CURIOUS SHIP. A CURIOUS SHIP. A CURIOUS SHIP. A CURIOUS SHIP.

A curious ship, which was seen in the harbor of Montreal, was the subject of much speculation. It was said to be a vessel of unusual construction, and its appearance was described as being very strange.

The ship was seen on the morning of the 21st inst., and was reported to be of unusual size and speed. It was said to be a vessel of unusual construction, and its appearance was described as being very strange.

mentioned, but not so wide. It also is intended to attract business to a 'caté' and its adjuncts. Beyond this sign is a permanent awning or marquee, a type of many on the two thoroughfares already mentioned. These structures are erected under a special permit, and are supposed to yield an annual revenue in rental to the civic coffers. Whether legal or not, most of these porches are heavily laden with signs, some being hung underneath and others fastened to the roof. The same objections might reasonably be raised to these, in most cases, as to plain ordinary signs, being hung out from stores or other places of business. Most of them are in front of moving picture halls or similar places of amusement.

A café and a five-cent moving picture show, situated side by side so that the signs appear united at a distance, may be seen on St. Lawrence Boulevard near St. Catherine street. While not so prominent as some others, they are contrary to the spirit and purpose of the civic by-law on the subject. There are three or four similar signs, one much smaller, in different parts of the city, and a large one on St. Lawrence street, at the corner of Vitre street. This is to advertise a clothing house. Others advertise men's wear, automobiles, etc.

Those shown in the accompanying cuts are only a few of the more conspicuous signs among a score, at least, that may be seen in the streets of the largest and wealthiest city of Canada. Most of the signs are illuminated with electric lights. The plan is made that they lighten up the streets, but the 'blind' way in which the light is scattered precludes much real advantage being derived from these signs. This is because there is little to support it, as the primary object is not to light up the street, but to advertise private business, and to use the public street effectively to advertise private business at night. When ordinary business places, such as groceries, hardware stores and dry goods shops, are closed for the night, these signs are going full blast, advertising themselves by a contravention of a civic by-law.

The special feature of the illuminated sign business is the way in which it has grown. It has been very quietly introduced, but without a very sanction, and the attempt made last week in the City Council to legalize them proved unsuccessful. The expectations of the sign owners being thus disappointed, it remains to be seen what steps the civic officials will take in connection with the matter. It is understood that an attempt will be made to amend the by-law in their favor.

THE FETE DIEU

ROMAN CATHOLICS TOOK PART IN ANNUAL PROCESSION YESTERDAY.

Yesterday's splendid weather added greatly to the success of the annual Fete Dieu procession, which took place with customary pomp. The parishes of Notre Dame, St. Patrick, St. James, Cathedral and St. Helen took part in the processions, each furnishing a large and brilliant quota of processionists. There was the usual display of flags and banners, which with the gorgeousness of the sacerdotal vestments, the white robes of the communicant girls, the scarlet cassocks of the altar boys, and the brilliancy of the rich canopy, furnished a scene of splendor.

It was 10 o'clock when the clergy, headed by the different congregations, left the Church of Notre Dame, Bishop Racicot, assisted by deacon and sub-deacon, carried the host under the canopy, the officers and men of the 65th Regiment acting as a guard of honor, with their regimental band immediately preceding the clergy. Archbishop Bruchesi, in full pontifical robes, and surrounded by assistants, immediately followed the canopy, and behind him the judiciary, represented by Justices Curran, Lafontaine and Guerin, and the Roman Catholic members of the Bar, headed by Batonnier Gervais, all wearing their robes of office.

The route of the procession was by way of Place d'Armes, St. James, St. Peter, Bleury, Dorchester, Cathedral and Notre Dame streets, back to the church.

The procession was witnessed by large crowds of people who lined the streets, the Catholic portion of the spectators kneeling in devout reverence as the canopy passed by. A temporary altar had been erected in front of St. James's Cathedral. Here a mass was said to hold a short service, which concluded with the benediction, the regiment presenting arms and the bugle band saluting. It was nearly one o'clock before the ceremony was over. The decorations on some of the streets especially Cathedral and Notre Dame streets, were lavish and numerous.

Local processions were also held in almost every other parish in the city, and in each instance elaborate preparations had been made for the event.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

REXFORD ELECTED PRESIDENT OF AMERICAN SOCIETY OF LESSON COMMITTEE. June 19.—A spectacle of the kind was witnessed when hundreds of interested in Sunday school work met in the afternoon at the International Convention of the American Society of Lesson Committee. The convention was held at the Hotel de Ville, Montreal. The Rev. Dr. E. J. Mooney, of Montreal, presided. The Rev. Dr. J. J. MacLaren, of the Ontario Canada Court of Appeals, presided. Mrs. Lillian M. Stevens spoke on 'The Two Oars of Temperance Movement.' The Rev. P. A. Baker, National Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, told of the passing of the 'New Crusade Against the Saloon.' Dr. Alexander Alison, of New York, general secretary of the National Temperance Society, spoke of the 'Dual Problem' that confronted the temperance worker. The principal of the missionary campaign was delivered at Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, by the Rev. J. F. Love, of Atlanta.

RAID ON A STATION

SUSPECTED BURGLARS CAUGHT NEAR BLUE BONNETS RACE COURSE. Five young men were arrested yesterday morning, charged with having broken into the cigar and confectionery store at the Snowdon Junction Station of the Park & Island Railway. One of the gang, who gave his name as William Wilson, of New York, was caught in the store by Chief Beullac, of Notre Dame de Grace, and the remaining four were seen hurrying in the direction of the Blue Bonnets track, so Chief Beullac telephoned to the Pinkerton police, who were doing duty there, to be on the lookout for them. Constable Seagram came across the four hiding near the stables. When they saw the constable approaching they started to run away, and it was necessary for Seagram to fire four shots in the air to bring them to a halt. They were taken to the Westmount police station, where they gave their names as Robert McBain, 19, Charles Woods, 19, Kentucky; Harry Ricketts, 24, Cincinnati, and Jos. Marks, 19, Chicago.

