Liberal Leader Godbout Is Defeated As Government Wins In 82 Of 92 Districts

PERSONAL LOSERS

J. E. GREGOIRE

Quebec, July 29—(CP)—Premier Duplessis' Union Nationale party held undisputed power today in Quebec with the unprecedented following of 82 members in the 92-seat House.

The 12-year-old party, first elected in Quebec in a 1936 landslide that ended 39 years of Liberal administration, far outdid that performance yesterday. The U.N.'s smashing victory shattered opposition ranks.

The standing was:

Union Nationale	82	48
Liberal	8	37
Bloc Populaire	..	4

U.N. Gained 31 Counties

By The Canadian Press

Following is the Canadian Press list of party gains in Quebec:

Union Nationale (31)

From Liberals—Abitibi East, Argenteuil, Arthabaska, Bellechasse, Berthier, Chambly, Chateauguay, Gatineau, Kamouraska, Lake St. John, Laval, L'Islet, Lotbiniere, Missisquoi, Montmagny, Montmorency, Montreal Jeanne Mance, Montreal Mercier, Pontiac, Quebec Centre, Quebec East, Quebec West, Richelieu, Riviere du Loup, St. Sauveur, Vaudreuil-Soulanges.

From Bloc Populaire—Beauharnois, Montreal Laurier, Stanstead.

From C.C.F.—Rouyn-Noranda.

New seat—Saguenay.

Liberals (1):

From Union Nationale-Gaspe Gaspe North.

Independent (1):

Ottawa, July 29.—(C.P.)—Canadian railways have applied for another freight rate boost—15 per cent interim and 20 per cent permanent—hard on the heels of a 17-cents-an-hour increase to employees. And the action comes as provincial representatives protest a 21 per cent increase granted earlier.

The Railway Association yesterday asked for the new rates as a cabinet source said no decision is expected for two or three weeks on provincial arguments.

The Liberal opposition which held 33 seats in the Legislature dissolved June 9 did not count leader Adelard Godbout among its survivors. Mr. Godbout lost out in his own county of L'Islet.

The Union of Electors, Quebec third party which contested all 92 provincial divisions, also was swept aside with J. Ernest Gregoire, its leader, beaten.

Guy-Merrill Desaulniers, heading a seven-man C.C.F. attempt for representation in the bilingual house, was toppled with his followers.

Gui L. Caron, 26-year-old Labor Progressive candidate and the only representative of his party among 310 candidates in the contest, met no success.

All this was Quebec's response to Premier Duplessis' cry that the affairs of the Province have reached a grave point because its powers are the target of Federal policy.

He stood on his party's four-year record in power; promised to defend Quebec rights to his last breath.

As the results started in shortly after 6:30 p.m., E.D.T. yesterday, closing time for 9,417 polls through the vast expanse of Quebec, the trend of the vote became clear quickly. The Canadian Press announced a Union Nationale victory at 7:53 p.m. E.D.T.

Yugoslav Reds Stand By Tito

Belgrade, July 29.—(AP)—Yugoslav Communists today repudiated the Cominform's attacks on their leaders by electing Premier Tito and his entire list of candidates to the party's 68-member central committee.

Newspapers did not mention whether the voting at the Yugoslav party's historic conference was unanimous.

Tito's re-election as party general secretary, the role Stalin fills in the Russian party, was expected momentarily.

PREMIER MAURICE DUPLESSIS

Camillien Houde Calls For Resignation Of St. Laurent

Montreal, July 29—(CP)—Mayor Camillien Houde of Montreal said in a radio address last night that External Affairs Minister St. Laurent should resign because of the Union Nationale victory in yesterday's Quebec elections.

The mayor, who made a late appearance in the election campaign in support of Premier Duplessis, said:

"This victory by Mr. Duplessis and his ideas is your defeat. This is a cruel lesson, Mr. St. Laurent, but betrayals among us are not punished otherwise.

"It is your duty, Mr. St. Laurent, to admit from now on that you are not the leader of the race and to resign after this defeat, which is both that of Mr. Godbout and yourself."

The general expectation in Liberal circles, however, was that while External Affairs Minister St. Laurent, who played an active part in the campaign in support of Adelard Godbout, will suffer from the defeat he will still emerge next Thursday as the No. 1 choice to take over the Federal Liberal leadership from Prime Minister Mackenzie King.

The Federal government had despatched a formidable array of ministerial talent to the aid of Mr. Godbout but their efforts were to no avail.

The virtual collapse of the Liberals as a provincial party in Quebec is a blow to the Federal government's hopes of settling the Dominion-provincial relations tangle.

Despite other issues, the campaign was fought largely on the autonomy battleground. Ottawa now considers that the possibility of a tax pact with Quebec, on the Bourque And Robinson Add To Majorities As Twelve Counties Vote For U.N.

National Union supporters of Premier Maurice Duplessis will form a solid bloc from the Eastern Townships when the Government leader decides to call the next session of the Provincial Legislature. Led by Col. the Hon. J. S. Bourque, Minister of Lands and Forests and of Hydraulic Resources, who was elected in Sherbrooke for the fifth time with an unprecedented majority, the twelve Eastern Townships ridings were united in their support of the Government candidates. Former majorities were often doubled in the cases where the National Union members were re-elected while many a veteran Liberal representative, such as Henri Gosselin in Missisquoi, tasted a defeat administered by thousands of votes.

Perhaps the most impressive victory of all was registered in Sherbrooke County, where Col. Bourque literally waged his campaign from a sick bed. Confined to the hospital for most of the election battle, he returned home a few days before the struggle came to an end and made his only appearance of the campaign at Dufresne Park on the very eve of elections.

Despite these handicaps his former record-making majority of 3,649 in the 1944 general elections was virtually doubled, crossing the 7,500-mark with a few polls still to report. All three of his opponents lost their deposits, failing to register fifty per cent of the vote obtained by the elected candidate.

The Union des Electeurs, preaching a mixed doctrine of extreme nationalism and currency reform, made a perfect record, failing to elect a single candidate in their first bid for power. In certain instances, however, they seriously threatened the Liberals as runners-up.

In Sherbrooke County, Col. Bourque carried every Ward in the City and every poll in the rural districts, although in at least one instance he ranked second to the Union des Electeurs candidate insofar as individual urban polls were concerned. His majority of 3649 registered in the 1944 elections, when he outranked Maurice Gingues, Liberal Member of Parliament of Sherbrooke, was increased to one of 8154 over the Liberal candidate Donat Jacques and a clear majority over all three opponents of 3430.

The individual vote in Sherbrooke County with all 143 polls reported was: Bourque, 13,680; Jacques, 5,526; Gauthier, Union des Electeurs, 4456, and Marcel Bergeron, C.C.F., 268.

In Arthabaska, one of the three counties taken by the Liberals in the 1944 general elections, Wilfrid Labbe, running on the Nationale Union ticket, turned the slight Liberal majority of 33 taken by P. H. Plourde four years ago into an impressive government win of approximately 2,300. On the basis of nearly complete returns, Labbe polled 5,931 votes to 2,656 for E. Germain Lecourciere who replaced Plourde as Liberal candidate and 1,400 for Emile Ouelette of Union des Electeurs.

J. J. Bertrand, campaigning under the Duplessis banner in Missisquoi, defeated the sitting Liberal member, Henri Gosselin, by approximately 1,100 votes, overcoming a majority of 3,044 run up by Gosselin four years ago. With a few polls still to report, Bertrand polled 4,926 votes, Gosselin 3,882 and Aime Chevalier, Union des Electeurs, 212.

Charles D. French, who captured Compton for the Nationale Union in a by-election two years ago by a majority of 2,605, was re-elected by approximately 2,000 in a three-way battle with his former Liberal opponent, Waymer Laberee, and Louis Philippe Groleau, Union des Electeurs.

The fourth seat to be taken by Opposition forces in the 1944 elec-

Chemical Plant Explosion Death Toll May Reach 800

By JAMES J. DEVLIN

Ludwigshafen, Germany, July 29—(AP)—Dying flames today permitted rescue workers and investigators to approach the centre of the I.G. Farben chemical plant where an explosion yesterday took an estimated 300 lives.

The investigation into the cause of the blast took on new significance as the Russian-licensed press in Berlin flung charges that the plant was producing war materials illegally.

American, French and German rescue workers said some persons are still alive in the wreckage. Estimates on the number of dead and injured were unaltered. They appeared likely to remain unchanged until firemen could enter the core of the blast scene to obtain definite figures.

Mannheim police stood on their statement that 500 to 800 are missing and that most of them are presumed dead. The United States army also had not changed its estimate that at least 300 were killed and 6,200 injured in Europe's greatest post-war disaster.

The Ludwigshafen morgue contained 55 bodies of blast victims early today. And the major part of the plant's ruins are still to be explored.

Outwardly at least, the plant produced only industrial chemicals, pharmaceutical mixtures, dyes and similar products. But the Communist press in Berlin claimed that the disaster was caused by illegal production of explosives for rocket bombs.

Guarded comments of some Farben workers cast an air of mystery around the explosion.

Some persons who worked in the plant said they could not identify the products they were making. There have been unconfirmed reports of manufacture

Ulysse Lauzon Is Killed In US Gangland Shooting

Pascagoula, Miss., July 29.—(AP)—Ulysse Lauzon said he would live a life of luxury on his pirate's cache of $300,000. Perhaps he did, police said today, but it was a short life.

A bullet-pierced body, clad only in sports shirt and shorts, found near here last July 19, was identified yesterday as that of the little 26-year-old desperado from Windsor, Ont., Canada's public enemy No. 1 in the post-war underworld. Evidence pointed to a sordid, prosaic gangland shooting.

Identification was made through Lauzon's fingerprints, on file in almost every police headquarters in North America since his spectacular escape from Portsmouth Penitentiary in Kingston, Ont., nearly a year ago.

The body was found by a cattleman on horseback in the weeds at the foot of an embankment. It had been there some days police said.

Lauzon's greatest claim to gangland distinction was his participation in a $351,000 bank robbery at Bath, Ont., in August, 1945. It was the biggest bank "job" in Canadian history, but police tracked Lauzon through New Brunswick and into Prince Edward Island. There, near Charlottetown, he and his wife were seized before Lauzon could aim his gun.

Complete identification of the body as Lauzon's would end another part of one of the most intensive manhunts in Canadian history. Since Aug. 18, 1947, Lauzon and his partners in the Kingston Penitentiary escape, Donald (Mickey) McDonald and Nicholas Minille, had been sought by police in almost every city in Canada and the United States.

Minille, 36-year-old Ottawan, had been accounted for. He is in custody in Oakland, Calif., awaiting extradition to Canada to finish serving a 17-year sentence for armed robbery. Only McDonald, 41, of Toronto, remains at large.

Lauzon, who was serving a 35-year sentence for the Bath robbery when he escaped from Kingston, had boasted on his arrest that he had $300,000 hidden away and that he would live in luxury on the money.

Sheriff Guy Krebs yesterday announced the identification. He indicated that important information about the slaying would be expected within 36 hours and, for the time, declined to disclose further information. A coroner's jury returned a routine verdict of death "by a person or persons unknown."

Quebec Election Results

Following are the results of voting in the Quebec general election as compiled by The Canadian Press:

Legend: UN - Union Nationale; L - Liberal; UE - Union of Electors; CCF - Co-operative Commonwealth Federation; Lab - Labor; Lab-Prog - Labor-Progressive; Nat - -Nationalist; Ind - Independent; BP - Bloc Populaire; * - Member of last House.

Figures bracketed after constituency name indicate party majority in the last election or by-election. In the case of Charlevoix the majority shown is for the former constituency of Charlevoix-Saguenay which was split into two ridings by the 1945 redistribution, increasing the total of Legislature seats to 92. In most cases results are incomplete.

Johnny Bourque Sweeps County With 13,680 Votes

A Thank You To The Electors

Hon. J. S. Bourque is shown above speaking to the crowd outside the Record office following the announcement of his re-election as Sherbrooke County member of the Legislature. At the left, in the picture, is Roland Dugre, K.C., while on the right are Mrs. Bourque and Marcel Bourque, the Minister's son who played an active part in his father's campaign.

