Next week's weather

By ERIC NEAL

JANUARY 18 TO 25

Another stormy week, commencing bright and cold with morning fog or mist. Some light snow or driving cold rains mixed with snow.

A partial thaw and ice blocks on streams could cause local floods at this time. Heavy snows follow, 6 to 10 inches.

Temperature range from 35 to 40 below and 35 above in the north and east. A little more element in the south.

More agreeable to end the week but becoming much colder with strong winds and blowing snow.

Wood avenue is blocked; subway work commences

Montreal subway construction crews moved into Westmount Wednesday morning and closed off Wood avenue between St. Catherine and Western to begin preliminary work prior to construction of the West End subway terminal.

During the next three weeks crews hired by the City of Montreal will dig up most of the street and pull up the sewer.

The sewer will be replaced in approximately the same position but about twenty feet deeper. This will get the pipes below the planned subway terminus area and put them in position to be hooked up to new sewer mains on Western.

Closed for ten months

When the Wood avenue work is completed early in February, the crews will move on to Western avenue which will be closed to all traffic for at least 10 months, it is believed. All services here, such as sewers, water mains, gas lines, power cables, and telephone lines must be relocated to position along the edge of the street before actual construction of the subway can begin.

The terminal, will stretch from Atwater almost to Greene avenue along Western. It will be constructed by the "cut and fill" method.

Montreal does it all

Westmount does not participate directly in the building of the subway and does not pay for it. Plans for Westmount section however, have been submitted to city engineers for approval and local authorities say they have had frequent conferences with Montreal Public Works Director Lucien L'Allier and subway engineer Gerard Gascon.

Montreal's contractors for Wood avenue relocations is the Louis Bourg Construction Company.

'Salesman' robs Greene avenue store

A lone bandit posing as a salesman held up a Greene avenue store and escaped with about $75 Monday morning. He entered the May's Ladies Wear Shop at 1233 Greene avenue at 10.20 a.m., carrying an attaché case.

When he learned that the proprietor was out, the man opened his case, producing a revolver. He escaped with the contents of the cash register.

Police described him as about 35-40 years of age, medium height, well-dressed, wearing a grey tweed overcoat.

Drive begins for Civil Protection Volunteers

Westmount Police and Firemen, members of the newly formed Civil Protection Organization, this week launched a drive to recruit at least 50 volunteers to take part in a three months training program in the evenings.

The City also announced that the courses in rescue and fire-fighting are scheduled to begin on January 29. Applications are now being received at the Westmount Fire Department.

The courses will consist of two-hour sessions, twice weekly. Applicants must be between the ages of 18 and 55. A physical examination will be required.

The Civil Protection Forces according to City Hall officials will assist the regular municipal police and firemen in case of local disaster or nuclear attack. In the latter instance the Westmount group would take orders from district one headquarters in Montreal.

Westmount pays only 10% of the cost of the course and of required auxiliary equipment. Under the Emergency Measures Act the Federal Government pays 75% and Quebec the remaining 15%.

BISHOP'S VISIT

Judge Emmett J. McManamy (right standing) of 31 de Casson road, Westmount, president of the Catholic Men's Hostel of Federation of Catholic Charities, joins His Excellency, Bishop L. P. Whelan in greeting residents of the Hostel at a recent luncheon. The luncheon, attended by all hostel residents as well as the directors of the Hostel and the directors of Federation, marked the occasion of the Bishop's visit to the Hostel. Judge McManamy also announced the appointment of Westmounter George Daly to the Hostel's board of directors.

'Y' seeks volunteers to plan Hobby Show

The Westmount YMCA is looking for boys and girls, grade six and over to help plan the annual Hobby Show in April.

Twelve committees will be formed: art, collections, crafts, games, home economics, indoor athletics, music and entertainment penmanship and literature, pets, prizes, publicity, and special events.

