ROYALS HAVE OFF DAY THEN TACKLE LEAFS; FRENCH GOT RELEASE

Utility Man Given His Unconditional Release by the Management—Purchase of Frank Smith, of Cincinnati, made It Necessary to Cut the List of Players.

Charley French, who has been carried by the Royals this season as a utility infielder, was this morning released unconditionally by the local management and is now a free agent.

Up to the arrival of Cunningham yesterday, French had been playing second base, replacing Purtell, who was moved to short when Hartman was benched by Manager Lush last week.

As a fielding second baseman, French worked well for the locals and had the respectable average of .341. His weakness at the bat, however, caused the management to let him go in order to keep under the regulation number of players required by the league. The purchase of Frank Smith from Cincinnati yesterday made it imperative to release one of the present roster and French drew the pink ticket.

French was batting at the rate of .250, while Hartman, his side partner on the bench, was meeting the ball at about thirty degrees higher. Early in the season Hartman was well up in the .300 class but clumped off to around .250 recently.

Sarnia Deckhand Killed.

Special to The Montreal Star.

London, Ont., June 5.—Word has been received of the death of Charles McLeod, of Sarnia, while on the steamer Colgate, at Erie, Pa. He was struck by an oil bucket, while standing on deck and died soon afterwards.

LONGBOAT BACK INTO GOODSHAPE

Covered Eight Miles in 40.41 in Test Run—Big Race Expected Saturday.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, June 5.—Tom Longboat is back in his old form. The strenuous relay race of May 24 put him on edge, and now that the "weak lungs" spook has been laid at rest, he is going like wildfire again. The Indian did eight miles on Monday night, in 40.41, nearly half a minute faster than Ted Woods, when the latter made his wonderful 15-mile record of 1.18 15 2-4, and Longboat is being called to chase Wood hard in Saturday night's 15-mile event at the Island Stadium. Wood is right on edge, too, and says he will make Longboat run under the world's record to win.

Shrubb also is in great shape, and says he is more dangerous for first money than the Indian.

Queal, the United States crack, is not here yet, but will be in to-morrow.

GRAND TRUNK BILL GOES TO GOV. FOSS.

Boston, June 5.—By unanimous vote the House to-day passed the bill permitting the Grand Trunk Railway to enter Boston. The bill is now up to Governor Foss, who has favored such a measure.

BARTERED HORSE FOR MESS OF ALE POTS.

Penitent Now, He Tells the Judge—No Excuse, His Answer.

Monday last Joseph Fontaine left Terrebonne with a horse and waggon belonging to Mr. Jos. Terrien for the specific purpose of bringing back a load of furniture belonging to a family which wished to desert the city for the summer.

Monday last Joseph Fontaine arrived in Montreal in the early evening very dry, and instead of proceeding to the home of the would-be commuters went to a saloon on Ontario street. The dollar that Mr. Terrien had supplied him with for feeding purposes was promptly liquidated and after getting a fair edge on Fontaine became rather sharp and proceeded to an auction sale where he sold the outfit, horse and buggy for $55. It was worth $250, says Mr. Terrien.

Detective Samson picked him up in St. Vincent de Paul yesterday. He looked penitent before Judge Lafontaine yesterday and admitted having disposed of the horse. He says he would never have done it had he not been under the influence of liquor.

"No excuse," said the Court. He will be sentenced on Friday.

AT THE NATIONAL-TORONTO LACROSSE MATCH.

HELIOS IN FIRST AT LATONIA

Steele Brought His Mount in First—Frederick L., in the Money.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Latonia, Ky., June 5.—The cheap cards offered here daily are sources of much complaint from the public, and the talent will not patronize the course with a poor class of horses entered.

In the third race yesterday Jack Reiger had the distinction of not having a dollar bet on him straight. If a bettor had wagered $3 on him and he had won, the venturesome one would have paid $2,160 to $1.

To-day the weather was clear, and the track fast. The choices in the first race were: Frederick L., Helies and Pericles. Second race, Ralph Lloyd, Yorkville, Counterpart. Third race, Sir Giles, Milo, York Lad. Fourth race, Grover Hughes, The Manager, T. M. Green. Fifth race, Sand Hill, Presumption, Buckhorn. Sixth race, Consols, Spindle, Feather Duster.

FIRST RACE.

Purse $450, two years olds, five furlongs:

Helios, 115, Steele, $5.50, $3.40, $2.10 won.

Frederick L., 111, Byrne, $4.30, $3.20 second.

Pericles, 108, Gans, $2.10 third.

The Grader, Obsession also ran.

SECOND RACE.

Purse $500, two-year-olds, five furlongs:—

Yorkville, 112, Allen, $4.50, $2.70, $2.50 won.

Polly Worth, 105, Goose, $2.70, $2.40 second.

Counterpart, 108, Fain $4.80 third.

Time, 1.01.

General, Ralph Lloyd, Dorlon, also ran.

THIRD RACE.

$500, for colts and geldings, 3-year-olds; 6 furlongs—

Mark A. Mayer, 107, Molesworth, $145.70, $88.50, $22.20, won.

Captain Bravo, Goose, $4.20, $2.80, second.

Sir Giles, 105, Henry, $3.70, third.

Sayville, Chartier, Milo, Tommie Thompson, Yanker, Bonanza, Sickle, York Lad also ran.

FOURTH RACE.

TROTTERS IN HARNESS AT DUFFERIN

Billy Sims Carried Off the 2.14 Event—Third Heat a Close One.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Dufferin Park, Toronto, June 5.—The weather was rather cold and raw for opening of the second day of the Dufferin Driving Club's meeting. Three excellent races were on the card for to-day, and eight horses faced the starter in the opening event, which was the 2:14 class pace for a purse of $500.

A good crowd was present, the Wednesday half-holiday of the store keepers evidently helping the attendance. The first race, scheduled for two o'clock, started on time. Paddy McKinley driven by Rombough broke his sulky when scoring for the first heat which caused a delay.

Summaries:—

2:14 pacé, first heat:

1. Billie Sims, (Noble,) W. Lydon, Hanover.
2. Charm Ward (H. G. Merrill), Merrill and You, Altoona, Pa.
3. Evelyn Patchen, (W. P. Merrill), Merrill and You, Altoona, Pa.

Also started: Elbrino Belle, Billy Shawkey, Paddy McKinley, Nellie Ethon and Vera B. Time 2.20 1-4. Paddy McKinley led early part of race closely followed by Vera B. and Nellie Ethon. Billy Sims came very fast in the last half, as did also Charm Ward. Evelyn Patchen got the worst of the start but made up a lot of ground.

2.20 class pace, first heat.

1. Storm (Crummer) John E. Connolly, Saginaw, Mich.
2. Tommy Direct, (W. P. Merrill) Merrill and You, Altoona, Pa.
3. Fanny J., (Burnham) P. Burnham, Indianapolis.

Alto started; Crescent Simmons, Stroud Boy, Hal Reflect, Mamie Medium, Hal Crandell.

Time 2.20 1-2.

Storm went away in front, with Stroud Boy and Tommy Direct well up, and passed the stand first time bunched. Going down the backstretch Storm and Tommy Direct raced as a team, the others strung out. Storm won the heat by an open length eased up.

2.14 pace, second heat.

1, Billie Sims (Noble).
2, Vera B., (Ray) R. Baird, Hamilton.
3, Charm Ward, (H. G. Merrill).

Time 2.17 1-4.

Charm Ward set a merry clip for this heat with Vera B., and Billie Sims well up. They raced their way to the head of the stretch where Ray took the lead with Vera B. Billie Sims going the overland route made a great finish and won by a length.

2.20 pace, second heat.

1, Storm (Crummer).
2. Tommy Direct, (W. P. Merrill).
3. Crescent Simmons, (Wickert) W. P. Wickert, Springfield, Ont.

Time, 2.20 1-2.

Storm and Tommy Direct raced together; in the first heat and finished that way. Storm won easily.

3—Vera B. (Ray).

Time, 2.18 1-2.

Billie Sims took the third heat and the race in good time by a brilliant stretch drive, and a decidedly close finish.

As in the previous heats Charm Ward set a fast pace with Vera B. always the contender. Billie Sims, however, was best of race and came away at the finish.

2—Tommy Direct (W. P. Merrill).
3—Fanny J. (Burnham).

Time, 2.21 1-4.

Storm won this heat just as easy as he did the other two and thereby gets the race in straight heats.

There were nine starters in the classified trot. Pat White being withdrawn.

First heat:

1, Little Fred (Shafler) P. McEwen
2, Pleasant Jim (McDowall), V. Rountree.
3, Lady Dillon (Sauth) J. Saugh.

Also started: Quaker, Yankee Bingen, Rex Neeley, Dr. Hanson, Laura Pointer, Summer Girl.

Time 2.31 1-4.

Little Fred won the heat and looked the best.

COUNSEL IN DARROW CASE ARE FINED.

District Attorney Mulcted for Contempt of Court.

Los Angeles, June 5.—District Attorney John D. Fredericks was fined $25 and Attorney H. H. Appel $5 for contempt of court by Judge Hutton today following an exciting clash between opposing counsel in the trial of Clarence S. Darrow.

SOME THINGS ABOUT TO-DAY'S DERBY WINNER

(By Francis Nelson, Judge at Blue Bonnets.)

"Tagalie is the first grey winner of the Derby in a hundred years, and the fourth of her sex since the institution of the race in 1780. She is owned by Mr. W. Raphael, who bred her, and gets her color from her dam, a French mare by the grey horse Le Saucy. Her tabulated pedigree is:

TAGALIE, gr.f., 1909

Tagalie		Cyllene
The Other Eye	Le Saney.	Arcadia.	Bona Vista.
Jennie Winkle.	Common	Gem of Gems.	Atlantic
Jennie Diver.	Thistle.	Fornsettia.	Thormanby.
Mr. Winkle.	Isonomy.	Strathcona.	Hurricane.
		Distant Shore.	Land's End.
		Hermit.	Moon.
		Isonomy	Sterling.
		Isola Bella.
		Vista	Macaroni.
		Verdure.
		Bend Or	Doncaster
		Rouge Rose.

Mr. L. Newmann's Jaeger, second, is a boy colt by Eager-Mesange. The third horse Mr. August Belmont's Tracery is American bred, by Rock Sand-Topiary, and his sire himself won the Derby of 1903.

CAPITALS SPRING A SURPRISE

Management Claims to Have Signed Laviolette, Gauthier, Roberts and Degan.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, Ont., June 5.—The Capital management sprang a surprise today, when they announced that they had signed up Jack Laviolette "Dare Devil" Gauthier, Geordie Roberts, Buck Sarazin, Dessault and Jimmy Degan.

Messrs. Alex. Bannerman and Sam Bilsky, owners of the Capital Club, in company with Buck Sarazin and Bobby Pringle visited Montreal last night, and secured these men, they say.

Just what terms were offered them, is not known, but the Caps are positive that they have the men, and that they will be on the field against Cornwall on Saturday.

"We have the money to get a good team, and we intend to go out and get one," said Alex. Bannerman, the new member of the Cap's management.

It is understood that the Capitals are also after Jacobs, the big Caughnawaga Indian, now with the Irish-Canadians, and that they hope to secure him.

With these seven players the locals will have a team of championship calibre once more. It is likely that Gorman, Butterworth, Eastwood and three or four others will be dropped. Gorman is not in condition and is not anxious to play this season, turning out on Saturday merely to help the locals out.

Howard Has To Leave His Hotel

Western Sprinter Ordered Out of Toronto Hotel Because of His Color.

Toronto, June 5.—Ordered out of a certain hotel on Yonge street because of his color, Army Howard, the sensational Winnipeg sprinter, had to seek other lodgings last week while he was in the city preparing for the Olympic trials at the Island. When Howard was given his walking ticket the entire Winnipeg contingent also left, their trainer stating that if the hotel would not accommodate Howard that they would all leave. Tom Flanagan, the local athletic impresario, took the team in charge, the Peg aggregation spending the remainder of their visit at the Grand Central.

The story, which leaked out yesterday is one that will cause the highest indignation. That a Canadian champion, a man who is sure to catch a place on the Olympic team that will represent Canada at Stockholm should be forced to seek other lodgings, is an incident that does not represent the right spirit. Howard, though even if a negro, is a Canadian, and his ability as an athlete and as a man, also his record as a man should be good enough to secure a room in the best hotel in the city, regardless of his color.

Fatal Rioting in Spain.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Madrid, June 5.—One man was killed to-day, and several were seriously injured by civic guards, in rioting at Aller, by the striking miners of the Asturias district.

Fifteen thousand miners are out in the district, and troops were to-day on their way to the scene.

Mr. John A. Allan, B.A., of Aubrey, N.S., has taken the degree of Ph.D., at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

PLATE GLASS SCARED OUT ALL BUT KORMAK--INSPECTOR LESTRADE ONLY CAME SECOND

NEWARK STRIKERS FIGHT POLICE.

Newark, N.J., June 5.—At least six persons were shot and many others wounded by missiles in a street battle here today between 150 striking laborers and the police. Five strikers, a policeman, and a citizen are at the City Hospital, most of them suffering from gunshot wounds.

For the first time during the present meeting, beautiful weather and a lightning fast track were combined to make the fourth day of racing at Blue Bonnets an ideal one from every point of view.

The crowd was the largest of the week day meeting barring Saturday, and appeared to enjoy the sport very keenly, speculating freely on the chances of their respective choices. The first race brought out six two-year-olds in a very open, betting race. Boss and Orowoc were equally in demand at two and a half to one.

Sand Hog opened at two and a half to one and was neglected in the betting, repeating to four to one.

Orowoc, after lying second all the way, moved up to Boss in the back stretch, and coming away easy won by five lengths, galloping.

Boss lasted just long enough to win second money from Sand Hog, who was a comfortable third.

The second race furnished a very close finish between Cliff Stream and Inspector Lestrade. Both horses opened up even money favorites, and there was nothing to choose between the play on either.

Dr. Lorne McGibbon's horse ran a winning race from a poor start, but could not quite get up to Cliff Stream, who won by the smallest of margins.

It was essentially a two-horse race Lounsberry put up a terrific finish on Inspector Lestrade.

Von Laer was third, ten lengths in front of the balance of the field, who were outclassed.

Old Toy Boy came to life again in the third. He was full of running and made a lot of trouble at the post, and as soon as the barrier was sprung, jumped in the lead and was never headed.

Rye Straw finished a good second, snatching second money away from the favorite, Lady Irma, who did not run her race. As good as ten to one could be had against the winner, and he was played heavily for place and show.

FIRST RACE.

For 2-year-olds—

Orowoc, Ambrose, 97, won, 2 to 1, 4 to 5, and out.

Boss, Senester, 105, second, 2 1-2 to 1, even, 1 to 4.

Sand Hog, Butwell, 120, third, 4 to 1, even, 1 to 2.

Sandman, Michael Rice, and Fatty Grub also ran.

SECOND RACE.

Province owned, for 3-year-olds—

Cliff Stream, Ambrose, 92, won; even, out, out.

Inspector Lestrade, Lounsberry, 94, second, even, out, out.

Von Laer, Schuttinger, 114, third; 30 to 1, 8 to 1, 2 to 1.

Tee May, King Cash, Irvin P., Diggs also ran. Salien was scratched.

THIRD RACE.

For 3-year-olds and up, selling; 5½ furlongs—

Toy Boy, Small, 110, won; 10 to 1, 4 to 1 and 2 to 1.

Rye Straw, Lounsberry, 102, second; 2 1-2 to 1, 4 to 5 and 2 to 5.

Lady Irma, Martin, 116, third; 2 to 1, 1 to 2, and out.

Sal Volatile, Ruble, Dominick, Napa Nick, Turbine and Miss Felix, also ran. Arany was scratched.

FOURTH RACE.

For 3-year-olds and upward—

Plate Glass, Martin, 119, won, 1 to 12, out and out.

Kormak, Dunn, 111, second, 8 to 1, out and out.

Time, 1.41 1-4.

Mediator, Frog's Legs and Olamballa were scratched.

FIFTH RACE.

Steeplechase—

Luckola, Pearce, 149, won, 15 to 1, 2 to 1, 3 to 1.

Annum, Noe, 135, second, 1 to 2, out and out.

Wickson, Beamish, 154, third, 2 1-2 to 1, 7 to 10, and out.

CABINET RESIGNS AT LISBON

Vascomellos Ministry Unable to Satisfy Discordant Elements, Retires.

Lisbon, June 5.—The Vasconciellos cabinet resigned to-day as the result of discord between the parliamentary groups, headed respectively by M. Camacho and Alfonso Costa, the latter of which demanded the resignation of the Minister of the Interior.

It is understood that the new ministry will be a coalition of the various Republican groups, with the object of satisfying all parties.

PITCH-IN NEAR M'GIVNEY JUNCTION

Work Train Struck Washout—Four Men Sustained Injuries.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Fredericton, N. B., June 5.—Faulty construction, due to lack of proper engineering superintendence and inspection, is held to be responsible for a bad wreck which occurred on the National Trans-Continental Railway line, about eighteen miles east of McGivney Junction, about noon yesterday.

A construction train from the New Brunswick Coal and Railway at Minto was one to get into trouble. It was engaged in transferring materials and a crew, engaged in the concrete work on stations on line, from No. 73 to No. 80.

While running about 25 miles an hour, the train suddenly struck a washout, the engine remained on the rails, but five or six cars were piled up together, and some of them smashed into splinters.

Those injured were T. R. Campbell of Salisbury, bruised arm and hip, bad scalp wound and injured hand; William Thorne, St. John, several ribs fractured. Austin Swift, (trainman), of Minto, right arm fractured; Fred Delaney of St. John, severe contusions about the head.

More Fighting With The Blacks

Special to The Montreal Star.

Santiago, Cuba, June 5.—The village of Jarahueca has been burned by rebels, after a sharp fight with the small defending force, according to advices brought here to-day by a courier.

Government forces, led by Juan Bell, defeated rebel force at Blanquizal, wounding several, capturing the horses, arms and ammunition, and scattering the negroes.

Special guards were to-day assigned to all railroad trains, because the rebels yesterday fired upon a train bound from Manzanillo.

American Marines Landed.

Caimanera, Cuba, June 5.—Four hundred and fifty American marines, under command of Colonel Lucas were landed this morning at Desco Point, close to Caimanera, from which point they proceeded by train for Guantanamo City. The announced purpose of the movement is to guard American property and not for intervention.

Gossip From Blue Bonnets

Caper Sauce is the class in the first race. Close connections state that this one is fit and ready and with a good boy up should be right there.

Amberite, seems to be the next best. Ondramon seems to show improvement.

As far as the second race is concerned, Buskin ran a promising race Tuesday. Late clockers' reports say that this one may be "the oil in the can," for he has worked fast, and is well in.

Federal seems to be the contender. Black Eyed Susan should be in the money.

For the third race the railbirds whisper that Caught Hill has reeled off three-quarters at daybreak fast enough to say that this bird has been pointed for this race.

Mediator should go well.

Frogs' Legs should run a fair race.

In the fourth race, Jenny Geddes is a horse of high class, and showed well in recent races. Seems to be in a soft spot.

Schorr's entry seem to be in the contending position.

Spellbound should be in the money.

In the fifth race, The Welkin will run an improved race, as the track was too soft on Saturday.

High Hat is the best jumper in Americaand should be a contender.

Bronte should be close up.

Sherwood looks to be the class in the sixth race, and is fast rounding in his old form.

Isabel Caisse is improving.

Carillon will be close up.

It is expected that there will be a surprise in the seventh race.

Servicence has towrought his field on more than one occasion.

Naughty Lad is working well.

Supervisor may be close up.

COLONIAL CRICKETERS TOO GOOD FOR CAMBRIDGE.

London, June 5.—Cambridge University cricketers yesterday made a poor showing against the South Africans. The colonials were all out in their first innings for 139 runs. The colonials ran up a score of 150 runs for 6 wickets. Rain prevented playing in the Australian match.

SIXTH RACE—

Three-year-olds and up. Selling.

King Avondale, Dunn, 113, won, 4 to 5, 1 to 3 and out.

Edith C., Burns, 107, second, 4 to 1, 8 to 5, and 3 to 5.

Blagg, Ambrose, 105, third, 10 to 1, 4 to 1, 2 to 1.

Time, 1.09.

Cooney K., Delightful, Mindora, Plauntess, Ridgland, and Scarlet Pimpernel also ran.

Jim O was scratched.

SEVENTH RACE—

Bertis	2	Naughty Lad	1
Bit of Fortune	3	Golden Treasure
Onrico		M. Cambon
Golden Butterfly		Seconke

SMALL ADVANCE ONLY FEATURE IN THE MARKET

New York, June 5.—The Post's financial review says:—

It was not until the closing hour that the Stock Market showed any signs of real activity to-day, but the trend of prices was upward all day, and towards the last the advance became more general and decided, with rather a substantial increase in activity. Closing prices were generally near the best, though the movement was plainly enough the result of professional operations.

Reading and Lehigh Valley shares, on which recent manipulation for a rise was centred, opened at advances of 1-2 to 1 point, and moved up a point or so further during the day.

Elsewhere the changes were mostly fractional during the greater part of the day, except in some inactive stocks and the market was actually very dull.

Buying, which pushed prices up, was perhaps equally divided between re-purchases by last week's "bears" and orders from professional traders who were testing the market's general tendency.

There was little talk of outside influences. No one discussed the Cuban situation which, under other conditions on the Stock Exchange, might have been the focus of excited conjecture. Little was said of presidential politics; less still of to-morrow's beginning of "money trust inquiry" in this city.

The weakness in both grain and cotton markets was in some respects the most interesting movement of the day. Returns of the country's iron production for the month of May showed, as was to be expected, continued expansion in that industry.

MAKE HOT ATTACK ON CONTROLLERS IN CITY COUNCIL

Little Business Done While Fractious Aldermen Discuss Paving Reports.

The striking feature of the meeting of the City Council yesterday was once again virulent attacks on the Board of Control by a section of aldermen. The leaders are Ald. Mederic Martin, Tetreau, Giroux and Lariviere.

Controller Ainey was most bitterly attacked by Ald. Giroux because the Board of Control insisted in again sending a report that it could not see its way clear to pay sectionmen overtime, and that they could only give an increase of from $2 to $2.10 a day for these men. Complaints and fault finding also ensued when reports were read asking money for the erection of the new annex to the City Hall; the paving of streets and other measures that the Controllers were anxious to have handled promptly. For a long time Ald. Martin brought the entire business of Council to a standstill by calling "next meeting" to fourteen reports from the Controllers.

Controller Ainey defended the report. "The fact is," he began, "that when compared with other cities it is proven that section men and laborers are not badly treated by the corporation of Montreal. We are actually paying 25 cents a day more for unskilled labor than the Federal Government.

Must Do Their Duty.

"Personally, I would very much like to give the section men $2.25 a day and also pay them for overtime, but this cannot be done. The Controllers must do their duty and spend the city's money in a business like way. The whole trouble about the pay of these men does not rise with them, but with a section of this Council who are trying to make capital out of the subject, and incidentally to try and prove the Controllers are hard-hearted and will not give unskilled labor generous remuneration."

Ald. Lariviere responded to Controller Ainey, remarking that in the old days aldermen who received $800 accomplished as much work as the present-day Controllers, who receive $7,500 a year.

After some general discussion Ald. Giroux entered the fray and his talk contained many references to recent elections. He denied that he possessed an enmity towards the Board of Control. He asserted that Mr. Ainey's election was but the result of chance and denied that Mr. Ainey is a representative of labor.

City Hall Annex.

Before the salary question was discussed a report was read from the Controllers, asking that the sum of $649,000 be voted for the construction of the new annex to the City Hall. It was asked the contract should be given to Mr. Peter Lyall, the lowest tenderer. Ald. Tetreau held that he could see no good of a new City Hall at such a cost, and that the controllers would be serving the city better if they spent the sum in question in public works in St. Denis Ward.

Controller Lachapelle said that if any alderman had not seen the plans it was his own fault, as they had been on view long enough. The report was then carried on a division of 22 to 6.

NEXT WEEK'S SHOWS.

Princess.

The Princess Opera Company will open a season of comic opera at the St. Catherine Street house on Monday, June 17th, with the romantic opera "Princess Chic," by Kirk La Shelle, music by Julian Edwards. Forrest Huff was here two years ago in the title part of the "Chocolate Soldier." Last season he was the feature of "The Rose of Panama." James Stevens, baritone, made a hit as the "Sheriff" in Henry W. Savage's grand opera "The Girl of the Golden West." Jack Henderson was here in the leading comedy part in "The Merry Widow." Charles Gallagher was the leading basso with "Madama Butterfly." Fritzi von Busing, will be remembered as "Marsha" in "The Chocolate Soldier" and two months ago was the star in the "Wedding Trip." Blanche Ray Edwards, was the prima donna with "Madame Butterfly." Bernice Holmes, Harry Lane, Edith Andrews and Charles Hillman are the other principals. The chorus of thirty are from musical companies of the past season. Among the operas to be produced at the Princess during the summer will be, "The Highwayman," "Red Feather," "Belle of New York," "Wizard of the Nile," "Gingerbread Man," and other popular successes.

Orpheum.

The management of the Orpheum theatre announce for the sixth week of their summer stock engagement of the Orpheum Dramatic players, Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett's play, "The Dawn of a To-morrow," made famous in this country by Eleanor Robson, and Miss Gertrude Elliott. The story is out of the ordinary and most interesting throughout. The production which the Orpheum players will use, will include the usual mechanical effects for the wonderful fog scene in the second act. These were secured from the Star theatre, Buffalo, where they were stored, and are already on the way, by express. The patrons will have a nopportunity of seeing several new members of this organization in "The Dawn of a To-morrow."

Francais.

"The House of 1,000 Candles," by George Middleton, will be the offering of the Francais Stock Co. next week. The book created something of a sensation a couple of years ago. Everyone was fascinated by the strange tale, and the play is said to be even more thrilling. The company will be at its full strength with Jack Lorenz and Warda Howard in the leading roles. Two new members have joined the company, Miss Starr and Stuart Fox, the latter getting his experience with such stock companies as the Euclid Ave. Gardens, in Cleveland; Princess Stock, at Des Moines; the Ben Greet Co., and others. Thursday matinee will be the souvenir performances, followed with a reception on the stage.

The authorities of Three Rivers are complaining that pilots are not acting in accordance with the law which forbids those in charge of vessels to pass that harbor at a high rate of speed. It has already been pointed out that by passing through a harbor at full speed, life and property are menaced.—

FIFTY MEN IDLE WHEN FIRE STRIKES THE ROLLING MILLS

Peck Rolling Mills Engine-Room Wrecked by Morning Fire, With $15,000 Damage.

Fifty employes of the Peck Rolling Mills have an enforced holiday owing to fire breaking out in the engine room this morning. The place was badly wrecked but the efforts of fourteen streams stayed progress of the fire and held it in the structure in which it originated, causing damage to the amount of $15,000.

The cause of the fire which is thought to have been the overheating of one of the engines, was first noticed by one of the employes, who immediately called upon his fellow-workers to come to his aid. A hose was put into commission by the men, but proved insufficient for the purpose. The blaze started to make headway amongst the rafters of the building and a call was immediately sent in for the help of the fire brigade.

District Chief Lussier and his men responded to the call, and seeing that the blaze had made considerable headway, and fearing that it might possibly spread to some of the adjoining large factories, sent in a second alarm.

Mill street is a narrow thoroughfare and the presence of forty pieces of apparatus and two hundred firemen blocked it very effectively and temporarily disrupted suburban traffic over the city line of the Montreal and Southern Counties Railway.

Among the apparatus at the fire was the motor-driven steamer from No. 21 station in Craig street, which made the run in record time and was ready for instant use when required.

DERBY WON EASILY BY TAGALIE

Outsider at Eight to One Romped Home with Classic Blue Ribbon—Four Lengths' Victory.

FAVORITE NEVER HAD A CHANCE FROM THE START.

King and Queen Present and Had Notable Reception—His Majestys Horse Fourth.

By Special Cable From Our Own Correspondent.

London, June 5.—The great carnival of th Turf has ended in one decided disappointment. The question everyone asked this morning was:—"Will the King's horse, Pintadeau win?" Remembering the scenes which followed King Edward's victory with Minoru in 1909, there were fervent hopes, especially among the millions of working-class sportsmen throughout England, that fortune might favor his son.

But racing victories in England are not governed by privileges. The Blue Ribbon has gone to a comparatively unknown sportsman, bearing a name better known in a Jewish banking circle than on the English turf, while the second and third places have been won by the horses of two other Jews of banking associations, Messrs. Nenmann and Leopold de Rothschild.

The last-named was formerly a director of the Grand Trunk, and it was as his guest that Mr. Charles Hosmer, of Montreal, recently met King George at dinner.

The outlook on Epsom Downs to-day was most dispiriting, with a pitiless downpour of rain, but it cleared later. The fact that it was to be anybody's victory made it certain that an exceptionally large amount of money would change hands.

Anticipations of a big crowd were amply fulfilled. No fewer than 30 special trains ran from Victoria, taking over 7,000 people, while a great number walked, drove, or motored.

When the King and Queen arrived in time, to witness the first race, they were splendidly greeted, especially by the huge concourse of populace, who formed the background to the representative gathering of rank and fashion. The King wore a grey overcoat with a white carnation in his buttonhole. The Queen attracted admiring eyes by a tailor-made costume of light grey, with a grey hat trimmed with white ostrich feathers.

The Derby crowd to-day is a Quaker's meeting compared with that of even twenty years ago, so orderly have the racing populace become and so entirely absent are the orgies of former years; yet the Derby's hold on the nation is as firm as ever, and not even the motor car invasion has served to obliterate the fashionable four-in-hand and the humbler coster cart.

Tagalie was first away and led by about one length round Tattenham Corner. Two furlongs from home Tagalie still held the lead, and, making the remainder of the running won in a canter by 4 lengths from Jaeger. Two lengths away was Tarcery. The King's horse, Pintadeau, was fourth.

WINDERMERE.

Favorite Was Never In The Running From Start To The Finish

Epsom Downs, June 5—W. Raphael's Tagalie, a hundred to eight shot, ran away with the classic Derby contested in the presence of the King and Queen and tens of thousands of sport lovers to-day. L. Newmann's Jaeger, eight to one in the betting, was second, four lengths behind the winner, while August Belmont's Tracery, against whom 66 to 1, was wagered, in a splendid final effort crossed the line a scant two lengths in the rear of Jaeger. Twenty horses started, and the time of the winner was 2.38 4-5.

The favorite, Sweeper II., was never in the running, and finished seventh. The King's entry, Pintadeau, a sentimental choice that carried a faint hope of success, finished fourth.

It was Tagalie's race from start to finish. Ridden with consummate judgment by Johnny Reiff, the filly jumped off in the lead, followed by Orchestrion, White Star, and Javelin with Pintadeau, Sweeper II., and two others some distance behind.

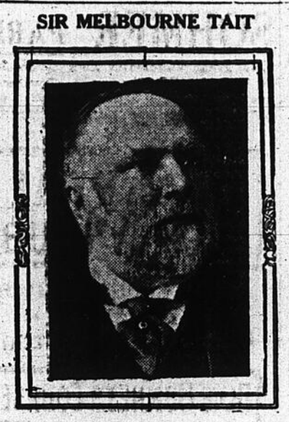

The favorite never showed to advantage. Rounding Tattenham Corner, Tagalie led by half a length, with the field in much the same order as they got away. Two furlongs from home the filly, still travelling in splendid form, had the race at her mercy.

