

Ross Government Met Severe Defeat in Appeal to Electors

Councillors Are Returned to Power With an Immense Majority—Four, and Probably Five, Ministers Were Defeated—Mr. Whitney Will Have Majority of 40 in New House—Liberals Gained Three Seats, Ottawa and Glengarry.

The temperance people also showed dissatisfaction with Mr. Ross's attitude on prohibition.

Mr. R. L. Borden Pleased.

Halifax, N.S., Jan. 26.—The news of J. P. Whitney's great majority was received with delight by the Liberal-Conservatives of Halifax. A meeting of the Halifax County Conservative Club, addressed by Mr. R. L. Borden, was in progress when the returns began to come in. When the figures stood at 71 to 24 in favor of the Conservatives, the meeting decided to send the following telegram:

J. P. Whitney, Toronto:
The Halifax County Conservative Club, in meeting assembled, associates hearty congratulations to the Liberal-Conservative victory of Ontario on their magnificent victory.

When the election result came of Mr. J. P. Whitney's election, Mr. Borden said that no man more really deserved the palm of victory. He had been entitled to power since 1897, when his party won a popular majority as high as 7,000 in 1901. In the face of such office holders he had now swept the province. His victory showed what perseverance, faithful effort and good policy will do, and the Liberal-Conservative triumph in Ontario means much to the whole Dominion.

REVISED RETURNS.

Conservatives	70
Liberals	28
Conservative Maj.	42

The Ontario elections declared in most emphatic tones yesterday that it was time for a change of Government, and the long tenure of power enjoyed by the Liberals has been terminated.

The reverse of the Government was complete. The Conservatives gained twenty-six seats, an achievement far beyond their expectations. The Government made three gains. The standing of the parties is: Conservatives, 72; Liberals, 25; majority of 48. These figures may be changed considerably when final returns are completed. The Globe returns give the Conservatives 69 seats and the Liberals 29, with a conservative popular majority of about 20,000.

The Cabinet fared badly in the landslide. Premier Ross was returned with a much reduced majority in his own riding, and four of his colleagues, Hon. Messrs. Latchford, Dryden, Evans and Gibson were defeated. The fate of Hon. W. A. Charlton is in doubt. Two of the new Ministers, Hon. G. P. Graham and Hon. A. G. McKay, were elected. Hon. Richard Harcourt was also returned.

The Liberals gained two seats in Ottawa and Glengarry went Liberal. The defeat of the Conservatives in Ottawa was a surprise. The majority of the cities went strongly conservative.

The standing of the parties after the last election in May 29, 1902, was: Liberals, 51; Conservatives, 47.

HON. J. P. WHITNEY, WHO WILL BE NEXT PREMIER OF ONTARIO.

PRESS COMMENT ON THE ONTARIO ELECTIONS AT HOME AND ABROAD

The Toronto morning papers commented enthusiastically on the landslide in part as follows:

The Globe says: "Obviously there were several causes which conspired for the defeat of the Government. The main one was the positive antagonism of the liquor interest; indifference of the opposition of the temperance elements, and persistent restoration of the liquor trade. It is alleged, went almost solidly against the Government, and was effective in the campaign, working in some instances through the Conservative organization and in others through agents of its own. The temperance people for the most part either voted against the Liberal candidates or did not vote at all. The majority which Mr. Whitney will have in the House will be his embarrassment, but he now has his opportunity."

The Mail and Empire says: "The verdict is really a declaration of Ontario people that they intend to rule. It is an announcement that artificial or criminal interference with electoral rights is not safe. It is an intimation to all public men and to all parties that there must be honesty in the conduct of public affairs and the ballot must be treated as sacred. The judgment will be welcomed by independent and right-thinking men. It tells us that there is a public conscience and the province is at heart sound."

THE MAIL AND EMPIRE

The World says: "The defeat of the Ross Government is so sweeping as to mean that the people of Ontario held their own."

The Manchesterian says: "The political atmosphere in Ontario, says the Manchesterian (Liberal), will probably have been cleared by the general election yesterday. The Liberal party in Ontario is in its thirty-third year of power, but at last decay has come upon it and it was really high time it should be given an opportunity of clearing and rejuvenating itself in the waters of Opposition. Too much prosperity is particularly dangerous for one party in a country. A generation ago the Liberal party in Ontario, with George Brown as its leader, and the Globe for its voice, stood strongly in defence of political purity, reform and provincial rights. In the night of his power, but when Sir Oliver Mowat passed from Provincial office, the Liberal party's sceptre came into the hands of lesser men and in the last eight years the Cabinet of Ontario has followed power rather than principle. The Liberal party has organized, ballot burning, ballot 'switching', organized persuasion and wholesale bribery. The Guardian says both parties have been equally guilty. The confessed sins of the Government have been more numerous, more flagrant, perhaps, because their power to sin effectively has been the greater. The respectable elements in the Liberal party have been mortified by these tactics and Mr. Ross would have resigned long ago were it not for his hand, some time spent in getting things cleared up. The railway yards are piled high with snow, and even shunting engines cannot get about."

BROKE LICENSE LAWS

The following sentences were imposed yesterday afternoon by Judge Choquet for breaches of the licensing law:

Edward Vallieres, 264 Rachel Street, selling liquor without a license, $50 and costs or three months imprisonment.

John A. Thinnicky, grocer, 2136 St. Lawrence Street, Ville St. Louis, allowing drinking on the premises, $30 and costs or three months imprisonment.

Nathaniel Brown, grocer, Park Avenue, permitting drinking on the premises, $50 or three months imprisonment.

THE VICTORS IN OTTAWA

The successful Liberal candidates in Ottawa, Mr. D. J. McDougall and Mr. Geo. S. May, are worthy of the confidence of the electors. Mr. McDougall is the son of one of Ottawa's most respected citizens, ex-Mayor McDougall, and though but a young man, he has for a decade been prominent in the civic, legal and political life of the Washington of the North. As a resident at Ottawa College, he was a member of the football team, which, under the leadership of Rev. Father Fallon, won championship after championship, and stamped itself as the best organization of its kind in Canada. In the autumn of 1897, McDougall went to Toronto University, where, throughout his course, he played on the varsity fifteen, and where he captained the varsity and later at Osgoode, he was a leading spirit, not only in athletics, but in social and literary circles. When he concluded his studies, he took to the practice of law in Ottawa, and in his profession his ability was quickly recognized, and was recently rewarded by his nomination as candidate for the Ontario Legislature. Mr. McDougall is an eloquent speaker, both in French and English, and is an earnest and energetic worker in any cause to which he devotes his energy, and it is not too much to predict that the interests of the Ottawa electorate will be safe in his hands.

Mr. May is a progressive business man, who has never before served in any other public capacity than as a member of the public school board. As such, he made it evident that he trusted to his own ability and competence, and it is not too much to predict that the interests of the Ottawa electorate will be safe in his hands.

HON. G. W. ROSS HAS NO STATEMENT TO MAKE ON RESULTS

Toronto, Jan. 26.—(Special.)—Judging from outward manifestations, the report that Hon. G. W. Ross would make a statement this morning over the change

THE PROVERB HUNT

Numerous enquiries are made as to whether the Proverb pictures will be again published when the answers are given. No. The list of correct answers will be published, each being numbered according to the number of the picture.

"Herald Reader," Sanguinet Street, expresses the fear that the pictures cut from The Herald will be given preference over those printed on separate sheets. No preference will be shown. The judges have been requested to make allowance for the slight difference in the paper, so as to put all contestants on an absolute equality.

A man in Quebec City asks if Proverb sets must be inserted in envelopes. No; contestants may send them in as they please.

Election Was Clean

Brookville, Ont., Jan. 26.—(Special.)—The report that corrupt practices had been indulged in by the Liberal interest are strongly denied. As far as the Liberals were concerned there was never a cleaner election in the riding, and Hon. G. P. Graham won his great victory fairly.

A Recount in Kingston

Kingston, Ont., Jan. 26.—(Special.)—The Conservatives say there will be a recount in Kingston, and they hope to turn Mr. Pense's majority into a minority. Ballots for Barbadoes colored students at Queen's have to be tendered, and were not counted. Liberals claimed they were not in the province for a year, having entered the college as freshmen. The Liberals say the majority will be increased.

If a protest follows, there will be a counter protest, and the courts will hear both sides as to corruption. Bogus cheques were sent around to Liberal workers with Mr. Pense's name forged to them. The Liberals were indignant until they learned the crime committed. The forged cheques were not on account of Mr. Pense, but on account of the Government's stand, nearly caused his defeat.

Worst Storm in Twenty Years

Toronto News.

Toronto, Jan. 26.—(Special.)—The News this afternoon will say: "One lesson of the election is that the people of Ontario, in bulk, can be trusted to do right if they have the facts before them. The feature of the campaign that closed with such a decisive defeat for the Ross administration, was that the moderate way in which undeniable facts were stated and kept before the public. It is distinctly creditable to the Liberal party that so many refused to follow their leaders who were tied to the 'machine.' It is proof that there exists in this province a great body of enlightened, patriotic sentiment, which will not countenance or condone electoral corruption. The government of the country is in the hands of that element. It can punish another administration as it has that of Mr. Ross, and we believe, should occasion unfortunately arise, the verdict will be as instantaneous and as conclusive as that of Ontario is sound."

