'GALERIE WESTMOUNT'

This is a view of an architect's model of the $20,000,000 "Galerie Westmount" as seen from the corner of Wood and Western avenues. The two sixteen storey apartment buildings at the right front on Western, while the taller office building at far left borders St. Catherine. Just out of sight in the centre is the passageway over Elm avenue and the Greene avenue Arcade entrance.

$20,000,000 apartment, office, shopping mall project planned

A mammoth $20,000,000 development project which includes a 19 storey office building and three 16 storey apartment towers and an underground shopping mall and plazas is planned for the Greene avenue area, The Examiner learned Wednesday. The Westmount Architectural Commission and City Council last week approved detailed plans for the project and gave first reading to a rezoning by-law for the area.

Developers seek to replace Kings with 12 storey apartment

The proposed Greene avenue complex is not the only development planned for lower Westmount. Kings school, a landmark for generations will definitely be torn down and replaced with an apartment building a spokesman for the New Rochelle Development Corporation told The Examiner Wednesday.

The project to be called "Galerie Westmount" is a joint venture of the Montreal Trust Company and the Ransen-Marion Development Corporation. They have acquired about 40 properties on the block bounded by Wood, Western and Elm avenues and St. Catherine street and a portion of the block to the west, including three properties on Greene avenue. The Architectural firm of Bland, Lemoyne and Edwards and Shine in consultation with chief planner Professor Spence-Sales, head of the Civic Design Department at McGill, have submitted plans which call for:

- An underground parking garage for 1,200 cars, with entrances on Elm avenue. There will be direct indoor connections from the garage to all parts of Residents seek referendum

"We will fight the Westmount Centre by-law to the finish. I'm going to make an issue out of it and if we don't force a referendum Friday I'll protest against the granting of a building permit. Even if we lose perhaps we will have done the city some good."

These were the words of Westmount John J. Segulier, 504 Mountain avenue, developer of the ten million dollar "4300 Western" apartment block. Mr. Segulier, referring to the amendment which would clear the way for a $20,000,000 apartment, office building, and shopping the complex as well as a pedestrian connection with Greene avenue itself.

- An indoor shopping mall covering sections of the two blocks including a portion built right over Elm avenue. Officials for the project said that the new stores would be primarily of "the boutique type."

- A 19 storey office building fronting on St. Catherine street between Elm and Wood.

- Three apartment towers, of 16 storeys. Two will face Western avenue while the third borders Wood. They will each contain about 150 apartments and will be connected to the shopping area and garages.

- A raised terrace at the corner of Western and Wood containing about 20,000 square feet and a second at St. Catherine and Wood containing about 30,000 square feet to be combined as a park.

- Commercial shops along St.

2 Westmount 'Y' leads campaign with 60%

With approximately 10 days left in the YMCA Campaign, Westmount Division reported that $6,634.00 or 65% of its objective had been reached. At the 3rd Report Luncheon, Westmount won the Trophy for the highest division to-date.

W. D. Macdonald, Westmount Division Chairman, commenting on the results to-date stated, "We are very encouraged with our returns. Westmount citizens and business firms are showing their generosity and canvassers are reporting that their prospects are responding very favorably." We do not run a "door to door" campaign, Mr. Macdonald stressed, "every person who is contacted has a card in our canvass."

G. L. Welton, local "Y" Secretary, said, "We are very pleased with the increased and new donations this year. Thanks to the article which appeared in the Westmount Examiner, we have made new friends with un-solicited donations."

The 4th Report Luncheon will be held on Friday, November 22, with the Closing Banquet scheduled for Thursday, November 28. Citizens are asked to assist canvassers in completing their cards by November 28.

Today, two teams under the leadership of W. Smill and N. J. Watson have exceeded their team objective.

The latest returns in the overall YMCA campaign show that a little more than half the $250,000 objective has been met.

Divisional chairmen at yesterday's report luncheon indicated that they had collected $155,633 or 54 per cent of their goal with only one week remaining in the two-week campaign which began on Nov. 11 and ends on Nov. 25.

The United States consumes about 16 pounds of coffee per capita annually.

Local UNICEF raises $3,500; 146,250 pennies are counted

It took three weeks to count the pennies — there were 146,250 of them — but the Westmount UNICEF accounting is finally complete. Altogether, $3,500 was collected by some 3,000 Westmount youngsters on Hallowe'en, officials of the local City and District Savings Bank reported this week.

Bank employees volunteered to work at the job in the evenings without pay. While pennies were prominent, the officials turned up everything from an English farthing to a ten dollar bill. A number of Belgium, French and Mexican coins were collected — plus a couple of slugs.

UNICEF officials said they were "most pleased" with the collection. They pointed out that one cent will buy five glasses of milk for a needy youngster; five cents will buy a penicillin treatment; ten cents covers ten TB shots and twenty-five cents will buy the medicines to protect two children from Malaria for a year.

Meanwhile UNICEF has opened a store at 4825 Sherbrooke street west, near Victoria, to sell

Christmas and other greeting cards. Funds go to keep needy children healthy and free from hunger. "With UNICEF cards you give twice — greetings to your friends and hope to children overseas for their future," a spokesman said.

The officials illustrate the needs with a story from Uganda:

"Mrs. Salah Kiingi in Uganda has learned the importance of using purified water to wash her baby's bottle and mix his formula.

Uganda's authorities have an extensive plan for maternal and child health care facilities which includes educating mothers in sanitation and nutrition. UNICEF provides equipment, materials and transportation for training medical assistants, for health education and for raising the level of local dispensaries of foods and medicines to health centres.

"Your purchase of UNICEF Greeting Cards over the past few years has made this work possible. Thousands of dollars are still needed to help Uganda expand these facilities."

Obituary

Thomas Arnold, 82

A private funeral service for well-known Westmounter Thomas Arnold, 82, former board chairman of Manitoba Steel Foundries Ltd. was held this week in the chapel of the Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul.

Mr. Arnold, who was named machine tool controller for Canada in 1940, died last Friday.

He was appointed tool controller while board chairman of the Manitoba firm and of Commercial Alcohols Ltd., and a director of Algoma Steel Corporation Ltd. and the Railway Engineering Co. Ltd.

In the World War II post he had control over the production and purchase of tools, the issuing of import and export licences and other machine tool functions under the Department of Munitions and Supply.

In recognition of his wartime services he was made an officer of the Order of the British Empire.

Mr. Arnold was a prominent figure in hockey. He was one of the men responsible for the formation of the famed Montreal Maroons, who entered the National Hockey League with Boston Bruins in 1924. He was a director with that club until it retired from the league after the 1937-38 season. He was also associated with the famed amateur Victorias of the post-World War era and served as a director with that group for several seasons.

Born at Broughty Ferry, Scotland, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Porteous Arnold, he came to Canada in 1887. He was educated at the Quebec High School, Montreal High School and Tuckers School in Montreal.

In 1906, he joined the late John Taylor to establish the firm of Taylor and Arnold.

Mr. Arnold later became president of Manitoba Steel Foundries Ltd., and also president of General Railway Supplies; Standard Machinery & Supplies Ltd., and the American Flexible Bolt Co. Ltd.

Mr. Arnold was a member of the Westmount Rifles and the Canadian Manufacturers' Association.

He retired from active business and sold Manitoba Steel Foundries Ltd., in 1954.

He was a member of the Royal Montreal Golf Club, MAAA, St. George's Snowshoe and Curling Club, Automobile Club of Canada, the Dominion Travellers' Association; AF&AM (St. Paul Lodge).

He is survived by his wife, the former Beatrice Taylor; one daughter, Mrs. H. R. Robertson, wife of Dr. H. Rocke Robertson, principal and vice-chancellor of McGill University, and two sons, Thomas T., Montreal, and John S. H., of Winnipeg.

HUNTERS CARELESS

The pleasant relationship between hunters and farmers is one that will last only as long as hunters respect the rights of the farmer. Too often we hear reports that cattle and tame birds are mistaken for wild game by careless hunters. — Estevan (Sask.) Mercury.

4 Westmounters to sing in Yule concert

Four Westmounters will take part in the McGill Choral Society's "Sing at Christmas '63." They are: Joan Spice, Devon Emery, Harvey Stewart, and Kathy Hinds.

This year's concerts will be given at the Sir Arthur Currie Memorial Gymnasium, 475 Pine avenue west on Saturday December 7 at 2:30 p.m. and at 8:15 p.m.

For the program, the Society will present part of Tchaikovsky's "Nutcracker Suite," Mendelssohn's unfinished oratorio, "Christus" as well as a selection from "Flight into Egypt" by Hector Berlioz.

The program will include the complete saga of the Christmas story told in words and sung in the traditional and lesser known carols.

WMA seeks candidates to replace Ald. Ouimet, Byers

Candidates to fill two municipal seats will be selected Tuesday at a special meeting of the Westmount Municipal Association, but their names will not be revealed until the Association's semi-annual open meeting on December 10.

