3 Children Dead; Hold Mother

VILLE MARIE, Que. — A 28 year old mother is being held by police as a material witness in the drowning of her three young children Monday in Lake Temiskaming.

Mrs. Paul Bergeron of nearby Laverlochere was taken into custody after she wandered into a home in this community on the Ontario border some 200 miles northwest of Ottawa, with her clothes drenched.

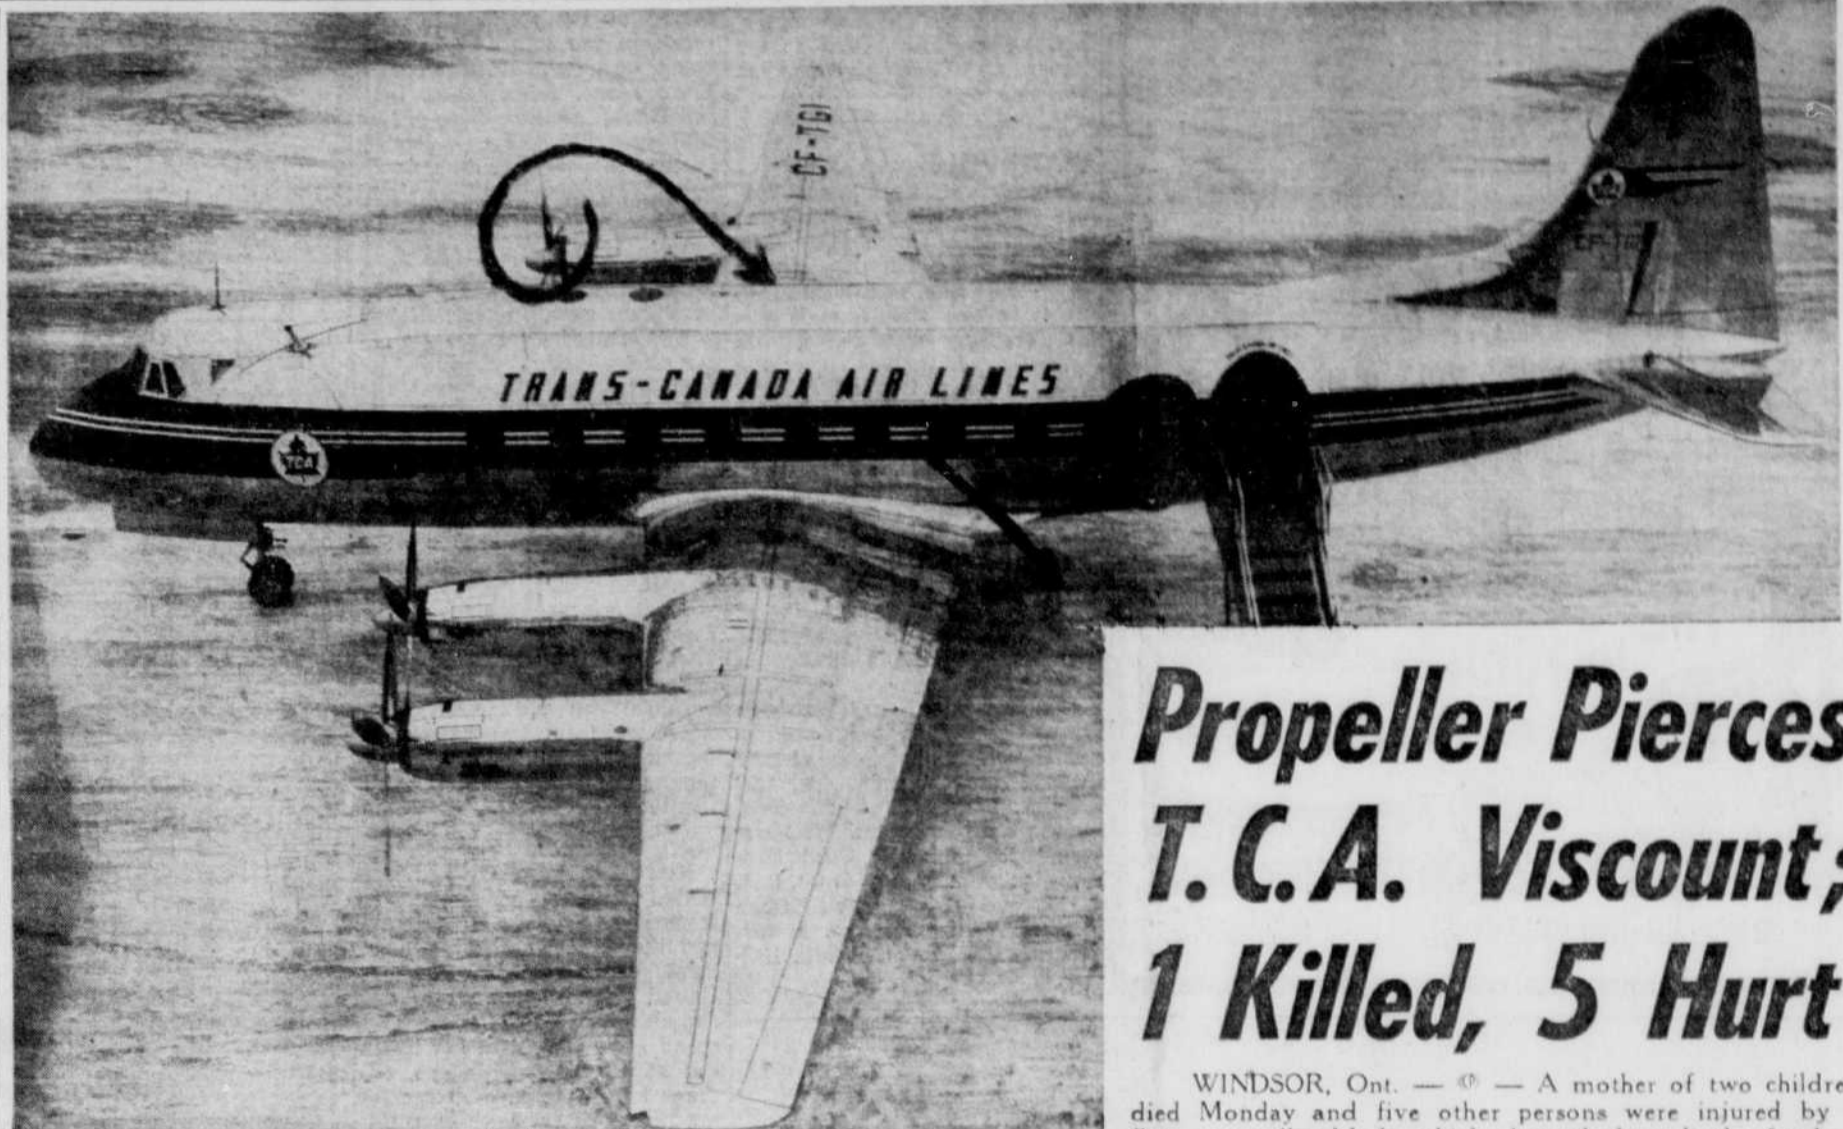

The bodies of the children Paulette, 5, Andre, 3, and Joanne, 2 were found a short time later in the lake near here. Police said the water is only three feet deep at the spot. A truck owned by the Bergerons stood abandoned on the shore.

Police said Mrs. Bergeron had loaded the children into the truck and driven the 13 miles here from her home.

