WESTMOUNT, FRIDAY, APRIL 6, 1945

PRICE:— THREE CENTS

Maj-Gen. C.B. Price Tells Of Five Years Overseas

Westmount Rotary Club held a "Red Letter Day" on Wednesday, when the members were hosts to their sons and daughters, and heard an inspiring address by Major-General C. B. Price, which was rightly titled "Random Impressions of Five Years Overseas." He gave a vivid picture of happenings in Britain and the work of the Red Cross in Europe.

"The spirit of the people of Britain will play a great part in the Peace of the world in the years following the end of the war," stated Major-General Price.

"Her prestige amongst the small nations in Europe is almost fabulous and is based on the loyalty to leaders, her willingness to see the other fellow's point of view and to sacrifice immediate advantage for long term good, together with the collective modernization and common sense of her people."

"My experiences have made me proud of the fact, that, as Canadians, we are welcome partners in the great Empire family and I earnestly hope that, our independence and freedom of action freely recognized, and never questioned, we and the other Dominions will take pride in willing co-operation with our great elder sister in strengthening the beneficent influence of those qualities and forming the foundation for wider collaboration with the United States and other nations of Good-Will" continued Major-General Price.

After taking the Third Canadian Division overseas he was "requisitioned" to take charge of the Canadian Red Cross in Europe. While in England doing Red Cross work he joined the Home Guards as a Rifleman, thus continuing thirty-eight years of service which he started with the Victoria Rifles. Later he joined an Anti-Aircraft unit and had practically worked himself to the rank of Lance-Corporal when something went amiss and his stripe was not forthcoming.

He told many humorous stories of captured Germans. At one hospital which a Red Cross worker visited a captured German stated that he wished to be moved to a German hospital in Occupied Britain. Upon questioning, the prisoner stated that he was of the opinion that only a small section around Aldershot was still in the British hands.

Thanks Canadians

Major-General Price speaking regarding the Red Cross stated: "With the Campaign just successfully closed, may I say a word about the Red Cross Work Overseas. I assure you that we in the Overseas Headquarters of the Canadian Red Cross Society are proud to have been the instrument, through the wonderful generosity of the people of Canada, which has given practical

ART EXHIBITION

A Spring Exhibition of paintings will be held in Victoria Hall, under the auspices of the Independent Art Association Inc., from April 27th to May 12th, open to the public afternoons and evenings free, hours: 2.30 p.m. to 5.30 p.m. and 7.30 to 10.30 p.m. Closing date for entry forms will be April 14th and all pictures to be received by April 23rd.

Artists desiring to exhibit, may secure information and entry forms by writing the secretary, 4076 Highland Ave., Montreal 6.

Swing Transfer Responsibilities To Central Board

It was announced by Mr. F. B. Whittet, secretary-treasurer of the Westmount Protestant School Board, that at a recent meeting of the Board, it was decided to defer for this year the consideration of any further transfer of responsibilities to the Montreal Protestant Central School Board. AH commissioners were present.

The Westmount Board continues as a member of the Central Board, which it has been for the past twenty years, since its financial responsibilities were transferred in 1925. Two members of the Board, Commissioners A. Lovell Phillips and D. L. Lockerby are members of the Central Board.

Legion Branch Ask For Charter

A meeting for the purpose of electing permanent officers of the Westmount Branch of the Canadian Legion will be held at Victoria Hall Tuesday, April 10, at 8 p.m.

So far provisional officers have been carrying on the work of the branch and it is urged that a full turnout of all members be present to elect the permanent officers. Under a by-law of the branch officers will serve for one year with election of a new slate every year.

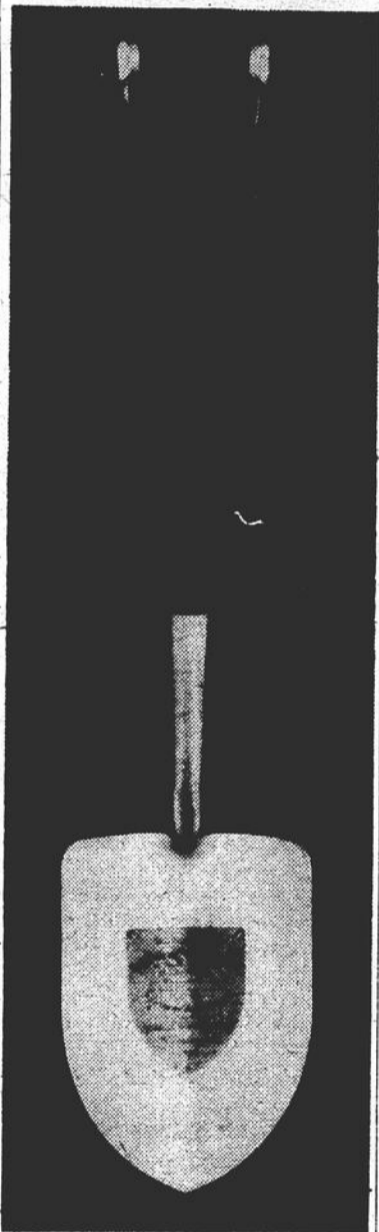

An application for a charter has been made to the Provincial Command of the Legion and it is expected that the charter will be granted within the next few days.

New members have been coming in regularly at each meeting and the branch is issuing invitations to all veterans resident in Westmount and district to join with them in the work of the Legion. There are many veterans of this war and others who have not been discharged but are still in the service who are associate members. When the war ends in Europe it is expected that the branch will grow by leaps and bounds.

N. C. McFarlane has been acting as provisional chairman with H. C. Todd as secretary and O. E. Dalzell as treasurer.

Sod Spade Used By Lloyd George Now Treasured

With the passing of Britain's great statesman, David Lloyd George, who was the Churchill of World War I, memories came to Westmount Baptist Church this Easter tide.

The Church recalled it was he who turned the first sod at the north-east corner of Sherbrooke Street and Roslyn Avenue on Sunday, 7th October 1923, giving the edifice an auspicious beginning.

Thronged gathered to watch the ceremony as Lloyd George received the official welcome of the City of Westmount which the statesman compared with the City of London proper and remarked upon similarity from several viewpoints.

An address of welcome was given by the then Mayor, P. W. McLagan, and a presentation of a miniature gold spade was made to Lloyd George by T. A. Weldon. The spade used by the ex-Prime Minister of Britain is still treasured and a photograph of it is reproduced.

LAST DAYS OF MARCH

The garden of Mrs. C. H. Marshall and Miss J. Lambly, 38 Windsor Avenue, surprised the owners with a welcoming nod of early Spring flowers as they noted violets in full bloom, one with five blossoms.

Westmount High Present Purple and White Revue

When the excitement of the Purple and White Revue of last year died down, some found that a new type of amateur high school entertainment had been unveiled. It was decided that the show in 1945 would be completely musical.

Early this term, the originators of the new idea, Joe Duffin and Roy Howard, started to work to cut through the endless red tape involved in getting the "green light" to attempt production. Business manager, Gordon Pollock, went to work on clearing up the financial status, and, finally, just before Christmas, the show went into production.

★ REHEARSALS COMMENCED

Chorus rehearsals started immediately and soon the male student body of Westmount High School was craning its collective neck every noon-hour to see how this twenty girl spectacle was shaping up.

New sets had to be designed and built, for Westmount had lost all its equipment in the changing of the school system.

Every Saturday and many evenings were spent under the guidance of Joe Duffin and Knute Sorensen, building frames, stretching and glueing cotton, and making new scenery.

CAPTAIN MAX FORD HELPS

Late in February complete cast rehearsals were held and the amateurs received many helpful hints and needed tips from advising director Max Ford, ex-principal of King's School and now a captain in the R.C.A.

Soon the show was progressively shaping, Victoria Hall was hired, and the posters circulated, "Chuck" Leger, musical director, secured an orchestra and the necessary orchestrations.