English Press Comment.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

London, January 26.—The political atmosphere in Ontario, says the Manchesterian (Liberal), will probably have been cleared by the general election yesterday. The Liberal party in Ontario is in its thirty-third year of power, but at last decay has come upon it and it was really high time it should be given an opportunity of clearing and rejuvenating itself in the waters of Opposition. Too much prosperity is particularly dangerous for one party in a country. A generation ago the Liberal party in Ontario, with George Brown as its leader, and the Globe for its voice, stood strongly in defence of political purity, reform and provincial rights. In the night of his power, but when Sir Oliver Mowat passed from Provincial office, the Liberal party's sceptre came into the hands of lesser men and in the last eight years the Cabinet of Ontario has followed power rather than principle. The Liberal party has organized, ballot burning, ballot 'switching', organized persuasion and wholesale bribery. The Guardian says both parties have been equally guilty. The confessed sins of the Government have been more numerous, more flagrant, perhaps, because their power to sin effectively has been the greater. The respectable elements in the Liberal party have been mortified by these tactics and Mr. Ross would have resigned long ago were it not for his hand, some time spent in getting things cleared up. The railway yards are piled high with snow, and even shunting engines cannot get about.

Every street in the city is blocked, and as the teamsters who usually haul snow from the streets are on strike, the conditions are extremely bad. The streets are blocked, it still snows and drifts, though not with the same fury as last night, and from every section of the province come reports of blockades.

The Storm at Halifax.

Halifax, N. S., Jan. 26.—(Special.)—The worst storm of the season struck the city yesterday, driving the streets with banks of snow, and almost completely paralyzing traffic. All over the province the storm is very severe, and the railway trains through the blowing gale and snow falling heavily, it was a wild afternoon and night. When the storm was at its worst in the evening, the Dartmouth ferry boats also experienced considerable difficulty in reaching the docks, the snow being so thick that it was utterly impossible to see very far ahead. About midnight the mercury reached the zero mark, a perceptible rise in the temperature.

Severe Cold in Gotham.

New York, Jan. 26.—Clearing weather which followed the great storm of yesterday brought New York the coldest day it has experienced in many years. During the early hours of the morning the mercury reached the zero mark in the weather bureau's official thermometer, and at 8 o'clock this forenoon it stood at two degrees above zero. The forecast is reported among the residents of some of the poorer quarters of the city, where thousands are without sufficient heat, clothing or food. "Charitable institutions" where the lodging is given to the homeless were packed to their capacity during the night.

Five deaths were due to the storm.

Train Service Crippled.

Albany, N.Y., Jan. 26.—Although snow stopped falling here early last evening, this morning found the roads in a very bad state. Trains from all directions are now two or more hours behind their schedules. The high winds, which were responsible for much of the trouble during the night, have now ceased, but the weather remains very cold. The thermometer this morning registered five degrees below zero.

Express Train Stalled.

New York, Jan. 26.—In a snowdrift twenty feet deep, the twentieth century limited of the New York Central Railroad, as timed at Irvington-on-Hudson, when it left New York yesterday at 2.45 p.m., about fifty men and women were on board. They are imprisoned in the cars, and will not be able to communicate with the outside world until 500 workmen sent from New York can shovel away the drift.

At Boston.

Boston, Jan. 26.—Boston was slowly recovering early to-day from the effects of yesterday's great storm. The streets were piled high with snow, which hundreds of city employees were struggling on the street car lines throughout the city and running to the suburbs all the reserve force which called into action during the night to man the ploughs, and, despite the gale, which continued with little abatement, cars were able to run on fairly good time. The snow was not so thick as it had been, but the mercury continued to drop, and early to-day registered only five above zero. There was much suffering from exposure, which was the direct cause of two deaths in the city.

Train Service Suspended.

Hyannis, Mass., Jan. 26.—Train service on Cape Cod practically had been suspended. The roads were blocked, many passengers bound for points on the cape spent the night in the cars. Highways are impassable on account of huge snow drifts. Wire communication was not seriously interrupted.

CANADIANS IN LONDON.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

London, January 26.—The Canadian Society of London formerly held a monthly luncheon. This is now changed to a dinner, the first of which takes place on February 2, at the Criterion. The principal guests will be Messrs. D. M. Stewart and John Forbes. The former speaks on Banking and the latter on Art.

Trains Arrive Late.

The C.P.R. Halifax train was three hours late and the Boston train five hours behind time arriving at the C.P.R. Station to-day. The Toronto train was also delayed, coming in at 1.30 instead of 7.35, as was also the St. John's train, which was five hours late. The Grand Trunk were also hours behind time. The Portland train was five hours late. The Chicago train was six hours late.

Fire Alarm Boxes Tampered With

An Employee of the Department is Under Suspicion.

HE MUST HAVE HAD KEYS

The Boxes Were "Plugged" So That They Would Give No Alarm When the Handle Was Turned.

What is believed to be malicious tampering with the city fire alarm boxes has come to light at the City Hall. Within the past few days members of the staff of Superintendent Ferns have found two alarm boxes out of order, and a glance showed that they had been cut off the circuit by means of a plug. The boxes interfered with were No. 476 at City Hall avenue and Sherbrooke street, and No. 219, at Mount Royal avenue and Cadieux street.

Cutting a box from a circuit might be a serious affair if a fire should break out in the neighborhood. A person might run to this box and pull the hook; the machinery would work all right, but no alarm would be registered at the City Hall. The delay in finding the box out of order and in sending another alarm to the central office might give rise to a big conflagration. Superintendent Ferns when seen to-day, did not hesitate to express his annoyance that any person would do such a serious piece of mischief.

"It is just the same," he remarked, "as if a trap were placed in front of a fire station to prevent the brigade responding to the alarm. The man who has been cutting these boxes off must have keys for both doors and understand the working of the apparatus. It is not a question of a mistake, but a deliberate outrage."

Steps have been taken to find the perpetrator of these outrages, and nothing will be left undone to bring him to justice. The number of persons who have keys to a fire alarm box is limited. Suspicion has already attached itself to one man, and so thorough have the precautions been that it is scarcely possible for the offence to be repeated.

ATTEMPT TO MURDER

At the conclusion of enquete yesterday afternoon, Edward Kelly was committed for trial at the Court of King's Bench on a charge of shooting with intent to murder Detective Viens, on January 6, while the officer was endeavoring to make his arrest.

A second charge has been laid against accused of attempting to murder Police Constable Desmarcau, at whom it will be remembered, he fired three point-blank shots as that officer chased after him on Craig Street. On this accusation he will appear for enquete on February 1.

BUSIED VICE-ROYALTY YESTERDAY
Spectacular Features of Their Excellencies Stay Were the Snowshoe Tramp and the Visit to the Stadium

The vice-regal party had a tremendous day yesterday. After the functions of the early afternoon, which have already been described in The Herald, they were hurried off to the Grey Nunnery, the party consisting of Their Excellencies and daughters, and Col Hanbury-Williams, Capt. Trotter and Capt. Newton.

The Superior General, Sister Hamel, and conducted to the children's reception hall. Here 300 children were drawn up to greet them, and sang school songs with excellent effect, after which Master Albert Girard, aged eleven, read an address of welcome with perfect aplomb and splendid distinctness.

VENING WAS A ROUND OF WINTER JOLLITY

Jollity reigned supreme and formality was banned from the hour when Their Excellencies descended from their rooms at the Windsor at nine o'clock, and started on the escort of the invited tramps of all the snowshoe clubs of Montreal for the Stadium rink.

The intense cold was powerless to prevent an immense concourse of people from turning out to witness the spectacle, which was an indescribably gorgeous medley of vari-colored blankets, Greek and Roman firs, torches, pipes, life and drum bands, "Montagnard" choruses, and assemblies in the Windsor rotunda, the snowshoers lined up in double file, Tuque Bleue leading on one side, and Montagnard on the other, and between them passed the sleigh vice-royalty, the snowshoers falling in behind. At Sherbrooke street they separated, the tramps going west and Their Excellencies east, Lord Grey arose with a jovial smile, and the crowd replied with a thunderous cheer. There were about 400 snowshoers in the escort.

An interesting report of the ladies' committee was read by Mrs. Scott. Speaking of the great necessity of more funds and more nurses, she said that during the past six months five thousand visits had been made to the sick poor.

At the close of the business meeting, Miss McDougall was presented with the medal of the order by Her Excellency, after which tea was served to the vice-regal party, the polished mahogany table being prettily arranged with pink and orange flowers, and the pieces and being in charge of Mrs. A. Woods and Mrs. Walton.

CHURCH HOME VISITED BY HIS EXCELLENCY

Previous to the Victorian Order meeting, Her Excellency, Lady Sybil and Captain Newton called at the Church Home, 407 Guy street, and extended a word of kindly greeting to the twenty old ladies who are its occupants. The party were received by Mr. Geo. Drummond, vice-president of the board of managers, and escorted to the reception parlors, where Archbishop Bond was presented, along with Bishop Carmichael, Rev. Canon Ellegood and Archdeacon Norton. The Prime made a brief speech of welcome, and informed the Countess as to the work done by the home, and Bishop Carmichael also spoke. Mrs. W. Herstan Thomas, on behalf of the inmates, presented the Countess with a bouquet.

Immediately after the Victorian Order meeting, Her Excellency and party returned to the Windsor Hotel. The second of the intimate dinner parties took place at 7.30, in the dining room of the vice-regal suite, and the invited guests were: His Grace, Archbishop Bond and Miss Bond, Bishop Carmichael, Rev. Canon Ellegood and Archdeacon Norton.

THE SULLEN TRUCE STILL PREVAILS

St. Petersburg, Jan. 26.—The aspect of the city is almost normal this morning, and the feeling is decidedly calmer. Several newspapers have appeared. The authorities, following up the proclamation of last night, are doing everything possible to quiet public alarm. They withdrew the troops from the streets during the night and not a soldier was in sight in the centre of the city this morning.