BOY SHOOTS HIS COUSIN

'DIDN'T KNOW IT WAS LOADED' TRAGEDY AT POINT ST. CHARLES. Once more the danger of playing with firearms, supposed to be unloaded, has been demonstrated by a lamentable tragedy. Donat Blake, 18 years of age, the sole support of his mother and two sisters, who reside at 1666 St. Denis street, was the victim. He was accidentally shot on Saturday by Lionel Bombardier, 14 years of age, living at 14 Chateauguay street, Point St. Charles. Blake was in the habit of paying weekly visits to his uncle at Point St. Charles and on Saturday he was waiting for Bombardier to get ready to go to the Grand Trunk Boating Club, as they intended having a swim. While searching through a bureau drawer in his elder brother's bedroom young Bombardier found a revolver. In a playful manner he pointed it at his cousin and pulled the trigger. A report rang out and Blake dropped to the ground unconscious, shot through his right eye. He was taken in an ambulance to the General Hospital, but died within an hour of admission. Captain Coleman, of the Grand Trunk street police station, caused inquiry to be made into the affair and communicated with Coroner McMahon. It was not considered necessary to put Bombardier under arrest. The body was later removed to the morgue.

LOST ONE VOTE.

Mr. Bourassa's Majority in St. James Is Now Returned as 42. NOTHING FOUND WRONG WITH ANY OF THE BALLOTS. The recount in the St. James division election was brought to a close at 1:30 on Saturday afternoon, with the result that Mr. Bourassa remains elected by a majority of 42 votes, which is one less than originally proclaimed by the returning officer. It was a curious coincidence that each candidate lost an equal number of votes, namely, 46. The Hon. Lomer Gouin gained 23 on the whole, and his opponent 22. There were altogether 137 changes made in the 69 polls of the division. At the last session of the recount, on Saturday morning, the counsel in the case agreed to dispense with the actual presence of the judge on the bench for the examination of each individual ballot, except in any serious difficulty should arise, and the proceedings were continued to the end without any trouble whatever. At the close of the recount, Mr. Murphy, counsel for the Hon. Lomer Gouin, called the special attention of the judge to the fact that nothing had been found wrong with the ballots. Mr. Justice Davidson said he felt happy to admit the fact, but at the same time could not ignore Mr. Latulippe's want of proper care and attention. A discussion then took place on the question of costs, with the result that the court maintained the claim of counsel for Mr. Bourassa that the returning officer, Mr. Latulippe, should not be taxed for his attendance at court, because he was responsible for the proceedings being unnecessarily lengthened. He was, however, allowed his expenses.

RUSSIAN MARINE BUDGET

PASSED BY COUNCIL OF THE EMPIRE TO THE EXTENT OF $42,500,000. St. Petersburg, June 20.—The financial commission of the Council of the Empire to-night passed the budget of the Ministry of Marine, amounting to $42,500,000, inclusive of $3,500,000, to lay down four battleships this year. A deadlock in the Upper and Lower Legislative Chambers is now threatened in view of the Douma's recent refusal to pass the latter item. The fundamental laws provide that in cases of deadlock the previous regular budget shall take effect. The budget of 1906 contains an item of $18,000,000 for new naval construction.

EXPLOSION ON STEAMER

THREE NEGRO STEVEDORES KILLED ON HAMBURG-AMERICAN LINER 'ARCADIA'. Philadelphia, June 20.—The result of an explosion, the cause of which is not definitely known, on board the Hamburg-American Line freight steamer 'Arcadia', as she lay in her berth at the Washington avenue wharf, Delaware river, today, three negro stevedores are dead and a score of other workmen are injured. The explosion occurred in the aft hatch while twenty-five stevedores were in the hold unloading the cargo, which was of a general character. Fire followed the explosion, and the steamer was seriously damaged before the flames were extinguished. In the effort to put out the fire the 'Arcadia' was practically filled with water. FARMER SQUEEZED TO DEATH. Shelburne, Ont., June 19.—While assisting in the jacking up of his barn for the purpose of having a stone foundation built under it, James Torrance, a farmer, Amaranth township, five miles from here, was accidentally killed. One end of the barn had been raised to the required height, and preparations were under way for raising the other end when the building shifted from the timbers. Mr. Torrance, who was inside under a beam, but was caught beneath it and squeezed to death. Jackscrews and shovels had to be used to release his body. He leaves a wife and four small children. A SUCCESSFUL RECITAL. The Kowalski recital, which was given at Loyola Hill, Quebec, on Tuesday evening last, was pronounced by all to be a decided success. Mr. R. O. Turgeon, introduced the pianist to the audience, after which Mr. Kowalski spoke of his experiences during his travels. He was especially generous in his praises of Miss Bertha Roy, who a few evenings ago charged a large Quebec audience. The second part of the programme lasted almost an hour, during which period the pianist interpreted the great composers in a masterly manner. The proceeds were for the benefit of the Loyola Association. Grand Saguenay Excursion. Owing to the success of last year's special outing trip to the famed Saguenay River, and to numerous enquiries for a similar Dominion Day excursion this summer, the R. & O. Navigation Company have decided to run one of their fine Lower St. Lawrence steamers through from Montreal, leaving on the evening of June 30th, Fare $18.25, including meals and berths. This will be the only excursion to the Saguenay this season. For tickets, stateroom accommodation and all particulars, apply at ticket office, 128 St. James street, opposite Post Office. Jos. F. The question whether the minimum of purity that may be sold in Canada as gold shall be nine or ten karats seems to have divided Canadian manufacturing jewellers. According to Senator Gibson, the Toronto goldsmiths have broken faith in the past with the Hamilton makers. The Hamilton makers charge that the British standard of nine karats was agreed upon, but that the Toronto makers, who are Chamberlaine imperialists to a man, and of the most eloquent order, in the absence of the Hamilton representatives, put a bill through parliament with a ten karat minimum, thus closing the market to the British maker.

minimum may have, it is altogether desirable that a standard should be fixed. It will at least protect the public from having base metal palmed upon it for gold.

