TERRIBLE LOSS OF LIFE BEFORE PORT ARTHUR REPORTED---JAPS MOWED DOWN IN THOUSANDS

Advices, However, Come From Russian Sources—Russian Destroyer Sunk in Port Arthur Harbor—Land Armies Are Awaiting Decisive Battle at Port Arthur.

Che Foo, August 25.—Russian advices received here say that the Japanese assaults on Port Arthur, August 21 and August 22 were repulsed with tremendous losses. It is added that the attempt of the Japanese to capture Fort No. 1, cost them 10,000 men, and that their attack on Fort Etseshan resulted in their losing 3,000 men killed or wounded. Port Dalny is said to be filled with wounded men.

The Japanese are hiring laborers here for service on the Liao Tung peninsula. It is reported that the Japanese are obtaining provisions through the port of Wei Hai Wei.

Russian Destroyer Sunk.

Tokio, August 25.—Two Russian torpedo boat destroyers struck mines at the entrance of Port Arthur last evening. The larger one of the destroyers, a four funnelled one, was sunk. The names of the vessels and the number of lives lost are unknown.

Land Operations at Standstill.

Liao Yang, August 25.—At the Russian headquarters here General Kuroki's army is estimated at 100,000 men, Gen. Nodzu's force at 70,000 and Gen. Oku's at 40,000. This is exclusive of two divisions, of about 30,000 men, moving upon the right bank of the Liao River. According to the Chinese the Japanese have converted the branch railroad from New Chwang to Tashichao into a narrow guage and are conveying thither, twenty siege guns.

Field Marshal Oyama, the Japanese commander-in-chief, is understood to be with the besiegers of Port Arthur.

It continues to be believed here that the Japanese armies in Manchuria are awaiting the result of the storming of Port Arthur before renewing their movements against the forces of Gen. Kuropatkin.

What the Manifesto Indicates.

St. Petersburg, August 25.—The list of christening honors is very large, containing plentiful recognition of the army and all departments of state except the navy, where the honors are practically limited to the appointments of Admiral Jessen and Captain Dabich as Imperial aides-de-camp. The conferring of the high order of St. Alexander Novsky on foreign minister Lamsdorff and the order of the White Eagle on M. Witte, president of the Council of Ministers, is regarded as significant and as indicating the complete return to favor of the Emperor's conservative counsellors.

While there is some popular disappointment with the Emperor's manifesto because it was hardly as broad as expected, the papers unite in praising it and in expressing good wishes for the heir's health and happiness.

The Novoe Vremya says that the peasants remitted arrearages of taxes exceed $68,500,000, adding:

"Nobody is forgotten. Provision is made for soldiers and sailors orphans, the legalizing of unauthorized marriages, for amnesty and even for the Finns who are relieved of a quarter of their arrearages of taxation.

failed to reach her commander. The Russian Government, therefore, proposes to take renewed measures to see that the Smolensk receives orders to cease the examination of neutral shipping. It is explained that before leaving for the south the Sevastopol and Smolensk took on board a large supply of coal, thus enabling them to keep at sea without visiting a port where orders could be delivered.

While the British authorities desire to continue their conciliatory policy they have informed the Russian Government that the Smolensk's interference with British shipping must stop, and they object strongly to the examination of merchantment so far from the scene of hostilities by any Russian cruiser. This objection, it is said, applies to the British steam Asia, now at Port Said, which was detained and examined in the Mediterannean by the Russian auxiliary cruiser Ural, equally with the Comedian.

Smolensk Hadn't Received Orders.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 25.—Great Britain has formally called the attention of the Russian Government to the renewed activity of the volunteer fleet steamer Smolensk and has asked for explanations. Russia has not yet formally replied, being without official information, but in a general way she has explained what the Foreign Office suggested to the Associated Press yesterday, that the orders sent to the Smolensk not to stop any more neutral vessels have not been delivered.

The Novoe Vremya, comenting on the English newspaper propositions to treat the Russian auxiliary cruisers as pirates, ask them not to forget Premier Balfour's remark that the neutrals of to-day are the belligerents of to-morrow, and inquires how the British auxiliary cruisers would relish being treated as pirates.

German Steamers Supplied Coal.

Las Palams, Canary Islands, Aug. 25.—Fishermen report that three Russian cruisers are coaling from the German steamer Valesia, at Cape Juby, off the south coast of Morocco.

Another British Vessel Detained.

London, Aug. 25.—The Anchor line steamer Asia, which sailed Aug. 11 from Liverpool for Calcutta, has arrived at Port Said and reports having been detained two hours while her papers and cargo were examined by the Russian cruiser Ural. The search took place sixty miles east of Cape St. Vincent, Portugal.

ASKOLD AND GROZOVOI HAVE BEEN DISARMED BY RUSSIAN ORDERS

Shanghai, Aug. 25.—It is officially stated that the cruiser Askold and the torpedo destroyer Grozovoi will be disarmed.

Order Was Expected.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 25.—The announcement that the Askold and Grozovoi had been disarmed at Shanghai came as no surprise here, as the responsible authorities decided a week ago to follow this course. Russia was only waiting for a definite agreement between China and Japan which would insure the protection of the ships against a repetition of the Ryeshitelni incident at Che Foo. After the flags of the Askold and Grozovoi had been hauled down their guns were dismantled.

Order Came From the Emperor.

Shanghai, Aug. 25.—An order that the cruiser Askold and the torpedo boat destroyer Grozovoi are to be disarmed was received at 9.30 o'clock last night from the Russian minister at Peking. The minister had received the order from Emperor Nicholas, who also sent a message to the crews congratulating them on saving the vessels, and thanking them for their service to the Empire, and conveying words of hope.

Yesterday was a day of considerable anxiety in official circles. First an order went forth that the vessels could remain four days longer. Then negotiations were begun for another four days. This request was eagerly and persistently pressed by the Russian minister at Peking, but it was absolutely refused by the Chinese Government.

Thereupon an order came to Shanghai to rush work on the vessels and go out to what seemed certain death next Sunday. The abject distress of the Askold's crew when this news was received was pitiable. From the first the officers and crew have urged disarmament, but the minister at Peking would not consider the suggestion.

The dock managers yesterday notified the Russian officials that the Askold's hull could not be repaired by Sunday. More telegraphing to Peking followed, and last night the welcome order to dismantle was received by the Russian admiral. Under the supervision of the customs authorities representing China, the Askold and Grozovoi will go out of commission before Sunday, and as soon as they are patched up they will take their places alongside the gunboat Mandjur, which was dismantled last March.

There is general satisfaction here over the outcome of the matter. It is understood the Japanese fleet will remain until the Russian vessels are completely disarmed.

GREAT BRITAIN DEMANDS THAT INTERFERENCE WITH SHIPPING SHOULD CEASE

London, Aug. 25.—The Associated Press learns that Ambassador Benckendorff has advised the Foreign Office here that the cruiser which overhauled the British steamer Comedian off the southeast coast of Cape Colony, Aug. 21, was probably the Smolensk, in which case her action could only be explained on the supposition that the orders telegraphed to her by the Russian Admiralty after the Malacca affair

THE ARCHBISHOP COMES SATURDAY

Accompanied by Pierpont Morgan He Will Pass Through Montreal

The Archbishop of Canterbury, accompanied by Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan (whose guest he will be while in Boston), will arrive in Montreal eleven hours after the arrival of the White Star liner Cedric in New York. The party will travel to Montreal on a splendidly appointed special train over the New York Central aRilway, and will make the journey from Manitoba to Quebec on a similar special to be provided by the C.P.R. The New York Central has guaranteed to land the train in Montreal eleven hours after leaving New York, and, as the Cedric is expected in New York to-morrow, His Grace and party may be here on Saturday. Mr. Morgan will accompany him to Quebec and it is possible he may also return to Montreal with him.

It has not yet been definitely arranged whether the C.P.R. special will take the party from the New York Central at Montreal Junction or whether they will be brought into the city and the change made there.

His Grace will arrive here on Thursday morning next and will remain until Saturday morning when he leaves for Toronto, where he preaches on Sept. 4. The reception committee in connection with his visit here has been appointed under the presidency of the Archbishop of Montreal. It will consist of Sir Melbourne Tait, Sir George A. Drummond, Mr. James Crathern, Mr. George E. Drummond, Mr. R. Wilson-Smith, Dr. Leo H. Davidson, Mr. Richard White, Mr. G. F. C. Smith and Rev. Canon Baylis.

He will be met at Quebec on Sept. 1 by a special deputation on behalf of the Archbishop of Montreal, consisting of the Bishop, Coadjutor Bishop and Dr. Davidson, and on arrival here will probably be met at the Place Viger Station by the Archbishop of Montreal and the reception committee.

He will then be entertained at luncheon by Sir George A. Drummond, at his residence, after which the party will take carriages and tour the city, visiting Mount Royal Park and the lookout.

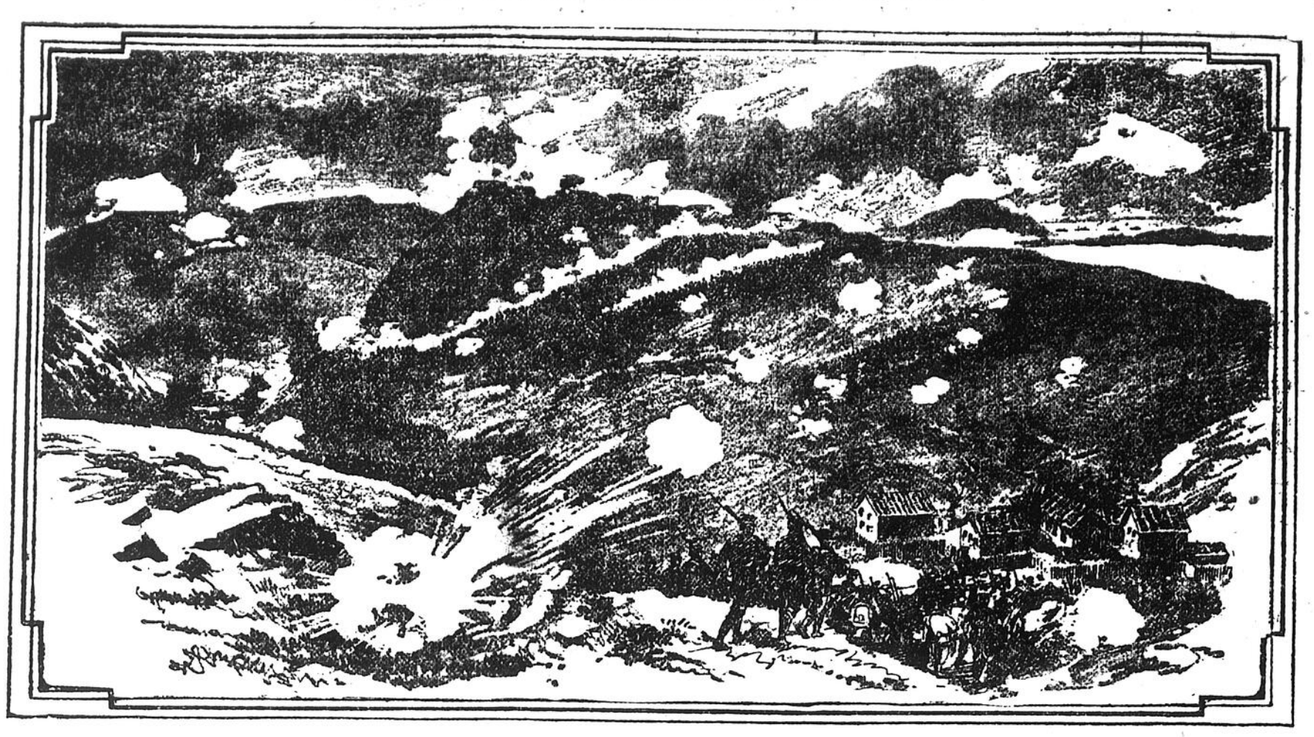
Thursday evening a short service will be held in the Cathedral at 8.30, when Archbishop Bond will present an address and His Grace's reply will take the form of a sermon. After the service a reception will be held in the congregational hall of the Diocesan College when the clergy and leading laity will be presented to His Grace.

Friday morning at 8 o'clock Holy Communion will be celebrated in the Cathedral. At one p.m. he will be entertain at luncheon at the Windsor Hotel. The city clergy, church wardens and leading members of the laity will be in the luncheon party. A garden party will be held during the afternoon, and on Friday evening there will be a formal dinner at Bishop's Court.

CANADA'S GROWING TRADE

Ottawa, Aug. 25.—(Special.)—Complete trade returns for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, have just been completed. They show that Canada's trade last year was $472,733,000, against $467,064,000 the year previous, and $239,325,000 in 1894.

THE FIGHT FOR THE POSSESSION OF PORT ARTHUR.



THE CAPTURE OF CHAIR HILL (ETSE SHAN) BY THE JAPANESE IN 1894.

This hill dominates Port Arthur defences, and very shortly after its capture in 1894 the Japanese captured the town. If the Japanese capture it from the Russians the position of Port Arthur is hopeless, and its fall will be a question of a very short time.

GLOWING REPORT ON MANITOBA WHEAT

Most Cheerful Report Yet Made on the Black Rust in the West.

There were again some very satisfactory crop reports in to-day and local people had a good laugh over the following which Chicago put on the telegraph wires and circulated to all points of the compass:

"Message from Winnipeg says grain dealers and bankers just back from country report a crop of forty-four million against fifty-three million last year."

Needless to remark the names of the grain dealers and bankers did not accompany the despatch.

It was cool at some Manitoba points to-day and showers were reported from the Territories, but no frost.

Warmer weather is predicted to-morrow.

A Glowing Report.

Winnipeg, Aug. 24.—(Special.)—From the many parties who have gone through the West to inspect wheat it is learned that the stories of black rust were without foundation.

It is true many instances of red rust hve been reported from Manitoba, but so far little or no black rust. It is asserted by grain experts that red rust is not the early stage of black rust, which has done so much damage in the Dakotas.

It appears to be a very mild form which took the wheat late. This did not affect the kernel as that was in dough before the disease appeared. Some few cases show where rust has effected the late wheat, but this is only in very few localities and will not lessen the Northwestern crop one per cent. The Territories have escaped almost entirely from rust or frost, while frost in Manitoba has so far done no harm. Oats, barley and hay very prolific through all the Northwest.

Rain in N. W. T.

Winnipeg, Aug. 25.—(Special.)—There was heavy rain in Eastern Assiniboia yesterday, and it is feared it may spread to Manitoba. President Hargraft, of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange, speaks highly of the condition of the wheat seen by grain dealers during their tour.

CROSS PETITION IN N. PERTH.

Stratford, Ont., August 25.—(Special.)—A cross petition against the defeated Conservative candidate, Mr. J. R. Monteith, was filed here yesterday by the Liberals. It contains forty charges, including several against Mr. Monteith, whose disqualification is demanded. Mr. Brown, the sitting Liberal member, declared yesterday that there was absolutely no truth in the report that he wouldp ractically resign, consenting to being unseated at the beginning of the trial by admitting some trivial offence, which would not affect him personally. This was done at the last trial by Mr. Monteith, but Mr. Brown states emphatically that he will not follow suit, btu will fight the protest to a finish.

PHILP-HAMILTON.

At the residence of the bride's father, Mr. John Hamilton, 65 Moreau Street, yesterday afternoon, the marriage took place quietly of Miss Jean Hamilton to Rev. J. H. Philp, of Escott. The ceremony was performed by the father of the groom, the Rev. J. Philp, of Morrisburg. The bride, who was given away by her father, was gowned in cream crepe de chene. She also wore a veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and sweet peas. Miss Anna S. Hamilton, sister of the bride, who was bridesmaid, was gowned in white sun silk, and carried a bouquet of crimson carnations. Little Miss Helen Deming, niece of the bride, acted as flower girl while Mr. J. W. Gilson was groomsman. Mr. and Mrs. Philp left on the eight o'clock train for Escott, where they will reside.

ONLY TEN CENTS AN INSERTION

NINETEEN-YEAR GIRL DRANK CARBOLIC ACID AND DIED

What is thought to be a suicide occurred this morning about 11 o'clock at 39 Hermine Street, when Mary Elizabeth Murray, aged nineteen years, took the contents of a ten cent bottle of carbolic acid.

She was employed in the fitting department of the Slater Shoe Company, Latour Street, and went there as usual at 8 o'clock this morning, but at ten o'clock she complained of being ill, handed in her work and returned home.

A few minutes later she went to J. R. Parkin's drug store and purchased the poison, saying it was for her sister, who has a sore neck, and as Mr. Parkin knew her well he gave her the acid. She returned home and took the contents of the bottle.

Mrs. Drake, her mother, as soon as she discovered what her daughter had done, administered mustard and water in hopes that it would make her vomit, but it proved of no avail.

Meanwhile a young man who was staying there ran for an ambulance, and when it arrived, Dr. Rankin, who was in charge, used a stomach pump, but with no result; it was too late. "How long is it since she took it?" the doctor inquired. "About twenty minutes," some one replied, and the doctor set to work again, but the time must have been longer, the doctor told The Herald.

She was placed in the ambulance and taken to the General Hospital, but ere it arrived she had expired.

When seen by The Herald Mrs. Drake said her daughter was bright and cheerful this morning and she cannot believe that she has committed suicide, as there has been nothing in her manner to point that way. She thinks she must have drunk the contents by accident.

She has not left any letter explaining her strange and tragic action, neither at her home nor on her person. The only thing found on her is a small finger ring.

Miss Desmond, Miss Murray's superior at the Slater Shoe Company, was greatly shocked when she heard of the young girl's death, she having only left there an hour previously, apparently in the best of health and spirits. She could give no explanation of the girl's action.

Winipeg.—Joseph Horton, an elderly Sheddon farmer, reported missing from a harvesters' excursion train, has turned up at Brandon. He fell off the train about eight miles from Jackfish, but did not sustain serious injury.