SYMPATHIZED WITH ROYAL VICTORIA IN FIRE LOSSES

The Governor-General and his party were due to arrive at the Royal Victoria at eleven o'clock, but being detained at the General, it was 11.30 before his Excellency reached the "Pine Avenue Institution."

As representatives of the board of governors, Sir George Drummond and Mr. F. W. Wanklyn met Earl and Countess Grey and presented to them the various ladies, doctors and officials connected with the institution.

MR. H. O. EDY PASSES AWAY AFTER A LONG ILLNESS

His Death Recalls the Mysterious Murder of His Parents at Clarenceville. Mr. H. O. Edy, manufacturer's agent and wholesale importer, died last evening at his late residence No. 472 Sherbrooke street, Westmont, after an illness of two years duration, his lungs being affected.

Deceased was born 49 years ago at Clarenceville and was the son of the late Mr. Omri Edy. The late Mr. Edy was educated at the public schools at Clarenceville, and came to Montreal nineteen years ago. He started in business as an agent and subsequently prospered as an importer.

Deceased was well known in Montreal and elsewhere. He is survived by a widow and one son, Master Clarence Edy also a sister, Mrs. Hally, of Essex, New York, and one cousin, Mr. Omri Edy, of this city, who is connected with the A. E. Kemp, company of Toronto.

A funeral service will be conducted at his late residence this evening by Rev. Mr. French.

THE LATE MR. H. O. EDY.

Parents' Cruel Fate. The deceased's parents were cruelly murdered at Clarenceville in June, 1894, and their slayers were never captured, and the case was most mysterious. The late Omri Edy and his wife lived on a large farm. One morning the late Mr. John Gilbert, who had been their employe, saw smoke issuing from Mr. Edy's house, investigating he found all the doors secured and the blinds down. Mr. Gilbert broke into the house and discovered the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Edy. Both had been shot to death and the house set on fire. Mr. H. O. Edy was in Montreal when the crime was committed. Dominion and Provincial officers worked on the case for months, but were unsuccessful. Large rewards were offered for information as to the guilty parties, but no clues was ever unearthed.

THE HERALD

Established 1854.

MONTREAL, THURSDAY, JAN. 26.

THE END OF A GREAT ADMINISTRATION.

The sweeping victory gained by Mr. Whitney and his party in Ontario yesterday, after thirty-two years of inability to secure a bare majority for the Conservative party in that Province, was so decisive as to make any attempt to explain it wholly unnecessary. The election was fought by both sides on the simple issue whether the Ross Government had been maintained in power for the past two years by the help of those who disregarded the sanctity of the ballot and of others who corruptly influenced votes. The Conservatives forced that issue. Mr. Ross accepted it. Other issues were forced to the background. The people have decided, and the decision goes strongly against Mr. Ross and his colleagues. That is the whole matter, and there is nothing to be gained by blinking it.

It is natural to expect that Conservatives everywhere will rejoice over the result. They have been excluded from office for a very long time, an abnormally long time. For that, however, they had themselves largely to blame, their appeals to religious and racial prejudice being rightly condemned by the people. Mr. Whitney's capacity as a public man is now to be put to its severest test, and speculation as to his success must be more or less futile. He has his weaknesses, and in opposition these weaknesses have been demonstrated, but it is only his due to say that since he became leader of the Opposition he has shown a lot of common sense, that he has steered clear of the racial issues, rather seeking to repair the mischief done by his predecessor, and that in the main he has quietly relied upon his party to put him into power. It was not genius, perhaps, but it was effective in the long run, and puts him in a position to demand a free hand in the selection of his Cabinet and in the subsequent conduct of affairs.

As to the Liberal party, it will be surprising if there is any general murmur. On the contrary, the prevailing belief will be that the loss of office should do the party good. The party, though in office, was actually suffering for it. Mr. Ross was not to blame, of course, if the people chose to return him last time by a narrow majority, but the narrowness of that majority, coming at the end of a long term in office, made his position tremendously difficult. If he could have abandoned office his way would have been easier, and there is reason to believe that he himself, and others high in the direction of the party, would have been glad if that recourse were open. But to hand over the reins to his opponents in a minority, was not so easy. In fact he learned, as many a minister under the British system had learned before him, that it is sometimes easier to get into office than to get out of it. Had Mr. Whitney been returned two years ago, the Liberal party would not now have gone down to defeat over an issue peculiarly repulsive to the spirit of genuine Liberalism. To that fate, however, the party in Ontario has been condemned by those who insisted upon keeping the Cabinet in office after the people had given plain enough intimation that its race was run.

But it may be asked, if such were the situation, how could any Liberal who thought so advocate or vote for a still further renewal of confidence? It seems to us that the Liberal party being what it is, Liberal principles being what they are, there was no hope for success, and ought to have been no hope for it, except the party and its leaders were bent upon the accomplishment of some great reform, and ready to make the election campaign a means to the education of the people with that end in view. The spirits of militant Liberals were raised by what took place at the Toronto convention. Had the leaders seen fit to rest their case upon the temperance reform plank of the platform there adopted, they would have had a rightful claim to recognition. For a time it looked as though they would; but the prospect receded, and finally vanished. For this, no doubt, the temperance wing of the party were largely to blame, and they must expect to pay the penalty of seeing their cause excluded from the range of practical politics for a long time to come. That is their affair.

For the rest, victory at this election was not essential to the Liberal party; defeat comes almost as a relief. Victory was essential to the Conservative party, and a Conservative victory almost essential to the stability of our form of government. Nobody wants to see a Canadian province become like Pennsylvania, where one party rules always—and therefore badly. Mr. Whitney will get a fair show, for a time even a sympathetic allowance will be made. The Liberals of Ontario, the people of Ontario generally, will not hold the defeat against Mr. Ross, but will, if we are not much mistaken, once more, and that promptly, accord him his rightful place in their esteem. He has done all for his Province and for his party that man could do. He has given, as he said the other day, to both "all there was in him." The stars in their courses have fought against him, that is all.

Over and above all, however, there is the one splendid lesson, over whose teaching Liberals will rejoice, even those who are immediately evened out by it, that the people will not tolerate interference with the ballot box. To have that taught beyond chance of doubting, to great and small alike, was worth a party defeat. Equally valuable for the Liberal party, is the lesson that mere holding on to office for its own sake is not worth while. Except when pressing on to new reforms, and when endeavoring to convince the people of the efficacy of Liberal principles, the Liberal party has no mission, and therefore no particular claim to the suffrages of the people.

A LOOK AHEAD.

In the last ten years the gross earnings of the Montreal Street Railway have increased 275 per cent., while the net earnings have increased in the same proportion. No doubt a part of this great increase in business might be traced to the enterprise of the company, but most of it has been due to the expansion of the city and the general prosperity which has prevailed during the past decade. Unlike many American companies, the Montreal company makes little or no effort to stimulate passenger traffic. Some American companies have established parks on the outskirts of their cities, and make special efforts to develop traffic to them and to other points of interest—especially in the summer time. In Toronto, where there is only about two-thirds as large a population, as many fares are collected as in Montreal. It is claimed that the Montreal company, by adopting the policy of the American lines and systematically endeavoring to exploit the beauty spots and places of interest on the Island of Montreal, could easily double its dividends. As it is the company hardly provides facilities to handle the traffic which offers, and the management apparently gives little or no attention to the possibilities of pleasing the public and incidentally increasing profits.

Compared with American cities, Greater Montreal has a relatively small amount of track mileage. Our system operates about 120 miles of tracks. Cincinnati, with a population of 225,000, has about 350 miles of track, exclusive of a number of suburban lines. Cleveland, with 380,000 inhabitants, has over 350 miles, besides a number of suburban routes.

In asking for an exclusive franchise, the Montreal Street Railway requests a privilege the value of which, even at the present time, would foot up to a good many millions. Even in cities already well provided with street car facilities, capitalists are willing to pay high prices for privileges in unoccupied streets. In 1901, the Johnsons, of Cleveland, applied for franchises in certain unoccupied streets of Philadelphia, offering three-cent fares with free transfers and reciprocity in transfers with the Union Traction lines. The application was pigeon-holed, but a little while afterwards the franchisees asked for were given to a number of Republican machine politicians. Mr. John Wanamaker offered to pay the city $2,500,000 for the franchises thus given away, but the Mayor threw away his letter unopened and signed the grants to the favored ones, who characterized the Wanamaker offer as a "bluff." Thereupon Mr. Wanamaker offered to pay $3,000,000 for the franchises if the politicians would transfer them, $500,000 to go to the holders, and $2,500,000 to the city. He agreed further to establish three-cent fares between 5 and 8 a.m., and 5 and 7 p.m., and allow the city to take over the franchises at any time upon the repayment of the money actually expended. The politicians, however, thought they could do better by exploiting the franchisees in the usual way. Philadelphia is a larger city than Montreal, but as the Union Traction and a dozen other companies had already had the pick of the streets, the franchises which Mr. Wanamaker valued at $3,000,000, could hardly have been as valuable as the Montreal franchise.

Some years ago, street railway magnates interested in the Detroit system offered to run the roads on a three-cent single fare, with forty tickets for $1 (a two and a half-cent fare), and pay interest on the cost of acquiring the roads, if the city would purchase them. As these men contemplated working under the existing load of fictitious capitalization, and expected to make good profits, it would seem that the rate sufficient to cover operating expenses, taxes, depreciation and interest on the actual value of a street railway can fairly be put below three cents.