Tracery came through the ruck with a rush, but Tagalie made the remainder of the running, and won in a canter.

Tagalie, at the time a rank outsider in the betting, won the One Thousand Guineas stakes at Newmarket on May 3. By capturing the blue ribbon

SIR MELBOURNE TAIT

CHIEF JUSTICE RETIRES; BENCH AND BAR UTTER REGRET

Sir Melbourne Tait Stood To-Day While Lawyers Sat.

To-day for the first time in a quarter of a century on the Bench, Sir Melbourne Tait stood while a score of judges and hundreds of lawyers sat in their chairs.

It was while Mr. J. L. Archambault, K.C., batonnier of the Montreal Bar, presented to His Lordship their sincerest best wishes for many happy returns of the day. This is Sir Melbourne's 70th anniversary of his birth.

The anniversary comes coincident with the retirement of the Chief Justice, and he was asked to preside for the last time at a function entirely in his honor. When he walked to his seat in Room 24, at 10 o'clock, he was followed by their Lordships Davidson, Laurendeau, Chauvin, Archer, Guerin, Hutchison, Archibald, Tellier, Greenshields, Gervais, Mercier, Demers, St. Pierre, Beaudin, and Delorimier. They took seats on either side of the retiring Chief Justice, and Dr. L. J. Lemieux, the sheriff of Montreal, in his robes of office, who personally made the arrangements for the occasion, took a place beside the judges.

In front of their Lordships sat Prothonotary Girard, and all his deputies. Near them sat ex-Judges Lacoste and Loranger. The big room was crowded with hundreds of lawyers and several came from other cities and towns near Montreal, including Mr. Justice Hutchison, of Sherbrooke, and Mr. George Methot, who represented the Bar of Three Rivers.

Address to Chief Justice.

Mr. Archambault's address dealt at length with His Lordship's kindness at all times to the members of the Bar, and his great love of work. A touching reference was made on behalf of the older members of the Bar who knew the retiring chief when he was a practicing lawyer, and for whom great things were expected. Mr. Archambault dealt with His Lordship's fair decisions in all cases, and he concluded by saying:—

"We trust that the enduring bonds which unite you to the professional body will not be broken in a day and that, in the peace and quiet of a happy and long old age, you will find leisure to devote to a continuance of the friendship which you have cultivated in our midst."

Roses for Lady Tait.

Mr. Archambault then presented two-score American Beauties to Lady Tait, who with a number of ladies, occupied prominent seats.

As Mr. Archambault sat down the entire audience rose. His Lordship gracefully waved to all to resume their seats and said: "I fear that I shall have great difficulty in finding words to adequately express how much I appreciate the compliment you have paid me."

To his confreres on the Bench and to the members of the Bar he paid a fitting tribute and made special reference to the kindness shown him by Sheriff Lemieux. For the prothonotary and all officers of the Court House he had a word of thanks, and he concluded by wishing Bar and Bench all prosperity.

CHARGED WITH FORGERY OF NOTE ENDORSEMENTS

Case of Saville Garraway Was Before Court To-Day.

Mr. Justice Gervais had before him to-day Saville Garraway, former manager of the Wire Goods Company of Canada, charged with forgery of endorsements on notes amounting to nearly $5,000.

Mr. G. L. Ogilvie swore his name had been forged.

Mr. F. J. Sherman, assistant general manager of the Royal Bank, related how he had received the notes produced by Crown Prosecutor Walsh from Saville Garraway, and that the latter had discounted them and received the proceeds. The two specific charges are for one $4,250, and another $250 note.

Owing to the lengthy objections of Mr. Maurice Alexander for the defence the case will probably not be concluded before late to-morrow, and the Cummings trial will have to be further postponed.

THE COUNCIL OF ARTS AND MANUFACTURES.

Annual Meeting and Exhibition at Monument National.

The annual meeting of the Council of Arts and Manufacturers, will take place next Tuesday, in the offices of the Board, Monument National. Members of the Council from all parts of the province, where schools are established, will be present. They will first inspect the work placed on exhibition, present the annual report, and proceed with the election of officers for the year.

They will also attend the public distribution of prizes to the Montreal pupils to be held in the evening.

An excellent musical programme is being prepared by Prof. J. J. Goulet for the evening.

Circulations of Leading Canadian Dailies

The Winnipeg Telegram Issues a Statement Showing Relative Positions of Twelve Leading Canadian Journals.

The Winnipeg Telegram publishes a statement of the circulation of The Montreal Star and eleven other prominent papers of Canada, by which, taken in connection with the published admission of other papers, it proves that The Montreal Star's circulation is greater by many thousands than the entire combined circulation of all the other English papers in Montreal, and 55,000 a day greater than that of any other English paper in Montreal. The Telegram has, in a measure, done a public service in publishing figures, and it would have done greater service if it had told the whole truth. However, it is never too late to amend. The Montreal Star claims that The Star's position is much stronger than The Telegram's figures indicate that The Star's circulation in Canada for the past year has been greater than that of any Canadian paper extant, either French or English, and that The Telegram's figures, while interesting and complimentary to The Star, fall far short of the truth. The Star claims that the Winnipeg Telegram has been misled, and fully believes The Telegram will wish to correct its mistakes. The Montreal Star feels that the Winnipeg Telegram may be acting in perfect good faith in the matter, and should have an opportunity to prove its bona-fides.

The Star invites The Telegram to send its own representative to Montreal to investigate. It will have the assistance of the best chartered accountant in Montreal. If The Star is wrong, it will pay the entire expenses, including cab in Winnipeg, railway fares, meals and hotel bills of the Winnipeg Telegram representative, who will be expected to publish the figures of circulation as he finds by investigation. If The Telegram expects the public to believe its own statements of its own circulation, it will be only too glad to have such a favorable opportunity.

The Star hereby claims that The Star, as far as Canada is concerned, is paramount, having a total daily and weekly ahead of all others. Will The Telegram dare to investigate, and thus prove its claim to public confidence, or will it shirk its duty, as have so many papers? The Star offers to defray the entire cost, and we will give the result of the finding full publicity.

Here's The Telegram's chance.

DR. LACHAPELLE SAYS HE WILL RETIRE FROM CONTROLLERS

Tired of Everlasting Fault-Finding of Certain Aldermen.

Controller Lachapelle, who has practically been head of the Board of Control since the retirement of Mr. Wanklyn, and whom it was thought certain would consent to be re-elected for another term to the Board, made the statement to-day that on account of the everlasting fault-finding of a section of the City Council against the Controllers, he would certainly resign from the Board at the end of his term.

"On no consideration will I again consent to be a candidate," he said, with much feeling.

This decision on the part of Mr. Lachapelle was much regretted to-day among various heads of departments, who had hoped that now Mr. Lachapelle had such a wide knowledge of municipal affairs, he would not retire in a little over a year's time and leave the administration to possibly a new Board of Control, who would for many months have to devote their time to learning the rudiments of the city's government. What is still more serious is the knowledge that other Controllers will not consent to remain now Mr. Lachapelle has decided to retire.

In explanation of his contemplated action, Controller Lachapelle said it was quite plain that a section of the Council had set itself out to block the work of the Controllers in every possible way. If they succeeded in delaying public works they would then go to the electorate and claim that the Controllers were incompetent, seeing it was late every summer before paving works and other works were started.

"Ald Martin and others," said Mr. Lachapelle, "will never rest until they can create an impression in the minds of the electorate that administration by a Board of Control is a poor system of government, and until they have the old committee system back again. Every one of the controllers have administered the affairs of the city in the most upright manner and have given the city a good administration, but all this is bitterness to the men who want to see the Board of Control killed. It is quite plain to me that the time must come when the citizens will have to decide between this dual system of administration. It certainly leads to endless difficulties now. All of the controllers' work has to be submitted to Council for approval and it is here where the difficulty comes in."

"Then you think that it would be wiser for the electorate to do away with the City Council and to be governed by a Board of Control?"

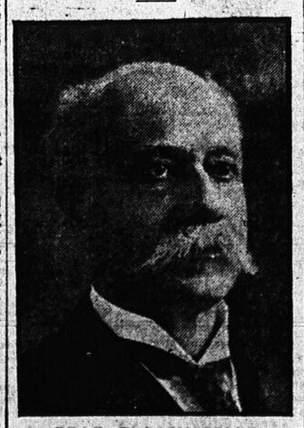

"It is this very subject that the electorate will have to decide. Ald. Martin makes no secret that he is out to kill the Board of Control. In this he has followers. With such a condition of affairs how can the city's business be carried on in a satisfactory manner?"

DIOCESAN FUND.

Active Campaign is Now Postponed Until October.

With donations amounting to $150,876 in cash and promises and $27,000 actually in the bank, the campaign for raising a Montreal Diocesan permanent Fund of $250,000 has been suspended until October 1. That is to say, the active re-organized canvas which was to have been started this week has been deferred till that date, but in the meanwhile the canvas will be pursued quietly.

CONTROLLER TO RETIRE.

PHYSICIANS ISSUE A FAVORABLE REPORT ON DUCHESS' CONDITION

"No Undue Anxiety" is the Tenor of Their Report in Official Bulletin—H.R.H. Stood the Journey from Quebec With Great Fortitude—Awaiting Developments.

The following bulletin was issued at ten o'clock by Lieut.-Col. Lowther, Chief of H. R. H. Staff:—

"Her Royal Highness, the Duchess of Connaught passed a comfortable night, having borne journey well. Her condition this morning is satisfactory and does not give rise to undue anxiety.

(Signed),

A. E. GARROW, M.D.
W. W. CHIPMAN, M.D.
E. S. WORTHINGTON, M.D.

"Resting easily," was the announcement made at the Royal Victoria hospital this afternoon in regard to the condition of Her Royal Highness, the Duchess of Connaught, and all indications bears out the official statement issued this morning to the effect that there is no immediate cause for alarm.

Arrangements had first of all been made last night for Princess Patricia to spend the night at the hospital in an apartment adjoining the private ward of Her Royal Highness, but as no untoward effects were noticed as a result of the journey from Quebec, this was considered unnecessary and both His Royal Highness and Princess Patricia spent the night at Lord Strathcona's residence.

Early this morning, however, Sir Edward Clouston's car, which has been placed at the disposal of the vice-regal party, was summoned to the front door of the residence and at 8 o'clock the Duke or Connaught stepped into the Limousine and was driven to the hospital where he remained for an hour, returning to Lord Strathcona's residence at 9.15.

No Cause for Anxiety Is Indicated.

Princess Patricia spent the forenoon in Lord Strathcona's residence, leaving at noon in the auto for the hospital where she will spend the afternoon with Her Royal Highness. The fact that the Duke of Connaught paid a comparatively short visit to the hospital and that the Princess did not leave till near the noon hour bears out the impression that no particular anxiety is being felt at present.

As soon as Princess Patricia stepped into the waiting automobile at the front door of Lord Strathcona's residence, His Royal Highness came out bareheaded, walked down the front steps and leaning inside the car, gave an additional message for Her Royal Highness.

His manner certainly did not indicate worry. He was smoking a cigarette and he waved his hand airily to the Princess as he stopped a moment and watched the car departing for the hospital.

A few moments later he again walked out, this time for a stroll, accompanied by one of his staff and walked briskly along Dorchester street west, for a constitutional before luncheon.

Duchess is in One of Beautiful Suites.

Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Connaught, occupies a suite in Private Ward L of the Royal Victoria Hospital, which is one of the most beautifully situated wards in the hospital, being situated on the fourth floor at the north-western angle of the building, giving a beautiful view of the mountain, the western grounds of the hospital profusely decked with flowers, and Raven's Crag rising on the eminence beyond. This and adjoining private wards of the hospital in the west wing of the institution, possess the ideal situation and the refreshing air from the mountain slopes.

One of the earliest visitors admitted to the Duchess of Connaught this morning was Sir Edward Clouston. As he had placed his motor at the disposal of the Duke of Connaught, he himself arrived and departed in a cab, only remaining at the hospital a short time.

Consultation Took Place at the Hospital.

Dr. W. W. Chipman was called in this morning in consultation with Dr. Garrow in regard to Her Royal Highness and his name is, therefore, added to the official medical statement issued this morning to the effect that Her Royal Highness had spent a good night. It was announced at noon that there would be no additional official statement given out until this evening.

Miss Pelly, one of the ladies-in-waiting, spent the night near the Duchess, but spent most of her time this morning at Mr. H. V. Meredith's residence nearby on Peel street, where she had breakfast and luncheon. Captain Worthington, of the Governor-General's staff, is also staying at the hospital.

At Lord Strathcona's residence, while no particular anxiety is felt, a subdued air is noticeable among the staff in contrast to the time when the vice-regal party was here first last autumn, it being apparent that Her Royal Highness' indisposition has cast a shadow over the household, just as it has led to the cancellation of all social engagements.

ENTRY TO MONTREAL QUICKENS SYMPATHY OF THE ONLOOKERS.

Royal parties have made many an impressive entry into the city, but it may be doubted if any have made an entry that so touched the imagination and quickened the sympathy of the onlookers, as that noiseless, shadowy procession on the way to the hospital on the mountain side, to which rich and poor alike go for succor.

Her Royal Highness's arrival in Montreal last night was witnessed by only about a score of people, the Canadian Pacific officials having observed the greatest secrecy, in order to ensure quietness for the occasion.

The special train bringing the Royal party arrived at the Windsor street station just after 9.30, but instead of being brought into the station proper, the Duchess's car was backed on to a freight siding on Osborne street. Here, hidden away in the darkness behind the station buildings, half a dozen automobiles, and the Royal Victoria hospital motor ambulance, flying the Red Cross flag, were in waiting. Sir Edward Clouston, Lady and Miss Shaughnessy, and Mr. Fred. Shaughnessy, were the only frends of the Royal party to meet them at the station.

Royal Patient Sleeps During Part of Journey.

It was perhaps a quarter of an hour after the arrival of the train before the Royal patient was brought forth on a stretcher and placed in the waiting ambulance. Although the journey from Québec was made in five hours—a fairly fast run—Her Royal Highness, who was resting on a bed in the stateroom of the car, had slept for most of the journey, and she was not disturbed until the train was actually in the station.

H. R. H., the Duke of Connaught was one of the first to alight from the train, in order to see to the arrangements, and inspect the ambulance that was to convey the Duchess to the hospital. Everything being to his satisfaction, he himself went in with the servants and helped to carry the stretcher bearing the Duchess from the train to the ambulance.

Meanwhile, the Princess Patricia had alighted from the train, and stood with the ladies-in-waiting at the end of the car to see her mother brought forth.

The few spectators who were present were kept at a distance, and all they could see was some shadowy figures moving about in the gloom. Those permitted inside the police cordon, however, could plainly recognize the Duchess by the light of the train and the automobiles. She was lying easily on the stretcher, and did not appear to be in any pain.

MORE DICTIONARIES ON SATURDAY NEXT.

Next Saturday, June 8th, The Star's Third Dictionary Sale will take place. Another car load of the NEW ILLUSTRATED WEBSTER DICTIONARIES, full limp leather cover, illustrated in color and half-tone, 1200 pages, will be offered to Star readers at 98 Cents each, with the guarantee that the money will be refunded if the Dictionary is not entirely satisfactory to the purchaser and as represented by the publishers.

Country Orders for The Star's Dictionary Now Being Filled

The Star's great Dictionary Sale in the city has been suspended to give our staff an opportunity to fill a large accumulation of out-of-town orders. The Star's Dictionary is admitted by even the trade to be of an immense value, and they are amazed that such a work can be sold at 98c. Star readers in the country should have the opportunity and we are going to try to give it to them. The price by mail or express is $1.20. The next few days will be devoted entirely to filling promptly all orders from out-of-town readers.

MONTREAL TELLER IN KINGSTON BANK SHORT IN ACCOUNTS

Shortage is Two Thousand Dollars, Bank Says, Which Only He Can Explain.

Harold G. Arthur, a young Montrealer occupying the position of teller in the branch of the Merchants Bank of Canada at Kingston, Ont., has been missing from his post since last Thursday night and his present whereabouts are unknown.

Following the arrival of Inspector Patterson at the Kingston office, to make his annual inspection of the branch, young Arthur was plainly agitated and on the evening of the day the examining official entered the office, bought a ticket at the local ticket office of the Grand Trunk Railway, for Windsor, and disappeared.

Investigation by the inspector showed that the funds of the Kingston branch were short about $2,000 and cannot be accounted for by the staff of the office.

Enquiry of the movements of the teller showed that he had bought the ticket for Windsor and had left Kingston on an early morning train for that city, which is on the border between Canada and the United States, being directly opposite Detroit, Mich. Whether he reached Windsor has not yet been ascertained by the detectives employed by the guarntee company that had him under bond to the Merchants Bank.

Arthur is twenty-four years of age, and was considered by those who knew him to be a particularly quiet and retiring young fellow. So far as is known, he was not extravagant in his own tastes, but is said to have been rather a generous spender in other directions. Prior to going to Kingston, he lived with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Arthur, at 23 Buckingham Avenue.

When seen this morning, Mr. Arthur stated that he was of the opinion that his son was suffering from a nervous breakdown and that he was probably somewhere in the neighborhood of Kingston at the present time. He had for some time, his father said, been in poor health and was looking forward to his holidays to build up again. Further investigation, said Mr. Arthur, would show that there was nothing wrong with his son's accounts.

Officials of the head office of the Merchants Bank stated to-day that young Arthur was well thought of in the service and had been in the employ of the institution for five or six years. The discrepancy in the Kingston accounts, they said, were of a mysterious nature. The inspector had reported that the teller's cash balanced satisfactorily, but that there were irregularities which could not be accounted for without an explanation from the missing teller.

Two thousand dollars, the bank officials said, would be the outside figure of the shortage and that the affair was not regarded as particularly serious, outside the disappearance of one of their trusted clerks.

CONTROL CONVENTION OR "BOLT," ROOSEVELT'S PLAN NOW SEEMS TO BE

His Change of Front in Regard to Root Now Regarded as Opening the Way to a Bolt of His Followers if Root Becomes Chairman—Many Regard a Third Political Party in the States as a Certain Outcome of the Taft-Roosevelt Quarrel—Convention Crowds Already Assembling in Chicago Where Republican National Committee Begins Its Sessions To-morrow—Expected Taft Delegates Will Be Given Credentials in all Disputed Cases.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Chicago, June 5.—The heavy artillery to be used in the battle of the Republicans at the National Convention began to arrive to-day. Nothing has aroused so much discussion as the statement of Robert C. McCormick, just back from Oyster Bay, which strongly supports the rumors of a Roosevelt bolt and a third party in case of Taft's nomination. McCormick says a caucus of Roosevelt delegates will be held here next week, probably in the First Regiment Armory, that the Colonel will be here in active command and will organize his men into a solid fighting body. It will be decided at the caucus whether or not to bolt the convention if the Roosevelt contests are thrown out, and form a third party. Roosevelt is communicating in person with the leaders in every state urging them to bring delegates to Chicago for the purpose of the caucus. In New York, especially, according to McCormick, Roosevelt supporters are urging a third party.

New York Crowd is Sore.

"The New York crowd is pretty sore," he said. "Until we go into caucus we won't know exactly what we will do, but it is going to be a stand-up fight, and were are going to win."

McCormick is chairman of the organization committee of the Roosevelt forces.

The Taft men did not appear to be worried when told of the latest move of the Roosevelt faction. Some of them construe it as an open movement of Roosevelt's to organize for a third party.

The Roosevelt men are counting a great deal on the personal influence of the "Progressive" captain and few of them now doubt he will be on the scene about the time the National Committee meets. The Colonel is said to be planning a spectacular appearance in Chicago.

Two of the most important contests will be over the delegates from Indiana and Kentucky. It is expected that by the time the committee has reached Kentucky, in the alphabetical roll of state contests the Taft steam roller will be working smoothly. The Colonel will time his appearance so that he will be in the midst of things. His entrance will be the climax to the decision of the committee on Kentucky and Indiana and with a "Rough Rider" dash he is expected to project himself upon the committee at the psychological moment and demand a halt of the Taft juggernaut.

The western Roosevelt men wish that the Colonel had not revived his vendetta against Root.

La Follette's Position.

La Follette is going to take a hand in the fracas over the temporary chairmanship. It is pretty certain that he will project a candidate of his own in the field and harass both the Roosevelt and the Taft following as much as possible. There is considerable speculation among the supporters of the President, and of Roosevelt as to the final distribution of 36 La Follette votes in both chairmanship and presidential rows.

The first business the National Committee is to tackle when it gets together Thursday will be to elect Rosewater, chairman, thereby indicating its confidence in him and heading off Howell, the Nebraskan contestant, who wants his job right away. As chairman, Rosewater, who is five feet and three-quarter inches tall and weighs 115 pounds, will call the convention to order. Rosewater hasn't a very strong voice, but he said today that he would do his best to make himself heard. After Rosewater has been elected Howell can come in (by proxy) and present his credentials. Rosewater thinks that ten minutes should be sufficient to dispose of the credentials and Howell. The session up to this point will be executive. After that it will be probably be open to the press.

Chairman New said to-day that he thought consideration of contests would continue all this week.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Washington, June 5—Theodore Roosevelt has never been much of a slave of anything, except possibly of ambition, and his relations to this emotion have been too intimate and familiar to be called servile. Certainly he has never allowed a conventional regard for consistency to handicap his freedom of action. There is, therefore, nothing which needs explaining in his over-night change of mind about allowing Senator Root to be made Temporary Chairman of the National Convention.

Yesterday Mr. Roosevelt said that temporary chairmanship was a poor thing and of absolutely no consequence or importance. If Elihu Root wanted it, (he) the Colonel, would let him have it and much good might it do him or his chief. The convention was already in the hollow of the Colonel's hand; he was going to control it "from the jump," and if anybody wanted to "start something," they couldn't "get busy" too soon to please T. R., see? This brisk, bright and vigorous opinion was duly echoed by the admirable and admiring youths who are the Colonel's brigadiers, aide-de-camps and general organizers, and there you are. It is interesting to note, by the way, that every time Mr. Roosevelt takes a fresh plunge in politics, it is with an escort of new and ingenious youngsters. Not a single member of his first cabinet, and only the youngest and most volatile of his second "tennis" cabinet, which had so many "bully good times," are with him on this, his third venture. The explanation will doubtless entirely depend on the angle from which one views Mr. Roosevelt.

A Political Somersault.

This morning, the whole entourage is even more busily engaged in taking back what it said yesterday. Mr. Root is a snake in the grass, a malefactor and a highly undesirable person. The position of Temporary Chairman is one of the greatest importance and it is the business of every true patriot to see that it goes to some disinterested statesman who sees that the country's only hope is in making Theodore Roosevelt President.

The Colonel himself is so accustomed to these political somersaults that he can perform them without an appearance of effort and as though they were part of the daily programme of every normal and right-minded man, but it is difficult for the boys, who have not yet learned that consistency, is only a jewel when it sets off the policy one is at the moment favoring. At other times it is either vulgarly ostentatious or a crude confession of inability to rise to an emergency.

Nevertheless, the Roosevelt change of front on the Root question was not wanton or without real and deep-seated purpose. Lacking word from the recluse of Oyster Bay as to its real meaning, and piecing together the fragmentary remarks of the zealous, but not always discreet lieutenants, it

ATTEMPT TO DYNAMITE HAAG CIRCUS ELEPHANTS

Special to The Montreal Star.

St. Catharines, Ont., June 5.—While the Haag circus was being loaded on the cars here, at midnight, an explosion took place, on a car containing elephants, three of which were injured. The car was badly wrecked.

The police this morning state that the explosion was caused by either dynamite or nitro-glycerine, placed upon the car roof, and they are of opinion that an attempt was made to kill the elephants.

The noise of the explosion was heard over the whole district. The rest of the train was undamaged, and was able to leave for Galt. Windows were broken in all the houses in the neighborhood.

A former employe, discharged at Niagara Falls, is being looked for.

MURDER CASE POSTPONED.

The case of John Cummings, charged with the murder of his wife, which had been fixed for trial in the Court of King's Bench this morning, was postponed until to-morrow by mutual agreement of Crown Prosecutor Walsh and Mr. Geo. Barclay, who is looking after the interests of the accused.

THE WEATHER

Probabilities: Moderate to fresh west and south winds, fine and cool; Thursday, fine with stationary or a little higher temperature.

Pressure is lowest in the Gulf of St. Lawrence; elsewhere over the greater portion of the continent it is high. Fine, comparatively cool weather prevails in the Dominion generally.

Montreal weather readings by Hearn & Harrison's standard barometer at noon yesterday, 29.74; at 8 a.m. to-day, 29.96; 11 a.m. to-day, 30.00.

Temperature — To-day, maximum 60, minimum 50; yesterday, maximum 73, minimum 59.

Sun rose this morning at 4.37 o'clock, and will set this evening at 7.56 o'clock.

More Olympic Athletes Here---Two New Cups Given For Lawn Bowlers

TWO NEW CUPS FOR BOWLING

M. A. A. A. Club Donates Open Challenge Cups for its Members.

Two silver challenge cups for doubles competition have been put up this season by the President and Vice-president of the M.A.A.A. Bowling Club, and play for them will start some time this week. These are straight challenge cups, and will be open all season.

The skips for the season will be chosen within a day or so, and the match committee are now at work classifying the players. The green at the side of the Peel street clubhouse was never in finer shape. It is in use every evening, and match play will start before the end of the week.

GOOD MATCH IS EXPECTED ON THE SHAMROCK GROUND

Both Montreal and North End Players Will Try Hard To Win.

A good match is to be expected on the Shamrock Grounds next Saturday, when the men of the green shirts play against those of the winged wheel.

The Montreal team, in spite of the loss of Layden and Neville, will be stronger for this return game, than they were for the initial contest. Milloy and Jimmy Hogan, on the home, will undoubtedly make this section of the team more effective, and George Finlayson and Andy Hamilton will steady the defence.

On the other hand, the Shamrocks will be just as strong as they were in the initial contest, and furthermore, will be playing on their own field, the advantage of which in lacrosse, is by no means negligible.

The clubs are tie, each having a win and a loss, and, needless to say, both will work hard to maintain the position.

BRITISH COLUMBIA MEN HERE FOR OLYMPIIC TRIALS

Ontario Athletes Coming Saturday—No Entries from Maritime Provinces.

The five athletes from British Columbia who will compete in the final Canadian Olympic trials which are to be held at the local M.A.A.A. grounds on Saturday next, arrived in the city this morning. Other western men are yet to come.

For some time past it has not been definitely known if men would go down or not, but last night the final arrangements were completed.

Premier Sifton presented the Alberta A.A.A. with the sum of $500 to defray the expenses of three men.

These men who made the trip are Buddo, Mansfield, Decoteau, and their ability is well known throughout the west. The boys are in great shape at the present time, having been working out for some time, and all three may be relied upon to give a good account of themselves.

The men specialise at different distances and their prowess in their respective lines is well known. Buddo works the short distances, Mansfield the middle distances and Decoteau the long distance.

The large Ontario contingent will not be here till Saturday morning. No entries at all have come in from the Maritime provinces and it does not look as if they would be represented.

RICHARD CROKER TO ADOPT ANNETTE KELLERMAN

Desires to Encourage Swimming as Well as Racing, Says New York Paper.

New York, June 5.—A London special to the American says:

Richard Croker wants to adopt Annette Kellerman, the "diving Venus," as his daughter.

That amphibious young woman, over whose grace and lovely curves London has gone half mad, so admitted last night. "Mr. Croker is a dear old gentleman and has been most kind to me ever since we met," said Miss Kellerman. "He has offered to adopt me as his daughter, but I refuse to say whether I will accept his offer."

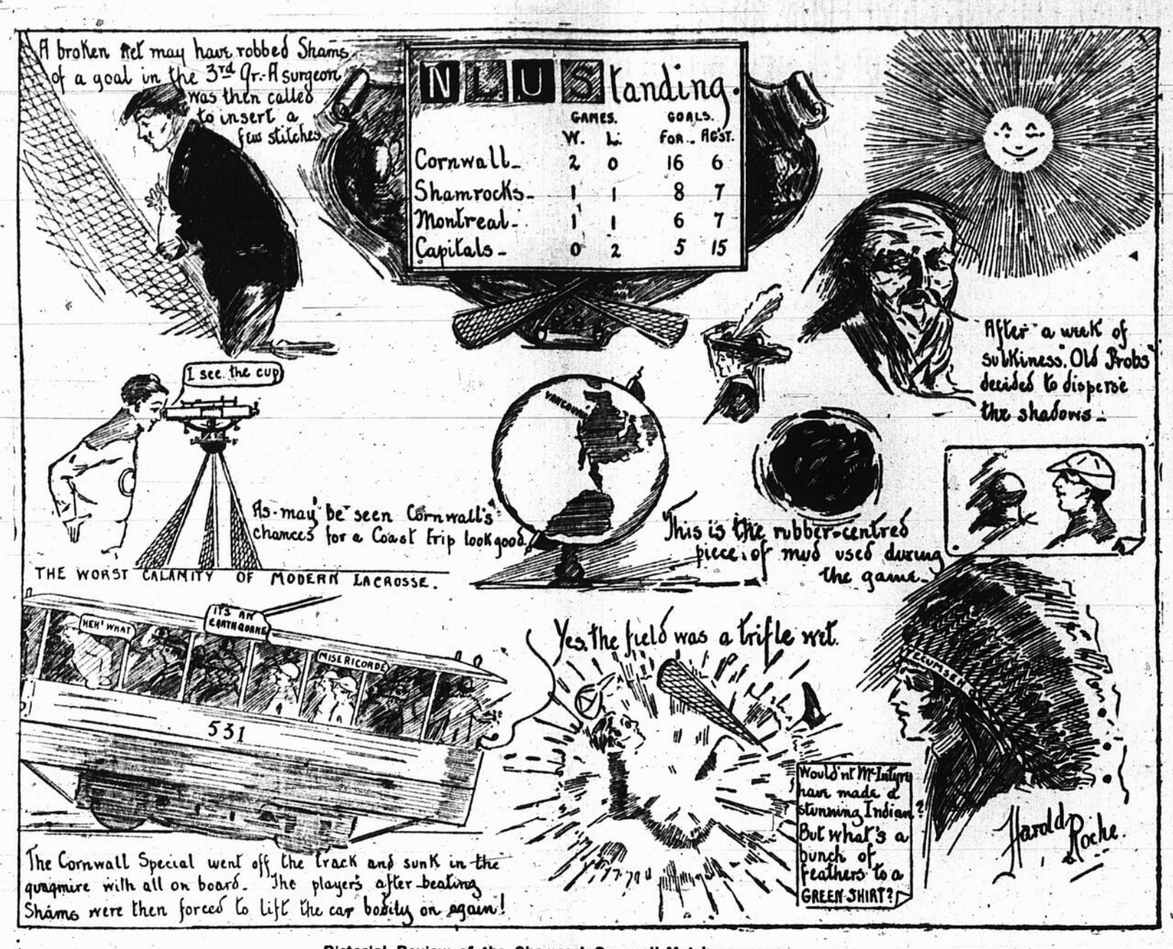

"Whatever Miss Kellerman says, goes," said Mr. Croker, after intently watching her performance at a music hall. She can sign her name for anything I've got."

Maisonneuve F. C.

A general meeting of the above club will be held in the Beaconsfield Cafe to-night at 8.15 p.m. As there are several matters of importance to be gone into a full turn out of members is requested.

Soccer Semi-final Postponed.

The Sons of England-Fairmount match, a semi-final game for the Caledonian Cup, which was to have been played this evening, has been postponed for a week. The grounds, Delorimier Park, were absolutely unfit for play.