Last year over 160 young people worked on committees, helped guard exhibits or did many other odd jobs in the 26th Show. There were over 250 exhibitors and competitors and over 600 exhibits in the last Show. This was over three times that of any previous Show. It has also been estimated that over 10,000 working man-hours went into its preparation.

A new age group has been introduced. This is called the Bantams for boys and girls 8 years and under. Other age groups are: Junior — 9-11 years, Intermediate — 12-14 years, Senior 15-17 years. There will also be another trophy added to the existing four. There may also be two more trophies added to the Gymnastic section of the Show.

'Senior Citizens'

The Westmount Friendship Club is seeking new members. This expanding club — open to any senior citizen in Westmount — meets every Wednesday at 12.30 in Victoria Hall and those increased may simply bring a sandwich and come.

Members are still talking about a special tour to see the lights of Hampstead and Westmount held recently during the holiday season. Members, accompanied by Mrs. John Howard of the St. John's Ambulance Brigade boarded a chartered bus in the evening. After viewing nearby displays members traveled to Place d'Armes to see the striking array of lights in front of Notre Dame Church, on the square and the surrounding office buildings.

Travelling further east, the bus followed Notre Dame street to Pie IX boulevard, where it travelled north as far as Jean Talon, before turning west towards home.

The Gymnastic Competition will see many changes this year, because it will be restricted to Westmount youngsters only and will be designed to help youngsters who are just learning gymnastics and will also be able to compete at their own level of standards rather than against someone who competes in other Provincial Gymnastic competitions.

Leja wins George Medal for bravery

Sergeant-Major Walter Leja has been awarded the George Medal, the Commonwealth's highest recognition of bravery in a non-military action. The award, made with the approval of the Queen, cited the 42-year-old Royal Canadian Engineers member for "conspicuous courage and outstanding devotion to duty."

Leja lost his left forearm in an explosion beside the mailbox at Lansdowne and Westmount avenues last May 17 when an FLQ bomb he was attempting to dismantle blew up in his face. He is still in hospital with severe brain damage.

The citation stated that: "His actions, in addition to inspiring and reassuring those who were required to be near him, clearly showed that his concern for the safety of others was far greater than his own."

Donald F. Angus is re-elected by historical group

Prominent Westmounter Donald F. Angus, 636 Roslyn avenue, was elected president of the Antiquarian and Numismatic Society of Montreal at its annual meeting Wednesday in the Chateau de Ramezay.

Mr. Angus noted that the Chateau, which dates back to 1765, has "in 1963 become a centre of information relating to the history of Canada during both the French and English regimes."

The 101-year-old society owns the building and makes it available as a museum.

Firemen plan Blood Donor Clinic Thursday

Westmount Firemen are sponsoring a blood donor clinic to be held on Thursday, January 23, from 3 to 9 p.m. at Victoria Hall. They hope to collect at least 200 pints of blood.

Year-book is behind schedule

Work on the latest edition of the Westmount Directory and Year Book is about a month behind schedule according to a spokesman for the distribution firm which makes up the book. He said that it should be printed and distributed in late February.

The book, listing Westmount numbers alphabetically and by street is sent to every home in the city.

This is the first time that members of the local force have sponsored such an event. Firemen Richard Blouin and Curtis Fisher are co-chairmen for the clinic.

The Red Cross must collect 4,000 pints of blood each week to supply the hospitals affiliated to its free Blood Transfusion Service in the province. The permanent centre, 2180 Dorchester boulevard, west, is open Monday to Thursday from 9 a.m. to 8.30 p.m. and until 5.30 p.m. on Friday.

Volunteer daytime operators are needed to contact donors for open-heart operations and other emergencies. Telephone calls are made from Red Cross House with lists of donors prepared by permanent staff members. Any person interested should contact the Red Cross Voluntary Services, WE. 7-7761, Extension 274.