Probably one good reason for the anxiety of the company to get a franchise extension now is to be found in the steady annual increase of business. In 1899 the company's earnings were $1,696,775. Last year they amounted to $2,463,824, an increase of almost one half in six years. If that rate of progress is maintained, and it has been ever since the company started, at the end of the eighteen year period provided for in the original contract the gross earnings of the company should be at least five millions, at which time, if the present proportion is maintained, the payment to shareholders should be a million and a quarter, or more. One can easily believe that if the contract was about to end, and these conditions were actually under review, it would be hard to convince the people that the promise of sums ranging from $150,000 to $250,000 for the further period of thirty-two years would meet all the requirements of the case.

Of course there would have to be some extra capital outlay before then, but this is another phase of the subject as to which satisfactory information is not vouchsafed. The value of the road stands now on the company's books at over nine millions. But a first-class electrical street railway can easily be built for less than $45,000 a mile. In Massachusetts, where some of the finest electric roads in the world have been built, the average capital per mile (in 1890) was $38,500, and the Street Railway Commission, whose duty it is to prevent over-capitalization, confesses that $38,500 (a figure which includes everything from paving to company's offices), includes a good deal of water. But say we figure on a basis of $45,000 per mile; with its present capital the Montreal company could build and equip 200 miles of road, and probably, since in the future it will be able to secure electric power much cheaper than by building large generating plants, it could build 250 miles or more. That would suffice to meet the needs of Montreal for some time to come, since, owing to its topography, the city does not require as many lines as most cities possessing about the same population. Thus the company apparently has no great need of increasing its capital. Yet it may be earning $5,000,000 at the expiration of its franchise—and will be over-modest if only a fourth of that is kept available for dividends.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

That must be fine Scotch they sell in Napanee. Ottawa seems to be as Liberal as Toronto is Tory.

Every since Tarts said Ross would win we've been afraid of this.

By the way, the Legislatures west of Quebec begin to look rather blue.

Mr. Borden must feel better, now that he sees Mr. Whitney a winner.

That license law can now be amended so that one Scotch after hours will not count.

They even took North Oxford. It's well poor old Sir Oliver didn't live to see that.

At last Mr. Whitney is free to let people know exactly what his mind is about Gamey.

It really looks as though Liberals did it. Liberals are particular about what happens to the ballot.

Whitney and Sir John Macdonald are the only Conservatives who have won anything in Ontario for ages.

The combination of temperance and liquor votes against Ross was hard to beat, and in fact wasn't beaten.

Here's where the Grits get back at Gamey. His efforts at getting into the Cabinet will be watched with interest.

Whitney is entitled to the enjoyment of his triumph. He has been the frog under the harrow long enough, good-news knows.

After that, not even his bitterest opponent will find it in his heart to deny Mr. Ross's claims to the gratitude of his country.

Ontario can now claim that Quebec is not the only province that ever emphatically condemned political corruption. Up to yesterday Quebec held the record alone.

Ontario Liberals are due to wake up and make a fresh start. They have been out of the procession for quite a while now, whereas their proper place is in the lead.

Mr. P. D. Ross, of Ottawa, is relieved of a great difficulty. He wouldn't contract to give Mr. Whitney more than one vote. Now he will not have to give that vote.

Sir Robert Walpole's administration lasted twenty-one years (1721-42). Lord Liverpool's fifteen (1812-27). In Canada the Macdonald-Abbott-Thompson-Bowell-Tupper administration lasted eighteen years (1878-96). The Blake-Mowat-Hardy-Ross, thirty-two. It's the record.

Letters to the Editor

THE STREET RAILWAY FRANCHISE AND 3c FARES.

Editor Herald. Sir,—Your paper this evening reports that the Montreal Street Railway is out for thirty-two year extension of its franchise. The wise ones in our Council have, I believe, been expecting this move for some time. Allow me to call the attention of our aldermen, through your influential columns, to the fact that the City Council of Cleveland, Ohio, on the 16th instant, authorized the Cleveland Electric Railway Company to make an experimental service for an indefinite length of time, to determine the practicability of a three-cent fare, in accordance with the arrangement between the company and Mayor Johnson. The experiment began on the 23rd instant. Had not our aldermen better watch for the result of this experiment? And before any extension whatever is granted, should not the condition of affairs with the Glasgow Civic Street Railway and the Liverpool Civic Street Railway be looked into by a special committee of our aldermen? The city could well afford to pay the expenses on a trip to England and Scotland, for the purpose, rather than give the Montreal Street Railway the opportunity to do so for individual aldermen after an extension has been granted.—Yours truly,

TAXPAYER.

PLEA FOR TOBOGGANS.

Editor Herald. Sir,—I noticed in the paper some time ago that some one was asking for more light on Fletcher's Field between the Incline Railway and Pine Avenue. Now this would be very nice indeed, but I think something should be done to prevent the bob-tails from using the whole hill as they dig such large holes it is almost impossible for a toboggan to go down without upsetting, which usually results in a bad shaking up. Again, these bob-tails are always running into the toboggans and smashing them up, and results in serious accidents; it was only last week that a boy got his leg broken that way. I think they should be made to keep to one side, or have them go up by Mount Royal Avenue, and let the people who have toboggans have a place where they can slide with safety. The city has provided several public skating rinks, which are much appreciated by many. Why not think they might fill up holes mentioned above. They are dumping the snow from the streets right opposite and it wouldn't cost the city anything, but it would please hundreds who enjoy the sport of tobogganing. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for inserting this, and trusting something will be done to protect the toboggan.

THE JOYS AND ILLS OF WINTER.

Coughs, Colds, Croup, Pneumonia, Bronchitis and La Grippe Are All Forms of Winter Catarrh and all are Curable by Pe-ru-na.

Winter has its pleasures. The skating, sleighing and various other outdoor sports of winter, combined with its pure, bracing atmosphere, all tend toward producing a healthy condition of the body.

Yet, in spite of these pleasures, winter brings its ills. Most of them are in the nature of climatic diseases. People are sometimes not as careful as they should be. They expose themselves unduly.

They are caught in cold, sleazy rain. They enter the house with damp shoes and clothing and do not take the time or trouble to change to dry clothing. They sit about the house and breathe the vitiated air of stuffy, unventilated rooms.

They do not take enough outdoor exercise and neglect hygienic precautions.

The amusements of the long evenings create a tendency to sleep late hours and eat heavy meals before retiring.

All of these indiscretions create catarrhal diseases.

Coughs, colds, bronchitis, croup, pneumonia and influenza predominate, though indigestion and stomach catarrh are almost as prevalent as in summer.

The only remedy ever devised by the medical profession to successfully counteract these ills and permanently cure catarrh, is Peru-na.

It cures catarrh in every phase and stage. It is not a palliative, but a permanent cure.

It strikes at once at the root of the catarrh by removing the cause of it.

It soothes and heals all of the various mucous membranes of the body, whether of the head, throat, lungs or stomach.

Peru-na, together with a reasonable amount of care as to one's health, is

WESTMINSTER CHURCH.

The annual meeting of Westminster Church was held last night, and was of a most encouraging nature in all respects, the session report showing a substantial increase in the membership. The reports of the different organizations show marked improvement, the ladies of the congregation alone raising $600 for church purposes. The new departure of holding the social part of the programme first was well received and most bountifully carried out by the ladies of the congregation.

WATERS BADLY SCALDED.

By a kettle of boiling water falling upon them, Messrs. T. H. Glen, aged 27, of 121 Champ de Mars street, and Thomas Smith, aged 18, of 11 Sanguliet street, waters at the Place Vigor Hotel, were badly scalded about their faces and hands last evening. Both were taken to the Notre Dame Hospital, and are likely to recover.

Quebec Dairymen Are Holding Twenty-third Annual Session

There Was a Large Attendance at Opening Sessions—Hon. Sydney Fisher Delivered an Interesting Address on Position of Dairying Industry—Mr. C. H. Parmelee, M.P., Delivered the President's Address.

St. John's, Que., January 25.—Yesterday the twenty-third Convention of the Province of Quebec Dairymen's Association opened here, with a large attendance of local agriculturalists. President C. H. Parmelee, M.P., occupied the chair and among those present were the Hon. Sydney Fisher, J. C. Chapais, Mr. Charvet, Rev. P. D. Labreche, Jos. Legace, C. W. Bowman, Robt. Ness, Leon Gerin, E. Costel, G. F. Whitley, J. A. Riddick, Hon. A. Turgeon, J. A. Vallancourt, A. W. Woodward, G. A. Girault, J. H. Griedale, Mr. J. A. Piamondou, Mr. J. H. Scott and the Montreal Produce Merchants' Association and others.

A feature of the day's proceedings was the presence of Hon. Sydney Fisher, Minister of Agriculture, who attended the various sessions, and in the evening delivered a very interesting address on the question of the general position of the dairy industry.

THE MORNING SESSION.

The report of the chief inspector of cheese factories, Mr. Plamondon, occupied a large part of the morning proceedings, and evoked a hot discussion, which, however, did not move Mr. Plamondon from his statement that they must call a halt on their reputation damage.

During the year he visited 25 different syndicates, twelve of them a second time, making 37 visits. In all he visited 397 factories and several butters, which he classed as follows: 93 first class, 173 second class and 39 third class. As to cleanliness of utensils and premises, he classed 25 first class, 79 second class, and 2 third class. He examined 24,716 cheese, of which he found the output of 64,718 lbs. He remarked in this connection that up to 1st July and after the last of August he found very little of flavored cheese, but during the two months of July and August he saw a great deal, which he attributed to the low prices of the market, which he thought were striving to make as big a yield as possible and were turning out far too soft a cheese, and the milk was also sent to the factories in a very bad condition, the patrons remarking it pays so little that it hardly pays to take the milk to the factory. This was a mistake, as under such circumstances a last season more care should have been taken in that respect. He could only recall one reason that was as bad as that in 1904, when only 6.13 per cent. of the cheese in Quebec was first class in body, the lowest percentage he remembered in eight years. In 1898 it was 6.23 per cent. first class.