With an assumption of autocratic absolutism the United States National Association of Theatrical Producing Managers have proclaimed that, unless Canada changes her copyright laws so as to put an effective check on the piracy of American plays, it will boycott the Dominion. Beginning May 1, 1909, if in the meantime our Government does not climb down like Davy Crockett's coon, the boycott will go into force and no more of the productions controlled by the association will be presented under its auspices.

A short time ago a London expert, examining into the question of worldwide financial stringency, laid responsibility partly on the enormous expansion in overseas trade of the nations. Taking the year 1906, he found that as compared with the year before, Great Britain's exports had been enlarged by fourteen percent and its imports by over seven and a half percent; that Germany's total foreign trade had expanded ten percent, the United States by twelve percent, Italy's by sixteen percent, Russia's by ten percent, and so on.

The Montreal lawyers have succeeded in keeping a monopoly of a considerable industry—that of collecting debts under threat of suit. The man who attempts to do this, not being a lawyer, or the lawyer who undertakes to do it for less than the fees prescribed by the bar, is an offender against the law of the land, and liable to a fine and costs.

ing one of their body, and anyone, being a bricklayer, who should work for less than five dollars. But the principle might be indefinitely extended to exclude everybody from doing anything except in chains forged by their craft. We used to laugh at a tramp story. A policeman found him loafing in a village, one summer day, and brought him before a magistrate on a charge of vagrancy. 'I'm not a vagrant, your honor,' indignantly protested the man. 'I'm a mechanic, unfortunately out of work.' 'What line may you follow, when you work?' asked the magistrate. 'I'm an expert snow-shoveller, your honor, but there's nothing doing in my trade just now.' To-day, it would not only be invidious to send such a man to jail for vagrancy, but he and his mates would only be in the fashion if they formed a close corporation of snow-shovellers and prevented anyone not in the guild from following that occupation, and those in the guild from following any other; as bricklayers are not allowed to do any other kind of work than bricklaying, however long they may be unemployed during inclement weather. But these things are now so unjust and exasperating, and now so wasteful, senseless, or ludicrous, that time may be depended upon to work a radical cure.

THE VORACIOUS PRINTING-PRESS.

The United States census bureau has given out some startling figures showing the increase in the amount of paper pulp used in that country. The comparisons given embrace eight years, and show an increase from two million cords of pulpwood consumed in 1899 to four million last year. The portion of this imported from Canada has increased at a faster ratio, having multiplied by two and a half instead of by two, and now amounts to a third of the whole. The drain on the forests has at length seemed to reach that limit of scarcity which reveals itself in the greater use of other kinds of wood than spruce, such as poplar and hemlock. If this ratio of increase goes on, the demand upon the forests of the continent will soon create conditions of depletion. But where does all this paper go to? It is a pity the figures did not go back another eight years so as to include the whole period of the linotype. The cheapening of newspaper printing by that process, concurrent with great reductions in the cost of paper, showed itself in a greatly increased daily output. This increase goes steadily on. One would think it would come to its limit in the capacity of the public to consume. The very labor of handling a wheelbarrow load of newspaper every day would one would think impose some limit. There is no doubt that there will be a reaction from the wasteful use of paper, paid for, not by the readers, but by the advertisers, whose hearts must be grieved to see how much of their dearly paid-for space is left about in cars and trams after a few miles of perusal, because too incommensurable for the pocket. The other day, for instance, Mr. Pulitzer had printed an edition of the New York World to celebrate something or other—which had some three hundred pages and which resembled a wall paper establishment with its various colors and unending paper. We have but small belief in predigested victuals. As a steady diet a horse needs a good deal of hay with his oats, and that is what the newspaper gives. But on the other hand, nothing tends so much to dyspepsia as a lavish dietary of condiments and sauces. The victim of it soon turns sated from everything offered him. There is nothing more demoralizing to intellectual nutrition than such papulism as this. There must therefore be a reaction from the screaming sheet to the restful and nourishing one. Meantime, the study of governments must be how to preserve our forests from being ground up into paper pulp for nobody's good.

INDIAN IMPERIALISTS.

Mr. William Lyon Mackenzie King is one of the ablest statesmen and diplomatists we have among us. His handling of the distressing Oriental race question has, in view of the rampant sentiment against the immigrants, been masterly. For aught we know, those may be right who say that there is really more sentiment in Canada in favor of admitting the Orientals than of keeping them out. There are certainly countless industries crying for their sober and assiduous service. But governments and the representatives of governments can only take note of such sentiment as is active enough to affect votes, and while whatever there is of the more broad-minded view is latent, the anti-Oriental sentiment is belligerent in the extreme. What the government has done through Mr. King it probably, as representing the people, had to do. Yet Mr. King's report on the question as telegraphed to England was regarded by one of the wisest of British journals as an irresponsible playing with a very serious question. That is certainly how it appears to anyone who looks with unimpassioned eyes on the government's attitude towards our allies and our fellow citizens. The rule that East Indians should not be admitted unless they come direct from the country of their origin was nothing but a subterfuge. As applied to the Japanese, there was some reason in it, granting always that the agreement with the Mikado to limit Japanese immigration was in itself a right course, for while the Mikado can attempt to control the emigration from Japanese ports, he can have no control over his subjects in Hawaii. But to shut the door on East Indians because they have to tranship at the British port of Hongkong is a hollow mockery. The latest mandate that no Asiatic may land henceforth unless he has two hundred dollars in his pocket is class legislation with a vengeance. It simply means that gentlemen may land but laborers may not. Two hundred dollars is a fortune to an East Indian ryot. If he had that amount added to the cost of his voyage he would not likely want to go to shivering climates to make a livelihood. It is worse than class legislation, it is race legislation. Every Canadian reader will not immediately concur in this view that race legislation is worse than class legislation. If, indeed, there were no other sentiment to be dealt with than that of Canada we might probably go on making all the race distinctions our prejudices might suggest without any effective protest. It is certain, however, that this is the view that will be taken in India. To the Hindoo class legislation is all right. They find the British rule that takes no note of their castes most objectionable on that very account, but that they as a race should be treated as inferiors offends them exceedingly. It is, moreover, against the principles of British rule that have been taught them in their schools, where they learn that to be a British subject is to have the protection of the Union Jack over the whole earth.

