

RECOGNITION OF NATAL'S LOYALTY

LORD MILNER INDICATES IT IS APPRECIATED.

Inquiry Into Military Blunders in South Africa--An Important Cabinet Meeting--Speculation as to Severer War Measures.

(Special to the Star). NEW YORK, October 28.—The London correspondent of the Tribune cables: Lord Milner's speech at Pietermaritzburg is regarded as a useful supplement to that of Mr. Chamberlain at Edinburgh. Conservative papers admit that, in the past, loyalty has not been encouraged in Natal. Whenever the interests of the colony clashed with those of the Cape, the smaller colony was usually overlooked. Probably this was owing to the old rule that the occupant of the post of High Commissioner should also be Governor of the Cape. It was, no doubt, with reference to the grudging recognition paid previously to Natal's claims that Lord Milner said he could not think of the common remark that loyalty did not pay.

OFFICIAL ENQUIRIES. Nothing has been heard for some time of the promise made by the Government to institute an enquiry into the military operations in South Africa, particularly in reference to the Modder River and Natal campaigns. The promise was exacted at the time when untoward events at the seat of war were stirring up popular feeling in England, but as the cause which led to the demand have, to a large extent, passed into the background, the desire for an official enquiry has waned considerably. The recent revelations in the Buller controversy have awakened recollections of the promise and the matter will be raised as soon as Parliament meets. The Government will be asked to include in the scope of the enquiry the allegations which have been, and are being, made against certain officers in respect of their conduct towards the troops under them.

SEVERE WAR MEASURES. Today's Cabinet council will have peculiar significance in view of Mr. Chamberlain's threat to adopt severer measures against Cape Colony rebels and the Boer guerrilla bands. It is more than probable that the Colonial Secretary's proposals in regard to the war will be adopted by his fellow Ministers, and also that people are wondering what the severer measures are likely to be. Many members, Conservative as well as Liberal, imagine that the treatment of the captured rebels is just now drastic enough, and that a more thorough policy would not be altogether advisable. The Government, however, are well aware that the King is treated with anxious care to bring hostilities to a close before coronation day, and it is certain that the Cabinet will approve of any scheme proposed by Mr. Chamberlain which Lord Milner's advice may be considered likely to hasten the conclusion of the war, even if it should mean capital punishment for every rebel captured in arms.

CHAMBERLAIN'S SPEECH

Something Said About the Spirit Which Animated the Secretary for the Colonies.

LONDON, October 28.—Mr. Chamberlain was virtually on the defensive at Edinburgh, although he covered his tactics by furious onslaughts upon the Irish, Liberal Imperialists and the pro-Boer Radicals. When he had finished little had been added to the stock of current information. The war must go on to the bitter end, as every political fatalist already knew, even if South Africa were deductive of one military reputation after another. There was a note of hardness in the grim reminder that Pitt was forced to use up several generals before he discovered Wolfe; but there was an inflexible determination in the announcement that sterner measures would be employed, and that the time for concession to an obstinate foe had passed. Little light was thrown upon the domestic policy. The rules of the House of Commons would be revised as a safeguard against Irish obstruction, and redistribution of seats would be effected when the Government, with an overwhelming majority, and a fresh lease of power, was ready to dissolve Parliament. Mr. Chamberlain's remarks in denouncing the conduct and pro-Boer sympathy of the Irish will probably be helpful to Mr. Redmond in his own country, but otherwise the speech is not reassuring to the country, although more or less exhorting as evidence that Mr. Chamberlain has not lost his aggressiveness and fighting form.

FURIOUS GERMAN PRESS

Chamberlain's Edinburgh Speech Enrages the Berlin Journals.

(Special to the Star). LONDON, October 28.—Mr. Chamberlain's speech in Edinburgh on Friday evening, says the Berlin correspondent of the Times, has evoked a perfect storm of indignation upon the part of the German press. The Neueste Nachrichten, says Chamberlain, ought long ago to have withdrawn into private life. It refers to the "dark machinations of Rhodes and his confederates, in which Chamberlain joined, with the object of destroying the South African Republic." The National Zeitung says Great Britain treats the Boers, who are still in a military sense, masters of the country, as though they were assassins. The Tagblatt talks of "latter-day Kitchener" and of the "barbarous herding of defenceless women and children in the shambles of the English concentration camps."

Court-martialed and Shot. LONDON, October 28.—The South African mail brings news that several Boers, who were captured wearing khaki uniforms, were court-martialed and shot. It seems that Commandant Theron crossed the Towe River Station, September 28.

CZOLGOSZ'S LAST DAY ON EARTH

PREPARATIONS FOR HIS EXECUTION AT AUBURN.

He Remains Unconcerned and Refuses to Talk--He Eats Well--Extra Guards Employed--Precautions Taken.

AUBURN, N. Y., October 28.—The officials of Auburn prison this morning commenced the general preparations for the execution of Leon F. Czolgosz. Warden J. Warren Mead conferred with Electrician E. F. Davis and the keepers and guards who are to assist in the execution, and many features of the final programme were carefully reviewed. Warden Mead has selected his assistants from the guards who have had the widest experience in such affairs, and those chosen to conduct Czolgosz to the chair and fasten and prepare the assassin for his doom are experts.

Today there is not a single indication that does not point to the assassin going to the chair in a calm and untroubled manner as his 35 predecessors in the State. Curiously enough, the man's attitude is absolutely unchanged from what it was when he was arrested and sentenced. He is not anxious to see anybody and refuses to talk except in monosyllables. Czolgosz is eating well and is in good physical condition. He shows no apparent signs of changing his method and no apparent desire to postpone the death penalty.

To-night at 6 o'clock, after the death warrant is read, there will be an extra guard placed in the cell with Czolgosz, and this precaution is taken to prevent any possibility of the prisoner dashing himself against the stone floor. The portion of the condemned cell in which the four condemned men besides Czolgosz are confined has been partitioned off by an iron screen. In the first cell beyond this partition is Fred Kratz, the Waverly murderer, who is to be executed about this time next week, and who despite this screen, will be able to hear Czolgosz go to the death that he himself will meet in a short time.

Extra guards kept watch during the night at the iron gates of the prison and they will be maintained until after the execution tomorrow morning. These guards were doubled merely as a precautionary measure, and not because there is reason to believe the extra men will be needed. The police of the city are co-operating with the prison officials, and keep a close watch on all trains entering the city. They, too, feel that there is a remote possibility of an act of violence upon the part of some crank imbued with a wild plan of either aiding or injuring the prisoner, and they hope to prevent anything of the kind. Guards and police keep a close watch on State street, upon which the main entrance and prison wall front. The prison was perfectly quiet today and at no time were there any loiterers anywhere in its vicinity.

HIS FATHER'S MESSAGE.

CLEVELAND, October 28.—In an interview yesterday afternoon, the elder Czolgosz was asked what he had to say finally for his unfortunate son. The old man's eyes filled with tears as he replied: "Tell Leon that I hope that he may rest in peace; that he will become reconciled to God and will meet his end bravely. Tell him that as much as I and all of our family regret his most unhappy plight that we can do nothing to interfere. That he alone is responsible for his unfortunate position, and that he must meet his punishment as a consequence."

GERMANS AND BOERS.

A Story as to the Empress Interest in Boer Cause--The Women Are Sympathetic.

(Special to the Star). LONDON, October 28.—The Berlin correspondent of the Morning Post tells an anecdote from the Frankfurt Gazette to the effect that while Emperor William and Hon. Dr. von Siemens were luncheon together yesterday, the King of Wurtemberg being present, the conversation turned to the Transvaal, and the Emperor observed that he was at a loss to understand the enthusiasm all over Germany in behalf of the Boers and asked what the reason was. Dr. von Siemens replied that the reason was simple: the enthusiasm was so intense because the women and children were for the Boers. That was the case with his own family and it probably was the same every where. The Emperor smiled, and Dr. von Siemens on the knee and said: "You are right, Siemens. It's the case in my family also, the enthusiasm for the Boers emanates from our wives. Like the rest, mine can scarcely wait every morning for the newspaper bringing news of Boer victories in South Africa."

MANY BOERS CAPTURED.