Residents said Mr. and Mrs. Bergeron have both been sick recently. Mr. Bergeron, 31, was said to be suffering from tuberculosis.

No charges are laid in Quebec until after a coroner's inquest. One will be held later this week.

The bodies of the children were taken to the morgue in nearby Lorrainville. Dr. J. P. Valcourt, provincial pathologist, left Montreal for here Monday night and may conduct autopsies.

Propeller Pierces T.C.A. Viscount; 1 Killed, 5 Hurt

WINDSOR, Ont. — A mother of two children died Monday and five other persons were injured by a flying propeller blade which sheared through the fuselage of a Trans-Canada Air Lines Vickers Viscount.

The aircraft, bound from Chicago to Toronto, made an emergency landing at Windsor airport.

A five-man TCA investigation team from Toronto was to arrive this morning to begin enquiries into the mishap. The RCMP already were carrying out preliminary investigations.

The dead woman was identified by TCA as Mrs. Mary Carolyn Lippert of Hanover, Ont. Both her sons were accompanying her. Robert, 2, is in hospital suffering from shock; Ricky, 15 months, was not injured.

Mrs. Lippert was the wife of Dr. Robert Lippert, who is studying at the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minnesota. Mrs. Lippert was returning to her Kitchener home for the summer.

In hospital in critical condition with a badly mangled left leg and suffering from severe shock is Christopher Dumbell, 29, of Dubuque, Iowa. His wife, Donna, 26, and their son Donald, 3, are also in hospital, both suffering from leg injuries.

Donovan Stevens, 47, of Mundelein, Ill., was admitted to hospital with a laceration on the back of his neck.

Two stewardesses, Sheila Thomson and Rita Tobin, both of Toronto, were shaken up but proceeded to Toronto by train shortly after the mishap.

The propeller blade went through the plane, cutting a hole about two feet square on both sides.

Mrs. Lippert, sitting on the right side where the blade entered, was struck by it and the upper part of her body badly mangled. Other injured persons were struck by flying debris.

Pilot R. D. Smuck and co-pilot A. C. Adamson were praised by the passengers for the manner in which they brought the plane to a safe landing.

Captain Smuck said the engine began to run out of control at an altitude of 19,000 feet. The plane was brought down to 8,000 feet, but attempts to "feather" or shut off the engine were unsuccessful.

Passengers said the mishap was heralded with a sound similar to an explosion.

Freak Accident Kills Woman — Line drawn on this picture shows the approximate path of a propeller which flew off a TCA Vickers Viscount yesterday, piercing the plane and killing a mother of two children. (CP)

City Moves To Fight Three For 30 Cents Planned By, Laramee

Laramee Bus Service, which operates Sherbrooke's public transportation system, will seek another increase in fares, it was learned last night.

The company, under severe fire from city council, will petition the Transportation Board for the right to revise its fare structure as follows:

... Tokens to be three for 30 cents instead of the present three for 25 cents.

... Cash fare to be 15 cents instead of 10 cents.

Effective date, proposed by the company, is August 1st.

City Council, when a communique from the company was read last night, was unanimous in its decision to fight the proposed increase.

"It is our duty to oppose this increase," Mayor Nadeau told fellow councillors. "Sherbrooke is somewhat unique as far as transportation is concerned. In other cities which are almost level, you will find thousands of bicycles. But here, just about everybody who doesn't own a car goes to work by bus."

The city, in its opposition, will also go to bat for the city's University students. Under existing regulations, students are eligible for special rates (5 cents) only up to the age of 18. Alderman Gervais pointed out that there are now two universities within a radius of five miles and that many university students were over 18. Council agreed that all students should receive special consideration on the buses.

The bus company contends that last year it suffered a deficit of $1,214 on its operations. Maintenance of equipment and other costs had made the fare increase necessary, the company said.

The request marks the second since the company was taken over by Laramee. Shortly after taking over, the company boosted the fare to three for a quarter from four for a quarter.

Greeks Comb Ruins For Quake Victims

ATHENS, Greece — The death toll in the earthquakes and tidal waves which rocked the Aegean Islands south of Greece rose to 53 today as rescue workers searched through wrecked buildings for the more than 20 persons still missing.

Prime Minister Constantine Karamanlis' office said all casualties were on Thira — most in the town of Santorini — except for five injured on the neighboring island of Amorgos.

An earlier report that 10 died on Ios appears incorrect.

A new earthquake and tidal wave this morning struck two islands in the Dodecanese group about 80 miles from Santorini, epicentre of Monday's disaster. Some damage was caused on the islands of Karpathos and Kassos.

Thousands of homeless spent the night in the fields. Minor earth shocks continued through the night and into the morning. The Athens observatory said 257 tremors of varying intensity had been recorded.

First eyewitness reports from Greek reporters on Thira, southernmost island of the Cyclades group and the home of some 10,000 persons, said the first quake lasted 45 seconds and struck just after sunrise.

Most of the casualties were women and children. Their men already had left for the fields to cultivate the wine grapes for which the island is noted. The screams and moans of those trapped guided them as they rushed back to devastated Santorini, perched on a cliff above the water.

Serious property damage also was reported from Amorgos, 25 miles northeast of Thira. The tidal waters flooded low-lying farmlands and washed up or wrecked fishing boats, but little other damage was reported from them.

Seasoned by a series of quakes in recent years, the Greek government sped aid to the stricken areas.

Canadian Expansion Amazes C.D.

OTTAWA — Canada appears headed for a record-breaking capital expansion this year of such magnitude that even optimistic Trade Minister C. D. Howe says he's astonished.

The minister told the Commons Monday night that a mid-year survey by his department indicates an upward revision of 1956 building plans involving outlays 28 per cent above capital expenditures in 1955 — or some $7,974,000,000. Even that prediction at the beginning of the year had caused the minister to express doubts it could be done.

Mr. Howe gave the figures as he stepped into a full-scale economic debate initiated in the Commons by Opposition leader Drew.

Mr. Drew sharply criticized the government's economic and trade policies and introduced what amounted to a want-of-confidence motion urging adoption of policies to ensure development of Canada by Canadians for Canadians.

To Mr. Drew's demands that the government give attention to the growing trade deficit with the United States, Mr. Howe cited his department's capital expenditure predictions and said the fact is that Canada is expanding so fast her industries have to buy their needs in the U.S. because they can't get them in Canada.

One Escapee Gets Extra Seven Years

TROIS-RIVIERES, Que. — A 23-year-old convict who escaped from penitentiary with two other prisoners June 29 Monday was sentenced to seven additional years after he admitted committing a $20,000 bank holdup less than 24 hours before he was recaptured last Friday.

Gilles Hamel, who escaped from St. Vincent de Paul penitentiary near Montreal after serving two months of a five-year sentence for breaking and entering and theft, pleaded guilty to the holdup at a branch of the Banque Provinciale du Canada at Yamachiche, Que., 75 miles northeast of Montreal.

A companion, Fernand Dubelias Dumont, 28, serving 16 years at the penitentiary for aggravated assault, theft and other crimes, was arraigned on a similar charge. He pleaded not guilty and was ordered for preliminary hearing July 16. Dube had served five years at the penitentiary prior to the escape.

The third escaped prisoner, Gaston Martel, 25, pleaded not guilty Monday when he was arraigned in Montreal on a charge of holding up a Montreal Caisse Populaire (credit union) and escaping with $4,000. He asked for trial by judge alone.

