Cold Weather Delays West Flood Waters, But Worst To Come

WINNIPEG — (CP) — Southern Manitoba fought floods today in wind and cold.

The biting weather tied a temporary anchor to the disaster potential of the Assiniboine and Red rivers by putting a chill on the rate of the spring run-off.

But winds gusting to 45 miles an hour swept waters over and through dikes on the Assiniboine and the cold added a hazard of its own by holding up the natural disappearance of the big ice blocks clogging the river.

At least seven breaks in the Assiniboine dikes built up a shallow lake 25 miles long and 10 miles wide in places south of the river. The waters also seeped north and RCMP last night closed a section of the province's east-west highway.

The lake added to the flood threat in Winnipeg, where the Red River is reckoned as the most serious threat.

Waters from the lake formed east of Portage La Prairie were

Canada Keeping Close Watch On China Situation — Pearson

OTTAWA. — (CP) — The government is giving constant review to the question of diplomatic recognition of Communist China, External Affairs Minister Pearson has told a Commons committee.

But no final policy has been adopted and the government thinks it wise not to take any irrevocable stand for or against recognition of any government, Mr. Pearson told the external affairs committee yesterday.

The matter should be kept continually under review "and we are doing that."

Mr. Pearson added that the United States agrees with his statement, made at the White Sulphur Springs conference last month, that UN members which recognize Red China are becoming increasingly embarrassed by Nationalist China's UN membership.

The China question was raised by John Deifenbaker, Progressive Conservative external affairs spokesman, who said Mr. Pearson had "held out the olive branch" toward recognition of Peiping in a Vancouver speech last August.

Mr. Pearson replied he had merely suggested Canada had another look at the question.

Last February he announced that after study the cabinet had decided against immediate recognition.

Mr. Deifenbaker asked assurance there will be no immediate recognition or Canadian support for a UN membership for Red China.

Charles Cannon (L—des-de-la-Madeleine) cautioned against recognition. The Communists had persecuted religion and "murdered" anyone who resisted them. A review would only strengthen the present stand against recognition.

The minister ranged over several other topics.

He described as "encouraging and hopeful" the statement of U.S. State Secretary Dulles that NATO should be more than a military alliance.

Perhaps a start could be made at next month's NATO council meeting toward the goal that all NATO members would consult with their Allies before taking any action affecting the others.

Mr. Pearson also said Canada is considering whether to approach the U.S. officially about a proposal that Canada be given corridors across the Alaska Panhandle to link the Yukon and northern British Columbia with the sea.

Quad Boys Die; Report Two Girls In Fair Condition

NEW YORK. — (AP) — The two surviving quadruplets born to a tiny Bronx mother were reported in fair condition today.

One boy weighing two pounds, 15 ounces, died Tuesday. A second boy died Tuesday night. He weighed three pounds, three ounces.

The surviving infants are both girls.

The 25-year-old mother, Mrs. Carmen Medina, gave birth to the quads Monday. They arrived a year and 10 days after she had given birth to twin girls, her first children.

Mrs. Medina, five feet two and weighing only 96 pounds, is the wife of a $40-a-week mechanic, Ciprian, 27.

Believe Reds Won't Let Visit To Britain End In Utter Failure

LONDON. — (AP) — Prime Minister Eden and his Soviet visitors decided today to extend their crucial final political talks into this afternoon. The talks had been scheduled to end at noon.

The foreign office announced that Eden's conference with Premier Bulganin and Nikita Khrushchev would be resumed after lunch, but gave no indication what was still being discussed.

Speculation mounted that the Kremlin chiefs would offer some sort of concession to prevent the talks from ending in complete failure.

The Soviet premier and the Communist party chief arrived right on time for the final scheduled round of talks at 10 Downing St., despite a boisterous late-hour party last night.

The explosive Middle East situation and the Soviet role in contributing to tension there dominated the agenda. Britain considers the Middle East question central and crucial.

The possibility remains that an additional negotiation session may be held later today or Thursday before a long final communique on results of the talks is issued.

Diplomatic sources, noting that both Britain's Conservative government and the Soviet leaders want something to show for the 10-day visit, predict that Bulganin and Khrushchev might offer some sort of package deal.

The openly critical nature of Khrushchev's latest public remarks has indicated tough bargaining and no spectacular progress on the question of increasing Anglo-Soviet trade and cultural contacts, but a degree of agreement is not ruled out.

Sharp differences apparently remain, however, on the disarmament question.

Bulganin and Khrushchev, who leave for home Friday, cleared the decks for a possible extension of the talks by calling off two unscheduled public appearances. These were a press conference originally set for this afternoon and a tour of the Calder Hall atomic plant Thursday morning.

Election Statement Today?

QUEBEC. — (CP) — Barring a last-minute switch in plans Premier Duplessis today is set to dissolve Quebec's 24th legislature and call a provincial election for Wednesday, June 20.

One of the remaining formalities barring the way to dissolution of the legislature, elected in 1952, was removed at a surprise cabinet session yesterday.

Works Minister Romeo Lorrain was sworn in as provincial secretary succeeding Omer Cote who resigned in March to take up a post as district judge in St. Jerome, north of Montreal.

Appointment of a secretary is required because under Quebec law he is the keeper of the great seal of the province. All election proclamations and writs are issued under the great seal.

The fact that Mr. Duplessis carried out this appointment on the eve of today's regular meeting of the cabinet gave political observers a strong indication that the cabinet now will move quickly to dissolve the legislature and call an election.