Clergymen protest Sunday rink opening

Westmount will modify regulations regarding the operation on Sunday of municipal skating rinks following the protest made by local clergymen this week. Local rinks will not be opened until 4:15 Sunday afternoon and only season ticket holders will be permitted the use of the ice, it is understood.

With Rev. T. W. Jones of Calvary United as spokesman, a delegation representing a number of Protestant churches in Westmount appeared before City Council Monday evening and voiced a formal protest against the city's opening of municipal skating rinks on Sunday.

Besides Mr. Jones the delegation included Dr. A. Lloyd-Smith of Dominion-Douglas Church, Rev. J. Lavell Smith of Westmount Park Church, Rev. J. A. Johnston, of Westmount Baptist, Rev. W. L. Tucker, of Calvin Westminister Church, Rev. Fred C. Mueller of the Church of the Redeemer, Elliott Frosst, clerk of sessions from St. Andrew's Church, L. W. Taylor, Vestry Clerk from St. Matthias Church, Rev. Harold S. Laws of St. Stephen's Church and Rev. Wm. Orr Mulligan of Melville Church also sent delegates.

It was pointed out at the meeting that the churches were protesting the open rinks, first of all on a moral basis. They said that as Sunday was the Lord's Day it should be devoted primarily to religious thought and instruction. It was feared that an adverse effect on Sunday School and church attendance will be seen with Sunday operation of the rinks.

WE SAY

Ald. Ouimet retires after 8 years

An ardent worker for the public good, Alderman P. A. Ouimet retires from City Council at the end of this month, after serving for eight years.

While in office he helped to hold a policy of sound municipal government. As commissioner of Public Works and formerly of Roads and Municipal Buildings he oversaw numerous civic improvements and projects such as the construction of a snow melting plant, the swimming pool, ice rink, and more recently the new police and fire department headquarters and the huge Dorchester project. Facilities such as these keep Westmount in the front rank of municipalities everywhere.

Mr. Ouimet was familiar to many citizens of this municipality even though he was involved in only one election. The citizens felt he was doing a good job for them and that they didn't need an election.

Westmount says good-bye to a fine personality and may he enjoy his retirement from public office. We certainly hope that he will be available to advise when needed, drawing on his immense background of experience and good service.

BY THE WAY

The politician who cried valiantly the other day that the Government will stand no nonsense might have added, sotto voce, "And certainly very little sense." A stern critic described the treatment of the nurses as the Government's attempt to save its face. I prefer to say one of its faces. The question whether either face is worth saving I leave to more charitable observers of the leathsome political scene.

WESTMOUNTERS SAY

WMA meeting not well conducted

I cannot agree with Nelo Harrison who wrote in last week's Examiner that the December Westmount Municipal Association meeting was "well-conducted." Far from it I say.

It was one of the most unruly and disorganized public meetings I have attended for many years, with the possible exception of certain pre-Federal or Provincial election gatherings.

In the first place when the Municipal Association candidates for aldermen were named, few present paid any attention. They continued their loud talking and occasional shouts.

Thus, these citizens missed their only chance to participate in the election of our local government. About half of the crowd showed no interest and did not vote either for or against the slate.

And then when Recreation Superintendent Rothwell got up to deliver his address, behavior became even worse. Catcalls, hooting, and cries of "sit down, sit down," may perhaps be all right for a political candidate under some circumstances, but not for a respected and worthy city official informing citizens what they and their children might expect in park and recreation facilities.

Finally, when the question period began, speakers on the floor were frequently shouted down or at least interrupted. And as your reporter noted "A man with a foreign accent was told to go back to Germany where he belonged by one of the crowd."

I really don't see how anyone could say the meeting was "well-conducted."

CROSSWALK CONFUSION

The crosswalk in front of the Post Office is posing a problem for pedestrian and motorist alike. . . . The question arises, who has the right of way? This problem seems to confuse both the motorist and pedestrian. . . . Both have shown the utmost consideration for the other, but let us get the matter cleared up before we have an accident. — Little Current (Ont.) Manitoulin Expositor.