Martel appeared dressed in sports clothes and sporting a jaunty straw hat, which he was ordered to remove.

Today's Chuckle

The country boy, doing a hauling job, was told he would not get his money until he submitted a statement. After much meditation he produced one:

Ike Definitely Will Run Again, Knowland Reports

GETTYSBURG, Pa. — (P) — President Eisenhower is going to run for a second term.

Republican Senate leader William Knowland disclosed this at a press conference on the Gettysburg College campus today.

Knowland said the president told a meeting of Republican congressional leaders he feels in better shape than he did when he made his Feb. 29 announcement that he would seek re-election.

"We are looking forward to a very vigorous and active campaign under his leadership," Knowland said.

Jap Socialists Increase Seats

TOKYO — (P) — Japanese Socialists, riding a strong neutralist wave, have won enough seats in the upper house of parliament to smash Prime Minister Ichiro Hatoyama's plans for speedy rearmament.

With only one seat at stake in Sunday's elections still undecided, Hatoyama's Conservative coalition held 184 of the 250 seats in the House of Councillors.

Although the government thus had a solid 78-vote majority in the upper house, a leftist gain of 12 seats made it impossible for Hatoyama's forces to muster the two-thirds membership in both houses needed to cancel the anti-war clause of the constitution adopted during the United States occupation.

PM Won't Let Beaudoin Resign As House Of Commons Speaker

OTTAWA — Commons Speaker Rene Beaudoin, at the request of Prime Minister St. Laurent, has decided not to resign his post.

Mr. St. Laurent made the surprise announcement to the Commons Monday that its 44-year-old Speaker, under opposition fire for more than a month, will stay on.

The prime minister, to repeated Liberal applause, said there is nothing to justify accepting the resignation which Speaker Beaudoin, on July 2, tendered with the wish that it be "accepted as soon as possible."

"My confidence in Mr. Speaker is unshaken," Mr. St. Laurent said, adding he believes that confidence "is shared by an overwhelming majority of members."

He said he had conferred with Mr. Beaudoin and found the Speaker "willing to subordinate his personal feelings to his duty to Parliament"—a reference to the Speaker's expressed desire to step down from the chair "to regain my full freedom of speech."

Mr. St. Laurent's statement, his first act on returning to the Commons from a two-week absence in London at the Commonwealth prime ministers' conference, was read from a prepared text.

Mr. Beaudoin made no comment.

Progressive Conservative and CCF parties, obviously caught by surprise, made no reply except for the shouted words of an unidentified member: "The Liberals are yellow."

For the two opposition groups, the development is not likely to settle anything. Their main demand—for a speedy election—remains unfulfilled. They have already expressed lack of confidence in the Speaker in an unsuccessful and unprecedented motion of censure which stemmed from the bitter pipeline battle.

That motion by Opposition leader Drew, charging Mr. Beaudoin with subordinating the rights of the Commons to the government's will, was defeated 109 to 35.

Mr. Beaudoin, continuing in office, will have no immediate opportunity to reply in detail to the opposition accusations. He already has said his conscience is "perfectly clear" and that he never acted out of partisan motives.

The two opposition parties apparently have made no decision yet whether to raise again the question of the speakership during the time remaining in the present session — perhaps one month.

Mr. St. Laurent's decision that Speaker Beaudoin should be asked to remain was made in cabinet meetings Saturday and Monday morning after his return from London. It apparently was a last-minute decision.

Mr. St. Laurent said he shared the Speaker's regret that details of a private letter Mr. Beaudoin sent to a Montreal newspaperman was published in Montreal La Patrie.

The letter to Alonzo Cinq-Mars said: "My accusers distorted the facts for their own political ends."

Said Mr. St. Laurent: "I cannot share the view that, because the Speaker had expressed in private the views he did express in that letter, he could no longer continue to be an impartial and competent speaker."

St. Laurent Optimistic On World Situation

OTTAWA — Prime Minister St. Laurent is a man who chooses his words carefully and cautiously.

Therefore his statement Monday in the Commons could be regarded as one of the most heartening heard by Canadians in years on the world situation.

He said the new Russian attitude offers opportunities for improved East-West relations and perhaps even for settlement of major problems dividing the free and Communist worlds.

Mr. St. Laurent went farther. He made it plain that Canada and other Commonwealth countries won't sit back and wait for Russia to make conciliatory moves but will "seek and use" opportunities to improve relations with Russia.

Officials here for some time have been speaking of a Russian detente, or easing of tensions. Apparently the nine Commonwealth prime ministers who met in London for 10 days* are convinced there is something in this.

External Affairs Minister Pearson has been saying for some time that the West must develop a more flexible policy to deal with the "new Russian regime," particularly in the economic field. Of course, Mr. St. Laurent cautioned that peace hasn't broken out yet. But he suggested one method of improving relations with Russia while helping to bring about a Middle East settlement.

Banks Up Interest To 2 1/4 Percent

OTTAWA — (P) — Owners of some 8,000,000 savings deposits in Canada's chartered banks will share in the banks' increased earnings through the first boost in the savings interest rate in three years.

The rise, announced by the Canadian Bankers' Association at Toronto last night will push the rate to 2 1/4 per cent from two — about the highest since the early 1930s when it was at a peak of three per cent.

For about 17 years, between 1936 and 1953, the rate was 1 1/2 per cent. The savings on which the interest is paid have more than doubled in the last decade to a current high of some $5,700,000,000.

James Muir, president of the Royal Bank of Canada, says the increase, effective Aug. 1 was long over due. Finance Minister Harris and A. C. Ashforth, president of the Toronto-Dominion Bank, say it will encourage savings and make more money available for bank loans.

Eden And Lloyd To Visit Moscow In May, 1957

LONDON. — (Reuters) — Prime Minister Eden announced today that he and Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd will pay a 10-day visit to Moscow next May.

Eden told the House of Commons he and Lloyd planned to arrive in the Soviet capital May 5.

Their trip repays the visit here last April of Soviet Prime Minister Nikolai Bulganin and Communist party secretary Nikita Khrushchev.

World News In Brief

WESTBURY, N.Y. — (P) — The search for kidnapped Peter Weinberger bogged down again Monday in a welter of hoax calls from heartless meddlers. Police turned this way and that, without a clue.

No trace of the five-weeks-old boy has been found since he was seized from the patio of his home here in mid-afternoon of July 4. Nor has there been a scrap of hard evidence that the child still is alive.

Cairo, Egypt — (Reuters) — The newspaper Al Shaab says Egypt soon will receive new submarines and destroyers—but it did not say from whom.

The newspaper describes the submarines as being "the most modern." It said they were due to reach Egyptian waters "within the next few days."

SEOUL — (P) — South Korean police today announced the arrest of five men accused of supplying information on the South Korean army to the North Korean Communist regime.

Police said 15 others believed to be members of the same spy ring are being sought. The five arrested also were accused of shipping a large quantity of petroleum products and medicine to North Korea and Communist China by boats.

VIENNA — (P) — Two leading Hungarian jockeys apparently raced to freedom after taking part in an international riding event in Vienna last Sunday.

Racing officials said today the jockeys and a Hungarian stable boy were missing at Vienna's railway station when the rest of the Hungarian team left Monday night for Budapest.

The missing riders were identified as P. Kallai and P. Boeska.

NEW YORK — (P) — A new female sex hormone promises to save thousands of babies who are born prematurely, a drug firm said Monday.