Piles Up Record Majority Of 8,154 Over Jacques As All Rivals Lose Deposits

Honorable J. S. Bourque, Minister of Lands and Forests and Hydraulic Resources in the Duplessis Cabinet was re-elected by an overwhelming majority in last night's surpise election, sweeping all of Sherbrooke county save three polls, two of which were taken by the Union des Electeurs candidate, Romeo Gauthier, and a third in which they tied.

As early returns began trickling in it was evident that Mr. Bourque would retain his seat and he was conceded the election by the returning officer at 7.30.

Loud speakers installed at the Record relayed the results to the crowds gathered on Wellington street and with each return it became more and more apparent that the Union Nationale party had nothing to worry about. Final results gave them 82 out of 92 ridings.

Mr. Bourque piled up his big margin in every ward in the city, in Lennoxville and in the rural polls. The district returning officer, J. D. O'Bready, announced these final results this morning: Mr. Bourque, 13,680; Donat Jacques, Liberal, 5,526; Romeo Gauthier, Union des Electeurs, 4,456, and Marcel Bergeron, 268.

In the English-speaking districts of Lennoxville and the North Ward, Mr. Bourque piled up impressive majorities.

His margin in the county over Mr. Jacques was 8,154 votes and he led his three rivals combined vote by 3,430.

Led by the Sherbrooke Harmony Band, a huge delegation called upon Mr. Bourque and drove him triumphantly through the city to the Record, where he was accorded an ovation by the large crowd.

Accompanied by Mrs. Bourque, his son Marcel, Redmond Hayes, K.C., Roland Dugre, K.C., and Armand Nadeau, K.C., the Honorable Johnny Bourque spoke to the citizens of Sherbrooke over the public address system.

He expressed regret that his political adversaries had lost their deposits and thanked the population of Sherbrooke county for their support in the campaign which he was forced to run from a sick bed. He mentioned particularly his oldest son, Marcel, a university student, who had carried a heavy burden on his young shoulders, as well as his organizers and supporters, whose efforts had won the victory for him.

"Now that the campaign is over," he continued, "let us forget our differences of opinion, let us forget any remarks which may have been made, and unite as one large family, to make of Sherbrooke a good example for the rest of the province."

The three other candidates in the county also answered the Record's invitation and appeared on the platform during the evening.

Donat Jacques, Liberal candidate, congratulated Mr. Bourque on his victory and expressed a wish for his complete recovery.

"The people of Sherbrooke have spoken," he said, "and we bow to their decision. However, I promised to make a clean honest fight and I have done so. Now that it is all over, I have nothing with which to reproach myself."

He thanked his supporters, as well as the local newspapers who had given him very satisfactory publicity. Mr. Jacques was accompanied by Armand Rousseau, K.C., and his organizers, Gerard Berard and Raymond Jeanson.

Expressing his thanks to the Record for the opportunity to speak to the electorate, C.C.F. candidate Marcel Bergeron said that the campaign was not successful for them because they had not the financial means to carry on.

He declared that, although they did not obtain the results they should have, it was not unexpected, because he and his party felt that it would require a few more years for the people of the province to understand and appreciate the C.C.F. policy. In conclusion he thanked the citizens of the county who cast their vote in his favor.

Gerard Lachance, secretary of the party, and Philippe Pepin, organizer, accompanied Mr. Bergeron.

Last candidate to speak was Romeo Gauthier, of l'Union des Electeurs.

Mr. Gauthier said he was certain that his organization had made great strides in the province, in their efforts to provide the people with a new standard of living. He promised that they would continue working towards the welfare of their fellowmen and would maintain their pressure on the government representatives, to obtain their objectives.

Striking an optimistic note, he assured the electorate that l'Union des Electeurs would be victorious some day, and poinnted to the number of votes which he had secured as auguring well for the future of his organization.

He expressed thanks to all those who assisted the organization, giving of their time and money and assured them that l'Union des Electeurs is still in the fight.

Runner-Up In Sherbrooke County

133 Candidates Lost Deposits

Quebec, July 29.—(C)—More than one-third of the candidates who contested yesterday's provincial election lost their $200 deposits in the landslide which swept Premier Duplessis back into power with 82 of the 92 seats in Quebec.

On the basis of incomplete overnight figures, approximately 133 of the 310 candidates failed to poll more than half of the winner's vote. In the 1944 Quebec election, 149 candidates lost their deposits.

This time, the Union of Electors, which contested every riding, was hardest-hit with 79 losing out, including the party leader J. Ernest Gregoire.

Very slight damage was done to the automobiles.

E. S. BRIGGS HEADS LIONS ASSOCIATION

Special to the Record

New York, July 29.—Eugene S. Briggs, Enid, Oklahoma, is the new president of the International Association of Lions Clubs. He was elected by unanimous vote at the 31st annual convention of the Association which closed here today. Briggs succeeds Fred W. Smith, of Ventura, Calif.

The convention concluded one of the most successful years in the history of Lions International, according to the report made by the secretary-general and founder of the Association, Melvin Jones, of Chicago, Ill. He reported the formation of 819 new Lions Clubs and the addition of 31,696 men to the roster of the Association in the twelve-months period ended June 30, 1948, for a total of 6,808 clubs and 358,144 members. He stated also that during the year Lions Clubs were established in four additional countries: Sweden, Switzerland, Chile and Newfoundland. Lions International, he added, is now the largest, strongest and most active service club organization in the world, with Lions Clubs in 23 countries on five continents.

Briggs, in accepting the presidency, said: "Peace is the number one problem of today. It is the first obligation against our efforts and resources. It is the primary obligation of our generation. Since Lions International is vitally interested in every constructive movement for world peace and good will around the world, it shall be our unwavering purpose to see to it that well-qualified representatives of our organization attend all meetings of specialized agencies of the United Nations, such as UNESCO, if it appears that we can be of service in charting a way to better international understanding."

The Sherbrooke Lions Club was represented at the convention by Cecil Dunn.

Washington, July 29.—(AP)—President Truman asked today that the United States Congress give him power to roll back prices on essential cost-of-living items to the level of prices in November, 1947, or the nearest "appropriate period."

Truman sent Paul Porter, former administrator of the Office of Price Administration, to the Capitol with details of what he wants.

Travelling Gavel Presented At Kiwanis Club's Meeting

Presentation of the Kiwanis "Travelling Gavel," created with the idea of furthering the development of greater friendship between Kiwanis Clubs through Inter-Club meetings, featured the weekly luncheon meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Sherbrooke yesterday at the New Sherbrooke Hotel.

The travelling gavel was presented by Roger McKergow of the Waterloo Club, who was accompanied by six members of the visiting club, including Pete Gunter, Charter President, and Bob Millinchamp, Past President and 1948 Chairman of the Agricultural Extension Committee, Ontario-Quebec-Maritimes District.

In a brief but well-delivered talk on "Kiwanis Ramblings," the guest speaker, Bob Millinchamp, stressed the opportunity as Kiwanians to help others, following the biblical quotation that "giving is far more gracious than receiving."

"It's the little things in life that count," he said, "and you can share the joy of helping others in countless opportunities in your daily life.

"There's a real satisfaction in the knowledge of having been of help to someone in need. . . it's part of your own Kiwanis creed, and the opportunity is your's through Kiwanis, so let that be your guiding light in the work of your club. The Kiwanis motto "We Build" gives you the incentive to be proud of your citizenship in such a great country as this Canada of ours, and I urge you to work wholeheartedly for construction, not destruction. The importance of civic responsibility rests on your shoulders . . don't complain unless you have some constructive criticism to offer at the same time . . . be aware of your role as a citizen and work for the common good.

In closing, Mr. Millinchamp addressed a few words of friendly advice to the Agricultural Committee, urging them to foster greater understanding and co-operation between the farmers and the city dwellers, stressing the importance of the Underprivileged Children's Committee in sharing the all-important task of developing useful citizens, and asking the Boys and Girls Work Committee to develop their program under the vitally-important aim of "personal contact."

Mr. Millinchamp was introduced by Russell Marois and thanked by Fred Simpson.

Following the luncheon, Roger McKergow of the Waterloo Club, presided most enjoyably as guest song leader, and obliged with a solo at the request of the members, with Jack Lenaghan at the piano.

Charter Night Plans Made

It was announced that a special Directors Meeting and members of the Charter Night Committee would convene tomorrow evening at the Officers' Mess of the Belvidere Street Armory at 8 p.m. to discuss important club business and complete final plans for the club's Charter Night scheduled for August 11 at the New Sherbrooke Hotel. 16 clubs from the Ontario-Quebec-Maritimes and New England Districts will be present, and various working equipment will be presented to the new Sherbrooke club at the same time that they receive their club charter. Governor Kenneth Greenaway, of Guelph, Ont., will present the charter, and the chairman of the evening will be Lieut. Gov. Perry Conklin of Brockville. A banquet will begin the evening, and the program will close with dancing to the music of Jack Lenaghan's Mayfair Orchestra. The Kiwani-Queens of local and visiting members will also be present.

Seated at the head table yesterday were President Newman Hunter, Vice-Presidents, Charles Kench and Lennox Keeler, Russell Marois, Harry Grundy and Alfred Savage, with Pete Gunter and Bob Millinchamp of Waterloo, and two guests, Frank Edwards, of Sherbrooke, and Gordon Bean, of North Hatley. Another guest was G. Earl Heath, of Derby Line, President of the Rotary Club of the Boundary. Alf Savage made the introductions.

Next week's meeting, at the New Sherbrooke Hotel, Wednesday, August 4th, at 12.15, will feature the special Kiwanis educational film, "Fred Jones, Kiwanian."

MAURICE DUPLESSIS UPHELD

It is midnight as this editorial is being written and the final results of the day's voting are trickling in from the outlying districts of the Province. But the voice of the electors has been heard in unmistakable terms. Prime Minister Maurice Duplessis and his Union Nationale party have been returned to power with an overwhelming majority.

The leader of the Union des Electeurs has been defeated in his own riding, and his party has failed to take a single seat. Adelard Godbout, Liberal leader, has been defeated by eighty-one votes in his own county, and his party has gone down to a disastrous loss. The C. C. F. has again showed that in the Province of Quebec it has virtually no supporters.

The fundamental issue in the election was Provincial rights, and Quebec has served notice on the Federal Government that it believes it can manage its own affairs without undue interference from Otttawa. It has served notice that it believes the right to govern is based on the right to tax, and is unalterably opposed to sacrifice this right in exchange for any Federal grant.

The victory of Premier Duplessis will shatter the prestige of Rt. Hon. Louis St. Laurent, who unwisely took an active part in the campaign against the Union National party. This is unfortunate as it may affect his chances for the Liberal leadership, to be decided at the party's convention to be held in Ottawa early next month. Mr. St. Laurent is by long odds the most outstanding man available for the Federal Liberal leadership, and the Liberals will be wise to choose him in spite of the Provincial defeat he suffered yesterday.

The complete failure of the Union des Electeurs demonstrates that the people of this Province are not easily fooled by election promises impossible to fulfill, and that theories of a "New France," sugared by "easy money" have no place in the political life of Quebec. It is to be hoped that yesterday's vote will finish this party in the Province.

Prime Minister Duplessis will now govern Quebec without a really effective opposition, and this will be a test more severe than if he had an aggressive and numerous group to oppose him in the Legislature. He will have to face the responsibility of judging legislation from all angles, without a vocal group to point out weaknesses for him. He has the qualities to meet this test, as he has known defeat before, and is not likely to be swept away by his own victory.

All Eastern Townships counties returned Union Nationale candidates, gaining Missisquoi from the Liberals and Stanstead from the Bloc Populaire. Jonathan Robinson, in Brome, the English-speaking representative in the cabinet, and John S. Bourque, the other Eastern Townships Minister, were both re-elected, substantially increasing their majorities.