Two Hundred and Fifty of Kemp's Commando Made Prisoners. (Special to the Star). LONDON, October 28.—Telegrams announce that 250 Boers belonging to Kemp's commando, have been captured south-west of Rustenburg, fifty men and three lancers this afternoon, 20 at Villiersdorp, eight north of Vryheid, and also a laager nearby.

NEW YORK, October 28.—The London correspondent of the Tribune cables: Too much importance is not to be attached to the reported capture of 250 Boers in the Rustenburg district. These men were most unskilled and engaged in engaged in cultivating fields, presumably to provide food-stuffs for their more beligerent comrades.

Compensation to Foreigners.

LONDON, October 28.—At the resumption of the meeting of the South African General Commission to-day, Major-General Sir John C. Arlidge, on behalf of the Government, announced that all claims of foreign countries had been settled diplomatically, with the exception of those of the Netherlands and France, as follows: The United States, $26,000; Austria, $215,000; Germany, $30,000; Russia, $4,100; Italy, $12,000; Spain, $150; Sweden and Norway, $1,000; Switzerland, $250; and Belgium, $800.

Colonial Construction Company.

(Special to the Star). TORONTO, October 28.—C. L. Higgins, F. J. Westgate and Robert Lucas, Montreal; T. A. Hutchins, New York, and M. H. Ludwig, Toronto, have been incorporated by the Ontario Government as the Colonial Construction Co., Limited, with a share capital of $100,000.

INCREASED VALUE OF CITY PROPERTY

WILL AMOUNT TO ABOUT TWO MILLION DOLLARS.

This Will Give the City an Augmented Borrowing Power of $200,000 With Which to Build Civic Hospital.

The assessors have completed the assessing of property in the various wards. One of the assessors said to-day that he thought the increase in the value of real estate would total up fully two million dollars. This is considered very satisfactory. It will not be known exactly what the increase is till the books are made up. Work upon them is being pushed rapidly. According to the city charter, the City Council is empowered to borrow ten per cent. on the yearly increase upon real estate. The money thus borrowed has to be spent upon permanent works. If the increase this year of two millions is correct the corporation will have two hundred thousand dollars, in addition to the ordinary revenue, to spend.

ST. L. & A. RY. STOCK.

A special general meeting of the St. Lawrence and Adirondack Railway will be held on the 25th of November, to consider a proposition to increase the capital stock of said company from $1,300,000 consisting of 13,000 shares of the par value of one hundred dollars each to $1,631,500 consisting of 16,315 shares of the par value of one hundred dollars each. There is a further proposition to retire the debenture bonds of the company, amounting to $310,000, and to issue in payment thereof, 3,315 shares of the capital stock of the company, at par and five per cent. premium, under the terms of the trust agreement providing for the retirement of the bonds. The directors giving notice of the meeting are Dr. W. S. Webb, and Messrs. William Edward Webb, Henry L. Sprague, Arthur E. Meyer, Martin E. McClary, George A. Jiru.

WILL SELL FIVE SEATS

On the Stock Exchange Next Monday--Minimum Price Fixed at $12,000.

On Monday morning next an auction sale of Stock Exchange seats will be held, which will, no doubt, attract a great deal of attention. It has been decided to sell at auction during the morning session on that day, five of the ten seats which it was decided last week to add to the Exchange. As already stated in the press, the first five seats to be sold must bring the sum of $12,000 each or better, this amount having been fixed as the minimum price. That there is bound to be an active demand for these seats there is little doubt, inasmuch as the next and only remaining five must bring the sum of $15,000 each, this being the up-set price at which these seats may be sold. It was stated on the Stock Exchange to-day that one broker was willing to buy in the first five seats at an average price of $12,300 each. This, of course, was not accepted, as the seats are, by agreement, to be put up at auction with the usual probability, the Exchange will benefit to a greater degree by having an open competition for the seats.

ENGINE'S AXLE BROKE AND WHEEL ROLLED AWAY.

An Accident to the Newport Train Which Did Not Prove Serious.

Shortly after the Newport train had crossed the Lachine Bridge on Saturday the axle of the trailer of the locomotive snapped, and the wheel rolled down the embankment. The engineer immediately applied the air-brakes, and although the train was running down the incline, and consequently at a high rate of speed, it was brought to a standstill within 200 yards of where the accident occurred. Upon examination it was found that the axle had snapped close to the hub, and was occasioned by a flaw in the metal. The connecting rod, which was considerably out of kilter, was quickly disengaged by the engineer, who was a thoroughly practical man, and the train stopped at Windsor Street Station forty-five minutes behind time. There were a number of ladies on board, who were somewhat alarmed.

BRITS AND BROCKVILLE ON MONTREAL GROUNDS.

Arrangements Have Been Concluded to Have the Important Game of the Series Played on a Proper Field. The crucial game of the Quebec Rugby Union championship series will be that on Saturday of this week between the Brits and the Brockvilles. As they will have to play these teams are even up in the series, each having won three and lost one game. With two games each to play in the series it will be seen how important this game is, for the other two teams in the series stand lower on the list. Ottawa College having won and lost two, and Montreal having lost four. If Brockville wins the game it is an odd on bet that they will win the championship, but if the Brits win there is little to be a three-cornered tie, as they will have to play College away from home. Brockville's last engagement of the season is with Montreal and taking the form of the two teams into consideration, it should be an easy matter to pick the winner. In connection with Saturday's game the Brits have done one thing which will earn them the gratitude of the followers of the game. They have made arrangements with the M.A.A.A. to play on their grounds. They will also practice on the grounds one morning this week. Tomorrow morning they will turn out on the ball grounds as usual, and on Thursday evening they will put on the finishing touches in the Crystal Rink.

On a grassy, slippery field, more resembling a quagmire than a rugby gridiron, Britannia downed Montreal on Saturday by 14 points to 1. The result was not wholly unexpected, for previous to the match it was known that "Jimmy" Craig and Birchell were unable to play owing to injuries received in the game of English hockey. Billy O'Brien's leg is in poor shape and he could not play. This was a serious handicap to the Montreal team and as they were lined up against the strongest team that Britannia could put in the field it was most unreasonable to hope for victory. "Jack" Savage, who was entirely due to his exertions, was but one man, however, and received but little help.

On Saturday morning at 10 o'clock a football match was played between Lennoxville and the High School, on the M. A. A. grounds. The High School boys won 37 to 0.

ST. JOHN'S SCHOOL DEFEATED. On Saturday the Third Team of the Montreal High School met and defeated St. John's School, in a friendly game of football. The High boys won by a score of 8 to 0.

MILITARY MEN LOST. At the Royal Military College campus, Kingston, Saturday afternoon, the Lincolns, and St. John's, had a contest in the junior O. R. F. U. series. The Lincolns won out by a score of 6 to 1.

RIDLEY WON EASILY. The junior intercollegiate game played at Toronto, Saturday, between the Trinity School, Port Hope, and Ridley College, St. Catharines, was an easy victory for Ridley College, 21 to 1; the half-time score being 7 to 1.

BROCKVILLE BEAT OTTAWA COLLEGE CHAMPIONS WERE IN THE BEST OF FORM.

Referee Ballantyne Made Them Play Ball and a Number of Players Were Relegated to the Side--A Hard Fast Game.

(Special to the Star.) BROCKVILLE, Ont., October 28.—The Brockville football team Saturday retrieved its defeat at the hands of Ottawa College early in the season. The Brockville 16 to 0. The game was the most important in the series for both aggressors. The Ottawa players were in the best of form, and the advantage of playing on their own grounds, which are not by any means the best in the country, and are a subject of general complaint, was not a factor.

When play started, the Brits took the west half, thus having the advantage of the field. They were in the best of form, and the advantage of playing on their own grounds, which are not by any means the best in the country, and are a subject of general complaint, was not a factor.

College won the toss and elected to play up the hill for the counter advantage of a slight south west wind. As the game progressed, however, it was evident that for the game was fought out on its merits. The game throughout was of a very exciting nature, and the Ottawa players did greater play by good open play which made it interesting from a spectator's point of view. It was evident from the commencement that the Ottawa players were the best team. This superiority was just enough to keep College on the defensive.