Prime Minister asks vigilance

"With our motor population increasing so rapidly every year, Canada's highways and streets are becoming crowded to the point where constant vigilance and skill are required by both motorist and pedestrian," said Hon. L. B. Pearson, the Prime Minister.

Mr. Pearson wrote in support of Safe-Driving Week, sponsored nationally by the Canadian Highway Safety Council from December 1 to 7.

Recognizing the "seriousness of the problem of reducing the terrible toll of road accidents in Canada," the Prime Minister called on every Canadian, "whether he walks or drives," to maintain vigilance and develop skill.

The terms of Alderman P. A. Ouimet, Commissioner of Public Works and of Alderman D. N. Byers, Public Health and Welfare, expire this year.

Municipal Association candidates are not generally opposed here. Election is then by acclamation.

WMA president J. H. Richer said this week that the Association is hoping to have a city official at the open meeting to explain some facet of administration. Last Fall, City Engineer Robert Daye was present to detail snow removal operations and at the Spring Open Meeting Public Safety Director E. C. Harper explained some of the work of his department.

YOUNG CANADA BOOK WEEK

This is Young Canada Book Week and youngsters all over Westmount were encouraged to visit libraries and renew their interest in good books. The Westmount Public Library arranged special displays for all age groups. Miss Catherine Fraser, head of the Children's Department was on hand to recommend new books. She is seen with Cathy Fraser, 6, a pupil at Roslyn, Paul Salvatore, 13, of St. Leo's (in coat) and Derek Murphy, 12, also of St. Leo's.

Rain delays Police HQ construction

Work on the new Stanton street police station is about a week behind schedule. John Rodighiero, president of the Rodighiero Construction Company, general contractors, said yesterday. He blamed recent rainy weather for the delay.

"We should be pouring concrete by now," Mr. Rodighiero said. "Instead we're still nailing up the forms." He noted that excavation work was now complete.

Work on this section of the new headquarters is to be completed within six months at an estimated cost of $380,000. The first section will house the police department in modern quarters and will include a new courtroom. The City has offered a premium of $6,500 if the work is completed within four months.

Phase two calls for the expenditure of $390,000 for construction of an entirely new city hall annex on the south side of the complex and extensive alterations to the fire station in the centre. The new annex will house the departments of personnel, purchasing health and welfare, and assessors. This work is to be completed within seven months starting no later than April 1, 1964 with an estimated premium of $8,500 if completed within five and a half months.

These two phases allowing for construction in gradual steps are to prevent disruption of municipal services, officials declared. Firemen will share quarters with police this winter.

Miss Matthews favors Indian education study

Miss Agnes Matthews, immediate past principal of St. George's School, Westmount, said this week that she was "intrigued" with the prospects of examining the Indian educational system and suggesting means of reforming it.

The study was proposed earlier this month by the National Indian Council of Canada. They selected Miss Matthews, head of St. George's for more than 80% of its history, as the person best able to carry out this project.

A council official, Miss Kar Kahn-tineta Horn, Mohawk model from Caughnawaga, wrote to Miss Matthews who is attending Columbia University on special educational studies. Her letter never arrived.

A friend of Miss Matthews, however, sent a copy of The Westmount Examiner, containing an earlier report on the project to Miss Matthews. She immediately notified the Council of her interest.

Miss Matthews returns to Montreal next week for a visit and plans to meet with the Indian Council.

The Council has written the Federal Government suggesting the appointment of Miss Matthews for the proposed study. "We believe she would work miracles for Indian education in Canada," Miss Horn said. "She would really be the one to help us raise the standards of education from its present level of grade five or six."

WE SAY

Educating our giant neighbor

PRIME Minister Pearson has put his finger on one of the main barriers to mutual understanding between Canada and the United States.

In an address in New York to the Pilgrims of the United States, he said Americans tend to "underplay . . . problems until or unless they become conflicts."

Of the same time Canadians "tend to overplay them, and make a disaster out of a difference."

Canadians would undoubtedly be pleased if this situation could be changed and particularly if Americans would take notice of irritating situations before they develop into serious differences.

To be realistic, however, it should be recognized that there is no real hope of any such change.

The United States has 10 times as many people as Canada. It's deeply involved in vital problems throughout the world. Only when disagreements with Canada over policy develop into full-fledged disputes do Americans generally begin to take notice.

And as long as a seemingly unimportant action can have serious consequences in Canada we're likely to continue reacting violently.

Perhaps the best thing we can do, then, is to try to impress on Americans that such reactions do not spring from any basic unfriendliness; that we're deeply concerned with Canadian interests and are merely doing our best to keep from getting hurt.

Mr. Pearson has tried to do this. Discussing Canada's attitude, he said "there is no anti-American feeling, in the sense that there is any unfriendliness to the American people."

On the contrary, he added, "we are so friendly that we feel that we can criticize the United States like a Texan does — and in the same idiom."

He made a plea for Americans to "consider any Canadian government as a friendly foreign one (he emphasized 'foreign') in.

YOU SAY

Traffic headache looms here

Sir, Thank you for your thorough coverage of two important Westmount stories in the past few weeks. I refer to the announcement that Western avenue is to be the site of the West End subway terminus and also the city's recent steps toward the widening of Dorchester.

Apparently these two projects will be carried out at the same time. This could have a most disastrous effect on traffic flow here.

According to your story, Western is to be completely blocked off to traffic while the subway station is under construction. I should imagine also that if Dorchester is not completely blocked off, there will, at least, be some traffic disruption.

This will leave only Sherbrooke and St. Catherine streets to handle the heavy rush hour traffic and will surely create one of the worst headaches in the history of this city unless some rather drastic measures are taken. I have the greatest respect for the Westmount traffic experts but would certainly like to hear the solution to this one.

Motorist

BY THE WAY

"Macbeth" in diving-boots THE attraction of "Peter Pan" on ice at Wembley will probably be the flying on, or rather over, ice. Will air-skates be used? Why on ice? Why not on water-skis, or on a polo field, or in a fives court? A modern play staged on sewage might bring out some of the finer points, whose first responsibility is the protection of the national interest of its own people."

He added that this naturally included the "necessity of close co-operation with a good and gigantic friend and neighbor."

If Mr. Pearson's first premise — that Americans tend to ignore most of what Canada says — is correct, then few persons in the United States will pay more than passing attention to what the prime minister has said.

But education is a gradual process and if we're going to impress Americans with our point of view, explanations of this sort must be made — over and over — until they begin to sink in.

This Week in Westmount

By VALENTINA RAHR

About seventy members of the Women's Liberal Association of St. Antoine-Westmount and Westmount-St. George left early Tuesday morning to spend the day in Ottawa. During the trip, coffee was served around nine o'clock by members of the executive, Mrs. Coristine, Mrs. Kathleen Dunne, Mrs. Wisenthal and Lady Shaughnessy. Upon arrival in Ottawa, the group was met by Fred Wanklyn, assistant to C. M. Drury, MP, who arranged to have the members conducted on a tour of the National Gallery. A highlight of the tour was the viewing of a collection of Aubusson tapestries from France.

A Sherry Party was held at 12:30, followed by lunch in the Parliamentary Restaurant with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Drury. "For years the opinion held by many people was that women are not interested in public affairs, women don't understand public affairs, and that they are more interested in making meals and being a good 'menagere,'" said Mr. Drury. "I do not share this opinion, nor does my wife. Herculean efforts have gone into organizing and carrying on the last election campaign and the women of St. Antoine-Westmount, Westmount-St. George have done their share under the leadership of Mrs. Coristine. She has also gone to tremendous lengths to make this trip possible and it is flattering for me to think that in our constituency so many women may be prepared to take time to see a bit of Ottawa, and Parliament."

A few minutes later the guests were delighted to meet Prime Minister Pearson "I owe you a debt for sending Mr. Drury to Ottawa," declared the Prime Minister. "He is a very good and capable representative of your constituency. If it weren't for the women voters, and their work and support, I would not be here too."

Members attended a session of the Twenty-Sixth Parliament in the House of Commons where they witnessed a Ralliement des Creditistes filibuster which rought proceedings virtually to a standstill; and charges of centenary patronage by former Prime Minister Diefenbaker.

Westmount stores this week advertised razor blades, five for ten cents; two dozen aspirin for .39; olive oil, 16 oz. for .49; rubbing alcohol, 16 oz. for .39; "Ye Old English Salts were apparently popular and two local stores had them on sale; one pound for .39.

Meanwhile, a St. Catherine street hardware store advertised new electric toasters at $1.98; "Nickel-plated electric irons complete with cord at the same price, galvanized corrugated ash pails went for $1.75; galvanized wash boards for .49 and aluminum percolators for .98.

In Westmount grocery stores, "top grade, empire grown" coffee sold for .29 a pound; tea was at .59 a pound; flour, seven pounds for .35; and sugar 10 pounds for .53.