Strongly endorsed by the electorate, Prime Minister Duplessis and his party must now govern for all the the people, and in the best interests of all classes. This the voters believe he has done in the past, and obviously are convinced he will do in the future.

CONFIDENCE IN J. S. BOURQUE

The great personal victory won in Sherbrooke County by Lt.-Col. the Hon. J. S. Bourque, M.C., D.C.L., is proof of the confidence the electors in this county have in their representative.

All Johnny Bourque's opponents lost their deposits, and his success is more than the popular trend which swept Prime Minister Maurice Duplessis back into power. It is a demonstration by the voters that personally Johnny Bourque is respected, liked and believed in.

Never before has the Minister had such a majority in Sherbrooke County, and his support came from all sections of the community. Of particular interest to the readers of the Record is the solid support he received from the English-speaking population.

In the eleven polls of Lennoxville, Huntingville and the Experimental Farm he received a majority of over five hundred, from a total of about fifteen hundred voters. The vote in this district was heavy, and Colonel Bourque was endorsed by over two-and-a-half to one.

In every poll in the North Ward he received a substantial majority, in most polls more than two to one. This endorsation cut across party lines, as the Minister received support for his fine personal record, and in gratitude for his efforts on behalf of Bishop's University and the new Sherbrooke Hospital.

Colonel Bourque and all the defeated candidates spoke from the Record office, and stressed the necessity now for unity within the county. All of them asked that the heat of the campaign be allowed to subside, and the losers generously congratulated the winner. This is in the best tradition of Sherbrooke County politics, and the winner and losers are to be congratulated on their attitude.

With Johnny Bourque again representing the county in the Provincial Government, Sherbrooke, Lennoxville and the surrounding municipalities are assured of the best possible representation.

CORE OF THIRD PARTY STRENGTH ARE LEFT-WING LABOR LEADERS

Backbone of the Henry Wallace Third Party is revealed here as coming from the leadership of the left-wing labor movement. It has for its front a few radical intellectuals like Louis Adamic, Howard Fast, Lillian Hellman and Prof. Rexford Guy Tugwell of the University of Chicago. It gets its mass support from Negroes, Jews, Townsendites and other minority groups.

But the main strength is drawn from 11 unpurged CIO unions, plus a scattering of Wallace button-wearers in the right-wing CIO unions, the AFL, the railroad brotherhoods and the United Mine Workers. Chairman of the National Labor Committee for Wallace is Albert Fitzgerald, president of the United Electrical Workers, CIO. His right-hand man and chief counsel is Lee Pressman, former CIO lawyer, now secretary of the Third Party platform committee and a candidate for Congress from Brooklyn. Their three vice-chairmen are Courtney Ward of Cleveland, president of the Northern Ohio Painters' Council, AFL, Donald R. Hicks of Minneapolis, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and Hugh Bryson of New York, president of the Marine Cooks and Stewards, CIO.

ROSTER OF PRO-WALLACE CIO INTERNATIONALS

The CIO internationals that openly support Wallace, and whose officers are all for Wallace, are: United Electrical Workers; Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers; United Office and Professional Workers; Fur and Leather Workers; Farm Equipment Workers; Harry Bridges' International Longshoremen and Warehousemen; Fishermen; Marine Cooks and Stewards; Food and Tobacco Workers; and Furniture Workers.

These left-wing unions represent a total membership of about 1,500,000, of which 600,000 are in the United Electrical Workers. All their Third Party activity is carried on against the policy laid down by Phil Murray, Dave McDonald, Jim Carey and other top CIO officers.

It might appear outwardly that CIO is ready to break wide open over the Wallace candidacy. So far, however, there has been no sign that left-wing unions want to break away from the parent CIO.

The left-wing unions find certain advantages in sticking to the CIO for strictly trade union activities. Possibly the left-wing unions hope that some day they can take over completely.

Phil Murray's opposition to the Wallace movement has forced Fitzgerald and Pressman to do a certain amount of underground work in getting support from rank and file members of the more conservatively led unions. In the anti-Communist directed Steel, Auto and Rubber Workers unions, Fitzgerald's organizers have worked at the local union level. They claim some 3,000 shop committees for Wallace, functioning against the top officers of their unions.

CIO'S PAC FIGHTS WALLACE MOVEMENT

Jack Kroll's CIO Political Action Committee has fought this Wallace movement as hard as it could. PAC units that show any interest in the Wallace candidacy are disciplined.

Fear of getting in bad with their international officers has kept many union men from supporting the Wallace movement openly. Fitzgerald lieutenants say, strangely enough, they report no opposition from leadership of the AFL unions or from John L. Lewis in the United Mine Workers.

What these left-wing labor elements want out of the Wallace movement is fantastic. Don Hicks, speaking for the railroaders before the Wallace Platform Committee, outlined these demands: The six-hour day; pension at half-pay for railroaders with 30 years service; amendment of the Railway Labor Act to give the brotherhoods more power, pending eventual ownership of the railroads. Stanley L. Loney, UEW vice-president, made these demands: Free high school and college education for all; free medical care and hospitalization for all; $100-a-month pensions for all over 60; $1-an-hour minimum wage; $40 a week for 52 weeks unemployment insurance; 52 weeks guaranteed work every year; and so on.

Foreign policy planks which Loney proposed included: Stop arming Germany for a "Holy War" against Russia; scrap the Marshall Plan; hold immediate peace talks with the Soviet Union.

These are fair samples of the demands made by a parade of over 75 witnesses from special interest groups of World Federalists, Amigos de Wallace, tenants, social workers, artists, scientists, teachers, Slavs, Armenians, writers and what-have-yous. Out of the whole bunch, there was not one that said there was anything good about the United States of America.

NAMES RISE AND FALL

Louisville Courier-Journal

Miss Margaret Truman has decreed that she will never give a date to a man who calls her "Maggie." That is her right and her privilege. Her prejudice is probably shared by most of the thousands of Margarets who abhor the nickname Maggie or Mag and who feel more dignified when hailed as "Peggy." We only question how long they will stick to this position. Feminine fashions move fast, and nowhere with greater speed than in the question of names and nicknames.

It is true that at this moment there is a great reaction against the nicknames of the Victorian era. The daughter of a Hattie of the Nineties is inevitably Harriet today. No self-respecting Mary will permit herself to be called Mamie, and the Sarahs will tolerate Sally but never, heaven forbid, Sadie. The highly solvent Hettie Green, if she lived in our era, would probably spend her last nickel to force the public to call her Henrietta. And where are the Mattie and the Gussies of yore?

Yea we warn our feminine contemporaries that they may change their minds as radically and as suddenly as they changed their hemlines. These matters move in cycles. Joan is now considered a name of dignity, with a certain slightly literary flavor. Yet Shakespeare associated the name with a scullery-maid, as did his contemporaries, when he wrote how the winter owl hoots "while greasy Joan doth keel the pot." Greasy Joan, indeed! And even now the Victorian nicknames are creeping back into style in the more sophisticated circles. The heroine of a very smart recent novel of life in Mayfair was known as Mag. Look out, Miss Truman. You may have to eat those words on some future date.

NEW LONDON FAD

Saturday Review of Literature

Bertrand Russell started another fad in London when he declined this irregular verb on a BBC radio program: "I am firm. You are obstinate. He is a pig-headed fool." The New Statesman offered prizes for more of the same. Here are a few of the winners:

I breakfast in bed. You are a mollycoddle. He is a hopeless valetudinarian.

I am traditional. You are old-fashioned. He is reactionary.

I like boys. You are an interior decorator. He is in prison.

I am a creative writer. You have a journalistic flair. He is a prosperous hack.

I have the new look. You have let down your hem. She has had that dress since 1934.

I have about me something of the subtle, haunting perfume of the Orient. You rather overdo it, dear. She stinks.

OFF THE MAP AGAIN

Charlottetown Guardian

It would appear that to the minds of those responsible for preparing travel folders for the Trans-Canada Airlies, Canada is composed of eight provinces. Prince Edward Island does not exist, not even in outline on the map.

This practice of ignoring our existence originated with the Canadian Pacific Railway, and has been a source of annoyance and complaint for years past. In the case of the TCA there is even less excuse, because, while not directly served by that Government subsidized organization, we have a fine feeder service which directly contributes to the national system, and information regarding this province, and the fact that it is readily accessible by air, should be made available to the public at large.

TCA officials have a duty in this connection which should be impressed upon them by our members of Parliament.

MILK TO MUSIC

Owen Sound Sun-Times

Russell Reeves of Chickasha, Oklahoma, is carrying a dangerous precedent too far.

First he installed a radio in the barn at his dairy farm to soothe his herd with sweet music at milking time.

Other farmers are also trying that experiment. The danger is obvious. If enough cows become accustomed to music with their milking, the time may come when we have raised a breed of cows which won't provide a drop of milk unless their favorite program is on the air.

WORKER'S CO-OPERATIVES

L'Action Catholique, Quebec

The day when, as consumers, working men are in a position to make heard a voice as strong, and to align as effective action as in their unions, they will no longer be under the necessity of watching the almost automatic dispersion of their wages. Masters of their purchasing power by co-operative action which assures the democratic control of commercial enterprise, they will gradually eliminate from the various distribution levels,—in certain cases going as far as production,—the exaggerated profits of which today they are often the victims.

GREAT CHANGE COMING IN U.S.; WHAT HOPES HERE?

Northern Miner

With Governor Dewey as President, as now seems most likely, the United States will undergo a tremendous change in financial policy. In the past half-century there were three such great changes. In 1896 McKinley was elected, free silver defeated, the gold standard affirmed, the essentials of the capitalistic system approved. In 1920, under Presidents Harding and Coolidge, Andrew Mellon promoted reduction of the war debt and kept it from having effect upon the commodity level. It was a period of thrift in government. In 1932 came Mr. Roosevelt's New Deal, cheap money, deficit spending, and the foundations for inflation. When Mr. Dewey becomes president, as he most certainly will, a reversal of financial policy is sure. He will be for business—like administration, for management and reduction of the public debt (a tremendous chore) and for sound money. He will make a cleanup of the theorists and the dreamers. He will be for the soundest possible money. That could mean gold back in circulation. It is rumored he will appoint Mr. Aldridge of the Chase National Bank, as Secretary of the Treasury. This banker believes in the gold standard, though not necessarily a higher price for gold. In any event, Mr. Dewey's administration will redevelop the old fashioned virtues of thrift in government and stability in finances. Such a course would lead naturally to lower taxes and a firm, free economy.

In contrast, Canada may still have mismanagement by long-haired idealists, socialistic tendencies toward insecurity under the guise of security, high taxes, high living costs, and a general dwelling in a life remote from reality. The comparison with a sound American economy will test the patriotism of many a young Canadian and test the world's esteem for the Dominion.

However, into our picture of governmental miscalculation and misplanning has entered a new factor; the good chance that the Progressive Conservative Party can be revived as a powerful force in government. Millions of Canadians are fed up with the financial trifle dished out by the Liberals at Ottawa; they crave plain and nourishing fare. This country is ripe for revival of government business on business lines.

The projected appointment of a new leader of the Progressive Conservative party to replace John Bracken, who is resigning for health reasons, therefore carries implications of the greatest importance, especially to the Canadian mining industry. Though there is a disposition in spots to read the party out as a force in Canadian government because it is in the saddle only in Ontario, the failure of the newest party, the C.C.F. to gain support outside of Saskatchewan and the industrial areas of Ontario and some other provinces, would seem to leave the Progressive Conservatives in a position to garner all the benefits of the perceptible fading of the Liberal position in the Dominion field.

The likelihood of a strong Conservative opposition in Ottawa, if if not a Conservative government, has real meaning to mining people. Colonel George Drew, the Progressive Conservative Premier of Ontario, who is named most likely to lead the party in the federal field, has described the Liberal Government's financial policy, including parity, as "economic lunacy." That his ideas are those of the party is shown by a resolution, passed in a Conservative convention, demanding a free market for gold, and urging that Canada adopt a sound money policy. Should the party come into control it would probably stop the irritating import and travel restrictions, and the borrowing of money in the United States. This would end the fictitious price placed on the Canadian dollar.