The boys and girls in the cast, slow in the beginning, are now all out behind their show. During the Easter holidays they rehearsed every morning and worked in the afternoons and evenings sewing costumes and painting scenery.

STUDENT UNDERTAKING

The show itself is entirely a student undertaking, they direct it themselves and look after their own finances.

The show is a musical revue, featuring a cast of 70 and a full orchestra. It is a miniature "Sons O' Fun" or "Meet The Navy", with a 20 girl chorus, numerous production numbers and small skits, and many hilarious, entertaining individual acts.

JUKE JOINT" NUMBER

An integral part of the show are two productive numbers, one depicting the modern "juke joint" where the high school "guys and gals" meet after school to have a chocolate-fudge sundae and to "cut-a-rug". The other production number is a portrayal of the "Gay Nineties" counterpart of the

Mayor R. P. Adams Officially Opens Hi-Y Hobby Show

The ninth annual boys' and girls' Westmount Hi-Y Hobby Show was officially opened in the Y.M.C.A. Wednesday night, when Mayor R. P. Adams cut the opening ribbon, accompanied by a suitable address to everyone present. His Worship was introduced by Warren Chippendale, President of the 1945 Hobby Show. But the preview of this opening was Wednesday afternoon, when the exhibits were judged.

This year's Show will undoubtedly be one of the best put on under the difficulties of wartime. It is open to the general public this week at 4.00 p.m. each day, and Saturday at 2.00 p.m., when the pet show will take place. One of the highlights, the Music and Entertainment, will be put on in the "Y", Friday at 8.00 p.m.

The official closing to a grand show put on by school boys and girls in the Hi-Y, will take place at eight o'clock Saturday evening, when Mr. D. C. Abbot, M.P., K.C., will speak.

The list of those who won prizes for extraordinary exhibits, is as follows:

Local Exhibit Loans and Gifts Are Acknowledged

Contributions to the "Story of Westmount" exhibition held by the Westmount Historical Association in the Public Library recently and which was officially opened by Mayor R. Percy Adams, drew the letter of appreciation requested made public through the medium of The Examiner.

It will be recalled that the exhibition embraced a wide field ranging from family and property histories to far back information and exhibits on sport, societies, churches and schools.

The letter, received read as follows:

"The Committee of the Westmount Historical Association desires to thank publicly those persons who, whether by loan or gift, contributed to the recent exhibit, The Story of Westmount, held at the Westmount Public Library. The attendance at this Exhibit was most satisfactory—and our visitors found much to interest them. I would be glad, therefore, if you could print the enclosed list of names, together with this letter of appreciation—for without the co-operation of these people, such an Exhibit would not have been possible.

At the same time, the Association wishes it to be known that other and similar exhibits are planned for the future. It would be glad to hear, therefore, from anyone else who may have material of local interest, and would be willing to let it be used at some future date. It has been impossible for us to get in touch ourselves, with all possible sources—but we do wish the citizens of Westmount to know of our continuing interest in anything concerning the earlier days of this district.

Yours sincerely
KATHLEEN JENKINS
Secretary, Westmount
Historical Association"

RETURNS TO DUTIES

Major-General C. Basil Price, D.S.O., D.C.M.

General Price has just returned to his duties as President and Managing Director of Elmhurst Dairies Limited, after being on leave of absence since September 1939. He went on service at the outbreak of war and was successively a Brigade Commander and General Officer Commanding the 3rd Canadian Division. On relinquishing the latter command he became Commissioner of the Canadian Red Cross Society in the United Kingdom. During his absence he was nominated as Progressive-Conservative Candidate in the constituency of St. Antoine-Westmount and is to contest the seat in the forthcoming Federal election.

St. Columba Holds Special Service Church Centenary

The Revival of the Religious Life in the Anglican Communion began on 26th March, 1845, at Park Village, London, England. The word Religious means "bound by special rule" and is applied to communities of men or women, whose vocation leads them to accept some definite rule. The outstanding characteristic of all such rules is the threefold vow of Poverty, Celibacy and Obedience.

The Park Village Community for women was founded by Dr. Pusey, and a few years later was merged into the Sisterhood of the Holy Trinity. It has been said, that the Religious Life in the Anglican Communion owes more to Dr. Pusey than to any other individual.

ANGLICAN SISTERS

The first Anglican sisters to come to Montreal belonged to the Society of St. Margaret, which was founded by John Mason Neale in 1855. They came to Montreal in 1885, led by Mother Louisa, and started St. Margaret's Home.

The Canadian Church has the distinction of having founded a religious order, the Society of St. John the Divine; and the foundress, Mother Hannah became the first Superior; the order had its beginnings in Toronto in the year 1884. In Montreal they are in charge of St. Michael's Mission.

There are many other religious orders for Anglican women in various parts of the world.

ORIGINATE ORDER

The American Church has the distinction of having originated the first for men. Bishop Ives of North Carolina was responsible for this move; but the order did not survive. The first foundation Solemn Te Deum in St. Columba to continue to the present day, is the Society of St. John the Evangelist, whose members are popularly known as the Cowley Fathers, because their founder, Richard Meux Benson was vicar of Cowley in 1865, when he founded the Society.

The order now has branches in the four quarters of the world, including the Canadian Congregation at Bracebridge, which dates back to 1927. The Rev. Fr.

KNOW YOUR WESTMOUNT

Question: What were the principal bridges in Westmount, in the early days?

Answer: At Dorchester Street, was a stone viaduct bridge, built of Montreal limestone, with a cut stone railing, situated on the main turnpike road leading from the City of Montreal to the Western suburbs. It had two lanes for traffic, with cut stone railings on either side. This water course beneath the bridge was afterwards filled up and the bridge left buried under the roadway.

Another bridge, really a farm bridge, was on newly opened Western Ave. This bridge was situated about 100 yards East of Lansdowne Avenue, and spanned a glen which was the water shed for the section of Westmount, between Clark, Lansdowne and Victoria Avenues. It was an old dilapidated wooden structure and had only one track traffic road, with an open wooden railing. At that point the gully was about 20 ft. deep.

The second bridge of the same construction spanned the water course or gully, between Prince Albert and Claremont Avenues. This bridge was a little longer than the first and the gully deeper. This took care of the watershed from Victoria Avenue westward.

One of the oldest bridges in Westmount was a small wooden bridge which crossed the Glen in Westmount Park. The roadway leading to this bridge entered the park about 100 yards west of Melville Avenue and crossed the stream nearly at the site of the present stone bridge. The roadway was the original highway or s/cut-over the mountain to the Trafalgar estate at the back, and now cut through by a small street called Miller Avenue.

In the Nineties, the Tuque Blue Club had a toboggan slide which started at Shearer's House, Mt. Pleasant Avenue, and crossed Sherbrooke between Wood and Elm Avenues. In the winter, a bridge was thrown over Sherbrooke Street, to take care of the traffic and to permit the passage of the toboggans across Sherbrooke Street.

Church of The Advent

Rev. John W. Kerr, Chaplain R.C.N. (late of St. James Church, Vancouver, B.C.) will celebrate at the eight a.m. Communion and preach at the eleven a.m. Solemn Eucharist on Sunday.

A parade of the Canadian Women's Army Corps will attend the latter service.

The Women's Guild will hold their annual Easter Tea and sale of work in the Parish Hall on Saturday afternoon and the following Saturday afternoon there will be an organ and choir recital by Mr. Gordon Phillips and the Advent Boys' Choir from 4 to 5 p.m.

NEW MEMBER

Kiwanis Club of Montreal announce as new member John C. Westaway, 359 Melville Avenue, who was added to the roster and received the congratulations of his fellow members.

Roland F. Palmer, S.S.J.E., D.D., is the Canadian Superior.

HOLY CROSS ORDER

In the United States of America there is the order of the Holy Cross, founded by Father James Huntington. And in both England and the United States there are religious houses of Benedictines and Franciscans.