Janus (111), Clement			4	4 3	2½	6	50	100	30

Mutuels paid: Early Light, straight $2.40, place $2.65; Marie T., place $3.50.

Early Light, off forwardly, drew away into a commanding lead; was shaken up when Marie T. challenged, but was going away at finish. Marie T., as good as left at post, closed a big gap and ran much the best race of party. Black Eyed Susan ran in spots; is probably a better filly than she showed in this race.

Scratched: Spring Up. Winner entered for $800, no bid.

16—SECOND RACE—One mile; purse $500. For four-year-olds and up, selling. At post three minutes. Start fair, won driving; place, same. Winner, ch.g., a., by Goldcrest—Rose Ban. Trained by W. A. Burttschell. Value to winner, $455. Time—24 3-5, .48, 1.14 2-5, 1.42 3-5.

Mutuels paid: Question Mark, straight $6.75, place $4.00; O'Em, place $17.20; Herbert Turner, show $17.20.

Question Mark, in close pursuit of pace to stretch turn, responded with good courage last furlong, and, outlasting O'Em, got up in final stride; latter used up forcing the pace with Captain Swanson, faltered last few strides. Herbert Turner broke slow, closed big gap, and ran best race of party.

Scratched—Planutess, Endymion II, The Gardner and Lesh.

Overweight—Dutch Rock, 2½.

Winner entered for $400, no bid.

17—THIRD RACE—One and one-eigth miles; purse $700. For three-year-olds and up, handicap. At post three minutes. Start, good; won driving; place, easily. Winner, br.h., 6, by Sain—Appollonia. Trained by E. W. Heffner. Value to winner $660. Time—.25 2-5, .50 3-5, 1.15 3-5, 1.40 3-5, 1.54 4-5.

Mutuels paid: Guy Fisher, straight $16.50, place $5.30; Star Charter, place $2.95.

The race resolved itself into a sprint the last half mile. Butwell outgeneralled Turner. Got latter in a pocket early stages and stole away rounding far turn. Star Charter could not get through until making Light O'M'Life quit last furlong.

Scratched: Col. Holloway. Overweights, Airey, 4½.

18—FOURTH RACE.—Five furlongs. The Kindergarten Stakes. Purse, $1,600. For two-year-olds, selling. At post three minutes. Start good; won easily; place same. Winner, ch.c., by Peep o' Day—Ellangowon. Trained by J. P. Mayberry. Net value to winner, $1,160. Time, .24, .48, 1.02 1-5.

Mutuels paid: Senator Sparks, straight $10.40, place $2.35; Chocorua, place $2.30; Bouncing Lass, show $2.70.

Senator Sparks raced along off the pace until straightened out in the home-stretch; closed stoutly and outgamed Chocorua in final drive. Latter showed good speed for half a mile, but tired badly. Bouncing Lass ran an even race. Arany closed a big gap.

Overweights: Darnia, 9; Fawn, 5. Scratched: Clan Alpine, The Bump. Winner entered for $600; no bid.

21—SEVENTH RACE—One mile; purse, $500. For three-year-olds and up, selling. At post one minute. Start good; won easily; place same. Winner, ch. g., 5, by Silverdale—Etheline. Trained by J. F. Schorr. Value to winner, $400. Time, .24 3-5, .49, 1.14 3-5, 1.42.

Mutuels paid: John Reardon, straight, $5.55, place $2.70; Lad of Langdon, place $2.50.

John Reardon trailed the field for four furlongs; moved up on outside entering home-stretch, and drew away without effort last sixteenth. Lad of Langdon used up setting the pace. Busy stopped last furlong.

Winner entered for $1,100; no bid.

Cock-o'-the-Walk Loudly Acclaimed at Blue Bonnets Yesterday---The Second Race Won by Question Mark Was The Closest

For the first time since the opening of the Spring Meeting at Blue Bonnets the track was good, and while not lightning fast better times were hung up than had been done on the previous days.

Although a large week-day attendance gathered at the popular race course, over four thousand people filing past the gates, compared with the busy appearance which the track presented on opening day and on the King's birthday, the grandstand and betting ring looked nearly deserted.

Three of the seven races were very bitterly fought out at the finish, while the other four were more or less of a runaway.

One of the greatest finishes ever seen at the local tracks was pulled off in the second race when four horses finished heads apart. Question Mark, O'Em, Herbert Turner and Captain Swanson went past the judges' stand so closely bunched together that not until the numbers went up was the crowd satisfied that any of the four had won.

The "mutuels" were again very much neglected. The players do not seem to take kindly to the "French betting system," and after clamoring for the "machines" since the opening of racing in Montreal, the bettors are leaving them severely alone.

In the first race there were only twelve tickets sold on all of the six horses to win. Out of these Early Light was purchased for nine, while the others went to Marie T. and Black Eyed Susan.

The bookmakers again gave the best of the odds in five races out of seven. Cock-of-the-Walk and John Reardon were the only two winners on which the "silent bookies" paid as much as their chatty confreres.

This same Cock-of-the-Walk proved himself to be a classy two-year-old and will have to be reckoned with in stakes for "babies" this year unless he is raced off his feet in the early season.

Trainer Mayberry took a long chance when he sent the Peep-O-Day colt right back to the post after winning on Monday. He responded gamely, however, and won in a very impressive manner.

Feature Race of the Day.

This was the feature race of the day, which last year was won by Little Pal of Sam Hildreth's stable and after Genesta had been scratched the field consisted of four horses only.

Buskin, Cock-of-the-Walk, and Little Hugh were all held in the same esteem by the layers and their price was always two to one to win. The odds varied about their chance to make the place, the winner being sold at 3 to 5, while the others could be had at 9 to 10. Striker was the neglected one at 15 to 1, the bookies being bold enough to give even money to show against the Disguise gelding.

As far as the race is concerned, there was nothing to it. Cock-of-the Walk flying away simply went to the front without being urged by Lounsberry and was never in the slightest trouble, winning right along. Lounsberry was easing him up coming up the home stretch when Butwell began to close in on him with Buskin. Lounsberry just gave the winner his head and he pulled away again without an effort, winning comfortably by a length and a half. The time hung up 1.02 1-5, was within a second of the record for the race, which was made by A. Weber's Tony W. in 1908.

Early Light Won Easily.

Early Light, a prohibitive favorite at 3 to 5, and later at 1 to 2, did not have much trouble in disposing of his field in the opening five furlong scramble. The field was rated as "no account" by the books, and they were liberal enough to offer as high as two to one against it. Six horses went to the post out of a field of seven and two of them could be had at 100 to 1. Captain Elliott was always second choice at 7 to 2 and a poor second choice he proved to be, as he could not untangle himself, running a poor race, never being prominent and finishing behind the long priced outsiders.

The favorite won all the way. The Peep-o-Day colt was lucky to get the best of the start, however, as Marie T. was practically left at the post, made up a lot of ground and only fell back beaten when used up chasing the leader. The little Ogden filly ran one swell race and will earn brackets again before the meeting closes. Black Eyed Susan gave the players one when she failed to beat out Marie T. for the place. On the strength of her performances in her only two starts in Mexico, where she finished fourth in her maiden attempt, and won by a block, equalling a track record in her second, she was played heavily. She only ran when she felt like it, and was sulking when urged upon.

Question Mark repeated when he disposed of a field of thirteen in the second. The old Goldcrest gelding is just about right at present, but trainer Burttchell and owner Sam Louis, can thank Jockey Butwell for taking home all the money.

Butwell's Fine Race.

Butwell rode a magnificent race, rating his mount admirably until the stretch, taking a long chance by slipping through a very narrow opening on the rail with his boot over the fence to escape being crushed and bringing the winner home by a whisker in a great baton swinging exhibition. This finish was just about deadly for bettors troubled with heart disease. In a furious drive all through the stretch, Captain Swanson, O'Em and Herbert Turner were fighting it out head and head. About one hundred yards from the wire, Question Mark joined them and with the four jockeys riding desperately, and the crowd cheering like mad for their respective favorites, the race wound up amidst the greatest excitement of any finish thus far this meet.

There was little to choose between the "nags" at the finish, but the keen eye of the Judges caught Question Mark a nose in front of O'Em, with the latter a nose in front of Herbert Turner, who in turn, whiskered out Captain Swanson for show money.

Star Charter Disappointing Too.

Guy Fisher came to life again in the third race. The Sain horse generally wins at six to one and his victory appeared to be popular with the rank and file although the regulars were sad-eyed and light of pockets when Star Charter could only fetch up second. The bulk of the money went on the winner of the Toronto Cup and all the big commissions were placed on the fast Star Shoot colt. Butwell simply made Turner look like an apprentice in this race. He outgeneralled, outrode, outwitted and outfinished him and won with the second best horse. Turner began to come along too late after he had allowed Guy Fisher to pen up a four length lead upon entering the stretch. Star Charter could never make it up although he responded nobly to the whip and was coming stoutly at the finish under a delayed ride. Bob R. had all the early speed but he died out to nothing. Light-o'-My-Life was never worse nor better than third.

Mr. J. R. Fell and Trainer Frayling uncorked a bottled-up good thing in the race over the jumps, when Highbridge won all the way from the oddson favorite, The Prophet. The latter ran a dull race, never could get up to to the leader and should have been a 5 to 2 shot instead of a 2 to 5. Highbridge fenced in superb fashion, had the foot of the field over the flat and was never in trouble. Under a strong pull for the early part of the journey he opened up a big gap but it was confidently expected that the favorite would make it up but with the winning post only a half a mile away and twenty lengths to be made up, there was a howl of dismay from the backers of The Prophet and although pounded hard by Kermath, he could never make up an inch. Little Earl got the short end of the purse.

Butwell's Skill Again.

Butwell again put one over on his "confreres" when he brought Senator Sparks on the outside home in time to beat out the favorite Chocorua. Butwell kept him off the early pace until the turn for home was made and swerving the Previous colt a little to the outside went to work on him never letting up until he had collared the tiring and leading favorite, winning by a head. Ambrose made too much use of Chocorua. Bouncing Lass ran a good race finishing third from a rather poor start.

Busy failed to get so after the first half mile of the last race had been run and he did not fulfill the expectations of his backers. The winner turned up in Mr. Schorr's John Reardon who, after lying last nearly half the way, swung wide on the outside entering the stretch and came home alone on the far side winning easily and drawing away. Lad of Langdon was the best of the race and would probably have won had Turner used a little more judgment and kept him off the early pace. He had nothing left at the finish. Busy was an indifferent third.

THE DERBY RESULTS

W. Raphael's Tagalie Won.

Epsom Downs, Eng., June 5.—W. Raphael's Tagalie, a little favored horse, won the Derby to-day.

Jaeger was second and August Belmont's Tracery third.

King's Pintedeasau was fourth.

Tagalie, with Johnny Reiff up, won by four lengths.

Two lengths separted second and third horses.

Reiff rode Richard Croker's Orby to victory in the Derby of 1907.

CORNWALL IS GETTING READY FOR CAPITALS

Expect a Large Crowd, as There is a Special Excursion.

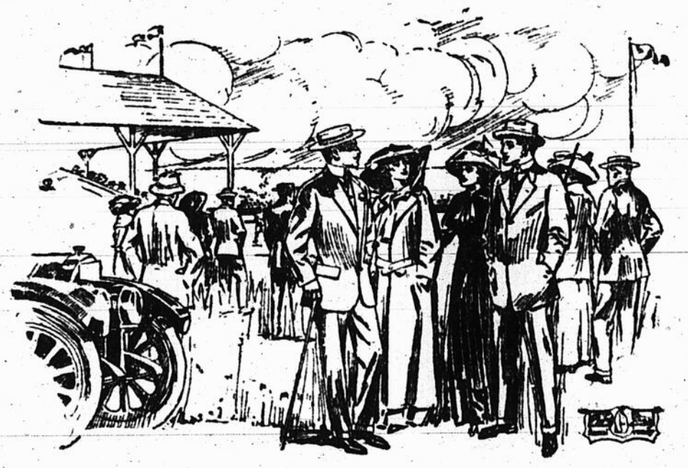

Special to The Montreal Star.

Cornwall, Ont., June 5. — When the Cornwalls go to Ottawa on Saturday next to meet the Capitals in a N.L.U. match, they will be accompanied by a big crowd. Saturday is the day of the Methodist Sunday School excursion to Ottawa and Britannia Park, an event which always draws well, but will do so especially well this year on account of the extra attraction in the lacrosse match. Another matter which will increase the interest in the result of Saturday's match is the fact that the Cornwalls are at present leading in the league, with two wins and no losses. The townspeople are proud of the position the lacrosse boys have attained, and hope they will still retain the head of the league after Saturday's encounter at Ottawa. Not many here expected the Montrealers to trounce the Caps at home last Saturday, as the Senators gave Cornwall a harder game here on May 24th than the figures of 9 to 4 in Cornwall's favor would indicate. Usually a hard team to beat at home, there seems to have been something seriously the matter with the Caps last Saturday, else Montreal would hardly have had such a picnic in landing their six and almost blocking their opponents.

Cornwall is going to try hard to give the Capitals another trimming, but they feel that their success in the previous matches counts for nothing if they do not prepare for the encounter, and they will train for it faithfully. Lacrosse matches cannot be won any longer on reputation. There was a time when the league leaders very often had their opponents beaten before they went on the field, merely through sheer fright of their reputation, but that day has passed. The only way matches can be won nowadays is by going the limit and being in condition to more than stand an opponent's pace. This Cornwall will endeavor to do next Saturday.

It is not likely that the twelve which won the first two games will be changed any in personnel or position. They appear to be working well, and will likely be left as they are.

A team of M.A.A.A. cricketers won a friendly match from an eleven from Verdun Hospital on Monday afternoon, on the hospital grounds. Score, M.A.A.A., 83; Verdun Hospital, 45.

THE BATTLE OF THE GIANTS IS SET FOR NEXT SATURDAY

Nationals and Irish-Canadians Will Meet on the National Grounds.

The Irish-Canadians intend to be in perfect condition when they walk on the field next Saturday to do battle with the Nationals at the big east end grounds. With this end in view a practice was ordered last night, and for every night this week up to and including Friday. The Irish-Canadians realize that this will be one of the hardest contests of the year, as the Nationals are a hard aggregation to beat on their own grounds, and a win over the French-Canadian boys would add greatly to the prestige of the new team. Another factor which will tend to make the struggle a keen one is the fact that the team which wins on Saturday will remain at the head of the league, and once there Manager Kennedy says it will be impossible to dislodge his team, for they are going better every day, and with the strenuous work ordered for this week they should be lightning fast at the end of the week.

The Capital management is evidently bent on improving their team, if the report be true that they have induced Charlie Degan, who left Cornwall this Spring to play with the Montreal Nationals, and Sarazin, late of Ottawa, as well as Dussault and Gagnon, to desert the Nationals and join the Capital team that will face Cornwall next Saturday. The Caps. do not anticipate any objection to Degan from Cornwall, but the Nationals state they will show fight to retain their players. What will come of such a "show" may be judged by the terrorizing exhibition of bluff the East and West attempted to work on each other about a month ago. It all petered out, and so, probably, would the Nationals' attempt to frighten the above-mentioned players. It seems that the N. L. U. and the D. L. U. war is not yet ended.

Griffith looks to be doing pretty well with that Washington Club. He has just made a clean-up of the series at St. Louis and Washington sporting writers say he is bound to finish in the first division.

BASE-BALL

Pretty close to the cellar now.

Wilhelm was as steady as a rock after a bad start in the first inning.

It's a funny old game Joe Yeager don't score a run in.

Cunningham made his first appearance yesterday and impressed the fans. His single scored Yeager with the Royals' only run.

Every man on the Rochester line-up hit safely but Conroy.

Yeager's slip in the fourth inning may have had something to do with Akers' unsteadiness. In any case, Delivelt beat the ball and advanced one base on the wide peg.

Not a man was passed by Akers, and in the seventh inning he pitched but five balls.

For seven out of the nine Montreal batsmen the Rochester outfield played in close. For nine of the Rochester batsmen the Royals played deep.

Joe Yeager has taken a bad slump in his batting. Joe has only made two hits during the Rochester series.

Newark is starting to climb now. They took their second game from Jersey City yesterday and climbed into fifth place.

Pitcher Mains, of Jersey City, had to retire during the game with a broken finger, Kirkpatrick having driven a fast ball back at him.

Buffalo secured twenty-one hits of Bachman's and Steele's pitching at Toronto yesterday, and won a 13—2 victory.

Philadelphia knocked O'Toole off the rubber in the fifth inning yesterday. That high priced heaver is not getting away very well.

It was announced yesterday that Montreal had purchased pitcher Frank Smith from Cincinnati. Smith was formerly with the Boston and Chicago American League clubs.

To-day is an off-day for the Royals and they leave to-night for Toronto.

HUSTLERS MADE IT THREE OUT OF FOUR, TAKING CLOSING GAME FROM ROYALS. MONTREAL SECURES A NEW PITCHER

Our stricken athletes fell victims again yesterday to the voracity (Le greed) of Mr. J. Ganzel's man-eaters from the jungle near Charlotte, N. Y.

The final count-up showed that three out of the last four sanguinary affairs pulled off in our midst lately, three distinct and separate events went to the hosts of the enemy. All that is necessary now to fill our cup of sorrow to the brim is another shove or two on the part of Mr. Kelley's aggregation of pill artists, which is the next force we meet.

When that happens, we shall have a strangle hold on the coal-cellar location in E. . arrow's Hall of Fame.

Yesterday's combat at the ballyard saw our column go down to disastrous defeat to the tune of 5-1 and the appearance in our midst of Mr. J. Cunningham, from the home of Pres. Taft (who tried to pinch Canada). Our new second sacker looked good to the free and independent electors present at the sad event and achieved lasting fame by driving in the lone run we succeeded in putting across. In addition to this act of gallantry, Mr. J. Cunningham disported himself around hisstation to the satisfaction of old and young alike.

It may be unduly early to give a decision, but Mr. J. Cunningham looks the goods and is likely to fill in one of the soft spots in our baseball anatomy. There are several others, however, requiring first aid treatment.

Timely Swats Were Missing.

Mr. J. Akers, one of our new heavers, provided the ammunition in our lines, while Herr Wilhelm, a distant relative of the gent who emperors Germany (where the Wurtzburger comes from) operated for the foe in a like capacity. The difference between the rival dispensers was that Herr Wilhelm mesmerized our peerless athletes when bingles meant runs, while the aforesaid Mr. J. Akers was more considerate of a valiant enemy and permitted Mr. J. Ganzel's forces to bend successfully on the sphere at critical moments.

Our new second sacker brought in our lone tally in the first.

Five runs were collected by the Hustler's in easy style.

Outside of this mistaken generosity, Mr. J. Akers (mentioned above) heaved commendably (i. e. in a praiseworthy manner) and deserved better reward at the hands of fate than a jolt like the 5-1 stunt handed him yesterday. The support accorded the unfortunate artist was also of the punk variety, being decidedly mellow in spots

Several bonehead exhibitions not figuring in the official score (compiled by experts) also figured in the encounter and had a distinct bearing on the success of Mr. J. Ganzel's pirates.

Mr. J. Cunningham Distinguished Himself.

Our lone contribution to the run column came in the opening stanza, when Mr. J. Cunningham (dilated upon above) drove in Mr. J. Yeager by timely tapping the pill on the proboscis (i. e. snout) on his first trip to the starting post. Things looked prosperous in this act after two had fallen by the wayside. With three men occupying the stations along the route (one on each) a wallop with the willow on the part of Mr. J. Gunning would have put the enemy into disorder.

We are permitted to announce exclusively that there was nothing doing in this respect on the part of the aforesaid Mr. J. Gunning.

In the following session, our skilled right-gardener, Mr. C. Hanford, met the pill for two sacks but fell asleep at the switch and was run over the embankment by Mr. Blair, the enemy's clutcher. After this disaster, our crew took to the boats, deserting the sinking ship in mid-ocean.

On the debit side of the column there were a lot of entries in the fourth and eighth pages, seven of the nine swats of the willow-wielders from the Ganzel camp being collected in the acts of corresponding numbers. Several of the stunts of the bonehead variety (alluded to above) and two of the contributions to the error fund were also perpetrated contemporaneously (i. e. at the same time).

Our gifted athletes play elsewhere for a few days, leaving behind them a sorrowing multitude of free and independent electors who had roseate things doped out for the future of the aforesaid budding aspirants for fame in the ball world.

These young hopes, like some of the good things at Blue Bonnets, weren't in the money.

It was announced yesterday by the malefactors of great wealth who control the finances at the ballyard (i. e. the f. t. d.) that a new heaver answering on the roll-call to the name of Mr. Frank Smith had been secured at great expense from Cincinnati. The aforesaid Mr. Smith, (Note: Not to be confused with the gent of the same name who investigated the Titanic disaster), according to the advance notices, is a heaver of great renown and a distinct and valuable addition to our present highly skilled, but unfortunate, mound-artists.

The Varied Career of Our new Heaver.

Mr. F. Smith (mentioned above) is a descendant of the famous Smith family who copped off most of the available cabbage space on the Schr. Mayflower in the rush for Plymouth Rock a few years ago. When snow flies and the expensive seats in the ballyards of the United States and Dominion of Canada, respectively, are void and empty, Mr. F. Smith works as a piano-mover, being attached to one of the largest piano works in America operating on the instalment plan.

The functions (i.e. duties) of a piano-mover is to move pianos from the emporiums where they have reposed for sale to the dwellings of gents musically inclined or whose budding offspring are at the five-finger exercise stage of development.

Another part of the services rendered by an expert piano-mover like Mr. F. Smith is to move the pianos back to their original resting place again when the aforesaid musically inclined gents fail to come across with their last instalment.

In the performance of the last mentioned duties of an expert piano mover there is frequently trouble to be encountered, making it necessary for the p-m to carry out the musical instrument on his back from the house, deliver a severe beating up to the gent with the aforesaid delinquent business record, and dodge a few chairs and kitchen utensils hurled from the vicinity of an angry woman at one and the same time.

This, the average elector of intelligence will realize, requires considerable ability on the part of the expert piano-mover.

Owing to the fact that the families of the gents behind in their payments go to the seashore for the summer months and lock up their houses, business is dull at this period of the year in the piano-moving business. Our Mr. F. Smith, therefore, being of an industrious nature heaves pills for whatever ball aggregation offers him the most coin.

Was a White Man's Hope.

Prior to his taking up a career in the ball world, the aforesaid Mr. F. Smith trained for the prize ring and at one time was considered the White Man's Hope by gents who wanted to see some one with a paler face get the belt away from Mr. J. Johnson. Mr. F. Smith's family, however, objected to the expert piano-mover's choice of professions so the dusky gent still has a half-Nelson on the title of Champion Assassinator of the World.

The fistic skill of Mr. F. Smith (mentioned at great length above) is not wasted, however. In his capacity as a heaver of great renown, the scion of a numerous house employs his early training to good effect on ambitious willow-wielders. To be presumptious (i.e. rash) enough to bend on one of Mr. F. Smith's offerings for a single means a stiff upper-cut after the contest is ended; to take one for two stations is followed by two jabs on the jaw and a stiff left t othe ribs, a triple entails the taking of the count; while the only miscreant who lammed one over a convenient fence died a lingering death a few days later in the bosom of his family.

From this it will be seen by one and all alike that Mr. F. Smith will be of great use to us.

Negotiations are now in progress whereby the expert piano-mover may extend his activities and administer the same treatment when our other heavers are working.

If this is pulled off, Mr. F. Smith will spend a busy summer in our midst.

The details of yesterday's sordid affair are appended:

WOLGAST WILL INSIST THEY MAKE HIS WEIGHT.

Believes Fighters Should Get Half the Gate Receipts.

Chicago, June 5.—Lightweight Champion Ad Wolgast, while in Chicago last night, declared that he would follow the example set by Battling Nelson and Joe Gans while they held the title, and insist that hereafter all challengers for the championship be required to make 133 pounds at the ringside.

"As long as I remain champion and can make 133 pounds, I will insist that my opponents make that figure. When I can't no longer make the weight without effort, it will be time to move up to the 135-pound limit. I want to fight Packey McFarland, but I will not meet him before any club which does not treat the fighters generously."

QUEBEC READY FOR ITS ENGLISH VISITORS

Mayor Drouin, With Sir Lomer Gouin, will Welcome British Financial Delegation.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Quebec, June 5.—Mr. John Boyd, of Montreal, the Canadian representative of the Financial News, of London, was in town yesterday and had a conference with Mr. W. Marsh, president of the Board of Trade, Mr. Levasseur, secretary, Mr. Nesbitt, and other members of the Board, in connection with the arrangements for the reception to be given to the British manufacturers, who will arrive on the Empress of Ireland on Friday evening or Saturday morning.

Mr. Boyd expressed himself as highly pleased with the organization of the Quebec men, and thought that the visitors would receive very favorable impressions of the first city that they would see in Canada.

While here, Mr. Boyd also called upon Sir Lomer Gouin who, it is expected, will welcome the visitors on behalf of the province of Quebec.

In addition to the mayor, the members of the Board of Trade and the representatives of the Canadian Manufacturers Association, all of whom are co-operating to give the reception, there will also be Sir Rodolphe Forget, Mr. D. O. Lesperance, M.P.; Mr. Lorne Webster, and many other prominent citizens of Quebec.

DR. FRITCH AWAITS A SECOND TRIAL.

Former Woodstock Man Brought to Detroit for Rehearing on Murder Charge.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Windsor, Ont., June 5.—Dr. George Fritch formerly of Woodstock, Ont., was brought back from Jackson Penitentiary and lodged in the Wayne County jail, in Detroit, awaiting his second trial, ordered by the Supreme Court of the State.

Fritch was convicted and sentenced for an indeterminate term, ranging from seven to fifteen years, for causing the death of Mabel Millman, through a criminal operation. Her dismembered body was found in Ecorse Creek, near the Detroit River, two years ago last September.

On arrival in Detroit, Dr. Fritch said he expected to get off this time. It is doubtful if the case will come to trial again owing to the difficulty in securing important witnesses. Bail will likely be arranged for the doctor.

At the Sailors' Institute.

At the Montreal Sailors' Institute last night, a party from St. Alban's church presented a sketch entitled "Wanted, A Confidential Clerk." The sketch was well presented and created quite a little amusement for the sailors and their friends.

The orchestra of the Megantic played several selections. Sailors from many of the ships in port provided good music and humor.

Mr. J. M. M. Duff presided and Miss Grace Grant accompanied. The boys of the R. M. S. Royal Edward will give a special concert next Saturday night.

SEARCHING FOR THE CHILDREN OF ONE TITANIC VICTIM

Mr. John M. Smart's Son and Daughter, Ignorant of His Fate, Cannot be Found.

London, June 5.—Efforts are being made here to trace the whereabouts of the two children of John M. Smart, of New York, who lost his life in the wreck of the Titanic. Since his death Mr. Smart's friends have been trying to find his family and straighten out his affairs, but this has been made extremely difficult by the fact that all his personal papers were lost with him.

When here he told friends that he had his children with him in London, but it is certain that he did not have them on board the Titanic. It is surmised that they may be at school in Europe, totally ignorant of their father's fate.

Advertisements inquiring for information have been inserted in papers all over Europe and Australia by a firm of New York lawyers, so far without result. It is understood that Mr. Smart was a widower.

WAS PRESIDENT OF COLD STORAGE COMPANY.

New York, June 5.—John M. Smart was president of the American Cold Storage and Shipping Company. Attorney Seward, of that company, who was rescued from the Titanic wreck, explained that while Mr. Smart conversed freely on his business affairs, he was very reticent concerning family matters. His son is 20 years old, and his daughter 18. They are believed to be somewhere in Europe with friends of their mother, who died ten years ago.

BEER AND WHISKEY WASTED.

W.C.T.U. Buy Confiscated Liquor and Dump It Into Street at Martinsburg.

Martinsburg, W.Va., June 5.—Several hundred gallons of beer and whiskey were poured into the public square here last night by members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

The intoxicants, confiscated by county authorities at various times, were sold during the day at public auction by the sheriff.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union secured the lot for $240, and then dumped it into the street. As the women poured the liquor away, constables stood guard.

GERMAN AMAZON SUICIDES.

Because Her Son Will Not Allow Her to Work in His Woodyard.

North Adams, Mass., June 5.—Mrs. Christiania Hommer, seventy-six, a woman noted throughout this section for her Amazonian strength, is dead here to-day, a suicide, because her son would not allow her to work in her woodyard.

Mrs. Hommer was six feet tall and delighted in the heaviest sort of manual labor. She worked in a woodyard in Germany, and after coming to this country continued to work in that of her son. He told her some time ago he did not think this proper.

A Laborers' Cottage Problem.

The question whether unmarried laborers should become tenants of certain laborers' cottages, was considered at a meeting of the Kells Rural District Council, County Meath. Mr. Monaghan said, regarding one of the applicants for a tenancy, that he would guarantee that the man would get married.

WASHINGTON DOES NOT REGARD AS DEAD, RECIPROCITY

Looks to the Liberals in Canada to Revive the Issue at the First Opportunity.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Washington, June 5.—When President Taft said a month or so ago that Reciprocity was dead, his judicial mind did not act with the judicial accuracy that one expects of him. The President's mind, however, has not been functioning as judiciously of late as his friends might desire. There may be something wrong with the carburetor, or the steam pressure has exceeded the capacity of the engines, or the eccentric has developed an excessive eccentricity or anyone of a dozen things which interfere with the proper workings of judicial minds may have affected this one. There have been mitigating circumstances—several of them.

Nevertheless, Reciprocity—which is to say the identical desires and impulses which put the agreement through both branches of the United States Congress last year are far from being dead, or moribund, or even failing in health and vigor. Mr. Taft, it may be mentioned, parenthetically, was one of the least of the influences.

As far as the President personally is concerned, the wish is very sincerely the father of the thought. Nothing would please him better, nothing would be a more effective aid in clearing meretricious obstacles from the path of his ambition than the knowledge that reciprocity and everything connected with it was dead, and buried, and forgotten. The "moving finger wrote," or tried to write on Canadian granite which proved a poor medium. In the sincerity of its regret, it has even given publicity to other of its literary efforts which are explainable only as lasting monuments to the futility of the effort. The expressive phrase, "adjunct of the United States," buttressed and supported by the qualifying adjectives, "commercial" and "political" constitutes a tombstone which cannot well be lightly regarded by political resurrectionists.

Nevertheless, the reciprocity movement in the United States can free itself much more easily of President Taft than President Taft can of the fiasco he made of trying to further it. While putting it on the statute books, he dug his political grave. The legislation remains on the statutes and the political grave of even a President is easily filled. If the scheme is ever consummated, it may mean the apotheosis of Taft and his admission to the sparse roll of presidents who have done great things for their country. This phase of the question concerns the people who want reciprocity and its consequences—immediate and ultimate—not at all. Any glory that Mr. Taft may hereafter be able to glean from having fattened the idea, he is freely welcome to. The other people are after advantages, not glory.

They are prepared to accept "Taft reciprocity" as convincingly and undeniably dead as long as the gate which it opened is not barred by rescinding or amending legislation. Mr. Taft, in publishing the Roosevelt correspondence, played directly into their hands. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, by denouncing Taft and endorsing Roosevelt for their respective attitudes on reciprocity, led the suit they wanted led. The taking of the next trick is now under close consideration.

For public consumption, the attitude is that Mr. Taft was very wicked and very deceitful in having in his mind the political advantage the United States would derive from reciprocity. This they do not hesitate to deprecate in the strongest possible terms. Such action puts the negotiations of the future on a high moral plane without seriously compromising anyone. Whatever political results may follow are not in the minds of the astute business men who are anxious to obtain purely commercial ends. Business and politics ought never to be mixed—never in that way.