The Conservative party, also, is on record as favoring the getting away from management of national affairs by department officials instead of by parliament. Public reaction to planning is becoming more critical by the day and the Progressive Conservatives no doubt plan to capitilize in the next federal election on the growing disfavor in which the Liberal Government's economic policy is held. The people know they live in the world's second richest country, in respect to resources, but so far as freedom goes they might as well be living in the Balkans.

FROM THE PEN OF E. T. WRITERS

FROM A "DEFUNCT" TOWNSHIPER

Not long ago I wrote a "poem"
About our many taxes,
When they hit tea, it seemed the worst
Of all our "climbing" axes!

But now I've handed in my guns,
Life's caught me by the short hairs,
It's "houses" now have put a run
On all my previous doldrums.

Four years I searched and stewed in vain
In dear old Sherbrooke city
To find a house, but now again
I'm stranded, hence this ditty.

A "house to rent," the agents snort,
"You really must be crazy,
There's none to rent, some may be bought
At prices quite "amazy."

So now, Farewell, it was my hope
To be a "Township writer,"
To read the "Record's" daily dope
Which made my life much brighter

"Old soldiers never die," 'tis said,
So I am not vanquish-ed,
To Sherbrooke, I'll come back some day
And live there till I'm dead-ed!!!

McKENNY ON BRIDGE

Lesson Hand

NO DEFINITE RULES MAKES PLAY DIFFICULT

Bridge teachers tell me that with concentration, anyone can learn how to bid in a reasonably short time, but they agree that the play of the hand is difficult for most people. I can well understand this, because there are no set rules.

Take today's hand, for example. If dummy holds the K 9 7 2, and you hold the A Q 10 5 3, the correct play to keep from losing a trick is to lay down the ace. Then you will be able to finesse either hand out of the jack.

But that is because you hold the ten-spot. When you are missing the ten, as in today's hand, a study of the situation will show you that you cannot lay down the ace. If the four trumps to the jack-ten are in the West hand, you never can pick them up. And if they are in the East hand, you must first play toward the king.

Declarer wins the opening lead of the club ten with the queen in dummy and cashes the king of spades. When West shows out, South leads dummy's nine of spades. East has to cover with the ten, so declarer wins with the queen, goes back over to dummy and leads the seven of spades. East covers with the jack and declarer wins with the ace. Now the last trump is picked up and declarer has the balance of the tricks.

Ultimate Fate Of Tito Is A Puzzle

By

DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press News Analyst

One of the outstanding puzzles of the moment revolves about the ultimate fate of Yugoslavia's dynamic Red dictator, Marshal Tito, who is in Moscow's bad graces.

It's a month now since the powerful Communist information bureau went to the extreme of publicly denouncing Tito's leadership of his country and declaring that unless he hews to the Moscow line he must get out. A month is a long time for a Communist to keep going after Moscow has turned thumbs down and given the nod to the headsman.

Still Tito not only hangs on but seems stronger than ever with his followers. Why? Has this Tito, adored by his followers but labelled a villain by many of the outside world, just been lucky thus far in evading punishment by Moscow, or are we witnessing the emergence of another of those outstanding dictators who have made history in the past couple of generations?

Probably Moscow is trying to figure that out, too, for Tito's defiance of the Soviet dictatorship is close to unique among top-leaders of the Red world revolution. This is the first break in the solidarity of the Communist slave states of eastern Europe, a break which could work irreparable damage to Russia's drive to communize the entire continent.

Tito's response to Moscow's edict amounted to open defiance. He expressed deep affection for Stalin and swore to follow the party lines, but by both word and deed he has made it clear that he is the big boss in Yugoslavia and his influence reaches into neighboring states.

It looks as though the Comintern holds that Tito has committed the unpardonable sin of poking his head up too high. That's a dangerous game to play with Moscow, and he isn't likely to get away with, it unless, as remarked before, he is another of those rare personalities who possess supreme leadership.

As generalissimo of relatively small Yugoslavia, Tito hasn't had the big field of, say, a Hitler in which to demonstrate his leadership. However, Moscow accuses him of aiming at a Balkan federation, and that would give him a great sphere of activity.

That, of course, is what Moscow is afraid of. The Yugoslav Communist congress was told yesterday that all plans for a Balkan federation have been dropped. Maybe, but the proof of the plum duff is in the eating thereof, and we shall see.

Tito isn't going to give up his dictatorship without a struggle. And he is tough. He also follows the code that Communism can do no wrong.

The 56-year-old Tito, born Josip Broz, is a peasant's son who has pulled himself up by his bootstraps. He distinguished himself in the war by leading a partisan army against the German invaders of Yugoslavia and became such a thorn in the side of the Nazis that a reward of 100,000 marks was placed on his head.

Tito acquired his Communism in the First World War and inflicted it on Yugoslavia during the second global conflict. Now we wait to see whether his stature is great enough so that he can defy Moscow and get away with it.

Smith Returns To Moscow

Moscow, July 29—(AP)—United States ambassador Walter Bedell Smith returned by plane to Moscow today after talks in London and Berlin.

Frank Roberts, former British minister to Moscow and a private secretary to foreign secretary Bevin, was with him. The plane arrived from Berlin in mid-afternoon.

Smith carried plans for the next step of Britain, the United States and France toward settling the German crisis. He and the British and French ambassadors are expected to talk within a few days about the Berlin crisis, other German problems and perhaps the whole scope of European problems.

Liberal Leader

led the parade. Within three-quarters of an hour of poll closing Premier Duplessis' home-town win, with an ultimate majority of more than 12,000 was reported.

The Premier's 20 Cabinet Ministers lined up behind him as returning officers counted ballots that were expected to outnumber 1944's record total of 1,330,059.

Yesterday approximately 2,000,000 men and women who were voting for the second time in a Quebec general election, were eligible electors. Two women among the array of candidates, many of who sacrificed their $200 deposits, were left far behind in the race.

The Union Nationale sweep at the close of a campaign that lasted nearly two months and deluged the electorate with a multi-barrelled publicity barrage struck hard at the innermost Liberal ramparts.

The votes that piled up on Premier Duplessis' traditionally lucky Wednesday which he chooses as election day for sentimental reasons, were cast with little of the fuss and dowdyism of the past. But they hit hard at Montreal and Quebec districts, Liberal strongholds in 1944.

They reached up and down the shores of the St. Lawrence that divides Quebec, lopping off careers of Liberal veterans and newcomers.

When the 58-year-old Liberal leader went down after a touch-and-go count in rural L'Islet to the Union Nationale newcomer, Dr. Fernand Lizotte, there was only one of Godbout's former Cabinet colleagues left.

He was Henri Groulx, Montreal druggist and former health minister, who held his seat of Montreal Outremont with surprising ease.

The Union Nationale gain at the expense of the Liberals was an overpowering total of 26. The smoothly-organized party also picked up three seats abandoned by the Bloc Populaire, which cut heavily into Union Nationale majorities four years ago.

The government party also picked up the only seat the C.C.F. had won in 1944 in Rouyn-Noranda.

The only Liberal gain was reported from far down the St. Lawrence in Gaspe North where former Union Nationale member Alphonse Pelletier entered the contest late.

The lone independent who got in did so at Liberal expense in Montreal St. Ann. He was Frank Hanley, city councillor who tossed campaign beer parties for his constituents.

The Legislature's Nationalist member, 47-year-old Rene Chaloult with no opposition from the Union Nationale whose re-election he urged, won handily in Quebec (county). Chaloult rode the crest of a wave of upset in old Quebec city district which overthrew every one of its five Liberal members.

When the polls closed last night, bachelor Premier Duplessis was at home on Bonaventure street in Three Rivers with relatives, friends and member of his organization.

A huge crowd gathered outside his tidy brick home and wasn't satisfied until the re-elected government chief appeared to be led through town in a parade a mile and a half long.

"Three Rivers," the Premier told the excited throng, "placed itself in the front rank in the claim for popular rights and triumph of the people over those who wanted to deprive them of their religious and national prorogatives."

Mr. Godbout also got the election results at his home in Quebec city where he motored from L'Islet. "I have given several years of my life for national unity and the understanding of problems the nation has faced," he said. "For those ideals I am ready to give the rest of my days either in public life or otherwise."

Hon. C. G. (Chubby) Power, former air minister and member of the Liberal campaign organization, received word in Quebec South which he represents in the Commons.

"It may be a new ideology that the people manifested so strongly against us," Mr. Power told Liberal supporters in Berthelot hall which got word of defeat in Quebec South for the first time in 40 years.

External Affairs Minister St. Laurent who campaigned at Mr. Godbout's side had no comment.

The Union of Electors leader, Mr. Gregoire, thought the election result was "a pure and simple robbery."

there of high-explosive propulsion fuels for experiments with V-1 and V-2 rockets.

The chain of blasts destroyed or damaged 18 buildings in the plant, which employed 22,000 workers. But the cause of the original explosion could not be determined until the wreckage cooled enough to permit investigation.

American and French soldiers with German firemen and police plunged into the blazing inferno to save trapped workers. Some wore gas masks. Other operated bulldozers to nudge paths through the wreckage.

Special efforts were being made to prevent the flames from reaching underground storage tanks, reported to contain highly volatile chemicals.

One by one rescue workers dragged out blood-smeared men and women from under beams or walls. Sometimes the persons on the stretcher was still breathing. Sometimes the victim was dead, distorted by heat or discolored by chemicals.

Strong fumes from burning chemicals sent survivors reeling about the streets like blind men.

A women chemist, one of the survivors, said: "I had just started washing my hands to get ready to go home when a terrible blow smashed the windows and destroyed all our laboratory equipment. I rushed out as fast as I could and luckily enough, here I am."

Karl Ludwig, a Farben executive, was in his office, about 300 yards from the probable spot of the blast. He said:

"I was sitting at my desk when I heard a terrible noise. The windows in the room were smashed and I could see flames 300 and 400 metres (325 to 425 yards) away."

SAFE-CRACKERS ROB DOWNTOWN GARAGE TODAY

Safe cracking thieves made off with some two hundred dollars after they had bored open the safe in the Thibault and Bouchard garage on Grand Forks Street early this morning, it was learned at police headquarters.

The theft was carried out by experienced safecrackers, police stated after an initial investigation in which they found the safe-breakers' tools on the banks of the St. Francis River not far from the garage. In their evident haste to quit the garage, the thieves left nearly fifty dollars in bills and change scattered over the floor.

They are believed to have entered through a window which opens over the river bank and to have made their exit the same way.

The safe was damaged beyond repair, according to Mr. Thibault this morning. He added that no other papers or articles in the safe except the money were touched. The building had not been equipped with a burglar alarm.

Municipal Police Chief Moreau, accompanied by Sergeant Fortier, Sergeant-Detective Gaboureault and Detective Boisvert, carried out the investigation this morning, which they termed a "local case."

Investigation continues this afternoon.

tions, Stanstead, which fell to the Bloc Populaire, was regained for the Nationale Union by Denis Gerin, who polled 6,647 votes against 3,981 for Maurice Theroux, Liberal, and 1,647 for Edouard Lemelin, Union des Electeurs. Ovila Bergeron, the Bloc candidate who received 404 majority in 1944 did not seek re-election.

Mines Minister Jonathan Robinson, who carried Brome County by 655 majority in 1944, almost doubled his majority yesterday, polling 3,563 votes to 2,315 for his Liberal opponent, Bruce Bailey, and 138 for Arthur Raymond, Union des Electeurs.

Another Government supporter to double his majority was Robert Bernard in Drummond. In the 1944 elections he received a majority of 1,979 and yesterday he headed Edmond Major, Union des Electeurs, and Paul Theroux, Liberal, by approximately 4,000 votes.