Mr. Duplessis parried a direct question from a reporter suggesting he would call the election today with a question to a group of smiling cabinet ministers: "Did you hear anything about an election?"

Eight Children Lost In Newfoundland Fire

CORNER BROOK, Nfld. — (CP) — Eight children died here late last night when an unexplained explosion turned their two-storey, wooden home into a wall of searing flame.

The victims, all children of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Curtis, were identified as Evelyn, 16; Ronald, 14; Edward, 13; Helen, 12; Derek, 10; Ruth, 8; Linda, 7, and Douglas, 4.

Mr. Curtis grabbed his two-year-old son, Albert, from an upstairs crib, clambered through a window and dropped to safety from a porch roof. Marie, 15, crawled through a broken dining room window.

Mrs. Curtis was visiting neighbors when a "thunderous explosion" shook the area.

Fire Chief Michael Smith said today there were "several possible causes" of the fire, including an overloaded electric light meter and faulty wiring.

Neighbors said the explosion occurred about 9 p.m. EST.

A fireman said: "The house was a mass of flames when we got there. It was impossible to get near it. There were flames coming from every door and window."

Mr. Curtis, 41, was asleep in an upstairs bedroom when the explosion occurred. He bundled his young son in his arms and fled through the window.

Marie, who crawled through a downstairs window, was admitted to hospital for treatment of burns and cuts.

Mrs. Curtis attempted to enter the house but was beaten back by flames.

Firemen began bringing bodies from the house 45 minutes after the alarm.

Three were found on the lower floor near the window through which Marie escaped. Douglas, 4, was found in a charred, upstairs closet. The others were found alongside their upstairs beds.

Fire chief Curtis said some of the children had been burned to death and the others smothered.

Firemen were delayed four minutes in turning the first stream of water on the blaze when a hydrant was found to be dry. A second hydrant, 600 feet away, was used.

Buses Desegregated, But Future Confused

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — (AP) — Segregated seating has been abolished by bus companies in some southern cities in just two days since the United States Supreme Court banned racial segregation on public transportation within the borders of a state.

But there still is no clear indication how the change in the traditional southern pattern of separating the races on buses and trolleys will work out in the face of numerous state laws prohibiting integration.

The Virginia Transit Co. announced it would discontinue segregation on its lines in Richmond and Norfolk today and said the Petersburg, Va. Transit Co. also would adopt the new policy.

A few Virginia Transit Co. bus drivers permitted mixing of the races Tuesday. No incidents were reported.

Officials of the Montgomery City Lines Inc. ordered an end today to segregation on buses here, where Negroes have boycotted the buses in protest over segregation for nearly five months.

But there was no immediate mixing of the races on the buses in Montgomery, and no immediate indication when the boycott would end.

B. W. Franklin, vice-president of National City Lines of Chicago, parent company of the Montgomery City Lines, arrived in Montgomery and scheduled a press conference for today to discuss the situation.

Franklin said Tuesday in Chicago that National City Lines "has no choice but to comply with the decision of the Supreme Court."

"For that reason we are not going to attempt to enforce segregation. We always comply with laws in effect."

The company also operates bus lines in Mobile, Ala.; Jackson, Miss.; Tampa, Fla.; Tulsa, Okla.; and Beaumont, Wichita Falls and El Paso in Texas. Officials at Tampa and Jackson said segregation would be continued on buses operating in those cities despite the company statement in Chicago.

No immediate mixed riding appears in prospect in most cities of the deep south. Generally speaking, white and Negro passengers have continued to seat from the front and from the back as in the past.

Officials in many states have pledged to continue to do everything possible to keep the races apart.

Governor Marvin Griffin of Georgia said he would resist the ruling in every legal way and Governor J. P. Coleman of Mississippi said "We will hold the line on segregation without fail, but will not keep ourselves in a daily uproar over it."

Several Louisiana and Mississippi officials said segregated

World News In Brief

PHILADELPHIA. — (AP) — As many as 10 persons were feared dead in a fire which destroyed a Philadelphia home early today and spread to an adjoining building. Several others were injured.

Firemen recovered five bodies shortly after the blaze was controlled and said the toll might be twice that high.

NEW YORK. — (AP) — The New York Times today says an air force bomber will drop the hydrogen bomb to be tested at the Eniwetok proving ground next month. In a dispatch from Washington The Times quotes "an informed source" as confirming that the United States will make its first air-drip test of an H-bomb.

Sports Not Government Business

MONTREAL. — (CP) — Federal Health Minister Martin said Tuesday he was "shocked" by a recent request to have the federal government put up $25,000,000 to provide better athletic facilities in Canada.

Mr. Martin did not disclose the name of the organization that made the request, but he said it was one devoted to physical fitness and sport. He was addressing delegates attending a discussion on the value of recreational programs.

If the time has come when Canadians must depend upon the government to provide sports facilities then "our whole fabric is tottering," said Mr. Martin.

It is the responsibility of industry and private individuals to provide sports facilities and recreation for Canadians, although "private effort has fallen far short," he said.

The request, he said, was a deplorable example of a trend to load responsibilities on the government that should be carried by private organizations. With this trend went an unfair tendency to criticize the government for spending too much money on health and welfare.

Storm Strikes Newfoundland

CORNER BROOK, Nfld. — (CP) A screaming storm swept into St. George's bay on the west coast Tuesday night and destroyed nearly every lobster trap in the 25-mile-long stretch of water from Port au Port to Cape St. George's. At least 3,000 traps were lost at Port au Port.