Suppose, for instance, that Theodore Roosevelt should be the next President of the United States. This is quite easy to suppose, especially in Washington. While Mr. Roosevelt is on record as having endorsed the "political" aspect of President Taft's scheme, he has since explained to the Canadian people that he used the word "political" in a purely Pickwickian sense. Mr. Roosevelt did not define what he meant to convey to Mr. Taft in the letter of which it was the key-note, but he has told Canadians that he did not mean what Mr. Taft thought he meant or that anyone else would think he meant from a casual reading of the passage.

When Sir Wilfrid publicly accepted the letter at its face value and took the first opportunity that presented itself to extol Mr. Roosevelt and repudiate Mr. Taft, the doors opened magically to the worried Reciprocity lobby which has been working at Washington, New York, Minneapolis, and in a dozen other centres where the campaign can be best directed. "That is our position exactly," they said, "we denounce the disingenuous Taft. We extol the simple-minded and unsophisticated Roosevelt. Let us have the Roosevelt kind of reciprocity."

Knowing Mr. Roosevelt, his methods of statesmanship, and his characteristic mental processes, they were able to say this with fervor, with unction and even with sincerity. Sincerity was not essential, but it could be thrown in for good measure.

The present campaign is a double-barrelled one. The discontent in the grain-growing provinces of Canada is to be fomented and fostered by all the means known to expert politicians on this side of the line, who are by no means novices at the game of using and even creating industrial unrest in order to achieve, through politics, certain greatly desired industrial and commercial purposes.

With this as a material endorsement of the deduction which they draw from Sir Wilfrid's Montreal speech—that the Liberal party is determined to pass reciprocity legislation as soon as it is returned to power—and by a little deft juggling of the probabilities so as to make it appear that such a consummation is certain to occur within two years at the latest, they will then go to the agricultural states, where the opposition to the agreement is most determined, and lay before the farmers what purports to be a frank and friendly statement of the case.

On the supposition that the pressure in Canada for reciprocity can be materially lessened by the admission of a certain quantity of Canadian wheat to the United States for clearly specified purposes and carefully guarded purposes, it will be urged that the American farmers would be better advised to agree to this course than to face the removal of the duty on all Canadian wheat which would follow the acceptance by Canada of the reciprocity arrangement which is now on the statutes of the United States and only awaiting such action to become effective.

Whether or not results would follow, no one can say. The men who have charge of the campaign, the special interests who are backing them in it, and even the casual politician who has been sounded on the subject seem to unite in believing that they would.

Special to The Montreal Star.

London, June 5.—It is believed that a modification of the nine months' sentences of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, leader of the militant suffragettes, and Mr. and Mrs. Pethick Lawrence, editors of "Votes for Women," is immediately impending.

It is understood that the prisoners will be transferred to the first division, where they will be treated as demeanants of a political character. It is understood they will undertake not to repeat their offence.

PRESBYTERIANS AT EDMONTON FOR ASSEMBLY

General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church Opens Conference To-Day.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Edmonton, Alta., June 5.—The Presbyterian General Assembly opened its annual sessions here to-day, with three hundred delegates in attendance, and this number is being augmented with the arrival of every train.

The Assembly was opened with devotional exercises at eleven o'clock, following which a civic delegation extended a hearty welcome to the delegates.

A brief sitting was held, during which only preliminary routine and organization work was discussed. The real business of the convention will begin to-morrow, when the first big subject, Home Mission work, will be taken up.

CUBAN REBELS MAY ATTACK SANTIAGO.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Havana, June 5.—The entire west region of Cuba, from Bahia Honda to Artemisa, is said by some to be ripe for uprising. The affected territory includes Gunnajay, where fifteen rebels broke jail yesterday afternoon.

Camaguey newspapers report the negroes are dancing tribal dances, and singing ominous songs openly in that city. Similar reports come from Cardenas, Caibarien and Matanzas.

The political aspect of the question is becoming entirely submerged in racial fanaticism. It is reported here that the rebels are preparing to attack Santiago.

Many disquieting rumors regarding the suspicious movements of negroes in Havana and vicinity are current. One band is reported to have left the city on Monday night, eluding the patrols surrounding the city.

FIRST WOMAN MAYOR IN KANSAS STATE IS DEAD.

Cleaned Up Oskaloosa on Her Election to Office in 1888.

Oskaloosa, Kas., June 5.—Mrs. Mary D. Lowman, the first woman mayor to be elected in Kansas, is dead as the result of burns sustained when her clothing caught fire while she was preparing a meal.

Mrs. Lowman was elected mayor of Oskaloosa in 1888 and her administration attracted wide attention, many correspondents from eastern cities coming here to write her story.

Her first official act was to clean up the city and otherwise bring it up to date.

DOROTHY ARNOLD'S MOTHER RETURNS FROM EUROPE.

Mrs. Arnold Reached New York To-day—No News of Missing Heiress.

New York, June 4.—Wearing deep mourning, Mrs. Francis R. Arnold, mother of Dorothy Arnold, missing since December, 1910, reached New York to-day, on the liner Vaderland, from Antwerp, after having spent several months in Europe.

Mrs. Arnold was unaccompanied and eluded interviewers. Her son, who met her at the pier, declined to add to previous statements that the world-wide search for the missing girl had been unavailing, or to make any comment on his mother's trip.

HYDRO POWER SURVEYS.

Route for Power Lines Being Selected Near Brockville.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Brockville, Ont., June 5.—A member of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission, field staff, is at present engaged in the vicinity of Brockville and Kingston, going over the different routes, to select a route and station site, for the proposed 66,000 volt line from a supply point near Morrisburg. He is also looking up a route and station site for the 13,200 volt supply lines between Prescott, Cardinal, Morisburg and Lyn.

Chihuahua, Mex., June 5.—General Pascual Orozco, chief of the revolution in northern Mexico, has formally sanctioned an attack on Mexico City by Emiliano Zapata, leader in the south.

Pulp Company Asks Damages.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Quebec, June 5.—Before his Honor, Judge Dorion, yesterday, was begun a libel suit in which damages to the extent of $50,000 are claimed. The complainants are the Chicoutimi Pulp Company, and the defendants, Price Brothers & Co.

The case is an old one, and dates back several years. It refers to a piece of land in Chicoutimi, which the Pulp Company claim as theirs, and which claim was disputed by the latter firm which caused to be inserted in various newspapers, a letter setting forth that the land in question belonged to Price Bros. The Chicoutimi Company contend that this letter has tended to hurt them in the money market.

Workman Drowned at Glen Miller.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Belleville, Ont., June 5.—Ernest Cribb, employee of the Glen Miller Paper Company, at Glen Miller, was drowned and a fellow workman, William Ibey, narrowly escaped the same fate, yesterday afternoon. The men were making some repairs in the wheelhouse, when the platform on which they were working gave way, precipitating them into the water.

THE FRESH AIR FUND

The River Bank Home

The Home on the Richelieu River, at Chambly, is being prepared for the opening on or about June 20th. Applications for admission may be made to the committee at The Star office, 165 St. James street, on the afternoons of Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of each week during the season, beginning Tuesday, June 4th, between the hours of 3 and 4 o'clock. Every application must be accompanied with a certificate from the clergyman to whose church the applicant belongs. Blank forms may be had from the secretary at The Star Office, St. James street.

The Fresh Air Fund is administered by a volunteer committee of men, including the city missionaries interested in the welfare and suffering of children. It is established to take away from the city for a longer or a shorter period children and mothers whom the visiting doctor advises to send. It is:

1st. For the sick children of the poor.

2nd. For the tired working mothers with children.

3rd. For children threatened with sickness and whose parents have not the means to enable them to leave the city.

Five dollars will send a mother and sick child to the country for a fortnight, and larger amounts will do proportionate good. Contributions may be sent to The Star Office, 165 St. James street; Star Branch office, corner Peel street and Dominion Square; or to Charles M. Alexander, Esq., hon. treasurer, 219 St. James street. 126 11eod

Company Will Charter 6,000-ton Vessel to Show Country's Advantages.

Special Cable to the Montreal Star.

Sydney, N.S.W., June 5.—A company has been formed with a capital of $250,000 for the purpose of chartering a vessel of six thousand tons, which is to bring immigrants from Great Britain to Australia. The ship will visit all the principal points of the Commonwealth and collect a monster Australian exhibit to advertise the resources and manufacturing industries of the various States.

From Sydney the vessel will go direct to Vancouver and after its sojourn there proceed to San Francisco and from there go to England via the Panama Canal.

The idea of travelling exhibits has been growing in Australia. For many months, especially since the extended system of immigration was entered upon.

It is being suggested that the various Australian States equip a train to cross the railroad system of the United States. So far, however, this matter has not gone beyond the suggestion stage.

Commonwealth Customs may exceed by $3,150,000 the amount estimated by the Premier in the Budget for the eleven months of the fiscal year. The sum collected by the Customs is $67,000,000.

Twenty-five insurance companies have entered suit against the Erie Railway, claiming $200,000 damages, because, they allege, that company's train blocked the fire brigade going to a fire at the Stanstead Chair Company's plant, which was destroyed.

MOLSON'S ALE

YOU CAN GET IT AT YOUR SUMMER HOME

Molson's Ale is just as easily obtained as tea or sugar---and mostly at the same places.

All over the Island of Montreal---from St. Anne's on the west to Bout de L'Ile on the east, and as far north as St. Rose---Molson's Ale is delivered regularly by motor trucks and waggons.

Wherever you are spending the summer you can get your orders filled promptly for Molson's Ale.

Remember, however, to order Molson's and insist on having Molson's.

See that every bottle bears the Molson crown stopper and black and white label.

THE STATIONING COMMITTEE NOT YET REPORTED

Assignment of New Fields Still Under Discussion—Many Delegates Leave.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Kingston, Ont., June 5.—Though the stationing committee of the Montreal Methodist Conference sat till after midnight, and settled down to work again early this morning, the announcement was made at noon that it was not yet prepared to report. It had been hoped that all business would be concluded at noon and the delegates had their bags packed so as to catch the noon trains. Many went home, but there is still a fair attendance, including all the members of the stationing committee, ministers who are on the anxious seat as regards stations, and a few of the faithful. The business is practically all cleaned off the slate, and, when the stationing committee report it will take a very brief time to wind up.

The Rev. John Armstrong, Montreal, the oldest member of the Conference, was given a seat of honor on the platform. He is over ninety years of age, has been in the Methodist ministry since 1848, and is a former president.

In addressing the conference, he said he had seen no improvement on the Methodism of John Wesley and he would not vote for Church Union, but squarely against it.

For the first time in eighteen years the statement of the superanuation fund showed a deficit, the amount being $128.50 below the assessment. The total amount raised in the Conference bounds was $18,823.20, of which ministers and probationers contributed $5,650.82. A couple of district expect to make up their deficits at once, so that the final report may show a clear sheet.

NEW DISTRICT NOW PROPSOED.

The stationing committee sprung a distinct surprise upon the Montreal Methodist Conference at the Tuesday afternoon session; it was no less than the proposal to form an entirely new district to be taken from the Ottawa, Brockville, Matilda and Perth districts, and to be composed of the following circuits, and in the following order: Kempville, Prescott, Augusta, Spencerville, Shanley, Bishop's Mills, Oxford Mills, Merrickville, North Gore, Manitick.

The new district would be known as the Kempville district.

The object of the change is to allow those attending district meetings more convenience and saving of time by way of travel.

There was decided opposition to the proposal and the chairman had to demand order repeatedly.

Rev. W. Philip stated that no time would be saved by the new arrangement. Rev. Thos. Bourke, Montreal, suggested that Prescott be made the district centre instead of Kempville.

C. S. Deeprose, Ottawa, moved an amendment that a committee be appointed to look into the matter and report to the Conference next year. The amendment was carried by a large majority.

THE PROPERTY REPORT IN MONTREAL DISTRICT

The report of the Property committee was adopted Tuesday afternoon and as affects the Montreal district was as follows: Hochelaga permission to sell church and rebuild; Sherbrooke St. Montreal, permission to sell church and parsonage property and rebuild; All People's Mission, Dorchester St., Montreal, permission to sell and rebuild.

The Board of Examiners was elected as follows: E. J. Hart, W. S. Jamieson, W. H. Sparling, H. E. Warren, S. J. Hughes, G. S. Clasidinnen, W. S. Lennon, W. T. G. Brown, Wm. T. Timberlake, Wm. Philp, A. A. Padley, Dr. Cummings, J. D. Ellis, J. M. Larmour, E. R. Kelly, R. S. Plever, Thos. Brown, Wm. Sparling.

French work—Paul Villard, E. De Gruchy, L. Messicotte, W. T. Halpenny, T. Roy, C. W. Baldwin, J. Pinel, L. E. Roy.

The following significant resolution was also passed on Tuesday afternoon.

Moved by P. L. Richardson, seconded by W. H. Lambly, that this conference having learned that within its bounds many protestant children in some places of the province of Quebec have no schools within their reach.

Resolved, that this conference shall appoint a committee to act with a similar committee appointed by the Presbyterian church to study the question and co-operate with others in any suggestions to meet the needs.

WEEPING MOTHER PLEADS FOR MERCY FOR ERRING SON

Tells Court She Cannot Endure Another Sentence to Imprisonment.

Weeping bitterly, Mrs. Bohemier, mother of Joseph Bohemier, 433a Brebeuf street, presented a heart-breaking spectacle when she appeared before Mr. Recorder Weir this morning pleading that the boy, who had been arrested on a charge of drunkenness, be given another chance.

The mother seventy years of age was barely able to crawl up to the front of the court room to make a plea for her boy and had to be assisted from the court by an officer.

She told the court that her son had been arrested in February last and served one month on the same charge. She related the hardships she had experienced at that time and said she could not bear to go through it again.

Moved by the old lady's story the Recorder consented to allow Bohemier his liberty until the 27th. He was given a severe lecture by the court and told if any bad reports were received about him he would be sent to jail on the 27th.

Old Woman's Skull Fractured.

The breaking down of a railing enclosing a gallery in the rear of 18 Chenneville street, resulted in probably fatal injuries to Mrs. S. Pisson, who was engaged in hanging out washing on the clothes line at the rear of the house. The railing over which she was leaning for support, gave way, causing the old lady to fall 20 feet.

When taken to the General Hospital, it was found that the aged woman had received a fracture of the skull.

RETIRES FROM BUSINESS.

MR. ADAM THOMSON.

GRAND TRUNK NOW BETWEEN TWO FIRES OVER BOSTON LINE

Boston Interests Object Now Because it Will Not Bring Canadian Business.

Grand Trunk officials to-day find themselves between two fires over the proposal to extend the system into the port of Boston.

Following upon the announced intention of the transportation committee of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association in Toronto, to protest to the Dominion Government against the Grand Trunk making Boston a terminal of the line, at the expense of Canadian ports, there was received at the Grand Trunk headquarters to-day cuttings from New England papers protesting against the charter on the ground that it would take American business to Canadian lines, without bringing Canadian business there.

The Boston Globe, of June 3, says:—"The chief argument in favor of the proposition to bring the Grand Trunk to Boston has been that it would develop the port of Boston. This was not the idea of the late Mr. C. M. Hays, former president of the Grand Trunk, who, in an interview with the Montreal Star, of February 7, denied that the activities of the Grand Trunk in the New England States would result in diverting Canadian traffic to American ports. This denial is confirmed by Mr. Chamberlin, the new president of the Grand Trunk, who, in an interview in the Montreal Star, of May 27, adds: 'What we are after is the business of carrying to the Western States the manufactures of Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and other New England States.' Does this look as if millions of bushels of Canadian wheat would flow through the port of Boston as a result of the passage of the Southern New England bill? It is clear that the invitation extended to the Grand Trunk has not been accepted in good faith."

PRISONER COOKED ALIVE.

Terrible Accident Enacted Before Firemen's Eyes at Sault Ste. Marie.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., June 5.—Cooked to death in a caged west end lock-up in sight of the fire-fighters, was the fate which overcame an Austrian named Andrew Worpelski, shortly after one this morning.

The man had been put there in an intoxicated condition early in the evening to await his removel to the Central police station. Apparently he had dropped a lighted match, which ignited the bed. On the arrival of the department the place was in flames, and the hapless man could plainly be seen first running about in the lock-up and then attempting to crawl under the bed as the flames got to him.

The outside door was securely locked, also the inside, and the only person with a key was the night patrolman, who could not be found.

The charred remains have been removed to Simpson's morgue, and an inquest will open to-night. Members of the department say it was the most horrible experience in their career. At one time Wropelski was seen to go on his knees to the firemen outside, who could not bear to look at him.

MONTREAL GRAIN FIRM DISSOLVES PARTNERSHIP

Mr. A. G. Thompson Retires From Thompson and Earle.

The well known grain firm of Thompson and Earle has voluntarily dissolved partnership, and the business will be continued by Mr. Earle. The reason for the dissolution is the retirement from active business of Mr. A. G. Thompson, who for thirty years has conducted a grain business at this port.

In 1869, or forty-three years ago, Mr. Thompson started in business with the Montreal Transportation Company, whence he went to Rimmergun and Co., one of the leading local export houses, in 1872. In 1880 he and his brother, Mr. A. D. Thompson, formed a partnership in the grain business which lasted until 1884, when Mr. A. D. Thompson went to Duluth and laid the foundations of the present large grain house of A. D. Thompson and Co., which has since become one of the largest grain concerns of the west.

Mr. A. G. Thompson remained in Montreal, and gradually built up one of the largest grain trades in the port, in fact, the business grew to such an extent, that recently Mr. Thompson was obliged to take in a partner, Mr. Paul R. Earle, who will now conduct the business.

Mr. Thompson during his long business career, gained a reputation which has made him universally respected not only in Canada and the United States, but across the water, where his firm was well known to the leading grain and milling houses.

Thousands Lost in Montreal on Derby Result.

The exact amount of money that was bet in Montreal on this year's Derby cannot be ascertained, because none of those interested care to go into details, but it is safe to say that ninety-five per cent of it was lost and that the amounts run well into the thousands, much of the money having been bet on Sweeper II.

A great deal of Ottawa money was sent down here also, and large numbers of Sweepstake tickets, for Derby Sweepstakes organized and run in Copenhagen, and in British Columbia were disposed of here.

G. T. R. FIREMEN.

Company Grants Request for Increase of Wages.

Firemen on the Grand Trunk System from Portland, Me., to Chicago, have been granted increases of pay as a result of negotiations that have been carried on with the Company by a large delegation which has been in Montreal since May 13. The delegation consisted of the Joint Protective Board of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Trainmen and Enginemen, of which there are twenty-four members, with Mr. W. F. Dowell, of Brockville, Ont., as chairman, and Mr. J. W. Nevins, of Coteau, as secretary-treasurer.

Mr. Dowell said to-day that a satisfactory agreement, granting more pay and better conditions, had been concluded with Mr. W. D. Robb, the superintendent of motive power. The increases granted on a mileage basis, range from 10 cents to 30 cents per 100 miles, and on the monthly rates for specified runs, from $6 to $4 per month.

This will mean that the pay of the firemen will now range from $67 to $85 per month, the average being from $70 to $80.

In construction, wreck, and yard service, the men have been granted a minimum of ten hours for each call instead of five as formerly, while the firemen have been relieved from performing some of their duties in regard to the cleaning of the engines.

ROLLED COTTON ROUND AND ROUND HIS BODY

But only Got Away With Eight Cents' Worth, and Was Caught With That.

With his body wrapped in bandages Rosario Beaulieu walked out of the Canadian Rubber Company plant yesterday afternoon. It was not for any medicinal purpose that his shape was encircled in yards of cotton under his clothes. He had not been injured and required no bandages.

There has been a lot of cotton missing from the plant of the Rubber Company lately and Beaulieu as well as others have been under surveillance. A tell tale piece of cheese cloth which protruded from under his coat gave Constables Vanini and Beauchamp a clue and following him, searched him and found about seven yards of cotton under his vest. It is worth about eight cents.

He will be sentenced on the 10th, he having admitted to Judge Lost that he took the cotton.

CANADIAN LABOR FEDERATION

At last night's meeting of the Jewish Bakers it was decided to break away from the International Union and join the Canadian Federation of Labor. Mr. Delphis Verdon, President of the Montreal National Trades and Labor Council, was called in and asked to organize a local. This he did, and a charter has already been sent for and will be received within the next few days.

The employers state that they have no objection to their men forming a National Union, and they will even go as far as to use the union label of the Canadian Federation of Labor. The officers of the new organization have been selected and meetings will be held at regular intervals. The officers are as follows:—President, Chune Wasserman; Vice-president, A. Lavosky; secretary, N. Lischt; treasurer, L. Josephson; recording Sec., H. Covita. The new organization will be known as "Local 93 of the Canadian Federation of Labor."

Victorian Nurses' Celebration.

In connection with the Victorian Order of Nurses celebration at Dominion Park to-morrow the Point St. Charles branch will meet the workers, with special care, at the Wellington Subway at half past one, p.m.

COLLAPSED TANK COMPLICATED CASE SETTLED IN REVIEW

Original Judgment Maintained, But Defendant in Sub-Warranty Must Pay.

One of the most complicated civil court cases that has ever come up in Montreal has been decided by the Court of Review. The main action was that of J. M. Wilson vs. the H. G. Vogel Co., arising out of the collapse of a water tank by which a young woman was killed, at 520 St. Paul street. There were, however, two other actions arising out of the main one.

J. M. Wilson, first of all, sued the H. G. Vogel Co., for $11,323 damages, alleging that the plaintiff had contracted to instal, among other things, a 12,000 water tank, which had collapsed on April 2, 1906.

In turn, the H. G. Vogel Co, obtained permission to call Charles M. Gardner, of the Crescent Co. in warranty, alleging that the latter had contracted for the construction of the water tank, on the understanding that the H. G. Vogel Co. would guarantee the walls of the building.

Subsequently, Charles M. Gardner, in his turn, was permitted to call in the Locomotive and Machine Co. in sub-warranty, Mr. Gardner alleging that the Locomotive and Machine Co. had contracted to set up a construction in steel necessary to support the water tank.

Endeavor to Shift Blame.

Each of the three defendants pleaded that they were not responsible, and endeavored to shift the blame, while the Locomotive and Machine Company pleaded that the accident was not the result of weakness in the steel, but was due to a defect in the walls of the building, for which it could not be held responsible.

The original judgment in the Superior Court condemned the H. G. Vogel Co., to pay $9,590, with interest, and all the costs, and dismissed the two actions in warranty, condemning the plaintiff in warranty to pay the costs of their demand, and the defendant in sub-warranty, the Locomotive and Machine Co., to pay the cost of the defence in the two cases.

The Court of Review has now decided that after a careful consideration of the voluminous evidence, they were of the opinion that it had been established that the walls were good walls, and that they were amply strong enough to bear the weight of the water tank. In fact, the court declared, the Locomotive and Machine Co. did not appear to attack the sufficiency of the walls. They claimed that the walls gave way on account of defects. But the court decided that the defects were the immediate and prominant cause of the accident. On the other hand, the court decided that the steel admittedly was defective, and it only remained to show conclusively that the cause of the collapse resulted from the defects in the steel, which, in the court's opinion, had been conclusively shown.

Maintained Judgment.

The court, moreover, did not think that the fact that the contract price was paid, freed the Locomotive and Machine Co. from responsibility.

The court, therefore, maintained the original judgment in favor of J. M. Wilson, not for the reasons given in the original judgment, but for the reason that the accident was caused by a fault in the steel structure supporting the tank, which the H. G. Vogel Co. should have known, and for which it must be held responsible.

As regards the action taken by the H. G. Vogel Co. against Charles M. Gardner, that was also maintained, and Charles M. Gardener was condemned to indemnify the H. G. Vogel Co. for the condemnation in the principal action.

For the same reason, the court ruled that the action taken by Charles M. Gardner against the Locomotive and Machine Co. must also be maintained, and that the latter company was held to indemnify Charles M. Gardner against every condemnation against him in the action in warranty.

HELD IN CELLS BY MISTAKE.

Witness in Case Has Unpleasant Experience.

Because his name had a sound similar to that of a man charged with theft, Harry Levine this morning experienced a rather uncomfortable and unpleasant sensation in the form of a two hour sojourn in a cell in the Court House.

Levine was standing in the corridor of the Court House, and when the name of a man charged with theft, A. Levigne was called out, Harry Levine, who is a witness in another case, responded, then to his surprise, he was seized by the deputy high constable and marched into the dock in the Arraignment Court.

A few incomprehensible words, incomprehensible to the prisoner, for he did not understand French, were said and Levine tried to answer. The words were the reading of the charge against A. Levigne, and when Harry Levine tried to answer, it was thought that he had pleaded not guilty. He was remanded, and rushed off into the cells where he stayed two hours until the mistake was discovered, when he was released by Judge Leet and allowed to go.

The middle photograph is that of the local troop of Girl Scouts, who occupied a position of honor at the ceremonies on Fletcher's Field. In the lower picture the Princess Patricia is shown. In the other picture to the right H.R.H. is shaking hands with Col. the Hon. Sam Hughes. Col. A. Roy is in the foreground.

MINISTER SAYS GOVERNMENT NOW IN FULL CONTROL

American Ambassador Finds Situation Quieter and Leaves for Holiday.

From a special correspondent of the Central News.

Mexico City, June 5.—"In my opinion the back bone of the revolution is broken," said Henry Lane Wilson, the American Ambassador, before taking train for Washington last evening. "I regard the political conditions in Mexico so much improved that I feel that I can take a brief breathing spell without in any way neglecting American interests."

The Ambassador's vacation will last about three weeks. In further discussion of his trip, he said:

"The unremitting labors of the Embassy and the confinement in Mexico City for nearly a year, have brought on a condition of health which renders it indispensable that I should take a short rest. The altitude has affected my health and my physician has ordered me to seek a change of climate by going to a lower elevation.

"Instead of finding the change in Mexico I shall seek it on the train between here and Washington, hoping that the relaxation and the change will enable me to continue my work. I shall of course go to Washington, according to the established precedent of the State Department, but I shall have only routine matters to discuss with the officials.

"Mrs. Wilson who is now in the United States, will return with me and with our three sons we shall spend the summer here."

The Ambassador's departure was unexpected by the American Colony, and a report was at once circulated that he had been recalled.

Mr. Wilson's post has been a peculiarly tiring one during the past year, owing to the delicate situations created by successive revolutions, but it is generally admitted that he has discharged his duties in an able manner.

During Mr. Wilson's absence, Montgomery Schuyler, first secretary, will be in charge of the Embassy. While in the United States, the Ambassador will visit Indianapolis and expects to spend two days in New York.

At Southest, Alberta, to-day, Sergt. Davis, of the North-West Mounted Police, was shot and instantly killed by an Indian, whom he was attempting to arrest. The Indian was captured.

Audacity often succeeds where subtlier means fail. Orlando, with a curious twist of his strong lip, took hold of the detective's arm and drew him in, shutting and locking the door carefully behind him.

"Now," said he, "you shall tell me what you think you have discovered, to make any ideas of your own available in the manufacture of a superior self-propelling air-ship."

Sweetwater who had been so violently wheeled about in entering that he stood with his back to the curtain concealing the car, answered without hesitation:

"You have a device, entirely new so far as I can judge, by which this car can leap at once into space, hold its own in any direction, and alight again upon any spot without shock to the machine or danger to the people controlling it."

"Explain the device."

"I will draw it."

"You can?"

"As I see it."

"As you see it!"

"Yes. It's a brilliant idea; I could never have conceived it."

"You believe—"

"I know."

"Sit here. Let's see what you know."

Sweetwater sat down at the table the other pointed out, and drawing forward a piece of paper, took up a pencil with an easy air. Brotherson approached and stood at his shoulder. He had taken up his pistol again, why he hardly knew and as Sweetwater began his marks, his fingers tightened on its butt till they turned white in the murky lamplight.

"You see," came in easy tones from the stooping draughtsman, "I have an imagination which only needs a slight fillup from a mind like yours to send it in the desired direction. I shall not draw an exact reproduction of your idea, but I think you will see that I understand it very well. How's that for a start?"

Brotherson looked and hastily drew back. He did not want the other to note his surprise.

"But that is a portion you never saw," he loudly declared.

"No, but I saw this," returned Sweetwater, working busily on some curves; "and these gave me the fillip I mentioned. The rest came easily."

Brotherson, in dread of his own anger, threw his pistol to the other end of the shed:

"You knave! You thief!" he furiously cried.

"How so?" asked Sweetwater smiling, rising and looking him calmly in the face. "A thief is one who appropriates another man's goods, or, let us say, another man's ideas. I have appropriated nothing—yet. I've only shown you how easily I could do so. Mr. Brotherson, take me in as your assistant. I will be faithful to you, I swear it. I want to see that machine go up."

"For how many people have you drawn those lines?" thundered the inexorable voice.

"For nobody; not for myself even. This is the first time they have left their hiding-place in my brain."

"Can you swear to that?"

"I can and will, if you require it. But you ought to believe my word, sir. I am square as a die in all matters not connected—well, not connected with my profession," he smiled in a burst of that whimsical humor, which not even the seriousness of the moment could quite suppress.

"And what surety have I that you do not consider this very matter of mine as coming within the bounds you speak of?"

"None. But you must trust me that far."

Brotherson surveyed him with an irony which conveyed a very different message to the detective than any he had intended. Then quickly:

"To how many have you spoken, dilating upon this device, and publishing abroad my secret?"

"I have spoken to no one, not even to Mr. Gryce. That shows my honesty as nothing else can."

"You have kept my secret intact?"

"Entirely so, sir."

"So that no one, here or elsewhere, shares our knowledge of the new points in this mechanism?"

"I say so, sir."

"Then, if I should kill you," came in ferocious accents, "now — here —"

"You would be the only one to own that knowledge. But you won't kill me."

"Why?"

"Need I go into reasons?"

"Why? I say."

"Because your conscience is already too heavily laden to bear the burden of another unprovoked crime."

Brotherson, staring back, glared with open ferocity upon the man who dared to face him with such an accusation.

"God! why didn't I shoot you on entrance!" he cried. "Your courage is certainly colossal."

A fine smile, without even the hint of humor now, touched the daring detective's lip. Brotherson's anger seemed to grow under it, and he loudly repeated:

"It's more than colossal; it's abnormal and—" A moment's pause, then with ironic pauses— "and quite unnecessary save as a matter of display, unless you think you need it to sustain you through the ordeal you are courting. You wish to help me finish and prepare for flight?"

"I sincerely do."

"You consider yourself competent?"

"I do."

Brotherson's eyes fell as he walked once to the extremity of the oval flooring and back.

"Well, we will grant that. But that's not all that is necessary. My requirements demand a companion in my first flight. Will you go up in the car with me on Saturday night?"

A quick affirmative was on Sweetwater's lips, but the glimpse which he got of the speaker's face glowering upon him from the shadows into which Brotherson had withdrawn, stopped its utterance, and the silence grew heavy. Though it may not have lasted long by the clock, the instant of breathless contemplation of each other's features across the intervening space was of incalculable moment to Sweetwater, and, possibly, to Brotherson. As drowning men are said to live over their whole history between their first plunge and their final rise to light and air, so through the mind of the detective rushed the memories of his past and the fast fading glories of his future; and rebelling at the subtle peril he saw in that sardonic eye, he vociferated an impulsive:

"No! I'll not—" and paused, caught by a new and irresistible sensation.