It can work in either of two ways. It sometimes stops the premature labor contractions, thus giving the infant more time to develop in the womb.

Or it can make the premature birth easier so the babies are not fatally injured before being born.

OTTAWA — (CP) — Fisheries Minister Sinclair said Monday night that in the normal course of events he would not expect a federal general election to be held until next year or perhaps not until 1958.

Mr. Sinclair was interviewed on a CBC television free-time political broadcast, The Nation's Business.

Welcome News

Canadians, who hold pleasant memories of the visit of Queen Elizabeth to this country before she ascended to the Throne, will unite in the wish that she will be able to accept the invitation extended to her by Prime Minister St. Laurent to take part in the ceremonies in connection with the opening of the St. Lawrence seaway in 1959.

From the engineering viewpoint and from the probable effects upon the economy of the North American continent and the world at large, the St. Lawrence seaway is one of the greatest projects undertaken by mankind and it is only suitable that the opening ceremonies should be presided over by the ruling heads of the greatest nations concerned in the development.

But it is also to be hoped that Her Majesty will find time to make a tour of other parts of this great country and visit many important centres which she was forced to overlook during her tour of North America a few years ago.

People in all parts of this Dominion wish to pay their homage and respect to their beloved ruler and with three years in which to plan for the visit, authorities at Westminster and Ottawa should be able to work out an itinerary that would take Her Majesty to all sections of the country without providing undue strain.

Oh! The Sacrifice!

Apparently there won't be as many fat Canadians in future years, if people in this country press on with the trend that has appeared recently in that wonderful institution — Eating.

A Canadian Bank of Commerce survey team has discovered that Canadians are shying away from such pound-producers as cereals, potatoes and butter. To compensate, we are consuming more meat, citrus fruits, vegetables, eggs, milk and cheese.

The report mentioned that while Canadians no doubt have become weight conscious to some degree, a good reason for the trend was probably that higher incomes allowed a wider variety of food.

This probably is very true. Excluding desserts and pastry, it seems to us that the variety of our food has been extended primarily by foods of the less-fattening type. Frozen vegetables and juices are good examples.

At the same time, this sort of thing is just like handing a youngster a prize and then taking it back because he used a pencil instead of a pen to write his examination.

The conductors of this survey obviously never watched a 220-pounder sit in a restaurant and gaze sardoniously at his 100-pound wife, spoonful over a chocolate, marshmallow, nut sundae, garnished with French Fries. This scene, repeated day after day in all parts of the country, is worthy of the utmost in praise. Never mind that money and variety stuff; let's talk about will-power.

Think of the food and weight charts that have made the word "calorie" as familiar as hamburger. Think of the pangs of fear that accompany every step onto a scale. Think of the potatoes and pastry passed by; the dainties declined; the sandwiches shunned. Oh the pity!

It's time these great sacrifices were fully appreciated. We'll bet the people who made that survey are all six-footers who don't weigh more than 150 pounds with a pocket full of chocolates.

Pass the saccharin!

By What Standard?

Addressing a recent session of the Canadian Welfare Council at Edmonton, Welfare Association Director R. E. G. Davis declared that at least $1,500,000,000 more should be spent each year to bring Canada's social and welfare services up to standard. Among the proposals he advances are the doubling of the family allowances and the introduction of several new taxpayer-financed social services.

Unfortunately, like so many other "do-gooders," Mr. Davis does not say exactly what the standard is that he has in mind. Certainly it is not the yardstick established by the expenditures in other countries on social security measures, because on this basis the Canadian government's expenditure per capita must rank at or near the top of the list.

It is unfortunate, indeed, that an organization such as the Canadian Welfare Council, whose basic task is to promote private, voluntary welfare work, should seek the easy way out by trying to double the tax burden of social security costs, without really accomplishing anything at all to help solve the social and welfare problems of those in real need.

If people like Mr. Davis would spend more thought and effort on the problems of need, and devote less of their time to spreading the taxpayers' dollars around among the greatest possible number of people regardless of need, organizations such as the Canadian Welfare Council would command a lot more respect and support than they do at the present time.

Baffling Officiales

(Toronto Telegram)

Official language, for some obscure reason, strives for obscurity of meaning, and often succeeds. The latest evidence of this is a test carried out by Welfare Minister Cecile. A typical departmental letter sent to a group of junior high school pupils was found by 39 per cent of them to be a poor draft; 41.4 per cent found it difficult to read; and 34.5 per cent thought the logic was complicated. In other words, the letter failed a junior high school test in clarity. If it is contended that the judgment of high school pupils is scarcely a fair test, adults might try their powers of comprehension on the following piece. It is taken from the Municipal Act, the part of it entitled "Who To Be Entered On Voters' List," than which nothing could be more important in civic affairs:

"If the rating of land owned or occupied by two or more persons jointly and not severally is sufficient, if equally divided among them, to give a qualification to all, each of them shall be deemed to be rated within the meaning of this section, and if such rating is insufficient to qualify all, so many of them shall be deemed to be rated within the meaning of this section as will result in whole numbers from a division of the minimum rating prescribed by subsection 2 into the total rating of the land, and in such case the persons who shall be deemed to be rated shall be named in a writing to be signed by all such point owners or occupants and upon such nomination being filed with the clerk."

This probably accounts for the poor turnout at the polls. By the time persons, jointly or severally, decipher what it means election day will have come and gone. Mr. Cecile's move to remove the gobbledygook in his department sets a commendable example. Officials at all levels who cannot understand why their communications produce a dazed response might follow it with happier results.

FEWER DRUNKS

Alcohol consumption increased in Norway in 1955 but arrests for drunkenness dropped to 31,888 from 33,086 in 1954.

Bygone Days

THIRTY YEARS AGO
From the Record of Saturday, July 10, 1926.

The eleventh Briand Government of France has weathered another crisis, receiving a narrow vote of confidence in the Chamber of Deputies. It is feared that the fiscal reform plans and the United States debt settlement will receive a rough passage however.

Municipal health authorities declare that the construction of an incinerator, as suggested by provincial inspectors is not a matter of urgent importance. Large quantities of German coal are being imported into the British Isles to maintain the general industrial machine during the miners' strike.

Officers for the Myrtle Rebekah Lodge at Lennoxville were Mrs. Bella Walker, Mrs. Boulom, Mrs. Lane, Mrs. Gladys Dawson, Miss Cassidy, Mrs. Dunn, Mrs. Everette, Mrs. Waite, Mrs. Dewhurst, Mrs. Barter and Mrs. Spry.

TWENTY YEARS AGO
From the Record of Friday, July 10, 1936.

Despite the French action in denouncing the Mediterranean defense accord, Great Britain, Greece, Turkey and Yugoslavia have decided to continue the agreement reached at the time of the Italo-Ethiopian conflict.

No relief is apparent from the searing heat wave in the mid-west section of the continent. The death toll is near 300 and the wheat belt is badly hit. Large forest areas are afire. Small fruits in Eastern Canada are also being burned. Declaring that "mob rule" was to end in Ontario, Premier Hepburn established special police squads to break up demonstration by relief recipients. Committee chairmen named for the Frank W. Hearle Club were: Frank W. Hearle, D. L. Dashney, E. J. Struthers, E. Kelly, W. R. Dailey, Col. B. B. Morrill, H. W. Denick, Walter Norris, Rev. George Harrington, J. D. Ferguson, and J. E. Perkins.

TEN YEARS AGO
From the Record of Wednesday, July 10, 1946.