CRUISER CANADA IS AT ST. JOHN'S

Trip Across Made in Eight Days—Will Go to Halifax.

St. John's, Nfld., August 25.—The new Canadian fishery cruiser, Canada, recently launched at Barrow, England, arrived here to-day, short of coal. She is bound for Quebec and crossed from Barrow in eight days, but the coal in her bunkers was not sufficient for the remainder of the voyage.

The Department of Marine and Fisheries states that the Canada is on her way to Halifax where her permanent crew will be obtained. At present there are only fourteen Canadian officers and men on board and as about 100 are required the balance will have to be obtained to replace the temporary crew engaged in Britain to take her across.

Hon. Raymond Prefontaine will inspect the cruiser, after which she will be placed in active service in Canadian waters.

The Canada will come up the river to Montreal at the latter end of the season for a short time.

TARIFF IS SUITED TO WOOLLEN MILLS

Mr. Jonathan Hodgson Says Mills Are Prospering as Never Before.

Mr. Jonathan Hodgson, senior partner in the wholesale dry goods firm of Hodgson, Sumner & Co., has for many years been largely interested in woollen manufacturing concerns. He was this morning asked by The Herald for his views on the reasons advanced by Mr. Horsfall, of the Montreal Woollen Mills, for the reduction in the mills' output, viz.: That the British preference makes it impossible to conduct a woollen business profitably.

Mr. Hodgson said that he had no hesitation in claiming for the present tariff, which is thirty per cent., that it affords ample protection for all woollen industries that are properly managed and possess ample capital. The trouble with too many Canadian mills is that they are devoted to the making of low-grade goods, on which the profit is small and the competition keen. The tariff gives all the protection that could be expected if mills are confined to specialties, if they are properly equipped with modern machinery, and if they have plenty of capital.

"Take the case of the Paton mills at Sherbrooke," remarked Mr. Hodgson. Under the high tariff of the Conservatives, in the early '90's, the $100 shares of this company were selling as low as $12.50. To-day I should like to buy more of them at $75. The company is paying a six per cent. dividend, and improving its position steadily. Under Mr. John Turnbull's efficient management, a high class of goods is being made, for which there is a steady demand.

"In the case of the Almonte Woollen mills, in which I am also interested, the same experience justifies the same conclusion. The concern is prospering because it is devoted to special lines, which it is thus enabled to produce at the minimum of cost.

"Were the tariff any higher I should be disposed to sell my woollen shares, for we would have the experience of the '80's repeated: Over-competition and loss of profits. It is well to remember that under the Foster tariff many woollen mills succumbed to the pressure induced by competition and stock-watering. We should guard against any repetition of these evils."

BICKERDIKE MEETING TO BE HELD TO-NIGHT.

The electoral campaign in St. Lawrence division will open to-night in St. Lawrence division, when a mass meeting in honor of the sitting member, Mr. Robert Bickerdike, will be held at the Monument National. It is hoped that the Minister of Public Works will be present, besides Senator Dandurand, Hon. Lomer Gouin, Hon. W. A. Weir, and, of course, Mr. Bickerdike.

Mr. Bickerdike will give a brief account of his stewardship, and undoubtedly set at rest the reports circulated by interested parties that he is dissatisfied with his parliamentary duties. It is Mr. Bickerdike's intention to offer himself for re-election, and to-night he will tell the reason why. With such an array of speakers, there should be a large audience.

There will be much to say, so the speaking will commence as soon after eight as possible.

HUGE FACTORY FOR MONTREAL

Simplex Railway Appliance Company Announces Its Plans

HAS PURCHASED 40 ACRES

In Addition to Steel Springs, Bolsters, etc., They Will Operate a Car Plant.

Another sign of the great possibilities for manufacturing around Montreal was given to-day when the Simplex Railway Appliance Company announced that they had purchased forty acres of land at Montreal West between the Grand Trunk Railway and the Lachine Canal and proposed erecting an extensive plant that would give employment to 1,000 men.

The company, since coming to Montreal has operated a leased plant on St. James Street, St. Henri, but has found its business increased to such a large extent that it became necessary to get a new plant.

The plan as announced to The Herald by Mr. J. Lamont, the manager, is to have a series of different buildings enabling the company to have separate shops for the manufacture of bolsters, steel springs and other steel products.

The most important feature is that the company will also erect a large plant for manufacturing railway cars. It is expected that the demand for cars for the Grand Trunk Pacific, the Canadian Northern and the Grand Trunk will become so large that the companies own shops will not be able to supply it.

LIGHTING OF THE COAST OF CANADA

Shipping Men Want More—Our Exports to Great Britain.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

London, Aug. 25.—Syren and Shipping, writing of coastal lighting, says: "We have heard much of Canadian intentions, and there the promises of betterment have fructified, but only to a limited extent. It is quite time the Canadian Legislature recognize that to promise is one thing and performance quite another.

They urge that the treaty be again examined and a modification introduced with the object of obtaining from the British Government the right of freely trading in bait for fishermen of French and other nationalities.

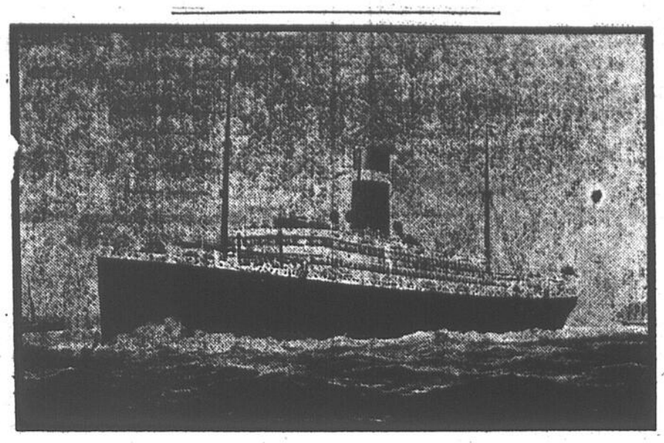
ALLAN LINER VICTORIAN WAS LAUNCHED AT BELFAST

It is Expected That She Will be Ready for Service Before the End of the Year—The Largest Turbine Vessel Yet Built.



THE ALLAN TURBINE STEAMER VICTORIAN, LAUNCHED AT BELFAST TO-DAY.

Belfast, Ireland, August 25.—The Allan line steamer Victorian, the largest turbine vessel yet built, was launched here this morning. It is expected that she will be ready for service before the end of the year. She is 540 feet long, has sixty feet beam and her depth is forty feet, six inches.

The Victorian is to be fitted in a most luxurious manner and is to carry fifteen hundred passengers. To meet the requirements of the Atlantic service, enormous propelling, stopping backing and steering power were needed. These difficulties are understood to have been overcome by Charles A. Parsons, the engineer, who has developed the steam turbine. A special arrangement has been devised for the Victorian's machinery, whereby reversing power equal to that of her forward propelling power can be imparted to it. Her propellers are three in number, each on a separate length of shafting.

The Victorian will be fitted with a wireless telegraph apparatus and will carry a complete printing outfit between decks. Her tonnage is about 12,000 and she is expected to develop about 10,000 horse power.

CANADIANS ALONE SOLVED WATER POWER PROBLEM

"Canadians are the only ones who have successfully solved the problem of water power," was the statement made to a Herald representative by the general manager of a leading bank, "and a review of the large enterprises Canadians have undertaken in foreign countries shows that both England and the United States have recently been distanced. In England there is only one company utilizing a water power that has had marked success, while in the United States hardly one water power company enters into the category of the big successful enterprises.

"Among the big projects undertaken by Canadian capitalists of Montreal and Toronto in foreign countries are the Sao Paulo Tramway Light and Power Company, the Mexican Light and Power Company, and the Rio de Janeiro Tramway Light and Power Company.

"At home similar big enterprises include those on the Canadian side at Niagara, the Shawinigan Falls, the Lachine Rapids and the falls at Chambly.

"A peculiar feature is that in all the biggest enterprises abroad it was an American engineer, Mr. F. S. Pearson, who first realized the opportunity of securing big money makers and it was only after failing to secure the support of American capitalists that he came into Canada and secured the millions required to put through his various undertakings.

"The first big enterprise in a foreign country by Canadian capitalists was the Sao Paulo Tramway Light and Power Company, with a capital of $7,000,000. The group of capitalists who ventured to underwrite the bonds were given stock as bonus at the rate of 100 per cent. and now this purely water stock is paying eight per cent., is selling around par and there is already talk of another increase in dividend.

"The next big enterprise was the Mexican Light and Power Company, and this time Mr. Pearson instead of going to Toronto came to Montreal to get the greater part of the capital required. The company was capitalized at $12,000,000. The company which has already secured the big lighting company of the city of Mexico, formerly owned by Messrs. Siemens and Halske, the German bankers, earns more than encugh to pay the five per cent, interest on all its bonds.

"Once the construction work of this enterprise was assured Mr. Pearson again asked Toronto capitalists to take the principal part in the biggest foreign project yet, and on their assenting the Rio de Janeiro Tramway Light and Power Company was formed with a capital of fifty million dollars, half of which is to be secured now, and the remaining half when the power plant is placed in operation.

"A curious feature in connection with these big enterprises is that while English capitalists have almost steadily refused to go into them at the outset, Canadians have found little difficulty getting them to pay them as much as ten times what the stock cost them, after the enterprise had proved successful."

MONTREAL SHOTS WON FAIR SHARE OF MONEY

Details of O. R. A. Matches at Toronto—Annual Luncheon Took Place Yesterday.

Toronto, Aug. 25.—(Special.)—At the annual luncheon of the O. R. A. at Long Branch yesterday, Mr. E. B. Osler, M.P., urged that shooting be made more popular. He hoped the Government would do more to make cadet shooting popular. They might even bring pressure to bear to make ammunition free. He was sure when the Government realized this they would do so. It was a cheap way of making young men able to defend their country.

Hon. J. M. Gibson wanted to change matters relating to rifle shooting, or, at least, to make it a common pastime throughout the country. He wanted young men to take to it as naturally as they would to golf and all other classes of sport. Nowadays they made all sorts of excuses for open air exercise except rifle shootig.

The Lieutenant-Governor also urged more practice in target shooting.

The scores of the Montreal men were as follows:—MacDonald match, Pte. Drysdale, 3rd V.R.C., 29 points, $3; Pte. C. L. Morrice, 1st P.W.F., 29 points, $3.

ST. PIERRE IS WORKED UP OVER COLOR QUESTION

Illegal Arrest of Deputy Legasse Caused Bad Feeling Among the Islanders.

Halifax, N.S., Aug. 24.—(Special.)—The French islands of St. Pierre and Miquelon have been for weeks in a state of excitement over the arrest of Deputy Legasse. The steamer Pro Patria yesterday brought particulars of the trouble, which seems to hinge largely on the color question. Mr. Legasse after a hot-fight was re-elected for a third time in December, 1903, to represent the colony of St. Pierre in the French Chamber of Deputies. The elections were very bitter, but Mr. Legasse defeated by a large majority his opponent, Mr. Delmont, a colored lawyer. The Chief Justice of St. Pierre is also a colored man, and since the elections Mr. Legasse has had great difficulties with the judge and the colored people, and through political machinations he was arbitrarily and illegally arrested. The Minister of the colonies in France was informed on the subject and cabled the Governor of the Island to immediately release Mr. Legasse, which the Chief Justice was compelled to do.

On Mr. Legasse's release, a general demonstration was made by the citizens of the colony and a general meeting was organized for the purpose of expressing to Mr. Legasse their appreciation. About three thousand assembled for this purpose on the night that Mr. Legasse was liberated, the celebration being kept up until midnight. Mr. Legasse leaves shortly for Paris.

WON THREE OF FOUR CASES.

Dominion's Legal Representatives Made Excellent Record Before Privy Council.

Ottawa, August 25.(Special.)—To win three out of four appeals before the Privy Council is an excellent showing for lawyers. That is what Hon. R. Lemieux and Mr. E. L. Newcombe, K.C., Deputy Minister of Justice, are able to boast of. Mr. Newcombe only returned yesterday from London, where he represented the Government on the appeals referred to. Although the Privy Council has not formally given judgment in the Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick representation case there is not the slightest doubt, Mr. Newcombe says, that the Dominion's contentions will be upheld with respect to the "swamp lands" of Manitoba.

The appeal of the Calgary and Edmonton Railway Company against the Dominion Government resulted in the former's favor. This means the company are entitled to any minerals which may be found in their land grant of 6,400 acres permile. It is said there are extensive beds of coal in some parts of the land.

THE KNOWLTON CONFERENCE.

Interesting Addresses by Rev. Messrs. Johnston, Elliott and Others.

Knowlton, Que., Aug. 25.—(Special.)—A feature of yesterday morning's session of the Knowlton conference was an address by Rev. G. F. Johnston, of New Jersey. This was the fourth of a series on Sunday school work. In discussing the contents for a Sunday school programme, he took the average programme at an ordinary small Sunday school and selected from it the strong points which it contained, and from these he developed what he considered to be the ideal programme of the ordinary Sunday school, which should provide for order, sequence, fellowship, taste, memory, instruction, gradation, unity, uplift.

Rev. Mr. Ferguson discussed the question of supplemental lessons for the different grades of pupils, and pointed out that a systematic course of supplemental lessons was absolutely necessary in order to do effective work in the international Sunday school lessons. He gave a detailed statement of the supplemental lesson, which included Scripture history in books of the Bible, church history, and lives of missionary heroes.

Rev. James Elliott followed with a devotional Bible reading.

The evening session was opened at 7.30 by the chairman, Rev. Mr. Shearer, honorary vice-president, with a short prayer and praise service. Rev. Jas. Elliott continued his devotional Bible reading in place of Rev. G. F. Johnson, who returned to his home in Montreal.

The lime light lecture by Mr. H. Bragg was both interesting and instructive. His views were principally all of the C.P.R. line to Vancouver, showing the wonderful natural beauties of that country.

BUTCHER KNIFE POISED TO STRIKE

Mrs. Andrew Shearer Awoke to Find Servant Threatening Her Life.

Margaret Manson, a sixteen-year-old servant girl, was before Mr. Recorder McMahon, of Westmount, yesterday, and now awaits trial before a jury on the serious charge of having been found stooping over her mistress in bed with a raised knife in her hand.

Mrs. Andrew Shearer, 507 Grosvenor Avenue, says she awoke with a sudden start early yesterday morning to find herself face to face with the girl, who was bending over her with a dangerous looking butcher knife in her hand, poised as if to strike. Mrs. Shearer promptly took hold of the girl's arms and compelled her to let go her grip of the weapon, which in falling inflicted a couple of slight cuts on Mrs. Shearer's breast, neither of which are, however, of a serious nature. The accused was conveyed to Montreal police headquarters in the course of yesterday, the charge being one of attempted murder, to which she pleaded not guilty.

The only reason that can be suggested for her conduct is that the girl was under notice of dismissal from her employers, Mrs. Shearer having had occasion to complain of her untruthfulness during the two months she had been in their service. On the night previous, however, she had been in good spirits, playing in contented-like fashion with the little daughter of the house until the time for retiring.

But there have been other mysterious happenings in the Shearer household of late, and it is possible it may be found that the girl is not quite right mentally, or is a victim to somnambulism. During last week there were several outbreaks of fire on the premises, occurring about five o'clock in the morning, and there is a suspicion on the part of the Shearer family that the maid-servant was responsible for all of them.

WHAT THE FATHER SAYS.

In the course of conversation this morning, the father of the girl said his daughter did not appear to take kindly to the situation, and her mother and himself were pleased enough to hear that she was coming home. He admitted that at times within recent months he had thought she was somewhat peculiar in her conversation and conduct, and had remarked on the subject to his wife. Neither of them, however, had entertained the slightest idea that the girl would act in the manner she is said to have done yesterday morning.

The girl was the eldest of the family, and, added the father, with more than the suspicion of a tear in his eye, the second, a boy, on several occasions had risen from bed and walked about the house while asleep. They were of the opinion that the actions charged to have been done by Margaret were attributable to something of that nature, although unable to state definitely within their knowledge that she was subject to somnambulism.

The accused, who bore traces of prolonged crying, appeared for enquete today before Judge Lafontaine, who, on learning her age, decided that the case be heard in private.

PUMP MINERAL WATER TO THE CITY

A big hotel and sanitarium, to be erected within 200 yards of the Windsor, is the latest project for Montreal, and as far as can be learned the gentlemen who are behind it are determined to bring it to a successful finality.

The idea is to pipe the mineral sulphur and gas water from the celebrated Magi Springs at Caledonia springs to Montreal, a distance og sixty-six miles, and to erect a large bath house, sanitorium and hotel where all the benefits of the celebrated mineral baths can be combined with pleasures of city life, and can be enjoyed all the year round.

The gentlemen interested in the Caledonia Springs Hotel are, it is understood, behind the new venture, and have abundant capital to carry the project into effect. Among them is Mr. David Russell, who is well known financially through his connection with the successes of the Abbey Effervescent Salt Company, the Montreal Trust and Deosit Company, and others of equal importance.

Mr. Russell could not be seen to-day in connection with the new venture, but from other sources it is learned taht the promoters of the new sanitorium have invited a well known engineer from Chicago to come here and make a thorough examination and report as to the feasibility and cost of bringing the waters from Caledonia Springs to Montreal. The same engineer successfully carried out a project whereby a similar mineral water was piped from a spring some eighty miles from Chicago into that city and a sanitorium was erected there which is now netting handsome returns to the investors.

As yet the plans for the local venture are in the embryonic stage, but there is every probability that they will be worked out along the lines stated.