The Centenary of this great revival is being kept in all parts of the world.

In particular it is being kept in Montreal by Solemn Evensong and Solemn Te Deum in St. Columba's Church; all interested are invited to come and take part.

effect in Britain and on the Continent of Europe.

Canada's prestige in Britain is very high, and not the least of the reasons for this have been the supply of beautifully made articles sent over by the Women's Committees collected from Coast to Coast, and the generous outpouring of money which has made possible carrying out of the many and varied activities of the Society Overseas.

Lieut. Joe Buckingham, R.C.N.R. was a guest at the head table. He is on leave after five years in the navy and commanded a barge to enter Algiers and has taken part in six invasions. Throughout all the shell fire he did not receive a scratch but on his return home while witnessing his first hockey game he received a "puck in the eye" and was sporting a fine "shiner".

Wm. Moxley gave a fine report on the work which the committee had accomplished with the Unity Boys' Club.

Third Release Of Game Birds In Westmount

Details of the release of Sharptail Grouse liberated by the Verdun and District Sportsmen's Association, the third species of game bird to be freed in the Westmount area during the past five years, are given by Dan Ryan, Sr., Chairman of Propagation of Wildlife.

This is part of a program to renew wildlife within the Metropolitan area, the previous being the Pheasants in 1940, the Bobwhite Quail in 1943, and last month the first lot of Sharptail Grouse (Pedioecetes phasianellus) were released on Westmount Summit Park by Chief Recorder J. A. Thouin, Patron of The Verdun and District Sportsmen's Assn. Inc. Pictures were taken for the press by Mr. Stucker of La Patrie, the party included, Mr. Lanouette, Mr. Boyer, Mr. Rinfret, Bruce and Dan. Ryan, Sr. Four male pheasants were observed within the mentioned area while the birds were being set free.

Sharptail Grouse

A few remarks in reference to the Sharptail Grouse may be of interest to the citizens and also help in identifying the birds when observed. The Sharp-tailed grouse is a large grouse, palely coloured brown, ochre and white, there being many darker "V" marks on breast and flanks, and has a sharp (hence sharp-tail) soft pointed tail, the underparts of which are almost white. It lacks the head and neck ornaments of the Rough Grouse or Pheasant. Tarsus feathered between the toes, which also have a hairlike feather between, this may assist the bird when walking on the snow.

Note:—Distinctions; — Sharp-tail, white under feathers. "v" marking on breast, and feathered pantaloons, should leave no doubt as to species. Sexes are difficult to tell apart.

Released By Permission

These birds were trapped in the wild in the province of Alberta, by those in authority and purchased by the V. & D. S. Assn. and brought east, only after written permission had been obtained (no stocking is attempted without this) from the Hon. Camille E. Pouliot, Minister of Game and Fisheries Dept. Province of Quebec. On their arrival in Montreal they were subjected to examination by scientists who declared them free from disease, and O.K. for release.

The Sharptail is somewhat like our native Grouse (if not in plumage) in feeding habits, often going to trees for buds when other feed becomes scarce, during the winter months especially; in this he differs from our first two experiments, the Pheasants, and Bobwhites, which feed mainly on the ground, although there is room for argument, in so far as the pheasant is concerned. The Sharptail may be found in the more open parts of our wooded areas, and does not keep to the open like the Bobwhite, however do not be surprised if one bursts away from under your feet anywhere on the mountain paths, the flight is usually a "straight-away" though they usually do not fly far and are easy to mark down.

The Reason Why

Citizens may wonder why the Verdun and District Sportsmen's Association Inc. choose Westmount for their experiments for the propagation of Wildlife and for their information we wish to make it clear that the same opportunity was extended to all Municipalities within the Metropolitan Area. The City Council of Westmount has offered every assistance to our bird committee, this co-operation is carried further by the keen interest by the citizens, backed with the splendid support of the City Manager Mr. Jarman, and the Supt. Parks Dept. Mr. E. J. Anderson. These, added to near perfect environment, are the main reasons. Greater interest is being taken by the Montreal Parks Staff, and the same opportunity is still open to all Municipalities willing to co-operate. The City of Verdun while not suited so well for Game birds has already received the first stocking of Atlantic Salmon Fingerlings (last summer) in the Lachine Rapids at her water front.

Freak Accident Tags Taxi-Tram-Truck

A verdict of accidental death was returned by Coroner Richard Duckett in Coroner's Court Tues. in the case of Miss Laura Singer, 55, of 248 Wood avenue, Westmount, instantly killed late Monday afternoon in a freak accident, involving a street car, a taxi and a truck.

Evidence showed a street car going east along St. Catherine street near Gladstone avenue, Westmount, collide with a taxi also eastbound. The taxi, in turn, struck a truck parked at the curb. Miss Singer is believed to have stepped off the sidewalk into the path of the truck which was moved from its position by the impact.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. D. Scott, of Knox Crescent Church for Miss Laura Singer, 55, of 248 Wood Avenue, who was accidentally killed on St. Catherine St. West, near Wood Avenue.

An employee of The Aluminum Company of Canada since April 22, 1929, Miss Singer was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Singer, and has two brothers, Frank W. Singer, of Paris, Ontario, and Charles Singer, of Portland, Oregon, who survive her.

Ceremony was held at the Funeral Chapel of Tees and Co., St. Luke and Towers Streets, Montreal.

"Young Married Couples" Group Elect Officers

The "Young Married Couples" group met recently and members enjoyed a recreational period of Volley Ball after which a dainty luncheon was served by Mrs. Norman Brown as hostess for the evening.

The slate of newly appointed Officers was drawn up, with Keith Charters as President; Bertha Soley, Secretary and Kay Brown Treasurer.

A constitution will be presented and discussed at the next meeting on April 14th.

Westmount Boys' Brigade Set Company Camp Period

Following a trip over the holiday, final arrangements were made for the 1st Company Camp to run from the 14th to 28th of July, being a few days later than last summer, and it is hoped this period will work in better with the officers' vacation periods, enabling a larger staff to be present. Captain J. Howard Richardson will direct the camp, and expects to have Lieuts. Alex. Upham and A. G. Anderson associated with him, along with Capt. C. E. McCuaig and Lieut. William McConnell, of the new north-end Company, who are working in close harmony with the 1st Company. It is anticipated that Rev. Dr. W. Stanford Reid will attend, occupying the post of Camp Chaplain. Camp facilities have been enlarged to permit up to 40 boys to be fed at one time. A number of other added features will make this year's camp period still more exciting than previously, this being possible due to the increased staff.

Full Strength Band

Now that the bugle and drum band is up to full strength, the boys look forward to route marches and have booked a church parade for Sunday afternoon, April 29th, to the new Presbyterian Church, Town of Mount Royal. They are looking forward to this occasion with keen anticipation as in previous years, once during each session, the Mount Royal parade was held, at that time, to Garden City Baptist Church. The band will enter the Battalion's competition toward the latter part of the month and are hoping they may be the winners of the handsome mace-pole,

A QUESTION OF GRAMMAR

A reader criticized a sentence in these columns, saying it was bad grammar. We studied the sentences and concluded it was correct; then we put it up to a professor of English, and he confirmed our opinion.

The sentence: "These are the kind (meaning sort, variety, type) who are nice to have around."

The professor explained his reasoning and concluded: "This splitting of hairs over exact singulars and plurals is not worth while. Many freshman classes kill hours over it and become pedantic over trifles while neglecting major ideas."

Much of the incorrect grammar that is heard in daily speech and encountered in business letters is the result of over-emphasizing trifles.

For example, children are told not to say "It's me," although many authorities concede that usage has made the expression permissible.

Determined to avoid the use of "me," the poor kids grow up and insist on saying "between you and I."