The traps had been in the water only five days since the season opened and hardly a lobster had been sold. Lobsters pooled in floating boxes for later shipment also were lost.

The storm followed north along the west coast of Newfoundland and petered out over Labrador.

St. George's bay is the most important lobster fishing area of the coast.

Loss of equipment this early in the season is considered a bad blow to the fishermen.

Find N.S. Man Wanted In Murder

ITALY CROSS, N.S. — (CP) — A seven-day hunt for Leroy James Llewellyn, wanted for questioning in connection with a brutal southern Nova Scotia slaying, ended today when he stumbled into a police search party.

Llewellyn has been sought since farmer William Cross, 76, was beaten to death last Wednesday. His wife, Lillis, 73, also beaten in their farmhouse, was recovering in hospital.

Death Car — Leo Poulin, of St. Johns, Que., was reported improved today in the Sweetsburg Hospital, after he was badly burned when this car rolled over into a 30-foot ditch near Sutton and caught fire Sunday night. The driver, Fernand Lefebvre, also of St. Johns, was burned to death.

Danville Lodge Hears Talk On Asbestos Mining

DANVILLE — Maple Leaf Rebekah Lodge, No. 3, was host to members from Willowdale Branch, No. 5, of Windsor, and Olive Branch, No. 9, of Richmond, at its last regular meeting, over which the Noble Grand, Sister Joyce Beliveau, presided.

After the conclusion of the regular business, Brother W. Noel Reakes was called upon to give a talk on the early history and the mining and milling of asbestos. To supplement his remarks, Mrs. Armand Lefebvre, of the public relations department of the Canadian Johns-Manville Co., showed a very colorful film, "Fibre of Freedom."

Past president Sister Edith Boyd thanked the speaker and Mr. Lefebvre on behalf of those present for providing such an interesting information. The subject of the mining and milling of asbestos was part of a program to create community interest in geographical and industrial activity, sponsored by the World President of the Rebekah Assembly, Sister Margaret Watts, of Kingfisher, Oklahoma.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served in the banquet room.

Asbestos Church Opens Campaign For New Organ

ASBESTOS — A campaign to raise funds for the purchase of a new organ for All Saints Church has just been opened here.

Consecration of this beautiful little church in June last year by Archbishop Phillip Carrington marked the end of the congregation's efforts to make a dream come true. There is, however, a great need for a new organ, as music plays an important part in the service of worship, and the present one is totally inadequate.

The late rector, Rev. W. W. Smith, was largely instrumental in furnishing the new church and it has been proposed that the organ be purchased as a memorial to him.

Any friends of All Saints wishing to contribute to this fund may do so by sending their donations to Mrs. E. Story, Asbestos, and marking them "All Saints Memorial Organ Fund."

Miss M. Quigley Speaks To W.M.S. At Sweetburg

SWEETBURG — Miss Margaret Quigley, secretary for girls' work, Council of Christian Education of the United Church of Canada, was the guest speaker at Easter Thankoffering service in Emmanuel United Church with Mrs. Gerald Fee, president of the Women's Missionary Society conducting the service. She introduced Miss Quigley, who told an interesting children's story as well as delivering a very inspiring address. The prayer was given by Mrs. K. Irene Adams.

The offering went as a contribution toward the allocation of $255 set for the Cowansville Emmanuel W.M.S.

Shortly a large carton of good second-hand clothing is being sent to a Mission point in the Arctic from this group. During the service, Master Wylie Forster sang a soprano solo "Brighten the Corner where you are" and the senior choir sang an anthem.

In a front pew were a large number of the C.G.I.T. group in uniform, of which the following received the offering, the Misses Jean Moynan, Janet Carter, Eunice and Susan Hitchcock.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE with MAJOR HOOPLE

Swim Project Gets Underway At Rock Island

ROCK ISLAND — An executive meeting of the Red Cross Frontiers Swim Project was held at the office of the chairman, Dr. Victor Griffith. Plans were discussed for another summer of an eight weeks course, which will start on June 25, classes to be held at the public beach at Lake Salem in Derby.

Last year, 456 children received 3,589 individual lessons, therefore it is felt the course very worthwhile, as these children overcome their fear of water, many taking the advanced lessons, and all are taught the rules of water safety.

The operation of the course amounted to $1,645.45. Most of this expense is met by donations from the public, therefore it was decided to send out the circular letters in May, so that the budget can be drawn up for this year.

Plans are to have the Quebec Central bus service, the same as the past few years, a qualified instructor will be in charge of the beach and there will be also experienced assistants. The committee felt it advisable also to have a man assist in the discipline at the beach, thus relieving the head one of some responsibility, due to the large number of children attending. The only cost to the children is .10 cents bus fare, round trip, the actual course is free.

Dr. Griffith appointed the following committees, Beach, Lawrence Winter; transportation, J. J. Lafond; finance, Hugo LePenna; publicity, Mrs. Ivy Hatch; general overseer, Mrs. Ann Aldrich.

Another meeting of the committee will be held at the office of Dr. Griffith on May 15, when final plans will be made for the June 25th opening.

Judge Samson Cracks Down

Judge J. C. Samson, of the Social Welfare Court, is to be congratulated for his recent campaign against those who would contribute to juvenile delinquency.