REFUSED TO ACCEPT THE EXECUTIVE'S REPORT

Toronto, Aug. 25.—(Special.)—The first day's work of the C.M.B.A. convention in the Temple Building was marked with long and animated discussion over financial statements presented by the grand treasurer for the executive of the association covering three and a half years, ending June 30, 1904. A motion to adopt the report and sustation the action of the executive in settling the matter of a deficit of $29,550 left by the late grand secretary, Samuel R. Brown, of London, was lost. The whole question was referred to a special committee, of which Hon. N. R. Latchford, the grand solicitor, is chairman, with instructions to report to-day.

The entire morning session of the C..MB.A. was taken up with a discussion as to the advisability of raising the rates of the order.

CAR COMPANY TO LOCATE IN THE CITY

Negotiations are now being completed by which Montreal will be the scene of operation of a big car construction company, to be known as the Canada Car Company.

The interests at the head of the new company are connected with large American companies, and the present plan is to have the Canadian an entirely independent one.

Mr. W. P. Coleman, of New York, who was formerly second vice-president of the American Car & Foundry Company, is one of the prime movers in the new company, and it is intended that he shall become the general manager of the plant to be erected in this city. Closely associated with him are Mr. F. N. Hoffstot, the president of the Pressed Steel Car Company, and Mr. J. A. Blair, of the big New York banking firm of Blair & Co. A number of prominent Canadians will also have an interest in the new company. The company is negotiating for a contract with the Grand Trunk Pacific that would keep it in orders for the first few years.

ONTARIO COMPANY AFTER LAND BOUNTY

Ottawa, August 25.—(Special.)—The Department of Trade and Commerce has been requested to send an inspector to Bannockburn, Ont. It seems that a company at that point proposes to take advantage of the lead bounty act, passed at the last session. A smelter has been erected at Bannockburn and a considerable quantity of lead is at the station awaiting the report of a Government inspector, co the company may claim the Government bounty upon it. This will hardly be agreeable news to the British Columbia lead producers who induced the Government to grant the bounty. The British Columbia lead has held the eastern market though it has long been known that large deposits of lead existed in Ontario and Quebec.

These could not be worked in competition with the British Columbia deposits as they contain only lead, while the Western ore carries a percentage of gold and silver. It appears that the Government bounty will offset the precious alloy of the Western lead and enable owners of the Tastern deposits to enter the fild of competition.

The first step ha been taken at Bannockburn.

Mr. Samuel Brown, of Mount Forest, has been appointed inspector to supervise the payment of bounty on crude petroleum produced from Canadian wells. He will be instructed in his duties by Mr. Parmelee, jr., of the Trade and Commerce Department, who will shortly go up to Petrolia for that purpose.

The regulations which are to govern the payment of bounties have been framed, and are now being printed preparatory to distribution. All producers of crude petroleum from Canadian wells are required to notify the Minister of Trade and Commerce of their intention to claim the bounty of 1 1-2 cents per gallon. They must declare where their wells are situated and the estimated number, the monthly production, the place and names of the ownership, whether it be a co-partnership or an incorporated company.

CANADIAN LAW IS MUCH THE BEST

Father Devine, who has just returned from spending two years in the Jesuit missions of Alaska, and is staying at St. Mary's College, speaks in high terms of the Government of the Yukon as compared to that in the United States territory. In laws and everything else the Canadian administration is vastly superior.

"I have simply no use for the American mining laws," said Father Devine. What is wanted there, according to the missionary, is a system of surveillance like that of the Northwest Mounted Police. The United States Government practically ignores Alaska and Alaskans, notwithstanding the ceaseless attempts made by the miners to be heard in Washington. This leaves the unfortunate miners at the mercy of every land-grabbing shark and lawyer who knows enough of law to take advantage of quibbles and technicalities and so capture the richest claims.

Notwithstanding the shortness of the summer, Father Devine reports that a great deal of gold is being taken out in placer diggings, but Alaska is not a country for the individual miner. The ground is good enough for large companies with unlimited capital who can work on a large scale, but the low grade ground is hardly rich enough to reward the pains of a man working on his own account. A very large placer field was found a few years ago at Tannana River and has been worked with success. Father Devine thinks that as soon as a railway can be built between Southeastern Alaska and the Tannana country, approach to Alaska will be easy and mining very much facilitated.

The returned missionary speaks in terms of high praise of the climate.

The summer days are delightful and although the climate is cold in winter it is extremely healthy. In Council City, where father Devine spent last winter, 56 degrees below zero was experienced, but the ordinary winter temperatire is from 25 to 30 below. Walkers felt no inconvenience unless there is a wind.

It is, however, Father Devine's opinion that there is no place like Canada, and that there is no reason for going so far for the small amount of yellow metal to be found.

CHATEAUGUAY & NORTHERN.

The Chateauguay & Northern Railway is letting contracts for an addition to the system. A branch is to be constructed immediately from the company's line near L'Epiphanie to St. Jacques de l'Achigan. The contracts now being awarded are for grading the new branch, which will be about ten miles in length, and active operations will be started immediately.

INCREASED RATES REMAIN IN FORCE

"There will be no immediate change in Montreal's insurance rates. The underwriters added the fifty cents to the congested district's rate, and there it will stay until the complicated work of preparing the specific rating for the city is completed. That will be some time this autumn. No change in the rates can be made without a meeting of the Underwriters' Association for the purpose, and no move has been mentioned along this line."

This was the answer of the officials at the Underwriters' Association in regard to the reports circulated that the extra fifty cents was to be incontinently dropped owing to the action of the City Council in purchasing the new boilers.

As to the effect of the specific rating it is hard to say what it will be. The result will probably be an increase in some parts of the city and a decrease in others. One thing is pretty certain the gross receipts from the City Hall suffer no reduction.

The specific rating is simple in its principle. A standard rate will be fixed for a standard building, which from the underwriters' point of view is a modern well-built, three-story structure, with enclosed stairway and elevator shafts, the most improved methods of heating, no skylights, etc., in fact, a building so devised as to offer the least provocation for fire, and the smallest chances for one to spread in.

Having fixed the standard rate for such a structure the additions for disabilities will be looked after. An open elevator shaft will add a certain percentage to the rate, open stairways more; if the heating or lighting appliances is deficient the rate will go up to cover the added risk.

Other considerations of course, are the location of the building, whether it is near inflammable structures, the nature of the stock it carries etc. All these will be considered in fixing the rate, and probably many insurers will be surprised at the variety of ways in which their building demand increased insurance rates.

The first consideration of course is the civic protection, and this will be averaged, although special favors will be accorded those close to fire stations with big mains handy, and vice versa.

The higher the building is the more insurance it must pay, the rate going up in an increasing ratio with each additional storey up to the 130 foot limit.

The net result of the new rate will be two-fold. It will accentuate the difference between the rates in the comparatively safe uptown section and the congested district.

More than anything else, however, it will bring home to owners of buildings and stocks the necessity for precaution against fire, when they see the rate going up for each shortcoming, and being reduced for each advantage, the arguments in favor of good buildings and adequate protection will be brought home with the force of cold cash. It will also show the citizens the necessity of backing the council in all efforts to improve the safety of the city.

But meanwhile present rates will stay unchanged.

Dying, Wrote Story of His Death

A man into whose eyes the grim spectre of death is peering with awful intentness, whose very life-blood is gushing forth with every throb of his pulse, while he himself writes an account of how he received his death-wound, savors more of the dime novel than of the truth, yet this is what took place at Little Rideau yesterday afternoon.

John McDonnell, a farmer of that place, was yesterday kicked by a vicious horse that he was feeding. The force of the blow knocked him against a hay fork which was lying near-by, and one of the prongs was driven through his throat. Although almost knocked senseless by the kick from the horse, McDonnell managed to pull the prong from his neck and, bleeding profusely from the terrible wound, the poor unfortunate succeeded in dragging himself from the stable to the house, leaving a trail of blood after him.

Feeling that the hand of death was heavy upon him, and wishing to save his neighbors from having even the breath of suspicion fastened upon them, suffering intense agony, with the blood spurting from the hole in his throat, and bespattering the paper before him, McDonnell wrote an account of how the accident occurred. He never finished the narrative, however, for nature again got the upper hand, and he fell in a faint while in the middle of a word.

The dying man was placed on a C.P.R. train and brought to the Windsor station, from whence he was taken to the Royal Victoria Hospital. He died within fifteen minutes of his admission to that institution.

Coroner McMahon disposed of the case to-day without an inquest, and the remains were sent back to Little Rideau on the 9.40 train this morning.

CONSECRATION OF MGR. ARCHAMBAULT

Imposing Ceremonies in Connection With His Elevation.

MANY PRELATES PRESENT

The Celebrant Was His Grace Archbishop Bruchesi—Diocese Was En Fete in Honor of the New Bishop.

Joliette, Que., August 25.—The ceremonies in connection with the consecration of Bishop Archambault, were concluded last night. The most impressive portion of the ceremonies from a public point of view was the entrance of the prelates to the church. The cross bearer and acolytes came first. They were followed by His Excellency, Mgr. Sbaretti, the Papal delegate; Archbishop Bruchesi, of Montreal, came next, then in turn, came Archbishop Duhamel, of Ottawa; Archbishop Begin, of Quebec; Archbishop Gauthier of Kingston; Bishop Emard of Valleyfield; Bishop Larocque of Sherbrooke; Bishop Blais, of Rimouski; Bishop Decelles, of St. Hyacinthe; Bishop Michaud, of Burlington, Vt.; Bishop McEvoy, of London, Ont.; Bishop Brunault, of Nicolet; Bishop Clouthier, of Three Rivers; and Bishop Gabriel, of Ogdensburg.

The prelates took their places on both sides of the altar, and behind them stood ranks on ranks of priests, wearing in strong contrast to the purple, the ordinary black cassock.

The celebrant was Archbishop Bruchesi, he was assisted, in accordance with the ritual by two other bishops. They were Bishop Emard, and Bishop Larocque.

THE OATH OF OFFICE.

After all the bishops had taken their respective seats, Bishop-Elect Archambault knelt at the feet of the celebrant, and recited a short prayer, after which he took the oath of office:

The ritual prescribed was, of course, strictly followed. Rising and moving to a position in the sanctuary nearer to the people, the bishop-elect responded in a firm voice to the questions asked of him. To those relating to the duties of administration he replied: "I will," (volo); and to those of dogma, he answered: "I believe" (credo). The celebration of mass then went on to the point where the bishop lies prostrate on the altar steps where the litany of the saints and other prayers are recited.

Later, both celebrants partook of the sacred elements from the same chalice. The open mass-book or missal, was also placed on the shoulders of the kneeling priest, soon to be raised to a higher dignity in the church by the imposition of hands and the anointing with holy oils. It being the most solemn moment of the ceremony without which there could be no succession of bishops, the attention of the large congregation was voluntarily hushed.

Immediately after, as a sign of accomplishment, came the triumphal singing of the Veni Creator, one of the great hymns of the Catholic Church. The receiving of the episcopal ring and the handsome crozier followed, attended by the prescribed prayers, read in Latin.

Rev. X. de Larurantaye, cure of St. Jerome, at this point, mounted the pulpit and preached a powerful sermon on the duties and responsibilities of bishops of the Church.

CONSECRATION OF THE HOST.

After the sermon, the consecration of the Host brought the mass to its most solemn point. The mitre, with the required prayers, was then placed on the head of Bishop Archambault. His crozier was also placed in his hand and thus in full vestments and carrying the symbols of his office, he mounted the throne for the first time in the new diocese. That other great hymn, the Te Deum was then intoned.

Archbishop Bruchesi afterwards spoke a few words on the objects to be worked for in Christian life, in which were prominently named the observance of the Sabbath and the proper instruction of the young. Sobriety was also strongly recommended to all.

Bishop Archambault then announced the following nominations:—Rev. Fathers Beaudry, Marechal, Dubois and Brien, to be councillors of the diocese; Rev. Father Gervais, rector of the cathedral; Rev. Father Piette, chancellor; Rev. Father A. Dugas, procureur; and Rev. Father G. Dugas, secretary. The nomination of the vicar-general was reserved.

Several curates were also appointed.

Mass being over, the visiting bishops and clergymen were entertained to dinner in the college hall.

Mr. James Patton, a resident of Montreal for sixty years, died yesterday at the residence of his son, Dr. H. M. Patton, 992 Sherbrooke street. PIG KILLED DROVER.

He Tried to Separate Two Pigs Which Were Fighting.

The Donaldson line steamer Athenia which arrived in port Tuesday, brought over a consignment of live stock for different points in Canada. Among the lot were some big-class pigs for breeding purposes, two of which engaged in a furious fight in their pen before the ship left Glasgow. A drover entered the pen to separate them, when one of them turned upon him savagely and knocked him to the ground. It then made a grab at him, catching him by one of his legs, and mauling him in a horrible manner. Those in the vicinity went to his assistance and succeeded in driving the animal off. When carried out of the pen the man was bleeding profusely from large gaping wounds. He was alive at the time, but soon expired through loss of blood.

"MADE IN CANADA" CLUB PASS TWO RESOLUTIONS

Want the Tariff Removed From Party Politics—Urge Workmen to Study Effect on Each Trade.

A meeting of the "Made-in-Canada" Club was held last evening at 349 Wellington street, at which two resolutions were adopted dealing with tariff problems. Mr. John Rose presided, while Mr. J. Kyle acted as secretary. Addresses were delivered by Messrs. J. Rose, Jas. Strike, W. Darlington, Geo. West, G. Mann, E. Stewart, F. Smith, D. Smith, W. Baskin, and others.

The first resolution, moved by Mr. McDougall, and seconded by Mr. Mann, was as follows:

"Resolved, by this meeting of workingmen, that inasmuch as most governments are chiefly composed of professional men, who know little about the practical side of manufacturing or commercial life, and that the tariff is the most essential factor in the business life of Canada, particularly from a workingman's standpoint, we are of a similar opinion to the Manufacturers' Association, that the tariff should be removed from party politics and placed in the hands of experts, who would thoroughly understand what is needed for the best interests of the country."

The other resolution was moved by Mr. Smith, seconded by Mr. West:

"That, as Canada is already beginning to feel the effects of low wages and low prices prevailing abroad, it is the duty of every workingman to thoroughly acquaint himself with the effects of the tariff upon his own particular trade and calling, and see if it is sufficiently high to keep out the low wage products of Europe."

Point St. Charles

The grounds and clubhouse are receiving their share of attention, and will look at their best on the day of the races.

Miss Maud Fitzwater, of London, Eng., is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. Foster, 461 Bourgeoise street. Miss Fitzwater arrived on the steamship Tunisian.

Miss Nelly Wilson, Wellington street, who has been spending the last few weeks at Kensington, P.E.I., is expected home at the end of this week.

Mr. Frank Bell has returned from a two weeks' visit to his mother, in Toronto.

The R.R.Y.M.C.A. Glee Club and Orchestra meets every Thursday evening at 8 o'clock for practice. There is still room for more members who are musically inclined.

Elizabeth Barber, fifty-seven years of age, died at 226 Knox Street, Point St. Charles. The remains were taken to Cardinal, Ont., where they were interred to-day.

Mr. Otto A. Fleissner's KIDNEYS WERE SOAKED WITH CATARRH

Pe-ru-na Promptly Cured Him

Mr. Otto A. Fleissner Rainier Grand Hotel, Seattle, Wash.

Mr. Otto A. Fleissner, American Epicurean, late Chef to Col. W. J. Coady (Buffalo Bill), now chef at the Rainier Grand Hotel, Seattle, Wash., writes:—

"I suffered with kidney and bladder trouble until life did not seem worth living. I had tried many medicines but did not get any relief until I took Peruna. It was really wonderful how much better I was after I had used this medicine only a week. I did not expect that it would help me permanently, but as long as it was doing me good I continued to use it. At the end of six months I found to my relief that it had rid my system of all poisons, and that I was cured to stay cured. You certainly have a splendid medicine and I gladly endorse it."—Otto A. Fleissner.

Catarrh of the Kidneys a Common Disease—Kidney Trouble Often Fails to Be Regarded as Catarrh by Physicians.

Catarrh of the kidneys is very common indeed. It is a pity that this fact is not better known to the physicians as well as to the people.

People have kidney disease. They take some diuretic, hoping to get better. They never once think of catarrh. Kidney disease and catarrh are seldom associated in the minds of the people, and, alas, it is not very often associated in the minds of the physicians. Too few physicians recognize catarrh of the kidneys. They doctor for something else. They try this remedy and that remedy. The trouble may be catarrh all the time. A few bottles of Peruna would cure them.

Pe-ru-na Cures Catarrh of the Kidneys

Pe-ru-na Removes the Cause of the Kidney Trouble.

Peruna strikes at the very centre of the difficulty by eradicating the catarrh from the kidneys. Catarrh is the cause of kidney difficulty. Remove the cause and you remove the effect. With unerring accuracy Peruna goes right to the spot. The kidneys are soon doing their work with perfect regularity.

Thousands of Testimonials.

Thousands of testimonials from people who have had kidney disease which had gone beyond the control of the physician are received by Dr. Hartman every year, giving Peruna the whole praise for marvellous cures.

BOY BADLY INJURED.

Cornwall, Aug. 25.—(Special.)—Bertie Yates, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Yates, met with a painful accident. Just about twilight he climbed into the loft of his father's storehouse to recover the key of the spring lock which had been left inside. Being of a nervous temperament, the little fellow was startled by a huge cat springing by him, and as he started down the ladder he slipped and fell headlong. He was unconscious for a time, and his moans, as he recovered, brought his mother to the scene. A doctor was sent for and the injured lad was taken to the General Hospital where seven stitches were put in an ugly cut or rather tear across his back. It is believed that this wound was caused by striking the ends of the rounds of the ladder. He had a narrow escape.

GRAIN ELEVATOR AT PORT COLBORNE

Two Million Bushel Elevator Will be Erected—Will Divert Traffic.