McGILL DEFEATED MONTREAL. The McGill and Montreal teams met on the grounds of the latter on Saturday afternoon, McGill winning by a score of 22 to 1. The game was a very close one, and the McGill team was in the best of form.

SIAMROCKS DEFEATED. There was an intermediate match on Saturday afternoon between the second Brits and Siamrocks. The Brits won out with a score of 19 to 0. The game was a very close one, and the Brits were in the best of form.

BRITS WON THIS ALSO. The Brits III and Montreal III teams played a game for the junior championship previous to the McGill-Montreal game. The Brits were too strong for the winged wheel aggregation and won by a score of 9 to 0.

As the game progressed, however, it was evident that for the game was fought out on its merits. The game throughout was of a very exciting nature, and the Ottawa players did greater play by good open play which made it interesting from a spectator's point of view. It was evident from the commencement that the Ottawa players were the best team. This superiority was just enough to keep College on the defensive.

IT WAS A MOST INTERESTING MATCH.

There Were Thirty Seven Players a Side and the Royal Montreal Won by Seventeen Holes Up Saturday Afternoon.

There was a great golf match on old Fletcher's Field, which has seen so many spirited games, on Saturday last. It was a contest between the Royal Montreal and the Metropolitan Clubs, and thirty-seven players a side took part in it. The Royal Montreal managed to beat the Metropolitan players by seventeen holes up.

There was a pleasant little luncheon, at which Captain Finnie, of the Metropolitan, welcomed the guests who had defeated them, and at which Captain Balfour, of the Metropolitan Club, complimented the Metropolitan on the creditable showing they had made against a club so much older and so much more experienced.

IN MEMORY OF THE BRAVE CANADIANS OTTAWA CORPS PARADED TO CHURCH SUNDAY.

His Excellency Unveiled a Tablet and Lectern in Memory of Three Members of the Church Who Fell at Paardeberg.

(Special to the Star.) OTTAWA, October 28.—Representatives of all the city corps paraded in uniform Sunday morning, to St. Bartholomew's Church to do honor to the memory of three comrades who fell on the field of Paardeberg.

The occasion was the unveiling of a mural tablet and lectern which had been subscribed for by the parishioners as a permanent reminder of Cuthbert E. Thomas, Wm. H. Brady and Fred J. Living, all of whom had been connected with the church. The sacred edifice was crowded to the doors.

Immediately before the first lesson, His Excellency, accompanied by Revs. Canon Hannington, Kerr and Pollard, proceeded down the aisle, and stopped in front of the tablet, which was covered by the Union Jack. The Governor-General pulled the string, and the tablet was exposed to view.

His Excellency said: "We place this tablet on the wall of St. Bartholomew's Church in memory of three brave volunteers, who fell in battle in South Africa, giving their lives for our country. May their bright example ever be an incentive to all who worship in this church, to true loyalty to God and our country."

The Governor-General then unveiled the lectern with these words: "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, we dedicate this reading desk to the service of God and in memory of Cuthbert Thomas, William Simpson, Brady and Frederick Living, who died in South Africa fighting for our country's rights and honour. May the Word of God, read herefrom, ever find a place in the hearts of those who hear it, to their great comfort and salvation, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

Canon Pollard offered the following prayer: Almighty and everlasting God, vouchsafe we beseech Thee to accept, bless and sanctify our offering of this lectern, which we have placed in Thy house, and now dedicate to Thy service. Grant that Thy Holy Word, which shall be read herefrom, may be a light to our paths and instruct us unto eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A beautiful Bible, presented to the church by an unknown donor, was then placed on the altar, and Canon Hannington offered the following prayer: Accept, we pray Thee, O Lord, this Bible, which we dedicate to Thee for use in this Thy house. Bless, we beseech Thee, the donor thereof, and grant that those who in this house shall hear Thy Holy Word, may live according to Thy will, and attain unto eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Book of Holy Writ having been placed on the lectern, His Excellency read the first lesson: Daniel, 3rd chapter. The sermon was preached by Rev. Canon Kerr, of Montreal, whose text was Exodus 12:36. "What mean by this service?"

It was an eloquent discourse thoroughly patriotic in character, and eulogistic of the brave young men whose memory they were perpetuating that day, as well as their charming arms. During the ceremony, Mrs. C. J. Rogers, who has a beautiful contralto voice, sang the solo, "O, rest in the Lord."

The tablet bears the following inscription: "In loving memory of Cuthbert E. Thomas, sergeant, Governor-General's Guards, died 27th February, 1900, aged 27. Fred Living, sergeant, Ottawa and Carleton Rifles, died 27th February, 1900, aged 26. Wm. S. Brady, sergeant, 3rd Ottawa and Carleton Rifles, died 27th February, 1900, aged 26."

GOVERNOR GOEBEL'S MURDER.

Ex-Secretary of State Powers Convicted as an Accomplice.

GEORGETOWN, Ky., October 28.—Ex-Secretary of State Charles S. Powers was Saturday again convicted of being accessory before the fact to the murder of Governor William Goebel in January, 1900, and the second time has been sentenced to imprisonment for life. The case went to the jury at two o'clock on Saturday afternoon, and the verdict soon followed.

Powers was called as a witness when the verdict was announced by the foreman, B. S. Calvert, his old school-mate. Women crowded around Powers, embracing and kissing him, and many were weeping. The defence having filed a motion for a new trial, Judge Cantrill, at 4:30 p.m., heard argument on the same.

The jury deliberated only fifteen minutes. Then a motion for a new trial was overruled, and the case will be appealed. The sentence was read and judgment suspended pending the decision of the higher tribunal. Powers was taken to Frankfort on an evening train and committed to goal without bail.

KILLED HIMSELF AND WIFE.

Enraged Because the Children Were Hidden From Him.

CHICAGO, October 28.—Because he was denied the custody of his little children, James Kennedy, a labourer, today murdered his wife and killed himself. They were married twelve years ago, but quarrelled long ago, and Kennedy had been hiding his wife to-day and asked to see the children. Fearing that he meant to take them away from her she told him they had gone to church. Kennedy then fired three shots at his wife, killing her, and then turned the revolver on himself, and when found was dead.

Sydney Harbour Defended.

(Special to the Star.) SYDNEY, October 28.—Since the Manchester Shipper went aground, those operators who have been making the considerable capital of the fact that the grounding of the steamer must be due to the error of the harbour pilots.

This idea is, however, scouted by the people both of Sydney and North Sydney. A Star reporter saw some of the captains whose vessels were in port, and asked them if they were asked their opinions as to the safety of ships in entering the harbour, they were unhesitatingly saying that they knew of the harbour where entrance could be made easier and safer. They stated, however, that there are several points on the coast that should be made immediately.

Canadian Nurse Commits Suicide.

Meriden, Conn., October 28.—Miss Alice Ellis, a well known trained nurse and a graduate of the New Haven Hospital, committed suicide, in a very sensational manner, in the rear of the residence of the late Dwight P. Miss Ellis was 41 years of age, and was called to Meriden, Conn., to attend on a friend who had been ill. She was greatly attached to a six-year-old son of Mr. Wilcox, whom she had taken care of for nearly a year in January when he was placed with relatives in Westfield.

A CLEVER MORRIBU GO GIRL

Caused the Arrest of a Crook Who Attempted to Swindle Her.

(Special to the Star.) BROCKVILLE, Ont., October 28.—New York dispatches tell of a clever girl, Miss Miller, a Brockville girl, located in that city, brought a swindler to justice by her native Canadian wit. Miss Miller was attracted by an advertisement of Charles Seaton offering big inducements for a suitable secretary. She telephoned to Hugh T. Chisholm, a prominent New York business man, who was to be the head of the company. Seaton required a cash deposit of $500 and a bond for $500 more to make her position sure. Becoming suspicious of the matter, Miss Miller called on Mr. Chisholm and found out that there was no such company. She then placed the matter in the hands of the police. Miss Miller was provided with the necessary money and went to Seaton's office to secure her situation. She was in the act of handing over the money to Seaton, the detective stepped in and placed her under arrest. He explained to her in the office was Miss Stella Krumm, a beautiful girl, who was the wife of a good family and wealthy, to whom he engaged. Seaton is said to be an all-round criminal. He collected an India famine fund and kept it. He also sold tickets for a grand banquet at the Waldorf-Astoria. When guests turned up there was no sign of a banquet. He is also alleged to be implicated in a Cleveland scheme to buy up the Erie Canal. Mark Hanna, who wrote several letters to a Dr. Schied, of Cleveland, a friend of Seaton's. Miss Miller originally came from Morrisburg, Ont.