A TIMELY WARNING.

He warned the makers that it was impossible to make a soft cheese that will hold its flavor under the conditions under which they received their milk last year during the months of July and August. The makers all complained of the trouble experienced during this period in finishing their curd. The great bugbear of the past season was the cry about "open cheese" and cutting in spreading. They said the "open cheese" were turned out chiefly during the two months named above. In fact, during that period the curd was so soft that it would not hold together, and it was very difficult to get it into the press. He had struck him about these goods. Usually last eight years. There was absolutely no excuse for turning out a badly finished cheese, which was simply and solely due to negligence on the part of the makers. The speaker indulged in a rather uncompromising reference to many of the makers employed in the factories, who could not expect a maker who had served only a few weeks apprenticeship with a poor maker to take charge of the factory, and that they had to have a man who had served at least a year or more for our good cheese than the cheese from a factory where a poor maker is employed, so that he had to have a man who had served at least a year or more for our good cheese than the cheese from a factory where a poor maker is employed, so that he had to have a man who had served at least a year or more for our good cheese than the cheese from a factory where a poor maker is employed.

MR. C. H. PARMELEE, M.P., President of the Quebec Dairymen's Association.

At the afternoon session Mr. Bourbeau, of the Quebec Department of Agriculture, dealt with the question of the general position of the dairy industry. Mr. Bourbeau has charge of the inspectors employed, and his remarks were on the whole very interesting. He pointed out the importance of the morning meeting.

Mr. J. H. Scott, a partner of the firm of A. J. Ayer & Co., Ltd., one of the directors of the association, reviewed the past year. Said Mr. Scott: "The experience so dearly bought should be valuable. Many mistakes were made, but our duty is to try and avoid them in the future. Our special sphere is to do all we can to develop the dairy industry of the province. There is room for a great increase. The province of Quebec is a butter producing province, and it is our duty to develop it. Look back a few years. This great province had the land and some of the best dairymen in the world. The price of the butter, when it was sold, was 10c per lb. The quality and style were fitted only for the poorest kind of trade. Our farmers were not getting the best price for their largely done by barter. What do we find now? Prosperous butter and cheese factories all over our province, the farmers improving their cattle, barns, houses, growing in wealth and intelligence, possessing far bank good credit, and their butter, cheese and cream of a better quality and more abundant. This is done by heeding the warning given you repeatedly to improve your methods, to clean up your dairies, to contact with anything objectionable about farm or surroundings. We cannot have finest butter or cheese unless we have a sound clean-up. Insist on your market showing a daily example by keeping their dairies clean and their butter, cheese and cream of a better quality and more abundant. Always have a good cover to keep off rain, dust, etc."

THE CHEESE SITUATION.

Last season we have had to complain many times of bad flavored, poor style, uneven weight, weak and poor fitting boxes; these are all importations and must be remedied if you want to keep in the race with your sister province of Ontario. On account of our advantage of climate, heat, etc., we should be leading, not following. If you try honestly, you can do it. Bad flavored butter or cheese will not sell, and you will lose, and see that in the coming year you do

"As far as the installation of a municipal lighting plant is concerned, I certainly think the council should secure a good deal of additional information before undertaking to spend such a large amount of the people's money."

Such was the statement made to The Herald to-day by Mr. C. A. Duclos, in his first announcement as Mayor of Westmount.

"Up to the present time," he added, "I have taken a neutral stand in the matter, but in my inaugural address to the new council I will recommend that the town engineer be sent to England to inspect the operation of the various municipal plants there and see to what extent such a plant could be successfully run in Westmount. It must be treated more as a business affair than as a matter of sentiment, and we must take care that our children will not have to pay for any mistake we might make."

CLAIM BETTER BRIDGES WERE CHARGED TO I.C.R.

Many Details as to Claims Presented Before Arbitration Commission.
Chief engineer J. W. Hobson, of the Grand Trunk, was the main witness at this morning's session of the Intercolonial-Grand Trunk arbitration commission. He was examined at considerable length as to whether or not the smaller bridges between Montreal and St. Roseville had been rebuilt since the agreement between the two roads went into effect, and in the rebuilding were bridges erected with provision for two tracks instead of one, as previously. The Intercolonial claimed that these improved bridges had been built, and part of the cost of the improvements improperly charged to the Government road.
Mr. Hobson stated that he was not cognizant of the details, but that his assistant, Mr. Arnold, could give the required information.

WESTMOUNT ACADEMY LEADS SCHOOL LEAGUE

Captain Cliff Smith and the hockey-ists of the Westmount Academy, advanced to first place in the senior series of the Inter-School league last evening by defeating the Crichton septette, one goal to nothing, after a closely contested match. Both teams were evenly balanced, but the forwards of the suburban hall of learning were more aggressive than their opponents. Thompson scored the winning goal for the Westmounts in the second half. The line up was as follows:—
Westmount Academy—Dryden, Willand, Bentley, Thompson, Willis, Willis and Smith.
Crichton School—Elder, Featherston-agh, Ironside, Fleet, MacPherson, Cloran and McMurtry.
Referee, Dr. Pringle.
Umpires—Messrs. G. McDonald and W. Craig.

MANITOBA'S FALSE PRETENCES.

"Fine words butter no parsnips," and it's getting so that they are not even useful to "bunco" people any longer. Nowadays you have to show something more than talk, which is very cheap, both here and in the Northwest. So far, the high pretences of amateurism in Manitoba senior hockey are only in words, and these are exposed as soon as they are demanded. When the Portage la Prairie team sent to Ottawa and engaged four men to become "bona fide residents of Portage" or "bona fide residents of the Northwest" in order to play in the league, the league to the effect that such a barefaced violation of the policy that nominally governs the clubs here could not be permitted. Two of the importations had been playing professional hockey in Pittsburgh, and that made the case stronger. If such was necessary. In spite of this fine talk the imported men played, and then there was a protest from the Winnipeg clubs. Nothing came of the protest. Portage just said "go on with this protest and we will do some protesting ourselves." That was all, and the protest proceedings were heard of no more. A little later, though, the C.A.A.U., which the Manitoba League professes to respect, placed two of the tourists in the professional class. The Manitoba League held a meeting at noon as one could be called. That was to ratify the action of the C.A.A.U., you would say; not on your life. It was to declare the professionals welcome, and to ask the C.A.A.U. to reinstate them. Quick action was what the hustling spirit of the Northwest demanded, and when the last native runner left with despatches the rush telegram of the guardians of honest sport in the Northwest had not been dispatched. But what a pull Portage must have on those other clubs!—Toronto Globe.

A GOOD SPORTSMAN GONE.
George F. Hall, one of the best known sportsmen in the country, died on Sunday at Wauaubush, from peritonitis, resulting from injuries sustained from a fall on the ice while refereeing a hockey match. In the early 80's Mr. Hall was known as one of the most enthusiastic cricketers in the country, being associated with Senator Kirchhoffer, the late Baron von Hugel, W. R. Wadsworth and others in the formation of the famous Port Hope eleven. He was one of the players selected to make up the team that played in England in 1881, when the Canadians won in a closely contested game. Mr. Hall was the second son of the late Joseph Brennan Hall, of Montreal, and a nephew of the late Senator Sidney Smith, of Cobourg, former Postmaster-General. Captain M. A. Hall, of the Toronto Battery, is a nephew of deceased.

A GOOD ANNUAL.
The Police Gazette Sporting Annual for 1905 has just been issued, and this year it is better and handsomer than ever. It fairly bristles with facts and contains records of baseball, bicycling, trotting, jumping, football, racing, aquatics, and all athletic sports. The main feature of the book, however, is the pugilistic records, and many pages are devoted to that popular branch of sport. The little volume is made doubly attractive by its high-class illustrations and photos of all the champions. It is authentic and reliable, and stands today an authority on the subjects upon which it treats. It is published by Richard K. Fox, Franklin Square, New York City.

STOCKS AND MONEY.

Stocks Much Stronger To-Day With Advance in "Soo" a Feature

The Unlisted Securities Are Now Coming to the Front.

Stocks were stronger to-day. The continued quiet in Russia seems to have cheered the street up a bit.

Wall Street stocks opened firm, and then showed gains of from 1-4 to 3-12 points throughout the list.

Rumors of a further movement to bring about a suspension of hostilities between Japan and Russia seem to have made some impression upon the market, although the stock exchanges are usually a little previous with rumors of this character.

Just at the moment the markets are still largely of professional character, and the public is right out of it.

In Montreal we are having a somewhat unusual experience. Our regular stocks in both active and passive are the proverbial door-nail, while there is almost a land-office business being done in our "curb" or unlisted stocks.

Perhaps the most active of the group is Mexican Power, with Havana Electric running a close second. There is also said to be a good deal going in Electric Development.

No particular explanation is forthcoming in regard to the increased life being shown by these securities, except that the low price of some is making them attractive.

As an evidence of the somewhat better feeling existing in the European markets, Government bonds were either firmer or higher.

The commodity markets to-day were somewhat more interesting. Wheat sold over the $1.16 mark for May.

Money in New York. Call money in New York to-day loaned at 2 per cent.

Northern Securities. Northern Securities opened in New York at 14 1/2 and at 12.30 were quoted at 14 1/2.

Reports of steps to end Russian-Japanese war came from good sources. London settlement managers fall to agree on settlement of grain rate war.

Consols firm at 88 1/2, a further advance of 1/2 per cent. Reports of steps to end Russian-Japanese war came from good sources.

Street Gossip.