A breath of wind — the first he had felt that night—had swept in through some crevice in the curing wall, flapping the canvas enveloping the great car. It acted like a peal to battle. After all, a man must take some risks in his life, and his heart was in this trial of a redoubtable mechanism in which he had full faith. He could not say no to the prospect of being the first to share a triumph which would send his name to the ends of the earth; and, changing the trend of his sentence, he repeated with a calmness which had the force of a great decision:

"I will not fail you in anything. If she rises—" here his trembling hand fell on the curtain shutting off his view of the ship, 'she shall take me with her, so that when she descends I may be the first to congratulate the proud inventor of such a marvel."

"So e it!" shot from the other's lips, his eyes losing their threatening look, and his whole countenance suddenly aglow with the enthusiasm of awakened genius.

Coming from the shadows, he laid his hand on the cord regulating the rise and fall of the concealing curtain.

"Here she is!" he cried and drew the cord.

The canvas shook, gathered itself into great folds and disappeared in the shadows from which he had just stepped.

The air-car stood revealed — a startling, because wholly unique, vision.

Long did Sweetwater survey it, then turning with beaming face upon the watchful inventor, he uttered a loud Hurrah.

Next moment, with everything forgotten between them save the glories of this invention, both dropped simultaneously to the floor and began that minute examination of the mechanism necessary to their mutual work.

XXXVII.

HIS GREAT HOUR.

Saturday night at eight o'clock.

So the fiat had gone forth, with no concession to be made on account of weather.

As Oswald came from his supper and took a look at the heavens from the small front porch, he was deeply troubled that Orlando had remained so obstinate on this point. For there were ominous clouds rolling up from the east, and the storms in this region of high mountains and abrupt valleys were not light, nor without danger even to those with feet well-planted upon mother earth.

If the tempest should come up before eight!

Mr. Challoner, who, from some mysterious impulse of bravado on the part of Brotherson, was to be allowed to make the third in this small band of spectators, was equally concerned at this sight, but not for Brotherson. His fears were for Oswald, whose slowly gathering strength could illy bear the strain which this additional anxiety for his brother's life must impose upon him. As for Doris, she was in a state of excitement more connected with the past than with the future. That afternoon she had laid her hand in that of Orlando Brotherson, and wished him well. She! in whose breast still lingered reminiscences of those old doubts which had beclouded his image for her at their first meeting. She had not been able to avoid it. His look was a compelling one, and it had demanded thus much from her; and—a terrible thought to her gentle spirit—he might be going to his death!

It had been settled by the prospective aviator that they were to watch for the ascent from the mouth of the grassy road leading in to the hangar. The three were to meet there at a quarter to eight and await the stroke and the air-car's rise. That time was near, and Mr. Challoner, catching a glimpse of Oswald's pallid and unnaturally drawn features, as he set down the lantern he carried, shuddered with foreboding and wished the hour passed.

Doris' watchful glance never left the face whose lightest change was more to her than all Orlando's hopes. But the result upon her was not to weaken her resolution, but to strengthen it. Whatever the outcome of the next few minutes, she must stand ready to sustain her invalid through it. That the darkness of early evening had deepened to oppression, was unnoticed for the moment. The fears of an hour past had been forgotten. Their attention was too absorbed in what was going on before them, for ever a glance overhead.

Suddenly Mr. Challoner spoke.

"Who is the man whom Mr. Brotherson has asked to go up with him?"

It was Oswald who answered.

"He has never told me. He has kept his own counsel about that as about everything else connected with this matter. He simply advised me that I was not to bother about him any more; that he had found the assistant he wanted."

"Such reticence seems unpardonable. You have displayed great patience, Oswald."

"Because I understand Orlando. He reads men's natures like a book. The man he trusts, we may trust. To-morrow, he will speak openly enough. All cause for reticence will be gone."

"You have confidence then in the success of this undertaking?"

"If I hadn't, I should not be here. I could hardly bear to witness his failure, even in a secret test like this. I should find it too hard to face him afterwards."

"I don't understand."

"Orlando has great pride. If this enterprise fails I cannot answer for him. He would be capable of anything. Why, Doris! what is the matter, child? I never saw you look like that before."

She had been down on her knees regulating the lantern, and the sudden flame, shooting up, had shown him her face turned towards his in an apprehension which verged on horror.

"Do I look frightened?" she asked, remembering herself and lightly rising. "I believe that I am a little frightened—" If, if anything should go wrong? If an accident—" But here she remembered herself again and quickly changed her tone. "But your confidence shall be mine. I will believe in his good angel or—or in his self-command and great resolution. I'll not be frightened any more."

But Oswald did not seem satisfied. He continued to look at her in vague concern.

He hardly knew what to make of the intense feeling she had manifested. Had Orlando touched her girlish heart? Had this cold-blooded nature, with its steel-like brilliancy and honorable but stern views of life, moved this warm and sympathetic soul to more than admiration? The thought disturbed him so he forgot the nearness of the moment they were all awaiting till a quick rasping sound from the hangar, followed by the sudden appearance of an ever-widening band of light about its upper rim, drew his attention and awakened them all to a breathless expectation.

The lid was rising. Now it was half-way up, and now, for the first time, it was lifted to its full height and stood a broad oval disc against the background of the forest. The effect was strange. The hangar had been made brilliant by many lamps, and their united glare pouring from its top and illuminating not only the surrounding treetops but the broad face of this uplifted disc, roused in the awed spectator a thrill such as in mythological times might have greeted the sudden sight of Vulcan's smithy blazing on Olympian hills. But the clang of iron on iron would have attended the flash and gleam of those unexpected fires, and here all was still save for that steady throb never heard in Olympus or the halls of Valhalla, the pant of the motor eager for flight in the upper air.

As they listened in a trance of burning hope which obliterated all else, this noise and all others near and distant, was suddenly lost in a loud clatter of writhing and twisting boughs which set the forest in a roar and seemed to heave the air about them.

Welcome "Made in Canada" Train.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Estevan, Sask., June 5.—The reception given the "Made in Canada" train last night surpassed any previous arrival. A band and two thousand people greeted the special and afterwards a big torchlight procession paraded the principal streets. Two members of the Board of Trade met the train at Weyburn, and came with Manager Scully to Estevan. An automobile drive about town was part of the entertainment. The train left late last night for Swift Current.

American Officer for Petewawa.

Ottawa, June 5.—An invitation has been extended to Col. Regan, assistant Adjutant-General of New York, to attend the military manoeuvres at Petewawa this month.

Turkish Troops Still Mutinous.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Philipopolis, June 5.—News received here to-day from Constantiople, says that the sailors of Turkish fleet in the Bosphorus are incensed at the failure of the authorities, despite repeated demands, to pay them their wages, now seven months overdue.

The men threaten to mutiny and bombard Constantinople unless their demands are met immediately.

At Danville, Chas. Boutelle & Son sell the O Hercules Spring Beds and the O Hercules Steel Couches. They have an inimitable five times stronger and springier patented weave, and are guaranteed absolutely unsaggable.

DUMPS GARBAGE RIGHT AT DOORS OF RESIDENTS!

Citizens of St. Denis Ward Up in Arms Against City for Nuisance.

DEAD RATS, OLD CHEESE, TIN CANS—ALL PILED UP.

If You Want to Find the Place Go Up St. Denis to St. Zotique and "Follow Your Nose."

The residents of St. Denis ward have a dump right at their doors, and it is a public nuisance as well as being unsightly and unhealthy. One of the residents of the locality in which this nuisance has been created by city employes describes the state of affairs in the following letter:

"Editor of the Montreal Star:

"Dear Sir,—I desire to call the attention of the officials of the Health Department to a state of affairs which could not be permitted for a minute in any other city on the continent.

A dump has been established between the two blocks of houses from near Beaubien to St. Zotique street. About fourteen days ago the scavangers dumped their refuse in the lane. It consist of waste paper, old cheese, dead rats, tin cans, old matresses. In fact every kind of rubbish mentionable. The result is we are unable to have our doors opened for the smell is unbearable, and unless covered and taken away will no doubt cause some contagious disease.

The residents may have to leave their houses on account of the insanitary conditions. The houses already are being filled with rats and vermin from this dump. Such rubbish in the Old Country would have to be dumped five miles away from the city limits. I hope this nuisance will be remedied without any delay whatever.

"Yours, etc.,

"Ratepayer."

The complaint of the correspondent was investigated by a representative of the Star, and the conditions found are practically as described. The garbage men have constructed a lane with rubbish in a low piece of land on the west side of St. Denis street, about seventy-five feet back, between Beaubien and St. Zotique streets.

When looking for the dump the Star man went east from St. Denis St. and looked around Huntley, Chateaubriand and St. Hubert streets, but was unable to find any nuisance. Returning to the corner of St. Denis and St. Zotique street the odor was noticed, and all that was necessary was "to follow your nose," and in a minute or two the reporter was standing in the lane, which is filled with everything imaginable. The neighbors were all up in arms, and they declared that if the rubbish was not covered with earth or removed immediately they will proceed against the city for damages.

U.S. Dreadnought Touches a Reef

Washington, June 5. — Information that the new United States Dreadnought Arkansas has met with an accident at her trial trip off the Maine coast has reached the Navy Department.

A report to the Navy Department says that while entering Penobscot Bay this morning and when she was supposed to be in the channel the Arkansas touched a reef.

Captain Fechteler of the Naval board of inspection, reports the damage probably small and the leaks light. The inspection board is considering whether the trial shall be resumed.

DESERTED WIFE MAY SEIZE HUSBAND'S GOODS.

Court of Washington County Rules That She is Entitled to His Property.

Pittsburg, June 5.—A wife who has been deserted by her husband has the right to seize his property, according to a decision handed down yesterday by the Court of Washington County.

Mrs. Hanna S. Anderson, wife of former Councilman Allen D. Anderson, of Canonsburg, Pa., who she alleges deserted her in 1903, seized his property, valued at $6,200. She is entitled to it, says the Court.

HAZELTON TOWNSITE CASE.

Dominion Railway Commission Hears Argument Against Change.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, June 5.—Witnesses before the Dominion Railway Commission yesterday stated that if that body altered its order regarding the townsite of New Hazleton, in favor of a new site, investors in the present site will lose hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Among those who appeared before the Board against any change were R. W. Smith, manager for Esley, Welch and Stewart, Mr. C. W. Beck, and Mr. H. Clements, M.P.

LATE SENATOR DESJARDINS.

Hon. L. P. Pelletier Going to England

Will Discuss Cable Rates to Canada and Postal Rates to France.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, June 5.—The Hon. L. P. Pelletier, Postmaster-General, will leave at the end of the month for Great Britain and France. The primary purpose of his trip is for rest and change, which his physician has advised, owing to his poor health of late. Incidental to the trip, however, the Minister will take up anew with the British authorities the question of cable rates to Canada.

The subject was discussed considerably in the last session, the opinion being expressed by both sides of the House that the charges, despite reductions, are still excessive, and that some remedial measures should be sought. Mr. Pelletier will discuss the matter with the British Postmaster-General.

Another question which he will take up with the French authorities is that of a reduction of the postal rates between France and Canada. The Postmaster-General may be in London at the time of the Naval Conference.

MANY CATTLE DROWNED NEAR FOXBORO VILLAGE.

Sixty-five Animals Reported Drowned When River Moira Overflowed Hambly Island.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Belleville, Ont., June 5.—Great losses have been sustained by farmers pasturing cattle on Hambly Island, two miles east of Foxboro village, the Island having been inundated, as a result of the recent heavy rains, having caused the Moira River to rise.

Some eighty-five head of cattle were pastured there, and of these only twenty are known to be safe.

HON. DESJARDINS, FORMER MINISTER, DIES AT HIS HOME

Was Cultured Member of An Old-Fashioned School of Politicians.

Hon. Alphonse Desjardins, ex-senator, ex-cabinet minister of Canada, mayor of Montreal for two terms, and one of the most picturesque characters of this part of the Dominion, died yesterday at his country home in Terrebonne after an illness of but brief duration.

Although it was known that Hon. Mr. Desjardins had been in poor health for some little time and recently had suffered a slight stroke, the news of his death caused the most painful surprise among his many friends in the city and district. He was about his house as usual up to a day or two ago and was able to discuss the affairs of the day in his usual characteristic manner.

The end came to the Hon. Mr. Desjardins in the little town of Terrebonne where he was born 71 years ago and where he had spent the last few years of his life. The deceased gentlemen was one of the old and fast-disappearing school politicians and was an important factor in the business life of the city, in addition to his political activities.

Faithful Conservative.

He served the Conservative party faithfully all the years of his adult life and sacrificed many of his political rewards in order to advance the interests of its cause in this province. He was Minister of Militia and Defence in the administration of Sir MacKenzie Bowell and Minister of Public Works in the cabinet of Sir Charles Tupper, but, like many of his colleagues met defeat in the elections of 1896, when Sir Wilfrid Laurier swept the country. His last political fight was in the county of Richelieu.

The late Hon.—Mr. Desjardins, was born at Terrebonne, P.Q., May 6, 1841. Educated at Masson College, Terrebonne, and at Nicolet College, he was called to the bar 1862, and practiced his profession in Montreal. In 1868 he gave up law for journalism. After serving on the editorial staff of L'Ordre for some years, he became chief editor and one of the directors of Nouveau Monde, and in 1872 was created a knight of the order of St. Pius V., in acknowledgement of his services to the church of Rome.

Sat For Hochelaga.

A Conservative in politics he sat for Hochelaga in the House of Commons, in that interest, 1878-92, when he was called to the Senate. He was mayor of Montreal, 1893. He entered Sir Mackenzie Bowell's Government, as Minister of Militia, January 15, 1896, and in March of that year was along with Lord Strathcona and the late Hon. A. L. Dickey, an official delegate to Washington respecting the Manitoba School Question. On the formation of Sir Charles Tupper's Administration May 1, 1896 he took office under him as Minister of Public Works, and retired with his leader and colleagues after their defeat at the polls the same year, being himself defeated as a candidate for Richelieu.

Hon. Mr. Desjardins was connected with the following institutions: President of the Provincial Bank, President of the Chambre de Commerce, President of the Credit-Foncier de Bas Canada. Director of the Anti-Alcoholl League. Montreal Citizen's Association. Le Comptoir Mobilier du Canada, Credit-Foncier Franco-Canadien. Deputy-chairman of the board of Trustees of the Guardian Insurance Co., Vice-president of the Canadian Accident Assurance Company, President of the Montreal Terra-Cotta Lumber Company.

WOMAN CONDUCTS HER OWN DEFENCE AND LOSES THE CASE

Jury Finds Angolina Gratton Guilty of Purse-Snatching From a Woman.

Standing in the prisoner's dock of the Court of King's Bench, yesterday afternoon, Miss Angelina Gratton, alias Forget, conducted her own defence on the charge of purse snatching. But although she questioned the witnesses in a sharp manner, and held a handkerchief to her eyes when the jury filed in at the critical moment, she was found guilty. She subsequently pleaded not guilty to a second charge. She was accused of stealing a satchel from Victoria Combere in a crowd at the corner of St. Catherine and St. Denis streets.

Ferdinand Demontier was found guilty of assault.

The following true bills were returned by the Grand Jury:—

Benjamin Abeles, charged with having threatened with intent to extort money from Moses Weinstein, threatening to accuse him of perjury.

Albert J. Lee, charged with having obtained under false pretence $500 from Louis Helie, in November, 1911.

Moses Weinstein, charged with having committed perjury during the progress of a case in the Superior Court, by swearing that Abraham Levine was no relation, whereas he was a brother-in-law of Abraham Levine.

Rose Lemieux, charged with defilement of a girl under eighteen years of age.

Lambert was subsequently arraigned and pleaded not guilty, being released on the same bail that was furnished at the time of his arrest, $4,000 personal and two bondsmen of $2,000 each. Weinstein pleaded not guilty and was released on $800 bail.

Rose Lemieux, John Sheridan, Benjamin Abeles and Albert J. Lee elected to be tried before the Court of Special Sessions.

Sydney Passes Bonus By-Law

Six to One Vote in Favor of Million Dollar Shipbuilding Grant.

Sydney N.S., June 5—The ratepayers of Sydney yesterday approved the granting of a million dollar bonus to the British-Canadian Shipbuilding Co. by a six to one vote. The total vote was for, 1,041; against, 172. Barely one-third of those qualified voted. Many could not leave work, and many others were somewhat apathetic, the result being a foregone conclusion.

Mr. A. C. Ross, secretary of the company, said last evening that work would begin in the autumn, as soon as the necessary preliminary arrangements were concluded. The site will be a little to the north of the International pier.

TEST OF WIRELESS TELEPHONY OVER 480 MILES SUCCESS

Marseillaise, played in Algiers, Heard and Registered on Yacht at Toulon.

London, June 5.—The Paris correspondent of the Daily News, says:

"Remarkable experiments in wireless telephone are said to be proceeding at Toulon on board the yacht Hirondelle, belonging to Prince Albert of Monaco.

"By means of an apparatus invented by M. De Lepel, the Marseillaise, played at Algiers, was registered and definitely heard aboard the Hirondelle.

"The application of the discovery, which is said to consist in registering sounds instead of merely conventional signs, will prevent, it is claimed, the interception of messages and lead to the simplification of the transmitting and receiving apparatus.

"The opinions of two French scientists, Wm. Branley and Vivian, were sought by 'La Liberte.' M. Branley, one of the discoverers of wireless telegraphy, declined to offer an opinion, on the ground that he knows nothing about M. De Lepel's apparatus or of the inventor himself. M. Vivian, of the Marconi Company, declares that similar experiments have already been carried out at a distance of 250 miles by two French officers, Jance and Colin."

The distance between Toulon and Algiers is about 480 miles.

No Liquor At Officers' Mess

But Hon. Col. Hughes Will Allow Them to Keep It in Their Tents.

Ottawa, June 5.—It is understood that Col. the Hon. Sam Hughes, Minister of Militia and Defence, has issued orders that no liquor shall be allowed on the table of the officers' mess in the training camps. The Minister is determined that the officers shall set an example to the men, and while the officers can keep liquor in their tents it will not be allowed in public.

The Minister understands that an agitation is on foot to have canteens again in the camps and those favoring it are using means stating that liquor can be got near by to camps. Col. Hughes will see that his regulations are rigidly kept and spare no one who disobeys them.

VON BIEBERSTEIN MAKES MOST DRAMATIC EXIT.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Constantinople, June 5.—Baron Marschell Von Bieberstein, the German ambassador, who has been transferred to London, made a dramatic exit from Constantinople through a wall of flame.

The fire, which destroyed a large portion of Stamboul, constantly threatened the railroad, and as the flames surrounded tracks the ambassador's train was delayed for some time. It was finally decided, however, to make a dash through the fire, and the train was driven straight through the flame area.

It came out safely, though the cars were slightly scorched.

DUKE SYMPATHIZES WITH OVERSEAS CLUB MOVEMENT

His Royal Highness Received Mr. Evelyn Wrench, Honorary Organizer, at Quebec.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Quebec, June 5.—His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught received Mr. Evelyn Wrench, honorary organizer of the Overseas Club, yesterday, and expressed his deepest sympathy with the movement. Mr. Wrench left for Toronto to-day, and he hopes to address the local members on Wednesday, before starting on his western trip.

It is true that a Canadian exhibition is not wanted, but a counter show costing $10,000 is the headquarters.

NEW SYSTEM FOR TRADE STATISTICS PROGRAMME

Designed by Hon. G. E. Foster to Prevent Overlapping by the Provinces.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, June 5.—The Hon. G. E. Foster, after negotiating with the various provinces, is inaugurating a system of co-operation in the preparation of accurate statistics of trade within Canada. At the present time the several provinces are preparing their own figures, and there is considerable overlapping.

CONTROL CONVENTION OR BOLT, ROOSEVELT'S PLAN

Convincing the Laggards.

To have accepted the machine nomination for temporary chairman would have been to postpone joining battle until the convention had begun to find itself. In favor of this course, were the strong arguments that many Republicans who were inclined to nominate Mr. Roosevelt for the presidency, were not prepared to affront an equally good Republican who had been of distinguished service to his country and his party by refusing to allow him to preside over the opening sessions of the Convention. Mr. Roosevelt's chief hope of winning is in convincing wavering delegates that he is bound to win. A defeat, even if it were only on a tactical and minor point, might send many of the timid scurrying back to the formal safety of being with the "regular" organization.

It would be a fine thing to defeat the National committee at the outset—to "show it up" as having lost the confidence of the party and as being incapable of carrying out the first steps of its programme. After that, the only question would be the size of the majority for Roosevelt on the first ballot.

But it is one thing to see such an advantage and another thing to secure it. Mr. Root himself is no weakling. Andrew Carnegie yesterday morning nominated him for the presidency, although there are other good reasons for believing that he has as little chance of securing that honor as the Laird of Skibo himself. It may also be safely assumed that Mr. Root did not allow himself to be slated for the position of temporary chairman because of any personal desire for the hollow honor the position would give him. There are still wise and astute politicians in the Taft ranks.

Mr. Roosevelt's Reasons.

Mr. Roosevelt's sudden reversal of his decision to let the National Committee proceed to organize the Convention in the regular way may, therefore, be due to any one of several causes. He may believe that, from the outset, he can control enough delegates to take everything into his own hands. He says he does and so do the lieutenants, but Mr. Roosevelt is not devoid of guile and these assertions are not altogether convincing. He may be "taking chances" as he has often taken them before, and be risking everything on the moral effect this action will have in forcing the shilly-shallying delegates to attach themselves definitely to his fortunes so as to be sure of a first chance in the division of spoils after the election—if there are any spoils.

Is He Organizing a Bolt?

More likely still, it may mean that Mr. Roosevelt is preparing to do what he has long threatened—to re-organize the Republican party under a new name, necessarily, and by an expedient which, as a Boss, he freely deprecated—a wholesale "bolt."

It is no doubt true that Mr. Roosevelt sincerely believes that the test of Republicanism is the acceptance of Theodore Roosevelt as dictator and prophet. With equal sincerity, the "Progressives" have been working for the same ends—the radical reform of the fundamentals of the Republican organization—but their test of republicanism is very different.

There will be many "Progressive" delegates at the Republican Convention. Some, but by no means all of them, believe that Roosevelt, with all his faults, is the man of the moment, the hope of the country, and other high-sounding things which go with the Progressive creed, which is joyous and unfettered in its phraseology as well as in its ideals.

There will be many other delegates, who, while far from being "Progressive," are for the nomination of Roosevelt for a variety of reasons, running from confidence in the strength of his personality down to a desire to get or retain their "jobs."

Suppose that the issue is joined the moment the Convention assembles. Mr. Root is nominated by the "machine," which is to say the old, historic influences of the Republican party. The real progressives, the Roosevelt Progressives and the Roosevelt followers make joint cause against it and are defeated. There is nothing which they hold in common with the National Convention which has thus declared itself. Therefore the obvious thing to do is to hold a Convention of their own—in other words, to "bolt."

There are many little incidents which add an air of probability to the theory that this is the real reason for Mr. Roosevelt's having decided to precipitate the fight on the Temporary Chairmanship. Some person or persons unknown have hired one of the huge armories in Chicago for the week of the Convention and are fitting it up with electric lights and seats. The purpose has not yet been specified, but it would just suit an emergency convention.

The Roosevelt delegates from the various states are electing members to what they call an "Executive Committee." "Executive Committee" of what? There is room only for the National Committee in the regular Republican convention.

Three national tickets next November is a very possible contingency. Then look out for a red-hot campaign.

MANY AT SERVICE FOR EX.-ALD. GUAY.

Former Mayor of St. Henri is Interred in Cote des Neiges Cemetery.

The funeral of ex-Ald. Eugene Guay took place to-day from his home, 100 Agnes street, to the St. Henri Church and was largely attended.

The funeral service was solemnized by the Rev. Father A. Cadot. Rev. Father Paiement, acting as deacon, and Rev. D. Couyrette as sub-deacon.

The floral tributes were numerous. Among those present were: Mayor Lavallee, Ald. Letourneau, Controller Dr. Lachapelle, Louis Coderre, M.P., Dr. David, H. Laderville, L. Masse, M. Leroux, J. Guay, L. Lachapelle, S. Visina, O. Gagne, and many others.

The interment took place in the Cote des Neiges cemetery.

TRADE WITH FRANCE SHOWS INCREASE.

That the trade between Canada and France as re-inaugurated by the Franco-American treaty, is growing rapidly, is proved by the fact that the Lake Erie of the Allan Line, which sailed from Montreal, had on board 96,000 bushels of grain and 2,500 tons of general cargo, all consigned to France. The Lake Erie is bound for Havre, and this cargo, which she carries, will enter France duty-free according to the provisions of the previously mentioned treaty.

on each contest. There are 226 contests which will mean 226 hours of oratory if the warring spouters take their full time. But many of the contests are likely to be covered by the same rules and conditions and a whole bunch of them disposed of in a job lot.

Dick, who came up from Ohio exuding good cheer to-day as a result of the victory of the Taft forces there, predicted that all the contests would be decided in favor of the President; that Root would be elected Chairman and that the President would be renominated on the first ballot with more than six hundred votes to his credit."

Former Reactionaries on Hand.

A score of former New York "reactionaries," but now back of the Colonel, showed up last night to get the gloves and water bottles ready. George Manchester, one of the old Odell crowd was in command. "Hoot" Bender, formerly of Albany, was another. They both predicted (in the strictest confidence of course), that it would be "T. R. under wraps, all the way."

With the arrival of Senator Joseph M. Dixon and Congressman William B. McKinley to-day, things were expected to start going full blast at Roosevelt and Taft headquarters, respectively, both in the Congress Hotel. Both were scheduled to arrive on early morning trains.

Other leaders expected in to-day were Secretary Lafayette, B. Gleason, of the National Convention, National Committeeman Charles F. Brooker, of Connecticut; J. K. Hutchinson, jr., president of the Taft organization in the East; Lucius N. Littauer; National Committeeman Frank B. Kellog, of Minnesota; National Committeeman T. Colemon Dupont, of Delaware, all Taft partisans, and National Committeeman William L. Ward, of New York, and Charles H. Duell, of New York, both of Roosevelt following.

George Manchester, also of Roosevelt (New York) staff, beat Senator Dixon to town last night, marshaling with him a crowd of youngsters from the T. R. headquarters in Washington. These youngsters affected the rah-rah style of gear and proceeded to attract to themselves immediately all attention in the Congress hotel lobby by bunching together and singing a Teddyized version of Champ Clark's "Houn Dawg song," the first stanza of the parody running like this:

"Teddy's got a dawg, but he ain't no houn.
He's a square jawed bull, an his face is roun;
His legs is short an' he's close to the groun,'
An' you bet they ain't a-kicking Teddy's dawg aroun'.

The result in Ohio was peculiarly disappointing to Roosevelt forces, who had counted on a victory following the success of Walter Brown in securing his re-election as state chairman. It was calmly stated at the Roosevelt headquarters that the selection of Taft delegates at-large from Ohio, following the Hooseveit victory at the fifteen popular primaries, emphasized the difference between the Roosevelt "leaders" and the Taft "bosses."

It seemed certain to-day that the Taft delegates will be seated in convention in nearly every case, the only States where exceptions are expected being Texas and Washington. The advance briefs of the southern contests indicate for the most part that the Taft delegates were elected at regular conventions officered by regular officials, and members of committee privately insisted to-day that they could not be expected to go behind the face of the returns in deciding the mooted questions.

Sensational allegations are promised in southern cases. "Lily whiteism," versus "black and tan," is to be argued out before the committee. In Louisiana, Virginia and Arkansas, McTarg for the Roosevelt forces will allege that blacks were refused permission to vote.

TAFT GETS OHIO'S DELEGATES AT LARGE.

Roosevelt Says He Did It By "Pure Political Brigandage."

Columbus, Ohio, June 5.—President Taft won in the fight for Ohio's six delegates-at-large to the Republican National convention at the State convention yesterday. The official vote was: Taft, 390; Roosevelt, 362.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 5.—"Pure political brigandage," said Col. Roosevelt, of the capture of Ohio's six delegates-at-large to the Republican National convention by supporters of President Taft.

"The plain people of the Republican party of Ohio have just held a statewide primary in which they repudiated Mr. Taft by over 30,000 majority," he said. "The politicians by adroit manipulation have succeeded in giving Mr. Taft the six delegates-at-large, in frank and cynical defiance of the emphatic action of the people themselves. This is, of course, pure political brigandage. In this fight I have from beginning to end sought to give the people the right to say whom they wanted to have as president, and have not merely by word, but action, made it evident that I did not wish the nomination unless the majority of the rank and file of the Republican party wished me to have it.

"This action in Ohio is merely a fresh and conclusive proof that Mr. Taft and his advisers care nothing for the will of the people and are eager to get the nomination without any reference to the methods by which it is secured without any reference to whether or not delegates represent the people whom they are supposed to represent. It is a crowning illustration of Mr. Taft's theory of government of the people by a representative part of the people.

EASY FOR ROOSEVELT, SAYS SENATOR DIXON.

New York, June 5.—Senator Dixon, manager of the Roosevelt campaign, before departing for Chicago, issued the following statement:—

"It is not humanly and physically possible for Mr. Taft to get a majority of delegates to the convention. His campaign has collapsed. That will be seen on the first ballot. They have stolen the six delegates at large from Ohio by three card monte politics. What they have done shows the contrast between the methods of Col. Roosevelt and Mr. Taft."

In speaking of a statement issued by William, Barnes, jr., to-day, attacking Col. Roosevelt, Senator Dixon said: "If I were Mr. Barnes I would not get into a controversy with a man like Theodore Roosevelt, because of the existence of a certain State document—I refer to the report of the committee that investigated Albany."

ANY DEMOCRAT CAN WIN, SAYS MACK.

New York, June 5.—"The Democratic party has several candidates for the Presidential nomination, and any one of them is strong enough to defeat either Taft or Roosevelt," remarked Norman E. Mack, national chairman of the Democratic National Committee, while here to-day on a flying visit. The National Chairman left for Albany, and after a few days up State will go to Baltimore to open his headquarters there next Monday.

"If half what Roosevelt and Taft are saying about the Republican party is true, then that party ought to be indicted by the grand jury," said Mr. Mack. "This country has never witnessed such a spectacle as has been given by President Taft and Col. Roosevelt in the last two months.

"The American people have made up their minds to kick the Republican party out of power, and it doesn't make any difference whether they nominate Taft, Roosevelt or a dark or brown horse."

While spearing suckers at the creek in Lyn, Frank McCready made a catch of a peculiar species of a fish, which set all the disciples of Walton guessing. It is believed that the fish is an Atlantic salmon. It measures 28 inches long and weighs seven and one-half pounds.

English & Scotch Woollen Co. plan puts the latest New York styles, the latest and choicest suit and overcoat fabrics, and the best city tailoring within reach of every man in Canada. It also gives him a suit or overcoat made to his own measure from cloth he himself selects at one-third less than either could buy elsewhere.

$25.00 SUIT OR OVERCOAT. To Your Measure. $15.00

This wonderful value is no exaggeration. It is possible, because we sell you direct and save commission. We are the largest direct men's tailoring concern in Canada, and consequently in buying from us you simply get "wholesale" prices; and on a $25.00 suit, for instance, save $10.00. Isn't this saving worth your while?

If it is not convenient for you to call at our show rooms, 261 St. Catherine Street West, remember that our catalogue is our only salesman. We pay no agents' commissions. The commission that would go to the agent is the profit you make for taking your own order.

Our Spring and Summer Catalogue FREE.