Toronto, August 25.—(Special.)— One of the first fruits of the work of the Transportation Commission appointed by the Dominion Government will be a two million bushel elevator at Port Colborne. J. A. Jamieson, of Montreal, was appointed expert to advise on elevator construction. He and Mr. Collingwood Schreiber, Deputy Minister of Railways and Canals, paid a visit yesterday to Port Colborne to inspect the facilities of the port and to see what could be done to divert traffic in grain which now goes to Buffalo.

The Commission had recommended an elevator and Mr. Jamieson concurred in this. He has decided that nothing less than a two million bushel elevator will do. This will be the largest working elevator on the Canadian side of the lake.

Tenders for work will be asked at once. Mr. Jamieson's expectation is that the foundation can be set before winter, and he hopes to have the elevator in operation for next summer's crop. The elevator will be erected on what is known as the west pier.

"How to Shave Yourself" is the title of a unique little booklet issued by Colgate and Company, the famous perfume and soap manufacturers. Any hints that might tend to the alleviation of the shaving man's ills, are to be welcomed, even if they are not, as the Colgate Company's are, accompanied by one of the justly celebrated shaving sticks manufactured by that firm. SURVEY PARTIES WILL BEGIN WORK TO-DAY

Parties to Survey Trent Canal Route Are Under Charge of Mr. E. J. Walsh.

Ottawa, August 25.—(Special.)—Mr. E. J. Walsh leaves Ottawa to-day with the two parties which have been organized for the survey of the Trent Canal. One of them is under Mr. G. L. Law, C.E., of Ottawa, who has recently been engaged on C.P.R. western construction work. Assisting him will be Mr. A. T. Kerr, who has done some surveying on the Trent route before. This party will work between Port Hope and Rice Lake. The other party is in charge of Mr. Hetherington, lately engaged upon the Quebec Bridge and he will be assisted by Mr. Murphy of Halifax, who has been recently doing surveying work upon eastern railways. This party will make the survey between Lake Simcoe and Georgian Bay. Both of the parties will be under the supervision of Mr. Walsh, who will make Ottawa his headquarters that he may be in touch with the survey of the inside basin in Montreal harbor which is also being done under him.

What is Going on in the Political World

QUEBEC IS STRONGLY LIBERAL.

"Will there be an election this fall?" is the question most often on the lips of those interested in politics. Conservatives are trying to persuade themselves that if there should be they stand an excellent chance in Quebec Province. This view is not borne out by those who have travelled through Quebec—quite the reverse.

A gentleman who has recently made a tour of this province with an especial eye open for political indications remarks that Quebec is, if possible, stronger for the Liberal party than ever. Sir Wilfrid Laurier's popularity has not waned one iota; the policy of the Government is just as keenly appreciated as ever, even more so as the prosperity of the province advances. The Grand Trunk Pacific project which means so much for Quebec, as well as the other provinces, is cordially supported. The Dundonald incident was not regarded at any time as a serious political factor, and is in most districts already forgotten.

The Conservatives are hoping that Mr. Tarte's influence will swing a large vote, but The Herald's informant failed to find any evidence of Mr. Tarte's influence, except to a limited extent where his paper circulates. The Conservatives claim to have good indications that they will win at least twenty seats in Quebec, but nothing at present would show that their expectations are based on anything but hope. From one end of Quebec to the other The Herald's informant found the people prosperous and contented. Satisfied with the Government, and not only satisfied with, but proud of, its leader, Quebec, said he, is solid for Laurier and Liberalism let the elections come when they may.

MUSKOKA ELECTION TRIAL.

Many prominent Conservatives are implicated in the changes against A. A. Mahaffy, the Conservative member for Muskoka, who won in the bye-election last spring. There are numerous specific charges of bribery in sums ranging from $2 to $10. One paragraph states that T. W. H. Leavitt, the well-known Conservative worker, or Dr. Beattie Nesbitt, the equally well-known Toronto M.P.P., supplied corruption funds to 136 different people, including many prominent Conservative workers of Muskoka. A good deal of illegal treating is also charged, in which the name of T. Herbert Lennox, of Aurora, who was twice defeated by Hon. E. J. Davis, is conspicuously mentioned.

One of the ironic hits of the campaign was the "Purity Fund" raised by certain Conservatives, ostensibly to cleanse the political atmosphere. The particulars as filed charge that this "Purity Fund" was raised by Leader J. P. Whitney, Dr. Beattie Nesbitt, M.P.P., E. B. Osler, M.P., D. Pyne, M.P.P., E. B. Ryckman, the Toronto Conservative lawyer who acted as treasurer for the fund, and J. W. Flavelle, for the purpose of a corruption fund to aid in the election of Mr. Mahaffy. This money, it is charged, was expended where it would do the most good by Mr. Mahaffy and thirty-six of his agents. The trial opens on Sept. 6, and promises to be full of interest.

SIR WILFRID AT MATAPEDIA.

Matapedia, Que., Aug. 25.—Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier arrived yesterday in their private car attached to the Maritime Express. They were received by Senator Casgrain, Charles Marcil, M.P., and Mrs. Marcil, and C. R. Scoles, manager of the Atlantic & Lake Superior Railway, who presented Lady Laurier with a basket of flowers. Both the Premier and his wife were in splendid humor and anxious to reach Carleton, where they will be guests of Senator and Mrs. Casgrain for a few days. The date of the reception to the Premier at New Carlisle, the country seat of Bonaventure county, will be fixed in a few days. It promises to be a very elaborate affair, and will be participated in by the electors of Bonaventure, Restigouche, Gloucester and Gaspe counties.

WILL MEET IN QUEBEC.

Stuttgart, Germany, Aug. 25.—The fourth International Americanist Congress, which has been in session here since Aug. 18, adjourned after selecting Quebec, Canada, as the next meeting place. The five sessions of the congress were devoted to papers and addresses on ethonoligical, geographical, and other academic questions relating to the American continent.

THE NEW INSURANCE RATING.

It is not well to jump at conclusions. It is jumping at a conclusion to assume that because the specific rating system is to come into effect in a month or two the insurance men are going to lop off the fifty cent charge they put on a few weeks ago. The insurance men, in fact, are not to be complimented upon the way they leaped at the opportunity presented by the publication of Mr. Janin's report. They have made it abundantly clear since that they intended to put on the fifty cents additional charge so as to recoup themselves for recent conflagration losses and as a protest against the unwillingness of the city to set its house in order. They have also made it clear enough that an order for three boilers would not be taken as a signal for abandoning the new charge. Their action was not what it was pretended to be, and they must not be surprised if the public complain when they find that out.

The public will find it out when they come to pay their premiums under the new system of specific rating. The man who wants insurance will find himself directly penalized on a score of points if his premises are not the best they can be made, but these penalties he can avoid by doing what needs to be done. He will also find himself penalized because of general conditions in Montreal over which he has no immediate control, and this penalty cannot be avoided except through the action of the City Council.

If a building has a wood or sheeted cornice, building and stock will be charged a cent on the hundred dollars; but the cornice can be improved and the cent saved. Plain glass in a skylight might, if the skylight were large enough, add ten or twelve cents a hundred to the rate on half a million worth of building and stock; but the rate could be saved by putting in a few dollars worth of wired glass. And so on through scores of instances. Specific rating makes it an object for everybody to improve the quality of the risk. By specific rating the insurance companies hope to be able to make more profit while charging the insured a lower rate. Down to a certain point the rate will be almost absolutely what the insured chooses to make it, and every encouragement will be afforded him to get it down to that point. He and the insurance companies may safely be left to bring about this adjustment. Where both want the rate cut down, and where there is an absolute fixed schedule governing the amounts and conditions of possible reductions, that part may be depended upon to work out well in Montreal as it has in other places.

It is below that point that the new tariff can be improved by the influence of the municipality, and by that influence only.

This system, it should be noted, is already in use in some seventy or more towns and cities in Ontario, and many more in the Maritime Provinces and the West. In Brantford, for example, the "key" rate is now forty cents a hundred, less twenty per cent. for "good experience." Brantford, in other words, has been careful about itself, has had a good fire record, and the man who wants insurance there is started with a rate of thirty-two cents. In Montreal, notwithstanding the ease with which Ald. Lapointe and Ald. Vallieres jump at a more delectable conclusion, it will be very surprising if the rate does not start nearer seventy-five cents, especially in what we know as the congested district. In Brantford this low starting point enables people who go about it earnestly to get a mean rate of sixty cents a hundred for building and eighty-five cents for stock. In the congested Montreal district about the best that can be hoped for under like conditions is a dollar for building and a dollar and a quarter for stock. In other parts of the city, no doubt, lower rates may be obtained. St. Catherine Street west, for example, owing to its relative immunity from the danger of a great conflagration such as would destroy millions of dollars worth of property in a few hours, the "key" rate should be lower. On St. Catherine Street east, where cheaper and closer building increases the risk, the rate should be somewhere between.

What has to be considered by the Council, what pressure from those who will have to pay the rate will force the Council to consider, is how the key rate for the district between Craig Street and the river, and between McGill Street and Jacques Cartier Square, can be brought down to the Brantford basis.

In that corner of Montreal there is doubtless a greater insurable value than in any other similar area in the Dominion. In that corner the companies have to look for the million dollar fire. In that corner, therefore, the city has to exert itself, to provide all possible precautions against the occurrence of a million dollar fire. That is the whole problem.

What ought to be done is, perhaps, not a matter to be decided off hand. The example of Philadelphia, of New York, of Detroit, points to the belief that the all essential thing is to be sure of an abundant supply of water, at high pressure, at all points, so that the "conflagration risk" may be minimized to the uttermost. To reject the proposal to substitute a ten-inch main for a four or six-inch main on a narrow street, with high buildings on both sides, is surely the reverse of wisdom. To beat down a fire wherever it may start is the main thing, and that cannot be done as well from a small main as from a large one.

If we are right in assuming that the "key rate" in the congested district will be seventy-five cents, or thereabouts, for buildings, and a dollar for stock, we pass naturally to consider by how much the installation of a special system of water mains for fire fighting only could be expected to reduce that rate. Inquiries made as to this indicate that twenty-five to thirty cents would be a fair reduction to expect, with perhaps another ten cents if the electric wires were put underground. Such a reduction it is surely well worth the while of the city to work for. Well on to a quarter of a million a year could probably be saved in this way alone, to say nothing of preventing the great waste incident to every big fire.

What guarantee, it may properly be asked, is there that even after the provision of such safeguards, the companies would reduce the rates? They might, or might not, agree in advance to do so. In the case of Ottawa, they specifically agreed to make a reduction of fifteen cents on the "key rate" if certain requirements were complied with. The requirements have been, broadly, complied with, and the reduction has not yet been made. The Toronto conflagration, with its tremendous loss, has since intervened, and the companies are not well disposed toward any reductions. There is a good reason to believe, however, that this unwillingness will not prevail against the specific promise, and that, as honorable business men, the insurance managers will implement their engagement. But trust in the honor of business men is not the sole dependence in such circumstances. If the risk is improved, and companies now in the field do not lower the rates, other companies will be only too eager to enter the field, and to quote rates suited to the actual hazard. The companies would be forced, by outside competition, to do the decent thing. To-day, because the risk is bad; because the non-tariff companies, fresh from an experience of heavy punishment in Toronto, will not take risks in the congested district; and because there is nothing to attract American and other companies not already doing business here, the treaty companies can do what they like,—or, as they put it, what they must.

All the change to the new system of rating means is that hereafter there will be dangling before every business man the opportunity to reduce part of the rate, and before the city the opportunity of reducing the "key rate" to somewhere near the Brantford basis. For our part we are unable to believe that the business public will rest content to pay thirty to fifty cents a hundred dollars on all the millions involved when that much could be saved by the city's seriously addressing itself to the problem of how best to prevent the occurrence of a million dollar fire.

THE KING ON A HOLIDAY.

King Edward is travelling in Europe as the Duke of Lancaster, one of his secondary titles, in order that he may be relieved of the tiresome ceremonial which traditional custom would compel the authorities of the places he is visiting to observe, did he enter them under the official title of King of England.

Of course, everybody who is anybody at Marienbad, the fashionable Austrian watering place where he was visiting a few days since, knew who he was. Under these circumstances it is interesting to note that no fear of anarchists, cranks or tuft hunters prevented him from walking about like an ordinary individual and that he raised a strong objection to the Mayor carrying out his intention of adding to the three policemen on duty. Of course he was "mobbed" by the usual crowd of ill-bred tourists but the natives and the "common people" as usual, showed their good taste and appreciation of his desire to mingle among them like an ordinary member of society by not betraying that obtrusive curiosity.

The astonishing and satisfactory feature of the incident which makes it worthy of mention is that King Edward, whether at home or abroad, can go about fearlessly and in comfort, while the movements of other rulers, Presidents as well as Kings, has to be safeguarded by a small army of military and secret service spies and to be carried out in accordance with a prearranged time tabled programme, submitted to the Chief of Police.

MORE ABOUT WOOLLENS.

As usual, the domestic troubles of a woollen mill suffice for a tariff text for opponents of the Government. Less attention is given, however, to the report that considerable extensions are being made to another woollen mill. Temporary shortening of hours at Montreal condemns the tariff. Extensions at Amherst under the same tariff are unworthy of notice.

There were Canadian makers of woollens who were doing well before the last revision of the tariff. They didn't ask for it. They are doing well yet.

There were others who were not doing well, who clamored for more tariff, and who seem to be doing no better now that they have been given the increase.

There are some business conditions legislation cannot govern.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Canada is with Laurier.

The black rust liar had a very brief, but a very exciting career.

At last the Gazette has discovered evidences of an approaching election. That settles it.

When one thinks of how short the Conservative party is in the matter of leading men, the prominence of Sam Hughes, otherwise inexplicable, can be understood.

The fire insurance prescription hasn't been changed. The stuff is put up in another style of bottle, that's all.

If some concerns are to be kept going the Government will not only have to make a high price but also take all the output at that price. A tariff under which others prosper appears to be no good to them.

Here's Sir Frederick Carrington, a British general, saying Canadians are quite capable of commanding the Canadian militia. Can he possibly have both hands on the flag?

The Gazette wants to blame Laurier because the price of cheese is low. The issue is, therefore, Laurier and dollar wheat versus Borden and cheap cheese.

An aspiration is a joy for ever, a possession as solid as a landed estate, a fortune which we can never exhaust, and which gives us year by year a revenue of pleasurable activity.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

The Session's Personal Side

(Toronto News.)

The Premier closed the session in the best of health. Perhaps continuous sitting in the hot and stuffy chamber told on him a little toward the end, but a few days' rest will put away all that and make him fit for session or campaign, whichever may be in store. On the sentimental side, the passing years are placing Sir Wilfrid in the same position in respect to his followers and to Canadians generally that Sir John Macdonald so long held.

As in past sessions, so in this, Sir Wilfrid has always looked the Premier, always dressed and carried himself in a way that has made Canadians, of whatever political stripe, proud to point him out as their First Minister. Sir William Mulock and Mr. Borden might come in on broiling days in cool-looking flannel suits, but Sir Wilfrid, even in the most torrid weather, never permitted himself anything less dressy than a drab morning coat and white waistcoat; and his waistcoats show how much character and dignity there can be in that minor article of attire.

From a purely oratorical point of view, Sir Wilfrid's best deliverance this session was that where he impassionately asked if his sixty years of loyalty was not to count for more than a slip of the tongue, a question which the great majority of both sides of the House were ready to answer in the affirmative.

Mr. Borden.

And how has it fared on the other side? The leader there has been growing, too. From being a strange name, a risky experiment, Mr. R. L. Borden has become the recognized and loyally-supported leader of the Conservative party. His name is not yet one to conjure with, but that time, barring accidents, is coming. Mr. Borden is one of the few English-speaking members of the House who, since coming into Parliament, has gained a working knowledge of French. In this he, "with thronging duties pressed," puts to shame the scores of English-speaking members who, session after session, neglect to do what so many French-speaking members are so constantly doing as to occasion no remark.

Sir Wilfrid has called him a scrap-book orator, and Mr. Borden retorted that Sir Wilfrid was sometimes guilty of the same practice; but at the same time, doubtless, he has laid the suggestion to heart, for a man learns more from his critics than from his flatterers, and if Mr. Borden has erred it has been on the side of being overprepared. He has given chapter and verse for all he has had to say about the decline of the Liberals from their ante-election altitude.

The Big Four.

Of the "four mightiest" who stand around Sir Wilfrid, there is little to be said. The success of Sir William Mulock and Mr. Sifton in managing their departments, Mr. Fielding's recurring surpluses, and Mr. Fitzpatrick's unquestioned ability in handling the legal aspects of all questions that arise, have rendered them largely immune to criticism. The Opposition, for the most part, let the front line alone, and concentrated their fire on the second. It is perhaps noteworthy that while other ministers were criticized for giving favorites too much salary, Sir William was charged with allowing deserving men to live on hopes rather than increases in salary. As for Mr. Fitzpatrick, it is said that in the strong acid of his intellect he has solved all problems but Ned Clarke. The magnetism, hypnotism, or what you will, by which this brother Irishman rolls up bigger and bigger majorities in West Toronto is the one thing which remains a wonder to Mr. Fitzpatrick.

A Surprise.

Mr. Paterson had a comparatively easy time of it, so far as criticism went. Sir Frederick Borden had the troubles incidental to militia affairs, and they were not small this year, but the weight of the Opposition attack fell upon Mr. Prefontaine, and Mr. Fisher, to a lesser degree upon Mr. Emmerson, and in the last few days of the session upon Sir Richard Cartwright.

Mr. Fisher showed unexpected debating strength in the Dundonald matter, and as to his regular work, there seems to have been a shifting of the ground of attack by the Opposition. It was the custom to belittle the work done in the chicken-fattening and cheese-cooling stations, etc., as of little importance, but the growing value of these products and the interest of the farming community in the work has taken the edge off this criticism, and now the charge is that the minister has neglected some very important departments of his work.