Munroe & Munroe and Ownership of Dominion Mines

A Boston wire says: "The failure of Munroe & Munroe the fiscal agents in New York for the syndicate which underwrote 700,000 shares of stock of the Montreal & Boston Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co., at $1 per share, has not directly involved that company.

The Dominion properties of the Montreal & Boston group are valuable and there has been a steady rise in the price of the stock of the company.

Mr. Alex. Munroe on the Recent Charge. "The statement that the Montreal and Boston Copper Company has not carried out its obligations regarding the Dominion Mine and does not own the property is incorrect."

Throughout the New England and Middle Atlantic States reports indicate a complete winter tie-up.

MANY DEATHS FROM TYPHOID FEVER

Winnipeg Scourged With Epidemic—Disease Puzzles Medical Experts.

Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 26.—(Special).—For the past six months an epidemic of typhoid fever has puzzled the medical fraternity of this city, and to such an extent has the disease developed during the past few weeks that it was found necessary to wire to Chicago and New York for bacteriological experts to determine the cause of the outbreak. Though there have been hundreds of cases since September it seems only to have become alarming in its results during the past few weeks, and it is a table showing the number of deaths from this disease which have occurred in the principal cities in the United States and arrives at the following typhoid fever death rate per 100,000 of population: Winnipeg, 306; Washington, 78; Duluth, 43; Minneapolis, 41; St. Louis, 33; St. Paul, 22; New York, 17, and Newark, N.J., 10. The epidemic is not of the ordinary typhoid type, but more resembles the old Red River fever, which was the terror of the historic valley in the pioneer days, when countless herds of buffalo swarmed the plains and the settlers were beset with the murderous Indians and the lawless whites. In those days it was supposed that the water was accountable for the fever, but at the present time Winnipeg gets her water from an artesian well, the water from which analysts pronounce to be the purest in the world. It has been suggested that the open manholes to the sewers is the real cause on account of the foul stench which arises from them. These sewers have been flushed daily but still the awful odor fills the air and the typhoid continues.

Music and the Drama

The sale of seats for the much-vaunted Schubert-Brass revival of that tuneful old masterpiece, "Wang," with our old friend De Wolf Hopper in the title role began this morning at His Majesty's Theatre, where Mr. Hopper and his company of seventy artists will be seen next week. Mr. Hopper in the present revival of "Wang" comes to us with a record of three months at the Messrs. Schubert's fashionable Lyric Theatre in New York.

"Mrs. Mac, the Mayor," a new musical comedy-drama, in which George Munro is essaying a much more pretentious offering than any of his previous farces, will be seen at the Academy next week. Among the supporting company are Miss Follotte Gavigne, a well known dramatic soprano, Miss Florence Clements, vocalist and novelty dancer; Miss Neva Harrison, the Misses Howe, Jack Boone, and Al. Farrington. The Chameleon engagement at the made by that theatre, will terminate on Saturday, which is the most important drawing card. Next week's attraction will be Miss Clover's Burlesquers, who in the course of their first burlesque will introduce the pantomime "The Same Old Game." Harry M. Stewart, Eddie Barto, and Mamie Cafferty, dan-

CHAPTER XXI. Back to Memphis. The valley in which Thebes Diopolis was situated was wide, and the overflow of the Nile did not reach the arable uplands near the Arabian hills, which is announced as the next attraction at the Theatre Royal, next week, Dus Roamer, a detective disguised as a talking machine agent, visits the factory of Peters & Son, and leaves a Columbia Graphophone in the office on trial. A plot is concocted to kill the uncle of a young girl and fasten the crime upon his niece. The conversation of the kind ever exhibited by the machine exactly as it occurred, and when fate is against the poor girl and every hope gone, the detective brings the graphophone to court and offers it in evidence. It is one of the most realistic and startling stage pictures before the public.

The moving pictures of the New York Biograph Company have been secured for next week at Windsor Hall, and judging from criticisms will prove the best of the kind ever exhibited here. One of the most important scenes is the series of views depicting the terrible General Slocum disaster, the burning of the ill-fated excursion steamer at New York in which hundreds of lives were lost. They are actual photographs of incidents connected with this terrible accident, and give the audience a vivid impression of the scenes attendant upon it. A number of beautifully illustrated songs are an additional feature, the singer being the noted baritone, Frank E. Velt, who has just completed an extended engagement in the Keith theatres.

Mr. Francis Archambault, formerly of Montreal, will bring here on February 10th, with Mme. Blauvelt, in the Windsor Hall, The St. Louis (Mo.), Republic, said after one of his concerts here: "The appearance of Francis Archambault was sensational. His success would be the envy of a singer twice his years. If nothing happens, it is readily conceivable that he will soon be known as one of the greatest baritone of the world." The subscription list is now open at Shaw's.

Male quartette singing in its highest state of perfection will be heard here on February 8th, in the Windsor Hall when the Meister Singers will again give the public a chance to hear glee, a branch of composition in which composers of England have particularly excelled of the very highest order of excellence, rendered by a quartet of voices which are unsurpassed in this style of singing. Exceptional opportunities of hearing this concert are offered in as much as the concert is contingent only on his ability to leave his Parliamentary duties.

The demand for seats for the Yaeze concert has been so great that it has been practically determined to utilize the chorus platform upon the stage, which will add several score of seats to the capacity of the theatre. A souvenir postcard for this event, which is of great beauty. The concert takes place on Tuesday, and the presence of Lady Laurier is assured. Sir Wilfrid is contingent only on his ability to leave his Parliamentary duties.

Why An Emulsion?

Because an emulsion (Scott's) of cod liver oil is agreeable to the taste, while the plain oil is repulsive. Because Scott's Emulsion is easily digested, while the plain oil is not. Because Scott's Emulsion enters the system quickly and without effort, while the plain oil is a burden and a tax on the stomach. Because Scott's Emulsion remains sweet after entering the system, while the plain oil is likely to ferment because of its slow action. Because contains not only the best of the pure oil but other valuable properties, while the plain oil offers nothing but the crude properties of the raw oil. Because Scott's Emulsion is always the same in purity, strength and composition, while the plain oil is apt to vary in all three of these particulars. Because Scott's Emulsion is a hundred times more beneficial and desirable than any plain oil could be.

WANDERERS HAVE BRIGHT PROSPECTS

If They Can Beat Brockville Stanley Cup Will Be Within Reach.

The Wanderers will take their strongest team to Brockville, Saturday, to play the boys who defeated the Ottawa Wanderers last night. If the Wanderers win, they will have an excellent chance to land the league championship and the Stanley Cup, which accompanies that event, Stanley Cup games will be played at the Arena for a season or two.

Ottawa have beaten Wanderers in the Capital, but have been beaten in Brockville. The Wanderers lost in Ottawa, but are not likely to lose any home games, even to the Ottawa. If they beat Brockville Saturday they will have plain sailing, though they are talking in "Columbia" of about what they are going to do to Dicky Boon's Braves.

WANDERERS AT PRACTICE.

The defeat of the hitherto invincible Ottawa in Brockville Monday night has served to arouse great interest as to the Federal League. It looks as if a three-cornered race for the championship, and the famous Stanley cup will be in order. With a determination to defeat the Brockville club, the Wanderers go to the Island City on Saturday. If the Wanderers win they will step up to first place in the league, but if the team loses, the chances of landing first place will not be bright. The match is sure to be an exciting one, as both teams are equally confident of victory. A win for Brockville will give them a good shot on the silver-ware, which now rests at Ottawa. The Wanderers' team will be strong, and all the players are in good condition.

Last night they put in a good hour's work at the Arena. The pace was fast and all the men showed up admirably. Those in uniform included Baker, W. Strachan, Boon, Kennedy, Glass, Bert Strachan, Geraw, Leblanc, Beck, Osborne, Erskine, and others. Percy Roberts coached the men.

DAWSON'S FIRST VICTORY.

Halifax, N.S., Jan. 26.—(Special.)—The Dawson hockeyists had a "cinch" with the All-Halifax team in the Empire rink last night, winning the match by a score of eleven goals to two. It was a poor exhibition of hockey compared with the game of the previous night. The home team displayed but little life throughout the game, and seemed to have a tired feeling and not to care whether they won or lost. The visitors played a lively game and appeared enthusiastic at the prospect of winning the first victory of their tour.

In the first half Dawson scored three goals and in the second they added eight more. The home team scored their goals in the second half. There was only one change in the Dawson team. Hannay came from cover point to centre in place of Smith, and Johnson played at cover.

BANK LEAGUE HOCKEY.

The Bank of Toronto encountered the Sovereign Bank in their first game in Series B of the Bankers' League at the Arena, and came out victorious by a score of 4 to 2. The game was not of a very fast nature, the Bank of Toronto having things practically in their own hands. For the Sovereign they played Arthur Ross, captain of the team, and they were supported by M. Nevee, of the Union Bank, was referee.

ROSS WILL REFEREE * BROCKVILLE-WANDERERS' MATCH SATURDAY. * Arthur Ross, captain of the Westmounts, will referee the match between Wanderers and Brockville, Saturday night.

Brockville rang up Tom Hodge over the long-distance phone last night inquiring anxiously if there was any truth in the report that the Wanderers were going to desert the F.A.H.L. and seek admission to the C.H.L. When informed that the Wanderers were in the F.A.H.L. for keeps. Incidentally an agreement was reached that Arthur Ross should referee Saturday night's contest.

That Ross is in such demand proves that he is a competent official, despite the knocks handed out to him in certain quarters.

A GREAT BATTLE AT ARENA TO-NIGHT

Changes in the Westmount Team—Russell Bowie Will Referee.