It contains samples of handsome fabrics from which to make your selection. It shows you all the latest styles, and gives you the latest information on dress. It contains all instructions for taking your own measurements. Here is the English and Scotch Woollen Co. guarantee:

If the Clothes are not satisfactory in every way, return them to us. We will refund your money or make you a new garment.

Send for Catalogue at once, while the season is young. It is FREE, and places you under no obligation. A postal card will fetch it.

THE DUCHESS' ILLNESS.

THERE will be general sorrow at the sudden and disquieting illness of Her Royal Highness, the Duchess of Connaught. During her brief stay in the country, she has won the esteem and affectionate igterest of all with whom she has come in contact; and it is just that she has in no way spared herself during the exacting social functions which have followed each other so rapidly which probably accounts for her "break-down." The City of Quebec will be an especial loser from the cutting short of its programme of entertainment and the long visit it had promised itself from the Royal party; but it will doubtless anticipate a completion of the stay some time in the future. Meanwhile all Canada will extend its sympathy to the sick-bed in the Royal Victoria Hospital, and hope for good news and an early recovery.

THE ROOSEVELT-TAFT WAR

TO-DAY'S news is that Roosevelt carries the South Dakota "primaries," and that the Taft forces "steal" the six delegates-at-large from Ohio, a State in which Taft was beaten by a popular majority of over 30,000. The persistence of the Taft campaign, after his rejection by Ohio and his defeat in New Jersey, looks like a sure sign of his intention to run anyway, either as the regular nominee or as a "bolter"; and his friends probably reason that he would stand a better chance if he even 'stole" the Chicago nomination than if he "bolted" it. With Roosevelt and Taft—or a Taftite—both in the field, the one who wears the stamp of "regularity" might expect some advantage. So the Taft forces seem determined to get the formal nomination, by hook or by crook.

It has ceased, however, to be vitally important who is nominated at Chicago. If the votes of the people are regarded at all, Roosevelt will be nominated. This is so plain that he may be regarded as holding the popular nomination already. It is only a question whether the "bosses" can deliver a majority of the Chicago delegates to Taft or some other candidate; and, if they succeed, they will chiefly furnish another and a striking object-lesson of their readiness to ride rough-shod over the will of the people when their interests beckon them on. Roosevelt may be depended upon to make the most of a situation of this sort, and to pretty thoroughly destroy whatever value there might otherwise lie in "regularity" for his opponent.

The position probably is that the Chicago nomination would be a help to Roosevelt, but something of a "scarlet letter" on the back of Taft. If, for instance, Taft is nominated with the help of his six "lifted" delegates from Ohio, he will plainly be nominated against the expressed will of the people they are presumed to represent—the people, by the way, of his own home State. Such a spectacle will make an excellent living campaign "transparency" for Roosevelt. It will show a candidate, seeking the suffrages of the people by defying the people.

It also becomes a nice question whether Roosevelt might not be the gainer in the end if compelled to summon a "rump" convention and run as a "bolter." If he is the "regular" Republican candidate, Radical Democrats will feel a reluctance to vote for him which might not hamper them if he appeared as a "free lance." He would be the official Republican nominee. Some of the Republican "machine" would cling to him, especially after he was elected. He would not be a People's President in the same wide and liberal sense that he would be if elected as an Independent. On the other hand, the conservative or Taft nominee would hold his own section of the party pretty firmly (indeed, as firmly as if he were the "regular" candidate but certain to be beaten. So Roosevelt as a "regular" would not retain the conservative wing of the party, nor yet get the Radical Democrats to the same degree that he would in the character of a "bolter."

As a "bolter," cheated out of the nomination of his party by the "bosses" and the "interests," he would be a most captivating figure in the eyes of all Radicals. He would no longer be the official Republican standard-bearer, but the enemy of the official standard-bearer. He would appear much as an Independent between the two "regular" parties. Thus it would be easy for Democratic Radicals to flock to him; and he might get as many votes from one party as from the other. In such a case, it is even possible that he would gain two Democrats for every Republican he would lose simply because he was not the choice of a controlled Convention.

We think of two Republican tickets splitting the Republican vote, and letting the Democrat in easily between them. But that may not be the situation at all. If the Democrats nominate a less rampant Radical than Roosevelt, we may see two "conservative" tickets splitting the "stand pat" vote, and letting the one Radical—Roosevelt—in between them. A spectacular campaign, especially if he fights outside the breastworks of both parties, will draw to him every Radical who is not party-bound, whereas the Democrats, pure and simple, will naturally think that their chance has come and stick to their own man.

Under such conditions, it is altogether likely that the Democrat will carry the South, that the Taftite will carry New York and the "pocket States" of the East, that Roosevelt will sweep the West; and that the real battle-ground will be the Central States, such as Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Iowa and Illinois. Here, with three tickets in the field, it is difficult to predict. Much will depend upon what the people believe to be the chances of the different candidates. The majority will be heavily against Taft; but it will be divided. If it is too evenly divided, Taft might slip in. But if either Roosevelt or the Democrat looks like a winner, that man will probably get the bulk of the anti-Taft vote in these States, and Roosevelt is a perfect artist in looking like a winner."

RIOTING IN EUROPE.

THE rioting in Belgium and the stormy scenes in Lady Peel show how little confidence is felt yet in some European countries in the machinery of popular election. We on this Continent thus far have been quite content to accept the verdict as the polls, no matter how strongly it may go against us; and this is a condition of things so highly desirable that we ought to strain every nerve to retain it. We must not imagine, however, that we are in any miraculous fashion immune from the microbe of suspicion which sends these European peoples to acts of violence. Let us once get the impression that our elections are corrupt, and our people will—in the face of any great issue—be very likely to appeal from the ballot-box.

The trouble in Hungary is the dominance of a racial oligarchy. The Magyars hold the upper hand by ability and organization and compactness and not by numbers. They are in an actual minority in their own country. Thus they are fighting for their racial position when they oppose universal suffrage and the admission of all citizens of Hungary to an equal amount of political power. That quarrel is very likely to lead to violence, and not to be settled until force has delivered its final verdict. In Belgium, the Clericals seem to have received the adhesion of the more conservative section of the Liberal party, alarmed by the advances of Socialism; and their unexpected victory at the polls has stung the Radicals to anger. Unfortunately, religion enters into the conflict; and there is no other political force half so dangerous. All will earnestly hope that Belgium may be able to settle her differences without anything like the "revolution" of which the despatches speak; for a civil war in Belgium would be perilously near the world's powder magazine.

The death of the Hon. Alphonse Desjardins recalls one of those quiet, modest, yet effective, careers which are the mainstay of any nation. Hon. Mr. Desjardins was never a noisy politician, but he was one of the most trusted and useful public men in the country, and held high office with conspicuous success and the esteem of his colleagues. He was Mayor of Montreal, and a leading and reliable banker. In Federal politics, he was a great comfort to Sir John Macdonald whom, he steadily supported, retiring to the Senate in 1891, the year of Sir John's death. But he came out of his well-earned retirement in 1896 to join the "sortie" of the Tupper Government in favor of the restoration of Separate Schools in Manitoba—a "sortie" which ended in disaster. The sacrifice involved in withdrawing from politics, was probably not a great one; and now he follows his old chief, Sir John Macdonald, to the grave.

The New York "Times" thinks that the campaign for Reciprocity is being revived in Canada, basing its belief upon the "fact" that the Liberals are winning all the by-elections. Its belief is about as well-founded as the "fact." If it really desires to learn how thoroughly dead Reciprocity is in this country, it might read the comments in the Liberal press on Sir Wilfrid Laurier's late oration on the topic. Sir Wilfrid was simply telling us his opinion of Taft; but the Liberal press took great pains that no one would misunderstand the situation, and industriously dropped a perfect shower of hints that, while the battle for freer trade might go on, this particular skirmish was over with and finished. The Canadian Liberal press is just about as much in favor of Reciprocity as the American Republican press is of Roosevelt.

The increased earnings of the Suez Canal and the further reduction of tolls, indicates a growing trade between Europe and Asia, and once more justifies the far-seeing wisdom of Lord Beaconsfield's purchase for Britain of the Suez Canal shares. Even the disturbances in China have not resulted in preventing this gain in trade. When China settles down and begins to enjoy its better and still better standards of living, its demand for Western goods will immensely increase; and Canada may easily find her trade with the Orient her most profitable outlet. Thus, the day may come when industries will dot the West, and we shall hear less of the divergence in interests between the two sections of the Dominion.

In all our criticism of Senator Smith, his questions and his rhetoric, we should not forget how his promptness reassured and calmed public opinion at its moment of wildest excitement. His methods have been very "American" all through; but one of their "American" features was this very promptness and businesslike directness. The foolish questions hurt no one but the questioner, while the sensible questions threw a lot of light on the tragedy. The Smith enquiry probably put additional life-boats weeks earlier on not a few steamships.

Government By Commission.

San Francisco Bulletin—Evidence of the worth of the commission plan of government is furnished by the fact that the movement goes steadily ahead and is not hampered by backsliders. As everybody knows, the plan was originated in Galveston eleven years ago. For four years Galveston stood alone. Then Houston followed its example. A year passed without any further additions, but in 1907 nine cities, including Des Moines, fell into line. The next year, 1908, increased the list by six. Then came a rush that is still on. In 1909 twenty-five cities changed to the commission plan, in 1910 fifty-eight, and last year the record was broken with a roll of ninety-five converts for the twelvemonth. At the beginning of the present year the total stood at 206. The list is principally made up of cities and towns containing less than 25,000 inhabitants, but the movement is going up the scale, as is evidenced by its conquest of Lowell, Mass.; Memphis, Tenn.; Omaha, Neb.; Spokane, Wash., and Oakland, Cal., all cities of more than 100,000. Evidently the commission plan of government has come to stay and is destined to become general within a few years, at the most within a decade.

The Army and Democracy.

Springfield Republican—As a sequel to the sedition cases in England the labor member of Parliament, Keir Hardie, made a curious and, of course, futile effort to amend the law so that a recruit to the army would have the right under his contract to refuse to assist the civil power during a trade dispute. Col. Seely, speaking for the War Office, protested against the assumption that soldiers were called out in a trade dispute simply because it was a trade dispute, and reminded the House that not a single striker had been shot since the days of the South African War. He had no difficulty in showing what an impossible situation would be created in the army by such a law, and Keir Hardie had no more success with his proposal to put officers and privates on the same footing with respect to punishments. A cashiered officer, explained Col. Seely, suffered a greater punishment than an imprisoned private. It will be long before democracy invades the army, and perhaps by that time democracy will have made militarism impossible.

The Conquering Automobile.

Boston Transcript—Prince Edward Island, which in the past has possessed many attractions for summer tourists, has found this patronage steadily declining, and in casting about for a reason, her citizens are reaching the conclusion that it is caused by the banning of the automobile. Efforts will be made to remove that restriction. This is a result that might easily have been foreseen by a people more broadly in touch with the movements of time. The world is very full of attractive resorts, but the automobile has become an almost indispensable medium of summer pleasures. The grass now generally grows in the roads where it is not permitted to travel.

Making the Country.

Mail and Empire—Mr. Hays' work in the rejuvenation and expansion of the Grand Trunk system and in the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific is work in the making of this country. Had the Grand Trunk Railway been under such management for the ten years preceding Mr. Hays' administration this country would have gone forward much faster than it did, for one of the reasons for the withholding of British capital from Canada, in the latter part of the last century, was the unfortunate experience of those financially interested in the Grand Trunk. It is much to be desired that the man chosen to succeed Mr. Hays be not unduly under external influence of any kind, whether of directors in Great Britain or of railway interests in the United States, but may be dominated by ideas for the upbuilding of Canada.

CONGREGATIONALISTS MEETS

Conference Elects Its Officers at To-Day's Session.

Mr. B. Macaulay presided at the Congregational Union of Canada's conference in the Zion Congregational Church to-day.

The Missionary Society's treasurer's statement showed disbursements of the General Mission Fund, as being $17,434.47 for the year ending May 31, 1912, leaving a deficit balance of over $2,000.

A report on the work of the Immigration Department was submitted by the Rev. Frank J. Day, in which he mentioned that the number of Congregationalists going to places where there are no Cangregational Churches is decreasing. This year the percentage was 30, as compared with 31 the year before. The numbers of immigrants going to Winnipeg and the west rose from 41 per cent. to 55 per cent. of the whole. The number of Congregationalists met at Quebec and Halifax for the year totalled 1,532.

Membership Committee—Dr. Warriner, convener; Revs. Golen H. Craik, Dr. Schofield, Harold I. Horsey, W. Hipkin, Dr. Martin, and Mr. W. A. Lamb.

Business Committee—Revs. D. C. McIntosh, convener; J. Lambert Alexander, I. W. Pierce, M. H. Sanderson, Herbert Moule, Messrs. Charles Duff, Geo. Mills, T. B. Williams, and Robert Robertson.

Nomination Committee—Revs. M. Kelly, convener; A. F. Pollock, J. T. Daley, W. E. Gilroy, LeRoy Rice, A. G. Sleep, A. W. Main, Dr. Pedley, Messrs. T. B. Speight, and W. R. Horner.

Finance Committee—Messrs. Thomas Moodie, F. G. Ellis, and R. J. Parke.

Press Committee—Revs. E. D. Silcox and W. Wye Smith.

The meeting adjourned at 1 p.m., for luncheon, served by the ladies of Zion and Union Congregational Churches.

Open conference of the Young People's Department, in charge of the Rev. H. I. Horsey, occupied the afternoon session. Tea will be served at 6 p.m., followed by the evening session at 8 o'clock.

To-morrow morning's session will commence at 9 o'clock.

STRATHCONA OFFERS DALHOUSIE $15,000.

Halifax, N. S., June 5.—The following cable was received from Lord Strathcona this morning:—

"Will gladly give fifteen thousand dollars as a sum needed to make up $400,000 required for Dalhousie University."

A campaign to secure $400,000 for Dalhousie University is now on in this city. Of this sum $236,000 has already been secured.

American Warships for Cuba.

Washington, June 5.—After a conference between President Taft and Secretary of State Knox at the White House to-day, it was announced that the United States would immediately despatch four battleships to Cuban waters.

POST OFFICE ON WHEELS.

It Moves Every Day and Gets Letters From All Parts of Earth.

Among the many points of interest on the show grounds of Ringling Brothers' circus is a fully equipped post-office. It was not established by the government, yet it is larger than many that are run in the Dominion of Canada. There probably is no other in America visited daily by such a crowd of cosmopolitans.

Jules Turnour is the postmaster of Ringlingville. He is well fitted for the job, as he speaks French, German, Spanish, Hindoostani and Polish, and knows enough Chinese, Japanese, Portuguese and modern Greek to make himself understood in those tongues.

Fifteen minutes after the last section of the circus train reached town, Jules may be found at the town post-office. There he fills his mail bags with buddles of letters, newspapers and packages from all corners of the earth. In another fifteen minutes he is in his own office on the grounds. He distributes his mail and then opens the window. A long line of strange people, representatives from twenty-nine nations, stands in waiting. A congress of tongues begins wagging as they did in the Tower of Babel. Letters come to Ringlingville every week from more than a hundred European and Asiatic cities.

The Ringling shows will be in Montreal on June 10 and 11, showing on Delorimier avenue, just above Ontario street.

SCENE OF KINRADE MURDER IS SOLD.

Hamilton, Ont., June 5.—No. 105 Kerkhimer street, the scene of the famous Kinrade murder, was sold to-day by Thomas L. Kinrade, father of the murdered girl, Ethel Kinrade, to Malcolm M. Webb.

ST. JOHN DRY DOCK PLANS HAVE BEEN FILED.

Dock Will Be 1150 Feet Long, and 35 Feet in Depth.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, June 5.—Plans for one of the largest dry docks in America are being filed with the Public Works Department by the Norton Griffiths Company, contractors for the extensive harbor improvements at St. John, N.B. The dock, which is part of the improvement scheme, will be 1,150 feet long and 35 feet deep. It will cost about four million dollars and come within the provisions of the Subsidy Act.

KILLED BY STREET CAR.

Aged Employe of St. Louis de France Church the Victim.

Joseph Gaudry, who was struck by a street car yesterday at the corner of Cadieux and Pine avenue, died in the afternoon at the Royal Victoria Hospital. Gaudry was an employe of the St. Louis de France Church, 70 years of age, and lived in the presbytery. At the inquest this morning the jury brought in a verdict of accidental death.

HON. T. D. HAZEN IS FIFTY-TWO TO-DAY.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Ottawa, June 5.—The Hon. J. D. Hazen, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, celebrated to-day his 52nd birthday. The staff presented him with a floral bouquet. Mr. Hazen left for St. John this afternoon.

ARRANGE FOR FUNERAL OF HON. MR. DESJARDINS

Montreal Branch of Canadian Manufacturers Adopt Sympathetic Resolution.

The funeral of the late Hon. Alphonse Desjardins, P.C., will take place in Terrebonne next Friday on the arrival of a special train which will leave Place Viger, at 8.30 a.m., returning after the funeral service. Friends and acquaintances are invited without any further invitation.

A special meeting of the Executive Committee of the Montreal Branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association was held at noon to-day, when a resolution was adopted on the death of the late Honorable Mr. Desjardins, who had been one of the most active members of the committee, and, during the past year, chairman of the sub-committee on Legislation.

The following were also appointed to attend the funeral services as representatives of the Association, was passed: Messrs. N. Curry, president; J. H. Sherrard, chairman; Col. C. A. Smart, vice-chairman; Col. Robt. Gardner, J. S. N. Dougall, C. S. J. Phillips, T. P. Howard, S. W. Ewing, Geo. Esplin, G. W. Sadler, Wm. Waugh and H. T. Meldrum.

Resolved, that the Executive Committee of the Montreal Branch of the Canadian Manufacturers Association records with deep sorrow the death of the Honorable Alphonse Desjardins, one of His Majesty's Privy Councillors for Canada and one of the most valuable and most beloved members of this Committee.

That Mr. Desjardins was a member of this Committee for the past three years and during that time he was faithful in his attendance at its meetings, keen in his interest in the work of the Association, and ever ready to lend the advice and assistance which his long and useful career in the industrial and financial life of Canada; his experience in civic administration and his distinguished services as a Member of the House of Commons, as a Member of the Senate and as a Member of the Government of Canada, made especially valuable. His careful judgment and his rich experience made him a safe and wise Councillor; while his genial yet dignified courtesy endeared him to his colleagues on this Committee.

That to Madame Desjardins and the family this Committee extends its most sincere sympathy in the loss they have sustained, a loss felt, though in a lesser degree, by the members of the Association, by all Montrealers and by Canadians generally.

PIRATES ON LAKE ST. LOUIS, LOOK OUT FOR BLACK FLAG

Hist! Not a word. There are bad bold, and fearless pirates on Lake St. Louis. They have not only hoisted the black flag, but they have secured one vessel, a first class twenty-four foot motor boat, the property of Mr. C. E. Pratt, who during the summer months enjoys the cool breezes off Lake St. Louis at his country residence in Beaconsfield.

That the pirates, whoever they may be, are experts in the handling of motor engines, there is little doubt, for not only did they succeed in successfully controlling a strange motor engine, and get away with it without leaving the least trace as to their destination, but they completed the hasardous task, without awakening the least suspicion of Mr. Pratt and his family who were in the land of slumber at the time. How they succeeded in doing this is a mystery. The engine in Mr. Pratts boat is known as a first class one for kicking up a row when in motion, but no one heard it start on Monday night.

After spending a pleasant day on the water, Monday being a holiday, Mr. Pratt's son tied up his boat which is valued at about $400 at the Beaconsfield wharf about 100 yards out. Nor was the boat tied in a lady-like manner, Mr. Pratt, jr., is a hardy sailor and took pains to ancher her at both ends.

This, however, was apparently not too much for the pirates, for they got away in good style. Whether the pirates succeeded in starting the motor or towed the little craft to a safe distance, is unknown, but Mr. Pratt has so far failed to get his eye on the boat.

Champ de Mars Tenders.

Tenders were opened by the Board of Control to-day for the remodelling of the Champ de Mars. Two offers were received from John Quinlan. One was for $34,000 and the other for $36,000. The quality of the stone to be supplied was the difference in the price. The only other offer received was from T. Lessard and he asked

FROM THE STAR FILES THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY.

The Late Carroll Ryan.

"The meeting at St. Ann's last night was a wild affair. Mr. Tasse opened proceedings by calling upon Carroll Ryan to substantiate his charges. When Mr. Ryan appeared he was loudly cheered, and when he rose to speak Mr. Tasse's supporters attempted to howl him down. The large number of the Liberals present resisted. Finally Mr. Ryan got a hearing, and attempted to prove his case by documents." — From The Montreal Star, June 5th, 1882.

THE late Mr. Carroll Ryan was all his life a member of the Liberal party. His friends, however, and they were many, voiced the opinion that if he had lived to last fall his eloquent utterances would have been hurled against Reciprocity, as a more loyal Canadian did not live. Carroll Ryan was born in Toronto on February 3rd, 1859. He was the youngest son of Thomas Ryan, of Odrone, Ireland, who came to Canada in 1818. When the Crimean War broke out there were many German, Polish and Hungarian refugees in this country and the United States, most of them inspired with intense hatred of Russia, who offered to raise a regiment for service in the Crimea. The offer was accepted and Colonel Bowles, a distinguished officer, who had seen active service in India, was appointed to the command of the corps, which was named the 3rd Jagers, British-German Legion. Most of the 500 men who composed the regiment were, like the officers, revolutionary refugees, and a more desperate body of men could scarcely have been collected together. Besides Col. Bowles, the only other British officer was Lieut. Daly, son of Sir Timothy Daly, of Toronto. From Quebec, where they assembled, they were drafted to Spithead, Portsmouth, Eng. Among the Montrealers who went with them were Leon Gosselin, son of the late Judge Gosselin, and Johnny Warwick, a famous bugilist in those days. Carroll Ryan, of Toronto, joined them with Count Pilsudski, who was given a captaincy. Mr. Ryan was transferred to the Turkish contingent, and proceeded to Scutari, where he joined the command of Lieut.-Col. Goodacre, of Montreal. It was not until 1857 that the contingent was disbanded, and Mr. Ryan returned home to Canada. He published his first book at Hamilton in September, 1857, and had his first experience about that time on the Hamilton Times. Subsequently he was in the 100th Prince of Wales Royal Canadian Regiment, at Gibraltar and Malta, returning in 1866. He left the service to assume the editorship of the Volunteers Review, Ottawa. For twenty-five years he was a member of the Reporters' Gallery of the House of Commons. In 1882 he was elected president of the Gallery, and was presented by the Liberals with a gold watch and chain in recognition of his services to the party. In 1880 he became editor of the Ottawa Free Press. He was acting A.D.C. to Lieut.-General Sir E. Selby Smyth, retiring with the rank of captain in 1878. Since 1889 he has resided with his family in Montreal.

"Chicago.—The grocery men of Irondale posted notices that the strikers would be expected to settle their accounts before receiving further credit. An indignation meeting of strikers this afternoon resolved to "boycott" the leaders in the 'no credit' system or movement."—From The Montreal Star, June 5th, 1882.

THIS was a case of "belling the cat."

"Minneapolis, June 3. — The Northern Pacific Railway has purchased from the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba Railway the latter's line along the east bank of the Mississippi River, between Watabaa and Anoka. The Northern Pacific will now bridge the Mississippi at Anoka, and from that point extend purchase line into Minneapolis. These changes assure the Northern Pacific a continuous line from Minneapolis to Brainard." — From The Montreal Star, June 5th, 1882.

THIS was a most interesting period, and much could be written covering at least a decade subsequent to the meeting of Donald A. Smith and Jim Hill at the Staging House in Morris, Manitoba, when the great things in our subsequent Canadian history were conceived. The results, however, have practically been the creation of an Empire.

WANT A LIEN ON HIGHWAY.

Workers Claim it for Unpaid Wages.

That he should hold part of the public highway to guarantee his unpaid wages is the unusual demand made by the plaintiff in the case of Dagenais vs. Leedham. The defendant some time ago undertook to do road-making for the town of Beaconsfield. It is alleged that Leedham failed to pay three of the men, with the result that the latter wish to take out a lien on the road itself.

The town of Beaconsfield claims that a public highway devoted to the common use of the citizens, cannot be considered as a "construction" as viewed in the article of the code, guaranteeing workmen's claims.

DEVOTES HIMSELF TO GARDEN CITIES IN THE NORTHWEST

Mr. Guy W. Hayler Arrives to Live in Winnipeg and Resume Life Work.

Garden cities are springing up all over England, according to Mr. Guy W. Hayler, a city planning expert, who is in Montreal to-day, on his way to Winnipeg, to address the first Canadian National Congress on City Planning, in July, on "The Essential Elements of City Planning."

Mr. Hayler was formerly a member of the firm of Mark H. Judge, Son & Hayler, of Pall Mall, London, but he intends to take up his residence in Winnipeg, and devote himself to garden planning in Canada.

The great impetus which has been given to the laying out of garden cities in England is largely due, he said, to the Housing and Town Planning Act which was recently passed by the Government at the instance of Mr. John Burns, the president of the Local Government Board. This Act empowers local authorities to lay out lands adjacent to cities, and so direct the creation of model suburbs, instead of allowing them to grow in haphazard fashion, as in the past.

A distinction is made, he says, between garden cities, garden suburbs, and garden villages. The garden city is a self-contained community surrounded permanently by a wide belt of agricultural and park land. The garden suburb, which is seen in its best form at Hampstead, is intended to provide healthful places of residence, to relieve the overcrowding of cities. The garden villages are exemplified in such places as Port Sunlight, Bourneville, and Earswick, where large employers of labor have moved into the country and provided model housing for their workmen around their factories.

There are strong organizations for town planning and garden city work in England, and they are working hand in hand with the local authorities, and have the co-operation of the best architectural and engineering talent in the country.

The Local Government Board has recently added a town planning department to its staff, and the chief of this department Mr. Thomas Adams, was for some years secretary of the Garden City Association.

In order to relieve the disastrous overcrowding of the towns and the depopulation of the country, rapid transit schemes are being worked out with the garden city and garden suburb idea, and the foremost engineers of the country are giving their best thought to the solution of the rapid transit problem.

There is a general tendency, also, to remove factories from congested areas to places where the employes can have detached houses a short distance from their work.

TENDERS CALLED FOR TWO SERVICES WITH WEST INDIES

One Between Canada and British Guiana, via the Islands, and Another to Jamaica.

Ottawa, June 5.—The Government has already taken up the question of a fast steamship service between Canada and the West Indies, and tenders are being called for two services, one from Canadian ports to British Guiana, calling en route at the islands which have signed the trade agreement with the Dominion.

Fast and commodious vessels designed to carry both passengers and freight are being called for for this service. The second service is between the Maritime Provinces and Jamaica, touching at Bermuda. Jamaica has already promised a $100,000 subsidy yearly for this service. It will connect with lines to Great Britain from Halifax and St. John.

When the trade agreement between the West Indies and Canada was signed it was decided that faster steamship facilities were absolutely necessary, and the present announcement shows the Minister of Trade and Commerce has not been letting the grass grow under his feet.

TRANSCONA, MAN.

New combined railway shops of the Transcontinental and Grand Trunk Pacific, costing $5,000,000 are just finished at Transcona (six miles east of Winnipeg). The shops will employ 5,000 skilled workmen, and this will mean at least 20,000 residents in two years' time where only 1,500 live to-day. Transcona has excellent trackage from all three transcontinental lines, and is receiving the greatest attention by manufacturers looking for sites for their new western factories. Prices now are rock-bottom with the greatest chance in the West for rapid increases in prices. Write for the best values on inside lots. R. C. Cockshot, 606 Ashdown Bldg., Winnipeg, Man. 116 26

PRIZE WINNING B. C. Fruit Lands—Own a five acre fruit and poultry tract (or more) in British Columbia and be independent for life. $20 down and $10 a month pays for it. No interest, and payments extended in case of sickness. From $500 to $1500 per acre realized by ranchers in this famous prize winning district of British Columbia—The Main Kootenay Lake. Ideal climate conditions; no rainy seasons as on the coast; no dry season or irrigation needed as in the Okanagan or East Kootenay districts. See the Government reports. The Main Kootenay Lake never freezes over and boats run the year around—see reports of other districts. I spent years in finding this ideal spot—I live there—I call it "Harris' Home" the "Honeymoon Place" because its the district to spend one's lifetime in. Send for my books of entitled "Homeseeking," it tells you all you want to know about Central British Columbia country, and there are scores of questions answered. The new booklet "Harris' New Method of Apple Culture" tells you how apples can be made to bear the second year. The way you find it will take five years; this way they come into commercial bearing the second year, and where a farmer made $1000 from an acre he can now make $2000. It is free to you if you will send me names of ten of your friends or relatives that may be interested in buying fruit lands. I have sold to over four hundred people the last four months and would be pleased to send you some of the letters that they write me, that I have received from those who have visited their holdings that I picked out for them. I refund you your money if after seeing your fruit tract for yourself you are not satisfied with it and cannot find any you wish from the rest I have to offer you. If you cannot go onto your tract and wish to retain your present position for a few years and spend your vacation out there I will agree to plant it and take care of it for you for five years at a small additional cost. I allow a discount of 10% for cash, and allow you a good commission in cases you can secure buyers for me. My monthly price list for wild and improved tracts will interest the most careful buyer. My next excursion will be leaving Winnipeg June 11th and I would be pleased to have you join us. Send for my famous "Kootenay Lake Magazine," issued monthly—illustrated and full of good things about that wonderful country. Send $2.50 per year or 25c per sample copy. Write me at once, giving name of a reliable reference, your nationality, amount you wish to invest, and I will forward booklet, map, etc., at once. F. L. Harris, 818 Somerset Block, Winnipeg, Man.

THE KING AT DERBY RACES

Threw Handfuls of Silver to the Gipsies That Lined the Road.

Special to The Montreal Star.

London, June 5.—King George went to the races yesterday afternoon in a long-racing coat of white, with a carnation in his buttonhole. He also wore a silk hat, and drove from the Epsom Downs station to the grandstand in an open carriage. The road was lined with gypsies dressed in their best. The King threw handfuls of new shillings and half crowns for which the gypsy women and children eagerly scrambled.

When the King appeared on the balcony fronting the grandstand at the track he was greeted with tumultous applause and cries of "Good luck to Your Majesty."

Emerald Mine Found In Peru

Special to The Montreal Star.

San Francisco, Cal., June 5.—C. R. Kehler, a noted mining engineer, who has arrived here from Lima, reports that a Greek tavernkeeper named Kalafatovich has discovered in the little town of Acomayo, in Southern Peru, an emerald mine which bears evidence of having been worked by the ancient Peruvians.

Samples of the stones sent to Lima show them to be of the finest quality.

Kalfatovich gave an option to a London syndicate, but the Government has asserted its right to take over the mine by paying an equitable price to the discoverer, and to work the mine itself or lease it to private individuals.

Ionia Prisoner Has Pneumonia.

Special to the Montreal Star.

London, Ont., June 5.—Geo. Esson, a young Petrolea man, who was recently sentenced to an indefinite time in the State prison at Ionia, Mich., in connection with the death of Thos. Major, is in such a critical condition from pneumonia that all hope for his recovery is given up.

DISASTER'S INFLUENCE.

Funds for Sending American Olympic Team Lessened.

New York, June 5.—The Titanic disaster had a marked influence on the amount of funds subscribed for the benefit of the American Olympic team.