Mr. Emmerson had a hard position to fill, coming into the Cabinet in the middle of the Grand Trunk Pacific project, and with his own record in favor of Government ownership blazed clear behind him. He so handled himself as to fulfill neither the laudations of his friends nor the sneers of his enemies, and he has left the way open to either win or lose his spurs as an administrator in the coming year.

Mr. Brodeur appears to be taking hold well. Mr. Lemieux in his few speeches made a good impression, and Mr. Hyman is proving one of the strongest men the Liberals have discovered for many a long day. Mr. Belcourt, though he entered it nervously, has ended his first session as Speaker with credit to himself.

In the East one of the young Liberals who has shown strength is Mr. Gervais, the newly elected member from Montreal. To Mr. Gervais speaking English is much like writing with his left hand, and yet he forces himself to use this (to him as yet) inferior instrument in order that he may get his ideas before the majority in the House. Many consider him one of the most promising young Liberals Quebec has, and inside party lines he has displayed quite an amount of independence.

To the Speaker's Left.

On the Opposition side one of the notable things of the session has been the return of Mr. Monk to the Quebec leadership. Mr. Monk is one of the men who adds to the prestige of Parliament. His style is thought by some to be a little too deliberate, a little too much perhaps like that of Westminster to suit the House, but if so that is to the discredit of the House, and not of Mr. Monk.

Mr. Casgrain was energetic, and showed that the Quebec Conservative contingent, though small, could be effective. The Ontario Opposition members bore the brunt of the "team work" of Opposition. Dr. Sproule has learned the value of concentration. He has been in danger in the past of lessening his undoubted strength in the House by talking too often, and he has not yet entirely got over this, but he has gone a long way in that direction. Mr. Clarke has played in the game in his own inimitable even-tempered way, while Messrs. Clancy, Ingram, Blain, Bennett, Lancaster, Lennox, and Henderson did much of the regular work of criticism through the long bills, assisted by Dr. Roche, of Marquette, Manitoba, who advanced perhaps as much as anyone on the Conservative side this session, and by Mr. Bell, of Pictou. Mr. Haggart naturally was most effective in his railway criticisms, but the man the Government seemed to dislike most to see rise in this connection, and whose criticisms, particularly on the Grand Trunk Pacific, received the most attention in the way of rebuttal, was Mr. Barker, of Hamilton. Mr. Osler's criticism of the budget was admittedly the best he has yet made.

"Up to Us."

(New York Herald.)

There is much political clamor in favor of the commercial advantages offered by our new island possessions and dependencies. There is dominant a national spirit of swift progress and expression. A Senator of the United States to-day said to the writer:

"There are 'famous' men in the United States Senate right now who would approve of a war of conquest in Patagonia, or a free trade treaty with Abyssinia, but if you tried to get them to vote for reciprocity or trade unity between Canada and the United States they would say: 'Never! It would hurt the fish business of Gloucester, Massachusetts!' or 'It would wipe out two lumber camps in Chipp County, Minnesota!' And they would sit up nights making combinations with Senatorial friends to beat the proposed treaty. That's the way it has been for twenty-five years.

"Most of them know we ought to have a commercial arrangement with Canada, but a few are afraid of their isolated constituents, and the rest don't know or care a rap about anything except re-election. The few are strong enough to swing the rest, and so far the people of the country haven't hollered so that you could hear them. But they will. That very business of reciprocal trade or commercial unity with Canada will be an issue some day, and it would better be pretty soon or never, because the Canucks have been pretty decent about it, and they're just about tired of us."

The American people have never been advised fully as to whether under reciprocity Canadians are capable of buying as much of our produce and products, head for head, as the Americans themselves buy, or, in other words, whether the Canadian would be as good a customer as the American.

In the best consideration of the subject by Canadians and Americans, nationality and governmental patriotism have nothing to do. It is an international business proposition that has been forced by the developments of the last two years into one of supreme importance to the United States. Canada always has taken the initiative, and never has had the advantage on the premises. It is "up to us" now.

STUDY CANADA FOR ENGLISH READERS

That is Mr. G. Foster Fraser's Mission—Thinks the Japs Are Too Conceited.

An interesting personage is just now staying at the Windsor in the person of Mr. J. Foster Fraser, who is parliamentary candidate for a Huddersfield constituency. Mr. Fraser, who is travelling through Canada for the purpose of "writing it up," has had more hairbreadth escapes than most people would care to think of. He has wheeled through China, has travelled in disguise through Manchuria, and the times he has carried his life in his hands are apparently without number.

Mr. Fraser is seeking personal knowledge of the conditions of Canada as they are and is disregarding all previous impressions he may have formed from reports that have reached England. "I want," said he, "to find out what your commercial, social and political sentiments really are, what are the conditions of the masses, and I shall publish my impressions in a series of articles in the English papers."

Mr. Fraser does not blindly lean to the Japs in their present war with Russia. He is distinctly of the opinion that ultimate victory over the Russians would add considerably to their already huge store of conceit, and accentuate their overwhelming belief in themselves. He is moreover of the opinion that if they defeat Russia, they will practically run amuck among the other powers until they are severely mauled and relegated and humbled to their natural position. Mr. Fraser further doesn't by any means consider that in this matter Russia is more to blame than Japan. They are both seeking territorial advantages and the balance of aggression is, in his opinion very evenly divided.

Mr. Fraser, who is a fellow of the Royal Geographical Society, and a member of the Authors Club in London, goes westward to-day.

OTTAWA ISOLATION HOSPITAL.

Ottawa, Aug. 25.—(Special.)—Some irregularities in the accounts of the Ottawa Isolation Hospital created interest in the Board of Health meeting last night. It was expected something would happen. The solicitor of the grocery contractor, J. G. Stewart, stated that the shortages and overcharges discovered by Auditor Cliff were due to poor bookkeeping. His client had suffered as much as the city. He wanted an investigation, and offered to go into the accounts with the auditor.

The board decided to at once cancel Mr. Stewart's contract and to give the hospital staff, with the exception of domestics, a month's notice, so unnecessary positions may be done away with in the reorganization of the staff.

EASTERN TOWNSHIP'S NEWS.

Sherbrooke, Aug. 25.—((Special.)—There was a good attendance at the first day of the 59th annual fair of the Stanstead County Agricultural Association at Ayer's Flat yesterday. The exhibitor's are ahead of last year, and the attendance to-day is unusually large.

John Moore, a foreman at the Johnston asbestos mines, Thetford mines, was seriously injured yesterday by being crushed between two loaded cars. He is injured internally, and slight hopes are entertained as to his recovery.

An Italian, giving the Scotch name of Mackie, was injured in the Orfall Mountain Railway at Bolton, yesterday, and brought to the Sacred Heart Hospital, Sherbrooke.

St. Peter's Church, Cookshire, came near being damaged by fire on Sunday evening just previous to the evening service. One of the lamps fell to the floor, and when discovered had burned quite a hole in the woodwork. The fire was extinguished before serious damage was done.

Allir Marceau, committed suicide at Thetford mines on Tuesday by shooting himself with a revolver. He had beeen suffering for some time from a bad leg, and was about to proceed to the station to go to the hospital in Sherbrooke, when he went to the barn and blew out his brains. He has had a good deal of family trouble lately, and this, together with his sickness, is believed to have unbalanced his mind.

OPERATION HASTENED WALDECK-ROUSSEAU'S END

French Surgeons Blame German Operator—Did Not Believe it Was Cancer.

Dr. Adelstan de Martigny, who is at present taking a special course of medicine in Paris has written an interesting letter of the recent death of Waldeck-Rousseau, ex-Premier of France and the reason why a German doctor was called in towards the last.

Six months ago Doctors Terrien and Potrier made an examination of the ex-premier and found that he was affected by a cancer that was not only incurable but could not be operated on. The doctors notified the patient's nephew of the result of their examination but did not say anything to his wife.

A few weeks before his death his wife demanded that an operation should be performed. And it was only then that she was told there was not any hope. In her despair she then decided to call in Dr. Kehr, the German surgeon. When he had made an examination he thought he found traces of gravel. In the operation he worked for two hours without finding any trace of gravel and suddenly, without looking for it, came on the cancer. In touching it he occasioned a hemorrhage that hastened the crisis. Three French surgeons who were present certified these facts and Kehr, immediately after the operation, left France.

QUEBEC SOUTHERN RAILWAY REPORT

Earnings Increased Over Last Year and Expenses Showed a Decrease.

A report of the Quebec Southern Railway has been made and forwarded to Judge Burbidge, of the Exchequer Court, by Mr. Dessaulles, receiver of the road.

The report which shows the revenue and expenditure of the road since it was placed in liquidation, is as follows:

The total earnings of the three months from April 1st to June 30, 1904, amounted to $56,001.65, as compared with $43,921.46 for the corresponding period of 1903, an increase of $12,080.19, or over 27 per cent. The total expense for operating the road for the three months was $40,500.18, as compared with $42,517.77 for the corresponding period of 1903, a decrease of $2,017.59. It will thus be seen that while the earnings have increased $12,080.09, the expenses have decreased $2,017.59 making a net gain of $14,097.84.

Of the above amount of earnings, $18,254.94 was earned by the South Shore division, as compared with $12,744.63 in 1903, an increase of $5,510.31, or over 40 per cent., and $37,746.71 was earned by the Southern division, as compared with $31,176.83 in 1903, an increase of $6,569.88, or over 21 per cent.

The cost of operating the South Shore division was $15,575.61 in 1904, as compared with $13,920.76 in 1903, an increase of $1,654.85. The cost of operating the Southern division in 1904 was $24,924.57, as compared with $28,597.01 in 1903, a decrease of $3,672.44.

Notwithstanding this decrease in expenses for the current year, the court will notice from the reports, an extraordinary expense of $1,858.12 for repairing damage caused by washout at Boucherville in April, an increase of $1,276.57 expended in improving rolling stock and motive power; and an increase of $1,887.13 for ties over the expenditures during the corresponding period last year, a total of $5,021.82, which has been included in the operating expenses.

The 30,000 ties authorized by the court have been purchased and nearly all paid for out of the surplus earnings, details of which will appear in August and July statements. Practically all of these ties have been put in the track, and the remainder will be put in before the close of the month.

Some material repairs have been made to culverts and bridge and more work of this kind will be done during the ensuing six weeks. Trains have been running on schedule time, which has resulted in increased passenger earnings. The extension into Pierreville has been completed, traffic is being carried to and from that village; and most of the cost has already been paid. The earnings for the months of July and August give every indication of being greater than those for June and contracts have recently been made for material going into the Singer Manufacturing Company's plant at St. Johns, which, it is expected, will yield ten thousand dollars in revenue to the road during the next three months.

MAY RE-IMPORT ARTICLES WITHOUT PAYING DUTY

An Important Amendment to Customs Regulations of Interest to Manufacturers.

Ottawa, August 25. (Special) A regulation of considerable importance to Canadian manufacturers who do a foreign trade, has been adopted by order-in-council upon the recommendation of the Customs Department. It provides that articles of Canadian manufacture may be re-imported temporarily without the payment of duty, when returned to Canada for repairs and to be again exported.

For example, a Canadian manufacturer may export a complicated piece of machinery. This may get out of order in which case it could only be repaired here. Heretofore that piece of machinery when entering Canada would have to pay duty. Now it can be admitted to Canada free of duty for repairs subject to re-exportation. It is provided in the regulations that articles shall be identified to the satisfaction of the collector of customs at the port of entry, and that a sufficient bond for double the amount of customs duties shall be delivered to the collector as security for the exportation of the articles or payment of duty thereon within six months from the time of entry.

WEST IS SOLID FOR LIBERAL CAUSE

People Approve of Immigration Policy and G.T.P. Bargain.

"There is a very strong feeling in favor of the present Government throughout the West from Winnipeg to the coast. Its general policy has given satisfaction to the people, and from what I have seen there, I should judge that there will be a strong representation of Western Liberals sent to next Parliament."

So said Mr. W. V. Duffie, of Messrs. Vineberg & Co., who has just returned from a long business trip throughout the Canadian West.

The people of Manitoba and the Territories were especially pleased with the Government's immigration policy, which was doing so much to fill up their vacant lands in an unprecedentedly fast manner, and with an excellent class of settlers. This was in no small degree building up the prosperity of the West, and naturally made the people look with favor upon the Government which is giving such practical proof of its activity in advancing the interests of the country.

The people of the West, said Mr. Duffie, were also much pleased with the prospect of soon getting the Grand Trunk Pacific into their country, to give them increased transportation, as well as the benefits of competition. The general opinion was that the Government had made an excellent bargain, and one decidedly in the interests of the prairie settlers, as well as the rest of Canada.

In the Territories, Mr. Duffie found a strong feeling that the time was at hand when they should be erected into provinces and given local autonomy. He, however, did not think this would give the Conservatives the support they hoped for out of it, because the general opinion seemed to be that when the proper time came the Laurier Government would see that the Territories got their desserts. In fact the desire for local autonomy, he thought, would rather prove a source of strength to the Liberal interests in the Territories than otherwise.

In fact from his observations throughout the West, Mr. Duffie had come to the conclusion that next election would see a strong Liberal contingent from the West on the Speaker's right at Ottawa.

The whole country seemed to be prosperous, and when he left Winnipeg, some two weeks ago, there was every prospect of an excellent harvest, no black rust having then shown itself. Mr. Duffie was inclined to regard the reports of the damage from this cause as a good deal exaggerated, although from advices he had received, there was no doubt that in some sections the rust was causing a good deal of damage.

GERMAN RECRUITS WERE TORTURED AND STARVED

Court Martial Brought to Light Cases of Horrible Brutality by Officers.

Berlin, Aug. 25.—Scandalous abuse of authority and ferocious brutality were brought to light during the trial before a court-martial at Glogan, in Silesia, of two non-commissioned officers named Lux and Kwasnig.

A recruit named Klemmt suffered especially at the hands of Lux. The tyrant once divided Klemmt's daily bread ration by chalk lines into eight parts, and forbade him to eat more than one portion per day.

Manly dignity, and self-respect were systematically crushed out of the soldiers by the accused. One day Lux ordered Klemmt to be led through the mess room at dinner time with bare legs, because the unfortunate man had neglected to wash himself properly.

This treatment so wounded Klemmt's self-esteem that he ran away, threw himself in front of a train, and was killed. No fewer than 253 charges were proved against Lux alone; and still his superiors maintained that both the prisoners were considered efficient soldiers. Lux was sentenced to eighteen months and Kwasnig to one year's imprisonment.

GEN. CARRINGTON FAVORS CANADIAN

Major General Sir Frederick Carrington, of South African war fame, is at the Windsor Hotel to-day, on his way to Winnipeg, where he will go hunting in company with Senator Kirchoffer, of Brandon.

Sir Frederick was seen at the Windsor this morning and spoke entertainingly upon several matters. He is much impressed with Canada. "You have a great country here," he said, "a beautiful country, the future of which is assured because it is established and founded upon a substantial agricultural basis, the zest possible for the greatness of any country.

"Another feature of Canada is its great waterways. If they had such waterways in Africa they would assist materially in the development of that country. We have plenty of large rivers there but none of them are navigable to the sea, owing to the sand bars invariably found at the mouth. Some of the sand bars have been dredged out but they are always dangerous on account of the sand filling in again."

"Speaking of Canada, Sir Frederick, what do you think of the proposal recently made that the commander-in-chief of the Canadian militia should be selected from Canadian officers?"

"'Pon my word, it's a good idea" said Sir Frederick, "You have many very capable officers here who have all the necessary qualifications to command the Canadian troops and who would command them successfully. They have the further advantage of knowing the country, the temperament of the people and the requirements of the service and this knowledge would certainly assist in making their command successful and in keeping the standard of Canada's militia as high as possible. For in a colony of Canada's importance the standard should be high."

"After Lord Dundonald's experience here do you think that any other Imperial officers would desire to accept the command."

But General Carrington would not be induced to discuss the Dundonald matter. He merely smiled an enigmatical smile that might have meant anything and again remarked—"You have a great country here."

FAVORS CHINESE LABOR.

Returning to African affairs Sir Frederick said that he was inclined to favor the introduction of Chinese labor into the Rand mines. "The labor must be secured" said he, "and though there are plenty of Kaffir labor in South Africa, the Kaffirs won't work. They are in a way demoralized by the war as they were well paid for work they did at that time in the way of transporting goods and they still have money left. Until that is gone they refuse to work.

"The operation of the mines means practically the prosperity of Africa as it makes a difference to every little town and seaport in the country. Labor can not be secured to work these mines unless Chinese are brought in. So I say by all means bring in the Chinese. Their importation might have a bad effect upon the future of the country if they were allowed to swamp it but such will not be the case. All Chinese and other laborers brought in will be kept in barracks and when their time is up they will be sent back. A strict watch will be kept on them and none will be allowed to escape through the country. Altogether I am much in favor of the plan even if it has caused so much discussion in the British House."

Major-General Sir Frederick Carrington, K.C.B., K.C.M.G., is one of the British officers who gained much honor in the South African war when he commanded the Rhodesian Field Force. He has a distinguished war record. He commanded the light horse in the Transkei war in 1877-78 and the colonial forces against Sekukuni in the Transvaal in 1878-1879, commanded the native levies in the Zulu rebellion and commanded the colonial forces in the Basuto war in 1881. He was appointed to the command of the Bechuanoland police in 1893 and was military adviser to the African High Commissioner in the Matabele war of 1893 and general officer commanding the forces in the Rhodesian rebellion. He also commanded the infantry at Gibraltar, 1895-99 and prior to the South African war, commanded the Belfast district.

MESSRS. LEPAGE & CO. ARE SUING DS. MARCOTTE

Claim There Were Irregularities in Connection With the Transfer of the Business.