Big Shoal in St. Lawrence.

(Special to the Star.) BROCKVILLE, Ont., October 28.—The Ogdensburg, N. Y., engineers, who have been engaged in the construction of the Brockville in the Canadian channel, which the steamship John Luge, drawing 15.3 feet of water, is said to have recently, have completed their labours. They found the shoal all right, and a big one it is, too, measuring 30 feet across, with barely fifteen feet of water covering its surface. It will be a decided menace to St. Lawrence river navigation. The Canadian Government will be interviewed at once with a view to having it removed. It is marked for the present with a buoy.

Civis Squabble at Quebec.

(Special to the Star.) QUEBEC, October 28.—The city and the authorities of the harbour refused to allow a longshoreman on the latter's refusal to build a line up Champlain street, though the latter said he would do so, and with the city, to be built when demanded. The company says the street is too narrow for a line of railway, and that the cost would be large and is uncalled for.

Russell May Come to United States.

WASHINGTON, D.C., October 28.—Earl Russell, who was convicted by the House of Lords of bigamy, is said to have been granted a divorce in Nevada, is free to enter this country. His wife, the assistant Secretary Taylor, of the Treasury department, who has general jurisdiction over immigration matters, declared Saturday, overruling the Commissioner of Immigration, Mr. Powderly.

A General Shake Up.

(Special to the Star.) BROCKVILLE, October 28.—There is a rumour of a general shake up among the officials and attendants of the Brockville asylum. Chief Attendant Simmons, who has been connected with the institution since its inception, has resigned, and several subordinate officials have been dismissed.

TWO MORE CASES OF ITCHING PILLS

That Could Not Be Cured By Any Treatment Except Dr. Chase's Ointment.

There is probably no other medical preparation in this country which has been so thoroughly endorsed by the best medical authorities as Dr. Chase's Ointment. It is undoubtedly accounted for by the fact that people who are free from the misery of itching piles are anxious to let other sufferers know what has cured them, and because Dr. Chase's Ointment is the only actual cure for this torturing and frightfully common disease.

Mr. John Harvey, Mayor of Amherst, Ont., states: "Only persons who have experienced the torture of itching piles can form any idea of what it is to go through a horrible disease. I was advised to try Dr. Chase's Ointment, and can positively say that it has completely cured me. I had tried every remedy known to me, but in vain, and can truthfully say that there is no remedy on the face of the earth like Dr. Chase's Ointment for this purpose. I would not be without it for any sum of money, and can heartily recommend it to all sufferers, as it is the best thing I ever used."

W. E. Talbot, of Talbot Bros., tobacco merchants, 232 George street, Montreal, Ont., states: "It is from a desire to help other sufferers that I offer a statement of my experience with Dr. Chase's Ointment as a cure for itching piles. I was some time troubled with this unpleasant and torturing disease, and though I tried every remedy, remained unimproved until I came across Dr. Chase's Ointment. It was highly recommended to me, and I find that every word of praise that is given it is true. I can truthfully say that I am completely cured, and knowing the misery that the ailment produces, I am anxious to have others know of the surprising virtues of Dr. Chase's Ointment. It costs 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or by mail, post paid, on receipt of price by Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto."

IMPROVING FACILITIES FOR WINTER PORT NEW CATTLE SHEDS AND IMMIGRATION QUARTERS

Being Built at West St. John -- The Need of Larger Wharves to Accommodate Steamers Is Felt.

Mr. D. McNeill, second vice-president and general manager, and Mr. G. M. Bosworth, freight traffic manager, of the Canadian Pacific, returned from West St. John, N. B., where they were inspecting the new additional accommodation which is being prepared for the commencement of the winter Atlantic service from this port.

The company with this end in view is erecting large covered cattle yards capable of accommodating 1800 head, extending its wharves and laying down additional tracks while the Dominion Government has just completed a large immigrant shed with sleeping and eating accommodation for 1200 persons.

The following is the fleet of the Allan Mail Steamers and their dates of sailing from West St. John and Halifax, the following day:

Parisian 23rd November, Numidian 30th, Ionian 7th December, Tunisian 14th, Corinthian 21st, and Parisian the 28th.

BIGGER WHARVES NEEDED. In connection with the above the St. John Globe says:

"One of the difficulties of the situation is the scarcity of wharves at West St. John. The wharves which will come here are so big that five of them cannot be accommodated at the five berths. How to make them fit is a matter that has given the shipping people and the city fathers considerable anxiety. If rumours are correct the conference between the C. P. R. and the St. J. R. officials will solve this difficulty, for it is said an agreement is pending under which for this season at least the C. P. R. will get possession of the new wharves and the St. J. R. will get possession of the old wharves. The use of the I. C. R. elevator will be included in the arrangement and so ships will be able to get both their grain and package freight on the same wharf.

The Wharf for the Allans. In arranging for their winter service from Portland, Measrs. H. and A. Allan were assigned No. 1 berth at Sand Point, which it seems, is inferior to that which has always been occupied by the Allans.

It was impossible for them to discharge and take a cargo at this No. 1 wharf, while at the old No. 2, the one formerly occupied by them, could be worked to advantage.

The Allans made known their objections to the Harbour Commissioners of St. John this morning. A telegram was received stating that they had been assigned Berth No. 2, and the trouble was at an end.

CANDIDATES IN FIELD FOR THE CIVIC ELECTIONS.

Ald. Tansey May be Opposed by Mr. J. Walsh -- Ald. Turner May Also be Opposed.

Mr. J. Walsh, merchant tailor, in St. Ward, has been asked by a large number of electors to oppose Ald. Tansey at the approaching civic elections. It is understood he will accept the invitation.

Ald. Turner, in St. Gabriel Ward, is likely to have an opponent in the person of Mr. Andrew Gaudet, president of the Consumers' Cordage Company. He was requested by a number of electors on Saturday to enter the civic arena.

STAR LIBRARY PRIZE CONTEST.

The committee have not yet completed their labours in adjudging the contest for prizes, an announcement will be made in the Star Library competition. It is possible the awards may be announced towards the end of the week. The amount of labour involved in classifying the competitors is greater than was estimated. It is being carefully done.

To Eradicate Anarchism.

The Protestant Ministerial Association met to-day and listened to a very able paper from the Rev. W. D. Reid, pastor of Taylor Presbyterian Church, on the subject of "Anarchism." The speaker's aim was to annihilate the system it was necessary to have reforms in the way of government, just and equal laws, a general and thorough education, a system of taxation, and less oppression on the part of monied men towards those who happened to be their employees. Moreover, in order to eradicate anarchy, it was necessary that the believers in anarchistic principles should have the power of the gospel and of its fundamental principle, love, applied to their souls. When in truth they realized the brotherhood of man and the Fatherhood of God, then would their principles melt away before the light of Christ's revealed word.

Harley's Friends are Surprised.

Several former Kingstonians, who are now residents of Montreal expressed great surprise this morning at the arrest of Mr. Harley, who has been arrested at Halifax charged with stealing $6,000 belonging to the Bank of British North America should be accused of such a crime. In their opinion he was the last man of their acquaintance who would do such a thing. Mr. Harley is between thirty-eight and forty years of age, is married and has a family. It is said that he has relatives in prominent circles in Montreal.

Miss McIntyre Married.

The marriage of Miss Margaret McIntyre, second daughter of Mrs. Duncan McIntyre, to Mr. R. A. Snowball, son of Senator J. E. Snowball, of Chatham, N. B., will take place very quietly this afternoon at the residence of the bride's mother, "Craigrie," Drummond street. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Mr. Howat in the presence of relatives of the bride and groom.

FLAG WAS HALF-MASTED.