With returns far from complete it is obvious that Hon. Patrice Tardif, Minister without Portfolio, seeking re-election in Frontenac, will more than double his 1944 majority. Elected at that time with 1,307 lead, early today, with 56 of 76 polls reported, he had polled 4,992 votes, to 2,238 for Louis Philippe Cliche, his Liberal opponent, and 1,585 for Henri Latulippe, Union des Electeurs. Both Opposition candidates are expected to lose their deposits.

Hon. Tancrede Labbe, Minister without Portfolio, again received the confidence of the citizens of Megantic. Polling 9,366 votes, he held an overall majority, defeating the Liberal runner-up, Alyre Lachance, by 2,981 votes. The detailed complete vote was: Labbe, 9,366; Lachance, 6,485, and Ovila Cote, Union des Electeurs, 2,650.

Considered throughout the campaign as one of the doubtful seats in the Eastern Townships, Richmond went all out for the National Union candidate, Albert Goudreau, of Asbestos, jumping his slender majority of 282 in 1944 to over 2,000 yesterday. With a few polls to report, the standing was: Goudreau, National Union, 5,945; Albert Paquette, Liberal, 3,903, and Roland Pelletier, Union des Electeurs, 3,864.

Hector Choquette held a substantial lead in Shefford, the National Union member holding a 1,700 vote lead with thirty polls still to report. In 1944 his majority was 1,297. His opponents yesterday were Jeremia Duhamel, Liberal, and Roland Corbeil, Union des Electeurs.

From a percentage viewpoint, the most impressive majority gain was that of Henri Vachon, carrying the National Union standard in Wolfe. In 1944 Vachon's majority was 61, but yesterday, with four polls to report, he ran this up to 1,061. The incomplete figures were: Vachon, National Union, 4,091; Ernest Gingras, Liberal, 3,030, and Henri Lapierre, Union des Electeurs, 440.

terms now offered, has been made infinitely more remote.

Mr. St. Laurent was not available for comment on the election result while Agriculture Minister Gardiner, whose chances of gaining the Federal Liberal leadership some observers believe may have been enhanced at Mr. St. Laurent's expense, remarked: "I don't think I have anything to say."

Three Rivers, July 29.— (CP) — Premier Duplessis last night told a cheering crowd cramming the streets of working-class Ste. Marguerite parish that his National Union Party's sweeping election victory was a triumph for the people of the province.

"It is the victory of those wishing Quebec to remain mistress of her destiny," said the 58-year-old National Union leader, who travelled the streets in an open car behind a mile-long victory parade.

The Premier, given a thumping majority over his Liberal and Union of Electors opponents in Three Rivers division, told his listeners he was "particularly proud" of his home-town support.

"Three Rivers placed itself in the front rank in the claim for popular rights and in the triumph of the people over those who wanted to deprive them of their religious and national prerogatives," Premier Duplessis said.

"It is in the parish of Ste. Marguerite that I wish to open my heart because of the profound admiration that I bear for the parish, for its remarkable work toward settlement of the grave problem of housing which we will take steps to settle."

Premier Duplessis spoke at Ste. Marguerite Parish Hall under multi-colored lights stretched high above the throng shouting "Hourrah pour Maurice."

Before the gathering were posters telling the story of the National Union election win, county by county.

Children pressed forward to the platform to join in the celebration. Premier Duplessis threw his arms around those nearest him acknowledging their acclaim.

"The Province of Quebec," said the Premier, "pronounced itself categorically, as shown by the brilliant victory of the National Union across the province, against centralization and abandonment of its prerogatives."

A very pleasant reunion was held on July 18, at the home of Mr. Albert Hetherington by his daughter, Daisy, and son, Lloyd, when a birthday dinner and supper were served in honor of his youngest daughter, Dollie, Mrs. Wilfred Trussler, of Sherbrooke, and Mr. Wilfred Trussler and two daughters, Caroline and Esther. Miss June Trussler, a student nurse-in-training at the Sherbrooke Hospital, was unable to attend the reunion.

Mr. Jack Young, of Greenlay, was a guest of Mr. Albert Hetherington and family.

The Doctor Says:

PERSONS WHO HAVE HEMOPHILIA MAY POSSIBLY BLEED TO DEATH

By Edwin P. Jordan, M.D.

A true "bleeder," in the medical sense, is one who has an hereditary or inborn disease called hemophilia. This sometimes known as the "royal disease," because it frequently occurred in the royal families of Europe during the time when its members were closely related by inter-marriage.

Persons subject to this bleeding tendency are remarkably healthy and differ from others only in their tendency to easy and excessive bleeding. The condition is limited to the male line, although it is carried by women to their male children. Although in rare cases women bleed almost as easily as true hemophiliac men, it is usually considered to be a strictly male disease.

Bleed to Death

A trifling injury, which would be of no consequence to a normal person, will cause severe bleeding in a true hemophiliac. Under such circumstances the blood may trickle or ooze on and on until death finally comes. Bleeding may be internal as well as external. Most attacks are caused by some injury, even though the injury is nothing more than a slight bump or bruise.

The tendency to abnormal bleeding is almost always noticed in early childhood and lasts until adult life. It becomes gradually less severe, and finally disappears if the victim lives through the early difficulties. Nose bleeds and bleeding after the extraction of a tooth are frequent.

Treatment of the bleeding in a victim of hemophilia is difficult. Transfusion of blood is often necessary and usually is the best thing. Other measures aimed at increasing the speed of blood clotting have been tried with more or less success.

The most important thing to do is to try to prevent bleeding. Every effort should be made to avoid injury and operations. Anyone who has hemophilia should inform his physician of the tendency before any medical examination begins.

Q—Can knock-knees be cured?

A — Knock-knees in the very young can often be successfully treated without surgery. In older years, and in some children, an operation on the bone is generally necessary.

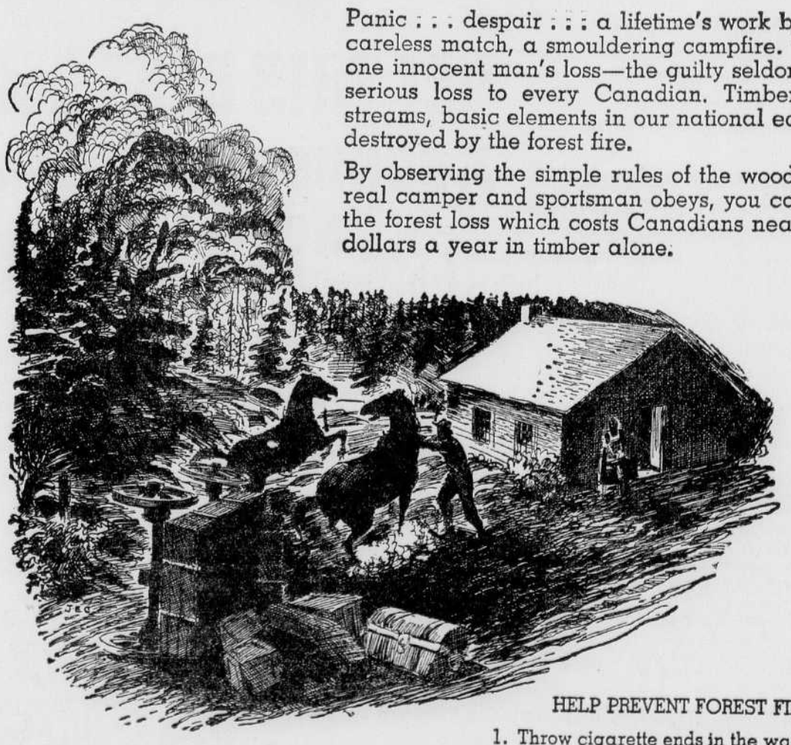
Forest loss is your loss...



Panic . . . despair . . . a lifetime's work burned out by a careless match, a smouldering campfire. This is not only one innocent man's loss—the guilty seldom suffer—but a serious loss to every Canadian. Timber, wildlife and streams, basic elements in our national economy, are all destroyed by the forest fire.

By observing the simple rules of the woods, which every real camper and sportsman obeys, you can help prevent the forest loss which costs Canadians nearly four million dollars a year in timber alone.

HELP PREVENT FOREST FIRES

1. Throw cigarette ends in the water or snub them out on a rock.
2. Break used matches in two.
3. Build campfires near the water on rocks or well cleared mineral soil.
4. Make sure your fire is out before you leave it unattended.

BABY BAND HOLD VERY FINE MEETING

Knowlton July 29. —The Baby Band of the United Church held a very interesting meeting and tea in the church school room, on Friday afternoon, July 16, under the supervision of the Baby Band Superintendent, Mrs. Donald Miller.

There were about forty mothers and their small children present at the meeting which opened with the roll call, and minutes of the last meeting, read by Mrs. Miller.

Mrs. Coote was pianist for the afternoon and the hymn, "Tell Me The Stories of Jesus was Sung," after which the Scripture reading, Mark 10: 13-16, was read by Mrs. Grey. Dr. Grey then lead in prayer.

The children handed in their Mite Boxes and the offering was received.

Mrs. Miller then introduced Miss Isabel Miller, who is leaving shortly for China as a Missionary. Miss Miller told the children a very interesting story. The Hymn, "Jesus loves the little children," followed, and the older children retired to the Church Parlour, where Scrap Books were made under the supervision of Mises Barbara Jean Armstrong, Barbara Duboyce and Janet Darbe.

Mrs. Miller warmly welcomed Dr. and Mrs. Grey to the meeting.

The superintendent brought to the attention of theose present, the Literature Table, and mentioned that orders could be placed for literature that day. She also mentioned that if any of the mothers were interested, a Study Group could be formed. Mrs. Miller also reminded the members that the children of the Baby Band were members of the Sunday School Beginners' Class and also pointed out the Nursery Roll.

Miss Isabel Miller was then called upon and spoke especially to the mothers and referred to the book "Towards A Friendly World," which is largely used in Baby Band Groups. Her address stressed racial tolerance.

The Mission Band hymn, "Far Round The World" was then sung, and the meeting closed with the Benediction. Lunch was then served to the mothers and children.

Chatterboxes

Husbands Insist Wives Talk Too Much But Flee From Silent Partners

From time to time letters come to this column from husbands, complaining that their wives' constant chatter gets on their nerves. They protest that they are practically talked to death and they long for silence.

Well, of course, one does get tired of the brook that babbles on and on forever without ever stopping, but better the one who talks too much than the one who doesn't talk at all. I wonder if these men ever have lived in the house with one of those silent, self-contained people who never start a conversation, or make an observation or a comment, or say a word that you don't have to drag out of them with a cork-screw?

DOROTHY DIX

They are about as companionable as a stone image would be, and they wory you because you never know what they are thinking, or what they want to do, or whether they are pleased or displeased. You finally get to the point where you can hardly restrain yourself from sticking pins and needles in them to see if you can get any human reaction out of them.

EXPECT CONVERSATION

The majority of men much prefer the talkative woman to the silent one. They expect women to keep the conversation running, and when they don't, they feel themselves grievously ill-used and put upon and they flee from the tongue-tied lady as from the pest. Usually a woman who has nothing to say is avoided by men as if she had some physical deformity.

Of course, there are many husbands who make a standing joke of their wives talking too much. Apparently they agree with Rip Van Winkle, who, when the the dwarf in the mountains conveyed to him the information that he had nine sisters and they all were dumb, exclaimed: "My, whath wives they would make!" But, in reality, no man really wants that kind of a wife.

The happy homes are not those presided over by silent women, but by those cheery little souls who chirp like a canary in a cage, the sort of women who know everything that is happening in the neighborhood, and who can't go down the street without seeing something funny and interesting out of which they can make a good story to tell at dinner.

The main thing that is the matter with domestic life is there isn't enough conversation in it. Whenever you can find a family in which the husband and wife can talk endlessly together, you will find a happy one and one in which there is no danger of the husband getting tired of his wife.

However, maybe some wives do talk too much. I'll admit that there are times when we all crave bursts of eloquent silence, but even so, better too much talk than no talk at all.

The Record will be pleased to receive any letters to this Dorothy Dix column. These will be forwarded to Miss Dix who will answer them as quickly as possible.