A SUMMER DAY.

Deep blue shadows gently fall upon the mountain, All the grass is shot with gold and clover pink and white, And the wind comes softly sighing, thro' the leaves that slowly rustle, All the earth is fair with summer veilets warm and bright.

AUSTRALIAN BOYS' MILITARY TRAINING.

All children in Australia are drilled, but the elder boys are attached to the Australian military forces by means of the cadet corps. Almost every large school has its band of cadets, who wear neat khaki uniforms and are armed with light rifles, in the use of which they are frequently instructed. Every year these boys have shooting matches, and the scores prove that among the youngsters there are many who have already become skilled marksmen.

LONDON LETTER

The King's state visit to Russia has troubled the minds and hearts of some good Radicals, and in particular, of the Labor party. Their scruples were voiced in a parliamentary debate, and in the press by the Daily News, a paper whose willingness to champion any view it feels right is a great gain. It is always on the side of purity in political aim and action. Unfortunately its moral ardor is not supplemented by quite the amount of level-headedness required to make it always effective. In the case of the interchange of state courtesies with Russia the bulk of opinion in England is with the government in regarding an exhibition of friendliness on the part of a constitutional King as likely to strengthen the forces that make for liberal government in Russia. The responsible leaders of the Liberal party in Russia are said to all favor the visit as tending to encourage the application of constitutional principles there; they appear to understand and to quote a letter from Mr. B. Parsons in the Spectator that the question of to-day is whether the champions of friendship with England or the advocates of docility towards Germany are to prevail in Russian government circles. Sir Edward Grey's impressive speech in the House justified the friendly attitude of England for Russia as a 'peace policy,' while the policy of any way interfering with or judging the internal political disputes of a sister nation he asserted was a policy which sooner or later would be bound to fail. The Russian newspapers have joined in a unanimous acclamation of the visit.

The Whitsuntide holiday, which has occupied all the last week, and has been spent by the King in going to Reval, and by our legislators in a brief country holiday, has been used by the new Territorial soldiers in field training, by the Sunday-school children, especially in the north, in marching in processions to their annual 'treats,' and by friendly societies and co-operators in holding their annual conferences. The government's social legislation afforded subject for much discussion; most of these gatherings considered and criticized the details of the government's old-age pension proposals, especially as these affected thrift and the position of friendly societies. The Co-operative Congress met at Newport, and was the most important of these assemblies—1,500 delegates—men and women, representing two and a half millions of members. The president reaffirmed the belief of co-operators in free trade; there must be no change given for gambling in the food supplies of the people. It was of supreme importance that the people should become their own employers. To acquire the means of production and exchange was their goal, and then the conflicts between labor and capital would disappear. The changing ideal of womanhood brought the twentieth century its most important problem. In the co-operative movement woman had stood side by side with man, and it was but natural that she desired the right to the status of free citizenship. The president's words were backed up by a strong resolution in favor of women's suffrage. The grand master of the Oddfellows' society addressing a large conference at Cardiff said that the government's scheme of pensions would probably interfere with the success of the superannuation scheme by which their own members contributed to provide for their own superannuation. He thought the government proposals unsatisfactory to Oddfellows as they could possibly be. Any non-contributory scheme of old-age pay was in his opinion poor-law relief by whatever name it might be called. It seemed to be universally held by the speakers of these societies that the low income limit—over ten shillings per week—would disqualify many members of friendly societies from receiving the government pension—so directly discourage thrift. An income limit, if necessary, must be much higher—indeed any benefit received from membership in a friendly society or trades union must be supplementary to, not in the place of, any pension provided by the state, otherwise government pensions could only be accurately described as encouragement to improvidence. There was also a general sentiment as to the necessity of reducing the pension age to sixty-five. One speaker stated that in large towns not one man in five hundred reached the age of seventy. No doubt these views will be strongly urged when the Pensions Bill comes before parliament.

REGAINS HIS SIGHT

New York, June 22.—James Cantillon, of Marinette, Wis., who was totally blind, regained his sight at Bellevue Hospital yesterday during a fit of hysterics which followed the surgeon's announcement to him that his case was considered hopeless, and that he would probably remain blind for the remainder of his life. Cantillon, who is a professional baseball player, a member of the Des Moines, Iowa, team, and a brother of Joseph Cantillon, manager of the Washington American league team, had to have his left eye removed as the result of an accident in Chicago several months ago. The sight of the other eye failed from sympathetic affection. He came to the Cornell University Medical College here for treatment, and was preparing to believe for an operation. Yesterday the physicians decided that an operation would be useless, and as informed Cantillon, who thereupon became hysterical. Suddenly he cried out that he could see, and tests showed that the sight of the right eye had been almost completely restored. The hospital surgeons say that Cantillon's loss of sight was undoubtedly due to an affection of the nervous system, and that the hysterical attack he underwent is responsible for the restoration.

DOMINION PARLIAM

Chinese Immigration — Department of Affairs Criticized

Ottawa, June 22.—The Department of Affairs has been criticized for its handling of the Chinese immigration question. The department's policy has been to limit the number of Chinese immigrants to a minimum, and to restrict their activities to agricultural and manual labor. This policy has been criticized by some members of the House of Commons, who believe that the Chinese immigrants are a valuable asset to the Dominion, and that the department's policy is too restrictive. The department has replied that its policy is based on the interests of the Dominion, and that it is necessary to limit the number of Chinese immigrants to a minimum in order to protect the interests of the Canadian labor market.