A correspondent writes and asks why the flag was not half-masted over No. 4 Erie station, out of respect to the late Capt. Mann. Chief Bennett when seen in regard to the matter stated that the flag was half-masted on No. 4 as well as on several other stations.

THE QUEBEC CABINET ALL HINGES ON THE RESIGNATION OF MR. JUSTICE WHITE.

The Deal Is That Hon. H. T. Duffy Succeeds Mr. Justice White and That Mr. W. A. Weir, M. L. A., Be Provincial Treasurer.

The rumours afloat some time ago about the resignation of Mr. Justice White, of Sherbrooke, have again been revived. He has been stated on what is generally regarded as an excellent authority that the learned judge's resignation has been forwarded to Ottawa. Some days ago, in an interview given to the Star correspondent at Sherbrooke, Mr. Justice White himself admitted that he had been considering the matter. For a long time his slight has been troubling him, and although an operation performed in New York has been pronounced successful, some of the learned justice's friends state that he does not feel like risking his sight again by constant application to his work.

Should he leave the Cabinet, the Government would be somewhat embarrassed to find a successor. He is certainly one of the strongest, if indeed, he is not the very strongest man in the Cabinet at Quebec to-day. Mr. W. A. Weir, the member for Argenteuil, is the man most generally mentioned in connection with the succession to Mr. Duffy as the representative of the English Protestant element in the Cabinet. Several of the members of the Legislature of opinion, however, that should Mr. Weir be made Minister he would not be appointed to the treasuryship, which would go to Mr. Lomer, the present Commissioner of Public Works.

BY-ELECTION IN VAUDREUIL MAY GO TO DR. THAUETTE

Friends of Mr. Gouin are Openly Supporting Him -- The Contest in Drummond.

Delegations from Vaudreuil and Drummond Counties were at the Government offices to-day interviewing Hon. Lomer Gouin, Minister of Agriculture. With regard to the election for a member of the Legislature in those counties, the opinion expressed by some of those in the confidence of the Minister is that the Government candidate, Dr. Filon, in Vaudreuil, will be elected, while in Drummond, Mr. Gouin will be elected.

THE HOKEY CLUB SQUABBLE.

Disputed Points Talked Over at Special Meeting of the Committee. The executive of the Montreal Hockey Club, along with several of the past presidents, and Dickey Boon, the captain of the team, met at the gym on Friday evening to talk over the recent unpleasantness which has cropped up between players and spectators. At all events, the warring factions understand each other better, the explanations offered by the officers of the club are satisfactory, and Mr. Boon was asked if he had anything that he would like to ask. He had nothing to say, and the meeting afterwards said, were answered to his entire satisfaction.

LAKE ONTARIO OUTWARD.

The Elder, Dempster Steamship Arrives in Liverpool After a Good Passage. The Elder, Dempster, Beaver line SS. Lake Ontario, from Montreal on the 18th, while making a good passage, reached Liverpool at 6 p.m. yesterday, after an excellent run, time of passage being 15 hours and 20 minutes, corrected time, Father Point to Moville.

By-Election in Laval.

A meeting of the electors of Laval County has been called for to-morrow evening at seven o'clock, at the Hotel, Boulevard, to choose a candidate for the coming federal by-election in that county. The names of the candidates have been announced by Mr. Gordiner, mayor of Laval, who has already been mentioned in the Star as a possible candidate.

Judgment Against Steamer.

Acting Chief Justice Sir M. Tait rendered judgment in favour of plaintiff in the case of Deschamps vs. Bonenfant. The defendant is the proprietor of the steamer "Bonenfant," which plies between Montreal and St. Charles. The plaintiff, who resides at Repentigny, claimed the amount awarded for the destruction of his house, to which fire was set by a spark from the steamer. The court found that his case was well founded and rendered judgment accordingly.

Mail Stacks Full on Him.

Hector Laramée, a post office mail driver, 22 years of age, of 18 Montana street, was arrested on Monday morning at 10 o'clock in the rear of the Post Office building and fell two heavy bundles of mail on his head. When he was taken to the station he was found that he was badly hurt, and his legs were swollen.

MURDERER HANSEN IS WEAKENING SHOWED NERVOUSNESS AND SIGNS OF WEeping.

Brushed Away a Tear When the Mother of His Victim Gave Her Testimony at the Inquest This Afternoon.

(See also page twelve.) The coroner's inquest over the remains of Eric Marotte, who was killed on Saturday night by Thorvald Hansen, was commenced at 2:15 this afternoon in the Council chamber of the Westmount Town Hall.

Mr. Coroner McMahon presided, and M. A. C. Hutchinson was chosen foreman, and the following other jurymen were sworn in: Albert Davidson, Charles H. Houdou, Richard D. Lamer, William Ross, W. J. Benelick, Thos. Minto, John Phillips, James Smith, Edward Riel, W. D. Stone, Thomas Lynch, Fred Duckett, and Dr. J. H. G. Chesney. The plan of action they are following in getting away and refusing to fight, it is very difficult to say when they can be found to yield to a superior power. The War Office, it seems to me, thought that the Boers would be overcome during the winter months, when they were suffering from great scarcity of food and clothing, and an almost absolute death of fodder for their horses.

MR. CHOATE SAW THE KING

And Emphatically Denies Reports That His Condition of Health is 'Very Serious'.

(Special to the Star.) WASHINGTON, D.C., October 28. -- But a short time previous to starting for the United States, Ambassador Choate had an audience with King Edward. Since his arrival in New York Mr. Choate has told his friends about this visit, discussing the appearance of the King in view of the coronation, and the fact that he was suffering from cancer, Mr. Choate has said that when he saw the King, about a month ago, he looked in the best of health. His condition, however, has since deteriorated. The last time he was seen, he had been operated upon three times for cancer of the throat, his voice would hardly be heard, and he was unable to speak. He is now in a very weak condition, and it is believed, and there is no known warrant for believing that he is suffering from any serious ailment.

THE OTTAWA BURGLARS

Appear in Court and are Remanded Till Thursday. (Special to the Star.) OTTAWA, October 28. -- At the police court this morning, the alleged burglars were arraigned and remanded until Thursday on the application of their counsel, Messrs. Smith and Martin. The finding of a revolver on Martin, and of the finding of a second revolver on the burglar, was a complete triumph for the police. At the same time a remand was asked for. The police have received information which convinces them that the burglars are in Ottawa. New York crooks who are wanted for daring crimes in that State.

MISS STONE IN A COLLAR

(Special to the Star.) LONDON, October 28. -- A despatch to the Daily Telegraph, from Sofia, says that travellers from Bausko, state that M. Teika lately received a letter from his cousin, Miss Stone, secretary of the American missionary, informing him that she and Miss Stone are confined in a cellar under a strict guard, which is maintained by the Bulgarian police.

THE STRIKE IS OVER.

Men Return to Work in the Montreal Cotton Company's Mill at Valleyfield. The strike in the mills of the Montreal Cotton Company at Valleyfield is over and the men will all go back to work as soon as the mill reopens. The men who spoke disrespectfully to the foreman, and who were directly responsible for the strike, has apologized to the foreman, and will resume work on Wednesday next. Several of the strikers are already at work on repairs to the company's plant.

Provindial By-Elections.

(Special to the Star.) QUEBEC, October 28. -- The politicians were out in force yesterday in the county of Quebec, and large meetings were addressed at both Beauport and Silvers. The candidates and others, Solicitor-General Fitzpatrick spoke in Mr. Delage's favour at both meetings, and Premier Parent addressed the Beauport meeting for him. Mr. DuBois is putting up a very strong fight against the Ministerial candidate, and a very bitter split in the party is the result. Many of the Solicitor-General's former friends being particularly angry over his treatment of them in this election.

Infatuated With An Actress.

KINGSTON, Ont., October 28. -- Infatuated with Esther Evans, a young actress who was here with the Marks Bros. last week, a young man named Moffat came from Moncton and attempted to elope with her, sent this note to her room: "If you want to see me alive do so at once." He then placed a brickbat saturated with chloroform over his face. His attempt at suicide was discovered in time and his life was saved. He is only 18 years old.

MARRIAGES.