Co-operation needed in snow removal

The snow removal operations throughout Westmount are really astonishing in their speed, apparent efficiency, and end result compared with most other municipalities. The most recent snowstorms left few complaining about the plowing and even the removal seemed to be completed promptly.

As a newcomer to this municipality I must express my surprise and gratitude at the work done compared to that in Ottawa. I was not accustomed to seeing snowblowers using dump trucks instead of one's front lawn and drive way as is generally the case. I was also to see a sander come along only about an hour after the snow started to fall.

Efficient as these crews are it is apparent that they are being hampered somewhat on main routes such as Sherbrooke and St. Catherine and some others.

Many private contractors — following a plowing, come along and clear drive-ways, or gas stations, or parking lots, and dump snow right back on the street for the city-paid crews to remove.

Such practices often pile up sidewalks and intersections, making it difficult at best for pedestrians to cross. And there are still a lot of pedestrians around, you know.

It might be a hardship to force driveway snow removers to take away the snow in trucks, but it would seem all the more practical when one sees the city trying to do a conscientious job.

Co-operation is called for, and if found impossible, then it is a clear case for enforcement.

ROVING REPORTER

By Oliver Towne

The City of Montreal has submitted to the Quebec Legislature a bill which among other things makes provision for an exchange of land with Westmount to give the city 137 feet of property it needs for its subway terminal west of Atwater avenue. But it looks like someone forgot to tell the City of Westmount about this. City officials have studied and approved thousands of plans for the West End terminal here but on this, somewhat more important, they are still waiting for word of what, where, when, why and how!

That well-dressed man who hit May's Ladies Wear shop on Greene for $75 is also believed to be responsible for three or four similar holdups in the past few days around Montreal. His target in each case was a dress shop. They are often a favorite target due to the lack of men in that particular retail line.

That Sherbrooke street office building rumored here last week is definitely going up, starting probably in March. It will cover the block between Mt. Pleasant and Elm and will rise six floors. Principal tenants will be the newly formed Westmount Insurance Company. The builders, David Bloom and Company were notably anxious to stress that it would be constructed "all in accordance with present zoning by-laws." "We certainly trust there won't be a fuss over this one," said Jack Wiseman, a spokesman. What ever can he mean?

Well-known Westmounter Dr. C. W. H. Rondeau celebrated his 90th birthday recently. Dr. Rondeau practiced dentistry for almost 65 years in an upstairs office above Smithers at Greene and St. Catherine, and is known and admired by generations and generations of Westmounters. He retired only a few years ago but the office is still occupied by his son Dr. G. Martin Rondeau.

About five years ago the two worked in cahoots to make a beautiful set of false teeth for dog. "It was an interesting challenge," they said at the time . . .

TV course begins for WHS pupils

Instruction by television began Monday for grade eight and nine pupils at Westmount High School. Local students joined some 16,000 others in Protestant schools throughout the island as they gathered around a rented 24-inch set to watch district teachers present the first part of a mathematics course.

It was the first of 28 televised programs of 30 minute duration which will be presented weekly throughout the winter.

J. W. Perks, chairman of the Protestant sub-committee on television education said earlier that the courses had been taped and edited to meet the need for "depth" in such subjects as mathematics, English literature, geography, science and French.

The programs are conceived, written and presented by staff teachers.

"The committee does not want the arrangement where the television teacher is the "master teacher" and the classroom is an inferior position," said Mr. Perks. "Instead of creating a team of master teachers, our television teachers have been selected from the staff according to the need and talent."

TV comes to Unity

The first of a series of weekly T.V. Theatre Productions will be presented live at the Unity Boys' Club of Westmount starting on Friday, January 17, at 7.30 p.m.