Eleven men and one woman are on trial for their lives today, charged with inciting mobs to attack the homes of Jews and touching off a bloody July 4th program here in which 41 persons were killed and 40 injured.

Investia declared today that the United States and Britain had employed United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration food to exert "political pressure" on countries aided, and charged that the purpose of Herbert Hoover's recent world-circling fame tour was to spread "anti-Soviet propaganda."

Three residents of Derby Line, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sheehan and their young son, Pat, owe their lives to their ten-month old English setter "Patches," who shortly after 5 o'clock on Sunday morning awakened the family who found the house ablaze. The dog, however, died in the fire.

DAVY'S SUCCESSOR

(Windsor Star)

Just when we thought the youngsters would be getting back to their marbles, hoops and sling shots after the coon skin cap craze, word comes that promoters are creating a Canadian counterpart of the U. S. Davy Crockett legend. They have been delving into the history books and are coming up with a 17th century character by the name of Pierre Radisson.

Born in France, Radisson came to Canada in 1651, was captured by the Indians, escaped, fought both against and for the English, and bought, sold and swapped furs for a living.

There is just about no limit to what the script and song writers can fabricate (either definition of that word will do) from back-ground material like that.

TELL THE TRUTH.

(Windsor Star)

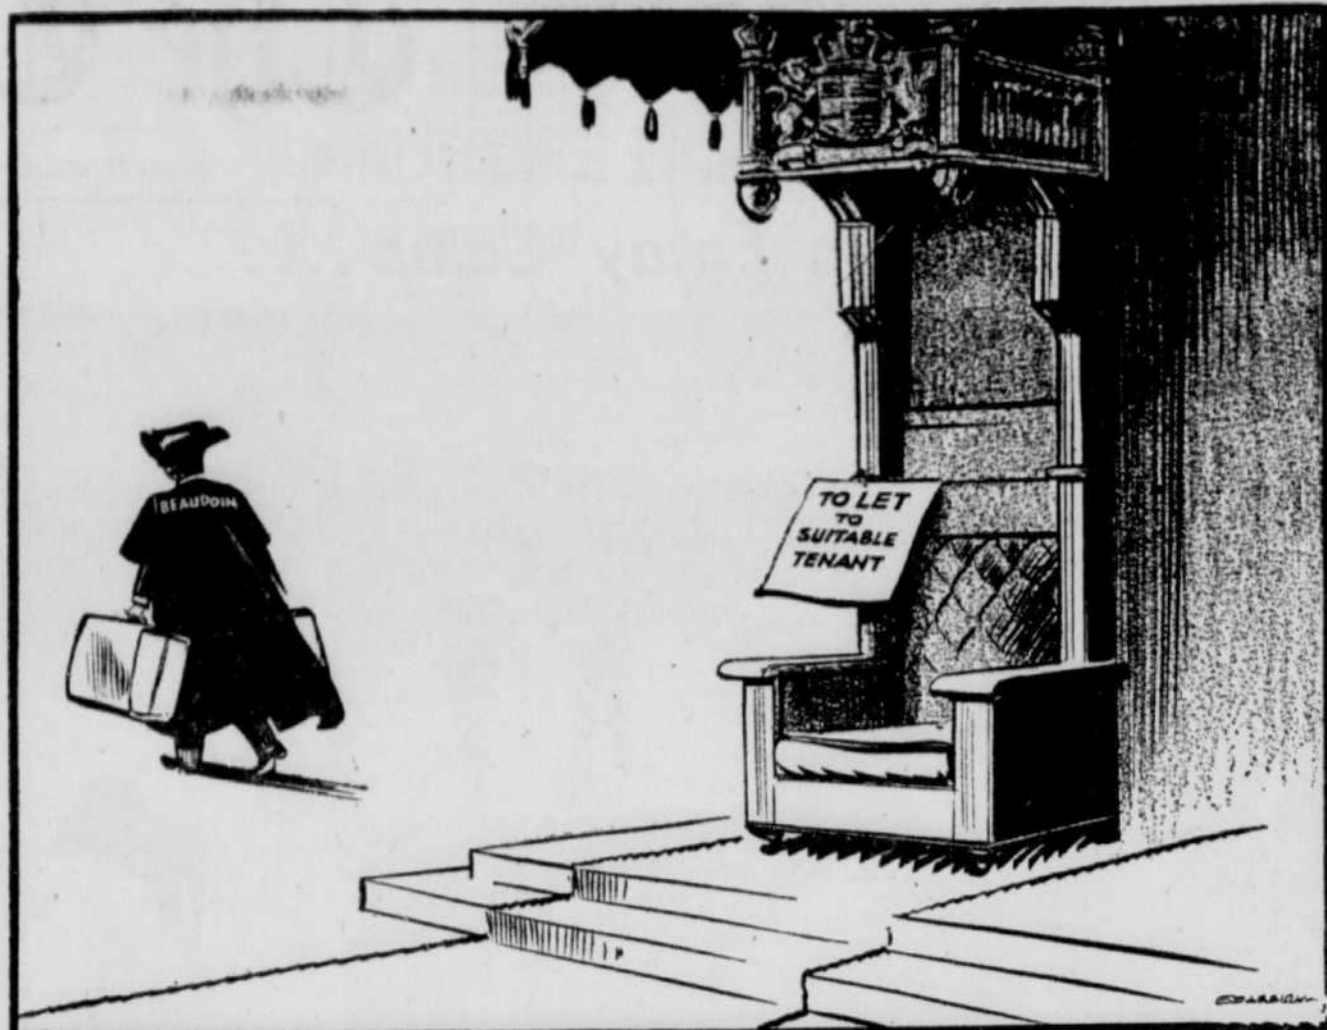

Army officers in Washington are said to be perturbed by testimony that hundreds of millions would "be in an atomic war. This implies they believe the truth should not be told the people.

The more awful the truth, the less likely a war. And, why shouldn't the people be told the truth? If democratic freedom means anything, it should mean freedom to know what is going on, unless it is incompatible with national security. In this case, by awareness of the danger and other factors, the truth should be helpful to national security.

SHOULD LISTEN TO HIM

(Peterborough Examiner)

A C.C.F. member of Parliament has been called "a young whippersnapper" in debate; when the worst thing you can accuse a man of is his youth it might be helpful to listen to what he has to say.

Press Comment

IN STOLEN CLOTHES

(Winnipeg Free Press)

The success of the CCF in Saskatchewan can be attributed to two things. First, to some qualities of its own and especially its good sense in abandoning socialist theory and modifying its policies to meet the needs of the province. Secondly to the weaknesses of an opposition divided between two utterly different parties.

The Saskatchewan CCF, no matter how much lip service its members may pay to the Regina manifesto, is no longer a socialist party. Capitalism, which the manifesto promised to eradicate, is now welcomed in Saskatchewan and by none more heartily than by Mr. Douglas.

While this has its obvious advantages in the provincial arena, it cannot but embarrass Mr. Douglas' colleagues in Ottawa, who now find that the party in Saskatchewan is decked to a considerable extent in Liberal clothes.

SECRET IS RESPECT

(Windsor Star)

The survival of free countries will depend to a very considerable extent on the respect which their people have for one another's differences. Once we learn to like or dislike one another for what we are as individuals, rather than for what we believe or for what group we belong to, our country will be attaining the ideal of real brotherhood.