"Our job is to make the French Canadians listen to the clauses of the 'padlock law' and to see its stupidity," declared R. L. Calder, addressing a well-attended meeting of Westmount Hi Y Grads in the local YMCA this week. "Any attack on the law is branded as being a communistic move; and this the French Canadian dutifully refuses to listen."

Mr. Calder said in his opening remarks that it was easy to see the assemblage was of British lineage and it was thus unnecessary to stress the importance of free speech. "Free speech," he said, "was not only founded on fairness, but was a necessary part of the democracy."

The padlock law, he continued, violates all concepts of democratic law enforcement. Any person, he said, can furnish information slyly to the attorney-general to the effect that some one may be propagating communistic propaganda and the attorney-general can then, under the terms of the 'padlock law' cause the seizure of and confiscation of the goods of this person — and the person who may be entirely innocent, is not even entitled to an explanation.

They Say

Harsh counsels have no effect: they are like hammers which are always repulsed by the anvil.

— Helvetius

ROVING REPORTER

By Oliver Towne

It's still almost impossible to park on Thornhill between Churchill and Argyle. Construction workers for the new police station on Stanton jam it from nine to five. The street is so narrow that a single delivery truck stopped anywhere on the road effectively blocks all traffic...

Talking of parking there appear to be quite a few cars being towed in to the police station these days sporting as many as three or four parking tickets, one for each four hour period it is left. With four parking tickets and a towing bill perhaps some car owners would rather just tip-toe by their cars and keep on walking...

The Mayor of Westmount and Mrs. C. H. Drury, who will be guests of honor at the dinner-dance sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of the Reddy Memorial Hospital Nov. 23 at the Windsor Hotel.

C. M. 'Bud' Drury, Minister of Defence Production from Westmount, visited the hub of Canada's NORAD defence system yesterday. The Minister toured the underground SAGE site at North Bay, Ont., and addressed the annual dinner meeting of the local Chamber of Commerce.

Formerly it was two, now all of the Westmount Police cars are equipped with 12-gauge shotguns installed within easy reach of the driver.

"It is our intention to arm policemen at least as well as some of the criminals who might be roaming the area," explained a police official.

He said the department intended to ultimately install the shotguns in all police cars.

In the past, men in patrol cars carried only sidearms. Rifles and shotguns have long been part of the Police Department's armament, the official explained, but they have never been a regular feature of the patrol car's equipment.

Westmount is the only municipality in the area to have this feature.

A. M. Campbell to attend seminar

Westmounter Alistair M. Campbell, 3660 The Boulevard, president of the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada will be one of the chief participants in an advanced underwriting seminar to be held next month in Philadelphia.

The program of advanced seminars for established agents is a continuing one, a Sun Life official explains, and more are scheduled to be held next year.

Subjects covered include estate analysis, developments in business insurance, and life underwriting techniques.

The seminars in Canada this year were held in Halifax, Brockville, Hamilton and Toronto.

Other officers scheduled to be in Philadelphia with Mr. Campbell include W. G. Attridge, vice-president and director of agencies; H. F. Gundy, vice-president underwriting; M. D. Loucks, superintendent of agencies, (Eastern U.S. Division) and W. J. Hulbig, associate general counsel. Mr. Hulbig and Mr. Loucks will attend all three seminars in the U.S. next month.

Roslyn boosts French courses

Pupils in grades five and six at Roslyn school are now learning French not from regular class teachers, but from specialists.

Principal Scott Kneeland said that while most of the elementary school subjects could be taught adequately by the regular teachers, French language specialists were needed for older pupils going on to high school.

"This innovation was begun recently and it is already showing positive results," the principal said. "Our aim, of course, is to have French specialists in all the grades, but for the time being, we feel it is most productive in the 5th and 6th."

Mrs. M. A. Samuels, a graduate of the University of Toronto and McGill where she received 1st class honors in French teaches the new course. Officials at Westmount Park School said they hoped to obtain a French specialist soon.

Another innovation which may come soon in local schools, officials report, is the teaching of French to Kindergartners plus grades one and two pupils.

Members of the Protestant School Board of Greater Montreal heard a report recently on the first phase of a program designed to extend the French program to all elementary school pupils.

The program has begun, on an experimental basis in 14 Protestant schools on the island.

The Kindergarten youngsters receive 10 minutes instruction daily while those in Grades 1 and 2 are given 15 minutes daily. Forty-five classes are distributed over the 14 schools involved.

The report, submitted by education committee chairman also noted that whereas last year French specialists were employed in some 16 elementary schools the service has been extended to 30 this year.

The board also heard the annual Financial report given by finance committee chairman

Hugh B. Savage The balance sheet showed an operating deficit of $45,796 for 1962-63.

His Worship mentioned the purchase of various pieces of property throughout the year, notably the old Lighthall residence on Murray Park and the improvements that had been made there. The city was pursuing a policy of buying more playgrounds, he said spending money as it was available and advisable. He also mentioned the purchase of the old stoneyard at the corner of St. Catherine street and Hillside lane.

Alderman Scott, he said, has a plan to reduce the speeding and accidents on city streets; a large sum of money has been raised, but unfortunately this was also taken up by the province of Quebec, "as they seem to need money as much as we do" added the Mayor.

Computer picks Christmas gifts

Shoppers short of ideas but long on money can let a computer choose their Christmas gifts for them at Simpson's this year.

An 11-unit computer on the fourth floor at Simpson's will suggest gifts from a list of about 3,000 stored in its steel skull.

Shoppers will fill out a card stating the age and sex of the person receiving the gift. The price range and category of gift will also be asked.

The computer digests the information for 10 seconds and selects 10 suggestions.

The gift suggestions are described and the customer is told where he can buy the item.

Safe-Driving Week proclaimed

As in the past six years, Safe-Driving Week in Canada will extend from December 1 to 7, inclusive. The Canadian Highway Safety Council will sponsor this major road safety campaign with increased co-operation expected from provincial and community safety organizations in all provinces.

As in the past, Safe-Driving Week will stress problems that arise in winter driving and walking. It will also serve to lead into the nation-wide, December-long campaign to combat holiday traffic hazards, promoted each year by federal, provincial and community police.

During Safe-Driving Week in 1962, 70 people died in traffic across Canada. This was a considerable increase over the same period of 1961, when 55 perished.

However, of the 43 Canadian cities with populations exceeding 40,000, all but 10 completed Safe-Driving Week without a single road death and were cited by His Excellency the Governor General.

Record wheat crop, sales still leaves surplus

Canada's record wheat crop has enabled the country to meet the extraordinary demands from the Soviet Union as well as from traditional markets and still leave at the end of the current crop year some 500 million bushels for export and carryover.

This observation is made by the Bank of Montreal in its Business Review for October, just issued. Exports this year could be well over the current official estimate of 550 million bushels and substantially above the previous record set in 1928-29 when 406 million bushels were exported, the B of M says.

"The heavy production and marketings in promise for the remainder of the year should place wheat well ahead of any other agricultural commodity as a source of income and add further to the already buoyant income position of Canadian farmers," the bank states.

"In terms of the balance of payments, Canadian wheat sales during the current year should earn something of the order of a billion dollars," the B of M continues and says, "The significance of this is obvious at a time when Canada's external payments position is a matter of concern. However, it is not perhaps generally appreciated that the surplus in Canada's balance of payments from trade in agricultural products has not, in recent years, reached the high levels achieved a decade ago."

Turning to other field crops, the B of M notes that production and yields are generally ahead of a year ago and substantially above the average for the past ten years.

"Crop estimates for almost all coarse grains are high with barley, rye and flaxseed all showing increases. The production of hay is at a record level, and output of sugar beets is also up from last year," the bank observes.

Roslyn H&S offers six courses

The Roslyn Home and School Association named six projects this year, three for the pupils, three for their parents.

The Association holds French conversational classes for adults under the direction of Mme. Saly, a member of the French Department High School. It is intended to hold classes for twenty weeks with the participants divided into two groups according to ability. Further information may be obtained from Mrs. J. Patrick, 110 Sunnyside avenue, 482-1866.

Another class popular this year is adult art instruction. Classes are held Wednesdays from 8 to 10 p.m. in the Roslyn School Art Room. Those who wish to take the course should telephone Don Perkins, 937-5011.

A badminton club for adults each Wednesday evening in the large gym at Roslyn.

For the youngsters Roslyn's highly successful art project resumed in October again under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Don Perkins.

Girls ballet classes started October 15 with weekly lessons of one hour on Tuesdays and Wednesdays. Convener of the Roslyn Ballet committee is Mrs. D. M. Cumming.

Sewing classes commenced September 30.

"Farm cash income from farming operations during the first six months of this year was above that received in the comparable period the year before, with gains registered in almost every category of production."

The B of M notes that increases has been recorded for livestock and products, dairy products and poultry.

mount Park School on Academy road, converted within the past three years from a junior high to an elementary school.