Frank Patrick, looking the picture of health and ready for action, arrived in the city to-day from Stanstead, where he has been studying and will figure on the Westmount team when they collide with the Montreal this evening. "Nugget" Brophy, who has been playing hockey before the nets for the Montreal II, will guard the "vital" spot for the West-Enders. Brophy's departure from the Montreal team has occasioned much talk, but the winged wheel chasers have no kick coming. Every young hockeyist wants to play senior and Brophy was no exception to the rule. Rupert Darling, having been doing good work but cannot devote as much time as he would like to the game and had no hesitation in signifying his intention of retiring in favor of Brophy. The latter is "corker" and can be relied upon to do his share in to-night's big match. Lester Patrick will be at cover. He has recovered from his recent illness and is in tip top shape for the hard contest which is certain to ensue. Bryce Pennell will again perform at point. Arthur Ross will be rover. Tommie Church, centre, Patrick, right wing and Collu Fouis, left. George Gale will act as first spare. Trainer Tom Betts, says that all the Westmounts are physically fit for strenuous hours work.

"Just wait till you see them." That was what Manager Potter had to say in connection with the Montreal defeat of the Brockville club. He expects to down their ambitious opponents. Waugh, who made such a favorable impression at New York which he called "Corker" and Billy Meldrum will be in front of him. Doc Cameron will oppose Lester Patrick and the forward line will consist of Russell Bowie, Hamilton and Coulson.

Russell Bowie has been agreed upon as referee. His assistant may be Blair Russell. The line up will be: Westmount, Goal, Waugh; Pencil, Point, Meldrum; L. Patrick, Cover, Dr. Cameron; Ross, Forward, H. Monahan; C. Gurnham, Forward, P. Choquette; C. Robinson, Forward, A. Langevin; Umpires, J. Lemire and C. Potter.

FUN AT VALLEYFIELD.

Valleyfield, Jan. 26.—(Special.)—The Montreal Cotton Company's office staff hockey team tried conclusions with the city club's team in the Y.M.C.A. rink Tuesday evening. The teams faced referee D. McBride at 7:30 and lined up as follows: M.C.C. Goal, A. Cossette; H. McVicker, Point, Wallace Cote; A. Clark, Cover, M. Shannon; C. Price, Forward, M. Lalonde; R. Chadwick, Forward, H. Monahan; C. Gurnham, Forward, P. Choquette; C. Robinson, Forward, A. Langevin; Umpires, J. Lemire and C. Potter.

HIRADALS ARE CHESTY.

The Herald hockey team will make its second appearance in public Saturday night at the Prince Arthur rink where they will cross sticks with the puck chasers from the Star. Of course, the Heraldists will see Geo. Watson and his buddies are to sweep the Star hockeyists off their feet. The Herald has a number of good players, including John C. H. Clarke, 2, one time played centre for the Dublin champions. Club candidates for positions on the Herald team include Mike Keeny, Turkey Bellingham, Lester Patrick, Russell Bowie, Arthur Ross, Blair Russell and Ernie Russell. The game will be held at the rink, 4 to 7. The referee will be picked from McNeil, Woodward, Coody, Watson, Grant, Gillette, Playfair, and Callaghan. The game will be agreed upon to 6:30.

OUTREMONTS WON.

In a Metropolitan Hockey League match played at the Central rink last evening, the Outremonts defeated the Alerts by 4 to 2. Incomplete refereeing was responsible for considerable roughness.

EMPIRES BEAT HUNTINGDON.

Valleyfield, Jan. 26.—(Special.)—In a Quebec South Western Hockey League match here last night, Huntingdon was defeated by the Empires, of Valleyfield, by a score of 2 to 1.

SHAMROCK'S GOOD PRACTICE.

All the senior Shamrocks except Johnny Brennan practised at the Arena last evening. Emmet Quinn and Pat Rooney hurried to the rink to see the practice. Brennan showed up particularly well. He is rounding in condition and will require little time to get back into the game. Brennan will bring up a strong septette but the Shamrocks hope to defeat them. Those who took part in last night's practice included Mike Keeny, Fred Gurnham, Walter Cummings, Ross, George Cummings, Joe Murphy, Pete Brennan, Lowe, J. Brennan, Jack Granary, Kelly and others.

SKATERS ARE ARRIVING HERE

The skaters are already arriving in the city for the championship races which are to take place at the M.A.A.A. rink on Feb. 14. The meeting has been arranged by the Amateur Skating Association of Canada, which is offering valuable awards. The races will be run off in the quick, businesslike way that has been so characteristic of them in the past and the crowd will not experience a dull moment all afternoon. Three gentlemen, Messrs. Lord and Lady Grey, accompanied by Evelyn and Lady Sybil, visited the Montreal Curling Club yesterday and expressed pleasure at the nature of the reception accorded them. The original by-laws of the club, dated 1807, which were shown him, delighted the curlers by signing his name in the old original minute book and in the visitors' register.

The match is now being promoted and in every artifice employed in mat work and when they meet there will be something doing every minute.

WRESTLING AT VALLEYFIELD.

Valleyfield, Jan. 26.—(Special.)—A wrestling contest for the championship of Valleyfield, took place last night in the Salisbury Hall between O. Dumouchel and D. Monarch. The bout lasted about one hour. Dumouchel got the best of the first two periods, but was defeated by a score of 10 to 8.

SPORTING NOTES

The first official tramp will be held on Saturday next. Miss Florie Carr, of South Brabant, Australia, swam 100 yards against competitors in 1 min. 19 2/3 secs. This is believed to constitute the world's record for a lady.

NATIONALS' POOR SUPPORT.

It was little wonder that the Nationals had to retire from the C. A. H. L. They were losing money every week. The receipts of the Westmount-National match were $44.80, and the expenses were $65.00.

F.A.H.L. WILL NOT BE WRECKED

Its Present Members Will Not Alter Their Allegiance.

The Wanderers are much incensed at the report which appeared in a contemporary to the effect that they were seeking admission to the C.H.L. and would try if they could obtain admission to this league, wreck the F.A.H.L. "There is absolutely no truth in the statement," said President Jas. Strachan, of the Wanderers, to The Herald last night, and Secretary-Treasurer Tom Hodge echoed the sentiment.

"We will not desert the F.A.H.L. under any conditions. Our league is compact and well-balanced, and we have had a good season so far, and look forward to it being a banner winter for every club in the F.A.H.L." The Nationals sent official notification to President McBride, of the C.A.H.L., last night, that they would be unable to finish out the season, and President McBride immediately notified the other clubs that a meeting of the league would be held January 31, to decide what should be done in the matter. It is likely that the Nationals will re-transfer their franchise with a view to putting a team on the ice next winter. A re-arrangement of the schedule will probably be made, as the defection of the Nationals will give the other clubs a chance to select better paying dates.

THE OTTAWAS' ATTITUDE.

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 26.—(Special.)—"We've simply not discussed the matter of re-entering the C.A.H.L.," said J. P. Shillingford, Ontario Hockey Club, this morning, when approached in regard to a Montreal rumor to that effect. "We've not discussed it, good had or different. In the Federal body we've had good hockey, a good time, good gates and what more do we want?"

BROPHY FOR WESTMOUNT.

Brophy, who played for Montreal II, but who is slated to play goal for Westmount, seniors against Montreal to-night, is a Westmount boy, and two years ago he was vice-president of the Westmount Amateur Hockey Association. It was quite justifiable of him to leave intermediate for senior company, especially when he was merely returning to his own club.

A THEATRICAL MATCH.

There was a red-hot match at the Ontario Rink last night between teams representing the attaches of the Royal and Francis Theatres, the Cote d'Azur, proving successful, and downing the uptown theatre by a score of three goals to one. The Royal team were: goal, Martin; point, Walsh; cover point, Morgan; forward, Daly. O. McElreath, W. McElreath and Mor-

LOYOLA'S WINNING STREAK.

In a match last evening the Loyola College hockey team defeated that of the Y. M. C. A. by 5 goals to 0. The winning team played fine hockey. It consisted of Doughney, goal; Armstrong, forward; cover point, Powers; Shee, Hamilton and McNichol, forwards. The Loyolas had the match well in hand from the start. They have not been defeated this season.

STORMONT JUNIOR LEAGUE.

Corwall, Jan. 26.—A junior hockey league was formed here last night, consisting of the Millie Roches, Newington and Cornwall II, teams. The delegates present were: J. A. H. Deegan, J. A. Hunter, Millie Roches, J. Manson and J. A. Ross; Newington, R. E. Iron-bough. The schedule was arranged for the following dates:

Jan. 31—Cornwall at Newington. Feb. 8—Millie Roches at Newington. Feb. 15—Newington at Cornwall. Feb. 22—Cornwall at Millie Roches. Feb. 29—Newington at Millie Roches.

CURLING

CALEDONIA CLUB COMPETITION. The competition for the Caledonia Freeling trophy for the championship of Valleyfield, took place last night in the Salisbury Hall between O. Dumouchel and D. Monarch. The bout lasted about one hour. Dumouchel got the best of the first two periods, but was defeated by a score of 10 to 8.

AT THE HEATHER CLUB.

The Heather Club competition was concluded on the club rink last night, when Skip A. N. Stewart beat Skip Jas. Ballie 16-7. The rinks were: A. McKillop, G. Dawson, W. Rutherford, D. Beattie, A. N. Stewart, Jas. Ballie.

AT ST. LAWRENCE RINK.

Two more rinks competed in the President's Prize competition at the St. Lawrence rink last night and after a close and interesting game Skip Jno. Johnson beat Skip J. C. Drysdale 15-9. The rinks were: J. D. Henderson, J. W. Griffin, W. H. Henderson, J. W. Griffin, J. C. Drysdale.

DRAWN FOR THE TROPHIES.