James Rice, the Producer of Unity T.V. Theatre, has a long list of special programs lined up for some ten weeks, the first of which will be "Peter Pan" and which will be followed by Variety Shows, Amateur Shows, Panel Shows, Jury Trials and the presentation of "Cinderella."

Peter Pan, which is produced and directed by Victoria Schrammel was presented as a summer-time feature of the Club's Summer Program. Many members and parents were on vacation at the time of the presentation so a repeat performance has been requested.

The cast of Peter Pan is as follows: Sharon Syvret plays the part of Peter Pan, Patti Ann Fernandes as Wendy; Georgia Bowers as Michael; Billy Soltys as John; Nancy Dallas as Mrs. Darling; Darlene Hogan as Mr. Darling; Wilma Richardson as Tiger Lily; Darlene Hogan as Captain James Hook; Karen Hogan as Smee.

The Indians are: Debbie Standing, Cheryl Crompton, Margaret Morrissey, Barbara North. The Pirates are: Nancy Dallas, Claudette Tremblay, Karen Gaucher and Gail Ryan.

The Lost Boys are: Sydney Strange, Debbie Bowers, Mary McMahon, Andrew Strange, and Gary Heavysege.

Musical Director is Victoria Schrammel; Drums and sets by Rod Cunningham, lighting by Douglas Fisher and the Announcer is Gary Heavysege.

WRESTLING

One of Montreal's top wrestling coaches, Barry Nye, has been accepted as a volunteer worker of the Unity Boys' Club, and has already started a wrestling class. The class is conducted every Monday evening starting at 7:00 p.m. and is open for boys in the Midget and Junior age category, that is: eight, nine and ten for midgets and the juniors are: eleven, twelve and thirteen.

The wrestling class will not interfere with the well-established Judo classes under the direction of Allan Bechard — boys taking judo lessons will not be eligible for the wrestling.

It is expected that the Unity Boys' Club will co-sponsor with the Lions Boys' Club, the Annual Montreal City and District Junior Wrestling Team Championships sometime during National Boys' Club Week. Some ten organizations participated in the Tournament last year.

We welcome Barry Nye to the Volunteer Staff of the Club and wish him success with his wrestling activity.

TIN CAN CURLING

Tin Can Curling had its inauguration last week at Staynor Park with a delegation of Westmount Rotarians on hand to launch the popular sport as a regular feature of the Unity outdoor sports programme.

With the cooperation of the City of Westmount who was responsible for the establishment of the two rinks and who will also carry out the maintenance, members of the Club and the community will benefit greatly from this added activity. Through the courtesy of Mr. George Hunter of Westmount Rotary and an avid curler at Heather, eight boys of the Club were invited to Heather to learn the fundamentals of Curling and also enjoy a period of playing time on the regular size Heather Rinks.

The boys Michael Strange, Wayne Buckingham, Robert Vaux, Bruce Norris, Bruce McLean, Gordon Norris, Philip Le-couffe and Johnny Walker, plan to help other members of the Club with the knowledge gained at Heather.

In the first week of Tin Can Curling at Staynor some 110 boys and girls took part — looks like "Tin Can Curling" will become popular.

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

The Junior Committee of the Montreal Symphony Orchestra is sponsoring a concert for children at Place des Arts on Saturday, February 1, at 10:00 a.m.

Joan Strike and Chuck Tyler, Girls' Worker and Boys' Worker respectively, will take a large group of boys and girls to the concert and all those going are asked to meet at Club Headquarters at 9:00 a.m.

INTERESTING OBSERVATION

It would seem that the Unity Boys' Club of Westmount has become cultural-conscious with recent visits to the Ballets Canadiens at the Place des Arts and to the Puppet Show at the St. Denis Theatre and now the youngsters are showing interest in Symphony Orchestras. It could be a new trend is materializing in the districts of Westmount and St. Henry, the community in which, the Unity Boys' Club plays such an important role.

A funeral service was held Tuesday in the Church of the Ascension of Our Lord, Westmount, for Frank Wilfrid Collins, president of the Montreal Association for the Blind.