The New Rochelle Development Corporation spokesman said that a six storey building would be "completely impractical" on the site. "This is one of the biggest lots available in years," he said. "We envision a 12 storey building with a considerable setback."

The Western avenue property contains 69,000 square feet.

Meanwhile, offers to purchase Queens school are being studied by the local school board. They have received several bids, but have mentioned no specific companies. All sales must finally be approved by the Greater Montreal School Board and the Superintendent of Education in Quebec.

Complete text of Zoning by-law amendment given

The complete text of the proposed zoning by-law amendment concerning Westmount Centre follows:

Whereas plans were submitted to the City of Westmount on the tenth day of July 1963, on behalf of Westmount Center Inc., for the redevelopment of the area hereinafter described, and revised plans therefore were submitted to the City of Westmount on the sixth day of November 1963; and,

Whereas such plans have been approved in principle by the Architectural Commission of the City; and,

Whereas the said area now forms parts of District R-4 of the Residential Zone and District C-5 of the Commercial Zone; and,

Whereas it is desirable and in the interest of the City to permit the redevelopment of the said area in conformity with the said plans submitted to the City;

It is ordained and enacted by By-Law entitled "By-Law To Amend By-Law 655 Entitled 'By-Law' To Regulate Residential, Commercial and Industrial Zones", as follows:-

By-Law 655 adopted on the 11th day of March 1963, as amended by By-law, is hereby further amended as follows:-

SECTION 1

Notwithstanding Sections 3-2-4, 3-3-5, 4-4, 6-2 and 6-8 of By-law 655, nothing in said By-law shall prevent the establishment of a building in the area described in Section 2 of this By-law which is hereby detached from the said Districts R-4 and C-5 and is hereby designated as a redevelopment area RDA-1 in conformity with the revised plans submitted to the City of Westmount on the sixth day of November, 1963, on behalf of Westmount Center Inc., a copy of which is attached with the original of this By-Law, subject to compliance with the requirements of said By-Law 655 as modified by the provisions of this By-Law.

SECTION 2

RDA-1 is bounded on the north by Western Avenue from the east property line of Lot 375-31 to Wood Avenue, on the east by Wood Avenue from Western Avenue to St. Catherine Street, on the south by St. Catherine Street from Wood Avenue to the east boundary of Lot 375-54 and by the north boundaries of Lots 375-62 and 375-10 from the northerly projection of the east boundary of Lot 375-54 to the east boundary of Lot 375-31 and on the west by the east boundary of Lot 375-54 and the northerly projection thereof from St. Catherine Street to the north boundary of Lot 375-62 and by the east boundary of Lot 375-31 from the north boundary of Lot 375-10 to Western Avenue.

SECTION 3

For the purpose of By-law

655, RDA-1 shall be deemed to constitute one site.

SECTION 4

In RDA-1, no occupancy shall be permitted other than an apartment building, an hotel, an art school, a business college, a private club or lodge, an office, a bank, a retail store, a restaurant, a laboratory, a service shop, a workshop, a theatre, a physiotherapy studio, a radio station, a television station, or a bowling establishment, provided, however, that none of the foregoing shall have show windows or shop entrances on Western Avenue.

SECTION 5

In establishing RDA-1, a) the F.A.R. of the said building shall not exceed 3 for the first twenty thousand (20,000) square feet of its site and 6 for that portion of the site in excess of twenty thousand (20,000) square feet of its site;

b) the greatest horizontal area of the building shall not exceed 90% of the area of the site;

c) the height of the building shall not exceed twenty-one (21) storeys.

SECTION 6

RDA-1 shall not be developed except as one unit and in conformity with the revised plans attached to the original of this By-law.

Prof. Oliver to lead new French study

McGill Professor Michael K. Oliver, a resident of Grosvenor avenue, prominent in St. Antoine-Westmount NDP affairs, is to lead a new program to promote and encourage the study of all aspects of French Canada.

Mr. Oliver, associate professor of Political Science and Economics at the university was named chairman for the program. He said he will work with five departments at McGill in addition to his own; anthropology, economics, geography, history, political science and romance langues.

He said that studies on French Canada offer "a legitimate area of academic investigation and we hope to co-ordinate the efforts of many scholars in varied fields both in Canada and outside."

In addition to the many new courses being planned for undergraduate and graduate students, plans call for the establishment of fellowships, visiting lecturers, expanded library facilities and organization of a conference of scholars, Prof. Oliver said.

EDUCATION IS VITAL

To entertain any hope of being a standout in a work force of some seven millions with an interrupted or incomplete education is just a hope without chance of realization. Nor will it be sufficient to stay in school and just drift along. A high school diploma is merely the starting gun. — Powell River (B.C.) News.

Red Feather seeks volunteers

The Montreal Volunteer Bureau, Red Feather's central placement office for volunteers, sponsors open meetings several times each year to introduce the public to the opportunities available in volunteer work. Many thousands of men and women are presently active in their spare time, in hospitals and in the community, working with the handicapped, children and adults, the poor, the lonely, the emotionally and the mentally disturbed.

The need for volunteers is ever increasing.

Claude Richardson, QC, winner of the 1963 Canadian Mental Health Association award for outstanding volunteer service in the field of mental health, will be guest speaker at the Volunteer Bureau's open meeting, Tuesday November 26 at the Sun Life Auditorium at 8 p.m.

His subject, "The Place of the Volunteer in the Community" will give a wide survey of this fascinating field. A film, "The Human Side" (volunteers in mental health) will be shown followed by a question period.

Members of the Board and the staff of the Volunteer Bureau look forward to welcoming all those with an interest in their fellow-man, with time to give and the heart to give it.

Christian Science

Troubles blamed on ignorance

Illness, poverty, crime, misery, and so on, would be much more effectively combated if men would strive to understand more clearly what it means to be the beloved sons of God, a Christian Science lecturer declared in an address prepared for delivery this evening, in the auditorium of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Montreal. Man's divine heritage of dominion over the ills of the flesh could be more and more experienced in practical ways, the speaker said, but only in the degree it was understood and claimed.

"God doesn't need reminding of His fatherhood," he added. "But we so often need to remind ourselves of our divine sonship. The realization of the ever-present loving Father has healed countless cases of hopeless suffering and disease."

The speaker, Noel D. Bryan-Jones, CS, of Worthing, England, is a member of the world-wide Christian Science Board of Lectureship. His theme was "God Omnipotent Makes Man Triumphant."

Man could not exist apart from God, he argued, since man was the reflection or expression of God. "It's so important to gain and maintain this stupendous idea of ourselves in place of the puny mortal idea of man presented by the material senses. We just can't claim too much good, too much perfection, too much freedom and dominion for ourselves. It's all ours, and if we don't claim it we only have ourselves to blame if we don't experience it."

"God is always tenderly caring for every one of us as a beloved idea, an infinitely valued creation. This is our authority for living, our authority for being well and happy and prosperous."

Dominion Douglas Lecture series concludes Sunday

Next Sunday morning at Dominion-Douglas Dr. Smith will preach on the theme "What's a Christian?"

In the evening, Dr. Stanley Frost, Dean of Graduate Studies, McGill University, will conclude his series Old Light on New Ideas with his fourth lecture entitled "The Planned Society." The lecture will be followed by a question period.

Musical

Sharps, Flats & Naturals

By FRANCES GOLTMAN

THE WORKING PUPIL — THE WORKING TEACHER.

One cannot get results without effort — effort requires toil and toil is just another word for work. The majority of music students these days are not "Working Pupils." True, many take lessons (some for a season, others for several years, plus the serious ones who really work) and one finds that whilst a few work correctly from the start, a goodly number only begin to work properly after a couple of seasons.

The "Working Pupil" who progresses is the one who practises (academic subjects or music) with a system — this is where the instructor has a real duty — he or she is the "Working Teacher" and should explain to the pupil HOW to work.

Are many pupils taught the way to study at home when they are assigned the daily school homework? Are many music students told exactly how to practise each item at home? Parents should realize these important facts immediately when they start school and music.

Learns quickly

A bright pupil learns quickly and even if the instructor is not competent, the student manages to shift for himself but how about the slower student? A teacher at school must follow regulations and add inventive ways to inspire and interest the class. A music teacher is in a different sphere. Whereas the school teacher has one grade (in elementary school) to instruct the music teacher is imparting knowledge to numerous age and intelligence levels. He is expected to produce results with each student.

How can one expect a fast rate of promotion when a child of seven and a half years goes to a different "after school" lesson daily? Poor little pre-teen! I made the discovery last week that one child of this tender age has ballet lessons twice weekly at a well known school — another day attends a children's drama school — will be taking ice-skating lessons shortly and has a music lesson once a week. The little child goes somewhere EVERY day after school and during the winter the family travels up north weekends for skiing. That child is "wound up."

Quite a few but not all have such a strenuous routine as this tot. By the time they (and others who are in the same category) reach high school age, the parents wonder why they have such nervous offspring — why they are finding their studies difficult — why they are not good in mathematics! A sorry plight for such young heads!