A real spirit of tolerance and goodwill won't come as a matter of course. Little more than a century ago Canada was made up of "two nations warring in the bosom of a single state." Gradually we have learned the secret of unity which binds our country together. That secret is simple: Respect for one another, for faiths, customs, traditions and even peculiarities that are not the same as our own. Bit by bit, we have developed an appreciation of the viewpoint of one another, but there are still exceptions, particularly in the fields of public office and employment.

FEWER WHALERS

Whaling companies in Norway, Britain, the Netherlands and Japan agreed in 1955 to reduce the number of whalers by 35.

SOUTH SOLVES DUMMY'S BLOCK

There seem to be 12 tricks for the taking in today's hand; four spades, four diamonds, two hearts, and two clubs. The trouble is that South can't reach both of dummy's tricks. He must either overtake the jack of spades or the king of clubs to reach the trick, and either play costs a dummy.

Strange as it seems, South's best play for 12 tricks is to overtake both of these cards. South wins the first diamond, overtakes the king of clubs with dummy's ace, and leads the jack of clubs. East might cause trouble by refusing the trick, but South would still make the slam by careful play. Assume that East takes the queen of clubs and returns a diamond.

Discarding a heart from dummy. He next cashes the ace and queen of spades, after which he overtakes the jack of spades with dummy's king. He would be safe now if the spades were 3-3, since dummy's last spade would be good.

When the spades fall to drop, South cashes dummy's ten of clubs, hoping that the nine of clubs will fall. Once more South is disappointed, but not for long. The ten of clubs squeezes West. West has the fourth diamond. If West discards another heart, South makes the last three tricks in his own hand. If West, instead, discards his last spade, dummy's lowly five of spades becomes good. Either way, South gets his all-important 12th trick.

THE BLIND

Often I have pitied the blind. And feel so sorry for them I thought they were lonely and scared. That nobody cared for them I was wrong, I know it now. Every one cares for them. A blind man's love is a thing to behold. To ever have pitied the blind. This I say, wherever you walk Go careful and slow the blind man's way. If you go there I'm sure you will Keep to the right of way. Now you see how wrong I was To ever have pitied the blind. They know a peace and calm within That the sighted have trouble to find.

IRON CURTAIN CRASHER

We confess a sneaking respect for one resourceful gentleman who fooled the Comies—albeit by morally dubious means. Seems he would load his hollow aluminum artificial leg with candy, coffee and nylons in West Berlin, then whisk over the border into East Berlin in his motorized wheel chair. He made a neat profit—until the border gendarmes ultimately caught up with him.

More and more businesses—from artificial limbs to shipbuilding—similarly find aluminum a valuable aid to sales and profits. Further major expansion of Alcan's smelters in both Quebec and B.C. is aimed to satisfy the continued increasing demand for the light metal.

Summertime Casserole

Casserole cookery is one of the culinary arts currently receiving much commendation in the kitchen... and during July and the months ahead will play quite a distinguished menu role as the "one hot dish" that many homemakers feel is in order. Of course when the mercury climbs, it's just good sense to fix one-dish meals and let your oven do most of the work. That's why we're suggesting this tasty Triple Scallop, because it's nice and easy to prepare, and will make for some mighty fine eating. Zesty Canadian cheddar cheese, eggs and potatoes are the trio of flavors layered into a casserole dish with richly flavorful cream sauce, then seasoned and parleyed, and given a light blanket of crumbs before going into the oven to get nicely heated and browned. And here's a secret—if you keep a jar of white sauce all ready made up in your frig, it will only take scant moments to fix this supper or luncheon special that asks only for crispy raw vegetables and fruit or ice cream for dessert.

TRIPLE SCALLOP (Makes 4 Servings)

1 cup thin white sauce; 1 tablespoon minced parsley; 2 or 3 medium-sized cooked potatoes, sliced; 1 cup cubed Canadian cheddar cheese; 4 to 6 hard-cooked eggs, sliced; salt and pepper to taste; soft bread crumbs. Make white sauce, using standard proportion of 1 tablespoon butter, 1 tablespoon flour and 1 cup milk. Add parsley. In a buttered baking dish, place alternate layers of potatoes, cheese, and eggs. Sprinkle with salt and pepper, and pour the cheese, and eggs. Sprinkle with bread crumbs. Bake at 375 F. 15 to 20 minutes.

Setting Good Example Is Way To Teach Children

By RUTH MILLETT

When a young father sits down after dinner at night he is much more likely to be reading the sports page of the evening paper than thumbing through a woman's magazine... looking for articles on how to be a better father.

That's why I'm using this space today to tell him about an article in the July McCall's which he really ought to read.

Let him not be misled by the title, "You Can't Teach Children Anything" into thinking this is a cynical little piece.

It is anything but that, as he will readily surmise when he finds out that the man who shares his ideas on being a father is that wise and witty Boston lawyer, Joseph N. Welch.

It is Mr. Welch's notion that you can't teach a child anything by lecturing him or trying to mold him in your own image.

What your child learns from you, he learns at odd moments by your example—not by what you tell him he ought to do.

But to get the full flavor of the wisdom, gentleness, and respect for individuality that is evident in every paragraph of this father's reflections on the delights and the dilemmas of fatherhood each father will have to read the article for himself.

And if he takes it to heart, he is bound to be a kinder, more gentle, more understanding parent.

He is sure to be a better person, too. For it is a much more challenging concept of parenthood to recognize that your children are much more likely to be influenced by what you do and what you are than by what you say.

So take a few minutes, you fathers, to read Mr. Welch's article.

It will probably do more to make you a better parent than half a dozen books on child psychology.

Leafs Continue Their Torrid Pace, Blast Red Wings 9-5; 1 1/2 Games Off Pace; Two Homers Play Big Role

They need asbestos gloves to handle the Toronto Maple Leafs in the International League these days.

The sizzling Leafs, winning 17 of their last 21 games, have nudged Rochester Red Wings out of second place and today are only a game and a half back of the league-leading Montreal Royals.

Their 9-5 decision over Buffalo Monday night snapped a five-game winning streak by the last place Herd.

There never was any doubt as to the outcome. The Leafs blasted southpaw Fred Hahn for five runs before a man was retired in the first inning.

Bill Wilson hit a homer during the big inning and Archie Wilson added another off reliever Bill Froats. It marked the 13th game in a row that the Leafs have hit at least one home run.

Luke Easter was the big man for the losers, hitting a base-loaded triple on his second trip to the plate. That made five extra-base hits in a row for the big outfielder. He got a double the first time up and had extra base hits on his three at-bats Sunday.

Other clubs were idle.

MONDAY NIGHT FIGHTS

Rain Washes Out Eastern Finals; Played July 15

QUEBEC — Rain Monday washed out the men's finals in the eastern Canada tennis championships. The men's singles and doubles title matches have been rescheduled for Sunday, July 15.

Bob Bedard of Sherbrooke will meet Toronto's Don Fontana in the singles. In the doubles, Bedard and Fontana will play Lawrence Barclay and Paul Willey, both of Vancouver.

Sunday's matches will be squeezed in between the Quebec open tournament and the Ontario Open which starts next week in Ottawa.

Jack Cooke May Be New Owner Of Detroit Tigers

TORONTO — The Globe and Mail says there is a strong possibility a group headed by Toronto millionaire Jack Kent Cooke will be the new owner of Detroit Tigers of the American League.

The newspaper says Cooke bid $5,180,000 for the franchise. It says this figure is "within $70,000 of the top bid, submitted by the group headed by Bill Veeck, former owner of Cleveland Indians and St. Louis Browns."