The best way to dodge a difficult grammatical construction is to rewrite the sentence in which it occurs. In grammar, as in so many other things, a little knowledge is dangerous.

A FIRE WARNING

This is the time of year when parents should be reminded to warn their children against lighting fires in the dry grass that covers our vacant lots. Each year the fire department is called a number of times each day on errands that should not be necessary, valuable fences are burned, and occasionally some youngster obtains burns that necessitate a stay in hospital.

The fields are dangerous at this time of year. Last year's grass is dry as timber and can be ignited by a spark. Such grass fires spread rapidly if a wind is blowing, and although we have been comparatively fortunate with such fires in this district, there is always the danger that they will get out of control and ignite buildings in their vicinity.

NAVY LEAGUE APPEAL

The 1945 maintenance appeal of the Montreal division of the Navy League of Canada is being held this week.

Mr. Wm. Harrison, Honorary Treasurer of the Navy League in Montreal, is Chairman of the campaign, with Sir H. Montagu Allan, C.V.O., chairman of "Special Names," and Mrs. W. D. McLennan chairman "Special Names," Women's Division.

As in past Navy League appeals in Montreal, the "Thumbs Up" Club, a war effort organization of young business women in the city, have undertaken to aid campaign officials, particularly in the matter of correspondence. This year, some 15,000 direct appeal letters have been mailed out.

Decision to confine the appeal objective to that of the past two years has been taken despite continued expansion of Navy League activities in Montreal, newest item of which is the erection now under way of a summer training centre for Montreal's Sea Cadets on the shore of the Lake of Two Mountains, near Hudson, Que., Mr. Ritchie emphasized.

"Our work, from the training of Sea Cadets to the provision of recreation and other comforts to tens of thousands of Canadian and Allied seamen each year, is more important than ever right now, when the care of our fighting men and the moulding of Canada's youth should be uppermost in our minds," declared C. F. Ritchie, president of the Montreal Division.

Local residents will, we know, do their full share in helping the Division meet its objective in this worthy and patriotic appeal.

IT'S MEN, NOT MACHINES

At the twenty-fifth anniversary dinner of a successful corporation, one of the officers recalled that when he was hired he was depressed by the size and shabbiness of the manufacturing plant.

Following the inspection, he mentioned his reaction to his prospective boss.

"You're right, the place is a dump," was the answer, "but did you look at the men who are running it? Those men will make a gold mine out of this business. They started with nothing, and see where they've come already. It's men, not machines, that you must look at."

Fifteen years later the business was indeed flourishing. The buildings and machines were imposing. The founders were older, but as inspired and energetic as when they began. They and their associates were the business, and the machines and buildings were incidental.

THE FORUM

Conducted by HOWARD S. ROSS, K.C., D.C.L.

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

The opinions expressed in this Forum are not necessarily those of this newspaper, and it does not accept responsibility for them.

Two Brits who now make cannon for Spitfires and other aircraft, are ready to bring 25 demonstrators to the U.S.A., and no doubt some to Canada, of a car which will sell for $400 and give 50 miles to the gallon and go 60 miles an hour. It is a three-cylinder car. The inventors have contrived a way of using the exhaust gases hitherto wasted on all standard-model machines—through a turbine. Who says decadent Britain?

Major Marvin R. Marston, of Spokane, who recently commenced his fourth year in charge of the Alaskan Territorial Guard, made up of 20,000 Eskimos, is called Angalyokak, the boss man. Alaska has a long coast line, and Eskimos and Indians are the only sentinels at far-flung bays, inlets and fjords where a whole fleet might land.

Major Marston is the military and social leader, and drills are social occasions. Alaska is twice the size of Texas. Major Marston has covered almost every acre by all means of transportation, but a sled hauled by his well trained Malamutes is his favorite, and he is one of the few Army officers skilled in training them. He has a real affection for the natives, and they for him.

He intends to take up permanent residence among his native friends, and has staked out a 120-acre homestead near the Eskimo village of Unalakleet on Norton Sound. He is going to move his family there after the war and settle down to running a trap line, panning in the creeks for gold, and raising thirty-pound cabbages during the Arctic summers, when the sun never drops below the horizon.

His philosopher friend said: "Knowing everything that might be done is knowledge. Knowing what is right to do is wisdom. Doing it is character."

Despite a smaller population and a longer war, there are practically as many British as American troops on the battlefields of Europe.

Navy Bridegroom: "With all my worldly goods I thee endow."
His Father: "There goes his seabag and fountain pen!"

It would be hard to find a better example of real co-operation than The Canadian Press. Ninety daily papers in Canada are members of this non-profit concern. Each pays its share, and all receive the same news. According to political affiliation listed in the Canadian Almanac, there are 19 Liberal, 12 Progressive-Conservative, one C.C.F., and 58 independent papers receiving this service. Any reader of Canadian newspapers when they see CP at head of a news item, can be sure they have a news item which is news free of propaganda. That is why our press has not, as in most countries, come under Government control.

Sale of beer in Ontario has reached an "all-time high" it was stated by Chief Liquor Commissioner W. G. Webster. He said Ontario is drinking 75 per cent more beer than in November, 1939. In November, 1944, 3,500,000 gallons were consumed in Ontario.

No one can really be sure of himself until he is sure of something much bigger than himself.

Mrs. Grace Gardner, of Clark's Harbor, Sable Island, N.S., has an unusual and interesting hobby. She collects sand from all parts of the world. Relatives, friends and strangers help her. The sand is neatly bottled, and no two are alike in color or texture.

R. P. Longley, Agricultural Representative for King's County, Nova Scotia, declared recently that "other interests are keeping daylight saving time in force to the detriment of farmers, and that farmers are considering drastic measures in order to have a return to standard time." He added: "Farmers must organize if they are to enjoy some of the benefits which go to organized labor. Farmers work long hours to produce food, which in the long run is the backbone of economic security."

The total of demand and notice deposits in Canadian banks rose to $4,340,088,000 at the end of January this year, as compared with $3,669,528,000 on Jan. 31, 1944. This is the equivalent of over $360 for every man, woman and child in Canada. If Victory Bond investments be added the total is over $1,000 per capita of the population, and quite a reserve against the rainy season.

Westmount Baptist

Rev. Eric Quirk, B.A., will conduct a Four-Day Preaching Mission in Westmount Baptist Church, beginning on Sunday morning and evening and continuing Week-Night Services through Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, at 8 p.m.

Mr. Quirk was a High School Teacher in Toronto when he received his call to go to India as a Missionary of the Cross. With gladness of heart he and his wife gave up a comfortable living, with an assured future, for the hazards and discomforts of a Missionary's lot. At the close of their second term of service, when the normal time for furlough arrived, the Quirks, because of the shortage of workers on the field, overstayed their period by two years, and when they did return to Canada last fall, they left behind them a record of service the devotion and fruitfulness of which has rarely been surpassed. It is this man, who knows the utter reality of Christ's presence with those who walk with Him, and who has witnessed Christ's power in transforming many seemingly hopeless lives, who is to visit the City of Westmount for these four days. The people of the community are invited to share in the blessing of a ministry that is sincere, real and convincing.

Westmount Baptist Choir, which, under the very able direction of Mr. Hibbert Troop, is rendering such conspicuous service in the ministry of music in the Church, has been signally honoured by being invited to participate in the Casavant Society's reproduction of Bach's Easter Festival. The Annual Supper and Business Meeting of the Church will be held on Wednesday evening, April 25th. Supper will be served at 6.30 p.m., and the business of the evening will begin at 7.30 p.m. Gratifying reports will be heard from the various organizations in the congregation. The results of the annual election will be announced at the close of the meeting.

CPL. AUSTIN DONN WED OVERSEAS HOME AFTER 5 YEARS

After spending five years overseas Corporal Austin Donn arrived home from England a few days ago on the Canadian hospital ship, Lady Nelson, and is now recuperating at the Queen Mary Road Military Hospital.