This past week, a dear little ten year old gave me a note before starting her lesson. Imagine my surprise upon being asked to "Please excuse Dorothy (not her name) for not practising her piano this week due to the fact that she had a lot of homework from school."

I got right up and telephoned the parent, in front of the child and explained that had she done a little less on account of more school studies, I would not mind but it was absolutely wrong to send me a note with this request.

Lower Canada College

Year book features two new sections

By PETER G. MATHON

The school year book, under editor Alan Gratijs, will feature two completely new sections this edition. Those are a French section, edited by Ian Cook, and the Art section, edited by Mike Taylor.

The former is a new idea and poems, short essays and jokes in French will all be accepted. In the Art section, sketches, photos, cartoons and other art work, will also be considered. Another interesting feature will be the inclusion of the history of the school crest.

The Old Boys of the school will be paid tribute in this year's annual.

whether a man be behind it or no. Ralph Waldo EMERSON 1803-1882.

Each form will insert a small amount of space in the advertisement section. The students will pay for the space. This should help create a feeling of pride in having something to do with the success of the paper.

To inspire the contribution of material to the annual, there are $45 in prizes in the Literature section and over $100 in prizes in all sections together.

The 1,000-odd books will be distributed to all students at LCC, and all schools, public and private, will receive copies. Private schools in New Brunswick and Ontario also receive copies. The exchange editor is presently seeking out private schools in Europe who are interested in obtaining the yearly.

Another annual affair, Speech Night, will be held tomorrow night. Some of the presentations to be made will be: The Senior All Round Cup, John Tait; the Junior All Round Cup, V. Traversy. The 12th grade prizes go to T. H. A. Forster, J. C. Tait. The 11th grade prize goes to D. A. Slaughter.

The scholarships to McGill were obtained by C. M. Douglas, D. W. Derrick, J. M. Earle, D. N. Slaughter.

Admission to Princeton University was won by J. C. Tait, while admission to MIT went to T. A. J. Forster.

Also to be presented will be the McGill School Certificates. In these exams, there were 12 with first class honors, 17 with second class honors, and 23 with third class honors from LCC. Exactly 92% of the 11th grade obtained their certificates.

The Current Events Club had a music demonstration in the Music Room last Friday. It was a string instrument exhibition by Jack Kivik, David Hutchison, Donald Gilmore, Fred Mason, Allister McLane and Chris Larking. The string instructor at LCC is Mr. Onofry.

"Export sales? We work through our local bank"

Helping to move the goods that mean so much to so many Canadians is an every-day service of the chartered banks. Manufacturers, producers and shippers increasingly use the local bank—not only to help finance the movement of goods in and out of the country but for assistance in overcoming problems of distance, currency and regulation.

Today the chartered banks are able, through their network of branches across Canada and their foreign branches, agents and representatives, to provide traders and travellers with the facilities of one of the world's largest international banking systems. This world of service is available to customers of any branch in any town or city. It provides quick business communications, speeds delivery of goods, helps Canadian companies to compete in markets everywhere.

St. Mary's Ball a gala occasion

By Millicent Hickmore

ST. MARY'S Hospital annual Ball, which is sponsored by the Auxiliary will be a colorful event tomorrow evening at the Queen Elizabeth Hotel. The highlight of the evening, the traditional Father and Daughter Waltz, makes a charming picture, the proud fathers dancing with their beautifully gowned daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. White, 49 Belvedere road are the co-chairmen of the Ball and the guests of honor this year are General and Mrs. A. G. L. MacNaughton, to whom 20 father and daughter couples will be presented prior to the Father and Daughter Waltz.

Among those on the Ball committee are: Mrs. F. L. McPhail, 74 Belvedere Place; Mrs. H. Staniforth, 79 Belvedere Place; Mr. and Mrs. John H. Dunne, 3194 The Boulevard; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lovell, 3571 Vendome avenue.

Miss Maureen Shaughnessy, 3026 Upper Lachine road, co-chairman of the junior committee; other members on the junior committee, include Pat Kenniff, 3540 Cote St. Catherine road, president of Loyola Student Council; Ian Houston, Don Bedard, 4895 Montclair avenue; Miss Claudette Smith, and Miss Joan Wolfenden.

Miss Wolfenden will present the traditional bouquet to the guests of honor, Gen. and Mrs. MacNaughton.

Decor will be carried out with hospital motifs and the floral arrangement in blue and white, the traditional colors of the hospital. Over six hundred guests are expected to attend the Ball.

CONVERSATION PIECE:

Miss Frances Goltman, music teacher, critic, and columnist, will be heard on Radio Station CJAD on the Doris Clark program Tuesday between 2 and 3 p.m. Miss Goltman, first medallist, McGill University, teaches beginners and advanced pupils. On the program, Miss Goltman will answer questions on music from listeners who wish to call in to the Station.

NIGHT SHOPPING:

Nearly New Shop on Victoria street, has a new policy — night shopping — in response to numerous requests for longer store hours before Christmas, the staff has decided that on Thursdays, November 21, 28, December 5 and 12 — the store hours will be extended from 4.30 to 7.30 p.m., to enable their customers to drop in for Christmas shopping. The Nearly New Shop is staffed and operated by volunteers of the Women's Auxiliaries of the Royal Victoria Hospital and the Montreal Children's Hospital, and all money made is used to further the social service of the two hospitals.

PRE-CHRISTMAS HINT:

What better way to greet holiday guests than with a bright door decoration that's both festive and practical.

Instead of using your mailbox this Christmas, make your own mail holder with four roomy pockets large enough for dozens of greetings and even small packages. According to the Canadian Cotton Council, they can be made at gay cotton fabrics, practically no expense from

ALL ABOUT BABIES...

A Public Service of the National Baby Care Council

By DR. ERNEST DITCHER
President
Institute for Motivational
Research

Croton-On-Hudson, New York
MORE TIME FOR BABY

From time to time, I believe this column should consider mother. For there can be no argument that whatever affects mother, also affects baby.

There is one thing the modern mother does not seem to have too much of, even with household automation. And that is time — time not only for herself, but also for her baby.

In a recent motivational research study we did for the nation's diaper service industry, interviews with young mothers indicated they place as much value on their time as they do on their labor.

The survey showed that young mothers today are more realistic about the use of household equipment and more sound in their application of household economics and time-management.

They realize that while much of the drudgery and toil has been eliminated by labor-saving machinery, no one has eliminated the need for someone to fill, operate, watch, empty, clean and repair the machines. Clothes and dishes still must be prepared by hand. The bigger the wash, the bigger the ironing, handling and folding. The more buttons, levers and controls, the more things to remember, operate and maintain.

As a result, more young mo-there today are using the latest advancements in complete outside services in conjunction with the sensible use of home equipment. This, they have found, provides them with more time to spend with baby and other members of the family.

The motivational research study showed that of the American families using professional diaper service, two-thirds also own automatic home laundry equipment. The interviews revealed that these families realize that for about 38 cents more each week, baby's diapers can be processed professionally and scientifically by a diaper service and 547 hours or about 23 days a year can be saved.

The time saved includes the time the mother would have to spend with three-pre-rinses, four separate sudsings, six post-wash rinses to remove all soap residue, loading the washer, adding soap, bleach, softener and antiseptics at various steps in the process, boiling, boiling after washing and sterilize the diapers, drying and finally gathering the diapers and folding them for storage.

A young Pittsburgh mother of three put it all this way: "You can become a slave to the mechanics of having a baby rather than to the charms of the baby. I feel that even if you have every convenience for washing diapers at home, it's still a wasted effort because it takes time away from the children."

Westmount Park WMS

Local women to assist in 'Carousel of Fun'

Saturday mornings of fun and activity have been planned by the Montreal YWCA, Dorchester boulevard, for girls from 8 to 13 years of age. Assisting with this new program, are Mrs. Anne Wilson of 5450 Dudemaine street, St. Laurent and Miss Judy Rawlings of 359 Roslyn avenue, Westmount.

Called a "Carousel of Fun," the six-week program will include modern dance, drama, puppetry, cooking, gym, music and club activities and starts Saturday, November 2 and continues until Saturday, December 7. The hours, 9:30 until 1 p.m., will provide the girls with ample time to enjoy one or all of the activities and also provide their mothers with time for browsing through the stores.

The theme will be depicted in the lobby of the building with a carousel made of paper and streamers, on which animal caricatures will be riding. Each animal will relate to an activity, and animal likenesses will be repeated throughout the building enabling the girls to quickly identify the scene of their next activity as they go from one group to another.

Much of the leadership for this program will be provided by eight 'Y' Camp Oolahwan "counsellors-in-training" as part of their winter activities. This comprehensive two-year training program for girls 16 years and over includes lectures, discussions, workshops and camping skills, and girls wishing to apply for the new openings still available as counsellors-in-training, should contact the Y's Camp Director, Mrs. Winters.

