asked the House to adopt a resolution urging Harold L. Ickes, PWA Administrator, to disapprove the 6 per cent architectural and engineering fees the Authority contracted to pay Mr. Robert and Company of Atlanta for work on a $4,000,000 expansion program at the State Hospital in Milledgeville. The House rejected this resolution, 86 to 73.

FAMOUS DAWES "BLACK HORSES" SOON TO LEAVE FOR COUNTRY

The famous Dawes "Black Horses" will soon be going out to various counties throughout the Province where they will stand for the season. The benefits derived from the "Black Horses" by the farmers cannot be over emphasized, for, in eight breeding seasons they have sired over 10,000 foals and their "get" has clearly demonstrated the superiority of the Percheron strain for general farm work.

REFUSES TO BE CAUGHT NAPPING

Back to first base in a cloud of dust goes Augie Galan, Chicago Cubs' left fielder, to beat a Pittsburgh attempt to pick him off the bag in an exhibition game at Los Angeles. Gus Suhr awaits the throw. The Cubs won, 9-6.

Many Headline Stars in Winter Club Carnival

On the program of 20 cents, arranged for the Winter Club carnival to be held at the Forum, tomorrow and Saturday nights, to assist the Children's Memorial hospital, there are several world stars, each with a background and reputation that is somewhat breath-taking. One act, however, will earn its full share of applause according to those in charge of production, and that will be the demonstration by the Toronto four, comprising the Caley sisters, Montgomery Wilson and Ralph McCreath.

They have won competitions and medals galore, but the best evidence of their performance was brought out at the recent Toronto carnival, a five-night show which was sold out weeks in advance, at which they had to perform two and three encores every night.

The record of these four, either as individuals, pairs, or as a group, is one long list of championships both in Canada and other countries. Montgomery Wilson holds his position as the No. 1 Canadian figure skater by reason of being figure skating champion of North America from 1929 to 1939.

Anglers Association To Have Prize For Perch

Including this year a prize for the largest perch caught with rod and line in Province of Quebec waters during the 1939 season, the Anglers Association of Quebec will again award half a dozen trophies and a score of trophies to skillful (and lucky) anglers in 1939. Announcement of the season's plans was made by A. T. Stikeman, Chairman of the Prize Fish Contest committee of the Association.

Mr. Stikeman also states that trophies and prizes to 1938 winners will be presented at the Association's Sportsman's Show at the Mount Royal Hotel on April 25 and 26. Silver cups and merchandise prizes are awarded annually to the members of the Association who catch the largest fish of various species in waters within the Province of Quebec, as follows:
Harrison Brothers Trophy for the largest speckled trout taken in Quebec waters by a member of the Association, on artificial fly or light fly rod lure, with fly fishing tackle.

N. W. Crawford Trophy, for largest small-mouth black bass taken on fly or bait-casting tackle, using artificial or natural bait;
R. S. White Trophy, for largest maskinonge taken by a member on trolling rod and reel, natural or artificial bait;
Directors' Trophy, for largest Great Northern Pike taken by a member with casting or trolling rod and reel, natural or artificial bait;
R. H. Neilson Trophy for largest dore' taken by a member with rod and reel, artificial or natural bait;
Lake Trout Trophy for the largest lake (grey) trout taken with rod and line on natural or artificial bait;
Fish must be caught in Quebec waters by a member of the Association.

Fishing Boat Figures Large with Maine Coast Islanders

Along the Maine coast there are said to be 1,300 islands, big and little, inhabited and uninhabited. The Sea Coast Mission folks at Bar Harbor estimate at least 20,000 persons are living "off-shore" this winter. Many summer cottage owners who are out of work have either closed or rented their city homes and remained on the islands for the winter.

Dozens of cottages have been made habitable for cold weather by liberal use of tar or building paper, and plenty of firewood for stoves and fireplaces. Fuel is cheap on the islands and the man with nothing much to do until business improves rather enjoys cutting and hauling it home. There is always plenty of driftwood for those who gather it from shores.

Georgia Upholds Architects' Fees

The Georgia House upheld the State Hospital Authority in a test vote March 13, apparently removing possibility of direct legislative action in the controversy stirred by fees paid to a firm headed by L. W. Robert, Jr., secretary of the National Democratic Committee.

WESTMOUNT BRANCH ATHLETIC DISPLAY WILL INCLUDE MANY NOVEL, INTERESTING FEATURES

Physical Fitness Need Will be Expressed at Important Community Event - Complete Program Shows Many Attractive Presentations - All Departments Will Participate

The Spring Exhibition and Athletic Display of Westmount Y.M.C.A., will be held on Saturday, at 8.30 p.m., in the "Y" gymnasium. The display will include various novel and interesting features, not the least of which is the Cuban Cane Cutters Dance. It is the first time this athletic routine has ever been staged by a local group and should be a notable success.