Before leaving England Corporal Donn, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Donn, 4951 Decarie Blvd., was married in Cuckfield, Sussex, on February 4th, to Miss Helen Carl, daughter of Mrs. Carl and of the late C. Carl, the Rev. W. A. C. Kempe officiating. For her wedding the bride chose a pale blue street-length dress, with corsage of chrysanthemums and black accessories. Due to the exigencies of war, she will have to remain in England for the time being, but will join her husband in the near future.

Corporal Donn who went over with the Royal Montreal Regiment, sustained his injuries at Falaise, France, in a motorcycle accident when he crashed into a wall last September, his right leg being crushed and the bone broken in three places, necessitating long stays at No. 4 and No. 13 General Hospitals overseas. He was educated at Kensington School and West Hill High, and is a member of Wesley United Church. His brother, John Donn was recently promoted to the rank of Flight Sergeant in the R.C.A.F.

Asked about his war experiences Corporal Donn stated that he had witnessed many grim incidents, especially in England, and that next to the English people he found the French the most hospitable he had met.

Iwo Jima Veteran, Sgt. Sheehy, Home With New York Bride

Home after forty bombing missions over Iwo Jima, Technical-Sergeant Michael Anthony Sheehy, D.F.C. and Oak Leaf Cluster; Air Medal and three Oak Leaf Clusters, United States Army Air Force, was married recently in New York, and brought his bride, the former Kathleen Mary Doherty, here to spend part of their honeymoon with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Sheehy, of Old Orchard Avenue.

The marriage took place at five o'clock on March 24th in St. Boniface Church, New York City, the Rev. M. J. Bowland conducting the service. The bride, the fifth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Doherty, who reside in County Kerry, Ireland, was given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. John Murphy, and wore a wedding gown of white satin, fashioned on Victorian lines, with a long veil of tulle illusion falling from a coronet of pearl blossoms. Her bouquet was composed of Easter lilies. Her only attendant, her sister, Miss Bridie Doherty, was wearing a floor-length gown of pale pink, with fingertip-length veil of tulle illusion falling from a coronet of roses. She carried a Colonial bouquet.

Mr. John Monahan acted as groomsmen.

the bride travelling in a powder blue wool suit. They will reside in Miami, Florida.

Lawler, of Norwalk, Conn., and their son; the groom's parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Sheehy and Miss Kay Sheehy, 2182 Old Orchard Avenue, N.D.G.; an aunt of the groom, Mrs. O. Ryan, of Montreal; Mrs. C. Donovan, of Boston, Mass., another aunt of the groom, and two cousins, Katherine and Matthew Donovan; and Mrs. I. Ramsay, of Montreal, a friend of the groom's family.

Ponders on Problems

FIANCEE OF SOLDIER COMPLAINS ABOUT MAIL

"Dear Anne Hirst: May I say a few words on the subject of morale? Mostly we hear of keeping up the morale of the boys, and I'm sure we are anxious to do so. But what of the home front morale?"

"What have engaged girls to maintain their morale except the letters from their boys? No one can know what a letter means (or the absence of them) unless she has waited for one that didn't arrive."

"Take my own case, the reason for this complaint. Ever since my fiancee went into service, he has written one each day at least. I've written twice a day until today, when I've written just one, and it is sitting here before me—I'm not sure I'll mail it. Several weeks ago he left on his shake-down cruise, and since then I've had no mail! None at all."

"I kept up all right until this week-end, when I guess I just went to pieces. There isn't any morale or anything else left. Just a loneliness. There are no dates for me, except occasionally with some of the girls. But I was satisfied as long as I got those letters. I can't go on and not hear from him, nor know if things are still the same between us. I've seen service men here forgetting all about the girls they left behind, and the ones out of the country are marrying foreign girls all the time. It's hard to keep up even a pretense of morale under the circumstances, but the situation could be saved for me and a lot of others, I'm sure, if something could be done about the mail service to and from the boys out there."

V. M. D.

Have Faith

No news doesn't mean bad news necessarily, you know. Certainly you shouldn't take it to mean that your fiancee has fallen in love with someone else—shame! Several accidents can happen to a letter: Ships carrying mail have been sunk, and of course that mail is not retrieved; storms delay letters; censors need time to read them; many a message is written from a front miles away from headquarters. The mail service our Government is supplying is, in my opinion, excellent. Some letters come through from Italy in five days, some from the Pacific in less than ten. If you haven't waited for daily letters, only to have a pile of them delivered all at once, you've been very lucky indeed. (As for a shade-down cruise, that's the best reason for mail being delayed; the ship is being tested in every mechanical unit and for its overall performance, the boys are just learning about the routine of their stations, their sleep averages, I'm told, about five hours a night. One member of my family wrote his mother just once during that strain, and his girl got not one letter).

I know how hard it is not to get panicky when mail doesn't come through. But a girl must keep the faith—that is the least she can do; remember that if there's bad news coming, you'll have it fast enough—good news takes longer to travel. And don't let any doubt temper your belief; some boys have failed their girls, but most of them just can't wait to get home and marry.

To "Mrs. W. L. H.": There is nothing peculiar to your wish to avoid these people you describe. They are shallow and uninteresting; you have nothing in common with them and, naturally, it is difficult to find anything to talk about.

Don't let it worry you — they won't criticize you for keeping to yourself. You have your own family, your home and your own friends to occupy your time, and no one should ask you to take on more.

N. Steinberg, Mrs. Martin Regenstreig and Mrs. S. Rosenthal as conveners.

FAMILY ALLOWANCES

Family Allowances will be paid every month for every eligible child under 16 years of age. First cheques will be mailed in July, 1945. Family Allowances are being paid to help parents in the care of their children, to help pay for medical, dental and nursing services—for better food, clothing and shelter, and to assist in equalizing opportunities for all children.

Registration forms have been mailed to every family. Fill in your form as soon as received. It is very simple—only seven questions—and information is given below to help you complete the form accurately. Do it right away in the interests of your children, as cheques can only be mailed to those eligible families which have completed and returned the Registration Form.

If you do not receive a form through the mail, please ask for one at the nearest Post Office.

QUESTION 1. PRINT IN BLOCK LETTERS (LIKE THIS) the names of your children under 16. Write out the month of birth, then give day and year. Write name of place where each child was born. Complete each line by stating your relationship to child and if father and mother are applying, fill in both "relationship" columns.

QUESTION 2. Here the father and mother must both sign if both are at home. Then give the address to which cheques should be mailed. PRINT THIS IN BLOCK TYPE (LIKE THIS) under both signatures. The mother should not sign her husband's first name. She should sign her own first name, such as Mrs. Alice, Mary, Joan, etc.

QUESTION 3. If only one person has signed under question 2, state the reason why the other signature cannot be given. Give details—don't say Father or Mother is "away"—state where and for how long.

QUESTIONS 4, 5, 6 and 7 on the other side of the form must also be answered either "Yes" or "No" If the answer is "No" to questions 4, 5 or 6, state details giving name of child, or children concerned. In the case of No. 5, if you have any children under 16 not living with you, list their names, give the reason and the complete address as to where they can be visited. If the answer to No. 7 is "Yes", give the details required.

"Mrs. Parkington" Acclaimed One of Year's Top Offerings

"Mrs. Parkington," the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture which opened yesterday at the Westmount United Theatre, is in the fine tradition of all the previous Greer Garson-Walter Pidgeon productions this company has given us: "Blossoms in the Dust," "Mrs. Miniver," and "Madame Curie."

reckless, ambitious and flamboyant man, a far cry from his Mr. Miniver or Pierre Curie. Together, they prove—if further proof were needed—that they are at once the greatest, most versatile film starring team in many years. The story takes us from 1872, when Susie Graham (Miss Garson), daughter of a boarding house keeper in Leaping Rock, Nev., marries Major Augustus Parkington (Pidgeon). They open a home in New York and there begins the saga of the Parkingtons, of the ruthless Major's manoeuvres, of the way they affect Susie's life and hopes—and her children's.

headed by Edward Arnold, Agnes Moorehead and Cecil Kellaway, and including Gladys Cooper, Tom Drake, Frances Rafferty and Peter Lawford, among others, is seen in support of the stars. You will not want to miss "Mrs. Parkington," a picture which is bound to enthrall you every minute of the time.