The case in which Joseph Marcotte is suing Messrs. Lepage & Co. for $40,000, promises many interesting features. Messrs. Lepage have now entered no fewer than five counter actions, in which they charge the plaintiff with serious irregularities in connection with the sale of the business. Messrs. Lepage claim that when the business was sold Marchand was in partnership with a Mr. Bastien, who subsequently retired from the firm. When Marchand discovered that Messrs. Lepage, who had bought the stock on a guarantee that it was worth $40,000, were making an inventory of it, and had discovered the valueto be very much less, he brought Bastien back into the firm and induced him, as a partner, to make a conservatory seizure. Bastien, however, on discovering that he was in a false position, immediately released the seizure and retired from the field. Marchand thereupon took a seizure in his own name, closing the store and claiming that the stock was his. This, Messrs. Lepage contest absolutely, and are claiming on this count alone $10,000 damages. Messrs. Lepage take further action against Marchand for $5,000 for obstructing the sidewalk and creating a disturbance, and Mr. Lepage personally takes action, in which he claims $3,000, for libel. Mr. Juliette Lepage also makes a demand for assignment against Marcotte for goods supplied, value $1,473.85, which has been repeatedly demanded.

HAD PASSED CENTURY MARK.

Morrisburg, Ont., August 25.—(Special.)—Mr. Joseph Smith, the oldest resident in Eastern Ontario, and probably the oldest in the province, died at his home in Osnabruck Township, Stormont County, yesterday, in his 105th year. He was a native of Ireland, but came to Canada when a young man, and resided in Osnabruck for over seventy-five years. He was a highly respected gentleman and retained all his faculties almost to the time of his death. He was a staunch Conservative, and at the last provincial election marked his ballot as usual.

WILL ENTERTAIN BLACK WATCH BAND

The 5th Royal Scots are making preparations to accord a "Scotch welcome" to their distinguished guests, the band of the Black Watch, who have accepted the hospitality of the Montreal "Kilties" during their stay in the city.

Owing to the uncertainty of the arrival of the Canada, on which the band are travelling, it was found impossible to order a full parade of the regiment, but the officers of the 5th have requested as many of the men as possible to be at the wharf on the occasion, to escort the visitors to their hotel. Major Rose and the bandmaster will stay at the Windsor, while they are in Montreal.

As the Black Watch band will be in Montreal all day Saturday, the officers of the 5th have arranged to have them take a trolley ride around the city, and out to Lachine, where they will enjoy the novelty of running the rapids.

They will leave Montreal on their tour at an early hour Sunday morning.

The band will return to Montreal on October 1, to give three concerts, and on that occasion the 5th will probably arrange a church parade, as the guests will spend a Sunday here.

The steamer Canada will arrive in Quebec at midnight to-night. She will leave there about six o'clock tomorrow morning and will arrive in port here between six and seven o'clock to-morrow evening.

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA

HIS MAJESTY'S OPENING.

His Majesty's Theatre, which has undergone extensive alterations during the past few weeks, will reopen its doors on Monday evening. The initial attraction being the favorite prima donna, Miss Lulu Glaser, who will be seen in a new comic opera called "A Madcap Princess." The book is by Harry B. Smith, and the music by Ludwig Englander.

"A Madcap Princess" is a musical adaptation of Charles Major's novel, "When Knighthood Was in Flower," made famous in its dramatic form by Miss Julia Marlowe. No comic opera star who comes to Montreal is more popular than Miss Lulu Glaser, her several visits in "Dolly Varden" having won for her hosts of friends in this city. In her new vehicle, it is said, that she has found a role quite as congenial as was Dolly, one that gives her quite as many opportunities to display her rather remarkable talent as a comedienne.

It is promised that Charles B. Dillingham, who is now Miss Glaser's manager, has provided her with a most capable supporting company, and has secured stage settings that are not only elaborate, but in keeping artistically with the atmosphere of the times.

The box office at His Majesty's will open on Thursday morning for the sale of seats and boxes.

TWO SAILOR PALS.

The mutual devotion of two sailor pals is the dominant motive of the nautical drama entitled "Two Little Sailor Boys," which will be produced in this city on Aug. 29, at the Academy. London thought this story of boyish devotion, and self-sacrifice excelled even the celebrated "Two Little Vagrants," New York also at the Academy of Music last spring took the boys to its heart, the run there extending several months. The new drama is to be seen in only a few of the larger cities this season.

Coming to the Theatre Francais next week is Harry Bryant's Extravaganza Company. The opening burlesque is entitled "Wild Oats," and serves as an excellent vehicle to start the programme in motion. This is followed by a long list of specialties that appear in rapid succession, and include Kelly and Reno, comedy acrobats; Barrett and Bell, in Celtic wit; McIntyre and Primrose, black face comedians; Arlington and Delmore, sketch artists, and Collins and Vack, the Dutch duo. The closing portion of the programme is a satire on New York's latest fad, a female hotel, embellished by a large chorus of new scenery and costly costumes.

NOTES OF LABOR UNIONS

A special meeting of the executive of the Trades and Labor Council has been called for this evening at 8 o'clock.

A mass meeting of the stationary engineers will be held in St. Joseph's Hall at two o'clock Sunday afternoon. Reorganization of the union is the special purpose of the assembly

A mass meeting of laboring men will be held on Thursday, Aug. 25, at 8 p.m., in St. Joseph's Hall, with a view to bringing about the release of Schwartz from confinement. Several distinguished speakers will address the meeting in French, English and Hebrew.

Judging from the number of unions that have signified their intention of taking part in the Labor Day parade, that event promises to be even more imposing than in former years. For the prompt organization of the Jacques Cartier Typographical Union to take part in the annual parade, great credit is due their president, Mr. Tardif. The typos. will form in front of La Presse office and march to join the procession, attended by a band.

At the last meeting of the Union Label League, held on Tuesday evening, at 261 Rivard street, many encouraging communications were read from individuals and firms friendly to the league. Mr. Salmon presided, with Mr. L. M. Dupont as secretary. Letters were read from the Hamilton Typographical Union and from Mr. Lavoie, a former secretary, and several contracts for labels were filed.

JUDGE ROBIDOUX RECOVERED.

Mr. Justice Robidoux has returned from a sojourn of several weeks at Mount Clemens. Judge Robidoux's health is completely restored and he will be able to again occupy his seat on the bench in September.

THE GREAT RUBY

By T. W. Hanshew, Author of "The World's Finger," "The Mallison Mystery."

CHAPTER XXVII.

In the meantime the two dogcarts —Lady Hemlon's and Job's—clashed down the three-shaded road to the highway, and bore westward in the direction of Lonewood Cottage, the velvet-like darkness hanging over them and about them like a pall, and making it difficult for the drivers to see the way.

But the horses knew it if they did not and raced onward as though they knew the importance of the mission, and had been granted a special power or divination which kept them free of every treacherous spot wherein a hoof might be twisted or a wheel wrenched off. And in the midst of the wild drive, excited words kept flying back and forth from vehicle to vehicle, and suggestions were thrown out by almost every member of the party.

"Jack, dear, wouldn't it be as well if he were to make some effort to communicate with the police and get them to assist us?" said Lady Hemlon, mother-like thinking of the welfare of her boy. "You are far from being as strong as you ought to be to attempt a thing of this sort, and Betty Millet has told you that there are a dozen or more men in league with the Luttrells. Don't you think it would be better if we were to get assistance?"

"Undoubtedly, mater; but the question is, where are we to get it? As far as I know, there is nothing that could possibly be termed a body of police nearer than Penvarney, and that's miles further than we are going. Unless we can manage to rattle up a stray constable or so on the way, I don't see where the 'assistance' is to come from. Dou you, Job? You know this part of the country better than I."

"Beant noa constable 'cept one ower Shemuses Neck way, sir, and we'm goin' in 'tother direction. Might knock up a farm hand or two at Lem Polfort's or Martha Tremaine's on the way, though us'll have to goa a full mile out of our course to do 't."

"And that's not to be thought of at a time like this—when every moment counts. I'm afraid we can't reckon much on the idea of 'assistance,' mater—male assistance, I mean—and that, whatever fighting there is like to be, will have to be left to Job and me. Aren't afraid of a batch of Cinghalese niggers, are you, Job?

"Beant afeared of foreigners o' noa sort, sir; was born and bred in Devon," said Job in reply. "Reckon a Devon's lad's equal to five o' they foreign chaps any day. Besides, I've fetched an axe, look! and a few pitch-forks and the like for they wimmen folk. Sorry I be for any man who tries standin' up again Janet wi' a pitch-fork; fegs! yes, that I be—'specially if un's got the scent of a thing strong'n water on heem breath."

What response his temperate better half might have made to this remark can never be recorded, for at that moment Tilly Millet gave a sudden startled cry and laid a nervous hand upon her aunt's arm.

"Eh! look, Aunt Betty, look!" she said, half rising in the swaying dogcart and pointing back through the darkness to where, above the trees, a little tongue of lapping orange light curled up against the velvet blackness of the sky. "It's fire! it's fire! and there's nowt back there but the farm. Oh! mistress, mistress, I made sure I put out all the lights before we left, and now see! It can be nowt but the farm; it can be nowt else, comin' from wheer it do."

Lady Hemlon turned—they all turned—and looked back to where the flame signal burnt red against the sky.

"It is the farm; it must be; there is no other building in that direction," she said agitatedly. "It is afire! We must go back at once—or, no! there are dearer things than one's home to be thought of to-night. Drive on, Jack, drive on! It must go, the old house where I have tasted my bitterest sorrow and my dearest joy. Let it burn, let it go to ashes if it must; I shall lose many a thing that may be of value to us if Lord St. Omer fights your claim—as he will; but what is that to saving a life that you love? Drive on, dear, and we won't even look back upon it."

He leant over and kissed her.

"What a darling you are," he said. "Mater, it's good of you. I'll remember it always, and you shan't regret, as I'm a living man, you shan't."

"I don't regret even now," she answered. "You are my boy; nothing matters but your happiness."

Then she laid a tender hand upon his arm—she could not see his face in the thick darkness—and resolutely turned her back upon that glowing glare of red and orange light.

"Some of us must have trodden on a match or overturned a candle without noticing it in our haste to get away," was her only comment, her only allusion to the matter after that; and, although the light kept on growing and growing until all the dark behind them was put to flight and all the sky above tre trees that clustered round the farmhouse was red with the hue of flame, she spoke of it no more; simply sat quiet with her hand on Jack's arm and her face turned resolutely toward the direction in which they were driving.

For half an hour the mad race along the highway and round the verge of the cliff road and over the broad stretch of waste land beyond continued; then of a sudden a gleam of light struck up out of the darkness into which they were heading, and Betty Millet gave a startled cry.

"There's the cottage, there! there!" she said excitedly. "There's a light in the dining room, and I left it all dark, and there's none in the little room where I left mother. Oh! be quick, sir, be quick! The Lord send that we are not too late."

They were not—if one could judge from appearance; for as they drove up to the cottage door no eager sentinel called out to them, no Cinghalese watcher interfered with their movements, and nothing but the stillness of death greeted their coming.

Old Janet was out of the cart and charging up the path pitchfork in hand before either of the horses had come to a standstill.

"Come on!" she shouted. "Us'll show 'em—fegs! yes. Here, Job, lad; here, Mr. Jack! Shoulder to shoulder now, and the Lord ha' mercy on they niggers if't should happen that one of 'em——Eh! fegs; why, front door's open, lads, and not a soul to guard un."

And so it was. The little rescuing party poured out of the two carts and into the house unchecked and unchallenged, and swarmed into the little dining-room where the light was.

For all the stillness and lack of resistance they met, it was not vacant. One single occupant sat there, grim, motionless, silent—old Margery Millet fast bound in a chair and with a cloth tied over her mouth.

They had her free in a twinkling, and while Betty flew to the sideboard for brandy Tredennis and the rest besieged the poor old soul with excited questions.

"Where is Miss Forrester? Where is Sir Nigel? What has become of the Luttrells?" quavered forth half a dozen excited voices at once, and, woman-like, old Janet answered the last query first.

"They're gone," she said, with a little hysterical burst of tears. "Oh! deary me, they must have found out what Betty was a doin' of (though dear knows how they could), for soon after she left they all swarmed in upon me like a drove of black ants and tied me up so that I could neither move nor make a sound, and then they all cleared off together and left me alone."

"And Miss Forrester, Sir Nigel—what of them?"

"I don't know, sir, I don't know! The Luttrells and the rest said nothing about them, but I'm afraid to think, afraid, afraid!"

"Why?"

"Because I ain't heard a sound, sir, since the Luttrells and the rest left. It's been still as death up there in them there rooms where Miss Helen and Sir Nigel and that there Hawkins girl is, and I'm afraid, I tell you, sir, afraid!"

Almost as as she had spoken Tredennis was out of the room and rushing up the stairs like a madman.

"Helen," he shouted as he ran; "Helen, where are you? It is I—Jack. Helen, darling, don't you hear?"

CHAPTER XXVIII.

Run Down.

There was no need for that excited query to be repeated, for, as his voice rolled through the silent passage and up the narrow staircase, Helen answered him:

"I am here, Jack, here!" she called out, hammering on the locked door to guide him. "Dad and I are in here together. Oh! how good of you to come; how good of you! Have you got the Luttrells? Don't let them get away. We have found out where the ruby is. Let us out, oh! please hurry and let us out! We are in here—here, where I am pounding on the door."

Tredennis raced in the direction of the sound—Job, Janet, Lady Hemlon, and all the rest trooping up the stairs and following in his wake like a drove of panic-sricken sheep at the heels of a leader—and in a moment more, he and they were at the door upon which Helen was pouning.

It was locked, of course, and the key was missing. But that was a matter of small consequence, when Job was there with the axe he had brought from the farm, and, calling on Helen to "stand clear and get as far away as possible," Tredennis gave the word of command, and with two heavy blows Job had the lock smashed and the door driven inward, a wreck.

As it clashed back and left the passage clear, Tredennis lurched forward—over the threshold and into the room—and seeing nothing but Helen, thinking of nothing but Helen, flew across the room and took her in his arms.

"My darling," he said, "my darling, are you safe? Are you unhurt, my precious girl? Oh! Helen, oh! Helen!"

SPORTING GOSSIP OF THE DAY

Richest Harness Stake of Year Won Yesterday by Consuela S.

Last, Fourth and Then Three Straight Heats Was the Score.

Readville, Mass., August 25.—Ten thousand people yesterday saw Consuela S. win the Massachusettts Stake of $15,000, the richest event on the harness turf this year, in five fiercely contested heats. Consuela S. was a second choice, and won the three final heats after the first had been captured by George G., and the second had gone to Dr. Strong, the favorite.

In the first heat Deryder went to the wire in advance with Consuela S. He was finally fined $100, but was a half length in front at the wire. This gave him a clear track, and he won by a foot. All not standing for money retired after the third heat. Of the four left, Consuela S. was the freshest, as she had been well backed in the first two heats. It was easy for her to take the following heats over Dr. Strong.

The 2.15 trot was won by Tuna. The Tyro stake was won by Lord Revelstoke. His third heat, in 2.12¾, was the best made by a young horse this year. Doncarra won the 2.12 so easily as to make the race uninteresting. Summary:

The winners were Cyprienne, Nitrate, Lord Dixon, Golden Mineral, Exclamation, and Emperor of India.

St. Louis, Aug. 25.—Winners at the Fair grounds yesterday were De Grammont, Joe Goss, Seder, Fruit, Glennevis, and Iras.

Detroit, Aug. 25.—Three favorites won at Highland Park yesterday. The winners were Annara J., Minn, Hanksmore, Jade, Pretension, and Showman.

LACROSSE

CORNWALL VS. NATIONAL.

Cornwall, Aug. 25.—(Special.)—The Cornwall lacrosse team have been training every night this week in preparation for their struggle with the Nationals here on Saturday. This afternoon they will have a final practice in the hot sun and the team will be finally decided upon to-night. The Cornwall team are determined to win this match and thereby display their superiority to every team in the N.A.L.U., except the Shamrocks. The Nationals are also very anxious to come out ahead, for a victory over Cornwall would insure them second place in the league series. There has been no senior lacrosse in Cornwall since the Shamrocks were here on July 16, and as this will be the last home game of the season a great deal of interest is being taken in this match and a large crowd is expected.

LAWN TENNIS

WARD IS CHAMPION.

Newport, R.I., Aug. 25.—William J. Clothier, who defeated former champion Wm. A. Larned yesterday met Holcomb Ward on the Casino courts in the final match of the all-comers' tournament, to decide the national tennis championship. The weather was fine and the courts were in splendid condition. Clothier's win over Larned made him slightly the favorite, but expert opinion was equally divided as to the probable result of the match.

Ward won the championship be defeating Clothier in three straight sets, 10-8, 6-4, 9-7.

Leroy won the consolation by defeating Sands.

Challenge round—

H. Ward beat H. L. Doherty by default.

Consolation, final round—

R. Leroy beat C. E. Sands, 6-4, 6-4.

SUCKLING WAS BEATEN.

Niagara-on-the-Lake, Aug. 25.—The 20th annual tournament of the Canadian International Tennis championships opened here yesterday. Among the cracks already arrived from Newport are Dewhurst, the Australian crack, who played with Larned; P. J. Holt, Harvard; Robert Leroy, indoor champion; Bell, the California champion; and Fischer, the international champion. The Canadian list is complete. Among the players are Paterson, Boys, Macdonnell, Suckling, Burns and McLaughlin.

The doubles promise to be very keenly contested. Dewhurst and Holt are together, as are Bell and Leroy. Dewhurst bids fair to win the cup, but this won't be easily done by any means. Boys, of Barrie, Ont., gave Bell a great fight, and deserves great credit for his showing. Yesterday's scores:

Men's Open Singles.

Bell, California, beat Boys, Barrie, 6-3, 6-4.

Dewhurst, Australia, beat Suckling, Montreal, 6-2, 6-3.