Another feature of the Saturday "Carousel" will be a drop-in room open for those with some time to spend between activities. Here a girl will be able to participate in quick 15-minute crafts, play table games, browse through a book or play a favorite record. Registration will take place Saturday, November 2.

AMONG PLANNERS for the sixth annual dinner-dance of the Canadian Friends, Alliance Israelite Universelle, to be held Saturday, December 14, in the Windsor Hotel, are, standing left to right: Mr. Shura Haichin, 4739 Roslyn avenue, dance chairman; Alliance vice-president Mr. Philip F. Vineberg, QC, 32 Summit Crescent, Westmount; Mr. Ben Chazonoff, 486 Kenaston avenue, TMR, dance co-chairman. Seated, left to right: Mrs. M. Cypis, 5313 Trans Island avenue, and Mrs. D. A. Shefner, 1545 Markham road, TMR, both in charge of the ticket committee. Proceeds of the event will aid the Alliance's educational work in North Africa, the Middle East and France. Guest speaker will be M. Jules Braunschvig, vice-president of the group's main office, Paris. Tickets are still available and may be had by telephoning 484-9867.

St. Andrew's Homes

The Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Homes Inc., will meet Monday, at 3350 Cavendish boulevard at 2 p.m. The Rev. Clifton Mackay will be the speaker.

Communion breakfast

The annual Mother and Daughter Communion Breakfast of The Junior Council of the Catholic Women's League of Canada will take place Sunday, November 24.

His Excellency Bishop Lawrence P. Whelan will celebrate mass in the Lady's Chapel of St. Patrick's Church at 8 a.m. followed by breakfast in the "Sheraton Room" of the Sheraton-Mount Royal Hotel at which Bishop Whelan will address the group.

Catherine Booth WA

The Women's Auxiliary of the Catherine Booth Hospital will hold the annual sale of work on November 22 from 10 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. in Dewey Hall, Rose-dale United Church, Terrebonne and Mariette avenues.

'Movie Club' for seniors

Senior citizens of 60 and over will soon be able to enjoy afternoon movies at reduced rates. After December 5th, 22 movie theatres operated by United Amusements — both English and French — will charge 40¢ admission for matinee performances, Monday thru Friday.

All that is required, is membership in the Golden Age Movie Club, for which there is no charge, and which is under the auspices of Montreal B'nai B'rith Women.

Individuals, who wish to join the Golden Age Movie Club of the United Theatres, will be able to register on Thursday, November 28, from 1-3.30 p.m. and from 7.30-9 p.m. at 14 of their theatres, where B'nai B'rith members will issue membership cards. This will be the last theatre registration until December 6, when managers of the listed 22 theatres will register individuals.

Meanwhile, B'nai B'rith women are issuing cards to members of Golden Age clubs and similar senior groups. All interested clubs are asked to contact Mrs. Harvey Freedman, RE. 7-6706, Mrs. Joseph Leznoff, RE. 7-4628 or Mrs. Harry Shiff, HU. 1-8436.

On December 5, a free afternoon movie will be held at the Palace theatre for all members of the Golden Age Movie Club, who have joined up to and including, November 28.

Eventide Home hears committee reports

A meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of Eventide Home of the Salvation Army was held on Thursday, November 14 in the Assembly Hall of the Home. Brigadier G. Dockery opened the meeting with prayer. Mrs. R. Uden, president, welcomed all members, new members and guests. Minutes of previous meeting and correspondence were read by Mrs. M. H. Schade, secretary, followed by Mrs. Ed. Bent, treasurer reporting on the financial standing of the auxiliary.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Mrs. A. H. Mason, Beauty Parlor chairman was unable to attend meeting but Mrs. Uden reported that after much effort, Mrs. Mason had secured the services of a competent hairdresser and two assistants who will operate the beauty parlor two evenings a week. The ladies of the Home were very happy to hear the news especially with the cold weather approaching. Entertainment for the balance of the season will be under the direction of Mrs. R. Uden, Mrs. J. B. Fraser and Mrs. Bardo T. Gardner. Mrs. J. B. Fraser, membership chairman reports 105 paid up members. Mrs. R. J. Dunn, press chairman reports all notices and reports of meetings sent to newspapers. Mrs. Bardo T. Gardner, recreation chairman reports 3 Games Nights held so far this season by the Ventures Club, the Men's Association and the Royalmount Kiwanis Club. Mrs. J. A. McGee, sewing chairman reported that since the last meeting, 163 articles were mended and 8 replacements made. Mrs. S. A. Innes, Tuck Shop chairman states that the residents are happy at the continued convenience of this shop being open for them. Mrs. J. S. Curtis, visiting chairman reports visiting continues every Wednesday and this is very much appreciated by the residents. More volunteers are needed for this worthy cause. Miss J. Roffe, assistant social chairman reports refreshments were served to approximately 80 residents at each Games Night held since the start of the season. Mrs. C. N. Knowles, Birthday Shelf chairman reports 11 gifts to men and 9 gifts to ladies were distributed during October and November.

Brigadier G. Dockery reports there are now 147 residents in the Home. He expressed his gratitude at the untiring efforts of the auxiliary to make the residents happy.

Mrs. Uden referred to a very beautiful wall to wall carpet from the women's auxiliary which has now been installed in the main lounge and three table lamps added for the comfort of the residents.

Mrs. Sydney A. MacSween gave a glowing report of the trip made on September 26 to the Earl T. Moore "Earl Canadian Village," Rawdon, Quebec, by members and friends of the auxiliary. Mrs. C. N. Knowles, chairman of the Christmas party to be held Tuesday, December 17, reports plans well underway for this party. This event is always enjoyed by the residents who make Eventide Home, their home.

After the meeting, a millinery display was held under the chairmanship of Mrs. J. A. P. McGee assisted by Mrs. H. A. Paquette, Mrs. Earl T. Moore, Mrs. W. A. Routledge and Mrs. E. W. Twizell. The residents were ushered to the front seats and Miss Karie B. Taylor, as in previous years, acted as commentator of this event. Piano selections were played by a resident, Mr. Envoy Eadie.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. A. MacSween and ladies of the auxiliary.

VPH to hold sale of patients' work

Hundreds of articles made by the mentally ill patients of Verdun Protestant Hospital will be displayed and offered for public sale in the Industrial therapy Department of Porteous Pavilion, Wednesday, November 27, from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. This is an annual pre-Christmas event which the public has encouraged and supported for many years. This support means a great deal to the patients who have made things that are both useful and attractive.

Ceramics — leather work — hand-woven rugs and table mats — knitted articles — aprons — children's clothes — hand-made stools and baskets — stuffed animals, dolls and toys — cushions — and many other items will be shown. Proceeds from this one-day sale will be used by the hospital for the patients.

Mrs. D. Ornstein elected head of Cancer Research Society

In a farewell speech given by Mrs. Sydney Hodess, retiring president of The Cancer Research Society Inc., at the paid-up membership dessert luncheon and fashion show of the Society held at the Queen Elizabeth Hotel, November 13, an urgent appeal was made for continued support of cancer research projects in the hope that a cure for the dread disease cancer may be eventually discovered.

Mrs. Hodess reported that during the past year the Society had disbursed the sum of $42,400 in maintaining its battle against the vicious killer.

DONATIONS

The total sum granted since the inception of the Society eighteen years ago now amounts to $739,915.24, she said. Of this amount, in support of basic and clinical research, the sum of $421,396.75 has been allocated to the following hospitals and institutions: the Montreal Cancer Institute; Montreal General Hospital; Jewish General Hospital; McGill-Montreal Research Institute and the Royal Victoria Hospital.

The total amount granted for senior and junior fellowships now stands at $12,390 she said.

To provide nursing care, examinations, treatments and medicine for the needy cancer patient the sum of $195,315.49 has been granted to the following tumour clinics: the Montreal Children's Hospital; Reddy Memorial Hospital; Jewish General Hospital; the Well Women's Clinic at the Royal Victoria Hospital; Notre Dame Hospital; Montreal General Hospital; the Neurological Institute and the Jewish Hospital of Hope.

PRESENTED GAVEL

Mrs. Hodess then presented the gavel of office to her successor, Mrs. David Ornstein, the incoming president of the Society for the ensuing year. Mrs. Ornstein accepted the duties of president and pledged to do all within her power to fulfill the obligations of her office. She reminded the members that an organization can only be as strong as its members and that her pledge must be shared by all towards a common goal.

FINE WORK LAUDED

The fine work of the Society was stressed by Dr. Arnold Grossman, Associate Oto-Laryngologist of The Montreal General Hospital, Lecturer in Oto-Laryngology at McGill and Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons of Canada. Dr. Grossman, who later installed the newly elected officers of the Society, was warm in his praise of the achievements attained, and remarked that the Society could indeed be proud of the notable contribution it had made to the community as a whole.