The contributors against whom the judge is campaigning are hotel proprietors and employees who sell liquor to teen-agers and rent rooms to unmarried youngsters. He has imposed some severe penalties on offenders and has promised that even stronger measures will be taken unless these "crimes" halt at once.

If the word "crime" in connection with such offenses seems a bit strong, think it over and you may change your mind.

In our modern, fast-moving society, youngsters can get into enough trouble without the assistance of adults. And when the adults make a profit from such assistance, the word "crime" would seem to be well placed.

It has been suggested that the judge is unwise in publicizing this campaign. It has been suggested, too, that the names of the offending hotels and employees should be kept from the public.

For goodness sakes, why? It's the public's laws that have been broken. The offenders have committed an offense against the public interest and there is no reason in the world why the public shouldn't be made aware of who the offenders are.

There is a growing tendency on the part of those charged with law enforcement and justice to try to protect "the good name" of law-breakers. Just why they feel called upon to "cover-up" certain offenses is beyond us.

Such a practice is fundamentally wrong for at least two reasons:

1. It lends itself to payoffs.
2. A well-to-do offender may realize little or no hardship over the paying of a fine. But he might think twice about repeating the offense if his name and the offense he has committed are made known to the public.

There is no doubt that a deterrent to crime and many semi-criminal offenses is the fear of the publicity that can accompany arrest and conviction. Should such a deterrent not be preserved rather than impeded?

Sausage Eating

Most of us like our sausages in reasonable quantities at a meal from time to time. We like them judiciously cooked, served up with appropriate trimmings, and separated into individual tidbits.

There are, however, a few dangerous individuals who prefer to inject a note of sporting excitement into their eating of sausages. One such person is a burly Bavarian, Sepp Poelzeleiter, who apparently holds the world sausage eating record. According to reports, the "sausage champion" has consumed just over seven-teen sausages in ninety seconds. This is a feat which few people will aspire to emulate, in Canada at least.

But Bavarians seem to be made of sturdier stock where the consumption of sausages is concerned. Earlier this month, three bulky countrymen of the sausage champion had a try at bettering his record. The endeavour attracted some 500 wildly-cheering spectators, but even with this added incentive, the intrepid trio failed to out-gobble Poelzeleiter.

The best that one of the challengers could achieve was sixteen sausages and a half in two minutes and two seconds.

Perhaps their failure will inspire Canadians to add sausages-thons to the lengthy list of endurance contests already so popular here. But we would venture to suggest that this particular line of endeavor is fraught with many difficulties — some of them insurmountable.

It is doubtful, in the first place, that even if a Canadian did succeed in stuffing himself with, say, eighteen sausages in ninety seconds, it would be recognized by the Bavarians and the world as a record. For the Canadian sausage is a pitiful, meagre object compared to the full-blooded European sausage. Could a Canadian cope with the rotund bulk, and torrid flavor of the Bavarian delicacy? We think not.

And then there is the problem of eating sausages by the chain. It is the only way to go about setting a world record; yet we Canadians have become so conditioned to the individual method of sausage consumption that it is highly probable anyone attempting the chain technique would strangle himself horribly before he had swallowed even a single sausage.

Perhaps we can grasp at one straw in an effort to prove our sausage-worthiness. The Bavarian champion is, naturally enough, a butcher. His knowledge of the ins and outs of his trade no doubt has aided him in his world conquest. A Canadian butcher would surely be as knowledgeable.

Here, then, is the challenge. Canadian butchers, unite! You have nothing to lose but your stomachs!

'THE ENEMY OF PEACE'

Ottawa Journal
The waywardness of Soviet Russia's official foreign policy as well as the inconsistency of its domestic policy is something that the leaders of the democracies should exploit to the full. Indeed it could be made a prize weapon in the propaganda war.

His Holiness the Pope made most effective use of the weapon in his Easter message, a message broadcast and sent to the ends of the earth and in many languages. The Pope said that the enemy of peace "uses now one, now another of those passions (of man), and arouses one or the other, threatening or cajoling; here discussing, there blaming; today exalting his myths, tomorrow deriding them; today harshly withdrawing, tomorrow making an approach; today announcing a new system, to return tomorrow to the old."

The truth is that Russia's domestic policy in the last six weeks has been a spectacle well nigh incredible, certainly incomprehensible. The democracies must not fumble this astonishing opportunity to show the Russian system for what it is.

PUSSY'S MENU

St. Thomas Times-Journal
An organization in Old London called the Cats' Protection League has issued an appeal to cat owners for more diversified food for cats, with special regard to the cats that really work for their living in warehouses and food shops by keeping down mice. The committee points out that cats cannot remain healthy if their diet is limited to the rats or mice they are expected to catch, and an occasional saucer of milk.

The home cat is usually a pampered specimen that gets tid-bits of good meat and fish and may have a cushion for a bed. It does not have to work for its living because mice can smell its very presence and look for a nice house to hole-up in where there is no cat. Those that are fussed over and over-fed do not show much interest in a mouse ambling along on the search for food. A full stomach destroys the natural ambitions of the species, and all it wants is three square and varied meals a day. If a mouse should unwittingly take up its abode in a home where there is a cat, it is essential to put the feline domestic on a very sparse diet until its hunting instincts are aroused by hunger. But a steady diet of mice and milk is unfair to cats that have to work for their living. In recent years there has developed an enormous market in scientifically prepared foods for cats and dogs. If you keep a working cat give him or her an occasional change of diet. That will improve its health and keep it on the alert to hunt mice. It will even be a more efficient mouser because a feed of fat mice will taste good by way of a change.