The story adds:

"The figures were first published yesterday by Lyle Smith, sports editor of the Detroit Free Press, who said there was a third group with a bid in excess of $5,000,000 headed by Robert Goldstein, Hollywood producer."

"Contacted at his home last evening, Cooke would neither confirm nor deny the Detroit report. He pointed out that all bidders had been sworn to secrecy and he felt that he could not make any comment."

Cooke owns Toronto Maple Leafs of the International League.

Flash Gordon Takes Over As Seals' Manager

SAN FRANCISCO — (AP) — Joe (Flash) Gordon was named manager of San Francisco Seals Monday shortly after Eddie Joost was fired from the job.

Gordon, once a great second baseman for New York Yankees, quit recently as a Detroit Tiger coach.

The dismissal of Joost was announced by Jerry Donovan, president of the Seals, who said Gordon will report today.

Explaining why Joost was dismissed in mid-season, Donovan said: "He is simply not getting the most out of the ball club. I think we should be doing better."

The Seals are in seventh place in the PCL.

Limping Mickey Mantle To Be On Hand, Role Uncertain; Stengel Picks Three Lefties For Mound

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Lefthanded Billy Pierce of Chicago White Sox will face righthanded Bob Friend of Pittsburgh in the 23rd all-star baseball game today at Griffith Stadium with Mickey Mantle, limping New York Yankee slugger, in the starting lineup for the American League.

Although Mantle still wore a brace to support his injured right knee the switcher was named by manager Casey Stengel to open in centre field. Casey said he will watch Mantle carefully in pre-game practice. If it is necessary to restrict Mantle to a pinch-hitting role, Jimmy Piersall of Boston Red Sox will replace him with resultant shifts of the batting order.

Stengel surprised by announcing three lefthanded pitchers would work against the Cincinnati-dominated National lineup. After Pierce 13-3, will come the Yankee's Whitey Ford 10-4 and probably Herb Score 8-6, who was drafted from Cleveland as a late replacement for sore-armed Ray Narleski.

Pierce, 29, is the top winner in the majors and had an eight-game winning streak broken Sunday by Detroit.

Manager Walter Alston of the Nationals had been undecided between Friend and lefthanded Warren Spahn of Milwaukee until he talked with Friend on the train en route to Washington.

"He told me reports about his throat infection had been greatly exaggerated," said Brooklyn manager, "and insisted he was ready to work."

Friend 11-7, the first Pittsburgh pitcher to start an all-star game, will be one of seven men in the National lineup seeing first all-star action. He has been stalled without a victory since June 16, a victim of Pirates' batting slump.

After Friend it probably will be Spahn 7-7, who hasn't worked since Friday when he shut out Chicago. Friend's last outing was a 3-2 defeat Saturday at New York. Either Robin Roberts 8-10 of the Phillies, who started for the National five times, or Joe Nuxhall 6-8 Cincinnati lefty who was effective in the 1955 game, is the likely third pitcher.

The weatherman is encouraging with a forecast of "mostly sunny, less humid and a high of 85." However, should it rain, the game will be played Wednesday.

Despite the power in a National lineup which boasts 240 homers to 170 by the American, pitchers included, the American remains a 6-to-5 favorite. The fact that the American will be playing in its home park and has a 13.9 edge in past games probably accounts for the favoritism.

The starters, except pitchers, were selected by vote of the fans. They must start and play at least the first three innings unless injured. Pitchers cannot pitch more than three innings unless the game goes into extra innings.

Stengel's American batting order includes six lefthanded batters, counting the switch-hitting Mantle. Shortstop Harvey Kuenn of Detroit, a rightie, leads off. Stengel follows with four straight lefthanders—second baseman Nellie Fox of Chicago, left fielder Ted Williams of Boston, centre fielder Mantle, and catcher Yogi Berra of New York. Then comes right fielder Al Kaline of Detroit, first baseman Mickey Vernon of Boston, third baseman George Kell of Baltimore and Pierre, Vernon and Pierce also left.

Adios Harry To Compete For Pacing Derby

WESTBURY, N. Y. — Adios Harry and six other sulky stars accepted invitations Monday to meet Thursday night in the 10th renewal of the $25,000 National Pacing Derby at Roosevelt Raceway.

The five-year-old bay son of Adios, to be driven by Luther Lyons, is the 8-5 favorite for the mile and one quarter classic. Others competing will include Diamond Hal and Amortizer, both of whom defeated Adios Harry recently.

Diamond Hal is owned by Saul Camp, Shafter, Calif., and is driven by Joe O'Brien of Alberton, P. E. I., and New Glasgow N. S., while Amortizer is property of A. S. Underhill, Syosset, N. Y., and is handled by Eddie Cobb.

Also invited were Mrs. Alice V. Miller's Hillsota, Washington, D. C.; Sally Austin's B'Haven, Morrison, Ill.; Philip Scott, owned by the Gray Bros. and Reed, East Providence, R. I.; and the Armstrong Brothers Dottie's Pick.

The National order contains only four lefthanders but they pack a large share of the home run power. Second baseman Johnny Temple of Cincinnati leads off, followed by left fielder Frank Robinson of Cincinnati. Then comes right fielder Stan Musial of St. Louis with third baseman Ken Boyer of St. Louis in the cleanup spot. Centre fielder Gus Bell of Cincinnati, shortstop Roy McMillan of Cincinnati and Friend round out the order. Musial, Bell, Long and Bailey are lefthanded.

Communist China Hopes For Medal In '56 Olympics

HONG KONG — (AP) — Communist China has a "fighting chance" to pick off a medal or two at the 1956 Olympic Games in Melbourne, says the committee preparing the Reds' first team.

Writing in the Peiping Peoples Daily, the committee said China's top hopes for medals rest in weight lifting, women's track and field events and men's swimming.

The committee said the Communists would field teams in track and field, swimming, football, basketball, gymnastics, weightlifting and marksmanship.

The top hope, the article said, rests with Chen Chig-kai, 20-year-old weightlifter who recently broke the record for bantam-weight clean and jerk.

Survey Shows American League Is Running Behind Last Year's Gate While National Has Slight Increase

NEW YORK — (AP) — The drawing power of Mickey Mantle and the New York Yankees, renewed fan interest in Pittsburgh and Cincinnati and a tumbling turnstile count in Kansas City are reflected in a mid-season survey of major league attendance figures.

The survey also discloses that the National League, with a total of 4,038,907 customers, is more than 400,000 ahead of comparable 1955 figures. The American League, showing an attendance of 3,992,960, is more than 200,000 behind at the gate.

While the tight National League pennant race largely is responsible for that loop's gain, the Yankees are the prime reason the American does not show a more marked decrease.

Casey Stengel's Bombers, comfortably in front in the flag race, have attracted 676,638 fans at home for a gain of only 29,082. But with Mantle as the big attraction, the Yankees have played before 797,024 on the road. The Yanks have attracted high single-game crowds in every league city except Detroit.

Kansas City's huge decrease may be an indication the novelty of major league ball is wearing thin there. This year the last-place Athletics have played before only 561,812 for a drop of more than 200,000 from last year.

Master Your Game...No. 40 Nearer The Higher Foot.

By JACKIE BURKE
Master of the Masters

With either a downhill or uphill lie, play the ball nearer the higher foot.

This allows you to hit the ball before hitting the ground on a downhill lie and missing it before hitting the ground on an uphill lie.