The House of Commons has passed a resolution regarding the Chinese immigration question. The resolution states that the government should take steps to limit the number of Chinese immigrants to a minimum, and to restrict their activities to agricultural and manual labor. This resolution is in line with the policy of the Department of Affairs, and has been criticized by some members of the House of Commons, who believe that the Chinese immigrants are a valuable asset to the Dominion, and that the government's policy is too restrictive.

SUBURBAN WATER SERVICE

MONTREAL WATER AND POWER COMPANY TO PUT DOWN MAINS. The city attorneys have awarded an important contract to the Montreal Water and Power Company to put down mains for the suburban water service. The contract is for the construction of a new main line, and for the installation of valves and other equipment. The work is to be completed by the end of the year. The city attorneys have awarded the contract to the Montreal Water and Power Company, as it is the lowest bidder, and as it is a local company, and as it is a company that has a long record of successful work in the city.

FAIR AND WARM

The earth laughs at our woes, The soft sky slumbers in blue, Of waves and wind no sound, Fit emblems of Eternity. The sweet days fold their wings, The balmy high-noon glow, God's smiles, angels' throng, Amid the trees-top break of dawn. Ah! could I but see one of these, From tender Nature, what I'd beg the happy-hearted to do, To drop her plaid, and to be free. And leave it to me, to be free, Sweet prophecy of happier days, When grieving lips shall fall, For strength to tread the way. —Amanda Elizabeth Irving.

Makes Good Showing in Spite of the Effects of Floods, Washouts and Labor Troubles.

The Illinois Traction Company's statement of earnings and expenses for May, and for the five months ending May 31, giving comparisons with the same periods in 1907, shows that the general result of the operation of the system has been satisfactory.

The continuation of the labor troubles in the coal fields of Illinois, through which the system runs and draws its business, has to some extent checked the expansion of earnings, and the gross income for the month of May was lower, selling for 25 shares.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS AND WALL STREET.

Notwithstanding Dull Market Mr. Taft's Name Well Received in Financial Circles.

(Special Correspondence.) New York, June 22.—If one were to judge from the action of the stock market following the announcement of the nominations of Taft and Sherman by the Republican Convention in Chicago, the election would be that Wall Street would take on greater or less activity, with an advancing tendency in prices.

There are two ways to account for this failure of the stock market to enthuse over the nomination of Taft and Sherman. The selection of Mr. Taft has for a long time past been looked upon as a practical certainty and hence these interests bought stocks freely some months ago, with the result that prices since then have advanced very materially thereby discounting the action of the Chicago convention.

DAILY TEXT.

June 22. The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?—Psa. xxvii, 1. Teach me thy way, O Lord, and lead me in a plain path.—Psa. xxvii, 11.

Each soul has its own faculty; it can help in some way to make the world more cheerful and more beautiful. This is which makes life worth living. If we are living only for ourselves, our own amusement, luxury, advancement, it is not worth living. But if we are living as co-workers with Christ, as fellow-helpers with God, as part of the noble army of martyrs who bear witness to the truth in all time, then our lives are full of interest. This gives sweetness and strength to all our days.—James Frank Conneler.

WOMAN SUFFRAGISTS.
Tens of Thousands Gathered in Hyde Park to Hear Them.
 AN UPROAR IN WHICH 30 PERSONS WERE INJURED BEFORE POLICE GAINED CONTROL.

London, June 21.—The militant section of the woman suffragists was favored with brilliant weather for the Hyde Park demonstration to-day, which was carried out according to the programme. The marchers formed seven processions. Their number did not exceed 10,000, but enormous throngs watched their progress and accompanied them to Hyde Park, where thousands, probably half of whom were women, assembled. Their number is variously estimated at anywhere between 150,000 and 500,000. There was no enthusiasm on the part of most of these well-dressed onlookers. Neither was there any hostility. The bulk of them were curious, attracted by the novel show and the bright sunshine. The scene, viewed from above, suggested a huge garden party. Those seriously supporting the object of the demonstration gathered closely around the various platforms, cheering the speakers, who generally gained a quiet hearing, although in one or two cases there were interruptions of the kind now familiar, such as drowning the speeches by singing music-hall songs.

The platform presided over by Mrs. Pankhurst became the centre of trouble, which led to about thirty persons being injured, besides some fainting. A gang of youths put up an organized opposition, ringing bells, blowing whistles, and booing, and followed this uproar with rushes and hustlings, which ended in fighting.

Frightened women in the crowd stormed the wagon forming the platform and begged for protection. A number of them were hauled into the wagon, until it could hold no more. The police soon straightened out things and ejected the disturbers. The final cry of "Vote for women," which the promoters of the demonstration boasted would shake London and be heard in Downing street, failed of dramatic effect, and became a confused din of roars and yells.

POWDER WORKS EXPLOSION.
ONE MAN KILLED AND A NUMBER BRUISED NEAR DENVER.

Denver, Col., June 20.—Luther Hockem was killed and a number of persons were bruised to-day by an explosion of 3,000 pounds of nitro-glycerine at the Dupont Powder Company's works, at Louviers, two miles south of Denver. The neutralizing plant was destroyed. The loss is $2,000. Hockem was the only person in the building in which the explosion occurred. His body was blown to atoms. Many windows in the town were broken, and the shock was felt thirteen miles distant.

RIOT AT PARMA.
CAVALRY MADE REPEATED CHARGES ON THE STRIKERS.

Parma, Italy, June 21.—A general strike has been proclaimed and the Agrarian Labor League has attempted to close the shops. The cavalry made repeated charges on the strikers, who took refuge in the league building and stoned the soldiers from the roof and windows. The soldiers finally forced an entrance to the building and arrested the leaders of the league. The revolt will probably be suppressed in short order.

