A HAPPY DAY.

DEAR MR. BLUMENTHAL,—I was afraid I wouldn't have a new suit for school this Fall, and the boys would laugh at me. I'm found she could buy a fine serge suit at your store for One Dollar and a quarter. The boys don't laugh now, but wish they had as good a suit. I know it will wear well, because I wore one just like it all last winter. You can see by my face in the picture that I am happy.

HARLOW A. CHANDLER.

There were two main reasons why we thought this the best ad. We knew it was written and drawn without any big folks' help. Besides that it said more about the good qualities of our boys' suits—their appearance and their long wear.
The best way to write an ad is to tell all the good things you know about the good things you want to sell.

THE SECOND PRIZE was won by MILTON JAMES MASON. He drew a picture of a boy beating the drum, and then wrote:—

"Boys, just wait till I tell you.
And I want you to understand:
The suits for Boys at Blumenthal's
They are simply grand;
And mind you too, they sell the suits
At prices to BEAT THE BAND."

"Summer holidays now are over,
And we all need a suit for Fall;
So if you are wise you'll take my advice
And buy yours from Blumenthal."

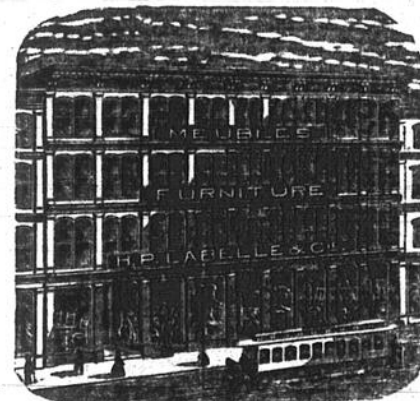

The Third Prize:
Was won by ALLEN R. INGALLS.
The Fourth Prize:
By MAGGIE McA.
The Fifth Prize:
By ALONZO MATTHEWS.

TWO WEEKS MORE TO WIN SCHOOL CLOTHING FREE.

Write an advertisement for our School suits. Draw a picture to go with the ad. Don't get any help, but do it yourself, for we can generally tell when some one helps you; and it isn't fair, either. Only boys and girls of twelve years or under can enter the competition. Sign your name and leave the ad at our store, corner of Bleury and Craig streets. Next Tuesday we will print the best ad for this week. First Prize each week, Boy's Beaver Reefer, worth $4.00. Second Prize each week, Boy's Tweed or Serge Suit worth $3.00. Third, fourth and fifth prizes will also be given each week.

"It Will Work Wonders With this Generation of Men."

A Startling Advance in Medical Science is fully explained in a little book called "Complete Manhood, and How to Attain It."

An earnest man who had suffered, hesitated, then put it to the test, writes thus:
"Well, I tell you that first day is one I'll never forget I just bubbled with joy. I wanted to hug everybody and tell them that my old self had died yesterday and my new self was born to-day. Why didn't you tell me when I first wrote that I would find it this way?"

The man was not "made whole" by magic in a day—no man is—but in a moment he saw—Knew—how he would be in a little while—he "saw the light" before he had finished the first chapter.

Every man who would know the grand truth, the plain fact, the true discovery of medical science—who would know a system of treatment of inestimable value to men who need it.

If you are looking for something sentimental, frivolous, improper don't waste your time and ours by writing. This is not for you.

If you want advice, wisdom, warning, help, noble manhood—if you want to escape snare, trap, quackery—get this book now.

Write to the Erie Medical Co., 64 Niagara St., Buffalo, N. Y., and ask for copy "Complete Manhood." They will send it sealed in plain envelope entirely free, for a short time.