McCARTHY-DOLAN. On October 26th, at St. Gabriel's Church, by the Rev. Father McDonald, Michael McCarthy, son of Mr. McCarthy, of St. Charles, and Miss Dolan, daughter of the late Martin Dolan, both of this city.

STRATHCONA HALL BELIEVES IN BULLER A FULL SESSION FOR STOCK MARKET

TROOPER R. M. GROGAN SAYS HE IS A GREAT SOLDIER. DOMINION COTTON CONTINUED A FEATURE.

The special correspondent of the Star in Wall Street and on the Chicago Board of Trade report in this column that stocks were irregular, but that they will go up. The local market business dull and the tone irregular. Sales on the New York Stock Exchange on Saturday were $2,150 shares.

The week in the stock market opened with business very dull, but with Dominion Cotton absorbing the bulk of attention. There was not a great deal of liquidation in that stock, however, but what there was sufficed to break the price down from 52 last week to 48, two points below the former low level. In other respects prices held steady and in some cases a fair show of strength was made.

The Street disagreed as to whether the forthcoming announcement regarding the New Cotton, which should be payable December 1, will mean that the shareholders will get nothing or 1 per cent, a reduction of 1 per cent on the price of the stock, or a 48 per cent recovery to 52 at the close of the forenoon board.

Canadian Pacific was weaker at 100% compared with 104% last week, but Toronto showed a strong recovery, selling at 116. Power was 5% easier at 50%. The steel stocks were steady at 90 for preferred and 85 for common. Dominion Coal was also steady at 42%.

The Stock Exchange has decided to offer five of the newly created seats for sale by auction on Monday morning next. Several offers to buy have been received, and the highest bidder, and all five are pretty sure to bring a premium on the $12,000 stipulated price. Members of the Exchange only will have a chance to bid, and there is a prospect of some of them being purchased in the way of speculation.

The opening stock market in Wall Street was narrow and irregular. There were some points of strength among the coal and transportation roads, but the majority of stocks were lower. Amalgamated Copper ran off a point, and People's Gas was under pressure. St. Paul, after opening up 1/4, fell back below Saturday's level.

Messrs. L. J. Forget and Co.'s London cable to-day quoted: Grand Trunk first, 89%; second, 84%; third, 83%; Canadian Pacific, 113 1/2; Atchafalaya, 27 1/2.

REACTION IN WALL STREET.

Majority of the Active Stock Has Reactions in Early Trading. (From the Special Correspondent of the Star in Wall Street.) NEW YORK, October 28. -- There was an unsettled, feverish market in to-day's early operations. Prices vibrated frequently, though generally showing a downward tendency, and the net result at the end of the first hour's trading was a moderate reaction from Saturday's closing. The foreign situation had some influence, weakening prevailing at London, Paris and Berlin, with Canada down to the lowest point since 1888. St. Paul and Union Pacific were firm at intervals, but these stocks finally yielded with others, especially when Amalgamated Copper dropped over a point and was sold there. Sugar was even weaker than Amalgamated, losing two points. Missouri Pacific, St. Louis and Southwestern preferred and Hoopkin Valley were among the firm favorites of the active list, all showing an improvement. The market seemed to be waiting for developments in the Northern Pacific situation, and also as to gold exports, indications as to the latter are expected during the day.

An enjoyable evening was given by Mrs. E. E. Robinson, 79 Main street, on Thursday evening last, in honour of Miss Stuart, of Belleville, Ont., who is her guest. The programme was given by Mrs. Harry Child and Miss Carlin. Mr. James Davison and Mr. William Cairns.

The only other reference of general interest was the promise that measures would be submitted soon to complete the reform of the currency.

MURDER MOST FOUL.

Eric Marrotte, of Westmount, Stabbed to Death by Thorvald Hansen for the Paltry Sum of Seventeen Cents—The Murderer at Once Gave Himself Up—No Apparent Motive for the Crime Except That the Murderer Wanted the Money for Whiskey.

Between the hours of 6 and 7 o'clock on Saturday night Eric Marrotte, the 8-year old son of Mr. Samuel Marrotte, living at 31 Hillside avenue, Westmount, was murdered by a Dane named Thorvald Hansen, in the most brutal and fiendish manner that a diseased mind could conceive.

The murderer makes no excuse for his crime, but confesses without any reserve that he killed the boy because he would not give him the small sum of money which he had in his pocket—seventeen cents.

The tragedy in the matter of uncommon coincidences attached to it from beginning to end is one of the most remarkable on record.

Howald Hanson.

HANSEN'S SIGNATURE.
A gentleman at present in Montreal, who is noted for his correct handwriting, has shown Hansen's signature to-day, and he said:
"The writing of the name Thorvald Hansen at first would indicate an extremely nervous temperament, but close examination shows it to be the natural penmanship of a man of the northwestern countries. It shows beyond question that the man who wrote the name lacks character and is stirred by impulse to good or bad deeds, showing he is quite as ready to hear that the owner of the name has committed some good deed as I would be to hear that he had been found guilty of some foul crime. Those who are at all familiar with the writing of the people to whom the name suggests, Hansen, or belongs to, will tell you that the hesitation suggested in the penmanship is not from force of mental strain or excitement, it was due to the man in the midst of exciting scenes or undue pressure, it all the more suggests a cold brain."

fessed everything, giving the most minute details of everything connected with the fearful crime. Later on he made a statement to Chief of Police Harrison, of Westmount, in which he told of his early days, his service in the British Army, his imprisonment for theft and the causes which led him to Montreal to commit the foulest of all crimes.

THE LITTLE VICTIM'S LAST HOURS.
Saturday afternoon, Eric Marrotte took his first and last dancing lesson in the Westmount Dancing Academy. It was a matter of comment that he was one of the brightest of the region, and since his death his boyhood friends recall the fact that he jingled some coins in his trousers' pocket. On leaving the dancing class he went to the residence of his grandmother, Mrs. J. S. Murray, on Greene avenue, and a few minutes past six started for home. That was the last time he was seen alive by any of his friends.

SCENE OF THE TRAGEDY.
Metcalf avenue runs south across St. Catherine street, and Hillside avenue crosses it at the foot. The northeast corner of Metcalf and Hillside avenues there is a vacant lot, and it is the custom of those living on Hillside avenue, east of Metcalf, to cut diagonally across the vacant lot. It was while in the act of making this cut, and while still jingling his coins in his pocket that little Eric Marrotte met his death.

Hansen heard the jingle and facing the boy asked him for the money. Naturally he refused to part with it, and without a moment's warning the fiend sprang at him, and grasping him with iron fingers, forced him into partial unconsciousness. As the boy slipped towards the sod, Hansen carried it behind a pile of bricks on the east side of the lot, and opening the blade of a common labourer's pocket knife, he made an upward stroke that cut the boy's abdomen, the trousers' buttons seem to have turned the blade so that the body was but slightly scratched and the cloth cut. Then, with the most terrible earnestness, the blade was driven into one side of the neck below the ear, and undoubtedly turned once or twice around; then into the other side of the neck, making another gash, and either one of which was sufficient to cause almost instant death.

A main artery leading direct to the heart was severed, and but a few beats of the heart followed before death came. Merciful were the stabs in their fearful certainty of death, for the boy's face shows that he did not suffer. He scarcely knew that an enemy had come upon him before his earthly sufferings were at an end. Whether or not the seventeen cents were taken before or after the knife was used is not yet quite certain.

The murderer then coolly walked away.

FINDING THE BOY'S BODY.
Toward eight o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Marrotte began to get anxious at the absence of Eric, and a messenger was despatched to Mrs. Murray's. There it was learned that the boy had started for home shortly after six. Friends and relations were sought, and enquiries made in all directions, but it was without avail. No one had seen the little fellow since he had a happy good-night to his grandmother.

It was in the neighbourhood of 9:30 that the twelve-year-old brother of the missing boy, returning to the house after a vain search, passed the vacant lot, the observing something white on the grass, picked it up, and found it to be his brother's cap, turned inside out. Advancing into the shadow of a brick pile, he found Herrick's body.