OTTAWA MAN DROWNED.

Ottawa, June 21.—George Barbeau, aged 23, who returned on Saturday night from an excursion to the Cornwall match, was drowned in the canal immediately after the train arrived. He was asleep on arrival, and some friends awakened him. He got off the train drowsily, but refused to accompany his friends out of the station. Instead he walked over the tracks, and those around heard next a splash in the water. It was difficult to see the man in the dark and 45 minutes elapsed ere the body was recovered.

EXECUTION POSTPONED.

Ottawa, June 21.—The execution of Omer Rochette at Quebec, for poisoning his wife, which was to have been carried out next Saturday, has been postponed until Friday, Aug. 14. It has been represented that as Quebec is in the midst of preparations for the celebration of the tercentenary, the imposition of capital punishment at this juncture would be somewhat incongruous. Hence Rochette gets another six weeks' lease of life.

ROUOUS ITALIANS.

Nadland, Ont., June 20.—The eight Italians arrested on Wednesday as the ringleaders in the riot following the strike at the new elevator works, were brought before Police Magistrate Jarray and Mr. Digby Horrell, J.P., yesterday afternoon. Only four of the eight arrested could be identified by the witnesses as having taken active part in the stoppage of the work by an attack upon the English employees. These four, whose names are C. Picarelli, G. Fugo, C. Mesire and F. Riso, were committed to Barris jail for trial, and the other four were dismissed. The prisoners were taken to Barris this morning by Chief Bell, where they will await their trial at the fall assizes unless sooner ordered by the judge, who will be appealed to by the prisoners for an early trial.

THREE VILLAGES DESTROYED.
Disastrous Forest Fires in Michigan.
 FLAMES SWEEP OVER THOUSANDS OF ACRES OF TIMBER LAND—LOSS ABOUT $200,000.

Detroit, Mich., June 20.—Fires in Northern Michigan forests, fanned to gigantic proportions by the gales of the last two days, have destroyed at least three villages, rendered hundreds homeless, swept over thousands of acres of timber land and caused damage estimated to amount at about $200,000. The heaviest loss has been sustained in Presque Isle and Cheboygan counties, although Leelanau, Charlevoix and Emmet counties have also suffered considerably.

The village of Cazin, Presque Isle county, was destroyed to-day. A special train conveyed the homeless villagers to Onaway, where they were sheltered to-night. Legrande, a little town in cheboygan county, was abandoned to the flames to-night. The village of Kentucky, near Boyne City, has been wiped out. Fire to-night threatens the entire south part of Cheboygan county. At Tower, millmen have been fighting the fire surrounding the town for two days. The fire extends a distance of twenty miles, and unless rain comes, the losses will be tremendous. The flames were driven all to-day by high winds.

FIRE AT BURK'S FALLS.
DAMAGE DONE TO EXTENT OF $150,000.

Burk's Falls, Ont., June 21.—The worst fire in the history of Burk's Falls occurred yesterday, when property to the value of $150,000 went up in smoke. Insurance, about $70,000. The fire originated in the drying kiln of Knight Bros.' factory, the factory itself being owned by the good work of the fire brigade and employees. A heavy north-west wind was blowing and the whole town was in danger of destruction until the wind subsided in the evening.

The heaviest losses are Burke House, Clifton House, C. W. Coulter's general store, Burk's Falls Hardware Company, McDougall & Kirk's barber shop and pool room, Canadian Express and G. N. W. Office, E. E. Sieder's photographic gallery, All Saints' Church of England, Culbert and Bligh's butcher shop, Lamb & Smith's butcher shop, J. W. Hart's tailor shop, J. N. Dodd's harness shop, G. C. Church, general merchant; J. J. Mitchell, confectionery store; I. Dave, dovich, general merchant; S. T. Vanstone, jewellery store and residence; Stewart's livery and Burk's Falls Transfer Company, including half a dozen dwellings, all completely destroyed.

W. Sharpe's general store, Dr. Partidge's drug store, Arrow Printing office, J. P. Fowler, general merchant, post office and C. P. R. ticket office, and many other buildings caught fire, but owing to the good work done by the citizens and the fire brigade the flames were put out. The fire brigade came up from Huntsville, but arrived too late to be of any use.

Wm. Shroeter was badly burned on the face and hands and was taken to the hospital on Sunday.

TWO MEN KILLED.
DYNAMITE EXPLOSION IN TUNNEL OF FORT WILLIAM WATERWORKS.

Fort William, Ont., June 22.—An explosion of dynamite in the tunnel of the Fort William waterworks construction last night killed two men and seriously injured another. The work of obtaining water for the city supply from Loch Lomond, seven miles distant, is now being prosecuted day and night, and it was during the night shift that the accident happened. Of the two victims, James Crowley was the machine man and Jeffries the helper.

THE UNIONIST ELECTED.

London, June 20.—A by-election was held today for member of the House of Commons for the Pudsey district, Yorkshire, West Riding, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of K. Wherry, Liberal. James Oddy, Unionist, was returned by a majority of 113. At the general election the Liberal majority was 3,502.

The vote was: Pudsey, Unionist, 5,444; Oddy, Liberal, 5,331; Benson, Labor, 1,291.

INSANE CLERGYMAN SHOT.

Hermann, Mo., June 21.—While insane, the Rev. V. Strauss, seventy years old, a retired clergyman, of the German Evangelical Church, was shot and killed in the streets of Frederickburg, yesterday, after he had fired at close range on four men standing in the street. The preacher's mind had been failing for some time. Mr. Strauss started for Frederickburg yesterday, carrying his rifle, despite the entreaties of his family. Seeing the four men talking, he fired at them. One of the men, Max Knieche, returned the fire with a revolver, killing Strauss. None of the four was hurt.

BOY KILLED BY CAR.