The display will give an idea of the work done by the Y.M.C.A. towards building health and physical fitness in its members. "A healthy mind in a healthy body" is a famous "Y" motto and this exhibition will demonstrate how successfully the aim is achieved.

Physical fitness is of prime importance to young people of the present generation, when the future is so uncertain. It is particularly important under modern urban conditions where so many unhealthy distractions are bound to be present. The interesting and varied program, undertrained supervision, offered by the "Y", is the best possible solution to such problems.

The program for the display is as follows:
Grand March of all the participants.
Flying Rings and Side Horse Exercises by members of the Senior Leaders Corps.
Mexican Hat Dance by Mona Lewis and Norma Darling.
Maze Marching and Relay Races by the Preps.
Tumbling and Mat work by the Junior and Senior Leaders.
Norwegian Folk Dances by members of the Ladies Gym Class.

Exercises on the Horizontal Bar by men of the Senior Leaders Corps.
Tiger Leaping by the Senior Leaders Corps.
Cuban Cane Cutters' Dance, by members of the Senior Leaders Corps.
Sabre Combat, by members of the Fencing Club.
Parallel Bar Exercises and Pyramids, by the Senior Leaders Corps.
Comedy Gymnastics, with Mac Shippee, Len Schryer and Eddie DeWitt.
Statuary of Youth, by Senior Leaders Corps.

Without cost to anyone, additional room for free and continuously moving traffic could be obtained at once. Our streets when clear from curb to curb are still too narrow to accommodate modern traffic movement. Is it sensible to permit obstructions?

STRAY THOUGHTS WHILE TYPING

RCA's "Magic Key," one of radio's finer variety shows, may leave the air permanently following the broadcast of April 30. Death of the program will leave a void in NBC's Sunday afternoon schedule. . . Following completion of his current series with the Lyric Trio, Allan McIver is slated to head a smooth musical show designed for summer listening. As yet untitled, the program will hit the air early in May and travel from coast to coast. . . Theatrical speaking, Montreal remains the dead spot on an otherwise awakened "road." Although Helen Trenholm's homecoming last week was surrounded by the proper sentiment, her stage vehicle, "Importance of Being Earnest," flopped terribly at His Majesty's, suffering an even worse fate than befell "Flashing Stream" two weeks back. . . Andy O'Brien, Harold McNamara and Al Parsley are slated to appear in that order on CFCF's baseball series, aired Tuesday and Friday at 9.

SCOUTS, CUBS EAGERLY AWAIT VISIT OF KING

District Scouts Will Help to Make This Year's Display Better Than Ever

Boy Scouts and Wolf Cubs of Montreal are looking forward to what is possibly the greatest moment in the history of Scouting in Canada, for the first time in the thirty years of their existence, they will be visited by their Patron, His Majesty the King, and will take an important part in the royal reception here on May 16th.

As a forerunner to this long looked for event, the annual Scout Spring display will take ambitious lines this year, and will probably set a mark that will be hard for succeeding Displays to match. Scheduled for the Forum on the evening of Saturday, April 15th, the Display will see close to 3,000 Scouts in action, demonstrating the 101 various Scouting crafts before the huge audience that usually attends these Scout shows.

Troops of the Notre Dame de Graces and Westmount areas are now busy preparing for the event, which has now grown so large that it has been decided to split the annual display into two sections, the Wolf Cubs giving their own demonstration at the Molson Stadium on May 24th, although a certain section of the Forum display has been set aside for the youngsters, who will open the display with their effective Grand Howl, followed by a demonstration of one of their Jungle Dances.

District Troop Active Following the Wolf Cub event, members of the Second Westmount, Aquinas, St. Leo's and other troops of the Westmount District will give an exhibition of bicycle riding, and the observance of traffic regulations.

Some of the other troops in this display are: Iona, Montreal West, Rosedale, St. Columba, St. Matthews, Willingdon.

Following the games is one of the most colorful items, the Pioneering display, in which twenty-one troops will show how they build bridges, towers, camps, surmount highwalls with heavy loads on trek carts etc., etc.

Physical displays will also be given on the big Forum floor durgenius is something less than sensational. . .

DIAL DELIRIUM

CBS yesterday revealed plans for extensive alterations to the famed Julliard Musical Foundation building, recently purchased by the network as a studio extension. Once the property of the Vanderbilts, the eight-story building is on 52nd Street immediately opposite Columbia's Manhattan headquarters and will house eight new studios of advanced design. . . Walter Downs, commercial announcer on the NHL hockey broadcasts from the Forum, will probably tackle NBC kilocycles during the summer months on a special dance series originating in northern Quebec. . .