He died Saturday at his residence in Westmount.

Born in London, Ont., and educated at St. Michael's College, Toronto, he was the son of the late Joseph Collins. In 1912, Mr. Collins joined the Canadian Pacific Railway in Toronto.

sonal friend of Philip E. Layton, founder of the Montreal Association of the Blind and was active for the last 40 years in connection with work for the blind.

He was president of the association at the time of his death, a position he held for the past 10 years.

He was not married. He is survived by his brother, The Honorable Mr. Justice Frederick T. Collins of the Quebec Superior Court; a nephew, Frederick, Philip Collins; and two nieces Mrs. Brian Gade Bardorf of Newport, Rhode Island, and Miss Diana Collins.

Grimes tallies as St. Leo's ties Macdonald in opener

By JULES DESJARDINS

In their first regulation G.M.I.A.A. game, the St. Leo's bantams came through three second half goals to gain a 3-3 with Macdonald High.

Down 3-0 at the end of the first period, it looked as though the team's first game would be an embarrassing one, as the boys were badly outplayed throughout the opening frame.

The defence, led by hard-hitting Steven Sanderson, finally jelled in the latter part of the game, and St. Leo's applied their first real attack. Gerry Grimes scored two quick goals, Bernie Leclair then salvaged a tie with his first goal of the year, and an important one it was.

Inexperience almost proved fatal to the young team, but perhaps this game will show them what they are up against. For the first time in a long while, coach McGillis was satisfied with a tie.

He began from scratch with this team, one that was supposed to have been weak, and he has made a contender for league honors with it. The St. Leo's curlers did not do as well as the bantams, as they were thumped 26-3 by a superior Mount Royal squad. One of the few bright spots on the team was skip Lindsay Sherriffs, who has held the team together thus far. However, maybe Lindsay's play will encourage the rest of the boys.

Better late
— than never

By Millicent Hickmore

MONDAY, January 13, I received a letter containing a Christmas greeting from the members of St. Augustine's Women's Club — my first thought was, — someone's husband has been carrying this around in his coat pocket! — however, on examining the envelope, I discovered the post mark was dated December 18/63. The postal service took just 26 days to deliver this letter to Cote St. Luc from Notre Dame de Grace.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS:

Mrs. Saul Hayes, president of the National Council of Women of Canada and vice-president of the International Council of Women will be the guest speaker at St. Mary's Hospital Auxiliary luncheon on Tuesday at the Windsor Hotel. Mrs. F. S. Ryan is chairman of the event... Dr. Mimi Belmonte, pediatrician, and Mrs. Agnes Johnston, director of the Social Service Department at the Montreal Children's Hospital will be members of a group of five lecturers, who will discuss courses on family health at the N.D.G. 'Y' in February.

A WORTHY CAUSE: I have been asked to make a request through this column for used ski equipment — boots, skis, poles, harness, etc. These articles are urgently needed for patients of l'Hopital des Laurentides at L'Annonciation, County Labelle, Que. This hospital, just off route 11, for mental patients, is a huge building situated on a hill and an ideal place for the patients to be out and exercise in the fresh air, which incidentally is an important factor for nervous disorders.

IN THE MAIL: A letter received recently from Mrs. D. W. Lough, in appreciation for coverage of incidents at the Griffith-McConnell Home for Elderly People... also a letter of thanks for publishing news for the Verdun Protestant Hospital on mental illness, Mrs. M. R. Costen writes, — "Public education, with a view to changing and improving public attitude about mental health and mental illness still remains a large and continuing program, and the press is one of the most important areas for focussing attention about our work, and your sympathy and interest in what we are doing is gratifying and greatly appreciated."