BETTER TELL MOM!

Milwaukee Journal
A Washington psychiatrist has told the "fathers of the nation" that it's time for them to "resume their rightful role" as boss of the family. Why tell the fathers? They've known it all along. If this psychiatrist, who issued what amounts to a call for bravery, is so brave himself, why doesn't he tell the mothers?

CONTRACT NEEDS RUFFING TRICKS

West shrewdly opened a trump in today's hand, suspecting that dummy had ruffing power. In such cases every trump lead tends to deprive declarer of a ruffing trick.

Declarer won the first trick in dummy with the queen of hearts and saw that he could make his own five trumps, two ruffs in the dummy, and two top spades if he began to cross-ruff at once. One additional trick was needed.

Declarer therefore led a diamond from the dummy at the second trick, East naturally played low, and South hopefully finessed the "jack." This lost to the queen, and South quailed inwardly as he waited for another trump lead.

Much to South's relief, West returned the ten of spades. South properly deduced that West was out of trumps since there was nothing in the dummy to make West change his defense if he had another trump.

Declarer won the spade in dummy with the king and returned dummy's last diamond, East played low again, and South had to decide between the king and nine of diamonds.

This might be a difficult problem if East were an expert with

TODAY'S QUESTION

The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold:
Spades K-7-3, Hearts Q-2, Diamonds A-Q-9-6-3, Clubs K-J-4.
What do you do?

cast-iron nerves. Such a player might nonchalantly play a low diamond even if he had the ace. In this case South didn't credit East with such nerve and guile. South assumed West had the ace and he finessed the nine.

West had to win with the ace of diamonds. His spade return went to South's ace, and declarer made sure to cash the king of diamonds before the mice got it.

Now he could ruff spades in the dummy and clubs in his own hand, making his ten tricks.

Coffee Now From A Tube

The Hamilton Spectator

There was a time when just about two things came in tubes, toothpaste and shaving cream. And even these were confusing enough, for breathes there the man so alert who has not, in his pre-breakfast haste, occasionally brushed his teeth with shaving cream or pressed a length of toothpaste on to his shaving brush?

But recently a lot more things have been stuffed into tubes. The latest triumph of packaging, developed at Cornell University's college of agriculture in New York State, is tubed coffee. Now a lot of things have been done with the coffee bean through the years. Back in the days of the wind-up gramophone, coffee was merely boiled, often with egg shells. Then as civilization advanced, it was percolated, without egg shells.

As the atomic era dawned, you'd drip, or "dripolate" it. Later, as the atomic bomb was made obsolescent by the hydrogen bomb, more and more jars of "instant" coffee were to be found in our homes — those jars of innumerable diminutive buds just bursting out all over with good coffee flavor. Even though this was not just a powder nor a grind, we thought the next development would be powdered coffee with built-in, crushed egg shells — to get back to that "old fashioned" flavor.

But we were wrong, of course; the squeeze is on for coffee in the tube. Perhaps the next promotion will be to urge the saving of time at breakfast by squeezing it on your toast, so you can catch the last bus for work after all. And there will be speculation about the delicious tube meals of the future; squeezed roast beef, squeezed potatoes, and squeezed steak and kidney pie.

One thing is sure, though; tea will not suffer the same tampering as has coffee. There are strict and scientific rules for proper tea making, available in any authoritative encyclopaedia, and involving the use of not just one pot, but two.

And there'll be no nonsense like, "May I have a tea tube, please?" or an invitation to "squeeze yourself a cup of tea?" — at least, not so long as there'll always be an England.

POLITE POLICE

Peterborough Examiner
A contemporary newspaper seems to have been much impressed by a book about Communist China called Mandarin Red, written by James Cameron. In particular it quotes the following dialogue, which is supposed to have taken place between a policeman and a traffic offender in Pekin:
"It seemed to me that you were impetuous, Comrade."
"It is possible, Comrade."
"Perhaps I should not have mentioned this."
"No, by all means, Comrade. You have your duty to do."
"It causes no offence if I say you were driving in a disgracefully careless way."
"In the circumstances, no, Comrade. I freely offer you the right to say this."
"Very well. I have said it. I will return to my post."
"Certainly, Comrade. Let us both return to work."
This makes amusing reading, but we are filled with skepticism about its truth. We know some people who have lived many years in China, and they tell us that the Chinese, though a polite and courteous people in ordinary circumstances, are also liable to startling fits of temper and violent behavior — very much like ourselves, in fact. We cannot believe that policy duty is conducted on this Chesterfieldian level.

SURPLUS NOT PROFIT

Winnipeg Tribune
The National Film Board reports a "surplus" of $31,156 on its operations during the 1954-55 fiscal year. Some naive citizens may be led to think that the board sold films like hot cakes during the year and as a consequence had a neat profit of $31,156. Unfortunately this is not the case.

What the Film Board really means is that Parliament voted $3,221,060 from the public treasury to help the board buy cameras, films and props during the year and that the board managed to spend the grant with the exception of $31,156.

Bygone Days

TWENTY YEARS AGO

From the Record Files of Saturday, April 25, 1936.

Britain has presented Germany with a series of direct questions demanding direct answers on the future intentions of the Reich treaties and territorial expansion.

Haile Selassie, Ethiopian Emperor, has regained control of all territory outside the Italian lines having put down a revolt of senior officers in the northern section of the country.