MODERN MARRIAGE

STRATEGY IN HANDLING IN-LAWS

By DR. PAUL POPENOE

As soon as the honeymoon was over, the in-laws appeared. "My husband's mother is too helpful," Mrs. L. declares. "The day we returned, she began to instruct me about how to take care of her darling boy; what he liked to eat, and how I should arrange the furniture for his comfort. His sister also undertook to educate me as to how I should run my own affairs. I can't stand it, Dr. Popenoe. I don't care whether they mean well, or not. As far as I'm concerned, they're mean, that's all."

Many a young wife has had similar problems to face. Some young husbands have had their own difficulties. I can't describe all the symptoms, but every reader can fill in the details from his own observation of such cases among his acquaintances, if not nearer home. The question is, as Mrs. L. puts it, "What can I do that won't make the situation worse?"

Frankly, that's not an easy question to answer, Mrs. L. So much depends on the personalities involved that no simple solution can be offered. But there's one thing you can't do. You can't afford to drag your own family into it. Sometimes a wife, annoyed by her husband's parents, turns to her own parents for sympathy, or even for advice. This widens the circle of problems, instead of narrowing it. Usually it's not well to consult people who are related to you. Go to a stranger, if you can find one whose judgment and discretion you trust.

On the other hand, there are three things you can do.

1. Be patient. Remember that it's going to take some time for you to adjust to the new situation of being Martin's wife. It's going to take his mother a similar length of time, perhaps, to adjust to the new situation of no longer being first in Martin's life.

2. Try to get her point of view. If you will ask yourself just what she is trying to do, you'll be better able to deal with her. Probably she isn't trying to make you miserable. She is merely trying, stupidly enough, to ensure the happiness of her son. Since that's what you want, too, you need not object to her motives, even if you have reason to object to her acts.

3. Try to make yourself more efficient, in any ways that need improvement; then leave it to your husband to wean himself gradually. He's really in a more difficult position than you are! Don't make it harder for him. The easier you make it for him to face this problem, the easier it will be for him to maintain his paramount loyalty to you.

Questions and Answers

Q—What can parents do to reduce juvenile delinquency?

A—First, set their own houses in order. Most juvenile delinquents come from broken homes. Then work for better community conditions, more normal social life for young people, and a fair share of the productive work of the world for them.

Q—Can your first love affect your future with other boys?

A—Everything we do affects our future; but first loves are often evanescent and soon almost forgotten.

Q—What's your objection to free love?

A—Partly that is neither (1) free nor (2) love.

½ cup shortening (part butter)
½ teaspoon vanilla
1 cup granulated sugar
2 eggs, well-beaten
2 cups sifted VELVET FLOUR
½ teaspoon salt
2½ teaspoons baking powder
¾ cup milk

CREAM—shortening until fluffy and add vanilla.
ADD—sugar gradually, beating until creamy.
ADD—beaten eggs and beat again until light.
SIFT—flour, salt and baking powder together.
ADD—flour mixture to creamed mixture alternately with milk, beginning and ending with dry ingredients.
MIX—just until blended—do not beat after flour has been added.
TURN—into greased and lightly floured 9-inch layer cake pans, or 9-inch square pan.
BAKE—in a moderate oven, 350° F, 25-30 minutes.
LET STAND—5 minutes; turn out.
WHEN COLD—decorate with chocolate frosting, candles and birthday greetings.

CHOCOLATE FROSTING

1½ tablespoons butter
1 teaspoon vanilla
few grains salt
5 tablespoons cocoa
1½ cups sifted icing sugar
2-3 tablespoons hot, strong coffee

CREAM—butter until fluffy; add vanilla and salt.
ADD—cocoa gradually.
ADD—icing sugar alternately with coffee, using sufficient coffee to make a creamy mixture, firm enough to spread over cold cake.

Pennant Not Seen In Bag For Braves; Stanky's 60-Day Lay-Off To Be Felt

By JIM O'LEARY
NEA Staff Correspondent
(Pinch-hitting for NEA sports Editor Harry Grayson, who is en route to London to report the Olympic Games.)

New York, July 29.—(NEA)—Oldtimers can now tell the pennant winners simply by the Fourth of July rule. But not this department. It's all too confusing.

Take the senior circuit, for example.

The Boston Nationals, leading the crop, should be a shoo-in.

Pitchers Johnny Sain, Bill Voiselle and Lefty Warren Spahn are breezing along with only minor difficulties here and there.

Veteran rightfielder Tommy Holmes, rookie shortstop Al Dark and leftfielder big Jeff Heath are hitting the proverbial apple.

Catcher Phil Masi, Dark, second baseman Eddie Stanky and his understudy Connie Ryan, plus centerfielder Jim Russell have given the Braves defensive strength up the middle where it counts most.

The bats of first sacker Earl Torgeson and third baseman Bill (Most Valuable Player) Elliott are sure to get hotter.

The leadership couldn't be better. Everyone knows what Billy Southworth did with a bunch of kids named Musial, Marion, Kurowski, Pollet, etc., in St. Louis back in 1942-43-44.

What else does a club need?

But that's the catch. Eddie Stanky, the infield spark, is gone for 60 days.

That takes the club into mid-September with Connie Ryan, a capable enough second sacker, plugging the gap.

Connie, who had 69 RBI's with a .265 batting average in 150 games last year, is steady but not a trouble maker or keystone wonder like the former Brooklyn bad man.

The Walking Man is responsible for much of Al Dark's brilliance, too. Billy the Kid Southworth will miss him, perhaps just enough to make the difference.

The Pirates—maybe. Too much may depend on the batting strength of outfielder Ralph Kiner and Company.

Fritz Ostermeuller, 41 come World Series time, is carrying a terrific mound load.

But you can't count the Pirates out when they still hover around second place annoyingly.

Wonder Man Musial and the other hustling Red Birds are appreciated at home, and respected the league over.

Manager Eddie Dyer says, "if I can keep my regulars in the line-up and get a little more pitching help, we'll be tough to beat."

And doesn't everyone know it!

The Giants seem to have made their bid.

The Polo Grounders are limping along on catcher Walker Cooper's bad leg with no pitchers to support the bats of Whiz Kids Bobby Thomson and Whitey Lockman, both outfielders, to say nothing of home-run clouting first baseman Johnny Mize.

And just when everyone was giving up on Brooklyn including the legendary Dodger fans—wham!

Apparently Manager Leo Durocher has found a line-up that will suit him two days in a row.

The capable Negro catcher Roy Campanello and outfielder George Shuba, brought up from Montreal and Mobile belatedly, are already regulars.

The way ex-catcher Bruce Edwards is playing the hot corner, incidentally, it's time to start calling him a third sacker.

Now that everyone knows what type of glove to take onto the field, the Brooks are on the move.

There was no stopping second baseman Jackie Robinson on his recent inside-the-park round-tripper at the Polo Grounds.

Coach Ray Blades waved the biggest pair of hands in his face you ever saw for a definite hold-up sign at third, but the ex-Uclan flyer ignored them, and went on to score.

The Dodgers just aren't dodging anyone these days. They are making the bid with fight, hustle and good baseball. And, what's more, they got another taste of that first division, and liked it.

So while thinks look very bright up in Beantown and the Hub is getting to be a National League town for the first time since Stallings' Miracle Club of 1914, the pennant still isn't in the bag.

The race is on and it will be fun to watch.

ACTIVITIES AT DANVILLE CLUB ARE INCREASING

Asbestos, July 29. — During the past two weeks' activities of the Danville Country Club have reached a new high, the lovely summer weather has brought, with it, more enthusiasm from the golfers who have been turning out en masse nearly every evening, and crowding the Course on the week-ends to take part in the various competitions, and enjoy the long cool evenings at their favourite sport.

Mr. McLean and the Green's Committee have taken advantage of the weather to put every effort into finishing off the course this year, and already, all but one 'green,' have been shaped and seeded. The 'fairways' are in fine shape and it is expected that eight permanent greens will be playable by the end of August. Because of the enthusiasm of the regular and older members, and the ability of the Pro. Mr. McLean, to put the course in such fine condition, the executive are pleased to see the membership growing week by week.

On Sunday, July 11, members of the Thetford Mines Golf Club were guests of the Danville Country Club for their return game of the season. Although the turnout of playing members from Thetford was less than expected, and left many Danville players without partners, the event was a great success as it was the first time an out-of-town club has visited the new course.

After pairing off the opposing teams, the rest of the members joined in a spontaneous 'sweepstake' for nine holes. The playing was culminited by a delicious buffet supper prepared and served by the ladies on the lawn around the Clubhouse. The men members were indeed grateful and well pleased with the preparations made by the ladies, with the limited facilities available.

Last Sunday, July 18, sixteen members of the Windsor Mills Golf Club visited the new course for the first of two games between the two clubs. Danville Club members upheld their honor for the fourth consecutive time by winning the match by two points. Each player on the course was invited to join in a sweepstake, the prizes consisting of Golf balls and being won by both sides. A delicious lunch was served in the Club house after the game.

The Medal play events of the season are now in full swing, with the first round of the Stevenson Trophy having been played over the week-end of July 17 and 18.

The first round of the Ward Cup will be played July 24 and 25 and it is hoped a good turnout will be on hand to take part in another sweepstake with prizes for all.

BUYS AND WHYS BY Barbara Brent

A weekly shopping and information service for today's woman

MONTREAL, July 29th—Let's not fool ourselves . . . sweaters are a chore to wash! But not these wonderful, "true-to-form" sweaters of nylon staple fibre! You'll find them at your favourite department store in colours you'll love for their flattery . . . white, pink sky-blue, aqua and black . . . figure-wise pullovers with half-length sleeves. All of 100% nylon with nylon's special features—easy, easy washing, quick drying, long wear and the happy ability to keep its shape without blocking or stretching. Oh—and they're absolutely moth-resistant, too! Beautiful, beautiful sweaters . . . and when you go shopping for yours remember to look for that important tag . . . "Made of 100% C-I-L Nylon Staple"!

Here's A Wonderful Present for any baby you can think of! . . . a free sample of Z.B.T. BABY POWDER, that very special baby powder made with Olive Oil! Mothers I know say it's a nursery "must" in their homes . . . they simply couldn't do without it, particularly now that warm weather's here. You see, Z.B.T. keeps babies comfy as can be — it's soft and soothing as silk and protects tender young skins from the uncomfortable itchiness of "acid moisture". So what a thoughtful gift Z.B.T. would make for that friend of yours with the brand new baby! Write to me, Barbara Brent, 1411 Crescent St., Montreal, P.Q. . . . send me her address and I'll send her your gift of Z.B.T. right away!

The Summer Look In Cosmetics

is a pretty pink look and Peggy Sage has it in nail polish and lipstick with her lovely FASHION PINK! Completely flattering to your hands — Fashion Pink is a vital shade of pink with a soft undertone of coral — immensely appealing! You'll find, as I have, that it harmonizes perfectly with the soft pastels, the blues and greens of this Summer's Prettiest Look! And not only has Peggy Sage given us Summer's loveliest shade in her Fashion Pink, but also an entirely different kind of polish called "Sheer". It's translucent — just like sheathing your nails in pastel chiffon! So, for beauty's sake, do ask to see PEGGY SAGE'S Nail Polishes and Hand Preparations — at all cosmetic counters . . . and, remember, there's a gorgeous lipstick to match Fashion Pink "Sheer" nail polish!

Have You Heard that gay little song about "Isn't it lucky they taste so good, taste so good, taste so good?"? What are "they"? Kellogg's Bran Flakes, of course! And it is lucky for us that so delicious a breakfast food has the real benefit you and your family will get from Kellogg's Bran Flakes! Not in any sense of the word a medicine, their extra bulk, nonetheless, does help do away with the cause of that depressed, dull feeling many people get from incomplete elimination. Try eating KELLOGG'S BRAN FLAKES regularly for 30 days. See if you, too, don't feel better. It's really true that:—"Some of the people need Kellogg's Bran Flakes all of the time. All of the people need Kellogg's Bran Flakes some of the time". So isn't it lucky they TASTE SO GOOD?