"Going My Way" At The Snowdon Starting Saturday

Only once before in the entire history of motion pictures has one picture been awarded as many Academy Statuettes as Paramount's "Going My Way" which starts Saturday at the Snowdon Theatre.

As just about everyone knows by now "Going My Way" is the delightful, human story of a young priest sent to succeed a crusty older man in a run-down parish and the successful job he makes of it even to swinging over his elder to his way of thinking, and living.

Recently in Hollywood, when the great and near-great gather to pay homage to fellow artists, directors, photographers and other technicians "Going My Way" won just about all the Academy Awards possible for a picture to win. First off "Going My Way" won the Award as the best picture of the year; secondly Bing Crosby won the Award as the best actor of the year; Barry Fitzgerald won the Award as the best male supporting player of the year; Leo McCarey the director, won two Academy Awards first for his direction of "Going My Way" and secondly for his best original story of the year; then Frank Butler and Frank Cavett won an Award for the best screen play of the year and finally "Swinging On A Star" one of the many fine musical numbers in "Going My Way" won the Award as the best original song of the year. So many people trooped to the stage of Grauman's Chinese theatre to receive Academy Awards who were directly connected with "Going My Way" that at one time during the proceedings, Bob Hope master of ceremonies asked everybody in the theatre NOT connected with "Going My Way" to please go home.

To make a real Academy Award program, starting Saturday, the management of the Snowdon Theatre booked in two Academy Award winning shorts to play on the same program: Who's Who In Animal Land and Mouse Trouble.

"Going My Way" at the Snowdon, Saturday!

Academy Award winning Bing Crosby warns Academy Award winning Barry Fitzgerald in the Academy Award winning "Going My Way," which starts Saturday at the Snowdon theatre. "Going My Way" was directed by Academy Award winning Leo McCarey who also won an Academy Award for the best original story of the year. All told, "Going My Way" won seven Academy Awards and as if that were not enough, the management of the Snowdon has arranged to play two Academy Award winning shorts on the same program, starting Saturday!

"Thin Man Goes Home" Is Fast-Moving Thriller

One of the most exciting and fast-moving screen mysteries of the year opened yesterday at the York United Theatre. It is "The Thin Man Goes Home," latest in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's highly popular series starring William Powell any Myrna Loy as Detective Nick Charles and his wife Nora.

This time Nick and Nora visit Nick's parents in the old home town of Sycamore Springs. They plan a vacation from clues and criminals, but no sooner do they get settled down to a nice rest when they become involved in a murder involving oil paintings, defense plant plans, a Japanese sub-machine gun and a woman named "Crazy Mary."

Bill Powell does his usual outstanding job as Nick, and Miss Loy, back on the screen after a considerable absence, is more beautiful than ever as Nora.

Little Asta, the famous wire-haired terrier of previous Thin Man pictures, has some cute new tricks in this one, to say nothing of an encounter with a good-looking female wire-haired which results in a merry chase by Nick through a crowded train terminal.

The superb supporting cast includes Harry Davenport and Lucile Watson as Nick's parents; Gloria De Haven, Leon Ames, Loyd Corrigan, Donald Meek, Donald MacBride, Helen Vinson and Anne Revere.

The picture was directed with speed and punch by Richard Thorpe. Put "The Thin Man Goes Home" on your must-see" list. And bring the whole family with you.

Abbott, Costello In Hilarious New M-G-M Attraction

When Abbott and Costello get "Lost in a Harem" in a small kingdom in the mystic East, you have the ingredients for top-notch comedy. And when you add beautiful Marilyn Maxwell, sure-fire screen newcomer John Conte of radio fame, and Jimmy Dorsey and his orchestra, you have a musical comedy that's a real treat for the entire family.

"Lost in a Harem," Abbott and Costello's latest fun-fest, opened yesterday at the Monkland United Theatre, and the house literally rocked with laughter from beginning to end. The new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer film is fast and furiously funny.

The comedians play a couple of prop men who, along with the rest of a touring musical show, get stranded in a small town in the mystic East, Marilyn, as the show's prima donna, gets a singing job in a local cafe, and Abbott and Costello convince the manager they are a leading comedy team. They get the job, but their act is so bad that it starts a fight and all of the performers are tossed into jail.

They get out with the help of Ramo (Conte), a supposed desert sheik, upon promising that they will help him regain his throne in a small nearby kingdom which has been usurped by Nimativ (Douglas Dumbrille), Ramo's evil uncle. The situations go from hilarious to more and more hilarious as Abbott and Costello, as part of their plan, pose as Hollywood talent scouts to gain the aid of Nimativ's chief wife, who has screen aspirations.

Miss Maxwell is a sheer delight as the young singer and Conte shows great promise in his first full screen role. Dumbrille is tops as the villain and Jimmy Dorsey and his boys provide the music—which is to say that they are right in the groove. Veteran comedy director Charles Riesner was at the helm and has turned in a sparkling job of direction. By all means, see "Lost in a Harem."

From 9904 deaths in Montreal in 1939, 647 were due to TB; 68% of all deaths due to contagious diseases were also the fact of TB.

HANDEL'S MESSIAH

The Messiah, heard in Westmount Park Church was an exceedingly fine performance with the choir, soloists and orchestra showing very great confidence throughout. very good tempo was maintained.

The choir appeared to have been well rehearsed and what is less usual in large choirs was nicely balanced. The precision in singing was marked and the words could be heard without any difficulty. The church has fine acoustical properties for music and was crowded to the doors, extra chairs having to be brought in.

Mr. Scott distinguished himself as conductor and as a singer and much credit is due to him for his sure baton in the leading of his choir and orchestra, also for his outstanding renditions of the famous bass arias.

He has a wonderful voice, flexible, dramatic with much vigour and yet, as in 'But who may abide' and 'For behold darkness', it portrays intense feeling. The dual job he performed showed that he possesses exceptionally fine musicianship

Ethel Bardo-Gardner sang the soprano arias with beautiful tone and intonation. 'Rejoice greatly' was brilliantly executed and with the recitatives were rendered in true Handelian style.

Jacqueline White, who was heard in Montreal for the first time, did some very fine singing in 'He was despised', her deep sonorous voice being heard here to very good effect. 'O Thou that tellest' was sung in grand style and it is hoped that more of her singing will be heard in Montreal.

Mr. Edmund sang well though not his best due no doubt to his very severe cold. 'Comfort Ye' was well done but 'Every valley' was far too timidly rendered. He seemed at his best in 'Thou shalt break them'. Of all the soloists Mr. Edmund seemed to be the least familiar with the Handelian style but in spite of his condition did a fair job.

Star Cast Returns Again For "Sign of The Cross"

Turning back the pages of history almost 2,000 years, the screen unfolded Cecil B. DeMille's "The Sign of the Cross" last night at the Seville United Theatre. The modernized version of the great Paramount spectacle is as awe-inspiring today as it was when first filmed.

The timeliness of the epic drama can be well understood in the light of Hitler's brutal conquest of the weaker European nations. In 64 A.D., too, a dictatorial emperor, Nero, also had designs for world conquest. He fiddled while Rome burned — laughed at the anguish his devilish devices brought upon a persecuted minority, the Christians.

In starring roles are Charles Laughton, as Nero; Frederic March, as Marcus Superbus, prefect of Rome; Claudette Colbert as the wanton Poppaea, wife of the emperor and Elissa Landi, as Mercia, devotee of Christ's principles. The inspirational story depicts the wickedness of Rome and its governors but also tells of the courage of an ever-growing number of Christians who suffer untold outrages rather than give up Christianity.