Officers elected at the annual meeting of the Young Ladies' Aid of the Sherbrooke Baptist Church were Mrs. Annie Sutton, Mrs. Harold Sunbury, Mrs. Fred Symons and Mrs. Henry Hopkinson.

Officers elected at the annual meeting of the Richmond Hill Women's Institute were Mrs. John Hawker, Mrs. Frank Blanchard, Miss C. Mason, Mrs. A. Smith, Miss A. Dresser, Mrs. S. Lockwood, Mrs. G. Rodgers, Mrs. L. Healy and Mrs. A. McIver.

TEN YEARS AGO

From the Record Files of Thursday, April 25, 1946.

A former German secret police officer declared today that Hermann Goering engineered frame-ups in 1938 which resulted in the dismissal of both the Reich war minister and the army's chief-of-staff — "the decisive last steps before the outbreak of the war."

A further gloom spread over the United States labor front today as settlement of the No. 1 dispute involving about 500,000 soft-coal miners appeared far away.

Eric Adams, a native of Granby and well-known in Sherbrooke, was committed on two charges in Canada's espionage probe by Magistrate Glenn Strike yesterday afternoon. He will face trial on a charge of conspiracy and another count lodged under the Official Secrets Act of 1939.

Premiers of Canada's nine provinces gathered in the capital today for renewed discussions with federal officials on financial relations and taxation agreements between the Dominion and provinces.

BANK ROBBERY SETBACKS

(Windsor Star)
Bank banditry, which has flared up after a long lull in the United States, is not paying off well for the bandits. A better deterrent would be hard to find.

A recent spectacular robbery in an eastern state was regarded as a model of planning, and yielded tens of thousands of dollars. But within a few days the robbers were caught and their loot recovered.

This experience has just been repeated in the midwest, where $62,402 was snatched in four minutes from a Flint, Mich., bank. Today all three bandits are behind bars, and their spoils found intact.

On our side of the border bank robbery has been actively engaged in, particularly on the West Coast, for several years back. Of late, though, the breaks have been going against the bandits, and an R.C.M.P. constable's marksmanship has added further discouragement. Let's hope our deterrents are adequate.

A BEAUTIFUL STORY

(Fort William Times-Journal)
There is an engaging little story going around about two caterpillars who were munching on a blade of grass. As they ate, a butterfly came fluttering along. One caterpillar looked up, nudged the other, and said, "You'll never get me up in one of those things!"

C of C Is Essential To Community Life

The Chamber of Commerce performs an essential role in our society. It was once defined as an association of intelligent citizens who pooled their experiences with a view of promulgating their collective and their individual interests for the benefit of the community.

Sherbrooke's Chamber of Commerce initiated its recruiting campaign yesterday with its objective set at 100 new members. Joint presidents of the campaign are Sarto Roy and John York.

For 1956 the local Chamber of Commerce has the following agenda planned: study the problems of parking and traffic; promote industrial expansion; radio broadcasts on such topics as our system of economics and free enterprise; public education on industrial problems and group-insurance plan.

Under the heading public welfare, the members will recommend fluoridation of drinking water; free dental care for children and changes and stricter enforcement of laws regarding hotels, restaurants and grocery stores. At present there are some

North Hatley W. I. Plans Spring Rummage Sale

NORTH HATLEY.—The North Hatley branch of the Quebec Women's Institute held its April meeting in the Community Hall. The members assembled for supper, to which each one had contributed, and an hour of fellowship was enjoyed.

Mrs. C. S. Daintrey, the president, called the meeting to order and led in the opening exercises.

During the conveners' reports, Mrs. Grant LeBaron, convener of citizenship, read a draft of the brief which is being prepared regarding C.B.C. radio and T.V. programs.

Mrs. R. W. Bowen, convener of Welfare and Health, requested clean cottons for cancer dressings. Miss Hazel Cinnamon volunteered to take charge of the books belonging to the North Hatley branch. They will be at her home if anyone wishes to borrow them or refer to them. Mrs. F. Pryce with Mrs. R. W. Bowen, will assume the duties of the Sunshine Committee.

Mrs. Laurence Taylor was appointed delegate to the County meeting to be held in Hatley on May 3rd. Members who wish to attend this meeting were asked to notify Mrs. C. S. Daintrey.

Plans were made for the spring Rummage Sale, which the North Hatley branch has held for past several years, and the date of April 28th was established.

Solicitors were appointed and the Institute hopes that, as in the past, the friends in the community will contribute to this project, and help make it a success.

TALK ON CANCER
The Young Women's Club of North Hatley sponsored a program presenting Dr. J. Olivier of Sherbrooke, who is in charge of the Cancer Clinic at the St. Vincent de Paul Hospital.

Dr. Olivier spoke on the nature and cause of cancer, its diagnosis and treatment, and of the part of each individual in the battle against cancer. He told of the work done at the free clinic at the St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, and urged that all be alert for the signs of cancer, and when in doubt to see their doctor without delay. He stressed that the early detection and treatment of the disease greatly increased the chances of a cure.

Informative films were shown to point up Dr. Olivier's talk. A good attendance was on hand.

700 Chambers of Commerce and national. The Canadian Chamber of Commerce is a federation of more than 70 Chambers of Commerce throughout the 10 provinces, supported by 2,400 companies and 24 associations. Its three principal functions can be described in this way:

1. To bring to the federal government's attention the views and opinions of the Chamber members on questions of national importance.