So says James E. Sullivan, the American commissioner, in a statement made public here to-day. In the midst of the subscription work, Mr. Sullivan pointed out, the Titanic sank, and a sudden check in the inflow of money was noted. Fortunately, Col. Robert M. Thompson advanced $15,000 towards defraying the expense of the trip to Stockholm; otherwise, Mr. Sullivan says, it looked as though plans for the special steamer would have to be given up.

Tickets are already on sale for the field meet to be held here on June 12, in which the complete American team will take part. Among those who will participate will be Gutterson, the University of Vermont broad jumper, who will try for a world's record.

General orders have been sent out by the Olympic committee, instructing all athletes selected to go abroad to report here for the competition on June 12.

POLICE AND STRIKERS IN HOT CLASH

Striking Dock Laborers Attack Police and Take Possession of Pier and Approaches.

Special to The Montreal Star.

London, June 5.—Rioting broke out to-day in the transport strike, and a battle was fought at Tilbury dock, where the police were overcome. The mob hurled sticks and stones at the defenders.

The policemen fought valiantly, but were driven off, and the strikers took possession of all approaches to the pier. Many were hurt on both sides by flying missles.

TORONTO VARSITY BEAT MOUNT WASHINGTONS

Lacrosse Match Near Baltimore Was Marked by Perfect Passing by Canadians.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Baltimore, Md., June 5. — In one of the most scientific lacrosse games ever seen in this section, the Toronto University team defeated the Mount Washington Club, at Mount Washington yesterday afternoon, 4 to 2. The team work and individual play of both sides was excellent. The passing of the Canadians was almost perfect, and the visitors were frequently cheered. Although the Hillmen lost, they put up a good fight. Toward the close the locals roughed things a little, but failed to penetrate the defence of the visitors.

The Toronto players took their time and passed with accuracy, and, if they did happen to shoot wild, there was always some one to back up the throw, in this way they had the Mount Washington team on the go. The Canadians played very fast.

The Toronto players started off by working the ball down toward the locals' territory, and soon shot a goal, but it was not allowed, as one of their men was in the foul line at the goal posts. The ball was brought back to the centre, and at the blow of the whistle the Mount Washington players were right upon it. After four minutes of hard playing they shot a goal. The ball was passed to Perkins about two feet over his head. He juniped up, caught it on the end of his net and passed it to Armstrong, who shot the first goal of the game. The ball was then see-sawed up and down the field, with the Canadians having the advantage. The rubber was soon taken into the locals' territory, and a lively scrimmage followed. Zinn, of the Toronto team, picked the ball up, and by superior stick work shot a goal and tied the score. W. Bastedo soon followed his team mate with another.

The work of McLean at goal was noteworthy. He made some very difficult stops. Blank, for the locals, also played a good game. The line-up:

Mount Washington — Blank, goal; G. LaMotte, point; Stonecipher, cover point; H. Schmeisser, 1st defence; T. Huck and F. Blank, 2nd defence; Chesney, 3rd defence; R. Wolfe, centre; Lamb, 3rd home; Cook, Hodgins and Perkins, 2nd home; Armstrong, 1st home; Hulbert, outer home; Perkins and Jones, inner home.

Toronto — McLean, goal; Paterson, point; Livingston, cover point; Hassard, 1st defence; MacMahon, 2nd defence; Heinz, 3rd defence; Kirby, centre; W. Bastedo, 3rd defence; B. Bastedo, 2nd defence; Boehm, outer home; Zinn, inside home.

Goals: Armstrong (2), Zinn, B. Bastedo, W. Bastedo and Boehm. Time of halves, 30 minutes. Referee, W. S. Symington. Goal umpires, Raleagh and Cooper. Timer, B. Schmeisser.

NO CHANCE OF RESTORING LOUISIANA RACING.

Majority of Members of Lower House Are Against it.

Baton Rouge, La., June 5.—That horse-racing in Louisiana has little chance of being restored was shown by a poll of the Lower House of the General Assembly, when a majority of the members of that body expressed themselves as opposed to the bill introduced several days ago, providing for the restoration of racing in New Orleans.

A petition asking that members of the House vote against any racing has been circulated in that body by Leon Locke, author of the anti-racing measure of four years ago.

Judge Platzek, of New York, yesterday surprised a lawyer, T. K. O'Neill, by ordering him to take a week for his honeymoon, instead of three days' leave, which O'Neill had requested.

Market Quiet---Cement Shortage Enquiry---Broker's Horse Wins Derby

MARKET TAME PRICES MAKE FEW CHANGES

The market was a very tame affair today, after the fireworks of the past few weeks.

Trading fell to a low volume, and price changes were of a comparatively unimportant nature.

Mackays were a strong feature at 86¼ for common and 91½ for the preferred. C. P. R. was dull, but firm, at 256¾. Montreal Power was quiet, but the price was firm around 208½.

Spanish River sold off from 62½ to 62 in the early trading, but later strengthened to 62¾.

Canadian Cottons eased off to 25, with preferred at 92. Textile was steady at 83¼.

Richelieu was firmer at 116¼; Rio was easier at 136¾ to 136¼, and Car & Foundry at 79 to 78½.

BUYERS AND SELLERS.

Richelieu buyers: Hamilton & Son, Meredith & Co., Mackinnon & Co., Forbes & Co., Hanson Bros., Ferguson.

Richelieu sellers: Turpin & Co., Pitblado & Co., Burnett & Co., O'Brien & Williams.

In Wall Street

Coal stocks were features of strength at the opening of the stock market, Reading, Lehigh Valley and Norfolk & Western soon rising a point or more. American Tobacco and Brooklyn Rapid Transit also were strong, with fractional advances elsewhere in the active group.

Trading was of the usual professional character during to-day's early session of the Stock Exchange. Coal shares again led the movement, with underlying strength in New York Central and other speculative issues. Standard specialties and others of relative unimportance also made gains.

Every indication of bullishness gave way to apathy, which was taken as proof of the market's artificial condition. Aside from the good earnings of Norfolk & Western, there was little in the news to stimulate business.

Crop advices were more cheerful and the steadiness of Steel stocks reflected reports of greater activity at industrial centres.

TORONTO RAILWAY RUMORS.

(Edgar Smith & Co.)

Toronto Railway more than holds its recent advance, and, on its merits, is still cheap compared with the other securities of the same class. Rumors are afloat that the dividend will be increased from 8 to 10 p.c. While there is no doubt but the company is in a position to pay 10 p.c., we scarcely expect to see such a declaration this year.

BANK OF MONTREAL TOOK ONTARIO LOAN

Toronto, June 5. — Hon. A. J. Matheson, the Provincial Treasurer, announces that Ontario, through the Bank of Montreal, which took the entire issue, had floated in England a loan of £200,000.

The loan was sold privately at a shade above par, which is deemed by the Department to be very satisfactory on the present market.

The money thus raised will go into the consolidated revenue fund, and will be devoted to the initial outlay on the five million dollar grant, made at the last session for the development of the northern portion of Ontario.

OPTIMISTIC ON CROPS.

President Ripley, of the Atchison, is optimistic on the crop outlook. Vice-President Nixon, of the Frisco road, says crops in Missouri, Arkansas, Texas and Oklahoma were never better.

SMALL LONDON FAILURE.

DIAMOND LIGHT AND HEAT.

The thirteenth annual meeting of the Diamond Light & Heating Co. was held yesterday, when satisfactory reports were submitted and adopted. Mr. E. G. O'Connor was re-elected president, and Mr. G. A. Pratt vice-president. The other members of the board of directors re-elected were J. E. Whyte, H. S. Thornton and David Anderson.

Big Interest Here In Sydney Bonus Voting

There was considerable interest here in the Sydney vote on the $1,000,000 shipbuilding bonus yesterday, and the result, five-to-one in favor, was more favorable than generally expected.

It is believed this industry will be not only a good thing for Sydney, but for the Dominion as well.

AN INSURANCE ENQUIRY.

London, June 5.—The International Congress of Insurance Brokers, sitting here, calls for a Government enquiry regarding discrimination between policyholders, which is forbidden by Canada and other countries. S. C. Young, mayor of Fort William, presided over to-day's meetings.

OPINIONS ON THE MARKET.

R. M. Bauer & Co.—Professionalism is the dominating factor. Fundamentals are overlooked. Crop conditions could not possibly be better.

Laidlaw & Co.—The crucial influence will be the crops.

Shearson-Hammill—Would advise taking profits on thin rallies. Think market is being manipulated to sell up.

Lounsbery & Co.—Traders yesterday and to-day were more inclined to take the bull side, particularly in Coppers, but with little profit.

Burnett & Co.—Rock Island issues were all better upon the semi-official statement that there would be sufficient dividends declared on the old Rock Island stock to ensure payment of interest on the collateral trust bonds.

J. S. Bache & Co.: There has been quite an improvement in general market and sentiment gradually becoming more confident.

E. & C. Randolph.—Wall Street has become indifferent to politics, because it feels that the country is approaching an era of prosperity. Trade activity this fall will depend chiefly on the size and quality of the crops. Politics are a side issue. Another short crop would be a disaster. Fortunately, crop conditions are generally good, and this is the dominating fundamental influence.

MR. HUGH DAVIDSON.

BANKERS IN LONDON ARE APPREHENSIVE

London, June 5. — The Editor of The Statist says: "Our financial people feel uncertain and apprehensive over various political clouds which still hang over Europe.

"Operators desire to see their way clearer before undertaking serious new risks. Our bankers are discouraging new issues of securities, and at the same time are holding aloof for the moment from Stock Exchange operations.

"Yet should there arise greater confidence in the maintenance of peace, the market probably would become active, especially were the British or German Government to take a decisive step toward a new accord.

"The transport strike is breaking down. Other strikes are thought improbable, and there is a better general feeling regarding the whole labor outlook."

BOUGHT SOREL BONDS.

St. Cyr, Gonthier & Frigon have purchased a recent issue of $210,000 5 per cent. debentures of the City of Sorel.

PARIS PRICES IRREGULAR.

Paris, June 5. — Prices moved irregularly on the Bourse to-day. Closing—Three p.c. rentes, 93 francs 85 centimes for the account; exchange on London, 25 francs 24 centimes for cheques. Private discount rate, 2¾ p.c.

STEAMSHIP LINES IN TROUBLE NOW

New York, June 5. — The United States Government filed a civil anti-trust suit in the Federal District Court here to-day against steamship interests alleged to have monopolized the transportation of passengers and freight between the United States and Brazil. Sweeping charges of granting rebates, fixing arbitrary and unreasonable rates, and entering into conspiracies, combinations and agreements in violation of the Sherman Law are made against the Prince Line, Limited, the Hamburg Lines and the proprietors of Lamport & Holt Lines.

SOO'S APRIL INCREASE.

Sir Donald Drops Island Smeting Option

Toronto, June 5.—Announcement is made that Sir Donald Mann has abandoned his option on the Island Ore Smelting process. Sir Donald in July of last year entered into a compact whereby, on satisfactory tests of the efficacy of the process in treating low grade ore, he would form a new company, which would undertake to make a series of cash payments to the Island Smelter Company, giving to the latter an estimated value of from $2 to $3. Now, after tests by his Montreal experts, Sir Donald has decided not to proceed further.

NO ROCK ISLAND DEFAULT.

Announcement by Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway that a dividend of 1¾ per cent. had been declared for the final quarter of the fiscal year 1912, brings dividend payments for the year up to 5 p.c. This dividend is provide $3,685,-000 for the Rock Island Company and the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad Company. The charges, expenses and taxes of these companies will amount to $7,000,000.

Apparently this is not the question as to default on the railroad company's bonds. After full interest, taxes and expenses, the holding company will have a combined surplus for the year of over $165,-000.

WANT ABUSES ABOLISHED.

London, June 5.—The International Congress of Insurance Brokers and Agents, in session here, adopted a resolution urging a world-regulated scheme of State licensing and registration of insurance brokers and agents. Over the prevention and abolition of abuses which exist.

London Brokers Went Races, Business Dull

London, June 5.—There was an abundant supply of money to-day, and discount rates were steady.

The stock market was quiet and irregular. As usual on Derby Day, the attendance was small. Copper shares and Mexican rails were in good demand, and foreign securities were steady, but Home rails and Kaffirs closed weak.

American securities were quiet and featureless. Trading was limited, but the undertone was rather firm. The close was steady.

DIVIDEND IS EXPECTED ON CONVERTERS

It is generally expected in the Street that at the annual meeting of Canadian Converters a week from to-day the directors will restore the dividend on the common stock at the rate of 4 per cent.

The last dividend to be paid at that rate was in November, 1908. Since then the shareholders have been in a state of expectancy, but the policy of the directors was to build up a strong reserve, which it is understood has been accomplished.

When the stock was first put on the market in 1907, it sold as high as 62, but has since been down to 33. The present market price is believed to have fairly discounted the restoration of the dividend.

PENNINGTON OPTIMISTIC.

TOPICS OF THE STREET

GRAVE DANGER IN THIS LINE OF BULL TALK

Heart disease is liable to attack Torontonians if they hear the bull talk down here about a 10 p.c. dividend on their Tram line.

To their distorted imagination the road looks something like the sketch above, and needs a few dollars spent in straightening it out before the long-suffering bulls on the stock come into their own.

It is all very well for the bulls to talk about the stock being cheap at the present level, but to the tram using public the stock is dear and unpopular at any price.

The stock has been as low as 131 this year, and on a twelve point rise to 143 has not shown up as well as many other issues. At the latter level it yields 5.59 per cent. on the investment.

FEATURE OF NOTE IN FINANCIAL DEVELOPMENT.

There has been nothing more remarkable in the financial development of Canada, and more particularly is this the case with the two principal financial centres, Montreal and Toronto, than the growth of bond and security corporations.

These distributing agencies are now almost as thick as peas, and the creation of them does not seem to abate.

It is also a matter for wonder where a market is found for the bonds, debentures, stocks, etc., which they have to sell.

However, they all seem to thrive and wear an air of prosperity.

TAKES MORE THAN TALK TO START BIG CORPORATIONS.

Sometimes the name of some one prominently identified with a big industry is worked in without authority, and if no one goes to the trouble of issuing a denial the story grows and assumes an air of importance which it does not in reality possess.

It takes a lot of serious and laborious work to get a new corporation under way, and the public seldom hears much about it until much of the groundwork has been accomplished, and the flotation an assured success.

The recent talk about a new cement corporation seems to be a case in point.

SEEKS SUSPENSION OF CEMENT DUTY

Calgary, Alta., June 5. — The Calgary Builders' Exchange last evening wired Ottawa requesting a suspension of the duty on cement for four months. It is estimated that one million more barrels than can be had in Canada will be required by local builders this summer.

Mr. F. P. Jones, general manager of Canada Cement, stated yesterday that the scarcity would be relieved within a few days, when transportation facilities are provided.

Ottawa, June 5.—The Minister of Finance has established pretty conclusively that the cement situation is not due to any combine or lack of production, but to scarcity of cars. The Minister is taking up the matter with the railways. The suggested suspension of duty on cement has not been considered.

STEEL OUTPUT FOR MAY WAS SATISFACTORY

The output for the various departments of Dominion Steel Corporation for May was:

Coal, tons	45,185
Pig iron, tons	28,590
Steel ingots, tons	30,890
Blooms, tons	25,820
Steel rails, tons	18,120
Steel rails, 1908	26,930

The charges for coke, pig iron, ingots and rails are within a few tons of the company's record. Shipments are also far above the average.

BAD ILLINOIS REPORT.

Illinois Central for April makes a bad report. Gross, $4,248,750, decrease $522,-100; net, $1,435,781, decrease $678,584. Not earning the fixed charges.

DEAL IN GOULD MINES.

Gould Mines are about to be absorbed by a company headed by Mr. James Robinson, of Millerton, N.B., ex-M.P. for Northumberland. Gould stockholders will be allowed eight cents per share for their holdings in exchange for the operating company's shares.

LOWER RUBBER DIVIDEND.

Rubber Goods Mfg. declared regular quarterly dividend 1¾ p.c. dividend on preferred stock and a dividend of 1 p.c. on common. Both dividends are payable June 15 to stock of record June 10. Three months ago the dividend declared on common stock was 6 p.c.

EXPORTERS BOUGHT WHEAT AT HAMBURG

Wheat at Winnipeg held steady to-day, though cables continue from 1½ to 2c below cost; in fact, local exporters are known to have bought wheat at Hamburg to-day.

Stocks of wheat at Fort William and Port Arthur this week totalled 7,329,616 bushels, compared with 8,045,423 last week, showing a decrease of 1,315,823 bushels. The shipments amounted to 3,-409,593 bushels.

Oats stocks at both points totalled 2,-259,966 bushels, compared with 2,914,217 last week, showing a decrease of 474,217 bushels. Shipments totalled 1,379,202 bushels.

Dullness of Cottons No Puzzle to Writer

Financial Editor, Star:

Sir,—Your heading appearing in your financial columns yesterday night, "Unpopularity of Cottons a Puzzle" on O'Brien's & Williams' letter, leads me to give you an answer to it. Don't you think that the high-handed way the shareholders of the Dominion Cotton Mills Co., a concern whose balance sheet showed a value of 129 p.c., have been treated when they were pressed to accept 50c in the dollar or to be relegated in a minority which is powerless for the preservation of its interests, according to the principles laid by the high financiers who preside over their destinies, and passed upon by the Privy Council of England, is well calculated to create confidence with the investing public "in such fine concerns," administer over "by such clever managers."

ONE THAT HAS BEEN SCALDED.

NESBITT CASE TO-MORROW.

Toronto, June 5—The preliminary hearing of Dr. Beattie Nesbitt on four charges of fraud arising out of returns from the Farmers' Bank to the Government, signed by him as president, did not proceed this morning as was expected. G. Tate Blackstock, who will prosecute for the Crown, expects to be ready to proceed with the hearing to-morrow.

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

L. E. N.—Sherwin-Williams and Lake of the Woods are the safer of the four issues mentioned. They have a broader and better established market. The other two are new concerns, but will likely do well.

L. C. J.—There is practically no market for Canadian Cereal & Milling shares at present. The company will not pay its preferred dividend this year, but it is cumulative, and it is hoped that payments may be resumed next year. It is understood the company is improving its position.

M. W. M.—Your Dom. Coal preferred is only technically affected by the Steel Corporation preferred, which comes ahead of it. This new issue is comparatively small, and Coal can be depended upon to earn its preferred dividends several times over.

F. N.—The issues of all classes listed in London probably outnumbers those in New York five to one, but exact comparative records are hard to obtain. London is pre-eminently the greatest financial centre, and it is safe to say that the total business transacted there is the largest in the world.

BROKERS BET EVEN ON COL. ROOSEVELT

ever ready to back—in a gaming way—Roosevelt's hat in the ring.

While sentiment in the financial district can hardly be said to favor the Colonel as a candidate, he is the Street's favorite whenever political wagers are in the air.

Even money as offered in Wall Street yesterday that Roosevelt would get the nomination on the first ballot at Chicago.

TORONTO RAILS DIVIDEND.

Mr. N. Curry Honored By Amherst Citizens

The Amherst Board of Trade tendered a complimentary dinner to Mr. Nathaniel Curry, president of the Manufacturers' Association and of the Canadian Car & Foundry Co., at the Terrace Hotel, last week. Nearly one hundred of the leading citizens of Amherst gathered about the board to pay their respects to Mr. Curry. After the dinner was served C. S. Sutherland, president of the Board of Trade, read an address to Mr. Curry, expressing the esteem and appreciation in which he is held by Amherst citizens.

Mr. Curry made an appropriate reply, dealing with the growth of the industry with which he has been so long connected, and thanked the Board for the address tendered to him.

DEFALCATION OF $300,000.

Manitoba flour—First patents, $5.70; do. second patents, $5.20; strong bakers, $5.

Millfeed—Manitoba bran, $24 per ton, shorts, $26 per ton, on track.

ST. LAWRENCE SUGAR.

(A. E. Ames & Co.)

The offering of the bonds proved to be very popular, the whole amount available having been quickly taken. The substantial nature of the Company's assets, which consist of a large amount of valuable Montreal Real Estate and cash on hand, together with the large earning power, are features which have been readily appreciated by conservative investors. The redemption price, prior to maturity is 110 and interest, which leaves a generous margin for appreciation. The bonds are to be listed in Canada and London. Purchases at present market prices of 101 1-2 to 102 and interest should provide a thoroughly safe and satisfactory investment.

FAILURES SMALLEST IN THREE YEARS

Both in number and amount, commercial failures in the Dominion of Canada during May, as reported by R. G. Dun & Co., were smaller than in any other month of this year, and also compared most favorably with the mortality in recent preceding years.

Total insolvencies numbered 84, and supplied $652,733 of defaulted indebtedness, against 102 for $1,144,933 in 1911, only 66 for $1,089,593 two years ago, and 131 in 1909, when the sum involved was $1,073,717.

In manufacturing lines last month there were but 13 suspensions for $209,-425, as compared with 24 in the previous year that provided $374,073 of liabilities, 14 for $735,480 in 1910 and 42 involving $572,83 in 1909.

The exhibit in the trading class was also satisfactory, 69 reverses for $400,596 contrasting with 77 for $610,860 in the preceding year, 51 for $353,663 two years ago and 87 in 1909, when the amount was $488,389.

In the division embracing agents, brokers, etc., there were two defaults, practically the same number as in the earlier years, while the liabilities of $42,-712 contrasted with $160,000 in 1911, only $450 in 1910 and $12,512 three years ago.

CHICAGO CATTLE PRICES.

Chicago, June 5.—Cattle—Receipts, 16,-000; market steady to 10c lower. Beeves, $5.90 to $9.30; Texas steers, $6.40 to $8; western steers, $6.40 to $8.10; stockers and feeders, $4.25 to $6.70; cows and heifers, $2.80 to $8; calves, $8.50 to $9.10.

Hogs—Receipts, 21,000; market slow, 5c lower. Light, $7.05 to $7.50; mixed, $7.05 to $7.55; heavy, $7.05 to $7.57½; rough, $7.05 to $7.25; pigs, $5.20 to $7.05; bulk of sales, $7.40 to $7.50.

Sheep—Receipts, 20,000; market, dull. Native, $3.40 to $5.75; western, $3.70 to $5.75; yearlings, $6.25 to $7.25; lambs, native, $4.75 to $8.55; western, $5.25 to $8.90.

LONDON OIL QUOTATIONS.

London, June 5—Calcutta linseed, June-July, 66s 6d; linseed oil, 45s 4½d; sperm oil, £30; petroleum, American refined, $4½d; do. spirits, 9½d; turpentine spirits, 34s 4½d; resin, American strained, 18s 6d; do. fine, 18s 10½d.

Savannah, June 5.—Turpentine, firm, 44 to 44½c.

WHEAT WAS UP NEARLY A CENT.

From the Special Correspondent of The Montreal Star on the Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, June 5. — The public was slow to accept the many unfavorable crop reports received on the Board of Trade, and the buying was not in evidence, especially on the bulges. Prices were governed largely by the weather conditions.

A message was received from the Agricultural Bureau at Columbus, Ohio, stating that the wheat that was left over from the hard winter was being devoured by insects.

Snow's Estimate.

The B. W. Snow June report was construed by the trade as a bullish document. He estimates the crop at 648,000,-000 bushels, less the damage done recently in Nebraska and Kansas. Rain was reported in Kansas, but this was denied later by the Finley Barrell representative at Wichita.

There was a nervous, jerky market, with prices changing every minute, but these changes were narrow. The old bull crowd was believed to have absorbed considerable wheat on the down turns, while they fed it out on the advances.

Breadstuffs Decreased.

The available supply of breadstuffs in the world, as compiled by Bradstreet's, shows a decrease of 5,125,000 bushels, compared with an increase of 3,100,000 for the corresponding period one year ago. This was considered by the trade as quite bullish, and some wheat was bought on it.

Liverpool Higher.

The markets of Europe were mixed. Liverpool was ⅝d to ½d higher; Berlin gained ⅞c, and flour at Paris was ⅛c better. There were losses of 1¼c for wheat at Buda Pest, ½c at Paris, while spot wheat at Liverpool was unchanged. Paris and other Continental markets were reported as buyers of Australian cargoes.

July wheat sold at 110¼ to 110⅝, and September at 105⅞ to 106⅝.

J. E. PRITCHARD.

OATS IN BETTER DEMAND.

Oats were in better demand to-day on local account, also from outside buyers, and a fair volume of business is doing, with further sales of round lots of sample grades.

Oats, No. 2 Canadian western, 55 to 55½c; extra No. 1 feed oats, 51¼ to 52c; No. 1 feed oats, 50¼ to 51c; oats, No. 3 Canadian western, 50 to 50½c; No. 2 feed oats, 49½ to 50c.

ISMAY STILL ON STAND IN TITANIC GRILL

Says He Thought the Captain Would Take Steps to Avoid Ice Field.

By Special Cable from Our Own Correspondent.

London, June 5.—Mr. J. Bruce Ismay finished his evidence before the Titanic inquiry to-day. Sir Robert Finlay representing the White Star elicited some interesting points.

Replying in the same manner as characterized his bearing yesterday, Mr. Ismay stated emphatically that he had never interfered with the captain in regard to the navigation of the vessel. Captain Smith handed him the Marconigram relating to ice without saying anything and walked away.

Concerning the light seen from the Titanic, Lord Mersey was misled by one of the witness's replies yesterday, but now ascertained from him that he had no doubt the Californian must have seen the Titanic's rockets.

In the course of the discussion between counsel and witness, it was agreed that the Titanic's lifeboat accommodation exceeded the Board of Trade requirements.

Mr. Ismay further explained that the White Star, some years ago, attempted to keep the same crews on their boats, so that they would know the vessel well, but the experiment had proved so unsatisfactory that it was abandoned.

Mr. Carlisle, the designer of the Titanic, is to be called. The exhaustiveness of the inquiry is indicated by the fact that the questions asked up to last night numbered 18,896.

WINDERMERE.

Sharp Encounters Mark the Enquiry

London, June 5.—Mr. J. Bruce Ismay, president of the International Mercantile Marine Company, resumed his testimony before the British Board of Trade inquiry into the loss of the steamer Titanic to-day. For the most part his replies were terse expressions such as "I don't know," or "that's outside my province."

Toward the close of the session Sir Rufus Isaacs, the Attorney-General, again reverted to Mr. Ismay's personal conduct at the time of the disaster, which is perhaps more discussed than any other detail.

"You knew that you had not boats enough on the Titanic to accommodate all the passengers and crew" asked Sir Rufus, leaning forward with his pincenez in his hand.

"I did," Ismay replied without hesitation.

"So that if all the boats had left the ship, there would still be persons on board," pressed the Attorney-General.

"Yes."

"When the last boat left the Titanic, you must have known that a number of passengers were left on board?"

"I did."

"Where were these passengers when your boat left?"

"I can only assume that they had gone to the after part of the ship. I was really not thinking about that."

CONVINCED SIGNALS SEEN BY THE CALIFORNIAN

Discussing the lights seen in the distance by the survivors, Mr. Ismay said that his impression was that the lights were not those of the steamer Californian, because they were dull white.

Lord Mersey, the head of the Court, asked: "Have you any doubt that the Californian did see the signals from the Titanic?"

"Judging from the evidence, I have not," said the witness, who then explained that the matter of providing or not providing the ship officers with marine glasses was left to the judgment of the commanders.

The question whether the designer of the Titanic had provided for forty life-boats caused a long discussion. When asked for the facts, Ismay responded: "I have no recollection."

Sir Robert Finlay representing the White Star Line, said that the fact was that the Board of Trade was debating at the time the matter of requiring the ships to carry more lifeboats. The White Star Company discussed a plan for meeting such requirements. A detail was the question of davits which could launch four boats.

Mr. Thomas Scanlan, M. P., attorney for the Seamen's and Firemen's Union, declared that he had evidence from a confidential source that the designs for the Titanic provided for forty life-boats and that the company rejected them.

THOUGHT CAPTAIN WAS TAKING NECESSARY STEPS

The incident of the wireless message received by Captain Smith and which he handed to Mr. Ismay, containing a warning of the ice field ahead, was then taken up.

Asked if the witness did not consider the report of ice serious, Mr. Ismay replied:

"It did not concern me. I thought that the Captain would take any steps necessary to avoid it."

Lord Mersey read from the American Hydrographic and Nova Scotian reports of warnings covering the Titanic route that an icefield probably would be encountered, and laid stress upon the word: "Probably." He made the comment that it was extraordinary that great shipping companies would agree to choose such a route.

LORD MERSEY RULES QUESTIONS ASKED OUT.

Yesterday afternoon the attorney for the Seamen's Union, asked Mr. Ismay: "What right had you as an ordinary passenger, as you have described yourself, to dictate to the captain concerning the speed of his ship?"

Lord Mersey interrupted, saying: "I can answer that. He had no right at all."

The attorney also examined the witness regarding an interview with Alexander Carlisle, director of Harland and Wolff, shipbuilders, in which Mr. Carlisle said that he had prepared plans for the accommodation of forty lifeboats on the Titanic, which the company rejected.

Mr. Ismay said that he had never heard of the plans.

Attorney—"If those in charge of the ship had warned the passengers that the ship was sinking, could not more have been saved?"

Lord Mersey—"That is a question for me to decide."

Lord Mersey expressed the opinion that if forty men had been on the lookout they could not have seen the iceberg in time to avoid a collision, and glasses would not have helped them.

ANSWER REGARDING DEPARTURE FROM SHIP.

Mr. Ismay said he thought that the Titanic was unsinkable. The attorney for the Seamen's Union was examining the witness concerning the running of the ship, when Lord Mersey interrupted and said that the witness was not responsible for running the ship, and had no right to interfere. He might have suggested more speed, but that was all.

Attorney for the Dockers' Union—"The message from the Baltic related to navigation."

Mr. Ismay—"Yes."

Attorney—"Then why did you keep it in your pocket for five hours?"

Mr. Ismay—"I did so thoughtlessly."

Attorney—"Didn't you think as managing director of the company, responsible for the number of boats aboard, you should have been the last except the captain to leave the ship?"

Mr. Ismay—"I do not."

Lord Mersey—"That is not a question that you should have been asked. You may make that remark in your speech, but do not ask the question."

Attorney—"Why did you not try to get other people on deck?"

Mr. Ismay—"I presumed others were sending them up."

Lord Mersey to the attorney—"Your point is that he should have remained on the ship until she went to the bottom; there is no answer to that."

DOCKERS BACKING DOWN NOW

Strike Leaders No Longer Insist on Recognition of Union As Precedent to Settlement.

London, June 5.—The Chancellor of the Exchequer, David Lloyd George, stated in the House of Commons today that with a spirit of moderation exhibited on both sides, it seemed that there was little difficulty in the way of an amicable settlement of the dock strike. The strike leaders, he said, no longer insisted upon the recognition of the employes federation ticket as a condition upon which work would be resumed.

On the other hand, the employers said that it was impossible to comply with the demand of the strikers for the reinstatement of all the men, as many places already had been filled. They agreed to take on as many men as they could as opportunity arose.

A permanent peace in London Port was so important, the Chancellor said, that the government hoped that means would be found to give effect to their proposals for the formation of a joint conciliation board, fully representative of the whole body of employers and men, with sufficient power to settle all disputes arising in the future.

ELECTRIC RATES BUT NO COMPLAINT

Montreal Street Railway Wants Modification Monday.

At a meeting of the Public Utilities Commission held in the Court House Annex to-day, the case of Julien versus the Canadian Light and Power Company was continued to the next meeting in Montreal, owing to the action of the complainants. Col. Hibbard, chairman of the Commission, stated that several inquiries had been made regarding the rates charged per diem for electric light and power, but the Commission desired it to be understood that there was no jurisdiction owing to there being no complaint. Two complaints had been received, one from Mr. Gribble and one from the city, but both these complaints having been withdrawn, the Commission was unable to proceed.