The one hundred feet run to the Marrotte house was quickly covered, and the blood partially covered the sidewalk, and the parents could not bring themselves to the belief that their dear one was dead. While an effort was being made to resuscitate the little form, telephone messages were sent out from Mr. W. J. Benallack's, next door, for doctors.

PAST ALL HUMAN AID.
Dr. J. M. Elder, the family physician, was called, and he was on his way to the house Dr. Elder was found, and the two arrived together. It was a sad moment for Dr. Elder, as he glanced at the body told him that death had taken place an hour or more. It was he who had brought Eric Marrotte into the world, and he watched his transition from boyhood into the joys of school life. To the parents, anxiously waiting his verdict, he could only announce the worst—the little boy who blessed their marriage was dead by the assassin's hand.

Over the stricken household a veil may be drawn.

It was not until Sunday morning that the body was taken away to the General Hospital where a proper autopsy could be performed.

Casualty examination of the wounds was made at home, in order to give the police an opportunity of judging whether or not a murderer should be sought. To the police and police it seemed impossible that so foul a murder could have been committed. What object, they asked each other, could any man have in taking the life of an innocent child. It seemed at first that the little fellow must have met with some terrible and unexplained accident.

The hole in each side of the neck might, it was thought, just for a moment, have been caused by some sharp stick or tool piercing the neck right through. Could he not have fallen from the bricks upon the instrument of death? But how had the instrument been removed? Again, the wounds showed clearly, upon examination, that each had been made by the point of the weapon—neither was an exit wound. The doctors' skill also showed that the wounds did not meet; that each was as distinct as if it were made.

There was not the slightest doubt as to the fearful truth. Dr. Elder's verdict was that the murderer was the fearful truth—murder of the foulest character was done between six and seven o'clock, on Saturday night.

POLICE INVESTIGATIONS.
Chief Harrison took hold of the case at the outset and did not know what rest was until thirty hours later. The most careful examination of the scene failed to give the slightest clue. The night was anything but bright, and the heavens threatened rain every moment. Diagonal lines from the vacant lot is an arc electric light, but this only served to throw a deeper shadow from the brick pile upon the actual spot where the boy died.

It is a lonely neighbourhood. The Canadian Pacific tracks run parallel with Hillside avenue, there being houses only on the north side of the street. In some districts the corner would be considered dangerously lonely, but in quiet Westmount characters such as Hansen do not congregate. There is, however, always the chance that a tramp may drop off a freight as it slows up in passing into the city, and this idea early took possession of the police.

With the first sprinkle of rain it was decided to take no chances of having foot-prints or other clues obliterated, so waterproof covers from the police station were brought, and the ground under the shadow of the brick pile was covered. Then policemen stood guard to watch that the rain did not wash away the marks.

THE MURDERER "REPORTS" HIMSELF.
At nine o'clock yesterday morning the policeman on duty on Notre Dame street, near the Court House, was addressed by a man who asked him in slightly broken English if he could tell him where he could find a police station. On being told that the most important police station in the city was almost immediately across the road, the man said "Thank you," and started at a good gallop.

He entered the station, and Sergeant Poulin, who was on duty, asked him what he wanted. In true military style, he stood to attention, and saluted the officer as he said:
"I want to report myself. I want to be locked up. I have committed a murder; where, I don't know, but in a place near a square somewhere just outside the city I have killed a boy."

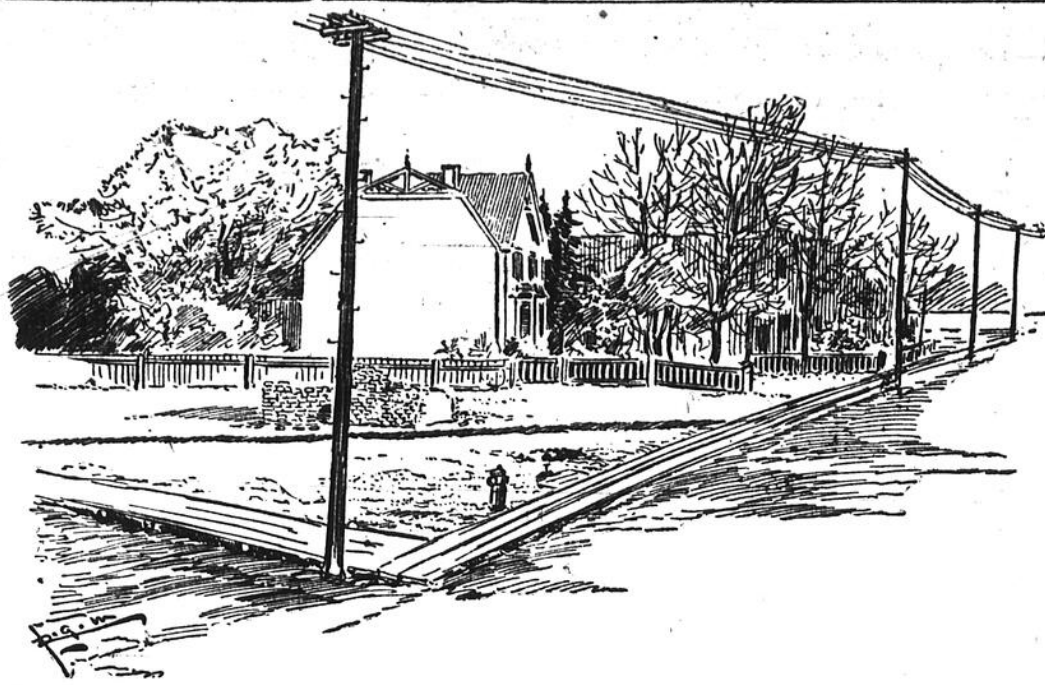

It is but a few moments ago that a man walked into the Central station, and declared that he had committed murder. Investigation showed that there was not the slightest truth in his story, and after examination he was turned loose. It looked like another case of the same kind, but the officer decided to hold the man, and make investigations. To questions put to him, the man said that he had met a boy and as the latter would not give him what money he had he had killed him with three blows; one in the stomach, and one on either side of the neck under the ear.

So straightforward was his story that it was at once feared that he was speaking the truth.
Detective MacCaskill was informed of the facts, and Chief Carpenter detailed Detective O'Keefe to at once commence work. The closest enquiry of the self-confessed murderer failed to get the boy's address, as to the whereabouts he had committed the crime. He said that he had absolutely no idea except that judging by the distance he had walked he felt sure it was a little outside the city, and, in addition to this, he had been unable to find a saloon at which he could buy a drink. While this certainly suggested Westmount, either officer could scarcely credit that such a crime had been committed in the quiet suburb.

It was thought best to first find out if there was a body at the Central station, and Detective O'Keefe left on this mission.
STORY TOLD TO THE DOCTORS.
It was thought best that the autopsy should be made at the hospital, and the little victim's body lay on the slab ready for the operation when the detective arrived. The official autopsy was to be made by Dr. Wyatt Johnston, but, as family physician, Dr. Elder was present. Though there could be no doubt that Dr. Elder's first examination had brought out the fact that foul murder had been committed, the absence of motive and the youth of the victim staggered the doctors into believing that there still might be some chance of accident.

They were quite prepared to have a detective enter the room, and ask them for particulars as to how the boy was killed, the position of his wounds and other information that would help in running down the murderer, but when all this information that detectives generally seek, was hastily given to them, it was another staggerer, and that for the moment drove them to asking what it all meant.
Detective O'Keefe said: "The boy is about eight years of age. He has a wound in the neck, and has been stabbed on each side of the neck near the ear. The deed was done a little before seven o'clock on Saturday night in a vacant lot, just outside the city limits."

Then the detective told the physicians of the man who had given himself up, and of the partial confession he had made.
"BACK TO THE PLACE OF CRIME."
Chief Harrison was informed of the arrest, which was formally made on Mr. O'Keefe's return to the Central Station, and the chief was not long in getting down town. It had been an anxious night and the mystery now seemed about to be cleared up.
Hansen was at once taken out to Westmount, and he expressed a desire to tell all that he could about himself and his crime.
In appearance he did not look like a mur-derer as he took his seat in the Westmount police station. He stands about five feet six inches in height and weighs about 160 pounds. His high cheek bones, small nose, blue eyes and fair hair, what little there is of it, denote the Dane. A moustache just turning gray was tucked and twisted as he told the fearful details of his crime. This action, it might be mentioned, was the only sign of nervousness. On his right hand thumb nail and on his shirt sleeve there was blood, and this seemed to give him much annoyance as he stated that he thoroughly washed off all stains of blood at a horse trough shortly after the deed.