The draw for the second round of the Governor-General's and the Jubilee trophy took place at the Thistle rink last night and resulted as follows: Pakenham vs. Arsprion on Thistle ice. Quebec vs. Ottawa on Caledonia ice. Ormstown vs. Jubilee Trophy. Renfrew vs. Montreal on Caledonia ice. St. Lawrence vs. Ottawa on Montreal ice. Quebec vs. Pembroke on Thistle ice. Ormstown vs. A-by.

MONTREAL CLUB COMPETITION.

The doubles in the competition for the Montreal Vice-president's prize were continued last night, with the following results: J. H. Farwell vs. G. F. Butters-12. Mr. Alfred E. Marling, senior member of the well known firm of Horace S. Ely & Co., real estate brokers, New York, is a guest at the Windsor, accompanied by Mrs. Marling.

GENERAL TREPPOFF TRIES HIS HAND AT STRIKE BREAKING

Proclamation Issued Inviting Workmen to Return to Work and Promising Them Shorter Hours of Labor.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 26.—Governor-General Treppoff and Minister of Finance Kokovoff issued a proclamation last night which reveals the Government's plan for breaking the strike not only here but throughout Russia. The proclamation is couched in a paternal tone and points out that honest workmen, who want to better their condition, should have brought their demands to the Government instead of being misled by agitators into affiliating with a movement which is not confined to economic aspirations. It invites the men to return to work, promising them, in the Emperor's name, a revision of the general law, so as to restrict the hours of labor, and the issue of a plan for state insurance, and otherwise to meet their demands as far as the law will permit, and guarantee them protection against interference by agitators. This document will be followed either by an Imperial manifesto along the same lines, in the hope of averting the spread of the strike, or by a specific proclamation by the local authorities wherever strikes are in progress. By promising to yield the question of hours of labor, which are now legally eleven in Russia, the authorities believe they will meet the main grievances of the workmen. This, together with the guarantee of protection, the authorities hope, will induce those strikers who are indifferent to political demands, and which class they declare constitute the great bulk of the men, to resume work.

Some foreign correspondents who have been indulging in the wildest exaggeration of the situation in anticipation of arrest are trying to arrange for the embassies of their respective countries to make prompt representations in their behalf. The strikers seem still to be without definite plans for the future. It is said that a demonstration has been decided upon for to-morrow on the occasion of the funerals of several of the more prominent victims, but this is denied. For the moment the strikers appear to be content to remain quiet.

All the outgoing trains are filled with people going abroad, mostly foreigners. The stories of the illness of the Emperor and the Empress are officially denied. The correspondent of the Associated Press yesterday conversed with a member of the court who saw the Emperor walking in the garden at Tsarskoe-Selo yesterday morning.

CRISIS AT MOSCOW.
St. Petersburg, Jan. 26.—Though the strikes have been spreading to various towns, the situation last night, while disquieting, was not acute anywhere. The great demonstration, with an accompaniment of bloodshed, which was anticipated at Moscow yesterday, did not occur, and the strike in the ancient capital has not spread rapidly. Only about 20,000 workmen being out, according to latest reports. Cossacks charged and dispersed a crowd of 3,000 workmen, and reports were circulated in St. Petersburg that many were killed, but advice direct from Moscow at midnight deny this, the best information being only a few blank volleys were fired. The Moscow military have received orders to avoid a repetition of Sunday's tragedy here, and not use ball cartridges unless they are driven to do so by the direst necessity.

AN AMAZING ADDRESS WHICH HAS INFLUENCED THE CZAR

A St. Petersburg correspondent of the London Daily Mail sent the following despatch to that paper recently. In view of what has since occurred the despatch is very significant:
The confusion and uncertainty which reigned here in official spheres after the assassination of Von Plehve are again prevailing. I am told by a very high authority that Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky has already left the field, and that his place will be taken by Prince Obolensky, the Governor-General of Finland.
Prince Obolensky is a man of the Plehve stamp, and has become a great favorite with the Czar since he made himself notorious by his barbarities in the riots of 1902, when many of the peasants were flogged to death, and their women violated by death, and I mention this that you may see what kind of an era we are entering upon again.
The great Liberal upheaval has now quieted down, having effected all it can do under present circumstances; but, of course, it is impossible to say how long this will last. There is, however, one uncertain factor in the situation, and that is the role to be played by M. Witte. If Obolensky refuses to accept the post which may have happened because of last year's attempt on his life—Witte may reach his ultimate goal, and become the Dictator of Russia. It is impossible to foresee what his actions would be because of his duplicity.
I am sending you the address presented to the Czar. His Majesty is understood to have been much impressed by it.
"Most Merciful Sovereign!
Our Lord and God, Jesus Christ, has confided unto thee the sacred mission of erecting the Orthodox Cross in the Far East, among races which believe in idols, and not in the true God, and therefore do not reflect the Divine Image, but bear a resemblance to the impure race of monkeys.
"Certainly it is not an easy mission—that of carrying the Cross to those regions—and still easier is that of its erection among the enemies of the Faith. However, the heavy burden was supported not only by our Lord and God, Jesus Christ, but also by his Apostles, and by the Czars, thine ancestors.

"The hour of victory is approaching; by thy sovereign will have hundreds of thousands of the sons of the Orthodox Church, who are sincerely devoted to thee, been sent to the defence of Fatherland, and of Orthodoxy, and to it daily and hourly are eagerly hurrying innumerable legions of thy faithful subjects. And yet it is in these moments that thy servants, Oh Czar, and that thy nobles have dared to trouble thy sacred and veritably Orthodox soul by most insane intrigues to cefebrate thine autocratic power and to lead to etats-generaux.
"All these intrigues arise because thine enemies foresee—and therefore bear manifest envy towards thee—that to thee has fallen the happy and historic mission of establishing the Orthodox Faith in the Far East.
"Thou hast thee, as an autocrat, and as the anointed of God to act according to thine intelligence and the desire of thy heart; thou hast the right of life and death over thy faithful subjects; thou hast the right to show thy favor and also thy wrath to whom thou wilt; thou hast the right to give to Russia and for the destruction of thine enemies. But, Oh our Czar, thou hast not the right to violate that sacred oath which thou gavest before our Lord and God to keep the promises of thine ancestors, to preserve the autocracy, and thine Orthodox Faith, which is intimately allied to it.
"Forget not, Oh Czar, that thou art the anointed of God. Remember how brilliantly thine august visage shone in the Cathedral of Assumption, when thou didst pronounce thy sacred promises to our Lord and God, to be faithfully kept while thou shouldst bear thy crown, thy sceptre, and all the emblems of thy power, which have been bestowed upon thee firstly by thine ancestors, and then by the whole Orthodox race.
"Heed not the counsels of thine intimates; break not thine oath. Remember, Oh autocrat, if thou dost violate thine oath, all thy counselors will likewise begin to violate it, and then the whole prestige of Church and State, and of the Holy Synod, and of all thy sacred hierarchies, the very Faith of the Orthodox will be shattered, and the heathen will triumph!
(Signed), "POBEDONOSTZEFF."

GERMANY WANTS SURTAX REMOVED

Ottawa, Jan. 26.—(Special.)—It is understood the German Government is still pressing for negotiations respecting the surtax. Representations have been made to the Imperial authorities that it would be well to have a commission meet to arrive at some sort of an amicable understanding. It is not likely a commission will have this matter to deal with immediately, as the Canadian authorities feel that Germany has the remedy in its own hands. The surtax was imposed against countries which gave Canada unfriendly tariff treatment. When the Dominion granted Great Britain the preference, Germany removed Canada from the favored nation list, and placed her on the maximum tariff list.
All that Germany now has to do is to replace Canada on the favored nation list, and the surtax, as far as Germany is concerned, becomes a dead letter.

It is understood that an intimation of this sort has been conveyed to Germany through the Colonial Office. BETTER PACKING OF APPLES.
Ottawa, January 26.—Notice has been given by the Minister of Agriculture that he will propose a resolution that a law should be passed providing that Canadian apples when packed in boxes for export shall be placed in strong boxes of seasoned wood. The inside dimensions of the boxes are to be ten inches in depth, eleven inches width, and twenty inches length. A penalty of five cents a box is provided for violations.
MONTREAL BAR BANQUET.
The Code Napoleon Will be One of the Toasts.
The centenary of the Code Napoleon will be celebrated by the Montreal bar at their banquet on Saturday night the 25th inst. The toast to this ar reaching legal code, which has influenced many people and nationalities not only in France but on the American continent, will be proposed by Messrs. Lacoste and Messrs. Atwater and Beaulac. The toast will be responded to by the Consul of France, Mr. Kleczowski and a member of the Louisiana bar. In this connection it may not be amiss to mention that the Code Napoleon is recognized at the Louisiana bar as at few places in the civilized world.
"Our guests" will be replied to by the President of the Bankers' Association, Le President de La Chambre de Commerce et representatives from the American and New York Bar Associations.
The dinner will commence at 7 o'clock sharp at the Place Viger Hotel on Saturday next.

TO SAVE HORSES FROM SLIPPING.

If one is caught in wet or frosty weather with a smooth-shod horse on asphalt he may feel with a few bars of wire, says the Utica Observer, that he has saved the horse's life.
Lay the middle of the wire across the toe between the shoe and coronet; pass both ends under the shoe, cross them; then between shoe (at heel) and heels; then under foot, cross again on a different spot, and over toe. Repeat this for five or six times, and your animal is fairly well roughshod and will get along with ease for a long distance. Even the finest wire will answer, although something extra well tempered, like piano wire, is the best. This arrangement beats all the patent sandals, etc., made for the purpose, is inexpensive and can be instantly applied by any one.