The Commission then proceeded to consider an application from the Montreal Street Railway for a modification of the provisions of the orders respecting the use of safety appliances on the cars. The expert of the Commission was directed to make his report to the Commission.

The Commission adjourned until the month of September when the next meeting will take place.

ADMITTED CHILDREN.

Moving Picture Proprietor Had To Pay the Penalty.

Pierre Meunier, proprietor of the Elite moving picture theatre, St. Lawrence street, was this morning fined $4 for admitting children under sixteen to his theatre without an escort.

Three of the six boys who appeared as witnesses against Meunier this morning were deprived of their fee as witnesses because they had told the ticket seller that they were over sixteen years.

PHYSICIANS ISSUE FAVORABLE REPORT OF ROYAL PATIENT

In fact, she took the greatest interest in what was being done, and smiled at the Princess Patricia and at the attentive Duke, who insisted on doing everything possible himself.

She was accompanied in the ambulance by a nurse and a staff doctor. The other members of the Royal party and suite then entered the other automobiles, and very slowly the procession of half a dozen automobiles started off from the station.

In the gloom and the quiet it was an impressive procession that these automobiles made, as with extreme slowness they crossed Osborne street, and made their way up Drummond street, the big auto-ambulance, with the little Red Cross flag above it, in the lead.

When Dorchester street was reached, the automobiles containing the staff branched off to Lord Strathcona's house, which is to be the official residence while the Royal party is in the city, but the Duke of Connaught and the Princess Patricia, accompanied by Dr. Garrow, who had come up from Quebec in attendance on Her Royal Highness, went up to the hospital to see the royal patient comfortably installed in the private ward which had been prepared for her.

Everything connected with the arrival went off without a hitch, the arrangements at the station being personally supervised by Mr. D. McNicoll.

First Bulletin Issued after Arrival.

Later in the evening, the following bulletin was issued from Lord Strathcona's house by Lt.-Co. Lowther:—

"Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Connaught is suffering from an attack of peritonitis of, up to the present, obscure origin. Under the circumstances, it was deemed advisable to move her Royal Highness to the Royal Victoria Hospital at Montreal for further observation.

"Very satisfactory arrangements were made at the shortest notice with the C. P. R. for the conveyance of the whole of the Governor-General's household from Quebec to Montreal. Her Royal Highness stood the journey very well, sleeping during the greater portion of the time.

"Any further bulletins that may be issued will be posted at 907 Dorchester street.

"Military Secretary."

"H. C. Lowther, Lieut.-Col."

Father of Train Conductor Dies Before Start.

A sad touch in connection with the illness of H. R. H., the Duchess of Connaught, comes in the death at Levis of Mr. Hugh McCleary, father of Mr. R. McCleary, who was to have taken charge of the special train which conveyed the Royal party from Quebec to Montreal. But a few minutes before the orders were issued for the start, a messenger hurried to Mr. McCleary and handed him a telegram which told him of the death of his father. Mr. McCleary was relieved from duty, another conductor placed in charge of the train, and the son hurried away to his home at Levis.

The deceased Mr. McCleary, was seventy-seven years of age, and had been for forty-eight years a conductor in the service of the Grand Trunk Railway beinga one of the oldest employees on the system. His illness was of but three days duration.

Lack of Proper Ambulances in Quebec.

The lack of ambulances in the city of Quebec was emphasized in the departure of H. R. H. the Duchess of Connaught yesterday. It had been decided that Her Royal Highness, the Duchess, would be conveyed from the Citadel in an ambulance and when such vehicle was sought after it was found that the city, and city hospitals did not possess a fit and proper one. The city ambulance is out of date, and not equipped with rubber tires. Finally the Hotel Dieu Hospital at Levis had to be solicited and loaned their ambulance. When this conveyance reached the Citadel it was found that the waggon was not equipped with a brake. There was no alternative so it had to be used. A detour was necessary to reach the C. P. R. station so as to avoid the steep hill.

It was 3.30 o'clock when Her Royal Highness was carried out on a stretcher from the Vice-regal quarters and placed in the ambulance which proceeded down Citadel Hill, along the Esplanade and down d'Youville street to John, then by St. George and down Cote d'Abraham.

Dr. Garrow accompanied Her Royal Highness in the ambulance with a trained nurse, while the household physician, Capt. Surgeon Worthington, Capt. Long and others walked along the route taken in case their services were desired, which was the case at Cote d'Abraham. Here these gentlemen were obliged to place their hands on the ambulance wheels to keep it from going too fast down the steep incline while a servant walked at the horses' heads.

Ottawa, June 5.—Michael Murphy, who two years ago was tried and acquitted on the charge of murder for the killing of two young men, Dale and Howes, at Shawville, Que., was to-day sentenced by Judge Weir at Bryson, Que., to 14 years' imprisonment on two charges of perjury. The murder charge against Murphy fell through on the ground that he was tantalized.

turf event to-day the filly earned for her owner $32,500. The course which the three-years-old had to make was about one mile and a half.

The betting was 100 to 8 on Tagalie, 8 to 1 on Jaeger, 66 to 1 on Tracery and two to one on Sweeper II.

GREAT RECEPTION TO KING AND QUEEN.

The crowd at the historic Downs was quite up to the usual for the classic race, despite the threatening weather. King George and Queen Mary and the Royal party were early arrivals and received a tumultuous reception.

Sweeper II. did a sharp burst of six furlongs during the morning, showing splendid action, but for some reason the layers were inclined to the field against the American horse, and betting lengthened to 1,000 to 300.

The stands were crowded with society folk and the heath was thronged with tens of thousands of holiday makers. Coaches filled with brightly dressed women lined the rails opposite the stand, and the whole scene was brilliant, with only threatening clouds to interfere with the pleasure of the multitude.

RAIN ON WAY FROM LONDON TO EPSOM.

A heavy downpour of rain, followed by occasional showers, interfered with the pleasure of those who had decided to go to Epsom by road. This is the most popular way, especially for those making their first visit to the famous course. However, the sun soon broke through the clouds, and towards noon fine weather was experienced at the track, with threats, nevertheless, of more showers, and possibly a thunderstorm.

On the coaches leaving London were many Canadians and tourists, including those who come annually to England to see the great race meeting.

HOPED KING WOULD WIN THE RACE.

Herman B. Duryea's Sweeper II. remained a strong favorite this morning. While most of the papers picked Sweeper II. as the winner, there ran through the racing columns a vein of hope that King George would imitate the example of the late King Edward, and carry off the prize with Pintadeau.

The presence of the King and Queen made certain a brilliant gathering of society.

The early betting made Sweeper II. the favorite at 3 to 1, with L. Newmann's Jaeger at 9 to 1, B. Joel's White Star 100 to 10, and the King's Pintadeau 18 to 1.

POLICE STOPPED MAN WHEN LEAVING CITY

"I am a Canadian," responded Edward McGuire, alias Ed. MacClure, alias Ed. McClure, when he was charged with loitering on the C. P. R. tracks before Judge Leet this morning, and asked his real name.

He wished to go to Toronto, but Special Constable Duguay halted him on his journey when he picked him off the fast freight last night.

"Get out of town as quick as you can," said Judge Leet.

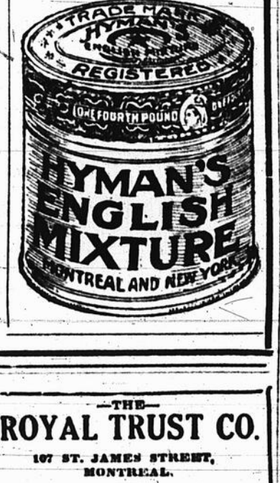

"You bet," replied MacClure smiling.

SINGLE TAX COLONY AGAIN IN TROUBLE

George Brown, Philosophical Anarchist, Alleges Illegal Rental Increase.

Wilmington, Del., June 5. — George Brown, the philosophic anarchist at the single tax colony, Arden, Del., was the means of sending Upton Sinclair to jail for eighteen hours last August, caused another sensation yesterday, when he declared with great vehemence that rentals have been increased illegally and not in accordance with the theories of Henry George. He stated that unless matters shall be righted at the July meeting of the trustees of the colony he will throw the whole thing into court.

It is very probable as a result that the tenure of all the land at the colony will be decided by proceedings in court here.

SOUTH AMERICA IS PREPARING FOR TRADE

Chili Making Vast Improvements at Valparaiso—Peru's New Railway.

Colon, Panama, June 5.—Owing to the near approach to completion of the Panama Canal, all South America is stirring itself to take advantage of the new channel of commerce. Reports from half a dozen important centres in the Southern Continent tell of unusual activities.

The Chilean Government has awarded a contract to S. Pearson & Sons, of London, for improvements at Valparaiso to cost $13,500,000. These, it is claimed, will give Valparaiso one of the best harbors in the world. The new docks, etc., are to be of massive construction and thoroughly modern in every respect.

In addition the steamship line owned by the Republic of Chile, the South American Steamship Company is about to increase the number of its vessels by six fast liners to ply between Valparaiso and New York. The company for some years has maintained a regular service between Valparaiso and the west coast of Panama.

Peru is another country that expects to reap a rich harvest from canal trade. The Peruvian Government now operates a line of vessels between the ports of that country and Panama. It has at Callao a fine drydock, which brings much repair work to that port.

Announcement is made that a new Peruvian railroad soon will be started. It will run over the Andes and tap the rich region around the headwaters and tributaries of the Amazon. The road will connect at Corro de Pasco with the line now extending to Callao, thus furnishing another great commercial artery to feed the vanal traffic.

Representative Thomas, of Kentucky, resenting a newspaper story, attacked Joseph Annin, a reporter, at Washington, and the two had a stand-up fight before friends separated them. Neither was damaged much.

CHANGES HIS OPINION.

Although the parish priest of Emard Ward, who had signed a petition opposing the transfer of the hotel licence held by T. Perron, to A. Bourdeau, 156 Monk street, came forward yesterday and stated he had no objection to the granting of the transfer, the same was refused by the Commissioners.

"We found this place was unnecessary last December," declared Judge Bazin, and if it was necessary then it must be now, and the board will not permit the transfer to a location a few yards away from the boys' and girls' school in Emard ward.

The transfer of a license to Mrs. Barney Law, 1211 Notre Dame street east, was also refused on the ground that the hotel was not necessary to the neighborhood.

The following transfers were granted: T. Champagne to J. A. Goulet, 2033 St. Lawrence street; O. Goderre to E. Larin, 2709 Notre Dame street west; A. Lapointe to J. Moreau, 1183 Mount Royal avenue; A. Decarie to A. Decarie, 99 St. Paul street.

The transfer of the following store licenses were granted: R. Ledoux to W. Blais; U. Kills to C. McNeill, 114 Farm street; G. Pilon to R. Spector, 46 Cuthbert; E. M. St. Denis to J. I. Dubuc, 271 Roy street; E. Fortier to J. E. Himbault, 186 Workman st.; S. Benoit to P. Mainville, 183 Guy street; O. Lalonde to S. Benoit, 176 Milton street; S. Christin to N. Pretty Gowns at Small Cost

There is no need for the mother of even a large family of girls to feel that she and her daughters cannot be fitted with pretty house gowns except at high cost.

Serpentine Crêpe solves this problem for you. Here is a delightful printed crinkly fabric which makes the most exquisite morning gowns, dressing sacques and street dresses for yourself, and school dresses for the children, at a very nominal cost. And, best of all, you economize when you make a garment of Serpentine Crêpe, from the fact that this fabric is most easily washed and does not require ironing.

Serpentine Crêpe

is the most beautiful, longest wearing, and most graceful draping cotton fabric made. It gives a certain elegance not obtained in any other cotton fabric.

From a simple dressing sacque to a pretty morning gown or a simple street dress, innumerable ways will suggest themselves for fashioning dainty apparel from this inexpensive crêpe.

The plain colors include all the desirable shades, while the many printed styles include the floral and Oriental patterns in charming color effects.

Look for the name "Serpentine Crêpe" on selvage when buying. Be sure not to ask for Crêpe, but for "Serpentine Crêpe," and thus avoid receiving disappointing imitations.

MOUNTED POLICEMAN SLAIN NEAR BROOKS

Constable Davies Found With Bullet Through His Heart—Two Arrests Made.

Medicine Hat, Alb., June 5.—Stripped of gun and cartridge belt and horse missing, the lifeless body of Mounted Policeman Frank W. Davies, of Brooks, with a bullet through his heart, was found lying on the trail two miles southeast of Southesk. Two Indians and a halfbreed were arrested and are now charged with the murder.

A party of men working for the Southern Alberta Land Company were going into Southesk last evening, when they came upon the body of the officer lying on the trail. The body was still warm. They immediately hurried to Southesk and an alarm was sent to the Bassano quarters of the police. They hurried to the site and soon rounded up the two Indians and the half-breed on the charge of killing the officer.

The section patrolled by the murdered officer is considerably upset as a result of the crime, and the feeling against the murderers runs high.

Davies was most popular throughout the town. Prior to starting out on what has proved to be his last case, he had been around the town joking and talking to the boys with whom he was a universal favorite.

Just at dusk a terrified Italian hurried into the town. He located a constable and in broken language told him that two Indians and a half-breed had shot several times at him, at the same time pointing to bullet holes in his hat, coat sleeve and in a bundle of blankets that he carried. The officer immediately started after them and that is the last seen of him alive.

His dead body was found some time later on the trail two miles from this town. What took place when he caught up with the party of three is only a matter of conjecture, but the bullet hole through the officer's heart tells of the culmination of whatever happened.

His murderers then took his gun, cartridge belt and horse and continued on their way southeast.

Hermit Drowned Attempting Rescue.

Bardstown, Ky., June 5.—In an effort to save Alonzo Allen, a young man, from drowning in Beech Fork Creek, a hermit 65 years old, known as "Bootjack" Reynolds, jumped into the stream with all his clothes on.

In the struggle that followed Reynolds' head was kept under water and he was dead when rescuers hauled them ashore.

SUPREME COURT JUDGMENTS OUT

Fifteen Decisions Handed Down at Ottawa—Bourdon Appeal Dismissed.

Ottawa, June 5.—In the Supreme Court to-day judgments were delivered in the cases recently heard, as follows:

St. Georges Electric Company versus Gerard; appeal dismissed, no costs court equally divided.

Boeckh v. Gowganda mines; appeal dismissed with costs.

Cushing versus Knight, appeal allowed, with costs in Supreme Court, and in full court, and action dismissed.

Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company versus Alfred; appeal dismissed with costs.

Green, Swift & Co. versus Lawrence, appeal allowed, with costs.

Cox versus Canadian Bank of Commerce; appeal dismissed, with costs.

Bourdon versus The King; appeal dismissed with costs.

Shawinigan School Commissioners versus Lafonde; appeal dismissed, with costs, and costs appeal dismissed, except as to item $210, with respect to which there was an obvious error, the costs of cross-appeal against the cross-appellant.

Wickens versus McConkey; appeal dismissed, with costs.

Rice versus Rudd Paper Company; appeal dismissed, with costs.

Canadian Pacific Railway Company and Grand Trunk Railway Company versus Canadian Oil Companies; appeal dismissed, with costs.

Canadian Pacific Railway Company versus British America Oil Company; appeal dismissed, with costs.

The court adjourned until June 11 to hear re-argument. Judgements in other cases will be rendered on June 14.

In the case of Bourdon et al. vs. The King, the appellants, incorporated by Dominion letters patent as "The Society of Arts of Canada," carried on a system of operations at Montreal, alleged to have been to encourage art, by which weekly divisions were made among associate members out of money realized upon the sale of series of certificates, which were called in at the option of the appellants from time to time without drawings. The appellants were convicted under section 444 of the Criminal Code of conspiracy to defraud the public in general. They were each sentenced to six hours' imprisonment and a fine of $1,000; in default of payment of the fines they were respectively sentenced to further terms of six months' imprisonment. On a Crown case, reserved, the Court of King's Bench affirmed the conviction, Mr. Justice Lavergne dissenting. The Supreme Court agrees with the others which had the case before them.

PEACE SOCIETY IS FORMED IN OTTAWA

Sir Edmund Walker is President of Canadian Peace Centenary Association.

Ottawa, June 5.—At a meeting in the Railway Committee room of the Commons yesterday the Canadian Peace Centenary Association was formed, with Sir Edmund Walker, of Toronto as its president. On motion of Sir Edmund and Hon. W. T. White, the following resolution was carried:

"Resolved that this meeting constitute itself into a Canadian National Association to join with the kindred association in Great Britain for the purpose of co-operating with the National Committee in the United States or any other body formed for a similar purpose, in commemorating the centenary of the signing of the treaty of peace between Great Britain and the United States in 1814; that such association be known as "the Canadian Peace Centenary association,' and that membership be open to all persons in sympathy with the object thereof."

The Hon. W. T. White, Minister of Finance, on behalf of the Government, expressed sympathy and interest in the movement. "So far as I can see," he said, "no serious cause for conflict can possibly arise between Great Britain and the United States. On the contrary there is everything to draw them together to bring about the peace of the world."

LYNCH IS RE-ELECTED.

Barker, of Spokane, Defeated by 4,969 Votes in Typographical Union.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 5.—Two members of the administration ticket of the International Typographical Union failed of election, according to the announcement made last night.

George E. Tracy, of San Francisco, first vice-president, was defeated by James M. Duncan, of New York. Walter H. McKee, of New York, a Union Printer's Home trustee, fell behind the four high candidates.

James M. Lynch, Indianapolis, was re-elected president over Fred. Barker, of Spokane, by a majority of 4,969, and John W. Hayes, of Indianapolis, retained the office of secretary-treasurer.

Officers of H. M. S. Cornwall state that there have only been a few desertions from that vessel while at Quebec. The Cornwall leaves for England to-day.

BANKER TELLS OF FEDERATION FUND FOR McNAMARAS

Cashier of Washington Institution said Account was Known as "McNamara Defence Account."

GOMPERS' NAME IS DRAWN INTO CASE

Prosecuting Attorney Says is No Reflection On the Federation Officials.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 5.—Like a shadow across the pages of the legal history now being written of Clarence Darrow, came, to-day, the name of Samuel Gompers, head of the American Federation of Labor.

It was declared in evidence before Judge Hutton, and a jury, that Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor, kept a special McNamara account in a bank, in Washington, D.C.

Assistant District Attorney Ford told the Court he would show before the case was through, that various moneys were withdrawn from the bank and sent to Darrow, and that part of the money was paid to Franklin, for the alleged bribery of George N. Lockwood.

In the testimony of Franklin, it was sworn that Darrow told his head detective not to worry about any possible identification of the $4,000 in bills handed to the latter on the morning he was arrested, as they came straight from Samuel Gompers.

Sensation is Expected.

This trail, apparently leading from the headquarters of the McNamara defence, to the office of the leading officials of the American Federation of Labor, and its fund of more than $200,000, may form one of the sensations later in the present trial.

Henry H. Flather, of the Riggs National Bank, of Washington, said he knew Samuel Gompers and also Frank Morrison, and said the latter carried several separate accounts with the bank. One in particular was known as the "Morrison Account No. 5." It was said to be the McNamara defence account. The defence was not permitted to go into this point, however, during the day.

Mr. Rogers exhibited the line of questions that later, it is evident, he will put to Franklin.

Presses Witness Hard.

"Did you see Darrow after your arrest," Rogers asked Franklin.

"Yes, I met him and Lecompte Davis at Mr. Darrow's office," was the reply.

"Are you able to recall the conversation occurring at that meeting?"

"Not at this time. Mr. Darrow asked me how Mrs. Franklin felt about my arrest, and what my friends advised. I saw Mr. Davis almost every day, and cannot recall any special conversation, with regard to dates."

After Rogers had shot several other questions at Franklin, the witness replied with the following: "I remember that Darrow asked me if I had talked with Davis, and told me arrangements would be made to give me $300 if I pleaded guilty."

Shortly after, another verbal sparring match between the layman and the lawyer, Franklin volunteered the following:—

"I remember telling Mr. Darrow that I had seen a newspaper account of how the bribe money had been traced from the safe deposit vault to Mr. Darrow, and thence to my hands. Mr. Darrow replied that there was no danger of marked money, as it was sent directly from Samuel Gompers."

That the prosecution merely desired to place in evidence the fact, alleged, that certain sums of money, aggregating about $200,000, had been sent to attorneys for the McNamara defence, was stated to-day by W. J. Ford, assistant District Attorney, in discussing the placing on the stand of H. H. Flather, cashier of a Washington, D.C., bank.

No Reflection on Gompers, Says Ford.

Mr. Ford added that no attempt would be made by the prosecution to show that either President Samuel Gompers or Secretary Frank Morrison, of the American Federation of Labor, had any guilty knowledge of the alleged corruption of jurors and witnesses in the McNamara case.

"It is unfortunate that the impression was created," continued Mr. Ford, "that we intended to cast any reflections upon Mr. Gompers, Mr. Morrison or any other high officials of the American Federation of Labor."

"In producing the ledger account of Morrison as custodian of the McNamara defence fund in Washington, we only intend to prove that large sums of money were withdrawn and sent to Mr. Darrow."

Chambermaids Join Waiters

Strike in New York Hotel Staffs Continues, Both Sides Claiming Advantage.

New York, June 5.—Cheered by the fact that a few chambermaids have joined the movement, the striking waiters continued their fight to-day for shorter hours, more pay, and recognition of the union.

Employers assert that the strike is losing ground and that many waiters are applying for their old positions.

The strike leaders deny this and point not only to the chambermaids' walkout but to the recruits from the clubs who joined the strike yesterday. Among these were waiters from the Stock Exchange Luncheon Club and the Machinery Club.

PETITION ASKS FOR WESTMOUNT PARK

Several Citizens Want Upper Level Scheme Reconsidered; Others Want Lower Park.

At last night's meeting of the Westmount Council a petition was presented, in accordance with the decision taken at the recent meeting, praying that the upper level park scheme be reconsidered. It was urged that the council should acquire and lay out a portion of the golf links as a park, and that the city should have the direct benefit of any re-sale of land not required for the purpose. The petition was signed by ex-Mayor W. H. Trenholme, Mr. C. C. Holland, and other citizens. The request was referred to the committee of the whole council without any comment.

Another park proposal was brought before the council by petition, the request being that the small lot of land lying between Sherbrooke street, Oliver and Green avenues, should be purchased and laid out. In support of the plan Messrs. A. P. Willis, J. E. Millen, E. F. Slack, D. Crombie, L. H. Packard and Dr. Rondeau waited on the council as a delegation. The representations made were that the laying out of this plot would have the effect of making uniform and complete the scenic effects of Westmount as seen on approaching it from the east-end, making a continuous line of beauty from the Mother House and Orchard past the Academy to Westmount Park.

They stated that they were not opposed to the Upper Level park scheme.

The by-law dealing with the change of street names was read a first and second time.

CONDUCTOR IS ARRESTED.

Gustave Dallaire, a conductor on the Grand Trunk Railway was charged before Judge Leet with "knocking down" fares on his run. The Thiel Detective Company made the case against Dallaire.

There are seven charges against the man from May 1st to May 11th and for amounts ranging from $2. to $3.20.

To all of them he pleaded not guilty and he was remanded until Tuesday the 11th for preliminary investigation.

Columbian Conservatory Recital.

A recital by the pupils of the Canadian Conservatory of Music will be given in the Conservatory, 270 Sherbrooke street west, to-morrow evening, at 8.15 p.m. An exceptionally interesting programme of music has been arranged by the pupils of Messrs. Alfred Laliberte, Salvator Issaurel, Alfred Deseve and J. B. Dubois, who are Professors on the Conservatory staff.

MOTOR HIGHWAY TO VANCOUVER NOW

West is Enthusiastic Over Project for Road to Coast.

An automobile road from Montreal to Vancouver is the ambitious project which has now been mooted.

The idea comes from the West, and has grown out of the project for the building, from Calgary into the Windermere district, of the most wonderful automobile highway in the world.

Mr. R. Randolph Bruce, of Windermere, B.C., who is in Montreal to-day, says excellent progress is being made with the road into Windermere, which is being built by contributions from the C. P. R., the British Columbia Government, and the Federal Government. This road will ultimately be carried south to the vicinity of the Crow's Nest Pass line of the C. P. R. and will return to Calgary via Lethbridge, making a wonderful scenic highway that crosses the summit of the Rockies twice and gives some of the wildest and most beautiful mountain scenery to be obtained anywhere.

So enthusiastic have automobilists become over the portion from Calgary to Banff and beyond that has already been built, that a movement is now to be set on foot to get the Provincial and Federal Governments to co-operate with the local authorities to extend the road to Vancouver in one direction, and to Montreal in the other. It is held that this would prove a wonderful advertisement for the Dominion, and would bring to this country a constant stream of the world's wealthiest tourists.

BOY BURGLARY CASE IS REGARDED AS JOKE.

No Further Arrests Made in Attempted Robbery of Castle and Co.'s Store.

No other arrest has been made in the Castle and Co. burglary case besides Geo. Chesson, who appeared yesterday before Judge Leet and pleaded guilty to the charge, and Georges Nickles, who is lying at the Royal Victoria Hospital with a broken leg, and who will be arrested as soon as he is fit to leave the hospital.

The five boys concerned in the alleged robbery were mere youths. Both Chesson and Nickles are barely eighteen years of age, and their effort in the burglary line is looked upon by the police as being more in the line of a practical joke than from any purpose of greed.

Chesson will come up for preliminary investigation on Tuesday next

PHYSICIAN SURPRISED AT INSPECTION METHODS

Man from United States Suffers from Tracoma and Refused Readmittance.

A case of a man from the United States being admitted into the city and now being refused readmittance into that country under the plea that he is suffering from tracoma, has been reported to the Medical Health officer. This official after examining the Russian finds that he has a slight attack of the malady, but he believes the patient will soon recover. What is bothering Dr. Laberge is how it happens the man was allowed to come from the United Sttaes into this city when he must have been suffering from the disease at the time.

NOMINATIONS CLOSE FOR MANUFACTURERS.

Nominations for the annual elections of the Montreal Branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association closed at two o'clock. Lieut.-Col. Chas. A. Smart was elected chairman by acclomation, while Mr. Howard Murray, of the Shawinigan Water and Power Company, was returned without opposition to the post of vice-chairman.

The Executive Committee has been reduced this year to fourteen in number, two from outside points and twelve from Montreal. The city representation will be balloted for by the members of the association a week from to-day, the poll closing at two in the afternoon. Messrs. T. D. Pontbriand, of the St. Lawrence Steel and Saw Co., Sorel and D. J. Fraser, of the Singer Manufacturing Company, St. Johns, will represent the outside interests on the board, both being elected by acclamation.

Among the city nominations are the following: Messrs A. H. Brittain, T. P. Howard, Wm. Rutherford, T. H. Wardleworth, L. H. Packard, S. J. B. Rolland, W. P. Downey, S. D. Joubert, E. A. Robertson, Wm. Waugh, R. H. McMaster, G. Esplin, E. Littler, and A. L. Caron.

Following the annual meeting next Tuesday afternoon, an informal dinner will be held by the association.

Cured of Shingles and Eczema

Mr. J. H. Jarvis, Kingston.

By Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Other Treatments Did No Good.

"I just want to say a good word for Cuticura Soap and Ointment. In November, 1909, I had what the doctors call shingles and eczema. My chest was raw and bleeding and itchy. I was that way all winter. It was not so bad in the summer. In September it got worse. I had the best doctors treating me, but did me no good, and I was all run down in health. In November, 1910, it got worse again. I sent to you for a sample cake of Cuticura Soap. You sent it to me and I got a box of Cuticura Ointment. I have used two boxes and on the third one it has cured me of shingles and eczema. I am delighted with them and do feel pleased to think I have something I have confidence in. Should anyone be suffering as I did, I hope that they will do as I did, and I am sure of the results. I am recommending them from experience." (Signed) J. H. Jarvis, 7 Ann St., Kingston, Ont., May 30, 1911.

For more than a generation Cuticura Soap and Ointment have afforded the most economical treatment for skin and scalp troubles, from pimples, blackheads, chafings, scaly and bleeding skin and rashes to eczema of young and old. A single set is often sufficient. Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold throughout the world, but to those who have suffered much, lost hope and are without faith in any treatment, a liberal sample of each, with 32-p. booklet on the skin will be mailed free on application. Address Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., 65 Columbus Ave., Boston, U. S. A.

Marine Notes.

Among the passengers on the Hesperian, which docked here to-day, was a party of young Scotch girls, destined for Brockville, Ont. This party, which number 54, came out in charge of Mr. and Mrs Findlay and Mrs. Roberts. The young newcomers are from the institutions of the Orphans' Homes of Scotland, the headquarters of which are in Glasgow. These girls are bright and intelligent, and readily show careful training and instruction. Their ages run from between 7 and 16. They are bound for a branch of the home in Brockville.

The Pallanzavitch will be the name of a child born to Russian parents on board the Pallanza during her voyage from Hamburg to Montreal. The "vitch" in question means son, thus the child will be known as "son of Pallanza." Captain Fendt, of the Pallanza, stated yesterday that the vitch has the same meaning as the Celtic "O" and "Mac." But Captain Fendt does not expect that he will ever meet an "O'Pallanza" or "MacPallanza."

The White Star liner Megantic, which arrived yesterday from Liverpool, reports having encountered much fog. Captain David reports having been stopped for twelve hours, eight on one occasion and four on another. More time than this was lost owing to reduced speeds. From the 29th until last Monday night, the captain remained on the bridge every night, snatching here and there in the daytime brief hours of repose when the fog would lift. Passengers of the first and second cabins addressed letters of thanks to the master of the Megantic before leaving the vessel.

Weather reports from the river and gulf yesterday were not encouraging. Fog prevails at all points.

A despatch from Cape Town states that the Canada Cape, of the Elder-Dempster Line, is on fire and that the cargo in her holds is badly damaged. The hold of the vessel is being flooded.

Falls From Third Storey.

Six-year-old Juliette Lacroix fell yesterday from the third storey of her home at 663 Beaudry street. She was taken to the Notre Dame Hospital.

HE SAID—"Few of us realize how much salt we eat. The fact that we put salt on all meats and vegetables—in bread, cake and pastry—soups and sauces—butter and cheese—shows the importance of using an absolutely pure salt."

SHE SAID—"Well, we are using WINDSOR SALT and no one could make me believe there was any better salt in the whole world than my old standby"

FUNERAL OF MR. OTTEN.

The funeral took place yesterday of Mr. John Henry Otten, from his late residence, 13 Green avenue, to St. Jude's Church, thence to Mount Royal Cemetery. The burial service was conducted by the Rev. J. J. Willis, the new rector of the church.

Mr. Otten, who was 57 years of age, was born in the parish of Lambeth, London, S.W., England, and came to Canada 25 years ago, all of which time he spent in Montreal. For the past 21 years he had been employed as an engineer with the Montreal Rolling Mills, where he enjoyed popularity. He was a member of the Canadian Order of Foresters, who were represented at his funeral.

The deceased, who died at 5 p.m. on Saturday, is survived by his widow and two sons, residing in Montreal.

Scalp Itch Goes

Dandruff Germs Are Responsible. Parisian Sage Will Kill Them

It's the little dandruff germs growing way down at the root of your hair that is causing that itch misery.

Itch ?

To suffer is foolish—PARISIAN SAGE often stops the itching over night and not only does that, but used for two weeks is guaranteed—guaranteed, mind you—to abolish dandruff, kill the dandruff germ and stop falling hair.
