

FONG GOT PACK GOES WRONG.

The Cashier of a Chinese Restaurant Grabs the Cash and Runs Away.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Fong Got Pack, the old and trusted cashier of the Chinese restaurant at No. 11 Mott-street, has disappeared as many old and trusted American cashiers have done before him. He is said to have taken with him $800, all the cash he could lay his hands on. In consequence the restaurant has failed, and creditors whose claims aggregated $3,500 refuse to be compensated. And great is the excitement in Mott-street. Until recently Fong Got Pack was considered a most exemplary Chinaman. He never aroused suspicion by feigning conversion to Christianity. He was a straight out heathen, and worshipped Joss after the manner of his fathers, and went his way apparently contented and certainly respected. Some time ago Fong Got Pack's heathen breast was sorely smitten by three girls who frequented the restaurant. He served them with expensive Chinese provender and accepted their smiles in lieu of cash payments. He bought them jewelry and dresses, and to one of the girls he donated a suite of furniture costing $200. That played havoc with his salary of $7 a week as cashier and likewise with his partnership share of the profits of the concern. But he staved off the inevitable for a time by borrowing money and putting off creditors with promissory notes. When the creditors became too clamorous he promised to settle with them one day last week. The day before he opened the firm's private bank, pocketed the $800 it contained and started for parts unknown. The creditors and the unpaid employees of the restaurant held an impromptu indignation meeting yesterday outside the place and smashed the gilded signs to fragments.

Hunting a Young Friend.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Nov. 11.—The people in Calaway County, just across the river from this city, are out en masse searching for William Rice, the son of one of the most prominent farmers in the county. It has just been learned that on last Monday he was criminally assaulted by Miss Abbie Yount, the eighteen-year-old daughter of one of the most respectable families of the county.

After he had terrified the girl into submission by beating her he left her with the threat that if she revealed his crime he would kill her. She told her mother, and the mother went to the sheriff to-day, when the condition of the girl became so serious that Mr. Yount was informed of the matter.

He at once called on his neighbors, and an armed search was instituted. If the young man is caught he will undoubtedly be lynched.

His Last Cent Went for Bread.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Henry Blusey, a waiter and bartender, walked into the Eldridge-street station last night accompanied by his wife Susan and asked the sergeant in charge to oblige him and his wife with lodgings for the night.

Blusey said he had been out of work for some time and yesterday morning was dismissed from the furnished room which he had occupied at No. 43 Hoyt-street, Brooklyn, for non-payment of rent. He stated that he paid out his last five cents for a loaf of bread, which he and his wife ate.

Shot Her, then Himself.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Nov. 11.—Albert Shurt bought the hand of Miss Ida Snyder, a young woman who resides three miles west of Hanna Station, on the Fort Wayne road. Miss Snyder did not reciprocate the affections of her suitor, and so informed him. Yesterday, while Miss Snyder was returning from church in a buggy with a lady friend she was met a short distance outside the town by Shurt. As the buggy approached him he drew a revolver and shot his loved one in the side, killing her almost instantly. Shurt then put the revolver in his temple and fired, inflicting a wound from which he died in two hours, having never regained consciousness.

Retaliating on Drummers.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 11.—Great indignation is expressed among travelling men now in this city at the retaliation of the authorities at Victoria. Since the passage of the McKinley law every American drummer doing business in Victoria has been required to pay a license of $50. This only allows him to sell goods by sample until Jan. 1, when every foreign salesman must pay a fee of $100 for the privilege. Drummers who have returned from Victoria report business dull and advise all members of the Travelling Men's Protective Association to keep away from Victoria.

Mining News.

Mining experts note that cholera never attacks the bowels of the earth, but humanity in general find it necessary to use Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for bowel complaints, dysentery, diarrhoea, etc. It is a sure cure. Ask your grocer for Tetley's Tea. Tetley's name is on every package. Don't drink any other but Tetley's Tea. Can be had from any grocer in the city.

A correspondent of the "Northwestern Christian Advocate," published at Chicago, thus speaks of a Montreal Institution: "The Turkish Bath Institute is a favorite resort. No intoxicating liquor is sold. The tables are well supplied with good, wholesome food. The baths are extensively patronized by the really delightful. I never took one before, but I can most heartily recommend them."

ing, consequently she will not come out before to-morrow.
Steamship Texas arrived in port this morning and proceeded for Montreal at 11 a.m.
Reports very bad, some slight damage being done about the deck by heavy seas.

The small experimental light-ship placed at Pointe Tremblay and St. Germain driven from their moorings by the recent storm and will not likely return to their station this season. Steamer David has gone down to remove the gas buoys and bring them up to port for the season.
Steamship Gerona passed up to Montreal at 11 a.m. Reports a very bad passage, huge waves boarded and swept the vessel, doing a good deal of damage to the decks.
Capt. Anderson was badly hurt and is confined to bed from his injuries.
Steamer Miramichi arrived from Montreal
this morning and went into the Louise Basin to lie up for the winter.
Squaring the Steamer Union left this morning for Sorel to lie up for the season.
Mark Louisa was chartered to-day to load timber for Greenock at 11 a.m.