Toronto, June 22.—By being run over by a College street car while playing on the street at the corner of High Park avenue and Indian Road at noon on Saturday, Gordon Oldfield, eight years of age, was almost instantly killed. The boy was playing in a field and ran to the road not noticing the car approaching from the east. He attempted to cross in front of the car and was ground beneath the wheels.

A BRUTAL ATTACK.
Union Pickets Set Upon Mr. T. L. Moffat and Six of His Non-Union Moulders.
 WELL-KNOWN STOVE MANUFACTURER AND HIS MEN WERE COMING FROM CHURCH.

Toronto, June 21.—A brutal and apparently premeditated assault, which culminated in a free fight, occurred in the Main street of Weston after church to-night, and as a result Mr. T. L. Moffat, secretary of the Moffat Stove Company, and six non-union moulders were hurt, four of the latter being badly used up. Mr. Moffat, along with the six moulders, was returning from the Methodist Church, when they were set upon by men who, it is claimed, are union pickets, who have been doing duty since the first of the month. Stones were thrown and some of the men knocked down in the street. After their first surprise those who were attacked showed fight, and on a crowd coming to the rescue, the pickets scattered in all directions. Mr. Moffat himself was cut about the head, and his body was badly bruised. It appears that last May the company's agreement with the union expired, and since that time the company has been operating an open shop, employing about forty moulders. A score or more of pickets have been constantly doing duty since the lockout, but no violence has been attempted before this.

PRINCE ARTHUR OF CANNAUGHT.
HIS MARRIAGE TO LADY MARJORIE MANNERS.

London, June 20.—The difficulties in the way of the marriage of Prince Arthur of Connaught and Lady Marjorie Manners, daughter of the Duke of Rutland, have been overcome. The difficulties probably did not arise from the fact that Arthur is a British Prince and owing to the fact that he is a Duke of Saxony, his father and himself being direct heirs to the throne of Saxe-Cobourg and Gotha. If the reigning Duke dies without an heir there would be much opposition in the various branches of the house before such a marriage would be regarded otherwise than morganatic from the German standpoint.

PAN-ANGLICAN CONFERENCE.
JUDGE HANNINGTON ASSAILED TRUSTS GENERALLY AT PAN-ANGLICAN CONFERENCE.

(Canadian Associated Press.)
 London, June 20.—At the Pan-Anglican conference the Bishop of the Yukon described the work among the Canadian Indians, who, he incidentally mentioned, had given most liberally to the thank offering in connection with the conference. Judge Hannington, in the course of his speech in opening a discussion on monopolies, said it was a subject the church should express its opinion on in a decided manner. Monopolies were prejudicial to public interests and the interests of the church and Christianity, while trusts were hostile to the interests of everyone, pressing down and impoverishing the people. It was wrong morally and constitutionally for any subject to have a monopoly or the control of anything which was intended for the well-being of the people. (Hear, hear.) He held that people who raised the price of coal or bread, as the big monopolists, or as anyone else, the food of the poor, from milk upwards, acted abominably. People talked of the thriftlessness of the poor, but the poor were robbed by everyone and exploited in every way.

Amongst the other speakers, who all condemned trusts, were several Canadians. Judge Hannington criticised at considerable length the Standard Oil Company. He had no personal quarrel with Mr. Rockefeller who was very generous in giving to philanthropic objects, but the great corporations often wasted millions of dollars in ruining some competitors, he said.

London, June 22.—Preaching yesterday at St. Paul's Cathedral, Archbishop Sweetman, of Toronto, said the discussions at the Pan-Anglican Congress were carried on by practical experts, and that an extensive programme had been designed to bring about concerted action by the Church.

NEW PARK FOR HALIFAX.
PRESENTED TO THE CITY BY SIR SANDFORD FLEMING.

Halifax, N.S., June 22.—Sir Sandford Fleming arrived in Halifax last night. He is here for the purpose of completing the transfer of a large tract of land in the suburbs of Halifax which he has presented to the city to be used as a park. The city has accepted the land and named it the "Sir Sandford Fleming Park." It is located on the western shore of North West Arm.

BEATEN FOR A JOKE.

Mount Carmel, Ill., June 21.—With his skull fractured twice, one cheek bone broken, and internal injuries, Mr. "Every Morning" may survive the effects of an attack made on him yesterday by Bode Bodell, liverman, who took Havill by surprise as he was passing along with his arms full of papers and struck him with a brick, knocking him down and jumping on him until dragged off. The attack was the result of the publication of a joke in Havill's paper.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.
Government Programme for the Present Week.
 NEGOTIATIONS STILL IN PROGRESS OVER CONTENTIOUS CLAUSES IN ELECTION BILL.

Ottawa, June 22.—The government programme of business for the present week will consist of the passage of supply and government orders. It is expected that the Minister of Railways will to-morrow move his Railway Commission bill, when Mr. W. F. Maclean, Toronto, will also bring forward his proposal in favor of compelling the railways of Canada to lower their passenger fares to two cents a mile. Negotiations are said to be still in progress in regard to the contentious clauses of the Election Bill, but no announcement of the outcome will be made until Sir Wilfrid Laurier's return from Quebec, whether he went with the Hon. Mr. Aylesworth to attend the wedding of Miss Jette, daughter of the Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec.

THE FETE DIEU AT QUEBEC.
PROMINENT PERSONS TOOK PART IN GREAT PROCESSION.

Quebec, June 21.—The festivities in connection with the unveiling of the Laval Monument were commenced to-day by the Fete Dieu procession, which was over three miles long, and took about one hour and a half to pass a given point. Eighteen archbishops and bishops, including Mgr. Sbarretti, papal ablegate, marched in the procession in their episcopal robes, and there were about two hundred priests and monks from most of the religious orders in Canada. Over a hundred nuns also took part, and among the latter were sisters of the Ursuline, Hotel Dieu and Grey to take part in the procession. Some of these nuns have been cloistered for over forty years in their convents.