"COOKBOOK FOR DIABETICS," is the title of a new book prepared by a committee of the Ontario Dietetic Association collaborating with the Canadian Diabetic Association. This book is especially prepared for Canadians and is the first to be published. Canadian eating habits differ from those of other countries where cookbooks for diabetics have been published and there are important differences in household measure-

PALETTE PATTER by VALENTINA RAHR

The display of oil paintings at the YM-YWHA, 5500 Westbury avenue, by artist Shayna Laing will be on view until January 26, and consists of about 40 pictures showing seascapes, landscapes, figures and water colors in abstract. The artist signs herself "SHAYNA" and is well known in art circles in Montreal, and has had several solo exhibitions up to now.

Painting from imagination only "Shayna" has achieved exciting results in one of the horizontal seascapes in rich sepia tones depicting movement and lowering skies in "Teotiouican," an oil about 48 by 24 inches. Half figures against a background of trees or landscapes are depicted in "Hier Soir," and "Reminiscent," a deep expression of sensitivity is portrayed in "Search for Tomorrow." Most outstanding "Nino Y Nina" an oil painting showing a man and a woman in an embrace, portrays all the emotions of everlasting youth.

Attractive Shayna Laing is holding her exhibition at the YM-YWHA on Westbury avenue because she finds it too expensive to exhibit in an art gallery, and will be present at the show daily for those visitors who would like to meet the artist from 8 p.m. to 10 p.m.

About 25 oil paintings of flower studies, street scenes, seascapes and Laurentian scenes are on view at the CNR Concourse, West Area, until February 4, by Connie Vincelli Nucci.

Having worked under Adam Sherriff Scott, RCA for several years, Connie Nucci has developed the toned-down color effects so well known in paintings by this master. "Late Fall, St. Marguerite" shows the brilliant autumn coloring of that area. "Composition Rouge et Or" a study of chrysanthemums in a blue jug, is one of the most interesting pictures in the display. The rich gold and deep red of the flowers contrasting with the green tones of the foliage gives a pleasant effect in a difficult subject.

"Gaspé Coast" depicts the rocks and sea in that region; Lafontaine Park is an unusual view; Lac Masson shows fall colors and birch trees; Fishing Boats gives an interesting view of water and sky; St. Paul Street is a winter scene; Sunday Afternoon, Mount Royal, is a familiar view to Montrealers.

Of interest to Montrealers who are collecting pictures of Old Montreal is "Old Barn, Mount Royal" showing the barn on the mountain that used to house the horses of the Mounted Police, and which has since been demolished to make way for a parking area. Connie Nucci works in oils with a palette knife, and has held her first solo show last year at the Laurentian Hotel.

The exhibition of oil paintings by two Spanish artists which are on view at the CNR Concourse, West Area until February 4, is sponsored by Galerie Ville Marie.

A number of paintings by Sama dominate the display, showing "The Old Home," "Old Street," "Old Church," "The Old Street," "Taverne," "The Last Bottle" and others.

These paintings express brooding lassitude and despair in the drooping figures, and passionate sensitivity in the color effects.

The artist who signs himself "SAMA" is Nicholas Perez head of the Spanish translation department of the Sun Life Insurance Company, and paints when he has free time apart from his full time job. He has worked as a cartoonist under the byline "Oak" for several years. He has exhibited his works at Cafe des Artistes before exhibiting here.

Sama has had no formal instruction in art, and his paintings express the loose primitive style used by artists of the early Middle Ages, who painted freely, without adhering to a limited school training. He came to reside in Montreal about 25 years ago.

The paintings of Spain by A. Campos who lives in Northern Spain show street scenes of sunny Spain and are characteristic of sophisticated Spanish art forms practiced there at the present time. The Spaniards are great believers in symbolism and sophistication in art.

"Valencia" depicts bright sunshine and warm atmosphere; "Madrid" is a colorful street scene; "Toledo" and "Segovia" are other interesting views of cities in Spain.

Visitors who wish to have further information are invited to contact the art director of Galeries Ville Marie, Verne Homeson, at 861-5669 daily.