By Land — By Sea — By Air . . . you'll travel with greater peace of mind if you carry your funds in the form of BANK OF MONTREAL Travellers Cheques! It's the simplest thing in the world to convert your money into Travellers Cheques at the B of M. As you buy each cheque, you sign it at the top. When you cash it, you sign at the bottom, right in front of the person who accepts it. No one else is able to cash your cheque! It's so safe — so simple — so very practical. I know that once you've enjoyed the extra security of Travellers Cheques, you'll never again risk carrying cash on a journey!

Why Suffer The Weary, Uncomfortable Feeling Of Tired Eyes . . . when just two drops of MURINE will bring instant, blessed relief? It really works! Eye-resting Murine contains 7 tested ingredients that blend perfectly with the natural fluids of the eyes . . . washing them gently as a tear! Don't wait for your eyes to complain . . . they can't. But the next time your eyes feel irritated (whether from lack of sleep, overwork, sun, wind, dust or light glare), see how quickly Murine cleanses, relieves and soothes them. Comes with a handy eye-dropper cap . . . easy to use anytime, anyplace.

Bring On The Dessert . . . it's the fun of each meal! Especially when it's Jell-O with its gay, vibrant colour, its smooth, perfect consistency, its superb "locked-in" ripe fruit flavour! Jell-O transforms even the simplest menu into a party-perfect one — especially when you give it your own imaginative touch of added fruit, accompaniment, garnish. And think how terrifically simple and time-saving and thrifty it is to prepare! Choose any one of Jell-O's seven famous flavours for real economy and real eating enjoyment the whole year through. But for the kind of results you want, be sure you get genuine Jell-O with the big red "JELL-O" letters on the box.

Summer's Tastiest, easiest-to-prepare dishes come out of tins labelled Heinz, I've found! Heinz Oven-Baked Beans, for instance . . . wonderfully satisfying as the piping hot dish with a salad meal . . . and every bit as good cold in a salad! Versatile, that's what Heinz Beans are, for they're oven baked to tasty perfection before you ever open the tin. And Heinz Cooked Spaghetti . . . rich with spicy tomato sauce . . . so quick to heat and serve, with perhaps a grated cheese topping for added flavour. So when you're shopping for cottage or town-house . . . be sure to stock up on HEINZ BEANS and HEINZ SPAGHETTI . . . summertime "must-haves" for truly successful meals!

Crisp Fish-'n-Chips — tossed green salad and Chiffon Cake . . . a wonderful mid-summer supper — and there's more to it than meets the eye. The taste behind each taste-wise dish is MAZOLA Salad Oil! Best thing I know for frying fish and potatoes . . . a vital flavourwise ingredient in French Dressing . . . and everyone is talking about what Mazola does for Chiffon Cake. It's sheer magic! . . . a world of difference in the lightness and deliciousness of your cake. For very specially thrilling Mazola Cake Recipes, simply write to me — Barbara Brent, 1411 Crescent St., Montreal, P.Q. — for Recipe Sheet MA 2!

Planning a Dinner Party? Strike a perfect note . . . serve CHASE & SANBORN COFFEE! Your table arrangements lend a gracious note to any dinner party you give . . . but even more important to dinner-party success is the coffee you serve! Know why? It's the last, delicious impression of a perfect meal . . . and when it's REAL coffee—Chase & Sanborn Coffee—it's something for your guests to remember you by! One more tip . . . to make absolutely sure that this REAL coffee is at its vivid best . . . ask for Chase & Sanborn Coffee in the vacuum-packed tin . . . surest way I know to buy flavour-freshness!

M-mmm! Doesn't That Meal Smell Good? But, remember — what's cooking now will not smell nearly as appetizing several hours from now if stale cooking odours are left to linger on. This is when VAPAIR comes in so wonderfully handy! Vapair, that famous room deodorant, works like magic to instantly banish the stale smell of onions or cabbage . . . as well as the faintly unpleasant odour of a bird-cage or pet puppy . . . or the stale tobacco smell of your husband's favourite pipe! And it costs less than a cent each time to use! So why not let Vapair bring the pleasant fragrance of the "great outdoors" to your home? Ask for it in the big-value, ten-ounce bottle!

Today's The Day the Olympic Games start in Britain, with contestants from all over the world competing for the coveted honours. Canada's team is there in full force — and here's something interesting: They'll be drinking the same E. D. SMITH'S Grape Juice that they enjoy so much at home. Yes, the Canadian Olympic Team has been supplied with E. D. Smith's delicious Grape Juice for those moments before and after the gruelling contests when they need real refreshment. The "young athletes" in your family too will enjoy E. D. Smith's Grape Juice, for it's one tonic drink that everybody likes. It has all the flavour perfection of delicious Concords in every tasty sip! That's because it's pressed from Niagara's finest grapes, sweetened and bottled full strength! Get some at your grocer's tomorrow!

Hurrah! Peaches

Libby's

Yes, a new line has been added to Libby's range of Homogenized fruits, soups and vegetables for baby. Now baby can enjoy Libby's homogenized Peaches for dessert.

Peaches are one of the first fruits usually prescribed for young babies, and Libby's are the only peaches which are homogenized for easier digestion. Clinical tests show that even a six-week-old infant can digest Libby's Baby Foods easily, without upsets. It is significant that this is true only of Libby's, the only Baby Foods which are homogenized.

Choose your baby's menu from Libby's extensive range of Homogenized Baby Foods. Here is the complete list:

Peas, carrots, spinach	Liver soup	Apples & Prunes
Carrots	Vegetable soup	Apples & Apricots
Spinach	Vegetables with	Apple Sauce
Peas	Beef and Barley	Peaches
Beets	Vegetables with	Custard Pudding
Squash	Bacon and Barley

ONLY Libby's BABY FOODS ARE BOTH STRAINED and HOMOGENIZED

Drummondville

According to Father Joseph Beauchemin, St. Therese Roman Catholic Church, situated at the corner of Mercure Boulevard and the Celanese Road, is to be completed at the cost of $300,000. Property owners in the parish have been asked to sign a petition, which will be forwarded for approval to His Lordship Bishop Albini Lafortune that this church be completed. Plans are now in readiness and once permission is granted by the Bishop construction of the new church will get underway immediately. This parish was actually founded eleven years ago with the erection of the Presbytery and basement being completed with a seating capacity of 500. According to present plans the new church will have a seating capacity of 1,200 compared with 1,400 for St. Frederick's and against 1,800 for St. Joseph's. The present basement will then serve as a Parish Hall. With the new church completed at an estimated cost of $200,000, with an added cost of an additional $100,000 for the altars, organ and pews.

Building permits issued by the City Hall are as follows: Mr. Luc Houle, Des Forges Street, three flats, $12,000; Mr. Aurele Leclerc, Melancon Street, two flats, $6,000. Yet with the continued boom in the construction of houses Drummondville is still far short of its goal in alleviating a housing shortage, due of course, to an ever increasing population and orders pouring in to the manufacturing plants located here with additional help being hired from time to time to keep the wheels of industry continually in motion.

Mr. Russell Weaver, vice-president and general manager of the Butterfly Hosiery Co. Ltd., recently announced the appointment of Mr. A. Roy Ellis as general superintendent of the plant. Mr. Ellis has had a wide field of experience in the knitting industry, being formerly employed with the Lewis Co. Ltd, of Truro, N.S., and also superintendent for the Ferguson Atlantic Underwear Co. Ltd., Moncton, N.B. All wish Mr. Ellis congratulations in his new assignment and to accept and respect Mr. Weaver's wise decision in his choice for this important appointment.

Results of the Drummondville Bridge Club game held at the Manoir Drummond Hotel were as follows: First, Mrs. J. L. Morin and Mrs. J. S. Cameron, 64; second, J. D. Clerk and Paul Duguay, 60; third, G. Giroux and G. Peacock, 58.

GI's Aren't Kidding, As They Maneuver Near Berlin

American troops in Berlin are carrying out extensive field exercises within shooting distance of the Soviet sector, as they get ready for anything. The camp, above left, houses the 16th Constabulary Squadron, and the American flag whips bravely in the wind above the pup tents. The GI's carry out a mock gas raid, above right, donning protective masks. In Grunewald Forest, right troops from the 16th advance under simulated battle conditions. LARRY PARKS FEELS FREE, AS COLUMBIA LETS HIM DO PLAY

Hollywood—Larry Parks has won "A Free Hand."

That's the title of the play he's doing in summer stock, and that's the way he feels about his Columbia contract, since the studio failed to demand an injunction stopping him from appearing in the play.

The fact that Columbia's legal battery has taken no action since his opening July 12 is consistent with Larry's contention that he's a free agent, following a federal judge's decision in his contract fight with the studio.

The studio still has "no comment." But whether the studio will demand an injunction if Larry signs to do a movie is another question.

Sir Alfred?

Don't be surprised if it's Sir Alfred Hitchcock soon. Lots of people in England are plugging for the director's knighthood. . . FAUST WILL BE PRODUCED IN MONTREAL

Special to the Record

Montreal, July 29.—What is described as one of the most elaborate settings ever devised for opera in Canada has been built for the spectacular production of Gounod's Faust which the Montreal Festivals is giving on the summit of Mount Royal on Tuesday evening, August 10, with Eleanor Steber, Nicola Moscona and other distinguished Metropolitan Opera stars.

The setting, which has been specially designed and built by Richard Rychtarik and Jacob Buchter from ideas of Dr. Herbert Graf, the stage director of the production, is reported as an immense unit setting based on the suggestion of an entire midieval city. Three gigantic arches surmount the stage, thus permitting the actual use of the sky reflecting the nocturnal illumination of the City of Montreal itself as a part of the dramatic interpretation of the visual aspects of the famous opera.

This unusually elaborate structure has been devised in part to accommodate the inclusion of the Walpurgis Night Ballet which constitutes virtually the fourth act of the work. The ballet is invariably omitted, even in Metropolitan productions on account of the heavy scenic and production demands it makes. It is believed this will be the first time it has ever been performed in Montreal, although the actual ballet music is celebrated in concert performance.

The unusually spectacular nature of this Faust production has been made possible by the co-operation of the City of Montreal which has placed the terrace and Chalet atop Mount Royal at the disposal of the Montreal Festivals. This in turn has made possible the engagement of an exceptionally large supporting cast of choristers, ballet dancers and extras for the staging of the Walpurgis Night and also the Kermesse and the return of the soldiers from war, the latter scene embodying the Soldiers' Chorus.

Emil Cooper is directing Faust. In addition to Miss Steber and Mr. Moscona, the cast includes Joseph Victor Laleroute, Toscanini and Koucsevitzky find, in the title role, Francesco Valentino of the Metropolitan as Valentine and Maxine Stellman as Siebel. The large ballet led by a contingent of Metropolitan soloists will be under the direction of Boris Romanoff with Marcel Laurenceau in charge of the chorus.

KING GEORGE VI WILL OFFICIALLY OPEN OLYMPICS TODAY

Some 5,000 Athletes Representing Fifty-Nine Countries Will Participate

Olympic Stadium, Wembley, England, July 29.—(CP)—The Olympic Games open today in a setting of royal pomp with the King speaking the solemn words that revive Olympic competition after a 12-year lapse.

This afternoon the King will send 5,000 athletes from 59 countries into competition in 17 different sports with the words:

"I proclaim open the Olympic Games of 1948 celebrating the 14th Olympiad of the modern era."

A flame, lit on Mount Olympus in Greece and sped by runners across Europe and by warships over the seas, will be borne into the stadium to set ablaze the big white Olympic torch that will burn day and night until the games end Aug. 14.

The flame reached Dover last night. It went out, but was relighted from a second torch carried from the sacred mountain.

A line of traffic five miles long followed it through the night and into the morning as runner after runner passed it onwards.

At the climactic moment in the great stadium there will be a fanfare of trumpets, a royal salute of 21 guns, the release of hundreds of pigeons and the singing of the Hallelujah Chorus by a mighty choir—all this destined to give an air of solemnity to the resumption of the greatest international competition of the age.