Kirkover, Buffalo, beat Macdonell, Toronto, 7-5, 6-4.

Lloyd, Pittsburg, beat R. Bissell, Buffalo, 2-6, 6-2, 6-3.

MAT AND RING.

JEFFRIES AND MUNROE.

San Francisco, Aug. 25.—Interest in the Jeffries and Munroe contest for the heavyweight championship increases. As yet betting has not been heavy, the adherents of neither pugilist seeming to favor the prevailing odds of 100 to 35 in favor of Jeffries. The odds are even that Jeffries will not win inside of ten rounds. Munroe finished his hard work and is in excellent condition. Jeffries continued his exercise yesterday, but probably will take things easy until Friday. He tips the scales at 225 pounds, twenty-five pounds less than when he began training.

A CHANCE FOR MAUPAS.

Walter C. Kelly, of Buffalo writes that Chas. ("Yankee") Rogers, would like to wrestle Maupas at Graeco-Roman style, two falls out of three, to a finish in Montreal, within two or three weeks, for a purse to be divided in any manner suitable to Maupas. Rogers claims he is champion of America at Graeco-Roman and recently defeated Selva, the Italian champion, and Jim Parr, champion of England.

The Birds Can't Win on the Road, Another Dropped at Baltimore

Viau, the New Man, Was Out and Oysters Jumped on Him.

THE Birds on the road this year have been decidedly and emphatically fierce. Somebody heaved up a guess that matters in that respect would improve under Barrow, but if there has been any improvement our eagle eyesight has not detected it.

The Birds started the season on the road and they started badly with a capital B.

They have been whooping it up right along ever since.

They can win at home, but if they nail two straight games away, the fans gather about the bulletin boards and say, "Well, I guess—this is the goods."

Just why the Birds should make such a mess of things at the visiting stations is a difficult question to answer.

Other teams can win, but the Birds can't.

THE GAME.

Baltimore, August 24.—Adkins had Montreal at his mercy to-day. Yeager and Dyer were the only players to find him to any extent. Viau, recently released by Providence, and picked up by Manager Barrows, pitched his first game for Montreal. He was not a success. Baltimore hit his offerings at opportune times and scored in every one of the first six innings.

SMITH'S FALLS VS. PERTH.

Smith's Falls, Ont., August 25.—(Special.)—The Minto Baseball Club, of this town, went to Perth to-day to play the game with the Perth club which was scheduled for Saturday, the 20th inst., but was postponed on account of rain. The Mintos have defeated Perth twice this season already on Smith's Falls grounds, and, to-day being the first of their trips away from home, they intend to begin them well. Perth also are anxious to regain their lost laurels and a hot game will likely result. Great interest is being taken in these games, not only by the two principal towns but in those surrounding.

Mike Grady tops the National League in batting, according to the latest output of figures. The St. Louis catcher is handing them out at a .360 clip, which is going some under the foul-strike rule. Frank Chance of Chicago is second, and the great Hans Wagner third. Most of the averages show a scaling down during the past ten days, owing to a number of small-score pitchers' battles.

Just think of our old college chum Odwell hitting .295 in the National League, around the same division with Clarke, of Pittsburg, McGann of N.Y., and Tenny, of Boston. Oddie is getting to be hot stuff.

Lajoie leads the American League, with .391. Then follow in order: Mullen, Detroit; Davis, Athletics; Keeler, New York; Seybold, Phila.; Hoffman, Phila.; Parent, Boston, and so on.

Billy Lush, of Cleveland, is hitting .267 and Bruce when he left Philadelphia, had an average of .264.

Sleepy Jacklitz is hitting .267 for Brooklyn.

Eddie Phelps, the old Montreal and Rochester catcher, with Pittsburg, is hitting .257.

SMITH AND ATHERTON.

Manager Smith, of the Rochester Baseball Club, is one of the very few all-around baseball men to-day playing the game. He can play any position, and yesterday he surprised everyone by going into the box against the Newark Baseball Club, and, although he lost his game, he allowed the opposing team but six scattered hits. It is better ball than any of the professional pitchers have been putting up so far. In this respect Smith is like Atherton.

On several occasions last year and this year, too, when with Montreal, Atherton took his turn in the box and put up a very creditable game each time. There are few men playing ball, however, who can duplicate this feat.

ROD AND GUN.

SHOOTING AT BLUE BONNETS.

Following are the results of the shooting at the Blue Bonnets Gun Club yesterday:

Ladies' match—Redman, 9; Larke, 9; Skdunks, 9; Landriault, 9; Dumont, 8; P. Couter, 8; Montanbeault, 8; Renaud, 8; M. St. Jean, 8; E. R. Pepin, 8; Lemieux, 8.

Live pigeon match, $50—Redman, 15; Landriault, 15; Dumont, 14; E. Messe, 14; Montanbeault, 14; E. R. Pepin, 14; J. Sly, 13; Renaud, 13; P. Coutu, 13.

The weather during the day was fine and there were a great many present. To-day there will be two hundred live birds at the disposal of the shooters, and there will be a revolver match.

YACHTING.

The schooner yacht Atlantic, owned by Wilson Marshall, of New York, won the ocean race of 264 miles for the Brenton Reef cup yesterday. She covered the course from Brenton's Reef lightship to Sandy Hook lightship and return in 40 hours, 39 minutes, 21 seconds. Other yachts competing were the Endymion and Resolute.

It is believed that at the conclusion of the correspondence between Emperor William's representative and the New York Yacht Club regarding the rules for a transatlantic yacht race, the Empeor will formally renew his offer of a cup for such a race.

The C.A.A.U. Sub-Committee Reports on the Capitals

The sub-committee which was appointed to investigate the standing of the Capitals in lacrosse, has reported to the C.A.A.U. and a vote will not be taken by the committee, according to the usual custom, merely reported on the facts without any recommendation whatever.

The report was mailed last night to the Governors of the C.A.A.U. who will mail their votes to the secretary, E. H. Brown. A meeting of the C.A.A.U. has been called for Sept. 3, when the votes will be counted and the result announced.

The report follows:—

Your committee, appointed to investigate the charges against the players of the Capital Lacrosse Club, as per the resolution passed at a meeting of the Board of Governors held on Aug. 3, 1904, beg to make the following report:

That the following members of the Capital Lacrosse Club competed against the Tecumseh Lacrosse Club in Toronto on July 23:—E. D. McDonald, J. H. Ralph, R. B. Pringle, A. R. Robertson, Jno. Shea, J. H. Ashfield, E. R. Butterworth, H. Westwick, A. Allan, Ed. Murphy, P. J. Murphy, W. Eastwood.

That on the Tecumseh team there were several ex-players of the Toronto Lacrosse Club, who were professionalized by this union on May 6, 1904.

That each of the above-named Capital Lacrosse Club players were written to by this committee advising them of the charges contained in the resolution, and that each replied stating in general that they did not think they were infringing the amateur rules by competing against the Tecumsehs, as they had been advised by their executive that they would not endanger their amateur standing by so doing, and also state they know nothing of any of their team being paid for their services.

That Mr. Foran, of the Capital Lacrosse Club Executive, was notified by the president of the N.A.L.U., at least two days previous to the said game with the Tecumsehs, that the players of the Capital Lacrosse Club would professionalize themselves should they compete against any of the ex-players of the Toronto Lacrosse Club, who had become professionals.

HAD NO PERMISSION.

That Mr. Foran claimed to have obtained permission from Mr. J. P. Dickson, second vice-president of this Union, to play this game without affecting the amateur standing of the competitors.

That Mr. J. P. Dickson denied having given this permission, being aware that it was not in his power to do so, but that he had expressed his opinion that when the suspension of C.L.A. players was raised June 25, pending a conference between that body and our Union, that the ex-Toronto players were included.

That it was not in the power of this executive to include the ex-Toronto lacrosse players, when raising the suspension on C.L.A. players, as said ex-Toronto players had already been professionalized for receiving payment for playing lacrosse, but that the raising of the suspension only included C.L.A. players who had not yet been professionalized.

Regarding the report of Messrs. Ayling and Brown that, at the conference held in Toronto with the members of the Ontario associations, that a discussion had taken place at said conference re a statement made publicly by Mr. Foran, previous to the conference, to the effect that "some of the players of the Capital Lacrosse Club were paid for their services this season," this committeee have made a careful and very thorough investigation.

This committee are convinced that a statement to the effect of the one attributed to Mr. Foran must have been made, but the result of the investigation shows that it was not made in the presence of Mr. J Ross Robertson.

The subject was introduced at the conference by one of the Ontario delegates, and the C.A.A.U. delegates were requested to have same investigation.

The letters received on this subject are too lengthy to embody in this report, but the following extracts will show that the matter was one that could not be overlooked:—

MR. ROBERTSON'S STATEMENT.

Extract from letter of Mr. J. Ross Robertson to Mr. E. H. Brown, Aug. 12, 1904: "Clearly, I could not have repeated the Foran statement at the meeting, simply for the reason that I had no conversation with Mr. Foran on the subject, and I rather think, from a conversation I had with Mr. Woodworth, that he probably was the gentleman who incidentally referred to some statement that had been made to him by Mr. Foran. I have no doubt that I did ask the question as to the office held by Mr. Foran, after hearing the statement about the Capitals made at the meeting, and I think you are probably right in stating that when a reply was made that he was the secretary-treasurer of the Capitals, that I said this was a matter for the C.A.A.U. to investigate. There was so much talk and so many talking at the same time that I am not surprised at your error in crediting me as the author of the Foran statement.

"Mr. Woodworth tells me he will see you to-morrow, and probably after you have a conversation with him you will come to the conclusion that I am right, and that if anybody is to be charged up with the remark about the Capitals, and Mr. Foran, at the conference, it must have been Mr. Woodworth, who, I understand, had a conversation or gathered so much from a conversation he had with Mr. Foran previous to the meeting."

WHAT MR. WOODWORTH HEARD.

Extract from letter of Mr. Woodworth to Mr. Foran, Aug. 8, 1904: "I was introduced to you by Mr. T. L. Church, as we were standing near the desk at the King Edward Hotel. Mr. E. H. Brown was also present, and, if my memory serves me right, I think Mr. Harry Gillespie was with us part of the time. Mr. Robertson came over for a moment, but was not a party to the conversation. The question of professionalism came up and I advocated open, honest professionalism instead of the hypocrisy of the present state of affairs. I cannot remember how the statement was worded, but you replied, I think, to the effect that the clubs in the East were paying their men similar to the C.L.A. My impression was that you mentioned the Capitals among other clubs.

"Your own personal statement in letter of 5th inst., positively denying this, forces me to think that I must have misunderstood the tenor of your remarks. The matter was referred to later at the conference after Mr. Gillespie had announced that the Tecumsehs were paid every Monday. The impression given then to the members present was that the Capitals were professionals."

LETTER FROM MR. FRANK.

Extract of letter from Mr. F. W. Frank to Mr. E. H. Brown, Aug. 16, 1904: "You will no doubt remember that I was late arriving at the meeting and, consequently, did not meet Mr. Foran, who had left to catch the train for Ottawa, but the substance of his conversation was repeated by Mr. Ross Robertson, Mr. Woodworth, Mr. Ayling or yourself, I forgot which, at least one repeated it and the others agreed that the following was about what was said: 'Mr. Foran in the course of conversation that evening had made a statement that their players or a majority of them were paid for playing.' I cannot give the exact words, but that was the substance of what was said."

Your committee would draw attention to the fact that the "Foran Statement" was introduced at the meeting by some of the Ontario delegates and that the C.A.A.U. delegates were requested to bring it before the executive. Also to the fact that the following paragraph appeared in the Toronto Mail and Empire, the Montreal Gazette and the Ottawa Citizen on Monday, July 25, viz.: "Mr. Foran, of Ottawa, when seen before the meeting, practically admitted that the Capitals could be placed in the professional class." As fan as this committee can learn, Mr. Foran never contradicted this paragraph.

The players of the Capital Lacrosse Club were suspended on Aug. 3, pending this investigation, and the committee now present to you the result of same and ask that you will record your vote with the secretary of this union as to whether you are in favor of raising the suspension or of declaring the twelve players named in this report as professionals.

Kindly record your vote by return mail.

THE BIG C.P.R. ISSUE AGAIN TALKED OF; STOCKS ALL STRONG BUT NOVA SCOTIA

There was to-day a wholesale revival of the rumor that the Canadian Pacific would shortly issue either $15,000,000 or $20,000,000 of new stock, but as the Street pretty well satisfied itself a month ago that this would be done, there is no particular significance in the fact that the rumor cropped up again to-day.

What the Street wants to know is: "Is it a bull or bear point?"

Opinion upon this point differs a good deal, but so far the talk of the issue has been well received and to-day the stock was strong, there being good buying around 128.

Very encouraging reports were received from Manitoba again to-day, and while wheat in Chicago advanced from the lowest of yesterday, it was clear enough that the scalpers were running the market and that the advance had no basis as far as crop reports were concerned.

In another part of to-day's issue will be found the complete report received by the Ogilvie Milling Co. and also an interesting message from The Herald's Winnipeg correspondent.

The latter is perhaps the most cheerful document on the black rust question sent out of Manitoba for ten days past, and as the correspondent in question has been uniformly right so far the report has an added interest.

On the local market to-day Nova Scotia was offered pretty freely at the top figures. This was evidently another of the numerous movements in Scotia engineered by the room traders, with perhaps a few outside orders to help things along. The stock was much weaker around the close and after early sales at 63, worked to 62½ asked and 61⅝ bid.

Power was stronger.

Sales here of North West Land common at 200 again drew attention to that stock and its sensational rise of the past few years. In 1901 this stock could be bought for 15, but last year it saw 260.

Only as far back as 1897 it sold as low as 2 on the Toronto market. The shareholders consider their shares immensely valuable and it is seldom that sellers are to be found on the market.

The preferred shares of the company are being redeemed at par from time to time and there are now but 30,000 of these shares outstanding.

Sales to noon were 278,100 shares in Wall Street.

Some steel rails were turned out at the "Soo" plant yesterday. The first steel rails rolled at the "Soo" works were turned out on May 5, 1902. Only a small quantity was turned out, however, the mill shutting down in a few days, for want of material, it was said. At that time the company had a contract with the Government to supply 25,000 tons a year to the Intercolonial Railway on what were considered most advantageous terms for the manufacturers. The contract was never carried out. Then came the collapse of the Clergue concern, followed early this year by the reorganization of the enterprise under the auspices of the Ontario Government. The object of the management in notifying the department of the intention to resume the manufacture of rails is to prepare the department for a claim for bounty on the steel ingots from which the rails are rolled. The "Soo" plant, however, is so arranged that the ingots as turned out of the Bessemer converter are run into what is termed a soaking pit, where they are reduced to the proper temperature for rolling. From the soaking pit the ingots are conveyed to the mill, and passing through the rolls, come out as finished rails at the other end. The process being thus a continuous one, there is no means of weighing the ingots, so the plan is adopted of taking the weight of the rails and calculating the bounty upon them. In 1902, when rail-making was first essayed at the "Soo," the bounty was $3 a ton on steel ingots. Under the sliding scale the amount has been twice reduced. Last year the bounty was $2.75 per ton. Upon the rails turned out this year the "Soo" concern will draw a bounty of $2.25 per ton. An official of the Trade and Commerce Department will be sent to the "Soo" in a few days to look after the weighing of the rail product.

C. P. R. EARNINGS.

There was another big gain in Pacifics' gross earnings for the third week of August, of over 8 per cent., and for the first seven weeks of the company's new fiscal year the increase is over 9 per cent. In other words, the gross earnings of the road have averaged over $1,000,000 weekly since the first of July. The figures are:

	1904.	1903.	Inc.
Third week, August ...	$1,002,000	$ 926,000	$ 76,000

Government securities unchanged.

The proportion of the bank's reserve to liability this week is 55.58 per cent., as compared with 54.63 per cent. last week.

N. Y. GOSSIP.

Mr. C. D. Monk's messages said:—Americans in London fractionally irregular. Bank of England rate unchanged. Regular dividend on Soo common and pfd. J. J. Hill denies report of plan to pay Nor. Secs. div. 41 roads second week in August show average gross increase 1.59 per cent. London expects temporary hardening of money over settlement beginning Monday.

Market acted remarkably well yesterday, showing some new high prices and undertone was strong. The Price Current has a rather good look and barring the early frosts will prove a corn year, offsetting considerably the loss in wheat. Money market still easy and no fears entertained for flurries this year.

NOON LETTER.

A noon letter to Mr. Monk said:—"There has been a revival of the late bull market and prices have been maintained throughout the session, with barely any recessions. St. Paul, Penna., and some of the Southern and Southwestern R.R. stocks have led the market. The news from the corn belt considered favorable. This, together with the cotton prospects, was regarded as a good offset for any of the wheat losses. St. Paul has at last shown the way and is very strong at noon.

LONDON CLOSING.

ADVANCING TENDENCY.

Noon Letter—The market opened generally strong this morning, and has shown a steadily advancing tendency ever since. Missouri Pacific, Rock Island, St. L. and S. F., B. O., Norfolk and Reading have all shown conspicuous strength. Dealings have been on a fairly large scale and the market has shown a better tone and more strength than any of the previous days. Reactions may come, but the tendency of the market seems distinctly towards higher prices, and there is no evidence that the movement is yet near culmination.—E. & C. Randolph.

THE BOSTON MARKET.

Boston, August 25.—The local market has been active and strong for specialties this morning. The leaders in the Coppers were Allonez, Utah, Winona, Centennial and Royale. All scored good advances. Amal. was steady around 57. Sugar is strong at 131½ to 131¾. Telephone sold at 138 and 8½. Dominion Coal sold 51 to 51½. Sales Di. at 11.—Chas. Head & Co.

MORE FAVORABLE.