A downhill lie increases the chances of slicing by forcing you, for comfort's sake, into an open stance. Allow for it by aiming to the left of the target.

A downhill lie decreases the loft of the club, giving distance you wouldn't ordinarily obtain from a level stance. Allow for this by using less club.

Being played from a point where the clubface is beginning to close, an uphill lie increases the chances of hooking. Allow for this by aiming to the right of the target. An uphill lie increases the loft of the club, for which you must allow by using more club than ordinarily.

When the ball is below the feet, you are, in effect, facedances must be made. When the ball is above the feet, it must be played for what it is—an uphill lie.

Of course, trouble doesn't always bob up in such obvious forms as a ball buried in a sand trap or a downhill lie.

More often than not, it shows up just as realistically in the mind. (NEA.)

Archie Moore Pulls Quickie, Fails To Give Any Definite Information About Coming Fight With Parker

TORONTO — (CP) — The usually talkative Archie Moore arrived here Monday for his July 25 outdoor fight with James J. Parker and promptly pulled a switch on reporters. He was practically silent.

In response to questions fired at him at a press conference, the No. 1 contender for the vacant world heavyweight title said he didn't know: His present weight, his best fighting weight, what he would weigh for his coming fight or his training plans.

He became almost loquacious when someone asked if he considered the bout with Parker as a shot for the world title as advertised here. "I'm only a fighter. I don't make the bill-boards," he replied.

Moore, probably was miffed at the reception given him at the airport. He was met by only one newsreel cameraman who eventually acted as chauffeur to get Moore and his sparring partner, Dale Hall of Los Angeles, Calif., to their downtown hotel.

Moore arrived at the hotel about 10 minutes before the press conference was scheduled to start and kept reporters waiting more than an hour.

He shrugged off questions about Floyd Patterson of New York, No. 2 on the list for Rocky Marciano's vacant title, and reporters eventually sought out Moore's manager, Charley Johnston.

It didn't take Charley long to warm up. "Archie is the best fighter in the world right now and anybody that wants the title has got to beat him. Certainly, he's world heavy champ. If Parker beats him in a couple of weeks they've got to go to Parker, that's all. He'll be the champ."

Charley apparently hadn't

Managers Should Pick All-Stars, Says Ted Williams

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Ted Williams said Monday that the selection of players for the all-star baseball game should be given back to the managers.

The Boston Red Sox power hitter and an elder statesman in the major league at 37, apparently was directing his comment especially to the fan vote which placed five Cincinnati players in the starting National League lineup.

"They should give the selection of players back to the managers," said the slugger who will be appearing in his 12th all star game today. "They (the managers) know the players in their league. They know whom they should pick."

"The fans have been doing all right up to now. They've picked some good teams. But this year, the voting was a bit lop-sided."

My Babu Heads For New Home in Lexington

NEW YORK — (AP) — My Babu, an 11-year-old Irish stallion purchased last year by an American syndicate for a reported $650,000 arrived by plane Monday from Shannon, Ireland, and left three hours later via air for Lexington, Ky.

Members of the syndicate included Leslie Coombs II, Secretary of the Treasury George Humphreys, and John W. Hanes of New York. My Babu will stand in the stud at Combs' Spendthrift Farm, Lexington.

talked to Moore on his arrival because he didn't know Moore's weight or his training plans or what Moore had been doing at San Diego, Calif., his home town, the last two weeks.

"I imagine Moore will weigh in at between 183 and 185 pounds for the fight. I don't know how he will train. When you have an experienced fighter like Moore it's best to let him decide what to do. He knows how many rounds he should spar and how many miles he should run."

"But, don't worry, he'll be in good shape."

New Orleans — Keny Lane, 138½, Muskegon, Mich., won a split decision over Ralph Dupas, 139, New Orleans, 10.

Pittsburgh — Wilf Greaves, 157, Edmonton, defeated Al Andrews, 160, St. Paul, Minn., 10.

Las Vegas, Nev. — Red Top Davis, 138, Hartford, Conn., won a split decision over Rudy Jordan, 135, Los Angeles, 10.

Supple's Manager Seeks Bantamweight Title Bout Solution

MONTREAL — (AP) — Harry Shephard, co-manager of Montrealer Pat Supple, planned to get in touch with promoters in Cardiff, Wales, today to straighten out "once and for all" the matter of a title bout between Supple and Dai Dower of Wales, the British Empire flyweight champion.

Shephard said Monday night that a fight between Supple, the Canadian bantamweight champ, and Dower, with the Welshman's flyweight crown at stake, had been arranged through three promoters for Cardiff July 16.

However, Nat Seller, Dower's manager, denied in London that his fighter and Supple would meet in a title match this month.

"There has been no suggestion of a Dower-Supple fight, but I think it would be a natural," said Seller. "We would be willing to defend the title in Canada if anyone there was interested in promoting it."

Shephard scoffed at Seller's statement saying he was stalling to get more money for Dower.

Shephard said "we were set to leave for London by plane Friday, but now I guess I'll have to get this thing straightened out first."

He said he planned to talk by telephone to copromoter Sid Evans of Cardiff.

Seller also said Dower was scheduled to meet Pipio Bionisio of France July 16, the date Supple's handlers claim was set for the flyweight title bout.

Eddie Supple, Pat's father and co-manager, said the mixup may have arisen over conflicting reports on Pat's age. The British boxing board of control does not recognize title fights unless the fighters are both more than 21 years old.

"The newspapers have often given my boy's age as 19 or 20," said Eddie Supple, "and this may have confused the board. I have conclusive proof, however, that Pat is 21."

Ted Williams' Bat May Stand In Way Of Mickey Mantle's Bid For Triple Crown; Bailey Leads NL

NEW YORK — (AP) — Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees and Ed Bailey of Cincinnati Monday held mid-season leads in the major league batting races. But the smoking bat of Ted Williams may stand in the way of Mantle's bid for the triple crown.

Williams, 37-year-old Boston slugger, is hitting at a .368 clip. He has, however, been to the plate only 155 times and would need to average slightly more than three at bats a game to finish with the 400 necessary for consideration for the title. The Red Sox have 79 games left on their schedule.

Mantle, who returned to the lineup Sunday following a leg injury sustained in Boston July 4, has a .371 average. The switch-hitting centre fielder is well out in front in homers with 29 and in runs batted in with 71.

Charley Maxwell of Detroit is Mantle's chief batting competitor among the players who have had a minimum of 175 trips. Maxwell, a journeyman outfielder until this season, dropped one point to .361 last week while Mantle dropped eight points before he was sidelined.

In the National League, Bailey has a comfortable margin over runner-up Ken Boyer of St. Louis. Bailey dropped eight points to .335 but Boyer lost 17 points and fell to .321.

Rip Repulski of the Cards has come back strong after an early season injury and shows a .335 mark same as Bailey's with 167 times at bat.

Frank Robinson of the Redlegs remained in third place in the senior circuit despite a .313. Hank Aaron, advanced from ninth place to fourth at .310. Wally Moon of St. Louis is fifth with .309.

Harvey Kuenn of the Tigers also is a hot challenger for the American League batting lead.

He climbed five points to .364 with 14 hits in 36 trips.

Big Ted Kluszewski of Cincinnati enjoyed a most productive week before the all-star break. The muscular first baseman took over the National League home run lead. He belted five to give him 22 for the season, one more than Ernie Banks of the Cubs. Boyer is tops in RBI's with 60.