Although the present population of Quebec is only 78,000, it is safe to say that over a hundred thousand people viewed the procession, visitors coming into the city from all parts of the province and New England States.

The processionists left the Basilica at nine o'clock, marched through Fabrique St. John, Boulevard L'Angelier, St. Joseph, St. Paul, St. Nicholas, Palace and St. John streets, back to the Basilica. There were seventeen handsome arches erected on the above streets. At the juncture of St. Joseph street and Boulevard L'Angelier, a huge arch had been erected and this was the only stopping place along the route. There a short benediction was celebrated on an altar specially erected on the top of this arch. When the procession reached the Basilica at 12.45, another benediction was sung from the top of an elaborate kiosk erected at the entrance of the Basilica, a special choir, accompanied by the Royal Canadian Garrison Artillery band, singing a tantum ergo and the Te Deum. This ceremony was witnessed by at least sixty thousand people, and the sight was a most imposing one, when the immense crowd, on bended knees, received the blessing from Mgr. Sbarretti.

Ten bands took part in the procession, including the Mount St. Louis Cadets, Montreal, and a cadet band from Lewiston, Maine.

Among those who marched in the procession were Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Hon. Mr. Gouin, the Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, Senator Tessier, Mayor Garneau, and the judges of the Supreme Court.

During the afternoon the streets were thronged with sightseers, most of whom will remain here until Tuesday next, when the programme of festivities will be brought to a close.

Laval University was crowded this evening on the occasion of the closing exercises. Mgr. Machon, C.M.G., rector of Laval, presided, and among those present were Earl Grey, Mgr. Sbarretti, Lieutenant-Governor Jette, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, Hon. R. Lemieux, Hon. Messrs. Turgeon and Taschereau, and all the archbishops and bishops at present in town.

The illumination of the buildings this evening on the route of this morning's procession was an appropriate closing of the day's programme. The display was witnessed by thousands of citizens and visitors and at times the streets were almost impassable. Among the principal buildings illuminated were the Archbishop's Palace, City Hall, Court House, Basilica, post-office, municipal buildings and churches and presbyteries in the upper town and St. Roch's.

To-morrow's programme consists of a solemn high mass in the Seminary Chapel at 9 a.m., unveiling of Laval monument at 3 p.m. by Earl Grey, and illumination in the evening, while ten bands will play in different parts of the city.

THE FERNIE EXPLOSION.
THE BODIES OF THREE MEN RECOVERED.

Fernie, B.C., June 22.—The bodies of the three men who were killed in Coal Creek No. 2 mine on Friday night, were recovered at an early hour yesterday, and brought down to Fernie by special train. It was thought at first that seven men had been entombed, but this was not the case. The mines closed here yesterday on account of the accident, and although it is pay day in camps, everything is very quiet, out of respect for the unfortunate men. An inquest will probably be held on Monday.

SHOT WHILE HUNTING.

Neepawa, Man., June 21.—Wm. McIver, a farmer, accidentally shot himself on Friday night while out wolf-hunting.

PROBABLY MURDERED.
BODY OF WOMAN BOUND WITH ROPES FOUND IN EAST RIVER, NEW YORK.

New York, June 20.—What may prove to be a murder mystery was closed to-day when the body of a woman, tightly bound with ropes, was found floating in the East River near 92nd street. The woman was apparently about 40 years of age, 5 feet 4 inches in height. The body was tightly well clothed. In one of the stockings the police found a time slip marked "Mary Flynn, Hotel Gotham." Beyond that there was nothing on the body which would aid in identifying the dead woman. Mary Flynn was employed at the Hotel Gotham as a chambermaid for about two weeks some time ago. She left there suddenly and nothing was seen of her afterwards. A large party was attached to one end of the rope when the woman's body was found. The coroner said that while the woman might have committed suicide, he was not prepared to accept that theory, and would make a full investigation.

'GLADIATOR' TO BLAME.

ADMIRALTY COURT HOLDS CRUISER RESPONSIBLE FOR COLLISION.

London, June 20.—The Admiralty Court has decided that the British cruiser "Gladiator" alone is to blame for the collision with the liner "St. Paul." The warship and the "St. Paul" collided off the Isle of Wight last April in a snowstorm. As a result over a score of the crew of the "Gladiator" lost their lives, the cruiser had to be repaired, and the liner laid up for extensive repairs.

NEW I.O.F. RATES.

Toronto, June 20.—The new rates adopted by the I. O. F. mean an increase of nearly $900,000 a year to the mortuary fund. The increase averages eight dollars per member per annum. The deficit of $616,923 in 1907, under the old rates, would, under the new table, have netted a surplus of $275,000.

The order numbers 112,000 members, carrying $140,316,528 insurance. The average rate formerly paid was 1.01 per $1,000. This is increased 65 cents per thousand dollars.

It has been decided to abandon the orphan's home on Forsters' Island, built by Dr. Oronhyatekha, at a cost of $200,000. The children will be provided for in a new farm home near Toronto.

The Union Trust Company will be continued in connection with the I. O. F. The capital stock was reduced from two to one million. The Forsters' stock was reduced from $1,000,000 to $400,000. On this amount ten percent profit was paid.

INCENDIARY AT WORK.

Victoria, B.C., June 20.—The incendiary who terrorized the business community yesterday by setting fire to a number of business premises, one fire in the Hibben paper and box factory causing damage estimated at $75,000, resumed work this morning, when he ran in a lane at the rear of A. Copas & Young's grocery at the corner of Fort and Brand streets, and threw a lighted match in some straw-filled packing cases. Some clerks saw him, but did not give chase, moving instead to extinguish the fire started.

O. F. eighteen years ago, holding the office continuously ever since.

GORED BY AN ANGRY BULL.

Sussex, N.B., June 20.—A farmer named Ryder was terribly gored by an angry bull yesterday, and will die. The animal, a large black Jersey, had always been docile, but yesterday, like a flash, he turned on the owner, and had torn him in a nasty manner before a party of men drove him off.