Messrs. Zimmermann & Forshay wire Robert Meredith & Co.:—Railroads in general are reporting conditions regarding the crops more favorable than some private advices indicate. Many are of the opinion that if we should be favored with good weather from now on, the loss in wheat will not exceed 3,000,000 bushels, whereas a phenominal corn crop will be harvested. Money is being sent to the West now for the moving of the crops and rates may begin to stiffen here, but it is not believed that it will exert a bearish influence on prices. London quotations come equal to about our closing figures of yesterday.

Ca. closed in London at 130⅜. Sales to noon 278,100. Bonds, 1,091,000.

THE INDEFATIGABLE'S VISIT.

She Will Lie Off Sohmer Park—A Military Tournament.

The British cruiser Indefatigable will arrive in Montreal next Tuesday morning and will be docked at section 24, near Sohmer Park. It has been found impossible on account of the extensive improvements in progress on the wharves to give her a berth nearer the centre of the city. With the excavations being made for the steel sheds, the macadamizing of other parts of the wharves, and the piles of material scattered around no clear space could be procured farther up. The berth assigned gives a large free space opposite the ship and will doubtless prove satisfactory.

Permission has been obtained from Rear Admiral Sir Archibald Douglas for the men of the Indefatigable to hold two naval and military tournaments next week at the Arena during their stay in port.

Negotiations are under way with some of the local militia to have them take part in these tournaments but up to date nothing definite has been arranged. The proceeds of the performances will be devoted to the Samaritan Hospital.

CATHOLIC SAILORS' CLUB.

The concert held at the above-named club under the auspices of Father Dowd Court, Catholic Order of Foresters, last evening was quite successful. Rev. J. P. Killoran, the chaplain of the court, acted as chairman, and Miss Lynch and Miss McCaffrey as accompanists. Those who took part in the programme were:—Miss B. Broderick, Miss May Coleman, Miss Annie Doyle, Messrs. John Prescott, P. Fox, Katzye, Frank O'Neil, Dunderdale, Jas. Fox, D. Mackay; Mr. Lennon, Wm. Rowe, Mr. Gill, R.M.S. Tunisian; J. Smith, SS. Dominion; Charles Brady, M. Buckley, SS. Mount Royal. Next Wednesday's concert will be under the direction of Prof. Fowler.

"Street" Gossip.

G.T.P. Should be a Big Factor in Stock Market

When it gets in the "blues" the stock market should think of the Grand Trunk Pacific and cheer up.

The building of the National Transcontinental Railway, otherwise and more familiarly known as the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, will mean the spending of an enormous sum of money in Canada during the next few years. The length of the line may be set down at three thousand three hundred miles. The expenditure per mile will be rather less than two-thirds that of the Canadian Pacific. That road cost $48,000 a mile, the new road will cost $30,000 a mile.

That means that a hundred millions of dollars will go into the building of the railway. The construction will cause the spending of huge sums in subsidiary enterprises. Additional capital will be attracted to the country to meet the expansion of the home market caused by the outlay on the railway.

Additional workmen will be needed to supply the wants of the men working on the line. Some persons put the extra expenditure at another hundred millions.

Two hundred millions spent in a country of Canada's population within the next few years will give an enormous impetus to industry and production.

An important phase of the situation, observes the Toronto News, is the number of workmen that will be needed. The expressed intention of the projectors of the scheme was to start work simultaneously at fifteen points, and to drive the railway through at top speed. Such a policy of compressing the work of building into five years will demand—according to competent judges—the continuous employment of 25,000 laborers.

First Steel Rails Made at the "Soo"

A wire from Sault Ste. Marie says: "The first rails to be made as the result of the resumption of operations of the steel plant were turned out this morning. The test was most successful. The operations were commenced with the full complement of men, and Superintendent D. D. Lewis says that as fast as material arrives the blast furnaces will be started. Ore, of which large amounts have been contracted for, is coming in by water and rail, and it will not be long before all the works are going full blast. A despatch was received to-day announcing the awarding of the contract for rails to be made by the Government in the relaying of the Intercolonial tracks. This would mean between 30,000 to 50,000 tons. This and other orders on han densure work as far as the market condition is concerned, for some time to come."

Another U.S. Man on Manitoba Crop

The crop expert travelling for A. J. White & Co., of Chicago, and who made such accurate estimates of the losses to wheat in Indiana, Ohio and Missouri, sent the following from Swan Lake, Manitoba, Saturday:

"The greater portion of the wheat for seventy-five miles that I have ridden through this morning is fine. There were some fields affected by rust, but not enough to cut down the average materially. Many farmers at stations are claiming the best crops in many years. I rode across the country yesterday from the Canadian Pacific to Elgin on the Canadian Northern, and there are promises of some very heavy yields. There was a heavy rain yesterday in some sections. Do not know how large an area it covers, but I do know it rained in certain locality, for I was out in all of it in an open sea of wheat. No damage to the wheat.

"To sum up: My impressions of the territory I have travelled, and from all I could learn of the country still farther west, there will be a good average crop this side of the line. The reports from the extreme northwest, in the new country up north of Regina, state that it has been dry and the crop will be light. While there is some rust over a large section of Manitoba, I do not think it will cut the crop more than 10 per cent. on the whole, and without rust or frost the prospects are for a very large crop."

Little Chance of a Dividend on G.T.R. 3rd

Commenting upon the half-yearly statement of the Grand Trunk for the first half of 1904, The London (Eng.) Financial News says:

"The really disheartening feature of the Grand Trunk position is the failure of the gross receipts to recover after the disappearance of the cause of the heavy decline earlier in the year. There were gross increases after that, though not on such a scale as to suggest that deferred traffic was coming forward fast, but since the beginning of the second half-year the recovery has ceased. From July 1 to August 7 the Grand Trunk proper has sustained a loss of £28,516, and the whole system is £42,370 behind last year's earnings. That rather discounts the hope that the second half would atone for the leanness of the first. The last six months of 1903 provided a surplus of £398,845, which sufficed to pay full dividends for the half-year on the Guaranteed and First and Second Preference Stocks, with 2 per cent. for the whole year on the Third Preference. A similar surplus this year would cover only the Guaranteed dividend for the six months, the full year's dividend on the First Preference, and barely 4 per cent. on the Second Preference stock. To give the Second Preference its complete due for 1904 the current half-year must add £27,500 to the net revenue, and to equal the distribution made for 1903 the net revenue must be reinforced by as much as £170,800. The repetition of a few such savings as those effected in June would make this achievement comparatively easy; but the June economies are exceptional, and so the prospect of a dividend on the Third Preference stock for this year appears quite remote and improbable."

Weakness of the Big Steel Trust Outlined

New York Journal of Commerce: The cut in prices, endangering the whole pooling combination, illustrates the artificial and abnormal condition in which the industry has been placed and belies the claims of economic advantage in such large combinations as the United States Steel Corporation. That advantage, such as it might have been, was destroyed by the inordinate price paid in uniting the constituents of the combination and the extraordinary overcapitalization that attended the operation. It subjected the steel industry to overwhelming speculative influences and calculations, instead of putting it on the solid ground of cost of production and legitimate profit in selling products. The inflation of capital, failing of monopoly, induced the pooling device to exact and maintain extravagant prices. These prices, under a pressing demand for the products, led to overexpansion of facilities and overproduction, and the check upon demand which the prices finally wrought caused reaction. Then came the struggle to keep competition down and hold prices up. But competition slowly and painfully asserts itself under the necessities of business, breaks in the combination occur here and there and the whole artificial fabric is threatened with collapse.

Cotton Opened Weak But Got Stronger

Coton opened weak to-day, but got stronger towards one o'clock. A wire said:—There is a lot of manipulation in cotton to scare shorts into covering, and it is succeeding; how far this buying may carry price is impossible to judge, but eventually this sort of buying must run its course, and the price decline heavily.—E. & C. Randolph.

Market Reports.

CORN CROP WILL BE ENORMOUS—IT HAS BEEN OVERLOOKED IN THE WHEAT RUMPUS

The crop experts have been so busy cents are now crying drought and in the States that the corn crop has escaped their notice.

Without an early frost and warm and seasonable weather for the next six weeks the West will have one of the largest corn crops it has ever raised.

Temperatures have been rather too low in some parts of the corn belt of late and more old-fashioned hot August weather is needed to push the crop along to maturity before the frost gets it. A good downpour would also be welcomed if it does no more than check the claims of the speculators who having loaded up with corn at under fifty cents are now crying drought and cold weather to help get prices up to a point where they can take profits of five cents or more.

There are spots where more moisture would do good. In parts of the Ohio valley and in Missouri where the prospects have been poor all year there are complaints coming of damage to the crop, or at least damage may come if it does not rain soon.

Taking the Government crop figures of the different states in the corn belt they suggest a crop for the seven states of 1,483,000,000 bushels or 212,000,000 bushels more than last year and 220,000,000 bushels less than in 1902. The total crop of the country is estimated at 2,407,000,000 bushels on a rough figuring, and by states is 2,426,000,000 bushels. This is 182,000,000 bushels more than last year, but 97,000,000 bushels less than in 1902. Illinois and Iowa make the best showing. Nebraska has the best promise in its history and its crop is believed to be further advanced toward maturity than in any other state. From present indications it will have 100,000,000 bushels more than last year, and 20,000,000 bushels more than the big crop of 1902.

The detailed crop in the seven surplus States for the past three years compare as follows, in bushels:

	1904.	1903.
Ohio	102,000,000	88,000,000
Indiana	151,000,000	143,000,000
Illinois	319,000,000	264,000,000
Missouri	161,000,000	203,000,000
Kansas	185,000,000	172,000,000
Iowa	292,000,000	229,000,000
Nebraska	273,000,000	172,000,000
Tot. 7 States	1,483,000,000	1,271,000,000
Total crop	2,407,000,000	2,244,000,000

The total crop in 1902 was 2,523,000,000 bushels.

The world's wheat exports last week were as follows:

Cheese Offerings Are on the Increase

Woodstock, Ont., Aug. 24.—The cheese trade in Western Ontario has been fairly active the past week. The sales have been heavy, although the price has developed no upward tendency. Practically all the make of the first half of August has been sold at from 8¼c to 8⅜c. The offerings continue to decrease as the season advances, the pastures gradually becoming poorer, and the farmers showing no inclination to increase the milk supply by extra feeding. Buyers interviewed to-day do not look for any immediate material increase in the price of cheese by reason of the heavy supplies now in storage throughout the province and at Montreal. There were offered to-day 1,260 white and 1,140 colored cheese. This was the make of fourteen factories from Aug. 10 to 22. There were twelve buyers present. The bidding which opened at 8c, advanced to 8⅛c. The only sale on the board was 100 boxes to Booth at 8⅛c. The salesmen held out strongly for 8¼c and 8½c, and failing to get this, most of the cheese was held over until next week. On the street about 600 boxes sold at 8⅛c and 8 3-16c.

Stirling, Ont., Aug. 24.—There was 1,035 cheese boarded. Sales: Magrath, 675 at 8 7-16c; Brenton, 260 at 8 7-1c6.

Picton, Ont., Aug. 24.—Twelve factories boarded 985, all colored. Highest bid 8½c; 885 sold. Buyers, Bailey and R. Benson.

Canada's Fruit Crop

A very full return has been obtained by the fruit division, Ottawa, with reference to the fruit crop of the Dominion. Dividing the apple crop into fall and winter varieties, the reports show a medium to full crop of the former. In the apple sections, from which the bulk of the winter fruit will be obtained for export, the crop is not as large as last year, but may be classed as light to medium. The reports from Great Britain and Europe generally show a very large crop of fruit that will come into direct competition with our fall varieties, and may slightly affect the market for winter fruit, but up to the present time European fruit has not competed seriously with our best keeping varieties. The apple crop in Canada appears to be singularly free this year from the attacks of insects and fungus diseases. It is quite probable that the codling moth will not be a serious pest, but there are indications that the spot may yet develop to a slight if not a serious degree. Peaches and plums are almost an absolute failure, except in a few favored sections, where the winter did not materially affect them. The grape crop will be fairly good, but in the large producing districts of the Niagara peninsula black rot has shown to a serious extent. Cherries and currants are a full crop. The export trade for Canadian and American fall apples will be somewhat restricted, but owing to the better quality of our apples they will still have the preference in the European markets. There will be the necessity, however, of rigidly excluding all second quality fruit. The supply of good winter stock apples suitable for the British market during the months of January, February and March is not excessive, and it seems reasonable to expect that the demand will be almost equal to that of last year.

Cheese and Butter

Cheese prices are about steady. There were some trades in Townships cheese on the basis of 8⅝c and also at 8¼c, though sellers in several instances turned down the latter bid. For finest Quebec makes also bids of 8⅛c were refused, holders demanding 8⅛c for these. Ontario grades were largely nominal, so far as spot trading is concerned, but they could hardly be moved under 8½c to 8⅝c. There is quite an enquiry for seconds around 7⅞c to 8c. Quite a lot of stock held in cold storage here on English account has been ordered forward this week, and the fact is variously interpreted.

Butter quiet. The lull in the export demand this week is attributed to the heavy shipments of Canadian now arriving in England, said shipments being of butter acquired earlier in the season at from 1c to 1½c per pound under current prices. Quebec creamery changed hands to-day at 19⅛c, and Townships were nominal around 19½c.

Wheat To-day Saw Little Higher Level

It was a scalper's market in Chicago to-day with prices on the up grade, the advance from yesterday's lowest being considerable.

Chicago.—Following from H. D. Russell, dated Park River, N.D., Aug. 24. Harvesting commenced, in full blast. No damage to amount to anything. Weather too cold, not serious. Prospect, 20 to 22 bushels and more. Oats crop, 40 to 70 bushels.

Manitoba reports were favorable, except that showers were reported in many places.

The various options in Chicago to-day were quoted as follows:

Need Manitoba Wheat

The smaller crop of Ontario wheat this year will necessitate much larger purchases of Manitoba wheat for use in Ontario than ever before. The Ontario millers have been buying largely of Western grain so far this season, and they will have to depend on the West very largely during the present crop year for their supplies.

Grain, Flour, Hay

Grain.—In the local market firmness in oats continues the chief feature, and there is little trading in other cereals under light stocks on spot. We quote No. 2 white oats at 40c to 40½c, and No. 3 at 39c to 39½c, ex store. For export No. 2 white oats at 38½c, afloat. No. 2 peas, 71c to 71½c; No. 2 rye, at 62½c; No. 2 barley at 50c to 50½c; No. 3 extra at 49c to 49½c; and No. 3 at 48c to 48½c, afloat, Montreal.

Flour.—The flour market is firm in tone, but dull, as buyers will only satisfy immediate wants. We quote: Manitoba spring wheat patents, $5.50; strong bakers', $5.20; winter wheat patents, $5.25 to $5.35; straight rollers, $5.10 to $5.25; straight rollers, in bags, $2.40 to $2.50.

Feed.—The feed market is firmly held as regards values. Manitoba bran, in bags, $18.00; shorts, $20 per ton; Ontario bran, in bulk, $17; shorts, $20, and moullie, $24 to $28 per ton, as to quality.

Meal.—There is a slow trade in oatmeal, while prices rule steady at $2.30 to $2.32½ per bag, and $4.90 per barrel.

Hay.—Baled hay continues steady. No. 1, $9.50 to $10; extra good, No. 2, $9 to $9.50; ordinary, No. 2, $8 to $9; and clover mixed, $7.50 to $8 per ton, in carload lots.

Grain in Toronto

Toronto, Aug. 24.—Wheat is dull and easier, in sympathy with the three-cent break in the West. Holders are asking $1.04 for No. 2 red and white, west or east, but buyers are only quoting $1.02. Goose is steady at 90c for No. 2 east. Spring is steady at 96c for No. 2 east. Manitoba wheat is lower at $1.09½ for No. 1 northern; $1.06½ for No. 2 northern, and $1.03½ for No. 3 northern, at Georgian Bay ports, and 6c more grinding in transit.

Flour is dull with buyers and sellers apart. Local exporters only quote $4.25 bid for cars of 90 per cent. winter wheat patents in their bags, west or east. Choice brands are quoted 15c to 20c higher. Manitoba flour is steady at $5.40 for Hungarian patents, $5.10 for second patents, and $5 for strong bakers, bags included, in car lots, on the track, Toronto.

Millfeed is steady at $16.50 to $17 for cars of shorts, and $13 to $13.50 for bran, in bulk, east. Manitoba millfeed is firm at $19 to $20 for cars of shorts, and $17 to $18 for bran, sacks included, Toronto freights.

Barley is steady at 43c for No. 2; 42c for No. 3 extra, and 40c for No. 3, east.

Rye is nominal at 57c to 58c for No. 2, east.

Corn is firm. Canada is nominal at 52c for cars lots, west. American is quoted at 61½c for No. 2 yellow, 60½c for No. 3 yellow, and 59c to 59½c for No. 3 mixed, in car lots, on the track, Toronto.

Oats are firm at 35c for No. 1 white, and 34½c for No. 2 white, east; No. 2 white are quoted at 34c, west. New oats are offering at 33c outside, and 32c was bid.

Peas.—The market is steady at 63c to 64c, east.

Trade good; prospects steady. Hogs, singers, $5.60; lights, $5.25; off cars, good butchers' cattle selling well. Medium or common a little slow. Export cattle steady; good milk cows selling well and in demand. Medium or common rather slow. Trade in general is fairly good. Everything pretty well sold out. Ninety-nine loads in to-day, including 1,416 cattle, 1,900 hogs, 2,271 sheep and lambs, and 126 calves.

Cotton is Quiet

The demand for cotton goods continues rather quiet in the Canadian markets. This is attributed to the uncertainty about the market for raw cotton. It is pointed out, however, that when the new prices are issued by the mills they will be for goods for delivery December 1 or late. Some seem to be holding off for the new prices, but they will not affect goods bought for the current requirements of trade.