This is the biggest of all Olympic Games. The previous record was 42 countries and 3,904 athletes at the Berlin games in 1936, the last held before the war.

Some 80,000 spectators bought tickets for the opening ceremonies in the stadium.

Full-scale participation in the various sports doesn't start until tomorrow, except for a short swimming program tonight.

Adrain Zabala Expected To Twirl Against Farnham Here This Evening

The Sherbrooke Athletics play hosts this evening to the heavy-hitting Farnham crew. The game will get underway at 8.30 p.m.

The locals will be out gunning for a win this evening as they hold only a slim lead over the second place St. Johns aggregation. The locals have dropped their last three games but it is expected that this evening they will hit their stride and give a good account of themselves.

Errors proved costly in the last game but the A's who have displayed a fine brand of ball this year will most likely come out of the slump and turn in a fine performance. Farnham, however, are by no means pushovers and have a heavy-hitting aggregation.

Farnham's pitching staff is a little weak but they have a good fielding and hitting crew.

It is expected that Adrian Zabala, the capable southpaw hurler for Sherbrooke, will go to the mound.

Jack Parry, Olympic Sprinter, Is Injured

Uxbridge, Middlesex, England, July 29—(CP)—Jack Parry of Windsor, Ont., Canada's No. 1 Olympic sprinter, will not be able to compete in the 100-metre and 200-metre events and has only a "slim chance" of competing in the 400-metre relay, it was announced yesterday after a hospital examination of his injured leg.

Parry is suffering from a ruptured bicep muscle pulled during a workout.

"There's not a hope he'll enter the Olympic sprints and it's almost definite he'll not be fit for the relay Aug. 6", a doctor said.

But there was an encouraging note. Elaine Silburn of Victoria, only woman broad-jumping entry for the Dominion, had her injury diagnosed as a bruised muscle and she will be able to compete in a broad and high jumps. She will receive daily treatment until the events. She also suffered a leg injury.

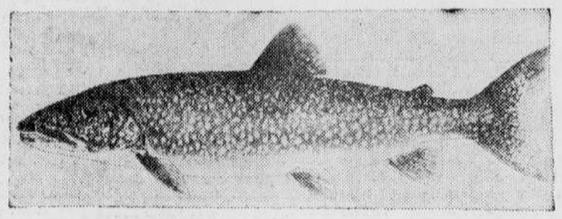
A Gray Trout Is A Fish Of No Mean Standing In Province Of Quebec

'I want to stock my lake with Gray Trout. Where can I get them?"

"I caught a two-pound, white-fleshed fish that I called a Lake Trout. My brother took a big fellow with red flesh and dark-colored fat. He says his fish is a Salmon Trout. I say they're the same species—which of us is right?"

Questions like these, frequently received by the Quebec Federation of Fish and Game Associations, prove that whether you call it a Lake Trout, Touladi, Mountain Trout, Togue, Salmon Trout, or Mackinaw, the Gray Trout is a fish of no mean standing in Quebec. Actually a charr, the same family to which the Speckled Trout belongs, rather than a true trout, the Gray Trout is widely distributed in Quebec, on both sides of the St. Lawrence, and as far north as the Arctic Circle. The Gray Trout is the sole representative of his genus, and easily distinguished by his gray to black sides with silvery marbling, his forked tail, and the absence of red or other color dots on his skin.

He normally chooses lakes of over 50 feet depth as habitat, seeking out the deepest rocky holes in summer, and frequently the shallow margins only in spring or late fall. It is then that the Gray Trout provides the greatest sport; taking a good husky specimen on standard light tackle, provides real fishing thrills. In midsummer, they are caught by trolling with deep-water tackle, large pearl-finished spoons and two or three hundred feet of copper line; this method brings them in, but with little sport, especially from the fish's point of view.



Gray Trout, like Speckled, spawn in fall; the eggs are laid between stones along shores where the depth may vary from 7 to 90 feet. There they remain until the next spring when the water temperature reaches 47 degrees and the young fry hatch. Although the eggs are nearly one-fourth inch in diameter, a large female may produce as many as 20,000 in a single season.

The menu of the Gray Trout features the young of deep-water fishes and larvae; variations in basic diet causes the color of the flesh to range from white to dark red. It is this variation in color which has led to the supposition that there are several kinds of Gray, or Lake Trout, but the fact is that they are all the same species.

When the question of stocking arises, the Federation turns to the Provincial Biologists for the answers. Professor Gustave Prevost, Director of the Quebec Biological Bureau, states that the province no longer raises Gray Trout for stocking, although they did so at the Mont Tremblant Hatchery about 15 years ago. The project has been set aside temporarily, not because the Department wishes to discourage stocking with Gray Trout, but in an all-out effort to conserve, and increase, the number of Speckled Trout in the province, as this latter species appears to be most desired by both residents and tourists, and as Speckled Trout stocking has given more definite proof of its effectiveness. Mr. Prevost points out, however, that while Grays may not be in a class with Speckled Trout as game fish, so long as the Province of Quebec can provide fish like the 29-pound, 2-ounce Gray Trout which came out of Lake Vassal recently, we shall not lack for exciting fishing.

$48,700 And World Golf Trophies Will Be At Stake At Tam O'Shanter

A total of $48,700 will be given away at the Tam O'Shanter Country Club during the week of August 3 to 8 to golfers competing in the All-American Golf Tournaments and the World Championship of Golf.

Many of the big names of golf, among pros and amateurs both men and women, have signed up to compete for these prizes, and the top-notchers will also compete for trophies in the World Championship, according to Sponsor George S. May.

Among those who have indicated their presence in competition are: Sam Sneed, Lloyd Mangrum, Mildred "Babe" Zaharias, "Skee" Riegel, "Skip" Alexander, Grace Lenczyk, Jimmy Demaret, Cary Middlecoff, "Chick" Harbert, Clayton Heafner, Henry Kaiser, Herman Barron, Ed Furgol, Ellsworth Vines, Bill Kaiser, Patty Berg, Peggy Kirk, Mary Agnes Wall, Sally Sessions, "Chick" Evans, John Barnum, Joe Louis, Herman Keiser, Fred Haas, Jr., Smiley Quick, "Buck" White, Mike Turnesa, Chandler Harper, Art Doering, Mike Stolarik, Bob Hamilton, Jimmy Thomson, Jim Foulis, Louis Esposito and Sam Bernardi. "Every mail brings in new names," says May, "and when the tournaments start we will have the Who's Who of golf on hand."

The prizes offered in the All-Americans total $37,500, divided as follows: Men's professional, $31,000; men's amateur, $2,000 in merchandise; and women's open, $4,500.

In the world championship of golf, to be played on Saturday and Sunday, August 7 and 8, four fields will play for prizes and trophies, which are in addition to the $37,500 being offered to the All-American winners. Men professionals will play for the world's largest golf trophy, an engraved cup standing 42 inches high, and the winner will collect $10,000 in cash. Men amateurs will play for a cup and $100 in merchandise. An engraved cup is also offered in the women's professional play and the winner will receive $1,000 in cash, while the women amateurs will play for a cup and $100 in merchandise. Professional ties will be played off the following Monday, and any ties among amateurs will be played off "sudden death" (hole-by-hole elimination).

"Judging from responses we are getting," says May, "the eighth annual All-Americans will be the biggest of them all, from the standpoint of top names in the field, number of entries, and interest shown by the public. This is the first year we have included women with the men both pros and amateurs, in the world's championship.

"We expect to make this really an international event, with the top twelve pros of golf battling it out, and a field of six women pros, as well as twelve men amateurs and six women amateurs, each of the four fields competing for its own trophy. These trophies, including the huge Professional Championship cup, are on display in the Tam O'Shanter clubhouse. When any trophy has been won three times in succession by the same contestant, it then becomes his permanent property."

Greyhounds Growl While Athletes Take Over Olympic Stadium; Giant Oval Has Long Bar

Wembley's Empire Stadium built in 1922, has seating capacity of 82,000 for Olympic Games.

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Writer

London—More than 300 frustrated greyhounds, kenneled in the east end of the coliseum, bark in protest as the athletes of 62 nations take over Empire Stadium, Wembley, for the Olympic Games.

Among them is Priceless Border, which the British contend is the swiftest dog in the world.

On one side of the competitors' entrance is a good-sized coop full of Rhode Island Reds.

"Some of the workmen here started this farm during the war," explained the man showing us about, "and it still gives the egg allocation a big lift."

The Empire Stadium was built in 1922, and looks like it hasn't had a coat of paint since. It has seating and standing capacity for 100,000, but for the Olympic Games the accommodation is 82,000, mostly seats.

Empire Stadium is used all year round for greyhound racing on a grass track of 462 yards with an average width of 20 feet. This had to be taken up in order for the athletic running track to be put down.

Day and night work went on for some time as the stadium and the Empire Pool were prepared for the Games.

The ice area at the pool disappeared and, along with it, 10 miles of tubular scaffolding, three-and-a-half miles of brine piping, 70 tons of sand and a double-decked wooden floor. The 200-foot by 60 foot by 60-foot pool, with a maximum depth of 16 feet, six inches, was repainted, and 700,000 gallons of water pumped in.

Diving platforms of Olympic requirements are in place, together with 500 dressing lockers.

When the swimming events are concluded, Aug 7, a boxing ring will be "strapped" across the water, supported by steel girders. The joint will seat 8000 for swimming and diving and boxing.

A scoreboard the height of a three-storey building has been erected at the east end of Empire Stadium. Pits have been dug for the jumping, javelin, hammer, discuss and shotput. The platform and bowl to hold the Olympic flame were put in position. An intricate network of wiring was required for all control points and the photo-finish equipment.

The greyhound track, 462 yards in circumference, was ripped up and 800 tons of special dressing put down on the foundations of an old running track last used in 1924. This job appears to be one of the slickest carried through at Wembley, and nearly indications were that the track would be fast, although no ever before heard of one being built in two weeks.

A glass-covered enclosed restaurant overlooking the Royal Box on the south side of the stadium was converted into a press box to accommodate 500 newspapermen from all parts of the world. More are to be looked after at each side of the restaurant.

Situated around the corridors of the stadium are eight large bars with the longest bar I ever saw in the north stand. The English contend this is the second longest bar in the world, but that appears to be typical English under-statement.

Nobody should go dry at the Olympic Games, but wait until the visitors see the prices, and have to order doubles to taste the stuff.

That'll put a lot of them on the water wagon.

Canadian Yachting Team Is Satisfied

Torquay, Devonshire, England, July 29— (CP) —The Canadian yachting team yesterday tried out olympic craft and said that they are delighted with their vessels.

"I am more than satisfied with the boat I have drawn," said Paul McLaughlin of Toronto, 29-year-old team captain, who was in a firefly. "She's brand new and perfect—better than anything I've seen at home."

The harbor wall is lined with fireflies, delivered from the builders during the last few days and drawn for by competitors. The outer harbor has been cleared of local boats to free the moorings for the visiting six metre-dragons, swallows and stars.

John Robertson, swallow class skipper, and Dick Townsend, both of Hamilton, Ont., were enthusiastic about the swallow-class "scaup." After a first trial in an extremely light wind, Robertson said: "It's a grand boat and the sails are set well. Maybe we'll slacken shrouds and make a few other adjustments during tuning up but we're satisfied that this boat is in fine condition."

The star crew is spending time with paint brushes but will get afloat soon.

45-YEAR-OLD TENNIS PLAYER DIES AFTER MATCH

Toronto, July 29.— (CP) —Ernie Legon, 45-year-old teacher at Lisgar Collegiate, Ottawa, died yesterday shortly after he collapsed during a Canadian tennis championship match.

Chief coroner Dr. Smirle Lawson said death was caused by thrombosis. No inquest will be held.

Dr. Lawson said Legon's death was a warning to others who compete in sport after the age of 45.

"They must be very careful and should get a doctor's approval before they participate," he said.