2. Contribute to the economic progress of the nation and to welfare in general.

3. To help the Chambers of Commerce and the Boards of Trade in Canada.

To control this work, a board of directors is elected composed of a national president, national vice-presidents, the chairman and two vice-presidents of the council general, two provincial directors in for each province, 10 directors and two representatives of the Junior Board of Trade.

Other than its executive the Canadian Chamber of Commerce includes 25 committees whose functions are to study problems of vital importance to the country and to make recommendations regarding questions of international commerce in the fields of agriculture, public finances, income tax and law.

On a provincial status, the organization is practically the same except that representations and recommendations are made to the provincial governments. Each province has its provincial chamber except in the Maritimes where the four provinces are grouped under the Maritime Provincial Board of Trade. In all provinces except Quebec, the services of the provincial office are maintained by a staff directed by the Canadian Chamber of Commerce.

The local Chamber of Commerce gives the movement its force and its value. The Canadian and provincial Chambers derive their strength from the backing given them by the local branches. The success of the movement depends entirely on the support of the local Chambers of Commerce.

How does this movement work; how is it organized? Let us say that the movement is active on three levels, that is, municipal, provincial

Continued From Page 1 ing. The press conference was scheduled for Friday, a few hours before the visitors are to leave for Moscow. The slim prospect that the visit might still result in some substantial narrowing of East-West differences received a slight boost from a talk Khrushchev had Tuesday night with Harold Stassen, President Eisenhower's special adviser on disarmament. Stassen wouldn't tell reporters whether they made any progress on disarmament in the two-hour talk but said: "I am going to report to the president tonight just what he said. I think it's that important."

The Conservative newspaper Daily Telegraph, which has been highly critical of Khrushchev's behavior during his visit here, cautions its readers today: "It is important to bear in mind in assessing the value of the Russian visit that it is not yet over. Previous negotiations with the Russians have shown that they often reserve any concessions until the last moment." Among the 4,000 guests at last night's reception were leading British politicians, titled Britons, comedian Charlie Chaplin and Dr. Hewlett Johnson, the "Red dean" of Canterbury. As the crush of the crowd increased, the Kremlin leaders were ushered into the private anteroom. Inside, Bulganin was heard demanding "what happened to the vodka? Give me another vodka." Chaplin, taken into the private chamber to see the Russian visitors, told a reporter he found them "inspiring." Dr. Johnson said he had an "invigorating" talk with Bulganin and Khrushchev, and termed them "charming men." When Bulganin left the anteroom, about 200 persons swarmed around him and began to sing For He's a Jolly Good Fellow. The crowd pushed and shoved to shake hands with the Soviet premier, and two women kissed him. He grinned and waved. Early in the reception Khrushchev's face was set in a scowl as he complained to Russian visitors about what he called the "piggyish" treatment he and Bulganin had received from some British socialists. British and Russian officials said the Communist party chief was angry over the exchange Monday night at a dinner given by leaders of the Labor party.

Marlboros And Canadiens Voice Complaints Regarding Referees; Meet Tonight In Final Fixture

TORONTO — (CP) — The referees of the eastern Canada Memorial Cup hockey finals are getting criticism from both teams.

Toronto Marlboro coach Turk Broda Tuesday night blasted Ottawa's Ching McDonald and Gord Pranschke for their handling of the first seven games of the series. Sam Pollock, general manager of junior Montreal Canadiens, isn't happy with the officiating either.

Broda blames the refereeing for his team's timid play.

Those two wouldn't know a legitimate bodycheck if they saw one. It's a crime. Every time one of my guys throws a good check, they hand out those cheap charging penalties. It got so Al MacNeil and Bobby Baun were afraid to bump anybody."

Marlboros once held a 3-1 lead in games in what opened as a best-of-seven series. Now the set is deadlocked at three games each with one tie. The final game is here tonight and the winner will meet Regina Pats for the Canadian Junior title.

"If the refereeing was consistent, I wouldn't mind but they let those Canadiens get away with murder. Ron Farnfield was high-sticked in the mouth Monday night but there wasn't any penalty. Chuck Burns knocked the wind out of him, but there wasn't a penalty there, either."

Pollock calls the refereeing "atrocious." "Pranschke is utterly disgusting as a referee," Pollock said after Sunday's sixth game here which Canadiens won 3-2. "He didn't call one penalty against Toronto in the whole game. "All he is is a glorified linesman."

Bump Everybody Even Referees, Says Turk Broda

TORONTO — (CP) — Toronto Marlboros have been ordered to "bump every person in sight" in today's eighth and deciding game of the eastern Canada Memorial Cup final.

Marlboro coach Turk Broda gave the orders to his team after it lost 4-1 to the Junior Montreal Canadiens Monday night. That win tied what was supposed to be a best-of-seven series at three games each and one tie.

At one time in the series, when Marlboros were crashing the Junior Habs around the rink, they led three games to one. Then Canadiens battled to a 3-3 deadlock and two victories — 3-2 and 4-1.

"We'll hit everything in sight Wednesday and even the referees if they get in the way," Broda said after Monday night's game.

Team Up To Post Second Victory; Yanks' Home Run Power Decides Tilt As Bauer And Berra Lash Out

Vinegar Bend Mizell appears a cinch to win 20 games for the St. Louis Cardinals this season provided Ellis Kinder's aging arm holds out.

The young lefthanded Mizell has turned in victories in his first two starts but in each case he needed a ninth inning assistance from the old righthanded Kinder.