Marcus meets Mercia for the first time while protecting her aged uncle and friends, followers of Christ, from the ruffians who seek to strike them down. The prefect disperses the mob and sees Mercia safely off. When he visits her later, Marcus finds himself deeply in love with the Christian girl, incurring Poppaea's wrath. The latter persuades Nero to pardon Marcus if the prefect converts Mercia to the Roman way of life. His attempt fails and the Christian band, along with Mercia, is led to the arena where sure death awaits them.

Marcus can contain himself no longer upon seeing his love walk fearlessly ahead and, joining her in the death march, finds that he, too, is imbued with the spirit of Christianity. The final climatic scene brings a heart-warming and spiritual lift to the audience.

Ottawa Stars

Gold Medalists Kay and Eva Lopdell of the Minto Club of Ottawa are again on the ice in vibrant entertainment. These clever performers are among the best for finished pair and trio interpretations with Dorothy O'Brien also from the Minto Club.

A Minto Club quartette in "Cherise" comprised of Andree Choquette, Connie Choquette, Nancy Minnes and Pierette Paquin will please the throngs with many other stars set to twinkle on the 1945 program.

Real surprises from the M.F.S.C. box of tricks, is the delightful promise of repeat performance here of Bronze Medalist and Bar, now seven years old, Sonja Currie and the "Lee Sulphides" Ballet pair, Wilma and Francis Jauch.

Spotlighted also are the Victory Group, Barn Dance Group and the Higgins twins, Mary and Lorraine. "A Touch of Holland" and "Swing Waltz" will not only vary, but brighten the already scintillating proceedings with "Group Get Your Wings" adding to the colourful display.

The 1945 version of "The Ice Frolics" bids fair to surpass all expectations based on last year's entertainment.

"Y" BASKETBALL TRIMS NORTH "Y" FOR CUP HOPES

On Thursday night the local 'Y' Intermediate Basketball team defeated the North Branch team on the Westmount floor by a score of 43-12. It was the first of a two-game, total point, home and home series. The winner of this plays the winner of the South-western-Central series, for the cup, which was won by the Westmount team last year.

In the first half the west-enders displayed a wonderful zone defence, holding the visitors down to 4 points, while netting 25 points for their own cause, Dudley and Putnam leading the way with 9 and 8 points respectively.

In the latter half of the game the North Branchers found the range for 8 points but failed to keep pace with the Westmount squad whose accuracy was too great, sinking 9 baskets to bring the final score to 43-12.

Moore and Maguire divided the scoring honors of the North Branch team, each netting 6 points.

North Branch (12): Varnas, Karibbean, Destonis, Moore 6, Maguire 6, Egan, Mitchell, MacGregor.

Westmount Branch (43): Young 6, Greenbaum 3, Dudley 17, Siemers 7, Putnam 8, MacLeod 2.

The Westmount 'Y' Badminton Club entertained the "N.D.G." 'Y' Badminton Club recently. Following the match, which was played on the Intermediate High School Gymnasium, a social hour was held at the "Y" building.

Rover Sea Scouts Plan Summer Training Cruise

The oldest Rover Sea Scout Ship's Company in Canada, the Royal St. Lawrence, are again commencing their summer training at the Yacht Club on Lake St. Louis.

This crew has had an outstanding record by supplying nearly 100 boys to the Navy, many of them Officers. The winter session is just ended, and the forthcoming season looked forward to with anticipation is expected to be as active as ever.

The crew was started in 1903, and after several years of slow progress it prospered and won the Clouston Cup for Lifesaving and the Strathcona Cup for Racing more than once.

Their large yawl "Jellicoe" which holds the biggest cruising record for Sea Scouts in the world is now privately owned and cruising activities have been curtailed.

During the winter months, extensive training has featured the Rover's Thursday night meetings. This training which is simplified for new members and more advanced for older hands, consists of seamanship, signalling, theoretical sailing, rope work, shanty singing and naval drill.

The most important change of the year is the unit has been fortunate to obtain the services of Mr. M. T. Thomas who became Skipper in January, replacing Mr. Thurston D. Archibald, now Field Secretary of Sea Scouts. Mr. Thomas has had a great deal of sailing experience in both Canada and the U.S.A. At present he is the owner of the well known ketch "Grampus", and has promised that much cruising will be in store for the Ship's Company this summer.

Able assisting in the quarter-deck duties, is Mate Douglas Scythes, the executive officer, who has been attached to the unit since 1940. Three new cox'n's attended the special training course at headquarters, and passed with flying colours. At the annual parents' night held for all friends of the Sea Scouts, the crew conducted themselves in true naval manner.

Sub-Lt. Roger Hutchins, the ex-mate, was on hand and seemed very pleased with his old outfit. The first A.B. badge of the new system was formally presented to Cox'n Bob Scythes by Mr. F. T. Gneadinger. This was the first badge of its kind to be gained in the city. Today the old traditional joint meeting between Juniors and Seniors is to be held.

This muster is specially planned to let the Junior Sea Scouts of 12 to 15 years of age see what their older brothers are doing and how it is done. The Seniors will carry out their original program with the exception that an instructive movie on seamanship will be shown.

Officers and men are hoping to launch their whaler, "James Caird", in three weeks time. During this period the good boat must be scraped down and sandpapered; the sweeps and masts varnished and the entire rigging checked over for wear.

This work is all done by the boys themselves under the careful supervision of Mate Doug Scythes and Bos'n Ronald Macdonald. Although such strenuous labour may seem difficult to landsmen, the Sea Scouts turn out in large numbers and enjoy themselves immensely. This spring outfitting means much valuable practical experience is gained.

Mr. Scythes has arranged numerous week-end cruises around Lake St. Louis and the Lake of Two Mountains, but the big summer affair will be Mr. Thomas' triangular run of Montreal, Ottawa and Kingston.

The date of this cruise has not as yet been set but all are eagerly looking forward to it. Much sailing is to be done aboard the "James Caird" which provides thrills galore. This is an extremely sturdy vessel of which the Mate and Bos'n could spin many a yarn.

The last muster of the year will be held at 8 bells in the Roslyn School Gymnasium, on Thursday evening, the nineteenth of April, at which time all unfinished business will be attended to. As is the custom of this last meeting, the Rovers heartily welcome anyone interested to come aboard and spend the evening.

Will Present Hockey League Trophies Won

The presentation of trophies and crests won during the season in the Westmount Municipal Hockey League will take place on Wednesday evening, April 18th, at the Victoria Hall. This date is definite, it had been originally planned to hold this event on April 17th, but due to a previous booking at the hall the date was set back one day.

As in previous years, entertainment will be provided for a large part of the evening with the presentation of awards closing out the event.

Rev. D. H. MacVicar of Chalmers United Church, Verdun, will conduct the morning service on Sunday next.

At the evening service Mr. Goth will discuss a recent best seller, "Two Solitudes," by a new Canadian author. This book awaited eagerly by the Canadian public, deals with the problem of Canadian unity. It is a book about Quebec—the French and the English and the problems of what keeps them apart.

Dr. C. E. Silcox in a recent pamphlet comes to the conclusion that there is an irreconcilable conflict between the French and the English. Is he right? What we talk about religious differences between these two peoples may it not be that we are confusing religion with denominationalism? Might it not be that if we went deeper religiously we could arrive at a basis of unity. This sermon will approach Canada's foremost problem from the Christian angle.

The Red Cross will meet on Monday at 1 p.m. and on Wednesday at 10 a.m. The Mid-week Service will be held on Wednesday at 8 p.m.

Anniversary Services will be held on Sunday, April 15th, with Rev. F. W. Norwood, D.D., as guest preacher.