SLATE OF OFFICERS

Dr. Grossman installed the following slate of officers: Mrs. D. Ornstein, president; Mrs. L. Shuster, first vice-president and Unit co-chairman; Mrs. E. W. Ordell, second vice-president, ways and means co-chairman and publicity co-chairman; Mrs. N. Naimark, third vice-president and special events chairman; Mrs. R. Rush, secretary; Mrs. J. E. Weiser, treasurer; Mrs. H. Lenetsky, unit co-chairman; Mrs. H. Kerdman, social chairman; Mrs. A. Coudas, assistant social chairman and publicity co-chairman; Mrs. A. Peletz, assistant special events chairman; Mrs. L. Lewin, ways and means co-chairman; Mrs. M. Freeman, membership co-chairman; Mrs. H. Engel, good and welfare and hospitality co-chairman; Mrs. Freda Simon, good and welfare and hospitality co-chairman; and Mrs. I. Camlot, membership co-chairman and telephone chairman.

A showing of fashions was presented by Henry Morgan &

Christmas gifts sought for forgotten mental patients

The Canadian Mental Health Association follows its tradition of requesting all people of the Province to give special attention to the mentally ill at Christmas.

The Co-Chairmen of this activity, Miss Doris Clark and Jean Duceppe, have established as their objective the collection of 20,000 gifts in order to meet the requests of the psychiatric institutions of the Province.

Catherine street between Elm and Wood.

A two storey arcade entrance to the complex from Green avenue at a point halfway between Western and St. Catherine. An art gallery to be named is planned for this location.

A spokesman for the project said that few of the special occupancies permitted under the new re-zoning by-law would be established in the project. "In spite of the many rumors circulating this week there will definitely be no hotel, business college, workshop, laboratory, service shop, physiotherapy studio, radio or television station or bowling establishment here," he declared. This would limit the planners to apartments, are schools, offices, banks, retail stores, restaurants and theatres.

Some 40 elector-proprietors are eligible to meet this morning between nine and ten o'clock at City Hall to consider the re-zoning by-law which affects Westmount Centre. If ten or more oppose it, a referendum must be held.

If no referendum is necessary and City Council gives the zoning amendment third reading, demolition work in the area should begin around the beginning of January, it was revealed. The first phase for construction will take a little over a year, officials said. It includes the building of the one apartment tower and the shopping and the parking areas.

"There should be little competition with the present Greene merchants in the area," Prof. Spence-Sales added. "Right now parking is the big problem on Greene, so with our additional space and the passageway shoppers will have easy access to the Green avenue stores, and the shops in our complex will complement those on Greene."

The entire development site contains about 150,000 square feet. The high-rise buildings will occupy about 25 or 30% of this.

arcade complex said he believed that Westmount is trying to pass a zoning by-law without "adequate explanation as to its possible consequences to the taxpayers involved."

"I am disgusted with the off-hand manner in which the City is attempting to railroad through this important amendment, he said.

He said his first objective was to force a referendum by persuading at least ten of the sixty eligible ratepayers in the district to oppose the amendment. "If this is accomplished, then the general public, all citizens of Westmount will have time to study the plans and see what is actually going on," Mr. Sequier said. "Westmount is primarily a residential city, we ought to find out if the project will hurt the 'image' here."

Meanwhile, it was learned that a second "group" composed of residents living near the site of the proposed complex are also firmly opposed "to the general idea of a huge development in our midst." They said they wished to remain anonymous, "for the present."

A Christmas gift, simple in itself, is a concrete gesture which, when multiplied many times, becomes a means to create greater understanding of mental illness.

Gifts can be sent to the Canadian Mental Health Association at 5757 Decelles, Montreal, or to one of the local Branches.

Open to all

The Christmas Gift Campaign provides a tangible activity in which all of the population can participate. By the thoughtful gesture of sending a Christmas gift, an individual shows his interest in the problems of mental illness, contributes to the gradual elimination of the prejudices which still persist against psychiatric patients, helps to create a feeling of confidence in the patient himself and, finally, facilitates the establishment of a dialogue between the mental hospital and the community which has been non-existent for far too long.

Unity plans 600 guest father and son banquet

On Tuesday and Wednesday, December 10, and 11, some 600 fathers and sons, mothers and daughters, will be guests of the Unity Boys' Club of Westmount on the occasion of the 11th annual Father and Son Banquet and the 10th annual Mother and Daughter Banquet.

Registration for the big events must be made prior to December 3, so that catering arrangements can be properly completed. As seating accommodations are limited, parents and their children are urged to reserve early.

To help defray costs of catering, a charge of $1.50 per couple (father and son, or mother and daughter) has been levied.

However, a family with more than one youngster has financial responsibility for only one — the others in the family are individually sponsored by members of the Westmount Rotary Club.

Similarly, sponsors are available for boys or girls whose parents may be at work at the time of the banquets. For the girls, sponsors are available through the courtesy of the wives of the Rotarians.

BANQUET HIGHLIGHTS

One of the highlights of the Banquets will be the awarding of trophies and crests, won by club members during the preceding year and by winners at the annual Club's Track and Field Meet. This year, both the Biddy Basketball Team and the Bantam Baseball Team will receive their awards for championship laurels in City League Competition.

Another of the Banquet Highlights is the awarding of Unity's top prize — the letter "U" and Certificate of Achievement. The letter and certificate is presented to the club member who qualifies under the constitution of the Club's Award System in effect since the 1957 program season. The award is presented on the basis of participation, leadership and service in a variety of fields and endeavours. Since the Awards System was inaugurated in 1957, only nine club members have received the distinguished honor.

Head table guests at the Banquets will include personalities from the World of Sport and representatives from Recreation and Civic organizations.

ENTERTAINMENT

By popular demand, the Internationally known Unity Boys' Club Talent Parade will provide the entertainment at the Banquets. The Junior Rockettes precision chorus line will be featured in their newest production number. Other acts will round out the program.

Allan Bechard's Judo Class on Saturday afternoons is progressing well with excellent attendance. There are now 20 boys enrolled in the class.

Arthur Strange's radio group continue to meet every Saturday morning attending the course in Radio Electronics. The radio class is also working on the transmitter and receiving set for their Amateur Radio Station VE. 2 CUB.

Plans are going ahead to conduct "Tin Can Curling" as a regular feature of the Club's Winter Time Program. Two rinks will be constructed on Staynor Park for the use of Club members and on request by other members of the Community. The Tin Can Curling Rinks are being made possible through the courtesy of the City of Westmount Recreation Department. More about this at a later date.

The Unity Boys' Club Choral Group have received an invitation from the Verdun Protestant Hospital to sing Christmas Carols for the patients at that Institution on Christmas morning. Needless to say, the group accepted. They are currently rehearsing under the direction of Lawrence Schneiderman.

Nine group clubs are currently conducting weekly meetings under capable leadership. The boys' groups are: Angels, Keystone, Thunderhawks, Panthers, Jokers and Vikings. The girls' groups are: Sprites, Junior Leaders' Corps, and Alouettes.

Two Majorettes Groups have been formed this year. The Juniors meet every Thursday afternoon under the leadership of Darlene Hogan and Linda Martin. The Seniors meet every Tuesday under the leadership of Cheryl Hogan.

NEW LEADERS WELCOMED

The following new leaders have joined the Club's growing volunteer staff: Joyce Borden, Dorothy Fonda, Bernice Weippert, William Lieberman, John Megley, Edward Chappy, Katherine Walton, and Brigitte Bochardt.

It is expected that a "Get Acquainted Night" will be arranged in the not too distant future for all club staff, volunteer, part time and full-time.

ROTARY SPONSORED

The club, started in 1950 by the Rotarians of Westmount and sponsored by them, is under the direction of the Montreal Boys' Association. A RED FEATHER UNITED SERVICE. Situated on Greene avenue on the borderline of Westmount and St. Henry, the club is a mecca for youngsters from six to sixteen from both these communities.

HEAVY PROGRAM

The club literally hums with a wide variety of educational and recreational activities. The program includes a bantam baseball team (District Champions in 1963); a biddy basketball team (city champions 1963); a midget football team, a track and field team, six basketball teams, several hockey teams, softball, badminton, judo, ping pong, volleyball, gymnastics, soccer, physical fitness, paddle tennis and many others. The girls, who comprise forty per cent of the membership are not to be denied. They also play basketball, badminton, take part in the annual track and field meets and also have regular sessions in gymnastics.

Besides their athletic endeavors the members also take part in a host of other activities. These include wood work, leather craft, metal craft, embroidery, creative crafts, art work, puppetry and so forth. There are also courses in radio electronics, tap dancing and choral work, majorettes, coin clubs, stamp clubs and dramatic groups. The club also boasts of some twelve group clubs.

Among the members themselves is a Drama Group that has already presented the Play Peter Pan and are now currently working on the Production 'Cinderella'; also an internationally known Variety Group who have entertained in the United States on eight occasions since 1959 and who are constantly in demand in and around Montreal by service clubs, veteran's hospitals, old people's homes and church groups.