Chief Harrison told him that he was not obliged to say anything whatever about the crime, as anything that he did say would be taken down in writing and used against him.

He declared that now he had given himself up to justice he wished to tell all the facts, and he was willing that his statements should be taken down in writing and he would sign it.

HANSEN'S CONFESSION.
Following is his confession in full: "My name is Thorvald Hansen. I was born in Copenhagen, Denmark, and am 35 years of age. I have never been married, and have roved over the world all my life. I left Copenhagen at an early age, and went to Wick on the north coast of Scotland. This was in 1888, and while in Wick, I joined the 72nd regiment of Highlanders. With them I spent five years in India, and while in Rawul Pindie, I was discharged on the expiration of my term. In 1893, I went home to Copenhagen, where I visited my parents. Since that time I have had no communication with them.

"I returned, however, to Copenhagen about three years ago, but they did not know anything about my visit, as I was sent to jail for six months for theft, and that for the moment drove them to asking what it all meant.
"When I was dismissed I had about ten dollars coming to me, and I bought a ticket for 22 for Montreal, and got here on Friday last, and during Friday and Saturday I spent about four or five dollars in whiskey and beer. Friday night I slept in an hotel somewhere in the city, but I have no idea where it was, I did not register, and they did not write my name for me. I paid 25 cents for the bed.

CUPIDITY HIS MOTIVE.
"On Saturday I walked about all day long, and had nowhere at all to go, as I did not know anyone. Towards evening on Saturday I walked out in this direction, but I don't even know the name of the place that I am in. When it commenced to get dark I was walking along the sidewalk near to a vacant lot, and I saw a boy crossing the lot. He was jingling some money in his pocket, and I thought he might have quite a lot, so I met him on the lot and asked him for it.

"He wouldn't give it to me, and I grasped him by the throat. I pulled him behind the bricks, and getting out my knife, I stabbed him three times. Once I cut him in the stomach, and twice in the neck. "I then left the body on the ground, and walked away without anyone seeing me. I walked for some time, and then stopped at a horse trough and washed all the blood off my hands.

After the statement of his crime Hansen was taken to a cell in the Westmount station where he passed the night. He had nothing to say to the guards, but sat as a man in a trance.
RELIEF OVER MURDERER'S ARREST.
All news travels fast and it was not long after the finding of the little fellow's body that all Westmount knew of it. The mystery which surrounded the murder all Saturday night and well into Sunday resulted in discussions in almost every household as to what should be done for the safety of the children of the town. The possibilities of the fiend maintaining his freedom and being at liberty to murder the first child that he met were fearful to contemplate.

It was therefore a great relief to every one when the rumour spread that the man had given himself up to the police and that there was no doubt whatever that he was the murderer.

HANSEN EXPRESSES REGRET.
Late last evening Mayor Lighthall suggested that Hansen might like to see a minister, and when the murderer was asked the question he replied in the affirmative, it being understood that whatever passed between himself and the clergy, of a private character, should be held sacred. Hansen said that when he was in the army he attended the Presbyterian church, and he preferred a pastor of that denomination.
Rev. G. F. Johnson, pastor of St. Andrew's church, Westmount, was sent for, and he spent some time in the man's cell. During the conversation Hansen asked the minister to express his sorrow for the deed he had committed.

LOOKING FOR THE KNIFE.
In order to properly prepare his case for the courts Chief Harrison is very anxious to find the knife that Hansen used, and according to his confession threw away about an hour after the deed was committed.
By close questioning as to scenes in the neighbourhood of the spot where Hansen says that he washed his hands, the Chief has discovered that it was at the horse drinking trough on St. Catherine street, near Western square. It is quite evident that the man then continued his way in the opposite direction to the scene of his crime, and as he says that he threw the knife away after the washing of his hands, it is evident that the instrument is somewhere east of the square.

All the morning policemen have been raking gardens, lots and alleys ways in the hope of finding the knife, and they will not quit until it is found or a thorough search proves fruitless.
Chief Harrison suggests that citizens would aid justice if they would cause a search of their gardens or grounds to be made. There is every reason to believe that the evidence has backed up his stories so far.

Hansen has shown no sign of sorrow beyond the expression to the minister, and after the Reverend gentleman left him he laid down in his cell and soon asleep. He awoke as peacefully as though he were still innocent of foul murder, and at six o'clock was allowed to have a good wash. Then he ate a hearty breakfast.

HANSEN'S QUEBEC RECORD.
A special despatch from the Star's Quebec correspondent reads as follows: "Andrew Allerton, steward of the Chateau Frontenac states that Thorvald Hansen was employed there for a month and a half. On September 9, a telephone message was immediately sent to the immigration office for man, and Hansen was sent. He was one of the best hands the house had ever had; sober, industrious, respectful and willing, never spoke to anyone about himself, and interfered with no one. He gave his nationality as Danish, and said that he was just out from his home, being brought out by a ship captain. On October 24 he came back to work, after having missed the day previous, and as he could give no good reason, and bore marks of having been intoxicated, he was at once discharged. He quarrelled with no one, being peaceable and quiet, and great surprise is manifested by all employees of the hotel at the news of his crime."

LITTLE ERIC WAS A FAVOURITE.
Playmates of the victim of the assassin say that he was one of the dearest children that ever lived in Westmount. His disposition was such that he was a favourite with all, and though not nine years of age, he had begun to exhibit an interest in things that puzzled much older boys. He was the son of Mr. Samuel Marrotte, of the firm of Marrotte, Leblanc & Co., the spice mill owners. Mrs. Marrotte was a Miss Murray, daughter of Mr. S. Murray, the forist. There were four boys in the family. Two were older than Eric and one younger.

W. J. SIMPSON SHOT; ON A HUNTING TRIP AND DIED NEXT DAY FROM FAILURE OF THE HEART

Caused by the Shock to His Nervous System by Wound Which in Itself Was Not Necessarily Fatal.

On Saturday morning Mr. W. J. Simpson, ex-M.L.A. for Argenteuil, and a party of friends left Lachute for De la Ronde's land for an afternoon's duck shooting. The party reached the island at 1 p.m.

After dinner and before setting out in their canoes the party were having some target practice with a 22-calibre rifle, when, in some unaccountable way, the weapon was accidentally discharged in the hands of one of the party. The ball struck Mr. Simpson, inflicting a flesh wound in the right side below the armpit. The accident happened at 2 p.m., and in half an hour Dr. Legault, of St. Andrews, was on the scene, and after examination pronounced the wound a trifling one, although the shock to Mr. Simpson's nervous system was considerable.

Dr. Shaw, of St. Andrews, arrived a little later, and confirmed the statement of Dr. Legault. The other members of the party, however, insisted upon the doctors remaining until the party set out for home. Mr. Simpson's condition continued unsatisfactory, and the doctors advised that all remain in Mr. De la Ronde's summer residence on the island until the following day.

This suggestion was acted upon. On Sunday morning Mr. Simpson's condition was considerably improved, and arrangements were made to return home to Lachute in the afternoon. Shortly before 6 o'clock Mr. Simpson walked over to the bed, and lay down, complaining of feeling weak, and expired almost immediately.

The doctors attribute the cause of death to heart failure, indirectly caused by the shock to his nervous system, brought about by the wound received on the previous day. The remains were conveyed to Lachute Sunday evening accompanied by a large number of citizens of St. Andrews and vicinity.

The coroner, Dr. P. Z. Mignault, after making full inquiry into the cause of death of Mr. W. J. Simpson, at ten o'clock today issued a certificate for the burial, in which he says that death was caused by heart failure, induced by a wound inflicted on the nerves of that gentleman, attributing no blame to any person or persons.

Mr. Simpson was about fifty years of age, and he spent some time in the man's cell. During the conversation Hansen asked the minister to express his sorrow for the deed he had committed.