Abrasive-proof Wood finishes

The words "scratchproof, moth-proof, stainproof, fireproof, water-proof, shrinkproof" are used more than liberally in describing materials now being promised by manufacturers for the post-war trade.

The housewife, 'tis said, may have abrasive-proof furniture finishes. In the manufacture of wool fabrics, chemicals will be used that will prevent shrinkage and that will increase the wearing quality of cottons.

Canada to help Indian training

Plans are being revised for the transfer of part of India's credit to Britain of £1,000,000 sterling to the U.S. and Canada for the purchase of capital machinery and the training of Indian students in scientific and industrial research, Dr. Nazir Ahmad, member of the Imperial Council of Agricultural Research in India, disclosed in Montreal.

Dr. Ahmad, one of the seven-member scientific mission from India recently touring Britain, the U.S. and Canada, said the proposed transfer was part of the program for post-war industrial expansion in India.

SOFTBALL LOOP SLATE MEETING TO ORGANIZE

The senior section of the Westmount Municipal Softball League will hold an organization meeting this Monday evening at the Victoria Hall. All teams which participated in the loop last year, and new ones that have made an application this season, have been notified to send at least one representative to this gathering which will commence business at eight p.m.

One newcomer to the league will be an air force team from the St. Hubert station. Sgt. Al Goodis who made the application on behalf of the St. Hubert club, claims that the South Shore outfit will field a strong aggregation.

New Senior Players
It is expected that between 10 or 12 clubs will face the barrier on May 14th when the loop inaugural is slated to be held. It is not certain yet as to whether there will be one or two civilian clubs but invitations to attend the meeting have been sent to both Art Mann, manager of the Dodgers, and Ozzie Dalzell, who had hopes of entering the Royals. There should be lots of material available this year as many of last year's juniors are now over-age and ripe for the senior circuit.

Cycling Trips

Cycling is being planned with a view to taking in week-end tours, now that highways are all clear of ice and snow and the urge to get out into the country is constantly present amongst the senior boys and N.C.O's. This Saturday, a trip will go out to Woodlands, to get broken into the art of cycling before launching longer trips.

WESTMOUNT HIGH LIGHTS

By GEORGE COCHRANE

More than half a century ago a little bundle descended from heaven and settled in a little town just outside Glasgo, Scotland. The little bundle soon became a big bundle and was trundled off to Glasgow's famous board schools. Glasgow University next welcomed him. While there he began a teachers' training course under the auspices of the Scottish Educational Department.

His hard work was rewarded when he graduated with a Master of Arts degree, replete with honors in moral philosophy, logic and metaphysics. Four more years of training followed and then he graduated again as a fully qualified teacher with a first class teacher's diploma and special recognition in music and physical training.

Next came seven years of elementary school teaching in Glasgow and then our hero crossed the Atlantic, arriving in Canada in December, 1912. The next month he was teaching in the old Westmount Academy, WHS's predecessor, when the late Walter Chalk was principal.

When the academy made way for the high school, now the junior high, he taught there, specializing in history.

He has held numerous positions in teachers' organizations, edited the Provincial Association of Protestant Teachers' magazine for four years and has been very active in the Westmount High Old Boys' Association. In school and out his geniality, wit, sense of humor, gift for friendship and generosity have won him hosts of devoted cronies.

And now, after more than 30 years of service to the youth of Westmount, that man is retiring at the end of this school year. Losing him will be a serious blow to Westmount High. The best wishes of all his pupils are his as he prepares for a well-deserved rest.

The name? John Anderson, one of the men who made Westmount High the school it is.

P & W REVUE

With opening night set for next Thursday at Victoria Hall, the entire cast of the 1945 edition of the Purple and White Revue are entering the final lap with an abundance of confidence. They've been rehearsing every morning this week and tonight they'll run through the whole show at the junior high auditorium.

A new act, expected to send the audience into convulsions, rehearsed for the first time under the direction of the ever-directing Joan P. Radley last Friday.

Eric Swaine, Nee Nee Stewart, Bob Overing, Fred "Tarzan" Ronney, Dave Johnson and others of their ilk, will be displaying their hairy torsos and already Big Eric, who claimed after the initial practice that he had never expended so much energy in such a short while for such a lovely instructress, is boasting that the male chorus will put the femmes' nattily attired line to shame.

The gals' strutted their stuff in costume for the first time on Wednesday but as we were up at Kingston at the time, we had to ask Joe Duffin for a description of the peachey clothing they'll be wearing.

"Well," replied Joseph, "I can assure one and all that the femmes will look real sharp. The costumes are of high grade material. To that Bernard Schacter will testify. They're two piece. Bare midriff. The bottom half is purple and the top quarter is white."

"But, Joe," we interrupted, "that only accounts for three quarters!"

"I know," replied portly Joseph.

Scoop: Principal R. O. Bartlett dropped into the rehearsal Friday and expressed his approval of the chorus's manoeuvrings. "When they get on their costumes," he said, "they'll look mighty fine."

HI-Y

Back in the garden suburb after spending three days in the little city of Kingston, where he went to attend the annual Quebec and eastern Ontario Hi-Y conference, your correspondent wishes to report that the weather and scenery of the burg were to his liking and that one and all had a good time at the conference.

Banquets, discussions, speeches and recreation were the four staples of the affair. Also from the Westmount Hi-Y were John Oliver, Leonard Beaton, Wolf Sie-mers, George Rentlyn and Chuck Kennedy.

The boys' club, in deference to the P & W Revue, won't be meeting next week. Their next get-together is scheduled for April 19, when they'll elect next year's executive. They'll finish off the year on April 26, when the new executive will be inducted and reports for the year will be given.

Gal Hi-Y'ers have their minds on two things just now. One is the election of next year's executive, which will come off next week, and the other is their annual spring Sadie Hawkins, scheduled to be held at the WHS gym two weeks from tonight. The Westernaires have been signed for the event and Sheila Taylor, who was in charge of the fall Sadie, is again the big boss.

Incidentally, Bill Macdonald, who claims that it is frequently difficult to find his phone number in the directory, wants it known that he'll be sitting beside Mr.

Bell's invention from seven to nine every evening. The number is DE. 9709.

ITEMS

Bill Macdonald running around looking after Hobby Show dance arrangements. The event is scheduled for WHS three weeks hence . . . Cherubic Leonard Beaton, president of the newly formed young Progressive-Conservative Association of the constituency and proud of it. Bud Emo, whom the young PC's are grooming for the premiership of Quebec, is vice-president but he was too busy taking down storm windows last week to attend the last meeting. At present, everyone in the club is chairman of a committee. Next Saturday, president Beaton hopes to swell the membership to 50 when Tracy S. Ludington will address an afternoon session. The Gazette's Ron Marsh is also interested in the project . . . Boy Scouts Samuel Freedman and Lawrence Hutchison performed another good deed last week when they inflated the deflated tires of a certain staff member's car . . . Chippy Batshaw and Natalie Fochs tongue-wagged 10ga to the inter-class debating championships . . . Hobby Show's closing exercises will be held at the tomorrow night.

Big Tom Earle, Henry Blake, ney and Bob Grant returned after a short stay at Burlington, Vt. yesterday. The radio station down their auditioned large Thomas, who was 18 Wednesday, for an announcing job.

PAUL M. EARTLY

Final tribute was paid to Paul M. Eartly, who died at his late residence, 333 Kensington Avenue at the age of 61. He was the husband of the former Bianca M. Reisman, who survives him.

Born and educated in Czechoslovakia, he held a doctorate in law from Vienna University and was for many years attached to the Assurance Generale de Trieste in Brussels as assistant manager. On his arrival in Montreal in 1939, he became assistant general manager for the United Provinces Insurance Company. Besides his wife, he leaves as survivors, five children, Heidi and Frank.

The Rev. Gerald Fee conducted the services, and interment was in Mount Royal Cemetery.