Wanderers seek championship, play Saturday in Westmount Park

Sparked by Bill McNally's 25-point scoring effort, the Westmount Wanderers defeated the Westies, 65-20 last Saturday, and earned the right to represent the Black Section in the Draft Touch Football League Championship Game this Saturday at Westmount Park.

The Wanderers will play the Rods, representatives of the Red Section, who succeeded in pulling off an upset victory for the second consecutive week by defeating the Saints, 21-20.

The Rods had previously defeated the Town of Mount Royal team 20-19 in the sudden death playoff game two weeks ago. TMR and Saints were tied for first place at the end of the regular playing season with 16 points each. Rods had finished fourth with 10 points.

Their victory over the Saints was a hard-earned one, and came only after two overtime periods of play.

The Big Game this Saturday will get underway at 10:00 a.m. and a good crowd is expected to be on hand.

St. Leo's opens season Monday against Verdun

By JULES DESJARDINS

The St. Leo's School junior team will have their first taste of hockey action Monday when they clash with Verdun Catholic High. This game will show the amount of improvement that junior squad has made since the beginning of the season.

Nearly half the team is made up of bantam age players and inexperienced first year boys. The team may depend mostly on a stellar performance in goals if they are to win. John Inglis has a reputation for being a stingy goalkeeper, as his last year's goals against average will show. He'll receive plenty of support on defence from lanky Roger Lefebvre and hard-hitting John Donnelly.

The scoring punch will be provided by three of last year's juniors, Bob Brault, Pat Fennell and Jimmy Klein.

This game will be an indication to Coach McGillis of how the team will fare in league play. It is hoped that the team will receive sufficient support from the school.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

Once again the students of St. Leo's will have a chance to participate in Intermural sports. The program this year has been enlarged to include bantam hockey, basketball and handball. The latter two are restricted to high school students.

The school gym teacher, Mr. Bousquet will handle handball and basketball, while Mr. McGillis takes care of hockey. These sports will be played after school and it is hoped that they will bring back some of the old school spirit.

All students are being urged to participate in these extra-curricular activities.

'Y' Outing Club popularity grows

Boys and girls of the Westmount YMCA are being attracted to a new activity, the Saturday afternoon Outing Club program. The youngsters interest includes not only just to swim and gym classes but include touring the city of Montreal.

Since the program began five weeks ago, attendance has climbed from 33 to 58 people. The growth in numbers indicates the high quality program being operated this year. Each Saturday afternoon at 1:45 p.m., the group visits places of interest in and around Montreal. The first five programs were a trip to the oldest church in Montreal (the Sailor's Church), a bowling party, and tours through the Royal Embassy Hotel, SPCA and TCA.

Next Saturday, November 23, the children will tour Place Ville Marie. Following programs are a Jerry Lewis motion picture titled "Cinderella", supper at the 'Y', and an NHL hockey game at the Forum, tour through the Sheraton Mount Royal Hotel, and a Christmas party at the YMCA.

The Outing Club program is operated on a pay-as-you-go basis. The activity fee may be paid each Saturday at 1:30 or a number of programs may be paid at one time. All boys and girls under 17 years of age are welcome, however, children younger than 9 must be accompanied by an older brother or sister. A child does not have to live in Westmount or belong to the YMCA in order to participate in the program.

Mixed curling across Canada by O'Keefe

Mixed curling, whose popularity has grown remarkably in recent years, was given further proof of its nation-wide interest yesterday with the announcement that at least eight provinces will be entered in the first National Mixed Curling Championship ever held in Canada.

News that the mixed bonspiels had now become national in scope was revealed at joint press bonspiels held in Montreal, Quebec City, Toronto and other centres across Canada by the O'Keefe Brewing Co. Ltd. and the Dominion Curling Association.

O'Keefe has been sponsoring mixed curling events throughout the province of Quebec for the past four years.

"The popularity of mixed curling was largely achieved in Quebec and we're very happy to extend this competition across the country," said Gerry Levesque, an official of the sponsoring firm.

To date, every province except Manitoba and Saskatchewan have entered the cross-Canada event. The national playdowns will be held at the Royal Canadian Curling Club in Toronto from March 17 to 20.

HEARTLESS PRACTICE

It is a thoughtless and heartless practice to release unwanted pets in the country. Animals which cannot find a home are left to their own wiles. Many of them cannot survive, being unaccustomed to their new environments. Anyone caught doing such a thing deserves to be dealt with sternly by law enforcement officers. — Estevan (Sask.) Mercury.

A SPECIAL MESSAGE.

TO THE ELECTOR-PROPRIETORS Of Immoveables situated On The Fifth Part of District R-4 of the Residential Zone, And on the Third Part of District C-5 of the Commercial Zone of The City of WESTMOUNT.

Excerpt from The Montreal Star Wednesday, Nov. 13, 1963

21-storey Apartment Approved

The way is clear today for the City of Westmount to have its highest apartment building ever, following approval of the project last night by city council.

Given first, second, third (and final) reading was a rezoning bylaw which would give a green light to sponsors of a 21-storey apartment building on an area covering one and three-quarter city blocks.

Present zoning for the area allows only a six-storey structure and the highest apartment building in the city is only 12 storeys.

For the residential suburb the 21-storey structure represents practically a "skyscraper" and was characterized by Mayor Chipman H. Drury as "a major development for our city, and a very sound one I think."

The project, known as Westmount Center Inc., lies roughly in the Wood avenue — Western avenue — St. Catherine street area.

The bylaw states that, in the building, "no occupancy shall be permitted other than an apartment building, a hotel, an art school, a business college, a private club or lodge, an office, a bank, a retail store, a restaurant, a laboratory, a service shop, a workshop, a theatre, a physiotherapy studio, a radio station, a television station, or a bowling establishment, provided that none of the foregoing shall have show windows or shop entrances on Western avenue."

Details of the project were not announced and it could not be learned which, if any, of the enumerated occupancies could be anticipated.

As a construction engineer for the project, Ald. Irving Backler refrained from comment and from voting.

Westmount ratepayers will have an opportunity to object to the rezoning at a ratepayers meeting Nov. 22.

A contract to carry out a study of the city's sewer system was awarded to Foundation of Canada Engineering Corporation, the lowest bidder, on a unanimous vote of council. As a director of the company, Mayor Drury refrained from voting.

Dear Proprietor,

I approach you on an extremely urgent matter, one which is vital to you; if you fail to act, you may suffer great material loss later.

The City of Westmount is trying to pass a new zoning by-law, of great importance to proprietors in your area, without adequate explanation as to possible consequences to the taxpayers involved.

As you are well aware, the main concern of the City of Westmount in the past has been to keep apart residential and commercial zones, and for this reason no commercial services were granted to any apartment buildings on Western Avenue. This enabled a very happy operation with newly-erected apartments on Western and with the business community, especially on Greene Avenue.

Now the City of Westmount is doing something hastily and without giving the matter proper thought, which is unfair to the merchants who pay business tax and whose operations are restricted to the business zone. As we are advised, their plans call for a great shopping plaza, to which the tenants living on Western Avenue will have direct access. The information given by the City is highly misleading: they say that no store entrance will be allowed on Western Avenue, but they camouflage the fact that there will be inside communication with the shopping plaza, so that all the tenants naturally will take their business there. If, as in the past, they had distinguished between Western Avenue and St. Catherine Street, and if there were to be no communication between buildings erected on those two streets, then all the tenants would have more opportunity to favour you with their business.

Need I mention also the fact that this re-zoning, if it goes through, will discriminate against all the other apartment buildings whose proprietors have faithfully observed the law and whose business you have enjoyed.

It would seem, furthermore, that the by-law itself applies only to the developers and will have no application to the neighbouring properties, thus prejudicing all those proprietors who have not sold to the new group.

What I am seeking is to draw your attention to the above facts and to ask you to appear this Friday morning, November 22nd, 1963, at 9 o'clock, at the City Hall, Westmount, to make your objection in person. The consequence will be that the City of Westmount will be compelled to hold a referendum or poll, and in the meantime you will become properly acquainted with all the pertinent facts, enabling you to make up your mind as to whether you wish to allow the City of Westmount to pass this re-zoning by-law.

It is very strange that no proper information could be obtained as to whose property is affected, who has a voting right — so far I have been given three different interpretations, and even have been unable to obtain from the City of Westmount a copy of the proposed amendment.

We are not living in Timbuctoo but in Westmount, and the City of Westmount does have an "image"; they should not handle such an important matter in such an off-hand way, when only about 60 proprietors are involved who could have been provided with proper information. This is undemocratic and you should not tolerate a situation where people dispose of your destiny without providing you with all the appropriate facts first.

I repeat, nothing is asked from you except an objection, so that the City of Westmount will be forced to hold a referendum or poll and to give you proper information as to what they propose to do. This you are entitled to; do not neglect your duty now, otherwise you will regret it later when you see the value of your property decrease considerably.

Yours truly,

John J. Sequier