Last night, exactly a week after the pair had combined to down the Cincinnati Redlegs 4-2 in the season's opener, the Mizell-Kinder duo teamed up to defeat the Reds again, this time 5-3.

Mizell had a 5-0 lead going into the eighth, thanks to Ken Boyer. The sophomore third baseman drove in four of those runs with a home run and single. He lost his shutout in the eighth when Ray Jablonski, an ex-Card, drove his fifth homer of the season with two mates aboard.

After walking the first batter in the ninth, Mizell was relieved by Kinder who promptly gave up a hit to Bob Thruamm. That put the potential tying run on base. The 41-year-old relief bore down, however, to strike out George Crowe and got Johnny Temple to hit into a game ending double play.

Rain and cold weather raised havoc with the schedule Tuesday limiting the action to three games, two in the American League. In those, the Yankees whipped Washington Senators 4-1 and the Detroit Tigers drubbed Kansas City Athletics 7-4.

The home run ball was very much in evidence in the Yankee and Tiger victories. They accounted for all but three of the 11 runs made by the two teams. The Yankees hit two, one of them a three-run blast by Hank Bauer. The other was a solo blow by Yogi Berra. The victim was left hander Chuck Stobbs. It was

New York's sixth victory in seven starts and 4th in a row. Their first place lead over Chicago was increased to a full game.

Johnny Kucks went the distance with an eight-hitter to gain his second victory, both over Washington. Five double plays helped him out of as many jams.

Snortstop Jerry Lumpe, who has been having his troubles on defense, equalled a major league record held by many at the position by participating in five double plays.

Bill Tuttle, Ray Boone and Reno Bertoia were the Tiger homer-hitters. Tuttle, who also singled, drove in four runs. Bertoia had two singles besides his four-batter and scored three times. Arnie Portocarrero was the A's starter and loser. Steve Gromek, after a wobbly first inning, settled down and pitched scoreless ball for Detroit until Vic Power homered in the seventh.

Rain washed out the scheduled game between Boston and the Orioles in Baltimore. Cold weather forced postponement of games between Milwaukee and Chicago, New York and Pittsburgh and Brooklyn and Philadelphia.

Dow Squad Wins Harvey Trophy In Richmond Bowling League Playoff; Prizes Presented At Closing Dinner

RICHMOND — Dow won the Harvey Trophy, emblematic of the Richmond Bowling League championship when they downed the Duchess squad by 122 pins in the two-game, total-pinfal final.

Dow won the first by 201 pins a week ago and last Sunday lost to the same club by 79 pins. Dow was able to salvage the victory despite the handicap of one of their top bowlers Harold Kydd, who injured his right hand last week. Kydd, helped by Marc Langlois and Romeo Carrier, had amassed only 476 in the five strings played. Sylvio Gagne rolled highest with 737 with Marsh Gregory getting high single 176.

Norm Arseneault was best for Duchess with 705 and Bob Beaudet of Dow rolled an even 700. The league ended the season by holding a party for the players and presenting the trophies. Florry Maguire acted as chairman and was aided in distributing the various trophies by members of the league. Hal Kydd received a trophy for rolling the high single of the season. He had 223 while Romeo Carrier got a trophy for his triple of 506. Bob Beaudet also won a special prize, a miniature bowling set for rolling the lowest with 63.

The Bradings Trophy was presented to Jean Marcotte and Maurice Corriveau for their team, Pina-Oregon, placing first in the league standings. Another trophy, the E. S. Cogan Trophy was presented to Romeo Carrier for winning the Industrial League championship. His team was the National Hosiery comprising three girls and three men.

Other trophies presented went to the following. Gilles Labrie for placing first in the average column, S. Gagne second and Bernie Langlois third. In the ladies' section, Miss M. Leblanc received a trophy for finishing first while Rita Maguire was second and Therese Duchesne third. Carrier was given a trophy for placing tops in the high single while Ray Lancaster got one for his triple. Yolande Cote won the ladies high single and Gisele Viens, high triple. Each received a trophy.

Coach Murph Chamberlain Fires Two Players For Indifferent Play; Teams Complain Regarding Referees In Series

KAMLOOPS, B.C. — Two members of the Chatham Maroons hockey team were ordered out of the team playoff camp near Kelowna by coach Murph Chamberlain on the eve of the fourth game of the Allan Cup finals.

Chamberlain's move was the second in an effort to jar Maroons back into winning form for their game here tonight with Vernon Canadians.

Defenceman Marty Zorica and spare forward Ernie Dick were sent back to club headquarters in Vernon and it was reported the pair will be benched for the remainder of the series because of indifferent play Monday.

Maroons lost to Vernon 7-1 Monday after dropping the second game 6-2. Maroons won the opener of the best-of-seven series 7-1.

As the schedule now stands, tonight's game is the last chance Maroons will have to square the series on neutral ice. Succeeding games are scheduled for Vernon.

Chamberlain earlier had moved his team out of Vernon, claiming too much hospitality had cost the club its fine edge.

And while Chamberlain himself virtually went into hiding, eastern officials took up the cudgels over the refereeing and venue of succeeding games of the senior hockey championship.

Stan Thompson, Maroons vice-president, said the team wants a change in referees.

"They've been letting too much go," he said. "We'd like to see somebody out there who'll call them according to the book."

Leo Corriveau of Quebec City and Jimmy Haggerty of Montreal are working the series.

Milwaukee — Del Flanagan, 154½. St. Paul, outpointed George Roddie, 156½. Day, Ohio, 10.
